²⁷The inner courtyard had a gate toward the south; and he measured from gate to gate toward the south, a hundred cubits.

²⁸Then the man (angel) brought me to the inner courtyard by the south gate; and he measured the south gate according to those same measurements.

²⁹Its guardrooms also, its side pillars and its porches measured the same as the others. And the gate and its porches had windows all around; the length was fifty cubits and the width was twenty-five cubits.

³¹Its porches faced the outer courtyard; and palm tree decorations were [carved] on its side pillars, and its stairway had eight steps.

³²He brought me into the inner courtyard toward the east, and he measured the gate; it measured the same as the others.

³³Its guardrooms also, its side pillars and its porches measured the same as the others. The gate and its porches had windows all around; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

³⁴Its porches faced the outer courtyard; and palm tree decorations were [carved] on either side of its side pillars, and its stairway had eight steps.

³⁵Then he brought me to the north gate and he measured it; the measurements were the same as those of the other gates, ³⁶with its guardrooms, its side pillars, its porches; and the gate had windows all around. The length was fifty cubits and the width was twenty-five cubits.

³⁷Its side pillars faced the outer courtyard, and palm tree decorations were [carved] on them on either side. And its stairway had eight steps.

³⁸A chamber with its doorway was by the side pillars of the gates; there the burnt offering was to be washed.

³⁹In the porch (portico) of the gate were two tables on each side, on which to slaughter the burnt offering, the sin offering and the guilt offering.

⁴⁰On the outer side, as one went up to the gateway toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side of the porch of the gate were two tables.

⁴¹Four tables were on each side next to the gate; [a total of] eight tables on which they slaughter sacrifices.

⁴²Moreover, there were four tables of hewn stone (ashlar) for the burnt offering, a cubit and a half long, a cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high, on which they lay the instruments with which they slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

⁴³The double hooks, one hand width in length were installed in the house all around. The meat of the offering was [to be placed] on the tables.

⁴⁴From the outside to the inner gate were chambers for the singers in the inner courtyard, one of which was beside the north gate, with its front toward the south, and one beside the south gate facing toward the north.

⁴⁵He [who was guiding me] said to me, “This is the chamber which faces toward the south; it is for the priests who have the responsibility and take care of the temple;

⁴⁶but the chamber which faces toward the north is for the priests who have the responsibility and take care of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, who [alone] from the sons of Levi come near to the LORD to minister to Him.”

⁴⁷He measured the courtyard, a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits wide, a perfect square; and the altar was in front of the temple.

⁴⁸Then he brought me to the porch of the temple, and he measured each side pillar of the porch, five cubits on each side; and the width of the gate was three cubits on each side.

⁴⁹The length of the porch was twenty cubits and the width eleven cubits; and at the stairway by which it was ascended, there were [two] columns beside the side pillars, one on each side [of the entrance].

41 THEN HE (the angel) brought me to the nave (outer sanctuary) and measured the side pillars; six cubits wide on each side was the width of the side pillar.

²The width of the entrance was ten cubits and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on each side; and he measured its length, forty cubits, and its width, twenty cubits.

³Then he went inside [the inner sanctuary] and measured each side pillar of the doorway, two cubits, and the doorway, six cubits [high], and the width of the doorway, seven cubits. [Heb 9:6, 7; 10:19–25]

⁴He measured the length [of the interior of the inner sanctuary], twenty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits, opposite the nave (outer sanctuary); and he said to me, “This is the Most Holy Place.”

⁵Then he measured the wall of the temple, six cubits [thick, to accommodate side chambers]; and the width of every side chamber, four cubits, all around the temple on every side.

⁶The side chambers were three stories [high], one above another, and thirty chambers in each story; and the side chambers extended to the wall which stood on their inward side all around, so that they would be attached, but not attached to the wall of the temple itself.

⁷The side chambers became wider at each successive level as they encompassed the temple. Because the structure surrounding the temple went higher by stages on all sides of the temple, for that reason the width of the temple increased as it went higher; and thus one went up from the lowest story to the highest one by way of the second story.

⁸I also saw that the temple (house) had a raised platform all around it; the foundations of the side chambers measured a full rod of six long cubits in height.

⁹The thickness of the outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits. But the free space between the side chambers belonging to the temple

¹⁰and the outer chambers was a width of twenty cubits all around the temple on every side.

¹¹The doorways of the side chambers toward the free space were one doorway toward the north and another doorway toward the south; and the width of the free space was five cubits all around.

¹²The building that was in front of the separate area on the side toward the west was seventy cubits wide; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length was ninety cubits.

¹³Then he measured the temple, a hundred cubits long; the separate area and the building with its walls were also a hundred cubits long.

¹⁴Also the width of the front of the temple and the separate areas along the east side totaled a hundred cubits.

¹⁵He (the angel) measured the length of the building along the front of the separate area behind it, with a gallery on each side, a hundred cubits; he also measured the inner sanctuary and the porches (porticoes) of the courtyard.

¹⁶The thresholds, the latticed windows, and the galleries all around their three stories, opposite the threshold, were paneled with wood all around, and from the ground to the windows (but the windows were covered),

¹⁷over the entrance, and to the inner room, and on the outside, and on all the wall all around inside and outside, by measurement.

¹⁸It was carved with [figures of] cherubim and palm trees; so that a palm decoration was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces, ¹⁹so that the face of a man was toward the palm decoration on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm decoration on the other side. It was carved [this way] on the entire house (temple) all around.

²⁰From the floor to [the space] above the entrance cherubim and palm decorations were carved, and also on the wall of the nave [the Holy Place].

²¹The doorposts of the nave were square; as for the front of the sanctuary, the appearance of one doorpost was like that of the other.

²²The altar was of wood, three cubits high and two cubits long; and its corners, its base, and its sides were wood. And he said to me, "This is the table that is before the LORD."

²³The nave (Holy Place) and the sanctuary (Holy of Holies) each had a double door.

²⁴Each of the doors had two leaves, two swinging (folding) leaves; two leaves for the one door and two leaves for the other.

²⁵And there were carved on them, on the doors of the nave, cherubim and palm decorations like those carved on the walls; and there was a threshold of wood on the front of the porch outside.

42 THEN HE (the angel) brought me out into the outer courtyard, toward the north; and he led me to the [attached] chamber which was opposite the separate area and opposite the building to the north.

²Along the length, one hundred cubits, was the north door; and the width was fifty cubits.

⁴In front of the [attached] chambers was an inner walkway ten cubits wide and one hundred cubits long; and their entrances were on the north.

⁵Now the upper chambers were smaller because the galleries took away more space from them than from the chambers on the lower and middle stories of the building;

⁶for they were in three stories and did not have pillars like the pillars of the [outer] courtyards; therefore the upper chambers were set back from the ground more than the lower and the middle ones.

⁷And the outer wall, by the side of the chambers, toward the outer courtyard facing the chambers, was fifty cubits long.

⁸For the length of the chambers which were in the outer courtyard was fifty cubits, while the length of those facing the temple was a hundred cubits.

⁹Below these chambers was the entrance on the east side, as one enters them from the outer courtyard.

¹⁰In the width of the wall of the courtyard toward the east, facing the separate area and facing the building, were chambers;

¹¹and a passage in front of them was like the appearance of the [attached] chambers on the north, and they had the same length and width, and all their exits were like both their arrangements and their entrances.

¹²And like the entrances of the chambers that were toward the south there was an entrance at the head of the walkway, the walkway in front of the dividing wall toward the east, as one enters them.

¹³Then he (the angel) said to me, “The north chambers and the south chambers, which are opposite the separate area, are the holy chambers where the priests who are close to the LORD shall eat the most holy offerings. There they shall place the most holy things—the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering—for the place is holy.

¹⁴“When the priests enter [the Holy Place], they shall not go out from the sanctuary into the outer court unless they lay there their garments in which they minister, for these are holy (set apart). They shall put on other garments before they approach that which is for the people.”

¹⁵Now when he had finished measuring the inner temple, he brought me out toward the gate which faced east and measured the outer area all around.

¹⁶He measured the east side with the measuring rod, five hundred rods by the measuring rod.

¹⁷He measured the north side, five hundred rods by the measuring rod.

¹⁸He measured the south side, five hundred rods by the measuring rod.

²⁰He measured it on the four sides; it had a wall all around, the length five hundred and the width five hundred, to make a separation between that which was holy [the temple proper] and that which was common [the outer area].

43 THEN HE (the angel) led me to the gate, the gate that faces toward the east.

²And behold, the glory and brilliance of the God of Israel was coming from the way of the east; and His voice was like the sound of many waters, and the earth shone with His glory. [Rev 1:15; 14:2]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Live To Glorify God

Ezekiel spoke often about the glory of God, but do we understand what God's glory is? Glory is the manifestation of all the excellence of God, and we glorify Him when we become excellent people, with excellent character, living excellent lives. God has called us by and to His own excellence and glory (see 2 Pet. 1:3). This means that we are to manifest His character as we go through life. I believe an excellent life begins with forming a habit of thinking excellent thoughts.

To be an excellent person, we make the decision to do the best we can do in every situation. We think our best, speak our best, have the best attitude we can have, do the best job we can do, and treat people the absolute best that we can. To compromise means to go a little bit below what we know to be the best, and we should not compromise in any area of life.

People who compromise are never fully satisfied with their lives. They know deep in their heart that they are not the best they can be, and it causes a dissatisfaction that nothing can alter except making a decision to change with God's help.

Ask the Lord to help you be excellent in all your ways. Be excellent in little and big things, be excellent when people are watching and when nobody is watching, be excellent for the glory of God!

³And it was like the appearance of the vision which I saw, like the vision I saw when He came to destroy the city. And the visions were like the vision I saw beside the River Chebar [near Babylon]; and I fell face downward. [Ezek 1:4; 3:23; 10:15, 22]

⁴And the glory and brilliance of the LORD entered the temple by way of the gate facing toward the east.

⁵Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner courtyard; and behold, the glory and brilliance of the LORD filled the temple.

⁶And I heard One speaking to me from the temple, while a man was standing beside me.

⁷And He [the LORD] said to me, “Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place of the soles of My feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the sons (descendants) of Israel forever. And the house of Israel will not again defile My holy name, neither they nor their kings, by their [idolatrous] prostitution and by the corpses and monuments of their kings in their graves, ⁸by setting their threshold by My threshold and their doorpost beside My doorpost, with [only] the wall between Me and them. They have defiled and desecrated My holy name by the vile atrocities which they have committed. So I have consumed them in My anger.

¹⁰“As for you, son of man, describe the temple to the house of Israel, so that they will be ashamed of their sins; and let them measure its plan [in detail].

¹¹“If they are ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the design of the temple (house), its layout, its exits, its entrances, all its designs, all its statutes, and all its laws. And write it down in their sight, so that they may keep its whole design and all its statutes and do them.

¹⁵“The altar hearth shall be four cubits high, and from the altar hearth shall extend upwards four horns [one from each corner, each one cubit high].

¹⁶“Now the altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve wide, square in its four sides.

¹⁸And He [the LORD] said to me, “Son of man, thus says the Lord GOD, ‘These are the statutes and regulations for [the use of] the altar on the day that it is built, to offer burnt offerings on it and to sprinkle blood on it.

²³‘When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without blemish and a ram from the flock without blemish.

²⁶‘For seven days they shall make atonement for the altar and purify it; so the priests shall consecrate it [to receive offerings]. [Ex 29:37]

²⁷‘When they have completed these days, on the eighth day and from then onward, the priests shall offer your burnt offerings on the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you,' says the Lord GOD." [Rom 12:1; 1 Pet 2:5] 44 THEN HE brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which faces the east; and it was shut.

²Then the LORD said to me, "This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, and no one shall enter by it, for the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered by it; therefore it shall be shut.

⁴Then He brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the house; I looked, and behold, the glory and brilliance of the LORD filled the house of the LORD, and I fell face downward. [Rev 15:8]

⁵The LORD said to me, "Son of man, pay careful attention, see with your eyes and hear with your ears all that I say to you concerning all the statutes of the house of the LORD and all its laws; and pay careful attention to the entering of the house [by people], with all the departures from the sanctuary [of people, those who are allowed to enter the temple and all those who are excluded from the sanctuary].

⁶"You shall say to the rebellious ones, to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD, "Enough of all your repulsive acts, O house of Israel!

⁷"In that you brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary to pollute and profane it—My house—when you offered My bread, the fat, and the blood; and they made My covenant void—this in addition to all your other repulsive acts.

8“And you have not kept charge of My holy things yourselves, but you have chosen foreigners [to please yourselves] and have set them in charge of My sanctuary.”

9“Thus says the Lord GOD, “No foreigner uncircumcised in heart and flesh, of all the foreigners who are among the sons of Israel, shall enter My sanctuary.

10“But the Levites who went far away from Me when Israel went astray, who went astray from Me after their idols, they shall bear the punishment for their sin and guilt.

11“Yet they shall minister in My sanctuary, having oversight [as guards] at the gates of the temple and ministering in the temple. They shall slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them.

12“Because the priests ministered to them before their idols and became a stumbling block of sin to the house of Israel, therefore I have lifted up My hand and have sworn [an oath] against them,” says the Lord GOD, “that they shall bear the punishment for their sin and guilt.

13“And they shall not come near to Me to serve as priests to Me, nor come near to any of My holy things, to the things that are most holy; but they shall bear their shame and their disgrace and [the consequences of] their repulsive acts which they have committed.

14“Yet I will appoint them as caretakers of the temple, for all its service and for all that shall be done in it.

15“But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who performed the duty of My sanctuary when the children (descendants) of Israel went astray from Me, shall come near to Me to minister to Me; and they shall stand before Me to offer to Me the fat and the blood,” declares the Lord GOD.

¹⁶“They shall enter into My sanctuary; and they shall come near to My table to minister to Me and they shall perform [the priestly] duty to me.

¹⁹“When they go out into the outer court, into the outer courtyard to the people, they shall take off the garments in which they have been ministering and leave them in the holy chambers; then they shall put on other clothing so that they will not transmit holiness to the people with their [ceremonial] garments.

²¹“Nor shall any priest drink wine when he enters the inner courtyard.

²²“And they shall not marry a widow or a divorced woman; but they shall marry virgins of the descendants of the house of Israel, or a widow who was previously married to a priest.

²³“The priests shall teach My people the difference between the holy and the common, and teach them to distinguish between the (ceremonially) unclean and the clean.

²⁴“In a controversy they shall take their stand to act as judges; they shall judge it in accordance with My ordinances. They shall also keep My laws and My statutes in all My appointed feasts and sanctify My Sabbaths.

²⁵“They shall not go to a dead person to defile themselves; except for father or for mother, for son or for daughter, for brother or for sister who has had no husband; they may defile themselves. [Lev 21:1, 2]

²⁶“After he is cleansed [from the defilement of a corpse], seven days more shall elapse for him [before returning to the temple].

²⁸“It [their ministry to Me] shall be as an inheritance to them, for I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no property (land) in Israel, for I am their possession. [Josh 13:14, 33]

³⁰“The first of all the first fruits of every kind, and every contribution and offering of every kind, from all your contributions and offerings, shall belong to the priests. You shall also give to the priest the first of your coarse meal and bread dough, so that a blessing may rest on your house.

³¹“The priests shall not eat any bird or animal that has died a natural death or has been torn to pieces.

45 “MOREOVER, WHEN you divide the land by lot for inheritance, you shall [set apart and] offer an allotment (contribution) to the LORD, a holy portion of the land [to be used for sacred purposes]. The length shall be 25,000 cubits, and the width shall be 20,000 cubits. It shall be holy (set apart for sacred use) within its every area. [Ezek 48:9, 12, 13] ²“Of this there shall be a square plot five hundred by five hundred cubits in perimeter for the holy place, and fifty cubits for the open space around it.

⁴“It shall be the holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to the LORD, and it shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary.

⁵“And another portion of land 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide shall be for the Levites, the ministers of the temple (house), and they shall possess it as a place in which to live.

⁶“You shall give the city possession of an area 5,000 cubits wide and 25,000 cubits long, alongside the portion set aside as a holy section. It shall belong to the whole house of Israel.

⁷“The prince shall have land on either side of the portion set aside as a holy section and the property of the city, adjacent to the holy section and the property of the city, on the west side toward the west and on the east side toward the east, and in length comparable to one of the portions, from the west border to the east border.

¹⁰“You shall have just balances and weights [on your scales and just measures], a just ephah [dry volume measure] and a just bath [liquid measure].

¹³“This is the offering that you shall offer: a sixth of an ephah from a homer of wheat; a sixth of an ephah from a homer of barley;

¹⁴and the prescribed portion of oil, (namely, the bath of oil), a tenth part of a bath [of oil] from each kor (which is ten baths or a homer, for ten baths make a homer);

¹⁵and [you shall offer] one sheep out of every flock of two hundred from the watering places of Israel—for a grain offering, for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings to make atonement for [those who brought] them,” says the Lord GOD.

¹⁶“All the people of the land shall give to this offering for the prince in Israel.

¹⁷“It shall be the prince’s responsibility to provide the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the drink offerings at the feasts, on the New Moons and on the Sabbaths, at all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel. He shall prepare and provide the sin offering, the grain offering, the burnt offering and the peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.”

²⁰“You shall do this on the seventh [day] of the month for everyone who goes astray [and sins through error or ignorance] and for him who is naive; so shall you make atonement for the temple (house).

²¹“In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.

²³“And for the seven days of the feast he shall provide as a burnt offering to the LORD seven bulls and seven rams without blemish on every day for the seven days, and a male goat daily for a sin offering.

46 ‘THUS SAYS the Lord GOD, “The gate of the inner courtyard that faces east shall be shut during the six working days, but it shall be opened on the Sabbath day and opened on the day of the New Moon.

²“The prince shall enter by the porch (portico) of the gate from outside and stand by the post of the gate. The priests shall prepare and provide his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate and then go out; but the gate shall not be shut until evening.

³“The people of the land shall also worship at the entrance of that gate before the LORD on the Sabbaths and on the New Moons.

⁴“The burnt offering which the prince shall offer to the LORD on the Sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish.

6“On the day of the New Moon he shall offer a young bull without blemish, also six lambs and a ram, without blemish.

7“And he shall provide a grain offering, an ephah with the bull and an ephah with the ram, and with the lambs as much as he is able, and a hin of oil with an ephah.

8“When the prince enters, he shall enter by way of the porch of the gate and go out by the same way.

9“But when the people of the land come before the LORD at the appointed feasts, he who enters by way of the north gate to worship shall go out by way of the south gate. And he who enters by way of the south gate shall go out by way of the north gate. No one shall return by way of the gate through which he entered, but shall go out straight ahead [through the opposite gate]. [Phil 3:13] 10“When they go in, the prince shall go in among them; and when they go out, he shall go out.

11“At the feasts and the appointed festivals the grain offering shall be an ephah with a bull and an ephah with a ram, and with the lambs as much as one is able to give, and a hin of oil with an ephah.

12“When the prince provides a freewill offering, a burnt offering, or peace offerings voluntarily to the LORD, the gate that faces east shall be opened for him, and he shall provide his burnt offering and his peace offerings as he does on the Sabbath day. Then he shall go out, and after he goes out the gate shall be shut.

13“And you [priests] shall provide a lamb a year old without blemish as a burnt offering to the LORD each day; morning by morning you shall provide it.

¹⁴“Also you shall provide a grain offering with it morning by morning, one-sixth of an ephah with one-third of a hin of oil to sprinkle on the finely-milled flour. This is a perpetual ordinance for a continual grain offering to the LORD.

¹⁵“Thus they shall provide the lamb, the grain offering and the oil every morning as a continual burnt offering.”

¹⁶“Thus says the Lord GOD, “If the prince gives a gift to any of his sons from his inheritance, it shall belong to his sons [permanently]; it is their possession by inheritance.

¹⁹Then he [my guide] brought me through the entrance, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers for the priests, which faced the north; and behold, a place was there at their extreme westward end.

²⁰He said to me, “This is the place where the priests shall boil (cook) the guilt offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the grain offering, so that they do not bring them out into the outer courtyard to transmit holiness to the people.”

²¹Then he brought me out into the outer courtyard and led me across to the four corners of the courtyard; and behold, in every corner of the courtyard there was a small courtyard.

²²In the four corners of the courtyard there were enclosed courtyards, forty cubits long and thirty wide; these four in the corners were the same size.

²⁴Then he said to me, “These are the kitchens of the cooks, where the ministers (Levites) of the temple shall boil (cook) the sacrifices of the people.”

47 THEN HE [my guide] brought me back to the door of the house [the temple of the LORD]; and behold, water was flowing from under the threshold of the house (temple) toward the east, for the front of the temple was facing east. And the water was flowing down from under, from the right side of the house, from south of the altar.

²Then he brought me out by way of the north gate and led me around on the outside to the outer gate by the way of the gate that faces east. And behold, water was spurting out from the south side [of the gate]. [Zech 14:8; Rev 22:1, 2]

³When the man went out toward the east with a measuring line in his hand, he measured a thousand cubits, and he led me through the water, water that was ankle-deep.

⁴Again he measured a thousand [cubits] and led me through the water, water that was knee-deep. Again he measured a thousand [cubits] and led me through the water;

water reaching the hips.

⁵Again he measured a thousand [cubits]; and it was a river that I could not pass through, for the water had risen, enough water to swim in, a river that could not be crossed [by wading].

⁶And he said to me, “Son of man, have you seen this?” Then he brought me back to the bank of the river.

⁷Now when I had returned, behold, on the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other.

⁸Then he said to me, “These waters go out toward the eastern region and go down into the Arabah (the Jordan Valley); then they go toward the sea, being made to flow into the sea, and the waters of the Dead Sea shall be healed and become fresh.

⁹“It will come about that every living creature which swarms in every place where the river goes, will live. And there will be a very great number of fish, because these waters go there so that the waters of the sea are healed and become fresh; so everything will live wherever the river goes.

¹⁰“And it will come about that fishermen will stand beside it [at the banks of the Dead Sea]; from Engedi to Eneglaim there will be dry places to spread nets. Their fish will be of very many kinds, like the fish of the Great [Mediterranean] Sea.

¹¹“But its swamps and marshes will not become fresh [and wholesome for animal life]; they will [as the river subsides] be left encrusted with salt.

¹²“By the river on its bank, on one side and on the other, will grow all kinds of trees for food. Their leaves will not wither and their fruit will not fail. They shall bear every month because their water flows from the sanctuary, and their fruit will be for food and their leaves for healing.” [Rev 22:2] 13 Thus says the Lord GOD, “This shall be the boundary by which you shall divide the land as an inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel; Joseph shall have two portions.

POWERPOINT

From Ezekiel 47:13 to the end of the chapter, the Lord sets boundaries for dividing the land. Geographical boundaries are certainly important, but so are boundaries in our personal lives. Set boundaries concerning your thoughts and words, your finances, balancing work with rest and play, and all other areas of your life. Boundaries protect us from enemies, and we have one enemy (Satan) who wants to tear down our boundaries so we are open to all kinds of attack in our lives. Ask God for guidance in setting healthy boundaries in all areas of your life and be firm in your decisions.

14“You shall divide it as an inheritance, each one equally with the other. I lifted up My hand and swore to give it to your fathers, and this land shall fall to you as an inheritance.

15“And this shall be the boundary of the land on the north side: from the Great [Mediterranean] Sea by way of Hethlon to the entrance of Zedad, 16*Hamath, Berothah, Sibram, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; [as far as] Hazerhatticon, which is on the border of Hauran.*

17“So the boundary will extend from the [Mediterranean] Sea to Hazar-enan at the border of Damascus, and on the north, northward, is the border of Hamath. This is the north side.

18“The east side, from between Hauran, Damascus, Gilead, and the land of Israel, shall be the Jordan; from the north border to the eastern sea you shall measure. This is the east side.

19“The south side, southward, from Tamar [near the Dead Sea] shall extend as far as the waters of Meribath-kadesh, to the Brook of Egypt and to the Great [Mediterranean] Sea. This is the south side toward the south.

20“The west side shall be the Great [Mediterranean] Sea, from the south border to a point opposite Lebo-hamath [north of Mount Hermon]. This is the west side.

21“So you shall divide this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel.

22“You shall divide it by lot as an inheritance among yourselves and among the foreigners who stay among you, who give birth to sons among you. They shall be to you as the native-born [in the country] among the children (descendants) of Israel; they shall be allotted an inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.

²³“In whatever tribe the foreigner resides, there shall you give him his inheritance,” says the Lord GOD.

48 “NOW THESE are the names of the tribes: from the north end, beside the way of Hethlon to Lebo-hamath, as far as Hazar-enan, which is on the northern border of Damascus, beside Hamath, and running from the east to the west, Dan, one portion.

⁸“And beside the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, shall be the allotment and contribution of land which you shall set apart and offer, 25,000 cubits in width, and in length like one of the [tribal] portions, from the east side to the west side; and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it.

to the LORD shall be 25,000 cubits in length and 10,000 in width.

¹⁰“The holy allotment shall be for these, namely for the priests, toward the north 25,000 cubits in length, and toward the west 10,000 in width, and toward the east 10,000 in width, and toward the south 25,000 in length; and the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the midst of it.

¹¹“It shall be for the priests who are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, who have kept My charge, and who did not go astray when the children (descendants) of Israel went astray as the [other] Levites did.

¹³“Alongside the border of the priests, the [other] Levites shall have 25,000 cubits in length and 10,000 in width. The whole length shall be 25,000 cubits and the width 10,000.

¹⁴“And they shall not sell any of it or exchange it, or allow this choice portion of land to pass to others; for it is holy to the LORD.

¹⁵“The remaining [strip of] 5,000 cubits in width and 25,000 in length shall be for the city’s common (secular) use, for a place in which to live and for open country. The city shall be in the midst of it.

¹⁷“The city shall have open country: toward the north 250 cubits, and toward the south 250, toward the east 250, and toward the west 250.

¹⁸“The remainder of the length alongside the holy allotment shall be 10,000 cubits to the east and 10,000 to the west; and it shall be beside the holy allotment. The produce from it shall be food for the workers of the city.

²²Exclusive of the property of the Levites and of the property of the city, which are in the middle of that which belongs to the prince, everything between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin shall be for the prince.

²⁴“Beside the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon, one portion.

²⁶“Beside the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun, one portion.

28“And beside the border of Gad, at the south side, southward, the border shall extend from Tamar to the waters of Meribath-kadesh, to the Brook [of Egypt], to the Great [Mediterranean] Sea.

29“This is the land which you shall divide by lot among the tribes of Israel as their inheritance, and these are their several portions,” says the Lord GOD.

30“These are the exits of the city: on the north side, [which is to extend] 4,500 cubits by measurement, 31*there shall also be gates of the city, named after the names of the tribes of Israel, three gates toward the north: one gate of Reuben, one gate of Judah, one gate of Levi.*

32“On the east side, 4,500 cubits, also three gates: one gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan.

33“On the south side, 4,500 cubits, by measurement, also three gates: one gate of Simeon, one gate of Issachar, one gate of Zebulun.

34“On the west side, 4,500 cubits, three gates: one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, one gate of Naphtali.

35“The distance around the city shall be 18,000 (4 x 4,500) cubits; and the name of the city from that day [and ever after] shall be, ‘The LORD is There.’” [Rev 21:12, 13, 16]

Daniel

Author: | Daniel

Date: | Late sixth century BC

The book of Daniel tells the story of the young man who shares its name—Daniel. One of the lessons we can learn from Daniel's life is the importance of making good choices. Daniel lived as a Hebrew who was taken to Babylon to live in a foreign, godless culture. Instead of conforming to the Babylonians' ways, Daniel stayed true to his God and to the principles of his faith, even when doing so could have cost him his life.

Let the book of Daniel encourage you to also stand firm for God when people around you do not honor Him or do not respect your faith. Your loyalty to God will have its rewards!

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM DANIEL:

You can rely on God to give you wisdom and the answers to difficult problems (see Daniel 2:23).

No matter what happens, God is able to bring you through to victory. Trust and remain loyal to Him (see Daniel 3:17–18).

Like Daniel, you can have an extraordinary spirit and an attitude of excellence in all you do (see Daniel 5:12).

Be thankful to God in your trouble as you wait expectantly for breakthrough (see Daniel 12:12).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM DANIEL:

Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, for wisdom and power belong to Him. It is He who changes the times and the seasons;... He gives wisdom to the wise and [greater] knowledge to those who have understanding! | Daniel 2:20–21

It is He who reveals the profound and hidden things; He knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with Him. | Daniel 2:22

Then the king was greatly pleased and ordered that Daniel be taken out of the den. So Daniel was taken out of the den, and no injury whatever was found on Him, because he believed in and relied on and trusted in his God. | Daniel 6:23

THE BOOK OF DANIEL

1 IN THE third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it.

²The Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, along with some of the articles of the house of God; and he brought them into the land of Shinar, to the house of his god, and brought the articles into the treasury of his god. [2 Chr 36:5–7; Jer 27:19, 20; Dan 5:1–3]

³And the [Babylonian] king told Ashpenaz, the chief of his *officials, to bring in some of the sons of Israel, including some from the royal family and from the nobles, [2 Kin 20:17, 18]

⁴young men without blemish and handsome in appearance, skillful in all wisdom, endowed with intelligence and discernment, and quick to understand, competent to stand [in the presence of the king] and able to serve in the king's palace. He also ordered Ashpenaz to teach them the literature and language of the Chaldeans.

⁵The king assigned a daily ration for them from his finest food and from the wine which he drank. They were to be educated and nourished this way for three years so that at the end of that time they were [prepared] to enter the king's service.

⁶Among them from the sons of Judah were: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.

⁷The commander of the officials gave them [Babylonian] names: Daniel he named Belteshazzar, Hananiah he named Shadrach, Mishael he named Meshach, and Azariah he named Abed-nego.

⁸But Daniel made up his mind that he would not defile (taint, dishonor) himself with the king's finest food or with the wine which the king drank; so he asked the commander of the officials that he might [be excused so that he would] not defile himself. [Num 6:1-4; 1 Cor 10:21]

Speak God's Word

I have made up my mind that I will not defile or dishonor myself with anything that I know will defile me.

| adapted from DANIEL 1:8 |

⁹Now God granted Daniel favor and compassion in the sight of the commander of the officials,

¹⁰and the commander of the officials said to Daniel, “I am afraid of my lord the king, who has prearranged your food and your drink; for why should he see your faces looking more haggard than the young men who are your own age? Then you would make me forfeit my head to the king.”

¹¹But Daniel said to the overseer whom the commander of the officials had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, ¹²“Please, test your servants for ten days, and let us be given some vegetables to eat and water to drink.

¹³“Then let our appearance and the appearance of the young men who eat the king’s finest food be observed and compared by you, and deal with your servants in accordance with what you see.”

¹⁴So the man listened to them in this matter and tested them for ten days.

¹⁵At the end of ten days it seemed that they were looking better and healthier than all the young men who ate the king's finest food.

¹⁶So the overseer continued to withhold their fine food and the wine they were to drink, and kept giving them vegetables.

¹⁷As for these four young men, God gave them knowledge and skill in all kinds of literature and wisdom; Daniel also understood all kinds of visions and dreams. [Luke 21:15; James 1:5–7]

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Think About What You're Eating

Daniel knew that the first portion of the foods in Nebuchadnezzar's court would have been presented to idols, which is why those foods would have defiled him. Instead of indulging in the king's rich foods and delicacies, Daniel asked to eat vegetables and drink water (see Dan. 1:12).

Just as Daniel did, you and I need to think properly about the food we eat. God gave Adam and Eve very simple dining instructions: "You may freely (unconditionally) eat [the fruit] from every tree of the garden" (Gen. 2:16). He did not tell them to freely eat fast food, frozen pizza, donuts, barbecue, or cake and cookies. God told them to eat from the garden. Even though that was centuries ago, long before processed foods and microwaves, we would do well to follow His advice.

In the United States, we are inundated with faulty dietary information that has clouded the simple truths of healthy eating: Eat a balanced diet rich in foods that come from God, as close as possible to the way God made them. We only create problems when we corrupt our bodies by excessively eating foods produced in laboratories and factories. Our bodies were not designed to receive nutrition in these forms or from chemicals added to them.

Eating a healthy, balanced diet is not difficult. It is actually easy, but common sense is required. It is not reasonable to think one cookie will destroy your health. Equally unreasonable is the thought that you can eat a full dessert twice every day with no consequences. Moderation is the key in all things.

Look for balance on your plate. A variety of color is a good sign that you are getting a nice mix of vitamins and antioxidants. Allow yourself some carbohydrates for energy—preferably whole grains such as brown rice, whole wheat, corn kernels, or beans—but make sure they are balanced by plenty of protein and healthy fat, such as olive oil or avocado.

We need variety and balance in what we eat. Most foods are good for you! Just don't fall into the American habit of relying too heavily on a few. Make sure God's cornucopia crosses your plate each week, and that most of it looks more or less like it did when it came from the farm. Don't eat mindlessly, without giving any thought to what you are eating. Choose wisely what you eat and how much you eat.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord God, I am thankful for the abundance of fruits, vegetables, and healthy foods that You provide in Your creation. Help me to make wise choices about the food I eat. In Jesus' name. Amen.

¹⁸At the end of the time set by the king to bring all the young men in [before him], the commander of the officials presented them to Nebuchadnezzar.

¹⁹The king spoke with them, and among them all not one was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah; so they were [selected and] assigned to stand before the king and enter his personal service.

²⁰In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king consulted them, he found them ten times better than all the [learned] magicians and enchanters (Magi) in his whole realm.

²¹And Daniel remained there until the first year of [the reign of] King Cyrus [over Babylon; now this was at the end of the seventy-year exile of Judah (the Southern Kingdom) in Babylonia, as foretold by Jeremiah]. [Ezra 1:1–3; Jer 25:11, 12; 29:10]

2 IN THE second year (604 B.C.) of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams which troubled and disturbed his spirit and [interfered with] his ability to sleep.

²Then the king gave a command to call the magicians, the enchanters, the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king.

³The king said to them, “I had a dream, and my spirit is troubled and anxious to know the [content and meaning of the] dream.”

⁴Then the Chaldeans said to the king in Aramaic, “O king, live forever! Tell the dream to your servants, and we will declare the interpretation.”

⁵The king replied to the Chaldeans, “My command is firm and unchangeable: if you do not reveal to me the [content of the] dream along with its interpretation, you shall be cut into pieces and your houses shall be made a heap of rubbish.

⁶“But if you tell [me] the [content of the] dream along with its interpretation, you shall receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor. So tell me the dream and its interpretation.”

⁷They answered again, “Let the king tell the dream to his servants, and we will explain its interpretation [to you].”

⁸The king replied, “I know for certain that you are bargaining for time, because you have seen that my command [to you] is firm and irrevocable.

⁹“If you will not reveal to me the [content of the] dream, there is but one sentence for you; for you have [already] prepared lying and corrupt words [and you have agreed together] to speak [them] before me [hoping to delay your execution] until the situation is changed. Therefore, tell me the dream [first], and then I will know [with confidence] that you can give me its interpretation.”

¹⁰The Chaldeans answered the king and said, “There is not a man on earth who can tell the king this matter, for no king, lord or ruler has ever asked such a thing as this of any magician or enchanter or Chaldean.

¹²Because of this the king was indignant and extremely furious and gave a command to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

¹³So the decree went out that the wise men were to be killed; and they looked for Daniel and his companions to put them to death.

¹⁴Then Daniel replied with discretion and wisdom to Arioch, the captain of the king's bodyguard, who had gone out to execute the wise men of Babylon;

¹⁵he said to Arioch, the king's captain, "Why is the decree from the king so harsh and urgent?" Then Arioch explained the matter to Daniel.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord God, blessed be Your name forever and ever, for wisdom and power belong to You. You are the One Who changes the times and the seasons. You remove and establish kings. You give *wisdom to the wise and greater knowledge to those who have understanding. You are the One Who reveals profound and hidden things;

You know what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with You. I thank You, O God, because You have given me wisdom and power.*

• adapted from Daniel 2:20–23

¹⁶So Daniel went in and asked the king to appoint a date and give him time, so that he might reveal to the king the interpretation of the dream.

¹⁷Then Daniel returned to his house and discussed the matter with Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions, ¹⁸in order that they might seek compassion from the God of heaven regarding this secret, so that Daniel and his companions would not be executed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

¹⁹Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night, and Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

²⁰Daniel answered,

“Blessed be the name of God forever and ever,
For wisdom and power belong to Him.

²¹“It is He who changes the times and the seasons;
He removes kings and establishes kings.

He gives wisdom to the wise
And [greater] knowledge to those who have understanding!
[Dan 4:35]

²²“It is He who reveals the profound and hidden things;
He knows what is in the darkness,
And the light dwells with Him. [Job 15:8; Ps 25:14; Matt 6:6]

²³“I thank You and praise You, O God of my fathers,
For You have given me wisdom and power;
Even now You have made known to me what we requested of You,
For You have made known to us [the solution to] the king’s matter.”

²⁴So Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said this to him: “Do not execute the wise men of Babylon! Bring me before the king, and I will reveal to the king the interpretation [of his dream].”

²⁵Then Arioch hurriedly brought Daniel before the king and said this to him: “I have found a man among the exiles of Judah who can explain to the king the interpretation [of the dream].”

²⁶The king said to Daniel, whose [Babylonian] name was Belteshazzar, “Are you able to reveal to me the [content of the] dream which I have seen and its interpretation?”

²⁷Daniel answered the king and said, “Regarding the mystery about which the king has inquired, neither the wise men, enchanters, magicians, nor astrologers are able to answer the king,

²⁸but there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and He has shown King Nebuchadnezzar what will take place in the latter days (end of days). This was your dream and the vision [that appeared] in your mind while on your bed.

²⁹“As for you, O king, as you were lying on your bed thoughts came into your mind about what will take place in the future; and He who reveals secrets has shown you what will occur.

³⁰“But as for me, this secret has not been revealed to me because my wisdom is greater than that of any other living man, but in order to make the interpretation known to the king, and so that you may understand [fully] the thoughts of your mind.

³¹“You, O king, were looking, and behold, [there was] a single great statue; this image, which was large and of unsurpassed splendor, stood before you, and its appearance was awesome and terrifying.

³²“As for this statue, its head was made of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of bronze,

³⁴“As you were looking, a stone was cut out without [human] hands, and it struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and crushed them. [1 Pet 2:3–8]

³⁵“Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were crushed together and became like the chaff from the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away so that not a trace of them could be found. And the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

³⁶“This was the dream; now we will tell the king its interpretation.

³⁷“You, O king, are the king of [earthly] kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, the strength and the glory; [Jer 25:9; 27:6; 28:14]

³⁸and wherever the sons of men dwell, and the beasts of the field, and the birds of the heavens, He has given them into your hand and has made you ruler over them all. You [king of Babylon] are the head of gold.

³⁹“After you will arise another kingdom (Medo-Persia) inferior to you, and then a third kingdom of bronze (Greece under Alexander the Great), which will rule over all the earth.

⁴¹“And as you saw the feet and toes, partly of potter’s clay and partly of iron, it will be a divided kingdom; but there will be in it some of the durability and strength of iron, just as you saw the iron mixed with common clay.

⁴²“As the [ten] toes of the feet were partly of iron and partly of clay, so some of the kingdom will be strong, and another part of it will be brittle.

⁴³“And as you saw the iron mixed with common clay, so they will combine with one another in the seed of men; but they will not merge [for such diverse things or ideologies cannot unite], even as iron does not mix with clay.

⁴⁴“In the days of those [final ten] kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will its sovereignty be left for another people; but it will crush and put an end to all these kingdoms, and it will stand forever. [Dan 7:14–17; Luke 1:31–33; Rev 11:15]

⁴⁵“Just as you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands and that it crushed the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver and the gold, the great God has revealed to the king what will take place in the future; so the dream is true and its interpretation is trustworthy.”

⁴⁶Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell face downward and paid respect to Daniel [as a great prophet of the highest God], and gave orders for an offering and fragrant incense to be presented to him [in honor of his God].

⁴⁷The king answered Daniel and said, “Most certainly your God is the God of gods and the Lord of kings and a revealer of mysteries, since you have been able to reveal this mystery!” [Prov 3:32; Rev 19:16]

⁴⁸Then the king promoted Daniel [to an exalted position] and gave him many great gifts, and he made him ruler over the entire province of Babylon and chief governor over all the wise men of Babylon.

⁴⁹And Daniel made a request of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego over the affairs of the province of Babylon, while Daniel was at the court of the king.

3 NEBUCHADNEZZAR THE king made a gold [-plated] image, whose height [including the pedestal] was sixty cubits (ninety feet) and its width six cubits (nine feet). He set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon.

²Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent word to assemble the satraps, the prefects and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates and lawyers and all the chief officials of the provinces to come to the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

³Then the satraps, the prefects, the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates and lawyers, and all the chief officials of the provinces gathered together for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up; and they stood before it.

⁴Then the herald loudly proclaimed, “You are commanded, O peoples, nations, and speakers of every language, ⁵that at the moment you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon (four-stringed harp), dulcimer, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, you are to fall down and worship the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up.

⁶“Whoever does not fall down and worship shall immediately be thrown into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire.”

⁷So when the people heard the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, dulcimer, bagpipe and all kinds of music, all the peoples, nations, and speakers of every language fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

⁸At that time certain Chaldeans came forward and brought [malicious] accusations against the Jews.

⁹They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, “O king, live forever!

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Take a Stand for Righteousness

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego had no idea what would happen to them when they were thrown into the fiery furnace, but they were willing to risk their very lives instead of disobeying God (see Dan. 3:13–17). We need people today who will take a stand for God and who will be bold for righteousness's sake, for what is right according to God's Word.

Many times, people fail to stand up for righteousness because they are afraid of the consequences. They think about whether they will lose their job, lose certain relationships, or even be publicly ridiculed. In situations such as these, when we do not know what the outcome will be, we need to trust God and press forward to do what we believe is right. Even if we are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, God's Word says we are blessed (see Matt. 5:10).

Let us be a people who will put everything on the line and say, "No matter what happens, I will not compromise and do what I know in my heart is wrong. I will obey God, regardless of the consequences, because I love Him and want to glorify Him with my life."

We should have a reverential fear of the Lord and trust Him at all times. It is better to have a good reputation in heaven than it is to compromise our morals in order to have one with people here on earth. Whether you are walking through a situation you do not understand, being tested in some way, or wondering what will happen if you refuse to compromise, put your trust in God. He never fails.

¹¹“Whoever does not fall down and worship shall be thrown into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire.

¹³Then Nebuchadnezzar in a furious rage gave a command to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; and these men were brought before the king.

¹⁴Nebuchadnezzar said to them, “Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the golden image which I have set up?

¹⁵“Now if you are ready, when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, dulcimer, and all kinds of music, to fall down and worship the image which I have made, very good. But if you do not worship, you shall be thrown at once into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire; and what god is there who can rescue you out of my hands?”

¹⁶Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego answered the king, “O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to answer you on this point.

¹⁷“If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to rescue us from the furnace of blazing fire, and He will rescue us from your hand, O king.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

God Is Always with You

Men and women of the Bible made this common decision when encountering difficult or frightening situations: “I will not fear because God is with me.” They did not require advance proof of success or victory; they simply believed they could not fail because God was with them.

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego must have been very frightened at the thought of being thrown into a fiery furnace, but they knew God was with them. When Nebuchadnezzar asked them if any god anywhere could rescue them from such a bad situation (see Dan. 3:15), they said, “our God whom we serve is able to rescue us” (Dan. 3:17).

Later, when Nebuchadnezzar looked into the furnace, he saw not only the three young men who were still alive, but also a fourth man (see Dan. 3:25), who represents the help and presence of God in their midst.

Just as God was with Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and has been with many others through times of fear and crisis, He is with you and me today. We can boldly face whatever circumstances come our way. In our own strength, we do not have what it takes to be victorious, but we do have God, and He is always more than enough. We might like some kind of proof that God is with us, but He challenges us to simply believe that He is (see Matt. 28:20).

I encourage you to be a person of faith; believe with all your heart that God is with you and will never leave you. Meditate on that truth, speak it aloud, and let it become a vital part of your conscious awareness at all times. You can even stop what you are doing several times a day and say, “I will not fear because God is with me.” Let the power of these words energize you to push past your fears.

By speaking out against fear, you defuse its power and render it ineffective against you. Satan is a predator, and fear is a sign of weakness to a predator. Don't give him the satisfaction of thinking he has any influence over you. When you confront fear in this way, you will discover strength you never knew you had, a strength based on the reality that God is with you.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord, help me to remember that no matter what my circumstances are or how tempted I may be to fear, You are always with me. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Speak God's Word

I believe that God is able to rescue me from any trial and that He will rescue me. But if He does not, I will still remain loyal to Him and not turn aside to other gods or look for other sources of strength.

| adapted from DANIEL 3:17-18 |

¹⁸“But even if He does not, let it be known to you, O king, that we are not going to serve your gods or worship the golden image that you have set up!” [Job 13:15; Acts 4:19, 20]

¹⁹Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with fury, and his facial expression changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then he gave a command that the furnace was to be heated seven times hotter than usual.

²⁰He commanded certain strong men in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego and to throw them into the furnace of blazing fire.

²¹Then these [three] men were tied up in their trousers, their coats, their turbans, and their other clothes, and were thrown into the midst of the furnace of blazing fire.

²²Because the king's command was urgent and the furnace was extremely hot, the flame of the fire killed the men who carried up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

²³But these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell into the midst of the furnace of blazing fire still tied up.

²⁴Then Nebuchadnezzar the king [looked and] was astounded, and he jumped up and said to his counselors, "Did we not throw three men who were tied up into the midst of the fire?" They replied to the king, "Certainly, O king."

²⁵He answered, "Look! I see four men untied, walking around in the midst of the fire, and they are not hurt! And the appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods!" [Phil 2:5–8]

²⁶Then Nebuchadnezzar approached the door of the blazing furnace and said, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, servants of the Most High God, come out [of there]! Come here!" Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego came out of the midst of the fire.

²⁷The satraps, the prefects, the governors and the king's counselors gathered around them and saw that in regard to these men the fire had no effect on their bodies—their hair was not singed, their clothes were not scorched or damaged, even the smell of smoke was not on them.

²⁸Nebuchadnezzar responded and said, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who has sent His angel and rescued His servants who believed in, trusted in, and relied on Him! They violated the king's command and surrendered their bodies rather than serve or worship any god except their own God.

²⁹“Therefore I make a decree that any people, nation, or language that speaks anything offensive against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego shall be cut into pieces and their houses be made a heap of rubbish, for there is no other god who is able to save in this way!”

³⁰Then the king caused Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego to prosper in the province of Babylon.

4 NEBUCHADNEZZAR THE king, to all the peoples, nations, and speakers of every language that live in all the earth: “May your peace abound!

POWERPOINT

King Nebuchadnezzar was understandably astounded when Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego miraculously emerged from the furnace unharmed, because they “believed in, trusted in, and relied on” God (Dan. 3:28). What a miracle that was, and we also can see great things like this happen in our lives through trusting God completely in every situation. Jesus said, “All things are possible for the one who believes and trusts [in Me]” (Mark 9:23). Believe big, and get ready to be amazed!

²“It has seemed good to me to declare the signs and wonders which the Most High God has done for me.

³“How great are His signs
And how mighty are His wonders!
His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom
And His dominion is from generation to generation. [Dan
7:13, 14; Luke 1:31–33]

⁴“I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house and prospering in my palace.

⁵“I saw a dream and it made me afraid; and the fantasies and thoughts and the visions [that appeared] in my mind as I lay on my bed kept alarming me.

⁶“So I gave orders to bring in before me all the wise men of Babylon, so that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream.

⁷“Then the magicians, the enchanters (Magi), the Chaldeans [who were the master astrologers] and the diviners came in, and I told them the dream, but they could not interpret it and make known its meaning to me.

⁸“But at last Daniel came in before me, whose name is Belteshazzar, after the name of my god, and in whom is ^{*}a spirit of the holy gods; and I told the dream to him, saying,

¹⁰“The visions that passed through my mind as I lay on my bed were these: I was looking, and behold, there was a tree in the middle of the earth, and its height was great.

¹¹“The tree grew large and became strong

And its height reached to heaven,
And it was visible to the end of the earth.

12^cIts leaves were beautiful and its fruit abundant,
And in it was food for all.
The beasts of the field found shade under it,
And the birds of the sky nested in its branches,
And all living creatures fed themselves from it.

13^cAnd behold, I saw in the visions of my mind as I lay on my bed, an angelic watcher, a holy one, descended from heaven.

14^cHe shouted aloud and said this:
“Cut down the tree and cut off its branches;
Shake off its leaves and scatter its fruit;
Let the living creatures run from under it
And the birds fly from its branches.

15^c“Nevertheless leave the stump with its roots in the ground,
Bound with a band of iron and bronze
In the new grass of the field;
And let him be wet with the dew of heaven,
And let him feed with the animals in the grass of the earth.

16^c“Let his mind and nature be changed from a man’s
And let an animal’s mind and nature be given to him,
And let seven periods of time pass over him.

17^c“This sentence is by the decree of the angelic watchers
And the decision is a command of the holy ones,
So that the living may know [without any doubt] That the Most High [God] rules over the kingdom of mankind

And He bestows it on whomever He desires

And sets over it the humblest and lowliest of men.” [Dan 2:21; 5:21]

¹⁸“This is the dream which I, King Nebuchadnezzar, have seen. Now you, Belteshazzar, explain its meaning, since none of the wise men of my kingdom are able to reveal its interpretation to me; but you are able, for a spirit of the holy gods is in you.’

¹⁹“Then Daniel, whose [Babylonian] name was Belteshazzar, was appalled and speechless for a while [because he was deeply concerned about the destiny of the king], and his thoughts alarmed him. The king said, ‘Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its interpretation frighten you.’ Belteshazzar answered, ‘My lord, may the dream be [meant] for those who hate you and its message for your enemies!’

²⁰“The tree that you saw, which became great and grew strong, whose height reached to heaven and which was visible to all the earth,

²¹whose foliage was beautiful and its fruit abundant, and on which was food for all, under which the beasts of the field lived, and in whose branches the birds of the sky nested—

²²it is you, O king, who have become great and grown strong; your greatness has increased and it reaches to heaven, and your dominion [reaches] to the ends of the earth.

²³“In that the king saw an angelic watcher, a holy one, descending from heaven and saying, “Cut the tree down and destroy it; but leave the stump with its roots in the earth, but with a band of iron and bronze around it in the new grass of the field, and let him be wet with the dew of heaven, and let him

²⁴this is the interpretation, O king: It is the decree of the Most High [God], which has come upon my lord the king:

²⁵that you shall be driven from mankind and your dwelling place shall be with the beasts of the field; and that you be given grass to eat like the cattle and be wet with the dew of heaven; and seven periods of time shall pass over you, until you know [without any doubt] that the Most High [God] rules over the kingdom of mankind and He bestows it to whomever He desires.

²⁶“And in that it was commanded to leave the stump with the roots of the tree [in the earth], your kingdom shall be restored to you after you recognize (understand fully) that Heaven rules.

²⁷“Therefore, O king, let my advice to you be [considered and found] acceptable; break away now from your sins and exhibit your repentance by doing what is right, and from your wickedness by showing mercy to the poor, so that [if you repent] there may possibly be a continuance of your prosperity and tranquility and a healing of your error.’

²⁹“Twelve months later he was walking on the upper level of the royal palace of Babylon.

³⁰“The king said thoughtfully, ‘Is not this the great Babylon which I myself have built as the royal residence and seat of government by the might of my power and for the honor and glory of my majesty?’

³¹“While the words were still in the king’s mouth, a voice came [as if falling] from heaven, saying, ‘O King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is declared: “The kingdom has been removed from you, ³²and you will be driven away from mankind, and your dwelling place will be with the animals of the field. You will be given grass to eat like the cattle, and seven periods of time will pass over you until you know [without any doubt] that the Most High God rules over the kingdom of mankind and He bestows it on whomever He desires.” ’

³⁴“But at the end of the days [that is, at the seven periods of time], I, Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes toward heaven, and my understanding and reason returned to me; and I blessed the Most High [God] and I praised and honored and glorified Him who lives forever,

For His dominion is an everlasting dominion;

And His kingdom endures from generation to generation.

³⁵“All the inhabitants of the earth are regarded as nothing.

But He does according to His will in the host of heaven

And among the inhabitants of the earth;

And no one can hold back His hand

Or say to Him, ‘What have You done?’

A Prayer To

Renew Your Mind

Lord, Your dominion is an everlasting dominion and Your kingdom endures from generation to generation. You do according to Your will and no one can hold back Your hand. I praise and exalt and honor You, King of heaven, for all Your works are true and faithful and Your ways are just.

• adapted from Daniel 4:34–37

³⁶“Now at the same time my reason returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and splendor were returned to me, and my counselors and my nobles began seeking me out; so I was re-established in my kingdom, and still more greatness [than before] was added to me.

³⁷“Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and exalt and honor the King of heaven, for all His works are true and faithful and His ways are just, and He is able to humiliate and humble those who walk in [self-centered, self-righteous] pride.”

5 BELSHAZZAR THE king [who was a descendant of Nebuchadnezzar] gave a great feast for a thousand of his nobles, and he was drinking his wine in the presence of the thousand [guests].

²Belshazzar, as he tasted the wine, gave a command to bring in the gold and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem, so that the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines might drink from them.

³Then they brought in the gold and silver vessels that had been taken out of the temple, the house of God which was in Jerusalem; and the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines drank from them.

⁴They drank the wine and praised the gods of gold and silver, of bronze, iron, wood and stone.

⁵Suddenly the fingers of a man's hand appeared and began writing opposite the lampstand on [a well-lit area of] the plaster of the wall of the king's palace, and the king saw the part of the hand that did the writing.

⁶Then the king's face grew pale, and his thoughts alarmed him; the joints and muscles of his hips and back weakened and his knees began knocking together.

⁷The king called aloud to bring in the enchanters (Magi), the Chaldeans [who were master astrologers] and the diviners. The king said to the wise men of Babylon, “Whoever can read this writing and explain its interpretation to me shall be clothed with purple and have a chain of gold put around his neck, and have authority as the third ruler in the kingdom.”

⁸Then all the king’s wise men came in, but they could not read the writing or reveal to the king its interpretation.

⁹Then King Belshazzar was greatly perplexed, his face became even paler, and his nobles were bewildered and alarmed.

¹⁰Now the queen [mother], overhearing the [excited] words of the king and his nobles, came into the banquet area. The queen [mother] spoke and said, “O king, live forever! Do not be alarmed at your thoughts or let your face be changed.

¹¹“There is a man in your kingdom in whom is a spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your father, illumination, understanding and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods were found in him. And King Nebuchadnezzar, your father—your father the king, appointed him chief of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans and diviners.

¹³Then Daniel was brought in before the king. And the king said to Daniel, “Are you that Daniel who is one of the sons of the exiles of Judah, whom my father the king brought from Judah?

¹⁴“I have heard of you, that a spirit of the gods is in you, and that illumination, insight, and extraordinary wisdom have been found in you.

¹⁵“Now the wise men and the enchanters, were brought in before me so that they might read this writing and reveal its meaning to me, but they could not give the interpretation of the message.

¹⁶“But I personally have heard about you, that you are able to make interpretations and solve complex problems. Now if you are able to read the writing and reveal its interpretation to me, you shall be clothed with purple and have a chain of gold put around your neck, and you shall have authority as the third ruler in the kingdom.”

¹⁷Then Daniel answered and said before the king, “Keep your gifts for yourself and give your rewards to someone else; however, I will read the writing to the king and reveal the interpretation to him.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Don't Try To Get Away with It

Do you ever say, "I know I shouldn't do this, but..." ; "I know I shouldn't say this, but..." ; "I know I shouldn't act like this, but..." ; "I know I should forgive her, but..."? What we're really saying is, "I know I'm making a wrong choice, but I hope I can get by with it."

We live in a society where lots of people do not want to be accountable. They want to be able to make wrong choices and not have wrong results. But it doesn't work that way. Accountable means "answerable." Sooner or later we will have to answer for our choices. If we don't choose to be accountable, eventually our circumstances will force us to be accountable (see Rom. 3:19).

King Belshazzar is a classic example of this. He knew in his mind and heart that he was insulting the Lord of heaven with his actions (see Dan. 5:22), but he went ahead anyway, only to be held accountable later on. Always be honorable and do the right thing and make the right choices so that you will have peace and be unashamed.

¹⁹and because of the greatness that He gave him, all the peoples, nations, and speakers of every language trembled and feared him. Whomever he wished he killed, and whomever he wished he kept alive; whomever he wished he promoted and whomever he wished he humbled.

²¹“He was also driven from mankind, and his mind was made like that of an animal, and his dwelling place was with the wild donkeys. He was given grass to eat like cattle, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven until he came to know [without any doubt] that the Most High God rules over the kingdom of mankind and He appoints it to whomever He wills.

²³“And you have exalted yourself against the Lord of heaven, and the vessels of His house have been brought before you, and you and your nobles, your wives and your concubines have been drinking wine from them; and you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood and stone, which do not see or hear or understand. But the God who holds in His hand your breath of life and your ways you have not honored and glorified [but have dishonored and defied].

²⁴“Then the hand was sent from the presence [of the Most High God], and this inscription was written:

²⁵“This is the inscription that was written, ‘MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN [numbered, numbered, weighed, and divided].’

²⁶“This is the interpretation of the message: ‘MENE’—God has numbered the days of your kingdom and put an end to it;

²⁷‘TEKEL’—you have been weighed on the scales [of righteousness] and found deficient;

²⁸‘PERES’—your kingdom has been divided and given over to the Medes and Persians.”

²⁹Then Belshazzar gave the command, and Daniel was clothed with purple and a chain of gold was put around his neck, and a proclamation concerning him was issued [declaring] that he now had authority as the third ruler in the kingdom.

³⁰During that same night Belshazzar the [last] Chaldean king was slain [by troops of the invading army].

³¹So Darius the Mede received the kingdom; he was about the age of sixty-two.

6 IT SEEMED good to Darius [who became king after Belshazzar] to appoint over the kingdom 120 satraps who would be in charge throughout the kingdom, ²and over them three chief commissioners (of whom Daniel was one), that these satraps might be accountable to them, so that the king would have no loss [from disloyalty or mismanagement].

³Then this Daniel, because of the extraordinary spirit within him, began distinguishing himself among the commissioners and the satraps, and the king planned to appoint him over the entire realm.

⁴Then the [other two] commissioners and the satraps began trying to find a reason to bring a complaint against

Daniel concerning the [administration of the] kingdom; but they could find no reason for an accusation or evidence of corruption, because he was faithful [a man of high moral character and personal integrity], and no negligence or corruption [of any kind] was found in him.

Stand Firm in Prayer and Worship

Daniel's enemies were jealous of him and of his high position in the kingdom. Because Daniel was a righteous man, they knew they could not justly accuse him of any unrighteous behavior. They sought to find a way to negatively impact his devotion to God through fear of physical torture and death. They persuaded the king to issue a decree stating that for thirty days anyone caught petitioning any god or man except the king would be thrown into a den of hungry lions, undoubtedly to be killed in an excruciating way.

Daniel's enemies knew that he had the habit of going into his room three times each day, opening the windows toward Jerusalem, kneeling, and praying and worshiping God.

Even when it was no longer safe to honor God openly, Daniel refused to compromise his prayers and worship (see Dan. 6:10). The next time his enemies caught him praying and worshiping God, they took him before the king, who had no choice but to sentence him to the lions' den. Notice that Daniel prayed with his windows open. In other words, he never tried to hide his faith in God. His reverential fear and awe of the Lord was greater than any fear of man or any dread of bodily harm.

Daniel did end up in the lions' den, but he slept that night and emerged unharmed the next day because God miraculously closed the mouths of the lions. Instead of Daniel being devoured by the lions, his enemies were thrown into the pit and eaten alive.

If you and I will remain faithful to the Lord, stand firm in our prayer, and continue to worship Him, God will also bring us through our trials.

⁵Then these men said, “We will not find any basis for an accusation against this Daniel unless we find something against him in connection with the law of his God.” [Acts 24:13–21; 1 Pet 4:12–16]

⁶Then these commissioners and satraps agreed to approach the king and said to him, “King Darius, live forever!

⁷“All the commissioners of the kingdom, the prefects and the satraps, the counselors and the governors have consulted and agreed together that the king should establish a royal statute and enforce an injunction that anyone who petitions (prays to) any god or man besides you, O king, during the next thirty days, shall be thrown into the den of lions.

⁸“Now, O king, establish the injunction and sign the document so that it may not be changed, in accordance with the law of the Medes and Persians, which [insures that it] may not be altered or revoked.”

⁹So King Darius signed the document, that is, the injunction.

¹⁰Now when Daniel knew that the document was signed, he went into his house (now in his roof chamber his windows were open toward Jerusalem); he continued to get down on his knees three times a day, praying and giving thanks before his

God, as he had been doing previously. [Ps 5:7]

¹¹Then, by agreement, these men came [together] and found Daniel praying and making requests before his God.

¹²Then they approached and spoke before the king regarding his injunction, “Have you not signed an injunction that anyone who petitions (prays to) any god or man except you, O king, within the designated thirty days, is to be thrown into the den of lions?” The king answered, “The statement is true, in accordance with the law of the Medes and Persians, which may not be altered or revoked.”

¹³Then they answered and said before the king, “Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, does not pay any attention to you, O king, or to the injunction which you have signed, but keeps praying [to his God] three times a day.”

¹⁴Then, as soon as the king heard these words, he was deeply distressed [over what he had done] and set his mind on rescuing Daniel; and he struggled until the sun went down [trying to work out a way] to save him.

¹⁵Then, by agreement, these same men came to the king and said, “Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no injunction or statute which the king establishes may be altered or revoked.”

¹⁶Then the king gave a command, and Daniel was brought and thrown into the den of lions. The king said to Daniel, “May your God, whom you constantly serve, rescue you Himself!” [Ps 34:7, 19; 37:39, 40; 50:15]

¹⁷A stone was brought and laid over the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signet rings of his nobles, so that nothing would be changed concerning Daniel.

¹⁸Then the king returned to his palace and spent the night fasting; and no music or entertainment was brought before him, and he remained unable to sleep.

¹⁹Then the king arose at dawn, at the break of day, and hurried to the den of lions.

²⁰When he had come near the den, he called out to Daniel with a troubled voice. The king said to Daniel, “O Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you constantly serve, been able to rescue you from the lions?”

²¹Then Daniel spoke to the king, “O king, live forever!

²²“My God has sent His angel and has shut the mouths of the lions so that they have not hurt me, because I was found innocent before Him; and also before you, O king, I have committed no crime.” [2 Tim 4:17]

²³Then the king was greatly pleased and ordered that Daniel be taken out of the den. So Daniel was taken out of the den, and no injury whatever was found on him, because he believed in and relied on and trusted in his God.

²⁴The king then gave a command, and those men who had maliciously accused Daniel were brought and thrown into the den of lions, they, their children and their wives; and before they reached the bottom of the den, the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.

²⁵Then Darius the king wrote to all the peoples, nations, and speakers of every language who were living in all the land: “May peace abound to you!

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Keep Believing in the Middle

Consistently thinking good and godly thoughts, speaking positive words, and enjoying stable moods and attitudes are not necessarily easy to do, but they are possible. I have personally been working with the Holy Spirit toward this goal for years, and although I have not arrived at perfection, I have made amazing progress.

I have successful days, and days when I feel I have failed miserably, but I believe that with God's help I will keep growing. I always encourage people to look at how far they have come instead of how far they have to go. The devil wants us to focus on our failures, but God wants us to focus on our successes.

A walk begins with one step and then another and another. No matter how long your journey seems, if you take enough steps in the right direction, you will eventually arrive at your destination. Don't hesitate to begin because you think you have a long way to go. No matter what your problems may be, things will get better with God's help.

In Daniel 6, after Daniel's refusal to stop praying and thanking God led to his being thrown into the lions' den, he came out of the den without injury "because he believed in and relied on and trusted in his God" (v. 23). The Scriptures are an open invitation to experience miracles in your life if you will simply believe.

It is important to notice that believing comes before receiving. The beginning of a prayer is asking, the middle is the waiting and continuing to believe, and the end is the manifestation of the desired result. The one thing we need to do in the middle is to keep believing that God is working and that our breakthrough may come at any moment.

Believing is a great benefit when it comes to maintaining a good mood and attitude. When you believe, hope comes alive. And one of the great things about hope is that it brings joy (see Rom 5:2).

Is there any area of your life in which you have given up the hope of seeing change? If so, may this be a point of resurrection! With God's help, you can resurrect your faith and hope—you can believe once again that nothing is beyond God's ability. All things are possible with God!

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

God of miracles, I thank You that the lions' den is no match for Your power to protect and deliver. I believe that You are working in my life and that the breakthrough I have asked You for is on its way. This is not beyond Your ability, Lord God. Amen.

²⁶“I issue a decree that in all the dominion of my kingdom men are to [reverently] fear and tremble before the God of Daniel,

For He is the living God, enduring and steadfast forever,
And His kingdom is one which will not be destroyed,
And His dominion will be forever.

²⁷“He rescues and saves and performs signs and wonders
In heaven and on earth—
He who has rescued Daniel from the power of the lions.”

²⁸So this [man] Daniel prospered and enjoyed success in the reign of Darius and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

7 IN THE first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions appeared in his mind as he lay on his bed; then he wrote the dream down and related a summary of it.

²Daniel said, “I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the great sea (the nations).

³“And four great beasts, each different from the other, were coming up out of the sea [in succession].

⁴“The first (the Babylonian Empire under Nebuchadnezzar) was like a lion and had the wings of an eagle. I kept looking until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the ground and made to stand on two feet like a man; a human mind was given to it. [Dan 2:37, 38]

⁷“After this I kept looking in the night visions, and behold, [I saw] a fourth beast (the Roman Empire), terrible and extremely strong; and it had huge iron teeth. It devoured and crushed and trampled down what was left with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that came before it, and it had ten horns (ten kings). [Dan 2:40–43; 7:23]

⁸“While I was considering the horns, behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, and three of the first horns were pulled up by the roots before it; and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man and a mouth boasting of great things.

⁹“I kept looking

Until thrones were set up,

And the Ancient of Days (God) took His seat;

His garment was white as snow

And the hair of His head like pure wool.

His throne was flames of fire;

Its wheels were a burning fire. [1 Kin 22:19; Ps 90:2; Ezek 1:26–28; Dan 7:13, 22; Matt 19:28; Rev 20:4]

10“ A river of fire was flowing
And coming out from before Him;
A thousand thousands were attending Him,
And ten thousand times ten thousand were standing before Him;
The court was seated,
And the books were opened.

11“ Then I kept looking because of the sound of the great and boastful words which the horn was speaking. I kept looking until the beast was slain, and its body destroyed and given to be burned with fire.

12“ As for the rest of the beasts, their power was taken away; yet their lives were prolonged [for the length of their lives was fixed] for a predetermined time.

13“ I kept looking in the night visions,
And behold, on the clouds of heaven
One like a Son of Man was coming,
And He came up to the Ancient of Days
And was presented before Him.

14“ And to Him (the Messiah) was given dominion (supreme authority), Glory and a kingdom,
That all the peoples, nations, and speakers of every language
Should serve and worship Him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion
Which will not pass away;

And His kingdom is one
Which will not be destroyed. [Rev 5:1–10]

¹⁵“As for me, Daniel, my spirit was distressed and anxious within me, and the visions [that appeared] in my mind kept alarming (agitating) me.

¹⁶“I approached one of those who stood by and began asking him the exact meaning of all this. So he told me and explained to me the interpretation of the things:

¹⁷“These four great beasts are four kings who will arise from the earth.

¹⁸“But the saints (believers) of the Most High [God] will receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever, for all ages to come.’ [Rom 8:17; 1 Pet 2:9; Rev 3:21]

¹⁹“Then I wished to know the exact meaning of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, extremely dreadful, with teeth of iron and claws of bronze, which devoured, crushed and trampled down what was left with its feet,

POWERPOINT

Daniel 7:25 mentions a tactic of Satan that we need to be aware of and understand if we are to win the battles of the mind. He has a way of trying to “wear down the saints.” Often this means harassing us until we become too tired to fight or keep resisting him. Satan regularly attacks God’s people with weariness and then puts thoughts in our mind that prompt us to give up as we stand for righteousness, obey God when obedience is difficult, or finish a task God has given us to do. I have felt this way many times, and when I do, I simply stop and ask God to strengthen me. As a result, determination returns, and I am able to complete whatever I need to do. Never give up without a fight, especially when the enemy is trying to wear you out. Stand your ground, resist the devil, and he will flee (see

²⁰and the meaning of the ten horns (kings) that were on its head and the other horn which came up later, and before which three of the horns fell, specifically, that horn which had eyes and a mouth that boasted great things and which looked larger than the others.

²¹“As I kept looking, that horn was making war with the saints (believers) and overpowering them [Rev 13:7–9]

²²until the Ancient of Days came and judgment was passed in favor of the saints of the Most High [God], and the time arrived when the saints (believers) took possession of the kingdom.

²³“Thus the angel said, ‘The fourth beast shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which will be different from all other kingdoms and will devour the whole earth and tread it down, and crush it.

²⁴‘As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings will arise; and another will arise after them, and he will be different from the former ones, and he will subdue three kings.

²⁵‘He will speak words against the Most High [God] and wear down the saints of the Most High, and he will intend to change the times and the law; and they will be given into his hand for a time, [two] times, and half a time [three and one-half years]. [Rev 13:1–6]

²⁶“But the court [of the Most High] will sit in judgment, and his dominion will be taken away, [first to be] consumed [gradually] and [then] to be destroyed forever.

²⁷“Then the kingdom and the dominion and the greatness of all the kingdoms under the whole heaven will be given to the people of the saints (believers) of the Most High; His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all the dominions will serve and obey Him.’

8 IN THE third year of the reign of King Belshazzar a [second] vision appeared to me, Daniel, [this was two years] after the one that first appeared to me.

²I looked in the vision and it seemed that I was at the citadel of Susa, [the capital of Persia], which is in the province of Elam; and I looked in the vision and I saw myself by the Ulai Canal.

³Then I raised my eyes and looked, and behold, there in front of the canal stood a [lone] ram (the Medo-Persian Empire) which had two horns. The two horns were high, but one (Persia) was higher than the other (Media), and the higher one came up last.

⁴I saw the ram (Medo-Persia) charging westward and northward and southward; no beast could stand before him, nor was there anyone who could rescue [anything] from his power, but he did as he pleased and magnified himself. [Dan 8:20]

⁵As I was observing [this], behold, a male goat (Greece) was coming from the west [rushing] across the face of the whole earth without touching the ground; and the goat had a conspicuous and remarkable horn (Alexander the Great) between his eyes. [Dan 8:21]

⁶He came up to the ram that had the two horns, which I had seen standing in front of the canal, and charged at him in [the fury of] his power and wrath.

⁷[In my vision] I saw him come close to the ram (Medo-Persia), and he was filled with rage toward him; and the goat (Greece) struck the ram and shattered his two horns, and the ram had no strength to stand before him. So the goat threw him to the ground and trampled on him, and there was no one who could rescue the ram from his power.

⁸Then the male goat magnified himself exceedingly, and when he was [young and] strong, the great horn (Alexander) was [suddenly] broken; and in its place there came up four prominent horns [among whom the kingdom was divided, one] toward [each of] the four winds of heaven.

⁹Out of one of them (Antiochus IV Epiphanes) came forth a rather small horn [but one of irreverent presumption and profane pride] which grew exceedingly powerful toward the south, toward the east, and toward the Beautiful Land (Israel). [Dan 8:23]

¹⁰And [in my vision] this horn grew up to the host of heaven, and caused some of the host and some of the stars to fall to the earth, and it trampled on them.

¹¹Indeed, it magnified itself to be equal with the Commander of the host [of heaven]; and it took away from Him the daily sacrifice (burnt offering), and the place of His sanctuary was thrown down (profaned).

¹²Because of the transgression [of God's people—their irreverence and ungodliness] the host will be given over to the wicked horn, along with the regular sacrifice; and righteousness and truth will be flung to the ground, and the horn will do as it pleases [by divine permission] and prosper.

¹³Then I heard a holy one (angel) speaking, and another holy one said to the one who was speaking, “How much time will be required to complete the vision regarding the regular sacrifice, the transgression that brings horror, and the trampling underfoot of both the sanctuary and the host [of the people]?” [Luke 21:24]

¹⁴He said to me, “For 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be cleansed and properly restored.”

¹⁵When I, Daniel, had seen the vision, I sought to understand it; then behold, standing before me was one who looked like a man.

¹⁶And I heard the voice of a man between the banks of the Ulai, which called out and said, “Gabriel, give this man (Daniel) an understanding of the vision.” [Dan 9:21; Luke 1:19, 26]

¹⁷So he came near where I was standing, and when he came I was frightened and fell face downward; but he said to me, “Understand, son of man, that the [fulfillment of the] vision pertains to [events that will occur in] the time of the end.”

¹⁸Now as he (Gabriel) was speaking with me, I drifted into a deep sleep (unconsciousness) with my face to the ground; but he touched me and made me stand [where I had stood before].

¹⁹He said, “Behold, I am going to let you know what will happen during the final time of the indignation and wrath [of God upon the ungodly], for it concerns the appointed time of the end.

²¹“The shaggy (rough-coated) male goat represents the kingdom of Greece, and the great horn between his eyes is the first king.

²²“Regarding the shattered horn and the four others that arose in its place, four kingdoms will rise from his (Alexander’s) nation, although not with his power and heritage.

²³“At the latter period of their reign,
When the transgressors have finished,
A king will arise
Insolent and skilled in intrigue and cunning.

²⁴“His power will be mighty, but not by his own power;
And he will corrupt and destroy in an astonishing manner
And [he will] prosper and do exactly as he wills;
He shall corrupt and destroy mighty men and the holy people. [Dan 8:9–12; 2 Thess 2:3–10; Rev 13:4–10]

²⁵“And through his shrewdness
He will cause deceit to succeed by his hand (influence);
He will magnify himself in his mind,
He will corrupt and destroy many who enjoy a false sense of security.
He will also stand up and oppose the Prince of princes,

But he will be broken, and that by no human hand [but by the hand of God]. [Rev 19:19, 20]

²⁶“The vision of the evenings and the mornings

Which has been told [to you] is true.

But keep the vision a secret,

For it has to do with many days in the now distant future.”

²⁷And I, Daniel, was exhausted and was sick for [several] days. Afterward I got up and continued with the king’s business; but I was astounded at the vision, and there was no one who could explain it.

9 IN THE first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of Median descent, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans—

²in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, understood from the books the number of years which, according to the word of the LORD to Jeremiah the prophet, must pass before the desolations [which had been] pronounced on Jerusalem would end; and it was seventy years. [Jer 25:11, 12; 29:10]

³So I directed my attention to the Lord God to seek Him by prayer and supplications, with fasting, sackcloth and ashes.

⁴I prayed to the LORD my God and confessed and said, “O Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant and extends lovingkindness toward those who love Him and keep His commandments, ⁵we have sinned and committed wrong, and have behaved wickedly and have rebelled, turning away from Your commandments and ordinances.

⁶“Further, we have not listened to and heeded Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings, our princes and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

⁷“Righteousness belongs to You, O Lord, but to us confusion and open shame, as it is this day—to the men of Judah, to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, those who are nearby and those who are far away, in all the countries to which You have driven them, because of the [treacherous] acts of unfaithfulness which they have committed against You.

⁸“O LORD, to us belong confusion and open shame—to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers—because we have sinned against You.

⁹“To the Lord our God belong mercy and lovingkindness and forgiveness, for we have rebelled against Him;

¹⁰and we have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God by walking in His laws which He set before us through His servants the prophets.

¹¹“Yes, all Israel has transgressed Your law, even turning aside, not obeying Your voice; so the curse has been poured out on us and the oath which is written in the Law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against Him. [Lev 26:14–45; Deut 28:15–68]

¹²“And He has carried out completely His [threatening] words which He had spoken against us and against our rulers [the kings, princes, and judges] who ruled us, to bring on us a great tragedy; for under the whole heaven there has not been done anything [so dreadful] like that which [He commanded and] was done to Jerusalem.

¹³“Just as it is written in the Law of Moses, all this tragedy has come on us. Yet we have not wholeheartedly begged for forgiveness and sought the favor of the LORD our God by turning from our wickedness and paying attention to and placing value in Your truth. [Deut 4:29; 28:15ff]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*Lord my God, You are uncompromisingly righteous and openly just in everything You do. You keep Your word, and I pray that You will forgive me when I fail to obey

• adapted from Daniel 9:14

¹⁴“Therefore the LORD has kept the tragedy ready and has brought it on us, for the LORD our God is [uncompromisingly] righteous and openly just in all His works which He does—He keeps His word; and we have not obeyed His voice.

¹⁵“And now, O Lord our God, who brought Your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand and who made for Yourself a name, as it is today—we have sinned, we have been wicked.

¹⁶“O Lord, in accordance with all Your righteous and just acts, please let Your anger and Your wrath turn away from Your city Jerusalem, Your holy mountain. Because of our sins and the wickedness of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people have become an object of scorn and a contemptuous byword to all who are around us.

¹⁸“O my God, incline Your ear and hear; open Your eyes and look at our desolations and the city which is called by Your name; for we are not presenting our supplications before You because of our own merits and righteousness, but because of Your great mercy and compassion.

²⁰While I was still speaking and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God in behalf of the holy mountain of my God,

²¹while I was still speaking in prayer and extremely exhausted, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the earlier vision, came to me about the time of the evening sacrifice. [Dan 8:16]

²²He instructed me and he talked with me and said, “O Daniel, I have now come to give you insight and wisdom and understanding.

²³“At the beginning of your supplications, the command [to give you an answer] was issued, and I have come to tell you, for you are highly regarded and greatly beloved. Therefore consider the message and begin to understand the [meaning of the] vision.

²⁴“Seventy weeks [of years, or 490 years] have been decreed for your people and for your holy city (Jerusalem), to finish the transgression, to make an end of sins, to make atonement (reconciliation) for wickedness, to bring in everlasting righteousness (right-standing with God), to seal up vision and prophecy and prophet, and to anoint the Most Holy Place.

²⁵“So you are to know and understand that from the issuance of the command to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until [the coming of] the Messiah (the Anointed One), the Prince, there will be seven weeks [of years] and sixty-two weeks [of years]; it will be built again, with [a city] plaza and moat, even in times of trouble.

²⁶“Then after the sixty-two weeks [of years] the Anointed One will be cut off [and denied His Messianic kingdom] and have nothing [and no one to defend Him], and the people of the [other] prince who is to come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. Its end will come with a flood; even to the end there will be war; desolations are determined. [Is 53:7–9; Nah 1:8; Matt 24:6–14] middle of the week he will stop the sacrifice and grain offering [for the remaining three and one-half years]; and on the wing of abominations will come one who makes desolate, even until the complete destruction, one that is decreed, is poured out on the one who causes the horror.”

10 IN THE third year of Cyrus king of Persia a message was revealed to Daniel, who was named Belteshazzar; and the message was true and it referred to great conflict (warfare, misery). And he understood the message and had an understanding of the vision. [Dan 8:26; Rev 19:9]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Take God at His Word

The angel Gabriel reassured Daniel three times that he was “highly regarded and greatly beloved” and added, “do not be afraid. Peace be to you; take courage and be strong” (Dan. 10:19). Learning about and receiving God’s unconditional love is what sets us free from fear. Nothing else will! “There is no fear in love [dread does not exist]. But perfect (complete, full-grown) love drives out fear” (1 John 4:18). Only God has perfect love, and it can be yours by faith.

Faith expresses itself through love (see Gal. 5:6). How can we put our trust in God if we are not convinced He loves us at all times? Take God at His Word and begin to receive His love for you, which will set you free from all fear.

³I ate no tasty food, nor did any meat or wine enter my mouth; and I did not anoint (refresh, groom) myself at all for the full three weeks.

⁴On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was on the bank of the great river Hiddekel [which is the Tigris], ⁵I raised my eyes and looked, and behold, there was a certain man dressed in linen, whose loins were girded with [a belt of] pure gold of Uphaz.

⁶His body also was like beryl [with a golden luster], his face had the appearance of lightning, his eyes were like flaming torches, his arms and his feet like the gleam of burnished bronze, and the sound of his words was like the noise of a multitude [of people or the roaring of the sea]. [Rev 1:12–16; 19:6]

⁷And I, Daniel, alone saw the vision [of this heavenly being], for the men who were with me did not see the vision; nevertheless, a great panic overwhelmed them, so they ran away to hide themselves.

⁸So I was left alone and saw this great vision; yet no strength was left in me, for my normal appearance turned to a deathly pale, and I grew weak and faint [with fright].

⁹Then I heard the sound of his words; and when I heard the sound of his words, I fell on my face in a deep sleep, with my face toward the ground.

¹¹So he said to me, “O Daniel, you highly regarded and greatly beloved man, understand the words that I am about to say to you and stand upright, for I have now been sent to you.” And while he was saying this word to me, I stood up trembling.

¹²Then he said to me, “Do not be afraid, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart on understanding this and on humbling yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to your words.

¹³“But the prince of the kingdom of Persia was standing in opposition to me for twenty-one days. Then, behold, Michael, one of the chief [of the celestial] princes, came to help me, for I had been left there with the kings of Persia.

¹⁴“Now I have come to make you understand what will happen to your people in the latter days, for the vision is in regard to the days yet to come.”

¹⁵When he had spoken to me according to these words, I turned my face toward the ground and was speechless.

¹⁶And behold, one who resembled the sons of men touched my lips. Then I opened my mouth and spoke and said to him who was standing before me, “O my lord, because of the vision anguish has come upon me, and I have retained no strength.

¹⁸Then the one (Gabriel) whose appearance was like that of a man touched me again, and he strengthened me.

¹⁹He said, “O man, highly regarded and greatly beloved, do not be afraid. Peace be to you; take courage and be strong.” Now when he had spoken to me, I was strengthened and said, “Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me.”

²⁰Then he said, “Do you understand [fully] why I came to you? Now I shall return to fight against the [hostile] prince of Persia; and when I have gone, behold, the prince of Greece is about to come.

²¹“But I (Gabriel) will tell you what is inscribed in the writing of truth. There is no one who stands firmly with me and strengthens himself against these [hostile spirit forces] except Michael, your prince [the guardian of your nation].

11 “ALSO I, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I (Gabriel) arose to be an encouragement and a protection for him.

²“And now I will tell you the truth. Behold, three more kings are going to arise in Persia. Then a fourth will become far richer than all of them. When he becomes strong through his riches he will stir up the whole empire against the realm of Greece.

⁴“But as soon as he (Alexander) has risen, his kingdom will be broken [by his death] and divided toward the four winds of heaven [the north, south, east, and west], but not to his descendants, nor according to the [Grecian] authority with which he ruled, for his kingdom will be torn out and uprooted and given to others (his four generals) to the exclusion of these.

⁵“Then the king of the South (Egypt) will be strong, along with one of his princes who will be stronger than he and have dominance over him; his domain will be a great dominion.

⁶“After some years the Syrian king of the North and the Egyptian king of the South will make an alliance; the daughter (Berenice) of the king of the South will come to the king of the North to make an equitable and peaceful agreement (marriage); but she will not retain the power of her position, nor will he retain his power. She will be handed over with her attendants and her father as well as he who supported her in those times.

⁷“But out of a branch of her [familial] roots will one (her brother, Ptolemy III Euergetes I) arise in his place, and he will come against the [Syrian] army and enter the fortress of the king of the North, and he will deal with them and will prevail.

⁹“And the king of the North will come into the realm of the king of the South, but he will retreat to his own country [badly defeated].

¹²“When the multitude (army) is captured and carried away, the heart of the Egyptian king will be proud (arrogant), and he will cause tens of thousands to fall, but he will not prevail.

¹⁵“Then the king of the North (Syria) will come and build up siege ramps and capture a well-fortified city. The forces of the South will not stand their ground, not even the finest troops, for there will be no strength to stand [against the Syrian king].

¹⁶“But he (Syria) who comes against him (Egypt) will do exactly as he pleases, and no one will be able to stand against him; he (Antiochus III the Great) will also stay for a time in the Beautiful and Glorious Land [of Israel], with destruction in his hand.

¹⁷“He will be determined to come with the power of his entire kingdom, and propose equitable conditions and terms of peace, which he will put into effect [by making an agreement with the king of the South]. He will also give him his daughter (Cleopatra I), in an attempt to overthrow the kingdom, but it will not succeed or be to his advantage.

²⁰“Then in his place one (his eldest son, Seleucus IV Philopator) will arise who will send an oppressor through the Jewel of his kingdom; yet within a few days he will be shattered, though not in anger nor in battle.

²¹“And in his place [in Syria] will arise a despicable and despised person, to whom royal majesty and the honor of kingship have not been conferred, but he will come [without warning] in a time of tranquility and seize the kingdom by intrigue. [Dan 8:9–12, 23–25]

²²“The overwhelming forces [of the invading armies of Egypt] will be flooded away before him and smashed; and also the prince of the covenant [will be smashed].

²⁴“In a time of tranquility, [without warning] he will enter the most productive and richest parts of the kingdom [of Egypt], and he will accomplish that which his fathers never did, nor his fathers’ fathers; he will distribute plunder, spoil and goods among them. He will devise plans against strongholds, but only for a time [decreed by God].

²⁷“And as for both of these kings, their hearts will be set on doing evil; they will speak lies over the same table, but it will not succeed, for the end is yet to come at the appointed time.

²⁸“Then he (Antiochus IV Epiphanes) will return to his land with great treasure (plunder); and his heart will be set against the holy covenant, and he will take action and return to his own land (Syria).

29“At the time appointed [by God] he will return and come into the South, but this last time will not be successful as were the previous invasions [of Egypt].

30“For ships of Cyprus [in Roman hands] will come against him; therefore he will be discouraged and turn back [to Israel] and carry out his rage against the holy covenant and take action; so he will return and show favoritism toward those [Jews] who abandon (break) the holy covenant [with God].

31“Armed forces of his will arise [in Jerusalem] and defile and desecrate the sanctuary, the [spiritual] stronghold, and will do away with the regular sacrifice [that is, the daily burnt offering]; and they will set up [a pagan altar in the sanctuary which is] the abomination of desolation.

32“With smooth words [of flattery and praise] he will turn to godlessness those who [are willing to] disregard the [Mosaic] covenant, but the people who [are spiritually mature and] know their God will display strength and take action [to resist].

33“They who are wise and have spiritual insight among the people will instruct many and help them understand; yet for many days some [of them and their followers] will fall by the sword and by flame, by captivity and by plunder.

34“Now when they fall they will receive a little help, and many will join with them in hypocrisy.

35“Some of those who are [spiritually] wise and have insight will fall [as martyrs] in order to refine, to purge and to make those among God’s people pure, until the end time; because it is yet to come at the time appointed [by God].

36“Then the king (the Antichrist) will do exactly as he pleases; he will exalt himself and magnify himself above every god and will speak astounding and disgusting things against the God of gods and he will prosper until the indignation is finished, for that which is determined [by God] will be done.

³⁷“He will have no regard for the gods of his fathers or for the desire of women, nor will he have regard for any other god, for he shall magnify himself above them all.

³⁹“He will act against the strongest fortresses with the help of a foreign god; he will give great honor to those who acknowledge him and he will cause them to rule over the many, and will parcel out land for a price.

⁴⁰“At the end time the king of the South will push and attack him (the Antichrist), and the king of the North will storm against him with chariots and horsemen and with many ships; and he will enter countries, overwhelm them and pass through.

⁴¹“He shall also enter the Beautiful and Glorious Land (Israel), and many countries will fall, but these will be rescued out of his hand: Edom, Moab, and the foremost [core] of the people of Ammon.

⁴³“He will have power over the treasures of gold and silver and over all the precious things of Egypt, and the Libyans and the Ethiopians will follow in his footsteps.

⁴⁴“But rumors from the east and from the north will alarm and disturb him, and he will set out with great fury to destroy and to annihilate many.

⁴⁵“He will pitch his palatial tents between the seas and the glorious Holy Mountain (Zion); yet he will come to his end with no one to help him [in his final battle with God]. [2 Thess 2:4; Rev 13:5–8]

12 “NOW AT that [end] time Michael, the great [angelic] prince who stands guard over the children of your people, will arise. And there will be a time of distress such as never occurred since there was a nation until that time; but at that time your people, everyone who is found written in the Book [of Life], will be rescued.

²“Many of those who sleep in the dust of the ground will awake (resurrect), these to everlasting life, but some to disgrace and everlasting contempt (abhorrence). [John 5:29]

⁴“But as for you, Daniel, conceal these words and seal up the scroll until the end of time. Many will go back and forth and search anxiously [through the scroll], and knowledge [of the purpose of God as revealed by His prophets] will [greatly] increase.” [Amos 8:12]

⁵Then I, Daniel, looked, and behold, there stood two others, the one [angel] on this bank of the river and the other [angel] on that bank of the river.

⁶And one said to the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “How long will it be until the end of these wonders?” [Dan 10:5]

⁷And I heard the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, as he held up his right hand and his left hand toward heaven, and swore by Him who lives forever that it would be for a time, times, and a half a time (three and a half years); and as soon as they finish shattering and crushing the power of the holy people, all these things will be finished.

⁸As for me, I heard, but I did not understand; so I said, “My lord, what will be the outcome of these things?”

⁹And the angel said, “Go your way, Daniel, for the words are concealed and sealed up until the end of time.

¹⁰“Many will be purged, purified (made white) and refined, but the wicked will behave wickedly. None of the wicked shall understand, but those who are [spiritually] wise will understand. [Dan 11:33–35]

¹¹“From the time that the regular sacrifice [that is, the daily burnt offering] is taken away and the abomination of desolation is set up [ruining the temple for worship of the true God], there will be 1,290 days. [Dan 11:31]

¹²“How blessed [happy, fortunate, spiritually prosperous] and beloved is he who waits expectantly [enduring without wavering for the period of tribulation] and comes to the 1,335 days!

¹³“But as for you (Daniel), go your way until the end [of your life]; for you will rest and rise again for your allotted inheritance at the end of the age.” [Heb 11:32–40]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

A New Perspective on Trouble

A spiritually mature person has a different view of trials and tribulations than that of a spiritually immature person. A spiritually mature person waits expectantly and earnestly for breakthrough. They handle tribulations, even periods of great tribulation (see Dan. 12:12), while remaining positive and joyful, trusting God in the midst of it all. Even though the enemy may bring the difficulty, God is able to work good out of it; and very often we learn things about ourselves during trials that we would never see any other way.

We should thank God in the midst of our trials instead of murmuring and complaining and feeling sorry for ourselves (see James 1:2). Look at (think about) your troubles in a new way. Remain stable in the storms of life and look forward to the rainbow (you don't get rainbows until after a storm!). And remember, with every temptation, God also provides a way out (see 1 Cor. 10:13).

Hosea

Author: | Hosea
Date: | About 750
BC

The book of Hosea addresses Israel's unfaithfulness to God, which is like that of a harlot. Hosea the prophet actually endures the betrayal of his wife, Gomer, who repeatedly leaves him to return to her life as a prostitute. Every time she abandons him, he buys her back and continues to love her.

Hosea's love and faithfulness are a picture of God's heart toward you and me. As we read this book, we become increasingly convinced of His love for us. A tactic the enemy often uses against our mind is to try to convince us that God does not love us or that we can sin so much that He will no longer welcome us back. These are lies! The book of Hosea affirms God's constant love, mercy, and compassion for us.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM HOSEA:

Let God turn your place of trouble into a door of hope (see Hosea 2:15).

If you ask God to give you knowledge, He will reveal His will through His Word (see Hosea 4:6).

Defeat worry and fear by trusting that God will provide for you (see Hosea 9:2).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM HOSEA:

Come and let us return [in repentance] to the LORD. | Hosea 6:1

Let us know and become personally acquainted with Him; let us press on to know and understand fully the [greatness of the] LORD [to honor, heed, and deeply cherish Him]. | Hosea 6:3

It is time to seek and search diligently for the LORD [and to long for His blessing] until He comes to rain righteousness and His gift of salvation on you. | Hosea 10:12

THE BOOK OF HOSEA

1 THE WORD of the LORD that came to Hosea the son of Beeri in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel.

²When the LORD first spoke through Hosea, the LORD said to him, “Go, take for yourself a wife of prostitution and have children of [her] prostitution; for the land commits great acts of prostitution by not following the LORD.”

³So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

⁴And the LORD said to him, “Name him Jezreel; for yet in a little while I will avenge the blood [that was shed in the Valley] of Jezreel and inflict the punishment for it on the house of Jehu, and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel. [2 Kin 10:1–11]

⁵“On that day I will break the bow [of the military power] of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel.”

⁶Then Gomer conceived again and gave birth to a daughter. And the LORD said to Hosea, “Name her Lo-Ruhamah (not shown mercy), for I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel, that I would ever forgive them.

⁷“But I will have mercy on the house of Judah and will rescue them by the LORD their God, and will not rescue them by bow, sword, war, horses, or horsemen.” [Is 31:8; 37:33–35]

⁸Now when Gomer had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived and gave birth to a son.

⁹And the LORD said, “Name him Lo-Ammi (not my people), for you are not My people and I am not your God.”

¹⁰Yet the number of the sons of Israel
Shall be like the sand of the sea,
Which cannot be measured or numbered;
And in the place

POWERPOINT

God gave each of Hosea and Gomer's three children a prophetic name. These names were intended to send a message to the children of Israel. The first, Jezreel (see Hos. 1:4), signified God's judgment against Jeroboam, the reigning king. The name of the second child, Lo-Ruhamah (see Hos. 1:6), means "not shown mercy," which told the Israelites that God was about to withdraw His mercy from Israel. The third child was named Lo-Ammi (see Hos. 1:9), which meant, "not my people." The names of these children were prophetic reminders to Israel that God was displeased with their unfaithfulness, but He would use Hosea's relationship with Gomer to show them and the entire nation of Israel that He remains faithful and merciful.

Where it is said to them,
“You are not My people,”
It will be said to them,

“You are the sons of the living God.” [Gen 22:17; Rom 9:26]

¹¹Then the sons of Judah and the sons of Israel shall be gathered together, And they will appoint for themselves one leader,

And they will go up from the land,

For great and glorious will be the day of Jezreel. [Is 11:12, 13; Ezek 37:15–28]

2 “[HOSEA,] SAY to your brothers, ‘Ammi (you are my people),’ and to your sisters, ‘Ruhamah (you have been pitied and have obtained mercy).’

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Door of Hope

Speaking of the restoration He wanted to bring to unfaithful Israel, God said that He would “make the Valley of Achor a door of hope and expectation” (Hos. 2:15). The Valley of Achor represents times of trouble, so God was saying He would turn Israel’s trouble into hope and expectation. Hope is the confident expectation of something good. What God wanted to do for the Israelites, He also wants to do for you and me. Hope finds its entrance into our lives through our thoughts. When we think about the possibilities instead of the problems, hope is birthed in us.

When you have been through times of trouble, difficulty, fear, or disappointment, you may feel reluctant to hope again. You may even say to yourself, “If something starts to improve, don’t get your hopes up. You know what happened the last time.” Past hurts, present disappointments, and future uncertainties all try to teach you to temper your expectations and live with a low level of hope—just in case things don’t work out.

But a life without hope is not much of a life at all. When you are hesitant to hope, you may say you’re just being careful, but chances are you are simply afraid—afraid of getting hurt, afraid of disappointment, afraid of taking a chance. The fear may exist for good reason. Perhaps you have been severely wounded in life and experienced a lot of trouble and discouragement. Your experience may tell you nothing will ever change, but Matthew 19:26 says all things are possible with God, and that promise gives us reason to hope.

If you have lived too long in the valley of trouble, it's time for a change. God has a door of hope in front of you. Trust Him enough to believe for the best—the best relationships, the best job, the best marriage, the best opportunities, the best news, the best outcome, the best life. With God, hope is always available. Step through the door of hope today.

²“Contend with your mother (nation); contend,
For she is not my wife and I am not her husband;
And have her remove her [marks of] prostitution from her face

And her adultery from between her breasts [Is 50:1]

³Or I will strip her naked
And expose her as on the day she was born,
And make her like a wilderness
And make her like a parched land
And slay her with thirst.

⁴“Also, I will have no mercy on her children,
Because they are the children of prostitution.

⁵“For their mother has played the prostitute;
She who conceived them has acted shamefully,
For she said, ‘I will pursue my lovers
Who give me my food and my water,
My wool and my flax, my oil and my [refreshing] drinks.’

⁶“Therefore, behold, I [the LORD God] will hedge up her way with thorns; And I will build a wall against her [shutting off her way] so that she cannot find her paths.

7“She will [passionately] pursue her lovers, but she will not overtake them; And she will seek them, but will not find them.

Then she will say, ‘Let me go and return to my first husband,

For it was better for me then than now!’

8“For she (Israel) has not noticed nor understood nor realized that it was I [the LORD God] who gave her the grain and the new wine and the oil, And lavished on her silver and gold,

Which they used for Baal and made into his image.

9“Therefore, I will return and take back My grain at harvest time And My new wine in its season.

I will also take away My wool and My flax

Given to cover her nakedness.

10“And now I will uncover her lewdness and shame

In the sight of her lovers,

And no one will rescue her from My hand.

11“I will also put an end to all her rejoicing,

Her feasts, her New Moons, her Sabbaths,

And all her festivals.

12“I will destroy her vines and her fig trees

Of which she has said, ‘These are my wages

Which my lovers have given me.’

And I will make them a forest,

And the animals of the open country will devour them.

- 13“And I will punish her for the [feast] days of the Baals,
When she used to offer sacrifices and burn incense to them
And adorn herself with her earrings and nose rings and her jewelry, And follow her lovers, so that she forgot Me,”
says the LORD.
- 14“Therefore, behold, I will allure Israel
And bring her into the wilderness,
And I will speak tenderly to her [to reconcile her to Me].
- 15“Then I will give her her vineyards from there,
And make the Valley of Achor a door of hope and expectation [anticipating the time when I will restore My favor on her].
And she will sing there and respond as in the days of her youth
As in the day when she came up from the land of Egypt. [Ex
15:2; Josh 7:24–26]
- 16“‘It shall come about in that day,’” says the LORD, “‘That you will call Me Ishi (my husband)
And will no longer call Me Baali (my Baal).
- 17“‘For I will remove the names of the Baals from her mouth,
So that they will no longer be mentioned or remembered by their names. [Ex 23:13]
- 18“‘And in that day I will make a covenant for Israel
With the animals of the open country
And with the birds of the heavens
And with the creeping things of the ground.
And I will abolish the bow and the sword and [banish] war from the land

And will make them lie down in safety.

- ¹⁹“And I will betroth you (Israel) to Me forever;
Yes, I will betroth you to Me in righteousness and in justice,
In lovingkindness and loyalty, and in compassion.
²⁰“I will betroth you to Me in stability and in faithfulness.
Then you will know (recognize, appreciate) the LORD [and respond with loving faithfulness].

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that I am one of Your people and I belong to You in righteousness, justice, lovingkindness, loyalty, compassion, stability, and faithfulness. I will know You and respond to You with loving faithfulness.

• adapted from Hosea 2:19–20

²¹“It will come about in that day that I will respond,” says the LORD.

“I will respond to the heavens [which ask for rain to pour on the earth], and they will respond to the earth [which begs for the rain], ²²And the earth shall respond to the grain and the new wine and the oil [which beg it to bring them forth], And they will respond to Jezreel [My Israel, who will now be restored].

²³“I will sow her for Myself in the land.

I will also have mercy on her who had not obtained mercy;

And I will say to those who were not My people,

‘You are My people,’

And they will say, ‘You are my God!’” [1 Pet 2:9, 10]

3 THEN THE LORD said to me, “Go again, love a woman (Gomer) who is beloved by her husband and yet is an adulteress, even as the LORD loves the children of Israel, though they turn to other gods and love the raisin cakes [used in the feasts in pagan worship].”

POWERPOINT

Even though Gomer was unfaithful to Hosea, God commanded him to take her back again and love her (see Hos. 3:1). Not only did Hosea take her back, he even paid a price for her (see Hos. 3:2). This was intended to illustrate God's commitment and everlasting love for His people. Although God was angry at the Israelites for their bad behavior, He never stopped loving them. He intended to deal with them in a manner that would eventually draw them back to Him. God the Father paid the ultimate price to buy us back when He gave His Son, Jesus, for our redemption. So we see that even in our sin, God devises ways to draw us back into a loving relationship with Him. God will never give up on us.

²So I bought her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer and a half of barley [the price of a common slave].

³And I said to her, “You shall stay with me for many days. You shall not play the prostitute nor shall you have a man; so I will also be toward you [until you have proved your faithfulness].”

⁴For the sons of Israel will remain for many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or [idolatrous] pillar, and without ephod or teraphim (household idols).

⁵Afterward the sons of Israel will return [in deep repentance] and seek the LORD their God and [seek from the line of] David their king [the King of kings—the Messiah]; and they will come trembling to the LORD and to His goodness and blessing in the last days. [Jer 30:9; Ezek 34:24]

4 HEAR THE word of the LORD, you children of Israel, For the LORD has a [legal] case with the inhabitants of the land, Because there is no faithfulness [no steadfast love, no dependability] or loyalty or kindness Or knowledge of God [from personal experience with Him] in the land.

²There is [false] swearing of oaths, deception (broken faith), murder, stealing, and adultery; They employ violence, so that one [act of] bloodshed follows closely on another.

³Therefore the land [continually] mourns,
And everyone who lives in it languishes [in tragic suffering]
Together with the animals of the open country and the birds of the heavens; Even the fish of the sea disappear.

⁴Yet let no one find fault, nor let any rebuke [others]; For your people are like those who contend with the priest.

⁵So you will stumble in the daytime,
And the [false] prophet will also stumble with you in the night;
And I will destroy your mother (Israel). [Ex 19:6]

POWERPOINT

According to Hosea, one reason people can end up in serious trouble is that they do not have the knowledge they need in certain situations (see Hos. 4:6). Thankfully, God has promised to give us the knowledge and wisdom we need. If you can think of a specific circumstance in which not knowing something could be hurtful or detrimental to you, seek God for the answers. Ask Him to continually give you knowledge and revelation so that a lack of knowledge will not harm you.

⁶My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge [of My law, where I reveal My will].
Because you [the priestly nation] have rejected knowledge,

I will also reject you from being My priest.
Since you have forgotten the law of your God,
I will also forget your children.

⁷The more they multiplied [in numbers and increased in power], the more they sinned against Me; I will change their glory into shame.

⁸They (the priests) feed on the sin offering of My people
And set their heart on their wickedness. [Lev 7:7, 8]

⁹And it shall be: like people, like priest [both are wicked and both will be judged]; So I will punish them for their ways
And repay them for their deeds.

¹⁰They will eat, but not have enough;
They will play the prostitute, but not increase [their descendants],
Because they have stopped giving heed to the LORD.

¹¹Prostitution, wine, and new wine take away the mind and the [spiritual] understanding.

¹²My people consult their [lifeless] wooden idol, and their [diviner's] wand gives them oracles.
For a spirit of prostitution has led them astray [morally and spiritually], And they have played the prostitute, withdrawing themselves from their God.

¹³They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains
And burn incense on the hills,
Under oaks, poplars, and terebinths,
Because the shade is pleasant there.
Therefore your daughters play the prostitute

And your brides commit adultery.

- ¹⁴I will not punish your daughters when they play the prostitute Or your brides when they commit adultery,
For the men themselves slip away with prostitutes,
And they offer sacrifices with temple prostitutes [who give their bodies in honor of the idol].
So the people without understanding [stumble and fall and] come to ruin.

- ¹⁵Though you, Israel, play the prostitute [by worshiping idols], Do not let Judah become guilty [of the same thing];
And do not go to Gilgal [where idols are worshiped],
Or go up to Beth-aven (House of Wickedness),
Nor swear [oaths in idolatrous worship, saying],
“As the LORD lives!”

- ¹⁶For Israel is stubborn,
Like a stubborn heifer.
Can the LORD now pasture them
Like a lamb in a large field?

- ¹⁷Ephraim is joined to idols,
So let him alone [to suffer the consequences].

- ¹⁸When their liquor is gone [and their drinking parties are over], They habitually go to play the prostitute;
Ephraim's rulers continue to dearly love shame [more than her glory which is the LORD, Israel's God].

- ¹⁹The wind [of God's relentless wrath] has wrapped up Israel in its wings, And [in captivity] they will be ashamed because of their sacrifices [to calves, to sun, to moon, to stars, and to pagan gods].

5 HEAR THIS and pay close attention, O priests!

Give heed, O house of Israel!

Listen, O house of the king!

For the [pronounced] judgment pertains to you and is meant for you to hear, Because you have been a snare at Mizpah

And a net spread out over Tabor (military strongholds on either side of the Jordan River).

²The revolvers have gone deep into depravity,
But I [the LORD God] will chastise them all.

³I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from Me;
For now, O Ephraim, you have played the prostitute and have worshiped idols; Israel has defiled itself.

⁴Their [immoral] practices will not permit them
To return to their God,
For the spirit of prostitution is within them
And they do not know the LORD [they do not recognize, appreciate, heed or cherish Him].

⁵But the pride and self-reliance of Israel testifies against him.
Therefore Israel, and [especially] Ephraim, stumble and fall in their wickedness and guilt; Judah also has stumbled with them.

⁶They will go with their flocks and with their herds To seek the LORD [diligently searching for Him], but they will not find Him; He has withdrawn from them [refusing to hear the prayers of the unrepentant].

⁷They have dealt treacherously against the LORD, For they have borne illegitimate (pagan) children.

Now the New Moon will devour them along with their land [bringing judgment and captivity].

Seek God's Face

As long as miracles happen, everybody is willing to follow Jesus. In John 6, the people followed Him because of what He was doing for them, but Jesus spoke to them about seeking Him for Who He is and not merely for what He does. God wants us to seek Him (see Hos. 5:15), not the things He can do for us.

We will have seasons in life when it seems as though God is silent and still, almost as if He is hiding from us. He doesn't want us to stop following Him during these times, but we may be tempted to do so if we are only seeking His hand (what He can do for us). During these seasons, when God is "hiding" and we are seeking, our faith can grow. If we are happy only when some big, exciting thing is going on in our lives, we will never be stable because real everyday life is not always exciting. We can, however, be enthusiastic and passionate about each day that God gives us as long as we live it with, in, and through Him.

⁸Blow the horn in Gibeah, The trumpet in Ramah [the lofty hills on Benjamin's northern border].

Sound the alarm at Beth-aven:

"Behind you and coming after you [is the enemy], O Benjamin [be on guard]!"

- ⁹Ephraim will become a desolation in the day of rebuke;
Among the tribes of Israel I declare what is certain.
- ¹⁰The princes of Judah are like those who move a boundary marker;
I will pour out My wrath on them like [an unrestrained flood of] water. [Deut 19:14; Prov 22:28]
- ¹¹Ephraim is oppressed; he is broken and crushed by [divine] judgment, Because he was determined to follow man's command (vanities, filth, secular precepts).
- ¹²Therefore I am like a moth to Ephraim And like dry rot to the house of Judah [in My judgment against them].
- ¹³When Ephraim saw his sickness,
And Judah his wound,
Then Ephraim went to Assyria [instead of the LORD]
And sent to [Assyria's] great King Jareb [for help].
But he cannot heal you
Nor will he cure you of your wound [received in judgment].
- ¹⁴For I will be like a lion to Ephraim
And like a young lion to the house of Judah.
I, even I, will tear to pieces and go on [tearing];
I will carry off [the prey] and there will be no one to rescue them.
- ¹⁵I will go away and return to My place [on high] Until they acknowledge their offense and bear their guilt and seek My face; In their distress they will earnestly seek Me, saying,

6 “COME AND let us return [in repentance] to the LORD, For
He has torn us, but He will heal us;
He has wounded us, but He will bandage us.

Speak God's Word

I will know and become personally acquainted with the Lord. I will press on to know and understand fully the greatness of the Lord—to honor, heed, and deeply cherish Him. His appearing is prepared and is as certain as the dawn, and He will come to us in salvation like the spring rain watering the earth.

| adapted from HOSEA 6:3 |

²“After two days He will revive us;
On the third day He will raise us up
That we may live before Him. [Is 26:19; Ezek 37:1–10]

³“So let us know and become personally acquainted with Him; let us press on to know and understand fully the [greatness of the] LORD [to honor, heed, and deeply cherish Him].

His appearing is prepared and is as certain as the dawn,
And He will come to us [in salvation] like the [heavy] rain,

Like the spring rain watering the earth.”

⁴O Ephraim, what shall I do with you?

O Judah, what shall I do with you?

For your [wavering] loyalty and kindness are [transient] like the morning cloud And like the dew that goes away early.

⁵Therefore, I have hewn them in pieces by [the words of] the prophets; I have slain them by the words of My mouth; My judgments [pronounced upon them by the prophets] are like the light that shines forth [obvious to all].

⁶For I desire and delight in [steadfast] loyalty [faithfulness in the covenant relationship], rather than sacrifice, And in the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. [Matt 9:13; 12:7]

⁷But they, like Adam, have transgressed the covenant; There they have dealt treacherously against Me.

⁸Gilead is a city of wrongdoers;
It is tracked with bloody footprints.

⁹And as bands of robbers [lie in] wait for a man, So a band of priests murder on the road toward Shechem [covering their crimes in that city of refuge]; Certainly they have committed crimes and outrages.

¹⁰I have seen a horrible thing [sins of every kind] in the house of Israel!
Ephraim's prostitution (idolatry) is there; Israel has defiled itself.

¹¹Also, O Judah, there is a harvest [of divine judgment] appointed for you, When I restore the fortunes of My people [who have been slaves to the misery of sin].

1 WHEN I would heal Israel, The sin (guilt) of Ephraim is uncovered,

And the wickedness of Samaria,
Because they practice false dealing;
The thief enters,
Bandits ravage and raid outside.

2 But they do not consider in their hearts (minds)
That I remember [always] all their wickedness.
Now their deeds surround and entangle them;
They are before My face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness,
And the princes with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers; Like the heat of an oven
When the baker ceases to stir the fire, [their passion smolders]
From the kneading of the dough until it is leavened.

5 On the [special] day of our king, the princes became sick with the heat of wine; The king stretched out his hand [in association] with scoffers (lawless people).

6 As they approach their plotting,
Their mind burns [with intrigue] like an oven [while they lie in wait].
Their anger smolders all night;
In the morning it blazes like a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot like an oven

And they consume their judges (rulers);
All their kings have fallen.
There is no one among them who calls to Me.

⁸Ephraim mixes himself with the [Gentile] nations [seeking favor with one country, then another]; Ephraim is a cake not turned [worthless; ready to be thrown away].

⁹Strangers have devoured his strength,
Yet he does not know it;
Gray hairs are sprinkled on him,
Yet he does not know.

¹⁰Though the pride of Israel testifies against him,
Yet they do not return [in repentance] to the LORD their God,
Nor seek nor search for nor desire Him [as essential] in spite of all this.

¹¹Ephraim also is like a silly dove, without heart or good sense; They call to Egypt [for help], they go to Assyria.

¹²When they go, I will spread My net over them;
I will bring them down like birds of the heavens [into Assyrian captivity].
I will chastise them in accordance with the proclamation (prophecy) to their congregation. [Lev 26:14–39; Deut 28:15–68]

¹³Woe (judgment is coming) to them, for they have wandered away from Me!
Devastation is theirs, because they have rebelled and trespassed against Me!
I would redeem them, but they speak lies against Me.

- ¹⁴They do not cry out to Me from their heart
When they wail on their beds [in unbelieving despair];
For the sake of grain and new wine they assemble themselves [as if worshiping Baal]; They rebel against Me.
- ¹⁵Although I trained and strengthened their arms [for victory over their enemies], Yet they devise evil against Me.
- ¹⁶They turn, but they do not turn upward to the Most High.
They are like a poorly crafted bow [that misses the mark];
Their princes shall fall by the sword
Because of the insolence of their tongue.
This will be cause for their mockery and disdain in the land of Egypt.

8 SET THE trumpet to your lips [announcing impending judgment]!

Like a [great] vulture the enemy comes against the house of the LORD, Because they have broken My covenant
And transgressed and rebelled against My law.

²Then they will cry out to Me,
“My God, we of Israel know You!”

³Israel has rejected the good;
The enemy shall pursue him.

⁴They set up kings, but not from Me [therefore without My blessing]; They have appointed princes, but I did not know it.

With their silver and their gold they made idols for themselves,

That they might be cut off.

⁵He has rejected your [pagan] calf, O Samaria, saying,
“My wrath burns against them.”

How long will they be incapable of innocence?

⁶For even this [loathsome calf] is from Israel.

A craftsman made it, so it is not God;

Surely the calf of Samaria will be broken to pieces and go up in flames.

⁷For they sow the wind [in evil]

And they reap the whirlwind [in disaster].

The standing grain has no growth;

It yields no grain.

If it were to yield, strangers would swallow it up.

⁸Israel is [as if] swallowed up [by enemies]; They are now among the nations

Like a vessel [of cheap, coarse pottery] that is useless.

⁹For they have gone up to Assyria,

Like a wild donkey wandering alone and taking her own way;

Ephraim has hired lovers (pagan allies).

¹⁰Yes, even though [with presents] they hire allies among the nations, Now I will gather them up;

POWERPOINT

One gift God has given His people is His precepts (see Hos. 8:12), His stated will and ways. The Israelites chose to disregard His precepts and forfeited their relationship with Him. In contrast, the psalmist said that he meditated on the precepts of God all the time (see Ps. 119:97). That means he spent a great deal of time pondering and thinking on the ways of God, on His instructions and teachings. Today as I took my morning walk, I simply thought about some of my favorite verses in God's Word and pondered what they mean to me. Even if you take one scripture each day and seriously think about what it means to you, it will be beneficial to you.

And [in a little while] they will begin to grow weak and diminish Because of the burden imposed by the king of princes [the king of Assyria].

¹¹For Ephraim has constructed many altars for sin; They are altars intended for sinning [which multiply his guilt].

¹²I wrote for him the ten thousand precepts of My law, But they are regarded as a strange thing [which does not concern him].

¹³As for My sacrificial offerings,
They sacrifice the meat [as a mere formality] and eat it,
But the LORD is not pleased with them and does not accept them.

Now He will remember and take into account their wickedness and guilt, And punish them for their sins.

They will return [in captivity] to [another] Egypt [that is, Assyria]. [Deut 28:68]

¹⁴For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces [and pagan temples],

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The God Who Provides

In Hosea 9:2, the Lord is described as “the God who provides.” There are many people who constantly fight the mental battles of fear and anxiety about provision. They worry about whether they can pay the mortgage or the rent, whether they can keep the car running, whether they can send their children to college, whether they will have enough money for retirement. Another thing many people worry about is whether or not they are pleasing to God.

I describe worry as “spending today trying to figure out tomorrow.” Let’s learn to use the time God has given to us for what He intended. Life is to be lived—here and now—without anxiety or worry. Few people know how to live each day to the fullest, simply trusting the Lord to provide for their every need. If, as Jesus said, the flowers of the fields are well taken care of (see Luke 12:27), then surely we can believe that we will be provided for. Don’t spend today worrying about tomorrow. Trust the God who provides!

And Judah has built many fortified cities;

But I will send a fire upon their cities so that it may consume their palaces and fortresses. [Amos 1:4, 7, 10, 12, 14; 2:2,

9 DO NOT rejoice, O Israel, with exultation as do the [pagan] peoples, For you have played the prostitute, turning away from your God.

You have loved prostitutes' earnings on every threshing floor [attributing the harvest to the Baals instead of to God].

²The threshing floor and the wine press will no longer feed them, And the new wine will fail them [because they failed to honor the God who provides].

³They will not remain in the land of the LORD, But Ephraim will return to [another] Egypt [in bondage]
And they will eat [ceremonially] unclean food in Assyria. [2 Kin 25:26; Ezek 4:13]

⁴They will not pour out drink offerings of wine to the LORD;
Their sacrifices will not please Him.
Their bread will be like mourners' bread [eaten at funerals];
All who eat it will be [ceremonially] unclean,
For their bread will be for themselves;
It will not enter the house of the LORD [to be consecrated].

⁵What will you do on the day of the appointed festival
And on the day of the feast of the LORD [when you are in exile]?

⁶For behold, they will go away because of devastation and destruction; Egypt will gather them up, Memphis will bury them.
Weeds will take over their treasures of silver;
Thorns will grow in their tents.

⁷The days of punishment have come;

The days of retribution are at hand;
Let Israel know this!
The prophet is [considered] a fool;
The man [of God] who is inspired is [treated as if] demented,
Because of the abundance of your wickedness and guilt,
And because your deep antagonism [toward God and the prophets] is so great. [Luke 21:22]

⁸Ephraim was a watchman with my God, a [true] prophet [to warn the nation]; But the snare of a bird catcher was laid in all his paths.

And there is only deep hostility in the house of his God (the land of Israel).

⁹They have deeply corrupted (perverted) themselves
As in the days of Gibeah.

The LORD will remember their wickedness and guilt; He will punish their sins. [Judg 20]

¹⁰I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness [an unexpected and refreshing delight]; I saw your fathers (ancestors) as the first ripe fruit on the fig tree in its first season, But they came to Baal-peor and consecrated themselves to shamefulness [the worship of Baal], And [because of their spiritual and physical adultery] they became as detestable and loathsome as the thing they loved.

¹¹As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird;
No birth, no pregnancy, and [because of their impurity] no conception.

¹²Even though they bring up their children,

Yet I will bereave them until not one is left.

Indeed, woe (judgment is coming) to them when I look away and withdraw [My blessing] from them!

¹³Ephraim, as I have seen,
Is planted in a pleasant [and prosperous] meadow like Tyre;
But Ephraim will bring out his children to the executioner [for slaughter].

¹⁴Give them [the punishment they deserve], O LORD! What will You give?
Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

¹⁵All their wickedness [says the LORD] is focused in Gilgal;
Indeed, I came to hate them there!
Because of the wickedness of their [idolatrous] practices
I will drive them out of My house (the land of Israel)!
I will love them no longer;
All their princes are rebels. [Hos 4:15; 12:11]

¹⁶Ephraim is stricken, their root is dried up,
They will bear no fruit.
Even though they give birth,
I will slay the precious children of their womb.

¹⁷My God will reject them and cast them away
Because they did not listen to Him;
And they will be wanderers (fugitives) among the nations.

10 ISRAEL IS a luxuriant and prolific vine; He produces fruit for himself.

The more his fruit,
The more altars he made [to Baal];
The richer his land,
The better he made the [idolatrous] pillars.

²Their heart is divided (faithless);
Now they must bear their guilt and punishment.
The LORD will break down [the horns of] their altars; He will destroy their idolatrous pillars.

³Surely now they will say [in despair], “We have no [true] king, For we do not revere the LORD;
And as for the king, what can he do for us [to rescue us]?”

⁴They have spoken empty (disingenuous) words,
Swearing falsely to make covenants [they intend to break];
Therefore, judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.

⁵The people of Samaria will fear and tremble
For the [idolatrous] calf of Beth-aven (House of Wickedness).
Indeed, its people will mourn over it
And its idolatrous priests will cry out and wail over it, Over its glory, because the glory [of their calf god] has departed from it.

⁶The golden calf itself will be carried to Assyria As tribute to King Jareb;
Ephraim will be seized with shame
And Israel will be ashamed of his own counsel [to worship the calf and separate Israel from Judah].

- ⁷As for Samaria, her king will be cut off and float away Like a twig on the surface of the water.
- ⁸Also the high places of Aven (Beth-aven), the sin of Israel, will be destroyed; The thorn and the thistle will grow on their [pagan] altars,
And [in despair] they will say to the mountains, “Cover us!” And to the hills, “Fall on us!” [Luke 23:30; Rev 6:16; 9:6]
- ⁹O Israel, you have [willfully] sinned since the days of Gibeah; There they (Israel) stand!
Will not the battle against the sons of wickedness overtake them at Gibeah? [Judg 20]
- ¹⁰When it is my desire [to defend My righteousness], I will chastise them; And [hostile] peoples will be gathered against them
When they are bound and punished for their double guilt [their revolt against the LORD and their worship of idols].
[Jer 2:13; Lam 3:31–33]
- ¹¹Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to tread out the grain,
But I will come over her fair neck with a heavy yoke [for hard field work].
I will harness Ephraim;

Speak God's Word

I will sow with a view to righteousness, that righteousness, like seed, may germinate in me; I will reap in accordance with mercy and lovingkindness. I will break up my uncultivated ground, for it is time to seek and search diligently for the Lord and to long for His blessing until He comes to rain righteousness and His gift of salvation on me.

| adapted from HOSEA 10:12 |

Judah will plow and Jacob will harrow and rake for himself.

¹²Sow with a view to righteousness [that righteousness, like seed, may germinate]; Reap in accordance with mercy and lovingkindness.

Break up your uncultivated ground,

For it is time to seek and search diligently for the LORD [and to long for His blessing]

Until He comes to rain righteousness and His gift of salvation on you. [2 Cor 9:10]

¹³You have plowed and planted wickedness, you have reaped the [willful] injustice [of oppressors], You have eaten the fruit of lies.

Because you have trusted in your own way and your chariots, and in your many warriors, ¹⁴Therefore an uproar will arise among your people,

And all your fortresses will be destroyed,

As Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel on the day of battle,

When mothers were dashed in pieces with their children. [2 Kin 17:3]

¹⁵In this way it will be done to you at [idolatrous] Bethel because of your great wickedness; At daybreak the king of Israel will be completely cut off.

11 WHEN ISRAEL was a child [a young nation], I loved him, And I called My son out of Egypt. [Matt 2:15]

²The more they [the prophets] called them [to repentance and obedience], The more they went away from them; They kept sacrificing to the Baals And burning incense to the carved images.

³Yet it is I who taught Ephraim to walk, Taking them in My arms [nurturing the young nation]; But they did not know that I healed them.

⁴I led them gently with cords of a man, with bonds of love [guiding them],

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

A Truly Loving Father Hosea 11 is a chapter about God's love for Israel, the kind of love a good father has for a child (see v. 1). No matter how great their sin against Him, God never stopped loving them or longing to show them compassion (see vv. 8–9).

The idea that God loves His people in such a tender, powerful, unconditional way took some time for me to embrace after I became a Christian. Even after I believed that He loved everyone, it took some more time for me to receive His unconditional love personally. My experience with my earthly father was not positive, so I found it difficult to believe that God could love me that much.

My earthly father told me often that he loved me, but his kind of love was sick and immoral. My mother told me that she loved me, but she did not protect me from my father's sexual abuse, even though she knew about it. My first husband told me that he loved me, but he was unfaithful to me many times. The list could go on, but I am sure you can relate to my point and that you have your own list of people who said they loved you without ever demonstrating the kind of love God has for us and wants us to have for one another.

However, when God says that He loves us, He means it in every way. His love always moves Him to action on our behalf, and true love is only known by the action it inspires (see 1 John 3:16–18). You will see and experience the love of God if you put your faith in Him.

Let me ask: Have you decided to believe that God loves you unconditionally and has a good plan for your life? I pray that you have and that you will begin to expect to see it manifested in your life. I encourage you to say aloud several times each day, “God loves me unconditionally.” By speaking this truth, you are verbally agreeing with God's Word and helping to renew your mind.

God's love seeks the welfare of all and works no ill toward anyone. It looks for opportunities to do good to everyone. The love God has for us is the love of a perfect being (God) toward entirely unworthy people (us). God loves us because He wants to and because His nature compels Him to do so. He is love!

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Loving Father, thank You for loving me perfectly, even when others have not loved me well or have even done me harm while saying they loved me and not meaning it. Help me to receive, believe, and trust the love You have for me. In Jesus' name. Amen.

And I was to them as one who lifts up and eases the yoke [of the law] over their jaws; And I bent down to them and fed them.

⁵They will not return to the land of Egypt, But Assyria will be their king [bringing them into captivity]
Because they refused to return to Me.

⁶The sword will whirl against and fall on their cities, And will demolish the bars of their gates and fortifications
And will consume them because of their counsels.

⁷My people are bent on turning from Me;
Though the prophets call them to the One on high,
None at all exalts Him.

⁸How can I give you up, O Ephraim?
How can I surrender you, O Israel?
How can I make you like Admah?
How can I treat you like Zeboiim?
My heart recoils within Me;
All My compassions are kindled together [for My nation of Israel]. [Deut 29:23]

⁹I will not execute the fierceness of My anger;
I will not return to Ephraim to destroy him again.
For I am God and not man, the Holy One in your midst [who will not revoke My covenant], And I will not come in wrath or enter the city [in judgment].

¹⁰They will walk after the LORD [in obedience and worship],

Who will roar like a lion;
He will roar [summoning them]
And His sons will come trembling from the west.

¹¹They will come trembling and hurriedly like birds from Egypt
And like doves from the land of Assyria;
And I will settle them in their houses [in the land of their inheritance], declares the LORD.

¹²Ephraim surrounds Me with lies
And the house of Israel with deceit;
Judah is also unruly against God,
Even against the faithful Holy One.

12 EPHRAIM FEEDS on the [emptiness of the] wind And [continually] pursues the [parching] east wind [which brings destruction]; Every day he multiplies lies and violence.

Further, he makes a covenant with Assyria
And (olive) oil is carried to Egypt [to seek alliances]. [Is 30:6, 7]

²The LORD also has a dispute [a legal complaint and an indictment] with Judah, And He will punish Jacob in accordance with his ways;
He will repay him in accordance with his deeds.

³In their mother's womb he took his brother by the heel, And in his maturity he contended with God. [Gen 25:26; 27:36]

⁴He wrestled with the angel and prevailed;
He wept [in repentance] and sought His favor.

He met Him at Bethel

And there God spoke with [him and through him with] us—
[Gen 28:12–19; 32:28; 35:1–15]

⁵Even the LORD, the God of hosts, The name of Him [who spoke with Jacob] is the LORD.

⁶Therefore, return [in repentance] to your God,
Observe and highly regard kindness and justice,
And wait [expectantly] for your God continually.

⁷A merchant, in whose hand are false and fraudulent balances; He loves to oppress and exploit.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

When I have sinned, Lord, I will return in repentance to You. I will observe and highly regard kindness and justice, and I will wait expectantly for You continually.

• adapted from Hosea 12:6

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Wants You Back

All God required in order to restore the Israelites' relationship with Himself was for them to return to Him and repent of their iniquity (see Hos. 12:6). He wanted them to be sorry for what they had done, to turn away from their sin, and turn back to Him.

If you have served God at some point but then walked away from Him to seek the things of the world, Hosea 12:6 can encourage you and give you hope that God is waiting with open arms to welcome you back. This verse is a passionate call from God for you to return to Him and wait expectantly for Him. Waiting for God means spending time with Him in His Word and in His presence. When we wait expectantly for God, we anticipate something good from our time with Him.

⁸Ephraim said, "I have indeed become rich [and powerful as a nation]; I have found wealth for myself.

In all my labors they will not find in me

Any wickedness that would be sin." [Rev 3:17]

⁹But I have been the LORD your God since [you became a nation in] the land of Egypt; I will make you live in tents again,

As in the days of the appointed and solemn festival. [Lev 23:39–43]

¹⁰I have also spoken to [you through] the prophets,
And I gave [them] many visions [to make My will known],
And through the prophets I gave parables [to appeal to your sense of right and wrong].

¹¹Is there wickedness (idolatry) in Gilead?
Surely the people there are worthless.
In Gilgal [they defy Me when] they sacrifice bulls, Yes, [after My judgment] their [pagan] altars are like the stone heaps
In the furrows of the fields.

¹²Now Jacob (Israel) fled into the open country of Aram
(Paddan-aram), [Gen 28:2, 5]
And [there] Israel (Jacob) worked and served for a wife,
And for a wife he kept sheep. [Gen 29:18–20; 30:31; 31:38–
41]

¹³And by a prophet (Moses) the LORD brought Israel up from Egypt, And by a prophet Israel was preserved.

¹⁴Ephraim has provoked most bitter anger;
So his Lord will leave his bloodguilt on him [invoking punishment]
And bring back to him his shame and dishonor.

13 WHEN EPHRAIM spoke, there was trembling and terror.
He exalted himself [above the other tribes] in Israel;
But through [the worship of] Baal he became guilty and died [spiritually, and then came ruin, sealing Israel's doom as a nation].

²And now they sin more and more,
And make for themselves molten images,
Idols skillfully made from their silver [as it pleased them],
All of them the work of the craftsmen.
They say of these [very works of their hands], “Let those who sacrifice kiss and show respect to the calves [as if they were living gods]!”

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*I am thankful, Lord my God, that there is no savior besides
You.*

• adapted from Hosea 13:4

³Therefore they will be [swiftly dissipated] like the morning cloud Or like dew which soon disappears, Like chaff which swirls with the whirlwind from the threshing floor,

And like smoke from the chimney or through the window [worthless and without substance—they will vanish].

⁴Yet I have been the LORD your God Since [the time you became a nation in] the land of Egypt;
And you were not to know any god except Me,
For there is no savior besides Me.

⁵I knew and regarded you and cared for you in the wilderness, In the land of drought.

⁶When they had their pasture, they became satisfied, And being satisfied, their heart became proud (self-centered);
Therefore they forgot Me.

⁷So I will be like a lion to them;
Like a leopard I will watch and lie in wait [ready to attack] by the road [to Assyria].

⁸I will encounter them like a bear robbed of her cubs,
And I will tear open their chests;
There I will also devour them like a lioness,
As a wild beast would tear them.

⁹It is your destruction, O Israel, Because you are against Me, [and have rebelled] against your help.

¹⁰Where now is your king
That he may save you [when you are attacked] in all your cities?
And your judges of whom you asked,
“Give me a king and princes”?

- ¹¹I gave you a king in My anger,
And I took him away in My wrath [as punishment].
- ¹²The wickedness of Ephraim [which is not yet completely punished] is bound up [as in a bag]; His sin is stored up [for judgment and destruction].
- ¹³The pains of childbirth come on him;
But he is not a wise son,
For it is not the time to delay [his chance at a new birth] as the womb opens [but he ignores the opportunity to change].
- ¹⁴Shall I ransom them from the power of Sheol (the place of the dead)?
Shall I redeem them from death?
O death, where are your thorns?
O Sheol, where is your sting?
Compassion is hidden from My eyes [because of their failure to repent]. [1 Cor 15:55]
- ¹⁵For though he flourishes among the reeds (his fellow tribes),
An east wind (Assyria) will come,
The breath of the LORD rising from the desert; And Ephraim's spring will become dry
And his fountain will be dried up.
Assyria will plunder his treasury of every precious object.
- ¹⁶Samaria will be found guilty [and become desolate],
Because she rebelled against her God;
They will fall by the sword,
Their infants will be dashed in pieces,

And their pregnant women will be ripped open.

14 O ISRAEL, return [in repentance] to the LORD your God, For you have stumbled and fallen [visited by tragedy], because of your sin.

²Take the words [confessing your guilt] with you and return to the LORD.

Say to Him, “Take away all our wickedness;
Accept what is good and receive us graciously,
So that we may present the fruit of our lips (gratitude). [Heb
13:15]

³“Assyria will not save us;
We will not ride on horses [relying on military might],
Nor will we say again to [the idols who are] the work of our hands, ‘You are our gods.’
For in You [O LORD] the orphan finds love and compassion and mercy.”

⁴I will heal their apostasy and faithlessness; I will love them freely,
For My anger has turned away from Israel.

⁵I shall be like the dew to Israel;
He will blossom like the lily,
And he will take root like the cedars of Lebanon.

⁶His shoots will sprout,
And his beauty will be like the olive tree
And his fragrance like the cedars of Lebanon.

⁷Those who live in his shadow
Will again raise grain,
And they will blossom like the vine.
His renown will be like the wine of Lebanon.

⁸O Ephraim, what more have I to do with idols?

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, I pray that You will make me more and more spiritually wise and discerning, for Your ways are right, and the righteous will walk in them.

• adapted from Hosea 14:9

It is I who have answered and will care for you and watch over you.

I am like a luxuriant cypress tree;

With Me your fruit is found [which is to nourish you].

⁹Whoever is [spiritually] wise, let him understand these things; Whoever is [spiritually] discerning and understanding, let him know them.
For the ways of the LORD are right,
And the righteous will walk in them,
But transgressors will stumble and fall in them. [Ps 107:43;
Is 26:7; Jer 9:12; Dan 12:10]

Joel

The prophet Joel wrote to the people of Judah during a difficult time in their history. They had endured the loss of crops and livestock as well as the death of friends and loved ones because of a plague of locusts. Against this backdrop, the Lord sent Joel to speak of His desire to restore to them what they had lost.

For the people of Judah, the key to restoration was repentance. When we sin, recognize the error of our ways, and then sincerely come to God with all our heart in genuine repentance, He restores our fellowship with Him (see Joel 2:12). He always wants our relationship with Him to be restored first, and then He is eager to also restore other things we have lost (see Joel 2:25–26).

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM JOEL:

The Lord promises to restore the years you have lost (see Joel 2:25).

Let go of the past and set your mind on God's promise to redeem it and to lead you to a great future (see Joel 2:25–26).

God wants to pour out His Holy Spirit on you (see Joel 2:28–29).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM JOEL:

Do not fear... be glad and rejoice, for the LORD has done great things! | Joel 2:21

And you shall know [without any doubt] that I am in the midst of Israel [to protect and bless you], and that I am the LORD your God, and there is no other; My people will never be put to shame. | Joel 2:27

Let the weak say, "I am strong!" | Joel 3:10

THE BOOK OF

JOEL

1 THE WORD of the LORD that came to Joel, the son of Pethuel.

²Hear this, O elders,
Listen closely, all inhabitants of the land!
Has such a thing as this occurred in your days, Or even in the days of your fathers?

³Tell your children about it,
And let your children tell their children,
And their children the next generation.

⁴What the gnawing locust has left, the swarming locust has eaten;
And what the swarming locust has left, the creeping locust has eaten;
And what the creeping locust has left, the stripping locust has eaten [in judgment of Judah].

⁵Awake [from your intoxication], you drunkards, and weep;
Wail, all you drinkers of wine,
Because of the [fresh] sweet wine
That is cut off from your mouth.

⁶For a [pagan and hostile] nation has invaded My land [like locusts], Mighty and without number;

Its teeth are the teeth of a lion,
And it has the fangs of a lioness. [Rev 9:7, 8]

⁷It has made My vine (My people) a waste and object of horror, And splintered and broken My fig tree.
It has stripped them completely bare and thrown them away; Their branches have become white. [Is 5:5, 6]

⁸Wail like a virgin [bride] clothed with sackcloth For the bridegroom of her youth [who has died].

⁹The [daily] grain offering and the drink offering are cut off
From the house of the LORD; The priests mourn
Who minister to the LORD.

¹⁰The field is ruined,
The ground mourns;
For the grain is ruined,
The new wine is dried up,
The fresh oil fails.

¹¹Be ashamed, O farmers;
Wail, O vinedressers,
For the wheat and for the barley,
Because the harvest of the field has perished.

¹²The vine dries up
And the fig tree fails;
The pomegranate, the palm also, and the apple tree,
All the trees of the field dry up,
Indeed, joy dries up and withdraws
From the sons of men.

¹³Clothe yourselves with sackcloth

And lament (cry out in grief), O priests;
Wail, O ministers of the altar!
Come, spend the night in sackcloth [and pray without ceasing], O ministers of my God,
For the grain offering and the drink offering
Are withheld from the house of your God.

¹⁴Consecrate a fast,
Proclaim a solemn assembly,
Gather the elders
And all the inhabitants of the land
To the house of the LORD your God, And cry out to the LORD [in penitent pleadings].

¹⁵Alas for the day!
For the [judgment] day of the LORD is at hand, And it will come [upon the nation] as a destruction from the Almighty. [Zeph 1:14–18]

¹⁶Has not the food been cut off before our eyes, Joy and gladness from the house of our God?

¹⁷The seeds [of grain] shrivel under the clods, The storehouses are desolate and empty,
The barns are in ruins
Because the grain is dried up.

¹⁸How the animals groan!
The herds of cattle are bewildered and wander aimlessly
Because they have no pasture;
Even the flocks of sheep suffer.

¹⁹O LORD, I cry out to You, For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness,

And the flame has burned up all the trees of the field.
²⁰Even the wild animals pant [in longing] for You; For the water brooks are dried up
And fire has consumed the pastures of the wilderness.

2 BLOW THE trumpet in Zion [warning of impending judgment], Sound an alarm on My holy mountain [Zion]!

Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble and shudder in fear, For the [judgment] day of the LORD is coming; It is close at hand, [Ezek 7:2–4; Amos 5:16–20]

²A day of darkness and gloom,
A day of clouds and of thick [dark] mist,
Like the dawn spread over the mountains;
There is a [pagan, hostile] people numerous and mighty,
The like of which has never been before
Nor will be again afterward
Even for years of many generations.

³Before them a fire devours,
And behind them a flame burns;
Before them the land is like the Garden of Eden,
But behind them a desolate wilderness;
And nothing at all escapes them.

⁴Their appearance is like the appearance of horses, And they run like war horses.

⁵Like the noise of chariots
They leap on the tops of the mountains,
Like the crackling of a flame of fire devouring the stubble,

Speak God's Word

I am strong and powerful because I obediently carry out God's Word.

| adapted from JOEL 2:11 |

Like a mighty people set in battle formation. [Rev 9:7, 9]

⁶Before them the people are in anguish;
All faces become pale [with terror].

⁷They run like warriors;
They climb the wall like soldiers.
They each march [straight ahead] in line,
And they do not deviate from their paths.

⁸They do not crowd each other;
Each one marches in his path.
When they burst through the defenses (weapons),
They do not break ranks.

⁹They rush over the city,
They run on the wall;
They climb up into the houses,
They enter at the windows like a thief.

¹⁰The earth quakes before them,
The heavens tremble,
The sun and the moon grow dark
And the stars lose their brightness. [Rev 9:2–4; 16:14]

¹¹The LORD utters His voice before His army, For His camp is very great,
Because strong and powerful is he who [obediently] carries out His word.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

When I have sinned, Lord, I will turn to You with all my heart in genuine repentance, with fasting, weeping, and mourning until every barrier is removed and broken fellowship is restored. For You are gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, and abounding in lovingkindness.

• adapted from Joel 2:12–13

For the day of the LORD is indeed great and very terrible [causing dread]; Who can endure it? [Is 26:20, 21; 34:1–4, 8; Rev 6:16, 17]

¹²“Even now,” says the LORD, “Turn and come to Me with all

- your heart [in genuine repentance], With fasting and weeping and mourning [until every barrier is removed and the broken fellowship is restored]; ¹³Rip your heart to pieces [in sorrow and contrition] and not your garments.”
- Now return [in repentance] to the LORD your God, For He is gracious and compassionate, Slow to anger, abounding in lovingkindness [faithful to His covenant with His people]; And He relents [His sentence of] evil [when His people genuinely repent].
- ¹⁴Who knows whether He will relent [and revoke your sentence], And leave a blessing behind Him,
Even a grain offering and a drink offering [from the bounty He provides you]
For the LORD your God?
- ¹⁵Blow a trumpet in Zion [warning of impending judgment], Dedicate a fast [as a day of restraint and humility], call a solemn assembly.
- ¹⁶Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, Assemble the elders, Gather the children and the nursing infants.
Let the bridegroom come out of his room
And the bride out of her bridal chamber. [No one is excused from the assembly.]
- ¹⁷Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, Weep between the porch and the altar,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Redeems the Past

In Joel 2:25, God is saying that He will redeem or compensate us for lost time. Verses 25 and 26 teach us how to think about the past in order to embrace the future. Simply put, the years the locusts have eaten represent negative experiences in the past, especially seasons of loss or lack. God says He will make up for those things, promising, “You will have plenty to eat and be satisfied and praise the name of the LORD your God Who has dealt wondrously with you” (Joel 2:26).

God can redeem any negative situation in your past, and you can break free from it by saying to the Lord, “Yes, this happened in my life, but You are on my side, and You have a good plan for me. I believe You can make up for everything I have lost!”

Our hope for the future should never be based on what we have experienced in the past or on what we can see in the present. Our hope should be based on God’s Word and on His promises for our lives.

The time has come to stop thinking about everything in your past—what you’ve lost, what you’ve given up on, or the lies you have believed. Let go of what is now behind you and set your mind on God’s promise to redeem the past and lead you into a wonderful future. Live every day filled with hope, expecting something good to happen to you and through you!

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Thank God for His Holy Spirit!

In Joel 2:28, God promises to pour out His Holy Spirit on all mankind. This verse was a prophetic promise fulfilled on the Day of Pentecost and is still being fulfilled daily in our lives. Peter even said about that day, “This is [the beginning of] what was spoken through the prophet Joel: ‘AND IT SHALL BE IN THE LAST DAYS,’ says God, ‘THAT I WILL POUR OUT MY SPIRIT ON ALL MANKIND’” (Acts 2:16–17).

Receiving the fullness of the Holy Spirit is one of the most important experiences we can have as Christians. He is our Guide, our Teacher of truth, our Counselor, and our Helper in every situation. He is also our Comforter, or the parakletos, a Greek word explained in Vine’s Complete Expository Dictionary of Old and New Testament Words as one who is “called alongside.” This term “was used in a court of justice to denote a legal assistant, counsel for the defense, an advocate... who pleads another’s cause, an intercessor.”

The Holy Spirit promises never to leave us nor forsake us. We can live the abundant life that Jesus promises (see John 10:10) as we learn to follow where He leads and as we listen to His voice.

Before Jesus was crucified, He told His disciples that it would actually be better for them if He went away than if He stayed on earth in the flesh, because if He stayed, His Spirit—the Holy Spirit—would not come (see John 16:7). During His earthly life, Jesus was confined to a body and could only be in one place at a time. The Holy Spirit can be in every single one of us, all the time, leading us everywhere we should go. Let's seek to be filled with Him daily, embrace His guidance in our lives, and be thankful that God has given us this amazing and wonderful gift!

And let them say, “Have compassion and spare Your people, O LORD, And do not make Your inheritance (Israel) an object of ridicule, Or a [humiliating] byword among the [Gentile] nations.

Why should they say among the peoples,
‘Where is their God?’”

¹⁸Then the LORD will be jealous for His land [ready to defend it since it is rightfully and uniquely His]
And will have compassion on His people [and will spare them].

¹⁹The LORD will answer and say to His people, “Behold, I am going to send you grain and new wine and oil, And you will be satisfied in full with them;
And I will never again make you an object of ridicule among the [Gentile] nations.

²⁰“But I will remove the northern army far away from you,
And I will drive it into a parched and desolate land,
With its forward guard into the eastern sea (Dead Sea)
And with its rear guard into the western sea (Mediterranean Sea).

And its stench will arise and its foul odor of decay will come up [this is the fate of the northern army in the final day of the LORD], For He has done great things.” [Is 34:1–4, 8; Amos 4:10]

²¹Do not fear, O land; be glad and rejoice, For the LORD has done great things! [Zech 12:8–10]

²²Do not be afraid, you animals of the field, For the pastures of the wilderness have turned green;
The tree has produced its fruit,
And the fig tree and the vine have yielded in full.

²³So rejoice, O children of Zion,
And delight in the LORD, your God; For He has given you the early [autumn] rain in vindication And He has poured down the rain for you,
The early [autumn] rain and the late [spring] rain, as before.

²⁴And the threshing floors shall be full of grain, And the vats shall overflow with new wine and oil.

²⁵“And I will compensate you for the years
That the swarming locust has eaten,
The creeping locust, the stripping locust, and the gnawing locust— My great army which I sent among you.

²⁶“You will have plenty to eat and be satisfied And praise the name of the LORD your God Who has dealt wondrously with you;
And My people shall never be put to shame.

²⁷“And you shall know [without any doubt] that I am in the midst of Israel [to protect and bless you], And that I am the LORD your God, And there is no other;

My people will never be put to shame.

28“‘It shall come about after this That I shall pour out My Spirit on all mankind;
And your sons and your daughters will prophesy,
Your old men will dream dreams,
Your young men will see visions.

29“‘Even on the male and female servants
I will pour out My Spirit in those days.

30“‘I will show signs and wonders [displaying My power] in the heavens and on the earth, Blood and fire and columns of smoke.

31“‘The sun will be turned into darkness
And the moon into blood
Before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes. [Is 13:6, 9–11; 24:21–23; Ezek 32:7–10; Matt 24:29, 30; Rev 6:12–17]

32“‘And it shall come about that whoever calls on the name of the LORD
Will be saved [from the coming judgment]
For on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem
There will be those who escape,
As the LORD has said,
Even among the remnant [of survivors] whom the LORD calls. [Acts 2:17–21; Rom 10:13]

3 “FOR BEHOLD, in those [climactic] days and at that time,
When I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem,

²I will gather together all the [Gentile] nations [that were hostile to My people]

And bring them down into the Valley of Jehoshaphat (the LORD has judged).

And there I will deal with them and enter into judgment with them there For [their treatment of] My people, My inheritance, Israel, Whom they have scattered among the nations,

And [because] they have encroached on My land and divided it up.

³“They have also cast lots for My people,

And have traded a boy for a prostitute

And have sold a girl for wine that they may drink.

⁴“Moreover, what are you to Me, O Tyre and Sidon and all the [five small] regions of Philistia? Will you pay Me back for something [I have supposedly done to you]? Even if you do pay Me back, I will swiftly and speedily return your deed [of retaliation] on your own head. [Is 23; Ezek 26:1–18; Amos 1:6–10; Zeph 2:4–7; Zech 9:2–7]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Confess What You Believe, Not What You See

One of the great privileges we have, but frequently fail to make use of, is to speak of things that are not yet evident as if they already exist. For example, God's Word encourages us to say we are strong even when we are weak (see Joel 3:10). If you believe God has strength available for you, as His Word says, there is no need to keep saying you are weak. You can confess that you are strong. We often must believe God's promise before we feel any different or see any change. It is a simple thing to remember, "Believe first and then you will see and feel."

We need to say what God says and do what He does if we want to follow in His plan for us and enjoy the life He wants us to enjoy. We should be confessing God's promises as though they already exist in our lives (see Rom. 4:17), because they do in the spiritual realm. We are called to walk by faith and not by sight (see 2 Cor. 5:7). In other words, we believe what God says in His Word even more than we believe what we see. Let's say what God says.

⁵“Because you have taken My silver and My gold and have carried My precious treasures to your temples and palaces, ⁶and have sold the children of Judah and the children of Jerusalem to the Greeks, so that you may send them far away from their territory, ⁷behold, I am going to stir them up from the place where you have sold them [and return them to their land], and I shall return your action [of retaliation] on your own head.

⁸“Also I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabceans, to a distant nation,” for the LORD has spoken. [Is 14:2; 60:14]

⁹Proclaim this among the [pagan] nations: Prepare a war! Stir up the mighty men!

Let all the men of war come near, let them come up!

¹⁰Beat your plowshares into swords
And your pruning hooks into spears;
Let the weak say, “I am strong!” [Is 2:4; Mic 4:3]

¹¹Hurry and come, all you surrounding nations, And gather yourselves there;

Bring down, O LORD, Your mighty ones (Your warriors).

¹²Let the nations be stirred [to action]
And come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat,
For there I will sit to judge and punish
All the surrounding nations.

¹³Put in the sickle [of judgment], for the harvest is ripe; Come, tread [the grapes], for the wine press is full;
The vats overflow, for the wickedness [of the people] is great. [Mark 4:29; Rev 14:15, 18–20]

¹⁴Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision (judgment)!
For the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision
[when judgment is executed]. [Zech 14:1–9]

¹⁵The sun and the moon grow dark
And the stars lose their brightness.

¹⁶The LORD thunders and roars from Zion

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Speak Life-Changing Words A good life is not one that is entirely trouble free, but it is a life that can always be enjoyed because we trust God, develop good attitudes, and fill our mind with hope and confident expectations of good. One of the keys to living a good life is our knowing God's Word and His promises, meditating on them, allowing them to transform our thinking, and confessing them with our mouths.

God has a good, acceptable, and perfect plan for you and me, and the way we can experience it is not to think like the world thinks, but to be changed entirely by learning to renew our minds and to think the way God thinks. If you want to have what God wants you to have, learn to think like God thinks. Once you think like God thinks, you will speak like God speaks. Joel 3:10 encourages us to follow this life-changing principle in saying, "Let the weak say, 'I am strong!'" Paul said in Romans 4:17 that God calls those things that do not yet exist as if they already do, and we should do as God does! God called Abram the "father of many nations" (Gen. 17:5) before he even had one child. He was prophesying Abram's future, and we can prophesy our own as long as we speak what God says in His Word.

Pay particular attention to the thoughts going through your mind, because they will influence your words and energize or de-energize the rest of what you do. You can jump-start your day by thinking good things on purpose as one of your first acts of the day. Thinking them and speaking them is the combination I recommend.

Speak out God's truth boldly, with authority, believing it has the power to change your life. This exercise takes only a few minutes, but it will be valuable to you all day. You may want to meditate on and confess such as these: "This is the day the Lord has made, and I am going to enjoy it."

"I can handle whatever comes my way today through Christ Who is my strength."

"Today, I am energetic and creative."

"I have favor with God and man everywhere I go."

"Everything I lay my hand to prospers and succeeds."

“I enjoy being a blessing to others.”

“I am thankful for all that God has done for me.”

“God is working on my problems, and I can wait patiently because His timing is perfect.”

APRAYER FOR VICTORY

God, I thank You for giving me Your Word so I may know Your thoughts and begin to think like You think. I want my thoughts to be filled with hope and renewed with truth. I choose to want what you want for my life. It's in Jesus' name, I pray. Amen.

And utters His voice from Jerusalem [in judgment of His enemies], And the heavens and the earth tremble and shudder; But the LORD is a refuge for His people And a stronghold [of protection] to the children of Israel. [Amos 9:11–15; Mic 4:1–3; 5:2; Zeph 3:13–20; Zech 6:12, 13; 12:8, 9]

¹⁷Then you will know and understand fully that I am the LORD your God, Dwelling in Zion, My holy mountain.
Then Jerusalem will be holy,
And strangers [who do not belong] will no longer pass through it.

¹⁸And in that day
The mountains will drip with sweet wine
And the hills will flow with milk;
And all the brooks and riverbeds of Judah will flow with water, And a fountain will go out from the house of the LORD
To water the [desert] Valley of Shittim. [Ezek 47:1–12; Amos 9:13; Zech 14:8]

¹⁹Egypt will become a waste,
And Edom will become a desolate wilderness,
Because of their violence against the children of Judah, In whose land they have shed innocent blood. [Ex 1:16; Amos 1:11]

²⁰But Judah shall be inhabited forever
And Jerusalem from generation to generation.

²¹And I shall avenge their blood which I have not avenged,

For the LORD dwells in Zion.

Amos

Author: | Amos
Date: | 760 BC–750
BC

One lesson the book of Amos teaches is that things are not always as they appear. The prophet Amos ministered during a time when everything seemed to be going well for Israel and Judah. They mistakenly assumed their prosperity and well-being meant that God was pleased with them. In reality, underneath the appearance of success, many people were corrupt, unjust, immoral, and idolatrous.

Amos's task was to inform the people that their blessings did not mean that God was pleased with them and to tell them to seek Him and live in righteousness and justice.

When things in your life seem to be going well, you still need God. I encourage you to seek the Lord in the good times and in the difficult seasons of life.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM AMOS:

God speaks to His servants through the power of the Holy Spirit, and He wants to speak to you today (see Amos 3:7).

Some of the simplest and best instructions for life are to hate evil and to love good (see Amos 5:15).

Pride prevents us from turning to God and asking for help (see Amos 6:8). When we are humble before God, we position ourselves to receive His grace.

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM AMOS:

Seek Me [search diligently for Me and regard Me as more essential than food] so that you may live. | Amos 5:4

Seek (long for, require) good and not evil, that you may live; and so may the LORD God of hosts be with you, just as you have said! | Amos 5:14

Listen to the word of the LORD. | AMOS 7:16

THE BOOK OF AMOS

1 THE WORDS of Amos, who was among the shepherders of Tekoa, which he saw [in a divine revelation] concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. [Zech 14:5]

²And he said,
“The LORD thunders and roars from Zion [in judgment]
And utters His voice from Jerusalem;
Then the pastures of the shepherds mourn,
And the summit of [Mount] Carmel dries up [because of God’s judgment].” [Is 42:13; Jer 25:30; Joel 3:16]

³Thus says the LORD, “For three transgressions of Damascus and for four (multiplied delinquencies) I shall not reverse its punishment or revoke My word concerning it, Because they have threshed Gilead [east of the Jordan River] with sharp iron sledges [having spikes that crushed and shredded]. [2 Kin 10:32, 33]

⁵“I also will break the bar [of the gate] of Damascus,
And cut off and destroy the inhabitant from the Valley of Aven (Wickedness), And the ruler who holds the scepter, from Beth-eden (Damascus);
And the people of Aram [conquered by the Assyrians] will go into exile to Kir,”
Says the LORD. [Ezek 30:17]

⁶Thus says the LORD, “For three transgressions of Gaza [in Philistia] and for four (multiplied delinquencies) I will not reverse its punishment or revoke My word concerning it, Because [as slave traders] they took captive the entire [Jewish] population [of defenseless Judean border villages, of which none was spared]
And deported them to Edom [for the slave trade]. [Joel 3:6]

⁷“So I will send a fire [of war, conquest, and destruction] on the wall of Gaza And it shall consume her citadels.

⁸“And I will cut off and destroy the inhabitants from Ashdod, And the ruler who holds the scepter, from Ashkelon;
And I will unleash My power and turn My hand [in judgment] against Ekron, And the rest of the Philistines [in Gath and the towns dependent on these four Philistine cities] shall die,”
Says the Lord GOD. [Josh 13:3]

⁹Thus says the LORD, “For three transgressions of Tyre and for four (multiplied delinquencies) I will not reverse its punishment or revoke My word concerning it, Because they [as middlemen] deported an entire [Jewish] population to Edom And did not [seriously] remember their covenant of brotherhood. [1 Kin 5:1, 12; 9:12, 13]

¹⁰“So I will send a fire [of war, conquest, and destruction] on the wall of Tyre, And it shall consume her citadels.”

¹¹Thus says the LORD, “For three transgressions of Edom [the descendants of Esau] and for four (multiplied delinquencies)

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Develop a “Word Habit”

In Amos 2:4, one of the reasons for God’s judgment against Judah was that they “rejected the law of the LORD [the sum of God’s instruction to His people].” God’s instruction to His people is His Word. Not rejecting God’s Word, but knowing it, respecting it, meditating on it, and living by it, is just as important for God’s people today as it was when Amos lived.

Studying and living by God’s Word is the best habit we can cultivate. We can develop a “Word habit” in the same way we form all other good habits. We begin with some effort and keep doing it until it becomes a regular part of our lives. For example, you might begin by reading and studying the Bible for fifteen minutes each day, continuing for two weeks and then increasing the time by a couple minutes every day until you reach the goal of time you want to spend daily in the Word. After a while you will not need to set that goal anymore, because you will have disciplined and committed yourself to the habit of knowing God’s Word, and you will want as much time as possible to learn more and more about our Lord.

Through knowledge of God’s Word, you will learn to know Him. You will know His character and ways, and you will learn how much He loves you and what a wonderful plan He has for your life. You will also develop faith and learn to seek the wisdom needed to know what to do in every situation you face.

The people of Judah made a terrible mistake by rejecting God's instructions. You and I don't have to follow their example. Let's study and embrace God's Word in such a way that it guides everything we do in life.

I will not reverse its punishment or revoke My word concerning it, Because he pursued his brother Jacob (Israel) with the sword,

Corrupting and stifling his compassions and casting off all mercy; His destructive anger raged continually,
And he maintained [and nurtured] his wrath forever.

¹²“So I will send a fire [of war, conquest, and destruction] upon Teman, And it shall consume the citadels of Bozrah
[in Edom].”

¹³Thus says the LORD, “For three transgressions of the children of Ammon and for four (multiplied delinquencies) I will not reverse its punishment or revoke My word concerning it, Because the Ammonites have ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead,
That they might enlarge their border.

¹⁴“So I will kindle a fire [of war, conquest, and destruction] on the wall of Rabbah [in Ammon]
And it shall devour its strongholds
Amid war cries and shouts of alarm on the day of battle, And a tempest on the day of the whirlwind [when the enemy captures the city].

¹⁵“Their king shall go into exile,
He and his princes together,” says the LORD.

2 THUS SAYS the LORD, “For three transgressions of Moab and for four (multiplied delinquencies) I will not reverse its punishment or revoke My word concerning it, Because he burned the bones of the king of Edom [Esau’s descendant] into lime [and used it to plaster a Moabite house].

²“So I will send a fire [of war, conquest, and destruction] upon Moab And it shall devour the strongholds of Kerioth;

And Moab shall die amid tumult and uproar,
With war cries and shouts of alarm and the sound of the trumpet.

³“I will also cut off and destroy the ruler from its midst And slay all the princes with him,” says the LORD.

⁴Thus says the LORD, “For three transgressions of Judah and for four (multiplied delinquencies) I will not reverse its punishment or revoke My word concerning it, Because they have rejected the law of the LORD [the sum of God’s instruction to His people]

And have not kept His commandments;
But their lies [and their idols], after which their fathers walked,
Caused them to go astray.

⁵“So I will send a fire [of war, conquest, and destruction by the Babylonians] upon Judah And it will devour the strongholds of Jerusalem.”

⁶Thus says the LORD, “For three transgressions of Israel and for four (multiplied delinquencies) I will not reverse its punishment or revoke My word concerning it, Because they sell the righteous and innocent for silver

And the needy for the price of a pair of sandals.

7“These who pant after (long to see) the dust of the earth on the head of the helpless [as sign of their grief and distress]
Also turn aside the way of the humble;
And a man and his father will go to the same girl
So that My holy name is profaned.

8“They stretch out beside every [pagan] altar on clothes taken in pledge [to secure a loan, disregarding God’s command], And in the house of their God [in contempt of Him] they frivolously drink the wine [which has been] taken from those who have been fined. [Ex 22:26; Deut
24:12, 13]

9“Yet it was I [not the false gods] who destroyed the Amorite before them, Though his height was like the height of the cedars,
And he was as strong as the oaks;
I even destroyed his fruit above and his root below.

10“Also it was I who brought you up out of the land of Egypt,
And I led you forty years through the wilderness
That you might possess the land of the Amorite.

11“Then I raised up some of your sons to be prophets [who gave you My revelation], And some of your young men to be Nazirites (dedicated ones).
Is this not true, O you children of Israel?” says the LORD.
[Num 6:1–8]

12“But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink [despite their vows]

And commanded the prophets, saying, ‘You shall not prophesy!’

13“Behold, I am weighted down beneath you

As a cart that is weighted down when it is full of sheaves.

14“Flight will be lost to the swift [so they will be unable to escape], And the strong shall not strengthen nor maintain his power,

Nor shall the mighty man save his own life.

15“He who handles the bow will not stand his ground,

The one who is swift of foot will not escape,

Nor will he who rides the horse save his life [from the invading army].

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

The Importance of Being in Agreement with God I remember learning Amos 3:3 in the Amplified Classic translation I was using at the time, which read: “Do two walk together except they make an appointment and have agreed?” (emphasis mine).

There are many people who set a time to walk together literally each morning or evening. The only way they know when to show up is that they have made an appointment to meet and have agreed to do so. If we want to walk with God, we need to make an appointment, meaning we need to discipline ourselves to spend time with Him, and to live in agreement with Him.

We can only agree with God when we know what He thinks and says. We cannot think or speak as He does unless we know what He has said. That is why it is so important to diligently study His Word. It is not possible for God to say one thing and do another. He cannot lie, and He is always faithful to perform what He has promised. Satan is a liar and seeks to deceive us through his lies. Only by knowing and applying the truth, which is God's Word, will we be set free (see John 8:31–32).

God's Word is not only truth, it is also filled with wisdom. It is full of life and power. I have studied His Word diligently for more than forty years, and it has renewed my mind and changed my life. I have made regular appointments to spend time with God and have learned how to speak in agreement with His Word. I am enjoying the fulfilled promises of God in my life, and I know that you can do the same. His promises are for whosoever will believe!

I know many people who have the same testimony I have about God's Word. But I also know many who, although they would like their lives to improve, won't discipline themselves to study and learn or speak God's Word. Whether we will know and speak God's Word is our choice and only we can make it.

Is it time for you to make an appointment with God and begin to agree with Him? The power of agreement is amazing. Think of what happens when you agree with another human being and the two of you move forward together with your plan. Agreeing with other people increases our abilities exponentially, so just imagine what happens when we agree with God.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord God, I want to spend as much time with You as possible and to know Your Word so I can agree with what You think and say. I know that as I agree with You, my life will be blessed. In Jesus' name. Amen.

¹⁶“Even the bravest among the warriors shall flee naked on that day,” says the LORD.

3 HEAR THIS word that the LORD has spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt: ²“I have known [chosen, cared for, and loved] only you of all the families of the earth; Therefore I shall punish you for all your wickedness.”

³Do two men walk together unless they have made an appointment?

⁴Does a lion roar in the forest when he has no prey?
Does a young lion growl from his den if he has not captured something?

⁵Does a bird fall into a trap on the ground when there is no bait in it?
Does a trap spring up from the ground when it has caught nothing at all? [Of course not! So it is that Israel has earned her impending judgment.]

⁶If a trumpet is blown in a city [warning of danger] will not the people tremble?
If a disaster or misfortune occurs in a city has not the LORD caused it?

⁷Surely the Lord GOD does nothing Without revealing His secret plan [of the judgment to come]
To His servants the prophets. [Rev 10:7]

⁸The lion has roared! Who will not fear?

The Lord GOD has spoken [to the prophets]! Who can but prophesy? [Acts 4:20; 5:20, 29; 1 Cor 9:16]

⁹Proclaim on the fortresses in Ashdod (Philistia) and on the citadels in the land of Egypt, and say, “Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria, and see the great confusion within her and the oppressions and abuse of authority in her midst.

¹⁰“For they do not know how to do right,” says the LORD, “these who store up violence and devastation [like treasures] in their strongholds.”

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Help me, Lord, to always keep my appointments with You and to stay in agreement with You.

• adapted from Amos 3:3

POWERPOINT

Amos 3:7 says that God does not do anything without revealing it to His servants the prophets. Some people believe that God only spoke to the specific individuals the Bible names as prophets, but the truth is that God can speak to any believer at any time. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, God wants to speak to you on a One-to-one basis every day. He wants you to hear His voice and follow as He leads you step-by-step into all the good things He has in store for you.

¹¹Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD, “An adversary (Assyria), even one surrounding the land, Shall pull down your strength from you And your fortresses will be looted.”

¹²Thus says the LORD,

“Just as the shepherd snatches from the mouth of the lion a couple of legs or a piece of the [sheep’s] ear [to prove to the owner that he has not stolen the animal], So will the [remaining] children of Israel living in Samaria be snatched away With the corner of a bed and [part of] the damask covering of a couch.

¹³“Hear and testify against the house of Jacob,”

Says the Lord GOD, the God of hosts,

¹⁴“On that day when I punish Israel’s transgressions,

I shall also punish the altars of Bethel [with their golden calves];

And the horns of the altar shall be cut off

And fall to the ground.

¹⁵“And I shall tear down the winter house with the summer house; And the houses of ivory shall also perish

And the great houses shall come to an end,”

Says the LORD.

4 HEAR THIS word, you [well-fed, pampered] cows (women) of Bashan who are on the mountain of Samaria, Who oppress the poor, who crush the needy,

Who say to their husbands, “Bring [the wine] now, and let us drink!” [Ps 22:12; Ezek 39:18]

²The Lord GOD has sworn [an oath] by His holiness That, “Behold, the days are coming upon you

When they shall take you away with meat hooks,
And the last of you with fish hooks. [Ps 89:35]

3“ And you shall go out through the breaches [made in the city wall], Every woman straight before her [unable to turn aside],
And you shall be cast to Harmon,”
Says the LORD.

4“ Come to Bethel [where the golden calf is] and transgress;
In Gilgal [where idols are worshiped] multiply transgression;
Bring your sacrifices every morning,
Your tithes every three days!

5“ Offer [by burning] a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened, And [boastfully] proclaim freewill offerings, announce them.
For this you so love to do, O children of Israel!”
Says the Lord GOD.

6“ I also gave you cleanness of teeth [because of the famine] in all your cities And lack of bread in all your places, Yet you have not returned to Me [in repentance],” says the LORD.

7“ Furthermore, I withheld the rain from you
When there were still three months until the harvest.
Then I would send rain on one city,
And on another city I would not send rain;
One piece of ground was rained on,
While the part not rained on would dry up.

- 8“So [the people of] two or three cities would stagger into one city to drink water, But would not be satisfied; Yet you have not returned to Me [in repentance],” says the LORD.
- 9“I wounded you with blight [from the hot, blasting east wind] and with mildew; And the caterpillar devoured Your many gardens and vineyards, your fig trees and your olive trees; Yet you have not returned to Me [in repentance],” says the LORD.
- 10“I sent a plague among you like [those of] Egypt; I killed your young men with the sword and I captured your horses, I made the stench of your camp rise up into your nostrils; Yet you have not returned to Me [in repentance],” says the LORD. [2 Kin 8:12; 13:3, 7]
- 11“I overthrew and destroyed [some among] you, as [I, your] God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, And you were [rescued] like a log pulled out of the flame; Yet you have not returned to Me [in repentance],” says the LORD. [Gen 19:24, 25; Is 13:19; Jer 49:18]
- 12“Therefore this is what I shall do to you, O Israel; Because I will do this to you, Prepare to meet your God [in judgment], O Israel!”
- 13For behold, He who forms the mountains and creates the wind
And declares to man what are His thoughts,
He who makes the dawn into darkness

And treads on the heights of the earth—
The LORD God of hosts is His name. [Ps 139:2; Dan 2:28]

5 HEAR THIS word which I take up for you as a funeral song,
O house of Israel:

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Search Diligently for God

God has said, “Seek Me [search diligently for Me and regard Me as more essential than food] so that you may live” (Amos 5:4). Seeking God is an absolute necessity in our walk with Him; it is vital for spiritual progress. What exactly does it mean to seek God? The word “seek” actually means “to crave, pursue, and go after with all your might.”

One way we seek God is to think about Him—to meditate on His Word, His ways, what He has done for us, how good He is, and how much we love Him. Take some time right now and think about three things that God has done for you. Thinking about His goodness will cause us to want to spend more and more time with Him simply because of Who He is, not because of what He can do for us. As you seek Him regularly, you will come to know Him more intimately and realize that He is your loving Father Who cares about every aspect of your life.

²She has fallen, she will not rise again—

The virgin Israel.

She lies neglected on her land;

There is no one to raise her up.

³For thus says the Lord GOD, “The city which goes forth a thousand strong

Will have a hundred left,

And the one which goes forth a hundred strong

Will have ten left to the house of Israel.”

⁴For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel, “Seek Me [search diligently for Me and regard Me as more essential than food] so that you may live. [2 Chr 15:2; Jer 29:13]

⁵“But do not resort to Bethel [to worship the golden calf]
Nor enter [idolatrous] Gilgal,
Nor cross over to Beersheba [and its idols];
For Gilgal will certainly go into captivity and exile,
And Bethel will come to nothing.

⁶“Seek the LORD [search diligently for Him and long for Him as your most essential need] so that you may live, Or He will rush down like a [devouring] fire, O house of Joseph, And there will be no one to quench the flame for [idolatrous] Bethel,

⁷“For those [shall be consumed] who turn justice into wormwood (bitterness) And cast righteousness down to the earth.”

⁸He who made the [cluster of stars called] Pleiades and [the constellation] Orion, Who turns deep darkness into the morning
And darkens the day into night,
Who calls for the waters of the sea
And pours them out on the surface of the earth,
The LORD is His name.

⁹It is He who causes [sudden] destruction to flash forth on the strong

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I will seek You, Lord. I will search diligently for You as my most essential need, so that I may live.

• adapted from Amos 5:6

So that destruction comes on the fortress.

- ¹⁰They hate the one who reprimands [the unrighteous] in the [court held at the city] gate [regarding him as unreasonable and rejecting his reprimand], And they detest him who speaks [the truth] with integrity and honesty.
- ¹¹Therefore, because you impose heavy rent on the poor And demand a tribute (food-tax) of grain from them, Though you have built [luxurious] houses of square stone, You will not live in them; You have planted beautiful vineyards, but you will not drink their wine.
- ¹²For I know your transgressions are many and your sins are great (shocking, innumerable), You who distress the righteous and take bribes, And turn away from the poor in the [court of the city] gate [depriving them of justice].
- ¹³Therefore, he who is prudent and has insight will keep silent at such a [corrupt and evil] time, for it is an evil time [when people will not listen to truth and will disregard those of good character].

¹⁴ Seek (long for, require) good and not evil, that you may live;
And so may the LORD God of hosts be with you, Just as you have said!

¹⁵ Hate evil and love good,
And establish justice in the [court of the city] gate.
Perhaps the LORD God of hosts Will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph [that is, those who remain after God's judgment].

¹⁶ Therefore, thus says the LORD God of hosts, the Lord,
“There is wailing in all the public plazas,
And in all the streets they say, ‘Alas! Alas!’
And they call the farmers to mourning [for those who have died]
And professional mourners to wailing.

Speak God's Word

I will seek good and not evil, that I may live. So may the Lord of hosts be with me. I will hate evil, love good, seek to establish justice, and pray that the Lord God will be gracious to me.

| adapted from AMOS 5:14–15 |

- ¹⁷“And in all vineyards there is wailing,
For I will pass through your midst [in judgment],” says the LORD. [Ex 12:12]
- ¹⁸Woe (judgment is coming) to you who desire the day of the LORD [expecting rescue from the Gentiles]!
Why would you want the day of the LORD?
It is darkness (judgment) and not light [and rescue and prosperity];
- ¹⁹It is as if a man runs from a lion [escaping one danger]
And a bear meets him [so he dies anyway],
Or goes home, and leans with his hand against the wall
And a snake bites him.
- ²⁰Will not the day of the LORD be darkness, instead of light,

Even very dark with no brightness in it?

21“I hate, I despise and reject your [sacred] feasts, And I do not take delight in your solemn assemblies.

22“*Even though you offer Me your burnt offerings and your grain offerings, I will not accept them;
And I will not even look at the peace offerings of your fattened animals.*

23“Take the noise of your songs away from Me [they are an irritation]!

I shall not even listen to the melody of your harps.

24“But let justice run down like waters

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, let justice run down like waters and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream, flowing abundantly.

• adapted from Amos 5:24

And righteousness like an ever-flowing stream [flowing abundantly].

²⁵“Did you bring Me sacrifices and grain offerings during those forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel? [Certainly not!]

²⁶“You carried along your king Sikkuth and Kayyun [your man-made gods of Saturn], your images of your star-god which you made for yourselves [but you brought Me none of the appointed sacrifices].

²⁷“Therefore, I will send you to go into exile far beyond Damascus,” says the LORD, whose name is the God of hosts. [Acts 7:42, 43]

6 WOE (JUDGMENT is coming) to those who are at ease and carefree in Zion (Judah) And to those on the mountain of Samaria who feel secure,

The distinguished men of the foremost of nations,
To whom the house of Israel comes. [Luke 6:24, 25]

²Go over to Calneh [in Babylonia] and look,
And from there go [north of Damascus] to the great city of Hamath;

Then go down to Gath of the Philistines.
Are they better than these kingdoms [of yours],
Or is their territory greater than yours?

³Do you put off the day of punishment,
Yet cause the seat of violence to come near?

⁴Those who lie on [luxurious] beds of ivory And lounge around out on their couches,
And eat lambs from the flock
And calves from the midst of the stall,

⁵Who improvise to the sound of the harp—
Like David they have composed songs for themselves—[1
Chr 23:5]

⁶Who drink wine from sacrificial bowls
And anoint themselves with the finest oils [reflecting their unrestrained celebration]; Yet they are not grieved over the ruin of Joseph (Israel). [Gen 49:22, 23]

⁷Therefore, they will now go into exile with the first of the captives,

POWERPOINT

Amos 6:8 says that God loathes and rejects self-centered arrogance, or pride. He hates it because it prevents us from coming to Him and asking for help. Our not turning to Him keeps us from knowing Him and loving Him, and it blocks His blessings in our lives. In contrast, God gives grace (undeserved favor) to the humble (see James 4:6).

And the cultic revelry and banqueting of those who lounge around [on their luxurious couches] will pass away.

⁸The Lord GOD has sworn [an oath] by Himself—the LORD God of hosts, says: “I loathe and reject the [self-centered] arrogance of Jacob (Israel), And I hate his palaces and citadels;

Therefore, I shall hand over the [idolatrous] city [of Samaria] with all that it contains [to the Assyrian invaders].”

⁹And it shall come to pass that if there remain ten men in one house, they shall die [by the pestilence that comes with war].

¹⁰Then one’s uncle, or his undertaker, shall come to bring the [disease-infected] body out of the house, [to cremate it], and he will say to another in the farthest part of the house, “Is there anyone else with you?” And that one will say, “No one.” Then he will respond, “Hush! Keep quiet! For the name of the LORD is not to be mentioned [even casually, for fear that we might invoke even more punishment].” [1 Sam 31:12]

¹¹For behold, the LORD is going to command that the great house be smashed to pieces and the small house to fragments.

¹²Do horses run on rocks?

Do men plow rocks with oxen? [Of course not!]

Yet you have turned justice into poison

And the fruit of righteousness into wormwood (bitterness),

¹³You who [self-confidently] rejoice in Lo-debar (Nothing),

Who say, “Have we not by our own strength taken Karnaim (Strength) for ourselves?”

¹⁴“For behold, I am going to stir up a nation against you,

O house of Israel,” says the LORD, the God of hosts, “And they will afflict and torment you [to the entire limits of Israel] from the entrance of Hamath [in the north]

To the brook of the Arabah [in the south].”

7 THUS THE Lord GOD showed me [a vision], and behold, He was forming a swarm of locusts when the spring crop began to sprout. And behold, the spring crop was after the king’s mowing.

²And when the locusts had finished eating the plants of the land, then I said, “O Lord GOD, please forgive!

How can Jacob stand,

For he is so small [that he cannot endure this]?”

³The LORD revoked this sentence.

“It shall not take place,” said the LORD.

⁴Thus the Lord GOD showed me, and behold, the Lord GOD called for punishment with fire, and it devoured the great deep [underground sources of water] and began to consume the land.

⁵Then I said,

“O Lord GOD, please stop!

How can Jacob stand,

For he is so small [that he cannot endure this]?”

⁶The LORD revoked this sentence.

“This also shall not be,” said the Lord GOD.

⁷Thus He showed me [a vision], and behold, the Lord was standing by a vertical wall with a plumb line in His hand [to determine if the wall was straight or if it needed to be destroyed]. [2 Kin 21:13; Is 34:11]

⁸The LORD said to me, “Amos, what do you see?” And I said, “A plumb line.” Then the Lord said, “Behold, I am setting a plumb line [as a standard]

Among My people Israel [showing the defectiveness of the nation, requiring judgment].

I shall not spare them any longer. [The door of mercy is shut.]

⁹“And the [idolatrous] high places of Isaac (Israel) will be devastated and deserted, And the sanctuaries of Israel will be in ruins.

Then I shall rise up against the house of Jeroboam with the sword [and destroy the monarchy].”

¹⁰Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel [site of the golden calf shrine], sent word to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, “Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel; the land is unable to endure all his words. [1 Kin 12:31, 32]

¹¹“For in this way Amos has said, ‘Jeroboam will die by the sword and Israel will certainly go from its land into exile.’”

¹²Then Amaziah said to Amos, “Go, you seer, run for your life [from Israel] to the land of Judah [your own country] and eat bread and live as a prophet there!

¹³“But do not prophesy any longer at Bethel, for it is the king’s sanctuary and a royal residence.” [Luke 10:10–12]

¹⁴Then Amos replied to Amaziah, “I am not a prophet [by profession], nor am I a prophet’s son; I am a herdsman and a grower of sycamore figs.

¹⁵“But the LORD took me as I followed the flock and the LORD said to me, ‘Go, prophesy to My people Israel.’

¹⁶“Now therefore, listen to the word of the LORD: You say, ‘You shall not prophesy against Israel nor shall you speak against the house of Isaac.’

¹⁷“Therefore, thus says the LORD, ‘Your wife shall become a prostitute in the city [when the Assyrians capture Samaria] and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by a measuring line; you yourself shall die in an unclean and defiled [pagan] land, and Israel shall certainly go from its land into exile.’”

8 THUS THE Lord GOD showed me [a vision], and behold, there was a basket of [overripe] summer fruit.

²And He said, “Amos, what do you see?” And I said, “A basket of summer fruit.” Then the LORD said to me, “The end has come for My people Israel. I will spare them no longer [for the nation is ripe for judgment].

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Find Your Worth in the Right Place Amaziah, the priest who served in the court of King Jeroboam, falsely accused the prophet Amos of conspiracy in order to frighten him into silence and to get rid of him. There was great simplicity and dignity in Amos's reply: "The LORD took me as I followed the flock and the LORD said to me, 'Go, prophesy to My people Israel'" (Amos 7:15).

He knew his divine call and would not be intimidated.

There are many voices that try to shape the way we think about every part of ourselves—our appearance, our abilities, our potential, and our identity. But those voices can be misleading. The opinions of the world, the accusations of our adversary, and our own thoughts and feelings don't define us.

The Bible teaches that a believer's true identity, worth, and value are found in Christ. Our confidence is in Him (see Phil. 3:3). It doesn't matter what people think or say, or what our circumstances look like. We are defined by the fact that God loves and accepts us completely. To walk with God, we need to be in agreement with Him, and that involves learning to think as He thinks and to say what He says.

When we fail to know our worth and value as children of God, we can end up in emotional prisons of fear, self-hatred, poor self-image, lack of confidence, and many other unpleasant things. Jesus came to announce the release of the captives and the opening of the prison to those who are bound (see Isa. 61:1), but we must be willing to walk out of the prison and learn to think about ourselves the way God thinks about us!

When we know who we are in Christ, our value is secured for all time and cannot be shaken. You are not loved because you are valuable—you are valuable because you are loved. Perhaps you have learned to be your own worst enemy, but it is time now to be your own best friend.

We can know within ourselves who we are as children of God. And when we do, nothing can ever make us feel worthless and devalued. Meditate on this today: God loves you! Think about that long enough, and you will start to believe it, and when that happens, you will begin to know how truly powerful you are in Him.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Loving Father in heaven, forgive me for allowing so many voices other than Yours to try to shape my identity and worth. I thank You, Lord Jesus, for releasing me from prison and giving me a brand-new identity in You. I am Yours! Amen.

³“In that day, the songs of the palace shall turn to wailing,” says the Lord GOD. “There will be many dead bodies; in [sacred] silence they will throw them everywhere.”

⁴Hear this, you who trample down the needy, and do away with the poor of the land, ⁵saying,

“When will the New Moon [festival] be over
So that we may sell grain,
And the Sabbath ended so that we may open the wheat market,
Making the ephah [measure] smaller and the shekel bigger [that is, selling less for a higher price]
And to cheat by falsifying the scales,

⁶So that we may buy the poor [as slaves] for silver [since they are unable to support themselves]
And the needy for a pair of sandals,
And that we may sell the leftovers of the wheat [as if it were a good grade of grain]?”

⁷The LORD has sworn [an oath] by the pride of Jacob, “Surely I shall never forget [nor leave unpunished] any of their [rebellious] acts.

⁸“Because of this [coming judgment] will the land not quake
And everyone mourn who dwells in it?
Indeed, all of it shall rise up like the Nile,
And it will be tossed around [from the impact of judgment]
And [afterward] subside again like the Nile of Egypt.

⁹“It shall come about in that day,” says the Lord GOD, “That I shall cause the sun to go down at noon,

And I shall darken the earth in broad daylight. [Ezek 32:7–10]

10“And I shall turn your festivals and feasts into mourning
And all your songs into dirges (funeral poems to be sung);
And I shall cause sackcloth to be put on everyone’s loins
And baldness on every head [shaved for mourning].
And I shall make that time like a time of mourning for an only son [who has died], And the end of it shall be like a bitter day.

11“Behold, the days are coming,” says the Lord GOD, “When I will send hunger over the land,
Not hunger for bread or a thirst for water,
But rather [a hunger] for hearing the words of the LORD.

12“People shall stagger from sea to sea [to the very ends of the earth]
And from the north even to the east;
They will roam here and there to seek the word of the LORD [longing for it as essential for life], But they will not find it.

13“In that day the beautiful virgins
And [even the vigorous] young men shall faint from thirst.

14“Those who swear [their oaths] by the sin (guilt) of Samaria or Ashimah (a pagan goddess), Who say, ‘By the life of your god [the golden calf], O Dan!’
And [swear], ‘By the life of the way of [idolatrous] Beersheba,’

They shall fall and not rise again.”

9 I SAW [in a vision] the Lord standing at the altar, and He said, “Destroy the capitals (tops) of the pillars so that the thresholds will shake, And break them on the heads of all of the people!

Then I will kill the rest of them with the sword;
They will not have a fugitive who will get away,
Or a survivor who will escape.

²“Though they dig into Sheol [to hide in the deepest pit],
From there My hand will take them [for judgment];
And though they climb up to heaven [to hide in the realm of light],
From there will I bring them down [for judgment].

³“Though they hide on the summit of [Mount] Carmel, I will track them down and take them from there;
And though they hide from My sight on the floor of the sea,
From there I shall command the serpent and it will bite them.

⁴“And though they go into captivity before their enemies,
From there I shall command the sword to kill them,
And I will set My eyes against them for evil (judgment, punishment) and not for good [that is, not for correction leading to restoration].”

⁵The Lord GOD of hosts [the Omnipotent Ruler], It is He who touches the earth [in judgment] and it melts,
And all who dwell on it mourn [in despair and fear],

And all of it rises up like the Nile
And subsides like the Nile of Egypt;

⁶It is He who builds His upper chambers in the heavens And has established His vaulted dome (the firmament of heaven) over the earth, He who calls to the waters of the sea
And pours them out on the face of the earth—
The LORD is His name.

⁷“Are you [degenerate ones] not as the [despised] sons of Ethiopia to Me, O sons of Israel?” says the LORD.
“Have I not brought up Israel from the land of Egypt,
And the Philistines from Caphtor and the Arameans (Syrians) from Kir?

⁸“Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are on the sinful
[northern] kingdom [of Israel’s ten tribes]
And I shall destroy it from the face of the earth;
But I shall not totally destroy the house of Jacob [that is, the entire nation of Israel],”
Says the LORD.

⁹“For behold, I am commanding,
And I shall shake and sift the house of Israel among all nations [and cause it to tremble]
Like grain is shaken in a sieve [removing the chaff],
But not a kernel [of the faithful remnant] shall fall to the ground and be lost [from My sight]. [Lev 26:33; Deut
28:64; Hos 9:17]

¹⁰“All the sinners among My people will die by the sword,

Those who say [defiantly], ‘The disaster will not overtake or confront us.’

¹¹“In that day I shall raise up and restore the fallen tabernacle (booth) of David, And wall up its breaches [in the city walls];

I will also raise up and restore its ruins
And rebuild it as it was in the days of old,

¹²That they may possess the remnant of Edom (ancient enemies)

And all the nations that are called by My name,”
Says the LORD who does this. [Acts 15:15–17]

¹³“Behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD, “When the plowman shall overtake the one who gathers the harvest, And the one who treads the grapes [shall overtake] him who sows the seed [for the harvest continues until planting time]; When the mountains will drip sweet wine And all the hills shall melt [that is, everything that was once barren will overflow with streams of blessing]. [Lev 26:5; Joel 3:18]

¹⁴“Also I shall bring back the exiles of My people Israel, And they will rebuild the deserted and ruined cities and inhabit them: They will also plant vineyards and drink their wine,
And make gardens and eat their fruit.

¹⁵“I will also plant them on their land,
And they shall never again be uprooted from their land Which I have given them,”

Says the LORD your God.

Obadiah

Author: | Obadiah
Date: | Between the ninth century and the fourth century BC

Obadiah teaches us an important lesson for the battle of the mind. The Edomites (descendants of Esau) were very proud people and were great enemies of the Israelites (descendants of Jacob). The bitter rivalry between Jacob and Esau continued between their people for generations, with the Edomites thinking that they were superior to the Israelites. The Edomites' pride deceived them, and because of their arrogance they were eventually destroyed.

When we think we have a reason to be proud, we must resist the temptation immediately, because pride in our hearts will deceive us. It causes us to think more highly of ourselves than we should, and God's Word teaches us not to do that (see Romans 12:3). Let's learn to think of ourselves with humility, so the enemy cannot use prideful thoughts against us.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM OBADIAH:

In every battle you fight, remember that the Lord is your commanding officer and He will lead you to success (see Obadiah 1).

Pride and arrogance in our hearts will deceive us, and God will bring us down (see Obadiah 3–4).

Whatever we do to others will come back to us (see Obadiah 15).

THE BOOK OF OBADIAH

1 THE VISION of Obadiah.

Thus says the Lord GOD concerning Edom— We have heard a report from the LORD, And an ambassador has been sent among the nations, saying,

“Arise, and let us rise up against Edom for battle [with the LORD as commander]!” [Ps 137:7; Is 34:1–15; 63:1–6; Jer 49:7–22; Ezek 25:12–14]

²“Behold [Edom], I shall [humiliate you and] make you small among the nations; You are greatly despised. [Ezek 35]

³“The pride and arrogance of your heart have deceived you,
You who live in the clefts and lofty security of the rock (Sela), Whose dwelling place is high,
Who say [boastfully] in your heart,
‘Who will bring me down to earth?’

⁴“Though you build [your nest] on high like the eagle,
Though you set your nest among the stars,
I will bring you down from there,” says the LORD.

⁵“If thieves came to you,
If robbers by night—

How you will be ruined!—
Would they not steal only until they had enough?
If grape gatherers came to you,
Would they not leave some grapes for gleaning? [Jer 49:9] 6“How Esau (Edom) shall be ransacked [by men who come to ravage with divine approval]!

The men who were at peace with you

Those who eat your bread [those you trust]
Shall set a hostile ambush for you.
(There is no understanding of it.)

8“Will I not on that day,” says the LORD, “Destroy the wise

And understanding from the mountain of Esau?

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Pride Is a Problem

In Obadiah 3, God says to the people of Edom, "The pride and arrogance of your heart have deceived you." Pride not only deceives us, it also produces other negative results.

When people are proud, they don't think they need God or anyone else. They become self-sufficient and self-reliant. The truth is, we all need help at times!

Pride often accuses others of what it is guilty of, but fails to see. Prideful people are so busy judging and being critical of others that their arrogance blinds them to their own mistakes and misconduct.

Pride will prevent our prayers from being answered and keep us from experiencing God's grace (see James 4:6). God only helps the humble, so we should seek to learn all we can about humility. Pride thinks more highly of itself than it should (see Rom. 12:3), and we can catch it lurking in our minds if we pay attention.

We should ask God to help us develop attitudes of humility and do everything we can, with His help, to cultivate humility in our heart. Humble people simply know that they are nothing without Jesus!

The day when his misfortune came.

Do not rejoice over the sons of Judah

In the day of their destruction;

Do not speak arrogantly [jeering and maliciously mocking]
In the day of their distress.

13“Do not enter the gate of My people
In the day of their disaster;
Yes, you, do not look [with delight] on their misery
In the day of their ruin,
And do not loot treasures
In the day of their ruin.

14“Do not stand at the crossroad
To cut down those [of Judah] who escaped;
And do not hand over [to the enemy] those [of Judah] who survive In the day of their distress.

15“For the [judgment] day of the LORD draws near on all the nations.

As you have done, it shall be done to you [in retribution];
Your [evil] dealings will return on your own head. [Ps 137:7–9; Is 2:10–22; Zeph 3:8–20; Zech 12:1–14; Rev
19:11–21]

16“Because just as you [Edom] drank on My holy mountain [desecrating it in the revelry of the destroyers], So shall all the nations drink continually [one by one, of My wrath]; Yes, they shall drink and swallow [the full measure of punishment]

And become as though they had never existed. [Rev 16:14– 16]

17“But on Mount Zion [in Jerusalem] there shall be [deliverance for] those who escape, And it shall be holy [no pagan will defile it];

And the house of Jacob shall possess their [former] possessions. [Ezek 36; Joel 2:32]

- ¹⁸“Then the house of Jacob shall be a fire
And the house of Joseph a flame [in executing God’s wrath]; But the house of Esau will be like stubble.
They (Jacob) shall set them on fire and consume them (the Edomites), So that there shall be no survivor of the house of Esau,”

For the LORD has spoken. [Ezek 25:12–14]

- ¹⁹Then those of the Negev shall possess the mountain of Esau, And those of the Shephelah [shall possess] the Philistine plain;

Also, [they shall] possess the fields of Ephraim and the fields of Samaria, And Benjamin will possess Gilead [across the Jordan River]. [Amos 9:12; Zeph 2:7]

- ²⁰And the exiles of this host of the sons (descendants) of Israel Who are among the Canaanites as far as Zarephath, And the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad Shall possess the cities of the Negev.

- ²¹The deliverers shall go up on Mount Zion
To rule and judge the mountain of Esau,
And the kingdom and the kingship shall be the LORD’s.

Jonah

Author: | Jonah

BC or after 612 BC

Jonah, who wrote the book of Jonah, faced a battle of the mind. God wanted him to do something he did not want to do—to tell the Ninevites that God would be merciful to them if they repented of their sin. Jonah wrestled with this idea because the Ninevites were Israel's enemy and he was a loyal Israelite who did not want to see the Ninevites forgiven.

When Jonah ran from God's assignment, he ended up in the belly of a great fish and went through a very difficult time before eventually being given a second chance to obey.

When God calls you to do something, even if you can think of many reasons not to do it, be prompt to obey. Running from God's plan is never a good idea, and there is much blessing in following Him.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM JONAH:

Instead of running from God (see Jonah 1:3), embrace what He wants you to do and go all the way to victory with His help.

Even in hard times, offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving and keep any vow or promise you have made to Him, and see what He will do (see Jonah 2:9).

If you have failed before, don't be afraid to try again. When God wants you to do something, He will give you a second chance (see Jonah 3:1) and show you what to do.

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM JONAH:

I called out of my trouble and distress to the LORD, and He answered me. | Jonah 2:1

When my soul was fainting within me, I remembered the LORD, and my prayer came to You, into Your holy temple. | Jonah 2:7

You are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and great in lovingkindness, and [when sinners turn to You] You revoke the [sentence of] disaster [against them]. | Jonah 4:2

THE BOOK OF JONAH

1 NOW THE word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,

²“Go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim [judgment] against it, for their wickedness has come up before Me.” [Gen 10:11, 12]

³But Jonah ran away to Tarshish to escape from the presence of the LORD [and his duty as His prophet]. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish [the most remote of the Phoenician trading cities]. So he paid the fare and went down into the ship to go with them to Tarshish away from the presence of the LORD. [Gen 4:16; Job 1:12; 2:7]

⁴But the LORD hurled a great wind toward the sea, and there was a violent tempest on the sea so that the ship was about to break up. [Ps 107:23–27]

⁵Then the sailors were afraid, and each man cried out to his god; and to lighten the ship [and diminish the danger] they threw the ship’s cargo into the sea. But Jonah had gone below into the hold of the ship and had lain down and was sound asleep.

⁶So the captain came up to him and said, “How can you stay asleep? Get up! Call on your god! Perhaps your god will give a thought to us so that we will not perish.”

⁷And they said to another, “Come, let us cast lots, so we may learn who is to blame for this disaster.” So they cast lots and the lot fell on Jonah.

⁸Then they said to him, “Now tell us! Who is to blame for this disaster? What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country?”

⁹So he said to them, “I am a Hebrew, and I [reverently] fear and worship the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land.”

¹⁰Then the men became extremely frightened and said to him, “How could you do this?” For the men knew that he was running from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

God, I pray that I will not be like Jonah and try to run away from Your presence and will for my life. Help me to always run to You instead of from You.

• adapted from Jonah 1:3

¹¹Then they said to him, “What should we do to you, so that the sea will become calm for us?”—for the sea was becoming more and more violent.

¹²Jonah said to them, “Pick me up and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will become calm for you, for I know that it is because of me that this great storm has come upon you.”

¹³Nevertheless, the men rowed hard [breaking through the waves] to return to land, but they could not, because the sea became even more violent [surging higher] against them.

¹⁴Then they called on the LORD and said, “Please, O LORD, do not let us perish because of taking this man’s life, and do not make us accountable for innocent blood; for You, O LORD, have done as You pleased.”

¹⁵So they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea stopped its raging.

¹⁶Then the men greatly feared the LORD, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.

¹⁷Now the LORD had prepared (appointed, destined) a great fish to swallow Jonah. And Jonah was in the stomach of the fish three days and three nights. [Matt 12:40]

2 THEN JONAH prayed to the LORD his God from the stomach of the fish,

²and said,

“I called out of my trouble and distress to the LORD,

And He answered me;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Don't Run!

There are several examples in the Bible of godly men and women, such as Jonah (see Jon. 1:3), who ran from their circumstances, from their calls and assignments, or from God's will. Without fail, they all ended up back at the places from which they originally tried to escape. Their stories prove that we never really get away from things by running from them. The truth is, God's plan continues to chase us, and the only way we can be free is to stop trying to avoid it, turn and embrace it boldly, and go all the way through to victory with God's help.

Jonah was a mighty prophet of God who did not want to do what God was telling him to do and ran in the opposite direction of where God told him to go. He ended up in a very bad situation and eventually cried out to God for help (see Jon. 2:9). In response, God sent Jonah back to the same place and with the same instructions as He had given him before he disobeyed and invited such misery into his life (see Jon. 3:2).

No matter what we think, the simple truth is that God is wiser than we are, and our doing things His way is always the best policy. We cannot ignore that truth and go our own way, because we will ultimately come face-to-face with the consequences of our choices.

Thank God that it is never too late to begin again! Jonah repented of his sin, received God's mercy, and was given a fresh start to fulfill God's plan for him. The same principle applies to you and me.

Out of the belly of Sheol I cried for help,
And You heard my voice. [Ps 120:1; 130:1; 142:1; Lam 3:55–58]

³“For You cast me into the deep,
Into the [deep] heart of the seas,
And the currents surrounded and engulfed me;
All Your breakers and billowing waves passed over me. [Ps 42:7]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, in times of trouble and distress I will call to You, and You will answer me. When I cry for help, You will hear my voice.

- 4“Then I said, ‘I have been cast out of Your sight.
Nevertheless I will look again toward Your holy temple.’ [Ps 31:22]
- 5“‘The waters surrounded me, to the point of death.
The great deep engulfed me,
Seaweed was wrapped around my head. [Ps 69:1; Lam 3:54]
- 6“‘I descended to the [very] roots of the mountains.
The earth with its bars closed behind me [bolting me in] forever,
Yet You have brought up my life from the pit (death), O
LORD my God.
- 7“‘When my soul was fainting within me,
I remembered the LORD,
And my prayer came to You,
Into Your holy temple.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Choose To Thank and Praise God

In Jonah 2:9, after a prayer for help, Jonah chose to thank and praise God. Praise is a narration or a tale in which we recount the good qualities about an individual; in this case, the good qualities of God. We should praise and thank the Lord continually, throughout the day. We should praise Him for His mighty works, the wonders He has created, and even the works of grace He has yet to do in our lives.

A sacrifice of praise means to offer thanks and praise to God even when we do not feel like doing so. We should speak freely in praise of God's goodness and mercy, His lovingkindness and grace, and His long-suffering and patient nature in the hard times as well as in the good times. While we are waiting to see the fulfillment of our prayers, we are exhorted to "at all times offer up to God a sacrifice of praise, which is the fruit of lips that thankfully acknowledge and confess and glorify His name" (Heb. 13:15).

It is not our responsibility to worry and fret or try to take situations into our own hands when they should be left to Him alone. Rather, our responsibility and privilege is to cast our care upon the Lord, trust Him, pray without worry or anxiety, avoid the works of the flesh, continue in steadfast obedience, bear good fruit, and continually offer up to God a sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving as Jonah did.

⁸“Those who regard and follow worthless idols Turn away from their [living source of] mercy and lovingkindness.

⁹“But [as for me], I will sacrifice to You
With the voice of thanksgiving;
I shall pay that which I have vowed.
Salvation is from the LORD!”

¹⁰So the LORD commanded the fish, and it vomited Jonah up onto the dry land.

3 NOW THE word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying,

²“Go to Nineveh the great city and declare to it the message which I am going to tell you.”

³So Jonah went to Nineveh in accordance with the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, a three days’ walk [about sixty miles in circumference].

⁴Then on the first day’s walk, Jonah began to go through the city, and he called out and said, “Forty days more [remain] and [then] Nineveh will be overthrown!”

⁵The people of Nineveh believed and trusted in God; and they proclaimed a fast and put on sackcloth [in penitent mourning], from the greatest even to the least of them.

⁶When word reached the king of Nineveh [of Jonah’s message from God], he rose from his throne, took off his robe, covered himself with sackcloth and sat in the dust [in repentance].

⁷He issued a proclamation and it said, “In Nineveh, by the decree of the king and his nobles: No man, animal, herd, or flock is to taste anything. They are not to eat or drink water.

⁸“But both man and animal must be covered with sackcloth; and every one is to call on God earnestly and forcefully that each may turn from his wicked way and from the violence that is in his hands.

⁹“Who knows, God may turn [in compassion] and relent and withdraw His burning anger (judgment) so that we will not perish.” [Joel 2:13, 14]

¹⁰When God saw their deeds, that they turned from their wicked way, then God [had compassion and] relented concerning the disaster which He had declared that He would bring upon them. And He did not do it.

4 BUT IT greatly displeased Jonah and he became angry.

²He prayed to the LORD and said, “O LORD, is this not what I said when I was still in my country? That is why I ran to Tarshish, because I knew that You are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and great in lovingkindness, and [when sinners turn to You] You revoke the [sentence of] disaster [against them]. [Ex 34:6]

³“Therefore now, O LORD, just take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live.”

⁴Then the LORD said, “Do you have a good reason to be angry?”

POWERPOINT

Jonah 4:2 is a beautiful prayer about God's compassion (which is His mercy), grace, and love. The understanding of mercy, grace, forgiveness, and the unconditional love of God is the foundation of everything else in our relationship with and service to God. It is vitally important for us to be deeply rooted in God's unconditional love, knowing with certainty that His attitude toward us is merciful. God's mercy is a gift. There is nothing we can do to earn or deserve it. It can only be received by faith. Thank God for His mercy and compassion today!

⁵Then Jonah went out of the city and sat east of it. There he made himself a shelter and sat under its shade so that he could see what would happen in the city.

⁶So the LORD God prepared a plant and it grew up over Jonah, to be a shade over his head to spare him from discomfort. And Jonah was extremely happy about [the protection of] the plant.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

A Heart That Wants To Please God

Anyone who loves God wants to please Him. Simply having the desire to please God pleases Him. A desire to please God is necessary—it motivates us to seek His will in all things. People who have a deep desire to please God may not perform perfectly all the time, but they keep pressing forward and always have the attitude of wanting to improve.

In 2 Chronicles 16:9, it says that God is searching to and for someone whose heart is perfect toward Him. Jonah 3:10 tells us that “God saw” that the people of Nineveh had turned from their wicked ways, and He did not bring judgment upon them. The Bible does not say God is looking for someone with a perfect performance, but rather someone with a perfect heart—a heart that desires to please Him.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Anger Does Not Have To Become Sin

When the people of Nineveh repented, Jonah became so angry that the Lord questioned him, “Do you have a good reason to be angry?” (Jon. 4:4). Being a person of faith does not mean you will never have negative or ungodly feelings. We will experience feelings at times that need to be dealt with, and we will become angry under certain circumstances, but we can always exercise our faith in God and ask Him to help us, which Jonah failed to do. We can live beyond our feelings, rather than let them control our lives.

The feeling of anger does not have to become sin if we realize we are being tempted by the devil and we resist him. Pray and talk to God about it, and lean on His strength, choosing to act on His Word and not on how we feel. The Bible says be angry and do not sin (see Eph. 4:26), which literally means we can feel angry about an injustice. If we deal with it properly, it will not become sin.

⁷But God prepared a worm when morning dawned the next day, and it attacked the plant and it withered.

⁸When the sun came up God prepared a scorching east wind, and the sun beat down on Jonah's head so that he fainted and he wished to die, and said, “It is better for me to die than to live.”

⁹Then God said to Jonah, “Do you have a good reason to be angry about [the loss of] the plant?” And he said, “I have a [very] good reason to be angry, angry enough to die!”

¹⁰Then the LORD said, “You had compassion on the plant for which you did not work and which you did not cause to grow, which came up overnight and perished overnight.

¹¹“Should I not have compassion on Nineveh, the great city in which there are more than 120,000 [innocent] persons, who do not know the difference between their right and left hand [and are not yet accountable for sin], as well as many [blameless] animals?”

Micah

Author: | Micah

BC and 696 BC

During the time of the prophet Micah's ministry in Judah, the nation was suffering from a crisis in leadership. Both political and spiritual leaders lacked honor for God, and they made unreasonable demands on the people. In this context of poor leadership, Micah stresses several important themes, including: God's faithfulness, compassion, and mercy; holiness; refusal to tolerate injustice; the rewards of waiting on God; restoration; and hope. Micah also includes several Messianic prophecies.

As we focus on learning to think the way God wants us to think, an important verse to remember from Micah is this: "Do not rejoice over me [amid my tragedies], O my enemy! Though I fall, I will rise; though I sit in the darkness [of distress], the LORD is a light for me" (Micah 7:8).

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM MICAH:

God wants to teach you about His ways so that you can walk in His paths (see Micah 4:2).

You can overcome insecurity and walk securely by trusting in the Lord, the true God (see Micah 4:5).

Jesus, the Messiah, is your peace (see Micah 5:5).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM MICAH:

He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you except to be just, and to love [and diligently practice] kindness (compassion), and to walk humbly with your God [setting aside any overblown sense of importance or self-righteousness]. | Micah 6:8

But as for me, I will look expectantly for the LORD and with confidence in Him I will keep watch; I will wait [with confident expectation] for the God of my salvation. My God will hear me. | Micah 7:7

He will bring me out to the light, and I will behold His [amazing] righteousness and His remarkable deliverance. | Micah 7:9

THE BOOK OF
MICAH

1 THE WORD of the LORD that came to Micah of Moresheth in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw [through divine revelation] concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

²Hear, O peoples, all of you;
Listen closely, O earth and all that is in it,
And let the Lord GOD be witness [giving a testimony of the judgment] against you, The Lord from His holy temple [in the heavens]. [1 Kin 22:28]

³For behold, the LORD is coming down from His place He shall come down and tread [in judgment] on the high places of the earth. [Zech 14:3, 4; Mal 4:2, 3; Matt 24:27–30; Rev 1:7; 19:11–16]

⁴The mountains shall melt under Him
And the valleys shall be split
Like wax before the fire,
Like waters poured down a steep place.

⁵All this is because of the rebellion and apostasy of Jacob
And for the sins of the house of Israel (the Northern Kingdom).

What is the rebellion and apostasy of Jacob?

Is it not [the abandonment of God in order to worship the idols of] Samaria?

What are the high places [of idolatry] in Judah (the Southern Kingdom)?

Are they not Jerusalem [the capital and center of corruption]?

⁶Therefore I [the LORD] shall make Samaria a heap of ruins
[and of stones and arable land] in the open country, A place for planting vineyards;

And I will pour her stones down into the ravine

And lay bare her foundations. [2 Kin 19:25; Ezek 13:14]

⁷All her idols shall be broken in pieces,
All her earnings [from her idolatry] shall be burned with fire,
And all her images I shall make desolate;
For from the earnings of a prostitute she collected them,
And to the earnings of a prostitute they shall return.

⁸Because of this I [Micah] must lament (mourn over with expressions of grief) and wail, I must go barefoot and naked [without outer garments as if robbed]; I must wail like the jackals

And lament [with a loud, mournful cry] like the ostriches.

⁹For Samaria's wound is incurable,
For it has come to Judah;
The enemy has reached the gate of my people,
Even to Jerusalem.

- ¹⁰Announce it not in Gath [in Philistia],
Weep not at all [and in this way betray your grief to Gentiles]; In Beth-le-aphrah (House of Dust) roll in the dust [among your own people].
- ¹¹Go on your way [into exile—stripped of beauty, disarmed], inhabitants of Shaphir (Beautiful), in shameful nakedness.
The inhabitant of Zaanan (Go Out) does not go out [of the house]; The wailing of Beth-ezel (House of Removal) will take away from you its support.
- ¹²For the inhabitant of Maroth (Bitterness)
Writhes in pain [at its losses] and waits anxiously for good,
Because a catastrophe has come down from the LORD
To the gate of Jerusalem.
- ¹³Harness the chariot to the team of horses [to escape the invasion], O inhabitant of Lachish— She was the beginning of sin
To the Daughter of Zion (Jerusalem)—
Because in you were found
The rebellious acts of Israel.
- ¹⁴Therefore you will give parting gifts On behalf of Moresbeth-gath (Micah's home);
The houses of Achzib (Place of Deceit) will become a deception To the kings of Israel.
- ¹⁵Moreover, I will bring on you
The one who takes possession,
O inhabitant of Mareshah (Prominent Place).
The glory (nobility) of Israel will enter Adullam [seeking refuge]. [1 Sam 22:1]

¹⁶Make yourself bald [in mourning]—shave off your hair For the children of your delight;
Remain as bald as the eagle,
For your children will be taken from you into exile.

2 WOE (JUDGMENT is coming) to those who devise wickedness And plot evil on their beds!

When morning comes, they practice evil
Because it is in the power of their hands.

²They covet fields and seize them,
And houses, and take them away.
They oppress and rob a man and his house,
A man and his inheritance. [Is 5:8; Ex 20:17; Lev 25:23ff.]

³Therefore, thus says the LORD, “Behold, I am planning against this family a disaster (exile) [Like a noose] from which you cannot remove your necks;
Nor will you be able to walk haughtily and erect,
For it will be an evil time [of subjugation to the invaders].

⁴“On that day they shall take up a [taunting, deriding] parable against you And wail with a doleful and bitter song of mourning and say, ‘We are completely destroyed!
God exchanges the inheritance of my people;
How He removes it from me!
He divides our fields to the rebellious [our captors].’

A Prayer To

Renew Your Mind

O Lord, I know that Your words do good to those who walk uprightly.

• adapted from Micah 2:7

⁵“Therefore, you will have no one stretching a measuring line [dividing the common land]
For you by lot in the assembly of the LORD. [Rev 21:27]

⁶“Do not speak out,’ so they speak out.
But if they do not speak out concerning these things,
Reproaches will not be turned back.

⁷“Is it being said, O house of Jacob:
‘Is the Spirit of the LORD impatient?
Or are these [prophesied judgments] His doings?’
Do not My words do good
To the one walking uprightly?

⁸“But lately My people have stood up as an enemy [and have made Me their antagonist].
You strip the ornaments off the garment

Of those unsuspecting passers-by,
Like those returned from war.

9“‘You evict the women (widows) of My people,
Each one from her pleasant house;
From her [young, fatherless] children you take away My splendor and blessing forever [by putting them among the pagans, away from Me].

10“‘Arise and depart [because the captivity is inevitable], For this [land] is not the place of rest
Because of the defilement that brings destruction,
A painful and terrible destruction.

11“‘If a man walking in a false spirit [spouting deception]
Should lie and say,
‘I will prophesy to you [O Israel] of wine and liquor (greed, sensual pleasure),’
He would be the acceptable spokesman of this people. [Jer
5:31]

12“‘I shall most certainly assemble all of you, O Jacob; I shall surely gather the remnant of Israel.
I shall bring them together like sheep in the fold [multiplying the nation]; Like a flock in the midst of its pasture.
The place will swarm with many people and hum loudly with noise.

13“‘The breaker [the Messiah, who opens the way] shall go up before them [liberating them].
They will break out, pass through the gate and go out;
So their King goes on before them,

The LORD at their head.” [Ex 23:20, 21; 33:14; Is 63:8, 9; Hos 3:5; Amos 9:11]

3 AND I said, “Hear now, heads of Jacob

And rulers of the house of Israel.

Is it not for you to know and administer justice?

²“You who hate good and love evil,

Who tear the skin off my people

And their flesh from their bones;

³You who eat the flesh of my people,

Strip off their skin from them,

Break their bones

And chop them in pieces as for the pot,

Like meat in a kettle.”

⁴Then they will cry to the LORD, But He will not answer them;

Instead, He will even hide His face from them at that time [withholding His mercy]

Because they have practiced and tolerated and ignored evil acts. [Is 1:15]

⁵Thus says the LORD concerning the [false] prophets who lead my people astray; When they have something good to bite with their teeth, They call out, “Peace,”

But against the one who gives them nothing to eat,

They declare a holy war.

⁶Therefore it will be night (tragedy) for you—without vision, And darkness (cataclysm) for you—without foresight.

The sun shall go down on the [false] prophets,

And the day shall become dark and black over them.

⁷The seers shall be ashamed

POWERPOINT

Micah was filled with God's power and Spirit, and the same privilege is available to us (see Mic. 3:8). Many of God's people live weak, powerless lives simply because they don't know that His power is already theirs and all they need to do is believe it and act upon it. All the promises of God become ours in reality through believing, and His promise of power is no different. Luke 10:19 says that God has given us power and authority over all the power the enemy possesses and that nothing shall harm us. The enemy may come against us, but if we resist him in God's power and by His Spirit, we will experience no permanent harm. See yourself as powerful and capable, not weak and incapable!

And the diviners discredited and embarrassed;
Indeed, they shall all cover their mouths [in shame]
Because there is no answer from God.

⁸But in fact, I am filled with power,
With the Spirit of the LORD, And with justice and might,
To declare to Jacob his transgression
And to Israel his sin.

⁹Now hear this, you heads of the house of Jacob
And rulers of the house of Israel,
Who hate and reject justice
And twist everything that is straight,

¹⁰Who build Zion with blood [and extortion and murder]
And Jerusalem with violent injustice.

¹¹Her leaders pronounce judgment for a bribe,
Her priests teach for a fee,
And her prophets foretell for money;
Yet they lean on the LORD, saying, “Is not the LORD among us?

No tragedy or distress will come on us.” [Is 1:10–15]

¹²Therefore, on account of you Zion shall be plowed like a field,
Jerusalem shall become a heap of ruins,
And the mountain of the house [of the LORD] shall become like a densely wooded hill. [Jer 26:17–19]

4 BUT IT shall come about in the last days That the mountain of the house of the LORD

Shall be established as the highest and chief of the mountains; It shall be above the hills,
And peoples shall flow [like a river] to it.

² And many nations shall come and say, “Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, To the house of the God of Jacob,
That He may teach us about His ways
And that we may walk in His paths.”
For the law shall go forward from Zion,
And the word of the LORD [the revelation about Him and His truth] from Jerusalem.

³ And He will judge between many peoples
And render decisions for strong and distant nations.
Then they shall hammer their swords into plowshares
And their spears into pruning hooks [so that the implements of war may become the tools of agriculture];
Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
Nor shall they ever again train for war. [Is 2:2–4; Joel 3:10]

⁴ Each of them shall sit [in security and peace] under his vine
And under his fig tree,
With no one to make them afraid,

⁵For all the peoples [now] walk
Each in the name of his god [in a transient relationship],
As for us, we shall walk [securely]
In the name of the LORD our [true] God forever and ever.

⁶“In that day,” says the LORD, “I shall assemble the lame,
And gather the outcasts [from foreign captivity],
Even those whom I have caused pain.

Is there no king among you?
Has your counselor perished?
For agony has gripped you like a woman in childbirth.

¹⁰“Writhe in pain and labor to give birth,
O Daughter of Zion,

And go to Babylon.
There you will be rescued;
There the LORD shall redeem you From the hand of your enemies.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

True Security

In Ephesians 3:17, the apostle Paul teaches us to be deeply rooted and securely grounded in God's love. The Greek word for secure means "without anxiety." Through Jesus, you have a right to enjoy a life without anxiety. The word also means to "have full command." You can resist insecurity and not be defeated by it as you "walk [securely] in the name of the LORD our [true] God forever and ever" (Mic. 4:5).

True security doesn't depend on how much money you have, your job, the way you look, how others respond to you, or even how they treat you. Security is not based on your education, your marital status, the label inside your clothing, the car you drive, or what kind of house you live in. True security is found by trusting in Christ alone and knowing that He loves and cares for you.

Who say, 'Let her be profaned [through Gentile presence and the temple's destruction], And let our eyes gaze on and gloat over Zion.'

¹²"But they (Gentile nations) do not know the thoughts of the LORD, Nor do they understand His purpose and plan; For He has gathered them (Gentiles) like sheaves to the threshing floor [for destruction].

¹³"Arise and thresh, O Daughter of Zion!
For I will make your horn iron
And I will make your hoofs bronze;

That you may beat many peoples in pieces [trampling down your enemies], That you may devote to the LORD their unjust gain (pagan possessions) And their wealth to the Lord of all the earth. [Zech 12:1–8; 14:14]

5 “NOW GATHER yourself in troops, O daughter of troops; A state of siege has been placed against us.

They shall strike the ruler of Israel on the cheek with a rod (scepter).

²“But as for you, Bethlehem Ephrathah,
Too little to be among the clans of Judah;
From you One shall come forth for Me [who is] to be Ruler in Israel, His goings forth (appearances) are from long ago,
From ancient days.” [Gen 49:10; Matt 2:5–12; John 7:42]

³Therefore, He will give them up until the time
When she who is in labor has given birth to a child.
Then what is left of His kinsmen
Shall return to the children of Israel.

⁴And He shall stand and shepherd and guide His flock
In the strength of the LORD, In the majesty of the name of the LORD His God; And they shall dwell [secure in undisturbed peace],
Because at that time He shall be great [extending His authority]
[Even] to the ends of the earth. [Ps 72:8; Is 40:11; Zech 9:10;
Luke 1:32, 33]

⁵This One [the Messiah] shall be our peace.

When the Assyrian invades our land
And tramples on our citadels and in our palaces,
Then shall we raise against him
Seven shepherds and eight princes [an overpowering force] among men. [Is 9:6; Eph 2:14]

⁶They shall devastate the land of Assyria with the sword and The land of Nimrod within her [own] gates.
And He (the Messiah) shall rescue us from the Assyrian (all enemy nations) When he attacks our land
And when he tramples our territory.

⁷Then the remnant of Jacob Shall be among many peoples
Like dew from the LORD,
Like showers on the grass [a source of blessing]
Which [come suddenly and] do not wait for man
Nor delay for the sons of men. [Ps 72:6; 110:3]

⁸The remnant of Jacob
Shall be among the nations,
In the midst of many peoples
Like a lion among the beasts of the forest,
Like a young lion [suddenly appearing] among the flocks of sheep Which, if he passes through, Tramples down and tears into pieces [the nations in judgment], And there is no one to rescue.

⁹Your hand will be lifted up against your adversaries, And all your enemies shall be cut off and destroyed.

10“And in that day,” says the LORD, “I will cut off your horses from among you

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Jesus Is Our Peace

Micah 5:5 says “[the Messiah] shall be our peace,” which makes the same point as Ephesians 2:14: “For He Himself is our peace.” We can work with the Holy Spirit to live in God’s peace all the time, no matter what is going on. Because Jesus is our peace, we can refuse to live our lives anxious, upset, frustrated, aggravated, or joyless.

One way to learn to live at peace internally is to learn to identify the things that upset us. The enemy loves to lure us away from God’s peace, but he does not use the same tactics with every person. I’ve said for years, “The devil sets us up to upset us.” He knows our weak points and pressures us over and over in those areas until we lose our composure.

I encourage you to find out what your weak spots are. One of mine is hurry. I know that when I am rushed to do something or get somewhere, the enemy can frustrate me very quickly. Maybe you feel frustrated in traffic or are easily exasperated by coworkers who talk too much or do not take their job seriously. Perhaps you have a low tolerance for a messy house or little patience with people who are chronically late. Maybe you can almost feel your blood pressure rising when your computer does not do what it is supposed to do.

We need to know ourselves and understand what causes us to lose our peace. We also need to remember at all times that

And destroy your chariots [on which you depend]. [Ps 20:7, 8; Zech 9:10]

11“*I will cut off the cities of your land
And tear down all your fortifications.*

12“I will cut off witchcrafts and sorceries from your hand, And you shall have no more fortune-tellers.

13“*I will also cut off your carved images
And your sacred pillars from among you,
So that you will no longer worship and bow down
To the work of your hands.*

14“I will root out your Asherim (symbols of the goddess Asherah) from among you And destroy your cities [which are the centers of pagan worship]. [Deut 16:21]

15“And in anger and wrath I shall execute vengeance On the nations which have not obeyed [such vengeance as they have not known before].”

6 HEAR NOW what the LORD is saying, “Arise, plead your case before the mountains,

And let the hills [as witnesses] hear your voice.

2“Hear, O mountains, the indictment of the LORD, And you enduring foundations of the earth,
For the LORD has a case (a legal complaint) against His people, And He will dispute (challenge) Israel.

³“O My people, what have I done to you [since you have turned away from Me]?

And how have I wearied you? Answer Me.

⁴“For I brought you up from the land of Egypt
And ransomed you from the house of slavery,
And I sent before you Moses [to lead you], Aaron [the high priest], and Miriam [the prophetess].

⁵“My people, remember now
What Balak king of Moab devised [with his evil plan against Israel]

And what Balaam the son of Beor answered him [turning the curse into blessing for Israel], [Remember what the LORD did for you] from Shittim to Gilgal, So that you may know the righteous and saving acts [displaying the power] of the LORD.” [Num 23:7–24; 24:3–24; Josh 3:1; 4:19]

⁶With what shall I come before the LORD [to honor Him]
And bow myself before God on high?
Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings,
With yearling calves?

⁷Will the LORD be delighted with thousands of rams, Or with ten thousand rivers of oil?
Shall I present my firstborn for my acts of rebellion,
The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

⁸He has told you, O man, what is good;
And what does the LORD require of you Except to be just,
and to love [and to diligently practice] kindness

(compassion), And to walk humbly with your God [setting aside any overblown sense of importance or self-righteousness]? [Deut 10:12, 13]

⁹The voice of the LORD shall call to the city [of Jerusalem]—
And it is sound wisdom to heed [solemnly] and fear Your name [with awe-filled reverence]; “Hear, O tribe [the rod of punishment]. Who has appointed its time?

¹⁰“Are there not still treasures gained by wickedness In the house of the wicked,

Speak God's Word

The Lord has showed me what is good. And what does the Lord require of me? To be just; and to love and diligently practice kindness and compassion; and to walk humbly with my God.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Walk Humbly

One thing the Lord requires of us is to “walk humbly with your God” (Mic. 6:8). Humility is said to be the chief virtue, and it is more than likely the most difficult virtue to grow into.

People who walk humbly are totally dependent on God for all things, and they never think more highly of themselves than they should. They don't consider themselves superior to anyone else. When God's people have a humble heart and attitude, their humility shows in how they think about and treat others as well as in the way they speak about their own lot in life.

Humility never has an attitude of entitlement and considers every blessing to be undeserved and a gift from God. It doesn't complain, criticize, or murmur about its own life. Humility waits patiently for God to change circumstances as He desires, and trusts that He will give the needed strength to endure whatever happens with a positive attitude.

And a short (inaccurate) measure [for grain] that is cursed?
[Deut 25:14–16]

¹¹“Can I [be guiltless and] justify deceptive scales And a bag of dishonest weights? [1 Thess 4:6]

¹²“For the rich men of the city are full of violence [of every kind]; Her inhabitants speak lies

And their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

¹³“So also I will make you sick, striking you down, Desolating and devastating you, because of your sins.

¹⁴“You shall eat, but you will not be satisfied,
And your emptiness shall be among you;
You will [try to] remove [your goods and those you love] for safekeeping

But you will fail to save anything,
And what you do save I shall give to the sword.

¹⁵“You shall sow but you shall not reap;
You shall tread olives, but shall not anoint yourself with oil,
And [you will extract juice from] the grapes, but you shall not drink the wine.

¹⁶“For [you have kept] the statutes of Omri [the idolatrous king], And all the works of the [wicked] house (dynasty) of Ahab;

And you walk in their counsels and policies.
Therefore, I shall hand you over for destruction and horror
And your [city’s] inhabitants for ridicule,
And you shall bear the rebuke and scorn of My people.”

7 WOE IS me (judgment is coming)! For I am Like one who gathers the summer fruits, like one who gleans the vintage grapes.

There is not a cluster of grapes to eat,
No first-ripe fig which my appetite craves.

²The godly person [who is faithful and loyal to God] has perished from the earth, And there is no upright person [one with good character and moral integrity] among men.

They all lie in wait to shed blood;
Each hunts the other with a net.

Speak God's Word

I will look expectantly for the Lord and with confidence in Him I will keep watch; I will wait with confident expectation for the God of my salvation. My God will hear me. Though I fall, I will rise; though I sit in the darkness of distress, the Lord is a light for me.

| adapted from MICAH 7:7-8 |

³Concerning evil, both of their hands pursue it and do it diligently and thoroughly; The prince asks, also the judge, for a bribe,

And a great man speaks the [evil] desire of his soul.
So they twist the course of justice between them.

⁴The best of them is [injurious] like a briar;
The most upright is [prickly] like a thorn hedge.
The day of your watchmen [that is, the time predicted by the prophets]
And your punishment comes;

Now shall be their confusion.

⁵Do not trust in a neighbor [because of the moral corruption in the land]; Do not have confidence in a friend.

Guard the doors of your mouth

From her who lies in your bosom. [Luke 12:51–53]

⁶For the son dishonors the father and treats him contemptuously, The daughter rises up [in hostility] against her mother,

The daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law—

A man's enemies are the men (members) of his own household. [Matt 10:21, 35, 36; Mark 13:12, 13]

⁸Do not rejoice over me [amid my tragedies], O my enemy! Though I fall, I will rise; Though I sit in the darkness [of distress], the LORD is a light for me.

- ⁹I will bear the indignation and wrath of the LORD
Because I have sinned against Him,
Until He pleads my case and executes judgment for me.
He will bring me out to the light,
And I will behold His [amazing] righteousness and His remarkable deliverance. [Rom 10:1–4; 11:23–27]
- ¹⁰Then my enemy [all the pagan nations] shall see it, And shame [for despising the LORD] will cover her who said to me, “Where is the LORD your God?”
My eyes will look on her [with satisfaction at her judgment];
Now she (unbelievers) will be trampled down
Like mud of the streets.
- ¹¹*It shall be* a day for building your walls, On that day the boundary [of Israel] shall be [greatly] extended. [Is 33:17;
Amos 9:11]
- ¹²*It shall be* a day when the Gentiles will come to you From Assyria and from the cities of Egypt,
And from Egypt even to the river Euphrates,
From sea to sea and from mountain to mountain.
- ¹³Yet the earth [beyond the land of Israel] shall become desolate because of those who dwell in it, Because of the fruit of their deeds.
- ¹⁴Shepherd and rule Your people with Your scepter [of blessing], The flock of Your inheritance and Your possession
Which dwells alone [separate and secure from attack] in the forest, In the midst of a garden land.

- Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead
As in the days of old [the days of Moses and Elijah].
- ¹⁵“As in the days when you came out from the land of Egypt,
I shall show you marvelous and miraculous things.”
- ¹⁶The [pagan] nations shall see [God’s omnipotence in delivering Israel] and be ashamed Of all their might [which cannot be compared to His].
They shall put their hand on their mouth [in silent astonishment]; Their ears shall be deaf.
- ¹⁷They shall lick the dust like a serpent;
Like crawling things of the earth
They shall come trembling out of their fortresses and hiding places.
They shall turn and come with fear and dread to the LORD our God And they shall be afraid and stand in awe before You [O LORD]. [Jer 33:9]
- ¹⁸Who is a God like You, who forgives wickedness
And passes over the rebellious acts of the remnant of His possession?
He does not retain His anger forever, Because He [constantly] delights in mercy and lovingkindness.
- ¹⁹He shall again have compassion on us;
He will subdue and tread underfoot our wickedness [destroying sin’s power].
Yes, You will cast all our sins
Into the depths of the sea. [Ps 103:12]
- ²⁰You shall give truth to Jacob

And lovingkindness and mercy to Abraham,
As You have sworn to our forefathers
From the days of old. [Luke 1:54, 55]

POWERPOINT

One way the enemy attacks our mind is with thoughts that God is angry with us. One of the most freeing statements I can make is this: “God is not angry with you.” Surely, since God was quick to forgive people who turned away from Him completely, as is mentioned in Micah 7:18, He is also more than ready to forgive you and me of our sins.

Nahum

Author: | Nahum

Date: | Shortly before 612 BC

The writer of the book of Nahum was a prophet named Nahum, whose name means “consolation” or “comfort.” While most of his words focused on God’s judgment against the city of Nineveh, they also communicated God’s comfort to the people of Judah.

Nahum observes that while people may seem to get away with sin for a period of time, they will eventually pay the price for it. Sin leads to judgment, and judgment will eventually come. Because of God’s great power, no one can withstand His judgment once it is set in motion. However, God does have mercy on His people. When trouble comes against us, He is our refuge, and He gives us strength to go through it all the way to victory (see Nahum 1:7).

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM NAHUM:

God will destroy evil in His timing and in His way. In the meantime, trust Him fully (see Nahum 1:2–3).

When you face trouble and don't have all the answers, take refuge in God and you will find strength to go through to victory (see Nahum 1:7).

Instead of speaking negative words to people, encourage them by sharing good news (see Nahum 1:15).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM NAHUM:

The LORD is slow to anger and great in power and He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished. The LORD has His way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust beneath His feet. | Nahum 1:3

The LORD is good, a strength and stronghold in the day of trouble; He knows [He recognizes, cares for, and understands fully] those who take refuge and trust in Him. | Nahum 1:7

He... will pursue His enemies into darkness. | Nahum 1:8

THE BOOK OF NAHUM

1 THE ORACLE (a burdensome message—a pronouncement from God) concerning Nineveh [the capital city of Assyria]. The book of the vision of Nahum of Elkosh [which he saw in spirit and prophesied].

²The LORD is a jealous and avenging God [protecting and demanding what is rightfully and uniquely His]; The LORD avenges and He is full of wrath.

The LORD takes vengeance on His adversaries, And He reserves wrath for His enemies. [Ex 20:5]

³The LORD is slow to anger and great in power And He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished.

The LORD has His way in the whirlwind and in the storm,
And the clouds are the dust beneath His feet. [Ex 34:6, 7]

⁴He rebukes the sea and dries it up; He dries up all the rivers [illustrating His judgment].

POWERPOINT

Notice that Nahum 1:2 says God “reserves wrath for His enemies.” One of the enemy’s most powerful strategies against many believers is to cause them to believe that God is angry with them or wants to punish them for their sins or mistakes. This is not true, and it is not consistent with God’s character. The truth is that God releases His wrath on His enemies, but He showers His love on His children.

Speak God's Word

*The Lord is good, my strength and stronghold in the day of trouble; He knows, recognizes, and cares for me.
He understands fully that I take refuge and trust in Him.*

Bashan [on the east] and [Mount] Carmel [on the west] wither, And [in the north] the blossoms of Lebanon fade.

⁵The mountains quake before Him

And the hills melt away;

Indeed the earth is shaken by His presence—

Yes, the world and all that dwell in it.

⁶Who can stand before His indignation [His great wrath]?

And who can stand up and endure the fierceness of His anger?

His wrath is poured out like fire

And the rocks are destroyed by Him.

⁷The LORD is good, A strength and stronghold in the day of trouble; He knows [He recognizes, cares for, and understands fully] those who take refuge and trust in Him.

[Ps 1:6; Hos 13:5; John 10:14, 27]

⁸But with an overwhelming flood [of judgment through invading armies]

He will make a complete destruction of its site

And will pursue His enemies into darkness.

⁹Whatever [plot] you [Assyrians] devise against the LORD,
He will make a complete end of it;

Affliction [of God's people by the hand of Assyria] will not occur twice.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Trust God in the Day of Trouble

When we face troubling situations, the enemy can attack our minds with fear, worry, and reasoning, which could cause us to fret about the circumstances or consider various ways that God could intervene. We might even offer God advice on how He could help us! But when we really trust God and take our hands off the troubles we are facing, we will realize we don't have to have all the answers. We do not need to know what to do or what the outcome will be. We simply need to know that God is in control and He is good. Nahum 1:7 is a wonderful verse that reminds us that "the LORD is good" and "a strength and stronghold in the day of trouble." It adds that He "knows [He recognizes, cares for, and understands fully] those who take refuge and trust in Him." We don't have to know how God will deliver us. We simply need to take refuge in Him and trust that He will.

It is important to understand that trust sometimes requires unanswered questions. We cannot look to our own knowledge, understanding, or good ideas when we are trusting God (see Prov. 3:5–6). We have to remember that He can bring to our problems solutions we could never have imagined. We don't have to have all the answers when we face challenges in life. God will give us the breakthroughs we need in His perfect timing. And until He does, we can pray in faith, rest in Him, and live in peace.

¹⁰Like tangled thorn branches [gathered for fuel], And like those drowned in drunkenness,
The people of Nineveh are consumed [through fire]
Like stubble completely withered and dry [in the day of the LORD's wrath]. [Mal 4:1]

¹¹From you [O Nineveh],
One has gone forth who plotted evil against the LORD, A malevolent counselor [the king of Assyria]. [2 Kin 19:20–23; Is 10:5–7; 36:15–20]

¹²This is what the LORD says, “Though they are at full strength and many in number, Even so, they will be cut off and pass away.

Though I have afflicted you and caused you grief [O Jerusalem], I will afflict you no longer. [2 Kin 19:35–37; John 5:14]

¹³“Now, I will break his yoke [of taxation] off you, And I will tear off your shackles.” [Is 14:25]

¹⁴The LORD has given a command concerning you [O king of Nineveh]: “Your name will no longer be perpetuated.

I will cut off the carved idols and cast images

From the temple of your gods;

I will prepare your grave,

For you are vile and unworthy.” [Is 37:38; Ezek 32:22, 23]

¹⁵Behold, on the mountains the feet of him who brings good news [telling of Assyria's destruction], Who announces peace and prosperity!

Celebrate your feasts, O Judah;

POWERPOINT

Nahum 1:15 praises those who bring good news. I want to encourage you to be a person who shares good news as often as possible, whether in the form of a compliment to someone, words of encouragement, or some other verbal affirmation.

Positive words begin with positive thoughts. When you encounter someone, notice the good in that person and say something about it. In fact, you could even commit to making a habit of spreading good news.

Become known as a person others can count on to say something kind or encouraging, and people will always be happy to see you coming.

Perform your vows.

For the wicked one [the king of Assyria] will never again pass through you; He is completely cut off. [Is 52:7; Rom 10:15]

- 2 THE ONE who scatters has come up against you [Nineveh].
Man the fortress and ramparts, watch the road; Strengthen your back [prepare for battle], summon all your strength.
- 2 For the LORD will restore the splendor and majesty of Jacob Like the splendor of [ancient and united] Israel, Even though destroyers have destroyed them
And ruined their vine branches. [Is 10:12]
- 3 The shields of his soldiers [of Media and Babylon] are colored red; The warriors are dressed in scarlet.
The chariots blaze with fire of [flashing] steel When he is prepared to march,
And the cypress spears are brandished [for battle].
- 4 The chariots race madly in the streets; They rush wildly in the broad plazas.
Their appearance is like torches;
They rush in various directions like forked lightning.
- 5 He remembers and summons his nobles; They stumble in their march [terrified because of the attack].
They hurry to the city wall,
And the mantelet is prepared and firmly set up.
- 6 The gates of the rivers [surrounding Nineveh] are opened
And the palace [of sun-dried brick] is dissolved [by the torrents].

⁷It is decreed:

Nineveh is stripped, and she is carried away,
And her handmaids are moaning like the sound of doves,
Beating on their breasts [in sorrow].

⁸Though Nineveh was like a pool of water throughout her days,
Now her inhabitants are fleeing;
“Stop! Stop!” [a few cry,]
But no one turns back.

⁹Plunder the silver!
Plunder the gold!
For there is no end to the treasure—
Wealth from every precious object.

¹⁰She is emptied! She is desolate and waste!
Hearts melting [in fear] and knees knocking!
Anguish is in the whole body,
And the faces of all grow pale! [Is 13:7, 8]

¹¹Where is the den of the lions (Assyria) And the feeding place of the young lions,
Where the lion, lioness, and lion’s cub prowled
With nothing to fear?

¹²The lion [of Assyria] tore enough for his cubs (Assyrian citizens), Killed [enough prey] for his lionesses,
And filled his lairs with prey
And his dens with torn flesh.

¹³“Behold, I am against you [Nineveh],” declares the LORD of hosts, “and I will burn your chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions. I will cut off your prey from the land, and the voice of your messengers will no longer be heard.”

3 WOE (JUDGMENT is coming) to the city of blood [guilty of murder and mayhem], completely full of lies and pillage; Her prey never departs [alive]. [Ezek 24:6, 9, 10; Hab 2:12]

²The noise of the [cracking of the] whip, The noise of the rattling of the wheel, Galloping horses
And rumbling and bounding chariots [in the assault of Nineveh]!

³Horsemen charging,
Swords flashing, spears gleaming,
Many slain, a mass of corpses,
No end of corpses—
The horsemen stumble over the corpses!

⁴All because of the many acts of prostitution of [Nineveh] the prostitute, The charming and well-favored one, the mistress of sorceries, Who betrays nations by her acts of prostitution (idolatry) And families by her sorceries.

⁵“Behold, I am against you,” declares the LORD of hosts,
“And I will lift up your skirts over your face,
And I will let the nations look at your nakedness [O Nineveh]
And the kingdoms at your disgrace.

⁶“I will throw filth on you

And make you vile and treat you with contempt, And set you up as a spectacle.

7“And it will come about that all who see you Will shrink back and run from you and say, ‘Nineveh is completely ruined!

Who will grieve for her?’

Where will I seek comforters for you?”

8*Are you better than Thebes, Which was situated by the waters of the Nile,*

With water surrounding her,

Whose defense was the sea (the Nile),

Whose wall consisted of the sea?

9*Ethiopia was her strength,*

And Egypt too, without limits.

Put and Lubim were among her helpers.

10*Yet she became an exile;*

She went into captivity.

Her young children were dashed to pieces

At the head of every street;

They cast lots for her honorable men,

And all her great men were bound with chains.

11*You too [Nineveh] will become drunk [with the cup of God’s wrath]; You will be hidden.*

You too [Nineveh] will search [in vain] for a refuge from the enemy.

12*All your fortresses are [nothing but] fig trees with ripe figs — When shaken they fall into the mouth of the eater.*

- ¹³Behold, your people are [as weak and helpless as] women in your midst!
The gates of your land are opened wide to your enemies;
Fire consumes the bars across your gates.
- ¹⁴Draw water for a [long, continued] siege!
Strengthen your fortresses!
Go down to the clay pits, trample the mortar!
Prepare the brick kiln [to burn bricks for the rampart]!
- ¹⁵But there [in the very midst of these preparations] the fire will devour you; The sword will cut you down;
It will devour you as the locust does.
Multiply yourself like the creeping locusts; Multiply yourself like the swarming locusts.
- ¹⁶You have increased your traders more than the [visible] stars of heaven— The creeping locust strips and destroys and then flies away.
- ¹⁷Your guardsmen are like the swarming locusts.
Your marshals are like the hordes of grasshoppers Settling in the stone walls on a cold day.
When the sun rises, they fly away,
And no one knows the place where they are.
- ¹⁸Your shepherds are asleep, O king of Assyria; Your nobles are lying down [in death].
Your people are scattered on the mountains
And there is no one to gather them.
- ¹⁹There is no relief and healing for your hurt; Your wound is incurable.
All who hear the news about you

Clap their hands over [what has happened to] you.

For on whom has your [unceasing] evil not come continually?

Habakkuk

Author: | Habakkuk
Date: | Probably between 612 BC and
586 BC

The book of Habakkuk is not a narrative, but the record of a conversation between God and the prophet Habakkuk. Clearly Habakkuk is disturbed by the troubles and injustices surrounding him in Judah, and he takes his questions to the Lord instead of trying to figure out the answers in his mind. He is able to get his thoughts off negative things and onto positive things when he realizes this truth: “Look at the proud one, his soul is not right within him, but the righteous will live by his faith [in the true God]” (Habakkuk 2:4). We don’t always know the answers we would like to know, but God does know them and we can always have faith in Him.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM HABAKKUK:

Ask the Lord to give you a vision for your life, and then wait patiently for it. When you receive it, pursue it with all your heart (see Habakkuk 2:2–3).

Faith is more than just a way to get to heaven; it is a way of life (see Habakkuk 2:4).

As you face loss or challenges in your life, God will strengthen you and help you move forward with confidence (see Habakkuk 3:17–19).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM HABAKKUK:

Write the vision and engrave it plainly on [clay] tablets so that the one who reads it will run. | Habakkuk 2:2

O LORD, I have heard the report about You and I fear. O LORD, revive Your work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make it known; in wrath [earnestly] remember compassion and love. | Habakkuk 3:2

I will [choose to] rejoice in the LORD; I will [choose to] shout in exultation in the [victorious] God of my salvation! | Habakkuk 3:18

THE BOOK OF HABAKKUK

1 THE ORACLE (a burdensome message—a pronouncement from God) which Habakkuk the prophet saw.

²O LORD, how long will I call for help And You will not hear?
I cry out to You, “Violence!”
Yet You do not save.

³Why do You make me see iniquity,
And cause me to look on wickedness?
For destruction and violence are before me;
Strife continues and contention arises.

⁴Therefore, the law is ineffective and ignored And justice is never upheld,
For the wicked surround the righteous;
Therefore, justice becomes perverted.

⁵[The LORD replied,] “Look among the nations! See!
Be astonished! Wonder!
For I am doing something in your days—
You would not believe it if you were told. [Acts 13:40, 41]

⁶“For behold, I am raising up the Chaldeans [who rule in Babylon],

KEYS to a Victorious Life

A Discerning Heart

People who must figure out everything have a hard time with faith, because reasoning is not faith, and without faith it is impossible to please God.

I used to be a class A chief “reasoner.” I had to have everything figured out. I had to have a plan if I was going to be peaceful. Not unlike the prophet Habakkuk, I was continually asking, “Why, God, why?” (see Hab. 1:14) and “When, God, when?” Then one day the Lord spoke to my heart and said, “As long as you continue to reason, you won’t gain discernment.”

Discernment starts in the heart and enlightens the mind. As long as my mind was overloaded with my own confusing questions, I could not receive any wisdom or direction from the Holy Spirit. God wants us to acknowledge Him in every situation and let Him direct our path (see Prov. 3:5–6).

Balance is the key to victory in your thought life. It is fine to ponder situations and think about them in a prayerful manner, but we should not allow confusion in our mind. The day will come when we will know in the same way that God knows (see 1 Cor. 13:12), but for now we have the privilege of trusting Him.

If we try to figure out the reasons for which everything happens in life, we will not have peace of mind and heart.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

“Why, God, Why?”

I understand why people sometimes ask, “Why do we have so many problems and struggles and endure so much suffering in life?” The prophet Habakkuk wanted God to answer three major why questions in his first chapter alone (see Hab. 1:3, 13, 14), and you and I are no different.

Sometimes, with our questions, we even start to imply that God is to blame. As I considered this, I began to see that Satan often plants these questions in our mind. It is his attempt to keep us focused on our problems rather than on the goodness of God.

Consider the story of Jesus’ visit to Mary and Martha after their brother, Lazarus, died. Jesus waited until Lazarus had been dead for four days before He arrived at their home. When He arrived, Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died” (John 11:21). I’m sure Martha was wondering, as many of us would have, “why” Jesus didn’t show up sooner and “why” He didn’t save Lazarus.

Aren’t many of us like Martha? We want our lives to run smoothly, and when they don't, we ask, "Why?" We should be careful not to let our questions cause confusion. Confusion is not from God. He desires that we trust Him no matter what our circumstances.

For example, when someone dies in an accident, one of the first questions family members ask is, "Why her, God? Why?" That is certainly understandable, but it is not likely that they will receive an answer that will be suitable.

In situations such as these, we can help ourselves greatly by learning to say, "Lord God, I believe. I don't understand, and I could never grasp all the reasons that bad things happen, but I know for certain that You love me and You are with me—always."

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Heavenly Father, instead of asking for answers to the why questions, help me to focus on Your great love for me. When the enemy tries to fill my mind with troublesome questions, help me to trust in You and receive Your comfort. Amen.

That fierce and impetuous nation Who march throughout the earth

To take possession of dwelling places that do not belong to them. [2 Kin 24:2]

7“‘The Chaldeans are dreaded and feared;
Their justice and authority originate with themselves and are defined only by their decree.

8“‘Their horses are swifter than leopards
And keener than [hungry] wolves in the evening,
Their horsemen come galloping,
Their horsemen come from far away;
They fly like an eagle swooping down to devour.

9“‘They all come for violence;
Their horde of faces moves [eagerly] forward,
They gather prisoners like sand.

10“‘They make fun of kings
And rulers are a laughing matter to them.
They ridicule every stronghold
And heap up rubble [for earth mounds] and capture it.

11“‘Then they will sweep by like the wind and pass on.
But they will be held guilty,
They [and all men] whose own power and strength is their god.”

12 Are You not from everlasting, O LORD, my God, My Holy One?

We will not die.

O LORD, You have appointed the Chaldeans [who rule in Babylon] to execute [Your] judgment, And You, O Rock, have established them to correct and chastise. [Deut 32:4]

- ¹³Your eyes are too pure to approve evil,
And You cannot look favorably on wickedness.
Why then do You look favorably
On those who act treacherously?
Why are you silent when the wicked (Chaldean oppressors) destroy Those more righteous than they?
- ¹⁴Why do You make men like the fish of the sea, Like reptiles and creeping things that have no ruler [and are helpless against their enemies]?
- ¹⁵*The Chaldeans* bring all of them up with a hook, And drag them away with a net,
And gather them together in their fishing net;
So they rejoice and are glad.
- ¹⁶Therefore, they offer sacrifices to their net And burn incense to their fishing net;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Begin To Believe

I want to encourage you to begin to trust God to do something great in your life. I always say, "I'd rather believe for a lot and get a little of it than believe for nothing and get all of it." The devil wants you to only believe for nothing so he can give it all to you. And God wants you to believe for something big, because all things are possible with Him.

Have a vision for your life and don't let it go. Habakkuk 2:2 says to write down the vision so plainly that anyone who passes by can see it. Write some things down on paper that you are trusting God to do in your life. Be filled with hope, and be a person of purpose. Study God's promises and declare that you are expecting to see them come to pass in your life.

Speak God's Word

The vision God has given me is for an appointed time in the future and it hurries toward fulfillment; it will not fail. Even though it delays, I wait patiently for it, because it will certainly come; it will not delay.

| adapted from HABAKKUK 2:3 |

Because through these things their catch is large and they live luxuriously, And their food is plentiful.

¹⁷Will they continue to empty their net
And [mercilessly] go on destroying nations without sparing?

2 I WILL stand at my guard post And station myself on the tower;

And I will keep watch to see what He will say to me,
And what answer I will give [as His spokesman] when I am reproved.

- ²Then the LORD answered me and said, “Write the vision
And engrave it plainly on [clay] tablets
So that the one who reads it will run.
- ³“For the vision is yet for the appointed [future] time It hurries toward the goal [of fulfillment]; it will not fail.
Even though it delays, wait [patiently] for it,
Because it will certainly come; it will not delay. [Heb 10:37, 38]
- ⁴“Look at the proud one, His soul is not right within him,
But the righteous will live by his faith [in the true God].
[Rom 1:17; Gal 3:11]
- ⁵“Moreover, wine is treacherous and betrays the arrogant man, So that he does not stay at home.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

You, O Lord, are the true God, and You have made me righteous. I will live by faith in You.

His appetite is large like Sheol,
And he is like death, never satisfied.
He gathers to himself all nations
And collects to himself all peoples [as if he owned them].

6“Will all these [victims of his greed] not take up a taunting song against him, And in mocking derision against him Say, ‘Woe (judgment is coming) to him who increases that which is not his— How long [will he possess it]?
And [woe to him who] makes himself wealthy with loans.’

7“Will your creditors not rise up suddenly, And those who collect from you awaken?
Then you will become plunder for them.

8“Because you [king of Babylon] have looted many nations, All peoples who are left will loot you— Because of human bloodshed and for the violence done to the land, To the city and all its inhabitants.

9“Woe (judgment is coming) to him who obtains wicked gain for his house [and thinks by so doing]
To set his nest on high,
That he may be rescued from the hand of evil.

10“You have devised a shameful thing for your house By cutting off and putting an end to many peoples; So you are sinning against your own life and forfeiting it.

11“For the stone will cry out from the wall [to accuse you—built in sin!]

And the rafter will answer it out of the woodwork.

12“Woe (judgment is coming) to him who builds a city with bloodshed And establishes a town by violence!

13“Is it not indeed from the LORD of hosts That peoples labor [only] for the fire [that will destroy their work], And nations grow weary for nothing [that is, things which have no lasting value]?

14“But [the time is coming when] the earth shall be filled

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Faith Is a Way of Life

Faith is not simply something that is necessary for our salvation; it is a way of life. It's how we are to live (see Hab 2:4). We need faith to build successful homes and families, to raise our children and manage our finances. We also need faith concerning our job—to work hard and operate with integrity—and to look to God as our source of provision instead of to a company or an organization. We need faith to cover the mistakes of our past and to boldly face tomorrow. And when we reach the end of our earthly lives, we will even need to die by faith, believing that God is waiting to receive us into His eternal presence in heaven.

Yes, we need faith for today and faith for tomorrow. We all have faith, but where we place it is our choice. Put your faith in God, for without it you will be doubtful, fearful, and worried about every aspect of your life. God alone gives us the strength to face each day confidently; therefore, we need to turn to Him and place our faith in Him alone. Everyone and everything else—people, material possessions, education, relationships, paychecks—may fail us, but God is our Rock, our Refuge, our Hiding Place, our High Tower, and our Stronghold in times of trouble. He is our hope, our peace, our joy, our strength and the source of everything we need. He is the only One Who never fails and the only One worth putting our faith in.

Stir up your faith today; it's the way of life for the righteous!

With the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, As the waters cover the sea. [Is 11:9]

15“Woe (judgment is coming) to you who make your neighbors drink, Who mix in your venom to make them drunk

So that you may look at their nakedness!

16“You will be filled with disgrace instead of honor.

Now drink and expose your own nakedness!

The cup [of wrath] in the LORD's right hand will come around to you [O destroyer], And utter disgrace will be on your own glory. [Rev 16:19]

17“For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you; The destruction of the animals will terrify you

On account of human bloodshed and the violence done to the land, To the city and all its inhabitants.

18“What profit is the carved image when its maker has formed it?

It is only a cast image, and a teacher of lies.

For its maker trusts in his own creation [as his god]

When he makes speechless idols.

19“Woe (judgment is coming) to him who says to the wooden image, ‘Awake!’

And to the speechless stone, ‘Arise!’

And that is your teacher?

Look, it is overlaid with gold and silver,

And there is no breath at all inside it.

²⁰“But the LORD is in His holy temple.

Let all the earth hush and be silent before Him.” [Zeph 1:7;
Zech 2:13]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Waiting on the Lord

Habakkuk 2:20 instructs us to be silent in God's presence. I call this prayer of silence "waiting on the Lord." In our instant and fast-paced society, where we want everything right now, this spiritual discipline of quieting our minds and being still is often lacking. If we are always in such a hurry, we miss out on the wisdom that God wants to speak to our heart from His Word—wisdom we can only hear when we make a practice of quieting our soul and waiting on God.

Elijah was a man who learned the secret of silent, waiting prayer in His presence. After slaying the prophets of Baal, Elijah had some very rough days emotionally, and the Lord told him to go stand on a mountain before Him and wait. "And behold, the LORD was passing by, and a great and powerful wind was tearing out the mountains and breaking the rocks in pieces before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind. And after the wind, [there was] an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake. After the earthquake, [there was] a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire, [there was] the sound of a gentle blowing" (1 Kin. 19:11–12). The gentle, still, small voice of God eventually came to Elijah, as it will also come to us when we trust God and wait on Him.

David also learned to wait in the house of the Lord and "to meditate in His temple” (Ps. 27:4). If we want to learn to pray effectively, we will need to learn to “be still” (Ps. 46:10) in silence and listen for His Word. Waiting and listening removes the focus from ourselves and places it on Him, Who is the answer to all our needs.

It is often in silence when the power of God moves the most mightily. Allow the Holy Spirit to teach you how to wait on God peacefully, knowing that He will guide you.

3 A PRAYER of Habakkuk the prophet, set to wild and enthusiastic music.

2 O LORD, I have heard the report about You and I fear.
O LORD, revive Your work in the midst of the years, In the midst of the years make it known;
In wrath [earnestly] remember compassion and love.

3 God [approaching from Sinai] comes from Teman (Edom), And the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah (pause, and calmly think of that).
His splendor and majesty covers the heavens
And the earth is full of His praise.

4 His brightness is like the sunlight;
He has [bright] rays flashing from His hand,
And there [in the sunlike splendor] is the hiding place of His power.

5 Before Him goes the pestilence [of judgment as in Egypt],
And [the burning] plague [of condemnation] follows at His feet [as in Sennacherib's army]. [Ex 7:2–4; 2 Kin 19:32–35] 6He stood and measured the earth;

POWERPOINT

God's mercy is always greater than His wrath. Even in His righteous anger, He will earnestly remember His compassion and love.

He looked and startled the nations,
Yes, the eternal mountains were shattered,
The ancient hills bowed low and collapsed.
His ways are eternal.

⁷I [Habakkuk, in my vision] saw the tents of Cushan under distress; The tent curtains of the land of Midian were trembling.

⁸Did the LORD rage against the rivers, Or was Your anger against the rivers,
Or was Your wrath against the [Red] Sea,
That You rode on Your horses,
On Your chariots of salvation?

⁹Your bow was made bare;
The rods of chastisement were sworn.

Selah (pause, calmly think of that).

You split the earth with rivers [bringing waters to dry places]. [Ex 17:6; Num 20:11]

¹⁰The mountains saw You and [they] trembled and writhed [as if in pain]; The downpour of waters swept by [as a deluge].

The deep uttered its voice and raged,
It lifted its hands high.

¹¹The sun and moon stood in their places [as before Joshua];
They went away at the light of Your [swift] arrows,
At the radiance and gleam of Your glittering spear. [Josh 10:12, 13]

¹²In indignation You marched through the earth; In anger You trampled and threshed the nations.

¹³You went forth for the salvation of Your people, For the salvation and rescue of Your anointed [people Israel].
You struck the head from the house of the wicked

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Choose To Rejoice

In the midst of a very difficult situation, Habakkuk declares, “Yet I will [choose to] rejoice in the LORD; I will [choose to] shout in exultation in the [victorious] God of my salvation” (Hab. 3:18). God sometimes allows us to be in less than desirable situations to test our “quality of faith” (see 1 Pet. 4:12). Quite often, He is planning a promotion for us in life if we pass the test in front of us. We are like children in school who must pass tests in order to be promoted to the next grade. Are you passing the test—refusing to worry, murmur, complain, or blame when things don’t go your way?

You should praise and bless God while you are in the low valleys of life as well as when you are on the mountaintops. If you are in a difficult or trying situation right now, discipline yourself not to complain, and instead give praise and glory to God.

Speak God's Word

The Lord God is my strength, my source of courage, and my invincible army. He has made my feet steady and sure, like hinds' feet. He makes me walk forward with spiritual confidence when I face challenges and responsibilities.

To lay him open from the thigh to the neck.
Selah (pause, and calmly think of that).

¹⁴With the enemy's own spears, You pierced
The head of his hordes.
They stormed out to scatter us,
Rejoicing like those
Who secretly devour the oppressed [of Israel].

¹⁵You have trampled on the sea with Your horses, On the surge of many waters. [Ex 15:8]

¹⁶I heard and my whole inner self trembled; My lips quivered at the sound.

Decay and rottenness enter my bones,

And I tremble in my place.

Because I must wait quietly for the day of distress,

For the people to arise who will invade and attack us.

¹⁷ Though the fig tree does not blossom

And there is no fruit on the vines,

Though the yield of the olive fails

And the fields produce no food,

Though the flock is cut off from the fold

And there are no cattle in the stalls,

¹⁸ Yet I will [choose to] rejoice in the LORD; I will [choose to] shout in exultation in the [victorious] God of my salvation! [Rom 8:37]

¹⁹ The Lord GOD is my strength [my source of courage, my invincible army]; He has made my feet [steady and sure] like hinds' feet And makes me walk [forward with spiritual confidence] on my high places [of challenge and responsibility].

For the choir director, on my stringed instruments.

Throughout Scripture we see at least two clear patterns of cause and effect: first, humanity's sin requires God's judgment; and second, true repentance leads to restoration. The prophet Zephaniah was well aware of the sin that was rampant in Judah, Jerusalem, and neighboring countries, and he urged the people to repent. Against the backdrop of his message about imminent judgment, he also spoke powerfully about God's presence with His people and about His love, knowing that God always forgives and restores once repentance takes place.

Sin is still a problem for people today, but thank God that Jesus has taken our sin and forgiven it once and for all. When you are in Christ, you are no longer under judgment. You can repent, receive forgiveness, and believe God for restoration.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM ZEPHANIAH:

When something that you regret happens, it's important to take responsibility for your actions instead of making excuses (see Zephaniah 1:7).

Do not let your hands fall limp with discouragement or fear. The Lord is with you (see Zephaniah 3:15–16).

When the enemy tries to convince you that God doesn't love you, always remember that the Lord (your Warrior) loves you so much that He rejoices over you with shouts of joy (see Zephaniah 3:17).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM ZEPHANIAH:

Seek the LORD [search diligently for Him and regard Him as the foremost necessity of your life]. | Zephaniah 2:3

The LORD your God is in your midst, a Warrior who saves. He will rejoice over you with joy; He will be quiet in His love [making no mention of your past sins], He will rejoice over you with shouts of joy. | Zephaniah 3:17

I am going to deal with all your oppressors; I will save the lame and gather the scattered, and I will turn their shame into praise and renown. | Zephaniah 3:19

THE BOOK OF ZEPHANIAH

1 THE WORD of the LORD which came to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah: ²“I will completely consume and sweep away all things From the face of the earth [in judgment],” says the LORD.

³“I will consume and sweep away man and beast; I will consume and sweep away the birds of the air And the fish of the sea,
And the stumbling blocks (idols) along with the wicked;
And I will cut off and destroy man from the face of the earth,” declares the LORD.

⁴“I will also stretch out My hand [in judgment] against Judah
And against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
And I will cut off and destroy the remnant of Baal from this place, And the names and remembrance of the idolatrous priests along with the [false] priests, ⁵And those who bow down and worship the host of heaven [the sun, the moon, and the stars] on their housetops And those who bow down and swear [oaths] to [and pretend to worship] the LORD and [yet also] swear by [the pagan god called]

Milcom [god of the Ammonites], ⁶And those who have turned back from following the LORD, And those who have not sought the LORD [as their most important need] or inquired of Him.”

⁷[Hush!] Be silent before the Lord GOD [there is no acceptable excuse to offer]!

For the day [of the vengeance] of the LORD is near,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

No Excuses

Since time began, people have made excuses to avoid responsibility. After Adam and Eve sinned in the Garden of Eden, Adam blamed Eve (and God for giving him Eve), and Eve blamed the devil (see Gen. 3:12–13). People often make excuses for their sin rather than simply admitting it, confessing it, and asking God to forgive them for it.

It has been said that excuses are reasons stuffed with lies. You can easily find a reason for every error or mistake you make, but it is far better to take responsibility for your actions: “[Hush!] Be silent before the Lord GOD [there is no acceptable excuse to offer]!” (Zeph. 1:7). Remember: “The truth will set you free” (John 8:32).

For the LORD has prepared a sacrifice (Judah), He has set apart [for His use] those who have accepted His invitation [the Chaldeans who rule Babylon]. [Hab 2:20]

8“Then it will come about on the day of the LORD’s sacrifice
That I will punish the princes and the king’s sons
And all who are clothed in [lavish] foreign apparel
[reflecting their paganism]. [Num 15:38, 39]

9“On that day I will also punish all those who leap over the temple threshold, Who fill their [pagan] lord’s temple with violence and deceit.

10“On that day,” declares the LORD, “There will be the sound of crying from the Fish (Damascus) Gate [in the northern wall of Jerusalem where invaders enter]

And wailing from the Second Quarter [of the city],

And a loud crash from the hills.

¹¹“Wail [in anguish], you inhabitants of the Mortar (Valley of Siloam), For all the merchants of Canaan will be silenced and destroyed; All who weigh out silver will be cut off.

¹²“It will come about at that time
That I will search Jerusalem with lamps
And I will punish the men
Who [like old wine] are stagnant in spirit,
Who say in their hearts,
‘The LORD will not do good, nor will He do evil.’

¹³“Furthermore, their wealth will become plunder And their houses a desolation.
Yes, they will build houses but not live in them,
And plant vineyards but not drink their wine.” [Deut 28:30, 39; Amos 5:11, 12]

¹⁴The great [judgment] day of the LORD is near, Near and coming very quickly.

Listen! The [voice of the] day of the LORD!

The warrior cries out bitterly [unable to fight or to flee].

¹⁵That day is a day of [the outpouring of the] wrath [of God],
A day of trouble and distress,
A day of destruction and devastation,
A day of darkness and gloom,
A day of clouds and thick darkness, [Jer 30:7; Joel 2:11;

Amos 5:18]

¹⁶A day of trumpet and the battle cry [of invaders]
Against the fortified cities
And against the high corner towers (battlements).

¹⁷I will bring distress on men
So that they will walk like the blind [unable to find a way of escape], Because they have sinned against the LORD;
Their blood will be poured out like dust [and trampled underfoot], And their flesh like dung.

¹⁸Neither their silver nor their gold
Will be able to rescue them
On the day of the LORD's indignation and wrath.
And the whole earth will be consumed
In the fire of His jealous wrath,
For He shall make a full and complete end,
Indeed a terrifying one,
Of all the inhabitants of the earth. [Luke 21:35, 36; 2 Pet
3:10–13]

2 GATHER YOURSELVES together [in repentance], yes, gather [in submission], O nation without shame,

²Before the decree takes effect [and the time for repentance is lost]— The day passes like the chaff [whirled by the wind]—

Before the burning and fierce anger of the LORD comes upon you, Before the day of the wrath of the LORD comes upon you.

Speak God's Word

I will seek the Lord and search diligently for Him, regarding Him as the foremost necessity of my life. I will also seek righteousness and humility, regarding them as vital in my life.

| adapted from ZEPHANIAH 2:3 |

³Seek the LORD [search diligently for Him and regard Him as the foremost necessity of your life], All you humble of the land

Who have practiced His ordinances and have kept His commandments; Seek righteousness, seek humility [regard them as vital].

Perhaps you will be hidden [and pardoned and rescued] In the day of the LORD's anger.

⁴For [this is the fate of the Philistines:] Gaza will be abandoned And Ashkelon a desolation;
[The people of] Ashdod will be driven out at noon [in broad daylight]
And Ekron will be uprooted and destroyed.

⁵Woe (judgment is coming) to the inhabitants of the seacoast, The nation of the Cherethites [in Philistia]!
The word of the LORD is against you, O Canaan, land of the Philistines;
I will destroy you
So that no inhabitant will be left.

⁶So the [depopulated] seacoast shall be pastures, With [deserted] meadows for shepherds and folds for flocks.

⁷The seacoast will belong
To the remnant of the house of Judah;
They will pasture [their flocks] on it.
In the [deserted] houses of Ashkelon [in Philistia] they [of Judah] will lie down and rest in the evening, For the LORD their God will care for them; And restore their fortune [permitting them to occupy the land]. [Is 14:29–31; Amos
1:6–8]

⁸“I have heard the taunting of Moab And the revilings of the sons of Ammon,
With which they have taunted My people
And become arrogant against their territory [by violating Israel’s boundary and trying to seize its land].

⁹“Therefore, as I live,” declares the LORD of hosts, The God of Israel,
“Moab will in fact become like Sodom
And the sons of Ammon like Gomorrah,
A land possessed by nettles and salt pits,
And a perpetual desolation.

The remnant of My people will plunder them
And what is left of My nation will inherit them [as their own].”

¹⁰This they shall have in return for their pride, because they have taunted and become arrogant against the people of the LORD of hosts.

¹¹The LORD will be terrifying and awesome to them, for He will starve all the gods of the earth; and all the coastlands of the nations will bow down and worship Him, everyone from his own place. [Joel 2:11; Zeph 1:4; 3:9]

¹²“You also, O Ethiopians, will be slain by My sword.” [Is 18]

¹³And the LORD will stretch out His hand against the north And destroy Assyria,
And He will make Nineveh a desolation [a wasteland],
Parched as the desert. [Is 10:12; Nah 1:1]

¹⁴Flocks will lie down in her midst,
All the animals which range in herds;
Both the pelican and the short-eared owl
Will roost on the top of Nineveh’s pillars.
Birds will sing in the window,
Desolation will be on the threshold;
For He has uncovered the cedar paneling.

¹⁵This is the joyous city
Which dwells carelessly [feeling so secure],
Who says in her heart,
“I am, and there is no one besides me.”
What a desolation she has become,

A lair for [wild] animals!
Everyone who passes by her will hiss [in scorn]
And wave his hand in contempt. [Is 10:5–34; 47:8, 10]

3 WOE (JUDGMENT is coming) to her who is rebellious and defiled, The tyrannical city [Jerusalem]!

²She did not listen and heed the voice [of God]; She accepted no correction.

She did not trust in the LORD [but trusted her own power];
She did not draw near to her God [but to the pagan gods of Baal or Molech].

³Her officials within her are roaring lions; Her judges are [as hungry as] the wolves at evening,
They leave nothing for the morning.

⁴Her prophets are reckless and treacherous men; Her priests have profaned the sanctuary;
They have done violence to the law [by pretending their word is God's word]. [Jer 23:11; Ezek 22:26; Hos 9:7] ⁵The LORD is righteous within her; He will do no injustice.

Every morning He brings His justice to light;
He does not fail.
But the unjust person knows no shame.

⁶"I [the LORD] have cut off and destroyed nations [as a warning to Judah]; Their corner towers (battlements) are in ruins.
I have made their streets desolate
So that no one passes by;

Their cities are destroyed
So that there is no man, there is no inhabitant.

7“*I said, ‘Most certainly you will [reverently] fear Me;
Accept correction.’*

So Jerusalem’s dwelling will not be cut off

In accordance with all that I have appointed concerning her [punishment], But they were eager [even rising early] to make all their deeds corrupt. [Jer 7:13]

8“Therefore [you of the godly remnant of Judah, patiently] wait for Me,” declares the LORD, “[Wait] for the day when I rise up as a witness [against the nations].

For it is My decision and My right to gather the nations, To assemble kingdoms,

To pour out on them My indignation,

All [the heat of] My burning anger;

For [in that day] all the earth shall be consumed

By the fire of My zeal.

9“Then I will give to the peoples [clear and pure speech from] purified lips [which reflect their purified hearts], That all of them may call on the name of the LORD, To serve Him shoulder to shoulder (united).

10“*From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia
My worshipers, [the descendants of] My dispersed ones,
Will bring My offerings.*

11“*On that day you [Israel] will feel no shame Because of all your acts
By which you have rebelled and sinned against Me; Then I* will remove from among you

Your rejoicing ones who delight in their pride;
And you will never again behave arrogantly
On My holy mountain [Mount Zion].

¹²“But I will leave among you
A humble and lowly people,
And they will take refuge and trust confidently in the name of the LORD.

¹³“The remnant of Israel will do no wrong
Nor speak lies,
Nor will a deceitful tongue
Be found in their mouths;
For they will eat and lie down
With no one to make them tremble and feel afraid.”

POWERPOINT

Any time the enemy comes against you, trying to convince you that God doesn't really love you, read Zephaniah 3:17. It's a beautiful picture of God's love for you. He will defend you and fight for you as a warrior. He will delight in you and rejoice over you as a lover rejoices over his beloved. He will forget your sins completely, refusing to hold them against you. And He will even shout for joy because of who you are!

¹⁴Shout for joy, O Daughter of Zion!

Shout in triumph, O Israel!

Rejoice, be in high spirits and glory with all your heart, O Daughter of Jerusalem [in that day]!

¹⁵The LORD has taken away the judgments against you; He has cleared away your enemies.

The King of Israel, even the LORD [Himself], is in your midst; You will no longer fear disaster.

¹⁶In that day it will be said to Jerusalem:

“Do not be afraid, O Zion;
Do not let your hands fall limp.

¹⁷“The LORD your God is in your midst, A Warrior who saves.

He will rejoice over you with joy;
He will be quiet in His love [making no mention of your past sins], He will rejoice over you with shouts of joy.

¹⁸“I will gather those [Israelites in captivity] who grieve about the appointed feasts— They came from you, [O Zion];
On whom the reproach [of exile] is a burden.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*Thank You, Lord my God, that
You are in my midst as a Warrior who saves. I know that You rejoice over me with joy, and make no mention of my sins because of Your love.*

- 19“Behold, at that time I am going to deal
With all your oppressors;
I will save the lame
And gather the scattered,
And I will turn their shame into praise and renown
In every land [where they have suffered]. [Mic 4:6, 7]
- 20“At that time I will bring you in,
Yes, at the time I gather you together;
For I will make you a name and a praise
Among all the peoples of the earth
When I restore your fortunes [and freedom] before your eyes,”
Says the LORD.

Haggai

Author: | Haggai

Date: | 520 BC

One of the roles of the prophet Haggai was to encourage obedience among the Jews after they returned to Jerusalem from exile. This call to obedience is a major theme of the book of Haggai. Both Haggai and Zechariah understood the importance of a house of worship where the Jews could worship the Lord and urged them to rebuild the temple. The people seemed to agree, but were slow to act. Apparently, they thought their good intentions were enough.

Any time God asks us to do anything, it is vital that we not only agree with Him, but that we also obey Him promptly. I often say that God's timing is part of God's will. If we want to walk in the fullness of His good plan for us, obeying Him right away is very important.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM HAGGAI:

To have a healthy, well-balanced, blessed life, think about what you think, say, and do (see Haggai 1:7).

Listen carefully to the voice of the Lord and obey it (see Haggai 1:12).

Be courageous and do what the Lord asks of you, knowing that He is with you (see Haggai 2:4).

VERSE FOR VICTORY FROM HAGGAI:

Thus says the LORD of hosts, "Consider your ways and thoughtfully reflect on your conduct!" | Haggai 1:7

My Spirit stands [firm and immovable] and continues with you; do not fear! | Haggai 2:5

THE BOOK OF HAGGAI

1 IN THE second year of Darius the king [of Persia], on the first day of the sixth month (Aug 29, 520 B.C.), the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying,

²“Thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘These people say, “The time has not come that the LORD’s house (temple) should be rebuilt.”’” [Ezra 1:1–6; 4:1–6, 24; 5:1–3]

³Then the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying,

⁴“Is it time for you yourselves to live in your [expensive] paneled houses while this house [of the LORD] lies in ruins?”

⁵Now therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts, “Consider your ways and thoughtfully reflect on your conduct!

⁶“You have planted much, but you harvest little; you eat, but you do not have enough; you drink, but you do not have enough to be intoxicated; you clothe yourselves, but no one is warm*enough*; and he who earns wages earns them just to put them in a bag with holes in it [because God has withheld His blessing].”

POWERPOINT

When Haggai 1:7 says to “consider your ways and thoughtfully reflect on your conduct,” it’s a reminder that we need to think about the thoughts we think, the words we speak, the decisions we make, and the actions we take. Especially when things don’t seem to be going well for us, one of the best things we can do is to consider our ways and ask God what changes we may need to make.

POWERPOINT

The people looked for and expected a great harvest, but they received very little, and even what they did bring home never seemed to be enough to meet their needs. The Lord told them the reason for their lack was that they had been busy building their own houses while His house was in ruins (see Hag. 1:4). Cyrus had ordered the people to rebuild God's house eighteen years earlier, yet it still had not been done. The people had been in disobedience for eighteen years and still they wondered why they were not prospering. We should obey God promptly at all times. As we obediently seek the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, He will add all the other things we need (see Matt. 6:33).

⁷Thus says the LORD of hosts, “Consider your ways and thoughtfully reflect on your conduct!

⁸“Go up to the hill country, bring lumber and rebuild My house (temple), that I may be pleased with it and be glorified,” says the LORD [accepting it as done for My glory].

⁹“You look for much [harvest], but it comes to little; and even when you bring that home, I blow it away. Why?” says the LORD of hosts. “Because of My house, which lies in ruins while each of you runs to his own house [eager to enjoy it].

¹⁰“Therefore, because of you [that is, your sin and disobedience] the heavens withhold the dew and the earth withholds its produce.

¹¹“I called for a drought on the land and the hill country, on the grain, on the new wine, on the oil, on what the ground produces, on men, on cattle, and on all the labor of your hands.”

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that Your constant message to me is this: "I am with you."

• adapted from Haggai 1:13

¹²Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people [who had returned from exile], listened carefully and obeyed the voice of the LORD their God and the words of Haggai the prophet, since the LORD their God had sent him. And the people [reverently] feared the LORD.

¹³Then Haggai, the LORD's messenger, spoke the LORD's message to the people saying, "'I am with you,' declares the LORD."

¹⁴So the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, ¹⁵on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month (Sept 21, 520 B.C.) in the second year of Darius the king.

2 ON THE twenty-first day of the seventh month (Oct 17, 520

B.C., the second year of Darius king of Persia), the word of the LORD came by the prophet Haggai, saying,

²“Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying,

³‘Who is left among you who saw this house (temple) in its former glory? And how do you see it now? Does it not seem to you like nothing in comparison?’

⁴‘But now be courageous, Zerubbabel,’ declares the LORD, ‘be courageous also, Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and be courageous, all you people of the land,’ declares the LORD, ‘and work; for I am with you,’ declares the LORD of hosts.

⁵‘As for the promise which I made with you when you came out of Egypt, My Spirit stands [firm and immovable] and continues with you; do not fear!’

⁶“For thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘Once more, in a little while, I am going to shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land. [Heb 12:26]

⁷‘I will shake all the nations; and they will come with the desirable and precious things of all nations, and I will fill this house with glory and splendor,’ says the LORD of hosts. [Is 60:5; Matt 2:1–12]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Strength and Courage from God

God told Zerubbabel and the people to be strong, alert, and courageous (see Hag. 2:4). Strength and courage from God are vital if we are to finish what He wants us to do. We have an enemy who brings many hindrances and oppositions against us, and we cannot defeat him unless we stay alert and watchful. We must also resist fear, which means that in the presence of fear we courageously continue moving forward, not bowing to it in cowardice and timidity.

Fear is not from God, but great courage is! We are more than conquerors even in the midst of our challenges in life (see Rom. 8:37). No matter what you are going through, I encourage you today to remember that God is mightier than all your problems. Always keep moving forward courageously.

⁸‘The silver is Mine and the gold is Mine,’ declares the LORD of hosts.

⁹‘The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,’ says the LORD of hosts, ‘and in this place I shall give [the ultimate] peace and prosperity,’ declares the LORD of hosts.”

¹⁰On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month (Dec 18, 520 B.C.), in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Haggai the prophet, saying,

¹¹“Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘Ask the priests for a ruling:

¹²‘If a man carries meat that is holy [because it has been offered in sacrifice to God] in the fold of his garment, and he touches bread, or cooked food, or wine, or oil, or any [kind of] food with this fold, does what he touches become holy [dedicated exclusively to God’s service]?’” And the priests answered, “No!” [Holiness is not transferrable.]

¹³Then Haggai said, “If one who is [ceremonially] unclean because of [contact with] a corpse touches any of these [articles of food], will it be unclean?” And the priests answered, “It will be unclean.” [Ceremonial uncleanness, like sin, is infectious.]

¹⁴Then Haggai answered, “‘So is this people. And so is this nation before Me,’ declares the LORD, ‘and so is every work of their hands; and what they offer there [on the altar] is unclean [because they who offer it are unclean].’

¹⁵‘But now, do consider [what will happen] from this day forward: before one stone was placed on another in the temple of the LORD, ¹⁶from that time when one came to a grain heap expecting twenty measures, there would be only ten; and when one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty measures, there would be only twenty.

A Prayer To Renew Your

Mind

Lord, I thank You for Your promise to bless me from this day on.

• adapted from Haggai 2:19

¹⁷“I struck you and the work of your hands with scorching wind, mildew, and hail; yet you did not come back to Me,” declares the LORD.

¹⁸“Do consider from this day forward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month; from the day when the temple of the LORD was founded, consider:

¹⁹“Is the seed still in the barn? As to the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree—they have not produced. Yet from this day on I will bless you [in the harvest of your crops].”

²⁰And again the word of the LORD came to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month (Dec 18, 520 B.C.), saying,

²¹“Speak to Zerubbabel governor of Judah, saying, ‘I am going to shake the heavens and the earth. [Hag 2:6; Matt 1:12, 13]

²²‘I will [in the distant future] overthrow the thrones of kingdoms and destroy the power of the kingdoms of the

[ungodly] nations; and I will overthrow the chariots and those who ride in them, and the horses and their riders will go down, every one by the sword of his brother [annihilating one another]. [Dan 2:34, 35, 44, 45; Rev 19:11–21]

²³‘On that day,’ declares the LORD of hosts, ‘I will take you, Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, My servant,’ declares the LORD, ‘and I will make you [through the Messiah, your descendant] like a signet ring, for I have chosen you [as the one with whom to renew My covenant to David’s line],” declares the LORD of hosts. [2 Sam 7:12, 16]

Zechariah

Author: | Zechariah

Date: | Between 520
BC and 475 BC

One of the themes of the Minor Prophets is God's judgment, always tempered with some kind of hope or with a message of God's love. Many of these books are books of exhortation, but Zechariah is primarily a book of encouragement. Writing about the same time and to the same people as Haggai, the prophet Zechariah wrote encouraging words to the Jews who were rebuilding the temple after their return from exile.

Just as the Jews needed to be encouraged in the difficult but important task that God had asked them to do, you and I often feel called to do things that may seem challenging but that we know are important. Zechariah reminds us that we can accomplish very little in our human power and might, but that through God's Spirit and by God's grace we can do anything.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM ZECHARIAH:

Willpower is not enough to accomplish much that is significant. You need the Holy Spirit to strengthen you and help you defeat the attacks in your mind (see Zechariah 4:6).

God is aware of the obstacles on your journey through life. Speak the Word to them by faith, and wait for the Lord to make them a level plain before you (see Zechariah 4:7).

Be steadfast in hope that God will see you through (see Zechariah 9:11–12).

Ask the Lord to pour out His Spirit of grace on people who need to know that Jesus Christ died to save them (see Zechariah 12:10).

VERSES FOR VICTORY:

“I,” declares the LORD, “will be a wall of fire around her [protecting her from enemies], and I will be the glory in her midst.” | Zechariah 2:5

“Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit [of whom the oil is a symbol],” says the LORD of hosts. | Zechariah 4:6

Behold, your King (Messianic King) is coming to you; He is righteous and endowed with salvation, humble and unassuming [in submission to the will of the Father]. | Zechariah 9:9

THE BOOK OF ZECHARIAH

1 IN THE eighth month of the second year [of the reign] of Darius [the king of Persia], the word of the LORD came to Zechariah (the LORD remembers) the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, [Ezra 5:1]

²“The LORD was extremely angry with your fathers.

³“Therefore say to the Jews, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts (armies), “Return to Me,” declares the LORD of hosts, “and I shall return to you.

⁴“Do not be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, “Repent [that is, change your way of thinking] and return now from your evil way [of life] and from your evil deeds.” ’ But they did not listen or pay attention to Me,” declares the LORD. [2 Kin 17:13; Is 45:22; Jer 18:11; Ezek 33:11]

⁵“Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever?

⁶“But did not My words (warnings) and My statutes, which I commanded My servants the prophets, overtake your fathers? Then they repented and said, ‘As the LORD of hosts planned to do to us [in discipline and punishment], in accordance with our ways and our deeds, so has He dealt with us.””””

⁷On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month (Feb 15, 519 B.C.), which is the month of Shebat, in the second year of [the reign of] Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the prophet, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, as follows:

⁸In the night I saw [a vision] and behold, a Man was riding on a red horse, and it stood among the myrtle trees that were in the ravine; and behind Him were horses: red, sorrel (reddish-brown), and white.

⁹Then I said, “O my lord, what are these?” And the angel who was speaking with me said, “I will show you what these are.”

¹⁰And the Man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, “These are the ones whom the LORD has sent to go throughout the earth and patrol it.”

¹¹And the men on the horses answered the Angel of the LORD who stood among the myrtle trees and said, “We have gone throughout the earth [patrolling it] and behold, all the earth sits at rest [in peace and free from war].”

¹²Then the Angel of the LORD said, “O LORD of hosts, how long will You withhold mercy and compassion from Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, against which You have had indignation and anger these seventy years [of the Babylonian captivity]?”

¹³And the LORD answered the angel who was speaking with me with gracious and comforting words.

¹⁴So the angel who was speaking with me said to me, “Proclaim, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, “I am jealous [with a burning, fiery passion] for Jerusalem and for Zion [demanding what is rightfully and uniquely mine] with a great jealousy.

¹⁵“But I am very angry with the nations who are at ease and feel secure; for while I was only a little angry, they furthered the disaster [against the people of Israel].”

¹⁶“Therefore, thus says the LORD, “I have returned to Jerusalem with mercy and compassion. My house shall be built in it,” says the LORD of hosts, “and a measuring line shall be stretched out over Jerusalem.” ’

¹⁸Then I looked up, and saw four horns (powers)!

¹⁹So I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “What are these?” And he answered me, “These are the horns [the powerful Gentile nations] that have scattered Judah (the Southern Kingdom), Israel (the Northern Kingdom), and Jerusalem (capital city of Judah).”

²⁰Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen.

²¹I asked, “What are these [horns and craftsmen] coming to do?” And he said, “These are the horns (powers) that have scattered Judah so that no man raised up his head [because of the suffering inflicted by the Gentile nations]. But these craftsmen have come to terrify them and make them panic, and throw down the horns of the nations who have lifted up their horns against the land of Judah in order to scatter it.”

2 AND I looked up, and saw a man with a measuring line in his hand.

²So I said, “Where are you going?” And he said to me, “To measure Jerusalem, to see how wide it is and how long it is.”

³And behold, the angel who was speaking with me was going out, and another angel was coming out to meet him,

⁴and he said to the second angel, “Run, speak to that young man, saying, ‘Jerusalem will be inhabited [like villages] without walls [spreading out into the open country] because of the great number of people and livestock in it.

⁵‘For I,’ declares the LORD, ‘will be a wall of fire around her [protecting her from enemies], and I will be the glory in her midst.’”

⁶“Hear this! Flee from [Babylon] the land of the north [which shall come under judgment],” declares the LORD, “for I have scattered you like the four winds of the heavens,” declares the LORD.

⁷“Hear, Zion (Jerusalem)! Escape, you who are living with the daughter of Babylon!”

⁸For thus says the LORD of hosts, “After glory He has sent Me against the nations which plunder you—for he who touches you, touches the apple of His eye.

⁹“Behold, I will wave my hand over them and they shall become plunder for their own slaves. Then you shall know (recognize, understand fully) that the LORD of hosts has sent Me.

¹⁰“Sing for joy and rejoice, O Daughter of Zion; for behold, I am coming, and I will dwell in your midst,” declares the LORD.

¹¹“Many nations shall join themselves to the LORD in that day and shall be My people. And I will dwell in your midst, and you shall know (recognize, understand fully) that the LORD of hosts has sent Me to you. [Is 2:3; Mic 4:2]

¹²“The LORD will take possession of Judah as His portion in the holy land and will again choose Jerusalem.

¹³“Be still before the LORD, all mankind; for He is roused (raised up) from His holy habitation [in response to His persecuted people].” [Hab 2:20; Zeph 1:7]

3 THEN THE guiding angel showed me Joshua the high priest [representing disobedient, sinful Israel] standing before the Angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at Joshua’s right hand to be his adversary and to accuse him.

²And the LORD said to Satan, “The LORD rebuke you, Satan! Even the LORD, who [now and ever] has chosen Jerusalem, rebuke you! Is this not a log snatched and rescued from the fire?” [Jude 9]

³Now Joshua was clothed with filthy (nauseatingly vile) garments and was standing before the Angel [of the LORD].

⁴He spoke to those who stood before Him, saying, “Remove the filthy garments from him.” And He said to Joshua, “See, I have caused your wickedness to be taken away from you, and I will clothe and beautify you with rich robes [of forgiveness].”

⁵And I (Zechariah) said, “Let them put a clean turban on his head.” So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him with [rich] garments. And the Angel of the LORD stood by.

POWERPOINT

Throughout history, the enemy has always been determined to destroy God's people. In Zechariah 3:1, he is "standing at Joshua's right hand to be his adversary and to accuse him."

The enemy still treats God's people that way today.

Although he is your adversary and accuser, you can always overcome him with the truth of God's Word and in the power of His Spirit.

⁶And the Angel of the LORD [solemnly and earnestly] admonished Joshua, saying, ⁷"Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'If you will walk in My ways [that is, remain faithful] and perform My service, then you will also govern My house and have charge of My courts, and I will give you free access [to My presence] among these who are standing here.

⁸‘Now listen, Joshua, the high priest, you and your colleagues who are sitting in front of you—indeed they are men who are a symbol [of what is to come]—for behold, I am going to bring in My servant the Branch [in Messianic glory]. [Is 4:2; Jer 23:5; 33:15; Zech 6:12]

⁹‘For behold, the stone which I have set before Joshua; on that one stone are seven eyes (symbolizing infinite intelligence, omniscience). Behold, I will engrave an inscription on it,’ declares the LORD of hosts, ‘and I will remove the wickedness and guilt of this land in a single day. [2 Chr 16:9; Jer 50:20; Zech 4:10]

¹⁰‘In that day,’ declares the LORD of hosts, ‘every one of you will invite his neighbor to sit under his vine and his fig tree [enjoying peace and prosperity in the kingdom].’” [Mic 4:1–4]

4 AND THE angel who was speaking with me came back and awakened me, like a man who is awakened out of his sleep.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

By the Spirit

God designed our life to be lived by grace, in the power of His Spirit. When we try to live life by our human strength, we become frustrated. The more we try to figure out how to solve our dilemmas, the more confused, upset, and frustrated we become (see Gal. 5:17).

When you find yourself in a frustrating situation, just stop and say, "O Lord, give me grace. I won't try to handle this in my own might. Help me deal with it by Your Spirit." Then believe that God has heard your prayer; is answering that prayer; and is working out the situation.

Faith is the channel through which you and I receive the grace of God (see Eph. 2:8). If we try to do things on our own (works of the flesh), without being open to receiving His grace and power, we end up frustrated and disappointed.

A long time ago I wrote this statement on a piece of paper and stuck it on my refrigerator:

Works of the flesh = Frustration.

I did this to remind myself that any time I felt frustrated, it meant I was trying to make something happen that only God could do. This thought helped me resist the tendency to try to do things without God's grace.

We need to trust in and rely on God's Spirit. He knows what we are facing in every situation of life. He will work out things for the best if we trust Him enough to allow Him to do so. Remember, it is not by power or by might, but by the Spirit that we are victorious over the enemy (see Zech. 4:6).

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Victory Begins with Right Thinking

As believers, we know God wants us to spend time daily in prayer and studying the Word in order to mature spiritually and stay strong. I tried many times to maintain this spiritual self-discipline, but I always failed. One day, in desperation, I cried out, “Without Your help, God, I’ll never be faithful in doing this!” That’s when the Holy Spirit gave me the self-discipline I needed.

Too many times, we think we can do things all by ourselves and, in some instances, that may be true. But if we’re going to win continually over the attacks against our minds, we must realize that willpower alone won’t work. What we need is the humility to turn to the Holy Spirit and ask Him to strengthen us, for the Bible says, “Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit” (Zech. 4:6).

Our heavenly Father cares about every aspect of our lives and wants to intervene and help us, but He waits for an invitation to get involved. We issue the invitation for God's help through prayer. God's Word says, "You do not have because you do not ask [it of God]" (James 4:2).

Think of it this way. God is aware of the temptations, struggles, and hardships we face. If we think we can overcome them by ourselves, God takes no action. But He remains ready to jump in and rescue us as soon as we cry out, asking for the power of the Holy Spirit to operate in our lives.

Our victory begins with right thinking. We have to be convinced that God cares, that He wants to act and waits for us to ask. When we ask, it is because we understand that it's not by force or power, but by God's Holy Spirit that victory comes.

With the Spirit's help, we can learn to choose carefully what we want to think about. Through regular fellowship with Him, we can recognize the difference between healthy and unhealthy thoughts. If we don't know the difference, we provide the enemy with an opportunity to sneak into our mind and torment us.

Spend plenty of time studying God's Word, and you will quickly recognize each lie that Satan tries to plant in your mind.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Dear loving God, I want to think thoughts that honor You. I want to have a mind fully centered on You, and I know that can't happen unless I spend time daily with You. Help me, Holy Spirit, to be obedient and eager to be in constant fellowship with You. Amen.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*Lord, Your words to Zerubbabel are true for me.
Whatever I do, it is not by might, nor by power; but by Your Spirit. The obstacles before me will become as a plain.*

• adapted from Zechariah 4:6–7

²He said to me, “What do you see?” I said, “I see, and behold, a lampstand all of gold, with its bowl [for oil] on the top of it and its seven lamps on it with seven spouts belonging to each of the lamps which are on the top of it. [Matt 5:14, 16; Luke 12:35; Phil 2:15; Rev 1:20]

³“And there are two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl and the other on its left side [supplying it continuously with oil].” [Rev 11:4–13]

⁴So I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “What are these, my lord?”

⁵Then the angel who was speaking with me answered me, “Do you not know what these are?” And I said, “No, my lord.”

⁶Then he said to me, “This [continuous supply of oil] is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel [prince of Judah], saying, ‘Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit [of whom the oil is a symbol],’ says the LORD of hosts.

⁷‘What are you, O great mountain [of obstacles]? Before Zerubbabel [who will rebuild the temple] you will become a plain (insignificant)! And he will bring out the capstone [of the new temple] with loud shouts of “Grace, grace to it!”’” [Ezra 4:1–5, 24; Is 40:4]

⁸Also the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

⁹“The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundations of this house, and his hands will finish it. Then you will know (recognize, understand fully) that the LORD of hosts has sent me [as His messenger] to you.

¹⁰“Who [with reason] despises the day of small things (beginnings)? For these seven [eyes] shall rejoice when they see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel. They are the eyes of the LORD which roam throughout the earth.” [Rev 5:6]

¹¹Then I said to him [who was speaking with me], “What are these two olive trees on the right side of the lampstand and on its left?”

¹²And a second time I said to him, “What are these two olive branches which are beside the two golden pipes by which the golden oil is emptied?”

¹³And he answered me, “Do you not know what these are?” And I said, “No, my lord.”

¹⁴Then he said, “These are the two sons of fresh oil [Joshua the high priest and Zerubbabel the prince of Judah] who are standing by the Lord of the whole earth [as His anointed ones].” [Rev 11:4]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Small Beginnings Are Important

The Bible tells us to not despise “the day of small things (beginnings)” (Zech. 4:10). I believe we should celebrate every small victory in our lives instead of being discontent or impatient about how far we still have to go to reach full victory.

Contentment is the ability to enjoy where you are while you are on the way to the fulfillment of your dreams. Don't wait until you reach your destination to enjoy life. Life is more about the journey than the destination, and even when we reach one destination, we usually find ourselves beginning a journey toward another. It is a tragedy to never enjoy our journeys in life. Each phase of the journey has something of value in it, and I encourage you not to miss any of it. Your beginning may seem small, but it's the first step toward reaching a wonderful destination.

5 AGAIN I looked up, and I saw a scroll flying in the air!

²And the angel said to me, “What do you see?” And I answered, “I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits (thirty feet) and its width is ten cubits (fifteen feet).”

³Then he said to me, “This is the curse that is going out over the face of the whole land; for everyone who steals will be cut off according to the writing on one side, and everyone who swears [oaths falsely] shall be cut off according to the writing on the other side. [Is 24:6; Mal 3:8, 9]

⁴“I will send the curse out,” declares the LORD of hosts, “and it will enter the house of the thief and the house of the one who swears falsely by My name; and it will spend the night in that house and consume it, both its timber and its stones.”

⁵Then the angel who was speaking with me came forward and said to me, “Now look up and see what this is going forth.”

⁶And I said, “What is it?” And he said, “This is the ephah (grain basket) going forth. This,” he continued, “is their appearance throughout the land [Amos 8:5]

⁷(and behold, a [round, flat] lead cover was lifted up); and there sat a woman inside the ephah.”

⁸Then he said, “This is Wickedness (Godlessness)!” And he threw her back down into the middle of the ephah and threw the lead cover on its opening.

⁹Then I looked up, and there were two women coming out with the wind in their wings; and they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heavens.

¹⁰I said to the angel who was speaking with me, “Where are they taking the ephah?”

¹¹And he said to me, “To the land of Shinar (Babylon) to build a temple for her; and when it is prepared, she shall be set there on her own pedestal.”

6 NOW AGAIN I looked up, and four chariots were coming out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of [firm, immovable] bronze (divine judgment).

²The first chariot had red horses (war, bloodshed), the second chariot had black horses (famine, death), [Rev 6:4–6]

³the third chariot had white horses (victory), and the fourth chariot had strong dappled horses (death through judgment). [Rev 6:2, 8]

⁴Then I said to the angel who was speaking with me, “What are these, my lord?”

⁵The angel answered me, “These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go out after presenting themselves before the Lord of all the earth, [Ps 104:4; Matt 24:31]

⁶with the chariot with the black horses going toward the north country; then the one with the white horses follows after them [because there are two northern powers to overcome], and the chariot with the dappled horses goes toward the south country.”

⁷When the strong horses went out, they were eager to patrol the earth. And the LORD said, “Go, patrol the earth.” So they patrolled the earth [watching and protecting it].

⁸Then He called out to me and said to me, “See, those who are going to the north country have quieted My Spirit [of wrath] in the north country.”

⁹The word of the LORD also came to me, saying,

¹⁰“Take an offering from the exiles, from Heldai, from Tobijah, and from Jedaiah [as representatives]; and you go the same day and enter the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah, where they have arrived from Babylon.

¹¹“Take silver and gold [from them], and make an ornate crown and set it on the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest.

¹²“Then say to Joshua, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, “Behold (look, keep in sight, watch), a Man (Messiah) whose name is Branch, for He shall branch out from His place (Israel, the Davidic line); and He shall build the [ultimate] temple of the LORD. [Is 4:2; Jer 23:5; 33:15; Zech 3:8]

¹³“Yes, [you are to build a temple of the LORD, but] it is He who shall build the [ultimate] temple of the LORD, and He shall bear the honor and majesty [as the only begotten of the Father] and sit and rule on His throne. And He shall be a Priest on His throne, and the counsel of peace shall be between the two offices [Priest and King].” ’ [John 1:14; 17:5; Heb 2:9]

¹⁴“Now the crown shall become a reminder in the temple of the LORD to Helem, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen the son of Zephaniah. [Matt 10:41]

¹⁵“And those who are far away will come and [help] build the temple of the LORD.” Then you shall know [without any doubt] that the LORD of hosts sent me (Zechariah) to you. And it will come about if you will diligently obey the [voice of the] LORD your God.

7 IN THE fourth year of [the reign of] King Darius [of Persia], the word of the LORD came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chislev (Dec 7, 518 B.C.).

²Now the people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regemmelech and their men to seek the favor of the LORD,

³speaking to the priests who belong to the house of the LORD of hosts and to the prophets, saying, “[Now that I am returned from exile] shall I weep in the fifth month [mourning the destruction of the temple], and fast as I have done these many years [in Babylon]?”

⁴Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me (Zechariah), saying,

⁵“Speak to all the people of the land and to the priests, saying, ‘When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months these seventy years [that you were in exile], was it actually for Me that you fasted?’

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, I pray that I will always dispense true justice and practice kindness and compassion toward others.

• adapted from Zechariah 7:9

⁶“When you eat and when you drink, do you not eat for yourselves and do you not drink for yourselves [to satisfy your own needs]?”

⁷“Should you not hear the words which the LORD proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and prosperous along with her cities around her, and the South (the Negev) and the foothills were inhabited?””

⁸Then the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying,

⁹“Thus has the LORD of hosts said, ‘Dispense true justice and practice kindness and compassion, to each other;

¹⁰and do not oppress or exploit the widow or the fatherless, the stranger or the poor; and do not devise or even imagine evil in your hearts against one another.’

¹¹“But they refused to listen and pay attention and turned a stubborn shoulder [stiffening themselves in resistance] and stopped up their ears.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Set Your Mind To Agree with God's Will

You may not realize how strong you are when you simply set your mind to do something. This works in both positive and negative ways. If you set your mind on things above, the devil cannot stop you. If you set your mind on the things of the world, receiving God's help can be difficult (see Col. 3:2). Even though God can show you the truth in His Word, you will struggle to accept it if your mind is set against His will and His ways (see Zech. 7:12).

When your mind is truly set, nothing will change it. Make up your mind that you are going to live for God's glory and that you will not allow anything change it.

¹²“They made their hearts [hard] like flint, so that they could not hear the law and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent by His Spirit through the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from the LORD of hosts.

¹³“And just as He called and they would not listen, so they called and I would not listen,” says the LORD of hosts;

¹⁴“but I scattered them with a storm wind among all the nations whom they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after they had gone, so that no one passed through or returned, for they [by their sins] had made the pleasant land desolate and deserted.””

8 THEN THE word of the LORD of hosts came [to me], saying,

2“Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy [demanding what is rightfully and uniquely mine], and I am jealous for her with great wrath [against her enemies].’

3“Thus says the LORD, ‘I shall return to Zion and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and Jerusalem shall be called the [faithful] City of Truth, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts will be called the Holy Mountain.’

4“Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘Old men and old women will again sit in the streets (public places) of Jerusalem, each man with his staff in his hand because of his advanced age.

5‘And the streets of the city will be filled with boys and girls playing in its streets.’

6“Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘If it is difficult in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days [in which this comes to pass], will it also be difficult in My sight?’ declares the LORD of hosts. [Gen 18:14; Jer 32:17, 27; Luke 18:27]

7“Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘Behold, I am going to save My people from the east country and from the west, [Is 43:5, 6]

8and I will bring them home and they will live in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be My people, and I will be their God in truth (faithfulness) and in righteousness.’

9“Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘Let your hands be strong, you who in these days hear these words from the mouths of the prophets who, on the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, foretold that the temple might be rebuilt.

¹⁰‘For before those days there were no wages for man or animal; nor was there any peace or success for him who went out or came in because of his enemies, for I set all men against one another.

¹¹‘But now [in this time since you began to build] I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days,’ declares the LORD of hosts.

¹²‘For there the seed will produce peace and prosperity; the vine will yield its fruit, and the ground will produce its increase, and the heavens will give their dew. And I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit and possess all these things.

¹³‘And as you have been a curse among the nations, O house of Judah (Southern Kingdom) and house of Israel (Northern Kingdom), so I will save you, that you may be a blessing. Fear not; let your hands be strong.’ [Jer 22:8, 9]

¹⁴‘For thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘Just as I planned to do harm to you when your fathers provoked Me to wrath,’ says the LORD of hosts, ‘and I did not relent, ¹⁵so I have again planned in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Do not fear!

¹⁶‘These are the things which you should do: speak the truth with one another; judge with truth and pronounce the judgment that brings peace in [the courts at] your gates. [Eph 4:25]

¹⁷‘And let none of you devise or even imagine evil in your heart against another, and do not love lying or half-truths; for all these things I hate,’ declares the LORD.”

¹⁸Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me

(Zechariah), saying,

¹⁹“Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘The fast of the fourth [month to mourn the breaching of Jerusalem’s walls], the fast of the fifth [month to mourn the temple’s destruction], the fast of the seventh [month to mourn Gedaliah’s assassination], and the fast of the tenth [month to mourn the siege of Jerusalem] will become times of joy and gladness and cheerful feasts for the house of Judah; so [to bring this about] love truth and peace.’ [Jer 39:2; 2 Kin 25:1, 2, 8, 25]

Speak God's Word

imagine evil in my heart against another person, and I will not love lying or half-truths, for the Lord hates
these things.*

²⁰“Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘It will come to pass that peoples and the inhabitants of many cities will come [to Jerusalem].

²¹‘The inhabitants of one [city] will go to another, saying, “Let us go at once to ask the favor of the LORD and to seek the LORD of hosts. I will go also.”’

²²‘So many peoples and powerful nations will come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem and to ask the LORD for His favor.’

²³“Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘In those days ten men [as representatives] from all the nations will grasp the robe of a Jew, saying, “Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.””’

9 THE ORACLE (a burdensome message) of the word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach [in Syria], with Damascus as its resting place (for the eyes of men, especially of all the tribes of Israel, are toward the LORD), [Nah 1:1]

²And Hamath also, which borders on it (Damascus), Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise.

³For Tyre built herself an [impregnable] stronghold [on an island offshore],
And she has heaped up silver like dust
And gold like the mire of the streets.

⁴Behold, the Lord will dispossess her
And throw her wealth into the sea;
And Tyre will be devoured by fire.

Gaza will writhe in pain,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Humility of Jesus

Zechariah 9:9 is a beautiful prophecy of the King Who would eventually be known as the Messiah, and it highlights His righteousness and humility.

What are some of the characteristics of humble people? Truly humble people always lean on and rely on God for strength. They are quick to repent when they do something wrong. Humble people always apologize if they have hurt or offended somebody. They are willing to listen to reason and to seriously consider the opinions of others. Truly humble people are not rude, because they value others (see Phil. 2:4). They realize other people are equally as valuable as they are. Truly humble people give credit to God and to those who help them get to where they are. Humble people show appreciation, taking the time to thank others for seemingly insignificant gestures of kindness, encouragement, or support.

Jesus came to us as “righteous and endowed with salvation, humble and unassuming [in submission to the will of the Father]” (Zech. 9:9), and He teaches us that truly great people serve others (see Matt. 20:27–28). Humility is needed in order to serve others with the right motives and a good attitude. Jesus’ motives are always pure and honorable, and His attitude is always loving and above reproach.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Jesus, that You are my King! You are righteous and endowed with salvation, humble and unassuming in submission to the Father's will.

• adapted from Zechariah 9:9

And Ekron, for her hope and expectation, has been ruined.
The king will perish from Gaza,
And Ashkelon will not be inhabited.

⁶And a mongrel race will live in Ashdod,
And I will put an end to the pride and arrogance of the Philistines.

⁷I will take the blood from their mouths
And their detestable things from between their teeth [those repulsive, idolatrous sacrifices eaten with the blood].
Then they too will be a remnant for our God,
And be like a clan in Judah,

And Ekron will be like one of the Jebusites.

⁸Then I will camp around My house [as a guard] because of an army,
Because of him who passes by and returns;
And no oppressor will again overrun them (Israel),
For now My eyes are upon them [providentially protecting them].

⁹Rejoice greatly, O Daughter of Zion!
Shout aloud, O Daughter of Jerusalem!
Behold, your King (Messianic King) is coming to you;
He is righteous and endowed with salvation,
Humble and unassuming [in submission to the will of the Father] and riding on a donkey,
Upon a colt, the foal of a donkey.

¹⁰I will cut off the [war] chariot from Ephraim
And the [war] horse from Jerusalem,
And the bow of war will be cut off.
And He will speak [words of] peace to the nations,
And His dominion shall be from sea to sea [absolutely endless],
And from the River [Euphrates] to the ends of the earth. [Ps 72:8]

¹¹As for you also, because of the blood of My covenant with you [My chosen people, the covenant that was sealed with blood]
I have freed your prisoners from the waterless pit. [Gen 37:24; Ex 24:4–8; Heb 9:16]

¹²Return to the stronghold [of security and prosperity], O prisoners who have the hope;

Even today I am declaring that I will restore double [your former prosperity] to you [as firstborn among nations].
[Ps 40:2; Is 40:2]

¹³For I will bend Judah as My bow,

I will fit the bow with Ephraim [as My arrow].

And I will stir up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece,

And will make you [Israel] like the sword of a warrior.

¹⁴Then the LORD will be seen [hovering] over them [protecting His people],

And His arrow will go forth like lightning;

And the Lord GOD will blow the trumpet

And will march in the windstorms of the south.

¹⁵The LORD of hosts shall defend and protect them;

POWERPOINT

When you are dealing with difficulties in life, as we all do at times, the enemy wants you to be hopeless, not hopeful. He will try to manipulate your mind and cause you to focus on your problems instead of thinking about Jesus and His many promises. When trouble comes, don't let the cares and anxieties of the world make you hopeless. Be a prisoner of hope (see Zech. 9:12) and put your trust in God Who can do anything!

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Become a Prisoner of Hope

Zechariah 9:12 uses an interesting phrase pertaining to our relationship with hope. In many translations of this verse, God refers to His people as “prisoners of hope.” I like the idea that we are prisoners of hope—that we can be so hopeful we feel we cannot escape from hope, as though we are held and trapped in it.

Think about it. If you’re a prisoner of hope, you have no choice about it. You can’t be negative; you can’t be a worrier; you can’t be hopeless. When times are tough and you’re dealing with disappointment, the hope that surrounds you will cause you to rise up in faith. Everything around you will tell you that God can make a way. When that happens, you are emboldened to believe and declare, “Good things are happening to me and through me!”

God wants us to be locked up in hope, trusting that He can change whatever needs to be changed in our lives. No matter what we feel or how things look, we can believe that God is working and that we will see positive change at just the right time. Hope is filled with the expectation that something good is going to happen at any moment. When you come to the end of your rope—when your strength falters and fails—the story isn't over. There is no limit to God's strength and ability. If you will be steadfast in your hope, you can't lose.

If you make the decision to become a prisoner of hope—to live surrounded by the happy anticipation that God is going to do something good—God may very well exceed your best hopes and wildest expectations. Whatever goal or dream God has placed in your heart, you're going to see it come to pass. It might not happen when you thought it would happen, and it might not happen in the way you thought it would, but God can do superabundantly more than you dared to ask for or think (see Eph. 3:20). You won't have to make anything happen in your own strength. All you have to do is persevere; just don't give up. Surround yourself with hope and stay locked inside of it as in a prison—and watch God bless you in ways you never thought possible.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

God of hope, I pray that You will make me a prisoner of hope—that I will be so filled with the confident expectation of the good things You will do in me and through me that I cannot escape! In Jesus' name. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Is Good

We often hear people say, “God is good,” but do we realize how amazingly good He truly is? God sent His Son to pay for our sins when we were still yet sinners and did not know Him or care about Him (see Eph. 2:4–5). God is merciful, long-suffering, and kind to us, and it is an understatement to say that we don’t deserve it. He reaches out to us from His goodness, not ours (see Zech. 9:17). God gives, heals, restores, and helps at all times, and our part is to simply believe He is good, to ask in faith, and to receive with thanksgiving.

As we realize how good God is, we will want to serve Him with our whole heart and be obedient to His will at all times. Let God’s goodness draw you to Him today and every day of your life.

And they will devour [the enemy] and trample down the slingstones [that have missed their mark],

And they will drink [of victory] and be boisterous as with wine;

And they shall be filled like sacrificial bowls [used to catch the blood],

Drenched like the corners of the [sacrificial] altar.

¹⁶And the LORD their God shall save them on that day
As the flock of His people;

For they are like the [precious] jewels of a crown,
Displayed and glittering in His land.

¹⁷For how great is God's goodness and how great is His beauty! And how great [He will make Israel's] goodliness and [Israel's] beauty!

Grain and new wine will make the young men and virgins flourish.

10 ASK FOR rain from the LORD at the time of the spring rain.

It is the LORD who makes the thunder clouds;
And He will give them showers of rain, grass in the field to everyone.

²For the teraphim (household idols) speak wickedness (emptiness, worthlessness),
And the diviners see lying visions
And tell false dreams;
They comfort in vain.

Therefore the people wander like sheep,
They are afflicted and suffer because there is no shepherd.

³“My anger is kindled against the shepherds [who are not true shepherds],
And I shall punish the male goats (leaders);
For the LORD of hosts has visited His flock, the house of Judah (the Southern Kingdom),
And will make them like His beautiful and majestic horse in the battle. [Ezek 34:1–10]

4“From them (Judah) shall come the Cornerstone,
From them the tent peg,
From them the bow of battle,
From them every ruler, all of them together. [Jer 30:21]

5“They will be like mighty men Trampling down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle;
And they will fight because the LORD is with them,
And the [enemies'] riders on horses will be shamed.

6“I will strengthen the house of Judah [making it superior],
And I will save the house of Joseph.
I will bring them back [and allow them to live securely],
Because I have had compassion on them.
They will be as though I had not rejected them,
For I am the LORD their God, and I will listen and answer them.

7“Then Ephraim will be like a mighty warrior,
And their heart will rejoice as if from wine;
Yes, their children will see it and rejoice;
Their heart will rejoice and shout triumphantly in the LORD.

8“I will whistle for them and gather them together,
For I have redeemed them;
And they will increase [again] as they have increased before [in Egypt]. [Ezek 36:10, 11]

9“When I scatter them among the nations,
They will remember Me in far countries,
And with their children they will live and come back [to Me and the land I gave them].

- ¹⁰“I will bring them (all Israel) back home again from the land of Egypt
And gather them from Assyria,
And I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon
[the land on the east and on the west of the Jordan]
Until no room can be found for them.
- ¹¹“And they will pass through the sea of distress and anxiety
[with the LORD leading His people, as at the Red Sea]
And He will strike the waves in the sea,
So that all the depths of the Nile will dry up;
And the pride of Assyria will be brought down
And the scepter [of the taskmasters] of Egypt will pass away.
- ¹²“And I will strengthen Israel in the LORD,
And they will walk [and glory] in His name,” declares the LORD.

11 OPEN YOUR doors, O Lebanon,
That fire may devour your cedars.

²Wail, O cypress, for the cedar has fallen,
Because the magnificent trees have been destroyed;
Wail, O oaks of Bashan,
For the inaccessible forest [on the steep mountainside] has come down.

³There is a sound of the shepherds' wail,
For their splendor (grazing land) is ruined;
There is a sound of the young lions' roar,

For the pride of the Jordan is ruined.

⁴Thus says the LORD my God, “Pasture the flock doomed for slaughter, ⁵whose buyers slay them and go unpunished, and those who sell them say, ‘Blessed be the LORD, for I have become rich!’ And their own shepherds have no pity on them nor protect them [from the wolves].

⁶“For I will no longer have pity on the inhabitants of the land,” declares the LORD; “but behold, I will cause the men to fall, each into the hand of another and into the hands of his [foreign] king. And the enemy will strike the land, and I will not rescue the people from their hand.”

⁷So I [Zechariah] pastured the flock doomed for slaughter, truly [as the name implies] the most miserable of sheep. And I took two [shepherd’s] staffs, the one I called Favor (Grace) and the other I called Union (Bonds); so I pastured the flock.

⁸Then I eliminated the three [incompetent, unfit] shepherds [the civil rulers, the priests, and the prophets] in one month, for I was impatient with them, and they also were tired of me and despised me. [Jer 2:8, 26; 18:18]

⁹So I said, “I will not pasture you. What is to die, let it die, and what is to be destroyed, let it be destroyed; and let the survivors devour one another’s flesh.”

¹⁰I took my staff, Favor, and broke it in pieces, breaking the covenant which I had made with all the peoples.

¹¹So the covenant was broken on that day, and thus the most wretched of the flock who were watching me realized that it was the word of the LORD.

¹²I said to them, “If it seems good to you, give me my wages; but if not, do not.” So they weighed out thirty pieces of silver as my wages.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Be Honest About Your Emotions

In Zechariah 11:8, Zechariah speaks frankly about his feelings toward the three incompetent shepherds and about their negative opinion of him. He was impatient with them, and they were tired of him and even despised him! It's important to see this because the first step toward managing our emotions, especially anger or impatience, is to be honest about them. Zechariah certainly was.

In considering this, you may think, I have so many strong feelings about so many things. How will I ever manage them all? God often deals with these issues one at a time, so be encouraged. He will help you in a way that will set you up to succeed.

The more you grow in understanding your thoughts and emotions, the better you can identify why you feel the way you feel at times. For example, if you can understand what frustrates you, you can better prepare yourself to guard against it when it happens.

In learning to better manage your emotions, it's vital to depend on God and be determined not to be a slave to your feelings. Change is not always easy, especially when learning to develop new thought patterns or emotional habits. There may even be times when you wonder if you will ever get it right.

I assure you that if you will not give up, you will keep making progress. Eventually you will have many of your emotions trained, and they will no longer be unruly. They will respond in the same way children do when they are trained properly. The more we refuse to let negative emotions rule us, the weaker they become, and eventually all they need is daily maintenance.

If you, like Zechariah, have struggled with anger and impatience, I am not saying you will never be angry or lose your temper again, but the impatience you do feel will be much easier to manage than it has been in the past. I can honestly say that I was once very emotional and now I am very stable. Gaining a victory is always more challenging than maintaining it once you have it. I encourage you to commit today to managing your intense feelings successfully, believing that God wants you to live in emotional stability, and He will help you do it.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

God, I believe that You want me to live at peace and in emotional stability. Help me to be honest about my emotions, to understand why I feel the way I feel, and to be determined not to let my feelings rule over me, with Your help. In Jesus' name. Amen.

¹³Then the LORD said to me, “Throw it to the potter [as if to the dogs]—that magnificent sum at which I am valued by them!” So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them to the potter in the house of the LORD. [Matt 26:14, 15; 27:3–10]

¹⁴Then I broke my second staff, Union, into pieces to break the brotherhood between Judah (the Southern Kingdom) and Israel (the Northern Kingdom).

¹⁵The LORD said to me, “Take again for yourself the equipment [of a shepherd, but this time] of a foolish shepherd. [Ezek 34:2–6]

¹⁶“For behold, I am going to raise up a [false] shepherd in the land who will not care for the perishing, seek the scattered, heal the broken, or feed the healthy; but will eat the flesh of the fat ones and tear off their hoofs [to consume everything].

¹⁷“Woe (judgment is coming) to the worthless and foolish shepherd

Who deserts the flock!

The sword will strike his arm

And his right eye!

His arm shall be totally withered

And his right eye completely blinded.” [Jer 23:1; John 10:12, 13]

12 THE ORACLE (a burdensome message) of the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

Thus declares the LORD who stretches out the heavens and lays the foundation of the earth and forms the spirit of man within him:

2“Behold, I am going to make Jerusalem a cup that causes reeling (staggering) to all the surrounding peoples; and when the siege is against Jerusalem, it will also be against Judah.

3“And in that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples; all who lift it will be severely injured. And all the nations of the earth will come and be gathered against it.

4“In that day,” declares the LORD, “I will strike every horse with panic and his rider with madness; but I will open My eyes and watch over the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the [opposing] nations with blindness.

5“Then the clans of Judah will say in their hearts, ‘The inhabitants of Jerusalem are our strength in the LORD of hosts, their God.’

6“In that day I will make the clans of Judah like a firepot in a woodpile, and like a flaming torch among sheaves [of grain]. They will devour all the surrounding peoples on the right hand and on the left; and the people of Jerusalem will again live [securely] in their own place, in Jerusalem.

7“The LORD shall save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem will not be magnified above Judah.

8“In that day the LORD will defend the people of Jerusalem, and the one who is impaired among them in that day [of persecution] will become [strong and noble] like David; and the house of David will be like God, like the Angel of the LORD [who is] before them.

9“And in that day I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

¹⁰“I will pour out on the house of David and on the people of Jerusalem, the Spirit of grace (unmerited favor) and supplication. And they will look at Me whom they have pierced; and they will mourn for Him as one mourns for an only son, and they will weep bitterly over Him as one who weeps bitterly over a firstborn. [John 19:37; Rev 1:7]

¹¹“In that day there shall be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of [the city of] Hadadrimmon in the Valley of Megiddo [over beloved King Josiah]. [2 Chr 35:22–25]

¹²“The land will mourn, every family by itself; the [royal] family of the house of David by itself and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan [David’s son] by itself and their wives by themselves;

¹³the [priestly] family of the house of Levi by itself and their wives by themselves; the family of Shimei [grandson of Levi] by itself and their wives by themselves;

¹⁴all the families that remain, each by itself, and their wives by themselves [each with an overwhelming individual regret for having blindly rejected their Messiah].

13 “IN THAT day a fountain shall be opened for the house of David and for the people of Jerusalem for [cleansing from] sin and impurity.

²“In that day,” declares the LORD of hosts, “I will cut off the names of the idols from the land, and they will no longer be remembered. I will also remove the [false] prophets and the unclean spirit from the land.

³“And if anyone still [appears as a prophet and falsely] prophesies, then his father and his mother who gave birth to him will say to him, ‘You shall not live, for you have spoken lies in the name of the LORD’; and his father and his mother who gave birth to him shall pierce him through when he prophesies.

⁴“And in that day the [false] prophets will each be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies, and they will not wear a hairy robe [of true prophets] in order to deceive,

⁵but he will [deny his identity and] say, ‘I am no prophet. I work the ground, because a man sold me as a slave in my youth.’

⁶“And one will say to him, ‘What are these wounds between your arms?’ Then he will answer, ‘Those wounds I received in the house of my friends.’

⁷“Awake, O sword, against My Shepherd,
And against the Man, My Associate,”
Declares the LORD of hosts.

“Strike the Shepherd so that the sheep [of the flock] may be scattered;
And I will turn My hand and stretch it out against the little ones [of the flock]. [Matt 26:31, 32]

⁸“It will come about in all the land,”
Declares the LORD,
“Two parts in it will be cut off and perish,
But the third will be left alive. [Hos 2:23; Rom 11:5]

⁹“And I will bring the third part through the fire,
Refine them as silver is refined,
And test them as gold is tested.

They will call on My name,
And I will listen and answer them;
I will say, ‘They are My people,’
And they will say, ‘The LORD is my God.’”

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that I can call on You, and You will listen and answer me. You are my God.

• adapted from Zechariah 13:9

14 BEHOLD, A day is coming for the LORD when the spoil taken from you (Jerusalem) will be divided in your midst.

²For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city will be captured and the houses plundered and the women ravished; and half of the city will be exiled, but the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city.

³Then the LORD will go forth and fight against those nations, as when He fights on a day of battle.

⁴In that day His feet shall stand on the Mount of Olives, which lies before Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in half from the east to the west by a very large valley, and half of the mountain will move toward the north and half of it toward the south. [Is 64:1, 2]

⁵You will flee by the valley of My mountains, for the valley of the mountains will reach to Azel; and you will flee just as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come, and all the holy ones (believers, angels) with Him. [Amos 1:1; Col 3:4; 1 Thess 4:14; Jude 14, 15]

⁷But it will be a unique day which is known to the LORD—not day and not night, but at evening time there will be light.

⁸And in that day living waters will flow out from Jerusalem, half of them to the eastern sea (Dead Sea) and half of them to the western sea (the Mediterranean); it will be in summer as well as in winter.

⁹And the LORD shall be king over all the earth; in that day the LORD shall be the only one [worshiped], and His name the only one.

¹⁰All the land will be changed into a plain from Geba to Rimmon, [the Rimmon that is] south of Jerusalem; but Jerusalem will rise and remain [lifted up] on its site from Benjamin's Gate to the place of the First Gate to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's wine presses.

¹¹It will be inhabited, for there will no longer be a curse, for Jerusalem will dwell in security. [Rev 22:3]

¹²Now this will be the plague with which the LORD shall strike all the peoples that have warred against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongue will rot in their mouth.

¹³In that day a great panic and dismay from the LORD will fall on them; and they will seize one another's hand, and the hand of the one will be raised against the hand of the other.

¹⁴Judah also will fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered together—gold and silver and garments in great abundance.

¹⁵So like this plague [on men] there will be the plague on the horses, mules, camels, donkeys, and all the livestock in those camps.

¹⁶Then everyone who is left of all the nations that went against Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and celebrate the Feast of Booths (Tabernacles).

¹⁷And it will be that whichever of the families of the earth does not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, there will be no rain on them.

¹⁸If the family of Egypt does not go up [to Jerusalem] and present themselves, then no rain will fall on them. It will be the plague with which the LORD will strike the nations who do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Booths (Tabernacles).

¹⁹This will be the [consequent] punishment [for the sin] of Egypt, and the [consequent] punishment [for the sin] of all the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Booths (Tabernacles).

²⁰In that day there will be written on the little bells on the horses, “HOLY TO THE LORD.” And the cooking pots in the LORD’s house will be [holy to the LORD] like the bowls before the altar.

²¹Every cooking pot in [all the houses in] Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the LORD of hosts, and all who sacrifice will come and take them and boil [their sacrifices] in them. And in that day there will no longer be a Canaanite [that is, any godless or spiritually unclean person, whether Jew or Gentile] in the house of the LORD of hosts. [Eph 2:19–22]

Malachi

Author: | Malachi

Date: | About 450
BC

If I had to briefly summarize the theme of the book of Malachi, I would say it is “religion versus relationship.” While other books near the end of the Old Testament encourage the reconstruction of the temple in Jerusalem, Malachi writes after the temple has been rebuilt. Other prophets hoped the temple would give the Jews a place to worship God, restoring honor for God among the people. Unfortunately, once the temple was complete, their worship was superficial and not from the heart. Neither the priests nor the people worshiped with right attitudes or with actions based on sincere love for God.

Mere religion may give people a sense of satisfying some kind of spiritual requirement, but only genuine relationship with God brings true peace, joy, and fulfillment. Let me encourage you to prioritize your relationship with God over everything and everyone else.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM MALACHI:

The length or eloquence of our prayers does not impress God. He wants us to pray in uncomplicated faith as the Holy Spirit leads us (see Malachi 2:17).

One way to be victorious in your faith is to allow the Lord to purify and refine your heart (see Malachi 3:3).

Tithing paves the way for God's blessing in our lives, and the enemy is rebuked when we give faithfully to the Lord (see Malachi 3:10–11).

Contend for reconciliation—the true heart of the gospel (see Malachi 4:6).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM MALACHI:

For I am the LORD, I do not change [but remain faithful to My covenant with you]; that is why you, O sons of Jacob, have not come to an end. | Malachi 3:6

“Bring all the tithes (the tenth) into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house, and test Me now in this,” says the LORD of hosts, “if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you [so great] a blessing until there is no more room to receive it.” | Malachi 3:10

For you who fear My name [with awe-filled reverence] the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings. | Malachi 4:2

THE BOOK OF MALACHI

1 THE ORACLE (burdensome message) of the word of the LORD to Israel through [My messenger] Malachi.

²“I have loved you,” says the LORD. But you say, “How and in what way have You loved us?” “Was not Esau Jacob’s brother?” declares the LORD. “Yet I loved Jacob (Israel);

³but [in comparison with My love for Jacob] I have hated Esau (Edom), and I have made his mountains a wasteland, and have given his inheritance to the jackals of the wilderness.” [Rom 9:13, 16]

⁴Though [impoverished] Edom says, “We have been beaten down, but we will return and build up the ruins.” Thus says the LORD of hosts, “They may build, but I will tear down; and men will call them the Wicked Territory, the people against whom the LORD is indignant forever.”

⁵Your own eyes will see this and you will say, “The LORD is great and shall be magnified beyond the border of Israel!” [Is 34; 63:1–6; Jer 49:7–22; Ezek 25:12–14; Obad 1]

⁶“A son honors his father, and a servant his master. Then if I am a Father, where is My honor? And if I am a Master, where is the [reverent] fear and respect due Me?” says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, who despise My name. But you say, ‘How and in what way have we despised Your name?’

⁷“You are presenting defiled food upon My altar. But you say, ‘How have we defiled You?’ By thinking that the table of the LORD is contemptible and may be despised.

⁸“When you [priests] present the blind [animals] for sacrifice, is it not evil? And when you present the lame and the sick, is it not evil? Offer such a thing [as a blind or lame or sick animal] to your governor [as a gift or as payment for your taxes]. Would he be pleased with you? Or would he receive you graciously?” says the LORD of hosts.

⁹“But now will you not entreat God’s favor, that He may be gracious to us? With such an offering from your hand [as an imperfect animal for sacrifice], will He show favor to any of you?” says the LORD of hosts.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*Lord, You are a great King. I reverently and greatly fear
Your name.*

¹⁰“Oh, that there were even one among you [whose duty it is to minister to Me] who would shut the gates, so that you would not kindle fire on My altar uselessly [with an empty, worthless pretense]! I am not pleased with you,” says the LORD of hosts, “nor will I accept an offering from your hand.

¹¹“For from the rising of the sun, even to its setting, My name shall be great among the nations. In every place incense is going to be offered to My name, and a grain offering that is pure; for My name shall be great among the nations,” says the LORD of hosts.

POWERPOINT

There is great power in the name of the Lord (see Mal. 2:5).

After Jesus humbled Himself and died on the cross, He was given the name above every other name, that at the name of Jesus every knee must bow (see Phil. 2:8–10). We should always revere and honor the name of the Lord and be careful to never use His name in vain (uselessly). When I hear people take His name in vain, I cringe because His name is holy!

Value the name of Jesus above all other names, and remember that when you speak His name in faith or in praise and worship, great power is released.

¹²“But you [priests] profane it when you say, ‘The table of the Lord is defiled, and as for its fruit, its food is to be despised.’

¹³“You also say, ‘How tiresome this is!’ And you disdainfully sniff at it,” says the LORD of hosts, “and you bring what was taken by robbery, and the lame or the sick [animals]; this you bring as an offering! Should I receive it with pleasure from your hand?” says the LORD. [Lev 1:3; Deut 15:21]

¹⁴“But cursed is the swindler who has a male in his flock and vows [to offer] it, but sacrifices to the Lord a blemished or diseased thing! For I am a great King,” says the LORD of hosts, “and My name is to be [reverently and greatly] feared among the nations.”

2 “NOW, O priests, this commandment is for you.

²“If you do not listen, and if you do not take it to heart to honor My name,” says the LORD of hosts, “then I will send the curse upon you and I will curse your blessings [on the people]. Indeed, I have cursed them already, because you are not taking it to heart.

³“Behold, I am going to rebuke your seed, and I will spread the refuse on your faces, the refuse from the festival offerings; and you will be taken away with it [in disgrace].

⁴“Then you will know [without any doubt] that I have sent this [new] commandment to you (priests), that My covenant may continue with Levi [the priestly tribe],” says the LORD of hosts.

⁵“My covenant with Levi was [one of] life and peace, and I gave them to him as an object of reverence; so he [and the priests] feared Me and stood in reverent awe of My name.

⁶“True instruction was in Levi’s mouth and injustice was not found on his lips. He walked with Me in peace and uprightness, and he turned many from wickedness.

⁸“But as for you [priests], you have turned from the way and you have caused many to stumble by your instruction [in the law]. You have violated the covenant of Levi,” says the LORD of hosts.

⁹“So I have also made you despised and abased before all the people, just as you are not keeping My ways but are showing partiality [to people] in [your administration of] the law.”

¹⁰Do we not all have one Father? Has not one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously with one another, profaning the covenant of our fathers [with God]?

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The One True God

In the Old Testament, the Israelites seemed to make a big deal out of God being “one” (see Ps. 50:1; Mal. 2:10). Why?

Pagans who lived in Malachi’s day were deceived into believing there was a god for everything—to have a baby, they talked to the god of fertility; to grow crops, they talked to the god of the harvest. All these different gods required different sacrifices for healing, peace, or whatever the people lacked. Can you imagine how complicated it must have been for them?

That’s why it was such good news when the one true God revealed Himself and told the people that He satisfied all their needs. If you need peace, if you need righteousness, if you need hope, if you need joy, if you need healing, if you need a financial breakthrough—whatever you need, simply go to the one true God.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Short, Simple, Powerful Prayer

In Malachi 2:17, we read that the people “wearied the LORD” with their words. While God is always listening to us and eager to hear what is on our heart, one lesson I am learning is to try to communicate with Him as simply as possible, especially when I pray.

One of the biggest lies Satan tells people about prayer is that it needs to take a long time and that we must use only the right words. I am convinced that prayer does not have to be long or eloquent to be powerful. It does not have to be short and succinct to be powerful either. The length of our prayers and the number of words they contain make no difference to God. All that matters is that we pray the way the Holy Spirit leads us to pray, that our prayers are accompanied by true faith, and that we present our requests plainly.

We can get so tangled up in the words we pray that we lose the power of our prayer. It is certainly important to pray for an extended period of time if the Spirit leads you to do so, but don't fall into the enemy's trap of thinking your prayers must be lengthy and wordy in order for God to hear and answer them.

¹¹Judah has been treacherous (disloyal), and an repulsive act has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the sanctuary of the LORD which He loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. [Ezra 9:2; Jer 2:3]

¹²As for the man who does this, may the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob to the last man those who do this [evil thing], awake and aware, even the one who brings an offering to the LORD of hosts.

¹³This is another thing you do: you cover the altar of the LORD with tears, with [your own] weeping and sighing, because the LORD no longer regards your offering or accepts it with favor from your hand.

¹⁴But you say, “Why [does He reject it]?” Because the LORD has been a witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously. Yet she is your marriage companion and the wife of your covenant [made by your vows].

¹⁵But not one has done so who has a remnant of the Spirit. And what did that one do while seeking a godly offspring? Take heed then to your spirit, and let no one deal treacherously against the wife of your youth.

¹⁶“For I hate divorce,” says the LORD, the God of Israel, “and him who covers his garment with wrong and violence,” says the LORD of hosts. “Therefore keep watch on your spirit, so that you do not deal treacherously [with your wife].”

¹⁷You have wearied the LORD with your words. But you say, “In what way have we wearied Him?” In that you say, “Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and He delights in them,” or [by asking], “Where is the God of justice?”

3 “BEHOLD, I am going to send My messenger, and he will prepare and clear the way before Me. And the Lord [the Messiah], whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple; the Messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight, behold, He is coming,” says the LORD of hosts. [Matt 11:10; Luke 1:13–17, 76]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*God, You are like a refiner's fire and like launderer's soap.
Remove the impurities and uncleanness from me.*

• adapted from Malachi 3:2

²“But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire and like launderer's soap [which removes impurities and uncleanness]. [Rev 6:12–17]

³He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and He will purify the sons of Levi [the priests], and refine them like gold and silver, so that they may present to the LORD [grain] offerings in righteousness.

4“Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of old and as in ancient years.

5“Then I will come near you for judgment; I will be a swift witness against sorcerers, against adulterers, against perjurers, and against those who oppress the laborer in his wages and widows and the fatherless, and against those who turn away the alien [from his right], and those who do not fear Me [with awe-filled reverence],” says the LORD of hosts. [Deut 24:17]

6“For I am the LORD, I do not change [but remain faithful to My covenant with you]; that is why you, O sons of Jacob, have not come to an end.

7“Yet from the days of your fathers you have turned away from My statutes and ordinances and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you,” says the LORD of hosts. “But you say, ‘How shall we return?’

8“Will a man rob God? Yet you are robbing Me! But you say, ‘In what way have we robbed You?’ In tithes and offerings [you have withheld].

9“You are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing Me, this whole nation! [Lev 26:14–17]

10“Bring all the tithes (the tenth) into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house, and test Me now in this,” says the LORD of hosts, “if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you [so great] a blessing until there is no more room to receive it. [Mal 2:2]

11“Then I will rebuke the devourer (insects, plague) for your sake and he will not destroy the fruits of the ground, nor will your vine in the field drop its grapes [before harvest],” says the LORD of hosts.

¹²“All nations shall call you happy and blessed, for you shall be a land of delight,” says the LORD of hosts.

¹³“Your words have been harsh against Me,” says the LORD. “But you say, ‘What have we spoken against You?’

¹⁴“You have said, ‘It is useless to serve God. What profit is it if we keep His ordinances, and walk around like mourners before the LORD of hosts?

¹⁵“So now we call the arrogant happy and blessed. Evildoers are exalted and prosper; and when they test God, they escape [unpunished].”

¹⁶Then those who feared the LORD [with awe-filled reverence] spoke to one another; and the LORD paid attention and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before Him of those who fear the LORD [with an attitude of reverence and respect] and who esteem His name.

¹⁷“They will be Mine,” says the LORD of hosts, “on that day when I publicly recognize them and openly declare them to be My own possession [that is, My very special treasure]. And I will have compassion on them and spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him.”

POWERPOINT

In order to live in God's blessings, we need to have the proper mindset about tithing.

Malachi 3:8–10 says that withholding tithes is equal to robbing God. As believers who love and honor God, we certainly don't want to steal from Him. In addition to paving the way for the blessed life God wants us to enjoy, tithing also rebukes the devourer—the enemy. The enemy attacks in many ways. One sure way to rebuke him is to be faithful in giving to the Lord.

Speak God's Word

When I bring all the tithes into the storehouse, so that there may be food in God's house, the Lord of hosts will open the windows of heaven and pour out for me so great a blessing that there is no more room to receive it.

| adapted from MALACHI 3:10 |

¹⁸Then you will again distinguish between the righteous and the wicked, between the one who serves God and the one who does not serve Him.

4 “FOR BEHOLD, the day is coming, burning like a furnace, and all the arrogant (proud, self-righteous, haughty), and every evildoer shall be stubble; and the day that is coming shall set them on fire,” says the LORD of hosts, “so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. [Is 5:21–25; Matt 3:12]

²“But for you who fear My name [with awe-filled reverence] the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings. And you will go forward and leap [joyfully] like calves [released] from the stall.

³“You will trample the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day that I do this,” says the LORD of hosts.

⁴“Remember [with thoughtful concern] the Law of Moses My servant, the statutes and the ordinances which I commanded him on [Mount] Horeb [to give] to all Israel.

⁵“Behold, I am going to send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and terrible day of the LORD. [Matt 11:14; 17:10–13]

⁶“He will turn the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers [a reconciliation produced by repentance], so that I will not come and strike the land with a curse [of complete destruction].” [Luke 1:17]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that for those who fear Your name with awe-filled reverence, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings. And

I will go forward and leap joyfully like a calf released from a stall.

THE New Testament

Matthew

The Gospel of Matthew begins both the New Testament and the four Gospels—the stories and lessons of Jesus’ life and ministry. Matthew focuses on the teaching aspect of Jesus’ ministry. This is important because the more we learn from what Jesus said and did, the better we can renew our minds according to His teachings and the more effectively we can win the battle of the mind.

In this book, especially in “The Sermon on the Mount” (see chapters 5–7), we can learn many lessons about how to think, how to speak, and how to live. In Matthew 5:3–11, Jesus speaks in specific terms about how we can live a blessed life.

I pray you will become familiar with all of Jesus’ teachings so you can obey His Word and reap the benefits of obedience.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM MATTHEW:

Declare war against worry by seeking God and His Kingdom first; He knows what you need and will provide for you (see Matthew 6:25–33).

The Word of God is a weapon that helps us recognize and change judgmental and critical thoughts (see Matthew 7:1–5).

A great way to attack doubts in your mind is by asking God to fill you with faith (see Matthew 21:21–22).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM MATTHEW:

THEY SHALL CALL HIS NAME IMMANUEL... GOD WITH US. |
Matthew 1:23

Do not worry about tomorrow; for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own. |
Matthew 6:34

Come to Me, all who are weary and heavily burdened [by religious rituals that provide no peace], and I will give you rest [refreshing your souls with salvation]. | Matthew 11:28

With God all things are possible. | Matthew 19:26

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO
MATTHEW

1 THE RECORD of the genealogy of Jesus the Messiah, the son (descendant) of David, the son (descendant) of Abraham: [Ps 132:11; Is 11:1]

² Abraham was the father of Isaac, Isaac the father of Jacob, and Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers [who became the twelve tribes of Israel].

³ Judah was the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar, Perez was the father of Hezron, and Hezron the father of Ram.

⁴ Ram was the father of Aminadab, Aminadab the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon the father of Salmon.

⁵ Salmon was the father of Boaz by Rahab, Boaz was the father of Obed by Ruth, and Obed the father of Jesse.

⁶ Jesse was the father of David the king.

David was the father of Solomon by ^{*}Bathsheba who had been the wife of Uriah. [Ruth 4:18–22; 1 Chr 2:13–15]

⁷ Solomon was the father of Rehoboam, Rehoboam the father of Abijah, and Abijah the father of Asa.

⁸ Asa was the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, and Joram the father of Uzziah.

⁹ Uzziah was the father of Jotham, Jotham the father of Ahaz, and Ahaz the father of Hezekiah.

¹⁰Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh, Manasseh the father of Amon, and Amon the father of Josiah.

¹¹Josiah became the father of Jeconiah [also called Coniah and Jehoiachin] and his brothers, at the time of the deportation (exile) to Babylon. [2 Kin 24:14; 1 Chr 3:15, 16]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Jesus, that Your name means, "The Lord is salvation," for You will save Your people from their sins.

• adapted from Matthew 1:21

¹²After the deportation to Babylon: Jeconiah became the father of Shealtiel, and Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel.

¹³Zerubbabel was the father of Abihud, Abihud the father of Eliakim, and Eliakim the father of Azor.

¹⁴Azor was the father of Zadok, Zadok the father of Achim, and Achim the father of Eliud.

¹⁵Eliud was the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan, and Matthan the father of Jacob.

¹⁶Jacob was the father of Joseph the husband of Mary, by whom Jesus was born, who is called the Messiah (Christ).

¹⁷So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen; from David to the Babylonian deportation (exile), fourteen generations; and from the Babylonian deportation to the Messiah, fourteen generations.

¹⁸Now the birth of Jesus Christ was as follows: when His mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be with child by [the power of] the Holy Spirit.

¹⁹And Joseph her [promised] husband, being a just and righteous man and not wanting to expose her publicly to shame, planned to send her away and divorce her quietly.

²⁰But after he had considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, “Joseph, descendant of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for the Child who has been *conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.

²¹“She will give birth to a Son, and you shall name Him Jesus (The LORD is salvation), for He will save His people from their sins.”

²²All this happened in order to fulfill what the Lord had spoken through the prophet [Isaiah]:

²³“BEHOLD, THE VIRGIN SHALL BE WITH CHILD AND GIVE BIRTH TO A SON, AND THEY SHALL CALL HIS NAME IMMANUEL”—which, when translated, means, “GOD WITH US.” [Is 7:14]

²⁴Then Joseph awoke from his sleep and did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him, and he took Mary [to his home] as his wife, ²⁵but he kept her a virgin until she had given birth to a Son [her firstborn child]; and he named Him Jesus (The LORD is salvation).

2 NOW WHEN Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king (Herod the Great), magi (wise men) from the east came to Jerusalem, asking, ²“Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the east and have come to worship Him.” [Num 24:17; Jer 23:5; Zech 9:9]

³When Herod the king heard this, he was disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him.

⁴So he called together all the chief priests and scribes of the people and [anxiously] asked them where the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) was to be born.

⁵They replied to him, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for this is what has been written by the prophet [Micah]:

⁶‘AND YOU, BETHLEHEM, IN THE LAND OF JUDAH,
ARE NOT IN ANY WAY LEAST AMONG THE LEADERS OF JUDAH; FOR FROM YOU SHALL COME A RULER
WHO WILL SHEPHERD MY PEOPLE ISRAEL.’” [Mic 5:2]

⁷Then Herod secretly sent for the magi and learned from them the [exact] time the star [had first] appeared.

⁸Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, “Go and search carefully for the Child; and when you have found Him, report to me, so that I too may come and worship Him.”

⁹After hearing the king, they went their way; and behold, the star, which they had seen in the east, went on before them [continually leading the way] until it came and stood over the place where the young Child was.

¹⁰When they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great joy.

¹¹And after entering the house, they saw the Child with Mary His mother; and they fell down and worshiped Him. Then, after opening their treasure chests, they presented to Him gifts [fit for a king, gifts] of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

¹²And having been warned [by God] in a dream not to go back to Herod, the magi left for their own country by another way.

¹³Now when they had gone, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Get up! Take the Child and His mother and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod intends to search for the Child in order to destroy Him.”

¹⁴So Joseph got up and took the Child and His mother while it was still night, and left for Egypt.

¹⁵He remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what the Lord had spoken by the prophet [Hosea]: “OUT OF EGYPT I CALLED MY SON.” [Hos 11:1]

¹⁶Then Herod, when he realized that he had been tricked by the magi, was extremely angry, and he sent [soldiers] and put to death all the male children in Bethlehem and in all that area who were two years old and under, according to the date which he had learned from the magi.

¹⁷Then what had been spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled:

¹⁸“A VOICE WAS HEARD IN RAMAH, WEeping AND GREAT MOURNING,
RACHEL WEeping FOR HER CHILDREN;
SHE REFUSED TO BE COMFORTED,
BECAUSE THEY WERE NO MORE.” [Jer 31:15]

¹⁹But when Herod died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, and said,

²⁰“Get up! Take the Child and His mother, and go to the land of Israel; for those who sought the Child’s life are dead.”

²¹Then Joseph got up, and took the Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel.

²²But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod [the Great], he was afraid to go there. Then being warned by God in a dream, he left for the region of Galilee, ²³and went and settled in a city called Nazareth. This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophets: “He shall be called a Nazarene.”

3 IN THOSE days John the Baptist appeared, preaching in the Wilderness of Judea [along the western side of the Dead Sea] and saying, ²“Repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, regret past sins, live your life in a way that proves repentance; seek God’s purpose for your life], for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

³This is the one who was mentioned by the prophet Isaiah when he said,

“THE VOICE OF ONE SHOUTING IN THE WILDERNESS, ‘PREPARE THE ROAD FOR THE LORD,
MAKE HIS HIGHWAYS STRAIGHT (level, direct)!’” [Is 40:3]

⁴Now this same John had clothing made of camel’s hair and a [wide] leather band around his waist; and his food was locusts and wild honey. [Lev 11:22; 2 Kin 1:8; Zech 13:4]

⁵At that time Jerusalem was going out to him, and all Judea and all the district around the Jordan;

⁶and they were being baptized by him in the Jordan River, as they confessed their sins.

⁷But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism, he said to them, “You brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the [divine] wrath and judgment to come?

⁸“So produce fruit that is consistent with repentance [demonstrating new behavior that proves a change of heart, and a conscious decision to turn away from sin]; ⁹and do not presume to say to yourselves [as a defense], ‘We have Abraham for our father [so our inheritance assures us of salvation]’; for I say to you that from these stones God is able to raise up children (descendants) for Abraham. [Luke 3:8]

Speak God's Word

Because I am a believer, with God's help, I will produce fruit that is consistent with repentance—fruit that demonstrates new behavior; proves a change of heart, and results from a conscious decision to turn away from sin.

| adapted from MATTHEW 3:8 |

¹⁰“And already the axe [of God's judgment] is swinging toward the root of the trees; therefore every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

¹¹“As for me, I baptize you with water because of [your] repentance [that is, because you are willing to change your inner self—your old way of thinking, regret your sin and live a changed life], but He (the Messiah) who is coming after me is mightier [more powerful, more noble] than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to remove [even as His slave]; He will baptize you [who truly repent] with the Holy Spirit and [you who remain unrepentant] with fire (judgment). [Luke 3:16]

¹²“His winnowing fork is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clear out His threshing floor; and He will gather His wheat (believers) into His barn (kingdom), but He will burn up the chaff (the unrepentant) with unquenchable fire.”

¹³Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan [River], to be baptized by him. [Mark 1:9–11; Luke 3:21, 22; John 1:32]

¹⁴But John tried to prevent Him [vigorously protesting], saying, “It is I who need to be baptized by You, and do You come to me?”

¹⁵But Jesus replied to him, “Permit it just now; for this is the fitting way for us to fulfill all righteousness.” Then John permitted [it and baptized] Him.

¹⁶After Jesus was baptized, He came up immediately out of the water; and behold, the heavens were opened, and he (John) saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove and lighting on Him (Jesus), [John 1:32]

¹⁷and behold, a voice from heaven said, “This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well-pleased and delighted!” [Ps 2:7; Is 42:1]

4 THEN JESUS was led by the [Holy] Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. [Luke 4:1–13]

²After He had gone without food for forty days and forty nights, He became hungry. [Ex 34:28; 1 Kin 19:8]

³And the tempter came and said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread.”

⁴But Jesus replied, “It is written and forever remains written, ‘MAN SHALL NOT LIVE BY BREAD ALONE, BUT BY EVERY WORD THAT COMES OUT OF THE MOUTH OF GOD.” [Deut 8:3]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Talk Back to the Enemy

One of the best ways to defend ourselves against the enemy is to know the Word of God and speak it aloud against the lies with which he bombards our minds. This is exactly what Jesus did when Satan tempted Him in the wilderness (see Matt. 4:4, 7, 10).

When the enemy tells you that God doesn't love you and that you will never amount to anything, go to war using the Word of God as your weapon. Talk back to the enemy, loud and clear, saying, "I am the righteousness of God in Jesus Christ" (see 2 Cor. 5:21); "God has a good plan for my life" (see Jer. 29:11); "Nothing can separate me from the love of God" (see Rom. 8:35–39); and other powerful verses that are meaningful to you. Know that you are more than a conqueror through Christ as you confidently declare the truth of God's Word.

⁵Then the devil took Him into the holy city [Jerusalem] and placed Him on the pinnacle (highest point) of the temple. [Neh 11:1; Dan 9:24]

⁶And he said [mockingly] to Him, "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down; for it is written,

'HE WILL COMMAND HIS ANGELS CONCERNING YOU [to serve, care for, protect and watch over You]';

and

“THEY WILL LIFT YOU UP ON their HANDS, SO THAT YOU WILL NOT STRIKE YOUR FOOT AGAINST A STONE.” [Ps 91:11, 12]

⁷Jesus said to him, “On the other hand, it is written and forever remains written, ‘YOU SHALL NOT TEST THE LORD YOUR GOD.’” [Deut 6:16]

⁸Again, the devil took Him up on a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and the glory [splendor, magnificence, and excellence] of them; ⁹and he said to Him, “All these things I will give You, if You fall down and worship me.”

¹⁰Then Jesus said to him, “Go away, Satan! For it is written and forever remains written, ‘YOU SHALL WORSHIP THE LORD YOUR GOD, AND SERVE HIM ONLY.’” [Deut 6:13]

¹¹Then the devil left Him; and angels came and ministered to Him [bringing Him food and serving Him].

¹²Now when Jesus heard that John [the Baptist] had been arrested and put in prison, He left for Galilee.

¹³And leaving Nazareth, He went and settled in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the country of Zebulun and Naphtali. [Mark 2:1]

¹⁴*This was* to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah:

¹⁵“THE LAND OF ZEBULUN AND THE LAND OF NAPHTALI,
BY THE WAY OF THE SEA, BEYOND THE JORDAN, GALILEE [in the district] OF THE GENTILES— ¹⁶“THE PEOPLE WHO WERE SITTING (living) IN [spiritual] DARKNESS HAVE SEEN A GREAT LIGHT, AND FOR THOSE WHO WERE SITTING (living) IN THE LAND AND SHADOW OF [spiritual and moral] DEATH, UPON

THEM A LIGHT HAS DAWNED.” [Is 9:1, 2]

17From that time Jesus began to preach and say, “Repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, regret past sins, live your life in a way that proves repentance; seek God’s purpose for your life], for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Winning over Temptation

After Jesus endured a forty-day fast, while He was still in a weakened state, Satan approached Him with three temptations. The first temptation pertained to the need for physical sustenance, and the second tried to shake His confidence in God the Father. Then the devil took Jesus to a mountaintop and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world (see Matt. 4:8) and said, in effect, “You can have it all in exchange for one thing: Worship me just once.”

The third temptation was a test to see whether Jesus would act on His own authority without instruction from His Father, but Jesus promptly answered the devil, stating that He would worship the Lord God and serve Him only.

As attractive as the enemy’s offer may have sounded, Jesus never hesitated to obey. The world would be won for God, and it would be won through sacrifice and obedience. The way of the cross would be Jesus’ pathway to victory. Jesus teaches us that His is not always the easy way, but it certainly is the right and best way.

One of the enemy's most subtle lies is, "Just this one time. No one will know." Not only does he tempt you to give in and to receive the things you'd like to have, but he also makes it sound simple and easy. God never works that way. He wants you to have the best, and only the best, but it has to come to you in the right way.

Jesus defeated each temptation because He relied on God's Word for His strength. The devil cannot fight the Word. Finally, Matthew records, "Then the devil left Him; and angels came and ministered to Him [bringing Him food and serving Him]" (Matt. 4:11).

The wisdom to be gleaned from this experience is powerful. Even when you are being tempted, you can be assured that God doesn't leave you. He remains with you to comfort you, to minister to your needs, and to encourage you. Never forget that He is as close to you as the mention of His name. He will never leave you nor forsake you.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord Jesus, thank You for Your victory over the devil. Thank You for standing on God's Word in the midst of every temptation. In Your name, I pray for the wisdom and strength to defeat the same enemy when he tempts me. Amen.

¹⁸As Jesus was walking by the Sea of Galilee, He noticed two brothers, Simon who was called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen.

¹⁹And He said to them, "Follow Me [as My disciples, accepting Me as your Master and Teacher and walking the same path of life that I walk], and I will make you fishers of men."

²⁰Immediately they left their nets and followed Him [becoming His disciples, believing and trusting in Him and following His example].

²¹And going on [further] from there He noticed two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets; and He called them[to follow Him as His disciples].

²²Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him [becoming His disciples, believing and trusting in Him and following His example].

²³And He went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the good news (gospel) of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness among the people [demonstrating and revealing that He was indeed the promised Messiah].

²⁴So the news about Him spread throughout all Syria; and they brought to Him all who were sick, those suffering with various diseases and pains, those under the power of demons, and epileptics, paralytics; and He healed them.

²⁵Large crowds followed Him from Galilee and the Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and the other side of the Jordan.

5 WHEN JESUS saw the crowds, He went up on the mountain; and when He was seated, His disciples came to Him.

²Then He began to teach them, saying,

³“Blessed [spiritually prosperous, happy, to be admired] are the poor in spirit [those devoid of spiritual arrogance, those who regard themselves as insignificant], for theirs is the kingdom of heaven [both now and forever]. [Luke 6:20–23]

⁴“Blessed [forgiven, refreshed by God’s grace] are those who mourn [over their sins and repent], for they will be comforted [when the burden of sin is lifted]. [Is 61:2]

⁵“Blessed [inwardly peaceful, spiritually secure, worthy of respect] are the ^{*}gentle [the kind-hearted, the sweet-spirited, the self-controlled], for they will inherit the earth. [Ps 37:11]

⁷“Blessed [content, sheltered by God’s promises] are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

⁸“Blessed [anticipating God’s presence, spiritually mature] are the pure in heart [those with integrity, moral courage, and godly character], for they will see God. [Ps 24:3, 4]

⁹“Blessed [spiritually calm with life-joy in God’s favor] are the makers and maintainers of peace, for they will [express His character and] be called the sons of God. [Heb 12:14]

10“Blessed [comforted by inner peace and God’s love] are those who are persecuted for ^{*}doing that which is morally right, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven [both now and forever].

POWERPOINT

Jesus calls us to be “makers and maintainers of peace” (Matt. 5:9). When we make and keep peace around us, and when we develop the habit of staying at peace regardless of what happens, people will begin to realize that we belong to God; and we can become very effective witnesses for Him.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, I pray that my light will shine before other people in such a way that they will see my good deeds and moral excellence, and that they will recognize, honor, and glorify You, my Father in heaven.

• adapted from Matthew 5:16

¹¹“Blessed [morally courageous and spiritually alive with life-joy in God’s goodness] are you when people insult you and persecute you, and falsely say all kinds of evil things against you because of [your association with] Me.

¹²“Be glad and exceedingly joyful, for your reward in heaven is great [absolutely inexhaustible]; for in this same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you. [2 Chr 36:16]

¹³“You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt has lost its taste (purpose), how can it be made salty? It is no longer good for anything, but to be thrown out and walked on by people [when the walkways are wet and slippery].

¹⁴“You are the light of [Christ to] the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden;

¹⁵nor does anyone light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. [Mark 4:21; Luke 8:16; 11:33]

¹⁶“Let your light shine before men in such a way that they may see your good deeds and moral excellence, and [recognize and honor and] glorify your Father who is in heaven.

17“Do not think that I came to do away with or undo the Law [of Moses] or the [writings of the] Prophets; I did not come to destroy but to fulfill.

18“For I assure you and most solemnly say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or stroke [of the pen] will pass from the Law until all things [which it foreshadows] are accomplished.

19“So whoever breaks one of the least [important] of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least [important] in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever practices and teaches them, he will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20“For I say to you that unless your righteousness (uprightness, moral essence) is more than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

21“‘You have heard that it was said to the men of old, ‘YOU SHALL NOT MURDER,’ and ‘Whoever murders shall be ^{*}guilty before the court.’ [Ex 20:13; Deut 5:17; 16:18]

22“‘But I say to you that everyone who continues to be angry with his brother or harbors malice against him shall be guilty before the court; and whoever speaks [contemptuously and insultingly] to his brother, Raca (You empty-headed idiot)!’ shall be guilty before the supreme court (Sanhedrin); and whoever says, ‘You fool!’ shall be in danger of the ^{*}fiery hell.

23“‘So if you are presenting your offering at the altar, and while there you remember that your brother has something [such as a grievance or legitimate complaint] against you, 24leave your offering there at the altar and go. First make peace with your brother, and then come and present your offering.

²⁵“Come to terms quickly [at the earliest opportunity] with your opponent at law while you are with him on the way [to court], so that your opponent does not hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you are thrown into prison. [Luke 12:58, 59]

²⁶“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, you will not come out of there until you have paid the last cent.

²⁷“You have heard that it was said, ‘YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY’; [Ex 20:14; Deut 5:18] ²⁸but I say to you that everyone who [so much as] looks at a woman with lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

³¹“It has also been said, ‘WHOEVER DIVORCES HIS WIFE IS TO GIVE HER A CERTIFICATE OF DIVORCE’; ³²but I say to you that whoever divorces his wife, except on grounds of sexual immorality, causes her to commit adultery; and whoever marries a woman who has been divorced commits adultery. [Deut 24:1–4; Luke 16:18]

³³“Again, you have heard that it was said to the men of old, ‘YOU SHALL NOT MAKE FALSE VOWS, BUT YOU SHALL FULFILL YOUR VOWS TO THE LORD [as a religious duty].’

³⁴“But I say to you, do not make an oath at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God;

³⁵or by the earth, for it is the footstool of His feet; or by Jerusalem, for it is THE CITY OF THE GREAT KING. [Ps 48:2; Is 66:1]

³⁶“Nor shall you make an oath by your head, for you are not able to make a single hair white or black.

Speak God's Word

*I will let my "yes" be "yes" and my "no" be "no," a firm yes or no. Anything more than that comes from the evil
one.*

| adapted from MATTHEW 5:37 |

³⁷“But let your statement be, ‘Yes, yes’ or ‘No, no’ [a firm yes or no]; anything more than that comes from the evil one. [Lev 19:12; Num 30:2; Deut 23:21]

³⁸“You have heard that it was said, ‘AN EYE FOR AN EYE, AND A TOOTH FOR A TOOTH [punishment that fits the offense].’ [Ex 21:24; Lev 24:20; Deut 19:21]

³⁹“But I say to you, do not resist an evil person [who insults you or violates your rights]; but whoever slaps you on the right cheek, turn the other toward him also [simply ignore insignificant insults or trivial losses and do not bother to retaliate—maintain your dignity, your self-respect, your poise]. [Luke 6:29, 30; Rom 12:17–21]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Pressing Past the Pain

Any time we seek to please people instead of pleasing God, a mental battle usually takes place. We feel conflict inside when living to please people because we are not living to please God, and we are not being true to ourselves. At times we become people-pleasers because we are insecure due to an emotional wound from abuse, rejection, abandonment, betrayal, disappointment, judgment, or criticism. If you have an emotional wound, Jesus can heal you everywhere you hurt! The Bible teaches that Jesus came to heal our wounds, to bind up and heal our broken hearts, and to give us beauty for ashes and dust and the oil of joy to replace mourning (see Isa. 61:1–3).

To begin to heal, we often need to start making right choices while we are still hurting. This can be difficult and painful. We may have to do the right thing for a long time before we begin to see right results, pressing past our feelings to gain victory. For example, treating someone right who has hurt us seems unfair. After all, why should we be good to someone who has hurt us? Even though it isn't easy, we can choose to do so because Jesus told us to (see Matt. 5:38–44).

If someone has hurt me, and I am bitter about it, I open the door for the pain to continue. Bitterness is a pain in itself. It is a negative attitude that steals joy and peace. However, if I am willing to forgive and begin to pray for and bless those who have hurt me, I will be free (see Matt. 6:14–15).

⁴⁰“If anyone wants to sue you and take your shirt, let him have your coat also [for the Lord repays the offender].

⁴¹“And whoever forces you to go one mile, go with him two.

⁴²“Give to him who asks of you, and do not turn away from him who wants to borrow from you. [Deut 15:8; Prov 24:29]

⁴³“You have heard that it was said, ‘YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR (fellow man) and hate your enemy.’ [Lev 19:18; Ps 139:21, 22]

⁴⁴“But I say to you, love [that is, unselfishly seek the best or higher good for] your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, [Prov 25:21, 22]

⁴⁵so that you may [show yourselves to] be the children of your Father who is in heaven; for He makes His sun rise on those who are evil and on those who are good, and makes the rain fall on the righteous [those who are morally upright] and the unrighteous [the unrepentant, those who oppose Him].

POWERPOINT

Matthew 5:48 commands us to be perfect as our “heavenly Father is perfect.” Until we correctly understand what Jesus is saying here, it may seem intimidating or impossible. The amplification of the verse makes clear what being perfect means: “growing into spiritual maturity both in mind and character, actively integrating godly values into your daily life.” Perfect is not something we attain; it’s something we continually aspire to and grow into. As long as we are growing with a sincere heart and love for God, He is pleased.

⁴⁶“For if you love [only] those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do that?”

47“And if you greet only your brothers [wishing them God’s blessing and peace], what more [than others] are you doing? Do not even the Gentiles [who do not know the Lord] do that?

48“You, therefore, will be perfect [growing into spiritual maturity both in mind and character, actively integrating godly values into your daily life], as your heavenly Father is perfect. [Lev 19:2] 6 “BE [VERY] careful not to do your good deeds publicly, to be seen by men; otherwise you will have no reward [prepared and awaiting you] with your Father who is in heaven.

2“So whenever you give to the poor and do acts of kindness, do not blow a trumpet before you [to advertise it], as the hypocrites do [like actors acting out a role] in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be honored and recognized and praised by men. I assure you and most solemnly say to you, they [already] have their reward in full.

3“But when you give to the poor and do acts of kindness, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing [give in complete secrecy], 4so that your charitable acts will be done in secret; and your Father who sees [what is done] in secret will reward you.

5“Also, when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites; for they love to pray [publicly] standing in the synagogues and on the corners of the streets so that they may be seen by men. I assure you and most solemnly say to you, they [already] have their reward in full.

6“But when you pray, go into your most private room, close the door and pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees [what is done] in secret will reward you.

7“And when you pray, do not use meaningless repetition as the Gentiles do, for they think they will be heard because of their many words. [1 Kin 18:25–29]

8“So do not be like them [praying as they do]; for your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.

9“Pray, then, in this way:

‘Our Father who is in heaven,

Hallowed be Your name. [Luke 11:2–4]

10‘Your kingdom come,

Your will be done

On earth as it is in heaven.

11‘Give us this day our daily bread.

12‘And forgive us our debts, as we have forgiven our debtors [letting go of both the wrong and the resentment].

13‘And do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from evil. [For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.]’ [Luke 11:2–4] 14“For if you forgive others their trespasses [their reckless and willful sins], your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

15“‘But if you do not forgive others [nurturing your hurt and anger with the result that it interferes with your relationship with God], then your Father will not forgive your trespasses.

16“‘And whenever you are fasting, do not look gloomy like the hypocrites, for they put on a sad and dismal face [like actors, discoloring their faces with ashes or dirt] so that their fasting may be seen by men. I assure you and most solemnly say to you, they [already] have their reward in full. [Is 58:5]

Speak God's Word

I will stop being worried or anxious about my life, as to what I will eat or what I will drink; nor about my body, as to what I will wear. Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing.

| adapted from MATTHEW 6:25 |

¹⁷“But when you fast, put oil on your head [as you normally would to groom your hair] and wash your face

¹⁸so that your fasting will not be noticed by people, but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees [what is done] in secret will reward you.

¹⁹“Do not store up for yourselves [material] treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal.

²⁰“But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in and steal;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Forgiveness Fosters Intimacy with God

Many people decide that forgiving those who have hurt them is just too hard, so they refuse to do it. Indeed, forgiving is difficult! But in making the decision not to forgive, they are making one of the most serious mistakes they can possibly make. Why is it so serious? Because not forgiving those who have sinned against us hinders our intimacy with God. Matthew 6:14–15 clearly states that if we don't forgive others, God will not forgive us our sins and iniquities. If our sins stand between us and God, we will struggle to hear His voice and feel His presence. I firmly believe that harboring unforgiveness steals our peace and our joy. It affects our health negatively and robs us of our general well-being.

The enemy will attempt to trap you in unforgiveness in order to damage your relationship with God. God wants you to forgive those who have hurt you so you can stay close to Him, find freedom, and move forward in the great plan He has for your life.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Don't Worry, Seek God

Any time we are tempted to be worried or anxious, especially concerning provision for our everyday needs, we can find help and encouragement in Matthew 6:25–33.

In verse 25, Jesus specifically instructs us to stop being perpetually uneasy, anxious, and worried. The fact that He gives such precise instruction is reason enough for us to quit torturing ourselves with negative thoughts and feelings. When we do, we are not only harming ourselves, we are also disobeying one of God's commands.

In verses 26–29, just after Jesus says to stop worrying, He offers a powerful illustration of what it's like to live without anxiety about our daily needs. All we have to do is notice how God continually feeds the birds of the air and how beautifully He keeps the lilies of the field.

Have you ever seen a bird have a nervous breakdown or a flower droop its head with worry? Of course not! Birds and flowers do not worry about getting their needs met. Just as God feeds the birds and clothes the flowers of the field, so He will provide for those who put their faith in Him. We can trust Him for everything we need.

Jesus goes on in verse 30 to assure us that we are of such greater value to God than a blade of grass, and yet He takes care of the grass. How much more will He take care of us, His beloved children?

As Jesus continues His teaching in verses 31–32, He says we should not be anxious about our physical needs because we can find hope, peace, and confidence in the fact that God knows exactly what we need, and He promises to provide for us. When we take Matthew 6:25–32 seriously and believe the truth of this passage, we realize there truly is no reason to worry about anything.

Jesus does not stop with simply saying not to worry and making sure we know that God will provide for us. He goes on to tell us how to use the energy we might have invested in being anxious. Instead of worrying, He says that if we will seek God's Kingdom and His righteousness first, everything else we need will be provided (see Matt. 6:33).

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Help me, God, not to worry about anything, but to trust You in everything. Because You love me, You will take care of me. I trust You. In Jesus' name. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Seek God's Kingdom First

Seeking God's Kingdom first is the key to living in the peace of the Lord. To seek God's Kingdom simply means to seek to know God and His ways. We are to seek (crave, pursue, and go after) God's Kingdom and His righteousness over all other things. Then everything else we need will be given to us as well (see Matt. 6:33). As believers, you and I are to seek Him rather than the fulfillment of our needs.

Matthew 6:33 not only says to seek God's Kingdom and His righteousness, but to seek His Kingdom and His righteousness "first." This means that when we have a problem, we are to run to God first. When we have a financial need, we first ask Him to meet it before doing anything else. When we have a relational problem, we seek the Holy Spirit's counsel before we talk to other people. Seeking God also means giving Him the first part of our resources and our time. When we seek God first, He will take care of everything else that concerns us.

²¹for where your treasure is, there your heart [your wishes, your desires; that on which your life centers] will be also.

²²"The eye is the lamp of the body; so if your eye is clear [spiritually perceptive], your whole body will be full of light [benefiting from God's precepts].

²³"But if your eye is bad [spiritually blind], your whole body will be full of darkness [devoid of God's precepts]. So if the [very] light inside you [your inner self, your heart, your conscience] is darkness, how great and terrible is that darkness!

²⁴“No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon [money, possessions, fame, status, or whatever is valued more than the Lord].

²⁵“Therefore I tell you, stop being worried or anxious (perpetually uneasy, distracted) about your life, as to what you will eat or what you will drink; nor about your body, as to what you will wear. Is life not more than food, and the body more than clothing? [Luke 12:22–31]

²⁶“Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow [seed] nor reap [the harvest] nor gather [the crops] into barns, and yet your heavenly Father keeps feeding them. Are you not worth much more than they?

²⁷“And who of you by worrying can add one hour to [the length of] his life? [Ps 39:5–7]

²⁸“And why are you worried about clothes? See how the lilies and wildflowers of the field grow; they do not labor nor do they spin [wool to make clothing], ²⁹yet I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory and splendor dressed himself like one of these. [1 Kin 10:4–7]

³⁰“But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive and green today and tomorrow is [cut and] thrown [as fuel] into the furnace, will He not much more clothe you? You of little faith!

Speak God's Word

I will seek first God's Kingdom and His righteousness. Then everything else I need will be given to me also.

| adapted from MATTHEW 6:33 |

³¹“Therefore do not worry or be anxious (perpetually uneasy, distracted), saying, ‘What are we going to eat?’ or ‘What are we going to drink?’ or ‘What are we going to wear?’

³²“For the [pagan] Gentiles eagerly seek all these things; [but do not worry,] for your heavenly Father knows that you need them.

³³“But first and most importantly seek (aim at, strive after) His kingdom and His righteousness [His way of doing and being right—the attitude and character of God], and all these things will be given to you also.

³⁴“So do not worry about tomorrow; for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

1 “DO NOT judge and criticize and condemn [others unfairly with an attitude of self-righteous superiority as though assuming the office of a judge], so that you will not be judged [unfairly].

²“For just as you [hypocritically] judge others [when you are sinful and unrepentant], so will you be judged; and in accordance with your standard of measure [used to pass out judgment], judgment will be measured to you.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

When I ask and keep on asking, it will be given to me; when I seek and keep on seeking, I will find; when I knock and keep on knocking, the door will be opened to me. For everyone who keeps on asking receives, and he who keeps on seeking finds, and to him who keeps on knocking, it will be opened.

• adapted from Matthew 7:7–8

³“Why do you look at the [insignificant] speck that is in your brother’s eye, but do not notice and acknowledge the [egregious] log that is in your own eye?

⁴“Or how can you say to your brother, ‘Let me get the speck out of your eye,’ when there is a log in your own eye?

⁵“You hypocrite (play-actor, pretender), first get the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother’s eye.

⁶“Do not give that which is holy to dogs, and do not throw your pearls before pigs, for they will trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Judgment Opens a Door to the Enemy

In my Bible, I have written next to Matthew 7:6 that I believe “that which is holy” is love. It’s very important to God that we love and think well of one another (see John 15:12; Phil. 2:3). This is why we need to learn not to be critical or judgmental toward one another.

In Matthew 7:4–5, Jesus is saying that we need to focus less on what we think is wrong with other people and more about what may be wrong in us. These words were true when Jesus first spoke them, and they are still true for us today, offering good advice for us to follow, especially since judging others opens a door for the enemy’s attack. When we judge and criticize people, we allow the enemy access to our lives by casting the holy thing (love) before pigs and dogs (the enemy’s forces) (see v. 6).

One of the best pieces of advice I have learned when tempted to judge is this: “Anywhere you don’t have a responsibility, it’s smart not to offer an opinion.”

When we refrain from judging others, we deny the enemy an opportunity to influence us.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Live the Golden Rule

As children many of us learned to recite “the golden rule”: “treat others the same way you want them to treat you” (Matt. 7:12). If you want respect, treat people with respect. If you want people to be patient with you, be patient with people. If you want people to forgive you, be quick to forgive. We learned this rule as children, but do we practice it as adults?

As a Spirit-filled believer, you can be the one to take the initiative to treat people the way you want to be treated, not the way they treat you. Don't wait for someone else to do what is right; be the one who does what is right first. Learning how to treat people well will dramatically change your life.

⁷“Ask and keep on asking and it will be given to you; seek and keep on seeking and you will find; knock and keep on knocking and the door will be opened to you. [Luke 11:9–13]

⁸“For everyone who keeps on asking receives, and he who keeps on seeking finds, and to him who keeps on knocking, it will be opened.

⁹“Or what man is there among you who, if his son asks for bread, will [instead] give him a stone?

¹⁰“Or if he asks for a fish, will [instead] give him a snake?

¹¹“If you then, evil (sinful by nature) as you are, know how to give good and advantageous gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven [perfect as He is] give what is good and advantageous to those who keep on asking Him.

¹²“So then, in everything treat others the same way you want them to treat you, for this is [the essence of] the Law and the [writings of the] Prophets.

¹³“Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad and easy to travel is the path that leads the way to destruction and eternal loss, and there are many who enter through it.

¹⁴“But small is the gate and narrow and difficult to travel is the path that leads the way to [everlasting] life, and there are few who find it. [Deut 30:19; Jer 21:8]

¹⁵“Beware of the false prophets, [teachers] who come to you dressed as sheep [appearing gentle and innocent], but inwardly are ravenous wolves. [Ezek 22:27]

¹⁶“By their fruit you will recognize them [that is, by their contrived doctrine and self-focus]. Do people pick grapes from thorn bushes or figs from thistles? [Luke 6:43, 44]

¹⁷“Even so, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the unhealthy tree bears bad fruit.

POWERPOINT

To have a house built on the rock (see Matt. 7:24–25) means to live a life that is steady and unshakable, one that cannot be moved when the inevitable storms of life blow against it.

The house of our lives is not built upon the rock because we hear the Word of God. It's built upon the rock because we obey God's Word.

¹⁸“A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit.

¹⁹“Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

²⁰“Therefore, by their fruit you will recognize them [as false prophets].

²¹“Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven.

22“Many will say to Me on that day [when I judge them], ‘Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, and driven out demons in Your name, and done many miracles in Your name?’

23“And then I will declare to them publicly, ‘I never knew you; DEPART FROM ME [you are banished from My presence], YOU WHO ACT WICKEDLY [disregarding My commands].’ [Ps 6:8]

24“So everyone who hears these words of Mine and acts on them, will be like a wise man [a far-sighted, practical, and sensible man] who built his house on the rock. [Luke 6:47–49]

25“And the rain fell, and the floods and torrents came, and the winds blew and slammed against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock.

26“And everyone who hears these words of Mine and does not do them, will be like a foolish (stupid) man who built his house on the sand.

27“And the rain fell, and the floods and torrents came, and the winds blew and slammed against that house; and it fell—and great and complete was its fall.”

28When Jesus had finished [speaking] these words [on the mountain], the crowds were astonished and overwhelmed at His teaching;

29for He was teaching them as one who had authority [to teach entirely of His own volition], and not as their scribes [who relied on others to confirm their authority].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Worship First

In Matthew 8:2, the leper needed healing and presented Jesus with a simple, straightforward observation: "Lord, if You are willing, You are able to make me clean (well)." But before he asked Jesus to heal him, he "bowed down before Him." In other words, he worshiped Jesus before asking Him to meet his need.

People often go to Jesus for healing, freedom, a breakthrough, or some other divine intervention, and the first words they speak are about what they want from Him. They immediately begin praying, "Lord, I need healing. I can't stand this pain anymore." Or, "Lord, I have to get a check in the mail. You know I can't pay the utility bill." Or, "Lord, I can't handle the stress of this situation anymore. You've got to do something!"

The story of the leper includes a strong message we can easily overlook: We need to worship God for Who He is before we ask Him to do anything for us. In our prayers, praise needs to come before petition.

The Bible teaches that we are to ask God for what we need, but we miss so much in our relationship with God if we start making requests right away and skip the privilege of praising and worshipping Him, thanking Him in advance for hearing and answering our prayers.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Faith, Not Fear

Jesus said to the centurion, “Go; it will be done for you as you have believed” (Matt. 8:13). These words contain a powerful lesson for us today: We will have what we believe. Whatever we believe in our hearts and think on in our minds may well manifest in our lives. In other words, our beliefs have creative power. Let me illustrate this by using faith and fear.

By faith, God created the world we live in. By faith, Sarah conceived and gave birth to a child, even though she was far past childbearing age. By faith, Samson killed a thousand men with only a donkey’s jawbone. Throughout history, people of God sang His praises by faith while being persecuted or even burned at the stake.

Faith is leaning entirely on God “with absolute confidence in His power, wisdom, and goodness” (Col. 1:4). Faith believes that something good will happen. It believes that God can do what would otherwise be impossible. Faith trusts God for what it cannot yet see. Faith contains creative power.

Just as faith has creative power, fear does too. Fear believes that something bad will happen. Most of us have seen that when someone consistently thinks something negative will take place, it usually does. Quite often I would learn about a bad situation in someone's life and later hear them say, "I was afraid this was going to happen."

I am not suggesting that we are in danger every time a fear presents itself. I simply believe that when a person persists in thinking and saying that bad things are going to happen to them, they often do. Fearful thoughts and words can block our ability to hear from God, causing us to act foolishly because fear keeps us from being able to receive and follow His wisdom.

To live victoriously, we need to be led by God, which requires being led by faith, not led by fear. We receive God's promises through faith. We allow the enemy to work in our lives when we live in fear.

Let me encourage you to ask yourself what you believe in every area of your life. Are you believing for good things, or are you fearful that bad things will happen? Believe that God's power is in you and that God is working in your life right now!

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Heavenly Father, You call me to live in faith, not fear. I choose today to develop a mind-set of faith, believing for good things to happen. Help me not to live in fear; but to always trust Your goodness and Your love. In Jesus' name. Amen.

8 WHEN JESUS came down from the mountain, large crowds followed Him.

²And a leper came up to Him and bowed down before Him, saying, “Lord, if You are willing, You are able to make me clean (well).” [Mark 1:40–44; Luke 5:12–14]

³Jesus reached out His hand and touched him, saying, “I am willing; be cleansed.” Immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

⁴And Jesus said to him, “See that you tell no one [about this]; but go, show yourself to the priest [for inspection] and present the offering that Moses commanded, as a testimony (evidence) to them [of your healing].” [Lev 14:2]

⁵As Jesus went into Capernaum, a centurion came up to Him, begging Him [for help], [Luke 7:1–10]

⁶and saying, “Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, with intense and terrible, tormenting pain.”

⁷Jesus said to him, “I will come and heal him.”

⁸But the centurion replied to Him, “Lord, I am not worthy to have You come under my roof, but only say the word, and my servant will be healed.

⁹“For I also am a man subject to authority [of a higher rank], with soldiers subject to me; and I say to one, ‘Go!’ and he goes, and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes, and to my slave, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.”

¹⁰When Jesus heard this, He was amazed and said to those who were following Him, “I tell you truthfully, I have not found such great faith [as this] with anyone in Israel.

¹¹“I say to you that many [Gentiles] will come from east and west, and will sit down [to feast at the table, and enjoy God’s promises] with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven [because they accepted Me as Savior], ¹²while the sons and heirs of the kingdom [the descendants of Abraham who will not recognize Me as Messiah] will be thrown out into the outer darkness; in that place [which is farthest removed from the kingdom] there will be weeping [in sorrow and pain] and grinding of teeth [in distress and anger].” [Ps 107:2, 3; Is 49:12; 59:19; Mal 1:11]

¹³Then Jesus said to the centurion, “Go; it will be done for you as you have believed.” And the servant was restored to health at that very hour.

¹⁴When Jesus went into Peter’s house [in Capernaum], He saw Peter’s mother-in-law lying sick in bed with a fever. [Mark 1:29–34; Luke 4:38–41]

¹⁵He touched her hand and the fever left her; and she got up and served Him.

¹⁶When evening came, they brought to Him many who were under the power of demons; and He cast out the evil spirits with a word, and restored to health all who were sick [exhibiting His authority as Messiah], ¹⁷so that He fulfilled what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah: “HE HIMSELF TOOK OUR INFIRMITIES [upon Himself] AND CARRIED AWAY OUR DISEASES.” [Is 53:4]

¹⁸Now when Jesus saw a crowd around Him, He gave orders to cast off for the other side of the Sea of Galilee.

¹⁹Then [on His way to board the boat] a scribe [who was a respected and authoritative interpreter of the Law] came and said to Him, “Master, I will accompany You [as Your student] wherever You go.” [Luke 9:57–60]

²⁰Jesus replied to him, “Foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head.” [Dan 7:13; Mark 8:31, 38; Luke 12:8; John 1:51; Acts 7:56]

²¹Another of the disciples said to Him, “Lord, let me first go and bury my father (collect my inheritance).” [Luke 9:59, 60]

²²But Jesus said to him, “Follow Me [believing in Me as Master and Teacher], and allow the [spiritually] dead to bury their own dead.”

²³When He got into the boat, His disciples followed Him. [Mark 4:36–41; Luke 8:22–25]

²⁴And suddenly a violent storm arose on the sea, so that the boat was being covered by the waves; but Jesus was sleeping.

²⁵And the disciples went and woke Him, saying, “Lord, save us, we are going to die!”

²⁶He said to them, “Why are you afraid, you men of little faith?” Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was [at once] a great and wonderful calm [a perfect peacefulness].

²⁷The men wondered in amazement, saying, “What kind of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?”

²⁸When He arrived at the other side in the country of the Gadarenes, two demon-possessed men coming out of the tombs met Him. They were so extremely fierce and violent that no one could pass by that way. [Mark 5:1–17; Luke 8:26–37]

²⁹And they screamed out, “What business do we have [in common] with each other, Son of God? Have You come to torment us before the appointed time [of judgment]?” [Judg 11:12; 2 Sam 16:10; Matt 25:41; Mark 5:7; Luke 4:34; Rev 20:10]

³⁰Some distance from them a large herd of pigs was grazing.

³¹The demons began begging Him, “If You drive us out, send us into the herd of pigs.”

³²And He said to them, “Go!” So they came out [of the men] and went into the pigs, and the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and died in the water.

³³The herdsmen ran away, and went to the city and reported everything, including what had happened to the men under the power of demons.

³⁴And the whole city came out to meet Jesus; and as soon as they saw Him, they begged Him to leave their region.

9 AND JESUS, getting into a boat, crossed over the Sea of Galilee and came to [Capernaum] His own city.

²They brought to Him a man who was paralyzed, lying on a stretcher. Seeing their [active] faith [springing from confidence in Him], Jesus said to the paralytic, “Do not be afraid, son; your sins are forgiven [the penalty is paid, the guilt removed, and you are declared to be in right standing with God].” [Mark 2:3–12; Luke 5:18–26]

³And some of the scribes said to themselves, “This man blasphemes [by claiming the rights and prerogatives of God]!”

⁴But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, “Why do you think evil in your hearts?

⁵“For which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven and the penalty paid,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’? [Both are possible for God; both are impossible for man.]

⁶“But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority and the power on earth to forgive sins”—then He said to the paralytic, “Get up, pick up your stretcher and go home.”

⁷And he got up and went home [healed and forgiven].

⁸When the crowds saw this, they were awestruck, and glorified God and praised Him, who had given such authority and power to men.

⁹As Jesus went on from there, He saw a man named Matthew (Levi) sitting in the tax collector’s booth; and He said to him, “Follow Me [as My disciple, accepting Me as your Master and Teacher and walking the same path of life that I walk].” And Matthew got up and followed Him. [Mark 2:14–22; Luke 5:27–39]

¹⁰Then as Jesus was reclining at the table in Matthew’s house, many tax collectors and sinners [including non-observant Jews] came and ate with Him and His disciples.

¹¹When the Pharisees saw this, they asked His disciples, “Why does your Master eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

¹²But when Jesus heard this, He said, “Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but [only] those who are sick.

¹³“Go and learn what this [Scripture] means: ‘I DESIRE COMPASSION [for those in distress], AND NOT [animal] SACRIFICE,’ for I did not come to call [to repentance] the [self-proclaimed] righteous [who see no need to change], but sinners [those who recognize their sin and actively seek forgiveness].” [Hos 6:6; Mark 2:17; Luke 5:32]

¹⁴Then the disciples of John [the Baptist] came to Jesus, asking, “Why do we and the Pharisees often fast [as a religious exercise], but Your disciples do not fast?”

¹⁵And Jesus replied to them, “Can the guests of the bridegroom mourn while the bridegroom is with them? The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast.

¹⁶“But no one puts a piece of unshrunk (new) cloth on an old garment; for the patch pulls away from the garment, and a worse tear results.

¹⁸While He was saying these things to them, a ruler (synagogue official) entered [the house] and kneeled down and worshiped Him, saying, “My daughter has just now died; but come and lay Your hand on her, and she will live.” [Mark 5:22–43; Luke 8:41–56]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Think and Talk Yourself into Victory

How do our thoughts and words affect our habits? In my opinion, they are the starting point for breaking all bad habits and forming all good habits. In fact, thinking and speaking negatively is a bad habit in itself—and it's one we need to break by beginning to think and speak positively.

You can literally think and talk yourself into victory or defeat. Not only do you have the things you think and say, but you can also have anything God says you can have in His Word. Jesus told people they would have what they believed, even sight for the blind men (see Matt. 9:27–30). They simply had to believe—to renew their minds to think as God thinks (see Rom. 12:2; Col. 3:10)—and they would receive the blessings God wanted them to have. So can you!

¹⁹Jesus got up and began to accompany the ruler, with His disciples.

²⁰Then a woman who had suffered from a hemorrhage for twelve years came up behind Him and touched the [tassel] fringe of His outer robe; [Matt 14:36]

²¹for she had been saying to herself, “If I only touch His outer robe, I will be healed.”

²²But Jesus turning and seeing her said, “Take courage, daughter; your [personal trust and confident] faith [in Me] has made you well.” And at once the woman was [completely] healed.

²³When Jesus came to the ruler’s house, and saw the flute players [who were professional, hired mourners] and the [grieving] crowd making an uproar, ²⁴He said, “Go away; for the girl is not dead, but is sleeping.” And they laughed and jeered at Him.

²⁵But when the crowd had been sent outside, Jesus went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up.

²⁶And the news about this spread throughout all that district.

²⁷As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed Him, screaming loudly, “Have mercy and compassion on us, Son of David (Messiah)!”

²⁸When He went into the house, the blind men came up to Him, and Jesus said to them, “Do you believe [with a deep, abiding trust] that I am able to do this?” They said to Him, “Yes, Lord.”

²⁹Then He touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith [your trust and confidence in My power and My ability to heal] it will be done to you.”

³⁰And their eyes were opened. And Jesus sternly warned them: “See that no one knows this!”

³¹But they went out and spread the news about Him throughout that whole district.

³²While they were going away, a mute, demon-possessed man was brought to Jesus.

³³And when the demon was driven out [by Jesus], the mute man spoke; and the crowds wondered in amazement, saying, “Never before has anything like this [miracle] been seen in Israel.”

³⁴But the Pharisees were saying, “He casts out the demons by [the power of] the ruler of demons.”

³⁵Jesus went throughout all the cities and villages [in Galilee], teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news (gospel) of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness [His words and His works reflecting His Messiahship].

³⁶When He saw the crowds, He was moved with compassion and pity for them, because they were dispirited and distressed, like sheep without a shepherd. [Zech 10:2]

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

How To Deal with Criticism

Everyone who is successful in life has to deal with criticism from time to time. Occasionally, being criticized can lead to a battle in our minds because we may wonder for a moment if the one criticizing us is right in some way. We need to understand that people judge and criticize for various reasons that are more often associated with who they are than with who we are or what we are doing. Sometimes people criticize us because they do not understand our hopes, dreams, or the ways we go about reaching our goals. At other times they become critical because they cannot see what we see, do not understand what we know, or have not been through what we have experienced. At still other times, people speak critically against us because they are simply jealous of us. Whatever the source, criticism can be painful. Learning to deal with it in a godly way is a great testimony to the people around us.

In Matthew 10:14, Jesus teaches the disciples how to handle the criticism they faced from people who rejected their message. His advice: “Shake it off.” He said, “Whoever does not welcome you, nor listen to your message, as you leave that house or city, shake the dust [of it] off your feet [in contempt, breaking all ties].”

Jesus Himself was often criticized, and He usually ignored it (see Matt. 27:11–12). Often the best way to respond to criticism is to say nothing and to keep moving forward. If you must deal with it for some reason, here are some suggestions for handling it in a godly way:

- ◆ Don't be defensive. God is your defense and your vindicator.
- ◆ Don't become angry or upset. Keep your peace.
- ◆ Don't fall into the trap of pride and wonder how that person could possibly find anything to criticize in you.
- ◆ Don't retaliate with criticism against your criticizer.
- ◆ Don't assume the criticism is wrong without being willing to examine yourself.
- ◆ Don't assume the criticism is right and feel guilty without consulting God.
- ◆ Forgive your criticizer completely.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Thank You, God, that You are always for me and never against me. You will not criticize me. If I am not doing something in a way that pleases You, I can trust Your Holy Spirit to guide me to change. In Jesus' name. Amen.

³⁷Then He said to His disciples, “The harvest is [indeed] plentiful, but the workers are few.

³⁸“So pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest.”

10 JESUS SUMMONED His twelve disciples and gave them authority and power over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every kind of disease and every kind of sickness. [Mark 6:7; Luke 9:1]

²Now these are the names of the twelve apostles (special messengers, personally chosen representatives): first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew, his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; [Mark 3:16–19; Luke 6:13–16]

³Philip and Bartholomew (Nathanael); Thomas and Matthew (Levi) the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus (Judas, not Iscariot); ⁴Simon the Cananaean (Zealot), and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed Him.

⁵Jesus sent out these twelve, instructing them: “Do not go among the Gentiles, and do not go into a city of the Samaritans; ⁶but rather go to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

⁷“And as you go, preach, saying, ‘The kingdom of heaven is at hand.’

⁸“Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give.

⁹“Do not take gold, or silver, or [even] copper money in your money belt, ¹⁰or a provision bag for your journey, or even two tunics, or sandals, or a staff; for the worker deserves his support.

¹¹“Whatever city or village you enter, ask who in it is worthy [who welcomes you and your message], and stay at his house until you leave [that city].

¹²“As you go into the house, give it your greeting [that is, ‘Peace be to this house’].

¹³“If [the family living in] the house is worthy [welcoming you and your message], give it your [blessing of] peace [that is, a blessing of well-being and prosperity, the favor of God]. But if it is not worthy, take back your blessing of peace.

POWERPOINT

A balanced attitude is always the best policy. We are to always use wisdom and discernment in our dealings with others. In fact, we are to be “wise as serpents, and innocent as doves” (Matt. 10:16). We don’t have to totally open our hearts to everyone we meet without using any caution. On the other hand, we don’t have to look at everyone with a negative, suspicious eye, always expecting them to take advantage of us. We can be wise and innocent at the same time.

¹⁴“Whoever does not welcome you, nor listen to your message, as you leave that house or city, shake the dust [of it] off your feet [in contempt, breaking all ties]. [Mark 6:11; Acts 13:51]

¹⁵“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, it will be more tolerable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah than for that city [since it rejected the Messiah’s messenger].

¹⁷“Beware of men [whose nature is to act in opposition to God], for they will hand you over to the courts and flog you in their synagogues;

¹⁸and you will be brought before governors and kings for My sake, as witnesses to them and to the Gentiles.

¹⁹“But when they hand you over, do not worry about how or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given you within that [very] hour; [Mark 13:11–13; Luke 21:12–19]

²⁰for it is not you speaking, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

²¹“Brother will betray brother to death, and the father his child; and children will rise up and rebel against their parents and cause them to be put death.

²²“And you will be hated by everyone because of [your association with] My name, but it is the one who has patiently persevered and endured to the end who will be saved.

²³“When they persecute you in one city [because of your faith in Me], flee to the next; for I assure you and most solemnly say to you, you will not finish going through all the cities of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

25“It is enough for the disciple to be like his teacher, and the bond-servant like his master. If they have called the head of the house Beelzebul (Satan), how much more [will they speak evil of] the members of his household. [2 Kin 1:2]

26“So do not be afraid of them, for nothing is hidden that will not be revealed [at the judgment], or kept secret that will not be made known [at the judgment]. [Mark 4:22; Luke 12:2–9]

27“What I say to you in the dark (privately), tell in the light (publicly); and what you hear whispered in your ear, proclaim from the housetops [to many people].

28“Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; but rather be afraid of Him who can destroy both soul and body in hell.

29“Are not two little sparrows sold for a copper coin? And yet not one of them falls to the ground apart from your Father’s will.

30“But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered [for the Father is sovereign and has complete knowledge].

31“So do not fear; you are more valuable than many sparrows.

32“Therefore, the one who confesses and acknowledges Me before men [as Lord and Savior, affirming a state of oneness with Me], that one I will also confess and acknowledge before My Father who is in heaven.

33“But the one who denies and rejects Me before men, that one I will also deny and reject before My Father who is in heaven.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*Thank You, Lord, for the way
You care about me. The very hairs of my head are all numbered, for You are sovereign and have complete knowledge.*

• adapted from Matthew 10:30

34“Do not think that I have come to bring peace on the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword [of division between belief and unbelief]. [Luke 12:51–53]

35“For I have come to SET A MAN AGAINST HIS FATHER, AND A DAUGHTER AGAINST HER MOTHER, AND A DAUGHTER-IN-LAW AGAINST HER MOTHER-IN-LAW; 36and A MAN’S ENEMIES WILL BE THE MEMBERS OF HIS [own] HOUSEHOLD [when one believes and another does not]. [Mic 7:6]

37“He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me; and he who loves son or daughter more than

Me is not worthy of Me. [Luke 14:26]

³⁸“And he who does not take his cross [expressing a willingness to endure whatever may come] and follow Me [believing in Me, conforming to My example in living and, if need be, suffering or perhaps dying because of faith in Me] is not worthy of Me.

³⁹“Whoever finds his life [in this world] will [eventually] lose it [through death], and whoever loses his life [in this world] for My sake will find it [that is, life with Me for all eternity]. [Matt 16:25; Mark 8:35; Luke 9:24; 17:33; John 12:25]

⁴⁰“He who receives and welcomes you receives Me, and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me. [Mark 9:37; Luke 10:16; John 13:20]

⁴²“And whoever gives to one of these little ones [these who are humble in rank or influence] even a cup of cold water to drink because he is my disciple, truly I say to you, he will not lose his reward.”

11 WHEN JESUS had finished giving instructions to His twelve disciples, He went on from there to teach and to preach in their [Galilean] cities.

²Now when John [the Baptist] in prison heard about the activities of Christ, he sent word by his disciples [Luke 7:18–35]

³and asked Him, “Are You the Expected One (the Messiah), or should we look for someone else [who will be the promised One]?” [Gen 49:10; Num 24:17; Ps 40:7; 118:26; Is 59:20]

⁴Jesus answered, “Go and report to John what you hear and see:

⁵the BLIND RECEIVE [their] SIGHT and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed [by healing] and the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the POOR HAVE THE GOSPEL PREACHED TO THEM. [Is 35:5, 6; 61:1]

⁶“And blessed [joyful, favored by God] is he who does not take offense at Me [accepting Me as the Messiah and trusting confidently in My message of salvation].” [Luke 7:23]

⁷As these men were going away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out in the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind [which is commonplace]?

⁸“What did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing [entirely unsuited for the harsh desert]? Those who wear soft clothing are in the palaces of kings!

⁹“But what did you [really] go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and one [more eminent, more remarkable, and] far more than a prophet [who foretells the future].

¹⁰“This is the one of whom it is written [by the prophet Malachi],

‘BEHOLD, I SEND MY MESSENGER AHEAD OF YOU, WHO WILL PREPARE YOUR WAY BEFORE YOU.’ [Mal 3:1]

¹¹“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, among those born of women there has not risen anyone greater than John the Baptist; yet the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater [in privilege] than he.

¹²“From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violent assault, and violent men seize it by force [as a precious prize].

¹³“For all the prophets and the Law prophesied up until John.

¹⁴“And if you are willing to accept it, John himself is [the fulfillment of] Elijah [as the messenger] who was to come [before the kingdom]. [Mal 4:5] ¹⁵“He who has ears to hear, let him hear and heed My words.

¹⁶“But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like little children sitting in the market places, who call to the others, ¹⁷and say ‘We piped the flute for you [playing wedding], and you did not dance; we wailed sad dirges [playing funeral], and you did not mourn and cry aloud.’

¹⁸“For John came neither eating nor drinking [with others], and they say, ‘He has a demon!’

²⁰Then He began to denounce [the people in] the cities in which most of His miracles were done, because they did not repent [and change their hearts and lives].

²¹“Woe (judgment is coming) to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon [cities of the Gentiles], they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes [their hearts would have been changed and they would have expressed sorrow for their sin and rebellion against God].

²²“Nevertheless I say to you, it will be more tolerable for [the pagan cities of] Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you.

POWERPOINT

If I were to paraphrase Matthew 11:28, I would say something like this: “It’s time to step off the treadmill of performance and acceptance, trying to earn your way into My love and favor. Just come to Me. Trust My love for you and be assured that you are not accepted because of what you can do, but because of what I have done for you. Breathe a sigh of relief, don’t stress out over your faults; just relax.”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Living Freely and Lightly

In The Message version of Matthew 11:29–30, Jesus says, “Come to me.... Learn the unforced rhythms of grace. I won’t lay anything heavy or ill-fitting on you. Keep company with me and you’ll learn to live freely and lightly.”

Living “freely and lightly” in the “unforced rhythms of grace” sounds good, doesn’t it? I’m sure you have had enough heavy burdens in your life; I have too, and I have learned the importance of enjoying the freedom Jesus offers us. It’s nice to know you don’t have to worry about things, figure out everything, or carry the burdens in your life. It is actually quite refreshing when I realize I don’t need to know everything about everything!

We need to become comfortable with saying, “I don’t know the answer to this dilemma, and I’m not going to worry about anything because God is in control. I trust Him. I’m going to rest in Him and live freely and lightly!”

²³“And you, Capernaum, are you to be exalted to heaven [for your apathy and unresponsiveness]? You will descend to Hades (the realm of the dead); for if the miracles done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

²⁴“But I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom on the day of judgment, than for you.”

²⁵At that time Jesus said, “I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth [I openly and joyfully acknowledge Your great wisdom], that You have hidden these things [these spiritual truths] from the wise and intelligent and revealed them to infants [to new believers, to those seeking God’s will and purpose].

²⁶“Yes, Father, for this way was well-pleasing in Your sight.

²⁷“All things have been handed over to Me by My Father; and no one fully knows and accurately understands the Son except the Father; and no one fully knows and accurately understands the Father except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son [deliberately] wills to reveal Him.

²⁸“Come to Me, all who are weary and heavily burdened [by religious rituals that provide no peace], and I will give you rest [refreshing your souls with salvation].

²⁹“Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me [following Me as My disciple], for I am gentle and humble in heart, and YOU WILL FIND REST (renewal, blessed quiet) FOR YOUR SOULS. [Jer 6:16]

³⁰“For My yoke is easy [to bear] and My burden is light.”

12 AT THAT particular time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath, and His disciples were hungry and began to pick the heads of grain and eat them. [Deut 23:25; Mark 2:23–28; Luke 6:1–5]

²But when the Pharisees saw this, they said to Him, “Look! Your disciples are doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath.” [Ex 20:10; 23:12; Deut 5:14]

³He said to them, “Have you not read [in the Scriptures] what David did when he was hungry, he and those who accompanied him—[Lev 24:9; 1 Sam 21:1–6]

⁴how he went into the house of God, and they ate the consecrated bread, which was not lawful for him to eat nor for those with him, but for the priests only?

⁵“Or have you not read in the Law, that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple break [the sanctity of] the Sabbath and yet are innocent? [Num 28:9, 10]

⁶“But I tell you that something greater than the temple is here.

⁷“And if you had only known what this statement means, ‘I DESIRE COMPASSION [for those in distress], AND NOT [animal] SACRIFICE,’ you would not have condemned the innocent. [Hos 6:6; Matt 9:13]

⁸“For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

⁹Leaving there, He went into their synagogue. [Mark 3:1–6; Luke 6:6–11]

¹⁰A man was there whose hand was withered. And they asked Jesus, “Is it lawful and permissible to heal on the Sabbath?”—they asked this so that they might accuse Him and bring charges into court.

¹¹But He said to them, “What man is there among you who, if he has only one sheep and it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not take hold of it and lift it out?

¹²“How much more valuable then is a man than a sheep! So it is lawful and permissible to do good on the Sabbath.”

¹³Then He said to the man, “Reach out your hand!” The man reached out and it was restored, as normal and healthy as the other.

¹⁴But the Pharisees went out and conspired against Him, discussing how they could destroy Him.

¹⁵Being aware of this, Jesus left there. Many followed Him, and He healed all of them [who were sick], ¹⁶and warned them not to tell [publicly] who He was.

¹⁷*This was* to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah:

¹⁸“BEHOLD, MY SERVANT WHOM I HAVE CHOSEN; MY BELOVED IN WHOM MY SOUL IS WELL-PLEASED; I WILL PUT MY SPIRIT UPON HIM, AND HE WILL PROCLAIM JUSTICE TO THE NATIONS.

¹⁹“HE WILL NOT QUARREL, NOR CRY OUT LOUDLY; NOR WILL ANYONE HEAR HIS VOICE IN THE STREETS.

²⁰“A BATTERED REED HE WILL NOT BREAK,
AND A SMOLDERING WICK HE WILL NOT EXTINGUISH, UNTIL HE LEADS JUSTICE TO VICTORY.

²¹“AND IN HIS NAME THE GENTILES (all the nations of the world) WILL HOPE [with confidence].” [Is 42:1–4]

²²Then a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute was brought to Jesus, and He healed him, so that the mute man both spoke and saw. [Mark 3:22–27; Luke 11:14, 15]

²³All the people wondered in amazement, and said, “Could this be the Son of David (the Messiah)?”

²⁴But the Pharisees heard it and said, “This man casts out demons only by [the help of] Beelzebul (Satan) the prince of the demons.”

²⁵Knowing their thoughts Jesus said to them, “Any kingdom that is divided against itself is being laid waste; and no city or house divided against itself will [continue to] stand.

²⁶“If Satan casts out Satan [that is, his demons], he has become divided against himself and disunited; how then will his kingdom stand?

²⁷“If I cast out the demons by [the help of] Beelzebul (Satan), by whom do your sons drive them out? For this reason they will be your judges.

²⁸“But if it is by the Spirit of God that I cast out the demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you [before you expected it].

³⁰“He who is not with Me [once and for all on My side] is against Me; and he who does not [unequivocally] gather with Me scatters. [Luke 9:50; 11:23]

³¹“Therefore I say to you, every sin and blasphemy [every evil, abusive, injurious speaking, or indignity against sacred things] will be forgiven people, but blasphemy against the [Holy] Spirit will not be forgiven.

³²“Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit [by attributing the miracles done by Me to Satan] will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come. [Mark 3:29; Luke 12:10]

³³“Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad; for the tree is recognized and judged by its fruit.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

What To Say and What Not To Say

What a wonderful world we would live in if we all followed the rule that tells us to say something good or don't say anything at all. Just imagine how pleasant our homes, schools, jobs, churches, and society in general would be if everyone spoke positively all the time. It might even be the equivalent of heaven on earth!

Here is a simple rule that you can follow to guide you in your conversation: If it is good, uplifting, wholesome, and pleasant, say it all you want; if it is evil, negative, critical, and complaining, don't say it. What is in your heart will eventually come out of your mouth (see Matt. 12:34). You cannot change what you say unless you change what you think. Ask God to help you change your thoughts so there is not even a hint of wanting to say something negative.

³⁴“You brood of vipers, how can you speak good things when you are evil? For the mouth speaks out of that which fills the heart.

³⁵“The good man, from his [inner] good treasure, brings out good things; and the evil man, from his [inner] evil treasure, brings out evil things.

³⁶“But I tell you, on the day of judgment people will have to give an accounting for every careless or useless word they peak.

³⁷“For by your words [reflecting your spiritual condition] you will be justified and acquitted of the guilt of sin; and by your words [rejecting Me] you will be condemned and sentenced.”

³⁸Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to Him, “Teacher, we want to see a sign (attesting miracle) from You [proving that You are what You claim to be].”

³⁹But He replied and said to them, “An evil and adulterous generation [that is morally unfaithful to God] craves and demands a [miraculous] sign; but no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah; [Luke 11:29–32]

⁴⁰for just as JONAH WAS THREE DAYS AND THREE NIGHTS IN THE BELLY OF THE SEA MONSTER, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. [Jon 1:17]

⁴²“The Queen of the South (Sheba) will stand up [as a witness] at the judgment against this generation, and will condemn it because she came from the ends of the earth to listen to the wisdom of Solomon; and now, something greater than Solomon is here. [1 Kin 10:1; 2 Chr 9:1] ⁴³“Now when the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, it roams through waterless (dry, arid) places in search of rest, but it does not find it.

⁴⁴“Then it says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came.’ And when it arrives, it finds the place unoccupied,

⁴⁵“Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and make their home there. And the last condition of that man becomes worse than the first. So will it also be with this wicked generation.”

⁴⁶While He was still talking to the crowds, it happened that His mother and brothers stood outside, asking to speak to Him. [Mark 3:31–35; Luke 8:19–21]

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Fruit Comes from the Inside

One church member said about another member who was considered “the gossip” of the church: “One thing about her, she’s not prejudiced—she talks about everyone.” I felt sad for this woman. She had allowed Satan to fill her mind with critical, harsh thoughts and was probably critical of herself as well.

“The gossip” of the church was only speaking what was already inside her heart. Jesus said, “For the mouth speaks out of that which fills the heart” (Matt. 12:34). Kind or judgmental words come out of our mouth because we first nurtured them in our mind.

People often promise to speak better of others and to gossip less. They really try, but nothing changes because they are trying to only change their words without first changing their thoughts. It won’t work because they are trying to effect a change in a way opposite from what it should be. What they need to do is look inward and ask, “What is going on inside me?” When their thoughts are right, their words will also be right.

Jesus said, “Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad; for the tree is recognized and judged by its fruit” (Matt. 12:33). The same is true of our lives. Everything begins with a thought. If we allow negative, unkind thoughts to fill our minds, they will produce bad, negative fruit.

It’s easy to see the fruit of people’s lives—the result of what’s going on inside. We can learn a lot about a person’s character simply by listening to their conversation.

If we believe God truly loves us and we enjoy fellowship with Him every day, we are planting good seeds in our heart. The more good seeds we plant, the more good fruit we produce. The more we think kind and loving thoughts, the more we view others as being kind and loving.

The more we open ourselves to the Spirit’s positive and loving thoughts, and the more we read God’s Word, the more good fruit we produce on the inside—and that good fruit shows itself in our behavior toward others. Always remember that if things become right on the inside, they will come out right on the outside.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Dear God, forgive me for the harsh things I’ve said about others and for allowing harsh thoughts to fill my mind. I know I can’t make myself more loving, but You can. Please help me focus on healthy, positive thoughts. Amen.

POWERPOINT

You can always tell God how you feel and ask for His help and strength, but talking about negative feelings just to be talking or to “vent” is not helpful. In Matthew 12:36,

Jesus cautions against speaking “careless or useless” words. If you find yourself speaking or feeling negatively for quite a while, asking for prayer or advice from a trusted friend can be a good idea. If you need to talk with someone about an unpleasant situation, do so in a healthy way that will bring about a positive solution instead of speaking careless words that will not serve a godly purpose.

⁴⁷Someone said to Him, “Look! Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside asking to speak to You.”

⁴⁸But Jesus replied to the one who told Him, “Who is My mother and who are My brothers?”

⁴⁹And stretching out His hand toward His disciples [and all His other followers], He said, “Here are My mother and My brothers!

⁵⁰“For whoever does the will of My Father who is in heaven [by believing in Me, and following Me] is My brother and sister and mother.”

13 THAT SAME day Jesus went out of the house and was sitting beside the sea [of Galilee]. [Mark 4:1–20; Luke 8:4–15]

²But such large crowds gathered around Him that He got into a boat and sat there [positioning Himself as a teacher], while the whole crowd stood on the shore.

³He told them many things in parables, saying, “Listen carefully: a sower went out to sow [seed in his field];

⁴and as he sowed, some seed fell beside the road [between the fields], and the birds came and ate it.

⁵“Other seed fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil; and at once they sprang up because they had no depth of soil.

⁶“But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

⁷“Other seed fell among thorns, and thorns came up and choked them out.

⁸“Other seed fell on good soil and yielded grain, some a hundred times as much [as was sown], some sixty [times as much], and some thirty.

⁹“He who has ears [to hear], let him hear and heed My words.”

¹⁰Then the disciples came to Him and asked, “Why do You speak to the crowds in parables?”

¹¹Jesus replied to them, “To you it has been granted to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been granted. [Mark 4:11]

¹²“For whoever has [spiritual wisdom because he is receptive to God’s word], to him more will be given, and he will be richly and abundantly supplied; but whoever does not have [spiritual wisdom because he has devalued God’s word], even what he has will be taken away from him. [Matt 25:29; Mark 4:25; Luke 8:18]

¹³“This is the reason I speak to the crowds in parables: because while [having the power of] seeing they do not see, and while [having the power of] hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand and grasp [spiritual things].

¹⁴“In them the prophecy of Isaiah is being fulfilled, which says,

‘YOU WILL HEAR and KEEP ON HEARING, BUT NEVER UNDERSTAND;

AND YOU WILL LOOK and KEEP ON LOOKING, BUT NEVER COMPREHEND; ¹⁵FOR THIS NATION’S HEART HAS GROWN HARD,

AND WITH THEIR EARS THEY HARDLY HEAR,
AND THEY HAVE [tightly] CLOSED THEIR EYES, OTHERWISE THEY WOULD SEE WITH THEIR EYES,

AND HEAR WITH THEIR EARS,
AND UNDERSTAND WITH THEIR HEART, AND TURN [to Me]
AND I WOULD HEAL THEM [spiritually].’ [Is 6:9]

¹⁶“But blessed [spiritually aware, and favored by God] are your eyes, because they see; and your ears, because they hear. [Luke 10:23, 24]

¹⁷“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, many prophets and righteous men [who were honorable and in right standing with God] longed to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

¹⁸“Listen then to the [meaning of the] parable of the sower: [Mark 4:2–20; Luke 8:4–15]

²⁰“The one on whom seed was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and at once welcomes it with joy;

²¹yet he has no [substantial] root in himself, but is only temporary, and when pressure or persecution comes because of the word, immediately he stumbles and falls away [abandoning the One who is the source of salvation].

²²“And the one on whom seed was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the worries and distractions of the world and the deceitfulness [the superficial pleasures and delight] of riches choke the word, and it yields no fruit.

²³“And the one on whom seed was sown on the good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands and grasps it; he indeed bears fruit and yields, some a hundred times [as much as was sown], some sixty [times as much], and some thirty.” [Mark 4:2–20; Luke 8:4–15]

²⁴“Jesus gave them another parable [to consider], saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field.

²⁵“But while his men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed *weeds [resembling wheat] among the wheat, and went away.

²⁶“So when the plants sprouted and formed grain, the weeds appeared also.

²⁷“The servants of the owner came to him and said, ‘Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? Then how does it have weeds in it?’

²⁸“He replied to them, ‘An enemy has done this.’ The servants asked him, ‘Then do you want us to go and pull them out?’

²⁹“But he said, ‘No; because as you pull out the weeds, you may uproot the wheat with them.

³⁰“Let them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, “First gather the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned; but gather the wheat into my barn.””

³¹He gave them another parable [to consider], saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field; [Mark 4:30–32; Luke 13:18, 19]

³²and of all the seeds [planted in the region] it is the smallest, but when it has grown it is the largest of the garden herbs and becomes a tree, so that THE BIRDS OF THE AIR FIND

SHELTER IN ITS BRANCHES.” [Ezek 17:23]

³³He told them another parable, “The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and worked into three measures of flour until all of it was leavened.” [Gen 18:6; Luke 13:21]

³⁴All these things Jesus said to the crowds in parables, and He said nothing to them without [using] a parable.

³⁵*This was* to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet:

“I WILL OPEN MY MOUTH IN PARABLES;

I WILL UTTER THINGS [unknown and unattainable] THAT HAVE BEEN HIDDEN [from mankind] SINCE THE FOUNDATION OF THE WORLD.” [Ps 78:2]

³⁶Then He left the crowds and went into the house. And His disciples came to Him saying, “Explain [clearly] to us the parable of the weeds in the field.”

³⁷He answered, “The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man, ³⁸and the field is the world; and [as for] the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; and the weeds are the sons of the evil one;

³⁹and the enemy who sowed them is the devil, and the harvest is the end of the age; and the reapers are angels.

⁴⁰“So just as the weeds are gathered up and burned in the fire, so will it be at the end of the age.

⁴¹“The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all things that offend [those things by which people are led into sin], and all who practice evil [leading others into sin], ⁴²and will throw them into the furnace of fire; in that place there will be weeping [over sorrow and pain] and grinding of teeth [over distress and anger].

⁴³“Then THE RIGHTEOUS [those who seek the will of God] WILL SHINE FORTH [radiating the new life] LIKE THE SUN in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears [to hear], let him hear and heed My words. [Dan 12:3]

⁴⁴“The kingdom of heaven is like a [very precious] treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid again; then in his joy he goes and sells all he has and buys that field [securing the treasure for himself].

⁴⁵“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, ⁴⁶and upon finding a single pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it.

⁴⁷“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet which was lowered into the sea, and gathered fish of every kind, ⁴⁸and when it was full, they dragged it up on the beach; and they sat down and sorted out the good fish into baskets, but the worthless ones they threw away.

⁴⁹“So it will be at the end of the age; the angels will come and separate the wicked from the righteous ⁵⁰and throw the wicked into the furnace of fire; in that place there will be weeping [over sorrow and pain] and grinding of teeth [over distress and anger].

⁵¹“Have you understood all these things [in the lessons of the parables]?” They said to Jesus, “Yes.”

⁵²He said to them, “Therefore every scribe who has become a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household, who brings out of his treasure things that are new and fresh and things that are old and familiar.”

⁵³When Jesus had finished these parables, He left there.

⁵⁴And after coming to [Nazareth] His hometown, He began teaching them in their synagogue, and they were astonished, and said, “Where did this Man get this wisdom and these miraculous powers [what is the source of His authority]? [Mark 6:1–6; Luke 4:16, 23]

⁵⁵“Is not this the carpenter’s son? Is not His mother called Mary? And are not His brothers, James and Joseph and Simon and Judas?

⁵⁶“And His sisters, are they not [living here] among us? Where then did this Man get all this [wisdom and power]?”

⁵⁷And they took offense at Him [refusing to believe in Him]. But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own household.”

⁵⁸And He did not do many miracles there [in Nazareth] because of their unbelief.

14 AT THAT time Herod [Antipas], the tetrarch [who governed a portion of Palestine including Galilee and Perea], heard the reports about Jesus, [Luke 9:7–9]

²and said to his attendants, “This is John the Baptist; he has been raised from the dead, and that is why the miraculous powers are at work in him.”

³For Herod had John arrested and bound him and put him in prison [at the fortress of Machaerus, east of the Jordan, to keep him away] because of Herodias, the wife of his brother

Philip, [Mark 6:17; Luke 3:19]

⁴for John had said to him, “It is not lawful (morally right) for you to have her [living with you as your wife].” [Lev 18:16; 20:21]

⁵Although Herod wished to have him put to death, he feared the people, for they regarded John as a prophet.

⁶But when Herod’s birthday came, [his niece Salome], the daughter of Herodias danced [immodestly] before them and pleased and fascinated Herod, ⁷so much that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked.

⁸She, being coached by her mother [Herodias], said, “Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist.”

⁹The king was distressed, but because of his oaths, and because of his dinner guests, he ordered it to be given her.

¹⁰He sent and had John beheaded in the prison.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Spend Time Alone with God

One of the most important keys to victory in your daily life is to spend time alone with God, as Jesus did (see Matt. 14:23).

Jesus took regular times away from His busy life and ministry for prayer and fellowship with God. Any time He started feeling weary, He apparently knew that the key to being refreshed and restored was to get away by Himself, talk with God, and enjoy times of solitude. Afterward, He was ready to minister again.

This is a good reminder to us all. We are wise to step away from our busy schedules and spend quiet time alone with God when we feel mentally, physically, or emotionally drained. We should not allow ourselves to become burned out, but seek to be refreshed as we spend focused time with God and no one else.

¹¹His head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother [Herodias].

¹²And John's disciples came and took away the body and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus.

¹³When Jesus heard about John, He left there privately in a boat and went to a secluded place. But when the crowds heard of this, they followed Him on foot from the cities. [Mark 6:32–44; Luke 9:10–17; John 6:1–13]

¹⁴When He went ashore, He saw a large crowd, and felt [profound] compassion for them and healed their sick.

¹⁵When evening came, the disciples came to Him and said, “This is an isolated place and the hour is already late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.”

¹⁶But Jesus said to them, “They do not need to go away; you give them something to eat!”

¹⁷They replied, “We have nothing here except five loaves and two fish.”

¹⁸He said, “Bring them here to Me.”

¹⁹Then He ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass, and He took the five loaves and the two fish and, looking up toward heaven, He blessed and broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people, ²⁰and they all ate and were satisfied. They picked up twelve full baskets of the leftover broken pieces.

²¹There were about 5,000 men who ate, besides women and children.

²²Immediately He directed the disciples to get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side [of the Sea of Galilee], while He sent the crowds away. [Mark 6:45–52; John 6:15–21]

²³After He had dismissed the crowds, He went up on the mountain by Himself to pray. When it was evening, He was there alone.

²⁴But the boat [by this time] was already a long* distance from land, tossed and battered by the waves; for the wind was against them.

²⁵ And in the fourth watch of the night (3:00–6:00 a.m.) Jesus came to them, walking on the sea. [Mark 6:48; John 6:19]

²⁶ When the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were terrified, and said, “It is a ghost!” And they cried out in fear.

²⁷ But immediately He spoke to them, saying, “Take courage, it is I! Do not be afraid!” [Ex 3:14]

²⁸ Peter replied to Him, “Lord, if it is [really] You, command me to come to You on the water.”

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

True Faith

When the disciples saw Jesus walking in the middle of the night on the top of the waves of the stormy Sea of Galilee, they thought He was a ghost (see Matt. 14:26). Then Jesus cried out, “Take courage, it is I! Do not be afraid!” (v. 27). This is the powerful moment in the story. Did they eagerly climb out of the boat and join Him atop the crashing waves? Or did they huddle in fear, reminding themselves that human beings cannot walk on water?

Peter was the only disciple who responded to Jesus in true faith. For Peter to say, “Lord, if it is [really] You, command me to come to You on the water” was a tremendous act of trust (v. 28). It was a defining moment that highlighted Peter’s courage, great faith and belief in Jesus as the Son of God.

Peter could have easily said, “Lord, I see You walking on water, but I doubt I can do that.” Instead Peter asked if he could come and walk on the water too. Do you have that kind of faith?

I cite this example of faith simply to emphasize the triumph of a man who dared to believe and took a step of faith and did the impossible. Peter walked on water!

After a short while, Peter grew frightened and began to sink. Jesus said to Peter, “O you of little faith, why did you doubt?” But Jesus also reached out His hand and helped Peter even in those moments of weakness. I believe that Jesus was pleased that Peter took a step of faith, even though he didn’t behave perfectly.

Rather than see these as words of rebuke, what if you see them as Jesus’ great encouragement, not just to Peter, but also to you? What if you view this event as Jesus saying to you, “You started so well. You believed in Me and got out of the boat. You did it! You walked on water just as I did. Though you allowed doubt to enter and you began to sink, you can begin again. Together we will succeed.”

This story is a powerful reminder that Jesus will always reach out to you and take care of you. He doesn’t want you to focus on your failures, but on your successes!

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord Jesus, please forgive my lack of faith. Increase my faith in Your Word, and help me to trust You enough to follow Your leading. When the circumstances around me threaten to pull me into deep waters of doubt, help me to focus on You. Amen.

²⁹He said, “Come!” So Peter got out of the boat, and walked on the water and came toward Jesus.

³⁰But when he saw [the effects of] the wind, he was frightened, and he began to sink, and he cried out, “Lord, save me!”

³¹Immediately Jesus extended His hand and caught him, saying to him, “O you of little faith, why did you doubt?”

³²And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased.

³³Then those in the boat worshiped Him [with awe-inspired reverence], saying, “Truly You are the Son of God!”

³⁴When they had crossed over [the sea], they went ashore at Gennesaret.

³⁵And when the men of that place recognized Him, they sent word throughout all the surrounding district and brought to Him all who were sick;

³⁶and they begged Him to let them merely touch the fringe of His robe; and all who touched it were perfectly restored.
[Matt 9:20]

15 THEN SOME Pharisees and scribes from Jerusalem came to Jesus and said, ²“Why do Your disciples violate the tradition (religious laws) handed down by the [Jewish] elders? For Your disciples do not [ceremonially] wash their hands before they eat.”

³He replied to them, “Why also do you violate the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition [handed down by the elders]?

⁴“For God said [through Moses], ‘HONOR YOUR FATHER AND MOTHER,’ and, ‘HE WHO SPEAKS EVIL OF or INSULTS or TREATS IMPROPERLY FATHER OR MOTHER IS TO BE PUT TO DEATH.’ [Ex 20:12; 21:17; Lev 20:9; Deut 5:16]

⁵“But you say, ‘If anyone says to his father or mother, “Whatever [money or resource that] I have that would help you is [already dedicated and] given to God,”

⁶he is not to honor his father or his mother [by helping them with their need].’ So by this you have invalidated the word of God [depriving it of force and authority and making it of no effect] for the sake of your tradition [handed down by the elders].

⁷“You hypocrites (play-actors, pretenders), rightly did Isaiah prophesy of you when he said,

⁸‘THIS PEOPLE HONORS ME WITH THEIR LIPS,
BUT THEIR HEART IS FAR AWAY FROM ME.

⁹‘BUT IN VAIN DO THEY WORSHIP ME,
FOR THEY TEACH AS DOCTRINES THE PRECEPTS OF MEN.’” [Is 29:13]

¹⁰After Jesus called the crowd to Him, He said, “Listen and understand this:

¹¹It is not what goes into the mouth of a man that defiles and dishonors him, but what comes out of the mouth, this defiles and dishonors him.”

¹²Then the disciples came and said to Jesus, “Do You know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard you say this?”

¹³He answered, “Every plant which My heavenly Father did not plant will be torn up by the roots. [Is 60:21]

¹⁴“Leave them alone; they are blind guides [leading blind followers]. If a blind man leads a blind man, both will fall into a pit.”

¹⁵Peter asked Him, “Explain this parable [about what defiles a person] to us.”

¹⁶And He said, “Are you still so dull [and unable to put things together]?”

¹⁷“Do you not understand that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the stomach, and is eliminated?”

¹⁸“But whatever [word] comes out of the mouth comes from the heart, and this is what defiles and dishonors the man.

¹⁹“For out of the heart come evil thoughts and plans, murders, adulteries, sexual immoralities, thefts, false testimonies, slanders (verbal abuse, irreverent speech, blaspheming).

²⁰“These are the things which defile and dishonor the man; but eating with [ceremonially] unwashed hands does not defile the man.”

²¹After leaving there, Jesus withdrew to the district of Tyre and Sidon. [Mark 7:24–30]

²²And a Canaanite woman from that district came out and began to cry out [urgently], saying, “Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David (Messiah); my daughter is cruelly possessed by a demon.”

²³But He did not say a word in answer to her. And His disciples came and asked Him [repeatedly], “Send her away, because she keeps shouting out after us.”

²⁴He answered, “I was commissioned by God and sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”

²⁵But she came and began to kneel down before Him, saying, “Lord, help me!”

²⁶And He replied, “It is not good (appropriate, fair) to take the children’s bread and throw it to the pet dogs.”

²⁷She said, “Yes, Lord; but even the pet dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their [young] masters’ table.”

²⁸Then Jesus answered her, “Woman, your faith [your personal trust and confidence in My power] is great; it will be done for you as you wish.” And her daughter was healed from that moment.

²⁹Jesus went on from there and passed along by [the eastern shore of] the Sea of Galilee. Then He went up on the hillside and was sitting there.

³⁰And great crowds came to Him, bringing with them the lame, crippled, blind, mute, and many others, and they put them down at His feet; and He healed them.

³¹So the crowd was amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled restored, the lame walking, and the blind seeing; and they praised and glorified the God of Israel.

³²Then Jesus called His disciples to Him, and said, “I feel compassion for the crowd, because they have been with Me now three days and have nothing [left] to eat; and I do not want to send them away hungry, because they might faint [from exhaustion] on the way [home].” [Mark 8:1–21]

³³The disciples said to Him, “Where are we to get enough bread in this isolated place to feed so large a crowd?”

³⁴And Jesus asked them, “How many loaves [of bread] do you have?” They replied, “Seven, and a few small fish.”

³⁵He directed the crowd to sit down on the ground,

³⁶and He took the seven loaves and the fish; and when He had given thanks, He broke them and started giving them to the disciples, and the disciples [gave them] to the people.

³⁷And they all ate and were satisfied, and they gathered up seven full baskets of the broken pieces that were left over.

³⁸[Among] those who ate were 4,000 men, not counting women and children.

³⁹Then Jesus sent the crowds away, got into the boat and went to the district of Magadan.

16 NOW THE Pharisees and Sadducees came up, and testing Jesus [to get something to use against Him], they asked Him to show them a sign from heaven [which would support His divine authority].

²But He replied to them, “When it is evening, you say, ‘It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.’

³“And in the morning, ‘It will be stormy today, for the sky is red and has a threatening look.’ You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but cannot interpret the signs of the times?

⁴“An evil and [morally] unfaithful generation craves a [miraculous] sign; but no sign will be given to it, except the sign of [the prophet] Jonah.” Then He left them and went away. [Jon 3:4, 5]

⁵When the disciples reached the other side of the sea, they realized that they had forgotten to bring bread.

⁶Jesus said to them, “Watch out and be on your guard against the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

⁷They began to discuss this among themselves, saying, “He said that because we did not bring bread.”

⁸But Jesus, aware of this, said, “You men of little faith, why are you discussing among yourselves that you have no bread?”

⁹“Do you still not understand or remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you picked up?”

¹⁰“Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many large baskets you picked up?”

¹¹“How is it that you fail to understand that I was not talking to you about bread? But beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

¹²Then they understood that He did not tell them to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the [false] teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

¹³Now when Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” [Mark 8:27–29; Luke 9:18–20]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Words Establish Faith

When Peter confessed that Jesus was the Christ, the Son of the living God, he was releasing with his mouth the faith that was in his heart (see Matt. 16:16). The prayer and confession of what we know in our hearts, revealed by the Holy Spirit, is powerful and strengthens our faith.

We establish the faith that is in our heart by the words we speak, as the apostle Paul writes in Romans 10:10: “and with the mouth he acknowledges and confesses [his faith openly], resulting in and confirming [his] salvation.”

This is why prayer is so important. We establish the truths we believe inwardly when we talk about them outwardly. This is why confessing Scripture in prayer is so very powerful. When we speak the Word of God, we are establishing things in the spiritual realm by the words we speak in the physical realm. And that which is established spiritually will be manifested physically.

You and I should continually confess the Word of God in every circumstance, believing in our heart and confessing with our mouth what God has said about us in His Word. Heaven’s power is available to us when we confess in the physical or natural realm what God has already done for us in the spiritual realm.

¹⁴And they answered, “Some say John the Baptist; others, Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah, or [just] one of the prophets.”

¹⁵He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?”

¹⁶Simon Peter replied, “You are the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), the Son of the living God.”

¹⁷Then Jesus answered him, “Blessed [happy, spiritually secure, favored by God] are you, Simon son of Jonah, because flesh and blood (mortal man) did not reveal this to you, but My Father who is in heaven.

¹⁸“And I say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church; and the gates of Hades (death) will not overpower it [by preventing the resurrection of the Christ]. [Eph 1:22; 4:15; 5:23; Col 1:18]

¹⁹“I will give you the keys (authority) of the kingdom of heaven; and whatever you bind [forbid, declare to be improper and unlawful] on earth will have [already] been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose [permit, declare lawful] on earth will have [already] been loosed in heaven.” [Is 22:22; Matt 18:18]

²⁰Then He gave the disciples strict orders to tell no one that He was the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed).

²¹From that time on Jesus began to show His disciples [clearly] that He must go to Jerusalem, and endure many things at the hands of the elders and the chief priests and scribes (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), and be killed, and be raised [from death to life] on the third day. [Mark 8:31–9:1; Luke 9:22–27]

²²Peter took Him aside [to speak to Him privately] and began to reprimand Him, saying, “May God forbid it! This will never happen to You.”

²³But Jesus turned and said to Peter, “Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me; for you are not setting your mind on things of God, but on things of man.”

²⁴Then Jesus said to His disciples, “If anyone wishes to follow Me [as My disciple], he must deny himself [set aside selfish interests], and take up his cross [expressing a willingness to endure whatever may come] and follow Me [believing in Me, conforming to My example in living and, if need be, suffering or perhaps dying because of faith in Me].

²⁶“For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world [wealth, fame, success], but forfeits his soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?

²⁷“For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory and majesty of His Father with His angels, and THEN HE WILL REPAY EACH ONE IN ACCORDANCE WITH WHAT HE HAS DONE. [Ps 62:12]

²⁸“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, there are some of those standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom.”

17 SIX DAYS later Jesus took with Him Peter and James and John the brother of James, and led them up on a high mountain by themselves. [Mark 9:2–8; Luke 9:28–36]

²And His appearance changed dramatically in their presence; and His face shone [with heavenly glory, clear and bright] like the sun, and His clothing became as white as light.

³And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Jesus.

⁴Then Peter began to speak and said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good and delightful and auspicious that we are here; if You wish, I will put up three [sacred] tents here—one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

⁵While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well-pleased and delighted! Listen to Him!” [Ps 2:7; Is 42:1]

⁶When the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces and were terrified.

⁷But Jesus came and touched them and said, “Get up, and do not be afraid.”

⁸And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus Himself alone.

⁹And as they were going down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, “Do not tell anyone what you have seen until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

POWERPOINT

In Matthew 17:5, at the moment of Jesus' transfiguration, God said about Him: "This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well-pleased and delighted!" I believe everyone who wants to gain victory in life needs to know that God speaks the same message to him or her. As His dearly beloved children, we each need to know that God is pleased with us personally and individually. God is not pleased with you because you do everything right. He is pleased with you because you put your faith in Jesus, the One Who did everything right for you.

¹⁰The disciples asked Him, "Then why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

¹¹He answered and said, “Elijah is coming and will restore all things;

¹²but I say to you that Elijah has come already, and they did not recognize him, but did to him as they wished. The Son of Man is also going to suffer at their hands.”

¹³Then the disciples understood that He had spoken to them about John the Baptist. [Mal 4:5]

¹⁴When they approached the crowd, a man came up to Jesus, kneeling before Him and saying, [Mark 9:14–27; Luke 9:37–42]

¹⁵“Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is a lunatic (moonstruck) and suffers terribly; for he often falls into the fire and often into the water.

¹⁶“And I brought him to Your disciples, and they were not able to heal him.”

¹⁷And Jesus answered, “You unbelieving and perverted generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him here to Me.”

¹⁸Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him, and the boy was healed at once.

¹⁹Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and asked, “Why could we not drive it out?”

²⁰He answered, “Because of your little faith [your lack of trust and confidence in the power of God]; for I assure you and most solemnly say to you, if you have [living] faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and [if it is God’s will] it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you. [Mark 11:23; Luke 17:6; 1 John 5:14]

²¹“[But this kind of demon does not go out except by prayer and fasting.]”

²²When they were gathering together in Galilee, Jesus said to them, “The Son of Man is going to be betrayed and handed over to men [who are His enemies]; ²³and they will kill Him, and He will be raised [from death to life] on the third day.” And they were deeply grieved and distressed.

²⁴When they arrived in Capernaum, the collectors of the half-shekel [temple tax] went up to Peter and said, “Does not your teacher pay the half-shekel?” [Ex 30:13; 38:26]

²⁵Peter answered, “Yes.” And when he came home, Jesus spoke to him first, saying, “What do you think, Simon? From whom do earthly rulers collect duties or taxes, from their sons or from strangers?”

²⁶When Peter said, “From strangers,” Jesus said to him, “Then the sons are exempt [from taxation].

²⁷“However, so that we do not offend them, go to the sea and throw in a hook, and take the first fish that comes up; and when you open its mouth, you will find a shekel. Take it and give it to them [to pay the temple tax] for you and Me.”

18 AT THAT time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?” [Mark 9:33–37; Luke 9:46–48]

²He called a little child and set him before them,

³and said, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, unless you repent [that is, change your inner self—your old way of thinking, live changed lives] and become like children [trusting, humble, and forgiving], you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

⁴“Therefore, whoever humbles himself like this child is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

⁵“Whoever receives and welcomes one child like this in My name receives Me;

⁶but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble and sin [by leading him away from My teaching], it would be better for him to have a heavy millstone [as large as one turned by a donkey] hung around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea. [Mark 9:42; Luke 17:2]

⁸“If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble and sin, cut it off and throw it away from you [that is, remove yourself from the source of temptation]; it is better for you to enter life crippled or lame, than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into everlasting fire.

⁹“If your eye causes you to stumble and sin, pluck it out and throw it away from you [that is, remove yourself from the source of temptation]; it is better for you to enter life with only one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fiery hell.

¹⁰“See that you do not despise or think less of one of these little ones, for I say to you that their angels in heaven

[are in the presence of and] continually look upon the face of My Father who is in heaven. [Acts 12:15; Heb 1:14]

¹¹“[For the Son of Man has come to save that which was lost.]

¹²“What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them gets lost, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountain and go in search of the one that is lost? [Luke 15:4–7]

¹³“And if it turns out that he finds it, I assure you and most solemnly say to you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that did not get lost.

¹⁴“So it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones be lost.

¹⁵“If your brother sins, go and show him his fault in private; if he listens and pays attention to you, you have won back your brother.

¹⁶“But if he does not listen, take along with you one or two others, so that EVERY WORD MAY BE CONFIRMED BY THE TESTIMONY OF TWO OR THREE WITNESSES.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Power of Agreement

I believe the particular kind of prayer that Jesus describes in Matthew 18:19 is to be prayed by two or more people on earth who are committed to being of one mind and in harmony with one another. This prayer is not for people who generally live in strife and disunity but then decide they should agree together for a miracle because they are in a desperate situation. God honors the prayers of those who pay the price to live in harmony and unity.

The prayer power of believers multiplies when we choose to be in harmony with one another. There will be times in life when what we are up against is bigger than what we can handle by ourselves. At such times, we are wise to pray together with someone who is in agreement with us.

If you feel you have nobody in your life with whom you can agree in prayer, don't despair. You and the Holy Spirit can agree. He is here on the earth with you, and He is in you through your faith in Jesus.

There is power in agreement! Make the decision to do your best to live in harmony with those around you and to expect great things as you pray together.

¹⁷“If he pays no attention to them [refusing to listen and obey], tell it to the church; and if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile (unbeliever) and a tax collector. [Lev 19:17; Deut 19:15]

18“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, whatever you bind [forbid, declare to be improper and unlawful] on earth shall have [already] been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose [permit, declare lawful] on earth shall have [already] been loosed in heaven. [Matt 16:19]

19“Again I say to you, that if two ^{}believers on earth agree [that is, are of one mind, in harmony] about anything that they ask [within the will of God], it will be done for them by My Father in heaven.* [1 John 5:14]

20“For where two or three are gathered in My name [meeting together as My followers], I am there among them.” [Ex 3:14]

21Then Peter came to Him and asked, “Lord, how many times will my brother sin against me and I forgive him and let it go? Up to seven times?”

22Jesus answered him, “I say to you, not up to seven times, but seventy times seven.

23“Therefore the kingdom of heaven is like a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves.

24“When he began the accounting, one who owed him 10,000 talents was brought to him.

25“But because he could not repay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and his children and everything that he possessed, and payment to be made.

26“So the slave fell on his knees and begged him, saying, ‘Have patience with me and I will repay you everything.’

27“And his master’s heart was moved with compassion and he released him and forgave him [canceling] the debt.

²⁸“But that same slave went out and found one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and he seized him and began choking him, saying, ‘Pay what you owe!’

²⁹“So his fellow slave fell on his knees and begged him earnestly, ‘Have patience with me and I will repay you.’

³⁰“But he was unwilling and he went and had him thrown in prison until he paid back the debt.

³¹“When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were deeply grieved and they went and reported to their master [with clarity and in detail] everything that had taken place.

³²“Then his master called him and said to him, ‘You wicked and contemptible slave, I forgave all that [great] debt of yours because you begged me.

³³‘Should you not have had mercy on your fellow slave [who owed you little by comparison], as I had mercy on you?’

³⁴“And in wrath his master turned him over to the torturers (jailers) until he paid all that he owed.

³⁵“My heavenly Father will also do the same to [every one of] you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart.”

19 NOW WHEN Jesus had finished saying these things, He left Galilee and went into the part of Judea that is beyond the Jordan; ²and large crowds followed Him, and He healed them there.

³And Pharisees came to Jesus, testing Him and asking, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for just any reason?"

⁴He replied, "Have you never read that He who created them from the beginning MADE THEM MALE AND FEMALE,

⁵and said, 'FOR THIS REASON A MAN SHALL LEAVE HIS FATHER AND MOTHER AND SHALL BE JOINED INSEPARABLY TO HIS WIFE, AND THE TWO SHALL BECOME ONE FLESH'? [Gen 1:27; 2:24; Mark 10:7]

⁶"So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has joined together, let no one separate."

⁷The Pharisees said to Him, "Why then did Moses command us to GIVE HER A CERTIFICATE OF DIVORCE AND SEND HER AWAY?" [Deut 24:1-4]

⁸He said to them, "Because your hearts were hard and stubborn Moses permitted you to divorce your wives; but from the beginning it has not been this way.

⁹"I say to you, whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another woman commits adultery."

¹⁰The disciples said to Jesus, "If the relationship of a man with his wife is like this, it is better not to marry."

¹¹But He said to them, "Not all men can accept this statement, but only those to whom [the capacity to receive] it has been given.

¹²"For there are eunuchs who have been born that way from their mother's womb [making them incapable of consummating a marriage]; and there are eunuchs who have been made eunuchs by men [for royal service]; and there are eunuchs who have made themselves so for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. He who is able to accept this, let him accept it."

¹³Then children were brought to Jesus so that He might place His hands on them [for a blessing] and pray; but the disciples reprimanded them.

¹⁴But He said, “Leave the children alone, and do not forbid them from coming to Me; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.”

¹⁵After placing His hands on them [for a blessing], He went on from there.

¹⁶And someone came to Him and said, “Teacher, what [essentially] good thing shall I do to obtain eternal life [that is, eternal salvation in the Messiah’s kingdom]?” [Lev 18:5; Mark 10:17–30; Luke 18:18–30]

¹⁷Jesus answered, “Why are you asking Me about what is [essentially] good? There is only One who is [essentially] good; but if you wish to enter into eternal life, keep the commandments.” [Luke 10:28]

¹⁸He said to Jesus, “Which commandments?” And Jesus answered, “YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT MURDER; YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY; YOU SHALL NOT STEAL; YOU SHALL NOT GIVE FALSE TESTIMONY; [Ex 20:12–16; Deut 5:16–20]

¹⁹HONOR YOUR FATHER AND MOTHER; and LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF” [that is, unselfishly seek the best or higher good for others]. [Lev 19:18; Matt 22:39]

²⁰The young man said to Him, “I have kept all these things [from my youth]; what do I still lack?” [Luke 18:21]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

We Have the Faith We Need

I sometimes hear people say, “I just don’t have enough faith for that.” Similarly, the disciples asked Jesus why they couldn’t deliver a boy from a demon. He answered, “Because of your little faith ... for I assure you and most solemnly say to you, if you have [living] faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and [if it is God’s will] it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you” (Matt. 17:20).

The truth is that we all have the faith we need to do whatever God’s will is for us; but, the key to success is where we place that faith. If you put your faith in yourself or in other people, you will be disappointed. If you put your faith in God, you will be amazed at what He can do through you. Remember: “with God all things are possible” (Matt. 19:26).

²¹Jesus answered him, “If you wish to be perfect [that is, have the spiritual maturity that accompanies godly character with no moral or ethical deficiencies], go and sell what you have and give [the money] to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me [becoming My disciple, believing and trusting in Me and walking the same path of life that I walk].”

²²But when the young man heard this, he left grieving and distressed, for he owned much property and had many possessions [which he treasured more than his relationship with God].

²³Jesus said to His disciples, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, it is difficult for a rich man [who clings to possessions and status as security] to enter the kingdom of heaven.

²⁵When the disciples heard this, they were completely astonished and bewildered, saying, “Then who can be saved [from the wrath of God]?”

²⁶But Jesus looked at them and said, “With people [as far as it depends on them] it is impossible, but with God all things are possible.” [Gen 18:14; Job 42:2]

²⁷Then Peter answered Him, saying, “Look, we have given up everything and followed You [becoming Your disciples and accepting You as Teacher and Lord]; what then will there be for us?”

²⁸Jesus said to them, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, in the renewal [that is, the Messianic restoration and regeneration of all things] when the Son of Man sits on His glorious throne, you [who have followed Me, becoming My disciples] will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

²⁹“And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or farms for My name’s sake will receive many times as much, and will inherit eternal life.

³⁰“But many who are first [in this world] will be last [in the world to come]; and the last, first.

20 “FOR THE kingdom of heaven is like the owner of an estate who went out in the morning at dawn to hire workmen for his vineyard.

²“When he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius for the day, he sent them into his vineyard.

³“And he went out about the third hour (9:00 a.m.) and saw others standing idle in the market place;

⁴and he said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right (an appropriate wage).’ And they went.

⁵“He went out about the sixth hour (noon) and the ninth hour (3:00 p.m.), and did the same thing.

⁶“And about the eleventh hour (5:00 p.m.) he went out and found others standing around, and he said to them, ‘Why have you been standing here idle all day?’

⁷“They answered him, ‘Because no one hired us.’ He told them, ‘You go into the vineyard also.’

⁸“When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, ‘Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last [to be hired] and ending with the first [to be hired].’ [Lev 19:13; Deut 24:15]

⁹“Those who had been hired at the eleventh hour (5:00 p.m.) came and received a denarius each [a day’s wage].

¹⁰“Now when the first [to be hired] came, they thought they would get more; but each of them also received a denarius.

¹¹“When they received it, they protested and grumbled at the owner of the estate,

¹²saying, ‘These men who came last worked [only] one hour, and yet you have made them equal [in wages] to us who have carried [most of] the burden and [worked in] the scorching heat of the day.’

¹³“But the owner of the estate replied to one of them, ‘Friend, I am doing you no injustice. Did you not agree with me for a denarius?’

¹⁴“Take what belongs to you and go, but I choose to give to this last man [hired] the same as I give to you.

¹⁵“Am I not lawfully permitted to do what I choose with what is mine? Or is your eye ^{*}envious because I am generous?’

¹⁶“So those who are last [in this world] shall be first [in the world to come], and those who are first, last.”

¹⁷As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, He took the twelve [disciples] aside, and along the way He said to them, ¹⁸“Listen carefully: we are going up to Jerusalem; and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and scribes (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), and they will [judicially] condemn Him and sentence Him to death,

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Jesus, that You did not come to be served, but to serve and to give Your life as a ransom for many, paying the price to set them free from the penalty of sin.

• adapted from Matthew 20:28

¹⁹and will hand Him over to the Gentiles (Roman authorities) to be mocked and scourged and crucified, and He will be raised [to life] on the third day.”

²⁰Then [Salome] the mother of Zebedee’s children [James and John] came up to Jesus with her sons and, kneeling down [in respect], asked a favor of Him [Mark 10:35–45]

²¹And He said to her, “What do you wish?” She answered Him, “Command that in Your kingdom these two sons of mine may sit [in positions of honor and authority] one on Your right and one on Your left.”

²²But Jesus replied, “You do not realize what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup [of suffering] that I am about to drink?” They answered, “We are able.”

²³He said to them, “You will drink My cup [of suffering]; but to sit on My right and on My left this is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by My Father.”

²⁴And when the [other] ten heard this, they were resentful and angry with the two brothers.

²⁵But Jesus called them to Himself and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles have absolute power and lord it over them, and their great men exercise authority over them [tyrannizing them]. [Mark 10:42–45; Luke 22:25–27]

²⁶“It is not this way among you, but whoever wishes to become great among you shall be your servant,

²⁷and whoever wishes to be first among you shall be your [willing and humble] slave;

²⁸just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many [paying the price to set them free from the penalty of sin].”

²⁹As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed Him. [Mark 10:46–52; Luke 18:35–43]

³⁰And two blind men were sitting by the road, and when they heard that Jesus was passing by, they cried out, “Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David (Messiah)!”

³¹The crowd sternly told them to be quiet, but they cried out all the more, “Lord, Son of David (Messiah) have mercy on us!”

³²Jesus stopped and called them, and asked, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

³³They answered Him, “Lord, we want our eyes to be opened.”

³⁴Moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes; and immediately they regained their sight and followed Him [as His disciples].

21 WHEN THEY approached Jerusalem and had reached Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples [ahead], [Mark 11:1–10; Luke 19:29–38; John 12:12–15]

²saying to them, “Go into the village opposite you, and at once you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to Me.

³“If anyone says anything to you, you should say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and without delay the owner will send them [with you].”

⁴This happened so that what was spoken by the prophet would be fulfilled, saying:

⁵“TELL THE DAUGHTER OF ZION (the people of Jerusalem), ‘BEHOLD, YOUR KING IS COMING TO YOU,
GENTLE AND MOUNTED ON A DONKEY,
EVEN ON A COLT, THE FOAL OF A BEAST OF BURDEN.’” [Is 62:11;
Zech 9:9]

⁶Then the disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them, ⁷and they brought the donkey and the colt, and placed their coats on them; and Jesus sat on the coats.

⁸Most of the crowd spread their coats on the road [as before a king], while others were cutting branches from the trees and spreading them on the road.

⁹The crowds that went ahead of Him, and those that followed Him, were shouting [in praise and adoration], “Hosanna to the Son of David (Messiah);

BLESSED [praised, glorified] IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD; Hosanna in the highest [heaven]!” [Ps
118:26]

¹⁰When He entered Jerusalem, all the city was trembling [with excitement], saying, “Who is this?”

¹¹And the crowds were saying, “This is the prophet Jesus, from Nazareth in Galilee.”

¹²And Jesus entered the temple [grounds] and drove out [with force] all who were buying and selling [birds and animals for sacrifice] in the temple area, and He turned over the tables of the moneychangers [who made a profit exchanging foreign money for temple coinage] and the chairs of those who were selling doves [for sacrifice]. [Mark 11:15–18; Luke 19:45–47; John 2:14–16]

¹³Jesus said to them, “It is written [in Scripture], ‘MY HOUSE SHALL BE CALLED A HOUSE OF PRAYER’; but you are making it a ROBBERS’ DEN.” [Is 56:7; Jer 7:11]

¹⁴And the blind and the lame came to Him in [the porticoes and courts of] the temple area, and He healed them.

¹⁵But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful and miraculous things that Jesus had done, and heard the boys who were shouting in [the porticoes and courts of] the temple [in praise and adoration], “Hosanna to the Son of David (the Messiah),” they became indignant ¹⁶and they said to Him, “Do You hear what these children are saying?” And Jesus replied to them, “Yes; have you never read [in the Scripture], ‘OUT OF THE MOUTHS OF INFANTS AND NURSING BABIES YOU HAVE PREPARED and PROVIDED PRAISE FOR YOURSELF’?” [Ps 8:2]

¹⁷Then He left them and went out of the city to Bethany, and spent the night there.

¹⁸Now early in the morning, as Jesus was coming back to the city, He was hungry. [Mark 11:12–14, 20–24]

¹⁹Seeing a lone fig tree at the roadside, He went to it and found nothing but leaves on it; and He said to it, “Never again will fruit come from you.” And at once the fig tree withered.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Good Words and Actions Bear Good Fruit

When the fig tree has leaves, it also has fruit under its leaves. Jesus saw the leaves on the fig tree and went to it for something to eat because He was hungry. When He saw that it had leaves but no fruit, He cursed it (see Matt. 21:19).

Our words and actions should bear good fruit (see Matt. 7:15–20). If we appear to have good fruit, it is important that we actually have it, because people will be watching to see if we are genuine. God has chosen us to be His ambassadors (see 2 Cor. 5:20), and we represent Him well when there is evidence of good fruit in our lives. It isn't enough to just have a Jesus sticker on our car and a cross hanging around our neck displaying our Christianity—we also need the good fruit to back it up.

²⁰When the disciples saw it, they were astonished and asked, “How is it that the fig tree has withered away all at once?”

²¹Jesus replied to them, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, if you have faith [personal trust and confidence in Me] and do not doubt or allow yourself to be drawn in two directions, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ it will happen [if God wills it]. [1 John 5:14]

²²“And whatever you ask for in prayer, believing, you will receive.”

²³When He entered the temple area, the chief priests and elders of the people came to Him as He was teaching and said, “By what [kind of] authority are You doing these things, and who gave You this authority [to exercise this power]?” [Mark 11:27–33; Luke 20:1–8]

²⁴Jesus replied to them, “I will also ask you a question, and if you tell Me the answer, then I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

²⁵“The baptism of John—from where did it come? From heaven [that is, ordained by God] or from men?” And they began debating among themselves [considering the implications of their answer], saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say to us, ‘Then why did you not believe John?’

²⁶“But if we say, ‘From men,’ we are afraid of the [response of the] crowd; for they all regard John as a prophet.”

²⁷So they answered Jesus, “We do not know.” And He said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what [kind of] authority I do these things.”

²⁸“What do you think? There was a man who had two sons, and he came to the first and said, ‘Son, go and work in the vineyard today.’

²⁹“And he answered, ‘I will not’; but afterward he regretted it and changed his mind and went.

³⁰“Then the man came to the second son and said the same thing; and he replied, ‘I will, sir’; but he did not go.

³¹“Which of the two did the will of the father?” The chief priests and elders replied, “The first one.” Jesus said to them,

“I assure you and most solemnly say to you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes will get into the kingdom of God before you.

³²“For John came to you [walking] in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him; but the tax collectors and the prostitutes did believe him; and you, seeing this, did not even change your mind afterward and believe him [accepting what he proclaimed to you].

³³“Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who PLANTED A VINEYARD AND PUT A WALL AROUND IT AND DUG A WINE PRESS IN IT, AND BUILT A TOWER, and rented it out to tenant farmers and went on a journey [to another country]. [Is 5:1–7; Mark 12:1–12; Luke 20:9–19]

³⁴“When the harvest time approached, he sent his servants to the tenants to get his [share of the] fruit.

³⁵“But the tenants took his servants and beat one, and killed another, and stoned a third.

³⁶“Again he sent other servants, more than the first time; and they treated them the same way.

³⁷“Finally he sent his own son to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son and have regard for him.’

³⁸“But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, ‘This [man] is the heir; come on, let us kill him and seize his inheritance.’

³⁹“So they took the son and threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

⁴⁰“Now when the owner of the vineyard comes back, what will he do to those tenants?”

⁴¹They said to Him, “He will put those despicable men to a miserable end, and rent out the vineyard to other tenants [of good character] who will pay him the proceeds at the proper seasons.”

⁴²Jesus asked them, “Have you never read in the Scriptures:

‘THE [very] STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REJECTED and THREW AWAY, HAS BECOME THE CHIEF CORNERSTONE; THIS IS THE LORD’S DOING,
AND IT IS MARVELOUS and WONDERFUL IN OUR EYES’? [Ps
118:22, 23]

⁴³“Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to [another] people who will produce the fruit of it.

⁴⁴“And he who falls on this Stone will be broken to pieces; but he on whom it falls will be crushed.” [Is 8:14, 15; Dan 2:34, 35]

⁴⁵When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard His parables, they understood that He was talking about them.

⁴⁶And although they were trying to arrest Him, they feared the people, because they regarded Jesus as a prophet.

22 JESUS SPOKE to them again in parables, saying,

²“The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son.

³“And he sent his servants to call those who had [previously] been invited to the wedding feast, but they refused to come.

⁴“Then he sent out some other servants, saying, ‘Tell those who have been invited, “Look, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and fattened calves are butchered and everything is ready; come to the wedding feast.” ’

⁵“But they paid no attention [they disregarded the invitation, treating it with contempt] and went away, one to his farm, another to his business.

⁶“The rest [of the invited guests] seized his servants and mistreated them [insulting and humiliating them] and killed them.

⁷“The king was enraged [when he heard this], and sent his soldiers and destroyed those murderers and burned their city.

⁸“Then he said to his servants, ‘The wedding [feast] is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy.

⁹“So go to the main highways that lead out of the city, and invite to the wedding feast as many as you find.’

¹⁰“Those servants went out into the streets and gathered together all the people they could find, both bad and good; so the wedding hall was filled with dinner guests [sitting at the banquet table].

¹¹“But when the king came in to see the dinner guests, he saw a man there who was not dressed [appropriately] in wedding clothes, ¹²and he said, ‘Friend, how did you come in here without wearing the wedding clothes [that were provided for you]?’ And the man was speechless and without excuse.

¹³“Then the king said to the attendants, ‘Tie him hand and foot, and throw him into the darkness outside; in that place there will be weeping [over sorrow and pain] and grinding of teeth [over distress and anger].’

¹⁴“For many are called (invited, summoned), but few are chosen.”

¹⁵Then the Pharisees went and conspired together plotting how to trap Him by [distorting] what He said. [Mark 12:13–17; Luke 20:20–26]

¹⁶They sent their disciples to Him, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that You are sincere and that You teach the way of God truthfully, without concerning Yourself about [what] anyone [thinks or says of Your teachings]; for You are impartial and do not seek anyone’s favor [and You treat all people alike, regardless of status].

¹⁷“Tell us then, what do You think? Is it permissible [according to Jewish law and tradition] to pay a poll-tax to Caesar, or not?”

¹⁸But Jesus, aware of their malice, asked, “Why are you testing Me, you hypocrites?”

¹⁹“Show me the coin used for the poll-tax.” And they brought Him a denarius [a day’s wage].

²⁰And Jesus said to them, “Whose likeness and inscription is this?”

²¹They said, “[The Emperor Tiberius] Caesar’s.” Then He said to them, “Then pay to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s; and to God the things that are God’s.”

²²When they heard this, they were caught off guard, and they left Him and went away.

²³On that day some Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection [of the dead], came to Him and asked Him a question, [Mark 12:18–27; Luke 20:27–40]

²⁴saying, “Teacher, Moses said, ‘IF A MAN DIES, LEAVING NO CHILDREN, HIS BROTHER AS NEXT OF KIN SHALL MARRY HIS WIDOW, AND RAISE CHILDREN FOR HIS BROTHER.’ [Deut 25:5]

²⁵“Now there were seven brothers among us; the first married and died, and having no children left his wife to his brother.

²⁶“The second also [died childless], and the third, down to the seventh.

²⁷“Last of all, the woman died.

²⁸“So in the resurrection, whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had married her.”

²⁹But Jesus replied to them, “You are all wrong because you know neither the Scriptures [which teach the resurrection] nor the power of God [for He is able to raise the dead].

³⁰“For in the resurrection neither do men marry nor are women given in marriage, but they are like angels in heaven [who do not marry nor produce children].

³¹“But as to the resurrection of the dead—have you not read [in the Scripture] what God said to you:

³²‘I AM THE GOD OF ABRAHAM, AND THE GOD OF ISAAC, AND THE GOD OF JACOB’? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living.” [Ex 3:6]

³³When the crowds heard this, they were astonished at His teaching.

³⁴Now when the Pharisees heard that He had silenced (muzzled) the Sadducees, they gathered together. [Mark 12:28–31; Luke 10:25–28]

³⁵One of them, a lawyer [an expert in Mosaic Law], asked

Jesus a question, to test Him:

³⁶“Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?” [Mark 12:28]

³⁷And Jesus replied to him, “‘YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND.’ [Deut 6:5]

³⁸“This is the first and greatest commandment.

³⁹“The second is like it, ‘YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF [that is, unselfishly seek the best or higher good for others].’ [Lev 19:18; Matt 19:19]

⁴⁰“The whole Law and the [writings of the] Prophets depend on these two commandments.”

⁴¹Now while the Pharisees were [still] gathered together, Jesus asked them a question: [Mark 12:35–37; Luke 20:41–44]

⁴²“What do you [Pharisees] think of the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed)? Whose Son is He?” They said to Him, “The son of David.”

⁴³Jesus asked them, “How is it then that David by the inspiration of the Spirit, calls Him ‘Lord,’ saying,

⁴⁴‘THE LORD (the Father) SAID TO MY LORD (the Son, the Messiah), “SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND, UNTIL I PUT YOUR ENEMIES UNDER YOUR FEET” ’? [Ps 110:1]

⁴⁵“So then, if David calls Him (the Son, the Messiah) ‘Lord,’ how is He David’s son?”

⁴⁶No one was able to say a word to Him in answer, nor from that day on did anyone dare to question Him again.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

What Do You Say About Yourself?

Listening to yourself can be quite an education. Do you say negative and unkind things about yourself? If so, it is because deep in your heart you have a bad attitude toward yourself that will negatively affect your joy and all your relationships. God doesn't want you to say bad things about yourself; He wants you to love and respect yourself so you can love and respect others (see Matt. 22:39). You cannot give away what you don't already have inside yourself.

God loves us unconditionally, and since God Who is perfect loves us, surely we can love ourselves. We all make mistakes and want to change, and we should work with the Holy Spirit toward those changes. Through Christ we can love and value ourselves even while we are imperfect. The better you get along with yourself, the better you will get along with others.

23 THEN JESUS spoke to the crowds and to His disciples, ²saying: “The scribes and Pharisees have seated themselves in Moses’ chair [of authority as teachers of the Law];

³so practice and observe everything they tell you, but do not do as they do; for they preach [things], but do not practice them.

⁴“The scribes and Pharisees tie up heavy loads [that are hard to bear] and place them on men’s shoulders, but they themselves will not lift a finger [to make them lighter].

⁵“They do all their deeds to be seen by men; for they make their phylacteries (tefillin) wide [to make them more conspicuous] and make their tassels long. [Ex 13:9; Num 15:38; Deut 6:8]

⁹“Do not call anyone on earth [who guides you spiritually] your father; for One is your Father, He who is in heaven.

¹⁰“Do not let yourselves be called leaders or teachers; for One is your Leader (Teacher), the Christ.

¹¹“But the greatest among you will be your servant.

POWERPOINT

Perfectionism is a cold and sterile symptom of a legalistic mind-set, such as the Pharisees possessed (see Matt. 23:2–7).

They were great at making others feel as though they did not measure up. This is the opposite of grace, and perhaps that is why Jesus so vehemently opposed the Pharisees' attitude and behavior. God does not expect us to be perfect. It is precisely because we are not perfect that He sent Jesus to save us and gave the Holy Spirit to help us in our daily lives.

¹²“Whoever exalts himself shall be humbled; and whoever humbles himself shall be raised to honor.

¹³“But woe (judgment is coming) to you, [self-righteous] scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you shut off the kingdom of heaven in front of people; for you do not enter yourselves, nor do you allow those who are [in the process of] entering to do so. [Luke 11:52]

¹⁴“[Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you swallow up widows’ houses, and to cover it up you make long prayers; therefore you will receive the greater condemnation.]

¹⁵“Woe to you, [self-righteous] scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you travel over sea and land to make a single proselyte (convert to Judaism), and when he becomes a convert, you make him twice as much a son of hell as you are.

¹⁷“You fools and blind men! Which is more important, the gold or the sanctuary of the temple that sanctified the gold? [Ex 30:29]

¹⁸“And [you scribes and Pharisees say], ‘Whoever swears [an oath] by the altar, that is nothing (non-binding), but whoever swears [an oath] by the offering on it, he is obligated [as a debtor to fulfill his vow and keep his promise].’

KEYS to a Victorious Life

A Very Bad Attitude

The religious leaders during the time of Jesus' ministry were hypocritical, and Jesus told them so. They taught others what they should do, but then did not do what they themselves taught. They loaded people down with religious rules but wouldn't lift a finger to help them. Some of the deepest hurts in my life, and perhaps in yours too, have come from religious, rule-keeping people who did not walk in love. They knew all the so-called "rules" of Christianity, but seemed to lack a loving relationship with the Lord.

People who think they have no faults easily find fault in others. But if we recognize our need for forgiveness and grace, we can show forgiveness and grace to those around us. If we know we need mercy and patience from God, we will be able to be merciful and patient with others. Giving away what we have never received from the Lord is impossible. If we receive mercy from the Lord for our own failings, we will be able to give mercy more freely to others.

A religious attitude is one of the worst mind-sets anyone can have. It always comes across to others as critical and as though the one who has it feels superior to others, believing he or she is better and more pleasing to God than anyone else. People with a religious attitude do their good works in ways that will be noticed. Their motives for doing good are self-serving.

Let's pray that God will reveal to us all the beauty of relationship and intimacy with Him and the power of true righteousness. Jesus did not die so we would merely keep rules; He died to give us a relationship with Himself, to forgive us when we sin, and to set us free to live in His grace and mercy.

POWERPOINT

Matthew 23 contains strong words from Jesus directed to the Pharisees. Though He was quite angry earlier in the chapter, by verse 37 He is weeping over the people of Jerusalem with compassion and mercy. Thankfully, the symbol of Christianity is the cross and not a set of scales. God does not weigh and measure our faults and then charge us accordingly. He chose to pay the penalty with His own Son (see Eph. 2:4-5).

¹⁹“You [spiritually] blind men, which is more important, the offering, or the altar that sanctifies the offering?

²⁰“Therefore, whoever swears [an oath] by the altar, swears both by it and by everything [offered] on it.

²¹“And whoever swears [an oath] by the sanctuary of the temple, swears by it and by Him who dwells within it. [1 Kin 8:13; Ps 26:8]

²²“And whoever swears [an oath] by heaven, swears both by the throne of God and by Him who sits upon it.

²³“Woe to you, [self-righteous] scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you give a tenth (tithe) of your mint and dill and cumin [focusing on minor matters], and have neglected the weightier [more important moral and spiritual] provisions of the Law: justice and mercy and faithfulness; but these are the [primary] things you ought to have done without neglecting the others.

²⁴“You [spiritually] blind guides, who strain out a gnat [consuming yourselves with miniscule matters] and swallow a camel [ignoring and violating God’s precepts]! [Lev 11:24; 27:30; Mic 6:8]

²⁵“Woe to you, [self-righteous] scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside they are full of extortion and robbery and self-indulgence (unrestrained greed).

²⁶“You [spiritually] blind Pharisee, first clean the inside of the cup and of the plate [examine and change your inner self to conform to God’s precepts], so that the outside [your public life and deeds] may be clean also.

²⁸“So you, also, outwardly seem to be just and upright to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

[Ps 5:9]

²⁹“Woe to you, [self-righteous] scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build tombs for the prophets and decorate and adorn the monuments of the righteous,³⁰ and you say, ‘If we had been living in the days of our fathers, we would not have joined them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’

³¹“So you testify against yourselves that you are the descendants of those who murdered the prophets.

³²“Fill up, then, the [allotted] measure of the guilt of your fathers’ sins.

³³“You serpents, you spawn of vipers, how can you escape the penalty of hell?

³⁴“Therefore, take notice, I am sending you prophets and wise men [interpreters, teachers] and scribes [men educated in the Mosaic Law and the writings of the prophets]; some of them you will kill and even crucify, and some you will flog in your synagogues, and pursue and persecute from city to city,³⁵ so that on you will come the guilt of all the blood of the righteous shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah [the priest], the son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar. [Gen 4:8; 2 Chr 24:21; Luke 11:51]

³⁶“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, [the judgment for] all these things [these vile and murderous deeds] will come on this generation. [2 Chr 36:15, 16]

you were unwilling. [Luke 13:34, 35]

³⁸“Listen carefully: your house is being left to you desolate [completely abandoned by God and destitute of His protection]! [1 Kin 9:6, 7; Jer 22:5]

³⁹“For I say to you, you will not see Me again [ministering to you publicly] until you say, ‘BLESSED [to be celebrated with praise] IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD!’” [Ps 118:26]

24 JESUS LEFT the temple area and was going on His way when His disciples came up to Him to call His attention to the [magnificent and massive] buildings of the temple. [Mark 13; Luke 21:5–36]

²And He said to them, “Do you see all these things? I assure you and most solemnly say to you, not one stone here will be left on another, which will not be torn down.”

³While Jesus was seated on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, and said, “Tell us, when will this [destruction of the temple] take place, and what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end (completion, consummation) of the age?”

⁴Jesus answered, “Be careful that no one misleads you [deceiving you and leading you into error].

⁵“For many will come in My name [misusing it, and appropriating the strength of the name which belongs to Me], saying, ‘I am the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed),’ and they will mislead many.

⁶“You will continually hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not frightened, for those things must take place, but that is not yet the end [of the age].

⁷“For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places.

Speak God's Word

I will be careful that no one misleads me, deceiving me and leading me into error.

| adapted from MATTHEW 24:4 |

⁸“But all these things are merely the beginning of birth pangs [of the intolerable anguish and the time of unprecedented trouble].

⁹“Then they will hand you over to [endure] tribulation, and will put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of My name.

¹⁰“At that time many will be offended and repelled [by their association with Me] and will fall away [from the One whom they should trust] and will betray one another [handing over believers to their persecutors] and will hate one another.

¹¹“Many false prophets will appear and mislead many.

¹²“Because lawlessness is increased, the love of most people will grow cold.

¹³“But the one who endures and bears up [under suffering] to the end will be saved.

¹⁴“This good news of the kingdom [the gospel] will be preached throughout the whole world as a testimony to all the nations, and then the end [of the age] will come.

¹⁵“So when you see the ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION [the appalling sacrilege that astonishes and makes desolate], spoken of by the prophet Daniel, standing in the Holy Place (let the reader understand), [Dan 9:27; 11:31; 12:11]

¹⁶then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains [for refuge].

¹⁷“Whoever is on the housetop must not go down to get the things that are in his house [because there will not be enough time].

¹⁸“Whoever is in the field must not turn back to get his coat.

¹⁹“And woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days!

²⁰“Pray that your flight [from persecution and suffering] will not be in winter, or on a Sabbath [when Jewish laws prohibit travel].

²¹“For at that time there will be a great tribulation (pressure, distress, oppression), such as has not occurred since the beginning of the world until now, nor ever will [again]. [Dan 12:1; Joel 2:2]

²³“Then if anyone says to you [during the great tribulation], ‘Look! Here is the Christ,’ or ‘There He is,’ do not believe it.

²⁴“For false Christs and false prophets will appear and they will provide great signs and wonders, so as to deceive, if possible, even the elect (God's chosen ones).

²⁵“Listen carefully, I have told you in advance.

²⁶“So if they say to you, ‘Look! He is in the wilderness,’ do not go out there, or, ‘Look! He is in the inner rooms [of a house],’ do not believe it.

²⁷“For just as the lightning comes from the east and flashes as far as the west, so will be the coming [in glory] of the Son of Man [everyone will see Him clearly].

²⁸“Wherever the corpse is, there the vultures will flock together. [Job 39:30]

²⁹“Immediately after the tribulation of those days THE SUN WILL BE DARKENED, AND THE MOON WILL NOT PROVIDE ITS LIGHT, AND THE STARS WILL FALL from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. [Is 13:10; 34:4; Joel 2:10, 11; Zeph 1:15]

³⁰“And at that time the sign of the Son of Man [coming in His glory] will appear in the sky, and then all the tribes of the earth [and especially Israel] will mourn [regretting their rebellion and rejection of the Messiah], and they will see the SON OF MAN COMING ON THE CLOUDS OF HEAVEN with power and great glory [in brilliance and splendor]. [Dan 7:13; Rev 1:7]

³¹“And He will send His angels with A LOUD TRUMPET and THEY WILL GATHER TOGETHER His elect (God's chosen ones) from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other. [Is 27:13; Zech 9:14]

³³so you, too, when you see all these things [taking place], know for certain that He is near, right at the door.

³⁴“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, this generation [the people living when these signs and events begin] will not pass away until all these things take place.

³⁵“Heaven and earth [as now known] will pass away, but My words will not pass away.

³⁶“But of that [exact] day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son [in His humanity], but the Father alone.

³⁷“For the coming of the Son of Man (the Messiah) will be just like the days of Noah.

³⁸“For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the [very] day when Noah entered the ark,

³⁹and they did not know or understand until the flood came and swept them all away; so will the coming of the Son of Man be [unexpected judgment]. [Gen 6:5–8; 7:6–24]

⁴⁰“At that time two men will be in the field; one will be taken [for judgment] and one will be left.

⁴¹“Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken [for judgment] and one will be left.

⁴²“So be alert [give strict attention, be cautious and active in faith], for you do not know which day [whether near or far] your Lord is coming.

⁴³“But understand this: If the head of the house had known what time of the night the thief was coming, he would have been on the alert and would not have allowed his house to be broken into. [Luke 12:39, 40]

⁴⁴“Therefore, you [who follow Me] must also be ready;

because the Son of Man is coming at an hour when you do not expect Him.

⁴⁵“Who then is the faithful and wise servant whom his master has put in charge of his household to give the others [in the house] their food and supplies at the proper time? [Luke 12:42–46] ⁴⁶“Blessed is that [faithful] servant when his master returns and finds him doing so.

⁴⁷“I assure you and most solemnly say to you that he will put him in charge of all his possessions.

⁴⁸“But if that servant is evil and says in his heart, ‘My master is taking his time [he will not return for a long while],’

⁴⁹and begins to beat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards;

⁵⁰the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour of which he is not aware,

⁵¹and will cut him in two and put him with the hypocrites; in that place there will be weeping [over sorrow and pain] and grinding of teeth [over distress and anger].

25 “THEN THE kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins, who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom.

²“Five of them were foolish [thoughtless, silly, and careless], and five were wise [far-sighted, practical, and sensible].

³“For when the foolish took their lamps, they did not take any [extra] oil with them, ⁴but the wise took flasks of oil along with their lamps.

⁵“Now while the bridegroom was delayed, they all began to nod off, and they fell asleep.

⁶“But at midnight there was a shout, ‘Look! The bridegroom [is coming]! Go out to meet him.’

⁷“Then all those virgins got up and put their own lamps in order [trimmed the wicks and added oil and lit them].

⁸“But the foolish virgins said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil, because our lamps are going out.’

⁹“But the wise replied, ‘No, otherwise there will not be enough for us and for you, too; go instead to the dealers and buy oil for yourselves.’

¹⁰“But while they were going away to buy oil, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding feast; and the door was shut and locked.

¹¹“Later the others also came, and said, ‘Lord, Lord, open [the door] for us.’

¹²“But He replied, ‘I assure you and most solemnly say to you, I do not know you [we have no relationship].’

¹³“Therefore, be on the alert [be prepared and ready], for you do not know the day nor the hour [when the Son of Man will come].

¹⁴“For it is just like a man who was about to take a journey, and he called his servants together and entrusted them with his possessions. [Luke 19:12–27]

¹⁵“To one he gave five talents, to another, two, and to another, one, each according to his own ability; and then he went on his journey.

16“‘The one who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them, and he [made a profit and] gained five more.

17“‘Likewise the one who had two [made a profit and] gained two more.

18“‘But the one who had received the one went and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master’s money.

19“‘Now after a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them.

20“‘And the one who had received the five talents came and brought him five more, saying, ‘Master, you entrusted to me five talents. See, I have [made a profit and] gained five more talents.’

21“‘His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful and trustworthy over a little, I will put you in charge of many things; share in the joy of your master.’

22“‘Also the one who had the two talents came forward, saying, ‘Master, you entrusted two talents to me. See, I have [made a profit and] gained two more talents.’

23“‘His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful and trustworthy over a little, I will put you in charge of many things; share in the joy of your master.’

24“‘The one who had received one talent also came forward, saying, ‘Master, I knew you to be a harsh and demanding man, reaping [the harvest] where you did not sow and gathering where you did not scatter seed.

25“‘So I was afraid [to lose the talent], and I went and hid your talent in the ground. See, you have what is your own.'

²⁶“But his master answered him, ‘You wicked, lazy servant, you knew that I reap [the harvest] where I did not sow and gather where I did not scatter seed.

²⁷“Then you ought to have put my money with the bankers, and at my return I would have received my money back with interest.

²⁸“So take the talent away from him, and give it to the one who has the ten talents.’

²⁹“For to everyone who has [and values his blessings and gifts from God, and has used them wisely], more will be given, and [he will be richly supplied so that] he will have an abundance; but from the one who does not have [because he has ignored or disregarded his blessings and gifts from God], even what he does have will be taken away. [Matt 13:12; Luke 19:26]

³⁰“And throw out the worthless servant into the outer darkness; in that place [of grief and torment] there will be weeping [over sorrow and pain] and grinding of teeth [over distress and anger].

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Be Faithful to What God Gives You

Jesus often taught life lessons through people illustrations such as the Parable of the Talents. It describes a man who gave certain amounts of money to three of his servants with the instruction to invest it (see Matt. 25:14–30). A talent was said to have been worth more than a thousand dollars in Jesus’ day.

The landowner distributed the money according to each person’s ability (see v. 15). He only gave them what they were capable of handling. The two men to whom he gave the most money invested wisely, doubled their investments, and were richly rewarded.

The third man—the one with the least ability—was given the least amount of responsibility, and still failed. Worse, he tried to justify his failure by blaming the master! He said that because the master was a harsh man, he was afraid and hid the talent (see v. 25). Fear caused the man to do nothing.

The owner responded, “Then you ought to have put my money with the bankers, and at my return I would have received my money back with interest” (v. 27). The man would never have made as much profit as the other two, but all that the owner asked was for him to do what he could do.

This illustrates one way the devil snares us. He causes us to compare ourselves with others, with how much they have—whether it’s money, talent, natural ability, or some other resource. Another snare is to tell us that other people are given more opportunities than we will ever have. God doesn’t ask us to do what someone else can do. He asks us to use the gifts and abilities that He has given to us.

God has a plan for each of us. A life of faith and obedience to God’s Word causes His plan to unfold before our eyes. Clutching what little we have in fear causes us to give up on our dreams and God’s plan for our lives.

When we listen to the devil, we believe that everything we try will fail. If we listen to God, we will hear Him say, “Well done, good and faithful servant” (v. 21). It is not how much we accomplish that is important, but it’s being faithful to the ability God has given us that makes the difference.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Loving and caring Father; I pray that You will make me faithful to fulfill Your plan for my life. In the name of Jesus, I thank You for helping me to resist the enemy who is always seeking to steal what You have given me. Amen.

³¹“But when the Son of Man comes in His glory and majesty and all the angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory. [Rev 20:4–6]

³³and He will put the sheep on His right [the place of honor], and the goats on His left [the place of rejection].

³⁴“Then the King will say to those on His right, ‘Come, you blessed of My Father [you favored of God, appointed to eternal salvation], inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

³⁵‘For I was hungry, and you gave Me something to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me something to drink; I was a stranger, and you invited Me in;

³⁶*I was naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me [with help and ministering care]; I was in prison, and you came to Me [ignoring personal danger].’ [Is 58:7]*

³⁷“Then the righteous will answer Him, ‘Lord, when did we see You hungry, and feed You, or thirsty, and give You something to drink?

³⁸‘And when did we see You as a stranger, and invite You in, or naked, and clothe You?

³⁹‘And when did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?’

⁴⁰“The King will answer and say to them, ‘I assure you and most solemnly say to you, to the extent that you did it for one of these brothers of Mine, even the least of them, you did it for Me.’ [Prov 19:17]

⁴¹“Then He will say to those on His left, ‘Leave Me, you cursed ones, into the eternal fire which has been prepared for the devil and his angels (demons); ⁴²for I was hungry, and you gave Me nothing to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me nothing to drink;

⁴³I was a stranger, and you did not invite Me in; naked, and you did not clothe Me; sick, and in prison, and you did not visit Me [with help and ministering care].’

⁴⁴“Then they also [in their turn] will answer, ‘Lord, when did we see You hungry, or thirsty, or as a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister to You?’

⁴⁵“Then He will reply to them, ‘I assure you and most solemnly say to you, to the extent that you did not do it for one of the least of these [my followers], you did not do it for Me.’ [Prov 14:31; 17:5]

⁴⁶“Then these [unbelieving people] will go away into eternal (unending) punishment, but those who are righteous and in right standing with God [will go, by His remarkable grace] into eternal (unending) life.” [Dan 12:2]

26 WHEN JESUS had finished this discourse, He said to His disciples, ²“You know that the Passover is coming in two days, and the Son of Man is to be betrayed and handed over for crucifixion.” [Mark 14:1, 2; Luke 22:1, 2]

³Then the chief priests and the elders of the people gathered in the courtyard of the [elegant home of the Jewish] high priest, whose name was Caiaphas, ⁴and plotted together to arrest Jesus by stealth and kill Him.

⁵But they said, “It must not be during the festival (Passover), otherwise there might be a riot among the people.”

⁶Now when Jesus was [back] in Bethany, at the home of Simon the leper, [Mark 14:3–9; John 12:1–8]

⁷a woman came to Him with an alabaster vial of very expensive perfume and she poured it on Jesus’ head as He reclined at the table.

⁸But when the disciples saw it they were indignant and angry, saying, “Why all this waste [of money]?”

⁹“For this perfume might have been sold at a high price and the money given to the poor.”

¹⁰But Jesus, aware [of the malice] of this [remark], said to them, “Why are you bothering the woman? She has done a good thing to Me.

¹¹“For you always have the poor with you; but you will not always have Me. [Deut 15:11; Mark 14:7]

¹²“When she poured this perfume on My body, she did it to prepare Me for burial.

¹³“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, wherever this gospel [of salvation] is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told in memory of her [for her act of love and devotion].”

¹⁴Then one of the twelve [disciples], who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests

¹⁵and said, “What are you willing to give me if I hand Jesus over to you?” And they weighed out thirty pieces of silver. [Ex

21:32; Zech 11:12]

¹⁶And from that moment Judas began looking for an opportune time to betray Jesus. [Mark 14:10, 11; Luke 22:3–6; John 6:71]

¹⁷Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread (Passover Week) the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?” [Mark 14:12–16; Luke 22:7–13]

¹⁸He said, “Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, ‘The Teacher says, “My time [to suffer and atone for sin] is near; I am to keep the Passover at your house with My disciples.”’”

¹⁹[Accordingly] the disciples did as Jesus had directed them, and they prepared the Passover. [Deut 16:5–8]

²⁰When evening came, Jesus was reclining at the table with the twelve disciples. [Mark 14:17–21]

²¹And as they were eating, He said, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you that one of you will betray Me.”

²²Being deeply grieved and extremely distressed, each one of them began to say to Him, “Surely not I, Lord?”

²³Jesus answered, “He who has dipped his hand in the bowl with Me [as a pretense of friendship] will betray Me.

²⁴“The Son of Man is to go [to the cross], just as it is written [in Scripture] of Him; but woe (judgment is coming) to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had never been born.” [Ps 41:9]

²⁵And Judas, the betrayer, said, “Surely it is not I, Rabbi?” Jesus said to him, “You have said it yourself.”

²⁶Now as they were eating Jesus took bread, and after blessing it, He broke it and gave it to the disciples, and said, “Take, eat; this is My body.” [Mark 14:22–25; Luke 22:17–20; 1 Cor 11:23–25]

²⁷And when He had taken a cup and given thanks, He gave it to them, saying, “Drink from it, all of you;

²⁸for this is My blood of the [new and better] covenant, which [ratifies the agreement and] is being poured out for many [as a substitutionary atonement] for the forgiveness of sins. [Ex 24:6–8]

²⁹“But I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in My Father’s kingdom.”

³⁰After singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

³¹Then Jesus said to them, “You will all fall away because of Me this night [disillusioned about Me, confused, and some even ashamed of Me], for it is written [in the Scriptures], ‘I WILL STRIKE THE SHEPHERD, AND THE SHEEP OF THE FLOCK WILL BE SCATTERED.’ [Zech 13:7]

³²“But after I am raised [to life], I will go ahead of you [leading the way] to Galilee.”

³³Peter replied to Him, “Though they all fall away because of You [and doubt and disown You], I will never fall away!” [Mark 14:29–31; Luke 22:33, 34; John 13:37, 38]

³⁴Jesus said to him, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, this night, before a rooster crows, you will [completely] deny Me three times.”

³⁵Peter said to Jesus, “Even if I have to die with You, I will not deny You!” And all the disciples said the same thing.

³⁶Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane (olive-press), and He told His disciples, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.” [Mark 14:32–42; Luke 22:40–46]

³⁷And taking with Him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee [James and John], He began to be grieved and greatly distressed.

³⁸Then He said to them, “My soul is deeply grieved, so that I am almost dying of sorrow. Stay here and stay awake and keep watch with Me.”

³⁹And after going a little farther, He fell face down and prayed, saying, “My Father, if it is possible [that is, consistent with Your will], let this cup pass from Me; yet not as I will, but as You will.”

⁴⁰And He came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, “So, you men could not stay awake and keep watch with Me for one hour?

⁴¹“Keep actively watching and praying that you may not come into temptation; the spirit is willing, but the body is weak.”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Watch and Pray

Fear attacks everyone. It is Satan's way of tormenting and preventing us from enjoying the life Jesus died to give us. If we accept the fears that Satan offers and give voice to them, we open the door for the enemy and close the door to God.

To help combat fear, we can believe and confess as David and the writer of Hebrews boldly confess: "THE LORD IS MY HELPER [in time of need], I WILL NOT BE AFRAID. WHAT WILL MAN DO TO ME?" (Heb. 13:6).

Satan seeks to weaken us through fear, but God strengthens us as we fellowship with Him in prayer. The Bible teaches us to watch and pray: "Keep actively watching and praying that you may not come into temptation; the spirit is willing, but the body is weak" (Matt. 26:41). The major point of this passage is that while we are praying for God's protection, we are to be watching for the attacks that the enemy will launch against our minds and our emotions. And when these attacks are detected, to pray immediately. We must remember that it is when we pray that power is released against the enemy—not when we think about praying later.

Watch and pray about everything. I believe you will find this decision to be one that will produce abundant joy and peace for your everyday living. Resisting the enemy with prayer and faith is necessary in order to experience real victory over him (see 1 Pet. 5:9).

⁴²He went away a second time and prayed, saying, “My Father, if this cannot pass away unless I drink it, Your will be done.”

⁴³Again He came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.

⁴⁴So, leaving them again, He went away and prayed for the third time, saying the same words once more.

⁴⁵Then He returned to the disciples and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? Listen, the hour [of My sacrifice] is at hand and the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners [whose way and nature is to oppose God].

⁴⁶“Get up, let us go. Look, My betrayer is near!”

⁴⁷As Jesus was still speaking, Judas [Iscariot], one of the twelve [disciples], came up accompanied by a large crowd with swords and clubs, [who came as representatives] from the chief priests and elders of the people. [Mark 14:43–50; Luke 22:47–53; John 18:3–11]

⁴⁸Now the betrayer had given them a sign, saying, “Whomever I kiss, He is the one; seize Him.”

⁴⁹Immediately Judas went to Jesus and said, “Greetings (rejoice), Rabbi!” And he kissed Him [in a deliberate act of betrayal].

⁵⁰Jesus said to Judas, “Friend, do what you came for.” Then they came and seized Jesus and arrested Him.

⁵¹And one of those who were with Jesus reached out and drew his sword, and struck [Malchus] the slave of the high priest and cut off his ear. [Mark 14:47; Luke 22:50; John 18:10]

⁵²Then Jesus said to him, “Put your sword back in its place; for all those who habitually draw the sword will die by the sword. [Gen 9:6]

⁵³“Do you think that I cannot appeal to My Father, and He will immediately provide Me with more than twelve legions of angels?

⁵⁴“How then will the Scriptures be fulfilled, that it must happen this way?”

⁵⁵At that moment Jesus said to the crowds, “Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me as you would against a robber? Day after day I used to sit in the porches and courts of the temple teaching, and you did not arrest Me.

⁵⁶“But all this has taken place so that the Scriptures of the prophets would be fulfilled.” Then all the disciples deserted Him and fled.

⁵⁷Those who had seized Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas, the high priest, where the scribes and the elders (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) had gathered [illegally] together. [Mark 14:53–65; Luke 22:66–71; John 18:12f, 19–24]

⁵⁸But Peter followed Him at a distance as far as the courtyard of the [elegant home of the Jewish] high priest, and went inside, and sat with the guards to see the outcome.

⁵⁹Now the chief priests and the whole Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) tried to get false witnesses to testify against Jesus, so that they might [have a reason to] put Him to death.

⁶⁰They found none, even though many false witnesses came forward. At last two came forward,

⁶¹and testified, “This man said, ‘I am able to tear down the temple of God and rebuild it in three days.’”

⁶²The high priest stood up and said to Jesus, “Have You no answer to give? What is it that these men are testifying against You?”

⁶³But Jesus kept silent. And the high priest said to Him, “I call on You to swear a binding oath by the living God, that you tell us whether You are the Christ, the Son of God.”

⁶⁴Jesus said to him, “You have [in fact] said it; but more than that I tell you [regardless of what you do with Me now], in the future you will see [Me revealed as] THE SON OF MAN SEATED AT THE RIGHT HAND OF POWER, and COMING ON THE CLOUDS OF HEAVEN.” [Ps 110:1; Dan 7:13]

⁶⁵Then the high priest tore his robes [in mock horror] and exclaimed, “He has blasphemed [by making Himself God’s equal]! What further need have we of witnesses or evidence? See, you have now heard the blasphemy. [Lev 24:16; Num 14:6]

⁶⁶“What do you think?” They answered, “He deserves to be put to death.”

⁶⁷Then they spat in His face and struck Him with their fists; and some slapped Him, [Is 50:6]

⁶⁸saying, “Prophecy to us, You Christ (Messiah, Anointed); who was it that struck You?”

⁶⁹Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and a servant-girl came up to him and said, “You too were with Jesus the Galilean.” [Mark 14:66–72; Luke 22:55–62; John 18:16–18, 25–27]

⁷⁰But he denied it before them all, saying, “I do not know what you are talking about.”

⁷¹And when he had gone out to the gateway, another servant-girl saw him and she said to the bystanders, “This man was with Jesus the Nazarene.”

⁷²And again he denied it with an oath, “I do not know the man.”

⁷³After a little while the bystanders came up and said to Peter, “Surely you are one of them too; for even your [Galilean] accent gives you away.”

⁷⁴Then he began to curse [that is, to invoke God’s judgment on himself] and swear [an oath], “I do not know the man!” And at that moment a rooster crowed.

⁷⁵And Peter remembered the [prophetic] words of Jesus, when He had said, “Before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times.” And he went outside and wept bitterly [in repentance].

27 WHEN IT was morning, all the chief priests and the elders of the people (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) conferred together against Jesus, [plotting how] to put Him to death [since under Roman rule they had no power to execute anyone]; ²so they bound Him, and led Him away and handed Him over to Pilate the governor [of Judea, who had the authority to condemn prisoners to death].

³When Judas, His betrayer, saw that Jesus was condemned, he was gripped with remorse and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders, [Ex 21:32]

⁴saying, “I have sinned by betraying innocent blood.” They replied, “What is that to us? See to that yourself!”

⁵And throwing the pieces of silver into the temple sanctuary, he left; and went away and hanged himself.

⁶The chief priests, picking up the pieces of silver, said, “It is not lawful to put these in the treasury [of the temple], because it is the price of blood.”

⁷So after consultation they used the money to buy the Potter’s Field as a burial place for strangers.

⁸Therefore that piece of ground has been called the Field of Blood to this day.

⁹Then the words spoken by Jeremiah the prophet were fulfilled: “AND THEY TOOK THE THIRTY PIECES OF SILVER, THE PRICE OF HIM ON WHOM A PRICE HAD BEEN SET by the sons of Israel; [Jer 18:1, 2; 19:1–15; 32:6–9]

¹⁰AND THEY GAVE THEM FOR THE POTTER’S FIELD, AS THE LORD DIRECTED ME.” [Zech 11:13]

¹¹Now Jesus stood before [Pilate] the governor, and the governor asked Him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” [In affirmation] Jesus said to him, “It is as you say.” [Mark 15:2–5; Luke 23:2, 3; John 18:29–37]

¹²But when the charges were brought against Him by the chief priests and elders, He did not answer. [Is 53:7]

¹³Then Pilate said to Him, “Do You not hear how many things they are testifying against You?”

¹⁴But Jesus did not reply to him, not even to a single accusation, so that the governor was greatly astonished.

¹⁵Now at the feast [of the Passover] the governor was in the habit of setting free any one prisoner whom the people chose. [Mark 15:6–15; Luke 23:18–25; John 18:39–19:16]

¹⁶And at that time they were holding a notorious prisoner [guilty of insurrection and murder], called Barabbas.

¹⁷So when they had assembled [for this purpose], Pilate said to them, “Whom do you want me to set free for you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?”

¹⁸For Pilate knew that it was because of jealousy that the chief priests and elders had handed Jesus over to him.

¹⁹While he was seated on the judgment seat, his wife sent him a message, saying, “Have nothing to do with that righteous and innocent Man; for last night I suffered greatly in a dream because of Him.”

²⁰But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas and to put Jesus to death.

²¹The governor said to them, “Which of the two do you wish me to set free for you?” And they said, “Barabbas.”

²²Pilate said to them, “Then what shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?” They all replied, “Let Him be crucified!”

²³And he said, “Why, what has He done that is evil?” But they continued shouting all the louder, “Let Him be crucified!” [Mark 15:14; Luke 23:4, 14, 22; John 18:39; 19:4, 6]

²⁴So when Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere, but rather that a riot was breaking out, he took water and washed his hands [to ceremonially cleanse himself of guilt] in the presence of the crowd, saying, “I am innocent of this [righteous] Man’s blood; see to that yourselves.” [Deut 21:6–9; Ps 26:6]

²⁵And all the people answered, “Let [the responsibility for]

His blood be on us and on our children!” [Josh 2:19]

²⁶So he set Barabbas free for them; but after having Jesus severely whipped (scourged), he handed Him over to be crucified.

²⁷Then the governor’s soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium, and they gathered the whole Roman cohort around Him. [Mark 15:16–20; John 19:1–3]

²⁸They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on Him [as a king’s robe].

²⁹And after twisting together a crown of thorns, they put it on His head, and put a reed in His right hand [as a scepter]. Kneeling before Him, they ridiculed Him, saying, “Hail (rejoice), King of the Jews!”

³⁰They spat on Him, and took the reed and struck Him repeatedly on the head.

³¹After they finished ridiculing Him, they stripped Him of the scarlet robe and put His own clothes on Him, and led Him away to crucify Him.

³²Now as they were coming out, they found a man of Cyrene named Simon, whom they forced into service to carry the cross of Jesus. [Mark 15:21; Luke 23:26]

³³And when they came to a place called Golgotha, which means Place of a Skull, [Mark 15:22–32; Luke 23:33–43; John 19:17–24]

³⁴they offered Him wine mixed with gall (myrrh, a bitter-tasting narcotic) to drink; but after tasting it, He refused to drink it.

³⁵And when they had crucified Him, they divided His clothes among them by casting lots. [Ps 22:18]

³⁶Then sitting down there, they began to keep watch over Him [to guard against any rescue attempt].

³⁷And above His head they put the accusation against Him which read, “THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.”

³⁸At the same time two robbers were crucified with Jesus, one on the right and one on the left.

³⁹Those who passed by were hurling abuse at Him and jeering at Him, wagging their heads [in scorn and ridicule], [Ps 22:7, 8; 109:25]

⁴⁰and they said [tauntingly], “You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save Yourself [from death]! If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross.”

⁴¹In the same way the chief priests also, along with the scribes and elders, mocked Him, saying, ⁴²“He saved others [from death]; He cannot save Himself. He is the King of Israel; let Him now come down from the cross, and we will believe in Him and acknowledge Him.

⁴³“HE TRUSTS IN GOD; LET GOD RESCUE Him now, IF HE DELIGHTS IN HIM; for He said, ‘I am the Son of God.’” [Ps 22:8]

⁴⁴The robbers who had been crucified with Him also began to insult Him in the same way.

⁴⁵Now from the sixth hour (noon) there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour (3:00 p.m.). [Mark 15:33–41; Luke 23:44–49]

⁴⁶About the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud [agonized] voice, “ELI, ELI, LAMA SABACHTHANI?” that is, “MY GOD, MY GOD, WHY HAVE YOU FORSAKEN ME?” [Ps 22:1]

⁴⁷When some of the bystanders there heard it, they began saying, “This man is calling for Elijah.”

⁴⁸Immediately one of them ran, and took a sponge, soaked it with sour wine and put it on a reed, and gave Him a drink. [Ps 69:21; Mark 15:36f; Luke 23:36; John 19:29, 30]

⁴⁹But the rest said, “Let us see whether Elijah will come to save Him [from death].”

⁵⁰And Jesus cried out again with a loud [agonized] voice, and gave up His spirit [voluntarily, sovereignly dismissing and releasing His spirit from His body in submission to His Father’s plan]. [John 10:18]

⁵¹And [at once] the veil [of the Holy of Holies] of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom; the earth shook and the rocks were split apart. [Ex 26:31–35]

⁵²The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints (God’s people) who had fallen asleep [in death] were raised [to life];

⁵³and coming out of the tombs after His resurrection, they entered the holy city (Jerusalem) and appeared to many people.

⁵⁴Now the centurion, and those who were with him keeping guard over Jesus, when they saw the earthquake and the things that were happening, they were terribly frightened and filled with awe, and said, “Truly this was the Son of God!”

⁵⁵There were also many women there looking on from a distance, who had accompanied Jesus from Galilee, ministering to Him.

⁵⁶Among them was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and [Salome] the mother of Zebedee’s sons [James and John].

⁵⁷When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who was also a disciple of Jesus.

[Mark 15:42–47; Luke 23:50–56; John 19:38–42]

⁵⁸He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus [so that he might bury Him], and Pilate ordered that it be given to him.

⁵⁹And Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth (burial wrapping), ⁶⁰and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut in the rock; and he rolled a large stone over the entrance of the tomb and went away.

⁶¹And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb.

⁶²The next day, that is, the day after the [day of] preparation [for the Sabbath], the chief priests and the Pharisees assembled before Pilate, ⁶³and said, “Sir, we have remembered that when He was still alive that deceiver said, ‘After three days I will rise [from the dead].’

⁶⁴“Therefore, give orders to have the tomb made secure and safeguarded until the third day, otherwise His disciples may come and steal Him away and tell the people, ‘He has risen from the dead,’ and the last deception [the reporting of His resurrection] will be worse than the first [the reporting that He is the Messiah].”

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

You Can Choose Your Thoughts

In Matthew 28:18, Jesus appeared to His disciples and told them that God the Father had given Him all authority in heaven and on earth. He then charged them to go into the world and make disciples of all nations (see Matt. 28:19–20).

This took place after the resurrection, and Matthew records that Jesus' disciples worshiped Jesus the instant they realized they were seeing Him in person (see Matt. 28:17). Then Matthew adds one sad, negative statement to this significant story: "but some doubted."

How could that be? Had they not seen the lame walk, the blind eyes opened, the demon-possessed delivered and healed? Had they not seen Jesus die on the cross? Did they not even notice His nail-scarred hands?

The answer to all these questions, of course, is yes. Yet even these special, anointed, and handpicked followers of Christ struggled with doubt and unbelief. Is it any wonder then that Jesus referred to the importance of faith on so many occasions? Why would He urge them not to doubt? It was because He knew the temptation Satan would bring against them.

Jesus spoke to them of faith: “if you have faith [personal trust and confidence in Me] and do not doubt or allow yourself to be drawn in two directions, you will... say to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea, ’ it will happen [if God wills it]” (Matt. 21:21).

His point is that when we believe and do not doubt, we can see God accomplish miracles. Faith is a gift of God, but doubt is a choice. Doubt is a result of thoughts that are directly opposed to God’s Word. That is why it is so important for us to know the Word of God. When we know it, we are able to discern the devil’s lies. Doubt is just another part of the devil’s arsenal of weapons against our minds.

We have the option to decide whether to accept or reject thoughts that come into our minds. This means that when doubt knocks on the door of our minds, we can invite it in or dismiss it. The choice is ours. We can believe or we can doubt. The path of believing leads to the blessings of God.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord Jesus, I have allowed doubt to enter my mind and I have allowed Satan to torture me through my thoughts. Now I ask You to fill me with faith and enable me to push away such thoughts. I declare that my faith is in You. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Jesus Is Always with You

A major problem facing people today is loneliness. There are many causes that produce feelings of loneliness. Some of those who suffer most from loneliness are the shy and extremely timid; those who feel misunderstood; those in leadership; the divorced and unmarried; the widowed; the elderly; those who feel rejected and “odd”; the abused; those who must relocate or change employment—the list goes on and on.

Loneliness often manifests itself as an inner ache, a vacuum or a craving for affection. Its side effects include feelings of emptiness, uselessness, or purposelessness. A more serious side effect is often depression, which, in some cases, can lead to suicide.

It may not always be possible to keep from being alone, but that does not mean you have to feel lonely or lonesome. In Matthew 28:20, Jesus reassures us that He is with us “always [remaining with you perpetually—regardless of circumstance, and on every occasion], even to the end of the age.” He understands what you are going through and has promised to be with you in every trial. When you feel lonely, speak out in faith and say emphatically, “I am not alone, for God is with me!”

⁶⁵Pilate said to them, “You have a guard [of soldiers]; go [with them], make the tomb as secure as you know how.”

⁶⁶So they went and made the tomb secure, and along with [stationing] a guard of soldiers [to be on watch] they set a seal on the stone.

28 NOW AFTER the Sabbath, near dawn of the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb. [Mark 16:1–8; Luke 24:1–10, John 20:1–8]

²And a great earthquake had occurred, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled away the stone [from the opening of the tomb], and sat on it.

³The angel’s appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were as white as snow.

⁴The guards shook, paralyzed with fear [at the sight] of him and became like dead men [pale and immobile].

⁵But the angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid; for I know that you are looking for Jesus who has been crucified.

⁶“He is not here, for He has risen, just as He said [He would]. Come! See the place where He was lying.

⁷“Then go quickly and tell His disciples that He has risen from the dead; and behold, He is going ahead of you into Galilee [as He promised]. There you will see Him; behold, I have told you.”

⁸So the women left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to tell [the good news to] the disciples.

⁹And as they went, suddenly, Jesus met them, saying, “Rejoice!” And they went to Him and took hold of His feet [in homage] and worshiped Him [as the Messiah].

¹⁰Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid; go and tell My brothers to leave for Galilee, and there they will see Me [just as I promised].”

¹¹While they were on their way, some of the [Roman] guards went into the city and reported to the chief priests everything that had happened.

¹²And when the chief priests had gathered with the elders and had consulted together [to develop a plan of deception], they gave a sufficient sum of money [as a bribe] to the soldiers, ¹³and said, “You say this, ‘His disciples came at night and stole Him while we were sleeping.’”

¹⁴“And if the governor (Pilate) hears about it, we will calm him down and keep you out of trouble.”

¹⁵So they took the money [they were paid for lying] and did as they were instructed; and this [fabricated] story was widely spread among the Jews, and is to the present day.

¹⁶Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain which Jesus had designated.

¹⁷And when they saw Him, they worshiped Him; but some doubted [that it was really He].

¹⁸Jesus came up and said to them, “All authority (all power of absolute rule) in heaven and on earth has been given to Me.

¹⁹“Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations [help the people to learn of Me, believe in Me, and obey My words], baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰teaching them to observe everything that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always [remaining with you perpetually—regardless of circumstance, and on every occasion], even to the end of the age.”

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Mark

Author: | Mark

Date: | Possibly
AD 55–65

While Mark's Gospel is not as long as the other three Gospels, it is filled with information about Jesus' life and ministry. Mark offers his account of Jesus in clear, simple language. One of his key messages is the importance of having faith. In the battle we often experience in our mind, we sometimes think that truth and deception are fighting against each other or that right and wrong are contending for victory in our thoughts. Often, though, the real war is between faith and reason. Will we use our natural mind to make a decision, or will we rely on faith and trust God to lead us to do something that might not seem logical?

As you read the Gospel of Mark, I encourage you to allow it to stir up your faith in God and reinforce your belief that there is nothing He cannot do!

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM MARK:

The more time you spend thinking about the Word, the more ability you will have to obey it (see Mark 4:24).

When you are struggling with doubt or fear, remember that all things are possible for those who believe in Jesus (see Mark 9:23).

Instead of wondering how things are going to turn out, exercise your faith for a good outcome (see Mark 11:22–24).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM MARK:

Your sins are forgiven. | Mark 2:5

Do not be afraid; only keep on believing [in Me and my power]. | Mark 5:36

Whatever things you ask for in prayer [in accordance with God's will], believe [with confident trust] that you have received them, and they will be given to you. | Mark 11:24

YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL (life), AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND (thought, understanding), AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH. | Mark 12:30

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

MARK

1 THE BEGINNING of the [facts regarding the] good news of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

²As it is written and forever remains in the [writings of the] prophet Isaiah:

“BEHOLD, I SEND MY MESSENGER AHEAD OF YOU, WHO WILL PREPARE YOUR WAY—[Mal 3:1]

³A VOICE OF ONE SHOUTING IN THE WILDERNESS, ‘PREPARE THE WAY OF THE LORD,
MAKE HIS PATHS STRAIGHT!’” [Is 40:3]

⁴John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins [that is, requiring a change of one’s old way of thinking, turning away from sin and seeking God and His righteousness].

⁵And all the country of Judea and all the people of Jerusalem were continually going out to him; and they were being baptized by him in the Jordan River, as they confessed their sins.

⁶John wore clothing made of camel’s hair and had a [wide] leather band around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. [Lev 11:22; 2 Kin 1:8]

⁷And he was preaching, saying, “After me comes He who is mightier [more powerful, more noble] than I, and I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the straps of His sandals [even as His slave].

⁸“As for me, I baptized you [who came to me] with water [only]; but He will baptize you [who truly repent] with the Holy Spirit.”

⁹In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. [Matt 3:13–17; Luke 3:21, 22; John 1:32]

¹⁰Immediately coming up out of the water, he (John) saw the heavens torn open, and the Spirit like a dove descending on Him (Jesus);

¹¹and a voice came out of heaven saying: “You are My beloved Son, in You I am well-pleased and delighted!” [Ps 2:7; Is 42:1]

¹²Immediately the [Holy] Spirit forced Him out into the wilderness.

¹³He was in the wilderness forty days being tempted [to do evil] by Satan; and He was with the wild animals, and the angels ministered continually to Him.

¹⁴Now after John [the Baptist] was arrested and taken into custody, Jesus went to Galilee, preaching the good news of [the kingdom of] God, ¹⁵and saying, “The [appointed period of] time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, regret past sins, live your life in a way that proves repentance; seek God’s purpose for your life] and believe [with a deep, abiding trust] in the good news [regarding salvation].”

¹⁶As Jesus was walking by the shore of the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon [Peter] and Simon's brother, Andrew, casting a net in the sea; for they were fishermen.

¹⁷And Jesus said to them, "Follow Me [as My disciples, accepting Me as your Master and Teacher and walking the same path of life that I walk], and I will make you fishers of men."

¹⁸Immediately they left their nets and followed Him [becoming His disciples, believing and trusting in Him and following His example].

¹⁹Going on a little farther, He saw James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John, who were also in the boat mending and cleaning the nets.

²⁰Immediately Jesus called to them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired workers, and went away to follow Him [becoming His disciples, believing and trusting in Him and following His example].

²¹They went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath Jesus went into the synagogue and began to teach. [Luke 4:31–37]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Expect To Enjoy Your Day

In the early morning Jesus got up and went to a secluded place to pray (see Mark 1:35). Many times the way your day starts determines the way it will go all day long. This is why the enemy tries so hard to get us in a bad frame of mind early in the morning. Have you found the enemy trying to frustrate you, using something—anything—to get your mind full of negative thoughts before your day has really started? He tries to get you upset about all the things you have to do that day, reminds you of the things people do that you don't like, suggests that you should feel sorry for yourself because you are not appreciated as you should be, and many other things.

You can make up your mind early in the morning to enjoy each aspect of your day, whether everything goes the way you planned or not. The mind is the battlefield. Start choosing right thoughts early in the morning, and you will begin to walk in victory, enjoying every day.

²²They were completely amazed at His teaching; because He was teaching them as one having [God-given] authority, and not as the scribes.

²³Just then there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit; and he cried out [terribly from the depths of his throat], ²⁴saying, “What business do You have with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!”

²⁵Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be quiet (muzzled, silenced), and come out of him!”

²⁶The unclean spirit threw the man into convulsions, and screeching with a loud voice, came out of him.

²⁷They were all so amazed that they debated and questioned each other, saying, “What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits (demons), and they obey Him.”

²⁸Immediately the news about Him spread everywhere throughout the district surrounding Galilee.

²⁹And immediately they left the synagogue and went into the house of Simon [Peter] and Andrew, accompanied by James and John. [Matt 8:14–17; Luke 4:38–41]

³⁰Now Simon’s mother-in-law was lying sick with a fever; and immediately they told Him about her.

³¹Jesus went to her, and taking her by the hand, raised her up; and the fever left her, and she began to serve them [as her guests].

³²Now when evening came, after the sun had set [and the Sabbath Day had ended, in a steady stream] they were bringing to Him all who were sick and those who were under the power of demons, ³³until [it seemed as though] the whole city had gathered together at the door.

³⁴And Jesus healed many who were suffering with various diseases; and He drove out many demons, but would not allow the demons to speak, because they knew Him [recognizing Him as the Son of God].

³⁵Early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left [the house], and went out to a secluded place, and was praying there.

³⁶Simon [Peter] and his companions searched [everywhere, looking anxiously] for Him,

³⁷and they found Him and said, “Everybody is looking for You!”

³⁸He replied, “Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so I may preach there also; that is why I came [from the Father].”

³⁹So He went throughout Galilee, preaching [the gospel] in their synagogues and casting out demons.

⁴⁰And a leper came to Him, begging Him and falling on his knees before Him, saying, “If You are willing, You are able to make me clean.” [Matt 8:2–4; Luke 5:12–14]

⁴¹Moved with compassion [for his suffering], Jesus reached out with His hand and touched him, and said to him, “I am willing; be cleansed.”

⁴²The leprosy left him immediately and he was cleansed [completely healed and restored to health].

⁴³And Jesus [deeply moved] admonished him sternly and sent him away immediately,

⁴⁴saying to him, “See that you tell no one anything [about this]; but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your purification what Moses commanded, as proof to them [that you are really healed].” [Lev 13:45; 14:2–32]

⁴⁵But he went out and began to proclaim it freely and to spread the news [of his healing], to such an extent that Jesus could no longer openly enter a city [where He was known], but stayed out in the unpopulated places; yet people were still coming to Him from everywhere.

2 JESUS RETURNED to Capernaum, and a few days later the news went out that He was at home. [Matt 4:13]

²So many people gathered together that there was no longer room [for them], not even near the door; and Jesus was discussing with them the word [of God].

³Then they came, bringing to Him a paralyzed man, who was being carried by four men. [Matt 9:2–8; Luke 5:18–26]

⁴When they were unable to get to Him because of the crowd, they removed the roof above Jesus; and when they had dug out an opening, they let down the mat on which the paralyzed man was lying.

⁵When Jesus saw their [active] faith [springing from confidence in Him], He said to the paralyzed man, “Son, your sins are forgiven.”

⁶But some of the scribes were sitting there debating in their hearts [the implication of what He had said],

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord Jesus, I know that You, the Son of Man, have the authority and power on earth to forgive sins.

• adapted from Mark 2:10

⁷“Why does this man talk that way? He is blaspheming; who can forgive sins [remove guilt, nullify sin’s penalty, and assign righteousness] except God alone?”

⁸Immediately Jesus, being fully aware [of their hostility] and knowing in His spirit that they were thinking this, said to them, “Why are you debating and arguing about these things in your hearts?”

⁹“Which is easier, to say to the paralyzed man, ‘Your sins are forgiven’; or to say, ‘Get up, and pick up your mat and walk’?”

¹⁰“But so that you may know that the Son of Man has the authority and power on earth to forgive sins”—He said to the paralyzed man, ¹¹“I say to you, get up, pick up your mat and go home.”

¹²And he got up and immediately picked up the mat and went out before them all, so that they all were astonished and they glorified and praised God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this!”

¹³Jesus went out again along the [Galilean] seashore; and all the people were coming to Him, and He was teaching them.

¹⁴As He was passing by, He saw Levi (Matthew) the son of Alphaeus sitting in the tax collector's booth, and He said to him, "Follow Me [as My disciple, accepting Me as your Master and Teacher and walking the same path of life that I walk]." And he got up and followed Him [becoming His disciple, believing and trusting in Him and following His example]. [Matt 9:9-17; Luke 5:27-39]

¹⁵And it happened that Jesus was reclining at the table in Levi's house, and many tax collectors and sinners [including non-observant Jews] were eating with Him and His disciples; for there were many of them and they were following Him.

¹⁶When the scribes [belonging to the sect] of the Pharisees saw that Jesus was eating with the sinners [including non-observant Jews] and tax collectors, they asked His disciples, "Why does He eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that You did not come to call the righteous, but You came to call sinners who recognize their sin and humbly seek forgiveness.

• adapted from Mark 2:17

¹⁷When Jesus heard this, He said to them, “Those who are healthy have no need of a physician, but [only] those who are sick; I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners [who recognize their sin and humbly seek forgiveness].”

¹⁸Now John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting [as a ritual]; and they came and asked Jesus, “Why are John’s disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fasting, but Your disciples are not doing so?”

¹⁹Jesus answered, “The attendants of the bridegroom cannot fast while the bridegroom is [still] with them, can they? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

²⁰“But the days will come when the bridegroom is [forcefully] taken away from them, and they will fast at that time.

²¹“No one sews a patch of unshrunk (new) cloth on an old garment; otherwise the patch pulls away from it, the new from the old, and the tear becomes worse.

²²“No one puts new wine into old wineskins; otherwise the [fermenting] wine will [expand and] burst the skins, and the wine is lost as well as the wineskins. But new wine must be put into new wineskins.”

²³One Sabbath He was walking along [with His disciples] through the grainfields, and as they went along, His disciples began picking the heads of grain. [Deut 23:25; Matt 12:1–8; Luke 6:1–5]

²⁴The Pharisees said to Him, “Look, why are they doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?”

²⁵Jesus said to them, “Have you never read [in the Scriptures] what David did when he was in need and was hungry, he and his companions; [1 Sam 21:1–6]

²⁶how he went into the house of God in the time of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the sacred bread, which is not lawful for anyone but the priests to eat, and how he also gave it to the men who were with him?” [1 Sam 21:1–6]

²⁷Jesus said to them, “The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. [Ex 23:12; Deut 5:14]

²⁸“So the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath [and He has authority over it].”

3 AGAIN JESUS went into a synagogue; and a man was there whose hand was withered. [Matt 12:9–14; Luke 6:6–11]

²The Pharisees were watching Jesus closely to see if He would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse Him [in the Jewish high court].

³He said to the man whose hand was withered, “Get up and come forward!”

⁴He asked them, “Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save a life or to kill?” But they kept silent.

⁵After looking around at them with anger, grieved at the hardness and arrogance of their hearts, He told the man, “Hold out your hand.” And he held it out, and his hand was [completely] restored.

⁶Then the Pharisees went out and immediately began conspiring with the Herodians [to plot] against Him, as to how they might [fabricate some legal grounds to] put Him to death.

⁷Jesus withdrew to the sea with His disciples; and a large crowd from Galilee followed Him; and also people from Judea, ⁸and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and [from the region] beyond the Jordan, and around Tyre and Sidon; a vast number of people came to Him because they were hearing about all [the things] that He was doing.

⁹And He told His disciples to have a small boat stand ready for Him because of the many people, so that they would not crowd Him;

¹⁰for He had healed many, and as a result all who had diseases pressed around Him to touch Him.

¹¹Whenever the unclean spirits saw Him, they fell down before Him and screamed out, “You are the Son of God!”

¹²Jesus sternly warned them [again and again] not to tell who He was.

¹³He went up on the hillside and called those whom He Himself wanted and chose; and they came to Him.

¹⁴And He appointed twelve [disciples], so that they would be with Him [for instruction] and so that He could send them out to preach [the gospel as apostles—that is, as His special messengers, personally chosen representatives], ¹⁵and to have authority and power to cast out demons.

¹⁶He appointed the twelve: Simon (to whom He gave the name Peter), [Matt 10:2–4; Luke 6:13–16]

¹⁷and James, the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James (to them He gave the name Boanerges, that is, “Sons of Thunder”);

¹⁸and [He also appointed] Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew (Nathanael), and Matthew (Levi the tax collector), and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus (Judas the son of James), and Simon the Zealot; ¹⁹and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed Him.

²⁰Then He came to a house [in Capernaum], and a crowd formed again, so [many people] that Jesus and His disciples could not even eat a meal [together].

²¹When His own family heard this they went to take custody of Him; for they were saying, “He is out of His mind.”

²²The scribes who came down from Jerusalem were saying, “He is possessed by Beelzebul (Satan),” and “He is driving out the demons by the [power of the] ruler of the demons.” [Matt 12:22–37; Luke 11:14–28]

²³So He called them to Himself and spoke to them in parables, “How can Satan drive out Satan?

²⁴“If a kingdom is divided [split into factions and rebelling] against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

²⁵“And if a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

²⁶“And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but is coming to an end.

²⁸“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, all sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and all the abusive and blasphemous things they say; ²⁹but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit and His power [by attributing the miracles done by Me to Satan] never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an everlasting sin [a sin which is unforgivable in this present age as well as in the age to come]”—[Matt 12:32; Luke 12:10]

³⁰[Jesus said this] because the scribes and Pharisees were [attributing His miracles to Satan by] saying, “He has an unclean spirit.”

³¹Then His mother and His brothers arrived, and standing outside they sent word to Him and called for Him. [Matt 12:46–50; Luke 8:19–21]

³²A crowd was sitting around Him, and they said to Him, “Look! Your mother and Your brothers are outside asking for You.”

³³And He replied, “Who are My mother and My brothers?”

³⁴Looking at those who were sitting in a circle around Him, He said, “Here are My mother and My brothers!

³⁵For whoever does the will of God [by believing in Me, and following Me], he is My brother and sister and mother.”

4 AGAIN JESUS began to teach beside the sea [of Galilee]. And a very large crowd gathered around Him, so He got into a boat [anchoring it a short distance out] on the sea and sat down; and the whole crowd was by the sea on the shore. [Matt 13:1–15; Luke 8:4–15]

²And He taught them many things in parables, and in His teaching He said to them,

³“Listen! A sower went out to sow seed;

⁴and as he was sowing, some seed fell by the road, and the birds came and ate it up.

⁵“Other seed fell on rocks where there was not much soil; and immediately a plant sprang up because the soil had no depth.

⁷“Other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns came up and choked it, and it yielded no grain.

⁸“And other seed fell into good soil, and as the plants grew and increased, they yielded a crop and produced thirty, sixty, and a hundred times [as much as had been sown].”

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

What Kind of Soil Are You?

The wisdom of Mark 4:1–8 provides a wonderful illustration of four types of Christian believers, teaching us how each responds to hearing God's Word.

The first type of Christian hears God's Word, but Satan (represented by the birds) comes immediately and takes away the message that was sown into his or her heart (see Mark 4:3–4). Many times these people struggle to focus; they are easily distracted and often offended by something, which causes them to stumble and fall.

The second type of Christian hears the Word and receives it with joy. Because these believers are not deeply rooted in God's Word, they do not act on the truth they hear (see Mark 4:5–6). They may have a great deal of intellectual knowledge about God or even have many scriptures memorized, but their knowledge has not become revelation in their life. When trouble comes to them, their biblical or theological knowledge does not help them; they become resentful or indignant. Sometimes, they even fall away from the faith.

The third type of Christian also hears God's Word, but the cares of life, the distractions and deceitfulness of riches, and the craving for things of the world tempt them strongly and choke the Word in them (see Mark 4:7). They are not single-minded and passionate for the things of God, and this is their downfall.

Finally in Mark 4:8, we read that the seed sown into well-adapted soil is the seed that bears fruit. This soil represents mature Christians, who are the ones who hear the Word, welcome it, receive it, accept it—and bear fruit. To bear fruit means to do something worthwhile with the time, talent, and resources that God has given you. One way to bear fruit is to do good things for other people. Fruit also refers to the fruit of the Holy Spirit, which includes love, joy, peace, patience, humility, and self-control (see Gal. 5:22–23). These are character traits that represent Jesus in an honorable way to the world. We are God's ambassadors on earth and as such we should represent Him well.

We all need to be growing continually in our spiritual lives, making sure our hearts are the type of soil that receives the seed of God's Word eagerly, allows it to grow well, and ultimately bears fruit.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord God, help my heart to be good soil for Your Word. When I hear or read Your Word, I want to welcome it, embrace it, and bear good fruit as a result. In Jesus' name. Amen.

⁹And He said, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear and heed My words.”

¹⁰As soon as He was alone, those who were around Him, together with the twelve [disciples], began asking Him about [the interpretation of] the parables.

¹¹He said to them, “The mystery of the kingdom of God has been given to you [who have teachable hearts], but those who are outside [the unbelievers, the spiritually blind] get everything in parables, ¹²so that THEY WILL CONTINUALLY LOOK BUT NOT SEE, AND THEY WILL CONTINUALLY HEAR BUT NOT UNDERSTAND, OTHERWISE THEY MIGHT TURN [from their rejection of the truth] AND BE FORGIVEN.” [Is 6:9, 10; Matt 13:11–15]

¹³Then He said to them, “Do you not understand this parable? How will you understand and grasp the meaning of all the parables? [Matt 13:18–23; Luke 8:11–15]

¹⁴“The sower sows the word [of God, the good news regarding the way of salvation].

¹⁶“In a similar way these [in the second group] are the ones on whom seed was sown on rocky ground, who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with joy [but accept it only superficially]; ¹⁷and they have no real root in themselves, so they endure only for a little while; then, when trouble or persecution comes because of the word, immediately they [are offended and displeased at being associated with Me and] stumble and fall away.

¹⁸“And others are the ones on whom seed was sown among the thorns; these are the ones who have heard the word, ¹⁹but the worries and cares of the world [the distractions of this age with its worldly pleasures], and the deceitfulness [and the false security or glamour] of wealth [or fame], and the passionate desires for all the other things creep in and choke out the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

²⁰“And those [in the last group] are the ones on whom seed was sown on the good soil; and they hear the word [of God, the good news regarding the way of salvation] and accept it and bear fruit—thirty, sixty, and a hundred times as much [as was sown].”

²¹He said to them, “A lamp is not brought in to be put under a basket or under a bed, is it? Is it not [brought in] to be put on the lampstand? [Matt 5:15; Luke 8:16; 11:33]

²²“For nothing is hidden, except to be revealed; nor has anything been kept secret, but that it would come to light [that is, things are hidden only temporarily, until the appropriate time comes for them to be known]. [Matt 10:26–33; Luke 12:2–9]

²³“If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear and heed My words.”

²⁴Then He said to them, “Pay attention to what you hear. By your own standard of measurement [that is, to the extent that you study spiritual truth and apply godly wisdom] it will be measured to you [and you will be given even greater ability to respond]—and more will be given to you besides.

²⁵“For whoever has [a teachable heart], to him more [understanding] will be given; and whoever does not have [a yearning for truth], even what he has will be taken away from him.” [Matt 13:12; 25:29; Luke 8:18]

²⁶Then He said, “The kingdom of God is like a man who throws seed on the ground;

²⁷and he goes to bed at night and gets up every day, and [in the meantime] the seed sprouts and grows; how [it does this], he does not know.

²⁸“The earth produces crops by itself; first the blade, then the head [of grain], then the mature grain in the head.

POWERPOINT

Jesus said that if we love Him, we will obey Him (see John 14:15). But we cannot obey Him if we do not truly listen to what He wants to say to us. The way we truly hear and listen to Bible teaching determines what we receive from it. The Bible says that the measure of thought and study we give to the truth that we hear is the measure of virtue and knowledge we will receive from it (see Mark 4:24).

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Hold Your Peace

In Mark 4:36–40, Jesus rebuked the disciples because they did not hold their peace in the storm. I think it's fair to say that a battle of fear and anxiety was raging in their minds, and they did not fight it very well.

As the rain fell and the wind blew, they were fearful, worried, and upset; and all along, Jesus was sleeping peacefully in the back of the boat. They went to Him and cried out, "Jesus! There's a terrible storm going on. Don't you care that we are perishing?"

Jesus quickly handled the situation. He turned to the terrified disciples and said to them, "Why are you so fearful?" In other words, "There is nothing to fear. I AM is with you" (see John 8:58).

Jesus is always with us, in every situation we face. The believer who experiences God's peace through His Son can have peace even in the midst of life's storms. During those times, we do not have to know what God is going to do or when He is going to do it. We simply need to know that He is there with us in the storms of life and that He will take care of everything that concerns us. Remaining peaceful during trials and difficulties is very powerful. Hold your peace and let God work miracles for you.

²⁹“But when the crop ripens, he immediately puts in the sickle [to reap], because [the time for] the harvest has come.”

³⁰And He said, “How shall we ^{*}picture the kingdom of God, or what parable shall we use to illustrate and explain it? [Matt 13:31, 32; Luke 13:18, 19]

³¹“It is like a mustard seed, which, when it is sown on the ground, even though it is smaller than all the [other] seeds that are [sown] on the soil, ³²yet when it is sown, it grows up and becomes larger than all the garden herbs; and it puts out large branches, so that THE BIRDS OF THE SKY are able to MAKE NESTS and LIVE UNDER ITS SHADE.” [Ps 104:12; Ezek 17:23; 31:6]

³³With many such parables, Jesus spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear and understand it;

³⁴and He did not say anything to them without [using] a parable; He did, however, explain everything privately to His own disciples.

³⁵On that [same] day, when evening had come, He said to them, “Let us go over to the other side [of the Sea of Galilee].”

³⁶So leaving the crowd, they took Him with them, just as He was, in the boat. And other boats were with Him. [Matt 8:23–27; Luke 8:22–25]

³⁷And a fierce windstorm began to blow, and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already being swamped.

³⁸But Jesus was in the stern, asleep [with His head] on the [sailor’s leather] cushion. And they woke Him and said to Him, “Teacher, do You not care that we are about to die?”

³⁹And He got up and [sternly] rebuked the wind and said to the sea, “Hush, be still (muzzled)!” And the wind died down

[as if it had grown weary] and there was [at once] a great calm [a perfect peacefulness].

⁴⁰Jesus said to them, “Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith and confidence [in Me]?”

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Jesus Calms Every Storm

Sometime before the story of Peter's walking on the water with Jesus, the disciples were caught in a raging windstorm on the Sea of Galilee. In this incident Jesus was in the boat with them and sleeping (see Mark 4:35–41). Afraid the boat was sinking, they woke Jesus, Who got up and rebuked and calmed the storm. Then He asked them all, including Peter, "Do you still have no faith and confidence [in Me]?" (v. 40).

Later, when Jesus walked on the waves of the sea, He spoke to the frightened disciples, "Take courage, it is I. Do not be afraid!" (Matt. 14:27). Those few words were meant to assure them that His presence and power were there to take care of them. Only Peter responded, perhaps bolstered in his faith by having seen Jesus calm the storm earlier.

Peter exercised his faith. He believed and stepped out and started walking toward the Master. Peter was the only one of the disciples willing to get out of the boat. He did walk on water for a while, but then as he looked at the waves and wind, he took his focus off Jesus and began to sink. Even then Jesus reached out His hand to help him.

But that's not the end of the story. After Jesus and Peter climbed back into the boat, another miracle took place: the storm ceased. The storms of life will always cease eventually when we place our trust in God. In difficulty, I always say, "This too will pass," and that encourages me.

Matthew 14:33 tells us that after the storm, the other disciples worshiped Jesus. I would certainly hope so! Look at the miracles they witnessed. They had already witnessed the miracle of Jesus' calming the other storm. This second storm came, the winds blew, and Jesus came to them, walking on the water. He tried to calm their fears, but they were not ready to hear Him. Only after Peter exhibited his faith and Jesus calmed the storm were the disciples able to say, "Truly You are the Son of God!"

Saying those words took the disciples a long time. They had to witness many things before they worshiped. Let's be sure that You and I are always ready to trust and worship God, believing by faith instead of requiring proof.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord Jesus, sometimes I'm like the fearful disciples, requiring all kinds of proof before I can believe You. Help me trust You right away in each situation I face in life. Thank You for loving me and encouraging me at all times. Amen.

⁴¹They were filled with great fear, and said to each other, “Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?”

5 THEY CAME to the other side of the sea, to the region of the Gerasenes. [Matt 8:28–34; Luke 8:26–37]

²When Jesus got out of the boat, immediately a man from the tombs with an unclean spirit met Him, ³and the man lived in the tombs, and no one could bind him anymore, not even with chains.

⁴For he had often been bound with shackles [for the feet] and with chains, and he tore apart the chains and broke the shackles into pieces, and no one was strong enough to subdue and tame him.

⁵Night and day he was constantly screaming and shrieking among the tombs and on the mountains, and cutting himself with [sharp] stones.

⁶Seeing Jesus from a distance, he ran up and bowed down before Him [in homage];

POWERPOINT

In Mark 5:1–6, Jesus and the disciples encountered a man who suffered from demonic oppression that caused him many serious problems. In the midst of his torment, he recognized Jesus. As soon as he saw Him, he fell to his knees and worshiped Him. By the end of the story, Jesus had cast the demons out of him and the man went on his way completely free from the enemy's influence. No matter how many problems you may face, if you will begin to worship the Lord on a regular basis He will bring you through the difficulties and into a place of freedom and victory. Worship is powerful, and it can be viewed as warfare against the enemy.

⁷and screaming with a loud voice, he said, “What business do we have in common with each other, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I implore you by God [swear to me], do not torment me!” [Matt 8:29; Luke 4:34]

⁸For Jesus had been saying to him, “Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!”

⁹He was asking him, “What is your name?” And he replied, “My name is Legion; for we are many.”

¹⁰And he began begging Him repeatedly not to send them out of the region.

¹¹Now there was a large herd of pigs grazing there on the mountain.

¹²And the demons begged Him, saying, “Send us to the pigs so that we may go into them!”

¹³Jesus gave them permission. And the unclean spirits came out [of the man] and entered the pigs. The herd, numbering about two thousand, rushed down the steep bank into the sea; and they were drowned [one after the other] in the sea.

¹⁴The herdsmen [tending the pigs] ran away and reported it in the city and in the country. And the people came to see what had happened.

¹⁵They came to Jesus and saw the man who had been demon-possessed sitting down, clothed and in his right mind, the man who had [previously] had the “legion” [of demons]; and they were frightened.

¹⁶Those who had seen it described [in detail] to the people what had happened to the demon-possessed man, and [told them all] about the pigs.

¹⁷So the people began to beg with Jesus to leave their region.

¹⁸As He was stepping into the boat, the [Gentile] man who had been demon-possessed was begging with Him [asking] that he might go with Him [as a disciple].

¹⁹Jesus did not let him [come], but [instead] He said to him, “Go home to your family and tell them all the great things that the Lord has done for you, and how He has had mercy on you.”

²⁰So he [obeyed and] went away and began to publicly proclaim in Decapolis [the region of the ten Hellenistic cities] all the great things that Jesus had done for him; and all the people were astonished.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Don't Listen to Discouragement

In Mark 5:36, Jesus overheard what the synagogue officials said, but He ignored them. This verse helps me to remember that we absolutely should not listen to the negative things people say to us. Sometimes people achieve greatness and do the most amazing things simply because they believe they can do it and they refuse to listen to those who tell them differently. God's Word inspires hope, faith, and success, while the negative words that we listen to lead to discouragement, defeat, and failure.

Have you missed opportunities to do great things because you paid too much attention to the discouraging words of others? It is not too late. You can begin this very moment to erase the negative comments people have made by confessing God's Word about yourself and your future until those opportunities become realities in your life.

You can defeat every negative thought that comes to your mind and every evil statement made about you as you wield the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. To wield the sword means to study the Word of God, meditate on it, believe it, apply it to your life in practical ways, speak it, and let it guide all your actions.

²¹When Jesus had again crossed over in the boat to the other side [of the sea], a large crowd gathered around Him; and so He stayed by the seashore.

²²One of the synagogue officials named Jairus came up; and seeing Him, fell at His feet [Matt 9:18–26; Luke 8:41–56]

²³and begged anxiously with Him, saying, “My little daughter is at the point of death; [please] come and lay Your hands on her, so that she will be healed and live.”

²⁴And Jesus went with him; and a large crowd followed Him and pressed in around Him [from all sides].

²⁵A woman [in the crowd] had [suffered from] a hemorrhage for twelve years, ²⁶and had endured much [suffering] at the hands of many physicians. She had spent all that she had and was not helped at all, but instead had become worse.

²⁷She had heard [reports] about Jesus, and she came up behind Him in the crowd and touched His outer robe.

²⁸For she thought, “If I just touch His clothing, I will get well.”

²⁹Immediately her flow of blood was dried up; and she felt in her body [and knew without any doubt] that she was healed of her suffering.

³⁰Immediately Jesus, recognizing in Himself that power had gone out from Him, turned around in the crowd and asked, “Who touched My clothes?”

³¹His disciples said to Him, “You see the crowd pressing in around You [from all sides], and You ask, ‘Who touched Me?’”

³²Still He kept looking around to see the woman who had done it.

³³And the woman, though she was afraid and trembling, aware of what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth.

³⁴Then He said to her, “Daughter, your faith [your personal trust and confidence in Me] has restored you to health; go in peace and be [permanently] healed from your suffering.”

³⁵While He was still speaking, some people came from the synagogue official’s house, saying [to Jairus], “Your daughter has died; why bother the Teacher any longer?”

³⁶Overhearing what was being said, Jesus said to the synagogue official, “Do not be afraid; only keep on believing [in Me and my power].”

³⁷And He allowed no one to go with Him [as witnesses], except Peter and James and John the brother of James.

³⁸They came to the house of the synagogue official; and He looked [with understanding] at the uproar and commotion, and people loudly weeping and wailing [in mourning].

³⁹When He had gone in, He said to them, “Why make a commotion and weep? The child has not died, but is sleeping.”

⁴⁰They began laughing [scornfully] at Him [because they knew the child was dead]. But He made them all go outside, and took along the child’s father and mother and His own [three] companions, and entered the room where the child was.

⁴¹Taking the child’s hand, He said [tenderly] to her, “Talitha kum!”—which translated [from Aramaic] means, “Little girl, I say to you, get up!”

⁴²The little girl immediately got up and began to walk, for she was twelve years old. And immediately they [who witnessed the child’s resurrection] were overcome with great wonder and utter amazement.

⁴³He gave strict orders that no one should know about this, and He told them to give her something to eat.

6 JESUS LEFT there and came to His hometown [Nazareth]; and His disciples followed Him. [Matt 13:54–58; Luke 4:16, 23]

²When the Sabbath came, He began to teach in the synagogue; and many who listened to Him were astonished, saying, “Where did this man get these things [this knowledge and spiritual insight]? What is this wisdom [this confident understanding of the Scripture] that has been given to Him, and such miracles as these performed by His hands?”

³“Is this not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? Are His sisters not here with us?” And they were [deeply] offended by Him [and their disapproval blinded them to the fact that He was anointed by God as the Messiah].

⁴Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor (respect) except in his hometown and among his relatives and in his own household.”

⁵And He could not do a miracle there at all [because of their unbelief] except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and healed them.

⁶He wondered at their unbelief.

And He was going around in the villages teaching.

⁷And He called the twelve [disciples] and began to send them out [as His special messengers] two by two, and gave them authority and power over the unclean spirits.

⁸He told them to take nothing for the journey except a mere walking stick—no bread, no [traveler’s] bag, no money in their belts—

⁹but to wear sandals; and [He told them] not to wear two tunics.

¹⁰And He told them, “Wherever you go into a house, stay there until you leave that town.

¹¹“Any place that does not welcome you or listen to you, when you leave there, shake the dust off the soles of your feet as a testimony against them [breaking all ties with them because they rejected My message].” [Matt 10:14; Acts 13:51]

¹²So they went out and preached that men should repent [that is, think differently, recognize sin, turn away from it, and live changed lives].

¹³And they were casting out many demons and were anointing with oil many who were sick, and healing them.

¹⁴King Herod [Antipas] heard about this, for Jesus’ name and reputation had become well known. People were saying, “John the Baptist has been raised from the dead, and that is why these miraculous powers are at work in Him.”

¹⁵But others were saying, “He is Elijah!” And others were saying, “It is a prophet, like one of the prophets [of old].”

¹⁶But when Herod heard [of it], he kept saying, “John, whom I beheaded, has risen [from the dead]!”

¹⁷For Herod himself had sent [guards] and had John arrested and shackled in prison because of Herodias, the wife of his [half-] brother Philip, because he (Herod) had married her. [Matt 14:3; Luke 3:19]

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Come Away

After a busy time of ministry, Jesus said to His disciples, “Come away by yourselves to a secluded place and rest a little while’—for there were many [people who were continually] coming and going, and they could not even find time to eat” (Mark 6:31). No time to eat. Sound familiar?

Today we live in a noisy, high-pressure, busy world, where more is expected of most of us than we can possibly do. Most likely the world won’t change, but we can. We can combat and offset stress by seeking time alone. I really enjoy quiet times now, but there was a time when I became restless if things got quiet because I was addicted to noise and activity. I have discovered that even a short time of quiet and solitude can restore my soul to a place of rest and relieve stress. It gives me time to actually breathe deeply and re-collect my thoughts instead of letting my mind run wild in too many different directions.

My favorite times of the day for solitude are in the morning before anyone else wakes up and at night after everyone else has gone to bed. I enjoy people very much, but some quiet time by myself in the mornings helps me get ready to be with them, and quiet time in the evenings helps me settle down at the end of the day.

We tend to think that our existence is only justified when we are doing something, but that is not true. We are human beings, not human doings! God doesn't love us more when we are doing something and less when we are enjoying quiet. Our busyness makes us feel important, but it doesn't make us more important to God.

I had to face the truth that I felt more acceptable when I was working than at any other time. Some of that perception came from my abusive childhood, some came from my strong, work-oriented temperament, but neither could be an excuse to not change. Whatever the reason, too much activity without any solitude was causing damage to my health and preventing me from enjoying the present.

Let's always remember to stop and say "Thank You" to our heavenly Father for revealing to us that He has not created us merely to "do," but also to "be."

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Heavenly Father, I sometimes find it easier to feel that I have worth when I'm busy doing something. Thank You for speaking to my heart the truth that You created me to be and not just to do. Help me to schedule times to be quiet with You. Amen.

¹⁸For John had been saying to Herod, “It is not lawful [under Mosaic Law] for you to have your brother’s wife.” [Lev 18:16; 20:21]

¹⁹Herodias had a grudge against John and wanted to kill him, but she could not,

²⁰because Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he continually kept him safe. When he heard John [speak], he was very perplexed; but he enjoyed listening to him.

²¹But an opportune time [finally] came [for Herodias]. Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his officials (nobles, courtiers) and military commanders and the leading men of Galilee.

²²Now [Salome] the daughter of Herodias came in and danced [for the men]. She pleased and beguiled Herod and his dinner guests; and the king said to the girl, “Ask me for whatever you want and I will give it to you.”

²³And he swore to her, “Whatever you ask me, I will give it to you; up to half of my kingdom.” [Esth 5:3, 6]

POWERPOINT

Enjoying our lives and making the most of every moment is difficult if we do not have a healthy, balanced attitude toward work. Just as becoming too busy and overworked is a temptation for us, it could easily have been the same for Jesus and the disciples too. So many people wanted their help in Mark 6:31 that “they could not even find time to eat.”

Jesus’ response was: “Come away by yourselves to a secluded place and rest a little while.” When you feel stressed and overworked, it would be wise to also get away to a quiet place and rest awhile. Even if all you can do is go into another room where it is quiet and stay for five minutes, it will help you gain a fresh focus on what your main goals are.

²⁴She went out and said to her mother, “What shall I ask for?” And Herodias replied, “The head of John the Baptist!”

²⁵And she rushed back to the king and asked, saying, “I want you to give me right now the head of John the Baptist on a platter!”

²⁶The king was deeply grieved, but because of his oaths and his dinner guests [who might have regarded him as weak], he was unwilling to [break his word and] refuse her.

²⁷So the king immediately sent for an executioner and commanded him to bring back John’s head. And he went and had John beheaded in the prison, ²⁸and brought back his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother.

²⁹When his disciples heard about this, they came and took away John’s body and laid it in a tomb.

³⁰The apostles [who had been sent out on a mission] gathered together with Jesus and told Him everything that they had done and taught.

³¹He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a secluded place and rest a little while”—for there were many [people who were continually] coming and going, and they could not even find time to eat.

³²And they went away by themselves in the boat to a secluded place. [Matt 14:13–21; Luke 9:10–17; John 6:1–13]

³³Many [people] saw them leaving, and recognized them and ran there together on foot from all the [surrounding] cities, and got there ahead of them.

³⁴When Jesus went ashore, He saw a large crowd [waiting], and He was moved with compassion for them because they were like sheep without a shepherd [lacking guidance]; and He began to teach them many things.

³⁵When the day was nearly gone, His disciples came to Him and said, “This is an isolated place, and it is already late;

³⁶send the crowds away so that they may go into the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat.”

³⁷But He replied, “You give them something to eat!” And they asked Him, “Shall we go and buy 200 denarii worth of bread and give it to them to eat?” [2 Kin 4:42–44]

³⁸He said to them, “How many loaves do you have? Go look!” And when they found out, they said, “Five [loaves], and two fish.”

³⁹Then Jesus commanded them all to sit down by groups on the green grass.

⁴⁰They sat down in groups of hundreds and of fifties [so that the crowd resembled an orderly arrangement of colorful garden plots].

⁴¹Taking the five loaves and two fish, He looked up to heaven and said a blessing [of praise and thanksgiving to the Father]. Then He broke the loaves and [repeatedly] gave them to the disciples to set before the people; and He divided up the two fish among them all.

⁴²They all ate and were satisfied.

⁴³And the disciples picked up twelve full baskets of the broken pieces [of the loaves], and of the fish.

⁴⁴Those who ate the loaves were five thousand men [not counting the women and children].

⁴⁵Jesus immediately insisted that His disciples get into the boat and go ahead [of Him] to the other side to Bethsaida, while He was dismissing the crowd. [Matt 14:22–32; John 6:15–21]

⁴⁶And after He said goodbye to them, He went to the mountain to pray.

⁴⁷Now when evening had come, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and Jesus was alone on the land.

⁴⁸Seeing the disciples straining at the oars, because the wind was against them, at about the fourth watch of the night (3:00–6:00 a.m.) He came to them, walking on the sea. And [acted as if] He intended to pass by them. [Matt 14:25; John 6:19]

⁴⁹But when they saw Him walking on the sea, they thought it was a ghost, and cried out [in horror];

⁵⁰for they all saw Him and were shaken and terrified. But He immediately spoke with them and said, “Take courage! It is I (I AM)! Stop being afraid.” [Ex 3:14]

⁵¹Then He got into the boat with them, and the wind ceased [as if exhausted by its own activity]; and they were completely overwhelmed,

⁵²because they had not understood [the miracle of] the loaves [how it revealed the power and deity of Jesus]; but [in fact] their heart was hardened [being oblivious and indifferent to His amazing works].

⁵³When they had crossed over [the sea], they reached the land of Gennesaret and anchored at the shore.

⁵⁴They got out of the boat and immediately people recognized Him, ⁵⁵and ran throughout that surrounding countryside and began to carry around on their mats those who were sick, to any place where they heard He was.

⁵⁶And wherever He came into villages, or cities, or the countryside, they were laying the sick in the market places and pleading with Him [to allow them] just to touch the fringe (tassel with a blue cord) of His robe; and all who touched it were healed.

7 NOW THE Pharisees and some of the scribes came from Jerusalem and gathered around Him, ²and they had seen that some of His disciples ate their bread with [ceremonially] impure hands, that is, unwashed [and defiled according to Jewish religious ritual].

³(For the Pharisees and all of the Jews do not eat unless they carefully wash their hands, holding firmly to the traditions of the elders;

⁴and when they come from the market place, they do not eat unless they cleanse themselves [completely according to ritual]; and there are many other things [oral, man-made laws and traditions handed down to them] which they follow diligently, such as the washing of cups and pitchers and copper utensils.) ⁵So the Pharisees and scribes asked Jesus, “Why do Your disciples not live their lives according to the tradition of the elders, but [instead] eat their bread with [ceremonially] unwashed hands?”

⁶He replied, “Rightly did Isaiah prophesy about you hypocrites (play-actors, pretenders), as it is written [in Scripture],

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, I do not want to be a person who honors You with my lips while my heart is far from You. I want my heart always to be devoted to You and my words to reflect my sincere worship of You.

• adapted from Mark 7:6

‘THESE PEOPLE HONOR ME WITH THEIR LIPS, BUT THEIR HEART IS FAR FROM ME.

⁷‘THEY WORSHIP ME IN VAIN [their worship is meaningless and worthless, a pretense], TEACHING THE PRECEPTS OF MEN AS DOCTRINES [giving their traditions equal weight with the Scriptures].’ [Is 29:13]

⁸“You disregard and neglect the commandment of God, and cling [faithfully] to the tradition of men.”

⁹He was also saying to them, “You are experts at setting aside and nullifying the commandment of God in order to keep your [man-made] tradition and regulations.

¹⁰“For Moses said, ‘HONOR YOUR FATHER AND YOUR MOTHER [with respect and gratitude]’; and, ‘HE WHO SPEAKS EVIL OF HIS FATHER OR MOTHER MUST BE PUT TO DEATH’; [Ex 20:12; 21:17; Lev 20:9; Deut 5:16]

¹¹but you [Pharisees and scribes] say, ‘If a man tells his father or mother, “Whatever I have that would help you is Corban, (that is to say, already a gift to God),” ’

¹²then you no longer let him do anything for his father or mother [since helping them would violate his vow of Corban];

¹³so you nullify the [authority of the] word of God [acting as if it did not apply] because of your tradition which you have handed down [through the elders]. And you do many things such as that.”

¹⁴After He called the people to Him again, He began saying to them, “Listen [carefully] to Me, all of you, [hear] and understand [what I am saying]: ¹⁵there is nothing outside a man [such as food] which by going into him can defile him [morally or spiritually]; but the things which come out of [the heart of] a man are what defile and dishonor him.

¹⁶“If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.”]

¹⁷When Jesus had left the crowd and gone into the house, His disciples asked Him about the parable.

¹⁸And He said to them, “Are you, too, so foolish and lacking in understanding? Do you not understand that whatever goes into the man from outside cannot defile and dishonor him, ¹⁹since it does not enter his heart, but [only] his stomach, and [from there it] is eliminated?” (By this, He declared all foods ceremonially clean.) ²⁰And He said, “Whatever comes from [the heart of] a man, that is what defiles and dishonors him.

²³“All these evil things [schemes and desires] come from within and defile and dishonor the man.”

²⁴Jesus got up and left there and went to the region of Tyre [and Sidon, the coastal area of Phoenicia]. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know about it; but it was impossible for Him to be hidden [from the public]. [Matt 15:21–28]

²⁵Instead, after hearing about Him, a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately came and fell at His feet.

²⁶Now the woman was a Gentile (Greek), a Syrophenician by nationality. And she kept pleading with Him to drive the demon out of her daughter.

²⁷He was saying to her, “First let the children [of Israel] be fed, for it is not right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the pet dogs (non-Jews).”

²⁸But she replied, “Yes, Lord, but even the pet dogs under the table eat the children’s crumbs.”

²⁹And He said to her, “Because of this answer [reflecting your humility and faith], go [knowing that your request is granted]; the demon has left your daughter [permanently].”

³⁰And returning to her home, she found the child lying on the couch [relaxed and resting], the demon having gone.

³¹Soon after this Jesus left the region of Tyre, and passed through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, through the region of Decapolis [the ten Hellenistic cities].

³²They brought to Him a man who was deaf and had difficulty speaking, and they begged Jesus to place His hand on him.

³³Jesus, taking him aside by himself, away from the crowd, put His fingers into the man’s ears, and after spitting, He touched the man’s tongue [with the saliva]; ³⁴and looking up to heaven, He sighed deeply and said to the man, “Ephphatha,” which [in Aramaic] means, “Be opened and released!”

³⁵And his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he began speaking plainly.

³⁶Jesus commanded them not to tell anyone; but the more He ordered them, the more widely they continued to proclaim it.

³⁷They were thoroughly astounded and completely overwhelmed, saying, “He has done everything well! He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak!”

8 IN THOSE days, when there was again a large crowd [gathered before Him] and they had nothing to eat, Jesus called His disciples and told them, [Matt 15:32–39]

²“I feel compassion for the crowd; they have been with Me now for three days and have nothing [left] to eat.

³“If I send them away to their homes hungry, they will faint [from exhaustion] on the road; because some of them have come a long way.”

⁴His disciples replied to Him, “Where will anyone be able to find enough bread here in this isolated place to feed these people?”

⁵He asked them, “How many loaves [of bread] do you have?” They said, “Seven.”

⁶He directed the people to sit down on the ground; and taking the seven loaves, He gave thanks and broke them, and [repeatedly] gave them to His disciples to set before them, and they served the crowd.

⁷They also had a few small fish; and when Jesus had blessed them [and given thanks], He ordered these [fish] to be set before them as well.

⁸And the people ate and were satisfied; and they picked up seven large baskets full of the broken pieces that were left over.

⁹About four thousand [men] were there [besides women and children]; and He sent them away.

¹⁰Then immediately He got into the boat with His disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha.

¹¹The Pharisees came out and began to argue [contentiously and debate] with Him, demanding from Him a sign from heaven, to test Him [because of their unbelief].

¹²He groaned and sighed deeply in His spirit and said, “Why does this generation demand a sign? I assure you and most solemnly say to you, no sign will be given to this generation!”

¹³Leaving them, He again boarded the boat and left for the other side.

¹⁴Now the disciples had forgotten to bring bread, and they had only one loaf with them in the boat.

¹⁵Jesus repeatedly ordered them, saying, “Watch out! Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod.”

¹⁶They began discussing this with one another, saying, “It is because we have no bread [that He said this].”

¹⁷Jesus, aware of this [discussion], said to them, “Why are you discussing [the fact] that you have no bread? Do you still not see or understand? Are your hearts hardened? [Is 6:9, 10]

¹⁸“THOUGH YOU HAVE EYES, DO YOU NOT SEE? AND THOUGH YOU HAVE EARS, DO YOU NOT HEAR and LISTEN [to what I have said]? And do you not remember, [Jer 5:21]

¹⁹when I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces you picked up?” They answered, “Twelve.”

²⁰“And [when I broke] the seven [loaves] for the four thousand, how many large baskets full of broken pieces did you pick up?” And they answered, “Seven.”

²¹And He was saying to them, “Do you still not understand?”

²²Then they came to Bethsaida; and some people brought a blind man to Jesus and begged Him to touch him.

²³Taking the blind man by the hand, He led him out of the village; and after spitting on his eyes and laying His hands on him, He asked him, “Do you see anything?”

²⁴And he looked up and said, “I see people, but [they look] like trees, walking around.”

²⁵Then again Jesus laid His hands on his eyes; and the man stared intently and [his sight] was [completely] restored, and he began to see everything clearly.

²⁶And He sent him to his home, saying, “Do not even enter the village.”

²⁷Then Jesus and His disciples went out to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way He asked His disciples, “Who do people say that I am?” [Matt 16:13–16; Luke 9:18–20]

²⁸They answered Him, “John the Baptist; and others say Elijah; but others, one of the prophets.”

²⁹And He asked them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter replied to Him, “You [in contrast to the others] are the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed).”

³⁰Then Jesus strictly warned them not to tell anyone about Him.

³¹And He began to teach them that the Son of Man must [of necessity] suffer many things and be rejected [as the Messiah] by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and must be put to death, and after three days rise [from death to life]. [Matt 16:21–28; Luke 9:22–27]

³²He was stating the matter plainly [not holding anything back]. Then Peter took Him aside and began to reprimand Him.

³³But turning around [with His back to Peter] and seeing His disciples, He rebuked Peter, saying, “Get behind Me, Satan; for your mind is not set on God’s will or His values and purposes, but on what pleases man.”

³⁴Jesus called the crowd together with His disciples, and said to them, “If anyone wishes to follow Me [as My disciple], he must deny himself [set aside selfish interests], and take up his cross [expressing a willingness to endure whatever may come] and follow Me [believing in Me, conforming to My example in living and, if need be, suffering or perhaps dying because of faith in Me].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Die to Self, Live to Christ

In Mark 8:34, Jesus explains what is necessary in order to follow Him and be His disciple. We are to deny ourselves, which means to “set aside selfish interests.” We are to take up our cross, which The Amplified Bible says means to express “a willingness to endure whatever may come.” We are to follow Jesus, believing in Him, conforming to His example for living, and even suffering—maybe giving up our lives—because of our faith in Him.

Many mature Christians have experienced this dying to self. Some have been severely persecuted and even martyred for their faith, while others have experienced the daily dying to self that is part of spiritual growth. This includes doing God’s will when we would rather not and denying ungodly attitudes, thought patterns, and ways of acting and speaking. Anytime we sacrifice our personal desires and plans in order to follow Jesus, we experience a death to self-will.

Speaking or writing about dying to self is much easier than actually doing it. Whether death is in the spiritual or physical realm, death on any level is painful. As we embrace death to self, we find the rewards of following Jesus. Romans 8:17 promises that if we indeed share in Jesus’ suffering, we will also share in His glory.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Keep the Good Thoughts, Reject the Bad Ones

Thoughtless acts often bring mental and emotional pain to individuals and deterioration and destruction to relationships, as well as to many other areas of life. People speak thoughtless words to others, causing pain and perhaps ruining someone's day.

When Peter rebuked Jesus regarding His statement that He would suffer and be killed, Jesus responded, "Get behind Me, Satan; for your mind is not set on God's will or His values and purposes, but on what pleases man" (Mark 8:33). Peter's thoughtless words, from an evil source, were not pleasing to Jesus!

We do things without thinking, such as making comments at inappropriate times, making impulsive purchases, or making various commitments without seriously considering whether we can complete them. We may even practice what I call "mindless eating," eating without being fully aware that we are doing it. How often do you walk by a candy dish at work and eat a piece without even thinking about whether it is a good choice or even something that you really want.

Solomon writes, “A soft and gentle and thoughtful answer turns away wrath, but harsh and painful and careless words stir up anger” (Prov. 15:1). How often do you need to apologize to someone, and say something such as, “I am sorry I hurt you—I just wasn’t thinking.” Our lives would be so much better if we would form the habit of thinking before speaking or taking action. It may take a lifetime of continued self-discipline to ever accomplish it completely, but at least we can start to move in the right direction.

We cannot just passively meditate on whatever happens to fall into our minds. Some thoughts are not necessarily good or evil; they are merely useless! Others are dark, very destructive, negative thoughts. Thankfully, there are also good thoughts that let the light into our mind and give us good feelings and positive energy.

When good things come into your mind, keep them and meditate on them. When bad things come into your mind, reject them as soon as you recognize them because they are not going to help you or anyone else. Let’s be committed to choosing the good and resisting the evil continually, just as God instructs us in His Word (see Deut. 30:19).

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

God, I thank You for forgiving me when I’ve spoken thoughtless words and done thoughtless deeds. Help me to recognize the source of my thoughts and to choose the good and resist the evil immediately. Amen.

³⁵“For whoever wishes to save his life [in this world] will [eventually] lose it [through death], but whoever loses his life [in this world] for My sake and the gospel’s will save it [from the consequences of sin and separation from God]. [Matt 10:39; Luke 17:33; John 12:25]

³⁶“For what does it benefit a man to gain the whole world [with all its pleasures], and forfeit his soul?

³⁷“For what will a man give in exchange for his soul and eternal life [in God’s kingdom]?

³⁸“For whoever is ashamed [here and now] of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels.”

9 AND JESUS said to them, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, there are some of those who are standing here who will not taste (experience) death before they see the kingdom of God after it has come with power.”

²Six days later, Jesus took with Him Peter and James and John, and led them up on a high mountain by themselves. And He was transfigured (changed in form) before them [and began to shine brightly with divine and regal glory]; [Matt 17:1–8; Luke 9:28–36]

³and His clothes became radiant and dazzling, intensely white, as no launderer on earth can whiten them.

⁴Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were having a conversation with Jesus.

⁵Peter responded and said to Jesus, “Rabbi (Master), it is good for us to be here; let us make three [sacred] tents—one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

⁶For he did not [really] know what to say because they were terrified [and stunned by the miraculous sight].

⁷Then a cloud formed, overshadowing them, and a voice came out of the cloud, “This is My beloved Son. Listen to Him and obey Him!”

⁸Suddenly they looked around and no longer saw anyone with them, except Jesus alone.

⁹As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus expressly ordered them not to tell anyone what they had seen, until the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

¹⁰So they [carefully and faithfully] kept the matter to themselves, discussing and questioning [with one another] what it meant to rise from the dead.

¹¹They asked Him, saying, “Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first [before the Messiah comes]?” [Mal 4:5, 6]

¹²He answered them, “Elijah does come first and restores and reestablishes all things. And yet how is it written of the Son of Man that He will suffer many things [grief and physical distress] and be treated with contempt [utterly despised and rejected]? [Is 53:3]

¹³“But I say to you that Elijah has in fact come [already], and they did to him whatever they wished, just as it is written [in Scripture] of him.”

¹⁴When they came [back] to the [other nine] disciples, they saw a large crowd around them, and scribes questioning and arguing with them. [Matt 17:14–18; Luke 9:37–42]

¹⁵Immediately, when the entire crowd saw Jesus, they were startled and began running up to greet Him.

¹⁶He asked them, “What are you discussing with them?”

¹⁷One of the crowd replied to Him, “Teacher, I brought You my son, possessed with a spirit which makes him unable to speak;

¹⁸and whenever it seizes him [intending to do harm], it throws him down, and he foams [at the mouth], and grinds his teeth and becomes stiff. I told Your disciples to drive it out, and they could not do it.”

¹⁹He replied, “O unbelieving (faithless) generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you?

Bring him to Me!”

²⁰They brought the boy to Him. When the [demonic] spirit saw Him, immediately it threw the boy into a convulsion, and falling to the ground he began rolling around and foaming at the mouth.

²¹Jesus asked his father, “How long has this been happening to him?” And he answered, “Since childhood.

²²“The demon has often thrown him both into fire and into water, intending to kill him. But if You can do anything, take pity on us and help us!”

²³Jesus said to him, “[You say to Me,] ‘If You can?’ All things are possible for the one who believes and trusts [in Me]!”

²⁴Immediately the father of the boy cried out [with a desperate, piercing cry], saying, “I do believe; help [me overcome] my unbelief.”

²⁵When Jesus saw that a crowd was rapidly gathering [around them], He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “You deaf and mute spirit, I command you, come out of him and never enter him again!”

²⁶After screaming out and throwing him into a terrible convulsion, it came out. The boy looked so much like a corpse [so still and pale] that many [of the spectators] said, “He is dead!”

²⁷But Jesus took him by the hand and raised him; and he stood up.

²⁸When He had gone indoors, His disciples began asking Him privately, “Why were we unable to drive it out?”

²⁹He replied to them, “This kind [of unclean spirit] cannot come out by anything but prayer [to the Father].”

³⁰They went on from there and began to go through Galilee. Jesus did not want anyone to know it, ³¹because He was teaching His disciples [and preparing them for the future]. He told them, “The Son of Man is to be betrayed and handed over to men [who are His enemies], and they will kill Him; and when He has been killed, He will rise [from the dead] three days later.”

³²But they did not understand this statement, and they were afraid to ask Him [what He meant].

³³They arrived at Capernaum; and when He was in the house, He asked them, “What were you discussing and arguing about on the road?” [Matt 18:1–5; Luke 9:46–48]

³⁴But they kept quiet, because on the road they had discussed and debated with one another which one [of them] was the greatest.

³⁵Sitting down [to teach], He called the twelve [disciples] and said to them, “If anyone wants to be first, he must be last of all [in importance] and a servant of all.”

³⁶Taking a child, He set him before them; and taking him in His arms, He said to them,

³⁷“Whoever receives and welcomes one child such as this in My name receives Me; and whoever receives Me receives not [only] Me, but Him who sent Me.” [Matt 10:40; Luke 10:16; John 13:20]

³⁸John said to Him, “Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in Your name, and we tried to stop him because he was not accompanying us [as Your disciple].” [Luke 9:49, 50]

³⁹But Jesus said, “Do not stop him; for there is no one who will perform a miracle in My name, and be able soon afterward to speak evil of Me.

⁴⁰“For he who is not against us is for us. [Num 11:27–29]

⁴¹“For whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because of your name as followers of Christ, I assure you and most solemnly say to you, he will not lose his reward.

⁴²“But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe and trust in Me to stumble [that is, to sin or lose faith], it would be better for him if a heavy millstone [one requiring a donkey’s strength to turn it] were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. [Matt 18:6; Luke 17:2]

⁴³“If your hand causes you to stumble and sin, cut it off [that is, remove yourself from the source of temptation]! It is better for you to enter life crippled, than to have two hands and go into hell, into the unquenchable fire, ⁴⁴[where THEIR WORM DOES NOT DIE, AND THE FIRE IS NOT PUT OUT.] [Is 66:24]

⁴⁵“If your foot causes you to stumble and sin, cut it off [that is, remove yourself from the source of temptation]! It would be better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and be thrown into hell, ⁴⁶[where THEIR WORM DOES NOT DIE, AND THE FIRE IS NOT PUT OUT.] [Is 66:24]

⁴⁷“If your eye causes you to stumble and sin, throw it out [that is, remove yourself from the source of temptation]! It would be better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell, ⁴⁸where THEIR WORM [that feeds on the dead] DOES NOT DIE, AND THE FIRE IS NOT PUT OUT. [Is 66:24]

⁴⁹“For everyone will be salted with fire.

⁵⁰“Salt is good and useful; but if salt has lost its saltiness (purpose), how will you make it salty? Have salt within yourselves continually, and be at peace with one another.”

10 GETTING UP, He left there (Capernaum) and went to the region of Judea and beyond the Jordan; and crowds gathered around Him again and accompanied Him, and as was His custom, He once more began to teach them.

²Pharisees came to Jesus to test Him [intending to trick Him into saying something wrong], and asked Him, “Is it lawful [according to Scripture] for a man to divorce his wife and send her away?”

³He replied to them, “What did Moses command you?”

⁴They said, “Moses allowed a man TO WRITE A CERTIFICATE OF DIVORCE AND TO SEND HER AWAY.” [Deut 24:1–4]

⁵But Jesus said to them, “Because of your hardness of hearts [your callousness and insensitivity toward your wives and the provision of God] he wrote you this precept.

⁶“But from the beginning of creation God MADE THEM MALE AND FEMALE. [Gen 1:27; 5:2]

⁷“FOR THIS REASON A MAN SHALL LEAVE HIS FATHER AND HIS MOTHER [to establish a home with his wife], [Matt 19:5]

⁸AND THE TWO SHALL BECOME ONE FLESH; so that they are no longer two, but [are united as] one flesh. [Gen 2:24]

⁹“Therefore, what God has united and joined together, man must not separate [by divorce].”

¹⁰In the house the disciples began questioning Him again about this.

¹¹And He said to them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery against her;

¹²and if a woman divorces her husband and marries another man, she commits adultery.”

¹³People were bringing children to Him so that He would touch and bless them, but the disciples reprimanded them and discouraged them [from coming].

¹⁴But when Jesus saw this, He was indignant and He said to them, “Allow the children to come to Me; do not forbid them; for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

¹⁵“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, whoever does not receive and welcome the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it at all.”

¹⁶And He took the children [one by one] in His arms and blessed them [with kind, encouraging words], placing His hands on them.

¹⁷As He was leaving on His journey, a man ran up and kneled before Him and asked Him, “Good Teacher [You who are essentially good and morally perfect], what shall I do to inherit eternal life [that is, eternal salvation in the Messiah’s kingdom]?” [Matt 19:16–29; Luke 18:18–30] ¹⁸Jesus said to him, “Why do you call Me good? No one is [essentially] good [by nature] except God alone.

¹⁹“You know the commandments: ‘DO NOT MURDER, DO NOT COMMIT ADULTERY, DO NOT STEAL, DO NOT TESTIFY FALSELY, Do not defraud, HONOR YOUR FATHER AND MOTHER.’” [Ex 20:12–16; Deut 5:16–20]

²⁰And he replied to Him, “Teacher, I have [carefully] kept all these [commandments] since my youth.”

²¹Looking at him, Jesus felt a love (high regard, compassion) for him, and He said to him, “You lack one thing: go and sell all your property and give [the money] to the poor, and you will have [abundant] treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me [becoming My disciple, believing and trusting in Me and walking the same path of life that I walk].”

²²But the man was saddened at Jesus’ words, and he left grieving, because he owned much property and had many possessions [which he treasured more than his relationship with God].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Self-Sufficient in Christ's Sufficiency

Most people have experienced some kind of difficult and painful circumstance that truly seemed impossible to them to bear. But the fact of the matter is you can do whatever you need to do in life.

As a believer in Jesus Christ, you are full of the Spirit of God, and nothing is too difficult for you if God is leading you to do it. God will not call you to do anything that He will not enable and empower you to do. If you will believe that you can do anything you need to do with God's help, you will soon see how truly capable you are in Christ!

The apostle Paul said, "I can do all things [which He has called me to do] through Him who strengthens and empowers me [to fulfill His purpose—I am self-sufficient in Christ's sufficiency; I am ready for anything and equal to anything through Him who infuses me with inner strength and confident peace]" (Phil. 4:13). You can do whatever you need to do today and every day!

²³Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, "How difficult it will be for those who are wealthy [and cling to possessions and status as security] to enter the kingdom of God!"

²⁴The disciples were amazed and bewildered by His words.

But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how difficult it is [for those who place their hope and confidence in riches] to enter the kingdom of God!

²⁵“It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man [who places his faith in wealth or status] to enter the kingdom of God.”

²⁶They were completely and utterly astonished, and said to Him, “Then who can be saved [from the wrath of God]?”

²⁷Looking at them, Jesus said, “With people [as far as it depends on them] it is impossible, but not with God; for all things are possible with God.”

²⁸Peter started saying to Him, “Look, we have given up everything and followed You [becoming Your disciples and accepting You as Teacher and Lord].”

²⁹Jesus said, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, there is no one who has given up a house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or farms, for My sake and for the gospel’s sake, ³⁰who will not receive a hundred times as much now in the present age—houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and farms—along with persecutions; and in the age to come, eternal life.

³²Now they were on the road going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was walking on ahead of them; and they were perplexed [at what Jesus had said], and those who were following were alarmed and afraid. And again He took the twelve [disciples] aside and began telling them what was going to happen to Him, ³³saying, “Listen very carefully: we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed and handed over to the chief priests and the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death and hand Him over to the Gentiles (Romans).

³⁴“They will mock and ridicule Him and spit on Him, and whip (scourge) Him and kill Him, and three days later He will rise [from the dead].”

³⁵James and John, the two sons of Zebedee, came to Him, saying, “Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask of You.” [Matt 20:20, 21]

³⁶And He replied to them, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

³⁷They said to Him, “Grant that we may sit [with You], one on Your right and one on Your left, in Your glory [Your majesty and splendor in Your kingdom].”

³⁸But Jesus said to them, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or to be baptized with the baptism [of suffering and death] with which I am baptized?”

³⁹And they replied to Him, “We are able.” Jesus told them, “The cup that I drink you will drink, and you will be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized.

⁴⁰“But to sit on My right or left, this is not Mine to give; but it is for those for whom it has been prepared [by My Father].”

⁴¹Hearing this, the [other] ten became indignant with James and John.

⁴²Calling them to Himself, Jesus said to them, “You know that those who are recognized as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them; and their powerful men exercise authority over them [tyrannizing them].

⁴³“But this is not how it is among you; instead, whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, ⁴⁴and whoever wishes to be first and most important among you must be slave of all.

⁴⁵“For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

⁴⁶Then they came to Jericho. And as He was leaving Jericho with His disciples and a large crowd, a blind beggar, Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, was sitting beside the road [as was his custom]. [Matt 20:29–34; Luke 18:35–43]

⁴⁷When Bartimaeus heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout and say, “Jesus, Son of David (Messiah), have mercy on me!”

⁴⁸Many sternly rebuked him, telling him to keep still and be quiet; but he kept on shouting out all the more, “Son of David (Messiah), have mercy on me!”

⁴⁹Jesus stopped and said, “Call him.” So they called the blind man, telling him, “Take courage, get up! He is calling for you.”

⁵⁰Throwing his cloak aside, he jumped up and came to Jesus.

⁵¹And Jesus said, “What do you want Me to do for you?” The blind man said to Him, “Rabboni (my Master), let me regain my sight.”

⁵²Jesus said to him, “Go; your faith [and confident trust in My power] has made you well.” Immediately he regained his sight and began following Jesus on the road. [Is 42:6, 7]

11 WHEN THEY were nearing Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany near the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of His disciples, [Matt 21:1–9; Luke 19:29–38; John 12:12–15]

²saying to them, “Go into the village in front of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find a [donkey’s] colt tied, which has never been ridden by anyone; untie it and bring it here.

³“If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ say, ‘The Lord needs it’; and immediately he will send it here.”

⁴So they went away [to the village] and found a colt tied outside at a gate in the street, and they untied it.

⁵Some of the people who were standing there said to them, “What are you doing, untying the colt?”

⁶They replied to them just as Jesus had directed, and they allowed them to go.

⁷They brought the colt to Jesus and put their coats on it, and He sat on it.

⁸And many [of the people] spread their coats on the road [as an act of tribute and homage before a new king], and others [scattered a layer of] leafy branches which they had cut from the fields [honoring Him as Messiah]. [2 Kin 9:13]

POWERPOINT

Mark 11:23 teaches us to speak to our mountains (obstacles or difficulties in life) and tell them to move. Most of us speak about our mountains instead of speaking to them. Words of faith will strengthen us to deal with the challenges that we face, but words of doubt, worry, or fear will make them seem impossible.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Have Faith in God Constantly

Jesus cursed a fig tree because it was not bearing fruit when it should have been (see Mark 11:13–14). It had leaves, but no fruit! When the leaves appear on the fig tree, fruit is supposed to be under them. Jesus went to the fig tree because He was hungry, but found no fruit.

As Christians, and as Christ's representatives, we are to be genuine and always have good fruit to back up our claim of being believers in Him. People in the world are hungry (needy), and when they come to us for help we should always be ready to help them.

In Mark 11:20–24, as Jesus and the disciples passed by the fig tree the day after Jesus had cursed it, they seemed surprised that it had withered away. Jesus said they should have faith in God always. Do we constantly believe what God says to us in His Word, or are we like the disciples, astonished when we actually see His Word come to pass?

I encourage you to be filled with believing thoughts, not ones of wondering, doubt, and disbelief. When God says something in His Word, be filled with the expectation of seeing it come to pass. Jesus told the disciples that if they truly believed and did not doubt, they would receive from God whatever they asked for in prayer. Be careful about letting Satan fill your mind with doubt about receiving the answers to your prayers.

Keep on believing and expecting to see God's promises come to pass in your life. Even when you don't see any change, God is working on your behalf and you will see it if you don't let doubt poison your faith in Him.

⁹Those who went in front and those who were following [Him] were shouting [in joy and praise], “Hosanna (Save, I pray)!

BLESSED (praised, glorified) IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD! [Ps 118:26]

¹⁰“Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David! Hosanna in the highest [heaven]!”

¹¹Jesus entered Jerusalem and went to the temple [enclosure]; and after looking around at everything, He left for Bethany with the twelve [disciples], because it was already late [in the day].

¹²On the next day, when they had left Bethany, He was hungry. [Matt 21:18–22]

¹³Seeing at a distance a fig tree in leaf, He went to see if He would find anything on it. But He found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.

¹⁴He said to it, “No one will ever eat fruit from you again!” And His disciples were listening [to what He said].

¹⁵Then they came to Jerusalem. And He entered the temple [grounds] and began driving out [with force] the people who were selling and buying [animals for sacrifice] in the temple area, and overturned the tables of the moneychangers [who made a profit exchanging foreign money for temple coinage] and the seats of those who were selling doves; [Matt 21:12–16;

Luke 19:45–47; John 2:13–16]

¹⁶and He would not permit anyone to carry merchandise or household wares through the temple [grounds, using the temple area irreverently as a shortcut].

¹⁷He began to teach and say to them, “Is it not written, ‘MY HOUSE SHALL BE CALLED A HOUSE OF PRAYER FOR ALL THE NATIONS’? But you have made it a ROBBERS’ DEN.” [Is 56:7; Jer 7:11]

¹⁸The chief priests and the scribes heard this and began searching for a way to destroy Him; for they were afraid of Him, since the entire crowd was struck with astonishment at His teaching.

¹⁹When evening came, Jesus and His disciples would leave the city.

²⁰In the morning, as they were passing by, the disciples saw that the fig tree had withered away from the roots up.

²¹And remembering, Peter said to Him, “Rabbi (Master), look! The fig tree which You cursed has withered!”

²²Jesus replied, “Have faith in God [constantly].

²³“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, whoever says to this mountain, ‘Be lifted up and thrown into the sea!’ and does not doubt in his heart [in God’s unlimited power], but believes that what he says is going to take place, it will be done for him [in accordance with God’s will]. [Matt 17:20; Luke 17:6; 1 John 5:14]

²⁴“For this reason I am telling you, whatever things you ask for in prayer [in accordance with God’s will], believe [with confident trust] that you have received them, and they will be given to you.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Forgiveness and Mountain-Moving Faith

One of the biggest reasons that prayer isn't answered is unforgiveness. Jesus gave His disciples the command to forgive. And then He told them plainly that if they did not forgive, neither would their Father in heaven forgive them their failings and shortcomings (see Mark 11:25–26). He was blunt with them because He knew what a stumbling block unforgiveness would be for their spiritual life.

Note that forgiveness and having faith to move mountains come in the same context (see Mark 11:20–26). There is no power in speaking to a mountain if the heart is full of unforgiveness. Yet this problem is rampant among God's people. If anything will short-circuit our faith and prevent God from answering our prayers, it's a heart full of unforgiveness and bitterness toward others. We can't pray and expect God to move mountains for us or on behalf of others if we've hardened our hearts with unforgiveness.

Jesus told Peter that he needed to be willing to forgive seven times seventy: 490 times (see Matt. 18:21–22). That number is simply representative of God's command that we should keep on forgiving no matter how many times it takes. Jesus wanted to show His disciples that forgiveness was one of the main keys to unlocking the Kingdom of God in their lives if they wanted to experience power in prayer.

Extend abundant mercy and forgiveness just as God has forgiven you in Christ.

²⁵“Whenever you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive him [drop the issue, let it go], so that your Father who is in heaven will also forgive you your transgressions and wrongdoings [against Him and others].

²⁶“But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your transgressions.”]

²⁷They came again to Jerusalem. And as Jesus was walking in the [courts and porches of the] temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to Him, [Matt 21:23–27; Luke 20:1–8]

²⁸and began saying to Him, “By what authority are You doing these things, or who gave You this authority to do these things?”

²⁹Jesus said to them, “I will ask you one question, and you answer Me, and then I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

³⁰“Was the baptism of John [the Baptist] from heaven [that is, ordained by God] or from men? Answer Me.”

³¹They began discussing it with each other, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Then why did you not believe him?’

³²“But *shall we say, ‘From men?’”—they were afraid [to answer because] of the crowd, for everyone considered John to have been a real prophet.

³³So they replied to Jesus, “We do not know.” And Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

12 JESUS BEGAN to speak to them [the chief priests, scribes and elders who were questioning Him] in parables: “A man PLANTED A VINEYARD AND PUT A WALL AROUND IT, AND DUG A PIT FOR THE WINE PRESS AND BUILT A TOWER; and he rented it out to tenant farmers and left the country. [Is 5:1, 2; Matt 21:33–46; Luke 20:9–19]

²“When the harvest season came he sent a servant to the tenants, in order to collect from them some of the fruit of the vineyard.

³“They took him and beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

⁴“Again he sent them another servant, and they [threw stones and] wounded him in the head, and treated him disgracefully.

⁵“And he sent another, and that one they killed; then many others—some they beat and some they killed.

⁶“He still had one man left to send, a beloved son; he sent him last of all to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’

⁷“But those tenants said to each other, ‘This man is the heir! Come on, let us kill him [and destroy the evidence], and his inheritance will be ours!’

⁸“So they took him and killed him, and threw his body outside the vineyard.

⁹“What will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the tenants, and will give the vineyard to others.

¹⁰“Have you not even read this Scripture:

‘THE STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REGARDED AS UNWORTHY and REJECTED, THIS [very stone] HAS BECOME THE CHIEF CORNERSTONE

¹¹THIS CAME ABOUT FROM THE LORD,
AND IT IS MARVELOUS and WONDERFUL IN OUR EYES’?” [Ps
118:22, 23]

¹²And they were looking for a way to seize Him, but they were afraid of the crowd; for they knew that He spoke this parable in reference to [and as a charge against] them. And so they left Him and went away.

¹³Then they sent some of the Pharisees and Herodians to Jesus in order to trap Him into making a statement [that they could use against Him]. [Matt 22:15–22; Luke 20:20–26]

¹⁴They came and said to Him, “Teacher, we know that You are truthful and have no personal bias toward anyone; for You are not influenced by outward appearances or social status, but in truth You teach the way of God. Is it lawful [according to Jewish law and tradition] to pay the poll-tax to [Tiberius] Caesar, or not?

¹⁵“Should we pay [the tax] or should we not pay?” But knowing their hypocrisy, He asked them, “Why are you testing Me? Bring Me a coin (denarius) to look at.”

¹⁶So they brought one. Then He asked them, “Whose image and inscription is this?” They said to Him, “Caesar’s.”

¹⁷Jesus said to them, “Pay to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” And they were greatly amazed at Him.

¹⁸Some Sadducees (who say that there is no resurrection) came to Him, and began questioning Him, saying, [Matt 22:23–33; Luke 20:27–38]

¹⁹“Teacher, Moses wrote for us [a law] that IF A MAN’S BROTHER DIES and leaves a wife BUT LEAVES NO CHILD, HIS BROTHER IS TO MARRY THE WIDOW AND RAISE UP CHILDREN FOR HIS BROTHER. [Deut 25:5]

²⁰“There were seven brothers; the first [one] took a wife, and died leaving no children.

²¹“The second brother married her, and died leaving no children; and the third likewise;

²²and so all seven [married her and died, and] left no children. Last of all the woman died also.

²³“In the resurrection, whose wife will she be? For all seven [brothers] were married to her.”

²⁴Jesus said to them, “Is this not why you are wrong, because you know neither the Scriptures [that teach the resurrection] nor the power of God [who is able to raise the dead]?”

²⁵“For when they rise from the dead, they do not marry nor are they given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.

²⁶“But concerning the raising of the dead, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the passage about the burning bush, how God spoke to him, saying, ‘I AM THE GOD OF ABRAHAM, AND THE GOD OF ISAAC, AND THE GOD OF JACOB’? [Ex 3:2–6]

²⁷“He is not the God of the dead, but of the living; you are greatly mistaken and you are deceiving yourselves!”

²⁸Then one of the scribes [an expert in Mosaic Law] came up and listened to them arguing [with one another], and noticing that Jesus answered them well, asked Him, “Which commandment is first and most important of all?” [Matt 22:34–40; Luke 10:25–28]

Speak God's Word

I will love the Lord my God with all my heart, and with all my soul, and with all my mind, and with all my strength. And I will love my neighbor as I love myself.

| adapted from MARK 12:30–31 |

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*Thank You, God, that in Jesus
You have put my enemies under my feet!*

• adapted from Mark 12:36

²⁹Jesus answered, “The first and most important one is:
‘HEAR, O ISRAEL, THE LORD OUR GOD IS ONE LORD;

³⁰AND YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL (life), AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND (thought, understanding), AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH.’
[Deut 6:4, 5]

³¹“This is the second: ‘YOU SHALL [unselfishly] LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF.’ There is no other commandment greater than these.” [Lev 19:18]

³²The scribe said to Him, “Admirably answered, Teacher;
You truthfully stated that HE IS ONE, AND THERE IS NO OTHER BUT HIM; ³³AND TO LOVE HIM WITH ALL THE HEART AND WITH ALL THE UNDERSTANDING AND WITH ALL THE STRENGTH, AND TO [unselfishly] LOVE ONE’S NEIGHBOR AS ONESELF, is much more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.” [1 Sam 15:22; Hos 6:6; Mic 6:6–8; Heb 10:8]

³⁴When Jesus saw that he answered thoughtfully and intelligently, He said to him, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” And after that, no one would dare to ask Him any more questions.

³⁵Jesus began to say, as He taught in [a portico or court of] the temple, “How can the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David? [Matt 22:41–46; Luke 20:41–44]

³⁶“David himself said [when inspired] by the Holy Spirit, ‘THE LORD (the Father) SAID TO MY LORD (the Son, the Messiah), “SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND,
UNTIL I PUT YOUR ENEMIES UNDER YOUR FEET.”’ [Ps 110:1]

³⁷“David himself calls Him (the Son, the Messiah) ‘Lord’; so how can it be that He is David’s Son?” The large crowd enjoyed hearing Jesus and listened to Him with delight.

³⁸In [the course of] His teaching He was saying, “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes [displaying their prominence], and like to receive respectful greetings in the market places,³⁹ and [they love] the chief seats in the synagogues and the places of distinction and honor at banquets, ⁴⁰[these scribes] who devour (confiscate) widows’ houses, and offer long prayers for appearance’s sake [to impress others]. These men will receive greater condemnation.”

⁴¹And He sat down opposite the [temple] treasury, and began watching how the people were putting money into the treasury. And many rich people were putting in large sums. [Luke 21:1–4]

⁴²A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which amount to a mite.

⁴³Calling His disciples to Him, He said to them, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, this poor widow put in [proportionally] more than all the contributors to the treasury.

⁴⁴“For they all contributed from their surplus, but she, from her poverty, put in all she had, all she had to live on.”

13 AS HE was coming out of the temple [grounds], one of His disciples said to Him, “Teacher, look what ^{*}wonderful stones and what wonderful buildings!” [Matt 24; Luke 21:5–36]

²Jesus replied to him, “You see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left on another which will not be torn down!”

³As He was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked Him privately,

⁴“Tell us, when will these things happen, and what will be the sign when all these things are about to be fulfilled?”

⁵Jesus began to say to them, “Be careful and see to it that no one misleads you.

⁶“Many will come in My name [misusing My name or claiming to be the Messiah], saying, ‘I am He!’ and will deceive and mislead many.

⁷“When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed (frightened, troubled); these things must take place, but the end is not yet.

⁸“For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. These things are the beginning of the birth pangs [the intolerable anguish and suffering].

⁹“But be on your guard; they will turn you over to courts, and you will be beaten in synagogues, and you will stand [as accused] before governors and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them.

¹⁰“The gospel [that is, the good news regarding the way of salvation] must first be preached to all the [Gentile] nations. [Col 1:6, 23]

¹¹“When they take you and turn you over [to the court], do not worry beforehand about what to say, but say whatever is given to you [by God] in that hour; for it is not you who speak, but it is the Holy Spirit [who will speak through you].

¹²“Brother will betray brother to [be put to] death, and a father [will hand over] his child; and children will rise up and take a stand against parents and have them put to death.

¹³“You will be hated by everyone because of [your association with] My name, but the one who [patiently perseveres empowered by the Holy Spirit and] endures to the end, he will be saved.

¹⁴“But when you see the ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION standing [in the temple sanctuary] where it ought not to be (let the reader understand) then those who are in Judea must flee to the mountains. [Dan 9:27; 11:31; 12:11]

¹⁵“Whoever is on the housetop must not go down [to enter the house], or go inside to take anything out of his house;

¹⁷“And woe to those women who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days!

¹⁸“Pray that it will not occur in winter,

¹⁹for at that time there will be such tribulation as has not occurred, from the beginning of the creation which God made, until now—and never will [be again].

²⁰“And if the Lord had not shortened the days, no human life would have been saved; but for the sake of the elect, whom He chose [for Himself], He shortened the days. [Dan 12:1]

²¹“Then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed!)’ or, ‘Look, He is there!’ do not believe it;

²²for false Christs and false prophets will arise, and they will provide signs and wonders in order to deceive, if [such a thing were] possible, even the elect [those God has chosen for Himself].

²³“But be on your guard; I have told you everything in advance.

²⁴“But in those days, after [the suffering and distress of] that tribulation, THE SUN WILL BE DARKENED, AND THE MOON WILL NOT GIVE ITS LIGHT, [Is 13:10]

²⁵AND THE STARS WILL BE FALLING from the sky, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken. [Is 34:4]

²⁶“Then they will see THE SON OF MAN COMING IN CLOUDS with great power and glory [in royal majesty and splendor]. [Dan 7:13, 14]

²⁷“And then He will send out the angels, and will gather together His elect [those He has chosen for Himself] from the four winds, from the farthest end of the earth to the farthest end of heaven.

²⁹“Even so, you too, when you see these things happening, know [for certain] that He is near, right at the door.

³⁰“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, this generation [the people living when these signs and events begin] will not pass away until all these things take place.

³¹“Heaven and earth [as now known] will pass away, but My words will not pass away.

³²“But of that [exact] day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son [in His humanity], but the Father alone.

³³“Be on guard and stay constantly alert [and pray]; for you do not know when the appointed time will come.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that though heaven and earth as we know it will pass away, Your words will not pass away.

• adapted from Mark 13:31

³⁴“It is like a man away on a journey, who when he left home put his servants in charge, each with his particular task, and also ordered the doorkeeper to be continually alert.

³⁵“Therefore, be continually on the alert—for you do not know when the master of the house is coming, whether in the evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning—³⁶[stay alert,] in case he should come suddenly and unexpectedly and find you asleep and unprepared.

³⁷“What I say to you I say to everyone, ‘Be on the alert [stay awake and be continually cautious]!’”

14 IT WAS now two days before the Passover and [the festival of] Unleavened Bread, and the chief priests and the scribes were searching for a deceitful way to arrest Jesus and kill Him; [Matt 26:2–5; Luke 22:1, 2]

²but they were saying, “Not during the festival, for the people might riot.”

³While He was in Bethany [as a guest] at the home of Simon the leper, and reclining at the table, a woman came with an alabaster vial of very costly and precious perfume of pure nard; and she broke the vial and poured the perfume over His head.

⁴But there were some who were indignantly remarking to one another, “Why has this perfume been wasted?”

⁵“For this perfume might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii [a laborer’s wages for almost a year], and the money given to the poor.” And they scolded her.

⁶But Jesus said, “Let her alone; why are you bothering her and causing trouble? She has done a good and beautiful thing to Me.

⁷“For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you wish you can do something good to them; but you will not always have Me. [Deut 15:11]

⁸“She has done what she could; she has anointed My body beforehand for the burial.

⁹“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, wherever the good news [regarding salvation] is proclaimed throughout the world, what she has done will be told in memory of her.”

¹⁰Then Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve [disciples], went to the chief priests to betray Jesus to them. [Matt 26:14–16; Luke 22:3–6; John 6:71]

¹¹When they heard this they were delighted, and promised to give him money. And he began looking for an opportune time to betray Jesus.

¹²On the first day [of the festival] of Unleavened Bread, when [as was customary] they sacrificed the Passover lamb, His disciples asked Him, “Where do You want us to go and prepare for You to eat the Passover?” [Matt 26:17–19; Luke 22:7–13]

¹³And He sent two of His disciples, saying to them, “Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him;

¹⁴and say to the owner of the house he enters, ‘The Teacher asks, “Where is My guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?”’

¹⁵“He will show you a large upstairs room, furnished and ready [with carpets and dining couches]; prepare [the supper] for us there.”

¹⁶The disciples left and went to the city and found everything just as He had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

¹⁷When it was evening, He came with the twelve [disciples]. [Matt 26:20–25]

¹⁸While they were reclining at the table, Jesus said, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you that one of you will betray Me—one who is eating with Me.” [Ps 41:9]

¹⁹They began to be grieved and deeply distressed and to say to Him one by one, “Surely not I?”

²⁰And He replied, “It is one of the twelve [disciples], one who is dipping bread in the bowl with Me.

²¹“For the Son of Man goes [to the cross] just as it is written [in Scripture] of Him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born.”

²²While they were eating, Jesus took bread and blessed it [giving thanks and praise], and He broke it, and gave it to them and said, “Take it. This is My body.” [Matt 26:26–29; Luke 22:17–20; 1 Cor 11:23–25]

²³And when He had taken a cup [of wine] and given thanks, He gave it to them, and they all drank from it. [Ex 24:8]

²⁴And He said to them, “This is My blood of the [new] covenant, [My blood] which is being poured out for many [for the forgiveness of sins].

²⁵“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.”

²⁶After they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

²⁷Jesus said to them, “You will all fall away [and be ashamed and be afraid to be associated with Me as disciples], because it is written, ‘I WILL STRIKE THE SHEPHERD, AND THE SHEEP WILL BE SCATTERED.’ [Zech 13:7]

²⁸“But after I have been raised [from the dead], I will go ahead of you to Galilee.”

²⁹But Peter said to Him, “Even if they all fall away [and desert You, ashamed and afraid of being associated with You], yet I will not [do so]!”

³⁰Jesus said to him, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, this very night, before a rooster crows twice, you will deny [that you even know] Me three times.” [Matt 26:34; John 13:38]

³¹But Peter kept saying insistently, “If I have to die with You, I will not deny You!” And they all were saying the same thing as well.

³²Then they went to a place called Gethsemane; and Jesus said to His disciples, “Sit down here until I have prayed.” [Matt 26:36–46; Luke 22:40–46]

³³He took Peter and James and John with Him, and He began to be deeply distressed and troubled [extremely anguished at the prospect of what was to come].

³⁴And He said to them, “My soul is deeply grieved and overwhelmed with sorrow, to the point of death; remain here and keep watch.”

³⁵After going a little farther, He fell to the ground [distressed by the weight of His spiritual burden] and began to pray that if it were possible [in the Father’s will], the hour [of suffering and death for the sins of mankind] might pass from Him.

³⁶He was saying, “Abba, Father! All things are possible for You; take this cup [of judgment] away from Me; but not what I will, but what You will.”

³⁷And He came back and found them sleeping, and He said to Peter, “Simon, are you asleep? Were you unable to keep watch for one hour?

Speak God's Word

I keep actively watching and praying that I will not come into temptation; the spirit is willing, but the body is weak.

| adapted from MARK 14:38 |

³⁸“Keep [actively] watching and praying so that you do not come into temptation; the spirit is willing, but the body is weak.”

³⁹He went away again and prayed, saying the same words.

⁴⁰And again He came back and found them sleeping, because their eyes were very heavy; and they did not know how to answer Him.

⁴¹He came back a third time and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough [of that]! The hour has come. Look, the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners.

⁴²“Get up, let us go. Look, my betrayer is near!”

⁴³And at once, while He was still speaking, Judas [Iscaiot], one of the twelve [disciples], came up, and with him a crowd of men with swords and clubs, who came from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders [of the Sanhedrin]. [Matt 26:47–56;

Luke 22:47–53; John 18:3–11]

⁴⁴Now the betrayer had given them a signal, saying, “Whomever I kiss, He is the one; seize Him and lead Him away safely [under guard].”

⁴⁵When Judas came, immediately he went up to Jesus and said, “Rabbi (Master)!” and he kissed Him [forcefully].

⁴⁶They laid hands on Him and seized Him.

⁴⁷But one of the bystanders [Simon Peter] drew his sword and struck [Malchus] the slave of the high priest and cut off his ear. [Matt 26:51; Luke 22:50; John 18:10]

⁴⁸Jesus said to them, “Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me, as you would against a robber?”

⁴⁹“Day after day I was with you, teaching in the [courts and porches of the] temple, and you did not seize Me; but this has happened so that the Scriptures would be fulfilled.”

⁵⁰Then all of His disciples abandoned Him and fled.

⁵¹A young man was following Him, wearing [only] a linen sheet over his naked body; and some men seized him.

⁵²But pulling free of the linen sheet, he escaped [from them] naked.

⁵³They led Jesus away to the high priest, and all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) gathered together. [Matt 26:57–68; Luke 22:66–71; John 18:12f, 19–24]

⁵⁴Peter had followed Him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest; and he was sitting with the officers [guards and servants] and warming himself at the fire.

⁵⁵Now the chief priests and the entire Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) were trying to obtain testimony against Jesus [which they could use] to have Him [condemned and] executed, but they were not finding any.

⁵⁶For many [people] were giving false testimony against Him, but their testimonies were not consistent.

⁵⁷Some stood up and began to give false testimony against Him, saying,

⁵⁸“We heard Him say, ‘I will destroy this temple (sanctuary) that was made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.’” [John 2:19–21]

⁵⁹Not even in this respect was their testimony consistent.

⁶⁰The high priest stood up and came forward and asked Jesus, “Have You no answer to give [in response] to what these men are testifying against You?”

⁶¹But Jesus kept silent and gave no answer at all. Again the high priest was questioning Him, and saying to Him, “Are You the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), the Son of the Blessed One?”

⁶²Jesus said, “I am; and you will [all] see THE SON OF MAN SEATED [with authority] AT THE RIGHT HAND OF POWER (the Father), and COMING WITH THE CLOUDS OF HEAVEN.” [Ps 110:1; Dan 7:13]

⁶³Then tearing his robe [to express his indignation], the high priest said, “What further need do we have of witnesses? [Num 14:6]

⁶⁴“You have heard the blasphemy [that is, His claim to be the Son of God]. What is your decision?” And they all condemned Him to be [guilty and] deserving of death. [Lev 24:16]

⁶⁵ And some began to spit on Him, and to blindfold Him, and to beat Him with their fists, and to say to Him, “Prophecy [by telling us who hit you]!” Then the officers took custody of Him and struck him in the face.

⁶⁶ While Peter was down below in the courtyard, one of the servant-girls of the high priest came, [Matt 26:69–75; Luke 22:55–62; John 18:16–18, 25–27]

⁶⁷ and when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked intently at him and said, “You were with Jesus the Nazarene, too.”

⁶⁸ But he denied it, saying, “I neither know nor understand what you are talking about.” Then he went out [of the courtyard] to the porch, [and a rooster crowed.]

⁶⁹ The servant-girl saw him, and began once more to tell the bystanders, “This [man] is one of them.”

⁷⁰ But again he denied it. After a little while, the bystanders again said to Peter, “You are in fact one of them, for [it is clear from your accent, that] you are a Galilean, too.”

⁷¹ But he began to invoke a curse [on himself] and to swear [an oath], “I do not know this man you are talking about!”

⁷² Immediately a rooster crowed the second time. And Peter remembered what Jesus said to him: “Before a rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times.” And thinking of this, he began weeping [in anguish].

15 EARLY IN the morning the chief priests, with the elders and scribes and the whole Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), immediately consulted together; and they bound Jesus, they took Him away [violently] and handed Him over to Pilate.

[Is 53:8]

²Pilate questioned Him, “Are You the King of the Jews?”
And He replied to him, “It is as you say.” [Matt 27:11–14; Luke 23:2, 3; John 18:29–37]

³The chief priests began accusing Him of many things.

⁴Then Pilate again asked Him, “Have You no answer [to give]? See how many charges they are bringing against You!”

⁵But Jesus gave no further answer; so Pilate was perplexed.
[Is 53:7]

⁶Now at the [Passover] feast Pilate used to set free for them any one prisoner whom they requested. [Matt 27:15–26; Luke 23:18–25; John 18:39–19:16]

⁷The man called Barabbas was imprisoned with the insurrectionists (revolutionaries) who had committed murder in the civil rebellion.

⁸The crowd came up and began asking Pilate to do as he usually did for them.

⁹Pilate answered them, saying, “Do you want me to set free for you the King of the Jews?”

¹⁰For he was aware that the chief priests had turned Jesus over to him because of envy and resentment.

¹¹But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to get him to release Barabbas for them instead.

¹²Again Pilate answered, “Then what shall I do with Him whom you call the King of the Jews?”

¹³They screamed back, “Crucify Him!”

¹⁴But Pilate asked them, “Why, what has He done that is evil?” But they screamed all the more, “Crucify Him!”

¹⁵So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, set Barabbas free for them; and after having Jesus scourged, he handed Him over [to his soldiers] to be crucified. [Is 53:5]

¹⁶The soldiers led Him away into the palace (that is, the Praetorium), and they called together the entire [Roman] battalion [of 600 soldiers]. [Matt 27:27–31]

¹⁷They dressed Him up in [a ranking Roman officer’s robe of] purple, and after twisting [together] a crown of thorns, they placed it on Him; ¹⁸and they began saluting and mocking Him: “Hail, King of the Jews!”

¹⁹They kept beating Him on the head with a reed and spitting on Him, and kneeling and bowing in [mock] homage to Him. [Is 50:6]

²⁰After they had mocked Him, they took off the purple robe and put His own clothes on Him. And they led Him out [of the city] to crucify Him.

²¹They forced into service a passer-by coming in from the countryside, Simon of Cyrene (the father of Alexander and Rufus), to carry His cross. [Matt 27:32; Luke 23:26]

²²Then they brought Him to the place [called] Golgotha, which is translated, Place of a Skull. [Matt 27:33–44; Luke 23:33–43; John 19:17–24]

²³They tried to give Him wine mixed with myrrh [to dull the pain], but He would not take it.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Don't Let Your Feelings Dictate Your Outcome

Jesus was frequently accused of being wicked and deceitful even though His entire goal was to help people (see Mark 15:3). He never tried to defend Himself because He knew He was acting in the will of God. Eventually Jesus was crucified, though He was totally innocent of the crimes alleged against Him. Toward the end of His suffering on the cross, although He had always trusted His heavenly Father and believed He was doing what God wanted Him to do, He cried, "MY GOD, MY GOD, WHY HAVE YOU FORSAKEN ME?" (Mark 15:34). Jesus had a moment when life was so painful that He asked if He had been forsaken.

As the Son of God, Jesus knew that His Father would deliver Him, but in this instance He spoke as the Son of Man. Perhaps this statement is recorded for our benefit so we know that God understands us even when we feel He has forsaken us. We see that even Jesus felt abandoned in His pain and suffering, but we also see as we read the rest of the story in Mark that Jesus was resurrected and experienced complete victory over an intensely difficult time in His life. We can expect the same to happen to us when we are suffering.

You may be going through being falsely accused or suffering unjustly and you are wondering why God has forsaken you. In reality He is closer to you than you realize, and He is planning your resurrection also. He understands how you feel, and I encourage you to keep believing and never let your feelings dictate your final outcome.

²⁴And they crucified Him, and divided up His clothes among themselves, casting lots for them to see who should take what. [Ps 22:18]

²⁵It was the third hour (9:00 a.m.) when they crucified Him. [Ps 22:14–16]

²⁶The inscription of the accusation against Him had been written [above Him]: “THE KING OF THE JEWS.”

²⁸[And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, “He was counted with the transgressors.”] [Is 53:12]

²⁹Those who were passing by were insulting Him with abusive and insolent language, wagging their heads [as a sign of contempt], and saying, “Ha! You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in [only] three days, [John 2:19]

³⁰save Yourself by coming down from the cross!”

³¹In the same way the chief priests also, along with the scribes, were ridiculing and mocking Him among themselves and saying, “He saved others [from death]; He cannot save Himself! [Ps 22:7, 8]

³²“Let the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, so that we may see and believe and trust [in Him]!” Those who were crucified with Him were also insulting Him.

³³When the sixth hour (noon) came, darkness covered the whole land until the ninth hour (3:00 p.m.). [Matt 27:45–56; Luke 23:44–49]

³⁴And at the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, “ELOI, ELOI, LAMA SABACHTHANI?”—which is translated, “MY GOD, MY GOD, WHY HAVE YOU FORSAKEN ME?” [Ps 22:1]

³⁵Some of the bystanders heard Him and said, “Look! He is calling for Elijah!”

³⁶Someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on a reed and gave Him a drink, saying, “Let us see whether Elijah is coming to take Him down.” [Ps 69:21; Matt 27:48, 50; Luke 23:36; John 19:29, 30]

³⁷But Jesus uttered a loud cry, and breathed out His last [voluntarily, sovereignly dismissing and releasing His spirit from His body in submission to His Father’s plan].

³⁸And the veil [of the Holy of Holies] of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom.

³⁹When the centurion, who was standing opposite Him, saw the way He breathed His last [being fully in control], he said, “Truly this man was the Son of God!”

⁴⁰Now some women also were watching from a distance, among whom were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the Less and of Joses, and Salome. [John 19:25]

⁴¹When Jesus was in Galilee, they used to accompany him and minister to Him; and there were also many other women who came up with Him to Jerusalem.

⁴²When evening had already come, because it was the preparation day, that is, the day before the Sabbath, [Deut 21:22, 23; Matt 27:57–61; Luke 23:50–56; John 19:38–42]

⁴³Joseph of Arimathea came, a prominent and respected member of the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), who was himself waiting for the kingdom of God—and he courageously dared to go in before Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus.

⁴⁴Pilate wondered if He was dead by this time [only six hours after being crucified], and he summoned the centurion and asked him whether He was already dead.

⁴⁵And when he learned from the centurion [that Jesus was in fact dead], he gave the body to Joseph [by granting him permission to remove it].

⁴⁶So Joseph purchased a [fine] linen cloth [for wrapping the body], and after taking Jesus down [from the cross], he wrapped Him in the linen cloth and placed Him in a tomb which had been cut out of rock. Then he rolled a [large, wheel-shaped] stone against the entrance of the tomb. [Is 53:9]

⁴⁷Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Josès were [carefully] watching to see where He was laid.

16 WHEN THE Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome purchased [sweet-smelling] spices, so that they might go and anoint Him. [Matt 28:1–8; Luke 24:1–10; John 20:1–8]

²Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen.

³And they were saying to one another, “Who will roll back the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?”

⁴Looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away, though it was extremely large.

⁵Entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right, wearing a [long, stately] white robe; and they were amazed and bewildered.

⁶And he said to them, “Do not be amazed; you are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He has risen; He is not here. See, [here is] the place where they laid Him. [Ps 16:10]

⁷“But go, tell His disciples and Peter, ‘He is going ahead of you to Galilee; you will see Him there, just as He told you.’”
[Mark 14:28]

⁸They went out and fled from the tomb, for they were seized with trembling and astonishment; and they said nothing [about it] to anyone, because they were afraid.

¹⁰She went and reported it to those who had been with Him, while they were mourning and weeping.

¹¹When they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe it.

¹²After that, He appeared in a different form to two of them as they were walking along the way to the country. [Luke 24:13–35]

¹³They returned [to Jerusalem] and told the others, but they did not believe them either.

¹⁴Later, Jesus appeared to the eleven [disciples] themselves as they were reclining at the table; and He called them to account for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who had seen Him after He had risen [from death].

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Jesus, that though You were crucified, You are now risen!

• adapted from Mark 16:6

¹⁵And He said to them, “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation.

¹⁶“He who has believed [in Me] and has been baptized will be saved [from the penalty of God’s wrath and judgment]; but he who has not believed will be condemned.

¹⁷“These signs will accompany those who have believed: in My name they will cast out demons, they will speak in new tongues;

¹⁸they will pick up serpents, and if they drink anything deadly, it will not hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will get well.”

¹⁹So then, when the Lord Jesus had spoken to them, He was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of

God. [Ps 110:1]

²⁰And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord was working with them and confirming the word by the signs that followed.]

Luke's Gospel is longer than any of the other three. It emphasizes Jesus as Savior, includes many stories of miracles, and recognizes the role of the Holy Spirit in Jesus' ministry. It also takes an inclusive approach to those whom Jesus touched, mentioning the poor and needy, the troubled and oppressed, women and children more than the other Gospels.

Luke 4 is an important chapter to remember as we contend for good thoughts. In it, Jesus faces intense temptation from the devil and gains victory over him. We learn from the way Jesus fought this battle that consistently speaking God's Word and worshipping the Lord is a powerful weapon against the enemy (see Luke 4:8). This story and others in Luke's Gospel remind us that God is always greater and more powerful than anything the enemy tries to do to us.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM LUKE:

You can always tell what is truly in your heart by what comes out of your mouth (see Luke 6:44–45).

Instead of focusing on what you don't have, focus on what you do have and watch God multiply what you give to Him (see Luke 9:12–17).

We have been given authority over the enemy, so keep your mind and words faith-filled and you will see the Lord put Satan under your feet (see Luke 10:19).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM LUKE:

THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD IS UPON ME (the Messiah), BECAUSE HE HAS ANOINTED ME TO PREACH THE GOOD NEWS TO THE POOR. HE HAS SENT ME TO ANNOUNCE RELEASE (pardon, forgiveness) TO THE CAPTIVES, AND RECOVERY OF SIGHT TO THE BLIND, TO SET FREE THOSE WHO ARE OPPRESSED (downtrodden, bruised, crushed by tragedy), TO PROCLAIM THE FAVORABLE YEAR OF THE LORD [the day when salvation and the favor of God abound greatly]. | Luke 4:18–19

But I say to you who hear [Me and pay attention to My words]: Love [that is, unselfishly seek the best or higher good for] your enemies, [make it a practice to] do good to those who hate you, bless and show kindness to those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. | Luke 6:27–28

For everyone who keeps on asking [persistently], receives; and he who keeps on seeking [persistently], finds; and to him who keeps on knocking [persistently], the door will be opened. | Luke 11:10

LUKE

1 SINCE [AS is well known] many have undertaken to compile an orderly account of the things which have been fulfilled among us [by God], ²exactly as they were handed down to us by those [with personal experience] who from the beginning [of Christ's ministry] were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word [that is, of the teaching concerning salvation through faith in Christ], ³it seemed fitting for me as well, [and so I have decided] after having carefully searched out and investigated all the events accurately, from the very beginning, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus; [Acts 1:1]

⁴so that you may know the exact truth about the things you have been taught [that is, the history and doctrine of the faith].

⁵In the days of Herod [the Great], king of Judea, there was a certain priest whose name was Zacharias, of the division of Abijah. His wife was^{*} a descendant of Aaron [the first high priest of Israel], and her name was Elizabeth.

⁶They both were righteous (approved) in the sight of God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and requirements of the Lord.

⁷But they were childless, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both far advanced in years.

⁸Now it happened while Zacharias was serving as priest before God in the appointed order of his priestly division,

⁹as was the custom of the priesthood, he was chosen by lot to enter [the sanctuary of] the temple of the Lord and burn incense [on the altar of incense]. [Ex 30:7]

¹⁰And all the congregation was praying outside [in the court of the temple] at the hour of the incense offering.

¹¹And an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing to the right of the altar of incense.

¹²When Zacharias saw the angel, he was troubled and overcome with fear.

¹³But the angel said to him, “Do not be afraid, Zacharias, because your petition [in prayer] was heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will name him John.

¹⁴“You will have great joy and delight, and many will rejoice over his birth,

¹⁵for he will be great and distinguished in the sight of the Lord; and will never drink wine or liquor, and he will be filled with and empowered to act by the Holy Spirit while still in his mother’s womb. [Num 6:3]

¹⁶“He will turn many of the sons of Israel back [from sin] to [love and serve] the Lord their God.

¹⁷“It is he who will go as a forerunner before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, TO TURN THE HEARTS OF THE FATHERS BACK TO THE CHILDREN, and the disobedient to the attitude of the righteous [which is to seek and submit to the will of God]—in order to make ready a people [perfectly] prepared [spiritually and morally] for the Lord.” [Is 40:3; Mal 4:5, 6]

¹⁸And Zacharias said to the angel, “How will I be certain of this? For I am an old man and my wife is advanced in age.”

¹⁹The angel replied and said to him, “I am Gabriel; I stand and minister in the [very] presence of God, and I have been sent [by Him] to speak to you and to bring you this good news. [Dan 8:16; 9:21]

²⁰“Listen carefully, you will be continually silent and unable to speak until the day when these things take place, because you did not believe what I told you; but my words will be fulfilled at their proper time.”

²¹The people [outside in the court] were waiting for Zacharias, and were wondering about his long delay in the temple.

²²But when he did come out, he was unable to speak to them. They realized that he had seen a vision in the temple; and he kept making signs to them, and remained mute.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Words To Match Your Prayers

When Zacharias did not believe the angel's message that he and his wife would have a son in their old age, God closed his mouth. This kept him from speaking negatively about God's promise (see Luke 1:20).

If we want our prayers to be answered, we can choose to reinforce them with positive beliefs and the confession of God's Word instead of praying and then undermining our prayers with negative thoughts and words. Let's say that a mother is praying for a son who is addicted to drugs and asks God for a breakthrough for him. But then she goes to lunch with two neighbors and says several times, "I am so afraid that my son will never change."

This kind of negative confession weakens prayer because it is not based on faith that God will hear and answer. When the neighbors ask how her son is doing, she could say, "You know what? I can't see that things have changed much, but I'm praying for him, and I have assurance in my heart that God is doing a mighty work in his life. I believe things are going to turn out well" (see Ps. 138:8; Phil. 1:6; Jer. 29:11).

When you pray, once you have laid hold of the answer through faith, make sure your confession is in agreement with what you've asked God to do. When people ask you questions that you could answer in a negative way, answer them instead with a positive confession of God's Word, one that agrees with the prayer you have prayed.

²³When his time of priestly service was finished, he returned to his home.

²⁴Now after this his wife Elizabeth became pregnant, and for five months she secluded herself completely, saying,

²⁵“This is how the Lord has dealt with me in the days when He looked with favor on me, to take away my disgrace among men.” [Gen 30:23; Is 4:1]

²⁶Now in the sixth month [of Elizabeth's pregnancy] the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city in Galilee called Nazareth, ²⁷to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, a descendant of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

²⁸And coming to her, the angel said, “Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you.”

²⁹But she was greatly perplexed at what he said, and kept carefully considering what kind of greeting this was.

³⁰The angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.

³¹“Listen carefully: you will conceive in your womb and give birth to a son, and you shall name Him Jesus.

³²“He will be great and eminent and will be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David; ³³and He will reign over the house of Jacob (Israel) forever, and of His kingdom there shall be no end.” [Is

³⁴Mary said to the angel, “How will this be, since I am a virgin and have no intimacy with any man?”

³⁵Then the angel replied to her, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you [like a cloud]; for that reason the holy (pure, sinless) Child shall be called the Son of God. [Ex 40:34; Is 7:14]

³⁶“And listen, even your relative Elizabeth has also conceived a son in her old age; and she who was called barren is now in her sixth month.

³⁷“For with God nothing [is or ever] shall be impossible.”

³⁸Then Mary said, “Behold, I am the servant of the Lord; may it be done to me according to your word.” And the angel left her.

³⁹Now at this time Mary arose and hurried to the hill country, to a city of Judah (Judea), ⁴⁰and she entered the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth.

⁴¹When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, her baby leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and empowered by Him.

⁴²And she exclaimed loudly, “Blessed [worthy to be praised] are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!

⁴³“And how has it happened to me, that the mother of my Lord would come to me?

⁴⁴“For behold, when the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy.

45“And blessed [spiritually fortunate and favored by God] is she who believed and confidently trusted that there would be a fulfillment of the things that were spoken to her [by the angel sent] from the Lord.”

46And Mary said,

“My soul magnifies and exalts the Lord,

47And my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior.

48“For He has looked [with loving care] on the humble state of His maidservant;

For behold, from now on all generations will count me blessed and happy and favored by God!

49“For He who is mighty has done great things for me;
And holy is His name [to be worshiped in His purity, majesty, and glory].

50“AND HIS MERCY IS UPON GENERATION AFTER GENERATION TOWARD THOSE WHO [stand in great awe of God and] FEAR HIM.

FROM GENERATION TO GENERATION. [Ps 103:17]

51“He has done mighty deeds with His [powerful] arm;
He has scattered those who were proud in the thoughts of their heart.

52“He has brought down rulers from their thrones,
And exalted those who were humble.

53“HE HAS FILLED THE HUNGRY WITH GOOD THINGS;
And sent the rich away empty-handed.

54“He has helped His servant Israel,
In remembrance of His mercy,

⁵⁵Just as He promised to our fathers,
To Abraham and to his descendants forever.” [Gen 17:7;
18:18; 22:17; 1 Sam 2:1–10; Mic 7:20]

⁵⁶And Mary stayed with Elizabeth for about three months, and then returned to her home.

⁵⁷Now the time had come for Elizabeth to give birth, and she gave birth to a son.

⁵⁸Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown His great mercy toward her, and they were rejoicing with her.

⁵⁹It happened that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child [as required by the Law], and they intended to name him Zacharias, after his father; [Gen 17:12;
Lev 12:3]

⁶⁰but his mother answered, “No indeed; instead he will be called John.”

⁶¹And they said to her, “None of your relatives is called by that name.”

⁶²Then they made signs to his father, as to what he wanted him called.

⁶³And he asked for a writing tablet and wrote as follows,
“His name is John.” And they were all astonished.

⁶⁴At once Zacharias’ mouth was opened and his tongue freed, and he began speaking, praising and blessing and thanking God.

⁶⁵Then fear came on all their neighbors; and all these things were discussed throughout the hill country of Judea.

⁶⁶All who heard these things kept them in mind, saying,

“What then will this little boy turn out to be?” For the hand of the Lord was certainly with him[to bring about his birth].

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, for raising up a horn of salvation, a mighty and valiant Savior for me.

• adapted from Luke 1:69

⁶⁷Now Zacharias his father was filled with the Holy Spirit and empowered by Him, and he prophesied, saying,

⁶⁸“Blessed (praised, glorified) be the Lord, the God of Israel, Because He has visited us and brought redemption to His people,

⁶⁹And He has raised up a horn of salvation [a mighty and valiant Savior] for us

In the house of David His servant—

⁷⁰Just as He promised by the mouth of His holy prophets from the most ancient times—

⁷¹Salvation FROM OUR ENEMIES,

And FROM THE HAND OF ALL WHO HATE US; [Ps 106:10]

⁷²To show mercy [as He promised] to our fathers,

And to remember His holy covenant [the promised blessing],

⁷³The oath which He swore to Abraham our father,

⁷⁴To grant us that we, being rescued from the hand of our enemies,

Might serve Him without fear,

⁷⁵In holiness [being set apart] and righteousness [being upright] before Him all our days.

⁷⁶“And you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High;

For you will go on BEFORE THE LORD (the Messiah) TO PREPARE HIS WAYS; [Is 40:3; Mal 4:5]

⁷⁷To give His people the knowledge of salvation

By the forgiveness of their sins,

⁷⁸Because of the tender mercy of our God,

With which the Sunrise (the Messiah) from on high will dawn and visit us, [Mal 4:2]

⁷⁹TO SHINE UPON THOSE WHO SIT IN DARKNESS AND IN THE SHADOW OF DEATH,

To guide our feet [in a straight line] into the way of peace and serenity.” [Is 9:2]

⁸⁰The child continued to grow and to become strong in spirit, and he lived in the deserts until the day of his public appearance to Israel [as John the Baptist, the forerunner of the Messiah].

2 NOW IN those days a decree went out from [the emperor] Caesar Augustus, that all the inhabited world (the Roman Empire) should be registered [in a census].

²This was the first census taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria.

³And everyone went to register for the census, each to his own city.

⁴So Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David,
⁵in order to register with Mary, who was betrothed to him, and was with child. [Matt 1:18–25]

⁶While they were there [in Bethlehem], the time came for her to give birth, ⁷and she gave birth to her Son, her firstborn; and she wrapped Him in [swaddling] cloths and laid Him in a manger, because there was no [private] room for them in the inn.

⁸In the same region there were shepherds staying out in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night.

⁹And an angel of the Lord suddenly stood before them, and the glory of the Lord flashed and shone around them, and they were terribly frightened.

¹⁰But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be for all the people.

¹¹“For this day in the city of David there has been born for you a Savior, who is Christ the Lord (the Messiah). [Mic 5:2]

¹²“And this will be a sign for you [by which you will recognize Him]: you will find a Baby wrapped in [swaddling] cloths and lying in a manger.” [1 Sam 2:34; 2 Kin 19:29; Is 7:14]

¹³Then suddenly there appeared with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host (angelic army) praising God and saying,

¹⁴“Glory to God in the highest [heaven],
And on earth peace among men with whom He is well-pleased.”

¹⁵When the angels had gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds began saying one to another, “Let us go straight to Bethlehem, and see this [wonderful] thing that has happened which the Lord has made known to us.”

¹⁶So they went in a hurry and found their way to Mary and Joseph, and the Baby as He lay in the manger.

¹⁷And when they had seen this, they made known what had been told them about this Child, ¹⁸and all who heard it were astounded and wondered at what the shepherds told them.

¹⁹But Mary treasured all these things, giving careful thought to them and pondering them in her heart.

²⁰The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all that they had heard and seen, just as it had been told them.

²¹At the end of eight days, when He was to be circumcised, He was named Jesus, the name given [to Him] by the angel [Gabriel] before He was conceived in the womb.

²²And when the time for their purification came [that is, the mother's purification and the baby's dedication] according to the Law of Moses, they brought Him up to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord [set apart as the Firstborn] [Lev 12:1–4]

²³(as it is written in the Law of the Lord, “EVERY firstborn MALE THAT OPENS THE WOMB SHALL BE CALLED HOLY [set apart and dedicated] TO THE LORD)” [Ex 13:1, 2, 12; Num 8:17]

POWERPOINT

God does not want us to reason and try to figure out everything in life. But He does want us to ponder the things He does in our lives, as Mary did (see Luke 2:19). We can tell when we have moved from pondering to reasoning by the confusion we experience. If we are confused, we are not pondering in our heart; we are reasoning in our mind.

²⁴and [they came also] to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the Law of the Lord [to be appropriate for a family of modest means], “A PAIR OF TURTLEDOVES OR TWO YOUNG PIGEONS.” [Lev 12:6–8]

²⁵Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; and this man was righteous and devout [carefully observing the divine Law], and looking for the Consolation of Israel; and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

²⁶It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed).

²⁷Prompted by the Spirit, he came into the temple [enclosure]; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for Him the custom required by the Law, ²⁸Simeon took Him into his arms, and blessed and praised and thanked God, and said,

²⁹"Now, Lord, You are releasing Your bond-servant to leave [this world] in peace,
According to Your word;

³⁰For my eyes have seen Your Salvation, [Is 52:10]

³¹Which You have prepared in the presence of all peoples,

³²A LIGHT FOR REVELATION TO THE GENTILES [to disclose what was previously unknown], And [to bring] the praise and honor and glory of Your people Israel." [Is 42:6; 49:6]

³³And His [legal] father and His mother were amazed at what was said about Him.

³⁴Simeon blessed them and said to Mary His mother, "Listen carefully: this Child is appointed and destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and for a sign that is to be opposed—[Is 8:14, 15]

³⁵and a sword [of deep sorrow] will pierce through your own soul—so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

³⁶There was a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old, and had lived with her husband for seven years after her marriage, [Josh 19:24]

³⁷and then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She did not leave the [area of the] temple, but was serving and worshiping night and day with fastings and prayers.

³⁸She, too, came up at that very moment and began praising and giving thanks to God, and continued to speak of Him to all who were looking for the redemption and deliverance of Jerusalem.

³⁹And when they had done everything [in connection with Jesus' birth] according to the Law of the Lord, they went back to Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth.

⁴⁰And the Child continued to grow and become strong [in spirit], filled with wisdom; and the grace (favor, spiritual blessing) of God was upon Him. [Judg 13:24]

⁴¹Now His parents went to Jerusalem every year for the Passover Feast. [Deut 16:1-8; Ex 23:15]

⁴²And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem, according to the custom of the Feast;

⁴³and as they were returning [to Nazareth], after spending the required number of days [at the Feast], the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem. Now His parents did not know this, ⁴⁴but supposed Him to be in the caravan, and traveled a day's journey; and [then] they began searching [anxiously] for Him among their relatives and acquaintances.

⁴⁵When they did not find Him, they went back to Jerusalem looking for Him [everywhere].

⁴⁶Three days later they found Him in the [court of the] temple, sitting among the teachers, both listening to them and asking them questions.

⁴⁷All who heard Him were amazed by His intelligence and His understanding and His answers.

⁴⁸When they saw Him, they were overwhelmed; and His mother said to Him, “Son, why have You treated us like this? Listen, Your father and I have been [greatly distressed and] anxiously looking for You.”

⁴⁹And He answered, “Why did you have to look for Me? Did you not know that I had to be in My Father’s house?”

⁵⁰But they did not understand what He had said to them.

⁵¹He went down to Nazareth with them, and was continually submissive and obedient to them; and His mother treasured all these things in her heart.

⁵²And Jesus kept increasing in wisdom and in stature, and in favor with God and men. [1 Sam 2:26]

3 NOW IN the fifteenth year of [Emperor] Tiberius Caesar’s reign—when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod [Antipas] was tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip was tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene—²in the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas [his son-in-law], the word of God came to John, the son of Zacharias, in the wilderness.

³And he went into all the country around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sin;

⁴as it is written and forever remains written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

“THE VOICE OF ONE SHOUTING IN THE WILDERNESS,

‘PREPARE THE WAY OF THE LORD,
MAKE HIS PATHS STRAIGHT.

⁵‘EVERY RAVINE SHALL BE FILLED UP,
AND EVERY MOUNTAIN AND HILL SHALL BE LEVELED;
AND THE CROOKED [places] SHALL BE MADE STRAIGHT, AND THE ROUGH ROADS SMOOTH;

⁶AND ALL MANKIND SHALL SEE THE SALVATION OF GOD.’” [Is 40:3–5]

⁷So he began saying to the crowds who were coming out to be baptized by him, “You brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath [of God that is] to come?

⁸“Therefore produce fruit that is worthy of [and consistent with your] repentance [that is, live changed lives, turn from sin and seek God and His righteousness]. And do not even begin to say to yourselves [as a defense], ‘We have Abraham for our father [and so our heritage assures us of salvation]’; for I say to you that from these stones God is able to raise up children (descendants) for Abraham [for God can replace the unrepentant, regardless of their heritage, with those who are obedient]. [Matt 3:9]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, I pray that You will help me to produce fruit that is worthy of and consistent with my repentance. And I pray that because of You, I will live a changed life, turning from sin and seeking You and Your righteousness.

• adapted from Luke 3:8

⁹“Even now the axe [of God’s judgment] is swinging toward the root of the trees; so every tree that does not produce good fruit is being cut down and thrown into the fire.”

¹⁰The crowds asked him, “Then what are we to do?”

¹¹And John replied, “The man who has two tunics is to share with him who has none; and he who has food is to do the same.”

¹²Even some tax collectors came to be baptized, and they asked, “Teacher, what are we to do?”

¹³And he told them, “Collect no more than the fixed amount you have been ordered to [collect].”

¹⁴*Some* soldiers asked him, “And what about us, what are we to do?” And he replied to them, “Do not extort money from anyone or harass or blackmail anyone, and be satisfied with your wages.”

¹⁵Now the people were in a state of expectation, and all were wondering in their hearts about John, as to whether he was the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed).

¹⁶John answered them all by saying, “As for me, I baptize you [only] with water; but One who is mightier [more powerful, more noble] than I is coming, and I am not fit to untie the strap of His sandals [even as His slave]. He will baptize you [who truly repent] with the Holy Spirit and [you who remain unrepentant] with fire. [Matt 3:11]

¹⁷“His winnowing fork is in His hand to thoroughly clear His threshing floor, and to gather the wheat (believers) into His barn (kingdom); but He will burn up the chaff (the unrepentant) with unquenchable fire.”

¹⁸So with many other appeals and various admonitions John preached the good news (gospel) to the people.

¹⁹But when Herod [Antipas] the tetrarch was repeatedly reprimanded [and convicted by John’s disapproval] for having Herodias, his brother’s wife [as his own], and for all the wicked things that Herod had done, [Matt 14:3; Mark 6:17]

²⁰he also added this to them all: he locked up John in prison.

²¹Now when all the people were baptized, Jesus was also baptized, and while He was praying, the [visible] heaven was opened, [Matt 3:13–17; Mark 1:9–11; John 1:32]

²²and the Holy Spirit descended on Him in bodily form like a dove, and a voice came from heaven, “You are My Son, My Beloved, in You I am well-pleased and delighted!” [Ps 2:7; Is 42:1]

²³When He began His ministry, Jesus Himself was about thirty years of age, being, as was supposed, the son of Joseph, the son [by marriage] of Eli, ²⁴the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph,

²⁵the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Hesli, the son of Naggai, ²⁶the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda, ²⁷the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, ²⁸the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er, ²⁹the son of Joshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, ³⁰the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim, ³¹the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David,

³²the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon, ³³the son of Amminadab, the son of Admin, the son of Ram, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah, ³⁴the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor, ³⁵the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Heber, the son of Shelah, ³⁶the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, ³⁷the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalaleel, the son of Cainan,

³⁸the son of Enosh, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God. [Gen 5:3–32; 11:10–26; Ruth 4:18–22; 1 Chr 1:1–4, 24–28; 2:1–15]

4 NOW JESUS, full of [and in perfect communication with] the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness [Matt 4:1–11]

²for forty days, being tempted by the devil. And He ate nothing during those days, and when they ended, He was hungry. [Deut 9:9; 1 Kin 19:8]

³Then the devil said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, command this stone to turn into bread.”

⁴Jesus replied to him, “It is written and forever remains written, ‘MAN SHALL NOT LIVE BY BREAD ALONE.’” [Deut 8:3]

⁵Then he led Jesus up [to a high mountain] and displayed before Him all the kingdoms of the inhabited earth [and their magnificence] in the twinkling of an eye.

⁶And the devil said to Him, “I will give You all this realm and its glory [its power, its renown]; because it has been handed over to me, and I give it to whomever I wish.

⁷“Therefore if You worship before me, it will all be Yours.”

⁸Jesus replied to him, “It is written and forever remains written, ‘YOU SHALL WORSHIP THE LORD YOUR GOD AND SERVE ONLY HIM.’” [Deut 6:13; 10:20]

⁹Then he led Jesus to Jerusalem and had Him stand on the pinnacle (highest point) of the temple, and said [mockingly] to Him, “If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down from here; ¹⁰for it is written and forever remains written,

‘HE WILL COMMAND HIS ANGELS CONCERNING YOU TO GUARD and PROTECT YOU,’

¹¹and,

‘THEY WILL LIFT YOU UP ON their HANDS,

SO THAT YOU DO NOT STRIKE YOUR FOOT AGAINST A STONE.’”

[Ps 91:11, 12]

¹²Jesus replied to him, “It is said [in Scripture], ‘YOU SHALL NOT TEMPT THE LORD YOUR GOD [to prove Himself to you].’” [Deut 6:16; Matt 4:7]

¹³When the devil had finished every temptation, he [temporarily] left Him until a more opportune time.

¹⁴Then Jesus went back to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and the news about Him spread through the entire region.

¹⁵And He began teaching in their synagogues and was praised and glorified and honored by all.

¹⁶So He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up; and as was His custom, He entered the synagogue on the Sabbath, and stood up to read.

¹⁷The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to Him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written, [Is 61:1, 2]

¹⁸“THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD IS UPON ME (the Messiah), BECAUSE HE HAS ANOINTED ME TO PREACH THE GOOD NEWS TO THE POOR.

HE HAS SENT ME TO ANNOUNCE RELEASE (pardon, forgiveness) TO THE CAPTIVES, AND RECOVERY OF SIGHT TO THE BLIND,

TO SET FREE THOSE WHO ARE OPPRESSED (downtrodden, bruised, crushed by tragedy),

¹⁹TO PROCLAIM THE FAVORABLE YEAR OF THE LORD [the day when salvation and the favor of God abound greatly].” [Is 61:1, 2]

²⁰Then He rolled up the scroll [having stopped in the middle of the verse], gave it back to the attendant and sat down [to teach]; and the eyes of all those in the synagogue were [attentively] fixed on Him.

²¹He began speaking to them: “Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing and in your presence.”

²²And [as He continued on] they all were speaking well of Him, and were in awe and were wondering about the words of grace which were coming from His lips; and they were saying,
“Is this not Joseph’s son?”

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Jesus Sets People Free

I have heard many sad stories of abuse and pain. I understand because I've been there. Some people who tell me their stories also think negatively as I did at one time and use their background as an excuse for not growing spiritually, for living in defeat, and for allowing the enemy to influence their thoughts.

No matter what has happened in a person's past, God can bring anyone into a great future if he or she will learn His Word and live according to it. I know this is true because I have experienced His healing and blessing in my own life. God's promises of healing and blessing are for anyone who will believe them and live by them.

In Jesus' first public appearance recorded in Luke 4, after His temptation in the wilderness (see vv. 1-13), He went to the synagogue in His hometown of Nazareth and read from the scroll of Isaiah. "THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD IS UPON ME (THE MESSIAH), BECAUSE HE HAS ANOINTED ME TO PREACH THE GOOD NEWS TO THE POOR. HE HAS SENT ME TO ANNOUNCE RELEASE (PARDON, FORGIVENESS) TO THE CAPTIVES” (v. 18).

God anointed Jesus to bring the good news and to set the captives free, and it's important to receive the freedom He has provided for us. A battle takes place in our mind when we choose freedom instead of remaining in bondage. The devil puts thoughts in our mind, thoughts that disagree with God's promises of healing, but we can choose to cast down those thoughts and imaginations and believe God's Word.

We will choose to listen to one voice or another, and our deliverance depends on that choice. If we listen to Jesus and believe Him, deliverance is not only possible, but it will become a reality in our life. Jesus came to open prison doors and set the captives free. You and I can be set completely free as we choose to trust God and obey Him.

Though you may have had a terrible, sad, and abusive past, as I did, you can choose today to rejoice because you have a wonderful future ahead of you.

APRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord Jesus, You have been anointed to set me free. Forgive me for listening to Satan's voice, which makes me feel I'm beyond help. I ask You to set me free from everything that holds me back from fully and totally serving You. Amen.

²³So He said to them, “You will no doubt quote this proverb to Me, ‘Physician, heal Yourself! Whatever [miracles] that we heard were done [by You] in Capernaum, do here in Your hometown as well.’”

²⁴Then He said, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, no prophet is welcome in his hometown.

²⁵“But in truth I say to you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was closed up for three years and six months, when a great famine came over all the land; ²⁶and yet Elijah was not sent [by the Lord] to a single one of them, but only to Zarephath in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. [1 Kin 17:1, 8–16; 18:1]

²⁷“And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and not one of them was cleansed [by being healed] except Naaman the Syrian.” [2 Kin 5:1–14]

²⁸As they heard these things [about God’s grace to these two Gentiles], the people in the synagogue were filled with a great rage;

²⁹and they got up and drove Him out of the city, and led Him to the crest of the hill on which their city had been built, in order to hurl Him down the cliff.

³⁰But passing [miraculously] through the crowd, He went on His way.

³¹Then He came down [from the hills of Nazareth] to Capernaum, a city of Galilee [on the shore of the sea], and He was teaching them on the Sabbath; [Mark 1:21–28]

³²and they were surprised [almost overwhelmed] at His teaching, because His message was [given] with authority and power and great ability.

³³There was a man in the synagogue who was possessed by the spirit of an unclean demon; and he cried out with a loud and terrible voice,

³⁴“Let us alone! What business do we have [in common] with each other, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!”

³⁵But Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent (muzzled, gagged) and come out of him!” And when the demon had thrown the man down among them, he came out of him without injuring him in any way.

³⁶They were all astonished and in awe, and began saying to one another, “What is this message? For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits and they come out!”

³⁷And the news about Him spread into every place in the surrounding district (Galilee).

³⁸Then Jesus got up and left the synagogue and went to Simon’s (Peter’s) house. Now Simon’s mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they asked Him to help her. [Matt 8:14–17; Mark 1:29–34]

³⁹Standing over her, He rebuked the fever, and it left her; and immediately she got up and began serving them [as her guests].

⁴⁰While the sun was setting [marking the end of the Sabbath day], all those who had any who were sick with various diseases brought them to Jesus; and laying His hands on each one of them, He was healing them [exhibiting His authority as Messiah]. [Matt 8:16, 17; Mark 1:32–34]

⁴¹Demons also were coming out of many people, shouting, “You are the Son of God!” But He rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew that He was the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed).

⁴²When daybreak came, Jesus left [Simon Peter’s house] and went to a secluded place; and the crowds were searching for Him, and [they] came to Him and tried to keep Him from leaving them.

⁴³But He said, “I must preach [the good news of] the kingdom of God to the other cities also, because I was sent for this purpose.”

⁴⁴So He continued preaching in the synagogues of Judea [the country of the Jews, including Galilee].

5 NOW IT happened that while Jesus was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret (Sea of Galilee), with the people crowding all around Him and listening to the word of God; ²that He saw two boats lying at the edge of the lake, but the fishermen had gotten out of them and were washing their nets.

³He got into one of the boats, which was Simon’s, and asked him to put out a little distance from the shore. And He sat down and began teaching the crowds from the boat.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

“Nevertheless”

In Luke 5:4, after a long night of not catching any fish, Jesus tells Peter to launch out into the deep water and lower the nets one more time. Based upon Peter's experience as a professional fisherman, what Jesus told him to do probably didn't make any sense, and I doubt that he felt like doing it. However, Peter did what the Lord said and received what was probably the biggest catch of his fishing career.

Peter reasoned with Jesus, reminding Him that they had worked all night and caught nothing. But to his credit, although he was exhausted, Peter chose to obey Jesus and said, “But at Your word I will [do as you say and] lower the nets [again]” (v. 5). And they caught so many fish that the nets almost broke.

An important principle of obedience that we need to grasp is to obey instead of reasoning. One of my friends calls it, “The Nevertheless Principle.” When she feels God leading her to do things that don't always make a lot of sense, she quickly interjects, “Nevertheless.” Then she obeys.

Being led by your thoughts, feelings, and emotions won't bring in a big catch or lead to success. But you can do what God says, when He says it, whether or not it makes any sense to you—and the blessings of obedience will amaze you. All that God really asks is that we obey instead of reasoning.

⁴When He had finished speaking, He said to Simon [Peter], “Put out into the deep water and lower your nets for a catch [of fish].”

⁵Simon replied, “Master, we worked hard all night [to the point of exhaustion] and caught nothing [in our nets], but at Your word I will [do as you say and] lower the nets [again].”

⁶When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their nets were [at the point of] breaking;

⁷so they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both of the boats [with fish], so that they began to sink.

⁸But when Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Go away from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord!”

⁹For he and all his companions were completely astounded at the catch of fish which they had taken;

¹⁰and so were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon [Peter]. Jesus said to Simon, “Have no fear; from now on you will be catching men!”

¹¹After they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed Him [becoming His disciples, believing and trusting in Him and following His example].

¹²While Jesus was in one of the cities, there came a man covered with [an advanced case of] leprosy; and when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face and begged Him, saying, “Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean and well.” [Matt 8:2–4; Mark 1:40–44]

¹³And Jesus reached out His hand and touched him, saying, “I am willing; be cleansed.” And immediately the

¹⁴Jesus ordered him to tell no one [that he might happen to meet], “But go and show yourself to the priest, and make an offering for your purification, just as Moses commanded, as a testimony (witness) to them [that this is a work of Messiah].” [Lev 13:49; 14:2–32]

¹⁵But the news about Him was spreading farther, and large crowds kept gathering to hear Him and to be healed of their illnesses.

¹⁶But Jesus Himself would often slip away to the wilderness and pray [in seclusion].

¹⁷One day as He was teaching, there were Pharisees and teachers of the Law sitting there who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was present with Him to heal.

¹⁸*Some* men came carrying on a stretcher a man who was paralyzed, and they tried to bring him in and lay him down in front of Jesus. [Matt 9:2–8; Mark 2:3–12]

¹⁹But finding no way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof [and removed some tiles to make an opening] and lowered him through the tiles with his stretcher, into the middle of the crowd, in front of Jesus.

²⁰When Jesus saw their [active] faith [springing from confidence in Him], He said, “Man, your sins are forgiven.”

²¹The scribes and the Pharisees began to consider and question [the implications of what He had said], saying, “Who is this man who speaks blasphemies [by claiming the rights and prerogatives of God]? Who can forgive sins [that is, remove guilt, nullify sin’s penalty, and assign righteousness] except God alone?”

²²But Jesus, knowing their [hostile] thoughts, answered them, “Why are you questioning [these things] in your hearts?

²³“Which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven you,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’?

²⁴“But, in order that you may know that the Son of Man (the Messiah) has authority and power on earth to forgive sins”—He said to the paralyzed man, “I say to you, get up, pick up your stretcher and go home.”

²⁵He immediately stood up before them, picked up his stretcher, and went home glorifying and praising God.

²⁶They were all astonished, and they began glorifying God; and they were filled with [reverential] fear and kept saying, “We have seen wonderful and incredible things today!”

²⁷After this Jesus went out and noticed a tax collector named Levi (Matthew) sitting at the tax booth; and He said to him, “Follow Me [as My disciple, accepting Me as your Master and Teacher and walking the same path of life that I walk].” [Matt 9:9–17; Mark 2:14–22]

²⁸And he left everything behind and got up and began to follow Jesus [as His disciple].

²⁹Levi (Matthew) gave a great banquet for Him at his house; and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining at the table with them.

³⁰The Pharisees and their scribes [seeing those with whom He was associating] began murmuring in discontent to His disciples, asking, “Why are you eating and drinking with the tax collectors and sinners [including non-observant Jews]?”

³¹And Jesus replied to them, “It is not those who are healthy who need a physician, but [only] those who are sick.

³²“I did not come to call the [self-proclaimed] righteous [who see no need to repent], but sinners to repentance [to change their old way of thinking, to turn from sin and to seek God and His righteousness].”

³³Then they said to Him, “The disciples of John [the Baptist] often practice fasting and offer prayers [of special petition], and so do the disciples of the Pharisees; but Yours eat and drink.”

³⁴Jesus said to them, “Can you make the wedding guests of the bridegroom fast while he is with them?

³⁵“But days [for mourning] will come when the bridegroom is [forcefully] taken away from them. They will fast in those days.”

³⁶He also told them a parable: “No one tears a piece of cloth from a new garment and puts it on an old one; otherwise he will both tear the new, and the piece from the new will not match the old.

³⁷“And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; otherwise the new [fermenting] wine will [expand and] burst the skins and it will be spilled out, and the skins will be ruined.

³⁸“But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins.

³⁹“And no one, after drinking old wine, wishes for new; for he says, ‘The old is fine.’”

6 ONE SABBATH while Jesus was passing through fields of standing grain, it happened that His disciples were picking the heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands, and eating them. [Deut 23:25; Matt 12:1–8; Mark 2:23–28]

²But some of the Pharisees said, “Why are you doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?” [Ex 20:10; 23:12; Deut 5:14]

³Jesus replied to them, “Have you not even read [in the Scriptures] what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him—[1 Sam 21:1–6]

⁴how he went into the house of God, and took and ate the ~~—~~consecrated bread, which is not lawful [for anyone] to eat except the priests alone, and [how he also] gave it to the men who were with him?” [Lev 24:9]

⁵Jesus was saying to them, “The Son of Man (the Messiah) is Lord [even] of the Sabbath.”

⁶On another Sabbath He went into the synagogue and taught, and a man was present whose right hand was withered. [Matt 12:9–14; Mark 3:1–6]

⁷The scribes and the Pharisees were watching Him closely [with malicious intent], to see if He would [actually] heal [someone] on the Sabbath, so that they might find a reason to accuse Him.

⁸But He was aware of their thoughts, and He said to the man with the withered hand, “Get up and come forward.” So he got up and stood there.

⁹Then Jesus said to them, “I ask you directly: Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath or to do evil, to save a life or to destroy it?”

¹⁰After looking around at them all, He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand!” And he did, and his hand was [fully] restored.

¹¹But the scribes and Pharisees were filled with senseless rage [and lacked spiritual insight], and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

¹²Now at this time Jesus went off to the mountain to pray, and He spent the whole night in prayer to God.

¹³When day came, He called His disciples and selected twelve of them, whom He also named apostles (special messengers, personally chosen representatives): [Matt 10:2–4; Mark 3:16–19]

¹⁴Simon, whom He also named Peter, and his brother Andrew; and [the brothers] James and John; and Philip, and Bartholomew [also called Nathanael];

¹⁵and Matthew (Levi, the tax collector) and Thomas; and James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon who was called the Zealot; ¹⁶Judas [also called Thaddaeus] the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor [to the Lord].

¹⁷Then Jesus came down with them and stood on a level place; and there was a large crowd of His disciples, and a vast multitude of people from all over Judea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon, ¹⁸who had come to listen to Him and to be healed of their diseases. Even those who were troubled by unclean spirits (demons) were being healed.

¹⁹All the people were trying to touch Him, because [healing] power was coming from Him and healing them all.

²⁰And looking toward His disciples, He began speaking: “Blessed [spiritually prosperous, happy, to be admired] are you who are poor [in spirit, those devoid of spiritual arrogance, those who regard themselves as insignificant], for the kingdom of God is yours [both now and forever]. [Matt 5:3–12]

²¹“Blessed [joyful, nourished by God’s goodness] are you who hunger now [for righteousness, actively seeking right standing with God], for you will be [completely] satisfied. Blessed [forgiven, refreshed by God’s grace] are you who weep now [over your sins and repent], for you will laugh [when the burden of sin is lifted].

²²“Blessed [morally courageous and spiritually alive with life-joy in God’s goodness] are you when people hate you, and exclude you [from their fellowship], and insult you, and scorn your name as evil because of [your association with] the Son of Man.

²⁵“Woe to you who are well-fed (gorged, satiated) now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now [enjoying a life of self-indulgence], for you will mourn and weep [and deeply long for God].

²⁶“Woe to you when all the people speak well of you and praise you, for their fathers used to treat the false prophets in the same way.

²⁷“But I say to you who hear [Me and pay attention to My words]: Love [that is, unselfishly seek the best or higher good for] your enemies, [make it a practice to] do good to those who hate you, ²⁸ *ble*ss and show kindness to those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you.

²⁹“Whoever strikes you on the cheek, offer him the other one also [simply ignore insignificant insults or losses and do not bother to retaliate—maintain your dignity]. Whoever takes away your coat, do not withhold your shirt from him either. [Matt 5:39–42] ³⁰“Give to everyone who asks of you. Whoever takes away what is yours, do not demand it back.

³¹“Treat others the same way you want them to treat you.

³²“If you [only] love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.

³³“If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.

³⁴“If you lend [money] to those from whom you expect to receive [it back], what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners expecting to receive back the same amount.

³⁵“But love [that is, unselfishly seek the best or higher good for] your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return; for your reward will be great (rich, abundant), and you will be sons of the Most High; because He Himself is kind and gracious and good to the ungrateful and the wicked.

³⁶“Be merciful (responsive, compassionate, tender) just as your [heavenly] Father is merciful.

³⁷“Do not judge [others self-righteously], and you will not be judged; do not condemn [others when you are guilty and unrepentant], and you will not be condemned [for your hypocrisy]; pardon [others when they truly repent and change], and you will be pardoned [when you truly repent and change]. [Matt 7:1–5]

³⁸“Give, and it will be given to you. They will pour into your lap a good measure—pressed down, shaken together, and running over [with no space left for more]. For with the standard of measurement you use [when you do good to others], it will be measured to you in return.”

POWERPOINT

Loving people unconditionally is the greatest gift we can give to them (and ourselves). I have learned that one of the secrets to my own personal peace is to let people be who God made them to be rather than try to make people be who I would like them to be. I do my best to enjoy their strengths and to be merciful toward their weaknesses because I have plenty of my own. Jesus said, “Be merciful (responsive, compassionate, tender) just as your [heavenly] Father is merciful” (Luke 6:36). Make a decision not to look at—or for—flaws in others. We all have them, but we don’t have to focus on them.

³⁹He also told them a parable: “Can a blind man guide [another] blind man? Will they not both fall into a hole in the ground?

⁴⁰“A student is not superior to his teacher; but everyone, after he has been completely trained, will be like his teacher.

⁴¹“Why do you look at the speck that is in your brother’s eye, but do not notice or consider the log that is in your own eye?

⁴²“How can you say to your brother, ‘Brother, allow me to take out the speck that is in your eye,’ when you yourself do not see the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite (play actor, pretender), first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that is in your brother’s eye.

⁴³“For there is no good tree which produces bad fruit, nor, on the other hand, a bad tree which produces good fruit. [Matt 7:16, 18]

⁴⁴“For each tree is known and identified by its own fruit. For figs are not picked from thorn bushes, nor is a cluster of grapes picked from a briar bush.

⁴⁵“The [intrinsically] good man produces what is good and honorable and moral out of the good treasure [stored] in his heart; and the [intrinsically] evil man produces what is wicked and depraved out of the evil [in his heart]; for his mouth speaks from the overflow of his heart.

⁴⁷“Everyone who comes to Me and listens to My words and obeys them, I will show you whom he is like: [Matt 7:24–

⁴⁸he is like a [far-sighted, practical, and sensible] man building a house, who dug deep and laid a foundation on the rock; and when a flood occurred, the torrent burst against that house and yet could not shake it, because it had been securely built and founded on the rock.

⁴⁹“But the one who has [merely] heard and has not practiced [what I say], is like a [foolish] man who built a house on the ground without any foundation, and the torrent burst against it; and it immediately collapsed, and the ruin of that house was great.”

7 AFTER HE had finished all that He had to say in the hearing of the people, He went to Capernaum. [Matt 8:5–13]

²Now a [Roman] centurion’s slave, who was highly regarded by him, was sick and on the verge of death.

³When the centurion heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to Him, asking Him to come and save the life of his slave.

⁴When they reached Jesus, they pleaded with Him earnestly [to come], saying, “He is worthy for You to do this for him, ⁵because he loves our nation and he built us our synagogue [at his own expense].”

⁶And Jesus went with them. But when He was near the house, the centurion sent friends to Him, saying, “Lord, do not trouble Yourself further, for I am not worthy for You to come under my roof.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Generosity Leads to Blessings

While we can never out-give God, one key to living a victorious life is to learn to be generous. The more generous you become as God leads you to give and share with others, the more you will be blessed. If you are a generous person, you will not end up with less; you will actually prosper in all you do.

Generosity is not only giving of ourselves and our resources. It also involves our attitude toward others. Generous-spirited people will be patient with the weaknesses of others, quick to forgive, and slow to become angry. They always believe the best about others. They listen when others are hurting and attempt to provide comfort—or just show concern. They are also encouragers of others, building up and edifying people. They celebrate what others do well and often don't even mention what they do wrong.

God expects us to give away what He gives us. This is a spiritual law and is the way to keep a steady flow of whatever we need coming into our lives. God first gives to us, and Jesus says we are to give and it will be given to us in overflowing abundance (see Luke 6:38).

In whatever ways you express generosity, I encourage you to do so every time you have a chance.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Receive God's Love, Produce Good Fruit

When you become a student of God's Word, you begin to desire a change in your behavior. But so often, as soon as you deal with one bad behavior, another immediately pops up to replace it. Why? Because bad fruit comes from a bad root (see Luke 6:45). For example, as long as we feel bad about ourselves, we will produce bad fruit of some kind. It might be anger, insecurity, fear, or indecision, and it will show up in our behavior if we do not deal with the root of the problem. No matter how good things look outwardly, if our heart is not right, sooner or later what is not right on the inside will reveal itself on the outside.

Receive God's unconditional love, learn to love and value yourself, live by God's Word, and you will begin to produce better fruit in your life.

⁷“Therefore I did not even consider myself worthy to come to You. But just speak a word, and my slave will be healed.

⁸“For I also am a man subject to authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to this one, ‘Go,’ and he goes, and to another, ‘Come,’ and he comes, and to my slave, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”

⁹Now when Jesus heard this, He was amazed at him, and turned and said to the crowd that was following Him, “I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith [as this man's].”

¹⁰When the messengers who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave in good health.

¹¹Soon afterward Jesus went to a city called Nain [near Nazareth], and His disciples and a large crowd accompanied Him.

¹²Now as He approached the city gate, a dead man was being carried out—the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the city was with her [in the funeral procession].

¹³When the Lord saw her, He felt [great] compassion for her, and said to her, “Do not weep.”

¹⁴And He came up and touched the bier [on which the body rested], and the pallbearers stood still. And He said, “Young man, I say to you, arise [from death]!”

¹⁵The man who was dead sat up and began to speak. And Jesus gave him back to his mother.

¹⁶Fear and profound awe gripped them all, and they began glorifying and honoring and praising God, saying, “A great prophet has arisen among us!” and, “God has visited His people [to help and care for and provide for them]!”

¹⁷This news about Him spread through all of Judea and in all the surrounding countryside. [1 Kin 17:17–24; 2 Kin 4:32–37]

¹⁸John’s disciples brought word to him [in prison] of all these things. [Matt 11:2–19]

¹⁹John called two of his disciples and sent them to the Lord, saying, “Are You the Expected One (the Messiah), or should we look for someone else?”

²⁰So the men came to Jesus and said, “John the Baptist sent us to You to ask, ‘Are You the Expected One (the Messiah), or should we look for someone else?’”

²¹At that very hour Jesus healed many people of sicknesses and infirmities and evil spirits; and He gave [the gracious gift of] sight to many who were blind.

²²So He replied to them, “Go and tell John about everything you have seen and heard: the BLIND RECEIVE SIGHT, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the POOR HAVE THE GOOD NEWS (gospel) PREACHED TO THEM. [Is 29:18, 19; 35:5, 6; 61:1]

²³“Blessed [joyful, spiritually favored] is he who does not take offense at Me.”

²⁴When John’s messengers left, Jesus began speaking to the crowds about John: “What did you go out to the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

²⁵“But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing [entirely unsuited for the harsh wilderness]? Those who wear splendid clothing and live in luxury are in royal palaces!

²⁶“But what did you [really] go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and one far more [eminent and remarkable] than a prophet [who foretells the future].

²⁷“This is the one of whom it is written [by the prophet Malachi],

‘BEHOLD, I SEND MY MESSENGER AHEAD OF YOU, WHO WILL PREPARE YOUR WAY BEFORE YOU.’ [Mal 3:1]

²⁸“I tell you, among those born of women there is no one greater than John; yet he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater [in privilege] than he.”

²⁹All the people and the tax collectors who heard Jesus, acknowledged [the validity of] God’s justice, having been baptized with the baptism of John.

³⁰But the Pharisees and the lawyers [who were experts in the Mosaic Law] annulled and set aside God’s purpose for themselves, not having been baptized by John.

³¹“To what then shall I compare the people of this generation [who set aside God’s plan], and what are they like?

³²“They are like children sitting in the market place and calling to one another, and saying, ‘We played the flute for you [pretending to be at a wedding], and you did not dance; we sang a dirge [pretending to be at a funeral], and you did not weep [so nothing we did appealed to you].’

³³“For John the Baptist has come neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, ‘He has a demon!’

Speak God's Word

*I will always seek to be wise.
Wisdom is shown to be right by her children—by the lifestyle, moral character, and good deeds of her followers.*

| adapted from LUKE 7:35 |

³⁴“The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, ‘Look, a man who is a glutton and a [heavy] wine-drinker, a friend of tax collectors and sinners [including non-observant Jews].’

³⁵“Yet wisdom is vindicated and shown to be right by all her children [by the lifestyle, moral character, and good deeds of her followers].”

³⁶One of the Pharisees asked Jesus to eat with him, and He went into the Pharisee’s house [in the region of Galilee] and reclined at the table.

³⁷Now there was a woman in the city who was [known as] a sinner; and when she found out that He was reclining at the table in the Pharisee’s house, she brought an alabaster vial of perfume; ³⁸and standing behind Him at His feet, weeping, she began wetting His feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head, and [respectfully] kissed His feet [as an act signifying both affection and submission] and anointed them with the perfume.

³⁹Now when [Simon] the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he said to himself, “If this Man were a prophet He would know who and what sort of woman this is who is touching Him, that she is a [notorious] sinner [an outcast, devoted to sin].”

⁴⁰Jesus, answering, said to the Pharisee, “Simon, I have something to say to you.” And he replied, “Teacher, say it.”

⁴¹“A certain moneylender had two debtors: one owed him five hundred denarii, and the other fifty.

⁴²“When they had no means of repaying [the debts], he freely forgave them both. So which of them will love him more?”

⁴³Simon answered, “The one, I take it, for whom he forgave more.” Jesus said to him, “You have decided correctly.”

⁴⁴Then turning toward the woman, He said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I came into your house [but you failed to extend to Me the usual courtesies shown to a guest]; you gave Me no water for My feet, but she has wet My feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair [demonstrating her love].

⁴⁵“You gave Me no [welcoming] kiss, but from the moment I came in, she has not ceased to kiss My feet.

⁴⁶“You did not [even] anoint My head with [ordinary] oil, but she has anointed My feet with [costly and rare] perfume.

⁴⁷“Therefore I say to you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much; but he who is forgiven little, loves little.”

⁴⁸Then He said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”

⁴⁹Those who were reclining at the table with Him began saying among themselves, “Who is this who even forgives sins?”

⁵⁰Jesus said to the woman, “Your faith [in Me] has saved you; go in peace [free from the distress experienced because of sin].”

8 SOON AFTERWARD, Jesus began going around from one city and village to another, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. The twelve [disciples] were with Him, ²and also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and diseases: Mary, called Magdalene [from the city of Magdala in Galilee], from whom seven demons had come out, ³and Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod’s household steward, and Susanna, and many others who were contributing to their support out of their private means [as was the custom for a rabbi’s disciples].

⁴When a large crowd was gathering together, and people from city after city were coming to Him, He spoke [to them] using a parable: [Matt 13:2–9; Mark 4:1–9]

⁶“And some seed fell on [shallow soil covering] the rocks, and as soon as it sprouted, it withered away, because it had no moisture.

⁷“Other seed fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up with it and choked it out.

⁸“And some fell into good soil, and grew up and produced a crop a hundred times as great.” As He said these things, He called out, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear and heed My words.”

⁹Now His disciples began asking Him what this parable meant.

¹⁰And He said, “To you [who have been chosen] it has been granted to know and recognize the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest it is in parables, so that though SEEING THEY MAY NOT SEE, AND HEARING THEY MAY NOT UNDERSTAND. [Is 6:9, 10; Jer 5:21; Ezek 12:2]

¹¹“Now [the meaning of] the parable is this: The seed is the word of God [concerning eternal salvation].

¹²“Those beside the road are the people who have heard; then the devil comes and takes the message [of God] away from their hearts, so that they will not believe [in Me as the Messiah] and be saved.

¹⁴“The seed which fell among the thorns, these are the ones who have heard, but as they go on their way they are suffocated with the anxieties and riches and pleasures of this life, and they bring no fruit to maturity.

¹⁵“But as for that seed in the good soil, these are the ones who have heard the word with a good and noble heart, and hold on to it tightly, and bear fruit with patience.

¹⁶“Now no one lights a lamp and then covers it with a container [to hide it], or puts it under a bed; instead, he puts it on a lampstand, so that those who come in may see the light. [Matt 5:15; Mark 4:21; Luke 11:33]

¹⁷“For there is nothing hidden that will not become evident, nor anything secret that will not be known and come out into the open.

¹⁸“So be careful how you listen; for whoever has [a teachable heart], to him more [understanding] will be given; and whoever does not have [a longing for truth], even what he thinks he has will be taken away from him.” [Matt 13:12; 25:29; Mark 4:25]

¹⁹Then Jesus’ mother and His brothers came up toward Him, but they could not reach Him because of the crowd. [Matt 12:46–50; Mark 3:31–35]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Prayer and Faith

If you or I drank some kind of poison, we would also have to swallow an antidote or the poison would cause serious damage or even death. The same is true of the deadly toxin of fear. There must be an antidote for it, and the antidote for fear is faith.

When fear comes knocking at our door, as it did for the disciples when it appeared their boat was about to be swamped by raging, violent waves, we can answer that fear with faith, as Jesus did, because nothing else is effective against it (see Luke 8:22–25). And prayer is the major vehicle that carries and releases faith.

As believers, we can always choose faith and release it in some way. It is possible to pray without faith (we do it all the time), but it is impossible to have real faith and not pray.

James tells us that when we find ourselves in need of something, we should pray and ask God for it, and resist the temptation to doubt (see James 1:5–7).

Fear comes to us all; we can answer with faith and be victorious every time.

²⁰And He was told, “Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, asking to see You.”

²¹But He answered, “My mother and My brothers are these who listen to the word of God and do it!”

²²Now on one of those days Jesus and His disciples got into a boat, and He said to them, “Let us cross over to the other side of the lake (Sea of Galilee).” So they set out. [Matt 8:23–27; Mark 4:36–41]

²³But as they were sailing, He fell asleep. And a fierce gale of wind swept down [as if through a wind tunnel] on the lake, and they began to be swamped, and were in great danger.

²⁴They came to Jesus and woke Him, saying, “Master, Master, we are about to die!” He got up and rebuked the wind and the raging, violent waves, and they ceased, and it became calm [a perfect peacefulness].

²⁵And He said to them, “Where is your faith [your confidence in Me]?” They were afraid and astonished, saying to one another, “Who then is this, that He commands even the winds and the sea, and they obey Him?”

²⁶Then they sailed to the country of the Gerasenes, which is east of Galilee. [Matt 8:28–34; Mark 5:1–17]

²⁷Now when Jesus stepped out on land, He was met by a man from the city [of Gerasa] who was possessed with demons. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and was not living in a house, but among the tombs.

²⁸Seeing Jesus, he cried out [with a terrible voice from the depths of his throat] and fell down before Him [in dread and terror], and shouted loudly, “What business do we have [in common] with each other, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me [before the appointed time of judgment]!”

²⁹Now He was [already] commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For it had seized him [violently] many times; and he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the desert.

³⁰Then Jesus asked him, “What is your name?” And he answered, “Legion”; because many demons had entered him.

³¹They continually begged Him not to command them to go into the abyss. [Rev 9:1]

³²Now a large herd of pigs was feeding there on the mountain. The demons begged Jesus to allow them to enter the pigs, and He gave them permission.

³³Then the demons came out of the man and entered the pigs; and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

³⁴When the herdsmen saw what had happened, they ran away and told it in the city and out in the country.

³⁵*And people* came out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus’ feet, clothed and in his right mind (mentally healthy); and they were frightened.

³⁶Those who had seen it told them how the man who had been demon-possessed had been healed.

³⁷Then all the people of the country of the Gerasenes and the surrounding district asked Him to leave them, because they were overwhelmed with fear. So Jesus got into the boat and returned [to the west side of the Sea of Galilee].

³⁸But the man from whom the demons had gone out kept begging Him, pleading to go with Him; but Jesus sent him away, saying,

³⁹“Return home and tell [about] all the great things God has done for you.” So the man went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

⁴⁰Now as Jesus was returning [to Galilee], the people welcomed Him, for they had all been expecting Him.

⁴¹Now a man named Jairus, a synagogue official, came [to Him]; and he fell at Jesus’ feet and began begging Him to come to his house; [Matt 9:18–26; Mark 5:22–43]

⁴²for he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, and she was dying. But as Jesus went, the people were crowding against Him [almost crushing Him].

⁴³And a woman who had [suffered from] a hemorrhage for twelve years [and had spent all her money on physicians], and could not be healed by anyone, ⁴⁴came up behind Him and touched the fringe of His outer robe, and immediately her bleeding stopped.

⁴⁵Jesus said, “Who touched Me?” While they all were denying it, Peter [and those who were with him] said, “Master, the people are crowding and pushing against You!”

⁴⁶But Jesus said, “Someone did touch Me, because I was aware that power [to heal] had gone out of Me.”

⁴⁷When the woman saw that she had not escaped notice, she came up trembling and fell down before Him. She declared in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched Him, and how she had been immediately healed.

⁴⁸He said to her, “Daughter, your faith [your personal trust and confidence in Me] has made you well. Go in peace (untroubled, undisturbed well-being).”

⁴⁹While He was still speaking, someone from the synagogue official’s house came and said [to Jairus], “Your daughter is dead; do not inconvenience the Teacher any further.”

⁵⁰But Jesus, hearing this, answered him, “Do not be afraid any longer; only believe and trust [in Me and have faith in My ability to do this], and she will be made well.”

⁵¹When He came to the house, He allowed no one to enter with Him, except Peter and John and James, and the girl’s father and mother.

⁵²Now they were all weeping loudly and mourning for her; but He said, “Do not weep, for she is not dead, but is sleeping.”

⁵³Then they began laughing scornfully at Him and ridiculing Him, knowing [without any doubt] that she was dead.

⁵⁴But Jesus took hold of her hand and spoke, saying, “Child, arise!”

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, thank You that I do not have to be afraid any longer; that I only have to believe and trust in You and have faith in Your ability to do everything that needs to be done in my life.

• adapted from Luke 8:50

⁵⁵ And her spirit returned, and she got up immediately; and He ordered that she be given something to eat.

⁵⁶ Her parents were greatly astonished [by the miracle]; but He instructed them to tell no one what had happened.

9 NOW JESUS called together the twelve [disciples] and gave them [the right to exercise] power and authority over all the demons and to heal diseases.

² Then He sent them out [on a brief journey] to preach the kingdom of God and to perform healing. [Matt 10:5]

³ And He said to them, “Take nothing for your journey [that might encumber you]—neither a walking stick, nor bag, nor bread, nor money; and do not even have two tunics apiece.

⁴ “Whatever house you enter, stay there until you leave that city [to go to another].

⁵ “And as for all those who do not welcome you, when you leave that city, shake the dust off your feet [breaking all ties with them] as a testimony against them [that they rejected My message].”

⁷Now Herod [Antipas] the tetrarch [who governed a portion of Palestine including Galilee and Perea] heard about all that was being done [by Jesus], and he was thoroughly perplexed, because it was said by some that John [the Baptist whom he had ordered beheaded] had been raised from the dead, [Matt 14:1, 2]

⁸and by others that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the [other] prophets of old had been resurrected.

⁹Herod said, “I personally had John beheaded. Who is this man about whom I hear such things?” And he kept trying to see Jesus.

¹⁰When the apostles returned, they told Him all that they had done. He took them with Him and He privately withdrew [across the Jordan] to a city called Bethsaida. [Matt 14:13–21; Mark 6:32–44; John 6:5–13]

¹¹But when the crowds learned of it, they followed Him; and He welcomed them and He began talking to them about the kingdom of God, and healing those who needed to be healed.

¹²Now the day was ending, and the twelve [disciples] came and said to Him, “Send the crowd away, so that they may go into the surrounding villages and countryside and find lodging, and get provisions; because here we are in an isolated place.”

¹³But He said to them, “You give them something to eat.” They said, “We have no more than five loaves and two fish—unless perhaps we go and buy food for all these people.” [2

Kin 4:42–44]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Focus on What You Do Have

In Luke 9, when the disciples tell Jesus that it is getting late and He should send the people away to get themselves something to eat, Jesus instructs His disciples to feed the people (see vv. 12–13). The disciples respond by saying they have no more than five loaves and two fish and cannot feed five thousand men. Because they felt they couldn't meet the entire need, they were choosing to do nothing. But Jesus takes what they do have and multiplies it to satisfy the entire crowd with plenty of leftovers (see vv. 16–17).

Instead of focusing on what you can't do, or what you don't have, or what you've lost, take an inventory of what you do have. When you give God the little bit you have, He will do the multiplying and you will end up with more left over than what you started with. Needs will be met, and you will be blessed!

¹⁴(For there were about 5,000 men.) And He said to His disciples, "Have them sit down to eat in groups of about fifty each."

¹⁵They did so, and had them all sit down.

¹⁶Then He took the five loaves and the two fish, and He looked up to heaven [and gave thanks] and blessed them, and broke them and kept giving them to the disciples to set before the crowd.

¹⁷They all ate and were [completely] satisfied; and the broken pieces which they had left over were [abundant and were] picked up—twelve baskets full.

¹⁸Now it happened that as Jesus was praying privately, the disciples were with Him, and He asked them, “Who do the crowds say that I am?” [Matt 16:13–16; Mark 8:27–29]

¹⁹They answered, “John the Baptist, and some say, Elijah; but others, that one of the ancient prophets has come back to life.”

²⁰And He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter replied, “The Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) of God!”

²¹But He strictly warned and admonished them not to tell this to anyone,

²²saying, “The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected [as the Messiah] by the elders and chief priests and scribes (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), and be put to death, and on the third day be raised up [from death to life].” [Matt 16:21–28; Mark 8:31–9:1]

²³And He was saying to them all, “If anyone wishes to follow Me [as My disciple], he must deny himself [set aside selfish interests], and take up his cross daily [expressing a willingness to endure whatever may come] and follow Me [believing in Me, conforming to My example in living and, if need be, suffering or perhaps dying because of faith in Me].

²⁵“For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world [wealth, fame, success], and loses or forfeits himself?

²⁶“For whoever is ashamed [here and now] of Me and My words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when He comes in His glory and the glory of the [heavenly] Father and of the holy angels.

²⁷“But I tell you truthfully, there are some among those standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God.”

²⁸Now about eight days after these teachings, He took along Peter and John and James and went up on the mountain to pray. [Matt 17:1–8; Mark 9:2–8]

²⁹As He was praying, the appearance of His face became different [actually transformed], and His clothing became white and flashing with the brilliance of lightning.

³⁰And behold, two men were talking with Him; and they were Moses and Elijah, ³¹who appeared in glory, and were speaking of His departure [from earthly life], which He was about to bring to fulfillment at Jerusalem.

³²Now Peter and those who were with him had been overcome with sleep; but when they were fully awake, they saw His glory and splendor and majesty, and the two men who were standing with Him.

³³And as these [men, Moses and Elijah] were leaving Him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is delightful and good for us to be here; we should make three [sacred] tents; one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah”—not realizing what he was saying.

³⁴But even as he was saying this, a cloud formed and began to overshadow them; and they were [greatly] afraid as they entered the cloud.

³⁵Then a voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is My beloved Son, My Chosen One; listen and obey and yield to Him!”

³⁶When the voice had ceased, Jesus was found there alone. And they kept silent, and told no one at that time any of the things which they had seen [concerning the divine manifestation]. [2 Pet 1:16–19]

³⁷On the next day, when they came down from the mountain, a large crowd met Him. [Matt 17:14–18; Mark 9:14–27]

³⁸And a man from the crowd shouted for help, “Teacher, I beg You to look at my son, because he is my only child;

³⁹and a spirit seizes him, and suddenly he cries out, and it throws him into a convulsion so that he foams at the mouth; and only with [great] difficulty does it leave him, mauling and bruising him as it leaves.

⁴⁰“I begged Your disciples to cast it out, but they could not.”

⁴¹Jesus answered, “You unbelieving and perverted generation! How long shall I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here [to Me].”

⁴²Even while the boy was coming, the demon slammed him down and threw him into a [violent] convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy and gave him back to his father.

⁴³They were all amazed [practically overwhelmed] at the [evidence of the] greatness of God and His majesty and His wondrous work. [Mark 9:30–32]

But while they were still awed by everything Jesus was doing, He said to His disciples,

⁴⁴“Let these words sink into your ears: the Son of Man is going to be betrayed and handed over to men [who are His enemies].”

⁴⁵However, they did not understand this statement. Its meaning was kept hidden from them so that they would not grasp it; and they were afraid to ask Him about it.

⁴⁶An argument started among them as to which of them might be the greatest [surpassing the others in esteem and authority]. [Matt 18:1–5; Mark 9:33–37]

⁴⁷But Jesus, knowing what they were thinking in their heart, took a child and had him stand beside Him,

⁴⁸and He told them, “Whoever welcomes this child in My name welcomes Me; and whoever welcomes Me [also] welcomes Him who sent Me; for the one who is least among all of you [that is, the one who is genuinely humble—the one with a realistic self-view]—he is the one who is [truly] great.”

⁴⁹John replied, “Master, we saw someone driving out demons in Your name; and we tried to stop him because he does not follow along with us.” [Mark 9:38–40]

⁵⁰But Jesus told him, “Do not stop him; for he who is not against you is for you.” [Matt 12:30]

⁵¹Now when the time was approaching for Him to be taken up [to heaven], He was determined to go to Jerusalem [to fulfill His purpose].

⁵²He sent messengers on ahead of Him, and they went into a Samaritan village to make arrangements for Him;

⁵³but the people would not welcome Him, because He was traveling toward Jerusalem.

⁵⁴When His disciples James and John saw this, they said, “Lord, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and destroy them?” [2 Kin 1:9–16]

⁵⁵But He turned and rebuked them [and He said, “You do not know what kind of spirit you are;

⁵⁶for the Son of Man did not come to destroy men’s lives, but to save them.”] And they journeyed on to another village.

⁵⁷As they were going along the road, someone said to Him, “I will follow You wherever You go.” [Matt 8:19–22]

⁵⁸And Jesus told him, “Foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay His head.”

⁵⁹He said to another, “Follow Me [accepting Me as Master and Teacher].” But he said, “Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father.” [Matt 8:21, 22]

⁶⁰But He said to him, “Allow the [spiritually] dead to bury their own dead; but as for you, go and spread the news about the kingdom of God.”

⁶¹Another also said, “I will follow You, Lord [as Your disciple]; but first let me say goodbye to those at my home.”

⁶²But Jesus said to him, “No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back [to the things left behind] is fit for the kingdom of God.”

10 NOW AFTER this the Lord appointed seventy others, and sent them out ahead of Him, two by two, into every city and place where He was about to go.

²He was saying to them, “The harvest is abundant [for there are many who need to hear the good news about salvation], but the workers [those available to proclaim the message of salvation] are few. Therefore, [prayerfully] ask the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest.

³“Go your way; listen carefully: I am sending you out like lambs among wolves.

⁴“Do not carry a money belt, a provision bag, or [extra] sandals; and do not greet anyone along the way [who would delay you].

⁵“Whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace [that is, a blessing of well-being and prosperity, the favor of God] to this house.’

⁶“And if anyone of peace is there [someone who is sweet-spirited and hospitable], your [blessing of] peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you.

⁷“Stay in that house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer is worthy of his wages. Do not move from house to house. [Deut 24:15]

⁸“Whenever you go into a city and they welcome you, eat what is set before you;

⁹and heal those in it who are sick [authenticating your message], and say to them, ‘The kingdom of God has come near to you.’

¹⁰“But whatever city you enter and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say,

¹¹“Even the dust of your city which clings to our feet we wipe off in protest against you [breaking all ties]; yet understand this, that the kingdom of God has come near [and you rejected it].”

¹²“I tell you, it will be more bearable in that day [of judgment] for Sodom than for that city. [Gen 19:24–28]

¹³“Woe (judgment is coming) to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented and changed their minds long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes [to show deep regret for sin].

¹⁴“However, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you.

¹⁵“And you, Capernaum, will not be exalted to heaven, will you? You will descend to Hades (the realm of the dead).

¹⁶“The one who listens to you listens to Me; and the one who rejects you rejects Me; and the one who rejects Me rejects Him [My heavenly Father] who sent Me.”

¹⁷The seventy returned with joy, saying, “Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Your name.”

¹⁸He said to them, “I watched Satan fall from heaven like [a flash of] lightning.

¹⁹“Listen carefully: I have given you authority [that you now possess] to tread on serpents and scorpions, and [the ability to exercise authority] over all the power of the enemy (Satan); and nothing will [in any way] harm you.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Power over Negative Thinking

This is typically how your mind, mouth, moods, and attitudes are connected: When you have a negative circumstance, you create a negative thought about it. Then you speak negative words about the circumstance, and your mood begins to sink, which leads to a bad attitude; and you end up with more negative circumstances than you started with.

You can break this cycle in your life. Luke 10:19 says we have been given authority to “tread on serpents and scorpions, and [the ability to exercise authority] over all the power of the enemy (Satan).” To tread means “to walk all over, to take steps, to take action, to resist.” You have the power to do these things. When you have a problem, nothing negative will fix it. Keep your mind, mouth, moods, and attitudes positive, and watch God work miracles on your behalf.

²⁰“Nevertheless do not rejoice at this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are recorded in heaven.” [Ex 32:32; Ps 69:28; Dan 12:1; Rev 3:5]

²¹In that very hour He was overjoyed and rejoiced greatly in the Holy Spirit, and He said, “I praise You, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things [relating to salvation] from the wise and intelligent, and have revealed them to infants [the childlike and untaught]. Yes, Father, for this way was [Your gracious will and choice, and was] well-pleasing in Your sight.

²²“All things have been transferred and turned over to Me by My Father and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal Him.”

²³Then turning to His disciples, Jesus said privately, “Blessed [joyful, spiritually enlightened, and favored by God] are the eyes which see what you see, [Matt 13:16, 17]

²⁴for I say to you that many prophets and kings longed to see what you see, and they did not see it; and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.”

²⁵And a certain lawyer [an expert in Mosaic Law] stood up to test Him, saying, “Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” [Matt 22:34–40; Mark 12:28–31]

²⁶Jesus said to him, “What is written in the Law? How do you read it?”

²⁷And he replied, “YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND; AND YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF.” [Lev 19:18; Deut 6:5]

²⁸Jesus said to him, “You have answered correctly; DO THIS habitually AND YOU WILL LIVE.” [Lev 18:5; Ezek 20:11; Matt 19:17]

²⁹But he, wishing to justify and vindicate himself, asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”

³⁰Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he encountered robbers, who stripped him of his clothes [and belongings], beat him, and went their way [unconcerned], leaving him half dead.

³¹“Now by coincidence a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

Give Yourself to the One Thing

When the term multitasking first became popular, everyone seemed to want to do it; and soon thereafter, many job descriptions began including such phrases as “must be able to multitask.” While there are certainly times a person needs to be able to handle more than one thing at a time, I’m not sure multitasking serves us well in everyday life, and I don’t think it should become the normal way to live. I think trying to do too many things at once creates stress and prevents us from enjoying life.

When Martha got “very busy and distracted with all her serving responsibilities,” our Lord reminded her that “only one thing” was necessary at that moment (Luke 10:40–42). I challenge you to stop trying to multitask excessively and learn to give yourself to the one thing you are doing at that moment. This kind of concentration requires discipline, but it’s worth it because being able to focus helps you enjoy the present moment (see Eccl. 5:1).

³²“Likewise a Levite also came down to the place and saw him, and passed by on the other side [of the road].

³³“But a Samaritan (foreigner), who was traveling, came upon him; and when he saw him, he was deeply moved with compassion [for him], ³⁴and went to him and bandaged up his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them [to sooth and disinfect the injuries]; and he put him on his own pack-animal, and brought him to an inn and took care of him.

³⁵“On the next day he took out two denarii (two days’ wages) and gave them to the innkeeper, and said, ‘Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I return.’”

³⁶“Which of these three do you think proved himself a neighbor to the man who encountered the robbers?”

³⁷He answered, “The one who showed compassion and mercy to him.” Then Jesus said to him, “Go and constantly do the same.”

³⁸Now while they were on their way, Jesus entered a village [called Bethany], and a woman named Martha welcomed Him into her home. [John 11:1]

³⁹She had a sister named Mary, who seated herself at the Lord’s feet and was continually listening to His teaching.

⁴⁰But Martha was very busy and distracted with all of her serving responsibilities; and she approached Him and said, “Lord, is it of no concern to You that my sister has left me to do the serving alone? Tell her to help me and do her part.”

⁴¹But the Lord replied to her, “Martha, Martha, you are worried and bothered and anxious about so many things;

POWERPOINT

We can learn to be like Mary who, in the midst of the many things that were taking place, was able to focus on what was important at the moment and listen to the voice of the Master.

⁴²but only one thing is necessary, for Mary has chosen the good part [that which is to her advantage], which will not be taken away from her.”

11 IT HAPPENED that while Jesus was praying in a certain place, after He finished, one of His disciples said to Him, “Lord, teach us to pray just as John also taught his disciples.”

²He said to them,

“When you pray, say:

‘Father, hallowed be Your name.

Your kingdom come.

³‘Give us each day our daily bread.

⁴‘And forgive us our sins,

For we ourselves also forgive everyone who is indebted to us [who has offended or wronged us].

And lead us not into temptation [but rescue us from evil].”

⁵Then He said to them, “Suppose one of you has a friend, and goes to him at midnight and says, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves [of bread]; ⁶for a friend of mine who is on a journey has just come to visit me, and I have nothing to serve him’;

⁷and from inside he answers, ‘Do not bother me; the door has already been shut and my children and I are in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.’

⁸“I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything just because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence and boldness he will get up and give him whatever he needs.

⁹“So I say to you, ask and keep on asking, and it will be given to you; seek and keep on seeking, and you will find; knock and keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. [Matt 7:7–11]

¹⁰“For everyone who keeps on asking [persistently], receives; and he who keeps on seeking [persistently], finds; and to him who keeps on knocking [persistently], the door will be opened.

¹¹“What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead of a fish?

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Knowing God as Father

For many years I prayed the “Lord’s Prayer,” but I did not know God as my Father. I did not have a close personal relationship with Him. When I referred to Him as “Father,” I was simply repeating a word I had learned to use when praying.

If you want to be effective in your prayer life, it’s important to know God as your Father. When the disciples asked Jesus to teach them to pray, He taught them what we refer to as the “Lord’s Prayer,” which is a spiritual treasure house of principles for prayer. Foremost, Jesus started out by instructing them to say, “Father; hallowed be Your name” (Luke 11:2).

Jesus was teaching them the importance of seeing the precious and privileged relationship He came to bring to every believer. He told them that having a relationship with God as their Father was important in order to pray properly. He is teaching us to develop a trusting, loving, Father-child relationship with Him and to not go to God as if we are afraid of Him or as though He might be angry with us for some reason. This intimate relationship will give you the liberty to ask Him for things you would not have asked for otherwise.

Our heavenly Father longs to give good gifts to His children. When you pray, remember you have a loving Father Who is ¹²“Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion?

¹³“If you, then, being evil [that is, sinful by nature], know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask and continue to ask Him!”

¹⁴And [at another time] Jesus was casting out a demon, and it was [controlling a man so as to make him] mute; when the demon had gone out, the mute man spoke. And the crowds were awed. [Matt 12:22–24]

¹⁵But some of them said, “He drives out demons by [the power of] Beelzebul (Satan), the ruler of the demons.”

¹⁶Others, trying to test Him, were demanding of Him a sign from heaven.

¹⁷But He, well aware of their thoughts and purpose, said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is doomed to destruction; and a house divided against itself falls.

¹⁸“If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand and continue to survive? For you are saying that I drive out demons by [the power of] Beelzebul.

¹⁹“Now if I drive out the demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons [the Jewish exorcists] drive them out? For this reason they will be your judges.

²⁰“But if I drive out the demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has already come upon you.

²¹“When the strong man, fully armed, guards his own house, his belongings are undisturbed and secure.

22“But when someone stronger than he attacks and overpowers him, he robs him of all his armor on which he had relied and divides his [goods as] spoil.

23“He who is not with Me [believing in Me as Lord and Savior] is against Me [there is no impartial position]; and he who does not gather with Me [assisting in My ministry], scatters.

24“When the unclean spirit comes out of a person, it roams through waterless places in search [of a place] of rest; and not finding any, it says, ‘I will go back to my house (person) from which I came.’

25“And when it comes, it finds the place swept and put in order.

26“Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they go in [the person] and live there; and the last state of that person becomes worse than the first.”

27Now while Jesus was saying these things, one of the women in the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, “Blessed (happy, favored by God) is the womb that gave birth to You and the breasts at which You nursed!”

28But He said, “On the contrary, blessed (happy, favored by God) are those who hear the word of God and continually observe it.”

29Now as the crowds were increasing [in number], He began to say, “This [present] generation is a wicked generation; it seeks a sign (attesting miracle), but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah [the prophet]. [Matt 12:39–42]

30“For just as Jonah became a sign to the people of Nineveh, so will the Son of Man also be [a sign] to this generation. [Jon 3:4–10]

³¹“The Queen of the South (the kingdom of Sheba) will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to listen to the wisdom of Solomon, and look, something greater than Solomon is here. [1 Kin 10:1–13; 2 Chr 9:1–12]

³²“The men of Nineveh will stand up [as witnesses] at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and look, something greater than Jonah is here. [Jon 3:5]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Focusing on Good Brings Victory

Jesus once explained that after an unclean spirit has been cast out of a person, it will eventually return and, if it finds its old home empty, will bring other spirits with it. When that happens, the person's condition becomes worse than it was originally (see Luke 11:24–26). Jesus' purpose in sharing this insight is not to frighten us, but to warn us that getting rid of evil alone is not enough to maintain freedom. We also need to fill our mind and lives with good so that the enemy has no room to get back into our life.

One way to keep the enemy from coming back and planting wrong thoughts in your mind is to keep your mind active and alert and full of right thoughts. After casting out wrong thoughts, you then need to replace them with good ones because empty space is a place the enemy can occupy.

There are aggressive sins (sins of commission) and there are passive sins (sins of omission). That is, there are things we do that are sinful, and we may also sin by not doing right things. James said that if we know to do right and don't do it, it is sin (see James 4:17).

You can enjoy a great life by trusting God and pushing away the thoughts and desires that don't come from Him and replacing them with ones that do.

One of the most effective ways to resist the devil is to fill your mind and your heart with thanksgiving to God. When you worship and praise God, you slam the door in the enemy's face and post a "No Trespassing" sign.

³³“No one lights a lamp and then puts it in a cellar nor under a basket [hiding the light], but [instead it is put] on the lampstand, so that those who come in may see the light. [Matt 5:15; Mark 4:21; Luke 8:16]

³⁴“The eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is clear [spiritually perceptive, focused on God], your whole body also is full of light [benefiting from God's precepts]. But when it is bad [spiritually blind], your body also is full of darkness [devoid of God's word].

³⁵“Be careful, therefore, that the light that is in you is not darkness.

³⁶“So if your whole body is illuminated, with no dark part, it will be entirely bright [with light], as when the lamp gives you light with its bright rays.”

³⁷Now after Jesus had spoken, a Pharisee asked Him to have lunch with him. He went in [the Pharisee's home] and reclined at the table [without ceremonially washing His hands].

³⁸The Pharisee noticed this and was surprised that Jesus did not first ceremonially wash before the meal.

³⁹But the Lord said to him, “Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and plate [as required by tradition]; but inside you are full of greed and wickedness.

⁴⁰“You foolish ones [acting without reflection or intelligence]! Did not He who made the outside make the inside also?

⁴¹“But give that which is within as charity [that is, acts of mercy and compassion, not as a public display, but as an expression of your faithfulness to God], and then indeed all things are clean for you.

⁴²“But woe (judgment is coming) to you Pharisees, because you [self-righteously] tithe mint and rue and every [little] garden herb [tending to all the minutiae], and yet disregard and neglect justice and the love of God; but these are the things you should have done, without neglecting the others. [Lev 27:30; Mic 6:8]

⁴³“Woe to you Pharisees, because you love the best seats in the synagogues and to be respectfully greeted in the market places.

⁴⁴“Woe to you! For you are like graves which are unmarked, and people walk over them without being aware of it [and are ceremonially unclean].”

⁴⁵One of the lawyers [an expert in the Mosaic Law] answered Him, “Teacher, by saying this, You insult us too!”

⁴⁶But He said, “Woe to you lawyers as well, because you weigh men down with burdens [man-made rules, unreasonable requirements] which are hard to bear, and you yourselves will not even touch the burdens with one of your fingers [to lighten the load].

⁴⁷“Woe to you! For you repair or build tombs for the prophets, and it was your fathers who killed them.

⁴⁸“So you are witnesses and approve the deeds of your fathers, because they [actually] killed them, and you repair or build their tombs.

⁴⁹“For this reason also the wisdom of God said [in the Scriptures], ‘I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will put to death and some they will persecute,’⁵⁰ so that charges may be brought against this generation [holding them responsible] for the blood of all the prophets shed since the foundation of the world,⁵¹ from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah [the priest], who was murdered between the altar and the house of God. Yes, I tell you, charges will be brought against this generation.’ [Gen 4:8; 2 Chr 24:20, 21; Zech 1:1; Matt 23:35]

⁵²“Woe to you lawyers, because you have taken away the key to knowledge (scriptural truth). You yourselves did not enter, and you held back those who were entering [by your flawed interpretation of God’s word and your man-made tradition].” [Matt 23:13]

⁵³When He left there, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be very hostile [toward Him] and to interrogate Him on many subjects,⁵⁴ plotting against Him to catch Him in something He might say.

12 IN THE meantime, after so many thousands of the people had gathered that they were stepping on one another, Jesus began speaking first of all to His disciples, “Be continually on your guard against the leaven of the Pharisees [that is, their pervasive, corrupting influence and teaching], which is hypocrisy [producing self-righteousness].

POWERPOINT

What if your mind were a movie screen on which everyone could see what you are thinking? Most of us have thoughts we wouldn't want anyone else to see, and we may find it unsettling to think that Jesus said that everything we've concealed will be revealed (see Luke 12:2). But we can grow to the point where we wouldn't be ashamed for anybody to see what we are thinking. Our thought lives can change little by little as God changes us from one degree of glory to another (see 2 Cor. 3:18). Work with Him to cultivate a thought life you wouldn't be ashamed for anyone to see!

²“But there is nothing [so carefully] concealed that it will not be revealed, nor so hidden that it will not be made known. [Matt 10:26–33; Mark 4:22]

³“For that reason, whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered behind closed doors will be proclaimed on the housetops.

⁴“I say to you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after that have nothing more that they can do.

⁵“But I will point out to you whom you should fear: fear the One who, after He has killed, has authority and power to hurl [you] into hell; yes, I say to you, [stand in great awe of God and] fear Him!

⁶“Are not five sparrows sold for two copper coins? Yet not one of them has [ever] been forgotten in the presence of God.

⁷“Indeed the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not be afraid; you are far more valuable than many sparrows.

⁸“I say to you, whoever declares openly and confesses Me before men [speaking freely of Me as his Lord], the Son of Man also will declare openly and confess him [as one of His own] before the angels of God.

⁹“But he who denies Me before men will be denied in the presence of the angels of God.

¹⁰“And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit [that is, whoever intentionally discredits the Holy Spirit by attributing the authenticating miracles done by Me to Satan], it will not be forgiven him [for him there is no forgiveness]. [Matt 12:31; Mark 3:28–30]

¹¹“When they bring you before the synagogues and the magistrates and the authorities, do not be worried about how you are to defend yourselves or what you are to say; ¹²for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say.”

¹³Someone from the crowd said to Him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me.”

¹⁴But He said to him, “Man, who appointed Me a judge or an arbitrator over [the two of] you?”

¹⁵Then He said to them, “Watch out and guard yourselves against every form of greed; for not even when one has an overflowing abundance does his life consist of nor is it derived from his possessions.”

¹⁶Then He told them a parable, saying, “There was a rich man whose land was very fertile and productive.

¹⁷“And he began thinking to himself, ‘What shall I do, since I have no place [large enough in which] to store my crops?’

¹⁸Then he said, ‘This is what I will do: I will tear down my storehouses and build larger ones, and I will store all my grain and my goods there.

¹⁹‘And I will say to my soul, “Soul, you have many good things stored up, [enough] for many years; rest and relax, eat, drink and be merry (celebrate continually).” ’

²⁰“But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your soul is required of you; and now who will own all the things you have prepared?’ [Job 27:8; Jer 17:11]

²¹“So it is for the one who continues to store up and hoard possessions for himself, and is not rich [in his relationship] toward God.”

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Stop Worrying, Start Trusting

Jesus said, “Do not worry about your life” (Luke 12:22), yet still, many Christians worry. You can choose to worry, or you can reject worry and choose to live with joy and peace. Most people think that worrying is beyond their control. It is not. Worry is a sin against God. I don’t think anyone ever worries by faith! When we worry, we are indicating that we doubt that God will take care of us or meet our needs, and that if we think about it long enough, perhaps we will find a way to take care of ourselves.

Faith says, “God can do it.” Worry says, “I doubt God will help me, so I better come up with my own answer.”

Jesus did more than teach His disciples not to worry about tomorrow; He lived it out. He said, “Foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head” (Matt. 8:20). Jesus trusted His Father’s provision for Him even when He didn’t know where He would sleep or what He would eat next.

Jesus taught that we are not to worry about anything in life.

He wasn't indicating that we should never think and plan ahead, but He was clear that we should not be fearful and filled with worry. When we worry and are fearful, we forfeit our peace. Let's not allow fear and worry to hinder God from doing great things in our lives.

I heard about a couple who could not pay their daughter's medical bills. After a lengthy time in prayer, the husband realized the truth and said, "It is really quite simple. I am God's servant. My responsibility is to serve my Master. His responsibility is to take care of me."

The next day, the doctors told them that their daughter was eligible to be part of an experimental surgery and all expenses would be paid. The wife smiled and said, "God is responsible, isn't He?" God does not show partiality. What He does for one, He will do for another (see Rom. 2:11). I encourage you to stop worrying and start trusting in Him.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord God, I know that worry is a sin against You. In the name of Jesus, help me to overcome all anxieties and worry and enable me to trust You to provide for every need I have. Amen.

²²Jesus said to His disciples, “For this reason I tell you, do not worry about your life, as to what you will eat; or about your body, as to what you will wear. [Matt 6:25–33]

²³“For life is more than food, and the body more than clothes.

²⁴“Consider the ravens, for they neither sow [seed] nor reap [the crop]; they have no storehouse or barn, and yet God feeds them. How much more valuable are you than the birds!

²⁵“And which of you by worrying can add one hour to his life’s span?

²⁶“So if you are not even able to do a very little thing [such as that], why are you worried about the rest?

²⁷“Consider the lilies and wildflowers, how they grow [in the open field]. They neither labor nor spin [wool to make clothing]; yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his glory and splendor dressed himself like one of these. [1 Kin 10:4–7] ²⁸“But if this is how God clothes the grass which is in the field today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, how much more will He clothe you? You of little faith!

²⁹“So as for you, do not seek what you will eat and what you will drink; nor have an anxious and unsettled mind.

³⁰For all the [pagan] nations of the world greedily seek these things; and your [heavenly] Father [already] knows that you need them.

POWERPOINT

Someone has defined worry as “to torment oneself with disturbing thoughts.” When we have had a bout with worry and an unsettled mind for even a few hours, we can feel exhausted. We need to be wise enough to refuse to torment ourselves with worry, choosing instead to obey Jesus, Who said we are not to have “an anxious and unsettled mind” (Luke 12:29). I recently read this statement: “One day of worry is equivalent to one week of work.”

Speak God's Word

I will not be afraid and anxious, for it is the Father's good pleasure to give me the kingdom.

| adapted from LUKE 12:32 |

³¹“But [strive for and actively] seek His kingdom, and these things will be given to you as well.

³²“Do not be afraid and anxious, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

³³“Sell your possessions (show compassion) and give [donations] to the poor. Provide money belts for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing and inexhaustible treasure in the heavens, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys.

³⁴“For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

³⁵“Be dressed and ready for active service, and keep your lamps continuously burning.

³⁶“Be like men who are waiting for their master when he returns from the wedding feast, so that when he comes and knocks they may immediately open the door for him.

³⁷“Blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired) are those servants whom the master finds awake and watching when he arrives. I assure you and most solemnly say to you, he will prepare himself to serve, and will have them recline at the table, and will come and wait on them.

³⁸“Whether he comes in the second watch (before midnight), or even in the third (after midnight), and finds them so [prepared and ready], blessed are those servants.”

³⁹“But be sure of this, that if the head of the house had known at what time the thief was coming, he [would have been awake and alert, and] would not have allowed his house to be broken into. [Matt 24:43, 44]

⁴⁰“You too, be continually ready; because the Son of Man is coming at an hour that you do not expect.”

⁴¹Peter said, “Lord, are You addressing this parable to us [disciples], or to everyone else as well?”

⁴²The Lord said, “Who then is the faithful and wise steward [of the estate], whom his master will put in charge over his household, to give his servants their portion of food at the proper time? [Matt 24:45–51]

⁴³“Blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired) is that servant whom his master finds so doing when he arrives.

⁴⁴“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, he will put him in charge of all his possessions.

⁴⁶the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know, and will cut him in pieces, and assign him a place with the unbelievers.

⁴⁷“And that servant who knew his master’s will, and yet did not get ready or act in accord with his will, will be beaten with many lashes [of the whip], ⁴⁸but the one who did not know it and did things worthy of a beating, will receive only a few [lashes]. From everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required; and to whom they entrusted much, of him they will ask all the more. [Num 15:29, 30; Deut 25:2, 3]

⁴⁹“I have come to cast fire (judgment) on the earth; and how I wish that it were already kindled!

⁵⁰“I have a baptism [of great suffering] with which to be baptized, and how [greatly] I am distressed until it is accomplished!

⁵¹“Do you suppose that I came to grant peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division [between believers and unbelievers]; [Matt 10:34–36]

⁵²for from now on five in one household will be divided [over Me], three against two and two against three.

⁵³“They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.” [Mic 7:6]

⁵⁴He also said to the crowds, “When you see a cloud rising in the west, you immediately say, ‘It is going to rain,’ and that is how it turns out.

⁵⁵“And when [you see that] a south wind is blowing, you say, ‘It will be a hot day,’ and it happens.

⁵⁶“You hypocrites (play-actors, pretenders)! You know how to analyze and intelligently interpret the appearance of the earth and sky [to forecast the weather], but why do you not intelligently interpret this present time?

⁵⁷“And why do you not even on your own initiative judge what is right?

⁵⁸“For while you are going with your opponent [at law] to appear before a magistrate, on the way make an effort to settle, so that he does not drag you before the judge, and the judge does not [rule against you and] turn you over to the officer, and the officer does not throw you into prison. [Matt 5:25, 26]

⁵⁹“I say to you, you [absolutely] will not get out of there until you have paid the very last cent.”

13 JUST AT that time some people came who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate [the governor] had mixed with their sacrifices.

²Jesus replied to them, “Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all other Galileans because they have suffered in this way?

³“I tell you, no; but unless you repent [change your old way of thinking, turn from your sinful ways and live changed lives], you will all likewise perish.

⁴“Or do you assume that those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed were worse sinners than all the others who live in Jerusalem?

⁶Then He began telling them this parable: “A certain man had a fig tree that had been planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it, but did not find any; ⁷so he said to the vineyard-keeper, 'For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree and have found none. Cut it down! Why does it even use up the ground [depleting the soil and blocking the sunlight]?'

⁸"But he replied to him, 'Let it alone, sir, [just] one more year until I dig around it and put in fertilizer;

⁹and if it bears fruit after this, fine; but if not, cut it down.'"

¹⁰Now Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath.

¹¹And there was a woman who for eighteen years had had an illness caused by a spirit (demon). She was bent double, and could not straighten up at all.

¹²When Jesus saw her, He called her over and said to her, "Woman, you are released from your illness."

¹³Then He laid His hands on her; and immediately she stood erect again and she began glorifying and praising God.

¹⁴But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, began saying to the crowd in response, "There are six days in which work ought to be done; so come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day." [Ex 20:9, 10]

¹⁵But the Lord replied to him, "You hypocrites (play-actors, pretenders)! Does not each one of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the stall and lead it away to water it?

¹⁶"And this woman, a daughter (descendant) of Abraham whom Satan has bound for eighteen long years, should she not have been released from this bond on the Sabbath day?"

¹⁷As He was saying this, all His opponents were being humiliated; and the entire crowd was rejoicing over all the glorious things that were being done by Him.

¹⁸So this led Him to say, “What is the kingdom of God like? And to what shall I compare it? [Matt 13:31, 32; Mark 4:30–32]

¹⁹“It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his own garden; and it grew and became a tree, and THE BIRDS OF THE SKY FOUND SHELTER and NESTED IN ITS BRANCHES.” [Ezek 17:23; Dan 4:12]

²⁰And again He said, “To what shall I compare the kingdom of God?

²¹“It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three peck measures of flour until it was all leavened.” [Matt 13:33]

²²Jesus journeyed on through cities and villages, teaching and making His way toward Jerusalem.

²³And someone asked Him, “Lord, will only a few be saved [from the penalties of the last judgment]?” And He said to them, ²⁴“Strive to enter through the narrow door [force aside unbelief and the attractions of sin]; for many, I tell you, will try to enter [by their own works] and will not be able.

²⁵“Once the head of the house gets up and closes the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock on the door [again and again], saying, ‘Lord, open to us!’ then He will answer you, ‘I do not know where you are from [for you are not of My household].’

²⁶“Then you will begin to say, ‘We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets’;

²⁷but He will say to you, ‘I do not know where you are from; DEPART FROM ME, ALL YOU EVILDOERS!’ [Ps 6:8]

²⁸“In that place there will be weeping [in sorrow and pain] and grinding of teeth [in distress and anger] when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but yourselves being thrown out and driven away.

²⁹“And people will come from east and west, and from north and south, and they will sit down [and feast at the table] in the kingdom of God.

³⁰“And behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last.”

³¹At that very hour some Pharisees came up and said to Him, “Leave and go away from here, because Herod [Antipas] wants to kill You.”

³²And He said to them, “Go and tell that fox [that sly, cowardly man], ‘Listen carefully: I cast out demons and perform healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day I reach My goal.’

³³“Nevertheless I must travel on today and tomorrow and the day after that—for it cannot be that a prophet would die outside of Jerusalem.

³⁵“Listen carefully: your house is left to you desolate [abandoned by God and destitute of His protection]; and I say to you, you will not see Me until the time comes when you say, ‘BLESSED [to be celebrated with praise] IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD!” [Ps 118:26; Jer 22:5]

14 IT HAPPENED one Sabbath, when He went for a meal at the house of one of the ruling Pharisees, that they were watching Him closely and carefully [hoping to entrap Him].

²And there in front of Him was a man who had dropsy (extreme swelling).

³And Jesus asked the lawyers and the Pharisees, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not?”

⁴But they kept silent. Then He took hold of the man and healed him, and sent him on his way.

⁵Then He said to them, “Which one of you, having a son or an ox that falls into a well, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?”

⁶And they were unable to reply to this.

⁷Now Jesus began telling a parable to the invited guests when He noticed how they had been selecting the places of honor at the table, saying to them, ⁸“When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not sit down [to eat] at the place of honor, since a more distinguished person than you may have been invited by the host, [Prov 25:6, 7]

⁹and he who invited both of you will come and say to you, ‘Give this man your place,’ and then, in disgrace you proceed to take the last place.

¹⁰“But when you are invited, go and sit down [to eat] at the last place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, ‘Friend, move up higher’; and then you will be honored in the presence of all who are at the table with you.

¹²Jesus also went on to say to the one who had invited Him, “When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or wealthy neighbors, otherwise they may also invite you in return and that will be your repayment.

¹³“But when you give a banquet or a reception, invite the poor, the disabled, the lame, and the blind, ¹⁴and you will be blessed because they cannot repay you; for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous (the just, the upright).”

¹⁵When one of those who were reclining at the table with Him heard this, he said to Him, “Blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired) is he who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!”

¹⁶But Jesus said to him, “A man was giving a big dinner, and he invited many guests;

¹⁷and at the dinner hour he sent his servant to tell those who had been invited, ‘Come, because everything is ready now.’

¹⁸“But they all alike began to make excuses. The first one said to him, ‘I have purchased a piece of land and I have to go out and see it; please consider me excused.’

¹⁹“Another one said, ‘I have purchased five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out; please consider me excused.’

²⁰“And another said, ‘I have [recently] married a wife, and for that reason I am unable to come.’ [Deut 24:5]

²¹“So the servant came back and reported this to his master. Then [his master,] the head of the household, became angry [at the rejections of his invitation] and said to his servant, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and the lanes of the city and bring in here the poor and the disabled and the blind and the lame.’

²²“And the servant [after returning] said, ‘Sir, what you commanded has been done, and still there is room.’

²³“Then the master told the servant, ‘Go out into the highways and along the hedges, and compel them to come in, so that my house may be filled [with guests].

²⁴“For I tell you, not one of those who were invited [and declined] will taste my dinner.””

²⁵Now large crowds were going along with Jesus; and He turned and said to them, ²⁶“If anyone comes to Me, and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life [in the sense of indifference to or relative disregard for them in comparison with his attitude toward God]—he cannot be My disciple.

²⁷“Whoever does not carry his own cross [expressing a willingness to endure whatever may come] and follow after Me [believing in Me, conforming to My example in living and, if need be, suffering or perhaps dying because of faith in Me] cannot be My disciple.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

The Heart of a Finisher

One of the best habits to develop as God's children is to finish what we start. After all, we want to imitate God and represent Him well in the world—and He always finishes what He begins. In addition, we need a sense of purpose and accomplishment in life. We need to know we are making progress and actually completing the things to which we give our time and energy. We need to exercise diligence in order to finish what we start, and doing so demonstrates that we are trustworthy and have integrity. When we leave projects or activities undone, we may develop a sense of failure and other people may feel they cannot depend on us.

The Bible teaches diligence, steadfastness, and determination—all of which pertain to finishing what we start. Jesus gives us great advice in the form of a question when He asks the disciples in Luke 14:28, “For which one of you, when he wants to build a watchtower [for his guards], does not first sit down and calculate the cost, to see if he has enough to finish it?”

Our ability to finish what we start speaks volumes to those around us. We need to be careful and thoughtful before we commit to anything, making sure that once we start, we can follow through to completion. Finishing what we start is part of being people of excellence, integrity, and effectiveness—and representing Jesus well to those around us.

Are you currently involved in anything that you would like to give up on or discontinue? If so, I ask you to reconsider. Pray and ask God if He really wants you to give up before you complete it. Unless you are certain that He does, I encourage you to press on. The only reason we should ever give up is if we start something and realize along the way that it is not what God wants us to do.

Whatever you are involved in right now, I encourage you to ask yourself, Have I set my mind to finish what I have started? I pray that you have, but if not, you can recommit to finish what you have begun. You can develop the heart of a finisher starting today!

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord, I pray that I will choose projects and activities wisely, seeking Your will in everything I do. When I begin something, help me to see it through to completion. In Jesus' name. Amen.

²⁸“For which one of you, when he wants to build a watchtower [for his guards], does not first sit down and calculate the cost, to see if he has enough to finish it?

²⁹“Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is unable to finish [the building], all who see it will begin to ridicule him,

³⁰saying, ‘This man began to build and was not able to finish!’

³¹“Or what king, when he sets out to meet another king in battle, will not first sit down and consider whether he is strong enough with ten thousand men to encounter the one who is coming against him with twenty thousand?

³²“Or else [if he feels he is not powerful enough], while the other [king] is still a far distance away, he sends an envoy and asks for terms of peace.

³³“So then, none of you can be My disciple who does not [carefully consider the cost and then for My sake] give up all his own possessions.

³⁴“Therefore, salt is good; but if salt has become tasteless, with what will it be seasoned?

³⁵“It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile; it is thrown away. He who has ears to hear, let him hear and heed My words.”

15 NOW ALL the tax collectors and sinners [including non-observant Jews] were coming near Jesus to listen to Him.

²Both the Pharisees and the scribes began muttering and complaining, saying, “This man accepts and welcomes sinners and eats with them.”

³So He told them this parable:

⁴“What man among you, if he has a hundred sheep and loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one which is lost, [searching] until he finds it? [Matt 18:12–14]

⁵“And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

⁶“And when he gets home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, because I have found my lost sheep!’

⁷“I tell you, in the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance.

⁸“Or what woman, if she has ten silver coins [each one equal to a day’s wages] and loses one coin, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it?

⁹“And when she has found it, she calls together her [women] friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, because I found the lost coin!’

¹⁰“In the same way, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents [that is, changes his inner self—his old way of thinking, regrets past sins, lives his life in a way that proves repentance; and seeks God’s purpose for his life].”

¹¹Then He said, “A certain man had two sons.

¹²“The younger of them [inappropriately] said to his father,

‘Father, give me the share of the property that falls to me.’ So he divided the estate between them. [Deut 21:15–17]

¹³“A few days later, the younger son gathered together everything [that he had] and traveled to a distant country, and there he wasted his fortune in reckless and immoral living.

¹⁴“Now when he had spent everything, a severe famine occurred in that country, and he began to do without and be in need.

¹⁵“So he went and forced himself on one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs.

¹⁶“He would have gladly eaten the [carob] pods that the pigs were eating [but they could not satisfy his hunger], and no one was giving anything to him. [Jer 30:14]

¹⁷“But when he [finally] came to his senses, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired men have more than enough food, while I am dying here of hunger!

¹⁸“I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight.

¹⁹“I am no longer worthy to be called your son; [just] treat me like one of your hired men.” ’

²⁰“So he got up and came to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was moved with compassion for him, and ran and embraced him and kissed him.

POWERPOINT

Refuse to give up on people. Whether you are believing for someone you love to become a Christian, to change behavior, to leave a bad relationship, to stop using drugs, to go back to school, to come home, or to get a job, keep believing that change is possible. Do not give up on the ones you love; your patient love and faithfulness may be exactly what they need to make a complete turnaround. God never gives up on us. His unconditional love is clearly demonstrated in the father of the prodigal son (see Luke 15:20). Choose to live with the same attitude. Believe in the power of love to change and transform anything and anyone.

21“‘And the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’

22“‘But the father said to his servants, ‘Quickly bring out the best robe [for the guest of honor] and put it on him; and give him a ring for his hand, and sandals for his feet. [Gen 41:42; Zech 3:4]

23‘And bring the fattened calf and slaughter it, and let us [invite everyone and] feast and celebrate;

24for this son of mine was [as good as] dead and is alive again; he was lost and has been found.’ So they began to celebrate.

25“Now his older son was in the field; and when he returned and approached the house, he heard music and dancing.

26“‘So he summoned one of the servants and began asking what this [celebration] meant.

27“‘And he said to him, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has received him back safe and sound.’

28“‘But the elder brother became angry and deeply resentful and was not willing to go in; and his father came out and began pleading with him.

29“‘But he said to his father, ‘Look! These many years I have served you, and I have never neglected or disobeyed your command. Yet you have never given me [so much as] a young goat, so that I might celebrate with my friends; ³⁰but when this [other] son of yours arrived, who has devoured your estate with immoral women, you slaughtered that fattened calf for him!’

³¹“The father said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours.

³²“But it was fitting to celebrate and rejoice, for this brother of yours was [as good as] dead and has begun to live. He was lost and has been found.’”

16 NOW JESUS was also saying to the disciples, “There was a certain rich man who had a manager [of his estate], and accusations [against this man] were brought to him, that this man was squandering his [master’s] possessions.

²“So he called him and said to him, ‘What is this I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management [of my affairs], for you can no longer be [my] manager.’

³“The manager [of the estate] said to himself, ‘What will I do, since my master is taking the management away from me? I am not strong enough to dig [for a living], and I am ashamed to beg.

⁴“I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from the management, people [who are my master’s debtors] will welcome me into their homes.’

⁵“So he summoned his master’s debtors one by one, and he said to the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’

⁶“He said, ‘A hundred measures of [olive] oil.’ And he said to him, ‘Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.’

⁷“Then he said to another, ‘And how much do you owe?’ He said, ‘A hundred measures of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, and write eighty.’

⁹“And I tell you [learn from this], make friends for yourselves [for eternity] by means of the wealth of unrighteousness [that is, use material resources as a way to further the work of God], so that when it runs out, they will welcome you into the eternal dwellings.

¹⁰“He who is faithful in a very little thing is also faithful in much; and he who is dishonest in a very little thing is also dishonest in much.

¹¹“Therefore if you have not been faithful in the use of earthly wealth, who will entrust the true riches to you?

¹²“And if you have not been faithful in the use of that [earthly wealth] which belongs to another [whether God or man, and of which you are a trustee], who will give you that which is your own?

¹³“No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will stand devotedly by the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon [that is, your earthly possessions or anything else you trust in and rely on instead of God].”

¹⁴Now the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, were listening to all these things and were sneering and ridiculing Him.

¹⁵So He said to them, “You are the ones who declare yourselves just and upright in the sight of men, but God knows your hearts [your thoughts, your desires, your secrets]; for that which is highly esteemed among men is detestable in the sight of God. [1 Sam 16:7; Prov 21:2]

16“‘The Law and the [writings of the] Prophets were proclaimed until John; since then the gospel of the kingdom of God has been and continues to be preached, and everyone tries forcefully to go into it.

17“‘Yet it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for a single stroke of a letter of the Law to fail and become void.

18“‘Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery, and he who marries one who is divorced from her husband commits adultery. [Matt 5:31, 32]

19“‘Now there was a certain rich man who was habitually dressed in expensive purple and fine linen, and celebrated and lived joyously in splendor every day.

20“‘And a poor man named Lazarus, was laid at his gate, covered with sores.

21“‘He [eagerly] longed to eat the crumbs which fell from the rich man’s table. Besides, even the dogs were coming and licking his sores.

22“‘Now it happened that the poor man died and his spirit was carried away by the angels to Abraham’s bosom (paradise); and the rich man also died and was buried.

23“‘In Hades (the realm of the dead), being in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away and Lazarus in his bosom (paradise).

24“‘And he cried out, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus so that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in severe agony in this flame.’

²⁵“But Abraham said, ‘Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things [all the comforts and delights], and Lazarus likewise bad things [all the discomforts and distresses]; but now he is comforted here [in paradise], while you are in severe agony.

²⁶“And besides all this, between us and you [people] a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who want to come over from here to you will not be able, and none may cross over from there to us.’

²⁷“So the rich man said, ‘Then, father [Abraham], I beg you to send Lazarus to my father’s house—

²⁸for I have five brothers—in order that he may solemnly warn them and witness to them, so that they too will not come to this place of torment.’

²⁹“But Abraham said, ‘They have [the Scriptures given by] Moses and the [writings of the] Prophets; let them listen to them.’

³⁰“He replied, ‘No, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent [they will change their old way of thinking and seek God and His righteousness].’

³¹“And he said to him, ‘If they do not listen to [the messages of] Moses and the Prophets, they will not be persuaded even if someone rises from the dead.’”

17 JESUS SAID to His disciples, “Stumbling blocks

[temptations and traps set to lure one to sin] are sure to come, but woe (judgment is coming) to him through whom they come!
[Matt 18:7]

Speak God's Word

Even if someone sins against me seven times a day and returns to me seven times and says, "I repent," I will forgive him. I will give up resentment and consider the offense recalled and annulled.

| adapted from LUKE 17:4 |

²“It would be better for him if a millstone [as large as one turned by a donkey] were hung around his neck and he were hurled into the sea, than for him to cause one of these little ones to stumble [in sin and lose faith]. [Matt 18:6; Mark 9:42]

³“Pay attention and always be on guard [looking out for one another]! If your brother sins and disregards God's precepts, solemnly warn him; and if he repents and changes, forgive him.

⁴“Even if he sins against you seven times a day, and returns to you seven times and says, ‘I repent,’ you must forgive him [that is, give up resentment and consider the offense recalled and annulled].”

⁵The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith [our ability to confidently trust in God and in His power].”

⁶And the Lord said, “If you have [confident, abiding] faith in God [even as small] as a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree [which has very strong roots], ‘Be pulled up by the roots and be planted in the sea’; and [if the request was in agreement with the will of God] it would have obeyed you. [Matt 17:20; Mark 11:23; 1 John 5:14]

⁷“Which of you who has a servant plowing or tending sheep will say to him when he comes in from the field, ‘Come at once and sit down to eat?’

⁸“Will he not instead say to him, ‘Prepare something for me to eat, and appropriately clothe yourself [for service] and serve me while I eat and drink; then afterward you may eat and drink?’

⁹“He does not thank the servant just because he did what he was ordered to do, does he?

¹⁰“So you too, when you have done everything that was assigned and commanded you, say, ‘We are unworthy servants [undeserving of praise or a reward, for we have not gone beyond our obligation]; we have merely done what we ought to do.’”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Handling Compliments Humbly

It is easy to misunderstand what humility is. Some people think humility means to have a low opinion of themselves. Paul says not to have an exaggerated opinion of your own importance (see Rom. 12:3), but he doesn't say to have a low opinion. Some people, in an effort to be humble, don't know how to receive compliments graciously. We all need encouragement, compliments, and appreciation, but they do us no good if they are given and we refuse to receive them.

A good way to handle appreciation without getting into pride is to receive it when it is given. Then, at the end of the day, take the compliments you receive to Jesus and say to Him, "I know that whatever I do that is good or right is the result of Your working in me, so I offer You all the praise I was given today and I thank You for the encouragement." As servants of the Lord, "we have merely done what we ought to do" (Luke 17:10).

¹¹While Jesus was on the way to Jerusalem, He was passing [along the border] between Samaria and Galilee.

¹²As He entered a village, He was met by ten lepers who stood at a distance;

¹³and they raised their voices and called out, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

¹⁴When He saw them, He said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were [miraculously] healed and made clean. [Lev 14:2–32]

¹⁵One of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, glorifying and praising and honoring God with a loud voice;

¹⁶and he lay face downward at Jesus’ feet, thanking Him [over and over]. He was a Samaritan.

¹⁷Then Jesus asked, “Were not ten [of you] cleansed? Where are the [other] nine?”

¹⁸“Was there no one found to return and to give thanks and praise to God, except this foreigner?”

¹⁹Jesus said to him, “Get up and go [on your way]. Your faith [your personal trust in Me and your confidence in God’s power] has restored you to health.”

²⁰Now having been asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, He replied, “The kingdom of God is not coming with signs to be observed or with a visible display; ²¹nor will people say, ‘Look! Here it is!’ or, ‘There it is!’ For the kingdom of God is among you [because of My presence].”

²²Then He said to the disciples, “The time will come when you will long to see [even] one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it.

²³“They will say to you, ‘Look [the Messiah is] there!’ or ‘Look [He is] here!’ Do not go away [to see Him], and do not run after them.

²⁴“For just like the lightning, when it flashes out of one part of the sky, gives light to the other part of the sky, so [visible] will the Son of Man be in His day.

²⁵“But first He must suffer many things and be repudiated and rejected and considered unfit [to be the Messiah] by this [unbelieving] generation.

²⁶“And just as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be in the time of [the second coming of] the Son of Man:

²⁷the people were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, they were being given in marriage, [they were indifferent to God] until the day that Noah went into the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. [Gen 6:5–8; 7:6–24]

²⁸“It was the same as it was in the days of Lot. People were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building [carrying on business as usual, without regard for their sins]; ²⁹but on the [very] day that Lot left Sodom it rained fire and brimstone (burning sulfur) from heaven and destroyed them all.

³²“Remember [what happened to] Lot’s wife [when she looked back]! [Gen 19:26]

³⁴“I tell you, on that night [when Messiah comes again] there will be two [sleeping] in one bed; the one (the non-believer) will be taken [away in judgment] and the other (the believer) will be left.

³⁵“There will be two women grinding [at the mill] together; the one (the non-believer) will be taken [away in judgment] and the other (the believer) will be left.

³⁶[“Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other will be left.”]

³⁷And they asked Him, “Where, Lord?” He answered, “Where the corpse is, there the vultures will be gathered.”

18 NOW JESUS was telling the disciples a parable to make the point that at all times they ought to pray and not give up and lose heart, ²saying, “In a certain city there was a judge who did not fear God and had no respect for man.

POWERPOINT

'Luke 18:1 says that Jesus told the disciples this parable of the widow who wore down the unjust judge "to make the point that at all times they ought to pray and not give up and lose heart." He wanted them to learn to persevere in prayer with confidence, and He wants us to do the same. Our confidence is never in ourselves; it is always in Christ. Without Him, we are nothing and can do nothing that merits anything. But in His name we can go boldly to God in prayer and pray without ever giving up.

³“There was a [desperate] widow in that city and she kept coming to him and saying, ‘Give me justice and legal protection from my adversary.’

⁴“For a time he would not; but later he said to himself, ‘Even though I do not fear God nor respect man, ⁵yet because this widow continues to bother me, I will give her justice and legal protection; otherwise by continually coming she [will be an intolerable annoyance and she] will wear me out.’”

⁶Then the Lord said, “Listen to what the unjust judge says!

⁷“And will not [our just] God defend and avenge His elect [His chosen ones] who cry out to Him day and night? Will He delay [in providing justice] on their behalf?

⁸“I tell you that He will defend and avenge them quickly. However, when the Son of Man comes, will He find [this kind of persistent] faith on the earth?”

⁹He also told this parable to some people who trusted in themselves and were confident that they were righteous [posing outwardly as upright and in right standing with God], and who viewed others with contempt: ¹⁰“Two men went up into the temple [enclosure] to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.

¹¹“The Pharisee stood [ostentatiously] and began praying to himself [in a self-righteous way, saying]: ‘God, I thank You that I am not like the rest of men—swindlers, unjust (dishonest), adulterers—or even like this tax collector.

¹²‘I fast twice a week; I pay tithes of all that I get.’

¹³“But the tax collector, standing at a distance, would not even raise his eyes toward heaven, but was striking his chest [in humility and repentance], saying, ‘God, be merciful and gracious to me, the [especially wicked] sinner [that I am]!’

¹⁴“I tell you, this man went to his home justified [forgiven of the guilt of sin and placed in right standing with God] rather than the other man; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself [forsaking self-righteous pride] will be exalted.”

¹⁵Now they were also bringing their babies to Him, so that He would touch and bless them, and when the disciples noticed it, they began reprimanding them.

¹⁶But Jesus called them to Himself, saying [to the apostles], “Allow the children to come to Me, and do not forbid them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

¹⁷“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God [with faith and humility] like a child will not enter it at all.”

¹⁸A certain ruler asked Him, “Good Teacher [You who are essentially and morally good], what shall I do to inherit eternal life [that is, eternal salvation in the Messiah’s kingdom]?” [Matt 19:16–29; Mark 10:17–30]

¹⁹Jesus said to him, “Why do you call Me good? No one is [essentially and morally] good except God alone.

²⁰“You know the commandments: ‘DO NOT COMMIT ADULTERY, DO NOT MURDER, DO NOT STEAL, DO NOT TESTIFY FALSELY, HONOR YOUR FATHER AND YOUR MOTHER.’” [Ex 20:12–16; Deut 5:16–20]

²¹He replied, “I have kept all these things from my youth.”

²²When Jesus heard this, He said to him, “You still lack one thing; sell everything that you have and distribute the money to the poor, and you will have [abundant] treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me [becoming My disciple, believing and trusting in Me and walking the same path of life that I walk].”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Humility and Faith in Prayer

For prayer to be sincere, it needs to come from a humble heart. In the lesson Jesus taught on prayer in Luke 18:10–14, we see that the Pharisee prayed “ostentatiously,” meaning that he prayed pretentiously, making an extravagant outward show. There was nothing secret or sincere about his prayer. It even says that he “began praying to himself.” In other words, his prayers did not go far; he was focused on the eloquence of what he was saying rather than on God.

The second man in the story, a despised tax collector, wicked in most people’s eyes, “would not even raise his eyes toward heaven.” He humbled himself and quietly, with a repentant heart, acknowledging himself as a sinner, asked God to help him. In response to his sincere, humble prayer, a lifetime of sin was wiped away in a moment. This is the power of simple, believing prayer.

Build your faith on the fact that humble, believing prayer is powerful. Believe that you can pray anywhere, anytime, about anything. Believe that your prayers don’t have to be perfect or eloquent or long. Keep them simple and full of faith.

We receive the grace of God (His favor and help) by humbling ourselves before Him, casting all our cares upon Him, and trusting Him to take care of us as He has promised in His Word.

²³But when he heard these things, he became very sad, for he was extremely rich.

²⁴Jesus looked at him and said, “How difficult it is for those who are wealthy to enter the kingdom of God!

²⁵“For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man [who places his faith in wealth or status] to enter the kingdom of God.”

²⁶And those who heard it said, “Then who can be saved?”

²⁷But He said, “The things that are impossible with people are possible with God.” [Gen 18:14; Jer 32:17]

²⁸Peter said, “Look, we have left all [things—homes, families, businesses] and followed You.”

²⁹And He said to them, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God, ³⁰who will not receive many times as much in this present age and in the age to come, eternal life.”

³¹Then taking the twelve [disciples] aside, He said to them, “Listen carefully: we are going up to Jerusalem, and all things that have been written through the prophets about the Son of Man will be fulfilled and completed. [Is 53:1–12]

³²“He will be betrayed and handed over to the Gentiles (Roman authorities), and will be mocked and ridiculed and insulted and abused and spit on, [Is 50:6]

³³and after they have scourged Him, they will kill Him; and on the third day He will rise [from the dead].” [Ps 16:10]

³⁴But the disciples understood none of these things [about the approaching death and resurrection of Jesus]. This statement was hidden from them, and they did not grasp the [meaning of the] things that were said [by Jesus].

³⁵As He was approaching Jericho [on His way to Jerusalem], it happened that a blind man was sitting beside the road begging. [Matt 20:29–34; Mark 10:46–52]

³⁶Now when he heard a crowd going by, he began to ask what this was [about].

³⁷They told him, “Jesus of Nazareth is passing by.”

³⁸So he shouted out, saying, “Jesus, Son of David (Messiah), have mercy on me!”

³⁹Those who were leading the way were sternly telling him to keep quiet; but he screamed all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

⁴⁰Then Jesus stopped and ordered that the blind man be led to Him; and when he came near, Jesus asked him,

⁴¹“What do you want Me to do for you?” He said, “Lord, let me regain my sight!”

⁴²Jesus said to him, “Regain your sight; your [personal trust and confident] faith [in Me] has made you well.”

⁴³Immediately he regained his sight and began following Jesus, glorifying and praising and honoring God. And all the people, when they saw it, praised God.

19 JESUS ENTERED Jericho and was passing through.

²And there was a man called Zaccheus; he was a chief tax collector [a superintendent to whom others reported], and he was rich.

³Zaccheus was trying to see who Jesus was, but he could not see because of the crowd, for he was short in stature.

⁴So he ran on ahead [of the crowd] and climbed up in a sycamore tree in order to see Him, for He was about to pass through that way.

⁵When Jesus reached the place, He looked up and said to him, “Zaccheus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house.”

⁶So Zaccheus hurried and came down, and welcomed Jesus with joy.

⁷When the people saw it, they all began muttering [in discontent], “He has gone to be the guest of a man who is a [notorious] sinner.”

⁸Zaccheus stopped and said to the Lord, “See, Lord, I am [now] giving half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anyone out of anything, I will give back four times as much.” [Ex 22:1; Lev 6:5; Num 5:6, 7]

⁹Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this household, because he, too, is a [spiritual] son of Abraham;

¹⁰for the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost.”

¹¹While they were listening to these things, Jesus went on to tell a parable, because He was near Jerusalem, and they assumed that the kingdom of God was going to appear immediately [as soon as He reached the city].

¹²So He said, “A nobleman went to a distant country to obtain for himself a kingdom, and [then] to return.

¹³“So he called ten of his servants, and gave them ten minas [one apiece, each equal to about a hundred days’ wages] and said to them, 'Do business [with this] until I return.'

¹⁴"But his citizens [the residents of his new kingdom] hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We do not want this man to be a king over us.'

¹⁵"When he returned, after receiving the kingdom, he ordered that these servants, to whom he had given the money, be called to him, that he might find out what business they had done.

¹⁶"The first one came before him and said, 'Lord, your mina has made ten more minas.'

¹⁷"And he said to him, 'Well done, good servant! Because you proved yourself faithful and trustworthy in a very little thing, you shall [now] have authority over ten cities [in my kingdom].'

¹⁸"The second one came and said, 'Lord, your mina has made five minas.'

¹⁹"And he said to him also, 'And you shall take charge over five cities.'

²⁰"Then another came and said, 'Lord, here is your mina, which I have kept laid up in a handkerchief [for safekeeping].

²¹'I was [always] afraid of you, because you are a stern man; you pick up what you did not lay down and you reap what you did not sow.'

²²"He said to the servant, 'I will judge and condemn you by your own words, you worthless servant! Did you [really] know that I was a stern man, picking up what I did not lay down and reaping what I did not sow?

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

See People as God Sees Them

It is very important to see people the way God sees them, because what we think about others greatly impacts how we relate to them. If we are willing, we can learn to think about people the way God thinks about them (see 1 Sam. 16:7). We'll recognize each person as a valuable possibility.

Jesus never chose to help or befriend people based on how others perceived them. Zacchaeus was a hated, despised tax collector. Jesus went to his house because He loved him and wanted to help him. He gave Zacchaeus a chance, and because He did, Zacchaeus solemnly declared that he would give half his goods to restore to people what he had dishonestly taken from them (see Luke 19:1–8).

Jesus also touched lepers (see Matt. 8:2–3), which was something no one else did. He spoke to a needy woman at the well, and Jewish men did not talk to Samaritan women (see John 4:9). He traveled with a woman who previously had seven demons and made her living as a prostitute (see Luke 8:2). He chose disciples whom we surely would have rejected as unfit for the job, and He ate with “sinners” (Matt. 9:11). Jesus broke all the rules of His day and gave us a new one: love one another, just as He loves us (see John 13:34).

To see people the way God sees them, and to think about them the way God thinks about them, comes with spiritual maturity—it is a by-product of walking in the Spirit rather than walking in the flesh. It is often a sacrifice, because getting to know people deeply takes time.

Jesus sees things differently than most people do. He noticed a widow putting into the offering “two small copper coins” that were not worth much (see Luke 21:1–4). Jesus saw beyond the amount of money she gave; He saw that she was giving all that she had. Let’s make a commitment to look deeper than the surface appearances of people and situations. Let’s pray that God will help us not to form our thoughts and opinions of people too quickly, lest we shut them out of our lives and miss the opportunity to know the amazing people God has placed in our path.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord Jesus, help me to begin to see and value others as You do, to think of them the way You think of them, and to love them as You love them. In Your name, I pray. Amen.

²³“Then why did you not [at the very least] put my money in a bank? Then on my return, I would have collected it with interest.’

²⁴“Then he said to the bystanders, ‘Take the mina away from him and give it to the one who has the ten minas.’

²⁵“And they said to him, ‘Lord, he has ten minas already!’

²⁶“[Jesus explained,] ‘I tell you that to everyone who has [because he valued his gifts from God and has used them wisely], more will be given; but from the one who does not have [because he disregarded his gifts from God], even what he has will be taken away.’

²⁷“[The king ended by saying,] ‘But as for these enemies of mine who did not want me to be king over them, bring them here and kill them in my presence.’”

²⁸After saying these things, Jesus went on ahead [of them], going up to Jerusalem.

²⁹When He approached Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount that is called Olivet, He sent two of the disciples, [Matt 21:1–9; Mark 11:1–10; John 12:12–15]

³⁰saying, “Go into the village ahead of you; there, as you enter, you will find a [donkey’s] colt tied, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here.

³¹“If anybody asks you, ‘Why are you untying the colt?’ you will say, ‘The Lord needs it.’”

³²So those who were sent left and found the colt just as He had told them.

³³As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them,

“Why are you untying the colt?”

³⁴They said, “The Lord needs it.”

³⁵They brought it to Jesus, and they threw their robes over the colt and put Jesus on it. [Zech 9:9]

³⁶As He rode along, people were spreading their coats on the road [as an act of homage before a king]. [2 Kin 9:13]

³⁷As soon as He was approaching [Jerusalem], near the descent of the Mount of Olives, the entire multitude of the disciples [all those who were or claimed to be His followers] began praising God [adoring Him enthusiastically and] joyfully with loud voices for all the miracles and works of power that they had seen, ³⁸shouting,

“BLESSED (celebrated, praised) IS THE KING WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD!

Peace in heaven and glory (majesty, splendor) in the highest [heaven]!” [Ps 118:26]

³⁹Some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to Him, “Teacher, rebuke Your disciples [for shouting these Messianic praises].”

⁴⁰Jesus replied, “I tell you, if these [people] keep silent, the stones will cry out [in praise]!” [Hab 2:11]

⁴¹As He approached Jerusalem, He saw the city and wept over it [and the spiritual ignorance of its people], ⁴²saying, “If [only] you had known on this day [of salvation], even you, the things which make for peace [and on which peace depends]! But now they have been hidden from your eyes.

⁴³“For a time [of siege] is coming when your enemies will put up a barricade [with pointed stakes] against you, and surround you [with armies] and hem you in on every side, [Is 29:3; Jer 6:6; Ezek 4:2]

⁴⁴and they will level you to the ground, you [Jerusalem] and your children within you. They will not leave in you one stone on another, all because you did not [come progressively to] recognize [from observation and personal experience] the time of your visitation [when God was gracious toward you and offered you salvation].”

⁴⁵Jesus went into the temple [enclosure] and began driving out those who were selling, [Matt 21:12, 13; Mark 11:15–17; John 2:13–16]

⁴⁶saying to them, “It is written, ‘MY HOUSE SHALL BE A HOUSE OF PRAYER’; but you have made it a ROBBERS’ DEN.” [Is 56:7; Jer 7:11]

⁴⁷He was teaching day after day in the temple [porches and courts]; but the chief priests and scribes and the leading men among the people were seeking [a way] to put Him to death, ⁴⁸and they could not find anything that they could do, for all the people [stayed close to Him and] were hanging on to every word He said.

20 ON ONE of the days, as Jesus was instructing the people in the temple [area] and preaching the good news (gospel), the chief priests and the scribes along with the elders confronted Him, [Matt 21:23–27; Mark 11:27–33]

²and said to Him, “Tell us by what kind of authority You are doing these things? Or who is the one who gave You this authority?”

³Jesus replied, “I will also ask you a question. You tell Me:

⁴“The baptism of John [the Baptist]—was it from heaven [that is, ordained by God] or from men?”

⁵They discussed and debated it among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Why did you not believe him?’

⁶“But if we say, ‘From men,’ all the people will stone us to death, for they are firmly convinced that John was a prophet.”

⁷So they replied that they did not know from where it came.

⁸Then Jesus said to them, “Nor am I telling you by what [kind of] authority I do these things.”

⁹Then He began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard and leased it to tenant farmers, and went on a journey for a long time [to another country]. [Is 5:1–7; Matt 21:33–46; Mark 12:1–12]

¹⁰“At harvest time he sent a servant [as his representative] to the tenants, so that they would give him his share of the fruit of the vineyard; but the tenants beat the servant and sent him away empty-handed.

¹¹“So he again sent another servant; they also beat him and dishonored and treated him disgracefully and sent him away empty-handed.

¹²“And he sent yet a third; and this one too they wounded and threw out [of the vineyard].

¹³“Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will have respect for him.’

¹⁴“But when the tenants saw him, they discussed it among themselves, saying, ‘This [man] is the heir; let us kill him so that the inheritance will be ours.’

¹⁵“So they threw the son out of the vineyard and killed him. What, then, will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

¹⁶“He will come and put these tenants to death and will give the vineyard to others.” When the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders heard this, they said, “May it never be!”

¹⁷But Jesus looked at them and said, “What then is [the meaning of] this that is written:

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Unconditional Acceptance

We tend to fear earthly rejection too much. Jesus was rejected, and He survived (see Luke 20:17). You can too! When I say you will survive, I don't mean you will just barely make it. I mean rejection does not have to leave you brokenhearted, and it doesn't need to stop you from doing what God wants you to do. No one enjoys being rejected, but we can experience it and still be victorious.

We are not responsible for our reputations; God is! So relax and keep thinking to yourself, I may not be accepted by everyone, but I am accepted and loved by God. Repeat it over and over until you believe it and are no longer bothered if people reject you.

If you have God, you have all you need. If He knows you need anything else, He will provide that also (see Matt. 6:8, 33–34). Valuing God's unconditional love and approval more than the conditional approval of people will help you overcome rejection.

‘THE [very] STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REJECTED,
THIS BECAME THE CHIEF CORNERSTONE’? [Ps 118:22, 23]

¹⁸“Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken and shattered in pieces; and on whomever it falls, it will crush him.”
[Is 8:14, 15; Dan 2:34, 35]

¹⁹The scribes and the chief priests tried to [find a way to] arrest Him at that very hour, but they were afraid of the people; because they understood that He spoke this parable against them.

²⁰So they watched [for a chance to trap] Him. They sent spies who pretended to be upright and sincere, in order that they might catch Him in some statement [that they could distort and use against Him], so that they could turn Him over to the control and authority of [Pilate] the governor. [Matt 22:15–22; Mark 12:13–17]

²¹They asked Him, “Teacher, we know that You speak and teach correctly, and that You show no partiality to anyone, but teach the way of God truthfully.

²²“Is it lawful [according to Jewish law and tradition] for us to pay taxes (tribute money) to Caesar or not?”

²³But He saw through their trickery and said to them,

²⁴“Show Me a [Roman] denarius. Whose image and inscription does the coin have?” They answered, “[the Emperor Tiberius] Caesar’s.”

²⁵He said to them, “Then pay to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”

²⁶They were not able to seize on anything He said in the presence of the people; and being unnerved at His reply, they were silent.

²⁷Now some of the Sadducees (who say that there is no resurrection) came to Him [Matt 22:23–33; Mark 12:18–27]

²⁸and they questioned Him, saying, “Teacher, Moses wrote for us [a law that] IF A MAN’S BROTHER DIES, leaving a wife AND NO CHILDREN, HIS BROTHER SHOULD MARRY THE WIFE AND RAISE

CHILDREN FOR HIS BROTHER. [Deut 25:5, 6]

²⁹“Now there were seven brothers; and the first took a wife and died childless.

³⁰“And the second,

³¹and the third married her, and in the same way all seven died, leaving no children.

³²“Finally the woman also died.

³³“So in the [life after] resurrection, whose wife does she become? For all seven had married her.”

³⁴Jesus said to them, “The sons of this [world and present] age marry and [the women] are given in marriage;

³⁵but those who are considered worthy to gain that [other world and that future] age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage; ³⁶and they cannot die again, because they are [immortal] like the angels (equal to, angel-like). And they are children of God, being participants in the resurrection.

³⁷“But [as for the fact] that the dead are raised [from death], even Moses showed, in the passage about the burning bush, when he calls the Lord THE GOD OF ABRAHAM, THE GOD OF ISAAC, AND THE GOD OF JACOB. [Ex 3:6]

³⁸“Now He is not the God of the dead, but of the living [so these forefathers will be among the resurrected]; for all live [in a definite relationship] to Him.”

³⁹Some of the scribes replied, “Teacher, you have spoken well [so that there is no room for blame].”

⁴⁰And they did not dare to question Him further about anything [because of the wisdom He displayed in His answers].

⁴¹Then He said to them, “How is it that people say that the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) is David’s son? [Matt 22:41–46; Mark 12:35–37]

⁴²“For David himself says in the book of Psalms,

‘THE LORD (the Father) SAID TO MY LORD (the Son, the Messiah), “SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND, ⁴³UNTIL I MAKE YOUR ENEMIES A FOOTSTOOL FOR YOUR FEET.” ’

[Ps 110:1]

⁴⁴“So David calls Him (the Son) ‘Lord,’ and how then is He David’s son?”

⁴⁵And with all the people listening, He said to His disciples, ⁴⁶“Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes [displaying their prominence], and love respectful greetings in the [crowded] market places, and chief seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets.

⁴⁷“These [men] who confiscate and devour widows’ houses, and for a pretense [to appear devout] offer long prayers. These [men] will receive the greater [sentence of] condemnation.”

21 LOOKING UP, He saw the rich people putting their gifts into the treasury. [Mark 12:41–44]

²And He saw a poor widow putting in two small copper coins.

³He said, “Truly I say to you, this poor widow has put in [proportionally] more than all of them;

⁴for they all put in gifts from their abundance; but she out of her poverty put in all she had to live on.”

⁵As some were talking about the temple, that it was decorated with beautiful stones and consecrated offerings [of magnificent gifts of gold which were displayed on the walls and hung in the porticoes], He said, [Matt 24; Mark 13]

⁶“As for all these things which you see, the time will come when there will not be one stone left on another that will not be torn down.”

⁷They asked Him, “Teacher, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign when these things are about to happen?”

⁸He said, “Be careful and see to it that you are not misled; for many will come in My name [appropriating for themselves the name Messiah which belongs to Me alone], saying, ‘I am He,’ and, ‘The time is near!’ Do not follow them.

⁹“When you hear of wars and disturbances [civil unrest, revolts, uprisings], do not panic; for these things must take place first, but the end will not come immediately.”

¹⁰Then Jesus told them, “Nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom. [2 Chr 15:6; Is 19:2]

¹¹“There will be violent earthquakes, and in various places famines and [deadly and devastating] pestilences (plagues, epidemics); and there will be terrible sights and great signs from heaven.

¹²“But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, turning you over to the synagogues and prisons, and bringing you before kings and governors for My name's sake. [Matt 10:19–22; Mark 13:11–13]

¹³“This will be a time and an opportunity for you to testify [about Me].

¹⁴“So make up your minds not to prepare beforehand to defend yourselves;

¹⁵for I will give you [skillful] words and wisdom which none of your opponents will be able to resist or refute.

¹⁶“But you will be betrayed and handed over even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and they will put some of you to death, ¹⁷and you will be continually hated by everyone because of [your association with] My name.

¹⁸“But not a hair of your head will perish. [1 Sam 14:45]

¹⁹“By your [patient] endurance [empowered by the Holy Spirit] you will gain your souls.

²⁰“But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by [hostile] armies, then understand [with confident assurance] that her complete destruction is near.

²¹“At that time, those who are in Judea must flee to the mountains, and those who are inside the city (Jerusalem) must get out, and those who are [out] in the country must not enter the city; ²²for these are days of vengeance [of rendering full justice or satisfaction], so that all things which are written will be fulfilled.

²³“Woe to those women who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! For great trouble and anguish will be on the land, and wrath and retribution on this people [Israel].

²⁴“And they will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all nations; and Jerusalem will be trampled underfoot by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled (completed). [Is 63:18; Dan 8:13]

²⁵“There will be signs (attesting miracles) in the sun and moon and stars; and on the earth [there will be] distress and anguish among nations, in perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea and the waves, [Is 13:10; Joel 2:10; Zeph 1:15]

²⁶people fainting from fear and expectation of the [dreadful] things coming on the world; for the [very] powers of the heavens will be shaken.

²⁷“Then they will see THE SON OF MAN COMING IN A CLOUD with [transcendent, overwhelming] power [subduing the nations] and with great glory. [Dan 7:13, 14]

²⁸“Now when these things begin to occur, stand tall and lift up your heads [in joy], because [suffering ends as] your redemption is drawing near.”

²⁹Then He told them a parable: “Look at the fig tree and all the trees; [Matt 24:32, 33; Mark 13:28, 29]

³⁰as soon as they put out leaves, you see it and know for yourselves that summer is near.

³¹“So you too, when you see these things happening, know [without any doubt] that the kingdom of God is near.

³²“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, this generation [those living at that definite period of time preceding the second coming] will not pass away until everything takes place.

³³“Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.

³⁴“But be on guard, so that your hearts are not weighed down and depressed with the giddiness of debauchery and the nausea of self-indulgence and the worldly worries of life, and then that day [when the Messiah returns] will not come on you suddenly like a trap; ³⁵for it will come upon all those who live on the face of all the earth.

³⁶“But keep alert at all times [be attentive and ready], praying that you may have the strength and ability [to be found worthy and] to escape all these things that are going to take place, and to stand in the presence of the Son of Man [at His coming].”

³⁷Now in the daytime Jesus was teaching in [the porches and courts of] the temple, but at night He would go out and spend the night on the mount that is called Olivet.

³⁸And early in the morning all the people would come to Him in the temple to listen to Him.

22 NOW THE Festival of Unleavened Bread, which is called the Passover, was approaching. [Lev 23:4, 5; Ezek 45:21; Matt 26:2–5; Mark 14:1, 2]

²The chief priests and the scribes were looking for a way to put Him to death; for they were afraid of the people [who listened devotedly to His teaching, and who respected His spiritual wisdom].

³Then Satan entered Judas, the one called Iscariot, who was one of the twelve [disciples].

⁴And he went away and discussed with the chief priests and officers how he might betray Him and hand Him over to them.

⁵They were delighted and agreed with him to give him money.

⁶So he consented, and began looking for a good opportunity to betray Jesus to them [at a time when He was] separated from the crowd [because the people might riot or stop them from seizing Him].

⁷Then came the preparation day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. [Ex 12:18–20; Deut 16:5–8; Matt 26:17–19; Mark 14:12–16]

⁸So Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover meal for us, so that we may eat it.”

⁹They asked Him, “Where do You want us to prepare it?”

¹⁰He replied, “When you have entered the city, a man carrying an earthen jar of water will meet you; follow him into the house that he enters.

¹¹“And say to the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher asks, “Where is the guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?”’”

¹²“Then he will show you a large upstairs room, furnished [with carpets and dining couches]; prepare the meal there.”

¹³They left and found it just as He had told them; and they prepared the Passover.

¹⁴When the hour [for the meal] had come, Jesus reclined at the table, and the apostles with Him.

¹⁵He said to them, “I have earnestly wanted to eat this Passover with you before I suffer;

¹⁶for I say to you, I will not eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.”

¹⁷And when He had taken a cup and given thanks, He said, "Take this and share it among yourselves; [Matt 26:26–29; Mark 14:22–25; 1 Cor 11:23–25]

¹⁸for I say to you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine from now on until the kingdom of God comes."

¹⁹And when He had taken bread and given thanks, He broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is My body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of Me."

²⁰And in the same way He took the cup after they had eaten, saying, "This cup, which is poured out for you, is the new covenant [ratified] in My blood.

²¹"But listen, the hand of the one betraying Me is with Mine on the table. [Ps 41:9]

²²"For indeed, the Son of Man is going as it has been determined; but woe (judgment is coming) to that man by whom He is betrayed and handed over!"

²³And they began to discuss among themselves which one of them it might be who was going to do this.

²⁴Now a dispute also arose among them as to which of them was regarded to be the greatest.

²⁵Jesus said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles have absolute power and lord it over them; and those in authority over them are called 'Benefactors.' [Matt 20:25–28; Mark 10:42–45]

²⁶"But it is not to be this way with you; on the contrary, the one who is the greatest among you must become like the youngest [and least privileged], and the [one who is the] leader, like the servant.

²⁷"For who is the greater, the one who reclines at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines at the table? But I am among you as the one who serves.

POWERPOINT

I am always encouraged that there is hope for me when I look at Jesus' disciples and realize that they struggled with many of the same things I do.

In Luke 22:26, we find the disciples arguing over which of them was the greatest. Jesus responded by saying that the greatest was actually the one willing to be considered the least—willing to be a servant. Are you willing to be a servant to the people around you?

²⁸“You are those who have remained and have stood by Me in My trials;

²⁹and just as My Father has granted Me a kingdom, I grant you [the privilege]

³⁰that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

³¹“Simon, Simon (Peter), listen! Satan has demanded permission to sift [all of] you like grain; [Job 1:6–12; Amos 9:9]

³²but I have prayed [especially] for you [Peter], that your faith [and confidence in Me] may not fail; and you, once you have turned back again [to Me], strengthen and support your brothers [in the faith].”

³³And Peter said to Him, “Lord, I am ready to go with You both to prison and to death!” [Matt 26:33–35; Mark 14:29–31; John 13:37, 38]

³⁴Jesus said, “I say to you, Peter, before the rooster crows today, you will [utterly] deny three times that you know Me.”

³⁵And He said to them, “When I sent you out without a money belt and [provision] bag and [extra] sandals, did you lack anything?” They answered, “Nothing.”

³⁶Then He said to them, “But now, he who has a money belt is to take it along, and also his [provision] bag, and he who has no sword is to sell his coat and buy one.

³⁷“For I tell you that this [Scripture] which is written must be completed and fulfilled in Me: ‘AND HE WAS COUNTED WITH THE CRIMINALS’; for that which refers to Me has its fulfillment [and is settled].” [Is 53:12]

³⁸They said, “Lord, look, here are two swords.” And He said to them, “It is enough.”

³⁹And He came out and went, as was His habit, to the Mount of Olives; and the disciples followed Him.

⁴⁰When He arrived at the place [called Gethsemane], He said to them, “Pray continually that you may not fall into temptation.” [Matt 26:36–46; Mark 14:32–42]

⁴¹And He withdrew from them about a stone's throw, and knelt down and prayed,

⁴²saying, "Father, if You are willing, remove this cup [of divine wrath] from Me; yet not My will, but [always] Yours be done."

⁴³Now an angel appeared to Him from heaven, strengthening Him.

⁴⁴And being in agony [deeply distressed and anguished; almost to the point of death], He prayed more intently; and His sweat became like drops of blood, falling down on the ground. [Heb 5:7]

POWERPOINT

We need to learn to pray regularly about areas that we know to be weaknesses for us. Too often we wait until we are in the midst of temptation and find the pressure of it to be more than we can resist. Jesus said that we are to pray continually that we come not into temptation (see Luke 22:40). We will be tempted, but if we pray regularly and prior to the times of temptation as well as in them, we will find ourselves enjoying more victory. Prayer releases God's power into our lives.

⁴⁵When He rose from prayer, He came to the disciples and found them sleeping from sorrow, ⁴⁶and He said to them, “Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray that you may not fall into temptation.”

⁴⁷While He was still speaking, a crowd came, and the man called Judas, one of the twelve [disciples], was leading the way for them. He approached Jesus to kiss Him. [Matt 26:47–56; Mark 14:43–50; John 18:3–11]

⁴⁸And Jesus said to him, “Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?”

⁴⁹When those who were around Him saw what was about to happen, they said, “Lord, should we strike with the sword?”

⁵⁰And one of them struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his right ear. [Matt 26:51; Mark 14:47; John 18:10]

⁵¹But Jesus replied, “Stop! No more of this.” And He touched the ear and healed him.

⁵²Then Jesus said to the chief priests and officers of the temple and elders [of the Sanhedrin] who had come out against Him, “Have you come out with swords and clubs as you would against a robber?

⁵³“Day after day when I was with you in the temple, you did not lay hands on Me; but this hour and the power and authority of darkness are yours.”

⁵⁴Then they seized Him, and led Him away and brought Him to the [elegant] house of the [Jewish] high priest. And Peter was following at a [safe] distance.

⁵⁵After they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and had sat down together, Peter sat among them. [Matt 26:69–75; Mark 14:66–72; John 18:16–18, 25–27]

⁵⁶And a servant-girl, seeing him as he sat in the firelight and looking intently at him, said, “This man was with Him too.”

⁵⁷But Peter denied it, saying, “Woman, I do not know

Him!”

⁵⁸A little later someone else saw him and said, “You are one of them too.” But Peter said, “Man, I am not!”

⁵⁹After about an hour had passed, another man began to insist, “This man was with Him, for he is a Galilean too.”

⁶⁰But Peter said, “Man, I do not know what you are talking about.” Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.

⁶¹The Lord turned and looked at Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had told him, “Before a rooster crows today, you will deny Me three times.”

⁶²And he went out and wept bitterly [deeply grieved and distressed].

⁶³Now the men who were holding Jesus in custody were mocking and ridiculing Him [and treating Him with contempt] and beating Him.

⁶⁴They blindfolded Him and asked, “Prophecy, who is it that struck You?”

⁶⁵And they were saying many other [evil and slanderous] things against Him, blaspheming [speaking sacrilegiously and abusively about] Him.

⁶⁶When day came, the Council of the elders of the people (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) assembled, both chief priests and scribes; and they led Jesus away to the council chamber, saying, ⁶⁷“If You are the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), tell us.” But He said to them, “If I tell you, you will not believe [what I say], ⁶⁸and if I ask a question, you will not answer.

⁶⁹“But from now on, THE SON OF MAN WILL BE SEATED AT THE RIGHT HAND of the power OF GOD.” [Ps 110:1]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Wait Patiently for God

When we are truly trusting God and resting in Him, we do not excessively try to figure out what is going on or think too much about how to solve our problems. When we trust God, our minds can rest, our wills want what God wants for us, and our emotions are calm as we wait for God's answers. We do not try to make anything happen in our own strength; we wait for God to move on our behalf.

As we wait on God, we learn to develop the attitude Jesus demonstrated in the Garden of Gethsemane: "Father, if You are willing, remove this cup [of divine wrath] from Me; yet not My will, but [always] Yours be done" (Luke 22:42). That's the place we need to come to in our spiritual lives. We need to reach the point where we can say, "God, I don't like this; this hurts. This is not what I had planned, not what I wanted. And God, I'd like You to take this away, but if that's not Your plan, then give me the grace to endure it."

We find great peace and enter into supernatural rest when we are finally able to surrender everything to God. Life becomes much easier when we sincerely believe God is in control, when we trust that He is working everything for our good (see Rom. 8:28), and when we patiently wait on Him.

⁷⁰And they all said, "Are You the Son of God, then?" He replied, “It is just as you say.”

⁷¹Then they asked, “What further need of testimony do we have? For we ourselves have heard it from His own mouth.”

23 THEN THE whole assembly got up and brought Him before Pilate.

²They began to accuse Jesus, asserting, “We found this Man misleading and perverting our nation and forbidding us to pay taxes to Caesar, and claiming that He Himself is Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), a King.” [Matt 27:11–14; Mark 15:2–5; John 18:29–37]

³So Pilate asked Him, “Are You the King of the Jews?” And He answered him, “It is just as you say.”

⁴Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, “I find no guilt in this Man.”

⁵But they were insistent and said, “He stirs up the people [to rebel], teaching throughout Judea, starting from Galilee even as far as here [in Jerusalem].”

⁶When Pilate heard it, he asked whether the man was a Galilean.

⁷And when he learned that He belonged to the jurisdiction of Herod [Antipas, the tetrarch of Galilee], he sent Him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time.

⁸When Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly pleased. He had wanted to see Him for a long time because of what he had heard about Him, and was hoping to see some [miraculous] sign [even something spectacular] done by Him.

⁹And he questioned Him at some length, but Jesus made no reply. [Is 53:7]

¹⁰The chief priests and the scribes were standing there, continually accusing Him heatedly.

¹¹And Herod with his soldiers, after treating Him with contempt and mocking and ridiculing Him, dressed Him in a gorgeous robe and sent Him back to Pilate. [Is 53:8]

¹²Now that very day Herod and Pilate became friends with each other—before this they had been enemies.

¹³Pilate summoned the chief priests and the rulers and the people, ¹⁴and said to them, “You brought this man before me as one who corrupts and incites the people to rebellion. After examining Him before you, I have found no guilt in this Man regarding the charges which you make against Him.

¹⁵“No, nor has Herod, for he sent Him back to us; and indeed, He has done nothing to deserve death.

¹⁶“Therefore I will punish Him [to teach Him a lesson] and release Him.”

¹⁷[Now he was obligated to release to them one prisoner at the Feast.]

¹⁸But they [loudly] shouted out all together, saying, “Away with this Man, and release Barabbas to us!” [Matt 27:15–26; Mark 15:6–15; John 18:39–19:16]

¹⁹(He was one who had been thrown into prison for an insurrection that happened in the city, and for murder.)

²⁰Pilate addressed them again, wanting to release Jesus,

²¹but they kept shouting out, “Crucify, crucify Him!”

²²A third time he said to them, “Why, what wrong has He done? I have found no guilt [no crime, no offense] in Him demanding death; therefore I will punish Him [to teach Him a lesson] and release Him.”

²³But they were insistent and unrelenting, demanding with loud voices that Jesus be crucified. And their voices began to prevail and accomplish their purpose.

²⁴Pilate pronounced sentence that their demand be granted.

²⁵And he released the man they were asking for who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, but he handed over Jesus to their will.

²⁶When they led Him away, they seized a man, Simon of Cyrene, who was coming in [to the city] from the country, and placed on him the cross to carry behind Jesus. [Matt 27:32; Mark 15:21]

²⁷Following Him was a large crowd of the people, including women who were mourning and wailing for Him.

²⁸But Jesus, turning toward them, said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.

²⁹“For behold, the days are coming when they will say, ‘Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that have not given birth, and the breasts that have never nursed.’

³⁰“Then they will begin TO SAY TO THE MOUNTAINS, ‘FALL ON US!’ AND TO THE HILLS, ‘COVER US!’ [Is 2:19, 20; Hos 10:8; Rev 6:16]

³¹“For if they do these things when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?”

³²Two others also, who were criminals, were being led away to be executed with Him. [Is 53:12]

³³When they came to the place called The Skull, there they crucified Him and the criminals, one on the right and one on the left. [Matt 27:33–44; Mark 15:22–32; John 19:17–24]

³⁴And Jesus was saying, “Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.” And they cast lots, dividing His clothes among themselves. [Ps 22:18]

³⁵Now the people stood by, watching; but even the rulers ridiculed and sneered at Him, saying, “He saved others [from death]; let Him save Himself if He is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) of God, His Chosen One.”

³⁶The soldiers also mocked Him, coming up to Him and [cruelly] offering Him sour wine, [Ps 69:21; Matt 27:48; Mark 15:36f; John 19:29, 30]

³⁷and sarcastically saying, “If you are [really] the King of the Jews, save Yourself [from death]!”

³⁸Now there was also an inscription above Him: “THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.”

³⁹One of the criminals who had been hanged [on a cross beside Him] kept hurling abuse at Him, saying, “Are You not the Christ? Save Yourself and us [from death]!”

⁴⁰But the other one rebuked him, saying, “Do you not even fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation?

⁴¹“We are suffering justly, because we are getting what we deserve for what we have done; but this Man has done nothing wrong.”

⁴²And he was saying, “Jesus, [please] remember me when You come into Your kingdom!”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Speak Well of Your Enemies

Jesus said, “Bless and show kindness to those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you” (Luke 6:28). To bless means “to speak well of.” When someone has hurt you, you can refuse to speak evil about them even if you’re tempted to do so. You can also bless them by talking about their good qualities and the good things they have done.

Speaking well of someone who has hurt you is probably the last thing you feel like doing, but it is a mark of spiritual maturity. It puts you on the road less traveled, the one Jesus Himself traveled. Don’t forget that one of the last things He did was to forgive those who didn’t deserve forgiveness, and He did it while hanging on a cross being crucified (see Luke 23:34, 43). Forgiving our enemies and refusing to speak evil of them shows our willingness to obey God and releases blessings into our lives.

⁴³Jesus said to him, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, today you will be with Me in Paradise.” [2 Cor 12:4; Rev 2:7]

⁴⁴It was now about the sixth hour (noon), and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour (3:00 p.m.), [Matt 27:45–56; Mark 15:33–41; John 19:14]

⁴⁵because the sun was obscured; and the veil [of the Holy of Holies] of the temple was torn in two [from top to bottom]. [Ex 26:31–35]

⁴⁶And Jesus, crying out with a loud voice, said, “Father, INTO YOUR HANDS I COMMIT MY SPIRIT!” Having said this, He breathed His last. [Ps 31:5]

⁴⁷Now when the centurion saw what had taken place, he began praising and honoring God, saying, “Certainly this Man was innocent.”

⁴⁸All the crowds who had gathered for this spectacle, when they saw what had happened, began to return [to their homes], beating their breasts [as a sign of mourning or repentance].

⁴⁹And all His acquaintances and the women who had accompanied Him from Galilee were standing at a distance, watching these things.

⁵⁰A man named Joseph, who was a member of the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), a good and honorable man [Matt 27:57–61; Mark 15:42–47; John 19:38–42]

⁵¹(he had not consented to the Council’s plan and action) a man from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, who was waiting for and expecting the kingdom of God; ⁵²this man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

⁵³And [after receiving permission] he took it down and wrapped it in a linen [burial] cloth and laid Him in a tomb cut into the rock, where no one had yet been laid.

⁵⁴It was the day of preparation [for the Sabbath], and the Sabbath was dawning.

⁵⁵Now the women who had come with Him from Galilee followed [closely], and saw the tomb and how His body was laid.

⁵⁶Then they went back and prepared spices and ointments and sweet-smelling herbs.

And on the Sabbath they rested in accordance with the commandment [forbidding work]. [Ex 12:16; 20:10]

24 BUT ON the first day of the week, at early dawn, the women went to the tomb bringing the spices which they had prepared [to finish anointing the body]. [Matt 28:1–8; Mark 16:1–8; John 20:1–8]

²And they found the [large, circular] stone rolled back from the tomb, ³but when they went inside, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

⁴While they were perplexed and wondering about this, suddenly, two men in dazzling clothing stood near them;

⁵and as the women were terrified and were bowing their faces to the ground, the men said to them, “Why are you looking for the living One among the dead?

⁶“He is not here, but has risen. Remember how He told you, while He was still in Galilee, ⁷saying that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinful men, and be crucified, and on the third day rise [from death to life].” [Ps 16:10]

⁸And they remembered His words,

⁹and after returning from the tomb, they reported all these things to the eleven [apostles] and to all the rest.

¹⁰Now they were Mary Magdalene and Joanna [the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward] and Mary the mother of James; also the other women with them were telling these things to the apostles.

¹¹But their report seemed to them like idle talk and nonsense, and they would not believe them.

¹²But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping [at the small entrance] and looking in, he saw only the linen wrappings; and he went away, wondering about what had happened. [John 20:3–6]

¹³And then, that very day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, which was about *seven miles from Jerusalem. [Mark 16:12]

¹⁴And they were talking with each other about all these things which had taken place.

¹⁵While they were talking and discussing it, Jesus Himself came up and began walking with them.

¹⁶But their eyes were [miraculously] prevented from recognizing Him.

¹⁷Then Jesus asked them, "What are you discussing with one another as you walk along?" And they stood still, looking brokenhearted.

¹⁸One of them, named Cleopas, answered Him, "Are you the only stranger visiting Jerusalem who is unaware of the things which have happened here in these [recent] days?"

¹⁹He asked, "What things?" And they replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet powerful in deed and word in the sight of God and all the people,²⁰ and how the chief priests and our rulers handed Him over to be sentenced to death, and crucified Him.

²¹“But we were hoping that it was He who was going to redeem Israel and set our nation free. Indeed, besides all this, it is the third day since these things happened.

²²“And also some of the women among us shocked us. They were at the tomb early in the morning, ²³and they did not find His body. Then they came back, saying that they had even seen a vision of angels who said that He was alive!

²⁴“Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just exactly as the women had said, but they did not see Him.”

²⁵Then Jesus said to them, “O foolish men, and slow of heart to trust and believe in everything that the prophets have spoken!

²⁶“Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things and [only then to] enter His glory?”

²⁷Then beginning with Moses and [throughout] all the [writings of the] prophets, He explained and interpreted for them the things referring to Himself [found] in all the Scriptures.

²⁸Then they approached the village where they were going, and He acted as if He were going farther.

²⁹But they urged Him [not to go on], saying, “Stay with us, because it is almost evening, and the day has just about ended.” So He went inside to stay with them.

³⁰And it happened that as He reclined at the table with them, He took the bread and blessed it, and breaking it, He began giving it to them.

³¹Then their eyes were [suddenly] opened [by God] and they [clearly] recognized Him; and He vanished from their sight.

³²They said to one another, “Were not our hearts burning within us while He was talking with us on the road and opening the Scriptures to us?”

³³They got up that very hour and went back to Jerusalem, and found the eleven [apostles] gathered together and those who were with them, ³⁴saying, “The Lord has really risen and has appeared to Simon [Peter]!”

³⁵They began describing in detail what had happened on the road, and how Jesus was recognized by them when He broke the bread.

³⁶While they were talking about this, Jesus Himself [suddenly] stood among them and said to them, “Peace be to you.”

³⁷But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a spirit.

³⁸And He said, “Why are you troubled, and why are doubts rising in your hearts?”

³⁹“Look at [the marks in] My hands and My feet, [and see] that it is I Myself. Touch Me and see; a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see that I have.” [John 20:20–27]

⁴⁰After saying this, He showed them His hands and His feet.

⁴¹While they still did not believe it because of their joy and amazement, He asked them, “Do you have anything here to eat?”

⁴²They gave Him a piece of broiled fish,

⁴³and He took it and ate it in front of them. [Acts 10:40, 41]

⁴⁴Then He said to them, “This is what I told you while I was still with you, everything which has been written about Me in the Law of Moses and the [writings of the] Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled.”

⁴⁵Then He opened their minds to [help them] understand the Scriptures, ⁴⁶and said, “And so it is written, that the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, [Hos 6:2]

⁴⁷and that repentance [necessary] for forgiveness of sins would be preached in His name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

⁴⁸“You are witnesses of these things.

⁴⁹“Listen carefully: I am sending the Promise of My Father [the Holy Spirit] upon you; but you are to remain in the city [of Jerusalem] until you are clothed (fully equipped) with power from on high.” [John 14:26; Acts 1:4]

⁵⁰Then He led them out as far as Bethany, and lifted up His hands and blessed them. [Matt 21:17; Acts 1:9–12]

⁵¹While He was blessing them, He left them and was taken up into heaven.

⁵²And they worshiped Him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy [fully understanding that He lives and that He is the Son of God];

⁵³and they were continually in the temple blessing and praising God.

John's Gospel describes the enemy more fully than any other Gospel. He notes the enemy's goal and purpose in our lives: "to steal and kill and destroy" (John 10:10). He also writes that the enemy "does not stand in the truth because there is no truth in him" (John 8:44). By simply reading John's Gospel, we gain great understanding of our enemy; he is a thief, a murderer, a destroyer, and a liar. Knowing these things about him should help us to recognize his attempts to work in our minds and make us eager to also know how to defeat him. John speaks about truth and how powerful it is in our lives. Meditating (thinking) on the truth of God's Word is vital for victory in life.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM JOHN:

Satan wants to keep things hidden in darkness, but Jesus is the Light and shines in the darkness (see John 1:4–5).

When you don't know what to do, trust the Holy Spirit to guide you into full and complete truth (see John 16:13).

Jesus does not remove all opposition from us, but He gives us peace as we go through the storms of life (see John 16:33).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM JOHN:

The words I have spoken to you are spirit and life [providing eternal life]. | John 6:63

Do not let your heart be troubled (afraid, cowardly). Believe [confidently] in God and trust in Him, [have faith, hold on to it, rely on it, keep going and] believe also in Me. | John 14:1

I am the [only] Way [to God] and the [real] Truth and the [real] Life; no one comes to the Father but through Me. | John 14:6

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

JOHN

1 IN THE beginning [before all time] was the Word (Christ), and the Word was with God, and the Word was God Himself. [Gen 1:1; Is 9:6]

²He was [continually existing] in the beginning [co-eternally] with God.

³All things were made and came into existence through Him; and without Him not even one thing was made that has come into being.

⁴In Him was life [and the power to bestow life], and the life was the Light of men.

⁵The Light shines on in the darkness, and the darkness did not understand it or overpower it or appropriate it or absorb it [and is unreceptive to it]. [Gen 1:3]

⁶There came a man commissioned and sent from God, whose name was John. [Mal 3:1]

⁷This man came as a witness, to testify about the Light, so that all might believe [in Christ, the Light] through him.

⁸John was not the Light, but came to testify about the Light.

⁹There it was—the true Light [the genuine, perfect, steadfast Light] which, coming into the world, enlightens everyone. [Is 49:6]

¹⁰He (Christ) was in the world, and though the world was made through Him, the world did not recognize Him.

¹¹He came to that which was His own [that which belonged to Him—His world, His creation, His possession], and those who were His own [people—the Jewish nation] did not receive and welcome Him.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*Thank You, Jesus, for becoming flesh and living among us. You are wonderful!
You are full of grace and truth, absolutely free of deception.*

• adapted from John 1:14

¹²But to as many as did receive and welcome Him, He gave the right [the authority, the privilege] to become children of God, that is, to those who believe in (adhere to, trust in, and rely on) His name—[Is 56:5]

¹³who were born, not of blood [natural conception], nor of the will of the flesh [physical impulse], nor of the will of man [that of a natural father], but of God [that is, a divine and supernatural birth—they are born of God—spiritually transformed, renewed, sanctified].

¹⁴And the Word (Christ) became flesh, and lived among us; and we [actually] saw His glory, glory as belongs to the [One and] only begotten Son of the Father, [the Son who is truly unique, the only One of His kind, who is] full of grace and truth (absolutely free of deception). [Is 40:5]

¹⁵John testified [repeatedly] about Him and has cried out [testifying officially for the record, with validity and relevance], “This was He of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me has a higher rank than I and has priority over me, for He existed before me.’”

¹⁶For out of His fullness [the superabundance of His grace and truth] we have all received grace upon grace [spiritual blessing upon spiritual blessing, favor upon favor, and gift heaped upon gift].

¹⁷For the Law was given through Moses, but grace [the unearned, undeserved favor of God] and truth came through Jesus Christ. [Ex 20:1]

¹⁸No one has seen God [His essence, His divine nature] at any time; the [One and] only begotten God [that is, the unique Son] who is in the intimate presence of the Father, He has explained Him [and interpreted and revealed the awesome wonder of the Father]. [Prov 8:30]

POWERPOINT

John 1:16 shows us how much God wants to give to us —“favor upon favor” and “gift heaped upon gift.” He desires to show His love for us in tangible ways, and we need to learn to receive His blessings with joy and thanksgiving. God is a giver, and He wants us to pass along to others what He freely gives to us. But before we can share His blessings with others, we have to receive them from Him. If we cannot receive from Him, we interrupt the cycle of giving before it is complete.

¹⁹This is the testimony of John [the Baptist] when the Jews sent priests and Levites to him from Jerusalem to ask him, “Who are you?”

²⁰And he confessed [truthfully] and did not deny [that he was only a man], but acknowledged, “I am not the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed).”

²¹They asked him, “What then? Are you Elijah?” And he said, “I am not.” “Are you the [promised] Prophet?” And he answered, “No.” [Deut 18:15, 18; Mal 4:5]

²²Then they said to him, “Who are you? Tell us, so that we may give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?”

²³He said, “I am THE VOICE OF ONE SHOUTING IN THE WILDERNESS, ‘MAKE STRAIGHT THE WAY OF THE LORD,’ as the prophet Isaiah said.” [Is 40:3]

²⁴Now they had been sent from the Pharisees.

²⁵They asked him, “Why then are you baptizing, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?”

²⁶John answered them, “I baptize [only] in water, but among you there stands One whom you do not recognize and of whom you know nothing. [Mal 3:1]

²⁷“It is He [the preeminent One] who comes after me, the strap of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie [even as His slave].”

²⁸These things occurred in Bethany across the Jordan [at the Jordan River crossing], where John was baptizing.

²⁹The next day he saw Jesus coming to him and said, “Look! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! [Ex 12:3; Is 53:7]

³⁰“This is He on behalf of whom I said, ‘After me comes a Man who has a higher rank than I and has priority over me, for

He existed before me.’

³¹“I did not recognize Him [as the Messiah]; but I came baptizing in water so that He would be [publicly] revealed to Israel.”

³²John gave [further] evidence [testifying officially for the record, with validity and relevance], saying, “I have seen the Spirit descending as a dove out of heaven, and He remained upon Him. [Matt 3:13–17; Mark 1:9–11; Luke 3:22, 23]

³³“I did not recognize Him [as the Messiah], but He who sent me to baptize in water said to me, ‘He upon whom you see the Spirit descend and remain, this One is He who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.’

³⁴“I myself have [actually] seen [that happen], and my testimony is that this is the Son of God!”

³⁵Again the next day John was standing with two of his disciples, ³⁶and he looked at Jesus as He walked along, and said, “Look! The Lamb of God!”

³⁷The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus.

³⁸And Jesus turned and saw them following Him, and asked them, “What do you want?” They answered Him, “Rabbi (which translated means Teacher), where are You staying?”

³⁹He said to them, “Come, and you will see.” So they went [with Him] and saw where He was staying; and they stayed with Him that day, for it was about the tenth hour.

⁴⁰One of the two who heard what John said and [as a result] followed Jesus was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother.

⁴¹He first looked for and found his own brother Simon and told him, “We have found the Messiah” (which translated means the Christ).

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Do Whatever He Says

The way to live an overcoming life is to be diligent to do whatever God leads you to do. Obedience is a necessary key to victory and shows that we have faith in God. When God told Moses to strike the rock and water would come out, Moses became angry and struck the rock twice instead of once, as God had instructed him. God then told Moses that he had not honored Him in front of the Israelites by doing exactly as He had directed. For that reason, Moses would not be the one to lead the Israelites into the Promised Land (see Num. 20:8–12).

True faith does what God asks. When Jesus' mother noticed that more wine was needed at the wedding they attended at Cana, she told the servants, "Whatever He says to you, do it" (John 2:5). They needed a miracle for the wedding to proceed as expected, and in order to experience the miracle, they had to do exactly as Jesus said.

If we hear God's Word and do not obey, we deceive ourselves (see James 1:22). An obedient response to whatever God says is a requirement for victory to take place. I encourage you to always believe God's Word, trust God's Word, and obey God's Word.

⁴²Andrew brought Simon to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, “You are Simon the son of John. You shall be called Cephas (which is translated Peter).”

⁴³The next day Jesus decided to go into Galilee, and He found Philip and said to him, “Follow Me [as My disciple, accepting Me as your Master and Teacher, and walking the same path of life that I walk].”

⁴⁴Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

⁴⁵Philip found Nathanael and told him, “We have found the One Moses in the Law and also the Prophets wrote about—Jesus from Nazareth, the son of Joseph [according to public record].”

⁴⁶Nathanael answered him, “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” Philip replied, “Come and see.”

⁴⁷Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward Him, and said of him, “Here is an Israelite indeed [a true descendant of Jacob], in whom there is no guile nor deceit nor duplicity!”

⁴⁸Nathanael said to Jesus, “How do You know [these things about] me?” Jesus answered, “Before Philip called you, when you were still under the fig tree, I saw you.”

⁴⁹Nathanael answered, “Rabbi (Teacher), You are the Son of God; You are the King of Israel.”

⁵⁰Jesus replied, “Because I said to you that I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe [in Me]? You will see greater things than this.”

⁵¹Then He said to him, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man [the bridge between heaven and earth].” [Gen 28:12; Dan 7:13]

2 ON THE third day there was a wedding at Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there; ²and both Jesus and His disciples were invited to the wedding.

³When the wine was all gone, the mother of Jesus said to Him, “They have no more wine.”

⁴Jesus said to her, “[Dear] woman, what is that to you and to Me? My time [to act and to be revealed] has not yet come.” [Eccl 3:1]

⁵His mother said to the servants, “Whatever He says to you, do it.”

⁶Now there were six stone waterpots set there for the Jewish custom of purification (ceremonial washing), containing twenty or thirty gallons each.

⁷Jesus said to the servants, “Fill the waterpots with water.” So they filled them up to the brim.

⁸Then He said to them, “Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter [of the banquet].” So they took it to him.

⁹And when the headwaiter tasted the water which had turned into wine, not knowing where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew) he called the bridegroom, ¹⁰and said to him, “Everyone else serves his best wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then he serves that which is not so good; but you have kept back the good wine until now.”

¹¹This, the first of His signs (attesting miracles), Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and revealed His glory [displaying His deity and His great power openly], and His disciples believed [confidently] in Him [as the Messiah—they adhered to, trusted in, and relied on Him]. [Deut 5:24; Ps 72:19]

¹²After this He went down to Capernaum, He and His mother and brothers and His disciples; and they stayed there a few days.

¹³Now the Passover of the Jews was approaching, so Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

¹⁴And in the temple [enclosure] He found the people who were selling oxen and sheep and doves, and the money changers sitting at their tables. [Matt 21:12ff; Mark 11:15, 17]

¹⁵He made a whip of cords, and drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and the oxen; and He scattered the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables; ¹⁶then to those who sold the doves He said, “Take these things away! Stop making My Father’s house a place of commerce!” [Ps 93:5]

¹⁷His disciples remembered that it is written [in the Scriptures], “ZEAL (love, concern) FOR YOUR HOUSE [and its honor] WILL CONSUME ME.” [Ps 69:9]

¹⁸Then the Jews retorted, “What sign (attesting miracle) can You show us as [proof of] your authority for doing these things?”

¹⁹Jesus answered them, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.”

²⁰Then the Jews replied, “It took forty-six years to build this temple, and You will raise it up in three days?”

²¹But He was speaking of the temple which was His body.

²²So when He had risen from the dead, His disciples remembered what He had said. And they believed and trusted in and relied on the Scripture and the words that Jesus had spoken. [Ps 16:10]

²³Now when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover feast, many believed in His name [identifying themselves with Him] after seeing His signs (attesting miracles) which He was doing.

²⁴But Jesus, for His part, did not entrust Himself to them, because He knew all people [and understood the superficiality and fickleness of human nature], ²⁵and He did not need anyone to testify concerning man [and human nature], for He Himself knew what was in man [in their hearts—in the very core of their being]. [1 Sam 16:7]

3 NOW THERE was a certain man among the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler (member of the Sanhedrin) among the Jews, ²who came to Jesus at night and said to Him, “Rabbi (Teacher), we know [without any doubt] that You have come from God as a teacher; for no one can do these signs [these wonders, these attesting miracles] that You do unless God is with him.”

³Jesus answered him, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, unless a person is born again [reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, sanctified], he cannot [ever] see and experience the kingdom of God.”

⁴Nicodemus said to Him, “How can a man be born when he is old? He cannot enter his mother’s womb a second time and be born, can he?”

⁵Jesus answered, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit he cannot [ever] enter the kingdom of God. [Ezek 36:25–27]

⁶“That which is born of the flesh is flesh [the physical is merely physical], and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

⁷“Do not be surprised that I have told you, ‘You must be born again [reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, sanctified].’

⁸“The wind blows where it wishes and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it is coming from and where it is going; so it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.”

⁹Nicodemus said to Him, “How can these things be possible?”

¹⁰Jesus replied, “You are the [great and well-known] teacher of Israel, and yet you do not know nor understand these things [from Scripture]?”

¹¹“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, we speak only of what we [absolutely] know and testify about what we have [actually] seen [as eyewitnesses]; and [still] you [reject our evidence and] do not accept our testimony.

¹²“If I told you earthly things [that is, things that happen right here on earth] and you do not believe, how will you believe and trust Me if I tell you heavenly things?

¹³“No one has gone up into heaven, but there is One who came down from heaven, the Son of Man [Himself—whose home is in heaven].

¹⁴“Just as Moses lifted up the [bronze] serpent in the desert [on a pole], so must the Son of Man be lifted up [on the cross], [Num 21:9]

¹⁵so that whoever believes will in Him have eternal life [after physical death, and will actually live forever].

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Father, for so greatly loving and dearly prizing the world, that You gave Your One and only begotten Son, so that whoever believes and trusts in Him as Savior shall not perish, but have eternal life.

• adapted from John 3:16

POWERPOINT

God loves us whether or not we ever love Him back, and that is a totally different kind of love than what we normally think love is. Romantic love, parental love, and the love we have for friends are all based, at least in part, on what others do for us and on how they treat us.

God's amazing and unconditional love for us is based on who He is. God's love is defined in John 3:16, "For God so [greatly] loved and dearly prized the world, that He [even] gave His [One and] only begotten Son." God sacrificed His own Son so we could be forgiven of our sins, live in intimate relationship with Him, and have eternal life.

¹⁶“For God so [greatly] loved and dearly prized the world, that He [even] gave His [One and] only begotten Son, so that whoever believes and trusts in Him [as Savior] shall not perish, but have eternal life.

¹⁷“For God did not send the Son into the world to judge and condemn the world [that is, to initiate the final judgment of the world], but that the world might be saved through Him.

¹⁸“Whoever believes and has decided to trust in Him [as personal Savior and Lord] is not judged [for this one, there is no judgment, no rejection, no condemnation]; but the one who does not believe [and has decided to reject Him as personal Savior and Lord] is judged already [that one has been convicted and sentenced], because he has not believed and trusted in the name of the [One and] only begotten Son of God [the One who is truly unique, the only One of His kind, the One who alone can save him].

¹⁹“This is the judgment [that is, the cause for indictment, the test by which people are judged, the basis for the sentence]: the Light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the Light, for their deeds were evil. [Is 5:20]

Speak God's Word

I know that God did not send the Son into the world to judge and condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through Him.

| adapted from JOHN 3:17 |

²⁰“For every wrongdoer hates the Light, and does not come to the Light [but shrinks from it] for fear that his [sinful, worthless] activities will be exposed and condemned.

²¹“But whoever practices truth [and does what is right—morally, ethically, spiritually] comes to the Light, so that his works may be plainly shown to be what they are—accomplished in God [divinely prompted, done with God’s help, in dependence on Him].”

²²After these things Jesus and His disciples went into the land of Judea, and there He spent time with them and baptized. [John 4:1, 2]

²³Now John was also baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because there was an abundance of water there; and people were coming and were being baptized—²⁴for John had not yet been thrown into prison.

²⁵Therefore there arose a controversy between John's disciples and a Jew in regard to purification (ceremonial washing).

²⁶So they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi (Teacher), the Man who was with you on the other side of the Jordan [at the Jordan River crossing]—and to whom you have testified—look, He is baptizing too, and everyone is going to Him!"

²⁷John replied, "A man can receive nothing [he can claim nothing at all] unless it has been granted to him from heaven [for there is no other source than the sovereign will of God].

²⁸"You yourselves are my witnesses that I stated, 'I am not the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed),' but, 'I have [only] been sent ahead of Him [as His appointed forerunner and messenger to announce and proclaim His coming].' [Mal 3:1]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Faith, Not Works

John 3:18 teaches us that we are accepted by God because we believe in His Son, Jesus, and not because of any good works we do. As believers, we will never come up for judgment, but those who don't believe have already been convicted and are living out their sentence.

As long as we believe that our acceptance from God comes as a result of our own good works, we will always struggle and experience guilt and condemnation. Why? Simply because we cannot perform perfectly. We make mistakes, and no matter how hard we try to be good all the time, it never happens. If God's love and acceptance were based on our own efforts, He would love us and approve of us only when we do what is right; and when we do something wrong, He would have to reject us.

We would then feel the need to make sacrifices or to think we need to be punished in some way. Thankfully, God's love isn't based on what we "do," but on our faith in Jesus. We are God's children, and because of His great love, grace, and mercy, He forgives our sins and loves us as if we had never sinned.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Be Content with What God Gives You

John the Baptist came to tell people to “MAKE STRAIGHT THE WAY OF THE LORD” (John 1:23). That was his purpose on earth, and he knew it. Meanwhile, John’s disciples tried to make John jealous of Jesus’ ministry by saying, “He is baptizing too, and everyone is going to Him!” (John 3:26).

John responded by basically saying, “If He is doing that, then God has anointed Him to do it, and it’s His time to do it. God gave me the gift of being His messenger, and if my time’s up, then my time’s up and this pleasure and joy of mine is now complete! He must increase, but I must decrease” (see John 3:27–30). God doesn’t want you to be jealous of the gifts He has given others. He wants you to enjoy and be content with the gifts He has given you.

²⁹“He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands by and listens to him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom’s voice. So this pleasure and joy of mine is now complete. [Song 5:1]

³⁰“He must increase [in prominence], but I must decrease. [Is 9:7] ³¹“He who comes from [heaven] above is above all others; he who is of the earth is from the earth and speaks [about things] of the earth [his viewpoint and experience are earthly].

He who comes from heaven is above all.

³²“What He has [actually] seen and heard, of that He testifies; and yet no one accepts His testimony [as true].

³³“Whoever receives His testimony has set his seal [of approval] to this: God is true [and he knows that God cannot lie].

³⁴“For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God [proclaiming the Father’s own message]; for God gives the [gift of the] Spirit without measure [generously and boundlessly]! [Deut 18:18]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, God, for giving the gift of the Spirit without measure, generously and boundlessly.

• adapted from John 3:34

³⁵“The Father loves the Son and has given and entrusted all things into His hand. [Dan 7:14]

³⁶“He who believes and trusts in the Son and accepts Him [as Savior] has eternal life [that is, already possesses it]; but he who does not believe the Son and chooses to reject Him, [disobeying Him and denying Him as Savior] will not see [eternal] life, but [instead] the wrath of God hangs over him continually.” [Heb 3:18]

4 SO WHEN the Lord learned that the Pharisees had been told that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John ²(although Jesus Himself was not baptizing, but His disciples were), ³He left Judea and returned again to Galilee.

⁴Now He had to go through Samaria.

⁵So He arrived at a Samaritan town called Sychar, near the tract of land that Jacob gave to his son Joseph;

⁶and Jacob’s well was there. So Jesus, tired as He was from His journey, sat down by the well. It was then about the sixth hour (noon).

⁷Then a woman from Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, “Give Me a drink”—

⁸For His disciples had gone off into the city to buy food—

⁹The Samaritan woman asked Him, “How is it that You, being a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?” (For Jews have nothing to do with Samaritans.) ¹⁰Jesus answered her, “If you knew [about] God’s gift [of eternal life], and who it is who says, ‘Give Me a drink,’ you would have asked Him [instead], and He would have given you living water (eternal life).”

¹¹She said to Him, “Sir, You have nothing to draw with [no bucket and rope] and the well is deep. Where then do You get that living water?”

¹²“Are You greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and who used to drink from it himself, and his sons and his cattle also?”

¹³Jesus answered her, “Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again.

¹⁴“But whoever drinks the water that I give him will never be thirsty again. But the water that I give him will become in him a spring of water [satisfying his thirst for God] welling up [continually flowing, bubbling within him] to eternal life.”

¹⁵The woman said to Him, “Sir, give me this water, so that I will not get thirsty nor [have to continually] come all the way here to draw.”

¹⁶At this, Jesus said, “Go, call your husband and come back.”

¹⁷The woman answered, “I do not have a husband.” Jesus said to her, “You have correctly said, ‘I do not have a husband’;

¹⁸for you have had five husbands, and the man you are now living with is not your husband. You have said this truthfully.”

¹⁹The woman said to Him, “Sir, I see that You are a prophet.

²⁰“Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you Jews say that the place where one ought to worship is in Jerusalem [at the temple].”

²¹Jesus replied, “Woman, believe Me, a time is coming [when God’s kingdom comes] when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.

²²“You [Samaritans] do not know what you worship; we [Jews] do know what we worship, for salvation is from the Jews.

²³“But a time is coming and is already here when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit [from the heart, the inner self] and in truth; for the Father seeks such people to be His worshipers.

²⁴“God is spirit [the Source of life, yet invisible to mankind], and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

True Worship

Worship is so much more than singing songs. It is a condition of the heart and a state of mind. Our worship for God is born in our hearts, it fills our thoughts, and it is expressed through our words and actions. Worship is about a personal relationship, spiritual intimacy, and passionate expressions of devotion to God from people who love Him with all their hearts.

The Bible says that God the Father is seeking those who genuinely worship Him in spirit and in truth (see John 4:23). He wants us to worship Him in all that we do and from sincerely devoted hearts. He does not want to be worshiped out of fear, obligation, or religion. True worship is never the result of mere obligation; it is a result of intimacy with God.

²⁵The woman said to Him, “I know that Messiah is coming (He who is called Christ—the Anointed); when that One comes, He will tell us everything [we need to know].”

²⁶Jesus said to her, “I who speak to you, am He (the Messiah).”

²⁷Just then His disciples came, and they were surprised to find Him talking with a woman. However, no one said, “What are You asking about?” or, “Why are You talking to her?”

²⁸Then the woman left her water jar, and went into the city and began telling the people,

²⁹“Come, see a man who told me all the things that I have done! Can this be the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed)?”

³⁰So the people left the city and were coming to Him.

³¹Meanwhile, the disciples were urging Jesus [to have a meal], saying, “Rabbi (Teacher), eat.”

³²But He told them, “I have food to eat that you do not know about.”

³³So the disciples said to one another, “Has anyone brought Him something to eat?”

³⁴Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me and to completely finish His work.

³⁵“Do you not say, ‘It is still four months until the harvest comes?’ Look, I say to you, raise your eyes and look at the fields and see, they are white for harvest.

³⁶“Already the reaper is receiving his wages and he is gathering fruit for eternal life; so that he who plants and he who reaps may rejoice together.

³⁷“For in this case the saying is true, ‘One [person] sows and another reaps.’

³⁸“I sent you to reap [a crop] for which you have not worked. Others have worked and you have been privileged to reap the results of their work.”

³⁹Now many Samaritans from that city believed in Him and trusted Him [as Savior] because of what the woman said when she testified, “He told me all the things that I have done.”

⁴⁰So when the Samaritans came to Jesus, they asked Him to remain with them; and He stayed there two days.

⁴¹Many more believed in Him [with a deep, abiding trust] because of His word [His personal message to them];

⁴²and they told the woman, “We no longer believe just because of what you said; for [now] we have heard Him for ourselves and know [with confident assurance] that this One is truly the Savior of [all] the world.”

⁴³After the two days He went on from there into Galilee.

⁴⁴For Jesus Himself declared that a prophet has no honor in his own country.

⁴⁵So when He arrived in Galilee, the Galileans welcomed Him, since they had seen all the things that He did in Jerusalem at the feast; for they too came to the feast.

⁴⁶So Jesus came again to Cana of Galilee, where He had turned the water into wine. And there was a certain royal official whose son was sick in Capernaum.

⁴⁷Having heard that Jesus had come back from Judea to Galilee, he went to meet Him and began asking Him to come down and heal his son; for he was at the point of death.

⁴⁸Then Jesus said to him, “Unless you [people] see [miraculous] signs and wonders, you [simply] will not believe.”

⁴⁹The royal official pleaded with Him, “Sir, do come down [at once] before my child dies!”

⁵⁰Jesus said to him, “Go; your son lives!” The man believed what Jesus said to him and started home.

⁵¹As he was already going down [the road], his servants met him and reported that his son was living [and was healthy].

⁵²So he asked them at what time he began to get better. They said, “Yesterday during the seventh hour the fever left him.”

⁵³Then the father realized that it was at that very hour when Jesus had said to him, “Your son lives”; and he and his entire household believed and confidently trusted [in Him as Savior].

⁵⁴This is the second sign (attesting miracle) that Jesus performed [in Cana] after He had come from Judea to Galilee [revealing that He is the Messiah].

5 LATER ON there was a Jewish feast (festival), and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

²Now in Jerusalem, near the Sheep Gate, there is a pool, which is called in Hebrew (Jewish Aramaic) Bethesda, having five porticoes (alcoves, colonnades).

POWERPOINT

When Jesus met the man who was waiting for a miracle by the pool of Bethesda, He asked him if he wanted to get well, even though He knew the man had been crippled for a long time (see John 5:6). I think He asked the question simply to demonstrate care and compassion and to find out what the man really wanted for himself. Though Jesus already knew that He could heal the man, He was interested enough to want to know more about him. God has given us the ability to help and encourage others with our words. One way to do that is to simply ask how they are doing and what they would like to see happen in their lives.

³In these porticoes lay a great number of people who were sick, blind, lame, withered, [waiting for the stirring of the water; ⁴for an angel of the Lord went down into the pool at appointed seasons and stirred up the water; the first one to go in after the water was stirred was healed of his disease.]

⁶When Jesus noticed him lying there [helpless], knowing that he had been in that condition a long time, He said to him, "Do you want to get well?"

⁷The invalid answered, "Sir, I have no one to put me in the pool when the water is stirred up, and while I am coming [to get into it myself], someone else steps down ahead of me."

⁸Jesus said to him, "Get up; pick up your pallet and walk."

⁹Immediately the man was healed and recovered his strength, and picked up his pallet and walked.

Now that day was the Sabbath.

¹⁰So the Jews kept saying to the man who had been healed, "It is the Sabbath, and you are not permitted to pick up your pallet [because it is unlawful]."

¹¹He answered them, "The Man who healed me and gave me back my strength was the One who said to me, 'Pick up your pallet and walk.'"

¹²They asked him, "Who is the Man who told you, 'Pick up your pallet and walk'?"

¹³Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had slipped away [unnoticed] since there was a crowd in that place.

¹⁴Afterward, Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, “See, you are well! Stop sinning or something worse may happen to you.”

¹⁵The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

¹⁶For this reason the Jews began to persecute Jesus continually because He was doing these things on the Sabbath.

¹⁷But Jesus answered them, “My Father has been working until now [He has never ceased working], and I too am working.”

¹⁸This made the Jews more determined than ever to kill Him, for not only was He breaking the Sabbath [from their viewpoint], but He was also calling God His own Father, making Himself equal with God.

¹⁹So Jesus answered them by saying, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, the Son can do nothing of Himself [of His own accord], unless it is something He sees the Father doing; for whatever things the Father does, the Son [in His turn] also does in the same way.

²⁰“For the Father dearly loves the Son and shows Him everything that He Himself is doing; and the Father will show Him greater works than these, so that you will be filled with wonder.

²¹“Just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life [and allows them to live on], even so the Son also gives life to whom He wishes.

²²“For the Father judges no one, but has given all judgment [that is, the prerogative of judging] to the Son

[placing it entirely into His hands],

²³so that all will give honor (reverence, homage) to the Son just as they give honor to the Father. [In fact] the one who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who has sent Him.

²⁴“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, the person who hears My word [the one who heeds My message], and believes and trusts in Him who sent Me, has (possesses now) eternal life [that is, eternal life actually begins—the believer is transformed], and does not come into judgment and condemnation, but has passed [over] from death into life.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Conviction of the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is given to us for many reasons. One of the most important reasons is to convict us “about [the guilt of] sin [and the need for a Savior]” (John 16:8)—not to condemn or make us feel guilty, but to teach us how to be lifted out of sin. Jesus reassures us that anyone who believes and trusts in Him “does not come into judgment and condemnation, but has passed [over] from death into life” (John 5:24).

We should love and appreciate the conviction of sin, because without it we could easily live lives of self-deception. Spiritually mature people can receive conviction and not let it condemn them. Correction from God is never rejection. The fact that He is unwilling to leave us as we are in our sin is a sign of His love for us. He works daily to change us into His image and to help us develop His character.

25“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, a time is coming and is [here] now, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear it will live.

26“For just as the Father has life in Himself [and is self-existent], even so He has given to the Son to have life in Himself [and be self-existent].

27“And He has given Him authority to execute judgment, because He is a Son of Man [sinless humanity, qualifying Him to sit in judgment over mankind]. [Dan 7:13, 14]

²⁸“Do not be surprised at this; for a time is coming when all those who are in the tombs will hear His voice,

²⁹and they will come out—those who did good things [will come out] to a resurrection of [new] life, but those who did evil things [will come out] to a resurrection of judgment [that is, to be sentenced]. [Dan 12:2; Rev 20:11–15]

³⁰“I can do nothing on my own initiative or authority. Just as I hear, I judge; and My judgment is just (fair, righteous, unbiased), because I do not seek My own will, but only the will of Him who sent Me.

³¹“If I alone testify about Myself, My testimony is not valid.

³²“There is another [My Father] who testifies about Me, and I know [without any doubt] that His testimony on My behalf is true and valid.

³³“You have sent [an inquiry] to John [the Baptist] and he has testified [as an eyewitness] to the truth.

³⁴“But the testimony I receive is not from man [a merely human witness]; but I say these things so that you may be saved [that is, have eternal life].

³⁵“John was the lamp that kept on burning and shining [to show you the way], and you were willing for a while to rejoice in his light. [John 1:23–25]

³⁶“But the testimony which I have is far greater than the testimony of John; for the works that the Father has given Me to finish—the very same works [that is, the miracles and proofs of My deity] that I am [now] doing—testify about Me, [by providing evidence] that the Father has sent Me.

³⁷“And the Father who sent Me has Himself testified about Me. You have never heard His voice nor seen His form [His majesty and greatness—what He is like].

³⁸“You do not have His word (Scripture) abiding in you [actually living in your hearts and minds], because you do not believe in Him whom He has sent.

³⁹“You search and keep on searching and examining the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and yet it is those [very Scriptures] that testify about Me;
⁴⁰and still you are unwilling to come to Me so that you may have life.

⁴¹“I do not receive glory and approval from men;

⁴²but I know you and recognize that you do not have the love of God in yourselves.

⁴⁴“How can you believe [in Me], when you [seek and] receive glory and approval from one another, and yet you do not seek the glory and approval which comes from the one and only God?

⁴⁵“Do not think that I [am the One who] will accuse you before the Father. There [already] is one who accuses you: Moses, [the very one] in whom you have placed your hope [for salvation].

⁴⁶“For if you believed and relied on [the Scriptures written by] Moses, you would believe Me, for he wrote about Me [personally]. [Gen 3:15; 22:18; 49:10; Num 24:17; Deut 18:15]

⁴⁷“But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe My words?”

6 AFTER THIS, Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee (or Sea of Tiberias). [Matt 14:13–21; Mark 6:32–44; Luke 9:10–17; John 6:23; 21:1]

²A large crowd was following Him because they had seen the signs (attesting miracles) which He continually performed on those who were sick.

³And Jesus went up on the mountainside and sat down there with His disciples.

⁴Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was approaching. [Ex 12:1–36]

⁵Jesus looked up and saw that a large crowd was coming toward Him, and He said to Philip, “Where will we buy bread for these people to eat?”

⁶But He said this to test Philip, because He knew what He was about to do.

⁷Philip answered, “Two hundred denarii (200 days’ wages) worth of bread is not enough for each one to receive even a little.”

⁸One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, said to Him,

⁹“There is a little boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what are these for so many people?”

¹⁰Jesus said, “Have the people sit down [to eat].” Now [the ground] there was [covered with] an abundance of grass, so the men sat down, about 5,000 in number.

¹¹Then Jesus took the loaves, and when He had given thanks, He distributed them to those who were seated; the same also with the fish, as much as they wanted.

¹²When they had eaten enough, He said to His disciples, “Gather up the leftover pieces so that nothing will be lost.”

¹³So they gathered them up, and they filled twelve large baskets with pieces from the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten.

¹⁴When the people saw the sign (attesting miracle) that He had done, they began saying, “This is without a doubt the promised Prophet who is to come into the world!” [Deut 18:15, 18; John 1:21; Acts 3:22]

¹⁵Then Jesus, knowing that they were going to come and take Him by force to make Him king, withdrew again to the mountainside by Himself.

¹⁶When evening came, His disciples went down to the sea, ¹⁷and they got into a boat and started to cross the sea to Capernaum. It was already dark, and Jesus had still not come [back] to them.

¹⁸The sea was getting rough and rising high because a strong wind was blowing.

¹⁹Then, when they had rowed three or four miles [and were near the center of the sea], they saw Jesus walking on the sea and approaching the boat; and they were [terribly] frightened.

Speak God's Word

*I choose to obey Jesus' instruction when He said,
"Do not be afraid."*

| adapted from JOHN 6:20 |

²⁰But Jesus said to them, "It is I (I AM); do not be afraid."
[Matt 14:27; John 8:58]

²¹Then they were willing to take Him on board the boat, and immediately the boat reached the [shore of the] land to which they were going.

²²The next day the crowd that stood on the other side of the sea realized that there had been only one small boat there, and that Jesus had not boarded the boat with His disciples, but that His disciples had gone away alone.

²³[Now some] other small boats from Tiberias had come in near the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks.

²⁴So when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor His disciples were there, they boarded the small boats themselves and came to Capernaum looking for Jesus.

²⁵And when they found Him on the other side of the sea, they asked Him, "Rabbi, when did You get here?"

²⁶Jesus answered, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, you have been searching for Me, not because you saw the signs (attesting miracles), but because you ate the loaves and were filled.

²⁷“Do not work for food that perishes, but for food that endures [and leads] to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you; for God the Father has authorized Him and put His seal on Him.”

²⁸Then they asked Him, “What are we to do, so that we may habitually be doing the works of God?”

²⁹Jesus answered, “This is the work of God: that you believe [adhere to, trust in, rely on, and have faith] in the One whom He has sent.”

³⁰So they said to Him, “What sign (attesting miracle) will You do that we may see it and believe You? What [supernatural] work will You do [as proof]?”

³¹“Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written [in Scripture], ‘HE GAVE THEM BREAD OUT OF HEAVEN TO EAT.’” [Ex 16:15; Neh 9:15; Ps 78:24]

³²Then Jesus said to them, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, it is not Moses who has given you the bread out of heaven, but it is My Father who gives you the true bread out of heaven.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Be a Believer

Our work—the work God asks of each believer—is simply to believe in Jesus Christ (see John 6:29). We are accepted because of our faith, not because of our good works. Christians are referred to as “believers.” If our job or purpose were to achieve, we would be called “achievers.” We often want to place emphasis on what we do, but our focus should be on what God has done for us in Jesus Christ.

God loves and accepts us unconditionally. His love is not based on our performance. The Bible says that God’s glorious grace and favor have been freely bestowed on us in the Beloved (see Eph. 1:6). It is through the sacrifice of the Beloved (Jesus) that we have been made acceptable, and not that we achieved acceptance. God loves us no matter what, and it is our faith in Jesus that makes us acceptable to God and pleases Him, not our performance.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Jesus, for being the Bread of Life. Because I believe in You, I will never be hungry. And since I believe in You as Savior, I will never be thirsty, because You will sustain me spiritually.

• adapted from John 6:35

³³“For the Bread of God is He who comes down out of heaven, and gives life to the world.”

³⁴Then they said to Him, “Lord, always give us this bread.”

³⁵Jesus replied to them, “I am the Bread of Life. The one who comes to Me will never be hungry, and the one who believes in Me [as Savior] will never be thirsty [for that one will be sustained spiritually].

³⁶“But as I told you, you have seen Me and still you do not believe.

³⁷“All that My Father gives Me will come to Me; and the one who comes to Me I will most certainly not cast out [I will never, never reject anyone who follows Me].

³⁸“For I have come down from heaven, not to do My own will, but to do the will of Him who sent Me.

³⁹“This is the will of Him who sent Me, that of all that He has given Me I lose nothing, but that I [give new life and] raise it up at the last day.

POWERPOINT

Jesus talks about our heavenly Father in John 6:37. Many people, including me, have not had good relationships with our earthly fathers. Our fathers were not people in whom we could place our confidence. Thankfully, we have a heavenly Father Whom we can go to with the promise that we will never be rejected. Our heavenly Father, Who is perfect, is far better than even the world's best earthly father.

⁴⁰“For this is My Father’s will and purpose, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him [as Savior] will have eternal life, and I will raise him up [from the dead] on the last day.”

⁴¹Now the Jews murmured and found fault with Him because He said, “I am the Bread that came down out of heaven.”

⁴²They kept saying, “Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does He now [have the arrogance to] say, ‘I have come down out of heaven’?”

⁴³So Jesus answered, “Stop murmuring among yourselves.

⁴⁴“No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him [giving him the desire to come to Me]; and I will raise him up [from the dead] on the last day.

⁴⁵“It is written in the prophets, ‘AND THEY WILL ALL BE TAUGHT OF GOD.’ Everyone who has listened to and learned from the Father, comes to Me. [Is 54:13]

⁴⁶“Not that anyone has seen the Father, except He [who was with the Father and] who is from God; He [alone] has seen the Father.

⁴⁷“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, he who believes [in Me as Savior—whoever adheres to, trusts in, relies on, and has faith in Me—already] has eternal life [that is, now possesses it].

⁴⁸“I am the Bread of Life [the Living Bread which gives and sustains life].

⁴⁹“Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died.

⁵⁰“This is the Bread that comes down out of heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die.

⁵¹“I am the Living Bread that came down out of heaven. If anyone eats of this Bread [believes in Me, accepts Me as Savior], he will live forever. And the Bread that I will give for the life of the world is My flesh (body).”

⁵²Then the Jews began to argue with one another, saying, “How can this man give us His flesh to eat?”

⁵³And Jesus said to them, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood [unless you believe in Me as Savior and believe in the saving power of My blood which will be shed for you], you do not have life in yourselves.

⁵⁴“The one who eats My flesh and drinks My blood [believes in Me, accepts Me as Savior] has eternal life [that is, now possesses it], and I will raise him up [from the dead] on the last day.

⁵⁵“For My flesh is true [spiritual] food, and My blood is true [spiritual] drink.

⁵⁶“He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood [believes in Me, accepts Me as Savior] remains in Me, and I [in the same way remain] in him.

⁵⁷“Just as the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, even so the one who feeds on Me [believes in Me, accepts Me as Savior] will also live because of Me.

⁵⁸“This is the Bread which came down out of heaven. It is not like [the manna that] our fathers ate and they [eventually] died; the one who eats this Bread [believes in Me, accepts Me as Savior] will live forever.”

⁵⁹He said these things in a synagogue while He was teaching in Capernaum.

⁶⁰When many of His disciples heard this, they said, “This is a difficult and harsh and offensive statement. Who can [be expected to] listen to it?”

⁶¹But Jesus, aware that His disciples were complaining about it, asked them, “Does this cause you to stumble and take offense?

⁶²“What then [will you think] if you see the Son of Man ascending to [the realm] where He was before?

⁶³“It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh conveys no benefit [it is of no account]. The words I have spoken to you are spirit and life [providing eternal life].

⁶⁴“But [still] there are some of you who do not believe and have faith.” For Jesus knew from the beginning who did not believe, and who would betray Him.

⁶⁵And He was saying, “This is the reason why I have told you that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted him [that is, unless he is enabled to do so] by the Father.”

⁶⁶As a result of this many of His disciples abandoned Him, and no longer walked with Him.

⁶⁷So Jesus said to the twelve [disciples], “You do not want to leave too, do you?”

⁶⁸Simon Peter answered, “Lord, to whom shall we go? You [alone] have the words of eternal life [you are our only hope].

⁶⁹“We have believed and confidently trusted, and [even more] we have come to know [by personal observation and experience] that You are the Holy One of God [the Christ, the Son of the living God].”

⁷⁰Jesus answered them, “Did I not choose you, the twelve [disciples]? And yet one of you is a devil (ally of Satan).”

⁷¹Now He was speaking of Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot; for he, one of the twelve [disciples], was about to betray Him.

7 AFTER THIS, Jesus walked [from place to place] in Galilee, for He would not walk in Judea because the Jews were seeking to kill Him.

²Now the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles (Booths) was approaching.

³So His brothers said to Him, “Leave here and go to Judea, so that Your disciples [there] may also see the works that You do.

⁴“No one does anything in secret when he wants to be known publicly. If You [must] do these things, show Yourself openly to the world and make Yourself known!”

⁵For not even His brothers believed in Him.

⁶So Jesus said to them, “My time has not yet come; but any time is right for you.

⁷“The world cannot hate you [since you are part of it], but it does hate Me because I denounce it and testify that its deeds are evil.

⁸“Go up to the feast yourselves. I am not going up to this feast because My time has not yet fully come.”

⁹Having said these things to them, He stayed behind in Galilee.

¹⁰But [afterward], when His brothers had gone up to the feast, He went up too, not publicly [with a caravan], but quietly [because He did not want to be noticed].

¹¹So the Jews kept looking for Him at the feast and asking, “Where is He?”

¹²There was a lot of whispered discussion and murmuring among the crowds about Him. Some were saying, “He is a good man”; others said, “No, on the contrary, He misleads the people [giving them false ideas].”

¹³Yet no one was speaking out openly and freely about Him for fear of [the leaders of] the Jews.

¹⁴When the feast was already half over, Jesus went up into the temple [court] and began to teach.

¹⁵Then the Jews were perplexed. They said, “How did this man become learned [so versed in the Scriptures and theology] without formal training?”

¹⁶Jesus answered them by saying, “My teaching is not My own, but His who sent Me.

¹⁷“If anyone is willing to do His will, he will know whether the teaching is of God or whether I speak on My own accord and by My own authority.

¹⁸“He who speaks on his own accord seeks glory and honor for himself. But He who seeks the glory and the honor of the One who sent Him, He is true, and there is no unrighteousness or deception in Him.

¹⁹“Did not Moses give you the Law? And yet not one of you keeps the Law. Why do you want to kill Me [for not keeping it]?”

²⁰The crowd answered, “You have a demon [You are out of Your mind]! Who wants to kill You?”

²¹Jesus replied, “I did one work, and you are all astounded. [John 5:1–9]

²²“For this reason Moses has given you [God’s law regarding] circumcision (not that it originated with Moses, but with the patriarchs) and you circumcise a man [even] on the Sabbath.

²³“If, to avoid breaking the Law of Moses, a man undergoes circumcision on the Sabbath, why are you angry with Me for making a man’s whole body well on the Sabbath?

²⁴“Do not judge by appearance [superficially and arrogantly], but judge fairly and righteously.”

²⁵Then some of the people of Jerusalem said, “Is this not the Man they want to kill?

²⁶“Look, He is speaking publicly, and they say nothing to Him! Is it possible that the rulers really know that this is the Christ?

²⁷“But we know where this Man is from; whenever the Christ comes, no one will know where He is from.”

²⁸Then Jesus called out as He taught in the temple, “You know Me and know where I am from; and I have not come on my own initiative [as self-appointed], but He who sent Me is true, and Him you do not know.

²⁹“I know Him Myself because I am from Him [I came from His very presence] and it was He [personally] who sent Me.”

³⁰So they were eager to arrest Him; but no one laid a hand on Him, because His time had not yet come.

³¹But many from the crowd believed in Him. And they kept saying, “When the Christ comes, will He do more signs and exhibit more proofs than this Man?”

³²The Pharisees heard the crowd muttering these things [under their breath] about Him, and the chief priests and Pharisees sent guards to arrest Him.

³³Therefore Jesus said, “For a little while longer I am [still] with you, and then I go to Him who sent Me.

³⁴“You will look for Me, and will not [be able to] find Me; and where I am, you cannot come.”

³⁵Then the Jews said among themselves, “Where does this Man intend to go that we will not find Him? Does He intend to go to the Dispersion [of Jews scattered and living] among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks?

³⁶“What does this statement of His mean, ‘You will look for Me, and will not [be able to] find Me; and where I am, you cannot come’?”

³⁷Now on the last and most important day of the feast, Jesus stood and called out [in a loud voice], “If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink!

³⁸“He who believes in Me [who adheres to, trusts in, and relies on Me], as the Scripture has said, ‘From his innermost being will flow continually rivers of living water.’” [Is 58:11; John 4:14]

³⁹But He was speaking of the [Holy] Spirit, whom those who believed in Him [as Savior] were to receive afterward. The Spirit had not yet been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified (raised to honor).

POWERPOINT

Jesus said in John 7:37, “If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink!” What an open invitation! When we have any kind of need, we may simply come to Him and He will meet it. It seems that the only requirement for approaching Jesus is to have a need. He promises to never cast out anyone who comes to Him (see John 6:37)! Knowing this should definitely put our minds at ease!

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Celebrate What You Do Right

God's Spirit is working in you (see Phil. 2:13). You can relax and let His Spirit do a thorough work in you, changing your thoughts and attitudes until you can see everything and every person the way God sees them. Even when you are doing your worst, God believes the best about you, and He works with you to bring the best out of you. He not only sees what you are, He also sees what you can become.

You can start allowing the Holy Spirit to bring out the best in you by thinking, God loves me unconditionally. He has given me His Spirit and put a new heart and attitude in me. Everything in my spirit is good and positive and full of faith, and out of it "will flow continually rivers of living water" (John 7:38). Anytime you do anything sinful, you can immediately ask God to forgive you and then decide to go in a new direction. It isn't good to ignore the wrong things you do—it's important to always acknowledge the wrong and then ask for forgiveness. It's also important to recognize and celebrate what you do right.

⁴⁰Listening to these words, some of the people said, "This is certainly the Prophet!" [Deut 18:15, 18; John 1:21; 6:14; Acts 3:22]

⁴¹Others said, "This is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed!)” But others said, “Surely the Christ is not going to come out of Galilee, is He?

⁴²“Does the Scripture not say that the Christ comes from the descendants of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David lived?” [Ps 89:3, 4; Mic 5:2]

⁴³So the crowd was divided because of Him.

⁴⁴Some of them wanted to arrest Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

⁴⁵Then the guards went [back] to the chief priests and Pharisees, who asked them, “Why did you not bring Him [here with you]?”

⁴⁶The guards replied, “Never [at any time] has a man talked the way this Man talks!”

⁴⁷Then the Pharisees said to them, “Have you also been deluded and swept off your feet?

⁴⁸“Has any of the rulers or Pharisees believed in Him?

⁴⁹“But this [ignorant, contemptible] crowd that does not know the Law is accursed and doomed!”

⁵⁰Nicodemus (the one who came to Jesus before and was one of them) asked,

⁵¹“Does our Law convict someone without first giving him a hearing and finding out what he is [accused of] doing?”

⁵²They responded, “Are you also from Galilee? Search [and read the Scriptures], and see [for yourself] that no prophet comes from Galilee!”

⁵³[And everyone went to his own house.

8 BUT JESUS went to the Mount of Olives.

²Early in the morning He came back into the temple [court], and all the people were coming to Him. He sat down and began teaching them.

³Now the scribes and Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery. They made her stand in the center of the court, ⁴and they said to Him, “Teacher, this woman has been caught in the very act of adultery.

⁵“Now in the Law Moses commanded us to stone such women [to death]. So what do You say [to do with her—what is Your sentence]?” [Deut 22:22–24]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Jesus, You are the Light of the world. Those who follow You will not walk in the darkness, but will have the Light of life.

• adapted from John 8:12

⁶They said this to test Him, hoping that they would have grounds for accusing Him. But Jesus stooped down and began writing on the ground with His finger.

⁷However, when they persisted in questioning Him, He straightened up and said, “He who is without [any] sin among you, let him be the first to throw a stone at her.” [Deut 17:7]

⁸Then He stooped down again and started writing on the ground.

⁹They listened [to His reply], and they began to go out one by one, starting with the oldest ones, until He was left alone, with the woman [standing there before Him] in the center of the court.

¹⁰Straightening up, Jesus said to her, “Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?”

¹¹She answered, “No one, Lord!” And Jesus said, “I do not condemn you either. Go. From now on sin no more.”]

¹²Once more Jesus addressed the crowd. He said, “I am the Light of the world. He who follows Me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the Light of life.”

¹³Then the Pharisees told Him, “You are testifying on Your own behalf; Your testimony is not valid.”

¹⁴Jesus replied, “Even if I do testify on My own behalf, My testimony is valid, because I know where I came from and where I am going; but you do not know where I come from or where I am going.

¹⁵“You judge according to human standards [just by what you see]. I do not judge anyone.

¹⁶“But even if I do judge, My judgment is true and My decision is right; for I am not alone [in making it], but I and the Father who sent Me [make the same judgment].

¹⁷“Even in your own law it is written that the testimony of two persons is true [valid and admissible]. [Deut 19:15]

¹⁸“I am One [of the Two] who testifies about Myself, and My Father who sent Me testifies about Me.”

¹⁹Then the Pharisees said to Him, “Where is this Father of Yours?” Jesus answered, “You know neither Me nor My Father; if you knew Me, you would know My Father also.”

²⁰Jesus said these things in the treasury, as He taught in the temple [courtyard]; and no one seized Him, because His time had not yet come.

²¹Then He said again to them, “I am going away, and you will look for Me, and you will die [unforgiven and condemned] in your sin. Where I am going, you cannot come.”

²²So the Jews were asking [among themselves], “Will He kill Himself? Is that why He says, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come’?”

²³He said to them, “You are from below, I am from above; you are of this world, I am not of this world.

²⁴“That is why I told you that you will die [unforgiven and condemned] in your sins; for if you do not believe that I am the One [I claim to be], you will die in your sins.” [Ex 3:14; Matt 24:5; Mark 13:6; Luke 21:8]

²⁵So they said to Him, “Who are You [anyway]?” Jesus replied, “What have I been saying to you from the beginning?

POWERPOINT

Jesus said, “Abide in My word. ... And You will know the truth [regarding salvation], and the truth will set you free [from the penalty of sin]” (John 8:31–32).

Abiding in the Word is a process that takes time, but you can get started right away—being excited each day about the progress you are making. Learn to agree with all that God says to you in His Word and to disagree with all the lies of Satan. God has a good plan for you, a plan that He desires to release in your life.

POWERPOINT

Satan is always waging war on the battlefield of our minds. In John 8:31–32, Jesus gave us the first principle to follow if we want to win the battle of the mind. He said that if we abide in His Word, continually obeying and living in accordance with His teachings, we will know the truth and the truth will set us free. God's Word is truth, and God's truth will be effective for us if we receive it in our hearts and apply it to our everyday circumstances through obedience.

²⁶“I have many things to say and judge concerning you, but He who sent Me is true; and I say to the world [only] the things that I have heard from Him.”

²⁷They did not realize [or have the spiritual insight to understand] that He was speaking to them about the Father.

²⁸So Jesus said, “When you lift up the Son of Man [on the cross], you will know then [without any doubt] that I am He, and that I do nothing on My own authority, but I say these things just as My Father taught Me.

²⁹“And He who sent Me is [always] with Me; He has not left Me alone, because I always do what pleases Him.”

³⁰As He said these things, many believed in Him.

³¹So Jesus was saying to the Jews who had believed Him, “If you abide in My word [continually obeying My teachings and living in accordance with them, then] you are truly My disciples.

³²“And you will know the truth [regarding salvation], and the truth will set you free [from the penalty of sin].”

³³They answered Him, “We are Abraham’s descendants and have never been enslaved to anyone. What do You mean by saying, ‘You will be set free’?”

³⁴Jesus answered, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, everyone who practices sin habitually is a slave of sin.

³⁵“Now the slave does not remain in a household forever; the son [of the master] does remain forever.

³⁷“I know that you are Abraham’s descendants; yet you plan to kill Me, because My word has no place [to grow] in you [and it makes no change in your heart].

³⁸“I tell the things that I have seen at My Father’s side [in His very presence]; so you also do the things that you heard from your father.”

³⁹They answered, “Abraham is our father.” Jesus said to them, “If you are [truly] Abraham’s children, then do the works of Abraham and follow his example.

⁴⁰“But as it is, you want to kill Me, a Man who has told you the truth, which I heard from God. This is not the way Abraham acted.

⁴¹“You are doing the works of your [own] father.” They said to Him, “We are not illegitimate children; we have one [spiritual] Father: God.”

⁴²Jesus said to them, “If God were your Father [but He is not], you would love and recognize Me, for I came from God [out of His very presence] and have arrived here. For I have not even come on My own initiative [as self-appointed], but He [is the One who] sent Me.

POWERPOINT

John 8:44 describes Satan as “a liar and the father of lies and half-truths.” The enemy strives to give us trouble and then uses it to influence us to speak that same kind of trouble into our future. How are you talking about your life? How do you speak of your future?

According to God’s Word, you can prophesy a better future for yourself and your loved ones by speaking the good things His Word says about you and your life.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Defeat the Devil with the Word

Jesus said of the devil, “He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks what is natural to him, for he is a liar and the father of lies and half-truths” (John 8:44).

The devil lies. In fact, he doesn’t know how to speak the truth. He tells us things that simply are not true about ourselves, about other people, and about circumstances. Most Christians know this, yet they still listen to his evil words. Sometimes the lies seem to just pop into our minds for no apparent reason; sometimes Satan even speaks to us through other people. He puts critical or hurtful thoughts in their minds about us, and they speak them for us to hear. If we listen and accept the deceptive information we hear, we will become greatly discouraged and deal with multiple problems.

Instead of listening to and believing the enemy’s untruths and deceptions, look at what Jesus did and follow His example. After fasting for forty days in the wilderness, Satan tempted Him three times. Each time Jesus defeated the devil by declaring, “It is written and forever remains written,” and quoting from the Word of God (Matt. 4:1–11). No wonder the devil fled from Him. Learn the truth of God’s Word, and every time that Satan lies to you, quote a scripture back to him.

We need to know how to use God’s Word to defeat Satan’s lies. There are many Christians who don’t seem to realize that they can recognize and refuse to listen to Satan’s voice. Too many people don’t realize that the devil attacks their minds with negative or wrong thoughts. It’s his nature to lie; he is out to enslave everyone.

You are not alone in your spiritual battles. Satan comes against everyone. His entire goal is to kill, steal, and destroy, but Jesus came that we might have and enjoy our lives abundantly (see John 10:10). By learning how to use the spiritual weapons the Lord has made available to us, we can break the strongholds the devil has built in our minds. Every time we win one battle, the next one becomes easier. When we know the truth and act on it, that truth will free us from Satan’s strongholds (see John 8:32).

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

God of all power, thank You for giving me the weapons to defeat the lies of the devil. Help me to always use them effectively. Thank You, Jesus, for being my friend and for being with me in my difficulties and struggles. Amen.

⁴³“Why do you misunderstand what I am saying? It is because [your spiritual ears are deaf and] you are unable to hear [the truth of] My word.

⁴⁴“You are of your father the devil, and it is your will to practice the desires [which are characteristic] of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks what is natural to him, for he is a liar and the father of lies and half-truths.

⁴⁵“But because I speak the truth, you do not believe Me [and continue in your unbelief].

⁴⁶“Which one of you [has proof and] convicts Me of sin? If I speak truth, why do you not believe Me?

⁴⁷“Whoever is of God and belongs to Him hears [the truth of] God’s words; for this reason you do not hear them: because you are not of God and you are not in fellowship with Him.”

⁴⁸The Jews answered Him, “Are we not right when we say You are a Samaritan and [that You] have a demon [and are under its power]?”

⁴⁹Jesus answered, “I do not have a demon. On the contrary, I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me.

⁵⁰“However, I am not seeking glory for Myself. There is One who seeks [glory for Me] and judges [those who dishonor Me].

⁵¹“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, if anyone keeps My word [by living in accordance with My message] he will indeed never, ever see and experience death.”

⁵²The Jews said to Him, “Now we know that You have a demon [and are under its power]. Abraham died, and also the prophets; yet You say, ‘If anyone keeps My word, he will never, ever taste of death.’

⁵³“Are You greater than our father Abraham, who died? The prophets died too! Whom do You make Yourself out to be?”

⁵⁴Jesus answered, “If I glorify Myself, My glory is [worth] nothing. It is My Father who glorifies Me, of whom you say, ‘He is our God.’

⁵⁵Yet you do not know Him, but I know Him fully. If I said I did not know Him, I would be a liar like you. But I do know Him and keep His word.

⁵⁶“Your father Abraham [greatly] rejoiced to see My day (My incarnation). He saw it and was delighted.” [Heb 11:13]

⁵⁷Then the Jews said to Him, “You are not even fifty years old, and You [claim to] have seen Abraham?”

⁵⁸Jesus replied, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, before Abraham was born, I Am.” [Ex 3:14]

⁵⁹So they picked up stones to throw at Him, but Jesus concealed Himself and left the temple.

9 WHILE HE was passing by, He noticed a man [who had been] blind from birth.

²His disciples asked Him, “Rabbi (Teacher), who sinned, this man or his parents, that he would be born blind?”

³Jesus answered, “Neither this man nor his parents sinned, but it was so that the works of God might be displayed and illustrated in him.

⁴“We must work the works of Him who sent Me while it is day; night is coming when no one can work.

⁵“As long as I am in the world, I am the Light of the world [giving guidance through My word and works].”

⁶When He had said this, He spat on the ground and made mud with His saliva, and He spread the mud [like an ointment] on the man’s eyes.

⁷And He said to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which is translated, Sent). So he went away and washed, and came back seeing.

⁸So the neighbors, and those who used to know him as a beggar, said, “Is not this the man who used to sit and beg?”

⁹Some said, “It is he.” Still others said, “No, but he looks like him.” But he kept saying, “I am the man.”

¹⁰So they said to him, “How were your eyes opened?”

¹¹He replied, “The Man called Jesus made mud and smeared it on my eyes and told me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ So I went and washed, and I received my sight!”

¹²They asked him, “Where is He?” He said, “I do not know.”

¹³Then they brought the man who was formerly blind to the Pharisees.

¹⁴Now it was on a Sabbath day that Jesus made the mud and opened the man’s eyes.

¹⁵So the Pharisees asked him again how he received his sight. And he said to them, “He smeared mud on my eyes, and

I washed, and now I see.”

¹⁶Then some of the Pharisees said, “This Man [Jesus] is not from God, because He does not keep the Sabbath.” But others said, “How can a man who is a sinner (a non-observant Jew) do such signs and miracles?” So there was a difference of opinion among them.

¹⁷Accordingly they said to the blind man again, “What do you say about Him, since He opened your eyes?” And he said, “[It must be that] He is a prophet!”

¹⁸However, the Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight until they called the man’s parents.

¹⁹They asked them, “Is this your son, who you say was born blind? Then how does he now see?”

²⁰His parents answered, “We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind;

²¹but as to how he now sees, we do not know; or who has opened his eyes, we do not know. Ask him [and stop asking us]; he is of age, he will speak for himself and give his own account of it.”

²²His parents said this because they were afraid of [the leaders of] the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone acknowledged Jesus to be the Christ, he would be put out of the synagogue (excommunicated).

²³Because of this his parents said, “He is of age; ask him.”

²⁴So a second time they called the man who had been [born] blind, and said to him, “Give God glory and praise [for your sight]! We know this Man [Jesus] is a sinner [separated from God].”

²⁵Then he answered, “I do not know whether He is a sinner [separated from God]; but one thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see.”

²⁶So they said to him, “What did He [actually] do to you? How did He open your eyes?”

²⁷He answered, “I already told you and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again and again? Do you want to become His disciples, too?”

Speak God's Word

I believe in God and in His Word.

| adapted from JOHN 9:38 |

²⁸And [at that remark] they stormed at him and jeered, “You are His disciple, but we are disciples of Moses!

²⁹“We know [for certain] that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this Man, we do not know where He is from.”

³⁰The man replied, “Well, this is astonishing! You do not know where He comes from, and yet He opened my eyes!

³¹“We know [according to your tradition] that God does not hear sinners; but if anyone fears God and does His will, He hears him.

³²“Since the beginning of time it has never been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a person born blind.

³³“If this Man were not from God, He would not be able to do anything [like this because God would not hear His prayer].”

³⁴They answered him, “You were born entirely in sins [from head to foot], and you [presume to] teach us?” Then they threw him out [of the synagogue].

³⁵Jesus heard that they had put him out [of the synagogue], and finding him, He asked, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?”

³⁶He answered, “Who is He, Sir? Tell me so that I may believe in Him.”

³⁷Jesus said to him, “You have both seen Him, and [in fact] He is the one who is talking with you.”

³⁸And he said, “Lord, I believe [in You and Your word]!” And he worshiped Him [with reverence and awe].

³⁹Then Jesus said, “I came into this world for judgment [to separate those who believe in Me from those who reject Me—to declare judgment on those who choose to be separated from God], so that the sightless would see, and those who see would become blind.”

⁴⁰Some Pharisees who were with Him heard these things and said to Him, “Are we also blind?”

⁴¹Jesus said to them, “If you were blind [to spiritual things], you would have no sin [and would not be blamed for your unbelief]; but since you claim to have [spiritual] sight, [you have no excuse so] your sin and guilt remain. [Prov 26:12]

10 “I ASSURE you and most solemnly say to you, he who does not enter by the door into the sheepfold, but climbs up from some other place [on the stone wall], that one is a thief and a robber.

²“But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep [the protector and provider].

³“The doorkeeper opens [the gate] for this man, and the sheep hear his voice and pay attention to it. And [knowing that they listen] he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out [to pasture].

⁴“When he has brought all his own sheep outside, he walks on ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice and recognize his call.

⁵“They will never follow a stranger, but will run away from him, because they do not know the voice of strangers.”

⁶Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what He was talking about.

⁷So Jesus said again, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, I am the Door for the sheep [leading to life].

⁸“All who came before Me [as false messiahs and self-appointed leaders] are thieves and robbers, but the [true] sheep did not hear them.

⁹“I am the Door; anyone who enters through Me will be saved [and will live forever], and will go in and out [freely], and find pasture (spiritual security).

¹⁰“The thief comes only in order to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance [to the full, till it overflows].

¹¹“I am the Good Shepherd. The Good Shepherd lays down His [own] life for the sheep. [Ps 23; Is 40:11]

¹³“The man runs because he is a hired hand [who serves only for wages] and is not concerned about the [safety of the] sheep.

¹⁴“I am the Good Shepherd, and I know [without any doubt those who are] My own and My own know Me [and have a deep, personal relationship with Me]—

¹⁵even as the Father knows Me and I know the Father—and I lay down My [very own] life [sacrificing it] for the benefit of the sheep.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Happy Christians

Some people perceive Christianity as a stern, severe, and joyless lifestyle. That's because some people who call themselves Christians have sour attitudes, sad faces, or are critical of and quick to judge others. Those of us who love and serve God and His Son, Jesus Christ, should be the happiest people on earth. We should be able to enjoy everything we do, simply because we know God is present and that He loves us. Jesus said, "I came that they may have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance [to the full, till it overflows]" (John 10:10).

Happiness is an emotion that fosters well-being, and it is contagious. One of the best ways to be a witness to others about Jesus is to be happy and enjoy everything you do. Since most people simply want to be happy, if they see truly happy Christians, they will be open to learning about and receiving Jesus for themselves.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

How To Have Abundant Life

Jesus said, “I came that they may have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance [to the full, till it overflows]” (John 10:10). We want to be happy and enjoy life!

Sadly, we can waste a lot of time believing the misconception that joy and enjoyment come from our circumstances when they actually come from our attitude toward each circumstance rather than from the circumstance itself. Obviously, nobody enjoys a troubling or painful circumstance, but if we look at it in a hopeful, faith-filled way, we can watch God work out all things in our life for our good (see Rom 8:28).

Enjoying life begins with the thoughts you choose to think. No matter what is going on in your life today, if you will choose happy, hope-filled thoughts, you will feel happier. Our thoughts are intricately connected to our feelings; if we want to feel better, we need to think better. Nothing good comes from thinking sour, critical, and negative thoughts; something good always comes when we think according to God’s plan for our life.

God has promised us salvation, redemption, restoration, joy, peace, His constant presence in our lives, and His power to assist us in all we do. He desires for us to enjoy an intimate relationship with Him through Jesus Christ and good relationships with people. He wants to bless us, make us strong in Him, and see us enjoy our position of right standing with Him through our faith in Jesus. He sets before us life and death and tells us to choose life! Choose good!

Choosing good does not mean that goodness merely falls on us with no effort on our part. We need to follow through and obediently work with the Holy Spirit, but our efforts will be divinely directed and energized by God Himself. When God asks us to do anything, He always empowers us to do it.

I like to say, “Nothing good happens accidentally.” We cannot “catch” good thinking, but we can choose good, positive, and godly thoughts on purpose every day. I don’t think they will ever come so automatically that we never have to put forth an effort, but I do know that if we leave our minds empty and fruitless, our enemy, the devil, will be more than happy to fill them with every kind of life-stealing thought that exists.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Dear Lord Jesus, thank You that You came that I may have and enjoy life and have it in abundance. Help me to know what that means in every area of my life and to experience a relationship with You that overflows in me and through me to others. Amen.

POWERPOINT

From the beginning of time God has had a good plan for our lives, but the enemy upset that plan by orchestrating the fall of man in the Garden of Eden. God had given Adam and Eve dominion over everything in the Garden. However, they lost their authority when they disobeyed God. Suddenly Satan had the upper hand. Satan is a thief and a liar (see John 10:10). From the beginning he has sought to divert the good things that are ours, and he will continue to do that if we allow him to do so. Thankfully, we have the authority to overcome him.

¹⁶“I have other sheep [beside these] that are not of this fold. I must bring those also, and they will listen to My voice and pay attention to My call, and they will become one flock with one Shepherd. [Ezek 34:23; Eph 2:13–18]

¹⁷“For this reason the Father loves Me, because I lay down My [own] life so that I may take it back.

¹⁸“No one takes it away from Me, but I lay it down voluntarily. I am authorized and have power to lay it down and to give it up, and I am authorized and have power to take it back. This command I have received from My Father.”

¹⁹A division [of opinion] occurred again among the Jews because of these words [of His].

²⁰Many of them said, “He has a demon and He is mad [insane—He raves and rambles]. Why listen to Him?”

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Jesus, You are the Good Shepherd. You know without any doubt those who are Your own, and Your own know You and have a deep, personal relationship with You.

²¹Others were saying, “These are not the words and thoughts of one possessed by a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?”

²²At that time the Feast of Dedication took place at Jerusalem.

²³It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple [area] in Solomon’s portico.

²⁴So the Jews surrounded Him and began saying to Him, “How long are You going to keep us in suspense? If You are [really] the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), tell us so plainly and openly.”

²⁵Jesus answered them, “I have told you so, yet you do not believe. The works that I do in My Father’s name testify concerning Me [they are My credentials and the evidence declaring who I am].

²⁶“But you do not believe Me [so you do not trust and follow Me] because you are not My sheep.

²⁷“The sheep that are My own hear My voice and listen to Me; I know them, and they follow Me.

²⁸“And I give them eternal life, and they will never, ever [by any means] perish; and no one will ever snatch them out of My hand.

²⁹“My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater and mightier than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father’s hand.

³⁰“I and the Father are One [in essence and nature].”

³¹ Again the Jews picked up stones to stone Him.

³² Jesus answered them, "I showed you many good works [and many acts of mercy] from the Father; for which of them are you stoning Me?"

³³ The Jews answered Him, "We are not going to stone You for a good work, but for blasphemy, because You, a mere man, make Yourself out to be God."

³⁴ Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your Law, 'I SAID, YOU ARE GODS [human judges representing God, not divine beings]'? [Ps 82:6]

³⁵ "If He called them gods, men to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture cannot be undone or annulled or broken), ³⁶ [if that is true] then do you say of Him whom the Father sanctified and set apart for Himself and sent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'?"

Speak God's Word

I am one of God's sheep. He knows me, and I hear His voice, listen to Him, and follow Him. He gives me eternal life. I will never perish, and no one will ever snatch me out of His hand.

| adapted from JOHN 10:27-28 |

³⁷“If I do not do the works of My Father [that is, the miracles that only God could perform], then do not believe Me.

³⁸“But if I am doing them, even if you do not believe Me or have faith in Me, [at least] believe the works [that I do—admit that they are the works of God], so that you may know and keep on knowing [clearly—without any doubt] that the Father is in Me, and I am in the Father [that is, I am One with Him].”

³⁹So they tried again to seize Him, but He eluded their grasp.

⁴⁰He went back again across the Jordan to the place where John was first baptizing, and He was staying there.

⁴¹Many came to Him, and they were saying, “John did not perform a single sign (attesting miracle), but everything John said about this Man was true and accurate.”

⁴²And many there believed and confidently trusted in Him [accepting Him as Savior, and following His teaching].

11 NOW A certain man named Lazarus was sick. He was from Bethany, the village where Mary and her sister Martha lived.

²It was the Mary who anointed the Lord with perfume and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick. [John 12:3]

³So the sisters sent word to Him, saying, “Lord, he [our brother and Your friend] whom You love is sick.”

⁴When Jesus heard this, He said, “This sickness will not end in death; but [on the contrary it is] for the glory and honor of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified by it.”

⁵Now Jesus loved and was concerned about Martha and her sister and Lazarus [and considered them dear friends].

⁶So [even] when He heard that Lazarus was sick, He stayed in the same place two more days.

⁷Then He said to His disciples, “Let us go back to Judea.”

⁸The disciples said to Him, “Rabbi (Teacher), the Jews were only recently going to stone You, and You are [thinking of] going back there again?”

⁹Jesus answered, “Are there not twelve hours [of light] in the day? Anyone who walks in the daytime does not stumble, because he sees [by] the light of this world.

¹⁰“But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because there is no light in him.”

¹¹He said this, and after that said, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep; but I am going there to wake him.”

¹²The disciples answered, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover.”

¹³However, Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that He was referring to natural sleep.

¹⁴So then Jesus told them plainly, “Lazarus is dead.

¹⁵“And for your sake I am glad that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him.”

¹⁶Then Thomas, who was called Didymus (the twin), said to his fellow disciples, “Let us go too, that we may die with Him.”

¹⁷So when Jesus arrived, He found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days.

¹⁸Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles away;

¹⁹and many of the Jews had come to see Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning [the loss of] their brother.

²⁰So when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet Him, while Mary remained sitting in the house.

²¹Then Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.

²²“Even now I know that whatever You ask of God, God will give to You.”

²³Jesus told her, “Your brother will rise [from the dead].”

²⁴Martha replied, “I know that he will rise [from the dead] in the resurrection on the last day.”

²⁵Jesus said to her, “I am the Resurrection and the Life. Whoever believes in (adheres to, trusts in, relies on) Me [as Savior] will live even if he dies; ²⁶and everyone who lives and believes in Me [as Savior] will never die. Do you believe this?"

²⁷She said to Him, "Yes, Lord; I have believed and continue to believe that You are the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), the Son of God, He who was [destined and promised] to come into the world [and it is for You that the world has waited]."

²⁸After she had said this, she left and called her sister Mary, privately whispering [to her], "The Teacher is here and is asking for you."

²⁹And when she heard this, she got up quickly and went to Him.

³⁰Now Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met Him.

³¹So when the Jews who were with her in the house comforting her, saw how quickly Mary got up and left, they followed her, assuming that she was going to the tomb to weep there.

³²When Mary came [to the place] where Jesus was and saw Him, she fell at His feet, saying to Him, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died."

³³When Jesus saw her sobbing, and the Jews who had come with her also sobbing, He was deeply moved in spirit [to the point of anger at the sorrow caused by death] and was troubled, ³⁴and said, "Where have you laid him?" They said, "Lord, come and see."

³⁵Jesus wept.

³⁶So the Jews were saying, "See how He loved him [as a close friend]!"

³⁷But some of them said, "Could not this Man, who opened the blind man's eyes, have kept this man from dying?"

38 So Jesus, again deeply moved within [to the point of anger], approached the tomb. It was a cave, and a boulder was lying against it [to cover the entrance].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Maintain Your Confession

If we believe that words have power, we can easily understand why maintaining a confession of faith in Jesus Christ in all circumstances is so important. When Jesus stood in front of Lazarus' tomb, intending to raise him from death, Martha spoke out of fear, not out of her faith. She said to Him, "Lord, by this time there will be an offensive odor, for he has been dead four days! [It is hopeless!]" (John 11:39).

Jesus responded, "Did I not say to you that if you believe [in Me], you will see the glory of God [the expression of His excellence]?" (John 11:40). I rely on this scripture when I don't understand anything that is going on around me. Even when my circumstances seem unbearable, I try to remember to say, "I believe, and I will see the glory of God."

According to the amplification of John 11:40, glory means "the expression of God's excellence." Seeing the glory of God does not necessarily mean that we get everything we want and in the way we want it all the time. It does mean that we can trust God for His best in every situation. We don't have to understand all God's ways to stay in faith, "I believe God, and I will see His glory."

POWERPOINT

In John 11:41–42, just before Jesus called Lazarus forth from the tomb, He prayed: “Father, I thank You that You have heard Me. I knew that You always hear Me and listen to Me; but I have said this because of the people standing around, so that they may believe that You have sent Me [and that You have made Me Your representative].” What confidence! Satan does not want us to have that kind of confidence and conviction. But I encourage you: Be confident! Make a decision that you are a believer, not a beggar. Go to God and ask boldly in prayer for what you need.

³⁹Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to Him, “Lord, by this time there will be an offensive odor, for he has been dead four days! [It is hopeless!]”

⁴⁰Jesus said to her, “Did I not say to you that if you believe [in Me], you will see the glory of God [the expression of His excellence]?”

⁴¹So they took away the stone. And Jesus raised His eyes [toward heaven] and said, “Father, I thank You that You have heard Me.

⁴²“I knew that You always hear Me and listen to Me; but I have said this because of the people standing around, so that they may believe that You have sent Me [and that You have made Me Your representative].”

⁴³When He had said this, He shouted with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!”

⁴⁴Out came the man who had been dead, his hands and feet tightly wrapped in burial cloths (linen strips), and with a [burial] cloth wrapped around his face. Jesus said to them, “Unwrap him and release him.”

⁴⁵So then, many of the Jews who had come to [be with] Mary and who were eyewitnesses to what Jesus had done, believed in Him.

⁴⁶But some of them went back to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done.

⁴⁷So the chief priests and Pharisees convened a council [of the leaders in Israel], and said, “What are we doing? For this man performs many signs (attesting miracles).

⁴⁸“If we let Him go on like this, everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our [holy] place (the temple) and our nation.”

⁴⁹But one of them, Caiaphas, who was the high priest that year [the year of Christ’s crucifixion], said to them, “You know nothing at all!

⁵⁰“Nor do you understand that it is expedient and politically advantageous for you that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish.”

⁵¹Now he did not say this [simply] on his own initiative; but being the high priest that year, he [was unknowingly used by God and] prophesied that Jesus was going to die for the nation, [Is 53:8]

⁵²and not only for the nation, but also for the purpose of gathering together into one body the children of God who have been scattered abroad. [Is 49:6]

⁵³So from that day on they planned together to kill Him.

⁵⁴For that reason Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews, but left there and went to the district that borders on the uninhabited wilderness, to a town called Ephraim; and He stayed there with the disciples.

POWERPOINT

Sometimes we look at our lives and feel that there is no hope for any change. When Lazarus had already been dead for four days, his sister Martha did not believe that Jesus could do anything about it. As far as she was concerned, the situation was beyond hope of seeing her brother once again alive on earth (see John 11:39). But Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead (see John 11:43–44) and proved once again that nothing is impossible with God (see Luke 1:37).

⁵⁵Now the Passover of the Jews was approaching, and many from the country went up to Jerusalem before Passover to purify themselves [ceremonially, so that they would be able to participate in the feast].

⁵⁶So they were looking for Jesus as they stood in the temple [area], and saying among themselves, “What do you think? Will He not come to the feast at all?”

⁵⁷Now the chief priests and Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where He was, he was to report it so that they might arrest Him.

12 SIX DAYS before the Passover, Jesus went to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom He had raised from the dead. [Matt 26:6–13; Mark 14:3–9]

²So they gave a supper for Him there. Martha was serving, and Lazarus was one of those reclining at the table with Him.

³Then Mary took a pound of very expensive perfume of pure nard, and she poured it on Jesus’ feet and wiped His feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

⁴But Judas Iscariot, one of His disciples, the one who was going to betray Him, said,

⁵“Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and [the money] given to the poor?”

⁶Now he said this, not because he cared about the poor [for he had never cared about them], but because he was a thief; and since he had the money box [serving as treasurer for the twelve disciples], he used to pilfer what was put into it.

⁷So Jesus said, “Let her alone, so that she may keep [the rest of] it for the day of My burial.

⁸“You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have Me.”

⁹A large crowd of Jews learned that He was there [at Bethany]; and they came, not only because of Jesus, but also to see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead.

¹⁰So the chief priests planned to kill Lazarus also,

¹¹because on account of him many of the Jews were going away [from the teaching and traditions of the Jewish leaders] and believing in Jesus [following Him as Savior and Messiah].

¹²The next day, when the large crowd who had come to the Passover feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, [Matt 21:4–9; Mark 11:7–10; Luke 19:35–38]

¹³they took branches of palm trees [in homage to Him as King] and went out to meet Him, and they began shouting and kept shouting “Hosanna! BLESSED (celebrated, praised) IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD, even the King of Israel!” [Ps 118:26]

¹⁴And Jesus, finding a young donkey, sat on it; just as it is written [in Scripture],

¹⁵“DO NOT FEAR, DAUGHTER OF ZION; BEHOLD, YOUR KING IS COMING, SEATED ON A DONKEY’S COLT.” [Zech 9:9]

¹⁶His disciples did not understand [the meaning of] these things at first; but when Jesus was glorified and exalted, they remembered that these things had been written about Him and had been done to Him.

¹⁷So the people, who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead, continued to tell others about Him.

¹⁸For this reason the crowd went to meet Him, because they heard that He had performed this [miraculous] sign.

¹⁹Then the Pharisees [argued and] said to one another, “You see that your efforts are futile. Look! The whole world has gone [running] after Him!”

²⁰Now there were some Greeks (Gentiles) among those who were going up to worship at the feast;

²¹these came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, with a request, saying, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Live To Please God

John 12:42–43 states that many of the leading men in Jerusalem believed in Jesus but would not confess their faith for fear of being expelled from the synagogue because of it. “They loved the approval of men more than the approval of God” (John 12:43). We learn from this example that some people are hindered from a relationship with Jesus because they are addicted to approval. Although they want a relationship with the Lord, they love the approval of other people more and end up never fulfilling their destiny.

Wanting to be pleasing and acceptable to others is natural, but it is not good to become a people-pleaser. I define people-pleasers as those who try to please people even if they have to compromise their conscience to do so. They fear rejection, judgment, what people think and say, especially anger and disapproval, and they allow others to control, manipulate, and use them. They are not led by the Holy Spirit, as Scripture instructs us to be (see Rom. 8:14).

Live to please God, and you will not become addicted to others’ approval. What you think of yourself is more important than what others think of you. You cannot feel good about yourself if you know that what you are doing does not have God’s approval. Don’t let anyone steal from you what Jesus died to give to you—the freedom to follow the leading of Holy Spirit as an individual.

²²Philip came and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus.

²³And Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified and exalted.

²⁴“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone [just one grain, never more]. But if it dies, it produces much grain and yields a harvest.

²⁶“If anyone serves Me, he must [continue to faithfully] follow Me [without hesitation, holding steadfastly to Me, conforming to My example in living and, if need be, suffering or perhaps dying because of faith in Me]; and wherever I am [in heaven’s glory], there will My servant be also. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him.

²⁷“Now My soul is troubled and deeply distressed; what shall I say? ‘Father, save Me from this hour [of trial and agony]’? But it is for this [very] purpose that I have come to this hour [this time and place].

²⁸“[Rather, I will say,] ‘Father, glorify (honor, extol) Your name!’” Then a voice came from heaven saying, “I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.”

²⁹The crowd of people who stood nearby and heard the voice said that it had thundered; others said, “An angel has spoken to Him!”

³⁰Jesus answered, “This voice has come for your sake, not for mine.

³¹“Now judgment is upon this world [the sentence is being passed]. Now the ruler of this world (Satan) will be cast out.

³²“And I, if and when I am lifted up from the earth [on the cross], will draw all people to Myself [Gentiles, as well as Jews].”

³³He said this to indicate the kind of death by which He was to die.

³⁴At this the crowd answered Him, “We have heard from the Law that the Christ is to remain forever; how then can You say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up’? Who is this Son of Man?” [Ps 110:4]

³⁵So Jesus said to them, “The Light is among you [only] a little while longer. Walk while you have the Light [keep on living by it], so that darkness will not overtake you. He who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going [he is drifting aimlessly].

³⁶“While you have the Light, believe and trust in the Light [have faith in it, hold on to it, rely on it], so that you may become sons of Light [being filled with Light as followers of God].”

Jesus said these things, and then He left and hid Himself from them.

³⁷Even though He had done so many signs (attesting miracles) right before them, yet they still did not believe and failed to trust Him—

³⁸*This was* to fulfill what Isaiah the prophet said: “LORD, WHO HAS BELIEVED OUR MESSAGE? AND TO WHOM HAS THE ARM (the power) OF THE LORD BEEN SHOWN (unveiled, revealed)?” [Is

³⁹Therefore they could not believe, for Isaiah said again,

⁴⁰“HE HAS BLINDED THEIR EYES AND HE HARDENED THEIR HEART, TO KEEP THEM FROM SEEING WITH THEIR EYES AND UNDERSTANDING WITH THEIR HEART AND BEING CONVERTED; OTHERWISE, I [their God] WOULD HEAL THEM.”

⁴¹Isaiah said these things because he saw His glory and spoke about Him. [Is 6:9, 10]

⁴²Nevertheless, even many of the leading men believed in Him [as Savior and Messiah], but because of the Pharisees they would not confess it, for fear that [if they acknowledged Him openly] they would be put out of the synagogue (excommunicated);

Speak God's Word

Jesus has come as Light into the world. Because I believe and trust in Him as Savior, anchoring my hope in Him and relying on the truth of His message, I will not continue to live in darkness.

| adapted from JOHN 12:46 |

⁴³for they loved the approval of men more than the approval of God.

⁴⁴But Jesus loudly declared, “The one who believes and trusts in Me does not believe [only] in Me but [also believes] in Him who sent Me.

⁴⁵“And whoever sees Me sees the One who sent Me.

⁴⁶“I have come as Light into the world, so that everyone who believes and trusts in Me [as Savior—all those who anchor their hope in Me and rely on the truth of My message] will not continue to live in darkness.

⁴⁷“If anyone hears My words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge and condemn the world [that is, to initiate the final judgment of the world], but to save the world.

⁴⁸“Whoever rejects Me and refuses to accept My teachings, has one who judges him; the very word that I spoke will judge and condemn him on the last day.

⁴⁹“For I have never spoken on My own initiative or authority, but the Father Himself who sent Me has given Me a commandment regarding what to say and what to speak. [Deut 18:18, 19]

⁵⁰“I know that His commandment is eternal life. So the things I speak, I speak [in accordance with His exact instruction,] just as the Father has told Me.”

13 NOW BEFORE the Passover Feast, Jesus knew that His hour had come [and it was time] for Him to leave this world and return to the Father. Having [greatly] loved His own who were in the world, He loved them [and continuously loves them with His perfect love] to the end (eternally).

²It was during supper, when the devil had already put [the thought of] betraying Jesus into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, ³that Jesus, knowing that the Father had put everything into His hands, and that He had come from God and was [now] returning to God, ⁴got up from supper, took off His [outer] robe, and taking a [servant's] towel, He tied it around His waist.

⁵Then He poured water into the basin and began washing the disciples' feet and wiping them with the towel which was tied around His waist.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Importance of Serving Others

Christ came as a servant, yet many of us, His followers, find it difficult to serve the people around us. In John 13:14, Jesus provided a powerful example of serving others by washing His disciples' feet and saying, "So if I, the Lord and the Teacher, washed your feet, you ought to wash one another's feet as well." Jesus was not speaking only about literal foot washing; He was actually saying to His disciples, and to us, "Help one another. Take care of one another. Do for one another. Meet each other's needs."

Jesus said in John 13:17, "If you know these things, you are blessed [happy and favored by God] if you put them into practice [and faithfully do them]."

You and I are not going to be blessed because we know we should do good for others or because we know we should have a servant's attitude. We'll be blessed because we do what Jesus did. Serving others means living the way Jesus lived. It takes time, sacrifice, and effort, and with God's help, we can do it.

⁶When He came to Simon Peter, he said to Him, "Lord, are You going to wash my feet?"

⁷Jesus replied to him, "You do not realize now what I am doing, but you will [fully] understand it later."

⁸Peter said to Him, “You will never wash my feet!” Jesus answered, “Unless I wash you, you have no part with Me [we can have nothing to do with each other].”

⁹Simon Peter said to Him, “Lord, [in that case, wash] not only my feet, but also my hands and my head!”

¹⁰Jesus said to him, “Anyone who has bathed needs only to wash his feet, and is completely clean. And you [My disciples] are clean, but not all of you.”

¹¹For He knew who was going to betray Him; for that reason He said, “Not all of you are clean.”

¹²So when He had washed their feet and put on His [outer] robe and reclined at the table again, He said to them, “Do you understand what I have done for you?”

¹³“You call Me Teacher and Lord, and you are right in doing so, for that is who I am.

¹⁴“So if I, the Lord and the Teacher, washed your feet, you ought to wash one another’s feet as well.

¹⁵“For I gave you [this as] an example, so that you should do [in turn] as I did to you.

¹⁶“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, a slave is not greater than his master, nor is one who is sent greater than the one who sent him.

¹⁷“If you know these things, you are blessed [happy and favored by God] if you put them into practice [and faithfully do them].

¹⁸“I am not speaking of all of you. I know whom I have chosen; but [this has happened] in order that the Scripture may be fulfilled: ‘HE WHO EATS MY BREAD HAS RAISED UP HIS HEEL

AGAINST ME [as My enemy].’ [Ps 41:9]

¹⁹“From now on I am telling you [what will happen] before it occurs, so that when it does take place you may believe that I am He [who I say I am—the Christ, the Anointed, the Messiah].

²⁰“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, the one who receives and welcomes whomever I send receives Me; and the one who receives Me receives Him who sent Me [in that same way].”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Love Proves Discipleship

What are you doing to help someone else? Are you making a difference in someone's life? That's how you show your love for God. The cycle of love God pours into your life is not complete until it is pouring out of you to meet other people's needs.

If love has no action to back it up, it becomes empty words with no power. God proved His love for us by giving His only Son to die for our sins, and we can prove our love for God by letting Him use us to help other people. Jesus said, "By this everyone will know that you are My disciples, if you have love and unselfish concern for one another" (John 13:35). Don't wait to feel like being a blessing; rather, start doing it on purpose, and you will realize that it adds joy to your life.

²¹After Jesus had said these things, He was troubled in spirit, and testified and said, "I assure you and most solemnly say to you, one of you will betray Me and hand Me over."

²²The disciples began looking at one another, puzzled and disturbed as to whom He could mean.

²³One of His disciples, whom Jesus loved (esteemed), was leaning against Jesus' chest.

²⁴So Simon Peter motioned to him (John) and [quietly] asked [him to ask Jesus] of whom He was speaking.

²⁵Then leaning back against Jesus' chest, he (John) asked Him [privately], “Lord, who is it?”

²⁶Jesus answered, “It is the one to whom I am going to give this piece [of bread] after I have dipped it.” So when He had dipped the piece of bread [into the dish], He gave it to Judas, son of Simon Iscariot.

²⁷After [Judas had taken] the piece of bread, Satan entered him. Then Jesus said to him, “What you are going to do, do quickly [without delay].”

²⁸But no one reclining at the table knew why He said this to him.

²⁹Some thought that, since Judas [as the treasurer of the group] had the money box, Jesus was telling him, “Buy what we need for the feast,” or that he was to give something to the poor.

³⁰After taking the piece of bread, he went out immediately; and it was night.

³¹So when Judas had left, Jesus said, “Now is [the time for] the Son of Man [to be] glorified, and God is glorified in Him;

³²[if God is glorified in Him,] God will also glorify Him (the Son) in Himself, and will glorify Him at once.

³³“Little children, I am with you [only] a little longer. You will look for Me and, as I told the Jews, so I tell you now, ‘Where I am going, you are not able to come.’ [John 8:21]

³⁴“I am giving you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, so you too are to love one another.

³⁵“By this everyone will know that you are My disciples, if you have love and unselfish concern for one another.”

³⁶Simon Peter said to Him, “Lord, where are You going?” Jesus answered, “Where I am going, you cannot follow Me now; but you will be able to follow later.”

³⁷Peter said to Him, “Lord, why cannot I follow You now? I will lay down my life for You!” [Matt 26:33–35; Mark 14:29–31; Luke 22:33, 34]

³⁸Jesus answered, “Will you [really] lay down your life for Me? I assure you and most solemnly say to you, before a rooster crows you will deny and completely disown Me three times.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

How To Recognize Disciples

In John 13:34–35, Jesus said that people would recognize us as His disciples by our expressions of love and unselfish concern for one another. Love is an action verb. If we love others, we do things for them.

The Bible also says, “The one who... hates (works against) his brother [in Christ] is in the darkness until now” (1 John 2:9). To hate (in the biblical sense) is to do nothing or to turn away in indifference. We may not even really dislike people, but when we don’t care enough to help them when they have troubles and problems, we are not acting in love. To make matters worse, we often judge others and think, If they really loved God, they wouldn’t be in such a predicament. This attitude opens a door of opportunity for Satan to separate us from those who most need our love.

Years ago, I became extremely sick during my fourth pregnancy, and I truly wanted people to have empathy for me and help me. I remained sick for several months, and as I prayed sincerely asking God to show me what I could do to get well, He reminded me of something for which I needed to repent. I had criticized another woman who was always sick during her pregnancy. I should have helped her, but instead I considered her to be uncommitted and weak. This became a time of learning for me. God taught me to realize how often I had judged or criticized others because they didn't measure up to the standards I thought they should hold.

We all make mistakes and have weaknesses. God didn't call us to point out those weaknesses to one other, but He did call us to care for one another—to show Christ's love in any way we can. Ephesians 4:32 says, “Be kind and helpful to one another, tender-hearted [compassionate, understanding], forgiving one another [readily and freely], just as God in Christ also forgave you.” That's how we can win over satanic attacks.

If you practice God's “love walk,” you will grow personally and enable others to grow too. The devil can't do you much harm if you truly walk in loving relationship with others as Christ loves you.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord Jesus, I want to love others, and I want to be kind and caring. I also know that I fail at times. In Your name, I ask You to forgive me and enable me to forgive others who hurt me or do not live up to my standards. Amen.

POWERPOINT

Jesus says in John 14:6 that He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. This means He will show us how to live. All the answers we need are in the Bible, so it's very important that we both study it and obey it each day.

Following the Way and the Truth and the Life will lead to peace, joy, and blessings in our lives.

14 “DO NOT let your heart be troubled (afraid, cowardly).

Believe [confidently] in God and trust in Him, [have faith, hold on to it, rely on it, keep going and] believe also in Me.

²“In My Father’s house are many dwelling places. If it were not so, I would have told you, because I am going there to prepare a place for you.

³“And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and I will take you to Myself, so that where I am you may be also.

⁴“And [to the place] where I am going, you know the way.”

⁵Thomas said to Him, “Lord, we do not know where You are going; so how can we know the way?”

⁶Jesus said to him, “I am the [only] Way [to God] and the [real] Truth and the [real] Life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.

⁷“If you had [really] known Me, you would also have known My Father. From now on you know Him, and have seen Him.”

⁸Philip said to Him, “Lord, show us the Father and then we will be satisfied.”

⁹Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you for so long a time, and you do not know Me yet, Philip, nor recognize clearly who I am? Anyone who has seen Me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father?’

¹⁰“Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in Me? The words I say to you I do not say on My own initiative or authority, but the Father, abiding continually in Me, does His works [His attesting miracles and acts of power].

¹¹“Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me; otherwise believe [Me] because of the [very] works themselves [which you have witnessed].

¹²“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, anyone who believes in Me [as Savior] will also do the things that I do; and he will do even greater things than these [in extent and outreach], because I am going to the Father.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Power in Jesus' Name

When our youngest son was still in school, friends stayed with him whenever Dave and I traveled. In order for them to seek medical treatment for him if needed, we had to sign a legal document stating that they had the right to use our names on our son's behalf—literally to make decisions in our place.

This is exactly what Jesus did for His disciples and, ultimately, for all who would believe in Him—He gave us the right to use His name when we go to God in prayer (see John 14:13–14; 16:23–24). When we pray in His name, it is as if He Himself is praying. This privilege seems almost too wonderful to believe! But we can believe it because we have Scripture to back it up.

Speak God's Word

*Because I really love the Lord, I will keep and obey
His commandments.*

| adapted from JOHN 14:15 |

¹³“And I will do whatever you ask in My name [as My representative], this I will do, so that the Father may be glorified and celebrated in the Son. [Ex 3:14]

¹⁴“If you ask Me anything in My name [as My representative], I will do it.

¹⁵“If you [really] love Me, you will keep and obey My commandments.

¹⁶“And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Helper (Comforter, Advocate, Intercessor—Counselor, Strengthener, Standby), to be with you forever— ¹⁷the Spirit of Truth, whom the world cannot receive [and take to its heart] because it does not see Him or know Him, but you know Him because He (the Holy Spirit) remains with you continually and will be in you.

¹⁸“I will not leave you as orphans [comfortless, bereaved, and helpless]; I will come [back] to you.

¹⁹“After a little while the world will no longer see Me, but you will see Me; because I live, you will live also.

POWERPOINT

When you think about the changes you need to make in your life, isn't it good to know that you do not have to make them alone? You have a divine Helper (see John 14:26) Who will not only remind you what to do, but also strengthen you to do it. You can lean on Him at all times.

²⁰“On that day [when that time comes] you will know for yourselves that I am in My Father, and you are in Me, and I am in you.

²¹“The person who has My commandments and keeps them is the one who [really] loves Me; and whoever [really] loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and reveal Myself to him [I will make Myself real to him].”

²²Judas (not Iscariot) asked Him, “Lord, what has happened that You are going to reveal Yourself to us and not to the world?”

²³Jesus answered, “If anyone [really] loves Me, he will keep My word (teaching); and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our dwelling place with him.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Perfect Peace

Perhaps you have never thought about how important it is to manage your emotions. I imagine we all think, I can't help how I act when I am having a hard time. That is a normal human reaction, but with God on your side helping you, you don't have to behave in the same way as a "normal" person would.

It is obvious from Jesus' words in John 14:27 that He desires for you to have wonderful peace, His perfect peace. Please notice He is also giving you the responsibility of letting His peace "calm you in every circumstance and give you courage and strength for every challenge." He wants you to choose to control the negative emotions that can trouble your heart and make you afraid. You cannot always control your circumstances, but with God's help you can control your responses to them.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

How To Speak in Times of Trouble

John 14:30 teaches us the absolute importance of not speaking rashly from our emotions during times of stress and pressure. Jesus had been telling His disciples that He would be leaving the world very soon, and that now the time had finally come. It was time for Him to do what His Father had sent Him to do—to take upon Himself the sins of the world and to die in our place. I wonder what any one of us would have said under those circumstances. What would have come out of our mouth—fear, worry, panic, complaining, doubt, or unbelief?

Jesus was determined not to give place to the enemy by speaking words that would give him an opportunity to hinder God's plan.

How do you speak when trouble comes? I believe we sometimes lose battles in life because of the way we speak about them. We won't defeat Satan with complaining, self-pity, fear, or worry.

Nothing takes more self-control than resisting the temptation to speak negatively in a stressful or difficult situation. The mouth wants to give expression to the soul, blurting out whatever we think, feel, or want. In such times, we need to go deeper than our thoughts, feelings, and desires and to think and speak out of our new nature. These are important times to agree with God and speak what He says in His Word.

²⁴“One who does not [really] love Me does not keep My words. And the word (teaching) which you hear is not Mine, but is the Father’s who sent Me.

²⁵“I have told you these things while I am still with you.

²⁶“But the Helper (Comforter, Advocate, Intercessor—Counselor, Strengthener, Standby), the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name [in My place, to represent Me and act on My behalf], He will teach you all things. And He will help you remember everything that I have told you. [Matt 5:7, 13, 24, 25; Luke 24:49; John 14:16; Acts 1:4]

²⁷“Peace I leave with you; My [perfect] peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid. [Let My perfect peace calm you in every circumstance and give you courage and strength for every challenge.]

²⁸“You heard Me tell you, ‘I am going away, and I am coming back to you.’ If you [really] loved Me, you would have rejoiced, because I am going [back] to the Father, for the Father is greater than I.

²⁹“I have told you now before it happens, so that when it does take place, you may believe and have faith [in Me].

³⁰“I will not speak with you much longer, for the ruler of the world (Satan) is coming. And he has no claim on Me [no power over Me nor anything that he can use against Me]; ³¹but so that the world may know [without any doubt] that I love the Father, I do exactly as the Father has commanded Me [and act in full agreement with Him]. Get up, let us go from here.

15 “I AM the true Vine, and My Father is the vinedresser.

²“Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit, He takes away; and every branch that continues to bear fruit, He [repeatedly] prunes, so that it will bear more fruit [even richer and finer fruit].

POWERPOINT

We see from John 14:27 that peace is a choice. When faced with potentially upsetting circumstances, we can allow our hearts to be troubled or afraid, or we can let Jesus' "perfect peace calm" us "in every circumstance and give" us "courage and strength for every challenge." We can permit ourselves to be fearful and unsettled, or we can be at peace. I encourage you to always choose peace.

³“You are already clean because of the word which I have given you [the teachings which I have discussed with you].

⁴“Remain in Me, and I [will remain] in you. Just as no branch can bear fruit by itself without remaining in the vine, neither can you [bear fruit, producing evidence of your faith] unless you remain in Me.

⁶“If anyone does not remain in Me, he is thrown out like a [broken off] branch, and withers and dies; and they gather such branches and throw them into the fire, and they are burned.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Stay Connected to the Vine

John 15:5 compares our relationship with Christ to the relationship between a vine and a branch. Jesus said, “I am the Vine; you are the branches. The one who remains in Me and I in him bears much fruit, for [otherwise] apart from Me [that is, cut off from vital union with Me], you can do nothing.”

To remain in Him does not mean to sit around being “super spiritual” all the time. We do not need to strive to remain in Him, or to feel obligated to read our Bibles for hours each day or to confine ourselves to a prayer closet for a long time. Of course, we want to study God’s Word and pray, but to think those activities are the only times we are abiding in Him is incorrect. When we really love God and He is first in our lives, everything we do becomes spiritual in a way because we are doing it with Him, in Him, through Him, by Him, and to His glory. This is what it means to remain in Him.

All the life and growth potential of a branch is in the vine, and the branch can only receive it as long as it remains connected to the vine. The branch is entirely dependent on the vine for everything it needs to grow and bear fruit.

If we do not remain in Jesus, if we allow ourselves to be apart from Him, we can do nothing. If we live, dwell in, and remain in Him, we will grow and bear good fruit. Sometimes we want to do things independently, by ourselves, but God has designed our lives to thrive only as we abide in Jesus, the Vine. Let's believe this and stay connected to Him at all times.

Speak God's Word

Jesus. He has loved me just as

⁷“If you remain in Me and My words remain in you [that is, if we are vitally united and My message lives in your heart], ask whatever you wish and it will be done for you.

⁸“My Father is glorified and honored by this, when you bear much fruit, and prove yourselves to be My [true] disciples.

⁹“I have loved you just as the Father has loved Me; remain in My love [and do not doubt My love for you].

¹⁰“If you keep My commandments and obey My teaching, you will remain in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and remain in His love.

¹¹“I have told you these things so that My joy and delight may be in you, and that your joy may be made full and complete and overflowing.

¹²“This is My commandment, that you love and unselfishly seek the best for one another, just as I have loved you.

¹³“No one has greater love [nor stronger commitment] than to lay down his own life for his friends.

¹⁵“I do not call you servants any longer, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you [My] friends, because I have revealed to you everything that I have heard from My Father.

¹⁶“You have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you and I have appointed and placed and purposefully planted you, so that you would go and bear fruit and keep on bearing, and that your fruit will remain and be lasting, so that whatever you ask of the Father in My name [as My representative] He may give to you.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

commandment to love and* unselfishly seek the best for others, just as You have loved me.

• adapted from John 15:12

POWERPOINT

John 15:16 says that God chose you and called you into a relationship with Himself. He did it for a reason. God wants you to enjoy your life and to bear good fruit. That is the very purpose for which He chose and appointed you.

¹⁷“This [is what] I command you: that you love and unselfishly seek the best for one another.

¹⁸“If the world hates you [and it does], know that it has hated Me before it hated you.

¹⁹“If you belonged to the world, the world would love [you as] its own and would treat you with affection. But you are not of the world [you no longer belong to it], but I have chosen you out of the world. And because of this the world hates you.

²⁰“Remember [and continue to remember] that I told you, ‘A servant is not greater than his master.’ If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also.

21“But they will do all these [hurtful] things to you for My name’s sake [because you bear My name and are identified with Me], for they do not know the One who sent Me.

22“‘If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have [the guilt of their] sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin.

23“‘The one who hates Me also hates My Father.

24“‘If I had not done among them the works (attesting miracles) which no one else [ever] did, they would not have [the guilt of their] sin; but now [the fact is that] they have both seen [these works] and have hated Me [and continue to hate Me] and My Father as well.

25“‘But [this is so] that the word which has been written in their Law would be fulfilled, ‘THEY HATED ME WITHOUT A CAUSE.’ [Ps 35:19; 69:4] 26“‘But when the Helper (Comforter, Advocate, Intercessor—Counselor, Strengtheners, Standby) comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, that is the Spirit of Truth who comes from the Father, He will testify and bear witness about Me.

27“‘But you will testify also and be My witnesses, because you have been with Me from the beginning.

16 “I HAVE told you these things so that you will not stumble or be caught off guard and fall away.

2“‘They will put you out of the synagogues and make you outcasts. And a time is coming when whoever kills you will think that he is offering service to God.

³“And they will do these things because they have not known the Father or Me.

⁴“I have told you these things [now], so that when their time comes, you will remember that I told you about them. I did not say these things to you at the beginning, because I was with you.

⁵“But now I am going to Him who sent Me; and none of you asks Me, ‘Where are You going?’

⁶“But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts [and taken complete possession of them].

⁷“But I tell you the truth, it is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Helper (Comforter, Advocate, Intercessor—Counselor, Strengtheners, Standby) will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him (the Holy Spirit) to you [to be in close fellowship with you].

⁸“And He, when He comes, will convict the world about [the guilt of] sin [and the need for a Savior], and about righteousness, and about judgment:

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Jesus Left Us His Name

How wonderful it would have been to walk in person with Jesus! However, He told His followers they would be better off when He went away, because then He could send His Spirit to dwell in every believer (see John 16:7). He also told them that even though they were sorrowful at the news of His upcoming departure, they would rejoice again just as a woman has sorrow during her labor and travail but rejoices when the child is born (see John 16:19–22).

Jesus assured the disciples they would change their minds when they realized the glory of His Spirit in them and the power available to them through the privilege of using His name in prayer. He was literally giving to them—and has given to all those who believe in Him—His “power of attorney,” the legal right to use His name. His name takes His place; His name represents Him (see John 16:23–28).

Jesus has already been perfect for us. He has already pleased the Father for us; therefore, there is no pressure on us to feel that we must have a perfect record of right behavior before we can pray. When we come before the Father in Jesus’ name, we can confess our sin, receive His forgiveness, and boldly make our requests known to Him.

When a believer speaks the name of Jesus in faith all of heaven comes to attention.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Holy Spirit Convicts of Righteousness

When Jesus ascended into heaven, He sent the Holy Spirit to be in close fellowship with His people and said, “And He, when He comes, will convict the world about [the guilt of] sin [and the need for a Savior], and about righteousness, and about judgment” (John 16:8). Please notice that the Holy Spirit not only convicts us of sin, but goes on to convict (meaning, “to convince”) us of righteousness. We are in right standing with God through the blood of Jesus, and we need to remember that always—especially when we sin. We don’t lose our fellowship with God when we make a mistake. But the moment you are convicted of sin, turn to Jesus because it is His blood that saves us. He never leaves us or forsakes us; He is with us always.

God has already provided a solution for sin. It is not a problem for Him, because He is able to forgive it, forget it, and offer mercy to the sinner. Sin is only a problem for us if we continue in it after having been shown the awfulness of it. I am not saying there are no consequences for sin; I am saying we do not have to live under condemnation for sin once we have repented.

God’s grace meets us where we are, but never leaves us where it found us. When the Holy Spirit convicts you of sin, confess it, repent, receive God’s forgiveness, and move forward in the righteousness Jesus died to give you.

⁹about sin [and the true nature of it], because they do not believe in Me [and My message];

¹⁰about righteousness [personal integrity and godly character], because I am going to My Father and you will no longer see Me;

¹¹about judgment [the certainty of it], because the ruler of this world (Satan) has been judged and condemned.

¹²“I have many more things to say to you, but you cannot bear [to hear] them now.

¹³“But when He, the Spirit of Truth, comes, He will guide you into all the truth [full and complete truth]. For He will not speak on His own initiative, but He will speak whatever He hears [from the Father—the message regarding the Son], and He will disclose to you what is to come [in the future].

¹⁴“He will glorify and honor Me, because He (the Holy Spirit) will take from what is Mine and will disclose it to you.

¹⁵“All things that the Father has are Mine. Because of this I said that He [the Spirit] will take from what is Mine and will reveal it to you.

¹⁶“A little while, and you will no longer see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me.”

¹⁷Some of His disciples said to one another, “What does He mean when He tells us, ‘A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me’; and, ‘because I am going to My Father’?”

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Ask, Receive, Enjoy

I really want you to receive the goodness and abundance God has for you. Sometimes as the enemy wages war against your mind, he tries to convince you that you do not deserve God's blessings and abundance. That is simply not true! Jesus said, "Until now you have not asked [the Father] for anything in My name; but now ask and keep on asking and you will receive, so that your joy may be full and complete" (John 16:24). Notice the progression: ask—in Jesus' name, based on His merits, not on your own works; receive—from God; enjoy. It's that simple.

I encourage you to begin living as a "receiver" by approaching God with faith in His goodness and in readiness to receive what He has done for you. You might begin to pray in the following ways: "God, I ask You to forgive my sins, and I receive that forgiveness right now. I believe You have given it to me. You keep Your word, and I take Your forgiveness right now and I call myself free." Or, "God, I need mercy. I don't deserve Your help in this situation, but I'm asking You to be merciful to me, God, and bless me anyway. I'm asking for Your blessing because of Who You are, not because of what I have or have not done, and I receive it right now. I receive Your help. I receive Your blessings. I receive Your favor. I'm asking You to pour out Your goodness not because I am good, but because You are good."

When you begin to approach God this way, it will provoke you to praise Him like never before. I cannot even count how many times a day I say, "Thank You, Lord, for all Your goodness in my life." Once I learned to freely receive from God, rather than feeling I had to deserve everything I received, my blessings and my peace and joy increased dramatically. The increase in blessing has also led to an increase in praise and thanksgiving. I see so many things for which I can be thankful that it has helped me to be more cautious about complaining and to start praising even more.

Remember, the key to experiencing God's goodness and abundance in your life is to first ask, then receive, then enjoy.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

God of Abundance, help me to remember to ask for Your blessings not because I could ever earn them, but because You are good and You love me. Help me to receive them with praise and thanksgiving, and help me to enjoy them. In Jesus' name. Amen.

¹⁸So they were saying, “What does He mean when He says, ‘A little while’? We do not know what He is talking about.”

¹⁹Jesus knew that they wanted to ask Him, so He said to them, “Are you wondering among yourselves about what I meant when I said, ‘A little while, and you will not see Me, and again a little while, and you will see Me’?”

²⁰“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, that you will weep and grieve [in great mourning], but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy.

²¹“A woman, when she is in labor, has pain because her time [to give birth] has come; but when she has given birth to the child, she no longer remembers the anguish because of her joy that a child has come into the world.

²²“So for now you are in grief; but I will see you again, and [then] your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take away from you your [great] joy.

²³“In that day you will not [need to] ask Me about anything. I assure you and most solemnly say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name [as My representative], He will give you.

²⁴“Until now you have not asked [the Father] for anything in My name; but now ask and keep on asking and you will receive, so that your joy may be full and complete.

²⁵“I have told you these things in figurative language (veiled language, proverbs); the hour is now coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech, but I will tell you plainly about the Father.

²⁶“In that day you will ask in My name, and I am not saying to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf [because it will be unnecessary];

²⁷for the Father Himself [tenderly] loves you, because you have loved Me and have believed that I came from the Father.

²⁸“I came from the Father and have come into the world; again, I am leaving the world and going to the Father.”

²⁹His disciples said, “Ah, now You are speaking plainly to us and not in figures of speech!

³⁰“Now we know that You know all things, and have no need for anyone to question You; because of this we believe [without any doubt] that you came from God.”

POWERPOINT

John 16:33 teaches us that we can count on difficulties in our lives, but we can also be courageous (some translations say “be of good cheer”), which is another way of saying we can stay positive, because Jesus has deprived the hardship of any power to harm us. I don’t think this verse means we will never hurt, grieve, or encounter challenges, only that painful situations cannot do any permanent harm. All things work together for our good (see Rom. 8:28). We must believe this truth no matter what happens and develop positive, hope-filled attitudes toward life based on it.

³¹ Jesus answered them, “Do you now [at last] believe?

³²“Take careful notice: an hour is coming, and has arrived, when you will all be scattered, each to his own home, leaving Me alone; and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me.

³³“I have told you these things, so that in Me you may have [perfect] peace. In the world you have tribulation and distress and suffering, but be courageous [be confident, be undaunted, be filled with joy]; I have overcome the world.” [My conquest is accomplished, My victory abiding.]

17 WHEN JESUS had spoken these things, He raised His eyes to heaven [in prayer] and said, “Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, so that Your Son may glorify You.

²“Just as You have given Him power and authority over all mankind, [now glorify Him] so that He may give eternal life to all whom You have given Him [to be His—permanently and forever].

³“Now this is eternal life: that they may know You, the only true [supreme and sovereign] God, and [in the same manner know] Jesus [as the] Christ whom You have sent.

⁴“I have glorified You [down here] on the earth by completing the work that You gave Me to do.

⁵“Now, Father, glorify Me together with Yourself, with the glory and majesty that I had with You before the world existed.

⁶“I have manifested Your name [and revealed Your very self, Your real self] to the people whom You have given Me out of the world; they were Yours and You gave them to Me, and they have kept and obeyed Your word.

⁷“Now [at last] they know [with confident assurance] that all You have given Me is from You [it is really and truly Yours].

⁸“For the words which You gave Me I have given them; and they received and accepted them and truly understood [with confident assurance] that I came from You [from Your presence], and they believed [without any doubt] that You sent Me.

⁹“I pray for them; I do not pray for the world, but for those You have given Me, because they belong to You;

¹⁰and all things that are Mine are Yours, and [all things that are] Yours are Mine; and I am glorified in them.

¹¹“I am no longer in the world; yet they are still in the world, and I am coming to You. Holy Father, keep them in Your name, the name which You have given Me, so that they may be one just as We are.

¹²“While I was with them, I was keeping them in Your name which You have given Me; and I guarded them and protected them, and not one of them was lost except the son of destruction, so that the Scripture would be fulfilled. [Ps 41:9; John 6:70]

¹³“But now I am coming to You; and I say these things [while I am still] in the world so that they may experience My joy made full and complete and perfect within them [filling their hearts with My delight].

me and protect me from the evil one.*

• adapted from John 17:15

¹⁴“I have given to them Your word [the message You gave Me]; and the world has hated them because they are not of the world and do not belong to the world, just as I am not of the world and do not belong to it.

¹⁵“I do not ask You to take them out of the world, but that You keep them and protect them from the evil one.

¹⁶“They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.

¹⁷“Sanctify them in the truth [set them apart for Your purposes, make them holy]; Your word is truth.

¹⁸“Just as You commissioned and sent Me into the world, I also have commissioned and sent them (believers) into the world.

¹⁹“For their sake I sanctify Myself [to do Your will], so that they also may be sanctified [set apart, dedicated, made holy] in [Your] truth.

POWERPOINT

In John 17:16, Jesus said that though we are in the world, we are not of the world. As believers, it's important to resist the pull of the world that continually tugs at us. We can choose to refuse to be like the world and determine to live holy lives. Being a Christian does not simply mean attending church or reading a Bible verse each day. It is a lifestyle, a way of living and approaching every area of our lives with God's Word. It is not the way the world lives; it is the way God means for us to live, and it brings peace, joy, hope, wisdom, strength, and spiritual enablement.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, I pray that the love with which You have loved Your Son may be in Me, overwhelming my heart.

• adapted from John 17:26

²⁰“I do not pray for these alone [it is not for their sake only that I make this request], but also for [all] those who [will ever] believe and trust in Me through their message, ²¹that they all may be one; just as You, Father, are in Me and I in You, that they also may be one in Us, so that the world may believe [without any doubt] that You sent Me.

²²“I have given to them the glory and honor which You have given Me, that they may be one, just as We are one;

²³I in them and You in Me, that they may be perfected and completed into one, so that the world may know [without any doubt] that You sent Me, and [that You] have loved them, just as You have loved Me.

²⁴“Father, I desire that they also, whom You have given to Me [as Your gift to Me], may be with Me where I am, so that they may see My glory which You have given Me, because You loved Me before the foundation of the world.

²⁵“O just and righteous Father, although the world has not known You and has never acknowledged You [and the revelation of Your mercy], yet I have always known You; and these [believers] know [without any doubt] that You sent Me; ²⁶and I have made Your name known to them, and will continue to make it known, so that the love with which You have loved Me may be in them [overwhelming their heart], and I [may be] in them.”

18 HAVING SAID these things, Jesus left with His disciples and went across the ravine of the Kidron. There was a garden there, which He and His disciples entered.

²Now Judas, who was betraying Him, knew the place, because Jesus had often met there with His disciples.

³So Judas, having obtained the Roman cohort and some officers from the high priests and the Pharisees, came there with lanterns and torches and weapons. [Matt 26:47–56; Mark 14:43–50; Luke 22:47–53]

⁴Then Jesus, knowing all that was about to happen to Him, went to them and asked, “Whom do you want?”

⁵They answered Him, “Jesus the Nazarene.” Jesus said, “I am He.” And Judas, who was betraying Him, was also standing with them.

⁶When Jesus said, “I am He,” they drew back and fell to the ground.

⁷Again He asked them, “Whom do you want?” And they said, “Jesus the Nazarene.”

⁸Jesus answered, “I told you that I am He; so if you want Me, let these men go on their way.”

⁹*This was to fulfill and* verify the words He had spoken, “Of those whom You have given Me, I have not lost even one.” [John 6:39; 17:12]

¹⁰Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the high priest’s servant, cutting off his right ear. The servant’s name was Malchus.

¹¹So Jesus said to Peter, “Put the sword [back] in its sheath! Shall I not drink the cup which My Father has given Me?”

¹²So the cohort and their commander and the officers of the Jews arrested Jesus and bound Him, ¹³and led Him to Annas first; for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.

¹⁴It was Caiaphas who had advised the Jews that it was expedient for one man to die on behalf of the people. [John 11:49, 50]

¹⁵Simon Peter and another disciple were following Jesus. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, so he went with Jesus into the courtyard of the [residence of the] high priest; ¹⁶but Peter was standing outside at the door. So the other disciple (John), who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the doorkeeper, and brought Peter inside. [Matt 26:69–75; Mark 14:66–72; Luke 22:55–62]

¹⁷Then the servant girl who kept the door said to Peter,

“You are not one of this Man’s disciples, are you?” He said, “I am not.”

¹⁸Now the servants and the officers had made a fire of coals, because it was cold, and they were standing and warming themselves. And Peter was with them, standing and warming himself.

¹⁹Then the high priest questioned Jesus about His disciples and about His teaching. [Matt 26:59–68; Mark 14:55–65; Luke 22:63–71]

²⁰Jesus answered him, “I have spoken openly to the world. I always taught in a synagogue and in the temple [area], where all the Jews habitually congregate; and I said nothing in secret.

²¹“Why question Me? Question those who have heard what I said to them. They know what I said.”

²²But when He said this, one of the officers who was standing nearby struck Jesus [in the face], saying, “Is that how You answer the high priest?”

²³Jesus replied, “If I have said anything wrong, make a formal statement about the wrong; but if [I spoke] properly, why did you strike Me?”

²⁴So Annas sent Him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

²⁵Now Simon Peter was [still] standing and warming himself. So they said to him, “You are not one of His disciples, are you?” He denied it and said, “I am not.” [Matt 26:71–75; Mark 14:69–72; Luke 22:58–62]

²⁶One of the high priest’s servants, a relative of the one whose ear Peter cut off, said, “Did I not see you with Him in the garden?”

²⁷ So Peter denied it again, and immediately a rooster crowed.

²⁸ Then the Jews led Jesus from Caiaphas to the Praetorium (governor's palace). Now it was early and the Jews did not enter the Praetorium so that they would not be [ceremonially] unclean, but might [be able to] eat [and participate in the Feast of Unleavened Bread which began after] the Passover [supper].

²⁹ So Pilate came out to them and asked, "What accusation do you bring against this Man?" [Matt 27:11–14; Mark 15:2–5; Luke 23:2, 3]

³⁰ They answered, "If He were not a criminal, we would not have handed Him over to you [for judgment]."

³¹ Then Pilate said to them, "Take Him yourselves and judge Him according to your own law." The Jews said, "We are not permitted to put anyone to death."

³² This was to fulfill the word which Jesus had spoken to indicate by what manner of death He was going to die. [John 12:32–34]

³³ So Pilate went into the Praetorium again, and called Jesus and asked Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

³⁴ Jesus replied, "Are you saying this on your own initiative, or did others tell you about Me?"

³⁵ Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own people and their chief priests have handed You over to me. What have You done [that is worthy of death]?"

³⁶ Jesus replied, "My kingdom is not of this world [nor does it have its origin in this world]. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would be fighting [hard] to keep Me from being handed over to the Jews; but as it is, My kingdom is not of this world.”

³⁷So Pilate said to Him, “Then You are a King?” Jesus answered, “You say [correctly] that I am a King. This is why I was born, and for this I have come into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth [who is a friend of the truth and belongs to the truth] hears and listens carefully to My voice.” [Dan 7:13, 14; Luke 1:32, 33]

³⁸Pilate said to Him [scornfully], “What is truth?”

And when he had said this, he went out to the Jews again and told them, “I find no guilt in Him [no crime, no cause for an accusation].

³⁹“But you have a custom that I release someone for you at the Passover. So shall I release for you the King of the Jews?” [Matt 27:15–26; Mark 15:6–15; Luke 23:18–25]

⁴⁰Then they all shouted back again, “Not this Man, but Barabbas!” Now Barabbas was a robber.

19 SO THEN Pilate took Jesus and had Him scourged (flogged, whipped).

²And the soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on His head, and put a purple robe around Him; [Matt 27:27–30; Mark 15:16–19]

³and they kept coming up to Him, saying [mockingly], “Hail, King of the Jews [Good health! Peace! Long life to you, King of the Jews]!” And they slapped Him in the face. [Is 53:3, 5, 7]

⁴Then Pilate came out again and said to them, “Look, I am bringing Him out to you so that you may know that I find no guilt in Him [no crime, no cause for an accusation].”

⁵ So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe, and Pilate said to them, “Look! The Man!”

⁶ When the chief priests and officers saw Him, they shouted, “Crucify [Him]! Crucify [Him]!” Pilate said to them, “Take Him yourselves and crucify Him, for I find no guilt in Him [no crime, no cause for an accusation].” [Luke 23:4, 14, 22; John 18:38; 19:4]

⁷ The Jews answered him, “We have a law [regarding blasphemy], and according to that law He should die, because He made Himself out to be the Son of God.” [Lev 24:16]

⁸ So when Pilate heard this said, he was [even] more alarmed and afraid.

⁹ He went into the Praetorium again and said to Jesus, “Where are You from?” But Jesus did not answer him. [Is 53:7]

¹⁰ So Pilate said to Him, “You do not speak to me? Do You not know that I have authority to release You, and I have authority to crucify You?”

¹¹ Jesus answered, “You would have no authority over Me at all if it had not been given to you from above. For this reason the sin and guilt of the one who handed Me over to you is greater [than your own].”

¹² As a result of this, Pilate kept making efforts to release Him, but the Jews kept screaming, “If you release this Man, you are no friend of Caesar! Anyone who makes himself out [to be] a king opposes Caesar [and rebels against the emperor]!”

¹³ When Pilate heard this, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

¹⁴Now it was the day of Preparation for the Passover [week], and it was about the sixth hour. He said to the Jews, “Look, your King!”

¹⁵But they shouted, “Away with Him, away with Him, crucify Him!” Pilate said to them, “Shall I crucify your King?” The chief priests answered, “We have no king but Caesar!”

¹⁶Then he handed Him over to them to be crucified.

¹⁷So they took Jesus, and He went out, bearing His own cross, to the place called the Place of the Skull, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha. [Matt 27:33–44; Mark 15:22–32; Luke 23:33–43]

¹⁸There they crucified Him, and with Him two others, one on either side, and Jesus between them. [Is 53:12]

¹⁹Pilate also wrote an inscription [on a placard] and put it on the cross. And it was written: “JESUS THE NAZARENE, THE KING OF THE JEWS.” [Matt 27:33–44; Mark 15:22–32; Luke 23:33–43]

²⁰And many of the Jews read this inscription, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek.

²¹Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, “Do not write, ‘The King of the Jews’; but, ‘He said, “I am King of the Jews.””

²²Pilate replied, “What I have written I have written [and it remains written].”

²³Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took His outer clothes and made four parts, a part for each soldier, and also the tunic. But the tunic was seamless, woven [in one piece] from the top throughout. [Matt 27:35; Mark 15:24; Luke

23:34]

²⁴So they said to one another, “Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it, to decide whose it will be.” This was to fulfill the Scripture, “THEY DIVIDED MY OUTER CLOTHING AMONG THEM, AND FOR MY CLOTHING THEY CAST LOTS.” [Ps 22:18]

²⁵So the soldiers did these things.

But standing by the cross of Jesus were His mother, His mother’s sister [Salome], Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. [Mark 15:40]

²⁶So Jesus, seeing His mother, and the disciple whom He loved (esteemed) standing near, said to His mother, “[Dear] woman, look, [here is] your son!”

²⁷Then He said to the disciple (John), “Look! [here is] your mother [protect and provide for her]!” From that hour the disciple took her into his own home.

²⁸After this, Jesus, knowing that all was now finished, said in fulfillment of the Scripture, “I am thirsty.” [Ps 69:21]

²⁹A jar full of sour wine was placed there; so they put a sponge soaked in the sour wine on [a branch of] hyssop and held it to His mouth. [Matt 27:48, 50; Mark 15:36f; Luke 23:36]

³⁰When Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, “It is finished!” And He bowed His head and [voluntarily] gave up His spirit.

³¹Since it was the day of Preparation [for the Sabbath], in order to prevent the bodies from hanging on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high holy day) the Jews asked Pilate to have their legs broken [to hasten death] and the bodies taken away.

³²So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man, and of the other who had been crucified with Him.

³³But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs.

³⁴But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came [flowing] out.

³⁵And he (John, the eyewitness) who has seen it has testified, and his testimony is true; and he knows that he is telling the truth, so that you also [who read this] may believe.

³⁶For these things took place to fulfill the Scripture, “NOT A BONE OF HIS SHALL BE BROKEN.” [Ex 12:46; Num 9:12; Ps 34:20]

³⁷And again another Scripture says, “THEY SHALL LOOK AT HIM WHOM THEY HAVE PIERCED.” [Zech 12:10]

³⁸And after this, Joseph of Arimathea—a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews—asked Pilate to let him take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took away His body. [Matt 27:57–61; Mark 15:42–47; Luke 23:50–56]

³⁹Nicodemus, who had first come to Him at night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, [weighing] about a hundred [Roman] pounds.

⁴⁰So they took Jesus’ body and bound it in linen wrappings with the fragrant spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews.

⁴¹Now there was a garden at the place where He was crucified, and in the garden a new tomb [cut out of solid rock] in which no one had yet been laid.

⁴²Therefore, because of the Jewish day of Preparation, and since the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

20 NOW ON the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw the stone [already] removed from the [groove across the entrance of the] tomb. [Matt 28:1–8; Mark 16:1–8; Luke 24:1–10]

²So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple (John), whom Jesus loved (esteemed), and said to them, “They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him!”

³So Peter and the other disciple left, and they were going to the tomb. [Luke 24:12]

⁴And the two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and arrived at the tomb first.

⁵Stooping down and looking in, he saw the linen wrappings [neatly] lying there; but he did not go in.

⁶Then Simon Peter came up, following him, and went into the tomb and saw the linen wrappings [neatly] lying there;

⁷and the [burial] face-cloth which had been on Jesus’ head, not lying with the [other] linen wrappings, but rolled up in a place by itself.

⁸So the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, went in too; and he saw [the wrappings and the face-cloth] and believed [without any doubt that Jesus had risen from the dead].

⁹For as yet they did not understand the Scripture, that He must rise from the dead. [Ps 16:10]

¹⁰Then the disciples went back again to their own homes.

¹¹But Mary [who had returned] was standing outside the tomb sobbing; and so, as she wept, she stooped down and looked into the tomb;

¹²and she saw two angels in white sitting there, one at the head and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

¹³And they said to her, “Woman, why are you crying?” She told them, “Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him.”

¹⁴After saying this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus.

¹⁵Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you crying? For whom are you looking?” Supposing that He was the gardener, she replied, “Sir, if you are the one who has carried Him away from here, tell me where you have put Him, and I will take Him away.”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Christ's Representatives

We all need a strong foundation of good, solid biblical doctrine. Along with doctrine, we also need to know how to live our lives practically. If we are going to represent Jesus properly as He commissioned us to do (see John 20:21), we need to walk victoriously (see 2 Cor. 5:20). We are not of the world, but we walk in the world and the world needs to see Jesus through us.

The Bible states that we are more than conquerors (see Rom. 8:37), and we are to reign as kings in life through Jesus Christ (see Rom. 5:17). When we are victorious, others see it and want the same victories in their lives. To put it plainly, if we want other people to accept Jesus, we must show them that having a relationship with Him makes a real difference in our lives. We are His personal representatives on earth, and we need to represent Him well.

¹⁶Jesus said to her, “Mary!” She turned and said to Him in Hebrew, “Rabboni!” (which means, Teacher).

¹⁷Jesus said to her, “Do not hold Me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to My brothers and tell them, ‘I am ascending to My Father and your Father, and to My God and your God.’”

¹⁸Mary Magdalene came, reporting to the disciples that she had seen the Lord and that He had said these things to her.

¹⁹So when it was evening on that same day, the first day of the week, though the disciples were [meeting] behind barred doors for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them, and said, “Peace to you.”

²⁰After He said this, He showed them His hands and His side. When the disciples saw the Lord, they were filled with great joy.

²¹Then Jesus said to them again, “Peace to you; as the Father has sent Me, I also send you [as My representatives].”

²²And when He said this, He breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. [Acts 1:8; 2:1–3]

²³“If you forgive the sins of anyone they are forgiven [because of their faith]; if you retain the sins of anyone, they are retained [and remain unforgiven because of their unbelief].”

²⁴But Thomas, one of the twelve [disciples], who was called Didymus (the twin), was not with them when Jesus came.

²⁵So the other disciples kept telling him, “We have seen the Lord!” But he said to them, “Unless I see in His hands the marks of the nails, and put my finger into the nail prints, and put my hand into His side, I will never believe.”

²⁶Eight days later His disciples were again inside the house, and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, though the doors had been barred, and stood among them and said, “Peace to you.”

²⁷Then He said to Thomas, “Reach here with your finger, and see My hands; and put out your hand and place it in My side. Do not be unbelieving, but [stop doubting and] believe.” [Luke 24:39]

²⁸Thomas answered Him, “My Lord and my God!”

²⁹Jesus said to him, “Because you have seen Me, do you now believe? Blessed [happy, spiritually secure, and favored by God] are they who did not see [Me] and yet believed [in Me].”

Speak God's Word

*I will not be unbelieving.
With God's help, I will stop doubting and always believe.*

| adapted from JOHN 20:27 |

³⁰There are also many other signs (attesting miracles) that Jesus performed in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; ³¹but these have been written so that you may believe [with a deep, abiding trust] that Jesus is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), the Son of God; and that by believing [and trusting in and relying on Him] you may have life in His name. [Ps 2:7, 12]

21 AFTER THIS Jesus revealed Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias (Galilee). And He did it in this way: ²Simon Peter, and Thomas who is called Didymus (the twin), and Nathanael from Cana of Galilee, as well as [John and James] the sons of Zebedee, and two others of His disciples were together.

³Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said, "And we are coming with you." So they went out and got into the boat; and that night they caught nothing.

⁴As morning was breaking, Jesus [came and] stood on the beach; however, the disciples did not know that it was Jesus.

⁵So Jesus said to them, “Children, do you have any fish [to eat along with your bread]?” They answered, “No.”

⁶And He said to them, “Cast the net on the right-hand side of the boat (starboard) and you will find some.” So they cast [the net], and then they were not able to haul it in because of the great catch of fish.

⁷Then that disciple (John) whom Jesus loved (esteemed) said to Peter, “It is the Lord!” So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer tunic (for he was stripped for work) and threw himself into the sea [and swam ashore].

⁸But the other disciples came in the small boat, for they were not far from shore, only about a hundred yards away, dragging the net full of fish.

⁹So when they got out on the beach, they saw a charcoal fire set up and fish on it cooking, and bread.

¹⁰Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish which you have just caught.”

¹¹So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net to land, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three [of them]; and although there were so many, the net was not torn.

POWERPOINT

In John 21:15–17, Jesus asked Peter three times, “Do you love Me?” According to the Amplified Bible, Jesus was asking Peter if he loved Him “with total commitment and devotion” (John 21:15–16) and if he loved Him with the deep personal affection a person feels for a close friend (see John 21:17). Each time, Peter said yes. Jesus told him to “Feed My sheep.” Jesus was telling Peter to help other people as a way of expressing his love for Him. In the same way, you and I prove our love for Him by caring for others (see John 13:35).

¹²Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” None of the disciples dared to ask Him, “Who are You?” They knew [without any doubt] that it was the Lord.

¹³ Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and likewise the fish.

¹⁴ This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples, after He had risen from the dead.

¹⁵ So when they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me more than these [others do—with total commitment and devotion]?” He said to Him, “Yes, Lord; You know that I love You [with a deep, personal affection, as for a close friend].” Jesus said to him, “Feed My lambs.”

¹⁶ Again He said to him a second time, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me [with total commitment and devotion]?” He said to Him, “Yes, Lord; You know that I love You [with a deep, personal affection, as for a close friend].” Jesus said to him, “Shepherd My sheep.”

¹⁷ He said to him the third time, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me [with a deep, personal affection for Me, as for a close friend]?” Peter was grieved that He asked him the third time, “Do you [really] love Me [with a deep, personal affection, as for a close friend]?” And he said to Him, “Lord, You know everything; You know that I love You [with a deep, personal affection, as for a close friend].” Jesus said to him, “Feed My sheep.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Don't Compare, Just Comply

An important key to overcoming insecurity is simple: Never compare yourself to anyone else, because doing so invites condemnation.

I strongly encourage you to stop comparing yourself to other people concerning how you look, what position you occupy, or how long you pray. Comparison only thwarts God's working in your life. God can only help you be "you." He will not help you be someone else.

In the same way, comparing our trials and tribulations to those of other people does no one any good. In the midst of dealing with some hard situations in your life, you cannot look at somebody else and say, "Why is all this happening to me while everything comes up roses for you?" Sometimes, other people are going through difficulties too, and you may not be aware of their struggles.

Jesus revealed to Peter ahead of time some of the suffering he would go through. Peter immediately wanted to compare his suffering and his lot in life with somebody else's by saying, "What about this man?"

Jesus said to Peter, "If I want him to stay alive until I come [again], what is that to you? You follow Me!" (John 21:22).

That is His answer to us as well. We are not called to compare, only to comply to His will for us.

God wants you to know that you are unique and that He has a distinctively specialized plan for your life. Totally trusting God and His wisdom and goodness will bring an amazing peace into your life.

¹⁸“I assure you and most solemnly say to you, when you were younger you dressed yourself and walked wherever you wished; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands and arms, and someone else will dress you, and carry you where you do not wish to go.”

¹⁹Now He said this to indicate the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God. And after saying this, He said to him, “Follow Me [walk the same path of life that I have walked]!”

²⁰Peter turned and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them; the one who also had leaned back on His chest at the supper and had said, “Lord, who is it that is going to betray You?”

²¹So when Peter saw him, he asked Jesus, “Lord, and what about this man [what is in his future]?”

²²Jesus said to him, “If I want him to stay alive until I come [again], what is that to you? You follow Me!”

²³So this word went out among the brothers that this disciple (John) was not going to die; yet Jesus did not say to him that he was not going to die, but only, “If I want him to stay alive until I come [again], what is that to you?”

! REMEMBER, God always leads you in triumph in Christ!

24 This is the same disciple who is testifying to these things and has recorded them; and we know [without any doubt] that his testimony is true.

25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, which if they were recorded one by one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that would be written.

Acts

Through the years, people have described the book of Acts in various ways. Some have called it “The Acts of the Apostles,” while others have referred to it as “The Acts of the Holy Spirit.” Certainly, the book includes many stories about both the apostles and the Holy Spirit.

In Acts 1:8, Jesus spoke to His disciples about the Holy Spirit, saying that He would give them “power and ability.” What kind of power and ability does He give us? All the power and ability we need to live the life that Jesus died to give us. Because this Bible focuses on winning the battle of the mind, I want to say this about the Holy Spirit: Only He can give you the power and ability to change your thoughts. Only He can enable you to gain victory over the enemy who attacks your mind. I encourage you to stay filled with the Holy Spirit so that you have access to the power and ability

He offers you.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM ACTS:

Be filled with the Holy Spirit. He will empower you, lead you, and fill you with joy (see Acts 2:1–6; 13:9, 52).

The name of Jesus is powerful and brings strength, healing, and wholeness (see Acts 3:16).

The same power that freed Paul and Silas from prison is available to set free those who are imprisoned by wrong thinking and the problems it causes (see Acts 16:26).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM ACTS:

You will receive power and ability when the Holy Spirit comes upon you; and you will be My witnesses [to tell people about Me]. | Acts 1:8

There is salvation in no one else; for there is no other name under heaven... by which we must be saved. | Acts 4:12

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak the word of God with boldness and courage. | Acts 4:31

OF THE APOSTLES

1 THE FIRST account I made, Theophilus, was [a continuous report] about all the things that Jesus began to do and to teach [Luke 1:1–4]

²until the day when He ascended to heaven, after He had by the Holy Spirit given instruction to the apostles (special messengers) whom He had chosen.

³To these [men] He also showed Himself alive after His suffering [in Gethsemane and on the cross], by [a series of] many infallible proofs and unquestionable demonstrations, appearing to them over a period of forty days and talking to them about the things concerning the kingdom of God.

⁴While being together and eating with them, He commanded them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for what the Father had promised, “Of which,” He said, “you have heard Me speak. [John 14:16, 26; 15:26]

⁵“For John baptized with water, but you will be baptized and empowered and united with the Holy Spirit, not long from now.”

⁶So when they had come together, they asked Him repeatedly, “Lord, are You at this time reestablishing the kingdom and restoring it to Israel?”

⁷He said to them, “It is not for you to know the times or epochs which the Father has fixed by His own authority.

⁸“But you will receive power and ability when the Holy Spirit comes upon you; and you will be My witnesses [to tell people about Me] both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and Samaria, and even to the ends of the earth.”

⁹And after He said these things, He was caught up as they looked on, and a cloud took Him up out of their sight.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that I will receive power and ability when the Holy Spirit comes upon me; and I can be Your witness even to the ends of the earth.

• adapted from Acts 1:8

¹⁰While they were looking intently into the sky as He was going, two men in white clothing suddenly stood beside them,

¹¹who said, “Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This [same] Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will return in just the same way as you have watched Him go into heaven.”

¹²Then the disciples returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet (Olive Grove), which is near Jerusalem, [only] a Sabbath day’s journey (less than one mile) away.

¹³When they had entered the city, they went upstairs to the upper room where they were staying [indefinitely]; that is, Peter, and John and [his brother] James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew (Nathanael) and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas (Thaddaeus) the son of James.

¹⁴All these with one mind and one purpose were continually devoting themselves to prayer, [waiting together] along with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers.

¹⁵Now on one of these days Peter stood up among the brothers and sisters (a gathering of about a hundred and twenty believers was there) and he said, ¹⁶“Brothers and sisters, it was necessary that the Scripture be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit foretold by the lips of David [king of Israel] about Judas [Iscaiot], who acted as guide to those who arrested Jesus.

¹⁷“For he (Judas) was counted among us and received his share [by divine allotment] in this ministry.”

¹⁸(Now Judas Iscaiot acquired a piece of land [indirectly] with the [money paid him as a] reward for his treachery, and falling headlong, his body burst open in the middle and all his intestines poured out.

¹⁹All the people in Jerusalem learned about this, so in their own dialect—Aramaic—they called the piece of land Hakeldama, that is, Field of Blood.)

KEYS to a Victorious Life

United Faith

Throughout the book of Acts, we read that God's people "came together" in unity (Acts 1:14; 2:1, 46; 4:24; 5:12; 15:25). It was their united faith, their corporate agreement, and the presence of Jesus by the power of the Holy Spirit that made their prayers so effective (see Acts 1:14). They saw God move in mighty ways to confirm the truth of His Word as they gave testimony to their faith in Jesus.

Paul writes in Philippians 2:2, "make my joy complete by being of the same mind, having the same love [toward one another], knit together in spirit, intent on one purpose [and living a life that reflects your faith and spreads the gospel—the good news regarding salvation through faith in Christ]."

This verse teaches us an important principle about corporate prayer: If we will heed its words and come into harmony and agreement with God and with one another, we will experience the same kind of powerful results the first-century disciples enjoyed.

When you gather together to pray with other believers, expect God to show His power!

²⁰“For in the book of Psalms it is written,

‘LET HIS PLACE OF RESIDENCE BECOME DESOLATE,

AND LET THERE BE NO ONE TO LIVE IN IT’;
and [again],

‘LET ANOTHER TAKE HIS POSITION AS OVERSEER.’ [Ps 69:25; 109:8]

²¹“So of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus spent with us, ²²beginning with the baptism by John [at the outset of Jesus’ ministry] until the day when He was taken up from us—one of these men must become a witness with us [to testify] of His resurrection.”

²³And they put forward two men, Joseph, the one called Barsabbas (who was surnamed Justus), and Matthias.

²⁴They prayed and said, “You, Lord, who know all hearts [their thoughts, motives, desires], show us which one of these two You have chosen ²⁵to occupy this ministry and apostleship which Judas left to go to his own place [of evil].”

²⁶And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell to Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

2 WHEN THE day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place, ²and suddenly a sound came from heaven like a rushing violent wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.

³There appeared to them tongues resembling fire, which were being distributed [among them], and they rested on each one of them [as each person received the Holy Spirit].

⁴And they were all filled [that is, diffused throughout their being] with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other ~~—~~*tongues (different languages), as the Spirit was giving them the ability to speak out [clearly and appropriately].

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Pray To Be Filled with the Power of the Spirit

On the day of Pentecost, 120 believers were gathered together in one place, where they had been waiting and praying for the promised outpouring of the Holy Spirit (see Acts 2:1). Suddenly, they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance (see Acts 2:4). They received a supernatural spiritual language that came from their spirit, a language their minds did not understand. At that time, people from every country were residing in Jerusalem. They heard the disciples speak in their own native languages, even though the disciples had never learned those languages. They were beside themselves with amazement! This event was a way of God's showing His miraculous power.

Acts 2:7 says that they "were completely astonished." I am sure that everyone was behaving very emotionally. Some people thought that those who were filled with the Spirit were drunk, but it was only 9 o'clock in the morning (see Acts 2:15)! They also witnessed Peter, who due to fear had recently denied even knowing Jesus, now boldly proclaiming the gospel! When we are filled with the Spirit, we too will become bold rather than fearful.

We should all pray to be completely filled with the power of the Holy Spirit as these disciples were on Pentecost. Today's world needs to witness the power of God. The Bible teaches that if we ask the Father for the Holy Spirit and keep on asking, God will give Him to us (see Luke 11:13). I believe that anyone who is born again has the Holy Spirit, but we need to be filled with the Spirit. Paul said we are to “be filled with the [Holy] Spirit and constantly guided by Him” (Eph. 5:18).

There are wonderful supernatural gifts of the Holy Spirit available to us, and they will enable us to be effective in living our lives for God and being an example to other people (see 1 Cor. 12:1–13). I encourage you to study God's Word in this area and always be filled with the Holy Spirit.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord, I pray that I will always be filled with the Holy Spirit, and that any fear in my life will be replaced with boldness. In Jesus' name. Amen.

⁵Now there were Jews living in Jerusalem, devout and God-fearing men from every nation under heaven.

⁶And when this sound was heard, a crowd gathered, and they were bewildered because each one was hearing those in the upper room speaking in his own language or dialect.

⁷They were completely astonished, saying, “Look! Are not all of these who are speaking Galileans?”

⁸“Then how is it that each of us hears in our own language or native dialect?”

⁹“[Among us there are] Parthians, Medes and Elamites, and people of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia [Minor], ¹⁰Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya around Cyrene, and the visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes (Gentile converts to Judaism), ¹¹Cretans and Arabs—we all hear them speaking in our [native] tongues about the mighty works of God!”

¹²And they were beside themselves with amazement and were greatly perplexed, saying one to another, “What could this mean?”

¹³But others were laughing and joking and ridiculing them, saying, “They are full of sweet wine and are drunk!”

¹⁴But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: “Men of Judea and all you who live in Jerusalem, let this be explained to you; listen closely and pay attention to what I have to say.

¹⁵“These people are not drunk, as you assume, since it is [only] the third hour of the day (9:00 a.m.);

¹⁶but this is [the beginning of] what was spoken of through the prophet Joel:

¹⁷‘AND IT SHALL BE IN THE LAST DAYS,’ says God,

‘THAT I WILL POUR OUT MY SPIRIT UPON ALL MANKIND; AND YOUR SONS AND YOUR DAUGHTERS SHALL PROPHECY, AND YOUR YOUNG MEN SHALL SEE [divinely prompted] VISIONS,

AND YOUR OLD MEN SHALL DREAM [divinely prompted] DREAMS;

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that everyone who calls upon Your Name—invoking, adoring, and worshiping the Lord Jesus—shall be saved!

• adapted from Acts 2:21

- 18EVEN ON MY BOND-SERVANTS, BOTH MEN AND WOMEN,
I WILL IN THOSE DAYS POUR OUT MY SPIRIT
And they shall prophesy.
- 19‘AND I WILL BRING ABOUT WONDERS IN THE SKY ABOVE
AND SIGNS (attesting miracles) ON THE EARTH BELOW, BLOOD AND FIRE AND SMOKING VAPOR.
- 20‘THE SUN SHALL BE TURNED INTO DARKNESS
AND THE MOON INTO BLOOD,
BEFORE THE GREAT AND GLORIOUS DAY OF THE LORD COMES.
- 21‘AND IT SHALL BE THAT EVERYONE WHO CALLS UPON THE NAME
OF THE LORD [invoking, adoring, and worshiping the Lord
Jesus] SHALL BE SAVED (rescued spiritually).’ [Joel 2:28–32]

22“Men of Israel, listen to these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a Man accredited and pointed out and attested to you by God with [the power to perform] miracles and wonders and signs which God worked through Him in your [very] midst, just as you yourselves know—²³this Man, when handed over [to the Roman authorities] according to the predetermined decision and foreknowledge of God, you nailed to a cross and put to death by the hands of lawless and godless men.

24“But God raised Him up, releasing Him and bringing an end to the agony of death, since it was impossible for Him to be held in death’s power.

25“For David says of Him,

‘I SAW THE LORD CONSTANTLY BEFORE ME;

FOR HE IS AT MY RIGHT HAND, SO THAT I WILL NOT BE SHAKEN [from my state of security].

- 26‘THEREFORE MY HEART REJOICED AND MY TONGUE EXULTED EXCEEDINGLY;
MOREOVER MY FLESH ALSO WILL LIVE IN HOPE [that is, will encamp in anticipation of the resurrection];
- 27‘FOR YOU WILL NOT FORSAKE ME and ABANDON MY SOUL TO HADES (the realm of the dead), NOR LET YOUR HOLY ONE UNDERGO DECAY [after death].
- 28‘YOU HAVE MADE KNOWN TO ME THE WAYS OF LIFE;
YOU WILL FILL ME [infusing my soul] WITH JOY WITH YOUR PRESENCE.’ [Ps 16:8–11]

29“Brothers, I may confidently and freely say to you regarding the patriarch David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.

30“And so, being a prophet and knowing fully that GOD HAD SWORN TO HIM WITH AN OATH THAT HE WOULD SEAT one OF
HIS DESCENDANTS ON HIS THRONE, [2 Sam 7:12–16; Ps 132:11]

31he foresaw and spoke [prophetically] of the resurrection of the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), that HE WAS NOT ABANDONED [in death] TO HADES (the realm of the dead), NOR DID His body UNDERGO DECAY. [Ps 16:10]

32“God raised this Jesus [bodily from the dead], and of that [fact] we are all witnesses.

33“Therefore having been exalted to the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He has poured out this [blessing] which you both see and hear.

34“For David did not ascend into the heavens, yet he himself says,

‘THE LORD [the Father] SAID TO MY LORD [the Son], “SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND, ³⁵UNTIL I MAKE YOUR ENEMIES A FOOTSTOOL FOR YOUR FEET.” ’

[Ps 110:1]

³⁶“Therefore let all the house of Israel recognize beyond all doubt that God has made Him both Lord and Christ (Messiah, Anointed)—this Jesus whom you crucified.”

³⁷Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart [with remorse and anxiety], and they said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, “Brothers, what are we to do?”

³⁸And Peter said to them, “Repent [change your old way of thinking, turn from your sinful ways, accept and follow Jesus as the Messiah] and be baptized, each of you, in the name of Jesus Christ because of the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

³⁹“For the promise [of the Holy Spirit] is for you and your children and for all who are far away [including the Gentiles], as many as the Lord our God calls to Himself.” [Is 57:19; Joel 2:32]

⁴⁰And Peter solemnly testified and continued to admonish and urge them with many more words, saying, “Be saved from this crooked and unjust generation!”

⁴¹So then, those who accepted his message were baptized; and on that day about 3,000 souls were added [to the body of believers].

⁴²They were continually and faithfully devoting themselves to the instruction of the apostles, and to fellowship, to eating meals together and to prayers.

⁴³A sense of awe was felt by everyone, and many wonders and signs (attesting miracles) were taking place through the apostles.

⁴⁴And all those who had believed [in Jesus as Savior] were together and had all things in common [considering their possessions to belong to the group as a whole].

⁴⁵And they began selling their property and possessions and were sharing the proceeds with all [the other believers], as anyone had need.

⁴⁶Day after day they met in the temple [area] continuing with one mind, and breaking bread in various private homes. They were eating their meals together with joy and generous hearts, ⁴⁷praising God continually, and having favor with all the people. And the Lord kept adding to their number daily those who were being saved.

3 NOW PETER and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour (3:00 p.m.), ²and a man who had been unable to walk from birth was being carried along, whom they used to set down every day at that gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, so that he could beg alms from those entering the temple.

³So when he saw Peter and John about to go into the temple, he began asking [them] for coins.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Prayer as a Lifestyle

Some people feel vaguely guilty about their prayer life because they compare themselves to others. God is very creative and wants each person to have his or her own individual prayer life. Yours doesn't have to be just like anyone else's.

Yet there are definite principles of prayer that we can follow. As we see in Acts 3:1, the early disciples set aside certain hours of the day when they went to a designated place to pray. That is good self-discipline, but it is only one of the options available to us as we pursue a life of prayer. We may also pray anytime, anywhere, with all kinds of prayer (see Eph. 6:18). I like to pray my way through the day. What I mean is that I pray anytime I feel the desire or the need, as well as having a set-apart prayer time each morning. I urge you not to take a legalistic approach to prayer, because if you do, you will not enjoy it and will find being diligent in it difficult.

All through the day we can continue to communicate with the Lord, praising and worshiping Him, thanking Him for His presence with us, and asking for His help with all our problems. Then just before we go to sleep at night, we can offer up a final prayer of gratitude for the blessings of the day and a request for a peaceful and refreshing night's sleep. God wants prayer to be a normal, regular part of our lives.

⁴But Peter, along with John, stared at him intently and said, “Look at us!”

⁵And the man began to pay attention to them, eagerly expecting to receive something from them.

⁶But Peter said, “Silver and gold I do not have; but what I do have I give to you: In the name (authority, power) of Jesus Christ the Nazarene—[begin now to] walk and go on walking!”

⁷Then he seized the man’s right hand with a firm grip and raised him up. And at once his feet and ankles became strong and steady, ⁸and with a leap he stood up and began to walk; and he went into the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God.

⁹All the people saw him walking and praising God;

¹⁰and they recognized him as the very man who usually sat begging for coins at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, and they were filled with wonder and amazement and were mystified at what had happened to him.

¹¹Now while he was still holding on to Peter and John, all the people, utterly amazed, ran together and crowded around them at the covered porch called Solomon’s portico.

¹²And Peter, seeing this, said to the people, “You men of Israel, why are you amazed at this? Why are you staring at us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk?

¹³“The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His Servant and Son Jesus [doing Him this honor], the One whom you handed over and disowned and rejected before Pilate, when he had decided to release Him. [Ex 3:6; Is 52:13]

¹⁴“But you disowned and denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked for [the pardon of] a murderer to be granted to you.

¹⁵“But you killed the Prince (Author, Originator, Source) of life, whom God raised [bodily] from the dead. To this [fact] we are witnesses [for we have seen the risen Christ].

¹⁶“And on the basis of faith in His name, it is the name of Jesus which has strengthened this man whom you see and know; and the faith which comes through Him has given him this perfect health and complete wholeness in your presence.

¹⁷“Now, brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance [not fully aware of what you were doing], just as your rulers did also.

¹⁹“So repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, regret past sins] and return [to God—seek His purpose for your life], so that your sins may be wiped away [blotted out, completely erased], so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord [restoring you like a cool wind on a hot day]; ²⁰and that He may send [to you] Jesus, the Christ, who has been appointed for you, ²¹whom heaven must keep until the time for the [complete] restoration of all things about which God promised through the mouth of His holy prophets from ancient time.

²²“Moses said, ‘THE LORD GOD WILL RAISE UP FOR YOU A PROPHET LIKE ME FROM YOUR COUNTRYMEN; YOU SHALL LISTEN TO HIM and OBEY everything He tells you.

²³‘And it will be that every person that does not listen to and heed that Prophet will be utterly destroyed from among the people.’ [Deut 18:15–19]

²⁴“Indeed, all the prophets who have spoken, from Samuel and those who came after him, also announced these days.

²⁵“You are the sons (descendants) of the prophets and [heirs] of the covenant which God made with your fathers, saying to Abraham, ‘AND IN YOUR SEED (descendant) ALL THE FAMILIES OF THE EARTH SHALL BE BLESSED.’ [Gen 22:18; Gal 3:16]

²⁶“It was for you first of all that God raised up His Servant and Son [Jesus], and sent Him to bless you by turning every one of you from your wicked ways.” [Acts 2:24; 3:22]

4 AND WHILE Peter and John were talking to the people, the priests and the captain [who was in charge of the temple area and] of the temple guard and the Sadducees came up to them,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Jesus' Name Is Power

The name of Jesus is power (see Acts 4:10). We should realize that we have the privilege of using His name and expecting great things to take place. We pray in Jesus' name, and when we do, we are presenting to God all that Jesus is!

Peter and John used the name of Jesus to heal a crippled man, and all who witnessed it were astounded (see Acts 3:1–10). They directed the people to give praise to God, because it was the power in Jesus' name that had raised him.

We can resist the devil and his deceptions in Jesus' name; we can ask for healing for the sick in Jesus' name, and of course we can pray any type of prayer in His name. I believe that when the name of Jesus is spoken in faith from our mouths, it gets attention in heaven, on the earth, and under the earth. When Jesus gave us His name, He gave us power of attorney to act on His behalf, so let us realize how precious and powerful that holy name is and believe that great things will happen.

²being extremely disturbed and thoroughly annoyed because they were teaching the people and proclaiming in [the case of] Jesus the resurrection of the dead.

³So they arrested them and put them in jail until the next day, because it was evening.

⁴But many of those who heard the message [of salvation] believed [in Jesus and accepted Him as the Christ]. And the number of the men came to be about 5,000.

⁵On the next day, their magistrates and elders and scribes (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) were gathered together in Jerusalem;

⁶and Annas the high priest was there, and Caiaphas and John and Alexander, and all others who were of high-priestly descent.

⁷When they had put the men in front of them, they repeatedly asked, “By what sort of power, or in what name [that is, by what kind of authority], did you do this [healing]?”

⁸Then Peter, filled with [the power of] the Holy Spirit, said to them, “Rulers and elders of the people [members of the Sanhedrin, the Jewish High Court],

⁹if we are being put on trial today [to interrogate us] for a good deed done to [benefit] a disabled man, as to how this man has been restored to health, ¹⁰let it be known and clearly understood by all of you, and by all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, whom you [demanded be] crucified [by the Romans and], whom God raised from the dead—in this name [that is, by the authority and power of Jesus] this man stands here before you in good health.

¹¹“This Jesus is the STONE WHICH WAS DESPISED and REJECTED by you, THE BUILDERS, but WHICH BECAME THE CHIEF CORNERSTONE. [Ps 118:22]

Speak God's Word

I know and believe that there is salvation in no one except Jesus Christ, the Lord. There is no other name under heaven by which we must be saved. God has provided the world no other alternative for salvation.

| adapted from ACTS 4:12 |

¹²“And there is salvation in no one else; for there is no other name under heaven that has been given among people by which we must be saved [for God has provided the world no alternative for salvation].”

¹³Now when the men of the Sanhedrin (Jewish High Court) saw the confidence and boldness of Peter and John, and grasped the fact that they were uneducated and untrained [ordinary] men, they were astounded, and began to recognize that they had been with Jesus.

¹⁴And seeing the man who had been healed standing there with them, they had nothing to say in reply.

¹⁵But after ordering them to step out of the Council [chamber], they began to confer among themselves, ¹⁶saying, “What are we to do with these men? For the fact that an extraordinary miracle has taken place through them is public knowledge and clearly evident to all the residents of Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.

¹⁷“But to keep it from spreading further among the people and the nation, let us [sternly] warn them not to speak again to anyone in this name.”

¹⁸So they sent for them, and commanded them not to speak [as His representatives] or teach at all in the name of Jesus [using Him as their authority].

¹⁹But Peter and John replied to them, “Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you and obey you rather than God, you must judge [for yourselves]; ²⁰for we, on our part, cannot stop telling [people] about what we have seen and heard.”

²¹When the rulers and Council members had threatened them further, they let them go, finding no way to punish them because [of their fear] of the people, for they were all praising and glorifying and honoring God for what had happened; ²²for the man to whom this sign (attesting miracle) of healing had happened was more than forty years old.

²³After Peter and John were released, they returned to their own [people] and reported everything that the chief priests and elders had said to them.

²⁴And when they heard it, they raised their voices together to God and said, “O Sovereign Lord [having complete power and authority], it is You who MADE THE HEAVEN AND THE EARTH AND THE SEA, AND EVERYTHING THAT IS IN THEM, [Ex 20:11; Ps 146:6]

²⁵who by the Holy Spirit, through the mouth of our father

David, Your servant, said,

‘WHY DID THE NATIONS (Gentiles) BECOME ARROGANT and RAGE, AND THE PEOPLES DEVISE FUTILE THINGS [against the Lord]?’

26‘THE KINGS OF THE EARTH TOOK THEIR STAND [to attack], AND THE RULERS WERE ASSEMBLED TOGETHER AGAINST THE LORD AND AGAINST HIS ANOINTED (the Christ, the Messiah).’ [Ps 2:1, 2]

27“For in this city there were gathered together against Your holy Servant Jesus, whom You anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, along with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, ²⁸to do whatever Your hand and Your purpose predestined [before the creation of the world] to occur [and so without knowing it, they served Your own purpose].

²⁹“And now, Lord, observe their threats [take them into account] and grant that Your bond-servants may declare Your message [of salvation] with great confidence, ³⁰while You extend Your hand to heal, and signs and wonders (attesting miracles) take place through the name [and the authority and power] of Your holy Servant and Son Jesus.”

³¹And when they had prayed, the place where they were meeting together was shaken [a sign of God’s presence]; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak the word of God with boldness and courage.

³²Now the company of believers was of one heart and soul, and not one [of them] claimed that anything belonging to him was [exclusively] his own, but everything was common property and for the use of all.

³³ And with great ability and power the apostles were continuously testifying to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace [God's remarkable lovingkindness and favor and goodwill] rested richly upon them all.

³⁴ There was not a needy person among them, because those who were owners of land or houses were selling them, and bringing the proceeds of the sales

³⁵ and placing the money down at the apostles' feet. Then it was distributed to each as anyone had need.

³⁶ Now Joseph, a Levite and native of Cyprus, who was surnamed Barnabas by the apostles (which translated means Son of Encouragement), ³⁷ sold a field belonging to him and brought the money and set it at the apostles' feet.

5 NOW A man named Ananias, with his wife Sapphira, sold a piece of property, ²and with his wife's full knowledge [and complicity] he kept back some of the proceeds, bringing only a portion of it, and set it at the apostles' feet.

³ But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and [secretly] keep back for yourself some of the proceeds [from the sale] of the land?

⁴ "As long as it remained [unsold], did it not remain your own [to do with as you pleased]? And after it was sold, was the money not under your control? Why is it that you have conceived this act [of hypocrisy and deceit] in your heart? You have not [simply] lied to people, but to God."

⁵ And hearing these words, Ananias fell down suddenly and died; and great fear and awe gripped those who heard of it.

⁶And the young men [in the congregation] got up and wrapped up the body, and carried it out and buried it.

⁷Now after an interval of about three hours his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.

⁸Peter asked her, “Tell me whether you sold your land for so much?” And she said, “Yes, for so much.”

⁹Then Peter said to her, “How could you two have agreed together to put the Spirit of the Lord to the test? Look! The feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out also.”

¹⁰And at once she fell down at his feet and died; and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her beside her husband.

¹¹And great fear and awe gripped the whole church, and all who heard about these things.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Importance of Discernment

Ananias and Sapphira brought a financial gift to the church from the sale of some land. In the process, they led Peter to believe that the gift represented all the proceeds from the sale. Peter immediately discerned that Satan had filled their hearts to lie to the Holy Spirit as well as to the church (see Acts 5:3–4). As troubling as the story is, it shows us clearly that the Holy Spirit knows our hearts. Through the gift of discernment, He can show the intent of our hearts to faithful, committed servants such as Peter.

God wants us to love and trust others, but we need discernment to guide us. Discernment is a wonderful gift that allows us to know in our spirit what we may not be aware of mentally, and it can help us not to be deceived by the lies that Satan drops into our minds. I am very grateful for discernment, and I pray regularly that God will give it to me.

We are told that in the last days deception will increase in the earth, but with spiritual discernment we may be assured of always walking in the truth. I encourage you to pray and ask the Lord for discernment. Let Him know that you want to be led by the Holy Spirit, and not merely by your own mind. If what you are thinking about a situation is right, He will confirm it to you. If it isn't, you can trust Him for the discernment to know that also.

¹²At the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders (attesting miracles) were continually taking place among the people. And by common consent they all met together [at the temple] in [the covered porch called] Solomon's portico.

¹³But none of the rest [of the people, the non-believers] dared to associate with them; however, the people were holding them in high esteem and were speaking highly of them.

¹⁴More and more believers in the Lord, crowds of men and women, were constantly being added to their number;

¹⁵to such an extent that they even carried their sick out into the streets and put them on cots and sleeping pads, so that when Peter came by at least his shadow might fall on one of them [with healing power].

¹⁶And the people from the towns in the vicinity of Jerusalem were coming together, bringing the sick and those who were tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all being healed.

¹⁷But the high priest stood up, along with all his associates (that is, the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy and resentment.

¹⁸They arrested the apostles and put them in a public jail.

¹⁹But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors, and leading them out, he said,

²⁰“Go, stand and continue to tell the people in the temple [courtyards] the whole message of this Life [the eternal life revealed by Christ and found through faith in Him].”

²¹When they heard this, they went into the temple [courtyards] about daybreak and began teaching.

Now when the high priest and his associates arrived, they called together the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), even all the council of elders of the sons of Israel, and sent word to the prison for the apostles to be brought [before them].

²²But when the officers arrived, they did not find them in the prison; and they came back and reported,

²³“We found the prison securely locked and the guards standing at the doors, but when we opened [the doors], we found no one inside.”

²⁵But someone came and told them, “The men whom you put in prison are standing [right here] in the temple [area], teaching the people!”

²⁶Then the captain went with the officers and brought them back, without hurting them (because they were afraid of the people, worried that they might be stoned).

²⁷So they brought them and presented them before the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court). The high priest questioned them,

Speak God's Word

Because I am a Christian, I will always seek to obey God rather than men.

| adapted from ACTS 5:29 |

²⁸saying, “We gave you strict orders not to continue teaching in this name, and yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you intend to bring this Man’s blood on us [by accusing us as His murderers].”

²⁹Then Peter and the apostles replied, “We must obey God rather than men [we have no other choice].

³⁰“The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you had put to death by hanging Him on a cross [and you are responsible]. [Deut 21:22, 23]

³¹“God exalted Him to His right hand as Prince and Savior and Deliverer, in order to grant repentance to Israel, and [to grant] forgiveness of sins.

³²“And we are witnesses of these things; and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has bestowed on those who obey Him.”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Courage To Say No

It seems that the fear of saying no to people is one reason we make commitments we don't keep.

Many people don't have the courage to say no. They don't want to hurt people's feelings or make them angry, so they either say yes, not intending to follow through, or they agree to do something and then make excuses based on untruths to avoid doing it. Everyone who makes a request to someone wants to hear yes, but wouldn't you rather someone be unhappy because you said no than to have them unhappy because you said yes and then ended up making yourself miserable because you didn't follow the leading of the Holy Spirit?

I encourage you to follow your heart and say yes only when you truly know it is the right thing to do. You are responsible to be obedient only to God (see Acts 5:29), not to keep other people happy by doing everything they want you to do. It takes time to develop the courage to say no, but doing so will be very helpful to you in the long run.

³³Now when they heard this, they were infuriated and they intended to kill the apostles.

³⁴But a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the Law [of Moses], highly esteemed by all the people, stood up in the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) and ordered that the men be taken outside for a little while.

³⁵Then he said to the Council, “Men of Israel, be careful in regard to what you propose to do to these men.

³⁶“For some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody [of importance], and a group of about four hundred men allied themselves with him. But he was killed, and all who followed him were scattered and came to nothing.

³⁷“After this man, Judas the Galilean rose up, [and led an uprising] during the time of the census, and drew people after him; he was also killed, and all his followers were scattered.

³⁸“So in the present case, I say to you, stay away from these men and let them alone, for if this plan or action is of men [merely human in origin], it will fail and be destroyed; ³⁹but if it is of God [and it appears that it is], you will not be able to stop them; or else you may even be found fighting against God!”

⁴⁰The Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) took his advice; and after summoning the apostles, they flogged them and ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and released them.

⁴¹So they left the Council, rejoicing that they had been considered worthy [dignified by indignity] to suffer shame for [the sake of] His name.

⁴²And every single day, in the temple [area] and in homes, they did not stop teaching and telling the good news of Jesus as the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed).

6 NOW ABOUT this time, when the number of disciples was increasing, a complaint was made by the Hellenists (Greek-speaking Jews) against the [native] Hebrews, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily serving offood.

²So the Twelve called the disciples together and said, “It is not appropriate for us to neglect [teaching] the word of God in order to serve tables and manage the distribution of food.

³“Therefore, brothers, choose from among you seven men with good reputations [men of godly character and moral integrity], full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may put in charge of this task.

⁴“But we will [continue to] devote ourselves [steadfastly] to prayer and to the ministry of the word.”

⁵The suggestion pleased the whole congregation; and they selected Stephen, a man full of faith [in Christ Jesus], and [filled with and led by] the Holy Spirit, and Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas (Nikolaos), a proselyte (Gentile convert) from Antioch.

⁶They brought these men before the apostles; and after praying, they laid their hands on them [to dedicate and commission them for this service].

⁷And the message of God kept on growing and spreading, and the number of disciples continued to increase greatly in Jerusalem; and a large number of the priests were becoming obedient to the faith [accepting Jesus as Messiah and acknowledging Him as the Source of eternal salvation].

⁸Now Stephen, full of grace (divine blessing, favor) and power, was doing great wonders and signs (attesting miracles) among the people.

⁹However, some men from what was called the Synagogue of the Freedmen (freed Jewish slaves), both Cyrenians and Alexandrians, and some from Cilicia and [the province of] Asia, rose up and questioned and argued with Stephen.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, as it was in the days of the early church, I pray that Your message will keep on growing and spreading, and that the number of disciples in the world will continue to increase greatly, with people becoming obedient to the faith, accepting Jesus as Messiah, and acknowledging Him as the Source of eternal salvation.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Do What You Are Called To Do

Ministering to others not only requires that we pray and know God's Word, but ministry also includes many other practical things that need to be done.

One of the responsibilities that Luke mentions as important for the apostles (ministers) of his day was making sure that the widows received their daily allotment of food. Acts 6:1-4 makes clear that we are gifted in different ways for different things, and that we should be wise enough to make sure our schedules allow the time needed to take care of what God has given us to do.

The twelve apostles said that they should not give up the preaching of the Word in order to serve food. They didn't think they were too good to do practical tasks, but the apostles knew those tasks were not the ones they should be doing. The apostles selected seven other men who were filled with the Holy Spirit and gave them the assignment and duty of caring for the widows' food distribution.

This is an important lesson! We should give ourselves to what we are called to do and let others do what they are called to do. No assignment is more important than another; because we are all needed to accomplish God's perfect and complete will. The important thing is not whether we preach the gospel or wait tables, but that we are obedient to God.

¹⁰But they were not able to successfully withstand and cope with the wisdom and the intelligence [and the power and inspiration] of the Spirit by whom he was speaking.

¹¹Then [to attack him another way] they secretly instructed men to say, “We have heard this man [Stephen] speak blasphemous (slandorous, sacrilegious, abusive) words against Moses and against God.”

¹²And they provoked and incited the people, as well as the elders and the scribes, and they came up to Stephen and seized him and brought him before the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court).

¹³They presented false witnesses who said, “This man never stops speaking against this holy place and the Law [of Moses];

¹⁴for we have heard him say that this Jesus the Nazarene will tear down this place and will change the traditions and customs which Moses handed down to us.”

¹⁵Then all those who were sitting in the Council, stared [intently] at him, and they saw that Stephen’s face was like the face of an angel.

7 NOW THE high priest asked [Stephen], “Are these charges true?”

²And he answered, “Brothers and fathers, listen to me! The God of glory [the Shekinah, the radiance of God] appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran, [Gen 11:31; 15:7; Ps 29:3]

³and He said to him, ‘LEAVE YOUR COUNTRY AND YOUR

RELATIVES, AND COME TO THE LAND THAT I WILL SHOW YOU.’
[Gen 12:1]

⁴“Then he left the land of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. And from there, after his father died, God sent him to this country in which you now live. [Gen 11:31; 12:5; 15:7]

⁵“But He did not give him inheritable property, not even enough ground to take a step on, yet He promised that HE WOULD GIVE IT TO HIM AS A POSSESSION, AND TO HIS DESCENDANTS AFTER HIM. [Gen 12:7; 17:8; Deut 2:5]

⁶“And this is, in effect, what God spoke [to him]: That his DESCENDANTS WOULD BE ALIENS (strangers) IN A FOREIGN LAND, AND THAT THEY WOULD BE ENSLAVED AND MISTREATED FOR FOUR HUNDRED YEARS.

⁷““AND I WILL JUDGE ANY NATION TO WHOM THEY WILL BE IN BONDAGE,’ said God, ‘AND AFTER THAT THEY WILL COME OUT AND SERVE ME [in worship] IN THIS PLACE.’ [Gen 15:13, 14; Ex 3:12]

⁸“And God gave Abraham a covenant [a formal agreement to be strictly observed] of [which] circumcision [was the sign]; and so [under these circumstances] Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him on the eighth day; and Isaac [became the father] of Jacob, and Jacob [became the father] of the twelve patriarchs. [Gen 17:10–14; 21:2–4; 25:26; 29:31–35; 30:1–24; 35:16–26]

¹⁰and He rescued him from all his suffering, and gave him favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and he made Joseph governor over Egypt and over his entire household. [Gen 39:2, 3, 21; 41:40–46; Ps 105:21]

¹¹“Now a famine came over all Egypt and Canaan, bringing great distress and our fathers could not find food [for their households and livestock]. [Gen 41:54, 55; 42:5]

¹²“But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our fathers there the first time. [Gen 42:2]

¹³“And on the second visit Joseph identified himself to his brothers, and Joseph’s family and background were revealed to Pharaoh. [Gen 45:1–4]

¹⁴“Then Joseph sent and invited Jacob his father and all his relatives to come to him, seventy-five persons in all. [Gen 45:9, 10]

¹⁵“And Jacob (Israel) went down into Egypt, and there he died, as did our fathers; [Gen 49:33]

¹⁶and [from Egypt] their bodies were taken back to Shechem and placed in the tomb which Abraham had purchased for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor in Shechem. [Gen 50:13; Josh 24:32]

¹⁷“But as the time [for the fulfillment] of the promise which God had made to Abraham was approaching, the [Hebrew] people increased and multiplied in Egypt, [Deut 10:22]

¹⁸until [the time when] THERE AROSE ANOTHER KING OVER EGYPT WHO DID NOT KNOW JOSEPH [nor his history and the merit of his service to Egypt]. [Ex 1:7, 8]

¹⁹“He shrewdly exploited our race and mistreated our fathers, forcing them to expose their [male] babies so that they would die. [Ex 1:7–11, 15–22]

²⁰“It was at this [critical] time that Moses was born; and he was lovely in the sight of God, and for three months he was nourished in his father's house. [Ex 2:2]

21“Then when he was set outside [to die], Pharaoh's daughter rescued him and claimed him for herself, and cared for him as her own son. [Ex 2:5, 6, 10]

22“So Moses was educated in all the wisdom and culture of the Egyptians, and he was a man of power in words and deeds.

23“But when he reached the age of forty, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, the sons of Israel.

24“And when he saw one [of them] being treated unfairly, he defended the oppressed man and avenged him by striking and killing the Egyptian.

25“He expected his countrymen to understand that God was granting them freedom through him [assuming that they would accept him], but they did not understand.

26“Then on the next day he suddenly appeared to two of them as they were fighting, and he tried to reconcile them, saying, ‘Men, you are brothers; why do you wrong one another?’

27“But the man who was injuring his neighbor pushed Moses away, saying, ‘WHO APPOINTED YOU RULER AND JUDGE OVER US?’

28‘DO YOU INTEND TO KILL ME AS YOU KILLED THE EGYPTIAN YESTERDAY?’

29“At this remark MOSES FLED AND BECAME AN EXILE IN THE LAND OF MIDIAN, where he fathered two sons. [Ex 2:11–15, 22; 18:3, 4]

30“After forty years had passed, AN ANGEL APPEARED TO HIM IN THE WILDERNESS OF MOUNT Sinai, IN THE FLAME OF A BURNING THORN BUSH.

³¹“When Moses saw it, he was astonished at the sight; but as he went near to look more closely, the voice of the Lord came [to him, saying]:

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Face Your Fears

God sent Moses back to Egypt at the right time to help the Israelites (see Ex. 3:10). He had lived there previously, and Exodus 2:11–14 tells us that when he sensed a desire and a call from God to help His people, he stepped out and took action. But things didn't work the way he planned. He thought the Israelites would accept him and understand that he wanted to rescue them, but they did not. When they rejected him, he ran from Egypt and spent forty years in Midian before returning to Egypt.

I have learned from Acts 7:34 and similar verses that when we run from something, God always eventually takes us back to it. Why? Because anything we fear has power over us. We only conquer our fears by facing them and dealing with them as God leads us. Satan will try to fill our minds with fearful thoughts, but fear is not from God.

If you are facing anything right now that you are tempted to run away from, I urge you not to run, but to stand still and see the salvation of the Lord (see Ex. 14:13).

³²‘I AM THE GOD OF YOUR FATHERS, THE GOD OF ABRAHAM AND OF ISAAC AND OF JACOB.’ Moses trembled with fear and did not dare to look.

³³“THEN THE LORD SAID TO HIM, ‘REMOVE THE SANDALS

FROM YOUR FEET, FOR THE PLACE WHERE YOU ARE STANDING IS HOLY GROUND [worthy of reverence and respect].

³⁴“I HAVE MOST CERTAINLY SEEN THE OPPRESSION OF MY PEOPLE IN EGYPT AND HAVE HEARD THEIR GROANING, AND I HAVE COME DOWN TO RESCUE THEM. NOW COME, AND I WILL SEND YOU TO EGYPT [as My messenger].” [Ex 3:1–10]

³⁵“This Moses whom they rejected, saying, ‘WHO MADE YOU A RULER AND A JUDGE?’ is the very one whom God sent to be both a ruler and a deliverer, with the [protecting and helping] hand of the Angel who appeared to him in the thorn bush. [Ex 2:14]

³⁶“This man led them out [of Egypt] after performing wonders and signs in the land of Egypt and at the Red Sea and in the wilderness for forty years. [Ex 7:3; 14:21; Num 14:33]

³⁷“This is the Moses who said to the children of Israel, ‘GOD WILL RAISE UP FOR YOU A PROPHET LIKE ME FROM YOUR COUNTRYMEN.’ [Deut 18:15, 18]

³⁸“This is the one who was in the congregation in the wilderness together with the Angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and who was with our fathers; and he received living oracles [divine words that still live] to be handed down to you. [Ex 19]

³⁹“Our fathers were unwilling to be subject to him [and refused to listen to him]. They rejected him, and in their hearts turned back to Egypt. [Num 14:3, 4]

⁴⁰“THEY SAID TO AARON, ‘MAKE FOR US GODS WHO WILL GO BEFORE US; FOR THIS MOSES WHO LED US OUT OF THE LAND OF EGYPT, WE DO NOT KNOW WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO HIM.’ [Ex 32:1, 23]

41“In those days they made a calf and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced and celebrated over the works of their hands. [Ex 32:4, 6]

42“But God turned away [from them] and handed them over to serve the host of heaven. As it is written and forever remains written in the book of the prophets, ‘IT WAS NOT [really] TO ME THAT YOU OFFERED VICTIMS AND SACRIFICES FOR FORTY YEARS IN THE WILDERNESS, WAS IT, O HOUSE OF ISRAEL? [Jer 19:13]

43“YOU ALSO TOOK ALONG THE TABERNACLE (portable temple) OF MOLOCH AND THE STAR OF THE GOD ROMPHA, THE IMAGES WHICH YOU MADE TO WORSHIP; AND I WILL REMOVE YOU BEYOND BABYLON [carrying you away into exile].’ [Amos 5:25–27]

44“Our fathers had the tabernacle of testimony in the wilderness, just as God directed Moses to make it according to the pattern which he had seen. [Ex 25:9–40]

45“Our fathers also brought it in [with them into the land] with Joshua when they dispossessed the nations whom God drove out before our fathers, [and so it remained here] until the time of David, [Deut 32:49; Josh 3:14–17]

46who found favor (grace, spiritual blessing) in the sight of God and asked that he might [be allowed to] find a dwelling place for the God of Jacob. [2 Sam 7:8–16; Ps 132:1–5]

47“But it was Solomon who built a house for Him. [1 Kin 6]

48“However, the Most High [the One infinitely exalted above humanity] does not dwell in houses made by human hands; as the prophet [Isaiah] says, [1 Kin 8:27]

49‘HEAVEN IS MY THRONE,
AND THE EARTH IS THE FOOTSTOOL FOR MY FEET;
WHAT KIND OF HOUSE WILL YOU BUILD FOR ME?’ says the Lord,
‘OR WHAT PLACE IS THERE FOR MY REST?’
50‘WAS IT NOT MY HAND THAT MADE ALL THESE THINGS?’ [Is 66:1, 2]

51“You stiff-necked and stubborn people, uncircumcised in heart and ears, you are always actively resisting the Holy Spirit. You are doing just as your fathers did. [Ex 33:3, 5; Num 27:14; Is 63:10; Jer 6:10; 9:26]

52“Which one of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? They killed those who proclaimed beforehand the coming of the Righteous One, whose betrayers and murderers you have now become; ⁵³you who received the law as ordained and delivered to you by angels, and yet you did not obey it!”

54Now when they heard this [accusation and understood its implication], they were cut to the heart, and they began grinding their teeth [in rage] at him.

55But he, being full of the Holy Spirit and led by Him, gazed into heaven and saw the glory [the great splendor and majesty] of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God; ⁵⁶and he said, “Look! I see the heavens opened up [in welcome] and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!”

57But they shouted with loud voices, and covered their ears and together rushed at him [considering him guilty of blasphemy].

⁵⁸Then they drove him out of the city and began stoning him; and the witnesses placed their outer robes at the feet of a young man named Saul. [Acts 22:20]

⁵⁹They continued stoning Stephen as he called on the Lord and said, “Lord Jesus, receive and accept and welcome my spirit!”

⁶⁰Then falling on his knees [in worship], he cried out loudly, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them [do not charge them]!” When he had said this, he fell asleep [in death].

8 SAUL WHOLEHEARTEDLY approved of Stephen’s death.

And on that day a great and relentless persecution broke out against the church in Jerusalem; and the believers were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except for the apostles.

²Some devout men buried Stephen, and mourned greatly over him [expressing a personal sense of loss].

³But Saul began ravaging the church [and assaulting believers]; entering house after house and dragging off men and women, putting them in prison.

⁴Now those [believers] who had been scattered went from place to place preaching the word [the good news of salvation through Christ].

⁵Philip [the evangelist] went down to the city of Samaria and began proclaiming Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) to them. [Acts 6:5]

⁶The crowds gathered and were paying close attention to everything Philip said, as they heard [the message] and saw the [miraculous] signs which he was doing [validating his message].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Understanding Leads to Freedom

A stronghold is usually a fortress of negative thoughts that the enemy establishes in your mind. A stronghold isn't built overnight; it has likely been developing for most of your life, and it will have to be taken down brick by brick by brick. In Simon's case, the stronghold was the desire for authority and power, which Peter said was "provoked by bitterness" and bound him in sin (Acts 8:23).

Let me encourage you to examine yourself and learn what provokes you to think the thoughts you wish you did not think. Does stress or some other negative emotion cause you to turn to negative thoughts? Boredom? Loneliness? Being tired? Sometimes understanding why or when we do something is the doorway to freedom from it. Then, with God's help, we can overcome that stronghold. The Word of God becomes our battle weapon when we read it, speak it, pray it, and believe it.

⁷For unclean spirits (demons), shouting loudly, were coming out of many who were possessed; and many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed.

⁸So there was great rejoicing in that city.

⁹Now there was a man named Simon, who previously practiced magic in the city and amazed the people of Samaria, claiming to be someone great.

¹⁰They all paid [a great deal of] attention to him, from the least to the greatest, saying, “This man is what is called the Great Power of God!”

¹¹They were paying attention to him because for a long time he had mystified and dazzled them with his magic.

¹²But when they believed Philip as he preached the good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were being baptized, both men and women.

¹³Even Simon believed [Philip’s message of salvation]; and after being baptized, he continued on with Philip, and as he watched the attesting signs and great miracles taking place, he was constantly amazed.

¹⁴When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that [the people of] Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them.

¹⁵They came down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit;

¹⁶for He had not yet fallen on any of them; they had simply been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus [as His possession].

¹⁷Then Peter and John laid their hands on them [one by one], and they received the Holy Spirit.

¹⁸Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles’ hands, he offered them money,

¹⁹saying, “Give me this authority and power too, so that anyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit.”

²⁰But Peter said to him, “May your money be destroyed along with you, because you thought you could buy the [free] gift of God with money!

²¹“You have no part or share in this matter, because your heart (motive, purpose) is not right before God. [Ps 78:37]

²²“So repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, this thought of your heart may be forgiven you.

²³“For I see that you are provoked by bitterness and bound by sin.” [Deut 29:18; Is 58:6]

²⁴But Simon answered, “Pray to the Lord for me both of you, so that nothing of what you have said will come upon me.”

²⁵So, when Peter and John had given their testimony and preached the word of the Lord, they started back to Jerusalem, preaching the good news [about salvation] in many Samaritan villages [along the way].

²⁶But an angel of the Lord said to Philip, “Get up and go south to the road that runs from Jerusalem down to Gaza.” (This is a desert road).

²⁷So he got up and went; and there was an Ethiopian eunuch [a man of great authority], a court official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was in charge of all her treasure. He had come to Jerusalem to worship, ²⁸and he was returning, and sitting in his chariot he was reading [the scroll of] the prophet Isaiah.

²⁹Then the [Holy] Spirit said to Philip, “Go up and join this chariot.”

³⁰Philip ran up and heard the man reading the prophet Isaiah, and asked, “Do you understand what you are reading?”

³¹And he said, “Well, how could I [understand] unless someone guides me [correctly]?” And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

³²Now this was the passage of Scripture which he was reading:

“LIKE A SHEEP HE WAS LED TO THE SLAUGHTER; AND AS A LAMB BEFORE ITS SHEARER IS SILENT, SO HE DOES NOT OPEN HIS MOUTH.

³³“IN HUMILIATION HIS JUDGMENT WAS TAKEN AWAY [justice was denied Him].

WHO WILL DESCRIBE HIS GENERATION?

FOR HIS LIFE IS TAKEN FROM THE EARTH.” [Is 53:7, 8]

³⁴The eunuch replied to Philip, “Please tell me, about whom does the prophet say this? About himself or about someone else?”

³⁵Then Philip spoke and beginning with this Scripture he preached Jesus to him [explaining that He is the promised Messiah and the source of salvation].

³⁶As they continued along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch exclaimed, “Look! Water! What forbids me from being baptized?”

³⁷[Philip said to him, “If you believe with all your heart, you may.” And he replied, “I do believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.”]

³⁸And he ordered that the chariot be stopped; and both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.

³⁹When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord [suddenly] took Philip [and carried him] away [to a different place]; and the eunuch no longer saw him, but he went on his way rejoicing.

⁴⁰But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he passed through he preached the good news [of salvation] to all the cities, until he came to Caesarea [Maritima].

9 NOW SAUL, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord [and relentless in his search for believers], went to the high priest, ²and he asked for letters [of authority] from him to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any men or women there belonging to the Way [believers, followers of Jesus the Messiah], men and women alike, he could arrest them and bring them bound [with chains] to Jerusalem.

³As he traveled he approached Damascus, and suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him [displaying the glory and majesty of Christ];

⁴and he fell to the ground and heard a voice [from heaven] saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting and oppressing Me?”

⁵And Saul said, “Who are You, Lord?” And He answered, “I am Jesus whom you are persecuting, ⁶now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.”

⁷The men who were traveling with him [were terrified and] stood speechless, hearing the voice but seeing no one.

⁸Saul got up from the ground, but though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus.

⁹And he was unable to see for three days, and he neither ate nor drank.

¹⁰Now in Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias; and the Lord said to him in a vision, “Ananias.” And he answered, “Here I am, Lord.”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Radically Changed

Saul (later called Paul) was a religious man with great zeal, but he lacked knowledge of the truth about Jesus. When Jesus confronted him on the Damascus road (see Acts 9:3–6), Saul was transformed and entirely changed into another man. He repented of his past sins and wanted to do what God wanted him to do, which means that he had a total, complete, and radical change of mind.

Paul had persecuted Christians and delighted in watching them being stoned, but God's grace came to him, forgiving him and accepting him as a chosen instrument that God would use mightily. When we repent, we are not merely saying we recognize that we are sinners and we are sorry for our sins. True repentance is a willingness to change our mind and go in a new and godly direction in our life, as Paul did after his conversion.

¹¹And the Lord said to him, “Get up and go to the street called Straight, and ask at the house of Judas for a man from Tarsus named Saul; for he is praying [there], ¹²and in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come in and place his hands on him, so that he may regain his sight.”

¹³But Ananias answered, “Lord, I have heard from many people about this man, especially how much suffering and evil

he has brought on Your saints (God's people) at Jerusalem;
¹⁴and here [in Damascus] he has authority from the high priests to put in chains all who call on Your name [confessing You as Savior].”

¹⁵But the Lord said to him, “Go, for this man is a [deliberately] chosen instrument of Mine, to bear My name before the Gentiles and kings and the sons of Israel; ¹⁶for I will make clear to him how much he must suffer and endure for My name's sake.”

¹⁷So Ananias left and entered the house, and he laid his hands on Saul and said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you came [to Damascus], has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit [in order to proclaim Christ to both Jews and Gentiles].”

¹⁸Immediately something like scales fell from Saul's eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he got up and was baptized;

¹⁹and he took some food and was strengthened.

For several days [afterward] Saul remained with the disciples who were at Damascus.

²⁰And immediately he began proclaiming Jesus in the synagogues, saying, “This Man is the Son of God [the promised Messiah]!”

²¹All those who heard him continued to be amazed and said, “Is this not the man who in Jerusalem attacked those who called on this name [of Jesus], and had come here [to Damascus] for the express purpose of bringing them bound [with chains] before the chief priests?”

²²But Saul increased in strength more and more, and continued to perplex the Jews who lived in Damascus by examining [theological evidence] and proving [with Scripture] that this Jesus is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed).

²³ After considerable time had passed [about three years or so], the Jews plotted together to kill him,

²⁴ but their plot became known to Saul. They were also watching the city's gates day and night so they could kill him;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Forgiveness Is Not Impossible

After Paul's conversion, it is easy to understand that the disciples in Jerusalem "were all afraid of him" (Acts 9:26). Because of Paul's previous attacks against believers and against the church, we can imagine that a lot of forgiveness was needed before he was welcomed in the city. I encourage you to never hold anyone's past against them. If God can forgive and give people a new start, so can we.

We are commanded several times in God's Word to forgive those who abuse us or mistreat us, to pray for them and love them, and to wait for God's justice. These instructions are not always easy to follow; to forgive and to let go of anger requires effort and energy. I actually feel this is one of the most difficult things God asks of us. It is hard, but not impossible. The Lord never requires us to do anything without giving us the ability to do it. We may not want to forgive, but we are able to forgive with God's help. When we forgive, we do ourselves a favor and save ourselves a lot of misery.

²⁵but his disciples took him at night and let him down through an opening in the wall, lowering him in a large basket.

²⁶When he arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he really was a disciple.

²⁷However, Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles, and described to them how Saul had seen the Lord on the road [to Damascus], and how He had spoken to him, and how at Damascus Saul had preached openly and spoken confidently in the name of Jesus.

²⁸So he was with them, moving around freely [as one among them] in Jerusalem, speaking out boldly in the name of the Lord.

²⁹He was talking and arguing with the Hellenists (Greek-speaking Jews); but they were attempting to kill him.

³⁰When the brothers found out [about the plot], they brought him down to Caesarea [Maritima] and sent him off to Tarsus [his home town].

³¹So the church throughout Judea and Galilee and Samaria enjoyed peace [without persecution], being built up [in wisdom, virtue, and faith]; and walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort and encouragement of the Holy Spirit, it continued to grow [in numbers].

³²Now as Peter was traveling throughout the land, he went down to [visit] the saints (God's people) who lived at Lydda.

³³There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years and was paralyzed.

³⁴Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed." Immediately Aeneas got up.

³⁵Then all who lived at Lydda and the plain of Sharon saw [what had happened to] him, and they turned to the Lord.

³⁶Now in Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha, (which translated into Greek means Dorcas). She was rich in acts of kindness and charity which she continually did.

³⁷During that time it happened that she became sick and died; and when they had washed her body, they laid it in an upstairs room.

³⁸Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men to him, urging him, “Come to us without delay.”

³⁹So Peter got up [at once] and went with them. When he arrived, they brought him into the upstairs room; and all the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing [him] all the ~~—~~tunics and robes that Dorcas used to make while she was with them.

⁴⁰But Peter sent them all out [of the room] and knelt down and prayed; then turning to the body he said, “Tabitha, arise!” And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

⁴¹And he gave her his hand and helped her up; and then he called in the saints (God’s people) and the widows, and he presented her [to them] alive.

⁴²This became known all over Joppa, and many came to believe in the Lord [that is, to adhere to and trust in and rely on Jesus as Christ and Savior].

⁴³And so it was that Peter stayed in Joppa for many days with Simon, a tanner.

10 NOW AT Caesarea [Maritima] there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion of what was known as the Italian Regiment, ²a devout man and one who, along with all his household, feared God. He made many charitable donations to the Jewish people, and prayed to God always.

³About the ninth hour (3:00 p.m.) of the day he clearly saw in a vision an angel of God who had come to him and said, “Cornelius!”

⁴Cornelius was frightened and stared intently at him and said, “What is it, lord (sir)?” And the angel said to him, “Your prayers and gifts of charity have ascended as a memorial offering before God [an offering made in remembrance of His past blessings].

⁵“Now send men to Joppa and have them call for a man named Simon, who is also called Peter [and invite him here];

⁶he is staying with Simon the tanner, whose house is by the sea.”

⁷When the angel who was speaking to him had gone, Cornelius called two of his servants and a devout soldier from among his own personal attendants;

⁸and after explaining everything to them, he sent them to Joppa.

⁹The next day, as they were on their way and were approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof of the house about the sixth hour (noon) to pray, ¹⁰but he became hungry and wanted something to eat. While the meal was being prepared he fell into a trance;

¹¹and he saw the sky opened up, and an ^{*}object like a great sheet descending, lowered by its four corners to the earth, ¹²and it contained all kinds of four-footed animals and crawling creatures of the earth and birds of the air.

¹³A voice came to him, “Get up, Peter, kill and eat!”

¹⁴But Peter said, “Not at all, Lord, for I have never eaten anything that is common (unholy) and [ceremonially] unclean.”

¹⁵And the voice came to him a second time, “What God has cleansed and pronounced clean, no longer consider common (unholy).”

¹⁶This happened three times, and then immediately the object was taken up into heaven.

¹⁷Now Peter was still perplexed and completely at a loss as to what his vision could mean when the men who had been sent by Cornelius, having asked directions to Simon’s house, arrived at the gate.

¹⁸And they called out to ask whether Simon, who was also called Peter, was staying there.

¹⁹While Peter was thoughtfully considering the vision, the Spirit said to him, “Now listen, three men are looking for you.

²⁰“Get up, go downstairs and go with them without hesitating or doubting, because I have sent them Myself.”

²¹Peter went down to the men and said, “I am the one you are looking for. For what reason have you come?”

²²They said, “Cornelius, a centurion, an upright and God-fearing man well spoken of by all the Jewish people, was divinely instructed by a holy angel to send for you to come to his house and hear what you have to say.”

²³So Peter invited them in and gave them lodging [for the night].

The next day Peter got up and left with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa went with him.

²⁴On the following day he [and the others] entered Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them, and had called together his relatives and close friends.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Wants To Bless Us All

God does not show favoritism (see Acts 10:34). He desires to bless all people and to see our needs met abundantly. God loves everyone equally and wants the best for us all, not just some of us.

God has not assigned His children to an upper class, a middle class, and a lower class. The world may think according to those categories, but God does not, and we shouldn't either. The promises of God are for "whosoever will" (see John 3:16–17). Whoever will believe in God and serve Him wholeheartedly can be blessed in any way, just as much as anyone else can be blessed. With God, there are no distinctions, and He shows no partiality (see Gal. 2:6).

²⁵When Peter arrived, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet and worshiped him.

²⁶But Peter raised him up, saying, "Stand up; I too am only a man."

²⁷As Peter talked with him, he entered [the house] and found a large group of people assembled.

²⁸He said to them, "You know that it is unlawful for a Jewish man to associate with or befriend a Gentile, or to visit him; and yet God has shown me that I am not to call anyone common or [ceremonially] unclean.

²⁹“Therefore when I was sent for, I came without raising an objection. So I ask for what reason have you sent for me?”

³⁰Cornelius said, “Four days ago to this hour, I was praying in my house during the ninth hour (3:00–4:00 p.m.); and a man [dressed] in bright, dazzling clothing suddenly stood before me, ³¹and he said, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your acts of charity have been remembered before God [so that He is about to help you].

³²‘Therefore send word to Joppa and invite Simon, who is also called Peter, to come to you. He is staying at the house of Simon the tanner by the sea.’

³³“So I sent for you at once, and you have been kind enough to come. Now then, we are all here present before God to listen to everything that you have been instructed by the Lord [to say].”

³⁴Opening his mouth, Peter said:

“Most certainly I understand now that God is not one to show partiality [to people as though Gentiles were excluded from God’s blessing], ³⁵but in every nation the person who fears God and does what is right [by seeking Him] is acceptable and welcomed by Him.

³⁶“You know the message which He sent to the sons of Israel, announcing the good news of peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all—

³⁷you know the things that have taken place throughout Judea, starting in Galilee after the baptism preached by John—

³⁸how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with great power; and He went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, because God was with Him. [Is 61:1–3; Luke 4:18–21]

³⁹“We are [personally] eyewitnesses of everything that He did both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem [in particular]. They also put Him to death by hanging Him on a cross; ⁴⁰God raised Him [to life] on the third day and caused Him to be plainly seen,

⁴¹not to all the people, but to witnesses who were chosen and designated beforehand by God, that is, to us who ate and drank together with Him after He rose from the dead. [Luke 24:42, 43; John 21:12–15]

⁴²“He commanded us to preach to the people [both Jew and Gentile], and to solemnly testify that He is the One who has been appointed and ordained by God as Judge of the living and the dead.

⁴³“All the prophets testify about Him, that through His name everyone who believes in Him [whoever trusts in and relies on Him, accepting Him as Savior and Messiah] receives forgiveness of sins.”

⁴⁴While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who were listening to the message [confirming God’s acceptance of Gentiles].

⁴⁵All the circumcised believers who came with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles.

⁴⁶For they heard them talking in [unknown] tongues (languages) and exalting and magnifying and praising God. Then Peter said, ⁴⁷“Can anyone refuse water for these people to be baptized, since they have received the Holy Spirit just as we did?”

⁴⁸And he ordered that they be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay there for a few days.

11 NOW THE apostles and the believers who were throughout Judea heard [with astonishment] that the Gentiles also had received and accepted the word of God [the message concerning salvation through Christ].

²So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, those of the circumcision [certain Jewish believers who followed the Law] took issue with him [for violating Jewish customs], ³saying, “You went to uncircumcised men and [even] ate with them!”

⁴But Peter began [at the beginning] and explained [the events] to them step by step, saying,

⁵“I was in the city of Joppa praying; and in a trance I saw a vision of an object coming down from heaven, like a huge sheet being lowered by the four corners; and [it descended until] it came right down to me, ⁶and looking closely at it, I saw all kinds of the four-footed animals of the earth and the wild beasts and the crawling creatures and the birds of the air [both clean and unclean according to the Law], ⁷and I also heard a voice saying to me, ‘Get up, Peter; kill and eat.’

⁸“But I said, ‘Not at all, Lord; for nothing common (unholy) or [ceremonially] unclean has ever entered my mouth.’

⁹“But the voice from heaven answered a second time, ‘What God has cleansed and pronounced clean, no longer consider common (unholy).’

¹⁰“This happened three times, and everything was drawn up again into heaven.

¹²“The Spirit told me to go with them without the slightest hesitation. So these six brothers also went with me and we went to the man’s house.

¹³“And Cornelius told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, saying, ‘Send word to Joppa and have Simon, who is also called Peter, brought here; ¹⁴he will bring a message to you by which you will be saved [and granted eternal life], you and all your household.’

¹⁵“When I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them just as He did on us at the beginning [at Pentecost]. [Acts 2:1–4]

¹⁶“Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how He used to say, ‘John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’

¹⁷“So, if God gave Gentiles the same gift [equally] as He gave us after we accepted and believed and trusted in the Lord Jesus Christ [as Savior], who was I to interfere or stand in God’s way?”

¹⁸When they heard this, they quieted down and glorified and praised God, saying, “Then God has also granted to the Gentiles repentance that leads to eternal life [that is, real life after earthly death].”

¹⁹So then [since they were unaware of these developments] those who were scattered because of the persecution that occurred in connection with [the stoning of] Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, without telling the message [of salvation through Christ] to anyone except Jews.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I pray, Lord, that I will be like the believers at Antioch—that I will have an unwavering heart to stay true and devoted to You.

• adapted from Acts 11:23

²⁰But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who came to Antioch and began speaking to the Greeks as well, proclaiming [to them] the good news about the Lord Jesus.

²¹And the hand (the power and presence) of the Lord was with them, and a great number who believed turned to the Lord [for salvation, accepting and drawing near to Jesus as Messiah and Savior].

²²The news of this reached the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch.

²³When he arrived and saw the grace of God [that was bestowed on them], he rejoiced and began to encourage them all with an unwavering heart to stay true and devoted to the Lord.

²⁴For Barnabas was a good man [privately and publicly—his godly character benefited both himself and others] and he was full of the Holy Spirit and full of faith [in Jesus the Messiah, through whom believers have everlasting life]. And a great number of people were brought to the Lord.

²⁵And Barnabas left for Tarsus to search for Saul;

²⁶and when he found him, he brought him back to Antioch. For an entire year they met [with others] in the church and instructed large numbers; and it was in Antioch that the disciples were first called Christians. [Acts 26:28; 1 Pet 4:16]

²⁷Now at this time some prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch.

²⁸One of them named Agabus stood up and prophesied through the [Holy] Spirit that a severe famine would come on the entire world. And this did happen during the reign of Claudius.

²⁹So the disciples decided to send a contribution, each according to his individual ability, to the believers who lived in Judea.

³⁰And this they did, sending the contribution to the elders by Barnabas and Saul.

12 NOW AT that time Herod [Agrippa I] the king [of the Jews] arrested some who belonged to the church, intending to harm them.

²And he had James the brother of John put to death with a sword;

³and when he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to have Peter arrested as well. This was during the days of Unleavened Bread [the Passover week].

⁴When he had seized Peter, he put him in prison, turning him over to four squads of soldiers of four each to guard him [in rotation throughout the night], planning after the Passover to bring him out before the people [for execution].

⁵So Peter was kept in prison, but fervent and persistent prayer for him was being made to God by the church.

⁶The very night before Herod was to bring him forward, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and sentries were in front of the door guarding the prison.

⁷Suddenly, an angel of the Lord appeared [beside him] and a light shone in the cell. The angel struck Peter's side and awakened him, saying, "Get up quickly!" And the chains fell off his hands.

⁸The angel said to him, "Prepare yourself and strap on your sandals [to get ready for whatever may happen]." And he did so. Then the angel told him, "Put on your robe and follow me."

⁹And Peter went out following the angel. He did not realize that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision.

¹⁰When they had passed the first guard and the second, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city. Of its own accord it swung open for them; and they went out and went along one street, and at once the angel left him.

¹¹When Peter came to his senses, he said, “Now I know for certain that the Lord has sent His angel and has rescued me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting [to do to me].”

¹²When he realized what had happened, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John, who was also called Mark, where many [believers] were gathered together and were praying continually [and had been praying all night].

¹³When he knocked at the door of the gateway, a servant-girl named Rhoda came to answer.

¹⁴Recognizing Peter’s voice, in her joy she failed to open the gate, but ran in and announced that Peter was standing in front of the gateway.

¹⁵They said to her, “You are out of your mind!” But she kept insisting that it was so. They kept saying, “It is his angel!” [Matt 18:10; Heb 1:14]

¹⁶But [meanwhile] Peter continued knocking; and when they opened the door and saw him, they were completely amazed.

¹⁷But motioning to them with his hand to be quiet and listen, he described how the Lord had led him out of the prison. And he said, “Report these things to James and the brothers and sisters.” Then he left and went to another place.

¹⁸Now when day came, there was no small disturbance among the soldiers over what had become of Peter.

¹⁹When Herod had searched for him and could not find him, he interrogated the guards and commanded that they be led away to execution. Then he went down from Judea to Caesarea [Maritima] and spent some time there.

²⁰Now Herod [Agrippa I] was extremely angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon; and their delegates came to him in a united group, and after persuading Blastus, the king's chamberlain [to support their cause], they asked for peace, because their country was fed by [imports of grain and other goods from] the king's country.

²¹On an appointed day Herod dressed himself in his royal robes, sat on his throne (tribunal, rostrum) and began delivering a speech to the people.

²²The assembled people kept shouting, "It is the voice of a god and not of a man!"

²³And at once an angel of the Lord struck him down because he did not give God the glory [and instead permitted himself to be worshiped], and he was eaten by worms and died [five days later].

²⁴But the word of the Lord [the good news about salvation through Christ] continued to grow and spread [increasing in effectiveness].

²⁵Barnabas and Saul came back from Jerusalem when they had completed their mission, bringing with them John, who was also called Mark. [Acts 11:28–30]

13 NOW IN the church at Antioch there were prophets [who spoke a new message of God to the people] and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen who had been brought up with Herod [Antipas] the tetrarch, and Saul.

²While they were serving the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, “Set apart for Me Barnabas and Saul (Paul) for the work to which I have called them.”

³Then after fasting and praying, they laid their hands on them [in approval and dedication] and sent them away [on their first journey].

⁴So then, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus.

⁵When Barnabas and Saul arrived at Salamis, they began to preach the word of God [proclaiming the message of eternal salvation through faith in Christ] in the synagogues of the Jews; and they also had John [Mark] as their assistant.

⁶When they had traveled through the entire island [of Cyprus] as far as Paphos, they found a sorcerer, a Jewish false prophet named Bar-Jesus, ⁷who was [closely associated] with the proconsul [of the province], Sergius Paulus, an intelligent and sensible man. He called for Barnabas and Saul and wanted to hear the word of God [concerning eternal salvation through faith in Christ].

⁸But Elymas the sorcerer (for that is how his name is translated) opposed them, trying to turn the proconsul away from accepting the faith.

⁹But Saul, who was also known as Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit and led by Him, looked steadily at Elymas, ¹⁰and said, “You [Elymas] who are full of every [kind of] deceit, and every [kind of] fraud, you son of the devil, enemy of everything that is right and good, will you never stop perverting the straight paths of the Lord? [Hos 14:9]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Holy Spirit Leads and Guides Us

The Bible says that the apostle Paul was “filled with the Holy Spirit and led by Him” in his missionary endeavors (Acts 13:9). If you pray first, asking God for a plan, His Holy Spirit will prompt, guide, and gently lead you to a place of liberty and joy (see 2 Cor. 3:17); He will never manipulate or control you. If you are too consumed with your own plan or too locked into the way you think things ought to be, you may not even hear God speak to you or recognize His promptings. If you are too determined to follow your own ritualistic rules, you can miss the gentle leading of the Holy Spirit and lose the joy that God intends for you to experience.

Having a plan is not wrong, but always offer your plan to God and tell Him that if He has something else in mind, you are willing to submit to Him.

¹¹“Now, watch! The hand of the Lord is on you, and you will be blind, [so blind that you will be] unable to see the sun for a time.” Immediately a mist and darkness fell upon him, and he groped around, seeking people to lead him by the hand.

¹²The proconsul believed [the message of salvation] when he saw what had happened, being astonished at the teaching concerning the Lord.

¹³Now Paul and his companions sailed from Paphos and came to Perga in Pamphylia; but John [Mark] left them and went back to Jerusalem.

¹⁴Now they went on from Perga and arrived at Antioch in Pisidia, and on the Sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down.

¹⁵After the reading of the Law and the [writings of the] Prophets, the officials of the synagogue sent word to them, saying, “Brothers (kinsmen), if you have any word of encouragement for the people, say it.”

¹⁶So Paul stood up, and motioning with his hand, he said, “Men of Israel, and you who fear God, listen!

¹⁷“The God of this people Israel chose our fathers and made the people great and numerous during their stay [as foreigners] in the land of Egypt, and then with an uplifted arm He led them out of there. [Ex 6:1, 6]

¹⁸“For a period of about forty years He put up with their behavior in the wilderness. [Deut 1:31]

¹⁹“When He had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, He gave their land [to our ancestors] as an inheritance—this took about four hundred and fifty years. [Deut 7:1; Josh 14:1, 2] ²⁰“After this, He gave them judges until the prophet Samuel.

²¹“Then they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years.

²²“And when He had removed him, He raised up David to be their king: of him He testified and said, ‘I HAVE FOUND DAVID the son of Jesse, A MAN AFTER MY OWN HEART [conforming to My will and purposes], who will do all My will.’ [1 Sam 13:14;

Ps 89:20; Is 44:28]

²³“From this man’s descendants God has brought to Israel a Savior, [in the person of] Jesus, according to His promise.

²⁴“Before His coming John [the Baptist] had preached a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

²⁵“And as John was finishing his course [of ministry], he kept saying, ‘What or who do you think that I am? I am not He [the Christ]; but be aware, One is coming after me whose sandals I am not worthy to untie [even as His slave]!’

²⁶“Brothers, sons of Abraham’s family, and those among you who fear God, to us has been sent the message of this salvation [obtained through faith in Jesus Christ]. [Ps 107:20]

²⁷“For those who live in Jerusalem, and their rulers, who failed to recognize or understand both Jesus and the voices of the prophets which are read every Sabbath, have fulfilled these [very prophecies] by condemning Him.

²⁸“And though they found no cause or charge deserving death, they asked Pilate to have Him executed.

²⁹“And when they had finished carrying out everything that was written [in Scripture] about Him, they took Him down from the cross and laid Him in a tomb.

³⁰“But God raised Him from the dead;

³¹and for many days (forty) He appeared to those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, the very ones who are now His witnesses to the people.

³²“And we are bringing you the good news of the promise made to our fathers (ancestors),

³³that God has completely fulfilled this promise to our children by raising up Jesus, as it is also written in the second

Psalm, ‘YOU ARE MY SON; TODAY I HAVE BEGOTTEN (fathered) YOU.’ [Ps 2:7]

³⁴“And [as for the fact] that He raised Him from the dead, never again to return to decay [in the grave], He has spoken in this way: ‘I WILL GIVE YOU THE HOLY AND SURE blessings OF DAVID [those blessings and mercies that were promised to him].’ [Is 55:3]

³⁵“For this reason He also says in another Psalm, ‘YOU WILL NOT ALLOW YOUR HOLY ONE TO SEE DECAY.’ [Ps 16:10]

³⁶“For David, after he had served the purpose of God in his own generation, fell asleep and was buried among his fathers and experienced decay [in the grave]; ³⁷but He whom God raised [to life] did not experience decay [in the grave].

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Jesus, that through You, everyone who believes, acknowledges You as Lord and Savior, and follows You is justified and declared free of guilt from all things.

• adapted from Acts 13:39

³⁸“So let it be clearly known by you, brothers, that through Him forgiveness of sins is being proclaimed to you;

³⁹and through Him everyone who believes [who acknowledges Jesus as Lord and Savior and follows Him] is justified and declared free of guilt from all things, from which you could not be justified and freed of guilt through the Law of Moses.

⁴⁰“Therefore be careful, so that the thing spoken of in the [writings of the] Prophets does not come upon you:

⁴¹‘LOOK, YOU MOCKERS, AND MARVEL, AND PERISH and VANISH AWAY;
FOR I AM DOING A WORK IN YOUR DAYS,
A WORK WHICH YOU WILL NEVER BELIEVE, even IF SOMEONE DESCRIBES IT TO YOU [telling you about it in detail].’” [Hab 1:5]

⁴²As Paul and Barnabas were leaving [the synagogue], the people kept begging that these things might be spoken to them on the next Sabbath.

⁴³When the congregation of the synagogue had been dismissed, many of the Jews and the devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who, talking to them were urging them to continue in the grace of God.

⁴⁴On the next Sabbath almost the entire city gathered together to hear the word of the Lord [about salvation through faith in Christ].

⁴⁵But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and began contradicting the things said by Paul, and were slandering him.

⁴⁶And [at the same time] Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and confidently, saying, “It was necessary that God’s message [of salvation through faith in Christ] be spoken to you [Jews] first. Since you repudiate it and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, now we turn to the Gentiles.

Speak God's Word

Because I am Jesus' disciple, I can be continually filled throughout my heart and soul with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

| adapted from ACTS 13:52 |

⁴⁷“For that is what the Lord has commanded us, saying,
‘I HAVE PLACED YOU AS A LIGHT FOR THE GENTILES,
SO THAT YOU MAY BRING [the message of eternal] SALVATION
TO THE END OF THE EARTH.’” [Is 49:6]

⁴⁸When the Gentiles heard this, they began rejoicing and glorifying [praising and giving thanks for] the word of the Lord; and all those who had been appointed (designated, ordained) to eternal life [by God] believed [in Jesus as the Christ and their Savior].

⁴⁹And so the word of the Lord [regarding salvation] was being spread through the entire region.

⁵⁰But the Jews incited the devout, prominent women and the leading men of the city, and instigated persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them forcibly out of their district.

⁵¹But they shook its dust from their feet in protest against them and went to Iconium. [Matt 10:14; Mark 6:11]

⁵²And the disciples were continually filled [throughout their hearts and souls] with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

14 NOW IN Iconium Paul and Barnabas went into the Jewish synagogue together and spoke in such a way [with such power and boldness] that a large number of Jews as well as Greeks believed [and confidently accepted Jesus as Savior]; ²but the unbelieving Jews [who rejected Jesus as Messiah] stirred up and embittered the minds of the Gentiles against the believers.

³So Paul and Barnabas stayed for a long time, speaking boldly and confidently for the Lord, who continued to testify to the word of His grace, granting that signs and wonders (attesting miracles) be done by them.

⁴But the people of the city were divided; some were siding with the Jews, and some with the apostles.

⁵When there was an attempt by both the Gentiles and the Jews, together with their rulers, to shamefully mistreat and to stone them, ⁶they, aware of the situation, escaped to Lystra and Derbe, [taking refuge in the] cities of Lycaonia, and the neighboring region;

⁷and there they continued to preach the good news.

⁸Now at Lystra a man sat who was unable to use his feet, for he was crippled from birth and had never walked.

⁹This man was listening to Paul as he spoke, and Paul looked intently at him and saw that he had faith to be healed, ¹⁰and said with a loud voice, “Stand up on your feet.” And he jumped up and began to walk.

¹¹And the crowds, when they saw what Paul had done, raised their voices, shouting in the Lycaonian language, “The gods have come down to us in human form!”

¹²They began calling Barnabas, Zeus [chief of the Greek gods], and Paul, Hermes [messenger of the Greek gods], since he took the lead in speaking.

¹³The priest of Zeus, whose temple was at the entrance of the city, brought bulls and garlands to the city gates, and wanted to offer sacrifices with the crowds.

¹⁴But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard about it, they tore their robes and rushed out into the crowd, shouting,

¹⁵“Men, why are you doing these things? We too are only men of the same nature as you, bringing the good news to you, so that you turn from these useless and meaningless things to the living God, WHO MADE THE HEAVEN AND THE EARTH AND THE SEA AND EVERYTHING THAT IS IN THEM. [Ex 20:11; Ps 146:6]

¹⁶“In generations past He permitted all the nations to go their own ways;

¹⁷yet He did not leave Himself without some witness [as evidence of Himself], in that He kept constantly doing good things and showing you kindness, and giving you rains from heaven and productive seasons, filling your hearts with food and happiness.”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Make Good Your Goal

The very thought of anything good increases my joy, and I hope the same is true for you. I love to do good things for people, and I enjoy it when people do good things for me.

We are to “always seek that which is good for one another and for all people” (1 Thess. 5:15). Doing good is possible only when we actively seek to do so. I encourage you to make doing good, being good, and speaking good words your goals in life. If you do, you can expect more joy than you have ever experienced.

Remember: The “Good Book” (the Bible) introduces us to the “Good Shepherd,” Who brings “Good News,” is “constantly doing good things and showing you kindness” (Acts 14:17), and introduces us to the “Good Life” that He preordained for us to live. He wants us to say good things and be good to everyone! This simple yet profound principle can and will change the world.

¹⁸Even saying these words, with difficulty they prevented the people from offering sacrifices to them.

¹⁹But Jews arrived from Antioch and Iconium, and having won over the crowds, they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, thinking he was dead. [2 Cor 11:25; 2 Tim 3:11]

²⁰But the disciples formed a circle around him, and he got up and went back into the city; and the next day he went on with Barnabas to Derbe.

²¹They preached the good news to that city and made many disciples, then they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch,

²²strengthening and establishing the hearts of the disciples; encouraging them to remain firm in the faith, saying, “It is through many tribulations and hardships that we must enter the kingdom of God.”

²³When they had appointed elders for them in every church, having prayed with fasting, they entrusted them to the Lord in whom they believed [and joyfully accepted as the Messiah].

²⁴Then they passed through Pisidia and came to Pamphylia.

²⁵When they had spoken the word [of salvation through faith in Christ] in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

²⁶From there they sailed back to Antioch, where they had been entrusted to the grace of God for the work which they had now completed.

²⁷Arriving there, they gathered the church together and began to report [in great detail] everything that God had done with them and how He had opened to the Gentiles a door of faith [in Jesus as the Messiah and Savior].

²⁸And they stayed there a long time with the disciples.

15 SOME MEN came down from Judea and began teaching the brothers, “Unless you are circumcised in accordance with the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved.” [Gen 17:9–14]

²Paul and Barnabas disagreed greatly and debated with them, so it was determined that Paul and Barnabas and some of the others from their group would go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and the elders [and confer with them] concerning this issue.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, for knowing and understanding my heart.

• adapted from Acts 15:8

³So, after being supplied and sent on their way by the church, they went through both Phoenicia and Samaria telling in detail the conversion of the Gentiles, and they brought great joy to all the believers.

⁴When they arrived in Jerusalem, they were received warmly by the church and the apostles and the elders, and they reported to them all the things that God had accomplished through them.

⁵But some from the sect of the Pharisees who had believed [in Jesus as the Messiah] stood up and said, “It is necessary to circumcise the Gentile converts and to direct them to observe the Law of Moses.”

⁶The apostles and the elders came together to consider this matter.

⁷After a long debate, Peter got up and said to them, “Brothers, you know that in the early days God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles would hear the message of the gospel and believe.

⁸“And God, who knows and understands the heart, testified to them, giving them the Holy Spirit, just as He also did to us;

⁹and He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith [in Jesus].

¹⁰“Now then, why are you testing God by placing a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we have been able to endure?

¹¹“But we believe that we are saved through the [precious, undeserved] grace of the Lord Jesus [which makes us free of the guilt of sin and grants us eternal life], in just the same way as they are.”

¹²All the people remained silent, and they listened [attentively] to Barnabas and Paul as they described all the signs and wonders (attesting miracles) that God had done through them among the Gentiles.

¹³When they had finished speaking, James replied, “Brothers, listen to me.

¹⁴“Simeon (Simon Peter) has described how God first concerned Himself about taking from among the Gentiles a people for His name [to honor Him and be identified with Him].

¹⁵“The words of the Prophets agree with this, just as it is written [in Scripture],

¹⁶‘AFTER THESE THINGS I will return,
AND I WILL REBUILD THE TENT OF DAVID WHICH HAS FALLEN; I WILL REBUILD ITS RUINS,
AND I WILL RESTORE IT,

¹⁷SO THAT THE REST OF MANKIND MAY SEEK THE LORD, AND ALL THE GENTILES UPON WHOM MY NAME HAS BEEN INVOKED,’

¹⁸SAYS THE LORD,
WHO HAS BEEN MAKING THESE THINGS KNOWN FROM LONG AGO. [Is 45:21; Jer 12:15; Amos 9:11, 12]

¹⁹“Therefore it is my judgment that we do not trouble and make it difficult for those who are turning to God among the Gentiles [by putting obstacles in their way], ²⁰but that we write to them that they are to abstain from anything that has been contaminated by [being offered to] idols and from sexual impurity and from [eating the meat of] what has been strangled and from [the consumption of] blood.

²¹“For from ancient generations [the writing of] Moses has been preached in every city, since he is read aloud in the synagogues every Sabbath.”

²²Then the apostles and the elders, together with the whole church, decided to select some of their men to go to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas—Judas, who was called Barsabbas, and Silas [also called Silvanus, both], leading men among the brothers.

²³With them they sent the following letter: “The apostles and the brothers who are the elders, to the brothers and sisters who are from the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia, Greetings.

²⁴“Since we have heard that some of our men have troubled you with their teachings, causing distress and confusion—men to whom we gave no such orders or instructions—²⁵it has been decided by us, having met together, to select men and send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Avoiding Mental Overload

Paul refused to take Mark with him on his second missionary journey because Mark had “quit and deserted them” on their first journey. This caused a serious rift between Paul and Barnabas because Barnabas and Mark were relatives (see Acts 13:5; 15:36–41). Mark surely must have felt like a failure. Fortunately, many years later we see Paul regarding Mark very favorably (see Col. 4:10; Philem. 24; 2 Tim. 4:11).

While we don’t know why Mark abandoned the first journey, we wonder if he felt too stressed to continue. Here are some important ways you can prevent mental overload and stress and live the joyful, peaceful life that Jesus died to give you: Stay Strong: One way we stay strong is to spend regular, quality time studying God’s Word and talking with Him. We are not strong enough for any success in ourselves, but we are strong in the Lord and in the power of His might (see Eph. 6:10).

Know Yourself: It is wise to know your capabilities and limitations. Be satisfied to be yourself without comparing yourself with anyone else. We are responsible only to do what God wants us to do. He never puts more on us than we can bear!

Examine Your Thoughts: Are your thoughts draining your energy? Most of what makes people feel overloaded is some sort of fear that manifests in worry, anxiety, and pressure. Change what you are thinking, and meditate on this: God has not given me a spirit of fear but of power, love, and a sound mind (see 2 Tim. 1:7).

Talk Yourself into a Change: Remind yourself that God is with you and that you can do whatever you need to do in life through Him.

Don't Get Discouraged: If victory doesn't come quickly, don't become discouraged and give up. Some problems are actually mental strongholds that Satan has occupied in your mind for a long time. Winning the battle of the mind often takes time and a willingness to keep doing the right thing until you get the right result.

Don't Feel Guilty: As believers in Christ, we are all growing in spiritual maturity and we still have our failures! Guilty thoughts and feelings can make us feel like giving up, so remember to live in the "guilt-free zone" with Jesus, Who has already paid for all our sins.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Thank You, God, that there are ways to avoid getting into mental overload and giving up. Help me to stay strong in the power of Your might, to be patient, and to be responsible to do only what You ask me to do. Amen.

²⁶men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

²⁷“So we have sent Judas and Silas, who will report by word of mouth the same things [that we decided in our meeting].

²⁸“For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us not to place on you any greater burden than these essentials:

²⁹that you abstain from things sacrificed to idols, and from [consuming] blood, and from [eating the meat of] things that have been strangled, and from sexual impurity. If you keep yourselves from these things, you will do well. Farewell.”

³⁰So when they were sent off, they went down to Antioch; and after assembling the congregation, they delivered the letter.

³¹And when they had read it, the people rejoiced greatly at the encouragement and comfort [it brought them].

³²Judas and Silas, who were themselves prophets (divinely inspired spokesmen), encouraged and strengthened the believers with many words.

³³After spending some time there, they were sent back by the brothers with [the greeting of] peace to those who had sent them.

³⁴[However, Silas decided to stay there.]

³⁵But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, and with many others also continued teaching and proclaiming the good news, the word of the Lord [concerning eternal salvation through faith in Christ].

³⁶After some time Paul said to Barnabas, “Let us go back and visit the brothers and sisters (believers) in every city where we preached the message of the Lord, and see how they are doing.”

³⁷Now Barnabas wanted to take [his cousin] John, who was called Mark, along with them.

³⁸But Paul kept insisting that they should not take along with them the one who had quit and deserted them in Pamphylia and had not gone on with them to the work.

³⁹And it became such a sharp disagreement that they separated from one another, and Barnabas took [John] Mark with him and sailed away to Cyprus.

⁴⁰But Paul chose Silas [who was again in Antioch] and set out [on his second journey], commended by the brothers to the grace and favor of the Lord.

⁴¹And he traveled through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

16 NOW PAUL traveled to Derbe and also to Lystra. A disciple named Timothy was there, the son of a Jewish woman who was a believer [in Christ], however, his father was a Greek.

²Timothy was well spoken of by the brothers and sisters who were in Lystra and Iconium.

³Paul wanted Timothy to go with him [as a missionary]; and he took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those places, since they all knew that his father was a Greek.

⁴As they traveled from town to town, they delivered the decrees decided on by the apostles and elders who were in Jerusalem, for the churches to observe.

⁵So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and they continually increased in number day after day.

⁶Now they passed through the territory of Phrygia and Galatia, after being forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in [the west coast province of] Asia [Minor]; ⁷and after they came to Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not permit them;

⁸so passing by Mysia, they went down to Troas.

⁹Then a vision appeared to Paul in the night: a man from [the Roman province of] Macedonia was standing and pleading with him, saying, “Come over to Macedonia and help us!”

¹⁰And when he had seen the vision, we (including Luke) tried to go on into Macedonia at once, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.

¹¹So setting sail from Troas, we ran a direct course to Samothrace, and the next day [went on] to Neapolis;

¹²and from there [we came] to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia, a Roman colony. We stayed on in this city for several days; ¹³and on the Sabbath day we went outside the city gate to the bank of the [Gangites] river, where we thought there would be a place of prayer, and we sat down and began speaking to the women who had come there.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

An Open Heart

As “a worshiper of God” (Acts 16:14), Lydia was accustomed to living under Jewish law in Thyatira. Paul and Timothy came to the city of Philippi, where she heard them deliver a message of grace, “and the Lord opened her heart.” The reason her open heart was so important is that it allowed her to pay attention and to respond to Paul’s teaching, to this new and different message (see Acts 16:14). I am sometimes amazed that people refuse to believe certain truths in the Bible because those truths are not part of what they have been taught in the past. We need God to open our hearts at just the right time.

God wants us to be single-minded, not narrow-minded. We may choose to close our mind to certain things, but we can also choose to open our mind to God and allow Him to do new things in our life. No matter how much we learn or how much we experience with God, we should always remain open to the truth.

How often do we approach a teaching or a person with a bias or an opinion, perhaps without even realizing we are doing so? We have developed prejudices because of comments others have made, and we have believed them. That’s why we have to carefully examine our hearts to see if they are open to the truth of God’s Word.

Wise people are always willing and eager to learn something new, to “grow [spiritually mature] in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ” (2 Pet. 3:18).

¹⁴A woman named Lydia, from the city of Thyatira, a dealer in purple fabrics who was [already] a worshiper of God, listened to us; and the Lord opened her heart to pay attention and to respond to the things said by Paul.

¹⁵And when she was baptized, along with her household, she pleaded with us, saying, “If you have judged me and decided that I am faithful to the Lord [a true believer], come to my house and stay.” And she persuaded us.

¹⁶It happened that as we were on our way to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave-girl who had ^{*}a spirit of divination [that is, a demonic spirit claiming to foretell the future and discover hidden knowledge], and she brought her owners a good profit by fortune-telling.

¹⁷She followed after Paul and us and kept screaming and shouting, “These men are servants of the Most High God! They are proclaiming to you the way of salvation!”

¹⁸She continued doing this for several days. Then Paul, being greatly annoyed and worn out, turned and said to the spirit [inside her], “I command you in the name of Jesus Christ [as His representative] to come out of her!” And it came out at that very moment.

¹⁹But when her owners saw that their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them before the authorities in the market place [where trials were held],

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Authority in Jesus' Name

As believers we need to recognize that we have been given the right to command in Jesus' name. We pray and ask the Father for things in Jesus' name, but we can also command the enemy in that name. We speak to circumstances and principalities and powers, using the authority that has been given to us by virtue of the power of attorney invested in us by Jesus Himself. In exercising our ministry, when we cast out a demon, we don't lay hands on a person and pray for God to cast it out. We command it to come out in the name of Jesus (see Acts 16:18).

Before we exercise this authority, we have already prayed to the Father in Jesus' name. Then we go and use the power He has granted to us, and we exercise the authority inherent in the name of His Son Jesus.

The same applies to prayer for healing of the sick. There are times to pray the prayer of faith in the name of Jesus; there are times to anoint with oil (see James 5:14–15); and there are also times to simply command or speak healing in the name of Jesus.

Spend time daily with the Lord in fellowship, asking, interceding, and seeking, and come out of that time equipped for the job at hand. When doing the work of the Kingdom, exercise your authority in Jesus' name.

²⁰and when they had brought them before the chief magistrates, they said, “These men, who are Jews, are throwing our city into confusion and causing trouble.

²¹“They are publicly teaching customs which are unlawful for us, as Romans, to accept or observe.”

²²The crowd also joined in the attack against them, and the chief magistrates tore their robes off them and ordered that Paul and Silas be beaten with rods. [2 Cor 11:25]

²³After striking them many times [with the rods], they threw them into prison, commanding the jailer to guard them securely.

²⁴He, having received such a [strict] command, threw them into the inner prison (dungeon) and fastened their feet in the stocks [in an agonizing position].

²⁵But about midnight when Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns of praise to God, and the prisoners were listening to them;

²⁶suddenly there was a great earthquake, so [powerful] that the very foundations of the prison were shaken and at once all the doors were opened and everyone’s chains were unfastened.

²⁷When the jailer, shaken out of sleep, saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, thinking that the prisoners had escaped.

²⁸But Paul shouted, saying, “Do not hurt yourself, we are all here!”

²⁹Then the jailer called for torches and rushed in, and trembling with fear he fell down before Paul and Silas, ³⁰and after he brought them out [of the inner prison], he said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”

³¹And they answered, “Believe in the Lord Jesus [as your personal Savior and entrust yourself to Him] and you will be saved, you and your household [if they also believe].”

³²And they spoke the word of the Lord [concerning eternal salvation through faith in Christ] to him and to all who were in his house.

³³And he took them that very hour of the night and washed their bloody wounds, and immediately he was baptized, he and all his household.

³⁴Then he brought them into his house and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, since he had believed in God with his entire family [accepting with joy what had been made known to them about the Christ].

³⁵Now when day came, the chief magistrates sent their officers, saying, “Release those men.”

³⁶And the jailer repeated the words to Paul, saying, “The chief magistrates have sent word to release you; so come out now and go in peace.”

³⁷But Paul said to them, “They have beaten us in public without a trial, men who are Romans, and have thrown us into prison; and now they are sending us out secretly? No! Let them come here themselves and bring us out!”

³⁸The officers reported this message to the chief magistrates, and when they heard that the prisoners were Romans, they were frightened;

³⁹so they came [to the prison] and appealed to them [with apologies], and when they brought them out, they kept begging them to leave the city.

⁴⁰So they left the prison and went to Lydia’s house; and when they had seen the brothers and sisters, they encouraged and comforted them, and left.

17 NOW AFTER Paul and Silas had traveled through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.

²And Paul entered the synagogue, as was his custom, and for three Sabbaths he engaged in discussion and friendly debate with them from the Scriptures,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Live with Joy

Throughout the Bible, God instructs His people to be filled with joy and to rejoice. The apostle Paul, inspired by the Holy Spirit, instructed the Philippians twice to rejoice (see Phil. 4:4). Any time the Lord tells us twice to do something, we need to pay careful attention to what He is saying.

Many times people see or hear the word rejoice and say, “That sounds nice, but how do I do that?” They would like to rejoice, but they don’t know how!

Paul and Silas, who had been beaten, thrown into prison, and had their feet put in stocks, rejoiced by simply singing praises to God—at midnight. They chose to rejoice, despite their circumstances (see Acts 16:25–26).

The same power that opened the doors and broke the shackles off Paul and Silas and those imprisoned with them is available to people today who are imprisoned and shackled with fear, worry, frustration, despair, or any other negative emotion.

To live as God intends for us to live, we first need to truly believe that it is God’s will for us to experience continual joy. Joy can be anything from calm delight to extreme hilarity. Joy improves our countenance, our health, and the quality of our lives. It strengthens our witness to others and makes some of the less desirable circumstances in life more bearable.

³explaining and pointing out [scriptural evidence] that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and rise from the dead, and saying, “This Jesus, whom I am proclaiming to you, is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed).”

⁴And some of them were persuaded to believe and joined Paul and Silas, along with a large number of the God-fearing Greeks and many of the leading women.

⁵But the [unbelieving] Jews became jealous, and taking along some thugs from [the lowlifes in] the market place, they formed a mob and set the city in an uproar; and then attacking Jason’s house tried to bring Paul and Silas out to the people.

⁶But when they failed to find them, they dragged Jason and some brothers before the city authorities, shouting, “These men who have turned the world upside down have come here too; ⁷and Jason has welcomed them [into his house and protected them]! And they all are saying things contrary to the decrees of Caesar, [actually] claiming that there is another king, Jesus.”

POWERPOINT

Acts 17:11 urges us to always have a mind ready to receive the message of God. We should be eager and enthusiastic to learn God's will for us through studying and hearing His Word. People with a habit of thinking negatively might not be willing to listen, especially to anything new, but those with a positive mind will always be open to learning new things.

The apostles' message was new to those who heard it. For them to believe and act on it probably meant letting go of old ways. When God wants to change something, always have a mind ready to do what He guides you to do.

⁸They stirred up the crowd and the city authorities who heard these things.

⁹And when they had taken security (bail) from Jason and the others, they let them go.

¹⁰The brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea; and when they arrived, they entered the Jewish synagogue.

¹¹Now these people were more noble and open-minded than those in Thessalonica, so they received the message [of salvation through faith in the Christ] with great eagerness, examining the Scriptures daily to see if these things were so.

¹²As a result many of them became believers, together with a number of prominent Greek women and men.

¹³But when the Jews of Thessalonica learned that the word of God [concerning eternal salvation through faith in Christ] had also been preached by Paul at Berea, they came there too, agitating and disturbing the crowds.

¹⁴So at that time the brothers immediately sent Paul away to go as far as the sea; but Silas and Timothy remained there [at Berea].

¹⁵Those who escorted Paul brought him to Athens; and [after] receiving instructions [from Paul] for Silas and Timothy to join him as soon as possible, they left.

¹⁶Now while Paul was waiting for them at Athens, his spirit was greatly angered when he saw that the city was full of idols.

¹⁷So he had discussions in the synagogue with the Jews and the God-fearing Gentiles, and in the market place day after day with any who happened to be there.

¹⁸And some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers began to engage in conversation with him. And some said, “What could this idle babbler [with his eclectic, scrap-heap learning] have in mind to say?” Others said, “He seems to be a proclaimer of strange deities”—because he was preaching the good news about Jesus and the resurrection.

¹⁹They took him and brought him to the Areopagus (Hill of Ares, the Greek god of war), saying, “May we know what this [strange] new teaching is which you are proclaiming?”

²⁰“For you are bringing some startling and strange things to our ears; so we want to know what they mean.”

²¹(Now all the Athenians and the foreigners visiting there used to spend their [leisure] time in nothing other than telling or hearing something new.)

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Are You Ready-Minded?

When Paul and Silas preached in Thessalonica, the people tried to kill them, so believers helped them flee. From there, they went to the city of Berea, where the people were “more noble and open-minded than those in Thessalonica” and “received the message... with great eagerness” (Acts 17:11).

The people in Berea had ready minds. That means they were open to God, willing to hear what He said, whether it was good news or bad. They were humble enough to continue learning and improving.

Would you say that, as a Christian, you are ready-minded? Are you ready, open, willing to hear God, and to be obedient to what He says?

For many people, being ready-minded means that they are ready and open if the message is what they want to hear. If it's not what they want to hear, they don't try to “kill the messengers,” as the Thessalonians did. They simply say, “Oh, we don't want to hear that,” and they stop listening.

To be ready-minded means being willing to turn away from every lie and deception that Satan offers. It also means being willing to say, “I was wrong.” It means that instead of listening only for what we want to hear, we listen for what we need to hear.

To be ready-minded also means we discern the source of the voice we are listening to. We love to hear words that make us feel good and encourage us, but we don’t like words that make us aware of our shortcomings. One of Satan’s tricks in his battle for our minds is to convince us that a message isn’t important or that we already know it when it is a word that convicts us of a need to change. He may even say that the message is not correct, and by doing so, he prevents us from hearing what we really need in order to gain our own freedom. He might even suggest that we don’t like the speaker. In that way he prevents us from receiving the message.

Having a ready mind is not always easy. In fact, the more seriously the Holy Spirit wants to deal with us, the more Satan tries to convince us that we do not need or want to listen to what God is saying.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord Jesus, please give me a ready mind. Enable me to hear Your voice clearly and easily. Enable me to say, “Yes, Lord,” no matter what Your Spirit says to me. I want to have a ready mind that pleases You in everything. I ask this in Your name. Amen.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

You Can Break the Addiction to Reasoning

Rather than going to the Greeks with reasoning and logic, Paul's successful approach in Corinth was: "I made the decision to know nothing [that is, to forego philosophical or theological discussions regarding inconsequential things and opinions while] among you except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified" (1 Cor. 2:2). That's amazing. Paul was highly educated, and he had the ability to reason with the Greeks and show them the fallacies of their logic. But, led by the Holy Spirit, he chose a defenseless presentation—to let God speak through him and touch the people's hearts.

I appreciate his approach now, but for a long time I wanted to explain and reason out everything. I wanted to be in control of every situation. When I didn't understand or was unable to figure things out, I felt out of control. That was frightening to me, and I ended up feeling miserable.

Then God began to show me that my constant drive to figure out everything caused me confusion and prevented me from receiving many of the things He wanted me to have. He impressed upon my mind the need to lay aside carnal reasoning if I wanted to have discernment. It required a long battle before I finally admitted something to myself: I was addicted to reasoning. It was more than a desire to figure out things. I had to have answers—and had to have them right now. Convinced of my addiction, I was finally able to give it up.

It wasn't easy. I felt frightened, because I had always depended on my ability to figure things out. Now, like Paul, I had decided to depend on God.

Too many people assume that relying only on God is something we do easily and naturally. It didn't work that way with me, but God was gracious and patient with me. If you have a tendency, as I did, to make yourself miserable while you try to reason in your mind all of life's answers, I encourage you: God wants to set you free. Trade all your questions for total trust in God and soon you will have answers that have been given to you by the Spirit.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Heavenly Father, thank You for being so patient with me when I felt I needed all the answers before I could act or trust. In Jesus' name, help me to simply trust in You, knowing that You will do what is best for my life. Amen.

Speak God's Word

I belong to God. In Him I live, move, exist, and actually have my being—because I am His child.

| adapted from ACTS 17:28 |

²²So Paul, standing in the center of the Areopagus, said: “Men of Athens, I observe [with every turn I make throughout the city] that you are very religious and devout in all respects.

²³“Now as I was going along and carefully looking at your objects of worship, I came to an altar with this inscription: ‘TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.’ Therefore what you already worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you.

²⁴“The God who created the world and everything in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands;

²⁵nor is He served by human hands, as though He needed anything, because it is He who gives to all [people] life and breath and all things. [Is 42:5]

²⁷“This was so that they would seek God, if perhaps they might grasp for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us.

²⁸“For in Him we live and move and exist [that is, in Him we actually have our being], as even some of your own poets have said, ‘For we also are His children.’

²⁹“So then, being God’s children, we should not think that the Divine Nature (deity) is like gold or silver or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination or skill of man.

³⁰“Therefore God overlooked and disregarded the former ages of ignorance; but now He commands all people everywhere to repent [that is, to change their old way of thinking, to regret their past sins, and to seek God’s purpose for their lives], ³¹because He has set a day when He will judge the inhabited world in righteousness by a Man whom He has appointed and destined for that task, and He has provided credible proof to everyone by raising Him from the dead.” [Ps 9:8; 96:13; 98:9]

³²Now when they heard [the term] resurrection from the dead, some mocked and sneered; but others said, “We will hear from you again about this matter.”

³⁴But some men joined him and believed; among them were Dionysius, [a judge] of the Council of Areopagus, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

18 AFTER THIS Paul left Athens and went to Corinth.

²There he met a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife, Priscilla, because [the Roman Emperor] Claudius had issued an edict that all the Jews were to leave Rome. Paul went to see them,³ and because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them; and they worked together for they were tent-makers.

⁴And he reasoned and debated in the synagogue every Sabbath, trying to persuade Jews and Greeks;

⁵but when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia (northern Greece), Paul began devoting himself completely to [preaching] the word, and solemnly testifying to the Jews that Jesus is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed).

⁶But since the Jews kept resisting and opposing him, and blaspheming [God], he shook out his robe and said to them, “Your blood (damnation) be on your own heads! I am innocent of it. From now on I will go to the Gentiles.” [Acts 13:46]

⁷Then he moved on from there and went to the house of a man named Titius Justus, who worshiped God and whose house was next door to the synagogue.

⁸Crispus, the leader of the synagogue, believed in the Lord together with his entire household [joyfully acknowledging Him as Messiah and Savior]; and many of the Corinthians who heard [Paul’s message] were believing and being baptized.

⁹One night the Lord said to Paul in a vision, “Do not be afraid anymore, but go on speaking and do not be silent;

¹⁰for I am with you, and no one will attack you in order to hurt you, because I have many people in this city.” [Is 43:5; Jer 1:8]

¹¹So he settled there for a year and six months, teaching them the word of God [concerning eternal salvation through faith in Christ].

¹²But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia (southern Greece), the Jews made a united attack on Paul and brought him before the judgment seat, ¹³declaring, “This man is persuading people to worship God in violation of the law [of Moses].”

¹⁴But when Paul was about to reply, Gallio said to the Jews, “If it were a matter of some misdemeanor or serious crime, O Jews, I would have reason to put up with you; ¹⁵but since it is merely a question [of doctrine within your religion] about words and names and your own law, see to it yourselves; I am unwilling to judge these matters.”

¹⁶And he drove them away from the judgment seat.

¹⁷Then the Greeks all seized Sosthenes, the leader of the synagogue, and began beating him right in front of the judgment seat; but Gallio paid no attention to any of this. [1 Cor 1:1]

¹⁸Paul stayed for a while longer, and then told the brothers and sisters goodbye and sailed for Syria; and he was accompanied by Priscilla and Aquila. At Cenchrea [the southeastern port of Corinth] he had his hair cut, because he was keeping a [Nazirite] vow [of abstention].

¹⁹Then they arrived in Ephesus, and he left the others there; but he entered the synagogue and reasoned and debated with the Jews.

²⁰When they asked him to stay for a longer time, he refused;

²¹but after telling them goodbye and saying, “I will return again if God is willing,” he set sail from Ephesus.

²²When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church [at Jerusalem], and then went down to Antioch.

²³After spending some time there, he left and traveled through the territory of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening and encouraging all the disciples.

²⁵This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord, and being spiritually impassioned, he was speaking and teaching accurately the things about Jesus, though he knew only the baptism of John; ²⁶and he began to speak boldly and fearlessly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained more accurately to him the way of God [and the full story of the life of Christ].

²⁷And when Apollos wanted to go across to Achaia (southern Greece), the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples, [urging them] to welcome him gladly. When he arrived, he was a great help to those who, through grace, had believed and had followed Jesus as Lord and Savior, ²⁸for he powerfully refuted the Jews in public discussions, proving by the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed).

19 IT HAPPENED that while Apollos was in Corinth, Paul went through the upper [inland] districts and came down to Ephesus, and found some disciples.

²He asked them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed [in Jesus as the Christ]?” And they said, “No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.”

³And he asked, “Into what then were you baptized?” They said, “Into John’s baptism.”

⁴Paul said, “John performed a baptism of repentance, continually telling the people to believe in Him who was coming after him, that is, [to confidently accept and joyfully believe] in Jesus [the Messiah and Savior].”

⁵After hearing this, they were baptized [again, this time] in the name of the Lord Jesus.

⁶And when Paul laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they began speaking in [unknown] tongues (languages) and prophesying.

⁷There were about twelve men in all.

⁸And he went into the synagogue and for three months spoke boldly, reasoning and arguing and persuading them about the kingdom of God.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Honors His Will and Jesus' Name

In the book of Acts, we read of the mighty miracles that God did through the life of Paul. God honored Paul's faith when he spoke the name of Jesus. Certain Jewish exorcists, however, attempted to use the name of Jesus as if it were a simple incantation. The Bible says "the man, in whom was the evil spirit, leaped on them and subdued all of them and overpowered them, so that they ran out of that house [in terror; stripped] naked and wounded" (Acts 19:16). The evil spirit replied to the exorcists that it recognized and acknowledged Jesus and knew about Paul, but it did not know who they were (see Acts 19:15).

The name of Jesus is not a "magic word" or a ritualistic incantation to be added to the end of a prayer to ensure its effectiveness. The ability to pray effectively and use Jesus' powerful name comes from being in a living, obedient relationship with Him. In the context of that relationship, the power of the Holy Spirit will flow out of our lives and deliver us and others from the devil's bondages.

All Spirit-led prayer involves praying the will of God, not the will of man. It is impossible to pray the will of God without knowing the Word of God. God certainly pays attention to the prayers that come to Him in Jesus' name and are prayed according to His will. To use the name of Jesus with power, it's necessary to know Him as Lord and Savior.

⁹But when some were becoming hardened and disobedient [to the word of God], discrediting and speaking evil of the Way (Jesus, Christianity) before the congregation, Paul left them, taking the disciples with him, and went on holding daily discussions in the lecture hall of Tyrannus [instead of in the synagogue].

¹⁰This continued for two years, so that all the inhabitants of [the west coast province of] Asia [Minor], Jews as well as Greeks, heard the word of the Lord [concerning eternal salvation through faith in Christ].

¹¹God was doing extraordinary and unusual miracles by the hands of Paul, ¹²so that even handkerchiefs or face-towels or aprons that had touched his skin were brought to the sick, and their diseases left them and the evil spirits came out [of them].

¹³Then some of the traveling Jewish exorcists also attempted to call the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, “I implore you and solemnly command you by the Jesus whom Paul preaches!”

¹⁴Seven sons of one [named] Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this.

¹⁵But the evil spirit retorted, “I know and recognize and acknowledge Jesus, and I know about Paul, but as for you, who are you?”

¹⁶Then the man, in whom was the evil spirit, leaped on them and subdued all of them and overpowered them, so that they ran out of that house [in terror, stripped] naked and wounded.

¹⁷This became known to all who lived in Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks. And fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified and exalted.

¹⁸Many of those who had become believers were coming, confessing and disclosing their [former sinful] practices.

¹⁹And many of those who had practiced magical arts collected their books and [throwing book after book on the pile] began burning them in front of everyone. They calculated their value and found it to be 50,000 pieces of silver.

²⁰So the word of the Lord [concerning eternal salvation through faith in Christ] was growing greatly and prevailing.

²¹Now after these events, Paul determined in the Spirit that he would travel through Macedonia and Achaia (most of the Greek mainland), and go to Jerusalem, saying, “After I have been there, I must also see Rome [and preach the good news of salvation].”

²²And after sending two of his assistants, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia [ahead of him], he stayed on in [the west coast province of] Asia [Minor] for a while.

²³About that time there occurred no small disturbance concerning the Way (Jesus, Christianity).

²⁴Now a man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of [the goddess] Artemis (Diana), was bringing no small profit to the craftsmen.

²⁵These [craftsmen] he called together, along with the workmen of similar trades, and said, “Men, you are well aware that we make a good living from this business.

²⁶“You see and hear that not only at Ephesus, but almost all over [the province of] Asia, this Paul has persuaded [people to believe his teaching] and has misled a large number of people, claiming that gods made by [human] hands are not really gods at all.

²⁷“Not only is there danger that this trade of ours will be discredited, but also that the [magnificent] temple of the great goddess Artemis will be discredited, and that she whom all Asia and the world worship will even be dethroned and lose her glorious magnificence.”

²⁸When they heard this, they were filled with rage, and they began shouting, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

²⁹Then the city was filled with confusion; and people rushed together [as a group] into the amphitheater, dragging along with them Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians who were Paul’s traveling companions.

³⁰Paul wanted to go into the [pagan] assembly, but the disciples would not let him.

³¹Even some of the Asiarchs (officials) who were his friends sent word to him and repeatedly warned him not to venture into the amphitheater.

³²Now some shouted one thing and some another, for the gathering was in confusion and most of the people did not know why they had come together.

³³Some of the crowd advised Alexander [to speak], since the Jews had pushed him forward; and Alexander motioned with his hand [for attention] and intended to make a defense to the people.

³⁴But when they realized that he was a Jew, a single outcry went up from the crowd as they shouted for about two hours, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

³⁵After the town clerk had quieted the crowd, he said, “Men of Ephesus, what person is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is the guardian of the temple of the great Artemis and of that [sacred stone image of her] which fell from the sky?

³⁶“So, since these things cannot be denied, you ought to be quiet and stay calm and not do anything rash.

³⁷“For you have brought these men here who are neither temple robbers nor blasphemers of our goddess.

³⁸“So then, if Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a complaint against anyone, the courts are in session and proconsuls are available; let them bring charges against one another there.

³⁹“But if you want anything beyond this, it will be settled in the lawful assembly.

⁴⁰“For we are running the risk of being accused of rioting in regard to today’s events, and since there is no reason for it, we will be unable to give an account and justify this disorderly gathering.”

⁴¹And when he had said these things, he dismissed the assembly.

20 AFTER THE uproar had ended, Paul sent for the disciples, and when he had encouraged them he told them goodbye, and set off to go to Macedonia.

²After he had gone through those districts and had encouraged the believers, he came to Greece.

³And he stayed three months, and when a plot was formed against him by the Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he decided to return through Macedonia (northern Greece).

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Embrace the Changes God Brings

After three years of building the church at Ephesus, Paul left, feeling “compelled by the Spirit” to go to Jerusalem, not knowing what would happen to him there (Acts 20:22). I have found that when I am doing something that doesn’t give me joy anymore, that’s a strong indication God is finished with that thing and I need to be ready for something new.

When you can sense that the grace of God is no longer with you to do something or that the joy you once felt in it is gone, don’t just complain and continue until you end up burned-out. Have the courage to say, “I did things this way for a long time, but I believe God is leading me to do something else.”

Jesus said, “My yoke is easy [to bear] and My burden is light” (Matt. 11:30). Life is easy and full of joy when you depend on God and His leading. Pray for God to lead you to where He wants you to be—even if that means embracing change.

⁴He was accompanied by Sopater of Berea, the son of Pyrrhus, and by Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians, and by Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia.

⁵These men went on ahead and were waiting for us (including Luke) at Troas.

⁶We sailed from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread (Passover week), and within five days we reached them at Troas, where we stayed for seven days.

⁷Now on the first day of the week (Sunday), when we were gathered together to break bread (share communion), Paul began talking with them, intending to leave the next day; and he kept on with his message until midnight.

⁸Now there were many lamps in the upper room where we were assembled, ⁹and there was a young man named Eutychus (“Lucky”) sitting on the window sill. He was sinking into a deep sleep, and as Paul kept on talking longer and longer, he was completely overcome by sleep and fell down from the third story; and he was picked up dead.

¹⁰But Paul went down and threw himself on him and embraced him, and said [to those standing around him], “Do not be troubled, because he is alive.”

¹¹When Paul had gone back upstairs and had broken the bread and eaten, he talked [informally and confidentially] with them for a long time—until daybreak [in fact]—and then he left.

¹²They took the boy [Eutychus] home alive, and were greatly comforted and encouraged.

¹³But we went on ahead to the ship and set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul on board there; for that was what he had arranged, intending himself to go [a shorter route] by land.

¹⁴So when he met us at Assos, we took him on board and sailed on to Mitylene.

¹⁵Sailing from there, we arrived the next day [at a point] opposite Chios; the following day we crossed over to Samos, and the next day we arrived at Miletus [about 30 miles south of Ephesus].

¹⁶Paul had decided to sail on past Ephesus so that he would not end up spending time [unnecessarily] in [the province of] Asia (modern Turkey); for he was in a hurry to be in Jerusalem, if possible, on the day of Pentecost.

¹⁷However, from Miletus he sent word to Ephesus and summoned the elders of the church [to meet him there].

¹⁸And when they arrived he said to them:

“You know well how I [lived when I] was with you, from the first day that I set foot in Asia [until now], ¹⁹serving the Lord with all humility and with tears and trials which came on me because of the plots of the Jews [against me];

²⁰[you know] how I did not shrink back in fear from telling you anything that was for your benefit, or from teaching you in public meetings, and from house to house, ²¹solemnly [and wholeheartedly] testifying to both Jews and Greeks, urging them to turn in repentance to God and [to have] faith in our Lord Jesus Christ [for salvation].

²²“And now, compelled by the Spirit and obligated by my convictions, I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there, ²³except that the Holy Spirit solemnly [and emphatically] affirms to me in city after city that imprisonment and suffering await me.

²⁴“But I do not consider my life as something of value or dear to me, so that I may [with joy] finish my course and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify faithfully of the good news of God's [precious, undeserved] grace [which makes us free of the guilt of sin and grants us eternal life].

²⁵“And now, listen carefully: I know that none of you, among whom I went about preaching the kingdom, will see me again.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I commend those I love to You, God, placing them in Your protective, loving care. And I commend them to the word of Your grace—the counsel and promises of Your unmerited favor. Your grace is able to build them up and to give them the rightful inheritance among all those who are sanctified, who are set apart for Your purpose.

• adapted from Acts 20:32

Speak God's Word

I believe that it is more blessed and brings greater joy to give than to receive.

| adapted from ACTS 20:35 |

²⁶“For that reason I testify to you on this [our parting] day that I am innocent of the blood of all people.

²⁷“For I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole purpose and plan of God.

²⁸“Take care and be on guard for yourselves and for the whole flock over which the Holy Spirit has appointed you as overseers, to shepherd (tend, feed, guide) the church of God which He bought with His own blood.

²⁹“I know that after I am gone, [false teachers like] ferocious wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock;

³⁰even from among your own selves men will arise, speaking perverse and distorted things, to draw away the disciples after themselves [as their followers].

³¹“Therefore be continually alert, remembering that for three years, night or day, I did not stop admonishing and advising each one [of you] with tears.

³²“And now I commend you to God [placing you in His protective, loving care] and [I commend you] to the word of His grace [the counsel and promises of His unmerited favor]. His grace is able to build you up and to give you the [rightful] inheritance among all those who are sanctified [that is, among those who are set apart for God’s purpose—all believers].

³³“I had no desire for anyone’s silver or gold or [expensive] clothes.

³⁴“You know personally that these hands ministered to my own needs [working in manual labor] and to [those of] the people who were with me.

³⁵“In everything I showed you [by example] that by working hard in this way you must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He Himself said, ‘It is more blessed [and brings greater joy] to give than to receive.’”

³⁶When he had said these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all.

³⁷And they began to weep openly and threw their arms around Paul’s neck, and repeatedly kissed him,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Find Out What “Happy” Is

For many years, I could quote “it is more blessed [and brings greater joy] to give than to receive” (Acts 20:35), but I obviously didn’t really believe those words because I spent my time trying to be blessed rather than to be a blessing. But God has taught me that we do not even know what “happy” is until we forget about ourselves, start focusing on others, and become generous givers in every way.

Many people learn about giving in church, and that’s good practice for the way we are to live our everyday lives. Don’t merely give offerings; be a giver. Every day, pray for God to show you how you can give of yourself and be a blessing to others. As you become a generous giver, you will be amazed at how happy you will be and how much you will enjoy life.

³⁸grieving and distressed especially over the word which he had spoken, that they would not see him again. And they accompanied him to the ship.

21 WHEN WE had torn ourselves away from them and set sail, we ran a straight course and came to Cos, and on the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara; ²and after finding a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went on board and set sail.

³After we came in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on our left (port side), we sailed on to Syria and put in at Tyre; for there the ship was to unload her cargo.

⁴After looking up the disciples [in Tyre], we stayed there [with them] seven days; and they kept telling Paul through the [Holy] Spirit not to set foot in Jerusalem.

⁵When our days there came to an end, we left and proceeded on our journey, while all of the disciples, with their wives and children, escorted us on our way until we were outside the city. After kneeling down on the beach and praying, we told one another goodbye.

⁶Then we boarded the ship, and they returned to their homes.

⁷When we had completed the voyage from Tyre, we landed [twenty miles to the south] at Ptolemais, and after greeting the believers, we stayed with them for one day.

⁸On the next day we left and came to Caesarea, and we went to the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven [deacons], and stayed with him. [Acts 6:3–6]

⁹He had four virgin daughters who had the gift of prophecy.

¹⁰As we were staying there for some time, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea.

¹¹And coming to [see] us, he took Paul's [wide] band (belt, sash) and bound his own feet and hands, and said, "This is what the Holy Spirit says: 'In this same way the Jews in Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this band, and they will hand him over to the Gentiles (pagans).'"

¹²Now when we had heard this, both we and the local residents began pleading with Paul trying to persuade him not to go up to Jerusalem.

¹³Then Paul replied, “What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart [like this]? For I am ready not only to be bound and imprisoned, but even to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.”

¹⁴And since he would not be dissuaded, we stopped pleading and fell silent, saying, “The Lord’s will be done!”

¹⁵After this we got ready and started on our way up to Jerusalem.

¹⁶Some of the disciples from Caesarea also came with us, taking us to [the house of] Mnason, a man from Cyprus, a disciple of long standing with whom we were to lodge.

¹⁷When we arrived in Jerusalem, the brothers and sisters welcomed us gladly.

¹⁸On the next day Paul went with us to [see] James, and all the elders of the church were present.

¹⁹After greeting them, Paul began to give a detailed account of the things that God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

²⁰And when they heard it, they began glorifying and praising God; and they said to him, “You see, brother, how many thousands of believers there are among the Jews, and they are all enthusiastic supporters of the Law [of Moses].

²¹“Now they have been told about you, that you are teaching all the Jews who are living among the Gentiles to turn away from [the Law of] Moses, advising them not to circumcise their children or to live according to the [Mosaic] customs.

²²“What then should be done? They will certainly hear that you have arrived.

²³“Therefore do just what we tell you. We have four men who have taken a vow;

²⁴take these men and purify yourself along with them, and pay their expenses [for the temple offerings] so that they may shave their heads. Then everyone will know that there is nothing to the things they have been told about you, but that you yourself also follow and keep the Law.

²⁶Then Paul took the [four] men, and the next day he purified himself along with them [by submitting to the ritual]. He went into the temple to give notice of [the time] when the days of purification [ending each vow] would be fulfilled and the usual offering could be presented on behalf of each one.

²⁷When the seven days [required to complete the ritual] were almost over, [some] Jews from [the province of] Asia [Minor], caught sight of him in the temple, and began to stir up the crowd, and they seized him, ²⁸shouting, “Men of Israel, help us! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against our people and the Law and this place. And besides, he has brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place.”

²⁹For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with Paul, and they assumed that he had brought the man into the temple [beyond the court of the Gentiles].

³⁰Then the whole city was provoked and confused, and the people rushed together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple, and immediately the gates were closed.

³¹Now while they were trying to kill him, word came to the commander of the [Roman] garrison that all Jerusalem was in a state of upheaval.

³²So he immediately took soldiers and centurions and ran down among them. When the people saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

³³Then the commander came up and arrested Paul, and ordered that he be bound with two chains. Then he asked who he was and what he had done.

³⁴But some in the crowd were shouting one thing and others something else; and since he could not determine the facts because of the uproar, he ordered that Paul be taken to the barracks [in the tower of Antonia].

³⁵When Paul got to the steps, he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the mob;

³⁶for the majority of the people kept following them, shouting, "Away with him! [Kill him!]"

³⁷Just as Paul was about to be taken into the barracks, he asked the commander, "May I say something to you?" And the man replied, "Do you know Greek?"

³⁸"Then you are not [as I assumed] the Egyptian who some time ago stirred up a rebellion and led those 4,000 men of the Assassins out into the wilderness?"

³⁹Paul said, "I am a Jew from Tarsus in Cilicia (Mersin Province, Turkey), a citizen of no insignificant city; and I beg you, allow me to speak to the people."

⁴⁰When the commander had given him permission, Paul, standing on the steps, gestured with his hand to the people; and when there was a great hush, he spoke to them in the Hebrew dialect (Jewish Aramaic), saying, 22 “BRETHREN AND fathers (kinsmen), hear my defense which I now offer to you.”

²When they heard that he was addressing them in the Hebrew dialect, they became even more quiet. And he continued, ³“I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city, educated at the feet of Gamaliel according to the strictness of the law of our fathers, being ardent and passionate for God just as all of you are today.

⁴“I persecuted and pursued the followers of this Way to the death, binding them with chains and putting [followers of Jesus] both men and women into prisons, ⁵as the high priest and all the Council of the elders (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) can testify; because from them I received letters to the brothers, and I was on my way to Damascus in order to bring those [believers] who were there to Jerusalem in chains to be punished.

⁶“But as I was on my way, approaching Damascus about noontime, a great blaze of light suddenly flashed from heaven and shone around me.

⁷“And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?’

⁸“And I replied, ‘Who are You, Lord?’ And He said to me, ‘I am Jesus the Nazarene, whom you are persecuting.’

⁹“Now those who were with me saw the light, but did not understand the voice of the One who was speaking to me.

¹⁰“And I asked, ‘What shall I do, Lord?’ And the Lord answered me, ‘Get up and go into Damascus. There you will be told all that is appointed and destined for you to do.’

¹¹“But since I could not see because of the [glorious intensity and dazzling] brightness of that light, I was led by the hand by those who were with me and came into Damascus.

¹²“And one Ananias, a devout man according to the standard of the Law, and well spoken of by all the Jews who lived there, ¹³came to [see] me, and standing near, he said to me, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight!’ And at that very moment I [recovered my sight and] looked up at him.

¹⁴“And he said, ‘The God of our fathers has appointed you to know His will, [and to progressively understand His plan with clarity and power] and to see the Righteous One [Jesus Christ, the Messiah] and to hear a message from His [own] mouth.

¹⁵‘For you will be His witness to all men testifying of what you have seen and heard.

¹⁶‘Now, why do you delay? Get up and be baptized, and wash away your sins by calling on His name [for salvation].’

¹⁷“Then it happened when I had returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple [enclosure], that I fell into a trance (vision);

¹⁸and I saw Him saying to me, ‘Hurry and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your testimony about Me.’

¹⁹“And I said, ‘Lord, they themselves know [without any doubt] that in one synagogue after another I used to imprison and beat those who believed in You [and Your message of salvation].

²⁰‘And when the blood of Your witness Stephen was being shed, I also was standing nearby approving and consenting [to his death], and guarding the coats of those who were killing him.’

²¹“And the Lord said to me, ‘Go, I will send you far away to the Gentiles.’”

²²They listened to Paul until [he made] this [last] statement, but now they raised their voices and shouted, “Away with such a man from the earth! He is not fit to live!”

²³And as they were shouting and throwing off their coats [getting ready to stone Paul] and tossing dust into the air [expressing their anger], ²⁴the commander ordered him to be brought into the barracks, stating that he was to be interrogated with a whip in order to learn why the people were shouting against him that way.

²⁵But when they had stretched him out with the leather straps [in preparation for the whip], Paul said to the centurion who was standing by, “Is it legal for you to whip a man who is a Roman citizen and uncondemned [without a trial]?”

²⁶When the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and said to him, “What are you about to do? This man is a Roman!”

²⁷So the commander came and asked Paul, “Tell me, are you a Roman?” And he said, “Yes.”

²⁸The commander replied, “I purchased this citizenship [of mine] for a large sum of money [so how did you acquire yours?].” Paul said, “But I was actually born a citizen.”

²⁹So those who were about to interrogate him by torture immediately let him go; and the commander was also afraid when he realized that Paul was a Roman and he had put him in chains.

³⁰But on the next day, wanting to know the real reason why Paul was being accused by the Jews, he released him and ordered the chief priests and the whole Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) to assemble; and brought Paul down and presented him before them.

23 THEN PAUL, looking intently at the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), said, “Kinsmen, I have lived my life before God with a perfectly good conscience until this very day.”

²[At this] the high priest Ananias ordered those who stood beside him to strike Paul on the mouth.

³Then Paul said to him, “God is going to strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you actually sit to judge me according to the Law, and yet in violation of the Law order me to be struck?”

⁴But those who stood near Paul said, “Are you insulting the high priest of God?”

⁵Paul said, “I was not aware, brothers, that he was high priest; for it is written, ‘YOU SHALL NOT SPEAK EVIL OF A RULER OF YOUR PEOPLE.’” [Ex 22:28]

⁶But recognizing that one group were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, Paul began affirming loudly in the Council chamber; “Kinsmen, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees; I am on trial for the hope and resurrection of the dead!”

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I pray, Lord, that like Paul, I may live my life with a perfectly good conscience.

• adapted from Acts 23:1

⁷When he said this, an angry dispute erupted between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the [whole crowded] assembly was divided [into two factions].

⁸For the Sadducees say that there is no [such thing as a] resurrection, nor an angel, nor a spirit, but the Pharisees [speak out freely and] acknowledge [their belief in] them all.

⁹Then a great uproar occurred, and some of the scribes of the Pharisees' party stood up and began to argue heatedly [in Paul's favor], saying, “We find nothing wrong with this man; suppose a spirit or an angel has [really] spoken to him?”

¹⁰And as the dissension became even greater, the commander, fearing that Paul would be torn to pieces by them, ordered the troops to go down and forcibly take him from them, and bring him to the barracks.

¹¹On the following night the Lord stood near Paul and said, “Be brave; for as you have solemnly and faithfully witnessed about Me at Jerusalem, so you must also testify at Rome.”

¹²Now when day came, the Jews formed a conspiracy and bound themselves under an oath (curse), saying that they would not eat or drink until they had killed Paul.

¹³There were more than forty [men] who formed this plot [and swore this oath].

¹⁴They went to the chief priests and elders and said, “We have bound ourselves under a solemn oath not to taste anything [neither food nor drink] until we have killed Paul.

¹⁵“So now you, along with the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), notify the commander to bring Paul down to you, as if you were going to investigate his case more thoroughly. But we are ready to kill him before he comes near [the place].”

¹⁶But the son of Paul’s sister heard of their [planned] ambush, and he went to the barracks and told Paul.

¹⁷Then Paul, calling in one of the centurions, said, “Take this young man to the commander, for he has something to tell him.”

¹⁸So he took him and led him to the commander and said, “Paul the prisoner called for me and asked me to bring this young man to you, because he has something to tell you.”

¹⁹The commander took him by the hand and stepping aside, began to ask him privately, “What is it that you have to tell me?”

²⁰And he said, “The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) tomorrow, as if they were going to interrogate him more thoroughly.

²¹“But do not listen to them, for more than forty of them are lying in wait for him, and they have bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink until they have killed him. Even now they are ready, just waiting for your promise.”

²²So the commander let the young man leave, instructing him, “Do not tell anyone that you have given me this information.”

²³Then summoning two of the centurions, he said, “Have two hundred soldiers ready by the third hour of the night (9:00 p.m.) to go as far as Caesarea, with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen; ²⁴also provide mounts for Paul to ride, and bring him safely to Felix the governor.”

²⁵And [after instructing the centurions] he wrote a letter to this effect:

²⁶“Claudius Lysias, to the most excellent governor Felix, greetings.

²⁷“This man was seized [as a prisoner] by the Jews and was about to be killed by them, when I came upon him with the troops and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman citizen.

²⁸“And wanting to know the exact charge which they were making against him, I brought him down to their Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court); ²⁹and I discovered that he was accused in regard to questions and issues in their Law, but [he was] under no accusation that would call for the penalty of death or [even] for imprisonment.

³⁰“When I was told that there would be a plot against the man, I sent him to you immediately, also directing his accusers to bring their charges against him before you.”

³¹So the soldiers, in compliance with their orders, took Paul and brought him to Antipatris during the night.

³²And the next day, leaving the horsemen to go on with him, they returned to the barracks.

³³When these [horsemen] reached Caesarea, they delivered the letter to the governor, and also presented Paul to him.

³⁴After reading the letter, he asked which province Paul was from, and when he learned that he was from Cilicia [an imperial province], ³⁵he said, “I will hear your case when your accusers have arrived,” giving orders that Paul be kept under guard in Herod’s Praetorium (the governor’s official residence).

24 FIVE DAYS later, the high priest Ananias came down [from Jerusalem to Caesarea] with some elders and an attorney named Tertullus [acting as spokesman and counsel]. They presented to the governor their [formal] charges against Paul.

²After Paul had been summoned, Tertullus began the complaint [against him], saying to the governor:

“Since through you we have attained great peace, and since by your foresight reforms are being carried out for this nation, ³in every way and in every place, most excellent Felix, we acknowledge this with all gratitude.

⁴“But so that I do not weary you further, I beg you to grant us, by your kindness, a brief hearing.

⁵“For we have found this man to be a public menace and one who instigates dissension among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the [heretical] sect of the Nazarenes.

⁶“He even tried to desecrate the temple, but we took him into custody [and we intended to judge him by our Law,

⁷but Lysias the commander came, and with great force took him out of our hands,

⁸and ordered his accusers to come before you.] By interrogating him yourself concerning all these matters you will be able to determine [the truth about] these things with which we charge him.”

⁹The Jews also joined in the attack, declaring and insisting that these things were so.

¹⁰When the governor nodded for him to speak, Paul answered, “Knowing that for many years you have been a judge over this nation, I make my defense cheerfully and with good courage.

¹¹As you can easily verify, it has been no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship.

¹²“Neither in the temple, nor in the synagogues, nor elsewhere in the city did they find me carrying on a discussion or disputing with anybody or causing a crowd to gather.

¹³“Nor can they present evidence to you to prove what they now bring against me.

¹⁴“But I confess this to you, that according to the Way, which they call a [divisive and heretical] sect, I do worship and serve the God of our fathers, [confidently] believing everything that is in accordance with the Law [of Moses] and that is written in the Prophets; ¹⁵having [the same] hope in God which these men cherish themselves, that there shall certainly be a resurrection of [the dead], both of the righteous and of the wicked.

¹⁶“In view of this, I also do my best and strive always to have a clear conscience before God and before men.

¹⁷“Now after several years I came [to Jerusalem] to bring to my people charitable contributions and offerings.

¹⁸“They found me in the temple presenting these offerings, after I had undergone [the rites of] purification, without any crowd or uproar. But there were some Jews from [the west coast province of] Asia [Minor], ¹⁹who ought to have been here before you to present their charges, if they have anything against me.

²⁰“Or else let these men tell what crime they found [me guilty of] when I stood before the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), ²¹other than for this one statement which I had shouted out as I stood among them, ‘For the resurrection of the dead I am on trial before you today.’”

²²But Felix, having a rather accurate understanding about the Way, put them off, saying, “When Lysias the commander comes down, I will decide your case.”

²³Then he ordered the centurion to keep Paul in custody, but to let him have some freedom, and [he told the centurion] not to stop any of his friends from providing for his needs.

24 Several days later Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess. He sent for Paul and listened to him talk about faith in Christ Jesus.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Believe You Are Disciplined

The Roman poet Horace said that we should rule our minds or our minds will rule us. The enemy wants your mind; he wants to control or influence as much of your thinking as possible, but you do not have to let him. The key to overcoming him is learning to discipline your thinking, and that may mean disciplining yourself to believe you are a disciplined person. Thousands upon thousands of people say daily, "I'm just not a disciplined person. I wish I were, but I'm just not!" However, if the person saying that is a Christian, his or her confession is incorrect, because God's Word says that God has given us the spirit of a sound, calm, and disciplined mind (see 2 Tim. 1:7).

The apostle Paul wrote: "Herein I also exercise (or discipline) myself to have a conscience void of offence toward God and men always" (Acts 24:16, AMPC). Most people don't get excited when the subject of discipline comes up. However, if you learn to understand the power, the liberty, the joy, and the victory discipline brings to your life, you will embrace it eagerly.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

No Excuses

Moses made excuses when God called him to service. He said he was “not a man of words (eloquent, fluent) ... slow of speech and tongue” (Ex. 4:10). Felix made excuses when Paul was speaking to him about righteousness and self-control. He essentially said, “Right now is an inconvenient time. Can you come back later?” (see Acts 24:25).

When God invites people into a relationship with Him, many people come up with excuses when the truth is they simply don't want to make the sacrifices required to follow Him. Even among those who are believers in Jesus, we still hear ample excuses for not serving Him fully. It is time to deal with excuses and start speaking truth. There is one truth none of us will be able to avoid: The day will come when every person will stand before God and give an account of his or her life (see Rom. 14:12). On that day, there will be no excuses!

²⁵But as he was discussing righteousness, self-control [honorable behavior, personal integrity], and the judgment to come, Felix became frightened and said, “Go away for now, and when I find [a convenient] time I will send for you.”

²⁶At the same time he was also hoping to get money from Paul [as a bribe]; so he continued to send for him quite often and talked with him.

²⁷But after two years had passed, Felix was succeeded [in office] by Porcius Festus; and wishing to do the Jews a favor, Felix left Paul imprisoned.

25 NOW FESTUS arrived in the province, and three days later he went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea [Maritima].

²And [there in Jerusalem] the chief priests and the leading men of the Jews brought charges against Paul [before Festus], and they repeatedly pleaded with him, ³asking as a concession against Paul, that he would have him brought to Jerusalem; (meanwhile planning an ambush to kill him on the way).

⁴Festus answered that Paul was being held in custody in Caesarea [Maritima] and that he himself was about to leave shortly.

⁵“So,” he said, “let those who are in a position of authority among you go there with me, and if there is anything criminal about the man, let them bring charges against him.”

⁶Now after Festus had spent no more than eight or ten days among them, he went down to Caesarea, and on the next day he took his seat on the tribunal (the judicial bench), and ordered Paul to be brought [before him].

⁷After Paul arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many serious charges against him which they were not able to prove, ⁸while Paul declared in his own defense, “I have done no wrong and committed no offense either against the Law of the Jews or against the temple or against Caesar.”

⁹But Festus, wishing to do the Jews a favor, answered Paul,

“Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and stand trial there in my presence [before the Jewish Sanhedrin] on these charges?”

¹⁰Paul said, “I am standing before Caesar’s tribunal, where I ought to be tried. I have done nothing wrong to the Jews, as you also very well know.

¹¹“Therefore, if I am guilty and have committed anything worthy of death, I do not try to escape death; but if there is nothing to the accusations which these men are bringing against me, no one can hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar (Emperor Nero).”

¹²Then Festus, after conferring with [the men who formed] his council, answered, “You have appealed to Caesar; to Caesar you shall go.”

¹³Now several days later, Agrippa [II] the king and Bernice [his sister] arrived at Caesarea and paid their respects to Festus [the new governor].

¹⁴While they were spending many days there, Festus laid Paul’s case before the king, saying, “There is a man here who was left as a prisoner by Felix.

¹⁵“When I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews [told me about him and] brought charges against him, petitioning for a sentence of condemnation against him.

¹⁶“I told them that it was not the custom of the Romans to hand over any man [for punishment] before the accused meets his accusers face to face and has the opportunity to defend himself against the charges.

¹⁷“So after they arrived together here, I did not delay, but on the next day took my place on the tribunal and ordered that the man be brought before me.

¹⁸“When his accusers stood up, they brought no charges against him of crimes that I was expecting [neither civil nor criminal actions], ¹⁹instead they had some points of disagreement with him about their own religion and about one Jesus, a man who had died, but whom Paul kept asserting and insisting [over and over] to be alive.

²⁰“And I, being at a loss as to how to investigate these things, asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and be tried there regarding these matters.

²¹“But when Paul appealed to be held in custody for a decision by the Emperor [Nero], I ordered him to be kept in custody until I could send him to Caesar.”

²²Then Agrippa said to Festus, “I would like to hear the man myself.” “Tomorrow,” Festus replied, “you will hear him.”

²³So the next day Agrippa and [his sister] Bernice came with great pageantry, and they went into the auditorium accompanied by the military commanders and the prominent men of the city. At the command of Festus, Paul was brought in.

²⁴Then Festus said, “King Agrippa and all you gentlemen present with us, you see this man [Paul] about whom all the Jewish people appealed to me, both at Jerusalem and here, loudly insisting that he ought not to live any longer.

²⁵“But I found that he had done nothing worthy of death; however, since he appealed to the Emperor [Nero], I decided to send him [to Rome].

²⁶“But I have nothing specific about him to write to my lord. So I have brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after the investigation has taken place, I will have something to put in writing.

²⁷“For it seems absurd and unreasonable to me to send a prisoner [to Rome] without indicating the charges against him.”

26 THEN AGRIPPA said to Paul, “You are [now] permitted to speak on your own behalf.” At that, Paul stretched out his hand [as an orator] and made his defense [as follows]: ²“I consider myself fortunate, King Agrippa, since it is before you that I am to make my defense today regarding all the charges brought against me by the Jews, ³especially because you are an expert [fully knowledgeable, experienced and unusually conversant] in all the Jewish customs and controversial issues; therefore, I beg you to listen to me patiently.

⁴“So then, all the Jews know my manner of life from my youth up, which from the beginning was spent among my own nation [the Jewish people], and in Jerusalem.

⁵“They have known me for a long time, if they are willing to testify to it, that according to the strictest sect of our religion, I have lived as a Pharisee.

⁶“And now I am standing trial for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers. [Acts 13:32, 33]

⁷“Which hope [of the Messiah and the resurrection] our twelve tribes [confidently] expect to realize as they serve and worship God in earnest night and day. And for this hope, O King, I am being accused by Jews!

⁸“Why is it thought incredible by [any of] you that God

⁹“So then, I [once] thought to myself that it was my duty to do many things in opposition to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

¹⁰“And this is just what I did in Jerusalem; I not only locked up many of the saints (God’s people) in prison after receiving authority from the chief priests, but also when they were being condemned to death, I cast my vote against them.

¹¹“And I often punished them [making them suffer] in all the synagogues and tried to force them to blaspheme; and in my extreme rage at them, I kept hunting them even to foreign cities [harassing and persecuting them].

¹²“While so engaged, as I was traveling to Damascus with the authority and commission and full power of the chief priests, ¹³at midday, O King, I saw on the way a light from heaven surpassing the brightness of the sun, shining all around me and those who were traveling with me.

¹⁴“And when we all had fallen to the ground, I heard a voice in the Hebrew dialect (Jewish Aramaic) saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick [repeatedly] against the goads [offering pointless resistance].’

¹⁵“And I said, ‘Who are You, Lord?’ And the Lord said, ‘I am Jesus whom you are persecuting.

¹⁶“Get up and stand on your feet. I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you [to serve] as a minister and as a witness [to testify, with authority,] not only to the things which you have seen, but also to the things in which I will appear to you, ¹⁷[choosing you for Myself and] rescuing you from the Jewish people and from the Gentiles, to whom I am sending you, [Ezek 2:1, 3]

¹⁸to open their [spiritual] eyes so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness and release from their sins and an inheritance among those who have been sanctified (set apart, made holy) by faith in Me.' [Is 42:7, 16]

¹⁹“So, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, ²⁰but I openly proclaimed first to those at Damascus, then at Jerusalem and throughout the region of Judea, and even to the Gentiles, that they should repent [change their inner self—their old way of thinking] and turn to God, doing deeds and living lives which are consistent with repentance.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I am so grateful, Lord, that You have opened my spiritual eyes so that I could turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to You, that I could receive forgiveness and release from my sins, and an inheritance among those who have been sanctified by faith in You.

• adapted from Acts 26:18

²¹“Because of this some Jews seized me in the temple and tried to kill me.

²²“But I have had help from God to this day, and I stand [before people] testifying to small and great alike, stating nothing except what the Prophets and Moses said would come to pass—²³that the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) was to suffer, and that He by being the first to rise from the dead [with an incorruptible body] would proclaim light (salvation) both to the Jewish people and to the Gentiles.”

²⁴While Paul was making this defense, Festus said loudly, “Paul, you are out of your mind! Your great education is turning you toward madness.”

²⁵But Paul replied, “I am not out of my mind, most excellent and noble Festus, but [with a sound mind] I am uttering rational words of truth and reason.

²⁶“For [your majesty] the king understands these things, and [therefore] I am also speaking to him with confidence and boldness, since I am convinced that none of these things escape his notice; for this has not been done in a corner [hidden from view, in secret].

²⁷“King Agrippa, do you believe the [writings of the] Prophets [their messages and words]? I know that you do.”

²⁸Then Agrippa said to Paul, “In a short time [and with so little effort] you [almost] persuade me to become a Christian.”

²⁹And Paul replied, “Whether in a short time or long, I wish to God that not only you, but also all who hear me today, might become such as I am, except for these chains.”

³⁰Then the king stood up, and [with him] the governor and Bernice, and those who were sitting with them;

³¹and after they had gone out, they began saying to one another, “This man is not doing anything worthy of death or [even] of imprisonment.”

³²And Agrippa said to Festus, “This man could have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar (Emperor Nero).”

27 NOW WHEN it was determined that we (including Luke) would sail for Italy, they turned Paul and some other prisoners over to a centurion of the Augustan Regiment named Julius.

²And going aboard a ship from Adramyttian which was about to sail for the ports along the [west] coast [province] of Asia [Minor], we put out to sea; and Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, accompanied us.

³The next day we landed at Sidon; and Julius, treating Paul with [thoughtful] consideration, allowed him to go to his friends there and be cared for and refreshed.

⁴From there we put out to sea and sailed to the leeward (sheltered) side of Cyprus [for protection from weather] because the winds were against us.

⁵When we had sailed across the sea along the coasts of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we landed at Myra in Lycia [on the south coast of Asia Minor].

⁶There the centurion [Julius] found an Alexandrian ship [a grain ship of the Roman fleet] sailing for Italy, and he put us aboard it.

⁷For a number of days we sailed slowly and arrived with difficulty off Cnidus; then, because the wind did not allow us to go farther, we sailed under the leeward (sheltered) side of Crete, off Salmone; ⁸and hugging the shore with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea [on the south side of Crete].

⁹Now much time had been lost, and navigation was dangerous, because even [the time for] the fast (Day of Atonement) was already over, so Paul began to strongly warn them, ¹⁰saying, “Men, I sense [after careful thought and observation] that this voyage will certainly be a disaster and with great loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives.”

¹¹However, the centurion [Julius, ranking officer on board] was persuaded by the pilot and the owner of the ship rather than by what Paul said.

¹²Because the harbor was not well situated for wintering, the majority [of the sailors] decided to put to sea from there, hoping somehow to reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete facing southwest and northwest, and spend the winter there.

¹³So when the south wind blew softly, thinking that they had obtained their goal, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, hugging the coast.

¹⁴But soon afterward a violent wind, called Euraquilo [a northeaster, a tempestuous windstorm like a typhoon], came rushing down from the island;

¹⁵and when the ship was caught in it and could not head against the wind [to gain stability], we gave up and [letting her drift] were driven along.

¹⁶We ran under the shelter of a small island [twenty-five miles south of Crete] called Clauda, and with great difficulty we were able to get the ship's skiff on the deck and secure it.

¹⁷After hoisting the skiff [on board], they used support lines [for frapping] to undergird and brace the ship's hull; and fearing that they might run aground on the shallows of Syrtis [off the north coast of Africa], they let down the sea anchor and lowered the sails and were driven along [backwards with the bow into the wind].

¹⁸On the next day, as we were being violently tossed about by the storm [and taking on water], they began to jettison the cargo;

¹⁹and on the third day they threw the ship's tackle (spare lines, blocks, miscellaneous equipment) overboard with their own hands [to further reduce the weight].

²⁰Since neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small storm kept raging about us, from then on all hope of our being saved was [growing worse and worse and] gradually abandoned.

²¹After they had gone a long time without food [because of seasickness and stress], Paul stood up before them and said, "Men, you should have followed my advice and should not have set sail from Crete, and brought on this damage and loss.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Trust God To Work Things Out for Good

Romans 8:28 tells us “that God [who is deeply concerned about us] causes all things to work together [as a plan] for good for those who love God, to those who are called according to His plan and purpose.” It doesn’t say all things are good; it does say that all things work together for good.

You can be the kind of person who plans things, but who also remains calm if that plan doesn’t work out because something unexpected or upsetting happens. Take a look at the apostle Paul when all hope was gone that their ship would be saved—a scenario he had warned them would happen (see Acts 27:21–26). Even people who are really positive don’t have everything work out the way they want all the time. But positive people decide to enjoy themselves no matter what happens, and they trust that God will work all things for good.

²²“But even now I urge you to keep up your courage and be in good spirits, because there will be no loss of life among you, but only loss of the ship.

²³“For this very night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve stood before me, ²⁴and said, ‘Stop being afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar; and behold, God has given you [the lives of] all those who are sailing with you.’

²⁵“So keep up your courage, men, for I believe God and have complete confidence in Him that it will turn out exactly as I have been told;

²⁶but we must run [the ship] aground on some island.”

²⁷The fourteenth night had come and we were drifting and being driven about in the Adriatic Sea, when about midnight the sailors began to suspect that they were approaching some land.

²⁸So they took soundings [using a weighted line] and found [the depth to be] twenty fathoms (120 feet); and a little farther on they sounded again and found [the depth to be] fifteen fathoms (90 feet).

²⁹Then fearing that we might run aground somewhere on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern [to slow the ship] and kept wishing for daybreak to come.

³⁰But as the sailors were trying to escape [secretly] from the ship and had let down the skiff into the sea, pretending that they were going to lay out anchors from the bow, ³¹Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, “Unless these men remain on the ship, you cannot be saved.”

³²Then the soldiers cut away the ropes that held the skiff and let it fall and drift away.

³³While they waited for the day to dawn, Paul encouraged them all [and told them] to have some food, saying, “This is the fourteenth day that you have been constantly on watch and going without food, having eaten nothing.

³⁴“So I urge you to eat some food, for this is for your survival; for not a hair from the head of any of you will perish.”

³⁵ Having said this, he took bread and gave thanks to God in front of them all, and he broke it and began to eat.

³⁶ Then all of them were encouraged and their spirits improved, and they also ate some food.

³⁷ All told there were two hundred and seventy-six of us aboard the ship.

³⁸ After they had eaten enough, they began to lighten the ship by throwing the wheat [from Egypt] overboard into the sea.

³⁹ When day came, they did not recognize the land, but they noticed a bay with a beach, and they decided to run the ship ashore there if they could.

⁴⁰ So they cut the cables and severed the anchors and left them in the sea while at the same time unlash the ropes of the rudders; and after hoisting the foresail to the wind, they headed steadily for the beach.

⁴² The soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would dive overboard and swim [to land] and escape;

⁴³ but the centurion, wanting to save Paul, kept them from [carrying out] their plan. He commanded those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to the shore; ⁴⁴ and [he commanded] the rest to follow, some on [floating] planks, and others on various things from the ship. And so it was that all of them were brought safely to land.

28 AFTER WE were safe [on land], we found out that the island was called Malta.

²And the natives showed us extraordinary kindness and hospitality; for they kindled a fire and welcomed us all, since it had begun to rain and was cold.

³But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper crawled out because of the heat and fastened itself on his hand.

⁴When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they began saying to one another, “Undoubtedly this man is a murderer, and though he has been saved from the sea, Justice [the avenging goddess] has not permitted him to live.”

⁵Then Paul [simply] shook the creature off into the fire and suffered no ill effects.

⁶But they stood watching and expecting him to swell up or suddenly drop dead. But after they had waited a long time and had seen nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and began saying that he was a god.

POWERPOINT

When Paul arrived at Malta and was warming himself by the fire, a viper bit and attached itself to his hand. According to Acts 28:5, he simply shook it off! I love that statement and have learned a lot from it.

When Satan (the serpent) bites us with offense, anger, negative thinking, or temptation of any kind, we can simply shake it off.

This is a way of saying, “No, devil, I am not going to let you poison me with any of your lies and ungodly ways.” Don’t accept the poisonous bite and spend a long time being miserable because of it.

Immediately shake it off and continue on with God’s plan for your life.

⁷In the vicinity of that place there were estates belonging to the leading man of the island, named Publius, who welcomed and entertained us hospitably for three days.

⁸And it happened that the father of Publius was sick [in bed] with recurring attacks of fever and dysentery; and Paul went to him, and after he had prayed, he laid his hands on him and healed him.

⁹After this occurred, the rest of the people on the island who had diseases were coming to him and being healed.

¹⁰They also gave us many honors [gifts and courtesies expressing respect]; and when we were setting sail, they supplied us with all the things we needed.

¹¹At the end of three months we set sail on a ship which had wintered at the island, an Alexandrian ship with the Twin Brothers [Castor and Pollux] as its figurehead.

¹²We landed at Syracuse [on Sicily] and stayed there three days.

¹³From there we sailed around and arrived at Rhegium [on Italy's southern tip]; and a day later a south wind came up, and on the second day we arrived at Puteoli.

¹⁴There we found some believers and were invited to stay with them for seven days. And so we came to Rome.

¹⁵And the brothers and sisters, having heard news about us, came from as far away as the Forum of Appius and Three Inns to meet us. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and was encouraged.

¹⁶When we entered Rome, Paul was allowed to stay by himself [in rented quarters] with the soldier who was guarding him.

¹⁷Three days later he called together the leaders of the Jews; and when they had gathered, he said to them, “Kinsmen, though I have done nothing against our people or against the customs of our fathers, yet I was turned over as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

¹⁸“After they had interrogated me, they were ready to release me because I was not guilty of any offense deserving death.

¹⁹“But when the Jews objected [to my release], I was forced to appeal to Caesar (Emperor Nero), not because I had any charge to make against my nation.

²⁰“For this reason I have asked to see you and talk with you, since it is for the sake of the hope of Israel (the Messiah, the resurrection) that I am bound with this chain.”

²¹They said to him, “We have not received [any] letters about you from Judea, nor have any of the [Jewish] brothers come here and reported or said anything bad about you.

²²“But we would like to hear from you what your views are [that is, exactly what you believe]; for in regard to this sect (Christianity), we are fully aware that it is denounced everywhere.”

²³When they had set a day for Paul, they came to his lodging in large numbers. And he carefully explained [Christianity] to them from morning until evening, solemnly testifying about the kingdom of God and trying to persuade them concerning Jesus, both from the Law of Moses and from the [writings of the] Prophets.

²⁴Some were persuaded by what he said, but others would not believe.

²⁵They disagreed among themselves and they began to leave after Paul had made one last statement: “The Holy Spirit rightly spoke through Isaiah the prophet to your fathers, saying, ²⁶‘GO TO THIS PEOPLE AND SAY,

“YOU WILL KEEP ON HEARING, BUT WILL NOT UNDERSTAND, YOU WILL KEEP ON SEEING, BUT WILL NOT PERCEIVE;

²⁷“FOR THE HEART (the understanding, the soul) OF THIS PEOPLE HAS BECOME DULL (calloused), AND WITH THEIR EARS THEY SCARCELY HEAR,
AND THEY HAVE SHUT THEIR EYES [to the truth]; OTHERWISE THEY MIGHT SEE WITH THEIR EYES,
AND HEAR WITH THEIR EARS,
AND UNDERSTAND WITH THEIR HEART AND RETURN [to Me],
AND I WOULD HEAL THEM.” ’ [Is 6:9, 10]

²⁸“Therefore let it be known to you that [this message of] the salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles; they indeed will listen!” [Ps 67:2]

²⁹[And when he had said these things, the Jews left, arguing among themselves.]

³⁰And Paul lived there for two full years [at his own expense] in his own rented lodging and welcomed all who came to him, ³¹preaching and proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all openness and boldness, unhindered and unrestrained.

I believe that understanding Paul's teachings in the book of Romans is necessary for anyone who wants to live in the fullness of what Jesus has provided for us. This book helps us understand many issues that are vital to our lives as believers, such as: faith, righteousness, the power of God's love, the unconditional love of God, and the renewing and transformation of the mind. It also helps us develop a proper perspective on sin and forgiveness.

If we read Romans properly, it will fill our minds with biblical truth concerning various areas of our lives—truth we can apply in practical ways every day. I encourage you to spend time studying this book, asking the Holy Spirit to give you revelation of all the powerful principles and insights it contains.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM ROMANS:

Choose to be alive in God and do not let negative thought patterns or sinful habits have power over you (see Romans 6:10–12).

Set your mind on the things of the Spirit and you will experience life and peace (see Romans 8:5–6).

God's love for you is unlimited and nothing can separate you from it (see Romans 8:38–39).

Allow your mind to be renewed to God's way of thinking; you will be transformed through this process and experience God's good and perfect will (see Romans 12:2).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM ROMANS:

There is now no condemnation [no guilty verdict, no punishment] for those who are in Christ Jesus [who believe in Him as personal Lord and Savior]. | Romans 8:1

The Spirit [comes to us and] helps us in our weakness. | Romans 8:26

In all these things we are more than conquerors and gain an overwhelming victory through Him who loved us [so much that He died for us]. | Romans 8:37

THE LETTER OF PAUL TO THE ROMANS

1 PAUL, A bond-servant of Christ Jesus, called as an apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative), set apart for [preaching] the gospel of God [the good news of salvation],

²which He promised beforehand through His prophets in the sacred Scriptures—

³[the good news] regarding His Son, who, as to the flesh [His human nature], was born a descendant of David [to fulfill the covenant promises], ⁴and [as to His divine nature] according to the Spirit of holiness was openly designated to be the Son of God with power [in a triumphant and miraculous way] by His resurrection from the dead: Jesus Christ our Lord.

⁵It is through Him that we have received grace and [our] apostleship to promote obedience to the faith and make disciples for His name's sake among all the Gentiles, ⁶and you also are among those who are called of Jesus Christ to belong to Him;

⁷[I am writing] to all who are beloved of God in Rome, called to be saints (God's people) and set apart for a sanctified life,

[that is, set apart for God and His purpose]: Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁸First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith [your trust and confidence in His power, wisdom, and goodness] is being proclaimed in all the world.

⁹For God, whom I serve with my spirit by preaching the gospel of His Son, is my witness as to how continuously I mention you ¹⁰in my prayers; always pleading that somehow, by God's will, I may now at last come to you.

¹¹For I long to see you so that I may share with you some spiritual gift, to strengthen and establish you;

¹²that is, that we may be mutually encouraged and comforted by each other's faith, both yours and mine.

¹³I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that many times I have planned to come to you, (and have been prevented so far) so that I may have some fruit [of my labors] among you, even as I have among the rest of the Gentiles.

¹⁴I have a duty to perform and a debt to pay both to Greeks and to barbarians [the cultured and the uncultured], both to the wise and to the foolish.

¹⁵So, for my part, I am ready and eager to preach the gospel also to you who are in Rome.

¹⁶I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation [from His wrath and punishment] to everyone who believes [in Christ as Savior], to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

¹⁷For in the gospel the righteousness of God is revealed, both springing from faith and leading to faith [disclosed in a way that awakens more faith]. As it is written and forever remains written, “THE JUST and UPRIGHT SHALL LIVE BY FAITH.” [Hab 2:4]

¹⁸For [God does not overlook sin and] the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who in their wickedness suppress and stifle the truth,

POWERPOINT

Romans 1:17 reminds us that we need to learn how to live from faith to faith. It means that we should be in faith at all times and approach everything we face, every challenge we meet, every decision we make, and everything we do with faith. Faith should be the posture of our hearts and the attitude of our minds toward every situation. Faith is not a feeling we have; it is a conscious decision that we make to trust God in all things.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

We Live by Faith

In Romans 1:17, Paul quoted from Habakkuk 2:4, saying, “THE JUST and UPRIGHT SHALL LIVE BY FAITH.” While the word faith means belief or absolute trust that something is true, it also implies loyalty and commitment. Faith begins when we agree that the message of Jesus’ death and resurrection is true (see 1 Cor. 15:20), and true faith happens when we say, “Not only do I agree that it is true, but I’m willing to stake my life on it.”

The “just” are those who were “justified,” or made right with God, by Jesus’ death on the cross. To be justified means that God treats us as though we are not and never have been sinners. He treats us as His beloved children. We enter into a relationship of love, confidence, and friendship. We need not fear or worry, because there is no punishment for us. We live by our faith that Jesus took our punishment and we enjoy the victory He won for us.

In this context, many people fail to fight the wiles of Satan. Instead of focusing on all that God has done for them, they listen to the devil’s whisperings about their past failures. “Do you remember when you...? How could you have...?”

I once went through an especially difficult time when there was absolutely no joy or peace in my life. Then I read Romans 15:13: “May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing [through the experience of your faith] that by the power of the Holy Spirit you will abound in hope and overflow with confidence in His promises.” That was it!

I had plunged into doubt and unbelief, allowing the enemy to torment me with his lies. This verse changed that thinking! Jesus loved me so much that He not only forgave my past sins; He also looked ahead and forgave me for those moments of weakness when I’d fail in the future, those times when I would not live up to all the truth I knew.

Then I pondered Paul’s words in Romans 1:17: “For in the gospel the righteousness of God is revealed, both springing from faith and leading to faith.” I learned that I don’t have to allow Satan to sneak in with questions or unbelief. I can live every moment moving from faith to more faith to more faith, and so can you.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord Jesus Christ, I am in awe of Your love for me—love so great and so powerful that You not only died for all my sins before I was born, but You’ve provided for all my weak moments in the future. I am so thankful for Your love. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Weight of Negative Words

Negative talk is very unattractive to God, and it is not His will. Thankfully, He loves us unconditionally, but it really saddens Him when we use the power of words in negative, destructive, or hurtful ways. He understands how much damage negative words can do, and He wants us to understand this too.

Describing unbelievers, the apostle Paul said, “They were filled (permeated, saturated) with every kind of unrighteousness, wickedness, greed, evil; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malice and mean-spiritedness. They are gossips [spreading rumors], slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors [of new forms] of evil, disobedient and disrespectful to parents, without understanding, untrustworthy, unloving, unmerciful [without pity]” (Rom. 1:29–31). If these are traits of unbelievers, those of us who consider ourselves believers in God should certainly avoid these behaviors completely.

If we look carefully at Paul’s description of those who do not know God, we will see that he speaks of gossip and boasting in the same sentence where he also speaks of murder. This should help us realize how powerful words are and how careful we should be when we speak.

¹⁹because that which is known about God is evident within them [in their inner consciousness], for God made it evident to them.

²⁰For ever since the creation of the world His invisible attributes, His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood through His workmanship [all His creation, the wonderful things that He has made], so that they [who fail to believe and trust in Him] are without excuse and without defense. [Ps 19:1–4; Eph 2:10]

²¹For even though they knew God [as the Creator], they did not ^{*}honor Him as God or give thanks [for His wondrous creation]. On the contrary, they became worthless in their thinking [godless, with pointless reasonings, and silly speculations], and their foolish heart was darkened.

²²Claiming to be wise, they became fools,

²³and exchanged the glory and majesty and excellence of the immortal God for an image [worthless idols] in the shape of mortal man and birds and four-footed animals and reptiles.

²⁴Therefore God gave them over in the lusts of their own hearts to [sexual] impurity, so that their bodies would be dishonored among them [abandoning them to the degrading power of sin],

²⁵because [by choice] they exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen. [Jer 2:11]

²⁶For this reason God gave them over to degrading and vile passions; for their women exchanged the natural function for that which is unnatural [a function contrary to nature],

²⁷and in the same way also the men turned away from the natural function of the woman and were consumed with their desire toward one another, men with men committing shameful acts and in return receiving in their own bodies the inevitable and appropriate penalty for their wrongdoing.

²⁸And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God or consider Him worth knowing [as their Creator], God gave them over to a depraved mind, to do things which are improper and repulsive, ²⁹until they were filled (permeated, saturated) with every kind of unrighteousness, wickedness, greed, evil; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malice and mean-spiritedness. They are gossips [spreading rumors], ³⁰slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors [of new forms] of evil, disobedient and disrespectful to parents, ³¹without understanding, untrustworthy, unloving, unmerciful [without pity].

³²Although they know God's righteous decree and His judgment, that those who do such things deserve death, yet they not only do them, but they even [enthusiastically] approve and tolerate others who practice them.

2 THEREFORE YOU have no excuse or justification, everyone of you who [hypocritically] judges and condemns others; for in passing judgment on another person, you condemn yourself, because you who judge [from a position of arrogance or self-righteousness] are habitually practicing the very same things [which you denounce].

²And we know that the judgment of God falls justly and in accordance with truth on those who practice such things.

³But do you think this, O man, when you judge and condemn those who practice such things, and yet do the same yourself, that you will escape God's judgment and elude His verdict?

⁴Or do you have no regard for the wealth of His kindness and tolerance and patience [in withholding His wrath]? Are you [actually] unaware or ignorant [of the fact] that God's kindness leads you to repentance [that is, to change your inner self, your old way of thinking—seek His purpose for your life]?

Speak God's Word

God's kindness leads me to repentance—to change my inner self and my old way of thinking, and to seek His purpose for my life.

POWERPOINT

When we try to “earn” or “buy” from God with our good works what He wants to give us freely, He sometimes withholds these things until we learn to receive them by faith.

We have to learn how to receive, and receive freely, from God and to understand that we cannot deserve what He wants to give us. Romans 2:4 says that God’s kindness is what leads us into a relationship with Him. He does not have to have any other reason to bless us. From His perspective, His love for us is reason enough.

⁵But because of your callous stubbornness and unrepentant heart you are [deliberately] storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God’s righteous judgment will be revealed.

⁶He WILL PAY BACK TO EACH PERSON ACCORDING TO HIS DEEDS [justly, as his deeds deserve]: [Ps 62:12; Prov 24:12]

⁷to those who by persistence in doing good seek [unseen but certain heavenly] glory, honor, and immortality, [He will give the gift of] eternal life.

⁸But for those who are selfishly ambitious and self-seeking and disobedient to the truth but responsive to wickedness, [there will be] wrath and indignation.

⁹*There will be* tribulation and anguish [torturing confinement] for every human soul who does [or permits] evil, to the Jew first and also to the Greek, ¹⁰but glory and honor and inner peace [will be given] to everyone who habitually does good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

¹¹For God shows no partiality [no arbitrary favoritism; with Him one person is not more important than another]. [Deut 10:17; 2 Chr 19:7]

¹²For all who have sinned without the Law will also perish without [regard to] the Law, and all who have sinned under the Law will be judged and condemned by the Law.

¹³For it is not those who merely hear the Law [as it is read aloud] who are just or righteous before God, but it is those who [actually] obey the Law who will be justified [pronounced free of the guilt of sin and declared acceptable to Him].

¹⁴When Gentiles, who do not have the Law [since it was given only to Jews], do instinctively the things the Law requires [guided only by their conscience], they are a law to themselves, though they do not have the Law.

¹⁵They show that the essential requirements of the Law are written in their hearts; and their conscience [their sense of right and wrong, their moral choices] bearing witness and their thoughts alternately accusing or perhaps defending them

¹⁶on that day when, as my gospel proclaims, God will judge the secrets [all the hidden thoughts and concealed sins] of men through Christ Jesus. [Eccl 12:14]

¹⁷But if you bear the name “Jew” and rely on the Law [for your salvation] and boast in [your special relationship to] God,

¹⁸and [if you claim to] know His will and approve the things that are essential or have a sense of what is excellent, based on your instruction from the Law,

¹⁹and [if you] are confident that you are a [qualified] guide to the blind [those untaught in theology], a light to those who are in darkness,

²⁰and [that you are] a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of the [spiritually] childish, having in the Law the embodiment of knowledge and of the truth—

²¹well then, you who teach others, do you not teach yourself? You who preach against stealing, do you steal [in ways that are discrete, but just as sinful]?

²²You who say that one must not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who detest idols, do you rob [pagan] temples [of valuable idols and offerings]? [Deut 7:25; Acts 19:37]

²³You who boast in the Law, do you [repeatedly] dishonor God by breaking the Law?

²⁴For, “THE NAME OF GOD IS BLASPHEMED AMONG THE GENTILES BECAUSE OF YOU,” just as it is written [in Scripture]. [Is 52:5; Ezek 36:20]

²⁵Circumcision [the sign of the covenant of Abraham] is indeed of value if you practice the Law; but if you habitually break the Law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision [it is meaningless in God's sight].

²⁶So if the uncircumcised man keeps the requirements of the Law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded [by God] as circumcision?

²⁷Then he who is physically uncircumcised but keeps [the spirit of] the Law will judge you who, even though you have the written code and circumcision, break the Law.

²⁸For he is not a [real] Jew who is only one outwardly, nor is [true] circumcision something external and physical.

²⁹But he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and [true] circumcision is circumcision of the heart, by the Spirit, not by [the fulfillment of] the letter [of the Law]. His praise is not from men, but from God.

3 THEN WHAT is the advantage of the Jew? Or what is the benefit of circumcision?

²Great in every respect. To begin with, the Jews were entrusted with the oracles of God [His very words]. [Ps 147:19]

³What then? If some did not believe or were unfaithful [to God], their lack of belief will not nullify and make invalid the faithfulness of God and His word, will it?

⁴Certainly not! Let God be found true [as He will be], though every person be found a liar, just as it is written [in Scripture],

“THAT YOU MAY BE JUSTIFIED IN YOUR WORDS,
AND PREVAIL WHEN YOU ARE JUDGED [by sinful men].” [Ps
51:4]

⁵But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? God is not wrong to inflict His wrath [on us], is He? (I am speaking in purely human terms.)

⁶Certainly not! For otherwise, how will God judge the world?

⁷But [as you might say] if through my lie God’s truth was magnified and abounded to His glory, why am I still being judged as a sinner?

⁸And why not say, (as some slanderously report and claim that we teach) “Let us do evil so that good may come of it”? Their condemnation [by God] is just.

⁹Well then, are we [Jews] better off than they? Not at all; for we have already charged that both Jews and Greeks (Gentiles) are under the control of sin and subject to its power.

¹⁰As it is written and forever remains written,

“THERE IS NONE RIGHTEOUS [none that meets God’s standard], NOT EVEN ONE. [Ps 14:3]

¹¹“THERE IS NONE WHO UNDERSTANDS,
THERE IS NONE WHO SEEKS FOR GOD. [Ps 14:2]

¹²“ALL HAVE TURNED ASIDE, TOGETHER THEY HAVE BECOME USELESS;

THERE IS NONE WHO DOES GOOD, NO, NOT ONE.” [Ps 53:1–3]

¹³“THEIR THROAT IS AN OPEN GRAVE;
THEY [habitually] DECEIVE WITH THEIR TONGUES.”

“THE VENOM OF ASPS IS BENEATH THEIR LIPS.” [Ps 5:9; 140:3]

¹⁴“THEIR MOUTH IS FULL OF CURSING AND BITTERNESS.” [Ps 10:7]

¹⁵“THEIR FEET ARE SWIFT TO SHED BLOOD,

¹⁶DESTRUCTION AND MISERY ARE IN THEIR PATHS,

POWERPOINT

We can see from Romans 3:23–24 and from Romans 6:23 that sin is a problem for everyone. The good news is that Jesus is the answer for everyone. No problem is really a problem as long as there is an answer for it. Not only have we fallen short of the glory of God, but we are currently falling short. This indicates that it is a continual problem, yet Jesus is continually at the right hand of the Father, making intercession for us. This ongoing problem of sin has an ongoing and uninterrupted answer!

Speak God's Word

I am being justified—declared free of the guilt of sin, made acceptable to God, and granted eternal life—as a gift by His undeserved grace and through the redemption provided in Christ Jesus.

| adapted from ROMANS 3:24 |

¹⁷AND THEY HAVE NOT KNOWN THE PATH OF PEACE.” [Is 59:7, 8]

¹⁸“THERE IS NO FEAR OF GOD [and His awesome power]
BEFORE THEIR EYES.” [Ps 36:1]

¹⁹Now we know that whatever the Law [of Moses] says, it speaks to those who are under the Law, so that [the excuses of] every mouth may be silenced [from protesting] and that all the world may be held accountable to God [and subject to His judgment].

²⁰For no person will be justified [freed of guilt and declared righteous] in His sight by [trying to do] the works of the Law. For through the Law we become conscious of sin [and the recognition of sin directs us toward repentance, but provides no remedy for sin].

²¹But now the righteousness of God has been clearly revealed [independently and completely] apart from the Law, though it is [actually] confirmed by the Law and the [words and writings of the] Prophets.

²²This righteousness of God comes through faith in Jesus Christ for all those [Jew or Gentile] who believe [and trust in Him and acknowledge Him as God's Son]. There is no distinction, [1 Cor 12:13; Gal 3:28]

²³since all have sinned and continually fall short of the glory of God,

²⁴and are being justified [declared free of the guilt of sin, made acceptable to God, and granted eternal life] as a gift by His [precious, undeserved] grace, through the redemption [the payment for our sin] which is [provided] in Christ Jesus, ²⁵whom God displayed publicly [before the eyes of the world] as a [life-giving] sacrifice of atonement and reconciliation (propitiation) by His blood [to be received] through faith. This was to demonstrate His righteousness [which demands punishment for sin], because in His forbearance [His deliberate restraint] He passed over the sins previously committed [before Jesus' crucifixion].

²⁶*It was* to demonstrate His righteousness at the present time, so that He would be just and the One who justifies those who have faith in Jesus [and rely confidently on Him as Savior].

²⁷Then what becomes of [our] boasting? It is excluded [entirely ruled out, banished]. On what principle? On [the principle of good] works? No, but on the principle of faith.

²⁸For we maintain that an individual is justified by faith distinctly apart from works of the Law [the observance of which has nothing to do with justification, that is, being declared free of the guilt of sin and made acceptable to God].

²⁹Or is God the God of Jews only? Is He not also the God of Gentiles [who were not given the Law]? Yes, of Gentiles also, ³⁰since indeed it is one [and the same] God who will justify the circumcised by faith [which began with Abraham] and the uncircumcised through [their newly acquired] faith.

³¹Do we then nullify the Law by this faith [making the Law of no effect, overthrowing it]? Certainly not! On the contrary, we confirm and establish and uphold the Law [since it convicts us all of sin, pointing to the need for salvation].

4 WHAT THEN shall we say that Abraham, our forefather humanly speaking, has found? [Has he obtained a favored standing?]

²For if Abraham was justified [that is, acquitted from the guilt of his sins] by works [those things he did that were good], he has something to boast about, but not before God.

³For what does the Scripture say? “ABRAHAM BELIEVED IN (trusted, relied on) GOD, AND IT WAS CREDITED TO HIS ACCOUNT AS RIGHTEOUSNESS (right living, right standing with God).” [Gen 15:6]

⁴Now to a laborer, his wages are not credited as a favor or a gift, but as an obligation [something owed to him].

⁵But to the one who does not work [that is, the one who does not try to earn his salvation by doing good], but believes and completely trusts in Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is credited to him as righteousness (right standing with God).

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Believe It and Speak It

Romans 4:17 speaks of one of the great privileges we have as believers, but one we often fail to take advantage of—speaking of things that have not yet manifested as though they already exist. We can reach with our faith into the spiritual realm, where God is, and speak of things that exist there as if they are current realities in our lives. For instance, Joel 3:10 encourages us to say we are strong even if we are weak. We believe God's strength is available to us, so why say we are weak? Let's begin to speak in faith as God does.

We need to say what God says and do what God does if we want to be what He wants us to be and to have what He wants us to have. We should be confessing God's promises as though they already exist in our lives. We are called to walk by faith and not by sight. In other words, we believe what God says in His Word even more than we believe what we can see with our natural eyes. What we can see are facts, but God's Word is truth. And truth is more powerful than facts.

Speak God's Word

I am blessed, happy, and favored because my lawless deeds are forgiven and my sins have been covered up and completely buried. The Lord will take no account nor charge my sin against me.

| adapted from ROMANS 4:7-8 |

⁶And in this same way David speaks of the blessing on the one to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

⁷“BLESSED and HAPPY and FAVORED ARE THOSE WHOSE LAWLESS ACTS HAVE BEEN FORGIVEN, AND WHOSE SINS HAVE BEEN COVERED UP and COMPLETELY BURIED.

⁸“BLESSED and HAPPY and FAVORED IS THE MAN WHOSE SIN THE LORD WILL NOT TAKE INTO ACCOUNT nor CHARGE AGAINST HIM.” [Ps 32:1, 2]

⁹Is this blessing only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? For we say, “FAITH WAS CREDITED TO ABRAHAM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS.”

¹⁰How then was it credited [to him]? Was it after he had been circumcised, or before? Not after, but while [he was] uncircumcised.

¹¹He received the sign of circumcision, a seal or confirmation of the righteousness which he had by faith while [he was still] uncircumcised—this was so that he would be the [spiritual] father of all who believe without being circumcised—so that righteousness would be credited to them, ¹²and [that he would be] the [spiritual] father of those circumcised who are not only circumcised, but who also walk in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham which he had before he was circumcised.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Reality of Righteousness

One of the first revelations that God gave to me out of His Word was on righteousness. By “revelation,” I mean that one day I suddenly understood something to the point that it became a part of me. The knowledge wasn’t only in my mind—it became part of my being. It was not something I merely thought; it became something I knew.

Righteousness is God’s gift to us. It is granted and credited to us by virtue of our believing in what God did for us through His Son, Jesus Christ (see Rom. 4:24). Jesus Christ who knew no sin became sin on our behalf, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God (see 2 Cor. 5:21).

Above all else, the devil does not want us to walk in the reality that we are in right standing with God. He wants us to feel insecure—always vaguely contemplating what we could have done wrong, where we might have slipped up, or if we are truly walking in the light of God’s Word.

Jesus wants us to know that we are right with God because of our faith in what He has done for us. He wants us to live in His Kingdom and have peace and joy in the midst of every situation, no matter how troublesome.

When we keep our eyes on the truth of the Kingdom of God—on Him, His righteousness, His peace, and His joy—the rest will be added to us in abundance.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Choose Faith and Trust

It is easy to say, “Don’t worry,” but to actually resist worrying requires experience with God. I don’t think there is any way a person can fully overcome the habit of worry, anxiety, or fear and develop the habit of peace, rest, and hope without practice and experience.

That’s why it is so important to continue to have faith and trust in God in the very midst of trials and tribulations. We can choose to steadfastly resist the temptation to give up when the going gets rough and keeps on getting rougher over a long period of time, because it is in those hard, trying times that the Lord is building in us the patience, endurance, and character that will eventually produce the habit of joyful “hope and the confident assurance” (Rom. 5:2).

When you and I are in the midst of battle against our spiritual enemy, every round we go through produces valuable experience and strength. We gain strength and become stronger each time we endure an attack. If we hang in there and refuse to give up, sooner or later we will be more than the devil can handle.

We serve a God so marvelous that He can work all things together for our good (see Rom. 8:28) even though Satan intends them for our harm.

¹³For the promise to Abraham or to his descendants that he would be heir of the world was not through [observing the requirements of] the Law, but through the righteousness of faith. [Gen 17:4–6; 22:16–18]

¹⁴If those who are [followers] of the Law are [the true] heirs [of Abraham], then faith [leading to salvation] is of no effect and void, and the promise [of God] is nullified.

¹⁵For the Law results in [God's] wrath [against sin], but where there is no law, there is no violation [of it either].

¹⁶Therefore, [inheriting] the promise depends entirely on faith [that is, confident trust in the unseen God], in order that it may be given as an act of grace [His unmerited favor and mercy], so that the promise will be [legally] guaranteed to all the descendants [of Abraham]—not only for those [Jewish believers] who keep the Law, but also for those [Gentile believers] who share the faith of Abraham, who is the [spiritual] father of us all—

¹⁷(as it is written [in Scripture], “I HAVE MADE YOU A FATHER OF MANY NATIONS”) in the sight of Him in whom he believed, that is, God who gives life to the dead and calls into being that which does not exist. [Gen 17:5]

¹⁸In hope against hope Abraham believed that he would become a father of many nations, as he had been promised [by God]: “SO [numberless] SHALL YOUR DESCENDANTS BE.” [Gen 15:5]

¹⁹Without becoming weak in faith he considered his own body, now as good as dead [for producing children] since he was about a hundred years old, and [he considered] the deadness of Sarah's womb. [Gen 17:17; 18:11]

²⁰But he did not doubt or waver in unbelief concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong and empowered by faith, giving glory to God, ²¹being fully convinced that God had the power to do what He had promised.

²²Therefore his faith WAS CREDITED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS (right standing with God). [Gen 15:6]

²³Now not for his sake alone was it written that it was credited to him,

²⁴but for our sake also—to whom righteousness will be credited, as those who believe in Him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead—

²⁵who was betrayed and crucified because of our sins, and was raised [from the dead] because of our justification [our acquittal—absolving us of all sin before God].

5 THEREFORE, SINCE we have been justified [that is, acquitted of sin, declared blameless before God] by faith, [let us grasp the fact that] we have peace with God [and the joy of reconciliation with Him] through our Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed).

²Through Him we also have access by faith into this [remarkable state of] grace in which we [firmly and safely and securely] stand. Let us rejoice in our hope and the confident assurance of [experiencing and enjoying] the glory of [our great] God [the manifestation of His excellence and power].

³And not only this, but [with joy] let us exult in our sufferings and rejoice in our hardships, knowing that hardship

(distress, pressure, trouble) produces patient endurance;

⁴and endurance, proven character (spiritual maturity); and proven character, hope and confident assurance [of eternal salvation].

⁵Such hope [in God's promises] never disappoints us, because God's love has been abundantly poured out within our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

⁶While we were still helpless [powerless to provide for our salvation], at the right time Christ died [as a substitute] for the ungodly.

⁷Now it is an extraordinary thing for one to willingly give his life even for an upright man, though perhaps for a good man [one who is noble and selfless and worthy] someone might even dare to die.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, hope in Your promises never disappoints me, because Your love has been abundantly poured out within my heart through the Holy Spirit who was given to me.

- adapted from Romans 5:5

POWERPOINT

The Bible teaches that God knows our faults and loves us anyway. The beauty of grace is that “while we were still sinners, Christ died for us” (Rom. 5:8).

⁸But God clearly shows and proves His own love for us, by the fact that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

⁹Therefore, since we have now been justified [declared free of the guilt of sin] by His blood, [how much more certain is it that] we will be saved from the wrath of God through Him.

¹⁰For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, it is much more certain, having been reconciled, that we will be saved [from the consequences of sin] by His life [that is, we will be saved because Christ lives today].

¹¹Not only that, but we also rejoice in God [rejoicing in His love and perfection] through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received and enjoy our reconciliation [with God]. [Jer 9:24]

¹²Therefore, just as sin came into the world through one man, and death through sin, so death spread to all people [no one being able to stop it or escape its power], because they all sinned.

¹³Sin was [committed] in the world before the Law [was given], but sin is not charged [against anyone] when there is no law [against it].

¹⁴Yet death ruled [over mankind] from Adam to Moses [the Lawgiver], even over those who had not sinned as Adam did. Adam is a type of Him (Christ) who was to come [but in reverse—Adam brought destruction, Christ brought salvation]. [Gen 5:5; 7:22; Deut 34:5]

¹⁵But the free gift [of God] is not like the trespass [because the gift of grace overwhelms the fall of man]. For if many died by one man's trespass [Adam's sin], much more [abundantly] did God's grace and the gift [that comes] by the grace of the one Man, Jesus Christ, overflow to [benefit] the many.

Right Thinking Leads to Right Behavior

God wants us to think, speak, and behave rightly, and He gives us what we need in order to do so. God will never require us to do something without giving us what we need to do it. God gives us the gift of righteousness so we can become righteous in what we think, say, and do.

Although we have sinned, our sins cannot be compared to the righteousness of God's free gift (see Rom. 5:17). Our sin is great, but His free gift of righteousness is greater.

The fruit of your life cannot be any greater than who and what you believe you are, so it's vital to learn to think about and believe in your righteousness in Christ. If you constantly think something is wrong with you, you will keep producing wrong words and actions, but believing that you are right with God will help you produce right behavior.

¹⁶Nor is the gift [of grace] like that which came through the one who sinned. For on the one hand the judgment [following the sin] resulted from one trespass and brought condemnation, but on the other hand the free gift resulted from many trespasses and brought justification [the release from sin's penalty for those who believe].

¹⁷For if by the trespass of the one (Adam), death reigned through the one (Adam), much more surely will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness reign in [eternal] life through the One, Jesus Christ.

¹⁸So then as through one trespass [Adam's sin] there resulted condemnation for all men, even so through one act of righteousness there resulted justification of life to all men.

¹⁹For just as through one man's disobedience [his failure to hear, his carelessness] the many were made sinners, so through the obedience of the one Man the many will be made righteous and acceptable to God and brought into right standing with Him.

²⁰But the Law came to increase and expand [the awareness of] the trespass [by defining and unmasking sin]. But where sin increased, [God's remarkable, gracious gift of] grace [His unmerited favor] has surpassed it and increased all the more, ²¹so that, as sin reigned in death, so also grace would reign through righteousness which brings eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 WHAT SHALL we say [to all this]? Should we continue in sin and practice sin as a habit so that [God's gift of] grace may increase and overflow?

²Certainly not! How can we, the very ones who died to sin, continue to live in it any longer?

³Or are you ignorant of the fact that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death?

⁴We have therefore been buried with Him through baptism into death, so that just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory and power of the Father, we too might walk habitually in newness of life [abandoning our old ways].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Apply the Work of the Cross

If you are a true believer in Jesus Christ, there is no way you can ever sin and not care (see Rom. 6:1–2). You know that sin offends God, and you love God, so of course you will care. But there is a difference between caring about your sin and feeling condemned because of it (see Rom. 8:1).

We cannot fulfill our God-ordained purpose in life while we're trapped in guilt and condemned by our feelings. God doesn't want us to beat ourselves up for every mistake we make. We need to learn how to apply the work of the cross in our lives, accepting by faith that Jesus shed His blood to forgive our sins, receiving His forgiveness, and going on to do the things God has called us to do without a trace of guilt. This may be a new way of thinking for you, but it is biblical, and it is your privilege as a believer in Jesus Christ.

⁵For if we have become one with Him [permanently united] in the likeness of His death, we will also certainly be [one with Him and share fully] in the likeness of His resurrection.

⁶We know that our old self [our human nature without the Holy Spirit] was nailed to the cross with Him, in order that our body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be slaves to sin.

⁷For the person who has died [with Christ] has been freed from [the power of] sin.

⁸Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live [together] with Him, ⁹because we know [the self-evident truth] that Christ, having been raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has power over Him.

¹⁰For the death that He died, He died to sin [ending its power and paying the sinner's debt] once and for all; and the life that He lives, He lives to [glorify] God [in unbroken fellowship with Him].

¹¹Even so, consider yourselves to be dead to sin [and your relationship to it broken], but alive to God [in unbroken fellowship with Him] in Christ Jesus.

¹²Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its lusts and passions.

¹³Do not go on offering members of your body to sin as instruments of wickedness. But offer yourselves to God [in a decisive act] as those alive [raised] from the dead [to a new life], and your members [all of your abilities—sanctified, set apart] as instruments of righteousness [yielded] to God.

¹⁴For sin will no longer be a master over you, since you are not under Law [as slaves], but under [unmerited] grace [as recipients of God's favor and mercy].

¹⁵What then [are we to conclude]? Shall we sin because we are not under Law, but under [God's] grace? Certainly not!

¹⁶Do you not know that when you continually offer yourselves to someone to do his will, you are the slaves of the one whom you obey, either [slaves] of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness (right standing with God)?

¹⁷But thank God that though you were slaves of sin, you became obedient with all your heart to the standard of teaching in which you were instructed and to which you were committed.

¹⁸And having been set free from sin, you have become the slaves of righteousness [of conformity to God's will and purpose].

POWERPOINT

We need to believe God's Word more than we believe how we feel, and we need to say what God says about us and about our lives. God's Word says that we are dead to sin and that our relationship with sin is broken (see Rom. 6:2). It also says that we are alive to God, living in unbroken fellowship with Him (see Rom. 6:11). Spiritually speaking, this means that we are already free from negative thought patterns and sinful habits. We simply need to keep believing this truth and in time we will see good fruit manifesting in our lives.

¹⁹I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God's purpose].

²⁰When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness [you had no desire to conform to God's will].

²¹So what benefit did you get at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? [None!] For the outcome of those things is death!

²²But now since you have been set free from sin and have become [willing] slaves to God, you have your benefit, resulting in sanctification [being made holy and set apart for God's purpose], and the outcome [of this] is eternal life.

²³For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God [that is, His remarkable, overwhelming gift of grace to believers] is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7 OR DO you not know, brothers and sisters (for I am speaking to those who know the Law), that the Law has jurisdiction [to rule] over a person as long as he lives?

²For the married woman [as an example] is bound and remains bound by law to her husband while he lives; but if her husband dies, she is released and exempt from the law concerning her husband.

³Accordingly, she will be designated as an adulteress if she unites herself to another man while her husband is alive. But if her husband dies, she is free from the law [regarding marriage], so that she is not an adulteress if she marries another man.

⁴Therefore, my fellow believers, you too died to the Law through the [crucified] body of Christ, so that you may belong to another, to Him who was raised from the dead, in order that we may bear fruit for God.

⁵When we were living in the flesh [trapped by sin], the sinful passions, which were awakened by [that which] the Law [identifies as sin], were at work in our body to bear fruit for death [since the willingness to sin led to death and separation from God].

⁶But now we have been released from the Law and its penalty, having died [through Christ] to that by which we were held captive, so that we serve [God] in the newness of the Spirit and not in the oldness of the letter [of the Law].

⁷What shall we say then? Is the Law sin? Certainly not! On the contrary, if it had not been for the Law, I would not have recognized sin. For I would not have known [for example] about coveting [what belongs to another, and would have had no sense of guilt] if the Law had not [repeatedly] said, “YOU SHALL NOT COVET.” [Ex 20:17; Deut 5:21]

POWERPOINT

Romans 7:6 gives us great encouragement to not make laws out of things, but rather to be led by the Holy Spirit. I think we often make laws because we are afraid to trust ourselves to be led by the Spirit; we would rather have a rule to follow. I urge you to refuse to live a legalistic life and to trust God to teach you how to allow Him to guide you in all things.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Rely on God's Grace

As we continue to learn from God's Word, we find in ourselves a desire to be obedient to what He asks us to do and to stop doing what He doesn't want us to do (see Rom. 7:25). However, we quickly discover that no matter how hard we try, we cannot do it simply by willpower. We fail and feel frustrated because of our inability to perform the good that we desire to do. God has given us a new set of desires, but sometimes it seems as though He has left us without the ability to perform them. Actually, He wants us to learn that He is our ability. He wants us to lean on Him for absolutely everything, including the ability to do what He asks us to do.

Before I learned about the "more grace" God offers us, there were times when I felt so frustrated trying to change myself that I did not know what to do. I tried everything I could possibly try, but nothing worked. If anything, I behaved worse instead of better. I was focusing on the things that were wrong with me, not realizing that my efforts were complicating the problem. I cried with the apostle Paul, "Wretched and miserable man that I am! Who will [rescue me and] set me free from this body of death [this corrupt, mortal existence]?” (Rom. 7:24). My heart was right before God, and I wanted to do the right thing, but my soul was giving me trouble. After much struggle, I finally came to see what the apostle Paul saw when he wrote of his own deliverance, “Thanks be to God [for my deliverance] through Jesus Christ our Lord!” (Rom. 7:25). When I saw that only Jesus could deliver me, and that I did not have to strive to deliver myself, I felt as though a ton of weight had been lifted from my shoulders.

Over time I began to notice a number of scriptures teaching that only grace can change my behavior. When we try to save ourselves, it is unacceptable to God and does not work; when we try to change ourselves, it is the same way. We do need to change, but we need to ask God to change us, then lean and rely on Him to do the work.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord God, I don't want to do the things I do, and I do the things I don't want to do. Please help me understand that I cannot change myself. Only Your grace can change me, and I believe that You love me completely while I am changing. In Jesus' name. Amen.

⁸But sin, finding an opportunity through the commandment [to express itself] produced in me every kind of coveting and selfish desire. For without the Law sin is dead [the recognition of sin is inactive].

⁹I was once alive without [knowledge of] the Law; but when the commandment came [and I understood its meaning], sin became alive and I died [since the Law sentenced me to death]. [Ps 73:22]

¹⁰And the very commandment which was intended to bring life, actually proved to bring death for me. [Lev 18:5]

¹¹For sin, seizing its opportunity through the commandment, beguiled and completely deceived me, and using it as a weapon killed me [separating me from God].

¹²So then, the Law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.

¹³Did that which is good [the Law], then become death to me? Certainly not! But sin, in order that it might be revealed as sin, was producing death in me by [using] this good thing [as a weapon], so that through the commandment sin would become exceedingly sinful.

¹⁴We know that the Law is spiritual, but I am a creature of the flesh [worldly, self-reliant—carnal and unspiritual], sold into slavery to sin [and serving under its control].

¹⁵For I do not understand my own actions [I am baffled and bewildered by them]. I do not practice what I want to do, but I am doing the very thing I hate [and yielding to my human nature, my worldliness—my sinful capacity].

¹⁶Now if I habitually do what I do not want to do, [that means] I agree with the Law, confessing that it is good (morally excellent).

¹⁷So now [if that is the case, then] it is no longer I who do it [the disobedient thing which I despise], but the sin [nature] which lives in me.

¹⁸For I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my flesh [my human nature, my worldliness—my sinful capacity]. For the willingness [to do good] is present in me, but the doing of good is not.

¹⁹For the good that I want to do, I do not do, but I practice the very evil that I do not want.

²⁰But if I am doing the very thing I do not want to do, I am no longer the one doing it [that is, it is not me that acts], but the sin [nature] which lives in me.

²¹So I find it to be the law [of my inner self], that evil is present in me, the one who wants to do good.

²²For I joyfully delight in the law of God in my inner self [with my new nature], [Ps 1:2]

²³but I see a different law and rule of action in the members of my body [in its appetites and desires], waging war against the law of my mind and subduing me and making me a prisoner of the law of sin which is within my members.

²⁴Wretched and miserable man that I am! Who will [rescue me and] set me free from this body of death [this corrupt, mortal existence]?

²⁵Thanks be to God [for my deliverance] through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, on the one hand I myself with my mind serve the law of God, but on the other, with my flesh [my human nature, my worldliness, my sinful capacity—I serve] the law of sin.

8 THEREFORE THERE is now no condemnation [no guilty verdict, no punishment] for those who are in Christ Jesus [who believe in Him as personal Lord and Savior]. [John 3:18]

²For the law of the Spirit of life [which is] in Christ Jesus [the law of our new being] has set you free from the law of sin and of death.

³For what the Law could not do [that is, overcome sin and remove its penalty, its power] being weakened by the flesh [man's nature without the Holy Spirit], God did: He sent His own Son in the likeness of sinful man as an offering for sin. And He condemned sin in the flesh [subdued it and overcame it in the person of His own Son], [Lev 7:37]

Speak God's Word

*There is now no condemnation or punishment for those who are in Christ Jesus, who believe in Him as personal Lord and Savior.
The law of the Spirit of life which is in Christ Jesus, the law of my new being, has set me free from the law of sin and of death.*

KEYS to a Victorious Life

No Condemnation

The devil tries to stop us every chance he gets, and sometimes he uses the tactic of condemnation. When I teach about this, I often use the analogy of a baby learning to walk. We don't expect a baby to walk the first time he tries. He will fall often and sometimes cry, but he will get back up because his parents are there saying, "You can do it! Come on, try again." They do not condemn him because he failed.

The scene is much the same in the spiritual world. We all fall, but our Father in heaven encourages us to get back up and try again.

Never underestimate Satan's relentlessness. He will do whatever he can to trip you and then to make you feel so condemned that you won't want to get up again. He knows that his control is finished once you choose right thoughts and reject wrong ones. He wants to hinder you from clear thinking. He will attempt to thwart your progress with God through discouragement and condemnation.

We are free in Jesus Christ, and we don't have to listen to Satan's condemnation (see Rom. 8:1). When we fail—and we will—that doesn't mean we are failures. It only means we failed one time in one thing and that although we didn't do everything right, we can try again.

⁴so that the [righteous and just] requirement of the Law might be fulfilled in us who do not live our lives in the ways of the flesh [guided by worldliness and our sinful nature], but [live our lives] in the ways of the Spirit [guided by His power].

⁵For those who are living according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh [which gratify the body], but those who are living according to the Spirit, [set their minds on] the things of the Spirit [His will and purpose].

⁶Now the mind of the flesh is death [both now and forever—because it pursues sin]; but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace [the spiritual well-being that comes from walking with God—both now and forever];

⁷the mind of the flesh [with its sinful pursuits] is actively hostile to God. It does not submit itself to God's law, since it cannot, ⁸and those who are in the flesh [living a life that caters to sinful appetites and impulses] cannot please God.

⁹However, you are not [living] in the flesh [controlled by the sinful nature] but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God lives in you [directing and guiding you]. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him [and is not a child of God]. [Rom 8:14]

¹⁰If Christ lives in you, though your [natural] body is dead because of sin, your spirit is alive because of righteousness [which He provides].

¹¹And if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead lives in you, He who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit, who lives in you.

¹²So then, brothers and sisters, we have an obligation, but not to our flesh [our human nature, our worldliness, our sinful capacity], to live according to the [impulses of the] flesh [our nature without the Holy Spirit]—

¹³for if you are living according to the [impulses of the] flesh, you are going to die. But if [you are living] by the [power of the Holy] Spirit you are habitually putting to death the sinful deeds of the body, you will [really] live forever.

¹⁴For all who are allowing themselves to be led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.

¹⁵For you have not received a spirit of slavery leading again to fear [of God's judgment], but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons [the Spirit producing sonship] by which we [joyfully] cry, "Abba! Father!"

¹⁶The Spirit Himself testifies and confirms together with our spirit [assuring us] that we [believers] are children of God.

¹⁷And if [we are His] children, [then we are His] heirs also: heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ [sharing His spiritual blessing and inheritance], if indeed we share in His suffering so that we may also share in His glory. [John 17:24; Gal 3:29; 4:7; Eph 1:3, 11; 3:6; Heb 6:12]

¹⁸For I consider [from the standpoint of faith] that the sufferings of the present life are not worthy to be compared with the glory that is about to be revealed to us and in us!

¹⁹For [even the whole] creation [all nature] waits eagerly for the children of God to be revealed.

²⁰For the creation was subjected to frustration and futility, not willingly [because of some intentional fault on its part], but by the will of Him who subjected it, in hope [Eccl 1:2]

²¹that the creation itself will also be freed from its bondage to decay [and gain entrance] into the glorious freedom of the children of God.

²²For we know that the whole creation has been moaning together as in the pains of childbirth until now. [Jer 12:4, 11]

²³And not only this, but we too, who have the first fruits of the Spirit [a joyful indication of the blessings to come], even we groan inwardly, as we wait eagerly for [the sign of] our adoption as sons—the redemption and transformation of our body [at the resurrection]. [2 Cor 5:2, 4; Eph 4:30]

²⁴For in this hope we were saved [by faith]. But hope [the object of] which is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he already sees?

²⁵But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait eagerly for it with patience and composure.

²⁶In the same way the Spirit [comes to us and] helps us in our weakness. We do not know what prayer to offer or how to offer it as we should, but the Spirit Himself [knows our need and at the right time] intercedes on our behalf with sighs and groanings too deep for words.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Set Your Mind on the Spirit

When people walk in the flesh, it's because they set their mind on fleshly things. If they live according to the Spirit, it's because they set their mind on the things of the Spirit (see Rom. 8:5).

Imagine a truck filled with concrete. The concrete will eventually take the shape of whatever mold it's poured into—a driveway, a patio, a retaining wall, a road, or a foundation. Concrete cannot take any form unless a mold is first created for it.

Your thoughts are like the mold. They create a shape for God to pour His power into, to do something with your life. If you want a powerful life, choose to keep your mind on things that agree with God's will so He can help you move toward your goals.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

All Things Work Together for Good

In the midst of our difficulties and hardships, the apostle Paul says, “And we know [with great confidence] that God [who is deeply concerned about us] causes all things to work together [as a plan] for good for those who love God, to those who are called according to His plan and purpose” (Rom. 8:28). His words bring comfort and peace that no matter what hurts and disappointments come into our lives, everything will eventually work out for our good.

The two verses preceding Romans 8:28 focus on prayer and say that when we don’t know how to pray as we ought, the Holy Spirit prays through us. It is through these Holy Spirit-filled prayers that all things work together for good. Not all things that happen to us are good in and of themselves, but God is good, and He can cause them to work toward our good if we trust Him.

God makes this promise to those who love Him and are called according to His purpose. We need to set our mind to submit to His plan at all times. Continuing to trust Him is the key to victory in painful and seemingly unjust situations. Faith and prayer move the hand of God. If we continue believing, He promises to continue moving on our behalf to work everything out for good.

God's purpose in everything that happens to us is to make us more like Jesus Christ. We are to be molded into His image. That may sound spiritual, but in reality, it usually hurts. We sometimes go through things that are difficult, and when we do, we can learn to respond to them the same way Jesus would. We should not give way to fearful thoughts and feelings that attack us, but learn to remain steadfast, knowing that no matter how things appear, God will work them out for our good and use them to make us better people.

We learn from God's Word and life's experiences and through what we suffer. Consider Jesus: "Although He was a Son [who had never been disobedient to the Father], He learned [active, special] obedience through what He suffered" (Heb. 5:8).

Satan cannot defeat us if we keep on believing that God is working for our good, and that we are being continually transformed into His image.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

All-wise and loving God, make me more like Jesus. I don't like to suffer or to fail, but through Jesus Christ, I ask You to enable me to understand that because of You, everything truly works together for my good. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

More Than a Conqueror

As Christians, we often hear people quote Romans 8:37: “Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors and gain an overwhelming victory through Him who loved us.” For years, I pondered what being “more than conquerors” actually means.

I’m sure other people have different interpretations, but I have come to the conclusion that “more than conquerors” means you have such confidence in Christ that no matter what comes up in your life, you know that through Him you can handle it; it means that you choose to believe that with God’s help you can overcome anything that stands in your way. You know before you are ever faced with a problem that you’re going to have victory over it. You believe you can do whatever you need to do in life. Therefore, you don’t dread things, you don’t fear the unknown, and you don’t live in anxiety about what’s going to happen. The specifics of each situation don’t really matter: you know you will be victorious through Christ.

It is amazingly freeing and good to trust that you can overcome problems before you even encounter them. Are you dreading things that have not even taken place yet? You don’t have to, because you can adopt the attitude of a victor. You can replace that dread with a confident attitude that says, “No matter what comes my way in life, I can face it and overcome it with God’s help.” Will you decide today to think

²⁷And He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because the Spirit intercedes [before God] on behalf of God's people in accordance with God's will. [Ps 139:1, 2]

²⁸And we know [with great confidence] that God [who is deeply concerned about us] causes all things to work together [as a plan] for good for those who love God, to those who are called according to His plan and purpose.

²⁹For those whom He foreknew [and loved and chose beforehand], He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son [and ultimately share in His complete sanctification], so that He would be the firstborn [the most beloved and honored] among many believers.

³⁰And those whom He predestined, He also called; and those whom He called, He also justified [declared free of the guilt of sin]; and those whom He justified, He also glorified [raising them to a heavenly dignity].

³¹What then shall we say to all these things? If God is for us, who can be [successful] against us? [Ps 118:6]

³²He who did not spare [even] His own Son, but gave Him up for us all, how will He not also, along with Him, graciously give us all things?

Speak God's Word

If God is for me, who can be successful against me?

Speak God's Word

For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present and threatening, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate me from the unlimited love of God, which is in Christ Jesus my Lord.

³³Who will bring any charge against God's elect (His chosen ones)? It is God who justifies us [declaring us blameless and putting us in a right relationship with Himself].

³⁴Who is the one who condemns us? Christ Jesus is the One who died [to pay our penalty], and more than that, who was raised [from the dead], and who is at the right hand of God interceding [with the Father] for us.

³⁵Who shall ever separate us from the love of Christ? Will tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?

³⁶Just as it is written and forever remains written,

“FOR YOUR SAKE WE ARE PUT TO DEATH ALL DAY LONG;
WE ARE REGARDED AS SHEEP FOR THE SLAUGHTER.” [Ps 44:22]

³⁷Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors and gain an overwhelming victory through Him who loved us [so much that He died for us].

³⁸For I am convinced [and continue to be convinced—beyond any doubt] that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present and threatening, nor things to come, nor powers, ³⁹nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the [unlimited] love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9 I AM telling the truth in Christ, I am not lying, my conscience testifies with me [enlightened and prompted] by the Holy Spirit, ²that I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart.

³For [if it were possible] I would wish that I myself were accursed, [separated, banished] from Christ for the sake [of the salvation] of my brothers, my natural kinsmen, [Ex 32:32]

⁴who are Israelites, to whom belongs the adoption as sons, the glory (Shekinah), the [special] covenants [with Abraham, Moses, and David], the giving of the Law, the [system of temple] worship, and the [original] promises. [Ex 4:22; Hos 11:1]

⁵To them belong the patriarchs, and from them, according to His natural descent, came the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), He who is exalted and supreme over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

⁶However, it is not as though God's word has failed [coming to nothing]. For not all who are descended from Israel (Jacob) are [the true] Israel;

⁷and they are not all the children of Abraham because they are his descendants [by blood], but [the promise was]: "YOUR DESCENDANTS WILL BE NAMED THROUGH ISAAC" [though Abraham had other sons]. [Gen 21:9–12]

⁸That is, it is not the children of the body [Abraham's natural descendants] who are God's children, but it is the children of the promise who are counted as [Abraham's true] descendants.

⁹For this is what the promise said: "ABOUT THIS TIME [next year] I WILL COME, AND SARAH SHALL HAVE A SON." [Gen 18:10]

¹⁰And not only that, but this too: Rebekah conceived twin sons by one man [under the same circumstances], by our father Isaac;

¹¹and though the twins were not yet born and had not done anything either good or bad, so that God's purpose [His choice, His election] would stand, not because of works [done by either child], but because of [the plan of] Him who calls them,

¹²it was said to her, "THE OLDER (Esau) WILL SERVE THE YOUNGER (Jacob)." [Gen 25:21–23]

¹³As it is written and forever remains written, "JACOB I LOVED (chose, protected, blessed), BUT ESAU I HATED (held in disregard compared to Jacob).” [Mal 1:2, 3] ¹⁴What shall we say then? Is there injustice with God? Certainly not!

¹⁵For He says to Moses, “I WILL HAVE MERCY ON WHOMEVER I HAVE MERCY, AND I WILL HAVE COMPASSION ON WHOMEVER I HAVE COMPASSION.” [Ex 33:19]

¹⁶So then God’s choice is not dependent on human will, nor on human effort [the totality of human striving], but on God who shows mercy [to whomever He chooses—it is His sovereign gift].

¹⁷For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, “I RAISED YOU UP FOR THIS VERY PURPOSE, TO DISPLAY MY POWER IN [dealing with] YOU, AND SO THAT MY NAME WOULD BE PROCLAIMED IN ALL THE EARTH.” [Ex 9:16]

¹⁸So then, He has mercy on whom He wills (chooses), and He hardens [the heart of] whom He wills.

¹⁹You will say to me then, “Why does He still blame me [for sinning]? For who [including myself] has [ever] resisted His will and purpose?”

²⁰On the contrary, who are you, O man, who answers [arrogantly] back to God and dares to defy Him? Will the thing which is formed say to him who formed it, “Why have you made me like this?” [Is 29:16; 45:9]

²¹Does the potter not have the right over the clay, to make from the same lump [of clay] one object for honorable use [something beautiful or distinctive] and another for common use [something ordinary or menial]?

²²What if God, although willing to show His [terrible] wrath and to make His power known, has tolerated with great patience the objects of His wrath [which are] prepared for destruction? [Prov 16:4]

²³And what if He has done so to make known the riches of His glory to the objects of His mercy, which He has prepared beforehand for glory, ²⁴*including* us, whom He also called, not only from among the Jews, but also from among the Gentiles?

²⁵Just as He says in [the writings of the prophet] Hosea:

“I WILL CALL THOSE WHO WERE NOT MY PEOPLE, ‘MY PEOPLE,’

AND [I will call] HER WHO WAS NOT BELOVED, ‘BELOVED.’”
[Hos 2:23]

²⁶“AND IT SHALL BE THAT IN THE PLACE WHERE IT WAS SAID TO THEM, ‘YOU ARE NOT MY PEOPLE,’

THERE THEY SHALL BE CALLED SONS OF THE LIVING GOD.”
[Hos 1:10]

²⁷And Isaiah calls out concerning Israel: “THOUGH THE NUMBER OF THE SONS OF ISRAEL BE LIKE THE SAND OF THE SEA, IT IS ONLY THE REMNANT [a small believing minority] THAT WILL BE SAVED [from God’s judgment]; ²⁸FOR THE LORD WILL EXECUTE HIS WORD UPON THE EARTH [He will conclude His dealings with mankind] COMPLETELY AND WITHOUT DELAY.” [Is 10:22, 23]

²⁹It is as Isaiah foretold,

“IF THE LORD OF HOSTS HAD NOT LEFT US SEED [future generations from which a believing remnant of Israelites came],

WE WOULD HAVE BECOME LIKE SODOM, AND WOULD HAVE RESEMBLED GOMORRAH [totally rejected and destroyed]!” [Is 1:9]

³⁰What shall we say then? That Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness [who did not seek salvation and a right relationship with God, nevertheless] obtained righteousness, that is, the righteousness which is produced by faith;

³¹whereas Israel, [though always] pursuing the law of righteousness, did not succeed in fulfilling the law. [Is 51:1]

³²And why not? Because it was not by faith [that they pursued it], but as though it were by works [relying on the merit of their works instead of their faith]. They stumbled over the stumbling Stone [Jesus Christ]. [Is 8:14; 28:16]

³³As it is written and forever remains written,

“BEHOLD I AM LAYING IN ZION A STONE OF STUMBLING AND A ROCK OF OFFENSE;

AND HE WHO BELIEVES IN HIM [whoever adheres to, trusts in, and relies on Him] WILL NOT BE DISAPPOINTED [in his expectations].” [Is 28:16]

10 BROTHERS AND sisters, my heart’s desire and my prayer to God for Israel is for their salvation.

²For I testify about them that they have a certain enthusiasm for God, but not in accordance with [correct and vital] knowledge [about Him and His purposes].

³For not knowing about God's righteousness [which is based on faith], and seeking to establish their own [righteousness based on works], they did not submit to God's righteousness.

⁴For Christ is the end of the law [it leads to Him and its purpose is fulfilled in Him], for [granting] righteousness to everyone who believes [in Him as Savior].

⁵For Moses writes that the man who practices the righteousness which is based on law [with all its intricate demands] shall live by it. [Lev 18:5]

⁶But the righteousness based on faith [which produces a right relationship with Him] says the following: "DO NOT SAY IN YOUR HEART, 'WHO WILL ASCEND INTO HEAVEN?' that is, to bring Christ down;

⁷or, 'WHO WILL DESCEND INTO THE ABYSS?' that is, to bring Christ up from the dead [as if we had to be saved by our own efforts, doing the impossible]." [Deut 30:12, 13]

⁸But what does it say? "THE WORD IS NEAR YOU, IN YOUR MOUTH AND IN YOUR HEART"—that is, the word [the message, the basis] of faith which we preach—[Deut 30:14]

⁹because if you acknowledge and confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord [recognizing His power, authority, and majesty as God], and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.

¹⁰For with the heart a person believes [in Christ as Savior] resulting in his justification [that is, being made righteous—being freed of the guilt of sin and made acceptable to God]; and with the mouth he acknowledges and confesses [his faith openly], resulting in and confirming [his] salvation.

¹¹For the Scripture says, “WHOEVER BELIEVES IN HIM [whoever adheres to, trusts in, and relies on Him] WILL NOT BE DISAPPOINTED [in his expectations].” [Is 28:16]

¹²For there is no distinction between Jew and Gentile; for the same Lord is Lord over all [of us], and [He is] abounding in riches (blessings) for all who call on Him [in faith and prayer].

¹³For “WHOEVER CALLS ON THE NAME OF THE LORD [in prayer] WILL BE SAVED.” [Joel 2:32]

¹⁴But how will people call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how will they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how will they hear without a preacher (messenger)?

¹⁵And how will they preach unless they are commissioned and sent [for that purpose]? Just as it is written and forever remains written, “HOW BEAUTIFUL ARE THE FEET OF THOSE WHO BRING GOOD NEWS OF GOOD THINGS!” [Is 52:7]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Believe and Speak

The book of Romans teaches the powerful truth that to be saved, we believe in our hearts and confess with our mouths. “If you acknowledge and confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord... and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart a person believes [in Christ as Savior] resulting in his justification [that is, being made righteous...]; and with the mouth he acknowledges and confesses [his faith openly], resulting in and confirming [his] salvation” (Rom. 10:9–10).

I say we should believe and speak, speak and believe—the two work together for our salvation, as well as in every other area of our lives. If we need to believe and speak in order to receive the salvation that Jesus has provided, we should live according to the same principle in order to receive all God’s promises.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Learn To Press Past Feelings

We have feelings, and sometimes they are strong, but we're wrong if we think we have to be led by our feelings. We don't have to allow our feelings to determine our decisions and ultimately our destiny. With that type of mind-set, we believe that if we feel discouraged, we are discouraged; if we feel victorious, we are victorious; if we feel depressed, we must be depressed.

Someone once said, "My feelings are emotions; they are not reality." In other words, just because we feel a certain way doesn't make that feeling a fact. I know many people who don't feel loved by God—that's how they feel, but it isn't the truth. The devil gains a stronghold in this area if he can convince people that their feelings are reality.

Years ago, while I was still new in the ministry, after I spoke in a church, many people told me how my message had encouraged them, and I was thrilled. Then one man said, "I didn't agree with anything you said. You need to get your theology straight." Discouragement immediately overwhelmed me, and I felt that I had failed.

Afterward, I thought about what had happened. Fifty people told me how my words blessed them, but I allowed one negative message to convince me I had failed. But I hadn't failed. I had allowed the wrong voice to control my feelings.

I reminded myself that what I experienced had given me a negative feeling, but it had not represented truth. I thought of Romans 10:9–10. Paul says that we need to believe in our hearts and confess with our lips. We often quote these two verses when we speak to people about their salvation; however, the principle is there no matter what the subject. I stopped and said aloud, “God, I believe I did my best for You. I believe You used my words to bless many people. I do not have to listen to that one negative voice.”

Within minutes, I felt better. (See how quickly our feelings can change?) Reality hadn't changed, but I had. I refused to allow negative, wrong thinking to turn me from reality.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Loving God, forgive me for thinking wrong thoughts and for allowing wrong feelings to determine my attitude. I ask You, in the name of Jesus, to help me believe Your Word and to entertain positive thoughts. Amen.

¹⁶But they did not all pay attention to the good news [of salvation]; for Isaiah says, “LORD, WHO HAS BELIEVED OUR REPORT?” [Is 53:1]

¹⁷So faith comes from hearing [what is told], and what is heard comes by the [preaching of the] message concerning Christ.

¹⁸But I say, did they not hear? Indeed they have;

“THEIR VOICE [that of creation bearing God’s message] HAS GONE OUT TO ALL THE EARTH, AND THEIR WORDS TO THE [farthest] ENDS OF THE WORLD.”
[Ps 19:4, 7–11]

¹⁹But I say, did Israel fail to understand [that the gospel was to go also to the Gentiles]? First Moses says,

“I WILL MAKE YOU JEALOUS OF THOSE WHO ARE NOT A NATION (Gentiles); WITH A NATION THAT LACKS UNDERSTANDING I WILL MAKE YOU ANGRY.” [Deut 32:21]

²⁰Then Isaiah is very bold and says,

“I HAVE BEEN FOUND BY THOSE WHO DID NOT SEEK ME;
I HAVE SHOWN MYSELF TO THOSE WHO DID NOT [consciously]
ASK FOR ME.” [Is 65:1]

²¹But of Israel he says, “ALL DAY LONG I HAVE STRETCHED OUT
MY HANDS [in compassion] TO A DISOBEDIENT AND OBSTINATE PEOPLE.” [Is 65:2]

11 I SAY then, has God rejected and disowned His people? Certainly not! For I too am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. [1 Sam 12:22; Jer 31:37; 33:24-26; Phil 3:5]

²God has not rejected His [chosen] people whom He foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture says of Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel? [Ps 94:14; 1 Kin 19]

³“Lord, THEY HAVE KILLED YOUR PROPHETS, THEY HAVE TORN DOWN YOUR ALTARS, AND I ALONE AM LEFT [of the prophets], AND THEY ARE SEEKING MY LIFE.”

⁴But what is God’s response to him? “I HAVE KEPT for Myself SEVEN THOUSAND MEN WHO HAVE NOT BOWED THE KNEE TO BAAL.” [1 Kin 19:18]

⁵So too then, at the present time there has come to be a remnant [a small believing minority] according to God’s gracious choice.

⁶But if it is by grace [God’s unmerited favor], it is no longer on the basis of works, otherwise grace is no longer grace [it would not be a gift but a reward for works].

⁷What then? Israel failed to obtain what it was seeking [that is, God’s favor by obedience to the Law], but the elect [those chosen few] obtained it, while the rest of them became hardened and callously indifferent;

⁸just as it is written [in Scripture],

“GOD GAVE THEM A SPIRIT OF STUPOR, EYES THAT DO NOT SEE AND EARS THAT DO NOT HEAR,

[a spiritual apathy that has continued] TO THIS VERY DAY.”
[Deut 29:4; Is 29:10]

⁹And David says,

“LET THEIR TABLE (abundance) BECOME A SNARE AND A TRAP,
A STUMBLING BLOCK AND A RETRIBUTION TO THEM. [Ps 69:22]

¹⁰“LET THEIR EYES BE DARKENED SO THAT THEY DO NOT SEE,
AND MAKE THEIR BACKS BEND [under their burden]
FOREVER.” [Ps 69:23]

¹¹So I say, have they stumbled so as to fall [to spiritual ruin]? Certainly not! But by their transgression [their rejection of the Messiah] salvation has come to the Gentiles, to make Israel jealous [when they realize what they have forfeited].

¹²Now if Israel's transgression means riches for the world [at large] and their failure means riches for the Gentiles, how much more will their fulfillment and reinstatement be!

¹³But now I am speaking to you who are Gentiles. Inasmuch then as I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry, ¹⁴in the hope of somehow making my fellow countrymen jealous [by stirring them up so that they will seek the truth] and perhaps save some of them.

¹⁵For if their [present] rejection [of salvation] is for the reconciliation of the world [to God], what will their acceptance [of salvation] be but [nothing less than] life from the dead?

¹⁶If the first portion [of dough offered as the first fruits] is holy, so is the whole batch; and if the root (Abraham, the patriarchs) is holy, so are the branches (the Israelites). [Num

15:19–21]

¹⁷But if some of the branches were broken off, and you [Gentiles], being like a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among them to share with them the rich root of the olive tree, ¹⁸do not boast over the [broken] branches and exalt yourself at their expense. If you do boast and feel superior, remember that it is not you who supports the root, but the root that supports you.

¹⁹You will say then, “Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in.”

²⁰That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand by your faith [as believers understanding the truth of Christ’s deity]. Do not be conceited, but [rather stand in great awe of God and] fear [Him];

²¹for if God did not spare the natural branches [because of unbelief], He will not spare you either.

²²Then appreciate the gracious kindness and the severity of God: to those who fell [into spiritual ruin], severity, but to you, God’s gracious kindness—if you continue in His kindness [by faith and obedience to Him]; otherwise you too will be cut off.

²³And even they [the unbelieving Jews], if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in; for God has the power to graft them in again.

²⁴For if you were cut off from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and against nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much easier will it be to graft these who are the natural branches back into [the original parent stock of] their own olive tree?

²⁵I do not want you, believers, to be unaware of this mystery [God's previously hidden plan]—so that you will not be wise in your own opinion—that a partial hardening has [temporarily] happened to Israel [to last] until the full number of the Gentiles has come in;

²⁶and so [at that time] all Israel [that is, all Jews who have a personal faith in Jesus as Messiah] will be saved; just as it is written [in Scripture],

“THE DELIVERER (Messiah) WILL COME FROM ZION,
HE WILL REMOVE UNGODLINESS FROM JACOB.” [Is 59:20, 21]

²⁷“THIS IS MY COVENANT WITH THEM,
WHEN I TAKE AWAY THEIR SINS.” [Is 27:9; Jer 31:33]

²⁸From the standpoint of the gospel, the Jews [at present] are enemies [of God] for your sake [which is for your benefit], but from the standpoint of God's choice [of the Jews as His people], they are still loved by Him for the sake of the fathers.

²⁹For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable [for He does not withdraw what He has given, nor does He change His mind about those to whom He gives His grace or to whom He sends His call].

³⁰Just as you once were disobedient and failed to listen to God, but have now obtained mercy because of their disobedience, ³¹so they too have now become disobedient so that they too may one day receive mercy because of the mercy shown to you.

³²For God has imprisoned all in disobedience so that He may show mercy to all [Jew and Gentile alike].

POWERPOINT

At first glance, Romans 11:32 seems rather unfair. No matter how hard we try, we will always have some flaws. Why? So God can display His amazing mercy in our lives. Experiencing the mercy of God draws us closer to Him. God makes sure that we will always need Him. He leaves weaknesses in even Christians who seem strongest to remind them that they still have need of Him. For as long as we live, we will need God's grace and mercy. Thankfully, He has made sure they will always be there for us.

³³Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and decisions and how unfathomable and untraceable are His ways!

³⁴FOR WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, OR WHO HAS BEEN HIS COUNSELOR? [Is 40:13, 14]

³⁵OR WHO HAS FIRST GIVEN TO HIM THAT IT WOULD BE PAID BACK TO HIM?

³⁶FOR FROM HIM [all things originate] and through Him [all things live and exist] and to Him are all things [directed]. To Him be glory and honor forever! Amen.

12 THEREFORE I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies [dedicating all of yourselves, set apart] as a living sacrifice, holy and well-pleasing to God, which is your rational (logical, intelligent) act of worship.

²And do not be conformed to this world [any longer with its superficial values and customs], but be transformed and progressively changed [as you mature spiritually] by the renewing of your mind [focusing on godly values and ethical attitudes], so that you may prove [for yourselves] what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect [in His plan and purpose for you].

POWERPOINT

Another way to communicate the idea of “a living sacrifice” (Rom. 12:1) is to say we are to consecrate ourselves to God.

Consecration to God is the most important aspect of succeeding at being ourselves, and it is an “act of worship.”

We don’t even know what we are supposed to be, let alone know how to become whatever it is we are to be. But as we regularly keep our lives on the altar in consecration to God as a living sacrifice, He will do what needs to be done in us so that He may do the work He desires to do through us.

Speak God's Word

I will not be conformed to this world any longer; but I will be transformed and progressively changed as I mature spiritually by the renewing of my mind, focusing on godly values and ethical attitudes. In this way, I may prove what the will of God is—that which is good and acceptable and perfect in His plan and purpose for me.

| adapted from ROMANS 12:2 |

³For by the grace [of God] given to me I say to everyone of you not to think more highly of himself [and of his importance and ability] than he ought to think; but to think so as to have sound judgment, as God has apportioned to each a degree of faith [and a purpose designed for service].

⁴For just as in one [physical] body we have many parts, and these parts do not all have the same function or special use, ⁵so we, who are many, are [nevertheless just] one body in Christ, and individually [we are] parts one of another [mutually dependent on each other].

⁶Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, each of us is to use them accordingly: if [someone has the gift of] prophecy, [let him speak a new message from God to His people] in proportion to the faith possessed;

⁷if service, in the act of serving; or he who teaches, in the act of teaching;

⁸or he who encourages, in the act of encouragement; he who gives, with generosity; he who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy [in caring for others], with cheerfulness.

⁹Love is to be sincere and active [the real thing—without guile and hypocrisy]. Hate what is evil [detest all ungodliness, do not tolerate wickedness]; hold on tightly to what is good.

¹⁰Be devoted to one another with [authentic] brotherly affection [as members of one family], give preference to one another in honor;

¹¹never lagging behind in diligence; aglow in the Spirit, enthusiastically serving the Lord;

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Be Transformed, Not Conformed

Romans 12:2 is invaluable in our battle for the mind: “And do not be conformed to this world [any longer with its superficial values and customs], but be transformed and progressively changed [as you mature spiritually] by the renewing of your mind [focusing on godly values and ethical attitudes], so that you may prove [for yourselves] what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect [in His plan and purpose for you].”

The Greek word translated conform carries the idea of the constant changes we make according to the fashion of the times. The word Paul used for being transformed refers to our souls being changed. When we are born again, our spirit becomes new, but our souls need to be transformed (changed entirely).

As Christians, we are to present ourselves to God as a living sacrifice (see Rom. 12:1). These words refer to living as believers. This scripture challenges us to present everything about us to God for His use—our minds, mouths, wills, emotions, eyes, ears, hands, feet, et cetera.

For many years after I accepted Jesus as my Savior, I wasn't doing that at all. I went to church on Sunday, and I believed in Jesus as my Savior, but I had not presented all of myself to Him for His use. Thankfully, I saw the error of my ways, and over time He taught me the importance of being fully committed to Him. At times we may feel that we are sacrificing, but eventually we understand that Jesus actually replaces what we sacrifice in order to be fully committed to Him with greater and more enjoyable things.

If we want to follow God's will, our minds need to be transformed. We need disciplined minds to think in agreement with God's Word, not the devil's lies. If our minds are transformed by the Holy Spirit, we will act differently. I know I act differently, and by God's grace I will continue to change.

Does your life need to be transformed? Start by being willing to think right thoughts, and you'll see changes in yourself—and others will see them too.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Father, please help me live a life that's transformed by the renewing of my mind. Help me to live a life that shows Your will, not only to me but also to the world. I ask this through Your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Focus on Your Potential

If you want to succeed at being yourself, building confidence, and overcoming insecurity, focus on your potential instead of your limitations. In other words, focus on your strengths instead of your weaknesses.

Although we cannot do all the things we would like to do, or even the things other people would like us to do, we can do everything God has called us to do. And we can be anything God says we can be.

Each of us is full of gifts and talents, potential and abilities. If we cooperate with God, we can enjoy the very best that God has for us. But if we set goals that are beyond our abilities and the gifts of grace in our life, we will become frustrated, and may even feel like a failure.

Gifts and talents are distributed by the Holy Spirit according to the grace that is on each person to handle them (see Rom. 12:6). If we don't go beyond what God has enabled and called us to do, we will have peace and joy and be successful in life.

¹²*constantly rejoicing in hope [because of our confidence in Christ], steadfast and patient in distress, devoted to prayer [continually seeking wisdom, guidance, and strength],*

POWERPOINT

Romans 12:16 convicted me until I finally reached a place of spiritual maturity where I was willing to do what it says. Are you willing to humble yourself and adjust to people and situations in order to live in harmony with others? Or can you be peaceful and pleasant only when you get your own way? These are straightforward questions, but I believe they are ones the Holy Spirit wants us to ask ourselves and answer honestly.

¹³contributing to the needs of God's people, pursuing [the practice of] hospitality.

¹⁴Bless those who persecute you [who cause you harm or hardship]; bless and do not curse [them]. [Matt 5:44; Luke 6:28]

¹⁵Rejoice with those who rejoice [sharing others' joy], and weep with those who weep [sharing others' grief].

¹⁶Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty [conceited, self-important, exclusive], but associate with humble people [those with a realistic self-view]. Do not overestimate yourself. [Prov 3:7]

¹⁷Never repay anyone evil for evil. Take thought for what is right and gracious and proper in the sight of everyone. [Prov 20:22]

¹⁸If possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone.

¹⁹Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave the way open for God's wrath [and His judicial righteousness]; for it is written [in Scripture], "VENGEANCE IS MINE, I WILL REPAY," says the Lord. [Deut 32:35]

²⁰"BUT IF YOUR ENEMY IS HUNGRY, FEED HIM; IF HE IS THIRSTY, GIVE HIM A DRINK; FOR BY DOING THIS YOU WILL HEAP BURNING COALS ON HIS HEAD." [Prov 25:21, 22]

²¹Do not be overcome and conquered by evil, but overcome evil with good.

13 LET EVERY person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God [granted by His permission and sanction], and those which exist have been put in place by God. [Prov 8:15]

²Therefore whoever resists [governmental] authority resists the ordinance of God. And those who have resisted it will bring judgment (civil penalty) on themselves.

³For [civil] authorities are not a source of fear for [people of] good behavior, but for [those who do] evil. Do you want to be unafraid of authority? Do what is good and you will receive approval and commendation.

⁴For he is God's servant to you for good. But if you do wrong, [you should] be afraid; for he does not carry the [executioner's] sword for nothing. He is God's servant, an avenger who brings punishment on the wrongdoer.

⁵Therefore one must be subject [to civil authorities], not only to escape the punishment [that comes with wrongdoing], but also as a matter of principle [knowing what is right before God].

⁶For this same reason you pay taxes, for civil authorities are God's servants, devoting themselves to governance.

⁷Pay to all what is due: tax to whom tax is due, customs to whom customs, respect to whom respect, honor to whom honor.

⁸Owe nothing to anyone except to love and seek the best for one another; for he who [unselfishly] loves his neighbor has fulfilled the [essence of the] law [relating to one's fellowman]. [Matt 22:36–40]

⁹The commandments, "YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY, YOU SHALL NOT MURDER, YOU SHALL NOT STEAL, YOU SHALL NOT COVET," and any other commandment are summed up in this statement: "YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF." [Ex 20:13–17; Lev 19:18]

¹⁰Love does no wrong to a neighbor [it never hurts anyone]. Therefore [unselfish] love is the fulfillment of the Law.

¹¹Do this, knowing that this is a critical time. It is already the hour for you to awaken from your sleep [of spiritual complacency]; for our salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed [in Christ].

¹²The night [this present evil age] is almost gone and the day [of Christ's return] is almost here. So let us fling away the works of darkness and put on the [full] armor of light.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Real Love

Some people think of love as a sensation—a wonderful feeling of excitement or gushy emotions that make us feel warm and cozy all over. While love can include wonderful feelings and powerful emotions, it's so much more than that.

Real love is a decision to unselfishly “seek the best for one another” (Rom. 13:8). Real love meets needs even when sacrifice is required in order to do so. The Bible makes this point in 1 John 3:18: “Let us not love [merely in theory] with word or with tongue [giving lip service to compassion], but in action and in truth [in practice and in sincerity, because practical acts of love are more than words].” Clearly, love moves us to take action—not just to theorize or talk. If we want to be like Jesus, we need to love others with the same kind of gracious, forgiving, generous, unconditional love He extends to us.

¹³Let us conduct ourselves properly and honorably as in the [light of] day, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and irresponsibility, not in quarreling and jealousy.

¹⁴But clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for [nor even think about gratifying] the flesh in regard to its improper desires.

14 AS FOR the one whose faith is weak, accept him [into your fellowship], but not for [the purpose of] quarreling over his opinions.

²One man's faith permits him to eat everything, while the weak believer eats only vegetables [to avoid eating ritually unclean meat or something previously considered unclean].

³The one who eats [everything] is not to look down on the one who does not eat, and the one who does not eat must not criticize or pass judgment on the one who eats [everything], for God has accepted him.

⁴Who are you to judge the servant of another? Before his own master he stands [approved] or falls [out of favor]. And he [who serves the Master—the Lord] will stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

⁵One person regards one day as better [or more important] than another, while another regards every day [the same as any other]. Let everyone be fully convinced (assured, satisfied) in his own mind.

⁶He who observes the day, observes it for the Lord. He who eats, eats for the Lord, since he gives thanks to God; while he who abstains, abstains for the Lord and gives thanks to God.

⁷None of us lives for himself [for his own benefit, but for the Lord], and none of us dies for himself [but for the Lord].

⁸If we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord. So then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

⁹For Christ died and lived again for this reason, that He might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

¹⁰But you, why do you criticize your brother? Or you again, why do you look down on your [believing] brother or regard him with contempt? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God [who alone is judge].

¹¹For it is written [in Scripture],

“AS I LIVE, SAYS THE LORD, EVERY KNEE SHALL BOW TO ME, AND EVERY TONGUE SHALL GIVE PRAISE TO GOD.” [Is 45:23]

¹²So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God.

¹³Then let us not criticize one another anymore, but rather determine this—not to put an obstacle or a stumbling block or a source of temptation in another believer’s way.

¹⁴I know and am convinced [as one] in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean [ritually defiled, and unholy] in itself; but [nonetheless] it is unclean to anyone who thinks it is unclean.

¹⁵If your brother is being hurt or offended because of food [that you insist on eating], you are no longer walking in love [toward him]. Do not let what you eat destroy and spiritually harm one for whom Christ died.

¹⁶Therefore do not let what is a good thing for you [because of your freedom to choose] be spoken of as evil [by someone else];

¹⁷for the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking [what one likes], but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

¹⁸For the one who serves Christ in this way [recognizing that food choice is secondary] is acceptable to God and is approved by men.

¹⁹So then, let us pursue [with enthusiasm] the things which make for peace and the building up of one another [things which lead to spiritual growth].

²⁰Do not, for the sake of food, tear down the work of God. All things indeed are [ceremonially] clean, but they are wrong for the person who eats and offends [another's conscience in the process].

²¹It is good [to do the right thing and] not eat meat or drink wine, or do anything that offends your brother and weakens him spiritually.

²²The faith which you have [that gives you freedom of choice], have as your own conviction before God [just keep it between yourself and God, seeking His will]. Happy is he who has no reason to condemn himself for what he approves.

²³But he who is uncertain [about eating a particular thing] is condemned if he eats, because he is not acting from faith. Whatever is not from faith is sin [whatever is done with doubt is sinful].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Focus on Jesus

The true meaning of God's Kingdom is not about getting things and having perfect circumstances. It is about seeking righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit (see Rom. 14:17). Focus on Jesus and living the life He wants for you. Pursue and go after the things that are the most meaningful, and you will find that He will provide the other things you want and need.

If we seek first God's Kingdom and His way of being and doing, He has promised to provide all other things (see Matt. 6:33). If we delight ourselves in Him, He will give us the secret petitions and desires of our heart (see Ps. 37:4). I urge you to be sure you are seeking the right things or you won't truly be able to enjoy anything. Seek God's Kingdom! Seek to know who you are in Christ, to walk in peace, and to enjoy every moment of your life.

15 NOW WE who are strong [in our convictions and faith] ought to [patiently] put up with the weaknesses of those who are not strong, and not just please ourselves.

²Let each one of us [make it a practice to] please his neighbor for his good, to build him up spiritually.

³For even Christ did not please Himself; but as it is written

[in Scripture], “THE REPROACHES OF THOSE WHO REPROACHED YOU (the Father) FELL ON ME (the Son).” [Ps 69:9]

⁴For whatever was written in earlier times was written for our instruction, so that through endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope and overflow with confidence in His promises.

⁵Now may the God who gives endurance and who supplies encouragement grant that you be of the same mind with one another according to Christ Jesus, ⁶so that with one accord you may with one voice glorify and praise and honor the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁷Therefore, [continue to] accept and welcome one another, just as Christ has accepted and welcomed us to the glory of [our great] God.

⁸For I tell you that Christ has become a servant and a minister to the circumcision (Jews) on behalf of God’s truth, to confirm and verify the promises made to the fathers, ⁹and for the Gentiles to glorify God for His mercy [to them, since God had no covenant with them]. As it is written and forever remains written,

“THEREFORE I PRAISE YOU AMONG THE GENTILES, AND SING PRAISES TO YOUR NAME.” [Ps 18:49]

¹⁰Again it says,

“REJOICE and CELEBRATE, O GENTILES, ALONG WITH HIS PEOPLE.” [Deut 32:43]

¹¹And again,

“PRAISE THE LORD ALL YOU GENTILES, AND LET ALL THE PEOPLES PRAISE HIM!” [Ps 117:1]

¹²Again Isaiah says,

“THERE SHALL BE A ROOT OF JESSE,
HE WHO ARISES TO RULE [as King] OVER THE GENTILES,

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, God of hope, for filling me with all joy and peace in believing, through the experience of my faith, that by the power of the Holy Spirit I may abound and overflow with confidence in Your promises.

• adapted from Romans 15:13

IN HIM SHALL THE GENTILES HOPE.” [Is 11:1, 10; Rev 5:5; 22:16]

¹³May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing [through the experience of your faith] that by the power of the Holy Spirit you will abound in hope and overflow with confidence in His promises.

¹⁴Personally I am convinced about you, my brothers and sisters, that you yourselves are full of goodness, amply filled with all [spiritual] knowledge, and competent to admonish and counsel and instruct one another.

¹⁵Still, on some points I have written to you very boldly and without reservation to remind you [about them] again, because of the grace that was given to me from God, ¹⁶to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles. I minister as a priest the gospel of God, in order that my offering of the Gentiles may become acceptable [to Him], sanctified [made holy and set apart for His purpose] by the Holy Spirit.

¹⁷In Christ Jesus, then, I have found [legitimate] reason for boasting in things related [to my service] to God.

¹⁸For I will not [even] presume to speak of anything except what Christ has done through me [as an instrument in His hands], resulting in the obedience of the Gentiles [to the gospel], by word and deed, ¹⁹with the power of signs and wonders, [and all of it] in the power of the Spirit. So [starting] from Jerusalem and as far away as Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel [faithfully preaching the good news] of Christ [where it had not before been preached].

²⁰Accordingly I set a goal to preach the gospel, not where Christ's name was already known, so that I would not build on another man's foundation;

²¹but [instead I would act on this goal] as it is written [in Scripture],

“THEY WHO HAD NO NEWS OF HIM SHALL SEE,
AND THEY WHO HAVE NOT HEARD [of Him] SHALL UNDERSTAND.” [Is 52:15]

²²This [goal—my commitment to this principle] is the reason why I have often been prevented from coming to you [in Rome].

²³But now, with no further place for work in these regions, and since I have longed for many years to come to you—

²⁴whenever I go [on my trip] to Spain—I hope to see you as I pass through [Rome], and to be helped on my journey there by you, after I have first enjoyed your company for a little while.

²⁵But for now, I am going to Jerusalem to serve the saints (Jewish believers).

²⁶For [Gentile believers in] Macedonia and Achaia have been pleased to make a contribution for the poor among the saints (Jewish believers) in Jerusalem.

²⁷They were pleased to do it, and they are indebted to them. For if the Gentiles have come to share in their spiritual things, then they are indebted to serve them also in [tangible] material things.

²⁸Therefore, when I have finished this [mission] and have safely given to them what has been raised, I will go on by way of you to Spain.

²⁹I know that when I do come to you, I will come in the abundant blessing of Christ.

³⁰I urge you, believers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to join together with me in your prayers to God in my behalf,

³¹[and pray] that I may be rescued from the unbelievers in Judea, and that my service for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints (Jewish believers) there;

³²so that by God's will I may come to you with joy and find rest in your company.

³³May the God of peace be with you all! Amen.

16 NOW I introduce and commend to you our sister Phoebe, a deaconess (servant) of the church at Cenchrea, ²that you may receive her in the Lord [with love and hospitality], as God's people ought to receive one another. And that you may help her in whatever matter she may require assistance from you, for she has been a helper of many, including myself.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Love Is a Decision

When Paul wrote to the church in Rome to receive Phoebe “in the Lord [with love and hospitality],” he specified that they were to “help her in whatever matter she may require assistance from you” (Rom. 16:2). Love is much more than a good feeling about someone. Love is displayed in how we treat people, not how we feel about them.

Love is a decision. When we are instructed to “put on and wrap yourselves in [unselfish] love” (Col. 3:14), it means we are to choose to love people. It is something we do on purpose, whether we feel like it or not. Part of walking in love is freely forgiving people. The Bible actually states that you cannot say you love God if you don’t love your brother and sister in Christ (see 1 John 4:20). If you want God’s will in your life, do things His way—love and forgive others.

³Greet Prisca and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus, ⁴who risked their own necks [endangering their very lives] for my life. To them not only do I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

⁵Also greet the church that meets in their house. Greet my beloved Epaphroditus, who is the first convert to Christ from [the west coast province of] Asia [Minor].

⁶Greet Mary, who has worked so hard for you.

⁷Greet Andronicus and Junias, my kinsmen and [once] my fellow prisoners, who are held in high esteem in the estimation of the apostles, and who were [believers] in Christ before me.

⁸Greet Ampliatus, my beloved in the Lord.

⁹Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and my beloved Stachys.

¹⁰Greet Apelles, the one tested and approved in Christ. Greet those who belong to the household of Aristobulus.

¹¹Greet my kinsman Herodion. Greet those of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord.

¹²Greet those workers in the Lord, Tryphaena and Tryphosa. Greet my beloved Persis, who has worked hard in the Lord.

¹³Greet Rufus, an eminent and choice man in the Lord, also his mother [who has been] a mother to me as well.

¹⁴Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers who are with them.

¹⁵Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympus, and all God's people who are with them.

¹⁶Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet you.

¹⁷I urge you, brothers and sisters, to keep your eyes on those who cause dissensions and create obstacles or introduce temptations [for others] to commit sin, [acting in ways] contrary to the doctrine which you have learned. Turn away from them.

¹⁸For such people do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites and base desires. By smooth and flattering speech they deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting [the innocent and the naive].

¹⁹For the report of your obedience has reached everyone, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise in what is good and innocent in what is evil.

²⁰The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet.
The [wonderful] grace of our Lord Jesus be with you.

²¹Timothy, my fellow worker, sends his greetings to you, as do Lucius, Jason and Sosipater, my kinsmen.

²²I, Tertius, the writer (scribe) of this letter, greet you in the Lord.

²³Gaius, who is host to me and to the whole church here, greets you. Erastus, the city treasurer, and our brother Quartus, greet you.

²⁵Now to Him who is able to establish and strengthen you [in the faith] according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery [of the plan of salvation] which has been kept secret for long ages past,

²⁶but now has been disclosed and through the prophetic Scriptures has been made known to all the nations, according to the commandment of the eternal God, leading them to obedience to the faith, ²⁷to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, be the glory forevermore! Amen.

1 Corinthians

Author: | Paul
Date: | About AD
55

First Corinthians is perhaps best known because of its thirteenth chapter, “The Love Chapter.” While understanding and applying that chapter to our lives is of the utmost importance, 1 Corinthians also addresses other significant issues for both spiritual life, such as being filled with the Holy Spirit and the exercise of spiritual gifts, and matters of practical, everyday living, such as how to take care of our physical bodies and how we should think about our finances.

First Corinthians can help us greatly as we endeavor to win the battle of the mind because it includes teaching and advice on our motives and behavior. When our thinking is right, it helps to purify our motives. Right motives lead to right behavior, and right behavior based on pure motives leads to a blessed life.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM 1 CORINTHIANS:

We cannot comprehend with our natural minds all the good things God has prepared for us, but God has revealed them through the Holy Spirit (see 1 Corinthians 2:9–10).

Learn to think the way Christ thinks by meditating on God's ways, His Word, and His works (see 1 Corinthians 2:15–16).

Complaining opens the door to the destroyer, so be positive and speak words of thanksgiving on purpose (see 1 Corinthians 10:10–11).

Love always believes the best of every person (see 1 Corinthians 13:7).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM 1 CORINTHIANS:

For the message of the cross is foolishness [absurd and illogical] to those who are perishing and spiritually dead [because they reject it], but to us who are being saved [by God's grace] it is [the manifestation of] the power of God. | 1 Corinthians 1:18

We have the mind of Christ [to be guided by His thoughts and purposes]. | 1 Corinthians 2:16

If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love [for others growing out of God's love for me], then I have become only a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal [just an annoying distraction] . | 1 Corinthians 13:1

Thanks be to God, who gives us the victory [as conquerors] through our Lord Jesus Christ. | 1 Corinthians 15:57

THE FIRST LETTER OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

1 PAUL, CALLED as an apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes, ²To the church of God in Corinth, to those sanctified (set apart, made holy) in Christ Jesus, who are selected and called as saints (God's people), together with all those who in every place call on and honor the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours:

³Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴I thank my God always for you because of the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus, ⁵so that in everything you were [exceedingly] enriched in Him, in all speech [empowered by the spiritual gifts] and in all knowledge [with insight into the faith].

⁶In this way our testimony about Christ was confirmed and established in you,

⁷so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift [which comes from the Holy Spirit], as you eagerly wait [with confident trust] for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ

[when He returns].

⁸And He will also confirm you to the end [keeping you strong and free of any accusation, so that you will be] blameless and beyond reproach in the day [of the return] of our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁹God is faithful [He is reliable, trustworthy and ever true to His promise—He can be depended on], and through Him you were called into fellowship with His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

¹⁰But I urge you, believers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in full agreement in what you say, and that there be no divisions or factions among you, but that you be perfectly united in your way of thinking and in your judgment [about matters of the faith].

¹¹For I have been informed about you, my brothers and sisters, by those of Chloe's household, that there are quarrels and factions among you.

¹²Now I mean this, that each one of you says, "I am [a disciple] of Paul," or "I am [a disciple] of Apollos," or "I am [a disciple] of Cephas (Peter)," or "I am [a disciple] of Christ."

¹³Has Christ been divided [into different parts]? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized into the name of Paul? [Certainly not!]

¹⁴I thank God that I did not baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius, [Acts 18:8; Rom 16:23]

¹⁵so that no one would say that you were baptized into my name.

¹⁶Now I also baptized the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know if I baptized anyone else.

¹⁷For Christ did not send me [as an apostle] to baptize, but [commissioned and empowered me] to preach the good news [of salvation]—not with clever and eloquent speech [as an orator], so that the cross of Christ would not be made ineffective [deprived of its saving power].

¹⁸For the message of the cross is foolishness [absurd and illogical] to those who are perishing and spiritually dead [because they reject it], but to us who are being saved [by God's grace] it is [the manifestation of] the power of God.

¹⁹For it is written and forever remains written,

“I WILL DESTROY THE WISDOM OF THE WISE [the philosophy of the philosophers],
AND THE CLEVERNESS OF THE CLEVER [who do not know Me]
I WILL NULLIFY.” [Is 29:14]

²⁰Where is the wise man (philosopher)? Where is the scribe (scholar)? Where is the debater (logician, orator) of this age? Has God not exposed the foolishness of this world's wisdom?

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Chose You

When you feel discouraged, remember that God has intentionally chosen you for His very own purpose, however unlikely a candidate you may feel you are. By doing so, He has placed before you a wide open door to show you His boundless grace, mercy, and power to change your life.

When God uses any one of us, though we may feel inadequate and unworthy at times, we can realize that our source is not in ourselves but in Him alone: “[This is] because the foolishness of God [is not foolishness at all and] is wiser than men [far beyond human comprehension], and the weakness of God is stronger than men [far beyond the limits of human effort]” (1 Cor. 1:25).

Each of us has a destiny, and there is no excuse not to fulfill it. We cannot use our weakness as an excuse, because God says that His strength is made perfect in weakness (see 2 Cor. 12:9). We cannot use the past as an excuse, because God has stated that if any person is in Christ, he is a new creature; old things have passed away, and all things have become new (see 2 Cor. 5:17).

Let me encourage you to take an inventory of how you feel about yourself. What is your image of yourself? Do you see yourself re-created in God's image, resurrected to a brand-new life that is just waiting for you to claim it? You can succeed at being everything God intends for you to be.

²¹For since the world through all its [earthly] wisdom failed to recognize God, God in His wisdom was well-pleased through the foolishness of the message preached [regarding salvation] to save those who believe [in Christ and welcome Him as Savior].

²²For Jews demand signs (attesting miracles), and Greeks pursue [worldly] wisdom and philosophy,

²³but we preach Christ crucified, [a message which is] to Jews a stumbling block [that provokes their opposition], and to Gentiles foolishness [just utter nonsense],

²⁴but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks (Gentiles), Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God. [Rom 8:28]

²⁶Just look at your own calling, believers; not many [of you were considered] wise according to human standards, not many powerful or influential, not many of high and noble birth.

²⁷But God has selected [for His purpose] the foolish things of the world to shame the wise [revealing their ignorance], and God has selected [for His purpose] the weak things of the world to shame the things which are strong [revealing their frailty].

²⁸God has selected [for His purpose] the insignificant (base) things of the world, and the things that are despised and treated with contempt, [even] the things that are nothing, so that He might reduce to nothing the things that are,

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Jesus, You are wisdom from God for me. You are righteousness, sanctification, and redemption. You reveal God's plan of salvation, and You make me acceptable to God. You make me holy and set apart for God, and You provide my ransom for the penalty of sin.

• adapted from 1 Corinthians 1:30

²⁹so that no one may [be able to] boast in the presence of God.

³⁰But it is from Him that you are in Christ Jesus, who became to us wisdom from God [revealing His plan of salvation], and righteousness [making us acceptable to God], and sanctification [making us holy and setting us apart for God], and redemption [providing our ransom from the penalty for sin],

³¹so then, as it is written [in Scripture], “HE WHO BOASTS and GLORIES, LET HIM BOAST and GLORY IN THE LORD.” [Jer 9:24]

2 AND WHEN I came to you, brothers and sisters, proclaiming to you the testimony of God [concerning salvation through Christ], I did not come with superiority of speech or of wisdom [no lofty words of eloquence or of philosophy as a Greek orator might do];

²for I made the decision to know nothing [that is, to forego philosophical or theological discussions regarding inconsequential things and opinions while] among you except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified [and the meaning of His redemptive, substitutionary death and His resurrection].

³I came to you in [a state of] weakness and fear and great trembling.

⁴And my message and my preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom [using clever rhetoric], but [they were delivered] in demonstration of the [Holy] Spirit [operating through me] and of [His] power [stirring the minds of the listeners and persuading them], ⁵so that your faith would not rest on the wisdom and rhetoric of men, but on the power of God.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

To Know Christ

When I read 1 Corinthians 2:2, I sense the passion in Paul's heart, and I feel sure that when he wrote these words he wrote them with strong emphasis. It was as though he was completely finished trying to understand everything, and he made a decisive choice to know nothing but Christ!

I believe that knowing Christ is the only way we can find peace with all the unanswered questions in life. Paul was a scholar, and discovering answers to questions had been part of his background for years. He was highly educated, but he learned to embrace childlike faith.

We know that God revealed Himself to Paul in a startling and undeniable way (see Acts 9:3–6), but as we all do, Paul eventually had to trust without sight or understanding. I don't mean we are to stop using our minds. God gave us the ability to think, and He expects us to use our minds, but we cannot find or know Him with our intellect. He is a mystery that exceeds the capacity of the human mind. We begin to grasp Who God is and what He means in our lives with the heart, by faith.

Speak God's Word

My eye has not seen and my ear has not heard, and it has not entered into my heart all that God has prepared for those who love Him, who hold Him in affectionate reverence, who obey Him, and who gratefully recognize the benefits that He has bestowed.

⁶Yet we do speak wisdom among those spiritually mature [believers who have teachable hearts and a greater understanding]; but [it is a higher] wisdom not [the wisdom] of this present age nor of the rulers and leaders of this age, who are passing away;

⁷but we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the wisdom once hidden [from man, but now revealed to us by God, that wisdom] which God predestined before the ages to our glory [to lift us into the glory of His presence].

⁸None of the rulers of this age recognized and understood this wisdom; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory;

⁹but just as it is written [in Scripture],

“THINGS WHICH THE EYE HAS NOT SEEN AND THE EAR HAS NOT HEARD,

AND WHICH HAVE NOT ENTERED THE HEART OF MAN,

ALL THAT GOD HAS PREPARED FOR THOSE WHO LOVE HIM [who hold Him in affectionate reverence, who obey Him, and who gratefully recognize the benefits that He has bestowed].” [Is 64:4; 65:17]

¹⁰For God has unveiled them and revealed them to us through the [Holy] Spirit; for the Spirit searches all things [diligently], even [sounding and measuring] the [profound] depths of God [the divine counsels and things far beyond human understanding].

Speak God's Word

I have the mind of Christ, to be guided by His thoughts and purposes.

| adapted from 1 CORINTHIANS
2:16 |

¹¹For what person knows the thoughts and motives of a man except the man's spirit within him? So also no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God.

¹²Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the [Holy] Spirit who is from God, so that we may know and understand the [wonderful] things freely given to us by God.

¹³We also speak of these things, not in words taught or supplied by human wisdom, but in those taught by the Spirit, combining and interpreting spiritual thoughts with spiritual words [for those being guided by the Holy Spirit].

¹⁴But the natural [unbelieving] man does not accept the things [the teachings and revelations] of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness [absurd and illogical] to him; and he is incapable of understanding them, because they are spiritually discerned and appreciated, [and he is unqualified to judge spiritual matters].

¹⁵But the spiritual man [the spiritually mature Christian] judges all things [questions, examines and applies what the Holy Spirit reveals], yet is himself judged by no one [the unbeliever cannot judge and understand the believer's spiritual nature].

¹⁶For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND and PURPOSES OF THE LORD, SO AS TO INSTRUCT HIM? But we have the mind of Christ [to be guided by His thoughts and purposes]. [Is 40:13]

3 HOWEVER, BROTHERS and sisters, I could not talk to you as to spiritual people, but [only] as to worldly people [dominated by human nature], mere infants [in the new life] in Christ!

²I fed you with milk, not solid food; for you were not yet able to receive it. Even now you are still not ready.

³You are still worldly [controlled by ordinary impulses, the sinful capacity]. For as long as there is jealousy and strife and discord among you, are you not unspiritual, and are you not walking like ordinary men [unchanged by faith]?

⁴For when one of you says, "I am [a disciple] of Paul," and another, "I am [a disciple] of Apollos," are you not [proving yourselves unchanged, just] ordinary people?

⁵What then is Apollos? And what is Paul? Just servants through whom you believed [in Christ], even as the Lord appointed to each his task.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

The Mind of Christ

Have you noticed that the condition of our mind changes? One moment we may be calm and peaceful, and the next moment a phone call brings anxiety and fear. Then as quickly as someone else reassures us that all is well, our mind shifts back to calmness, even joyfulness.

Sometimes when something alarms me, I find that it is easy to hear God speak and to believe Him without any difficulty. Yet at other times, worry and anxiety push their way into my mind. Second Corinthians 5:7 says we are to walk by faith and not by sight; when we worry, we are not walking in faith.

For years, I had a critical, suspicious, and judgmental mind. I worried and was anxious, and my mind was filled with reasoning. I had become a Christian, yet the same thinking and mind-set that I had known for years remained normal to me—it was just the way I was. No one had taught me about the proper condition for the believer's mind.

God offers us a new way to think and a new way to live. He has called us to renew our minds (see Rom. 12:2), which is an ongoing process. We don't learn to control our thinking all at one time.

What did Paul mean when he said "We have the mind of Christ" (1 Cor. 2:16)? It means we begin to think the way Christ thinks. If we have His mind, we think on those things that are good and honorable and loving. I encourage you to begin your journey of renewing your mind, and keep at it daily. Let's strive to think with the mind of Christ.

In 1 Corinthians 2:14, Paul wrote, "But the natural [unbelieving] man does not accept the things [the teachings and revelations] of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness [absurd and illogical] to him; and he is incapable of understanding them, because they are spiritually discerned and appreciated." We will never fully understand the things of God by exercising mental logic; we can only know Him as the Spirit of God reveals Him to our spirit. Our mind receives information, but our spirit can receive revelation!

Let's continually remind ourselves that we have Christ's mind—the ability to think loving and caring thoughts. We can defeat Satan's attacks.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Holy God, I want to live with the mind of Christ. I ask You to enable me to think positive, loving, caring thoughts about myself and about others. Help me to see and think on the good things in life and not the bad. In Jesus' name. Amen.

POWERPOINT

We know the Corinthian believers were physically able to think, hear, and speak, so what did Paul mean when he said, “I could not talk to you as to spiritual people” (1 Cor. 3:1)? He meant that they were carnal, not listening with their spiritual ears. Their conversation did not agree with God’s Word. If we want to walk with God, it’s necessary for us to agree with the way God thinks and the way He speaks.

⁶I planted, Apollos watered, but God [all the while] was causing the growth.

⁷So neither is the one who plants nor the one who waters anything, but [only] God who causes the growth.

⁸He who plants and he who waters are one [in importance and esteem, working toward the same purpose]; but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor.

⁹For we are God's fellow workers [His servants working together]; you are God's cultivated field [His garden, His vineyard], God's building. [Is 61:3]

¹⁰According to the [remarkable] grace of God which was given to me [to prepare me for my task], like a skillful master builder I laid a foundation, and now another is building on it. But each one must be careful how he builds on it, ¹¹for no one can lay a foundation other than the one which is [already] laid, which is Jesus Christ.

¹²But if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw,

¹³each one's work will be clearly shown [for what it is]; for the day [of judgment] will disclose it, because it is to be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality and character and worth of each person's work. [2 Cor 5:10]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Living Temples

Under the Old Covenant, the temple was the house of God, the place of prayer for His people, the children of Israel. No expense was spared to beautify the temple where the people came to worship the Lord their God. In 1 Kings 6, we have a description of Solomon's temple, which contained the ark of the covenant, God's pledge of His presence.

Under the New Covenant, the apostle Paul instructs us that God's presence is now a mystery revealed, which is Christ in us, "the hope and guarantee of [realizing the] glory" (Col. 1:27). Because of the union we now have in Christ, we are God's living temple (see 1 Cor. 3:16). We are indwelt by the Holy Spirit (collectively and individually), a building still under construction, but nonetheless His house, His tabernacle. This is why Paul goes to great length to tell us to live a holy life. We (the Church) are the temple of the living God.

While the children of Israel had to go to a specific place to offer their worship with detailed instructions, we now have the incredible privilege of worshiping God anywhere and at any time. Therefore, we can be called a house of prayer. We become the sanctuary of God because of the presence of the Holy One in us.

¹⁴If any person's work which he has built [on this foundation, that is, any outcome of his effort] remains [and survives this test], he will receive a reward.

¹⁵But if any person's work is burned up [by the test], he will suffer the loss [of his reward]; yet he himself will be saved, but only as [one who has barely escaped] through fire. [Job 23:10]

¹⁶Do you not know and understand that you [the church] are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells [permanently] in you [collectively and individually]?

¹⁷If anyone destroys the temple of God [corrupting it with false doctrine], God will destroy the destroyer; for the temple of God is holy (sacred), and that is what you are.

¹⁸Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks that he is wise in this age, let him become a fool [discarding his worldly pretensions and acknowledging his lack of wisdom], so that he may become [truly] wise. [Is 5:21]

¹⁹For the wisdom of this world is foolishness (absurdity, stupidity) before God; for it is written [in Scripture], "[He is] THE ONE WHO CATCHES THE WISE and CLEVER IN THEIR CRAFTINESS;" [Job 5:13]

²⁰and again, "THE LORD KNOWS THE THOUGHTS of the [humanly] wise, THAT THEY ARE USELESS." [Ps 94:11]

²¹So let no one boast in men [about their wisdom, or of having this or that one as a leader]. For all things are yours,

²²whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas (Peter) or the world or life or death or things present or things to come; all things are yours, ²³and you belong to Christ; and Christ belongs to God.

4 SO THEN, let us [who minister] be regarded as servants of Christ and stewards (trustees, administrators) of the mysteries of God [that He chooses to reveal].

²In this case, moreover, it is required [as essential and demanded] of stewards that one be found faithful and trustworthy.

³But [as for me personally] it matters very little to me that I may be judged by you or any human court [on this point]; in fact, I do not even judge myself.

⁴I am aware of nothing against myself and I feel blameless, but I am not by this acquitted [before God]. It is the Lord who judges me.

⁵So do not go on passing judgment before the appointed time, but wait until the Lord comes, for He will both bring to light the [secret] things that are hidden in darkness and disclose the motives of the hearts. Then each one's praise will come from God.

⁶Now I have applied these things [that is, the analogies about factions] to myself and Apollos for your benefit, believers, so that you may learn from us not to go beyond what is written [in Scripture], so that none of you will become arrogant and boast in favor of one [minister or teacher] against the other.

⁷For who regards you as superior or what sets you apart as special? What do you have that you did not receive [from another]? And if in fact you received it [from God or someone else], why do you boast as if you had not received it [but had gained it by yourself]?

⁸[You behave as if] you are already filled [with spiritual wisdom and in need of nothing more]. Already you have become rich [in spiritual gifts]! You [in your conceit] have ascended your thrones and become kings without us; and how I wish [that it were true and] that you did reign as kings, so that we might reign with you.

⁹For, I think, God has exhibited us apostles at the end of the line, like men sentenced to death [and paraded as prisoners in a procession], because we have become a spectacle to the world [a show in the world's amphitheater], both to angels and to men.

¹⁰We are [regarded as] fools for Christ, but you are so wise in Christ; we are weak, but you are strong; you are highly esteemed, but we are dishonored.

¹¹To this present hour we are both hungry and thirsty; we are continually poorly dressed, and we are roughly treated, and wander homeless.

¹²We work [for our living], working hard with our own hands. When we are reviled and verbally abused, we bless. When we are persecuted, we take it patiently and endure.

¹³When we are slandered, we try to be conciliatory and answer softly. We have become like the scum of the world, the dregs of all things, even until now.

¹⁴I do not write these things to shame you, but to warn and advise you as my beloved children.

¹⁵For even if you were to have ten thousand teachers [to guide you] in Christ, yet you would not have many fathers

[who led you to Christ and assumed responsibility for you], for I became your father in Christ Jesus through the good news [of salvation].

¹⁶So I urge you, be imitators of me [just as a child imitates his father].

¹⁷For this reason I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, and he will remind you of my way of life in Christ [my conduct and my precepts for godly living], just as I teach everywhere in every church.

¹⁸Now some of you have become arrogant and pretentious, as though I were not coming to see you.

¹⁹But I will come to you soon, if the Lord is willing, and I will find out not just the talk of these arrogant people, but [evaluate] their [spiritual] power [whether they live up to their own claims].

²⁰For the kingdom of God is not based on talk but on power.

²¹Which do you prefer? Shall I come to you with a rod [of discipline and correction], or with love and a gentle spirit?

5 IT IS actually reported [everywhere] that there is sexual immorality among you, a kind of immorality that is condemned even among the [unbelieving] Gentiles: that someone has [an intimate relationship with] his father's wife. [Deut 22:30; 27:20]

²And you are proud and arrogant! You should have mourned in shame so that the man who has done this [disgraceful] thing would be removed from your fellowship!

³For I, though absent [from you] in body but present in spirit, have already passed judgment on him who has committed this [act], as if I were present.

⁴In the name of our Lord Jesus, when you are assembled, and I am with you in spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus, ⁵you are to hand over this man to Satan for the destruction of his body, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Speak God's Word

I will be very careful about who I spend time with and who I become close friends with. I won't listen to gossip, or be closely associated with people who are sexually immoral, greedy, or devoted to anything that takes the place of God.

| adapted from 1 CORINTHIANS

5:10–11 |

⁶Your boasting [over the supposed spirituality of your church] is not good [indeed, it is vulgar and inappropriate]. Do you not know that [just] a little leaven ferments the whole batch [of dough, just as a little sin corrupts a person or an entire church]?

⁷Clean out the old leaven so that you may be a new batch, just as you are, still unleavened. For Christ our Passover Lamb has been sacrificed.

⁸Therefore, let us celebrate the feast, not with old leaven, nor with leaven of vice and malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and [untainted] truth. [Ex

12:19; 13:7; Deut 16:3]

⁹I wrote you in my [previous] letter not to associate with [sexually] immoral people—

¹⁰not meaning the immoral people of this world, or the greedy ones and swindlers, or idolaters, for then you would have to get out of the world and human society altogether!

¹¹But actually, I have written to you not to associate with any so-called [Christian] brother if he is sexually immoral or greedy, or is an idolater [devoted to anything that takes the place of God], or is a reviler [who insults or slanders or otherwise verbally abuses others], or is a drunkard or a swindler—you must not so much as eat with such a person. [2 Thess 3:6]

¹²For what business is it of mine to judge outsiders (non-believers)? Do you not judge those who are within the church [to protect the church as the situation requires]?

¹³God alone sits in judgment on those who are outside [the faith]. REMOVE THE WICKED ONE FROM AMONG YOU [expel him from your church]. [Deut 17:7]

6 DOES ANY one of you, when he has a complaint (civil dispute) with another [believer], dare to go to law before unrighteous men (non-believers) instead of [placing the issue] before the saints (God's people)?

²Do you not know that the saints (God's people) will [one day] judge the world? If the world is to be judged by you, are you not competent to try trivial (insignificant, petty) cases?

³Do you not know that we [believers] will judge angels?

How much more then [as to] matters of this life?

⁴So if you have lawsuits dealing with matters of this life, are you appointing those as judges [to hear disputes] who are of no account in the church?

⁵I say this to your shame. Can it be that there is not one wise man among you who [is governed by integrity and] will be able and competent to decide [private disputes] between his fellow believers,

⁷Why, the very fact that you have lawsuits with one another is already a defeat. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded?

⁸On the contrary, it is you who wrong and defraud, and you do this even to your brothers and sisters.

⁹Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit or have any share in the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate [by perversion], nor those who participate in homosexuality, ¹⁰nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers [whose words are used as weapons to abuse, insult, humiliate, intimidate, or slander], nor swindlers will inherit or have any share in the kingdom of God.

¹¹And such were some of you [before you believed]. But you were washed [by the atoning sacrifice of Christ], you were sanctified [set apart for God, and made holy], you were justified [declared free of guilt] in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the [Holy] Spirit of our God [the source of the believer's new life and changed behavior].

¹²Everything is permissible for me, but not all things are beneficial. Everything is permissible for me, but I will not be enslaved by anything [and brought under its power, allowing it to control me].

Speak God's Word

I don't give food a place in my life that is out of balance, because God's Word says, "Food is for the stomach and the stomach for food, but God will do away with both of them." I don't get involved in sexual immorality because God says, "The body is not intended for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body [to save, sanctify, and raise it again because of the sacrifice of the cross]."

| adapted from 1 CORINTHIANS
6:13 |

¹³Food is for the stomach and the stomach for food, but God will do away with both of them. The body is not intended for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body [to save, sanctify, and raise it again because of the sacrifice of the cross].

¹⁴And God has not only raised the Lord [to life], but will also raise us up by His power.

¹⁵Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Am I therefore to take the members of Christ and make them part of a prostitute? Certainly not!

¹⁶Do you not know that the one who joins himself to a prostitute is one body with her? For He says, “THE TWO SHALL BE ONE FLESH.” [Gen 2:24]

¹⁷But the one who is united and joined to the Lord is one spirit with Him.

¹⁸Run away from sexual immorality [in any form, whether thought or behavior, whether visual or written]. Every other sin that a man commits is outside the body, but the one who is sexually immoral sins against his own body.

Speak God's Word

My body is a temple of the Holy Spirit Who is within me, Whom I have received as a gift from God. I am not my own, but I was bought with a price. I was actually purchased with the precious blood of Jesus and made His own. So then, I honor and glorify God with my body.

| adapted from 1 CORINTHIANS
6:19–20 |

POWERPOINT

Our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit (see 1 Cor. 6:19–20) and we need to think of them that way—as the place where God’s Spirit dwells in us. One way we can love and honor God is to be good stewards of the health He has given us.

God has a special plan and destiny for each of us, an assignment only we can fulfill. To fulfill His call, we need to be as strong and healthy as possible, with our bodies in the best possible shape.

¹⁹Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is within you, whom you have [received as a gift] from God, and that you are not your own [property]?

²⁰You were bought with a price [you were actually purchased with the precious blood of Jesus and made His own]. So then, honor and glorify God with your body.

1 NOW AS to the matters of which you wrote: It is good (beneficial, advantageous) for a man not to touch a woman [outside marriage].

²But because of [the temptation to participate in] sexual immorality, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband.

³The husband must fulfill his [marital] duty to his wife [with good will and kindness], and likewise the wife to her husband.

⁴The wife does not have [exclusive] authority over her own body, but the husband shares with her; and likewise the husband does not have [exclusive] authority over his body, but the wife shares with him.

⁵Do not deprive each other [of marital rights], except perhaps by mutual consent for a time, so that you may devote yourselves [unhindered] to prayer, but come together again so that Satan will not tempt you [to sin] because of your lack of self-control.

⁶But I am saying this as a concession, not as a command.

⁷I wish that all the people were as I am; but each person has his own gift from God, one of this kind and one of that.

⁸But I say to the unmarried and to the widows, [that as a practical matter] it is good if they remain [single and entirely devoted to the Lord] as I am.

⁹But if they do not have [sufficient] self-control, they should marry; for it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

¹⁰But to the married [believers] I give instructions—not I, but the Lord—that the wife is not to separate from her husband, ¹¹(but even if she does leave him, let her remain single or else be reconciled to her husband) and that the husband should not leave his wife.

¹²To the rest I declare—I, not the Lord [since Jesus did not discuss this]—that if any [believing] brother has a wife who does not believe [in Christ], and she consents to live with him, he must not leave her.

¹³And if any [believing] woman has an unbelieving husband, and he consents to live with her, she must not leave him.

¹⁴For the unbelieving husband is sanctified [that is, he receives the blessings granted] through his [Christian] wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through her believing husband. Otherwise your children would be [ceremonially] unclean, but as it is they are holy.

¹⁵But if the unbelieving partner leaves, let him leave. In such cases the [remaining] brother or sister is not [spiritually or morally] bound. But God has called us to peace.

¹⁶For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband [by leading him to Christ]? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife [by leading her to Christ]?

¹⁷Only, let each one live the life which the Lord has assigned him, and to which God has called him [for each person is unique and is accountable for his choices and conduct, let him walk in this way]. This is the rule I make in all the churches.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Gives Wisdom

Knowledge is valuable, but if we depend on it more than we depend on God, we can become prideful about all we think we know. Education is important, but those who are not able to obtain much of it are not disqualified from being used by God. The world gives us education, but God gives us wisdom!

Rather than focusing excessively on education, let's focus on walking in love because that is the greatest command we find in God's Word. People are not likely to remember you because you were highly educated and could tell them a lot of the things you knew; but they will remember if you showed them love and made them feel good by doing so.

¹⁸Was anyone at the time of his calling [from God already] circumcised? He is not to become uncircumcised. Has anyone been called while uncircumcised? He is not to be circumcised. [Gal 5:1–3]

¹⁹Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but what matters is keeping the commandments of God.

²⁰Each one should remain in the condition in which he was [when he was] called.

²¹Were you a slave when you were called? Do not worry about that [since your status as a believer is equal to that of a freeborn believer]; but if you are able to gain your freedom, do that.

²²For he who was a slave when he was called in the Lord is a freedman of the Lord, likewise he who was free when he was called is a slave of Christ.

²³You were bought with a price [a precious price paid by Christ]; do not become slaves to men [but to Christ].

²⁴Brothers, let each one remain with God in that condition in which he was [when he was] called.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that You have bought me with a price, a precious price paid by Christ. I will not become a slave to other people, but will be a servant of Christ.

• adapted from 1 Corinthians 7:23

²⁵Now concerning the virgins [of marriageable age] I have no command of the Lord, but I give my opinion as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy.

²⁶I think then that because of the impending distress [that is, the pressure of the current trouble], it is good for a man to remain as he is.

²⁷Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are you unmarried? Do not seek a wife.

²⁸But if you do marry, you have not sinned [in doing so]; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned [in doing so]. Yet those [who marry] will have troubles (special challenges) in this life, and I am trying to spare you that.

²⁹But I say this, believers: the time has been shortened, so that from now on even those who have wives should be as though they did not;

³⁰and those who weep, as though they did not weep; and those who rejoice, as though they did not rejoice; and those who buy, as though they did not possess [anything];

³¹and those who use the world [taking advantage of its opportunities], as though they did not make full use of it. For the outward form of this world [its present social and material nature] is passing away.

³²But I want you to be free from concern. The unmarried man is concerned about the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord;

³³but the married man is concerned about worldly things, how he may please his wife, ³⁴and his interests are divided. The unmarried woman or the virgin is concerned about the matters of the Lord, how to be holy and set apart both in body and in spirit; but a married woman is concerned about worldly things, how she may please her husband.

³⁵Now I say this for your own benefit; not to restrict you, but to promote what is appropriate and secure undistracted devotion to the Lord.

³⁶But if any man thinks that he is not acting properly and honorably toward his virgin daughter; [by not permitting her to marry], if she is past her youth, and it must be so, let him do as he wishes, he does not sin; let her marry.

³⁷But the man who stands firmly committed in his heart, having no compulsion [to yield to his daughter's request], and has authority over his own will, and has decided in his own heart to keep his own virgin [daughter from being married], he will do well.

³⁸So then both the father who gives his virgin daughter in marriage does well, and he who does not give her in marriage will do better.

³⁹A wife is bound [to her husband by law] as long as he lives. But if her husband dies, she is free to marry whomever she wishes, only [provided that he too is] in the Lord.

⁴⁰But in my opinion a widow is happier if she stays as she is. And I think that I also have the Spirit of God [in this matter].

8 NOW ABOUT food sacrificed to idols, we know that we all have knowledge [concerning this]. Knowledge [alone] makes [people self-righteously] arrogant, but love [that unselfishly seeks the best for others] builds up and encourages others to grow [in wisdom].

²If anyone imagines that he knows and understands anything [of divine matters, without love], he has not yet known as he ought to know.

³But if anyone loves God [with awe-filled reverence, obedience and gratitude], he is known by Him [as His very own and is greatly loved].

⁴In this matter, then, of eating food offered to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world [it has no real existence], and that there is no God but one. [Deut 6:4]

⁵For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth, as indeed there are many gods and many lords,

⁶yet for us there is but one God, the Father, who is the source of all things, and we exist for Him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, by whom are all things [that have been created], and we [believers exist and have life and have been redeemed] through Him. [Mal 2:10]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

You Are Loved

Love—knowing you are loved—is what every person wants. Every person wants to feel valuable. Every person wants to feel that he or she matters.

Guess what? God loves you unconditionally. He doesn't love you because of anything you do or don't do; God just loves you (see 1 Cor. 8:3). You can't buy His love, but you should receive it as a wonderful gift from Him. Nothing can separate you from the love of God (see Rom. 8:38–39).

You were created by the hand of God, on purpose, and you are an unrepeatable miracle. There is nobody else exactly like you. There will never be anyone else exactly like you. And God has an amazingly wonderful plan for your life.

⁷However, not all [believers] have this knowledge. But some, being accustomed [throughout their lives] to [thinking of] the idol until now [as real and living], still eat food as if it were sacrificed to an idol; and because their conscience is weak, it is defiled (guilty, ashamed).

⁸Now food will not commend us to God nor bring us close to Him; we are no worse off if we do not eat, nor are we better if we do eat.

⁹Only be careful that this liberty of yours [this power to choose] does not somehow become a stumbling block [that is, a temptation to sin] to the weak [in conscience].

¹⁰For if someone sees you, a person having knowledge, eating in an idol's temple, then if he is weak, will he not be encouraged to eat things sacrificed to idols [and violate his own convictions]?

¹¹For through your knowledge (spiritual maturity) this weak man is ruined [that is, he suffers in his spiritual life], the brother for whom Christ died.

¹²And when you sin against the brothers and sisters in this way and wound their weak conscience [by confusing them], you sin against Christ.

¹³Therefore, if [my eating a certain] food causes my brother to stumble (sin), I will not eat [such] meat ever again, so that I will not cause my brother to stumble.

9 AM I not free [unrestrained and exempt from any obligation]? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our [risen] Lord [in person]? Are you not [the result and proof of] my work in the Lord?

²If I am not [considered] an apostle to others, at least I am one to you; for you are the seal and the certificate and the living evidence of my apostleship in the Lord [confirming and authenticating it].

³This is my defense to those who would put me on trial and interrogate me [concerning my authority as an apostle]:

⁴Have we not the right to our food and drink [at the expense of the churches]?

⁵Have we not the right to take along with us a believing wife, as do the rest of the apostles and the Lord's brothers and Cephas (Peter)?

⁶Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no right to stop doing manual labor [in order to support our ministry]?

⁸Do I say these things only from a man's perspective? Does the Law not endorse the same principles?

⁹For it is written in the Law of Moses, "YOU SHALL NOT MUZZLE AN OX WHILE IT IS TREADING OUT THE GRAIN [to keep it from eating the grain]." Is it [only] for oxen that God cares? [Deut 25:4]

¹⁰Or does He speak entirely for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake: The plowman ought to plow in hope, and the thresher to thresh in hope of sharing the harvest.

¹¹If we have sown [the good seed of] spiritual things in you, is it too much if we reap material things from you?

¹²If others share in this rightful claim over you, do not we even more? However, we did not exercise this right, but we put up with everything so that we will not hinder [the spread of] the good news of Christ.

¹³Do you not know that those who officiate in the sacred services of the temple eat from the temple [offerings of meat and bread] and those who regularly attend the altar have their share from the [offerings brought to the] altar? [Deut 18:1]

¹⁴So also [on the same principle] the Lord directed those who preach the gospel to get their living from the gospel.

¹⁵But I have used none of these privileges, nor am I writing this [to suggest] that any such provision be made for me now. For it would be better for me to die than to have anyone deprive me of my boast [in this matter of financial support].

¹⁶For if I [merely] preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast about, for I am compelled [that is, absolutely obligated to do it]. Woe to me if I do not preach the good news [of salvation]!

¹⁷For if I do this work of my own free will, then I have a reward; but if it is not of my will [but by God's choosing], I have been entrusted with a [sacred] stewardship.

¹⁸What then is my reward? [Just this:] that, when I preach the gospel, I may offer the gospel without charge [to everyone], so as not to take advantage of my rights [as a preacher and apostle] in [preaching] the gospel.

POWERPOINT

If we think of reaching our goals as a runner running a race to win (see 1 Cor. 9:24), we need to understand that each runner has his own style. To me, that means we need to be ourselves and not try to copy someone else. We must follow

God as He leads us individually. He has created each of us uniquely, and He does not lead everyone the same way. To win your race, run the way God leads you.

¹⁹For though I am free from all men, I have made myself a slave to everyone, so that I may win more [for Christ].

²⁰To the Jews I became as a Jew, so that I might win Jews [for Christ]; to men under the Law, [I became] as one under the Law, though not being under the Law myself, so that I might win those who are under the Law.

²¹To those who are without (outside) the Law, [I became] as one without the Law, though [I am] not without the law of God, but under the law of Christ, so that I might win those who are without law.

²²To the weak I became [as the] weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all men, so that I may by all means [in any and every way] save some [by leading them to faith in Jesus Christ].

²³And I do all this for the sake of the gospel, so that I may share in its blessings along with you.

²⁴Do you not know that in a race all the runners run [their very best to win], but only one receives the prize? Run [your race] in such a way that you may seize the prize and make it yours!

²⁵Now every athlete who [goes into training and] competes in the games is disciplined and exercises self-control in all things. They do it to win a crown that withers, but we [do it to receive] an imperishable [crown that cannot wither].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Importance of Discipline

Second Timothy 1:7 says that God has given us a spirit “of power and of love and of sound judgment and personal discipline.” Translated from the Greek language, the word discipline means “saving the mind or to be safe; an admonishment or calling to soundness of mind or to self-control.” In other words, a person who is thinking properly with soundness of mind will have discipline in all areas of his or her life. I believe that the apostle Paul’s personal discipline, including the discipline of his body, is one of the key reasons he was able to fulfill God’s plan for him (see 1 Cor. 9:27).

Our thoughts, words, and emotions are among the most important areas where we need to exercise discipline. A disciplined person will maintain the correct mental attitude toward issues that arise. Though difficult, it is much easier to maintain a right attitude than to regain it once it’s lost. Let me say it once again: It is much easier to maintain a right attitude than to regain it once it’s lost.

²⁶Therefore I do not run without a definite goal; I do not flail around like one beating the air [just shadow boxing].

²⁷But [like a boxer] I strictly discipline my body and make it my slave, so that, after I have preached [the gospel] to others, I myself will not somehow be disqualified [as unfit for service].

10 FOR I do not want you to be unaware, believers, that our fathers were all under the cloud [in which God's presence went before them] and they all passed [miraculously and safely] through the [Red] Sea; [Ex 13:21; 14:22, 29]

²And all [of them] were baptized into Moses [into his safekeeping as their leader] in the cloud and in the sea;

³and all [of them] ate the same spiritual food; [Ex 16:4, 35]

⁴and all [of them] drank the same spiritual drink, for they were drinking from a spiritual rock which followed them; and the rock was Christ. [Ex 17:6; Num 20:11]

⁵Nevertheless, God was not well-pleased with most of them, for they were scattered along the ground in the wilderness [because their lack of self-control led to disobedience which led to death]. [Num 14:29, 30]

⁶Now these things [the warnings and admonitions] took place as examples for us, so that we would not crave evil things as they did. [Num 11:4, 34]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

From Disappointed to Reappointed

We all have been disappointed at one time or another. It would be surprising if we went through a month without encountering some kind of disappointment. We are “appointed” (set in a certain direction) for something to happen a certain way, and when it doesn’t happen that way, we become “disappointed.”

Disappointment not dealt with turns into discouragement. If we stay discouraged for very long, we are liable to become devastated, and devastation leaves us unable to handle anything.

Many devastated Christians are lying along the roadside of life because they have not learned how to handle disappointment. The devastation they are experiencing now may have begun with a minor disappointment that was not dealt with properly.

It is not God’s will for us to live disappointed, devastated, or oppressed! When we become “disappointed,” we can learn to become “re-appointed” to keep from becoming discouraged, then devastated.

When we learn to place our hope and confidence in Jesus the Rock (see 1 Cor. 10:4) and resist the devil at the onset, we can live in the joy and peace of the Lord, free from discouragement. Happiness and joy do not come from the outside. They come from within. They are a conscious decision, a deliberate choice, one that we make ourselves each day we live.

Choose to steadfastly withstand the devil's temptation to let disappointment defeat you, and press on to live in the fullness of the life God has provided for you through His Son Jesus Christ.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

There's Always a Way Out

Years ago, a comedian's favorite punch line was, "The devil made me do it." Audiences laughed every time because they knew how often they'd given in to temptation, and it's always easy to blame someone else or circumstances for our actions and problems. But in our hearts we know it is wrong to use excuses or blame others as a reason to stay in bondage. Christ came to set us free!

The apostle Paul makes clear that "no temptation [regardless of its source] has overtaken or enticed you that is not common to human experience [nor is any temptation unusual or beyond human resistance]; but God is faithful [to His word—He is compassionate and trustworthy], and He will not let you be tempted beyond your ability [to resist], but along with the temptation He [has in the past and is now and] will [always] provide the way out as well, so that you will be able to endure it [without yielding, and will overcome temptation with joy]" (1 Cor. 10:13).

Satan takes our circumstances and uses them to build strongholds in our minds and lives. He will use whatever he can—our sense of weakness, our problems from childhood, or the wrong things we did in our past. If the devil can darken our minds—make us think we can't possibly overcome or win—we've lost.

One more thing: When we give in to the temptation, aren't we subtly saying that God is not able to help us? We need to stop shifting blame or ignoring situations and take full responsibility for our actions or inactions. We can believe that God is faithful and will always deliver us in plenty of time. We can develop a "can do" attitude that says, "God will not let me be tempted beyond my ability to resist." That's God's promise, and He lays His reputation on the line with those words. God never abandons us or leaves us helpless.

Our problems are usually internal. They involve our thoughts and our attitudes. The results—our outward behavior—flow from those thoughts and attitudes. If we keep our mind turned toward Jesus, and if we listen to His voice, we'll find He leads us to a safe landing place—always.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Father God, forgive me for blaming You for my circumstances or blaming other people for my failures. You provide a way of escape in every temptation. Thank You! Amen.

Speak God's Word

No temptation has overtaken or enticed me that is not common to human experience or beyond human resistance; but God is faithful to His word—He is compassionate and trustworthy, and He will not let me be tempted beyond my ability to resist. Along with the temptation, He will always provide the way out as well, so that I will be able to endure it without yielding, and will overcome temptation with joy.

| adapted from 1 CORINTHIANS
10:13 |

⁷Do not be worshipers of handmade gods, as some of them were; just as it is written [in Scripture], “THE PEOPLE SAT DOWN TO EAT AND DRINK [after sacrificing to the golden calf at Horeb], AND STOOD UP TO PLAY [indulging in immoral activities].” [Ex 32:6]

⁸We must not indulge in [nor tolerate] sexual immorality, as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand [suddenly] fell [dead] in a single day! [Num 25:1–18]

⁹We must not tempt the Lord [that is, test His patience, question His purpose or exploit His goodness], as some of them did—and they were killed by serpents. [Num 21:5, 6]

¹⁰And do not murmur [in unwarranted discontent], as some of them did—and were destroyed by the destroyer. [Num 16:41, 49]

¹¹Now these things happened to them as an example and warning [to us]; they were written for our instruction [to admonish and equip us], upon whom the ends of the ages have come.

¹²Therefore let the one who thinks he stands firm [immune to temptation, being overconfident and self-righteous], take care that he does not fall [into sin and condemnation].

¹³No temptation [regardless of its source] has overtaken or enticed you that is not common to human experience [nor is any temptation unusual or beyond human resistance]; but God is faithful [to His word—He is compassionate and trustworthy], and He will not let you be tempted beyond your ability [to resist], but along with the temptation He [has in the past and is now and] will [always] provide the way out as well, so that you will be able to endure it [without yielding, and will overcome temptation with joy].

¹⁴Therefore, my beloved, run [keep far, far away] from [any sort of] idolatry [and that includes loving anything more than God, or participating in anything that leads to sin and enslaves the soul].

¹⁵I am speaking as to wise and sensible people; judge [carefully and thoughtfully consider] for yourselves what I say.

¹⁶Is the cup of blessing which we bless [at the Lord's Supper] not a sharing in the blood of Christ? [Indeed it is.] Is the bread which we break not a sharing in the body of Christ? [Indeed it is.]

¹⁷Since there is one bread, we [believers] who are many are [united into] one body; for we all partake of the one bread [which represents the body of Christ].

¹⁸Consider the people of Israel; are those who eat the sacrifices not partners of the altar [united in their worship of the same God]? [Indeed they are.] [Lev 7:6]

¹⁹What do I mean then? That a thing offered to idols is anything [special or changed simply because it is offered], or that an idol is anything?

²⁰On the contrary, the things which the Gentiles (pagans) sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons [in effect], and not to God; and I do not want you to become partners with demons [by eating at feasts in pagan temples]. [Deut 32:17]

²¹You cannot drink [both] the Lord's cup and the cup of demons. You cannot share in both the Lord's table and the table of demons [thereby becoming partners with them].

²²Do we [really] provoke the Lord to jealousy [when we eat food sacrificed to handmade "gods" at pagan feasts]? Are we [spiritually] stronger than He? [Certainly not! He knows that the idols are nothing. But we deeply offend Him.] [Deut 32:21; Eccl 6:10; Is 45:9]

²³All things are lawful [that is, morally legitimate, permissible], but not all things are beneficial or advantageous.

All things are lawful, but not all things are constructive [to character] and edifying [to spiritual life].

²⁴Let no one seek [only] his own good, but [also] that of the other person.

²⁵[Regarding meat offered to idols:] Eat anything that is sold in the meat market without asking any questions for the sake of your conscience,

²⁶FOR THE [whole] EARTH IS THE LORD'S, AND EVERYTHING THAT IS IN IT. [Ps 24:1; 50:12]

²⁷If one of the unbelievers invites you [to a meal at his home] and you want to go, eat whatever is served to you without asking questions [about its source] for the sake of your conscience.

²⁸But if anyone says to you, "This meat has been offered in sacrifice to an idol," do not eat it, out of consideration for the one who told you, and for conscience's sake—

²⁹and by conscience I mean for the sake of the other man's, not yours. For why is my freedom [of choice] judged by another's conscience [another's ethics—another's sense of right and wrong]?

³⁰If I take my share [of food] with thankfulness, why am I accused because of something for which I give thanks?

³¹So then, whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do all to the glory of [our great] God.

³²Do not offend Jews or Greeks or even the church of God [but live to honor Him];

³³just as I please everyone in all things [as much as possible adapting myself to the interests of others], not seeking my own benefit but that of the many, so that they [will be open to the message of salvation and] may be saved.

11 IMITATE ME, just as I imitate Christ.

²I praise and appreciate you because you remember me in everything and you firmly hold to the traditions [the substance of my instructions], just as I have passed them on to you.

³But I want you to understand that Christ is the head (authority over) of every man, and man is the head of woman, and God is the head of Christ.

⁴Every man who prays or prophesies with something on his head dishonors his head [and the One who is his head].

⁵And every woman who prays or prophesies when she has her head uncovered disgraces her head; for she is one and the same as the woman whose head is shaved [in disgrace].

⁶If a woman does not cover her head, she should have her hair cut off; and if it is disgraceful for a woman to have her hair cut off or her head shaved, she should cover her head.

⁷A man ought not have his head covered [during worship], since he is the image and [reflected] glory of God; but the woman is [the expression of] man's glory. [Gen 1:26]

⁸For man does not originate from woman, but woman from man; [Gen 2:21–23]

⁹for indeed man was not created for the sake of woman, but woman for the sake of man. [Gen 2:18]

¹⁰Therefore the woman ought to have a sign of authority on her head, for the sake of the angels [so as not to offend them].

¹¹Nevertheless, woman is not independent of man, nor is man independent of woman.

¹²For as the woman originates from the man, so also man is born through the woman; and all things [whether male or female] originate from God [as their Creator].

¹³Judge for yourselves; is it proper for a woman to offer prayer to God [publicly] with her head uncovered?

¹⁴Does not common sense itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him, ¹⁵but if a woman has long hair, it is her ornament and glory? For her long hair is given to her as a covering.

¹⁶Now if anyone is inclined to be contentious [about this], we have no other practice [in worship than this], nor do the churches of God [in general].

¹⁷But in giving this next instruction, I do not praise you, because when you meet together it is not for the better but for the worse.

¹⁸For, in the first place, when you meet together in church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and in part I believe it, ¹⁹for [doubtless] there have to be factions among you, so that those who are of approved character may be clearly recognized among you.

²⁰So when you meet together, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper, ²¹for when you eat, each one hurries to get his own supper first [not waiting for others or the poor]. So one goes hungry while another gets drunk.

²²What! Do you not have houses in which to eat and drink? Or do you show contempt for the church of God and humiliate those [impoverished believers] who have nothing? What will I say to you? Shall I praise you for this? In this I will not praise you!

²³For I received from the Lord Himself that [instruction] which I passed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night in which He was betrayed took bread;

²⁴and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "This is (represents) My body, which is [offered as a sacrifice] for you. Do this in [affectionate] remembrance of Me."

²⁵In the same way, after supper He took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant [ratified and established] in My blood; do this, as often as you drink it, in [affectionate] remembrance of Me."

²⁶For every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are [symbolically] proclaiming [the fact of] the Lord's death until He comes [again].

²⁷So then whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in a way that is unworthy [of Him] will be guilty of [profaning and sinning against] the body and blood of the Lord.

²⁸But a person must [prayerfully] examine himself [and his relationship to Christ], and only when he has done so should he eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

²⁹For anyone who eats and drinks [without solemn reverence and heartfelt gratitude for the sacrifice of Christ], eats and drinks a judgment on himself if he does not recognize the body [of Christ].

³⁰That [careless and unworthy participation] is the reason why many among you are weak and sick, and a number sleep [in death].

³¹But if we evaluated and judged ourselves honestly [recognizing our shortcomings and correcting our behavior], we would not be judged.

³²But when we [fall short and] are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined [by undergoing His correction] so that we will not be condemned [to eternal punishment] along with the world.

³³So then, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat [the Lord's Supper], wait for one another [and see to it that no one is left out].

³⁴If anyone is too hungry [to wait], let him eat at home, so that you will not come together for judgment [on yourselves]. About the remaining matters [of which I was informed], I will take care of them when I come.

12 NOW ABOUT the spiritual gifts [the special endowments given by the Holy Spirit], brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed.

²You know that when you were pagans, you were led off after speechless idols; however you were led off [whether by impulse or habit].

³Therefore I want you to know that no one speaking by the [power and influence of the] Spirit of God can say, "Jesus be cursed," and no one can say, "Jesus is [my] Lord," except by [the power and influence of] the Holy Spirit.

⁴Now there are [distinctive] varieties of spiritual gifts

[special abilities given by the grace and extraordinary power of the Holy Spirit operating in believers], but it is the same Spirit [who grants them and empowers believers].

⁵And there are [distinctive] varieties of ministries and service, but it is the same Lord [who is served].

⁶And there are [distinctive] ways of working [to accomplish things], but it is the same God who produces all things in all believers [inspiring, energizing, and empowering them].

⁷But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit [the spiritual illumination and the enabling of the Holy Spirit] for the common good.

⁸To one is given through the [Holy] Spirit [the power to speak] the message of wisdom, and to another [the power to express] the word of knowledge and understanding according to the same Spirit;

⁹to another [wonder-working] faith [is given] by the same [Holy] Spirit, and to another the [extraordinary] gifts of healings by the one Spirit;

¹⁰and to another the working of miracles, and to another prophecy [foretelling the future, speaking a new message from God to the people], and to another discernment of spirits [the ability to distinguish sound, godly doctrine from the deceptive doctrine of man-made religions and cults], to another various kinds of [unknown] tongues, and to another interpretation of tongues.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Grace Is Power

Grace is the power of the Holy Spirit coming to us freely, enabling us to do with ease what we could never do on our own. You might find other definitions describing grace as God's divine favor, and that is certainly true, but His grace is also the power you need to live in victory. He grants us a variety of spiritual gifts (special abilities given by grace), and He gives extraordinary power of the Holy Spirit to operate in us (see 1 Cor. 12:4).

Grace can only be received through faith, and that is one of the main reasons we need to resist every kind of fear. When we allow fear to rule us, we unwittingly receive what Satan has planned for our lives. When we live by faith through grace, God is able to work His divine plan in us. Whatever you need to do today, lean on God and let Him empower you to be victorious.

¹¹All these things [the gifts, the achievements, the abilities, the empowering] are brought about by one and the same [Holy] Spirit, distributing to each one individually just as He chooses.

¹²For just as the body is one and yet has many parts, and all the parts, though many, form [only] one body, so it is with Christ.

¹³For by one [Holy] Spirit we were all baptized into one body, [spiritually transformed—united together] whether Jews or Greeks (Gentiles), slaves or free, and we were all made to drink of one [Holy] Spirit [since the same Holy Spirit fills each life]. [Rom 3:22; Gal 3:28]

¹⁴For the [human] body does not consist of one part, but of many [limbs and organs].

¹⁵If the foot says, “Because I am not a hand, I am not a part of the body,” is it not on the contrary still a part of the body?

¹⁶If the ear says, “Because I am not an eye, I am not a part of the body,” is it not on the contrary still a part of the body?

¹⁷If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole [body] were an ear, where would the sense of smell be?

¹⁸But now [as things really are], God has placed and arranged the parts in the body, each one of them, just as He willed and saw fit [with the best balance of function].

¹⁹If they all were a single organ, where would [the rest of] the body be?

²⁰But now [as things really are] there are many parts [different limbs and organs], but a single body.

²¹The eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you,” nor again the head to the feet, “I have no need of you.”

²²But quite the contrary, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are [absolutely] necessary;

²³and as for those parts of the body which we consider less honorable, these we treat with greater honor; and our less presentable parts are treated with greater modesty,

²⁴while our more presentable parts do not require it. But God has combined the [whole] body, giving greater honor to that part which lacks it, ²⁵so that there would be no division or discord in the body [that is, lack of adaptation of the parts to each other], but that the parts may have the same concern for one another.

²⁶And if one member suffers, all the parts share the suffering; if one member is honored, all rejoice with it.

²⁷Now you [collectively] are Christ's body, and individually [you are] members of it [each with his own special purpose and function].

²⁸So God has appointed and placed in the church [for His own use]: first apostles [chosen by Christ], second prophets [those who foretell the future, those who speak a new message from God to the people], third teachers, then those who work miracles, then those with the gifts of healings, the helpers, the administrators, and speakers in various kinds of [unknown] tongues.

²⁹Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all workers of miracles?

³⁰Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?

³¹But earnestly desire and strive for the greater gifts [if acquiring them is going to be your goal].

And yet I will show you a still more excellent way [one of the choicest graces and the highest of them all: unselfish love].

13 IF I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love [for others growing out of God's love for me], then I have become only a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal [just an annoying distraction].

²And if I have the gift of prophecy [and speak a new message from God to the people], and understand all mysteries, and [possess] all knowledge; and if I have all [sufficient] faith so that I can remove mountains, but do not have love [reaching out to others], I am nothing.

³If I give all my possessions to feed the poor, and if I surrender my body to be burned, but do not have love, it does me no good at all.

⁴Love endures with patience and serenity, love is kind and thoughtful, and is not jealous or envious; love does not brag and is not proud or arrogant.

⁵It is not rude; it is not self-seeking, it is not provoked [nor overly sensitive and easily angered]; it does not take into account a wrong endured.

⁶It does not rejoice at injustice, but rejoices with the truth [when right and truth prevail].

⁷Love bears all things [regardless of what comes], believes all things [looking for the best in each one], hopes all things [remaining steadfast during difficult times], endures all things [without weakening].

⁸Love never fails [it never fades nor ends]. But as for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for the gift of special knowledge, it will pass away.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Forgive and Forget

“Love,” the apostle Paul tells us, “does not take into account a wrong endured” (1 Cor. 13:5), yet most of us keep up-to-date records of all the offenses we have suffered, no matter how big or how small. But if we want joy to operate in our lives, we will have to learn how to forgive and forget.

Forgetting is a choice. It's not that we are unable to remember, but we choose to remember the better things in life instead of the ways we have been hurt or disappointed: “If there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think continually on these things [center your mind on them, and implant them in your heart]” (Phil. 4:8). God is telling you the things that will bring you joy. Nowhere does He say to remember what people have done to offend or hurt you. God wants you to forgive, forget, and fill your mind with worthy things.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

What Love Is

Paul's words about love in 1 Corinthians 13:4–8 are so familiar to most of us that I encourage you to read them again very slowly and consider every word. As much as I cherish these words, I can honestly say that living them has not always been easy for me. As a child, I was not exposed to this kind of love—in fact, I was taught to be suspicious of everyone and to trust no one.

As I got older, on several occasions I encountered people whose actions confirmed that my suspicions were justified. While it is wise to be cautiously aware of people's motives, we should be careful that we don't allow an overly suspicious nature to poison our mind and negatively affect our ability to love and accept other people.

For example, suppose a church friend drops a hint about some negative things that she heard a woman named Doris say about you. If you already have a suspicious mind and believe the secondhand information, it will poison your mind against Doris and your suspicions will grow. Every time Doris says something to you, you may think, What does she really mean? If you see Doris praising the Lord in worship, you will think, She's such a hypocrite.

This is how Satan gains a stronghold in your mind. If he can make you suspicious of others, it isn't long before you don't trust anything they say, and you may even start wondering who else may be talking about you behind your back.

This is how suspicion can cripple relationships and destroy our joy while it leads us astray. This is why learning to develop a 1 Corinthians 13 kind of love is so important.

It took me a while to overcome a lifetime of suspicions, but I finally learned that when we love God's way, there will be no place in our mind for suspicion of others. We are better off if we trust people and find out we are wrong about them than to distrust them and be mistaken!

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord, I thank You for showing me how to overcome suspicion by teaching me how to love others with Your kind of love. Thank You, Jesus, for being patient with me and for being my great example. Amen.

POWERPOINT

1 Corinthians 13:7 says that love looks “for the best in each one.” We can learn to find the good in everything and in everyone. Let me encourage you to live with love, always looking for what is good and believing the best about people.

⁹For we know in part, and we prophesy in part [for our knowledge is fragmentary and incomplete].

¹⁰But when that which is complete and perfect comes, that which is incomplete and partial will pass away.

¹¹When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became a man, I did away with childish things.

¹²For now [in this time of imperfection] we see in a mirror dimly [a blurred reflection, a riddle, an enigma], but then [when the time of perfection comes we will see reality] face to face. Now I know in part [just in fragments], but then I will know fully, just as I have been fully known [by God].

¹³And now there remain: faith [abiding trust in God and His promises], hope [confident expectation of eternal salvation], love [unselfish love for others growing out of God's love for me], these three [the choicest graces]; but the greatest of these is love.

14 PURSUE [THIS] love [with eagerness, make it your goal], yet earnestly desire and cultivate the spiritual gifts [to be used by believers for the benefit of the church], but especially that you may prophesy [to foretell the future, to speak a new message from God to the people].

²For one who speaks in an unknown tongue does not speak to people but to God; for no one understands him or catches his meaning, but by the Spirit he speaks mysteries [secret truths, hidden things].

³But [on the other hand] the one who prophesies speaks to people for edification [to promote their spiritual growth] and [speaks words of] encouragement [to uphold and advise them concerning the matters of God] and [speaks words of] consolation [to compassionately comfort them].

⁴One who speaks in a tongue edifies himself; but one who prophesies edifies the church [promotes growth in spiritual wisdom, devotion, holiness, and joy].

⁵Now I wish that all of you spoke in unknown tongues, but even more [I wish] that you would prophesy. The one who prophesies is greater [and more useful] than the one who speaks in tongues, unless he translates or explains [what he says], so that the church may be edified [instructed, improved, strengthened].

⁶Now, believers, if I come to you speaking in unknown tongues, how will I benefit you unless I also speak to you [clearly] either by revelation [revealing God's mystery], or by knowledge [teaching about God], or by prophecy [foretelling the future, speaking a new message from God to the people], or by instruction [teaching precepts that develop spiritual maturity]?

⁷Yet even lifeless things, whether flute or harp, when producing a sound, if they do not produce distinct [musical] tones, how will anyone [listening] know what is piped or played?

⁸And if the [war] bugle produces an indistinct sound, who will prepare himself for battle?

⁹So it is with you, if you speak words [in an unknown tongue] that are not intelligible and clear, how will anyone understand what you are saying? You will be talking into the air [wasting your breath]!

¹⁰There are, I suppose, a great many kinds of languages in the world [unknown to us], and none is lacking in meaning.

¹¹But if I do not know the meaning of the language, I will [appear to] be a foreigner to the one who is speaking [since he knows exactly what he is saying], and the one who is speaking will [appear to] be a foreigner to me.

¹²So it is with you, since you are so very eager to have spiritual gifts and manifestations of the Spirit, strive to excel in ways that will build up the church [spiritually].

¹³Therefore let one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may [be gifted to] translate or explain [what he says].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Praying with the Holy Spirit

Consider what Paul said about the mind and the spirit in prayer: “I will pray with the spirit [by the Holy Spirit that is within me] and I will pray with the mind [using words I understand]” (1 Cor. 14:15).

Paul is our example and teacher in this area. He said that he knew how to pray with his mind—about things that he thought needed prayer; but he also knew how to be led by the Holy Spirit and pray in a way that may not have made any sense to his mind.

Think of it this way. God calls us to prayer. That’s our joy and responsibility. Sometimes when we talk to God, our words seem inadequate. It’s as though there is a depth to our burdens—so overwhelming—that transcends words. No matter what we say to God out of our own minds, we feel we have not broken through and obtained a victory.

I encourage you to research what the Word of God says about speaking in tongues because that is also a way of “praying in the Holy Spirit.” Study Acts 2, which describes how the disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke out in languages unknown to them. Paul wished that all the Corinthian believers spoke in unknown tongues, and he further said that nobody should forbid anyone to do so (see 1 Cor. 14:5, 39).

When we pray in the Spirit, our minds and our spirits work together. Our minds yield to our spirits, and we are praying the perfect prayer that God desires.

You may not fully understand these things, but I hope you'll keep an open mind to all the gifts of the Holy Spirit. We all need all the supernatural help we can get to help us live our lives victoriously. I encourage you to seek God for yourself in this area, so your prayers can be as powerful as possible.

¹⁴For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unproductive [because it does not understand what my spirit is praying].

¹⁵Then what am I to do? I will pray with the spirit [by the Holy Spirit that is within me] and I will pray with the mind [using words I understand]; I will sing with the spirit [by the Holy Spirit that is within me] and I will sing with the mind [using words I understand].

¹⁶Otherwise if you bless [and give thanks to God] in the spirit only, how will any outsider or someone who is not gifted [in spiritual matters] say the “Amen” [of agreement] to your thanksgiving, since he does not know what you are saying? [1 Chr 16:36; Ps 106:48]

¹⁷You are giving thanks well enough [in a way that God is glorified], but the other person [who does not understand you] is not edified [and spiritually strengthened since he cannot join in your thanksgiving].

¹⁸I thank God that I speak in [unknown] tongues more than all of you;

¹⁹nevertheless, in public worship I would rather say five understandable words in order to instruct others, than ten thousand words in a tongue [which others cannot understand].

POWERPOINT

The Corinthians were born-again believers, baptized in the Holy Spirit, operating in the gifts of the Spirit; and yet Paul said they were carnal. They were ruled by their emotions.

They were envious and jealous, with division and strife among them. All these behaviors are rooted in insecurity and immaturity. The Corinthians were immature not only in their actions, but also in their thinking (see 1 Cor. 14:20).

They had not grasped in their minds who they were in Christ, and they did not know the hope of their calling. Let's pray that we will be mature in our thinking so we will do and be everything God has for us to accomplish and become.

²⁰Brothers and sisters, do not be children [immature, childlike] in your thinking; be infants in [matters of] evil [completely innocent and inexperienced], but in your minds be mature [adults].

²¹It is written in the Law, “BY MEN OF STRANGE TONGUES AND BY THE LIPS OF FOREIGNERS I WILL SPEAK TO THIS PEOPLE, AND NOT EVEN THEN WILL THEY LISTEN TO ME,” says the Lord. [Is 28:11, 12]

²²Therefore, [unknown] tongues are [meant] for a [supernatural] sign, not to believers but to unbelievers [who might be receptive]; while prophecy [foretelling the future, speaking a new message from God to the people] is not for unbelievers but for believers.

²³So then, if the whole church gathers together and all of you speak in [unknown] tongues, and outsiders or those who are not gifted [in spiritual matters] or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are out of your mind?

²⁴But if all prophesy [foretelling the future, speaking a new message from God to the people], and an unbeliever or outsider comes in, he is convicted [of his sins] by all, and he is called to account by all [because he can understand what is being said];

²⁵the secrets of his heart are laid bare. And so, falling on his face, he will worship God, declaring that God is really among you.

²⁶What then is the right course, believers? When you meet together, each one has a psalm, a teaching, a revelation (disclosure of special knowledge), a tongue, or an interpretation. Let everything be constructive and edifying and done for the good of all the church.

²⁷If anyone speaks in a tongue, it should be limited to two or at the most three, and each one speaking in turn, and one must interpret [what is said].

²⁸But if there is no one to interpret, the one [who wishes to speak in a tongue] must keep silent in church; let him speak to himself and to God.

²⁹Let two or three prophets speak [as inspired by the Holy Spirit], while the rest pay attention and weigh carefully what is said.

³⁰But if an inspired revelation is made to another who is seated, then the first one must be silent.

³¹For [in this way] you can all prophesy one by one, so that everyone may be instructed and everyone may be encouraged;

³²for the spirits of prophets are subject to the prophets [the prophecy is under the speaker's control, and he can stop speaking];

³³for God [who is the source of their prophesying] is not a God of confusion and disorder but of peace and order.

As [is the practice] in all the churches of the saints (God's people), ³⁴the women should be silent in the churches, for they are not authorized to speak, but are to take a subordinate place, as the Law says.

³⁵If there is anything they want to learn [that is, if they have questions about anything being said or taught], they are to ask their own husbands at home; for it is improper for a woman to talk in church.

³⁶Did the word of the Lord originate from you

[Corinthians], or has it come to you only [so that you know best what God requires]?

³⁷If anyone thinks and claims that he is a prophet [a true spokesman for God] or spiritually astute [filled with and energized by the Holy Spirit], let him recognize that the things which I write to you are the Lord's commandment.

³⁸If anyone does not recognize this [that it is a command of the Lord], he is not recognized [by God].

³⁹Therefore, believers, desire earnestly to prophesy [to foretell the future, to speak a new message from God to the people], and do not forbid speaking in unknown tongues.

⁴⁰But all things must be done appropriately and in an orderly manner.

15 NOW BROTHERS and sisters, let me remind you [once again] of the good news [of salvation] which I preached to you, which you welcomed and accepted and on which you stand [by faith].

²By this faith you are saved [reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, and set apart for His purpose], if you hold firmly to the word which I preached to you, unless you believed in vain [just superficially and without complete commitment].

³For I passed on to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to [that which] the Scriptures [foretold], [Is 53:5–12]

⁴and that He was buried, and that He was [bodily] raised on the third day according to [that which] the Scriptures

[foretold], [Ps 16:9, 10]

⁵and that He appeared to Cephas (Peter), then to the Twelve.

⁶After that He appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, the majority of whom are still alive, but some have fallen asleep [in death].

⁷Then He was seen by James, then by all the apostles,

⁸and last of all, as to one untimely (prematurely, traumatically) born, He appeared to me also. [Acts 9:1–9]

⁹For I am the least [worthy] of the apostles, and not fit to be called an apostle, because I [at one time] fiercely oppressed and violently persecuted the church of God.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, God, for always giving me the victory through my Lord Jesus Christ!

• adapted from 1 Corinthians

15:54, 57

¹⁰But by the [remarkable] grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not without effect. In fact, I worked harder than all of the apostles, though it was not I, but the grace of God [His unmerited favor and blessing which was] with me.

¹¹So whether it was I or they, this is what we preach, and this is what you believed and trusted in and relied on with confidence.

¹²Now if Christ is preached as raised from the dead, how is it that some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?

¹³But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised;

¹⁴and if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is vain [useless, amounting to nothing], and your faith is also vain [imaginary, unfounded, devoid of value and benefit—not based on truth].

¹⁵We are even discovered to be false witnesses [misrepresenting] God, because we testified concerning Him that He raised Christ, whom He did not raise, if in fact the dead are not raised.

¹⁶For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised, either;

¹⁷and if Christ has not been raised, your faith is worthless and powerless [mere delusion]; you are still in your sins [and under the control and penalty of sin].

¹⁸Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ are lost.

¹⁹If we who are [abiding] in Christ have hoped only in this life [and this is all there is], then we are of all people most miserable and to be pitied.

²⁰But now [as things really are] Christ has in fact been raised from the dead, [and He became] the first fruits [that is, the first to be resurrected with an incorruptible, immortal body, foreshadowing the resurrection] of those who have fallen asleep [in death]. [Col 1:18]

²¹For since [it was] by a man that death came [into the world], it is also by a Man that the resurrection of the dead has come.

²²For just as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive.

²³But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then those who are Christ's [own will be resurrected with incorruptible, immortal bodies] at His coming.

²⁴After that comes the end (completion), when He hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after He has made inoperative and abolished every ruler and every authority and power.

²⁵For Christ must reign [as King] until He has put all His enemies under His feet. [Ps 110:1] ²⁶The last enemy to be abolished and put to an end is death.

²⁷For HE (the Father) HAS PUT ALL THINGS IN SUBJECTION UNDER HIS (Christ's) FEET. But when He says, "All things have been put in subjection [under Christ]," it is clear that He (the Father) who put all things in subjection to Him (Christ) is excepted [since the Father is not in subjection to His own Son]. [Ps 8:6]

²⁸However, when all things are subjected to Him (Christ), then the Son Himself will also be subjected to the One (the Father) who put all things under Him, so that God may be all in all [manifesting His glory without any opposition, the supreme indwelling and controlling factor of life].

²⁹Otherwise, what will those do who are being baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people even baptized for them?

³⁰[For that matter] why are we [running such risks and putting ourselves] in danger [nearly] every hour [if there is no resurrection]?

³¹I assure you, believers, by the pride which I have in you in [your union with] Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily [I face death and die to self].

³²What good has it done me if, [merely] from a human point of view, I fought with wild animals at Ephesus? If the dead are not raised [at all], LET US EAT AND DRINK [enjoying ourselves now], FOR TOMORROW WE DIE. [Is 22:13; 2 Cor 1:8, 9]

³³Do not be deceived: “Bad company corrupts good morals.”

³⁴Be sober-minded [be sensible, wake up from your spiritual stupor] as you ought, and stop sinning; for some [of you] have no knowledge of God [you are disgracefully ignorant of Him, and ignore His truths]. I say this to your shame.

³⁵But someone will say, “How are the dead raised? And with what kind of body will they come?”

³⁶You fool! Every time you plant seed you sow something that does not come to life [germinating, springing up and growing] unless it first dies.

³⁷The seed you sow is not the body (the plant) which it is going to become, but it is a bare seed, perhaps of wheat or some other grain.

³⁸But God gives it a body just as He planned, and to each kind of seed a body of its own [is given]. [Gen 1:11]

³⁹All flesh is not the same. There is one kind for humans, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish.

⁴⁰There are also heavenly bodies [sun, moon and stars] and earthly bodies [humans, animals, and plants], but the glory and beauty of the heavenly is one kind, and the glory of the earthly is another.

⁴¹There is a glory and beauty of the sun, another glory of the moon, and yet another [distinctive] glory of the stars; and one star differs from another in glory and brilliance.

⁴²So it is with the resurrection of the dead. The [human] body that is sown is perishable and mortal, it is raised imperishable and immortal. [Dan 12:3]

⁴³It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in strength;

⁴⁴it is sown a natural body [mortal, suited to earth], it is raised a spiritual body [immortal, suited to heaven]. As surely as there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual body.

⁴⁵So it is written [in Scripture], “The first MAN, Adam, BECAME A LIVING SOUL (an individual);” the last Adam (Christ) became a life-giving spirit [restoring the dead to life]. [Gen 2:7]

⁴⁶However, the spiritual [the immortal life] is not first, but the physical [the mortal life]; then the spiritual.

⁴⁷The first man [Adam] is from the earth, earthy [made of dust]; the second Man [Christ, the Lord] is from heaven. [Gen 2:7]

⁴⁸As is the earthly man [the man of dust], so are those who are of earth; and as is the heavenly [Man], so are those who are of heaven.

⁴⁹Just as we have borne the image of the earthly [the man of dust], we will also bear the image of the heavenly [the Man of heaven].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Steadfast and Immovable

Many people feel able and qualified to do a particular thing, and yet they live frustrated lives because the right doors never seem to open for them to do it. Their opportunities never seem to come. Why? I believe many people are “able but not stable.” God has given people abilities, but they may not have made the effort to mature and develop a stable character.

When we are stable and mature in character, we can do what is best no matter how we happen to feel (see Col. 2:5). God will be able to trust us, and other people will be able to depend on us. As long as we are breathing, we will have times of abundance and times when we struggle, times when circumstances are up and times when they’re down. Let circumstances do what they will; meanwhile, be determined to remain “steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord” (1 Cor. 15:58).

⁵⁰Now I say this, believers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit nor be part of the kingdom of God; nor does the perishable (mortal) inherit the imperishable (immortal).

⁵¹Listen very carefully, I tell you a mystery [a secret truth decreed by God and previously hidden, but now revealed]; we will not all sleep [in death], but we will all be [completely] changed [wondrously transformed], ⁵²in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at [the sound of] the last trumpet call. For a trumpet will sound, and the dead [who believed in Christ] will be raised imperishable, and we will be [completely] changed [wondrously transformed].

⁵³For this perishable [part of us] must put on the imperishable [nature], and this mortal [part of us that is capable of dying] must put on immortality [which is freedom from death].

⁵⁴And when this perishable puts on the imperishable, and this mortal puts on immortality, then the Scripture will be fulfilled that says, “DEATH IS SWALLOWED UP in victory (vanquished forever). [Is 25:8]

⁵⁵“O DEATH, WHERE IS YOUR VICTORY? O DEATH, WHERE IS YOUR STING?” [Hos 13:14]

⁵⁶The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin [by which it brings death] is the law;

⁵⁷but thanks be to God, who gives us the victory [as conquerors] through our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁵⁸Therefore, my beloved brothers and sisters, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord [always doing your best and doing more than is needed], being continually aware that your labor [even to the point of exhaustion] in the Lord is not futile nor wasted [it is never without purpose].

16 NOW CONCERNING the money collected for [the relief of] the saints [in Jerusalem], you are to do the same as I directed the churches of Galatia to do.

²On the first day of every week each one of you is to put something aside, in proportion to his prosperity, and save it so that no collections [will need to] be made when I come.

³When I arrive, I will send whomever you approve with letters [of authorization] to take your gift [of charity and love] to Jerusalem;

⁴and if it is fitting for me to go too, they will accompany me.

⁵I will visit you after I go through Macedonia, for I am only passing through Macedonia;

⁶but it may be that I will stay with you [for a while], or even spend the winter, so that you may send me on my way to wherever I may go afterward.

⁷For I do not wish to see you right now just in passing, but I hope to remain with you for some time [later on], if the Lord permits.

⁸But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost,

⁹because a wide door for effective service has opened to me [in Ephesus, a very promising opportunity], and there are many adversaries. [Acts 19:23–41]

¹⁰If Timothy comes, see to it that [you put him at ease, so that] he has nothing to fear in regard to you, for he is [devotedly] doing the Lord's work, just as I am.

¹¹So allow no one to treat him with disdain [as if he were inconsequential]. But send him off [cordially, and speed him on his way] in peace, so that he may come to me, for I am expecting him [to come along] with the other brothers.

¹²As for our brother Apollos, I have strongly encouraged him to visit you with the other brothers. It was not at all his desire to come now, but he will come when he has the opportunity.

13 Be on guard; stand firm in your faith [in God, respecting His precepts and keeping your doctrine sound]. Act like [mature] men and be courageous; be strong. [Ps 31:24]

Speak God's Word

I am on my guard, standing firm in my faith in God, respecting His precepts and keeping my doctrine sound. I act maturely, and I am courageous and strong!

| adapted from 1 CORINTHIANS

16:13 |

¹⁴Let everything you do be done in love [motivated and inspired by God's love for us].

¹⁵Brothers and sisters, you know that those of the household of Stephanas were the first converts in Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves for ministry to ^{*}God's people—now I urge you ¹⁶to be subject to such leaders [treating them with courtesy and respect], and to everyone who helps in the work and labors [for the benefit of yourselves and the church].

¹⁷I rejoice because Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus have arrived, for they have made up for your absence.

¹⁸They have refreshed my spirit as well as yours. So fully acknowledge such men and deeply appreciate them.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Focus on Loving Others

From start to finish, God's Word encourages and challenges us to "let everything you do be done in love [motivated and inspired by God's love for us]" (1 Cor. 16:14). Love other people; it is the example Jesus set for us throughout His life and ministry on earth.

If you truly desire to love others the way God loves you, choose to fill your mind with kind, loving, unselfish, and generous thoughts. Take a few minutes each morning and ask God to show you what you can do for somebody else that day. You can even choose a specific person. Focus on loving others and purpose to think good thoughts about them, and you will have a life full of love and happiness and become a great encourager to others.

¹⁹The churches of Asia send you their greetings. Aquila and Prisca, together with the church [that meets] in their house, send you their warm greetings in the Lord.

²⁰All the believers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

²¹This greeting is in my own hand—Paul.

²²If anyone does not love the Lord [does not obey and respect and believe in Jesus Christ and His message], he is to be accursed. Maranatha (O our Lord, come)!

²³The grace of our Lord Jesus [His unmerited favor, His spiritual blessing, His profound mercy] be with you.

²⁴My love be with all of you in Christ Jesus. Amen.

2 Corinthians

Author: | Paul

55, seemingly a few months after 1
Corinthians

Among other reasons, the apostle Paul wrote this very personal letter as a follow-up to 1 Corinthians to support and encourage the Christians who had been loyal to Christ, despite challenges and difficulties in Corinth.

One key theme of 2 Corinthians is that because Jesus took our sin upon Himself and died in our place, we are now granted right standing with God. In the battle of the mind, the enemy often tries to make us think we are separated or distant from God because of our sin and guilt, but 2 Corinthians 5:17–21 clearly tells us the right way to think about this issue.

Second Corinthians also includes powerful insights on the battle of the mind, which you'll see in chapter 10—teaching and advice that will help you gain victory over the devil in your thought life.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM 2 CORINTHIANS:

The war we fight is a spiritual war and cannot be fought in the physical realm. We win by using powerful spiritual weapons (see 2 Corinthians 10:3).

Through careful strategy and lies, Satan attempts to set up fortresses or strongholds in our mind—areas in which we are held in bondage due to a certain way of thinking (see 2 Corinthians 10:4–5).

You have the mind of Christ, so choose to be positive and in alignment with God's Word. Cast down every mental stronghold and take your thoughts captive to the obedience of Jesus Christ (see 2 Corinthians 10:5).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM 2 CORINTHIANS:

Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty [emancipation from bondage, true freedom]. | 2 Corinthians 3:17

If anyone is in Christ... he is a new creature [reborn and renewed by the Holy Spirit]. | 2 Corinthians 5:17

The weapons of our warfare are not physical [weapons of flesh and blood]. Our weapons are divinely powerful for the destruction of fortresses. We are destroying sophisticated arguments and every exalted and proud thing that sets itself up against the [true] knowledge of God, and we are taking every thought and purpose captive to the obedience of Christ. | 2 Corinthians 10:4-5

THE SECOND LETTER OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

1 PAUL, AN apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Christ Jesus (the Messiah) by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

To the church of God which is at Corinth, and to all the saints (God's people) throughout Achaia (southern Greece):

²Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³Blessed [gratefully praised and adored] be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort, ⁴who comforts and encourages us in every trouble so that we will be able to comfort and encourage those who are in any kind of trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

⁵For just as Christ's sufferings are ours in abundance [as they overflow to His followers], so also our comfort [our reassurance, our encouragement, our consolation] is abundant through Christ [it is truly more than enough to endure what we must].

⁶But if we are troubled and distressed, it is for your comfort and salvation; or if we are comforted and encouraged, it is for your comfort, which works [in you] when you patiently endure the same sufferings which we experience.

⁷And our hope for you [our confident expectation of good for you] is firmly grounded [assured and unshaken], since we know that just as you share as partners in our sufferings, so also you share as partners in our comfort.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Receive Comfort, Give Comfort

God obviously knows how important comfort is to us, because He gave the Comforter and the Encourager to us when He sent the Holy Spirit. No one is as good as He is at comforting us when we are hurting or grieving. Only because we have Him in our lives can we be comforted when people around us do not know how to comfort us or understand how much we need it. The Holy Spirit is the Parakletos, the Greek word for one who walks alongside us, giving aid, encouraging us, building us up, edifying us, and comforting us. Jesus said that when He went away, He would send another Comforter, the Holy Spirit (see John 14:16).

According to 2 Corinthians 1:3–4, God is the source of every comfort and encouragement. I believe that although He wants to comfort and encourage us through other people, He is the ultimate source of the amazing and often-needed ministry of comfort.

God comforts us in our times of need so we might then comfort others when they experience loss or heartache. The next time you find yourself in need of comfort, remember that you can receive it from God; and then share that same kind of comfort with someone else.

POWERPOINT

There may be times in our lives when God allows us to go through difficulties to enable us to eventually minister to and “comfort and encourage those who are in any kind of trouble,” because we ourselves have been comforted by God (see 2 Cor. 1:4). If this is what God permits in our lives, we can be assured that we are able to handle it, because He promises never to allow us to go through more than we can bear. Experiencing God’s faithfulness in our own painful situations is what enables us to share with others that God will be faithful to them also. We went through a test, but now we have a testimony!

⁸For we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about our trouble in [the west coast province of] Asia [Minor], how we were utterly weighed down, beyond our strength, so that we despaired even of life [itself].

⁹Indeed, we felt within ourselves that we had received the sentence of death [and were convinced that we would die, but this happened] so that we would not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead.

¹⁰He rescued us from so great a threat of death, and will continue to rescue us. On Him we have set our hope. And He will again rescue us [from danger and draw us near], ¹¹while you join in helping us by your prayers. Then thanks will be given by many persons on our behalf for the gracious gift [of deliverance] granted to us through the prayers of many [believers].

¹²This is our [reason for] proud confidence: our conscience testifies that we have conducted ourselves in the world [in general], and especially toward you, with pure motives and godly sincerity, not in human wisdom, but in the grace of God [that is, His gracious lovingkindness that leads people to Christ and spiritual maturity].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Total Dependence on God

In 2 Corinthians 1:8–9, Paul wrote of times when he and his comrades experienced troubles so intense that they felt they had received a death sentence, but the reason for it was to keep them from trusting in themselves rather than relying completely on God. At times God allows our troubles to be more than we can possibly handle on our own so we will ultimately realize our need for Him.

If you feel that what is going on in your life right now is more than you can bear, you don't see a way out, and you absolutely don't know what to do, consider yourself in a good place. You now know that the only thing you can do is to trust God, and that is exactly what He wants.

God wants us to be totally dependent on Him and to realize that He never fails. It often takes a while for this truth to become rooted in our thought process, and sometimes we have to experience difficulties in order for that to happen. Part of God's plan for us is that we move from a mind-set of independence to one of wholehearted trust in Him.

¹³For we write you nothing other than what you read and understand [there is no double meaning in what we say]. And I hope you will [accurately] understand [divine things] until the end;

¹⁴just as you have [already] partially understood us, [and one day will recognize] that you can be proud of us just as we are of you, in the day of our Lord Jesus.

¹⁵It was with this confidence that I planned at first to visit you, so that you might receive twice a token of grace;

¹⁶that is, [I wanted] to visit you on my way to Macedonia, and [then] to come back to you [on my return] from Macedonia, and have you send me on my way to Judea.

¹⁷So then, was I indecisive or capricious when I was [originally] planning this? Or the things I plan, do I plan in a self-serving way like a worldly man, ready to say, “Yes, yes” and “No, no” [at the same time]?

¹⁸But [as surely as] God is faithful and means what He says, our message to you is not “Yes” and “No” [at the same time].

¹⁹For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, by me, Silvanus, and Timothy, was not “Yes” and “No,” but has proved to be “Yes” in Him [true and faithful, the divine “Yes” affirming God’s promises].

²⁰For as many as are the promises of God, in Christ they are [all answered] “Yes.” So through Him we say our “Amen” to the glory of God.

²¹Now it is God who establishes and confirms us [in joint fellowship] with you in Christ, and who has anointed us [empowering us with the gifts of the Spirit];

²²it is He who has also put His seal on us [that is, He has appropriated us and certified us as His] and has given us the [Holy] Spirit in our hearts as a pledge [like a security deposit to guarantee the fulfillment of His promise of eternal life].

²³But I call on God as my soul's witness, that it was to spare you [pain and discouragement] that I did not come again to Corinth—

²⁴not that we rule [like dictators] over your faith, but rather we work with you for [the increase of] your joy; for in your faith you stand firm [in your strong conviction that Jesus of Nazareth—the Messiah—is the Son of God, through whom we obtain eternal salvation].

2 BUT I made up my mind not to grieve you with another painful visit.

²For if I cause you grief [by a well-deserved rebuke], who then provides me enjoyment but the very one whom I have made sad?

³And I wrote this same thing to you, so that when I came, I would not be filled with sorrow by those who ought to make me glad, for I trusted in you and felt confident that my joy would be shared by all of you.

⁴For I wrote to you out of great distress and with an anguished heart, and with many tears, not to cause you sorrow but to make you realize the [overflowing] love which I have especially for you.

⁵But if someone has caused [all this] sorrow, he has caused it not to me, but in some degree—not to put it too severely—[he has distressed and grieved] all of you.

⁶For such a one this punishment by the majority is sufficient,

⁷so instead [of further rebuke, now] you should rather [graciously] forgive and comfort and encourage him, to keep him from being overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.

⁸Therefore I urge you to reinstate him in your affections and reaffirm your love for him.

⁹For this was my purpose in writing, to see if you would stand the test, whether you are obedient and committed to following my instruction in all things.

¹⁰If you forgive anyone anything, I too forgive [that one]; and what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, has been for your sake in the presence of [and with the approval of] Christ, ¹¹to keep Satan from taking advantage of us; for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

¹²Now when I arrived at Troas to preach the good news of Christ, even though a door [of opportunity] opened for me in the Lord, ¹³my spirit could not rest because I did not find my brother Titus there; so saying goodbye to them, I left for Macedonia.

¹⁴But thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and through us spreads and makes evident everywhere the sweet fragrance of the knowledge of Him.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, God! You always lead me in triumph in Christ, and through me You spread and make evident everywhere the sweet fragrance of the knowledge of Him.

• adapted from 2 Corinthians 2:14

¹⁵For we are the sweet fragrance of Christ [which ascends] to God, [discernible both] among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing;

¹⁶to the latter one an aroma from death to death [a fatal, offensive odor], but to the other an aroma from life to life [a vital fragrance, living and fresh]. And who is adequate and sufficiently qualified for these things?

¹⁷For we are not like many, [acting like merchants] peddling God's word [shortchanging and adulterating God's message]; but from pure [uncompromised] motives, as [commissioned and sent] from God, we speak [His message] in Christ in the sight of God.

3 ARE WE starting to commend ourselves again? Or do we need, like some [false teachers], letters of recommendation to you or from you? [No!]

²You are our letter [of recommendation], written in our hearts, recognized and read by everyone.

³You show that you are a letter from Christ, delivered by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts. [Ex 24:12; 31:18; 32:15, 16; Jer 31:33]

⁴Such is the confidence and steadfast reliance and absolute trust that we have through Christ toward God.

⁵Not that we are sufficiently qualified in ourselves to claim anything as coming from us, but our sufficiency and qualifications come from God.

⁶He has qualified us [making us sufficient] as ministers of a new covenant [of salvation through Christ], not of the letter [of a written code] but of the Spirit; for the letter [of the Law] kills [by revealing sin and demanding obedience], but the Spirit gives life. [Jer 31:31]

⁷Now if the ministry of death, engraved in letters on stones [the covenant of the Law which led to death because of sin], came with such glory and splendor that the Israelites were not able to look steadily at the face of Moses because of its glory, [a brilliance] that was fading, [Ex 34:29–35]

⁸how will the ministry of the Spirit [the new covenant which allows us to be Spirit-filled] fail to be even more glorious and splendid?

⁹For if the ministry that brings condemnation [the old covenant, the Law] has glory, how much more does glory overflow in the ministry that brings righteousness [the new covenant which declares believers free of guilt and sets them apart for God's special purpose]!

¹⁰Indeed, what had glory [the Law], in this case no longer has glory because of the glory that surpasses it [the gospel].

¹¹For if that [Law] which fades away came with glory, how much more must that [gospel] which remains and is permanent abide in glory and splendor!

¹²Since we have such a [glorious] hope and confident expectation, we speak with great courage, ¹³and we are not like Moses, who used to put a veil over his face so that the Israelites would not gaze at the end of the glory which was fading away.

¹⁴But [in fact] their minds were hardened [for they had lost the ability to understand]; for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remains unlifted, because it is removed [only] in Christ.

¹⁵But to this day whenever Moses is read, a veil [of blindness] lies over their heart;

¹⁶but whenever a person turns [in repentance and faith] to the Lord, the veil is taken away.

¹⁷Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty [emancipation from bondage, true freedom]. [Is 61:1, 2]

¹⁸And we all, with unveiled face, continually seeing as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are progressively being transformed into His image from [one degree of] glory to [even more] glory, which comes from the Lord, [who is] the Spirit.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Gradual Growth

The devil is a faultfinder. If we focus only on what is wrong in life, with ourselves, and with other people, we are following his example. However, God has given us a new nature. If we are truly living as His children, we can learn to function from the renewed part of our being (see Eph. 4:22–24).

The Bible says we “are progressively being transformed into His image from [one degree of] glory to [even more] glory, which comes from the Lord, [who is] the Spirit” (2 Cor. 3:18). As we follow the leading of our renewed spirit and the Holy Spirit who dwells in us, we will develop new habits and new, healthy, godly ways of thinking, but it does take time.

God operates on the principle of “gradual growth”—things changing little by little. Rather than focusing on how far you still have to go, recognize instead how far you have come. Staying positive will help you in all areas of life.

4 THEREFORE, SINCE we have this ministry, just as we received mercy [from God, granting us salvation, opportunities, and blessings], we do not get discouraged nor lose our motivation.

²But we have renounced the disgraceful things hidden because of shame; not walking in trickery or adulterating the word of God, but by stating the truth [openly and plainly], we commend ourselves to everyone's conscience in the sight of God.

³But even if our gospel is [in some sense] hidden [behind a veil], it is hidden [only] to those who are perishing;

⁴among them the god of this world [Satan] has blinded the minds of the unbelieving to prevent them from seeing the illuminating light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.

⁵For we do not preach ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, and ourselves [merely] as your bond-servants for Jesus' sake.

⁶For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," is the One who has shone in our hearts to give us the Light of the knowledge of the glory and majesty of God [clearly revealed] in the face of Christ. [Gen 1:3]

⁷But we have this precious treasure [the good news about salvation] in [unworthy] earthen vessels [of human frailty], so that the grandeur and surpassing greatness of the power will be [shown to be] from God [His sufficiency] and not from ourselves.

POWERPOINT

It is important to be confident, but it is also important to remember that the strength resulting from confidence can quickly be lost in conceit. It is vital to remain humble. Second Corinthians 4:7 says, “We have this precious treasure [the good news about salvation] in [unworthy] earthen vessels [of human frailty], so that the grandeur and surpassing greatness of the power will be [shown to be] from God [His sufficiency] and not from ourselves.” God deserves all the credit and glory for any good work manifesting in our lives.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Right Attitude Toward Difficulty

I am quite sure that Paul didn't enjoy his difficulties any more than we enjoy ours, but he definitely seemed to have a right and victorious attitude toward them. He considered (thought) that they would work something good in him. He said they were preparing and producing an everlasting weight of glory.

The beauty of faith is that we can see the unseen. We can see with the eye of faith what we cannot see with the natural eye. By faith we trust God and believe His Word, and that allows us to always believe that in and through all things, God is working toward our good and our advancement. No matter what difficulty you might be enduring right now, if you will decide to believe that it will ultimately work out for your good, it will give you comfort and help you not to be discouraged. Remember that God is good, and He has a good plan for you!

⁸We are pressured in every way [hedged in], but not crushed; perplexed [unsure of finding a way out], but not driven to despair;

⁹hunted down and persecuted, but not deserted [to stand alone]; struck down, but never destroyed;

¹⁰always carrying around in the body the dying of Jesus, so that the [resurrection] life of Jesus also may be shown in our body.

¹¹For we who live are constantly [experiencing the threat of] being handed over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the [resurrection] life of Jesus also may be evidenced in our mortal body [which is subject to death].

¹²So physical death is [actively] at work in us, but [spiritual] life [is actively at work] in you.

¹³Yet we have the same spirit of faith as he had, who wrote in Scripture, "I BELIEVED, THEREFORE I SPOKE." We also believe, therefore we also speak, [Ps 116:10]

¹⁴knowing that He who raised the Lord Jesus will also raise us with Jesus and will present us [along] with you in His presence.

¹⁵For all [these] things are for your sake, so that as [God's remarkable, undeserved] grace reaches to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of [our great] God.

¹⁶Therefore we do not become discouraged [spiritless, disappointed, or afraid]. Though our outer self is [progressively] wasting away, yet our inner self is being [progressively] renewed day by day.

¹⁷For our momentary, light distress [this passing trouble] is producing for us an eternal weight of glory [a fullness] beyond all measure [surpassing all comparisons, a transcendent splendor and an endless blessedness]!

¹⁸So we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are unseen; for the things which are visible are temporal [just brief and fleeting], but the things which are invisible are everlasting and imperishable.

5 FOR WE know that if the earthly tent [our physical body] which is our house is torn down [through death], we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

²For indeed in this house we groan, longing to be clothed with our [immortal, eternal] celestial dwelling, ³so that by putting it on we will not be found naked.

⁴For while we are in this tent, we groan, being burdened [often weighed down, oppressed], not that we want to be unclothed [separated by death from the body], but to be clothed, so that what is mortal [the body] will be swallowed up by life [after the resurrection].

POWERPOINT

In 2 Corinthians 5:8, we read that Paul had the proper perspective on death. His mind-set was that to be absent from the body meant to be at home with the Lord. He knew that death was inevitable for him, just as it is for all of us, and he purposed not to allow the fear of death to keep him from fulfilling God's will. There is no point in fearing what we cannot avoid. We should not let the fear of death prevent us from living our lives to the fullest! Everyone will eventually die, but that is not as important as where we will spend eternity!

Speak God's Word

Because I am in Christ, joined to Him by faith in Him as Savior; I am a new creation, reborn and renewed by the Holy Spirit. Old things have passed away. Behold, new things have come because spiritual awakening brings a new life.

| adapted from 2 CORINTHIANS

5:17 |

⁵Now He who has made us and prepared us for this very purpose is God, who gave us the [Holy] Spirit as a pledge [a guarantee, a down payment on the fulfillment of His promise].

⁶So then, being always filled with good courage and confident hope, and knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord—

⁷for we walk by faith, not by sight [living our lives in a manner consistent with our confident belief in God's promises]

⁸we are [as I was saying] of good courage and confident hope, and prefer rather to be absent from the body and to be at home with the Lord.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Generosity Defeats Selfishness

We are all creatures of habit, but bad habits can be broken and replaced with good ones. If we focus on developing good habits, the bad ones won't have any room to operate in our lives. One good habit we can form is that of being generous, being people who continually reach out to others to make their lives better. Spend some time daily thinking about what you can do for others.

I admit that I was a selfish, self-centered person for much of my life. We don't have to learn to be selfish. We are born with that ability. Thankfully, through the new birth in Jesus Christ, we can change. Jesus died so that we no longer have to live to and for ourselves (see 2 Cor. 5:15). That is good news! We can be free from selfishness. We can be delivered from constantly thinking, What about me? We won't have to fear that our needs won't be met, because God will always take care of our needs when we are attentive to the needs of others and when our attitude toward them is generous.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Willingness To Change Brings Victory

Someone might say, “I’ve always had a bad temper. I can’t help the way I am. My father had a bad temper too.” These excuses for bad behavior could go on endlessly. People use excuses to justify the way they are. Such excuses are an attempt to resist change.

Not facing the truth about ourselves and making excuses is part of Satan’s deceptive influence. For example, he might tell us that we’re not rude—we’re just speaking the truth as we see it. If he convinces us that other people are at fault because “they’re just too sensitive,” we don’t feel responsible, and we think we’re okay. Having convinced us that we don’t have to change, the devil has won a battle in our lives.

When I went through a period of extreme negativity, I never thought of myself as being negative. I was just being realistic! I could see the weaknesses and problems of others, and I was quite happy to show them how they could overcome. I thought

I was being helpful. It never occurred to me in my prideful state that people wanted acceptance and encouragement, not judgment and criticism.

We need to realize that God is able to deliver us when we have ungodly attitudes or display bad behaviors rooted in ungodly thoughts. We start the Christian life as new creations “[reborn and renewed by the Holy Spirit]; the old things... have passed away” (2 Cor. 5:17). Our past is wiped away.

Freedom begins when we face our problems without excuses. “Yes, I’m negative, but I am sorry and I want to change.” We do not have to remain the way we are, now or in the future. With God’s help, our minds can be renewed according to the Word of God, and the better our thinking becomes, the better our attitude will be.

The most difficult part may be to face the truth about ourselves and say to God, “I’m a negative person, and I have no excuse.” You may have tried to change yourself in the past, but it didn’t work. Now you can begin to win the battle over Satan’s stronghold by facing truth, asking for God’s help, and studying His Word in the area that gives you problems. God’s Word is filled with power that will set you free.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Holy God, forgive me for my negative thinking. Help me so that Satan has no stronghold over my mind. Please destroy every negative aspect of my thinking, through Jesus my Lord. Amen.

Speak God's Word

I have become the righteousness of God. I have been made acceptable to Him and placed in a right relationship with Him by His gracious lovingkindness.

| adapted from 2 CORINTHIANS
5:21 |

⁹Therefore, whether we are at home [on earth] or away from home [and with Him], it is our [constant] ambition to be pleasing to Him.

¹⁰For we [believers will be called to account and] must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may be repaid for what has been done in the body, whether good or bad [that is, each will be held responsible for his actions, purposes, goals, motives—the use or misuse of his time, opportunities and abilities].

¹¹Therefore, since we know the fear of the Lord [and understand the importance of obedience and worship], we persuade people [to be reconciled to Him]. But we are plainly known to God [He knows everything about us]; and I hope that we are plainly known also in your consciences [your God-given discernment].

¹²We are not commending ourselves to you again, but are giving you an occasion to be [rightfully] proud of us, so that you will have an answer for those who take pride in [outward] appearances [the virtues they pretend to have] rather than what is [actually] in heart.

¹³If we are out of our mind [just unstable fanatics as some critics say], it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for your benefit.

¹⁴For the love of Christ controls and compels us, because we have concluded this, that One died for all, therefore all died;

¹⁵and He died for all, so that all those who live would no longer live for themselves, but for Him who died and was raised for their sake.

¹⁶So from now on we regard no one from a human point of view [according to worldly standards and values]. Though we have known Christ from a human point of view, now we no longer know Him in this way.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Great Exchange

One of the very best truths I know is that God's righteousness is available to us (see 2 Cor. 5:21). It is a gift to us at the time we receive Jesus Christ as Savior. It comes by grace through faith. Since it is a gift, it cannot be earned or deserved, and there is no way for us to pay for it. The righteousness God gives to us has already been purchased by the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

God takes our sin from us and gives us His very own righteousness; and by an act of His love and mercy, He views us as being in right standing with Him through our faith. This is the great exchange! God takes our sins, puts them on Jesus, and gives us His righteousness. Someone had to pay for sin, and we could not, so God sent His only Son, Jesus, to do the job. He became our substitute.

Are you willing to change your thoughts and words to agree with the way God thinks and speaks about you? Will you come into agreement with Him? Instead of thinking and saying, "I am no good. I can't do anything right. I will never measure up to what I need to be," start saying, "I am the righteousness of God in Christ. God sees me as righteous, and I am in right relationship with Him through Jesus." The more you accept His righteousness as a gift, the more you will find yourself doing the right thing!

¹⁷Therefore if anyone is in Christ [that is, grafted in, joined to Him by faith in Him as Savior], he is a new creature [reborn and renewed by the Holy Spirit]; the old things [the previous moral and spiritual condition] have passed away. Behold, new things have come [because spiritual awakening brings a new life].

¹⁸But all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ [making us acceptable to Him] and gave us the ministry of reconciliation [so that by our example we might bring others to Him], ¹⁹that is, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting people's sins against them [but canceling them]. And He has committed to us the message of reconciliation [that is, restoration to favor with God].

²⁰So we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were making His appeal through us; we [as Christ's representatives] plead with you on behalf of Christ to be reconciled to God.

²¹He made Christ who knew no sin to [judicially] be sin on our behalf, so that in Him we would become the righteousness of God [that is, we would be made acceptable to Him and placed in a right relationship with Him by His gracious lovingkindness].

6 WORKING TOGETHER with Him, we strongly urge you not to receive God's grace in vain [by turning away from sound doctrine and His merciful kindness].

²For He says,

“AT THE ACCEPTABLE TIME (the time of grace) I LISTENED TO

YOU,
AND I HELPED YOU ON THE DAY OF SALVATION.”

Behold, now is “THE ACCEPTABLE TIME,” behold, now is “THE DAY OF SALVATION”—[Is 49:8]

³we put no obstruction in anyone’s path, so that the ministry will not be discredited, ⁴but we commend ourselves in every way as servants of God: in great endurance, in sufferings, in hardships, in distresses,

⁵in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in sleepless nights, in hunger,

⁶in purity and sincerity, in knowledge and spiritual insight, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in genuine love,

⁷in [speaking] the word of truth, in the power of God; by the weapons of righteousness for the right hand [like holding the sword to attack] and for the left [like holding the shield to defend],

⁸amid glory and dishonor; by evil report and good report; branded as deceivers and yet [vindicated as] truthful;

⁹as unknown [to the world], yet well-known [by God and His people]; as dying, yet we live; as punished, yet not killed;

¹⁰as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet bestowing riches on many; as having nothing, yet possessing all things.

¹¹We are speaking freely to you, Corinthians [we are keeping nothing back], and our heart is opened wide. [Is 60:5; Ezek 33:22]

¹²There is no limit to our affection for you, but you are limited in your own affection [for us].

¹³Now in the same way as a fair exchange [for our love toward you]—I am speaking as [I would] to children—open wide [your hearts] to us also.

¹⁴Do not be unequally bound together with unbelievers [do not make mismatched alliances with them, inconsistent with your faith]. For what partnership can righteousness have with lawlessness? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness?

¹⁵What harmony can there be between Christ and Belial (Satan)? Or what does a believer have in common with an unbeliever?

¹⁶What agreement is there between the temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God; just as God said:

“I WILL DWELL AMONG THEM AND WALK AMONG THEM; AND I WILL BE THEIR GOD, AND THEY SHALL BE MY PEOPLE.
[Ex 25:8; 29:45; Lev 26:12; Jer 31:1; Ezek 37:27]

¹⁷“SO COME OUT FROM AMONG UNBELIEVERS AND BE SEPARATE,”
says the Lord,

“AND DO NOT TOUCH WHAT IS UNCLEAN;
And I will graciously receive you and welcome you [with favor], [Is 52:11]

¹⁸And I will be a Father to you,
And you will be My sons and daughters,”
Says the Lord Almighty. [Is 43:6; Hos 1:10]

7 THEREFORE, SINCE we have these [great and wonderful] promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from everything that contaminates body and spirit, completing holiness [living a consecrated life—a life set apart for God's purpose] in the fear of God.

²Make room for us in your hearts; we have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have cheated no one.

³I do not say this to condemn you, for I have said before that you are [nested] in our hearts [and you will remain there] to die together and to live together [with us].

⁴Great is my confidence in you; great is my pride and boasting on your behalf. I am filled [to the brim] with comfort; I am overflowing with joy in spite of all our trouble.

⁵For even when we arrived in Macedonia our bodies had no rest, but we were oppressed at every turn—conflicts and disputes without, fears and dread within.

⁶But God, who comforts and encourages the depressed and the disquieted, comforted us by the arrival of Titus.

⁷And not only by his arrival, but also by [his account of] the encouragement which he received in regard to you. He told us about your longing [for us], your mourning [over sin], and how eagerly you took my part and supported me, so that I rejoiced even more.

⁸For even though I did grieve you with my letter, I do not regret it [now]; though I did regret it—for I see that the letter hurt you, though only for a little while—

⁹yet I am glad now, not because you were hurt and made sorry, but because your sorrow led to repentance [and you turned back to God]; for you felt a grief such as God meant you to feel, so that you might not suffer loss in anything on our account.

Speak God's Word

God, who comforts and encourages the depressed and the disquieted, comforts me.

| adapted from 2 CORINTHIANS
7:6 |

¹⁰For [godly] sorrow that is in accord with the will of God produces a repentance without regret, leading to salvation; but worldly sorrow [the hopeless sorrow of those who do not believe] produces death.

¹¹For [you can look back and] see what an earnestness and authentic concern this godly sorrow has produced in you: what vindication of yourselves [against charges that you tolerate sin], what indignation [at sin], what fear [of offending God], what longing [for righteousness and justice], what passion [to do what is right], what readiness to punish [those who sin and those who tolerate sin]! At every point you have proved yourselves to be innocent in the matter.

¹²So even though I wrote to you [as I did], it was not for the sake of the offender nor for the sake of the one offended, but in order to make evident to you before God how earnestly you do care for us [and your willingness to accept our authority].

¹³It is for this reason that we are comforted and encouraged.

And in addition to our comfort, we were especially delighted at the joy of Titus, because you have refreshed his spirit.

¹⁴For if I have boasted to him at all concerning you, I was not disappointed. But just as everything we ever said to you was true, so our boasting [about you] to Titus has proved true also.

¹⁵His affection is greater than ever as he remembers the obedience [to his guidance] that all of you exhibited, and how you received him with the greatest respect.

¹⁶I rejoice that in everything I have [perfect] confidence in you.

8 NOW, BROTHERS and sisters, we want to tell you about the grace of God which has been evident in the churches of Macedonia [awakening in them a longing to contribute];

²for during an ordeal of severe distress, their abundant joy and their deep poverty [together] overflowed in the wealth of their lavish generosity.

³For I testify that according to their ability, and beyond their ability, they gave voluntarily, ⁴begging us insistently for the privilege of participating in the service for [the support of] the saints [in Jerusalem].

POWERPOINT

A spirit of generosity causes a person to give even when doing so seems unreasonable.

According to 2 Corinthians

8:2–3, even though the churches in Macedonia were experiencing severe distress and deep poverty, they had so much joy that it overflowed in lavish generosity. They gave according to their ability, and even beyond their ability (what would have been comfortable). Let's do our best to follow their example as God leads us.

⁵Not only [did they give materially] as we had hoped, but first they gave themselves to the Lord and to us [as His representatives] by the will of God [disregarding their personal interests and giving as much as they possibly could].

⁶So we urged Titus that, as he began it, he should also complete this gracious work among you as well.

⁷But just as you excel in everything, [and lead the way] in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in genuine concern, and in your love for us, see that you excel in this gracious work [of giving] also.

⁸I am not saying this as a command [to dictate to you], but to prove, by [pointing out] the enthusiasm of others, the sincerity of your love as well.

⁹For you are recognizing [more clearly] the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [His astonishing kindness, His generosity, His gracious favor], that though He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, so that by His poverty you might become rich (abundantly blessed).

¹⁰I give you my opinion in this matter: this is to your advantage, who were the first to begin a year ago not only to take action [to help the believers in Jerusalem], but also [the first] to desire to do it.

¹¹So now finish this, so that your eagerness in desiring it may be equaled by your completion of it, according to your ability.

¹²For if the eagerness [to give] is there, it is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what he does not have.

¹³For it is not [intended] that others be relieved [of their responsibility] and that you be burdened [unfairly], but that there be equality [in sharing the burden]—

¹⁴at this present time your surplus [over necessities] is going to supply their need, so that [at some other time] their surplus may be given to supply your need, that there may be equality;

¹⁵as it is written [in Scripture], “HE WHO gathered MUCH DID NOT HAVE TOO MUCH, AND HE WHO gathered LITTLE DID NOT LACK.” [Ex 16:18]

¹⁶But thanks be to God who puts the same genuine concern for you in the heart of Titus.

¹⁷For Titus not only accepted our appeal, but was so very interested in you that he has gone to visit you of his own accord.

¹⁸And we have sent along with him the brother who is praised in the gospel [ministry] throughout all the churches;

¹⁹and not only this, but he has also been appointed by the churches to travel with us in regard to this gracious offering which we are administering for the glory of the Lord Himself, and to show our eagerness [as believers to help one another].

²⁰We are taking precaution so that no one will [find anything with which to] discredit us in our administration of this generous gift.

²¹For we have regard for what is honorable [and above suspicion], not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

²²We have sent with them our brother, whom we have often tested and found to be diligent in many things, but who is now even more diligent [than ever] because of his great confidence in you.

²³As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker in your service; and as for the [other two] brothers, they are [special] messengers of the churches, a glory and credit to Christ.

²⁴Therefore, show these men, in the sight of the churches, the proof of your love and our reason for being proud of you.

9 NOW IT is unnecessary for me to write to you about the offering [that is to be made] for the saints [in Jerusalem];

²for I know your eagerness [to promote this cause], and I have [proudly] boasted to the people of Macedonia about it, telling them that Achaia has been prepared since last year [for this contribution], and your enthusiasm has inspired the majority of them [to respond].

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Help me, Lord, to give to others thoughtfully and with purpose, not grudgingly or under compulsion, because You love a cheerful giver and You delight in those whose hearts are in their gifts.

• adapted from 2 Corinthians 9:7

³Still, I am sending the brothers [on to you], so that our pride in you may not be an empty boast in this case, and so that you may be prepared, just as I told them you would be;

⁴otherwise, if any Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we—to say nothing of yourselves—will be humiliated for being so confident.

⁵That is why I thought it necessary to urge these brothers to go to you [before I come] and make arrangements in advance for this generous, previously promised gift of yours, so that it would be ready, not as something extorted [or wrung out of you], but as a [voluntary and] generous gift.

⁶Now [remember] this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows generously [that blessings may come to others] will also reap generously [and be blessed].

⁷Let each one give [thoughtfully and with purpose] just as he has decided in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver [and delights in the one whose heart is in his gift]. [Prov 22:9]

⁸And God is able to make all grace [every favor and earthly blessing] come in abundance to you, so that you may always [under all circumstances, regardless of the need] have complete sufficiency in everything [being completely self-sufficient in Him], and have an abundance for every good work and act of charity.

⁹As it is written and forever remains written,

“He [the benevolent and generous person] SCATTERED ABROAD, HE GAVE TO THE POOR,
HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS ENDURES FOREVER!” [Ps 112:9]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Giving Out of Abundance

The Bible includes more than two thousand verses that deal with our responsibility to the poor and needy. To help other people, we need strength, good health, and clarity of mind. We need money to help people who are struggling financially. We need clothes to be able to share with people who need them.

In 2 Corinthians 9:8, Paul teaches us that “God is able to make all grace [every favor and earthly blessing] come in abundance to you, so that you may always [under all circumstances, regardless of the need] have complete sufficiency in everything [being completely self-sufficient in Him], and have an abundance for every good work and act of charity.” If you are willing to share with others and meet their needs, God will not only meet your needs, He will give you an abundance of supply so you will always be able to give.

¹⁰Now He who provides seed for the sower and bread for food will provide and multiply your seed for sowing [that is, your resources] and increase the harvest of your righteousness [which shows itself in active goodness, kindness, and love]. [Is 55:10; Hos 10:12]

¹¹You will be enriched in every way so that you may be generous, and this [generosity, administered] through us is producing thanksgiving to God [from those who benefit].

¹²For the ministry of this service (offering) is not only supplying the needs of the saints (God's people), but is also overflowing through many expressions of thanksgiving to God.

¹³Because of this act of ministry, they will glorify God for your obedience to the gospel of Christ which you confess, as well as for your generous participation [in this gift] for them and for all [the other believers in need], ¹⁴and they also long for you while they pray on your behalf, because of the surpassing measure of God's grace [His undeserved favor, mercy, and blessing which is revealed] in you.

¹⁵Now thanks be to God for His indescribable gift [which is precious beyond words]!

10 NOW I, Paul, urge you by the gentleness and graciousness of Christ—I who am meek [so they say] when with you face to face, but bold [outspoken and fearless] toward you when absent!

²I ask that when I do come I will not be driven to the boldness that I intend to show toward those few who regard us as if we walked according to the flesh [like men without the Spirit].

Speak God's Word

*Though I walk in the flesh, I do not carry on my spiritual warfare according to the flesh. The weapons of my warfare are not physical weapons of flesh and blood.
My weapons are divinely powerful for the destruction of fortresses.*

10:3–4 |

POWERPOINT

The strongholds that Paul wrote about in 2 Corinthians 10:4 are in our minds. They are areas of our thinking that Satan dominates through lies we have believed. The only weapon mighty enough to destroy those lies is God's Word, because His Word is truth. When we study it, know it, believe it, obey it, and speak it, Satan becomes a defeated foe and strongholds in our minds are destroyed.

³For though we walk in the flesh [as mortal men], we are not carrying on our [spiritual] warfare according to the flesh and using the weapons of man.

⁴The weapons of our warfare are not physical [weapons of flesh and blood]. Our weapons are divinely powerful for the destruction of fortresses.

⁵*We are* destroying sophisticated arguments and every exalted and proud thing that sets itself up against the [true] knowledge of God, and we are taking every thought and purpose captive to the obedience of Christ, ⁶being ready to punish every act of disobedience, when your own obedience [as a church] is complete.

⁷You are looking [only] at the outward appearance of things. If anyone is confident that he is Christ's, he should reflect and consider this, that just as he is Christ's, so too are we.

⁸For even though I boast rather freely about the authority the Lord gave us for building you up and not for destroying you, I will not be ashamed [of the truth],

⁹nor do I want to seem to be trying to frighten you with my letters;

¹⁰for they say, "His letters are weighty and forceful and impressive, but his personal presence is unimpressive and his speech contemptible [of no account]."

¹¹Let such people realize that what we say by word in letters when we are absent, is the same as what we are in action when present.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Winning the Battles of the Mind

One of Satan's devices that we must recognize so we can resist and overcome him is his evil work in the human mind (see 2 Cor. 10:4–5). Satan desires to control our thoughts, because he knows well that our thoughts determine our actions. He injects thoughts and lies into our minds, hoping we will accept them as our own and act accordingly. Our goal should be to know God's Word well enough to immediately recognize and reject all thoughts that do not agree with His Word and to replace them with thoughts that do agree with it.

Fearful, angry, or judgmental thoughts are among Satan's most-used weapons in trying to deceive and diminish God's children. God has a large, free, full life planned for us, and Satan seeks to limit us in every way, so we will live small, joyless, unproductive lives. He is a thief and a liar.

We should immediately investigate the source of any thought or imagination that causes us to shrink back, feel inferior or incompetent to do what God has called us to do, or to limit us in any way. The thoughts the enemy plants in our minds never empower us; they always steal from us. They torment us, preventing progress and growth in our lives. God certainly is not the author of such thoughts or imaginings; Satan is.

If we will keep our mind actively focused on positive things and not let it be idle or passive, we will rob Satan of his opportunities to influence our thinking and build strongholds in our minds. We can choose to think our own thoughts based on God's Word instead of merely waiting to see what thoughts come to mind.

I encourage you to learn to recognize thoughts that are unclean, fearful, slanderous, envious, angry, judgmental, or deceitful and reject them immediately. I have heard it said that we cannot keep a bird from flying over our head, but we can refuse to let it make a nest in our hair. We might say the same about Satan's desire to control our thoughts. We cannot keep him from trying to use our minds for his evil work, but we can prevent his success by filling our minds with the Word of God and speaking God's Word in every situation. As we continue in God's Word, we will ultimately gain victory over the enemy in our minds.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Holy Spirit, teach me to recognize the work of the enemy when he tries to plant thoughts in my mind, to resist him, and to use the Word of God to pull down the mental strongholds he seeks to build in me. In Christ's name, I pray. Amen.

POWERPOINT

People often say, “I can’t help what I think. Thoughts just come to me whether I want them to or not.” While it is true that thoughts frequently come without being invited, it is not true that we cannot do anything about them. Second Corinthians 10:5 teaches us to destroy wrong thoughts. This means we cannot allow them to stay in our minds. We can eliminate any thought the enemy plants in our minds by simply choosing to think something else.

¹²We do not have the audacity to put ourselves in the same class or compare ourselves with some who [supply testimonials to] commend themselves. When they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they lack wisdom and behave like fools.

¹³We, on the other hand, will not boast beyond our proper limit, but [will keep] within the limits of our commission (territory, authority) which God has granted to us as a measure, which reaches and includes even you.

Speak God's Word

I take every thought and purpose captive to the obedience of Christ.

| adapted from 2 CORINTHIANS
10:5 |

¹⁴We are not overstepping the limits of our province, as if we did not [legitimately] reach to you, for we were the [very] first to come even as far as you with the good news of Christ.

¹⁵We do not go beyond our proper limit, boasting in the work of other men, but we have the hope that as your faith [in Christ and His divine power] continues to grow, our field among you may be greatly expanded [but still within the limits of our commission], ¹⁶so that we may preach the gospel even in the lands beyond you, but not to boast in work already accomplished in another one's field of activity.

¹⁷However, "LET HIM WHO BOASTS BOAST IN THE LORD." [Jer 9:24]

¹⁸For it is not he who commends and praises himself who is approved [by God], but it is the one whom the Lord commends and praises.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Change Your Mind

Take captive every thought coming into your mind that does not agree with the Word of God (see 2 Cor. 10:5). Lead those thoughts away, and let them be replaced with ones that are obedient to Jesus Christ. In other words, change your mind! When you recognize that you are thinking something you should not think, stop thinking about it and start thinking about something that is good and wholesome.

This is something we have to be persistent in doing. If you feel weary in the beginning of this new endeavor, I understand because I felt the same way. Instead of fighting with negative thoughts, simply replace them with positive ones. If you choose to think something good, the bad thought cannot occupy that space in your mind anymore. We always overcome evil with good (see Rom. 12:21).

11 I WISH you would bear with me [while I indulge] in a little foolishness; but indeed you are bearing with me [as you read this].

²I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy because I have promised you to one husband, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ. [Hos 2:19, 20]

³But I am afraid that, even as the serpent beguiled Eve by his cunning, your minds may be corrupted and led away from the simplicity of [your sincere and] pure devotion to Christ. [Gen 3:4]

⁴For [you seem willing to allow it] if one comes and preaches another Jesus whom we have not preached, or if you receive a different spirit from the one you received, or a different gospel from the one you accepted. You tolerate all this beautifully [welcoming the deception].

⁵Yet I consider myself in no way inferior to the [so-called] super-apostles.

⁶But even if I am unskilled in speaking, yet I am not [untrained] in knowledge [I know what I am talking about]; but we have made this evident to you in every way, in all things.

⁷Or did I [perhaps] sin by humbling myself so that you might be exalted and honored, because I preached God's gospel to you free of charge?

⁸I robbed other churches by accepting [more than their share of] financial support for my ministry to you.

⁹And when I was with you and ran short [financially], I did not burden any of you; for what I needed was fully supplied by the brothers (Silas and Timothy) who came from Macedonia (the church at Philippi). So I kept myself from being a burden to you in any way, and will continue to do so. [Phil 4:15, 16]

¹⁰As the truth of Christ is in me, my boast [of independence] will not be silenced in the regions of Achaia (southern Greece).

¹¹Why? Because I do not love you [or wish you well, or have regard for your welfare]? God knows [that I do]!

¹²But what I am doing I will keep doing, [for I am determined to keep this independence] in order to cut off the claim of those who want an opportunity to be regarded just as we are in the things they brag about.

¹³For such men are counterfeit apostles, deceitful workers, masquerading as apostles of Christ.

¹⁴And no wonder, since Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light.

¹⁵So it is no great surprise if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness, but their end will correspond with their deeds.

¹⁶I repeat then, let no one think that I am foolish; but even if you do, at least accept me as foolish, so that I too may boast a little.

¹⁷What I say in this confident boasting, I say not as the Lord would [with His authority], but foolishly.

¹⁸Since many boast [of worldly things and brag] about human accomplishments, I will boast too.

¹⁹For you, being so wise, gladly tolerate and accept the foolish [like me]!

²⁰For you tolerate it if anyone makes you his slave; or devours you and your possessions; or takes advantage of you; or acts presumptuously; or hits you in the face.

²¹To my shame, I must say, we have been too weak [in comparison to those pseudo-apostles who take advantage of you].

But in whatever anyone else dares to boast—I am speaking foolishly—I also dare to boast.

²²Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I.

²³Are they [self-proclaimed] servants of Christ?—I am speaking as if I were out of my mind—I am more so [for I exceed them]; with far more labors, with far more imprisonments, beaten times without number, and often in danger of death.

²⁴Five times I received from the Jews thirty-nine lashes. [Deut 25:3]

²⁵Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned. Three times I was shipwrecked, a night and a day I have spent adrift on the sea;

²⁶many times on journeys, [exposed to] danger from rivers, danger from bandits, danger from my own countrymen, danger from the Gentiles, danger in the city, danger in the wilderness, danger on the sea, danger among those posing as believers;

²⁷in labor and hardship, often unable to sleep, in hunger and thirst, often [driven to] fasting [for lack of food], in cold and exposure [without adequate clothing].

²⁸Besides those external things, there is the daily [inescapable] pressure of my concern for all the churches.

²⁹Who is weak, and I do not feel [his] weakness? Who is made to sin, and I am not on fire [with sorrow and concern]?

³⁰If I must boast, I will boast of the things that reveal my weakness [the things by which I am made weak in the eyes of my opponents].

³¹The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, He who is blessed and to be praised forevermore, knows that I am not lying.

³²In Damascus the governor (ethnarch) under King Aretas guarded the city of Damascus in order to arrest me, ³³and I was [actually] let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and slipped through his fingers.

12 IT IS necessary to boast, though nothing is gained by it; but I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord.

²I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago—whether in the body I do not know, or out of the body I do not know, [only] God knows—such a man was caught up to the third heaven. [Luke 23:43]

³And I know that such a man—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, [only] God knows—

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that Your grace is sufficient for me. Your lovingkindness and Your mercy are more than enough —always available—regardless of the situation; for Your power is being perfected and is completed and shows itself most effectively in my weakness.

• adapted from 2 Corinthians 12:9

⁴was caught up into Paradise and heard inexpressible words which man is not permitted to speak [words too sacred to tell].

⁵On behalf of such a man [and his experiences] I will boast; but in my own behalf I will not boast, except in regard to my weaknesses.

⁶If I wish to boast, I will not be foolish, because I will be speaking the truth. But I abstain [from it], so that no one will credit me with more than [is justified by what] he sees in me or hears from me.

⁷Because of the surpassing greatness and extraordinary nature of the revelations [which I received from God], for this reason, to keep me from thinking of myself as important, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan, to torment and harass me—to keep me from exalting myself! [Job 2:6]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Give God What You're Not

Don't just give God what you are and what you feel you have to offer—give Him what you are not. If you make mistakes or feel that you are lacking in some area of your life, give it to God and let Him be your all. If you give God everything you are and everything you are not, He will give you everything He is and has. Victory is not about what you can do; it's about what God can do through you.

Paul said that God's strength was made perfect in his weakness (see 2 Cor. 12:9). Jesus said to gather up the fragments so nothing is wasted (see John 6:12). If you will give Jesus all of you, even the worn-out, used-up fragments, He will make something awesome out of them. Let God begin to flow through your strengths and your weaknesses.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Examine Your Conduct

Don't ever be afraid to take a close look at yourself and, with the Holy Spirit's help, recognize any area that is a moral weakness or any conduct that needs improvement. Paul urged believers to examine their conduct to see if they were bearing the proper fruit that should accompany faith in Christ (see 2 Cor. 13:5).

For example, we might ask ourselves what we are doing to help other people, and if we find that we are not doing anything, or not doing as much as we should be doing, we can repent and with God's help begin doing what is right.

I don't encourage people to focus excessively on their faults. We are told to look "away from all that will distract us" and to focus our eyes on Jesus, Who is the Author and Finisher of our faith (see Heb. 12:2). But I do believe it is wise to spend time with God asking Him to reveal to us anything that needs to change. The psalmist David asked God to examine Him (see Ps. 26:2; 139:23), and we can follow his example and the instructions of 2 Corinthians 13:5.

In the past three days, God has revealed in me some wrong attitudes and thought processes I was not even aware of. I am thankful because now I can not only repent, but I am also free to ask for and receive God's help in changing. We cannot deal with things we are not aware of! God loves us completely at all times, and we can feel safe to look at ourselves honestly and talk with Him about them without any fear of rejection.

⁸Concerning this I pleaded with the Lord three times that it might leave me;

⁹but He has said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you [My lovingkindness and My mercy are more than enough—always available—regardless of the situation]; for [My] power is being perfected [and is completed and shows itself most effectively] in [your] weakness.” Therefore, I will all the more gladly boast in my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ [may completely enfold me and] may dwell in me.

¹⁰So I am well pleased with weaknesses, with insults, with distresses, with persecutions, and with difficulties, for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak [in human strength], then I am strong [truly able, truly powerful, truly drawing from God’s strength].

¹¹Now I have become foolish; you have forced me [by questioning my apostleship]. Actually I should have been commended by you [instead of being treated disdainfully], for I was not inferior to those super-apostles, even if I am nobody.

¹²The signs that indicate a genuine apostle were performed among you fully and most patiently—signs and wonders and miracles.

¹³For in what respect were you treated as inferior to the rest of the churches, except [for the fact] that I did not burden you [with my financial support]? Forgive me [for doing you] this injustice!

¹⁴Now for the third time I am ready to visit you. I will not burden you [financially], because I do not want what is yours [not your money or your possessions], but you. For children are not responsible to save up for their parents, but parents for their children.

¹⁵But I will very gladly spend [my own resources] and be utterly spent for your souls. If I love you greatly, am I to be loved less [by you]?

¹⁶But be that as it may, I did not burden you [with my support]. But [some say that] I was sly and took you by trickery.

¹⁷Did I take advantage of you or make any money off you through any of the messengers I sent you? [Certainly not!]

¹⁸I urged Titus to go, and I sent the brother with him. Titus did not take advantage of you, did he? [No!] Did we not conduct ourselves in the same spirit and walk in the same steps? [Of course!]

¹⁹All this time you have been thinking that we are [merely] defending ourselves to you. It is in the sight of God that we have been speaking [as one] in Christ; and everything, dearly beloved, is to strengthen you [spiritually].

²⁰For I am afraid that perhaps when I come I may find you not to be as I wish, and that you may find me not as you wish—that perhaps there may be strife, jealousy, angry tempers, disputes, slander, gossip, arrogance and disorder;

²¹I am afraid that when I come again my God may humiliate me before you, and I may mourn over many of those who have sinned in the past and not repented of the impurity, sexual immorality and decadence which they formerly practiced.

13 THIS IS the third time that I am visiting you. EVERY FACT SHALL BE SUSTAINED and CONFIRMED BY THE TESTIMONY OF TWO OR THREE WITNESSES. [Deut 19:15]

²I have already warned those who have sinned in the past and all the rest as well, and I warn them now even though I am absent [from you] as I did when I was with you the second time, that if I come back I will not spare anyone,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Fight Stress with Peace

When we are stressed out, we would like to eliminate the causes of the problems, but the source of stress is not merely our difficulties, circumstances, and situations. Stress comes from approaching problems with the world's perspective rather than with faith in Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace. No one enjoys dealing with problems, and we are tempted to worry and become stressed about them. Thankfully, as God's children, we have another option. We can trust God and watch Him do amazing things in our lives.

Paul instructs us in 2 Corinthians 13:11 to "live in peace [enjoy the spiritual well-being experienced by believers who walk closely with God]." It was Jesus' blood that bought our peace, but to enjoy peace we must be willing to change our approach to life. We will never enjoy peace without a willingness to adjust and adapt ourselves. We need to sacrifice worry and reasoning if we are to know peace. Peace is available at all times, but we must pursue it aggressively (see 1 Pet. 3:11).

Even though we will have difficult issues to deal with, we can have Jesus' peace because He has overcome the world and deprived the world of its power to harm us (see John 16:33). He left us with the power to stop allowing ourselves to be agitated and disturbed (see John 14:27)! Peace is available if we will choose it.

³since you seek [forensic] proof that Christ is speaking in and through me. He is not weak or ineffective in dealing with you, but powerful within you.

⁴For even though He was crucified in weakness [yielding Himself], yet He lives [resurrected] by the power of God [His Father]. For we too are weak in Him [as He was humanly weak], yet we are alive and well [in fellowship] with Him because of the power of God directed toward you.

⁵Test and evaluate yourselves to see whether you are in the faith and living your lives as [committed] believers. Examine yourselves [not me]! Or do you not recognize this about yourselves [by an ongoing experience] that Jesus Christ is in you—unless indeed you fail the test and are rejected as counterfeit?

⁶But I hope you will acknowledge that we do not fail the test nor are we to be rejected.

⁷But I pray to God that you may do nothing wrong. Not so that we [and our teaching] may appear to be approved, but that you may continue doing what is right, even though we [by comparison] may seem to have failed.

⁸For we can do nothing against the truth, but only for the truth [and the gospel—the good news of salvation].

⁹We are glad when we are weak [since God's power comes freely through us], but you [by comparison] are strong. We also pray for this, that you be made complete [fully restored, growing and maturing in godly character and spirit—pleasing your heavenly Father by the life you live].

¹⁰For this reason I am writing these things while absent from you, so that when I come, I will not need to deal severely [with you], in my use of the authority which the Lord has given me [to be used] for building you up and not for tearing you down.

¹¹Finally, believers, rejoice! Be made complete [be what you should be], be comforted, be like-minded, live in peace [enjoy the spiritual well-being experienced by believers who walk closely with God]; and the God of love and peace [the source of lovingkindness] will be with you.

¹²Greet one another with a holy kiss.

¹³All ~~the~~ God's people greet you.

¹⁴The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Galatians

Many times, a significant mental battle that believers fight is the battle between law and grace. Simply put, this is the conflict between religion and relationship. Religion tells us what we are “supposed to do” in order to be a good Christian, but relationship draws us into wanting to live God’s way because we know His love for us and we love Him in return. When we live by the law, we strive by works of the flesh to “do” right, while in relationship we allow the Holy Spirit to empower us to “be” right. As a result, our thoughts, motives, and behaviors are in accordance with God’s Word and that leads to a blessed life.

Galatians explains the battle between the law and grace, the flesh and the Spirit, and religion and relationship. I encourage you to meditate on its truths and be set free from legalism to live in vital relationship with God.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM GALATIANS:

Because Christ purchased our freedom on the cross, we are released from condemnation (see Galatians 3:13).

In Christ, you can be set free and you can stay free (see Galatians 5:1).

For good results, plant positive, life-filled thoughts into your mind and heart (see Galatians 6:7).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM GALATIANS:

Christ purchased our freedom and redeemed us from the curse of the Law and its condemnation by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, “CURSED IS EVERYONE WHO HANGS [crucified] ON A TREE (cross).” | Galatians 3:13

But the fruit of the Spirit [the result of His presence within us] is love [unselfish concern for others], joy, [inner] peace, patience [not the ability to wait, but how we act while waiting], kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such things there is no law. | Galatians 5:22–23

Let us not grow weary or become discouraged in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap, if we do not give in. | Galatians 6:9

THE LETTER OF PAUL TO THE GALATIANS

1 PAUL, AN apostle (not commissioned and sent from men nor through the agency of man, but through Jesus Christ—the Messiah—and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead),

²and all the brothers who are with me,

To the churches of Galatia:

³Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ,

⁴who gave Himself [as a sacrifice to atone] for our sins [to save and sanctify us] so that He might rescue us from this present evil age, in accordance with the will and purpose and plan of our God and Father—

⁵to Him be [ascribed all] the glory through the ages of the ages. Amen.

⁶I am astonished and extremely irritated that you are so quickly shifting your allegiance and deserting Him who called you by the grace of Christ, for a different [even contrary] gospel;

⁷which is really not another [gospel]; but there are [obviously] some [people masquerading as teachers] who are disturbing and confusing you [with a misleading, counterfeit teaching] and want to distort the gospel of Christ [twisting it into something which it absolutely is not].

⁸But even if we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you a gospel contrary to that which we [originally] preached to you, let him be condemned to destruction!

⁹As we have said before, so I now say again, if anyone is preaching to you a gospel different from that which you received [from us], let him be condemned to destruction!

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Jesus, for giving Yourself as a sacrifice to atone for my sins, to save and sanctify me so that You might rescue me from this present evil age, in accordance with the will and purpose and plan of God.

• adapted from Galatians 1:4

POWERPOINT

The apostle Paul asked, “Am I now trying to win the favor and approval of men, or of God? Or am I seeking to please someone? If I were still trying to be popular with men, I would not be a bond-servant of Christ” (Gal. 1:10). In other words, trying to please people gives them control and can have a negative impact on God’s will for your life. Focus on your relationship with God and on pleasing Him more than trying to please people.

¹⁰Am I now trying to win the favor and approval of men, or of God? Or am I seeking to please someone? If I were still trying to be popular with men, I would not be a bond-servant of Christ.

¹¹For I want you to know, believers, that the gospel which was preached by me is not man's gospel [it is not a human invention, patterned after any human concept].

¹²For indeed I did not receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a [direct] revelation of Jesus Christ.

¹³You have heard of my career and former manner of life in Judaism, how I used to hunt down and persecute the church of God extensively and [with fanatical zeal] tried [my best] to destroy it.

¹⁴And [you have heard how] I surpassed many of my contemporaries among my countrymen in [my advanced study of the laws of] Judaism, as I was extremely loyal to the traditions of my ancestors.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Courage To Be Different

If you are going to be the person you are called to be in Christ, it is vital that you have the courage to be yourself, which may mean that you may not be just like everyone else you know. You may not want to do the things they do or manage your life as they manage theirs. People very often want us to do things that we don't feel we should do. When that happens, we should always follow our hearts rather than theirs.

Becoming a people-pleaser is one of the traps we often fall into, and it can ultimately make us very unhappy. We want to please others and be well liked and accepted, but if it becomes extreme and leads to someone else running our life and our losing our freedom, we must always say no to people, and yes to God (see Gal. 1:10). Let us always remember that our true worth and value are in Christ and His love and acceptance of us, not in being accepted by the people we know.

Follow the Holy Spirit as He leads you to be the person you were created to be and to do the things God has called you to do. God will give you relationships that are healthy and allow you to follow your heart and be yourself. Being fully and completely yourself is the only way you will ever be truly happy.

¹⁵But when God, who had chosen me and set me apart before I was born, and called me through His grace, was pleased [Is 49:1; Jer 1:5]

¹⁶to reveal His Son in me so that I might preach Him among the Gentiles [as the good news—the way of salvation], I did not immediately consult with anyone [for guidance regarding God's call and His revelation to me].

¹⁷Nor did I [even] go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went to Arabia and stayed awhile, and afterward returned once more to Damascus.

¹⁸Then three years later I did go up to Jerusalem to get acquainted with Cephas (Peter), and I stayed with him fifteen days.

¹⁹But I did not see any other apostle except James, the [half] brother of the Lord.

²⁰(Now in what I am writing to you, I assure you as if I were standing before God that I am not lying.)

²¹Then I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia.

²²And I was still unknown by sight to the churches which were in Christ in Judea (Jerusalem and the surrounding region);

²³they only kept hearing, “He who used to persecute us is now preaching the [good news of the] faith which he once was trying to destroy.”

²⁴And they were glorifying God [as the Author and Source of what had taken place and all that had been accomplished] in me.

2 THEN AFTER a period of fourteen years I again went up to Jerusalem, [this time] with Barnabas, taking Titus along also.

²I went up [to Jerusalem] because of a [divine] revelation, and I put before them the gospel which I preach among the Gentiles. But I did so in private before those of reputation, for fear that I might be running or had run [the course of my ministry] in vain.

³But [all went well, for] not even Titus, who was with me, was compelled [as some had anticipated] to be circumcised, despite the fact that he was a Greek.

⁴My concern was because of the false brothers [those people masquerading as Christians] who had been secretly smuggled in [to the community of believers]. They had slipped in to spy on the freedom which we have in Christ Jesus, in order to bring us back into bondage [under the Law of Moses].

⁵But we did not yield to them even for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel would continue to remain with you [in its purity].

⁶But from those who were of high reputation (whatever they were—in terms of individual importance—makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality—He is not impressed with the positions that people hold nor does He recognize distinctions such as fame or power)—well, those who were of reputation contributed nothing to me [that is, they had nothing to add to my gospel message nor did they impose any new requirements on me]. [Deut 10:17]

⁷But on the contrary, they saw that I had been entrusted with the gospel to the uncircumcised (Gentiles), just as Peter had been [entrusted to proclaim the gospel] to the circumcised

(Jews);

⁸(for He who worked effectively for Peter and empowered him in his ministry to the Jews also worked effectively for me and empowered me in my ministry to the Gentiles).

⁹And recognizing the grace [that God had] bestowed on me, James and Cephas (Peter) and John, who were reputed to be pillars [of the Jerusalem church], gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, so that we could go to the Gentiles [with their blessing] and they to the circumcised (Jews).

¹⁰*They asked* only [one thing], that we remember the poor, the very thing I was also eager to do.

¹¹Now when Cephas (Peter) came to Antioch, I opposed him face to face [about his conduct there], because he stood condemned [by his own actions].

¹²Before certain men came from James, he used to eat [his meals] with the Gentiles; but when the men [from Jerusalem] arrived, he began to withdraw and separate himself [from the Gentile believers], because he was afraid of those from the circumcision.

¹³The rest of the Jews joined him in this hypocrisy [ignoring their knowledge that Jewish and Gentile Christians were united, under the new covenant, into one faith], with the result that even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy.

A Prayer To Renew Your

Mind

Thank You, Lord, that I am not justified and placed in right standing with You by works of the Law, but only through faith in Your beloved Son, Christ Jesus.

• adapted from Galatians 2:16

¹⁴But when I saw that they were not being straightforward about the truth of the gospel, I told Cephas (Peter) in front of everyone, “If you, being a Jew, live [as you have been living] like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how is it that you are [now virtually] forcing the Gentiles to live like Jews [if they want to eat with you]?”

¹⁵[I went on to say] “We are Jews by birth and not sinners from among the Gentiles;

¹⁶yet we know that a man is not justified [and placed in right standing with God] by works of the Law, but [only] through faith in [God’s beloved Son,] Christ Jesus. And even we [as Jews] have believed in Christ Jesus, so that we may be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the Law. By observing the Law no one will ever be justified [declared free of the guilt of sin and its penalty]. [Ps 143:2]

¹⁷“But if, while we seek to be justified in Christ [by faith], we ourselves are found to be sinners, does that make Christ an advocate or promoter of our sin? Certainly not!

¹⁸“For if I [or anyone else should] rebuild [through word or by practice] what I once tore down [the belief that observing the Law is essential for salvation], I prove myself to be a transgressor.

¹⁹“For through the Law I died to the Law and its demands on me [because salvation is provided through the death and resurrection of Christ], so that I might [from now on] live to God.

²⁰“I have been crucified with Christ [that is, in Him I have shared His crucifixion]; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body I live by faith [by adhering to, relying on, and completely trusting] in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

You're on Your Way

What did Paul mean when he said, "I die daily [I face death and die to self]" (1 Cor. 15:31)? It is true that Paul faced the possibility of physical death every day, but Paul was also saying that he had to say no to himself and his fleshly desires every single day. Every day he had to lay down his own will in order for God's will to be done.

Twenty years after his conversion, Paul wrote, "It is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me" (Gal. 2:20). It took Paul twenty years to get to the place where he was no longer living merely for himself, so don't feel bad if you still struggle with the same issue. Just keep making progress and say, "I'm not where I need to be, but thank God I'm not where I used to be. I'm okay, and I'm on my way!"

²¹"I do not ignore or nullify the [gracious gift of the] grace of God [His amazing, unmerited favor], for if righteousness comes through [observing] the Law, then Christ died needlessly. [His suffering and death would have had no purpose whatsoever.]"

3 O YOU foolish and thoughtless and superficial Galatians, who has bewitched you [that you would act like this], to whom —right before your very eyes—Jesus Christ was publicly portrayed as crucified [in the gospel message]?

²This is all I want to ask of you: did you receive the [Holy] Spirit as the result of obeying [the requirements of] the Law, or was it the result of hearing [the message of salvation and] with faith [believing it]?

³Are you so foolish and senseless? Having begun [your new life by faith] with the Spirit, are you now being perfected and reaching spiritual maturity by the flesh [that is, by your own works and efforts to keep the Law]?

⁴Have you suffered so many things and experienced so much all for nothing—if indeed it was all for nothing?

⁵So then, does He who supplies you with His [marvelous Holy] Spirit and works miracles among you, do it as a result of the works of the Law [which you perform], or because you [believe confidently in the message which you] heard with faith?

⁶Just as Abraham BELIEVED GOD, AND IT WAS CREDITED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS, [as conformity to God's will and purpose—so it is with you also]. [Gen 15:6]

⁷So understand that it is the people who live by faith [with confidence in the power and goodness of God] who are [the true] sons of Abraham.

⁸The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, proclaimed the good news [of the Savior] to Abraham in advance [with this promise], saying, “IN YOU SHALL ALL THE NATIONS BE BLESSED.” [Gen 12:3]

⁹So then those who are people of faith [whether Jew or Gentile] are blessed and favored by God [and declared free of the guilt of sin and its penalty, and placed in right standing with Him] along with Abraham, the believer.

10For all who depend on the Law [seeking justification and salvation by obedience to the Law and the observance of rituals] are under a curse; for it is written, “CURSED (condemned to destruction) IS EVERYONE WHO DOES NOT ABIDE BY ALL THINGS WRITTEN IN THE BOOK OF THE LAW, SO AS TO PRACTICE THEM.” [Deut 27:26]

Speak God's Word

Christ purchased my freedom and redeemed me from the curse of the Law and its condemnation by becoming a curse for me—for it is written, “CURSED IS EVERYONE WHO HANGS [CRUCIFIED] ON A TREE (cross).”

| adapted from GALATIANS 3:13 |

¹¹Now it is clear that no one is justified [that is, declared free of the guilt of sin and its penalty, and placed in right standing] before God by the Law, for “THE RIGHTEOUS (the just, the upright) SHALL LIVE BY FAITH.” [Hab 2:4]

¹²But the Law does not rest on or require faith [it has nothing to do with faith], but [instead, the Law] says, “HE WHO PRACTICES THEM [the things prescribed by the Law] SHALL LIVE BY THEM [instead of faith].” [Lev 18:5]

¹³Christ purchased our freedom and redeemed us from the curse of the Law and its condemnation by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, “CURSED IS EVERYONE WHO HANGS [crucified] ON A TREE (cross)” —[Deut 21:23]

¹⁴in order that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might also come to the Gentiles, so that we would all receive [the realization of] the promise of the [Holy] Spirit through faith.

¹⁵Brothers and sisters, I speak in terms of human relations: even though a last will and testament is just a human covenant, yet when it has been signed and made legally binding, no one sets it aside or adds to it [modifying it in some way].

¹⁶Now the promises [in the covenants] were decreed to Abraham and to his seed. God does not say, “And to seeds (descendants, heirs),” as if [referring] to many [persons], but as to one, “And to your Seed,” who is [none other than] Christ. [Gen 13:15; 17:8]

¹⁷This is what I mean: the Law, which came into existence four hundred and thirty years later [after the covenant concerning the coming Messiah], does not and cannot invalidate the covenant previously established by God, so as to abolish the promise. [Ex 12:40]

¹⁸For if the inheritance [of what was promised] is based on [observing] the Law [as these false teachers claim], it is no longer based on a promise; however, God granted it to Abraham [as a gift] by virtue of His promise.

¹⁹Why, then, the Law [what was its purpose]? It was added [after the promise to Abraham, to reveal to people their guilt] because of transgressions [that is, to make people conscious of the sinfulness of sin], and [the Law] was ordained through angels and delivered to Israel by the hand of a mediator [Moses, the mediator between God and Israel, to be in effect] until the Seed would come to whom the promise had been made.

²⁰Now the mediator or go-between [in a transaction] is not [needed] for just one party; whereas God is only one [and was the only One giving the promise to Abraham, but the Law was a contract between two, God and Israel; its validity depended on both].

²¹Is the Law then contrary to the promises of God? Certainly not! For if a system of law had been given which could impart life, then righteousness (right standing with God) would actually have been based on law.

²²But the Scripture has imprisoned everyone [everything—the entire world] under sin, so that [the inheritance, the blessing of salvation] which was promised through faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe [in Him and acknowledge Him as God's precious Son].

²³Now before faith came, we were kept in custody under the Law, [perpetually] imprisoned [in preparation] for the faith that was destined to be revealed, ²⁴with the result that the Law has become our tutor and our disciplinarian to guide us to Christ, so that we may be justified [that is, declared free of the guilt of sin and its penalty, and placed in right standing with God] by faith.

²⁵But now that faith has come, we are no longer under [the control and authority of] a tutor and disciplinarian.

²⁶For you [who are born-again have been reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, sanctified and] are all children of God [set apart for His purpose with full rights and privileges] through faith in Christ Jesus.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Put on Love

We are created to receive and give love. If we do anything but love and allow ourselves to be loved, it is like wearing clothes that are too small for us—it's uncomfortable and it steals our joy!

God tells us in His Word to put on love (see Col. 3:12–14). I believe the phrase “put on” means to do it on purpose. We are to clothe ourselves “with Christ” (Gal. 3:27), Who is love (see 1 John 4:8). We are instructed to put on behavior characterized by mercy, compassion, kind feelings, gentle ways, and patience, which is tireless and long-suffering. We are challenged to be people who endure whatever comes with a good temper and to readily pardon one another. Just as each day we choose clothing to wear that is comfortable and looks good on us, we also need to make spiritual choices that are comfortable and look good on us as we go out into society and represent Jesus.

²⁷For all of you who were baptized into Christ [into a spiritual union with the Christ, the Anointed] have clothed yourselves with Christ [that is, you have taken on His characteristics and values].

²⁸There is [now no distinction in regard to salvation] neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you [who believe] are all one in Christ Jesus [no one can claim a spiritual superiority]. [Rom 3:22; 1 Cor 12:13]

²⁹And if you belong to Christ [if you are in Him], then you are Abraham's descendants, and [spiritual] heirs according to [God's] promise.

4 NOW WHAT I mean [when I talk about children and their guardians] is this: as long as the heir is a child, he does not differ at all from a slave even though he is the [future owner and] master of all [the estate];

²but he is under [the authority of] guardians and household administrators or managers until the date set by his father [when he is of legal age].

³So also we [whether Jews or Gentiles], when we were children (spiritually immature), were kept like slaves under the elementary [man-made religious or philosophical] teachings of the world.

⁴But when [in God's plan] the proper time had fully come, God sent His Son, born of a woman, born under the [regulations of the] Law,

⁵so that He might redeem and liberate those who were under the Law, that we [who believe] might be adopted as sons [as God's children with all rights as fully grown members of a family]. [Rom 11:17-24]

⁶And because you [really] are [His] sons, God has sent the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying out, "Abba! Father!"

⁷Therefore you are no longer a slave (bond-servant), but a son; and if a son, then also an heir through [the gracious act of] God [through Christ].

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, for sending Your Son so that He might redeem and liberate those who were under the Law, that we who believe might be adopted as Your children, with all rights as fully grown members of a family.

• adapted from Galatians 4:4–5

⁸But at that time, when you did not know [the true] God and were unacquainted with Him, you [Gentiles] were slaves to those [pagan] things which by [their very] nature were not and could not be gods at all.

⁹Now, however, since you have come to know [the true] God [through personal experience], or rather to be known by God, how is it that you are turning back again to the weak and worthless elemental principles [of religions and philosophies], to which you want to be enslaved all over again?

¹⁰[For example,] you observe [particular] days and months and seasons and years.

¹¹I fear for you, that perhaps I have labored [to the point of exhaustion] over you in vain.

¹²Believers, I beg of you, become as I am [free from the bondage of Jewish ritualism and ordinances], for I have become as you are [a Gentile]. You did me no wrong [when I first came to you; do not do it now].

¹³On the contrary, you know that it was because of a physical illness that I [remained and] preached the gospel to you the first time;

¹⁴and even though my physical condition was a trial to you, you did not regard it with contempt, or scorn and reject me; but you received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus Himself.

¹⁵What then has become of that sense of blessing and the joy that you once had [from your salvation and your relationship with Christ]? For I testify of you that, if possible, you would have torn out your own eyes and given them to me [to replace mine].

¹⁶So have I become your enemy by telling you the truth?

¹⁷These men [the Judaizers] eagerly seek you [to entrap you with honeyed words and attention, to win you over to their philosophy], not honorably [for their purpose is not honorable or worthy of consideration]. They want to isolate you [from us who oppose them] so that you will seek them.

¹⁸Now it is always pleasant to be eagerly sought after [provided that it is] for a good purpose, and not just when I am with you [seeking you myself—but beware of the others doing it].

¹⁹My little children, for whom I am again in [the pains of] labor until Christ is [completely and permanently] formed within you—

²⁰how I wish that I were with you now and could change my tone, because I am perplexed in regard to you.

²¹Tell me, you who are bent on being under the Law, do you not listen to [what] the Law [really says]?

²²For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman [Hagar] and one by the free woman [Sarah]. [Gen 16:15; 21:2, 9]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

A Positive Attitude in All Circumstances

When the Galatians began to believe false teaching, Paul asked them, "What then has become of... the joy that you once had?" (Gal. 4:15). They had been taught truth that set them free from the bondage of Jewish laws and rituals, but they had begun to fall back into the bondage from which they had been delivered.

There are many reasons we may lose our joy and the blessed enjoyment of life, one of which is to lose our faith in what Jesus has done for us, and once again think that God's love and acceptance can be purchased with our own good works. Gaining freedom from legalism is important, but so is remaining free from it! Right believing will always produce joy.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Stand Firm in Freedom

As your relationship with God matures, you will find yourself living less by rules and regulations and more by the desires of your heart. As you learn more of God's Word, you will find His desires filling your heart, and it will be easier for you to discern God's will. God wants you to know His heart well enough that you will want to follow the prompting, leading, and guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Once you are free in Christ, keep standing firm in that liberty and do not become ensnared with legalism, which is the yoke of bondage you have put off (see Gal. 5:1). God wants to bring you into a new place, a place full of freedom to follow your heart.

²³But the child of the slave woman was born according to the flesh and had an ordinary birth, while the son of the free woman was born in fulfillment of the promise.

²⁴Now these facts are about to be used [by me] as an allegory [that is, I will illustrate by using them]: for these women can represent two covenants: one [covenant originated] from Mount Sinai [where the Law was given] that bears children [destined] for slavery; she is Hagar.

²⁵Now Hagar is (represents) Mount Sinai in Arabia and she corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children.

²⁶But the Jerusalem above [that is, the way of faith, represented by Sarah] is free; she is our mother.

²⁷For it is written [in the Scriptures],

“REJOICE, O BARREN WOMAN WHO HAS NOT GIVEN BIRTH; BREAK FORTH INTO A [joyful] SHOUT, YOU WHO ARE NOT IN LABOR;

FOR THE DESOLATE WOMAN HAS MANY MORE CHILDREN
THAN SHE WHO HAS A HUSBAND.” [Is 54:1]

²⁸And we, [believing] brothers and sisters, like Isaac, are children [not merely of physical descent, like Ishmael, but are children born] of promise [born miraculously].

²⁹But as at that time the child [of ordinary birth] born according to the flesh persecuted the son who was born according to [the promise and working of] the Spirit, so it is now also. [Gen 21:9]

³⁰But what does the Scripture say?

“CAST OUT THE BONDWOMAN [Hagar] AND HER SON [Ishmael], FOR NEVER SHALL THE SON OF THE BONDWOMAN BE HEIR and SHARE THE INHERITANCE WITH THE SON OF THE FREE WOMAN.” [Gen 21:10]

³¹So then, believers, we [who are born again—reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, and set apart for His purpose] are not children of a slave woman [the natural], but of the free woman [the supernatural].

5 IT WAS for this freedom that Christ set us free [completely liberating us]; therefore keep standing firm and do not be subject again to a yoke of slavery [which you once removed].

²Notice, it is I, Paul, who tells you that if you receive circumcision [as a supposed requirement of salvation], Christ will be of no benefit to you [for you will lack the faith in Christ that is necessary for salvation].

³Once more I solemnly affirm to every man who receives circumcision [as a supposed requirement of salvation], that he is under obligation and required to keep the whole Law.

POWERPOINT

Galatians 5:1 is very clear that even though we have been completely liberated from a yoke of slavery, we need to “keep standing firm” and to not allow ourselves to be entrapped in it again. Satan is very shrewd, and he does not give up easily. We could say he never gives up the hope of drawing us back into bondage. This is why it’s important for us to live watchfully, ready to recognize and immediately confront things that steal our liberty in Christ.

⁴You have been severed from Christ, if you seek to be justified [that is, declared free of the guilt of sin and its penalty, and placed in right standing with God] through the Law; you have fallen from grace [for you have lost your grasp on God’s unmerited favor and blessing].

⁵For we [not relying on the Law but] through the [strength and power of the Holy] Spirit, by faith, are waiting [confidently] for the hope of righteousness [the completion of our salvation].

⁶For [if we are] in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything, but only faith activated and expressed and working through love.

⁷You were running [the race] well; who has interfered and prevented you from obeying the truth?

⁸This [deceptive] persuasion is not from Him who called you [to freedom in Christ].

⁹A little leaven [a slight inclination to error, or a few false teachers] leavens the whole batch [it perverts the concept of faith and misleads the church].

¹⁰I have confidence in you in the Lord that you will adopt no other view [contrary to mine on the matter]; but the one who is disturbing you, whoever he is, will have to bear the penalty.

¹¹But as for me, brothers, if I am still preaching circumcision [as I had done before I met Christ; and as some accuse me of doing now, as necessary for salvation], why am I still being persecuted [by Jews]? In that case the stumbling block of the cross [to unbelieving Jews] has been abolished.

¹²I wish that those who are troubling you [by teaching that circumcision is necessary for salvation] would even [go all the way and] castrate themselves!

¹³For you, my brothers, were called to freedom; only do not let your freedom become an opportunity for the sinful nature (worldliness, selfishness), but through love serve and seek the best for one another.

¹⁴For the whole Law [concerning human relationships] is fulfilled in one precept, “YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF [that is, you shall have an unselfish concern for others and do things for their benefit].” [Lev 19:18]

¹⁵But if you bite and devour one another [in bickering and strife], watch out that you [along with your entire fellowship] are not consumed by one another.

POWERPOINT

Galatians 5:16 teaches us to walk in the Spirit so we will not carry out the desires of our sinful nature. I encourage you to spend your time focusing on and following the Holy Spirit so that you will leave no time or room in your life to follow the flesh. This is a very important biblical truth. God is good and filled with light and life. What God offers is always more powerful than what Satan offers to entice us. God's goodness conquers evil; His light swallows up the darkness; and His life conquers and overcomes death. The enemy wants us to follow him, but God wants us to walk in the Spirit and let Him lead us into the good life Jesus died for us to enjoy.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Follow the Spirit, Obey the Word

The devil constantly wages war on the battlefield of the mind. Our soul is the tangible area between our spirit—the place where God Himself lives—and our physical body. It is made up of our mind, will, and emotions. It tells us what we think, what we want, and how we feel. When our mind is constantly stirred up with concern, worry, and anxiety, our God-given inner voice of insight and understanding is drowned out.

God cares about us and about our needs. He wants greater things for us than we want for ourselves. When we allow the devil to overtake our mind with worry and anxiety instead of following God's Spirit, we are living the life of the flesh, and it keeps us outside God's will. Galatians 5:16 says, "But I say, walk habitually in the [Holy] Spirit [seek Him and be responsive to His guidance], and then you will certainly not carry out the desire of the sinful nature."

In order for us to truly enjoy the abundant life Jesus died to give us, we need to stop worrying and start following the promptings of the Holy Spirit. It doesn't matter what our need is—God knows and God cares. Satan is the one who whispers, “God doesn’t care about you.”

Let me encourage you to stop worrying about your own needs and focus instead on God and His love for you. You might even need to say to yourself out loud, “God loves me, and nothing can separate me from His love. He has forgiven and cleansed me. He is taking care of me and all my problems. God has a positive plan for my future because His Word says so” (see Rom. 8:38–39; 1 John 1:9; Jer. 29:11).

Every time worry and anxiety try to steal your righteousness, peace, and joy, find out what God’s Word says; then believe it and speak it. God wants us to reach the point where no matter what is going on, we remain calm, and that cannot happen unless we trust Him to take care of us no matter what our circumstances are in life.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Heavenly Father, thank You for caring for me and for assuring me that You will provide for every need I have. In the name of Jesus Christ, free me from the things that bind me so I can be totally free to love and follow You. Amen.

POWERPOINT

Galatians 5:17 describes how the spirit and the flesh war against each other, continually antagonistic toward one another. We need to learn to deal with the flesh, taking authority over it instead of allowing it to rule us.

According to Romans 8:13, the only way to deal with the flesh is to develop the habit of putting it to death. Putting the flesh to death simply means to say no to its demands and learn to not follow it. It requires rejecting the influence and ways of the world, resisting selfishness, and rejecting the works of the flesh.

¹⁶But I say, walk habitually in the [Holy] Spirit [seek Him and be responsive to His guidance], and then you will certainly not carry out the desire of the sinful nature [which responds impulsively without regard for God and His precepts].

¹⁷For the sinful nature has its desire which is opposed to the Spirit, and the [desire of the] Spirit opposes the sinful nature; for these [two, the sinful nature and the Spirit] are in direct opposition to each other [continually in conflict], so that you [as believers] do not [always] do whatever [good things] you want to do.

¹⁸But if you are guided and led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the Law.

¹⁹Now the practices of the sinful nature are clearly evident: they are sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality (total irresponsibility, lack of self-control),

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Love and Self-Control

The fruit of the Holy Spirit is beautiful, and it enables us to not only enjoy our life, but to show true love to the people we deal with in our daily life. The fruit of the Holy Spirit is in us as believers in Jesus Christ, but it must be developed into maturity. That occurs as we study and use the fruit repeatedly. Love is the first of the fruit listed, and self-control is the last. I think they are listed in that order on purpose.

Love and self-control are like bookends that hold the rest of the fruit of the Spirit in place (see Gal. 5:22–23). All the fruit initially grow from love and are kept in place by self-control. Walking in the fruit of the Spirit involves being patient, kind, humble, displaying good manners, not being selfish, and other good fruit as well. Although it would be nice if we automatically behaved that way toward people, it rarely happens without developing and using self-control.

We may be able to do it sometimes, but at other times we may not feel well physically, or a day might be filled with frustrations, and walking in the fruit of the Spirit is more difficult. But thank God that He is patient with us and will continue helping us develop the fullness of the fruit in our lives if that is our true desire.

Speak God's Word

The fruit of the Spirit and the result of His presence within me is love and unselfish concern for others, joy, inner peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

| adapted from GALATIANS
5:22–23 |

²⁰idolatry, sorcery, hostility, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, disputes, dissensions, factions [that promote heresies], ²¹envy, drunkenness, riotous behavior, and other things like these. I warn you beforehand, just as I did previously, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

²²But the fruit of the Spirit [the result of His presence within us] is love [unselfish concern for others], joy, [inner] peace, patience [not the ability to wait, but how we act while waiting], kindness, goodness, faithfulness, ²³gentleness, self-control. Against such things there is no law.

²⁴And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the sinful nature together with its passions and appetites.

²⁵If we [claim to] live by the [Holy] Spirit, we must also walk by the Spirit [with personal integrity, godly character, and moral courage—our conduct empowered by the Holy Spirit].

²⁶We must not become conceited, challenging or provoking one another, envying one another.

6 BROTHERS, IF anyone is caught in any sin, you who are spiritual [that is, you who are responsive to the guidance of the Spirit] are to restore such a person in a spirit of gentleness [not with a sense of superiority or self-righteousness], keeping a watchful eye on yourself, so that you are not tempted as well.

²Carry one another's burdens and in this way you will fulfill the requirements of the law of Christ [that is, the law of Christian love]. [John 13:34]

³For if anyone thinks he is something [special] when [in fact] he is nothing [special except in his own eyes], he deceives himself.

⁴But each one must carefully scrutinize his own work [examining his actions, attitudes, and behavior], and then he can have the personal satisfaction and inner joy of doing something commendable without comparing himself to another.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Sow Good Seeds

In the Bible we learn the principle of sowing and reaping. Beginning in Genesis, God teaches us that as long as the earth remains, there will be seedtime and harvest (see Gen. 8:22).

We can readily understand how a farmer sows seeds and waits for his harvest, but we need more understanding about what I will refer to as “spiritual seed.” We can see a tomato seed with our eyes and understand the process of planting and expecting a harvest of tomatoes. We cannot see attitudes, thoughts, or words, but they are also seeds that operate in the spiritual (unseen) realm, and they also produce a harvest based on what was planted.

If people continually sow negative thoughts, attitudes, and words, they will produce negative results in their lives. Likewise, if they sow positive, hopeful, life-filled thoughts, attitudes, and words, they will see good, positive results.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Victories Come Little by Little

I meet many believers who are so disappointed about their repeated failures and their perceived lack of spiritual maturity that they feel like giving up. That's not the way of the Holy Spirit. No matter how long it takes us to mature, God doesn't give up on us. The Holy Spirit continually works with us and helps us grow spiritually.

We can dwell on the negatives of our Christian walk rather than our successes, but that will only prevent us from making progress. Making us think about our defects and shortcomings is a trick of the devil. If we focus on (think about) what we're not or what we haven't accomplished, we allow the enemy to advance.

Many believers seem to think that holy, victorious living comes from one major victory after another. We do have times of great breakthroughs; however, most of our victories come slowly, little by little. Because spiritual growth happens slowly, we are often unaware of how far we have developed. If the devil can make us think that we are not making progress, he has gained an important stronghold in our mind.

My advice to any believer facing those moments of discouragement is to pay attention to the words of Galatians 6:9: “Let us not grow weary or become discouraged in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap, if we do not give in.” Another translation says not to “lose heart.” God is saying, “Don’t quit. Keep fighting.”

Life can be a struggle at times, and the enemy will never stop trying to get us to give up. We will never reach the place where we do not have to fight the good fight of faith. But it’s not just our fight. The battle belongs to the Lord (see 2 Chr. 20:15), and He is with us at all times, urging us forward.

“Don’t quit. Don’t give up.” That’s the message we need to hear. When I think of this, I also think of Isaiah 43:1–2: “Do not fear, for I have redeemed you [from captivity]; I have called you by name; you are Mine! When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they will not overwhelm you. When you walk through fire, you will not be scorched, nor will the flame burn you.”

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

God, despite my failures, You are with me, encouraging me not to give up. Please help me to remember that, with Your help, I can win. In the name of Jesus, I pray. Amen.

⁵For every person will have to bear [with patience] his own burden [of faults and shortcomings for which he alone is responsible].

⁶The one who is taught the word [of God] is to share all good things with his teacher [contributing to his spiritual and material support].

⁷Do not be deceived, God is not mocked [He will not allow Himself to be ridiculed, nor treated with contempt nor allow His precepts to be scornfully set aside]; for whatever a man sows, this and this only is what he will reap.

⁸For the one who sows to his flesh [his sinful capacity, his worldliness, his disgraceful impulses] will reap from the flesh ruin and destruction, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life.

⁹Let us not grow weary or become discouraged in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap, if we do not give in.

¹⁰So then, while we [as individual believers] have the opportunity, let us do good to all people [not only being helpful, but also doing that which promotes their spiritual well-being], and especially [be a blessing] to those of the household of faith (born-again believers).

POWERPOINT

Our words, thoughts, attitudes, and actions are seeds that we sow, and seeds produce a harvest. Sow mercy; reap mercy. Sow judgment; reap judgment. Sow kindness; reap kindness. If you don't like how your life is right now, I have good news for you. You can change your life by sowing the right seeds. If you're struggling in life right now, chances are you didn't make one wrong choice to end up where you are, and you can't make one right choice to get yourself out of it. Change won't happen overnight. But if you invest your life in learning what is the right thing to do, and then do it with God's help, you will reap the harvest (see Gal. 6:5–9).

Speak God's Word

I will not grow weary or become discouraged in doing good, for at the proper time I will reap, if I do not give in.

¹¹See with what large letters I am writing to you with my own hand.

¹²Those who want to make a good impression in public [before the Jews] try to compel you to be circumcised, just so they will escape being persecuted for [faithfulness to] the cross of Christ.

¹³For even the circumcised [Jews] themselves do not [really] keep the Law, but they want to have you circumcised so that they may boast in your flesh [that is, in the fact that they convinced you to be circumcised].

¹⁴But far be it from me to boast [in anything or anyone], except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

¹⁵For neither is circumcision anything [of any importance], nor uncircumcision, but [only] a new creation [which is the result of a new birth—a spiritual transformation—a new nature in Christ Jesus].

¹⁶Peace and mercy be upon all who walk by this rule [who discipline themselves and conduct their lives by this principle], and upon the [true] Israel of God (Jewish believers). [Ps 125:5]

¹⁷From now on let no one trouble me [by making it necessary for me to justify my authority as an apostle, and the absolute truth of the gospel], for I bear on my body the branding-marks of Jesus [the wounds, scars, and other outward evidence of persecutions—these testify to His ownership of me].

¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers and sisters. Amen.

Ephesians

Ephesians is a wonderful book filled with great insights and advice about living the Christian life. Meditating on its truths and applying them to our everyday lives can help us win the battle of the mind in many ways.

One of the key principles of Ephesians is that God loves us without limitation and accepts us unconditionally. Many Christians struggle with thoughts of rejection or insecurity. One of the enemy's frequently used tactics is to attack our minds with the idea that God does not really love us or that we must do something to earn His acceptance. Ephesians offers us the truths that defeat those lies.

If you are a new believer or a believer who wants to be reminded of what it really means to be a Christian and truly know God's love, take time to study and live by the book of Ephesians.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM EPHESIANS:

Salvation is not based on performance; it is a gracious gift from God (see Ephesians 2:8–9).

Bless others by speaking good words that build them up (see Ephesians 4:29).

God's Word is a powerful weapon against the enemy, so fill your mind with the Word and speak it every day (see Ephesians 6:17).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM EPHESIANS:

So that Christ may dwell in your hearts through your faith. And may you, having been [deeply] rooted and [securely] grounded in love, be fully capable of comprehending with all the saints (God's people) the width and length and height and depth of His love [fully experiencing that amazing, endless love]. | Ephesians 3:17–18

Be continually renewed in the spirit of your mind [having a fresh, untarnished mental and spiritual attitude]. | Ephesians 4:23

Be strong in the Lord [draw your strength from Him and be empowered through your union with Him] and in the power of His [boundless] might. Put on the full armor of God... so that you may be able to [successfully] stand up against all the schemes and the strategies and the deceits of the devil. | Ephesians 6:10–11

THE LETTER OF PAUL TO THE EPHESIANS

1 PAUL, AN apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed), by the will of God [that is, by His purpose and choice],

To the saints (God's people) who are at Ephesus and are faithful and loyal and steadfast in Christ Jesus:

²Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³Blessed and worthy of praise be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms in Christ,

⁴just as [in His love] He chose us in Christ [actually selected us for Himself as His own] before the foundation of the world, so that we would be holy [that is, consecrated, set apart for Him, purpose-driven] and blameless in His sight. In love

⁵He predestined and lovingly planned for us to be adopted to Himself as [His own] children through Jesus Christ, in accordance with the kind intention and good pleasure of His will—

⁶to the praise of His glorious grace and favor, which He so freely bestowed on us in the Beloved [His Son, Jesus Christ].

⁷In Him we have redemption [that is, our deliverance and salvation] through His blood, [which paid the penalty for our sin and resulted in] the forgiveness and complete pardon of our sin, in accordance with the riches of His grace

Speak God's Word

I bless and praise the God and Father of my Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed me with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms in Christ.

POWERPOINT

If you think seriously about Ephesians 1:4, the power of these words will seep into your soul and bring a life-changing revelation of God's love. God decided to love you before you were ever on earth. The only thing that stands between you and God's love is the decision to believe and receive it. As someone who believes in Jesus, God sees you as thoroughly blameless, and He has set you apart for Himself, as His very own, because He loves you so much.

⁸which He lavished on us. In all wisdom and understanding [with practical insight]

⁹He made known to us the mystery of His will according to His good pleasure, which He purposed in Christ, ¹⁰with regard to the fulfillment of the times [that is, the end of history, the climax of the ages]—to bring all things together in Christ, [both] things in the heavens and things on the earth.

¹¹In Him also we have received an inheritance [a destiny—we were claimed by God as His own], having been predestined (chosen, appointed beforehand) according to the purpose of Him who works everything in agreement with the counsel and design of His will,

¹²so that we who were the first to hope in Christ [who first put our confidence in Him as our Lord and Savior] would exist to the praise of His glory.

¹³In Him, you also, when you heard the word of truth, the good news of your salvation, and [as a result] believed in Him, were stamped with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit [the One promised by Christ] as owned and protected [by God]. [John 7:39; Acts 2:33]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Sees the Good

God does not want us to feel frustrated and condemned. He wants us to realize that we are pleasing to Him and that we can come to Him just as we are. The enemy keeps trying to tell us what we are not, but God keeps trying to tell us what we are—His beloved children upon whom He has freely bestowed His glorious grace and favor (see Eph. 1:6).

God never reminds us of how far we have fallen. He always reminds us of how far we have risen. He reminds us of how much we have overcome, how well we are doing, how precious we are in His sight, and how much He loves us. God will also give us direction and correction, but it is always because He loves us and wants to help us move forward in His good plan for us.

The devil tells us we cannot possibly be acceptable to God because we are not perfect. God tells us that we are accepted in the Beloved because of what He has already done for us.

God wants us to know that His hand is upon us, that His angels are watching over us, that His Holy Spirit is in us and with us to help us in everything we do. He wants us to know that Jesus is our Friend, and that as we walk with Him day by day, good things are going to take place in our lives. If we listen to God rather than to the devil, He will give us peace about the past, joy for the present, and hope for the future.

¹⁴The Spirit is the guarantee [the first installment, the pledge, a foretaste] of our inheritance until the redemption of God's own [purchased] possession [His believers], to the praise of His glory.

¹⁵For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all God's people, ¹⁶I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers;

¹⁷[I always pray] that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may grant you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation [that gives you a deep and personal and intimate insight] into the true knowledge of Him [for we know the Father through the Son].

¹⁸And [I pray] that the eyes of your heart [the very center and core of your being] may be enlightened [flooded with light by the Holy Spirit], so that you will know and cherish the hope [the divine guarantee, the confident expectation] to which He has called you, the riches of His glorious inheritance in the saints (God's people),

¹⁹and [so that you will begin to know] what the immeasurable and unlimited and surpassing greatness of His [active, spiritual] power is in us who believe. These are in accordance with the working of His mighty strength

²⁰which He produced in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His own right hand in the heavenly places,

²¹far above all rule and authority and power and dominion [whether angelic or human], and [far above] every name that is named [above every title that can be conferred], not only in this age and world but also in the one to come.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I always pray, Lord, that You would grant me a spirit of wisdom and revelation that gives me a deep, personal, intimate insight into the true knowledge of You. I pray that the eyes of my heart will be enlightened by the Holy Spirit so I will know the hope to which You have called me and I will begin to know the surpassing greatness of Your power that is in us who believe.

• adapted from Ephesians 1:17–19

²²And He put all things [in every realm] in subjection under Christ's feet, and appointed Him as [supreme and authoritative] head over all things in the church, [Ps 8:6; Col 1:18]

²³which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills and completes all things in all [believers].

2 AND YOU [He made alive when you] were [spiritually] dead and separated from Him because of your transgressions and sins, ²in which you once walked. You were following the ways of this world [influenced by this present age], in accordance with the prince of the power of the air (Satan), the spirit who is now at work in the disobedient [the unbelieving, who fight against the purposes of God].

³Among these [unbelievers] we all once lived in the passions of our flesh [our behavior governed by the sinful self], indulging the desires of human nature [without the Holy Spirit] and [the impulses] of the [sinful] mind. We were, by nature, children [under the sentence] of [God's] wrath, just like the rest [of mankind].

⁴But God, being [so very] rich in mercy, because of His great and wonderful love with which He loved us,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Satan Is Under Your Feet

Jesus is seated in the heavenly places (see Eph. 1:20), and we are seated with Him by virtue of our faith in Him. Where He is, we are. Jesus is Lord over all, and He has put all things under His feet (see Eph. 1:21—22). Since we are in Him, the only place Satan has in our lives is under our feet. Therefore, the enemy has no real power or authority over us except what we give him and what he gains through deception.

One of the enemy's major goals is to deceive us. After all, he is a liar and the father of lies (see John 8:44). He hopes we will believe his lies, because if we do, he has succeeded in deceiving us. That means we believe things that are not true in reality; they only become true for us if we believe them. Every time we allow ourselves to be deceived, we open a door for the devil in our lives. Satan may attack us but will not ultimately defeat us because we have the truth of God's Word available to help us know the truth and no longer believe the lies of Satan. I urge you to be careful about your thoughts and always make sure that what you believe agrees with God's Word.

POWERPOINT

Jesus came from the highest heaven, has been to the earth, and has descended under the earth. He has also risen from the dead, and now is seated again at the right hand of the Father. He has made a full circle; therefore, He has filled everything and everywhere with Himself. He is seated above everything else and has a name above every other name. His name is the highest name, the most powerful name (see Eph. 1:20-23). We have been given the awesome privilege to use the name of Jesus, the most powerful name in heaven and earth, when we pray. Let's depend on the power of His name to assure us that our prayers are heard and answered.

⁵even when we were [spiritually] dead and separated from Him because of our sins, He made us [spiritually] alive together with Christ (for by His grace—His undeserved favor and mercy—you have been saved from God’s judgment). [Rom 6:1–10]

⁶And He raised us up together with Him [when we believed], and seated us with Him in the heavenly places, [because we are] in Christ Jesus,

⁷[and He did this] so that in the ages to come He might [clearly] show the immeasurable and unsurpassed riches of His grace in [His] kindness toward us in Christ Jesus [by providing for our redemption].

⁸For it is by grace [God’s remarkable compassion and favor drawing you to Christ] that you have been saved [actually delivered from judgment and given eternal life] through faith. And this [salvation] is not of yourselves [not through your own effort], but it is the [undeserved, gracious] gift of God;

⁹not as a result of [your] works [nor your attempts to keep the Law], so that no one will [be able to] boast or take credit in any way [for his salvation].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God's Intense Love

I encourage you to read Ephesians 2:4–5 slowly and to think sincerely about the beauty of these words and what they mean to you. God had to do what He did for us in order to satisfy His intense love for us. I have had occasions when love for one of my children has welled up in me with such intensity that I simply had to do something for them. You have probably experienced the same dynamic toward someone you love. If we can feel this way as flawed human beings, just try to imagine what God feels in His perfect love for us. He absolutely cannot leave us trapped in sin without providing an answer. He doesn't wait for us to deserve any benefit; He rushes to our rescue because He cannot help Himself.

The apostle Paul wrote that in love God chose us, made us holy, consecrated us, made us blameless in His sight, and allows us to live before Him without any reproach (any sense of guilt or shame). He does it for one reason only: because He wants to. It is His will to do so because it pleased Him and was His kind intention. Amazing!

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

The Importance of Changing Your Mind

In Ephesians 2:2, Paul described those outside of Christ. He wrote that unbelievers follow the prince of the power of the air, who is Satan, and they follow the way their master leads. In verse 1, he pointed out that all were once dead through their sins, but believers are now alive in Jesus Christ. He tells us we no longer need to be governed or led by our sinful nature or the impulses of the flesh. Jesus purchased our freedom with His death on the cross.

Many Christians don't enjoy the freedom Christ died to give them because they haven't learned to control their thoughts. A lady once told me, "It simply didn't occur to me that I needed to direct my mind and keep it healthy and positive. One day, however, I read an article about the power of thoughts, and God convicted me. I knew I needed to change my thinking."

Later, as she drove down a city street, she spotted a sign advertising oil changes. As she passed by, she thought, I need a mind change. I don't like being the way I am, letting my mind go wherever it wants. Part of my responsibility as a child of God is to keep my thoughts healthy and strong.

The lady had gone to church for years, knew a lot of Scripture, but couldn't control her thoughts. She said, "Rather than being able to concentrate on Scripture, my mind jumped from subject to subject. I wasn't thinking the right things, my mind was a mess, and I didn't know what to do about it." She needed to let the Holy Spirit, instead of the devil, direct her thoughts. As she prayed, she felt confident there would be a positive change.

She realized that if she didn't make lifestyle changes, the devil would soon make her new way of thinking as frustrating as her old way of thinking. For the next several days, she looked up the scriptures including words study or meditate and scriptures about the mind or thoughts. She wrote them down and pondered them.

The more she meditated on the right things, the less trouble she had with Satan trying to control her thoughts. That's how it works for us all: The more we focus on God, the less often the devil can defeat us.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Thank You, great God, for giving me a mind change. Help me always to be free to serve You with my heart, my soul, and my mind. In the mighty name of Jesus Christ, I pray. Amen.

POWERPOINT

Salvation is a gift; it cannot be earned, paid for, or deserved. It comes by God's amazing grace and is received through faith (see Eph. 2:8)—simple trust in and reliance on God. As a believer in Jesus, salvation has been freely given to you. Receive and enjoy the gift of salvation with thanksgiving!

¹⁰For we are His workmanship [His own master work, a work of art], created in Christ Jesus [reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, ready to be used] for good works, which God prepared [for us] beforehand [taking paths which He set], so that we would walk in them [living the good life which He prearranged and made ready for us]. [Rom 1:20]

¹¹Therefore, remember that at one time you Gentiles by birth, who are called “Uncircumcision” by those who called themselves “Circumcision,” [itself a mere mark] which is made in the flesh by human hands—

¹²*remember* that at that time you were separated from Christ [excluded from any relationship with Him], alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise [with no share in the sacred Messianic promise and without knowledge of God's agreements], having no hope [in His promise] and [living] in the world without God.

¹³But now [at this very moment] in Christ Jesus you who once were [so very] far away [from God] have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

¹⁴For He Himself is our peace and our bond of unity. He who made both groups—[Jews and Gentiles]—into one body and broke down the barrier, the dividing wall [of spiritual antagonism between us], ¹⁵by abolishing in His [own crucified] flesh the hostility caused by the Law with its commandments contained in ordinances [which He satisfied]; so that in Himself He might make the two into one new man, thereby establishing peace.

¹⁶And [that He] might reconcile them both [Jew and Gentile, united] in one body to God through the cross, thereby putting to death the hostility.

¹⁷AND HE CAME AND PREACHED THE GOOD NEWS OF PEACE TO YOU [Gentiles] WHO WERE FAR AWAY, AND PEACE TO THOSE [Jews] WHO WERE NEAR. [Is 57:19]

¹⁸For it is through Him that we both have a [direct] way of approach in one Spirit to the Father.

¹⁹So then you are no longer strangers and aliens [outsiders without rights of citizenship], but you are fellow citizens with the saints (God's people), and are [members] of God's household,

²⁰having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus Himself as the [chief] Cornerstone, ²¹in whom the whole structure is joined together, and it continues [to increase] growing into a holy temple in the Lord [a sanctuary dedicated, set apart, and sacred to the presence of the Lord].

²²In Him [and in fellowship with one another] you also are being built together into a dwelling place of God in the Spirit.

3 FOR THIS reason [because I preach that you and believing Jews are joint heirs] I, Paul, am the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles—

²assuming that you have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was entrusted to me [to share with you] for your benefit;

³and that by [divine] revelation the mystery was made known to me, as I have already written in brief. [Eph 1:9]

⁴By referring to this, when you read it you can understand my insight into the mystery of Christ,

⁵which in other generations was not disclosed to mankind, as it has now been revealed to His holy apostles and prophets by the [Holy] Spirit;

⁶[it is this:] that the Gentiles are now joint heirs [with the Jews] and members of the same body, and joint partakers [sharing] in the [same divine] promise in Christ Jesus through [their faith in] the good news [of salvation].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Superabundantly More

Ephesians 3:20 tells us that our God is able to do “superabundantly more” than anything that you and I could ever dare hope, ask, or even think. We need to pray, to do the asking in faith and in trust. But it is God Who does the work according to His power.

There was a time when I put unbelievable stress on myself as I tried to change. I was under tremendous condemnation, because every message I heard seemed to be telling me to change, yet I couldn't permanently change no matter how hard I tried, believed, or confessed. I struggled terribly, because I saw all the things about myself that needed to be changed, but I was powerless to bring about those changes. I had not yet learned to depend on God for everything, even for the changes I needed in myself!

The Lord is our source and our supply. He is the only One Who can bring about changes in our lives. I had to learn to say, “I know that the changes that are needed in my life are not going to happen unless Your power is at work within me.”

God promises to strengthen us in our weaknesses if we trust Him and turn to Him. God's grace will be sufficient in our need (see 2 Cor. 12:9).

⁷Of this [gospel] I was made a minister by the gift of God's grace given me through the working of His power.

⁸To me, [though I am] the very least of all the saints (God's people), this grace [which is undeserved] was graciously given, to proclaim to the Gentiles the good news of the incomprehensible riches of Christ [that spiritual wealth which no one can fully understand], ⁹and to make plain [to everyone] the plan of the mystery [regarding the uniting of believing Jews and Gentiles into one body] which [until now] was kept hidden through the ages in [the mind of] God who created all things.

¹⁰So now through the church the multifaceted wisdom of God [in all its countless aspects] might now be made known [revealing the mystery] to the [angelic] rulers and authorities in the heavenly places.

¹¹*This is* in accordance with [the terms of] the eternal purpose which He carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord, ¹²in whom we have boldness and confident access through faith in Him [that is, our faith gives us sufficient courage to freely and openly approach God through Christ].

¹³So I ask you not to lose heart at my sufferings on your behalf, for they are your glory and honor.

¹⁴For this reason [grasping the greatness of this plan by which Jews and Gentiles are joined together in Christ] I bow my knees [in reverence] before the Father [of our Lord Jesus Christ], ¹⁵from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name [God—the first and ultimate Father].

¹⁶May He grant you out of the riches of His glory, to be strengthened and spiritually energized with power through His Spirit in your inner self, [indwelling your innermost being and personality], ¹⁷so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through your faith. And may you, having been [deeply] rooted and [securely] grounded in love,

¹⁸be fully capable of comprehending with all the saints (God's people) the width and length and height and depth of His love [fully experiencing that amazing, endless love];

¹⁹and [that you may come] to know [practically, through personal experience] the love of Christ which far surpasses [mere] knowledge [without experience], that you may be filled up [throughout your being] to all the fullness of God [so that you may have the richest experience of God's presence in your lives, completely filled and flooded with God Himself].

²⁰Now to Him who is able to [carry out His purpose and] do superabundantly more than all that we dare ask or think [infinitely beyond our greatest prayers, hopes, or dreams], according to His power that is at work within us, ²¹to Him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations forever and ever. Amen.

4 SO I, the prisoner for the Lord, appeal to you to live a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called [that is, to live a life that exhibits godly character, moral courage, personal integrity, and mature behavior—a life that expresses gratitude to God for your salvation],

²with all humility [forsaking self-righteousness], and gentleness [maintaining self-control], with patience, bearing with one another in [unselfish] love.

³Make every effort to keep the oneness of the Spirit in the bond of peace [each individual working together to make the whole successful].

⁴*There is* one body [of believers] and one Spirit—just as you were called to one hope when called [to salvation]—

⁵one Lord, one faith, one baptism,

⁶one God and Father of us all who is [sovereign] over all and [working] through all and [living] in all.

⁷Yet grace [God's undeserved favor] was given to each one of us [not indiscriminately, but in different ways] in proportion to the measure of Christ's [rich and abundant] gift.

⁸Therefore it says,

“WHEN HE ASCENDED ON HIGH,

HE LED CAPTIVITY CAPTIVE,

AND HE BESTOWED GIFTS ON MEN.” [Ps 68:18]

⁹(Now this expression, “He ascended,” what does it mean except that He also had previously descended [from the heights of heaven] into the lower parts of the earth?

¹⁰He who descended is the very same as He who also has ascended high above all the heavens, that He [His presence] might fill all things [that is, the whole universe]).

¹¹And [His gifts to the church were varied and] He Himself appointed some as apostles [special messengers, representatives], some as prophets [who speak a new message from God to the people], some as evangelists [who spread the good news of salvation], and some as pastors and teachers [to shepherd and guide and instruct],

¹²[and He did this] to fully equip and perfect the saints (God's people) for works of service, to build up the body of Christ [the church];

¹³until we all reach oneness in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God, [growing spiritually] to become a mature believer, reaching to the measure of the fullness of Christ [manifesting His spiritual completeness and exercising our spiritual gifts in unity].

¹⁴So that we are no longer children [spiritually immature], tossed back and forth [like ships on a stormy sea] and carried about by every wind of [shifting] doctrine, by the cunning and trickery of [unscrupulous] men, by the deceitful scheming of people ready to do anything [for personal profit].

¹⁵But speaking the truth in love [in all things—both our speech and our lives expressing His truth], let us grow up in all things into Him [following His example] who is the Head—Christ.

¹⁶From Him the whole body [the church, in all its various parts], joined and knitted firmly together by what every joint supplies, when each part is working properly, causes the body to grow and mature, building itself up in [unselfish] love.

Speak God's Word

By speaking the truth in love in all things, I will grow up in all things into Him who is the Head—Christ.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God's Order

In God's order, right thinking comes first, and right action follows. I like to use Ephesians 4:22–24 when teaching on this principle. Verse 22 basically tells us to stop acting improperly, and verse 24 tells us to begin acting properly. Verse 23 is what I call “the bridge scripture.” It tells us how to get from verse 22 (acting improperly) to verse 24 (acting properly): “And be continually renewed in the spirit of your mind [having a fresh, untarnished mental and spiritual attitude].” It is impossible to get from wrong behavior to right behavior without first changing your thoughts to line up with God's Word and will.

Think about yourself in the way that God thinks about you, and then with His help, you will soon start to see those changes come to pass.

¹⁷So this I say, and solemnly affirm together with the Lord [as in His presence], that you must no longer live as the [unbelieving] Gentiles live, in the futility of their minds [and in the foolishness and emptiness of their souls], ¹⁸for their [moral] understanding is darkened and their reasoning is clouded; [they are] alienated and self-banished from the life of God [with no share in it; this is] because of the [willful] ignorance and spiritual blindness that is [deep-seated] within them, because of the hardness and insensitivity of their heart.

¹⁹And they, [the ungodly in their spiritual apathy], having become callous and unfeeling, have given themselves over [as prey] to unbridled sensuality, eagerly craving the practice of every kind of impurity [that their desires may demand].

²⁰But you did not learn Christ in this way!

²¹If in fact you have [really] heard Him and have been taught by Him, just as truth is in Jesus [revealed in His life and personified in Him], ²²that, regarding your previous way of life, you put off your old self [completely discard your former nature], which is being corrupted through deceitful desires,

²³and be continually renewed in the spirit of your mind [having a fresh, untarnished mental and spiritual attitude],

²⁴and put on the new self [the regenerated and renewed nature], created in God's image, [godlike] in the righteousness and holiness of the truth [living in a way that expresses to God your gratitude for your salvation].

²⁵Therefore, rejecting all falsehood [whether lying, defrauding, telling half-truths, spreading rumors, any such as these], SPEAK TRUTH EACH ONE WITH HIS NEIGHBOR, for we are all parts of one another [and we are all parts of the body of Christ]. [Zech 8:16]

²⁶BE ANGRY [at sin—at immorality, at injustice, at ungodly behavior], YET DO NOT SIN; do not let your anger [cause you shame, nor allow it to] last until the sun goes down. [Ps 4:4]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I am continually renewed in the spirit of my mind, having a fresh, untarnished mental and spiritual attitude. I put on the new self—the regenerated and renewed nature—created in God's image, in the righteousness and holiness of the truth. I live in a way that expresses to God my gratitude for my salvation.

• adapted from Ephesians 4:23–24

POWERPOINT

Ephesians 4:26–27 tells us that when we become upset, we should not let the sun go down on our anger. If we do not deal with our anger by the end of each day, we will open a door for the enemy and give him opportunities to cause trouble in our lives. When we give him a foothold, it can become a stronghold. The best way to keep the door closed to the enemy when we become angry is to walk in love—because people who walk in love are quick to forgive. The enemy doesn't stand a chance against a believer who truly loves and forgives.

²⁷And do not give the devil an opportunity [to lead you into sin by holding a grudge, or nurturing anger, or harboring resentment, or cultivating bitterness].

²⁸The thief [who has become a believer] must no longer steal, but instead he must work hard [making an honest living], producing that which is good with his own hands, so that he will have something to share with those in need.

²⁹Do not let unwholesome [foul, profane, worthless, vulgar] words ever come out of your mouth, but only such speech as is good for building up others, according to the need and the occasion, so that it will be a blessing to those who hear [you speak].

³⁰And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God [but seek to please Him], by whom you were sealed and marked [branded as God's own] for the day of redemption [the final deliverance from the consequences of sin]. [Eph 1:13, 14; Phil 3:20, 21]

³¹Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor [perpetual animosity, resentment, strife, fault-finding] and slander be put away from you, along with every kind of malice [all spitefulness, verbal abuse, malevolence].

³²Be kind and helpful to one another, tender-hearted [compassionate, understanding], forgiving one another [readily and freely], just as God in Christ also forgave you.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Speak and Act To Please the Holy Spirit

Anything we do that is not God's will for us and not in agreement with His Word saddens the Holy Spirit, because His purpose in our lives is to bring us into the fullness of what Jesus died to give us. He works with us to bring us into full maturity, to mold us into the image of Jesus Christ.

One way to measure our spiritual maturity is by examining our thoughts and words. Ephesians 4:29–31 teaches us plainly that certain types of words and behaviors grieve the Holy Spirit and we should avoid them. Words that grieve Him are unwholesome, foul, profane, worthless and vulgar, while words that please Him are those that build up and bless others. In addition, anger, bitterness, wrath, and slander also grieve the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is our Helper, our Comforter, and our Teacher. Let's do our best to please Him, not to grieve Him.

5 THEREFORE BECOME imitators of God [copy Him and follow His example], as well-beloved children [imitate their father];

²and walk continually in love [that is, value one another—practice empathy and compassion, unselfishly seeking the best for others], just as Christ also loved you and gave Himself up for us, an offering and sacrifice to God [slain for you, so that it became] a sweet fragrance. [Ezek 20:41]

³But sexual immorality and all [moral] impurity [indecent, offensive behavior] or greed must not even be hinted at among you, as is proper among saints [for as believers our way of life, whether in public or in private, reflects the validity of our faith].

⁴Let there be no filthiness and silly talk, or coarse [obscene or vulgar] joking, because such things are not appropriate [for believers]; but instead speak of your thankfulness [to God].

⁵For be sure of this: no immoral, impure, or greedy person—for that one is [in effect] an idolater—has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God [for such a person places a higher value on something other than God].

⁶Let no one deceive you with empty arguments [that encourage you to sin], for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience [those who habitually sin]. [Lev 18:24, 25]

POWERPOINT

When we think about overcoming the enemy, we may consider rebuking him in Jesus' name, resisting him with God's Word, or with prayer and fasting. Another powerful way to overcome him—one some people don't always remember—is with a good, healthy love walk. Ephesians 5:2 urges us to walk in love, which means to receive God's love for us and allow it to flow through us to others. Many times, especially when the enemy tries to cause problems in relationships, the most powerful weapon against him is love. I believe that showing love to others is effective spiritual warfare!

⁷So do not participate or even associate with them [in the rebelliousness of sin].

⁸For once you were darkness, but now you are Light in the Lord; walk as children of Light [live as those who are native-born to the Light]

⁹(for the fruit [the effect, the result] of the Light consists in all goodness and righteousness and truth), ¹⁰trying to learn [by experience] what is pleasing to the Lord [and letting your lifestyles be examples of what is most acceptable to Him—your behavior expressing gratitude to God for your salvation].

¹¹Do not participate in the worthless and unproductive deeds of darkness, but instead expose them [by exemplifying personal integrity, moral courage, and godly character];

¹²for it is disgraceful even to mention the things that such people practice in secret.

¹³But all things become visible when they are exposed by the light [of God's precepts], for it is light that makes everything visible.

¹⁴For this reason He says,

“Awake, sleeper,

And arise from the dead,

And Christ will shine [as dawn] upon you and give you light.” [Is 26:19; 51:17; 52:1; 60:1, 2]

¹⁵Therefore see that you walk carefully [living life with honor, purpose, and courage; shunning those who tolerate and enable evil], not as the unwise, but as wise [sensible, intelligent, discerning people], ¹⁶making the very most of your time [on earth, recognizing and taking advantage of each opportunity and using it with wisdom and diligence], because the days are [filled with] evil.

¹⁷Therefore do not be foolish and thoughtless, but understand and firmly grasp what the will of the Lord is.

¹⁸Do not get drunk with wine, for that is wickedness (corruption, stupidity), but be filled with the [Holy] Spirit and constantly guided by Him. [Prov 23:20]

¹⁹Speak to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, [offering praise by] singing and making melody with your heart to the Lord;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

How To Keep Emotions from Controlling You

One way to stop allowing emotions to control you is by reminding yourself how deceptive and even dangerous emotions can be if not managed properly. You can talk yourself into feeling emotions, such as anger and jealousy, by meditating on the wrong things. You can also talk yourself out of negative emotions and into joy and thanksgiving.

For example, you can talk yourself into being angry when somebody mistreats you by focusing on the offense, thinking about it, and telling others what happened. You can also talk yourself out of being angry—just get away from what is upsetting you for a few minutes and start talking to yourself in a different way: Okay, just settle down. Don't give the devil an open door. Don't get mad, lose your temper, and say a lot of things you are going to be sorry for later. I can give thanks to God the Father for all things, including this (see Eph. 5:20).

²⁰always giving thanks to God the Father for all things, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

²¹being subject to one another out of reverence for Christ.

²²Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as [a service] to the Lord.

²³For the husband is head of the wife, as Christ is head of the church, Himself being the Savior of the body.

²⁴But as the church is subject to Christ, so also wives should be subject to their husbands in everything [respecting both their position as protector and their responsibility to God as head of the house].

²⁵Husbands, love your wives [seek the highest good for her and surround her with a caring, unselfish love], just as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself up for her,

²⁶so that He might sanctify the church, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word [of God], ²⁷so that [in turn] He might present the church to Himself in glorious splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that she would be holy [set apart for God] and blameless.

²⁸Even so husbands should and are morally obligated to love their own wives as [being in a sense] their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself.

²⁹For no one ever hated his own body, but [instead] he nourishes and protects and cherishes it, just as Christ does the church, ³⁰because we are members (parts) of His body.

³¹FOR THIS REASON A MAN SHALL LEAVE HIS FATHER AND HIS MOTHER AND SHALL BE JOINED [and be faithfully devoted] TO HIS WIFE, AND THE TWO SHALL BECOME ONE FLESH. [Gen 2:24]

³²This mystery [of two becoming one] is great; but I am speaking with reference to [the relationship of] Christ and the church.

³³However, each man among you [without exception] is to love his wife as his very own self [with behavior worthy of respect and esteem, always seeking the best for her with an attitude of lovingkindness], and the wife [must see to it] that she respects and delights in her husband [that she notices him and prefers him and treats him with loving concern, treasuring him, honoring him, and holding him dear]. [1 Pet 3:2]

6 CHILDREN, OBEY your parents in the Lord [that is, accept their guidance and discipline as His representatives], for this is right [for obedience teaches wisdom and self-discipline].

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

The Armor of God

The apostle Paul instructed us to “put on the full armor of God” so that we may be able to stand against the devil’s schemes and deceit (Eph. 6:11). This armor is supernatural, not made by human hands; it is the spiritual armor that God supplies to His people.

First, we are given the belt of truth, the Word of God. We are told to tighten our belt in battle. In other words, when the enemy comes against us, we are to cling more tightly than ever to the Word.

Second, we have the breastplate of righteousness. As our hearts are covered with the knowledge that we have been given right standing with God, Satan cannot condemn us and make us feel worthless or insecure. The breastplate protects our heart.

Third, we have been given shoes of peace. This simply means we are to walk in peace and remain in peace, no matter what kind of battle is raging. Satan sets us up to be upset, but if we stay at peace, his plan is frustrated and he loses his power against us.

Fourth, God has given us the shield of faith to lift up. We should release our faith in every challenging situation. A good way to do that is to say, “I believe that God is working in these circumstances, right now.” The shield of faith will quench all the flaming arrows of the enemy (see Eph. 6:16).

Fifth, we have the helmet of salvation, which means to me that I need to think like someone who has been saved and delivered from sin and its effects. During battle, we should remember and say that we are God’s beloved children, that we are forgiven, and that God has a good plan for our lives.

Last, but certainly not least, we can wield the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. We are then instructed to cover everything in prayer with perseverance (see Eph. 6:18). Prayer offered in Jesus’ name and filled with God’s Word seals every victory and makes it sure. We can win every battle the enemy wages against us. We have the weapons of God’s Word, Jesus’ name, and Jesus’ blood to use against him. We also have the armor of God to protect us when he attacks.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Thank You, Lord, for the armor of God that You have given me to enable me to stand against the enemy. Help me to remember to put on the full armor every day, so I can live in victory. In Jesus’ name. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Real Enemy

I suppose we all have enemies. People who hurt us can be viewed as enemies, and even circumstances that don't go our way can feel like enemies. The truth is, we have one enemy, Satan, and of course, his demons, who do his bidding. We can never defeat our enemy until we know who he is.

I was a Christian for many years before I realized that the devil is real and that he was the source of the troubles in my life. In Ephesians 6:12, the apostle Paul clearly identifies that our enemy is the devil—an evil spiritual being—not anyone with flesh and blood.

Although Satan can work through people to wound us and use all kinds of situations to tempt and harass us, let's always remember that he is our true enemy—not the people and circumstances he uses.

²HONOR [esteem, value as precious] YOUR FATHER AND YOUR MOTHER [and be respectful to them]—this is the first commandment with a promise—

³SO THAT IT MAY BE WELL WITH YOU, AND THAT YOU MAY HAVE A LONG LIFE ON THE EARTH. [Ex 20:12]

⁴Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger [do not exasperate them to the point of resentment with demands that are trivial or unreasonable or humiliating or abusive; nor by showing favoritism or indifference to any of them], but bring them up [tenderly, with lovingkindness] in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

⁵Slaves, be obedient to those who are your earthly masters, with respect for authority, and with a sincere heart [seeking to please them], as [service] to Christ—

⁶not in the way of eye-service [working only when someone is watching you and only] to please men, but as slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from your heart;

⁷rendering service with goodwill, as to the Lord, and not [only] to men, ⁸knowing that whatever good thing each one does, he will receive this back from the Lord, whether [he is] slave or free.

⁹You masters, do the same [showing goodwill] toward them, and give up threatening and abusive words, knowing that [He who is] both their true Master and yours is in heaven, and that there is no partiality with Him [regardless of one's earthly status].

¹⁰In conclusion, be strong in the Lord [draw your strength from Him and be empowered through your union with Him] and in the power of His [boundless] might.

¹¹Put on the full armor of God [for His precepts are like the splendid armor of a heavily-armed soldier], so that you may be able to [successfully] stand up against all the schemes and the strategies and the deceptions of the devil.

¹²For our struggle is not against flesh and blood [contending only with physical opponents], but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world forces of this [present] darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly (supernatural) places.

¹³Therefore, put on the complete armor of God, so that you will be able to [successfully] resist and stand your ground in the evil day [of danger], and having done everything [that the crisis demands], to stand firm [in your place, fully prepared, immovable, victorious].

¹⁴So stand firm and hold your ground, HAVING TIGHTENED THE WIDE BAND OF TRUTH (personal integrity, moral courage) AROUND YOUR WAIST and HAVING PUT ON THE BREASTPLATE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS (an upright heart), [Is 11:5]

¹⁵*and* having strapped on YOUR FEET THE GOSPEL OF PEACE IN PREPARATION [to face the enemy with firm-footed stability and the readiness produced by the good news]. [Is 52:7]

¹⁶Above all, lift up the [protective] shield of faith with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one.

¹⁷And take THE HELMET OF SALVATION, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. [Is 59:17]

¹⁸With all prayer and petition pray [with specific requests] at all times [on every occasion and in every season] in the Spirit, and with this in view, stay alert with all perseverance and petition [interceding in prayer] for all God's people.

¹⁹And pray for me, that words may be given to me when I open my mouth, to proclaim boldly the mystery of the good news [of salvation], ²⁰for which I am an ambassador in chains. And pray that in proclaiming it I may speak boldly and courageously, as I should.

21 Now, so that you may know how I am and what I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, will tell you everything.

POWERPOINT

The Word of God is the sword of the Spirit (see Eph. 6:17). To live a victorious life, we need to know the Word, study the Word, and speak the Word.

The enemy is afraid of the Word of God, because he knows how much power is in it. A sword in its sheath won't do any good during an attack; God has given us the sword of His Word so we can use it. God's Word from a believer's mouth, with faith to back it up, is a powerfully effective weapon in the war against the enemy.

²²I have sent him to you for this very purpose, so that you may know how we are, and that he may comfort and encourage and strengthen your hearts.

²³Peace be to the brothers and sisters, and love joined with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

²⁴Grace be with all who love our Lord Jesus Christ with undying and incorruptible love.

Philippians

Author: | Paul
Date: | About AD
61

Paul's letter to the Philippians is filled with encouragement and words of victory. It reminds us of Christ's love for us and affirms God's good plans for our lives. It also encourages us repeatedly to rejoice and to love one another. Philippians is an excellent book to read and study if you feel weak or discouraged, because it is full of joy and the joy of the Lord is our strength (see Nehemiah 8:10).

I am believing for your life what Paul wrote to the believers at Philippi: "I am convinced and confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a good work in you will [continue to] perfect and complete it until the day of Christ Jesus [the time of His return]" (Philippians 1:6). I hope you will renew your mind with this truth, knowing that no matter what is happening in your life, God is doing a good work!

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM PHILIPPIANS:

Instead of complaining or murmuring, say, “God is working, and He will fulfill His purpose for me” (see Philippians 2:13–14).

If you’ll pray with thanksgiving in every situation, the peace of God will guard your mind and heart (see Philippians 4:6–7).

To be successful in life, think about what you are thinking about and choose right thoughts (see Philippians 4:8).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM PHILIPPIANS:

I do not consider that I have made it my own yet; but one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the [heavenly] prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. |
Philippians 3:13–14

Whatever is true, whatever is honorable and worthy of respect, whatever is right and confirmed by God's word, whatever is pure and wholesome, whatever is lovely and brings peace, whatever is admirable and of good repute; if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think continually on these things [center your mind on them, and implant them in your heart]. | Philippians 4:8

I can do all things [which He has called me to do] through Him who strengthens and empowers me [to fulfill His purpose—I am self-sufficient in Christ's sufficiency; I am ready for anything and equal to anything through Him who infuses me with inner strength and confident peace.] |

THE LETTER OF PAUL TO THE PHILIPPIANS

1 PAUL AND Timothy, bond-servants of Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed),

To all the saints (God's people) in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, including the overseers and deacons:

²Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³I thank my God in every remembrance of you,

⁴always offering every prayer of mine with joy [and with specific requests] for all of you,

⁵[thanking God] for your participation and partnership [both your comforting fellowship and gracious contributions] in [advancing] the good news [regarding salvation] from the first day [you heard it] until now.

⁶I am convinced and confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a good work in you will [continue to] perfect and complete it until the day of Christ Jesus [the time of His return]. [Rom 14:10]

POWERPOINT

In Philippians 1:6, Paul is saying: God is the One Who started a good work in you and He is the One Who will finish it.

This means we should allow God to do His work without trying to interfere. We need to be patient and rest in Him as He accomplishes what needs to be done instead of taking matters into our own hands when things are not happening as we would like. There are certain responsibilities we need to fulfill in our lives, and there are certain things only God can do. We are to do our part and let Him do His. This takes the pressure off us and relieves the worry and anxiety of trying to build our own lives.

Speak God's Word

I choose those things that are excellent. I identify the best, that I may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ, actually living a life that leads others away from sin.

| adapted from PHILIPPIANS
1:10 |

⁷It is right for me to feel this way about you, because [you have me in your heart as] I have you in my heart, since both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the good news [regarding salvation], all of you share in [His matchless] grace with me.

⁸For God is my witness, how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus [whose great love fills me].

⁹And this I pray, that your love may abound more and more [displaying itself in greater depth] in real knowledge and in practical insight,

¹⁰so that you may learn to recognize and treasure what is excellent [identifying the best, and distinguishing moral differences], and that you may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ [actually living lives that lead others away from sin];

¹¹filled with the fruit of righteousness which comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God [so that His glory may be both revealed and recognized].

¹²Now I want you to know, believers, that what has happened to me [this imprisonment that was meant to stop me] has actually served to advance [the spread of] the good news [regarding salvation].

¹³My imprisonment in [the cause of] Christ has become common knowledge throughout the whole praetorian (imperial) guard and to everyone else.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God's Perfect Plan

Sometimes we confuse the fact that God will perfect His good work in us (see Phil. 1:6) with the idea that we have to somehow be perfect or work to make sure the plan turns out perfectly. That kind of thinking is a deception of Satan. The plan isn't perfect because we're perfect; the plan is perfect because God is perfect. Let's say it this way: God has a special plan for each of our lives, and He is the One Who will perfect it.

God gives us directions for a full, satisfying life. Our role is to align ourselves with that plan through obedience and service from a sincere heart to Him. We are to keep our eyes on Jesus and on His ability, not on ourselves or on what we think we can do apart from Him.

As soon as we think we have to be the ones to perfect and complete what God wants to do in us, we have allowed Satan to distract us with wrong thinking. Let's believe Philippians 1:6, which promises that God has begun His good work in us; and He is the One Who will finish and bring it to completion. Remembering this will encourage us when things seem to be taking a long time or when we make mistakes and become discouraged with ourselves.

¹⁴Because of my chains [seeing that I am doing well and that God is accomplishing great things], most of the brothers have renewed confidence in the Lord, and have far more courage to speak the word of God [concerning salvation] without fear [of the consequences, seeing that God can work His good in all circumstances].

¹⁵Some, it is true, are [actually] preaching Christ out of envy and rivalry [toward me—for no better reason than a competitive spirit or misguided ambition], but others out of goodwill and a loyal spirit [toward me].

¹⁶The latter [preach Christ] out of love, because they know that I have been put here [by God on purpose] for the defense of the gospel;

¹⁷but the former preach Christ [insincerely] out of selfish ambition [just self-promotion], thinking that they are causing me distress in my imprisonment.

¹⁸What then [does it matter]? So long as in every way, whether in pretense [for self-promotion] or in all honesty [to spread the truth], Christ is being preached; and in this I rejoice.

Yes, and I will rejoice [later as well],

¹⁹for I know [with confidence] that this will turn out for my deliverance and spiritual well-being, through your prayers and the [superabundant] supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ [which upholds me].

²⁰It is my own eager expectation and hope, that [looking toward the future] I will not disgrace myself nor be ashamed in anything, but that with courage and the utmost freedom of speech, even now as always, Christ will be magnified and exalted in my body, whether by life or by death.

²¹For to me, to live is Christ [He is my source of joy, my reason to live] and to die is gain [for I will be with Him in eternity].

²²If, however, it is to be life here and I am to go on living, this will mean useful and productive service for me; so I do not know which to choose [if I am given that choice].

²³But I am hard-pressed between the two. I have the desire to leave [this world] and be with Christ, for that is far, far better;

²⁴yet to remain in my body is more necessary and essential for your sake.

²⁵Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith, ²⁶so that your rejoicing for me may overflow in Christ Jesus through my coming to you again.

²⁷Only [be sure to] lead your lives in a manner [that will be] worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I do come and see you or remain absent, I will hear about you that you are standing firm in one spirit [and one purpose], with one mind striving side by side [as if in combat] for the faith of the gospel.

²⁸And in no way be alarmed or intimidated [in anything] by your opponents, for such [constancy and fearlessness on your part] is a [clear] sign [a proof and a seal] for them of [their impending] destruction, but [a clear sign] for you of deliverance and salvation, and that too, from God.

²⁹For you have been granted [the privilege] for Christ's sake, not only to believe and confidently trust in Him, but also to suffer for His sake,

POWERPOINT

When facing opposition, if you are determined to remain stable, the enemy will see it as a clear sign that he is defeated (see Phil. 1:28), and God will see it as a signal to bring deliverance in your life. When you have a problem, stand still and see the salvation of the Lord (see 2 Chr. 20:17). Remain stable and do the right thing even while the wrong thing is happening to you. As you remain stable and wait for God's deliverance, you may go through some suffering (see Phil. 1:29), but the hard things you deal with will bring victory into your life.

Speak God's Word

I do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit, but with an attitude of humility, being neither arrogant nor self-righteous, I regard others as more important than myself. I do not merely look out for my own personal interests, but also for the interests of others.

| adapted from PHILIPPIANS
2:3-4 |

³⁰[and so you are] experiencing the same [kind of] conflict which you saw me endure, and which you hear to be mine now.

2 THEREFORE IF there is any encouragement and comfort in Christ [as there certainly is in abundance], if there is any consolation of love, if there is any fellowship [that we share] in the Spirit, if [there is] any [great depth of] affection and compassion,

²make my joy complete by being of the same mind, having the same love [toward one another], knit together in spirit, intent on one purpose [and living a life that reflects your faith and spreads the gospel—the good news regarding salvation through faith in Christ].

³Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit [through factional motives, or strife], but with [an attitude of] humility [being neither arrogant nor self-righteous], regard others as more important than yourselves.

⁴Do not merely look out for your own personal interests, but also for the interests of others.

⁵Have this same attitude in yourselves which was in Christ Jesus [look to Him as your example in selfless humility],

⁶who, although He existed in the form and unchanging essence of God [as One with Him, possessing the fullness of all the divine attributes—the entire nature of deity], did not regard equality with God a thing to be grasped or asserted [as if He did not already possess it, or was afraid of losing it];

⁷but emptied Himself [without renouncing or diminishing His deity, but only temporarily giving up the outward expression of divine equality and His rightful dignity] by assuming the form of a bond-servant, and being made in the likeness of men [He became completely human but was without sin, being fully God and fully man].

POWERPOINT

Some versions of Philippians 2:7 say that Jesus “made Himself of no reputation.” This tells us that He was not concerned about making a name for Himself or about what people thought of Him, and we need to follow His example. If we are faithful to God and humble before Him as we go about our lives, He will make sure the right people know who we are, and He will open the doors that need to be opened for us. If our goal is to build a great reputation for ourselves, we will live as people-pleasers who fear the opinions of others, rather than as people who truly fear the Lord.

⁸After He was found in [terms of His] outward appearance as a man [for a divinely-appointed time], He humbled Himself [still further] by becoming obedient [to the Father] to the point of death, even death on a cross.

⁹For this reason also [because He obeyed and so completely humbled Himself], God has highly exalted Him and bestowed on Him the name which is above every name,

¹⁰so that at the name of Jesus EVERY KNEE SHALL BOW [in submission], of those who are in heaven and on earth and under the earth, [Is 45:23]

¹¹and that every tongue will confess and openly acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord (sovereign God), to the glory of God the Father.

¹²So then, my dear ones, just as you have always obeyed [my instructions with enthusiasm], not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, continue to work out your salvation [that is, cultivate it, bring it to full effect, actively pursue spiritual maturity] with awe-inspired fear and trembling [using serious caution and critical self-evaluation to avoid anything that might offend God or discredit the name of Christ].

¹³For it is [not your strength, but it is] God who is effectively at work in you, both to will and to work [that is, strengthening, energizing, and creating in you the longing and the ability to fulfill your purpose] for His good pleasure.

¹⁴Do everything without murmuring or questioning [the providence of God],

¹⁵so that you may prove yourselves to be blameless and guileless, innocent and uncontaminated, children of God without blemish in the midst of a [morally] crooked and

[spiritually] perverted generation, among whom you are seen as bright lights [beacons shining out clearly] in the world [of darkness], ¹⁶holding out and offering to everyone the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I will have reason to rejoice greatly because I did not run [my race] in vain nor labor without result.

¹⁷But even if I am being poured out as a drink offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith [for preaching the message of salvation], still I rejoice and share my joy with you all. [Num 28:7; 2 Tim 4:6]

¹⁸You too, rejoice in the same way and share your joy with me.

POWERPOINT

God has given us what we need to defeat Satan. One of those gifts is the name of Jesus.

There is power in that name, and at the very mention of it, every knee must bow (see Phil. 2:9–10). In other words, everyone and everything must submit to Him. Jesus gave us both instructions and permission to pray in His name, and when we pray this way, it is as though He Himself is praying. His name represents all that He is and all that He has done. When Jesus gave us His name, He gave us an amazingly powerful gift that we should always appreciate.

¹⁹But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I may also be encouraged by learning news about you.

²⁰For I have no one else [like him who is] so kindred a spirit who will be genuinely concerned for your [spiritual] welfare.

²¹For the others [who deserted me after my arrest] all seek [to advance] their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ.

²²But you know of Timothy's tested worth and his proven character, that he has served with me to advance the gospel like a son serving with his father.

²³Therefore, I hope [that it is His will] to send him immediately, just as soon as I see how my case turns out;

²⁴and I trust [confidently] in the Lord that soon I also will be coming to you.

²⁵However, I thought it necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, [who has been] my brother and companion and fellow soldier, who was also sent as your messenger to take care of my needs.

²⁶For he has been longing for all of you and was distressed because you had heard that he was sick.

²⁷He certainly was sick and close to death. But God had mercy on him, and not only on him but also on me, so that I would not have sorrow upon sorrow.

²⁸So I have sent him all the more eagerly so that when you see him again you may rejoice and I may be less concerned about you.

²⁹Welcome him home in the Lord with great joy, and appreciate and honor men like him;

³⁰because he came close to death for the work of Christ, risking his life to complete what was lacking in your service to me [which distance prevented you from rendering personally].

3 FINALLY, MY fellow believers, continue to rejoice and delight in the LORD. To write the same things again is no trouble for me, and it is a safeguard for you.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Where's Your Confidence?

In Philippians 3:3, Paul writes strong words about not putting our confidence in the flesh. The flesh will always fail us, but the Lord will always be with us and see us through any situation to victory. Apart from Him we can do nothing (see John 15:5), but in Him we can do all things (see Phil. 4:13).

When you no longer place your confidence in the flesh, you begin to feel stronger and more secure. Before your confidence can be in Him, it needs to be removed from other people and other things.

Is God dealing with you about where you have placed your confidence? Is it in the government? A college degree? Your job? Your spouse? Your children? Your own ability?

As we place our confidence in Christ, we will enjoy life much more. Things and people may disappoint and fail us, but Jesus never fails. He is faithful and can be depended on.

It is vital that you come to the place where your confidence is not in the flesh but in Christ Jesus. Learn to trust Him: "Commit your way to the LORD; trust in Him also and He will do it" (Ps. 37:5).

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Let Go and Press On

We all face and deal with disappointment at times. No one has everything in life happen the way they want or expect.

When things don't prosper or succeed according to our plan, the first emotion we feel is disappointment. This is normal. There is nothing wrong with feeling disappointed, but we must know what to do with that feeling or it will become something more serious, such as depression. In the world, we cannot live without experiencing disappointment, but in Jesus we can always be given re-appointment! We can have a new beginning.

The apostle Paul stated that one important lesson he had learned in life was to let go of what lay behind and press toward all that lay ahead (see Phil. 3:13). When we are disappointed, then immediately get re-appointed, that's exactly what we're doing. We're letting go of the causes of the disappointment and pressing toward what God has for us. We get a new vision, plan, or idea—a fresh outlook, a new mindset, and we change our focus to that. We decide to go on!

Every day is a brand-new start. We can let go of yesterday's disappointments and give God a chance to do something wonderful for us today.

²Look out for the dogs [the Judaizers, the legalists], look out for the troublemakers, look out for the false circumcision [those who claim circumcision is necessary for salvation];

³for we [who are born-again have been reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, set apart for His purpose and] are the true circumcision, who worship in the Spirit of God and glory and take pride and exult in Christ Jesus and place no confidence [in what we have or who we are] in the flesh—

⁴though I myself might have [some grounds for] confidence in the flesh [if I were pursuing salvation by works]. If anyone else thinks that he has reason to be confident in the flesh [that is, in his own efforts to achieve salvation], I have far more:

⁵circumcised when I was eight days old, of the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews [an exemplary Hebrew]; as to the [observance of the] Law, a Pharisee;

⁶as to my zeal [for Jewish tradition], a persecutor of the church; and as to righteousness [supposed right living] which [my fellow Jews believe] is in the Law, I proved myself blameless.

⁷But whatever former things were gains to me [as I thought then], these things [once regarded as advancements in merit] I have come to consider as loss [absolutely worthless] for the sake of Christ [and the purpose which He has given my life].

⁸But more than that, I count everything as loss compared to the priceless privilege and supreme advantage of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord [and of growing more deeply and thoroughly acquainted with Him—a joy unequaled]. For His sake I have lost everything, and I consider it all garbage, so that I may gain Christ, ⁹and may be found in Him [believing and relying on Him], not having any righteousness of my own derived from [my obedience to] the Law and its rituals, but [possessing] that [genuine righteousness] which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness which comes from God on the basis of faith.

¹⁰*And this, so* that I may know Him [experientially, becoming more thoroughly acquainted with Him, understanding the remarkable wonders of His Person more completely] and [in that same way experience] the power of His resurrection [which overflows and is active in believers], and [that I may share] the fellowship of His sufferings, by being continually conformed [inwardly into His likeness even] to His death [dying as He did];

¹¹so that I may attain to the resurrection [that will raise me] from the dead.

¹²Not that I have already obtained it [this goal of being Christlike] or have already been made perfect, but I actively press on so that I may take hold of that [perfection] for which Christ Jesus took hold of me and made me His own. [1 Cor 9:24; 1 Tim 6:12]

¹³Brothers and sisters, I do not consider that I have made it my own yet; but one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead, ¹⁴I press on toward the goal to win the [heavenly] prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

¹⁵All of us who are mature [pursuing spiritual perfection] should have this attitude. And if in any respect you have a different attitude, that too God will make clear to you.

¹⁶Only let us stay true to what we have already attained.

¹⁷Brothers and sisters, together follow my example and observe those who live by the pattern we gave you.

¹⁸For there are many, of whom I have often told you, and now tell you even with tears, who live as enemies of the cross of Christ [rejecting and opposing His way of salvation], ¹⁹whose fate is destruction, whose god is their belly [their worldly appetite, their sensuality, their vanity], and whose glory is in their shame—who focus their mind on earthly and temporal things.

²⁰But [we are different, because] our citizenship is in heaven. And from there we eagerly await [the coming of] the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ;

²¹who, by exerting that power which enables Him even to subject everything to Himself, will [not only] transform [but completely refashion] our earthly bodies so that they will be like His glorious resurrected body.

Speak God's Word

I will rejoice in the Lord always. I will delight and take pleasure in Him. Again I say, I will rejoice!

| adapted from PHILIPPIANS 4:4

4 THEREFORE, MY fellow believers, whom I love and long for, my delight and crown [my wreath of victory], in this way stand firm in the Lord, my beloved.

²I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to agree and to work in harmony in the Lord.

³Indeed, I ask you too, my true companion, to help these women [to keep on cooperating], for they have shared my struggle in the [cause of the] gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the Book of Life. [Dan 12:1; Mal 3:16, 17; Rev 3:5; 21:27]

⁴Rejoice in the Lord always [delight, take pleasure in Him]; again I will say, rejoice! [Ps 37:4]

⁵Let your gentle spirit [your graciousness, unselfishness, mercy, tolerance, and patience] be known to all people. The Lord is near.

⁶Do not be anxious or worried about anything, but in everything [every circumstance and situation] by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, continue to make your [specific] requests known to God.

⁷And the peace of God [that peace which reassures the heart, that peace] which transcends all understanding, [that peace which] stands guard over your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus [is yours]. [John 14:27]

Speak God's Word

I am not anxious or worried about anything, but in every circumstance and situation by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, I continue to make my requests known to God. And the peace of God, which reassures the heart, transcends all understanding, and stands guard over my heart and my mind in Christ Jesus is mine.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Don't Worry, Pray

In Philippians 4:6–7, the apostle Paul does not say, “Pray and worry.” Rather, he says, “Do not be anxious or worried about anything, but in everything [every circumstance and situation] by prayer and petition... make your [specific] requests known to God.” Why are we to pray and not worry or be anxious? Because prayer is the way we cast our cares upon the Lord (see 1 Pet. 5:7).

When the enemy tries to burden us with cares, we can turn and give those cares to God. That's what prayer is—acknowledging to the Lord that we cannot carry our burden of cares, and that we need His help. If we pray about something and then keep on worrying about it, we are mixing a positive and a negative. The two cancel out each other so that we end up right back where we started.

Prayer is a positive force; worry is a negative force. The reason many people operate at zero power level spiritually is that they cancel their positive prayer power by giving in to the negative power of worry.

As long as we are worrying, we are not trusting God. It is only by trusting, by having faith and confidence in the Lord, that we are able to enter into His rest and enjoy the peace that transcends all understanding.

Make a decision now to pray instead of worry, and begin to watch Him take care of you.

⁸Finally, believers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable and worthy of respect, whatever is right and confirmed by God's word, whatever is pure and wholesome, whatever is lovely and brings peace, whatever is admirable and of good repute; if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think continually on these things [center your mind on them, and implant them in your heart].

⁹The things which you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, practice these things [in daily life], and the God [who is the source] of peace and well-being will be with you.

¹⁰I rejoiced greatly in the Lord, that now at last you have renewed your concern for me; indeed, you were concerned about me before, but you had no opportunity to show it.

¹¹Not that I speak from [any personal] need, for I have learned to be content [and self-sufficient through Christ, satisfied to the point where I am not disturbed or uneasy] regardless of my circumstances.

¹²I know how to get along and live humbly [in difficult times], and I also know how to enjoy abundance and live in prosperity. In any and every circumstance I have learned the secret [of facing life], whether well-fed or going hungry, whether having an abundance or being in need.

Speak God's Word

I have learned to be content and self-sufficient through Christ, satisfied to the point where I am not disturbed or uneasy, regardless of my circumstances.

Think About What You're Thinking About

I will never forget the day God impressed on my heart: “Think about what you’re thinking about.” These are some of the most life-changing words I have ever heard and words I have used for years to encourage people and help them gain victory on the battlefield of the mind. When I first heard these words, I wasn’t sure what they meant. How could I think about what I was thinking about?

I learned to take an inventory of my thoughts, and only by doing so could I realize how many of those thoughts were useless, vain, and not in agreement with God’s Word. My mind was undisciplined, racing from one thought to another, and my thoughts centered on myself and how others needed to change to make me happy.

As I pondered my thoughts, I looked at Philippians 4:8, where Paul presented a list of the kinds of things we need to focus on. If God did not want me to think about the things I was thinking about, I needed to know what I should think about—“whatever is true... honorable and worthy of respect... right and confirmed by God’s word... pure and wholesome... lovely and brings peace... admirable and of good repute; if there is any excellence... anything worthy of praise.” It is not enough to know what not to think, we also need to know what to think!

I also realized how my thoughts affected my attitude. God tells us to do things that are for our good. He wants us to be happy and fulfilled—His way. When we’re full of wrong thoughts, we’re miserable, and we make those around us miserable, too.

Over the years, I’ve made a practice of taking a regular inventory of my thoughts. I do this especially when I am upset or unhappy. I have found that my condition during those times is not really due to circumstances I don’t like, but to how I think about my circumstances. We can improve our quality of life and enjoy it much more if we will think wholesome and godly thoughts. Thankfully, we can cast down wrong thoughts and replace them with good ones.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord Jesus, I ask You to give me greater victory in life as I learn to think about what I’m thinking about through the help of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Speak God's Word

I can do all the things God has called me to do through Him who strengthens and empowers me to fulfill His purpose—I am self-sufficient in Christ's sufficiency; I am ready for anything and equal to anything through Him who infuses me with inner strength and confident peace.

| adapted from PHILIPPIANS

4:13 |

¹³I can do all things [which He has called me to do] through Him who strengthens and empowers me [to fulfill His purpose—I am self-sufficient in Christ's sufficiency; I am ready for anything and equal to anything through Him who infuses me with inner strength and confident peace.]

¹⁴Nevertheless, it was right of you to share [with me] in my difficulties.

¹⁵And you Philippians know that in the early days of preaching the gospel, after I left Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving except you alone;

¹⁶for even in Thessalonica you sent a gift more than once for my needs.

¹⁷Not that I seek the gift itself, but I do seek the profit which increases to your [heavenly] account [the blessing which is accumulating for you].

¹⁸But I have received everything in full and more; I am amply supplied, having received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent me. They are the fragrant aroma of an offering, an acceptable sacrifice which God welcomes and in which He delights.

¹⁹And my God will liberally supply (fill until full) your every need according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

²⁰To our God and Father be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

²¹Remember me to every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me greet you.

²²All God's people wish to be remembered to you, especially those of Caesar's household.

²³The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that You liberally supply and meet my need. You fill my life until it is full of good things, according to Your riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

Colossians

Author: | Paul
Date: | About AD
61

One reason Colossians is such a powerful book of the Bible is that it focuses intensely on Jesus and encourages us to give Him first place in our lives. Paul wrote this book to Christians in Colossae, who had been exposed to a false teaching that cast doubt on Jesus' lordship. This is why, throughout Colossians, Paul exalts Jesus over everything—worldly thinking, legalistic living, and carnality—and urges his readers to do the same. When we keep Jesus first, we can live a joyful, peaceful, blessed life.

One of many important verses in Colossians is Colossians 2:3, which says that in Christ “are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge [regarding the word and purposes of God].” Do you want wisdom and knowledge, meaning the right ways of thinking and understanding? You will find them when you search for them in Christ!

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM COLOSSIANS:

Because of Christ's triumph on the cross, we can overcome spiritual darkness (see Colossians 2:15).

Set your mind and keep it set on heavenly things, things that have eternal value (see Colossians 3:2).

You can be free from bad behavior and wrong words by putting on your spiritual, renewed self (see Colossians 3:8–10).

Allow the spoken word of Christ to dwell in your mind and influence every aspect of your life (see Colossians 3:16).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM COLOSSIANS:

[Be] strengthened and invigorated with all power, according to His glorious might. | Colossians 1:11

He has rescued us and has drawn us to Himself from the dominion of darkness, and has transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son. | Colossians 1:13

See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deception [pseudo-intellectual babble], according to the tradition [and musings] of mere men, ... rather than following [the truth—the teachings of] Christ. | Colossians 2:8

THE LETTER OF PAUL TO THE COLOSSIANS

1 PAUL, AN apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed) by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, ²To the saints and faithful believers in Christ [who are] at Colossae: Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God our Father.

³We give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, as we pray always for you,

⁴for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus [how you lean on Him with absolute confidence in His power, wisdom, and goodness], and of the [unselfish] love which you have for all the saints (God's people);

⁵because of the [confident] hope [of experiencing that] which is reserved and waiting for you in heaven. You previously heard of this hope in the message of truth, the gospel [regarding salvation]

⁶which has come to you. Indeed, just as in the whole world the gospel is constantly bearing fruit and spreading [by God's power], just as it has been doing among you ever since the day you first heard of it and understood the grace of God in truth [becoming thoroughly and deeply acquainted with it].

⁷You learned it from [our representative] Epaphras, our beloved fellow bond-servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf ⁸and he also has told us of your love [well-grounded and nurtured] in the [Holy] Spirit.

⁹For this reason, since the day we heard about it, we have not stopped praying for you, asking [specifically] that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all spiritual wisdom [with insight into His purposes], and in understanding [of spiritual things],

¹⁰so that you will walk in a manner worthy of the Lord [displaying admirable character, moral courage, and personal integrity], to [fully] please Him in all things, bearing fruit in every good work and steadily growing in the knowledge of God [with deeper faith, clearer insight and fervent love for His precepts];

KEYS to a Victorious Life

What Faith Is

Colossians 1:4 offers great insight into what faith is: "For we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus [how you lean on Him with absolute confidence in His power, wisdom, and goodness], and of the [unselfish] love which you have for all the saints (God's people)." As believers, we act on what God tells us to do in faith instead of trying to figure out on our own how to solve our problems or how to reach our goals.

We need to rely completely on the Lord instead of on our flesh, other people, or on anything the world offers us. To have faith in the Lord means we lean all of ourselves on Him, believing that only He has the ability to do for us what needs to be done in us. Our job is to abide in Him, to depend on Him totally and completely, and to place our faith and confidence in Him. That kind of faith leads us to peace and blessings.

POWERPOINT

The Amplified Bible's definition of faith in Colossians 1:4 teaches us to lean everything about ourselves on God with trust and confidence in three specific attributes of His character: His power, His wisdom, and His goodness. Whatever we cannot do, God can do because of His power. Whatever we do not know, God does know because of His wisdom. And whatever God does in our life, we can trust that it is for our benefit because of His goodness.

¹¹[we pray that you may be] strengthened and invigorated with all power, according to His glorious might, to attain every kind of endurance and patience with joy;

¹²giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified us to share in the inheritance of the saints (God's people) in the Light.

¹³For He has rescued us and has drawn us to Himself from the dominion of darkness, and has transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son, ¹⁴in whom we have redemption [because of His sacrifice, resulting in] the forgiveness of our sins [and the cancellation of sins' penalty].

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Help me, Lord, to walk in a manner worthy of You, displaying admirable character, moral courage, and personal integrity. Help me also to fully please You in all things, bearing fruit in every good work and steadily growing in the knowledge of You with deeper faith, clearer insight, and fervent love for Your precepts.

¹⁵He is the exact living image [the essential manifestation] of the unseen God [the visible representation of the invisible], the firstborn [the preeminent one, the sovereign, and the originator] of all creation.

¹⁶For by Him all things were created in heaven and on earth, [things] visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities; all things were created and exist through Him [that is, by His activity] and for Him.

¹⁷And He Himself existed and is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. [His is the controlling, cohesive force of the universe.] [Prov 8:22–31]

¹⁸He is also the head [the life-source and leader] of the body, the church; and He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that He Himself will occupy the first place [He will stand supreme and be preeminent] in everything. [1 Cor 15:20]

¹⁹For it pleased the Father for all the fullness [of deity—the sum total of His essence, all His perfection, powers, and attributes] to dwell [permanently] in Him (the Son), ²⁰and through [the intervention of] the Son to reconcile all things to Himself, making peace [with believers] through the blood of His cross; through Him, [I say,] whether things on earth or things in heaven.

²¹And although you were at one time estranged and alienated and hostile-minded [toward Him], participating in evil things,

²²yet Christ has now reconciled you [to God] in His physical body through death, in order to present you before the Father holy and blameless and beyond reproach—

²³[and He will do this] if you continue in the faith, well-grounded and steadfast, and not shifting away from the [confident] hope [that is a result] of the gospel that you have heard, which was proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which [gospel] I, Paul, was made a minister.

²⁴Now I rejoice in my sufferings on your behalf. And with my own body I supplement whatever is lacking [on our part] of Christ's afflictions, on behalf of His body, which is the church.

²⁵In this church I was made a minister according to the stewardship which God entrusted to me for your sake, so that I might make the word of God fully known [among you]—

POWERPOINT

You and I can only realize and experience the glory of God in our lives because of Christ in us (see Col. 1:27). He is our hope of seeing better things. When we look at ourselves and at our own ability, we feel defeated, but remembering that Christ lives in us is our hope of realizing the glory, or manifest excellence, of God. It keeps us encouraged to press on toward better things. We limit ourselves when we look to ourselves alone and fail to see Jesus. God's glory can be manifested in us and through us, as we believe it is possible.

²⁶*that is*, the mystery which was hidden [from angels and mankind] for ages and generations, but has now been revealed to His saints (God's people).

²⁷God [in His eternal plan] chose to make known to them how great for the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in and among you, the hope and guarantee of [realizing the] glory.

²⁸We proclaim Him, warning and instructing everyone in all wisdom [that is, with comprehensive insight into the word and purposes of God], so that we may present every person complete in Christ [mature, fully trained, and perfect in Him—the Anointed].

²⁹For this I labor [often to the point of exhaustion], striving with His power and energy, which so greatly works within me.

2 FOR I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you and for those [believers] at Laodicea, and for all who [like yourselves] have never seen me face to face.

²[For my hope is] that their hearts may be encouraged as they are knit together in [unselfish] love, so that they may have all the riches that come from the full assurance of understanding [the joy of salvation], resulting in a true [and more intimate] knowledge of the mystery of God, that is, Christ, ³in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge [regarding the word and purposes of God].

⁴I say this so that no one will deceive you with persuasive [but thoroughly deceptive] arguments.

⁵For even though I am absent [from you] in body, nevertheless I am with you in spirit, delighted to see your good discipline [as you stand shoulder to shoulder and form a solid front] and to see the stability of your faith in Christ [your steadfast reliance on Him and your unwavering confidence in His power, wisdom, and goodness].

⁶Therefore as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, walk in [union with] Him [reflecting His character in the things you do and say—living lives that lead others away from sin], ⁷having been deeply rooted [in Him] and now being continually built up in Him and [becoming increasingly more] established ^{*}in your faith, just as you were taught, and overflowing in it with gratitude.

POWERPOINT

God does not want us to limit our faith to our salvation experience. We see this in Colossians 2:6. Once we receive Christ by faith, we are supposed to then live our entire lives by faith. We should not decide to trust God in certain situations and try to handle others by ourselves. God wants to help us with the major issues in our lives and with the less significant ones. He wants to be there for us when we are desperate and when we are not. Living every day and every circumstance in total dependence on God is how we live by faith.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Forgiven Forever

God's forgiveness is forever—ongoing for the duration of our lives; it is for every day. When Jesus died on the cross, He not only forgave everything we had done in our past, He also committed Himself to forgive and forget every sin we would commit in the future. In the words of the apostle Paul, “God made you alive together with Christ, having [freely] forgiven us all our sins” (Col. 2:13, emphasis mine).

He knows our thoughts before we think them; He knows our words before they come out of our mouths; He knows every wrong decision we will ever make—and they're all covered. All we have to do is stay in relationship with Him. After all, what He wants from us, more than anything else, is not perfect performance, or perfect behavior, or perfect attitudes, but hearts that truly love Him.

⁸See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deception [pseudo-intellectual babble], according to the tradition [and musings] of mere men, following the elementary principles of this world, rather than following [the truth—the teachings of] Christ.

⁹For in Him all the fullness of Deity (the Godhead) dwells in bodily form [completely expressing the divine essence of God].

¹⁰And in Him you have been made complete [achieving spiritual stature through Christ], and He is the head over all rule and authority [of every angelic and earthly power].

¹¹In Him you were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, but by the [spiritual] circumcision of Christ in the stripping off of the body of the flesh [the sinful carnal nature], ¹²having been buried with Him in baptism and raised with Him [to a new life] through [your] faith in the working of God, [as displayed] when He raised Christ from the dead.

¹³When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your flesh (worldliness, manner of life), God made you alive together with Christ, having [freely] forgiven us all our sins, ¹⁴having canceled out the certificate of debt consisting of legal demands [which were in force] against us and which were hostile to us. And this certificate He has set aside and completely removed by nailing it to the cross.

¹⁵When He had disarmed the rulers and authorities [those supernatural forces of evil operating against us], He made a public example of them [exhibiting them as captives in His triumphal procession], having triumphed over them through the cross.

¹⁶Therefore let no one judge you in regard to food and drink or in regard to [the observance of] a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath day.

¹⁷Such things are only a shadow of what is to come and they have only symbolic value; but the substance [the reality of what is foreshadowed] belongs to Christ.

¹⁸Let no one defraud you of your prize [your freedom in Christ and your salvation] by insisting on mock humility and the worship of angels, going into detail about visions [he claims] he has seen [to justify his authority], puffed up [in conceit] by his unspiritual mind, ¹⁹and not holding fast to the head [of the body, Jesus Christ], from whom the entire body, supplied and knit together by its joints and ligaments, grows with the growth [that can come only] from God.

²⁰If you have died with Christ to the elementary principles of the world, why, as if you were still living in the world, do you submit to rules and regulations, such as,

²¹“Do not handle [this], do not taste [that], do not [even] touch!”?

²²(these things all perish with use)—in accordance with the commandments and teachings of men. [Is 29:13]

²³These practices indeed have the appearance [that popularly passes as that] of wisdom in self-made religion and mock humility and severe treatment of the body (asceticism), but are of no value against sinful indulgence [because they do not honor God].

3 THEREFORE IF you have been raised with Christ [to a new life, sharing in His resurrection from the dead], keep seeking the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. [Ps 110:1]

²Set your mind and keep focused habitually on the things above [the heavenly things], not on things that are on the earth [which have only temporal value].

³For you died [to this world], and your [new, real] life is hidden with Christ in God.

⁴When Christ, who is our life, appears, then you also will appear with Him in glory.

⁵So put to death and deprive of power the evil longings of your earthly body [with its sensual, self-centered instincts] immorality, impurity, sinful passion, evil desire, and greed, which is [a kind of] idolatry [because it replaces your devotion to God].

⁶Because of these [sinful] things the [divine] wrath of God is coming on the sons of disobedience [those who fail to listen and who routinely and obstinately disregard God's precepts], ⁷and in these [sinful things] you also once walked, when you were habitually living in them [without the knowledge of Christ].

Speak God's Word

I have been raised with Christ to a new life, sharing in His resurrection from the dead. I keep seeking the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God.

POWERPOINT

To “set your mind on things above” (see Col. 3:2) doesn’t merely mean to sit and think about heaven. It means to focus your mind on God’s will and on the most excellent way to live. I have said many times, “Where the mind goes, the man follows.” You can set your mind for the day with on-purpose thinking early in the morning. You can decide ahead of time what you want to think about that day and set your mind to do it. You can also set your mind to show love to everyone you meet that day.

⁸But now rid yourselves [completely] of all these things: anger, rage, malice, slander, and obscene (abusive, filthy, vulgar) language from your mouth.

⁹Do not lie to one another, for you have stripped off the old self with its evil practices,

¹⁰and have put on the new [spiritual] self who is being continually renewed in true knowledge in the image of Him who created the new self—[Gen 1:26]

¹¹*a renewal* in which there is no [distinction between] Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, [nor between nations whether] barbarian or Scythian, [nor in status whether] slave or free, but Christ is all, and in all [so believers are equal in Christ, without distinction].

¹²So, as God's own chosen people, who are holy [set apart, sanctified for His purpose] and well-beloved [by God Himself], put on a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience [which has the power to endure whatever injustice or unpleasantness comes, with good temper];

¹³bearing graciously with one another, and willingly forgiving each other if one has a cause for complaint against another; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so should you forgive.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

A Set and Disciplined Mind

God's Word frequently mentions the need to focus. The apostle Paul set a goal, and he knew that he had to keep pressing toward it. I am sure he had many requests and many expectations placed on him, but in the midst of it, he managed to focus on his main goal, which was spiritual maturity (see Phil. 3:10–14). Paul wanted to be what God wanted him to be.

Paul wrote: “Set your mind and keep focused habitually on the things above [the heavenly things], not on things that are on the earth [which have only temporal value]” (Col. 3:2). We have to set our mind in the right direction before we can move in the right direction. Focus requires that we set our mind and keep it set on what is important at any given time. Distractions are abundant, and the devil uses them to keep us from being productive and fulfilled. But with God's help and some determination, we can focus.

Don't be discouraged if you find that you have allowed your priorities to get out of line—just refocus and get back on track. Be determined to finish what you start and give yourself to what you truly want to do.

God has given us a sound mind (see 2 Tim. 1:7), a mind of discipline and self-control. I am glad to know that I have a sound mind, and as is true for most of us, it is still being developed. I find that giving myself to whatever I am currently doing can be challenging at times, and I pray daily that God will help me to focus. I have experienced the power of focus, and I also know the misery of being distracted. I am not going to settle for anything less than focused thinking. The greatest moment in our lives is the present moment. We need to live it fully and enjoy it completely.

Discipline is the tool that God gives us to help us be who we say we want to be and do what we say we want to do. Discipline is our friend, not our enemy. Learn to discipline your mind and practice focusing. It may take time and effort, but once you gain a measure of success, you will find life much easier and more fulfilling.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Heavenly Father, an endless stream of distractions seems to keep me from the priorities I believe You have given me. Help me to set my mind and keep it focused on what You truly want me to do. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Speak God's Word

I bear graciously with others and willingly forgive others if I have a cause for complaint against them; just as the Lord has forgiven me, so I should forgive.

¹⁴Beyond all these things put on and wrap yourselves in [unselfish] love, which is the perfect bond of unity [for everything is bound together in agreement when each one seeks the best for others].

¹⁵Let the peace of Christ [the inner calm of one who walks daily with Him] be the controlling factor in your hearts [deciding and settling questions that arise]. To this peace indeed you were called as members in one body [of believers]. And be thankful [to God always].

¹⁶Let the [spoken] word of Christ have its home within you [dwelling in your heart and mind—permeating every aspect of your being] as you teach [spiritual things] and admonish and train one another with all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs with thankfulness in your hearts to God.

POWERPOINT

Peace is to be ardently sought after in our lives. It should guide us as we make decisions (see Col. 3:2). If we let peace be the umpire in our lives, we will live a life we can enjoy and one that is fruitful. We have all done things we did not have peace about doing at different times in our lives, and if we are honest, we would have to admit that those things did not end well. We often like to blame our problems on other people, circumstances, or the devil, but we should consider that many of our hardships could have been avoided had we followed peace.

¹⁷Whatever you do [no matter what it is] in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus [and in dependence on Him], giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

¹⁸Wives, be subject to your husbands [out of respect for their position as protector, and their accountability to God], as is proper and fitting in the Lord.

¹⁹Husbands, love your wives [with an affectionate, sympathetic, selfless love that always seeks the best for them] and do not be embittered or resentful toward them [because of the responsibilities of marriage].

²⁰Children, obey your parents [as God's representatives] in all things, for this [attitude of respect and obedience] is well-pleasing to the Lord [and will bring you God's promised blessings].

²¹Fathers, do not provoke or irritate or exasperate your children [with demands that are trivial or unreasonable or humiliating or abusive; nor by favoritism or indifference; treat them tenderly with lovingkindness], so they will not lose heart and become discouraged or unmotivated [with their spirits broken].

²²Servants, in everything obey those who are your masters on earth, not only with external service, as those who merely please people, but with sincerity of heart because of your fear of the Lord.

²³Whatever you do [whatever your task may be], work from the soul [that is, put in your very best effort], as [something done] for the Lord and not for men, ²⁴knowing [with all certainty] that it is from the Lord [not from men] that you will receive the inheritance which is your [greatest] reward. It is the Lord Christ whom you [actually] serve.

Speak God's Word

Whatever I do and whatever my task may be, I will put in my very best effort, as though I am working for the Lord and not for other people.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Persistence Pays Off

The Holy Spirit enables us to consistently choose right thinking, right words, and right actions. It's not what you choose to do right one time that's going to change your life. It's doing it over and over and over, such as being persistent and diligent in prayer (see Col. 4:2). I frequently tell people, "Keep on doing what is right even if you are not getting a right result yet." Persistence always pays off, and the Bible says that the diligent person will be successful (see 2 Pet. 1:10). Don't ever give up!

If you're the kind of person who refuses to give up, I can assure you that you will get your breakthrough and enjoy much victory in your life.

²⁵For he who does wrong will be punished for his wrongdoing, and [with God] there is no partiality [no special treatment based on a person's position in life].

4 MASTERS, [ON your part] deal with your slaves justly and fairly, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven. [Lev 25:43, 53]

²Be persistent and devoted to prayer, being alert and focused in your prayer life with an attitude of thanksgiving.

³At the same time pray for us, too, that God will open a door [of opportunity] to us for the word, to proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I have been imprisoned;

⁴that I may make it clear [and speak boldly and unfold the mystery] in the way I should.

⁵Conduct yourself with wisdom in your interactions with outsiders (non-believers), make the most of each opportunity [treating it as something precious].

⁶Let your speech at all times be gracious and pleasant, seasoned with salt, so that you will know how to answer each one [who questions you].

⁷As to all my affairs, Tychicus, who is a much-loved brother and faithful assistant and fellow bond-servant in the Lord, will give you all the information. [Eph 6:21]

⁸I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know how we are doing and that he may encourage your hearts;

⁹and with him is Onesimus, our faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will let you know everything about the situation here [in Rome].

¹⁰Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, wishes to be remembered to you; as does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (about whom you received instructions; if he comes to you, welcome him);

¹¹and from Jesus, who is called Justus. These are the only fellow workers for the kingdom of God who are from the circumcision (Jewish Christians), and they have proved to be an encouragement and a comfort to me.

¹²Epaphras, who is one of you and a bond-servant of Christ Jesus, sends you greetings. [He is] always striving for you in his prayers, praying with genuine concern, [pleading] that you may [as people of character and courage] stand firm, [spiritually mature] and fully assured in all the will of God.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, I pray that my speech will at all times be gracious and pleasant, seasoned with salt, so that I will know how to answer each one who questions me.

*•adapted from
Colossians 4:6*

¹³For I testify for him that he has worked strenuously for you and for the believers in Laodicea and those in Hierapolis.

¹⁴Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas greet you.

¹⁵Give my greetings to the brothers and sisters at Laodicea, and to Nympha and the church that meets in her house.

¹⁶When this letter has been read among you, see that it is read in the church of the Laodiceans; and also that you in turn read my letter [that is coming to you] from Laodicea.

¹⁷And say to Archippus, “See to it that you fulfill [carefully the duties of] the ministry which you have received in the Lord.”

¹⁸I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. Remember my chains. May grace (God’s unmerited favor and blessing) be with you.

1 Thessalonians

Author: | Paul
Date: | Probably
AD 51

The primary theme of Paul's first letter to the Thessalonian believers is the second coming of Jesus Christ. In fact, this event is referenced in every chapter of the book. To have the right mind-set toward His return, we should avoid the temptation to try to reason or figure out when it will happen. Instead, every day and in every situation, we should be mindful that Christ will come again—at a time we cannot specifically predict—and we should live the way we would want Him to find us living when He returns to earth.

As you read 1 Thessalonians, I encourage you to ask yourself, “Am I thinking the thoughts and living the kind of life the way I would want to be thinking and living when Christ comes back?” If we live every day the way He would have us live, we will be ready for His return.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM 1 THESSALONIANS:

We need not fear the Lord's return; rather, we can be comforted by knowing we will always be with Him (see 1 Thessalonians 4:1–18).

Fight passivity in your mind by being alert, self-controlled, calm, and wise (see 1 Thessalonians 5:6).

Close the door on complaining and give thanks to God in every circumstance (see 1 Thessalonians 5:18).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM 1 THESSALONIANS:

And may the Lord cause you to increase and excel and overflow in love for one another, and for all people, just as we also do for you. | 1 Thessalonians 3:12

Always seek that which is good for one another and for all people. Rejoice always and delight in your faith; be unceasing and persistent in prayer. | 1 Thessalonians 5:15–17

In every situation [no matter what the circumstances] be thankful and continually give thanks to God; for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus. | 1 Thessalonians 5:18

THE FIRST LETTER OF PAUL TO THE THESSALONIANS

1 PAUL, SILVANUS (Silas), and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being from God].

²We give thanks to God always for all of you, continually mentioning you in our prayers;

³recalling unceasingly before our God and Father your work energized by faith, and your service motivated by love and unwavering hope in [the return of] our Lord Jesus Christ. [1 Thess 1:10]

⁴Brothers and sisters beloved by God, we know that He has chosen you;

⁵for our good news [regarding salvation] came to you not only in word, but also in [its inherent] power and in the Holy Spirit and with great conviction [on our part]. You know what kind of men we proved to be among you for your benefit.

⁶You became imitators of us and [through us] of the Lord, after you welcomed our message in [a time of] great trouble with the joy supplied by the Holy Spirit;

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Jesus, for personally rescuing me from wrath and drawing me to Yourself, with all the privileges and rewards of a new life with You.

*• adapted from 1 Thessalonians
1:10*

⁷so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia.

⁸For the word of the Lord has resounded from you and has echoed [like thunder], not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place [the news of] your [great] faith in God has spread, so that we never need to say anything about it.

⁹For they themselves report about us, telling what kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Active Faith

God's Word encourages us to have an active faith. That means we are to be productive and bear good fruit. As we work with the Holy Spirit, we shut the door to laziness, procrastination, and passivity (see 1 Thess. 1:3). God's power is in us, and it will accomplish great things through us as we step out in faith and follow the leading of the Holy Spirit.

When we are actively doing good things, it helps us to resist the temptation to do bad things. There is a great deal of good that we can do each and every day, and we are told that good overcomes evil (see Rom. 12:21).

Stay active, follow God, and live a life of victory.

¹⁰and to [look forward and confidently] wait for [the coming of] His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead—Jesus, who [personally] rescues us from the coming wrath [and draws us to Himself, granting us all the privileges and rewards of a new life with Him].

2 FOR YOU know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you has not been ineffective (fruitless, in vain),

²but after we had already suffered and been outrageously treated in Philippi, as you know, yet in [the strength of] our

God we summoned the courage to proclaim boldly to you the good news of God [regarding salvation] amid great opposition.

³For our appeal does not come from delusion or impure motives, nor [is it motivated] by deceit [our message is complete, accurate, and based on the truth—it does not change].

⁴But just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel [that tells the good news of salvation through faith in Christ], so we speak, not as [if we were trying] to please people [to gain power and popularity], but to please God who examines our hearts [expecting our best].

⁵For as you well know, we never came with words of flattery nor with a pretext for greed—God is our witness—

⁶nor did we seek glory and honor from people, neither from you nor from anyone else, though as apostles of Christ we had the power to assert our authority.

⁷But we behaved gently when we were among you, like a devoted mother tenderly caring for her own children.

⁸Having such a deep affection for you, we were delighted to share with you not only God's good news but also our own lives, because you had become so very dear to us.

⁹For you remember, believers, our labor and hardship. We worked night and day [practicing our trade] in order not to be a [financial] burden to any of you while we proclaimed the gospel of God to you.

¹⁰You are witnesses, and so is God, how unworldly and just and blameless was our behavior toward you who believe [in our Lord Jesus Christ].

¹¹For you know how we were exhorting and encouraging and imploring each one of you just as a father does [in dealing with] his own children, [guiding you]

Speak God's Word

I thank God continually for His Word, which is effectually at work in me because I believe. It exercises its inherent, supernatural power in those who have faith.

| adapted from 1
THESSALONIANS 2:13 |

¹²to live lives [of honor, moral courage, and personal integrity] worthy of the God who [saves you and] calls you into His own kingdom and glory.

¹³And we also thank God continually for this, that when you received the word of God [concerning salvation] which you heard from us, you welcomed it not as the word of [mere] men, but as it truly is, the word of God, which is effectually at work in you who believe [exercising its inherent, supernatural power in those of faith].

¹⁴For you, brothers and sisters, became imitators of the churches of God in Christ Jesus that are in Judea, because you too suffered the same [kind of] persecution from your own countrymen, as they did from the Jews,

¹⁵who killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and harassed and drove us out; and [they] continue to be highly displeasing to God and [to show themselves] hostile to all people, ¹⁶forbidding us from speaking to the Gentiles (non-Jews) so that they may be saved. So, as always, they fill up [to the brim] the measure of their sins [allotted to them by God]. But [God's] wrath has come upon them at last [completely and forever]. [Gen 15:16]

¹⁷But since we were taken away from you, believers, for a little while—in person, but not in heart—we endeavored, with great longing to see you face to face.

¹⁸For we wanted to come to you—I, Paul, again and again [wanted to come], but Satan hindered us.

¹⁹For who is [the object of] our hope or joy or our victor's wreath of triumphant celebration [when we stand] in the presence of our Lord Jesus at His coming? Is it not you?

²⁰For you are [indeed] our glory and our joy!

3 THEREFORE, WHEN we could no longer endure our separation [from you], we thought it best to be left behind, alone at Athens,

²and so we sent Timothy, our brother and God's servant in [spreading] the good news of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you [exhorting, comforting, and establishing you] in regard to your faith, ³so that no one would be unsettled by these difficulties [to which I have referred]. For you know that we have been destined for this [as something unavoidable in our position].

⁴For even when we were with you, we warned you plainly in advance that we were going to experience persecution; and so, as you know, it has come to pass.

⁵For this reason, when I could no longer endure the suspense, I sent someone to find out about your faith [how you were holding up under pressure], for fear that somehow the tempter had tempted you and our work [among you] would prove to be ineffective.

⁶But now that Timothy has come back to us from [his visit with] you, and has brought us good news of your [steadfast] faith and [the warmth of your] love, and [reported] that you always think kindly of us and treasure your memories of us, longing to see us just as we long to see you,

⁷for this reason, brothers and sisters, during all our distress and suffering we have been comforted and greatly encouraged about you because of your faith [your unwavering trust in God—placing yourselves completely in His loving hands];

POWERPOINT

Any Christian can make a commitment to encourage other people in their faith (see 1 Thess. 3:2). Ask God to help you to see people the way He does and to say good things to them and about them. People are encouraged anytime we give them a compliment, and that is something we can do everywhere we go. It doesn't take much effort, but it has a huge positive effect. Form the habit of being an encourager and you will feel joy as you make others happy.

⁸because now we really live [in spite of everything], if you stand firm in the Lord.

⁹For what [adequate] thanks can we offer to God for you in return for all the joy and delight we have before our God on your account?

¹⁰We continue to pray night and day most earnestly that we may see you face to face, and may complete whatever may be imperfect and lacking in your faith.

¹¹Now may our God and Father Himself, and Jesus our Lord guide our steps to you [by removing the obstacles that stand in our way].

¹²And may the Lord cause you to increase and excel and overflow in love for one another, and for all people, just as we also do for you;

¹³so that He may strengthen and establish your hearts without blame in holiness in the sight of our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His saints (God's people).

4 FINALLY, BELIEVERS, we ask and admonish you in the Lord Jesus, that you follow the instruction that you received from us about how you ought to walk and please God (just as you are actually doing) and that you excel even more and more [pursuing a life of purpose and living in a way that expresses gratitude to God for your salvation].

²For you know what commandments and precepts we gave you by the authority of the Lord Jesus.

³For this is the will of God, that you be sanctified [separated and set apart from sin]: that you abstain and back away from sexual immorality;

⁴that each of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor [being available for God's purpose and separated from things profane], ⁵not [to be used] in lustful passion, like the Gentiles who do not know God and are ignorant of His will;

⁶and that [in this matter of sexual misconduct] no man shall transgress and defraud his brother because the Lord is the avenger in all these things, just as we have told you before and solemnly warned you.

Speak God's Word

God has not called me to impurity but to holiness, to be dedicated and set apart by behavior that pleases Him, whether in public or in private.

| adapted from 1
THESSALONIANS 4:7 |

⁷For God has not called us to impurity, but to holiness [to be dedicated, and set apart by behavior that pleases Him, whether in public or in private].

⁸So whoever rejects and disregards this is not [merely] rejecting man but the God who gives His Holy Spirit to you [to dwell in you and empower you to overcome temptation].

⁹Now concerning brotherly love, you have no need for anyone to write you, for you have been [personally] taught by God to love one another [that is, to have an unselfish concern for others and to do things for their benefit]. [Lev 19:18; John 13:34]

¹⁰For indeed you already do practice it toward all the believers throughout Macedonia [by actively displaying your love and concern for them]. But we urge you, brothers and sisters, that you excel [in this matter] more and more,

POWERPOINT

First Thessalonians 4:11 is a great scriptural instruction to mind our own business. For example, you don't have to be concerned about what your neighbor wears or how much she talks on the phone, because you don't buy her clothes or pay her phone bill.

Some people really enjoy meddling in other people's affairs, and we can all be tempted to form opinions about matters that simply do not concern us. The Bible clearly tells to live quietly and to be attentive to our own business.

¹¹and to make it your ambition to live quietly and peacefully, and to mind your own affairs and work with your hands, just as we directed you, ¹²so that you will behave properly toward outsiders [exhibiting good character, personal integrity, and moral courage worthy of the respect of the outside world], and be dependent on no one and in need of nothing [be self-supporting].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Be an Encourager

Some people are naturally gifted as encouragers. They are amazing people who make everyone around them feel good whenever they are in their presence. I was not naturally gifted in that way, but I have learned and am still learning to encourage others. We may not all be born with the gift of encouragement, but God's Word instructs us to encourage others and commands us not to discourage them through faultfinding and criticism.

We can see how much emphasis the apostle Paul placed on encouraging one another by the way he wrote to the Thessalonian church in 1 Thessalonians 5:11, 14. He was aware of the difficult times in which they lived, and he knew that many of them would be tempted to give up and not complete their journey of faith if they had no encouragement. Let's follow his advice and do likewise!

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Unceasing Prayer

One of the phrases I like to use when teaching on prayer is “Pray your way through the day.” This is certainly good advice to follow if we want to stay close to God, stay on guard against the enemy, and enjoy our lives each day. As we go about our daily lives, we can pray anytime, anywhere. Ephesians 6:18 instructs us to pray “at all times [on every occasion and in every season] in the Spirit,” and 1 Thessalonians 5:17 says to “be unceasing and persistent in prayer.” In other words, we need to keep the lines of communication open with God. We can stay in constant fellowship with Him through prayer, all day long.

While there are times when we need to be very diligent, focused, and set apart as we pray, we do not have to wait until we are in church or some other designated place, or until we have a certain amount of time, to pray. The best way I know to be unceasing in prayer is to live as though God is constantly paying attention to us, because He is.

¹³Now we do not want you to be uninformed, believers, about those who are asleep [in death], so that you will not grieve [for them] as the others do who have no hope [beyond this present life].

¹⁴For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again [as in fact

He did], even so God [in this same way—by raising them from the dead] will bring with Him those [believers] who have fallen asleep in Jesus.

¹⁵For we say this to you by the Lord's [own] word, that we who are still alive and remain until the coming of the Lord, will in no way precede [into His presence] those [believers] who have fallen asleep [in death].

¹⁶For the Lord Himself will come down from heaven with a shout of command, with the voice of the archangel and with the [blast of the] trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first.

¹⁷Then we who are alive and remain [on the earth] will simultaneously be caught up (raptured) together with them [the resurrected ones] in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord! [John 14:3; 1 Cor 15:52; 2 Cor 5:8; Phil 1:23; Col 3:4]

¹⁸Therefore comfort and encourage one another with these words [concerning our reunion with believers who have died].

5 NOW AS to the times and dates, brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you.

²For you yourselves know perfectly well that the day of the [return of the] Lord is coming just as a thief [comes unexpectedly and suddenly] in the night.

³While they are saying, "Peace and safety [all is well and secure!]" then [in a moment unforeseen] destruction will come upon them suddenly like labor pains on a woman with child, and they will absolutely not escape [for there will be no way to escape the judgment of the Lord].

⁴But you, believers, [all you who believe in Christ as Savior and acknowledge Him as God's Son] are not in spiritual darkness [nor held by its power], that the day [of judgment] would overtake you [by surprise] like a thief;

⁵for you are all sons of light and sons of day. We do not belong to the night nor to darkness.

⁶So then let us not sleep [in spiritual indifference] as the rest [of the world does], but let us keep wide awake [alert and cautious] and let us be sober [self-controlled, calm, and wise].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Test and Prove Your Thoughts

First Thessalonians 5:21 encourages us to test and prove things and then to hold on to the ones that are good. If we apply that principle to our thoughts and words, it can help us make the best choices about what we allow and what we reject. We do not have to keep every thought that drops into our mind, and we don't have to speak everything we think about saying.

Let's slow down a little and take time to examine our thoughts and words and only choose to keep the ones that are good. The more we practice doing this the easier it will become.

Ask the Holy Spirit to help you recognize thoughts and words that will not be beneficial to you or anyone else, and then to exchange them for thoughts and words that are wholesome and filled with God's power.

⁷For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night.

⁸But since we [believers] belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet, the hope and confident assurance of salvation.

⁹For God has not destined us to [incur His] wrath [that is, He did not select us to condemn us], but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁰who died [willingly] for us, so that whether we are awake (alive) or asleep (dead) [at Christ's appearing], we will live together with Him [sharing eternal life].

¹¹Therefore encourage and comfort one another and build up one another, just as you are doing.

¹²Now we ask you, brothers and sisters, to appreciate those who diligently work among you [recognize, acknowledge, and respect your leaders], who are in charge over you in the Lord and who give you instruction, ¹³and [we ask that you appreciate them and] hold them in the highest esteem in love because of their work [on your behalf]. Live in peace with one another.

¹⁴We [earnestly] urge you, believers, admonish those who are out of line [the undisciplined, the unruly, the disorderly], encourage the timid [who lack spiritual courage], help the [spiritually] weak, be very patient with everyone [always controlling your temper]. [Is 35:4]

¹⁵See that no one repays another with evil for evil, but always seek that which is good for one another and for all people.

¹⁶Rejoice always and delight in your faith;

¹⁷be unceasing and persistent in prayer;

¹⁸in every situation [no matter what the circumstances] be thankful and continually give thanks to God; for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus.

¹⁹Do not quench [subdue, or be unresponsive to the working and guidance of] the [Holy] Spirit.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I pray, Lord, that I will be unceasing and persistent in prayer in every situation, no matter what the circumstances. Help me always to be thankful and continually give thanks to You; for this is Your will for me in Christ Jesus.

5:17–18

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

The Weapons of Praise and Thanksgiving

If we are going to live in victory, praise and thanksgiving will be two of our major weapons. When our minds flow with thanksgiving and praise, we develop immunity to the devil's infectious ways. If we complain or grumble, the opposite is true. The more we complain, the worse life gets, the more victorious the devil becomes, and the more defeated we feel.

When God answers our prayers and delivers us from problems, it's easy to lift our praise. But it's not always as easy when things go wrong. Job's wife was so shaken by tragedy that she told Job, "Curse God and die!" (Job 2:9). Job answered with great wisdom: "Shall we indeed accept [only] good from God and not [also] accept adversity?" (Job 2:10). Job understood that a righteous life doesn't mean that everything in our circumstances will be good all the time.

The Bible says, "in every situation [no matter what the circumstances] be thankful and continually give thanks to God; for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus” (1 Thess. 5:18).

Satan wants us to murmur and complain continually, because that keeps us stuck in our problems. But praise can lift us out of our problems. The Israelites wandered for forty years in the wilderness, going around and around the same mountains, and one thing that kept them from making progress was that they complained so much. They also blamed Moses and God for their problems instead of recognizing that their behavior was wrong and changing it.

Whatever is going on our lives, we should always remain thankful. Even if we have a problem, or perhaps a few problems, there are still more good things than bad ones if we will only look for them. A thankful heart is a happy heart, so go ahead and make yourself happy by being the most thankful person on the earth!

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

God, I'm thankful for Your love and Your presence. Forgive me for grumbling when things go wrong, and remind me of how many things go right in my life. Enable me to always rejoice in You. Amen.

²⁰Do not scorn or reject gifts of prophecy or prophecies [spoken revelations—words of instruction or exhortation or warning].

²¹But test all things carefully [so you can recognize what is good]. Hold firmly to that which is good.

²²Abstain from every form of evil [withdraw and keep away from it].

²³Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you through and through [that is, separate you from profane and vulgar things, make you pure and whole and undamaged—consecrated to Him—set apart for His purpose]; and may your spirit and soul and body be kept complete and [be found] blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

²⁴Faithful and absolutely trustworthy is He who is calling you [to Himself for your salvation], and He will do it [He will fulfill His call by making you holy, guarding you, watching over you, and protecting you as His own].

²⁵Brothers and sisters, pray for us.

²⁶Greet all the believers with a holy kiss [as brothers and sisters in God's family].

²⁷I solemnly charge you by the Lord to have this letter read before all the *congregation.

²⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

2 Thessalonians

Author: | Paul
Date: | Probably
AD 51

As our minds mature in Christ, we sometimes need to hear again something we've already heard before. Maybe we did not fully understand it the first time, or perhaps we did not interpret it properly or apply it correctly to our lives. This happened to the believers in Thessalonica after they read Paul's first letter to them. Many of them overreacted to Paul's comments on Christ's second coming, so among other reasons, he wrote 2 Thessalonians to help them better understand what he was trying to say.

As you grow spiritually and become more mature in your thinking, don't ever be afraid to re-think something or to ask for an explanation. Just as the Thessalonians needed Paul to clarify some information for them, you may also need further clarity in spiritual matters. To change your mind does not mean you were wrong previously; it simply means you are growing in your level of understanding and the renewing of your thinking.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM 2 THESSALONIANS:

I encourage you to ask God for His grace to help you glorify Him in everything you do and say (see 2 Thessalonians 1:12).

Do not give up; continue to do what is right and you will be blessed in the end (see 2 Thessalonians 3:13).

No matter what happens, trust the Lord of peace to give you peace of mind at all times, in every way (see 2 Thessalonians 3:16).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM 2 THESSALONIANS:

Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting comfort and encouragement and the good [well-founded] hope [of salvation] by His grace, comfort and encourage and strengthen your hearts [keeping them steadfast and on course] in every good work and word. | 2 Thessalonians 2:16-17

The Lord is faithful, and He will strengthen you [setting you on a firm foundation] and will protect and guard you from the evil one. | 2 Thessalonians 3:3

THE SECOND LETTER OF PAUL TO THE THESSALONIANS

1 PAUL, SILVANUS (Silas), and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

²Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³We ought always and indeed are morally obligated [as those in debt] to give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is fitting, because your faith is growing ever greater, and the [unselfish] love of each one of you toward one another is continually increasing.

⁴Therefore, we speak of you with pride among the churches of God for your steadfastness [your unflinching endurance, and patience] and your firm faith in the midst of all the persecution and [crushing] distress which you endure.

⁵*This is* a positive proof of the righteous judgment of God [a sign of His fair verdict], so that you will be considered worthy of His kingdom, for which indeed you are suffering.

POWERPOINT

The apostle Paul wrote to the Thessalonian church, “Your faith is growing ever greater, and the [unselfish] love of each one of you toward one another is continually increasing” (2 Thess. 1:3). Little faith can become great faith as you use it more often. When you take steps to trust God, you will experience His faithfulness, and, in turn, you’ll be encouraged to have even greater faith. As your faith develops and grows, your problems will have less power over you and you can overcome them more quickly and more effectively.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

God, I pray that You will count me worthy of my calling to faith and with Your power fulfill every desire for goodness, and complete every work of faith, so that the name of Jesus will be glorified in me, and I in Him, according to Your grace.

• adapted from 2 Thessalonians
1:11–12

⁶For after all it is only just for God to repay with distress those who distress you,

⁷and to give relief to you who are so distressed and to us as well when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with His mighty angels in a flame of fire,

⁸dealing out [full and complete] vengeance to those who do not [seek to] know God and to those who ignore and refuse to obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus [by choosing not to respond to Him].

⁹These people will pay the penalty and endure the punishment of everlasting destruction, banished from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power, ¹⁰when He comes to be glorified in His saints on that day [that is, glorified through the changed lives of those who have accepted Him as Savior and have been set apart for His purpose], and to be marveled at among all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed and trusted [and confirmed in your lives].

¹¹With this in view, we constantly pray for you, that our God will count you worthy of your calling [to faith] and with [His] power fulfill every desire for goodness, and complete [your] every work of faith, ¹²so that the name of our Lord Jesus will be glorified in you [by what you do], and you in Him, according to the [precious] grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

No Need To Be Upset

To upset is to make unhappy, disappointed, or worried. It is also characterized by words such as unsettle, disquiet, perturb, bother, agitate, fluster, ruffle, and unnerve. This describes the state of mind of the Thessalonian believers who had been told they had missed the second coming of the Lord (see 2 Thess. 2:2). One can easily understand why they were upset!

When we choose to worry, we will upset ourselves. Worry is meditating (thinking) about a problem over and over. While it may be wise to think through a situation and ponder whether we should take any action to make things better, it is unwise to let a problem sit on our mind for days at a time, interfering with good thoughts we could be thinking.

The more we worry, the more stress we experience and the more emotionally upset we feel. Our thoughts affect our emotions, and we can either upset ourselves or calm ourselves with what we choose to think about. People who think about the wrong things end up saying, “I feel like I am losing my mind,” which is what they’ve done. They have given up the control of their thoughts to an enemy who is bent on killing, stealing, and destroying (see John 10:10).

For years, I had no idea what stress was doing to me, but I found out when I finally started having physical problems. I kept praying for peace and thinking that if people and circumstances in my life would just change, I could have it. I finally learned that I was the one who needed to change and that it really wasn’t “my life” that was stealing my peace; it was the fact that I was allowing myself to be upset through wrong thoughts and reactions.

Jesus said that when we are worn out and overburdened, we should come to Him (see Matt. 11:28–30)! Go to Jesus, talk openly with Him about the way you are feeling, and ask Him to reveal the changes you need to make in order to begin to heal. Prayer doesn’t always result in a miraculous delivery from our problems. More often than not, it results in God’s giving us wisdom and revealing what we need to do with His help to effect a positive change.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord Jesus, I can get upset by thinking and thinking about my problems. Thank You for calling me to come to You and find rest for my soul. Lord, I come and ask You to reveal to me the changes I need to make in order to walk in peace. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Chosen from the Beginning

God tells us in His Word that “[in His love] He chose us in Christ [actually selected us for Himself as His own] before the foundation of the world, so that we would be holy... and blameless in His sight” (Eph. 1:4). Even though He already knew every mistake we would ever make, He actually chose us for Himself. We read that we were chosen “from the beginning” (2 Thess. 2:13), but we have a difficult time receiving it.

After all, how could God, Who is perfect, choose us and be pleased with us in our imperfections? He can do this because He separates who we are from what we do. As believers in Jesus Christ, we are God’s children. We may not always act the way He wants us to act, but we never stop being His children and He never stops loving us.

2 NOW IN regard to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together to meet Him, we ask you, brothers and sisters, [Mark 13:27; 1 Thess 2:19; 4:15–17]

²not to be quickly unsettled or alarmed either by a [so-called prophetic revelation of a] spirit or a message or a letter [alleged to be] from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has [already] come.

³Let no one in any way deceive or entrap you, for that day will not come unless the apostasy comes first [that is, the great rebellion, the abandonment of the faith by professed Christians], and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction [the Antichrist, the one who is destined to be destroyed], [Dan 7:25; 8:25; 1 Tim 4:1]

⁴who opposes and exalts himself [so proudly and so insolently] above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he [actually enters and] takes his seat in the temple of God, publicly proclaiming that he himself is God. [Ezek 28:2; Dan 11:36, 37]

⁵Do you not remember that when I was still with you, I was telling you these things?

⁶And you know what restrains him now [from being revealed]; it is so that he will be revealed at his own [appointed] time.

⁷For the mystery of lawlessness [rebellion against divine authority and the coming reign of lawlessness] is already at work; [but it is restrained] only until he who now restrains it is taken out of the way.

⁸Then the lawless one [the Antichrist] will be revealed and the Lord Jesus will slay him with the breath of His mouth and bring him to an end by the appearance of His coming. [Is 11:4]

⁹The coming of the [Antichrist, the lawless] one is through the activity of Satan, [attended] with great power [all kinds of counterfeit miracles] and [deceptive] signs and false wonders [all of them lies],

¹⁰and by unlimited seduction to evil and with all the deception of wickedness for those who are perishing, because they did not welcome the love of the truth [of the gospel] so as to be saved [they were spiritually blind, and rejected the truth that would have saved them].

¹¹Because of this God will send upon them a misleading influence, [an activity of error and deception] so they will believe the lie, ¹²in order that all may be judged and condemned who did not believe the truth [about their sin, and the need for salvation through Christ], but instead took pleasure in unrighteousness.

¹³But we should and are [morally] obligated [as debtors] always to give thanks to God for you, believers beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you from the beginning for salvation through the sanctifying work of the Spirit [that sets you apart for God's purpose] and by your faith in the truth [of God's word that leads you to spiritual maturity].

¹⁴It was to this end that He called you through our gospel [the good news of Jesus' death, burial, and resurrection], so that you may obtain and share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

¹⁵So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold [tightly] to the traditions which you were taught, whether by word of mouth or by letter from us.

¹⁶Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting comfort and encouragement and the good [well-founded] hope [of salvation] by His grace, ¹⁷comfort and encourage and strengthen your hearts [keeping them steadfast and on course] in every good work and word.

3 FINALLY, BROTHERS and sisters, pray continually for us that the word of the Lord will spread rapidly and be honored [triumphantly celebrated and glorified], just as it was with you;

²and [pray] that we will be rescued from perverse and evil men; for not everyone has the faith.

³But the Lord is faithful, and He will strengthen you [setting you on a firm foundation] and will protect and guard you from the evil one.

⁴We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you are doing and will continue to do the things [which] we command.

⁵May the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the steadfastness and patience of Christ.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, for being faithful. I pray that You will strengthen me and will protect me and guard me from the evil one.

- adapted from 2 Thessalonians
3:3

Speak God's Word

I will not grow tired or lose heart in doing good; I will continue doing what is right without weakening.

| adapted from 2

THESSALONIANS 3:13 |

⁶Now we command you, believers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ and by His authority, that you withdraw and keep away from every brother or sister who leads an undisciplined life and does not live in accordance with the tradition and teaching that you have received from us.

⁷For you yourselves know how you ought to follow our example, because we did not act in an undisciplined or inappropriate manner when we were with you [we were never idle or lazy, nor did we avoid our duties],

⁸nor did we eat anyone's bread without paying for it, but with labor and hardship we worked night and day [to pay our own way] so that we would not be a financial burden on any of you [for our support];

⁹not because we do not have a right to such support, but [we provided our own financial support] to offer ourselves as a model for you, so that you would follow our example.

¹⁰For even while we were with you, we used to give you this order: if anyone is not willing to work, then he is not to eat, either.

¹¹Indeed, we hear that some among you are leading an undisciplined and inappropriate life, doing no work at all, but acting like busybodies [meddling in other people's business].

¹²Now such people we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to settle down and work quietly and earn their own food and other necessities [supporting themselves instead of depending on the hospitality of others].

¹³And as for [the rest of] you, believers, do not grow tired or lose heart in doing good [but continue doing what is right without weakening].

¹⁴Now if anyone [in the church] does not obey what we say in this letter, take special note of that person and do not associate with him, so that he will be ashamed and repent.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The God of Peace Is with You

No matter what your emotional condition right now, with God's help you can become emotionally stable, and I encourage you to make that one of your goals. Don't be the kind of Christian who is up emotionally when you are getting your way and down when you're not; up when you receive the blessing you've been praying for and down when God hasn't brought it into your life yet. We have this wonderful promise from God: "Now may the Lord of peace Himself grant you His peace at all times and in every way [that peace and spiritual well-being that comes to those who walk with Him, regardless of life's circumstances]. The Lord be with you all" (2 Thess. 3:16).

Accept God's peace, which is beyond understanding, and be content regardless of your "earthly lot" (see Phil. 4:7). Learn to think, Even if I don't get my way, I will be happy. I will not let my circumstances control my moods. When you don't get your way, you can be just as happy as if you did. Let your joy be in Christ, not in good circumstances.

¹⁵Do not regard him as an enemy, but keep admonishing him as a [believing] brother.

¹⁶Now may the Lord of peace Himself grant you His peace at all times and in every way [that peace and spiritual well-being that comes to those who walk with Him, regardless of life's circumstances]. The Lord be with you all. [John 14:27]

¹⁷I, Paul, write you this final greeting with my own hand. This is the distinguishing mark in every letter [of mine, that shows it is genuine]. It is the way I write [my handwriting and signature].

¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of you.

! REMEMBER, when you are in Christ, victory belongs to you!

1 Timothy

Author: | Paul
Date: | Possibly
AD 63–65

Paul wrote two letters to his young minister friend Timothy, because he obviously cared about Timothy, believed in him, knew him well, and wanted him to succeed in ministry. This is a brief but wonderful book that offers us great advice in many areas and also teaches us how to think about leadership and about life in the church.

One of the verses we would be wise to meditate on and allow to influence our thinking is 1 Timothy 1:12: “I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has granted me [the needed] strength and made me able for this, because He considered me faithful and trustworthy, putting me into service [for this ministry].” Whatever God has called you to do, and however He has equipped you to lead, always remember that He has given you the strength you need and made you able to do it!

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM 1 TIMOTHY:

People need someone who can show them how to speak good words, act with integrity, and balance strong faith with love. You can be that person (see 1 Timothy 4:12)!

It's so important not to neglect the gift the Holy Spirit has given you. I encourage you to work to develop it and use it to help others and serve God (see 1 Timothy 4:14–15).

Fight the good fight of faith by speaking the Word of God and fully embracing the eternal life Jesus died to give you (see 1 Timothy 6:12).

When you are tempted to speak empty words, stop yourself and replace them with words of life and truth (see 1 Timothy 6:20).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM 1 TIMOTHY:

Be an example and set a pattern for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, and in [moral] purity. | 1 Timothy 4:12

Fight the good fight of the faith [in the conflict with evil]; take hold of the eternal life to which you were called, and [for which] you made the good confession [of faith]. | 1 Timothy 6:12

THE FIRST LETTER OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY

1 PAUL, AN apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Christ Jesus by the commandment of God our Savior, and of Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed) our Hope [the fulfillment of our salvation], ²to Timothy, my true son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

³As I urged you when I was on my way to Macedonia, stay on at Ephesus so that you may instruct certain individuals not to teach any different doctrines, ⁴nor to pay attention to legends (fables, myths) and endless genealogies, which give rise to useless speculation and meaningless arguments rather than advancing God's program of instruction which is grounded in faith [and requires surrendering the entire self to God in absolute trust and confidence].

⁵But the goal of our instruction is love [which springs] from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith.

⁶Some individuals have wandered away from these things into empty arguments and useless discussions, ⁷wanting to be teachers of the Law [of Moses], even though they do not understand the terms they use or the subjects about which they make [such] confident declarations.

⁸Now we know [without any doubt] that the Law is good, if one uses it lawfully and appropriately,

⁹understanding the fact that law is not enacted for the righteous person [the one in right standing with God], but for lawless and rebellious people, for the ungodly and sinful, for the irreverent and profane, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers,

¹⁰for sexually immoral persons, for homosexuals, for kidnappers and slave traders, for liars, for perjurers—and for whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine, ¹¹according to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, with which I have been entrusted.

¹²I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has granted me [the needed] strength and made me able for this, because He considered me faithful and trustworthy, putting me into service [for this ministry], ¹³even though I was formerly a blasphemer [of our Lord] and a persecutor [of His church] and a shameful and outrageous and violent aggressor [toward believers]. Yet I was shown mercy because I acted out of ignorance in unbelief.

¹⁴The grace of our Lord [His amazing, unmerited favor and blessing] flowed out in superabundance [for me, together] with the faith and love which are [realized] in Christ Jesus.

¹⁵This is a faithful and trustworthy statement, deserving full acceptance and approval, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, among whom I am foremost.

¹⁶Yet for this reason I found mercy, so that in me as the foremost [of sinners], Jesus Christ might demonstrate His perfect patience as an example or pattern for those who would believe in Him for eternal life.

¹⁷Now to the King of the ages [eternal], immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

¹⁸This command I entrust to you, Timothy, my son, in accordance with the prophecies previously made concerning you, so that [inspired and aided] by them you may fight the good fight [in contending with false teachers], ¹⁹keeping your faith [leaning completely on God with absolute trust and confidence in His guidance] and having a good conscience; for some [people] have rejected [their moral compass] and have made a shipwreck of their faith.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

You, God, are the King of the ages, eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God. To You be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

• adapted from 1 Timothy 1:17

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, help me always to keep my faith, leaning completely on You with absolute trust and confidence in Your guidance.

• adapted from 1 Timothy 1:19

²⁰Among these are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan, so that they will be disciplined and taught not to blaspheme.

2 FIRST OF all, then, I urge that petitions (specific requests), prayers, intercessions (prayers for others) and thanksgivings be offered on behalf of all people, ²for kings and all who are in [positions of] high authority, so that we may live a peaceful and quiet life in all godliness and dignity.

³This [kind of praying] is good and acceptable and pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, ⁴who wishes all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge and recognition of the [divine] truth.

⁵For there is [only] one God, and [only] one Mediator between God and mankind, the Man Christ Jesus,

POWERPOINT

First Timothy 2:1 encourages us, among other things, to intercede for others. To intercede is to stand in the gap for someone else, to plead their case to God. Praying for others is like sowing seed. If you sow a seed, you will reap a harvest. When you sow into someone else's life, God meets your needs. So by praying for others, you help them and you reap a harvest of blessings in your own life.

POWERPOINT

First Timothy 2:1–3 lists several types of prayer and says these ways of praying are “good and acceptable and pleasing” to God. We should exercise the various types of prayer on a regular basis. They are simple, can be prayed anywhere at any time, and are most effective when prayed from a believing heart. As believers, we have the spiritual authority to do God’s will on earth through prayer. He hears and responds to our prayers. That is what makes them so powerful and so effective.

⁶who gave Himself as a ransom [a substitutionary sacrifice to atone] for all, the testimony given at the right and proper time.

⁷And for this matter I was appointed a preacher and an apostle—I am telling the truth, I am not lying [when I say this]—a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

⁸Therefore I want the men in every place to pray, lifting up holy hands, without anger and disputing or quarreling or doubt [in their mind].

⁹Likewise, I want women to adorn themselves modestly and appropriately and discreetly in proper clothing, not with [elaborately] braided hair and gold or pearls or expensive clothes, ¹⁰but instead adorned by good deeds [helping others], as is proper for women who profess to worship God.

¹¹A woman must quietly receive instruction with all submissiveness.

¹²I do not allow a woman to teach or exercise authority over a man, but to remain quiet [in the congregation].

¹³For Adam was formed first [by God from the earth], then Eve; [Gen 2:7, 21, 22]

¹⁴and it was not Adam who was deceived, but the woman who was led astray and fell into sin. [Gen 3:1–6]

¹⁵But women will be preserved (saved) through [the pain and dangers of] the bearing of children if they continue in faith and love and holiness with self-control and discretion.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Wants Us To Be Content

To live “free from the love of money [not greedy for wealth and its inherent power—financially ethical]” is very important to a person’s sense of contentment (see 1 Tim. 3:3; Heb. 13:5). God wants to bless us financially, but He doesn’t want us to focus on money and things. He wants us to be content!

Being content shows that we trust God to provide what He knows is right for us at the time that is right. Having a good attitude in lean times will help you get through them faster and with greater joy.

3 THIS IS a faithful and trustworthy saying: if any man [eagerly] seeks the office of overseer (bishop, superintendent), he desires an excellent task.

²Now an overseer must be blameless and beyond reproach, the husband of one wife, self-controlled, sensible, respectable, hospitable, able to teach,

³not addicted to wine, not a bully nor quick-tempered and hot-headed, but gentle and considerate, free from the love of money [not greedy for wealth and its inherent power—financially ethical].

⁴*He must* manage his own household well, keeping his children under control with all dignity [keeping them respectful and well-behaved]

⁵(for if a man does not know how to manage his own household, how will he take care of the church of God?).

⁶and He must not be a new convert, so that he will not [behave stupidly and] become conceited [by appointment to this high office] and fall into the [same] condemnation incurred by the devil [for his arrogance and pride]. [Is 14:12–14]

⁷And he must have a good reputation and be well thought of by those outside the church, so that he will not be discredited and fall into the devil's trap.

⁸Deacons likewise must be men worthy of respect [honorable, financially ethical, of good character], not double-tongued [speakers of half-truths], not addicted to wine, not greedy for dishonest gain, ⁹but upholding and fully understanding the mystery [that is, the true doctrine] of the [Christian] faith with a clear conscience [resulting from behavior consistent with spiritual maturity].

¹⁰These men must first be tested; then if they are found to be blameless and beyond reproach [in their Christian lives], let them serve as deacons.

¹¹Women must likewise be worthy of respect, not malicious gossips, but self-controlled, [thoroughly] trustworthy in all things.

¹²Deacons must be husbands of only one wife, and good managers of their children and their own households.

¹³For those who have served well as deacons gain a high standing [having a good reputation among the congregation], and great confidence in the faith which is [founded on and centered] in Christ Jesus.

¹⁴I hope to come to you before long, but I am writing these instructions to you

¹⁵in case I am delayed, so that you will know how people ought to conduct themselves in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth.

¹⁶And great, we confess, is the mystery [the hidden truth] of godliness:

He (Jesus Christ) who was revealed in human flesh,
Was justified and vindicated in the Spirit,
Seen by angels,
Preached among the nations,
Believed on in the world,
Taken up in glory.

4 BUT THE [Holy] Spirit explicitly and unmistakably declares that in later times some will turn away from the faith, paying attention instead to deceitful and seductive spirits and doctrines of demons,

²[misled] by the hypocrisy of liars whose consciences are seared as with a branding iron [leaving them incapable of ethical functioning], ³who forbid marriage and advocate abstaining from [certain kinds of] foods which God has created to be gratefully shared by those who believe and have [a clear] knowledge of the truth.

⁴For everything God has created is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with gratitude;

⁵for it is sanctified [set apart, dedicated to God] by means of the word of God and prayer.

⁶If you point out these instructions to the brothers and sisters, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, constantly nourished [through study] on the words of the faith and of the good [Christian] doctrine which you have closely followed.

Speak God's Word

I will have nothing to do with irreverent folklore and silly myths. I will discipline myself for the purpose of godliness, keeping myself spiritually fit.

| adapted from 1 TIMOTHY 4:7 |

⁷But have nothing to do with irreverent folklore and silly myths. On the other hand, discipline yourself for the purpose of godliness [keeping yourself spiritually fit].

⁸For physical training is of some value, but godliness (spiritual training) is of value in everything and in every way, since it holds promise for the present life and for the life to come.

⁹This is a faithful and trustworthy saying worthy of full acceptance and approval.

¹⁰It is for this that we labor and strive [often called to account], because we have fixed our [confident] hope on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe [in Him, recognize Him as the Son of God, and accept Him as Savior and Lord].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Nourished on the Word

The Holy Spirit can help you remember a Bible verse or passage when you need it, if you have the Word of God in you (see John 14:26). For example, if you believe the devil's lie that you have to earn God's love, you will be extremely frustrated trying to do something you can't do. But if you have taken the time to learn the Word, meditate on the Word, and speak the Word, the Holy Spirit will bring to mind any number of Scriptures about God's free and unconditional love when you need them. He will remind you of God's life-giving principles and energize you to follow them.

Be "constantly nourished [through study] on the words of the faith" (1 Tim. 4:6) so you have a deep reservoir of Scripture in your heart.

Speak God's Word

I have fixed my confident hope on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe in Him, recognize Him as the Son of God, and accept Him as Savior and Lord.

| adapted from 1 TIMOTHY 4:10 |

¹¹Keep commanding and teaching these things.

¹²Let no one look down on [you because of] your youth, but be an example and set a pattern for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, and in [moral] purity.

¹³Until I come, devote yourself to public reading [of Scripture], to preaching and to teaching [the sound doctrine of God's word].

¹⁴Do not neglect the spiritual gift within you, [that special endowment] which was intentionally bestowed on you [by the Holy Spirit] through prophetic utterance when the elders laid their hands on you [at your ordination].

¹⁵Practice and work hard on these things; be absorbed in them [completely occupied in your ministry], so that your progress will be evident to all.

¹⁶Pay close attention to yourself [concentrate on your personal development] and to your teaching; persevere in these things [hold to them], for as you do this you will ensure salvation both for yourself and for those who hear you.

POWERPOINT

The apostle Paul encouraged Timothy to “be an example and set a pattern for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, and in [moral] purity” (1 Tim. 4:12). Likewise, our lives should be a “pattern” for other believers. Let’s start by setting good examples with our thoughts and words, making sure to think and speak in agreement with God’s Word.

5 DO NOT sharply reprimand an older man, but appeal to him as [you would to] a father, to younger men as brothers, ²to older women as mothers, to younger women as sisters, in all purity [being careful to maintain appropriate relationships].

³Honor and help those widows who are truly widowed [alone, and without support].

⁴But if a widow has children or grandchildren [who are adults], see to it that these first learn to show great respect to their own family [as their religious duty and natural obligation], and to compensate their parents or grandparents [for their upbringing]; for this is acceptable and pleasing in the sight of God.

⁵Now a woman who is really a widow and has been left [entirely] alone [without adequate income] trusts in God and continues in supplications and prayers night and day.

⁶Whereas she who lives for pleasure and self-indulgence is spiritually dead even while she still lives.

⁷Keep instructing [the people to do] these things as well, so that they may be blameless and beyond reproach.

⁸If anyone fails to provide for his own, and especially for those of his own family, he has denied the faith [by disregarding its precepts] and is worse than an unbeliever [who fulfills his obligation in these matters].

⁹A widow is to be put on the list [to receive regular assistance] only if she is over sixty years of age, [having been] the wife of one man, ¹⁰and has a reputation for good deeds; [she is eligible] if she has brought up children, if she has shown hospitality to strangers, if she has washed the feet of the saints (God's people), if she has assisted the distressed, and has devoted herself to doing good in every way.

¹¹But refuse [to enroll the] younger widows, for when they feel their natural desires in disregard of Christ, they wish to marry again,

¹²and so they incur condemnation for having set aside their previous pledge.

¹³Now at the same time, they also learn to be idle as they go from house to house; and not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies [meddlers in things that do not concern them], talking about things they should not mention.

¹⁴So I want younger widows to get married, have children, manage their households, and not give opponents of the faith any occasion for slander.

¹⁵Some [widows] have already turned away [from the faith] to follow Satan.

¹⁶If any believing woman has [dependent] widows [in her household], she must assist them [according to her ability]; and the church must not be burdened [with them], so that it may assist those who are truly widows [those who are all alone and are dependent].

¹⁷The elders who perform their leadership duties well are to be considered worthy of double honor (financial support), especially those who work hard at preaching and teaching [the word of God concerning eternal salvation through Christ].

¹⁸For the Scripture says, “YOU SHALL NOT MUZZLE THE OX WHILE IT IS TREADING OUT THE GRAIN [to keep it from eating],” and, “The worker is worthy of his wages [he deserves fair compensation].” [Deut 25:4; Luke 10:7]

¹⁹Do not accept an accusation against an elder unless it is based on [the testimony of at least] two or three witnesses. [Deut 19:15]

²⁰As for those [elders] who continue in sin, reprimand them in the presence of all [the congregation], so that the rest will be warned.

²¹I solemnly charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus and of His chosen angels that you guard and keep these rules without bias, doing nothing out of favoritism.

²²Do not hurry to lay hands on anyone [ordaining and approving someone for ministry or an office in the church, or in reinstating expelled offenders], and thereby share in the sins of others; keep yourself free from sin.

²³No longer continue drinking [only] water, but use a little wine for the sake of your stomach and your frequent illnesses.

²⁴The sins of some people are conspicuous, leading the way for them into judgment [so that they are clearly not qualified for ministry]; but the sins of others appear later [for they are hidden and follow behind them].

²⁵Likewise, good deeds are quite evident, and those which are otherwise cannot be hidden [indefinitely].

6 ALL WHO are under the yoke as bond-servants (slaves) are to regard their own masters as worthy of honor and respect so that the name of God and the teaching [about Him] will not be spoken against.

²Those who have believing masters are not to be disrespectful toward them because they are brothers [in Christ], but they should serve them even better, because those who benefit from their kindly service are believers and beloved. Teach and urge these [duties and principles].

³If anyone teaches a different doctrine and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and with the doctrine and teaching which is in agreement with godliness (personal integrity, upright behavior),

⁴he is conceited and woefully ignorant [understanding nothing]. He has a morbid interest in controversial questions and disputes about words, which produces envy, quarrels, verbal abuse, evil suspicions, ⁵and perpetual friction between men who are corrupted in mind and deprived of the truth, who think that godliness is a source of profit [a lucrative, money-making business—withdraw from them].

⁶But godliness actually is a source of great gain when accompanied by contentment [that contentment which comes from a sense of inner confidence based on the sufficiency of God].

⁷For we have brought nothing into the world, so [it is clear that] we cannot take anything out of it, either.

⁸But if we have food and clothing, with these we will be content.

⁹But those who [are not financially ethical and] crave to get rich [with a compulsive, greedy longing for wealth] fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction [leading to personal misery].

Speak God's Word

I brought nothing into the world, so it is clear that I cannot take anything out of it, either. But if I have food and clothing, with these I will be content.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Energy for the Fight of Faith

Our energy level affects our creativity and ability to focus, and it has a huge impact on our desire and motivation to do things. Fearful thoughts can rob us of much-needed energy. Fear that something bad will happen drains us of energy; faith in God that good things will happen motivates and energizes us.

At the end of Paul's first letter to Timothy, he reminded Timothy of the battle we are in: "Fight the good fight of the faith [in the conflict with evil]" (1 Tim. 6:12). By the time he wrote his second letter to Timothy, Timothy's battle zeal seemed to have begun to fade due to fearful thoughts. Because of persecution, perhaps Timothy had let his thinking drift toward the bad things that could happen to him if he kept boldly preaching God's Word. These fearful thoughts drained his energy and lessened his motivation to stay focused on what God had called him to do. Paul reminded Timothy that God had not given him a spirit of fear but of power, love, and a sound mind (see 2 Tim. 1:7). God is not the source of fearful thoughts; Satan is, and he is relentless as he tries to use them against us.

God gives us the ability to think soundly. Fear may come against us, but well-informed people know its source and resist it. Courageous people feel the fear and take action anyway. It was time for Timothy to cease behaving according to his feelings and to start acting on what he knew in his heart. We will not be able to keep all fearful thoughts from presenting themselves to our mind, but we certainly don't have to accept them and let them steal our energy, enthusiasm, and zeal.

Timothy's fearful thoughts had to be traded for ones that would help him regain his faith. It wasn't too late to shake off the apathy he was feeling and get going again. Thankfully, Timothy ultimately made decisions based on more than emotion, and he did fulfill the call on his life.

The root of most problems we encounter emotionally is directly linked to thoughts we permit to fester in our minds. We can immediately increase our energy level and fight the good fight of faith by choosing and meditating on positive thoughts.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Holy Spirit, I thank You that You are the source of power, love, and a sound mind in my life. In the name of Jesus, help me to push back fearful thoughts that drain my energy and to diligently fight the good fight of faith. Amen.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, I choose to aim at and pursue righteousness, true goodness, godliness and the fear of God, faith, love, steadfastness, and gentleness.

• adapted from 1 Timothy 6:11

¹⁰For the love of money [that is, the greedy desire for it and the willingness to gain it unethically] is a root of all sorts of evil, and some by longing for it have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves [through and through] with many sorrows.

¹¹But as for you, O man of God, flee from these things; aim at and pursue righteousness [true goodness, moral conformity to the character of God], godliness [the fear of God], faith, love, steadfastness, and gentleness. [2 Tim 3:17]

¹²Fight the good fight of the faith [in the conflict with evil]; take hold of the eternal life to which you were called, and [for which] you made the good confession [of faith] in the presence of many witnesses.

¹³I solemnly charge you in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and [in the presence] of Christ Jesus, who made the good confession [in His testimony] before Pontius Pilate, ¹⁴to keep all His precepts without stain or reproach until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ,

Speak God's Word

To fight the good fight of the faith, I take hold of the eternal life to which I was called, and for which I made the good confession of faith in the presence of many witnesses.

| adapted from 1 TIMOTHY 6:12 |

¹⁵which He will bring about in His own time—He who is the blessed and only Sovereign [the absolute Ruler], the King of those who reign as kings and Lord of those who rule as lords, ¹⁶He alone possesses immortality [absolute exemption from death] and lives in unapproachable light, whom no man has ever seen or can see. To Him be honor and eternal power and dominion! Amen.

¹⁷As for the rich in this present world, instruct them not to be conceited and arrogant, nor to set their hope on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly and ceaselessly provides us with everything for our enjoyment.

¹⁸*Instruct them* to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous, willing to share [with others].

¹⁹In this way storing up for themselves the enduring riches of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life.

²⁰O Timothy, guard and keep safe the deposit [of godly truth] entrusted to you, turn away from worldly and godless chatter [with its profane, empty words], and the contradictions of what is falsely called “knowledge”— ²¹which some have professed and by doing so have erred (missed the mark) and strayed from the faith.

Grace be with you.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Help me, Lord, to be rich in good works, to be generous, and to be willing to share with others. In this way, I will store up for myself the enduring riches of a good foundation for the future, so that I may take hold of that which is truly life.

2 Timothy

Author: | Paul
Date: | AD 66–67

Written by Paul to Timothy perhaps not too long before Paul's death in prison, 2 Timothy is a warm, personal, encouraging epistle that includes many insights on how a Christian should think, speak, and feel.

Second Timothy 1:7 says that when we are afraid, we need to remember that fear is not from God, because God has given us a sound mind. This letter also reminds us that God's Word is what equips us for good works (see 2 Timothy 3:17), so we need to be diligent to study and live by it.

In this letter, Paul shares with Timothy some of the ways he thought and acted throughout his ministry, probably in an effort to give Timothy a good example to follow. Though Paul lived centuries ago, the way he followed God and lived his life as a believer is an excellent example not only for Timothy, but for you and me too.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM 2 TIMOTHY:

Fear is not from God, but great courage is. We can face our problems with a calm and well-balanced mind, knowing that God is mightier than all our problems (see 2 Timothy 1:7).

God's Word changes us and equips us as we apply it to our lives (see 2 Timothy 3:16–17).

Keep your faith all the way to the end and you will gain a victory you can enjoy (see 2 Timothy 4:7–8).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM 2 TIMOTHY:

God did not give us a spirit of timidity or cowardice or fear, but [He has given us a spirit] of power and of love and of sound judgment and personal discipline [abilities that result in a calm, well-balanced mind and self-control]. | 2 Timothy 1:7

Study and do your best to present yourself to God approved, a workman [tested by trial] who has no reason to be ashamed, accurately handling and skillfully teaching the word of truth. | 2 Timothy 2:15

The Lord will rescue me from every evil assault, and He will bring me safely into His heavenly kingdom. | 2 Timothy 4:18

THE SECOND LETTER OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY

1 PAUL, AN apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed) by the will of God, according to the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus, ²to Timothy, my beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

³I thank God, whom I worship and serve with a clear conscience the way my forefathers did, as I constantly remember you in my prayers night and day, ⁴and as I recall your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy.

⁵I remember your sincere and unqualified faith [the surrendering of your entire self to God in Christ with confident trust in His power, wisdom and goodness, a faith] which first lived in [the heart of] your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am confident that it is in you as well.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Remember the Power of Words

Timothy was a very young man who lived during a time when Christians were being persecuted. He was the apostle Paul's spiritual son and had been ordained for the Gospel ministry by the elders, but fear was attacking him. He was concerned that he was too young for the ministry and that he would be persecuted for his belief in Jesus. Paul told him to stir up his faith, to fan the flame and not let the fire that was once in him go out (see 2 Tim. 1:6).

The longer we allow fearful thoughts in our minds, the more tightly they grip us. If we talk about our fears, we fan the flame of fear. But if we talk about God's goodness, His faithfulness to us in the past, and the privilege of living by faith, we fan the flame of our faith and it stays alive and powerful. We don't automatically stay strong in faith, and there are times when we need to stir ourselves up in faith and remind ourselves that we don't have to live in fear.

Perhaps Timothy was thinking too many negative thoughts and had forgotten the rich heritage of faith he had received from his grandmother and mother, so Paul reminded him of it (see 2 Tim. 1:1-6). Sometimes we need someone to interrupt our negative talk and help us get our thoughts back on track, and sometimes we need to lovingly remind others of the power of their words. We cannot take it upon ourselves to correct the mistakes of others all the time, but we can and should be led by the Holy Spirit to speak a word in due season to those who have an open heart, as Paul did to Timothy.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Lean on God

One of the spiritual laws of receiving from God is to place our entire dependence upon Him. Without faith, we cannot please God. It is the channel through which we receive from Him. Faith is described in the Amplified Bible as surrendering “your entire self to God in Christ with confident trust in His power, wisdom and goodness” (2 Tim. 1:5).

We are to depend entirely on Him, taking all the weight off ourselves and putting it all on Him. When I plop down in a big easy chair, I am putting my entire dependence on that chair to hold me. I take all the weight off myself and put all of it on the chair. It is amazing that we trust a chair more than we trust God many times.

We forfeit peace and joy by not surrendering to God completely. We try to figure out things that we have no business even touching with our minds. There are some things that are simply too high or too deep for us. Nothing is too hard or too wonderful for God, but many things are too hard or too wonderful for us. God is infinite; we are finite human beings with limitations. God’s knowledge is surpassing; ours is limited, fragmentary and incomplete (see 1 Cor. 13:9). We know some things, but we don’t know everything. There are some things we should not even allow ourselves to think about. We won’t know everything, but we can grow to a place where we are satisfied to know the One Who knows and to confidently trust in His power, wisdom, and goodness.

⁶That is why I remind you to fan into flame the gracious gift of God, [that inner fire—the special endowment] which is in you through the laying on of my hands [with those of the elders at your ordination].

⁷For God did not give us a spirit of timidity or cowardice or fear, but [He has given us a spirit] of power and of love and of sound judgment and personal discipline [abilities that result in a calm, well-balanced mind and self-control].

Speak God's Word

God did not give me a spirit of timidity or cowardice or fear; but He has given me a spirit of power and of love and of sound judgment and personal discipline—abilities that result in a calm, well-balanced mind and self-control.

| adapted from 2 TIMOTHY 1:7 |

⁸So do not be ashamed to testify about our Lord or about me His prisoner, but with me take your share of suffering for the gospel [continue to preach regardless of the circumstances], in accordance with the power of God [for His power is invincible],

⁹for He delivered us and saved us and called us with a holy calling [a calling that leads to a consecrated life—a life set apart—a life of purpose], not because of our works [or because of any personal merit—we could do nothing to earn this], but because of His own purpose and grace [His amazing, undeserved favor] which was granted to us in Christ Jesus before the world began [eternal ages ago],

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

A Disciplined Mind

Discipline may be one of the most misunderstood entities of all time, but it is one of the gifts God has given us to defeat fear and live with a sound mind (see 2 Tim. 1:7). People don't always like the idea of discipline, but the truth is that discipline is our friend, not our enemy. It helps us live the life that we will enjoy most when all is said and done. Discipline may not make us smile while it is in action, but its fruit is a successful and joyful life.

I doubt that it is possible to find a happy and successful person who does not regularly exercise discipline. Do you want to be happy and successful? If so, discipline is necessary, and disciplining the mind and emotions is especially important.

The human personality consists of roughly four-fifths emotion and one-fifth intellect. This means that our decisions are based on 80 percent emotion and 20 percent intellect or reason. No wonder we see so many people make bad decisions! Many of our decisions are good, but if we don't follow through on them, they mean nothing. Emotion may help us get started in the right direction, but it is rarely there at the finish line. Sooner or later, we need to press forward without the support of emotion and employ discipline.

Translated from the Greek language, the word discipline means “saving the mind or to be safe; an admonishment or calling to soundness of mind or to self-control.” In other words, people who think properly, with soundness of mind, will discipline all areas of their life. I believe our thoughts, words, and emotions are among the most important areas we need to discipline. A disciplined person maintains the correct mental attitude toward issues that arise. It is much easier to maintain a right attitude than to regain it once it is lost.

We can clearly see from 2 Timothy 1:7 that God has not “given us a spirit of timidity or cowardice or fear,” but that He has equipped us with a sound mind, one that stays calm (not emotional), well-balanced, disciplined, and self-controlled. We can choose and discipline ourselves to use our sound minds. This will help us live without fear, with a balanced mind, and with self-control.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Thank You, Lord, for giving me power, love, and a sound mind. Help me to discipline myself so I can enjoy a calm, well-balanced mind and use self-control. In Jesus' name. Amen.

POWERPOINT

No matter what kind of problem we have, we need self-control and discipline to help us come through to victory (see 2 Tim. 1:7). This is especially true with regard to our thought life and the battle for our mind. What begins in the mind eventually comes out of the mouth, and soon we're telling anyone who will listen how we feel. We have to discipline our mind, our mouth, our feelings, and our actions so that they are all in agreement with what the Word of God says.

¹⁰but now [that extraordinary purpose and grace] has been fully disclosed and realized by us through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus who [through His incarnation and earthly ministry] abolished death [making it null and void] and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel, ¹¹for which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle and a teacher [of this good news regarding salvation].

¹²This is why I suffer as I do. Still, I am not ashamed; for I know Him [and I am personally acquainted with Him] whom I have believed [with absolute trust and confidence in Him and in the truth of His deity], and I am persuaded [beyond any doubt] that He is able to guard that which I have entrusted to Him until that day [when I stand before Him]. [1 Cor 1:8, 3:13; Phil 1:6]

¹³Keep and follow the pattern of sound teaching (doctrine) which you have heard from me, in the faith and love which are in Christ Jesus.

¹⁴Guard [with greatest care] and keep unchanged, the treasure [that precious truth] which has been entrusted to you [that is, the good news about salvation through personal faith in Christ Jesus], through [the help of] the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

¹⁵You are aware of the fact that all who are in [the province of] Asia turned away and deserted me, Phygelus and Hermogenes among them.

¹⁶The Lord grant mercy to the family of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me and showed me kindness [comforting and reviving me like fresh air] and he was not ashamed of my chains [for Christ's sake];

¹⁷but [instead] when he reached Rome, he eagerly searched for me and found me—

¹⁸the Lord grant to him that he may find mercy from the Lord on that [great] day. You know very well how many things he did for me and what a help he was at Ephesus [you know better than I can tell you].

2 SO YOU, my son, be strong [constantly strengthened] and empowered in the grace that is [to be found only] in Christ Jesus.

²The things [the doctrine, the precepts, the admonitions, the sum of my ministry] which you have heard me teach in the presence of many witnesses, entrust [as a treasure] to reliable and faithful men who will also be capable and qualified to teach others.

³Take with me your share of hardship [passing through the difficulties which you are called to endure], like a good soldier of Christ Jesus.

⁴No soldier in active service gets entangled in the [ordinary business] affairs of civilian life; [he avoids them] so that he may please the one who enlisted him to serve.

⁵And if anyone competes as an athlete [in competitive games], he is not crowned [with the wreath of victory] unless he competes according to the rules.

⁶The hard-working farmer [who labors to produce crops] ought to be the first to receive his share of the crops.

⁷Think over the things I am saying [grasp their application], for the Lord will grant you insight and understanding in everything.

⁸Remember Jesus Christ [the ever-living Lord who has] risen from the dead, [as the prophesied King] descended from David [king of Israel], according to my gospel [the good news that I preach], [Ps 16:10]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, I pray that I will be constantly strengthened and empowered in the grace that is to be found only in Christ Jesus.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Strive for Excellence

It is very easy to be a mediocre person. All you have to do is make no extra effort of any kind and compromise all your beliefs. If you compromise, it means you do a little less than you know is right and proper. To be excellent means to do a little more than you might have to in order to just get by; it means going the extra mile (see Matt. 5:41). To strive for excellence is exactly what Paul instructed Timothy to do: "Study and do your best to present yourself to God approved, a workman [tested by trial] who has no reason to be ashamed, accurately handling and skillfully teaching the word of truth" (2 Tim. 2:15).

Peace is one of the greatest rewards you receive when you make an effort to do things the way you know they should be done. Choose the more excellent way, and you will find that God's peace is yours.

⁹for that [gospel] I am suffering even to [the point of] wearing chains like a criminal; but the word of God is not chained or imprisoned!

¹⁰For this reason I [am ready to] patiently endure all things for the sake of those who are the elect (God's chosen ones), so that they too may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus and with it the reward of eternal glory.

¹¹This is a faithful and trustworthy saying:

If we died with Him, we will also live with Him;

¹²If we endure, we will also reign with Him;

If we deny Him, He will also deny us;

¹³If we are faithless, He remains faithful [true to His word and His righteous character], for He cannot deny Himself.

¹⁴Remind the people of these facts, and solemnly charge them in the presence of God to avoid petty controversy over words, which does no good, and [upsets and undermines and] ruins [the faith of] those who listen.

¹⁵Study and do your best to present yourself to God approved, a workman [tested by trial] who has no reason to be ashamed, accurately handling and skillfully teaching the word of truth.

¹⁶But avoid all irreverent babble and godless chatter [with its profane, empty words], for it will lead to further ungodliness, ¹⁷and their teaching will spread like gangrene. So it is with Hymenaeus and Philetus, ¹⁸who have deviated from the truth. They claim that the resurrection has already taken place, and they undermine the faith of some.

¹⁹Nevertheless, the firm foundation of God [which He has laid] stands [sure and unshaken despite attacks], bearing this seal: "The Lord knows those who are His," and, "Let everyone who names the name of the Lord stand apart from wickedness and withdraw from wrongdoing." [Num 16:5; Is 26:13]

²⁰Now in a large house there are not only vessels and objects of gold and silver, but also vessels and objects of wood and of earthenware, and some are for honorable (noble, good) use and some for dishonorable (ignoble, common).

²¹Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from these things [which are dishonorable—disobedient, sinful], he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified [set apart for a special purpose and], useful to the Master, prepared for every good work.

²²Run away from youthful lusts—pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace with those [believers] who call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

²³But have nothing to do with foolish and ignorant speculations [useless disputes over unedifying, stupid controversies], since you know that they produce strife and give birth to quarrels.

²⁴The servant of the Lord must not participate in quarrels, but must be kind to everyone [even-tempered, preserving peace, and he must be], skilled in teaching, patient and tolerant when wronged.

²⁵He must correct those who are in opposition with courtesy and gentleness in the hope that God may grant that they will repent and be led to the knowledge of the truth [accurately understanding and welcoming it], ²⁶and that they may come to their senses and escape from the trap of the devil, having been held captive by him to do his will.

3 BUT UNDERSTAND this, that in the last days dangerous times [of great stress and trouble] will come [difficult days that will be hard to bear].

²For people will be lovers of self [narcissistic, self-focused], lovers of money [impelled by greed], boastful, arrogant, revilers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy and profane,

³[and they will be] unloving [devoid of natural human affection, calloused and inhumane], irreconcilable, malicious gossips, devoid of self-control [intemperate, immoral], brutal, haters of good,

⁴traitors, reckless, conceited, lovers of [sensual] pleasure rather than lovers of God, ⁵holding to a form of [outward] godliness (religion), although they have denied its power [for their conduct nullifies their claim of faith]. Avoid such people and keep far away from them.

⁶For among them are those who worm their way into homes and captivate morally weak and spiritually-dwarfed women weighed down by [the burden of their] sins, easily swayed by various impulses, ⁷always learning and listening to anybody who will teach them, but never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

⁸Just as Jannes and Jambres [the court magicians of Egypt] opposed Moses, so these men also oppose the truth, men of depraved mind, unqualified and worthless [as teachers] in regard to the faith. [Ex 7:11]

⁹But they will not get very far, for their meaningless nonsense and ignorance will become obvious to everyone, as was that of Jannes and Jambres.

¹⁰Now you have diligently followed [my example, that is] my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, steadfastness,

¹¹persecutions, and sufferings—such as happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium, and at Lystra; what persecutions I endured, but the Lord rescued me from them all! [2 Cor 12:10]

¹²Indeed, all who delight in pursuing righteousness and are determined to live godly lives in Christ Jesus will be hunted and persecuted [because of their faith].

¹³But evil men and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived.

¹⁴But as for you, continue in the things that you have learned and of which you are convinced [holding tightly to the truths], knowing from whom you learned them,

POWERPOINT

God's Word exposes true motives and thereby shows us the true condition of our heart.

As a result we may realize we are doing certain things because we are proud, jealous, angry, seeking revenge against someone, or because we want to impress people. Once we understand our motives, we can repent, be cleansed, and experience the joy of forgiveness and freedom.

According to 2 Timothy 3:16, as we read the Word and apply it to our lives, we will be instructed, convicted of sin, corrected of error, and trained in righteousness so we can learn to live in conformity to God's will.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God's Word Changes Us

When you receive Christ as your Savior, you receive the ability to do everything God wants you to do. God would never expect you to be patient if He didn't give you patience. He would never expect you to love if He didn't put within you love to give away.

But all of this comes in seed form, and these seeds will only grow when they are watered with the Word. God changes you as you stay in His Word and are transformed into His image (see 2 Cor. 3:18). "All Scripture is God-breathed... profitable for instruction, for conviction... for correction... for training in righteousness" so that we "may be complete and proficient, outfitted and thoroughly equipped for every good work" (2 Tim. 3:16–17). Receive God's Word as one of the most precious gifts that God offers, and watch it change you!

¹⁵and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings (Hebrew Scriptures) which are able to give you the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus [surrendering your entire self to Him and having absolute confidence in His wisdom, power and goodness].

¹⁶All Scripture is God-breathed [given by divine inspiration] and is profitable for instruction, for conviction [of sin], for correction [of error and restoration to obedience], for training in righteousness [learning to live in conformity to God's will, both publicly and privately—behaving honorably with personal integrity and moral courage];

¹⁷so that the man of God may be complete and proficient, outfitted and thoroughly equipped for every good work.

4 I SOLEMNLY charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by His appearing and His kingdom:

²preach the word [as an official messenger]; be ready when the time is right and even when it is not [keep your sense of urgency, whether the opportunity seems favorable or unfavorable, whether convenient or inconvenient, whether welcome or unwelcome]; correct [those who err in doctrine or behavior], warn [those who sin], exhort and encourage [those who are growing toward spiritual maturity], with inexhaustible patience and [faithful] teaching.

³For the time will come when people will not tolerate sound doctrine and accurate instruction [that challenges them with God's truth]; but wanting to have their ears tickled [with something pleasing], they will accumulate for themselves [many] teachers [one after another, chosen] to satisfy their own desires and to support the errors they hold, ⁴and will turn their ears away from the truth and will wander off into myths and man-made fictions [and will accept the unacceptable].

⁵But as for you, be clear-headed in every situation [stay calm and cool and steady], endure every hardship [without flinching], do the work of an evangelist, fulfill [the duties of] your ministry.

⁶For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure [from this world] is at hand and I will soon go free. [Num 15:1–12; 28:7; Phil 2:17]

⁷I have fought the good and worthy and noble fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith [firmly guarding the gospel against error].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Will Stand by You

God promises that He will never leave you nor forsake you, but will be with you until the very end (see Matt. 28:20). He is with you at all times, and He is planning to provide for all your needs (see Heb. 13:5). God is with you when you are going through trials, and He is planning your breakthrough (see 1 Cor. 10:13).

When all others forsake you, God will stand by you (see 2 Tim. 4:16–17). Look at Paul's attitude: "Alexander the coppersmith did me great harm; [but that is no concern of mine, for] the Lord will repay him according to his actions" (2 Tim. 4:14). The apostle Paul trusted that God would take care of the entire situation and bring recompense, or a reward, to him for the pain he had endured. But keep in mind that we only see that reward when we choose to have a godly attitude in the midst of our pain. Second Timothy 4:16–17 says: "At my first trial no one supported me [as an advocate] or stood with me, but they all deserted me. May it not be counted against them [by God]. But the Lord stood by me and strengthened and empowered me."

Paul's friends should have stood by him when he needed them, but they didn't. And he actually asked God not to hold their unfaithfulness against them. Why? I think it was because he understood the weakness of man's nature. He didn't focus on what people didn't do for him; rather, he focused on the fact that although all the others left him, the Lord stood by him. His heavenly Father was faithful. We have no promise from God that people will always be faithful, but we do have His promise that He will be faithful at all times. People may shift and change, but God is unchanging.

⁸In the future there is reserved for me the [victor's] crown of righteousness [for being right with God and doing right], which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that [great] day—and not to me only, but also to all those who have loved and longed for and welcomed His appearing.

⁹Make every effort to come to me soon;

¹⁰for Demas, having loved [the pleasures of] this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia.

¹¹Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is very helpful to me for the ministry.

¹²But Tychicus I have sent to Ephesus.

¹³When you come bring the coat that I left at Troas with Carpus, and the books, especially the parchments.

¹⁴Alexander the coppersmith did me great harm; [but that is no concern of mine, for] the Lord will repay him according to his actions.

¹⁵Be on guard against him yourself, because he vigorously opposed our message.

¹⁶At my first trial no one supported me [as an advocate] or stood with me, but they all deserted me. May it not be counted against them [by God].

¹⁷But the Lord stood by me and strengthened and empowered me, so that through me the [gospel] message might be fully proclaimed, and that all the Gentiles might hear it; and I was rescued from the mouth of the lion.

¹⁸The Lord will rescue me from every evil assault, and He will bring me safely into His heavenly kingdom; to Him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

¹⁹Give my greetings to Prisca and Aquila, and to the household of Onesiphorus.

²⁰Erastus stayed on at Corinth, but I left Trophimus sick at Miletus.

²¹Try your best to come [to me] before winter. Eubulus wishes to be remembered to you, as do Pudens and Linus and Claudia and all the brothers and sisters.

²²The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Keep the Faith

Typically, we are excited at the beginning of an opportunity, a relationship, or a venture; we're also happy when we can celebrate our achievements and have the satisfaction of fulfilled desires. But between the beginning and the end, every situation or pursuit has a "middle"—and the middle is where we often face our greatest challenges, hurdles, roadblocks, obstacles, detours, and tests.

The enemy wants you to stop short of receiving and enjoying everything God has for you, and he will tempt you to give up by sometimes making the middle of your venture seem too long or too hard. God, on the other hand, wants the very best for you; He wants you to finish the race set before you, enjoying every step along the way (see Heb. 12:1). Be determined to be faithful all the way through and enjoy your victory (see 2 Tim. 4:7–8).

Titus

Author: | Paul

Date: | Probably
between AD 63–65

Titus was a young minister, like Timothy, whom Paul wanted to encourage in the face of challenges and of difficult ministerial tasks in his church in Crete. In this letter, Paul focuses on the basics of Christian doctrine—the things we all need to know if we want to follow God effectively and grow in our faith. Paul also writes in this letter of the importance of living a godly life and of demonstrating faith through good works. While works without faith or love are ineffective, when we do good works based on our love for God and sincere desire to please Him, others take notice and those good works become part of our witness. It is very important to speak good, edifying words and to show our love for God in all that we do.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM TITUS:

One reason it is vital that we renew our minds according to God's Word is that the knowledge of the truth is what leads to godliness (see Titus 1:1).

As believers, it's important for us to desire to be people of good character whose words and actions reflect Christ (see Titus 2:1–8).

Jesus has personally set us free and made us pure. Since we belong to Him, we can do good with enthusiasm (see Titus 2:14).

We are accepted and freed from guilt through God's compassionate, undeserved grace (see Titus 3:7).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM TITUS:

For the [remarkable, undeserved] grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men. It teaches us to reject ungodliness and worldly (immoral) desires, and to live sensible, upright, and godly lives [lives with a purpose that reflect spiritual maturity] in this present age. | Titus 2:11–12

He saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we have done, but because of His own compassion and mercy, by the cleansing of the new birth (spiritual transformation, regeneration) and renewing by the Holy Spirit. | Titus 3:5

THE LETTER OF PAUL TO TITUS

1 PAUL, A bond-servant of God and an apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Jesus Christ, for the faith of God's chosen ones and [to lead and encourage them to recognize and pursue] the knowledge of the truth which leads to godliness, ²based on the hope and divine guarantee of eternal life, [the life] which God, who is ever truthful and without deceit, promised before the ages of time began, ³and at the appointed time has made known His word and revealed it as His message, through preaching, which was entrusted to me according to the command of God our Savior—
⁴To Titus, my true child in a common faith: Grace and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

⁵For this reason I left you behind in Crete, so that you would set right what remains unfinished, and appoint elders in every city as I directed you, ⁶*namely*, a man of unquestionable integrity, the husband of one wife, having children who believe, not accused of being immoral or rebellious.

⁷For the overseer, as God's steward, must be blameless, not self-willed, not quick-tempered, not addicted to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain [but financially ethical].

⁸And he must be hospitable [to believers, as well as strangers], a lover of what is good, sensible (upright), fair, devout, self-disciplined [above reproach—whether in public or in private].

Speak God's Word

I have the hope and divine guarantee of eternal life, which God, Who is ever truthful and without deceit, promised before the ages of time began.

| adapted from TITUS 1:2 |

⁹He must hold firmly to the trustworthy word [of God] as it was taught to him, so that he will be able both to give accurate instruction in sound [reliable, error-free] doctrine and to refute those who contradict [it by explaining their error].

¹⁰For there are many rebellious men who are empty talkers [just windbags] and deceivers; especially those of the circumcision [those Jews who insist that Gentile believers must be circumcised and keep the Law in order to be saved].

¹¹They must be silenced, because they are upsetting whole families by teaching things they should not teach for the purpose of dishonest financial gain.

¹²One of them [Epimenides, a Cretan], a prophet of their own, said, “Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons.”

¹³This description is true. So rebuke them sharply so that they will be sound in the faith and free from doctrinal error, ¹⁴not paying attention to Jewish myths and the commandments and rules of men who turn their backs on the truth.

¹⁵To the pure, all things are pure; but to the corrupt and unbelieving, nothing is pure; both their mind and their conscience are corrupted.

¹⁶They profess to know God [to recognize and be acquainted with Him], but by their actions they deny and disown Him. They are detestable and disobedient and worthless for good work of any kind.

2 BUT AS for you, teach the things which are in agreement with sound doctrine [which produces men and women of good character whose lifestyle identifies them as true Christians].

²Older men are to be temperate, dignified, sensible, sound in faith, in love, in steadfastness [Christlike in character].

³Older women similarly are to be reverent in their behavior, not malicious gossips nor addicted to much wine, teaching what is right and good,

POWERPOINT

Hebrews 11:6 tells us that it is impossible to please God without faith in His Son. God's love for us is unconditional, and it's important for us to understand that He wants us to do good works, "to be an example of good works" (Titus 2:7), because of our love for Him and our faith in Jesus—not because we feel we have to earn His love. It blesses God when we live by faith and walk in love (see Gal. 5:6).

⁴so that they may encourage the young women to tenderly love their husbands and their children, ⁵to be sensible, pure, makers of a home [where God is honored], good-natured, being subject to their own husbands, so that the word of God will not be dishonored.

⁶In a similar way urge the young men to be sensible and self-controlled and to behave wisely [taking life seriously].

⁷And in all things show yourself to be an example of good works, with purity in doctrine [having the strictest regard for integrity and truth], dignified, ⁸sound and beyond reproach in instruction, so that the opponent [of the faith] will be shamed, having nothing bad to say about us.

⁹Urge bond-servants to be subject to their own masters in everything, to be pleasing and not talk back,

¹⁰not stealing [things, regardless of value], but proving themselves trustworthy, so that in every respect they will adorn and do credit to the teaching of God our Savior.

¹¹For the [remarkable, undeserved] grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men.

¹²It teaches us to reject ungodliness and worldly (immoral) desires, and to live sensible, upright, and godly lives [lives with a purpose that reflect spiritual maturity] in this present age, ¹³awaiting and confidently expecting the [fulfillment of our] blessed hope and the glorious appearing of our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus, ¹⁴who [willingly] gave Himself [to be crucified] on our behalf to redeem us and purchase our freedom from all wickedness, and to purify for Himself a chosen and very special people to be His own possession, who are enthusiastic for doing what is good. [Deut 14:2; Ps 130:8; Ezek 37:23]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Try To Make People Feel Good

I truly believe that the way we treat the people in our lives is very important to God. He loves people and wants us “to be kind and conciliatory and gentle, showing unqualified consideration and courtesy toward everyone” (Titus 3:2).

Someone once said that people may forget what you said and what you did, but they will never forget how you made them feel. I encourage you to do your best to help each individual feel that they matter and are valuable. Speak encouraging words, give gifts, and spend quality time with others, expressing kindness and concern for them. Listen with interest to what people say; make a big deal out of anything good that anyone does and shrug off their mistakes because we all make them. Be gentle, patient, and loving to each person you meet (see Eph. 4:2). Spend time each day thinking about how you can make others feel loved and valuable.

15 Tell them these things. Encourage and rebuke with full authority. Let no one disregard or despise you [conduct yourself and your teaching so as to command respect].

3 REMIND PEOPLE to be subject to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready and willing to do good,² to slander or abuse no one, to be kind and conciliatory and gentle, showing unqualified consideration and courtesy toward everyone.

³For we too once were foolish, disobedient, deceived, enslaved to various sinful desires and pleasures, spending and wasting our life in malice and envy, hateful, hating one another.

⁴But when the goodness and kindness of God our Savior and His love for mankind appeared [in human form as the Man, Jesus Christ],

⁵He saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we have done, but because of His own compassion and mercy, by the cleansing of the new birth (spiritual transformation, regeneration) and renewing by the Holy Spirit, ⁶whom He poured out richly upon us through Jesus Christ our Savior, ⁷so that we would be justified [made free of the guilt of sin] by His [compassionate, undeserved] grace, and that we would be [acknowledged as acceptable to Him and] made heirs of eternal life [actually experiencing it] according to our hope (His guarantee).

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, for saving me, not because of any works of righteousness that I have done, but because of Your own compassion and mercy.

• adapted from Titus 3:5

Speak God's Word

I am justified and made free of the guilt of sin by God's compassionate and undeserved grace. I am acknowledged as acceptable to Him, and I am made an heir of eternal life according to my hope and His guarantee.

| adapted from TITUS 3:7 |

⁸This is a faithful and trustworthy saying; and concerning these things I want you to speak with great confidence, so that those who have believed God [that is, those who have trusted in, relied on, and accepted Christ Jesus as Savior,] will be careful to participate in doing good and honorable things. These things are excellent [in themselves] and profitable for the people.

⁹But avoid foolish and ill-informed and stupid controversies and genealogies and dissensions and quarrels about the Law, for they are unprofitable and useless.

¹⁰After a first and second warning reject a divisive man [who promotes heresy and causes dissension—ban him from your fellowship and have nothing more to do with him], ¹¹well aware that such a person is twisted and is sinning; he is convicted and self-condemned [and is gratified by causing confusion among believers].

¹²When I send Artemas or [perhaps] Tychicus to you, make every effort to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there.

¹³Do your best to help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way; see that they are supplied and lack nothing.

¹⁴Our people must learn to do good deeds to meet necessary demands [whatever the occasion may require], so that they will not be unproductive.

¹⁵All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith.

Grace be with all of you.

Philemon

Author: | Paul
Date: | AD 60–61

Philemon was a wealthy, influential Christian man who owned slaves, like most other men of similar stature during his day. He had a slave named Onesimus who ran away to Rome, where he became a Christian because of Paul's ministry.

Paul's primary goal in writing to Philemon was to inspire him to change his mind about Onesimus. He knew that Philemon had always viewed Onesimus as his servant and slave, but that because of Onesimus's conversion to Christ, Philemon now needed to receive him as a fellow Christian and treat him accordingly.

As we renew our minds according to God's Word, we will learn and grow. Some of the lessons we learn may require us, like Philemon, to think differently about people or situations. It is very important that we treat all people equally and with excellence.

Whenever the Holy Spirit leads you to change your mind about something, I pray you will do it, because it is so important to your spiritual maturity.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM PHILEMON:

As a believer, it's important to know what Jesus has provided for you and to be able to talk about the good things that are yours in Christ as you share your faith with others (see Philemon 6).

We reap joy when we do our best to refresh the hearts of others (see Philemon 7).

We often have opportunities to do more than people ask or expect of us, and when we do, we often receive a blessing in return (see Philemon 21).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM PHILEMON:

Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. | Philemon 3

I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective and powerful because of your accurate knowledge of every good thing which is ours in Christ. | Philemon 6

THE LETTER OF PAUL TO PHILEMON

¹PAUL, A prisoner [for the sake] of Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed), and our brother Timothy,

To Philemon our dearly beloved friend and fellow worker,

²and to [your wife] Apphia our sister, and to Archippus our fellow soldier [in ministry], and to the church that meets in your house:

³Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴I thank my God always, making mention of you in my prayers, ⁵because I hear of your love and of your faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and toward all the saints (God's people).

⁶I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective and powerful because of your accurate knowledge of every good thing which is ours in Christ.

⁷For I have had great joy and comfort and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints (God's people) have been refreshed through you, my brother.

⁸Therefore [on the basis of these facts], though I have enough confidence in Christ to order you to do what is appropriate, ⁹yet for love's sake I prefer to appeal to you—since I am such a person as Paul, an old man, and now also a prisoner [for the sake] of Christ Jesus—

¹⁰I appeal to you for my [own spiritual] child Onesimus, whom I have fathered [in the faith] while a captive in these chains.

¹¹Once he was useless to you, but now he is indeed useful to you as well as to me.

¹²I have sent him back to you in person, that is, like sending my very heart.

¹³I would have chosen to keep him with me, so that he might minister to me on your behalf during my imprisonment for the gospel;

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I pray, Lord, that I will be full of faith in the Lord Jesus and love toward all God's people.

¹⁴but I did not want to do anything without first getting your consent, so that your goodness would not be, in effect, by compulsion but of your own free will.

¹⁵Perhaps it was for this reason that he was separated from you for a while, so that you would have him back forever,

¹⁶no longer as a slave, but [as someone] more than a slave, as a brother [in Christ], especially dear to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh [as a servant] and in the Lord [as a fellow believer]. [Col 4:9]

¹⁷So if you consider me a partner, welcome and accept him as you would me.

¹⁸But if he has wronged you in any way or owes you anything, charge that to my account;

¹⁹I, Paul, write this with my own hand, I will repay it in full (not to mention to you that you owe to me even your own self as well).

²⁰Yes, brother, let me have some benefit and joy from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in Christ.

²¹I write to you [perfectly] confident of your obedient compliance, since I know that you will do even more than I ask.

POWERPOINT

Philemon 6 is such great advice. We are sometimes tempted to acknowledge what is not good about ourselves and to speak negatively, but this verse teaches us to have “accurate knowledge of every good thing which is ours in Christ.” When we know the good things that belong to us in Him, and we speak of those instead of talking about the bad things that come from our own thoughts or the opinions of others, we can share our faith effectively and powerfully.

²²At the same time also prepare a guest room for me [in expectation of a visit], for I hope that through your prayers I will be [granted the gracious privilege of] coming to you [at Colossae].

23Greetings to you from Epaphras, my fellow prisoner here in [the cause of] Christ Jesus, 24and from Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers.

25The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

See the Good

According to Philemon 6, we should have “accurate knowledge” of the good things that are ours in Christ. You might even make a list of all your good qualities, because it is important to acknowledge your good traits, not just the ones that aren’t so good. Satan reminds us daily of what is wrong with us, but we can remind him of what is right with us if we are bold enough to do so.

When we focus on what we think is wrong or bad about ourselves, we develop a negative attitude. But when we can recognize the good things about ourselves because of what Jesus has done for us, we start thinking and speaking more positively.

God’s Spirit is in us, and His Spirit is definitely positive. We can allow Him to do a thorough work in us, changing our thoughts and attitudes toward ourselves until we can see all things and people the way God sees them. He always believes the best in regard to us, and He works with us to bring the best out of us.

We can start acknowledging the good that is in us by thinking and saying, “God loves me unconditionally. He has given me His Spirit and put a new heart and attitude in me. He has made me righteous, and I am full of hope and faith.” Anytime we do anything that is sinful, we should immediately ask God to forgive us and with His help, go in a new direction. We should not ignore the wrong things that we do, but we also need to see and celebrate what we do that is right.

The more positive you are about yourself, the more positive you will be about other people and your circumstances. Believe the best about yourself and the people around you.

The book of Hebrews affirms the supremacy of Jesus Christ over everything else and explains why the New Covenant that we have in Him is better than the Old Covenant under which the Old Testament Israelites lived. Once Jesus came to earth, God's people had access to a better Mediator and a better covenant than they had ever known before. This is still true for us today. Hebrews 8:6 says, "Christ has acquired a [priestly] ministry which is more excellent [than the old Levitical priestly ministry], for He is the Mediator (Arbiter) of a better covenant [uniting God and man], which has been enacted and rests on better promises."

Hebrews 11 also gives us the "Hall of Fame of Faith," which reminds us of how powerful faith is. Any time you feel your faith growing weak, Hebrews 11 is a great chapter to read so you can be strengthened and encouraged.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM HEBREWS:

The living Word of God is like a sharp sword that has the power to expose our thoughts and the intentions of our hearts (see Hebrews 4:12).

The enemy likes to remind us of our past, but God will not remember our sins because Jesus has atoned for them (see Hebrews 10:14–18).

Never give up believing that God exists and that He rewards those who seek Him (see Hebrews 11:6).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM HEBREWS:

[Faith comprehends as fact what cannot be experienced by the physical senses.] | Hebrews 11:1

Let us run with endurance and active persistence the race that is set before us, [looking away from all that will distract us and] focusing our eyes on Jesus, who is the Author and Perfecter of faith. | Hebrews 12:1–2

Let us at all times offer up to God a sacrifice of praise, which is the fruit of lips that thankfully acknowledge and confess and glorify His name. | Hebrews 13:15

THE LETTER TO THE HEBREWS

1 GOD, HAVING spoken to the fathers long ago in [the voices and writings of] the prophets in many separate revelations [each of which set forth a portion of the truth], and in many ways, ²has in these last days spoken [with finality] to us in [the person of One who is by His character and nature] His Son [namely Jesus], whom He appointed heir and lawful owner of all things, through whom also He created the universe [that is, the universe as a space-time-matter continuum].

³The Son is the radiance and only expression of the glory of [our awesome] God [reflecting God's Shekinah glory, the Light-being, the brilliant light of the divine], and the exact representation and perfect imprint of His [Father's] essence, and upholding and maintaining and propelling all things [the entire physical and spiritual universe] by His powerful word [carrying the universe along to its predetermined goal]. When He [Himself and no other] had [by offering Himself on the cross as a sacrifice for sin] accomplished purification from sins and established our freedom from guilt, He sat down [revealing His completed work] at the right hand of the Majesty on high [revealing His Divine authority], ⁴having become as much superior to angels, since He has inherited a more excellent and glorious name than they [that is, Son—the name above all names].

⁵For to which of the angels did the Father ever say,

“YOU ARE MY SON,

TODAY I HAVE BEGOTTEN (fathered) YOU [established You as a Son, with kingly dignity]”?

And again [did He ever say to the angels],

“I SHALL BE A FATHER TO HIM

AND HE SHALL BE A SON TO ME”? [2 Sam 7:14; Ps 2:7]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Jesus Expresses God's Glory

Jesus expresses the glory of God and is the perfect example of God's character and nature (see Heb.1:3). I am awed by the fact that He is upholding, maintaining, and guiding the universe by His mighty, powerful word. This clearly shows the power of God's words. Just think about this: Jesus is holding everything in the entire universe together; so surely He is capable of taking care of you and me.

Jesus offered Himself as a sacrifice for sin. Through His sacrifice, we are completely cleansed of sin and all sin's guilt has been removed. What Jesus has done and is doing for us is shockingly amazing! We should be in awe and overflowing with thanksgiving. His sacrifice should inspire us to follow His example and be willing to live unselfishly in order to see good things happen for other people.

⁶And when He again brings the firstborn [highest-ranking Son] into the world, He says,

“AND ALL THE ANGELS OF GOD ARE TO WORSHIP HIM.” [Ps 97:7]

⁷And concerning the angels He says,

“WHO MAKES HIS ANGELS WINDS, AND HIS MINISTERING SERVANTS FLAMES OF FIRE [to do His bidding].” [Ps 104:4]

⁸But about the Son [the Father says to Him],

“YOUR THRONE, O GOD, IS FOREVER AND EVER,
AND THE SCEPTER OF [absolute] RIGHTEOUSNESS IS THE SCEPTER OF HIS KINGDOM.

⁹“YOU HAVE LOVED RIGHTEOUSNESS [integrity, virtue, uprightness in purpose] AND HAVE HATED LAWLESSNESS [injustice, sin].

THEREFORE GOD, YOUR GOD, HAS ANOINTED YOU WITH THE OIL OF GLADNESS ABOVE YOUR COMPANIONS.” [Ps 45:6, 7]

¹⁰And,

“YOU, LORD, LAID THE FOUNDATION OF THE EARTH IN THE BEGINNING,

AND THE HEAVENS ARE THE WORKS OF YOUR HANDS;

¹¹THEY WILL PERISH, BUT YOU REMAIN [forever and ever];
AND THEY WILL ALL WEAR OUT LIKE A GARMENT,

¹²AND LIKE A ROBE YOU WILL ROLL THEM UP;
LIKE A GARMENT THEY WILL BE CHANGED.
BUT YOU ARE THE SAME [forever],
AND YOUR YEARS WILL NEVER END.” [Ps 102:25–27]

¹³But to which of the angels has the Father ever said, “SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND [together with me in royal dignity], UNTIL I MAKE YOUR ENEMIES

A FOOTSTOOL FOR YOUR FEET [in triumphant conquest]”? [Ps
110:1]

¹⁴Are not all the angels ministering spirits sent out [by God] to serve (accompany, protect) those who will inherit salvation? [Of course they are!]

2 FOR THIS reason [that is, because of God's final revelation in His Son Jesus and because of Jesus' superiority to the angels] we must pay much closer attention than ever to the things that we have heard, so that we do not [in any way] drift away from truth.

²For if the message given through angels [the Law given to Moses] was authentic and unalterable, and every violation and disobedient act received an appropriate penalty, ³how will we escape [the penalty] if we ignore such a great salvation [the gospel, the new covenant]? For it was spoken at first by the Lord, and it was confirmed to us and proved authentic by those who personally heard [Him speak],

⁴[and besides this evidence] God also testifying with them [confirming the message of salvation], both by signs and wonders and by various miracles [carried out by Jesus and the apostles] and by [granting to believers the] gifts of the Holy Spirit according to His own will.

⁵It was not to angels that God subjected the [inhabited] world of the future [when Christ reigns], about which we are speaking.

⁶But one has [solemnly] testified somewhere [in Scripture], saying,

“WHAT IS MAN, THAT YOU ARE MINDFUL OF HIM,

OR THE SON OF MAN, THAT YOU GRACIOUSLY CARE FOR HIM?

- 7“YOU HAVE MADE HIM FOR A LITTLE WHILE LOWER [in status]
THAN THE ANGELS;
YOU HAVE CROWNED HIM WITH GLORY AND HONOR,
AND SET HIM OVER THE WORKS OF YOUR HANDS;
8YOU HAVE PUT ALL THINGS IN SUBJECTION UNDER HIS FEET
[confirming his supremacy].”

Now in putting all things in subjection to man, He left nothing outside his control. But at present we do not yet see all things subjected to him. [Ps 8:4–6]

⁹But we do see Jesus, who was made lower than the angels for a little while [by taking on the limitations of humanity], crowned with glory and honor because of His suffering of death, so that by the grace of God [extended to sinners] He might experience death for [the sins of] everyone.

¹⁰For it was fitting for God [that is, an act worthy of His divine nature] that He, for whose sake are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the author and founder of their salvation perfect through suffering [bringing to maturity the human experience necessary for Him to be perfectly equipped for His office as High Priest].

¹¹Both Jesus who sanctifies and those who are sanctified [that is, spiritually transformed, made holy, and set apart for God's purpose] are all from one Father; for this reason He is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters,

¹²saying,

“I WILL DECLARE YOUR (the Father's) NAME TO MY BRETHREN (believers),

IN THE MIDST OF THE CONGREGATION I WILL SING YOUR PRAISE.” [Ps 22:22]

¹³And again [He says],

“MY TRUST and CONFIDENT HOPE WILL BE PLACED IN HIM.”

And again,

“HERE I AM, I AND THE CHILDREN WHOM GOD HAS GIVEN ME.”
[Is 8:17, 18]

¹⁴Therefore, since [these His] children share in flesh and blood [the physical nature of mankind], He Himself in a similar manner also shared in the same [physical nature, but without sin], so that through [experiencing] death He might make powerless (ineffective, impotent) him who had the power of death—that is, the devil—

¹⁵and [that He] might free all those who through [the haunting] fear of death were held in slavery throughout their lives.

¹⁶For, as we all know, He (Christ) does not take hold of [the fallen] angels [to give them a helping hand], but He does take hold of [the fallen] descendants of Abraham [extending to them His hand of deliverance]. [Is 41:8, 9]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*Thank You, Jesus, that through experiencing death
You have made powerless, ineffective, and impotent him who had the power of death—that is, the devil.*

• adapted from Hebrews 2:14

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I am grateful, Jesus, because in Your humanity You suffered in being tempted. This means You are able to help and provide immediate assistance to those who are being tempted and exposed to suffering.

• adapted from Hebrews 2:18

¹⁷Therefore, it was essential that He had to be made like His brothers (mankind) in every respect, so that He might [by experience] become a merciful and faithful High Priest in things related to God, to make atonement (propitiation) for the people's sins [thereby wiping away the sin, satisfying divine justice, and providing a way of reconciliation between God and mankind].

¹⁸Because He Himself [in His humanity] has suffered in being tempted, He is able to help and provide immediate assistance to those who are being tempted and exposed to suffering.

3 THEREFORE, HOLY brothers and sisters, who share in the heavenly calling, [thoughtfully and attentively] consider the Apostle and High Priest whom we confessed [as ours when we accepted Him as Savior], namely, Jesus;

²He was faithful to Him who appointed Him [Apostle and High Priest], as Moses also was faithful in all God's house. [Num 12:7]

³Yet Jesus has been considered worthy of much greater glory and honor than Moses, just as the builder of a house has more honor than the house.

⁴For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.

⁵Now Moses was faithful in [the administration of] all God's house, [but only] as a ministering servant, [his ministry serving] as a testimony of the things which were to be spoken afterward [the revelation to come in Christ]; [Num 12:7]

⁶but Christ is faithful as a Son over His [Father's] house. And we are His house if we hold fast our confidence and sense of triumph in our hope [in Christ].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

A Tender, Believing Heart

In Hebrews 3, we read about two conditions of the heart—a hard heart (see Heb. 3:8) and an unbelieving heart (see Heb. 3:12). In the wilderness, hard hearts caused the Israelites to rebel. A person with a hard heart cannot believe God easily, which is a major problem, because everything we receive from God comes through believing. To receive from Him, it is necessary that we come to Him in simple, childlike faith and just believe.

We call ourselves “believers,” but the truth is, there are a lot of “unbelieving believers.” For a long time, I was one of them. I had been hurt so much during my childhood that I developed a hardness of heart, and God had to change that in order for me to be able to trust Him.

Even Moses reached the place in the wilderness where he was slow of heart to believe God. That’s why we have to stay sharp spiritually if we are going to be quick to believe and to walk in faith day by day. We should be careful to go from faith to faith and not begin to mix in any doubt and unbelief leading to a hardness of heart.

Keep your heart soft, tender, and full of faith before the Lord!

⁷Therefore, just as the Holy Spirit says,

“TODAY IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE,

⁸DO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEARTS AS [your fathers did] IN THE REBELLION [of Israel at Meribah],

ON THE DAY OF TESTING IN THE WILDERNESS,

⁹WHERE YOUR FATHERS TRIED ME BY TESTING [My forbearance and tolerance],

AND SAW MY WORKS FOR FORTY YEARS

[And found I stood their test].

¹⁰“THEREFORE I WAS ANGERED WITH THIS GENERATION,

AND I SAID, ‘THEY ALWAYS GO ASTRAY IN THEIR HEART,

AND THEY DID NOT KNOW MY WAYS [nor become progressively better and more intimately acquainted with them]’;

¹¹SO I SWORE [an oath] IN MY WRATH,

“THEY SHALL NOT ENTER MY REST [the promised land].” [Ps
95:7–11]

¹²Take care, brothers and sisters, that there not be in any one of you a wicked, unbelieving heart [which refuses to trust and rely on the Lord, a heart] that turns away from the living God.

¹³But continually encourage one another every day, as long as it is called “Today” [and there is an opportunity], so that none of you will be hardened [into settled rebellion] by the deceitfulness of sin [its cleverness, delusive glamour, and sophistication].

¹⁴For we [believers] have become partakers of Christ [sharing in all that the Messiah has for us], if only we hold firm our newborn confidence [which originally led us to Him] until the end,

¹⁵while it is said,

“TODAY [while there is still opportunity] IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE,

DO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEART, AS WHEN THEY PROVOKED ME
[in the rebellion in the desert at Meribah].” [Ps 95:7, 8]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Entering God's Rest

If we are not at rest, we are not believing, because the fruit of believing is that we enter God's rest. For many years of my life I claimed, "Oh, I'm believing God. I'm trusting the Lord." But I was not doing either of those things because I lived most days anxious, panicky, irritable, and worried.

The rest that God offers us is not from physical work, but a rest for our souls—a rest that operates as we go about daily life and take care of our responsibilities. To me, finding rest, relief, ease, refreshment, recreation, and blessed quiet for my soul means finding freedom from constant mental activity. It means not having to live in the torment of reasoning, always trying to come up with an answer that I don't have. I don't need to worry; instead, I can remain in a place of quiet peace and rest through trusting prayer.

If we are truly believing God and trusting Him, we have entered into His rest (see Heb. 4:3). We have prayed and cast our cares upon Him and are now abiding in the perfect peace of His holy presence (see 1 Pet. 5:7).

You can speak His Word to your raging soul and tortured mind just as Jesus spoke to the wind and waves and said, "Hush, be still (muzzled)!" (Mark 4:39).

¹⁶For who were they who heard and yet provoked Him

[with rebellious acts]? Was it not all those who came out of Egypt led by Moses?

¹⁷And with whom was He angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose dead bodies were scattered in the desert?

¹⁸And to whom did He swear [an oath] that they would not enter His rest, but to those who disobeyed [those who would not listen to His word]?

¹⁹So we see that they were not able to enter [into His rest—the promised land] because of unbelief and an unwillingness to trust in God. [Num 14:1–35]

4 THEREFORE, WHILE the promise of entering His rest still remains and is freely offered today, let us fear, in case any one of you may seem to come short of reaching it or think he has come too late.

²For indeed we have had the good news [of salvation] preached to us, just as the Israelites also [when the good news of the promised land came to them]; but the message they heard did not benefit them, because it was not united with faith [in God] by those who heard.

³For we who believe [that is, we who personally trust and confidently rely on God] enter that rest [so we have His inner peace now because we are confident in our salvation, and assured of His power], just as He has said,

“AS I SWORE [an oath] IN MY WRATH, THEY SHALL NOT ENTER MY REST,”

[this He said] although His works were completed from the foundation of the world [waiting for all who would believe]. [Ps 95:11]

⁴For somewhere [in Scripture] He has said this about the seventh day: “AND GOD RESTED ON THE SEVENTH DAY FROM ALL HIS WORKS”; [Gen 2:2]

⁵and again in this, “THEY SHALL NOT ENTER MY REST.” [Ps 95:11]

⁶Therefore, since the promise remains for some to enter His rest, and those who formerly had the good news preached to them failed to [grasp it and did not] enter because of [their unbelief evidenced by] disobedience, ⁷He again sets a definite day, [a new] “Today,” [providing another opportunity to enter that rest by] saying through David after so long a time, just as has been said before [in the words already quoted],

“TODAY IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE,

DO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEARTS.” [Ps 95:7, 8]

⁸[This mention of a rest was not a reference to their entering into Canaan.] For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not speak about another day [of opportunity] after that.

⁹So there remains a [full and complete] Sabbath rest for the people of God.

¹⁰For the one who has once entered His rest has also rested from [the weariness and pain of] his [human] labors, just as God rested from [those labors uniquely] His own. [Gen 2:2]

¹¹Let us therefore make every effort to enter that rest [of God, to know and experience it for ourselves], so that no one will fall by following the same example of disobedience [as those who died in the wilderness].

¹²For the word of God is living and active and full of power [making it operative, energizing, and effective]. It is sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating as far as the division of the soul and spirit [the completeness of a person], and of both joints and marrow [the deepest parts of our nature], exposing and judging the very thoughts and intentions of the heart.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Rest Is Available to You

Under the Old Covenant, the Lord required the Israelites to observe the Sabbath every week. They were to do no work from sundown Friday until sundown Saturday. This was a symbol of rest to them. In the Old Testament, God says that He created the world in six days and ceased from His labors on the seventh.

The writer of Hebrews used the idea of Sabbath as a way of talking about a spiritual rest that is available to God's people. In Hebrews 3:12, he wrote that although Israel saw God's miracles daily, they could not enter His rest because of their unbelief: "Take care... that there not be in any one of you a wicked, unbelieving heart [which refuses to trust and rely on the Lord, a heart] that turns away from the living God."

Hebrews 4:10–11 makes clear that this rest—the peace of God—is available to all believers and we should seek it zealously. This rest is a result of our knowing that God is in charge of all things that concern us and that He will take care of us. I believe we are to work hard and do our best at whatever God gives us to do. If we put our confidence and trust in Him while we do it, we can enjoy a rest that is far superior to the Sabbath rest the Israelites had. Their Sabbath rest was for their physical bodies, while our Sabbath rest is for our entire being—mind, will, emotions, and physical body.

As you lean entirely on God, you will experience this inner rest, and it will keep you fresh and strong for whatever you need to do.

POWERPOINT

The Word of God teaches us to hold fast our confession of faith in Jesus Christ (see Heb. 4:14). This means that no matter what our situation in life feels or looks like, we should continue to speak faith, not fear. It doesn't mean that we deny that our circumstances exist, but that we deny them the right to rule over us.

¹³And not a creature exists that is concealed from His sight, but all things are open and exposed, and revealed to the eyes of Him with whom we have to give account.

¹⁴Inasmuch then as we [believers] have a great High Priest who has [already ascended and] passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession [of faith and cling tenaciously to our absolute trust in Him as Savior].

¹⁵For we do not have a High Priest who is unable to sympathize and understand our weaknesses and temptations, but One who has been tempted [knowing exactly how it feels to be human] in every respect as we are, yet without [committing any] sin.

¹⁶Therefore let us [with privilege] approach the throne of grace [that is, the throne of God's gracious favor] with confidence and without fear, so that we may receive mercy [for our failures] and find [His amazing] grace to help in time of need [an appropriate blessing, coming just at the right moment].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Jesus Understands Our Weaknesses

I went through years of agony before I finally heard God whisper in my heart, "Joyce, it is okay for you to have weaknesses." I am sure that He had tried to teach me that lesson previously, but I was unable to hear it due to wrong thinking. God wasn't telling me to try to be weak; He was letting me know that He understood that I was weak at times, and that He wasn't angry with me because of it.

When God let me know that it was okay to have some weaknesses, it sounded too good to be true. I immediately began a Bible study of the word weakness, and I discovered that Jesus actually understands our weaknesses (see Heb. 4:15). He understands them because He took on human flesh in order to identify with us, and He was tempted in every respect just as we are. While He never sinned, He is not shocked when we fail. I'm certainly not saying that we should not work with the Holy Spirit to overcome our weaknesses, but doing so is a process. Even as we overcome some of them, others still remain. We should learn to be happy about each step of progress instead of feeling guilty about how far we still have to go.

If we focus on our weaknesses, we will continually feel discouraged, but if we focus on our progress, it increases our joy.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

You Can Pray Boldly

As believers, we should know the Word of God, which is His will; therefore, it should be easy for us to pray according to God's will. We should avoid approaching God while wondering if what we are asking for is His will. We should settle that issue in our heart before we pray, and if what we are asking for isn't covered in His Word, then by all means ask for it only if it is God's will.

As you and I come boldly before the throne of God's grace (see Heb. 4:16), with our sins washed away by the blood of Jesus, asking in faith according to His Word, "we [also] know [with settled and absolute knowledge] that we have [granted to us] the requests which we have asked from Him" (1 John 5:15). We have this assurance not because we are perfect or worthy in ourselves, or because God owes us anything, but because He loves us and wants to give us what we need.

Jesus has purchased a glorious inheritance (see Eph. 1:18) for us by the shedding of His blood. As fellow heirs with Him (see Rom. 8:17), we can pray boldly.

5 FOR EVERY high priest chosen from among men is appointed [to act] on behalf of men in things relating to God, so that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins.

²He is able to deal gently with the spiritually ignorant and misguided, since he is also subject to human weakness;

POWERPOINT

I am certainly glad that we have a High Priest (Jesus) who understands us because He was tempted in all respects just as we are, yet He never sinned. He was in total control of His emotions, but He still understands us; therefore we can boldly approach His throne of grace and receive the help we need even though our behavior is less than perfect (see Heb. 4:15–16).

³and because of this [human weakness] he is required to offer sacrifices for sins, for himself as well as for the people.

⁴And besides, one does not appropriate for himself the honor [of being high priest], but he who is called by God, just as Aaron was.

⁵So too Christ did not glorify Himself so as to be made a high priest, but He [was exalted and appointed by the One] who said to Him,

“YOU ARE MY SON,

TODAY I HAVE BEGOTTEN (fathered) YOU [declared Your authority and rule over the nations]”; [Ps 2:7]

⁶just as He also says in another place,

“YOU ARE A PRIEST [appointed] FOREVER

ACCORDING TO THE ORDER OF MELCHIZEDEK.” [Ps 110:4]

⁷In the days of His earthly life, Jesus offered up both [specific] petitions and [urgent] supplications [for that which He needed] with fervent crying and tears to the One who was [always] able to save Him from death, and He was heard because of His reverent submission toward God [His sinlessness and His unfailing determination to do the Father’s will].

POWERPOINT

Hebrews 5:8–9 teaches us that Jesus learned obedience through what He suffered, and His completed experience made Him perfectly equipped to become the source of eternal salvation. In His humanity, Jesus had to learn, to grow, to suffer, and to gain experience, just as we do. He never sinned as we do, and He has gone before us as our Pioneer. He goes first, and we follow. He shows us the way to victory. The only way out is through!

We should not run from difficult things; rather, we can face them confidently, knowing God is by our side and will never leave us or forsake us. Even when we don't feel His Presence, we know He is with us.

⁸Although He was a Son [who had never been disobedient to the Father], He learned [active, special] obedience through what He suffered.

⁹And having been made perfect [uniquely equipped and prepared as Savior and retaining His integrity amid opposition], He became the source of eternal salvation [an eternal inheritance] to all those who obey Him, [Is 45:17]

¹⁰being designated by God as High Priest according to the order of Melchizedek. [Ps 110:4]

¹¹Concerning this we have much to say, and it is hard to explain, since you have become dull and sluggish in [your spiritual] hearing and disinclined to listen.

¹²For though by this time you ought to be teachers [because of the time you have had to learn these truths], you actually need someone to teach you again the elementary principles of God's word [from the beginning], and you have come to be continually in need of milk, not solid food.

¹³For everyone who lives on milk is [doctrinally inexperienced and] unskilled in the word of righteousness, since he is a spiritual infant.

¹⁴But solid food is for the [spiritually] mature, whose senses are trained by practice to distinguish between what is morally good and what is evil.

6 THEREFORE LET us get past the elementary stage in the teachings about the Christ, advancing on to maturity and perfection and spiritual completeness, [doing this] without laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God,

²of teaching about washings (ritual purifications), the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. [These are all important matters in which you should have been proficient long ago.]

³And we will do this [that is, proceed to maturity], if God permits.

⁴For [it is impossible to restore to repentance] those who have once been enlightened [spiritually] and who have tasted and consciously experienced the heavenly gift and have shared in the Holy Spirit,

⁵and have tasted and consciously experienced the good word of God and the powers of the age (world) to come,

⁶and then have fallen away—it is impossible to bring them back again to repentance, since they again nail the Son of God on the cross [for as far as they are concerned, they are treating the death of Christ as if they were not saved by it], and are holding Him up again to public disgrace.

⁷For soil that drinks the rain which often falls on it and produces crops useful to those for whose benefit it is cultivated, receives a blessing from God;

⁸but if it persistently produces thorns and thistles, it is worthless and close to being cursed, and it ends up being burned. [Gen 3:17, 18]

⁹But, beloved, even though we speak to you in this way, we are convinced of better things concerning you, and of things that accompany salvation.

¹⁰For God is not unjust so as to forget your work and the love which you have shown for His name in ministering to [the needs of] the saints (God's people), as you do.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Promises Come Through Patience

Patience is a fruit of the Spirit that we desperately need in our lives. But when we pray for patience, we often experience challenges that give us opportunities to develop it. We may not like the process, but God has something good in mind. He is actually answering our prayers for patience and we just don't realize it. The writer of Hebrews reminds us to be imitators of "those who through faith [lean on God with absolute trust and confidence in Him and in His power] and by patient endurance [even when suffering] are [now] inheriting the promises" (Heb. 6:12).

God wants us to bless Him at all times, not just when things are going our way. When challenges arise in your life, remember that you can be peaceful, enjoy the journey, have faith, and exercise patience, because Jesus is with you at every moment. He will bring you through to the other side and to the inheritance of His promises.

¹¹And we desire for each one of you to show the same diligence [all the way through] so as to realize and enjoy the full assurance of hope until the end,

¹²so that you will not be [spiritually] sluggish, but [will instead be] imitators of those who through faith [lean on God with absolute trust and confidence in Him and in His power] and by patient endurance [even when suffering] are [now] inheriting the promises.

¹³For when God made the promise to Abraham, He swore [an oath] by Himself, since He had no one greater by whom to swear,

¹⁴saying, “I WILL SURELY BLESS YOU AND I WILL SURELY MULTIPLY YOU.” [Gen 22:16, 17]

¹⁵And so, having patiently waited, he realized the promise [in the miraculous birth of Isaac, as a pledge of what was to come from God].

¹⁶Indeed men swear [an oath] by one greater than themselves, and with them [in all disputes] the oath serves as confirmation [of what has been said] and is an end of the dispute.

¹⁷In the same way God, in His desire to show to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable nature of His purpose, intervened and guaranteed it with an oath, ¹⁸so that by two unchangeable things [His promise and His oath] in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled [to Him] for refuge would have strong encouragement and indwelling strength to hold tightly to the hope set before us.

¹⁹This hope [this confident assurance] we have as an anchor of the soul [it cannot slip and it cannot break down under whatever pressure bears upon it]—a safe and steadfast hope that enters within the veil [of the heavenly temple, that most Holy Place in which the very presence of God dwells], [Lev 16:2]

²⁰where Jesus has entered [in advance] as a forerunner for us, having become a High Priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek. [Ps 110:4]

1 FOR THIS Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, met Abraham as he returned from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, ²and Abraham gave him a tenth of all [the spoil]. He is, first of all, by the translation of his name, king of righteousness, and then he is also king of Salem, which means king of peace.

³Without [any record of] father or mother, nor ancestral line, without [any record of] beginning of days (birth) nor ending of life (death), but having been made like the Son of God, he remains a priest without interruption and without successor.

⁴Now pause and consider how great this man was to whom Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth of the spoils.

⁵It is true that those descendants of Levi who are charged with the priestly office are commanded in the Law to collect tithes from the people—which means, from their kinsmen—though these have descended from Abraham.

⁶But this person [Melchizedek] who is not from their Levitical ancestry received tithes from Abraham and blessed him who possessed the promises [of God].

⁷Yet it is beyond all dispute that the lesser person is always blessed by the greater one.

⁸Furthermore, here [in the Levitical priesthood] tithes are received by men who are subject to death; but in that case [concerning Melchizedek], they are received by one of whom it is testified that he lives on [perpetually].

⁹A person might even say that Levi [the father of the priestly tribe] himself, who received tithes, paid tithes through Abraham [the father of all Israel and of all who believe], ¹⁰for Levi was still in the loins (unborn) of his forefather [Abraham] when Melchizedek met him (Abraham).

¹¹Now if perfection [a perfect fellowship between God and the worshiper] had been attained through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people were given the Law) what further need was there for another and different kind of priest to arise, one in the manner of Melchizedek, rather than one appointed to the order of Aaron?

¹²For when there is a change in the priesthood, there is of necessity a change of the law [concerning the priesthood] as well.

¹³For the One of whom these things are said belonged [not to the priestly line of Levi but] to another tribe, from which no one has officiated or served at the altar.

¹⁴For it is evident that our Lord descended from [the tribe of] Judah, and Moses mentioned nothing about priests in connection with that tribe.

¹⁵And this becomes even more evident if another priest arises in the likeness of Melchizedek, [Ps 110:4]

POWERPOINT

Hope is the force that keeps us steady in times of trial, because hope is the way through which we continually draw near to God (see Heb. 7:19). Don't ever stop hoping. People who quit hoping have a miserable life. If you are already struggling to be happy because you have lost hope, it's not too late to start hoping again. Don't be afraid. Even during disappointing times, you can hope and be positive. God is a God of good things and miracles, and He can do anything. Stir up your hope and expect good things in your life!

¹⁶who has become a priest, not on the basis of a physical and legal requirement in the Law [concerning his ancestry as a descendant of Levi], but on the basis of the power of an indestructible and endless life.

¹⁷For it is attested [by God] of Him,

“YOU (Christ) ARE A PRIEST FOREVER

ACCORDING TO THE ORDER OF MELCHIZEDEK.” [Ps 110:4]

¹⁸For, on the one hand, a former commandment is cancelled because of its weakness and uselessness [because of its inability to justify the sinner before God]

¹⁹(for the Law never made anything perfect); while on the other hand a better hope is introduced through which we now continually draw near to God.

²⁰And indeed it was not without the taking of an oath [that Christ was made priest]

²¹(for those Levites who formerly became priests [received their office] without [its being confirmed by the taking of] an oath, but this One [was designated] with an oath through the One who said to Him,

“THE LORD HAS SWORN

AND WILL NOT CHANGE HIS MIND or REGRET IT,

“YOU (Christ) ARE A PRIEST FOREVER”). [Ps 110:4]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Jesus, that You are able to save forever those who come to God through You and that You always live to intercede and intervene with God on my behalf.

• adapted from Hebrews 7:25

²²And so [because of the oath's greater strength and force] Jesus has become the certain guarantee of a better covenant [a more excellent and more advantageous agreement; one that will never be replaced or annulled].

²³The [former successive line of] priests, on the one hand, existed in greater numbers because they were each prevented by death from continuing [perpetually in office];

²⁴but, on the other hand, Jesus holds His priesthood permanently and without change, because He lives on forever.

²⁵Therefore He is able also to save forever (completely, perfectly, for eternity) those who come to God through Him, since He always lives to intercede and intervene on their behalf [with God].

²⁶It was fitting for us to have such a High Priest [perfectly adapted to our needs], holy, blameless, unstained [by sin], separated from sinners and exalted higher than the heavens;

²⁷who has no day by day need, like those high priests, to offer sacrifices, first of all for his own [personal] sins and then for those of the people, because He [met all the requirements and] did this once for all when He offered up Himself [as a willing sacrifice].

²⁸For the Law appoints men as high priests who are weak [frail, sinful, dying men], but the word of the oath [of God], which came after [the institution of] the Law, permanently appoints [as priest] a Son who has been made perfect forever. [Ps 110:4]

8 NOW THE main point of what we have to say is this: we have such a High Priest, [the Christ] who is seated [in the place of honor] at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty (God) in heaven, [Ps 110:1]

²a Minister (Officiating Priest) in the holy places and in the true tabernacle, which is erected not by man, but by the Lord.

³For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices; so it is essential for this One also to have something to offer.

⁴Now if He were [still living] on earth, He would not be a priest at all, for there are priests who offer the gifts [to God] in accordance with the Law.

⁵They serve as a pattern and foreshadowing of [what has its true existence and reality in] the heavenly things (sanctuary). For when Moses was about to erect the tabernacle, he was warned by God, saying, “SEE THAT YOU MAKE it all [exactly] ACCORDING TO THE PATTERN WHICH

WAS SHOWN TO YOU ON THE MOUNTAIN.” [Ex 25:40]

⁶But as it is, Christ has acquired a [priestly] ministry which is more excellent [than the old Levitical priestly ministry], for He is the Mediator (Arbiter) of a better covenant [uniting God and man], which has been enacted and rests on better promises.

⁷For if that first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no occasion for a second one or an attempt to institute another one [the new covenant].

⁸However, God finds fault with them [showing its inadequacy] when He says,

“BEHOLD, THE DAYS WILL COME, SAYS THE LORD,
WHEN I WILL MAKE and RATIFY A NEW COVENANT
WITH THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL AND WITH THE HOUSE OF JUDAH;

⁹NOT LIKE THE COVENANT THAT I MADE WITH THEIR FATHERS
ON THE DAY WHEN I TOOK THEM BY THE HAND
TO LEAD THEM OUT OF THE LAND OF EGYPT; FOR THEY DID NOT ABIDE IN MY COVENANT, AND SO I WITHDREW MY FAVOR and DISREGARDED THEM,
SAYS THE LORD.

¹⁰“FOR THIS IS THE COVENANT THAT I WILL MAKE WITH THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL
AFTER THOSE DAYS, SAYS THE LORD:
I WILL IMPRINT MY LAWS UPON THEIR MINDS [even upon their innermost thoughts and understanding],
AND ENGRAVE THEM UPON THEIR HEARTS [effecting their regeneration].
AND I WILL BE THEIR GOD,

AND THEY SHALL BE MY PEOPLE.

¹¹“AND IT WILL NOT BE [necessary] FOR EACH ONE TO TEACH HIS FELLOW CITIZEN,

OR EACH ONE HIS BROTHER, SAYING, ‘KNOW [by experience, have knowledge of] THE LORD,’

FOR ALL WILL KNOW [Me by experience and have knowledge of] ME,

FROM THE LEAST TO THE GREATEST OF THEM.

¹²“FOR I WILL BE MERCIFUL and GRACIOUS TOWARD THEIR WICKEDNESS,

AND I WILL REMEMBER THEIR SINS NO MORE.” [Jer 31:31–34]

¹³When God speaks of “A new covenant,” He makes the first one obsolete. And whatever is becoming obsolete (out of use, annulled) and growing old is ready to disappear.

9 NOW EVEN the first covenant had regulations for divine worship and for the earthly sanctuary. [Ex 25:10–40]

²A tabernacle (sacred tent) was put up, the outer one or first section, in which were the lampstand and the table with [its loaves of] the sacred showbread; this is called the Holy Place. [Lev 24:5, 6]

³Behind the second veil there was another tabernacle [the inner one or second section] known as the Holy of Holies, [Ex 26:31–33]

⁴having the golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant covered entirely with gold. This contained a golden jar which held the manna, and the rod of Aaron that sprouted, and the [two stone] tablets of the covenant [inscribed with the Ten Commandments]; [Ex 16:32–34; 30:1–6; Num 17:8–10]

⁵and above the ark were the [golden] cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat; but we cannot now go into detail about these things.

⁶Now when these things have been prepared in this way, the priests continually enter the outer [or first section of the] tabernacle [that is, the Holy Place] performing [their ritual acts of] the divine worship,

⁷but into the second [inner tabernacle, the Holy of Holies], only the high priest enters [and then only] once a year, and never without [bringing a sacrifice of] blood, which he offers [as a substitutionary atonement] for himself and for the sins of the people committed in ignorance. [Lev 16:15]

⁸By this the Holy Spirit signifies that the way into the Holy Place [the true Holy of Holies and the presence of God] has not yet been disclosed as long as the first or outer tabernacle is still standing [that is, as long as the Levitical system of worship remains a recognized institution], ⁹for this [first or outer tabernacle] is a symbol [that is, an archetype or paradigm] for the present time. Accordingly both gifts and sacrifices are offered which are incapable of perfecting the conscience and renewing the [inner self of the] worshiper.

¹⁰For they [the gifts, sacrifices, and ceremonies] deal only with [clean and unclean] food and drink and various ritual washings, [mere] external regulations for the body imposed [to help the worshipers] until the time of reformation [that is, the time of the new order when Christ will establish the reality of what these things foreshadow—a better covenant].

¹¹But when Christ appeared as a High Priest of the good things to come [that is, true spiritual worship], He entered through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not a part of this [material] creation.

¹²He went once for all into the Holy Place [the Holy of Holies of heaven, into the presence of God], and not through the blood of goats and calves, but through His own blood, having obtained and secured eternal redemption [that is, the salvation of all who personally believe in Him as Savior].

¹³For if the sprinkling of [ceremonially] defiled persons with the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a [burnt] heifer is sufficient for the cleansing of the body, [Lev 16:6, 16; Num 19:9, 17, 18]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I am grateful, Jesus, that Your blood cleanses my conscience from dead works and lifeless observances so I can serve the ever living God!

• adapted from Hebrews 9:14

¹⁴how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal [Holy] Spirit willingly offered Himself unblemished [that is, without moral or spiritual imperfection as a sacrifice] to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works and lifeless observances to serve the ever living God?

¹⁵For this reason He is the Mediator and Negotiator of a new covenant [that is, an entirely new agreement uniting God and man], so that those who have been called [by God] may receive [the fulfillment of] the promised eternal inheritance, since a death has taken place [as the payment] which redeems them from the sins committed under the obsolete first covenant.

¹⁶For where there is a will and testament involved, the death of the one who made it must be established, ¹⁷for a will and testament takes effect [only] at death, since it is never in force as long as the one who made it is alive.

¹⁸So even the first covenant was not put in force without [the shedding of] blood.

¹⁹For when every commandment in the Law had been read by Moses to all the people, he took the blood of the calves and goats [which had been sacrificed], together with water and scarlet wool and with a bunch of hyssop, and he sprinkled both the scroll itself and all the people,

²⁰saying, "THIS IS THE BLOOD OF THE COVENANT [that seals and ratifies the agreement] WHICH GOD ORDAINED and COMMANDED [me to deliver to] YOU." [Ex 24:6-8]

²¹And in the same way he sprinkled both the tabernacle and all the containers and sacred utensils of worship with the blood.

²²In fact under the Law almost everything is cleansed with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness [neither release from sin and its guilt, nor cancellation of the merited punishment].

²³Therefore it was necessary for the [earthly] copies of the heavenly things to be cleansed with these, but the heavenly things themselves required far better sacrifices than these.

²⁴For Christ did not enter into a holy place made with hands, a mere copy of the true one, but [He entered] into heaven itself, now to appear in the very presence of God on our behalf;

²⁵nor did He [enter into the heavenly sanctuary to] offer Himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place every year with blood that is not his own.

²⁶Otherwise, He would have needed to suffer over and over since the foundation of the world; but now once for all at the consummation of the ages He has appeared and been publicly manifested to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself.

²⁷And just as it is appointed and destined for all men to die once and after this [comes certain] judgment, ²⁸so Christ, having been offered once and once for all to bear [as a burden] the sins of many, will appear a second time [when he returns to earth], not to deal with sin, but to bring salvation to those who are eagerly and confidently waiting for Him.

10 FOR SINCE the Law has only a shadow [just a pale representation] of the good things to come—not the very image of those things—it can never, by offering the same sacrifices continually year after year, make perfect those who approach [its altars].

²For if it were otherwise, would not these sacrifices have stopped being offered? For the worshipers, having once [for all time] been cleansed, would no longer have a consciousness of sin.

³But [as it is] these [continual] sacrifices bring a fresh reminder of sins [to be atoned for] year after year, ⁴for it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

⁵Therefore, when Christ enters into the world, He says,

“SACRIFICE AND OFFERING YOU HAVE NOT DESIRED,
BUT [instead] YOU HAVE PREPARED A BODY FOR ME [to offer];

⁶IN BURNT OFFERINGS AND sacrifices FOR SIN YOU HAVE TAKEN NO DELIGHT.

⁷“THEN I SAID, ‘BEHOLD, I HAVE COME TO DO YOUR WILL, O GOD—

[TO FULFILL] WHAT IS WRITTEN OF ME IN THE SCROLL OF THE BOOK.” [Ps 40:6–8]

⁸After saying [in the citation] above, “YOU HAVE NEITHER DESIRED, NOR HAVE YOU TAKEN DELIGHT IN SACRIFICES AND OFFERINGS AND WHOLE BURNT OFFERINGS AND sacrifices FOR SIN” (which are offered according to the Law)

⁹then He said, “BEHOLD, I HAVE COME TO DO YOUR WILL.”

[And so] He does away with the first [covenant as a means of atoning for sin based on animal sacrifices] so that He may inaugurate and establish the second [covenant by means of obedience]. [Ps 40:6–8]

¹⁰And in accordance with this will [of God] we [who believe in the message of salvation] have been sanctified [that is, set apart as holy for God and His purposes] through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) once for all.

¹¹Every priest stands [at his altar of service] ministering daily, offering the same sacrifices over and over, which are never able to strip away sins [that envelop and cover us];

¹²whereas Christ, having offered the one sacrifice [the all-sufficient sacrifice of Himself] for sins for all time, SAT DOWN [signifying the completion of atonement for sin] AT THE RIGHT HAND OF GOD [the position of honor],

¹³waiting from that time onward UNTIL HIS ENEMIES ARE MADE A FOOTSTOOL FOR HIS FEET. [Ps 110:1]

¹⁴For by the one offering He has perfected forever and completely cleansed those who are being sanctified [bringing each believer to spiritual completion and maturity].

¹⁵And the Holy Spirit also adds His testimony to us [in confirmation of this]; for after having said,

¹⁶“THIS IS THE COVENANT THAT I WILL MAKE WITH THEM
AFTER THOSE DAYS, SAYS THE LORD:

I WILL IMPRINT MY LAWS UPON THEIR HEART,

AND ON THEIR MIND I WILL INSCRIBE THEM [producing an inward change],”

He then says,

¹⁷“AND THEIR SINS AND THEIR LAWLESS ACTS

I WILL REMEMBER NO MORE [no longer holding their sins against them].” [Jer 31:33, 34]

¹⁸Now where there is [absolute] forgiveness and complete cancellation of the penalty of these things, there is no longer any offering [to be made to atone] for sin.

POWERPOINT

Some people say they forgive us, but then remind us of whatever we did that hurt them. God never reminds us of our past sins, because He has forgotten them (see Heb. 10:17). When we are reminded of past sins, it is not God bringing them to our remembrance; the one who does that is Satan, the accuser of God's people.

¹⁹Therefore, believers, since we have confidence and full freedom to enter the Holy Place [the place where God dwells] by [means of] the blood of Jesus,

²⁰by this new and living way which He initiated and opened for us through the veil [as in the Holy of Holies], that is, through His flesh,

²¹and since we have a great and wonderful Priest [Who rules] over the house of God, ²²let us approach [God] with a true and sincere heart in unqualified assurance of faith, having had our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

²³Let us seize and hold tightly the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is reliable and trustworthy and faithful [to His word];

²⁴and let us consider [thoughtfully] how we may encourage one another to love and to do good deeds,

²⁵not forsaking our meeting together [as believers for worship and instruction], as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another; and all the more [faithfully] as you see the day [of Christ's return] approaching.

²⁶For if we go on willfully and deliberately sinning after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice [to atone] for our sins [that is, no further offering to anticipate],

Speak God's Word

I seize and hold tightly the confession of my hope without wavering, for He who promised is reliable, trustworthy, and faithful to His word.

| adapted from HEBREWS 10:23 |

²⁷but a kind of awful and terrifying expectation of [divine] judgment and THE FURY OF A FIRE and BURNING WRATH WHICH WILL CONSUME THE ADVERSARIES [those who put themselves in opposition to God]. [Is 26:11]

²⁸Anyone who has ignored and set aside the Law of Moses is put to death without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. [Deut 17:2–6]

²⁹How much greater punishment do you think he will deserve who has rejected and trampled under foot the Son of God, and has considered unclean and common the blood of the covenant that sanctified him, and has insulted the Spirit of grace [who imparts the unmerited favor and blessing of God]? [Ex 24:8]

³⁰For we know Him who said, “VENGEANCE IS MINE [retribution and the deliverance of justice rest with Me], I WILL REPAY [the wrongdoer].” And again, “THE LORD WILL JUDGE HIS PEOPLE.” [Deut 32:35, 36]

³¹It is a fearful and terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the living God [incurring His judgment and wrath].

³²But remember the earlier days, when, after being [spiritually] enlightened, you [patiently] endured a great conflict of sufferings, ³³sometimes by being made a spectacle, publicly exposed to insults and distress, and sometimes by becoming companions with those who were so treated.

³⁴For you showed sympathy and deep concern for those who were imprisoned, and you joyfully accepted the [unjust] seizure of your belongings and the confiscation of your property, conscious of the fact that you have a better possession and a lasting one [prepared for you in heaven].

³⁵Do not, therefore, fling away your [fearless] confidence, for it has a glorious and great reward.

³⁶For you have need of patient endurance [to bear up under difficult circumstances without compromising], so that when you have carried out the will of God, you may receive and enjoy to the full what is promised.

³⁷FOR YET IN A VERY LITTLE WHILE,

HE WHO IS COMING WILL COME, AND WILL NOT DELAY.

³⁸BUT MY RIGHTEOUS ONE [the one justified by faith] SHALL LIVE BY FAITH [respecting man’s relationship to God and trusting Him];

AND IF HE DRAWS BACK [shrinking in fear], MY SOUL HAS NO DELIGHT IN HIM. [Hab 2:3, 4]

³⁹But our way is not that of those who shrink back to destruction, but [we are] of those who believe [relying on God through faith in Jesus Christ, the Messiah] and by this confident faith preserve the soul.

11 NOW FAITH is the assurance (title deed, confirmation) of things hoped for (divinely guaranteed), and the evidence of things not seen [the conviction of their reality—faith comprehends as fact what cannot be experienced by the physical senses].

²For by this [kind of] faith the men of old gained [divine] approval.

³By faith [that is, with an inherent trust and enduring confidence in the power, wisdom and goodness of God] we understand that the worlds (universe, ages) were framed and created [formed, put in order, and equipped for their intended purpose] by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things which are visible.

⁴By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which it was testified of him that he was righteous (upright, in right standing with God), and God testified by accepting his gifts. And though he died, yet through [this act of] faith he still speaks. [Gen 4:3–10]

A Prayer To Renew Your

Mind

Thank You, God, for faith. It is the assurance and confirmation of things hoped for and divinely guaranteed. And it is the evidence of things not seen and the conviction of their reality. Faith comprehends as fact what cannot be experienced by the physical senses.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Expect Good Things from God

The fact that Abraham waited twenty-five years for the fulfillment of God's miraculous promise to him, never wavering in faith or doubting God's word (see Rom. 4:20–21) is amazing!

It's often difficult to believe God and hold on year after year waiting for His Word to come to pass. When people tell me sad stories, I encourage them to become positive and trust God. Some people listen and nod, and then they say the single word that negates it all: "But..." That's not the spirit we see in Abraham.

The Bible gives us promises, hope, and encouragement. Despite the adversity of our circumstances—and some people have absolutely terrible situations—God still promises good things to those who serve Him. Our sense of goodness, however, may not be the same as God's. Sometimes waiting is best because it helps develop the character of God in us.

The Lord chooses to do good to us and to give us joy; the devil chooses to do wrong and to make us miserable. We can remain patient and keep believing God's promises, or we can allow the enemy's words to fill our minds, make us miserable, and lead us astray.

Hebrews 11 is a chapter about the people of God who dared to believe His promises. It says in verse 6, "Without faith it is impossible to [walk with God and] please Him, for whoever comes [near] to God must [necessarily] believe that God exists and that He rewards those who [earnestly and diligently] seek Him."

The devil tries to convince us that the heroes of faith we read about in Hebrews 11 were special people, and that we don't have the kind of faith they did. But the truth is that we all have been given a degree of faith to do anything God calls us to do (see Rom. 12:3). It is simply not true that they were somehow different and more special than we are, because they were in fact people just like us! We are all special to God. He does not show partiality, giving faith to some and not to others. Each of us is equipped to do what we need to do in life. Abraham did believe, and we can too.

Don't give up! Your miraculous breakthrough is on its way!

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Dear Father in heaven, forgive me for allowing Satan to deceive me or make me think I'm unworthy of Your miracles. I am worthy because You made me worthy. You are the God of the impossible, and I ask You to help me wait on You and keep believing. Amen.

⁵By faith [that pleased God] Enoch was caught up and taken to heaven so that he would not have a glimpse of death; AND HE WAS NOT FOUND BECAUSE GOD HAD TAKEN HIM; for even before he was taken [to heaven], he received the testimony [still on record] that he had walked with God and pleased Him. [Gen 5:21–24]

⁶But without faith it is impossible to [walk with God and] please Him, for whoever comes [near] to God must [necessarily] believe that God exists and that He rewards those who [earnestly and diligently] seek Him.

⁷By faith [with confidence in God and His word] Noah, being warned by God about events not yet seen, in reverence prepared an ark for the salvation of his family. By this [act of obedience] he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness which comes by faith. [Gen 6:13–22]

⁸By faith Abraham, when he was called [by God], obeyed by going to a place which he was to receive as an inheritance; and he went, not knowing where he was going.

⁹By faith he lived as a foreigner in the promised land, as in a strange land, living in tents [as nomads] with Isaac and Jacob, who were fellow heirs of the same promise. [Gen 12:1–8]

¹⁰For he was [waiting expectantly and confidently] looking forward to the city which has foundations, [an eternal, heavenly city] whose architect and builder is God.

¹¹By faith even Sarah herself received the ability to conceive [a child], even [when she was long] past the normal age for it, because she considered Him who had given her the promise to be reliable and true [to His word]. [Gen 17:19; 18:11–

14; 21:2]

¹²So from one man, though he was [physically] as good as dead, were born as many descendants AS THE STARS OF HEAVEN IN NUMBER, AND INNUMERABLE AS THE SAND ON THE SEASHORE. [Gen 15:5, 6; 22:17; 32:12]

¹³All these died in faith [guided and sustained by it], without receiving the [tangible fulfillment of God's] promises, only having seen (anticipated) them and having welcomed them from a distance, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on the earth. [Gen 23:4; Ps 39:12]

¹⁴Now those who say such things make it clear that they are looking for a country of their own.

¹⁵And if they had been thinking of that country from which they departed [as their true home], they would have had [a continuing] opportunity to return.

¹⁶But the truth is that they were longing for a better country, that is, a heavenly one. For that reason God is not ashamed [of them or] to be called their God [even to be surnamed their God—the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob]; for He has prepared a city for them. [Ex 3:6, 15; 4:5]

¹⁷By faith Abraham, when he was tested [that is, as the testing of his faith was still in progress], offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises [of God] was ready to sacrifice his only son [of promise]; [Gen 22:1–10]

¹⁸to whom it was said, “THROUGH ISAAC YOUR DESCENDANTS SHALL BE CALLED.” [Gen 21:12]

¹⁹For he considered [it reasonable to believe] that God was able to raise Isaac even from among the dead. [Indeed, in the sense that he was prepared to sacrifice Isaac in obedience to God] Abraham did receive him back [from the dead] figuratively speaking.

²⁰By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau [believing what God revealed to him], even regarding things to come. [Gen 27:27–29, 39, 40]

²¹By faith Jacob, as he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and bowed in worship, leaning on the top of his staff. [Gen 48]

²²By faith Joseph, when he was dying, referred to [the promise of God for] the exodus of the sons of Israel [from Egypt], and gave instructions concerning [the burial of] his bones [in the land of the promise]. [Gen 50:24, 25; Ex 13:19]

²³By faith Moses, after his birth, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful and divinely favored child; and they were not afraid of the king's (Pharaoh's) decree. [Ex 1:22; 2:2; Acts 7:20]

²⁴By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, [Ex 2:10, 15]

²⁵because he preferred to endure the hardship of the people of God rather than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin.

²⁶He considered the reproach of the Christ [that is, the rebuke he would suffer for his faithful obedience to God] to be greater wealth than all the treasures of Egypt; for he looked ahead to the reward [promised by God].

²⁷By faith he left Egypt, being unafraid of the wrath of the king; for he endured [steadfastly], as seeing Him who is unseen. [Ex 2:15]

²⁸By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood [on the doorposts], so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch them (the firstborn of Israel). [Ex 12:21–30]

²⁹By faith the people [of Israel] crossed the Red Sea as though they were passing through dry land; but when the Egyptians attempted it they were drowned. [Ex 14:21–31]

³⁰By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they had been encircled for seven days [by Joshua and the sons of Israel]. [Josh 6:12–21]

³¹By faith Rahab the prostitute was not destroyed along with those who were disobedient, because she had welcomed the spies [sent by the sons of Israel] in peace. [Josh 2:1–21; 6:22–25]

³²And what more shall I say? For time will fail me if I tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets, [Judg 4; 5; 6–8; 11; 12; 13–16; 1 Sam 1–30; 2 Sam 1–24; 1 Kin 1; 2; Acts 3:24]

³³who by faith [that is, with an enduring trust in God and His promises] subdued kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promised blessings, closed the mouths of lions, [Dan 6]

³⁴extinguished the power of [raging] fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became mighty and unbeatable in battle, putting enemy forces to flight. [Dan 3]

³⁵Women received back their dead by resurrection; and others were tortured [to death], refusing to accept release [offered on the condition of denying their faith], so that they would be resurrected to a better life; [1 Kin 17:17–24; 2 Kin 4:25–37]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Right Response to Trials

I know people who have been sick or had other difficult problems for an extended period of time, yet they have the most beautiful attitudes. They never complain, are not grouchy, don't act as if the world owes them something, and don't blame God or even feel sorry for themselves. I also know people with similar circumstances who talk only about their illnesses and problems and how hard everything is for them. They are self-absorbed and often easily offended, bitter, and resentful.

Every situation in life requires making a decision about how we will respond. If we respond as God would, our trials are much easier to handle. Consider the "people of whom the world was not worthy" listed in Hebrews 11:35–40. I highly respect people who are able to be stable even when they are in tremendous pain and discomfort. They are wonderful examples to us all.

³⁶and others experienced the trial of mocking and scourging [amid torture], and even chains and imprisonment.

³⁷They were stoned [to death], they were sawn in two, they were lured with tempting offers [to renounce their faith], they were put to death by the sword; they went about wrapped in the skins of sheep and goats, utterly destitute, oppressed, cruelly treated

³⁸(people of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts and mountains and [living in] caves and holes in the ground.

³⁹And all of these, though they gained [divine] approval through their faith, did not receive [the fulfillment of] what was promised,

⁴⁰because God had us in mind and had something better for us, so that they [these men and women of authentic faith] would not be made perfect [that is, completed in Him] apart from us.

12 THEREFORE, SINCE we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses [who by faith have testified to the truth of God's absolute faithfulness], stripping off every unnecessary weight and the sin which so easily and cleverly entangles us, let us run with endurance and active persistence the race that is set before us,

POWERPOINT

Growing into the fullness of the person God intends you to be will take time. You will need to run your race with endurance and persistence (see Heb. 12:1), but you can enjoy each phase of growth and improvement along your journey. As long as you are pursuing God's perfect will for you, He is satisfied. It doesn't upset God if you have not arrived, but He does want you to press forward.

POWERPOINT

Hebrews 12:2 teaches us to look away from everything that will distract us from focusing on Jesus, the Author and the Perfecter of our faith. I believe that God plants goals, dreams, and visions into our heart, and we need to follow His guidance in order to see them brought to completion. Our enemy, the devil, seeks to prevent our progress by providing trials and problems that will distract us if we let them. I realize that we cannot completely ignore our problems. There are things that demand our attention, and we need to take care of them.

Let's learn to fulfill our responsibility, and cast our care on God.

²[looking away from all that will distract us and] focusing our eyes on Jesus, who is the Author and Perfecter of faith [the first incentive for our belief and the One who brings our faith to maturity], who for the joy [of accomplishing the goal] set before Him endured the cross, disregarding the shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God [revealing His deity, His authority, and the completion of His work]. [Ps 110:1]

³Just consider and meditate on Him who endured from sinners such bitter hostility against Himself [consider it all in comparison with your trials], so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

⁴You have not yet struggled to the point of shedding blood in your striving against sin;

⁵and you have forgotten the divine word of encouragement which is addressed to you as sons,

“MY SON, DO NOT MAKE LIGHT OF THE DISCIPLINE OF THE LORD,

AND DO NOT LOSE HEART and GIVE UP WHEN YOU ARE CORRECTED BY HIM;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Consider and Meditate on Jesus

Most of us think about quitting or giving up on our goals at some time, or perhaps several times, but it doesn't require any special talent to quit. Anyone can do that! We have the power of the Holy Spirit in us, and that means we have the ability to endure and see things through to the finish.

When you grow weary, think about Jesus and all that He suffered and endured in order to finish what His Father asked Him to do (see Heb. 12:3). Think about how we, along with multiplied millions of others, have benefitted from His perseverance. I am sure glad that Jesus didn't quit!

Be determined that you won't quit either, because your victory will not only bless you, but many others as well.

Something I have done in my mind at times when I wanted to quit was to consider that if I did quit, I would be right back where I started. I didn't like that option; therefore, I decided to press on and meditate on Jesus' example of perseverance.

God is in you, strengthening you, and I believe He will uphold you and keep you in the race. We all want to say at the end of our journey, "I have finished the race, I have kept the faith" (2 Tim. 4:7).

⁶FOR THE LORD DISCIPLINES and CORRECTS THOSE WHOM HE LOVES,

AND HE PUNISHES EVERY SON WHOM HE RECEIVES and WELCOMES [TO HIS HEART].” [Prov 3:11, 12]

⁷You must submit to [correction for the purpose of] discipline; God is dealing with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline?

⁸Now if you are exempt from correction and without discipline, in which all [of God’s children] share, then you are illegitimate children and not sons [at all].

⁹Moreover, we have had earthly fathers who disciplined us, and we submitted and respected them [for training us]; shall we not much more willingly submit to the Father of spirits, and live [by learning from His discipline]?

¹⁰For our earthly fathers disciplined us for only a short time as seemed best to them; but He disciplines us for our good, so that we may share His holiness.

¹¹For the time being no discipline brings joy, but seems sad and painful; yet to those who have been trained by it, afterwards it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness [right standing with God and a lifestyle and attitude that seeks conformity to God’s will and purpose].

¹²So then, strengthen hands that are weak and knees that tremble. [Is 35:3]

¹³Cut through and make smooth, straight paths for your feet [that are safe and go in the right direction], so that the leg which is lame may not be put out of joint, but rather may be healed.

¹⁴*Continually* pursue peace with everyone, and the sanctification without which no one will [ever] see the Lord.

¹⁵See to it that no one falls short of God's grace; that no root of resentment springs up and causes trouble, and by it many be defiled;

Speak God's Word

I continually pursue peace with everyone, and the sanctification without which no one will ever see the Lord.

| adapted from HEBREWS 12:14 |

¹⁶and [see to it] that no one is immoral or godless like Esau, who sold his own birthright for a single meal. [Gen 25:29–34]

¹⁷For you know that later on, when he wanted [to regain title to] his inheritance of the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no opportunity for repentance [there was no way to repair what he had done, no chance to recall the choice he had made], even though he sought for it with [bitter] tears. [Gen 27:30–40]

¹⁸For you have not come [as did the Israelites in the wilderness] to a mountain that can be touched and to a blazing fire, and to gloom and darkness and a raging windstorm,

¹⁹and to the blast of a trumpet and a sound of words [such that] those who heard it begged that nothing more be said to them. [Ex 19:12–22; 20:18–21; Deut 4:11, 12; 5:22–27]

²⁰For they could not bear the command, “IF EVEN A WILD ANIMAL TOUCHES THE MOUNTAIN, IT WILL BE STONED [to death].”

[Ex 19:12, 13]

²¹In fact, so terrifying was the sight, that Moses said, “I AM FILLED WITH FEAR and trembling.” [Deut 9:19]

²²But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to myriads of angels [in festive gathering],

²³and to the general assembly and assembly of the firstborn who are registered [as citizens] in heaven, and to God, who is Judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous (the redeemed in heaven) who have been made perfect [bringing them to their final glory],

²⁴and to Jesus, the Mediator of a new covenant [uniting God and man], and to the sprinkled blood, which speaks [of mercy], a better and nobler and more gracious message than the blood of Abel [which cried out for vengeance]. [Gen 4:10]

²⁵See to it that you do not refuse [to listen to] Him who is speaking [to you now]. For if those [sons of Israel] did not escape when they refused [to listen to] him who warned them on earth [revealing God’s will], how much less will we escape if we turn our backs on Him who warns from heaven? [Heb 2:1–4]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

We Need Spiritual Disciplines

Just as we need natural disciplines in our lives, such as discipline concerning work, appetites, finances, and so on, we also need spiritual disciplines, such as prayer, Bible study, giving, serving others, and confessing God's Word aloud.

As we discipline ourselves to do these things, they will become habits. Then we will see good results just as we see good results from any other discipline applied over a period of time. Discipline doesn't produce immediate joy, but it is an investment that will pay great dividends in due time —“afterwards it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness [right standing with God and a lifestyle and attitude that seeks conformity to God's will and purpose]” (Heb. 12:11). Discipline is wisdom, because a wise person always does now what he or she will be satisfied with later on in life.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Be Content with What You Have

Stability and contentment enable us to enjoy our lives. I have discovered that I enjoy myself more when I am stable and content, and I think other people enjoy me more this way too. I believe the same is true for you. Becoming emotionally stable and content is very important to a powerful life, and as you grow in these qualities, you'll find yourself strengthened as never before.

Paul said he learned how to be content in all circumstances (see Phil. 4:11). Likewise, you will have to learn in this area and begin believing you can be content “with what you have” (Heb. 13:5) before you actually see the fruit of it in your life. God’s Word states that we can and should speak of nonexistent things as if they already exist (see Rom. 4:17). Begin to think and say that you are content and emotionally stable. Confessing it will help you become that way.

²⁶His voice shook the earth [at Mount Sinai] then, but now He has given a promise, saying, “YET ONCE MORE I WILL SHAKE NOT ONLY THE EARTH, BUT ALSO THE [starry] HEAVEN.” [Hag 2:6]

²⁷Now this [expression], “Yet once more,” indicates the removal and final transformation of all those things which can be shaken—that is, of that which has been created—so that those things which cannot be shaken may remain. [Ps 102:26]

²⁸Therefore, since we receive a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude, and offer to God pleasing service and acceptable worship with reverence and awe;

²⁹for our God is [indeed] a consuming fire. [Deut 4:24]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, You have said that You will never under any circumstances desert me, nor give me up nor leave me without support, nor will You in any degree leave me helpless, nor will You forsake or let me down or relax Your hold on me. Thank You!

• adapted from Hebrews 13:5

13 LET LOVE of your fellow believers continue.

²Do not neglect to extend hospitality to strangers

[especially among the family of believers—being friendly, cordial, and gracious, sharing the comforts of your home and doing your part generously], for by this some have entertained angels without knowing it. [Gen 18:1–8; 19:1–3; Judg 6:11–24; 13:6–20]

³Remember those who are in prison, as if you were their fellow prisoner, and those who are mistreated, since you also are in the body [and subject to physical suffering].

⁴Marriage is to be held in honor among all [that is, regarded as something of great value], and the marriage bed undefiled [by immorality or by any sexual sin]; for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterous.

⁵Let your character [your moral essence, your inner nature] be free from the love of money [shun greed—be financially ethical], being content with what you have; for He has said, “I WILL NEVER [under any circumstances] DESERT YOU [nor give you up nor leave you without support, nor will I in any degree leave you helpless], NOR WILL I FORSAKE or LET YOU DOWN or RELAX MY HOLD ON YOU [assuredly not]!” [Josh 1:5]

POWERPOINT

Three times Hebrews 13:5–6 states emphatically that God will not leave us helpless. When the Lord says something once, we should believe He is serious. Saying it three times strongly emphasizes His promise to never leave us without support. I encourage you to meditate on these scriptures anytime fear comes against your mind concerning your future or how your needs will be met. God's Word has inherent power, and simply meditating on it makes you feel better. Faith comes by hearing God's Word. When Satan presents fear, run to the Word of God.

⁶So we take comfort and are encouraged and confidently say,

“THE LORD IS MY HELPER [in time of need], I WILL NOT BE AFRAID.

WHAT WILL MAN DO TO ME?” [Ps 27:1; 118:6]

⁷Remember your leaders [for it was they] who brought you the word of God; and consider the result of their conduct [the outcome of their godly lives], and imitate their faith [their conviction that God exists and is the Creator and Ruler of all things, the Provider of eternal salvation through Christ, and imitate their reliance on God with absolute trust and confidence in His power, wisdom, and goodness].

Speak God's Word

I take comfort and am encouraged and confidently say, "The Lord is my Helper in time of need. I will not be afraid. What will man do to me?"

| adapted from HEBREWS 13:6 |

⁸Jesus Christ is [eternally changeless, always] the same yesterday and today and forever.

⁹Do not be carried away by diverse and strange teachings; for it is good for the heart to be established and strengthened by grace and not by foods [rules of diet and ritualistic meals], which bring no benefit or spiritual growth to those who observe them.

¹⁰We have an altar from which those who serve the tabernacle (sacred tent) have no right to eat.

¹¹For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest as an offering for sin, are burned outside the camp. [Lev 16:27]

¹²Therefore Jesus also suffered and died outside the [city] gate so that He might sanctify and set apart for God as holy the people [who believe] through [the shedding of] His own blood.

¹³So, let us go out to Him outside the camp, bearing His contempt [the disgrace and shame that He had to suffer]. [Lev 16:27]

¹⁴For here we have no lasting city, but we are seeking the city which is to come.

¹⁵Through Him, therefore, let us at all times offer up to God a sacrifice of praise, which is the fruit of lips that thankfully acknowledge and confess and glorify His name. [Lev 7:12; Is 57:19; Hos 14:2]

POWERPOINT

Praise and thanksgiving from our mouth are powerful weapons against the enemy. Proverbs 18:21 teaches us that the power of life and death is in the tongue. We can speak life to ourselves and death to Satan's plan of destruction.

Words of praise and thanksgiving are devastating to the devil. He absolutely hates to hear a thankful person talking about the goodness of God. Let's use our words to give God thanks and praise (see Heb. 13:15)!

¹⁶Do not neglect to do good, to contribute [to the needy of the church as an expression of fellowship], for such sacrifices are always pleasing to God.

¹⁷Obey your [spiritual] leaders and submit to them

[recognizing their authority over you], for they are keeping watch over your souls and continually guarding your spiritual welfare as those who will give an account [of their stewardship of you]. Let them do this with joy and not with grief and groans, for this would be of no benefit to you.

¹⁸Keep praying for us, for we are convinced that we have a good conscience, seeking to conduct ourselves honorably [that is, with moral courage and personal integrity] in all things.

¹⁹And I urge all of you to pray earnestly, so that I may be restored to you soon.

²⁰Now may the God of peace [the source of serenity and spiritual well-being] who brought up from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood that sealed and ratified the eternal covenant, [Is 55:3; 63:11; Ezek 37:26; Zech 9:11]

²¹equip you with every good thing to carry out His will and strengthen you [making you complete and perfect as you ought to be], accomplishing in us that which is pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

²²I call on you, brothers and sisters, listen [patiently] to this message of exhortation and encouragement, for I have written to you briefly.

²³Notice that our brother Timothy has been released [from prison]. If he comes soon, I will see you [along with him].

²⁴Give our greetings to all of your [spiritual] leaders and to all of the saints (God's people). Those [Christians] from Italy send you their greetings.

²⁵Grace be with you all.

James

Approximately AD 48

The book of James mentions several key themes that are important for us to learn about and apply to our lives if we want to win the battle of the mind. James writes about such topics as joy in the midst of trials, wisdom, not being double-minded, perseverance during difficult times, resisting temptation, confessing our sins to fellow believers, faith, and effective prayer. In addition, James devotes many verses to the proper use of the tongue—explaining the dangers of using our words in negative or hurtful ways and the benefits of using our words in positive ways.

But James's primary message is that genuine faith in God always leads to good works. Are you looking for ways to serve God because of your love for Him and trust in Him? You can start by living your faith in practical ways as you do good works to help, encourage, and support people.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM JAMES:

We can have joy in trials because of what they produce—endurance leading to spiritual maturity (see James 1:2–4).

Ask God for wisdom, and He will give it to you (see James 1:5).

Words have power, so it is very important for us to watch what we say (see James 3:2–8).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM JAMES:

Pure and unblemished religion [as it is expressed in outward acts] in the sight of our God and Father is this: to visit and look after the fatherless and the widows in their distress, and to keep oneself uncontaminated by the [secular] world.
| James 1:27

[Speak in a manner that reflects our fear of God and profound respect for His precepts.] | James 3:10

Submit to [the authority of] God. Resist the devil [stand firm against him] and he will flee from you. | James 4:7

THE LETTER OF
JAMES

1 JAMES, A bond-servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ,

To the twelve [Hebrew] tribes [scattered abroad among the Gentiles] in the dispersion: Greetings (rejoice)!

²Consider it nothing but joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you fall into various trials.

³Be assured that the testing of your faith [through experience] produces endurance [leading to spiritual maturity, and inner peace].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Growing in Patience

Although being patient is challenging for most of us, the results of it are very good. Through patience and endurance we grow spiritually, and that is very important for us as God's children. Proverbs 18:14 says that when the spirit of a person is strong, it sustains him in bodily pain and trouble. Many Christians are weak in spirit rather than strong. When that is the case, they are not able to endure difficulty without moving into doubting God and perhaps becoming emotionally distraught.

Vine's Complete Expository Dictionary of Old and New Testament Words tells us that patience is a fruit of the spirit that only grows under trial. After all, how can patience grow if we never have to use it? I am sure your reaction to this is like mine, and you may be thinking, If I have to go through trials to get patience, I am not sure I want it! However, it is well worth it in the end. James 1:4 tells us that the patient man is completely developed, "lacking in nothing." Another translation says "wanting nothing." To be so content sounds very good to me, and probably does to you also.

God has a plan for each of our lives, and the path He uses to prepare us for that plan is not always short or easy. Exodus 13:17–18 says that God led the Israelites the long, hard way, because they were not yet ready for the wars they would have to fight. In order to possess all that God has for us, we will have to face enemies, just as the Israelites did. Like the Israelites, we must also trust God to prepare us in the best way possible.

Always remember that God is only good, and the way that He leads you is intended only for your good. Let patience do a complete work in you and don't give up, because good things are coming.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

All Positive

If we take our concerns to the Lord in prayer and then continue to worry about them, we are mixing a positive and a negative force. Prayer is a positive force, and worry is a negative force. If we add them together, we come up with zero. I don't know about you, but I don't want to have zero power, so I try not to mix prayer and worry.

God once impressed on my mind that many people operate with zero power because they constantly mix positives and negatives. James 1:6–7 talks about these kinds of believers. They have a positive confession for a little while, then a negative confession for a little while. They pray for a little while, and then they worry for a little while. They trust for a while, and then they are anxious for a while. As a result, they just go back and forth, never really making any progress.

Let's not magnify the bad; let's magnify the good! Let's make the good larger by talking about it and by being positive in our thoughts, in our attitudes, in our outlook, in our words, and in our actions.

Why not make a decision to stay in the positive by trusting God and refusing to worry? Practice being positive as each situation arises. Even if whatever is taking place at the moment is not so good, expect God to bring good out of it.

⁴And let endurance have its perfect result and do a thorough work, so that you may be perfect and completely developed [in your faith], lacking in nothing.

⁵If any of you lacks wisdom [to guide him through a decision or circumstance], he is to ask of [our benevolent] God, who gives to everyone generously and without rebuke or blame, and it will be given to him.

Speak God's Word

I will consider it nothing but joy whenever I fall into various trials. I am assured that the testing of my faith produces endurance, leading to spiritual maturity and inner peace. And I let endurance have its perfect result and do a thorough work, so that I may be perfect and completely developed in my faith, lacking in nothing.

| adapted from JAMES 1:2–4 |

⁶But he must ask [for wisdom] in faith, without doubting [God's willingness to help], for the one who doubts is like a billowing surge of the sea that is blown about and tossed by the wind.

⁷For such a person ought not to think or expect that he will receive anything [at all] from the Lord,

A Prayer To

Renew Your Mind

Lord, if I lack wisdom to guide me through a decision or circumstance, I will ask You for it. You give wisdom to everyone generously and without rebuke or blame, and You will give it to me if I ask in faith, without doubting Your willingness to help.

- adapted from James 1:5-6

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Open-Minded, Not Double- Minded

Many Christians are sure of one thing until something else happens, and then they flip-flop to the opposite opinion. They have become what James calls double-minded (see James 1:5–8). The moment they feel sure they’ve made the decision they plan to stick with, they begin to wonder if it was the correct one. They continually doubt and question their decisions.

This kind of behavior is not the same as being open-minded. To be open-minded means we’re willing to consider all sides of an issue. But eventually we have to sort through the evidence or the circumstances in life and say, “This is what I’m going to do,” and then stick with it.

Once we have made a solid decision, if we continue asking, “What if I made a mistake and chose the wrong thing?” it is a sign of double-mindedness. Too often, that kind of second-guessing is a tool that Satan uses to distract and prevent Christians from taking action.

For many years, I was the kind of double-minded person James wrote about. I didn't like being that way. It took so much energy to keep rethinking the same problems. But I was so afraid of making mistakes that I didn't know how to make good decisions. It took a long time before I realized that the devil had declared war against me, and that my mind was his personal battlefield.

Many of God's people fit this description. They believe they have made the right decision, but due to the fear of making a mistake, they end up making no decision, except the decision to be indecisive. This is where Satan has an open door to sneak in, torment believers, and even prevent them from walking in the will of God.

I recommend that you pray, ponder your options, weigh the good points about each one as well as the potential negative ones, and then make your best decision. As you go forward, you will quickly recognize whether your decision was correct or not. If you find that it isn't the right one, you can still make a change, learn from the experience, and keep going forward.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Dear Father, I've been double-minded and confused, giving Satan an advantage over me. Please forgive me. I ask You now, in faith, to give me the necessary wisdom and courage to be decisive. In Jesus' name, I pray. Amen.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Help me, Lord, to always be steadfast under trial and to persevere when tempted; for when I have passed the test and been approved, I will receive the victor's crown of life which You have promised to those who love You.

• adapted from James 1:12

⁸*being* a double-minded man, unstable and restless in all his ways [in everything he thinks, feels, or decides].

⁹Let the brother in humble circumstances glory in his high position [as a born-again believer, called to the true riches and to be an heir of God];

¹⁰and the rich man is to glory in being humbled [by trials revealing human frailty, knowing true riches are found in the grace of God], for like the flower of the grass he will pass away.

¹¹For the sun rises with a scorching wind and withers the grass; its flower falls off and its beauty fades away; so too will the rich man, in the midst of his pursuits, fade away. [Is 40:6, 7]

¹²Blessed [happy, spiritually prosperous, favored by God] is the man who is steadfast under trial and perseveres when tempted; for when he has passed the test and been approved, he will receive the [victor's] crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him.

¹³Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am being tempted by God" [for temptation does not originate from God, but from our own flaws]; for God cannot be tempted by [what is] evil, and He Himself tempts no one.

¹⁴But each one is tempted when he is dragged away, enticed and baited [to commit sin] by his own [worldly] desire (lust, passion).

¹⁵Then when the illicit desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and when sin has run its course, it gives birth to death.

¹⁶Do not be misled, my beloved brothers and sisters.

¹⁷Every good thing given and every perfect gift is from above; it comes down from the Father of lights [the Creator and Sustainer of the heavens], in whom there is no variation [no rising or setting] or shadow cast by His turning [for He is perfect and never changes].

¹⁸It was of His own will that He gave us birth [as His children] by the word of truth, so that we would be a kind of first fruits of His creatures [a prime example of what He created to be set apart to Himself—sanctified, made holy for His divine purposes].

19 Understand this, my beloved brothers and sisters. Let everyone be quick to hear [be a careful, thoughtful listener], slow to speak [a speaker of carefully chosen words and], slow to anger [patient, reflective, forgiving];

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Listen More Than You Talk

In James 1:19–20, God is telling us to listen more than we talk. Think about it: If God wanted us to be quick to speak and slow to listen, He would have created us with two mouths and only one ear!

God is also telling us not to easily become offended or angry. If you have a quick, bad temper, slow down and start listening more and talking less. Read everything you can find about managing anger. Repeat over and over in your mind: I am quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to anger. Trust God to help you manage the feelings of anger. It is vitally necessary for you to be able to control this emotion if you want to enjoy the life God has in mind for you.

²⁰for the [resentful, deep-seated] anger of man does not produce the righteousness of God [that standard of behavior which He requires from us].

²¹So get rid of all uncleanness and all that remains of wickedness, and with a humble spirit receive the word [of God] which is implanted [actually rooted in your heart], which is able to save your souls.

²²But prove yourselves doers of the word [actively and continually obeying God's precepts], and not merely listeners [who hear the word but fail to internalize its meaning], deluding yourselves [by unsound reasoning contrary to the truth].

²³For if anyone only listens to the word without obeying it, he is like a man who looks very carefully at his natural face in a mirror;

²⁴for once he has looked at himself and gone away, he immediately forgets what he looked like.

²⁵But he who looks carefully into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and faithfully abides by it, not having become a [careless] listener who forgets but an active doer [who obeys], he will be blessed and favored by God in what he does [in his life of obedience].

²⁶If anyone thinks himself to be religious [scrupulously observant of the rituals of his faith], and does not control his tongue but deludes his own heart, this person's religion is worthless (futile, barren).

²⁷Pure and unblemished religion [as it is expressed in outward acts] in the sight of our God and Father is this: to visit and look after the fatherless and the widows in their distress, and to keep oneself uncontaminated by the [secular] world.

2 MY FELLOW believers, do not practice your faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ with an attitude of partiality [toward people—show no favoritism, no prejudice, no snobbery].

²For if a man comes into your meeting* place wearing a gold ring and fine clothes, and a poor man in dirty clothes also comes in,

³and you pay special attention to the one who wears the fine clothes, and say to him, “You sit here in this good seat,” and you tell the poor man, “You stand over there, or sit down [on the floor] by my footstool,” ⁴have you not discriminated among yourselves, and become judges with wrong motives?

⁵Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters: has not God chosen the poor of this world to be rich in faith and [as believers to be] heirs of the kingdom which He promised to those who love Him?

⁶But you [in contrast] have dishonored the poor man. Is it not the rich who oppress and exploit you, and personally drag you into the courts of law?

⁷Do they not blaspheme the precious name [of Christ] by which you are called?

⁸If, however, you are [really] fulfilling the royal law according to the Scripture, “YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF [that is, if you have an unselfish concern for others and do things for their benefit]” you are doing well. [Lev 19:18]

⁹But if you show partiality [prejudice, favoritism], you are committing sin and are convicted by the Law as offenders.

¹⁰For whoever keeps the whole Law but stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of [breaking] all of it.

¹¹For He who said, “DO NOT COMMIT ADULTERY,” also said, “DO NOT MURDER.” Now if you do not commit adultery, but you murder, you have become guilty of transgressing the [entire] Law. [Ex 20:13, 14; Deut 5:17, 18]

¹²Speak and act [consistently] as people who are going to be judged by the law of liberty [that moral law that frees obedient Christians from the bondage of sin].

¹³For judgment will be merciless to one who has shown no mercy; but [to the one who has shown mercy] mercy triumphs [victoriously] over judgment.

¹⁴What is the benefit, my fellow believers, if someone claims to have faith but has no [good] works [as evidence]? Can that [kind of] faith save him? [No, a mere claim of faith is not sufficient—genuine faith produces good works.]

¹⁵If a brother or sister is without [adequate] clothing and lacks [enough] food for each day,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Faith Without Works Is Dead

James clearly states that faith without works is dead (see James 2:17). I believe that true faith always produces good works, yet we need to reconcile these verses with what Paul says so often about salvation through faith alone, and not by works (see Rom. 3:20; 5:1). I have seen people become overly confused because of these two viewpoints, which seem to be at odds. In reality, if we understand them properly, they do not cause a problem.

We are justified before God by faith alone, but we are justified before other people by works that are done by faith. In James 2:14–17, James asks how people in need can see our faith if we only wish them well but do nothing to help them. The point is, they cannot, which is often what causes unbelievers to think of Christians as hypocritical. God’s Word tells us we will be known by our fruit (see Matt. 12:33). Fruit can be seen and its impact can be felt, but our faith cannot be seen or felt if it has no fruit to back it up. Let’s be sure that we allow our faith to be completed by working with God to let it produce good things from which others can benefit.

¹⁶and one of you says to them, “Go in peace [with my blessing], [keep] warm and feed yourselves,” but he does not give them the necessities for the body, what good does that do?

¹⁷So too, faith, if it does not have works [to back it up], is by itself dead [inoperative and ineffective].

¹⁸But someone may say, “You [claim to] have faith and I have [good] works; show me your [alleged] faith without the works [if you can], and I will show you my faith by my works [that is, by what I do].”

¹⁹You believe that God is one; you do well [to believe that]. The demons also believe [that], and shudder and bristle [in awe-filled terror—they have seen His wrath]! [Deut 6:4; 11:13–21; Mark 12:29]

²⁰But are you willing to recognize, you foolish [spiritually shallow] person, that faith without [good] works is useless?

²¹Was our father Abraham not [shown to be] justified by works [of obedience which expressed his faith] when he offered Isaac his son on the altar [as a sacrifice to God]? [Gen 22:1–14]

²²You see that [his] faith was working together with his works, and as a result of the works, his faith was completed [reaching its maturity when he expressed his faith through obedience].

²³And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, “ABRAHAM BELIEVED GOD, AND THIS [faith] WAS CREDITED TO HIM [by God] AS RIGHTEOUSNESS and AS CONFORMITY TO HIS WILL,” and he was called the friend of God. [Gen 15:6; 2 Chr 20:7; Is 41:8]

²⁴You see that a man (believer) is justified by works and not by faith alone [that is, by acts of obedience a born-again believer reveals his faith].

²⁵In the same way, was Rahab the prostitute not justified by works too, when she received the [Hebrew] spies as guests and protected them, and sent them away [to escape] by a different route? [Josh 2:1–21]

Speak God's Word

I know that faith without works of obedience is dead.

| adapted from JAMES 2:26 |

²⁶For just as the [human] body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works [of obedience] is also dead.

3 NOT MANY[of you] should become teachers [serving in an official teaching capacity], my brothers and sisters, for you know that we [who are teachers] will be judged by a higher standard [because we have assumed greater accountability and more condemnation if we teach incorrectly].

²For we all stumble and sin in many ways. If anyone does not stumble in what he says [never saying the wrong thing], he is a perfect man [fully developed in character, without serious flaws], able to bridle his whole body and rein in his entire nature [taming his human faults and weaknesses].

³Now if we put bits into the horses' mouths to make them obey us, we guide their whole body as well.

POWERPOINT

James 3:5–6 shows how major problems are birthed by something as simple as wrong words—a tiny spark can cause an entire forest to catch fire, just as a single word can hurt many people. Once we have said something, we cannot take it back, so we should be very careful about what we say. If you have said hurtful or unkind things to others, I urge you to apologize, seek forgiveness, and begin to use right words in your life and your relationships.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Bridle and Rudder

James 3:3–4 gives us two examples of the power of words. First, the bit in the horse's mouth is a tiny piece of metal attached to the bridle, which forces the mighty horse to turn in any direction the rider directs. It is a little thing compared to a horse, which could weigh as much as 3,830 pounds. That's right! Although it is unusual, one horse actually weighed that much and was controlled by a tiny piece of metal. The bit actually puts pressure on the horse's tongue, which I think is amusing since God is using it as an example to teach us to understand the importance of the tongue.

The second example is a mighty ship. Some ships are ocean liners and can be city blocks in length, yet they are steered by a rudder that is very small in comparison to the huge ship. The message to us in James 3:3–4 is that our tongues and the words that roll over them are powerful enough to give direction to our entire lives. A great deal of the way our lives have turned out so far is a result of words—words we have spoken in the past or words that have been spoken to us.

It is comforting to know that I can change the direction of my life by changing my words, just as a horse's rider can change the direction of a horse or a ship's captain can change the course of a ship.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Just a Spark

A few spoken words may not seem like a big thing, but the Bible compares them to sparks that start huge forest fires. We have heard reports of millions of acres of forest destroyed because someone threw a lit cigarette on the ground. Such a little thing, but it caused terrible destruction. Do our words really have that much power? If we are going to believe God's Word, we have to believe that they do.

According to James 3:6, the tongue not controlled by God is unrighteous. It is set among our members (our body) and actually has the power to contaminate the whole body and set things in motion that bring devastating results. It can be used by hell itself to bring about things that only Satan would desire.

Thankfully, there is another side to this story. Through God's help, that same little tongue can be turned toward God and used for His great purposes on earth. It can be used to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ and to do great harm to Satan and the kingdom of darkness. It can be used for many good things, and even the bad things it has been used for in the past can be turned around for good. We can always overcome evil with good (see Rom. 12:21). Start right away speaking good things, and you will begin to see change.

⁴And look at the ships. Even though they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are still directed by a very small rudder wherever the impulse of the helmsman determines.

⁵In the same sense, the tongue is a small part of the body, and yet it boasts of great things.

POWERPOINT

Using our words in a way that tears down others is one of the strongest temptations we face.

We cannot tame our tongues without trusting God to convict us of sin anytime we start to say something that is not pleasing to Him (see James 3:8).

God will do His part, and we need to be committed to respond with obedience.

See [by comparison] how great a forest is set on fire by a small spark!

⁶And the tongue is [in a sense] a fire, the very world of injustice and unrighteousness; the tongue is set among our members as that which contaminates the entire body, and sets on fire the course of our life [the cycle of man's existence], and is itself set on fire by hell (Gehenna).

⁷For every species of beasts and birds, of reptiles and sea creatures, is tamed and has been tamed by the human race.

⁸But no one can tame the human tongue; it is a restless evil [undisciplined, unstable], full of deadly poison.

⁹With it we bless our Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made in the likeness of God.

¹⁰Out of the same mouth come both blessing and cursing. These things, my brothers, should not be this way [for we have a moral obligation to speak in a manner that reflects our fear of God and profound respect for His precepts].

Pray About Your Words

Do we realize the power that God has given us in the choice of our words? I don't think we do, for if we did, surely we would make better choices.

The issue of our words needs to become a matter of regular prayer, because no one can tame the tongue without God's help (see James 3:8). Hundreds of Scripture verses pertain to the tongue, the mouth, and words. I have most of them underlined in my Bible, and quite often I go through them and simply remind myself of the power of my words. Many of these verses are highlighted in this Bible for you, and I urge you to meditate on them often. I also pray about this area, asking God to let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart (thoughts) be acceptable to Him (see Ps. 19:14). Our words can help us or harm us in any area of life, so it's important to ask God to enable us to choose them wisely.

¹¹Does a spring send out from the same opening both fresh and bitter water?

¹²Can a fig tree, my brothers, produce olives, or a grapevine produce figs? Nor can salt water produce fresh.

¹³Who among you is wise and intelligent? Let him by his good conduct show his [good] deeds with the gentleness and humility of true wisdom.

¹⁴But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not be arrogant, and [as a result] be in defiance of the truth.

¹⁵This [superficial] wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly (secular), natural (unspiritual), even demonic.

¹⁶For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder [unrest, rebellion] and every evil thing and morally degrading practice.

¹⁷But the wisdom from above is first pure [morally and spiritually undefiled], then peace-loving [courteous, considerate], gentle, reasonable [and willing to listen], full of compassion and good fruits. It is unwavering, without [self-righteous] hypocrisy [and self-serving guile].

¹⁸And the seed whose fruit is righteousness (spiritual maturity) is sown in peace by those who make peace [by actively encouraging goodwill between individuals].

4 WHAT LEADS to [the unending] quarrels and conflicts among you? Do they not come from your [hedonistic] desires that wage war in your [bodily] members [fighting for control over you]?

²You are jealous and covet [what others have] and your lust goes unfulfilled; so you murder. You are envious and cannot obtain [the object of your envy]; so you fight and battle. You do not have because you do not ask [it of God]. [1 John 3:15]

Speak God's Word

*God gives me more and more grace to defy sin and live an obedient life that reflects both my faith and my gratitude for my salvation.
Therefore, it says, "God is opposed to the proud and haughty, but [continually] gives [the gift of] grace to the humble."*

| adapted from JAMES 4:6 |

³You ask [God for something] and do not receive it, because you ask with wrong motives [out of selfishness or with an unrighteous agenda], so that [when you get what you want] you may spend it on your [hedonistic] desires.

⁴You adulteresses [disloyal sinners—flirting with the world and breaking your vow to God]! Do you not know that being the world's friend [that is, loving the things of the world] is being God's enemy? So whoever chooses to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

⁵Or do you think that the Scripture says to no purpose that the [human] spirit which He has made to dwell in us lusts with envy? [Gen 6:5]

⁶But He gives us more and more grace [through the power of the Holy Spirit to defy sin and live an obedient life that reflects both our faith and our gratitude for our salvation]. Therefore, it says, “GOD IS OPPOSED TO THE PROUD and HAUGHTY, BUT [continually] GIVES [the gift of] GRACE TO THE HUMBLE [who turn away from self-righteousness].” [Prov 3:34]

Speak God's Word

I will submit to the authority of God. I will resist the devil and stand firm against him, and he will flee from me.

| adapted from JAMES 4:7 |

⁷So submit to [the authority of] God. Resist the devil [stand firm against him] and he will flee from you.

⁸Come close to God [with a contrite heart] and He will come close to you. Wash your hands, you sinners; and purify your [unfaithful] hearts, you double-minded [people].

⁹Be miserable and grieve and weep [over your sin]. Let your [foolish] laughter be turned to mourning and your [reckless] joy to gloom.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

More and More Grace

Vine's Complete Expository Dictionary of Old and New Testament Words says this about James 4:6: "‘But He giveth more grace’ (Greek, ‘a greater grace’). God will give even ‘a greater grace,’ namely, all that follows from humbleness and from turning away from the world." Our part in this is to make the decision to humble ourselves and turn away from the world; God's part is to provide the power (grace) to enable us to do it. Remember; the decision is ours; the power is God's.

The apostle James has been speaking of believers who are like adulteresses, having an illicit love affair with the world (see James 4:4). The Holy Spirit Who dwells in us yearns to be welcome in all areas of our lives. He is filled with a divine jealousy for our full attention and commitment. James goes on to say in verse 6 that the Holy Spirit gives us more grace (a greater grace) to overcome this evil tendency of unfaithfulness to Him. How wonderful it is to know that God gives the power to defeat all our evil tendencies, no matter what they are or how often they appear. Believing this truth and leaning on God will produce wonderful changes in us. It also gives us the freedom to live without the fear of being rejected by God because of our weaknesses while we are growing spiritually. Change comes little by little, and it is important to enjoy each change that comes, without being frustrated because we have not reached the next one yet.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Submit and Resist

Although people don't usually enjoy hearing or learning about Satan, we do have an enemy, and he is constantly on the prowl, looking for opportunities to steal, kill, and destroy (see John 10:10). According to James 4:7, we are expected to resist him.

I can't tell you how many years I heard only the second half of that scripture quoted: "Resist the devil... and he will flee from you." I had never really paid any attention to the first half of that verse, which says we are to submit ourselves to God.

We cannot overcome the enemy successfully if we do not submit to God, because the power to resist the devil is found in submitting to God.

If you want to gain victory over the enemy, it's necessary to walk in obedience to God and in submission to His Word.

¹⁰Humble yourselves [with an attitude of repentance and insignificance] in the presence of the Lord, and He will exalt you [He will lift you up, He will give you purpose].

¹¹Believers, do not speak against or slander one another. He who speaks [self-righteously] against a brother or judges his brother [hypocritically], speaks against the Law and judges the Law. If you judge the Law, you are not a doer of the Law but a judge of it.

¹²There is only one Lawgiver and Judge, the One who is able to save and to destroy [the one God who has the absolute power of life and death]; but who are you to [hypocritically or self-righteously] pass judgment on your neighbor?

¹³Come now [and pay attention to this], you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a city, and spend a year there and carry on our business and make a profit.”

Speak God's Word

I humble myself with an attitude of repentance and humility in the presence of the Lord, and He will exalt me. He will lift me up and give me purpose.

| adapted from JAMES 4:10 |

¹⁴Yet you do not know [the least thing] about what may happen in your life tomorrow. [What is secure in your life?] You are merely a vapor [like a puff of smoke or a wisp of steam from a cooking pot] that is visible for a little while and then vanishes [into thin air].

¹⁵Instead you ought to say, “If the Lord wills, we will live and we will do this or that.”

¹⁶But as it is, you boast [vainly] in your pretension and arrogance. All such boasting is evil.

¹⁷So any person who knows what is right to do but does not do it, to him it is sin.

5 COME [QUICKLY] now, you rich [who lack true faith and hoard and misuse your resources], weep and howl over the miseries [the woes, the judgments] that are coming upon you.

²Your wealth has rotted and is ruined and your [fine] clothes have become moth-eaten.

³Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against you and will consume your flesh like fire. You have stored up your treasure in the last days [when it will do you no good].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Plan for Tomorrow, Live Today

I recall a time when Dave and I were at a nice resort in Alabama and I was enjoying the needed rest so much that I started planning another trip to the same place for the next year. I had my mind made up that we would return the following year, when I sensed the Lord speaking, "You ought to be saying, 'Lord, if it is Your will, we will do that.'"

I was immediately convicted in my heart because the words I sensed were totally in line with James 4:15: "You ought to say, 'If the Lord wills, we will live and we will do this or that.'" The only way anything ever works out properly is if it is God's will, so seeking His will before making any plans is wise.

It is easy for us to boast about our plans (see James 4:16). We decide what we want and then expect God to make everything run smoothly. But God wants us to pray first and then plan!

None of us knows what's ahead. We can think and plan, but it's up to God to make those plans happen. The writer of Proverbs teaches us to acknowledge God in all of our ways and He will direct our path (see Prov. 3:6). I don't think we must have a divine word from God before making any decisions, but we do need to show enough humility to indicate that we definitely care what He wants and that we know nothing will work well without His approval.

⁴Look! The wages that you have [fraudulently] withheld from the laborers who have mowed your fields are crying out [against you for vengeance]; and the cries of the harvesters have come to the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. [1 Sam 1:3]

⁵On the earth you have lived luxuriously and abandoned yourselves to soft living and led a life of wanton pleasure [self-indulgence, self-gratification]; you have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter.

⁶You have condemned and have put to death the righteous man; he offers you no resistance.

⁷So wait patiently, brothers and sisters, until the coming of the Lord. The farmer waits [expectantly] for the precious harvest from the land, being patient about it, until it receives the early and late rains.

⁸You too, be patient; strengthen your hearts [keep them energized and firmly committed to God], because the coming of the Lord is near.

⁹Do not complain against one another, believers, so that you will not be judged [for it]. Look! The Judge is standing right at the door.

¹⁰As an example, brothers and sisters, of suffering and patience, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord [as His messengers and representatives].

¹¹You know we call those blessed [happy, spiritually prosperous, favored by God] who were steadfast and endured [difficult circumstances]. You have heard of the patient endurance of Job and you have seen the Lord's outcome [how He richly blessed Job]. The Lord is full of compassion and is merciful. [Job 1:21, 22; 42:10; Ps 111:4]

12 But above all, my fellow believers, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath; but let your yes be [a truthful] yes, and your no be [a truthful] no, so that you may not fall under judgment. [Matt 5:34–37]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Prayer Is Based on Faith, Not Feelings

The King James Version of James 5:16 says that for prayer to be effective it also needs to be fervent. However, if we misunderstand the word fervent, we may feel that we have to “work up” some strong emotion before we pray; otherwise, our prayers will not be effective.

For many years I believed this way, and perhaps you have been similarly confused or deceived. Let's look at some of the other translations of this verse that may make its meaning clearer: “effectual fervent prayer... avails much”; “exerts a mighty influence”; “has a powerful effect”; “the heartfelt and persistent prayer... can accomplish much.”

I believe that James 5:16 means that our prayers must be truly sincere, coming out of our hearts and not just our heads.

At times I experience a great deal of emotion in prayer. Sometimes I even cry. But more often than not I don't feel emotional. Believing prayer is not possible if we base the value of our prayers on feelings. I remember enjoying so much those prayer times when I could feel God's presence, and then wondering what was wrong during the times when I didn't feel anything. I have learned to leave all that in God's hands and to pray by faith, not being overly concerned about what I do or don't feel.

Trust that your earnest, heartfelt, and persistent prayer is effective and can accomplish much, because your faith is in Him, not in your own ability to pray eloquently.

¹³Is anyone among you suffering? He must pray. Is anyone joyful? He is to sing praises [to God].

¹⁴Is anyone among you sick? He must call for the elders (spiritual leaders) of the church and they are to pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord;

¹⁵and the prayer of faith will restore the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up; and if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven.

¹⁶Therefore, confess your sins to one another [your false steps, your offenses], and pray for one another, that you may be healed and restored. The heartfelt and persistent prayer of a righteous man (believer) can accomplish much [when put into action and made effective by God—it is dynamic and can have tremendous power].

¹⁷Elijah was a man with a nature like ours [with the same physical, mental, and spiritual limitations and shortcomings], and he prayed intensely for it not to rain, and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months. [1 Kin 17:1]

¹⁸Then he prayed again, and the sky gave rain and the land produced its crops [as usual]. [1 Kin 18:42–45]

¹⁹My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you strays from the truth and falls into error and [another] one turns him back [to God],

²⁰let the [latter] one know that the one who has turned a sinner from the error of his way will save that one's soul from death and cover a multitude of sins [that is, obtain the pardon of the many sins committed by the one who has been restored].

! REMEMBER, any time the enemy attacks your mind, the battle belongs to the Lord.

As Christians, we will suffer at times and for various reasons. We can suffer in ungodly ways—complaining about our circumstances, murmuring about other people, speaking angry or jealous words, or feeling defeated. We can also suffer in godly ways—ways that honor the Lord and bring glory to Him—and we learn about that in 1 Peter. It’s an encouraging letter filled with hope for anyone who is suffering or struggling.

When we go through difficulty, the enemy likes to take advantage of us. First Peter offers powerful instruction about hard times in our lives: “Be sober [well balanced and self-disciplined], be alert and cautious at all times. That enemy of yours, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion [fiercely hungry], seeking someone to devour. But resist him, be firm in your faith [against his attack—rooted, established, immovable]” (1 Peter 5:8–9).

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM 1 PETER:

Several ways to enjoy life include: speaking good things; pursuing peace with God, yourself, and others; and doing what is right (see 1 Peter 3:10–11).

Arm yourself for battle and prepare to win by being like-minded with Christ, choosing to suffer for doing what is right if necessary (see 1 Peter 4:1).

When you choose to humble yourself before God, He will exalt you when the time is right (see 1 Peter 5:6).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM 1 PETER:

Prepare your minds for action. | 1 Peter 1:13

Above all, have fervent and unfailing love for one another, because love covers a multitude of sins [it overlooks unkindness and unselfishly seeks the best for others]. | 1 Peter 4:8

Casting... all your cares [all your anxieties, all your worries, and all your concerns, once and for all] on Him, for He cares about you [with deepest affection, and watches over you very carefully]. | 1 Peter 5:7

THE FIRST LETTER OF PETER

1 PETER, AN apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Jesus Christ,

To those [elect—both Jewish and Gentile believers] who live as exiles, scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia [Minor], and Bithynia, who are chosen [Heb 13:14]

²according to the foreknowledge of God the Father by the sanctifying work of the Spirit to be obedient to Jesus Christ and to be sprinkled with His blood: May grace and peace [that special sense of spiritual well-being] be yours in increasing abundance [as you walk closely with God]. [John 14:27]

³Blessed [gratefully praised and adored] be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His abundant and boundless mercy has caused us to be born again [that is, to be reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, and set apart for His purpose] to an ever-living hope and confident assurance through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, [Matt 28:1–9; Mark 16:6; Luke 24:6; John 20:1–18]

⁴[born anew] into an inheritance which is imperishable [beyond the reach of change] and undefiled and unfading, reserved in heaven for you,

⁵who are being protected and shielded by the power of God through your faith for salvation that is ready to be revealed [for you] in the last time.

⁶In this you rejoice greatly, even though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been distressed by various trials, ⁷so that the genuineness of your faith, which is much more precious than gold which is perishable, even though tested and purified by fire, may be found to result in [your] praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

⁸Though you have not seen Him, you love Him; and though you do not even see Him now, you believe and trust in Him and you greatly rejoice and delight with inexpressible and glorious joy, ⁹receiving as the result [the outcome, the consummation] of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

¹⁰Regarding this salvation, the prophets who prophesied about the grace [of God] that was intended for you, searched carefully and inquired [about this future way of salvation], ¹¹seeking to find out what person or what time the Spirit of Christ within them was indicating as He foretold the sufferings of Christ and the glories [destined] to follow.

¹²It was revealed to them that their services [their prophecies regarding grace] were not [meant] for themselves and their time, but for you, in these things [the death, resurrection, and glorification of Jesus Christ] which have now been told to you by those who preached the gospel to you by the [power of the] Holy Spirit [who was] sent from heaven. Into these things even the angels long to look.

¹³So prepare your minds for action, be completely sober [in spirit—steadfast, self-disciplined, spiritually and morally alert], fix your hope completely on the grace [of God] that is coming to you when Jesus Christ is revealed.

¹⁴[Live] as obedient children [of God]; do not be conformed to the evil desires which governed you in your ignorance [before you knew the requirements and transforming power of the good news regarding salvation].

Speak God's Word

I prepare my mind for action, to be completely sober in spirit—steadfast, self-disciplined, spiritually and morally alert. I fix my hope completely on the grace of God that is coming to me when Jesus Christ is revealed.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Prepare Your Mind for Action

In the days when the apostle Peter said to “prepare your minds for action” (1 Pet. 1:13), men wore long, flowing robes that had to be “girded up” or “prepared” with belts about their waists in order to move quickly and take strenuous action. Peter’s words are a serious call to have a mind actively focused on important things.

If you do not discipline your mind to remain focused on what is important, the devil will cause it to wander aimlessly to other things. If you’ve allowed your mind to wander for long, it may be a habit. You may hardly be aware that it’s taking place and that the devil is taking advantage of it.

Lack of concentration can happen for various reasons, even health problems, and those reasons should be considered before automatically blaming the enemy for it. Sometimes a lack of concentration creates a lack of comprehension. Perhaps as you read the Bible, your mind engages somewhere else, and when you finish, you can’t recall anything you’ve read. Perhaps your mind constantly wanders during sermons and you have no idea what was said. If the enemy can rob you of the benefits of studying and attentively hearing God's Word, he has won some major skirmishes in the battle for your mind. This is why Peter wrote, "Prepare your minds for action."

We take action by confronting our wandering mind and disciplining it to focus on what's important. I recently read a shocking statement that said a goldfish can focus for nine seconds, and most humans can now only focus for eight seconds. That sounds rather severe, but in some cases, it may be true.

In conversation, when I realize my mind has wandered, I now ask the person to repeat what I missed. This kind of behavior not only interrupts the plan of the enemy but also brings victory over the problem. It demonstrates that I am determined to pay attention and not miss important things.

It's not easy to discipline your mind when it has been allowed to wander aimlessly, but you can make the necessary corrections. The devil would like to convince you that you can't help yourself, but when you consistently come against his bid for your mind, he is defeated, and you have won another battle.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Holy Spirit, I realize how quickly Satan distracts me and takes advantage of my mind. Thank You for giving me a good, clear mind. Help me overcome every temptation to lose my focus. Amen.

Speak God's Word

I live as an obedient child of God. I will not be conformed to the evil desires that governed me in my ignorance before I knew the requirements and transforming power of the good news regarding salvation. I will be set apart from the world by godly character and moral courage.

| adapted from 1 PETER 1:14–15

¹⁵But like the Holy One who called you, be holy yourselves in all your conduct [be set apart from the world by your godly character and moral courage];

¹⁶because it is written, “YOU SHALL BE HOLY (set apart), FOR I AM HOLY.” [Lev 11:44, 45; 19:2]

¹⁷If you address as Father, the One who impartially judges according to each one's work, conduct yourselves in [reverent] fear [of Him] and with profound respect for Him throughout the time of your stay on earth.

¹⁸For you know that you were not redeemed from your useless [spiritually unproductive] way of life inherited [by tradition] from your forefathers with perishable things like silver and gold,

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Jesus, that I have actually been purchased with Your precious blood, like that of a sacrificial lamb unblemished and spotless, the precious blood of Christ.

*adapted from 1
Peter 1:19*

¹⁹but [you were actually purchased] with precious blood, like that of a [sacrificial] lamb unblemished and spotless, the priceless blood of Christ. [Lev 22:20]

²⁰For He was foreordained (foreknown) before the foundation of the world, but has appeared [publicly] in these last times for your sake

²¹and through Him you believe [confidently] in God [the heavenly Father], who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are [centered and rest] in God.

²²Since by your obedience to the truth you have purified yourselves for a sincere love of the believers, [see that you] love one another from the heart [always unselfishly seeking the best for one another],

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Can Use You

Invite Jesus into every area of your life. Don't feel you have to hide your faults from Him; He knows all about them anyway. Besides, His strength is made perfect in our weaknesses (see 2 Cor. 12:9). Because God works through weak, imperfect people, so no one can take the credit that is due Him alone, it's important that you never doubt that God can use you.

First Peter 1:23 says, "You have been born again [that is, reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, and set apart for His purpose.]" The Lord doesn't see only what you are right now; He sees what you can become. He knows the plans He has for you, and they are plans for progress and success, not defeat and failure (see Jer. 29:11).

²³for you have been born again [that is, reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, and set apart for His purpose] not of seed which is perishable but [from that which is] imperishable and immortal, that is, through the living and everlasting word of God.

²⁴For,

“ALL FLESH IS LIKE GRASS, AND ALL ITS GLORY LIKE THE FLOWER OF GRASS.
THE GRASS WITHERS
AND THE FLOWER FALLS OFF,

²⁵BUT THE WORD OF THE LORD ENDURES FOREVER.”

And this is the word [the good news of salvation] which was preached to you. [Is 40:6–8]

2 SO PUT aside every trace of malice and all deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all slander and hateful speech;

²like newborn babies [you should] long for the pure milk of the word, so that by it you may be nurtured and grow in respect to salvation [its ultimate fulfillment],

³if in fact you have [already] tasted the goodness and gracious kindness of the Lord. [Ps 34:8]

⁴Come to Him [the risen Lord] as to a living Stone which men rejected and threw away, but which is choice and precious in the sight of God. [Ps 118:22; Is 28:16]

⁵You [believers], like living stones, are being built up into a spiritual house for a holy and dedicated priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices [that are] acceptable and pleasing to God through Jesus Christ.

⁶For this is contained in Scripture:

“BEHOLD, I AM LAYING IN ZION A CHOSEN STONE, A PRECIOUS (honored) CORNERSTONE,

AND HE WHO BELIEVES IN HIM [whoever adheres to, trusts in, and relies on Him] WILL NEVER BE DISAPPOINTED [in his expectations].” [Is 28:16]

⁷This precious value, then, is for you who believe [in Him as God’s only Son—the Source of salvation]; but for those who disbelieve,

“THE [very] STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REJECTED
HAS BECOME THE CHIEF CORNERSTONE,” [Ps 118:22]

⁸and,

“A STONE OF STUMBLING AND A ROCK OF OFFENSE”;

for they stumble because they disobey the word [of God], and to this they [who reject Him as Savior] were also appointed. [Is 8:14]

⁹But you are A CHOSEN RACE, A royal PRIESTHOOD, A CONSECRATED NATION, A [special] PEOPLE FOR God's OWN POSSESSION, so that you may proclaim the excellencies [the wonderful deeds and virtues and perfections] of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light. [Ex 19:5, 6]

¹⁰Once you were NOT A PEOPLE [at all], but now you are GOD'S PEOPLE; once you had NOT RECEIVED MERCY, but now you have RECEIVED MERCY. [Hos 2:23]

¹¹Beloved, I urge you as aliens and strangers [in this world] to abstain from the sensual urges [those dishonorable desires] that wage war against the soul.

¹²Keep your behavior excellent among the [unsaved] Gentiles [conduct yourself honorably, with graciousness and integrity], so that for whatever reason they may slander you as evildoers, yet by observing your good deeds they may [instead come to] glorify God in the day of visitation [when He looks upon them with mercy].

¹³Submit yourselves to [the authority of] every human institution for the sake of the Lord [to honor His name], whether it is to a king as one in a position of power,

¹⁴or to governors as sent by him to bring punishment to those who do wrong, and to praise and encourage those who do right.

¹⁵For it is the will of God that by doing right you may silence (muzzle, gag) the [culpable] ignorance and irresponsible criticisms of foolish people.

Speak God's Word

I will live in freedom. I will not use my freedom as a cover or pretext for evil, but I will use it and live as a bond-servant of God.

| adapted from 1 PETER 2:16 |

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Jesus, for personally carrying my sins in Your body on the cross, for willingly offering Yourself on it, as on an altar of sacrifice, so that I might become immune to the penalty and power of sin and live for righteousness. By Your wounds and because I believe, I have been healed.

• adapted from 1 Peter 2:24

¹⁶Live as free people, but do not use your freedom as a cover or pretext for evil, but [use it and live] as bond-servants of God.

¹⁷Show respect for all people [treat them honorably], love the brotherhood [of believers], fear God, honor the king.

¹⁸Servants, be submissive to your masters with all [proper] respect, not only to those who are good and kind, but also to those who are unreasonable.

¹⁹For this finds favor, if a person endures the sorrow of suffering unjustly because of an awareness of [the will of] God.

²⁰After all, what kind of credit is there if, when you do wrong and are punished for it, you endure it patiently? But if when you do what is right and patiently bear [undeserved] suffering, this finds favor with God.

²¹For [as a believer] you have been called for this purpose, since Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you may follow in His footsteps.

²²HE COMMITTED NO SIN, NOR WAS DECEIT EVER FOUND IN HIS MOUTH. [Is 53:9]

²³While being reviled and insulted, He did not revile or insult in return; while suffering, He made no threats [of vengeance], but kept entrusting Himself to Him who judges fairly.

²⁴He personally carried our sins in His body on the cross [willingly offering Himself on it, as on an altar of sacrifice], so that we might die to sin [becoming immune from the penalty and power of sin] and live for righteousness; for by His wounds you [who believe] have been healed.

²⁵For you were continually wandering like [so many] sheep, but now you have come back to the Shepherd and Guardian of your souls. [Is 53:5, 6]

3 IN THE same way, you wives, be submissive to your own husbands [subordinate, not as inferior, but out of respect for the responsibilities entrusted to husbands and their accountability to God, and so partnering with them] so that even if some do not obey the word [of God], they may be won over [to Christ] without discussion by the godly lives of their wives, [Eph 5:22]

²when they see your modest and respectful behavior [together with your devotion and appreciation—love your husband, encourage him, and enjoy him as a blessing from God].

³Your adornment must not be merely external—with interweaving and elaborate knotting of the hair, and wearing gold jewelry, or [being superficially preoccupied with] dressing in expensive clothes;

⁴but let it be [the inner beauty of] the hidden person of the heart, with the imperishable quality and unfading charm of a gentle and peaceful spirit, [one that is calm and self-controlled, not overanxious, but serene and spiritually mature] which is very precious in the sight of God.

⁵For in this way in former times the holy women, who hoped in God, used to adorn themselves, being submissive to their own husbands and adapting themselves to them;

⁶just as Sarah obeyed Abraham [following him and having regard for him as head of their house], calling him lord. And you have become her daughters if you do what is right without being frightened by any fear [that is, being respectful toward your husband but not giving in to intimidation, nor allowing yourself to be led into sin, nor to be harmed].

POWERPOINT

First Peter 3:3–4 is not implying that styling our hair, wearing jewelry, or having nice clothes is wrong or bad. It is simply saying that if we pay excessive attention to our appearance or other external things and ignore “the hidden person of the heart,” God is not pleased. Rather than merely seeking to be viewed as attractive in the eyes of the world, it would be far better for us to work with the Holy Spirit to improve our thoughts, emotions, attitudes, and motives—to work on the condition of our hearts.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Use Good Words

According to 1 Peter 3:10, we can enjoy life and see good days no matter what the circumstances may be—even in difficult times—as long as we know what to do with our words and conversations. If we keep from speaking evil, we are setting ourselves up for a good life. The words we choose to speak have a tremendous impact on the level of joy we experience.

Notice the words that make you happy when people speak them to you and start speaking them to others. Work cheerful, happy words into your conversations instead of talking excessively about problems and using negative, discouraging words such as hate, anger, bitter, jealous, give up, my problem, so tired, worn out, miserable, depressed, hopeless, and wretched. Instead, fill your vocabulary with words such as wonderful, beautiful, amazing, appreciate, thank you, fantastic, celebrate, good job, enthusiastic, great, huge, superb, hope, faith, believe, and love. Use these words and watch your level of joy and positivity rise.

⁷In the same way, you husbands, live with your wives in an understanding way [with great gentleness and tact, and with an intelligent regard for the marriage relationship], as with someone physically weaker, since she is a woman. Show her honor and respect as a fellow heir of the grace of life, so that your prayers will not be hindered or ineffective.

⁸Finally, all of you be like-minded [united in spirit], sympathetic, brotherly, kindhearted [courteous and compassionate toward each other as members of one household], and humble in spirit;

⁹and never return evil for evil or insult for insult [avoid scolding, berating, and any kind of abuse], but on the contrary, give a blessing [pray for one another's well-being, contentment, and protection]; for you have been called for this very purpose, that you might inherit a blessing [from God that brings well-being, happiness, and protection].

¹⁰For,

“THE ONE WHO WANTS TO ENJOY LIFE AND SEE GOOD DAYS [good—whether apparent or not],
MUST KEEP HIS TONGUE FREE FROM EVIL AND HIS LIPS FROM SPEAKING GUILF (treachery, deceit).

¹¹“HE MUST TURN AWAY FROM WICKEDNESS AND DO WHAT IS RIGHT.

HE MUST SEARCH FOR PEACE [with God, with self, with others] AND PURSUE IT EAGERLY [actively—not merely desiring it].

¹²“FOR THE EYES OF THE LORD ARE [looking favorably] UPON
THE RIGHTEOUS (the upright), AND HIS EARS ARE ATTENTIVE TO THEIR PRAYER (eager to answer),
BUT THE FACE OF THE LORD IS AGAINST THOSE WHO PRACTICE
EVIL.” [Ps 34:12–16]

¹³Now who is there to hurt you if you become enthusiastic for what is good?

¹⁴But even if you should suffer for the sake of righteousness [though it is not certain that you will], you are still blessed [happy, to be admired and favored by God]. DO NOT BE AFRAID OF THEIR INTIMIDATING THREATS, NOR BE TROUBLED or DISTURBED [by their opposition].

¹⁵But in your hearts set Christ apart [as holy—acknowledging Him, giving Him first place in your lives] as Lord. Always be ready to give a [logical] defense to anyone who asks you to account for the hope and confident assurance [elicited by faith] that is within you, yet [do it] with gentleness and respect. [Is 8:12, 13]

¹⁶And see to it that your conscience is entirely clear, so that every time you are slandered or falsely accused, those who attack or disparage your good behavior in Christ will be shamed [by their own words].

¹⁷For it is better that you suffer [unjustly] for doing what is right, if that should be God's will, than [to suffer justly] for doing wrong.

¹⁸For indeed Christ died for sins once for all, the Just and Righteous for the unjust and unrighteous [the Innocent for the guilty] so that He might bring us to God, having been put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the Spirit;

¹⁹in which He also went and preached to the spirits now in prison,

²⁰who once were disobedient, when the great patience of God was waiting in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight persons [Noah's family], were brought safely through the water. [Gen 6–8]

²¹Corresponding to that [rescue through the flood], baptism [which is an expression of a believer's new life in Christ] now saves you, not by removing dirt from the body, but by an appeal to God for a good (clear) conscience, [demonstrating what you believe to be yours] through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,

²²who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God [that is, the place of honor and authority], with [all] angels and authorities and powers made subservient to Him.

4 THEREFORE, SINCE Christ suffered in the flesh [and died for us], arm yourselves [like warriors] with the same purpose [being willing to suffer for doing what is right and pleasing God], because whoever has suffered in the flesh [being like-minded with Christ] is done with [intentional] sin [having stopped pleasing the world],

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Pursue Peaceful Relationships

The Bible is a book about relationships and it has a great deal to say about our relationship with God. Everything starts with the development of our relationship with the Father through His Son, Jesus Christ. God's Word also talks extensively about our relationships with other people. Teachings on love, proper attitudes, serving others, and giving—as well as on the importance of having a proper attitude toward ourselves—abound.

First Peter 3:11 instructs us to desire peaceful relations with God, with ourselves, and with one another. It actually says we are not merely to desire them but to pursue and go after them. Receive God's love and develop a good relationship with yourself. Value yourself and realize that you are created in God's image and that He delights in you. When you have a good relationship of love and acceptance with the Father and with yourself, having good relationships with other people will be much easier.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Love Covers a Multitude of Sins

One of the most valuable and beautiful things you can do is to love others (see John 13:35). The Bible says, “Above all, have fervent and unfailing love for one another, because love covers a multitude of sins [it overlooks unkindness and unselfishly seeks the best for others]” (1 Pet. 4:8). We can purpose to think about the good things we find in all the people we know, and as we do, our attitudes toward them will improve.

Often we think about what is wrong with people and what we don't like about them. Focusing on people's faults is not showing love to them. We can choose to pray for them concerning any weaknesses they may have, and to pray for ourselves, that God will help us in our weaknesses also.

Focus on positive, loving thoughts about people. Then when they do something you don't like, you are already so full of good thoughts about them that it is easy to just let it go.

²so that he can no longer spend the rest of his natural life living for human appetites and desires, but [lives] for the will and purpose of God.

³For the time already past is [more than] enough for doing what the [unsaved] Gentiles like to do—living [unrestrained as you have done] in a course of [shameless] sensuality, lusts, drunkenness, carousing, drinking parties, and wanton idolatries.

⁴In [connection with] all this, they [the unbelievers] are resentful and surprised that you do not [think like them, value their values and] run [hand in hand] with them into the same excesses of dissipation and immoral freedom, and they criticize and abuse and ridicule you and make fun of your values.

⁵But they will [have to] give an account to Him who is ready to judge and pass sentence on the living and the dead.

⁶For this is why the good news [of salvation] was preached [in their lifetimes] even to those who are dead, that though they were judged in the flesh as men are, they may live in the spirit according to [the will and purpose of] God.

⁷The end and culmination of all things is near. Therefore, be sound-minded and self-controlled for the purpose of prayer [staying balanced and focused on the things of God so that your communication will be clear, reasonable, specific and pleasing to Him.]

⁸Above all, have fervent and unfailing love for one another, because love covers a multitude of sins [it overlooks unkindness and unselfishly seeks the best for others]. [Prov 10:12]

⁹Be hospitable to one another without complaint.

¹⁰Just as each one of you has received a special gift [a spiritual talent, an ability graciously given by God], employ it in serving one another as [is appropriate for] good stewards of God's multi-faceted grace [faithfully using the diverse, varied gifts and abilities granted to Christians by God's unmerited favor].

¹¹Whoever speaks [to the congregation], is to do so as one who speaks the oracles (utterances, the very words) of God. Whoever serves [the congregation] is to do so as one who serves by the strength which God [abundantly] supplies, so that in all things God may be glorified [honored and magnified] through Jesus Christ, to whom belongs the glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

¹²Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal which is taking place to test you [that is, to test the quality of your faith], as though something strange or unusual were happening to you.

¹³But insofar as you are sharing Christ's sufferings, keep on rejoicing, so that when His glory [filled with His radiance and splendor] is revealed, you may rejoice with great joy.

¹⁴If you are insulted and reviled for [bearing] the name of Christ, you are blessed [happy, with life-joy and comfort in God's salvation regardless of your circumstances], because the Spirit of glory and of God is resting on you [and indwelling you —He whom they curse, you glorify]. [Is 11:2]

¹⁵Make sure that none of you suffers as a murderer, or a thief, or any sort of criminal [in response to persecution], or as a troublesome meddler interfering in the affairs of others;

¹⁶but if anyone suffers [ill-treatment] as a Christian [because of his belief], he is not to be ashamed, but is to glorify God [because he is considered worthy to suffer] in this name.

¹⁷For it is the time [destined] for judgment to begin with the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will the outcome be for those who do not respect or believe or obey the gospel of God?

¹⁸AND IF IT IS DIFFICULT FOR THE RIGHTEOUS TO BE SAVED, WHAT WILL BECOME OF THE GODLESS AND THE SINNER? [Prov 11:31]

¹⁹Therefore, those who are ill-treated and suffer in accordance with the will of God must [continue to] do right and commit their souls [for safe-keeping] to the faithful Creator.

5 THEREFORE, I strongly urge the elders among you [pastors, spiritual leaders of the church], as a fellow elder and as an eyewitness [called to testify] of the sufferings of Christ, as well as one who shares in the glory that is to be revealed:

²shepherd and guide and protect the flock of God among you, exercising oversight not under compulsion, but voluntarily, according to the will of God; and not [motivated] for shameful gain, but with wholehearted enthusiasm;

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Help me, Lord, to always humble myself under the mighty hand of God and set aside self-righteous pride, so that You may exalt me to a place of honor in Your service at the appropriate time.

• adapted from 1 Peter 5:6

³not lording it over those assigned to your care [do not be arrogant or overbearing], but be examples [of Christian living] to the flock [set a pattern of integrity for your congregation].

⁴And when the Chief Shepherd (Christ) appears, you will receive the [conqueror's] unfading crown of glory.

⁵Likewise, you younger men [of lesser rank and experience], be subject to your elders [seek their counsel]; and all of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another [tie on the servant's apron], for GOD IS OPPOSED TO THE PROUD [the disdainful, the presumptuous, and He defeats them], BUT HE GIVES GRACE TO THE HUMBLE. [Prov 3:34]

⁶Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God [set aside self-righteous pride], so that He may exalt you [to a place of honor in His service] at the appropriate time, [John 3:30]

⁷casting all your cares [all your anxieties, all your worries, and all your concerns, once and for all] on Him, for He cares about you [with deepest affection, and watches over you very carefully]. [Ps 55:22]

⁸Be sober [well balanced and self-disciplined], be alert and cautious at all times. That enemy of yours, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion [fiercely hungry], seeking someone to devour.

Speak God's Word

I will cast all my cares—all my anxieties, all my worries, and all my concerns—once and for all on the Lord, for He cares about me with deepest affection, and watches over me very carefully.

| adapted from 1 PETER 5:7 |

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Know God's Love, Then Resist the Enemy

We know that the devil “prowls around like a roaring lion [fiercely hungry], seeking someone to devour,” and that we must resist him daily (1 Pet. 5:8–9), but the Christian life is not just about battles. That’s not the picture I want to present. The Christian life is one of joy and peace. God gives us a great sense of fulfillment, and we’re at rest because we know we honor Him by the way we live.

Before Peter urged his readers to be vigilant, he said to cast “all your cares [all your anxieties, all your worries, and all your concerns, once and for all] on Him, for He cares about you [with deepest affection, and watches over you very carefully]” (v. 7). As we fight the battles of the mind, it’s important to remind ourselves of God’s love for us. Because God cares, we can trust Him to take care of us.

We need that as part of our foundation. We do have faith; but Satan tries to destroy our faith with lies such as, “If God really cared about you, would He make you go through this trial?” If he can make you think you’re not loved or that God doesn’t have your best interests at heart, he can plant tiny seeds of unbelief. God wants you to remain strong.

The problems that strike our lives are not what cause us to turn away from God. No, it’s our reaction to those situations that makes the difference. When struggles, trials, and hardships come your way, you have a choice. You can heed Peter’s words and give God your cares, worries, and concerns. No matter how dark the night or how evil the situation, remind yourself that God is not only present with you in those situations, He also loves you and will provide for you.

Your job is to be vigilant during those difficult times. You can rejoice in God’s love and blessings when all is going well—and that’s what God wants you to do. But in the dark moments, you need to remind yourself that the devil stalks you and wants to defeat you. And the more faithful you are, the more you have to be prepared to resist him and his lies of unbelief.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Heavenly Father, the enemy may seek to devour me, but I cast my cares on You, trust in Your love for me, and resist him. Thank You for caring for me and leading me to victory over the enemy. Amen.

POWERPOINT

The implication of 1 Peter 5:8 is that the enemy seeks those whom he may devour, meaning the people who will allow him to destroy them. When he tries to attack someone, his success is never guaranteed. He will only be able to hurt them if they let him. The only power Satan has is the power people give him. When you are attacked, stay at peace and speak the Word. If the enemy cannot upset you and sees you standing firm on God's Word, he cannot defeat you.

⁹But resist him, be firm in your faith [against his attack—rooted, established, immovable], knowing that the same experiences of suffering are being experienced by your brothers and sisters throughout the world. [You do not suffer alone.]

¹⁰After you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace [who imparts His blessing and favor], who called you to His own eternal glory in Christ, will Himself complete, confirm, strengthen, and establish you [making you what you ought to be].

¹¹To Him be dominion (power, authority, sovereignty) forever and ever. Amen.

¹²By Silvanus, our faithful brother (as I consider him), I have written to you briefly, to counsel and testify that this is the true grace [the undeserved favor] of God. Stand firm in it!

¹³She [the church] who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you greetings, and so does my son [in the faith], Mark.

¹⁴Greet one another with a kiss of love.

To all of you who are in Christ, may there be peace.

Speak God's Word

I will be sober, well balanced and self-disciplined, and I will be alert and cautious at all times because that enemy of mine, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion, fiercely hungry, seeking to devour me. I will resist him, firm in my faith against his attack.

2 Peter

Author: | Peter
Date: | AD 65–68

At the time Peter wrote this book, people were exposed to false teaching concerning Jesus' second coming, and Peter did not want them to be deceived. One of Peter's main goals in writing 2 Peter was to help establish people in the truth. Some people had never heard the truth, so he introduced them to it. Others knew the truth, but were not strong in it and needed to be encouraged.

The enemy is a master deceiver. He orchestrated the deception that was rampant in Peter's day, and he is behind the deception that attempts to ensnare you and me. Nothing will help you defeat deception like the truth of God's Word. I cannot urge you strongly enough to read His Word, study His Word, meditate on His Word, and apply His Word to your life. In that way, you will saturate your heart and mind with truth and strengthen yourself against deception.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM 2 PETER:

When we exercise our faith and apply ourselves to God's promises, we develop the character qualities necessary for productive living (see 2 Peter 1:5–8).

Allow your behavior to reflect your relationship with God, and others will be led to Him as they see how you live your life (see 2 Peter 1:10–11).

Be on guard against spiritual error and be steadfast in your mind, growing in the grace and knowledge of the Lord (see 2 Peter 3:17–18).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM 2 PETER:

His divine power has bestowed on us [absolutely] everything necessary for [a dynamic spiritual] life and godliness, through true and personal knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence. | 2 Peter 1:3

[Learn to unselfishly seek the best for others and to do things for their benefit.] | 2 Peter 1:7

Therefore, [let me warn you] beloved, knowing these things beforehand, be on your guard so that you are not carried away by the error of unprincipled men [who distort doctrine] and fall from your own steadfastness [of mind, knowledge, truth, and faith]. | 2 Peter 3:17

THE SECOND LETTER OF PETER

1 SIMON PETER, a bond-servant and apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Jesus Christ,

To those who have received and possess [by God's will] a precious faith of the same kind as ours, by the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ:

²Grace and peace [that special sense of spiritual well-being] be multiplied to you in the [true, intimate] knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

³For His divine power has bestowed on us [absolutely] everything necessary for [a dynamic spiritual] life and godliness, through true and personal knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence.

⁴For by these He has bestowed on us His precious and magnificent promises [of inexpressible value], so that by them you may escape from the immoral freedom that is in the world because of disreputable desire, and become sharers of the divine nature.

⁵For this very reason, applying your diligence [to the divine promises, make every effort] in [exercising] your faith to, develop moral excellence, and in moral excellence, knowledge (insight, understanding),

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, God, that Your divine power has bestowed on me everything necessary for a dynamic spiritual life and godliness, through true and personal knowledge of You who have called me by Your own glory and excellence.

• adapted from 2 Peter 1:3

⁶and in your knowledge, self-control, and in your self-control, steadfastness, and in your steadfastness, godliness, ⁷and in your godliness, brotherly affection, and in your brotherly affection, [develop Christian] love [that is, learn to unselfishly seek the best for others and to do things for their benefit].

⁸For as these qualities are yours and are increasing [in you as you grow toward spiritual maturity], they will keep you from being useless and unproductive in regard to the true knowledge and greater understanding of our Lord Jesus Christ.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Has Shared His Nature

The devil tries to tell us that we can't be like God—we can't be merciful and gracious; we can't have joy; we can't be slow to anger and quick to forgive. But the Bible says God has shared His divine nature with us (see 2 Pet. 1:4); it is in us, thus we can develop it and express it.

Don't listen to the devil's lies. Believe instead the promises of God: You can imitate God's nature; you can have unspeakable joy; you can be merciful, never holding a grudge. Fill your thoughts and words with God's promises. Apply the truth of His Word to your daily life, and you will finish your course with joy (see Acts 20:24).

⁹For whoever lacks these qualities is blind—shortsighted [closing his spiritual eyes to the truth], having become oblivious to the fact that he was cleansed from his old sins.

¹⁰Therefore, believers, be all the more diligent to make certain about His calling and choosing you [be sure that your behavior reflects and confirms your relationship with God]; for by doing these things [actively developing these virtues], you will never stumble [in your spiritual growth and will live a life that leads others away from sin];

¹¹for in this way entry into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be abundantly provided to you.

¹²Therefore, I will always be ready to remind you of these things, even though you already know them and are established in the truth which is held firmly in your grasp.

¹³I think it right, as long as I am in this earthly tent, to inspire you by reminding you, ¹⁴knowing that the laying aside of this earthly tent of mine is imminent, as our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me.

¹⁵Moreover, I will diligently endeavor [to see to it] that even after my departure you will be able, at all times, to call these things to mind.

¹⁶For we did not follow cleverly devised stories or myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of His majesty [His grandeur, His authority, His sovereignty].

¹⁷For when He was invested with honor and [the radiance of the Shekinah] glory from God the Father, such a voice as this came to Him from the [splendid] Majestic Glory [in the bright cloud that overshadowed Him, saying], “This is My Son, My Beloved Son in whom I am well-pleased and delighted”—[Matt 17:5]

¹⁸and we [actually] heard this voice made from heaven when we were together with Him on the holy mountain. [Matt 17:6]

¹⁹So we have the prophetic word made more certain. You do well to pay [close] attention to it as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and light breaks through the gloom and the morning star arises in your hearts. [Num 24:17]

²⁰But understand this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture is a matter of or comes from one’s own [personal or special] interpretation,

²¹for no prophecy was ever made by an act of human will, but men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

2 BUT [in those days] false prophets arose among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will subtly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing swift destruction on themselves.

²Many will follow their shameful ways, and because of them the way of truth will be maligned.

³And in their greed they will exploit you with false arguments and twisted doctrine. Their sentence [of condemnation which God has decreed] from a time long ago is not idle [but is still in force], and their destruction and deepening misery is not asleep [but is on its way].

⁴For if God did not [even] spare angels that sinned, but threw them into hell and sent them to pits of gloom to be kept [there] for judgment;

⁵and if He did not spare the ancient world, but protected Noah, a preacher of righteousness, with seven others, when He brought [the judgment of] a flood upon the world of the ungodly; [Gen 6-8; 1 Pet 3:20]

⁶and if He condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to destruction by reducing them to ashes, having made them an example to those who would live ungodly lives thereafter; [Gen 19:24]

⁷and if He rescued righteous Lot, who was tormented by the immoral conduct of unprincipled and ungodly men [Gen

19:16, 29]

⁸(for that just man, while living among them, felt his righteous soul tormented day after day by what he saw and heard of their lawless acts),

⁹then [in light of the fact that all this is true, be sure that] the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trial, and how to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment, ¹⁰and especially those who indulge in the corrupt passions of the sin nature, and despise authority.

Presumptuous and reckless, self-willed and arrogant [creatures, despising the majesty of the Lord], they do not tremble when they revile angelic majesties,

¹¹whereas even angels who are superior in might and power do not bring a reviling (defaming) accusation against them before the Lord. [Jude 8]

¹²But these [false teachers], like unreasoning animals, [mere] creatures of instinct, born to be captured and destroyed, reviling things they do not understand, will also perish in their own corruption [in their destroying they will be destroyed], ¹³suffering wrong [destined for punishment] as the wages of doing wrong. They count it a delight to revel in the daytime [living luxuriously]. They are stains and blemishes [on mankind], reveling in their deceptions even as they feast with you.

¹⁴They have eyes full of adultery, constantly looking for sin, enticing and luring away unstable souls. Having hearts trained in greed, [they are] children of a curse.

¹⁵Abandoning the straight road [that is, the right way to live], they have gone astray; they have followed the way of [the false teacher] Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the reward of wickedness; [Num 22:5, 7]

¹⁶but he was rebuked for his own transgression: a mute donkey spoke with a man's voice and restrained the prophet's madness. [Num 22:21–31]

¹⁷These [false teachers] are springs without water and mists driven by a tempest, for whom is reserved the gloom of black darkness.

¹⁸For uttering arrogant words of vanity [pompous words disguised to sound scholarly or profound, but meaning nothing and containing no spiritual truth], they beguile and lure using lustful desires, by sensuality, those who barely escape from the ones who live in error.

¹⁹They promise them liberty, when they themselves are the slaves of depravity—for by whatever anyone is defeated and overcome, to that [person, thing, philosophy, or concept] he is continually enslaved.

²⁰For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world by [personal] knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and are overcome, their last condition has become worse for them than the first.

²¹For it would have been better for them not to have [personally] known the way of righteousness, than to have known it and then to have turned back from the holy commandment [verbally] handed on to them.

²²The thing spoken of in the true proverb has happened to them, “THE DOG RETURNS TO HIS OWN VOMIT,” and, “A sow is washed only to wallow [again] in the mire.” [Prov 26:11]

3 BELOVED, I am now writing you this second letter. In this [as in the first one], I am stirring up your untainted mind to remind you, ²that you should remember the words spoken in the past [about the future] by the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior given by your apostles [His personally chosen representatives].

³First of all, know [without any doubt] that mockers will come in the last days with their mocking, following after their own human desires

⁴and saying, “Where is the promise of His coming [what has become of it]? For ever since the fathers fell asleep [in death], all things have continued [exactly] as they did from the beginning of creation.”

⁵For they willingly forget [the fact] that the heavens existed long ago by the word of God, and the earth was formed out of water and by water,

⁶through which the world at that time was destroyed by being flooded with water. [Gen 1:6–8; 7:11]

⁷But by His word the present heavens and earth are being reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly people.

⁸Nevertheless, do not let this one fact escape your notice, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years is like one day. [Ps 90:4]

⁹The Lord does not delay [as though He were unable to act] and is not slow about His promise, as some count slowness, but is [extraordinarily] patient toward you, not wishing for any to perish but for all to come to repentance.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I know, Lord, that You do not delay, as though You are unable to act, and You are not slow about Your promise, as some count slowness. But You are extraordinarily patient, not willing for any to perish but for all to come to repentance.

• adapted from 2 Peter 3:9

¹⁰But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will vanish with a [mighty and thunderous] roar, and the [material] elements will be destroyed with intense heat, and the earth and the works that are on it will be burned up.

¹¹Since all these things are to be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be [in the meantime] in holy behavior [that is, in a pattern of daily life that sets you apart as a believer] and in godliness [displaying profound reverence toward our awesome God],

¹²[while you earnestly] look for and await the coming of the day of God. For on this day the heavens will be destroyed by burning, and the [material] elements will melt with intense heat! [Is 34:4]

¹³But in accordance with His promise we expectantly await new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells. [Is 65:17; 66:22]

¹⁴So, beloved, since you are looking forward to these things, be diligent and make every effort to be found by Him [at His return] spotless and blameless, in peace [that is, inwardly calm with a sense of spiritual well-being and confidence, having lived a life of obedience to Him].

Speak God's Word

I will be diligent and make every effort to be found by the Lord at His return spotless and blameless, in peace. I will be diligent to be inwardly calm with a sense of spiritual well-being and confidence, having lived a life of obedience to Him.

| adapted from 2 PETER 3:14 |

¹⁵And consider the patience of our Lord [His delay in judging and avenging wrongs] as salvation [that is, allowing time for more to be saved]; just as our beloved brother Paul also wrote to you according to the wisdom given to him [by God], ¹⁶speaking about these things as he does in all of his letters. In which there are some things that are difficult to understand, which the untaught and unstable [who have fallen into error] twist and misinterpret, just as they do the rest of the Scriptures, to their own destruction.

¹⁷Therefore, [let me warn you] beloved, knowing these things beforehand, be on your guard so that you are not carried away by the error of unprincipled men [who distort doctrine] and fall from your own steadfastness [of mind, knowledge, truth, and faith], ¹⁸but grow [spiritually mature] in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be glory (honor, majesty, splendor), both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

POWERPOINT

The mature believer is a person who learns to do God's will no matter how it feels or how difficult it is. A mature believer works with the Holy Spirit continuously to be changed into the image of Jesus Christ—learning to say what God says and live a life dedicated to God and His purposes. God's goals for you are to mature spiritually and no longer be controlled by your own thoughts, emotions, and desires. He wants you to learn His Word and direct your life accordingly, being ready at all times to be His representative in the earth (see 2 Pet. 3:18).

1 John

Author: | John
Date: | Probably
between AD 85–95

In the battle of the mind, the way we become increasingly victorious is to continue to renew our thinking according to God's Word. First John, perhaps more than any other single book of the Bible, teaches us how to think about the love of God. The more accurately we understand God's love, the easier it is for us to become established in it. The more established we are in God's love, the less the enemy can take advantage of us.

First John also helps us understand such important dynamics of the Christian life as receiving God's forgiveness, walking in the light, and Jesus' power over the enemy. Understanding these truths empowers us to think as God wants us to think.

I encourage you to study and meditate on the truths in 1 John and allow them to transform your thinking so you can go from one level of victory in your mind to another.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM 1 JOHN:

When feelings of guilt and condemnation arise, press through them in faith and say, “No matter how I feel, I believe God’s Word more than my feelings. I have confessed my sins, and I have been forgiven” (see 1 John 1:9).

When we say we love someone, we need to follow through with sincere and practical actions (see 1 John 3:18).

With God’s power working in you, you can outlast the enemy and continue serving God while the battle rages (see 1 John 4:4).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM 1 JOHN:

The Son of God appeared... to destroy the works of the devil.
| 1 John 3:8

He who is in you is greater than he (Satan) who is in the world [of sinful mankind]. | 1 John 4:4

Who is the one who is victorious and overcomes the world?
It is the one who believes and recognizes the fact that Jesus is the Son of God. | 1 John 5:5

THE FIRST LETTER OF
JOHN

1 [I AM writing about] what existed from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the Word of Life [the One who existed even before the beginning of the world, Christ]—

²and the Life [an aspect of His being] was manifested, and we have seen [it as eyewitnesses] and testify and declare to you [the Life], the eternal Life who was [already existing] with the Father and was [actually] made visible to us [His followers]

³what we have seen and heard we also proclaim to you, so that you too may have fellowship [as partners] with us. And indeed our fellowship [which is a distinguishing mark of born-again believers] is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ.

⁴We are writing these things to you so that our joy [in seeing you included] may be made complete [by having you share in the joy of salvation].

⁵This is the message [of God's promised revelation] which we have heard from Him and now announce to you, that God is Light [He is holy, His message is truthful, He is perfect in righteousness], and in Him there is no darkness at all [no sin, no wickedness, no imperfection].

Speak God's Word

If I freely admit that I have sinned and confess my sins, God is faithful, just, and true to His own nature and promises, and will forgive my sins and cleanse me continually from all unrighteousness and from everything not in conformity with His will and purpose.

| adapted from 1 JOHN 1:9 |

⁶If we say that we have fellowship with Him and yet walk in the darkness [of sin], we lie and do not practice the truth;

⁷but if we [really] walk in the Light [that is, live each and every day in conformity with the precepts of God], as He Himself is in the Light, we have [true, unbroken] fellowship with one another [He with us, and we with Him], and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin [by erasing the stain of sin, keeping us cleansed from sin in all its forms and manifestations].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Walk in the Light

Do you want to be emotionally stable and consistently content? Then “walk in the Light [that is, live each and every day in conformity with the precepts of God], as He Himself is in the Light” (1 John 1:7). Meditate on God’s Word and make sure your thoughts are in line with it. Stop concentrating on wrong things, and start thinking, No matter what is going on in my circumstances, I am able to remain calm and loving while I trust God to take care of everything.

Come into agreement with God and His Word. Think what He thinks and say what He says. Will you ever falter in your commitment to think and say positive things? Probably, but when you fall, all you have to do is get up and begin again.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

A Clear Conscience

To have a clear conscience, people have two choices: Either they must not sin at all or they need to repent of their sin and receive forgiveness when they do make mistakes. We grow spiritually and find that we sin less and less as we mature; however, the Bible teaches that a little leaven affects the entire lump of dough. This means that even a little sin renders us in need of cleansing.

It is great to be making progress daily, but I am also very thankful for the gift of repentance. First John 1:9 says that we can admit and confess our sins, and that God is faithful to completely cleanse us of all unrighteousness. What good news!

Sin is only a problem if we refuse to recognize it and deal with it. It is spiritually and emotionally freeing to simply agree with God, take responsibility for our wrong actions, receive His gift of forgiveness, and ask Him to help us do better. Jesus has already paid for every sin we have ever committed, the ones we commit today, and the ones we will commit tomorrow. When we admit our sin and ask for forgiveness, the blood of Jesus washes away the guilty stain and we can live before God with a clear conscience.

⁸If we say we have no sin [refusing to admit that we are sinner], we delude ourselves and the truth is not in us. [His word does not live in our hearts.]

⁹If we [freely] admit that we have sinned and confess our sins, He is faithful and just [true to His own nature and promises], and will forgive our sins and cleanse us continually from all unrighteousness [our wrongdoing, everything not in conformity with His will and purpose].

¹⁰If we say that we have not sinned [refusing to admit acts of sin], we make Him [out to be] a liar [by contradicting Him] and His word is not in us.

2 MYLITTLE children (believers, dear ones), I am writing you these things so that you will not sin and violate God's law. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate [who will intercede for us] with the Father: Jesus Christ the righteous [the upright, the just One, who conforms to the Father's will in every way—purpose, thought, and action].

POWERPOINT

What a glorious scripture 1

John 2:1 is! Of course our desire should be not to sin, but if we do sin, God has already taken care of it. We can look to Jesus, Who is perfect and Who stands in our place before God the Father. He conforms to the Father's will in every way, and He intercedes for us before God. God forgives us for Jesus' sake. When we go to God in Jesus' name, He sees Jesus, not our sin. He will forever honor the sacrifice that Jesus made for us in obedience to His Father.

²And He [that same Jesus] is the propitiation for our sins [the atoning sacrifice that holds back the wrath of God that would otherwise be directed at us because of our sinful nature—our worldliness, our lifestyle]; and not for ours alone, but also for [the sins of all believers throughout] the whole world.

³And this is how we know [daily, by experience] that we have come to know Him [to understand Him and be more deeply acquainted with Him]: if we habitually keep [focused on His precepts and obey] His commandments (teachings).

⁴Whoever says, “I have come to know Him,” but does not habitually keep [focused on His precepts and obey] His commandments (teachings), is a liar, and the truth [of the divine word] is not in him.

⁵But whoever habitually keeps His word and obeys His precepts [and treasures His message in its entirety], in him the love of God has truly been perfected [it is completed and has reached maturity]. By this we know [for certain] that we are in Him:

⁶whoever says he lives in Christ [that is, whoever says he has accepted Him as God and Savior] ought [as a moral obligation] to walk and conduct himself just as He walked and conducted Himself.

⁷Beloved, I am not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had from the beginning; the old commandment is the message which you have heard [before from us]. [John 13:34, 35]

⁸On the other hand, I am writing a new commandment to you, which is true and realized in Christ and in you, because the darkness [of moral blindness] is clearing away and the true Light [the revelation of God in Christ] is already shining.

⁹The one who says he is in the Light [in consistent fellowship with Christ] and yet habitually hates (works against) his brother [in Christ] is in the darkness until now.

¹⁰The one who loves and unselfishly seeks the best for his [believing] brother lives in the Light, and in him there is no occasion for stumbling or offense [he does not hurt the cause of Christ or lead others to sin].

¹¹But the one who habitually hates (works against) his brother [in Christ] is in [spiritual] darkness and is walking in the darkness, and does not know where he is going because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

¹²I am writing to you, little children (believers, dear ones), because your sins have been forgiven for His name's sake [you have been pardoned and released from spiritual debt through His name because you have confessed His name, believing in Him as Savior].

¹³I am writing to you, fathers [those believers who are spiritually mature], because you know Him who has existed from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men [those believers who are growing in spiritual maturity], because you have been victorious and have overcome the evil one. I have written to you, children [those who are new believers, those spiritually immature], because you have come to know the Father.

¹⁴I have written to you, fathers, because you know Him who has existed from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong and vigorous, and the word of God remains [always] in you, and you have been victorious over the evil one [by accepting Jesus as Savior].

¹⁵Do not love the world [of sin that opposes God and His precepts], nor the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

¹⁶For all that is in the world—the lust and sensual craving of the flesh and the lust and longing of the eyes and the boastful pride of life [pretentious confidence in one's resources or in the stability of earthly things]—these do not come from the Father, but are from the world.

¹⁷The world is passing away, and with it its lusts [the shameful pursuits and ungodly longings]; but the one who does the will of God and carries out His purposes lives forever.

¹⁸Children, it is the last hour [the end of this age]; and just as you heard that the antichrist is coming [the one who will oppose Christ and attempt to replace Him], even now many antichrists (false teachers) have appeared, which confirms our belief that it is the last hour.

¹⁹They went out from us [seeming at first to be Christians], but they were not really of us [because they were not truly born again and spiritually transformed]; for if they had been of us, they would have remained with us; but they went out [teaching false doctrine], so that it would be clearly shown that none of them are of us.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Trust the Holy Spirit To Speak Truth

If you are going to overcome insecurity, you will have to learn to cope with criticism.

Are you a self-validating person, or do you need outside validation? Outside validation is a continued need to have somebody tell you that you are okay. Self-validation is knowing who you are in Christ and being confident enough to follow the leading of the Holy Spirit.

When we hear from God, we often confer too much with people because we do not trust that we can be led by God and act accordingly. We feel that we have to first check out with others what we think God is telling us to do to see if it is valid. With the Holy Spirit in us, we do not need to consult or check it out with others all the time (see 1 John 2:27). Trust the Holy Spirit to speak truth for you to act on as you remain in Him.

Proverbs 11:14 says, "In the abundance of [wise and godly] counselors there is victory." Even though we don't need to always rely on what others think we should do, we are instructed to be obedient to the Spirit without refusing counsel from others. There are those who are wiser than we are, who have developed a deeper maturity in the things of God and a deeper understanding of God's Word, and hearing from them at times is very helpful.

I encourage you to have enough confidence in who you are in Christ that you can listen to others and be open to change without feeling you have to agree with their viewpoint or meet with their approval if you don't feel their suggestion is right for you.

I believe that if we truly want to do the right thing, God will always keep us on the right track.

²⁰But you have an anointing from the Holy One [you have been set apart, specially gifted and prepared by the Holy Spirit], and all of you know [the truth because He teaches us, illuminates our minds, and guards us from error].

²¹I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it, and because no lie [nothing false, no deception] is of the truth.

²²Who is the liar but the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed)? This is the antichrist [the enemy and antagonist of Christ], the one who denies and consistently refuses to acknowledge the Father and the Son.

²³Whoever denies and repudiates the Son does not have the Father; the one who confesses and acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

²⁴As for you, let that remain in you [keeping in your hearts that message of salvation] which you heard from the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning remains in you, you too will remain in the Son and in the Father [forever].

²⁵This is the promise which He Himself promised us—eternal life.

²⁶These things I have written to you with reference to those who are trying to deceive you [seducing you and leading you away from the truth and sound doctrine].

²⁷As for you, the anointing [the special gift, the preparation] which you received from Him remains [permanently] in you, and you have no need for anyone to teach you. But just as His anointing teaches you [giving you insight through the presence of the Holy Spirit] about all things, and is true and is not a lie, and just as His anointing has taught you, you must remain in Him [being rooted in Him, knit to Him].

²⁸Now, little children (believers, dear ones), remain in Him [with unwavering faith], so that when He appears [at His return], we may have [perfect] confidence and not be ashamed and shrink away from Him at His coming.

²⁹If you know that He is absolutely righteous, you know [for certain] that everyone who practices righteousness [doing what is right and conforming to God's will] has been born of Him.

3 SEE WHAT an incredible quality of love the Father has shown to us, that we would [be permitted to] be named and called and counted the children of God! And so we are! For this reason the world does not know us, because it did not know Him.

²Beloved, we are [even here and] now children of God, and it is not yet made clear what we will be [after His coming]. We know that when He comes and is revealed, we will [as His children] be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is [in all His glory].

³And everyone who has this hope [confidently placed] in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure (holy, undefiled, guiltless).

⁴Everyone who practices sin also practices lawlessness; and sin is lawlessness [ignoring God's law by action or neglect or by tolerating wrongdoing—being unrestrained by His commands and His will].

⁵You know that He appeared [in visible form as a man] in order to take away sins; and in Him there is [absolutely] no sin [for He has neither the sin nature nor has He committed sin or acts worthy of blame].

⁶No one who abides in Him [who remains united in fellowship with Him—deliberately, knowingly, and habitually] practices sin. No one who habitually sins has seen Him or known Him.

⁷Little children (believers, dear ones), do not let anyone lead you astray. The one who practices righteousness [the one who strives to live a consistently honorable life—in private as well as in public—and to conform to God's precepts] is righteous, just as He is righteous.

⁸The one who practices sin [separating himself from God, and offending Him by acts of disobedience, indifference, or rebellion] is of the devil [and takes his inner character and moral values from him, not God]; for the devil has sinned and violated God's law from the beginning. The Son of God appeared for this purpose, to destroy the works of the devil.

⁹No one who is born of God [deliberately, knowingly, and habitually] practices sin, because God's seed [His principle of life, the essence of His righteous character] remains [permanently] in him [who is born again—who is reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, and set apart for His purpose]; and he [who is born again] cannot habitually [live a life characterized by] sin, because he is born of God and longs to please Him.

¹⁰By this the children of God and the children of the devil are clearly identified: anyone who does not practice righteousness [who does not seek God's will in thought, action, and purpose] is not of God, nor is the one who does not [unselfishly] love his [believing] brother.

¹¹For this is the message which you [believers] have heard from the beginning [of your relationship with Christ], that we should [unselfishly] love and seek the best for one another;

¹²and not be like Cain, who was of the evil one and murdered his brother [Abel]. And why did he murder him? Because Cain's deeds were evil, and his brother's were righteous.

¹³Do not be surprised, believers, if the world hates you.

¹⁴We know that we have passed out of death into Life, because we love the brothers and sisters. He who does not love remains in [spiritual] death.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Jesus Came To Defeat the Devil

As believers in Jesus Christ, we have authority over the enemy (see Luke 10:19), and all we have to do is exercise it. Satan has power, but he has no authority to use that power against God's people unless we allow him to do so. He may come against us, but he will not be ultimately successful in executing his evil plans if we resist him while also maintaining an intimate relationship with God. Actually, Jesus already defeated him when He died on the cross. According to 1 John 3:8, the purpose for which Christ came to earth was to destroy the works of the devil.

Jesus was successful, and Satan was definitely defeated, so how can he still cause us trouble? Jesus destroyed Satan's right to do his evil work, but it is our responsibility to use the authority that God gave us and keep the devil in his place.

We have spiritual weapons to defeat Satan, but they can only be effective if we use them. The name of Jesus and the authority it holds has been given to us as a weapon, along with the Word of God, which is referred to as the sword of the Spirit (see Eph. 6:17). We can use both of these in prayer and confession. We also have the cross of Jesus Christ and His shed blood as powerful weapons, and we should remember them when the enemy attacks us. Even the mention of the cross and the blood drives him backward!

You are not a helpless victim of the enemy; you are a powerful and authoritative child of God who does not travel through life alone, but with Jesus Who is Himself a mighty warrior and the Captain of God's army of angels.

God's Word teaches us to give no place to the devil (see Eph. 4:27). We can do this in a variety of ways, and simple heartfelt obedience to God is one of the most important. We do not have to live in fear of Satan, because he is a defeated foe and his works have been destroyed. All we need to do is remember these truths and be more aggressive against him than he is against us.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Thank You, Jesus, for coming to earth to destroy the works of the devil. Help me to use the authority You have given me to resist and defeat him when he comes against me, so I can live the victory You have won for me. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Delights in Answering Prayer

We all want to have confidence that when we pray, our prayers will be answered, but we must also trust that God will do so in His own way and timing. There are times when we may ask for something that wouldn't be good for us, or perhaps we are asking selfishly. God lovingly withholds the answers to those types of prayers, and we can learn to trust that when He doesn't do as we ask, He will do something better as we wait on Him.

Obedience is important in seeing our prayers answered. It is vital for us to maintain a heart of confidence rather than condemnation (see 1 John 3:21–22). Believing we have obeyed God to the best of our ability gives us confidence to boldly go to Him and to receive what we ask from Him. God doesn't want us to do as we please, often being disobedient to Him and then expecting Him to give us everything we want and need. Even if we did live that way, we would have no true confidence, because our hearts would condemn us.

Keep your heart right before God, pray boldly, and receive by faith. If God delays, trust His ways and timing.

¹⁵Everyone who hates (works against) his brother [in Christ] is [at heart] a murderer [by God's standards]; and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. [Matt

5:21–23]

¹⁶By this we know [and have come to understand the depth and essence of His precious] love: that He [willingly] laid down His life for us [because He loved us]. And we ought to lay down our lives for the believers.

¹⁷But whoever has the world's goods (adequate resources), and sees his brother in need, but has no compassion for him, how does the love of God live in him?

¹⁸Little children (believers, dear ones), let us not love [merely in theory] with word or with tongue [giving lip service to compassion], but in action and in truth [in practice and in sincerity, because practical acts of love are more than words].

¹⁹By this we will know [without any doubt] that we are of the truth, and will assure our heart and quiet our conscience before Him

²⁰whenever our heart convicts us [in guilt]; for God is greater than our heart and He knows all things [nothing is hidden from Him because we are in His hands].

²¹Beloved, if our heart does not convict us [of guilt], we have confidence [complete assurance and boldness] before God;

²²and we receive from Him whatever we ask because we [carefully and consistently] keep His commandments and do the things that are pleasing in His sight [habitually seeking to follow His plan for us].

²³This is His commandment, that we believe [with personal faith and confident trust] in the name of His Son Jesus Christ, and [that we unselfishly] love and seek the best for one another, just as He commanded us.

²⁴The one who habitually keeps His commandments [obeying His word and following His precepts, abides and] remains in Him, and He in him. By this we know and have the proof that He [really] abides in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us [as a gift].

4 BELOVED, DO not believe every spirit [speaking through a self-proclaimed prophet]; instead test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets and teachers have gone out into the world.

POWERPOINT

People have so many fears that we could spend all day naming them and probably not run out of things people are afraid of.

Even though God's Word repeatedly instructs us not to fear, many believers struggle with the same fears that everyone else does. That is why verses such as 1 John 4:4 were given to us—to assure us that because of the presence and power of Almighty God within us, we have nothing to fear. God is in us, and He is greater than the enemy who is in the world!

²By this you know and recognize the Spirit of God: every spirit that acknowledges and confesses [the fact] that Jesus Christ has [actually] come in the flesh [as a man] is from God [God is its source];

³and every spirit that does not confess Jesus [acknowledging that He has come in the flesh, but would deny any of the Son's true nature] is not of God; this is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard is coming, and is now already in the world.

⁴Little children (believers, dear ones), you are of God and you belong to Him and have [already] overcome them [the agents of the antichrist]; because He who is in you is greater than he (Satan) who is in the world [of sinful mankind].

⁶We [who teach God's word] are from God [energized by the Holy Spirit], and whoever knows God [through personal experience] listens to us [and has a deeper understanding of Him]. Whoever is not of God does not listen to us. By this we know [without any doubt] the spirit of truth [motivated by God] and the spirit of error [motivated by Satan].

⁷Beloved, let us [unselfishly] love and seek the best for one another, for love is from God; and everyone who loves [others] is born of God and knows God [through personal experience].

⁸The one who does not love has not become acquainted with God [does not and never did know Him], for God is love. [He is the originator of love, and it is an enduring attribute of His nature.]

⁹By this the love of God was displayed in us, in that God has sent His [One and] only begotten Son [the One who is truly unique, the only One of His kind] into the world so that we might live through Him.

¹⁰In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation [that is, the atoning sacrifice, and the satisfying offering] for our sins [fulfilling God's requirement for justice against sin and placating His wrath].

¹¹Beloved, if God so loved us [in this incredible way], we also ought to love one another.

¹²No one has seen God at any time. But if we love one another [with unselfish concern], God abides in us, and His love [the love that is His essence abides in us and] is completed and perfected in us.

¹³By this we know [with confident assurance] that we abide in Him and He in us, because He has given to us His [Holy] Spirit.

¹⁴We [who were with Him in person] have seen and testify [as eyewitnesses] that the Father has sent the Son to be the Savior of the world.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, for helping me come to know by personal experience and to believe with deep, consistent faith the love You have for me. You are love, and the one who abides in love abides in You, and You abide continually in him.

• adapted from 1 John 4:16

POWERPOINT

The source of fear is Satan, not God. God is love, and 1 John 4:18 says that perfect love “drives out fear.” Satan sends fear to try to torment us into being so doubtful and miserable that we will be prevented from knowing God’s love, doing what God wants us to do, and receiving all that God has for us. We can live without fear by receiving God’s love and building our faith on what God has said in His Word. Confessing what the Lord says to us and about us in His Word gives us the power to overcome the fears that torment and prevent us from moving forward in faith.

¹⁵Whoever confesses and acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God.

¹⁶We have come to know [by personal observation and experience], and have believed [with deep, consistent faith] the love which God has for us. God is love, and the one who abides in love abides in God, and God abides continually in him.

Speak God's Word

The true love of God is this: that I habitually keep His commandments and remain focused on His precepts. And His commandments and His precepts are not difficult to obey.

| adapted from 1 JOHN 5:3 |

¹⁷In this [union and fellowship with Him], love is completed and perfected with us, so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment [with assurance and boldness to face Him]; because as He is, so are we in this world.

¹⁸There is no fear in love [dread does not exist]. But perfect (complete, full-grown) love drives out fear, because fear involves [the expectation of divine] punishment, so the one who is afraid [of God's judgment] is not perfected in love [has not grown into a sufficient understanding of God's love].

¹⁹We love, because He first loved us.

²⁰If anyone says, "I love God," and hates (works against) his [Christian] brother he is a liar; for the one who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

No Fear in Love

I wasted many years living with a vague fear that God was angry with me, and it wasn't until I received His love by faith that I was released from that burden. I believed that God loved me in some sort of general, impersonal way, but I did not know the amazing, all-consuming, perfect and complete love that God has for each of His children. Thankfully, over the years I have come to know that love, and it has truly delivered me.

We can know that God is not angry with us. This is not because we are perfect; it's simply because He is love and He is in love with us. We no longer need to be afraid to face Him just as we are. You and I have no reason to fear His anger or displeasure any longer. God loves us perfectly and unconditionally right now. Believe it, receive it, and let it deliver you from fear.

²¹And this commandment we have from Him, that the one who loves God should also [unselfishly] love his brother and seek the best for him.

5 EVERYONE WHO believes [with a deep, abiding trust in the fact] that Jesus is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) is born of God [that is, reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, and set apart for His purpose], and everyone who loves the Father also loves the child born of Him.

²By this we know [without any doubt] that we love the children of God: [expressing that love] when we love God and obey His commandments.

³For the [true] love of God is this: that we habitually keep His commandments and remain focused on His precepts. And His commandments and His precepts are not difficult [to obey].

⁴For ^{*}everyone born of God is victorious and overcomes the world; and this is the victory that has conquered and overcome the world—our [continuing, persistent] faith [in Jesus the Son of God].

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, God, that everyone born of You is victorious and overcomes the world; and this is the victory that has conquered and overcome the world—our continuing, persistent faith in Jesus, Your Son.

• adapted from 1 John 5:4

⁵Who is the one who is victorious and overcomes the world? It is the one who believes and recognizes the fact that Jesus is the Son of God.

⁶This is He who came through water and blood [His baptism and death], Jesus Christ—not by the water only, but by the water and the blood. It is the [Holy] Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. [He is the essence and origin of truth itself.]

⁷For there are three witnesses:

⁸the Spirit and the water and the blood; and these three are in agreement [their testimony is perfectly consistent].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Is Working in You

According to 1 John 5:4, “Everyone born of God is victorious and overcomes the world.” Yet Paul says in Romans 7:15, “I do not practice what I want to do, but I am doing the very thing I hate.” Paul, like the rest of us, was growing into the fullness of what belonged to him in Christ.

We can get confused when we read something in the Word that we aren’t experiencing in our lives, such as “No one who is born of God... practices sin, because God’s seed [His principle of life, the essence of His righteous character] remains [permanently] in him” (1 John 3:9). It is important to understand that holding a biblical truth doesn’t mean we automatically operate in it. When God blesses us with His nature, or the seed of all that He is, we have to let it develop before we see it fully take effect in our lives. Be patient; God is working in you.

⁹If we accept [as we do] the testimony of men [that is, if we are willing to take the sworn statements of fallible humans as evidence], the testimony of God is greater [far more authoritative]; for this is the testimony of God, that He has testified regarding His Son.

¹⁰The one who believes in the Son of God [who adheres to, trusts in, and relies confidently on Him as Savior] has the testimony within himself [because he can speak authoritatively about Christ from his own personal experience]. The one who does not believe God [in this way] has made Him [out to be] a liar, because he has not believed in the evidence that God has given regarding His Son.

¹¹And the testimony is this: God has given us eternal life [we already possess it], and this life is in His Son [resulting in our spiritual completeness, and eternal companionship with Him].

¹²He who has the Son [by accepting Him as Lord and Savior] has the life [that is eternal]; he who does not have the Son of God [by personal faith] does not have the life.

¹³These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God [which represents all that Jesus Christ is and does], so that you will know [with settled and absolute knowledge] that you [already] have eternal life.

¹⁴This is the [remarkable degree of] confidence which we [as believers are entitled to] have before Him: that if we ask anything according to His will, [that is, consistent with His plan and purpose] He hears us.

¹⁵And if we know [for a fact, as indeed we do] that He hears and listens to us in whatever we ask, we [also] know [with settled and absolute knowledge] that we have [granted to us] the requests which we have asked from Him.

¹⁶If anyone sees his brother committing a sin that does not lead to death, he will pray and ask [on the believer's behalf] and God will for him give life to those whose sin is not leading to death. There is a sin that leads to death; I do not say that one should pray for this [kind of sin].

¹⁷All wrongdoing is sin, and there is sin that does not lead to death [one can repent of it and be forgiven].

¹⁸We know [with confidence] that anyone born of God does not habitually sin; but He (Jesus) who was born of God [carefully] keeps and protects him, and the evil one does not touch him.

¹⁹We know [for a fact] that we are of God, and the whole world [around us] lies in the power of the evil one [opposing God and His precepts].

²⁰And we [have seen and] know [by personal experience] that the Son of God has [actually] come [to this world], and has given us understanding and insight so that we may [progressively and personally] know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is true—in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life.

²¹Little children (believers, dear ones), guard yourselves from idols—[false teachings, moral compromises, and anything that would take God's place in your heart].

2 John

Author: | John
Date: | Probably
between AD 85–95

For centuries, the recipient of 2 John has been a mystery. The letter is addressed to “the elect (chosen) lady and her children” (2 John 1), and no one has ever known exactly who they were. Perhaps she was an individual with literal children or maybe the term referred to a church or a group of churches. Either way, the elect lady was someone important to John. He wrote this letter to warn her against false teachers spreading untrue messages among groups of early believers. They denied Jesus’ coming to earth as a man and rejected the idea of His full humanity and full divinity.

In 2 John, John helps the elect lady know how to deal with false teachers, which is not to receive them at all, according to verse 10. He also encouraged the elect lady to know the truth, because for her and for us today, the truth is what lives in our hearts forever (see 2 John 2).

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM 2 JOHN:

We have peace because God's truth lives in our hearts now and forever (see 2 John 2–3).

We are truly fulfilled in life when we are considerate of others and seek the best for them (see 2 John 5).

Continue to do what Christ taught, and you will avoid being misled by those who distort God's Word (see 2 John 9–10).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM 2 JOHN:

Grace, mercy, and peace (inner calm, a sense of spiritual well-being) will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Father's Son, in truth and love. | 2 John 3

And this is love: that we walk in accordance with His commandments and are guided continually by His precepts. This is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, that you should [always] walk in love. | 2 John 6

THE SECOND LETTER OF
JOHN

¹THE ELDER [of the church addresses this letter] to the elect (chosen) lady and her children, whom I love in truth—and not only I, but also all who know and understand the truth—

²because of the truth which lives in our hearts and will be with us forever:

³Grace, mercy, and peace (inner calm, a sense of spiritual well-being) will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Father's Son, in truth and love.

⁴I was greatly delighted to find some of your children walking in truth, just as we have been commanded by the Father.

Speak God's Word

I will walk in truth, just as I have been commanded by the Father.

| adapted from 2 JOHN 4 |

⁵Now I ask you, lady, not as if I were writing to you a new commandment, but [simply reminding you of] the one which we have had from the beginning, that we love and unselfishly seek the best for one another.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Don't Lose What You Have Gained

Second John 8 urges us to be careful that we don't lose the truth and liberties we have labored for over the course of our journey with the Lord. Satan hates for us to make any kind of progress, and he tempts us to not only backslide (slide backward to where we came from) in our faith in Him, but also in other areas of life where we have gained victory. We not only work with the Holy Spirit to gain victory; we must also work with Him to maintain victory.

Let's say a person had a bad temper. As he learned the Word of God and received strength from Him, he was set free from quickly becoming angry. However, Satan may well come around at another time and try to draw that person back into the same bad habits he once had. We see this principle in Luke 4:13, when after Satan finished the cycle of temptation that he brought against Jesus after He fasted forty days in the wilderness, he went away to wait for a more opportune time to tempt Him again.

The Bible also teaches us to stand firm in the liberties with which Christ has set us free and not be ensnared again in a yoke of bondage we have already put off (see Gal. 5:1). We see from Luke 4:13, Galatians 5:1, and 2 John 8 that we should be diligent that we don't lose or throw away all we have labored for.

The minute you recognize yourself starting to slip backward into old habits and bondages, submit yourself to God, resist the devil, and he will flee (see James 4:7).

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, help me to always remember the commandment I have had from the beginning, to love and unselfishly seek the best for others.

• adapted from 2 John 5

⁶And this is love: that we walk in accordance with His commandments and are guided continually by His precepts. This is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, that you should [always] walk in love.

⁷For many deceivers [heretics, posing as Christians] have gone out into the world, those who do not acknowledge and confess the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh (bodily form).

This [person, the kind who does this] is the deceiver and the antichrist [that is, the antagonist of Christ].

⁸Watch yourselves, so that you do not lose what we have accomplished together, but that you may receive a full and perfect reward [when He grants rewards to faithful believers].

⁹Anyone who runs on ahead and does not remain in the doctrine of Christ [that is, one who is not content with what He taught], does not have God; but the one who continues to remain in the teaching [of Christ does have God], he has both the Father and the Son.

¹⁰If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching [but diminishes or adds to the doctrine of Christ], do not receive or welcome him into your house, and do not give him a greeting or any encouragement;

¹¹for the one who gives him a greeting [who encourages him or wishes him success, unwittingly] participates in his evil deeds.

¹²I have many things to write to you, but I prefer not to do so with paper (papyrus) and black (ink); but I hope to come to you and speak with you face to face, so that your joy may be complete. [Num 12:8]

¹³The children of your elect (chosen) sister greet you.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Father, I pray that You will help me to always show love by walking in accordance with Your commandments. I pray that You will guide me continually by Your precepts.

• adapted from 2 John 6

3 John

Author: | John
Date: | Probably
between AD 85–95

When we read 2 John and 3 John together, we see that both letters are intended to help early church leaders know how to handle traveling teachers or ministers. In 2 John, John instructs the elect lady on how to deal with false teachers, and in 3 John, he writes to a church leader named Gaius to explain how the early believers were to treat teachers who were sincere and who taught the truth. He encouraged kindness, generosity, and support for those who communicated God's message with integrity.

All kinds of spiritual teachings are available in the world today, but not all agree with God's Word. Let me encourage you to study and meditate on His truth so you can reject false or ungodly influences, receive godly teaching, and help those who teach truth as God leads you to do so. You may not be able to personally travel the world and teach God's Word, but when you support those who do, you participate in their ministry (see 2 John 8).

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM 3 JOHN:

God desires to bless us even more than we desire to be blessed (see 3 John 2).

Showing others how to live in God's truth will help you experience great joy (see 3 John 4).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM 3 JOHN:

So we ought to support such people [welcoming them as guests and providing for them], so that we may be fellow workers for the truth [that is, for the gospel message of salvation]. | 3 John 8

Beloved, do not imitate what is evil, but [imitate] what is good. The one who practices good [exhibiting godly character, moral courage and personal integrity] is of God. | 3 John 11

THE THIRD LETTER OF
JOHN

¹THE ELDER [of the church addresses this letter] to the beloved and esteemed Gaius, whom I love in truth.

²Beloved, I pray that in every way you may succeed and prosper and be in good health [physically], just as [I know] your soul prospers [spiritually].

³For I was greatly pleased when [some of the] brothers came [from time to time] and testified to your [faithfulness to the] truth [of the gospel message], that is, how you are walking in truth.

⁴I have no greater joy than this, to hear that my [spiritual] children are living [their lives] in the truth.

⁵Beloved, you are acting faithfully in what you are providing for the brothers, and especially when they are strangers;

⁶and they have testified before the church of your love and friendship. You will do well to [assist them and] send them on their way in a manner worthy of God.

A Prayer To

Renew Your Mind

I pray that in every way I may succeed and prosper and be in good health physically, just as my soul prospers spiritually.

• adapted from 3 John 2

⁷For these [traveling missionaries] went out for the sake of the Name [of Christ], accepting nothing [in the way of assistance] from the Gentiles.

⁸So we ought to support such people [welcoming them as guests and providing for them], so that we may be fellow workers for the truth [that is, for the gospel message of salvation].

⁹I wrote something to the church; but Diotrephes, who loves to put himself first, does not accept what we say and refuses to recognize my authority.

¹⁰For this reason, if I come, I will call attention to what he is doing, unjustly accusing us with wicked words and unjustified charges. And not satisfied with this, he refuses to receive the [missionary] brothers himself, and also forbids those who want to [welcome them] and puts them out of the church.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Wants To Bless You

In plain, everyday language, 3 John 2 could read, “My dearly beloved children, I want you to have every earthly blessing you can possibly imagine, but only to the degree that you have spiritual maturity and Christlike character.” When you look at the verse this way, you get the message: “My blessings will grow as I grow spiritually.”

You don't need to talk God into blessing you. He wants to bless you. In fact, He wants to bless you more than you can imagine being blessed (see Eph. 3:20). And even more than He wants you to have something, He wants you to be something. He wants you to be Christlike. Once you are like Christ and spiritually mature, you will be able to handle having the earthly blessings He desires for you, and you will use them for His glory.

Speak God's Word

*I will not imitate what is evil;
I will imitate what is good. I will do my best to exhibit godly character, moral

| adapted from 3 JOHN 11 |

¹¹Beloved, do not imitate what is evil, but [imitate] what is good. The one who practices good [exhibiting godly character, moral courage and personal integrity] is of God; the one who practices [or permits or tolerates] evil has not seen God [he has no personal experience with Him and does not know Him at all]. [1 John 3:6]

¹²Demetrius has received a good testimony and commendation from everyone—and from the truth [the standard of God's word] itself; and we add our testimony and speak well of him, and you know that our testimony is true.

¹³I had many things [to say when I began] to write to you, but I prefer not to put it down with pen (reed) and black (ink);

¹⁴but I hope to see you soon, and we will speak face to face. [Num 12:8]

15Peace be to you. The friends [here] greet you. Greet the friends [personally] by name.

Jude

Author: | Jude
Date: | AD 65–80

One benefit of Jude’s brief encouraging and informative letter is that it helps us recognize the fruit of false teaching that would lead us away from God’s truth (see Jude 4, 8, 10–16) while also urging us to stand firm in our faith. His letter establishes us both in greater discernment and in greater conviction of God’s love and truth.

No doubt Jude’s closing words about the power of God strengthened the readers of his original letter, just as they strengthen you and me today: “Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling or falling into sin, and to present you unblemished [blameless and faultless] in the presence of His glory with triumphant joy and unspeakable delight, to the only God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and power, before all time and now and forever. Amen” (Jude 24–25).

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM JUDE:

When confronted with evil, we have the authority through Jesus' name to say, "Satan, the Lord rebuke you!" (see Jude 9).

You can build yourself up by praying in the Holy Spirit and keeping yourself in the love of God (see Jude 20–21).

God is able to keep us from stumbling into sin, and He will present us faultless in His glorious presence with triumphant joy—all because of the cross (see Jude 24).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM JUDE:

May mercy and peace and love be multiplied to you [filling your heart with the spiritual well-being and serenity experienced by those who walk closely with God]. | Jude 2

Fight strenuously for [the defense of] the faith which was once for all handed down to the saints [the faith that is the sum of Christian belief that was given verbally to believers]. | Jude 3

Beloved, remember the [prophetic] words spoken by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. | Jude 17

THE LETTER OF JUDE

1 JUDE, A bond-servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, [writes this letter],

To those who are the called (God's chosen ones, the elect), dearly loved by God the Father, and kept [secure and set apart] for Jesus Christ:

2 May mercy and peace and love be multiplied to you [filling your heart with the spiritual well-being and serenity experienced by those who walk closely with God].

3 Beloved, while I was making every effort to write you about our common salvation, I was compelled to write to you [urgently] appealing that you fight strenuously for [the defense of] the faith which was once for all handed down to the saints [the faith that is the sum of Christian belief that was given verbally to believers].

4 For certain people have crept in unnoticed [just as if they were sneaking in by a side door]. They are ungodly persons whose condemnation was predicted long ago, for they distort the grace of our God into decadence and immoral freedom [viewing it as an opportunity to do whatever they want], and deny and disown our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

5 Now I want to remind you, although you are fully informed once for all, that the Lord, after saving a people out of the land of Egypt, subsequently destroyed those who did not believe [who refused to trust and obey and rely on Him]. [Num 14:27–37]

⁶And angels who did not keep their own designated place of power, but abandoned their proper dwelling place, [these] He has kept in eternal chains under [the thick gloom of utter] darkness for the judgment of the great day,

Speak God's Word

I will fight strenuously for the defense of the faith that was once and for all handed down to the saints, the sum of the Christian faith.

⁷just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the adjacent cities, since they in the same way as these angels indulged in gross immoral freedom and unnatural vice and sensual perversity. They are exhibited [in plain sight] as an example in undergoing the punishment of everlasting fire. [Gen 19:1–29]

⁸Nevertheless in the same way, these dreamers [who are dreaming that God will not punish them] also defile the body, and reject [legitimate] authority, and revile and mock angelic majesties.

⁹But even the archangel Michael, when he was disputing with the devil (Satan), and arguing about the body of Moses, did not dare bring an abusive condemnation against him, but [simply] said, “The Lord rebuke you!” [Deut 34:5, 6; Zech 3:2]

¹⁰But these men sneer at anything which they do not understand; and whatever they do know by [mere] instinct, like unreasoning and irrational beasts—by these things they are destroyed.

¹¹Woe to them! For they have gone the [defiant] way of Cain, and for profit they have run headlong into the error of Balaam, and perished in the rebellion of [mutinous] Korah. [Gen 4:3–8; Num 16:22–24; 2 Pet 2:15]

¹²These men are hidden reefs [elements of great danger to others] in your love feasts when they feast together with you without fear, looking after [only] themselves; [they are like] clouds without water, swept along by the winds; autumn trees without fruit, doubly dead, uprooted and lifeless;

¹³wild waves of the sea, flinging up their own shame like foam; wandering stars, for whom the gloom of deep darkness has been reserved forever.

¹⁴It was about these people that Enoch, in the seventh generation from Adam, prophesied, when he said, “Look, the Lord came with myriads of His holy ones

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

“Satan, the Lord Rebuke You”

One of Satan’s favorite questions for believers when we have a problem is, “What are you going to do?” If you listen, the “what ifs” increase and pressure intensifies. The more this type of thinking increases, the more negative and intense it becomes. Soon, you think of every possible obstacle on your path and begin to feel as though nothing in your life is right.

The devil wages this constant war on the battlefield of your mind. The more questions and uncertainties he raises, the greater his chances for victory. The enemy knows that if he can feed your mind with wrong thoughts often enough and for long enough, he can make you think only about the wrong things.

But that’s not the end. Once the devil starts to succeed in poisoning your mind, he moves on, and before long you’re repeating his words—words that not only tear you down, but also hurt and damage others. Then Satan has a double victory—he’s trapped you, and you’ve possibly influenced others with negativity.

Jesus instructs us to stop being worried or anxious about our lives (see Matt. 6:25). When the devil whispers worrisome thoughts in your ear, Jesus says not to worry. Then He reminds you to focus on the fact that our Father is with us and will take care of us.

Jesus also said to the people of His day, “The mouth speaks out of that which fills the heart. The good man, from his [inner] good treasure, brings out good things; and the evil man, from his [inner] evil treasure, brings out evil things” (Matt. 12:34–35).

Those are powerful words, reminding you that the devil starts with just the smallest whisper of doubt in your ear. If you listen, you soon become convinced of his lies, and that leads you to speak the words that have taken root in your heart. Once you speak, you move into action. In this way, you can become an instrument to churn up doubts and fears in others. There is only one way for you to win: Refuse to listen to Satan. As soon as he whispers to you, you need to say what the archangel Michael said, “Satan, the Lord rebuke you! Stay out of my mind” (see Jude 9).

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord Jesus, thank You for reminding me of the importance of my thoughts and my words. Fill my heart with such an abundance of peace and joy that the enemy cannot infiltrate my mind. May my words reflect Your presence in my life. Amen.

¹⁵to execute judgment upon all, and to convict all the ungodly of all the ungodly deeds they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the harsh and cruel things ungodly sinners have spoken against Him.”

¹⁶These people are [habitual] murmurers, griping and complaining, following after their own desires [controlled by passion]; they speak arrogantly, [pretending admiration and] flattering people to gain an advantage.

¹⁷But as for you, beloved, remember the [prophetic] words spoken by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ.

¹⁸They used to say to you, “In the last days there will be scoffers, following after their own ungodly passions.” [2 Pet 3:3, 4]

¹⁹These are the ones who are [agitators] causing divisions—worldly-minded [secular, unspiritual, carnal, merely sensual—unsaved], devoid of the Spirit.

²⁰But you, beloved, build yourselves up on [the foundation of] your most holy faith [continually progress, rise like an edifice higher and higher], pray in the Holy Spirit, ²¹and keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting anxiously and looking forward to the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ [which will bring you] to eternal life.

²²And have mercy on some, who are doubting;

²³save others, snatching them out of the fire; and on some have mercy but with fear, loathing even the clothing spotted and polluted by their shameless immoral freedom. [Amos 4:11; Zech 3:2–4]

²⁴Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling or falling into sin, and to present you unblemished [blameless and faultless] in the presence of His glory with triumphant joy and unspeakable delight, ²⁵to the only God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and power, before all time and now and forever. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Pray in the Holy Spirit

Just as Ephesians 6:18 tells us that “with all prayer and petition pray [with specific requests] at all times... in the Spirit,” Jude 20 instructs us to “pray in the Holy Spirit.” The apostle Paul tells us in Romans 8:26 that when we don’t know how to pray, the Holy Spirit Himself intercedes on our behalf.

God’s Holy Spirit within us is the One Who prompts us and leads us to pray. Rather than delay or question the guidance of the Holy Spirit, it’s important for us to learn to yield to His leading as soon as we sense it.

Our motto should be that of the old spiritual song: “Every time I feel the Spirit moving in my heart, I will pray.” If we know we can pray anytime and anywhere, we won’t feel we have to wait until just the right moment or place to pray. When we are praying in the Holy Spirit, we can know that our prayers are reaching the throne of God and will be answered.

Invite the Holy Spirit to get involved in everything you do. He is your Helper, and He is waiting for you to ask for His help.

Revelation

Author: | John
Date: | AD 70–95

The book of Revelation has many themes and ideas, and for centuries it has been interpreted in various ways from different perspectives. Because this Bible focuses on winning the battle of the mind, I want to emphasize that Revelation strongly proves that we do have an enemy, Satan, who is out to destroy us, and that there is an invisible war raging in the spiritual atmosphere. Satan is a real enemy with real abilities to influence our thoughts and therefore our lives, but he is not more powerful than God. Revelation also reminds us how strong and mighty Jesus is, and how much He loves us.

Jesus defeated Satan at the cross on Calvary and empowers us by His Spirit to defeat him every day. Satan still comes against us trying to deceive us with his lies, but the good news is that Revelation teaches us that in the end, the battle will be completely over, and Jesus will reign forever.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM REVELATION:

If you want the devil to flee, use God's Word to remind him of the cross and his defeat at Calvary (see Revelation 12:11).

Praise and worship release God's power in the spiritual realm (see Revelation 15:4).

Although there are things that we don't fully understand now, we can be comforted by the fact that Revelation teaches us that Jesus wins in the end, and He makes all things new (see Revelation 20:10; 21:4–6)!

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM REVELATION:

And they overcame and conquered him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, for they did not love their life and renounce their faith even when faced with death. | Revelation 12:11

They will wage war against the Lamb (Christ), and the Lamb will triumph and conquer them, because He is Lord of lords and King of kings. | Revelation 17:14

Come, Lord Jesus. | Revelation 22:20

TO JOHN

1 THIS IS the revelation of Jesus Christ [His unveiling of the divine mysteries], which God [the Father] gave to Him to show to His bond-servants (believers) the things which must soon take place [in their entirety]; and He sent and communicated it by His angel (divine messenger) to His bond-servant John, ²who testified and gave supporting evidence to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, even to everything that he saw [in his visions].

³Blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired) is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and who keep the things which are written in it [heeding them and taking them to heart]; for the time [of fulfillment] is near.

⁴John, to the seven churches that are in [the province of] Asia: Grace [be granted] to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being], from Him Who is [existing forever] and Who was [continually existing in the past] and Who is to come, and from the seven Spirits that are before His throne, [Is 11:2]

⁵and from Jesus Christ, the ^{*}faithful and trustworthy Witness, the Firstborn of the dead, and the Ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who [always] loves us and who [has once for all] ^{*}—freed us [or washed us] from our sins by His own blood (His sacrificial death)—[Ps 89:27]

⁶and formed us into a kingdom [as His subjects], priests to His God and Father—to Him be the glory and the power and the majesty and the dominion forever and ever. Amen. [Ex 19:6; Is 61:6]

⁷BEHOLD, HE IS COMING WITH THE CLOUDS, and every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him; and all the tribes (nations) of the earth will mourn over Him [realizing their sin and guilt, and anticipating the coming wrath]. ^{*}So it is to be. Amen. [Dan 7:13; Zech 12:10]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Jesus, for always loving me and for freeing me from my sins by Your own blood.

• adapted from Revelation 1:5

⁸“I am the Alpha and the Omega [the Beginning and the End],” says the Lord God, “Who is [existing forever] and Who was [continually existing in the past] and Who is to come, the Almighty [the Omnipotent, the Ruler of all].” [Is 9:6]

⁹I, John, your brother and companion in the tribulation and kingdom and patient endurance which are in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos, [exiled there] because of [my preaching of] the word of God [regarding eternal salvation] and the testimony of Jesus Christ.

¹⁰I was in the ^{*}Spirit [in special communication with the Holy Spirit and empowered to receive and record the revelation from Jesus Christ] on the Lord’s Day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like the sound of a trumpet, ¹¹saying, “Write on a scroll what you see [in this revelation], and send it to the seven churches—to Ephesus and to Smyrna and to Pergamum and to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodicea.”

¹²Then I turned to see the voice that was speaking with me. And after turning I saw seven golden lampstands;

¹³and in the midst of the lampstands I saw someone like the Son of Man, dressed in a robe reaching to His feet, and with a golden sash wrapped around His chest. [Dan 7:13; 10:5]

¹⁴His head and His hair were white like white wool, [glistening white] like snow; and His [all-seeing] eyes were [flashing] like a flame of fire [piercing into my being]. [Dan 7:9]

¹⁵His feet were like burnished [white-hot] bronze, refined in a furnace, and His voice was [powerful] like the sound of many waters. [Dan 10:6]

¹⁶In His right hand He held seven stars, and from His mouth came a sharp two-edged sword [of judgment]; and His face [reflecting His majesty and the Shekinah glory] was like the sun shining in [all] its power [at midday]. [Ex 34:29]

¹⁷When I saw Him, I fell at His feet as though dead. And He placed His right hand on me and said, “Do not be afraid; I am the First and the Last [absolute Deity, the Son of God], [Is 44:6]

¹⁸and the Ever-living One [living in and beyond all time and space]. I died, but see, I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of [absolute control and victory over] death and of Hades (the realm of the dead).

¹⁹“So write the things which you have seen [in the vision], and the things which are [now happening], and the things which will take place after these things.

²⁰“As for the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: the seven stars are the angels (divine messengers) of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

2 “TO THE angel (divine messenger) of the church in Ephesus write:

“These are the words of the One who holds [firmly] the seven stars [which are the angels or messengers of the seven churches] in His right hand, the One who walks among the seven golden lampstands (the seven churches):

²“I know your deeds and your toil, and your patient endurance, and that you cannot tolerate those who are evil, and have tested and critically appraised those who call themselves apostles (special messengers, personally chosen representatives, of Christ), and [in fact] are not, and have found them to be liars and impostors;

³and [I know that] you [who believe] are enduring patiently and are bearing up for My name's sake, and that you have not grown weary [of being faithful to the truth].

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I pray, Lord, that I will endure patiently and bear up for Your name's sake, and that I will not grow weary of being faithful to the truth.

• adapted from Revelation 2:3

⁴But I have this [charge] against you, that you have left your first love [you have lost the depth of love that you first had for Me].

⁵So remember the heights from which you have fallen, and repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, your sinful behavior—seek God’s will] and do the works you did at first [when you first knew Me]; otherwise, I will visit you and remove your lampstand (the church, its impact) from its place—unless you repent.

⁶“Yet you have this [to your credit], that you hate the works and corrupt teachings of the Nicolaitans [that mislead and delude the people], which I also hate.

⁷“He who has an ear, let him hear and heed what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes [the world through believing that Jesus is the Son of God], I will grant [the privilege] to eat [the fruit] from the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of God.’ [Gen 2:9; 3:24; 1 John 5:5]

⁸“And to the angel (divine messenger) of the church in Smyrna write:

“These are the words of the First and the Last [absolute Deity, the Son of God] who died and came to life [again]: [Is 44:6]

⁹“I know your suffering and your poverty (but you are rich), and how you are blasphemed and slandered by those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan [they are Jews only by blood, and do not believe and truly honor the God whom they claim to worship].

¹⁰“Fear nothing that you are about to suffer. Be aware that the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested [in your faith], and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful to the point of death [if you must die for your faith], and I will give you the crown [consisting] of life. [Rev 3:10, 11]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Tests Our Thinking

When you consider buying a new car, you are wise to test-drive it before you commit to purchase it. When you do, you might ask: “Is this car of good quality? Is it mechanically sound, and can I trust it to take me where I need to go? Will it hold up well under everyday wear and tear and long road trips? Are there any hidden flaws, imperfections, or defects in it?” And if you find an imperfection in the car, you might ask for it to be fixed, or you might decide not to make the purchase at all.

In a similar way, God tries our thinking. According to Revelation 2:23, He “searches the minds and hearts [the innermost thoughts, purposes]” to see if there are any defects in our minds so He can make us into a quality “product”—a person of character He can trust. The test comes as we face pressure, and if we stand firm in the truth we say we believe, we pass the test; if we don’t, we get to take the test over again. God will never give up on us, and if we will ask Him, He will help us change our thinking until it is what He wants it to be.

¹¹‘He who has an ear, let him hear and heed what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes [the world through believing that Jesus is the Son of God] will not be hurt by the second death (the lake of fire).’ [1 John 5:5; Rev 20:14]

¹²“And to the angel (divine messenger) of the church in Pergamum write:

“These are the words of Him who has and wields the sharp two-edged sword [in judgment]:

¹³“I know where you dwell, [a place] where Satan sits enthroned. Yet you are holding fast to My name, and you did not deny My faith even in the days of Antipas, My witness, My faithful one, who was killed (martyred) among you, where Satan dwells.

¹⁴“But I have a few things against you, because you have there some [among you] who are holding to the [corrupt] teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, [enticing them] to eat things that had been sacrificed to idols and to commit [acts of sexual] immorality. [Num 25:1, 2; 31:16]

¹⁵“You also have some who in the same way are holding to the teaching of the Nicolaitans.

¹⁶“Therefore repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, your sinful behavior—seek God’s will]; or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war and fight against them with the sword of My mouth [in judgment].

¹⁷“He who has an ear, let him hear and heed what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes [the world through believing that Jesus is the Son of God], to him I will give [the privilege of eating] some of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone with a new name engraved on the stone which no one knows except the one who receives it.’ [Ps 78:24; Is 62:2; 1 John 5:5]

¹⁸“And to the angel (divine messenger) of the church in Thyatira write:

“These are the words of the Son of God, who has eyes [that flash] like a flame of fire [in righteous judgment], and whose feet are like burnished [white-hot] bronze: [Dan 10:6]

¹⁹“I know your deeds, your love and faith and service and patient endurance, and that your last deeds are more numerous and greater than the first.

²⁰“But I have this [charge] against you, that you tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess [claiming to be inspired], and she teaches and misleads My bond-servants so that they commit [acts of sexual] immorality and eat food sacrificed to idols. [1 Kin 16:31; 2 Kin 9:22, 30]

²¹“I gave her time to repent [to change her inner self and her sinful way of thinking], but she has no desire to repent of her immorality and refuses to do so.

²²“Listen carefully, I will throw her on a bed of sickness, and those who commit adultery with her [I will bring] into great anguish, unless they repent of her deeds.

²³“And I will kill her children (followers) with pestilence [thoroughly annihilating them], and all the churches will know [without any doubt] that I am He who searches the minds and hearts [the innermost thoughts, purposes]; and I will give to each one of you [a reward or punishment] according to your deeds. [Ps 62:12; Jer 17:10]

²⁴“But to the rest of you in Thyatira, who do not hold this teaching, who have not explored and known the depths of Satan, as they call them—I place no other burden on you, ²⁵except to hold tightly to what you have until I come.

²⁶“And he who overcomes [the world through believing that Jesus is the Son of God] and he who keeps My deeds [doing things that please Me] until the [very] end, TO HIM I WILL GIVE AUTHORITY and POWER OVER THE NATIONS; [1 John 5:5]

²⁷AND HE SHALL SHEPHERD and RULE THEM WITH A ROD OF IRON, AS THE EARTHEN POTS ARE BROKEN IN PIECES, as I also have received authority [and power to rule them] from My Father; [Ps 2:8, 9]

²⁸and I will give him the Morning Star.

²⁹‘He who has an ear, let him hear and heed what the Spirit says to the churches.’

3 “TO THE angel (divine messenger) of the church in Sardis write:

“These are the words of Him who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars: ‘I know your deeds; you have a name (reputation) that you are alive, but [in reality] you are dead.

²‘Wake up, and strengthen and reaffirm what remains [of your faithful commitment to Me], which is about to die; for I have not found [any of] your deeds completed in the sight of My God or meeting His requirements.

³‘So remember and take to heart the lessons you have received and heard. Keep and obey them, and repent [change your sinful way of thinking, and demonstrate your repentance with new behavior that proves a conscious decision to turn away from sin]. So then, if you do not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come to you.

⁴‘But you [still] have a few people in Sardis who have not soiled their clothes [that is, contaminated their character and personal integrity with sin]; and they will walk with Me [dressed] in white, because they are worthy (righteous).

⁵‘He who overcomes [the world through believing that Jesus is the Son of God] will accordingly be dressed in white clothing; and I will never blot out his name from the Book of Life, and I will confess and openly acknowledge his name before My Father and before His angels [saying that he is one of Mine]. [Ps 69:28; Dan 12:1; Matt 10:32; 1 John 5:5]

⁶‘He who has an ear, let him hear and heed what the Spirit says to the churches.’

⁷“And to the angel (divine messenger) of the church in Philadelphia write:

“These are the words of the Holy One, the True One, He who has the key [to the house] of David, He who opens and no one will [be able to] shut, and He who shuts and no one opens: [Is 22:22]

⁸‘I know your deeds. See, I have set before you an open door which no one is able to shut, for you have a little power, and have kept My word, and have not renounced or denied My name. [1 Cor 16:9; Col 4:3, 4]

⁹‘Take note, I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say that they are Jews and are not, but lie—I will make them come and bow down at your feet and make them know [without any doubt] that I have loved you. [Is 45:14; 49:23; 60:14]

¹⁰‘Because you have kept the word of My endurance [My command to persevere], I will keep you [safe] from the hour of trial, that hour which is about to come on the whole [inhabited] world, to test those who live on the earth. [Mark 13:9; 2 Thess

2:1–12]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Think Purposefully

We can't just hope that we will think good thoughts. We have to actively seek to think them. We need to think purposefully, not passively. I define passive as a lack of feeling, a lack of desire, apathy, laziness, and lukewarmness. It is what John warned the church at Laodicea about, being "neither cold... nor hot" (Rev. 3:15).

A passive mind is a dangerous thing; passive people want good things to happen to them, but then just wait around to see what will happen. They do nothing to contribute to positive results in their lives.

The devil wants us to be passive, because then he can work his plan without any opposition from us. But the Bible tells us to "resist the devil [stand firm against him] and he will flee" (James 4:7). Be an active person who is always working with God toward the result that you desire to see in your life.

¹¹I am coming quickly. Hold tight what you have, so that no one will take your crown [by leading you to renounce the faith].

¹²He who overcomes [the world through believing that Jesus is the Son of God], I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God; he will most certainly never be put out of it, and I will write on him the name of My God, and the name of the city of

My God, the new Jerusalem, which descends out of heaven from My God, and My [own] new name. [Is 62:2; Ezek 48:35; 1 John 5:5]

¹³“He who has an ear, let him hear and heed what the Spirit says to the churches.’

¹⁴“To the angel (divine messenger) of the church in Laodicea write:

“These are the words of the Amen, the trusted and faithful and true Witness, the Beginning and Origin of God’s creation:

¹⁵“I know your deeds, that you are neither cold (invigorating, refreshing) nor hot (healing, therapeutic); I wish that you were cold or hot.

¹⁶“So because you are lukewarm (spiritually useless), and neither hot nor cold, I will vomit you out of My mouth [rejecting you with disgust].

¹⁷“Because you say, “I am rich, and have prospered and grown wealthy, and have need of nothing,” and you do not know that you are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked [without hope and in great need], [Hos 12:8]

¹⁸I counsel you to buy from Me gold that has been heated red hot and refined by fire so that you may become truly rich; and white clothes [representing righteousness] to clothe yourself so that the shame of your nakedness will not be seen; and healing salve to put on your eyes so that you may see.

¹⁹“Those whom I [dearly and tenderly] love, I rebuke and discipline [showing them their faults and instructing them]; so be enthusiastic and repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, your sinful behavior—seek God’s will]. [Prov 3:11, 12; Heb 5:8; 12:5–7]

20‘Behold, I stand at the door [of the church] and continually knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him (restore him), and he with Me.

21‘He who overcomes [the world through believing that Jesus is the Son of God], I will grant to him [the privilege] to sit beside Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down beside My Father on His throne. [1 John 5:5]

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Passivity Gives Place to the Enemy

The apostle Paul warned, “Do not give the devil an opportunity [to lead you into sin by holding a grudge, or nurturing anger, or harboring resentment, or cultivating bitterness]” (Eph. 4:27). There are many ways we give the devil an opening to pounce on us. One way is to be passive.

The best description I have found for the word passive is in Jesus’ words to the church at Laodicea: “I know your deeds, that you are neither cold (invigorating, refreshing) nor hot (healing, therapeutic); I wish that you were cold or hot” (Rev. 3:15). To be “lukewarm” (Rev. 3:16), is to not be passionate about anything, so you don’t do anything. This is dangerous, because it means you aren’t on guard; you aren’t actively standing up against the enemy.

One of the devil’s most deceiving tricks is to make you feel perfectly content about doing nothing. Paul wrote to Timothy and reminded him “to fan into flame the gracious gift of God, [that inner fire—the special endowment] which is in you” (2 Tim. 1:6). Paul told his young disciple to shake himself up and do something—which is good for us to consider as well. Paul is urging us to get moving and start using the gifts God has given us.

The devil knows that inactivity, laziness, or failure to exercise our will to do good can lead us into ultimate defeat. As long as we move against the devil, we can win the battle. When we do nothing, we become his prime target. But when we are stirred into action, passionate about faith and zealous to follow God, we can destroy all the devil’s influence.

I stress this because I see many believers who appear to be apathetic about the things of God. If they don’t feel like reading God’s Word, praying, or serving others, they just don’t do it. That’s not God’s way. We need to stir ourselves up—as Paul urged Timothy.

Fan the flame in you. Get active. Don’t give place to the devil by doing nothing. If you make the effort to stay in fellowship with God and to study the Bible, you give God the opportunity to bless you. If you don’t make the effort, the enemy has access into your life. Get moving! Start today.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

God, help me to stir myself up, especially when I feel lukewarm. Help me remember that doing so is an act of the will that You honor. In the name of Jesus, help me to stay vigilant and active—and that will lead to victory. Amen.

POWERPOINT

Throughout His Word, God plainly states that He disciplines us for one reason: because He loves us (see Heb. 12:6–10). We need to receive God's discipline as an expression of His love, and according to Revelation 3:19, we are to actually receive it with enthusiasm. Why should we do that? Simply because we know that God loves us, and we can trust that everything He does is for our ultimate good.

²²“He who has an ear, let him hear and heed what the Spirit says to the churches.””

4 AFTER THIS I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven! And the first voice which I had heard, like the sound of a [war] trumpet speaking with me, said, “Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after these things.”

²At once I was in [special communication with] the Spirit; and behold, a throne stood in heaven, with One seated on the throne. [Ezek 1:26]

³And He who sat there appeared like [the crystalline sparkle of] a jasper stone and [the fiery redness of] a sardius stone, and encircling the throne there was a rainbow that looked like [the color of an] emerald. [Ezek 1:28; Rev 21:11, 19]

⁴Twenty-four [other] thrones surrounded the throne; and seated on these thrones were twenty-four elders dressed in white clothing, with crowns of gold on their heads.

⁵From the throne came flashes of lightning and [rumbling] sounds and peals of thunder. Seven lamps of fire were burning in front of the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God; [Ex 19:16–20a]

⁶and in front of the throne there was something like a sea or large expanse of glass, like [the clearest] crystal. In the center and around the throne were four living creatures who were full of eyes in front and behind [seeing everything and knowing everything that is around them]. [Ps 99:1; Is 6:2, 3; Ezek 1:5, 18]

⁷The first living creature was like a lion, the second creature like a calf (ox), the third creature had the face of a man, and the fourth creature was like a flying eagle. [Ezek 1:10]

⁸And the four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes all over and within [underneath their wings]; and day and night they never stop saying,

“HOLY, HOLY, HOLY [is the] LORD GOD, THE ALMIGHTY

[the Omnipotent, the Ruler of all], WHO WAS AND WHO IS AND WHO IS TO COME [the unchanging, eternal God].” [Is 6:1–3; Rev 1:4]

⁹Whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanksgiving to Him who sits on the throne, to Him who lives forever and ever, [Ps 47:8]

¹⁰the twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne, and they worship Him who lives forever and ever; and they throw down their crowns before the throne, saying,

POWERPOINT

Worship is not only something due God, it is also a powerful force that shakes heaven, earth, and hell. Not only does the enemy see the heart of the worshiper in true worship, heaven sees it too. A worshiper gets God's attention. Heaven itself is filled with worship and praise (see Rev. 4:10). The scene described in Revelation 4:10 is actually repeated several times in the book of Revelation. We pray regularly, "Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven." And since heaven is filled with praise and worship, our lives should be filled with them also.

¹¹“Worthy are You, our Lord and God, to receive the glory and the honor and the power; for You created all things, and because of Your will they exist, and were created and brought into being.” [Ps 19:1]

5 I SAW in the right hand of Him who was seated on the throne a scroll written on the inside and on the back, closed and sealed with seven seals. [Is 29:11; Ezek 2:9, 10; Dan 12:4]

²And I saw a strong angel announcing with a loud voice, “Who is worthy [having the authority and virtue] to open the scroll and to break its seals?”

³And no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth [in Hades, the realm of the dead] was able to open the scroll or look into it.

⁴And I began to weep greatly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or look into it.

⁵Then one of the [twenty-four] elders said to me, “Stop weeping! Look closely, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome and conquered! He can open the scroll and [break] its seven seals.” [Gen 49:9, 10; Is 11:1, 10; Rev 22:16]

⁶And there between the throne (with the four living creatures) and among the elders I saw a Lamb (Christ) standing, [bearing scars and wounds] as though it had been slain, with seven horns (complete power) and with seven eyes (complete knowledge), which are the seven Spirits of God who have been sent [on duty] into all the earth. [Is 53:7; Zech 3:8, 9; 4:10]

⁷And He came and took the scroll from the right hand of Him who sat on the throne.

⁸And when He had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb (Christ), each one holding a harp and golden bowls full of fragrant incense, which are the prayers of the saints (God's people).

⁹And they sang a new song [of glorious redemption], saying,

“Worthy and deserving are You to take the scroll and to break its seals; for You were slain (sacrificed), and with Your blood You purchased people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation. [Ps 33:3]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I worship You, Jesus! Worthy are You, the Lamb that was sacrificed, to receive power and riches and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!

• adapted from Revelation 5:12

¹⁰“You have made them to be a kingdom [of royal subjects] and priests to our God; and they will reign on the earth.”
[Ex 19:6; Is 61:6; Rev 20:6]

¹¹Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne and [the voice] of the living creatures and the elders; and they numbered myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands (innumerable), [Dan 7:10]

¹²saying in a loud voice,

“Worthy and deserving is the Lamb that was sacrificed to receive power and riches and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing.”

¹³And I heard every created thing that is in heaven or on earth or under the earth [in Hades, the realm of the dead] or on the sea, and everything that is in them, saying [together],

“To Him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb (Christ), be blessing and honor and glory and dominion forever and ever.” [Dan 7:13, 14]

¹⁴And the four living creatures kept saying, “Amen.” And the elders fell down and worshiped [Him who lives forever and ever].

6 THEN I saw as the Lamb (Christ) broke one of the seven seals [of the scroll initiating the judgments], and I heard one of the four living creatures call out as with a voice of thunder, “Come.”

²I looked, and behold, a white horse [of victory] whose rider carried a bow; and a crown [of victory] was given to him, and he rode forth conquering and to conquer. [Ps 45:4, 5; Zech 1:8; 6:1–8]

³When He (the Lamb) broke the second seal, I heard the second living creature call out, “Come.”

⁴And another, a fiery red horse [of bloodshed], came out; and its rider was empowered to take peace from the earth, so that men would slaughter one another; and a great sword [of war and violent death] was given to him. [Zech 1:8; 6:1–8]

⁵When He (the Lamb) broke open the third seal, I heard the third living creature call out, “Come.” I looked, and behold, a black horse [of famine]; and the rider had in his hand a pair of scales (a balance). [Zech 6:1–8]

⁶And I heard something like a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, “A quart of wheat for a denarius (a day’s wages), and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and do not damage the oil and the wine.” [2 Kin 6:25]

⁷When He (the Lamb) broke open the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature call out, “Come.”

⁸So I looked, and behold, an ashen (pale greenish gray) horse [like a corpse, representing death and pestilence]; and its rider’s name was Death; and Hades (the realm of the dead) was following with him. They were given authority and power over a fourth part of the earth, to kill with the sword and with famine and with plague (pestilence, disease) and by the wild beasts of the earth. [Ezek 14:21; Hos 13:14]

⁹When He (the Lamb) broke open the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been slaughtered because of the word of God, and because of the testimony which they had maintained [out of loyalty to Christ].

¹⁰They cried in a loud voice, saying, “O Lord, holy and true, how long now before You will sit in judgment and avenge our blood on those [unregenerate ones] who dwell on the earth?” [Gen 4:10; Ps 79:10; 94:3; Zech 1:12]

¹¹Then they were each given a white robe; and they were told to rest and wait quietly for a little while longer, until the number of their fellow servants and their brothers and sisters who were to be killed even as they had been, would be completed.

¹²I looked when He (the Lamb) broke open the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth [made] of hair, and the whole moon became like blood; [Joel 2:10, 31]

¹³and the stars of the sky fell to the earth, like a fig tree shedding its late [summer] figs when shaken by a strong wind. [Is 34:4]

¹⁴The sky was split [separated from the land] and rolled up like a scroll, and every mountain and island were dislodged and moved out of their places.

¹⁵Then the kings of the earth and the great men and the military commanders and the wealthy and the strong and everyone, [whether] slave or free, hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains;

¹⁶and they called to the mountains and the rocks, “Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne, and from the [righteous] wrath and indignation of the Lamb; [Is 2:19–21; Hos 10:8]

¹⁷for the great day of their wrath and vengeance and retribution has come, and who is able to [face God and] stand [before the wrath of the Lamb]?” [Joel 2:11; Mal 3:2; Jude 14; Rev 19:11–16]

7 AFTER THIS I saw four angels stationed at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth so that no wind would blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree. [Zech 6:5]

²Then I saw another angel coming up from the rising of the sun, holding the seal of the living God; and with a loud voice he called out to the four angels to whom it was granted [to have authority and power] to harm the earth and the sea,

³saying, “Do not harm the earth nor the sea nor the trees until we seal (mark) the bond-servants of our God on their foreheads.” [Ezek 9:4]

⁴And I heard how many were sealed, a hundred and forty-four thousand; [twelve thousand] sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel:

⁵Twelve thousand were sealed from the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand from the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand from the tribe of Gad, ⁶twelve thousand from the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand from the tribe of Naphtali, twelve thousand from the tribe of Manasseh, ⁷twelve thousand from the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand from the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand from the tribe of

Issachar,

Speak God's Word

I know that salvation belongs to our God Who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb. Our salvation is from the Lord, and my deliverance is a result of His goodness.

| adapted from REVELATION
7:10 |

⁸twelve thousand from the tribe of Zebulun, twelve thousand from the tribe of Joseph, and twelve thousand from the tribe of Benjamin were sealed (marked, redeemed, protected).

⁹After these things I looked, and this is what I saw: a vast multitude which no one could count, [gathered] from every nation and from all the tribes and peoples and languages [of the earth], standing before the throne and before the Lamb (Christ), dressed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands;

¹⁰and in a loud voice they cried out, saying,

“Salvation [belongs] to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb [our salvation is the Trinity’s to give, and to God the Trinity we owe our deliverance].”

¹¹And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the [twenty-four] elders and the four living creatures; and they fell to their faces before the throne and worshiped God,

¹²saying,

“Amen! Blessing and glory and majesty and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might belong to our God forever and ever. Amen.”

¹³Then one of the elders responded, saying to me, “These who are dressed in the long white robes—who are they, and from where did they come?”

¹⁴I said to him, “My lord, you know [the answer].” And he said to me, “These are the people who come out of the great tribulation (persecution), and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb [because of His atoning sacrifice]. [Gen 49:11; Dan 12:1]

¹⁵“For this reason, they are [standing] before the throne of God; and they serve Him [in worship] day and night in His temple; and He who sits on the throne will spread His tabernacle over them and shelter and protect them [with His presence]. [Rev 21:3]

¹⁶“They will hunger no longer, nor thirst anymore; nor will the sun beat down on them, nor any [scorching] heat; [Is 49:10; Ps 121:6]

¹⁷for the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will be their Shepherd, and He will guide them to springs of the waters of life; and God will wipe every tear from their eyes [giving them eternal comfort].” [Ps 23:2; Is 25:8; Ezek 34:23; Rev 21:4]

8 WHEN HE (the Lamb) broke open the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour [in awe of God's impending judgment]. [Zeph 1:7]

²Then I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

³Another angel came and stood at the altar. He had a golden censer, and much incense was given to him, so that he might add it to the prayers of all the saints (God's people) on the golden altar in front of the throne. [Ps 141:2]

⁴And the smoke and fragrant aroma of the incense, with the prayers of the saints (God's people), ascended before God from the angel's hand.

⁵So the angel took the censer and filled it with fire from the altar, and hurled it to the earth; and there were peals of thunder and loud rumblings and sounds and flashes of lightning and an earthquake. [Lev 16:12; Ezek 10:2]

⁶Then the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound them [initiating the judgments].

⁷The first [angel] sounded [his trumpet], and there was [a storm of] hail and fire, mixed with blood, and it was hurled to the earth; and a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up. [Ex 9:13–35]

⁸The second angel sounded [his trumpet], and something like a great mountain blazing with fire was hurled into the sea; and a third of the sea was turned to blood; [Jer 51:25]

⁹and a third of the living creatures that were in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Victory Belongs to Those Who Don't Give Up

The way to put off your old life and put on the new, enjoyable life that God offers is by renewing your mind and attitude daily (see Eph. 4:22–24). “Daily” sounds daunting, doesn’t it? Don’t you wish Scripture said, “Do this once and you will enjoy victory the rest of your life”? However, it doesn’t, and if we truly want to live life to the fullest and enjoy each moment, we will need to form the habit of thinking life-energizing thoughts instead of life-draining ones.

One simple way to practice this is by thinking about what you do have instead of what you don’t have and by being grateful for every blessing, no matter how tiny or insignificant it may seem. After all, being grateful and giving God praise for every blessing is something we will be doing throughout eternity as we stand before God’s throne and before the Lamb, crying out, “Salvation [belongs] to our God.... Amen! Blessing and glory and majesty and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might belong to our God forever and ever. Amen” (Rev. 7:10, 12).

Good things are available to each of us, because God does not play favorites by doing good things for one person and not for another. No matter how bad life may have been until now, it can change. You can overcome evil with good. The darkness cannot overtake the light as long as we keep the light on. Turn the light on in your mind and fill it with positive, hope-filled, thankful, grateful thoughts. As you do this, your life will begin to change. It will be evident in your words, your attitudes, your actions, and your circumstances. Everything you do is connected to the mind, and that is where you win or lose the battle for the life you have always wanted.

Sometimes the battle of the mind seems relentless, but victory always comes to those who refuse to give up. I urge you not to be discouraged on the difficult days, because your diligence will pay off in due time. Any day that we don't give up puts us one day closer to success. Good thinking begins with a choice, so I urge you to make good choices today and every day.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord God, thank You for every blessing that You have given to me, and thank You that the day is coming when I will join the saints and bless You forever. In Jesus' name, help me to win this battle of the mind. Amen.

¹⁰The third angel sounded [his trumpet], and a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch [flashing across the sky], and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of [fresh] waters.

¹¹The name of the star is Wormwood; and a third of the waters became wormwood, and many people died from the waters, because they had become bitter (toxic).

¹²Then the fourth angel sounded [his trumpet], and a third of the sun and a third of the moon and a third of the stars were struck, so that a third of them would be darkened and a third of the daylight would not shine, and the night in the same way [would not shine]. [Ex 10:21–23]

¹³Then I looked, and I heard a solitary eagle flying in midheaven [for all to see], saying with a loud voice, “Woe, woe, woe [great wrath is coming] to those who dwell on the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpets which the three angels are about to sound [announcing ever greater judgments]!”

9 THEN THE fifth angel sounded [his trumpet], and I saw a star (angelic being) that had fallen from heaven to the earth; and the key of the bottomless pit (abyss) was given to him (the star-angel). [Rev 20:1]

²He opened the bottomless pit, and smoke like the smoke of a great furnace flowed out of the pit; and the sun and the atmosphere were darkened by the smoke from the pit. [Gen 19:28; Ex 19:18; Joel 2:10]

³Then out of the smoke came locusts upon the earth, and power [to hurt] was given to them, like the power which the earth's scorpions have. [Ex 10:12–15]

⁴They were told not to hurt the grass of the earth, nor any green thing, nor any tree, but [to hurt] only the people who do not have the seal (mark of ownership, protection) of God on their foreheads. [Ezek 9:4]

⁵They were not permitted to kill anyone, but to torment and cause them extreme pain for five months; and their torment was like the torment from a scorpion when it stings a man.

⁶And in those days people will seek death and will not find it; and they will long to die [to escape the pain], but [will discover that] death evades them. [Job 3:21]

⁷The locusts resembled horses prepared and equipped for battle; and on their heads appeared to be [something like] golden crowns, and their faces resembled human faces. [Joel 2:4]

⁸They had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were like the teeth of lions. [Joel 1:6]

⁹They had breastplates (scales) like breastplates made of iron; and the [whirring] noise of their wings was like the [thunderous] noise of countless horse-drawn chariots charging [at full speed] into battle. [Joel 2:5]

¹⁰They have tails like scorpions, and stingers; and in their tails is their power to hurt people for five months. [Joel 2:6]

¹¹They have as king over them, the angel of the abyss (the bottomless pit); in Hebrew his name is Abaddon (destruction), and in Greek he is called Apollyon (destroyer-king).

¹²The first woe has passed; behold, two woes are still coming after these things.

¹³Then the sixth angel sounded [his trumpet], and I heard a solitary voice from the four horns of the golden altar which stands before God,

¹⁴saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, “Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates.”

¹⁵So the four angels, who had been prepared for the [appointed] hour and day and month and year, were released to kill a third of mankind.

¹⁶The number of the troops of cavalry was twice ten thousand times ten thousand (two hundred million); I heard the number of them.

¹⁷And this is how I saw the horses and their riders in my vision: the riders had breastplates [the color] of fire and of hyacinth (sapphire blue) and of brimstone (yellow); and the heads of the horses looked like the heads of lions; and from out of their mouths came fire and smoke and brimstone (burning sulfur).

¹⁸A third of mankind was killed by these three plagues—by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone that came from the mouths of the horses.

¹⁹For the power of the horses [to do harm] is in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents and have heads, and it is with them that they do harm.

²⁰The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent even then of the works of their hands, so as to cease worshipping and paying homage to the demons and the idols of gold and of silver and of bronze and of stone and of wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk; [Ps

²¹and they did not repent of their murders nor of their sorceries (drugs, intoxications) nor of their [sexual] immorality nor of their thefts.

10 THEN I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven, clothed in a cloud, with a rainbow (halo) over his head; and his face was like the sun, and his feet (legs) were like columns of fire; [Ex 13:21, 22; Ezek 1:26–28; Dan 7:13; Matt 17:2]

²and he had a little book (scroll) open in his hand. He set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land; [Ezek 2:9; Hos 11:10]

³and he shouted with a loud voice, like the roaring of a lion [compelling attention and inspiring awe]; and when he had shouted out, the seven peals of thunder spoke with their own voices [uttering their message in distinct words]. [Ps 29]

⁴And when the seven peals of thunder had spoken, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Seal up the things which the seven peals of thunder have spoken and do not write them down.” [2 Cor 12:4]

⁵Then the angel whom I had seen standing on the sea and the land raised his right hand [to swear an oath] to heaven, [Deut 32:40; Dan 12:6, 7]

⁶and swore [an oath] by [the name of] Him who lives forever and ever, WHO CREATED HEAVEN AND THE THINGS IN IT, AND THE EARTH AND THE THINGS IN IT, AND THE SEA AND THE THINGS IN IT, that there will be delay no longer, [Neh 9:6]

⁷but when it is time for the trumpet call of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of God [that is, His hidden purpose and plan] is finished, as He announced the gospel to His servants the prophets. [Dan 12:6; Rom 11:25; 1 Cor 15:55; 2 Thess 2:7]

⁸Then the voice which I heard from heaven, I heard again speaking to me, and saying, “Go, take the book (scroll) which is open in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land.”

⁹So I went up to the angel and told him to give me the little book. And he said to me, “Take it and eat it; it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey.” [Ezek 2:8, 9; 3:1–3]

¹⁰So I took the little book from the angel’s hand and ate it, and in my mouth it was as sweet as honey; but once I had swallowed it, my stomach was bitter. [Ps 119:103; Jer 15; 16]

¹¹Then they said to me, “You must prophesy again concerning many peoples and nations and languages and kings.” [Jer 1:10]

11 THEN THERE was given to me a measuring rod like a staff; and someone said, “Rise and measure the temple of God and the altar [of incense], and [count] those who worship in it. [Ezek 40–42]

²“But leave out the court [of the Gentiles] which is outside the temple and do not measure it, because it has been given to the Gentiles (the nations); and they will trample the holy city for forty-two months (three and one-half years). [Dan 8:9–14;

Zech 12:3; Luke 21:24]

³“And I will grant authority to My two witnesses, and they will prophesy for twelve hundred and sixty days (forty-two months; three and one-half years), dressed in sackcloth.” [Deut 18:18; Mal 4:5; Mark 9:4]

⁴These [witnesses] are the two olive trees and the two lampstands which stand before the Lord of the earth. [Zech 4:3, 11–14]

⁵And if anyone wants to harm them, fire comes out of their mouth and devours their enemies; so if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this way. [2 Kin 1:10–12; Jer 5:14]

⁶These [two witnesses] have the power [from God] to shut up the sky, so that no rain will fall during the days of their prophesying [regarding judgment and salvation]; and they have power over the waters (seas, rivers) to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every [kind of] plague, as often as they wish. [Ex 7:14–19; 1 Kin 17:1]

⁷When they have finished their testimony and given their evidence, the beast that comes up out of the abyss (bottomless pit) will wage war with them, and overcome them and kill them. [Dan 7:3, 7, 21]

⁸And their dead bodies will lie exposed in the open street of the great city (Jerusalem), which in a spiritual sense is called [by the symbolic and allegorical names of] Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified. [Is 1:9]

⁹Those from the peoples and tribes and languages and nations look at their dead bodies for three and a half days, and will not allow their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb.

¹⁰And those [non-believers] who live on the earth will gloat over them and rejoice; and they will send gifts [in celebration] to one another, because these two prophets tormented and troubled those who live on the earth.

¹¹But after three and a half days, the breath of life from God came into them, and they stood on their feet; and great fear and panic fell on those who were watching them. [Ezek 37:5, 10]

¹²And the two witnesses heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, “Come up here.” Then they ascended into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies watched them. [2 Kin 2:11]

¹³And in that [very] hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell and was destroyed; seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest [who survived] were overcome with terror, and they glorified the God of heaven [as they recognized His awesome power].

¹⁴The second woe is past; behold, the third woe is coming quickly.

¹⁵Then the seventh angel sounded [his trumpet]; and there were loud voices in heaven, saying,

“The kingdom (dominion, rule) of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ; and He will reign forever and ever.” [Ps 22:28; Dan 2:31–45; 7:13, 14, 27; Zech 14:9]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I am thankful, Jesus, that the kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ; and You will reign forever and ever.

• adapted from Revelation 11:15

¹⁶And the twenty-four elders, who sit on their thrones before God, fell face downward and worshiped God,

¹⁷saying,

“To You we give thanks, O Lord God Almighty [the Omnipotent, the Ruler of all], Who are and Who were, because You have taken Your great power and the sovereignty [which is rightly Yours] and have [now] begun to reign.

¹⁸“And the nations (Gentiles) became enraged, and Your wrath and indignation came, and the time came for the dead to be judged, and [the time came] to reward Your bond-servants the prophets and the saints (God’s people) and those who fear Your name, the small and the great, and [the time came] to destroy the destroyers of the earth.” [Ps 2:1; 2 Thess 1:3–12]

¹⁹And the temple of God which is in heaven was opened; and the ark of His covenant appeared in His temple, and there were flashes of lightning, loud rumblings and peals of thunder and an earthquake and a great hailstorm. [1 Kin 8:1–12]

12 AND A great sign [warning of an ominous and frightening future event] appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon beneath her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.

²She was with child (the Messiah) and she cried out, being in labor and in pain to give birth. [Rom 9:4, 5]

³Then another sign [of warning] was seen in heaven: behold, a great fiery red dragon (Satan) with seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads were seven royal crowns (diadems). [Dan 7:7]

⁴And his tail swept [across the sky] and dragged away a third of the stars of heaven and flung them to the earth. And the dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her child. [Dan 8:10; Rev 12:9]

⁵And she gave birth to a Son, a male Child, who is destined to rule (shepherd) all the nations with a rod of iron; and her Child was caught up to God and to His throne. [Ps 2:8, 9; 110:1, 2]

⁶Then the woman fled into the wilderness where she had a place prepared by God, so that she would be nourished there for a thousand two hundred and sixty days (forty-two months; three and one-half years).

⁷And war broke out in heaven, Michael [the archangel] and his angels waging war with the dragon. The dragon and his angels fought,

⁸but they were not strong enough and did not prevail, and there was no longer a place found for them in heaven. [2 Pet

2:4; Jude 6]

⁹And the great dragon was thrown down, the age-old serpent who is called the devil and Satan, he who continually deceives and seduces the entire inhabited world; he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. [Gen 3:1, 14, 15; Zech 3:1; John 13:2; 2 Cor 11:3; Rev 20:8]

¹⁰Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying,

“Now the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom (dominion, reign) of our God, and the authority of His Christ have come; for the accuser of our [believing] brothers and sisters has been thrown down [at last], he who accuses them and keeps bringing charges [of sinful behavior] against them before our God day and night. [Job 1:6–11]

¹¹“And they overcame and conquered him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, for they did not love their life and renounce their faith even when faced with death. [Zech 3:1–10; Rom 8:33, 34]

Speak God's Word

I overcome and conquer the devil because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of my testimony, for I do not love my life and I do not renounce my faith even when faced with death.

| adapted from REVELATION

12:11 |

¹²“Therefore rejoice, O heavens and you who dwell in them [in the presence of God]. Woe to the earth and the sea, because the devil has come down to you in great wrath, knowing that he has only a short time [remaining]!” [Is 44:23; 49:13]

¹³And when the dragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who had given birth to the male Child.

¹⁴But the two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, so that she could fly into the wilderness to her place, where she was nourished for a time and times and half a time (three and one-half years), away from the presence of the serpent (Satan). [Ex 19:4; Deut 32:10, 11; Is 40:31; Dan 7:25; 12:7]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Press Through the Opposition

The Bible tells us that with every opportunity, opposition always comes. The devil always resists our progress. He is constantly ready to prevent the birth of any good thing God tries to do in us or through us. Revelation 12:4 says, “And the dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her child.”

To me, this indicates that the enemy is stationed and ready to devour any good thing in our life, which includes the birth of our successes in every area. Any time God puts a fresh, new idea in your heart or gives you a dream, a vision, or a new challenge for your life and you desire to give birth to it, the enemy will be there to oppose you. If you know this ahead of time, you can press through the opposition and see God’s good will come to pass in your life.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Defeating the Devil

Unfortunately, it is possible for the enemy to speak through us, and that is exactly what he wants to do. If we allow him to do it, we are, in a manner of speaking, working for him. For example, he is referred to as “the accuser of our [believing] brothers and sisters” (Rev. 12:10). That means he continually brings accusations against the children of God, trying to accuse us of sinful behavior before God, to make us feel guilty and condemned, and even to cause others to think accusing thoughts about us. If we allow that accusing spirit to work through us, we will quickly and easily find fault with many people and things.

The devil also accuses us to ourselves. He places accusing thoughts in our minds or brings accusations against us through other people. The Bible says that we overcome him by the blood of the Lamb and the word of our testimony (see Rev. 12:11). If we know the truth of God’s Word and act on it, we can defeat the devil!

¹⁵And the serpent hurled water like a river out of his mouth after the woman, so that he might cause her to be swept away with the flood.

¹⁶But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon had hurled out of his mouth. [Ex 15:12]

¹⁷So the dragon was enraged with the woman, and he went off to wage war on the rest of her children (seed), those who keep and obey the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus [holding firmly to it and bearing witness to Him].

13 AND THE dragon (Satan) stood on the sandy shore of the sea. [Dan 7:7]

Then I saw a [vicious] beast coming up out of the sea with ten horns and seven heads, and on his horns were ten royal crowns (diadems), and on his heads were blasphemous names.

²And the beast that I saw resembled a leopard, but his feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth was like that of a lion. And the dragon gave him his power and his throne and great authority.

⁴They fell down and worshiped the dragon because he gave his authority to the beast; they also worshiped the beast, saying, “Who is like (as great as) the beast, and who is able to wage war against him?”

⁵And the beast was given a mouth (the power of speech), uttering great things and arrogant and blasphemous words, and he was given freedom and authority to act and to do as he pleased for forty-two months (three and a half years). [Dan 7:8]

⁶And he opened his mouth to speak blasphemies (abusive speech, slander) against God, to blaspheme His name and His tabernacle, and those who live in heaven.

⁷He was also permitted to wage war against the saints (God's people) and to overcome them, and authority and power over every tribe and people and language and nation. [Dan 7:21, 25]

⁸All the inhabitants of the earth will fall down and worship him, everyone whose name has not been written since the foundation of the world in the Book of Life of the Lamb who has been slain [as a willing sacrifice].

⁹If anyone has an ear, let him hear.

¹⁰If anyone is destined for captivity, he will go into captivity; if anyone kills with a sword, he must be killed with a sword. Here is [the call for] the patient endurance and the faithfulness of the saints [which is seen in the response of God's people to difficult times]. [Jer 15:2]

¹¹Then I saw another beast rising up out of the earth; he had two horns like a lamb and he spoke like a dragon. [Matt 7:15, 16]

¹²He exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence [when the two are together]. And he makes the earth and those who inhabit it worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

¹³He performs great signs (awe-inspiring acts), even making fire fall from the sky to the earth, right before peoples' eyes.

¹⁴And he deceives those [unconverted ones] who inhabit the earth [into believing him] because of the signs which he is given [by Satan] to perform in the presence of the [first] beast, telling those who inhabit the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded [fatally] by the sword and has come back to life. [Deut 13:1–5; Mark 13:22; 2 Thess 2:9, 10]

¹⁵And he is given power to give breath to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast will even [appear to] speak, and cause those who do not bow down and worship the image of the beast to be put to death. [Dan 3:5]

¹⁶Also he compels all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free men and the slaves, to be given a mark on their right hand or on their forehead [signifying allegiance to the beast],

¹⁷and that no one will be able to buy or sell, except the one who has the mark, either the name of the beast or the number of his name.

¹⁸Here is wisdom. Let the person who has enough insight calculate the number of the beast, for it is the [imperfect] number of a man; and his number is six hundred and sixty-six.

14 THEN I looked, and this is what I saw: the Lamb stood [firmly established] on Mount Zion, and with Him a hundred and forty-four thousand who had His name and His Father's name inscribed on their foreheads [signifying God's own possession]. [Joel 2:32]

²And I heard a voice from heaven, like the sound of great waters and like the rumbling of mighty thunder; and the voice that I heard [seemed like music and] was like the sound of harpists playing on their harps.

³And they sang a new song before the throne [of God] and before the four living creatures and the elders; and no one could learn the song except the hundred and forty-four thousand who had been purchased (ransomed, redeemed) from the earth. [Rev 7:4–8]

⁴These are the ones who have not been defiled [by relations] with women, for they are celibate. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These have been purchased and redeemed from among men [of Israel] as the first fruits [sanctified and set apart for special service] for God and the Lamb. [Mark 8:34]

⁵No lie was found in their mouth, for they are blameless (spotless, untainted, beyond reproach).

⁶Then I saw another angel flying in midheaven, with an eternal gospel to preach to the inhabitants of the earth, to every nation and tribe and language and people; [Rom 1:1–4; 1 Cor 15:3–5; Gal 1:6, 7]

⁷and he said with a loud voice, “Fear God [with awe and reverence], and give Him glory [and honor and praise in worship], because the hour of His judgment has come; [with all your heart] worship Him who created the heaven and the earth, the sea and the springs of water.”

⁸Then another angel, a second one, followed, saying, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, she who has made all nations drink the wine of the passion of her immorality [corrupting them with idolatry].” [Is 21:9; Dan 4:30, 31; Rev 17:2]

⁹Then another angel, a third one, followed them, saying with a loud voice, “Whoever worships the beast and his image and receives the mark [of the beast] on his forehead or on his hand,

¹⁰he too will [have to] drink of the wine of the wrath of God, mixed undiluted into the cup of His anger; and he will be tormented with fire and brimstone (flaming sulfur) in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb (Christ). [Gen 19:24; Jer 25:15, 16; Luke 12:9]

¹¹“And the smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever; and they have no rest day and night—those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name.” [Is 34:10; Mark 9:48]

¹²Here is [encouragement for] the steadfast endurance of the saints (God’s people), those who habitually keep God’s commandments and their faith in Jesus.

¹³Then I heard [the distinct words of] a voice from heaven, saying, “Write, ‘Blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired) are the dead who die in the Lord from now on!’” “Yes, [blessed indeed],” says the Spirit, “so that they may rest and have relief from their labors, for their deeds do follow them.”

¹⁴Again I looked, and this is what I saw: a white cloud, and sitting on the cloud was One like the Son of Man, with a crown of gold on His head and a sharp sickle [of swift judgment] in His hand. [Dan 7:13, 14; Matt 13:30, 40–42]

¹⁵And another angel came out of the temple, calling with a loud voice to Him who was sitting upon the cloud, “Put in Your sickle and reap [at once], for the hour to reap [in judgment] has arrived, because the earth’s harvest is fully ripened.” [Joel 3:13]

¹⁶So He who was sitting on the cloud cast His sickle over the earth, and the earth was reaped (judged).

¹⁷Then another angel came out of the temple (sanctuary) in heaven, and he also had a sharp sickle.

¹⁸And another angel came from the altar, the one who has power over fire; and he called with a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, “Put in your sharp sickle and reap the clusters of grapes from the vine of the earth, because her grapes are ripe [for judgment].” [Luke 9:54]

¹⁹So the angel swung his sickle to the earth and harvested the grapevine of the earth, and threw the grapes into the great wine press of the wrath and indignation of God [as judgment of the rebellious world]. [Is 63:3]

²⁰And the grapes in the wine press were trampled and crushed outside the city, and blood poured from the wine press, reaching up to the horses’ bridles, for a distance of sixteen hundred stadia. [Joel 3:13; Heb 13:12]

15 THEN I saw another sign in heaven, great and wonderful [a warning of terrifying and horrible events]: seven angels who had seven plagues (afflictions, calamities), which are the last, because with them the wrath of God is finished [that is, it is completely expressed and reaches its zenith]. [Lev 26:21]

²Then I saw something like a sea or large expanse of glass mixed with fire, and those who were victorious over the beast and over his image and over the number corresponding to his name were standing on the sea or large expanse of glass, holding harps of God [worshiping Him]. [Rev 4:6; 7:9–17]

³And they sang the song of Moses, the bond-servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying,

“Great and wonderful and awe-inspiring are Your works [in judgment],

O Lord God, the Almighty [the Omnipotent, the Ruler of all];
Righteous and true are Your ways,
O King of the nations! [Ex 15:1–8; Ps 145:17]

⁴“Who will not fear [reverently] and glorify Your name, O Lord [giving You honor and praise in worship]?

For You alone are holy;

FOR ALL THE NATIONS SHALL COME AND WORSHIP BEFORE YOU, FOR YOUR RIGHTEOUS ACTS [Your just decrees and judgments] HAVE BEEN REVEALED and DISPLAYED.” [Ps 86:9; Jer 10:7; Phil 2:9–11]

⁵After these things I looked, and the temple (sanctuary) of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened,

⁶and the seven angels who had the seven plagues (afflictions, calamities) came out of the temple, arrayed in linen, pure and gleaming, and wrapped around their chests were golden sashes.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Great, wonderful, and awe-inspiring are Your works of judgment, O Lord God Almighty. Righteous and true are Your ways, O King of the nations!

• adapted from Revelation 15:3

⁷Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath and indignation of God, who lives forever and ever. [Rev 4:6]

⁸And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory and radiance and splendor of God and from His power; and no one was able to enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were finished. [Ex 33:9, 10; 1 Kin 8:10, 11; Is 6:4; Ezek 44:4]

16 THEN I heard a loud voice from the temple, saying to the seven angels, “Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of the wrath and indignation of God.” [Ps 69:24; Is 66:6]

²So the first angel went and poured out his bowl on the earth; and loathsome and malignant sores came on the people who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped his image. [Ex 9:10, 11; Deut 28:35]

³The second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it turned into blood like that of a corpse [foul and disgusting]; and every living ^{*}thing in the sea died.

⁴Then the third angel poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs of water; and they turned into blood. [Ex 7:17–21]

⁵And I heard the angel of the waters saying, “Righteous and just are You, Who are and Who were, O Holy One, because You judged these things;

⁶for they have poured out the blood of the saints (God’s people) and the prophets, and You [in turn] have given them blood to drink. They deserve Your judgment.” [Ps 79:3]

⁷And I heard [another from] the altar saying, “Yes, O Lord God, the Almighty [the Omnipotent, the Ruler of all], Your judgments are true and fair and righteous.” [Ps 119:137]

⁸Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was given power to scorch humanity with [raging] fire.

⁹People were [severely] burned by the great heat; and they reviled the name of God who has power over these plagues, but they did not repent [of their sin] and glorify Him.

¹⁰Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was plunged into darkness; and people gnawed their tongues because of the pain [of their excruciating anguish and severe torment], [Ex 10:21]

¹¹and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their anguish and their sores (abscesses, boils); and they did not repent of what they had done nor hate their wickedness.

¹²Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river, the Euphrates; and its water was dried up, so that the way would be prepared for [the coming of] the kings from the east. [Is 11:15, 16]

¹³And I saw three loathsome spirits like frogs, leaping from the mouth of the dragon (Satan) and from the mouth of the beast (Antichrist, dictator) and from the mouth of the false prophet; [Ex 8:3; 1 Kin 22:21–23]

¹⁴for they are [actually] the spirits of demons, performing [miraculous] signs. And they go out to the kings of the entire inhabited earth, to gather them together for the war of the great day of God, the Almighty.

¹⁵(“Behold, I am coming like a thief. Blessed is he who stays awake and who keeps his clothes [that is, stays spiritually ready for the Lord’s return], so that he will not be naked—spiritually unprepared—and men will not see his shame.”) [Matt 24:42–44; 1 Thess 5:2–4]

¹⁶And they (demons) gathered the kings and armies of the world together at the place which in Hebrew is called Har-Magedon (Armageddon).

¹⁷Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple from the throne [of God], saying, “It is done. [It is all over, it is all accomplished, it has come.]”

¹⁸And there were flashes of lightning and loud rumblings and peals of thunder; and there was a massive earthquake—nothing like it has ever occurred since mankind originated on the earth, so severe and far-reaching was that earthquake. [Ex 19:16–18; Dan 12:1]

¹⁹The great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And God kept in mind Babylon the great, to give her the cup of the wine of His fierce and furious wrath.

²⁰Then every island fled away, and no mountains could be found.

²¹And giant hailstones, as heavy as a talent, fell from the sky on the people; and people reviled and spoke abusively of God for the plague of the hail, because the plague was so very great. [Ex 9:22–25]

17 THEN ONE of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, “Come here, I will show you the judgment and doom of the great prostitute who is seated on many waters [influencing nations], [Jer 51:13]

²*she* with whom the kings of the earth have committed acts of immorality, and the inhabitants of the earth have become intoxicated with the wine of her immorality.” [Jer 25:15, 16]

³And the angel carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness; and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was entirely covered with blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. [Acts 10:10, 11]

⁴The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold, precious stones and pearls, [and she was] holding in her hand a gold cup full of the abominations and the filth of her [sexual] immorality. [Jer 51:7]

⁵And on her forehead a name was written, a mystery: “BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES (false religions, heresies) AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.”

⁶I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of the saints (God’s people), and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus [who were martyred]. When I saw her, I wondered in amazement.

⁷But the angel said to me, “Why do you wonder? I will explain to you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and ten horns.

⁸“The beast that you saw was [once], but [now] is not, and he is about to come up out of the abyss (the bottomless pit, the dwelling place of demons) and go to destruction (perdition). And the inhabitants of the earth, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, will be astonished when they see the beast, because he was and is not and is yet to come [to earth]. [Dan 7:3]

⁹“Here is the mind which has wisdom [and this is what it knows about the vision]. The seven heads are seven hills on which the woman sits;

¹⁰and they are seven kings: five of whom have fallen, one exists and is reigning; the other [the seventh] has not yet come, and when he does come, he must remain a little while.

¹¹“And the beast that [once] was but is not, is himself also an eighth king and is one of the seven, and he goes to destruction (perdition).

¹²“The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but [together] they receive authority as kings for a single hour [for a common purpose] along with the beast. [Dan 7:20–24]

¹³“These [kings] have one purpose [one mind, one common goal], and they give their power and authority to the beast.

¹⁴“They will wage war against the Lamb (Christ), and the Lamb will triumph and conquer them, because He is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those who are with Him and on His side are the called and chosen (elect) and faithful.” [Dan

2:47; 1 Tim 6:15; Rev 19:16]

¹⁵Then the angel said to me, “The waters which you saw, where the prostitute is seated, are peoples and multitudes and nations and languages.

¹⁶“And the ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the prostitute and will make her desolate and naked [stripped of her power and influence], and will eat her flesh and completely consume her with fire.

¹⁷“For God has put it in their hearts to carry out His purpose by agreeing together to surrender their kingdom to the beast, until the [prophetic] words of God will be fulfilled.

¹⁸“The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over and dominates and controls the kings and the political leaders of the earth.”

18 AFTER THESE things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, possessing great authority, and the earth was illuminated with his splendor and radiance. [Ex 34:29–35; 1 Tim 6:16]

²And he shouted with a mighty voice, saying, “Fallen, fallen [certainly to be destroyed] is Babylon the great! She has become a dwelling place for demons, a dungeon haunted by every unclean spirit, and a prison for every unclean and loathsome bird.

³“For all the nations have drunk from the wine of the passion of her [sexual] immorality, and the kings and political leaders of the earth have committed immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich by the wealth and economic power of her sensuous luxury.” [Jer 25:15, 27]

⁴And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, “Come out of her, my people, so that you will not be a partner in her sins and receive her plagues; [Is 48:20; Jer 50:8]

⁵for her sins (crimes, transgressions) have piled up as high as heaven, and God has remembered her wickedness and crimes [for judgment]. [Jer 51:9]

⁶“Repay to her even as she has repaid others, and pay back [to her] double [her torment] in accordance with what she has done; in the cup [of sin and suffering] which she mixed, mix a double portion [of perfect justice] for her. [Ps 137:8]

⁷“To the degree that she glorified herself and reveled and gloated in her sensuality [living deliciously and luxuriously], to that same degree impose on her torment and anguish, and mourning and grief; for in her heart she boasts, ‘I SIT AS A QUEEN [on a throne] AND I AM NOT A WIDOW, and will never, ever see mourning or experience grief.’ [Is 47:8, 9]

⁸“For this reason in a single day her plagues (afflictions, calamities) will come, pestilence and mourning and famine, and she will be burned up with fire and completely consumed; for strong and powerful is the Lord God who judges her.

⁹“And the kings and political leaders of the earth, who committed immorality and lived luxuriously with her, will weep and beat their chests [in mourning] over her when they see the smoke of her burning, [Ezek 26:16, 17]

¹⁰standing a long way off, in fear of her torment, saying, ‘Woe, woe, the great city, the strong city, Babylon! In a single hour your judgment has come.’

¹¹“And merchants of the earth will weep and grieve over her, because no one buys their cargo (goods, merchandise) anymore—[Ezek 27:36]

¹²cargoes of gold and silver and precious stones and pearls and fine linen and purple and silk and scarlet; all kinds of citron (scented) wood and every article of ivory and every article of very costly and lavish wood and bronze and iron and marble; [Ezek 27:12, 13, 22]

¹³and cinnamon and spices and incense and perfume and frankincense and wine and olive oil and fine flour and wheat; of cattle and sheep, and cargoes of horses and chariots and carriages; and of slaves and human lives.

¹⁴“The ripe fruits and delicacies of your soul’s desire have gone from you, and all things that were luxurious and extravagant are lost to you, never again to be found.

¹⁵“The merchants who handled these articles, who grew wealthy from [their business with] her, will stand a long way off in fear of her torment, weeping and mourning aloud,

¹⁶saying, ‘Woe, woe, for the great city that was robed in fine linen, in purple and scarlet, gilded and adorned with gold, with precious stones, and with pearls; [Ezek 27:31, 36]

¹⁷because in one hour all the vast wealth has been laid waste.’ And every ship captain or navigator, and every passenger and sailor, and all who make their living by the sea, stood a long way off, [Is 23:14; Ezek 27:26–30]

¹⁸and exclaimed as they watched the smoke of her burning, saying, ‘What could be compared to the great city?’

¹⁹“And they threw dust on their heads and were crying out, weeping and mourning, saying, ‘Woe, woe, for the great city, where all who had ships at sea grew rich from her great wealth, because in one hour she has been laid waste!’ [Ezek 27:30–34]

²⁰“Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you saints (God’s people) and apostles and prophets [who were martyred], because God has executed vengeance for you [through righteous judgment] upon her.” [Is 44:23; Jer 51:48, 49]

²¹Then a single powerful angel picked up a boulder like a great millstone and flung it into the sea, saying, “With such violence will Babylon the great city be hurled down [by the sudden, spectacular judgment of God], and will never again be found. [Jer 51:63, 64; Ezek 26:21]

²²“And the sound of harpists and musicians and flutists and trumpeters will never again be heard in you, and no skilled artisan of any craft will ever again be found in you, and the sound of the millstone [grinding grain] will never again be heard in you [for commerce will no longer flourish, and normal life will cease]. [Is 24:8; Ezek 26:13]

²³“And never again will the light of a lamp shine in you, and never again will the voice of the bridegroom and bride be heard in you; for your merchants were the great and prominent men of the earth, because all the nations were deceived and misled by your sorcery [your magic spells and poisonous charm].

²⁴“And in Babylon was found the blood of prophets and of saints (God’s people) and of all those who have been slaughtered on the earth.” [Gen 4:10; Jer 51:49]

19 AFTER THESE things I heard something like the great and mighty shout of a vast multitude in heaven, exclaiming, “Hallelujah! Salvation and glory (splendor, majesty) and power (dominion, might) belong to our God;

²BECAUSE HIS JUDGMENTS ARE TRUE AND RIGHTEOUS. He has judged [convicted and pronounced sentence on] the great prostitute (idolatress) who was corrupting and ruining and poisoning the earth with her adultery (idolatry), and HE HAS IMPOSED THE PENALTY FOR THE BLOOD OF HIS BOND-SERVANTS ON HER.” [Deut 32:43; Ps 19:9]

³And a second time they said, “Hallelujah! HER SMOKE SHALL ASCEND FOREVER AND EVER.” [Is 34:10]

⁴Then the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures also fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne, saying, “Amen. Hallelujah (praise the Lord!)” [Ps 106:48]

⁵Then from the throne there came a voice, saying,

“Praise our God, all you bond-servants of His, you who fear Him, the small (common) and the great (distinguished).” [Ps 115:13]

⁶Then I heard something like the shout of a vast multitude, and like the boom of many pounding waves, and like the roar of mighty peals of thunder, saying, “Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, [the Omnipotent, the Ruler of all] reigns.

⁷“Let us rejoice and shout for joy! Let us give Him glory and honor, for the marriage of the Lamb has come [at last] and His bride (the redeemed) has prepared herself.” [Ps 118:24]

⁸She has been permitted to dress in fine linen, dazzling white and clean—for the fine linen signifies the righteous acts of the saints [the ethical conduct, personal integrity, moral courage, and godly character of believers].

⁹Then the angel said to me, “Write, ‘Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.’” And he said to me [further], “These are the true and exact words of God.” [Is 25:6–8; Matt 26:29; Luke 13:29]

¹⁰Then I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he [stopped me and] said to me, “You must not do that; I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers and sisters who have and hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God [alone]. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy [His life and teaching are the heart of prophecy].” [Acts 10:25, 26; 2 Pet 1:21]

¹¹And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and He who was riding it is called Faithful and True (trustworthy, loyal, incorruptible, steady), and in righteousness He judges and wages war [on the rebellious nations]. [2 Thess 1:7–10]

¹²His eyes are a flame of fire, and on His head are many royal crowns; and He has a name inscribed [on Him] which no one knows or understands except Himself.

¹³He is dressed in a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God. [John 1:1, 14]

¹⁴And the armies of heaven, dressed in fine linen, [dazzling] white and clean, followed Him on white horses.

¹⁵From His mouth comes a sharp sword (His word) with which He may strike down the nations, and He will rule them with a rod of iron; and He will tread the wine press of the fierce wrath of God, the Almighty [in judgment of the rebellious world]. [Ps 2:9; Is 11:4; Rev 1:16]

Speak God's Word

I confess that Jesus Christ is King of kings and Lord of lords!

| adapted from REVELATION
19:16 |

¹⁶And on His robe and on His thigh He has a name inscribed, “KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.” [Deut 10:17]

¹⁷Then I saw a single angel standing in the sun, and with a loud voice he shouted to all the birds that fly in midheaven, saying, “Come, gather together for the great supper of God, [Ezek 39:4, 17–20]

¹⁸so that you may feast on the flesh of kings, the flesh of commanders, the flesh of powerful and mighty men, the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all humanity, both free men and slaves, both small and great [in a complete conquest of evil].”

¹⁹Then I saw the beast and the kings and political leaders of the earth with their armies gathered to make war against Him who is mounted on the [white] horse and against His army.

²⁰And the beast (Antichrist) was seized and overpowered, and with him the false prophet who, in his presence, had performed [amazing] signs by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image; these two were hurled alive into the lake of fire which blazes with brimstone.

²¹And the rest were killed with the sword which came from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse, and all the birds fed ravenously and gorged themselves with their flesh.

20 AND THEN I saw an angel descending from heaven, holding the key of the abyss (the bottomless pit) and a great chain was in his hand.

²And he overpowered and laid hold of the dragon, that old serpent [of primeval times], who is the devil and Satan, and bound him [securely] for a thousand years (a millennium); [Rev 12:7-9, 12, 15]

³and the angel hurled him into the abyss, and closed it and sealed it above him [preventing his escape or rescue], so that he would no longer deceive and seduce the nations, until the thousand years were at an end. After these things he must be liberated for a short time.

⁴And then I saw thrones, and sitting on them were those to whom judgment [that is, the authority to act as judges] was given. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony of Jesus and because of the word of God, and those who had refused to worship the beast or his image, and had not accepted his mark on their forehead and on their hand; and they came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. [Dan 7:9, 22, 27]

⁵The rest of the dead [the non-believers] did not come to life again until the thousand years were completed. This is the first resurrection.

⁶Blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired) and holy is the person who takes part in the first resurrection; over these the second death [which is eternal separation from God, the lake of fire] has no power or authority, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and they will reign with Him a thousand years. [Ex 19:6; 1 Pet 2:5, 9; Rev 1:6; 5:10]

⁷And when the thousand years are completed, Satan will be released from his prison (the abyss),

⁸and will come out to deceive and mislead the nations which are in the four corners of the earth—[including] Gog and Magog—to gather them together for the war; their number is like the sand of the seashore. [Ezek 38:2; 39:1, 6]

⁹And they swarmed up over the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints (God's people) and the beloved city [Jerusalem]; but fire came down from heaven and consumed them. [2 Kin 1:10–12; Ezek 38:2, 22]

¹⁰And the devil who had deceived them was hurled into the lake of fire and burning brimstone (sulfur), where the beast (Antichrist) and false prophet are also; and they will be tormented day and night, forever and ever.

¹¹And I saw a great white throne and Him who was seated upon it, from whose presence earth and heaven fled away, and no place was found for them [for this heaven and earth are passing away]. [Is 51:6; Matt 24:35; 2 Pet 3:10–12]

¹²And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Then another book was opened, which is the Book of Life; and the dead were judged according to what they had done as written in the books [that is, everything done while on earth]. [Jer 17:10; Rom 2:6]

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Satan's Ultimate Defeat

Many Christians today don't want to hear anything about the devil, but that kind of thinking will open the door for deception and error. The devil is alive and active on earth, so we need to learn to deal with him aggressively until the final judgment when he is "hurled into the lake of fire... forever and ever" (Rev. 20:10).

The devil is a liar, and he uses our mind as a battlefield to do warfare against us (see 2 Cor. 10:3–5). He is the source of dark and harmful thoughts. His goal is to prevent us from enjoying the good plan God has for us, and he can succeed if we never learn to recognize how he attacks our minds.

Thoughts themselves cannot be seen, but we do see their results. Thoughts operate in the spiritual realm, and, perhaps for this reason, we fail to realize just how powerful they are. We tend to ignore what we cannot see with our eyes, yet the spiritual realm is very real.

Although we cannot see a thought, if it is destructive or if it hinders us or steals God's best for us, it stands to reason that the devil is initiating it, for he comes only to steal, kill, and destroy (see John 10:10).

Let's consider two Scripture verses that plainly tell us that Satan instigates evil thoughts. The apostle John wrote that Satan put in Judas Iscariot's mind the thought of betraying Jesus (see John 13:2). Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and [secretly] keep back for yourself some of the proceeds [from the sale] of the land?" (Acts 5:3).

Every Christian should thoroughly study what the Bible says about the enemy and how he works. We never need to fear him, because God has given us power and authority to deal with him. At the same time, we should never be ignorant of Satan's schemes, or he will gain an advantage over us (see 2 Cor. 2:10–11). We need to know how to recognize when the devil is at work and know how to resist him.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord Jesus, I thank You that the day is coming when You will hurl the devil into the lake of fire and the battle will end. Until then, give me wisdom to recognize his attacks and to be strong in the power of Your might. In Your glorious name, I pray. Amen.

¹³And the sea gave up the dead who were in it, and death and Hades (the realm of the dead) surrendered the dead who were in them; and they were judged and sentenced, every one according to their deeds.

¹⁴Then death and Hades [the realm of the dead] were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire [the eternal separation from God]. [Matt 25:41; 1 Cor 15:26]

¹⁵And if anyone's name was not found written in the Book of Life, he was hurled into the lake of fire.

21 THEN I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away (vanished), and there is no longer any sea. [Is 65:17; 66:22]

²And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, arrayed like a bride adorned for her husband; [John 14:2, 3; Gal 4:26; Heb 11:10]

³and then I heard a loud voice from the throne, saying, "See! The tabernacle of God is among men, and He will live among them, and they will be His people, and God Himself will be with them [as their God,] [Lev 26:11, 12; Ezek 37:27; John 1:14; 1 Cor 3:16, 17]

⁴and He will wipe away every tear from their eyes; and there will no longer be death; there will no longer be sorrow and anguish, or crying, or pain; for the former order of things has passed away." [Is 25:8; 35:10]

⁵And He who sits on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new.” Also He said, “Write, for these words are faithful and true [they are accurate, incorruptible, and trustworthy].” [Is 43:19]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, for the promise to wipe away every tear from our eyes. A time is coming when there will no longer be death; there will no longer be sorrow and anguish, or crying or pain; for the former order of things will have passed away.

• adapted from Revelation 21:4

⁶And He said to me, “It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the one who thirsts I will give [water] from the fountain of the water of life without cost. [Is 55:1]

⁷“He who overcomes [the world by adhering faithfully to Christ Jesus as Lord and Savior] will inherit these things, and I will be his God and he will be My son. [2 Sam 7:14; 1 John 5:5]

⁸“But as for the cowards and unbelieving and abominable [who are devoid of character and personal integrity and practice or tolerate immorality], and murderers, and sorcerers [with intoxicating drugs], and idolaters and occultists [who practice and teach false religions], and all the liars [who knowingly deceive and twist truth], their part will be in the lake that blazes with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.”

⁹Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls filled with the seven final plagues came and spoke with me, saying, “Come here, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.”

¹⁰And he carried me away in the Spirit to a vast and lofty mountain, and showed me the holy (sanctified) city of Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God, [Ezek 40:2]

¹¹having God’s glory [filled with His radiant light]. The brilliance of it resembled a rare and very precious jewel, like jasper, shining and clear as crystal.

¹²It had a massive and high wall, with twelve [large] gates, and at the gates [were stationed] twelve angels; and on the gates the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel were written. [Ex 28:21; Ezek 48:30–34]

¹³On the east side [there were] three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.

¹⁴And the wall of the city had twelve foundation stones, and on them the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb (Christ).

¹⁵The one who was speaking with me had a gold measuring rod to measure the city, and its gates and its wall.

¹⁶The city is laid out as a square, its length being the same as its width; and he measured the city with his rod—twelve thousand stadia (about 1,400 miles); its length and width and height are equal.

¹⁷He measured its wall also—a hundred forty-four cubits (about 200 feet), according to man's measurements, which are [also] angelic [measurements].

¹⁸The wall was built of jasper; and the city was pure gold, transparent like clear crystal. [1 Kin 6:30]

¹⁹The foundation stones of the wall of the city were adorned with every kind of precious stone. The first foundation stone was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; [Ex 28:17–20; Is 54:11, 12]

²⁰the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite (yellow topaz); the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst.

²¹And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; each separate gate was of one single pearl. And the street (broad way) of the city was pure gold, like transparent crystal.

²²I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty [the Omnipotent, the Ruler of all] and the Lamb are its temple.

²³And the city has no need of the sun nor of the moon to give light to it, for the glory (splendor, radiance) of God has illumined it, and the Lamb is its lamp and light. [Is 24:23; 60:19, 20]

²⁴The nations [the redeemed people from the earth] will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring into it their glory. [Is 60:1–5]

²⁵By day (for there will be no night there) its gates will never be closed [in fear of evil]; [Is 60:11]

²⁶and they will bring the glory (splendor, majesty) and the honor of the nations into it;

²⁷and nothing that defiles or profanes or is unwashed will ever enter it, nor anyone who practices abominations [detestable, morally repugnant things] and lying, but only those [will be admitted] whose names have been written in the Lamb's Book of Life. [Dan 12:1]

22 THEN THE angel showed me a river of the water of life, clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb (Christ), [Ezek 47:1–12]

²in the middle of its street. On either side of the river was the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit every month; and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. [Gen 2:9; 3:22]

³There will no longer exist anything that is cursed [because sin and illness and death are gone]; and the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and His bond-servants will serve and worship Him [with great awe and joy and loving devotion]; [Zech 14:21]

⁴they will [be privileged to] see His face, and His name will be on their foreheads. [Ps 17:15; Matt 5:48; 1 John 3:2]

⁵And there will no longer be night; they have no need for lamplight or sunlight, because the Lord God will illumine them; and they will reign [as kings] forever and ever. [Zech 14:7; Rev 1:6]

⁶Then he said to me, “These words are faithful and true.” And the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent His angel [as a representative] to show His bond-servants the things that must soon take place.

⁷“And behold, I am coming quickly. Blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired) is the one who heeds and takes to heart and remembers the words of the prophecy [that is, the predictions, consolations, and warnings] contained in this book (scroll).”

⁸I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things.

⁹But he said to me, “Do not do that. I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers the prophets and with those who heed and remember [the truths contained in] the words of this book. Worship God.”

¹⁰And he said to me, “Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time [of their fulfillment] is near.

¹¹“Let the one who does wrong, still do wrong; and the one who is filthy (vile, impure), still be filthy; and the one who is righteous (just, upright), still be righteous; and the one who is holy, still be holy.” [Dan 12:10]

¹²“Behold, I (Jesus) am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to each one according to the merit of his deeds (earthly works, faithfulness). [Is 40:10; Jer 17:10; Matt 16:27; 2 Cor 5:10]

¹³“I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End [the Eternal One].” [Is 44:6; 48:12; John 10:30]

¹⁴Blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired) are those who wash their robes [in the blood of Christ by believing and trusting in Him—the righteous who do His commandments], so that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter by the gates into the city. [Gen 2:9; 3:22, 24]

¹⁵Outside are the dogs [the godless, the impure, those of low moral character] and the sorcerers [with their intoxicating drugs, and magic arts], and the immoral persons [the perverted, the molesters, and the adulterers], and the murderers, and the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices lying (deception, cheating).

¹⁶“I, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify to you and to give you assurance of these things for the churches. I am the Root (the Source, the Life) and the Offspring of David, the radiant and bright Morning Star.” [Num 24:17; Is 11:1, 10]

¹⁷The [Holy] Spirit and the bride (the church, believers) say, “Come.” And let the one who hears say, “Come.” And let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who wishes take and drink the water of life without cost. [Is 55:1]

¹⁸I testify and warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book [its predictions, consolations, and admonitions]: if anyone adds [anything] to them, God will add to him the plagues (afflictions, calamities) which are written in this book; [Deut 4:2]

¹⁹and if anyone takes away from or distorts the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away [from that one] his share from the tree of life and from the holy city (new Jerusalem), which are written in this book.

²⁰He who testifies and affirms these things says, “Yes, I am coming quickly.” Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

²¹The grace of the Lord Jesus (the Christ, the Messiah) be with all [the saints—all believers, those set apart for God]. Amen.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Jesus, You are coming quickly. Come, Lord Jesus!

How To Have a Real Relationship with Jesus

God loves you! He created you as a special, unique, one-of-a-kind individual, and He has a specific purpose and plan for your life. He wants you to live in victory. Through a personal relationship with your Creator—God—you can discover a way of life that will truly satisfy your soul.

No matter who you are, what you've done, or where you are in your life right now, God's love and grace are greater than your sin (your mistakes). Jesus willingly gave His life so you can receive forgiveness from God and have new life in Him. He's just waiting for you to invite Him to be your Savior and Lord.

If you are ready to commit your life to Jesus and follow Him, all you have to do is ask Him to forgive your sins and give you a fresh start in the life you are meant to live. You can begin right now by praying this prayer:

Lord Jesus, thank You for giving Your life for me and forgiving me of my sins so I can have a personal relationship with You. I am sincerely sorry for the mistakes I've made, and I know I need You to help me live right.

Your Word says in Romans 10:9, "if you acknowledge and confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord [recognizing His power, authority, and majesty as God], and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved." I believe You are the Son of God, and I confess You as my Savior and Lord. Take me just as I am, and work in my heart, making me the person You want me to be. I want to live for You, Jesus, and I am so grateful to You for giving me a fresh start in my new life with You today.

I love you, Jesus! Amen.

It's amazing to know that God loves us so much! He wants to have a deep, intimate relationship with us that grows every day as we spend time with Him in prayer and Bible study.

your life in Christ!*

MY VICTORIES on the BATTLEFIELD of the MIND

I believe that the only way to win the battle of the mind is to read, study, and live according to the Word of God. That's why I want to provide you with the following pages as a place for you to record the victories God gives you on the battlefield of the mind. Feel free to write your prayer requests and answered prayers, to make a list of the mental challenges you are overcoming, to jot down what you are learning about living as a victorious believer, and to make notes about how you are learning to recognize and resist the enemy when he comes against you. Just as this Bible is a compilation of many years of life lessons I've learned about how to better think as God thinks, I hope you will use these pages to write about all the lessons God is teaching you and the victorious experiences you are having with Him during this time in your life.
