²⁹Of the Izharites: Chenaniah and his sons were appointed to outside duties for Israel, as administrators and judges.

³⁰Of the Hebronites: Hashabiah and his relatives, 1,700 capable men, were in charge of the affairs of Israel west of the Jordan, for all the work of the LORD and the service of the king.

³¹Of the Hebronites: Jerijah was the chief (these Hebronites were examined according to their descendants and fathers' households in the fortieth [and final] year of David's reign, and men of courage and ability were found among them at Jazer in Gilead)

³²and Jerijah's relatives, 2,700 capable men, were heads of fathers' households; and King David made them overseers of the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, for everything pertaining to God and to the king.

27 THIS IS the list of the sons (descendants) of Israel, the heads of fathers' households, the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers who served the king in all matters of the divisions which came in and went out month by month throughout the year, each division numbering 24,000:

²Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel was in charge of the first division for the first month; and in his division were 24,000.

³*He was* descended from Perez, and was chief of all the commanders of the army for the first month.

⁴Dodai the Ahohite and his division was in charge of the division for the second month, Mikloth was the chief officer; and in his division were 24,000.

⁵The third commander of the army for the third month was Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, as chief; and in his division were 24,000.

⁶This is the Benaiah who was the mighty man of the thirty and was in charge of the thirty; and Ammizabad his son was over his division.

⁷The fourth, for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him; and in his division were 24,000.

⁸The fifth, for the fifth month was the commander Shamhuth the Izrahite; and in his division were 24,000.

⁹The sixth, for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; and in his division were 24,000.

¹⁰The seventh, for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite of the sons of Ephraim; and in his division were 24,000.

¹¹The eighth, for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite of the Zerahites; and in his division were 24,000.

¹²The ninth, for the ninth month was Abiezer of Anathoth, a Benjamite; and in his division were 24,000.

¹³The tenth, for the tenth month was Maharai from Netophah of the Zerahites; and in his division were 24,000.

¹⁴The eleventh, for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite of the sons of Ephraim; and in his division were 24,000.

¹⁵The twelfth, for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite of Othniel; and in his division were 24,000.

¹⁶Now in charge of the tribes of Israel [were the following]: chief officer of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri; of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maacah;

¹⁷of Levi, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; of Aaron, Zadok;

¹⁸of Judah, Elihu, one of David's brothers; of Issachar, Omri the son of Michael;

¹⁹of Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; of Naphtali, Jeremoth the son of Azriel;

²⁰of the Ephraimites, Hoshea the son of Azaziah; of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah;

²¹of the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner;

²²of Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

²³But David did not count those twenty years of age and under, for the LORD had said he would multiply Israel as the stars of heaven.

²⁴Joab the son of Zeruiah began a census but did not finish; and because of this, [God's] wrath came on Israel, and the number was not recorded in the chronicles of King David.

²⁵Azmaveth the son of Adiel was in charge of the king's storerooms; and Jonathan the son of Uzziah was in charge of the storehouses in the country, in the cities, in the villages, and in the towers.

²⁶Ezri the son of Chelub was in charge of those who did the work of the field, tilling the soil.

²⁷Shimei the Ramathite was in charge of the vineyards; Zabdi the Shiphmite was in charge of the produce of the vineyards for the wine cellars.

²⁸Baal-hanan the Gederite was in charge of the olive and sycamore trees in Shephelah (the lowlands); and Joash was in charge of the stores of [olive] oil.

²⁹Shitrai the Sharonite was in charge of the cattle grazing in Sharon; Shaphat the son of Adlai was in charge of the cattle in the valleys.

³⁰Obil the Ishmaelite was in charge of the camels; and Jehdeiah the Meronothite was in charge of the donkeys.

³¹Jaziz the Hagrite was in charge of the flocks. All these were overseers and stewards of the property which belonged to King David.

³²Also Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor and advisor, a man of understanding and wisdom, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni attended (tutored) the king's sons. [2 Kin 10:6]

³³Ahithophel was counselor to the king; and Hushai the Archite was the king's companion and friend.

³⁴Ahithophel was succeeded by Jehoiada the son of Benaiah and by Abiathar; and Joab was the commander of the king's army.

28 DAVID ASSEMBLED at Jerusalem all the leaders (officials) of Israel, the leaders of the tribes, and the commanders of the divisions that served the king, and the commanders of thousands, and the commanders of hundreds, and the overseers of all the property and livestock of the king and his sons, with the palace officers and the mighty men, and all the brave warriors.

²Then David the king rose to his feet and said, “Hear me, my brothers [in arms] and my people. I had intended to build a permanent home for the ark of the covenant of the LORD and as a footstool for our God, and I prepared materials for the building.

³“But God said to me, ‘You shall not build a house for My Name (Presence), because you are a man of war and have shed blood.’

⁴“However, the LORD, the God of Israel, chose me from all in my father’s house to be king over Israel forever. For He has chosen Judah to be the leader; and in the house (tribe) of Judah he chose the house of my father; and among the sons of my father He was pleased to make me king over all Israel.

⁵“Of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons) He has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

⁶“He said to me, ‘Solomon your son shall build My house and My courts; for I have chosen him to be a son to Me, and I will be a father to him.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Help me to know You, God—to have personal knowledge of You, to appreciate, heed, and cherish You—and to serve You with a blameless heart and a willing mind, for You search all hearts and minds and understand every intent and inclination of my thoughts.

• adapted from 1 Chronicles 28:9

⁷‘I will establish his kingdom forever if he loyally and continually obeys My commandments and My ordinances, as is done today.’

⁸“Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, observe and seek after all the commandments of the LORD your God so that you may possess the good land and leave it as an inheritance to your sons after you forever.

⁹“As for you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father [have personal knowledge of Him, be acquainted with, and understand Him; appreciate, heed, and cherish Him] and serve Him with a blameless heart and a willing mind; for the LORD searches all hearts and minds, and understands every intent and inclination of the thoughts. If you seek Him [inquiring for and of Him and requiring Him as your first and vital necessity] He will let you find Him; but if you abandon (turn away from) Him, He will reject you forever.

¹⁰“Consider this carefully, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary. Be courageous and strong and do it.”

¹¹Then David gave to his son Solomon the plan for the porch of the temple, its buildings, its treasuries, its upper chambers, its inner rooms, and for the place for the [ark and its] mercy seat;

¹²and the plan of all that he had in mind, for the courts of the house of the LORD, and for all the surrounding rooms, for the storerooms of the house of God and for the storerooms for the dedicated gifts and offerings;

¹³*the plan* for the divisions of the priests and the Levites and for all the work of the service in the house of the LORD and for all the utensils for service in the house of the LORD;

¹⁴for the golden utensils, the weight of gold and silver for all the gold and silver articles for every kind of service;

¹⁵and the weight of gold for the golden lampstands and their golden lamps, with the weight of each lampstand and its lamps; and the weight of silver for the silver lampstands, with the weight of each lampstand and its lamps according to the use of each lampstand;

¹⁶the gold by weight for each table of showbread, and the silver for the tables of silver;

¹⁷and the forks, the basins, and the pitchers of pure gold; and for the golden bowls with the weight for each bowl; and for the silver bowls with the weight for each bowl;

Speak God's Word

I am strong and courageous, and I take action. I will not fear nor be dismayed, for the Lord my God is with me. He will not fail me nor abandon me, but will guide me until I have finished the work He has given me to do.

28:20 |

¹⁸and for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the model of the chariot of the cherubim that spread their wings and covered the ark of the LORD's covenant.

¹⁹“All this,” said David, “the LORD made me understand in writing by His hand upon me, all the work and details [to be done] according to this plan.”

²⁰Then David said to his son Solomon, “Be strong and courageous, and take action; do not fear nor be dismayed, for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you nor abandon you [but will guide you in the construction] until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD.

²¹“And see, [you have] the divisions of the priests and Levites for all the service of God’s house, and every willing, skillful man will be with you in all the kinds of work for any kind of service. Also the officers and all the people will be entirely at your command.”

29 AND KING David said to all the assembly, “My son Solomon, whom alone God has chosen, is still young and inexperienced and the work is great; for the temple is not for man but for the LORD God.

²“So with all my ability I have provided for the house of my God the gold for the things of gold, silver for the things of silver, bronze for the things of bronze, iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood, as well as onyx stones and stones to be inlaid, stones of antimony (a brittle, silvery-white metal) and stones of various colors, and all kinds of precious stones and alabaster in abundance.

³“Moreover, because I delight in the house of my God, the [personal] treasure that I have of gold and silver, I give to the house of my God, in addition to all that I have already provided for the holy house:

⁴*namely*, 3,000 talents of gold from the gold of Ophir, and 7,000 talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the buildings;

⁵gold for the things of gold, silver for the things of silver, that is, for all the work to be done by craftsmen. Now who is willing to consecrate himself today to the LORD?”

⁶Then the rulers of the fathers’ households, and leaders of the tribes of Israel, and the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, with the overseers of the king's work, offered willingly ⁷and gave for the service of the house of God: 5,000 talents and 10,000 darics of gold, and 10,000 talents of silver, and 18,000 talents of bronze, and 100,000 talents of iron.

⁸Whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD, in the care of Jehiel the Gershonite.

¹⁰Therefore David blessed the LORD in the sight of all the assembly and said, "Blessed (praised, adored, and thanked) are You, O LORD God of Israel (Jacob) our father, forever and ever.

¹¹"Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory and the majesty, indeed everything that is in the heavens and on the earth; Yours is the dominion and kingdom, O LORD, and You exalt Yourself as head over all.

POWERPOINT

God examines our heart attitudes, and whatever we do for Him needs to be done willingly. He delights in those who give to Him willingly, joyfully, and cheerfully. And as we give willingly, even when it is difficult for us, we are filled with great joy!

¹²“Both riches and honor come from You, and You rule over all. In Your hand is power and might; and it is in Your hands to make great and to give strength to everyone.

¹³“Now therefore, our God, we thank You, and praise Your glorious name.

¹⁴“But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to offer as generously as this? For all things come from You, and from Your own hand we have given to You.

¹⁵“For we are sojourners before You, and tenants, as all our fathers were; our days on the earth are like a shadow, and there is no hope [of remaining].

¹⁶“O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have prepared to build You a house for Your holy Name, it is from Your hand, and is all Your own.

¹⁷“I know also, my God, that You test the heart and delight in uprightness and integrity. In the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things. So now with joy I have seen Your people who are present here, make their offerings willingly and freely to You.

¹⁸“O LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, keep forever such purposes and thoughts in the minds of Your people, and direct their hearts toward You;

¹⁹and give to my son Solomon a perfect heart to keep Your commandments, Your testimonies, and Your statutes, and to do all [that is necessary] to build the temple [for You], for which I have made provision.”

²⁰Then David said to all the assembly, “Now bless (praise, thank) the LORD your God.” And all the assembly blessed the LORD, the God of their fathers, and bowed down and honored the LORD and to the king [as His earthly representative].

²¹The next day they offered sacrifices and burnt offerings to the LORD: 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams, and 1,000 lambs, with their drink offerings (libations) and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

²²They ate and drank that day before the LORD with great rejoicing.

They made Solomon the son of David king a second time, and anointed him as ruler for the LORD and Zadok as [high] priest.

²³Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king in place of David his father; and he prospered, and all Israel obeyed him.

²⁴All of the leaders and warriors, and also all the sons of King David, pledged allegiance to King Solomon.

²⁵The LORD highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on him royal majesty which had not been on any king before him in Israel.

²⁶Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

²⁷The time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron and thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

²⁸He died in a good old age [his seventy-first year], full of days (satisfied), riches and honor. Solomon his son reigned in his place.

²⁹Now the acts of King David, from first to last, are written in the chronicles (records) of Samuel the seer, in the chronicles of Nathan the prophet, and in the chronicles of Gad the seer, ³⁰with [accounts of] all his reign, and his power, and the times and circumstances which came on him, on Israel, and on all the kingdoms of the [surrounding] lands.

Second Chronicles focuses on the rule of King David's son, King Solomon, who has been respected for centuries as the wisest person who ever lived.

Second Chronicles 20 includes one of the most important truths for us to live by as believers. It tells us that the battles we fight are not our own, but God's (see 2 Chronicles 20:15). No matter how the enemy comes against us, we are not alone; God is on our side. Second Chronicles 20 teaches us what this means through the story of Jehoshaphat, who led the Israelites to a seemingly impossible victory because he sought the Lord, he prayed, he worshiped, he obeyed God's directions, and he allowed God to fight for him.

Whatever battle you are fighting, follow the example in 2

Chronicles 20, and God will lead you to victory.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM 2 CHRONICLES:

In every situation in life, wisdom is an excellent guide. I encourage you to ask God for wisdom, as Solomon did (see 2 Chronicles 1:9–10) every day and in all circumstances. He will give it to you!

When you do not know what to do, keep your eyes on God (see 2 Chronicles 20:12).

When the enemy comes against you, one way to defeat him is to praise God (see 2 Chronicles 20:22). Praise is a powerful weapon!

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM 2 CHRONICLES:

If... My people, who are called by My name, humble themselves, and pray and seek (crave, requires as necessity) My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear [them] from heaven, and forgive their sin and heal their land. | 2 Chronicles 7:13–14

For the eyes of the LORD move to and fro throughout the earth so that He may support those whose heart is completely His. | 2 Chronicles 16:9

You need not fight in this battle; take your positions, stand and witness the salvation of the LORD who is with you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Do not fear or be dismayed; tomorrow go out against them, for the LORD is with you. | 2 Chronicles 20:17

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES

1 SOLOMON THE son of David established himself securely over his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him and made him exceedingly great.

²Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the commanders of thousands and of hundreds and to the judges and to every leader in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' (ancestors') households.

³Then Solomon and all the assembly went to the high place at Gibeon [to offer sacrifices, where the Canaanites had habitually worshiped], for God's Tent of Meeting was there, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

⁴But David had brought up the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim to the place he had prepared for it, because he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.

⁵Now the bronze altar, which Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made was there before the tabernacle of the LORD, and Solomon and the assembly sought it out.

⁶And Solomon went up to the bronze altar before the LORD at the Tent of Meeting, and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

⁷That night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, “Ask what I shall give to you.”

⁸Then Solomon said to God, “You have shown great lovingkindness and mercy to my father David, and have made me king in his place.

⁹“Now, O LORD God, Your promise to my father David is fulfilled, for You have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth.

¹⁰“Give me wisdom and knowledge, so that I may go out and come in [performing my duties] before this people, for [otherwise] who can rule and administer justice to this great people of Yours?”

¹¹God replied to Solomon, “Because this was in your heart and you did not ask for riches, possessions or honor and personal glory, or the life of those who hate you, nor have you even asked for long life, but you have asked for wisdom and knowledge for yourself so that you may rule and administer justice to My people over whom I have made you king, ¹²wisdom and knowledge have been granted you. I will also give you riches, possessions, and honor, such as none of the kings who were before you has possessed nor will those who will come after you.”

¹³So Solomon went from the high place at Gibeon, from the Tent of Meeting, to Jerusalem. And he reigned over Israel.

¹⁴Solomon acquired chariots and horsemen; he had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen, and he stationed them in the cities [suited for the use] of chariots and with the king at Jerusalem.

¹⁶Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and from Kue. The king's merchants purchased them [in large numbers] from Kue at a price.

POWERPOINT

Prayer is the blueprint for a successful life. Consider Solomon's prayer for wisdom and knowledge that he might rule well and administer justice as king (see 2 Chr. 1:10). We can pray with the same humble attitude. Don't complicate your communication with God. Believe in Him and ask Him for what you need through simple, confident prayer.

¹⁷And they imported chariots from Egypt for 600 shekels of silver apiece, and horses for 150 apiece; and in the same way they exported horses to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Arameans (Syrians).

2 NOW SOLOMON decided to build a house (temple) for the Name of the LORD, and a royal palace for himself.

²So Solomon assigned 70,000 men to carry loads, 80,000 men to quarry stone in the mountains, and 3,600 to supervise them.

³Then Solomon sent word to Hiram king of Tyre, saying, “As you dealt with my father David and sent him cedars to build himself a house in which to live, [please] do the same for me.

⁴“Observe, I am about to build a house for the Name of the LORD my God, dedicated to Him, to burn fragrant incense [of sweet spices] before Him, to set out the showbread continually, and to offer burnt offerings morning and evening, on Sabbaths, New Moons, and on the festivals of the LORD our God, as ordained forever in Israel.

⁵“The house I am going to build will be great, for our God is greater than all the gods.

⁶“But who is able to build a house for Him, since the heavens and [even] the highest heavens cannot contain Him? Who am I to build a house for Him, except [as a place] to burn incense before Him?

⁷“Now send me a man who is skilled to work in gold, silver, bronze, and iron, and in purple, crimson, and blue fabrics, and who knows how to make engravings, to work with the skilled men who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, whom my father David provided.

⁸“Send me also cedar, cypress, and algum timber, for I know that your servants know how to cut timber in Lebanon. And indeed my servants will work with your servants

⁹to prepare for me an abundance of timber, because the house I am about to build will be great and wonderful.

¹⁰“And I will give to your servants who cut timber, 20,000 measures of crushed wheat and 20,000 measures of barley, and 20,000 baths of wine and 20,000 baths of [olive] oil.”

¹¹Then Hiram, king of Tyre replied in a letter sent to Solomon: “Because the LORD loves His people, He has made you king over them.”

POWERPOINT

In 2 Chronicles 2:12–14, a man named Hiram-abi had a clear sense of what he could do well and what he was supposed to do to help “build a house for the LORD and a royal palace” for Solomon. If you wonder about what you’re supposed to do with your life or what God’s calling is on your life, God will help you discover your purpose through the natural skills and unique talents He has given you. If you are unsure about what they are, simply do what you are good at doing and watch God confirm it by blessing your endeavors. Then be diligent to continue developing your skills.

¹²Hiram said also, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who made heaven and earth, who has given King David a wise son, endowed with discretion and understanding, who will build a house for the LORD and a royal palace for himself.

¹³“Now I am sending a skilled man, endowed with understanding, Hiram-abi, ¹⁴the son of a Danite woman and a Tyrian father. He is trained to work in gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, and wood; in purple, blue, and crimson fabrics, and in fine linen. He is able to make any kind of engraving and to carry out any design given him. He will work with your skilled men and those of my lord, David your father.

¹⁵“Now then, let my lord send to his servants the wheat, the barley, the oil, and the wine of which he has spoken.

¹⁶“We will cut whatever timber you need from Lebanon and bring it to you on rafts by sea to Joppa, so that you may take it up to Jerusalem.”

¹⁷Then Solomon took a count of all the aliens in the land of Israel, like the census that his father David had taken; and they were found to be 153,600.

¹⁸He assigned 70,000 of them to carry loads and 80,000 to quarry stone in the mountain, and 3,600 as overseers to make the people work.

3 THEN SOLOMON began to build the house of the LORD in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD appeared to his father David, in the place that David had prepared, on the threshing floor of Oman the Jebusite. [1 Chr 21:20–22]

²Solomon began to build on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign.

³Now this is the [measurement of the] foundation which Solomon laid for the house of God: the length in cubits—by the old standard of measure—was sixty cubits (90 ft.), and the width was twenty cubits (30 ft.).

⁵He overlaid the main room [the Holy Place] with cypress wood and overlaid it with fine gold, and decorated it with palm trees and chains.

⁶And he adorned the house with precious stones; and the gold was gold from Parvaim.

⁷He also overlaid the house [the Holy Place] with gold—the beams, the thresholds, and its walls and its doors; and he carved cherubim on the walls.

⁸Now he made the room of the Holy of Holies: its length equaling the width of the house was twenty cubits, and its width was twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with 600 talents of fine gold.

⁹The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. He also overlaid the upper rooms with gold.

¹⁰And in the Holy of Holies he made two sculptured cherubim, and overlaid them with gold.

¹¹The wingspan of the cherubim was twenty cubits: one wing of one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house, and its other wing, of five cubits, touched the other cherub's wing.

¹²The wing of the other cherub, of five cubits, touched the wall of the house; and its other wing of five cubits touched the wing of the first cherub.

¹³The wings of these cherubim extended twenty cubits. The cherubim stood on their feet, their faces toward the Holy Place (the main room).

¹⁴He made the veil [between the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies] of blue, purple, and crimson colors, and fine linen, and embroidered cherubim on it.

¹⁵He also made two pillars for the front of the house, thirty-five cubits high, and the capital on the top of each one was five cubits.

¹⁶He made chains [like a necklace] in the inner sanctuary and put them on the tops of the pillars; and he made a hundred pomegranates and put them on the chains.

¹⁷He erected the pillars in front of the temple, one on the right, the other on the left, and named the one on the right Jachin (may He establish) and the one on the left Boaz (in Him is strength).

4 THEN SOLOMON made an altar of bronze, twenty cubits in length, twenty cubits in width, and ten cubits in height.

²He also made the Sea [that is, the large basin used for ceremonial washing] of cast metal, ten cubits from brim to brim, circular in form, and five cubits in height, and its circumference was thirty cubits.

³Under it and entirely encircling it were figures of oxen, ten to a cubit. The oxen were in two rows, cast in one piece.

⁴It stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, three facing east; and the Sea was set on top of them and all their hindquarters turned inward.

⁵It was a handbreadth (the width of the four fingers) thick; its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It could hold 3,000 baths (measures).

⁶He also made ten [portable] basins in which to wash, and he put five on the right (south) side and five on the left (north). They would rinse things for the burnt offering in them, but the Sea was for the priests to wash in.

⁷And he made ten golden lampstands just as directed and set them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left.

⁸He made also ten tables and placed them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left side, and he made a hundred [ceremonial] basins of gold.

⁹Moreover, he made the courtyard of the priests, and the great courtyard [for the people] and doors for the courtyard, and he overlaid their doors with bronze.

¹⁰He set the Sea on the right side at the southeast corner [of the house].

¹¹And Hiram also made the pails [for ashes], the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram finished the work that he did for King Solomon in the house of God:

¹²the two pillars, the bowls, the capitals on top of the two pillars, and the two lattice works to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on top of the pillars,

¹³and the four hundred pomegranates for the two lattice works, two rows of pomegranates for each lattice to cover the two bowls of the capitals on the pillars.

¹⁴He also made the stands and he made the basins on the stands;

¹⁵and the one Sea with the twelve oxen under it.

¹⁶The pails, the shovels, and the meat-forks, and all the utensils Hiram-abi made of polished bronze for King Solomon for the house of the LORD.

¹⁷The king cast them on the plain of the Jordan, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah.

¹⁸Solomon made all these utensils in such great quantity that the weight of the bronze could not be determined.

¹⁹Solomon also made all the articles that were in the house of God: the golden altar, and the tables for the bread of the Presence (showbread), ²⁰and the lampstands with their lamps of pure gold, to burn in front of the inner sanctuary (the Holy of Holies) as directed;

²¹the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs of gold, of purest gold;?

²²and the snuffers, the basins, the dishes [for incense], and the firepans, of pure gold; and for the entrance of the house (temple), the inner doors for the Holy of Holies and the doors of the Holy Place (main room), were of gold.

5 THUS ALL the work that Solomon did for the house of the LORD was finished. He brought in the things that his father David had dedicated, and he put the silver and the gold and all the utensils in the treasuries of the house of God.

²Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the fathers' households of the Israelites, in Jerusalem to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD up from the City of David, which is Zion.

³All the men of Israel gathered before the king at the feast in the seventh month.

⁴And all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites took up the ark.

⁵The Levitical priests brought up the ark, the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy utensils that were in the Tent.

⁶And King Solomon and all the assembly of Israel who gathered together with him before the ark were sacrificing so many sheep and oxen that they could not be counted or numbered.

⁷Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, to the inner sanctuary of the house, into the Holy of Holies, under the wings of the cherubim;

⁸for the cherubim spread out their wings over the place of the ark, making a covering above the ark and its carrying poles.

⁹The poles were so long that the ends of the poles of the ark were visible from the front of the Holy of Holies (inner sanctuary), but were not visible from the outside. They are there to this day.

¹⁰There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets [of the Ten Commandments] which Moses put there at Mount Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites, when they came out of Egypt. [Ex 31:18]

¹¹When the priests came out of the Holy Place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves [separating themselves from everything unclean], without regard to their assigned divisions),

¹²and all of the Levitical singers, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, with their sons and relatives, clothed in fine linen, with cymbals, harps, and lyres were standing at the east end of the altar, and with them a hundred and twenty priests blowing trumpets

¹³in unison when the trumpeters and singers were to make themselves heard with one voice praising and thanking the LORD, and when they raised their voices accompanied by the trumpets and cymbals and [other] instruments of music, and when they praised the LORD, saying, “For He is good, for His mercy and lovingkindness endure forever,” then the house of the LORD was filled with a cloud,

POWERPOINT

In 2 Chronicles 5:14, the glory of God so filled the house of God that the priests could not stand. Today, believers in Jesus Christ are God's temple (see 1 Cor. 6:19). God wants to display His power and glory in us and through us—our actions and words—so that others will look at us and say, “Wow, what a great God you serve!” His goodness will be visibly evident in us.

¹⁴so that the priests could not remain standing to minister because of the cloud; for the glory and brilliance of the LORD filled the house of God.

6 THEN SOLOMON said,

“The LORD has said that He would dwell in the thick cloud.

²“I have built You a lofty house,
A place for You to dwell forever.”

³Then the king turned around and blessed the entire assembly of Israel, while they were all standing.

⁴And he said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to my father David and has fulfilled with His hands what He promised, saying,

⁵“Since the day that I brought My people out of the land of Egypt, I did not choose a city among all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house so that My Name (Presence) might be there, nor did I choose any man to be a leader over My people Israel;

⁶but I have chosen Jerusalem that My Name might be there, and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel.’

⁷“Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a house for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

⁸“But the LORD said to my father David, ‘Because it was in your heart to build a house for My Name, you did well that it was in your heart.

⁹‘Nevertheless you shall not build the house, but your son who will be born to you, he shall build the house for My Name.’

¹⁰“Now the LORD has fulfilled His word which He spoke; for I have risen in place of my father David and I sit on the throne of Israel, just as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

¹¹“There I have placed the ark [the symbol of His Presence] in which is the covenant of the LORD [the Ten Commandments], which He made with the people (descendants) of Israel.”

¹²Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of the entire assembly of Israel and spread out his hands.

¹³For Solomon had made a bronze platform, five cubits square and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the courtyard; and he stood on it, and he knelt down on his knees in the presence of all the assembly of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven,

¹⁴and he said, “O LORD, God of Israel, there is no god like You in heaven or on the earth, keeping covenant and showing mercy and lovingkindness to Your servants who walk before You [in obedience] with all their heart, ¹⁵[You] who have kept Your promise to Your servant David, my father, that which You told him; You have spoken with Your mouth and have fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is today.

¹⁶“Now therefore, O LORD, the God of Israel, keep with Your servant David, my father, that which You promised him, saying, ‘You shall not fail to have a man to sit on the throne of Israel, provided your sons are careful to walk in My law as you, [David,] have walked before Me.’

¹⁷“Now then, O LORD, the God of Israel, let Your word which You have spoken to Your servant David be confirmed (verified).

¹⁸“But will God actually dwell with mankind on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain You; how much less this house which I have built!

¹⁹“Yet have regard for the prayer of Your servant and for his supplication, O LORD my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant prays before You,

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, I ask that You would have regard for my prayers and supplications, that Your eyes may be open toward me day and night, to listen to my prayers.

• adapted from 2 Chronicles 6:19–

²⁰that Your eyes may be open toward this house day and night, toward the place in which You have said that You would put Your Name (Presence), to listen to the prayer which Your servant shall pray toward this place.

²¹“So listen to the requests of Your servant and Your people Israel when they pray toward this place. Hear from Your dwelling place, from heaven; and when You hear, forgive.

²²“If a man sins against his neighbor, and he is required to take an oath, and he comes and takes the oath before Your altar in this house, ²³then hear from heaven and act and judge Your servants, punishing the wicked by bringing his conduct on his own head, and providing justice to the righteous by giving to him in accordance with his righteousness (innocence).

²⁴“If Your people Israel have been defeated by an enemy because they have sinned against You, and they return to You and confess Your name, and pray and make supplication before You in this house, ²⁵then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them again to the land which You gave to them and to their fathers.

²⁶“When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because Your people have sinned against You, and they pray toward this place and confess Your name, and turn from their sin when You afflict and humble them;

²⁷then hear in heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants and Your people Israel, indeed, teach them the good way in which they should walk. And send rain on Your land which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.

²⁸“If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, if there is blight or mildew, if there are [migratory] locusts or grasshoppers, if their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities, whatever plague or whatever sickness there is,

²⁹then whatever prayer or request is made by any man or all of Your people Israel, each knowing his own suffering and his own pain, and stretching out his hands toward this house,

³⁰then hear from heaven, Your dwelling place, and forgive, and render to each in accordance with all his ways, whose heart You know; for You alone know the hearts of the sons of men, ³¹so that they may fear You, to walk in Your ways [in obedience to You] as long as they live in the land which You have given to our fathers.

³²“Also in regard to the foreigner who is not from Your people Israel, but has come from a far country for the sake of Your great name and Your mighty power and Your outstretched arm—when they come and pray toward this house, ³³then hear from heaven, from Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, so that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name, and fear You [reverently and worshipfully], as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by Your Name.

³⁴“When Your people go out to war against their enemies, by the way that You send them, and they pray to You facing this city [Jerusalem] which You have chosen and the house which I have built for Your Name, ³⁵then hear from heaven their prayer and their request, and maintain their cause and do justice.

³⁶“When they sin against You (for there is no man who does not sin) and You are angry with them and hand them over to an enemy, so that they take them away captive to a land far away or near,

³⁷if they take it to heart in the land where they have been taken captive, and repent and pray to You in the land of their captivity, saying, ‘We have sinned, we have done wrong and have acted wickedly’;

³⁸if they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, and pray facing their land which You have given to their fathers and toward the city which You have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for Your Name;

³⁹then hear from heaven, from Your dwelling place, their prayer and requests, and maintain their cause and do justice and forgive Your people who have sinned against You.

⁴⁰“Now, O my God, I pray, let Your eyes be open and Your ears attentive to the prayer offered in this place.

⁴¹“Now then arise, O LORD God, [and come] to Your resting place, You and the ark of Your strength and power. Let Your priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation and let Your godly ones rejoice in [Your] goodness.

⁴²“O LORD God, do not turn away and reject the face of Your anointed; remember Your lovingkindness and faithfulness to Your servant David.”

7 WHEN SOLOMON had finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the [Shekinah] glory and brilliance of the LORD filled the house. [Lev 9:24]

²The priests could not enter the house of the LORD because the glory and brilliance of the LORD had filled the LORD’s house.

³When all the people of Israel saw how the fire came down and saw the glory and brilliance of the LORD upon the house, they bowed down on the stone pavement with their faces to the ground, and they worshiped and praised the LORD, saying, “For He is good, for His mercy and lovingkindness endure forever.”

⁴Then the king and all the people offered a sacrifice before the LORD.

⁵King Solomon offered a sacrifice of 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep. In this way the king and all the people dedicated God’s house.

⁶The priests stood at their posts [ready for service], and the Levites also, with the musical instruments of the LORD which King David had made to praise the LORD, saying, “For His lovingkindness and mercy endure forever,” whenever David offered praise through their ministry. The priests were opposite the Levites blowing the trumpets and all Israel was standing.

⁷Moreover, Solomon consecrated the middle of the courtyard that was in front of the house of the LORD, for it was there that he offered burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings because the bronze altar which he had made was not sufficient to hold the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat [all together].

⁸At that time Solomon observed the feast for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very large assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to the Brook of Egypt.

⁹On the eighth day they held a celebration, for they had observed the dedication of the altar for seven days, and the feast for seven days.

¹⁰And on the twenty-third day of the seventh month

Solomon sent the people to their tents, rejoicing and happy in heart because of the goodness that the LORD had shown to David, to Solomon, and to His people Israel.

¹¹And so Solomon finished the house (temple) of the LORD and the palace of the king. He successfully accomplished all that he had planned to do in the house of the LORD and in his palace.

¹²Then the LORD appeared to Solomon by night and said to him: “I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for Myself as a house of sacrifice.

¹³“If I shut up the heavens so that no rain falls, or if I command locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence and plague among My people, ¹⁴and My people, who are called by My Name, humble themselves, and pray and seek (crave, require as a necessity) My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear [them] from heaven, and forgive their sin and heal their land.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that when I humble myself, and pray and seek Your face and turn from my wicked ways, You will hear me from heaven, and forgive my sin and heal me.

• adapted from 2 Chronicles 7:14

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Humble Yourself and Cast Your Care

After Solomon concluded the dedication of the temple, the glory of the Lord filled the house and God spoke to him the remarkable promise: “If... My people, who are called by My Name, humble themselves, and pray and seek (crave, require as a necessity) My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear [them] from heaven, and forgive their sin and heal their land” (2 Chr. 7:13–14).

It is important that we learn to humble ourselves, to do as Peter says, “[set aside self-righteous pride],... casting all your cares [all your anxieties, all your worries, and all your concerns, once and for all] on Him, for He cares about you” (1 Pet. 5:6–7). The word casting refers to throwing, hurling, sending, striking, thrusting, driving out, or expelling—all rather forceful terms. It seems to be difficult for some of us to believe that God considers worry or care a sin, but He does.

It took a long time for me to be set totally free from the burden of guilt and condemnation. I knew mentally and spiritually that I had been made the righteousness of God in Christ because of what He had done for me on Calvary, and I confessed scriptures, but the enemy kept attacking my mind, making me feel guilty and condemned about my past. I was doing my best to keep my mind set on all that Jesus had sacrificed for me, but I had not experienced complete victory.

I fought against those thoughts for years until one day there arose in me a holy anger that finally set me free from the enemy's attempt to keep me from enjoying all the blessings God intended for me. Too often, we get mad at other people when our anger should be directed to the source of the problem—the devil and his demons. Give the devil notice that you are not going to spend your time worrying, and that you will not believe his lies!

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Dear Lord Jesus, I thank You that even before the problems come, You have told me how to defeat the enemy of my mind. In Your name, Lord Jesus, teach me to humble myself and to cast all my cares and concerns on You. Amen.

¹⁵“Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to prayer offered in this place.

¹⁶“For now I have chosen and sanctified and set apart for My purpose this house that My Name may be here forever, and My eyes and My heart will be here perpetually.

¹⁷“As for you [Solomon], if you will walk before me as your father David walked, and do everything that I have commanded you, and observe My statutes and My ordinances, [1 Kin 11:1–11]

¹⁸then I will establish your royal throne just as I covenanted with your father David, saying, ‘You will not fail to have a man as ruler in Israel.’

¹⁹“But if you [people] turn away and abandon My statutes and My commandments which I have set before you, and you go and serve other gods and worship them,

²⁰then I will uproot Israel from My land which I have given them; and I will cast this house, which I have consecrated for My Name, out of My sight, and will make it a proverb and an object of scorn among all nations. [Jer 24:9, 10]

²¹“And as for this house, which was so exalted, everyone who passes by it will be astonished and appalled and say, ‘Why has the LORD done thus to this land and to this house?’

²²“Then people will say, ‘It is because they abandoned the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and they adopted other gods, and worshiped them and served them; therefore He has brought all this adversity and evil on them.’”

8 NOW IT came about at the end of the twenty years, in which Solomon had built the house of the LORD and his own house (palace), ²that he built and fortified the cities which Hiram (Hiram) had given to him, and settled the Israelites there.

³Then Solomon went to Hamath-zobah and captured it.

⁴He built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all his storage cities in Hamath.

⁵He also built upper Beth-horon and lower Beth-horon, fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars [to lock the gates];

⁶and Baalath and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and all the cities for his chariots and the cities for his horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land under his rule.

⁷All the people who were left of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel, ⁸*but were* descendants of those who were left in the land, whom the Israelites had not destroyed—Solomon brought them up as forced laborers to this day.

⁹But Solomon did not make slaves of the Israelites for his work; they were men of war, his chief captains, and commanders of his chariots and his horsemen.

¹⁰These were the chief officers of King Solomon, two hundred and fifty [in authority] who ruled over the people.

¹¹Then Solomon brought the daughter of Pharaoh up from the City of David into the house (palace) he had built for her, for he said, “My wife shall not live in the house of David king of Israel, because the places where the ark of the LORD has entered are holy.”

¹²Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD which he had built in front of the porch [of the temple],

¹³a certain number every day, offering them up as Moses commanded for the Sabbaths, the New Moons, and the three annual feasts—the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Booths (Tabernacles).

¹⁴Now in accordance with the ordinance of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, and the Levites for their duties of praise and ministering and serving before the priests as every day required, and the gatekeepers by their divisions at every gate; for David the man of God had so commanded.

¹⁵And they did not deviate from the commandment of the king to the priests and Levites in any respect or in regard to the storehouses or treasuries.

¹⁶Thus all the work of Solomon was carried out from the day the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was completed.

¹⁷Then Solomon went to Ezion-geber and to Eloth on the shore of the [Red] Sea in the land of Edom.

¹⁸And Hiram (Hiram) sent him, by his servants, ships and servants familiar with the sea; and they went with Solomon’s servants to Ophir, and took from there four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to King Solomon.

9 WHEN THE queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with riddles. She was accompanied by a very large number of attendants, with camels bearing spices (balsam oil) and a large amount of gold and precious stones. And when she came to Solomon, she talked with him about all that was on her mind.

²Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was hidden from him which he did not make clear to her.

³So when the queen of Sheba saw the [depth of] Solomon's wisdom, and the house which he had built, ⁴and the food of his table, the [vast] seating order of his officials, the attendance and service of his ministers and their attire, his cupbearers and their attire, and his stairway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, she was breathless.

⁵She said to the king, "The report which I heard in my own land regarding your [accomplishments and your] words and your wisdom was true, ⁶but I did not believe the reports until I came and saw it with my own eyes. Behold, the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told to me; you have surpassed the report that I heard.

⁷"Blessed and fortunate are your people, how blessed and fortunate are these servants of yours who stand before you continually and hear your wisdom!

⁸"Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you, setting you on His throne as king for the LORD your God; because your God loved Israel, establishing them forever, therefore He made you king over them, to do justice and righteousness.”

⁹Then she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, a very large amount of spices (balsam oil) and precious stones; there was no such spice [anywhere] like that which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

¹⁰The servants of Hiram and those of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, also brought almug trees and precious stones.

¹¹From the almug timber the king made stairways for the house of the LORD and for the king’s palace, and lyres and harps for the singers; none like that was seen before in the land of Judah.

¹²King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all [the things] she desired, whatever she asked, besides a return for what she had brought to the king. So she returned to her own land with her servants.

¹³Now the weight of gold which came to Solomon in one year was 666 talents, ¹⁴besides what the traders and merchants brought; and all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

¹⁵King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold, using six hundred shekels of beaten gold on each large shield.

¹⁶And he made three hundred [smaller] shields of beaten gold, using three hundred shekels of gold on each shield; and the king put them in the house of the Forest of Lebanon.

¹⁷Moreover, the king made a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with pure gold.

¹⁹Also, twelve lions were standing there, one on each side of the six steps. Nothing like it had ever been made for any [other] kingdom.

²⁰All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; silver was not considered valuable in the days of Solomon.

POWERPOINT

Although Solomon's riches were beyond those of all the kings of the earth, the kings of other nations did not come to him for riches but to listen to the wisdom God had given him.

Always remember that obtaining God-given wisdom is far more valuable than wealth.

²¹For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram; once every three years the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold and silver, ivory and apes and peacocks.

²²So King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in wealth and wisdom.

²³And all the kings of the earth were seeking the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom which God had put into his heart.

²⁴Each man brought his gift, articles of silver and gold, garments, weapons, spices, horses and mules, so much year by year.

²⁵Now Solomon had 4,000 stalls for horses and chariots, and 12,000 horsemen, and he stationed them in the chariot cities or with the king at Jerusalem. [Deut 17:16, 17]

²⁶He ruled over all the kings from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines, and as far as the border of Egypt.

²⁷The king made silver in Jerusalem as common as stones, and cedar wood as plentiful as the sycamore-fig trees that are in the lowland.

²⁸And they were importing horses for Solomon from Egypt and from all [the other] countries.

²⁹Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, from the first to the last, are they not written in the records of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

³⁰Solomon reigned forty years in Jerusalem over all Israel.

³¹And Solomon slept with his fathers [in death]; he was buried in the city of his father David. Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

10 THEN REHOBOAM went to Shechem, because all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.

²When Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard about the new king (for he was in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon), Jeroboam returned from Egypt. [1 Kin 11:26–40]

³And the people sent messengers and summoned him. So when Jeroboam and all Israel came, they spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

⁴“Your father [King Solomon] made our yoke hard (heavy, difficult); so now lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you.”

⁵Rehoboam replied, “Come back to me again in three days.” So the people departed.

⁶Then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served his father Solomon [as advisers] while he was alive, asking, “What advice do you give me in answer to these people?”

⁷They answered him, saying, “If you are kind to these people and please them and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever.”

⁸But the king rejected the advice which the elders gave him, and consulted with the young men who grew up with him and served him [as advisers].

⁹He asked them, “What advice do you give to us regarding the answer to these people, who have spoken to me, saying, ‘Lighten the yoke which your father put on us’?”

¹⁰The young men who grew up with him told him, “Tell the people who said to you, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter for us’: ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s loins!’

¹¹‘Now my father loaded you with a heavy yoke, but I will add [more weight] to your yoke. My father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions (extremely painful scourges).’”

¹²So on the third day Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam just as the king had directed, saying, “Return to me on the third day.”

¹³The king answered them harshly, for King Rehoboam rejected the counsel of the elders.

¹⁴He spoke to them in accordance with the advice of the young men, saying, “My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.”

¹⁵So the king did not listen to the people, for the turn of events was from God that the LORD might fulfill His word, which He had spoken through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat. [1 Kin 11:29–39]

¹⁶When all Israel saw that the king did not listen and pay attention to them, the people answered him, “What portion do we have in David?

We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse.

Every man to your tents, O Israel;

Now, [Rehoboam, descendant of] David, see to your own house.”

So all Israel went to their tents.

¹⁷But as for the Israelites who lived in Judah’s cities, Rehoboam ruled over them.

¹⁸Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the forced labor, and the Israelites stoned him and he died. And King Rehoboam hurried to mount his [royal] chariot to escape to Jerusalem.

¹⁹And Israel has rebelled against the house of David to this day.

11 NOW WHEN Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, 180,000 chosen warriors to fight against [the ten tribes of] Israel to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.

²But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

³“Say to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin,

⁴“Thus says the LORD: “You shall not go up nor fight against your brothers (countrymen); return, every man to his house, for this thing is from Me.”” And they listened to and obeyed the words of the LORD and turned back from going against Jeroboam.

⁵Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and built [fortified] cities for defense in Judah.

⁶He built Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,

⁷Beth-zur, Soco, Adullam,

⁸Gath, Mareshah, Ziph,

⁹Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,

¹⁰Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron, which are fortified cities in Judah and Benjamin.

¹¹He strengthened the fortresses and put officers in them, with supplies of food, [olive] oil, and wine.

¹²And in each city he put [large] shields and spears, and made them very strong. So he held Judah and Benjamin.

¹³Further, the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel took their stand with Rehoboam from all their districts.

¹⁴For the Levites left their pasture lands and their property and came to Judah and Jerusalem, because Jeroboam and his sons had excluded them from serving as priests to the LORD.

¹⁵Jeroboam appointed his own priests for the high places, for the satyrs (goat demons) and calves (idols) which he had made. [1 Kin 12:28]

¹⁶Those from all the tribes of Israel who set their hearts on seeking the LORD God of Israel followed them to Jerusalem, to sacrifice to the LORD God of their fathers.

¹⁷So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam the son of Solomon for three years; for they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

¹⁸Rehoboam took as his wife Mahalath, the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David, and of Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse.

¹⁹She bore him sons: Jeush, Shemariah, and Zaham.

²⁰After her he took Maacah the daughter (granddaughter) of Absalom, and she bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith.

²¹Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter (granddaughter) of Absalom more than all his wives and concubines—for he had taken eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and he fathered twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

²²Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah the chief leader among his brothers, because he intended to make him king.

²³He acted wisely and distributed some of his sons throughout the territories of Judah and Benjamin to all the fortified cities. He gave them abundant provisions, and he sought many wives for them.

12 WHEN THE kingdom of Rehoboam was established and strong, he and all Israel with him abandoned the law of the LORD.

²And it came about in King Rehoboam's fifth year, because they had been unfaithful to the LORD, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem

³with 1,200 chariots and 60,000 horsemen. The people who came with him from Egypt were beyond counting—the Lubim, the Sukkiim, and the Ethiopians.

⁴Shishak took the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.

⁵Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah who had gathered at Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, "Thus says the LORD: 'You have abandoned (turned away from) Me, so I have abandoned you into the hands of Shishak.'"

⁶Then the leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, "The LORD is righteous."

⁷When the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, "They have humbled themselves so I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some measure of a remnant [that escapes]; and My wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by means of Shishak.

⁸"Nevertheless they will become his slaves, so that they may know [the difference between] My service and the service of the kingdoms of the countries."

⁹So Shishak king of Egypt went up against Jerusalem; he took the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house (palace). He took everything. He even took the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

¹⁰In their place King Rehoboam made shields of bronze and entrusted them to the care of the officers of the guard who guarded the door of the king's house.

¹¹And whenever the king entered the house of the LORD, the guards came and carried the shields and then brought them back into the guards' room.

¹²When Rehoboam humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned away from him, so as not to destroy him completely; and also conditions were good in Judah.

¹³So King Rehoboam established himself in Jerusalem and reigned. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city in which the LORD had chosen from all the tribes of Israel to put His Name. And his mother was Naamah the Ammonitess.

¹⁴He did evil because he did not set his heart to seek and worship and honor the LORD.

¹⁵Now the acts of Rehoboam, from the first to the last, are they not written in the records of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer, according to genealogical enrollment? There were wars between Rehoboam [of Judah] and Jeroboam [of Israel] continually.

¹⁶And Rehoboam slept with his fathers [in death] and was buried in the City of David; and Abijah his son became king in his place.

13 IN THE eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah became king over Judah.

²He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah.

And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam [of Israel].

³Abijah began the battle with an army of brave soldiers, 400,000 chosen men. Jeroboam drew up in battle formation against him with 800,000 chosen men, valiant men.

⁴Then Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, "Listen to me, Jeroboam and all Israel:

⁵"Do you not know that the LORD God of Israel, gave rule over Israel forever to David and to his sons by a covenant of salt [a permanent pact, extending to each generation of Israel]? [Num 18:19]

⁶"Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, a servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up and rebelled against his lord [the king], ⁷and worthless (unprincipled, unethical) men gathered around him, useless and wicked men, who proved too strong for Rehoboam the son of Solomon when Rehoboam was young and timid, and could not assert himself against them.

⁸"And now you intend to assert yourselves against the kingdom of the LORD which is in the hands of the sons of David, since you are a great multitude and have with you the golden calves (idols) which Jeroboam made for you as gods.

⁹"Have you not driven out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron and the Levites, and made priests for yourselves like the peoples of other lands? So whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams, even he may become a priest of non-existent gods (idols).

¹⁰“But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not abandoned (turned away from) Him. The sons of Aaron are ministering to the LORD as priests, and the Levites attend to their service.

¹¹“Every morning and every evening they offer the burnt offerings and the fragrant incense to the LORD; and the showbread is set on the clean table [of pure gold], and the golden lampstand with its lamps is ready to light every evening; for we keep the charge of the LORD our God [that is, the obligation we have to Him], but you have abandoned (turned away from) Him.

¹³But Jeroboam had set an ambush to come from the rear, so that Israel was in front of Judah and the ambush was behind them.

¹⁴When [the men of] Judah turned around, they were attacked from both front and rear; so they cried out to the LORD [for help], and the priests blew the trumpets.

¹⁵Then the men of Judah raised a war cry; and as they shouted, God struck Jeroboam and all Israel [with defeat] before Abijah and Judah.

¹⁶And the sons of Israel fled before Judah, and God handed over the sons of Israel to them.

¹⁷Abijah and his people inflicted on them a great defeat, so that 500,000 chosen men of Israel fell slain.

¹⁸Thus the sons of Israel were subdued (humbled) at that time, and the sons of Judah prevailed because they relied on the LORD, the God of their fathers.

¹⁹Abijah pursued Jeroboam and captured [several] cities from him: Bethel, Jeshanah, and Ephraim (Ephron), with their villages.

²⁰Jeroboam did not recover strength again during the time of [the reign of] Abijah. And the LORD struck him and he died.

²¹But Abijah became powerful. He took fourteen wives for himself and fathered twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

²²Now the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways and his sayings, are written in the writing of the prophet Iddo.

14 SO ABIJAH slept with his fathers [in death], and they buried him in the City of David; and Asa his son became king in his place. The land was at peace for ten years during his days.

²Asa did what was good and right in the sight of the LORD his God.

³He removed the foreign altars and high places and tore down the [pagan] pillars (obelisks, memorial stones), and cut to pieces the Asherim [the symbols of the goddess Asherah].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Replacing Worry with Trust

I wonder how many times the statement “I’m worried about...” is spoken each day. What is the point of it? Does worry change anything? No (see Matt. 6:25–34). So why keep worrying?

King Aza looked out upon an enemy army of a million men and, rather than panic, simply called out, “so help us, O LORD our God, for we trust in and rely on You, and in Your name we have come against this multitude” (2 Chr. 14:11). Then he saw the Lord utterly defeat their enemy.

Start listening to yourself, and each time you hear “I’m worried,” learn to say to yourself, Worry is useless, and I refuse to worry. You can replace those negative, useless words with “I trust God.” When you say you trust God, His power is released to work in your life. Study God’s Word, remember His faithfulness to you in past situations, and be determined to stop worrying.

⁴And he commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers [to inquire of and for Him and seek Him as a vital necessity], and to observe the law [given to Moses] and the commandment.

⁵Asa also removed the [idolatrous] high places and the incense altars from all the cities of Judah. The kingdom was at rest and undisturbed under his reign.

⁶He built fortified cities in Judah, since the land was at rest, and there was no one at war with him in those years, because the LORD had given him rest.

⁷So he said to Judah, “Let us build these cities and surround them with walls, towers, gates and bars [to secure the doors]. The land is still ours because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought Him [longing for Him with all our heart] and He has given us peace on every side.” So they built and prospered.

⁸Now Asa had an army of 300,000 men from Judah, who carried large shields and spears, and 280,000 from Benjamin, who carried shields and drew bows, all courageous men.

⁹Now Zerah the Ethiopian (Cushite) came out against Judah with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots, and he came as far as Mareshah.

¹⁰Then Asa went out against him, and they drew up in battle formation in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

¹¹Asa called out to the LORD his God, saying, “O LORD, there is no one besides You to help in the battle between the powerful and the weak; so help us, O LORD our God, for we trust in and rely on You, and in Your name we have come against this multitude. O LORD, You are our God; let not man prevail against You.”

¹²So the LORD struck the Ethiopians [with defeat] before Asa and Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.

¹³Asa and the people who were with him pursued them as far as Gerar; and so many Ethiopians fell that none of them were found alive; for they were destroyed before the LORD and

His army. And they carried away a very large amount of spoil.

¹⁴They attacked and destroyed all the cities around Gerar, for the dread of the LORD had fallen on them. They plundered all the cities, for there was a large amount of spoil in them.

¹⁵They also struck down the people [living] in tents who had livestock, and took captive large numbers of sheep and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

15 NOW THE Spirit of God came on Azariah the son of Oded, ²and he went out to meet Asa and said to him, “Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: the LORD is with you while you are with Him. If you seek Him [inquiring for and of Him, as your soul’s first necessity], He will let you find Him; but if you abandon (turn away from) Him, He will abandon (turn away from) you.

³“Now for a long time Israel was without the true God and without a teaching priest, and without [God’s] law.

⁴“But when they were in their trouble and distress they turned to the LORD God of Israel, and [in desperation earnestly] sought Him, and He let them find Him.

⁵“In those times there was no peace for him who went out or for him who came in, for great suffering came on all the inhabitants of the lands.

⁶“Nation was crushed by nation, and city by city, for God troubled them with every kind of distress.

⁷“But as for you, be strong and do not lose courage, for there is reward for your work.”

⁸And when Asa heard these words, the prophecy of Azariah the son of Oded the prophet, he took courage and removed the repulsive idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities which he had captured in the hill country of Ephraim. Then he restored the altar [of burnt offering] of the LORD which was in front of the porch [of the temple] of the LORD.

⁹He gathered all Judah and Benjamin and the strangers who were with them out of Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon, for they came over to Asa from Israel in large numbers when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

¹⁰So they assembled at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa's reign.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Is God Your First Priority?

King Asa was promised, “If you seek Him [inquiring for and of Him, as your soul’s first necessity], He will let you find Him” (2 Chr. 15:2). The best way to determine if God is first in your life is to slow down and ask yourself: What do I think about the most? When I have a problem, do I run to people, or take it to God? What do I do with my time?

You see, we always make time for what we really want to do—no matter how busy we are. If you want to spend time with God, you are going to make Him a priority.

Ask the Holy Spirit to show you any area of your life where your priorities may be out of line. Then make a change and seek a deeper relationship with Him. Ask for God’s help, because it is He Who gives you the ability to adjust your lifestyle and bring it in line with His Word (see 1 Thess. 5:23).

¹¹They sacrificed to the LORD on that day from the spoil they had brought—700 oxen and 7,000 sheep.

¹²They entered into a covenant (solemn agreement) to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and soul;

¹³and that whoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel, was to be put to death, whether young or old, man or woman.

¹⁴They swore an oath to the LORD with a loud voice, with [jubilant] shouting, with trumpets, and with horns.

¹⁵All Judah rejoiced over the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart and had sought Him with their whole heart, and He let them find Him. So the LORD gave them rest on every side.

¹⁶He also removed Maacah, King Asa's mother, from the position of queen mother, because she had made a repulsive image for [the goddess] Asherah. Asa cut down her idol, crushed it, and burned it at the Brook Kidron.

¹⁷But the high places [of pagan worship] were not removed from Israel. Nevertheless Asa's heart was blameless all his days.

¹⁸He brought the things that his father [Abijah] had dedicated and those things that he had dedicated into the house of God—silver and gold and utensils.

¹⁹And there was no war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

16 IN THE thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah and fortified Ramah in order to prevent anyone from going out or coming in to [meet with] Asa king of Judah.

²Then Asa brought out silver and gold from the treasuries of the house of the LORD and from the king's house, and sent them to Ben-hadad king of Aram (Syria), who lived in Damascus, saying,

³*“Let there be a treaty between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. Look, I am sending you* silver and gold; go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me.”

⁴Ben-hadad listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they attacked and conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel-maim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali.

⁵When Baasha heard about it, he ceased fortifying Ramah and stopped his work.

⁶Then King Asa brought all Judah, and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber with which Baasha had been building, and with them he fortified Geba and Mizpah.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

A Heart That Is His

To have a heart that is “completely His” (2 Chr. 16:9) means to have a heartfelt desire to do right and to please God. People who have a heart that completely belongs to God are people who truly love Him, though they may not be perfect. They may still be dealing with issues of the flesh. Their mouths may still get them into trouble or they may still allow their emotions to rule their lives at times. They may still make mistakes or lose their tempers at times. But when they do, they are quick to repent and make things right with God again. If they have offended someone, they will humble themselves and apologize.

When God looks into our lives, He doesn't look for somebody with a perfect performance but who has a terrible heart attitude. He looks for someone who may not have a perfect performance but who has a right attitude toward Him. If we have a heart that is completely His, He counts us as perfect and works with us as we continue growing and moving toward that ultimate perfection.

⁷At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him, “Because you relied on the king of Aram (Syria) and did not rely on the LORD your God, the army of the king of Aram (Syria) has escaped out of your hand.

⁹“For the eyes of the LORD move to and fro throughout the earth so that He may support those whose heart is completely His. You have acted foolishly in this; therefore, from now on you will have wars.”

¹⁰Then Asa was angry with the seer and put him in prison [in the stocks], for he was enraged with him because of this. And at the same time Asa oppressed some of the people.

¹¹Now the acts of Asa, from the first to the last, are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

¹²In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa developed a disease in his feet. His disease was severe, yet even in his illness he did not seek the LORD, but [relied only on] the physicians.

¹³So Asa slept with his fathers [in death], dying in the forty-first year of his reign.

¹⁴They buried him in his own tomb which he had cut out for himself in the City of David, and they laid him on a bier which he had filled with various kinds of spices blended by the perfumers' art; and they made a very great fire in his honor.

17 JEHOSHAPHAT HIS son then became king [of Judah] in Asa's place, and strengthened his position over Israel.

²He placed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim which his father Asa had captured.

³The LORD was with Jehoshaphat because he followed the example of his father (ancestor) David. He did not seek [to follow] the Baals [the false gods], ⁴but sought the God of his father, and walked in (obeyed) His commandments, and did not act as Israel did.

⁵Therefore the LORD established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought tribute to Jehoshaphat, and he had great wealth and honor.

⁶His heart was encouraged and he took great pride in the ways of the LORD; moreover, he again removed the high places [of pagan worship] and the Asherim from Judah.

⁷Then in the third year of his reign he sent his officials, Ben-hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah;

⁸and with them were the Levites—Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tobadonijah; and with them the priests Elishama and Jehoram.

⁹They taught in Judah having the Book of the Law of the LORD with them; they went throughout all the cities of Judah and taught among the people.

¹⁰Now the dread of the LORD was on all the kingdoms of the lands surrounding Judah, so that they did not make war against Jehoshaphat.

¹¹Some of the Philistines brought gifts and silver as tribute to Jehoshaphat; the Arabians also brought him flocks: 7,700 rams and 7,700 male goats.

¹²So Jehoshaphat became greater and greater. He built fortresses and storage cities in Judah.

¹³He had large supplies in the cities of Judah, and soldiers, courageous men, in Jerusalem.

¹⁴This was the number of them by their fathers' (ancestors') households: of Judah, the commanders of thousands, Adnah the commander, and with him 300,000 courageous men;

¹⁵and next to him was Jehohanan the commander, and with him 280,000;

¹⁶and next to him Amasiah the son of Zichri, who volunteered for the LORD, and with him 200,000 courageous men;

¹⁷and of Benjamin: Eliada, a brave man, and with him 200,000 men armed with bow and shield;

¹⁸and next to him was Jehozabad, and with him 180,000 armed and ready for military service.

¹⁹These are the ones who were in the service of the king, besides those he had placed in fortified cities throughout Judah.

18 NOW JEHOSEPHAT had great wealth and honor, and was allied by marriage with Ahab.

²Some years later he went down to [visit] Ahab in Samaria. And Ahab slaughtered many sheep and oxen for him and the people who were with him, and induced him to go up against Ramoth-gilead.

³Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me to [fight against] Ramoth-gilead?" He answered, "I am as you are, and my people as your people [your hopes and concerns are ours]; we will be with you in the battle."

⁴Further, Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire first for the word of the LORD."

⁵Then the king of Israel assembled the prophets, four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I refrain?" And they said, "Go up, for God will hand it over to the king."

⁶But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there no prophet of the LORD still here by whom we may inquire?"

⁷The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD, but I hate him, for he never prophesies [anything] good for me, but always evil. He is Micaiah the son of Imla" And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say so [perhaps this time it will be different]."

⁸Then the king of Israel called for an officer and said, "Bring Micaiah the son of Imla quickly."

⁹Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting, each on his throne, arrayed in their robes; they were sitting at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.

¹⁰Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made horns of iron for himself; and said, "Thus says the LORD: 'With these you shall gore the Arameans (Syrians) until they are destroyed.'"

¹¹All the prophets prophesied this, saying, "Go up to Ramoth-gilead and succeed; the LORD will hand it over to the king."

¹²The messenger who went to call Micaiah said to him,

“Listen, the words of the prophets are of one accord, foretelling a favorable outcome for the king. So just let your word be like one of them and speak favorably.”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Think and Speak on Purpose

The prophet Micaiah made this commitment: “As the LORD lives, I will [only] speak what my God says” (2 Chr. 18:13). It would be a good idea for all of us to make a similar commitment. We can start by purposefully thinking in agreement with the Word of God and speaking those thoughts out loud. You might start with one or more of these:

“This is the day the Lord has made; I will rejoice and be glad.”

“The words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart shall be acceptable to God.”

“I have the mind of Christ.”

“I am the righteousness of God in Christ.”

“I am expecting God to do something great in my life.”

Decide to think and speak on purpose every day!

¹³But Micaiah said, “As the LORD lives, I will [only] speak what my God says.”

¹⁴When he came to the king, the king said to him, “Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I refrain?” And he said, “Go up and succeed, for they will be handed over to you.”

¹⁵Then the king said to him, “How many times must I warn you (make you swear an oath) to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

¹⁶Then Micaiah said,

“I saw all [the people of] Israel

Scattered on the mountains,

As sheep that have no shepherd;

And the LORD said,

‘These have no master.

Let each one return to his house in peace.’”

¹⁷Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good in regard to me, but [only] evil?”

¹⁸So Micaiah said, “Therefore, hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host (army) of heaven standing on His right and on His left.

¹⁹“Then the LORD said, ‘Who will entice Ahab king of Israel to go up and fall [defeated] at Ramoth-gilead?’ And one said this and another said that.

²⁰“Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD and said, ‘I will entice him.’ The LORD said to him, ‘By what means?’

²¹“He said, ‘I will go out and be a deceptive spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’ Then the LORD said, ‘You are to entice him and also succeed. Go and do so.’

²²“Now, you see, the LORD put a deceptive spirit in the mouth of these prophets of yours; and the LORD has [actually] proclaimed disaster against you.”

²³Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came up and struck Micaiah on the cheek and said, “Which way did the Spirit of the LORD go [when he departed] from me to speak to you?”

²⁴Micaiah said, “Behold, you will see on that day when you go into an inner room [desperately trying] to hide yourself.”

²⁵Then the king of Israel said, “Take Micaiah and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king’s son, ²⁶and say, ‘Thus says the king: “Put this man in prison and feed him just enough bread and water to survive until I return in peace (safely).”’”

²⁷But Micaiah said, “If you actually return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me.” And he added, “Listen [to what I have said], you people, all of you.”

²⁸So [Ahab] the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up against Ramoth-gilead.

²⁹The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and will go into battle, but you put on your [royal] robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into the battle.

³⁰Now the king of Aram (Syria) had commanded the captains of his chariots, saying, “Do not fight with the small or the great, but only with the king of Israel.”

³¹So when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat [of Judah], they said, “It is the king of Israel!” So they turned to fight against him, but Jehoshaphat called out [for God’s help], and the LORD helped him; and God diverted them away from him.

³²When the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

³³Then a certain man drew his bow at random and struck [Ahab] the king of Israel between the scales of his armor. So Ahab said to his chariot driver, “Turn around and take me out of the battle, because I am seriously wounded.”

³⁴The battle raged that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot in front of the Arameans (Syrians) until the evening, and at sunset he died.

19 JEHOSEPHAT THE king of Judah returned safely to his house (palace) in Jerusalem.

²Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, “Should you help the ungodly and love those who hate the LORD and in doing so bring wrath from the LORD on yourself?”

⁴So Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem, and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim and brought them back to the LORD, the God of their fathers.

Making Right Spiritual Decisions

Some people make decisions too quickly; others make them too slowly; some make them unwisely, and some don't make them at all. Life is filled with decisions. We decide each day what we will eat, what we will wear, and what we will do with our time. We make employment decisions, relationship decisions, financial decisions, and, most importantly, we make spiritual decisions. Even people who won't make decisions are still making a decision not to decide.

When King Jehoshaphat appointed judges in the land, he told them, "So now let the fear (reverent awe) of the LORD be on you [to keep you from making unjust decisions]; be careful in what you do" (2 Chr. 19:7). If we make right spiritual decisions—deciding to put God first in all things—the rest of our decisions will be easier. Making decisions in a wise and timely manner is vital to our peace and success in life.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Wait, Focus, Worship, and Give Thanks

The people in 2 Chronicles 20:12 had come to realize three things for certain: (1) They had no might against their enemies; (2) they did not know what to do, and (3) they needed to have their eyes focused on God.

Once they came to these realizations and freely acknowledged them to Him, the Lord said to them: “Be not afraid or dismayed at this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God’s.... You need not fight in this battle; take your positions, stand and witness the salvation of the LORD who is with you” (2 Chr. 20:15, 17).

Your position should be one of waiting on the Lord, with your eyes focused on Him, worshiping and giving thanks, while He works all things out for your good.

⁵He appointed judges in the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city, ⁶and he said to the judges, “Be careful what you do, for you do not judge for man, but for the LORD who is with you in the matter of judgment.

⁷“So now let the fear (reverent awe) of the LORD be on you [to keep you from making unjust decisions]; be careful in what you do, for there is no injustice with the LORD our God, or partiality, or acceptance of a bribe.”

⁸In Jerusalem also Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites, priests, and heads of the fathers’ households of Israel to render the judgment of the LORD and to judge disputes among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

⁹Then the king commanded them, “Do this in the fear of the LORD, faithfully and wholeheartedly.

¹⁰“Whenever any dispute comes to you from your brothers (relatives) who live in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, or between statutes and judgments, you are to warn [and instruct] them so that they may not be guilty before the LORD; otherwise [God’s] wrath will come on you and your brothers. Do this and you will not be guilty.

¹¹“Behold, Amariah the chief priest will be over you in all matters of the LORD, and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the governor of the house of Judah, in all the king’s matters; and the Levites will serve you as officers. Deal courageously, and may the LORD be with the upright.”

20 NOW IT happened after this that the Moabites and the Ammonites, together with some of the Meunites, came to make war against Jehoshaphat.

²Then it was reported to Jehoshaphat, “A great multitude has come against you from beyond the [Dead] Sea, out of Aram (Syria); and behold, they are in Hazazon-tamar (that is, Engedi).”

³Then Jehoshaphat was afraid and set himself

[determinedly, as his vital need] to seek the LORD; and he proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

⁴So [the people of] Judah gathered together to seek help from the LORD; indeed they came from all the cities of Judah to seek the LORD [longing for Him with all their heart].

⁵Then Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD in front of the new courtyard, ⁶and said, “O LORD, God of our fathers, are You not God in heaven? And do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations? Power and might are in Your hand, there is no one able to take a stand against You.

⁸“They have lived in it, and have built You a sanctuary in it for Your Name, saying,

⁹‘If evil comes on us, or the sword of judgment, or plague, or famine, we will stand before this house and before You (for Your Name and Your Presence is in this house) and we will cry out to You in our distress, and You will hear and save us.’

¹⁰“Now behold, the sons of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir, whom You would not allow Israel to invade when they came from the land of Egypt (for they turned away from them and did not destroy them), [Deut 2:9]

¹¹here they are, rewarding us by coming to drive us out of Your possession which You have given us as an inheritance.

¹²“O our God, will You not judge them? For we are powerless against this great multitude which is coming against us. We do not know what to do, but our eyes are on You.”

¹³So all Judah stood before the LORD, with their infants, their wives, and their children.

¹⁴Then in the midst of the assembly the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph.

¹⁵He said, “Listen carefully, all [you people of] Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and King Jehoshaphat. The LORD says this to you: ‘Be not afraid or dismayed at this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God’s.

¹⁶‘Go down against them tomorrow. Behold, they will come up by the ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the river valley, in front of the Wilderness of Jeruel.

¹⁸Jehoshaphat bowed with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the LORD, worshipping Him.

POWERPOINT

All of us face various kinds of battles in our lives. No one escapes problems and challenges, which we often call “the storms of life.” The good news is that God already knows what He will do when we face difficulties; He has a plan to bring us to victory. Second Chronicles 20:17 tells us that we do not need to fight our own battles because our battles belong to the Lord, not to us. All we need to do is take our position of abiding in and worshiping God and remain in it until our breakthrough comes.

¹⁹The Levites, from the sons of the Kohathites and the sons of the Korahites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel, with a very loud voice.

²⁰So they got up early in the morning and went out into the Wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Hear me, O Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe and trust in the LORD your God and you will be established (secure). Believe and trust in His prophets and succeed.”

²¹When he had consulted with the people, he appointed those who sang to the LORD and those who praised Him in their holy (priestly) attire, as they went out before the army and said, “Praise and give thanks to the LORD, for His mercy and lovingkindness endure forever.”

²²When they began singing and praising, the LORD set ambushes against the sons of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; so they were struck down [in defeat].

²³For the sons of Ammon and Moab [suspecting betrayal] rose up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir, completely destroying them; and when they had finished with the inhabitants of Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

²⁴When [the men of] Judah came to the lookout tower of the wilderness, they looked toward the multitude, and behold, they were dead bodies lying on the ground, and no one had escaped.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Acknowledge Fear, but Don't Stop There

When the surrounding nations united against the small kingdom of Judah, the odds were overwhelming (see 2 Chr. 20:1). The “sensible” thing would have been to surrender. In the context of seemingly undefeatable enemies, we read that King Jehoshaphat was afraid, but he didn’t stop with fear. He moved beyond it.

To feel fear isn’t sinful, nor does it represent disobedience or failure. In fact, we do well to think of fear as a warning to us. It’s a shout of danger. Once we feel it, we then need to decide what to do with it. We can act; we can cringe; we can ignore it. King Jehoshaphat did the right thing: He “set himself [determinedly, as his vital need] to seek the LORD” (v. 3). He didn’t have answers, and he recognized the enemies’ strength, which is an important lesson for us to learn in our battles against Satan. If we think we can defeat him by ourselves, we’re badly mistaken.

The king also proclaimed a fast and stood in the midst of the people and prayed for deliverance: “For we are powerless. ... We do not know what to do, but our eyes are on You” (v. 12). That is the prayer God wanted to hear. They realized and confessed that their only hope was in God’s deliverance.

Just then, the Holy Spirit came upon a man named Jahaziel, who said, “The LORD says this to you: ‘Be not afraid or dismayed at this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God’s’” (v. 15). He went on to say, “You need not fight in this battle; take your positions, stand and witness the salvation of the LORD who is with you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Do not fear or be dismayed” (v. 17). The account goes on to say that the people began to sing praises to God, and when they did that, God brought deliverance.

That’s the biggest secret of winning the battles against your enemy. You acknowledge your fear and let it push you to seek God. When you do, Isaiah says it this way: “For He will come in like a narrow, rushing stream which the breath of the LORD drives [overwhelming the enemy]” (Isa. 59:19). God hears and runs to your rescue. That’s His promise.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

God, I’ve known fear, and too often I’ve concentrated on the fear and forgotten that it’s an opportunity to call on You so I can see Your hand of deliverance in my life. I declare with King David, “When I am afraid, I will put my trust and faith in You” (Ps. 56:3). Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Praise and Prayer

Two spiritual weapons available to you are praise and prayer. Praise and prayer both should be filled with the Word of God.

Jesus used the weapon of the Word in the wilderness to defeat the devil (see Luke 4:1–13). Each time the devil lied to Him, Jesus responded with, “It is written,” and quoted the Word. Likewise, you can use the Word to tear down the strongholds in your mind and defeat the devil.

In 2 Chronicles 20:21–22, King Jehoshaphat sent the singers out before his army to “Praise and give thanks to the LORD, for His mercy and lovingkindness endure forever,” and the enemy was routed. Learn to fill your prayers and praise with the Word of God by abiding (staying, continuing) in God’s Word. Pray, speak, sing, and study the Word, and you can experience victory in all areas of your life.

²⁵When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take their spoil, they found much among them, including equipment, garments, and valuable things which they took for themselves, more than they could carry away; so much that they spent three days gathering the spoil.

²⁶Then on the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Beracah, for it was there that they blessed the LORD. For that reason they named that place “The Valley of Beracah (blessing)” until today.

²⁷Then they returned to Jerusalem with joy, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, led by Jehoshaphat, for the LORD had made them rejoice over their enemies.

²⁸They came to Jerusalem with harps, lyres, and trumpets to the house (temple) of the LORD.

²⁹And the fear of God came on all the kingdoms of those countries when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.

³⁰So the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was quiet, for his God gave him rest on all sides.

³¹Now Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-five-years. His mother’s name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

³²He walked in the way of his father Asa and did not depart from it, doing what was right in the sight of the LORD.

³³Only the high places [for pagan sacrifices] were not removed, for the people had not yet set their hearts firmly on the God of their fathers.

³⁴Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, from the first to the last, behold, they are written in the records of Jehu the son of Hanani, which are recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel.

³⁵After [all] this Jehoshaphat king of Judah made an alliance with Ahaziah king of Israel, and he acted wickedly in doing so.

³⁶He joined him in building ships to go to Tarshish [for trade], and they built them in Ezion-geber.

³⁷Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, “Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, the LORD has broken down what you have built.” So the ships were wrecked and were unable to go to Tarshish.

21 JEHOSEPHAT SLEPT with his fathers [in death] and was buried with them in the City of David; and his son Jehoram became king in his place.

²He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azaryahu, Michael, and Shephatiah. All of these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

³Their father gave them many gifts of silver, gold, and valuable things, in addition to fortified cities in Judah; but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram because he was the firstborn.

⁴When Jehoram had ascended over the kingdom of his father and made himself secure, he killed all his brothers with the sword [to eliminate any rivals], and some of the leaders of Israel as well.

⁵Jehoram was thirty-two years of age when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

⁷Yet the LORD would not destroy the house of David because of the covenant which He had made with David, and because He had promised to give a lamp to him and to his sons forever. [2 Sam 7:12–17; 1 Kin 11:36; Ps 132:17]

⁸In the days of Jehoram Edom revolted against the rule of Judah and set up a king over themselves.

¹⁰So Edom revolted against the rule of Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time against Jehoram's rule, because he had abandoned (turned away from) the LORD God of his fathers.

¹¹Moreover, he made [idolatrous] high places in the hill country of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to be unfaithful [to God], and he led Judah astray [compelling the people's cooperation].

¹²Then a letter came to Jehoram from Elijah the prophet, saying, "Thus says the LORD God of David your father (ancestor): 'Because you have not walked in the ways of your father Jehoshaphat nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

¹³but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and caused Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to be unfaithful [to God] as the house of Ahab was unfaithful, and you have also murdered your brothers, your father's house (your own family), who were better than you,

¹⁴behold, the LORD is going to strike your people, your sons, your wives, and all your possessions with a great disaster;

¹⁵and you will suffer a severe illness, an intestinal disease, until your intestines come out because of the sickness, day after day.'"

¹⁶Then the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit (anger) of the Philistines and of the Arabs who bordered the Ethiopians.

¹⁷They came against Judah and invaded it, and carried away all the possessions found in the king's house (palace), together with his sons and his wives; so there was not a son left to him except Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

¹⁸After all this, the LORD struck Jehoram with an incurable intestinal disease.

¹⁹Now it came about in the course of time, at the end of two years, that his intestines came out because of his disease and he died in excruciating pain. And his people did not make a funeral fire to honor him, like the fire for his fathers.

²⁰Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years; and he departed with no one's regret (sorrow). They buried him in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

22 THEN THE inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, his youngest son, king in his place, because the band of men (raiders) who came with the Arabs to the camp had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.

²Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, a granddaughter of Omri. [2 Kin 8:26]

³He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother was his adviser [and she encouraged him] to act

wickedly.

⁴So he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab, for they were his advisers after the death of his father, resulting in his destruction.

⁵He also walked in accordance with their advice, and he went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to wage war against Hazael king of Aram (Syria) at Ramoth-gilead. And the Arameans wounded Joram (Jehoram). [2 Kin 8:28ff]

⁶Then he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds they had inflicted on him at Ramah when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. And Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

⁷But the downfall of Ahaziah was ordained by God, in that he went to Joram (Jehoram). For when he arrived there he went out [as an ally] with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to destroy the house of Ahab.

⁸It came about that when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, he found the leaders of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's [murdered] brothers ministering to Ahaziah, and he killed them.

⁹Jehu also searched for Ahaziah, who was hiding in Samaria; he was captured, brought to Jehu, and put to death. They buried him, for they said, "After all, he is the grandson of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart." So the house of Ahaziah had no one left to retain the power to rule over the kingdom.

¹⁰Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she rose and destroyed all the royal family of the house of Judah.

¹¹But Jehoshabeath, the king's daughter, took Joash the [infant] son of Ahaziah and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being put to death, and she placed him and his nurse in the bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram [of Judah] and wife of Jehoiada the priest, hid Joash from [his grandmother] Athaliah so that she did not murder him (for Jehoshabeath was the sister of Ahaziah).

¹²Joash was hidden with them in the house (temple) of God for six years, and Athaliah reigned over the land.

23 IN THE seventh year Jehoiada [the priest] summoned his courage and took the captains of hundreds: Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Johanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, and they entered into a covenant with him.

²They went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the heads of the households of the fathers (ancestors) in Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

³Then all the assembly made a covenant in the house of God with the king [that is, with the child Joash, to overthrow Athaliah by proclaiming his sovereignty]. And Jehoiada [the priest] said to them, "Behold, the king's son [Joash] shall reign, as the LORD has said in regard to the sons of David.

⁴"This is what you shall do: a third of you, of the priests and Levites who are resuming service on the Sabbath, shall be gatekeepers, ⁵a [second] third shall be at the king's house (palace), and a [final] third at the Gate of the Foundation; and all the people shall be in the courtyards of the house of the LORD.

⁶“But let no one enter the house (temple) of the LORD except the priests and the Levites who minister; they may enter, for they are holy. And let all the people carefully observe the law of the LORD.

⁸So the Levites and all Judah acted in accordance with everything that Jehoiada the priest had commanded; and every man took his men who were to resume duty on the Sabbath, with those who were to go off duty on the Sabbath, for Jehoiada the priest did not dismiss [any of] the divisions [from their duties].

⁹Then Jehoiada the priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and the large and small shields which had been King David's, which were in the house of God.

¹⁰He stationed all the people around the king [as guards for him], every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side to the left side of the house (temple), by the altar and by the house.

¹¹Then they brought out the king's son and put the crown on him, and gave him the testimony [a copy of the Mosaic Law] and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him and said, “Long live the king!” [Ex 25:16, 21]

¹²When Athaliah heard the sound of the people running and praising the king, she went into the house of the LORD to [see what] the people [were doing].

¹³She looked, and there was the [young] king, standing by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpeters were beside him. And all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets, and the singers with their musical instruments were directing the [singing of] praise. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, “Treason! Treason!”

¹⁴So Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were appointed over the army and said to them, “Bring her out between the ranks [of soldiers]; and whoever follows her shall be put to death with the sword.” For the priest had said, “Do not let her be put to death in the temple of the LORD.”

¹⁵So they seized Athaliah, and when she arrived at the entrance of the Horse Gate of the king’s house (palace), they put her to death there.

¹⁶Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, all the people, and the king, that they would be the LORD’s people.

¹⁷Then all the people went to the house of Baal and tore it down, and they smashed its altars and its images to pieces, and killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of the altars.

¹⁹Jehoiada stationed the gatekeepers [at the gates] of the house of the LORD, so that no one would enter who was in any way unclean.

²⁰He took the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the rulers of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of the LORD; and they came through the upper gate to the king's house (palace) and set the king on the throne of the kingdom.

²¹So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet after Athaliah had been put to death with the sword.

24 JOASH WAS seven years old when he became king, and he reigned for forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah from Beersheba.

²Joash did what was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest [his uncle].

³Jehoiada took two wives for him, and he fathered sons and daughters.

⁴Now it came about after this that Joash decided to restore the house (temple) of the LORD.

⁵He gathered the priests and the Levites and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel to repair the house of your God from year to year; and see that you do it quickly." But the Levites did not act quickly.

⁶So the king called for Jehoiada the high priest and said to him, "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the tax for the tent of the testimony which was authorized by Moses, the servant of the LORD and the servant of the assembly of Israel?”

⁷For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken into the house of God and also had used all the holy and dedicated things of the house of the LORD for the Baals.

⁸So at the king’s command they made a chest and set it outside by the gate of the house of the LORD.

⁹Then they made a proclamation in Judah and Jerusalem to bring in for the LORD the tax that Moses the servant of God imposed on Israel in the wilderness.

¹⁰All the officers and all the people rejoiced and brought their tax and dropped it into the chest until they had finished [and the chest was full].

¹¹It came about that whenever the Levites brought the chest to the king’s official, and whenever they saw that there was a large amount of money, the king’s secretary and the chief priest’s representative would come and empty the chest, and take it, and return it to its place. They did this day after day and collected a large amount of money.

¹²The king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of the LORD; and they would hire masons and carpenters (craftsmen) and also those who worked in iron and bronze to repair and restore the house of the LORD.

¹³So the workmen labored, and the repair work progressed in their hands; and they restored and organized the house of God in accordance with its specifications and strengthened it.

¹⁴When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada; and it was [melted down and] made into utensils for the house of the LORD, utensils for ministering and for burnt offerings, and bowls and utensils of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

¹⁵Now when Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, he died. He was a hundred and thirty years old at his death.

¹⁶They buried him in the City of David among the kings, because he had done good [things] in Israel and toward God and His house.

¹⁷Now after the death of Jehoiada [the priest, who had hidden Joash], the officials of Judah came and bowed down to King Joash; then the king listened to them.

¹⁸They abandoned the house of the LORD, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherim and the idols; so [God's] wrath came on Judah and Jerusalem for their sin and guilt.

¹⁹Yet God sent prophets among them to bring them back to the LORD; these prophets testified against them, but they would not listen.

²⁰Then the Spirit of God came over Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, and he stood above the people and said to them, "This is what God has said: 'Why do you transgress the commandments of the LORD so that you cannot prosper? Because you have abandoned (turned away from) the LORD, He has also abandoned (turned away from) you.'"

²¹So they conspired against Zechariah and stoned him [to death] at the command of the king, in the courtyard of the house of the LORD.

²²Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness which Jehoiada, Zechariah's father, had shown him, but he murdered his son. And when Zechariah was dying, he said,

“May the LORD see this and require an accounting!”

²³Now it happened at the end of the year, that the army of Aram (Syria) went up against Joash. They came to Judah and Jerusalem and killed all the leaders among the people and sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus.

²⁴Though the army of the Arameans came with a small company of men, the LORD handed over a very large army into their hands, because Joash and Judah had abandoned (turned away from) the LORD, the God of their fathers. So the Arameans executed judgment against Joash.

²⁵When they left Joash (for they left him very ill), his own servants conspired against him because of the blood of the son of Jehoiada the priest, and they murdered him on his bed. So he died, and they buried him in the City of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

²⁶The conspirators against Joash were Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess.

²⁷Now as to his sons and the many prophecies uttered against him and the rebuilding of the house of God, they are written in the commentary on the Book of Kings. Then his son Amaziah became king in his place.

25 AMAZIAH WAS twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned for twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

²He did right in the sight of the LORD, yet not wholeheartedly.

³When his kingdom was firmly established, he killed his servants who had struck down his father the king.

⁴But he did not kill their children; for he did as it is written in the Law, in the Book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, “The fathers shall not die for the children, nor the children die for the fathers, but each shall be put to death for his own sin.”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Have a Whole Heart

There are many conditions of the heart. Some are positive, and others are negative. King Amaziah is noted for having a negative condition of heart (2 Chr. 25:1–2). He did all the right things outwardly, but inwardly his heart was not right. “He did right in the sight of the LORD, yet not wholeheartedly” (2 Chr. 25:2). Therefore, God was not pleased with him. That’s a scary thing. We can do the right thing, and yet have it not be acceptable to God because we do it with a wrong heart attitude.

The heart is the real person, not the person everybody sees. The heart is also the most important aspect of our spiritual life, and heart attitudes are of the utmost importance to every believer (see Prov. 4:23). It is not lack of ability or potential that prevents people from making progress and enjoying fulfillment in life; it is heart attitudes that negatively affect our thoughts and attitudes. When God asks for our heart, He is asking for our entire life—our whole personality, character, body, mind, and emotions. He wants us to love and seek Him with our whole heart!

God is more concerned about your heart than He is about every little mistake that you make, because if your heart is right and whole, your actions will eventually catch up with it. Who you are in your heart is reflected in your thoughts and attitudes.

⁵Amaziah assembled [the men of] Judah and appointed them in accordance with their fathers' (ancestors') households under commanders of thousands and of hundreds throughout Judah and Benjamin. He numbered them from twenty years old and above and found there to be 300,000 choice men fit for war and able to handle spear and shield.

⁶He also hired 100,000 brave warriors from Israel for a hundred talents of silver.

⁷But a man of God came to him, saying, "O king, do not let this army of Israel go with you, for the LORD is not with Israel nor with any of the sons of Ephraim.

⁸"But if you do go [in spite of this warning], be strong and courageous for battle; yet God will cause you to stumble and fall before the enemy, for God has power to help and to cause people to stumble."

⁹Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what shall we do about the hundred talents which I gave to the troops of Israel?" The man of God answered, "The LORD is able to give you much more than this."

¹⁰So Amaziah dismissed the troops that came to him from Ephraim, to go home. So their anger was kindled and burned greatly against Judah, and they returned home in the heat of anger.

¹¹Now Amaziah took courage and led his people out to the Valley of Salt, and he struck down 10,000 of the men of Seir (Edom).

¹²The sons of Judah also captured 10,000 alive and brought them to the top of the cliff. They threw them down from the top of the cliff and they were all crushed to pieces.

¹³But the troops whom Amaziah sent back, those not allowed to go with him to battle, attacked and raided the cities of Judah, from Samaria to Beth-horon, and struck down 3,000 men and took a large amount of spoil.

¹⁴After Amaziah came back from the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought the gods of the sons of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, bowed before them, and burned incense to them.

¹⁵So the anger of the LORD burned against Amaziah, and He sent him a prophet who said to him, “Why have you desired the gods of the people who did not save their own people from your hand?”

¹⁶As he was talking, the king said to him, “Have we made you the king’s counselor? Stop! Why should you be put to death?” Then the prophet stopped and said, “I know that God has decided to destroy you because you have done this and have ignored my advice.”

¹⁷Then Amaziah king of Judah took counsel and sent word to Joash the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, “Come [to battle], let us face each other.” [2 Kin 14:8–20]

¹⁸Then Joash king of Israel sent word to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, “The [little] thorn bush in Lebanon sent word to the [great] cedar in Lebanon, saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son in marriage.’ But a wild beast in Lebanon passed by and trampled down the thorn bush.

¹⁹“You say, ‘See, I have struck down and defeated Edom.’ Your heart lifts you up to boast [about your victory]. Now stay at home; why should you meddle and court disaster so that you, even you, will fall and Judah with you?"

²⁰But Amaziah would not listen, for it was from God, so that He might hand Judah over to Joash because they had desired the gods of Edom.

²¹So Joash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another at Beth-shemesh, which belonged to Judah.

²²And Judah was defeated by Israel, and they fled, every man to his tent.

²³Then Joash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Jehoahaz (Ahaziah), at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate, 400 cubits.

²⁴*He took* all the gold and silver and all the utensils which were found in the house of God with [the doorkeeper] Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house (palace), and the hostages, and returned to Samaria.

²⁵And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived fifteen years after the death of Joash the son of Jehoahaz king of Israel.

²⁶Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, from the first to the last, are they not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

²⁷Now from the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, they conspired against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent men after him to Lachish and killed him there.

²⁸Then they brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in the City of [David in] Judah.

26 THEN ALL the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah.

²He built Eloth and restored it to Judah after the king [Amaziah] slept with his fathers [in death].

³Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jechiliah of Jerusalem.

⁴He did right in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with everything that his father Amaziah had done.

⁵He continued to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding through the vision of God; and as long as he sought (inquired of, longing for) the LORD, God caused him to prosper.

⁶He went out and made war against the Philistines, and broke through the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities near Ashdod and [elsewhere] among the Philistines.

⁷God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabs who lived in Gur-baal, and the Meunites.

⁸The Ammonites paid tribute (money) to Uzziah, and his fame spread abroad, even as far as the border of Egypt, for he became very strong.

⁹Uzziah also built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, the Valley Gate, and at the corner buttress [of the wall], and fortified them.

¹⁰He also built towers in the wilderness and dug many cisterns, for he had a great deal of livestock, both in the lowlands and in the plain. He also had farmers and vinedressers in the hill country and in the fertile fields, for he loved the soil.

¹¹Moreover, Uzziah had an army ready for battle, which went into combat by divisions according to the number of their muster as recorded by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the official, under the direction of Hananiah, one of the king's commanders.

¹²The total number of the heads of the fathers' households, of valiant men, was 2,600.

¹³Under their command was an army of 307,500, who could wage war with great power, to help the king against the enemy.

¹⁴Moreover, Uzziah prepared shields, spears, helmets, body armor, bows, and sling stones for the entire army.

¹⁵In Jerusalem he made machines of war invented by skillful men to be put on the towers and on the [corner] battlements for the purpose of shooting arrows and large stones. And his fame spread far, for he was marvelously helped until he was strong.

¹⁶But when Uzziah became strong, he became so proud [of himself and his accomplishments] that he acted corruptly, and he was unfaithful and sinned against the LORD his God, for he went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense. [Num 3:38]

¹⁷Then Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him

eighty priests of the LORD, men of courage.

¹⁸They opposed King Uzziah and said to him, “It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron who have been consecrated to burn incense. Get out of the sanctuary, for you have been unfaithful and will have no honor from the LORD God.”

¹⁹Then Uzziah, with a censer in his hand to burn incense, was enraged; and while he was enraged with the priests, leprosy broke out on his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the incense altar.

²⁰As Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked toward him, behold, he was leprous on his forehead; and they hurried him out of there, and he also hurried to get out because the LORD had stricken him.

²¹King Uzziah was a leper to the day of his death; and, being a leper, he lived in a separate house, for he was excluded from the house of the LORD. And his son Jotham took charge of the king’s household, judging and governing the people of the land.

²²Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, from the first to the last, Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, has written. [Is 1:1]

²³So Uzziah slept with his fathers [in death], and they buried him with his fathers in the burial field of the kings [outside the royal tombs], for they said, “He is a leper.” And his son Jotham became king in his place.

27 JOTHAM WAS twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok.

²He did right in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with everything that his father Uzziah had done; however, he did not enter the temple of the LORD. But the people continued behaving corruptly.

³He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD, and did extensive building on the wall of Ophel.

⁴Moreover, he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and in the forests he built fortresses and towers.

⁵He also fought with the king of the Ammonites and prevailed over them. As a result the Ammonites gave him during that year a hundred talents of silver and ten thousand measures each of wheat and of barley. The Ammonites also paid him that much in the second year and third year.

⁶So Jotham grew powerful, because he directed his ways before the LORD his God.

⁷Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars and his ways, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

⁸He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem.

⁹And Jotham slept with his fathers [in death], and they buried him in the City of David. Ahaz his son became king in his place.

28 AHAZ WAS twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do right in the sight of the LORD, as his father (forefather) David had done.

²Instead he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and even made cast images for the Baals.

³And he burned incense in the Valley of Ben-hinnom and burned his sons [as an offering], in accordance with the repulsive acts of the [pagan] nations whom the LORD had driven out before the sons (descendants) of Israel.

⁴He also sacrificed and burned incense on the high places [of pagan worship], on the hills and under every green tree.

⁵Therefore the LORD his God handed over Ahaz to the king of Aram (Syria), who defeated him and led away a great number [of the people] as captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also handed over to the king of Israel, who struck Judah with a great slaughter.

⁶For Pekah son of Remaliah killed 120,000 in Judah in one day, all courageous men, because they had abandoned (turned away from) the LORD God of their fathers.

⁷And Zichri, a warrior of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah, who was second [in power] to the king.

⁸And the sons of Israel led away captive 200,000 of their kinsmen [of Judah]—women, sons, and daughters—and they also took a great quantity of spoil from them and brought it to Samaria.

⁹But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out to meet the army that was returning to Samaria and said to them, “Behold, because the LORD, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, He handed them over to you; but you have killed them in a rage that has reached as far as heaven.

¹⁰“And now you intend to subjugate the people of Judah and Jerusalem as male and female slaves for yourselves. But are you yourselves not guilty of transgressions against the LORD your God?

¹¹“Now therefore, hear me and return the captives whom you have captured from your brothers (fellow descendants of Israel, i.e. Jacob), for the burning anger of the LORD is against you.”

¹²Then some of the heads of the Ephraimites (Israel)—Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai—took a stand against those who were returning from the battle,

¹³and said to them, “You must not bring the captives in here; for we are guilty before the LORD already, and what you intend to do will add more to our sins and our guilt. For our guilt is so great that His burning anger is against Israel.”

¹⁴So the armed men [of Israel] left the captives and the spoil [of Judah] before the officers and all the assembly.

¹⁵Then the men who were designated by name rose up and took the captives, and from the spoil they clothed all those who were naked; they clothed them and gave them sandals, and fed them and gave them [something to] drink, anointed them [with oil, as was a host’s duty], and led all the feeble ones on donkeys, and they brought them to Jericho, the City of Palm Trees, to their brothers (fellow descendants of Israel, i.e. Jacob). Then they returned to Samaria. [Luke 10:25–37]

¹⁶At that time King Ahaz sent word to the king of Assyria

[to ask him] for help.

¹⁷For the Edomites had come again and attacked Judah and led away captives.

¹⁸The Philistines had also invaded the cities of the low country and of the Negev (the South country) of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, and Soco with their villages, and also Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages, and they settled there.

¹⁹For the LORD humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of Israel, for Ahaz had allowed unrestrained and undisciplined behavior in Judah and had been very unfaithful to the LORD.

²⁰So Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came against him and harassed him instead of strengthening and supporting him.

²¹Although Ahaz took a portion [of treasure] from the house of the LORD and from the house (palace) of the king and from the leaders, and gave it [as tribute] to the king of Assyria, it did not help Ahaz.

²²In the time of his distress, this same King Ahaz became yet more unfaithful to the LORD.

²³For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus, which had defeated him, and he said, "Since the gods of the kings of Aram (Syria) helped them, I will sacrifice to them so that they may help me." But they became the ruin and downfall of him and all of Israel.

²⁴Then Ahaz collected the utensils of the house of God and he cut them in pieces; and he shut the doors of the house of the LORD and made altars for himself in every corner of Jerusalem.

²⁵In every city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, provoking to anger the LORD, the God of his fathers.

²⁶Now the rest of his acts and of all his ways, from the first to the last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

²⁷And Ahaz slept with his fathers [in death], and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, but they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel. And his son Hezekiah reigned in his place.

29 HEZEKIAH BECAME king when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah.

²He did right in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with everything that David his father (forefather) had done.

³In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of the LORD [which his father had closed] and repaired them [and replaced the gold overlay]. [2 Kin 18:16]

⁴He brought in the priests and Levites and gathered them into the square on the east.

⁵Then he said to them, "Levites, listen to me! Now consecrate (dedicate) yourselves and consecrate the house of the LORD, the God of your fathers, and get the filth [of idol worship] out of the Holy Place.

⁶"For our fathers have been unfaithful and have done evil in the sight of the LORD our God, and they have abandoned Him and have turned their faces away from the dwelling place of the LORD, and have turned their backs [toward Him].

⁷“They have also closed the doors of the [temple] porch and put out the lamps, and they have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the Holy Place to the God of Israel. [2 Kin 16:10–16]

⁸“Therefore the wrath of the LORD has been against Judah and Jerusalem, and He has made them an object of terror, of horror, and of hissing, just as you see with your own eyes.

⁹“For behold, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity because of this.

¹⁰“Now it is in my heart to make a covenant (solemn agreement) with the LORD God of Israel, so that His burning anger will turn away from us.

¹¹“My sons, do not be negligent and careless now, for the LORD has chosen you to stand in His presence, to attend to His service, and to be His ministers and burn incense.”

¹²Then the Levites arose: Mahath the son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah, from the sons of the Kohathites; from the sons of Merari: Kish the son of Abdi, Azariah the son of Jehallelel; from the Gershonites: Joah the son of Zimmah and Eden the son of Joah;

¹³from the sons of Elizaphan: Shimri and Jeiel; from the sons of Asaph: Zechariah, and Mattaniah;

¹⁴from the sons of Heman: Jehiel and Shimei; and from the sons of Jeduthun: Shemaiah and Uzziel.

¹⁵They gathered their brothers (fellow Levites) together, consecrated themselves, and went in to cleanse the house of the LORD, as the king had commanded by the words of the

LORD.

¹⁶The priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and every unclean thing they found in the temple of the LORD they brought out to the courtyard of the LORD's house. Then the Levites received it to take out to the Kidron Valley [for disposal].

¹⁷Now they began the consecration on the first [day] of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the porch of the LORD. Then for eight days they consecrated the house of the LORD, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Releasing Joy

The more I ponder 2 Chronicles 29:30, the more amazed I am that I can immediately increase or decrease my joy and the joy of others by simply choosing to say good things. King Hezekiah “ordered the Levites to exclaim praises to the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. And they exclaimed praises with joy.”

Joy is vital! Nehemiah 8:10 tells us that joy is our strength. No wonder the enemy works overtime trying to do anything he can to diminish our joy. Don't sit by and let it happen to you. Fight the good fight with faith-filled words, releasing joy everywhere you go.

Jesus came to bring good news and glad tidings of great joy, to overcome evil with good. He wants you to be as committed as He is to finding and magnifying the good in everything. Do yourself a favor and say something good!

¹⁸Then they went inside to King Hezekiah and said, “We have cleansed the entire house (temple) of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering with all of its utensils, and the table of showbread with all its utensils.

¹⁹“Moreover, we have prepared and consecrated all the utensils which King Ahaz had discarded during his reign in his unfaithfulness; and behold, they are in front of the altar of the

²⁰Then King Hezekiah arose early and assembled the officials of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

²¹They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats for a sin offering for the kingdom, the sanctuary, and Judah. He commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

²²So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests took the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. They also slaughtered the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar; then they slaughtered the lambs and sprinkled the blood on the altar.

²³Then they brought the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the assembly, and they laid their hands on them [to symbolize the transference of their sin].

²⁴The priests slaughtered them and cleansed the altar from sin with their blood to atone for all Israel, because the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering be made for all Israel.

²⁵Hezekiah stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with harps, and with lyres, in accordance with the command of David [his ancestor] and of Gad the king’s seer, and of Nathan the prophet; for the command was from the LORD through His prophets.

²⁶The Levites stood with the musical instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

²⁷Then Hezekiah gave the order to offer the burnt offering on the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song to the LORD also began with the trumpets accompanied by the instruments of David, king of Israel.

²⁸The entire congregation worshiped, the singers also sang, and the trumpets sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

²⁹When the burnt offerings were completed, the king and all who were present with him bowed down and worshiped [God].

³⁰Also King Hezekiah and the officials ordered the Levites to exclaim praises to the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. And they exclaimed praises with joy, and bowed down and worshiped.

³¹Then Hezekiah said, “Now you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD; approach and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD.” And the assembly brought in sacrifices and thank offerings, and all those who were willing brought burnt offerings. [Ex 35:5, 22]

³²The number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was 70 bulls, 100 rams, and 200 lambs. All these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

³³The consecrated things were 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep.

³⁴But there were too few priests and they were unable to skin all the burnt offerings; so until the other priests had consecrated themselves, their brothers, the Levites, helped them until the work was done. For the Levites were more upright in heart and more conscientious than the priests in consecrating themselves.

³⁵There were also many burnt offerings with the fat of the peace offerings and with the drink offerings for the burnt offerings. So the service of the house of the LORD was established again.

³⁶Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced because of what God had prepared for the people, for the thing came about suddenly.

30 HEZEKIAH SENT word to all Israel and to Judah and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh to come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover Feast to the LORD God of Israel.

²For the king and his officials and all the assembly in Jerusalem had decided to celebrate the Passover in the second month, [Num 9:10, 11]

³since they could not celebrate it at that time because a sufficient number of priests had not consecrated themselves, nor had the people assembled at Jerusalem.

⁴Thus the [decision to set a] new time pleased the king and the entire assembly.

⁵So they decided to circulate a proclamation throughout Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, that the people were to come to celebrate the Passover to the LORD God of Israel, at Jerusalem. For they had not celebrated it in great numbers as it was prescribed [for a long time].

Speak God's Word

I know that the Lord my God is gracious and merciful, and He will not turn His face away from me if I return to Him.

⁶So the runners went throughout Israel and Judah with the letters from the hand of the king and his officials, in accordance with the command of the king, saying, “O sons (descendants) of Israel, return to the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel (Jacob), so that He will return to those of you who escaped and are left from the hand (power) of the kings of Assyria.

⁷“Do not be like your fathers and your brothers, who were unfaithful to the LORD God of their fathers, so that He made them a horror (lifeless, desolate), just as you see.

⁸“Now do not stiffen your neck [becoming obstinate] like your fathers, but yield to the LORD and come to His sanctuary which He has sanctified and set apart forever, and serve the LORD your God, so that His burning anger will turn away from you.

⁹“For if you return to the LORD, your brothers (relatives) and your children will find compassion in the presence of those who led them away captive and will return to this land. For the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and He will not turn His face away from you if you return to Him.”

¹⁰So the runners (couriers) passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, as far as Zebulun; but the people laughed at them with scorn and mocked them.

¹¹Yet some of the men of Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.

¹²Also the hand of God was on Judah to give them one heart to do that which the king and the officials had commanded by the word of the LORD.

¹³Now many people were gathered at Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month; it was a very large assembly.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Recognize and Receive Mercy

What types of thoughts do you have when your behavior is less than perfect? If you make a mistake, do you think, I am not what I should be or I am a bad person? Or do you think, I am sorry I made a mistake, but I am grateful for God's mercy that is new every morning?

God doesn't want us to live under the tyranny of unrealistic expectations, but He desires that we receive mercy for our failures. As human beings, we will make mistakes every day. Jesus came for those who are needy, imperfect, and weak. He came to extend mercy, to help, to rescue, to deliver, and to save (see Matt. 12:7).

In 2 Chronicles 30, after the Israelites had failed to keep the Passover celebration for a long time, King Hezekiah had runners pass from city to city with the wonderful declaration to return to the Lord, "for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and He will not turn His face away from you if you return to Him" (2 Chr. 30:9). That is great mercy!

How often do we become upset with ourselves, and ultimately with other people, because our performance is less than stellar? Do you demand sacrifices from yourself or others as payment for past mistakes? I spent years sacrificing my joy to pay for my mistakes. I was often angry with myself for something I felt I was doing or wasn't doing. I thought I had no right to enjoy life because of my faults, but thankfully, I finally learned that Jesus offers me good things I don't deserve, and I don't have to pay for my sins because He has satisfied the debt I owed through offering Himself. When I stopped trying to make myself pay for my mistakes, I found it much easier to stop trying to make others pay for their mistakes.

Once I began to recognize and receive the mercy of God, I became a much happier person. My relationships improved because people want to be in a relationship with someone who loves and accepts them without pressuring them to be something they don't know how to be.

Let's be merciful with others, and ourselves, in the same way God is merciful with us.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Merciful Father, forgive me for the many times I've tried to pay for my own mistakes and sins when Jesus has fully paid my debt. I receive Your great mercy and freedom and will extend the same to others. In Jesus' name. Amen.

¹⁴They took action and removed the [pagan] altars which were in Jerusalem; they also removed all the incense altars and threw them into the Brook Kidron [the dumping place for the ashes of such repulsive things].

¹⁵Then they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the second month. And the priests and the Levites were ashamed of themselves, and consecrated themselves and brought burnt offerings to the house of the LORD.

¹⁶They stood at their accustomed stations, in accordance with the Law of Moses, the man of God. The priests sprinkled the blood [which they received] from the hand of the Levites [on the altar].

¹⁷For there were many in the assembly who had not consecrated themselves [that is, become ceremonially clean and free from all sin]; so the Levites had to slaughter the Passover lambs for everyone who was not clean, in order to make them holy for the LORD.

¹⁸For the majority of the people, many from Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not purified themselves, and yet they ate the Passover contrary to what had been prescribed. For Hezekiah had prayed for them, saying, “May the good LORD pardon ¹⁹everyone who sets his heart to seek God—the LORD God of his fathers—even though it is not in accordance with the [ceremonial] purification [rules] of the sanctuary.”

²⁰So the LORD listened to Hezekiah and healed the people [of their uncleanness].

²¹The Israelites who were present in Jerusalem celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great joy. The Levites and priests praised the LORD day after day, singing to the LORD with loud instruments.

²²Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who showed good understanding in the things of the LORD. So the people ate for the appointed seven days, sacrificing peace offerings and giving thanks to the LORD God of their fathers.

²³Then the whole assembly decided to celebrate [the feast] for another seven days; and they celebrated it another seven days with joy.

²⁴For Hezekiah king of Judah gave to the assembly 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep, and the officials gave the assembly 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep. And a large number of priests consecrated themselves [for service].

²⁵All the assembly of Judah rejoiced, with the priests and the Levites and all the assembly that came from Israel, both the sojourners (resident aliens, foreigners) who came from the land of Israel and those living in Judah.

²⁶So there was great joy in Jerusalem, because there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem since the time of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel.

²⁷Then the priests and Levites stood and blessed the people; and their voice was heard and their prayer came up to His holy dwelling place, to heaven.

31 NOW WHEN all of this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah, and smashed the [pagan] pillars (obelisks, memorial stones) in pieces, cut down the Asherim (wooden symbols of a female deity), and tore down the high places and the altars [of idolatry] throughout all Judah and Benjamin, as well as in Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the sons (descendants) of Israel returned to their own cities, each to his own property.

²And Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests, and the Levites by their divisions, each in accordance with his service, both the priests and Levites, for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister and to give thanks and to praise in the gates of the camp of the LORD.

³Hezekiah also appointed the king's [personal] portion of his goods: for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths and for the New Moons and for the appointed feasts, as it is written in the Law of the LORD.

⁴He also told (ordered) the people living in Jerusalem to give the portion that was due to the priests and Levites, so that they might [be free to] devote themselves to the Law of the LORD.

⁵As soon as the king's order spread, the Israelites gave in abundance the first fruits of grain, new wine, [olive] oil, honey, and of all the produce of the field; and they brought in the tithe of everything abundantly.

⁶The sons of Israel and Judah who lived in the cities of Judah also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of sacred gifts which were consecrated to the LORD their God, and placed them in heaps.

⁷In the third month [at the end of wheat harvest] they began to make the heaps, and they finished them in the seventh month.

⁸When Hezekiah and the rulers came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and His people Israel.

⁹Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and Levites about the heaps.

¹⁰Azariah the high priest of the house of Zadok answered him, “Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat with plenty left over, for the LORD has blessed His people, and this great quantity is left over.”

¹¹Then Hezekiah told them to prepare rooms [for storage] in the house of the LORD, and they prepared them.

¹²They faithfully brought in the contributions, the tithes, and the sacred (dedicated) things. Conaniah the Levite was in charge of them, and Shimei his brother was second [in authority].

¹³Jehiel, Azariah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers directed by Conaniah and Shimei his brother by the appointment of King Hezekiah, and Azariah was the chief officer of the house of God.

¹⁴Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, keeper of the East Gate, was in charge of the voluntary offerings to God, to apportion the contributions for the LORD and the most holy things.

¹⁵Under his authority were Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah in the cities of the priests, to distribute faithfully their portions to their brothers (relatives) by divisions, whether great or small,

¹⁶without regard to their genealogical registration, to the males from thirty years old and upward—everyone who entered the house of the LORD for his daily obligations—for their service in accordance with their duties by their divisions;

¹⁷as well as the priests who were registered genealogically according to their fathers' households, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, by their duties and by their divisions.

¹⁸The genealogical registration included all their little children, their wives, and their sons and daughters, for the whole assembly, because they consecrated themselves faithfully in holiness.

¹⁹Also for the sons of Aaron, the priests, who were in the pasture lands of their cities or in each and every city, there were men who were designated by name to give portions to every male among the priests and to everyone genealogically registered among the Levites.

²⁰This is what Hezekiah did throughout Judah; and he did what was good, right, and true before the LORD his God.

²¹Every work which he began in the service of the house of God in keeping with the law and the commandment, seeking and inquiring of his God [and longing for Him], he did with all his heart and prospered.

32 AFTER THESE things and this faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah and besieged the fortified cities, intending to take them for himself.

²When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and that he intended to go to war against Jerusalem,

³he decided, together with his officers and his soldiers, to stop up the water [supply] from the springs which were outside the city [by enclosing them with masonry and concealing them], and they helped him.

⁴So many people came together, and they stopped up all the springs and the brook which flowed [underground] through the region, saying, “Why should the kings of Assyria come and find an abundance of water?”

⁵Also Hezekiah resolutely set to work and rebuilt all the wall that had been broken down, and erected towers on it, and he built another wall outside and strengthened the Millo (fortification) in the City of David, and made a great number of weapons and shields.

⁶He also appointed military officers over the people and gathered them to him in the square at the city gate, and spoke encouragingly to them, saying,

⁷“Be strong and courageous. Do not fear or be dismayed because of the king of Assyria, nor because of all the army that is with him; for the One with us is greater than the one with him.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

You Can Do It

Colossians 3:2 tells us to “set your mind and keep focused habitually on the things above.” To “set your mind” means you make a firm decision about how to handle a situation and you keep your mind set in that direction. It means to be single-minded, not double-minded. In the face of imminent danger, for King Hezekiah it meant to “resolutely set to work” and to rebuild the walls of Jerusalem rather than surrender (2 Chr. 32:5).

We can prepare ourselves to handle difficult situations properly by setting our minds ahead of time—telling ourselves that no matter what comes, we can do it. If you’re in a less than desirable situation, but you know it is where God wants you to be, don’t drift off into thinking that it can weaken you. Instead, think, I am strong in Christ, and I can do whatever He leads me to do.

⁸“With him there is only an arm of flesh, but with us is the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles.” And the people relied on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

⁹After this, Sennacherib king of Assyria, while he was at Lachish [besieging it] with all his forces, sent his servants to Jerusalem, to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah who were at Jerusalem, saying,

¹⁰“Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria, ‘In what do you trust that you are remaining in Jerusalem under siege?

¹¹‘Is not Hezekiah misleading you in order to let you die by famine and thirst, while saying, “The LORD our God will rescue us from the hand of the king of Assyria?”

¹³‘Do you not know what I and my fathers (ancestors) have done to all the peoples of the [other] lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands able to rescue their lands from my hand at all?

¹⁴‘Who [was there] among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed who was able to rescue his people from my hand, that your God should be able to rescue you from my hand?

¹⁵‘So now, do not let Hezekiah deceive or mislead you like this, and do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to rescue his people from my hand or the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God rescue you from my hand!”

¹⁶And his servants said even more against the LORD God and against His servant Hezekiah.

¹⁷The Assyrian king also wrote letters insulting and taunting the LORD God of Israel, and speaking against Him, saying, “As the gods of the nations of other lands have not rescued their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah will not rescue His people from my hand.”

¹⁸They shouted it loudly in the language of Judah to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten and terrify them, so that they might take the city [without a long siege].

¹⁹They spoke of the God of Jerusalem as [they spoke of] the gods of the peoples of the earth, [which are only] the work of the hands of men.

²⁰But Hezekiah the king and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz prayed about this and cried out to heaven [for help].

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

With You Is the Lord Your God

We cannot succeed in life by trusting in our own human knowledge, wisdom, strength, and ability. We can succeed only as we trust in God (see 2 Chr. 32:8).

We should do what we know to do and are able to do, and trust God to do the rest. Ephesians 6:13 says to do all that the crisis demands and then to stand firmly in your place. I often say, “Do what you can do and God will do what you cannot do.” For example, “Look for a job and God will help you find one.” Or, “Take better care of your body and you will feel better.” “I ask God to give me more energy, and He led me to start walking a few miles each day.”

I am finding more and more that when I pray about a situation, especially in my own life, God often shows me something I can do, and when I do it, I receive a breakthrough. That is not always the case, of course, because there are many things that only God can do and He always does them when we trust Him.

The Bible teaches that God helps those who cannot help themselves in the sense that we are not to depend on our own energies and plans to solve our problems; instead, we are to depend on Him. God wants us to “work,” but not to get into “works of the flesh,” which is frustratingly trying to do what only God can do. When we ask God to help us, He may send help through another person, give us the ability to do what we could not have done without His help, or intervene supernaturally. But we often forfeit any help at all because we don’t lean on Him.

King Jehoshaphat (2 Chr. 20) and King Hezekiah both realized they were totally dependent on God for victory over their enemies. You and I need to have the same attitude they had and look to the Lord in the face of big problems. When we encounter difficulties, rather than look at our past failures, our present frailties, or our future fears, we should trust in God’s wisdom, strength, and power. No matter how many problems we may face, the One Who is with us is greater than all those who oppose us.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Thank You, Lord, that I know You as the Lord my God and that You are always with me. Amen.

²¹And the LORD sent an angel who destroyed every brave warrior, commander, and officer in the camp of the king of Assyria. So the king returned to his own land in shame. And when he entered the house (temple) of his god, some of his own children killed him there with the sword. [2 Kin 19:35–37]

²²Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria and from the hand of all others, and He gave them rest on every side.?

²³And many brought gifts to the LORD at Jerusalem and valuable presents to Hezekiah king of Judah; so from then on he was exalted in the sight of all nations.

²⁴In those days Hezekiah became terminally ill; and he prayed to the LORD, and He answered him and gave him a [miraculous] sign.

²⁵But Hezekiah did nothing [for the LORD] in return for the benefit bestowed on him, because his heart had become proud; therefore God's wrath came on him and on Judah and Jerusalem.

²⁶However, Hezekiah humbled his proud heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come on them during the days of Hezekiah.

²⁷Now Hezekiah had immense wealth and honor; and he made for himself treasuries for silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields, and all kinds of delightful articles,

²⁸and storehouses for the produce of grain, new wine, and [olive] oil, and stalls for all kinds of cattle, and sheepfolds for the flocks.

²⁹Moreover, he made cities for himself and acquired an abundance of flocks and herds, for God gave him very many possessions.

³⁰This same Hezekiah also stopped up the upper outlet of the waters of Gihon and channeled them down to the west side of the City of David. Hezekiah succeeded in everything that he did.

³¹And so in the matter of the envoys of the rulers of Babylon, who were sent to him to inquire about the wonder that had happened in the land, God left him alone only to test him, in order to know everything that was in his heart. [Is 39:1–7]

³²Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and his godly achievements, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

³³So Hezekiah slept with his fathers [in death] and they buried him in the upper section of the tombs of the descendants of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honored him at his death. And his son Manasseh became king in his place.

33 MANASSEH WAS twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned for fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

²But he did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the repulsive acts of the [pagan] nations whom the LORD dispossessed before the sons (descendants) of Israel.

³For he rebuilt the [idolatrous] high places which his father Hezekiah had torn down; and he set up altars for the Baals and made the Asherim, and worshiped all the host of heaven [the sun, the moon, stars and planets] and served them. [Deut 4:19]

⁴He built [pagan] altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, “My Name shall be in Jerusalem forever.”

⁵He built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

⁶He made his sons pass through the fire [as an offering to his gods] in the Valley of Ben-hinnom; and he practiced witchcraft, used divination, and practiced sorcery, and dealt with mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger.

⁷Then he set the carved image of the idol which he had made in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, “In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, I will put My Name [and the symbol of my Presence] forever;

⁸and I will not again remove Israel from the land which I appointed for your fathers, if they will only be careful to do everything that I have commanded them in regard to all the law, the statutes, and the ordinances given through Moses.”

⁹So Manasseh caused Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to sin, by doing more evil than the [pagan] nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the sons of Israel.

¹⁰Now the LORD spoke to Manasseh and to his people, but they paid no attention.

¹¹So the LORD brought the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria against them, and they captured Manasseh with hooks [through his nose or cheeks] and bound him with bronze [chains] and took him to Babylon.

¹²But when he was in distress, he sought the LORD his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers.

¹³When he prayed to Him, He was moved by his entreaty and heard his pleading, and brought him back to Jerusalem to his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD is God.

¹⁴After this he built an outer wall for the City of David on the west side of Gihon, in the river valley, to the entrance of the Fish Gate; and he encircled the Ophel with it and made it very high. Then he put military commanders in all the fortified cities of Judah.

¹⁵He also removed the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD, as well as all the altars which he had built on the mountain of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem; and he threw them outside the city.

¹⁶Then he set up the altar of the LORD and sacrificed peace offerings and thank offerings on it; and he ordered Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel. [Ex 35:5, 22]

¹⁷Yet the people still sacrificed on the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

¹⁸Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are among the records of the kings of Israel.

¹⁹His prayer also and how God heard him, and all his sin, his unfaithfulness, and the sites on which he built high places and set up the Asherim and the carved images, before he humbled himself, behold, they are written in the records of the Hozai.

²⁰So Manasseh slept with his fathers [in death], and they buried him in [the garden of] his own house. And his son Amon became king in his place.

²¹Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned for two years in Jerusalem.

²²But he did evil in the sight of the LORD, just as his father Manasseh had done. Amon sacrificed to all the carved images which his father Manasseh had made, and he served them.

²³Further, he did not humble himself before the LORD as his father Manasseh [finally] had done, but Amon multiplied his guilt and his sin.

²⁴And his servants conspired against him and killed him in his own house (palace).

²⁵But the people of the land struck down all those who had conspired against King Amon, and they made his son Josiah king in his place.

34 JOSIAH WAS eight years old when he became king, and he reigned for thirty-one years in Jerusalem.

²He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father (forefather) and did not turn aside either to the right or to the left.

³For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young (sixteen), he began to seek after and inquire of the God of his father David; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the Asherim, and the carved and cast images.

⁴They tore down the altars of the Baals in his presence; he cut to pieces the incense altars that were high above them; he also smashed the Asherim and the carved images and the cast images to pieces, and ground them to dust and scattered it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

⁵Then Josiah burned the bones of the [pagan] priests on their altars and purged and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

⁶In the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, Simeon, and as far as Naphtali, in their surrounding ruins, ⁷he tore down the altars and beat and crushed the Asherim and the carved images into powder, and cut to pieces all the incense altars throughout the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

⁸In the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign, when he had purged the land and the [LORD's] house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder (secretary), to repair the house of the LORD his God.

⁹When they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that had been brought into the house of God, which the Levites, who guarded the doors, had collected from Manasseh and Ephraim, and from all the remnant of Israel, and from all Judah and Benjamin, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

A Gentle and Penitent Heart

Having a gentle and penitent heart (2 Chr. 34:27) is equivalent to having a tender conscience, and tenderness of conscience is vital to our relationship with God (see Eph. 4:32). It is dangerous to become hard-hearted and to develop a seared conscience so that we can't really tell if we are following God or if we are doing something that would displease Him (see 1 Tim. 4:1–2). The key is learning to quickly repent whenever God convicts us of something and to not make excuses.

King Josiah is the perfect example of someone who had a gentle and penitent heart. When God shows you that you have done something wrong, simply say, "You're right, Lord, I'm wrong. I have no excuse, so please forgive me and help me to not do it again."

It is amazing how much that will help us keep a tender conscience toward God and a positive mind. When we try to reason things out and make excuses for our wrongs, we begin to get calloused in our conscience, and it becomes just a little bit harder for us to sense conviction as we did the times before.

If we intentionally cultivate a willing, stirred-up, wise, perfect, and tender heart, the enemy may as well get out of our way because nothing can stop us from being positive toward God.

¹⁰Then they gave it to the workmen who were appointed over the house of the LORD, and the workmen who were working in the house of the LORD gave it [to others] to repair and restore the house (temple).

¹¹They in turn gave it to the carpenters and builders to buy quarried stone and timber for couplings (trusses, braces) and to make beams for the houses which the kings of Judah had let go to ruin.

¹²The men did the work faithfully with foremen over them to supervise and inspect [their work]: Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam of the sons of the Kohathites, and the Levites, all who were skillful with musical instruments.

¹³*They were* also in charge of the burden bearers [who carried heavy loads], and supervised all the workmen in any kind of service; and some of the Levites were scribes and officials and gatekeepers.

¹⁴When they were bringing out the money which had been brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD given by Moses.

¹⁵Hilkiah told Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD." And he gave the book to Shaphan.

¹⁶Shaphan brought the book to the king, but [first] reported further to him, "Your servants are doing everything that was entrusted to them.

¹⁷"They have emptied out the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hands of the overseers and the workmen."

¹⁸Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, “Hilkiah the priest has given me a book.” And Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

¹⁹When the king heard the words of the Law, he tore his clothes.

²⁰Then the king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Abdon the son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king, saying,

²¹“Go, inquire of the LORD for me and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah in regard to the words of the book which has been found; for great is the wrath of the LORD which has been poured out on us because our fathers have not kept and obeyed the word of the LORD, to act in accordance with everything that is written in this book.”

²²So Hilkiah and those whom the king had told went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem, in the Second Quarter); and they spoke to her about this.

²³And she answered them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: ‘Tell the man who sent you to me, ²⁴thus says the LORD: “Behold, I am bringing evil on this place and on its inhabitants, all the curses that are written in the book which they have read in the presence of the king of Judah.

²⁵“Because they have abandoned (rejected) Me and have burned incense to other gods, in order to provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands, My wrath will be poured out on this place and it will not be extinguished.” ’

²⁶“But you shall say the following to King Josiah of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD: ‘Thus says the LORD God of Israel, concerning the words which you have heard,

²⁷“Because your heart was gentle and penitent and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and its inhabitants, and humbled yourself before Me, and tore your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you,” declares the LORD.

²⁸“Behold, I will gather you to your fathers [in death], and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes shall not see all the evil which I am going to bring on this place and on its inhabitants.’”” So they brought back word to the king.

²⁹Then the king sent word and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

³⁰And the king went up to the house of the LORD with all the men of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, the Levites, and all the people, from the greatest to the least; and he read aloud so they could hear all the words of the Book of the Covenant which was found in the house of the LORD.

³¹Then the king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD—to walk after (obey) the LORD, and to keep His commandments, His testimonies, and His statutes with all his heart and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant written in this book.

³²Further, he made all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin stand [with him, in confirmation of it]. So the inhabitants of Jerusalem acted in accordance with the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

³³Josiah removed all the [pagan] repulsive things from all the lands belonging to the sons (descendants) of Israel, and made all who were present in Israel serve the LORD their God. Throughout his lifetime they did not turn from following the LORD God of their fathers.

35 JOSIAH CELEBRATED the Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem; they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the first month.

²He appointed the priests to their positions and encouraged them in the service of the house of the LORD.

³To the Levites who taught all Israel and were holy to the LORD he said, "Put the holy ark in the house (temple) which Solomon the son of David king of Israel built; it shall not be a burden [carried] on your shoulders any longer. Now serve the LORD your God and His people Israel.

⁴"Prepare yourselves according to your fathers' (ancestors') households by your divisions, in accordance with the instructions of David king of Israel, and the instructions of his son Solomon.

⁵"And stand in the holy place [of the priests] according to the sections of the fathers' households of your fellow kinsmen the lay people, and according to the Levites, by division of [the families of] a father's household.

⁶"Slaughter the Passover lambs and consecrate yourselves, and prepare for your fellow countrymen to carry out (obey) the word of the LORD given by Moses."

⁷Then Josiah contributed to the lay people, to all who were present, flocks of lambs and young goats numbering 30,000, all as Passover offerings, and 3,000 bulls—these were from the king's property.

⁸His officers also contributed a voluntary offering to the people, the priests and the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the officials of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings 2,600 from the flocks [of lambs and young goats], and 300 bulls.

⁹Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, officers of the Levites, contributed to the Levites for the Passover offerings 5,000 from the flocks [of lambs and young goats], and 500 bulls.

¹⁰When the service was ready, the priests stood in their [assigned] places and the Levites by their divisions, in accordance with the king's command.

¹¹They slaughtered the Passover lambs, and while the priests sprinkled the blood received from their hand, the Levites skinned the animals.

¹²Then they removed the burnt offerings, to distribute them to the sections of the fathers' households of the lay people to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the Book of Moses. They did the same with the bulls.

¹³So they roasted the Passover lambs on the fire according to the ordinance; and they cooked the holy offerings in pots, in kettles, and in pans, and quickly brought them to all the lay people.

¹⁴Afterward the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were busy offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night; so the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.

¹⁵The singers, the sons of Asaph, were also in their places in accordance with the command of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the gatekeepers at each gate did not need to leave their service, because their kinsmen the Levites prepared for them.

¹⁶So all the service of the LORD was prepared on that day to celebrate the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, in accordance with the command of King Josiah.

¹⁷Thus the sons of Israel who were present celebrated the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days.

¹⁸No Passover like it had been celebrated in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet; nor had any of the kings of Israel celebrated such a Passover as Josiah did with the priests, the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

¹⁹In the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign this Passover was celebrated.

²⁰After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Neco king of Egypt came up to make war at Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah went out to meet him.

²¹But Neco sent messengers to Josiah, saying, "What business do we have with each other, O King of Judah? I am not coming against you today, but against the house with which I am at war, and God has ordered me to hurry. Stop for your own sake from interfering with God who is with me, so that He will not destroy you.”

²²Yet Josiah would not turn away from him, but disguised himself in order to fight against him. He did not listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God, but came to fight against him on the plain of Megiddo.

²³The archers shot King Josiah, and the king said to his servants, “Take me away, for I am badly wounded.”

²⁴So his servants took him out of the chariot and carried him in the second chariot which he had, and brought him to Jerusalem where he died and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

²⁵Then Jeremiah sung a lament (funeral song) for Josiah, and all the male and female singers have spoken about Josiah in their laments to this day. They made the songs an ordinance in Israel; behold, they are written in the Lamentations. [Lam 4:20]

²⁶Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his deeds of devotion and godly achievements as written in the Law of the LORD, ²⁷and his acts, from the first to the last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

36 THEN THE people of the land took Joahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in Jerusalem in place of his father.

²Joahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned [only] three months in Jerusalem.

³Then the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem, and imposed a fine on the land of a hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold.

⁴The king of Egypt made Eliakim, the brother of Joahaz, king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But Neco took Joahaz his brother, and brought him to Egypt.

⁵Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

⁶Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against him and bound him with bronze [chains] to take him to Babylon.

⁷Nebuchadnezzar also brought some of the articles of the house (temple) of the LORD to Babylon and put them in his temple there.

⁸Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim and the repulsive acts which he committed, and what was found against him, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. And his son Jehoiachin became king in his place.

⁹Jehoiachin was eight[teen] years old when he became king, and he reigned for three months and ten days in Jerusalem, and he did evil in the sight of the LORD. [2 Kin 24:8]

¹⁰Now at the turn of the year [in the spring], King Nebuchadnezzar sent word and had him brought to Babylon with the valuable articles of the house of the LORD, and made his brother Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.

¹¹Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem.

¹²He did evil in the sight of the LORD his God; he did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke for the LORD.

¹³He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar who had made him swear allegiance by God. He stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD God of Israel.

¹⁴Also, all the officials of the priests and the people were very unfaithful, following all the repulsive acts of the [pagan] nations; and they defiled the house of the LORD which He had sanctified in Jerusalem.

¹⁵The LORD, the God of their fathers, sent word to them again and again by His messengers, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place.

¹⁶But they kept mocking the messengers of God and despising His words and scoffing at His prophets until the wrath of the LORD arose against His people, until there was no remedy or healing.

¹⁷Therefore He brought the king of the Chaldeans against them, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, old man or infirm; He gave them all into his hand.

¹⁸And as for all the articles of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king and of his officials, he brought them all to Babylon.

¹⁹Then they burned the house of God and tore down the wall of Jerusalem, and burned all its fortified buildings with fire, and destroyed all its valuable articles.

²⁰He deported to Babylon those who had escaped from the sword; and they were servants to him and to his sons until the kingdom of Persia was established there,

²¹to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had restored its Sabbaths; for as long as the land lay desolate it kept Sabbath until seventy years were complete. [Lev 25:4; 26:43; Jer 25:11; 29:10]

²²Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia—in order to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah—the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he sent a proclamation throughout his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying,

²³“Thus says Cyrus king of Persia: ‘The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and He has appointed me to build Him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever there is among you of all His people, may the LORD his God be with him, and let him go up [to Jerusalem]!’”

The book of Ezra covers a period of approximately eighty years of Israel's history, recounting the reconstruction of the temple in Jerusalem after the Jews returned from their nearly sixty-year captivity in Babylon. As God's people worked to rebuild His house, they encountered mocking and opposition. They may have thought it would be easier to just give up, but they pressed through to victory as they stayed humble and sought the Lord, worshiped Him, fasted, and prayed.

The same strategies that brought the Israelites victory and success in their efforts to rebuild the temple are still effective today. Whenever God calls you to do something, you too may face opposition from the enemy, but as you walk in humility, seek the Lord, worship, fast, and pray, you can be assured that you will accomplish the assignment God has given you.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM EZRA:

Whatever God asks you to do, do it diligently and enthusiastically (see Ezra 7:23).

When you are doing something God has called you to do, you can trust Him to strengthen and encourage you (see Ezra 7:28).

Fasting and prayer are powerful, effective ways to defeat the enemy (see Ezra 8:21–23).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM EZRA:

They sang [responsively], praising and giving thanks to the LORD, saying, "For He is good, for His lovingkindness (mercy) toward Israel endures forever." And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised the LORD because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. | Ezra 3:11

Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done diligently and with enthusiasm for the house of the God of heaven, so that there will not be wrath against the kingdom of the king and his sons. | Ezra 7:23

So we fasted and sought [help from] our God concerning this [matter], and He heard our plea. | Ezra 8:23

THE BOOK OF

EZRA

1 NOW IN the first year of Cyrus king of Persia [that is, the first year he ruled Babylon], in order to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah [the prophet], the LORD stirred up (put in motion) the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he sent a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying: [Jer 29:10–14]

²“Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, ‘The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and He has appointed me to build Him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

³‘Whoever there is among you of all His people, may his God be with him! Let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah and rebuild the house of the LORD, the God of Israel; He is God who is in Jerusalem.

⁴‘In any place where a survivor (Jewish exile) may live, let the men (Gentiles) of that place support him with silver and gold, with goods and cattle, together with freewill offerings for the house of God in Jerusalem.”

⁵Then the heads of the fathers’ households of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and Levites, all those whose spirits God had stirred up, arose to go up and rebuild the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.

⁶All those who were around them encouraged them with articles of silver, with gold, with goods, with cattle, and with valuable things, in addition to all that was given as a freewill offering.

⁷Also King Cyrus brought out the articles of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem [when he captured that city] and had put in the house of his gods.

⁸And Cyrus, king of Persia, had Mithredath the treasurer bring them out, and he counted them out to Sheshbazzar, the governor (leader) of Judah.

⁹And they counted: 30 dishes (basins) of gold, 1,000 dishes of silver, 29 duplicates;

¹⁰30 [small] gold bowls, 410 [small] silver bowls of a second kind, and 1,000 other articles.

¹¹All the articles of gold and of silver totaled 5,400. All these Sheshbazzar [the governor] brought up with the exiles who went from Babylon up to Jerusalem.

2 NOW THESE are the people of the province [of Judah] who came up from the captivity of the exiles, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had deported to Babylon, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own city.

²These came with Zerubbabel: Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah.

The number of the men of the people of Israel:

³the sons (descendants) of Parosh, 2,172;

- ⁴the sons of Shephatiah, 372;
- ⁵the sons of Arah, 775;
- ⁶the sons of Pahath-moab of the sons of Jeshua and Joab, 2,812;
- ⁷the sons of Elam, 1,254;
- ⁸the sons of Zattu, 945;
- ⁹the sons of Zaccai, 760;
- ¹⁰the sons of Bani, 642;

⁵¹the sons of Bakbuk, Hakupha, Harhur,

⁵²the sons of Bazluth, Mehida, Harsha,

⁵³the sons of Barkos, Sisera, Temah,

⁵⁴the sons of Neziah, Hatipha.

⁵⁵The sons of [King] Solomon's servants: the sons of Sotai, Hassophereth (Sophereth), Peruda, ⁵⁶the sons of Jaalah, Darkon, Giddel,

⁵⁷the sons of Shephatiah, Hattil, Pochereth-hazzebaim, Ami.

⁵⁸All the temple servants and the sons of Solomon's servants totaled 392.

⁵⁹Now these are the ones who came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addan, and Immer, but they could not provide evidence of their fathers' households and their descendants, whether they were of Israel:

⁶⁰the sons of Delaiah, Tobiah, and Nekoda, 652.

⁶¹Of the sons of the priests: the sons of Hobaiah, of Hakkoz, and of Barzillai, who took a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and he was known by their name. [2 Sam 17:27, 28; 19:31–39]

⁶²These searched [for their names] among those registered in the genealogies, but they were not found; so they were excluded from the priesthood as [ceremonially] unclean.

⁶³The governor told them that they should not eat of the most holy things [the priests' food] until a priest stood up with Urim and Thummim [who by consulting these articles in his breastplate could determine God's will in the matter].

⁶⁴The whole assembly totaled 42,360,

⁶⁵besides their male and female servants who numbered 7,337; and [among them] they had 200 male and female singers.

⁶⁶Their horses totaled 736; their mules, 245;

⁶⁷their camels totaled 435; their donkeys, 6,720.

⁶⁸Some of the heads of the fathers' households (extended families), when they arrived at the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, made voluntary contributions for the house of God to rebuild it on its [old] foundation.

⁶⁹They gave according to their ability to the treasury for the work, 61,000 drachmas of gold, 5,000 minas of silver, and 100 priestly [linen] garments.

⁷⁰So the priests, the Levites, some of the people, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the temple servants settled in their [own] cities, and all Israel [gradually settled] into their cities.

3 WHEN THE seventh month came and the sons of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered together as one man to Jerusalem.

²Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his brothers arose, and they built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the Law of Moses, the man of God.

³So they set up the altar on its [old] foundation, for they were terrified because of the peoples of the lands; and they offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, morning and evening.

⁴They celebrated the Feast of Booths, as it is written, and offered the fixed number of daily burnt offerings, in accordance with the ordinances, as each day required;

⁵and afterward, there was the continual burnt offering, the offering at the New Moons, and at all the appointed festivals of the LORD that were consecrated, and the offerings of everyone who made a voluntary offering to the LORD.

POWERPOINT

The Israelites who returned from captivity were very vulnerable to the people surrounding them. Causing them to feel terrified was simply the enemy's attempt to distract them from God. When we feel frightened, as they did, we would do well to follow their example and focus on God, worshiping Him with all our hearts. God moves on our behalf when we focus on Him instead of on our fears.

⁶From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, but the foundation of the temple of the LORD had not been laid.

⁷They gave money to the masons and to the carpenters, and gave food, drink, and [olive] oil to the people from Sidon and Tyre, to bring cedar wood from Lebanon to the seaport of Joppa, in accordance with the authorization they had from Cyrus king of Persia.

⁸In the second year of their coming to God's house at Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak began [the work], with the rest of their brothers—the priests and Levites and all who came to Jerusalem from the captivity. They appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to oversee the work of the house of the LORD.

¹⁰Now when the builders had laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests stood in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with their cymbals, to praise the LORD in accordance with the directions of David king of Israel.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Help me never to forget, Lord,

*that Your lovingkindness and mercy toward me endure
forever.*

• adapted from Ezra 3:11

¹¹They sang [responsively], praising and giving thanks to the LORD, saying, “For He is good, for His lovingkindness (mercy) toward Israel endures forever.” And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised the LORD because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

¹²But many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers’ households, the old men who had seen the first house (temple), wept with a loud voice when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, while many shouted aloud for joy,

¹³so that the people could not distinguish the sound of the shout of joy from the sound of the weeping of the people, for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the sound was heard far away.

4 NOW WHEN [the Samaritans] the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the exiles from the captivity were building a temple to the LORD God of Israel,

²they came to Zerubbabel [who was now governor] and to the heads of the fathers’ households and said to them, “Let us build with you, for we seek your God [and worship] just as you do; and we have sacrificed to Him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us up here.” [2 Kin

³But Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the rest of the heads of fathers' households of Israel said to them, "You have nothing in common with us in building a house to our God; but we ourselves will together build to the LORD God of Israel, just as King Cyrus, the king of Persia, has commanded us."

⁴Then [the Samaritans and others of] the people of the land discouraged the people of Judah, and frightened them [to deter them] from building, ⁵and hired advisers [to work] against them to frustrate their plans during the entire time that Cyrus king of Persia reigned, [and this lasted] even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

The Power of Choice

When the foundation for the second temple had been laid, and the people gave a great celebratory shout of joy and praise to God, we also read that “the old men who had seen the first house (temple), wept with a loud voice,” because it was smaller and inferior to Solomon’s temple (Ezra 3:12). One group looked back with regret; the others looked forward to good things to come.

That scene speaks to me of the amazing power of choice that we have toward our circumstances in life. Hopefully, each of us will choose to live with a good, godly, positive, loving attitude. We should not bounce back and forth between good and bad, godly and ungodly, positive and negative, and peace and turmoil. As God’s Word says, “Choose life” (Deut. 30:19). Choose what will produce life for you and for all those you influence.

It is exciting to me to know that I can choose my attitude, and that good thoughts always precede good attitudes. A good attitude makes life seem good even if it is difficult. If you are experiencing a serious problem and yet keep a good attitude, people may wonder how you could possibly be happy in the midst of your troubles. Your secret is simply your hope in God—an attitude that says things will be made right in the end, an attitude that believes God has a good plan for your future.

You may be thinking, Well, that sounds nice, but it is very hard to do. Actually, it is harder on us to have a bad attitude than a good one. I watched a person close to me have a bad attitude all his life, and he was one of the unhappiest human beings I have ever known. Not everyone with an ungodly attitude is as negative as he was, but to have one at all is never productive.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s statement is so true: "Hate is too great a burden to bear." How much better the world would be if more people adopted an attitude of love. We have opportunities on a regular basis to be angry or even hate, but we may also choose to love. This ability to choose is what makes us free. One wrong choice can bring pain, tragedy, and untold misery, and likewise one right choice can bring multiplied blessings and joy to countless numbers of people.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Dear Father, You are the giver of life, and I thank You for giving me the power to choose life. In the precious name of Jesus, forgive me for when I've allowed a bad attitude to control my life. Amen.

⁶Now in the reign of Ahasuerus (Xerxes), in the beginning of his reign, the Samaritans wrote [to him] an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem [who had returned from exile].

⁷Later, in the days of [King] Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and the rest of their associates wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the text of the letter was written in Aramaic and translated from Aramaic.

⁸Rehum the [Persian] commander [of the Samaritans] and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king as follows—

¹⁰and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnappar deported and settled in the city of Samaria, and in the rest of the region west of the [Euphrates] River. Now

¹¹this is a copy of the letter which they sent to him:

“To King Artaxerxes from your servants, the men in the region west of the [Euphrates] River; and now:

¹²Let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you have come to us at Jerusalem. They are rebuilding this rebellious and evil city and are finishing its walls and repairing the foundations.

¹³“Now let it be known to the king, that if that city is rebuilt and the walls are finished, then they will not pay tax, custom, or toll, and the revenue of the kings will be diminished.

¹⁴“Now because we are in the service of the palace, and it is not proper for us to witness the king’s dishonor, for that reason we have sent word and informed the king,

¹⁵in order that a search may be made in the record books of your fathers. And you will discover in the record books and learn that this is a rebellious city, damaging to kings and provinces, and that in the past they have incited rebellion within it. That is why that city was laid waste (destroyed).

¹⁶“We are informing the king that if that city is rebuilt and its walls finished, it will mean that you will have no possession in the province west of the [Euphrates] River.”

¹⁷*Then* the king sent an answer to Rehum the [Persian] commander, to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their colleagues who live in Samaria and in the rest of the provinces west of the River: “Peace (Greetings). And now,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Has a Way Out

In Ezra 4, the people of Judah were surrounded by enemies and allowed discouragement and fear to halt their work toward rebuilding the temple. After several idle years, the words of encouragement from the prophets Haggai and Zechariah restored their faith and courage to continue the work.

Some of the challenges we face in life may be very difficult ones, but God never allows more to come upon us than we can bear. In fact, with every temptation, He always provides a way out and gives us the strength to bear up under trials with patience (see 1 Cor. 10:13). That means we can go through them with a good attitude! Maintaining a good attitude in the midst of something unpleasant is the key to victory. Even though you might not see the way out right now, one does exist, and God will reveal it as you trust Him.

¹⁸The document which you sent to us has been translated and read before me.

¹⁹“I have issued a command and a search has been made, and it has been discovered that this city [Jerusalem] in earlier times has revolted against the kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been perpetrated in it.

²⁰“There have also been mighty kings over Jerusalem who have ruled over all the provinces west of the [Euphrates] River, and tax, custom, and toll were paid to them.

²¹“So, now issue a decree to make these men stop [work], so that this city is not rebuilt until a [new] command is issued by me.

²²“Beware of being negligent in carrying out this matter. Why should damage increase to the detriment of the kings?”

²³Then as soon as the copy of King Artaxerxes’ document was read before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe, and their colleagues, they went up hurriedly to Jerusalem to the Jews, and made them stop [work] by force of arms.

²⁴Then the work on the house of God in Jerusalem stopped. It was suspended until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

5 NOW WHEN the prophets, Haggai the prophet and Zechariah, the son (grandson) of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, whose Spirit was over them,

²then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel [heir to the throne of Judah] and Jeshua the son of Jozadak arose and began to rebuild the house of God in Jerusalem; and the prophets of God [Haggai and Zechariah] were with them, supporting and encouraging them. [Hag 1:12–14; Matt 1:12, 13]

³At that time Tattenai, the governor of the province on the west side of the [Euphrates] River, and Shethar-bozenai and their colleagues came to them and said, “Who issued you a decree and authorized you to rebuild this temple and to restore this wall (shrine)?”

⁴Then, accordingly, we told them the names of the men who were reconstructing this building.

⁵But the eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews, so they [Tattenai and the others] did not stop them until a report could come before Darius, and then an answer was returned by letter concerning it.

⁷They sent a report to him in which it was written: “To Darius the king, all peace.

⁹“Then we asked those elders, ‘Who issued you a decree to rebuild this temple and to finish this structure?’

¹⁰“We also asked them their names so that we might notify you, and so that we might record the names of the men in charge.

¹¹“They replied, ‘We are servants of the God of heaven and earth, and are rebuilding the temple which was erected many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished.

¹²‘But because our fathers provoked the God of heaven to wrath, He handed them over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this temple and exiled the people to Babylon.

¹³‘But in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, [the same] King Cyrus issued a decree to rebuild this house of God.

¹⁴‘Also the gold and silver utensils of the house of God which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem and had brought into the temple of Babylon, King Cyrus took from the temple of Babylon and had them given to a man whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had appointed governor.

¹⁵‘And Cyrus said to him, “Take these utensils, go and deposit them in the temple in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its site.”

¹⁶‘Then that Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the house of God in Jerusalem; and from then until now it has been under construction and is not yet completed.’

¹⁷“So now, if it pleases the king, let a search be conducted in the king’s treasure house [in the royal archives] there in Babylon to see if it is true that a decree was issued by King Cyrus to rebuild this house of God at Jerusalem; and let the king send us his decision concerning this matter.”

6 THEN KING Darius issued a decree, and a search was conducted in Babylon in the archives where the treasures [and records] were stored.

²In Ecbatana in the fortress (palace) in the province of Media, a scroll was found on which this was recorded: “Memorandum—

³“In the first year of King Cyrus, Cyrus the king issued a decree: ‘Concerning the house of God in Jerusalem, let the temple (house), the place where sacrifices are offered, be rebuilt and let its foundations be strongly laid, its height and its width each 60 cubits, ⁴with three layers of huge stones and one layer of timbers. Let the cost be paid from the royal treasury.

⁵‘Also let the gold and silver utensils of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be returned and brought back to their [proper] places in the temple in Jerusalem; and you shall put them in the house of God.’

⁶“Now therefore, Tattenai, governor of the province west of the [Euphrates] River, Shethar-bozenai and your associates, the officials who are west of the River, keep far away from there.

⁷“Leave the work on this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the Jewish elders rebuild this house of God on its site.

⁸“Also, I issue a decree as to what you are to do for these Jewish elders for the rebuilding of this house of God: the full cost is to be paid to these people from the royal treasury out of the taxes of the provinces west of the River, and that without delay.

¹⁰so that they may offer pleasing (sweet-smelling) sacrifices to the God of heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

POWERPOINT

The rebuilding of the temple came amid obstacles and persecution, but the Israelites pressed on and went forward. Many people think that the less effort they have to make, the better life is—but that is a lie!

Effortless living is never effective, and we are not made to take the easy way out. Let their story restore diligence in your heart to faithfully serve the Lord.

¹¹“I have also issued a decree that if there is any man who violates this edict, a beam of timber shall be pulled from his house [and set up]; then he shall be impaled on it, and his house shall be turned into a refuse heap for this [violation].

¹²“May the God who has caused His Name to dwell there overthrow any king or people who attempts to alter this command, so as to destroy this house of God in Jerusalem. I,

Darius, have issued this decree; let it be carried out quickly and with due diligence.

¹³Then Tattenai, governor of the province west of the [Euphrates] River, with Shethar-bozenai and their associates carried out the decree with due diligence, just as King Darius had sent and commanded.

¹⁴And the Jewish elders built and prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. They finished their building as commanded by the God of Israel and in accordance with the decree of Cyrus and Darius and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

¹⁵This temple was finished on the third day of the month of Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

¹⁶And all Israel—the priests, the Levites, and the rest of the [former] exiles—celebrated the dedication of this house of God with joy.

¹⁷They offered at the dedication of this house of God 100 bulls, 200 rams, 400 lambs, and, as a sin offering for all Israel, 12 male goats, according to the number of Israel's tribes.

¹⁸Then they appointed the priests to their divisions and the Levites in their orders for the service of God at Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses.

¹⁹The [former] exiles kept the Passover on the fourteenth [day] of the first month.

²⁰For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together; all of them were [ceremonially] clean. So they slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the exiles, for their brothers the priests, and for themselves.

²¹The Passover was eaten by the sons (descendants) of Israel (Jacob) who returned from exile and by all those who had separated themselves from the [ceremonial] uncleanness of the nations of the land to join them, in order to seek the LORD God of Israel.

²²They observed the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with joy, for the LORD had caused them to rejoice and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria toward them, so that he encouraged them and strengthened their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

7 NOW AFTER this, in the reign of Artaxerxes I [son of Ahasuerus (Xerxes)] king of Persia, Ezra the son (descendant) of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, ²the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

³the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

⁴the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

⁵the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest—

⁶this Ezra went up from Babylon. He was a scribe skilled in the Law (the five books) of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given; and the king granted him everything that he asked, for the hand of the LORD his God was on him.

⁷Some of the sons of Israel, with some of the priests and Levites, the singers and gatekeepers, and the temple servants also went up [from Babylon] to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

⁸Ezra came to Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king.

⁹For on the first of the first month he started out from Babylon, and on the first of the fifth month he arrived in Jerusalem, because the good hand of his God was on him.

¹⁰For Ezra had set his heart (resolved) to study and interpret the Law of the LORD, and to practice it and teach His statutes and ordinances in Israel.

¹¹Now this is a copy of the decree that King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe [who was] learned in the words of the commandments of the LORD and of His statutes to Israel:

¹²“Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, the scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, perfect peace (greetings). And now ¹³I have issued a decree that all of the people of Israel and their priests and the Levites in my kingdom who are willing to go to Jerusalem, may go with you.

¹⁴“For you are sent by the king and his seven advisers to inquire about Judah and Jerusalem in accordance with the Law of your God, which is in your hand,

¹⁵and to bring [with you] the silver and gold which the king and his advisers have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem, ¹⁶and all the silver and gold which you find in the whole province of Babylon, along with the freewill offering of the people and of the priests for the house of their God in Jerusalem.

¹⁷“Therefore with this money, you shall diligently buy bulls, rams, and lambs, with their grain offerings and drink offerings, and offer them on the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

¹⁸“And whatever seems good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, you may do in accordance with the will of your God.

¹⁹“As for the utensils which are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver [those] in full before the God of Jerusalem.

²⁰“The rest of the things required for the house of your God, which you may have occasion to provide, provide it from the royal treasury.

²¹“And I, Artaxerxes the king, issue a decree to all the treasurers in the provinces west of the [Euphrates] River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, may require of you, it shall be done diligently and at once—

²²*even* up to 100 talents of silver, 100 kors (measures) of wheat, 100 baths of wine, 100 baths of [olive] oil, and salt as needed.

²⁴“We also inform you that it is not authorized to impose tax, tribute, or toll on any of the priests, Levites, singers, doorkeepers, temple servants or other servants of this house of God.

²⁵“You, Ezra, are to appoint magistrates and judges in accordance with the wisdom and instruction of your God which is in your hand, so that they may judge all the people who are in the province west of the [Euphrates] River; appoint those who know the laws of your God; and you may teach anyone who does not know them.

²⁶“Whoever does not observe and practice the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgment be executed upon him strictly and promptly, whether it be for death or banishment or confiscation of property or imprisonment.”

²⁷Blessed be the LORD, the God of our fathers [said Ezra], who put such a thing as this in the king’s heart, to adorn and glorify the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, ²⁸and has extended His mercy and lovingkindness to me before the king, his advisers, and all the king’s mighty officials. I was strengthened and encouraged, for the hand of the LORD my God was upon me, and I gathered together outstanding men of Israel to go up with me [to Jerusalem].

8 THESE ARE the heads of their fathers’ households and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babylon in the reign of King Artaxerxes:

²of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom; of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel; of the sons of David, Hattush;

³of the sons of Shecaniah who was of the sons of Parosh, Zechariah, and with him were registered 150 men by genealogy;

⁴of the sons of Pahath-moab, Eliehoenai son of Zerariah, with 200 men;

⁵of the sons of Zattu, Shecaniah son of Jahaziel, with 300 men;

⁶of the sons of Adin, Ebed son of Jonathan, with 50 men;
⁷of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiah son of Athaliah, with 70 men;

⁸of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah son of Michael, with 80 men;

⁹of the sons of Joab, Obadiah son of Jehiel, with 218 men;

¹⁰of the sons of Bani, Shelomith son of Josiphiah, with 160 men;

¹¹of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah son of Bebai, with 28 men;

¹²of the sons of Azgad, Johanan son of Hakkatan, with 110 men;

¹³of the sons of Adonikam, the last to come, their names are Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, with 60 men;

¹⁴and of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud, with 70 men.

¹⁵Now I gathered them together at the river that runs to Ahava, where we camped for three days. I observed the people and the priests, and I did not find any Levites there.

¹⁶So I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, [who were] leading men, and also for Joiarib and Elnathan, [who were] teachers.

¹⁷And I sent them to Iddo, the leading man at the place Casiphia, telling them what to say to Iddo and his brothers, the temple servants at the place Casiphia, that is, to bring us servants (ministers) for the house of our God.

¹⁸And as the good hand of our God was upon us, they brought us a man of understanding (insight) from the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, named Sherebiah, with his sons and his brothers (relatives), 18 men;

¹⁹and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiiah of the sons of Merari, with his brothers (relatives) and their sons, 20 men;

²⁰also 220 of the temple servants, whom David and the leaders had set apart [with their descendants] for the service of the Levites. They were all designated by name.

²¹Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river Ahava, so that we might humble ourselves before our God to seek from Him a safe journey for us, our children, and all our possessions.

POWERPOINT

These exiled Jews desperately needed guidance and protection, so they humbled themselves before God through fasting. When we seek God, we pursue and go after God with all our might. We need to seek God all the time, not just when we're having problems. One way to humble ourselves before the Lord is to skip a few meals, turn off the electronic devices, and spend time with Him.

²²For I was ashamed to request troops and horsemen from the king to protect us from the enemy along the way, because we had told the king, “The hand of our God is favorable toward all those who seek Him, but His power and His anger are against all those who abandon (turn away from) Him.”

²³So we fasted and sought [help from] our God concerning this [matter], and He heard our plea.

²⁴Then I set apart twelve leading priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers (relatives), ²⁵and I weighed out to them the silver, the gold, and the utensils, the offering for the house of our God which the king, his advisers, his officials, and all Israel who were present there had offered.

²⁶I weighed into their hands 650 talents of silver, and silver utensils worth 100 talents, and 100 talents of gold;

²⁷also 20 bowls of gold worth 1,000 darics, and two utensils of fine shiny bronze, precious as gold.

²⁸Then I said to them, "You are holy to the LORD, the utensils are holy, and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to the LORD God of your fathers.

²⁹"Guard and keep them until you weigh them before the leading priests and the Levites and the leaders of the fathers' households of Israel in Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD."

³⁰So the priests and the Levites received the weighed out silver and gold, and the utensils, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

³¹We set out from the river Ahava on the twelfth [day] of the first month to go to Jerusalem; and the hand of our God was upon us, and He rescued us from the hand of the enemy and those who lay in ambushes along the way.

³²So we came to Jerusalem and remained there for three days.

³³On the fourth day the silver and the gold and the utensils were weighed out in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest, and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them were the Levites—Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui.

³⁴Every piece was counted and weighed, and all the weight was recorded at that time.

³⁵Also the [former] exiles who had come from the captivity offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: 12 bulls for all Israel, 96 rams, 77 lambs, and 12 male goats for a sin offering. All this was a burnt offering to the LORD.

³⁶And they delivered the king's edicts to the king's satraps (lieutenants) and to the governors west of the [Euphrates] River, and they supported the people and God's house.

9 WHEN THESE things were completed, the officials came to me and said, "The people of Israel and the priests and Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, but have committed the repulsive acts of the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites.

²"For they have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy race has intermingled with the peoples of the lands. Indeed, the officials and chief men have been foremost in this unfaithful act and direct violation [of God's will]." [Deut 7:3, 4]

³When I heard this, I tore my clothing and my robe [in grief], I pulled out some of the hair from my head and my beard, and sat down appalled [at the shame of it].

⁴Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel because of the unfaithfulness of the exiles gathered to me as I sat appalled until the evening offering.

⁵At the evening offering I arose from my [time of] humiliation and penitence and having torn my clothing and my robe, I fell on my knees and stretched out my hands to the LORD my God, ⁶and I said, “O my God, I am ashamed and embarrassed to lift up my face to You, my God, for our wrongdoings have risen higher than our heads and our guilt has grown to the heavens.

⁷“Since the days of our fathers to this day we have been exceedingly guilty; and on account of our wrongdoings we, our kings, and our priests have been handed over to the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plundering, and to complete shame, as it is today.

⁹“For we are slaves; yet our God has not abandoned us in our bondage, but has extended lovingkindness to us before the kings of Persia, to revive us to rebuild the house of our God, to repair the site of its ruins and to give us a wall [of protection] in Judah and Jerusalem.

¹⁰“Now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have abandoned (turned away from) Your commandments, ¹¹which You have commanded by Your servants the prophets, saying, ‘The land which you are entering to possess is a defiled land with the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, through their repulsive acts which have filled it from one end to the other along with their impurity.

¹²“So now do not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons; and never seek their peace or their prosperity, so that you may be strong and eat the good things of the land and leave it as an inheritance to your children forever.’

¹³“And after everything that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guilt, since You our God have punished us less than our wrongdoings deserve, and have given us survivors like these,

¹⁴shall we again break Your commandments and intermarry with the peoples who practice these repulsive acts? Would You not be angry with us to the point of total destruction, so that there would be no remnant nor survivor? [Deut 7:2–4]

10 NOW WHILE Ezra was praying and confessing, weeping and laying himself face down before the house of God, a very large group from Israel, of men, women, and children, gathered to him, for the people wept bitterly.

²Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, of the sons of Elam, said to Ezra, “We have been unfaithful to our God and have married foreign women from the peoples of the land; yet now there is hope for Israel in spite of this.

³“Therefore let us now make a covenant with our God to send away all the [foreign] wives and their children, in accordance with the advice of my lord and of those who tremble [in reverent obedience] at the commandment of our God; and let it be done in accordance with the Law.

⁴“Stand up, for it is your duty, and we will be with you. Be brave and act.”

⁵Then Ezra stood and made the leaders of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel, take an oath that they would act in accordance with this proposal; so they took the oath.

⁶Then Ezra got up from before the house of God and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib [and spent the night there]. He did not eat bread nor drink water, for he was mourning over the [former] exiles' faithlessness.

⁷They made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the [former] exiles, that they were to assemble at Jerusalem, ⁸and that whoever would not come within three days, by order of the counsel of the leaders and the elders, all his possessions and property would be forfeited and he himself would be excluded from the assembly of the exiles.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Talk About What God Says

Ezra 10 marks a critical moment for the Jewish people who had returned from exile. Ezra called upon them to agree with God regarding their unfaithfulness “and do His will” (v. 11), despite how they felt.

We all want God’s promises to come to pass and be a reality in our lives. Yet many of us say and do the opposite of what God says in His Word. Too often we talk about how we feel or what we think when we should be talking about what God’s Word says.

Jesus is the great High Priest of our confession (see Heb. 4:14). Our confession is merely what we say, and Jesus works accordingly based on our words. He works for us to bring God’s will to pass, but He can work only so far as we agree with God in what He says. The power of agreement is amazing when you agree with God.

⁹So all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered at Jerusalem within three days. It was the twentieth [day] of the ninth month, and all the people sat in the open square in front of the house of God, trembling because of [the seriousness of] this matter and because of the heavy rain.

¹⁰Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, “You have been unfaithful [to God] and have married foreign (pagan) women, adding to the guilt of Israel.

¹²Then all the assembly replied with a loud voice, “It is our responsibility to do just as you have said.

¹³“But there are many people and it is the season of heavy rain; so we are unable to stand outside. Nor can the task be done in a day or two, for we have transgressed greatly in this matter.

¹⁴“Let our leaders stand for and represent the entire assembly; let all those in our cities who have married foreign wives come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of each city, until the burning anger of our God over this matter is turned away from us.”

¹⁵Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah opposed this, and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supported them.

¹⁶Then the [former] exiles did so. Ezra the priest and men who were heads of fathers’ households were selected, according to their fathers’ households, each of them by name; and they sat down on the first day of the tenth month to investigate the matter.

¹⁷And by the first day of the first month they finished investigating all the men married to foreign wives.

¹⁸Now among the sons of the priests who had married foreign women were found: of the sons of Jeshua [the high priest] the son of Jozadak, and his brothers—Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.

¹⁹They vowed to send away their [pagan] wives, and being guilty, they each offered a ram of the flock for their offense.

²⁰Of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah;

²¹and of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uzziah;

²²and of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Practice Thinking Right Thoughts

When God begins to deal with us about wrong behavior, as He did at Jerusalem with the Jewish men who had married foreign women (see Ezra 10), it's easy enough to say, "I can't help it." But it takes real courage to say what they said, "It is our responsibility to do just as you have said" (v. 12).

Avoidance, which is not facing issues, is a major problem. Wrong things don't go away just because people refuse to acknowledge them. Issues buried alive never die.

For many years, I refused to deal with the sexual abuse in my childhood. My father had abused me, so when I left home, I thought I was getting away from the problem, but the problem was in my thoughts, attitudes, and words. It affected my actions and all my relationships. I had buried my past, but the results remained.

I had a lot of bad behavior and negative attitudes. I also made lots of excuses. I wasn't dealing with anything from the past; I was merely feeling sorry for myself, saying, "I can't help it. I was abused." And it wasn't my fault. But it was my responsibility to let God help me to overcome all the bondages I was experiencing as a result of the abuse.

God began setting me free by dealing with me about all the wrong thoughts I had accepted and allowed. My mind had to change before my life could change. I learned that God has given us the power to decide—to choose right thinking over wrong. He says, “I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you today, that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse; therefore, you shall choose life in order that you may live, you and your descendants” (Deut. 30:19).

Thinking right thoughts takes practice, and focusing only on the good and pushing away evil is not always easy. But we’re moving in the right direction every time we take responsibility and make godly choices. If we know this is the pathway to true life, it’s worth the struggle to learn to think positive thoughts. The more we fill our lives with studying God’s Word the easier it becomes to choose right thoughts.

APRAYER FOR VICTORY

Powerful God, remind me that I can and do make choices every day. Please help me to be aware of my thoughts, choosing only those that will help me to defeat the enemy and win the battle for my mind. In Jesus’ name, I pray. Amen.

Nehemiah

Author: | Nehemiah

Approximately 423 BC

The story of Nehemiah begins with a God-ordained thought in the heart of one man, Nehemiah. God impressed upon his mind the need to rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, which had been destroyed years earlier. The way God worked in and through Nehemiah is very interesting. He first gave him the burden in his heart to rebuild the wall; He then gave him favor with his boss so he could have time to fulfill God's plan; He then enabled Nehemiah to use his leadership skills to rally the people to build the wall. When the wall was finished, Nehemiah led the people in celebrating their accomplishment and worshiping God.

When God gives you an idea or plants a thought in your mind, He will also provide everything you need in order to carry out that plan, just as He did for Nehemiah.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM NEHEMIAH:

Let Nehemiah's story encourage you to believe God for favor (see Nehemiah 2:8).

When God has called you to do something and the enemy harasses and opposes you, God is always able to frustrate his plan so His own divine purpose will keep moving ahead (see Nehemiah 4:15).

Just as God gave His good Spirit to instruct the Israelites, He gives the Holy Spirit to help and instruct you in any way that you need (see Nehemiah 9:20).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM NEHEMIAH:

I answered them, “The God of heaven [has appointed us for His purpose and] will give us success; therefore we His servants will arise and build, but you have no portion, right, or memorial in Jerusalem.” | Nehemiah 2:20

Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, gather to us there. Our God will fight for us. | Nehemiah 4:20

And do not be worried, for the joy of the LORD is your strength and your stronghold. | Nehemiah 8:10

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH

1 THE WORDS of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah:

Now it happened in the month of Chislev, in the twentieth year [of the Persian king], as I was in the capitol of Susa, ²Hanani, one of my brothers, and some men from Judah came; and I asked them about the surviving Jews who had escaped and survived the captivity, and about Jerusalem.

³They said to me, “The remnant there in the province who survived the captivity are in great distress and reproach; the wall of Jerusalem is broken down and its [fortified] gates have been burned (destroyed) by fire.”

⁴Now it came about when I heard these words, I sat down and wept and mourned for days; and I was fasting and praying [constantly] before the God of heaven.

⁵And I said, “Please, O LORD God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps the covenant and lovingkindness for those who love Him and keep His commandments,

⁶please let Your ear be attentive and Your eyes open to hear the prayer of Your servant which I am praying before You, day and night, on behalf of Your servants, the sons (descendants) of Israel (Jacob), confessing the sins of the sons of Israel which we have committed against You; I and my father’s house have sinned.

⁷“We have acted very corruptly against You and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the ordinances which You commanded Your servant Moses. [Deut 6:1–9]

⁸“Please remember the word which You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, ‘If you are unfaithful and violate your obligations to Me I will scatter you [abroad] among the peoples; [Lev 26:33]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Expect Favor

In Nehemiah 1:11, Nehemiah prays to the Lord, “and make Your servant successful this day and grant him compassion in the sight of this man [the king].” When Nehemiah prayed for the king to have compassion on him, that was the same as praying for the king to give him favor. Nehemiah had a task he felt called to complete, and in order to do it the king would need to grant him favor and allow him to temporarily leave his position as the royal cupbearer.

Let me encourage you to pray for favor, as Nehemiah did. Confess that you have favor with God and that He gives you favor with people. Develop your faith in the area of favor. Live expecting favor all the time. Trust God to choose your friends, to open the right doors in relationships, and to close the wrong ones. Ask the Lord for “divine connections,” friendships that will be perfect for you. God can connect you with people who will add to your life rather than take away from it.

Even though God gives you favor, you will still encounter times when people won't approve of you. Strive to please God and let Him deal with the people.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Talk Yourself into a Better Mood

When Nehemiah heard that the wall of Jerusalem was broken down, he wept and mourned. He was so downcast that even the king noticed his sadness. But Nehemiah soon changed his attitude and became courageous enough to ask the king for a leave of absence to go and rebuild the wall of Jerusalem (see Neh. 2:5).

Robert Schuller said, "The good news is that the bad news can be turned into good news when you change your attitude." When you choose to have a good attitude concerning something you're unhappy about, you are helping yourself and everyone around you.

If you will make a decision to say as little as possible about your problems and disappointments in life, they won't dominate your thoughts or your mood. Talk as much as possible about your blessings and hopeful expectations, and your joy will increase. Be sure to fill each day with words that fuel joy, not anger, depression, bitterness, or fear. Talk yourself into a better mood! Find something positive to say in every situation.

⁹but if you return to Me and keep My commandments and do them, though those of you who have been scattered are in the most remote part of the heavens, I will gather them from there and will bring them to the place where I have chosen for My Name to dwell.’ [Deut 30:1–5]

¹⁰“Now they are Your servants and Your people whom You have redeemed by Your great power and by Your strong hand.

¹¹“Please, O Lord, let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant and the prayer of Your servants who delight to [reverently] fear Your Name [Your essence, Your nature, Your attributes, with awe]; and make Your servant successful this day and grant him compassion in the sight of this man [the king].”

For I was cupbearer to the king [of Persia].

2 IN THE month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was placed before him, I took the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had not [previously] been sad in his presence.

²So the king said to me, “Why do you look sad when you are not sick? This is nothing but sadness of heart.” Then I was very frightened,

³and I said to the king, “Let the king live forever. Why should my face not be sad when the city, the place of my fathers’ tombs, lies desolate and its gates have been consumed by fire?”

⁴The king said to me, “What do you request?” So I prayed to the God of heaven.

⁵I said to the king, “If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your presence, [I ask] that you send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers’ tombs, so that I may rebuild it.”

⁶The king, beside whom the queen was sitting, asked me, “How long will your journey take, and when will you return?” So it pleased the king to send me, and I gave him a definite time [for my return].

⁷Then I said to the king, “If it pleases the king, let letters be given to me for the governors of the provinces beyond the [Euphrates] River, so that they will allow me to pass through until I reach Judah, ⁸and a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the king’s forest, so that he will give me timber to construct beams for the gates of the fortress which is by the temple, and for the city wall and for the house which I will occupy.” And the king granted me what I asked, for the good hand of my God was upon me.

⁹Then I came to the governors of the provinces beyond the [Euphrates] River and gave them the king’s letters. Now the king had sent officers of the army and horsemen with me.

¹⁰When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard this, it caused them great displeasure that someone had come to see about the welfare and prosperity of the Israelites.

¹¹So I came to Jerusalem and was there for three days.

¹²Then I got up in the night, I and a few men with me. I did not tell anyone what my God was putting in my heart to do for Jerusalem, and there was no animal with me except the one on which I was riding [so as not to attract attention].

¹³So I went out at night by the Valley Gate toward the Dragon’s Well and to the Refuse Gate and inspected the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down and its gates which were consumed by fire.

¹⁴Then I passed over to the Fountain Gate and to the King's Pool, but there was no place for the animal that I was riding to pass.

¹⁵So I went up at night by the ravine [of Kidron] and inspected the wall; then I turned back and entered [the city] by the Valley Gate, and returned.

¹⁶The officials did not know where I had gone or what I had done; nor had I yet told the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials, or the rest who did the work.

¹⁷Then I said to them, "You see the bad situation that we are in—how Jerusalem is desolate and lies in ruins and its gates have been burned with fire. Come, and let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, so that we will no longer be a disgrace."

¹⁸Then I told them how the hand of my God had been favorable to me and also about the words that the king had spoken to me. And they said, "Let us rise up and build." So they thoroughly supported the good work.

¹⁹But when Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they mocked us and regarded us with contempt and said, "What is this thing you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"

²⁰I answered them, "The God of heaven [has appointed us for His purpose and] will give us success; therefore we His servants will arise and build, but you have no portion, right, or memorial in Jerusalem."

3 THEN ELIASHIB the high priest rose up with his brothers

the priests and built the Sheep Gate. They consecrated it and set up its doors; and they consecrated the wall [westward] to the Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Tower of Hananel.

²Next to Eliashib the men of Jericho built, and next to them Zaccur the son of Imri built.

³Now the sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and set up its doors with its bolts and its bars.

⁴Next to them Meremoth the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, made repairs. Next to him Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabel, made repairs. And next to him Zadok the son of Baana also made repairs.

⁵Next to him the men of Tekoa made repairs, but their nobles did not support the work of their overseers.

⁶Joiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate. They laid its beams and set up its doors with its bolts and its bars.

⁷Next to them Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, made repairs for the official seat (Jerusalem residence) of the governor [of the province] beyond the [Euphrates] River.

⁸Next to them Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs. Next to him Hananiah, one of the perfumers, made repairs, and they restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

⁹Next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, official of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.

¹⁰Next to them Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs opposite his own house. And next to him Hattush the son of Hashabneiah made repairs.

¹¹Malchijah the son of Harim and Hasshub the son of Pahath-moab repaired another section and the Tower of the Furnaces.

¹²Next to him Shallum the son of Hallohesh, the official of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs, he and his daughters.

¹³Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They built it and set up its doors with its bolts and its bars, and repaired a thousand cubits (1,500 ft.) of the wall as far as the Refuse Gate.

¹⁴Malchijah the son of Rechab, the official of the district of Beth-haccherem repaired the Refuse Gate. He rebuilt it and set its doors with its bolts and its bars.

¹⁶After him Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, official of half the district of Beth-zur, repaired [the wall] as far as [a point] in front of the tombs of David, and as far as the artificial pool and the house of the guards.

¹⁷After him the Levites carried out repairs under Rehum the son of Bani. Next to him Hashabiah, official of half the district of Keilah, carried out repairs for his district.

¹⁸After him their brothers carried out repairs under Bavvai the son of Henadad, official of [the other] half of the district of Keilah.

¹⁹Next to him Ezer the son of Jeshua, the official of Mizpah, repaired another section [northward] in front of the ascent to the armory at the Angle [in the wall].

²⁰After him Baruch son of Zabbai zealously repaired another section [toward the hill], from the Angle [in the wall] to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

²¹After him Meremoth the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, repaired another [eastern] section, from the door of Eliashib's house as far as the end of his house.

²²After him the priests, the men of the [lower Jordan] valley, carried out repairs.

²³After them Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs in front of their house. After them Azariah the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, carried out repairs beside his own house.

²⁴After him Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another section [of the wall], from the house of Azariah to the Angle [in the wall] and to the corner.

²⁵Palal the son of Uzai made repairs in front of the Angle [in the wall] and the tower projecting from the upper house (palace) of the king, which is by the courtyard of the guard. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh made repairs.

²⁶The temple servants were living in Ophel [the hill south of the temple], and they made repairs as far as the front of the Water Gate on the east and the projecting tower.

²⁷After them the Tekoites repaired another section in front of the great projecting tower and as far as the wall of Ophel.

²⁸Above the Horse Gate the priests made repairs, each one in front of his own house.

²⁹After them Zadok the son of Immer carried out repairs in front of his house. After him Shemaiah the son of Shecaniah, keeper of the East Gate, repaired the wall.

³⁰After him Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. After him Meshullam the son of Berechiah carried out repairs in front of his own quarters.

³¹After him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, carried out repairs as far as the house of the temple servants and of the merchants, in front of the Inspection Gate and as far as the upper room of the corner.

³²Between the upper room of the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and merchants carried out repairs.

4 BUT WHEN Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became furious, completely enraged, and he ridiculed the Jews.

²He spoke before his brothers and the army of Samaria, “What are these feeble Jews doing? Can they restore it for themselves? Can they offer sacrifices? Can they finish in a day? Can they revive the stones from the heaps of dust and rubbish, even the ones that have been burned?”

³Now Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and he said, “Even what they are building—if a fox should get up on it, he would break down their stone wall.”

⁴[And Nehemiah prayed] Hear, O our God, how we are despised! Return their taunts on their own heads. Give them up as prey in a land of captivity.

⁵Do not forgive their wrongdoing and do not let their sin be wiped out before You, for they have offended the builders [and provoked You].

⁶So we built the wall and the entire wall was joined together to half its height, for the people had a heart to work.

⁷But when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the repair of the walls of Jerusalem went on, and that the breaches were being closed, they were very angry.

⁸They all conspired together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to cause a disturbance in it.

⁹But we prayed to our God, and because of them we set up a guard against them day and night.

¹⁰Then [the leaders of] Judah said,

“The strength of the burden bearers is failing,
And there is much rubble;
We ourselves are unable To rebuild the wall.”

¹¹Our enemies said, “They will not know or see us until we are among them, kill them and put a stop to the work.”

¹²When the Jews who lived near them came, they said to us ten times (repeatedly), “From every place you turn, they will come up against us.”

¹³So I stationed armed men behind the wall in the lowest places, at the open positions [where it was least protected]; and I stationed the people in families with their swords, spears, and bows.

¹⁴When I saw their fear, I stood and said to the nobles and officials and the rest of the people: “Do not be afraid of them; [confidently] remember the Lord who is great and awesome, and [with courage from Him] fight for your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and for your homes.”

¹⁵Now when our enemies heard that we knew about their plot against us, and that God had frustrated their plan, we all returned to the wall, each one to his work.

¹⁶From that day on, half of my servants carried on the work while the other half held the spears, shields, bows, and breastplates; and the captains were behind the whole house of Judah.

¹⁷Those who were rebuilding the wall and those who carried burdens loaded themselves so that everyone worked with one hand and held a weapon with the other.

¹⁸Every builder had his sword secured at his side as he built. And the one who sounded the trumpet [to summon the troops] stood at my side.

¹⁹I said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, “The work is great and extensive, and we are separated on the wall, far from one another.

²⁰“Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, gather to us there. Our God will fight for us.”

²¹So we carried on with the work with half of them holding spears from dawn until the stars came out.

²²At that time I also said to the people, “Let each man with his servant spend the night inside Jerusalem so that they may serve as a guard for us at night and a laborer during the day.”

²³So neither I, my brothers (relatives), my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us took off our clothes; each took his weapon [even] to the water.

5 NOW THERE was a great outcry of the [poorer] people and their wives against their Jewish brothers [to whom they were deeply in debt].

²For there were some who were saying, “We, along with our sons and our daughters, are many; therefore allow us to get grain, so that we may eat and survive.”

³There were others who were saying, “We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards, and our houses to buy grain because of the famine.”

⁴There were also others who were saying, “We have borrowed money on our fields and vineyards for the [Persian] king’s [heavy] tax.

⁵“Now our flesh (skin) is the same as that of our brothers (relatives), and our children are like their children, yet here we are forcing (selling) our sons and our daughters to be slaves; and some of our daughters are forced into bondage already, and we are powerless [to redeem them] because our fields and vineyards belong to others.”

⁶Then I was very angry when I heard their outcry and these words [of accusation].

⁷I thought it over and then challenged the nobles and the rulers. I said to them, “You are exacting usury (excessive interest) from your own brother (relative).” So I held a great assembly to confront them.

⁸I said to them, “According to our ability we have redeemed (purchased back) our Jewish brothers who were sold to the [Gentile] nations; now would you even sell your brothers, that they might be sold to us?” Then they were silent and could not find a [single] word to say.

⁹So I said, “What you are doing is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our God to prevent the taunting by the [pagan] nations, our enemies?

¹⁰“And likewise I, my brothers, and my servants are lending them money and grain. Please, let us stop [charging] this interest. [Ex22:25]

¹²Then they said, “We will give it back and not require anything from them. We will do exactly as you say.” Then I called the priests and took an oath from them that they would act in accordance with this promise.

¹³I also shook out the front of my garment and said, “So may God shake out every man from his house and from his possessions who does not keep this promise; like this may he be shaken out and emptied.” And all the assembly said, “Amen!” And they praised the LORD. Then the people acted in accordance with this promise.

¹⁴Moreover, from the day that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year to the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, for twelve years, neither I nor my relatives have eaten the governor's food allowance.

¹⁵But the former governors who were [in office] before me put heavy burdens on the people and took food and wine from them in addition to forty shekels of silver [as an excessive monthly salary]; even their servants assumed authority over the people. But I did not do so because of the [reverent] fear of God.

¹⁶I also applied myself to the work on this wall; we did not buy any land, and all my servants were gathered together there for the work.

¹⁷Moreover, there were at my table a hundred and fifty Jews and officials, besides those who came to us from the nations that were around us.

¹⁸Now the following were prepared for each day: one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls (poultry) were prepared for me; and in intervals of ten days all sorts of wine was provided in abundance. Yet for all this, I did not demand the governor's food allowance, because the servitude was heavy on this people.

¹⁹Remember me, O my God, for good, according to all I have done for this people. [Heb 6:10]

6 NOW WHEN Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall, and that there was no breach left in it, although at that time I had not set up doors in the gates, ²Sanballat and Geshem sent word to me, saying, "Come, let us meet together at Chephirim in the plain of Ono.” But they were planning to harm me.

³So I sent messengers to them, saying, “I am doing a great work and cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave to come down to [meet with] you?”

⁴They sent word to me four times in this way, and I answered them in the same way.

⁵Then Sanballat sent his servant to me in the same way the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand.

⁶In it was written, “It is reported among the [neighboring] nations, and Gashmu is saying that you and the Jews are planning to revolt, and that is the reason you are rebuilding the wall. And according to these reports, you are to be their king.

Speak God's Word

When others try to frighten me and think they can discourage me from doing the work and will of God, I will say, "But now, O God, strengthen my hands."

| adapted from NEHEMIAH 6:9 |

⁷“Also [it is reported that] you have appointed prophets to make a proclamation concerning you in Jerusalem, saying, ‘There is a king in Judah!’ And now these things will be reported to the [Persian] king. So come now, and let us consult together.”

⁸I sent a message to him, saying, “Such things as you are saying have not been done; you are inventing them in your own mind.”

⁹For they all wanted to frighten us, thinking, “They will become discouraged with the work and it will not be done.” But now, [O God,] strengthen my hands.

¹⁰When I went into the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was confined at home, he said, “Let us meet [and take refuge] together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple, because they are coming to kill you, and they are coming to kill you at night.”

¹¹But I said, “Should a man like me flee [in fear and hide]? Should someone like me enter the temple [for sanctuary] to save his life? I will not go.”

¹²Then I realized that God had not sent him, but he spoke this prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

¹³He was hired for this reason, that I would be frightened and do as he said and sin, so that they would have [grounds to make] a malicious report in order to censure and disgrace me.

¹⁴Remember, O My God, Tobiah and Sanballat in regard to these actions of theirs, and also [remember] the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who were trying to frighten me.

¹⁵So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth [day] of [the month] Elul, in fifty-two days.

¹⁶When all our enemies heard about it, and all the [Gentile] nations around us saw it, they lost their confidence; for they recognized that this work had been accomplished with the help of our God.

¹⁷Moreover, in those days many letters went from the nobles of Judah to Tobiah, and Tobiah’s letters came to them.

¹⁸For many in Judah were bound by oath to him because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

¹⁹Also, they were speaking about Tobiah’s good deeds in my presence, and reporting to him what I said. Then Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

7 NOW WHEN the wall had been rebuilt and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers, singers, and Levites had been appointed,

²I put my brother Hanani, with Hananiah the commander of the fortress, in charge of Jerusalem, for Hananiah was a more faithful and God-fearing man than many [of the others].

³I said to them, “Do not let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot; and while the watchmen are still standing guard, have them shut and bar the doors. Appoint guards from the residents of Jerusalem, each at his post [on the wall], and each in front of his own house.”

⁴Now the city was spacious and large, but there were few people in it and the houses had not [yet] been built.

⁵Then my God put it into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials, and the people to be registered by genealogy. Then I found the register of the genealogy of those who came [from Babylon] first, and I found the following record:

⁶These are the sons (descendants, people) of the province who came up from the captivity of the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had deported [to Babylon]; they returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, each to his city, ⁷the ones who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah.

The men of the people of Israel numbered:

- ⁸the sons of Parosh, 2,172;
- ⁹the sons of Shephatiah, 372;
- ¹⁰the sons of Arah, 652;
- ¹¹the sons of Pahath-moab of the sons of Jeshua and Joab, 2,818;
- ¹²the sons of Elam, 1,254;
- ¹³the sons of Zattu, 845;
- ¹⁴the sons of Zaccai, 760;
- ¹⁵the sons of Binnui, 648;
- ¹⁶the sons of Bebai, 628;
- ¹⁷the sons of Azgad, 2,322;
- ¹⁸the sons of Adonikam, 667;
- ¹⁹the sons of Bigvai, 2,067;
- ²⁰the sons of Adin, 655;
- ²¹the sons of Ater, of Hezekiah, 98;
- ²²the sons of Hashum, 328;
- ²³the sons of Bezai, 324;
- ²⁴the sons of Hariph, 112;
- ²⁵the sons of Gibeon, 95;
- ²⁶the men of Bethlehem and Netophah, 188;
- ²⁷the men of Anathoth, 128;
- ²⁸the men of Beth-azmaveth, 42;
- ²⁹the men of Kiriath-jearim, Chephirah and Beeroth, 743;
- ³⁰the men of Ramah and Geba, 621;
- ³¹the men of Michmas, 122;
- ³²the men of Bethel and Ai, 123;

³³the men of the other Nebo, 52;

³⁴the sons of the other Elam, 1,254;

³⁵the sons of Harim, 320;

³⁶the sons of Jericho, 345;

³⁷the sons of Lod, Hadid and Ono, 721;

³⁸the sons of Senaah, 3,930.

³⁹*These are* the priests: the sons of Jedaiah of the house of Jeshua, 973;

⁴⁰the sons of Immer, 1,052;

⁴¹the sons of Pashhur, 1,247;

⁴²the sons of Harim, 1,017.

⁴³*These are* the Levites: the sons of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, of the sons of Hodevah, 74.

⁴⁴The singers: the sons of Asaph, 148.

⁴⁵The gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, and the sons of Shobai, 138.

⁴⁶The temple servants: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth, ⁴⁷the sons of Keros, the sons of Sia, the sons of Padon,

⁴⁸the sons of Lebana, the sons of Hagaba, the sons of Shalmai, ⁴⁹the sons of Hanan, the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, ⁵⁰the sons of Reaiah, the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, ⁵¹the sons of Gazzam, the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, ⁵²the sons of Besai, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephushesim,

⁵³the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, ⁵⁴the sons of Bazlith, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, ⁵⁵the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah, ⁵⁶the sons of Neziah, the sons of Hatipha.

⁵⁷The sons of Solomon's servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Perida,

⁵⁸the sons of Jaala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, ⁵⁹the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth-hazzebaim, the sons of Amon.

⁶⁰All the temple servants and the sons of Solomon's servants, totaled 392.

⁶¹And these were the ones who came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addon and Immer; but they [had no birth records and] could not prove their fathers' houses or their descent, whether they were of Israel:

⁶²the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, 642.

⁶³Of the priests: the sons of Hobaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, and the sons of Barzillai, who [was so named because he had] married one of the daughters of Barzillai, the [well-known] Gileadite, and was named after them.

⁶⁴These men searched for their ancestral registration among those recorded in the genealogies, but it was not located; so they were excluded from the priesthood as [ceremonially] unclean.

⁶⁵The governor told them that they should not eat any of the most holy food until a priest arose with Urim and Thummim [to determine God's will in the matter].

⁶⁶The entire assembly together was 42,360,

⁶⁷besides their male and their female servants, of whom there were 7,337; and they had 245 male and female singers.

⁶⁸Their horses were 736; their mules, 245;

⁶⁹*their* camels, 435; their donkeys, 6,720.

⁷⁰Some from among the heads of fathers' households gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury 1,000 gold drachmas, 50 basins, 530 priests' garments.

⁷¹Some of the heads of fathers' households gave to the treasury for the work 20,000 gold drachmas and 2,200 silver minas.

⁷²And what the rest of the people gave was 20,000 gold drachmas, 2,000 silver minas, and 67 priests' garments.

⁷³So the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the temple servants, along with all Israel, lived in their cities.

And when the seventh month came, the sons (descendants) of Israel (Jacob) were in their cities.

8 THEN ALL the people gathered together as one man at the open square in front of the Water Gate; and they asked Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses which the LORD had given to Israel.

²So Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly of men, women and all who could listen with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month.

³Then he read from it, in front of the open square which was in front of the Water Gate, from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and women, those who could understand; and all the people listened carefully to the Book of the Law.

⁴Ezra the scribe stood on a [large] wooden platform which they had constructed for this purpose. And beside him [on the platform] stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah on his right; and Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam on his left.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, I will not be worried about anything, for Your joy is my strength and my stronghold.

• adapted from Nehemiah 8:10

⁵Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above them; and when he opened it, all the people stood up.

⁶Then Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, “Amen, Amen!” while lifting up their hands; and they knelt down and worshiped the LORD with their faces toward the ground.

⁷Also Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, explained the Law to the people, and the people remained in their places.

⁸So they read from the Book of the Law of God, translating and explaining it so that the people understood the reading.

⁹Then Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, “This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn or weep.” For all the people were weeping when they heard the words of the Law.

¹⁰Then Ezra said to them, “Go [your way], eat the rich festival food, drink the sweet drink, and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord. And do not be worried, for the joy of the LORD is your strength and your stronghold.”

¹¹So the Levites quieted all the people, saying, “Be still, for the day is holy; do not be worried.”

¹²Then all the people went on their way to eat, to drink, to send portions [of food to others] and to celebrate a great festival, because they understood the words which had been communicated to them.

¹³On the second day, all of the heads of fathers' households of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, were gathered before Ezra the scribe to gain insight into the words of the Law (divine instruction).

¹⁴They found written in the Law how the LORD had commanded through Moses that the Israelites should live in booths (huts) during the feast of the seventh month.

¹⁵So they proclaimed and published an announcement in all their cities and in Jerusalem, saying, "Go out to the hills and bring olive branches, wild olive, myrtle, palm, and other leafy branches to make booths, as it is written." [Lev 23:39, 40]

¹⁶So the people went out and brought them and made booths for themselves, each on the roof of his house, and in their courtyards and the courtyards of God's house, and in the open square of the Water Gate and in the square of the Gate of Ephraim.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Prime the Pump of Joy

When we don't feel joyful, we need to take some kind of action to release joy before we start slipping into depression. Sometimes we must start to rejoice whether we feel like it or not, like priming a pump by repeatedly moving the handle up and down until the pump kicks in and the water begins to flow.

My grandparents had an old-time pump. I recall standing at the sink as a small child moving the pump handle up and down and sometimes feeling as though it would never take hold and start to supply water. But if I didn't give up, as I kept moving the handle up and down, I could feel it becoming more and more difficult. That was the signal that water would start flowing shortly.

This is how it is with joy. We have a well of joy on the inside of our spirit (see Neh. 8:10). The pump handle to bring it up is remembering the good things in our life, and we all have some good things to remember! Focusing only on the bad things steals our joy, but if we put our focus (thoughts) on the good, I can promise that we will feel much happier. Joy is a fruit of the Spirit, and the Spirit is in us, so joy is in you (see Gal. 5:22). Practice it, release it, and share it everywhere you go.

¹⁷The entire assembly of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and lived in them. Indeed since the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that very day, the Israelites had not done so. And there was great rejoicing and celebration.

¹⁸Every day, from the first day to the last, Ezra read from the Book of the Law of God. They celebrated the feast for seven days; on the eighth day there was a [closing] solemn assembly in accordance with the ordinance.

9 NOW ON the twenty-fourth day of this month the Israelites assembled with fasting and in sackcloth and with dirt on their heads.

²The descendants of Israel (Jacob) separated themselves from all foreigners, and stood and confessed their sins and the wrongdoings of their fathers.

³While they stood in their places, they read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for a fourth of the day and for another fourth [of it] they confessed [their sins] and worshiped the LORD their God.

⁴On the platform of the Levites stood Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and they called out with a loud voice to the LORD their God.

⁵Then the Levites—Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah—said, “Stand up and bless (praise, honor) the LORD your God from everlasting to everlasting.

May Your glorious name be blessed
And exalted above all blessing and praise.”

⁶[And Ezra said],

“You are the LORD, You alone;

You have made the heavens,

The heaven of heavens with all their host (the heavenly bodies),

The earth and everything that is on it,

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Focus on Joy

Joy is extremely valuable on the battlefield of the mind. The Bible states that the joy of the Lord is our strength (see Neh. 8:10)! That is foundational.

We could avoid a great deal of sadness if we would learn to think the way God instructs us to think. Most of us have thought ourselves out of happiness countless times, so why not start thinking ourselves into happiness and joy? If we choose to worry and imagine the worst that might happen, we lose the opportunity for happiness. I've heard that children are happy because they don't consider all the things that could go wrong.

The statement "Perception is everything" is true to a large degree. How we see things affects our moods and determines whether we will be sad or joyful, not how things truly are. If someone doesn't like me, but I believe they do, then I am affected by what I believe, not by their opinion of me.

I am not suggesting we never face reality. Facts are facts, but the truth, which God reveals to us through His Word, can change facts. We can choose to follow God's advice and believe the best about our current reality. By doing so we will remain happy and joyful while God is working all things out for our good (see Rom. 8:28).

Jesus said that He left us His joy, "so that they may experience My joy made full and complete and perfect within them [filling their hearts with My delight]" (John 17:13).

We have joy in us as a gift from Jesus, but we don't always appropriate and use all that we have. Can joy be blocked and hindered by life's difficulties? It can be, but it doesn't have to be. It all depends on what we choose to focus on.

"In the world you have tribulation and distress and suffering," Jesus said, "but be courageous [be confident, be undaunted, be filled with joy]; I have overcome the world" (John 16:33).

Difficulty is never enjoyable, but right thinking in the midst of it will cheer us up. We can face trials with courage, being confident of God's love and His promise to help us. Joy and happiness (which is a part of joy) come more from what we believe than from what is happening to us.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

God of joy, thank You that Jesus has overcome the world and made it possible for me to experience His joy fully and completely. I receive Your joy as my strength to overcome the enemy. In Jesus' name. Amen.

The seas and everything that is in them.
You give life to all of them,
And the heavenly host is bowing down [in worship] to You.

7“You are the LORD God,
Who chose Abram
And brought him out of Ur of the Chaldees,
And gave him the name Abraham.

8“You found his heart to be faithful before You,
And You made a covenant with him
To give him the land of the Canaanite,
Of the Hittite, of the Amorite,
Of the Perizzite, the Jebusite, and the Girgashite—
To give it to his descendants.
And You have fulfilled Your promise,
For You are righteous and just.

9“You saw our fathers’ affliction in Egypt,
And You heard their cry by the Red Sea (Sea of Reeds).

10“Then You performed signs and wonders against Pharaoh,
Against all his servants and all the people of his land;
For You knew that they behaved arrogantly toward them
(the Israelites),
And You made a name for Yourself, as it is to this day.

11“You divided the sea before them,
So that they passed through the midst of the sea on dry land;
You hurled their pursuers into the depths,

Like a stone into mighty and raging waters.

12“And with a pillar of cloud You led them by day,
And with a pillar of fire by night
To light the way for them
In which they were to go.

13“Then You came down on Mount Sinai,
And spoke with them from heaven;
And You gave them fair ordinances and true laws,
Good statutes and commandments.

14“So You made known to them Your holy Sabbath,
And gave them commandments, statutes, and law,
Through Your servant Moses.

15“ You gave them bread from heaven for their hunger,
And brought water for them out of a rock for their thirst,
And You told them to enter and take possession of
The land that You swore to give them. [John 6:31–34]

16“But they, our fathers, acted arrogantly;
They stiffened their necks and would not heed Your commandments.

17“ They refused to listen and obey,
And did not remember Your wondrous acts which You had performed among them;
So they stiffened their necks and [in their rebellion] appointed a leader in order to return them to slavery in Egypt.
But You are a God of forgiveness,
Gracious and merciful and compassionate,

Slow to anger and abounding in lovingkindness;
And You did not abandon them. [Num 14:4]

¹⁸“Even when they had made for themselves
A calf of cast metal
And said, ‘This is your god
Who brought you up from Egypt,’
And committed great [and contemptible] blasphemies,

¹⁹You, in Your great mercy and compassion,
Did not abandon them in the wilderness;
The pillar of the cloud did not leave them by day,
To lead them in the way,
Nor the pillar of fire by night, to light for them the way they should go.

²⁰“You [also] gave Your good Spirit to instruct them,
You did not withhold Your manna from their mouth,
And You gave them water for their thirst.

²¹“Indeed, for forty years You sustained them in the wilderness; they lacked nothing,
Their clothes did not wear out, and their feet did not swell.

²²“You also gave them kingdoms and peoples,
And You allotted the kingdoms to them as a boundary.
So they took possession of the land of Sihon king of Heshbon
And the land of Og king of Bashan.

²³“You made their children as numerous as the stars of heaven,
And You brought them into the land
Which You told their fathers to enter and possess.

- 24“So their sons (descendants) went in and took possession of the land;
And You subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites,
And You gave them into their hand, with their kings and the peoples of the land,
To do with them as they pleased.
- 25“They captured fortified cities and a fertile land.
They took possession of houses full of all good things,
Hewn cisterns, vineyards, olive groves,
And fruit trees in abundance.
So they ate and were filled and became fat,
And they reveled and were delighted in Your great goodness.
- 26“Yet they were disobedient and rebelled against You,
And cast Your law behind their backs
And killed Your prophets who warned them
To return to You;
And they committed great [and contemptible] blasphemies.
- 27“Therefore You handed them over to their enemies who oppressed them.
But when they cried out to You in the time of their suffering and distress,
You heard them from heaven, and according to Your great compassion You gave them people to rescue them.
Who rescued them from the hand of their enemies.
- 28“But as soon as they had rest, they again did evil before

You;
Therefore You abandoned them into the hand of their enemies, so that they ruled over them.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God's Word Is Medicine for the Soul

When someone mistreats me, I initially feel angry, then I spend the next few minutes or hours, depending on the seriousness of the mistreatment, getting my emotions under control by talking to God about it all. When you feel angry, talk to yourself about how foolish it is to let an unkind person ruin your day, and then follow Scripture and pray for the person who hurt you. Decide to believe the best of the person who offended you, and try to get your mind off the offense and onto something more pleasant.

It is helpful to remember that we also do things that hurt people, and yet God is “a God of forgiveness, gracious and merciful and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in lovingkindness” (Neh. 9:17). Obeying and meditating on the Word of God is medicine for our souls. It brings not only instruction, but comfort in every situation.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, for giving Your good Spirit to instruct me. Help me always to follow as the Spirit leads me.

• adapted from Nehemiah 9:20

Yet when they turned and cried out again to You, You heard them from heaven,
And You rescued them many times in accordance with Your compassion, ²⁹And You admonished them and warned them to turn them back to Your law.

Yet they acted presumptuously and arrogantly and did not heed Your commandments, but sinned against Your ordinances,

Which by keeping, a man will live.

But they turned a stubborn shoulder, stiffened their neck, and would not listen.

³⁰“Yet You were patient with them for many years,
And admonished them and warned them by Your Spirit through Your prophets;
Still they would not listen.

Therefore You gave them into the hand (power) of the peoples of the lands.

- 31“Yet in Your great compassion You did not utterly destroy them or abandon them,
For You are a gracious and merciful God.
- 32“Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who keeps the covenant and lovingkindness,
Do not let all the hardship seem insignificant before You,
Which has come upon us, our kings, our princes, our priests, our prophets, our fathers and on all Your people,
Since the time of the kings of Assyria to this day.
- 33“However, You are just and righteous in everything that has come upon us;
For You have dealt faithfully, but we have acted wickedly.
- 34Our kings, our princes, our priests, and our fathers have not kept Your law
Or paid attention to Your commandments and Your warnings which You have given them.
- 35“But they, in their kingdom,
With Your great goodness which You gave them,
With the broad and rich land which You set before them,
Did not serve You or turn from their wicked deeds.
- 36“Behold, we are slaves today,
And as for the land which You gave our fathers, to eat of its fruit and its goodness,
Behold, we are slaves in it.
- 37“Its abundant produce is for the kings
Whom You have set over us because of our sins;

They also rule over our bodies
And over our cattle as they please,
So we are in great distress.

³⁸“Now because of all this
We are making an agreement in writing;
And on the sealed document are the names of our princes, our Levites, and our priests.”

10 NOW THESE were the names on the sealed document:

Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hacaliah. And Zedekiah, ²Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,

³Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah,

⁴Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,

⁵Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,

⁶Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,

⁷Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,

⁸Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah—these were the priests.

⁹And the Levites: Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel, ¹⁰and their brothers: Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, ¹¹Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah,

¹²Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

¹³Hodiah, Bani, Beninu.

¹⁴The leaders of the people: Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,

- ¹⁵Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,
¹⁶Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,
¹⁷Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,
¹⁸Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai,
¹⁹Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,
²⁰Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,
²¹Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua,
²²Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,
²³Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub,
²⁴Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,
²⁵Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,
²⁶Ahiah, Hanan, Anan,
²⁷Malluch, Harim, Baanah.

²⁸Now the rest of the people—the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple servants, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the Law of God, their wives, their sons, their daughters, all those who had knowledge and understanding—

²⁹are joining with their fellow Israelites, their nobles, and are taking on themselves a curse and an oath to walk in God's Law, which was given through Moses the servant of God, and to keep and to observe all the commandments of GOD our Lord, and His ordinances and statutes:

³⁰and that we will not give our daughters [as wives] to the peoples of the land or take their daughters for our sons.

³¹As for the peoples of the land who bring merchandise or any grain on the Sabbath day to sell, we will not buy from them on the Sabbath or on a holy day; and we will give up raising crops during the seventh year [leaving the land uncultivated], and forgive every debt. [Ex 23:10, 11; Deut 15:1, 2]

³²Also we pledge ourselves to contribute yearly one third of a shekel for the service [expenses] of the house of our God:

³³for the showbread; for the continual grain offerings and the continual burnt offerings; [for the offerings on] the Sabbaths, the New Moons, the [feasts at] appointed times; for the holy things, for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel; and for all the work of the house of our God.

³⁴We have also cast lots—the priests, the Levites, and the people—for [contributing] the supply of wood, to bring it to the house of our God, according to our fathers' households, at set times annually, to burn on the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the Law;

³⁵and [we obligate ourselves] to bring the first fruits of our ground and the first fruits of all the fruit of every tree to the house of the LORD annually,

³⁶as well as the firstborn of our sons and of our cattle, as is written in the Law, and the firstborn of our herds and flocks, to bring to the house of our God, for the priests who minister in the house of our God.

³⁷We will bring the first [and best] of our dough, our contributions, the fruit of every tree, the new wine and the [olive] oil to the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God, and the tithe of our ground to the Levites, for the Levites are the ones who receive the tithes in all the rural towns.

³⁸The priest, the son of Aaron, shall be with the Levites when they receive tithes, and they shall bring one-tenth of the tithes up to the house of our God, to the chambers of the storehouse.

³⁹For the Israelites and the sons of Levi shall bring the offering of the grain, the new wine, and the oil to the chambers; the utensils of the sanctuary, the priests who are ministering, the gatekeepers, and the singers are there. In this manner, we will not neglect the house of our God.

11 NOW THE leaders of the people lived in Jerusalem; but the rest of the people cast lots to bring one [person] out of ten to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while nine-tenths remained in the other cities.

²And the people blessed all the men who volunteered to live in Jerusalem.

³These are the heads of the provinces who lived in Jerusalem, but in the cities of Judah everyone lived on his property in their cities—the Israelites, the priests, the Levites, the temple servants, and the descendants of Solomon's servants.

⁴And some of the sons of Judah and some of the sons of Benjamin lived in Jerusalem. From the sons of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, of the sons of Perez;

⁵Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of the Shilonite.

⁶All the sons of Perez who lived at Jerusalem were 468 able men.

⁷These are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, son of Jeshaiiah;

⁸and after him Gabbai and Sallai, 928.

⁹Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer, and Judah the son of Hassenuah was second in command of the city.

¹⁰Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin,

¹¹Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the leader of the house of God,

¹²and their brothers (relatives, fellow workers) who did the work of the house, 822; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah, ¹³and his brothers, heads of fathers' households, 242; and Amashsai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, ¹⁴and their brothers, brave men, 128. Their overseer was Zabdiel the son of Haggadolim [one of the great men].

¹⁵Now from the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

¹⁶and Shabbethai and Jozabad, from the leaders of the Levites, who were in charge of the outside work of the house of God;

¹⁷Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, who was the leader to begin the thanksgiving in prayer, and Bakbukiah, second among his brothers; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

¹⁸All the Levites in the holy city totaled 284.

¹⁹The gatekeepers: Akkub, Talmon, and their kinsmen, who kept watch at the gates, totaled 172.

²⁰Now the rest of Israel, the priests and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, each on his own inheritance.

²¹But the temple servants were living in Ophel; Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of the temple servants.

²²The overseer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica, from Asaph's sons, who were the singers in regard to the work of the house of God.

²³For there was a command from the [Persian] king regarding the singers, as to their daily task.

²⁴Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the sons of Zerah the son of Judah, was the king's representative in all matters concerning the people.

²⁵As for the villages with their fields, some sons (descendants) of Judah lived in Kiriath-arba and its towns, Dibon and its towns, and Jekabzeel and its villages,

²⁶in Jeshua, in Moladah, in Beth-pelet,

²⁷in Hazar-shual and in Beersheba and its towns,

²⁸in Ziklag and in Meconah and its towns,

²⁹in En-rimmon, in Zorah, and in Jarmuth,

³⁰Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and its fields, and Azekah and its towns. So they camped from Beersheba as far as the Hinnom Valley.

³¹The sons (descendants) of Benjamin also lived from

Geba onward, at Michmash, Aija, Bethel and its towns,

³²at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,

³³Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,

³⁴Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,

³⁵Lod, and Ono, the Valley of the Craftsmen.

³⁶And certain divisions of the Levites in Judah belonged to Benjamin.

12 NOW THESE are the priests and Levites who came up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and with Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, ²Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,

³Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,

⁴Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah,

⁵Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,

⁶Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah,

⁷Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, and Jedaiah. These were the heads of the priests and their kinsman in the days of Jeshua.

⁸The Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah who was in charge of the songs of thanksgiving and praise, he and his brothers.

⁹Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brothers, stood opposite them in their divisions of service.

¹⁰Now Jeshua became the father of Joiakim, Joiakim of Eliashib, Eliashib of Joiada, ¹¹and Joiada became the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan of Jaddua.

¹²And in the days of Joiakim, the priests, the heads of fathers' households were: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

¹³of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;

¹⁴of Malluchi, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;

¹⁵of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai;

¹⁶of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;

¹⁷of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin and of Moadiah, Piltai;

¹⁸of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;

¹⁹of Joarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;

²⁰of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;

²¹of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethanel.

²²As for the Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua, the heads of fathers' households were registered; so were the priests, during the reign of Darius the Persian.

²³The sons of Levi, heads of fathers' households, were recorded in the Book of the Chronicles until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.

²⁴The heads of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, and their brothers opposite them, to praise and to give thanks, as commanded by David the man of God, [one] division [singing] in response to [the men in the opposite] division.

²⁵Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers keeping watch at the storehouses of the gates.

²⁶These men served in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor and Ezra the priest and scribe.

²⁷Now at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought out the Levites from all their places in order to bring them to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication with gladness, with hymns of thanksgiving, and with songs to the accompaniment of cymbals, harps, and lyres.

²⁸So the sons of the singers gathered together from the district around Jerusalem, and from the villages of the Netophathites, ²⁹from Beth-gilgal and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built villages for themselves around Jerusalem.

³⁰The priests and the Levites purified themselves; they also purified the people, the gates, and the wall.

³¹Then I had the leaders of Judah come up on the wall, and I appointed two large thanksgiving choirs, the first one proceeding to the right on top of the wall toward the Refuse Gate.

³²Hoshaiah and half of the leaders of Judah followed them,

³³with Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,

³⁴Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, and Jeremiah,

³⁵and some of the priests' sons with trumpets, and Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph, ³⁶and his brothers, Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God. And Ezra the scribe went in front of them.

³⁷At the Fountain Gate they went directly up the steps of the City of David by the stairway of the wall above David's house to the Water Gate on the east.

³⁸The second choir went to the left; I followed with half of the people on the wall, above the Tower of the Furnaces, to the Broad Wall, ³⁹and above the Gate of Ephraim, and by the Old Gate, by the Fish Gate, by the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Sheep Gate; and they stopped at the Gate of the Guard.

⁴⁰Then the two choirs stood in the house of God. So did I, and half of the officials with me;

⁴¹and the priests Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah and Hananiah, with trumpets;

⁴²and Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang, with Jezrahiah as their leader.

⁴³Also on that day they offered great sacrifices and rejoiced because God had given them great joy; the women and children also rejoiced, so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard from far away.

POWERPOINT

The day written about in Nehemiah 12:43 was one joyful day in Jerusalem! When was the last time you celebrated

God's goodness and faithfulness with thanksgiving and gladness? It is important that we dedicate both our work and accomplishments to the Lord as well as celebrate what the Lord has done for us. Celebrate His goodness often!

⁴⁴On that day men were appointed over the chambers for the stores, the contributions, the first fruits, and the tithes, to gather into them from the fields of the cities the portions required by the law for the priests and the Levites; for Judah rejoiced over the priests and Levites who served.

⁴⁵And they performed the worship of their God and the service of purification; so did the singers and gatekeepers, as David and his son Solomon had commanded.

⁴⁶For in the days of David and Asaph, in ancient times, there were leaders of singers, songs of praise and hymns of thanksgiving to God.

⁴⁷So in the days of Zerubbabel and [later of] Nehemiah, all Israel would give the daily portions for the singers and the gatekeepers; and they set apart the consecrated portion for the Levites, and the Levites set apart the consecrated portion for the sons of Aaron [the priests].

13 ON THAT day they read aloud from the book of Moses so that the people could hear [its words], and in it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite could ever enter the assembly of God,

²because they did not meet the Israelites with bread and water, but hired Balaam against them to curse them. Yet our God turned the curse into a blessing. [Num 22:3–11; Deut 23:5, 6]

³When the Jews heard the law, they separated from Israel all who were of foreign descent.

⁴Now prior to this, Eliashib the priest, who was appointed over the chambers of the house of our God, and was related to Tobiah [our adversary], ⁵had prepared for Tobiah a large room (chamber) where previously they had put the grain offerings, the frankincense, the utensils, and the tithes of grain, new wine, and [olive] oil which were given by commandment for the Levites, the singers, and gatekeepers, and the contributions for the priests.

⁶But during all this time I was not at Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes [Persian] king of Babylon I went to the king. Then after some time I asked for a leave [of absence] from the king, ⁷and I came to Jerusalem. Then I discovered the evil [thing] that Eliashib had done for Tobiah by preparing a room for him in the courtyards of the house of God.

⁸It was very displeasing to me, so I threw all of Tobiah's household furnishings out of the room.

⁹Then I gave an order, and they cleaned the rooms; and I put back there the utensils of the house of God with the grain offerings and the frankincense.

¹⁰I also discovered that the portions due the Levites had not been given to them, so that the Levites and the singers who did the work had gone away, each one back to his own field.

¹¹Then I reprimanded the officials and said, "Why is the house of God neglected?" So I gathered the Levites and singers together and restored them at their posts.

¹²Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain, the new wine, and the oil to the storehouses.

¹³I appointed [as treasurers] over the storehouses: Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah of the Levites; assisting them was Hanan son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were considered faithful and reliable, and their task was to distribute [supplies] to their brothers (fellow Levites).

¹⁴O my God, remember me concerning this and do not wipe out my loyal deeds and kindnesses which I have done for the house of my God and for its services.

POWERPOINT

Do you realize the importance of a Sabbath rest? When we get overly tired and out of balance, depression and discouragement quickly try to come upon us as they did upon Elijah when he neglected to rest (see 1 Kin. 19:1–4). There is a time to work and a time to rest. Whatever you do, remember to rest.

¹⁵In those days I saw some in Judah who were treading wine presses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves or sacks of grain and loading them on donkeys, as well as wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of loads, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. So I protested and warned them on the day they sold the produce.

¹⁶Also men of Tyre were living there who brought fish and all kinds of merchandise, and they were selling them to the people of Judah on the Sabbath, even in Jerusalem.

¹⁷Then I reprimanded the nobles of Judah, and said to them, “What is this evil thing that you are doing—profaning the Sabbath day?

¹⁸“Did your fathers (ancestors) not do the same, and did our God not bring all this trouble on us and on this city? Yet you are adding to the wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath.”

¹⁹Now when it began to get dark at the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath [began], I commanded that the doors be shut and not be opened until after the Sabbath. Then I stationed some of my servants at the gates so that no load [of merchandise] would enter [Jerusalem] on the Sabbath day.

²⁰So once or twice the merchants and sellers of every kind of merchandise spent the night outside Jerusalem.

²¹But I warned them, saying, “Why do you spend the night by the wall? If you do so again, I will use force against you.” From that time on, they did not come on the Sabbath.

²²And I commanded the Levites to purify themselves and come and guard the gates to keep the Sabbath day holy. O my God, remember me concerning this also and have compassion on me according to the greatness of Your lovingkindness.

²³In those days I also saw Jews who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab.

²⁴As for their children, half spoke in the language of Ashdod, and none of them knew how to speak [Hebrew] the language of Judah, but only the language of his own people.

²⁵So I contended with them and cursed them and struck some of them and pulled out their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, “You shall not give your daughters [in marriage] to their sons, nor take [any of] their daughters for your sons or for yourselves.

²⁶“Did not Solomon king of Israel sin [greatly against God] regarding these things? Yet among the many nations there was no king like him. He was loved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel; nevertheless the foreign women caused even him to sin [by turning to other gods and so, judged by God, he lost his kingdom]. [1 Kin 11:1–11]

²⁷“Do we then hear about you that you have done all this great evil, acting unfaithfully against our God by marrying foreign (pagan) women?”

²⁸One of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was a son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite, so I chased him away from me.

²⁹O my God, remember them, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

³⁰Thus I cleansed and purified them from everything foreign (pagan), and I defined the duties of the priests and Levites, each one in his task;

³¹and I provided for the wood offering at appointed times and for the first fruits. O my God, [please] remember me for good [and imprint me on Your heart].

Esther

Author: | Unknown

Date: | Probably
before the fifth century
BC

Because God had chosen Esther to deliver the Jews from death, He supernaturally placed her in position to do so. He then prepared her and gave her the boldness and favor she needed in order to carry out His plan. Due to her background, Esther could have easily thought, I'm a Jew. How could I ever be a Persian queen? Or, I'm an orphan. I don't have a royal bloodline. How could I become queen? But Esther did not fight these battles of the mind. Instead, she knew and trusted God, and she moved forward courageously in God's purpose for her life.

No matter how many reasons you may think of that you cannot do what God has called you to do, do not let them stop you. Stir up your faith and continue in obedience until you fulfill His purpose for your life.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM ESTHER:

When God has a great assignment for your life or responsibility for you to carry out, He will prepare you for it (see Esther 2:12–13).

The favor God gives you may very well be for an important and strategic purpose, just as the favor He gave to Esther from everyone who saw her (see Esther 2:15) and even from the king himself was for a specific and important purpose (see Esther 2:17).

You can make a difference in the world around you. Like Mordecai, you can seek the good of your family, friends, city, or nation, and you can speak peace to them (see Esther 10:3).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM ESTHER:

For if you remain silent at this time, liberation and rescue will arise for the Jews from another place, and you and your father's house will perish [since you did not help when you had the chance]. And who knows whether you have attained royalty for such a time as this [and for this very purpose]? | Esther 4:14

Then Esther told them to reply to Mordecai, "Go, gather all the Jews that are present in Susa, and observe a fast for me; do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my maids also will fast in the same way. Then I will go in to [see] the king [without being summoned], which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish." | Esther 4:15–16

Now in the twelfth month (that is, the month of Adar) on the thirteenth day when the king's command and edict were about to be executed, on the [very] day when the enemies of the Jews had hoped to gain power over them [and slaughter them], it happened the other way around so that the Jews themselves gained power over those who hated them. | Esther 9:1

THE BOOK OF ESTHER

1 IT WAS in the days of Ahasuerus (Xerxes) who reigned from India to Ethiopia (Cush) over 127 provinces,

²in those days when King Ahasuerus sat on his royal throne which was at the citadel in Susa [the capital of the Persian Empire], ³in the third year of his reign he held a banquet for all his officials and his attendants. The army officers of Persia and Media, the nobles and the officials of the provinces were there in his presence.

⁴And he displayed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the splendor of his great majesty for many days, 180 days in all.

⁵When these days were completed, the king held a banquet for all the people who were present at the citadel in Susa [the capital], from the greatest [in importance] to the least, a seven-day feast in the courtyard of the garden of the king's palace.

⁷Drinks were served in various kinds of golden goblets, and the royal wine was plentiful, in accordance with the generosity of the king.

⁸The drinking was carried on in accordance with the law; no one was compelled [to drink], for the king had directed each official of his household to comply with each guest's wishes.

⁹Queen Vāshti also held a [separate] banquet for the women in the palace of King Ahasuerus.

¹⁰On the seventh day, when the king's heart was joyful with wine (in high spirits), he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carkas, the seven eunuchs who served in the presence of King Ahasuerus [as his attendants], ¹¹to bring Queen Vāshti before the king, wearing her royal crown (high turban), to display her beauty before the people and the officials, for she was lovely to see.

¹²But Queen Vāshti refused to come at the king's command, which was delivered [to her] by the eunuchs. So the king became extremely angry and burned with rage.

¹³Then the king spoke to the wise men who understood the times [asking for their advice]—for it was the custom of the king to speak before all those who were familiar with law and legal matters—

¹⁴and who were close to him [as advisors]: Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven officials of Persia and Media who had access to the king and were ranked highest in the kingdom.

¹⁵[He said,] “According to the law, what is to be done with Queen Vāshti because she did not obey the command of King Ahasuerus which was conveyed by the eunuchs?”

¹⁶And Memucan answered in the presence of the king and the officials, “Vashti the queen has not only wronged the king but [also] all the officials (royal representatives) and all the peoples who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.

¹⁷“For the queen’s conduct will become known to all women, causing them to look on their husbands with contempt (disrespect), since they will say, ‘King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought before him, but she did not come.’

¹⁸“This [very] day the ladies of Persia and Media who have heard of the queen’s refusal will speak [in the same way] to all the king’s officials, and there will be plenty of contempt and anger.

¹⁹“If it pleases the king, let a royal command be issued by him and let it be written in the laws of the Persians and Medes so that it cannot be repealed or modified, that Vashti is no longer to come before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal position to another who is better and more worthy than she.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Finding Favor

The Bible says that Esther “found favor” in the sight of all who saw her (see Esth. 2:9, 15, 17). God will give you favor with people if you ask Him to do so and then put your trust in Him. He can cause even your enemies to be at peace with you (see Prov. 16:7). He can change someone’s heart toward you the way He changes the course of flowing water (see Prov. 21:1).

When God favors you, He gives you things you do not deserve in the natural realm. But if you try to make things happen by the works of your flesh, God will stand back and wait for you to wear yourself out trying to do what only He can do. If you stop struggling and ask God to take the driver’s seat, you can have favor with God—and He will give you favor with others.

²⁰“So when the king’s great decree is proclaimed throughout his [extensive] kingdom, all women will give honor to their husbands, from the great to the insignificant.”

²¹This statement (advice) pleased the king and the officials, and the king did what Memucan proposed.

²²So he sent letters to all the royal provinces, to each province in its own script and to each people in their own language, saying that every man should be the master and rule in his own home and that he should speak [in the household] in the language of his own people.

2 AFTER THESE things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus (Xerxes) had subsided, he remembered Vashti and what she had done and what had been decreed against her.

²Then the king's attendants, who served him, said, "Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king.

³"Let the king appoint administrators in all the provinces of his kingdom, and have them gather all the beautiful young virgins to the citadel in Susa, into the harem, under the custody of Hegai, the king's eunuch, who is in charge of the women; and let their beauty preparations be given to them.

⁴"Then let the young woman who pleases the king be queen in place of Vashti." This pleased the king, and he did accordingly.

⁵There was a certain Jew in the citadel of Susa whose name was Mordecai the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite, ⁶who had been deported from Jerusalem with the captives who had been exiled with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had exiled.

⁷He was the guardian of Hadassah, that is Esther, his uncle's daughter, for she had no father or mother. The young woman was beautiful of form and face; and when her father and mother died, Mordecai took her in as his own daughter.

⁸So it came about when the king's command and his decree were proclaimed and when many young women were gathered together in the citadel of Susa into the custody of Hegai, that

Esther was taken to the king's palace [and placed] in the custody of Hegai, who was in charge of the women.

⁹Now the young woman pleased Hegai and found favor with him. So he quickly provided her with beauty preparations and her [portion of] food, and he gave her seven choice maids from the king's palace; then he transferred her and her maids to the best place in the harem.

¹⁰Esther did not reveal [the Jewish background of] her people or her family, for Mordecai had instructed her not to do so.

¹¹Every day Mordecai [who was an attendant in the king's court] walked back and forth in front of the courtyard of the harem to learn how Esther was getting along and what was happening to her.

¹²Now when it was each young woman's turn to go before King Ahasuerus, after the end of her twelve months under the regulations for the women—for the days of their beautification were completed as follows: six months with oil of myrrh and six months with [sweet] spices and perfumes and the beauty preparations for women—

¹³then the young woman would go before the king in this way: anything that she wanted was given her to take with her from the harem into the king's palace.

¹⁴In the evening she would go in and the next morning she would return to the second harem, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch who was in charge of the concubines. She would not return to the king unless he delighted in her and she was summoned by name.

¹⁵Now as for Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai who had taken her in as his [own] daughter, when her turn came to go in to the king, she requested nothing except what Hegai the king's eunuch [and attendant] who was in charge of the women, advised. And Esther found favor in the sight of all who saw her.

¹⁶So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus, to his royal palace in the tenth month, that is, the month of Tebeth (Dec-Jan), in the seventh year of his reign.

¹⁷Now the king loved Esther more than all the other women, and she found favor and kindness with him more than all the [other] virgins, so that he set the royal crown on her head and made her queen in the place of Vashti.

¹⁸Then the king held a great banquet, Esther's banquet, for all his officials and his servants; and he made a festival for the provinces and gave gifts in accordance with the resources of the king.

¹⁹And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate.

²⁰Esther had not revealed her family or her people [that is, her Jewish background], just as Mordecai had instructed her; for Esther did what Mordecai told her just as when she was under his care.

²¹In those days, while Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, Bigthan and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who guarded the door, became angry and conspired to attack King Ahasuerus.

²²But the plot became known to Mordecai, who informed Queen Esther, and Esther told the king in Mordecai's name.

²³Now when the plot was investigated and found to be true, both men were hanged on the gallows. And it was recorded in the Book of the Chronicles in the king's presence.

3 AFTER THESE things King Ahasuerus (Xerxes) promoted Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him and established his authority over all the officials who were with him.

²All the king's servants who were at the king's gate [in royal service] bowed down and honored and paid homage to Haman; for this is what the king had commanded in regard to him. But Mordecai [a Jew of the tribe of Benjamin] neither bowed down nor paid homage [to him].

³Then the king's servants who were at the king's gate said to Mordecai, "Why are you disregarding the king's command?"

⁴Now it happened when they had spoken to him day after day and he would not listen to them, that they told Haman to see whether Mordecai's reason [for his behavior] would stand [as valid]; for he had told them that he was a Jew.

⁵When Haman saw that Mordecai neither bowed down nor paid homage to him, he was furious.

⁶But he disdained laying hands on Mordecai alone, for they had told him who the people of Mordecai were (his nationality); so Haman determined to destroy all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, who lived throughout the kingdom of Ahasuerus.

⁷In the first month, the month of Nisan (Mar-Apr), in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, Haman cast Pur, that is, the lot, cast before him day after day [to find a lucky day to approach the king], month after month, until the twelfth month, the month of Adar (Feb-Mar).

⁸Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, “There is a certain people scattered [abroad] and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom; their laws are different from those of all other people, and they do not observe the king’s laws. Therefore it is not in the king’s interest to [tolerate them and] let them stay here.

⁹“If it pleases the king, let it be decreed that they be destroyed, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who carry out the king’s business, to put into the king’s treasuries.”

¹⁰Then the king removed his signet ring from his hand [that is, the special ring which was used to seal his letters] and gave it to Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews.

¹¹The king said to Haman, “The silver is given to you, and the people also, to do with them as you please.”

¹²Then the king’s scribes (secretaries) were summoned on the thirteenth day of the first month, and it was written just as Haman commanded to the king’s satraps (chief rulers), and to the governors who were over each province and to the officials of each people, each province according to its script (writing), each people according to their own language; being written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king’s signet ring.

¹³Letters were sent by couriers to all the king’s provinces to destroy, to kill and to annihilate all the Jews, both young and old, women and children, in one day, the thirteenth [day] of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar (March 7, 473 B.C.), and to seize their belongings as plunder.

¹⁴A copy of the edict to be decreed as law in every province was published to all the peoples, so that they would be ready for this day.

4 NOW WHEN Mordecai learned of everything that had been done, he tore his clothes [in mourning], and put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the center of the city and cried out loudly and bitterly.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Think You Can

“Who knows whether you have attained royalty for such a time as this?” (Esth. 4:14). These inspirational words that Mordecai spoke to Esther in the midst of a life-and-death situation helped her to press on in faith. Mordecai’s words encouraged Esther and kept her focused on God’s will for her life.

God’s Word teaches us to remain stable during every storm of life (see Ps. 91:1). The first mistake we often make, causing us to become unstable, is to listen to the lie of the enemy who says, “This is just too hard.” Satan is a liar, and he will always put thoughts into our minds that tell us we are not capable, we can’t, we won’t, and we will never be able to do what God asks of us. The enemy tries to convince us that the glass of life is halfempty, but God always sees the glass as full and overflowing. Mordecai chose to adopt God’s attitude and be an I-think-I-can person, instead of an I-think-I-can’t person. If you believe the same, you will find God working through your faith and enabling you to do what you believe.

²He went [only] as far as the king’s gate, because no one was to enter the king’s gate dressed in sackcloth.

³In each and every province that the decree and law of the king reached, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping and wailing; and many lay on sackcloth and ashes.

⁴When Esther's maids and her eunuchs came and told her [what had happened], the queen was seized by great fear. She sent garments to clothe Mordecai so that he would remove his sackcloth, but he did not accept them.

⁵Then Esther summoned Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs, whom the king had appointed to attend her, and ordered him to go to Mordecai to find out what this issue was and why it had come about.

⁶So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the [open] square of the city, which was in front of the king's gate.

⁷Mordecai told him everything that had happened to him, and the exact amount of money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the destruction of the Jews.

⁸Mordecai also gave him a copy of the text of the decree which had been issued in Susa for the Jews' destruction, so that he might show Esther and explain it to her, and order her to go in to the king to seek his favor and plead with him for [the lives of] her people.

⁹Hathach came back and told Esther what Mordecai had said.

¹⁰Then Esther spoke to Hathach and ordered him to reply to Mordecai, saying:

¹¹"All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that for any man or woman who comes to the king to the inner court without being summoned, he has but one law, that he is to be put to death, unless the king holds out to him the golden scepter so that he may live. And as for me, I have not been summoned to come to the king for these [last] thirty days.”

¹²So they told Mordecai what Esther had said.

¹³Then Mordecai told them to reply to Esther, “Do not imagine that you in the king’s palace can escape any more than all the Jews.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, help me not to remain silent when You are asking me to speak or to not remain still when you are asking me to act. I believe that I am where I am and who I am at such a time as this for Your very purposes.

• adapted from Esther 4:14

¹⁴“For if you remain silent at this time, liberation and rescue will arise for the Jews from another place, and you and your father's house will perish [since you did not help when you had the chance]. And who knows whether you have attained royalty for such a time as this [and for this very purpose]?"

¹⁵Then Esther told them to reply to Mordecai,

¹⁶"Go, gather all the Jews that are present in Susa, and observe a fast for me; do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my maids also will fast in the same way. Then I will go in to [see] the king [without being summoned], which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish."

¹⁷So Mordecai went away and did exactly as Esther had commanded him.

5 ON THE third day [of the fast] Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's palace opposite his [throne] room. The king was sitting on his royal throne, facing the [main] entrance of the palace.

²When the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she found favor in his sight; and the king extended to her the golden scepter which was in his hand. So Esther approached and touched the top of the scepter.

³Then the king said to her, "What is troubling you, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given to you, up to half of the kingdom."

⁴Esther said, "If it pleases the king, may the king and Haman come this day to the banquet that I have prepared for him."

⁵Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly so that we may do as Esther says." So the king and Haman came to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

⁶As they drank their wine at the banquet, the king said to Esther, “What is your petition? It shall be granted to you. And what is your request? Even to half of the kingdom it shall be done.”

⁷Then Esther replied, “My petition and my request is this:

⁸if I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and to do as I request, may the king and Haman come to the banquet that I will prepare for them; and tomorrow I will do as the king says [and express my request].”

⁹Haman went away that day joyful and in good spirits. But when he saw Mordecai at the king’s gate refusing to stand up or show fear before him, he was filled with rage toward Mordecai.

¹⁰Nevertheless, Haman controlled himself and went home. There he sent for his friends and his wife Zeresh.

¹¹Then Haman recounted to them the glory of his riches, the large number of his sons, and every instance in which the king had magnified him and how he had promoted him over the officials and servants of the king.

¹²Haman also said, “Even Queen Esther let no one but me come with the king to the banquet she had prepared; and tomorrow also I am invited by her [together] with the king.

¹³“Yet all of this does not satisfy me as long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king’s gate.”

¹⁴Then his wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, “Have a gallows fifty cubits high made, and in the morning ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on it; then go joyfully to the banquet with the king.” And the advice pleased Haman, so he had the gallows made.

6 ON THAT night the king could not sleep; so he ordered that the book of records and memorable deeds, the chronicles, be brought, and they were read before the king.

²It was found written there how Mordecai had reported that Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king’s eunuchs who were doorkeepers, had planned to attack King Ahasuerus (Xerxes).

³The king said, “What honor or distinction has been given Mordecai for this?” Then the king’s servants who attended him said, “Nothing has been done for him.”

⁴So the king said, “Who is in the court?” Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the king’s palace to ask the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows which he had prepared for him.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Decide To Be Happy

I hope that you don't have a bad case of the "ifs" similar to what Haman expressed in Esther 5:9. It is a common misconception that if only we had this, that, or the other, we would find the happiness and fulfillment we so desperately desire. We find ourselves saying things such as, "If I didn't have to work so hard, if we had more money, if I had a bigger house, if the kids were grown, if I were married, if I weren't married..."

Stop thinking that you could be happy "if" your circumstances were different and start being happy right now because God loves you and has already blessed you in many ways. Our unhappiness usually comes from within us and not from something around us. Take responsibility for your own joy and stop blaming the lack of it on something or someone. The people who are happy are the ones who decide to be happy.

! REMEMBER, any time the enemy attacks your mind, the battle belongs to the Lord.

⁵The king's servants said to him, "Look, Haman is standing in the court." And the king said, "Let him come in."

⁶So Haman came in and the king said to him, "What is to be done for the man whom the king desires to honor?" Now Haman thought to himself, "Whom would the king desire to honor more than me?"

⁷So Haman said to the king, "For the man whom the king desires to honor,

⁸let a royal robe be brought which the king has worn, and the horse on which the king has ridden, and on whose head a royal crown has been placed;

⁹and let the robe and the horse be handed over to one of the king's most noble officials. Let him dress the man whom the king delights to honor [in the royal robe] and lead him on horseback through the open square of the city, and proclaim before him, 'This is what shall be done for the man whom the king desires to honor.'"

¹⁰Then the king said to Haman, "Quickly take the royal robe and the horse, as you have said, and do this for Mordecai the Jew, who is sitting at the king's gate. Leave out nothing of all that you have said."

¹¹So Haman took the royal robe and the horse and dressed Mordecai, and led him on horseback through the open square of the city, proclaiming before him, "This is what shall be done for the man whom the king desires to honor."

¹²Then Mordecai returned to the king's gate. But Haman hurried to his [own] house, mourning and with his head covered [in sorrow].

¹³Then Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise counselors and his wife Zeresh said to him, “If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall in status, is of Jewish heritage, you will not overcome him, but will certainly fall before him.”

¹⁴While they were still speaking with him, the king’s eunuchs (attendants) arrived and hurriedly brought Haman to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

7 SO THE king and Haman came to drink wine with Esther the queen.

²And the king said to Esther on the second day also as they drank their wine, “What is your petition, Queen Esther? It shall be granted to you. And what is your request? Even to half of the kingdom, it shall be done.”

³Then Queen Esther replied, “If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be spared as my petition, and my people [be spared] as my request;

⁴for we have been sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, killed and wiped out of existence. Now if we had only been sold as slaves, men and women, I would have remained silent, for our hardship would not be sufficient to burden the king [by even mentioning it].”

⁵Then King Ahasuerus (Xerxes) asked Queen Esther, “Who is he, and where is he, who dares to do such a thing?”

⁶Esther said, “An adversary and an enemy is Haman, this evil man.” Then Haman became terrified before the king and queen.

⁷Then in his fury, the king stood up from drinking wine and went into the palace garden [to decide what he should do]; but Haman stayed to plead for his life from Queen Esther, for he saw that harm had been determined against him by the king.

⁸When the king returned from the palace garden to the place where they were drinking wine, Haman was falling on the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, “Will he even attempt to assault the queen with me in the palace?” As the king spoke those words, the servants covered Haman’s face [in preparation for execution].

¹⁰So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king’s anger subsided.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

See Opposition as an Opportunity

In the royal court of the Persian King Ahasuerus, Haman wielded great power and pushed through an edict to destroy the entire people of Israel. It took Esther's courage to expose Haman to the king as "an adversary and an enemy... this evil man," thereby defeating his wicked plan and ultimately benefiting the Jewish people (Esth. 7:6).

Anyone who wishes to go through life without any opposition is in for a huge disappointment. When God calls us to do something, opposition can actually benefit us, because it forces us to choose to either use our faith and stand firm in Christ or give up. Each time we make the right choice, we make it a little more difficult for the devil to deceive us the next time. He will never stop trying, but we do get better and better at recognizing his attacks and standing against them.

God has equipped and anointed us to do hard things. He allows us to go through difficulty to bring glory to Him. He desires to show Himself strong through us. He told Paul that His strength is made perfect in our weakness (see 2 Cor. 12:9).

We may think we can't make it through difficulty, but those thoughts are inaccurate, according to God's Word. He has promised to never allow more to come on us than we can bear (see 1 Cor. 10:13).

During life's difficulties, a thought that usually persists is, I can't do this; it is just too much; it is too hard. Watch out for that type of thinking, and when you recognize it, remember that it is a lie and replace it with your own God-inspired thought that goes something like this: I can do what I need to do because God is with me. This winter season in my life will be over and spring will come.

Perhaps you need to see yourself in a new way. If you are easily disappointed or discouraged, or if you tend to give up easily, realize that you are not alone in your battles. As a matter of fact, your battles belong to the Lord, and He will fight for you as you continue to trust Him. See yourself in Christ, walking with Him in your life instead of being weak and alone and defeated by the enemy.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Victorious God, You have promised to always lead me in triumph through Christ Jesus. Forgive me for the many times I've yielded to opposition. Thank You that my battles belong to You and You are fighting for me. In Jesus' name. Amen.

8 ON THAT day King Ahasuerus (Xerxes) gave the house of Haman, the enemy of the Jews, to Queen Esther; and Mordecai came before the king, because Esther had disclosed what [relation] he was to her.

²The king took off his signet ring which he had taken away from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. And Esther put Mordecai in charge of the house of Haman.

³Then Esther spoke again to the king and fell down at his feet and wept and implored him to avert the evil plot of Haman the Agagite and his plan which he had devised against the Jews [because the decree to annihilate the Jews was still in effect].

⁴Then the king held out to Esther the golden scepter. So Esther arose and stood before the king.

⁵Then she said, “If it pleases the king and if I have found favor before him and the matter is proper in the king’s view and I am pleasing in his sight, let it be written to revoke the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, which he wrote [in order] to destroy the Jews who are in all the king’s provinces.

⁶“For how can I endure to see the tragedy that will happen to my people? Or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?”

⁷Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, “Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and they have hanged him on the gallows because he stretched out his hand against the Jews.

⁸“Also, concerning the Jews, write as you see fit, in the king’s name, and seal it with the king’s signet ring—for a decree which is written in the king’s name and sealed with the king’s signet ring may not be revoked.”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Choose Hope

In Esther 8:3, Esther once again begged the king to spare her people, the Jews, from Haman's plot to destroy them. The reason Esther had the courage to speak up one more time was that she never gave up hope that her people could be saved. Haman's plan seemed destined to move forward, but Esther kept fighting.

At times we all have to fight for hope. The enemy may surround us with people who are plotting wickedness, as Haman was, or with circumstances that are frightening or painful, but God's Word teaches us that He surrounds us with His presence and with many good things. Psalm 32:7 says, "You are my hiding place; You, LORD, protect me from trouble; You surround me with songs and shouts of deliverance." Psalm 125:2 says, "As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds His people from this time forth and forever."

If you've been surrounded by negativity, doubt, uncertainty, worry, or disappointment in your life, it is time for a change. You don't have to let those things rule your life any longer. You can change your environment; you can live in hope instead of fear or despair. Even before you see a change in your situation, you can experience a change in your heart. No matter how daunting the challenge you may be facing, you can be like Esther and choose hope.

POWERPOINT

By putting her own life on the line in these extraordinarily difficult situations, Esther worshiped God. Whenever we obey God, whether or not we understand all the whys, it is a type of worship that God cannot ignore. When we stand firm in faith and continue to worship, we will always see the enemy's plan for evil in our lives work for good and to his demise.

⁹So the king's scribes were called at that time in the third month (that is, the month of Sivan) on the twenty-third day; and it was written in accordance with everything that Mordecai commanded, to the Jews, to the chief rulers (satraps), and the governors and officials of the provinces which extended from India to Ethiopia (Cush), 127 provinces, to every province in its own script (writing), and to every people in their own language and to the Jews according to their script and their language.

¹⁰He wrote [a decree] in the name of King Ahasuerus, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by couriers on horseback, riding on the royal [mail] relay horses, the offspring of the racing mares.

¹¹In it the king granted the Jews who were in every city the right to assemble and to defend their lives; to destroy, to kill, and to annihilate any armed force that might attack them, their little children, and women; and to take the enemies' goods as plunder,

¹²on one day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, the thirteenth [day] of the twelfth month (that is, the month of Adar).

¹³A copy of the edict was to be issued as a law in every province and as a proclamation to all peoples, so that the Jews would be ready on that day, to avenge themselves on their enemies.

¹⁴So the couriers, who were mounted on the royal relay horses, left quickly, urged on by the king's command; and the decree was issued at the citadel in Susa [the capital].

¹⁵Then Mordecai departed from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, with a large crown of gold and with a robe of fine linen and purple wool; and the city of Susa shouted and rejoiced.

¹⁶For [at this time] the Jews had light [a dawn of new hope] and gladness and joy and honor.

¹⁷In each and every province and in each and every city, wherever the king's command and his decree arrived, the Jews celebrated with gladness and joy, a feast and a holiday. And many among the peoples of the land became Jews, for the fear of the Jews [and their God] had fallen on them.

9 NOW IN the twelfth month (that is, the month of Adar) on the thirteenth day when the king's command and edict were about to be executed, on the [very] day when the enemies of the Jews had hoped to gain power over them [and slaughter them], it happened the other way around so that the Jews themselves gained power over those who hated them.

²The Jews assembled in their cities throughout the provinces of King Ahasuerus (Xerxes) to apprehend those who wanted to do them harm; and no one could stand before them, for the fear of them [and their God] had fallen on all the peoples.

³Even all the officials of the provinces and the chief rulers (satraps) and the governors and those who attended to the king's business supported the Jews [in defeating their enemies], because the fear of Mordecai [and his God's power] had fallen on them.

⁴For Mordecai was great and respected in the king's palace, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces; for the man Mordecai became greater and greater.

⁵So the Jews struck all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying them; and they did what they pleased to those who hated them.

⁶At the citadel in Susa the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men,

⁷and [they killed] Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,

⁸Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,

⁹Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha,

¹⁰the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Jews' enemy; but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

¹¹On that day the number of those who were killed at the citadel in Susa was reported to the king.

¹²The king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men and the ten sons of Haman at the citadel in Susa. What then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is your petition? It shall be granted to you. What is your further request? It shall also be done."

¹³Esther replied, "If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Susa to act tomorrow also in accordance with the decree of today; and let [the dead bodies of] Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows." [Esth 9:10]

¹⁴So the king commanded it to be done; the decree was given in Susa, and they hanged [the bodies of] Haman's ten sons.

¹⁵The Jews who were in Susa also gathered together on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and killed three hundred men in Susa, but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

¹⁶Now the rest of the Jews who were in the king's provinces assembled, to defend their lives and rid themselves of their enemies, and kill 75,000 of those who hated them; but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

¹⁷*This was done* on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, and on the fourteenth day they rested and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

¹⁸But the Jews who were in Susa assembled on the thirteenth and on the fourteenth of the same month, and on the fifteenth day they rested and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

¹⁹Therefore the Jews of the villages, who live in the rural [unwalled] towns, make the fourteenth day of the month of Adar a holiday for rejoicing and feasting and sending choice portions offood to one another.

²⁰Now Mordecai recorded these events, and he sent letters to all the Jews who lived in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far,

²¹obliging them to celebrate the fourteenth day of the month of Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same month, annually, ²²because on those days the Jews rid themselves of their enemies, and as the month which was turned for them from grief to joy and from mourning into a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and rejoicing and sending choice portions offood to one another and gifts to the poor.

²³So the Jews undertook what they had started to do, and what Mordecai had written to them.

²⁴For Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, [to find the right time] to disturb and destroy them.

²⁵But when it came before the king, he commanded in writing that Haman's wicked scheme which he had devised against the Jews was to return on his own head, and that he and his sons should [endure what he planned for the Jews and] be hanged on the gallows.

²⁶Therefore they called these days Purim after the name Pur (lot). And because of all the instructions in this letter, and what they had faced in this regard and what had happened to them, ²⁷the Jews established and made it a custom for themselves and for their descendants and for all who joined them, so that they would not fail to celebrate these two days as it was written and at the appointed time annually.

²⁸So these days were to be remembered and celebrated throughout every generation, every family, every province and every city; and these days of Purim were not to cease from among the Jews, nor their memory fade from their descendants.

POWERPOINT

While Mordecai did receive honor and position at the end of the story, he first had to be willing to sacrifice everything to save his people. He never sought a position for himself but simply lived his life in obedience to God's purposes. Take your position as Mordecai did. Don't give up. Stand still, trust God, and see the salvation He has planned for you.

²⁹Then Queen Esther, the daughter of Abihail, with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full power and authority to confirm this second letter about Purim.

³⁰He sent letters to all the Jews, to the 127 provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, in words of peace and truth,

³¹to establish these days of Purim [to be observed] at their appointed times, just as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had established for them, and as they had established for themselves and for their descendants with instructions regarding their times of fasting and their lamentations (expressions of needing help).

³²The command of Esther established these customs for Purim, and it was written in the book [of the royal archives].

10 KING AHASUERUS (Xerxes) imposed a tax on the land and on the coastlands of the sea.

²And all the accomplishments of his authority and strength, and the full account of the greatness of Mordecai to which the king had raised him, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Media and Persia?

³For Mordecai the Jew was second only to King Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews and in favor with his many fellow people, for he worked for the good of his people and spoke for the welfare and peace of his whole nation.

Job

Author: | Uncertain
Date: | Probably
originally in the second millennium BC, but put into its present form around the time of Solomon

If there's ever a time when the battles of the mind are especially intense, it's when we are going through difficulties or situations we do not understand. This is exactly what happened to Job. He was a godly man, but the Lord allowed him to suffer. As he went through tremendous hardships, the enemy tried to make him believe all kinds of lies, using his friends to try to convince him he had sinned and was being punished and that God must not have truly loved him. I am sure that he fought a fierce battle of the mind, but he stood firm in his faith and came through it victorious.

When the enemy attacks you through your own thoughts or the words of others, let me encourage you to follow Job's example and keep your faith strong, stand on God's Word, and persevere until the victory comes.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM JOB:

Sometimes God allows adversity to come against His people (see Job 1:8–12), but He also promises to work it out for our good (see Romans 8:28).

Regardless of the hardships you may endure, you can determine not to sin with your lips or to speak against God (see Job 2:10).

No matter what happens, never lose your hope in God. Continue to praise Him through good situations and difficult ones (see Job 13:15).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM JOB:

You will laugh at violence and famine, and you will not be afraid of the wild beasts of the earth. | Job 5:22

For I know that my Redeemer and Vindicator lives, and at the last He will take His stand upon the earth. Even after my [mortal] skin is destroyed [by death], yet from my [immortal] flesh I will see God. | Job 19:25–26

Then Job answered the LORD and said, “I know that You can do all things, and that no thought or purpose of Yours can be restrained.” | Job 42:1–2

THE BOOK OF

JOB

1 THERE WAS a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job; and that man was blameless and upright, and one who feared God [with reverence] and abstained from and turned away from evil [because he honored God].

²Seven sons and three daughters were born to him.

³He also possessed 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 yoke (pairs) of oxen, 500 female donkeys, and a very great number of servants, so that this man was the greatest [and wealthiest and most respected] of all the men of the east (northern Arabia).

⁴His sons used to go [in turn] and feast in the house of each one on his day, and they would send word and invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them. [Gen 21:8; 40:20]

⁵When the days of their feasting were over, Job would send [for them] and consecrate them, rising early in the morning and offering burnt offerings according to the number of them all; for Job said, "It may be that my sons have sinned and cursed God in their hearts." Job did this at all [such] times.

⁶Now there was a day when the sons of God (angels) came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan (adversary, accuser) also came among them. [Rev 12:10]

⁷The LORD said to Satan, “From where have you come?” Then Satan answered the LORD, “From roaming around on the earth and from walking around on it.”

⁸The LORD said to Satan, “Have you considered and reflected on My servant Job? For there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God [with reverence] and abstains from and turns away from evil [because he honors God].”

⁹Then Satan answered the LORD, “Does Job fear God for nothing?

¹⁰“Have You not put a hedge [of protection] around him and his house and all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands [and conferred prosperity and happiness upon him], and his possessions have increased in the land.

¹¹“But put forth Your hand now and touch (destroy) all that he has, and he will surely curse You to Your face.”

¹²Then the LORD said to Satan, “Behold, all that Job has is in your power, only do not put your hand on the man himself.” So Satan departed from the presence of the LORD.

¹³Now there was a day when Job’s sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother’s house, ¹⁴and a messenger came to Job and said, “The oxen were plowing and the donkeys were feeding beside them, ¹⁵and the Sabeans attacked and swooped down on them and took away the animals. They also killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

¹⁶While he was still speaking, another [messenger] also came and said, “The fire of God (lightning) has fallen from the heavens and has burned up the sheep and the servants and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

POWERPOINT

Our warfare is not with other human beings but with the devil and his demons. Our enemy, Satan, attempts to defeat us with strategy and deceit, through well-laid plans and deliberate deception. He begins with bombarding our minds with a cleverly devised pattern of thoughts, suspicions, doubts, fears, wonderings, reasoning, and theories. He moves slowly and cautiously. He has studied us for a long time, and he has a strategy for warfare against us. When we are aware of his tactics, we can resist him.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Never Give in to the Enemy

Satan hates those who love God passionately and serve Him wholeheartedly; and he desires to bring suffering into their lives, hoping that they will blame God and no longer want to serve Him. Any thought of God being anything but good is an evil thought from Satan and should be firmly resisted. God is not the source of our difficulties in life. We do not war against flesh and blood, but with principalities and powers and wickedness in heavenly places (see Eph. 6:12).

In Job 1:9–11, the enemy actually tried to accuse God of bribing Job into serving Him. “Then Satan answered the LORD, ‘Does Job fear God for nothing? Have You not put a hedge [of protection] around him and his house and all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands [and conferred prosperity and happiness upon him], and his possessions have increased in the land. But put forth Your hand now and touch (destroy) all that he has, and he will surely curse You to Your face.’”

Job did not give in to the devil despite one hardship after another, including the devil's using his wife and friends to beg him to give up. Job was spiritually strong and never gave up, even in the midst of great tragedy and personal suffering, because he had truly sought God more than he sought His gifts. For Job, God was always first! He enjoyed the things God had given Him, but God was more important to him than what he owned.

The Lord delights in giving His children good things—but only if you seek Him first. When Solomon asked for wisdom, God not only gave him wisdom, He commended him for not asking for long life or riches. And because he didn't ask for those things, God said, "I'm going to give them to you anyway" (see 1 Kin. 3:5, 9–13). That's the generous way the Lord works. When we seek only His gifts, we may receive those gifts, but we may also get an empty life. Or worse, Satan may even advance. When we seek the Lord, He gives generously, and we experience closeness with God and enjoy blessings.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Great and mighty God, forgive me for anytime I let Your gifts become more important to me than You are. Use me for Your honor and glory and let my life be pleasing to You. In Jesus' name. Amen.

¹⁷While he was still speaking, another [messenger] also came and said, “The Chaldeans formed three bands and made a raid on the camels and have taken them away and have killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

¹⁸While he was still speaking, another [messenger] also came and said, “Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother’s house, ¹⁹and suddenly, a great wind came from across the desert, and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young people and they died, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

²⁰Then Job got up and tore his robe and shaved his head [in mourning for the children], and he fell to the ground and worshiped [God].

²¹He said,

“Naked (without possessions) I came [into this world] from my mother’s womb,

And naked I will return there.

The LORD gave and the LORD has taken away; Blessed be the name of the LORD.”

²²Through all this Job did not sin nor did he blame God.

2 AGAIN THERE was a day when the sons of God (angels) came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan (adversary, accuser) also came among them to present himself before the LORD.

²The LORD said to Satan, “From where have you come?” Then Satan answered the LORD, “From roaming around on the earth and from walking around on it.”

³The LORD said to Satan, “Have you considered and reflected on My servant Job? For there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God [with reverence] and abstains from and turns away from evil [because he honors God]. And still he maintains and holds tightly to his integrity, although you incited Me against him to destroy him without cause.”

⁴Satan answered the LORD, “Skin for skin! Yes, a man will give all he has for his life.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Trusting God with Unanswered Questions

Part of trusting God is having peace with unanswered questions. Job continued to trust God despite the severest of trials and a list of unanswered questions, even when his wife told him to curse God and die (see Job 2:9). God could have given Job all the answers to everything, but He didn't because He wanted Job to trust Him even in the midst of unimaginable suffering.

Have you ever said, "There's nothing we can do but trust God"? Like it's your last-ditch effort—you've done everything else and now you're left with no other choice. We need to change the way we talk. We need to realize trusting God is the greatest privilege we have. What an honor to be able to say, "No matter what kind of problem I have in my life, I get to trust God!" God wants to take care of you, but He doesn't start until you stop. Retire from self-care, and start trusting God. Don't merely trust Him for things, but trust Him in things—even in difficult things you don't understand.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Healthy Kind of Grief

The word grief refers to “deep mental anguish, as over a loss: sorrow.” To grieve is “to feel grief”—that is, to experience mental anguish, to be sorrowful, to mourn, to be distressed.

The grieving process is necessary and healthy—mentally, emotionally, and even physically (see Job 2:13). A person who refuses to grieve is often in denial, not facing reality, which will ultimately have a devastating effect on his or her entire being.

A spirit of grief is another matter entirely. If not resisted, it will take over and destroy the life of the one who has suffered a loss. If not confronted and controlled, it will rob health, strength, and vitality—and even life itself. Let me give you an example.

A friend of mine lost her son to leukemia and was definitely going through the process of grief, and rightfully so. However, she told me that one day when she began to think about her son, she suddenly felt something wrap itself around her. It made her feel gloomy and sad, and she could feel herself almost wanting to “sink” into it.

God gave her the spirit of discernment that it was a spirit of grief trying to oppress her. She grabbed one of her son’s shirts, wrapped it around herself, and declared that she was using it as a “garment of praise” (Isa. 61:3). Rather than open the door for major long-term problems, she confronted and dealt with the oppressive spirit of grief until it left.

⁵“But put forth Your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh [and severely afflict him]; and he will curse You to Your face.”

⁶So the LORD said to Satan, “Behold, he is in your hand, only spare his life.”

⁷So Satan departed from the presence of the LORD and struck Job with loathsome boils and agonizingly painful sores from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head.

⁸And Job took a piece of broken pottery with which to scrape himself, and he sat [down] among the ashes (rubbish heaps).

⁹Then his wife said to him, “Do you still cling to your integrity [and your faith and trust in God, without blaming Him]? Curse God and die!”

¹⁰But he said to her, “You speak as one of the [spiritually] foolish women speaks [ignorant and oblivious to God’s will]. Shall we indeed accept [only] good from God and not [also] accept adversity and disaster?” In [spite of] all this Job did not sin with [words from] his lips.

¹¹Now when Job’s three friends heard of all this adversity that had come upon him, each one came from his own place, Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite; for they had made an appointment together to come to sympathize with him and to comfort him.

¹²When they looked from a distance and did not recognize him [because of his disfigurement], they raised their voices and wept; and each one tore his robe [in grief] and they threw dust over their heads toward the sky [in sorrow].

¹³So they sat down on the ground with Job for seven days and seven nights and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his pain was very great.

3 AFTER THIS, Job opened his mouth and cursed the day of his birth.

²And Job said,

³“Let the day on which I was born perish,
And the night which announced: ‘There is a man-child conceived.’

⁴“May that day be darkness;
Let God above not care about it,
Nor light shine on it.

⁵“Let darkness and gloom claim it for their own;
Let a cloud settle upon it;
Let all that blackens the day terrify it (the day that I was born).

⁶“As for that night, let darkness seize it;
Let it not rejoice among the days of the year;
Let it not be counted in the number of the months.

⁷“Behold, let that night be barren [and empty];
Let no joyful voice enter it.

⁸“Let those curse it who curse the day,
Who are skilled in rousing up Leviathan.

- 9“Let the stars of its early dawn be dark;
Let the morning wait in vain for the light,
Let it not see the eyelids of morning (the day’s dawning),
- 10Because it did not shut the doors of my mother’s womb,
Nor hide trouble from my eyes.
- 11“Why did I not die at birth,
Come forth from the womb and expire?
- 12“Why did the knees receive me?
And why the breasts, that I would nurse?
- 13“For now I would have lain down and been quiet;
I would have slept then, I would have been at rest [in death],
- 14With kings and counselors of the earth,
Who built up [now desolate] ruins for themselves;
- 15Or with princes who had gold,
Who filled their houses with silver.
- 16“Or like a miscarriage which is hidden and put away, I would not exist, Like infants who never saw light.

POWERPOINT

In Job 3:25, Job said that the thing he greatly feared had come upon him. Anytime we feel great fear, it is an opportunity for great faith. Is there a situation that causes you to be unusually afraid? Pray and ask God to replace your fear with faith in His love and power.

- 17“There [in death] the wicked cease from raging,
And there the weary are at rest.
- 18“There the prisoners rest together;
They do not hear the taskmaster’s voice.
- 19““The small and the great are there,
And the servant is free from his master. [Jer 20:14–18]
- 20““Why is the light given to him who is in misery,
And life to the bitter in soul,
- 21“Who wait for death, but it does not come,

And dig (search) for death more [diligently] than for hidden treasures,

²²Who rejoice exceedingly,
And rejoice when they find the grave?

²³*“Why is the light of day given to a man whose way is hidden,
And whom God has hedged in?*

²⁴*“For my groaning comes at the sight of my food,
And my cries [of despair] are poured out like water.*

²⁵*“For the thing which I greatly fear comes upon me,
And that of which I am afraid has come upon me.*

²⁶*“I am not at ease, nor am I quiet,
And I am not at rest, and yet trouble still comes [upon me].”*

4 THEN ELIPHAZ the Temanite answered and said, ²“If we dare to converse with you, will you be impatient [or offended]?
But who can restrain himself from speaking?

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Seeds Ultimately Produce a Harvest

We can see a tomato seed with our eyes and understand the process of planting and expecting a harvest of tomatoes. We cannot see attitudes, thoughts, or words, but they are seeds that operate in the spiritual (unseen) realm, and they also produce a harvest based on what was planted.

People who continually sow negative thoughts, attitudes, and words will produce many negative results in life (see Job 4:8). Likewise, those who sow positive, life-filled thoughts, attitudes, and words will see positive and good results.

You wouldn't plant a tomato seed and expect to harvest broccoli; likewise you shouldn't hope to reap a good harvest if you plant negative-word seeds. Once you truly understand this principle and act on it accordingly, you can change your words and therefore change your life.

3“Behold, you have admonished and instructed many,
And you have strengthened weak hands.

4“Your words have helped the one who was stumbling to stand,
And you have strengthened feeble knees.

5“But now adversity comes upon you, and you are impatient and intolerant; It touches you, and you are horrified.

- 6“Is not your fear of God your confidence,
And [is not] the integrity and uprightness of your ways your hope?
- 7“Remember now, who, being innocent, ever perished?
Or where [and in what circumstances] were those upright and in right standing with God destroyed?
- 8“As I have seen, those who plow wickedness
And those who sow trouble and harm harvest it.
- 9“By the breath of God they perish,
And by the blast of His anger they are consumed.
- 10““The roaring of the lion and the voice of the fierce lion,
And the teeth of the young lions are broken.
- 11““The lion perishes for lack of prey,
And the cubs of the lioness are scattered.
- 12““Now a word was secretly brought to me,
And my ear received a whisper of it.
- 13““Amid disquieting thoughts from the visions of the night,
When deep sleep falls on men,
- 14“Dread and trembling came upon me,
Which made all my bones shake.
- 15““Then a spirit passed before my face;
The hair on my skin stood on end!
- 16““The spirit stood still, but I could not discern its appearance;
A form was before my eyes;
There was silence, and then I heard a voice, saying:

17‘Can [mortal] man be just before God or be more righteous than He?

Can a man be pure before his Maker or be more cleansed than He? [1 John 1:7; Rev 1:5]

18‘God puts no trust or confidence, even in His [heavenly] servants,

And He charges His angels with error.

19‘How much more [will He blame and charge] those who dwell in houses (bodies) of clay, Whose foundations are in the dust,

Who are crushed like a moth.

20‘Between morning and evening they are broken in pieces and destroyed; Unobserved and unnoticed, they perish forever.

21‘Is not their tent-cord drawn up within them [so that the tent collapses]?

Do they not die, and yet without [acquiring] wisdom?’

5 “CALL NOW—is there anyone who will answer you?

And to which of the holy ones (angels) will you turn?

2‘For anger slays the foolish man,

And jealousy kills the simple (naive).

3‘I have seen the foolish taking root [and outwardly prospering],

But I cursed his dwelling immediately [for his destruction was certain].

- 4“His children are far from safety [and included in their father’s ruin],
They are oppressed and crushed in the [court of justice in the city’s] gate,
And there is no one to rescue them.
- 5“‘The hungry devour his harvest
And take it even [when it grows] among the thorns;
The trap opens for [his] wealth.
- 6“‘For affliction does not come forth from the dust,
Nor does trouble spring forth from the ground.
- 7“‘For man is born for trouble,
[As naturally] as sparks fly upward.
- 8“‘As for me, I would seek God and inquire of Him,
And I would commit my cause to God;
- 9Who does great and unsearchable things,
Marvelous things without number.
- 10“‘He gives rain upon the earth
And sends waters upon the fields,
- 11So that He sets on high those who are lowly,
And He lifts to safety those who mourn.
- 12“‘He frustrates the devices and schemes of the crafty,
So that their hands cannot attain success or achieve anything of [lasting] worth.

A Prayer To

Renew Your Mind

As for me, God, I seek You and inquire of You. I commit my cause to You. You do great and unsearchable things, marvelous things without number.

• adapted from Job 5:8–9

- ¹³“He catches the [so-called] wise in their own shrewdness,
And the advice of the devious is quickly thwarted. [1 Cor
3:19, 20]
- ¹⁴“In the daytime they meet in darkness,
And at noon they grope as in the night.
- ¹⁵“But God saves [the innocent] from the sword of the mouth of the devious,
And the poor from the hand of the mighty.
- ¹⁶“So the helpless have hope,
And injustice shuts its mouth.
- ¹⁷“Behold, how happy and fortunate is the man whom God

reproves,

So do not despise or reject the discipline of the Almighty [subjecting you to trial and suffering].

18“For He inflicts pain, but He binds up and gives relief;
He wounds, but His hands also heal.

19“He will rescue you from six troubles;
Even in seven, evil will not touch you.

20“In famine He will redeem you from death,
And in war from the power of the sword.

21“*You will be hidden from the scourge of the tongue,
And you will not be afraid of destruction when it comes.*

22“*You will laugh at violence and famine,
And you will not be afraid of the wild beasts of the earth.*

23“*For you will be in harmony with the stones of the field,
And the beasts of the field will be at peace with you.*

24“*You will know also that your tent is secure and at peace,
And you will visit your dwelling and fear no loss [nor find anything amiss].*

25“*You will know also that your descendants will be many,
And your offspring as the grass of the earth.*

26“*You will come to your grave in old age,
Like the stacking of grain [on the threshing floor] in its season.*

27“*Behold this; we have investigated it, and it is true.
Hear and heed it, and know for yourself [for your own good].”*

6 THEN JOB answered and said, ²“Oh, that my grief could actually be weighed

And placed in the balances together with my tragedy [to see if my grief is the grief of a coward]!

³“For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea;
Therefore my words have been incoherent,

⁴Because the arrows of the Almighty are within me,
My spirit drinks their poison;
The terrors of God are arrayed against me.

⁵“Does the wild donkey bray when he has grass?
Or does the ox low over his fodder?

⁶“Can something that has no taste to it be eaten without salt?

Or is there any flavor in the white of an egg?

⁷“My soul refuses to touch them;
Such things are like loathsome food to me [sickening and repugnant].

⁸“Oh that my request would come to pass,
And that God would grant me the thing that I long for!

⁹“I wish that it would please God to crush me,
That He would let loose His hand and cut me off.

¹⁰“Then I would still have consolation,
And I would jump for joy amid unsparing pain,
That I have not denied or hidden the words of the Holy One.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Prayers of Petition

The prayer of petition offered in Job 6:8 is by far the most often used type of prayer. When we petition God, we ask for something for ourselves. Another word for petition is requisition. It is a demand or request made on something to which a person is legally entitled but not yet in possession of, as in the military when an officer requisitions equipment or supplies for his men. As an officer of the United States Army, he is entitled to that material, but in order to receive it he has to submit a definite request for it.

When we come to the Lord with a petition, we are requisitioning from Him what He has already set aside to provide for us when the need arises. For that reason, we frequently exercise our right to petition God. It is, of course, not wrong to ask God to do things for us, but our petitions should be well balanced with praise and thanksgiving.

We can be bold in petitioning God for any type of need in our lives. We are not restricted to a certain number of requests per day. We can feel at ease talking to God about anything that concerns us, because He already knows what we need before we ask (see Matt. 6:8).

¹¹“What strength do I have left, that I should wait [and hope]?”

And what is ahead of me, that I should be patient and endure?

12“Is my strength and endurance that of stones,
Or is my flesh made of bronze?

13“Is it that I have no help within myself,
And that success and wisdom have been driven from me?

14“For the despairing man there should be kindness from his friend;
So that he does not abandon (turn away from) the fear of the Almighty.

15“My brothers have acted deceitfully like a brook,
Like the torrents of brooks that vanish,

16Which are dull and dirty because of ice,
And into which the snow melts and hides itself;

17When it is warm, they are silent and cease to flow;
When it is hot, they vanish from their place.

18“The paths of their course wind along,
They go up into nothing and perish.
[Your counsel is as helpful to me as a dry streambed in the heat of summer.]

19““The caravans of Tema looked [for water],
The caravans of Sheba waited for them [in vain].

20““They were put to shame and disappointed because they had trusted [that they would find water]; They came there and were ashamed.

21““Indeed, you have now become like a dried-up stream,
You see a terror [believing me to be a victim of the wrath of God] and are afraid [to be compassionate].

22“Did I ever say, ‘Give me something,’

Or, ‘Pay a bribe for me from your wealth,’

23Or, ‘Rescue me from the adversary’s hand,’

Or, ‘Redeem me from the hand of the tyrants’?

24“Teach me, and I will be silent;

And show me how I have erred.

25“How painful are words of honesty.

But what does your argument prove?

26“Do you intend to reprove my words [with a convincing argument],

When the words of one in despair belong to the wind [and go ignored]?

27“‘You would cast lots (gamble) over the fatherless

And bargain away your friend.

28“Now please look at me,

And see if I lie to your face [for you know that I would not].

29“Turn away [from your suspicion], let there be no injustice;

Turn away, my righteousness and vindication is still in it.

30“Is there injustice or malice on my tongue?

Can my palate not discern what is destructive?

1 “IS NOT man forced to labor on earth?

And are not his days like the days of a hired man?

2“As a slave earnestly longs for the shade,

- And as a hired man eagerly awaits his wages,
3 So am I allotted months of futility and suffering,
And [long] nights of trouble and misery are appointed to
me.
- 4 “When I lie down I say,
‘When shall I arise [and the night be gone]?’
But the night continues,
And I am continually tossing until the dawning of day.
- 5 “My body is clothed with worms and a crust of dust;
My skin is hardened [and broken and loathsome], and [breaks out and] runs.
- 6 “My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle,
And are spent without hope.
- 7 “Remember that my life is but breath [a puff of wind, a sigh];
My eye will not see good again.
- 8 “The eye of him who sees me [now] will see me no more;
Your eyes will be upon me, but I will not be.
- 9 “As a cloud vanishes and is gone,
So he who goes down to Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead) does not come up.
- 10 “He will not return again to his house,
Nor will his place know about him anymore.
- 11 “Therefore I will not restrain my mouth;
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit,
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul [O Lord].
- 12 “Am I the sea, or the sea monster,

That You set a guard over me?

¹³“When I say, ‘My bed will comfort me,
My couch will ease my complaint,’

¹⁴Then You frighten me with dreams
And terrify me through visions,

¹⁵So that I would choose suffocation,
Death rather than my pain.

¹⁶“I waste away and loathe my life; I will not live forever.
Let me alone, for my days are but a breath [futile and without substance].

¹⁷“What is man that You [should] magnify him [and think him important]?
And that You are concerned about him? [Ps 8:4]

¹⁸“And that You examine him every morning
And try and test him every moment?

¹⁹“Will You never turn Your gaze away from me [it plagues
me],
Nor let me alone until I swallow my spittle?

²⁰“If I have sinned, what [harm] have I done to You,
O Watcher of mankind?
Why have You set me as a target for You,
So that I am a burden to myself?

²¹“Why then do You not pardon my transgression
And take away my sin and guilt?
For now I will lie down in the dust;
And You will seek me [diligently], but I will not be.”

8 THEN BILDAD the Shuhite answered and said, ²“How long will you say these things?

And will the words of your mouth be a mighty wind?

³“Does God pervert justice?

Or does the Almighty pervert righteousness?

⁴“If your children have sinned against Him,

Then He has handed them over to the power of their transgression and punished them.

⁵“If you would [diligently] seek God

And implore the compassion and favor of the Almighty,

⁶Then, if you are pure and upright,

Surely now He will awaken for you

And restore your righteous place.

⁷“Though your beginning was insignificant,

Yet your end will greatly increase.

⁸“Inquire, please, of past generations,

And consider and apply yourself to the things searched out by their fathers.

⁹“For we are only of yesterday and know nothing,

Because our days on earth are [like] a shadow [just a breath or a vapor].

¹⁰“Will they (the fathers) not teach you and tell you,

And utter words from their hearts [the deepest part of their nature]?

¹¹“Can the papyrus grow up without a marsh?

Can the rushes or reed grass grow without water?

12“While it is still green (in flower) and not cut down,
Yet it withers before any other plant [when without water].

13“So are the paths of all who forget God;
And the hope of the godless will perish,

14For his confidence is fragile and breaks,
And his trust is [like] a spider’s web.

15“He trusts in his house, but it does not stand;
He holds tightly to it, but it does not endure.

16“He thrives and prospers [like a green plant] before the sun,
And his branches spread out over his garden.

17“His [godless] roots are wrapped around a pile of rocks,
And he gazes at a house of stones.

18“If he is snatched from his place [in the garden],
Then his place will forget him, saying, ‘I have never seen
you.’

19“Behold, this is the joy of His way;
And from out of the dust others will spring up and grow [to take his place].

20“Behold, God will not reject a man of integrity,
Nor will He strengthen or support evildoers.

21“He will yet fill your mouth with laughter
And your lips with joyful shouting [if you are found blameless].

22“Those who hate you will be clothed with shame,
And the tents of the wicked will be no longer.”

9 THEN JOB answered and said, ²“Yes, I know it is true.

But how can a mortal man be right before God?

³“If one should want to contend or dispute with Him,
He could not answer Him once in a thousand times.

⁴“God is wise in heart and mighty in strength;
Who has [ever] defied or challenged Him and remained unharméd?

⁵“It is God who removes the mountains, and they do not know it,

When He overturns them in His anger;

⁶Who shakes the earth out of its place,
And its pillars tremble;

⁷Who commands the sun, and it does not shine;
Who seals up the stars [from view];

⁸Who alone stretches out the heavens
And tramples down the waves of the sea;

⁹Who made [the constellations] the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades,

And the [vast starry] spaces of the south;

¹⁰Who does great things, [beyond understanding,] unfathomable,

Yes, marvelous and wondrous things without number.

¹¹“Behold, He passes by me, and I do not see Him;
He moves past me, but I do not perceive Him.

¹²“Behold, He snatches away; who can restrain or turn Him back?

Who will say to Him, ‘What are You doing?’

- 13“God will not turn back His anger;
The [proud] helpers of Rahab [the arrogant monster of the sea] bow under Him.
- 14“How can I answer Him [and plead my case],
Choosing my words [to reason] with Him?
- 15For though I were righteous, I could not answer.
I must appeal for mercy to my Opponent and Judge.
- 16“If I called and He answered me,
I could not believe that He was listening to my voice.
- 17“For He bruises me with a tempest
And multiplies my wounds without cause.
- 18“He will not allow me to catch my breath,
But fills and saturates me with bitterness.
- 19“‘If it is a matter of strength and power, behold, He is mighty!
And if of justice, who can summon and challenge Him?
- 20“Though I am innocent and in the right, my own mouth would pronounce me guilty; Though I am blameless, He would denounce me as guilty.
- 21“[Though] I am blameless,
I do not care about myself;
I despise my life.
- 22“‘It is all one; therefore I say,
‘He destroys [both] the blameless and the wicked.’
- 23“‘When [His] scourge kills suddenly,

He mocks at the despair of the innocent.

24“The earth is given into the hands of the wicked;

He covers the faces of its judges [so that they are blind to justice].

If it is not He, then who is it [that is responsible for all this injustice]?

25“Now my days are swifter than a runner;

They vanish, they see no good.

26“They pass by like the [swift] boats made of reeds,

Like an eagle that swoops down on its prey.

27“‘If I say, ‘I will forget my complaint,

I will leave off my sad appearance, and be cheerful and brighten up,’

28I am afraid of all my pains and worries [yet to come];

I know that You will not acquit me and leave me unpunished.

29“‘I am accounted wicked and held guilty;

Why then should I labor in vain [to appear innocent]?

30“‘If I were to wash myself with snow

And cleanse my hands with lye,

31You would still plunge me into the pit,

And my own clothes would hate me [and refuse to cover my foul body].

32“‘For God is not a [mere] man, as I am, that I may answer Him,

That we may go to court and judgment together.

33“‘There is no arbitrator between us,

Who could lay his hand upon us both [would that there were]. [1 Tim 2:5]

34“Let Him take His rod away from me,
And let not the dread and fear of Him terrify me.

35“Then I would speak [my defense] and not fear Him;
But I am not like that in myself.

10 “I AM disgusted with my life and loathe it!

I will give free expression to my complaint;
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

2“I will say to God, ‘Do not condemn me [and declare me guilty]!
Show me why You contend and argue and struggle with me.

3“Does it indeed seem right to You to oppress,
To despise and reject the work of Your hands,
And to look with favor on the schemes of the wicked?

4“Do You have eyes of flesh?
Do You see as a man sees?

5“Are Your days as the days of a mortal,
Are Your years as man’s years,

6That You seek my guilt
And search for my sin?

7“Although You know that I am not guilty or wicked,
Yet there is no one who can rescue me from Your hand.

8“Your hands have formed and made me altogether.
Would You [turn around and] destroy me?

- 9^cRemember now, that You have made me as clay;
So will You turn me into dust again?
- 10^cHave You not poured me out like milk
And curdled me like cheese?
- 11^c[You have] clothed me with skin and flesh,
And knit me together with bones and sinews.
- 12^cYou have granted me life and lovingkindness;
And Your providence (divine care, supervision) has preserved my spirit.
- 13^cYet these [present evils] You have hidden in Your heart [since my creation]:
I know that this was within You [in Your purpose and thought].
- 14^cIf I sin, then You would take note and observe me,
And You would not acquit me of my guilt.
- 15^cIf I am wicked, woe to me [for judgment comes]!
And if I am righteous, I dare not lift up my head.
For I am sated and filled with disgrace and the sight of my misery.
- 16^cShould I lift my head up, You would hunt me like a lion;
And again You would show Your marvelous power against
me.
- 17^cYou renew Your witnesses against me
And increase Your indignation and anger toward me; Hardship after hardship is with me [attacking me time after time].
- 18^cWhy then did You bring me out of the womb?

- Would that I had perished and no eye had seen me!
19¹‘I should have been as though I had not existed;
[I should have been] carried from the womb to the grave.’
20²“Would He not let my few days alone,
Withdraw from me that I may have a little cheer
21³Before I go—and I shall not return—
To the land of darkness and the deep shadow [of death],
22⁴The [sunless] land of utter gloom as darkness itself,
[The land] of the shadow of death, without order,
And [where] it shines as [thick] darkness.”

11 THEN ZOPHAR the Naamathite answered and said,

- 2¹“Shall a multitude of words not be answered?
And should a talkative man [making such a long-winded defense] be acquitted?
3²“Should your boasts and babble silence men?
And shall you scoff and no one put you to shame?
4³“For you have said, ‘My teaching (doctrine) [that God knowingly afflicts the righteous] is pure, And I am innocent in your eyes.’ [Job 10:7]
5⁴“But oh, that God would speak,
And open His lips [to speak] against you,
6⁵And [that He would] show you the secrets of wisdom!
For sound wisdom has two sides.
Know therefore that God forgets a part of your wickedness and guilt.

⁷“Can you discover the depths of God?

Can you [by searching] discover the limits of the Almighty [ascend to His heights, extend to His widths, and comprehend His infinite perfection]?

⁸“His wisdom is as high as the heights of heaven. What can you do?

It is deeper than Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead). What can you know?

⁹“It is longer in measure [and scope] than the earth,
And broader than the sea.

¹⁰“If God passes by or arrests,
Or calls an assembly [of judgment], who can restrain Him?
[If He is against a man, who can call Him to account for it?]

Speak God's Word

I trust with confidence, because there is hope; I look around me and rest securely. I lie down with no one to frighten me.

| adapted from JOB 11:18–19 |

- ¹¹“For He recognizes and knows false and worthless men,
And He sees wickedness, will He not consider it?
- ¹²“But a hollow (empty-headed) man will become intelligent and wise
[Only] when the colt of a wild donkey is born as a man.
- ¹³“If you direct your heart [on the right path]
And stretch out your hands to Him,
- ¹⁴If sin is in your hand, put it far away [from you],
And do not let wrongdoing dwell in your tents;
- ¹⁵Then, indeed, you could lift up your face [to Him] without moral defect, And you would be firmly established and secure and not fear.
- ¹⁶“For you would forget your trouble;
You would remember it as waters that have passed by.

- 17“And your life would be brighter than the noonday;
Darkness [then] would be like the morning.
- 18“Then you would trust [with confidence], because there is hope;
You would look around you and rest securely.
- 19“*You would lie down with no one to frighten you,
And many would entreat and seek your favor.*
- 20“*But the eyes of the wicked will fail,
And they will not escape [the justice of God];
And their hope is to breathe their last [and die].”*

- 12 THEN JOB responded, ²“No doubt you are the [only wise] people [in the world],
And wisdom will die with you!
- ³“But I have intelligence and understanding as well as you;
I am not inferior to you.
Who does not know such things as these [of God’s wisdom and might]?
- ⁴“I am a joke to my friends;
I, one whom God answered when he called upon Him—
A just and blameless man is a joke [and laughed to scorn].
- ⁵“He who is at ease has contempt for misfortune,
But misfortune is ready [and anxiously waiting] for those whose feet slip.
- ⁶“The tents of the destroyers prosper;
And those who provoke God are [apparently] secure,

Whom God brings into their power.

⁷“Now ask the animals, and let them teach you [that God does not deal with His creatures according to their character]; And ask the birds of the air, and let them tell you;

⁸Or speak to the earth [with its many forms of life], and it will teach you;

And let the fish of the sea declare [this truth] to you.

⁹“Who among all these does not recognize [in all these things that good and evil are randomly scattered throughout nature and human life]

That the hand of the LORD has done this,

¹⁰In whose hand is the life of every living thing,
And the breath of all mankind?

¹¹“Does the ear not put words to the test,
Just as the palate tastes its food [distinguishing between the desirable and the undesirable]?

¹²“With the aged [you say] is wisdom,
And with long life is understanding.

¹³“But [only] with Him are [perfect] wisdom and might;
He [alone] has [true] counsel and understanding.

¹⁴“Behold, He tears down, and it cannot be rebuilt;
He imprisons a man, and there can be no release.

¹⁵“Behold, He restrains the waters, and they dry up;
Again, He sends the waters out, and they overwhelm and devastate the earth.

¹⁶“With Him are might and sound wisdom,

The misled and the misleader are His [and in His power].

17“He makes [great and scheming] counselors walk barefoot
And makes fools of judges.

18“He loosens the bond of kings
And binds their loins with a loincloth.

19“He makes priests walk barefoot,
And He overturns men firmly seated and secure.

20“He deprives the trusted ones of speech
And takes away the discernment and discretion of the aged.

21“He pours contempt on princes and nobles
And loosens the belt of the strong [disabling them].

22“He uncovers mysteries [that are difficult to grasp and understand] out of the darkness And brings black gloom and the shadow of death into light.

POWERPOINT

Job 12:22 reminds me of the years of my life that I spent in darkness, hiding from one thing or another. I had lived in darkness for such a long time that coming into the light was not easy as God began revealing issues that needed attention in my life. Knowing that God can change you makes it easier to face a truth about yourself when God is dealing with you. Once you begin to see the amazing things that God can do in and for you, you will be able to trust Him more and more.

23“He makes nations great, and He destroys them;
He enlarges nations, and leads them away [captive].

24“He removes intelligence and understanding from the leaders of the people of the earth And makes them wander and move blindly in a pathless waste.

25“They grope in darkness without light,
And He makes them stagger like a drunken man.”

13 [JOB CONTINUED:] “Behold, my eye has seen all this,
My ear has heard and understood it.

2“What you know I also know;
I am not inferior to you.

3“But I wish to speak to the Almighty,
And I desire to argue with God.

4“But you smear me with lies [you defame my character most untruthfully];
You are all worthless physicians and have no remedy to offer.

5“Oh, that you would be completely silent,
And that silence would be your wisdom!

6“Please hear my argument
And listen to the pleadings of my lips.

7“Will you speak what is unjust for God,
And speak what is deceitful for Him?

8“Will you show partiality for Him [and be unjust to me so that you may gain favor with Him]?
Will you contend and plead for God?

9“Will it be well for you when He investigates you [and your tactics against me]?

Or will you deceive Him as one deceives a man?

10“He will surely reprimand you

If you secretly show partiality.

11“Will not His majesty terrify you,

And will not the dread of Him fall upon you?

12“Your memorable sayings are [worthless, merely] proverbs of ashes;

Your defenses are defenses of [crumbling] clay.

13“Be silent before me so that I may speak;

And let happen to me what may.

14“Why should I take my flesh in my teeth

And put my life in my hands [incurring the wrath of God]?

15“Even though He kills me;

I will hope in Him.

Nevertheless, I will argue my ways to His face.

16“This also will be my salvation,

For a godless man may not come before Him.

17“Listen diligently to my speech,

And let my declaration fill your ears.

18“Behold now, I have prepared my case;

I know that I will be vindicated.

19“Who will argue and contend with me?

For then I would be silent and die.

20“Only [O Lord,] do not do two things to me,

And then I will not hide myself from Your face:

21Withdraw Your hand from me and remove this bodily

- suffering,
And let not the dread of You terrify me.
- 22“Then [Lord,] call, and I will answer;
Or let me speak, and then reply to me.
- 23“How many are my iniquities and sins [that so much sorrow should come to me]?
Make me recognize and understand my transgression and my sin. [Rom 8:1]
- 24“Why do You hide Your face [as if offended]
And consider me Your enemy?
- 25“Will You cause a windblown leaf to tremble?
Will You pursue the chaff of the dry stubble?
- 26“For You write bitter things against me [in Your indictment]
And make me inherit and suffer for the iniquities of my youth.
- 27““You also put my feet in the stocks [as punishment]
And [critically] observe all my paths;
You set a circle and limit around the soles of my feet [which I must not overstep], ²⁸While I waste away like a rotten thing,
Like a garment that is moth-eaten.

14 “MAN, WHO is born of a woman, Is short-lived and full of turmoil.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

When Does the Enemy Most Attack Our Thoughts?

For centuries, people have asked: “If God truly loves us, why is there suffering?” And they haven’t fully discovered the answer. God’s Word teaches us that we know in part. Only when Jesus returns, or when we go home to live with Him, will we understand all these things fully.

The reality is that throughout our lives, we will suffer at times. In the midst of those hardships, the Lord wants us to come to Him out of love, to turn to Him for help, and to be thankful as He answers our prayers and comforts us. The timing of our deliverance must be left with His wisdom. We can enjoy our lives during the difficulties if we believe that God is good and that He will take the painful thing and work good out of it for us.

The time between suffering and thanksgiving is when the devil attacks our thoughts intensely. “If God really loved you, you wouldn’t be going through this. You have served God for nothing. See, this is what happens when you really need help and trust God. He doesn't care about you."

This is where we need to stand firm. We can take courage from Job's story. Few of us have suffered as he did—he lost his children, his possessions, and his health. The enemy used the accusations of his so-called friends, accusations of hypocrisy and deception, to discourage him. However, Job refused to listen. He said, "Even though He kills me; I will hope in Him" (Job 13:15). He refused to allow Satan to attack his mind and make him question God. He didn't understand what God had done or was doing. But he did know that God was with him, and he never doubted God's love and presence.

That's the attitude we want—that calm assurance of God's love. We don't have to understand or be able to explain to others what is happening. If we suffer, we are privileged to walk the same paths as some of God's greatest saints. Suffering can and should end in thanksgiving, for "after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace [who imparts His blessing and favor], who called you to His own eternal glory in Christ, will Himself complete, confirm, strengthen, and establish you [making you what you ought to be]" (1 Pet. 5:10).

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Forgive me, God, for complaining when life gets hard. I don't want to suffer; and I don't like it when things go wrong. But I ask that You would help me to have a good attitude and to trust You to bring good out of it. Amen.

- 2“Like a flower he comes forth and withers;
He also flees like a shadow and does not remain.
- 3““You also open Your eyes upon him
And bring him into judgment with Yourself.
- 4““Who can make a clean thing out of the unclean?
No one! [Is 1:18; 1 John 1:7]
- 5““Since his days are determined,
The number of his months is with You [in Your control],
And You have made his limits so he cannot pass [his allotted time].
- 6““[O God] turn your gaze from him so that he may rest,
Until he fulfills his day [on earth] like a hired man.
- 7““For there is hope for a tree,
If it is cut down, that it will sprout again,
And that the shoots of it will not cease nor fail, [but there is no such hope for man].
- 8““Though its roots grow old in the earth
And its stump dies in the dry soil,
- 9““Yet at the scent of water [the stump of the tree] will flourish
And bring forth sprigs and shoots like a seedling.
- 10““But [the brave, strong] man must die and lie face down;
Man breathes his last, and where is he?
- 11““As water evaporates from the sea,
And a river drains and dries up,
- 12““So man lies down and does not rise [again].

Until the heavens are no longer,
The dead will not awake nor be raised from their sleep.

¹³“Oh, that You would hide me in Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead), That You would conceal me until Your wrath is past,

That You would set a definite time and then remember me
[and in Your lovingkindness imprint me on your heart]!

¹⁴“If a man dies, will he live again?

I will wait all the days of my struggle

Until my change and release will come. [John 5:25; 6:40; 1 Thess 4:16]

POWERPOINT

In Job 14:19, Job is frustrated.

It's hard to imagine anything more frustrating for Job than to suffer as he did and never know why. Frustration usually comes from trying to do something about a situation we cannot do anything about instead of waiting on the Lord to bring the answer. To pass the frustration test, we simply have to let go and trust God to do what only He can do.

15“[Then] You will call, and I will answer You;
You will long for [me] the work of Your hands.

16“But now You number [each of] my steps;
You do not observe nor take note of my sin.

17“My transgression is sealed up in a bag,
And You cover my wickedness [from Your view].

- 18“But as a mountain, if it falls, crumbles into nothing,
And as the rock is moved from its place,
19Water wears away the stones,
Its floods and torrents wash away the soil of the earth,
So You [O Lord] destroy the hope of man.
20“You prevail forever against him and overpower him, and he passes on; You change his appearance and send him away [from the presence of the living].
21“His sons achieve honor, and he does not know it;
They become insignificant, and he is not aware of it.
22“But his body [lamenting its decay] grieves in pain over it,
And his soul mourns over [the loss of] himself.”

15 THEN ELIPHAZ the Temanite answered [Job] and said,

- 2“Should a wise man [such as you] utter such windy and vain knowledge [as we have just heard]
And fill himself with the east wind [of withering, parching, and violent accusations]?
3“Should he rebuke and argue with useless talk?
Or with words in which there is no benefit?
4“Indeed, you are doing away with fear,
And you are diminishing meditation before God.
5“For your guilt teaches your mouth,
And you choose [to speak] the language of the crafty and cunning.
6“Your own mouth condemns you, and not I;

Yes, your own lips testify against you.

7“Were you the first man to be born [the original wise man],
Or were you created before the hills?

8“Do you hear the secret counsel of God,
And do you limit [the possession of] wisdom to yourself?

9“What do you know that we do not know?
What do you understand that is not equally clear to us?

10“Among us are both the gray-haired and the aged,
Older than your father.

11“Are the consolations of God [as we have interpreted them to you] too trivial for you, [Or] were we too gentle toward you [in our first speech] to be effective?

12“Why does your heart carry you away [allowing you to be controlled by emotion]?

And why do your eyes flash [in anger or contempt],

13That you should turn your spirit against God
And let such words [as you have spoken] go out of your mouth?

14“What is man, that he should be pure and clean,
Or he who is born of a woman, that he should be righteous and just?

15“Behold, God puts no trust in His holy ones (angels);
Indeed, the heavens are not pure in His sight—

16How much less [pure and clean is] the one who is repulsive and corrupt,
Man, who drinks unrighteousness and injustice like water!

- 17“I will tell you, listen to me;
And what I have seen I will also declare;
- 18What wise men have [freely] told,
And have not hidden [anything passed on to them] from their fathers,
- 19To whom alone the land was given,
And no stranger passed among them [corrupting the truth].
- 20“The wicked man writhes with pain all his days,
And numbered are the years stored up for him, the ruthless one.
- 21“A [dreadful] sound of terrors is in his ears;
While at peace and in a time of prosperity the destroyer comes upon him [the tent of the robber is not at peace].
- 22“He does not believe that he will return out of the darkness [for fear of being murdered], And he is destined for the sword [of God’s vengeance].
- 23“He wanders about for food, saying, ‘Where is it?’
He knows that the day of darkness and destruction is already at hand.
- 24“Distress and anxiety terrify him,
They overpower him like a king ready for battle.
- 25“Because he has stretched out his hand against God
And behaves arrogantly against the Almighty,
- 26Running and charging headlong against Him
With his ornamented and massive shield;
- 27For he has covered his face with his fat,
Adding layers of fat to his thighs [giving himself up to pleasures],

²⁸And he has lived in desolate [God-forsaken] cities,
In houses which no one should inhabit,
Which were destined to become heaps [of ruins];

²⁹He will not become rich, nor will his wealth endure;
And his grain will not bend to the earth nor his possessions be extended on the earth.

³⁰“He will not escape from darkness [fleeing disaster];
The flame [of God’s wrath] will wither his branch,
And by the blast of His mouth he will go away.

³¹“Let him not trust in vanity (emptiness, futility) and be led astray;
For emptiness will be his reward [for such living].

³²“It will be fulfilled while he still lives,
And his branch will not be green [but shall wither away].

³³“He will fail to bring his grapes to maturity [leaving them to wither unnourished] on the vine, And will cast off blossoms [and fail to bring forth fruit] like the olive tree.

³⁴“For the company of the godless is barren,
And fire consumes the tents of bribery (wrong and injustice).

³⁵“They conceive mischief and bring forth wickedness,
And their inmost soul prepares deceit and fraud.”

16 THEN JOB answered and said, ²“I have heard many such things;

Wearisome and miserable comforters are you all.

3“Is there no end to [your futile] words of wind?
Or what plagues you [so much] that you [so boldly] answer [me like this]?

4“I also could speak like you,
If you were in my place;
I could compose and join words together against you
And shake my head at you.

5“[But instead] I could strengthen and encourage you with [the words of] my mouth, And the consolation and solace of my lips would soothe your suffering and lessen your anguish.

6“If I speak [to you miserable comforters], my pain is not relieved;
And if I refrain [from speaking], what [pain or anguish] leaves me?

7“But now God has exhausted me.
You [O Lord] have destroyed all my family and my household.

8“You have taken a firm hold on me and have shriveled me up,
It has become a witness [against me];
And my leanness [and infirmity] rises up [as evidence]
against me,
It testifies to my face [about my guilt].

9“His wrath has torn me and hunted me down,
He has gnashed at me with his teeth;
My adversary sharpens His gaze and glares [with piercing eyes] at me.

10“They have gaped at me with their mouths,
With contempt they have struck me on the cheek;
They massed themselves together [and conspired] against me. [Ps 22:13; 35:21]

11“God hands me over to criminals
And tosses me [headlong] into the hands of the wicked.

12“I was [living] at ease, but He crushed me and broke me apart,
And He has seized me by the neck and has shaken me to pieces;
He has also set me up as His target.

13“His arrows surround me.
He pierces my kidneys (vital organs) without mercy;
He pours out my gall on the ground.

14“He attacks me, making wound after wound;
He runs at me like a warrior.

15“I have sewed sackcloth over my skin [as a sign of mourning]
And have defiled my horn (symbol of strength) in the dust.

16“My face is red and swollen with weeping,
And on my eyelids is the shadow of death [my eyes are dimmed],

17Although there is no violence or wrongdoing in my hands,
And my prayer is pure.

18“O earth, do not cover my blood,
And let there be no [resting] place for my cry [where it will cease being heard].

- 19“Even now, behold, my Witness is in heaven,
And my Advocate [who vouches and testifies for me] is on high. [Rom 1:9]
- 20“My friends are scoffers [who ridicule];
My eye pours out tears to God.
- 21“Oh, that a man would mediate and plead with God [for me]
Just as a man [mediates and pleads] with his neighbor and friend. [1 Tim 2:5]
- 22“For when a few years are past,
I shall go the way of no return.

17 “MY SPIRIT is broken, my days are extinguished, The grave is ready for me.

- 2“Surely there are mockers and mockery with me,
And my eye gazes on their obstinacy and provocation.
- 3“Give me a pledge (guarantee, promise) with Yourself [acknowledge my innocence before my death]; Who is there that will be my guarantor and give security for me?
- 4“But You [Lord] have closed their hearts to understanding, Therefore You will not exalt them [by giving a verdict
against me].
- 5“He who denounces and informs against his friends for a share of the spoil,
The eyes of his children will also languish and fail.

- 6“But He has made me a byword and mockery among the people,
And I have become one in whose face people spit.
- 7“My eye has grown dim (unexpressive) because of grief,
And all my [body’s] members are [wasted away] like a shadow.
- 8“‘The upright will be [astonished and] appalled at this,
And the innocent will stir himself up against the godless and polluted.
- 9“Nevertheless the righteous will hold to his ways,
And he who has clean hands will grow stronger and stronger. [Ps 24:4]
- 10“‘But as for all of you, come back again,
Even though I do not find a wise man among you.
- 11“‘My days are past, my purposes and plans are frustrated and torn apart; The wishes of my heart [are broken].
- 12“‘These [thoughts try to] make the night into the day;
‘The light is near,’ they say in the presence of darkness [but they pervert the truth].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Strengthens You Through Difficulties

What does this Scripture mean: “The righteous will hold to his ways, and he who has clean hands will grow stronger and stronger” (Job 17:9)? It means God makes you stronger and stronger as you go through all things with a godly attitude. It also means you become less affected by the difficulties and challenges you face as time goes on. It is like exercising; when you first start, you get sore, but as you press through the soreness, you build muscle and gain strength and soon find ease in doing what was once very difficult.

As you have been walking with God, He has been strengthening you. You can face each new challenge, overcoming any fears. God will continually give you the strength you need to overcome, and you will grow in maturity.

- ¹³“But if I look to Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead) as my home, If I make my bed in the darkness,
- ¹⁴If I call out to the pit (grave), ‘You are my father’;
And to the worm [that feeds on decay], ‘You are my mother and my sister [because I will soon be closest to you],’
- ¹⁵Where now is my hope?
And who regards or considers or is even concerned about my hope?

16“Will my hope go down with me to Sheol (the nether world,
the place of the dead)?
Shall we go down together in the dust?”

18 THEN BILDAD the Shuhite answered and said, ²“How long will you hunt for words and continue these speeches?
Do some clear thinking and show understanding and then we can talk.

³“Why are we regarded as beasts,
As if [we are] stupid (senseless) in your eyes?

⁴“You who tear yourself apart in anger,
Is the earth to be abandoned for your sake,
Or the rock to be moved out of its place?

⁵“Indeed, the light of the wicked will be put out,
And the flame of his fire will not shine. [Prov 13:9; 24:20]

⁶“The light will be dark in his tent,
And his lamp beside him will be put out. [Ps 18:28]

⁷“The vigorous stride will be shortened,
And his own counsel and the scheme [in which he trusted] will bring his downfall.

⁸“For the wicked is thrown into a net by his own feet (wickedness),
And he steps on the webbing [of the lattice-covered pit].

⁹“A snare catches him by the heel,
And a trap snaps shut on him.

¹⁰“A noose is hidden for him on the ground,

And a trap for him on the path.

11“Terrors frighten him on every side

And chase at his heels.

12“The strength [of the wicked] is famished and weakened,

And disaster is ready at his side [if he stops].

13“His skin is devoured by disease;

The firstborn of death [the worst of diseases] consumes his limbs.

14“He is torn from his tent which he trusted [for safety],

And he is marched and brought to the king of terrors (death).

15“Nothing of his dwells in his tent;

Brimstone (burning sulfur) is scattered over his dwelling [to purify it].

16“The roots [of the wicked] are dried up below,

And above, his branch is cut off and withers.

17“Memory of him perishes from the earth,

And he has no name on the street.

18“He is driven and propelled from light into darkness,

And chased from the inhabited world.

19“He has no offspring or prosperity among his people,

Nor any survivor where he sojourned.

20“Those in the west are astonished and appalled at his fate,

And those in the east are seized with horror.

21“Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked and the ungodly,

And such is the place of him who does not know or recognize or honor God.”

- 19 THEN JOB answered and said, ²“How long will you torment and exasperate me
And crush me with words?
³“These ten times you have insulted me;
You are not ashamed to wrong me [and harden your hearts against me].
⁴“And if it were true that I have erred,
My error would remain with me [and I would be conscious of it].
⁵“If indeed you [braggarts] vaunt and magnify yourselves over me
And prove my disgrace (humiliation) to me,
⁶Know then that God has wronged me and overthrown me
And has closed His net around me.
⁷“Behold, I cry out, ‘Violence!’ but I am not heard;
I shout for help, but there is no justice.
⁸“He has walled up my way so that I cannot pass,
And He has set darkness upon my paths.
⁹“He has stripped me of my honor
And removed the crown from my head.
¹⁰“He breaks me down on every side, and I am gone;
He has uprooted my hope like a tree.
¹¹“He has also kindled His wrath [like a fire] against me
And He considers and counts me as one of His adversaries.

- 12“His troops come together
And build up their way and siege works against me
And camp around my tent.
- 13“He has put my brothers far from me,
And my acquaintances are completely estranged from me.
- 14“My relatives have failed [me],
And my intimate friends have forgotten me.
- 15“Those who live [temporarily] in my house and my maids consider me a stranger; I am a foreigner in their sight.
- 16“I call to my servant, but he does not answer;
I have to implore him with words.
- 17“My breath is repulsive to my wife,
And I am loathsome to my own brothers.
- 18“Even young children despise me;
When I get up, they speak against me.
- 19“All the men of my council hate me;
Those I love have turned against me.
- 20“My bone clings to my skin and to my flesh,
And I have escaped [death] by the skin of my teeth.
- 21“Have pity on me! Have pity on me, O you my friends,
For the hand of God has touched me.
- 22“Why do you persecute me as God does?
Why are you not satisfied with my flesh (anguish)?

A Prayer To

Renew Your Mind

Thank You, God, that I know that my Redeemer and Vindicator lives, and at the last You will take Your stand upon the earth. Even after my body is destroyed by death, yet from my immortal flesh I will see You.

• adapted from Job 19:25–26

²³“Oh, that the words I now speak were written!

Oh, that they were recorded in a scroll!

²⁴“That with an iron stylus and [molten] lead

They were engraved in the rock forever!

²⁵“For I know that my Redeemer and Vindicator lives,

And at the last He will take His stand upon the earth. [Is 44:6; 48:12]

²⁶“Even after my [mortal] skin is destroyed [by death],

Yet from my [immortal] flesh I will see God,

²⁷Whom I, even I, will see for myself,

And my eyes will see Him and not another!
My heart faints within me.

- ²⁸“If you say, ‘How shall we [continue to] persecute him?’
And ‘What pretext for a case against him can we find [since we claim the root of these afflictions is found in him]?’”
- ²⁹“Then beware and be afraid of the sword [of divine vengeance] for yourselves, For wrathful are the punishments of that sword,
So that you may know there is judgment.”

20 THEN ZOPHAR the Naamathite answered and said,

- ²“Therefore my disquieting thoughts make me answer,
Because of the uneasiness that is within me.
- ³“I have heard the reproof which insults me,
But the spirit of my understanding makes me answer.
- ⁴“Do you not know this from the old days,
Since the time that man was placed on the earth,
- ⁵That the triumphing of the wicked is short,
And the joy of the godless is only for a moment? [Ps 37:35, 36]
- ⁶“Though his pride reaches the heavens
And his head touches the clouds,
- ⁷*Yet* he perishes forever like his own refuse;
Those who have seen him will say, ‘Where is he?’
- ⁸“He flies away like a dream and cannot be found;
Yes, he is chased away like a vision of the night.

- 9“The eye which saw him sees him no longer,
Neither does his [accustomed] place behold him any longer.
- 10“His sons favor the poor [and pay his obligations],
And his hands give back his [ill-gotten] wealth.
- 11“His bones are full of youthful strength
But it lies down with him in the dust.
- 12“Though evil and wickedness are sweet in his mouth
And he hides it under his tongue,
- 13Though he desires it and will not let it go
But holds it in his mouth,
- 14Yet his food turns [to poison] in his stomach;
It is the venom of vipers within him.
- 15“He swallows [his ill-gotten] riches,
But will vomit them up;
God will drive them out of his belly.
- 16“He sucks the poison of vipers [which ill-gotten wealth contains];
The viper’s tongue slays him.
- 17“He does not look at the rivers,
The flowing streams of honey and butter [to enjoy his wealth].
- 18“He gives back what he has labored for and attained
And cannot swallow it [down to enjoy it];
As to the riches of his labor,
He cannot even enjoy them.
- 19“For he has oppressed and neglected the poor;

He has violently taken away houses which he did not build.

20“Because he knew no quietness or calm within him [because of his greed], He does not retain anything he desires.

21“There is nothing left of what he devoured;
Therefore his prosperity does not endure.

22“In the fullness of his excess (great abundance) he will be in trouble;

The hand of everyone who suffers will come against him [he is miserable on every side].

23“When he fills his belly,
God will send His fierce anger on him
And will rain it upon him while he is eating. [Num 11:33; Ps 78:26–31]

24“He may flee from the iron weapon,
But the bow of bronze will pierce him through.

25“The arrow is drawn forth and it comes out of his back [after passing through his body]; Yes, the glittering point comes out of his gall.

Terrors march in upon him;

26Complete darkness (misfortune) is held in reserve for his treasures.

An unfanned fire will devour him;
It will consume the survivor in his tent.

27“The heavens will reveal his wickedness and guilt,
And the earth will rise up against him.

28“The produce and increase of his house will depart [with the victors]; His possessions will be dragged away in the day of God's wrath.

²⁹“This is the wicked man's portion from God,
And the heritage decreed and appointed to him by God.”

21 THEN JOB answered and said, ²“Listen carefully to my speech,

And let this be the consolation.

³“Bear with me, and I also will speak;
And after I have spoken, you may [continue to] mock [me].

⁴“As for me, is my complaint to man or about him?
And why should I not be impatient and my spirit troubled?

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

You Can Make Your Life Better

One of the biggest problems we face today is that many people don't want to take responsibility for their lives. It is easy to think that our problems are someone else's fault, but that mind-set never fixes our problems.

Many times, I have watched people with this passive mentality ruin their lives. My mother was guilt-ridden and lived with so many regrets she eventually had a nervous breakdown followed by a lifelong anxiety disorder. Because she refused to stand up to my abusive father and would not take the responsibility to "confront [the evil man] with his actions and rebuke him" (Job 21:31), all of our lives were affected in negative and devastating ways.

My mother's unwillingness to take action was directly connected to her thoughts. She believed she had to stay with my father because she could not take care of us financially, and she feared what people would think if they knew the truth. The outcome was that she forfeited the good life God desired her to have, and it did tremendous damage to my brother's life and to mine.

We may or may not be responsible for the current condition of our lives. Things that happen are often out of our control and may not be our fault, but we don't have to remain in a defeated position. We can come against things that are not right by refusing to let them overwhelm us and by developing the attitude that we will confront and overcome all obstacles with God's help. For that to happen, we cannot feel sorry for ourselves and make excuses, because as long as we do, we will not make progress.

You do have a choice about what you think. Forming new habits will take some retraining of your mind, but you can do it with God's help. Please don't wait any longer for someone else to make your life better. Take the responsibility for improving it yourself. Ask God to help you, and then begin following His guidance. I am not suggesting that everything that is wrong will be fixed overnight. In fact, looking for quick fixes is a deception in itself. Most things take longer than you think they will. Be determined not to give up and you will reach your destination.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Father, forgive me for blaming others for my problems and not taking responsibility to confront and overcome them with Your help. Help me and guide me and give me patience in the battle to reach my destiny. Amen.

- 5“Look at me and be astonished and appalled;
And put your hand over your mouth.
- 6“Even when I remember, I am troubled and afraid;
Horror and trembling take hold of my flesh.
- 7“Why do the wicked still live,
Become old, and become mighty in power?
- 8“Their children and descendants are established with them in their sight, And their offspring before their eyes.
- 9“Their houses are safe from fear;
And the rod of God is not on them.
- 10“His bull breeds and does not fail;
His cow calves and does not miscarry.
- 11“They send forth their little ones like a flock,
And their children skip about.
- 12“They lift up their voices and sing to the tambourine and the lyre
And rejoice to the sound of the flute.
- 13“They fully enjoy their days in prosperity, And so go down to Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead) in a [peaceful] moment.
- 14“Yet they say to God, ‘Depart from us,
For we do not desire the knowledge of Your ways.
- 15“Who [and what] is the Almighty, that we should serve
Him?
And what would we gain if we plead with Him?’ [Ex 5:2]

- 16“But notice, the prosperity of the wicked is not in their hand (in their power); The counsel of the wicked [and the mystery of God’s dealings with the ungodly] is far from my comprehension.
- 17“How often [then] is it that the lamp of the wicked is put out,
And that their disaster falls on them?
Does God distribute pain and destruction and sorrow [to them] in His anger? [Luke 12:46]
- 18“Are they like straw before the wind,
And like chaff that the storm steals and carries away?
- 19“You say, ‘God stores away [the punishment of] man’s wickedness for his children.’
Let God repay him so that he may know and experience it.
- 20“Let his own eyes see his destruction,
And let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.
- 21“For what pleasure does he have in his house and family after he is dead, When the number of his months [of life] is cut off?
- 22“Can anyone teach God knowledge,
Seeing that He judges those on high? [Rom 11:34; 1 Cor
2:16]
- 23“One dies in his full strength,
Being wholly at ease and quiet and satisfied;
- 24His pails are full of milk [his sides are filled out with fat],
And the marrow of his bones is moist,
- 25Whereas another dies with a bitter soul,

- Never even tasting pleasure or good fortune.
- 26“Together they lie down in the dust,
And the worms cover them.
- 27“Behold, I know your thoughts,
And the plots by which you would wrong me.
- 28“For you say, ‘Where is the house of the noble man?
And where is the tent, the dwelling place of the wicked?’
- 29“Have you not asked those who travel this way,
And do you not recognize their witness?
- 30“That evil men are [now] reserved for the day of disaster and destruction, They will be led away on the day of [God’s] wrath?
- 31“But who will confront him with his actions and rebuke him face to face, And who will repay him for what he has done?
- 32“When he is carried to his grave,
A guard will keep watch over his tomb.
- 33“‘The [dirt] clods of the valley are sweet to him [and gently cover him],
Moreover, all men will follow after him [to a grave],
While countless ones go before him.
- 34“‘How then can you vainly comfort me with empty words, Since your answers remain untrue?’”

22 THEN ELIPHAZ the Temanite answered and said, ²“Can a vigorous man be of use to God,

Or a wise man be useful to himself? [Ps 16:2; Luke 17:10]

3“Is it any pleasure or joy to the Almighty that you are righteous?

Or is it of benefit to Him that you make your ways perfect?
[Is 62:3; Zech 2:8; Mal 3:17; Acts 20:28]

4“Is it because of your fear of Him that He corrects you,
That He enters into judgment against you?

5“Is not your wickedness great,
And your sins without end?

6“For you have taken pledges of your brothers without cause,
And stripped men naked.

7“You have not given water to the weary to drink,
And you have withheld bread from the hungry. [Matt 25:42]

8“But the land is possessed by the man with power,
And the favored and honorable man dwells in it.

9“You have sent widows away empty-handed,
And the arms (strength) of the fatherless have been broken.

10“Therefore snares surround you,
And sudden dread terrifies and overwhelms you;

11Or darkness, so that you cannot see,
And a flood of water covers you.

12“Is not God in the height of heaven?
And behold the distant stars, how high they are!

13“You say, ‘What does God know [about me]?
Can He judge through the thick darkness?

- 14“Thick clouds are a hiding place for Him, so that He cannot see,
And He walks on the vault (circle) of the heavens.’

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, I yield and submit myself to You and I am at peace; in this way I will prosper and great good will come to me.

• adapted from Job 22:21

- 15“Will you keep to the ancient path
That wicked men walked [in the time of Noah], [2 Pet 2:5]
- 16Men who were snatched away before their time,
Whose foundations were poured out like a river?
- 17“‘They said to God, ‘Depart from us!
What can the Almighty do for us or to us?’
- 18“Yet He filled their houses with good things;

But the counsel of the wicked and ungodly is far from me.

19“‘The righteous see it and are glad;

And the innocent mock and laugh at them, saying,

20“‘Surely our adversaries are cut off and destroyed,

And fire has consumed their abundance.’

21“‘Now yield and submit yourself to Him [agree with God and be conformed to His will] and be at peace; In this way [you will prosper and great] good will come to you.

22“‘Please receive the law and instruction from His mouth And establish His words in your heart and keep them. [Ps 119:11]

23“‘If you return to the Almighty [and submit and humble yourself before Him], you will be built up [and restored]; If you remove unrighteousness far from your tents,

24And place your gold in the dust,
And the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks [considering it of little value], 25And make the Almighty your gold

And your precious silver,

26Then you will have delight in the Almighty,
And you will lift up your face to God.

27“‘You will pray to Him, and He will hear you,
And you will pay your vows.

28“‘You will also decide and decree a thing, and it will be established for you; And the light [of God’s favor] will shine upon your ways.

- ²⁹“When you are cast down and humbled, you will speak with confidence,
And the humble person He will lift up and save.
- ³⁰“He will even rescue the one [for whom you intercede] who is not innocent;
And he will be rescued through the cleanness of your hands.” [Job 42:7, 8]

23 THEN JOB answered and said, ²“Even today my complaint is contentious;
His hand is heavy despite my groaning.

³“Oh, that I knew where I might find Him,
That I might [even] come to His seat!

⁴“I would present my cause before Him
And fill my mouth with arguments.

⁵“I would learn the words which He would answer,
And understand what He would say to me.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that You know the way I take and You pay attention to it. I believe that when You have tried me, I will come forth as refined gold, pure and luminous.

• adapted from Job 23:10

6“Would He contend against me with His great power?

No, surely He would give attention to me. [Is 27:4, 5; 57:16]

7“There the righteous and upright could reason with Him;

So I would be acquitted forever by my Judge.

8“Behold, I go forward (to the east), but He is not there;

I go backward (to the west), but I cannot perceive Him;

9To the left (north) He turns, but I cannot behold Him;

He turns to the right hand (south), but I cannot see Him.

10“But He knows the way that I take [and He pays attention to it].

When He has tried me, I will come forth as [refined] gold [pure and luminous]. [Ps 17:3; 66:10; James 1:12]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Is with You

No matter what frightens you, God's Word says not to fear because He is with you (see Isa. 41:10). It is just that simple. I am sure the question comes to mind: If God is with me, why do bad things happen? God never promises us trouble-free lives, but He does promise us His presence and the strength (mental, physical, and emotional) we need to get through our troubles.

Even in the midst of his trial, Job said, "But He knows the way that I take [and He pays attention to it]. When He has tried me, I will come forth as [refined] gold [pure and luminous]" (Job 23:10). Whatever the problem is, you can be assured it will pass, God will be with you all the way through it, and you will be stronger and know God better when it is over than before it began.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Go to God

I encourage you to form a habit of going to God in prayer the moment anything troubles you. Brother Lawrence, a monk who lived in the seventeenth century, enjoyed a close, intimate relationship with God; he knew God's Word and His ways, and he always consulted God when he was troubled. He desired to "practice the presence of God" in all things.

Job also sets a powerful example for us, saying, "My feet have carefully followed His steps; I have kept His ways and not turned aside" (Job 23:11). The more we grow in God's Word, the more experience we have in His ways, the less need we will have for advice from other people. It is not wrong to ask for counsel from the right person or people, but you can also develop a close relationship with God, which will help you to spiritually discern what your course of action should be in many situations (see Prov. 3:6).

11 "My feet have carefully followed His steps;
I have kept His ways and not turned aside.

12 "I have not departed from the commandment of His lips;
I have kept the words of His mouth more than my necessary food.

13 "But He is unique and unchangeable, and who can turn
Him?

And what His soul desires, that He does.

¹⁴“For He performs what is planned (appointed) for me,
And He is mindful of many such things.

¹⁵“Therefore I would be terrified at His presence;
When I consider [all of this], I tremble in dread of Him.

¹⁶“For God has made my heart faint,
And the Almighty has terrified me,

¹⁷But I am not silenced by the darkness [of these woes that fell on me],
Nor by the thick darkness which covers my face.

24 “WHY DOES the Almighty not set seasons for judgment?
Why do those who know Him not see His days [for punishment of the wicked]? [Acts 1:7]

²“Some remove the landmarks;
They [violently] seize and pasture flocks [appropriating land and flocks openly].

³“They drive away the donkeys of the orphans;
They take the widow’s ox for a pledge.

⁴“They crowd the needy off the road;
The poor of the land all hide themselves.

⁵“Behold, as wild donkeys in the desert,
The poor go to their work, diligently seeking food;
As bread for their children in the desert.

⁶“They harvest their fodder in a field [that is not their own],
And glean the vineyard of the wicked.

- 7“They spend the night naked, without clothing,
And have no covering against the cold.
- 8“They are wet from the rain of the mountains
And cling to the rock for lack of shelter.
- 9“Others snatch the fatherless [infants] from the breast [to sell or make them slaves], And against the poor they take a pledge [of clothing].
- 10“They cause the poor to go about naked without clothing,
And they take away the sheaves [of grain] from the hungry.
- 11“Within the walls [of the wicked] the poor make [olive] oil;
They tread [the grapes in] the wine presses, but thirst.
- 12“From the [populous and crowded] city men groan,
And the souls of the wounded cry out for help;
Yet God [seemingly] does not pay attention to the wrong [done to them].
- 13“Others have been with those who rebel against the light;
They do not want to know its ways
Nor stay in its paths.
- 14“The murderer rises at dawn;
He kills the poor and the needy,
And at night he becomes a thief.
- 15“The eye of the adulterer waits for the twilight, Saying, ‘No eye will see me,’
And he covers his face.
- 16“In the dark they dig into [the penetrable walls of] houses;
They shut themselves up by day;
They do not know the light [of day].

- 17“For the morning is the same to him as the thick darkness [of midnight];
For he is familiar with the terrors of thick darkness.
- 18“They are insignificant on the surface of the water;
Their portion is cursed on the earth;
They do not turn toward the vineyards.
- 19“Drought and heat consume the snow waters;
So does Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead)
[consume] those who have sinned.
- 20“A mother will forget him;
The worm feeds on him until he is no longer remembered.
And wickedness will be broken like a tree [which cannot be restored]. [Prov 10:7]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

God, I thank You that You give me security and support me; and that Your eyes are on my ways.

- 21“He preys on the barren (childless) woman
And does no good for the widow.
- 22“Yet God draws away the mighty by His power;
He rises, but no one has assurance of life.
- 23“God gives them security, and they are supported;
And His eyes are on their ways.
- 24“They are exalted for a little while, and then they are gone;
Moreover, they are brought low and like everything [they are] gathered up and taken out of the way; Even like the heads of grain they are cut off.
- 25“And if this is not so, who can prove me a liar
And make my speech worthless?”

25 THEN BILDAD the Shuhite answered and said,

- 2“Dominion and awe belong to God;
He establishes peace and order in His high places.
- 3“Is there any number to His [vast celestial] armies?
And upon whom does His light not rise?
- 4“How then can man be justified and righteous with God?
Or how can he who is born of a woman be pure and clean?
[Ps 130:3; 143:2]
- 5“Behold, even the moon has no brightness [compared to God’s majesty and glory]

And the stars are not pure in His sight,
6How much less man, that maggot,
And the son of man, that worm!”

26 BUT JOB answered and said, 2“‘What a help you are to the weak (powerless)!

How you have saved the arm that is without strength!

3“‘How you have counseled the one who has no wisdom!
And how abundantly you have provided sound wisdom and helpful insight!

4“‘To whom have you uttered [these] words?
And whose spirit [inspired what] came forth from you?

5“‘The spirits of the dead tremble
Underneath the waters and their inhabitants.

6“‘Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead) is naked before God,
And Abaddon (the place of destruction) has no covering [from His eyes].

7“‘It is He who spreads out the north over emptiness
And hangs the earth on nothing.

8“‘He wraps the waters in His clouds [which otherwise would spill on earth all at once], And the cloud does not burst under them.

9“‘He covers the face of the full moon
And spreads His cloud over it.

10“‘He has inscribed a circular limit (the horizon) on the face of the waters

At the boundary between light and darkness.

¹¹“The pillars of the heavens tremble

And are terrified at His rebuke.

¹²“He stirred up the sea by His power,

And by His understanding He smashed [proud] Rahab.

POWERPOINT

Suffering at an almost unimaginable level—physically, emotionally, relationally—Job’s troubles were not so great that he doubted God’s power to act on his behalf. In the midst of his trials, Job recalled the greatness of God and recognized that he saw only “the fringes of His ways” (Job 26:14). Remember that the same God who “hangs the earth on nothing” (Job 26:7) has promised to act on your behalf.

- ¹³“By His breath the heavens are cleared;
His hand has pierced the [swiftly] fleeing serpent. [Ps 33:6]
- ¹⁴“Yet these are just the fringes of His ways [mere samples of
His power],
The faintest whisper of His voice!
Who can contemplate the thunder of His [full] mighty power?”

27 JOB CONTINUED his discourse and said, ²“As God lives, who has taken away my right and denied me justice,
And the Almighty, who has caused bitterness and grief for my soul,

³As long as my life is within me,
And the breath of God is [still] in my nostrils,

⁴My lips will not speak unjustly,
Nor will my tongue utter deceit.

⁵“Far be it from me that I should admit you are right [in your accusations against me]; Until I die, I will not remove my integrity from me.

⁶“I hold fast my uprightness and my right standing with God and I will not let them go; My heart does not reproach me for any of my days.

⁷“May my enemy be as the wicked,
And he who rises up against me be as the unrighteous (unjust).

⁸“For what is the hope of the godless, even though he has gained [in this world], When God takes his life?

⁹“Will God hear his cry
When trouble and distress come upon him?

¹⁰“Will he take delight in the Almighty?
Will he call on God at all times?

¹¹“I will teach you regarding the hand (power) of God;

I will not conceal what is with the Almighty [God's actual treatment of the wicked].

¹²“Behold, all of you have seen it;

Why then do you act vainly and foolishly [cherishing worthless concepts]?

Speak God's Word

My lips will not speak unjustly, nor will my tongue utter deceit. Until I die, I will not compromise or surrender my integrity. I hold fast my uprightness and my right standing with God and I will not let them go; my heart does not reproach me for any of my days.

| adapted from JOB 27:4–6 |

- 13“This [which I am about to explain] is the portion of a wicked man from God, And the inheritance which tyrants and oppressors receive from the Almighty:
- 14“Though his children are many, they are destined for the sword;
And his descendants will not have sufficient bread.
- 15“Those who survive him will be buried because of the plague,
And [their] widows will not be able to weep.
- 16“Though he heaps up silver like dust

- And piles up clothing like clay,
17 He may prepare it, but the just will wear it
And the innocent will divide the silver.
18 “He builds his house like a spider’s web,
Like a (temporary) hut which a watchman makes.
19 “He lies down rich, but never will again;
He opens his eyes, and it is gone.
20 “Terrors overtake him like a [suddenly rising] flood;
A windstorm steals him away in the night.
21 “The east wind lifts him up, and he is gone;
It sweeps him out of his place.
22 “For it will hurl [thunderbolts of God’s wrath] at him unsparingly and without compassion; He flees in haste from its power.
23 “People will clap their hands at him [to mock and ridicule
him]
And hiss him out of his place.

28 “SURELY THERE is a mine for silver, And a place where they refine gold.

- 2 “Iron is taken out of the earth,
And copper is smelted from the stone ore.
3 “Man puts an end to darkness [by bringing in a light],
And to the farthest bounds he searches out
The rock buried in gloom and deep shadow.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Hold On to the Right Confession

Job declared, “I hold fast my uprightness and my right standing with God and I will not let them go” (Job 27:6), and Hebrews 4:14 tells us to hold fast our confession of faith in Christ. When we hold fast to something, it indicates something or someone might be trying to take it away from us.

Satan will try to steal our confession by putting wrong thoughts in our minds, hoping those thoughts will produce wrong words that will come out of our mouths and then create wrong actions—Satan fights anything that will produce good results in our lives. To confess means “to agree with, or say the same thing.” Begin saying the same things God says, and get into agreement with Him so His good plan for your life can come to pass. Hold on to your right confession even when circumstances don’t look good, because they will change!

4“*He breaks open (mine) shafts far away from where people live, [In places] forgotten by the [human] foot;
They dangle [in the mines] and hang away from men.*

5“*[As for] the earth, out of it comes food,
But underneath [its surface, down deep] it is turned over as fire.*

6“*Its stones are the bed of sapphires;
It holds dust of gold.*

- 7“The path [deep within] no bird of prey knows,
And the falcon’s eye has not caught sight of it.
- 8“The proud beasts [and their young] have not walked on it,
Nor has the fierce lion passed over it.
- 9“Man puts his hand on [and tears apart] the flinty rock;
He overturns the mountains at the base [looking for treasure].
- 10“He cuts out channels and passages among the rocks;
And his eye sees every precious thing.
- 11“Man dams up the streams from flowing [so that they do not trickle into the mine], And what is hidden he brings out to the light.
- 12“But where can wisdom be found?
And where is the place of understanding?
- 13“Man does not know the value of it;
Nor is it found in the land of the living.
- 14“‘The deep says, ‘It is not in me’;
And the sea says, ‘It is not with me.’
- 15“‘It cannot be obtained for pure gold,
Nor can silver be weighed as its price.
- 16“‘It cannot be valued in [terms of] the gold of Ophir,
In the precious onyx or beryl, or the sapphire.
- 17“‘Gold and glass cannot equal wisdom,
Nor can it be exchanged for articles of fine gold.
- 18“‘No mention of coral and crystal can be made;
For the possession of wisdom is even above [that of] rubies or pearls.

- 19“‘The topaz of Ethiopia cannot compare with it,
Nor can it be valued in pure gold.
20“‘From where then does wisdom come?
And where is the place of understanding?
21“‘It is hidden from the eyes of all the living
And concealed from the birds of the heavens.
22“‘Abaddon (the place of destruction) and Death say,
‘We have [only] heard a report of it with our ears.’
23“‘God understands the way [to wisdom]
And He knows its place [for wisdom is with God alone].
24“‘For He looks to the ends of the earth
And sees everything under the heavens.
25“‘When He gave weight and pressure to the wind
And allotted the waters by measure,
26When He made a limit for the rain
And a way for the thunderbolt,
27Then He saw wisdom and declared it;
He established it and searched it out.
28“‘But to man He said, ‘Behold, the reverential and worshipful fear of the Lord—that is wisdom; And to depart from evil is understanding.’”

29 AND JOB again took up his discussion and said, ²“Oh, that I were as in the months of old,
As in the days when God watched over me, [Eccl 7:10]

- ³When His lamp shone upon my head
And by His light I walked through darkness;
- ⁴As I was in the prime of my days,
When the friendship and counsel of God were over my tent,
- ⁵When the Almighty was still with me
And my boys were around me,
- ⁶When my steps [through rich pastures] were washed with butter and cream [from my livestock], And the rock poured out for me streams of oil [from my olive groves].
- ⁷“When I went out to the gate of the city,
When I took my seat [as a city father] in the square,
- ⁸The young men saw me and hid themselves,
The aged arose and stood [respectfully];
- ⁹The princes stopped talking
And put their hands on their mouths;
- ¹⁰The voices of the nobles were hushed,
And their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths.
- ¹¹“For when an ear heard [my name mentioned], it called me happy and fortunate; And when an eye saw [me], it testified for me [approvingly],
- ¹²Because I rescued the poor who cried for help,
And the orphan who had no helper.
- ¹³“The blessing of him who was about to perish came upon
me,
And I made the widow’s heart sing for joy.
- ¹⁴“I put on righteousness, and it clothed me;
My justice was like a robe and a turban!

- 15“I was eyes to the blind
And I was feet to the lame.
- 16“I was a father to the needy;
I investigated the case I did not know [and assured justice].
- 17“And I smashed the jaws of the wicked
And snatched the prey from his teeth.
- 18“Then I said, ‘I shall die in my nest,
And I shall multiply my days as the sand.
- 19“My root is spread out and open to the waters,
And the dew lies all night upon my branch.
- 20“My glory and honor are fresh in me [being constantly renewed],
And my bow gains [ever] new strength in my hand.’
- 21“They listened to me and waited
And kept silent for my counsel.
- 22“After I spoke, they did not speak again,
And my speech dropped upon them [like a refreshing shower].
- 23“They waited for me [and for my words] as for the rain,
And they opened their mouths as for the spring rain.
- 24“I smiled at them when they did not believe,
And they did not diminish the light of my face.
- 25“I chose a way for them and sat as chief,
And dwelt as a king among his soldiers,
As one who comforts mourners.

- 30 “BUT NOW those younger than I mock and laugh at me, Whose fathers I refused to put with the sheepdogs of my flock.
- 2“Indeed, how could the strength of their hands profit me?
Vigor had perished from them.
- 3“They are gaunt with want and famine;
They gnaw the dry and barren ground by night in [the gloom of] waste and desolation.
- 4“They pluck [and eat] saltwort (mallows) among the bushes,
And their food is the root of the broom shrub.
- 5“They are driven from the community;
They shout after them as after a thief.
- 6“They must dwell on the slopes of wadis
And in holes in the ground and in rocks.
- 7“Among the bushes they cry out [like wild animals];
Beneath the prickly scrub they gather and huddle together.
- 8“They are the sons of [worthless and nameless] fools,
They have been driven out of the land.
- 9“And now I have become [the subject of] their taunting;
Yes, I am a byword and a laughingstock to them.
- 10“They hate me, they stand aloof from me,
And do not refrain from spitting in my face.
- 11“For God has loosed His bowstring [attacking me] and [He has] afflicted and humbled me; They have cast off the bridle [of restraint] before me.
- 12“On my right the [rabble] brood rises;
They push my feet away, and they build up their ways of destruction against me [like an advancing army].

13“They break up and clutter my path [upsetting my plans],
They profit from my destruction;
No one restrains them.

14“As through a wide breach they come,
Amid the crash [of falling walls] they roll on [over me].

15“Terrors are turned upon me;
They chase away my honor and reputation like the wind,
And my prosperity has passed away like a cloud.

16“And now my soul is poured out within me;
The days of affliction have seized me.

17“My bones are pierced [with aching] in the night season,
And the pains that gnaw me take no rest.

18“By the great force [of my disease] my garment (skin) is disfigured and blemished; It binds about me [choking me] like the collar of my coat.

19“God has cast me into the mire [a swampland of crisis],
And I have become [worthless] like dust and ashes.

20“I cry to You for help, [Lord,] but You do not answer me;
I stand up, but You [only] gaze [indifferently] at me.

21“You have become harsh and cruel to me;
With the might of Your hand You [keep me alive only to] persecute me.

22“You lift me up on the wind and cause me to ride [upon it];
And You toss me about in the tempest and dissolve me in the storm.

- 23“For I know that You will bring me to death
And to the house of meeting [appointed] for all the living.
- 24“However, does not one falling in a heap of ruins stretch out his hand?
Or in his disaster [will he not] therefore cry out for help?
- 25“Did I not weep for one whose life was hard and filled with trouble?
Was not my heart grieved for the needy?
- 26“When I expected good, then came evil [to me];
And when I waited for light, then came darkness.
- 27“I am seething within and my heart is troubled and cannot rest;
Days of affliction come to meet me.
- 28“I go about mourning without comfort [my skin blackened by disease, not by the heat of the sun]; I stand up in the assembly and cry out for help.
- 29“I am a brother to [howling] jackals,
And a companion to ostriches [which scream dismally].
- 30“My skin falls from me in blackened flakes,
And my bones are burned with fever.
- 31“Therefore my lyre (harp) is used for [the sound of]
mourning,
And my flute for the [sound of the] voices of those who weep.

31 “I HAVE made a covenant (agreement) with my eyes;

How then could I gaze [lustfully] at a virgin?

²“For what is the portion I would have from God above,
And what heritage from the Almighty on high?

³“Does not tragedy fall [justly] on the unjust
And disaster to those who work wickedness?

⁴“Does not God see my ways
And count all my steps?

⁵“If I have walked with falsehood,
Or if my foot has chased after deceit,

⁶Oh, let Him weigh me with accurate scales,
And let God know my integrity.

⁷“If my step has turned away from the way [of God],
Or if my heart has [covetously] followed my eyes,
Or if any spot [of guilt] has stained my hands,

⁸Then let me plant and [let] another eat [from the results of my labor],
And let my crops be uprooted and ruined.

Speak God's Word

I have made a covenant with my eyes; how then could I gaze lustfully at another person?

| adapted from JOB 31:1 |

- ⁹“If my heart has been enticed and I was made a fool by a woman, Or if I have [covetously] lurked at my neighbor's door [until his departure],
- ¹⁰Let my wife grind [meal, like a bond slave] for another [man],
And let others kneel down over her.
- ¹¹“For adultery is a heinous and lustful crime;
Moreover, it would be a sin punishable by the judges. [Deut 22:22; John 8:5]
- ¹²“For it is a fire which consumes to Abaddon (destruction, ruin, final torment); And [illicit passion] would burn and rage and uproot all my [life's] increase [destroying everything].
- ¹³“If I have despised and rejected the claim of my male or female servants When they filed a complaint against me,
- ¹⁴What then could I do when God arises [to judge me]?

When He calls me to account, what will I answer Him? [Ps 44:21]

¹⁵“Did not He who made me in the womb make my servant,
And did not the same One fashion us both in the womb?
[Prov 14:31; 22:2; Mal 2:10]

¹⁶“If I have withheld from the poor what they desired,
Or have caused the eyes of the widow to look in vain [for relief],

¹⁷Or have eaten my morsel [of food] alone,
And did not share it with the orphan

¹⁸(But from my youth the orphan grew up with me as with a father,
And from my mother’s womb I have been the widow’s guide),

¹⁹If I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing,
Or any poor person without covering,

²⁰If his loins have not thanked and blessed me [for clothing them],
And if he was not warmed with the fleece of my sheep,

²¹If I have lifted my hand against the orphan,
Because I saw [that the judges would be] my help at the [council] gate,

²²Then let my shoulder fall away from its socket,
And my arm be broken off at the elbow.

²³“For tragedy from God is a terror to me,
And because of His majesty and exaltation I can do nothing
[nor endure facing Him]. [Is 13:6; Joel 1:15]

- 24“‘If I have put my trust and confidence in gold,
Or have declared fine gold my hope and assurance,
- 25If I gloated and rejoiced because my wealth was great,
And because my [powerful] hand [alone] had obtained so much,
- 26If I beheld the sun [as an object of worship] when it shone
Or the moon going in its splendor,
- 27And my heart became secretly enticed [by them],
And my hand threw a kiss from my mouth [in respect to them],
- 28This also would have been [a heinous] sin calling for
judgment,
For I would have denied God above. [Deut 4:19; 17:2–7]
- 29“‘Have I rejoiced at the destruction of the enemy [who hated me],
Or exulted [in malicious triumph] when evil overtook him?
- 30“‘No, I have not allowed my mouth to sin
By cursing my enemy and asking for his life.
- 31“‘I assure you, the men of my tent have said,
‘Who can find one [in need] who has not been satisfied with his meat’?
- 32“‘The stranger has not lodged in the street,
Because I have opened my door to the traveler.
- 33“‘Have I concealed my transgressions like Adam or like other men,
By hiding my wickedness in my bosom,

- ³⁴Because I feared the great multitude,
And the contempt of families terrified me,
So that I kept silence and did not acknowledge my sin and did not go out of the door?
- ³⁵“Oh, that I had one to listen to me!
Look, here is my signature (mark);
Let the Almighty answer me!
Let my adversary write out His indictment [and put His vague accusations in tangible form].
- ³⁶“Surely I would [proudly] bear it on my shoulder,
And bind the scroll around my head like a crown.
- ³⁷“I would count out to Him the number of my steps [with every detail of my life], Approaching His presence as if I were a prince.
- ³⁸“For if my land has cried out against me,
And its furrows weep together;
- ³⁹If I have eaten its fruits without paying for them,
Or have caused its [rightful] owners to lose their lives,
- ⁴⁰Let thorns grow instead of wheat,
And stinkweed and cockleburrs instead of barley.”
- So the words of Job [with his friends] are finished.

32 SO THESE three men ceased answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes [and could not be persuaded otherwise by them].

²But Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, became indignant. His indignation was kindled and burned and he became upset with Job because he justified himself rather than God [and even expressed doubts about God's character].

³Elihu's anger burned against Job's three friends because they had found no answer [and were unable to determine Job's error], and yet they had condemned Job and declared him to be in the wrong [and responsible for his own afflictions].

⁴Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because the others were years older than he.

⁵And when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouths of these three men, he burned with anger.

⁶Then Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite said,

"I am young, and you are aged;

For that reason I was anxious and dared not tell you what I think.

⁷"I thought age should speak,

And a multitude of years should teach wisdom.

⁸"But there is [a vital force and] a spirit [of intelligence] in man,

And the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding.
[Prov 2:6]

⁹"Those [who are] abundant in years may not [always] be wise,

Nor may the elders [always] understand justice.

¹⁰"Therefore I say, 'Listen to me;

I also will give you my opinion [about Job's situation] and tell you plainly what I think.'

- 11“You see, I waited for your words,
I listened to your [wise] reasons,
While you pondered and searched out what to say.
- 12“I even paid close attention to [what] you [said],
Indeed, not one of you convinced Job [nor could you refute him],
Not one of you supplied [satisfactory] answers to his words.
- 13“Beware if you say,
‘We have found wisdom;
God thrusts Job down [justly], not man [for God alone is dealing with him].’
- 14“Now Job has not directed his words against me [therefore I have no reason to be offended], Nor will I answer him with arguments like yours. [I speak for truth, not for revenge.]
- 15“They (Job’s friends) are dismayed and embarrassed, they no longer answer; The words have moved away and failed them,” [says Elihu].
- 16“And shall I wait, because they say nothing,
But stand still and say no more?
- 17“I too will give my share of answers;
I too will express my opinion and share my knowledge.
- 18“For I am full of words;
The spirit within me constrains me.
- 19“My belly is like unvented wine;
Like new wineskins it is about to burst.

- 20“I must speak so that I may get relief,
I will open my lips and answer.
- 21“I will not [I warn you] be partial to any man [that is, let my respect for you mitigate what I say]; Nor flatter any man.
- 22“For I do not know how to flatter, [in an appropriate way, and I fear that],
My Maker would soon take me away.

33 “HOWEVER, JOB, please listen to my words, And pay attention to everything I say.

- 2“Behold, I have opened my mouth [to begin my speech];
My tongue in my mouth is going to speak.
- 3“My words will express the uprightness of my heart,
And my lips will speak what they know with utter sincerity.
- 4“The Spirit of God has made me,
And the breath of the Almighty gives me life [which inspires me].
- 5“Answer me, if you can;
Set yourselves before me, take your stand.
- 6“Behold, I belong to God like you;
I too was formed out of the clay.
- 7“Behold, I will not make you afraid or terrified of me [for I am only mortal and not God], Nor should any pressure from me weigh heavily upon you.
- 8“Surely you have spoken in my hearing,

And I have heard the sound of your words, saying:

⁹‘I am pure, without transgression;

I am innocent and there is no guilt in me.

¹⁰‘Behold, God finds pretexts against me;

He counts me as His enemy.

¹¹‘He puts my feet in the stocks [to hinder and humiliate me];

He [suspiciously] watches all my paths,’ [you say].

¹²“Look, let me answer you, in this you are not right or just;

For God is greater and far superior to man.

¹³“Why do you complain against Him?

That He does not answer [you with] all His doings.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

You Are Righteous

When you receive Jesus as your Savior, the first thing He wants to give you is righteousness. He takes your sin and gives you His righteousness (see 2 Cor. 5:21). God hates for His children to be tormented with guilt and condemnation. He doesn't want us to compare ourselves with others and feel guilty because we can't do what they do, the way they do it. God wants us to know who we are in Christ and to quickly receive His forgiveness for any failure in our lives and then press on with Him. Don't believe the lies of the devil when he tries to make you think downgrading and belittling thoughts about yourself.

You can stop listening to Satan's lies and say instead: "Through Christ, I am in right standing with God." You can stop thinking, What is wrong with me? and start letting God show you the good things that He has placed in you. "For God restores to man His righteousness [that is, his right standing with God—with its joys]" (Job 33:26). Believe and speak, "I am the righteousness of God in Christ" (2 Cor. 5:21).

¹⁴"For God speaks once,

And even twice, yet no one notices it [including you, Job].

¹⁵"In a dream, a vision of the night [one may hear God's

- voice],
When deep sleep falls on men
While slumbering upon the bed,
¹⁶Then He opens the ears of men
And seals their instruction,
¹⁷That He may turn man aside from his conduct,
And keep him from pride;
¹⁸He holds back his soul from the pit [of destruction],
And his life from passing over into Sheol (the nether world,
the place of the dead).
¹⁹“Man is also disciplined with pain on his bed,
And with unceasing complaint in his bones,
²⁰So that his life makes him loathe food,
And his soul [loathe] even his favorite dishes.
²¹“His flesh is so wasted away that it cannot be seen,
And his bones which were not seen now stick out.
²²“Then his soul draws near to the pit [of destruction],
And his life to those who bring death (the destroyers).
²³“If there is an angel as a mediator for him,
One out of a thousand,
To explain to a man what is right for him [that is, how to be in right standing with God], ²⁴Then the angel is gracious to him, and says,
‘Spare him from going down to the pit [of destruction];
I have found a ransom [a consideration, or reason for redemption, an atonement]!’

- 25“Let his flesh be restored and become fresher than in youth;
Let him return to the days of his youthful strength.
- 26“He will pray to God, and He shall be favorable to him,
So that he looks at His face with joy;
For God restores to man His righteousness [that is, his right standing with God—with its joys].
- 27“He sings out to other men,
‘I have sinned and perverted that which was right,
And it was not proper for me!
- 28“God has redeemed my life from going to the pit [of
destruction],
And my life shall see the light.”
- 29[Elihu comments,] “Behold, God does all these things twice, yes, three times, with a man, ³⁰To bring his life back from the pit [of destruction],
That he may be enlightened with the light of the living.
- 31“Pay attention, Job, listen to me;
Keep silent, and I will speak.
- 32“If you have anything to say, answer me;
Speak, for I desire to justify you.
- 33“If not [and you have nothing to say], listen to me;
Keep silent, and I will teach you wisdom.”

34 ELIHU CONTINUED his discourse and said, ²“Hear my words, you wise men,
And listen to me, you who have [so much] knowledge.

- 3“For the ear puts words to the test
As the palate tastes food.
- 4“Let us choose for ourselves that which is right;
Let us know among ourselves what is good.
- 5“For Job has said, ‘I am righteous [and innocent],
But God has taken away my right; [Job 33:9]
- 6Although I am right, I am accounted a liar.
My wound is incurable, though I am without transgression.’
- 7“What man is like Job,
Who drinks up derision like water,
- 8Who goes in company with those who do evil
And walks with wicked men?
- 9“For he has said, ‘It profits a man nothing
When he takes delight and is pleased with God and obeys
Him.’
- 10“Therefore hear me, you men of understanding.
Far be it from God that He would do wickedness,
And from the Almighty to do wrong.
- 11“For God pays a man according to his work,
And He will make every man find [appropriate] compensation according to his way.
- 12“Surely God will not act wickedly,
Nor will the Almighty pervert justice.
- 13“Who put God in charge over the earth?
And who has laid on Him the whole world?

- 14“If God should determine to do so,
If He should gather to Himself [that is, withdraw from man]
His [life-giving] spirit and His breath, ¹⁵All flesh would perish together,
And man would return to dust. [Ps 104:29; Eccl 12:7]
- 16“If you now have understanding, hear this;
Listen to the sound of my words.
- 17“Shall one who hates justice [and is an enemy of right] govern?
And will you condemn Him who is just and mighty?
- 18“God who says to a king, ‘You are worthless and vile,’
Or to princes and nobles, ‘You are wicked and evil’?
- 19“Who is not partial to princes,
Nor does He regard the rich above the poor,
For they all are the work of His hands.
- 20“In a moment they die, even at midnight
The people are shaken and pass away,
And the powerful are taken away without a [human] hand.
- 21“For God’s eyes are on the ways of a man,
And He sees all his steps. [Ps 34:15; Prov 5:21; Jer 16:17]
- 22“There is no darkness nor deep shadow
Where the evildoers may hide themselves.
- 23“For He sets no appointed time for a man,
That he should appear before Him in judgment.
- 24“He breaks mighty men without inquiry,
And sets others in their place. [Dan 2:21]

- 25“Therefore He knows of their works,
And He overthrows them in the night,
So that they are crushed and destroyed.
- 26“He strikes them like the wicked
In a public place,
- 27Because they turned aside from following Him
And would not consider or show regard for any of His ways, [1 Sam 15:11]
- 28So that they caused the cry of the poor to come to Him,
And He heard the cry of the afflicted. [Ex 22:23; James 5:4]
- 29“When He keeps quiet, who then can condemn?
When He hides His face [withdrawing His favor and help], who then can behold Him [and make supplication to Him], Whether it be a nation or a man by himself?— ³⁰So that godless men would not rule
Nor be snares for the people.
- 31“For has anyone said to God,
‘I have endured my chastisement;
I will not offend anymore;
- 32Teach me what I do not see [in regard to how I have sinned];
If I have done wrong (injustice, unrighteousness),
I will not do it again’?
- 33“Shall God’s retribution [for your sins] be on your terms, because you refuse to accept it?
For you must do the choosing, and not I;
Therefore say what you [truthfully] know.

- 34“Men of understanding will tell me,
Indeed, every wise man who hears me [will agree],
35‘Job speaks without knowledge,
And his words are without wisdom and insight.
36‘Job ought to be tried to the limit
Because he answers like wicked men!
37‘For he adds rebellion [in his unsubmissive, defiant attitude toward God] to his [unacknowledged] sin; He claps his hands among us [in open mockery and contempt of God],
And he multiplies his words [of accusation] against God.’”

35 ELIHU CONTINUED speaking [to Job] and said, ²“Do you think this is according to [your] justice?

Do you say, ‘My righteousness is more than God’s’?

- 3“For you say, ‘What advantage have you [by living a righteous life]?

What profit will I have, more [by being righteous] than if I had sinned?’

- 4“‘I will answer you,
And your companions with you.

- 5“Look to the heavens and see;
And behold the skies which are [much] higher than you.

- 6“‘If you have sinned, what do you accomplish against Him?
And if your transgressions are multiplied, what have you done to Him?

- 7“‘If you are righteous, what do you give God,

Or what does He receive from your hand?

8“Your wickedness affects only a man such as you,
And your righteousness affects only a son of man [but it cannot affect God, who is sovereign].

9“Because of the multitudes of oppressions the people cry
out;

They cry for help because of the [violent] arm of the mighty.

10“But no one says, ‘Where is God my Maker,
Who gives songs [of rejoicing] in the night, [Acts 16:25]

11Who teaches us more than the beasts of the earth
And makes us wiser than the birds of the heavens?’

12“The people cry out, but He does not answer
Because of the pride of evil men.

13“Surely God will not listen to an empty cry [which lacks trust],

Nor will the Almighty regard it.

14“Even though you say that you do not see Him [when missing His righteous judgment on earth], Yet your case is before Him, and you must wait for Him!

15“And now, because He has not [quickly] punished in His anger,

Nor has He acknowledged transgression and arrogance well [and seems unaware of the wrong of which a person is guilty], ¹⁶Job uselessly opens his mouth

And multiplies words without knowledge [drawing the worthless conclusion that the righteous have no more advantage than the wicked].”

36 ELIHU CONTINUED and said, ²“Bear with me a little longer, and I will show you,

That there is yet more to say on God’s behalf.

³“I will bring my knowledge from afar,
And will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

⁴“For truly my words are not false;
He who is perfect in knowledge is with you.

⁵“Behold, God is mighty, and yet does not despise anyone [nor regard any as trivial]; He is mighty in the strength and power of understanding.

⁶“He does not prolong the life of the wicked,
But gives the afflicted their justice.

⁷“He does not withdraw His eyes from the righteous [those in right standing with Him]; But with kings upon the throne

He has seated them forever, and they are exalted.

⁸“And if they are bound in bonds [of adversity],
And held by cords of affliction, [Ps 107:10, 11]

⁹Then He declares to them [the true character of] their deeds
And their transgressions, that they have acted arrogantly [with presumption and notions of self-sufficiency].

¹⁰“He opens their ears to instruction and discipline,
And commands that they return from evil.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Thinking Highly of Others

One primary need all people have is to feel significant. We want to feel that we matter, that we have value and purpose. Acceptance from others helps us to feel that way. We can accept or reject someone without saying a word. When someone or something they do seems strange to me, I have a whole repertoire of facial expressions, head shakings, groans, and sighs that say without words, What is your problem? And if I started talking to that person or about that person concerning their “ways,” my words could quickly bring offense or feelings of rejection.

Making people feel significant begins with how we think about them. We need to take time to consider how we think about those around us. Is there anyone we approve of 100 percent? Probably not, but the percentage would go up if we simply realize they don’t need to think what we think, like what we like, share our opinions, or make the same choices we would in similar situations. God loves and accepts all of us, and He has made us all different. He wants us to value people where they are, not where we would like them to be.

Elihu said, “Behold, God is mighty, and yet does not despise anyone [nor regard any as trivial]” (Job 36:5). When people have a totally different opinion from ours, instead of regarding them as trivial, why not look at them and think, I respect your right to your opinion, and I realize my opinion may not be right all the time. If we think that way, we will talk that way and behave that way. When someone disagrees with us, why not look at them and think with a smile, I’m open to other ideas, and I’ll consider yours.

Try making a list of the people you deal with most, then go over the list often and do some “on-purpose thinking.” Intentionally think thoughts like these: [Person’s name] is valuable, they are gifted, and I need the variety they offer to my life. I appreciate their uniqueness, and I want to help them be all they can be.

This positive viewpoint about people means we agree to not see ourselves as more important or more valuable than others. It also means we agree with God to embrace them as significant.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Loving and caring God, I so need to become more like You in how I think about and treat other people. Help me to see others as valuable and gifted, created uniquely by You, and loved and completely accepted by You. In the name of Jesus, I pray. Amen.

- 11“If they hear and serve Him,
They will end their days in prosperity
And their years in pleasantness and joy.
- 12“But if they do not hear and obey, they will die by the sword [of God’s destructive judgments]
And they will die [in ignorance] without [true] knowledge.
- 13“But the godless in heart store up anger [at the divine discipline];
They do not cry [to Him] for help when He binds them [with cords of affliction]. [Rom 2:5]
- 14“They die in youth,
And their life ends among the cult prostitutes. [Deut 23:17]
- 15“He rescues the afflicted in their affliction,
And opens their ears [so that they pay attention to His voice] in times of oppression.
- 16“Then indeed, He enticed you from the mouth of distress and confinement, Into a broad place where there is no constraint or distress;
And that which was set on your table was full of fatness (rich food).
- 17“But you [Job] were full of judgment on the wicked,
Judgment and justice take hold of you.
- 18“Do not let wrath entice you into scoffing;
And do not let the greatness and the extent of the ransom turn you aside.

- 19“Will your wealth [be sufficient to] keep you from [the confinement of] distress, Or will all the force of your strength do it?
- 20“Do not long for the night,
When people vanish from their places.
- 21“Take heed and be careful, do not turn to wickedness,
For you have chosen this [the vice of complaining against God] rather than [learning from] affliction.
- 22“Behold, God is exalted in His power;
Who is a ruler or a teacher like Him?
- 23“Who has appointed God His way,
And who can say [to Him], ‘You have done wrong’?
- 24“Remember that you should magnify God’s work,
Of which men have sung.
- 25“All men have seen God’s work;
Man looks at it from a distance.
- 26“Behold, God is exalted, and we do not know Him;
The number of His years is unsearchable. [1 Cor 13:12]
- 27“For He draws up the drops of water,
They distill rain from the mist,
- 28Which the clouds pour down,
They drop abundantly upon mankind.”
- 29“Can anyone understand the spreading of the clouds
Or the thundering of His pavilion? [Ps 18:11; Is 40:22]
- 30“Behold, He spreads His lightning around Him [against the dark clouds],

And He covers the depths of the sea.

³¹“For by these [mighty acts] He judges the peoples;
He gives food in abundance.

³²“He covers His hands with the lightning,
And commands it to strike the mark.

³³“His thundering voice declares [awesomely] His presence;
The cattle also are told of His coming storm.

37 “INDEED, AT His thundering my heart trembles And leaps out of its place.

²“Listen carefully to the thunder of His voice,
And the rumbling that goes out of His mouth!

³“He lets it loose under the whole heaven,
And His lightning to the ends of the earth.

⁴“After it, His voice roars;
He thunders with the voice of His majesty,
And He does not restrain His lightning [against His adversaries] when His voice is heard.

⁵“God thunders marvelously with His voice;
He does great things which we cannot comprehend.

⁶“For He says to the snow, ‘Fall on the earth’;
And [He speaks] to the showers and to the downpour [of His mighty rains], ‘Be strong.’

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Stay Peaceful and Stand Firm

In Job 37, Job was still waiting for answers from God regarding his sufferings, and Elihu advised him, “Stand still and consider the wonders of God” (v. 14). In other words, when you are in a difficult situation, do what you know to do, but don’t feel pressured to take action if you have no direction from God. Ask God to open your mind to new ways of thinking, doing and seeing things. If He shows you something, then do it, and if He doesn’t, then remain peaceful and trust that He will work for you and do what you cannot do. While you are waiting, consider all the wonders and amazing things that God has done all around you. Each of our lives is filled with miracles, and we need to learn to see them.

Think and speak, “I may not know what to do in my situation, but I do know God and He is working on my behalf. I believe God is doing something amazing right now and I am expecting to see it soon.”

⁷“God seals (brings to a standstill, stops) [by severe weather] the hand of every man, That all men [whom He has made] may know His work [that is, His sovereign power and their subjection to it].

⁸“Then the beast goes into its lair
And remains in its hiding place.

- 9“Out of its chamber comes the storm,
And cold from the north wind.
- 10“Ice is made by the breath of God,
And the expanse of the waters is frozen. [Ps 147:17, 18]
- 11“He loads the thick cloud with moisture;
He disperses the cloud of His lightning.
- 12“Its direction is turned around by His guidance,
That it may do whatever He commands it
On the face of the inhabited earth.
- 13“Whether [it be] for correction, or for His earth [generally]
Or for [His] mercy and lovingkindness, He causes it to happen. [Ex 9:18, 23; 1 Sam 12:18, 19]
- 14“Listen to this, Job;
Stand still and consider the wonders of God.
- 15“Do you know how God establishes and commands them,
And makes the lightning of His [storm] cloud shine?
- 16“Do you know about the layers of thick clouds [and how they are balanced and poised in the heavens], The wonderful works of Him who is perfect in knowledge,
- 17You whose garments are hot,
When He quiets the earth [in sultry summer] with the [oppressive] south wind?
- 18“Can you, with Him, spread out the sky,
Strong as a molten mirror?
- 19“Tell us [Job] what words [of man] shall we say to such a Being;

We cannot state our case because of darkness [that is, our ignorance in the presence of the unsearchable God].

20“So shall it be told Him that I wish to speak?

Or should a man say that he would be swallowed up [and destroyed by God]?

21“Now people cannot look at the light when it is bright in the skies [without being blinded], When the wind has passed and cleared them.

22“Out of the north comes golden splendor [and people can hardly look on it]; Around God is awesome splendor and majesty [far too glorious for man’s eyes].

23“The Almighty—we cannot find Him;

He is exalted in power

And He will not do violence to [nor disregard] justice and abundant righteousness. [1 Tim 6:16]

24“Men therefore fear Him;

He does not regard nor respect any who are wise in heart [in their own understanding and conceit].” [Matt 10:28]

38 THEN THE LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind and said, 2“Who is this that darkens counsel [questioning my authority and wisdom]

By words without knowledge? [Job 35:16]

3“Now gird up your loins like a man,

And I will ask you, and you instruct Me!

4“Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?

Tell Me, if you know and have understanding.

⁵“Who determined the measurements [of the earth], if you know?

Or who stretched the [measuring] line on it?

⁶“On what were its foundations fastened?

Or who laid its cornerstone,

⁷When the morning stars sang together

And all the sons of God (angels) shouted for joy?

⁸“Or who enclosed the sea with doors

When it burst forth and went out of the womb;

⁹When I made the clouds its garment

And thick darkness its swaddling band,

¹⁰And marked for it My [appointed] boundary

And set bars and doors [defining the shorelines], [Jer 5:22]

¹¹And said, ‘This far you shall come, but no farther;

And here your proud waves shall stop’? [Ps 89:9; 93:4]

¹²“Since your days began, have you ever commanded the morning, And caused the dawn to know its place,

¹³So that light may take hold of the corners of the earth

And shake the wickedness out of it?

¹⁴“The earth is changed like clay into which a seal is pressed;

And the things [of the earth] stand out like a [multi-colored] garment.

¹⁵“Their light is withheld from the wicked,

And the uplifted arm is broken.

¹⁶“Have you entered and explored the springs of the sea

Or [have you] walked in the recesses of the deep?

¹⁷“Have the gates of death been revealed to you,
Or have you seen the gates of deep darkness?

¹⁸“Have you understood the expanse of the earth?
Tell Me, if you know all this.

¹⁹“Where is the way where light dwells?
And as for darkness, where is its place,

²⁰That you may take it to its territory
And that you may know the paths to its house?

²¹“You [must] know, since you were born then,
And because you are so extremely old!

POWERPOINT

When God asked Job where light dwells and where the place of darkness is, He was making a point about the divine mystery that surrounds Him.

While His knowledge is limitless, we will never begin to know everything about Him or His creation. But He knows everything about us, and in His grace He is doing great things for us and in our lives.

- ²²“Have you entered the storehouses of the snow,
Or have you seen the storehouses of the hail,
²³Which I have reserved for the time of trouble,
For the day of battle and war? [Ex 9:18; Josh 10:11; Is 30:30;
Rev 16:21]
- ²⁴“Where is the way that the light is distributed,
Or the east wind scattered over the earth?

- 25“Who has prepared a channel for the torrents of rain and for the flood, Or a path for the thunderbolt,
- 26To bring rain on the uninhabited land,
And on the desert where no man lives,
- 27To satisfy the barren and desolate ground
And to make the seeds of grass to sprout?
- 28“Has the rain a father?
Or who has begotten the drops of dew?
- 29“Out of whose womb has come the ice?
And the frost of heaven, who has given it birth?
- 30“Water becomes like stone [and hides itself],
And the surface of the deep is frozen and imprisoned.
- 31“Can you bind the chains of [the cluster of stars called]
Pleiades,
Or loose the cords of [the constellation] Orion?
- 32“Can you lead forth a constellation in its season,
And guide [the stars of] the Bear with her sons?
- 33“Do you know the ordinances of the heavens,
Or [can you] establish their rule over the earth?
- 34“Can you lift up your voice to the clouds,
So that an abundance of water will cover you?
- 35“Can you send forth lightnings that they may go
And say to you, ‘Here we are’?
- 36“Who has put wisdom in the innermost being [of man, or in the layers of clouds]
Or given understanding to the mind [of man, or to the heavenly display]?

37“Who can count the clouds by [earthly] wisdom,
Or pour out the water jars of the heavens,

38When the dust hardens into a mass
And the clods stick together [because of the heat]?

39“Can you [Job] hunt the prey for the lion,
Or satisfy the appetite of the young lions

40When they crouch in their dens
And lie in wait in their lair?

41“Who provides prey for the raven
When its young cry to God
And wander about without food?

39 “DO YOU know the time when the wild goats of the rock give birth [to their young]?

Do you observe the calving of the deer?

2“Can you count the months that they carry offspring,
Or do you know the time when they give birth?

3“They kneel down, they bring forth their young,
They cast out their labor pains.

4“Their young ones become strong, they grow up in the open field;
They leave and do not return to them.

5“Who sent out the wild donkey free [from dependence on man]?

And who has loosed the bonds of the wild donkey [to survive in the wild],

⁶To whom I gave the wilderness as his home
And the salt land as his dwelling place?

⁷“He scorns the tumult of the city,
And does not hear the shouting of the taskmaster.

⁸“He explores the mountains as his pasture
And searches after every green thing.

⁹“Will the wild ox be willing to serve you,
Or remain beside your manger at night?

¹⁰“Can you bind the wild ox with a harness [to the plow] in the furrow?
Or will he plow the valleys for you?

¹¹“Will you trust him because his strength is great
And leave your labor to him?

¹²“Will you have faith and depend on him to return your grain
And gather it from your threshing floor?

¹³“The [flightless] wings of the ostrich wave joyously;
With the pinion (shackles, fetters) and plumage of love,

¹⁴For she leaves her eggs on the ground
And warms them in the dust,

¹⁵Forgetting that a foot may crush them,
Or that the wild beast may trample them.

¹⁶“She treats her young cruelly, as if they were not hers;
Though her labor is in vain because she is unconcerned [for the safety of her brood],

- 17 For God has made her forget wisdom,
And has not given her a share of understanding.
- 18 “Yet when she lifts herself on high,
[So swift is she that] she laughs at the horse and his rider.
- 19 “Have you given the horse his might?
Have you clothed his neck with quivering and a shaking mane?
- 20 “Have you [Job] made him leap like a locust?
The majesty of his snorting [nostrils] is terrible.
- 21 “He paws in the valley and rejoices in his strength;
He goes out to meet the weapons [of armed men].
- 22 “He laughs at fear and is not dismayed;
And [in battle] he does not turn back from the sword.
- 23 “The quiver rattles against him,
[As do] the flashing spear and the lance [of his rider].
- 24 “With fierceness and rage he races to devour the ground,
And he does not stand still at the sound of the [war] trumpet.
- 25 “As often as the trumpet sounds he says, ‘Aha!’
And he smells the battle from far away,
And senses the thunder of the captains and the war cry.
- 26 “Is it by your understanding that the hawk soars, Stretching his wings toward the south [as winter approaches]?
- 27 “Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up
And makes his nest on high [in an inaccessible place]?

- 28“On the cliff he dwells and remains [securely],
Upon the point of the rock and the inaccessible stronghold.
29“From there he spies out the prey;
His eyes see it from far away.
30“His young ones suck up blood;
And where the slain are, there is he.”

40 THEN THE LORD said to Job, 2“Will the faultfinder contend with the Almighty?

Let him who disputes with God answer it.”

3Then Job replied to the LORD and said,

4“Behold, I am of little importance and contemptible; what can I reply to You?

I lay my hand on my mouth. [Ezra 9:6; Ps 51:4]

5“I have spoken once, but I will not reply again—

Indeed, twice [I have answered], and I will add nothing further.”

6Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, saying,

7“Now gird up your loins (prepare yourself) like a man,
And I will ask you, and you instruct Me.

8“Will you really annul My judgment and set it aside as void?

Will you condemn Me [your God] that you may [appear to] be righteous and justified?

9“Have you an arm like God,

And can you thunder with a voice like His?

¹⁰“Adorn yourself with eminence and dignity [since you question the Almighty], And array yourself with honor and majesty.

¹¹“Pour out the overflowings of your wrath,
And look at everyone who is proud and make him low.

¹²Look at everyone who is proud, and humble him,
And [if you are so able] tread down the wicked where they stand.

¹³“[Crush and] hide them in the dust together;
Shut them up in the hidden place [the house of death].

¹⁴“[If you can do all this, Job, proving your divine power] then I [God] will also praise you and acknowledge That your own right hand can save you.

¹⁵“Behold now, Behemoth, which I created as well as you;
He eats grass like an ox.

¹⁶“See now, his strength is in his loins
And his power is in the muscles and sinews of his belly.

¹⁷“He sways his tail like a cedar;
The tendons of his thighs are twisted and knit together [like a rope].

¹⁸“His bones are tubes of bronze;
His limbs are like bars of iron.

¹⁹“He is the first [in magnitude and power] of the works of God;
[Only] He who made him can bring near His sword [to master him].

20“Surely the mountains bring him food,
And all the wild animals play there.

21“He lies down under the lotus plants,
In the hidden shelter of the reeds in the marsh.

22“The lotus plants cover him with their shade;
The willows of the brook surround him.

23“If a river rages and overflows, he does not tremble;
He is confident, though the Jordan [River] swells and rushes against his mouth.

24“Can anyone capture him when he is on watch,
Or pierce his nose with barbs [to trap him]?

41 “CAN YOU draw out Leviathan with a fishhook?

Or press down his tongue with a cord?

2“Can you put a rope [made] of rushes into his nose
Or pierce his jaw through with a hook?

3“Will he make many supplications to you [begging to be spared]?
Or will he speak soft words to you [to coax you to treat him kindly]?

4“Will he make a covenant or an arrangement with you?
Will you take him for your servant forever?

5“Will you play with him as with a bird?
Or will you bind him [and put him on a leash] for your maidens?

- 6“Will traders bargain over him?
Will they divide him up among the merchants?
- 7“Can you fill his skin with harpoons,
Or his head with fishing spears?
- 8“Lay your hand on him;
Remember the battle [with him]; you will not do such [an ill-advised thing] again!
- 9“Behold, his [assailant’s] hope and expectation [of defeating Leviathan] is false; Will not one be overwhelmed even at the sight of him?
- 10“No one is so fierce [and foolhardy] that he dares to stir up Leviathan;
Who then is he who can stand before Me [or dares to contend with Me, the beast’s creator]?
- 11“Who has first given to Me that I should repay him?
Whatever is under the whole heaven is Mine. [Who can have a claim against Me who made the unmastered beast?] [Rom 11:35]
- 12“I will not keep silence concerning his limbs,
Nor his mighty strength, nor his orderly frame.
- 13“Who can penetrate or strip off his outer armor?
Who can come to his jaws with a double bridle?
- 14“Who can open the doors (jaws) of his face?
Around his [open jaws and] teeth there is terror.
- 15“His strong scales are his pride,
Bound together as with a tight seal.

16“One is so near to another

That no air can come between them.

17“They are joined one to another;

They stick together and cannot be separated.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Let Emotions Subside Before You Speak

The final chapter of Job teaches the importance of not speaking rashly out of our emotions. The suffering Job endured had been unimaginable, and God never explained to Job exactly why He allowed such a trial of Job's faith. Nevertheless, in his direct encounter with God, Job stated, "Therefore [I now see] I have [rashly] uttered that which I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know" (Job 42:3).

Nothing takes more self-control than not speaking negatively in a negative situation. The mouth wants to spurt out everything the mind thinks and the heart feels at that moment. But at such times, we need to go deeper, thinking and speaking out of our renewed spirit. These are important times to agree with God and say what He says in His Word.

- 18“His sneezes flash forth light,
And his eyes are like the [reddish] eyelids of the dawn.
- 19“Out of his mouth go burning torches,
And sparks of fire leap out.
- 20“Out of his nostrils smoke goes forth
As from a boiling pot and [as from] burning rushes.
- 21“His breath kindles coals,
And a flame goes forth from his mouth.

- 22“In Leviathan’s neck resides strength,
And dismay and terror dance before him.
- 23“The folds of his flesh are joined together,
Firm on him and immobile [when he moves].
- 24“His heart is as hard as a stone,
Indeed, as solid as a lower millstone.
- 25“When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid;
Because of the crashing they are bewildered.
- 26“The sword that reaches him cannot avail,
Nor [does] the spear, the dart, or the javelin.
- 27“He considers iron as straw,
Bronze as rotten wood.
- 28“The arrow cannot make him flee;
Slingstones are treated as stubble by him.
- 29“Clubs [also] are regarded as stubble;
He laughs at the rushing and the rattling of the javelin.
- 30“His underparts are like sharp pieces of broken pottery;
He moves across and spreads out [grooves] like a threshing sledge on the mire (muddy river banks).
- 31“He makes the deep water boil like a pot;
He makes the sea like a [foaming] pot of ointment.
- 32“Behind him he makes a shining wake;
One would think the deep to be gray-haired [with foam].
- 33“Upon earth there is nothing like him—no equal exists,
A creature made without fear.
- 34“He looks on everything that is high [without terror];

He is monarch over all the sons of pride. [And now, Job, who are you who does not dare to disturb the beast, yet who dares resist Me, the beast's creator? Everything under the heavens is Mine; therefore, who can have a claim against God?]"

42 THEN JOB answered the LORD and said, ²“I know that You can do all things,

And that no thought or purpose of Yours can be restrained.

³“[You said to me] ‘Who is this that darkens and obscures counsel [by words] without knowledge?’

Therefore [I now see] I have [rashly] uttered that which I did not understand,

Things too wonderful for me, which I did not know. [Job 38:2]

⁴“Hear, please, and I will speak;

I will ask You, and You instruct [and answer] me.’

⁵“I had heard of You [only] by the hearing of the ear,

But now my [spiritual] eye sees You.

⁶“Therefore I retract [my words and hate myself]

And I repent in dust and ashes.”

⁷It came about that after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, that the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends, for you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has.

⁸“Now therefore, take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to My servant Job, and offer up a burnt offering for yourselves, and My servant Job will pray for you. For I will accept him [and his prayer] so that I may not deal with you according to your folly, because you have not spoken of Me the thing that is right, as My servant Job has.”

! REMEMBER, God always leads you in triumph in Christ!

⁹So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the LORD told them; and the LORD accepted Job’s prayer.

¹⁰The LORD restored the fortunes of Job when he prayed for his friends, and the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. [Deut 30:1–3; Ps 126:1, 2]

¹¹Then all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before came to him, and they ate bread with him in his house; and they consoled him and comforted him over all the [distressing] adversities that the LORD had brought on him. And each one gave him a piece of money, and each a ring of gold.

¹²And the LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; for he had 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 yoke of oxen, and 1,000 female donkeys. [Job 1:3]

¹³He had seven sons and three daughters.

¹⁴And he called the name of the first [daughter] Jemimah, and the name of the second Keziah, and the name of the third Keren-happuch.

¹⁵In all the land there were found no women so fair as the daughters of Job; and their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers.

¹⁶After this, Job lived 140 years, and saw his sons and his grandsons, four generations.

¹⁷So Job died, an old man and full of days. [James 5:11]

The book of Psalms includes many verses on the mind, particularly verses that call us to remember or know or understand something about God or about ourselves. The words remember, know, and understand all pertain to the mind.

The Psalms are also full of insights on winning the battle of the mind and scriptures you can confess to defeat the enemy. The writers of the Psalms often expressed their thoughts and feelings—positive or negative—to the Lord. Whenever they struggled with negative thoughts though, they eventually remembered God’s goodness and faithfulness and ended up with a positive mind-set.

When you wrestle with wrong thoughts or emotions, let me encourage you to allow the Psalms to restore your hope and strengthen your faith and confidence in God.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM PSALMS:

When you cry for help, the Lord hears (see Psalm 34:17).

When the enemy tries to oppress your mind with negative or discouraging thoughts, one way to overcome him is to praise God (see Psalm 42:5).

God will always help you in times of trouble (see Psalm 46:1).

God knows you thoroughly. He is aware of your every thought before you think it and of your every word before you speak it (see Psalm 139:1–4).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM PSALMS:

As for God, His way is blameless. The word of the LORD is tested [it is perfect, it is faultless]; He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him. | Psalm 18:30

Trust [rely on and have confidence] in the LORD and do good; dwell in the land and feed [securely] on His faithfulness. | Psalm 37:3

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will remain secure and rest in the shadow of the Almighty [whose power no enemy can withstand]. | Psalm 91:1

I will bow down [in worship] toward Your holy temple and give thanks to Your name for Your lovingkindness and Your truth; for You have magnified Your word together with Your name. | Psalm 138:2

THE PSALMS

The following expressions occur often in the Psalms: Selah may mean Pause, Crescendo or Musical Interlude; Maskil possibly, Contemplative, or Didactic, or Skillful Psalm; Mikhtam possibly, Epigrammatic Poem, or Atonement Psalm; Sheol the nether world.

BOOK ONE

Psalm 1

The Righteous and the Wicked Contrasted.

¹BLESSED [fortunate, prosperous, and favored by God] is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked [following their advice and example], Nor stand in the path of sinners,

Nor sit [down to rest] in the seat of scoffers (ridiculers).

²But his delight is in the law of the LORD,
And on His law [His precepts and teachings] he [habitually] meditates day and night. [Rom 13:8–10; Gal 3:1–29; 2 Tim 3:16]

- ³ And he will be like a tree firmly planted [and fed] by streams of water,
Which yields its fruit in its season;
Its leaf does not wither;
And in whatever he does, he prospers [and comes to maturity]. [Jer 17:7, 8]
- ⁴ The wicked [those who live in disobedience to God's law] are not so, But they are like the chaff [worthless and without substance] which the wind blows away.

Speak God's Word

*I am like a tree firmly planted and fed by streams of water; which yields its fruit in its season; its leaf does not wither; and in whatever I do,
I prosper and come to maturity.*

| adapted from PSALM 1:3 |

- ⁵Therefore the wicked will not stand [unpunished] in the judgment,
Nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.
- ⁶For the LORD knows and fully approves the way of the righteous, But the way of the wicked shall perish.

Psalm 2

The Reign of the LORD's Anointed.

- ¹WHY ARE the nations in an uproar [in turmoil against God],
And why do the people devise a vain and hopeless plot?
- ²The kings of the earth take their stand;
And the rulers take counsel together

Against the LORD and His Anointed (the Davidic King, the Messiah, the Christ), saying, [Acts 4:25–27]

³“Let us break apart their [divine] bands [of restraint]
And cast away their cords [of control] from us.”

⁴He who sits [enthroned] in the heavens laughs [at their rebellion]; The [Sovereign] Lord scoffs at them [and in supreme contempt He mocks them].

⁵Then He will speak to them in His [profound] anger
And terrify them with His displeasure, saying,

⁶“Yet as for Me, I have anointed and firmly installed My King
Upon Zion, My holy mountain.”

⁷“I will declare the decree of the LORD: He said to Me, ‘You are My Son;

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

What Goes In Comes Out

In the early days of computers, people said, “Garbage in, garbage out.” That was a way of explaining that the computer only worked with the data put into it. If we wanted different results, we needed to put in different information. Most people understand that concept, but when it comes to their minds, many don’t seem to get it.

If you are going to win the battle of the mind, where you focus your attention is crucial. The more you meditate on God’s Word, the stronger you’ll become and the more easily you’ll win the victories you desire.

There is a difference between meditating on the Bible and reading the Bible. Some people like to think that whenever they read God’s Word, they’re absorbing the deep things of God, but often they have little idea of what they’ve read when they finish. Those who meditate on God’s Word are those who think—and think seriously—about what they’re reading. They’re saying, in effect, “God, speak to me. As I ponder Your Word, reveal its depth to me.”

The psalmist made it quite clear that meditating on and thinking about God's Word bring results. "But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on His law [His precepts and teachings] he [habitually] meditates day and night. And he will be like a tree firmly planted [and fed] by streams of water, which yields its fruit in its season; its leaf does not wither; and in whatever he does, he prospers [and comes to maturity]" (Ps. 1:2-3).

As you ponder who God is and what He's saying to you, you'll grow. It's really that simple. If you read about and allow your mind to focus on God's love and power, that's what will operate in you. If you think about loving others, that is what you will end up doing, but if you think only about how others have hurt you and what people should be doing for you, then you will be self-focused.

Sadly, some Christians don't put much effort into studying the Word. They hear others teach and preach, and they may listen to online sermons and read the Bible occasionally, but they're not dedicated to making God's Word a major and regular part of their lives.

Be careful what you think about. The more you think about Jesus Christ and the principles He taught, the more you become like Jesus and the stronger you grow. And as you grow, you're winning the battles in your mind.

APRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord God, help me to think about the things that honor You. Make me hungry for more of You and teach me to meditate and focus on Your Word more and more. In Jesus' name. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Think About God's Word

The Word of God teaches us what we should spend our time thinking about. The psalmist said he thought about or meditated on the “precepts” of God (see Ps. 119:15). That means he spent a lot of time pondering and thinking on the ways of God, His goodness, His instructions. I recommend that you spend time daily just thinking about God, how amazing He is and all the wonderful things He has promised in His Word.

It is very beneficial to think about God's Word because it reveals His will and His amazing plan for His children. The more you think about it, the easier it will be for you to do it. It is also a proven fact that when we think about good things, our joy and peace increase, but when we think about vain or useless things, we become frustrated and dissatisfied.

This day [I proclaim] I have begotten You. [2 Sam 7:14; Heb 1:5; 3:5, 6; 2 Pet 1:17, 18]

⁸“Ask of Me, and I will assuredly give [You] the nations as Your inheritance,
And the ends of the earth as Your possession.

⁹“You shall break them with a rod of iron;
You shall shatter them [in pieces] like earthenware.” [Rev 12:5; 19:15]

POWERPOINT

In Psalm 2:7, the psalmist wrote that he would “declare the decree of the LORD.” The written Word of God is His formal decree. When we declare God’s Word out of our mouths, with hearts full of faith, those faith-filled words go forth to establish God’s order and plan in our lives. It is very important to learn that words contain the power of life and death (see Prov. 18:21).

- ¹⁰Now therefore, O kings, act wisely;
Be instructed and take warning, O leaders (judges, rulers) of the earth.
- ¹¹Worship the LORD and serve Him with reverence [with awe-inspired fear and submissive wonder]; Rejoice [yet do so] with trembling.
- ¹²Kiss (pay respect to) the Son, so that He does not become angry, and you perish in the way, For His wrath may soon be kindled and set aflame.

How blessed [fortunate, prosperous, and favored by God]
are all those who take refuge in Him!

Psalm 3

Morning Prayer of Trust in God.

A Psalm of David. When he fled from Absalom his son.

¹O LORD, how my enemies have increased!

Many are rising up against me.

²Many are saying of me,

“There is no help [no salvation] for him in God.”

Selah.

³But You, O LORD, are a shield for me,

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, You are a shield for me, my glory and my honor; and the One who lifts my head. When I cry to You, You will answer me from Your holy mountain.

• adapted from Psalm 3:3–4

My glory [and my honor], and the One who lifts my head.

⁴With my voice I was crying to the LORD,

And He answered me from His holy mountain.

Selah.

⁵I lay down and slept [safely];

I awakened, for the LORD sustains me.

⁶I will not be intimidated or afraid of the ten thousands
Who have set themselves against me all around.

⁷Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God!
For You have struck all my enemies on the cheek;
You have shattered the teeth of the wicked.

⁸Salvation belongs to the LORD;
May Your blessing be upon Your people.

Selah.

Psalm 4

Evening Prayer of Trust in God.

To the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm
of David.

¹ANSWER ME when I call, O God of my righteousness!
You have freed me when I was hemmed in and relieved me
when I was in distress;
Be gracious to me and hear [and respond to] my prayer.

²O sons of men, how long will my honor and glory be [turned into] shame?
How long will you [my enemies] love worthless (vain, futile) things and seek deception and lies?

Selah.

³But know that the LORD has set apart for Himself [and dealt wonderfully with] the godly man [the one of honorable character and moral courage—the one who does right].
The LORD hears and responds when I call to Him.

⁴Tremble [with anger or fear], and do not sin;
Meditate in your heart upon your bed and be still [reflect on your sin and repent of your rebellion]. [Eph 4:26]

Selah.

⁵Offer righteous sacrifices;
Trust [confidently] in the LORD.

⁶Many are saying, “Oh, that we might see some good!”
Lift up the light of Your face upon us, O LORD.

⁷You have put joy in my heart,
More than [others know] when their wheat and new wine have yielded abundantly.

⁸In peace [and with a tranquil heart] I will both lie down and sleep,
For You alone, O LORD, make me dwell in safety and confident trust.

POWERPOINT

Many people say they cannot sleep at night because they can't get their minds to settle down. But Psalm 4:8 says, "In peace [and with a tranquil heart] I will both lie down and sleep." When we use our mind to reason our way through a situation to figure out what to do, we rotate our mind around and around an issue until we become worn-out and confused. We can experience peace of mind and heart when we trust in God, not in our human insight and understanding. You and I can grow to the place where we are satisfied to know the One Who knows, even if we ourselves do not know.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Understanding Righteousness

The Bible includes many names of God. In Psalm 4:1, David calls Him the “God of my righteousness.” We find the concept of righteousness mentioned throughout the Word of God, and it’s important for us to understand it.

There are two kinds of righteousness. The first kind is righteousness through right behavior; this is the one we are most familiar with. We struggle through life trying to do what is expected of us, and what society tells us is right. If we have faith in God, we also struggle trying to please Him by obeying all His commands. Most of us feel we never succeed or measure up to the standard that has been set. Those feelings of failure and being wrong or inadequate lead to guilt and condemnation, which press us down in life and cause us to live beneath the privileges we have as children of God. We spend our lives trying to get something that God’s Word says we can have freely as a gift of God’s grace through faith. I like to say it is like trying to get into a chair we are already seated in.

The second kind of righteousness available to us is God’s righteousness. It is His gift to us at the time we receive Jesus Christ as our Savior. It comes by grace through faith. Since it is a free gift, we cannot earn it, deserve it, or pay for it. The gift of righteousness God gives us has already been paid for through the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus.

In this kind of righteousness, God takes our sin and gives us His righteousness, and by an act of His love and mercy, He views us as having right standing with Him through faith (see 2 Cor. 5:21). This is the great exchange! God takes our sins, puts them on Jesus, and gives us His righteousness. Someone had to pay the price for sin, and we could not. So God sent Jesus to be our substitute and pay our sin debt in full. God is the God of our righteousness, the One who sees us as righteous not because of anything we have ever done, but because of what Jesus has done for us.

Once we know we have been made right with God through faith in Jesus, the knowledge of His love and what He has done for us causes us to “want” to do what is right, and we are then doing it for the right reason. We do what is right because He loves us, and not to get Him to love us, because His love is a free gift.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

God of my righteousness, thank You for sending Jesus to suffer and die for my sins so I do not have to struggle to try to please You. Help me to live with a constant awareness that You see me as righteous because of Him. In His name. Amen.

Psalm 5

Prayer for Protection from the Wicked.

To the Chief Musician; on wind instruments. A Psalm of David.

- ¹LISTEN TO my words, O LORD,
Consider my groaning and sighing.
- ²Heed the sound of my cry for help, my King and my God,
For to You I pray.
- ³In the morning, O LORD, You will hear my voice;
In the morning I will prepare [a prayer and a sacrifice] for You and watch and wait [for You to speak to my heart].
- ⁴For You are not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness;
No evil [person] dwells with You.
- ⁵The boastful and the arrogant will not stand in Your sight;
You hate all who do evil.
- ⁶You destroy those who tell lies;
The LORD detests and rejects the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.
- ⁷But as for me, I will enter Your house through the abundance of Your steadfast love and tender mercy; At Your holy temple I will bow [obediently] in reverence for
You.
- ⁸O LORD, lead me in Your righteousness because of my enemies; Make Your way straight (direct, right) before me.

⁹For there is nothing trustworthy or reliable or truthful in what they say; Their heart is destruction [just a treacherous chasm, a yawning gulf of lies].

Their throat is an open grave;

They [glibly] flatter with their [silken] tongue. [Rom 3:13]

¹⁰Hold them guilty, O God;

Let them fall by their own designs and councils!

Cast them out because of the abundance of their transgressions,

For they are mutinous and have rebelled against You.

¹¹But let all who take refuge and put their trust in You rejoice,

Let them ever sing for joy;

Because You cover and shelter them,

Let those who love Your name be joyful and exult in You.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

First Thing

David said, “In the morning, O LORD, You will hear my voice; in the morning I will prepare [a prayer and a sacrifice] for You and watch and wait [for You to speak to my heart]” (Ps. 5:3).

What was the first thing you said after getting up this morning? I believe we can prophesy (speak forth) and set the tone of the day by what we say at the beginning of it. Maybe you said, “I’m tired, and I dread going to work.” These kinds of words often come naturally, but you can decide to live supernaturally and say what God would say. Can you imagine Him saying, “This is going to be a lousy day”? Of course not! He would say something awesome and positive, and we should too—“I have favor everywhere I go”; “Today is going to be an awesome day”; “I’m going to see the hand of God at work today!”

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

You, O Lord, bless me and all the people who are in right standing with You; You surround me with favor as with a shield.

• adapted from Psalm 5:12

- ¹²For You, O LORD, bless the righteous man [the one who is in right standing with You]; You surround him with favor as with a shield.

Psalm 6

Prayer for Mercy in Time of Trouble.

To the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments, set [possibly] an octave below. A Psalm of David.

- ¹O LORD, do not rebuke or punish me in Your anger,
Nor discipline me in Your wrath.
- ²Have mercy on me and be gracious to me, O LORD, for I am weak (faint, frail); Heal me, O LORD, for my bones are dismayed and anguished.
- ³My soul [as well as my body] is greatly dismayed.
But as for You, O LORD—how long [until You act on my behalf]?

- ⁴Return, O LORD, rescue my soul;
Save me because of Your [unfailing] steadfast love and mercy.
- ⁵For in death there is no mention of You;
In Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead) who will praise You and give You thanks?
- ⁶I am weary with my groaning;
Every night I soak my bed with tears,
I drench my couch with my weeping.
- ⁷My eye grows dim with grief;
It grows old because of all my enemies.
- ⁸Depart from me, all you who do evil,
For the LORD has heard the voice of my weeping. [Matt
7:23; Luke 13:27]
- ⁹The LORD has heard my supplication [my plea for grace];
The LORD receives my prayer.
- ¹⁰Let all my enemies be ashamed and greatly horrified;
Let them turn back, let them suddenly be ashamed [of what they have done].

Psalm 7

The LORD Implored to Defend the Psalmist against the Wicked.

An Ode of David, [perhaps in a wild, irregular, enthusiastic strain,] which he sang to the LORD concerning the words of Cush, a Benjamite.

¹O LORD my God, in You I take refuge;
Save me and rescue me from all those who pursue me,
²So that my enemy will not tear me like a lion,
Dragging me away while there is no one to rescue [me].

³O LORD my God, if I have done this, If there is injustice in my hands,

⁴If I have done evil to him who was at peace with me,
Or without cause robbed him who was my enemy,

⁵Let the enemy pursue me and overtake me;
And let him trample my life to the ground
And lay my honor in the dust.

Selah.

⁶Arise, O LORD, in Your anger;
Lift up Yourself against the rage of my enemies; Rise up for me; You have commanded judgment and vindication.

⁷Let the assembly of the nations be gathered around You,
And return on high over them.

⁸The LORD judges the peoples;
Judge me, O LORD, and grant me justice according to my righteousness and according to the integrity within me.

⁹Oh, let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous [those in right standing with You];
For the righteous God tries the hearts and minds. [Rev
2:23]

¹⁰My shield and my defense depend on God,

Who saves the upright in heart.

¹¹God is a righteous judge,
And a God who is indignant every day.

¹²If a man does not repent, God will sharpen His sword;
He has strung and bent His [mighty] bow and made it ready.

¹³He has also prepared [other] deadly weapons for Himself;
He makes His arrows fiery shafts [aimed at the unrepentant].

¹⁴Behold, the [wicked and irreverent] man is pregnant with sin,
And he conceives mischief and gives birth to lies.

¹⁵He has dug a pit and hollowed it out,
And has fallen into the [very] pit which he made [as a trap].

¹⁶His mischief will return on his own head,
And his violence will come down on the top of his head
[like loose dirt].

¹⁷I will give thanks to the LORD according to His righteousness and justice, And I will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

Psalm 8

The LORD's Glory and Man's Dignity.

To the Chief Musician; set to a Philistine lute [or perhaps to a particular Hittite tune]. A Psalm of David.

¹O LORD, our Lord,
How majestic and glorious and excellent is Your name in all the earth!

You have displayed Your splendor above the heavens.

²Out of the mouths of infants and nursing babes You have established strength

Because of Your adversaries,

That You might silence the enemy and make the revengeful cease. [Matt 21:15, 16]

³When I see and consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, The moon and the stars, which You have established,

⁴What is man that You are mindful of him,

POWERPOINT

Have you ever wondered if you are good enough for God to love you? Unfortunately, many people believe God loves them only as long as they don't make mistakes. The psalmist asked, "What is man that You are mindful of him, and the son of [earthborn] man that You care for him?" (Ps. 8:4). I think David knew that God loved Him, but He was still amazed that He did. The Bible tells us that we are God's creation, the work of His hands, and that He loves each one of us unconditionally, and that is amazing!

And the son of [earthborn] man that You care for him?

⁵Yet You have made him a little lower than *God, And You have crowned him with glory and honor.

⁶You made him to have dominion over the works of Your hands;

You have put all things under his feet, [1 Cor 15:27; Eph 1:22, 23; Heb 2:6–8]

⁷All sheep and oxen,
And also the beasts of the field,

⁸The birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,
Whatever passes through the paths of the seas.

⁹O LORD, our Lord,
How majestic and glorious and excellent is Your name in all the earth!

Psalm 9

A Psalm of Thanksgiving for God's Justice.

To the Chief Musician; on Muth-labben. A Psalm of David.

¹I WILL give thanks and praise the LORD, with all my heart; I will tell aloud all Your wonders and marvelous deeds.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Be Glad

Twice in Philippians 4:4 the apostle Paul tells us to rejoice. He urges us to “not be anxious or worried about anything” (Phil. 4:6), but to pray and give thanks to God in every circumstance and in everything—not after everything is working out good in our lives.

If we wait until everything is perfect before rejoicing and giving thanks, we won't ever have consistent joy. Learning to enjoy life, to “be in high spirits” even in the midst of difficult circumstances, is one way we develop spiritual maturity. Paul also writes that we “are progressively being transformed into His image from [one degree of] glory to [even more] glory” (2 Cor. 3:18). We need to learn how to enjoy the glory (the spiritual maturity) we are experiencing at each level of our development. Let's learn to pray a prayer of rejoicing and be glad in the Lord this day and every day along the way toward our goal (see Ps. 9:2).

When I first started my ministry, I depended on my circumstances for happiness. Finally the Lord showed me the doorway to happiness. He gave me a breakthrough by teaching me that fullness of joy is found in His presence—not in His presents (see Ps. 16:11)!

True joy comes from seeking God's face.

- ²I will rejoice and exult in you;
I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High.
- ³When my enemies turn back,
They stumble and perish before You.
- ⁴For You have maintained my right and my cause;
You have sat on the throne judging righteously.
- ⁵You have rebuked the nations, You have destroyed the wicked and unrepentant; You have wiped out their name forever and ever.
- ⁶The enemy has been cut off and has vanished in everlasting ruins,
You have uprooted their cities;
The very memory of them has perished.
- ⁷But the LORD will remain and sit enthroned forever; He has prepared and established His throne for judgment. [Heb
1:11]
- ⁸And He will judge the world in righteousness;
He will execute judgment for the nations with fairness
(equity). [Acts 17:31]
- ⁹The LORD also will be a refuge and a stronghold for the oppressed, A refuge in times of trouble;
- ¹⁰And those who know Your name [who have experienced
Your precious mercy] will put their confident trust in You,
For You, O LORD, have not abandoned those who seek
You. [Ps 42:1]
- ¹¹Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion; Declare among the peoples His [great and wondrous] deeds.

¹²For He who avenges blood [unjustly shed] remembers them
(His people);

He does not forget the cry of the afflicted and abused.

¹³Have mercy on me and be gracious to me, O LORD; See how
I am afflicted by those who hate me,
You who lift me up from the gates of death,

¹⁴That I may tell aloud all Your praises,
That in the gates of the daughter of Zion (Jerusalem)
I may rejoice in Your salvation and Your help.

¹⁵The nations have sunk down in the pit which they have made;
In the net which they hid, their own foot has been caught.

¹⁶The LORD has made Himself known;
He executes judgment;
The wicked are trapped by the work of their own hands.

Higgaion (meditation) Selah.

¹⁷The wicked will turn to Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead), Even all the nations who forget God.

¹⁸For the poor will not always be forgotten,
Nor the hope of the burdened perish forever.

¹⁹Arise, O LORD, do not let man prevail;
Let the nations be judged before You.

²⁰Put them in [reverent] fear of You, O LORD,
So that the nations may know they are but [frail and mortal] men.

Selah.

Psalm 10

A Prayer for the Overthrow of the Wicked.

- ¹WHYDO You stand far away, O LORD?
Why do You hide [Yourself, veiling Your eyes] in times of trouble?
- ²In pride and arrogance the wicked hotly pursue and persecute the afflicted; Let them be caught in the plots which they have devised.
- ³For the wicked boasts and sings the praises of his heart's desire, And the greedy man curses and spurns [and even despises] the LORD.
- ⁴The wicked, in the haughtiness of his face, will not seek nor inquire for Him;

POWERPOINT

Psalm 10:4 is about the thoughts of the wicked, who think there is no God. In contrast, the righteous know there is a God and think about Him often. In fact, our lives depend on spending regular, quality time with God. Once I learned that fellowship with Him is vital, I gave it priority in my life. I encourage you to do the same and to think about Him often. God is with us all the time, and we should not ignore Him for hours at a time.

All his thoughts are, “There is no God [so there is no accountability or punishment].”

⁵His ways prosper at all times;
Your judgments [LORD] are on high, out of his sight [so he never thinks about them]; As for all his enemies, he sneers at them.

⁶He says to himself, “I will not be moved;
For throughout all generations I will not be in adversity [for nothing bad will happen to me].”

⁷His mouth is full of curses and deceit (fraud) and oppression;
Under his tongue is mischief and wickedness [injustice and
sin].

⁸He lurks in ambush in the villages;
In hiding places he kills the innocent;
He lies in wait for the unfortunate [the unhappy, the poor, the helpless].

⁹He lurks in a hiding place like a lion in his lair;
He lies in wait to catch the afflicted;
He catches the afflicted when he draws him into his net.

¹⁰He crushes [his prey] and crouches;
And the unfortunate fall by his mighty claws.

¹¹He says to himself, “God has [quite] forgotten;
He has hidden His face; He will never see my deed.”

¹²Arise, O LORD! O God, lift up Your hand [in judgment]; Do not forget the suffering.

¹³Why has the wicked spurned and shown disrespect to God?

He has said to himself, “You will not require me to account.”

¹⁴You have seen it, for You have noted mischief and vexation (irritation) to take it into Your hand.
The unfortunate commits himself to You;

You are the helper of the fatherless.

¹⁵ Break the arm of the wicked and the evildoer,
Seek out his wickedness until You find no more.

¹⁶ The LORD is King forever and ever; The nations will perish from His land.

¹⁷ O LORD, You have heard the desire of the humble and oppressed; You will strengthen their heart, You will incline Your ear to hear,

¹⁸ To vindicate and obtain justice for the fatherless and the oppressed,
So that man who is of the earth will no longer terrify them.

Psalm 11

The LORD a Refuge and Defense.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

¹ IN THE LORD I take refuge [and put my trust];
How can you say to me, “Flee like a bird to your mountain;

² For look, the wicked are bending the bow;
They take aim with their arrow on the string
To shoot [by stealth] in darkness at the upright in heart.

³ “If the foundations [of a godly society] are destroyed,
What can the righteous do?”

⁴ The LORD is in His holy temple; the LORD’s throne is in heaven.
His eyes see, His eyelids test the children of men. [Acts

7:49; Rev 4:2]

⁵The LORD tests the righteous and the wicked,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Make Christ Your Foundation

A foundation is the most important part of a building. Without a solid foundation, the building won't last long. Everything else concerning the building is built on the foundation. If the foundation is weak or cracked, nothing built on it is safe. It could crumble or fall apart at any time, especially if stress is placed on it by a storm.

David warned, "If the foundations [of a godly society] are destroyed, what can the righteous do?" (Ps. 11:3). The Bible encourages people to build their lives on the solid rock of Christ, rooted securely in Him (see Matt. 7:24–27; Eph. 3:17). If you try to build your life on what people say and think about you, on how they treat you, on how you feel, or based on your past mistakes, you are building on sinking sand. But if you trade that old, cracked foundation for a solid foundation, one based on Christ and His love, nothing can shake you.

And His soul hates the [malevolent] one who loves violence. [James 1:12]

⁶Upon the wicked (godless) He will rain coals of fire;
Fire and brimstone and a dreadful scorching wind will be the portion of their cup [of doom].

⁷For the LORD is [absolutely] righteous, He loves righteousness (virtue, morality, justice); The upright shall see His face.

Psalm 12

God, a Helper against the Treacherous.

To the Chief Musician; set an octave below. A Psalm of David.

¹SAVE AND help and rescue, LORD, for godly people cease to be, For the faithful vanish from among the sons of men.

²They speak deceitful and worthless words to one another; With flattering lips and a double heart they speak.

³May the LORD cut off all flattering lips,
The tongue that speaks great things [in boasting];

⁴Who have said, “With our tongue we will prevail;
Our lips are our own; who is lord and master over us?”

⁵“Because of the devastation of the afflicted, because of the groaning of the needy, Now I will arise,” says the LORD; “I will place him in the safety for which he longs.”

⁶The words and promises of the LORD are pure words, Like silver refined in an earthen furnace, purified seven times.

⁷You, O LORD, will preserve and keep them; You will protect him from this [evil] generation forever.

⁸The wicked strut about [in pompous self-importance] on every side,
As vileness is exalted and baseness is prized among the sons of men.

Psalm 13

Prayer for Help in Trouble.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

¹HOW LONG, O LORD? Will You forget me forever?
How long will You hide Your face from me?

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Learn by Doing

Worry is failing to trust God to take care of the various situations in our lives. When we worry, we are actually acting on the thought If I try hard enough, I can find a solution to my problem, which is the opposite of trusting God.

Most of us have spent our lives trying to take care of ourselves, and it takes time to learn how to trust God in every situation. But we learn by doing as David did. Surrounded by his enemies, David said, "But I have trusted and relied on and been confident in Your lovingkindness and faithfulness; my heart shall rejoice and delight in Your salvation" (Ps. 13:5). We have to step out in faith, and as we do, we will experience the faithfulness of God, which makes it easier to trust Him the next time.

- ²How long must I take counsel in my soul,
Having sorrow in my heart day after day?
How long will my enemy exalt himself and triumph over me?
- ³Consider and answer me, O LORD my God; Give light (life) to my eyes, or I will sleep the sleep of death,
- ⁴And my enemy will say, "I have overcome him,"
And my adversaries will rejoice when I am shaken.
- ⁵But I have trusted and relied on and been confident in Your lovingkindness and faithfulness; My heart shall rejoice and delight in Your salvation.

⁶I will sing to the LORD,
Because He has dealt bountifully with me.

Psalm 14

Folly and Wickedness of Men.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

¹THE [SPIRITUALLY ignorant] fool has said in his heart,
“There is no God.”

They are corrupt, they have committed repulsive and unspeakable deeds;

There is no one who does good. [Rom 3:10]

²The LORD has looked down from heaven upon the children of men To see if there are any who understand (act wisely), Who [truly] seek after God, [longing for His wisdom and guidance].

³They have all turned aside, together they have become corrupt;

There is no one who does good, not even one. [Rom 3:11, 12]

⁴Have all the workers of wickedness and injustice no knowledge, Who eat up my people as they eat bread,
And do not call upon the LORD?

⁵There they tremble with great fear,
For God is with the [consistently] righteous generation.

⁶You [evildoers] shamefully plan against the poor,
But the LORD is his safe refuge.

⁷Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!
When the LORD restores His captive people,
Then Jacob will rejoice, Israel will be glad. [Rom 11:25–27]

Psalm 15

Description of a Citizen of Zion.

A Psalm of David.

¹O LORD, who may lodge [as a guest] in Your tent?
Who may dwell [continually] on Your holy hill?

²He who walks with integrity and strength of character, and works righteousness, And speaks and holds truth in his heart.

³He does not slander with his tongue,
Nor does evil to his neighbor,
Nor takes up a reproach against his friend;

⁴In his eyes an evil person is despised,
But he honors those who fear the LORD [and obediently worship Him with awe-inspired reverence and submissive wonder].

He keeps his word even to his own disadvantage and does not change it [for his own benefit];

⁵He does not put out his money at interest [to a fellow Israelite],
And does not take a bribe against the innocent.

He who does these things will never be shaken. [Ex 22:25, 26]

Psalm 16

The LORD, the Psalmist's Portion in Life and Deliverer in Death.

A Mikhtam of David [probably intended to record memorable thoughts].

¹KEEP AND protect me, O God, for in You I have placed my trust and found refuge.

²I said to the LORD, "You are my Lord;
I have no good besides You."

³As for the saints (godly people) who are in the land,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Thinking Excellent Thoughts

We can never become excellent in our actions if we don't first make a commitment to become excellent in our thoughts. The Bible teaches us to think on things that are filled with virtue and excellence, things such as believing the best at all times, things that are honorable, just, pure, lovely, and lovable (see Phil. 4:8).

What kinds of thoughts do you entertain? When you recognize that your thoughts are not good, do you take action to cast them out of your mind or do you lazily let them remain? It is impossible to become one of "the majestic and the noble and the excellent ones" without first developing an excellent mind (Ps. 16:3). God has called each of us to be excellent in all that we do and to enjoy an excellent life. If you haven't done so yet, start today thinking in that direction.

They are the majestic and the noble and the excellent ones in whom is all my delight.

⁴The sorrows [pain and suffering] of those who have chosen another god will be multiplied [because of their idolatry]; I will not pour out their drink offerings of blood,
Nor will I take their names upon my lips.

⁵The LORD is the portion of my inheritance, my cup [He is all

I need]; You support my lot.

⁶The [boundary] lines [of the land] have fallen for me in pleasant places;
Indeed, my heritage is beautiful to me.

⁷I will bless the LORD who has counseled me; Indeed, my heart (mind) instructs me in the night.

⁸I have set the LORD continually before me;
Because He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.

⁹Therefore my heart is glad and my glory [my innermost self] rejoices;
My body too will dwell [confidently] in safety,

¹⁰For You will not abandon me to Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead),
Nor will You allow Your Holy One to undergo decay. [Acts 13:35]

¹¹You will show me the path of life;
In Your presence is fullness of joy;
In Your right hand there are pleasures forevermore. [Acts 2:25–28, 31]

Psalm 17

Prayer for Protection against Oppressors.

A Prayer of David.

¹HEAR THE just (righteous) cause, O LORD; listen to my loud [piercing] cry; Listen to my prayer, that comes from guileless lips.

²Let my verdict of vindication come from Your presence;

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*Thank You, Lord, that You will show me the path of life;
in Your presence is fullness of joy; at Your right hand there are pleasures forevermore.*

Speak God's Word

I intend that my mouth will not transgress and that I will not sin with my words.

| adapted from PSALM 17:3 |

May Your eyes look with equity and behold things that are just.

³You have tried my heart;
You have visited me in the night;
You have tested me and You find nothing [evil in me];
I intend that my mouth will not transgress.

⁴Concerning the deeds of men, by the word of Your lips
I have kept away from the paths of the violent.

⁵My steps have held closely to Your paths;
My feet have not staggered.

⁶I have called upon You, for You, O God, will answer me;
Incline Your ear to me, hear my speech.

⁷Wondrously show Your [marvelous and amazing]
lovingkindness,
O Savior of those who take refuge at Your right hand
From those who rise up against them.

- ⁸Keep me [in Your affectionate care, protect me] as the apple of Your eye;
Hide me in the [protective] shadow of Your wings
- ⁹From the wicked who despoil and deal violently with me,
My deadly enemies who surround me.
- ¹⁰They have closed their unfeeling heart [to kindness and
compassion];
With their mouths they speak proudly and make presumptuous claims.
- ¹¹They track us down and have now surrounded us in our steps;
They set their eyes to force us to the ground,
- ¹²He is like a lion eager to tear [his prey],
And like a young lion lurking in hiding places.
- ¹³Arise, O LORD, confront him, cast him down; Save my soul from the wicked with Your sword,
- ¹⁴From men with Your hand, O LORD,
From men of the world [these moths of the night] whose portion [of enjoyment] is in this life—idle and vain, And whose belly You fill with Your treasure;
They are satisfied with children,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Filling the God-Shaped Hole

There is a God-shaped hole inside every one of us, and even if we had all the money in the world, nothing we bought could fill it. The only thing that is able to satisfy that craving is God Himself. Seek God as your first and most vital necessity in life. Put Him first in your time, thoughts, conversation, and actions. Love Him with all your heart and talk to Him throughout the day about everything that takes place in your life.

David prayed, "As for me, I shall see Your face in righteousness; I will be [fully] satisfied when I awake [to find myself] seeing Your likeness" (Ps. 17:15). As you include God in all that you do, you will develop an intimacy with Him that will satisfy your soul like nothing else in the world can do.

And they leave what they have left [of wealth] to their children.

¹⁵As for me, I shall see Your face in righteousness;
I will be [fully] satisfied when I awake [to find myself]
seeing Your likeness.

Psalm 18

David Praises the LORD for Rescuing Him.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD, who spoke the words of this song to the LORD on the day when the LORD rescued him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. And he said: ¹“I LOVE You [fervently and devotedly], O LORD, my strength.”

²The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and the One who rescues me; My God, my rock and strength in whom I trust and take refuge;

My shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower—
my stronghold. [Heb 2:13]

³I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised; And I am saved from my enemies. [Rev 5:12]

⁴The cords of death surrounded me,
And the streams of ungodliness and torrents of destruction terrified me.

⁵The cords of Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead) surrounded me;
The snares of death confronted me.

Speak God's Word

The Lord is my rock, my fortress, and the One who rescues me; my God, my rock and strength in whom I trust and take refuge; my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower—my stronghold. I call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised; and I am saved from my enemies.

| adapted from PSALM 18:2–3 |

⁶In my distress [when I seemed surrounded] I called upon the LORD

And cried to my God for help;

He heard my voice from His temple,

And my cry for help came before Him, into His very ears.

⁷Then the earth shook and quaked,

The foundations of the mountains trembled;

They were shaken because He was indignant and angry.

⁸Smoke went up from His nostrils,

And fire from His mouth devoured;
Coals were kindled by it.

⁹He bowed the heavens also and came down;
And thick darkness was under His feet.

¹⁰And He rode upon a cherub (storm) and flew;
And He sped on the wings of the wind.

¹¹He made darkness His hiding place (covering); His pavilion
(canopy) around Him,
The darkness of the waters, the thick clouds of the skies.

¹²Out of the brightness before Him passed His thick clouds,
Hailstones and coals of fire.

¹³The LORD also thundered in the heavens,
And the Most High uttered His voice,
Hailstones and coals of fire.

¹⁴He sent out His arrows and scattered them;
And He sent an abundance of lightning flashes and confused and routed them [in defeat].

¹⁵Then the stream beds of the waters appeared,
And the foundations of the world were laid bare
At Your rebuke, O LORD,
At the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.

¹⁶He reached from on high, He took me;
He drew me out of many waters.

¹⁷He rescued me from my strong enemy,
And from those who hated me, for they were too strong for
me.

¹⁸They confronted me in the day of my disaster,

But the LORD was my support.

¹⁹He brought me out into a broad place;
He rescued me because He was pleased with me and delighted in me.

²⁰The LORD dealt with me according to my righteousness (moral character, spiritual integrity); According to the cleanness of my hands He has rewarded me.

²¹For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.

²²For all His ordinances were before me,
And I did not put away His statutes from me.

²³I was blameless before Him,
And I kept myself free from my sin.

²⁴Therefore the LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness (moral character, spiritual integrity),
According to the cleanness of my hands in His sight.

²⁵With the kind (merciful, faithful, loyal) You show Yourself kind, With the blameless You show Yourself blameless,

²⁶With the pure You show Yourself pure,
And with the crooked You show Yourself astute.

²⁷For You save an afflicted and humble people,
But bring down those [arrogant fools] with haughty eyes.

²⁸For You cause my lamp to be lighted and to shine;
The LORD my God illumines my darkness.

²⁹For by You I can crush a troop,
And by my God I can leap over a wall.

- ³⁰ As for God, His way is blameless.
The word of the LORD is tested [it is perfect, it is faultless];
He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.
- ³¹ For who is God, but the LORD?
Or who is a rock, except our God,
- ³² The God who encircles me with strength
And makes my way blameless?
- ³³ He makes my feet like hinds' feet [able to stand firmly and tread safely on paths of testing and trouble]; He sets me [securely] upon my high places.
- ³⁴ He trains my hands for war,
So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.
- ³⁵ You have also given me the shield of Your salvation,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Enjoy All Kinds of People

I once read that most of our unhappiness comes from people not being what we want them to be or doing what we want them to do, and I couldn't agree more. That being the case, how can we enjoy the day if we don't learn to enjoy all different types of people, especially the ones we may find annoying?

I have found it helpful to realize that God has created all kinds of people with many different temperaments and personalities, and I truly believe He enjoys and loves them all. Because I cannot enjoy anyone whom I am judging critically, I often remind myself that I need to value people where they are, not where I would like them to be. Being merciful in my attitude toward others actually helps me enjoy my life, and it will do the same for you (see Ps. 18:25). I urge you to accept those who are different from you and learn to enjoy them as God does.

And Your right hand upholds and sustains me;
Your gentleness [Your gracious response when I pray] makes me great.

³⁶You enlarge the path beneath me and make my steps secure,
So that my feet will not slip.

³⁷I pursued my enemies and overtook them;

- And I did not turn back until they were consumed.
- ³⁸I shattered them so that they were not able to rise;
They fell [wounded] under my feet.
- ³⁹For You have encircled me with strength for the battle;
You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.
- ⁴⁰You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me [in defeat],
And I silenced and destroyed those who hated me.
- ⁴¹They cried for help, but there was no one to save them—
Even to the LORD [they cried], but He did not answer them.
- ⁴²Then I beat them fine as the dust before the wind;
I emptied them out as the dirt of the streets.
- ⁴³You have rescued me from the contentions of the people;
You have placed me as the head of the nations;
A people whom I have not known serve me.
- ⁴⁴As soon as they hear me, they respond and obey me;
Foreigners feign obedience to me.
- ⁴⁵Foreigners lose heart,
And come trembling out of their strongholds.
- ⁴⁶The LORD lives, blessed be my rock; And may the God of my salvation be exalted,
- ⁴⁷The God who avenges me,
And subdues peoples (nations) under me.
- ⁴⁸He rescues me from my enemies;
Yes, You lift me up above those who rise up against me;
You deliver me from the man of violence.

- ⁴⁹Therefore will I give thanks and praise You, O LORD, among the nations, And sing praises to Your name. [Rom 15:9]
- ⁵⁰He gives great triumphs to His king,
And shows steadfast love and mercy to His anointed,
To David and his descendants forever. [2 Sam 22:2–51]

Psalm 19

The Works and the Word of God.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- ¹THE HEAVENS are telling of the glory of God;
And the expanse [of heaven] is declaring the work of His hands. [Rom 1:20, 21]
- ²Day after day pours forth speech,
And night after night reveals knowledge.
- ³There is no speech, nor are there [spoken] words [from the stars];
Their voice is not heard.
- ⁴Yet their voice [in quiet evidence] has gone out through all
the earth,
Their words to the end of the world.
In them and in the heavens He has made a tent for the sun,
[Rom 10:18]
- ⁵Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber;
It rejoices as a strong man to run his course.
- ⁶The sun's rising is from one end of the heavens,
And its circuit to the other end of them;

And there is nothing hidden from its heat.

⁷The law of the LORD is perfect (flawless), restoring and refreshing the soul; The statutes of the LORD are reliable and trustworthy, making wise the simple.

⁸The precepts of the LORD are right, bringing joy to the heart; The commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.

⁹The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever;
The judgments of the LORD are true, they are righteous altogether.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable and pleasing in Your sight, O
Lord, my rock and my Redeemer.*

• adapted from Psalm 19:14

- ¹⁰They are more desirable than gold, yes, than much fine gold;
Sweeter also than honey and the drippings of the honeycomb.
- ¹¹Moreover, by them Your servant is warned [reminded, illuminated, and instructed];
In keeping them there is great reward.
- ¹²Who can understand his errors or omissions? Acquit me of hidden (unconscious, unintended) faults.
- ¹³Also keep back Your servant from presumptuous (deliberate, willful) sins;
Let them not rule and have control over me.
Then I will be blameless (complete),
And I shall be acquitted of great transgression.
- ¹⁴Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
Be acceptable and pleasing in Your sight,
O LORD, my [firm, immovable] rock and my Redeemer.

Psalm 20

Prayer for Victory over Enemies.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- ¹MAY THE LORD answer you (David) in the day of trouble!
May the name of the God of Jacob set you securely on high [and defend you in battle]!
- ²May He send you help from the sanctuary (His dwelling place)

And support and strengthen you from Zion!

³May He remember all your meal offerings
And accept your burnt offering.

Selah.

⁴May He grant you your heart's desire
And fulfill all your plans.

⁵We will sing joyously over your victory,
And in the name of our God we will set up our banners.
May the LORD fulfill all your petitions.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Attitude Determines Altitude

The Bible teaches us that our words have power and that we will have what we consistently say. Along with that, our thoughts affect our moods and attitudes. In other words, our attitude in life affects our altitude in life, meaning our attitude determines how far we can go in life—how far we can go in pursuing our dreams, relationships, business, intimate relationship with God, etc.

Your thoughts and my thoughts will determine the kind of lives we will have in the future. You don't have to think about and focus on whatever falls into your head. You can think things on purpose. Sometimes it is good to just sit down and have a think session. Are the "words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart... acceptable and pleasing" in the Lord's sight (Ps. 19:14)? After almost forty years of knowing these things, I still have to practice them daily. Be determined to maintain good thoughts.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Pray About Everything, Fear Nothing

Some years ago the Lord spoke these words to me: “Pray about everything and fear nothing.” During the next couple of weeks, He continued showing me different things about prayer versus fear. Many of them dealt with little areas in which fear would try to creep into my life and cause me problems. He showed me that in every case, no matter how great or important or how small or insignificant, the solution was to pray.

Sometimes we become afraid just by staring at our circumstances. The more we focus on the problem, the more fearful we become. Instead, we are to keep our eyes, thoughts, and our words focused on God. He is able to handle anything that we may ever have to face in this life.

God has promised to strengthen us, to harden us to difficulties, to hold us up and retain us “with the saving strength of His right hand” (Ps. 20:6). He also commands us to not be afraid. But remember, He is not commanding us to never feel fear, but rather to not let it control us.

The Lord is saying to you and me personally, “Do not fear, I will help you” (Isa. 41:13). But we will never experience the help of God until we place everything in His loving hands and live by faith rather than fear.

When you feel fear, don't back down or run away. Instead, pray and move forward even though you feel afraid.

⁶Now I know that the LORD saves His anointed; He will answer him from His holy heaven
With the saving strength of His right hand.

⁷Some trust in chariots and some in horses,
But we will remember and trust in the name of the LORD our
God.

⁸They have bowed down and fallen,
But we have risen and stood upright.

⁹O LORD, save [the king];
May the King answer us in the day we call.

! REMEMBER, when you are in Christ, victory belongs to you!

Psalm 21

Praise for Help.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

¹O LORD the king will delight in Your strength,
And in Your salvation how greatly will he rejoice!

²You have given him his heart's desire,
And You have not withheld the request of his lips.

Selah.

- ³For You meet him with blessings of good things;
You set a crown of pure gold on his head.
- ⁴He asked life of You,
And You gave it to him,
Long life forever and evermore.
- ⁵His glory is great because of Your victory;
Splendor and majesty You bestow upon him.
- ⁶For You make him most blessed [and a blessing] forever;
You make him joyful with the joy of Your presence. [Gen 12:2]
- ⁷For the king [confidently] trusts in the LORD, And through the lovingkindness (faithfulness, goodness) of the Most High he will never be shaken.
- ⁸Your hand will reach out and defeat all your enemies;
Your right hand will reach those who hate you.
- ⁹You will make them as [if in] a blazing oven in the time of your anger;
The LORD will swallow them up in His wrath,
And the fire will devour them.
- ¹⁰Their offspring You will destroy from the earth,
And their descendants from the sons of men.
- ¹¹For they planned evil against You;
They devised a [malevolent] plot
And they will not succeed.
- ¹²For You will make them turn their backs [in defeat];
You will aim Your bowstring [of divine justice] at their faces.

¹³Be exalted, LORD, in Your strength;
We will sing and praise Your power.

Psalm 22

A Cry of Anguish and a Song of Praise.

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] Aijeleth Hashshahar (The Doe of the Dawn). A Psalm of David.

¹MYGOD, my God, why have You forsaken me?
Why are You so far from helping me, and from the words of my groaning? [Matt 27:46]

²O my God, I call out by day, but You do not answer;
And by night, but I find no rest nor quiet.

³But You are holy,
O You who are enthroned in [the holy place where] the praises of Israel [are offered].

⁴In You our fathers trusted [leaned on, relied on, and were confident];
They trusted and You rescued them.

⁵They cried out to You and were delivered;
They trusted in You and were not disappointed or ashamed.

⁶But I am [treated as] a worm [insignificant and powerless] and not a man; I am the scorn of men and despised by the people. [Matt 27:39–44]

⁷All who see me laugh at me and mock me;
They [insultingly] open their lips, they shake their head, saying, [Matt 27:43]

⁸“He trusted and committed himself to the LORD, let Him save him.

Let Him rescue him, because He delights in him.” [Matt 27:39, 43; Mark 15:29, 30; Luke 23:35]

⁹Yet You are He who pulled me out of the womb;
You made me trust when on my mother’s breasts.

¹⁰I was cast upon You from birth;
From my mother’s womb You have been my God.

¹¹Do not be far from me, for trouble is near;
And there is no one to help.

¹²Many [enemies like] bulls have surrounded me;
Strong bulls of Bashan have encircled me. [Ezek 39:18;
Amos 4:1]

¹³They open wide their mouths against me,
Like a ravening and a roaring lion.

¹⁴I am poured out like water,
And all my bones are out of joint.
My heart is like wax;
It is melted [by anguish] within me.

¹⁵My strength is dried up like a fragment of clay pottery;
And my [dry] tongue clings to my jaws;
And You have laid me in the dust of death. [John 19:28]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

What Do You Do with Disappointment?

Psalm 22:5 speaks of those who trusted in God “and were not disappointed or ashamed.” There is nothing unusual or wrong about initial feelings of disappointment, but it is what we do from that point forward that makes all the difference in the world. Absolutely nobody gets everything they want all the time, so we need to learn how to deal properly with disappointment.

Trusting God completely, and believing that His plan is infinitely better for you than your own, will prevent you from being disappointed with God. You might feel anger toward your situation, but don't ever be angry with God. When you get angry, you naturally want to lash out at someone, but it is unwise to make God your target. He is the only One Who can help you and truly comfort you; therefore, it is much better to run to Him in your time of pain than to run away from Him.

¹⁶For [a pack of] dogs have surrounded me;
A gang of evildoers has encircled me,
They pierced my hands and my feet. [Is 53:7; John 19:37]

¹⁷I can count all my bones;
They look, they stare at me. [Luke 23:27, 35]

¹⁸They divide my clothing among them
And cast lots for my garment. [John 19:23, 24]

¹⁹But You, O LORD, do not be far from me; O You my help, come quickly to my assistance.

²⁰Rescue my life from the sword,
My only life from the paw of the dog (the executioner).

²¹Save me from the lion's mouth;
From the horns of the wild oxen You answer me.

²²I will tell of Your name to my countrymen;
In the midst of the congregation I will praise You. [John 20:17; Rom 8:29; Heb 2:12]

²³You who fear the LORD [with awe-inspired reverence], praise
Him!
All you descendants of Jacob, honor Him.
Fear Him [with submissive wonder], all you descendants of Israel.

²⁴For He has not despised nor detested the suffering of the afflicted;
Nor has He hidden His face from him;
But when he cried to Him for help, He listened.

²⁵My praise will be of You in the great assembly.
I will pay my vows [made in the time of trouble] before those who [reverently] fear Him.

²⁶The afflicted will eat and be satisfied;
Those who [diligently] seek Him and require Him [as their greatest need] will praise the LORD.
May your hearts live forever!

²⁷All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the LORD,

- And all the families of the nations will bow down and worship before You,
- ²⁸For the kingship and the kingdom are the LORD's And He rules over the nations.
- ²⁹All the prosperous of the earth will eat and worship;
All those who go down to the dust (the dead) will bow before Him,
Even he who cannot keep his soul alive.
- ³⁰Posterity will serve Him;
They will tell of the Lord to the next generation.
- ³¹They will come and declare His righteousness
To a people yet to be born—that He has done it [and that it is finished]. [John 19:30]

Psalm 23

The LORD, the Psalmist's Shepherd.

A Psalm of David.

- ¹THE LORD is my Shepherd [to feed, to guide and to shield me], [Ezek 34:11–31]
I shall not want.
- ²He lets me lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside the still and quiet waters. [Rev 7:17]
- ³He refreshes and restores my soul (life);
He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
- ⁴Even though I walk through the [sunless] ^{*}valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil, for You are with me;

Your rod [to protect] and Your staff [to guide], they comfort and console me.

⁵You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.

Speak God's Word

Surely goodness and mercy and unfailing love shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell forever, throughout all my days, in the house and in the presence of the Lord.

| adapted from PSALM 23:6 |

You have anointed and refreshed my head with oil;
My cup overflows.

⁶ Surely goodness and mercy and unfailing love shall follow me all the days of my life, And I shall dwell forever [throughout all my days] in the house and in the presence of the LORD.

Psalm 24

The King of Glory Entering Zion.

A Psalm of David.

¹ THE EARTH is the LORD's, and the fullness of it,
The world, and those who dwell in it. [1 Cor 10:26]

²For He has founded it upon the seas

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Looking Ahead

Your future has no room for your past, and I encourage you not to get stuck in a moment in your life that is over. God is a Redeemer and a Restorer. He promises to refresh and restore our souls, and He will—if we invite Him in and cooperate with His healing process in our lives.

When Psalm 23:2 says that He makes us lie down in green pastures and leads us beside still and quiet waters, it reminds me that God wants us to have peace. In order to do that, we need to stop running from the past and simply make a decision to be still, face the past, and receive healing from God. As long as we are running, something is chasing us, but if we confront it with God by our side, we can defeat it and enjoy the new life that is ours in Christ.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Fear No Evil

Wouldn't life be better if we didn't have to deal with the debilitating fear that Satan tries to put on us every day, fear that is intended to keep us from having the power, love, and sound mind that God wants us to have? If you have ever struggled as I once did with anxiety, you are familiar with the worry, stress, and the feeling of heaviness that comes with it.

Many people struggle with fear that has no obvious cause or source. They wonder why they are always afraid and can't change, no matter how hard they try. Others worry constantly about what might happen. "What if..." is their favorite phrase. The endless list of possible tragedies keeps these unfortunate people bound up and miserable.

We need to learn to resist fear when it rises against us. Second Timothy 1:7 tells us, "For God did not give us a spirit of timidity or cowardice or fear, but [He has given us a spirit] of power and of love and of sound judgment and personal discipline [abilities that result in a calm, well-balanced mind and self-control]."

Sometimes we think of fear as an emotion, but we need to realize that fear is actually a spirit. In fact, I believe fear is one of Satan's favorite tools, and he particularly loves to torment Christians with it. At every possible opportunity, he will whisper in your ear, telling you that God has forgotten you and there is no hope.

Psalm 23:4 says, "Even though I walk through the [sunless] valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod [to protect] and Your staff [to guide], they comfort and console me." The psalmist David said he walked through the valley.

When we fear or become afraid, we can be sure that's not God at work, but one of the sly tricks of the enemy. If he can make us think that God is not going to help us, we'll start to lose the battle.

God is love. We can never say these words enough. Fear is a spirit that must be confronted head on—it will not leave on its own. We need to proclaim the Word of God and command fear to leave. So the next time fear knocks on your door, send faith to answer!

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord Jesus, there are times I feel unworthy of Your love, but You do not love me because I'm worthy; You love me because You are love. Thank You for Your reassurance that I am truly loved by You; therefore I have no reason to fear. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Trust Takes Time

How many times have you become frustrated and all upset needlessly over troublesome situations that come your way? How many years of your life have you spent saying, "Oh, I'm believing God. I'm trusting God," when, in reality, you were only worrying, talking negatively, and trying to figure out everything on your own? You may have thought you were trusting God because you were saying, "I trust God," but inside you were anxious and panicky. You were trying to learn to trust God, but you were not quite there yet. I know. I did that for many years myself.

Psalm 25:2 speaks of having unwavering trust and steadfast confidence in the Lord. We do not develop that kind of trust and confidence quickly; they are built up over a period of time. It usually takes some time to overcome an ingrained habit of worry, anxiety, or fear. That is why it is so important to "hang in there" with God. Don't quit and give up, because you gain experience and spiritual strength every round you face with courage; and each time you will find that you've become a little stronger than you were the last time. Sooner or later, if you remain steadfast and don't give up, you will be more than the devil can handle.

If you are in a time of trials, use that time to build your trust in God. Trust Him to deliver you out of the snare or to bring you through the battle successfully.

And established it upon the streams and the rivers.

³Who may ascend onto the mountain of the LORD?
And who may stand in His holy place?

⁴He who has clean hands and a pure heart,
Who has not lifted up his soul to what is false,
Nor has sworn [oaths] deceitfully. [Matt 5:8]

⁵He shall receive a blessing from the LORD,
And righteousness from the God of his salvation.

⁶This is the generation (description) of those who diligently seek Him and require Him as their greatest need, Who seek Your face, even [as did] Jacob. [Ps 42:1]

Selah.

⁷Lift up your heads, O gates,
And be lifted up, ancient doors,
That the King of glory may come in.

⁸Who is the King of glory?
The LORD strong and mighty,
The LORD mighty in battle.

⁹Lift up your heads, O gates,
And lift them up, ancient doors,
That the King of glory may come in.

¹⁰Who is [He then] this King of glory?
The LORD of hosts,
He is the King of glory [who rules over all creation with His heavenly armies].

Selah.

Psalm 25

Prayer for Protection, Guidance and Pardon.

A Psalm of David.

¹TO YOU, O LORD, I lift up my soul.

²O my God, in You I [have unwavering] trust [and I rely on
You with steadfast confidence],

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Let me know Your ways, O Lord; teach me Your paths. Guide me in Your truth and teach me, for You are the God of my salvation. For You and only You I wait expectantly all the day long.

• adapted from Psalm 25:4–5

Do not let me be ashamed or my hope in You be disappointed;

Do not let my enemies triumph over me.

³Indeed, none of those who [expectantly] wait for You will be ashamed;

Those who turn away from what is right and deal treacherously without cause will be ashamed (humiliated, embarrassed).

- ⁴Let me know Your ways, O LORD;
Teach me Your paths.
- ⁵Guide me in Your truth and teach me,
For You are the God of my salvation;
For You [and only You] I wait [expectantly] all the day long.
- ⁶Remember, O LORD, Your [tender] compassion and Your lovingkindnesses, For they have been from of old.
- ⁷Do not remember the sins of my youth or my
transgressions;
According to Your lovingkindness remember me,
For Your goodness' sake, O LORD.
- ⁸Good and upright is the LORD;
Therefore He instructs sinners in the way.
- ⁹He leads the humble in justice,
And He teaches the humble His way.
- ¹⁰All the paths of the LORD are lovingkindness and goodness and truth and faithfulness To those who keep His covenant and His testimonies.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

God, You lead the humble in justice, and You teach the humble Your way.

• adapted from Psalm 25:9

- ¹¹For Your name's sake, O LORD,
Pardon my wickedness and my guilt, for they are great.
- ¹²Who is the man who fears the LORD [with awe-inspired reverence and worships Him with submissive wonder]?
He will teach him [through His word] in the way he should choose.
- ¹³His soul will dwell in prosperity and goodness,
And his descendants will inherit the land.
- ¹⁴The secret [of the wise counsel] of the LORD is for those who fear Him, And He will let them know His covenant and reveal to them [through His word] its [deep, inner] meaning. [John 7:17; 15:15]
- ¹⁵My eyes are continually toward the LORD,
For He will bring my feet out of the net.
- ¹⁶Turn to me [LORD] and be gracious to me, For I am alone and afflicted.
- ¹⁷The troubles of my heart are multiplied;

Bring me out of my distresses.

¹⁸Look upon my affliction and my trouble,
And forgive all my sins.

¹⁹Look upon my enemies, for they are many;
They hate me with cruel and violent hatred.

²⁰Guard my soul and rescue me;
Do not let me be ashamed or disappointed,
For I have taken refuge in You.

²¹Let integrity and uprightness protect me,
For I wait [expectantly] for You.

²²O God, redeem Israel,
Out of all his troubles.

Psalm 26

Protestation of Integrity and Prayer for Protection.

A Psalm of David.

¹VINDICATE ME, O LORD, for I have walked in my integrity;
I have [relied on and] trusted [confidently] in the LORD without wavering and I shall not slip.

²Examine me, O LORD, and try me;
Test my heart and my mind.

Speak God's Word

I walk in my integrity; I have trusted confidently in the Lord without wavering and I will not slip. I invite God to examine me and try me; test my heart and my mind. For His lovingkindness is before my eyes, and I walk faithfully in His truth.

| adapted from PSALM 26:1–3 |

- ³For Your lovingkindness is before my eyes,
And I have walked [faithfully] in Your truth.
- ⁴I do not sit with deceitful or unethical or worthless men,
Nor seek companionship with pretenders (self-righteous hypocrites).
- ⁵I hate the company of evildoers,
And will not sit with the wicked.
- ⁶I will wash my hands in innocence,
And I will go about Your altar, O LORD,
- ⁷That I may proclaim with the voice of thanksgiving
And declare all Your wonders.

⁸O LORD, I love the habitation of Your house And the place where Your glory dwells.

⁹Do not sweep my soul away with sinners,

POWERPOINT

Integrity means being honest and doing the right thing in every situation. We cannot make other people have integrity, but each of us is responsible to God and to ourselves to have integrity in our own lives. When we see wrongdoing all around us, we need to avoid the temptation to say, “Everyone else is doing it, so what’s the problem?” Even if no one else in the world keeps their word or acts honorably, we need to keep our word and live with integrity because it is the right thing to do. We are to follow God, not the ways of the world.

Nor [sweep away] my life with men of bloodshed,
¹⁰In whose hands is a wicked scheme,

And whose right hand is full of bribes.

¹¹But as for me, I shall walk in my integrity;
Redeem me and be merciful and gracious to me.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

What Does Your Heart Say?

Have you ever said something and thought, Where did that come from? The truth is it came from somewhere inside of you. You had to think it at some point, or it wouldn't have come out. Proverbs 23:7 says, "For as he thinks in his heart, so is he." Whatever is in our hearts or in our minds will ultimately come out of our mouths. We can find out the true condition of our hearts by listening to ourselves.

If you don't like what you are saying, ask God to examine you, and try you; to test your heart and your mind and to help you think as He thinks (see Ps. 26:2). And pray this prayer from Psalm 51:10: "Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right and steadfast spirit within me."

¹²My foot stands on a level place;
In the congregations I will bless the LORD.

Psalm 27

A Psalm of Fearless Trust in God.

A Psalm of David.

¹THE LORD is my light and my salvation—
Whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the refuge and fortress of my life—

Whom shall I dread?

²When the wicked came against me to eat up my flesh,
My adversaries and my enemies, they stumbled and fell.

³Though an army encamp against me,
My heart will not fear;

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*Lord, You are my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear?
You are my refuge and the fortress of my life—whom shall I dread?*

• adapted from Psalm 27:1

Though war arise against me,
Even in this I am confident.

⁴One thing I have asked of the LORD, and that I will seek:
That I may dwell in the house of the LORD [in His presence] all the days of my life, To gaze upon the beauty

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Love Overcomes Rejection

The psalmist writes in Psalm 27:10 of an extremely painful type of rejection—being abandoned by a father and mother. Rejection of any kind, no matter who rejects us, can cause depression. To be rejected means to be thrown away as having no value or as being unwanted. We were created for acceptance, not rejection. The emotional pain of rejection is one of the deepest kinds of pain we can know, especially if the rejection comes from someone we love or expect to love us, such as parents or a spouse.

If you have been depressed, it might be due to a root of rejection in your life. Overcoming rejection is certainly not easy, but we can overcome it through the love of Jesus Christ.

In Ephesians 3:18, Paul prayed for the church that they would “be fully capable of comprehending with all the saints (God’s people) the width and length and height and depth of His love [fully experiencing that amazing, endless love].” He said this experience far surpasses mere knowledge.

Watch for all the ways that God shows His love for you, and it will overcome the rejection you may have experienced from other people. Every time God gives us favor, He is showing us that He loves us. There are many ways He shows His love for us all the time; we simply need to begin watching for them.

Having a deep revelation concerning God’s love for us will help keep us from depression.

And to meditate in His temple. [Ps 16:11; 18:6; 65:4; Luke 2:37]

⁵For in the day of trouble He will hide me in His shelter;
In the secret place of His tent He will hide me;
He will lift me up on a rock.

⁶And now my head will be lifted up above my enemies around me,
In His tent I will offer sacrifices with shouts of joy;
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the LORD.

⁷Hear, O LORD, when I cry aloud;
Be gracious and compassionate to me and answer me.

⁸*When You said*, “Seek My face [in prayer, require My presence as your greatest need],” my heart said to You,
“Your face, O LORD, I will seek [on the authority of Your word].”

⁹Do not hide Your face from me,
Do not turn Your servant away in anger;
You have been my help;
Do not abandon me nor leave me,
O God of my salvation!

¹⁰Although my father and my mother have abandoned me,
Yet the LORD will take me up [adopt me as His child]. [Ps 22:10]

¹¹Teach me Your way, O LORD,

And lead me on a level path
Because of my enemies [who lie in wait].

¹²Do not give me up to the will of my adversaries,
For false witnesses have come against me;
They breathe out violence.

Speak God's Word

The Lord is my strength and my impenetrable shield; my heart trusts with unwavering confidence in Him, and I am helped; therefore my heart greatly rejoices, and with my song I shall thank Him and praise Him.

| adapted from PSALM 28:7 |

¹³ I would have despaired had I not believed that I would see the goodness of the LORD
In the land of the living.

¹⁴ Wait for and confidently expect the LORD;
Be strong and let your heart take courage;
Yes, wait for and confidently expect the LORD.

Psalm 28

A Prayer for Help, and Praise for Its Answer.

A Psalm of David.

¹ TO YOU I call, O LORD,

My rock, do not be deaf to me,
For if You are silent to me,
I will become like those who go down to the pit (grave).

²Hear the voice of my supplication (specific requests, humble entreaties) as I cry to You for help, As I lift up my hands and heart toward Your innermost sanctuary (Holy of Holies).

³Do not drag me away with the wicked
And with those who do evil,
Who speak peace with their neighbors,
While malice and mischief are in their hearts.

⁴Repay them according to their work and according to the evil of their practices;
Repay them according to the deeds of their hands;
Repay them what they deserve. [2 Tim 4:14; Rev 18:6]

⁵Because they have no regard for the works of the LORD
Nor the deeds of His hands,
He will tear them down and not rebuild them.

⁶Blessed be the LORD,
Because He has heard the voice of my supplication.

⁷The LORD is my strength and my [impenetrable] shield; My heart trusts [with unwavering confidence] in Him, and I am helped;
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices,
And with my song I shall thank Him and praise Him.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Love Leads to Obedience

The more we love God, and the more we receive His love, the more we are able to obey Him promptly and reverently. We should realize that all God's commands will benefit our lives. When God tells us to not do something, He is never trying to take something away from us. Instead, He is protecting us as our "[impenetrable] shield" from something harmful (see Ps. 28:7).

Loving God means that we trust Him, and when we trust Him, we are able to trust His direction in our lives. If you are having difficulty doing something that you know God wants you to do, or not doing something you know He doesn't want you to do, remember that He loves you and is trying to help you—trust Him and obey.

⁸The LORD is their [unyielding] strength,
And He is the fortress of salvation to His anointed.

⁹Save Your people and bless Your inheritance;
Be their shepherd also, and carry them forever.

Psalm 29

The Voice of the LORD in the Storm.

A Psalm of David.

- ¹ ASCRIBE TO the LORD, O sons of the mighty,
Ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
- ² Ascribe to the LORD the glory due His name;
Worship the LORD in the beauty and majesty of His holiness [as the creator and source of holiness].
- ³ The voice of the LORD is upon the waters; The God of glory
thunders;
The LORD is over many waters.
- ⁴ The voice of the LORD is powerful;
The voice of the LORD is full of majesty.
- ⁵ The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars;
Yes, the LORD breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.
- ⁶ He makes Lebanon skip like a calf,
And Sirion (Mount Hermon) like a young, wild ox.
- ⁷ The voice of the LORD rakes flames of fire (lightning).
- ⁸ The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness;
The LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
- ⁹ The voice of the LORD makes the doe labor and give birth
And strips the forests bare;
And in His temple all are saying, "Glory!"
- ¹⁰ The LORD sat as King at the flood; Yes, the LORD sits as King forever.
- ¹¹ The LORD will give [unyielding and impenetrable] strength to His people; The LORD will bless His people with peace.

Psalm 30

Thanksgiving for Deliverance from Death.

A Psalm; a Song at the Dedication of the House (Temple).

A Psalm of David.

¹I WILL extol and praise You, O LORD, for You have lifted me up, And have not let my enemies rejoice over me.

²O LORD my God,

Speak God's Word

God's anger is but for a moment, His favor is for my lifetime. Weeping may endure for a night, but a shout of joy comes in the morning.

| adapted from PSALM 30:5 |

I cried to You for help, and You have healed me.

³O LORD, You have brought my life up from Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead); You have kept me alive, so that I would not go down to the pit (grave).

⁴Sing to the LORD, O you His godly ones,
And give thanks at the mention of His holy name.

⁵For His anger is but for a moment,
His favor is for a lifetime.
Weeping may endure for a night,
But a shout of joy comes in the morning. [2 Cor 4:17]

⁶As for me, in my prosperity I said,
“I shall never be moved.”

⁷By Your favor and grace, O LORD, you have made my mountain stand strong; You hid Your face, and I was horrified.

⁸I called to You, O LORD,

And to the Lord I made supplication (specific request).

⁹“What profit is there in my blood (death), if I go down to the pit (grave)?

Will the dust praise You? Will it declare Your faithfulness [to man]?

¹⁰“Hear, O LORD, be gracious and show favor to me; O LORD, be my helper.”

¹¹You have turned my mourning into dancing for me;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God's Favor Lasts a Lifetime

I have said many times that God does become angry with sin and injustice, but His nature and character are not those of an angry God.

Perhaps I can explain it this way: My father was an angry man, and he quickly punished people for every tiny infraction of his rules. Being around him made my mother, brother, and me fearful, nervous, and tense, feeling guilty and condemned for something all the time. Although we tried very hard to do what he wanted, it was impossible, because his rules were unending and changed frequently. We lived in an atmosphere of constantly awaiting punishment.

In contrast, my husband, Dave, is not an angry man. He can become angry if I do something he really does not like or if I speak to him disrespectfully, but his anger only lasts for a moment. Dave knows my personality is a bit feisty at times and that I am sorry when I behave badly, so he extends mercy to me and is always willing to forget the misdeed and return to peace.

Dealing with an angry person is very different from dealing with someone who can become angry but has no desire to stay that way. God's anger is only for a moment. His mercies are new every morning (see Lam. 3:23), and His favor lasts for a lifetime.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Importance of Joy

Psalm 30:11 describes what our relationship with God should do for us. Are you glad? Do you have joy most of the time? Would you consider yourself a happy, joyful person in most circumstances?

At one point in my life, after being a Christian and a minister for many years, I had to answer these questions for myself, and I realized that I was mad and sad more than I was glad. I also knew that had to change.

I searched for the root of my lack of joy, and one thing I discovered was I did not truly understand the great value and importance of joy. Joy is to our lives like gasoline is to an engine. Without gasoline, the engine will not run. Without joy, I don't believe human beings run well either. Joy gives us actual physical energy; it provides the zeal and enthusiasm we need in our lives. According to Nehemiah 8:10, the joy of the Lord is our strength.

Without joy, everything is “down”—negative, dreary, flat, and tasteless. Our thoughts are negative; our attitudes are negative; our emotions are depressed; and even our heads, shoulders, and arms hang down. Jesus did not die to give us “down” lives. He is our glory and the lifter of our heads (see Ps. 3:3). He is full of joy (see John 17:13), and He wants us to be people of joy!

You have taken off my sackcloth and clothed me with joy, ¹²That my soul may sing praise to You and not be silent.
O LORD my God, I will give thanks to You forever.

Psalm 31

A Psalm of Complaint and of Praise.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

¹IN YOU, O LORD, I have placed my trust and taken refuge;
Let me never be ashamed;
In Your righteousness rescue me.

²Incline Your ear to me, deliver me quickly;
Be my rock of refuge,
And a strong fortress to save me.

³Yes, You are my rock and my fortress;
For Your name's sake You will lead me and guide me.

⁴You will draw me out of the net that they have secretly laid for me,
For You are my strength and my stronghold.

⁵Into Your hand I commit my spirit;
You have redeemed me, O LORD, the God of truth and faithfulness. [Luke 23:46; Acts 7:59]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, You have turned my mourning into dancing; You have taken off my sackcloth and clothed me with joy, that my soul may sing praise to You and not be silent. O Lord my God, I will give thanks to You forever.

Speak God's Word

*I will rejoice and be glad in Your steadfast love, because
You have seen my affliction;
You have taken note of my life's distresses.*

| adapted from PSALM 31:7 |

⁶I hate those who pay regard to vain (empty, worthless) idols;
But I trust in the LORD [and rely on Him with unwavering confidence].

⁷I will rejoice and be glad in Your steadfast love,
Because You have seen my affliction;
You have taken note of my life's distresses,

⁸And You have not given me into the hand of the enemy;
You have set my feet in a broad place.

⁹Be gracious and compassionate to me, O LORD, for I am in trouble; My eye is clouded and weakened by grief, my soul and my body also.

¹⁰For my life is spent with sorrow
And my years with sighing;

My strength has failed because of my iniquity,

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*I trust confidently in You and Your greatness, O Lord; I say,
“You are my God.” My times are in Your hands.*

• adapted from Psalm 31:14–15

And even my body has wasted away.

¹¹Because of all my enemies I have become a reproach and
disgrace,

Especially to my neighbors,

And an object of dread to my acquaintances;

Those who see me on the street run from me.

¹²I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind;

I am like a broken vessel.

¹³For I have heard the slander and whispering of many,

Terror is on every side;

While they schemed together against me,
They plotted to take away my life. [Jer 20:10]

¹⁴But as for me, I trust [confidently] in You and Your greatness, O LORD; I said, “You are my God.”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Waiting on God

When success does not come easily and we find ourselves frustrated and weary in our efforts, we need to wait for the Lord. Waiting for the Lord, as David describes in Psalm 31:24, simply means spending time with Him, being in His presence, meditating on His Word, worshiping Him, and keeping Him at the center of our lives. Waiting on God properly requires that we wait with an attitude of expectancy, believing that God is going to do something good for us.

When you wait on the Lord, you draw everything you need from Him. He is your refuge, your enabler; your joy, your peace, your righteousness, and your hope. He gives you everything you need to live in victory over any circumstance. Stay close to Him and receive the strength you need every day. Don't let anything separate you from the love of God found in Christ Jesus.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Receiving God's Gift of Grace

Jesus forgave all our sins when He died on the cross, and He paid the price for our guilt as well. When we acknowledge or admit our sin to God, telling Him everything, refusing to hide our sin, we are able to receive His gift of grace (see Ps. 32:5). Confession is good for the soul; it allows us to let go of heavy burdens caused by guilty secrets.

Feelings of guilt do not always go away instantly, but we can take God at His Word and say, "I am forgiven, and the guilt has been removed." Our feelings will eventually catch up with our decisions. We can live by the truth in God's Word and not according to the way that we feel.

- ¹⁵ My times are in Your hands;
Rescue me from the hand of my enemies and from those who pursue and persecute me.
- ¹⁶ Make Your face shine upon Your servant;
Save me in Your lovingkindness.
- ¹⁷ Let me not be put to shame, O LORD, for I call on You; Let the wicked (godless) be put to shame, let them be silent in Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead).
- ¹⁸ Let the lying lips be mute,
Which speak insolently and arrogantly against the [consistently] righteous

With pride and contempt.

- ¹⁹How great is Your goodness,
Which You have stored up for those who [reverently] fear
You,
Which You have prepared for those who take refuge in You,
Before the sons of man!
- ²⁰In the secret place of Your presence You hide them from the plots and conspiracies of man; You keep them secretly in a shelter (pavilion) from the strife of tongues.
- ²¹Blessed be the LORD,
For He has shown His marvelous favor and lovingkindness to me [when I was assailed] in a besieged city.
- ²²As for me, I said in my alarm,
“I am cut off from Your eyes.”
Nevertheless You heard the voice of my supplications
(specific requests)
When I cried to You [for help].
- ²³O love the LORD, all you His godly ones!
The LORD preserves the faithful [those with moral and spiritual integrity]
And fully repays the [self-righteousness of the] arrogant.
- ²⁴Be strong and let your hearts take courage,
All you who wait for and confidently expect the LORD.

Psalm 32

Blessedness of Forgiveness and of Trust in God.

A Psalm of David. A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem.

¹BLESSED [FORTUNATE, prosperous, favored by God] is he whose transgression is forgiven, And whose sin is covered.

²Blessed is the man to whom the LORD does not impute wickedness, And in whose spirit there is no deceit. [Rom 4:7, 8]

³When I kept silent about my sin, my body wasted away
Through my groaning all the day long.

⁴For day and night Your hand [of displeasure] was heavy upon me;
My energy (vitality, strength) was drained away as with the burning heat of summer.

Selah.

⁵I acknowledged my sin to You,
And I did not hide my wickedness;
I said, "I will confess [all] my transgressions to the LORD";
And You forgave the guilt of my sin.

Selah.

⁶Therefore, let everyone who is godly pray to You [for forgiveness] in a time when You [are near and] may be found; Surely when the great waters [of trial and distressing times] overflow they will not reach [the spirit in] him.

⁷You are my hiding place; You, LORD, protect me from trouble; You surround me with songs and shouts of deliverance.

Selah.

⁸I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;
I will counsel you [who are willing to learn] with My eye upon you.

⁹Do not be like the horse or like the mule which have no
understanding,
Whose trappings include bridle and rein to hold them in check,
Otherwise they will not come near to you.

¹⁰Many are the sorrows of the wicked,
But he who trusts in and relies on the LORD shall be surrounded with compassion and lovingkindness.

¹¹Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, you righteous [who actively seek right standing with Him]; Shout for joy, all you upright in heart.

Psalm 33

Praise to the Creator and Preserver.

¹REJOICE IN the LORD, you righteous ones;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Holy Spirit Guides Us

Psalm 32:9 encourages us not to “be like the horse or like the mule.” These animals need a “bridle and rein to hold them in check” because they have “no understanding.” When we think about what this verse really means, it can help us in many ways.

A horse either follows the pull of the bridle, which controls the bit in its mouth, or it feels great pain. Our relationship with the Holy Spirit works in a similar way. He is our bridle and the bit in our mouths. He should be controlling the reins of our lives.

If we follow the promptings of the Holy Spirit, we will end up with a good life that is fruitful and enjoyable. But if we do not follow Him, we can end up in painful situations.

In the midst of life's storms, if we don't bridle our tongue, we may not reach the breakthrough God has for us or experience the fullness of His plan for our lives. But if we accept the leadership of the Holy Spirit, He will guide us in our thoughts, words, and all our actions.

Praise is becoming and appropriate for those who are upright [in heart—those with moral integrity and godly character].

- ²Give thanks to the LORD with the lyre;
Sing praises to Him with the harp of ten strings.
- ³Sing to Him a new song;
Play skillfully [on the strings] with a loud and joyful sound.
- ⁴For the word of the LORD is right;
And all His work is done in faithfulness.
- ⁵He loves righteousness and justice;
The earth is full of the lovingkindness of the LORD.
- ⁶By the word of the LORD were the heavens made, And all their host by the breath of His mouth. [Gen 1:1–3; Job 38:4–11; Heb 11:3; 2 Pet 3:5]
- ⁷He gathers the waters of the sea together as in a wineskin;
He puts the deeps in storehouses.
- ⁸Let all the earth fear and worship the LORD; Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him.
- ⁹For He spoke, and it was done;
He commanded, and it stood fast.

POWERPOINT

According to Psalm 33:11, the thoughts of God's heart, meaning His will, stand forever. God wants to speak to us, to share His thoughts with us. But in order for that to happen we need to quiet our own minds so we can hear what He is revealing. Several years ago God showed me that my mind was too busy to hear anything He said. We live in a very fast-paced and noisy world these days, and it is important to separate ourselves from it and have times of being still and quiet, waiting on God.

A Prayer To

Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that Your eye is upon me because I fear You and worship You with awe-inspired reverence and obedience, and I hope confidently in Your compassion and lovingkindness.

• adapted from Psalm 33:18

- ¹⁰The LORD nullifies the counsel of the nations;
He makes the thoughts and plans of the people ineffective.
- ¹¹The counsel of the LORD stands forever,
The thoughts and plans of His heart through all generations.
- ¹²Blessed [fortunate, prosperous, and favored by God] is the nation whose God is the LORD, The people whom He has chosen as His own inheritance. [Deut 32:8, 9]
- ¹³The LORD looks [down] from heaven; He sees all the sons of man;

- ¹⁴From His dwelling place He looks closely Upon all the inhabitants of the earth—
- ¹⁵He who fashions the hearts of them all,
Who considers and understands all that they do.
- ¹⁶The king is not saved by the great size of his army;
A warrior is not rescued by his great strength.
- ¹⁷A horse is a false hope for victory;
Nor does it deliver anyone by its great strength.
- ¹⁸Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon those who fear Him [and worship Him with awe-inspired reverence and obedience], On those who hope [confidently] in His compassion and lovingkindness,
- ¹⁹To rescue their lives from death
And keep them alive in famine.
- ²⁰We wait [expectantly] for the LORD;
He is our help and our shield.
- ²¹For in Him our heart rejoices,
Because we trust [lean on, rely on, and are confident] in His holy name.
- ²²Let Your [steadfast] lovingkindness, O LORD, be upon us, In proportion as we have hoped in You.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Start Saying “I Trust God”

In Psalm 34:4, the psalmist writes that God delivered him from all his fears. Fear is closely related to worry, dread, anxiety, and various other negative emotions. To win the battle of the mind, we must learn to handle fear and worry in a godly way.

I wonder how many times the words “I’m afraid...,” “I’m concerned that...,” or “I’m worried about...” go out into the atmosphere? Millions of people use these phrases perhaps millions of times throughout their lives. But what’s the purpose? These words are not effective, and they don’t help us in any way. Worry and fear don’t change our circumstances; they simply change us by moving our minds away from hope and faith.

Anxiety and fear immobilize us; when we sit and worry, we are not doing anything that can help or change our situation. Fear and worry steal our peace and joy and cause stress.

Whenever you find yourself saying, “I’m worried about...” or “I’m afraid that...,” replace those negative words with “I trust God.” When we say that we trust God, it releases His power to work in our lives. When you are in a battle with worry, instead of vocalizing it, study God’s Word and remember His faithfulness in past situations. God will deliver you from all your fears, as Psalm 34:4 says, and you can do your part to help reach that breakthrough. Move in the right direction by eliminating “I’m worried” and “I’m afraid” from your vocabulary.

Psalm 34

The LORD, a Provider and the One Who Rescues Me.

A Psalm of David; when he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, who drove him out, and he went away.

- ¹I WILL bless the LORD at all times;
His praise shall continually be in my mouth.
- ²My soul makes its boast in the LORD;
The humble and downtrodden will hear it and rejoice.
- ³O magnify the LORD with me,
And let us lift up His name together.
- ⁴I sought the LORD [on the authority of His word], and He answered me, And delivered me from all my fears. [Ps 73:25; Matt 7:7]
- ⁵They looked to Him and were radiant;
Their faces will never blush in shame or confusion.
- ⁶This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him
And saved him from all his troubles.
- ⁷The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear Him
[with awe-inspired reverence and worship Him with obedience], And He rescues [each of] them. [2 Kin 6:8–23; Ps 18:1; 145:20]
- ⁸O taste and see that the LORD [our God] is good; How blessed [fortunate, prosperous, and favored by God] is the man who takes refuge in Him. [1 Pet 2:2, 3]

⁹O [reverently] fear the LORD, you His saints (believers, holy ones);

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Submitting Our Mouths to God

When I first started in ministry, I knew that God had given me an ability to communicate because it was easy for me. Words are my tools. The Lord gave me the gift, and then He called me into the ministry to use that ability to work for Him. But my gift has also been my greatest problem at times. I struggled for a long time with the right use of my tongue.

Over the years, various people said things such as, “Hold your tongue,” “Do you always speak first and think later?” or “Must you sound so harsh?” Had I not ignored what people were saying to me, I would have realized that God was trying to tell me something important. But I continued in my own stubborn ways, and I know I wounded people with my words. I am sorry for that, and I am grateful that God has forgiven me.

I finally realized that if God was going to use my life, I needed to obey Him concerning the proper use of my words—not just when I was in the pulpit, but all the time. God’s Word says, “Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking deceit” (Ps. 34:13).

I had a choice. I could continue to hurt people with my words or I could submit my mouth to God. Obviously, I wanted to be subject to the Lord, but it was still a battle.

Our words are expressions of our hearts, of what’s going on inside us. If we want to know who a person really is, all we need to do is listen to their words. If we listen long enough, we learn a lot about them.

As I learned to listen to my own words, I began to learn a lot about myself. Some of the things I learned did not please me, but they also helped me realize that my words were not pleasing to God, and I wanted them to be. Once I confessed my failure to God, the victory came—not all at once and not perfectly; but God is patient, and He continues to work with us as long as we work with Him.

No matter how many problems you may have with the proper use of words, God wants to change you. It won't be easy, but you can win the battle. And the effort will be worth it.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord, put a watch over my mouth so I will not sin against You with my tongue. Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable to You. In Jesus' name. Amen.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I ask, Lord, that You would help me keep my tongue from evil and my lips from speaking deceit.

• adapted from Psalm 34:13

For to those who fear Him there is no want.

¹⁰The young lions lack [food] and grow hungry,
But they who seek the LORD will not lack any good thing.

¹¹Come, you children, listen to me;
I will teach you to fear the LORD [with awe-inspired reverence and worship Him with obedience].

¹²Who is the man who desires life
And loves many days, that he may see good?

¹³Keep your tongue from evil
And your lips from speaking deceit.

- ¹⁴ Turn away from evil and do good;
Seek peace and pursue it.
- ¹⁵ The eyes of the LORD are toward the righteous [those with

And His ears are open to their cry.
- ¹⁶ The face of the LORD is against those who do evil,
To cut off the memory of them from the earth. [1 Pet 3:10–12]
- ¹⁷ When the righteous cry [for help], the LORD hears And rescues them from all their distress and troubles.
- ¹⁸ The LORD is near to the heartbroken
And He saves those who are crushed in spirit (contrite in heart, truly sorry for their sin).

I cry for help, the Lord hears and rescues me from all my distress and troubles.*

| adapted from PSALM 34:15, 17 |

POWERPOINT

Psalm 34:19 makes clear that “many hardships and perplexing circumstances” will confront people who are consistently righteous. When we are in Christ, we are righteous (see 2 Cor. 5:21), so we know we will face challenges, difficulties, and times when we won’t know what to do. We may have many specific reasons to become anxious, but if we focus on our righteousness instead of our worries, we will be victorious.

¹⁹Many hardships and perplexing circumstances confront the righteous, But the LORD rescues him from them all.

²⁰He keeps all his bones;
Not one of them is broken. [John 19:33, 36]

²¹Evil will cause the death of the wicked,

And those who hate the righteous will be held guilty and will be condemned.

²²The LORD redeems the soul of His servants,
And none of those who take refuge in Him will be condemned.

Psalm 35

Prayer for Rescue from Enemies.

A Psalm of David.

- ¹CONTEND, O LORD, with those who contend with me;
Fight against those who fight against me.
- ²Take hold of shield and buckler (small shield),
And stand up for my help.
- ³Draw also the spear and javelin to meet those who pursue
me.
Say to my soul, "I am your salvation."
- ⁴Let those be ashamed and dishonored who seek my life;

POWERPOINT

When you are having problems, don't fall into the trap of thinking you are being punished for something you have done wrong in your life. If there is something you need to learn from your situation, be open to learning it. But remember that God is merciful, He is good, and He wants your needs to be met. He wants you to have a good job, a decent place to live, transportation to get you where you need to go, good friends, and a great spiritual life. God wants you to be blessed in every area of your life—spiritually, mentally, emotionally, physically, financially, and socially. In fact, when you do well in these areas, God “delights and takes pleasure” in it (see Ps. 35:27). Just be patient in your difficulties and God will come through for you.

Let those be turned back [in defeat] and humiliated who plot evil against me.

⁵Let them be [blown away] like chaff before the wind [worthless, without substance], With the angel of the LORD driving them on.

⁶Let their way be dark and slippery,
With the angel of the LORD pursuing and harassing them.

⁷For without cause they hid their net for me;
Without cause they dug a pit [of destruction] for my life.

⁸Let destruction come upon my enemy by surprise;
Let the net he hid for me catch him;
Into that very destruction let him fall.

⁹Then my soul shall rejoice in the LORD; It shall rejoice in His salvation.

¹⁰All my bones will say, "LORD, who is like You,
Who rescues the afflicted from him who is too strong for him [to resist alone],
And the afflicted and the needy from him who robs him?"

¹¹Malicious witnesses rise up;
They ask me of things that I do not know.

¹²They repay me evil for good,
To the sorrow of my soul.

- ¹³But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth (mourning garment);
I humbled my soul with fasting,
And I prayed with my head bowed on my chest.
- ¹⁴I behaved as if grieving for my friend or my brother;
I bowed down in mourning, as one who sorrows for his mother.
- ¹⁵But in my stumbling they rejoiced and gathered together
[against me];
The slanderers whom I did not know gathered against me;
They slandered and reviled me without ceasing.
- ¹⁶Like godless jesters at a feast,
They gnashed at me with their teeth [in malice].
- ¹⁷LORD, how long will You look on [without action]?
Rescue my life from their destructions,
My only life from the young lions.
- ¹⁸I will give You thanks in the great congregation;
I will praise You among a mighty people.
- ¹⁹Do not let those who are wrongfully my enemies rejoice over me;
Nor let those who hate me without cause wink their eye
[maliciously]. [John 15:24, 25]
- ²⁰For they do not speak peace,
But they devise deceitful words [half-truths and lies] against those who are quiet in the land.
- ²¹They open their mouths wide against me;
They say, “Aha, aha, our eyes have seen it!”

- ²²You have seen this, O LORD; do not keep silent.
O Lord, do not be far from me.
- ²³Wake Yourself up, and arise to my right
And to my cause, my God and my Lord.
- ²⁴Judge me, O LORD my God, according to Your righteousness and justice; And do not let them rejoice over me.
- ²⁵Do not let them say in their heart, “Aha, that is what we wanted!”
Do not let them say, “We have swallowed him up and destroyed him.”
- ²⁶Let those be ashamed and humiliated together who rejoice at my distress;
Let those be clothed with shame and dishonor who magnify themselves over me.
- ²⁷Let them shout for joy and rejoice, who favor my vindication and want what is right for me; Let them say continually, “Let the LORD be magnified, who delights and takes pleasure in the prosperity of His servant.”
- ²⁸And my tongue shall declare Your righteousness (justice),
And Your praise all the day long.

Psalm 36

Wickedness of Men and Lovingkindness of God.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD.

- ¹TRANSGRESSION SPEAKS [like an oracle] to the wicked

(godless) [deep] within his heart; There is no fear (dread) of God before his eyes. [Rom 3:18]

²For he flatters and deceives himself in his own eyes Thinking that his sinfulness will not be discovered and hated [by God].

³The words of his mouth are wicked and deceitful;
He has ceased to be wise and to do good.

⁴He plans wrongdoing on his bed;
He sets himself on a path that is not good;
He does not reject or despise evil.

⁵Your lovingkindness and graciousness, O LORD, extend to the skies, Your faithfulness [reaches] to the clouds.

⁶Your righteousness is like the mountains of God,
Your judgments are like the great deep.
O LORD, You preserve man and beast.

⁷How precious is Your lovingkindness, O God!
The children of men take refuge in the shadow of Your wings.

⁸They drink their fill of the abundance of Your house;
And You allow them to drink from the river of Your delights.

⁹For with You is the fountain of life [the fountain of life-giving water];
In Your light we see light. [John 4:10, 14]

¹⁰O continue Your lovingkindness to those who know You,
And Your righteousness (salvation) to the upright in heart.

¹¹Do not let the foot of the proud [person] overtake me,

And do not let the hand of the wicked drive me away.
¹²There those who [are perverse and] do evil have fallen;
They have been thrust down and cannot rise.

Psalm 37

Security of Those Who Trust in the LORD, and Insecurity of the Wicked.

A Psalm of David.

- ¹DO NOT worry because of evildoers,
Nor be envious toward wrongdoers;
²For they will wither quickly like the grass,
And fade like the green herb.
³Trust [rely on and have confidence] in the LORD and do good; Dwell in the land and feed [securely] on His faithfulness.
⁴Delight yourself in the LORD,
And He will give you the desires and petitions of your heart.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that as I trust in You and do good, I will dwell in the land and feed on Your faithfulness. As I delight myself in You, You give me the desires and petitions of my heart. I commit my way to You. I trust in You and believe You will do it.

• adapted from Psalm 37:3–5

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Commit It to the Lord

God intervenes in the situations we face in life when we commit our ways to Him (see Ps. 37:5).

The more we try to take care of our own problems without asking God to help us, the more we will struggle. I was quite independent and found it difficult to humble myself and admit I needed help. However, when I finally submitted to God in these areas and found the joy of casting all my care on Him, I could not believe I had lived so long under such huge amounts of pressure.

Commit to the Lord your children, your marriage, your personal relationships, and especially anything you may be tempted to be concerned about. In order to succeed at being ourselves, we must continually be committing ourselves to God, giving to Him those things that appear to be holding us back. Only God really knows what needs to be accomplished, and He is the only One qualified to complete that work in us. The more we sincerely commit ourselves to Him, the greater the joy of letting go and trusting Him.

⁵Commit your way to the LORD;
Trust in Him also and He will do it.

⁶He will make your righteousness [your pursuit of right standing with God] like the light, And your judgment like

[the shining of] the noonday [sun].

⁷Be still before the LORD; wait patiently for Him and entrust yourself to Him; Do not fret (whine, agonize) because of him who prospers in his way,
Because of the man who carries out wicked schemes.

⁸Cease from anger and abandon wrath;
Do not fret; it leads only to evil.

⁹For those who do evil will be cut off,
But those who wait for the LORD, they will inherit the land.
[Is 57:13c]

¹⁰For yet a little while and the wicked one will be gone
[forever];
Though you look carefully where he used to be, he will not be [found]. [Heb 10:36, 37; Rev 21:7, 8]

¹¹But the humble will [at last] inherit the land
And will delight themselves in abundant prosperity and peace. [Ps 37:29; Matt 5:5]

¹²The wicked plots against the righteous
And gnashes at him with his teeth.

¹³The Lord laughs at him [the wicked one—the one who oppresses the righteous],
For He sees that his day [of defeat] is coming.

¹⁴The wicked have drawn the sword and bent their bow
To cast down the afflicted and the needy,
To slaughter those who are upright in conduct [those with personal integrity and godly character].

Speak God's Word

I will cease from anger and abandon wrath. I will not fret or worry—it tends to only makes things worse.

| adapted from PSALM 37:8 |

- ¹⁵The sword [of the ungodly] will enter their own heart,
And their bow will be broken.
- ¹⁶Better is the little of the righteous [who seek the will of God]
Than the abundance (riches) of many wicked (godless). [1
Tim 6:6, 7]
- ¹⁷For the arms of the wicked will be broken,
But the LORD upholds and sustains the righteous [who seek
Him].
- ¹⁸The LORD knows the days of the blameless,
And their inheritance will continue forever.
- ¹⁹They will not be ashamed in the time of evil,
And in the days of famine they will have plenty and be satisfied.
- ²⁰But the wicked (ungodly) will perish,
And the enemies of the LORD will be like the glory of the pastures and like the fat of lambs [that is consumed in smoke], They vanish—like smoke they vanish away.

²¹The wicked borrows and does not pay back,
But the righteous is gracious and kind and gives.

²²For those blessed by God will [at last] inherit the land,
But those cursed by Him will be cut off. [Is 57:13c]

²³The steps of a [good and righteous] man are directed and established by the LORD, And He delights in his way [and blesses his path].

²⁴When he falls, he will not be hurled down, Because the LORD is the One who holds his hand and sustains him.

²⁵I have been young and now I am old,
Yet I have not seen the righteous (those in right standing with God) abandoned
Or his descendants pleading for bread.

²⁶All day long he is gracious and lends,
And his descendants are a blessing.

²⁷Depart from evil and do good;
And you will dwell [securely in the land] forever.

²⁸For the LORD delights in justice
And does not abandon His saints (faithful ones);
They are preserved forever,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Orders Our Steps

If we are willing to follow God, He delights in leading us and in being involved in every area of our life. When God delights in us, He busies Himself with the steps we take (see Ps. 37:23). That is really amazing! God cares so much about us that He is concerned with everything that concerns us.

He guides us in many ways, but one of the things He guides us to do is to be merciful and deal graciously with others. He guides us to help others in any way that we can. When we follow God, we are guided away from any evil way, and He teaches us to do good. We overcome evil with good (see Rom. 12:21).

Instead of being angry with people who hurt us or treat us unfairly, we can be merciful to them and do good to them. And then God will be our Vindicator and reward us.

But the descendants of the wicked will [in time] be cut off.

²⁹The righteous will inherit the land
And live in it forever.

³⁰The mouth of the righteous proclaims wisdom,
And his tongue speaks justice and truth.

³¹The law of his God is in his heart;
Not one of his steps will slip.

- ³²The wicked lies in wait for the righteous
And seeks to kill him.
- ³³The LORD will not leave him in his hand
Or let him be condemned when he is judged.
- ³⁴Wait for and expect the LORD and keep His way, And He will exalt you to inherit the land;
[In the end] when the wicked are cut off, you will see it.
- ³⁵I have seen a wicked, violent man [with great power]
Spreading and flaunting himself like a cedar in its native soil,
- ³⁶Yet he passed away, and lo, he was no more;
I sought him, but he could not be found.
- ³⁷Mark the blameless man [who is spiritually complete], and behold the upright [who walks in moral integrity]; There is a [good] future for the man of peace [because a life of honor blesses one's descendants].
- ³⁸As for transgressors, they will be completely destroyed;
The future of the wicked will be cut off.
- ³⁹But the salvation of the righteous is from the LORD; He is their refuge and stronghold in the time of trouble.
- ⁴⁰The LORD helps them and rescues them;
He rescues them from the wicked and saves them,
Because they take refuge in Him.

Psalm 38

Prayer in Time of Discipline.

A Psalm of David; to bring to remembrance.

¹O LORD, do not rebuke me in Your wrath,
Nor discipline me in Your burning anger.

POWERPOINT

Like David, no one wants to be in dark places such as is described in Psalm 38. We all go through difficult times, but thankfully Jesus is the light of the world, and He will give us light in the dark places of our lives. We may not always know exactly what is going to happen in our situations, but we can always know that Jesus is our hope and He will help us. It is important that during our difficulties we keep a positive attitude. God is positive and He wants us to be the same way.

²For Your arrows have sunk into me and penetrate deeply,
And Your hand has pressed down on me and greatly disciplined me.

³There is no soundness in my flesh because of Your

- indignation;
There is no health in my bones because of my sin.
- ⁴For my iniquities have gone over my head [like the waves of a flood];
As a heavy burden they weigh too much for me.
- ⁵My wounds are loathsome and foul
Because of my foolishness.
- ⁶I am bent over and greatly bowed down;
I go about mourning all day long.
- ⁷For my sides are filled with burning,
And there is no health in my flesh.
- ⁸I am numb and greatly bruised [deadly cold and completely worn out];
I groan because of the disquiet and moaning of my heart.
- ⁹Lord, all my desire is before You;
And my sighing is not hidden from You.
- ¹⁰My heart throbs violently, my strength fails me;
And as for the light of my eyes, even that has also gone from me.
- ¹¹My loved ones and my friends stand aloof from my plague;
And my neighbors stand far away. [Luke 23:49]
- ¹²Those who seek my life lay snares for me,
And those who seek to injure me threaten mischievous things and destruction;
They devise treachery all the day long.
- ¹³But I, like a deaf man, do not hear;

I am like a mute man who does not open his mouth.

¹⁴Yes, I am like a man who does not hear,

In whose mouth are no arguments.

¹⁵For in You, O LORD, I hope;

You will answer, O Lord my God.

¹⁶For I pray, “May they not rejoice over me,

Who, when my foot slips, would boast against me.”

¹⁷For I am ready to fall;

My sorrow is continually before me.

¹⁸For I do confess my guilt and iniquity;

I am filled with anxiety because of my sin. [2 Cor 7:9, 10]

¹⁹But my [numerous] enemies are vigorous and strong,

And those who hate me without cause are many.

²⁰They repay evil for good, they attack and try to kill me,

Because I follow what is good.

²¹Do not abandon me, O LORD;

O my God, do not be far from me.

²²Make haste to help me,

O Lord, my Salvation.

Psalm 39

The Vanity of Life.

To the Chief Musician; for Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

¹I SAID, “I will guard my ways

That I may not sin with my tongue;

I will muzzle my mouth

While the wicked are in my presence.”

²I was mute and silent [before my enemies],
I refrained even from good,
And my distress grew worse.

³My heart was hot within me.
While I was musing the fire burned;
Then I spoke with my tongue:

⁴“LORD, let me know my [life’s] end
And [to appreciate] the extent of my days;
Let me know how frail I am [how transient is my stay here].

⁵“Behold, You have made my days as [short as] hand widths,
And my lifetime is as nothing in Your sight.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

How To Speak Right Words

The psalmist David prayed a lot about his words. He said, “I will guard my ways that I may not sin with my tongue; I will muzzle my mouth...” (Ps. 39:1). “Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable and pleasing in Your sight, O LORD, my [firm, immovable] rock and my Redeemer” (Ps. 19:14). “Set a guard, O LORD, over my mouth; keep watch over the door of my lips” (Ps. 141:3). We can see from these Scriptures that David was determined not to sin with his tongue. At the same time he relied on God for strength to follow through on his commitment.

One of the things we should ask God for each day is to help us speak right things. Our words are very important, and they should be used for God’s purposes. We should desire to be mouthpieces for God, speaking His Word faithfully.

Surely every man at his best is a mere breath [a wisp of smoke, a vapor that vanishes]! [Eccl 1:2]

Selah.

⁶“Surely every man walks around like a shadow [in a charade];

Surely they make an uproar for nothing;

Each one builds up riches, not knowing who will receive them. [Eccl 2:18, 19; 1 Cor 7:31; James 4:14]

- ⁷“And now, Lord, for what do I expectantly wait?
My hope [my confident expectation] is in You.
- ⁸“Save me from all my transgressions;
Do not make me the scorn and reproach of the [self-righteous, arrogant] fool.
- ⁹“I am mute, I do not open my mouth,
Because it is You who has done it.
- ¹⁰“Remove Your plague from me;
I am wasting away because of the conflict and opposition of Your hand.
- ¹¹“With rebukes You discipline man for sin;
You consume like a moth what is precious to him;
Surely every man is a mere breath [a wisp of smoke, a vapor that vanishes].
- Selah.*
- ¹²“Hear my prayer, O LORD, and listen to my cry; Do not be silent at my tears;
For I am Your temporary guest,
A sojourner like all my fathers.
- ¹³“O look away from me, that I may smile and again know joy Before I depart and am no more.”

Psalm 40

God Sustains His Servant.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- ¹I WAITED patiently and expectantly for the LORD; And He inclined to me and heard my cry.

²He brought me up out of a horrible pit [of tumult and of destruction], out of the miry clay, And He set my feet upon a rock, steadying my footsteps and establishing my path.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, thank You that as I wait patiently and expectantly for You, You incline to me and hear my cry. When I am discouraged or depressed, I believe You will bring me up out of the horrible pit and set my feet upon a rock, steadying my footsteps and establishing my path.

• adapted from Psalm 40:1–2

³He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God;

Many will see and fear [with great reverence]
And will trust confidently in the LORD. [Ps 5:11]

⁴Blessed [fortunate, prosperous, and favored by God] is the man who makes the LORD his trust, And does not regard the proud nor those who lapse into lies.

⁵Many, O LORD my God, are the wonderful works which You have done, And Your thoughts toward us;
There is none to compare with You.
If I would declare and speak of your wonders,
They would be too many to count.

⁶Sacrifice and meal offering You do not desire, nor do You delight in them; You have opened my ears and given me the capacity to hear [and obey Your word];
Burnt offerings and sin offerings You do not require. [Mic 6:6–8]

⁷Then I said, “Behold, I come [to the throne];
In the scroll of the book it is written of me.

⁸“I delight to do Your will, O my God;
Your law is within my heart.” [Jer 31:33; Heb 10:5–9]

⁹I have proclaimed good news of righteousness [and the joy that comes from obedience to You] in the great assembly;
Behold, I will not restrain my lips [from proclaiming Your righteousness],
As You know, O LORD.

¹⁰I have not concealed Your righteousness within my heart;
I have proclaimed Your faithfulness and Your salvation.

I have not concealed Your lovingkindness and Your truth from the great assembly. [Acts 20:20, 27]

- ¹¹Do not withhold Your compassion and tender mercy from me, O LORD; Your lovingkindness and Your truth will continually preserve me.
- ¹²For innumerable evils have encompassed me;
My sins have overtaken me, so that I am not able to see.
They are more numerous than the hairs of my head,
And my heart has failed me.
- ¹³Be pleased, O LORD, to save me;
O LORD, make haste to help me.
- ¹⁴Let those be ashamed and humiliated together
Who seek my life to destroy it;
Let those be turned back [in defeat] and dishonored
Who delight in my hurt.
- ¹⁵Let those be appalled and desolate because of their shame
Who say to me, “Aha, aha [rejoicing in my misfortune]!”
- ¹⁶Let all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You;
Let those who love Your salvation say continually,
“The LORD be magnified!”
- ¹⁷Even though I am afflicted and needy,
Still the Lord takes thought and is mindful of me.
You are my help and my rescuer.
O my God, do not delay. [Ps 70:1–5; 1 Pet 5:7]

Psalm 41

The Psalmist in Sickness Complains of Enemies and False Friends.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

¹BLESSED [by God's grace and compassion] is he who considers the helpless;

The LORD will save him in the day of trouble.

²The LORD will protect him and keep him alive;

And he will be called blessed in the land;

You do not hand him over to the desire of his enemies.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Is with You Always

God has promised that He will never leave you nor forsake you (see Deut. 31:8). In the midst of sickness and the betrayal of a close friend, David said of the Lord, "You set me in Your presence forever" (Ps. 41:12). No matter what you are going through in life, you do not have to go through it alone. Every day with God is not going to be a perfect day without problems. But your worst day with Jesus will still be better than your best day without Him.

Say all throughout the day, "God is with me right now. Right now, God is with me. God is with me when I go to work. God is with me when I go to the marketplace. God is with me. He's not just with me when I go to church; God is with me all the time. He cares about everything I do."

³The LORD will sustain and strengthen him on his sickbed; In his illness, You will restore him to health.

⁴As for me, I said, "O LORD, be gracious to me; Heal my soul, for I have sinned against You."

⁵My enemies speak evil of me, saying,
"When will he die and his name perish?"

⁶And when one comes to see me, he speaks empty words,
While his heart gathers malicious gossip [against me];

When he goes away, he tells it [everywhere].

⁷All who hate me whisper together about me;
Against me they devise my hurt [imagining the worst for me], saying,

⁸“A wicked thing is poured out upon him and holds him;
And when he lies down, he will not rise up again.”

⁹Even my own close friend in whom I trusted,
Who ate my bread,
Has lifted up his heel against me [betraying me]. [John 13:18]

¹⁰But You, O LORD, be gracious to me and restore me [to health], So that I may repay them.

¹¹By this I know that You favor and delight in me,
Because my enemy does not shout in triumph over me.

¹²As for me, You uphold me in my integrity,
And You set me in Your presence forever.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

When my soul is in despair,

when it has become restless and disquieted within me, I hope in You, God. I wait expectantly for You, for I shall yet praise You, the help of my countenance and my God.

• adapted from Psalm 42:11

- ¹³Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, From everlasting to everlasting [from this age to the next, and forever].
Amen and Amen (so be it).

BOOK TWO

Psalm 42

Thirsting for God in Trouble and Exile.

To the Chief Musician. A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem, of the sons of Korah.

- ¹AS THE deer pants [longingly] for the water brooks,
So my soul pants [longingly] for You, O God.
- ²My soul (my life, my inner self) thirsts for God, for the living God.
When will I come and see the face of God? [Ps 63:1, 2; John 7:37; 1 Thess 1:9, 10]
- ³My tears have been my food day and night,
While they say to me all day long, “Where is your God?”

⁴These things I [vividly] remember as I pour out my soul;
How I used to go along before the great crowd of people and lead them in procession to the house of God [like a choirmaster before his singers, timing the steps to the music and the chant of the song], With the voice of joy and thanksgiving, a great crowd keeping a festival.

⁵Why are you in despair, O my soul?
And why have you become restless and disturbed within
me?
Hope in God and wait expectantly for Him, for I shall again
praise Him
For the help of His presence.

⁶O my God, my soul is in despair within me [the burden more than I can bear];
Therefore I will [fervently] remember You from the land of the Jordan
And the peaks of [Mount] Hermon, from Mount Mizar.

⁷Deep calls to deep at the [thundering] sound of Your waterfalls;
All Your breakers and Your waves have rolled over me.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Be Patient with Yourself

David said, “Why are you in despair, O my soul? And why have you become restless and disturbed within me? Hope in God and wait expectantly for Him, for I shall again praise Him for the help of His presence” (Ps. 42:5).

Discouragement destroys hope, and without hope we give up, so naturally the enemy always tries to discourage us. The Bible repeatedly tells us not to be discouraged or dismayed. God knows we will not attain victory if we remain discouraged, so God encourages us with His Word and His presence.

When discouragement or condemnation tries to overtake you, examine your thought life. What kind of thoughts have you been thinking? Do they sound something like this?

I'm not going to make it; this is too hard. I always fail, it has always been the same; nothing ever changes. I'm sure other people don't have this much trouble getting their minds renewed. I may as well give up. I'm tired of trying. I pray, but it seems as if God doesn't hear. He probably doesn't answer my prayers because He is so disappointed in the way I act.

If this example represents your thoughts, then no wonder you get discouraged or feel condemned. Remember, you become what you think. Think discouraging thoughts, and you'll become discouraged. Think condemning thoughts, and you'll come under condemnation. Change your thinking and be set free!

Instead of thinking negatively, think like this:

Well, things are going a little slow; but, thank God, I'm making progress. I'm on the right path that will lead me to freedom. I had a rough day yesterday, I chose wrong thinking all day long, I made a mistake, but at least that is one day I won't have to repeat. This is a new day. I'm not going to give up. You love me, Lord. Your mercy is new every morning.

This is an example of how to effectively use your weapon of the Word to tear down strongholds. I recommend that you not only think right thoughts on purpose, but also go the extra mile and speak them aloud as your confession.

Remember, God is delivering you, little by little, so don't be discouraged and don't feel condemned if you make a mistake. Be patient with yourself!

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord Jesus, with Your help, I can make it. With Your help, I won't be discouraged and feel hopeless. With Your help, I can defeat every wrong thought that comes to my mind. Thank You for victory. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Put Your Hope in God

Does your inner man ever feel cast down? Sometimes mine does. So did David's. When he felt that way, David put his hope in God and waited expectantly for Him, praising Him as his help and his God (see Ps. 42:5).

To overcome his downcast feelings and emotions, he used songs and shouts of deliverance. That's why so many of his psalms are songs of praise to God to be sung in the midst of unsettling situations.

David knew that when he got down, his countenance went down with him. That is why he talked to himself, his soul (mind, will, and emotions), and encouraged and strengthened himself in the Lord (see 1 Sam. 30:6).

When we find ourselves in that same depressed state, we should wait expectantly for the Lord, praise Him Who is our help and our God, and encourage and strengthen ourselves in Him. When you feel discouraged, remember a victory you experienced in the past, and expect another one.

We who are righteous—in right standing with God—by believing in Jesus Christ, we who take refuge and put our trust in the Lord can sing and shout for joy! The Lord makes a covering over us and defends us. He fights our battles for us when we praise Him (see 2 Chr. 20:17, 20–21)!

You and I must realize and remember that depression is not part of our inheritance in Jesus Christ. Joy is God's will for His children.

⁸Yet the LORD will command His lovingkindness in the daytime, And in the night His song will be with me,
A prayer to the God of my life.

⁹I will say to God my rock, "Why have You forgotten me?
Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"

¹⁰As a crushing of my bones [with a sword], my adversaries taunt me,
While they say continually to me, "Where is your God?"

¹¹Why are you in despair, O my soul?
Why have you become restless and disquieted within me?
Hope in God and wait expectantly for Him, for I shall yet praise Him,
The help of my countenance and my God.

Psalm 43

Prayer for Rescue.

¹JUDGE AND vindicate me, O God; plead my case against an ungodly nation.

O rescue me from the deceitful and unjust man!

²For You are the God of my strength [my stronghold—in whom I take refuge]; why have You rejected me?

Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

³O send out Your light and Your truth, let them lead me;

Let them bring me to Your holy hill

And to Your dwelling places.

⁴Then I will go to the altar of God,

To God, my exceeding joy;

POWERPOINT

Discouragement destroys hope and disturbs our souls (see Ps.

43:5), so naturally the devil always tries to discourage us.

The Bible repeatedly tells us not to be discouraged or dismayed, to not be in despair or restless or disturbed, but to hope in God. God knows that we will not come through to victory if we remain discouraged, so He always encourages us to come to Him, our “exceeding joy,” and praise Him as we wait expectantly for Him (see Ps. 43:4).

With the lyre I will praise You, O God, my God!

⁵Why are you in despair, O my soul?

And why are you restless and disturbed within me?

Hope in God and wait expectantly for Him, for I shall again

praise Him,
The help of my [sad] countenance and my God.

Psalm 44

Former Times of Help and Present Troubles.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem.

- ¹WE HAVE heard with our ears, O God,
Our fathers have told us
The work You did in their days,
In the days of old.
- ²You drove out the [pagan] nations with Your own hand;
Then you planted and established them (Israel);
[It was by Your power that] You uprooted the [pagan]
peoples,
Then You spread them abroad.
- ³For our fathers did not possess the land [of Canaan] by their own sword,
Nor did their own arms save them,
But Your right hand and Your arm and the light of Your presence,
Because You favored and delighted in them.
- ⁴You are my King, O God;
Command victories and deliverance for Jacob (Israel).
- ⁵Through You we will gore our enemies [like a bull];
Through Your name we will trample down those who rise up against us.

⁶For I will not trust in my bow,
Nor will my sword save me.

⁷But You have saved us from our enemies,
And You have put them to shame and humiliated those who hate us.

⁸In God we have boasted all the day long,
And we will praise and give thanks to Your name forever.

Selah.

⁹But now You have rejected us and brought us to dishonor,
And You do not go out with our armies [to lead us to victory].

¹⁰You make us turn back from the enemy,
And those who hate us have taken spoil for themselves.

¹¹You have made us like sheep to be eaten [as mutton]
And have scattered us [in exile] among the nations.

¹²You sell Your people cheaply,
And have not increased Your wealth by their sale.

¹³You have made us the reproach and taunt of our neighbors,
A scoffing and a derision to those around us.

¹⁴You make us a byword among the nations,
A laughingstock among the people.

¹⁵My dishonor is before me all day long,
And humiliation has covered my face,

¹⁶Because of the voice of the taunter and reviler,
Because of the presence of the enemy and the avenger.

¹⁷All this has come upon us, yet we have not forgotten You,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Write God's Word on Your Heart

In Psalm 45:1, the psalmist said his tongue was “like the pen of a skillful writer.” And in Proverbs 3:1–3, the Word states we should not forget God’s laws but “write them on the tablet of your heart.” We see from these two Scriptures that the heart is the tablet and the tongue is the pen.

When you confess God’s Word out loud with your tongue, you are effectively writing it on your heart. When you write it on your heart, it becomes more firmly established both in your heart and in the earth. God’s Word is forever “settled in heaven [standing firm and unchangeable]” (Ps. 119:89), and we establish it in the earth each time we speak it. When your mouth is filled with God’s Word, it is a mighty weapon against the enemy!

Nor have we been false to Your covenant [which You made with our fathers].

¹⁸Our heart has not turned back,

Nor have our steps wandered from Your path,

¹⁹Yet You have [distressingly] crushed us in the place of jackals

And covered us with [the deep darkness of] the shadow of death.

- ²⁰If we had forgotten the name of our God
Or stretched out our hands to a strange god, ²¹Would not God discover this?
For He knows the secrets of the heart.
²²But for Your sake we are killed all the day long;
We are considered as sheep to be slaughtered. [Rom 8:35–39]
²³Awake! Why do You sleep, O Lord?
Awaken, do not reject us forever.
²⁴Why do You hide Your face
And forget our affliction and our oppression?
²⁵For our life has melted away into the dust;
Our body clings to the ground.
²⁶Rise up! Come be our help,
And ransom us for the sake of Your steadfast love.

Psalm 45

A Song Celebrating the King's Marriage.

To the Chief Musician; set to the [tune of] "Lilies." A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem. A Song of Love.

- ¹MYHEART overflows with a good theme;
I address my psalm to the King.
My tongue is like the pen of a skillful writer.
²You are fairer than the sons of men;
Graciousness is poured upon Your lips;

Therefore God has blessed You forever.

³Strap Your sword on Your thigh, O mighty One,
In Your splendor and Your majesty!

⁴And in Your majesty ride on triumphantly
For the cause of truth and humility and righteousness;
Let Your right hand guide You to awesome things.

⁵Your arrows are sharp;
The peoples (nations) fall under You;
Your arrows pierce the hearts of the King's enemies.

⁶Your throne, O God, is forever and ever;
The scepter of uprightness is the scepter of Your kingdom.

⁷You have loved righteousness (virtue, morality, justice) and hated wickedness;
Therefore God, your God, has anointed You
Above Your companions with the oil of jubilation. [Heb 1:8, 9]

⁸All Your garments are fragrant with myrrh, aloes and cassia;
From ivory palaces stringed instruments have made You glad.

⁹Kings' daughters are among Your noble ladies;
At Your right hand stands the queen in gold from Ophir.

¹⁰Hear, O daughter, consider and incline your ear [to my instruction]: Forget your people and your father's house;

¹¹Then the King will desire your beauty;
Because He is your Lord, bow down and honor Him.

¹²The daughter of Tyre will come with a gift;

! REMEMBER, don't wait until the battle is finished to declare your victory. Thank God in advance!

The rich among the people will seek your favor.

¹³Glorious is the King's daughter within [the palace];
Her robe is interwoven with gold. [Rev 19:7, 8]

¹⁴She will be brought to the King in embroidered garments;
The virgins, her companions who follow her,
Will be brought to You.

¹⁵With gladness and rejoicing will they be led;
They will enter into the King's palace.

¹⁶In place of your fathers will be your sons;
You shall make princes in all the land.

¹⁷I will make Your name to be remembered in all generations;
Therefore the peoples will praise and give You thanks
forever and ever.

Adapting to Change

Everything changes except God, and letting all the changes in our lives upset us won't keep them from happening. People change, circumstances change, our bodies change, and our desires and passions change. There is one certainty in life: change!

Our thoughts are the first things we need to deal with during times of change, because thoughts directly affect our emotions and determine our behavior. The psalmist said, "Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change and though the mountains be shaken" (Ps. 46:2). When circumstances change, make the transition mentally and your emotions will be a lot easier to manage. If something changes that you are not ready for and did not choose, you will likely feel a variety of emotions about the change. By acting on God's Word and not merely reacting to the situation, you will be better able to manage your emotions instead of allowing them to control you.

Psalm 46

God the Refuge of His People.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah, set to soprano voices. A Song.

¹GOD IS our refuge and strength [mighty and impenetrable],
A very present and well-proved help in trouble.

²Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change
And though the mountains be shaken and slip into the heart of the seas,

³Though its waters roar and foam,
Though the mountains tremble at its roaring.

Selah.

⁴There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
The holy dwelling places of the Most High.

⁵God is in the midst of her [His city], she will not be moved;
God will help her when the morning dawns.

POWERPOINT

At times we need to be quiet and reverent before the Lord, but the Bible also instructs us to dance, to play musical instruments, and to outwardly express our worship to the Lord in other ways, as we read about in Psalm 47:1. Be expressive in your praise and worship—it brings a release in your life, it honors God, and it aids in defeating the devil.

⁶The nations made an uproar, the kingdoms tottered and were moved;

He raised His voice, the earth melted.

⁷The LORD of hosts is with us;

The God of Jacob is our stronghold [our refuge, our high tower].

Selah.

⁸Come, behold the works of the LORD,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Be Still and Wait

When we encounter difficulties or need to know how to handle various situations, God will begin to give us instructions that will lead us to victory. Sometimes He will lead us to do specific things, but often He will tell us to simply stand still.

When God spoke to the people of Judah in the face of great opposition, He said, "Take your positions, stand and witness the salvation of the LORD" (2 Chr. 20:17, emphasis mine). In Psalm 46:10, God says, "Be still and know (recognize, understand) that I am God." During the battles we face in our lives, we would be wise to take some time and be still, waiting on the Lord to hear what He wants to say to us. In fact, we might even do absolutely nothing for a certain amount of time except say, "Lord, I am waiting on You. I worship You and wait for You to move against my enemies and bring forth my deliverance." However, the type of waiting that God desires is not at all passive. It is spiritually active! While we wait on God and are still in many ways, we should also be aggressively expecting Him to move on our behalf at any moment.

Who has wrought desolations and wonders in the earth.

⁹He makes wars to cease to the end of the earth;
He breaks the bow into pieces and snaps the spear in two;
He burns the chariots with fire.

¹⁰“Be still and know (recognize, understand) that I am God.
I will be exalted among the nations! I will be exalted in the earth.”

¹¹The LORD of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our stronghold [our refuge, our high tower].

Selah.

Psalm 47

God the King of the Earth.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

¹O CLAP your hands, all you people;
Shout to God with the voice of triumph and songs of joy.

²For the LORD Most High is to be feared [and worshiped with awe-inspired reverence and obedience]; He is a great King over all the earth.

³He subdues peoples under us
And nations under our feet.

⁴He chooses our inheritance for us,
The glory and excellence of Jacob whom He loves. [1 Pet
1:4, 5]

Selah.

POWERPOINT

The psalmist wrote frequently about meditating on all the wonderful works of the Lord, and he specifically mentions thinking about God's lovingkindness in Psalm 48:9.

Never forget this: Your mind plays an important role in your victory. It is the power of the Holy Spirit working through the Word of God that brings victory. And a large part of the work that needs to be done is for us to line up our thinking with God and His Word.

⁵God has ascended amid shouting,
The LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

⁶Sing praises to God, sing praises;
Sing praises to our King, sing praises.

⁷For God is the King of all the earth;

Sing praises in a skillful psalm and with understanding.
⁸God reigns over the nations;
God sits on His holy throne.
⁹The princes of the people have gathered together as the people of the God of Abraham, For the shields of the earth belong to God;
He is highly exalted.

Psalm 48

The Beauty and Glory of Zion.

A Song; a Psalm of the sons of Korah.

¹GREAT IS the LORD, and greatly to be praised,
In the city of our God, His holy mountain.
²Fair and beautiful in elevation, the joy of all the earth,
Is Mount Zion [the City of David] in the far north,
The city of the great King. [Matt 5:35]
³God, in her palaces,
Has made Himself known as a stronghold.
⁴For, lo, the kings assembled themselves,
They [came and] passed by together.
⁵They saw it, then they were amazed;
They were stricken with terror, they fled in alarm.
⁶Panic seized them there,
And pain, as that of a woman in childbirth.
⁷With the east wind
You shattered the ships of Tarshish.

⁸As we have heard, so have we seen
In the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God:
God will establish her forever.

Selah.

⁹We have thought of Your lovingkindness, O God,
In the midst of Your temple.

¹⁰As is Your name, O God,
So is Your praise to the ends of the earth;
Your right hand is full of righteousness (rightness, justice).

¹¹Let Mount Zion be glad,
Let the daughters of Judah rejoice
Because of Your [righteous] judgments.

¹²Walk about Zion, go all around her;
Count her towers,

¹³Consider her ramparts,
Go through her palaces,
That you may tell the next generation [about her glory].

¹⁴For this is God,
Our God forever and ever;
He will be our guide even until death.

Psalm 49

The Folly of Trusting in Riches.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

¹HEAR THIS, all peoples;
Listen carefully, all inhabitants of the world,

²Both low and high,
Rich and poor together:

³My mouth will speak wisdom,
And the meditation of my heart will be understanding.

⁴I will incline my ear and consent to a proverb;
On the lyre I will unfold my riddle.

⁵Why should I fear in the days of evil,
When the wickedness of those who would betray me surrounds me [on every side],

⁶Even those who trust in and rely on their wealth
And boast of the abundance of their riches?

⁷None of them can by any means redeem [either himself or] his brother,
Nor give to God a ransom for him—

⁸For the ransom of his soul is too costly,
And he should cease trying forever—

⁹So that he should live on eternally,
That he should never see the pit (grave) and undergo decay.

¹⁰For he sees that even wise men die;
The fool and the stupid alike perish
And leave their wealth to others. [Eccl 2:12–16]

¹¹Their inward thought is that their houses will continue
forever,
And their dwelling places to all generations;
They have named their lands after their own names

[ignoring God].

¹²But man, with all his [self] honor and pomp, will not endure;
He is like the beasts that perish.

¹³This is the fate of those who are foolishly confident,
And of those after them who approve [and are influenced by] their words.

Selah.

¹⁴Like sheep they are appointed for Sheol (the nether world,
the place of the dead);
Death will be their shepherd;
And the upright shall rule over them in the morning,
And their form and beauty shall be for Sheol to consume,
So that they have no dwelling [on earth].

¹⁵But God will redeem my life from the power of Sheol,
For He will receive me.

Selah.

¹⁶Be not afraid when [an ungodly] man becomes rich,
When the wealth and glory of his house are increased;

¹⁷For when he dies he will carry nothing away;
His glory will not descend after him.

¹⁸Though while he lives he counts himself happy and prosperous—
And though people praise you when you do well for yourself—

¹⁹He shall go to the generation of his fathers;
They shall never again see the light.

²⁰ A man [who is held] in honor,
Yet who lacks [spiritual] understanding and a teachable heart, is like the beasts that perish.

Psalm 50

God the Judge of the Righteous and the Wicked.

A Psalm of Asaph

¹ THE MIGHTY One, God, the LORD, has spoken,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

How To Handle a Day of Trouble

We all face a “day of trouble” at times (Ps. 50:15). Sometimes we consider the trouble somewhat minor, and sometimes it is very serious. When a day of trouble comes, stress always comes with it. In handling or overcoming stress, the first key is to recognize or admit we are under it. The second key is to identify and recognize the stressors that affect us most and learn how to respond to them with the right action. Another important key to relieving stress is obedience—always being willing to do anything God wants us to do.

We will have stressful circumstances come into our lives, but we can be on top of the stress, not under it. There is a big difference between being under stress and being on top of a situation! Even though we will sometimes experience stressful times, if we are obedient to God’s Word and to His promptings, we can win the victory.

We all have days seemingly filled with trouble or encounter situations we don’t like. But, with the power of God, we can go through them in peace. The Holy Spirit leads and guides us and often prompts us to think or do things that will relieve stress quickly.

Do you believe God is leading you into a place of victory, not into a place of defeat? Of course He is! When you feel stressed, listen to what God is saying to you and obey the promptings of the Holy Spirit, and you'll soon find yourself in a place of peace, strength, and triumph.

And summoned the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting [from east to west].

²Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God has shone forth.

³May our God come and not keep silent;
Fire devours before Him,
And around Him a mighty tempest rages.

⁴He summons the heavens above,
And the earth, to judge His people:

⁵“Gather My godly ones to Me,
Those who have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice.”

⁶And the heavens declare His righteousness,
For God Himself is judge.

Selah.

⁷“Hear, O My people, and I will speak;
O Israel, I will testify against you:
I am God, your God.

⁸“I do not reprove you for your sacrifices;
Your burnt offerings are continually before Me.

⁹“I will accept no young bull from your house
Nor male goat from your folds.

¹⁰“For every beast of the forest is Mine,
And the cattle on a thousand hills.

¹¹“I know every bird of the mountains,
And everything that moves in the field is Mine.

¹²“If I were hungry, I would not tell you,
For the world and all it contains are Mine. [1 Cor 10:26]

¹³“Shall I eat the flesh of bulls
Or drink the blood of male goats?

¹⁴“Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving
And pay your vows to the Most High;

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Dealing with Sin

The heading under Psalm 51 reads: “A Psalm of David; when Nathan the prophet came to him after he had sinned with Bathsheba.” David cried out for mercy because he had sinned with Bathsheba, and when he learned she was pregnant, he ensured that her husband would be murdered in battle.

When David realized what he had done, he was deeply repentant. Psalm 51 is a record of the prayer He cried out to God. God forgave David, but David had given God’s enemies a great opportunity to blaspheme Him. We too should remember that our disobedience not only affects us, it also affects our witness to others.

Whenever we fail God, not only do we harm ourselves, we also bring dishonor to His name. Whenever we make a mistake, there are those who gleefully point their finger.

The evil one also whispers, “See how bad you are. God won’t forgive you.” Don’t listen to those words, because there is no sin you’ve committed that God won’t forgive. God wipes away the sin.

There's something else to learn from this: It's necessary to face the truth. God desires truth in the inner being (see Ps. 51:6). When you have sinned, what will you do about your sin? David wrote: "For I am conscious of my transgressions and I acknowledge them; my sin is always before me. Against You, You only, have I sinned and done that which is evil in Your sight." (Ps. 51:3–4).

It's easy for us to deceive ourselves, but God has called us to be totally, completely, and scrupulously honest in our inner being. We can't look at what others may get away with or how they justify their behavior. We can't blame others, the devil, or circumstances.

When you fail, remind yourself that the greatest king of Israel cried out to God and said, "My sin is always before me" (v. 3). Those sins, failures, or shortcomings will always be there until you admit them and confess them to the Lord. Strive to live with truth in your inner being (v. 6). You—you and God—are the only ones who know what's in your heart. Only when you are honest with yourself and with God can you know the joy of living in integrity and in truth.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Holy God, please help me to desire truth in my inner being, to live in such a way that I'm as honest and as open with You as I can be. I know that the life You honor is the life You bless. In Jesus' name, I pray. Amen.

I will rescue you, and you shall honor and glorify Me.”

¹⁶But to the wicked God says:

“What right have you to recite My statutes
Or to take My covenant on your lips?

¹⁷“For you hate instruction and discipline
And cast My words behind you [discarding them].

¹⁸“When you see a thief, you are pleased with him and condone his behavior,
And you associate with adulterers.

¹⁹“You give your mouth to evil
And your tongue frames deceit.

²⁰“You sit and speak against your brother;
You slander your own mother’s son.

²¹“These things you have done and I kept silent;
You thought that I was just like you.
Now I will reprimand and denounce you and state the case in order before your eyes.

²²“Now consider this, you who forget God,
Or I will tear you in pieces, and there will be no one to rescue [you].

²³“He who offers a sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving honors Me;
And to him who orders his way rightly [who follows the way that I show him],
I shall show the salvation of God.”

Psalm 51

A Contrite Sinner's Prayer for Pardon.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David; when Nathan the prophet came to him after he had sinned with Bathsheba.

- ¹HAVE MERCY on me, O God, according to Your
lovingkindness;
According to the greatness of Your compassion blot out my transgressions.
- ²Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness and guilt
And cleanse me from my sin.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

A Clean Heart

In Psalm 51:6, 10, David tells us that having a clean heart means having truth in our innermost being, who we truly are inside. It's all about paying attention to our thought life, because out of it comes our words, our emotions, our attitudes, and our motives.

Purity and cleanness of heart is not natural to us. It is something that must be worked into our heart by the Holy Spirit. In 1 John 3:3, we read that those whose hope is confidently placed in God purify themselves because it is God's will, just as He is pure.

There is a price to pay to have a pure and clean heart, but there is also a reward. We will be blessed; we will see God (see Matt. 5:8)! We don't have to be afraid to make the commitment that allows God to do a deep work in us. We may not always feel comfortable about the truths He will bring to us, but if we will take care of our part, holding to purity, integrity, moral courage, and godly character, God will take care of making sure that we are blessed. He is an expert at removing worthless things out of our hearts and lives while retaining the valuable.

Speak God's Word

God makes me to hear joy and gladness and be satisfied. God hides His face from my sins and blots out all my iniquities.

| adapted from PSALM 51:8-9 |

³For I am conscious of my transgressions and I acknowledge them;

My sin is always before me.

⁴Against You, You only, have I sinned
And done that which is evil in Your sight,
So that You are justified when You speak [Your sentence]
And faultless in Your judgment. [Rom 3:4]

⁵I was brought forth in [a state of] wickedness;
In sin my mother conceived me [and from my beginning I, too, was sinful]. [John 3:6; Rom 5:12; Eph 2:3]

⁶Behold, You desire truth in the innermost being,
And in the hidden part [of my heart] You will make me know wisdom.

⁷Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean;

Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

⁸Make me hear joy and gladness and be satisfied;
Let the bones which You have broken rejoice.

⁹Hide Your face from my sins
And blot out all my iniquities.

¹⁰Create in me a clean heart, O God,
And renew a right and steadfast spirit within me.

¹¹Do not cast me away from Your presence
And do not take Your Holy Spirit from me.

¹²Restore to me the joy of Your salvation
And sustain me with a willing spirit.

¹³Then I will teach transgressors Your ways,
And sinners shall be converted and return to You.

¹⁴Rescue me from bloodguiltiness, O God, the God of my salvation;
Then my tongue will sing joyfully of Your righteousness and Your justice.

¹⁵O Lord, open my lips,
That my mouth may declare Your praise.

¹⁶For You do not delight in sacrifice, or else I would give it;
You are not pleased with burnt offering. [1 Sam 15:22]

¹⁷My [only] sacrifice [acceptable] to God is a broken spirit;
A broken and contrite heart [broken with sorrow for sin, thoroughly penitent], such, O God, You will not despise.

¹⁸By Your favor do good to Zion;

May You rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.
¹⁹Then will You delight in the sacrifices of righteousness,
In burnt offering and whole burnt offering;
Then young bulls will be offered on Your altar.

Psalm 52

Futility of Boastful Wickedness.

To the Chief Musician. A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem. A Psalm of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, “David has come to the house of Ahimelech.”

¹WHYDO you boast of evil, O mighty man?
The lovingkindness of God endures all day long.

²Your tongue devises destruction,
Like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

³You love evil more than good,
And falsehood more than speaking what is right.

Selah.

⁴You love all words that devour,
O deceitful tongue.

⁵But God will break you down forever;
He will take you away and tear you away from your tent,
And uproot you from the land of the living.

Selah.

⁶The righteous will see it and fear,
And will [scoffingly] laugh, saying,

⁷“Look, [this is] the man who would not make God his strength [his stronghold and fortress], But trusted in the abundance of his riches, Taking refuge in his wealth.”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Relax While God Works

If you know you can't fix the problem you have, why not relax while God works on it? It sounds easy, but it took many years for me to be able to do this. I know from experience that the ability to relax and accept whatever happens in life depends on our willingness to trust God completely (see Rom. 15:13).

If things don't go your way, instead of getting upset, start believing that your way was not what you needed and that God has something better in mind for you. God will give you what is best for you, even if it isn't what you think you want! "Trust [confidently] in the lovingkindness of God forever and ever" (Ps. 52:8). The minute you recognize He is in control and you put your trust in Him, your soul and body relax, and you will be able to enjoy life.

⁸But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in the house of God; I trust [confidently] in the lovingkindness of God forever and ever.

⁹I will thank You forever, because You have done it, [You have rescued me and kept me safe].

I will wait on Your name, for it is good, in the presence of Your godly ones.

Psalm 53

Folly and Wickedness of Men.

To the Chief Musician; in a mournful strain. A skillful song, or didactic or reflective poem of David.

¹THE [empty-headed] fool has said in his heart, “There is no God.”

They are corrupt and evil, and have committed repulsive injustice;

There is no one who does good.

²God has looked down from heaven upon the children of men

To see if there is anyone who understands,

Who seeks after God [who requires Him, who longs for Him as essential to life].

³Every one of them has turned aside and fallen away;
Together they have become filthy and corrupt;

There is no one who does good, no, not even one. [Rom 3:10–12]

⁴Have workers of wickedness no knowledge or no understanding?

They eat up My people as though they ate bread

POWERPOINT

Praise and thanksgiving are two spiritual weapons available to us. They defeat the devil more quickly than any other battle plan, but they must be genuine and heartfelt, not just lip service or a method being tried to see if it works. Also, giving thanks and praise involves God's Word. We thank God and praise Him according to His Word and His goodness.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Tell God How You Really Feel

We can see from the opening verses in Psalm 55 that David was not hesitant when it came to telling God exactly how he felt. But he also followed up by saying he trusted God to be faithful to keep His promises. Often David would even remind God of something He had promised in His Word.

I believe it was spiritually and even physically healthy for David to express to God how he really felt. It was a way of releasing his negative feelings so they could not harm his inner man while he was waiting for God's deliverance. Sometimes we need an outlet for the pain we feel in life, and simply taking time to tell God all about it could prove very helpful. He already knows, but telling Him can be a good release for you. After telling Him all about how you feel, always follow up by telling Him you trust Him to make all things right and ask for His help to live by His Word, not by your feelings.

And have not called upon God.

⁵There they were, in great terror and dread, where there had been no terror or dread; For God scattered the bones of him who besieged you;
You have put them to shame, because God has rejected them.

⁶Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!
When God restores [the fortunes of] His people,
Let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad.

Psalm 54

Prayer for Defense against Enemies.

To the Chief Musician; with stringed instruments. A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem, of David, when the Ziphites went and told Saul, “David is hiding among us.”

¹SAVE ME, O God, by Your name;
And vindicate me by Your [wondrous] power.

²Hear my prayer, O God;
Listen to the words of my mouth.

³For strangers have risen against me
And violent men have sought my life;
They have not set God before them.

Selah.

⁴Behold, God is my helper and ally;
The Lord is the sustainer of my soul [my upholder].

⁵He will pay back the evil to my enemies;
In Your faithfulness destroy them.

⁶With a freewill offering I will sacrifice to You;
I will give thanks and praise Your name, O LORD, for it is good.

⁷For He has rescued me from every trouble,

And my eye has looked with satisfaction (triumph) on my enemies.

Psalm 55

Prayer for the Destruction of the Treacherous.

To the Chief Musician; with stringed instruments. A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem, of David.

¹LISTEN TO my prayer, O God,
And do not hide Yourself from my plea.

²Listen to me and answer me;
I am restless and distraught in my complaint and distracted

³Because of the voice of the enemy,
Because of the pressure of the wicked;
For they bring down trouble on me,
And in anger they persecute me.

⁴My heart is in anguish within me,
And the terrors of death have fallen upon me.

⁵Fear and trembling have come upon me;
Horror has overwhelmed me.

⁶And I say, "Oh, that I had wings like a dove!
I would fly away and be at rest.

⁷"I would wander far away,
I would lodge in the [peace of the] wilderness.

Selah.

⁸"I would hurry to my refuge [my tranquil shelter far away]
From the stormy wind and from the tempest."

- ⁹ Confuse [my enemies], O Lord, divide their tongues [destroying their schemes], For I have seen violence and strife in the city.
- ¹⁰ Day and night they go around her walls;
Wickedness and mischief are in her midst.
- ¹¹ Destruction is within her;
Oppression and deceit do not depart from her streets and market places.
- ¹² For it is not an enemy who taunts me—
Then I could bear it;
Nor is it one who has hated me who insolently exalts himself
against me—
Then I could hide from him.
- ¹³ But it is you, a man my equal and my counsel,
My companion and my familiar friend;
- ¹⁴ We who had sweet fellowship together,
Who walked to the house of God in company.
- ¹⁵ Let death come deceitfully upon them;
Let them go down alive to Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead),
For evil [of every kind] is in their dwelling and in their hearts, in their midst.
- ¹⁶ As for me, I shall call upon God,
And the LORD will save me.

A Prayer To

Renew Your Mind

*I believe, Lord, that You will redeem my life in peace from every battle that is against
me.*

• adapted from Psalm 55:18

¹⁷Evening and morning and at noon I will complain and murmur,
And He will hear my voice.

¹⁸He has redeemed my life in peace from the battle that was
against me,
For there were many against me.

¹⁹God will hear and humble them,
Even He who sits enthroned from old—

Selah.

Because in them there has been no change [of heart],
And they do not fear God [at all].

²⁰He [my companion] has put out his hands against those who were at peace with him;
He has broken his covenant [of friendship and loyalty].

- ²¹The words of his mouth were smoother than butter,
But his heart was hostile;
His words were softer than oil,
Yet they were drawn swords.
- ²²Cast your burden on the LORD [release it] and He will sustain and uphold you; He will never allow the righteous to be shaken (slip, fall, fail). [1 Pet 5:7]
- ²³But You, O God, will bring down the wicked to the pit of
destruction;
Men of blood and treachery will not live out half their days.
But I will [boldly and unwaveringly] trust in You.

Psalm 56

Supplication for Rescue and Grateful Trust in God.

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] “Silent Dove Among Those Far Away.” A Mikhtam of David. [A record of memorable thoughts] when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

- ¹BE GRACIOUS to me, O God, for man has trampled on me;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

When You Are Afraid

In Psalm 56:3, David said, “When I am afraid...” He accepted the fact that fear is a human emotion; we all experience fear to some degree. But he added, “I will put my trust and faith in You.” David lived boldly and courageously because he knew God was always with him. We can live this same way. We can choose to not live according to the fear we feel.

God taught me to use what I call the “power twins” to help me defeat the spirit of fear. They are “I pray” and “I say.” When I feel fear, I begin to pray and ask for God’s help, then I say, “I will not fear!” I encourage you to also use these power twins as soon as you feel fearful about anything, and you will be able to keep fear from controlling you. We can learn to manage the emotion of fear and not let it control us.

All day long the adversary oppresses and torments me.

²My enemies have trampled upon me all day long,
For they are many who fight proudly against me.

³When I am afraid,
I will put my trust and faith in You.

⁴In God, whose word I praise;
In God I have put my trust;
I shall not fear.
What can mere man do to me?

- ⁵ All day long they twist my words and say hurtful things;
All their thoughts are against me for evil.
- ⁶ They attack, they hide and lurk,
They watch my steps,
As they have [expectantly] waited to take my life.
- ⁷ Cast them out because of their wickedness.
In anger bring down the peoples, O God!
- ⁸ You have taken account of my wanderings;
Put my tears in Your bottle.
Are they not recorded in Your book?
- ⁹ Then my enemies will turn back in the day when I call;
This I know, that God is for me. [Rom 8:31]
- ¹⁰ In God, whose word I praise,
In the LORD, whose word I praise,
- ¹¹ In God have I put my trust and confident reliance; I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?
- ¹² Your vows are binding upon me, O God;
I will give thank offerings to You.
- ¹³ For You have rescued my soul from death,
Yes, and my feet from stumbling,
So that I may walk before God
In the light of life.

Psalm 57

Prayer for Rescue from Persecutors.

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] “Do Not Destroy.” A Mikhtam of David. [A record of memorable thoughts of David] when he fled from Saul in the cave.

¹BE GRACIOUS to me, O God, be gracious and merciful to me,
For my soul finds shelter and safety in You,
And in the shadow of Your wings I will take refuge and be confidently secure Until destruction passes by.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*When I am afraid, I will put my trust and faith in You,
God, whose word I praise. In You I have put my trust; I shall not fear. What can mere man do to me?*

• adapted from Psalm 56:3–4

²I will cry to God Most High,
Who accomplishes all things on my behalf [for He completes my purpose in His plan].

³He will send from heaven and save me;
He calls to account him who tramples me down.

Selah.

God will send out His lovingkindness and His truth.

⁴My life is among lions;
I must lie among those who breathe out fire—
The sons of men whose teeth are spears and arrows,
And their tongue a sharp sword.

⁵Be exalted above the heavens, O God;
Let Your glory and majesty be over all the earth.

⁶They set a net for my steps;
My very life was bowed down.
They dug a pit before me;
Into the midst of it they themselves have fallen.

Selah.

⁷My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast and confident!

I will sing, yes, I will sing praises [to You]!

⁸Awake, my glory!
Awake, harp and lyre!
I will awaken the dawn.

⁹I will praise and give thanks to You, O Lord, among the people;
I will sing praises to You among the nations.

¹⁰For Your faithfulness and lovingkindness are great, reaching to the heavens, And Your truth to the clouds.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

A Steadfast Heart

To have a steadfast and confident heart as described in Psalm 57:7 means that our mind is made up and we are not going to change it. If we are going to experience any kind of victory and remain positive in our lives, we must be determined to hold fast to God and His Word. If we are going to see the fulfillment of God's will, walk in or follow the leading of the Spirit, or accomplish anything worthwhile in this life, we need to set our face like flint and not waver. And we must understand that the devil is not going to roll out the red carpet for us just because we decide to get saved and serve God. He will oppose us at every turn.

Too often we are looking for something easy. But it's important to be willing to do the will of God at all costs, to stay positive and be content, and to walk in the peace of God. His will won't just happen in our lives. We are partners with God, and we must do our part. Part of what we need to do is to continue to be steadfast of heart. A steadfast heart seeks His kingdom and His righteousness first, and then God pours on all He has to give to us (see Matt. 6:33).

If you want to see God's plan fulfilled in your life, press on with "holy determination."

¹¹Be exalted above the heavens, O God;

Let Your glory and majesty be over all the earth.

Psalm 58

Prayer for the Punishment of the Wicked.

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] “Do Not Destroy.” A Mikhtam of David. [A record of memorable thoughts of David.]

¹DO YOU indeed speak righteousness, O gods (heavenly beings)?

Do you judge fairly, O sons of men? [Ps 82:1, 2]

²No, in your heart you devise wrongdoing;
On earth you deal out the violence of your hands.

³The wicked are estranged from the womb;
These go astray from birth, speaking lies [even twisted partial truths].

⁴Their poison is like the venom of a serpent;
They are like the deaf horned viper that stops up its ear,

⁵So that it does not listen to the voice of charmers,
Or of the skillful enchanter casting [cunning] spells.

⁶O God, break their teeth in their mouth;
Break out the fangs of the young lions, O LORD.

⁷Let them flow away like water that runs off;
When he aims his arrows, let them be as headless shafts.

⁸*Let them be* as a snail which melts away (secretes slime) as it goes along, Like the miscarriage of a woman which never sees the sun.

- ⁹Before your cooking pots can feel the fire of thorns [burning under them as fuel], He will sweep them away with a whirlwind, the green and the burning ones alike.
- ¹⁰The [unyieldingly] righteous will rejoice when he sees the vengeance [of God]; He will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.
- ¹¹Men will say, “Surely there is a reward for the righteous; Surely there is a God who judges on the earth.”

Psalm 59

Prayer for Rescue from Enemies.

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] “Do Not Destroy.” A Mikhtam of David, [a record of memorable thoughts] when Saul sent men to watch his house in order to kill him.

- ¹DELIVER ME from my enemies, O my God;
Set me securely on an inaccessibly high place away from those who rise up against me.
- ²Deliver me from those who practice wrongdoing,
And save me from bloodthirsty men.
- ³Look! They lie in wait for my life;
Fierce and powerful men [are uniting together to] launch an attack against me,
Not for my wrongdoing nor for any sin of mine, O LORD.
- ⁴They run and set themselves against me though there is no guilt in me;

Stir Yourself to meet and help me, and see [what they are doing]!

⁵You, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel,
Arise to punish all the nations;
Spare no one and do not be merciful to any who treacherously plot evil.

Selah.

⁶They return at evening, they howl and snarl like dogs,
And go [prowling] around the city.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

O God my strength, I will watch for You. For You are my stronghold, my refuge, and my protector. In Your lovingkindness You will meet me. You will let me look triumphantly on my enemies.

• adapted from Psalm 59:9–10

⁷Look how they belch out [insults] with their mouths;
Swords [of sarcasm, ridicule, slander, and lies] are in their lips,
For they say, “Who hears us?”

⁸But You, O LORD, will laugh at them [in scorn];
You scoff at and deride all the nations.

⁹O [God] my strength, I will watch for You;
For God is my stronghold [my refuge, my protector, my high tower].

¹⁰My God in His [steadfast] lovingkindness will meet me;
God will let me look triumphantly on my enemies [who lie in wait for me].

¹¹Do not kill them, or my people will forget;
Scatter them and make them wander [endlessly] back and forth by Your power, and bring them down, O Lord our shield!

¹²For the sin of their mouths and the words of their lips,
Let them even be trapped in their pride,
And on account of the curses and lies which they tell.

¹³Destroy them in wrath, destroy them so that they may be no more;
Let them know that God rules over Jacob (Israel)
To the ends of the earth.

Selah.

¹⁴They return at evening, they howl and snarl like dogs,
And go [prowling] around the city.

¹⁵They wander around for food [to devour]

And growl all night if they are not satisfied.

- ¹⁶But as for me, I will sing of Your mighty strength and power;
Yes, I will sing joyfully of Your lovingkindness in the morning;
For You have been my stronghold
And a refuge in the day of my distress.
- ¹⁷To You, O [God] my strength, I will sing praises;
For God is my stronghold [my refuge, my protector, my high tower], the God who shows me [steadfast] lovingkindness.

Psalm 60

Lament over Defeat in Battle, and Prayer for Help.

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] “The Lily of the Testimony.” A Mikhtam of David [intended to record memorable thoughts and] to teach; when he struggled with the Arameans of Mesopotamia and the Arameans of Zobah, and when Joab returned and struck twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

- ¹O GOD, You have rejected us and cast us off. You have broken [down our defenses and scattered] us; You have been angry; O restore us and turn again to us.
- ²You have made the land quake, You have split it open;
Heal its rifts, for it shakes and totters.
- ³You have made Your people experience hardship;
You have given us wine to drink that makes us stagger and fall.

⁴You have set up a banner for those who fear You [with awe-inspired reverence and submissive wonder—a banner to shield them from attack], A banner that may be displayed because of the truth.

Selah.

⁵That Your beloved ones may be rescued,
Save with Your right hand and answer us.

⁶God has spoken in His holiness [in His promises]:
“I will rejoice, I will divide [the land of] Shechem and measure out the Valley of Succoth [west to east].

⁷“Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine;
Ephraim is My helmet;
Judah is My scepter.

⁸“Moab is My washbowl;
Over Edom I shall throw My shoe [in triumph];
Over Philistia I raise the shout [of victory].”

⁹Who will bring me into the besieged city [of Petra]?
Who will lead me to Edom?

¹⁰Have You not rejected us, O God?
And will You not go out with our armies?

¹¹Give us help against the enemy,
For the help of man is worthless (ineffectual, without purpose).

¹²Through God we will have victory,
For He will trample down our enemies.

Psalm 61

Confidence in God's Protection.

To the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm
of David.

¹HEAR MY cry, O God;
Listen to my prayer.

²From the end of the earth I call to You, when my heart is overwhelmed and weak; Lead me to the rock that is higher than I [a rock that is too high to reach without Your help].

³For You have been a shelter and a refuge for me,
A strong tower against the enemy.

⁴Let me dwell in Your tent forever;
Let me take refuge in the shelter of Your wings.

Selah.

⁵For You have heard my vows, O God;
You have given me the inheritance of those who fear Your name [with reverence].

⁶You will prolong the king's life [adding days upon days];
His years will be like many generations.

⁷He will sit enthroned forever before [the face of] God;
Appoint lovingkindness and truth to watch over and preserve him.

⁸So I will sing praise to Your name forever,
Paying my vows day by day.

Psalm 62

God Alone a Refuge from Treachery and Oppression.

To the Chief Musician; to Jeduthun [Ethan, the noted musician, founder of an official musical family]. A Psalm of David.

¹FOR GOD alone my soul waits in silence;
From Him comes my salvation.

²He alone is my rock and my salvation,
My defense and my strong tower; I will not be shaken or disheartened.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

You're On Your Way

God's will is for us to live by faith. You may be thinking of how far you have to go in order to be all that God wants you to be, and you feel overwhelmed. Your mind wants to think, This is just too much; I will never be able to do all that He asks me to do.

This is where faith comes in. When David's heart was "overwhelmed," he cried out to God, "Lead me to the rock that is higher than I [a rock that is too high to reach without Your help]" (Ps. 61:2–3). You can think, I don't know how I am going to do it, but I am expecting God's help. With God, all things are possible.

Just get started and keep going day after day. Refuse to be discouraged by how far you think you still have to go. God is pleased that you are on your way (see Phil. 3:12).

Speak God's Word

For God alone my soul waits in silence; from Him comes my salvation. He only is my rock and my salvation, my defense and my strong tower; I will not be shaken or disheartened.

| adapted from PSALM 62:1–2 |

- ³How long will you attack a man
So that you may murder him, all of you,
Like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence?
- ⁴They consult only to throw him down from his high position [to dishonor him];
They delight in lies.
They bless with [the words of] their mouths,
But inwardly they curse.

Selah.

- ⁵For God alone my soul waits in silence and quietly submits to Him, For my hope is from Him.
- ⁶He only is my rock and my salvation;

My fortress and my defense, I will not be shaken or discouraged.

⁷On God my salvation and my glory rest;
He is my rock of [unyielding] strength, my refuge is in God.

⁸Trust [confidently] in Him at all times, O people;
Pour out your heart before Him.
God is a refuge for us.

Selah.

⁹Men of low degree are only a breath (emptiness), and men of [high] rank are a lie (delusion).
In the balances they go up [because they have no measurable weight or value];
They are together lighter than a breath.

¹⁰Do not trust in oppression,
And do not vainly hope in robbery;
If riches increase, do not set your heart on them.

¹¹God has spoken once,
Twice I have heard this:
That power belongs to God.

¹²Also to You, O Lord, belong lovingkindness and compassion,
For You compensate every man according to [the value of] his work. [Jer 17:10; Rev 22:12]

Psalm 63

The Thirsting Soul Satisfied in God.

A Psalm of David; when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

¹O GOD, You are my God; with deepest longing I will seek
You;

My soul [my life, my very self] thirsts for You, my flesh longs and sighs for You,

In a dry and weary land where there is no water.

²So I have gazed upon You in the sanctuary,
To see Your power and Your glory. [Ps 42:1, 2]

³Because Your lovingkindness is better than life,
My lips shall praise You.

⁴So will I bless You as long as I live;
I will lift up my hands in Your name.

⁵My soul [my life, my very self] is satisfied as with marrow and fatness,
And my mouth offers praises [to You] with joyful lips.

⁶When I remember You on my bed,
I meditate and thoughtfully focus on You in the night watches,

⁷For You have been my help,
And in the shadow of Your wings [where I am always protected] I sing for joy.

⁸My soul [my life, my very self] clings to You;
Your right hand upholds me.

⁹But those who seek my life to destroy it Will [be destroyed and] go into the depths of the earth [into the underworld].

¹⁰They will be given over to the power of the sword;
They will be a prey for foxes.

¹¹But the king will rejoice in God;
Everyone who swears by Him [honoring the true God, acknowledging His authority and majesty] will glory, For the mouths of those who speak lies will be stopped.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Enjoy the Ordinary

When David wrote Psalm 63, he was surrounded with difficulties in the wilderness of Judah, yet he could say, “My soul [my life, my very self] is satisfied as with marrow and fatness, and my mouth offers praises [to You] with joyful lips” (v. 5).

There are dozens of things pertaining to ordinary, everyday life, and you can enjoy them all if you just make a decision to do so. Things like getting dressed, driving to work, going to the grocery store, running errands, keeping things organized, and so many other activities. After all, they are the things that make up life. Begin doing them for the love of God, and realize that through the Holy Spirit you can enjoy absolutely everything you do. Joy doesn't come merely from being entertained, but from a decision to appreciate each moment you are given as a rare and precious gift from God.

Psalm 64

Prayer for Protection from Secret Enemies.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

¹HEAR MY voice, O God, in my complaint;
Guard my life from the terror of the enemy.

²Hide me from the secret counsel and conspiracy of the

- ungodly,
From the scheming of those who do wrong,
³Who have sharpened their tongues like a sword.
They aim venomous words as arrows,
⁴To shoot from ambush at the blameless [one];
Suddenly they shoot at him, without fear.
⁵They encourage themselves in [their pursuit of] an evil agenda;
They talk of laying snares secretly;
They say, “Who will discover us?”
⁶They devise acts of injustice, saying,
“We are ready with a well-conceived plan.”
For the inward thought and the heart of a man are deep (mysterious, unsearchable).
⁷But God will shoot them with an [unexpected] arrow;
Suddenly they will be wounded.
⁸So they will be caused to stumble;
Their own tongue is against them;
All who gaze at them will shake the head [in scorn].
⁹Then all men will fear [God’s judgment];
They will declare the work of God,
And they will consider and wisely acknowledge what He has done.
¹⁰The righteous will rejoice in the LORD and take refuge in Him; All the upright in heart will glory and offer praise.

Psalm 65

God's Abundant Favor to Earth and Man.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. A Song.

¹TO YOU belongs silence [the submissive wonder of reverence], and [it bursts into] praise in Zion, O God; And to You the vow shall be performed.

²O You who hear prayer,
To You all mankind comes.

³Wickedness and guilt prevail against me;
Yet as for our transgressions,
You forgive them [removing them from Your sight].

⁴Blessed is the one whom You choose and bring near
To dwell in Your courts.
We will be filled with the goodness of Your house,
Your holy temple.

⁵By awesome and wondrous things You answer us in righteousness, O God of our salvation, You who are the trust and hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest sea;

⁶Who creates the mountains by His strength,
Being clothed with power,

⁷Who stills the roaring of the seas,
The roaring of their waves,
And the tumult of the peoples,

⁸So they who dwell at the ends of the earth stand in awe of Your signs [the evidence of Your presence]. [Mark 4:36–
41]

You make the dawn and the sunset shout for joy.

⁹You visit the earth and make it overflow [with water];
You greatly enrich it;
The stream of God is full of water;
You provide their grain, when You have prepared the earth.

¹⁰You water its furrows abundantly,
You smooth its ridges;
You soften it with showers,
You bless its growth.

¹¹You crown the year with Your bounty,
And Your paths overflow.

¹²The pastures of the wilderness drip [with dew],
And the hills are encircled with joy.

¹³The meadows are clothed with flocks
And the valleys are covered with grain;
They shout for joy and they sing.

! REMEMBER, any time the enemy attacks your mind,
the battle belongs to the Lord.

Psalm 66

Praise for God's Mighty Deeds and for His Answer to Prayer.

To the Chief Musician. A Song. A Psalm.

¹SHOUT JOYFULLY to God, all the earth;

²Sing of the honor and glory and magnificence of His name;
Make His praise glorious.

³Say to God, “How awesome and fearfully glorious are Your works!

Because of the greatness of Your power Your enemies will pretend to be obedient to You.

⁴“All the earth will [bow down to] worship You [in submissive wonder],

And will sing praises to You;

They will praise Your name in song.”

Selah.

⁵Come and see the works of God,

He is awesome in His deeds toward the children of men.

⁶He turned the sea into dry land;

They crossed through the river on foot;

There we rejoiced in Him. [Ex 14–15]

⁷Who rules by His might forever,

His eyes keep watch on the nations;

Do not let the rebellious exalt themselves.

Selah.

⁸Bless our God, O peoples,

And make the sound of His praise be heard abroad,

⁹Who keeps us among the living,

And does not allow our feet to slip or stumble.

¹⁰For You have tested us, O God;

You have refined us as silver is refined.

¹¹You brought us into the net;

You laid a heavy burden [of servitude] on us.

¹²You made men (charioteers) ride over our heads [in defeat];

We went through fire and through water,

Yet You brought us out into a [broad] place of abundance [to be refreshed].

¹³I shall come into Your house with burnt offerings;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Coming Clean

Our prayers often remain unanswered because we regard iniquity in our heart. David said, “If I regard sin and baseness in my heart [that is, if I know it is there and do nothing about it], the Lord will not hear [me]” (Ps. 66:18). What that means, to put it plainly, is that the Lord will not hear us when we pray if we come before Him in prayer with sin hidden in our hearts.

If there is sin in our lives, we will not be able to pray boldly or with confidence. As we are praying, if we sense that we are not comfortable, we need to stop and ask God why. Ask God to reveal anything hidden. If He convicts us of something that is sinful, call it what it is—sin. God wants us to confess the sin so He may cleanse us and restore a clean conscience and then we may pray (see 1 John 1:9). There is power in truth and honesty when we come clean before the Lord and walk in the light.

Make sure your heart is pure before Him so your prayers are offered confidently and in active faith. God answers our prayers when we approach Him with boldness and with clean, pure hearts.

I shall pay You my vows,
¹⁴Which my lips uttered

And my mouth spoke as a promise when I was in distress.

- ¹⁵ I shall offer to You burnt offerings of fat lambs,
With the [sweet] smoke of rams;
I will offer bulls with male goats.

Selah.

- ¹⁶ Come and hear, all who fear God [and worship Him with awe-inspired reverence and obedience], And I will tell what He has done for me.

- ¹⁷ I cried aloud to Him;
He was highly praised with my tongue.

- ¹⁸ If I regard sin and baseness in my heart [that is, if I know it is there and do nothing about it], The Lord will not hear [me]; [Prov 15:29; 28:9; Is 1:15; John 9:31; James 4:3]

- ¹⁹ But certainly God has heard [me];
He has given heed to the voice of my prayer.

- ²⁰ Blessed be God,
Who has not turned away my prayer
Nor His lovingkindness from me.

Psalm 67

The Nations Exhorted to Praise God.

To the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm.
A Song.

- ¹ GOD BE gracious and kind-hearted to us and bless us,
And make His face shine [with favor] on us—

Selah.

²That Your way may be known on earth,
Your salvation and deliverance among all nations.

³Let the peoples praise You, O God;
Let all the peoples praise You.

⁴Let the nations be glad and sing for joy,
For You will judge the people fairly
And guide the nations on earth.

Selah.

⁵Let the peoples praise You, O God;
Let all the peoples praise You.

⁶The earth has yielded its harvest [as evidence of His approval];
God, our God, blesses us.

⁷God blesses us,
And all the ends of the earth shall fear Him [with awe-inspired reverence and submissive wonder].

Psalm 68

The God of Sinai and of the Sanctuary.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. A Song.

¹LET GOD arise, and His enemies be scattered;
Let those who hate Him flee before Him.

²As smoke is driven away, so drive them away;
As wax melts before the fire,
So let the wicked and guilty perish before [the presence of]
God.

³But let the righteous be glad; let them be in good spirits
before God,

Yes, let them rejoice with delight.

⁴Sing to God, sing praises to His name;
Lift up a song for Him who rides through the desert—
His name is the LORD—be in good spirits before Him.

⁵A father of the fatherless and a judge and protector of the widows, Is God in His holy habitation.

⁶God makes a home for the lonely;
He leads the prisoners into prosperity,
Only the stubborn and rebellious dwell in a parched land.

⁷O God, when You went out before Your people,
When You marched through the wilderness,

Selah.

⁸The earth trembled;
The heavens also poured down rain at the presence of God;
Sinai itself trembled at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

⁹You, O God, sent abroad plentiful rain;
You confirmed Your inheritance when it was parched and weary.

¹⁰Your flock found a dwelling place in it;
O God, in Your goodness You provided for the poor.

¹¹The Lord gives the command [to take Canaan];
The women who proclaim the good news are a great host

(army);

12“‘The kings of the [enemies’] armies flee, they flee,
And the beautiful woman who remains at home divides the spoil [left behind].”

13When you lie down [to rest] among the sheepfolds,
You [Israel] are like the wings of a dove [of victory] overlaid with silver,
Its feathers glistening with gold [trophies taken from the enemy].

14When the Almighty scattered [the Canaanite] kings in the land of Canaan,
It was snowing on Zalmon.

15A mountain of God is the mountain of Bashan;
A [high] mountain of many summits is Mount Bashan [rising east of the Jordan].

16Why do you look with envy, mountains with many peaks,
At the mountain [of the city of Zion] which God has desired for His dwelling place?
Yes, the LORD will dwell there forever.

17The chariots of God are myriads, thousands upon thousands;
The Lord is among them as He was at Sinai, in holiness.

18You have ascended on high, You have led away captive
Your captives;
You have received gifts among men,
Even from the rebellious also, that the LORD God may dwell
there. [Eph 4:8]

¹⁹Blessed be the Lord, who bears our burden day by day,
The God who is our salvation!

Selah.

²⁰God is to us a God of acts of salvation;
And to GOD the Lord belong escapes from death [setting us free].

²¹Surely God will shatter the head of His enemies,
The hairy scalp of one who goes on in his guilty ways.

²²The Lord said, “I will bring your enemies back from Bashan;
I will bring them back from the depths of the [Red] Sea,

POWERPOINT

According to the Amplified Bible's rendering of Psalm 68:26, to bless God is to "give thanks, gratefully praise Him." A lifestyle of gratitude requires a sacrifice of praise or thanksgiving. I would rather offer a sacrifice of my thanksgiving to God than sacrifice my joy to the enemy. Many doors are opened to the devil through complaining. When we get upset and refuse to give thanks, we end up giving up our joy. In other words, we will lose our joy to the spirit of complaining. Being thankful will help you keep your joy.

²³That your foot may crush them in blood,
That the tongue of your dogs may have its share from your

enemies.”

- ²⁴They have seen Your [solemn] procession, O God,
The procession of my God, my King, into the sanctuary [in holiness].
- ²⁵The singers go in front, the players of instruments last;
Between them the maidens playing on tambourines.
- ²⁶Bless God in the congregations, [give thanks, gratefully
praise Him],
The LORD, you who are from [Jacob] the fountain of Israel.
- ²⁷The youngest is there, Benjamin, ruling them,
The princes of Judah and their company [the southern tribes],
The princes of Zebulun and the princes of Naphtali [the northern tribes].
- ²⁸Your God has commanded your strength [your power in His service and your resistance to temptation]; Show Yourself strong, O God, who acted on our behalf.
- ²⁹Because of Your temple at Jerusalem
[Pagan] kings will bring gifts to You [out of respect].
- ³⁰Rebuke the beasts [living] among the reeds [in Egypt],
The herd of bulls (the leaders) with the calves of the peoples;
Trampling underfoot the pieces of silver;
He has scattered the peoples who delight in war.
- ³¹Princes and envoys shall come from Egypt;
Ethiopia will quickly stretch out her hands [with the offerings of submission] to God.

- ³² Sing to God, O kingdoms of the earth,
Sing praises to the Lord!

Selah.

- ³³ To Him who rides in the highest heavens, the ancient
heavens,
Behold, He sends out His voice, a mighty and majestic
voice.

- ³⁴ Ascribe strength to God;
His majesty is over Israel
And His strength is in the skies.

- ³⁵ O God, You are awesome and profoundly majestic from Your sanctuary; The God of Israel gives strength and power to
His people.
Blessed be God!

Psalm 69

A Cry of Distress and Imprecation on Adversaries.

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] “Lilies.” A Psalm of David.

- ¹ SAVE ME, O God,
For the waters have threatened my life [they have come up to my neck].
- ² I have sunk in deep mire, where there is no foothold;
I have come into deep waters, where a flood overwhelms
me.

- ³I am weary with my crying; my throat is parched;
My eyes fail while I wait [with confident expectation] for my God.
- ⁴Those who hate me without cause are more than the hairs of my head;
Those who would destroy me are powerful, being my enemies wrongfully;
I am forced to restore what I did not steal. [John 15:25]
- ⁵O God, You know my folly;
My wrongs are not hidden from You.
- ⁶Do not let those who wait [confidently] for You be ashamed through me, O Lord GOD of hosts; Do not let those who seek You [as necessary for life itself] be dishonored through me, O God of Israel, ⁷Because for Your sake I have borne reproach;
Confusion and dishonor have covered my face.
- ⁸I have become estranged from my brothers
And an alien to my mother's sons. [John 7:3–5]
- ⁹For zeal for Your house has consumed me,
And the [mocking] insults of those who insult You have fallen on me. [John 2:17; Rom 15:3]
- ¹⁰When I wept and humbled myself with fasting,
It became my reproach.
- ¹¹When I made sackcloth my clothing [as one in mourning],
I became a byword [a mere object of scorn] to them.
- ¹²They who sit in the [city's] gate talk about me and mock me,

And I am the song of the drunkards.

POWERPOINT

In Psalm 69:7, the psalmist writes about being confused. I have learned that I am much better off doing something positive than just wondering all the time about everything imaginable that could go wrong. Wondering leaves a person in indecision, and indecision causes confusion. Wondering, indecision, and confusion prevent people from receiving from God, by faith, the answer to their prayers or their needs. Jesus did not say, "Whatever you ask in prayer, wonder if you will get it." He told us to believe (see Matt. 21:22).

¹³But as for me, my prayer is to You, O LORD, at an acceptable and opportune time; O God, in the greatness of Your favor and in the abundance of Your lovingkindness, Answer me with truth [that is, the faithfulness of Your salvation].

¹⁴ Rescue me from the mire and do not let me sink;
Let me be rescued from those who hate me and from the deep waters.

¹⁵ Do not let the floodwater overwhelm me,
Nor the deep waters swallow me up,
Nor the pit [of Sheol] shut its mouth over me.

¹⁶ Answer me, O LORD, for Your lovingkindness is sweet and good and comforting; According to the greatness of Your compassion, turn to me.

¹⁷ Do not hide Your face from Your servant,
For I am in distress; answer me quickly.

¹⁸ Draw near to my soul and redeem it;
Ransom me because of my enemies [so that they do not delight in my distress].

¹⁹ You know my reproach and my shame and my dishonor
[how I am insulted];
My adversaries are all before You [each one fully known].

²⁰ Reproach and insults have broken my heart and I am so sick.

I looked for sympathy, but there was none,
And for comforters, but I found none.

²¹ They (self-righteous hypocrites) also gave me gall

[poisonous and bitter] for my food, And for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink. [Matt 27:34, 48]

- ²²May their table [with all its abundance and luxury] become a snare [to them]; And when they are in peace [secure at their sacrificial feasts], may it become a trap.
- ²³May their eyes be dimmed so that they cannot see, And make their loins shake continually [in terror and weakness].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Be Difficult To Offend

There is no doubt—as long as we are in the world and around people, we will have opportunities to be offended. The temptation to become hurt, angry, or offended comes just as surely as any other temptation comes, but Jesus said we should pray that we will not give in to temptation (see Matt. 26:41). When David was surrounded by those who delighted in his hurt, his prayer was, “O LORD, come quickly to help me!” (Ps. 70:1).

People who want to live powerful lives can do so by becoming experts at forgiving those who offend and hurt them. When someone hurts your feelings or is rude and insensitive, quickly say, “I will not be offended.” If the person is in your presence, you can say these words quietly in your heart, but later when the memory of what he or she did returns to haunt you, repeat aloud, “I will not be offended,” and ask God to help you to forgive them.

²⁴Pour out Your indignation on them,
And let [the fierceness of] Your burning anger overtake them.

²⁵May their encampment be desolate;
May no one dwell in their tents. [Matt 23:38; Acts 1:20]

²⁶For they have persecuted him whom You have struck,

And they tell of the pain of those whom You have pierced and wounded.

²⁷ Add [unforgiven] iniquity to their iniquity [in Your book],
And may they not come into Your righteousness.

²⁸ May they be blotted out of the book of life [and their lives come to an end]

And may they not be recorded with the righteous (those in right standing with God). [Rev 3:4, 5; 20:12, 15; 21:27]

²⁹ But I am sorrowful and in pain;
May Your salvation, O God, set me [securely] on high.

³⁰ I will praise the name of God with song
And magnify Him with thanksgiving.

³¹ And it will please the LORD better than an ox
Or a young bull with horns and hoofs.

³² The humble have seen it and are glad;
You who seek God [requiring Him as your greatest need], let your heart revive and live. [Ps 22:26; 42:1]

³³ For the LORD hears the needy
And does not despise His who are prisoners.

³⁴ Let heaven and earth praise Him,
The seas and everything that moves in them.

³⁵ For God will save Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah,
That His servants may remain there and possess it.

³⁶ The descendants of His servants will inherit it,
And those who love His name will dwell in it.

Psalm 70

Prayer for Help against Persecutors.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

- ¹O GOD, come quickly to save me;
O LORD, come quickly to help me!
- ²Let those be ashamed and humiliated
Who seek my life;
Let them be turned back and humiliated
Who delight in my hurt.
- ³Let them be turned back because of their shame and
disgrace
Who say, “Aha, aha!”
- ⁴May all those who seek You [as life’s first priority] rejoice and be glad in You; May those who love Your salvation say continually,
“Let God be magnified!”
- ⁵But I am afflicted and needy;
Come quickly to me, O God!
You are my help and my rescuer;
O LORD, do not delay.

Psalm 71

Prayer of an Old Man for Rescue.

- ¹IN YOU, O LORD, I have put my trust and confidently taken refuge; Let me never be put to shame.

²In Your righteousness deliver me and rescue me;
Incline Your ear to me and save me.

³Be to me a rock of refuge and a sheltering stronghold to which I may continually come; You have given the commandment to save me,
For You are my rock and my fortress.

⁴Rescue me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked (godless),
From the grasp of the unrighteous and ruthless man.

⁵For You are my hope;
O Lord GOD, You are my trust and the source of my confidence from my youth.

⁶Upon You have I relied and been sustained from my birth;
You are He who took me from my mother's womb and You have been my benefactor from that day.
My praise is continually of You.

⁷I am as a wonder to many,
For You are my strong refuge.

⁸My mouth is filled with Your praise
And with Your glory all day long.

⁹Do not cast me off nor send me away in the time of old age;
Do not abandon me when my strength fails and I am weak.

¹⁰For my enemies have spoken against me;
Those who watch for my life have consulted together,

¹¹Saying, "God has abandoned him;
Pursue and seize him, for there is no one to rescue him."

- ¹² O God, do not be far from me;
O my God, come quickly to help me!
- ¹³ Let those who attack my life be ashamed and consumed;
Let them be covered with reproach and dishonor, who seek to injure me.
- ¹⁴ But as for me, I will wait and hope continually,
And will praise You yet more and more.
- ¹⁵ My mouth shall tell of Your righteousness
And of Your [deeds of] salvation all day long,
For their number is more than I know.
- ¹⁶ I will come with the mighty acts of the Lord GOD [and in His strength]; I will make mention of Your righteousness, Yours alone.
- ¹⁷ O God, You have taught me from my youth,
And I still declare Your wondrous works and miraculous deeds.
- ¹⁸ And even when I am old and gray-headed, O God, do not abandon me,
Until I declare Your [mighty] strength to this generation,
Your power to all who are to come.
- ¹⁹ Your righteousness, O God, reaches to the [height of the]
heavens,
You who have done great things;
O God, who is like You, [who is Your equal]?
- ²⁰ You who have shown me many troubles and distresses
Will revive and renew me again,
And will bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

²¹May You increase my greatness (honor)
And turn to comfort me.

²²I will also praise You with the harp,
Your truth and faithfulness, O my God;
To You I will sing praises with the lyre,
O Holy One of Israel.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Express Your Gratitude

God tells us to praise Him continually (see Ps. 71:6, 14). Once we seriously start praising Him, our burdens and our troubles seem to weigh less heavily on us. That's part of the power of being thankful. As we give thanks to God for what's good in our lives, it helps us not to focus excessively on our problems. I believe God wants us to be grateful people, filled with gratitude not only toward God, but also toward others.

When someone does something nice for you, let that person know you appreciate them and what they did. If your bus arrived on time today, did you thank the driver? When you ate at the restaurant, did you thank the waitress for filling your coffee cup? I could go on and on, but that's my point: We need to develop an attitude of gratitude toward the people in our lives.

Another way to express gratitude is to show appreciation toward your family members, especially your spouse. I appreciate Dave, and even though we've been married a long time, I still tell him I appreciate him. He's patient with me and thoughtful. Just those few words of thanks are a great way to bless God and others.

When you express appreciation, it's good for the other person to hear the words, but remember that it also releases joy in you. You enrich both your life and another person's life, even when you show gratitude for something small or ordinary.

Another way to show your gratitude is to meditate daily on things for which you can be thankful. I have a friend who won't get out of bed in the morning until he has thanked God for at least ten things. At night he goes to sleep by focusing on at least three things that went well that day and thanking God for them.

You can also be thankful for the people who tell you the truth about yourself, even if it's not what you want to hear. I have another friend who says, "Only two people will tell you the truth about yourself: someone who's angry at you and someone who loves you very much." God uses both types of people in our lives. When you hear the truth—especially about something of which you're not aware, you can change. And after you've changed, isn't that just one more thing for which you can be thankful?

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

God, thank You for all the good things You send into my life. Thank You for the people in my life who help me grow closer to You and become a more thankful person. In Jesus' name. Amen.

²³My lips will shout for joy when I sing praises to You,
And my soul, which You have redeemed.

²⁴My tongue also will speak of Your righteousness all day long;
For they are ashamed, for they are humiliated who seek my injury.

Psalm 72

The Reign of the Righteous King.

A Psalm of Solomon.

- ¹GIVE THE king [knowledge of] Your judgments, O God,
And [the spirit of] Your righteousness to the king's son [to guide all his ways].
- ²May he judge Your people with righteousness,
And Your afflicted with justice. [1 Kin 3:1–5]
- ³The mountains will bring peace and prosperity to the
people,
And the hills, in [the establishment of] righteousness.
- ⁴May he bring justice to the poor among the people,
Save the children of the needy
And crush the oppressor,
- ⁵Let them fear You [with awe-inspired reverence and worship
You with obedience] while the sun endures, And as long as the moon [reflects light], throughout all generations.
- ⁶May he come down like rain on the mown grass,
Like showers that water the earth.
- ⁷In his days may the righteous flourish,
And peace abound until the moon is no more. [Is 11:1–9]
- ⁸May he also rule from sea to sea
And from the River [Euphrates] to the ends of the earth.
[Zech 14:9]

- ⁹The nomads of the desert will bow before him,
And his enemies will lick the dust.
- ¹⁰The kings of Tarshish and of the islands will bring offerings;
The kings of Sheba and Seba will offer gifts.
- ¹¹Yes, all kings will bow down before him,
All nations will serve him. [Ps 138:4]
- ¹²For he will rescue the needy when he cries for help,
The afflicted and abused also, and him who has no helper.
- ¹³He will have compassion on the poor and needy,
And he will save the lives of the needy.
- ¹⁴He will redeem their life from oppression and fraud and violence,
And their blood will be precious in His sight.
- ¹⁵So may he live, and may the gold of Sheba be given to him;
And let them pray for him continually;
Let them bless and praise him all day long.
- ¹⁶There will be an abundance of grain in the soil on the top of the mountains; Its fruit will wave like [the cedars of] Lebanon,
And those of the city will flourish like grass of the earth.
- ¹⁷May his name endure forever;
May his name continue as long as the sun;
And let men bless themselves by him;
Let all nations call him blessed.
- ¹⁸Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, Who alone does wonderful things.

¹⁹Blessed be His glorious name forever;
And may the whole earth be filled with His glory.
Amen and Amen.

²⁰The prayers of David son of Jesse are ended.

BOOK THREE

Psalm 73

The End of the Wicked Contrasted with That of the Righteous.

A Psalm of Asaph.

- ¹TRULY GOD is good to Israel,
To those who are pure in heart.
- ²But as for me, my feet came close to stumbling,
My steps had almost slipped.
- ³For I was envious of the arrogant
As I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
- ⁴For there are no pains in their death,
Their body is fat and pampered.
- ⁵They are not in trouble as other men,
Nor are they plagued like mankind.
- ⁶Therefore pride is their necklace;
Violence covers them like a garment [like a long, luxurious robe].
- ⁷Their eye bulges from fatness [they have more than the heart desires];

- The imaginations of their mind run riot [with foolishness].
- ⁸They mock and wickedly speak of oppression;
They speak loftily [with malice].
- ⁹They set their mouth against the heavens,
And their tongue swaggers through the earth. [Rev 13:6]
- ¹⁰Therefore his people return to this place,
And waters of abundance [offered by the irreverent] are [blindly] drunk by them.
- ¹¹They say, “How does God know?
Is there knowledge [of us] with the Most High?”
- ¹²Behold, these are the ungodly,
Who always prosper and are at ease [in the world]; they have increased in wealth.
- ¹³Surely then in vain I have cleansed my heart
And washed my hands in innocence. [Mal 3:14]
- ¹⁴For all the day long have I been stricken,
And punished every morning.
- ¹⁵If I had said, “I will say this,” [and expressed my feelings],
I would have betrayed the generation of Your children.
- ¹⁶When I considered how to understand this,
It was too great an effort for me and too painful
- ¹⁷Until I came into the sanctuary of God;
Then I understood [for I considered] their end.
- ¹⁸Surely You set the wicked-minded and immoral on slippery places;
You cast them down to destruction.

¹⁹How they are destroyed in a moment!

They are completely swept away by sudden terrors!

²⁰Like a dream [which seems real] until one awakens,

Speak God's Word

My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the rock and strength of my heart and my portion forever.

| adapted from PSALM 73:26 |

O Lord, when stirred, [You observe the wicked], You will despise their image.

- ²¹When my heart was embittered
And I was pierced within [as with the fang of an adder],
- ²²Then I was senseless and ignorant;
I was like a beast before You.
- ²³Nevertheless I am continually with You;
You have taken hold of my right hand.
- ²⁴You will guide me with Your counsel,
And afterward receive me to honor and glory.
- ²⁵Whom have I in heaven [but You]?
And besides You, I desire nothing on earth.
- ²⁶My flesh and my heart may fail,
But God is the rock and strength of my heart and my portion forever.

²⁷For behold, those who are far from You will perish;
You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful and have abandoned You.

²⁸But as for me, it is good for me to draw near to God;
I have made the Lord GOD my refuge and placed my trust in Him, That I may tell of all Your works.

Psalm 74

An Appeal against the Devastation of the Land by the Enemy.

A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem, of Asaph.

¹O GOD, why have You rejected us forever?
Why does Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your pasture?

²Remember Your congregation, which You have purchased of old,
Which You have redeemed to be the tribe of Your inheritance;
Remember Mount Zion, where You have dwelt.

³Turn your footsteps [quickly] toward the perpetual ruins;
The enemy has damaged everything within the sanctuary.

⁴In the midst of Your meeting place Your enemies have roared [with their battle cry]; They have set up their own emblems for signs [of victory].

⁵It seems as if one had lifted up
An axe in a forest of trees [to set a record of destruction].

- ⁶And now all the carved work [of the meeting place]
They smash with hatchets and hammers.
- ⁷They have burned Your sanctuary to the ground;
They have profaned the dwelling place of Your name.
- ⁸They said in their heart, “Let us completely subdue them.”
They have burned all the meeting places of God in the land.
- ⁹We do not see our symbols;
There is no longer any prophet [to guide us],
Nor does any among us know for how long.
- ¹⁰O God, how long will the adversary scoff?
Is the enemy to revile Your name forever?
- ¹¹Why do You withdraw Your hand, even Your right hand
[from judging the enemy]?
Remove Your hand from Your chest, destroy them!
- ¹²Yet God is my King of old,
Working salvation in the midst of the earth.
- ¹³You divided the [Red] Sea by Your strength;
You broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters. [Ex
14:21]
- ¹⁴You crushed the heads of Leviathan (Egypt);
You gave him as food for the creatures of the wilderness.
[Job 41:1]
- ¹⁵You broke open fountains and streams;
You dried up ever-flowing rivers. [Ex 17:6; Num 20:11; Josh
3:13]
- ¹⁶The day is Yours, the night also is Yours;

You have established and prepared the [heavenly] light and the sun.

¹⁷You have defined and established all the borders of the earth [the divisions of land and sea and of the nations];
You have made summer and winter. [Acts 17:26]

¹⁸Remember this, O LORD, the enemy has scoffed, And a foolish and impious people has spurned Your name.

¹⁹Oh, do not hand over the soul of your turtledove to the wild beast;

Do not forget the life of Your afflicted forever.

²⁰Consider the covenant [You made with Abraham],
For the dark places of the land are full of the habitations of violence.

²¹Let not the oppressed return dishonored;
Let the afflicted and needy praise Your name.

²²Arise, O God, plead Your own cause;
Remember how the foolish man scoffs at You all day long.

²³Do not forget the [clamoring] voices of Your adversaries,
The uproar of those who rise against You, which ascends continually [to Your ears].

Psalm 75

God Abases the Proud, but Exalts the Righteous.

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] “Do Not Destroy.” A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

¹WE GIVE thanks and praise to You, O God, we give thanks,

For Your [wonderful works declare that Your] name is near;
People declare Your wonders.

²“When I select an appointed time,
I will judge with equity,” [says the LORD].

³“The earth and all the inhabitants of it melt [in tumultuous times].

It is I who will steady its pillars.

Selah.

⁴“I said to the arrogant, ‘Do not boast,’
And to the wicked, ‘Do not lift up the horn [of self-glorification].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Be Thankful and Say So

The Bible teaches us repeatedly to give thanks, to be thankful, and to have heartfelt gratitude (see Ps. 75:1). To help you achieve and maintain a new level of contentment in your life, I encourage you to make a list of everything for which you are thankful. It should be a long list, one that includes little things as well as big things. Why should it be long? Because we all have a lot to be thankful for if we just look for it.

The next time you have lunch or coffee with a friend, resolve to talk about the things for which you are thankful. The Bible says we are to be thankful and to say so. Meditating on what you have to be thankful for every day and verbalizing it will be amazingly helpful to you.

⁵“Do not lift up your [defiant and aggressive] horn on high,
Do not speak with a stiff neck.”

⁶For not from the east, nor from the west,
Nor from the desert comes exaltation. [Is 14:13]

⁷But God is the Judge;
He puts down one and lifts up another.

⁸For a cup [of His wrath] is in the hand of the LORD, and the wine foams; It is well mixed and fully spiced, and He pours out from it;

And all the wicked of the earth must drain it and drink down to its dregs. [Ps 60:3; Jer 25:15; Rev 14:9, 10; 16:19]

⁹But as for me, I will declare it and rejoice forever;
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

¹⁰All the horns of the wicked He will cut off,
But the horns of the righteous will be lifted up.

Psalm 76

The Victorious Power of the God of Jacob.

To the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

¹GOD IS known in Judah;
His name is great in Israel.

²His tabernacle is in Salem (Jerusalem);
His dwelling place is in Zion.

³There He broke the flaming arrows,
The shield, the sword, and the weapons of war.

Selah.

⁴You are glorious and resplendent,
More majestic than the mountains of prey.

⁵The stouthearted have been stripped of their spoil,
They have slept the sleep [of death];
And none of the warriors could use his hands.

⁶At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob,
Both rider and horse were cast into a dead sleep [of death].
[Ex 15:1, 21; Nah 2:13; Zech 12:4]

⁷You, even You, are to be feared [with the submissive wonder of reverence];

Who may stand in Your presence when once You are angry?

⁸You caused judgment to be heard from heaven;
The earth feared and was quiet

⁹When God arose to [establish] judgment,
To save all the humble of the earth.

Selah.

¹⁰For the wrath of man shall praise You;
With a remnant of wrath You will clothe and arm Yourself.

¹¹Make vows to the LORD your God and fulfill them; Let all who are around Him bring gifts to Him who is to be feared [with awe-inspired reverence].

¹²He will cut off the spirit of princes;
He is awesome and feared by the kings of the earth.

Psalm 77

Comfort in Trouble from Recalling God's Mighty Deeds.

To the Chief Musician; according to Jeduthun [one of David's three chief musicians, founder of an official musical family]. A Psalm of Asaph.

¹MY VOICE rises to God, and I will cry aloud;
My voice rises to God, and He will hear me.

²In the day of my trouble I [desperately] sought the Lord;
In the night my hand was stretched out [in prayer] without weariness;

My soul refused to be comforted.

³I remember God; then I am disquieted and I groan;
I sigh [in prayer], and my spirit grows faint.

Selah.

⁴You have held my eyelids open;
I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

⁵I have considered the ancient days,
The years [of prosperity] of long, long ago.

⁶I will remember my song in the night;
I will meditate with my heart,
And my spirit searches:

⁷Will the Lord reject forever?
And will He never be favorable again?

⁸Has His lovingkindness ceased forever?
Have His promises ended for all time?

⁹Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Or has He in anger withdrawn His compassion?

Selah.

¹⁰And I said, “This is my grief,
That the right hand of the Most High has changed [and His lovingkindness is withheld].”

¹¹I will [solemnly] remember the deeds of the LORD; Yes, I will [wholeheartedly] remember Your wonders of old.

¹²I will meditate on all Your works

KEYS to a Victorious Life

As Your Thoughts Change, Your Life Changes

When we define what it means to meditate (see Ps. 77:12), we generally mean that we choose what we want to think about and roll it over and over in our minds until it becomes a part of us.

Consider this quote: “If you continue to believe as you have always believed, you will continue to act as you have always acted. If you continue to act as you have always acted, you will continue to get what you have always gotten. If you want different results in your life, all you have to do is change your mind” (Anonymous).

You will never do what you need to do until you think what you need to think. God’s Word will renew your mind, so love the Word, live the Word, speak the Word, meditate on the Word—and things will begin to change (see Josh. 1:8).

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Victory over Nighttime Battles

What is it about nighttime that makes us more vulnerable to the enemy's attacks? My theory is that by evening, most of us are weary and just want to drift into peaceful sleep. One of Satan's favorite times to wage the battle for our minds is when we need rest.

If we recognize that we're more susceptible to the enemy's attacks when we're tired, we can take steps to prepare to stand against him. Some people find it helpful to meditate on scriptures or to claim the promise of Isaiah 26:3: "You will keep in perfect and constant peace the one whose mind is steadfast [that is, committed and focused on You.]" These words enable us to remain vigilant even in the dark hours of night.

By arming ourselves with the Word and spending time in prayer, we can avoid getting trapped in Satan's plan when he brings to mind some troublesome event of the day and asks, "Why did you say or do that?" His trick is to cause us to focus on the problems of the day, suggesting that we must immediately settle the issue. Thus he robs us of the peaceful rest our bodies need.

The psalmist said, “In the night my hand was stretched out [in prayer] without weariness; my soul refused to be comforted” (Ps. 77:2). I experience nights like this at times and I haven’t always won the battle, but I have learned some valuable lessons. One lesson I have learned is that we don’t need to try and solve our problems in the middle of the night. Another lesson learned is that it is not wise to make decisions in the middle of the night. Most decisions can wait until the next day and should not take on such urgency that we believe we will not sleep unless we settle the issue immediately.

When Satan tries to pull that nighttime trick on you, learn to say, “I’ll deal with this issue in the morning, when the sun is shining. After I’ve rested, I can cope.” You can also say, “Lord, I surrender this to You. Give me Your rest, Your peace, and help me to make the right decision in the morning.”

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Holy Spirit, thank You for being with me, for protecting me, and for guiding my life. When I face those dark nights and the enemy tries to attack my mind, protect me. I trust You and ask You to keep me in Your perfect peace. Amen.

And thoughtfully consider all Your [great and wondrous] deeds.

¹³Your way, O God, is holy [far from sin and guilt].
What god is great like our God?

¹⁴You are the [awesome] God who works [powerful] wonders;
You have demonstrated Your power among the people.

¹⁵You have with Your [great] arm redeemed Your people,
The sons of Jacob and Joseph.

Selah.

¹⁶The waters [of the Red Sea] saw You, O God;
The waters saw You, they were in anguish;
The deeps also trembled.

¹⁷The clouds poured down water;
The skies sent out a sound [of rumbling thunder];
Your arrows (lightning) flashed here and there.

¹⁸The voice of Your thunder was in the whirlwind;
The lightnings illumined the world;
The earth trembled and shook.

¹⁹Your way [of escape for Your people] was through the sea,
And Your paths through the great waters,
And Your footprints were not traceable.

²⁰You led Your people like a flock
By the hand of Moses and Aaron [to the promised goal].

Psalm 78

God's Guidance of His People in Spite of Their Unfaithfulness.

A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem, of Asaph.

¹LISTEN, O my people, to my teaching;

Incline your ears to the words of my mouth [and be willing to learn].

²I will open my mouth in a parable [to instruct using examples];

I will utter dark and puzzling sayings of old [that contain important truth]—[Matt 13:34, 35]

³Which we have heard and known,

And our fathers have told us.

POWERPOINT

Psalm 78:8 describes the rebellious Israelites. For them, this same cycle of stubborn disobedience, crying out to God to get them out of trouble, and going right back into rebellion when their circumstances improved is repeated and recorded so many times in the Old Testament that it is almost unbelievable. Victorious living means that we learn to give up our own ways and be pliable and moldable in God's hands.

⁴We will not hide them from their children,
But [we will] tell to the generation to come the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD, And [tell of] His great might and power and the wonderful works that He has done.

⁵For He established a testimony (a specific precept) in Jacob

And appointed a law in Israel,
Which He commanded our fathers
That they should teach to their children [the great facts of God's transactions with Israel],

⁶That the generation to come might know them, that the children still to be born

May arise and recount them to their children,

⁷That they should place their confidence in God
And not forget the works of God,
But keep His commandments,

⁸And not be like their fathers—
A stubborn and rebellious generation,
A generation that did not prepare its heart to know and
follow God,
And whose spirit was not faithful to God.

⁹The sons of Ephraim were armed as archers and carrying bows,
Yet they turned back in the day of battle.

¹⁰They did not keep the covenant of God
And refused to walk according to His law;

¹¹And they forgot His [incredible] works
And His miraculous wonders that He had shown them.

¹²He did marvelous things in the sight of their fathers
In the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan [where Pharaoh resided].

¹³He divided the [Red] Sea and allowed them to pass through
it,

And He made the waters stand up like [water behind] a dam.
[Ex 14:22]

¹⁴In the daytime He led them with a cloud
And all the night with a light of fire. [Ex 13:21; 14:24]

¹⁵He split rocks in the wilderness
And gave them abundant [water to] drink like the ocean depths.

¹⁶He brought streams also from the rock [at Rephidim and Kadesh]
And caused waters to run down like rivers. [Ex 17:6; Num 20:11]

¹⁷Yet they still continued to sin against Him
By rebelling against the Most High in the desert.

¹⁸And in their hearts they put God to the test
By asking for food according to their [selfish] appetite.

¹⁹Then they spoke against God;
They said, “Can God prepare [food for] a table in the wilderness?

²⁰“Behold, He struck the rock so that waters gushed out
And the streams overflowed;
Can He give bread also?
Or will He provide meat for His people?”

²¹Therefore, when the LORD heard, He was full of wrath; A fire was kindled against Jacob,
And His anger mounted up against Israel,

²²Because they did not believe in God [they did not rely on Him, they did not adhere to Him], And they did not trust in His salvation (His power to save).

²³ Yet He commanded the clouds from above
And opened the doors of heaven;

²⁴ And He rained down manna upon them to eat
And gave them the grain of heaven. [Ex 16:14; John 6:31]

²⁵ Man ate the bread of angels;
God sent them provision in abundance.

²⁶ He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens
And by His [unlimited] power He guided the south wind.

²⁷ He rained meat upon them like the dust,
And winged birds (quail) like the sand of the seas. [Num
11:31]

²⁸ And He let them fall in the midst of their camp,
Around their tents.

²⁹ So they ate and were well filled,
He gave them what they craved.

³⁰ Before they had satisfied their desire,
And while their food was in their mouths, [Num 11:33]

³¹ The wrath of God rose against them
And killed some of the strongest of them,
And subdued the choice young men of Israel.

³² In spite of all this they still sinned,
For they did not believe in His wonderful and extraordinary works.

³³ Therefore He consumed their days like a breath [in emptiness and futility]

And their years in sudden terror.

³⁴When He killed [some of] them, then those remaining sought Him,
And they returned [to Him] and searched diligently for God
[for a time].

³⁵And they remembered that God was their rock,
And the Most High God their Redeemer.

³⁶Nevertheless they flattered Him with their mouths
And lied to Him with their tongues.

³⁷For their heart was not steadfast toward Him,
Nor were they faithful to His covenant. [Acts 8:21]

³⁸But He, the source of compassion and lovingkindness, forgave their wickedness and did not destroy them;
Many times He restrained His anger
And did not stir up all His wrath.

³⁹For He [graciously] remembered that they were mere [human] flesh,
A wind that goes and does not return.

⁴⁰How often they rebelled against Him in the wilderness
And grieved Him in the desert!

⁴¹Again and again they tempted God,
And distressed the Holy One of Israel.

⁴²They did not remember [the miracles worked by] His [powerful] hand,
Nor the day when He redeemed them from the enemy,

⁴³How He worked His miracles in Egypt

And His wonders in the field of Zoan [where Pharaoh resided],

⁴⁴And turned their rivers into blood,

And their streams, so that they could not drink.

⁴⁵He sent among them swarms of flies which devoured them,
And frogs which destroyed them.

⁴⁶He also gave their crops to the grasshopper,
And the fruit of their labor to the locust.

⁴⁷He destroyed their vines with [great] hailstones
And their sycamore trees with frost.

⁴⁸He gave over their cattle also to the hailstones,
And their flocks and herds to thunderbolts. [Ex 9:18–21]

⁴⁹He sent upon them His burning anger, [Ex 12:23]
His fury and indignation and distress,
A band of angels of destruction [among them].

⁵⁰He leveled a path for His anger [to give it free run];
He did not spare their souls from death,
But turned over their lives to the plague.

⁵¹He killed all the firstborn in Egypt,
The first and best of their strength in the tents [of the land of the sons] of Ham.

⁵²But God led His own people forward like sheep
And guided them in the wilderness like [a good shepherd with] a flock.

⁵³He led them safely, so that they did not fear;
But the sea engulfed their enemies. [Ex 14:27, 28]

- ⁵⁴ So He brought them to His holy land,
To this mountain [Zion] which His right hand had acquired.
- ⁵⁵ He also drove out the nations before the sons of Israel
And allotted their land as an inheritance, measured out and partitioned;
And He had the tribes of Israel dwell in their tents [the tents of those who had been dispossessed].
- ⁵⁶ Yet they tempted and rebelled against the Most High God
And did not keep His testimonies (laws).
- ⁵⁷ They turned back and acted unfaithfully like their fathers;
They were twisted like a warped bow [that will not respond to the archer's aim].
- ⁵⁸ For they provoked Him to [righteous] anger with their high places [devoted to idol worship]
And moved Him to jealousy with their carved images [by denying Him the love, worship, and obedience that is rightfully and uniquely His].
- ⁵⁹ When God heard this, He was filled with [righteous] wrath;
And utterly rejected Israel, [greatly hating her ways],
- ⁶⁰ So that He abandoned the tabernacle at Shiloh,
The tent in which He had dwelled among men,
- ⁶¹ And gave up His strength and power (the ark of the covenant) into captivity, And His glory into the hand of the enemy (the Philistines). [1 Sam 4:21]
- ⁶² He also handed His people over to the sword,
And was infuriated with His inheritance (Israel). [1 Sam 4:10]
- ⁶³ The fire [of war] devoured His young men,

- And His [bereaved] virgins had no wedding songs.
64 His priests [Hophni and Phinehas] fell by the sword,
And His widows could not weep. [1 Sam 4:11, 19, 20]
- 65 Then the Lord awakened as from sleep,
Like a [mighty] warrior who awakens from the sleep of wine [fully conscious of his power].
- 66 He drove His enemies backward;
He subjected them to lasting shame and dishonor.
- 67 Moreover, He rejected the tent of Joseph,
And did not choose the tribe of Ephraim [in which the tabernacle stood].
- 68 But He chose the tribe of Judah [as Israel's leader], Mount Zion, which He loved [to replace Shiloh as His capital].
- 69 And He built His sanctuary [exalted] like the heights [of the
heavens],
Like the earth which He has established forever.
- 70 He also chose David His servant
And took him from the sheepfolds; [1 Sam 16:11, 12]
- 71 From tending the ewes with nursing young He brought him
To shepherd Jacob His people,
And Israel His inheritance. [2 Sam 7:7, 8]
- 72 So David shepherded them according to the integrity of his heart;
And guided them with his skillful hands.

Psalm 79

A Lament over the Destruction of Jerusalem, and Prayer for Help.

A Psalm of Asaph.

- ¹O GOD, the nations have invaded [the land of Your people]
Your inheritance;
They have defiled Your sacred temple;
They have laid Jerusalem in ruins.
- ²They have given the dead bodies of Your servants as food to the birds of the heavens, The flesh of Your godly ones to the beasts of the earth.
- ³They have poured out their blood like water all around
Jerusalem,
And there was no one to bury them.
- ⁴We have become an object of taunting to our neighbors [because of our humiliation], A derision and mockery to those who encircle us.
- ⁵How long, O LORD? Will You be angry forever?
Will Your jealousy [which cannot endure a divided allegiance] burn like fire?
- ⁶Pour out Your wrath on the [Gentile] nations that do not know You,
And on the kingdoms that do not call on Your name. [2
Thess 1:8]
- ⁷For they have devoured Jacob
And made his pasture desolate.
- ⁸O do not remember against us the sins and guilt of our forefathers.

Let Your compassion and mercy come quickly to meet us,
For we have been brought very low.

⁹Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of Your name;
Rescue us, forgive us our sins for Your name's sake.

¹⁰Why should the [Gentile] nations say, "Where is their God?"

Let there be known [without delay] among the nations in our sight [and to this generation],
Your vengeance for the blood of Your servants which has been poured out.

¹¹Let the groaning and sighing of the prisoner come before
You;
According to the greatness of Your power keep safe those who are doomed to die.

¹²And return into the lap of our neighbors sevenfold
The taunts with which they have taunted You, O Lord.

¹³So we Your people, the sheep of Your pasture,
Will give You thanks forever;
We will declare and publish Your praise from generation to generation.

Psalm 80

God Implored to Rescue His People from Their Calamities.

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] "Lilies, a Testimony." A Psalm of Asaph.

¹HEAR US O Shepherd of Israel,

You who lead Joseph like a flock;
You who sit enthroned above the cherubim [of the ark of the covenant], shine forth!

POWERPOINT

God is always able to restore us (see Ps. 80:7). When you fall, as we all do, that doesn't mean you are a failure. It simply means that you don't do everything right. Along with strengths we also have weaknesses. Let Jesus Christ be strong in your weaknesses; let Him shine His face on you with favor and approval on your weak days. Do not receive condemnation. Your victory will come, but it may take time.

- ²Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up Your power
And come to save us!
- ³Restore us, O God;
Cause Your face to shine on us [with favor and approval], and we will be saved.

- ⁴O LORD God of hosts,
How long will You be angry with the prayers of Your
people?
- ⁵You have fed them the bread of tears,
And You have made them drink [bitter] tears in abundance.
- ⁶You make us an object of contention to our neighbors,
And our enemies laugh [at our suffering] among themselves.
- ⁷Restore us, O God of hosts;
And cause Your face to shine on us [with favor and approval], and we will be saved.
- ⁸You uprooted a vine (Israel) from Egypt;
You drove out the [Canaanite] nations and planted the vine
[in Canaan].
- ⁹You cleared away the ground before it,
And it took deep root and filled the land.
- ¹⁰The mountains were covered with its shadow,
And its branches were like the cedars of God.
- ¹¹Israel sent out its branches to the [Mediterranean] Sea,
And its branches to the [Euphrates] River. [1 Kin 4:21]
- ¹²Why have You broken down its walls and hedges,
So that all who pass by pick its fruit?
- ¹³A boar from the woods eats it away,
And the insects of the field feed on it.
- ¹⁴Turn again [in favor to us], O God of hosts;
Look down from heaven and see, and take care of this vine,

- ¹⁵ Even the stock which Your right hand has planted,
And [look down on] the son that You have reared and strengthened for Yourself.
- ¹⁶ It is burned with fire, it is cut down;
They perish at the rebuke of Your [angry] appearance.
- ¹⁷ Let Your hand be upon the man of Your right hand,
Upon the son of man whom You have made strong for Yourself.
- ¹⁸ Then we shall not turn back from You;
Revive us and we will call on Your name.
- ¹⁹ Restore us, O LORD God of hosts; Cause Your face to shine on us [in favor and approval], and we shall be saved.

Psalm 81

God's Goodness and Israel's Waywardness.

To the Chief Musician; set to the Philistine lute. A Psalm of Asaph.

- ¹ SING ALOUD to God our strength;
Shout for joy to the God of Jacob (Israel).
- ² Raise a song, sound the timbrel,
The sweet sounding lyre with the harp.
- ³ Blow the trumpet at the New Moon,
At the full moon, on our feast day.
- ⁴ For this is a statute for Israel,
An ordinance of the God of Jacob.

⁵He established it for a testimony in Joseph
When He went throughout the land of Egypt.
I heard the language [of One whom] I did not know, saying,

⁶“I removed the burden from his shoulder;
His hands were freed from the basket.

⁷“You called in [the time of] trouble and I rescued you;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Take Time for God

We all have the same amount of time each day, but some people find time regularly to spend with God while others do not. I have found that when we say we “don’t have time to spend with God,” it’s simply an excuse.

The truth is that we make time for what is most important to us. At this moment, you are as close to God as you want to be. What you sow, you will reap. If you want a bigger harvest, you can simply sow more seed. If you want a closer relationship with God, spend more time with Him. God has said, “Open your mouth wide and I will fill it... I would feed Israel with the finest of the wheat; and with honey from the rock I would satisfy you” (Ps. 81:10, 16). He wants you to find great peace and joy in His presence.

I answered you in the secret place of thunder;
I tested you at the waters of Meribah. [Num 20:3, 13, 24]

Selah.

⁸“Hear, O My people, and I will admonish you—
O Israel, if you would listen to Me!

⁹“Let there be no strange god among you,
Nor shall you worship any foreign god.

¹⁰“I am the LORD your God,
Who brought you up from the land of Egypt.

Open your mouth wide and I will fill it.

¹¹“But My people would not listen to My voice,
And Israel did not [consent to] obey Me.

¹²“So I gave them up to the stubbornness of their heart,
To walk in [the path of] their own counsel. [Acts 7:42, 43;
14:16; Rom 1:24, 26]

¹³“Oh, that My people would listen to Me,
That Israel would walk in My ways!

¹⁴“Then I would quickly subdue and humble their enemies
And turn My hand against their adversaries;

¹⁵Those who hate the LORD would pretend obedience to Him and cringe before Him, And their time of punishment would be forever.

¹⁶“But I would feed Israel with the finest of the wheat;
And with honey from the rock I would satisfy you.”

Psalm 82

Unjust Judgments Rebuked.

A Psalm of Asaph.

¹GOD STANDS in the divine assembly;
He judges among the gods (divine beings).

²How long will you judge unjustly
And show partiality to the wicked?

Selah.

³Vindicate the weak and fatherless;
Do justice and maintain the rights of the afflicted and destitute.

⁴Rescue the weak and needy;
Rescue them from the hand of the wicked.

⁵The rulers do not know nor do they understand;
They walk on in the darkness [of complacent satisfaction];
All the foundations of the earth [the fundamental principles of the administration of justice] are shaken.

⁶I said, “You are gods;
Indeed, all of you are sons of the Most High. [Gen 6:1–4;
John 10:34–36; Rom 13:1, 2]

⁷“Nevertheless you will die like men
And fall like any one of the princes.”

⁸Arise, O God, judge the earth!
For to You belong all the nations. [Matt 28:18–20; Rev 11:15]

Psalm 83

God Implored to Confound His Enemies.

A Song. A Psalm of Asaph.

¹DO NOT keep silent, O God;
Do not hold Your peace or be still, O God.

²For behold, Your enemies are in tumult,
And those who hate You have raised their heads [in hatred of You]. [Acts 4:25, 26]

³They concoct crafty schemes against Your people,
And conspire together against Your hidden and precious ones.

⁴They have said, “Come, and let us wipe them out as a nation;

Let the name of Israel be remembered no more.”

⁵For they have conspired together with one mind;
Against You they make a covenant—

⁶The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites,
Of Moab and the Hagrites,

⁷Gebal and Ammon and Amalek,
Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre.

⁸Assyria also has joined with them;
They have helped the children of Lot [the Ammonites and the Moabites] and have been an arm [of strength] to them.

Selah.

⁹Deal with them as [You did] with Midian,
As with Sisera and Jabin at the brook of Kishon, [Judg 4:12–24]

¹⁰Who were destroyed at En-dor,
Who became like dung for the earth.

¹¹Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb
And all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna, [Judg 7:23–25; 8:10–21]

¹²Who said, “Let us possess for ourselves
The pastures of God.”

¹³O my God, make them like whirling dust,
Like chaff before the wind [worthless and without substance].

- ¹⁴Like fire consumes the forest,
And like the flame sets the mountains on fire,
¹⁵So pursue them with Your tempest
And terrify them with [the violence of] Your storm.
¹⁶Fill their faces with shame and disgrace,
That they may [persistently] seek Your name, O LORD.
¹⁷Let them be ashamed and dismayed forever;
Yes, let them be humiliated and perish,
¹⁸That they may know that You alone, whose name is the LORD, Are the Most High over all the earth.

Psalm 84

Longing for the Temple Worship.

To the Chief Musician; set to a Philistine lute. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

- ¹HOW LOVELY are Your dwelling places,
O LORD of hosts!
²My soul (my life, my inner self) longs for and greatly desires the courts of the LORD; My heart and my flesh sing for joy to the living God.
³The bird has found a house,
And the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young—
Even Your altars, O LORD of hosts,
My King and my God.

⁴Blessed and greatly favored are those who dwell in Your house and Your presence; They will be singing Your praises all the day long.

Selah.

⁵Blessed and greatly favored is the man whose strength is in You, In whose heart are the highways to Zion.

⁶Passing through the Valley of Weeping (Baca), they make it a place of springs;
The early rain also covers it with blessings.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*Thank You, Lord God, that
You are a sun and shield; You bestow grace and favor and honor; no good thing will You withhold from me, because I walk uprightly.*

• adapted from Psalm 84:11

⁷They go from strength to strength [increasing in victorious power];

Each of them appears before God in Zion.

⁸O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer; Listen, O God of Jacob!

Selah.

⁹See our shield, O God,
And look at the face of Your anointed [the king as Your representative].

¹⁰For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand [anywhere else];
I would rather stand [as a doorkeeper] at the threshold of the house of my God
Than to live [at ease] in the tents of wickedness.

¹¹For the LORD God is a sun and shield;
The LORD bestows grace and favor and honor;
No good thing will He withhold from those who walk uprightly.

¹²O LORD of hosts,
How blessed and greatly favored is the man who trusts in You [believing in You, relying on You, and committing himself to You with confident hope and expectation].

Psalm 85

Prayer for God's Mercy upon the Nation.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

¹O LORD, You have [at last] shown favor to Your land [of Canaan]; You have restored [from Babylon] the captives of Jacob (Israel).

²You have forgiven the wickedness of Your people;
You have covered all their sin.

Selah.

³You have withdrawn all Your wrath,
You have turned away from Your burning anger.

⁴Restore us, O God of our salvation,
And cause Your indignation toward us to cease.

⁵Will You be angry with us forever?
Will You prolong Your anger to all generations?

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Wants To Bless You

Being able to maintain a good attitude during times of suffering is a virtue, and it is very important, but continual suffering is not God's will for anybody. The apostle Paul said he had times of being abased and times of abounding (see Phil. 4:12). We will go through difficulties in this life, but we can, and should, expect God's deliverance along with a return to the abundant life.

The psalmist said, "The LORD bestows grace and favor and honor; no good thing will He withhold from those who walk uprightly" (Ps. 84:11). During times when we don't get what we want when we want it, God has a good reason. Perhaps the timing isn't right, or we are not mature enough to handle it yet, or He has something better in mind, but it is never because He doesn't want us to be blessed. That thought simply isn't consistent with who He is.

POWERPOINT

If you have no idea what God's will for you is at this point, you can start thinking, Well, I don't know God's plan, but I know that He loves me. Whatever He does will be good, and I'll be blessed. Practice being positive in every situation, as the psalmist was when he said, "I will hear [with expectant hope] what God the LORD will say" (Ps. 85:8). Even if whatever is taking place in your life at the moment does not seem so good, expect God to speak to you and to bring good out of it, as He has promised in His Word.

⁶Will You not revive us and bring us to life again,
That Your people may rejoice in You?

- ⁷Show us Your lovingkindness, O LORD,
And grant us Your salvation.
- ⁸I will hear [with expectant hope] what God the LORD will say,
For He will speak peace to His people, to His godly ones—
But let them not turn again to folly.
- ⁹Surely His salvation is near to those who [reverently] fear
Him [and obey Him with submissive wonder], That glory
[the manifest presence of God] may dwell in our land.
- ¹⁰Steadfast love and truth and faithfulness meet together;
Righteousness and peace kiss each other.
- ¹¹Truth springs from the earth,
And righteousness looks down from heaven.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*Teach me Your way, O Lord, I will walk and live in Your truth; direct my heart to fear
Your name with awe-inspired reverence and submissive*

wonder:

• adapted from Psalm 86:11

- ¹²Indeed, the LORD will give what is good,
And our land will yield its produce.
- ¹³Righteousness will go before Him
And will make His footsteps into a way [in which to walk].

Psalm 86

A Psalm of Supplication and Trust.

A Prayer of David.

- ¹INCLINE YOUR ear, O LORD, and answer me,
For I am distressed and needy [I long for Your help].
- ²Protect my life (soul), for I am godly and faithful;
O You my God, save Your servant, who trusts in You [believing in You and relying on You, confidently committing everything to You].
- ³Be gracious and merciful to me, O Lord,
For to You I cry out all the day long.
- ⁴Make Your servant rejoice,
For to You, O Lord, I lift up my soul [all that I am—in prayer].
- ⁵For You, O Lord, are good, and ready to forgive [our sins, sending them away, completely letting them go forever and ever]; And abundant in lovingkindness and overflowing in mercy to all those who call upon You.

⁶Hear, O LORD, my prayer;
And listen attentively to the voice of my supplications
(specific requests)!

⁷In the day of my trouble I will call upon You,
For You will answer me.

⁸There is no one like You among the gods, O Lord,
Nor are there any works [of wonder and majesty] like Yours.

⁹All nations whom You have made shall come and kneel down in worship before You, O Lord, And they shall glorify Your name.

¹⁰For You are great and do wondrous works!
You alone are God.

¹¹Teach me Your way, O LORD,
I will walk and live in Your truth;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Becoming More Like God

Ephesians 5:1 teaches us to be imitators of God. So however God is, that is the way we should desire to be. God sees the desires of our hearts and will help us become more and more like He is in our behavior.

God's nature is joyful, not sad or depressed, and He is strong; therefore, we should imitate Him. He is also merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in lovingkindness (see Ps. 86:15). If you become angry with people over an injustice, one way to get over the anger is to imitate God and choose to give them mercy. You can choose to forgive them even if you don't think they deserve it, just as God forgives us when we don't deserve it.

You and I can become more and more like God because His power and character are in us (see 2 Pet. 1:3–4). Begin to imitate God in your life, doing what you believe He would do in situations, instead of what you feel like doing.

Direct my heart to fear Your name [with awe-inspired reverence and submissive wonder]. [Ps 5:11; 69:36]

¹²I will give thanks and praise You, O Lord my God, with all my heart;

And will glorify Your name forevermore.

¹³For great is Your lovingkindness and graciousness toward

- me;
And You have rescued my life from the depths of Sheol [from death].
- ¹⁴O God, arrogant and insolent men have risen up against me;
A band of violent men have sought my life,
And they have not set You before them.
- ¹⁵But You, O Lord, are a God [who protects and is] merciful and gracious,
Slow to anger and abounding in lovingkindness and truth.
- ¹⁶Turn to me, and be gracious to me;
Grant Your strength [Your might and the power to resist temptation] to Your servant,
And save the son of Your handmaid.
- ¹⁷Show me a sign of [Your] goodwill,
That those who hate me may see it and be ashamed,
Because You, O LORD, helped and comforted me.

Psalm 87

The Privileges of Citizenship in Zion.

A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A Song.

- ¹HIS FOUNDATION is on the holy mountain.
- ²The LORD loves the gates of Zion
More than all the dwellings of Jacob (Israel).
- ³Glorious things are spoken of you,
O city of God [Jerusalem].

Selah.

⁴“I will mention Rahab (Egypt) and Babylon among those who know Me—

Behold, Philistia and Tyre with Ethiopia (Cush)—

‘This one was born there.’”

⁵But of Zion it will be said, “This one and that one were born in her,”

And the Most High Himself will establish her.

⁶The LORD will count, when He registers the peoples, “This one was born there.”

Selah.

⁷The singers as well as the players of flutes will say,

“All my springs and sources of joy are in you [Jerusalem, city of God].”

Psalm 88

A Petition to Be Saved from Death.

A Song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. To the Chief Musician; set to chant mournfully. A didactic or reflective poem of Heman the Ezrahite.

¹O LORD, the God of my salvation,
I have cried out [for help] by day and in the night before
You. [Luke 18:7]

²Let my prayer come before You and enter into Your presence;
Incline Your ear to my cry!

³For my soul is full of troubles,
And my life draws near the grave (Sheol, the place of the dead).

⁴I am counted among those who go down to the pit (grave);
I am like a man who has no strength [a mere shadow],

⁵Cast away [from the living] and abandoned among the dead,

Like the slain who lie in a [nameless] grave,
Whom You no longer remember,
And they are cut off from Your hand.

⁶You have laid me in the lowest pit,
In dark places, in the depths.

⁷Your wrath has rested heavily upon me,
And You have afflicted me with all Your waves. [Ps 42:7]

Selah.

⁸You have put my friends far from me;
You have made me an object of loathing to them.
I am shut up and I cannot go out.

⁹My eye grows dim with sorrow.
O LORD, I have called on You every day;
I have spread out my hands to You [in prayer].

¹⁰Will You perform wonders for the dead?
Shall the departed spirits arise and praise You?

Selah.

¹¹Will Your lovingkindness be declared in the grave
Or Your faithfulness in Abaddon (the underworld)?

¹²Will Your wonders be known in the darkness?
And Your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness [where the dead forget and are forgotten]?

- ¹³ But I have cried out to You, O LORD, for help; And in the morning my prayer will come to You.
- ¹⁴ O LORD, why do You reject me?
Why do You hide Your face from me? [Matt 27:46]
- ¹⁵ I was afflicted and close to death from my youth on;
I suffer Your terrors; I am overcome.
- ¹⁶ Your fierce wrath has swept over me;
Your terrors have destroyed me.
- ¹⁷ They have surrounded me like flood waters all day long;
They have completely encompassed me.
- ¹⁸ Lover and friend You have placed far from me;
My familiar friends are in darkness.

Psalm 89

The LORD's Covenant with David, and Israel's Afflictions.

A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem, of Ethan the Ezrahite.

- ¹ I WILL sing of the goodness and lovingkindness of the LORD forever; With my mouth I will make known Your faithfulness from generation to generation.
- ² For I have said, "Goodness and lovingkindness will be built up forever;
In the heavens [unchangeable and majestic] You will establish Your faithfulness."
- ³ [God has said] "I have made a covenant with My chosen one;

I have sworn to David My servant,
⁴I will establish your seed forever
And I will build up your throne for all generations.” [Is 9:7;
Jer 33:14–26; Luke 1:32, 33; Gal 3:16]

Selah.

⁵The heavens (angels) praise Your wonders, O LORD, Your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.

POWERPOINT

Perhaps like me, you have known people who were not faithful. But I have also known the faithfulness of God. Indeed, God is not like people, and His faithfulness surrounds Him (see Ps. 89:8). God promises to not ever leave you or forsake you, but to be with you until the very end (see Matt. 28:20). He is with you in your times of need, and He is planning to provide for all your needs (see Heb. 13:5). God is with you when you're going through trials, and He is planning your breakthrough (see 1 Cor. 10:13). When all others forsake you, God will stand by you (see 2 Tim. 4:16–17).

⁶For who in the heavens can be compared to the LORD?

- Who among the divine beings is like the LORD, ⁷A God greatly feared and reverently worshiped in the council of the holy [angelic] ones, And awesome above all those who are around Him?
- ⁸O LORD God of hosts, who is like You, O mighty LORD?
Your faithfulness surrounds You [as an intrinsic, unchangeable part of Your very being].
- ⁹You rule the swelling of the sea;
When its waves rise, You still them. [Ps 65:7; 107:29; Mark 4:39]
- ¹⁰You have crushed Rahab (Egypt) like one who is slain;
You have scattered Your enemies with Your mighty arm.
- ¹¹The heavens are Yours, the earth also is Yours;
The world and all that is in it, You have founded and established them. [Gen 1:3]
- ¹²The north and the south, You have created them;
Mount Tabor and Mount Hermon shout for joy at Your name.
- ¹³You have a strong arm;
Mighty is Your hand, Your right hand is exalted.
- ¹⁴Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your
throne;
Lovingkindness and truth go before You.
- ¹⁵Blessed and happy are the people who know the joyful sound [of the trumpet's blast]!
They walk, O LORD, in the light and favor of Your countenance!

- ¹⁶In Your name they rejoice all the day,
And in Your righteousness they are exalted.
- ¹⁷For You are the glory of their strength [their proud adornment],
And by Your favor our horn is exalted.
- ¹⁸For our shield belongs to the LORD,
And our king to the Holy One of Israel.
- ¹⁹Once You spoke in a vision to Your godly ones,
And said, "I have given help to one who is mighty [giving him the power to be a champion for Israel]; I have exalted one chosen from the people.
- ²⁰"I have found David My servant;
With My holy oil I have anointed him, [Acts 13:22]
- ²¹With whom My hand shall be established and steadfast;
My arm also shall strengthen him.
- ²²"The enemy will not outwit him,
Nor will the wicked man afflict or humiliate him.
- ²³"I will crush his adversaries before him,
And strike those who hate him.
- ²⁴"My faithfulness and My steadfast lovingkindness shall be with him,
And in My name shall his horn be exalted [great power and prosperity shall be conferred upon him].
- ²⁵"I will also set his hand on the [Mediterranean] sea,
And his right hand on the rivers [the tributaries of the Euphrates].

²⁶“He will cry to Me, ‘You are my Father,
My God, and the rock of my salvation.’

²⁷“I will also make him My firstborn (preeminent),

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Justifies and Vindicates

The psalmist said of the Lord, “Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne” (Ps. 89:14). Justice is one of God’s amazing and admirable character traits. He brings justice as we wait on Him and trust Him to be our Vindicator when we have been hurt or offended or wronged. In the face of cruel accusations, Job said so powerfully, “I know that my Redeemer and Vindicator lives, and at the last He will take His stand upon the earth” (Job 19:25).

God simply asks us to pray and forgive—and He does the rest. He makes even our pain work out for our good (see Rom. 8:28). He justifies, vindicates, and recompenses us. He pays us back for our pain if we follow His commands to forgive our enemies, and He even gives us double for our trouble (see Isa. 61:7; Job 42:10). Refuse to live in unforgiveness, and trust God to reward you for any mistreatment you have endured.

The highest of the kings of the earth. [Rev 1:5]

²⁸“My lovingkindness I will keep for him forevermore,
And My covenant will be confirmed to him.

²⁹“His descendants I will establish forever,
And his throne [will endure] as the days of heaven. [Is 9:7;
Jer 33:14–26; Gal 3:16]

- 30“If his children turn away from My law
And do not walk in My ordinances,
31If they break My statutes
And do not keep My commandments, 32Then I will punish their transgression with the rod [of discipline],
And [correct] their wickedness with stripes. [2 Sam 7:14] 33“Nevertheless, I will not break off My lovingkindness from
him,
Nor allow My faithfulness to fail.
34“My covenant I will not violate,
Nor will I alter the utterance of My lips.
35“Once [for all] I have sworn by My holiness, [My vow which cannot be violated];
I will not lie to David.
36“His descendants shall endure forever
And his throne [will continue] as the sun before Me. [Is 9:7;
Jer 33:14–26; Gal 3:16]
37“‘It shall be established forever like the moon,
And the witness in the heavens is ever faithful.’” [Rev 1:5; 3:14]

Selah.

- 38But [in apparent contradiction of all this] You [the faithful LORD] have cast off and rejected; You have been full of wrath against Your anointed.
39You have spurned and repudiated the covenant with Your servant;

- You have profaned his crown [by casting it] in the dust.
40 You have broken down all his [city] walls;
You have brought his strongholds to ruin.
41 All who pass along the road rob him;
He has become the scorn of his neighbors.
42 You have exalted the right hand of his foes;
You have made all his enemies rejoice.
43 Also, You have turned back the edge of his sword
And have not made him [strong enough] to stand in battle.
44 You have put an end to his splendor
And have hurled his throne to the ground.
45 You have shortened the days of his youth;
You have covered him with shame.

Selah.

- 46 How long, O LORD?
Will You hide Yourself forever?
Will Your wrath burn like fire?
47 Remember how fleeting my lifetime is;
For what vanity, [for what emptiness, for what futility, for what wisp of smoke] You have created all the sons of men!
48 What man can live and not see death?
Can he rescue his soul from the [powerful] hand of Sheol
(the nether world, the place of the dead)?

Selah.

- 49 O Lord, where are Your former lovingkindnesses [so abundant in the days of David and Solomon], Which You swore to David in Your faithfulness?

⁵⁰Remember, O Lord, the reproach of Your servants [scorned, insulted, and disgraced]; How I bear in my heart the reproach of all the many peoples,

⁵¹With which Your enemies have taunted, O LORD,
With which they have mocked the footsteps of Your anointed.

⁵²Blessed be the LORD forevermore!
Amen and Amen.

BOOK FOUR

Psalms 90

God's Eternity and Man's Transitoriness.

A Prayer of Moses the man of God.

¹LORD, YOU have been our dwelling place [our refuge, our sanctuary, our stability] in all generations.

²Before the mountains were born
Or before You had given birth to the earth and the world,
Even from everlasting to everlasting, You are [the eternal]
God.

³You turn man back to dust,
And say, "Return [to the earth], O children of [mortal] men!"

⁴For a thousand years in Your sight

Are like yesterday when it is past,
Or as a watch in the night. [2 Pet 3:8]

⁵You have swept them away like a flood, they fall asleep [forgotten as soon as they are gone]; In the morning they are like grass which grows anew— ⁶In the morning it flourishes and springs up;
In the evening it wilts and withers away.

⁷For we have been consumed by Your anger
And by Your wrath we have been terrified.

⁸You have placed our wickedness before you,
Our secret sins [which we tried to conceal, You have placed] in the [revealing] light of Your presence.

⁹For all our days pass away in Your wrath;
We have finished our years like a whispered sigh. [Num
14:26–35]

¹⁰The days of our life are seventy years—
Or even, if because of strength, eighty years;
Yet their pride [in additional years] is only labor and sorrow,
For it is soon gone and we fly away.

¹¹Who understands the power of Your anger? [Who connects this brevity of life among us with Your judgment of sin?]
And Your wrath, [who connects it] with the [reverent] fear that is due You?

¹²So teach us to number our days,
That we may cultivate and bring to You a heart of wisdom.

¹³Turn, O LORD [from Your fierce anger]; how long will it be?

Be compassionate toward Your servants—revoke Your sentence.

¹⁴O satisfy us with Your lovingkindness in the morning [now, before we grow older],

That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

¹⁵Make us glad in proportion to the days You have afflicted us,

And the years we have suffered evil.

¹⁶Let Your work [the signs of Your power] be revealed to Your servants And Your [glorious] majesty to their children.

¹⁷And let the [gracious] favor of the Lord our God be on us; Confirm for us the work of our hands—

Yes, confirm the work of our hands.

Psalm 91

Security of the One Who Trusts in the LORD.

¹HE WHO dwells in the shelter of the Most High
Will remain secure and rest in the shadow of the Almighty [whose power no enemy can withstand].

²I will say of the LORD, “He is my refuge and my fortress, My God, in whom I trust [with great confidence, and on whom I rely]!”

³For He will save you from the trap of the fowler,
And from the deadly pestilence.

⁴He will cover you and completely protect you with His pinions,
And under His wings you will find refuge;

His faithfulness is a shield and a wall.

⁵You will not be afraid of the terror of night,

Nor of the arrow that flies by day,

⁶Nor of the pestilence that stalks in darkness,

Nor of the destruction (sudden death) that lays waste at noon.

⁷A thousand may fall at your side

And ten thousand at your right hand,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Shelter of the Most High

Psalm 91:1 says that God has a place of shelter where we may dwell in peace and safety. The shelter is the place of rest in God, a place of peace and comfort in Him. This secret place is a “spiritual place” where worry is vanquished and peace reigns. It is the shelter of God’s presence. When we spend time praying and seeking God, dwelling in His presence, we are in the secret place, or shelter, of the Most High.

When you and I dwell in Christ or dwell in “the shelter of the Most High” (Ps. 91:1), we do not just visit there occasionally; we take up permanent residence in the shadow of the Almighty.

The shelter of the Most High is a hiding place, a private place, a place of refuge. It is our shelter when we are hurting, overwhelmed, or feeling faint. It is our dwelling place where we are secure and find rest beneath the shadow of the Almighty whose power no enemy can withstand. We experience the sheltering of God against our enemy when we are mistreated or persecuted, when we are in great need, or when we feel we just cannot take it anymore.

We can be firmly planted in God. We can know the source of our help in every situation and in every circumstance. We can have our own secret place of peace and security. We can rely on God and trust Him completely.

God invites us to take refuge under the protective shadow of His wings, and He wants us to remain there always.

POWERPOINT

In the Psalms, David frequently makes statements such as, “I will say of the LORD, ‘He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust [with great confidence, and on whom I rely]!’” (Ps. 91:2). Perhaps we should regularly ask ourselves, “What am I saying about the Lord?” We need to say right things, not just think them. A person may think, I believe good things about the Lord, but it’s important to also speak those things. People often claim to believe something, yet everything they say indicates they believe the opposite! Words have power, so when we have right beliefs about God, we need to be sure to speak them.

But danger will not come near you.

⁸You will only [be a spectator as you] look on with your eyes
And witness the [divine] repayment of the wicked [as you watch safely from the shelter of the Most High].

⁹Because you have made the LORD, [who is] my refuge, Even the Most High, your dwelling place, [Ps 91:1, 14]

¹⁰No evil will befall you,
Nor will any plague come near your tent.

Speak God's Word

I dwell in the shelter of the Most High and remain secure and rest under the shadow of the Almighty whose power no enemy can withstand. He will cover me and completely protect me with His pinions, and under His wings I will find refuge; His faithfulness is a shield and a wall.

- ¹¹For He will command His angels in regard to you,
To protect and defend and guard you in all your ways [of obedience and service].
- ¹²They will lift you up in their hands,
So that you do not [even] strike your foot against a stone.
[Luke 4:10, 11; Heb 1:14]
- ¹³You will tread upon the lion and cobra;
The young lion and the serpent you will trample underfoot.
[Luke 10:19]

I will be with him in trouble;
I will rescue him and honor him.

¹⁶“With a long life I will satisfy him
And I will let him see My salvation.”

Psalm 92

Praise for the LORD's Goodness.

A Psalm. A Song for the Sabbath day.

¹IT IS a good and delightful thing to give thanks to the LORD, To sing praises to Your name, O Most High,

²To declare Your lovingkindness in the morning
And Your faithfulness by night,

³With an instrument of ten strings and with the harp,
With a solemn sound on the lyre.

⁴For You, O LORD, have made me glad by Your works;
At the works of Your hands I joyfully sing.

⁵How great are Your works, O LORD!
Your thoughts are very deep [beyond man's understanding].

⁶A senseless man [in his crude and uncultivated state] knows nothing,
Nor does a [self-righteous] fool understand this:

⁷That though the wicked sprout up like grass

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

God's Angelic Protection

Psalm 91:9–13 shows us clearly that the Lord promises angelic protection and deliverance to those who serve Him and are walking in obedience to Him. Verse 13 says, “You will tread upon the lion and cobra; the young lion and the serpent you will trample underfoot.” Jesus makes a similar statement to His disciples in Luke 10:19 when He says: “Listen carefully: I have given you authority [that you now possess] to tread on serpents and scorpions, and [the ability to exercise authority] over all the power of the enemy (Satan); and nothing will [in any way] harm you.” These words describe our place in God. As believers, we are in a position of power and authority over the enemy and his demons and his deceptive ways. We are also in a position of favor and influence with God.

Saying we have angelic protection does not mean we will never experience any trial or affliction. It means we are protected from whatever the enemy ultimately plans for us as long as we keep our trust in God and believe and speak of Him in accordance with His Word.

One important thing we learn about this angelic protection and our deliverance is that we don't always experience an immediate breakthrough, so we need to be patient. The Lord promises in Psalm 91:15 that when we call on Him, He will answer us and be with us in our troubles; He will strengthen us and accompany us through our difficulties to victory, deliverance, and honor. It took many years for me to see the following pattern: God is with me in my trials and troubles, then He begins to deliver me out of them, and afterward He honors me. This is a progression, and we will develop peace and joy in the Lord as we go through it. Going through things with God helps us to develop a more intimate relationship with Him.

Psalm 91:14–16 assures us that we have been given His precious promises because of our personal knowledge of God and of His mercy, love, and kindness, and because we trust and rely on Him, knowing He will never leave us or forsake us. These promises include the fact that He will be with us, answer us, deliver us, and honor us with long and abundant life. These assurances give us great peace and enable us to live without worry.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Thank You, God, for the assurance of Your angelic protection and for Your promises to be with me, to answer me, deliver me, and honor me with long and abundant life. In Jesus' name. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Happy Thoughts, Happy Words, Happy Life

The more we speak about something, the more we will have of it. For example, if you talk about the people and things you don't like, you will dislike them even more, but talking about the people and things you love will increase the ability to love in your life.

Very few people learn this blessed lesson: Love the life you have and never compare yourself, or what you have, to anyone else and you will “flourish and be vital and fresh [rich in trust and love and contentment]” (Ps. 92:14). Learn to love everything except evil. If you dislike something, change it if you can, but if you cannot then trust God and stay happy. If you don't like your job, you can look for a different one. If you don't like your neighborhood, you can move. If you don't like the weather, realize you can't change it and change your attitude toward it.

The more you are filled with loving thoughts and the more you speak loving words, the happier you will be.

And all evildoers flourish,
They will be destroyed forever.

⁸But You, LORD, are on high forever.

⁹For behold, Your enemies, O LORD,
For behold, Your enemies will perish;

All who do evil will be scattered.

¹⁰But my horn [my emblem of strength and power] You have exalted like that of a wild ox; I am anointed with fresh oil [for Your service].

¹¹My eye has looked on my foes;
My ears hear of the evildoers who rise up against me.

¹²The righteous will flourish like the date palm [long-lived, upright and useful];
They will grow like a cedar in Lebanon [majestic and stable].

¹³Planted in the house of the LORD,
They will flourish in the courts of our God.

¹⁴[Growing in grace] they will still thrive and bear fruit and prosper in old age; They will flourish and be vital and fresh [rich in trust and love and contentment];

¹⁵[They are living memorials] to declare that the LORD is upright and faithful [to His promises]; He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in Him. [Rom 9:14]

Psalm 93

The Majesty of the LORD.

¹THE LORD reigns, He is clothed with majesty and splendor;
The LORD has clothed and encircled Himself with strength;
the world is firmly established, it cannot be moved.

²Your throne is established from of old;
You are from everlasting.

³The floods have lifted up, O LORD,
The floods have lifted up their voice;
The floods lift up their pounding waves.

⁴More than the sounds of many waters,
More than the mighty breakers of the sea,
The LORD on high is mighty.

⁵Your precepts are fully confirmed and completely reliable;
Holiness adorns Your house,
O LORD, forever.

Psalm 94

The LORD Implored to Avenge His People.

¹O LORD God, You to whom vengeance belongs,
O God, You to whom vengeance belongs, shine forth [in judgment]!

²Rise up, O Judge of the earth;
Give to the proud a fitting compensation.

- ³O LORD, how long will the wicked,
How long will the wicked rejoice in triumph?
- ⁴They pour out words, speaking arrogant things;
All who do evil boast proudly. [Jude 14, 15]
- ⁵They crush Your people, O LORD,
And afflict and abuse Your heritage.
- ⁶They kill the widow and the alien
And murder the fatherless.
- ⁷Yet they say, “The LORD does not see,
Nor does the God of Jacob (Israel) notice it.”
- ⁸Consider thoughtfully, you senseless (stupid ones) among the people;
And you [dull-minded] fools, when will you become wise and understand?
- ⁹He who made the ear, does He not hear?
He who formed the eye, does He not see?
- ¹⁰He who instructs the nations,
Does He not rebuke and punish,
He who teaches man knowledge?
- ¹¹The LORD knows the thoughts of man,
That they are a mere breath (vain, empty, futile). [1 Cor 3:20]
- ¹²Blessed [with wisdom and prosperity] is the man whom You discipline and instruct, O LORD,

Speak God's Word

I am blessed with wisdom and prosperity because the Lord disciplines and instructs me.

Nor will He abandon His inheritance.

lovingkindness, O Lord, hold me up. When my anxious thoughts multiply within me,
Your comforts delight me.*

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Finding Peace in Adversity

We all have a tipping point in our lives when we recognize we are under so much pressure that we are on the verge of losing our peace and are about to start behaving badly. The psalmist asked the Lord to grant His people “[power to calm himself and find] peace in the days of adversity” (Ps. 94:13). Here are some steps that will hopefully help the process: Step 1 —When we feel overwhelmed, we usually start talking to anyone who will listen. We will never regain control unless we stop talking and regroup!

Step 2—Be realistic about what is really happening. Is the problem really as bad as you are imagining it to be? Are you worrying about things that have not even happened yet and may never happen?

Step 3—As you begin to calm down, ask yourself if any of the things you feel overloaded with can be put off until later or perhaps handed off to someone else. Is help available if you ask for it? If you truly want change within your circumstances, you will need to be willing to make some changes yourself.

Step 4—Think about what you are thinking about that is frustrating you and stop thinking about it. Cast your care on God and let Him show you what He can do. Keep saying, “God, I let this go. I trust You!” until you feel yourself calming down.

Step 5—We can manage our emotions and learn to live beyond our feelings. Being the master or mistress of yourself under God’s leadership is entirely possible, but it will not happen as long as you let raw emotion rule. We cannot prevent feelings from coming, but we are totally capable of using self-control even in the midst of the wildest emotion.

Step 6—Resist the devil at his onset! The root source of all lack of peace is the devil, not people or even circumstances. It is the devil’s working through the people or the circumstance. The devil has set you up to be upset, and the sooner you take action and resist him, the easier it will be.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

God of all peace, I thank You for granting me the power to calm myself and find peace in the midst of troubling situations. Give me the wisdom I need to manage my emotions and resist the enemy’s attacks to get me to be upset. In Jesus’ name. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

First Response

When we worry, we are focusing on our problems. When we are anxious about things, we talk about them incessantly. Why? Because what is in our heart eventually comes out of our mouth (see Matt. 12:34). The more we think and talk about our problems, the larger they become. Rather than meditating on the problems, we can meditate on the faithfulness of God and remind ourselves there is no need to worry. The psalmist said, “When my anxious thoughts multiply within me, Your comforts delight me” (Ps. 94:19).

I have heard many people say, “I just can’t help it, I am a worrier.” The truth is that people often choose to worry because they do not know how to trust God. We become good at worrying because we practice at it; therefore, we can become good at trusting God if we practice. Let your first response in any situation be to trust God.

²²But the LORD has become my high tower and defense, And my God the rock of my refuge.

²³He has turned back their own wickedness upon them And will destroy them by means of their own evil; The LORD our God will wipe them out.

Psalm 95

Praise to the LORD, and Warning against Unbelief.

- ¹O COME, let us sing joyfully to the LORD;
Let us shout joyfully to the rock of our salvation.
- ²Let us come before His presence with a song of thanksgiving;
Let us shout joyfully to Him with songs.
- ³For the LORD is a great God
And a great King above all gods,
- ⁴In whose hand are the depths of the earth;
The peaks of the mountains are His also.
- ⁵The sea is His, for He made it [by His command];
And His hands formed the dry land. [Gen 1:9]
- ⁶O come, let us worship and bow down,
Let us kneel before the LORD our Maker [in reverent praise and prayer].
- ⁷For He is our God
And we are the people of His pasture and the sheep of His hand.
Today, if you will hear His voice, [Heb 3:7–11]
- ⁸Do not harden your hearts and become spiritually dull as at Meribah [the place of strife], And as at Massah [the place of testing] in the wilderness, [Ex 17:1–7; Num 20:1–13;
Deut 6:16]

⁹“When your fathers tested Me,
They tried Me, even though they had seen My work [of miracles].

¹⁰“For forty years I was grieved and disgusted with that generation,
And I said, ‘They are a people who err in their heart,

Speak God's Word

Today, if I hear God's voice, I will not harden my heart or become spiritually dull.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Live in the Now

Psalm 95:7 says, “Today, if you will hear His voice.” We need to understand that God wants us to focus on each day as it comes and to learn how to be “now” people.

The choices we make today will determine whether we will enjoy every moment in our lives or waste them by being anxious or upset. Sometimes we end up missing part of today because we are too concerned about tomorrow. We need to keep our minds focused on what God wants us to be doing now.

For years, this has been my definition of anxiety: “Anxiety is caused by trying to mentally or emotionally get into things that are not here yet (the future) or things that have already been (the past).” We often spend our mental time in the past or in the future, instead of living in the moment we have now. When we don’t truly give ourselves to what we are doing at the moment, we become prone to anxiety. If we live in the now, we will find the Lord there with us. Regardless of the situations life brings our way, God has promised never to leave us or forsake us but to always be with us and help us (see Heb. 13:5; Matt. 28:20). Don’t waste your precious “now” worrying about yesterday or tomorrow. Live today!

And they do not acknowledge or regard My ways.’

- ¹¹“Therefore I swore [an oath] in My wrath, ‘They absolutely shall not enter My rest [the land of promise].’” [Heb 4:3–11]

Psalm 96

A Call to Worship the LORD the Righteous Judge.

¹O SING to the LORD a new song;
Sing to the LORD, all the earth!

²Sing to the LORD, bless His name;
Proclaim good news of His salvation from day to day.

³Declare His glory among the nations,
His marvelous works and wonderful deeds among all the peoples.

⁴For great is the LORD and greatly to be praised;
He is to be feared above all gods. [Deut 6:5; Rev 14:7]

⁵For all the gods of the peoples are [worthless, lifeless] idols,
But the LORD made the heavens.

⁶Splendor and majesty are before Him;
Strength and beauty are in His sanctuary.

⁷Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, Ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

⁸Ascribe to the LORD the glory of His name;
Bring an offering and come into His courts.

⁹Worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness;
Tremble [in submissive wonder] before Him, all the earth.

- ¹⁰Say among the nations, “The LORD reigns;
Indeed, the world is firmly and securely established, it shall not be moved;
He will judge and rule the people with fairness.” [Rev 11:15;
19:6]
- ¹¹Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;
Let the sea roar, and all the things it contains;
- ¹²Let the field be exultant, and all that is in it.
Then all the trees of the forest will sing for joy
- ¹³Before the LORD, for He is coming,
For He is coming to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with righteousness
And the peoples in His faithfulness. [1 Chr 16:23–33; Rev
19:11]

Psalm 97

The LORD’s Power and Dominion.

- ¹THE LORD reigns, let the earth rejoice;
Let the many islands and coastlands be glad.
- ²Clouds and thick darkness surround Him [as at Sinai];
Righteousness and justice are the foundation of His throne.
[Ex 19:9]
- ³Fire goes before Him
And burns up His adversaries on all sides.
- ⁴His lightnings have illuminated the world;
The earth has seen and trembled.

- ⁵The mountains melted like wax at the presence of the LORD,
At the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
- ⁶The heavens declare His righteousness,
And all the peoples see His glory and brilliance.
- ⁷Let all those be [deeply] ashamed who serve carved images,
Who boast in idols.
Worship Him, all you gods! [Heb 1:6]
- ⁸Zion heard this and was glad,
And the daughters (cities) of Judah rejoiced [in relief]
Because of Your judgments, O LORD.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that light is sown like seed for the righteous and illuminates our path. And irrepressible joy is spread for the upright in heart who delight in Your favor and protection.

⁹For You are the LORD Most High over all the earth;
You are exalted far above all gods.

¹⁰You who love the LORD, hate evil;
He protects the souls of His godly ones (believers),
He rescues them from the hand of the wicked. [Rom 8:13–17]

¹¹Light is sown [like seed] for the righteous and illuminates their path,
And [irrepressible] joy [is spread] for the upright in heart
[who delight in His favor and protection].

¹²Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous ones [those whose moral and spiritual integrity places them in right standing with God], And praise and give thanks at the remembrance of His holy name.

Psalm 98

A Call to Praise the LORD for His Righteousness.

A Psalm

¹O SING to the LORD a new song,
For He has done marvelous and wonderful things;
His right hand and His holy arm have gained the victory for Him.

²The LORD has made known His salvation;
He has [openly] revealed His righteousness in the sight of the nations. [Luke 2:30, 31]

³He has [graciously] remembered His lovingkindness and His faithfulness to the house of Israel; All the ends of the earth have witnessed the salvation of our God. [Acts 13:47; 28:28]

⁴Shout joyfully to the LORD, all the earth; Shout [in jubilation] and sing for joy and sing praises.

⁵Sing praises to the LORD with the lyre,
With the lyre and the sound of melody.

⁶With trumpets and the sound of the horn
Shout with joy before the King, the LORD.

⁷Let the sea thunder and roar, and all the things it contains,
The world and those who dwell in it.

⁸Let the rivers clap their hands;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Your Thoughts Reveal Themselves

Your thought life is directly related to your attitude. In other words, what you think secretly in your heart is expressed in your words, facial expressions, and attitudes. Would you rather be around people who have negative attitudes or around people with humble attitudes, thankful attitudes, positive attitudes, and responsible attitudes?

Let me encourage you to take an attitude inventory. If your attitude were a song, would it be “Make the World Go Away,” “Raindrops Keep Falling on My Head,” “I Did It My Way,” or “Oh, What a Beautiful Morning”?

The psalmist’s attitude was, “O sing to the LORD a new song, for He has done marvelous and wonderful things” (Ps. 98:1). Fresh, new ways of thinking will produce a fresh, new attitude that will enable you to sing to the Lord a new song.

Let the mountains sing together for joy and delight
⁹Before the LORD, for He is coming to judge the earth;
He will judge the world with righteousness
And the peoples with fairness.

Psalm 99

Praise to the LORD for His Fidelity to Israel.

¹THE LORD reigns, let the peoples tremble [with submissive wonder]!

He sits enthroned above the cherubim, let the earth shake!

²The LORD is great in Zion,

And He is exalted and magnified above all the peoples.

³Let them [reverently] praise Your great and awesome name;
Holy is He. [Rev 15:4]

⁴The strength of the King loves justice and righteous judgment;

You have established fairness;

You have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob (Israel).

⁵Exalt the LORD our God

And worship at His footstool;

Holy is He.

⁶Moses and Aaron were among His priests,

And Samuel was among those who called on His name;

They called upon the LORD and He answered them.

⁷He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud;

POWERPOINT

Here is a powerful thought to think: I believe God. I believe He is working in me no matter what I may feel or how the situation may look. I recommend that you purposely think right thoughts and that you also go the extra mile and speak them out loud as your confession—“call upon the Lord” as Moses, Aaron, and Samuel did (see Ps. 99:6).

Remember that God is delivering you, little by little, so don't be discouraged. Be patient with yourself.

They kept His testimonies

And the statutes that He gave them. [Ps 105:9, 10]

⁸You answered them, O LORD our God;

You were a forgiving God to them,

And yet an avenger of their evil practices.

⁹Exalt the LORD our God

And worship at His holy hill [Zion, the temple mount],

For the LORD our God is holy.

Psalm 100

All Men Exhorted to Praise God.

A Psalm of Thanksgiving.

¹SHOUT JOYFULLY to the LORD, all the earth.

²Serve the LORD with gladness and delight;

Come before His presence with joyful singing.

³Know and fully recognize with gratitude that the LORD

Himself is God; It is He who has made us, not we ourselves [and we are His].

We are His people and the sheep of His pasture. [Eph 2:10]

⁴Enter His gates with a song of thanksgiving

And His courts with praise.

Be thankful to Him, bless and praise His name.

⁵For the LORD is good;

His mercy and lovingkindness are everlasting,

His faithfulness [endures] to all generations.

Psalm 101

The Psalmist's Profession of Uprightness.

A Psalm of David.

¹I WILL sing of [steadfast] lovingkindness and justice;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Look for Something To Be Thankful For

Prayer often goes unanswered because of an ungrateful heart. There are people who are grumblers, murmurers, faultfinders, and complainers. We must be careful not to be like that. We need to be the kind of people who are thankful for what God is doing. Complaining and being ungrateful are major hindrances to answered prayers.

If we want to see God at work in our spouse, our children, our finances, our circumstances, our job, we can start by being grateful for what we already have.

The Holy Spirit once impressed on me the idea that when people pray and ask God for things but don't have a thankful heart, it's a clear indication that they're not ready for something else because they won't be thankful for that either. The devil's whole plan is to keep us dissatisfied with something all the time. Being ungrateful is a symptom of a lack of spiritual maturity.

God wants us to grow in maturity and become more like His Son, Jesus. God's answer to ingratitude is a life filled with thanksgiving and praise.

Look for something today to be thankful for and offer up a prayer of praise and thanksgiving (see Ps. 100:4).

KEYS to a Victorious Life

A Humble Heart

God hates pride, and it is something we need to be quick to recognize in our thoughts, words, and attitudes. Every human will have to confront pride at various times in life. Pride makes us think we are better than others; it causes us to judge and criticize; and it makes us unwilling to listen to and respect the ideas and opinions of others. These are just a few of the problems pride creates.

God's Word teaches us that God helps the humble (see 1 Pet. 5:5), but He is unable to help those who are proud because they don't think they need help. They are independent, but God wants us to be totally dependent on Him.

If we want to follow God's advice and humble ourselves under His mighty hand (see 1 Pet. 5:6), we need to learn to say, "Apart from Jesus I can do nothing" (see John 15:5). Ask God to work in your life in such a way that you develop the same humble attitude that Jesus has.

To You, O LORD, I will sing praises.

²I will behave wisely and follow the way of integrity.

When will You come to me?

I will walk in my house in integrity and with a blameless heart.

³I will set no worthless or wicked thing before my eyes.

I hate the practice of those who fall away [from the right path];

It will not grasp hold of me.

⁴A perverse heart shall depart from me;

I will not tolerate evil.

⁵Whoever secretly slanders his neighbor, him I will silence;

The one who has a haughty look and a proud (arrogant) heart I will not tolerate.

⁶My eyes will be on the faithful (honorable) of the land, that they may dwell with me; He who walks blamelessly is the one who will minister to and serve me.

⁷He who practices deceit will not dwell in my house; He who tells lies and half-truths will not continue [to remain] in my presence.

⁸Morning after morning I will destroy all the wicked in the land,

That I may cut off from the city of the LORD all those who do evil.

Psalm 102

Prayer of an Afflicted Man for Mercy on Himself and on Zion.

A Prayer of the afflicted; when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint to God.

¹HEAR MY prayer, O LORD,

And let my cry for help come to You!

²Do not hide Your face from me in the day of my distress!

- Incline Your ear to me;
In the day when I call, answer me quickly.
- ³For my days have vanished in smoke,
And my bones have been scorched like a hearth.
- ⁴My heart has been struck like grass and withered,
Indeed, [absorbed by my heartache] I forget to eat my food.
- ⁵Because of the sound of my groaning [in suffering and trouble]
My bones cling to my flesh.
- ⁶I am like a [mournful] vulture of the wilderness;
I am like a [desolate] owl of the wasteland.
- ⁷I am sleepless and lie awake [mourning],
I have become like a lonely bird on a housetop.
- ⁸My enemies taunt me all day long;
Those who ridicule me use my name as a curse.
- ⁹For I have eaten ashes like bread,
And have mingled my drink with tears [Is 44:20]
- ¹⁰Because of Your indignation and Your wrath,
For You have lifted me up and thrown me away.
- ¹¹My days are like an evening shadow that lengthens and
vanishes [with the sun];
And as for me, I wither away like grass.
- ¹²But You, O LORD, are enthroned forever [ruling eternally as sovereign]; And [the fame and glory of] Your name [endures] to all generations.
- ¹³You will arise and have compassion on Zion,

POWERPOINT

Those who are afflicted and going through very difficult situations can expect God to bring deliverance to them. He will never allow more to come to us than we can bear, and He always provides a way out of temptation (see 1 Cor. 10:13).

You can be confident that at the exact right moment God will arise and have mercy and compassion on you. Whenever you experience a difficult or a trying time, be encouraged that God sees your situation. Know that as long as you put your trust in Him, you will definitely see victory. Stay in faith and be patient. God won't be late.

For it is time to be gracious and show favor to her;
Yes, the appointed time [the moment designated] has come.

[Ps 12:5; 119:126]

- ¹⁴For Your servants find [melancholy] pleasure in the stones
[of her ruins]
And feel pity for her dust.
- ¹⁵So the nations will fear the name of the LORD,
And all the kings of the earth [will recognize] Your glory. [Ps
96:9]
- ¹⁶For the LORD has built up Zion;
He has appeared in His glory and brilliance;
- ¹⁷He has regarded the prayer of the destitute,
And has not despised their prayer.
- ¹⁸Let this be recorded for the generation to come,
That a people yet to be created will praise the LORD.
- ¹⁹For He looked down from His holy height [of His sanctuary],
From heaven the LORD gazed on the earth,
- ²⁰To hear the sighing of the prisoner,
To set free those who were doomed to death,
- ²¹So that people may declare the name of the LORD in Zion
And His praise in Jerusalem,
- ²²When the peoples are gathered together,
And the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.
- ²³He has exhausted my strength [humbling me with sorrow] in the way;
He has shortened my days.
- ²⁴I said, "O my God, do not take me away in the midst of my days;

Your years are [eternal] throughout all generations.

²⁵“At the beginning You founded the earth;

The heavens are the work of Your hands.

²⁶“Even they will perish, but You endure;

Yes, all of them will wear out like a garment.

Like clothing You will change them and they shall be changed.

²⁷“But You remain the same,

And Your years will never end. [Heb 1:10–12]

²⁸“The children of Your servants will continue,

And their descendants will be established before You.”

Psalm 103

Praise for the LORD's Mercies.

A Psalm of David.

¹BLESS AND affectionately praise the LORD, O my soul, And all that is [deep] within me, bless His holy name.

²Bless and affectionately praise the LORD, O my soul, And do not forget any of His benefits;

³Who forgives all your sins,
Who heals all your diseases;

⁴Who redeems your life from the pit,
Who crowns you [lavishly] with lovingkindness and tender mercy;

⁵Who satisfies your years with good things,

So that your youth is renewed like the [soaring] eagle. [Is 40:31]

⁶The LORD executes righteousness
And justice for all the oppressed.

⁷He made known His ways [of righteousness and justice] to Moses,
His acts to the children of Israel.

⁸The LORD is merciful and gracious, Slow to anger and abounding in compassion and lovingkindness. [James 5:11]

Speak God's Word

I bless and praise the Lord, and I do not forget any of His benefits. He forgives all my sins; He heals all my diseases; He redeems my life from the pit. He crowns me with lovingkindness and tender mercy. He satisfies my years with good things, so that my youth is renewed like the eagle.

| adapted from PSALM 103:2-5 |

POWERPOINT

Psalm 103:14 reminds us that God understands our weaknesses. He knows we will at times succumb to temptations and wrong behavior, but He is also a compassionate, loving Father Who stands ready to forgive everything. The very fact that we cannot do everything right is the reason God sent Jesus to pay the price for our redemption.

- ⁹He will not always strive with us,
Nor will He keep His anger forever.
- ¹⁰He has not dealt with us according to our sins [as we deserve],
Nor rewarded us [with punishment] according to our
wickedness.
- ¹¹For as the heavens are high above the earth,

So great is His lovingkindness toward those who fear and worship Him [with awe-filled respect and deepest reverence].

¹²As far as the east is from the west,
So far has He removed our transgressions from us.

¹³Just as a father loves his children,
So the LORD loves those who fear and worship Him [with awe-filled respect and deepest reverence].

¹⁴For He knows our [mortal] frame;
He remembers that we are [merely] dust.

¹⁵As for man, his days are like grass;
Like a flower of the field, so he flourishes.

¹⁶For the wind passes over it and it is no more,
And its place knows it no longer.

¹⁷But the lovingkindness of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who [reverently] fear Him, And His righteousness to children's children, [Deut 10:12]

¹⁸To those who honor and keep His covenant,

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Don't Let Your Thoughts Drain Your Energy

I believe God gives each of us abilities and corresponding energy to help us fulfill our destiny. If you are lacking energy, it may be due to faulty thinking in some area of your life. Negative thoughts—fear, bitterness, guilt, discouragement, resentment, unforgiveness, and others—always steal energy.

Some of the most energy-draining kinds of thoughts are those about past mistakes, failures, and sins, which produce guilt and condemnation. The enemy loves to fill our minds with thoughts of past failures that we cannot do anything about. But we can choose which way we think. We can think about the past and what we have lost or we can think about the future and the opportunities in front of us. We can think about our sins, or we can think about God's grace manifested by His sending Jesus to pay for our sins and remove them "as far as the east is from the west" (Ps. 103:12).

We cannot pay for our sins with feelings of guilt, because Jesus already paid for our sins when He died on the cross. His sacrifice is good for all time (see Heb. 9:28; 10:10). There is nothing we can add to what Jesus has done. We can only humbly and gratefully accept the complete forgiveness He offers and refuse the guilt.

People who love God often suffer terribly with guilty thoughts and feelings over every tiny thing they do wrong. For years I was one of those people, but learning to line up my thinking with God's Word has set me free. When I sin, I am quick to repent and receive forgiveness. When guilt comes, I simply think or sometimes say, "I am forgiven completely and there is no guilt or condemnation for those who are in Christ" (see Rom. 8:1). The mind is the battlefield, and if we want victory and enjoyment in life, we need to be willing to learn how to control and properly manage our thoughts.

God did not design us to continually feel bad about ourselves. We are not built for guilt! God loves us and wants us to keep our hearts light and free. Thoughts that produce guilt or condemnation should immediately be resisted in Jesus' name.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord Jesus, because of Your suffering and death, I am forgiven completely and I have no guilt or condemnation for past failures and sins. Thank You that I can bring my thoughts into obedience to You and live in the freedom of Your grace and power. Amen.

And remember to do His commandments [imprinting His word on their hearts].

¹⁹The LORD has established His throne in the heavens, And His sovereignty rules over all [the universe].

²⁰Bless the LORD, you His angels,
You mighty ones who do His commandments,
Obeying the voice of His word!

²¹Bless the LORD, all you His hosts,
You who serve Him and do His will.

²²Bless the LORD, all you works of His, in all places of His dominion; Bless and affectionately praise the LORD, O my soul!

Psalm 104

The LORD's Care over All His Works.

- ¹BLESS AND affectionately praise the LORD, O my soul!
O LORD my God, You are very great;
You are clothed with splendor and majesty,
²[You are the One] who covers Yourself with light as with a garment,
Who stretches out the heavens like a tent curtain,
³Who lays the beams of His upper chambers in the waters
[above the firmament],
Who makes the clouds His chariot,
Who walks on the wings of the wind,
⁴Who makes winds His messengers,
Flames of fire His ministers. [Heb 1:7]
- ⁵He established the earth on its foundations,
So that it will not be moved forever and ever. [Job 38:4, 6]
- ⁶You covered it with the deep as with a garment;
The waters were standing above the mountains. [Gen 1:2; 2 Pet 3:5]
- ⁷At Your rebuke they fled;
At the sound of Your thunder they hurried away.
- ⁸The mountains rose, the valleys sank down
To the place which You established for them.
- ⁹You set a boundary [for the waters] that they may not cross over,

So that they will not return to cover the earth.

- ¹⁰You send springs into the valleys;
Their waters flow among the mountains.
- ¹¹They give drink to every beast of the field;
The wild donkeys quench their thirst there.
- ¹²Beside them the birds of the heavens have their nests;
They lift up their voices and sing among the branches.
[Matt 13:32]
- ¹³He waters the mountains from His upper chambers;
The earth is satisfied with the fruit of His works.
- ¹⁴He causes grass to grow for the cattle,
And all that the earth produces for cultivation by man,
So that he may bring food from the earth—
- ¹⁵And wine which makes the heart of man glad,
So that he may make his face glisten with oil,
And bread to sustain and strengthen man's heart.
- ¹⁶The trees of the LORD drink their fill,
The cedars of Lebanon which He has planted,
- ¹⁷Where the birds make their nests;
As for the stork, the fir trees are her house.
- ¹⁸The high mountains are for the wild goats;
The rocks are a refuge for the shepherim.
- ¹⁹He made the moon for the seasons;
The sun knows the [exact] place of its setting.

- ²⁰You [O LORD] make darkness and it becomes night,
In which prowls about every wild beast of the forest.
- ²¹The young lions roar after their prey
And seek their food from God.
- ²²When the sun arises, they withdraw
And lie down in their dens.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Old Things Have Passed Away

As “a new creation” in Christ, you don’t have to allow the old things that happened to you to keep affecting you. The old things have passed away. You’re a new person with a new life in Christ (see 2 Cor. 5:17). You can begin to have your mind renewed by studying God’s Word and learning about His good plan for you. Good things are going to happen to you, and you can start believing that you will be “filled and satisfied with good [things]” (Ps. 104:28).

Even if your reality is filled with negatives, you can still have a positive attitude toward it. In every situation, trust God and know that He loves you. Believe that He works good out of all things (see Rom. 8:28).

Rejoice! It’s a new day, a day for good things!

²³Man goes out to his work

And remains at his labor until evening.

²⁴O LORD, how many and varied are Your works!

In wisdom You have made them all;

The earth is full of Your riches and Your creatures.

²⁵There is the sea, great and broad,

In which are swarms without number,

Creatures both small and great.

- ²⁶There the ships [of the sea] sail,
And Leviathan [the sea monster], which You have formed to play there.
- ²⁷They all wait for You
To give them their food in its appointed season.
- ²⁸You give it to them, they gather it up;
You open Your hand, they are filled and satisfied with good [things].
- ²⁹You hide Your face, they are dismayed;
You take away their breath, they die
And return to their dust.
- ³⁰You send out Your Spirit, they are created;
You renew the face of the ground.
- ³¹May the glory of the LORD endure forever; May the LORD rejoice and be glad in His works— ³²He looks at the earth, and it trembles;
He touches the mountains, and they smoke.
- ³³I will sing to the LORD as long as I live;
I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.
- ³⁴May my meditation be sweet and pleasing to Him;
As for me, I will rejoice and be glad in the LORD.
- ³⁵Let sinners be consumed from the earth,
And let the wicked be no more.
Bless and affectionately praise the LORD, O my soul.
Praise the LORD! (Hallelujah!)

Psalm 105

The LORD's Wonderful Works in Behalf of Israel.

¹O GIVE thanks to the LORD, call upon His name;
Make known His deeds among the people.

²Sing to Him, sing praises to Him;
Speak of all His wonderful acts and devoutly praise them.

³Glory in His holy name;
Let the hearts of those who seek and require the LORD [as their most essential need] rejoice.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Be Full of God

Does God want us to be full of ourselves? No! According to Ephesians 3:19, we are supposed to be full of God! We are to get our minds off of ourselves and fill them instead with the “fullness of God.” Let your mind and mouth and your entire body be “completely filled and flooded with God Himself!” We can do this by thinking about Him, talking about Him, and letting our actions glorify Him.

I encourage you to follow David’s instruction in Psalm 105:4: “Seek and deeply long for the LORD and His strength [His power, His might]; seek and deeply long for His face and His presence continually.” The one thing that David wanted was God!

⁴Seek and deeply long for the LORD and His strength [His power, His might]; Seek and deeply long for His face and His presence continually.

⁵Remember [with awe and gratitude] the wonderful things which He has done,
His amazing deeds and the judgments uttered by His mouth
[on His enemies, as in Egypt], [Ps 78:43–51]

⁶O you offspring of Abraham, His servant,
O you sons of Jacob, His chosen ones!

- ⁷He is the LORD our God;
His judgments are in all the earth.
- ⁸He has remembered His covenant forever,
The word which He commanded and established to a thousand generations,
- ⁹*The covenant* which He made with Abraham,
And His sworn oath to Isaac, [Luke 1:72, 73]
- ¹⁰Which He confirmed to Jacob as a statute,
To Israel as an everlasting covenant,
- ¹¹Saying, “To you I will give the land of Canaan
As the measured portion of your inheritance.”
- ¹²When there were only a few men in number,
Very few [in fact], and strangers in it;
- ¹³And they wandered from one nation to another,
From one kingdom to another people,
- ¹⁴He allowed no man to oppress them;
He rebuked kings for their sakes, saying, [Gen 12:17; 20:3–7]
- ¹⁵“Do not touch My anointed ones,
And do My prophets no harm.” [1 Chr 16:8–22]
- ¹⁶And He called for a famine upon the land [of Egypt];
He cut off every source of bread. [Gen 41:54]
- ¹⁷He sent a man before them,
Joseph, who was sold as a slave. [Gen 45:5; 50:20, 21]
- ¹⁸His feet they hurt with shackles;
He was put in chains of iron,

- ¹⁹Until the time that his word [of prophecy regarding his brothers] came true,
The word of the LORD tested and refined him.
- ²⁰The king sent and released him,
The ruler of the peoples [of Egypt], and set him free.
- ²¹He made Joseph lord of his house
And ruler of all his possessions, [Gen 41:40]
- ²²To imprison his princes at his will,
That he might teach his elders wisdom.
- ²³Israel also came into Egypt;
Thus Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham. [Gen 46:6]
- ²⁴There the LORD greatly increased [the number of] His people, And made them more powerful than their enemies.
- ²⁵He turned the heart [of the Egyptians] to hate His people,
To deal craftily with His servants.
- ²⁶He sent Moses His servant,
And Aaron, whom He had chosen.
- ²⁷They exhibited His wondrous signs among them,
Great miracles in the land of Ham (Egypt).
- ²⁸He sent [thick, oppressive] darkness and made the land
dark;
And Moses and Aaron did not rebel against His words. [Ex
10:22; Ps 99:7]
- ²⁹He turned Egypt's waters into blood
And caused their fish to die. [Ex 7:20, 21]

- ³⁰ Their land swarmed with frogs,
Even in the chambers of their kings. [Ex 8:6]
- ³¹ He spoke, and there came swarms of flies
And gnats in all their territory. [Ex 8:17, 24]
- ³² He gave them hail for rain,
With flaming fire in their land. [Ex 9:23, 25]
- ³³ He struck their vines also and their fig trees,
And shattered the [ice-laden] trees of their territory. [Ps
78:47]
- ³⁴ He spoke, and the [migratory] locusts came,
And the young locusts, even without number, [Ex 10:4, 13, 14]
- ³⁵ And ate up all the vegetation in their land,
And devoured the fruit of their ground.
- ³⁶ He also struck down all the firstborn in their land,
The first fruits and chief substance of all their strength. [Ex
12:29; Ps 78:51]
- ³⁷ He brought the sons of Israel out [of Egypt] with silver and gold,
And among their tribes there was not one who stumbled.
[Ex 12:35]
- ³⁸ Egypt was glad when they departed,
For the dread and fear of them had fallen on the Egyptians.
[Ex 12:33]
- ³⁹ The LORD spread a cloud as a covering [by day],
And a fire to illumine the night. [Ex 13:21]

- ⁴⁰The Israelites asked, and He brought quail,
And satisfied them with the bread of heaven. [Ex 16:12–15]
- ⁴¹He opened the rock and water flowed out;
It ran in the dry places like a river. [Ex 17:6; Num 20:11]
- ⁴²For He remembered His holy word
To Abraham His servant; [Gen 15:14]
- ⁴³He brought out His people with joy,
And His chosen ones with a joyful shout,
- ⁴⁴He gave them the lands of the nations [of Canaan],
So that they would possess the fruits of those peoples' labor, [Deut 6:10, 11]
- ⁴⁵So that they might observe His precepts
And keep His laws [obediently accepting and honoring and valuing them].
Praise the LORD! (Hallelujah!)

Psalm 106

Israel's Rebelliousness and the LORD's Deliverances.

- ¹PRAISE THE LORD! (Hallelujah!)
Oh give thanks to the LORD, for He is good;
For His mercy and lovingkindness endure forever! [1 Chr 16:34]
- ²Who can put into words the mighty deeds of the LORD?
Or who can proclaim all His praise [that is due Him]?
- ³Blessed are those who observe justice [by honoring God's precepts],

Who practice righteousness at all times.

- ⁴Remember me, O LORD, when You favor Your people.
Visit me with Your salvation [when You rescue them],
- ⁵That I may see the prosperity of Your chosen ones,
That I may rejoice in the gladness of Your nation,
That I may glory with Your inheritance.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Are You Believing God's Word?

When the people of Israel were delivered from Egypt, they “believed in [the validity of] His words; they sang His praise. But they quickly forgot His works... did not believe His word nor rely on it, but they sulked and complained” (Ps. 106:12–13, 24–25).

When you feel frustrated or upset or have lost your peace and your joy, ask yourself this: Am I believing God's Word? The only way to be free from struggling with these negative feelings or losses is to believe the Word and obey whatever Jesus puts in your heart to do (see Heb. 4:3). Believing God's Word delivers you from struggling so you can rest in the promises of God.

If your thoughts have become negative and you are full of doubt, the reason may be that you have stopped believing God's Word and trusting Him. As soon as you start believing God's Word, your joy will return and you will be at ease once again (see Rom. 15:13).

⁶We have sinned like our fathers;
We have committed iniquity, we have behaved wickedly.
[Lev 26:40–42]

⁷Our fathers in Egypt did not understand nor appreciate
Your miracles;

They did not remember the abundance of Your mercies nor imprint Your lovingkindnesses on their hearts, But they were rebellious at the sea, at the Red Sea. [Ex 14:21]

⁸Nevertheless He saved them for His name's sake,
That He might make His [supreme] power known.

⁹He rebuked the Red Sea, and it dried up;
And He led them through the depths as through a pasture.
[Ex 14:21]

¹⁰So He saved them from the hand of the one that hated them,
And redeemed them from the hand of the [Egyptian] enemy.
[Ex 14:30]

¹¹And the waters covered their adversaries;
Not one of them was left. [Ex 14:27, 28; 15:5]

¹²Then Israel believed in [the validity of] His words;
They sang His praise.

¹³But they quickly forgot His works;
They did not [patiently] wait for His counsel and purpose
[to be revealed regarding them],

¹⁴But lusted intensely in the wilderness
And tempted God [with their insistent desires] in the desert.
[Num 11:4]

¹⁵So He gave them their request,
But sent a wasting disease among them. [Ps 78:29–31]

¹⁶They envied Moses in the camp,
And Aaron [the high priest], the holy one of the LORD,
[Num 16:1–32]

- ¹⁷Therefore the earth opened and swallowed Dathan,
And engulfed the company of Abiram. [Num 16:31, 32]
- ¹⁸And a fire broke out in their company;
The flame consumed the wicked. [Num 16:35, 46]
- ¹⁹They made a calf in Horeb (Sinai)
And worshiped a cast image. [Ex 32:4]
- ²⁰Thus they exchanged [the true God who was] their glory
For the image of an ox that eats grass.
- ²¹They forgot God their Savior,
Who had done such great things in Egypt,
- ²²Wonders in the land of Ham,
Awesome things at the Red Sea.
- ²³Therefore He said He would destroy them,
[And He would have done so] had not Moses, His chosen one, stepped into the gap before Him,
To turn away His wrath from destroying them. [Ex 32:10, 11, 32]
- ²⁴Then they despised the pleasant land [of Canaan];
They did not believe in His word nor rely on it,
- ²⁵But they sulked and complained in their tents;
They did not listen to the voice of the LORD.
- ²⁶Therefore He lifted up His hand [swearing] to them,
That He would cause them to fall in the wilderness,
- ²⁷And that He would cast out their descendants among the nations
And scatter them in the lands [of the earth].

- ²⁸They joined themselves also to [the idol] Baal of Peor,
And ate sacrifices offered to the dead.
- ²⁹Thus they provoked Him to anger with their practices,
And a plague broke out among them.
- ³⁰Then Phinehas [the priest] stood up and interceded,
And so the plague was halted. [Num 25:7, 8]
- ³¹And that was credited to him for righteousness,
To all generations forever.
- ³²They provoked Him to anger at the waters of Meribah,
So that it went hard with Moses on their account; [Num 20:3–13]
- ³³Because they were rebellious against His Spirit,
Moses spoke recklessly with his lips.
- ³⁴They did not destroy the [pagan] peoples [in Canaan],
As the LORD commanded them,
- ³⁵But they mingled with the [idolatrous] nations
And learned their ways,
- ³⁶And served their idols,
Which became a [dreadful] snare to them.
- ³⁷They even sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons [Deut 32:17; 2 Kin 16:3]
- ³⁸And shed innocent blood,
Even the blood of their sons and of their daughters,
Whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan;
And the land was polluted with their blood.
- ³⁹In this way they became unclean in their practices;

They played the prostitute in their own deeds [by giving their worship, which belongs to God alone, to other “gods”].

⁴⁰Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against His people And He detested His own inheritance. [Deut 32:17]

⁴¹He gave them into the hands of the nations,
And those who hated them ruled over them.

⁴²Their enemies also oppressed them,
And they were subdued under the [powerful] hand of their enemies.

⁴³Many times He rescued them;
But they were rebellious in their counsel,
And sank down in their wickedness.

⁴⁴Nevertheless He looked [sympathetically] at their distress
When He heard their cry;

⁴⁵And He remembered His covenant for their sake,
And relented [rescinding their sentence] according to the greatness of His lovingkindness [when they cried out to Him], ⁴⁶He also made them objects of compassion
Among those who had carried them away captive. [2 Kin 25:27–30]

⁴⁷Save us, O LORD our God,
And gather us from among the nations,
That we may give thanks to Your holy name
And glory in praising You.

⁴⁸Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,
From everlasting even to everlasting.
And let all the people say, “Amen.”
Praise the LORD! (Hallelujah!) [1 Chr 16:35, 36]

BOOK FIVE

Psalm 107

The LORD Rescues People from Many Troubles.

¹O GIVE thanks to the LORD, for He is good;
For His compassion and lovingkindness endure forever!

²Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,
Whom He has redeemed from the hand of the adversary,

³And gathered them from the lands,
From the east and from the west,
From the north and from the south.

⁴They wandered in the wilderness in a [solitary] desert region;
And did not find a way to an inhabited city.

⁵Hungry and thirsty,
They fainted.

⁶Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He rescued them from their distresses.

⁷He led them by the straight way,
To an inhabited city [where they could establish their homes].

⁸Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Speak the Word

When you realize that the enemy is trying to distract you, you can either allow him to beat you up with worry and negative thoughts or you can stand up to him. One way to stand against him is to open your mouth and begin to confess your authority in Christ (see Ps. 107:2).

Sometimes while I am preparing to speak at a church or seminar, negative thoughts begin to occur to me. When that happens, I encourage myself with my own mouth and say out loud, "Everything is going to be all right."

Satan places anxious and worried thoughts in our minds, sometimes actually bombarding our minds with them. He hopes we will receive them and begin speaking them. If we do, he then has material to actually create in our lives the very circumstances he has been giving us anxious thoughts about.

Once we recognize anxious thoughts, we can take authority over them, asking for God's help and being determined to live the good life God wants us to live.

Let me encourage you not to be the devil's mouthpiece. Don't speak the lies he puts into your mind. Find out what God's Word promises you and begin to declare His Word, which is "living and active and full of power... sharper than any two-edged sword" (Heb. 4:12). As we speak the Word with our mouths in faith, we wield a mighty sword that penetrates and exposes the enemy's tactics and lies.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Confession and Possession

What do you say about yourself and about your life? When I hear people make comments about themselves that remind me of statements I used to make about myself, it makes me sad to hear them. They say such things as, “I never get anything right” or “I am addicted to sweets” or “I worry all the time” or “My problems are overwhelming.” People who speak this way are saying what they really think. The problem is, what they are saying does not agree with God’s Word.

Psalm 107:2 says that those of us who are redeemed should “say so.” You and I are “the redeemed of the LORD.” We are not hoping or waiting to be redeemed; Jesus has already paid the price for our redemption. It is ours, and we need to learn to agree with it.

If we truly live by faith and believe God’s promises, our confession needs to change so that our words line up with our beliefs. You can start “saying so” by declaring by faith, “I am redeemed from sin, guilt, and condemnation.” “I am redeemed from bondage to food.” “I am redeemed from anger, bitterness, and resentment.” “I am redeemed from worry, anxiety, and fear.” “I am redeemed from envy and jealousy.” Because these statements are true, you can also declare, “I am free to love God, to love myself, and to love other people” and “Even when I face challenges, I can do whatever I need to do in life through Christ Who gives me strength” (see Phil. 4:13).

We can begin speaking by faith because we believe God’s Word is true, and in God’s perfect timing, we will see His promises manifested in our lives. In God’s kingdom, we first believe and then we receive. I said thousands of times by faith, “God loves me” before I ever truly felt His love.

We choose to believe what God says and then we say the same thing by faith. The result is that our confession of God’s promises releases our faith and causes us to possess them experientially.

God’s principle of faith is the exact opposite of what the world teaches. The world says, “Don’t believe anything you can’t see, smell, taste, or touch.” God’s Word says “we walk by faith, not by sight” (2 Cor. 5:7).

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord, I pray that I will grow more and more in faith as I study Your Word and that my confession of your Word will help to renew my mind. In Jesus’ name. Amen.

Speak God's Word

I give thanks to the Lord for His lovingkindness and for His wonderful acts. He satisfies the parched throat, and fills the hungry appetite with what is good.

| adapted from PSALM 107:8-9 |

And for His wonderful acts to the children of men!

⁹For He satisfies the parched throat,
And fills the hungry appetite with what is good.

¹⁰Some dwelt in darkness and in the deep (deathly) darkness,
Prisoners [bound] in misery and chains, [Luke 1:79]

¹¹Because they had rebelled against the precepts of God
And spurned the counsel of the Most High.

¹²Therefore He humbled their heart with hard labor;
They stumbled and there was no one to help.

¹³Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He saved them from their distresses.

¹⁴He brought them out of darkness and the deep (deathly) darkness

And broke their bonds apart. [Ps 68:6; Acts 12:7; 16:26]

¹⁵Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness,
And for His wonderful acts to the children of men!

¹⁶For He has shattered the gates of bronze
And cut the bars of iron apart.

¹⁷Fools, because of their rebellious way,
And because of their sins, were afflicted.

¹⁸They detested all kinds of food,
And they drew near to the gates of death.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God's Word Brings Healing

Psalm 107:20 is an important scripture to me because I have experienced firsthand that there is power in God's Word to heal us everywhere we hurt. After being abused during my childhood years, I had many wrong mind-sets. I frequently verbalized the defeated life I had and expected to continue having, and I truly had no hope of change. I was bitter, resentful, and filled with hatred toward those who had hurt me.

As God's Word renewed my mind (see Rom. 12:2), I began to think differently and talk differently. Eventually my attitude changed, and I finally began behaving differently. The same outcome will happen for anyone who truly studies and believes God's Word. His Word has power inherent in it to change lives.

Before our lives can change, our thinking must change. Satan attempts to build strongholds in our minds from the time we are very young. A stronghold is an area in which an enemy occupies and hides, and from that place makes his attack. We learn in God's Word that we can tear down strongholds by believing God's Word. Truth always defeats lies! Always remember that there is no pit so deep that God cannot reach down into it and lift us out. He is our Healer, and He delights in making us whole.

- ¹⁹Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble, And He saved them from their distresses.
- ²⁰He sent His word and healed them,
And rescued them from their destruction. [2 Kin 20:4, 5; Matt 8:8]
- ²¹Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness,
And for His wonderful acts to the children of men! [Heb 13:15]
- ²²And let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving,
And speak of His deeds with shouts of joy!
- ²³Those who go down to the sea in ships,
Who do business on great waters;
- ²⁴They have seen the works of the LORD,
And His wonders in the deep.
- ²⁵For He spoke and raised up a stormy wind,
Which lifted up the waves of the sea.
- ²⁶They went up toward the heavens [on the crest of the wave], they went down again to the depths [of the watery trough]; Their courage melted away in their misery.
- ²⁷They staggered and trembled like a drunken man,
And were at their wits' end [all their wisdom was useless].
- ²⁸Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He brought them out of their distresses.
- ²⁹He hushed the storm to a gentle whisper,
So that the waves of the sea were still. [Ps 65:7; 89:9; Matt 8:26]

- ³⁰Then they were glad because of the calm,
And He guided them to their desired haven (harbor).
- ³¹Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness,
And for His wonderful acts to the children of men!
- ³²Let them exalt Him also in the congregation of the people,
And praise Him at the seat of the elders.
- ³³He turns rivers into a wilderness,
And springs of water into a thirsty ground; [1 Kin 17:1, 7]
- ³⁴A productive land into a [barren] salt waste,
Because of the wickedness of those who dwell in it. [Gen
13:10; 14:3; 19:25]
- ³⁵He turns a wilderness into a pool of water
And a dry land into springs of water; [Is 41:18]
- ³⁶And there He has the hungry dwell,
So that they may establish an inhabited city,
- ³⁷And sow fields and plant vineyards,
And produce an abundant harvest.
- ³⁸Also He blesses them so that they multiply greatly,
And He does not let [the number of] their cattle decrease.
- ³⁹When they are diminished and bowed down (humbled)
Through oppression, misery, and sorrow,
- ⁴⁰He pours contempt on princes
And makes them wander in a pathless wasteland.
- ⁴¹Yet He sets the needy securely on high, away from affliction,
And makes their families like a flock.

- ⁴²The upright see it and rejoice;
But all unrighteousness shuts its mouth.
- ⁴³Who is wise? Let him observe and heed these things;
And [thoughtfully] consider the lovingkindness of the LORD.

Psalm 108

Praise and Supplication to God for Victory.

A Song. A Psalm of David.

- ¹O GOD, my heart is steadfast [with confident faith];
I will sing, I will sing praises, even with my soul.
- ²Awake, harp and lyre;
I will awaken the dawn!
- ³I will praise and give thanks to You, O LORD, among the people; And I will sing praises to You among the nations.
- ⁴For Your lovingkindness is great and higher than the
heavens;
Your truth reaches to the skies. [Ps 57:7–11]
- ⁵Be exalted [in majesty], O God, above the heavens,
And Your glory above all the earth.
- ⁶That Your beloved [ones] may be rescued,
Save with Your right hand, and answer me!
- ⁷God has spoken in His holiness:
“I will rejoice, I will portion out Shechem [as I divide Canaan among My people],
And measure out the Valley of Succoth.
- ⁸“Gilead is Mine, Manasseh is Mine; Ephraim also is the helmet of My head [My stronghold, My defense];
Judah is My scepter. [Gen 49:10]

- ⁹“Moab is My washbowl;
Over Edom I will throw My shoe [to show Edom is Mine];
Over Philistia I will shout [in triumph].”
- ¹⁰Who will bring me into the fortified city [of Petra]?
Who will lead me to Edom?
- ¹¹Have You not rejected us, O God?
And will You not go out, O God, with our armies?
- ¹²Give us help against the adversary,
For deliverance by man is in vain [a worthless hope].
- ¹³With God we will do valiantly,
For it is He who will trample down our enemies. [Ps 60:5–12]

Psalm 109

Vengeance Invoked upon Adversaries.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- ¹O GOD of my praise!
Do not keep silent,
- ²For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful are opened against me;
They have spoken against me with a lying tongue.
- ³They have also surrounded me with words of hatred,
And have fought against me without a cause.
- ⁴In return for my love, they attack me,
But I am in prayer.
- ⁵They have repaid me evil for good,
And hatred for my love.

- ⁶Appoint a wicked man against him,
And let an attacker stand at his right hand [to kill him].
- ⁷When he enters into dispute, let wickedness come about.
Let his prayer [for help] result [only] in sin.
- ⁸Let his days be few;
And let another take his office. [Acts 1:20]
- ⁹Let his children be fatherless
And his wife a widow.
- ¹⁰Let his children wander and beg;
Let them seek their food and be driven far from their ruined homes. [Gen 4:12]
- ¹¹Let the creditor seize all that he has,
And let strangers plunder the product of his labor.
- ¹²Let there be no one to extend kindness to him,
Nor let anyone be gracious to his fatherless children.
- ¹³Let his descendants be cut off,
And in the following generation let their name be blotted
out.
- ¹⁴Let the wickedness of his fathers be remembered by the LORD; And do not let the sin of his mother be blotted out.
- ¹⁵Let them be before the LORD continually,
That He may cut off their memory from the earth;
- ¹⁶Because the man did not remember to show kindness,
But persecuted the suffering and needy man,
And the brokenhearted, to put them to death.
- ¹⁷He also loved cursing, and it came [back] to him;

He did not delight in blessing, so it was far from him.

¹⁸He clothed himself with cursing as with his garment,
And it seeped into his inner self like water

POWERPOINT

If you have a wounded heart
(see Ps. 109:22), you can receive God's healing and move forward with your life. I have found that when I have a relationship problem, or get wounded, or when someone hurts my feelings, these circumstances will take away my strength and affect my faith unless I am quick to forgive.
Ask God to help you forgive and heal you everywhere you hurt.

And like [anointing] oil into his bones.

¹⁹Let it be to him as a robe with which he covers himself,
And as a sash with which he is constantly bound.

²⁰Let this be the reward of my attackers from the LORD,
And of those who speak evil against my life.

²¹But You, O GOD, the Lord, show kindness to me, for Your name's sake; Because Your lovingkindness (faithfulness, compassion) is good, O rescue me;

²²For I am suffering and needy,
And my heart is wounded within me.

²³I am vanishing like a shadow when it lengthens and fades;
I am shaken off like the locust.

²⁴My knees are unsteady from fasting;
And my flesh is gaunt and without fatness.

²⁵I also have become a reproach and an object of taunting to others;
When they see me, they shake their heads [in derision].
[Matt 26:39]

²⁶Help me, O LORD my God;
Save me according to Your lovingkindness—

²⁷And let them know that this is Your hand;
You, LORD, have done it.

²⁸Let them curse, but You bless.
When adversaries arise, let them be ashamed,
But let Your servant rejoice.

²⁹Let my attackers be clothed with dishonor,
And let them cover themselves with their own shame as with a robe.

³⁰I will give great praise and thanks to the LORD with my mouth;
And in the midst of many I will praise Him.

³¹For He will stand at the right hand of the needy,

To save him from those who judge his soul.

Psalm 110

The LORD Gives Dominion to the King.

A Psalm of David.

- ¹THE LORD (Father) says to my Lord (the Messiah, His Son), “Sit at My right hand
Until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet [subjugating them into complete submission].” [Josh 10:24; Matt 26:64; Acts 2:34; 1 Cor 15:25; Col 3:1; Heb 12:2]

He will crush kings in the day of His wrath.
- ⁶He will execute judgment [in overwhelming punishment]

among the nations;
He will fill them with corpses,
He will crush the chief men over a broad country. [Ezek

⁷He will drink from the brook by the wayside;
Therefore He will lift up His head [triumphantly].

Psalm 111

The LORD Praised for His Goodness.

¹PRAISE THE LORD! (Hallelujah!)
I will give thanks to the LORD with all my heart,
In the company of the upright and in the congregation.
²Great are the works of the LORD,
Studied by all those who delight in them.
³Splendid and majestic is His work,
And His righteousness endures forever.
⁴He has made His wonderful acts to be remembered;
The LORD is gracious and merciful and full of loving compassion.
⁵He has given food to those who fear Him [with awe-inspired reverence];
He will remember His covenant forever. [Deut 10:12; Ps 96:9] ⁶He has declared and made known to His people the power of His works,
In giving them the heritage of the nations.
⁷The works of His hands are truth and [absolute] justice;

All His precepts are sure (established, reliable, trustworthy).

⁸They are upheld forever and ever;

They are done in [absolute] truth and uprightness.

⁹He has sent redemption to His people;

He has ordained His covenant forever;

Holy and awesome is His name—[inspiring reverence and godly fear].

Speak God's Word

I know that the reverent fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. I possess a good understanding and a teachable heart as I do God's will.

| adapted from PSALM 111:10 |

¹⁰The [reverent] fear of the LORD is the beginning (the prerequisite, the absolute essential, the alphabet) of wisdom; A good understanding and a teachable heart are possessed by all those who do the will of the LORD; His praise endures forever. [Job 28:28; Prov 1:7; Matt 22:37, 38; Rev 14:7]

Psalm 112

Prosperity of the One Who Fears the LORD.

¹PRAISE THE LORD! (Hallelujah!)

Blessed [fortunate, prosperous, and favored by God] is the man who fears the LORD [with awe-inspired reverence and worships Him with obedience], Who delights greatly in

His commandments. [Deut 10:12]

²His descendants will be mighty on earth;
The generation of the upright will be blessed.

³Wealth and riches are in his house,
And his righteousness endures forever.

⁴Light arises in the darkness for the upright;
He is gracious and compassionate and righteous (upright—in right standing with God).

⁵It is well with the man who is gracious and lends;
He conducts his affairs with justice. [Ps 37:26; Luke 6:35;
Col 4:5]

⁶He will never be shaken;
The righteous will be remembered forever. [Prov 10:7]

⁷He will not fear bad news;
His heart is steadfast, trusting [confidently relying on and believing] in the LORD.

⁸His heart is upheld, he will not fear
While he looks [with satisfaction] on his adversaries.

⁹He has given freely to the poor;
His righteousness endures forever;
His horn will be exalted in honor. [2 Cor 9:9]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Trusting God with Our Minds

Many times we say that we are trusting God, but our minds are busy worrying. Proverbs 3:5 confirms that we are to trust the Lord not only with our hearts, but also with our minds.

What do you allow your mind to do when you have problems? Do you worry and try to figure things out, or do you leave them in God's capable hands? If you operate with the mind of the Spirit, trusting God instead of worrying, you can have "the peace of God which transcends all understanding" (Phil. 4:7); you can have inexpressible and glorious joy (see 1 Pet. 1:8) right in the middle of terrible trials and tribulations; you "will not fear bad news," because your "heart is steadfast, trusting [confidently relying on and believing] in the LORD" (Ps. 112:7). Trusting God instead of worrying releases joy in us and provides answers to our problems.

He will gnash his teeth and melt away [in despair and death];

The desire of the wicked will perish and come to nothing.

They have eyes, but they cannot see;
- ⁶They have ears, but they cannot hear;

POWERPOINT

God gives us understanding on many issues, but we do not have to understand everything in order to walk with the Lord and be obedient to His will.

There are times when God leaves huge question marks as tools to stretch our faith because He sees things from a heavenly perspective and does what He pleases (see Ps. 115:3). Unanswered questions crucify the fleshly life. It is difficult for us to give up reasoning and simply trust God, but once the process is accomplished, the mind enters into a place of rest.

They have noses, but they cannot smell;

Thanksgiving Destroys Discontent

When the apostle Paul said he had learned to be content, he was saying he still trusted God even if he did not particularly like the situation in which he found himself (see Phil. 4:12). Therefore, his trust kept him in perfect peace. When our minds are fixed on the Lord, we are content and peaceful.

Trusting God and refusing to complain in hard times greatly honors Him. There is no value in saying how much we trust God when all is well if, when the test comes, we can't say and sincerely mean, "I trust You, Lord." The psalmist said, "I believed [and clung to my God] when I said, 'I am greatly afflicted'" (Ps. 116:10). Through gratitude and thanksgiving, you can close the destructive doors of discontentment. Don't wait until everything is perfect before you decide to enjoy your everyday life.

Therefore I will call on Him as long as I live.

³The cords and sorrows of death encompassed me,
And the terrors of Sheol came upon me;
I found distress and sorrow.

⁴Then I called on the name of the LORD:
"O LORD, please save my life!"

⁵Gracious is the LORD, and [consistently] righteous; Yes, our

God is compassionate.

⁶The LORD protects the simple (childlike);
I was brought low [humbled and discouraged], and He saved me.

⁷Return to your rest, O my soul,
For the LORD has dealt bountifully with you. [Matt 11:29]

⁸For You have rescued my life from death,
My eyes from tears,
And my feet from stumbling and falling.

⁹I will walk [in submissive wonder] before the LORD
In the land of the living.

¹⁰I believed [and clung to my God] when I said,
“I am greatly afflicted.” [2 Cor 4:13]

¹¹I said in my alarm,
“All men are liars.”

¹²What will I give to the LORD [in return]
For all His benefits toward me?
[How can I repay Him for His precious blessings?]

¹³I will lift up the cup of salvation
And call on the name of the LORD.

¹⁴I will pay my vows to the LORD,
Yes, in the presence of all His people.

¹⁵Precious [and of great consequence] in the sight of the
LORD
Is the death of His godly ones [so He watches over them].

¹⁶O LORD, truly I am Your servant;

I am Your servant, the son of Your handmaid;
You have unfastened my chains.

¹⁷I will offer to You the sacrifice of thanksgiving,
And will call on the name of the LORD.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Rejoice in Today

Winning the battle of the mind involves learning to relax and take things as they come without becoming stressed or fearful. In spite of troubling events taking place around us, we can learn to embrace each day, confessing and believing, “This [day in which God has saved me] is the day which the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it” (Ps. 118:24).

When the psalmist writes, “This is the day which the LORD has made” he is encouraging us to embrace and enjoy the present moment. We often postpone our rejoicing and our being glad until we think certain circumstances are perfect. The fact is, perfection will never happen in this life; we will always be hoping for and praying about something.

If we wait until we think everything in our lives is ideal before we rejoice, we will miss a lot of the joy and blessing that God has for us. We need to learn to enjoy each day and every moment. Even in circumstances that are difficult, when we rejoice and are thankful in “this,” whatever “this” situation may be, we will grow in spiritual maturity and be happier, more peaceful people.

People often say, “I will be so happy when...” Almost everyone can fill in the blank after “when.” “When I get married,” “when I don’t have to drive my teenagers everywhere they want to go,” “when my bills are paid off,” or “when I get a promotion at work.” People who are always waiting for when, miss so much of this.

Those who think they will be glad when God does something specific for them may rejoice when they get what they want; but typically it is not long before they once again cannot be glad until He does something else for them. Then they become anxious about that next thing, and could easily spend their entire lives waiting for another time to be glad, never experiencing the peace that is available to them each day. Psalm 118:24 teaches us that today is the day to rejoice and be glad, no matter what is going on or what we hope will happen tomorrow, next week, next month, or next year.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Heavenly Father; help me to be content with who I am and what I have, no matter what my circumstances are right now. I choose to rejoice in this day, and not to miss any of the peace or blessing You have for me today. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Have an Extraordinary Day

The psalmist said, “This is the day which the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it” (Ps. 118:24). I believe he discovered the secret to living ordinary days with extraordinary enthusiasm. He simply decided and declared that since the Lord had made each day, and that it was a gift to him, he would enjoy it and be glad. He made a decision that produced the feelings he wanted rather than waiting to see how he felt.

God’s presence makes life exciting if we have a proper understanding of life as a whole. Everything we do is sacred and amazing if we do it as unto the Lord and believe He is with us. Ask yourself right now whether you truly believe that God is with you even in the midst of very ordinary tasks. If your answer is yes, you can have an extraordinary day!

²⁷The LORD is God, and He has given us light [illuminating us with His grace and freedom and joy].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Choose To Study the Word

David said, “Blessed and favored by God are those who keep His testimonies, and who [consistently] seek Him and long for Him with all their heart” (Ps. 119:2). In order to know God—what to expect from Him and what He expects from you—you must know His Word. It’s not possible for God to say one thing but do another. He cannot lie, and He’s always faithful to perform what He has promised.

I know many people who would like their lives to improve but they won’t discipline themselves to study and learn the Word or to speak the Word. Spending time with God by studying the Word is your choice, and only you can make it. When you make that choice to seek Him with your whole heart, it won’t take long before your desires will begin to change and God will become more important to you than anything else.

POWERPOINT

We cannot tell of God's ordinances (see Ps. 119:13), or truths, unless we know them. If we want to be able to say what God says, we have to know what He says, and the way to know that is to study His Word diligently. In order to know God and what to expect from Him, we need to know His Word—because they are one. It is not possible for God to say one thing and do another.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Ask for Understanding

I have heard many people say that reading the Bible is confusing and that they don't understand what God is saying. Sometimes that's because people keep trying to figure it out with their minds. We cannot always rely on our understanding (see Prov. 3:5), and we need to realize we're not smart enough to understand the mind of God. Moses explained to the children of Israel that there are "secret things" known only to God (see Deut. 29:29). He pointed out that when God revealed His will—making things clear—those were the words they should obey.

It really is that simple. Like the psalmist, we can say, "Give me understanding [a teachable heart and the ability to learn], that I may keep Your law; and observe it with all my heart" (Ps. 119:34). We need to ask God to show us what we are to do, and follow Him when He reveals that to us. Before reading or studying God's Word, always ask the Holy Spirit to teach you.

Reasoning can move us in a direction that may not reflect God's will even though it seems logical. This happened to King

Saul. It was unlawful for him—even as the king—to offer sacrifices. After Saul and his army waited several days for Samuel, the high priest, to arrive, Saul grew impatient (or perhaps fearful) and offered sacrifices on his own. When Samuel rebuked Saul, the king explained that the imminent threat from the Philistines and the immediate need to ask for the Lord’s help “forced” him to act (1 Sam. 13:12). Saul foolishly reasoned that he was wiser than God.

By contrast, the apostle Paul said: “I am telling the truth in Christ, I am not lying, my conscience testifies with me [enlightened and prompted] by the Holy Spirit” (Rom. 9:1). He was doing the right thing—not because he had figured it out or analyzed the situation, but because his actions bore witness in his spirit.

That’s the attitude we need. We need to depend on God to show us things in such a way that we know—with an inner certainty—that what has been revealed to our minds is correct. We may be tempted to reason in our minds and search for logical solutions, but discernment and revelation are always better than reasoning.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Dear God, thank You for loving me more than I could ever comprehend. In the name of Jesus Christ, I ask You to help me love and honor You so much that when You speak, I will have only one thought in my mind, and that is to obey. Amen.

And keep Your law.

⁵⁶This has become mine [as the gift of Your grace],
That I observe Your precepts [accepting them with loving obedience].

Heth.

⁵⁷The LORD is my portion;
I have promised to keep Your words.

⁵⁸I sought Your favor with all my heart;
Be merciful and gracious to me according to Your promise.

⁵⁹I considered my ways
And turned my feet to [follow and obey] Your testimonies.

⁶⁰I hurried and did not delay
To keep Your commandments.

⁶¹The cords of the wicked have encircled and ensnared me,
But I have not forgotten Your law.

⁶²At midnight I will rise to give thanks to You
Because of Your righteous ordinances.

⁶³I am a companion of all who [reverently] fear You,
And of those who keep and honor Your precepts.

⁶⁴The earth, O LORD, is full of Your lovingkindness and goodness; Teach me Your statutes.

Teth.

⁶⁵You have dealt well with Your servant,
O LORD, according to Your promise.

⁶⁶Teach me good judgment (discernment) and knowledge,
For I have believed and trusted and relied on Your commandments.

⁶⁷Before I was afflicted I went astray,
But now I keep and honor Your word [with loving obedience].

⁶⁸You are good and do good;
Teach me Your statutes.

⁶⁹The arrogant have forged a lie against me,
But I will keep Your precepts with all my heart.

⁷⁰Their heart is insensitive like fat [their minds are dull and brutal],
But I delight in Your law.

⁷¹It is good for me that I have been afflicted,
That I may learn Your statutes.

⁷²The law from Your mouth is better to me
Than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

Yodh.

⁷³Your hands have made me and established me;

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, teach me good judgment, discernment, and knowledge, for I have believed and trusted and relied on Your commandments.

• adapted from Psalm 119:66

Give me understanding and a teachable heart, that I may learn Your commandments.

⁷⁴May those who [reverently] fear You see me and be glad,
Because I wait for Your word.

⁷⁵I know, O LORD, that Your judgments are fair,
And that in faithfulness You have disciplined me. [Heb

12:10]

⁷⁶O may Your lovingkindness and graciousness comfort me,
According to Your word (promise) to Your servant.

⁷⁷Let Your compassion come to me that I may live,
For Your law is my delight.

⁷⁸Let the arrogant be ashamed and humiliated, for they sabotage me with a lie;
But I will meditate on Your precepts.

⁷⁹May those who fear You [with submissive wonder] turn to
me,
Even those who have known Your testimonies.

⁸⁰May my heart be blameless in Your statutes,
So that I will not be ashamed.

Kaph.

⁸¹My soul languishes and grows weak for Your salvation;
I wait for Your word.

⁸²My eyes fail [with longing, watching] for [the fulfillment of]
Your promise,
Saying, “When will You comfort me?”

⁸³For I have become like a wineskin [blackened and shriveled] in the smoke [in which it hangs], Yet I do not forget Your statutes.

⁸⁴How many are the days of Your servant [which he must endure]?
When will You execute judgment on those who persecute me? [Rev 6:10]

- ⁸⁵The arrogant (godless) have dug pits for me,
Men who do not conform to Your law.
- ⁸⁶All Your commandments are faithful and trustworthy.
They have persecuted me with a lie; help me [LORD]!
- ⁸⁷They had almost destroyed me on earth,
But as for me, I did not turn away from Your precepts.
- ⁸⁸According to Your steadfast love refresh me and give me life,
So that I may keep and obey the testimony of Your mouth.

Lamedh.

- ⁸⁹Forever, O LORD,
Your word is settled in heaven [standing firm and unchangeable]. [Ps 89:2; Matt 24:34, 35; 1 Pet 1:25]
- ⁹⁰Your faithfulness continues from generation to generation;
You have established the earth, and it stands [securely].
- ⁹¹They continue this day according to Your ordinances,
For all things [all parts of the universe] are Your servants.
[Jer 33:25]
- ⁹²If Your law had not been my delight,
Then I would have perished in my time of trouble.
- ⁹³I will never forget Your precepts,
For by them You have revived me and given me life.
- ⁹⁴I am Yours, save me [as Your own];

For I have [diligently] sought Your precepts and required them [as my greatest need]. [Ps 42:1]

⁹⁵The wicked wait for me to destroy me,
But I will consider Your testimonies.

⁹⁶I have seen that all [human] perfection has its limits [no matter how grand and perfect and noble]; Your commandment is exceedingly broad and extends without limits [into eternity]. [Rom 3:10–19]

Mem.

⁹⁷Oh, how I love Your law!
It is my meditation all the day. [Ps 1:2]

⁹⁸Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies,
For Your words are always with me.

⁹⁹I have better understanding and deeper insight than all my teachers [because of Your word], For Your testimonies are my meditation. [2 Tim 3:15]

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Biblical Meditation

Because of terms such as “transcendental meditation” and “New Age,” some Christians avoid any reference to meditation. They’re afraid of the occult or pagan worship, while not realizing how often the Bible urges us to meditate on God’s Word. In fact, Psalm 119 explains biblical meditation in a number of ways, such as, “Oh, how I love Your law! It is my meditation all the day” (Ps. 119:97).

God’s Word teaches us three significant lessons about meditation.

First, the Scriptures refer to more than a quick reading or pausing for a few brief, reflecting thoughts. The Bible presents meditation as serious pondering done by serious, committed followers. It is a call to deep, serious concentration.

Second, the biblical contexts show meditation as ongoing and habitual. “It is my meditation all the day.” Both Joshua 1:8 and Psalm 1:2 say that the godly person meditates on God’s law day and night. The people who spoke of meditating did so seriously and gave their minds fully to it.

Third, meditation is not a religious ritual. In most of the biblical passages where the term occurs, the writer goes on to point out the results. In Joshua 1:8: “for then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will be successful.” And Psalm 1:3 says, “And in whatever he does, he prospers [and comes to maturity].”

We don’t talk or teach much about meditation today. It’s hard work! It demands time and undivided attention. It requires that we cut all the noise out of our lives for a season and give ourselves to deeper study of God’s Word.

If you want to win the battle for the mind, meditation is a powerful weapon for you to use. The Word of God is a treasure chest of powerful, life-giving secrets that God wants to reveal to us. These truths are manifested to those who meditate on, ponder, study, think about, practice mentally, and speak the Word of God. Some people repeat a verse again and again until the meaning fills their mind. There is value in repetition!

You’ll be amazed at how much power is released into your life from this practice. The more you meditate on God’s Word (think about it over and over), the more you will be able to draw readily upon its strength in times of trouble.

As we spend time in God’s presence and ponder His Word, we grow, we encourage others, and we win the battle against the enemy of our mind.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Holy Spirit of God, help me to spend time every day meditating on the treasures of Your Word. I thank You for showing me that as I fill my mind with pure and holy thoughts, I will become a stronger and better disciple. Amen.

Speak God's Word

God's Word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.

| adapted from PSALM 119:105 |

¹⁰⁰I understand more than the aged [who have not observed
Your precepts],

Because I have observed and kept Your precepts.

¹⁰¹I have restrained my feet from every evil way,
That I may keep Your word. [Prov 1:15]

¹⁰²I have not turned aside from Your ordinances,
For You Yourself have taught me.

¹⁰³How sweet are Your words to my taste,
Sweeter than honey to my mouth! [Ps 19:10; Prov 8:11]

¹⁰⁴From Your precepts I get understanding;
Therefore I hate every false way.

Nun.

¹⁰⁵Your word is a lamp to my feet
And a light to my path. [Prov 6:23]

¹⁰⁶I have sworn [an oath] and have confirmed it,

That I will keep Your righteous ordinances. [Neh 10:29]

¹⁰⁷I am greatly afflicted;

Renew and revive me [giving me life], O LORD, according to Your word.

¹⁰⁸Accept and take pleasure in the freewill offerings of my mouth, O LORD, And teach me Your ordinances. [Hos
14:2; Heb 13:15]

¹⁰⁹My life is continually in my hand,
Yet I do not forget Your law.

¹¹⁰The wicked have laid a snare for me,
Yet I do not wander from Your precepts.

¹¹¹I have taken Your testimonies as a heritage forever,
For they are the joy of my heart. [Deut 33:4]

¹¹²I have inclined my heart to perform Your statutes
Forever, even to the end.

Samekh.

¹¹³I hate those who are double-minded,
But I love and treasure Your law.

¹¹⁴You are my hiding place and my shield;
I wait for Your word. [Ps 32:7; 91:1]

¹¹⁵Leave me, you evildoers,
That I may keep the commandments of my God [honoring and obeying them]. [Ps 6:8; 139:19; Matt 7:23]

¹¹⁶Uphold me according to Your word [of promise], so that I may live;

And do not let me be ashamed of my hope [in Your great goodness]. [Ps 25:2; Rom 5:5; 9:33; 10:11]

¹¹⁷Uphold me that I may be safe,
That I may have regard for Your statutes continually.

¹¹⁸You have turned Your back on all those who wander from Your statutes,
For their deceitfulness is useless.

¹¹⁹You have removed all the wicked of the earth like dross [for they have no value];
Therefore I love Your testimonies.

¹²⁰My flesh trembles in [reverent] fear of You,
And I am afraid and in awe of Your judgments.

Ayin.

¹²¹I have done justice and righteousness;
Do not leave me to those who oppress me.

¹²²Be the guarantee for Your servant for good [as Judah was the guarantee for Benjamin];
Do not let the arrogant oppress me. [Gen 43:9]

¹²³My eyes fail [with longing, watching] for [the fulfillment of]
Your salvation,
And for [the fulfillment of] Your righteous word.

¹²⁴Deal with Your servant according to Your [gracious]
lovingkindness,
And teach me Your statutes.

¹²⁵I am Your servant; give me understanding [the ability to learn and a teachable heart]

That I may know Your testimonies.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Treasures of God's Word

God's Word has tremendous treasures, powerful life-giving secrets that God wants to reveal to us. They are manifested to those who ponder, study, think about, practice mentally, and meditate on the Word.

Psalms 119:130 says that the unfolding of God's Words to us gives us light and that "their unfolding gives understanding to the simple (childlike)." There is no end to what God can show you out of even one verse of Scripture. You can study a scripture one time and get one thing, and in studying that same verse another time you'll see something else you did not even notice before.

The Lord keeps revealing His secrets to those who are diligent about studying the Word. Don't be the person who always settles for living off someone else's revelation. Study the Word for yourself, and allow the Holy Spirit to bless your life with truth.

¹²⁶It is time for the LORD to act;
They have broken Your law.

¹²⁷Therefore I love Your commandments more than gold,
Yes, more than refined gold.

¹²⁸Therefore I esteem as right all Your precepts concerning everything;

I hate every false way.

Pe.

¹²⁹Your testimonies are wonderful;
Therefore my soul keeps them.

¹³⁰The unfolding of Your [glorious] words give light;
Their unfolding gives understanding to the simple (childlike).

¹³¹I opened my mouth and panted [with anticipation],
Because I longed for Your commandments.

¹³²Turn to me and be gracious to me and show me favor,
As is Your way to those who love Your name.

¹³³Establish my footsteps in [the way of] Your word;
Do not let any human weakness have power over me
[causing me to be separated from You].

¹³⁴Redeem me from the oppression of man;
That I may keep Your precepts. [Luke 1:74]

¹³⁵Make Your face shine [with pleasure] upon Your servant,
And teach me Your statutes. [Ps 4:6]

¹³⁶My eyes weep streams of water
Because people do not keep Your law.

Tsadhe.

¹³⁷Righteous are You, O LORD,

And upright are Your judgments.

¹³⁸You have commanded Your testimonies in righteousness
And in great faithfulness.

¹³⁹My zeal has [completely] consumed me,
Because my enemies have forgotten Your words.

¹⁴⁰Your word is very pure (refined);
Therefore Your servant loves it.

¹⁴¹I am small and despised,
But I do not forget Your precepts.

¹⁴²Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness,
And Your law is truth. [Ps 19:9; John 17:17]

¹⁴³Trouble and anguish have found me,
Yet Your commandments are my delight and my joy.

¹⁴⁴Your righteous testimonies are everlasting;
Give me understanding [the ability to learn and a teachable heart] that I may live.

Qoph.

¹⁴⁵I cried with all my heart; answer me, O LORD!
I will observe Your statutes.

¹⁴⁶I cried to You; save me
And I will keep Your testimonies.

¹⁴⁷I rise before dawn and cry [in prayer] for help;
I wait for Your word.

¹⁴⁸My eyes anticipate the night watches and I awake before the call of the watchman, That I may meditate on Your word.

¹⁴⁹Hear my voice according to Your [steadfast]
lovingkindness;
O LORD, renew and refresh me according to Your ordinances.

¹⁵⁰Those who follow after wickedness approach;
They are far from Your law.

¹⁵¹You are near, O LORD,
And all Your commandments are truth.

¹⁵²Of old I have known from Your testimonies
That You have founded them forever. [Luke 21:33]

Resh.

¹⁵³Look upon my agony and rescue me,
For I do not forget Your law.

¹⁵⁴Plead my cause and redeem me;
Revive me and give me life according to [the promise of]
Your word.

¹⁵⁵Salvation is far from the wicked,
For they do not seek Your statutes.

¹⁵⁶Great are Your tender mercies and steadfast love, O LORD;
Revive me and give me life according to Your ordinances.

¹⁵⁷Many are my persecutors and my adversaries,
Yet I do not turn away from Your testimonies.

¹⁵⁸I see the treacherous and loathe them,

Because they do not respect Your law.

¹⁵⁹Consider how I love Your precepts;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Devote Your Thoughts to God's Word

Reading or hearing the Word is good, but when we also devote our thoughts to it, we begin to understand it more deeply. The Word of God is filled with power, and it has the ability to change us. Just as good, nutritious food must be chewed well and swallowed for us to benefit from it, so the Word of God must be taken in and digested to become a part of us.

The psalmist said, "I rise before dawn and cry [in prayer] for help; I wait for Your word.... that I may meditate on Your word" (Ps. 119:147–148). Let me encourage you to make a habit of choosing a Bible verse and meditating on it all throughout the day. That way it will become rooted in your heart and become more meaningful to you. Soon, you'll realize that it's changing your life.

Revive me and give me life, O LORD, according to Your lovingkindness.

¹⁶⁰The sum of Your word is truth [the full meaning of all Your precepts],

And every one of Your righteous ordinances endures forever.

Shin.

- ¹⁶¹Princes persecute me without cause,
But my heart stands in [reverent] awe of Your words [so I can expect You to help me]. [1 Sam 24:11, 14; 26:18]
- ¹⁶²I rejoice at Your word,
As one who finds great treasure.
- ¹⁶³I hate and detest falsehood,
But I love Your law.
- ¹⁶⁴Seven times a day I praise You,
Because of Your righteous ordinances.
- ¹⁶⁵Those who love Your law have great peace;
Nothing makes them stumble. [Prov 3:2; Is 32:17]
- ¹⁶⁶I hope and wait [with complete confidence] for Your salvation, O LORD, And I do Your commandments. [Gen 49:18]
- ¹⁶⁷My soul keeps Your testimonies [hearing and accepting and obeying them];
I love them greatly.
- ¹⁶⁸I keep Your precepts and Your testimonies,
For all my ways are [fully known] before You.

Tav.

- ¹⁶⁹Let my [mournful] cry come before You, O LORD; Give me understanding [the ability to learn and a teachable heart] according to Your word [of promise].

- ¹⁷⁰Let my supplication come before You;
Deliver me according to Your word.
- ¹⁷¹Let my lips speak praise [with thanksgiving],
For You teach me Your statutes.
- ¹⁷²Let my tongue sing [praise for the fulfillment] of Your word,
For all Your commandments are righteous.
- ¹⁷³Let Your hand be ready to help me,
For I have chosen Your precepts.
- ¹⁷⁴I long for Your salvation, O LORD,
And Your law is my delight.
- ¹⁷⁵Let my soul live that it may praise You,
And let Your ordinances help me.
- ¹⁷⁶I have gone astray like a lost sheep;
Seek Your servant, for I do not forget Your commandments.
[Is 53:6; Luke 15:4; 1 Pet 2:25]

Psalm 120

Prayer for Breaking Away from the Treacherous.

A Song of Ascents.

¹IN MY trouble I cried to the LORD,
And He answered me.

²Rescue my soul, O LORD, from lying lips,
And from a deceitful tongue.

³What shall be given to you, and what more shall be done to
you,
You deceitful tongue?—

⁴Sharp arrows of the warrior,
With the burning coals of the broom tree.

⁵Woe to me, for I sojourn in Meshech, and I live among the tents of Kedar [among hostile people]!
[Gen 10:2; 25:13; Jer 49:28, 29]

POWERPOINT

While seeking advice or counsel from wise people is certainly not wrong, we should be mature enough in our faith that we don't run to somebody else every time we need to know what to do in a certain situation. Discipline yourself to go to God first, and let Him choose whether He wants to speak to you Himself or use the wisdom and advice of others to clarify things to you. Our only true help comes from the Lord (see Ps. 121:2).

⁶Too long my soul has had its dwelling
With those who hate peace.

⁷I am for peace, but when I speak,
They are for war.

Psalm 121

The LORD the Keeper of Israel.

A Song of Ascents.

- ¹I WILL lift up my eyes to the hills [of Jerusalem]—
From where shall my help come? [Jer 3:23]
- ²My help comes from the LORD,
Who made heaven and earth.
- ³He will not allow your foot to slip;
He who keeps you will not slumber. [1 Sam 2:9; Ps 127:1;
Prov 3:23, 26; Is 27:3]
- ⁴Behold, He who keeps Israel
Will neither slumber [briefly] nor sleep [soundly].
- ⁵The LORD is your keeper;
The LORD is your shade on your right hand. [Is 25:4]
- ⁶The sun will not strike you by day,
Nor the moon by night. [Ps 91:5; Is 49:10; Rev 7:16]
- ⁷The LORD will protect you from all evil;
He will keep your life.
- ⁸The LORD will guard your going out and your coming in [everything that you do]
From this time forth and forever. [Deut 28:6; Prov 2:8; 3:6]

Psalm 122

Prayer for the Peace of Jerusalem.

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

- ¹I WAS glad when they said to me,
“Let us go to the house of the LORD.” [Is 2:3; Zech 8:21]
- ²Our feet are standing
Within your gates, O Jerusalem,
- ³Jerusalem, that is built
As a city that is firmly joined together;
- ⁴To which the [twelve] tribes go up, even the tribes of the LORD, [As was decreed as] an ordinance for Israel,
To give thanks to the name of the LORD.
- ⁵For there the thrones of judgment were set,
The thrones of the house of David.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Confess God's Promises Instead of Past Pain

One of the ways God has taught me to deal with the past is to confess His promises instead of talking about how I feel. We all grapple with certain painful issues from our past. Perhaps you were teased mercilessly as a child and still feel insecure or sensitive because of that old pain. Maybe someone you loved left you without explanation. Maybe someone you trusted betrayed you. Whatever the source of your pain, always remember that God loves you, and you do not have to continue living in the past.

You don't have to spend your life mourning over something you can't do anything about. God wants to heal what was damaged and restore what was lost through every hurt, injustice, and mistake in your life. David said, "Our help is in the name of the LORD, Who made heaven and earth" (Ps. 124:8). God will help you. In fact, He's waiting to help you, so ask for His help today.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Expect Good Things To Happen Today

Live with an attitude of expectancy. The psalmist said, “Those who trust in and rely on the LORD [with confident expectation] are like Mount Zion, which cannot be moved but remains forever” (Ps. 125:1). He was confident in his expectation.

To live expectantly is not the same as living with a sense of entitlement, which is an attitude that says we deserve everything. We don’t deserve anything from God, but because of His great love and His mercy toward us, He desires that we live in holy expectancy, believing we will so we can receive His best.

Even if you have had a problem or a need for a long time, that can change if you will do your part. Your part is to believe God’s Word, obey Him, sow good seeds, have a vision of breakthrough, and think and say right things in agreement with God’s Word—and be persistent. As you continue doing this, you will develop a healthy mind-set that enables you to prosper in all areas.

⁶Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:

“May they prosper who love you [holy city].

⁷“May peace be within your walls

And prosperity within your palaces.”

⁸For the sake of my brothers and my friends,
I will now say, “May peace be within you.”

⁹For the sake of the house of the LORD our God [which is Jerusalem], I will seek your (the city’s) good.

Psalm 123

Prayer for the LORD’s Help.

A Song of Ascents.

¹UNTO YOU I lift up my eyes,
O You who are enthroned in the heavens!

²Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master,
And as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress,
So our eyes look to the LORD our God,
Until He is gracious and favorable toward us.

³Be gracious to us, O LORD, be gracious and favorable toward us, For we are greatly filled with contempt.

⁴Our soul is greatly filled
With the scoffing of those who are at ease,
And with the contempt of the proud [who disregard God’s law].

Psalm 124

Praise for Rescue from Enemies.

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

- ¹“IF IT had not been the LORD who was on our side,”
Let Israel now say,
²“If it had not been the LORD who was on our side
When men rose up against us,
³Then they would have [quickly] swallowed us alive,
When their wrath was kindled against us;
⁴Then the waters would have engulfed us,
The torrent would have swept over our soul;
⁵Then the raging waters would have swept over our soul.”
- ⁶Blessed be the LORD, Who has not given us as prey to be torn by their teeth.
⁷We have escaped like a bird from the snare of the fowlers;
The trap is broken and we have escaped.
⁸Our help is in the name of the LORD,
Who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

The LORD Surrounds His People.

A Song of Ascents.

- ¹THOSE WHO trust in and rely on the LORD [with confident expectation]
Are like Mount Zion, which cannot be moved but remains
forever.
²As the mountains surround Jerusalem,
So the LORD surrounds His people

From this time forth and forever.

³For the scepter of wickedness shall not rest on the land of the righteous,
So that the righteous will not reach out their hands to do wrong.

⁴Do good, O LORD, to those who are good And to those who are upright in their hearts.

⁵But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways [in unresponsiveness to God],
The LORD will lead them away with those who do evil.
Peace be upon Israel.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Let God Build Your Reputation

Our society places a great deal of emphasis and value on building a good life, including a career and a good reputation. When we try to build our lives and our reputations by ourselves, we are leaning on the arm of flesh (ourselves and other people). We work hard to develop skills, find a career, earn money, build relationships, make a good name for ourselves, and do everything we think will cause us to be successful as the world views success. But Psalm 127:1–2 indicates that all this effort is in vain. The Lord is the One who builds our lives and our reputations, according to the good plans He has for us.

We can be confident that God is working in us, changing us, and helping us grow through our faith in Him, so we can fulfill His good plans for our lives. In Philippians 1:6, Paul writes to assure us of this: “He who has begun a good work in you will [continue to] perfect and complete it until the day of Christ Jesus [the time of His return].” You and I may have confidence that God will complete the good work He has begun in us!

What Paul is saying is simply this: God is the One Who started this good work in you and He is the One Who will finish it! This means we should allow God to do His work without trying to interfere. We should always do the part He gives us to do, but we should never try to do anything without leaning entirely on Him. We need to be patient and rest in Him as He accomplishes what needs to be done instead of getting involved in things when they are not happening as quickly as we would like or in the way we would like. There are certain responsibilities we need to fulfill in our lives, but there are certain things only God can do. Take the pressure off yourself by leaning on the arm of the Lord instead of the arm of the flesh!

Psalm 126

Thanksgiving for Return from Captivity.

A Song of Ascents.

- ¹WHEN THE LORD brought back the captives to Zion
(Jerusalem), We were like those who dream [it seemed so unreal]. [Ps 53:6; Acts 12:9]
- ²Then our mouth was filled with laughter
And our tongue with joyful shouting;
Then they said among the nations,
“The LORD has done great things for them.”
- ³The LORD has done great things for us;
We are glad!
- ⁴Restore our captivity, O LORD,
As the stream-beds in the South (the Negev) [are restored by torrents of rain].
- ⁵They who sow in tears shall reap with joyful singing.
- ⁶He who goes back and forth weeping, carrying his bag of seed [for planting],

Will indeed come again with a shout of joy, bringing his sheaves with him.

! REMEMBER, God always
leads you in triumph in Christ!

Psalm 127

Prosperity Comes from the LORD.

A Song of Ascents. Of Solomon.

- ¹UNLESS THE LORD builds the house,
They labor in vain who build it;
Unless the LORD guards the city,
The watchman keeps awake in vain. [Ps 121:1, 3, 5]
- ²It is vain for you to rise early,
To retire late,
To eat the bread of anxious labors—
For He gives [blessings] to His beloved even in his sleep.
- ³Behold, children are a heritage and gift from the LORD, The fruit of the womb a reward. [Deut 28:4]
- ⁴Like arrows in the hand of a warrior,
So are the children of one's youth.
- ⁵How blessed [happy and fortunate] is the man whose quiver is filled with them;
They will not be ashamed

When they speak with their enemies [in gatherings] at the [city] gate.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Worry Is a Waste of Time

Worrying is an absolute waste of time. Every time we get upset, it wastes a lot of emotional energy, tires us out, can harm our health, steals our joy, and still it doesn't change one thing. The Bible says we can't even add an hour to the length of our lives by worrying (see Matt. 6:27). Yet we often worry, worry, worry, which gets us nowhere. Solomon said, "It is vain for you to rise early, to retire late, to eat the bread of anxious labors" (Ps. 127:2). We need to stop trying to fix things only God can fix.

Jesus essentially tells us to calm down (see John 14:27) and cheer up (see John 16:33). I believe these two actions combined serve as a one-two knockout punch to the devil. When you realize you can't fix everything, you calm down; and when you know God can, you cheer up!

Psalm 128

Blessedness of the Fear of the LORD.

A Song of Ascents.

¹BLESSED [HAPPY and sheltered by God's favor] is everyone who fears the LORD [and worships Him with obedience], Who walks in His ways and lives according to His commandments. [Ps 1:1, 2]

- ²For you shall eat the fruit of [the labor of] your hands,
You will be happy and blessed and it will be well with you.
- ³Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine
Within the innermost part of your house;
Your children will be like olive plants
Around your table.
- ⁴Behold, for so shall the man be blessed and divinely favored
Who fears the LORD [and worships Him with obedience].
- ⁵May the LORD bless you from Zion [His holy mountain],
And may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life;
- ⁶Indeed, may you see your [family perpetuated in your] children's children.
Peace be upon Israel!

Psalm 129

Prayer for the Overthrow of Zion's Enemies.

A Song of Ascents.

- ¹"MANYTIMES they have persecuted me (Israel) from my youth,"
Let Israel now say,
- ²"Many times they have persecuted me from my youth,
Yet they have not prevailed against me.
- ³"The [enemies, like] plowers plowed on my back;
They made their furrows [of suffering] long [in Israel]."

⁴The LORD is righteous;
He has cut in two the [thick] cords of the wicked [which enslaved the people of Israel].

⁵May all who hate Zion
Be put to shame and turned backward [in defeat].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Enjoy the Wait

Patience is extremely important for people who want to glorify God and enjoy their lives (see James 1:4). If people are impatient, the situations they encounter in life will certainly cause them to react emotionally in a wrong way. When pressured by circumstances, we need to tell ourselves, "Wait [patiently] for the LORD, my soul [expectantly] waits" (Ps. 130:5).

The next time you have to wait on something or someone, rather than reacting with impatience, try talking to yourself a little. You might think, Getting upset will not make this go any faster, so I might as well find a way to enjoy the wait. Then perhaps say out loud, "I am developing patience as I wait, so I am thankful for this situation." When you do this, you are acting on the Word of God rather than reacting with impatience to the unpleasant circumstance.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Seeking Contentment

If I am discontent, I easily become upset. But if I choose to be content no matter what is going on, my emotions remain balanced. Our thoughts have a lot to do with our moods. Some thoughts improve our moods and increase our level of contentment, while others send our moods spiraling downward, making us unhappy and discontent. We can think ourselves happy, and we can think ourselves sad! How we talk to ourselves also affects our emotions, so if we talk to ourselves properly, we can stay content and emotionally stable.

Having put his hope in the Lord, David said, “I have calmed and quieted my soul; ... like a weaned child within me [composed and freed from discontent]” (Ps. 131:2). Trusting God at all times is the pathway to contentment. Even if we don’t have all that we want, we can trust God that He will provide what is right for us in His perfect timing.

⁶Let them be like the grass on the housetops,
Which withers before it grows up,

⁷With which the reaper does not fill his hand,
Nor the binder of sheaves his arms,

⁸Nor do those who pass by say,
“The blessing of the LORD be upon you;

We bless you in the name of the LORD.”

Psalm 130

Hope in the LORD’s Forgiving Love.

A Song of Ascents.

¹OUT OF the depths [of distress] I have cried to You, O LORD.

²Lord, hear my voice!
Let Your ears be attentive
To the voice of my supplications.

³If You, LORD, should keep an account of our sins and treat us accordingly, O Lord, who could stand [before you in judgment and claim innocence]? [Ps 143:2; Rom 3:20; Gal 2:16]

⁴But there is forgiveness with You,
That You may be feared and worshiped [with submissive wonder]. [Deut 10:12]

⁵I wait [patiently] for the LORD, my soul [expectantly] waits,
And in His word do I hope.

⁶My soul waits for the Lord
More than the watchmen for the morning;
More than the watchmen for the morning.

⁷O Israel, hope in the LORD;
For with the LORD there is lovingkindness,
And with Him is abundant redemption.

⁸And He will redeem Israel

From all his sins.

Psalm 131

Childlike Trust in the LORD.

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

¹LORD, MY heart is not proud, nor my eyes haughty;
Nor do I involve myself in great matters,
Or in things too difficult for me.

²Surely I have calmed and quieted my soul;
Like a weaned child [resting] with his mother,
My soul is like a weaned child within me [composed and freed from discontent].

³O Israel, hope in the LORD
From this time forth and forever.

Psalm 132

Prayer for the LORD's Blessing Upon the Sanctuary.

A Song of Ascents.

¹O LORD, remember on David's behalf
All his hardship and affliction;

²How he swore to the LORD
And vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob:

³"I absolutely will not enter my house,
Nor get into my bed—

⁴I certainly will not permit my eyes to sleep
Nor my eyelids to slumber,

⁵Until I find a place for the LORD,
A dwelling place for the Mighty One of Jacob (Israel).”
[Acts 7:46]

⁶Behold, we heard of it at Ephrathah;
We found it in the field of Jaar. [1 Sam 6:21]

⁷Let us go into His tabernacle;
Let us worship at His footstool.

⁸Arise, O LORD, to Your resting place,
You and the ark [the symbol] of Your strength.

⁹Let Your priests be clothed with righteousness (right living),
And let Your godly ones shout for joy.

¹⁰For the sake of Your servant David,
Do not turn away the face of Your anointed.

¹¹The LORD swore to David
A truth from which He will not turn back:
“One of your descendants I will set upon your throne. [Ps
89:3, 4; Luke 1:69; Acts 2:30, 31]

¹²“If your children will keep My covenant
And My testimony which I will teach them,
Their children also shall sit upon your throne forever.”

¹³For the LORD has chosen Zion;
He has desired it for His dwelling place:

¹⁴“This is My resting place forever” [says the LORD];
“Here will I dwell, for I have desired it.

¹⁵“I will abundantly bless her provisions;

I will satisfy her poor with bread.

¹⁶“Her priests also I will clothe with salvation,
And her godly ones will shout aloud for joy.

¹⁷“There I will make the horn (strength) of David grow;
I have prepared a lamp for My anointed [fulfilling the promises]. [1 Kin 11:36; 15:4; 2 Chr 21:7; Luke 1:69]

¹⁸“His enemies I will clothe with shame,
But upon himself shall his crown shine.”

Psalm 133

The Excellency of Brotherly Unity.

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

¹BEHOLD, HOW good and how pleasant it is
For brothers to dwell together in unity!

²It is like the precious oil [of consecration] poured on the head,

Coming down on the beard,

Even the beard of Aaron,

Coming down upon the edge of his [priestly] robes [consecrating the whole body]. [Ex 30:25, 30]

³It is like the dew of [Mount] Hermon

Coming down on the hills of Zion;

For there the LORD has commanded the blessing: life forevermore.

Psalm 134

Greetings of Night Watchers.

A Song of Ascents.

- ¹BEHOLD, BLESS and praise the LORD, all servants of the LORD (priests, Levites), Who stand and serve by night in the house of the LORD. [1 Chr 9:33]
- ²Lift up your hands to the sanctuary
And bless the LORD.
- ³May the LORD bless you from Zion,
He who made heaven and earth.

POWERPOINT

Psalm 135:3 is one of many Bible verses that says “the LORD is good.” No matter what has happened in our lives, God is good, and we need to believe that. God is good and He does not show partiality. In other words, He is good all the time; goodness is part of His nature. His goodness radiates from Him. Not everything in life is good, but God is always good, and He will turn negative situations into positive ones as we trust Him (see Gen. 50:20).

Psalm 135

Praise the LORD's Wonderful Works. Vanity of Idols.

¹PRAISE THE LORD! (Hallelujah!)

Praise the name of the LORD;

- Praise Him, O servants of the LORD (priests, Levites), ²You who stand in the house of the LORD,
In the courts of the house of our God, ³Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good; Sing praises to His name, for it is gracious and lovely.
⁴For the LORD has chosen [the descendants of] Jacob for Himself, Israel for His own special treasure and possession. [Deut 7:6]
- ⁵For I know that the LORD is great
And that our Lord is above all gods.
⁶Whatever the LORD pleases, He does,
In the heavens and on the earth, in the seas and all deeps—
⁷Who causes the clouds to rise from the ends of the earth;
Who makes lightning for the rain,
Who brings the wind from His storehouses;
- ⁸Who struck the firstborn of Egypt,
Both of man and animal; [Ex 12:12, 29; Ps 78:51; 136:10]
⁹Who sent signs and wonders into your midst, O Egypt,
Upon Pharaoh and all his servants.
- ¹⁰Who struck many nations
And killed mighty kings,
¹¹Sihon, king of the Amorites,
Og, king of Bashan,
And all the kingdoms of Canaan;
¹²And He gave their land as a heritage,
A heritage to Israel His people.

¹³Your name, O LORD, endures forever,
Your fame and remembrance, O LORD, [endures] throughout all generations.

¹⁴For the LORD will judge His people
And He will have compassion on His servants [revealing
His mercy]. [Heb 10:30]

¹⁵The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
The work of men's hands.

¹⁶They have mouths, but they do not speak;
They have eyes, but they do not see;

¹⁷They have ears, but they do not hear,
Nor is there any breath in their mouths.

¹⁸Those who make idols are like them [absolutely worthless—spiritually blind, deaf, and powerless]; So is everyone who trusts in and relies on them. [Ps 115:4–8]

¹⁹O house of Israel, bless and praise the LORD [with gratitude]; O house of Aaron, bless the LORD;

²⁰O house of Levi, bless the LORD;

POWERPOINT

Psalm 136 contains twenty-six verses and each of them ends with, “for His lovingkindness endures forever.” You and I can never do so much wrong that there isn’t any more mercy left for us. Where sin abounds, grace (mercy) abounds much more (Rom. 5:20). God is much more eager to pardon than to punish.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Active Awareness of God's Love

When I began my ministry, as I was preparing for my first meeting, I asked the Lord what He wanted me to teach, and what came to my heart was, Tell My people I love them. My response was, "They know that from Sunday school. I want to teach them something really powerful." The Lord reminded me that if people were actively aware of how much He loved them, as the psalmist was in Psalm 136, they would act differently.

As I began to study the subject of receiving God's love, I realized I was in desperate need of the message myself. I had a subconscious, vague sort of understanding that God loved me, but I needed a deeper revelation of this life-changing truth. The love of God is meant to be a powerful force in our lives, one that will take us through even the most difficult trials without our ever doubting God's love.

You who fear the LORD [and worship Him with obedience], bless the LORD [with grateful praise]! [Deut 6:5; Ps 31:23]

²¹Blessed be the LORD from Zion,
Who dwells [with us] at Jerusalem.
Praise the LORD! (Hallelujah!)

Psalm 136

Thanks for the LORD's Goodness to Israel.

- ¹GIVE THANKS to the LORD, for He is good;
For His lovingkindness (graciousness, mercy, compassion)
endures forever.
- ²Give thanks to the God of gods,
For His lovingkindness endures forever.
- ³Give thanks to the Lord of lords,
For His lovingkindness endures forever.
- ⁴To Him who alone does great wonders,
For His lovingkindness endures forever;
- ⁵To Him who made the heavens with skill,
For His lovingkindness endures forever;
- ⁶To Him who stretched out the earth upon the waters,
For His lovingkindness endures forever;
- ⁷To Him who made the great lights,
For His lovingkindness endures forever;
- ⁸The sun to rule over the day,
For His lovingkindness endures forever;
- ⁹The moon and stars to rule by night,
For His lovingkindness endures forever;
- ¹⁰To Him who struck the firstborn of Egypt,
For His lovingkindness endures forever; [Ex 12:29]
- ¹¹And brought Israel out from among them,
For His lovingkindness endures forever; [Ex 12:51; 13:3, 17]
- ¹²With a strong hand and with an outstretched arm,
For His lovingkindness endures forever;
- ¹³To Him who divided the Red Sea into parts,

- For His lovingkindness endures forever; [Ex 14:21, 22]
- ¹⁴ And made Israel pass through the midst of it,
For His lovingkindness endures forever;
- ¹⁵ But tossed Pharaoh and his army into the Red Sea,
For His lovingkindness endures forever;
- ¹⁶ To Him who led His people through the wilderness,
For His lovingkindness endures forever;
- ¹⁷ To Him who struck down great kings,
For His lovingkindness endures forever;
- ¹⁸ And killed mighty kings,
For His lovingkindness endures forever; [Deut 29:7]
- ¹⁹ Sihon, king of the Amorites,
For His lovingkindness endures forever; [Num 21:21–24]
- ²⁰ And Og, king of Bashan,
For His lovingkindness endures forever; [Num 21:33–35]
- ²¹ And gave their land as a heritage,
For His lovingkindness endures forever;
- ²² Even a heritage to Israel His servant,
For His lovingkindness endures forever; [Josh 12:1]
- ²³ Who [faithfully] remembered us in our lowly condition,
For His lovingkindness endures forever;
- ²⁴ And has rescued us from our enemies,
For His lovingkindness endures forever;
- ²⁵ Who gives food to all flesh,
For His lovingkindness endures forever;
- ²⁶ Give thanks to the God of heaven,

For His lovingkindness (graciousness, mercy, compassion)
endures forever.

Psalm 137

An Experience of the Captivity.

- ¹BY THE rivers of Babylon,
There we [captives] sat down and wept,
When we remembered Zion [the city God imprinted on our hearts].
- ²On the willow trees in the midst of Babylon
We hung our harps.
- ³For there they who took us captive demanded of us a song with words,
And our tormentors [who made a mockery of us demanded]
amusement, saying,
“Sing us one of the songs of Zion.”
- ⁴How can we sing the LORD’s song
In a strange and foreign land?
- ⁵If I forget you, O Jerusalem,
Let my right hand forget [her skill with the harp].
- ⁶Let my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth
If I do not remember you,
If I do not prefer Jerusalem
Above my chief joy. [Ezek 3:26]
- ⁷Remember, O LORD, against the sons of Edom, The day of [the fall of] Jerusalem,

Who said “Down, down [with her]
To her very foundation.”

⁸O daughter of Babylon, you devastator,
How blessed will be the one
Who repays you [with destruction] as you have repaid us.
[Is 13:1–22; Jer 25:12, 13]

⁹How blessed will be the one who seizes and dashes your little ones
Against the rock.

Psalm 138

Thanksgiving for the LORD's Favor.

A Psalm of David.

¹I WILL give You thanks with all my heart;
I sing praises to You before the [pagan] gods.

²I will bow down [in worship] toward Your holy temple
And give thanks to Your name for Your lovingkindness and Your truth;

For You have magnified Your word together with Your name.

³On the day I called, You answered me;
And You made me bold and confident with [renewed] strength in my life.

⁴All the kings of the land will give thanks and praise You, O LORD, When they have heard of the promises of Your mouth [which were fulfilled].

⁵Yes, they will sing of the ways of the LORD [joyfully celebrating His wonderful acts], For great is the glory and majesty of the LORD.

⁶Though the LORD is exalted,
He regards the lowly [and invites them into His fellowship];

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, when I call to You, You answer me. You make me bold and confident with renewed strength in my life.

• adapted from Psalm 138:3

But the proud and haughty He knows from a distance.
[Prov 3:34; James 4:6; 1 Pet 5:5]

⁷Though I walk in the midst of trouble, You will revive me;
You will stretch out Your hand against the wrath of my
enemies,
And Your right hand will save me. [Ps 23:3, 4]

⁸The LORD will accomplish that which concerns me;

Your [unwavering] lovingkindness, O LORD, endures forever

Do not abandon the works of Your own hands. [Ps 57:2; Phil 1:6]

Psalm 139

God's Omnipresence and Omniscience.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

¹O LORD, you have searched me [thoroughly] and have known me.

²You know when I sit down and when I rise up [my entire life, everything I do];

You understand my thought from afar. [Matt 9:4; John 2:24, 25]

³You scrutinize my path and my lying down,
And You are intimately acquainted with all my ways.

⁴Even before there is a word on my tongue [still unspoken],
Behold, O LORD, You know it all. [Heb 4:13]

⁵You have enclosed me behind and before,
And [You have] placed Your hand upon me.

⁶Such [infinite] knowledge is too wonderful for me;
It is too high [above me], I cannot reach it.

⁷Where can I go from Your Spirit?
Or where can I flee from Your presence?

⁸If I ascend to heaven, You are there;
If I make my bed in Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead), behold, You are there. [Rom 11:33]

⁹If I take the wings of the dawn,

If I dwell in the remotest part of the sea,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

A Healthy Relationship with Yourself

Take comfort in knowing that God knew all about you even before you were born, and He still chose to be in relationship with you (see Ps. 139:13–16; Jer. 1:5). How you think God views you and how you feel about yourself on the inside determines the quality of life you will have. Learn to see yourself as God sees you!

It's important to ask yourself what kind of relationship you have with you. Do you enjoy spending time alone? Are you able to forgive yourself (receive God's forgiveness) when you make mistakes? Are you patient with yourself while God is changing you? Are you able to be yourself and freely be the unique individual God created you to be?

When you ask these questions and answer them honestly, you can begin to understand what kind of relationship you have with yourself. If it is not what it should be, you can learn from God's Word how to love yourself in a balanced way. If you can relax about who you are, you can usually relax about life in general.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Appreciate Uniqueness

When it comes to having good relationships, it is vital that we learn to accept the differences in people. God creates each of us differently on purpose. Those who are different from you are unique and special, and not people who got in all the wrong lines when God was passing out personality traits. I used to think, Where was I when God handed out the “nice genes”? I was right where I was supposed to be, receiving what God wanted me to have, and so were you and so was everyone else. Let’s remember that God created each of us in our mother’s womb carefully and intricately (see Ps. 139:13–16). We are not a mistake just because we are not like someone else.

Thinking that everyone should be like we are, as well as thinking that we should be like everyone else, is one of our biggest problems in relationships. This kind of wrong thinking causes wrong attitudes that are damaging to healthy and satisfying marriages, friendships, and work relationships. The truth is that God has created us all differently on purpose, and although I don’t always understand why He created some people the way He did, I do know I am called by Him to love and accept them and not to think something is wrong with them because they don't seem to be a perfect match for me.

How dull and uninteresting life would be if everyone looked and behaved exactly alike and had the same temperament. What if every tree and flower were the same, and every bird, dog, cat, et cetera? Boring! We can learn to appreciate the variety of people God has placed in the world, and we can learn how to think about the differences between ourselves in a way that honors God and improves our relationships.

How many people do we shut out of our lives, exclude, and criticize, making them feel inferior just because they are not like we are? Probably more than we care to count. We each connect with some people more than others, but even if we don't want to be a person's best friend, we can appreciate their uniqueness as God's creation and make every effort to make them feel loved and significant.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Wise and wonderful God, I am sorry for the many people I've shut out of my life in one way or another because they were different from me. Help me to love and accept others and to enjoy them as Your amazing creations. In Jesus' name. Amen.

POWERPOINT

Most people struggle greatly with jealousy, envy, and comparison. This is a common trait found in people who are insecure. Learning that I was an individual (see Ps. 139:14)—that God has a unique, personal plan for my life—has been one of the most valuable and precious freedoms the Lord has granted me. I am assured that I need not compare myself with anyone, and neither do you.

- ¹⁰Even there Your hand will lead me,
And Your right hand will take hold of me.
- ¹¹If I say, “Surely the darkness will cover me,
And the night will be the only light around me,”
- ¹²Even the darkness is not dark to You and conceals nothing from You,
But the night shines as bright as the day;

Darkness and light are alike to You. [Dan 2:22]

- ¹³For You formed my innermost parts;
You knit me [together] in my mother's womb.
- ¹⁴I will give thanks and praise to You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made;
Wonderful are Your works,
And my soul knows it very well.
- ¹⁵My frame was not hidden from You,
When I was being formed in secret,
And intricately and skillfully formed [as if embroidered with many colors] in the depths of the earth.
- ¹⁶Your eyes have seen my unformed substance;
And in Your book were all written
The days that were appointed for me,
When as yet there was not one of them [even taking shape].
- ¹⁷How precious also are Your thoughts to me, O God!
How vast is the sum of them! [Ps 40:5]
- ¹⁸If I could count them, they would outnumber the sand.
When I awake, I am still with You.
- ¹⁹O that You would kill the wicked, O God;
Go away from me, therefore, men of bloodshed. [Is 11:4]
- ²⁰For they speak against You wickedly,
Your enemies take Your name in vain. [Jude 15]
- ²¹Do I not hate those who hate You, O LORD?
And do I not loathe those who rise up against You?
- ²²I hate them with perfect and utmost hatred;

They have become my enemies.

²³Search me [thoroughly], O God, and know my heart;
Test me and know my anxious thoughts;

²⁴And see if there is any wicked or hurtful way in me,
And lead me in the everlasting way.

Psalm 140

Prayer for Protection against the Wicked.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

¹RESCUE ME, O LORD, from evil men;

Protect me from violent men.

²They devise evil things in their hearts;

They continually [gather together and] stir up wars.

³They sharpen their tongues like a serpent's;

Poison of a viper is under their lips. [Rom 3:13]

Selah.

⁴Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked; Protect me from violent men

Who intend to trip up my steps.

⁵The proud have hidden a trap for me, and cords;

They have spread a net by the wayside;

They have set traps for me.

Selah.

⁶I said to the LORD, "You are my God;

Listen to the voice of my supplications, O LORD.

⁷"O GOD the Lord, the strength of my salvation,

POWERPOINT

Scripture lets us know how very important it is that we think properly. Thoughts are powerful, and they have creative ability. If our thoughts are going to affect what we become, thinking right thoughts should certainly be a priority for us. For our head to be protected in the day of battle (see Ps. 140:7), it is an absolute necessity to get your thinking in line with God's Word. You cannot have a positive life and a negative mind.

You have covered my head in the day of battle.

⁸“Do not grant, O LORD, the desires of the wicked;
Do not further their evil device, that they not be exalted.

Selah.

- ⁹“Those who surround me raise their heads;
May the mischief of their own lips come upon them.
- ¹⁰“Let burning coals fall upon them;
Let them be thrown into the fire,
Into deep [water] pits from which they cannot rise.
- ¹¹“Do not let a slanderer be established in the earth;
Let evil quickly hunt the violent man [to overthrow him and stop his evil acts].”
- ¹²I know [with confidence] that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted, And [will secure] justice for the poor.
- ¹³Surely the righteous will give thanks to Your name;
The upright will dwell in Your presence.

Psalm 141

An Evening Prayer for Sanctification and Protection.

A Psalm of David.

- ¹LORD, I call upon You; hurry to me.
Listen to my voice when I call to You.
- ²Let my prayer be counted as incense before You;
The lifting up of my hands as the evening offering. [1 Tim
2:8; Rev 8:3, 4]
- ³Set a guard, O LORD, over my mouth;
Keep watch over the door of my lips [to keep me from speaking thoughtlessly].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Think About What You Say

I strongly recommend confessing the Word of God out loud. Even though what you confess may be the opposite of how you initially feel, keep confessing it; God's Word has inherent power to change your feelings. God's Word also brings comfort to us and quiets our distraught emotions.

David said, "Set a guard, O LORD, over my mouth; keep watch over the door of my lips [to keep me from speaking thoughtlessly]" (Ps. 141:3). There is a time to speak and a time to keep silent. Sometimes the best thing we can do is to say nothing. When we do speak, it is wise to be purposeful in what we say and to think about our words beforehand. If we truly believe our words are filled with life or death (see Prov. 18:21), why wouldn't we more carefully choose what we say?

⁴Do not incline my heart to [consent to or tolerate] any evil thing, Or to practice deeds of wickedness
With men who plan and do evil;
And let me not eat of their delicacies (be tempted by their gain).

⁵Let the righteous [thoughtfully] strike (correct) me—it is a kindness [done to encourage my spiritual maturity].
It is [the choicest anointing] oil on the head;

Let my head not refuse [to accept and acknowledge and learn from] it;

For still my prayer is against their wicked deeds. [Prov 9:8; 19:25; 25:12; Gal 6:1]

⁶Their [wicked, godless] judges are thrown down the sides of the rocky cliff,
And they [who followed them] will hear my words, for they are pleasant (just).

⁷As when the one plows and breaks open the ground [and the soil scatters behind him],
Our bones have been scattered at the mouth of Sheol [by the injustices of the wicked]. [2 Cor 1:9]

⁸For my eyes are toward You, O GOD, the Lord; In You I take refuge; do not pour out my life nor leave me defenseless.

⁹Keep me from the jaws of the trap which they have set for me,
And from the snares of those who do evil.

¹⁰Let the wicked fall into their own nets,
While I pass by and safely escape [from danger].

Psalm 142

Prayer for Help in Trouble.

A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem, of David; when he was in the cave. A Prayer.

¹I CRY aloud with my voice to the LORD;
I make supplication with my voice to the LORD.

²I pour out my complaint before Him;
I declare my trouble before Him.

³When my spirit was overwhelmed and weak within me
[wrapped in darkness],

POWERPOINT

David, the author of Psalm 142, was a man through whom deep emotions ran. His response to his feelings of depression and being wrapped in darkness was not to meditate on the problem.

Instead, he literally came against the problem by choosing to cry out to the Lord, his refuge and portion in the land of the living. In other words, he thought on Someone good, his Deliverer, and it helped him to overcome depression.

You knew my path.

In the way where I walk

They have hidden a trap for me.

⁴Look to the right [the point of attack] and see;

For there is no one who has regard for me [to act in my favor].

Escape has failed me and I have nowhere to run;
No one cares about my life.

⁵I cried out to You, O LORD;
I said, “You are my refuge,
My portion in the land of the living.

⁶“Give attention to my cry,
For I am brought very low;
Rescue me from my persecutors,
For they are stronger than I.

⁷“Bring my soul out of prison (adversity),
So that I may give thanks and praise Your name;
The righteous will surround me [in triumph],
For You will look after me.”

Psalm 143

Prayer for Help and Guidance.

A Psalm of David.

¹HEAR MY prayer, O LORD,
Listen to my supplications!
Answer me in Your faithfulness, and in Your righteousness.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Choose To Think About God

The psalmist David talked frequently about meditating on or thinking about all the wonderful works of the Lord—the mighty acts of God. He thought on the name of the Lord, the mercy of God, the love of God, and many other such things.

When he felt depressed, he wrote in Psalm 143:4–5 that his response was not to meditate on the problem. Instead, he actively came against the problem by choosing to remember the good times of past days—pondering the doings of God and the works of His hands. In other words, David focused his thoughts on something good, and it helped him overcome depression.

Never forget this: Your mind plays an important role in your victory. Think thoughts that will add power to your life, not ones that drain your strength and energy.

²And do not enter into judgment with Your servant,
For in Your sight no man living is righteous or justified. [Ps
130:3; Rom 3:20–26; Gal 2:16]

³For the enemy has persecuted me,
He has crushed my life down to the ground;
He has made me dwell in dark places, like those who have been long dead.

⁴Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed and weak within me
[wrapped in darkness];
My heart grows numb within me.

⁵I remember the days of old;
I meditate on all that You have done;
I ponder the work of Your hands.

⁶I reach out my hands to You;
My throat thirsts for You, as a parched land [thirsts for water].

Selah.

⁷Answer me quickly, O LORD, my spirit fails; Do not hide
Your face from me,
Or I will become like those who go down into the pit (grave).

⁸Let me hear Your lovingkindness in the morning,
For I trust in You.
Teach me the way in which I should walk,
For I lift up my soul to You.

⁹Rescue me, O LORD, from my enemies;
I take refuge in You.

¹⁰Teach me to do Your will [so that I may please You],
For You are my God;
Let Your good Spirit lead me on level ground.

¹¹Save my life, O LORD, for Your name's sake;
In Your righteousness bring my life out of trouble.

¹²In your lovingkindness, silence and destroy my enemies
And destroy all those who afflict my life,

For I am Your servant.

Psalm 144

Prayer for Rescue and Prosperity.

A Psalm of David.

¹BLESSED BE the LORD, my Rock and my great strength,
Who trains my hands for war
And my fingers for battle;

POWERPOINT

David praises the Lord with strong, compelling words in Psalm 144—Rock, fortress, high tower, and more. The Lord subdued David's enemies under him, but David also had to do his part. We are partners with God. He has a part, and we have a part. We cannot do His part, and He will not do ours. If we do our part, He will train us to conquer in battle.

²My [steadfast] lovingkindness and my fortress,
My high tower and my rescuer,
My shield and He in whom I take refuge,
Who subdues my people under me.

³LORD, what is man that You take notice of him?
Or the son of man that You think of him? [Job 7:17; Ps 8:4;
Heb 2:6]

⁴Man is like a mere breath;

His days are like a shadow that passes away.

⁵Bow Your heavens, O LORD, and come down; Touch the mountains, and they will smoke.

⁶Flash lightning and scatter my enemies;
Send out Your arrows and confuse and embarrass and frustrate them.

⁷Stretch out Your hand from above;
Set me free and rescue me from great waters,
Out of the hands of [hostile] foreigners [who surround us]

⁸Whose mouths speak deceit [without restraint],
And whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

⁹I will sing a new song to You, O God;
Upon a harp of ten strings I will sing praises to You,

¹⁰Who gives salvation to kings,
Who sets David His servant free from the evil sword.

¹¹Set me free and rescue me from the hand of [hostile] foreigners,
Whose mouth speaks deceit [without restraint],
And whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

¹²Let our sons in their youth be like plants full grown,
And our daughters like corner pillars fashioned for a palace;

¹³Let our barns be full, supplying every kind of produce,
And our flocks bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields;

¹⁴Let our cattle bear
Without mishap and without loss,

And let there be no outcry in our streets!

¹⁵How blessed and favored are the people in such circumstance;

How blessed [fortunate, prosperous, and favored] are the people whose God is the LORD!

Psalm 145

The LORD Extolled for His Goodness.

A Psalm of praise. Of David.

¹I WILL exalt You, my God, O King,
And [with gratitude and submissive wonder] I will bless
Your name forever and ever.

²Every day I will bless You and lovingly praise You;
Yes, [with awe-inspired reverence] I will praise Your name forever and ever.

³Great is the LORD, and highly to be praised,
And His greatness is [so vast and profound as to be] unsearchable [incomprehensible to man]. [Job 5:9; 9:10;
Rom 11:33]

⁴One generation shall praise Your works to another,
And shall declare Your mighty and remarkable acts.

⁵On the glorious splendor of Your majesty
And on Your wonderful works, I will meditate.

⁶People will speak of the power of Your awesome acts,
And [with gratitude and submissive wonder] I will tell of Your greatness.

⁷They will overflow [like a fountain] when they speak of Your great and abundant goodness And will sing joyfully of Your righteousness.

⁸The LORD is gracious and full of compassion, Slow to anger and abounding in lovingkindness.

⁹The LORD is good to all,
And His tender mercies are over all His works [the entirety of things created].

¹⁰All Your works shall give thanks to You and praise You, O LORD, And Your godly ones will bless You.

¹¹They shall speak of the glory of Your kingdom
And talk of Your power,

¹²To make known to the sons of men Your mighty acts
And the glorious majesty of Your kingdom.

¹³Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,

Speak God's Word

The Lord is near to me and to all who call on Him, to all who call on Him in truth and without guile. He will fulfill the desires of those who fear and worship Him; He also will hear my cry and will save me.

| adapted from PSALM 145:18–19 |

And Your dominion endures throughout all generations.
[Dan 7:14, 27]

¹⁴The LORD upholds all those [of His own] who fall And raises up all those who are bowed down.

¹⁵The eyes of all look to You [in hopeful expectation],
And You give them their food in due time.

¹⁶You open Your hand
And satisfy the desire of every living thing.

¹⁷The LORD is [unwaveringly] righteous in all His ways And gracious and kind in all His works.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Speak Words that Edify and Encourage

Words are wonderful when used with good intentions. They can encourage, edify, and give confidence. When we understand the power of words and realize we can choose what we think and speak, our lives can be transformed. Our words are not forced on us—they formulate in our thoughts and then we speak them. We can learn to choose our thoughts, to resist the wrong ones, and to think on the good, healthy, right ones.

When you get up in the morning, if there is something you need to attend to that you're not looking forward to, you can say, "I dread this day," or you can say, "I will exalt You, my God, O King. ... Every day I will bless You and lovingly praise You" (Ps. 145:1–2). God will give you the strength today to do whatever you need to do and to do it with joy.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Liberally Meets Your Needs

Paul tells us that God will “liberally supply (fill until full) your every need according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus” (Phil. 4:19). He doesn’t promise that God will give us everything we want, but he does assure us that God will meet our every need.

Many times we think of needs in terms of the basic necessities of life. These represent our physical needs, but I believe God created us to need more than the essentials. We don’t simply need money, nourishment, roofs over our heads, and clothes to wear. We also need wisdom, strength, health, friends, and loved ones; and we need the gifts and talents and abilities to help us do what we are supposed to do in life. We need many things, and God is willing to open His hand “and satisfy the desire of every living thing” (Ps. 145:16).

¹⁸The LORD is near to all who call on Him,
To all who call on Him in truth (without guile).

¹⁹He will fulfill the desire of those who fear and worship Him [with awe-inspired reverence and obedience]; He also will hear their cry and will save them.

²⁰The LORD keeps all who love Him,
But all the wicked He will destroy.

²¹My mouth will speak the praise of the LORD,

And all flesh will bless and gratefully praise His holy name forever and ever.

Psalm 146

The LORD an Abundant Helper.

¹PRAISE THE LORD! (Hallelujah!)

Praise the LORD, O my soul!

²While I live I will praise the LORD;

I will sing praises to my God as long as I live.

³Do not trust in princes,

In mortal man, in whom there is no salvation (help).

⁴When his spirit leaves him, he returns to the earth;

In that very day his thoughts and plans perish. [1 Cor 2:6]

⁵How blessed and graciously favored is he whose help is the

God of Jacob (Israel), Whose hope is in the LORD his God,

[Gen 32:30]

⁶Who made heaven and earth,

The sea, and all that is in them,

Who keeps truth and is faithful forever, [Gen 1:3]

POWERPOINT

Disappointments hurt! So rather than be hurt again and again, many people simply refuse to hope or to believe that anything good will ever happen to them. This type of behavior sets up a negative lifestyle. When thoughts are negative, everything else becomes negative, too. No matter what comes against us, God wants each of us to be “blessed and graciously favored” (Ps. 146:5) as we look to Him as our help and set our hope in Him. Positive minds are always full of faith and hope.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Think About Where Your Thoughts Come From

Not every thought in your head is from you, from your circumstances, or from God. Some of the thoughts you think are from Satan's placing wrong thoughts in your mind because he wants to control your life. Did you know you don't have to continue thinking about everything that comes into your mind? You can cast wrong thoughts down and replace them with right thoughts (see 2 Cor. 10:5).

When you wake up feeling depressed and think, This is not going to be a good day, you don't have to remain depressed. Instead, you can believe, Great is our Lord and abundant in strength. He lifts up the humble. This will be a fantastic day! (see Ps. 147:5–6).

Negative thoughts and attitudes can be avoided simply by saying, "That's not a God thought. I cast it down in Jesus' name, and I am going to think about something beneficial to me today."

⁷Who executes justice for the oppressed,
Who gives food to the hungry.
The LORD sets free the prisoners.

⁸The LORD opens the eyes of the blind; The LORD lifts up those who are bowed down;

The LORD loves the righteous [the upright in heart]. [Luke 13:13; John 9:7, 32]

⁹The LORD protects the strangers;
He supports the fatherless and the widow;
But He makes crooked the way of the wicked.

¹⁰The LORD shall reign forever,
Your God, O Zion, to all generations.
Praise the LORD! (Hallelujah!) [Ps 10:16; Rev 11:15]

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

A New Perspective on the Past

Our perspectives on life involve our thought processes and they also affect our moods. If I am in a bad mood, I may need a perspective adjustment. Perhaps I am thinking too much about what I don't have and not enough about what I do have. Or I may be looking at what people don't do for me, instead of what they have done for me. Our perspective on anything, especially events and people we don't like, will have a long-range effect. How we view events that took place as far back as childhood may still be affecting us negatively today.

When I learned to think of the abuse in my childhood as something that was unfortunate, but something that God could use for good, the pain began to lessen and I began to heal emotionally. As long as I deeply resented my father for sexually abusing me, and I resented my mother for not protecting me, I had a wound in my soul that could not heal. When I decided to try to understand the way my father was raised, and my mother's fear and weakness of character, I actually started feeling more sorry for them than I did for myself.

If you are dealing with a broken heart or a wounded soul, try asking God to help you make a connection between your perspective and your current feelings. If you are willing to change the way you view the situation, you will begin to make progress toward wholeness instead of remaining broken. Life breaks each of us in one way or another. It is up to us whether we will remain broken and bitter or let God use it to make us better and more powerful.

We have God's promise: "He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds [healing their pain and comforting their sorrow]" (Ps. 147:3). Although opening up old wounds for the purpose of having them cleansed is painful, it is more painful to remain wounded and broken all our lives. We cannot do anything about our past, but we can do a great deal about our future. I encourage you to not remain stuck in a painful place when God is offering you healing. It's never too late for a new beginning.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord God of heaven, I commit to You my heart and soul and mind for the healing of what is broken in my life. Help me to see what I need to know about my past, and cleanse my wounds that I may be healed. It's in Jesus' name, I pray. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

High Praises

In David's Psalm 149, he gives us a picture of the position God's people should take—with "the high praises of God... in their throats, and a two-edged sword" of the Word of God in their hands (v. 6). In the remainder of the psalm, he goes on to infer that the saints of God take this position in order to defeat their enemies.

Praise defeats the devil more quickly than any other battle plan. Praise is a garment we put on that will protect us from defeat and negativity in our minds. This garment should be genuine heart praise and not just lip service or a method being tried to see if it works. Praise always involves the Word of God. We praise God according to His Word and His goodness.

Worship is a battle position! As we worship God for Who He is and for His attributes, for His ability and might, we will witness His power and attributes released on our behalf.

I am sure your heart frequently fills up with love and worship for God. Bow your heart and give thanks to Him. Praise and worship confuse the enemy. Take your position, and you will see the enemy's defeat.

God never loses a battle. He has a definite battle plan, and when we follow it, we will win with Him.

He will beautify the humble with salvation.

⁵Let the godly ones exult in glory;
Let them sing for joy on their beds.

⁶Let the high praises of God be in their throats,
And a two-edged sword in their hands, [Heb 4:12; Rev 1:16]

⁷To execute vengeance on the nations
And punishment on the peoples,

⁸To bind their kings with chains
And their nobles with fetters of iron,

⁹To execute on them the judgment written.
This is the honor for all His godly ones.
Praise the LORD! (Hallelujah!)

Proverbs

Proverbs is the Bible's greatest book of wisdom. Wisdom should be one of our primary goals for our thinking. The wiser we are, the better we can recognize and overcome the enemy's attempts to influence our thoughts and use them against us. Throughout Proverbs, we see the words knowledge, understanding, and learning, which are all aspects of godly wisdom. It offers wisdom on relationships, decision-making, time management, how to handle finances, and many other aspects of life.

Proverbs also includes many verses pertaining to thoughts and words. From start to finish, it teaches us how to think and how to speak and emphasizes the importance of thoughts and words. If you want to see change in any area of your life, it will start with changing the way you think and the way you speak.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM PROVERBS:

Words are not merely words. They are containers for power (see Proverbs 18:21).

As human beings, we think about and plan many things, but it is the Lord's purpose that will stand strong (see Proverbs 19:21).

Whatever you think, that's what you become (see Proverbs 23:7).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM PROVERBS:

The wise will hear and increase their learning, and the person of understanding will acquire wise counsel and the skill [to steer his course wisely and lead others to the truth]. | Proverbs 1:5

Trust in and rely confidently on the LORD with all your heart and do not rely on your own insight or understanding. In all your ways know and acknowledge and recognize Him, and He will make your paths straight and smooth [removing obstacles that block your way]. | Proverbs 3:5–6

He who guards his mouth and his tongue guards himself from troubles. | Proverbs 21:23

THE PROVERBS

- 1 THE PROVERBS (truths obscurely expressed, maxims) of Solomon son of David, king of Israel: ²To know [skillful and godly] wisdom and instruction;
To discern and comprehend the words of understanding and insight, ³To receive instruction in wise behavior and the discipline of wise thoughtfulness,
Righteousness, justice, and integrity;
⁴That prudence (good judgment, astute common sense) may be given to the naive or inexperienced [who are easily misled], And knowledge and discretion (intelligent discernment) to the youth,
⁵The wise will hear and increase their learning,
And the person of understanding will acquire wise counsel and the skill [to steer his course wisely and lead others to the truth], [Prov 9:9]
⁶To understand a proverb and a figure [of speech] or an enigma with its interpretation, And the words of the wise and their riddles [that require reflection].

⁷The [reverent] fear of the LORD [that is, worshiping Him and regarding Him as truly awesome] is the beginning and the preeminent part of knowledge [its starting point and its essence];

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, I pray that You will help me grow in wisdom. As I become wiser, I will hear and increase in learning, and I will acquire wise counsel and the skill to steer my course wisely through life and lead others to the truth.

• adapted from Proverbs 1:5–6

But arrogant fools despise [skillful and godly] wisdom and instruction and self-discipline. [Ps 111:10]

⁸My son, hear the instruction of your father,
And do not reject the teaching of your mother.

⁹For they are a garland of grace on your head,
And chains and ornaments [of gold] around your neck.

¹⁰My son, if sinners entice you,
Do not consent. [Ps 1:1; Eph 5:11]

¹¹If they say, “Come with us;
Let us lie in wait to shed blood,
Let us ambush the innocent without cause;

¹²Let us swallow them alive like Sheol (the place of the dead),

- Even whole, as those who go down to the pit [of death];
- ¹³We will find and take all kinds of precious possessions,
We will fill our houses with spoil;
- ¹⁴Throw in your lot with us [they insist];
We will all have one money bag [in common],”
- ¹⁵My son, do not walk on the road with them;
Keep your foot [far] away from their path,
- ¹⁶For their feet run to evil,
And they hurry to shed blood.
- ¹⁷Indeed, it is useless to spread the baited net
In the sight of any bird;
- ¹⁸But [when these people set a trap for others] they lie in wait for their own blood;
They set an ambush for their own lives [and rush to their destruction].
- ¹⁹So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain;
Greed takes away the lives of its possessors. [Prov 15:27; 1
Tim 6:10]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Live Fearlessly

Solomon said, “Whoever listens to me (Wisdom) will live securely and in confident trust and will be at ease, without fear or dread of evil” (Prov. 1:33). That is a powerful promise for us today.

Similarly, the apostle Paul stated that we should not, even for one moment, be frightened or intimidated by anything our opponents try to do to us (see Phil. 1:28), that our fearlessness is a sign to our enemies of their impending destruction and evidence of our deliverance and salvation through God. In other words, when we have trials, the spiritual world is watching. God is watching and Satan is watching; therefore, how we respond and what we say and do are very important. If you can hold your tongue and remain emotionally stable during times of difficulty, it is a sign of spiritual maturity and you are honoring God and letting the enemy know he is not going to control you.

She raises her voice in the markets;

²¹She calls out at the head of the noisy streets [where large crowds gather];

At the entrance of the city gates she speaks her words:

²²“How long, O naive ones [you who are easily misled], will you love being simple-minded and undiscerning?

How long will scoffers [who ridicule and deride] delight in scoffing,
How long will fools [who obstinately mock truth] hate knowledge?

23“If you will turn and pay attention to my rebuke,
Behold, I [Wisdom] will pour out my spirit on you;
I will make my words known to you. [Is 11:2; Eph 1:17–20]

24“Because I called and you refused [to answer],
I stretched out my hand and no one has paid attention [to my offer]; [Is 65:11, 12; 66:4; Jer 7:13, 14; Zech 7:11–13]

25*And you treated all my counsel as nothing*
And would not accept my reprimand,

26*I also will laugh at your disaster;*
I will mock when your dread and panic come,

27*When your dread and panic come like a storm,*
And your disaster comes like a whirlwind,
When anxiety and distress come upon you [as retribution].

28“Then they will call upon me (Wisdom), but I will not answer;
They will seek me eagerly but they will not find me, [Job 27:9; 35:12, 13; Is 1:15, 16; Jer 11:11; Mic 3:4; James 4:3]

29*Because they hated knowledge*
And did not choose the fear of the LORD [that is, obeying Him with reverence and awe-filled respect], [Prov 8:13]

30*They would not accept my counsel,*
And they spurned all my rebuke.

31“Therefore they shall eat of the fruit of their own [wicked]

way

And be satiated with [the penalty of] their own devices.

³²“For the turning away of the naive will kill them,
And the careless ease of [self-righteous] fools will destroy them. [Is 32:6]

³³“But whoever listens to me (Wisdom) will live securely and in confident trust
And will be at ease, without fear or dread of evil.”

2 MYSON, if you will receive my words And treasure my commandments within you,

²So that your ear is attentive to [skillful and godly] wisdom,
And apply your heart to understanding [seeking it conscientiously and striving for it eagerly];

³Yes, if you cry out for insight,
And lift up your voice for understanding;

⁴If you seek skillful and godly wisdom as you would silver
And search for her as you would hidden treasures;

⁵Then you will understand the [reverent] fear of the LORD
[that is, worshiping Him and regarding Him as truly awesome]

And discover the knowledge of God. [Prov 1:7]

⁶For the LORD gives [skillful and godly] wisdom;
From His mouth come knowledge and understanding.

⁷He stores away sound wisdom for the righteous [those who are in right standing with Him];
He is a shield to those who walk in integrity [those of honorable character and moral courage],

⁸He guards the paths of justice;

And He preserves the way of His saints (believers). [1 Sam
2:9; Ps 66:8, 9]

⁹Then you will understand righteousness and justice [in every circumstance]

And integrity and every good path.

¹⁰For [skillful and godly] wisdom will enter your heart
And knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.

Speak God's Word

If I seek wisdom as I would seek silver and search for her as I would search for hidden treasure, then I will understand the reverent fear of the Lord, regard Him as truly awesome, and discover the knowledge of God.

| adapted from PROVERBS 2:4–5 |

- ¹¹Discretion will watch over you,
Understanding and discernment will guard you,
- ¹²To keep you from the way of evil and the evil man,
From the man who speaks perverse things;
- ¹³From those who leave the paths of uprightness
To walk in the ways of darkness;
- ¹⁴Who find joy in doing evil
And delight in the perversity of evil,
- ¹⁵Whose paths are crooked,
And who are devious in their ways;
- ¹⁶To keep you from the immoral woman;
From the seductress with her flattering words, [Prov 2:11]

- ¹⁷Who leaves the companion (husband) of her youth,
And forgets the covenant of her God.
- ¹⁸For her house leads down to death
And her paths lead to the dead;
- ¹⁹None who go to her return again,
Nor do they regain the paths of life—
- ²⁰So you will walk in the way of good men [that is, those of personal integrity, moral courage and honorable character], And keep to the paths of the righteous.
- ²¹For the upright [those who are in right standing with God]
will live in the land
And those [of integrity] who are blameless [in God's sight] will remain in it;
- ²²But the wicked will be cut off from the land
And the treacherous shall be [forcibly] uprooted and removed from it.

3 MYSON, do not forget my teaching, But let your heart keep my commandments;

²For length of days and years of life [worth living]
And tranquility and prosperity [the wholeness of life's blessings] they will add to you.

³Do not let mercy and kindness and truth leave you [instead let these qualities define you]; Bind them [securely] around your neck,

Speak God's Word

I will trust in and rely confidently on the Lord with all my heart and not rely on my own insight or understanding. In all my ways I will know and acknowledge and recognize Him, and He will make my paths straight and smooth, removing obstacles in my way.

| adapted from PROVERBS 3:5–6 |

Write them on the tablet of your heart. [Col 3:9–12]

⁴So find favor and high esteem

In the sight of God and man. [Luke 2:52]

⁵Trust in and rely confidently on the LORD with all your heart
And do not rely on your own insight or understanding.

⁶In all your ways know and acknowledge and recognize Him,
And He will make your paths straight and smooth
[removing obstacles that block your way].

⁷Do not be wise in your own eyes;

Fear the LORD [with reverent awe and obedience] and turn [entirely] away from evil. [Prov 8:13]

⁸It will be health to your body [your marrow, your nerves, your sinews, your muscles—all your inner parts]
And refreshment (physical well-being) to your bones.

⁹Honor the LORD with your wealth
And with the first fruits of all your crops (income); [Deut
26:2; Mal 3:10; Luke 14:13, 14]

¹⁰Then your barns will be abundantly filled
And your vats will overflow with new wine. [Deut 28:8]

¹¹My son, do not reject or take lightly the discipline of the LORD [learn from your mistakes and the testing that comes from His correction through discipline]; Nor despise His rebuke, [Ps 94:12; Heb 12:5, 6; Rev 3:19]

¹²For those whom the LORD loves He corrects,
Even as a father corrects the son in whom he delights.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Trust God with Your Mind

God wants us to trust Him not only with our whole heart, but also with our mind (our thoughts). I found in my own life that I would often say I trusted God, yet I mentally tried to come up with reasons for and answers to my problems. I spent a lot of time in confusion saying, "Lord, I just don't understand! I don't know what to do." God wasn't asking me to understand or to take action apart from His instructions. He wanted me to trust!

Surveys taken in my conferences reveal that most people say they are confused, but God is not the author of confusion (see 1 Cor. 14:33). We can eliminate confusion in our lives if we cease trying to figure everything out and trust God to let us know what He wants us to know at the right time.

Acknowledge God in all that you do and He promises to direct your path (see Prov. 3:6). You may not always understand the direction He is leading you, but you can be assured that you will arrive at the right place at the right time.

¹³Happy [blessed, considered fortunate, to be admired] is the man who finds [skillful and godly] wisdom, And the man who gains understanding and insight [learning from God's word and life's experiences], ¹⁴For wisdom's profit is better than the profit of silver,

And her gain is better than fine gold.

¹⁵She is more precious than rubies;
And nothing you can wish for compares with her [in value].
[Job 28:12–18]

¹⁶Long life is in her right hand;
In her left hand are riches and honor. [Prov 8:12–21; 1 Tim 4:8]

¹⁷Her ways are highways of pleasantness and favor,
And all her paths are peace.

¹⁸She is a tree of life to those who take hold of her,
And happy [blessed, considered fortunate, to be admired] is everyone who holds her tightly.

¹⁹The LORD by His wisdom has founded the earth;
By His understanding He has established the heavens. [Col 1:16]

²⁰By His knowledge the deeps were broken up
And the clouds drip with dew.

²¹My son, let them not escape from your sight,
But keep sound wisdom and discretion,

²²And they will be life to your soul (your inner self)
And a gracious adornment to your neck (your outer self).

²³Then you will walk on your way [of life] securely
And your foot will not stumble. [Ps 91:11, 12; Prov 10:9]

²⁴When you lie down, you will not be afraid;
When you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.

²⁵Do not be afraid of sudden fear
Nor of the storm of the wicked when it comes [since you will be blameless];

²⁶For the LORD will be your confidence, firm and strong, And will keep your foot from being caught [in a trap].

²⁷Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due [its rightful recipients], When it is in your power to do it.
[Rom 13:7; Gal 6:10]

²⁸Do not say to your neighbor, “Go, and come back,
And tomorrow I will give it,”
When you have it with you. [Lev 19:13; Deut 24:15]

²⁹Do not devise evil against your neighbor,
Who lives securely beside you.

³⁰Do not quarrel with a man without cause,
If he has done you no harm. [Rom 12:18]

³¹Do not envy a man of violence
And do not choose any of his ways. [Ps 37:1; 73:3; Prov
24:1]

³²For the devious are repulsive to the LORD;
But His private counsel is with the upright [those with spiritual integrity and moral courage]. [Ps 25:14]

³³The curse of the LORD is on the house of the wicked,
But He blesses the home of the just and righteous. [Ps
37:22; Zech 5:4; Mal 2:2]

³⁴Though He scoffs at the scoffers and scorns the scorners, Yet He gives His grace [His undeserved favor] to the humble [those who give up self-importance]. [James 4:6; 1
Pet 5:5]

³⁵The wise will inherit honor and glory,

But dishonor and shame is conferred on fools. [Is 32:6]

4 HEAR, O children, the instruction of a father, And pay attention [and be willing to learn] so that you may gain understanding and intelligent discernment.

²For I give you good doctrine;
Do not turn away from my instruction.

³When I was a son with my father (David),
Tender and the only son in the sight of my mother
(Bathsheba),

⁴He taught me and said to me,
“Let your heart hold fast my words;
Keep my commandments and live. [1 Chr 28:9; Eph 6:4]

⁵“Get [skillful and godly] wisdom! Acquire understanding [actively seek spiritual discernment, mature comprehension, and logical interpretation]!
Do not forget nor turn away from the words of my mouth.

⁶“Do not turn away from her (Wisdom) and she will guard and protect you;
Love her, and she will watch over you.

⁷“The beginning of wisdom is: Get [skillful and godly] wisdom [it is preeminent]!
And with all your acquiring, get understanding [actively seek spiritual discernment, mature comprehension, and logical interpretation]. [James 1:5]

⁸“Prize wisdom [and exalt her], and she will exalt you;
She will honor you if you embrace her.

- ⁹“She will place on your head a garland of grace;
She will present you with a crown of beauty and glory.”
- ¹⁰Hear, my son, and accept my sayings,
And the years of your life will be many.
- ¹¹I have instructed you in the way of [skillful and godly]
wisdom;
I have led you in upright paths.
- ¹²When you walk, your steps will not be impeded [for your path will be clear and open];
And when you run, you will not stumble.
- ¹³Take hold of instruction; [actively seek it, grip it firmly and]
do not let go.
Guard her, for she is your life.
- ¹⁴Do not enter the path of the wicked,
And do not go the way of evil men.
- ¹⁵Avoid it, do not travel on it;
Turn away from it and pass on.
- ¹⁶For the wicked cannot sleep unless they do evil;
And they are deprived of sleep unless they make someone stumble and fall.
- ¹⁷For they eat the bread of wickedness
And drink the wine of violence.
- ¹⁸But the path of the just (righteous) is like the light of dawn,
That shines brighter and brighter until [it reaches its full strength and glory in] the perfect day. [2 Sam 23:4; Matt
5:14; Phil 2:15]

- ¹⁹The way of the wicked is like [deep] darkness;
They do not know over what they stumble. [John 12:35]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, open my ears to Your sayings. I will not let them escape from my sight. I will keep them in the center of my heart. For they are life to all who find them, and healing and health to all my flesh.

• adapted from Proverbs 4:20–22

- ²⁰My son, pay attention to my words and be willing to learn;
Open your ears to my sayings.
- ²¹Do not let them escape from your sight;
Keep them in the center of your heart.
- ²²For they are life to those who find them,
And healing and health to all their flesh.

²³ Watch over your heart with all diligence,
For from it flow the springs of life.

²⁴ Put away from you a deceitful (lying, misleading) mouth,
And put devious lips far from you.

²⁵ Let your eyes look directly ahead [toward the path of moral courage]

And let your gaze be fixed straight in front of you [toward the path of integrity].

²⁶ Consider well and watch carefully the path of your feet,
And all your ways will be steadfast and sure.

²⁷ Do not turn away to the right nor to the left [where evil may lurk];

Turn your foot from [the path of] evil.

5 MY SON, be attentive to my wisdom [godly wisdom learned by costly experience], Incline your ear to my understanding; [1 Kin 4:29]

² That you may exercise discrimination and discretion (good judgment),

And your lips may reserve knowledge and answer wisely [to temptation].

³ For the lips of an immoral woman drip honey [like a honeycomb]

And her speech is smoother than oil; [Ezek 20:30; Col 2:8–10; 2 Pet 2:14–17]

⁴ But in the end she is bitter like [the extract of] wormwood,

Sharp as a two-edged sword.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Post a Guard Around Your Heart

To watch over our hearts with all diligence (see Prov. 4:23) means to be alert or watchful to Satan's subtle tactics at all times. We can learn about how to do this from Philippians 4:6-7: "Do not be anxious or worried about anything, but in everything [every circumstance and situation] by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, continue to make your [specific] requests known to God. And the peace of God [that peace which reassures the heart, that peace] which transcends all understanding, [that peace which] stands guard over your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus [is yours]."

When we guard something, we watch over it with special care and stand ready to protect it at all times. To me, Proverbs 4:23 means that I am to be alert, to be conscious and aware of my thoughts and attitudes, and to not let the enemy or anything else poison my heart with lies and deceptions. Many wrong and vicious thought patterns and attitudes are built up in us little by little. We must remember that Satan is very patient, and he is relentless, so we must be even more relentless than he is. Guard your heart with all diligence!

Sometimes when riding along in the car, looking out the window, I catch myself thinking some thoughts that are really unproductive, unkind, and suspicious of others. Thankfully, because of what I have learned from God's Word, I know to immediately cast down these thoughts and choose to think on something good. This is how we guard our hearts. We need to also be careful not to spend too much time with people who are given to gossiping, complaining, and being negative. We can become like what we surround ourselves with if we don't guard our hearts carefully!

⁵Her feet go down to death;
Her steps take hold of Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead), ⁶So that she does not think [seriously] about the path of life;

Her ways are aimless and unstable; you cannot know where her path leads.

⁷Now then, my sons, listen to me
And do not depart from (forget) the words of my mouth.

⁸Let your way [in life] be far from her,
And do not go near the door of her house [avoid even being near the places of temptation], [Prov 4:15; Rom 16:17; 1 Thess 5:19–22]

⁹Or you will give your honor to others,
And your years to the cruel one,

¹⁰And strangers will be filled with your strength
And your hard-earned wealth will go to the house of a foreigner [who does not know God];

¹¹And you will groan when your life is ending,
When your flesh and your body are consumed;

¹²And you say, “How I hated instruction and discipline,
And my heart despised correction and reproof!

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Discipline Is Good

Some people, such as the person described in Proverbs 5:12–13, cringe at the mention of the word discipline. Their mental attitudes toward discipline are unhealthy and self-defeating and lead to a defeated life. We need to realize that discipline is our friend, not our enemy. It helps us be what we say we want to be, do what we say we want to do, and have what we say we want to have.

Discipline doesn't prevent you from having fun and doing what you want to do in life; instead it helps you obtain what you truly want, which includes peace, joy, and right relationships. Learn to love discipline (it will keep you out of trouble!), and embrace it as your companion in life.

¹³“I have not listened to the voice of my teachers,
Nor have I inclined my ear to those who instructed me.

¹⁴“I was almost in total ruin
In the midst of the assembly and congregation.”

¹⁵Drink water from your own cistern [of a pure marriage relationship]

And fresh running water from your own well.

¹⁶Should your springs (children) be dispersed,
As streams of water in the streets?

- ¹⁷[Confine yourself to your own wife.] Let your children be yours alone,
And not the children of strangers with you.
- ¹⁸Let your fountain (wife) be blessed [with the rewards of fidelity],
And rejoice in the wife of your youth. [Song 4:12, 15]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that my ways are before Your eyes, and You carefully watch all my comings and goings.

• adapted from Proverbs 5:21

- ¹⁹*Let her be as a loving hind and graceful doe,
Let her breasts refresh and satisfy you at all times;
Always be exhilarated and delight in her love.*
- ²⁰Why should you, my son, be exhilarated with an immoral woman

And embrace the bosom of an outsider (pagan)?

²¹For the ways of man are directly before the eyes of the
LORD,

And He carefully watches all of his paths [all of his comings and goings]. [2 Chr 16:9; Job 31:4; 34:21; Prov 15:3; Jer
16:17; Hos 7:2; Heb 4:13]

²²The iniquities done by a wicked man will trap him,
And he will be held with the cords of his sin.

²³He will die for lack of instruction (discipline),
And in the greatness of his foolishness he will go astray and be lost.

6 MY SON, if you have become surety (guaranteed a debt or obligation) for your neighbor, If you have given your pledge for [the debt of] a stranger or another [outside your family],

²If you have been snared with the words of your lips,
If you have been trapped by the speech of your mouth,

³Do this now, my son, and release yourself [from the obligation];

Since you have come into the hand of your neighbor,
Go humble yourself, and plead with your neighbor [to pay his debt and release you].

⁴Give no [unnecessary] sleep to your eyes,
Nor slumber to your eyelids;

⁵Tear yourself away like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter
And like a bird from the hand of the fowler.

⁶Go to the ant, O lazy one;
Observe her ways and be wise, [Job 12:7]

⁷Which, having no chief,
Overseer or ruler,

⁸She prepares her food in the summer
And brings in her provisions [of food for the winter] in the harvest.

⁹How long will you lie down, O lazy one?
When will you arise from your sleep [and learn self-discipline]? [Prov 24:33, 34]

¹⁰“Yet a little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to lie down and rest”—

POWERPOINT

We can learn a lot when we read about the ant, which works and provides for itself with no supervision. People who must always have someone else pushing them to do things rarely do something great. Those who only do what is right when someone is looking won't get very far either. We should be motivated from within and live our lives before God, knowing that He sees all and trusting that our reward will come from Him.

¹¹So your poverty will come like an approaching prowler who walks [slowly, but surely]

And your need [will come] like an armed man [making you helpless]. [Prov 10:4; 13:4; 20:4]

¹²A worthless person, a wicked man,

Is one who walks with a perverse (corrupt, vulgar) mouth.

¹³Who winks with his eyes [in mockery], who shuffles his feet
[to signal],

Who points with his fingers [to give subversive instruction];

¹⁴Who perversely in his heart plots trouble and evil continually;

Who spreads discord and strife.

¹⁵Therefore [the crushing weight of] his disaster will come suddenly upon him;

Instantly he will be broken, and there will be no healing or remedy [because he has no heart for God].

¹⁶These six things the LORD hates;
Indeed, seven are repulsive to Him:

¹⁷A proud look [the attitude that makes one overestimate oneself and discount others], a lying tongue, And hands that shed innocent blood, [Ps 120:2, 3]

¹⁸A heart that creates wicked plans,
Feet that run swiftly to evil,

¹⁹A false witness who breathes out lies [even half-truths],
And one who spreads discord (rumors) among brothers.

²⁰My son, be guided by your father's [God-given] commandment (instruction)

And do not reject the teaching of your mother; [Eph 6:1–3]

²¹Bind them continually upon your heart (in your thoughts),
And tie them around your neck. [Prov 3:3; 7:3]

- ²²When you walk about, they (the godly teachings of your parents) will guide you;
When you sleep, they will keep watch over you;
And when you awake, they will talk to you.
- ²³For the commandment is a lamp, and the teaching [of the law] is light,
And reproofs (rebukes) for discipline are the way of life, [Ps 19:8; 119:105]
- ²⁴To keep you from the evil woman,
From [the flattery of] the smooth tongue of an immoral woman.
- ²⁵Do not desire (lust after) her beauty in your heart,
Nor let her capture you with her eyelashes.
- ²⁶For on account of a prostitute one is reduced to a piece of bread [to be eaten up],
And the immoral woman hunts [with a hook] the precious life [of a man].
- ²⁷Can a man take fire to his chest
And his clothes not be burned?
- ²⁸Or can a man walk on hot coals
And his feet not be scorched?
- ²⁹So is the one who goes in to his neighbor's wife;
Whoever touches her will not be found innocent or go unpunished.
- ³⁰People do not despise a thief if he steals
To satisfy himself when he is hungry;
- ³¹But when he is found, he must repay seven times [what he stole];

He must give all the property of his house [if necessary to meet his fine].

³²But whoever commits adultery with a woman lacks common sense and sound judgment and an understanding [of moral principles]; He who would destroy his soul does it.

³³Wounds and disgrace he will find,
And his reproach (blame) will not be blotted out.

³⁴For jealousy enrages the [wronged] husband;
He will not spare [the guilty one] on the day of vengeance.

³⁵He will not accept any ransom [offered to buy him off from demanding full punishment];
Nor will he be satisfied though you offer him many gifts (bribes).

7 MYSON, keep my words And treasure my commandments within you [so they are readily available to guide you].

²Keep my commandments and live,
And keep my teaching and law as the apple of your eye.

³Bind them [securely] on your fingers;
Write them on the tablet of your heart.

⁴Say to [skillful and godly] wisdom, “You are my sister,”
And regard understanding and intelligent insight as your intimate friends;

⁵That they may keep you from the immoral woman,
From the foreigner [who does not observe God’s laws and] who flatters with her [smooth] words.

⁶For at the window of my house
I looked out through my lattice.

⁷And among the naive [the inexperienced and gullible],
I saw among the youths
A young man lacking [good] sense,

⁸Passing through the street near her corner;
And he took the path to her house

⁹In the twilight, in the evening;
In the black and dark night.

¹⁰And there a woman met him,
Dressed as a prostitute and sly and cunning of heart.

¹¹She was boisterous and rebellious;
She would not stay at home.

¹²At times she was in the streets, at times in the market places,
Lurking and setting her ambush at every corner.

¹³So she caught him and kissed him
And with a brazen and impudent face she said to him:

¹⁴“I have peace offerings with me;
Today I have paid my vows.

¹⁵“So I came out to meet you [that you might share with me the feast of my offering],
Diligently I sought your face and I have found you.

¹⁶“I have spread my couch with coverings and cushions of tapestry,
With colored fine linen of Egypt.

17“I have perfumed my bed

With myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

18“Come, let us drink our fill of love until morning;

Let us console and delight ourselves with love.

19“For my husband is not at home.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

What Goes In Comes Out

When we think thoughts and speak words, especially frequently, they are written on the tablet of our heart, embedded in our hard drive, so to speak. Just as a computer can only put out the information programmed into it, so our heart can only put out what is written on it: “For the mouth speaks out of that which fills the heart” (Matt. 12:34). If you don’t like the results you are getting from your computer, you don’t hesitate to install a new program or perhaps even get a new computer. You can take similar steps with your life.

Start rewriting what has been programmed into your heart by choosing more carefully what you think and speak. “Keep my commandments and live, and keep my teaching and law as the apple of your eye. Bind them [securely] on your fingers; write them on the tablet of your heart” (Prov. 7:2–3).

He has gone on a long journey;

²⁰He has taken a bag of money with him,
And he will come home on the appointed day.”

²¹With her many persuasions she caused him to yield;
With her flattering lips she seduced him.

²²Suddenly he went after her, as an ox goes to the slaughter [not knowing the outcome],

Or as one in stocks going to the correction [to be given] to a fool,

²³Until an arrow pierced his liver [with a mortal wound];
Like a bird fluttering straight into the net,
He did not know that it would cost him his life.

²⁴Now therefore, my sons, listen to me,
And pay attention to the words of my mouth.

²⁵Do not let your heart turn aside to her ways,
Do not stray into her [evil, immoral] paths.

²⁶For she has cast down many [mortally] wounded;
Indeed, all who were killed by her were strong. [Neh 13:26]

²⁷Her house is the way to Sheol,
Descending to the chambers of death. [1 Cor 6:9]

8 DOES NOT wisdom call, And understanding lift up her voice?

²On the top of the heights beside the way,
Where the paths meet, wisdom takes her stand;

³Beside the gates, at the entrance to the city,
At the entrance of the doors, she cries out:

⁴“To you, O men, I call,
And my voice is directed to the sons of men.

⁵“O you naive or inexperienced [who are easily misled], understand prudence and seek astute common sense;
And, O you [closed-minded, self-confident] fools, understand wisdom [seek the insight and self-discipline that leads to godly living]. [Is 32:6]

⁶“Listen, for I will speak excellent and noble things;
And the opening of my lips will reveal right things.

⁷“For my mouth will utter truth,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

An Excellent Life

In Proverbs 8:6, Solomon made a decision about how he would talk, and we would be wise to follow his example. Just as we can direct our thoughts, we can also direct our words with God's help. We should choose to "speak excellent and noble things."

Our words affect us and the people around us. They also affect what God is able to do for us. We cannot have a negative mouth and a positive life. In 1 Peter 3:10, the apostle Peter teaches us that if we want to enjoy life and see good days—even in the midst of trials—we must keep our tongue free from evil.

What kind of life do you want? Do you want an excellent life? If so, then be excellent in your choice of words. Change your words, and you will change your life!

And wickedness is repulsive and loathsome to my lips.

⁸“All the words of my mouth are in righteousness (upright, in right standing with God);

There is nothing contrary to truth or perverted (crooked) in them.

⁹“They are all straightforward to him who understands [with an open and willing mind],

- And right to those who find knowledge and live by it.
- 10“Take my instruction rather than [seeking] silver,
And take knowledge rather than choicest gold,
- 11“For wisdom is better than rubies;
And all desirable things cannot compare with her. [Job
28:15; Ps 19:10; 119:127]
- 12“I, [godly] wisdom, reside with prudence [good judgment, moral courage and astute common sense], And I find knowledge and discretion. [James 1:5]
- 13“The [reverent] fear and worshipful awe of the LORD includes the hatred of evil; Pride and arrogance and the evil way,
And the perverted mouth, I hate.
- 14“Counsel is mine and sound wisdom;
I am understanding, power and strength are mine.
- 15“By me kings reign
And rulers decide and decree justice. [Dan 2:21; Rom 13:1]
- 16“By me princes rule, and nobles,
All who judge and govern rightly.
- 17“I love those who love me;
And those who seek me early and diligently will find me. [1
Sam 2:30; Ps 91:14; John 14:21; James 1:5]
- 18“Riches and honor are with me, Enduring wealth and righteousness (right standing with God). [Prov 3:16; Matt 6:33]
- 19“My fruit is better than gold, even pure gold,
And my yield is better than choicest silver.

- 20“*I, [Wisdom, continuously] walk in the way of
righteousness,
In the midst of the paths of justice,*
- 21*That I may cause those who love me to inherit wealth and true riches,
And that I may fill their treasuries.*
- 22“The LORD created and possessed me at the beginning of His way, Before His works of old [were accomplished].
- 23“*From everlasting I was established and ordained,
From the beginning, before the earth existed, [I, godly wisdom, existed]. [John 1:1; 1 Cor 1:24]*
- 24“*When there were no ocean depths I was born,
When there were no fountains and springs overflowing with water.*
- 25“*Before the mountains were settled,
Before the hills, I was born; [Job 15:7, 8]*
- 26*While He had not yet made the earth and the fields,
Or the first of the dust of the earth.*
- 27“*When He established the heavens, I [Wisdom] was there;
When He drew a circle upon the face of the deep,*
- 28*When He made firm the skies above,
When the fountains and springs of the deep became fixed and strong,*
- 29*When He set for the sea its boundary
So that the waters would not transgress [the boundaries set by] His command,*

POWERPOINT

The Bible mentions seven things the Lord hates, and a lying tongue is one of them (see Prov. 6:16–19). In Proverbs 8:7–8, Solomon says he will speak truth. Satan is known as the deceiver; he is a liar and the father of lies (see John 8:44), and one way he wages war in our minds is to whisper lies to us. God, on the other hand is truth, and we can assume that since He hates a lying tongue, He loves words that are truthful. Jesus said that He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life (see John 14:6). Satan lies to all of us, and the only way we can recognize and resist his lies is to know God's Word, which is truth. The more we know the truth, the more we can speak truthfully.

When He marked out the foundations of the earth—[Job 38:10, 11; Ps 104:6–9; Jer 5:22]

³⁰Then I was beside Him, as a master craftsman;

And I was daily His delight;

Rejoicing before Him always, [Matt 3:17; John 1:2, 18]

³¹Rejoicing in the world, His inhabited earth,

And having my delight in the sons of men. [Ps 16:3]

³²“Now therefore, O sons, listen to me,

For blessed [happy, prosperous, to be admired] are they who keep my ways. [Ps 119:1, 2; 128:1, 2; Luke 11:28]

³³“Heed (pay attention to) instruction and be wise,

And do not ignore or neglect it.

³⁴“Blessed [happy, prosperous, to be admired] is the man who listens to me,

Watching daily at my gates,

Waiting at my doorposts.

³⁵“For whoever finds me (Wisdom) finds life

And obtains favor and grace from the LORD.

³⁶“But he who fails to find me or sins against me injures himself;

All those who hate me love and court death.”

9 WISDOM HAS built her [spacious and sufficient] house;
She has hewn out and set up her seven pillars.

- ²She has prepared her food, she has mixed her wine;
She has also set her table. [Matt 22:2–4]
- ³She has sent out her maidens, she calls
From the highest places of the city:
- ⁴“Whoever is naive or inexperienced, let him turn in here!”
As for him who lacks understanding, she says,
- ⁵“Come, eat my food
And drink the wine I have mixed [and accept my gifts]. [Is 55:1; John 6:27]
- ⁶“Leave [behind] your foolishness [and the foolish] and live,
And walk in the way of insight and understanding.”

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*Help me to always remember,
Lord, that the reverent fear of You is the beginning of wisdom and that regarding
You as truly awesome is the beginning and preeminent part of wisdom, its starting* place and its essence.

• adapted from Proverbs 9:10

- ⁷He who corrects and instructs a scoffer gets dishonor for himself,
And he who rebukes a wicked man gets insults for himself.
- ⁸Do not correct a scoffer [who foolishly ridicules and takes no responsibility for his error] or he will hate you; Correct a wise man [who learns from his error], and he will love you. [Ps 141:5]
- ⁹Give instruction to a wise man and he will become even wiser;
Teach a righteous man and he will increase his learning.
- ¹⁰The [reverent] fear of the LORD [that is, worshiping Him and regarding Him as truly awesome] is the beginning and the preeminent part of wisdom [its starting point and its essence], And the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding and spiritual insight.
- ¹¹For by me (wisdom from God) your days will be multiplied,
And years of life shall be increased.
- ¹²If you are wise, you are wise for yourself [for your own benefit];
If you scoff [thoughtlessly ridicule and disdain], you alone will pay the penalty.
- ¹³The foolish woman is restless and noisy;
She is naive and easily misled and thoughtless, and knows nothing at all [of eternal value].

¹⁴She sits at the doorway of her house,
On a seat by the high and conspicuous places of the city,

¹⁵Calling to those who pass by,
Who are making their paths straight:

¹⁶“Whoever is naive or inexperienced, let him turn in here!”
And to him who lacks understanding (common sense), she says,

¹⁷“Stolen waters (pleasures) are sweet [because they are forbidden];
And bread eaten in secret is pleasant.” [Prov 20:17]

¹⁸But he does not know that the spirits of the dead are there,
And that her guests are [already] in the depths of Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead).

10 THE PROVERBS of Solomon: A wise son makes a father
glad,

But a foolish [stubborn] son [who refuses to learn] is a grief to his mother.

²Treasures of wickedness and ill-gotten gains do not profit,
But righteousness and moral integrity in daily life rescues
from death.

³The LORD will not allow the righteous to hunger [God will meet all his needs], But He will reject and cast away the craving of the wicked. [Ps 34:9, 10; 37:25]

⁴Poor is he who works with a negligent and idle hand,

But the hand of the diligent makes him rich.

⁵He who gathers during summer and takes advantage of his opportunities is a son who acts wisely, But he who sleeps during harvest and ignores the moment of opportunity is a son who acts shamefully.

⁶Blessings are on the head of the righteous [the upright, those in right standing with God],
But the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.

⁷The *memory of the righteous [person] is a [source of] blessing, But the name of the wicked will [be forgotten and] rot [like a corpse]. [Ps 112:6; 9:5]

⁸The wise in heart [are willing to learn so they] will accept and obey commands (instruction), But the babbling fool [who is arrogant and thinks himself wise] will come to ruin.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Remember To Speak Positively

Jesus often experienced adverse circumstances, and while He talked about the situations He was facing, He never did so in a negative way. In the book of John, He told His disciples He was going away, but they should be happy for Him because it was the will of God. He went on to say He wouldn't be talking much more with them (see John 14:28–31).

Proverbs 10:11 says, “The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life and his words of wisdom are a source of blessing,” which Jesus demonstrated perfectly. He knew when to speak, when not to speak, and how to speak. He obviously knew the power and impact of words. I believe His choosing to say fewer words and making sure that the ones He did say were the right ones helped Him to complete God's perfect plan for Him.

⁹He who walks in integrity and with moral character walks securely,
But he who takes a crooked way will be discovered and punished.

¹⁰He who [maliciously] winks the eye [of evil intent] causes trouble;
And the babbling fool [who is arrogant and thinks himself wise] will come to ruin.

¹¹The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life and his words of wisdom are a source of blessing, But the mouth of the wicked conceals violence and evil.

¹²Hatred stirs up strife,
But love covers and overwhelms all transgressions
[forgiving and overlooking another's faults].

¹³On the lips of the discerning, [skillful and godly] wisdom is found,
But discipline and the rod are for the back of the one who is without common sense and understanding.

¹⁴Wise men store up and treasure knowledge [in mind and heart],
But with the mouth of the foolish, ruin is at hand.

¹⁵The rich man's wealth is his fortress;
The ruin of the poor is their poverty. [Ps 52:7; 1 Tim 6:17]

¹⁶The wages of the righteous [the upright, those in right standing with God] is [a worthwhile, meaningful] life, The income of the wicked, punishment. [Rom 6:21–23; 1 Tim 6:10]

¹⁷He who learns from instruction and correction is on the [right] path of life [and for others his example is a path toward wisdom and blessing], But he who ignores and refuses correction goes off course [and for others his example is a path toward sin and ruin].

¹⁸He who hides hatred has lying lips,
And he who spreads slander is a fool. [Prov 26:24–26]

¹⁹When there are many words, transgression and offense are unavoidable,

But he who controls his lips and keeps thoughtful silence is wise.

²⁰The tongue of the righteous is like precious silver (greatly valued);

The heart of the wicked is worth little.

²¹The lips of the righteous feed and guide many,

But fools [who reject God and His wisdom] die for lack of understanding.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Avoiding “Loose Mouth Disease”

According to Proverbs 10:19 people who talk too much can easily get themselves into trouble. Without meaning to cause problems, they talk about something they were to keep confidential, sharing information with someone who wasn't to find out about it, hurting someone's feelings, spreading gossip or rumors, or making casual comments that others might easily misinterpret. I refer to this kind of undisciplined speech as “loose mouth disease.” People who have it merely love to talk and take every opportunity available to say something.

One aspect of loose mouth disease that almost all of us are susceptible to is making comments that other people perceive as promises. I once hurt a friend deeply in this very way. I said something that she took as a long-term commitment, and at the time I thought it would be the case. But God later led me in a different direction, and she was wounded. I felt terrible that I didn't speak more wisely. Since then I have learned to say to people, “We will do such and such unless God leads us in a different direction.” That was what I meant when speaking with my friend, but I didn't actually say it. I was not careful enough with my words.

When you make a commitment to someone, speak carefully and make your intention clear. Try not to leave room for the other person to misinterpret your intent, and qualify your commitment if necessary with a comment such as, "We can do that as long as it's good for both of us," or "We can do that if I do not have to work overtime that weekend," or, as I mentioned earlier, "We can do that unless God leads us in a different direction." If we believe what God's Word says about the words of our mouths, we must also take seriously the issue of keeping our word.

If you have ever told someone you would do something and not done it, even if you had a good reason, you know you will feel awkward and uncomfortable the next time you see that person. This kind of trouble can be avoided by practicing wisdom and thinking before you speak. Proverbs 21:23 says, "He who guards his mouth and his tongue guards himself from troubles."

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Dear Lord, please help me understand how serious my words are and to be more careful about them, especially when making promises or commitments. I want to be a person of integrity where my words are concerned, and I believe You will help me do it. In Jesus' name. Amen.

- ²²The blessing of the LORD brings [true] riches, And He adds no sorrow to it [for it comes as a blessing from God].
- ²³Engaging in evil is like sport to the fool [who refuses wisdom and chases sin],
But to a man of understanding [skillful and godly] wisdom brings joy.
- ²⁴What the wicked fears will come upon him,
But the desire of the righteous [for the blessings of God] will be granted.
- ²⁵When the whirlwind passes, the wicked is no more,
But the righteous has an everlasting foundation. [Ps 125:1;
Matt 7:24–27]
- ²⁶Like vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes,
So is the lazy one to those who send him to work.
- ²⁷The [reverent] fear of the LORD [worshiping, obeying, serving, and trusting Him with awe-filled respect] prolongs one's life, But the years of the wicked will be shortened.
- ²⁸The hope of the righteous [those of honorable character and integrity] is joy,
But the expectation of the wicked [those who oppose God and ignore His wisdom] comes to nothing.
- ²⁹The way of the LORD is a stronghold to the upright,
But it is ruin to those who do evil.
- ³⁰The [consistently] righteous will never be shaken,
But the wicked will not inhabit the earth. [Ps 37:22; 125:1]

- ³¹The mouth of the righteous flows with [skillful and godly] wisdom,
But the perverted tongue will be cut out.
- ³²The lips of the righteous know (speak) what is acceptable,
But the mouth of the wicked knows (speaks) what is perverted (twisted).

11 A FALSE balance and dishonest business practices are extremely offensive to the LORD, But an accurate scale is His delight. [Lev 19:35, 36; Prov 16:11]

²When pride comes [boiling up with an arrogant attitude of self-importance], then come dishonor and shame, But with the humble [the teachable who have been chiseled by trial and who have learned to walk humbly with God] there is wisdom and soundness of mind.

³The integrity and moral courage of the upright will guide them,
But the crookedness of the treacherous will destroy them.

⁴Riches will not provide security in the day of wrath and judgment,
But righteousness rescues from death. [Prov 10:2; Zeph 1:18]

⁵The righteousness of the blameless will smooth their way and keep it straight,
But the wicked will fall by his own wickedness.

⁶The righteousness of the upright will rescue them,

But the treacherous will be caught by their own greed.

⁷When the wicked man dies, his expectation will perish;
And the hope of [godless] strong men perishes.

⁸The righteous is rescued from trouble,
And the wicked takes his place.

⁹With his mouth the godless man destroys his neighbor,
But through knowledge and discernment the righteous will be rescued.

¹⁰When it goes well for the righteous, the city rejoices,
And when the wicked perish, there are shouts of joy.

¹¹By the blessing [of the influence] of the upright the city is exalted,
But by the mouth of the wicked it is torn down.

¹²He who despises his neighbor lacks sense,
But a man of understanding keeps silent.

¹³He who goes about as a gossip reveals secrets,
But he who is trustworthy and faithful keeps a matter hidden.

¹⁴Where there is no [wise, intelligent] guidance, the people fall [and go off course like a ship without a helm],

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Seek the Right Kind of Advice

When you are facing a dilemma, it is important to run to the throne (to God), not to the phone to ask a friend for advice. It's always best to go to God first and seek His wisdom and to not start asking other people what they think. There are situations in life when you can benefit from a trustworthy person's good advice and times when God chooses to speak to you through other people, so I want to offer a couple of guidelines for seeking advice.

First, anytime we talk to someone else about our problems, we should do so with a purpose in mind. When we speak of our troubles just to be talking about them or trying to gain nothing more than sympathy, we often say things that don't really need to be said.

Second, know that bad advice is worse than no advice at all. So the first guideline for talking to people about your problems is to speak with someone you respect and are willing to listen to. Talk with someone who is known to be wise, who knows God's Word thoroughly, and who will keep your secrets. God's Word clearly teaches us that we are to not follow the advice of the ungodly (see Ps. 1:1). Seek advice from true friends who will not simply agree with you, but will disagree if they see that you may be wrong about something.

Third, talk with someone whom you can trust not to discuss with anyone else what you have discussed with them. Only people with mature character will keep secrets, so if you need to talk about something confidential, seek someone who is disciplined with their mouth and has been proven trustworthy.

You can protect yourself and hopefully gain the good advice you need by following God's wisdom in these areas. I can tell you from firsthand experience that I have sacrificed my joy and peace on numerous occasions simply because I talked to the wrong people. Proverbs 11:14 says there is victory in the abundance of counselors, but it also says they must be "wise and godly" counselors. When you need advice, look for wise, godly people who can give you good advice—and you'll be on your way to victory.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Help me, Lord, to look to You for advice first anytime I have a problem. If I need to seek advice from another human being, lead me to the right people, people who are wise and trustworthy and will help me find the wisdom you want me to have. In Jesus' name. Amen.

But in the abundance of [wise and godly] counselors there is victory.

¹⁵He who puts up security and guarantees a debt for an outsider will surely suffer [for his foolishness], But he who hates (declines) being a guarantor is secure [from its penalties].

¹⁶A gracious and good woman attains honor,
And ruthless men attain riches [but not respect].

¹⁷The merciful and generous man benefits his soul [for his behavior returns to bless him], But the cruel and callous man does himself harm.

¹⁸The wicked man earns deceptive wages,
But he who sows righteousness and lives his life with integrity will have a true reward [that is both permanent and satisfying]. [Hos 10:12; Gal 6:8, 9; James 3:18]

¹⁹He who is steadfast in righteousness attains life,
But he who pursues evil attains his own death.

²⁰The perverse in heart are repulsive and shamefully vile to the LORD, But those who are blameless and above reproach in their walk are His delight!

²¹Assuredly, the evil man will not go unpunished,
But the descendants of the righteous will be freed.

²²As a ring of gold in a swine's snout,
So is a beautiful woman who is without discretion [her lack of character mocks her beauty].

²³The desire of the righteous brings only good,

But the expectation of the wicked brings wrath.

²⁴There is the one who [generously] scatters [abroad], and yet increases all the more;

And there is the one who withholds what is justly due, but it results only in want and poverty.

²⁵The generous man [is a source of blessing and] shall be prosperous and enriched,

And he who waters will himself be watered [reaping the generosity he has sown]. [2 Cor 9:6–10]

²⁶The people curse him who holds back grain [when the public needs it],

But a blessing [from God and man] is upon the head of him who sells it.

²⁷He who diligently seeks good seeks favor and grace,
But he who seeks evil, evil will come to him.

²⁸He who leans on and trusts in and is confident in his riches will fall,

But the righteous [who trust in God's provision] will flourish like a green leaf.

²⁹He who troubles (mismanages) his own house will inherit the wind (nothing),

And the foolish will be a servant to the wise-hearted.

³⁰The fruit of the [consistently] righteous is a tree of life,

And he who is wise captures and wins souls [for God—he gathers them for eternity]. [Matt 4:19; 1 Cor 9:19; James 5:20]

³¹If the righteous will be rewarded on the earth [with godly blessings],

How much more [will] the wicked and the sinner [be repaid with punishment]!

12 WHOEVER LOVES instruction and discipline loves knowledge, But he who hates reproof and correction is stupid.

²A good man will obtain favor from the LORD,
But He will condemn a man who devises evil.

³A man will not be established by wickedness,
But the root of the [consistently] righteous will not be moved.

⁴A virtuous and excellent wife [worthy of honor] is the crown of her husband,
But she who shames him [with her foolishness] is like rottenness in his bones. [Prov 31:23; 1 Cor 11:7]

⁵The thoughts and purposes of the [consistently] righteous are just (honest, reliable), But the counsels and schemes of the wicked are deceitful.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Power of Words

The Bible says that we need to control our tongue if we want to enjoy life (see 1 Pet. 3:10) and that “the tongue of the wise brings healing” (Prov. 12:18). I find that reading and meditating on what God’s Word says about the power of words is helpful to me. Here are some of my favorites: “The one who guards his mouth [thinking before he speaks] protects his life” (Prov. 13:3). “Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable and pleasing in Your sight, O LORD, my [firm, immovable] rock and my Redeemer” (Ps. 19:14).

Look up these additional Scriptures and meditate on them as you seek to live a powerful life: Proverbs 8:8; 11:9; 15:4; 18:21; James 1:26. God’s Word has power in it that will strengthen and enable you to speak words of life that will benefit you.

⁶The [malevolent] words of the wicked lie in wait for [innocent] blood [to slander],
But the mouth of the upright will rescue and protect them.

⁷The wicked are overthrown [by their evil] and are no more,
But the house of the [consistently] righteous will stand [securely].

⁸A man will be commended according to his insight and sound judgment,

But the one who is of a perverse mind will be despised.

⁹Better is he who is lightly esteemed and has a servant,
Than he who [boastfully] honors himself [pretending to be what he is not] and lacks bread.

¹⁰A righteous man has kind regard for the life of his animal,
But even the compassion of the wicked is cruel. [Deut 25:4]

¹¹He who tills his land will have plenty of bread,
But he who follows worthless things lacks common sense and good judgment.

¹²The wicked desire the plunder of evil men,
But the root of the righteous yields richer fruit.

¹³An evil man is [dangerously] ensnared by the transgression of his lips,
But the righteous will escape from trouble.

¹⁴A man will be satisfied with good from the fruit of his words,
And the deeds of a man's hands will return to him [as a harvest].

¹⁵The way of the [arrogant] fool [who rejects God's wisdom] is right in his own eyes,
But a wise and prudent man is he who listens to counsel.
[Prov 3:7; 9:9; 21:2]

¹⁶The [arrogant] fool's anger is quickly known [because he lacks self-control and common sense],
But a prudent man ignores an insult.

¹⁷He who speaks truth [when he testifies] tells what is right,
But a false witness utters deceit [in court].

¹⁸There is one who speaks rashly like the thrusts of a sword,
But the tongue of the wise brings healing.

¹⁹Truthful lips will be established forever,
But a lying tongue is [credited] only for a moment.

²⁰Deceit is in the heart of those who devise evil,
But counselors of peace have joy.

POWERPOINT

I have certainly experienced the fact that anxiety weighs us down and keeps us from being lighthearted and glad (see Prov. 12:25)—and perhaps you have, too. Anxiety on a regular basis becomes a real burden and keeps us from enjoying life and moving forward in God's plans for us. People who allow their lives to consist of being anxious over one little thing after another do not experience much peace and joy. The good news is that we do have a choice. We can choose to be upset or we can choose to be at peace. Thankfully, we don't have to live by our feelings; we can learn to live beyond them.

²¹No harm befalls the righteous,

But the wicked are filled with trouble. [Job 5:19; Ps 91:3;
Prov 12:13; Is 46:4; Jer 1:8; Dan 6:27; 2 Tim 4:18]

²²Lying lips are extremely disgusting to the LORD,
But those who deal faithfully are His delight. [Prov 6:17;
11:20; Rev 22:15]

²³A shrewd man is reluctant to display his knowledge [until the proper time],
But the heart of [over-confident] fools proclaims foolishness. [Is 32:6]

²⁴The hand of the diligent will rule,
But the negligent and lazy will be put to forced labor.

²⁵Anxiety in a man's heart weighs it down,
But a good (encouraging) word makes it glad. [Ps 50:4; Prov
15:13]

²⁶The righteous man is a guide to his neighbor,
But the way of the wicked leads them astray.

²⁷The lazy man does not catch and roast his prey,
But the precious possession of a [wise] man is diligence [because he recognizes opportunities and seizes them].

²⁸In the way of righteousness is life,
And in its pathway there is no death [but immortality—eternal life]. [John 3:36; 4:36; 8:51; 11:26; 1 Cor 15:54; Gal
6:8]

13 A WISE son heeds and accepts [and is the result of] his father's discipline and instruction, But a scoffer does not listen to reprimand and does not learn from his errors.

²From the fruit of his mouth a [wise] man enjoys good,
But the desire of the treacherous is for violence.

³The one who guards his mouth [thinking before he speaks] protects his life;
The one who opens his lips wide [and chatters without thinking] comes to ruin.

⁴The soul (appetite) of the lazy person craves and gets nothing [for lethargy overcomes ambition], But the soul (appetite) of the diligent [who works willingly] is rich and abundantly supplied. [Prov 10:4]

⁵A righteous man hates lies,
But a wicked man is loathsome, and he acts shamefully.

⁶Righteousness (being in right standing with God) guards
the one whose way is blameless,
But wickedness undermines and overthrows the sinner.

⁷There is one who pretends to be rich, yet has nothing at all;
Another pretends to be poor, yet has great wealth. [Prov
12:9; Luke 12:20, 21]

⁸The ransom for a man's life is his wealth,
But the poor man does not even have to listen to a rebuke or threats [from the envious].

⁹The light of the righteous [within him—grows brighter and] rejoices,
But the lamp of the wicked [is a temporary light and] goes out.

¹⁰Through pride and presumption come nothing but strife,
But [skillful and godly] wisdom is with those who welcome

[well-advised] counsel.

¹¹Wealth obtained by fraud dwindles,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

What Are You Talking About?

The Bible says, “From the fruit of his mouth a [wise] man enjoys good” (Prov. 13:2). We talk a lot, and sometimes we pay little attention to what we are saying, let alone think seriously about the impact of our words. If we are honest with ourselves, we may find that some of our moods—good and bad—are directly linked to our conversations.

Anytime you become aware of your mood, whether you are feeling a bit gloomy or feeling cheerful and blessed, you should ask yourself: “What have I been talking about?” Soon you will begin to see how your words connect to your moods and attitudes.

Why not decide each day before you even get out of bed to ask God to help you talk only about those things that will benefit you and everyone who hears you? Since we have the power to make our days better, we would be foolish indeed if we didn't use it.

But he who gathers gradually by [honest] labor will increase [his riches].

¹²Hope deferred makes the heart sick,
But when desire is fulfilled, it is a tree of life.

¹³Whoever despises the word and counsel [of God] brings destruction upon himself,

But he who [reverently] fears and respects the commandment [of God] will be rewarded.

¹⁴The teaching of the wise is a fountain and source of life,
So that one may avoid the snares of death.

¹⁵Good understanding wins favor [from others],
But the way of the unfaithful is hard [like barren, dry soil].

¹⁶Every prudent and self-disciplined man acts with knowledge,
But a [closed-minded] fool [who refuses to learn] displays his foolishness [for all to see].

¹⁷A wicked messenger falls into hardship,
But a faithful ambassador brings healing.

¹⁸Poverty and shame will come to him who refuses instruction and discipline,
But he who accepts and learns from reproof or censure is honored.

¹⁹Desire realized is sweet to the soul;
But it is detestable to fools to turn away from evil [which they have planned].

²⁰He who walks [as a companion] with wise men will be wise,
But the companions of [conceited, dull-witted] fools [are fools themselves and] will experience harm. [Is 32:6]

²¹Adversity pursues sinners,
But the [consistently] upright will be rewarded with prosperity.

²²A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children,
And the wealth of the sinner is stored up for [the hands of] the righteous.

²³ Abundant food is in the fallow (uncultivated) ground of the poor,

But [without protection] it is swept away by injustice.

²⁴ He who withholds the rod [of discipline] hates his son,
But he who loves him disciplines and trains him diligently and appropriately [with wisdom and love]. [Prov 19:18;
22:15; 23:13; 29:15, 17; Eph 6:4]

²⁵ The [consistently] righteous has enough to satisfy his appetite,

But the stomach of the wicked is in need [of bread].

14 THE WISE woman builds her house [on a foundation of godly precepts, and her household thrives], But the foolish one [who lacks spiritual insight] tears it down with her own hands [by ignoring godly principles].

² He who walks in uprightness [reverently] fears the LORD [and obeys and worships Him with profound respect], But he who is devious in his ways despises Him.

³ In the mouth of the [arrogant] fool [who rejects God] is a rod for his back,
But the lips of the wise [when they speak with godly wisdom] will protect them.

⁴ Where there are no oxen, the manger is clean,
But much revenue [because of good crops] comes by the strength of the ox.

⁵ A faithful and trustworthy witness will not lie,

But a false witness speaks lies.

⁶A scoffer seeks wisdom and finds none [for his ears are closed to wisdom],

But knowledge is easy for one who understands [because he is willing to learn].

⁷Leave the presence of a [shortsighted] fool,

For you will not find knowledge or hear godly wisdom from his lips.

⁸The wisdom of the sensible is to understand his way,

But the foolishness of [shortsighted] fools is deceit.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Learn To Be Prudent

A word we don't hear very much about is prudence. The King James Version of Proverbs 14:8 says, "The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way." To have prudence or to be prudent means being wise stewards of the gifts God has given us to use. Those gifts include time, energy, strength, and health as well as thoughts, words, and material possessions. They include our bodies as well as our minds and spirits.

Prudence is a word that many people are not familiar with, but we should be knowledgeable of it and avidly seek it. In our world today we see a great deal of waste. Jesus doesn't want us to be wasteful. He wants us to be good managers of everything He gives to us. God's giving us increase and promotion is dependent on how well we learn to manage what we already have.

Ask God to reveal when you are being wasteful and make changes accordingly. Sometimes I find myself thinking something that is a total waste of time, or I might be drawn into a conversation that is a waste of time. Thankfully, I can make prudent changes and improve the quality of my life, and so can you.

But among the upright there is good will and the favor and blessing of God. [Prov 10:23]

- ¹⁰The heart knows its own bitterness,
And no stranger shares its joy.
- ¹¹The house of the wicked will be overthrown,
But the tent of the upright will thrive.
- ¹²There is a way which seems right to a man and appears straight before him,
But its end is the way of death.
- ¹³Even in laughter the heart may be in pain,
And the end of joy may be grief.
- ¹⁴The backslider in heart will have his fill with his own [rotten] ways,
But a good man will be satisfied with his ways [the godly thought and action which his heart pursues and in which he delights].
- ¹⁵The naive or inexperienced person [is easily misled and] believes every word he hears, But the prudent man [is discreet and astute and] considers well where he is going.
- ¹⁶A wise man suspects danger and cautiously avoids evil,
But the fool is arrogant and careless.
- ¹⁷A quick-tempered man acts foolishly and without self-control,
And a man of wicked schemes is hated.
- ¹⁸The naive [are unsophisticated and easy to exploit and]
inherit foolishness,
But the sensible [are thoughtful and far-sighted and] are crowned with knowledge.
- ¹⁹The evil will bow down before the good,

And the wicked [will bow down] at the gates of the righteous.

²⁰The poor man is hated even by his neighbor,
But those who love the rich are many.

²¹He who despises his neighbor sins [against God and his fellow man],
But happy [blessed and favored by God] is he who is gracious and merciful to the poor.

²²Do they not go astray who devise evil and wander from the way of righteousness?
But kindness and truth will be to those who devise good.

²³In all labor there is profit,

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, in the reverent fear of You I have strong confidence, and I will always have a place of refuge.

• adapted from Proverbs 14:26

But mere talk leads only to poverty.

²⁴The crown of the wise is their wealth [of wisdom],
But the foolishness of [closed-minded] fools is [nothing but] folly.

²⁵A truthful witness saves lives,
But he who speaks lies is treacherous.

²⁶In the [reverent] fear of the LORD there is strong confidence,
And His children will [always] have a place of refuge.

²⁷The [reverent] fear of the LORD [that leads to obedience and worship] is a fountain of life, So that one may avoid the snares of death. [John 4:10, 14]

²⁸In a multitude of people is a king's glory,
But in a lack of people is a [pretentious] prince's ruin.

²⁹He who is slow to anger has great understanding [and profits from his self-control],
But he who is quick-tempered exposes and exalts his foolishness [for all to see]. [Prov 16:32; James 1:19]

³⁰A calm and peaceful and tranquil heart is life and health to the body, But passion and envy are like rottenness to the bones.

³¹He who oppresses the poor taunts and insults his Maker,
But he who is kind and merciful and gracious to the needy honors Him. [Prov 17:5; Matt 25:40, 45]

³²The wicked is overthrown through his wrongdoing,
But the righteous has hope and confidence and a refuge
[with God] even in death.

³³Wisdom rests [silently] in the heart of one who has

understanding,
But what is in the heart of [shortsighted] fools is made known. [Is 32:6]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Your Words Are a Tree of Life

The principle truth in Proverbs 15:4 is the same as the one in Proverbs 18:21, which says we minister either life or death with our mouth: “Death and life are in the power of the tongue.”

These two verses explain why God’s Word reminds us often to pay attention to the words we speak. In Ephesians 4:29, Paul writes: “Do not let unwholesome [foul, profane, worthless, vulgar] words ever come out of your mouth, but only such speech as is good for building up others, according to the need and the occasion, so that it will be a blessing to those who hear [you speak].”

Notice that the word spirit in Proverbs 15:4 is spelled with a lowercase “s.” This tells us the verse is not talking about the Holy Spirit, but refers to the human spirit. In other words, our words have the power to give life to or to break down the spirit or heart of other people, as well as our own.

As believers, we are not to speak things that would discourage people or make them want to give up on life, nor are we to pollute ourselves or others with negative words or comments. We are not to use our mouths to hurt people. We should speak words that heal, restore, and uplift. Try giving each person you come in contact with a sincere compliment! People light up when we point out something good about them.

- ³⁴Righteousness [moral and spiritual integrity and virtuous character] exalts a nation,
But sin is a disgrace to any people.
- ³⁵The king's favor and good will are toward a servant who acts wisely and discreetly, But his anger and wrath are toward him who acts shamefully. [Matt 24:45, 47]

15 A SOFT and gentle and thoughtful answer turns away wrath,

But harsh and painful and careless words stir up anger.
[Prov 25:15]

²The tongue of the wise speaks knowledge that is pleasing and acceptable,
But the [babbling] mouth of fools spouts folly.

³The eyes of the LORD are in every place,
Watching the evil and the good [in all their endeavors]. [Job 34:21; Prov 5:21; Jer 16:17; 32:19; Heb 4:13]

⁴A soothing tongue [speaking words that build up and encourage] is a tree of life,
But a perversive tongue [speaking words that overwhelm and depress] crushes the spirit.

⁵A [flippant, arrogant] fool rejects his father's instruction and correction,

Speak God's Word

I speak soft and gentle and thoughtful answers that turn away wrath, not harsh and painful and careless words that stir up anger.

| adapted from PROVERBS 15:1 |

But he who [is willing to learn and] regards and keeps in mind a reprimand acquires good sense.

⁶Great and priceless treasure is in the house of the [consistently] righteous one [who seeks godly instruction and grows in wisdom], But trouble is in the income of the wicked one [who rejects the laws of God].

⁷The lips of the wise spread knowledge [sifting it as chaff from the grain];
But the hearts of [shortsighted] fools are not so.

⁸The sacrifice of the wicked is hateful and exceedingly offensive to the LORD, But the prayer of the upright is His delight! [Is 1:11; Jer 6:20; Amos 5:22]

⁹The way [of life] of the wicked is hateful and exceedingly offensive to the LORD, But He loves one who pursues righteousness [personal integrity, moral courage and honorable character].

¹⁰There is severe discipline for him who turns from the way
[of righteousness];

And he who hates correction will die.

¹¹Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead) and Abaddon
(the abyss, the place of eternal punishment) lie open before the LORD— How much more the hearts and inner motives of the children of men. [Job 26:6; Ps 139:8; Rev 9:2; 20:1, 2]

¹²A scoffer [unlike a wise man] resents one who rebukes him and tries to teach him;

Nor will he go to the wise [for counsel and instruction].

¹³A heart full of joy and goodness makes a cheerful face,
But when a heart is full of sadness the spirit is crushed.
[Prov 17:22]

¹⁴The mind of the intelligent and discerning seeks knowledge and eagerly inquires after it,

Speak God's Word

I have a glad heart that has a continual feast regardless of the circumstances.

| adapted from PROVERBS 15:15 |

Speak God's Word

I will not be hot-tempered and stir up strife, but I will be slow to anger and patiently calm disputes.

| adapted from PROVERBS 15:18 |

But the mouth of the [stubborn] fool feeds on foolishness.
[Is 32:6]

- ¹⁵ All the days of the afflicted are bad,
But a glad heart has a continual feast [regardless of the circumstances].
- ¹⁶ Better is a little with the [reverent, worshipful] fear of the
LORD
Than great treasure and trouble with it. [Ps 37:16; Prov 16:8;
1 Tim 6:6]
- ¹⁷ Better is a dinner of vegetables and herbs where love is present
Than a fattened ox served with hatred. [Prov 17:1]
- ¹⁸ A hot-tempered man stirs up strife,
But he who is slow to anger and patient calms disputes.
- ¹⁹ The way of the lazy is like a hedge of thorns [it pricks, lacerates, and entangles him],

But the way [of life] of the upright is smooth and open like a highway.

²⁰ A wise son makes a father glad,
But a foolish man despises his mother.

²¹ Foolishness is joy to him who is without heart and lacks [intelligent, common] sense,
But a man of understanding walks uprightly [making his course straight]. [Eph 5:15]

²² Without consultation and wise advice, plans are frustrated,
But with many counselors they are established and succeed.

²³ A man has joy in giving an appropriate answer,
And how good and delightful is a word spoken at the right moment—how good it is!

²⁴ The [chosen] path of life leads upward for the wise,
That he may keep away from Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead) below. [Phil 3:20; Col 3:1, 2]

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Expect Good Things To Happen

Shortly after I began to study the Bible seriously, I often sensed an oppressive atmosphere around me. Everything seemed gloomy—as if something bad was going to happen. It wasn't anything I could explain, just a vague, dreaded sense of something evil or wrong about to happen. When I asked the Lord, "What is this feeling?" He said, "Evil forebodings." I had to meditate on that. I had never heard the phrase before.

I learned that the sense of dread I felt was not based on true circumstances or situations. The problems I was facing were not as critical as the devil was making them appear. My acceptance of his lies, even though they were vague, was opening the door for evil forebodings. I eventually realized that I had encountered so many negative things in my life that I had gotten to the point of expecting more of them. My feelings were based on my past experiences when they should have been based on God's promises.

As I continued to meditate on evil forebodings, God gave me a clear revelation. I was miserable because my thoughts were miserable—my thoughts were poisoning my outlook. My thoughts robbed me of the ability to enjoy my life. Instead of being positive because of all the amazing things I was learning from God’s Word, I found myself trapped in the gloom and doom that had surrounded me since my abusive childhood.

I had not been taught to let go of what was behind. I couldn’t rejoice in the good things going on in my life. I focused on the past and what might lie ahead, which was usually gloom and chaos because that was what I expected. Satan had built a stronghold in my mind, and I was trapped until I learned I could tear down that negative, evil stronghold by applying God’s Word to my life and circumstances.

Little by little, my thinking changed, and today I no longer live in evil forebodings. I purposefully expect good things to happen in my life. I realize now that I can choose my thoughts. I don’t have to accept Satan’s lies.

Like everyone else, negative things do happen to me from time to time, but I don’t become negative because of them. I discovered that “a glad heart has a continual feast [regardless of the circumstances]” (Prov. 15:15). I always make an effort to remain positive, and that helps me enjoy my life even in the midst of the storms.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Dear Lord, at times evil forebodings have robbed me of my joy and contentment. When these feelings come, please remind me that You are in control. Help me to rest in You and rejoice in Your Power. Amen.

POWERPOINT

Words are wonderful when used in a proper way. They can encourage, edify, and give confidence to the hearer. A right word spoken at the right time is so good for people (see Prov. 15:23) and can actually be life changing. The words that come out of our mouths go into other people's ears, but they go into our own ears as well.

When we hear them, they drop down into our soul, where they give us either joy or sadness, peace or turmoil, depending on what kind of words they are.

We can literally increase our own joy and the joy of others by speaking the right words.

Confessing good things will make you happier and will make the people around you happier too.

²⁵The LORD will tear down the house of the proud and arrogant (self-righteous), But He will establish and protect the boundaries [of the land] of the [godly] widow.

²⁶Evil plans and thoughts of the wicked are exceedingly vile and offensive to the LORD, But pure words are pleasant words to Him.

²⁷He who profits unlawfully brings suffering to his own house,
But he who hates bribes [and does not receive nor pay them] will live. [Is 5:8; Jer 17:11]

²⁸The heart of the righteous thinks carefully about how to answer [in a wise and appropriate and timely way], But the [babbling] mouth of the wicked pours out malevolent things. [1 Pet 3:15]

²⁹The LORD is far from the wicked [and distances Himself from them], But He hears the prayer of the [consistently] righteous [that is, those with spiritual integrity and moral courage].

³⁰The light of the eyes rejoices the hearts of others,
And good news puts fat on the bones.

³¹The ear that listens to and learns from the life-giving rebuke (reprimand, censure)
Will remain among the wise.

³²He who neglects and ignores instruction and discipline despises himself,
But he who learns from rebuke acquires understanding [and grows in wisdom].

- ³³The [reverent] fear of the LORD [that is, worshiping Him and regarding Him as truly awesome] is the instruction for wisdom [its starting point and its essence]; And before honor comes humility.

16 THE PLANS and reflections of the heart belong to man,

But the [wise] answer of the tongue is from the LORD.

- ²All the ways of a man are clean and innocent in his own eyes [and he may see nothing wrong with his actions], But the LORD weighs and examines the motives and intents [of the heart and knows the truth]. [1 Sam 16:7; Heb 4:12]

- ³Commit your works to the LORD [submit and trust them to Him],
And your plans will succeed [if you respond to His will and guidance].

- ⁴The LORD has made everything for its own purpose,
Even the wicked [according to their role] for the day of evil.

- ⁵Everyone who is proud and arrogant in heart is disgusting and exceedingly offensive to the LORD; Be assured he will not go unpunished. [Prov 8:13; 11:20, 21]

- ⁶By mercy and lovingkindness and truth [not superficial ritual] wickedness is cleansed from the heart, And by the fear of the LORD one avoids evil.

- ⁷When a man's ways please the LORD,
He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.

⁸Better is a little with righteousness
Than great income [gained] with injustice. [Ps 37:16; Prov 15:16]

Pleasant, Healing Words

Solomon wrote, “The heart of the wise instructs his mouth [in wisdom] and adds persuasiveness to his lips. Pleasant words are like a honeycomb, sweet and delightful to the soul and healing to the body” (Prov. 16:23–24). This proverb means that the thoughts we dwell on will eventually come out in our words. If our words agree with God’s Word, we will see miraculous things happen in our lives.

We should be wise in how we think about and speak to others. One of the smartest friends I had in school shared how her father told her she was stupid so many times that eventually her own thoughts said to her, You aren’t intelligent enough to understand this because you are stupid. We shouldn’t determine our worth and value based on what other people have said about us, but on what God says about us!

Many of us struggle at times with insecurity and self-doubt, but for some people it’s worse than for others. By speaking encouraging words to others, we are helping them win their own personal battle over the enemy.

I remember times when I've wanted to say a kind word to someone, but then I would think, Oh, she already knows that. I have since learned that we cannot edify and encourage anyone too much.

What if each of us decided, I am God's servant to bring soothing, kind, healing words to wounded and hurting hearts? Not only would we put the devil to flight, but our friends' joy would soar, and ours, too, because we had been used as God's instruments of healing. It often takes very little effort to do a great deal of good. Often it's only a word of encouragement, a hug, or even just a smile that can brighten someone's day.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Holy Spirit of God, please remind me of the words that dwell inside me. Remind me to hold on to the good, the kind, and the uplifting thoughts, and empower me to cast down those that can hurt and tear down others—and myself. I ask this through Jesus Christ. Amen.

- ⁹ A man's mind plans his way [as he journeys through life],
But the LORD directs his steps and establishes them. [Ps 37:23; Prov 20:24; Jer 10:23]
- ¹⁰ A divine decision [given by God] is on the lips of the king
[as His representative];
His mouth should not be unfaithful or unjust in judgment.

- ¹² It is repulsive [to God and man] for kings to behave
wickedly,
For a throne is established on righteousness (right standing with God).
- ¹³ Righteous lips are the delight of kings,
And he who speaks right is loved.
- ¹⁴ The wrath of a king is like a messenger of death,
But a wise man will appease it.
- ¹⁵ In the light of the king's face is life,
And his favor is like a cloud bringing the spring rain.
- ¹⁶ How much better it is to get wisdom than gold!
And to get understanding is to be chosen above silver.
[Prov 8:10, 19]
- ¹⁷ The highway of the upright turns away and departs from evil;
He who guards his way protects his life (soul).

- ¹⁸ Pride goes before destruction,
And a haughty spirit before a fall.
- ¹⁹ It is better to be humble in spirit with the lowly
Than to divide the spoil with the proud (haughty, arrogant).
- ²⁰ He who pays attention to the word [of God] will find good,
And blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired) is he who trusts [confidently] in the LORD.
- ²¹ The wise in heart will be called understanding,
And sweet speech increases persuasiveness and learning [in both speaker and listener].
- ²² Understanding (spiritual insight) is a [refreshing and boundless] wellspring of life to those who have it, But to give instruction and correction to fools is foolishness.
- ²³ The heart of the wise instructs his mouth [in wisdom]
And adds persuasiveness to his lips.
- ²⁴ Pleasant words are like a honeycomb,
Sweet and delightful to the soul and healing to the body.
- ²⁵ There is a way which seems right to a man and appears
straight before him,
But its end is the way of death.
- ²⁶ The appetite of a worker works for him,
For his hunger urges him on.
- ²⁷ A worthless man devises and digs up evil,
And the words on his lips are like a scorching fire.
- ²⁸ A perverse man spreads strife,
And one who gossips separates intimate friends. [Prov 17:9]
- ²⁹ A violent and exceedingly covetous man entices his

- neighbor [to sin],
And leads him in a way that is not good.
- ³⁰He who [slyly] winks his eyes does so to plot perverse things;
And he who compresses his lips [as if in a secret signal] brings evil to pass.
- ³¹The silver-haired head is a crown of splendor and glory;
It is found in the way of righteousness. [Prov 20:29]
- ³²He who is slow to anger is better and more honorable than the mighty [soldier],
And he who rules and controls his own spirit, than he who captures a city.
- ³³The lot is cast into the lap,
But its every decision is from the LORD.

17 BETTER IS a dry morsel [of food served] with quietness and peace Than a house full of feasting [served] with strife and contention.

- ²A wise servant will rule over the [unworthy] son who acts shamefully and brings disgrace [to the family]
And [the worthy servant] will share in the inheritance among the brothers.
- ³The refining pot is for silver and the furnace for gold,
But the LORD tests hearts. [Ps 26:2; Prov 27:21; Jer 17:10; Mal 3:3]
- ⁴An evildoer listens closely to wicked lips;
And a liar pays attention to a destructive and malicious tongue.

And he who rejoices at [another's] disaster will not go unpunished. [Job 31:29; Prov 14:31; Obad 12]

⁶Grandchildren are the crown of aged men,
And the glory of children is their fathers [who live godly lives]. [Ps 127:3; 128:3]

⁷Excellent speech does not benefit a fool [who is spiritually blind],
Much less do lying lips benefit a prince.

⁸A bribe is like a bright, precious stone in the eyes of its owner;
Wherever he turns, he prospers.

⁹He who covers and forgives an offense seeks love,
But he who repeats or gossips about a matter separates intimate friends.

¹⁰A reprimand goes deeper into one who has understanding and a teachable spirit
Than a hundred lashes into a fool. [Is 32:6]

¹¹A rebellious man seeks only evil;
Therefore a cruel messenger will be sent against him.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Live with Joy and Delight

God is life, and every good thing He has created is part of that life. We get so caught up in doing and accomplishing, in working and trying to climb the ladder of success, that if we are not careful, we will come to the end of our life and only then realize that we never really lived. God wants us to enjoy life and live it to the full, until it overflows.

We have choices in life. We can grumble our way through our troubles, or we can maintain positive thoughts and attitudes and also have a happy heart. Either way, we have to go through some troubles, so why not take the joy of the Lord as our strength and have our mind filled with energy and vitality and healing. The pressure of any problem is immediately lessened if we choose to believe that God will work something good from it.

In John 15, Jesus talks about abiding in Him. In verse 11, He says, "I have told you these things so that My joy and delight may be in you, and that your joy may be made full and complete and overflowing." Jesus wants us to trust Him and have a happy heart (see Prov. 17:22).

Don't spend your life waiting for things to change before you can be happy. Cultivate and nurture a happy heart now and experience God's "joy and delight" in you all the way to the end of your life.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Close the Door to the Enemy

One of the best commitments we can make is to speak good, positive words. Sometimes, when we truly can't think of anything good to say, it is wise to say nothing at all (see Prov. 17:28). Making a commitment to speak only good things does not mean we will no longer be tempted to speak negative words. In fact, the enemy may tempt us even more than before because he knows the power of words. The very thought that we would commit to improve our words is frightening to him.

We need to remember that the enemy can only influence and control our words to the extent that we allow him to do so. If we ask God for grace, and discipline ourselves to stop speaking negatively, we close a door of opportunity to the enemy. He will always tempt us to do and say what is wrong, but we can resist him and gain victory.

Evil will not depart from his house. [Ps 109:4, 5; Jer 18:20]

¹⁴The beginning of strife is like letting out water [as from a small break in a dam; first it trickles and then it gushes]; Therefore abandon the quarrel before it breaks out and tempers explode.

¹⁵He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the righteous

Are both repulsive to the LORD. [Ex 23:7; Prov 24:24; Is 5:23]

¹⁶Why is there money in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom,
When he has no common sense or even a heart for it?

¹⁷A friend loves at all times,
And a brother is born for adversity.

¹⁸A man lacking common sense gives a pledge
And becomes guarantor [for the debt of another] in the presence of his neighbor.

¹⁹He who loves transgression loves strife and is quarrelsome;
He who [proudly] raises his gate seeks destruction [because of his arrogant pride].

²⁰He who has a crooked mind finds no good,
And he who is perverted in his language falls into evil.
[James 3:8]

²¹He who becomes the parent of a fool [who is spiritually blind] does so to his sorrow,
And the father of a fool [who is spiritually blind] has no joy.

²²A happy heart is good medicine and a joyful mind causes healing,
But a broken spirit dries up the bones. [Prov 12:25; 15:13, 15]

²³A wicked man receives a bribe from the [hidden] pocket
To pervert the ways of justice.

²⁴[Skillful and godly] wisdom is in the presence of a person of understanding [and he recognizes it], But the eyes of a [thickheaded] fool are on the ends of the earth.

²⁵A foolish son is a grief and anguish to his father
And bitterness to her who gave birth to him.

²⁶It is also not good to fine the righteous,
Nor to strike the noble for their uprightness.

²⁷He who has knowledge restrains and is careful with his words,
And a man of understanding and wisdom has a cool spirit
(self-control, an even temper). [James 1:19]

²⁸Even a [callous, arrogant] fool, when he keeps silent, is considered wise; When he closes his lips he is regarded as sensible (prudent, discreet) and a man of understanding.

18 HE WHO [willfully] separates himself [from God and man] seeks his own desire, He quarrels against all sound wisdom.

²A [closed-minded] fool does not delight in understanding,
But only in revealing his personal opinions [unwittingly displaying his self-indulgence and his stupidity].

³When the wicked man comes [to the depth of evil], contempt [of all that is pure and good] also comes, And with inner baseness (dishonor) comes outer shame (scorn).

⁴The words of a man's mouth are like deep waters [copious and difficult to fathom];
The fountain of [mature, godly] wisdom is like a bubbling stream [sparkling, fresh, pure, and life-giving].

⁵To show respect to the wicked person is not good,
Nor to push aside and deprive the righteous of justice.

⁶A fool's lips bring contention and strife, And his mouth invites a beating.

⁷A fool's mouth is his ruin,
And his lips are the snare of his soul.

⁸The words of a whisperer (gossip) are like dainty morsels [to be greedily eaten];
They go down into the innermost chambers of the body [to be remembered and mused upon].

⁹He who is careless in his work
Is a brother to him who destroys.

¹⁰The name of the LORD is a strong tower;
The righteous runs to it and is safe and set on high [far above evil].

¹¹The rich man's wealth is his strong city,
And like a high wall [of protection] in his own imagination and conceit.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Positive Thoughts and Words

Our thoughts and words about ourselves are tremendously important. In order to overcome the negative thinking and speaking that have been such a natural part of our lifestyle for so long, we will need to make a conscious effort to think and speak good things about ourselves (see Prov. 18:21).

We need to think and say what the Word of God says about us. Positive confession of the Word of God should be an ingrained habit of every believer. If you have not yet begun to develop this important habit, you can start today. Begin thinking and saying good things about yourself: “I am the righteousness of God in Jesus Christ. I prosper in everything I lay my hand to. I have gifts and talents, and God is using me. I operate in the fruit of the Spirit. I walk in love. Joy flows through me.”

The Bible teaches that we can appropriate the blessings of God into our lives by believing and confessing the positive things God has said about us in His Word.

Words are seeds that we sow, and when we sow positive ones, we can expect positive results.

¹²Before disaster the heart of a man is haughty and filled with self-importance, But humility comes before honor.

¹³He who answers before he hears [the facts]—

It is folly and shame to him. [John 7:51]

¹⁴The spirit of a man sustains him in sickness,
But as for a broken spirit, who can bear it?

¹⁵The mind of the prudent [always] acquires knowledge,
And the ear of the wise [always] seeks knowledge.

¹⁶A man's gift [given in love or courtesy] makes room for him
And brings him before great men. [Gen 32:20; 1 Sam 25:27;
Prov 17:8; 21:14]

¹⁷The first one to plead his case seems right,
Until another comes and cross-examines him.

¹⁸To cast lots puts an end to quarrels
And decides between powerful contenders.

¹⁹A brother offended is harder to win over than a fortified city,
And contentions [separating families] are like the bars of a castle.

²⁰A man's stomach will be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth;
He will be satisfied with the consequence of his words.

²¹Death and life are in the power of the tongue,
And those who love it and indulge it will eat its fruit and bear the consequences of their words. [Matt 12:37]

²²He who finds a [true and faithful] wife finds a good thing
And obtains favor and approval from the LORD. [Prov 19:14;
31:10]

²³ The poor man pleads,
But the rich man answers roughly.

²⁴ The man of too many friends [chosen indiscriminately] will be broken in pieces and come to ruin, But there is a [true, loving] friend who [is reliable and] sticks closer than a brother.

19 BETTER IS a poor man who walks in his integrity

Than a [rich] man who is twisted in his speech and is a [shortsighted] fool.

² Also it is not good for a person to be without knowledge,
And he who hurries with his feet [acting impulsively and proceeding without caution or analyzing the consequences] sins (misses the mark).

³The foolishness of man undermines his way [ruining whatever he undertakes];
Then his heart is resentful and rages against the LORD [for, being a fool, he blames the LORD instead of himself].

⁴Wealth makes many friends,
But a poor man is separated from his friend. [Prov 14:20]

⁵A false witness will not go unpunished,
And he who breathes out lies will not escape. [Ex 23:1; Deut 19:16–19; Prov 6:19; 21:28]

⁶Many will seek the favor of a generous and noble man,
And everyone is a friend to him who gives gifts.

⁷All the brothers of a poor man hate him;
How much more do his friends abandon him!
He pursues them with words, but they are gone.

⁸He who gains wisdom and good sense loves (preserves) his own soul;
He who keeps understanding will find good and prosper.

⁹A false witness will not go unpunished,
And he who breathes lies will perish.

¹⁰Luxury is not fitting for a fool;
Much less for a slave to rule over princes.

¹¹Good sense and discretion make a man slow to anger,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Wisdom and Patience

According to Proverbs 19:11 when we use good sense and discretion, we will not be easily angered. Wisdom silently tells us to wait a little while, until our emotions settle down, before we do or say something. Emotions urge us toward haste, pushing us to do something and do it right now! Godly wisdom tells us to be patient and wait until we have a clear picture of what we are to do and when we are to do it. I like to say it this way: "Let emotions subside and then decide." We need to be able to step back from our situations and see them from God's perspective. Then we need to make decisions based on what we know rather than on what we feel.

And it is his honor and glory to overlook a transgression or an offense [without seeking revenge and harboring resentment].

¹²The king's wrath terrifies like the roaring of a lion,
But his favor is as [refreshing and nourishing as] dew on the grass. [Hos 14:5]

¹³A foolish (ungodly) son is destruction to his father,
And the contentions of a [quarrelsome] wife are like a constant dripping [of water].

¹⁴House and wealth are the inheritance from fathers,
But a wise, understanding, and sensible wife is [a gift and blessing] from the LORD. [Prov 18:22]

¹⁵ Laziness casts one into a deep sleep [unmindful of lost opportunity],

And the idle person will suffer hunger.

¹⁶ He who keeps and obeys the commandment [of the LORD] keeps (guards) his own life, But he who is careless of his ways and conduct will die. [Prov 13:13; 16:17; Luke 10:28; 11:28]

¹⁷ He who is gracious and lends a hand to the poor lends to the LORD, And the LORD will repay him for his good deed. [Prov 28:27; Eccl 11:1; Matt 10:42; 25:40; 2 Cor 9:6–8; Heb 6:10]

¹⁸ Discipline and teach your son while there is hope, And do not [indulge your anger or resentment by imposing inappropriate punishment nor] desire his destruction.

¹⁹ A man of great anger will bear the penalty [for his quick temper and lack of self-control]; For if you rescue him [and do not let him learn from the consequences of his action], you will only have to rescue him over and over again.

²⁰ Listen to counsel, receive instruction, and accept correction,

That you may be wise in the time to come.

²¹ Many plans are in a man's mind,

But it is the LORD's purpose for him that will stand (be carried out). [Job 23:13; Ps 33:10, 11; Is 14:26, 27; 46:10; Acts 5:39; Heb 6:17]

²²That which is desirable in a man is his loyalty and unfailing love,

But it is better to be a poor man than a [wealthy] liar.

²³The fear of the LORD leads to life,

So that one may sleep satisfied, untouched by evil. [Job 5:19; Ps 91:3; Prov 12:13; Is 46:4; Jer 1:8; Dan 6:27; 2 Tim 4:8]

²⁴The lazy man buries his hand in the [food] dish,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Close the Door to Strife

Strife is a thief and a robber that we can learn to recognize and deal with quickly. We can control strife before it controls us (see Prov. 20:3).

Strife is defined as “the act or state of fighting or quarreling, especially bitterly; discord.” It is bickering, arguing, being involved in a heated disagreement; it can reveal itself as an angry undercurrent. Strife is dangerous. It is a demonic force sent by Satan for the purpose of destruction.

Almost any time someone hurts us or offends us, anger rises up within us. Feeling anger is not sin, but we should not act out the angry feelings in an ungodly manner. We need to resist the temptation to hold a grudge or to fall into bitterness, resentment, or unforgiveness.

A judgmental attitude is an open door to strife, so it's important for us to remember that mercy triumphs over judgment (see James 2:13). Judgment usually leads to gossip. Gossip begins to spread the strife from person to person. Strife hinders us from living in unity and harmony and from enjoying God's blessings.

When we are tempted to think judgmental thoughts toward others, and then to spread our opinion through gossip and backbiting, we should remember this helpful hint: Let the one among us who is without sin throw the first stone (see John 8:7).

Remember that God changes things through prayer and faith, not through strife, judgment, or gossip.

But will not even bring it to his mouth again.

²⁵Strike a scoffer [for refusing to learn], and the naive may [be warned and] become prudent;

Reprimand one who has understanding and a teachable spirit, and he will gain knowledge and insight.

²⁶He who assaults his father and chases away his mother
Is a son who brings shame and disgrace. [1 Tim 5:8]

²⁷Cease listening, my son, to instruction and discipline
And you will stray from the words of knowledge.

²⁸A wicked and worthless witness mocks justice,
And the mouth of the wicked spreads iniquity.

²⁹Judgments are prepared for scoffers,
And beatings for the backs of [thickheaded] fools. [Is 32:6]

20 WINE IS a mocker, strong drink a riotous brawler; And whoever is intoxicated by it is not wise. [Prov 23:29, 30; Is 28:7; Hos 4:11]

²The terror of a king is like the roaring of a lion;
Whoever provokes him to anger forfeits his own life.

³It is an honor for a man to keep away from strife [by handling situations with thoughtful foresight], But any fool will [start a] quarrel [without regard for the consequences].

⁴The lazy man does not plow when the winter [planting] season arrives;
So he begs at the [next] harvest and has nothing [to reap].

⁵A plan (motive, wise counsel) in the heart of a man is like water in a deep well,
But a man of understanding draws it out. [Prov 18:4]

⁶Many a man proclaims his own loyalty and goodness,
But who can find a faithful and trustworthy man?

⁷The righteous man who walks in integrity and lives life in accord with his [godly] beliefs— How blessed [happy and spiritually secure] are his children after him [who have his example to follow].

⁸A [discerning] king who sits on the throne of judgment
Sifts all evil [like chaff] with his eyes [and cannot be easily fooled].

⁹Who can say, “I have cleansed my heart,
I am pure from my sin?” [1 Kin 8:46; 2 Chr 6:36; Job 9:30; 14:4; Ps 51:5; 1 John 1:8]

¹⁰Differing weights [one for buying and another for selling] and differing measures,
Both of them are detestable and offensive to the LORD.
[Deut 25:13; Mic 6:10, 11]

¹¹Even a boy is known and distinguished by his acts,
Whether his conduct is pure and right.

¹²The hearing ear and the seeing eye,
The [omnipotent] LORD has made both of them.

¹³Do not love [excessive] sleep, or you will become poor;
Open your eyes [so that you can do your work] and you will be satisfied with bread.

¹⁴“It is [almost] worthless, it is [almost] worthless,” says the buyer [as he negotiates the price]; But when he goes his way, then he boasts [about his bargain].

¹⁵There is gold, and an abundance of pearls,
But the lips of knowledge are a vessel of preciousness [the most precious of all]. [Job 28:12, 16–19; Prov 3:15; 8:11]

POWERPOINT

Proverbs 20:19 says that we should not associate with people who gossip or tell other people's secrets. If a person tells you someone else's secret, he or she will likely tell someone else your secret too. Many of us have confided in someone only to find out that he or she told our secret, and that is a painful experience.

Let's learn to choose our friends wisely and choose our words wisely.

¹⁶[The judge tells the creditor], “Take the clothes of one who is surety for a stranger;
And hold him in pledge [when he guarantees a loan] for foreigners.” [Prov 27:13]

¹⁷Food gained by deceit is sweet to a man,
But afterward his mouth will be filled with gravel [just as sin may be sweet at first, but later its consequences bring despair].

¹⁸Plans are established by counsel;
So make war [only] with wise guidance.

¹⁹He who goes about as a gossip reveals secrets;
Therefore do not associate with a gossip [who talks freely or flatters]. [Rom 16:17, 18]

²⁰Whoever curses his father or his mother,
His lamp [of life] will be extinguished in time of darkness.

²¹An inheritance hastily gained [by greedy, unjust means] at the beginning
Will not be blessed in the end. [Prov 28:20; Hab 2:6]

²²Do not say, "I will repay evil"; Wait [expectantly] for the LORD, and He will rescue and save you. [Deut 32:35; 2 Sam 16:12; Rom 12:17–19; 1
Thess 5:15; 1 Pet 3:9]

²³Differing weights are detestable and offensive to the LORD,
And fraudulent scales are not good.

²⁴Man's steps are ordered and ordained by the LORD.
How then can a man [fully] understand his way?

²⁵It is a trap for a man to [speak a vow of consecration and] say rashly, "It is holy!"
And [not until] afterward consider [whether he can fulfill it].

²⁶A wise king sifts out the wicked [from among the good]
And drives the [threshing] wheel over them [to separate the chaff from the grain].

²⁷The spirit (conscience) of man is the lamp of the LORD,

Searching and examining all the innermost parts of his being. [1 Cor 2:11]

²⁸Loyalty and mercy, truth and faithfulness, protect the king,
And he upholds his throne by lovingkindness.

²⁹The glory of young men is their [physical] strength,
And the honor of aged men is their gray head [representing wisdom and experience].

³⁰Blows that wound cleanse away evil,
And strokes reach to the innermost parts.

21 THE KING'S heart is like channels of water in the hand of the LORD; He turns it whichever way He wishes. [Ex 10:1, 2; Ezra 6:22]

²Every man's way is right in his own eyes,
But the LORD weighs and examines the hearts [of people and their motives]. [Prov 24:12; Luke 16:15]

³To do righteousness and justice
Is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice [for wrongs repeatedly committed]. [1 Sam 15:22; Prov 15:8; Is 1:11; Hos 6:6; Mic 6:7, 8]

⁴Haughty and arrogant eyes and a proud heart,
The lamp of the wicked [their self-centered pride], is sin [in the eyes of God].

⁵The plans of the diligent lead surely to abundance and advantage,
But everyone who acts in haste comes surely to poverty.

- ⁶Acquiring treasures by a lying tongue
Is a fleeting vapor, the seeking and pursuit of death.
- ⁷The violence of the wicked will [return to them and] drag them away [like fish caught in a net], Because they refuse to act with justice.
- ⁸The way of the guilty is [exceedingly] crooked,
But as for the pure, his conduct is upright.
- ⁹It is better to live in a corner of the housetop [on the flat roof, exposed to the weather]
Than in a house shared with a quarrelsome (contentious) woman.
- ¹⁰The soul of the wicked desires evil [like an addictive
substance];
His neighbor finds no compassion in his eyes. [James 2:16]
- ¹¹When the scoffer is punished, the naive [observes the lesson and] becomes wise;
But when the wise and teachable person is instructed, he receives knowledge. [Prov 19:25]
- ¹²The righteous one keeps an eye on the house of the wicked
How the wicked are cast down to ruin.
- ¹³Whoever shuts his ears at the cry of the poor
Will cry out himself and not be answered. [Matt 18:30–34;
James 2:13]
- ¹⁴A gift in secret subdues anger,
And a bribe [hidden] in the pocket, strong wrath.
- ¹⁵When justice is done, it is a joy to the righteous (the upright, the one in right standing with God), But to the evildoers it is disaster.

¹⁶A man who wanders from the way of understanding (godly wisdom)

Will remain in the assembly of the dead.

¹⁷He who loves [only selfish] pleasure will become a poor man;

He who loves and is devoted to wine and [olive] oil will not become rich.

¹⁸The wicked become a ransom for the righteous,
And the treacherous in the place of the upright [for they fall into their own traps].

¹⁹It is better to dwell in a desert land
Than with a contentious and troublesome woman.

²⁰There is precious treasure and oil in the house of the wise
[who prepare for the future],
But a shortsighted and foolish man swallows it up and wastes it.

²¹He who earnestly seeks righteousness and loyalty
Finds life, righteousness, and honor. [Prov 15:9; Matt 5:6]

²²A wise man scales the city [walls] of the mighty
And brings down the stronghold in which they trust.

²³He who guards his mouth and his tongue
Guards himself from troubles. [Prov 12:13; 13:3; 18:21; James 3:2]

²⁴“Proud,” “Haughty,” “Scoffer,” are his names
Who acts with overbearing and insolent pride.

- ²⁵ The desire of the lazy kills him,
For his hands refuse to labor;
- ²⁶ He craves all the day long [and does no work],
But the righteous [willingly] gives and does not withhold [what he has]. [2 Cor 9:6–10]
- ²⁷ The sacrifice of the wicked is detestable and offensive [to
the LORD].
How much more [unacceptable and insulting can it be] when he brings it with evil intention?
- ²⁸ A false witness will perish,
But a man who listens to the truth will speak forever and go unchallenged.
- ²⁹ A wicked man puts on a bold face,
But as for the upright, he considers, directs, and establishes his way [with the confidence of integrity].
- ³⁰ There is no [human] wisdom or understanding
Or counsel [that can prevail] against the LORD.
- ³¹ The horse is prepared for the day of battle,
But deliverance and victory belong to the LORD.

22 A GOOD name [earned by honorable behavior, godly wisdom, moral courage, and personal integrity] is more desirable than great riches; And favor is better than silver and gold.

- ² The rich and poor have a common bond;
The LORD is the Maker of them all. [Job 31:15; Prov 14:31]

- ³ A prudent and far-sighted person sees the evil [of sin] and hides himself [from it], But the naive continue on and are punished [by suffering the consequences of sin].
- ⁴ The reward of humility [that is, having a realistic view of one's importance] and the [reverent, worshipful] fear of the LORD
Is riches, honor, and life. [Prov 21:21]
- ⁵ Thorns and snares are in the way of the obstinate [for their lack of honor and their wrongdoing traps them]; He who guards himself [with godly wisdom] will be far from them and avoid the consequences they suffer.
- ⁶ Train up a child in the way he should go [teaching him to seek God's wisdom and will for his abilities and talents],
Even when he is old he will not depart from it. [Eph 6:4; 2 Tim 3:15]
- ⁷ The rich rules over the poor,
And the borrower is servant to the lender.
- ⁸ He who sows injustice will reap [a harvest of] trouble,
And the rod of his wrath [with which he oppresses others] will fail.
- ⁹ He who is generous will be blessed,
For he gives some of his food to the poor. [2 Cor 9:6–10]
- ¹⁰ Drive out the scoffer, and contention will go away;
Even strife and dishonor will cease.
- ¹¹ He who loves purity of heart
And whose speech is gracious will have the king as his friend.

¹²The eyes of the LORD keep guard over knowledge and the one who has it, But He overthrows the words of the treacherous.

¹³The lazy one [manufactures excuses and] says, “There is a lion outside!
I will be killed in the streets [if I go out to work]!”

¹⁴The mouth of an immoral woman is a deep pit [deep and inescapable];
He who is cursed by the LORD [because of his adulterous sin] will fall into it.

¹⁵Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child;
The rod of discipline [correction administered with godly wisdom and lovingkindness] will remove it far from him.

¹⁶He who oppresses or exploits the poor to get more for himself
Or who gives to the rich [to gain influence and favor], will only come to poverty.

¹⁷Listen carefully and hear the words of the wise,
And apply your mind to my knowledge;

¹⁸For it will be pleasant if you keep them in mind
[incorporating them as guiding principles];
Let them be ready on your lips [to guide and strengthen yourself and others].

¹⁹So that your trust and reliance and confidence may be in the LORD, I have taught these things to you today, even to you.

²⁰Have I not written to you excellent things

- In counsels and knowledge,
21 To let you know the certainty of the words of truth,
That you may give a correct answer to him who sent you?
[Luke 1:3, 4]
- 22 Do not rob the poor because he is poor [and defenseless],
Nor crush the afflicted [by legal proceedings] at the gate
[where the city court is held], [Ex 23:6; Job 31:16, 21]
- 23 For the LORD will plead their case
And take the life of those who rob them. [Zech 7:10; Mal
3:5]
- 24 Do not even associate with a man given to angry outbursts;
Or go [along] with a hot-tempered man,
25 Or you will learn his [undisciplined] ways
And get yourself trapped [in a situation from which it is hard to escape].
- 26 Do not be among those who give pledges [involving themselves in others' finances], Or among those who become guarantors for others' debts.
- 27 If you have nothing with which to pay [another's debt when he defaults],
Why should his creditor take your bed from under you?
- 28 Do not move the ancient landmark [at the boundary of the property]
Which your fathers have set.
- 29 Do you see a man skillful and experienced in his work?

He will stand [in honor] before kings;
He will not stand before obscure men.

23 WHEN YOU sit down to dine with a ruler, Consider carefully what is [set] before you;

²For you will put a knife to your throat
If you are a man of great appetite.

³Do not desire his delicacies,
For it is deceptive food [offered to you with questionable motives].

⁴Do not weary yourself [with the overwhelming desire] to gain wealth;
Cease from your own understanding of it. [Prov 28:20; 1 Tim
6:9, 10]

⁵When you set your eyes on wealth, it is [suddenly] gone.
For wealth certainly makes itself wings
Like an eagle that flies to the heavens.

⁶Do not eat the bread of a selfish man,
Or desire his delicacies;

⁷For as he thinks in his heart, so is he [in behavior—one who manipulates].

He says to you, “Eat and drink,”
Yet his heart is not with you [but it is begrudging the cost].

⁸The morsel which you have eaten you will vomit up,
And you will waste your compliments.

⁹Do not speak in the ears of a fool,
For he will despise the [godly] wisdom of your words. [Is 32:6]

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Where the Mind Goes, the Man Follows

What we give our energies and attention to will develop in our lives (see Prov. 23:7), or as I like to say, “Where the man goes, the mind follows!” If I think about ice cream long enough, I will probably end up eating some!

If we focus only on the negative things in our lives, we become negative people. Everything, including our conversation, becomes negative. We soon lose our joy and live miserable lives—and it all started with our own thinking.

You might be experiencing some problems in life—not realizing that you may be creating them yourself by what you’re choosing to think about. You might be discouraged and even depressed and wonder why. Yet if you examine your thought life, you will find that you are feeding the negative emotions you are feeling. Negative thoughts are fuel for discouragement, depression, and many other unpleasant emotions.

We should choose our thoughts carefully. We can think about what is wrong with our lives or about what is right with them. We can think about what is wrong with all the people we are in relationship with or we can see the good and meditate on that. The Bible teaches us to always believe the best. When we do that, it pleases God and makes our own lives happier and more peaceful.

We should always remember that the mind is a battlefield and that our thoughts largely determine our destiny. They aren't just empty words that flow through our mind, so it is very important to decide what we will allow to rest inside our mind. We should also be very aware that our adversary will use what's in our mind in any way he possibly can to trap us.

To put it another way, we can't have a positive life and a negative mind. Our thoughts—our focus—is what determines where we end up. God wants our minds to be filled with positive, beautiful, and healthy thoughts. The more we focus on those things, the more readily we defeat Satan's attacks.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Dear patient and loving God, I ask You to forgive me for focusing my thoughts on things that are not pleasing to You. I pray that You will help me fill my mind with thoughts that are clean and pure and uplifting. In Jesus' name. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Discipline Has Its Rewards

Think of an area in your life where you need to refuse to give up and “apply your heart to discipline” (Prov. 23:12). Come up with a goal—one that will require you to be disciplined and overcome some obstacles, but one that also promises great reward. It may be as basic as making your bed each morning or as ambitious as running a marathon. It may be to break free from a fear of public speaking or to overcome an addiction or to get out of debt. Just make sure you and God are in agreement, depend on Him for the strength to do it, and then go after your goal with everything in you.

Be full of holy determination—not some kind of fleshly determination or willpower—but true God-given determination. You do have self-control. It is a fruit of the Spirit, and it is in you—believe it and begin walking in it.

¹⁰Do not move the ancient landmark [at the boundary of the property]

And do not go into the fields of the fatherless [to take what is theirs], [Deut 19:14; 27:17; Prov 22:28]

¹¹For their Redeemer is strong and mighty;
He will plead their case against you.

¹²Apply your heart to discipline
And your ears to words of knowledge.

- ¹³ Do not withhold discipline from the child;
If you swat him with a reed-like rod [applied with godly wisdom], he will not die.
- ¹⁴ You shall swat him with the reed-like rod
And rescue his life from Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead).
- ¹⁵ My son, if your heart is wise,
My heart will also be glad;
- ¹⁶ Yes, my heart will rejoice
When your lips speak right things.
- ¹⁷ Do not let your heart envy sinners [who live godless lives and have no hope of salvation], But [continue to] live in the [reverent, worshipful] fear of the LORD day by day.
- ¹⁸ Surely there is a future [and a reward],
And your hope and expectation will not be cut off.
- ¹⁹ Listen, my son, and be wise,
And direct your heart in the way [of the LORD].
- ²⁰ Do not associate with heavy drinkers of wine,
Or with gluttonous eaters of meat, [Is 5:22; Luke 21:34; Rom 13:13; Eph 5:18]
- ²¹ For the heavy drinker and the glutton will come to poverty,
And the drowsiness [of overindulgence] will clothe one with rags.
- ²² Listen to your father, who sired you,
And do not despise your mother when she is old.

- ²³Buy truth, and do not sell it;
Get wisdom and instruction and understanding.
- ²⁴The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice,
And he who sires a wise child will have joy in him.
- ²⁵Let your father and your mother be glad,
And let her who gave birth to you rejoice [in your wise and godly choices].
- ²⁶My son, give me your heart
And let your eyes delight in my ways,
- ²⁷For a prostitute is a deep pit,
And an immoral woman is a narrow well.
- ²⁸She lurks and lies in wait like a robber [who waits for prey],
And she increases the faithless among men.
- ²⁹Who has woe? Who has sorrow?
Who has strife? Who has complaining?
Who has wounds without cause?
Whose eyes are red and dim?
- ³⁰Those who linger long over wine,
Those who go to taste mixed wine. [Prov 20:1; Eph 5:18]
- ³¹Do not look at wine when it is red,
When it sparkles in the glass,
When it goes down smoothly.
- ³²At the last it bites like a serpent
And stings like a viper.
- ³³Your [drunken] eyes will see strange things

And your mind will utter perverse things [untrue things, twisted things].

³⁴And you will be [as unsteady] as one who lies down in the middle of the sea,
And [as vulnerable to disaster] as one who lies down on the top of a ship's mast, saying,

³⁵“They struck me, but I was not hurt!
They beat me, but I did not feel it!
When will I wake up?
I will seek more wine.”

24 DO NOT be envious of evil men, Nor desire to be with
them;

²For their minds plot violence,
And their lips talk of trouble [for the innocent].

³Through [skillful and godly] wisdom a house [a life, a home, a family] is built, And by understanding it is established [on a sound and good foundation],

⁴And by knowledge its rooms are filled
With all precious and pleasant riches.

⁵A wise man is strong,
And a man of knowledge strengthens his power; [Prov
21:22; Eccl 9:16]

⁶For by wise guidance you can wage your war,
And in an abundance of [wise] counselors there is victory and safety.

- ⁷Wisdom is too exalted for a [hardened, arrogant] fool;
He does not open his mouth in the gate [where the city's rulers sit in judgment].
- ⁸He who plans to do evil
Will be called a schemer or deviser of evil.
- ⁹The devising of folly is sin,
And the scoffer is repulsive to men.
- ¹⁰If you are slack (careless) in the day of distress,
Your strength is limited.
- ¹¹Rescue those who are being taken away to death,
And those who stagger to the slaughter, Oh hold them back [from their doom]!
- ¹²If you [claim ignorance and] say, "See, we did not know this,"
Does He not consider it who weighs and examines the hearts and their motives?
And does He not know it who guards your life and keeps your soul?
And will He not repay [you and] every man according to his works?
- ¹³My son, eat honey, because it is good,
And the drippings of the honeycomb are sweet to your taste.
- ¹⁴Know that [skillful and godly] wisdom is [so very good] for your life and soul;

If you find wisdom, then there will be a future and a reward,
And your hope and expectation will not be cut off.

¹⁵Do not lie in wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous;

Do not destroy his resting place;

¹⁶For a righteous man falls seven times, and rises again,
But the wicked stumble in time of disaster and collapse.

[Job 5:19; Ps 34:19; 37:24; Mic 7:8]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Examining Your Motives

Our motives—the reasons for doing the things we do—are very important. No matter what we may claim as our motives, we're told that God “weighs and examines the hearts and their motives” and rewards “every man according to his works” (Prov. 24:12).

God wants you to have a pure heart. He wants you to do things because He is leading you to do them or because they are the right things to do. God wants you to be motivated by love. It's important to be able to do what you do because of love—love for God and love for others. It's a good idea to regularly take some time and ask yourself why you are doing the things you do. It is not what you do that impresses God; He is interested in the why behind what you do. Ask God to reveal your motives to you and to change any that are not pure.

¹⁷Do not rejoice and gloat when your enemy falls,
And do not let your heart be glad [in self-righteousness]
when he stumbles,

¹⁸Or the LORD will see your gloating and be displeased,
And turn His anger away from your enemy.

¹⁹Do not get upset because of evildoers,

- Or be envious of the wicked,
²⁰For there will be no future for the evil man;
The lamp of the wicked will be put out.
- ²¹My son, fear the LORD and the king;
And do not associate with those who are given to change
[of allegiance, and are revolutionary],
- ²²For their tragedy will rise suddenly,
And who knows the punishment that both [the LORD and the king] will bring on the rebellious?
- ²³These also are sayings of the wise:
To show partiality in judgment is not good.
- ²⁴He who says to the wicked, “You are righteous,” Peoples will curse him, nations will denounce him;
- ²⁵But to those [honorable judges] who rebuke the wicked, it will go well with them and they will find delight, And a good blessing will come upon them.
- ²⁶He kisses the lips [and wins the hearts of people]
Who gives a right and straightforward answer.
- ²⁷Prepare your work outside
And get it ready for yourself in the field;
Afterward build your house and establish a home.
- ²⁸Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause,
And do not deceive with your lips [speak neither lies nor half-truths]. [Eph 4:25]
- ²⁹Do not say, “I will do to him as he has done to me;

I will pay the man back for his deed.” [Prov 20:22; Matt 5:39, 44; Rom 12:17, 19]

³⁰I went by the field of the lazy man,
And by the vineyard of the man lacking understanding and
common sense;

³¹And, behold, it was all overgrown with thorns,
And nettles were covering its surface,
And its stone wall was broken down.

³²When I saw, I considered it well;
I looked and received instruction.

³³“Yet a little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to rest [and daydream],”

³⁴Then your poverty will come as a robber,
And your want like an armed man.

25 THESE ARE also the proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied: [1 Kin 4:32]

²It is the glory of God to conceal a matter,
But the glory of kings is to search out a matter. [Deut 29:29;
Rom 11:33]

³As the heavens for height and the earth for depth,
So the hearts and minds of kings are unsearchable.

⁴Take away the dross from the silver,
And there comes out [the pure metal for] a vessel for the silversmith [to shape]. [2 Tim 2:21]

⁵Take away the wicked from before the king,
And his throne will be established in righteousness.
⁶Do not be boastfully ambitious and claim honor in the presence of the king,
And do not stand in the place of great men;
⁷For it is better that it be said to you, “Come up here,” Than for you to be placed lower in the presence of the prince,
Whom your eyes have seen. [Luke 14:8–10]

⁸Do not rush out to argue your case [before magistrates or judges];
Otherwise what will you do in the end [when your case is lost and]
When your neighbor (opponent) humiliates you? [Prov
17:14; Matt 5:25]

⁹Argue your case with your neighbor himself [before you go to court];
And do not reveal another’s secret, [Matt 18:15]

¹⁰Or he who hears it will shame you
And the rumor about you [and your action in court] will have no end.

¹¹Like apples of gold in settings of silver
Is a word spoken at the right time. [Prov 15:23; Is 50:4]

¹²Like an earring of gold and an ornament of fine gold
Is a wise reprover to an ear that listens and learns.

¹³Like the cold of snow [brought from the mountains] in the time of harvest,

So is a faithful messenger to those who send him;
For he refreshes the life of his masters.

¹⁴Like clouds and wind without rain
Is a man who boasts falsely of gifts [he does not give].
[Jude 12]

¹⁵By patience and a calm spirit a ruler may be persuaded,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Can Use Your Words

God has always used people to speak messages to others. Those messages may be extremely important, with the ability to change the course of a nation, a church, a business, an individual, or a family; right words spoken at just the right time are very valuable (see Prov. 25:11).

Whoever you may have an opportunity to speak to, remember that right words at the right time can change a life.

And a soft and gentle tongue breaks the bone [of resistance]. [Gen 32:4; 1 Sam 25:24; Prov 15:1; 16:14]

- ¹⁶Have you found [pleasure sweet like] honey? Eat only as much as you need, Otherwise, being filled excessively, you vomit it.
- ¹⁷Let your foot seldom be in your neighbor's house,
Or he will become tired of you and hate you.
- ¹⁸Like a club and a sword and a piercing arrow
Is a man who testifies falsely against his neighbor (acquaintance).
- ¹⁹Like a broken tooth or an unsteady foot
Is confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble.
- ²⁰Like one who takes off a garment in cold weather, or like [a reactive, useless mixture of] vinegar on soda, Is he who [thoughtlessly] sings [joyful] songs to a heavy heart.

[Dan 6:18; Rom 12:15]

- ²¹If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat;
And if he is thirsty, give him water to drink; [Matt 5:44; Rom 12:20]
- ²²For in doing so, you will heap coals of fire upon his head,
And the LORD will reward you.
- ²³The north wind brings forth rain,
And a backbiting tongue, an angry countenance.
- ²⁴It is better to live in a corner of the housetop [on the flat roof, exposed to the weather]
Than in a house shared with a quarrelsome (contentious) woman. [Prov 21:9]
- ²⁵Like cold water to a thirsty soul,
So is good news from a distant land.
- ²⁶Like a muddied fountain and a polluted spring

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Help me, Lord, to live as a righteous person who does not yield and compromise my integrity before the wicked.

- adapted from Proverbs 25:26

POWERPOINT

Exercising self-control is a form of freedom. Not exercising self-control sets a person up for trouble (see Prov. 25:28). You don't have to do what you feel like doing; you're free to do what you know is wise.

Discipline and self-control will help you be the person you want to be. Don't ever say, "I just don't have any self-control," because the truth is that you do, but it needs to be exercised in order to be strong. Self-control is a fruit of the new nature God has given each of us as believers in Jesus Christ, and all we need to do is develop it. We develop self-control by using it, just as we develop muscles by using them (see 2 Pet. 1:6).

Is a righteous man who yields and compromises his integrity before the wicked.

²⁷It is not good to eat much honey,
Nor is it glorious to seek one's own glory.

²⁸Like a city that is broken down and without walls [leaving it unprotected]
Is a man who has no self-control over his spirit [and sets himself up for trouble]. [Prov 16:32]

26 LIKE SNOW in summer and like rain in harvest, So honor is not fitting for a [shortsighted] fool. [Is 32:6]

²Like the sparrow in her wandering, like the swallow in her flying,
So the curse without cause does not come and alight [on the undeserving]. [Num 23:8]

³A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey,
And a rod for the backs of fools [who refuse to learn].

⁴Do not answer [nor pretend to agree with the frivolous comments of] a [closed-minded] fool according to his folly,
Otherwise you, even you, will be like him.

⁵Answer [and correct the erroneous concepts of] a fool according to his folly,
Otherwise he will be wise in his own eyes [if he thinks you agree with him]. [Matt 16:1–4; 21:24–27]

⁶He who sends a message by the hand of a fool Cuts off his own feet (sabotages himself) and drinks the violence [it brings on himself as a consequence]. [Prov 13:17]

⁷Like the legs which are useless to the lame,
So is a proverb in the mouth of a fool [who cannot learn from its wisdom].

⁸Like one who [absurdly] binds a stone in a sling [making it impossible to throw],
So is he who [absurdly] gives honor to a fool.

⁹Like a thorn that goes [without being felt] into the hand of a drunken man,
So is a proverb in the mouth of a fool [who remains unaffected by its wisdom].

¹⁰Like a [careless] archer who [shoots arrows wildly and] wounds everyone,
So is he who hires a fool or those who [by chance just] pass by.

¹¹Like a dog that returns to his vomit
Is a fool who repeats his foolishness.

¹²Do you see a man [who is unteachable and] wise in his own eyes and full of self-conceit?
There is more hope for a fool than for him. [Prov 29:20; Luke 18:11; Rom 12:16; Rev 3:17]

¹³The lazy person [who is self-indulgent and relies on lame excuses] says, "There is a lion in the road!
A lion is in the open square [and if I go outside to work I will be killed]!" [Prov 22:13]

¹⁴As the door turns on its hinges,

- So does the lazy person on his bed [never getting out of it].
- ¹⁵The lazy person buries his hand in the dish [losing opportunity after opportunity];
It wearies him to bring it back to his mouth. [Prov 19:24]
- ¹⁶The lazy person is wiser in his own eyes
Than seven [sensible] men who can give a discreet answer.
- ¹⁷Like one who grabs a dog by the ears [and is likely to be bitten]
Is he who, passing by, stops to meddle with a dispute that is none of his business.
- ¹⁸Like a madman who throws
Firebrands, arrows, and death,
- ¹⁹So is the man who deceives his neighbor (acquaintance, friend)
And then says, “Was I not joking?” [Eph 5:4]
- ²⁰For lack of wood the fire goes out,
And where there is no whisperer [who gossips], contention quiets down.
- ²¹Like charcoal to hot embers and wood to fire,
So is a contentious man to kindle strife. [Prov 15:18; 29:22]
- ²²The words of a whisperer (gossip) are like dainty morsels [to be greedily eaten];
They go down into the innermost chambers of the body [to be remembered and mused upon]. [Prov 18:8]
- ²³Like a [common] clay vessel covered with the silver dross [making it appear silver when it has no real value]
Are burning lips [murmuring manipulative words] and a wicked heart.

²⁴He who hates, disguises it with his lips,
But he stores up deceit in his heart.

²⁵When he speaks graciously and kindly [to conceal his malice], do not trust him,
For seven abominations are in his heart.

²⁶*Though* his hatred covers itself with guile and deceit,
His malevolence will be revealed openly before the assembly.

²⁷Whoever digs a pit [for another man's feet] will fall into it,
And he who rolls a stone [up a hill to do mischief], it will come back on him. [Ps 7:15, 16; 9:15; 10:2; 57:6; Prov 28:10;
Eccl 10:8]

²⁸A lying tongue hates those it wounds and crushes,
And a flattering mouth works ruin.

27 DO NOT boast about tomorrow,

For you do not know what a day may bring. [Luke 12:19, 20;
James 4:13]

²Let another praise you, and not your own mouth;
A stranger, and not your own lips.

³Stone is heavy and the sand weighty,
But a fool's [unreasonable] wrath is heavier and more burdensome than both of them.

⁴Wrath is cruel and anger is an overwhelming flood,
But who is able to endure and stand before [the sin of] jealousy?

⁵Better is an open reprimand [of loving correction]
Than love that is hidden. [Prov 28:23; Gal 2:14]

⁶Faithful are the wounds of a friend [who corrects out of love and concern],
But the kisses of an enemy are deceitful [because they serve his hidden agenda].

⁷He who is satisfied loathes honey,
But to the hungry soul any bitter thing is sweet.

⁸Like a bird that wanders from her nest [with its comfort and safety],
So is a man who wanders from his home.

⁹Oil and perfume make the heart glad;
So does the sweetness of a friend's counsel that comes from the heart.

¹⁰Do not abandon your own friend and your father's friend,
And do not go to your brother's house in the day of your disaster.
Better is a neighbor who is near than a brother who is far away.

¹¹My son, be wise, and make my heart glad,
That I may reply to him who reproaches (reprimands, criticizes) me. [Prov 10:1; 23:15, 24]

¹²A prudent man sees evil and hides himself and avoids it,
But the naive [who are easily misled] continue on and are punished [by suffering the consequences of sin]. [Prov 22:3]

- ¹³[The judge tells the creditor,] “Take the garment of one who is surety (guarantees a loan) for a stranger; And hold him in pledge when he is surety for an immoral woman [for it is unlikely the debt will be repaid].” [Prov 20:16]
- ¹⁴He who blesses his neighbor with a loud voice early in the morning,
It will be counted as a curse to him [for it will either be annoying or his purpose will be suspect].
- ¹⁵A constant dripping on a day of steady rain
And a contentious (quarrelsome) woman are alike; [Prov 19:13]
- ¹⁶Whoever attempts to restrain her [criticism] might as well try to stop the wind,
And grasps oil with his right hand.
- ¹⁷As iron sharpens iron,
So one man sharpens [and influences] another [through discussion].
- ¹⁸He who tends the fig tree will eat its fruit,
And he who faithfully protects and cares for his master will be honored. [1 Cor 9:7, 13]
- ¹⁹As in water face reflects face,
So the heart of man reflects man.
- ²⁰Sheol (the place of the dead) and Abaddon (the underworld) are never satisfied;
Nor are the eyes of man ever satisfied. [Prov 30:16; Hab 2:5]

POWERPOINT

Jealousy and envy are negative emotions that torment us (see Prov. 27:4). It is difficult to not be jealous of anyone who looks better than we do or has talents that we don't have. We may want to be happy for that other person, but something in us won't allow it. What God does for you or me may not be what He does for someone else, but we must remember what Jesus said to Peter: Don't be concerned about what I choose to do with someone else—you follow Me (see John 21:22).

- ²¹The refining pot is for silver and the furnace for gold [to separate the impurities of the metal], And each is tested by the praise given to him [and his response to it, whether humble or proud].

²²Even though you pound a [hardened, arrogant] fool [who rejects wisdom] in a mortar with a pestle like grain, Yet his foolishness will not leave him.

²³Be diligent to know the condition of your flocks,
And pay attention to your herds;

²⁴For riches are not forever,
Nor does a crown endure to all generations.

²⁵When the grass is gone, the new growth is seen,
And herbs of the mountain are gathered in,

²⁶The lambs will supply wool for your clothing,
And the goats will bring the price of a field.

²⁷And there will be enough goats' milk for your food,
For the food of your household,
And for the maintenance of your maids.

28 THE WICKED flee when no one pursues them, But the righteous are as bold as a lion. [Lev 26:17, 36; Ps 53:5]

²When a land does wrong, it has many princes,
But when the ruler is a man of understanding and knowledge, its stability endures.

³A poor man who oppresses and exploits the lowly
Is like a sweeping rain which leaves no food. [Matt 18:28]

⁴Those who set aside the law [of God and man] praise the wicked,
But those who keep the law [of God and man] struggle with them. [Prov 29:18]

- ⁵ Evil men do not understand justice,
But they who long for and seek the LORD understand it fully. [John 7:17; 1 Cor 2:15; 1 John 2:20, 27]
- ⁶ Better is the poor who walks in his integrity
Than he who is crooked and two-faced though he is rich.
[Prov 19:1]
- ⁷ He who keeps the law [of God and man] is a wise and discerning son,
But he who is a companion of gluttons humiliates his father [and himself].
- ⁸ He who increases his wealth by interest and usury
(excessive interest)
Gathers it for him who is gracious to the poor. [Job 27:16, 17;
Prov 13:22; Eccl 2:26]
- ⁹ He who turns his ear away from listening to the law [of God and man],
Even his prayer is repulsive [to God]. [Ps 66:18; 109:7; Prov
15:8; Zech 7:11]
- ¹⁰ He who leads the upright astray on an evil path
Will himself fall into his own pit,
But the blameless will inherit good.
- ¹¹ The rich man [who is conceited and relies on his wealth instead of God] is wise in his own eyes, But the poor man who has understanding [because he relies on God] is able to see through him.
- ¹² When the righteous triumph, there is great glory and celebration;

But when the wicked rise [to prominence], men hide themselves.

¹³He who conceals his transgressions will not prosper,
But whoever confesses and turns away from his sins will find compassion and mercy. [Ps 32:3, 5; 1 John 1:8–10]

¹⁴Blessed and favored by God is the man who fears [sin and its consequence] at all times, But he who hardens his heart [and is determined to sin] will fall into disaster.

¹⁵Like a roaring lion and a charging bear
Is a wicked ruler over a poor people.

¹⁶A leader who is a great oppressor lacks understanding and common sense [and his wickedness shortens his days],
But he who hates unjust gain will [be blessed and] prolong his days.

¹⁷A man who is burdened with the guilt of human blood (murder)
Will be a fugitive until death; let no one support him or give him refuge.

¹⁸He who walks blamelessly and uprightly will be kept safe,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Run to God

One way to maintain peace with God is to never attempt to conceal sin. We should always be honest with God and keep good communication open with Him. God is not surprised by our weaknesses and failures; actually, He knows about our mistakes before we even make them. All we need to do is admit to them and repent of them, and He is faithful to forgive us continually from all sin and to show compassion and mercy (see Prov. 28:13).

It is important to do the best you can out of your love for God. Since none of us is perfect, we will make mistakes. When we do, we can talk openly to our Father about them and maintain a relationship of peace with Him. When you need cleansing, don't ever run from God, run to Him!

But he who is crooked (perverse) will suddenly fall.

¹⁹He who cultivates his land will have plenty of bread,
But he who follows worthless people and frivolous pursuits will have plenty of poverty.

²⁰A faithful (right-minded) man will abound with blessings,
But he who hurries to be rich will not go unpunished. [Prov
13:11; 20:21; 23:4; 1 Tim 6:9]

²¹To have regard for one person over another and to show favoritism is not good,

Because for a piece of bread a man will transgress.

²²He who has an evil and envious eye hurries to be rich
And does not know that poverty will come upon him. [Prov
21:5; 28:20]

²³He who [appropriately] reprimands a [wise] man will afterward find more favor
Than he who flatters with the tongue.

²⁴He who robs his father or his mother
And says, “This is no sin,”
Is [not only a thief but also] the companion of a man who destroys.

²⁵An arrogant and greedy man stirs up strife,
But he who trusts in the LORD will be blessed and prosper.

²⁶He who trusts confidently in his own heart is a [dull, thickheaded] fool,
But he who walks in [skillful and godly] wisdom will be rescued. [James 1:5]

²⁷He who gives to the poor will never want,
But he who shuts his eyes [from their need] will have many curses. [Deut 15:7; Prov 19:17; 22:9]

²⁸When the wicked rise [to power], men hide themselves;
But when the wicked perish, the [consistently] righteous increase and become great. [Prov 28:12]

29 HE WHO hardens his neck and refuses instruction after being often reproved (corrected, criticized), Will suddenly be broken beyond repair.

- ²When the righteous are in authority and become great, the people rejoice;
But when the wicked man rules, the people groan and sigh.
- ³A man who loves [skillful and godly] wisdom makes his father joyful,
But he who associates with prostitutes wastes his wealth.
- ⁴The king establishes (stabilizes) the land by justice,
But a man who takes bribes overthrows it.
- ⁵A man who flatters his neighbor [with smooth words intending to do harm]
Is spreading a net for his own feet.
- ⁶By his wicked plan an evil man is trapped,
But the righteous man sings and rejoices [for his plan brings good things to him].
- ⁷The righteous man cares for the rights of the poor,
But the wicked man has no interest in such knowledge. [Job 29:16; 31:13; Ps 41:1]
- ⁸Scoffers set a city afire [by stirring up trouble],
But wise men turn away anger [and restore order with their good judgment].
- ⁹If a wise man has a controversy with a foolish and arrogant man,
The foolish man [ignores logic and fairness and] only rages or laughs, and there is no peace (rest, agreement).
- ¹⁰The bloodthirsty hate the blameless [because of his integrity],
But the upright are concerned for his life. [Gen 4:5, 8; 1 John

3:12]

¹¹A [shortsighted] fool always loses his temper and displays his anger,

But a wise man [uses self-control and] holds it back.

¹²If a ruler pays attention to lies [and encourages corruption], All his officials will become wicked.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Refuse To Fear

Fear robs many people of their faith. Fear of failure, fear of man, and fear of rejection are some of the strongest fears that Satan employs to hinder our progress. Proverbs 29:25 says, “The fear of man brings a snare.” But no matter what kind of fear the enemy sends against us, the important thing is to overcome it. When we are faced with fear, we should not give in to it. It is imperative to our victory that we determine, “I will not fear!”

The normal reaction to fear is flight (to run). Satan wants us to run; God wants us to stand still and see His deliverance (see 2 Chr. 20:17).

Because of fear, many people do not confront their issues; they spend their lives running away from them. We can learn to stand our ground and face the fear, secure in the knowledge that “we are more than conquerors and gain an overwhelming victory through Him who loved us [so much that He died for us]” (Rom. 8:37).

Fear of failure torments multitudes. We fear what people will think of us if we fail. If we step out and fail, some people may hear about it; but they quickly forget if we forget it and go on. It is better to try something and fail than to try nothing and succeed.

Approach life with boldness. The Spirit of the Lord is in you—so make up your mind not to fear.

¹³The poor man and the oppressor have this in common:
The LORD gives light to the eyes of both. [Prov 22:2]

¹⁴If a king faithfully and truthfully judges the poor,
His throne shall be established forever.

¹⁵The rod and reproof (godly instruction) give wisdom,
But a child who gets his own way brings shame to his mother.

¹⁶When the wicked are in authority, transgression increases,
But the righteous will see the downfall of the wicked.

¹⁷Correct your son, and he will give you comfort;
Yes, he will delight your soul.

¹⁸Where there is no vision [no revelation of God and His word], the people are unrestrained;
But happy and blessed is he who keeps the law [of God]. [1
Sam 3:1; Amos 8:11, 12]

¹⁹A servant will not be corrected by words alone;
For though he understands, he will not respond [nor pay attention].

²⁰Do you see a [conceited] man who speaks quickly [offering his opinions or answering without thinking]?
There is more hope for a [thickheaded] fool than for him.

²¹He who pampers his slave from childhood
Will find him to be a son in the end.

²²An angry man stirs up strife,
And a hot-tempered and undisciplined man commits many transgressions.

²³A man's pride and sense of self-importance will bring him down,

But he who has a humble spirit will obtain honor. [Prov 15:33; 18:12; Is 66:2; Dan 4:30; Matt 23:12; James 4:6, 10; 1 Pet 5:5]

²⁴Whoever is partner with a thief hates his own life;
He hears the curse [when swearing an oath to testify], but discloses nothing [and commits perjury by omission].

²⁵The fear of man brings a snare,
But whoever trusts in and puts his confidence in the LORD will be exalted and safe.

²⁶Many seek the ruler's favor,
But justice for man comes from the LORD.

²⁷An unjust man is repulsive to the righteous,
And he who is upright in the way [of the LORD] is repulsive to the wicked.

30 THE WORDS of Agur the son of Jakeh, the oracle: The man says to Ithiel, to Ithiel and to Ucal:

²Surely I am more brutish and stupid than any man,
And I do not have the understanding of a man [for I do not know what I do not know].

³I have not learned [skillful and godly] wisdom,
Nor do I have knowledge of the Holy One [who is the source of wisdom].

⁴Who has ascended into heaven and descended?
Who has gathered the wind in His fists?
Who has bound the waters in His garment?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is His name, and what is His Son's name?
Certainly you know! [John 3:13; Rev 19:12]

⁵Every word of God is tested and refined [like silver];
He is a shield to those who trust and take refuge in Him. [Ps
18:30; 84:11; 115:9–11]

⁶Do not add to His words,
Or He will reprove you, and you will be found a liar.

⁷Two things I have asked of You;
Do not deny them to me before I die:

⁸Keep deception and lies far from me;
Give me neither poverty nor riches;
Feed me with the food that is my portion,

⁹So that I will not be full and deny You and say, "Who is the LORD?"
Or that I will not be poor and steal,
And so profane the name of my God. [Deut 8:12, 14, 17; Neh
9:25, 26; Job 31:24; Hos 13:6]

¹⁰Do not slander or malign a servant before his master [stay out of another's personal life], Or he will curse you [for your interference], and you will be found guilty.

¹¹There is a generation (class of people) that curses its father

And does not bless its mother.

¹²There is a generation (class of people) that is pure in its own eyes,

Yet is not washed from its filthiness.

¹³There is a generation (class of people)—oh, how lofty are their eyes!

And their eyelids are raised in arrogance.

¹⁴There is a generation (class of people) whose teeth are like swords

And whose jaw teeth are like knives,

To devour the afflicted from the earth

And the needy from among men.

¹⁵The leech has two daughters,

“Give, give!”

There are three things that are never satisfied,

Four that do not say, “It is enough”:

¹⁶Sheol, and the barren womb,

Earth that is never satisfied with water,

And fire that never says, “It is enough.”

¹⁷The eye that mocks a father

And scorns a mother,

The ravens of the valley will pick it out,

And the young vultures will devour it. [Lev 20:9; Prov 20:20; 23:22]

¹⁸There are three things which are too astounding and unexpectedly wonderful for me, Four which I do not understand:

- ¹⁹The way of an eagle in the air,
The way of a serpent on a rock,
The way of a ship in the middle of the sea,
And the way of a man with a maid.
- ²⁰This is the way of an adulterous woman:
She eats and wipes her mouth
And says, "I have done no wrong."
- ²¹Under three things the earth is disquieted and quakes,
And under four it cannot bear up:
- ²²Under a servant when he reigns,
Under a [spiritually blind] fool when he is filled with food,
- ²³Under an unloved woman when she gets married,
And under a maidservant when she supplants her mistress.
- ²⁴There are four things that are small on the earth,
But they are exceedingly wise:
- ²⁵The ants are not a strong people,
Yet they prepare their food in the summer; [Prov 6:6]
- ²⁶The shephanim are not a mighty folk,
Yet they make their houses in the rocks; [Ps 104:18]
- ²⁷The locusts have no king,
Yet all of them go out in groups;
- ²⁸You may grasp the lizard with your hands,
Yet it is in kings' palaces.
- ²⁹There are three things which are stately in step,
Even four which are stately in their stride:

- ³⁰The lion, which is mighty among beasts
And does not turn back before any;
- ³¹The strutting rooster, the male goat also,
And the king when his army is with him.
- ³²If you have foolishly exalted yourself,
Or if you have plotted evil, put your hand on your mouth.
[Job 21:5; 40:4]
- ³³Surely the churning of milk produces butter,
And wringing the nose produces blood;
So the churning of anger produces strife.

31 THE WORDS of King Lemuel, the oracle, which his mother taught him: ²What, O my son?

And what, O son of my womb?

And what [shall I advise you], O son of my vows?

³Do not give your [generative] strength to women [neither foreign wives in marriages of alliances, nor concubines],
Nor your ways to that which destroys kings.

⁴It is not for kings, O Lemuel,
It is not for kings to drink wine,

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

YOU CAN PRAY
THIS PRAYER FOR YOURSELF OR FOR A WOMAN YOU KNOW.

*Lord, I pray that I will be an excellent woman, one who is spiritual, capable, intelligent, and virtuous. I am more precious than jewels and my worth is far above rubies or pearls. I pray that the heart of my husband will trust in me with confidence, and he will have no lack of gain. Help me to comfort, encourage,
and do him good,
not evil, all the days
of my life.*

• adapted from Proverbs 31:10–12

Or for rulers to desire strong drink, [Eccl 10:17; Hos 4:11]
⁵Otherwise they drink and forget the law and its decrees,

And pervert the rights and justice of all the afflicted.

⁶Give strong drink [as medicine] to him who is ready to pass away,

And wine to him whose life is bitter.

⁷Let him drink and forget his poverty
And no longer remember his trouble.

⁸Open your mouth for the mute,
For the rights of all who are unfortunate and defenseless; [1
Sam 19:4; Esth 4:16; Job 29:15, 16]

⁹Open your mouth, judge righteously,
And administer justice for the afflicted and needy. [Lev
19:15; Deut 1:16; Job 29:12; Is 1:17; Jer 22:16]

¹⁰An excellent woman [one who is spiritual, capable, intelligent, and virtuous], who is he who can find her?
Her value is more precious than jewels and her worth is far above rubies or pearls. [Prov 12:4; 18:22; 19:14]

¹¹The heart of her husband trusts in her [with secure confidence],
And he will have no lack of gain.

¹²She comforts, encourages, and does him only good and not evil
All the days of her life.

¹³She looks for wool and flax
And works with willing hands in delight.

¹⁴She is like the merchant ships [abounding with treasure];
She brings her [household's] food from far away.

¹⁵She rises also while it is still night

And gives food to her household
And assigns tasks to her maids. [Job 23:12]

¹⁶She considers a field before she buys or accepts it [expanding her business prudently]; With her profits she plants fruitful vines in her vineyard.

¹⁷She equips herself with strength [spiritual, mental, and physical fitness for her God-given task]
And makes her arms strong.

¹⁸She sees that her gain is good;
Her lamp does not go out, but it burns continually through the night [she is prepared for whatever lies ahead].

¹⁹She stretches out her hands to the distaff,
And her hands hold the spindle [as she spins wool into thread for clothing].

²⁰She opens and extends her hand to the poor,
And she reaches out her filled hands to the needy.

²¹She does not fear the snow for her household,
For all in her household are clothed in [expensive] scarlet [wool]. [Josh 2:18, 19; Heb 9:19–22]

²²She makes for herself coverlets, cushions, and rugs of tapestry.
Her clothing is linen, pure and fine, and purple [wool]. [Is 61:10; 1 Tim 2:9; Rev 3:5; 19:8, 14]

²³Her husband is known in the [city's] gates,
When he sits among the elders of the land. [Prov 12:4]

²⁴She makes [fine] linen garments and sells them;
And supplies sashes to the merchants.

²⁵Strength and dignity are her clothing and her position is strong and secure;

And she smiles at the future [knowing that she and her family are prepared].

²⁶She opens her mouth in [skillful and godly] wisdom,
And the teaching of kindness is on her tongue [giving counsel and instruction].

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Kindness on Your Tongue

For years I was angry and spoke harshly as a result of being mistreated and abused as a child. I ended up with a harsh, hard spirit; therefore, all the words I spoke were harsh and hard. As a young adult, I determined that no one would ever hurt me again, and that attitude permeated my thoughts and influenced my speech.

Though I tried to say things that were right and pleasing to others, once those comments had passed through my soul (my mind, my will, and my emotions) and picked up the hardness and bitterness hidden there, they came out sounding angry and impatient.

No matter how right people's hearts may be before the Lord, if they have pride, anger, or resentment in their soul, they cannot open their mouths without somehow expressing that negativity. They may not even recognize the harshness in their tone of voice, but others will.

Jesus said that the reason we cannot keep our thoughts and emotions from influencing our words is this: "For the mouth speaks out of that which fills the heart” (Matt. 12:34). Whatever is in us will come out in our words.

Because I spent years as a harsh, angry person, the Lord had to do quite a work in order for me to develop gentleness. Part of what God revealed to me in His Word concerning this issue was Proverbs 31:26. When I read it, I thought, Oh, Lord, I need help! I felt that whenever I opened my mouth, out came a hammer.

Maybe you can relate to what I experienced. You may have been mistreated and abused as a young person as I was, and you are now filled with hatred, resentment, distrust, anger, and hostility. Instead of kindness, you express harshness and hardness, even when you do not want to.

Spending time in God’s Word and in fellowship with Him, letting Him heal the hurts of your past, seeking counseling if you need it, and working to overcome the negativity you have grown up with are worth the effort. When the law of kindness is on your tongue, not only will the people around you benefit, you will also feel better about yourself and be more able to enjoy your life.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord, whatever it takes for You to heal me and help me to learn to speak kindly and gently, I ask You to do it in my life. I don’t want to speak words that sound harsh, but words that bless and encourage the people around me. In Jesus’ name. Amen.

- ²⁷ She looks well to how things go in her household,
And does not eat the bread of idleness. [1 Tim 5:14; Titus 2:5]
- ²⁸ Her children rise up and call her blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired);
Her husband also, and he praises her, saying,
- ²⁹ “Many daughters have done nobly, and well [with the strength of character that is steadfast in goodness], But you excel them all.”
- ³⁰ Charm and grace are deceptive, and [superficial] beauty is vain,
But a woman who fears the LORD [reverently worshiping, obeying, serving, and trusting Him with awe-filled respect], she shall be praised.
- ³¹ Give her of the product of her hands,
And let her own works praise her in the gates [of the city].
[Phil 4:8]

Ecclesiastes

Author: |
Traditionally, Solomon

Date: |
Traditionally, around the time of Solomon's death (about 931 BC)

Solomon, the writer of Ecclesiastes, was desperate to find the secret to happiness and fulfillment in life. He looked for it in everything the world had to offer. After much disappointment, he ultimately realized that the key to true and lasting joy is in fearing God and obeying His Word. In fact, one of my favorite verses is the one Solomon wrote at the end of Ecclesiastes: "When all has been heard, the end of the matter is: fear God [worship Him with awe-filled reverence, knowing that He is almighty God] and keep His commandments, for this applies to every person" (Ecclesiastes 12:13).

No matter where you look in your search for happiness and fulfillment, you will only find it in loving God and following

His ways.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM ECCLESIASTES:

Trying to find earthly fulfillment in the things of the world is like chasing the wind and trying to grasp it. It will never happen (see Ecclesiastes 1:14).

Being able to enjoy your work and the various things you do is a great blessing and is necessary for a blessed life (see Ecclesiastes 2:24).

There is an appropriate time for everything in life, and it is important to do things in their proper timing (see Ecclesiastes 3:1–8).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM ECCLESIASTES:

For wisdom is a protection even as money is a protection, but the [excellent] advantage of knowledge is that wisdom shields and preserves the lives of its possessors. | Ecclesiastes 7:12

It is good that you take hold of one thing (righteousness) and also not let go of the other (wisdom); for the one who fears and worships God [with awe-filled reverence] will come forth with both of them. | Ecclesiastes 7:18

The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious and win him favor; but the lips of a fool consume him. | Ecclesiastes 10:12

ECCLESIASTES

1 THE WORDS of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

²“Vanity of vanities,” says the Preacher.

“Vanity of vanities! All [that is done without God’s guidance] is vanity [futile, meaningless—a wisp of smoke, a vapor that vanishes, merely chasing the wind].” [Rom 8:20]

³What advantage does man have from all his work
Which he does under the sun (while earthbound)?

⁴One generation goes and another generation comes,
But the earth remains forever. [Ps 119:90]

⁵Also, the sun rises and the sun sets;
And hurries to the place where it rises again.

⁶The wind blows toward the south,
Then circles toward the north;
The wind circles and swirls endlessly,
And on its circular course the wind returns. [John 3:8]

⁷All the rivers flow into the sea,
Yet the sea is not full.
To the place where the rivers flow,

There they flow again.

⁸All things are wearisome and all words are frail;
Man cannot express it.

The eye is not satisfied with seeing,
Nor is the ear filled with hearing. [Prov 27:20]

⁹That which has been is that which will be [again],
And that which has been done is that which will be done again.

So there is nothing new under the sun.

¹⁰Is there anything of which it can be said,
“See this, it is new”?
It has already existed for [the vast] ages [of time recorded or unrecorded]
Which were before us.

¹¹There is no remembrance of earlier things,
Nor also of the later things that are to come;
There will be for them no remembrance
By generations who will come after them.

¹²I, the Preacher, have been king over Israel in Jerusalem.

¹³And I set my mind to seek and explore by [man’s] wisdom all [human activity] that has been done under heaven. It is a miserable business and a burdensome task which God has given the sons of men with which to be busy and distressed.

¹⁴I have seen all the works which have been done under the sun, and behold, all is vanity, a futile grasping and chasing after the wind.

¹⁵What is crooked cannot be straightened and what is defective and lacking cannot be counted.

16I spoke with my heart, saying, “Behold, I have acquired great [human] wisdom and experience, more than all who were over Jerusalem before me; and my mind has observed a wealth of [moral] wisdom and [scientific] knowledge.”

POWERPOINT

These words are from the wisest man in the world, who had access to and searched out every earthly pursuit that so many of us run after. Solomon said that trying to find fulfillment in anything in this world is like chasing after the wind or trying to grasp it in our hands (see Eccl. 1:14). No matter how hard we try, it always evades us and leaves us unfulfilled and bitter. Let's stop chasing after the things of this world and start going after the things of God.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Talk Yourself into Something Good

Solomon reached the point where he actually uttered the sad words: “I hated life” (Eccl. 2:17). I think each time we say we “hate” something, it makes it that much harder to do it with joy the next time.

Though “I hate” is a commonly used phrase, it is a good phrase to eliminate from your vocabulary. Instead, start thinking and saying by faith that you enjoy those things you find challenging. Start thinking it and saying it, and soon you will find them to be more enjoyable.

We all have situations we don't like that come our way. By the grace of God, we can go through and even learn valuable lessons from them or gain strength because of them. The Holy Spirit is always willing to lead and guide us. He often prompts us to think about or do things that will relieve the stress that comes with what we don't enjoy doing.

We can talk ourselves into things and out of things. You can talk yourself into despising something you need to do, or you can choose a good attitude and speak good words about it and make it a lot more pleasant. When you encounter an undesirable task or situation, use your words to talk yourself into something good.

¹⁷And I set my mind to know [practical] wisdom and to discern [the character of] madness and folly [in which men seem to find satisfaction]; I realized that this too is a futile grasping and chasing after the wind. [1 Thess 5:21]

¹⁸For in much [human] wisdom there is much displeasure and exasperation; increasing knowledge increases sorrow.

2 I SAID to myself, “Come now, I will test you with pleasure and gratification; so enjoy yourself and have a good time.” But behold, this too was vanity (futility, meaninglessness). [Luke 12:19, 20]

²I said of laughter, “It is madness,” and of pleasure, “What does it accomplish?”

³I explored with my mind how to gratify myself with wine while [at the same time] having my mind remain steady and guide me wisely; and how to take control of foolishness, until I could see what was good for the sons of men to do under heaven all the days of their lives.

⁴I made great works: I built houses for myself; I planted vineyards for myself;

⁵I made gardens and orchards for myself and I planted in them all kinds of fruit trees;

⁶I made pools of water for myself from which to water the forest and make the trees bud.

⁷I bought male and female slaves and had slaves born in my house. I also possessed herds and flocks larger than any who preceded me in Jerusalem.

⁸Also, I collected for myself silver and gold and the treasure of kings and provinces. I provided for myself male singers and female singers, and the delights and pleasures of men—many concubines. [1 Kin 9:28; 10:10, 14, 21]

⁹So I became great and excelled more than all who preceded me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also remained with me.

¹⁰Whatever my eyes looked at with desire I did not refuse them. I did not withhold from my heart any pleasure, for my heart was pleased because of all my labor; and this was my reward for all my labor.

¹¹Then I considered all which my hands had done and labored to do, and behold, all was vanity and chasing after the wind and there was no profit (nothing of lasting value) under the sun. [Matt 16:26]

¹²So I turned to consider [secular] wisdom, madness, and folly; for what will the man do who succeeds the king? Nothing except what has already been done.

¹³Then I saw that [even secular] wisdom [that brings sorrow] is better than [the pleasures of] folly and self-indulgence as light excels darkness.

¹⁴The wise man's eyes are in his head, but the fool walks in darkness; and yet I know that [in the end] one fate happens to them both. [Prov 17:24]

¹⁵Then I said to myself, "As it happens to the fool, so death will also happen to me. What use is it then for me to be extremely wise?" Then I said in my heart, "This too is vanity (meaningless)."

¹⁶For there is no [more] lasting remembrance of the wise man than of the fool, since in the days to come all will be long forgotten. And how does the wise man die? Even as the fool!

¹⁷So I hated life, for the work which had been done under the sun caused me only great sorrow; because all is futility and chasing after the wind.

¹⁸So I hated all the fruit (gain) of my labor for which I had labored under the sun, because I must leave it to the man who will succeed me. [Ps 49:10]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, I am thankful that there is a season (a time appointed) for everything and a time for every purpose under heaven... A time to weep and a time to laugh; a time to mourn and a time to dance. A time to throw away stones and a time to gather stones; a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing. A time to search and a time to give up as lost; a time to keep and a time to throw away.

• adapted from Ecclesiastes 3:1, 4–

6

¹⁹And who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have control over all the fruit of my labor for which I have labored by acting wisely under the sun. This too is vanity (futility, self-conceit).

²⁰So I turned aside and let my heart despair over all the fruit of my labor for which I had labored under the sun.

²¹For there is a man who has labored with wisdom and knowledge and skill, yet gives his legacy to one who has not labored for it. This too is vanity and a great evil.

²²For what does a man get from all his labor and from the striving and sorrow of his heart with which he labors under the sun?

²³For all his days his work is painful and sorrowful; even at night his mind does not rest. This too is vanity (worthless).

²⁴There is nothing better for a man than to eat and drink and assure himself that there is good in his labor. Even this, I have seen, is from the hand of God.

²⁵For who can eat and who can have enjoyment without Him?

²⁶For to the person who pleases Him God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner He gives the work of gathering and collecting so that he may give to one who pleases God. This too is vanity and chasing after the wind.

3 THERE IS a season (a time appointed) for everything and a time for every delight and event or purpose under heaven—

² A time to be born and a time to die;

A time to plant and a time to uproot what is planted. [Heb 9:27]

³ A time to kill and a time to heal;

A time to tear down and a time to build up.

⁴ A time to weep and a time to laugh;

A time to mourn and a time to dance.

⁵ A time to throw away stones and a time to gather stones;

A time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing.

⁶ A time to search and a time to give up as lost;

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

A Time for Every Change

Ecclesiastes 3 addresses the fact that things change and that God has a certain timing for the changes in our lives. I believe the enemy offers us two lies concerning issues of timing—the “forever” lie and the “never” lie. When we face negative circumstances, he tries to make us believe they will go on forever; and that things will never change. Both these lies create worry and fear in our heart and a battle in our mind. Both are untrue because, sooner or later, everything in our life will change.

The difficulties we encounter won’t last forever, and even the good things that we enjoy in our lives may not stay the same forever. It is important for us to learn to adapt ourselves to the seasons of change, as they are part of the process of spiritual maturity. Difficulties eventually give way to victory, and good times become better times. Only God never changes. And although everything else does, we don’t have to be afraid of change!

Whatever exists in our lives now, or will exist in the future, will be temporary, because life is a continual process in which nothing stays the same. No matter what we are going through at any given moment, sooner or later it will pass. In the meantime, we can count on God to be with us, to deliver and honor us, to satisfy us with long life and show us His salvation (see Ps. 91:14–16). We will face some trials and tribulations during certain seasons of our life, but as we continue to believe God and place our trust in Him, He will fulfill His promises to us, and those troubled times will give way to better days.

Yes, things are always changing. Sometimes change is exciting, filling us with joy; sometimes change is difficult or painful. Either way, we will make it through the changes of life without worrying or becoming fearful or upset if we keep our eyes on Jesus. Hebrews 13:8 says, “Jesus Christ is [eternally changeless, always] the same yesterday and today and forever.” He never ever changes! In a world filled with change, He is the one constant.

APRAYER FOR VICTORY

Thank You, Lord, that You are in control of the changes and the timing in my life. Help me to stay close to You through every season of change, always relying on Jesus as the one constant in my life. In His name, I pray. Amen.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, God, for making everything beautiful in its time and for planting eternity in my heart—a mysterious longing that only You can satisfy.

• adapted from Ecclesiastes 3:11

A time to keep and a time to throw away.

⁷A time to tear apart and a time to sew together;
A time to keep silent and a time to speak. [Amos 5:13]

⁸A time to love and a time to hate;
A time for war and a time for peace. [Luke 14:26]

⁹What profit is there for the worker from that in which he labors?

¹⁰I have seen the task which God has given to the sons of men with which to occupy themselves.

¹¹He has made everything beautiful and appropriate in its time. He has also planted eternity [a sense of divine purpose] in the human heart [a mysterious longing which nothing under the sun can satisfy, except God]—yet man cannot find out (comprehend, grasp) what God has done (His overall plan) from the beginning to the end.

¹²I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and to do good as long as they live;

¹³and also that every man should eat and drink and see and enjoy the good of all his labor—it is the gift of God.

¹⁴I know that whatever God does, it endures forever; nothing can be added to it nor can anything be taken from it, for God does it so that men will fear and worship Him [with awe-filled reverence, knowing that He is God]. [Ps 19:9; James 1:17]

¹⁵That which is has already been, and that which will be has already been, for God seeks what has passed by [so that history repeats itself].

¹⁶Moreover, I have seen under the sun that in the place of justice there is wickedness, and in the place of righteousness there is wickedness.

¹⁷I said to myself, “God will judge both the righteous and the wicked,” for there is a time [appointed] for every matter and for every deed.

¹⁸I said to myself regarding the sons of men, “God is surely testing them in order for them to see that [by themselves, without God] they are [only] animals.”

¹⁹For the [earthly] fate of the sons of men and the fate of animals is the same. As one dies, so dies the other; indeed, they all have the same breath and there is no preeminence or advantage for man [in and of himself] over an animal, for all is vanity.

²⁰All go to the same place. All came from the dust and all return to the dust.

²¹Who knows if the spirit of man ascends upward and the spirit of the animal descends downward to the earth?

²²So I have seen that there is nothing better than that a man should be happy in his own works and activities, for that is his portion (share). For who will bring him [back] to see what will happen after he is gone?

4 THEN I looked again and considered all the acts of oppression that were being practiced under the sun. And behold I saw the tears of the oppressed and they had no one to comfort them; and on the side of their oppressors was power, but they had no one to comfort them.

POWERPOINT

Staying focused as we go about our lives is very important because one way the enemy wages the battle of the mind is to distract us mentally (see Eccl. 5:1). He wants us to think we are weak because we cannot maintain our focus. But the truth is that we simply need to learn to discipline our minds, not allowing them to think random thoughts or to stop paying attention to the matter at hand. If you struggle to stay focused, ask God to help you and begin today to keep your mind on what you're doing. Forming a new habit takes time, effort, and a lot of help from God; it can be done and will be worth it in the end.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Keep It Simple

I have learned to pray and make my requests to God with as few words as possible (see Eccl. 5:2). If I keep my request very simple and not confuse the issue with too many words, my prayer actually seems more clear and powerful.

We need to spend our energy releasing our faith, not repeating phrases over and over, which only serves only to make the prayer long and involved.

Keeping my prayers short and simple was not easy in the beginning. I had to learn how to pray more effectively. I began to realize that my problem in praying was that I didn't have faith that my prayer would get through if it was only short, simple, and to the point. I had fallen into the same trap that many people do—"the longer the better" mentality. I am not advocating praying for only a short period of time, but I am suggesting that each prayer be simple, direct, to the point, and filled with faith (see Matt. 6:7–8).

In learning this, I have experienced a much greater release of my faith, and I know that God has heard me and will answer.

If your prayers are complicated, let me encourage you to simplify them, believing that God is listening and will answer you.

²So I congratulated and thought more fortunate are those who are already dead than the living who are still living.

³But better off than either of them is the one who has not yet been born, who has not seen the evil deeds that are done under the sun.

⁴I have seen that every [effort in] labor and every skill in work comes from man's rivalry with his neighbor. This too is vanity (futility, false pride) and chasing after the wind.

⁵The fool folds his hands [together] and consumes his own flesh [destroying himself by idleness and apathy].

⁶One hand full of rest and patience is better than two fists full of labor and chasing after the wind.

⁷Then I looked again at vanity under the sun [in one of its peculiar forms].

⁸There was a certain man—without a dependent, having neither a child nor a brother, yet there was no end to all his labor. Indeed, his eyes were not satisfied with riches and he never asked, “For whom do I labor and deprive myself of pleasure?” This too is vanity (a wisp of smoke, self-conceit); yes, it is a painful effort and an unhappy task. [Prov 27:20; 1 John 2:16]

⁹Two are better than one because they have a more satisfying return for their labor;

¹⁰for if either of them falls, the one will lift up his companion. But woe to him who is alone when he falls and does not have another to lift him up.

¹¹Again, if two lie down together, then they keep warm; but how can one be warm alone?

¹²And though one can overpower him who is alone, two can resist him. A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

¹³A poor yet wise youth is better than an old and foolish king who no longer knows how to receive instruction and counsel (friendly reproof, warning)—

¹⁴for the poor youth has [used his wisdom and] come out of prison to become king, even though he was born poor in his kingdom.

¹⁵I have seen all the living under the sun join with the second youth (the king's acknowledged successor) who replaces him.

¹⁶There is no end to all the people; to all who were before them. Yet those who come later will not be happy with him. Surely this also is vanity (emptiness) and chasing after the wind.

5 GUARD YOUR steps and focus on what you are doing as you go to the house of God and draw near to listen rather than to offer the [careless or irreverent] sacrifice of fools; for they are too ignorant to know they are doing evil. [Gen 35:1–4; Ex 3:5]

²Do not be hasty with your mouth [speaking careless words or vows] or impulsive in thought to bring up a matter before God. For God is in heaven and you are on earth; therefore let your words be few.

³For the dream comes through much effort, and the voice of the fool through many words.

⁴When you make a vow or a pledge to God, do not put off paying it; for God takes no pleasure in fools [who thoughtlessly mock Him]. Pay what you vow. [Ps 50:14; 66:13, 14; 76:11]

⁵It is better that you should not vow than that you should vow and not pay. [Prov 20:25; Acts 5:4]

⁶Do not allow your speech to cause you to sin, and do not say before the messenger (priest) of God that it was a mistake. Why should God be angry because of your voice (words) and destroy the work of your hands? [Mal 2:7]

⁷For in a multitude of dreams and in a flood of words there is worthlessness. Rather [reverently] fear God [and worship Him with awe-filled respect, knowing who He is].

⁸If you see the oppression of the poor and the denial of justice and righteousness in the province, do not be shocked at the sight [of corruption]; for a higher official watches over another official, and there are higher ones over them [looking out for one another].

⁹After all, a king who cultivates the field is an advantage to the land.

¹⁰He who loves money will not be satisfied with money, nor he who loves abundance with its gain. This too is vanity (emptiness).

¹¹When good things increase, those who consume them increase. So what advantage is there to their owners except to see them with their eyes?

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Pursue Your Dream

Ecclesiastes 5:3 says that “the dream comes through much effort.” In other words, when you have a dream, it won’t just materialize someday. It will happen because you pray about it and you work toward it. I wonder, what is your dream? What is it that you are most passionate about? What is the thing you get excited about when you simply think about it? Starting a nonprofit? Volunteering in your community? Earning a degree? Building a company? Raising a family?

Many times the dreams in your heart are so strong because God is the One Who put them there. Whatever your dream is, submit it to God, ask for His direction, and if you feel peace about it, take steps to make it happen.

Following God’s plan for your life is not about sitting back and waiting for Him to bring it to pass supernaturally; it’s about being courageous and stepping into what He has called you to do.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Don't Just Endure, Enjoy!

In Ecclesiastes 5:18, King Solomon, who is considered to have been very wise, said a person is to “find enjoyment in all the labor in which he labors under the sun” (see also Eccl. 2:24). That sounds as if enjoying our work is something we can choose to do on purpose. We can learn to enjoy all of life, even things others might consider ordinary, laborious, or unexciting.

Many people have the mentality of just trying to “endure” large portions of their lives, but I believe it is tragic to live and not enjoy every moment. I admit some things are more emotionally pleasant than others, but we can learn to enjoy God’s presence in everything we do. Try repeating internally throughout the day to yourself: God is with me, and the moment I have right now is a gift from Him.

¹²The sleep of a working man is sweet, whether he eats little or much; but the full stomach (greed) of the rich [who hungers for even more] will not let him sleep.

¹³There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun: riches being kept and hoarded by their owner to his own misery.

¹⁴For when those riches are lost in bad investments and he becomes the father of a son, then there is nothing in his hand

[for the support of the child].

¹⁵As he came naked from his mother's womb, so he will return as he came; and he will take away nothing from all his labor that he can carry in his hand. [Job 1:21; 1 Tim 6:7]

¹⁶This also is a grievous evil—exactly as he was born, so he shall die. So what advantage has he who labors for the wind? [1 Tim 6:6]

¹⁷All of his life he also eats in darkness [cheerlessly, without sweetness and light], with great frustration, sickness, and anger.

¹⁸Behold, here is what I have seen to be good and fitting: to eat and drink, and to find enjoyment in all the labor in which he labors under the sun during the few days of his life which God gives him—for this is his [allotted] reward. [1 Tim 6:17]

¹⁹Also, every man to whom God has given riches and possessions, He has also given the power and ability to enjoy them and to receive [this as] his [allotted] portion and to rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God [to him].

²⁰For he will not often consider the [troubled] days of his life, because God keeps him occupied and focused on the joy of his heart [and the tranquility of God indwells him].

6 THERE IS an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it weighs heavily on men:

²a man to whom God has given riches and wealth and honor, so that he lacks nothing of all that he desires, yet God has not given him the power or capacity to enjoy them [all those things which are gifts from God], but a stranger [in whom he has no interest succeeds him and] enjoys them. This is vanity and it is a [cause of] great distress. [Luke 12:20]

³If a man fathers a hundred children and lives many years, however many they may be, but his soul is not satisfied with good things and he is not respected and is not given a proper burial [he is not laid to rest in the sepulcher of his fathers], then I say, “Better the miscarriage than he, [Job 3:16]

⁴for the miscarriage comes in futility (in vain) and passes into obscurity; and its name is covered in obscurity.

⁵“It has not seen the sun nor had any knowledge; yet it has more rest and is better off than he.

⁶“Even if the other man lives a thousand years twice over and yet has seen no good and experienced no enjoyment—do not both go to one place [the grave]?”

⁷All the labor of man is for his mouth [for self-preservation and enjoyment], and yet the desire [of his soul] is not satisfied. [Prov 16:26]

⁸For what advantage has the wise man over the fool [for being worldly-wise is not the secret to happiness]? What advantage has the poor man who has learned how to walk [publicly] among the living [with men’s eyes on him; for being poor is not the secret to happiness either]?

⁹What the eyes see [enjoying what is available] is better than [craving] what the soul desires. This too is futility and chasing after the wind.

¹⁰Whatever exists has already been named [long ago], and it is known what [a frail being] man is; for he cannot dispute with Him who is mightier than he.

¹¹For there are many other words that increase futility.

What then is the advantage for a man?

¹²For who [limited by human wisdom] knows what is good for man during his lifetime, during the few days of his futile life? He spends them like a shadow [staying busy, but achieving nothing of lasting value]. For who can tell a man what will happen after him [to his work, his treasure, his plans] under the sun [after his life is over]?

1 A GOOD name is better than precious perfume,

And the day of one's death better than the day of one's birth.

²It is better to go to the house of mourning

Than to go to the house of feasting,

For that [day of death] is the end of every man,

And the living will take it to heart and solemnly ponder its meaning.

Speak God's Word

I will not be eager in my heart to be angry, for anger dwells in the heart of fools.

| adapted from ECCLESIASTES
7:9 |

- ³Sorrow is better than laughter,
For when a face is sad (deep in thought) the heart may be happy [because it is growing in wisdom]. [2 Cor 7:10]
- ⁴The heart of the wise [learns when it] is in the house of mourning,
But the heart of fools is [senseless] in the house of pleasure.
- ⁵It is better to listen to the rebuke of the wise man and pursue wisdom
Than for one to listen to the song of fools and pursue stupidity.
- ⁶For like the crackling of [burning] thorn bushes under a pot,
So is the laughter of the fool;
And this too is vanity (futility).
- ⁷For oppression makes a wise man foolish,
And a bribe corrupts the [good judgment of the] heart.

- ⁸The end of a matter is better than its beginning;
Patience of spirit is better than haughtiness of spirit (pride).
- ⁹Do not be eager in your heart to be angry,
For anger dwells in the heart of fools. [James 1:19, 20]
- ¹⁰Do not say, “Why were the old days better than these?”
For it is not from wisdom that you ask about this.
- ¹¹Wisdom along with an inheritance is good
And an [excellent] advantage for those who see the sun.
- ¹²For wisdom is a protection even as money is a protection,
But the [excellent] advantage of knowledge is that wisdom shields and preserves the lives of its possessors.
- ¹³Consider the work of God:
Who can make straight what He has bent?
- ¹⁴In the day of prosperity be joyful,
But in the day of adversity consider that God has made the one as well as the other,
So that man will not find out anything that will be after him.
- ¹⁵I have seen everything during my [fleeting] days of futility; there is a righteous man who perishes in [spite of] his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who lives a long life in [spite of] his wickedness.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, help me to always take hold of what I should take hold of, and let go of what I should let go of.

• adapted from Ecclesiastes 7:18

¹⁶Do not be excessively righteous [like those given to self-conceit], and do not be overly wise (pretentious)—why should you bring yourself to ruin?

¹⁷Do not be excessively or willfully wicked and do not be a fool. Why should you die before your time?

¹⁸It is good that you take hold of one thing (righteousness) and also not let go of the other (wisdom); for the one who fears and worships God [with awe-filled reverence] will come forth with both of them.

¹⁹Wisdom strengthens the wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city. [Ps 127:1; 2 Tim 3:15]

²⁰Indeed, there is not a righteous man on earth who always does good and who never sins. [Is 53:6; Rom 3:23]

²¹Also, do not take seriously everything that is said, so that you will not hear your servant cursing you, ²²for you also know that you too have cursed others many times.

²³I have tested all this with wisdom. I said, “I will be wise [independently of God],” but true wisdom was far from me.

²⁴Whatever has been is far off, deeply remote and exceedingly mysterious. Who can discover it [for it is beyond the grasp of man]? [Job 28:12–28; 1 Cor 2:9–16]

²⁵I turned around and directed my heart to know, to investigate and to seek [skillful and godly] wisdom and the reason for things, and to know that wickedness is folly and that foolishness is madness [leading to stupidity and recklessness].

²⁶And I discovered that [of all irrational sins none has been so destructive in beguiling one away from God as immoral women for] more bitter than death is the woman whose heart is [composed of] snares and nets, and whose hands are chains. Whoever pleases God will escape from her, but the sinner will be taken captive by her [evil].

²⁷“Behold, I have discovered this,” says the Preacher, “while adding one thing to another to find an explanation,

²⁸which I am still seeking but have not found. I have found one man among a thousand [who pleases God], but I have not found [such] a woman among all these [a thousand in my harem]. [1 Kin 11:3]

²⁹“Behold, I have found only this [as a reason]: God made man upright and uncorrupted, but they [both men and women] have sought out many devices [for evil].”

8 WHO IS like the wise man?

And who knows the interpretation of a matter?

A man’s wisdom illumines his face,

And causes his stern face to beam.

²I counsel you to keep the command of the king because of the oath before God [by which you swore loyalty to him]. [2 Sam 21:7]

³Do not be in a hurry to get out of his presence. Do not join in a malevolent matter, for the king will do whatever he pleases.

⁴For the word of a king is authoritative and powerful,
And who will say to him, “What are you doing?”

⁵Whoever keeps and observes a royal command will experience neither trouble nor misery;
For a wise heart will know the proper time and [appropriate] procedure.

⁶For there is a proper time and [appropriate] procedure for every delight,
Though mankind’s misery and trouble lies heavily upon him [who rebels against the king].

⁷For no one knows what will happen;
So who can tell him how and when it will happen?

⁸There is no man who has power and authority over the wind to restrain the wind,
Nor does he have authority over the day of death;
There is no discharge [from service] during time of war,
And evil will not rescue those who [actively seek to] practice it.

⁹All this I have seen while applying my mind to every deed that is done under the sun. There is a time in which one man has exercised power over others to their detriment.

¹⁰So then, I have seen the wicked buried, those who used to go in and out of the holy place [but did not thereby escape their doom], and they are [praised in spite of their evil and] soon forgotten in the city where they did such things. This too is futility (vanity, emptiness).

¹¹Because the sentence against an evil act is not executed quickly, the hearts of the sons of men are fully set to do evil.

¹²Though a sinner does evil a hundred times and his life [seemingly] is prolonged [in spite of his wickedness], still I know that it will be well with those who [reverently] fear God, who fear and worship Him openly [realizing His omnipresence and His power]. [Ps 37:11, 18, 19; Is 3:10, 11; Matt 25:34]

¹³But it will not be well for the evil man, nor will he lengthen his days like a shadow, because he does not fear God. [Matt 25:41]

¹⁴There is a meaningless and futile thing which is done on the earth: that is, there are righteous men whose gain is as though they were evil, and evil men whose gain is as though they were righteous. I say that this too is futility (meaningless, vain).

¹⁵Then I commended pleasure and enjoyment, because a man [without God] has no better thing under the sun than to eat and to drink and to be merry, for this will stand by him in his toil through the days of his life which God has given him under the sun.

¹⁶When I applied my mind to know wisdom and to see the activities [of mankind] that take place upon the earth—how some men seem to sleep neither day nor night—

¹⁷and I saw all the work of God, I concluded that man cannot discover the work that is done under the sun. Even though man may labor in seeking, he will not discover; and [more than that], though a wise man thinks and claims he knows, he will not be able to find it out. [Deut 29:29; Rom 11:33]

9 FOR I have taken all this to heart, exploring and examining it all, how the righteous (those in right standing with God) and the wise and their deeds are in the hands of God. No man knows whether it will be love or hatred; anything awaits him.

²It is the same for all. There is one fate for the righteous and for the wicked; for the good, for the clean and for the unclean; for the man who offers sacrifices and for the one who does not sacrifice. As the good man is, so is the sinner; as he who swears an oath is, so is he who is afraid to swear an oath.

³This evil is in all that is done under the sun, that one fate comes to all. Also, the hearts of the sons of men are full of evil, and madness is in their hearts while they live, and afterwards they go to the dead.

⁴[There is no exemption,] but whoever is joined with all the living, has hope; surely a live dog is better than a dead lion.

⁵For the living know that they will die; but the dead know nothing, and they no longer have a reward [here], for the memory of them is forgotten.

⁶Indeed their love, their hatred and their zeal have already perished, and they will no longer have a share [in this age] in anything that is done under the sun.

⁷Go your way, eat your bread with joy and drink your wine with a cheerful heart [if you are righteous, wise, and in the hands of God]; for God has already approved and accepted your works.

POWERPOINT

King Solomon encourages us in Ecclesiastes 9:10 to do whatever we do with all our might. In other words, we are to give all our mental focus and physical energy to it. Let me encourage you to be determined to give yourself and your mind completely to what you are doing at the present time. No matter where your body is, you are where your mind is. For example, if a person is sitting in church, but her mind is on the grocery list, she won't hear or remember much about the church service. Doing everything "with all your might" results in being able to focus on each moment of the present and to better enjoy your life.

⁸Let your clothes always be white [with purity], and do not let the oil [of gladness] be lacking on your head.

⁹Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your fleeting life which He has given you under the sun—all the days of vanity and futility. For this is your reward in life and in your work in which you have labored under the sun.

¹⁰Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might; for there is no activity or planning or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead) where you are going.

¹¹I again saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift and the battle is not to the strong, and neither is bread to the wise nor riches to those of intelligence and understanding nor favor to men of ability; but time and chance overtake them all. [Ps 33:16–19; Rom 9:16]

¹²For man also does not know his time [of death]; like fish caught in a treacherous net, and birds caught in the snare, so the sons of men are ensnared in an evil time when a dark cloud suddenly falls on them.

¹³This [illustration of] wisdom I have also seen under the sun, and great it was to me:

¹⁴There was a little city with few men in it and a great king came against it and besieged it and built great battlements against it.

¹⁵But there was found in it a poor wise man, and by his wisdom he rescued the city. Yet no man [seriously] remembered that poor man.

¹⁶But I say that wisdom is better than strength, though the poor man's wisdom is despised and his words are not heeded.

¹⁷The words of wise men heard in quietness are better than the shouting of one who rules among fools.

¹⁸Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner destroys much good.

10 DEAD FLIES make the oil of the perfumer give off a foul odor; so a little foolishness [in one who is esteemed] outweighs wisdom and honor.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Help me, Lord, to stay composed and calm, no matter who loses their temper around me. According to Your Word, I believe that calmness and composure prevent great offenses.

• adapted from Ecclesiastes 10:4

²A wise man's heart turns him toward the right [which is the way of blessing], but a fool's heart turns him toward the left [which is the way of condemnation]. [Matt 25:31–41]

³Even when a fool walks along the road, his [common] sense and good judgment fail him and he demonstrates to everyone that he is a fool.

⁴If the temper of the ruler rises against you, do not leave your post [showing resistance], because composure and calmness prevent great offenses.

⁵There is an evil I have seen under the sun, like an error which proceeds from the ruler—

⁶folly is set in many exalted places and in great dignity while the rich sit in humble places.

⁷I have seen slaves riding on horses and princes walking like slaves on the ground.

⁸He who digs a pit [for others] may fall into it, and a serpent may bite him who breaks through a [stone] wall. [Ps 57:6]

⁹He who quarries stones may be hurt with them, and he who splits logs may be endangered by them. [Prov 26:27]

¹⁰If the axe is dull and he does not sharpen its edge, then he must exert more strength; but wisdom [to sharpen the axe] helps him succeed [with less effort].

¹¹If the serpent bites before being charmed, then there is no profit for the charmer.

¹²The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious and win him favor, but the lips of a fool consume him;

¹³the beginning of his talking is foolishness and the end of his talk is wicked madness.

¹⁴Yet the fool multiplies words, though no man knows what will happen, and who can tell him what will come after he is gone?

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Timing Is Everything

Timing truly is everything. In 1984, I began Joyce Meyer Ministries. I labored faithfully and did what I believed God wanted me to do. I had a sense that God had bigger things for me, but for nine years, nothing “bigger” happened.

In 1993, the opportunity came to take Joyce Meyer Ministries into television. That was exciting—and frightening. Had I given in to old ways of negative thinking, I would never have moved forward. As Dave and I prayed, God let me know clearly that He was the One who was opening the door. We sensed that if we didn’t take the opportunity at that time, it would not pass our way again. That same day Dave and I said yes to the Lord and began making plans toward the goal of teaching God’s Word on television.

Even though we were obedient, we still faced obstacles. For several days, all kinds of voices hit my mind as if to taunt me and say, You’re going to fall flat on your face. God enabled me to not listen to them—as powerful as they were. I believed we had heard from God, and I was going to do what He told me to do, regardless of the results.

I share this story for two reasons. First, Solomon says, “He who watches the wind [waiting for all conditions to be perfect] will not sow [seed], and he who looks at the clouds will not reap [a harvest]” (Eccl. 11:4). If we wait for perfect conditions, we’ll always find reasons not to obey God. In fact, sometimes when we say yes to God, the enemy tries to attack with logic, to make us change our minds, to arouse doubt and confusion, to make us wonder, Did God really call me?

The second reason involves timing. When God says “Now!” that’s exactly what He means. God told the people of Israel to go into the Promised Land, but they refused (see Num. 14:39–43). The next morning, they decided to go into the land even though God said it was too late. It was no longer the right time. Despite a clear warning, they went anyway and were struck down in battle.

God does show us what He wants us to do, and He does not say, “Do it when you’re ready.” Part of listening to the guidance of the Holy Spirit is acting when God wants us to act. The timing is everything, because His timing is perfect.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

God, it’s so easy to miss Your will by not saying yes at the right time. Through Jesus Christ, I ask You to help me so that I’ll be quick to hear Your voice and just as quick to obey. Amen.

¹⁵The labor of a fool so wearies him [because he is ignorant] that he does not even know how to go to a city.

¹⁶Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child and when your [incompetent] officials and princes feast in the morning.

¹⁷Blessed [prosperous and admired] are you, O land, when your king is a man of noble birth, and your princes and officials feast at the proper time—for strength and not for drunkenness. [Is 32:8]

¹⁸Through laziness the rafters [of state affairs] decay and the roof sags, and through idleness [the roof of] the house leaks.

¹⁹*The officials* make a feast for enjoyment [instead of repairing what is broken], and serve wine to make life merry, and money is the answer to everything.

²⁰Moreover, do not curse the king, even in your bedroom, and in your sleeping rooms do not curse the rich, for a bird of the air will carry the sound and a winged creature will make the matter known. [Ex 22:28]

11 CAST YOUR bread on the surface of the waters, [be diligently active, make thoughtful decisions], for you will find it after many days.

²Give a portion to seven, or even [divide it] to eight, for you do not know what misfortune may occur on the earth.

³If the clouds are full [of rain], they empty themselves on the earth; and if a tree falls toward the south or toward the north, in the place where the tree falls, there it lies.

⁴He who watches the wind [waiting for all conditions to be perfect] will not sow [seed], and he who looks at the clouds will not reap [a harvest].

⁵Just as you do not know the way and path of the wind or how the bones are formed in the womb of a pregnant woman, even so you do not know the activity of God who makes all things.

⁶Sow your seed in the morning and do not be idle with your hands in the evening, for you do not know whether morning or evening planting will succeed, whether this or that, or whether both alike will be good.

⁷The light is sweet and pleasant, and it is good for the eyes to see the sun.

⁸Yes, if a man should live many years, let him rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness, for they will be many. All that is to come will be futility.

⁹Rejoice, young man, in your childhood, and let your heart be pleasant in the days of your young manhood. And walk in the ways of your heart and in the desires of your eyes, but know that God will bring you into judgment for all these things.

¹⁰Therefore, remove sorrow and anger from your heart and put away pain from your body, for childhood and the prime of life are fleeting. [2 Cor 7:1; 2 Tim 2:22]

12 REMEMBER [thoughtfully] also your Creator in the days of your youth [for you are not your own, but His], before the evil days come or the years draw near when you will say [of physical pleasures], “I have no enjoyment and delight in them”; [2 Sam 19:35]

²before the sun and the light, and the moon and the stars are darkened [by impaired vision], and the clouds [of depression] return after the rain [of tears];

³in the day when the keepers of the house (hands, arms) tremble, and the strong men (feet, knees) bow themselves, and the grinders (molar teeth) cease because they are few, and those (eyes) who look through the windows grow dim;

⁴when the doors (lips) are shut in the streets and the sound of the grinding [of the teeth] is low, and one rises at the sound of a bird and the crowing of a rooster, and all the daughters of music (voice, ears) sing softly.

⁵Furthermore, they are afraid of a high place and of dangers on the road; the almond tree (hair) blossoms [white], and the grasshopper (a little thing) is a burden, and the caperberry (desire, appetite) fails. For man goes to his eternal home and the mourners go about the streets and market places. [Job 17:13]

⁶*Earnestly remember your Creator* before the silver cord [of life] is broken, or the golden bowl is crushed, or the pitcher at the fountain is shattered and the wheel at the cistern is crushed;

⁷then the dust [out of which God made man's body] will return to the earth as it was, and the spirit will return to God who gave it.

⁸“Vanity of vanities,” says the Preacher. “All [that is done without God's guidance] is vanity (futility).” [Eccl 1:2; Rom 8:20]

⁹Furthermore, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; and he pondered and searched out and arranged many proverbs.

¹⁰The Preacher sought to find delightful words, even to write correctly words of truth.

¹¹The words of the wise are like [prodding] goads, and these collected sayings are [firmly fixed in the mind] like well-driven nails; they are given by one Shepherd. [Ezek 37:24]

¹²But beyond this my son, [about going further than the words given by one Shepherd], be warned: the writing of many books is endless [so do not believe everything you read], and excessive study and devotion to books is wearying to the body.

¹³When all has been heard, the end of the matter is: fear God [worship Him with awe-filled reverence, knowing that He is almighty God] and keep His commandments, for this applies to every person.

POWERPOINT

Solomon spent his lifetime trying everything the world had to offer, and his final conclusion was that the only thing that mattered and that made any sense at all was God. What he learned from all his searching and experimenting was that the best way to find lasting enjoyment is to fear God and obey Him. I encourage you to learn from Solomon and make reverently fearing the Lord and obeying Him as your highest purpose and goal in life.

¹⁴For God will bring every act to judgment, every hidden and secret thing, whether it is good or evil. [Matt 12:36; Acts 17:30, 31; Rom 2:16; 1 Cor 4:5]

Song of Solomon

There are several different interpretations of Song of Solomon, ranging from one that says the book is entirely about the physical relationship between a man and woman to one that says the book is pure allegory, describing God's feelings toward Israel. For our purposes in this Bible, let me simply say that any relationship, whether it's an intimate relationship with a spouse or a relationship with the Lord, needs to include healthy thoughts and positive words toward your friends, husband or wife, other family members, coworkers, and God.

The lovers in Song of Solomon think often of each other, always in affirming ways, and they communicate their thoughts through words of appreciation and praise. Today, we may not connect with the language they use or their descriptions of the love they feel for each other, but the point is that they think and say beautiful and meaningful things about each other and the love they share.

In all your relationships, think and speak the best of the other persons, and use your thoughts and words to let them know how much they mean to you.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM SONG OF SOLOMON:

As God draws you, run after Him with all your heart (see Song of Solomon 1:4).

It's not usually the big things in life that cause us to veer off course and perhaps end up in trouble; it's a series of smaller, seemingly minor decisions or insignificant actions and little things (see Song of Solomon 2:15).

When we truly love someone, we can overlook their flaws and focus on the best in them (see Song of Solomon 4:7).

When you are a Christian, you belong to God and God belongs to you (see Song of Solomon 6:3).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM SONG OF SOLOMON:

My beloved speaks and says to me, “Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away. For behold, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone. The flowers appear on the earth once again; the time for singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.” | Song of Solomon 2:10–12

Put me like a seal on your heart, like a seal on your arm; for love is as strong as death, jealousy is as severe and cruel as Sheol (the place of the dead). | Song of Solomon 8:6

THE SONG OF SOLOMON

1 THE SONG of Songs [the best of songs], which is Solomon's. [1 Kin 4:32]

(The Shulammitte Bride)

2“May he kiss me with the kisses of his mouth!” [Solomon arrives, she turns to him, saying,]

“For your love is better than wine.

3“The aroma of your oils is fragrant and pleasing; Your name is perfume poured out;

Therefore the maidens love you.

4“Draw me away with you and let us run together!

Let the king bring me into his chambers.”

(The Chorus)

“We will rejoice and be glad in you; We will remember and extol your love more [sweet and fragrant] than wine.

Rightly do they love you.”

(The Shulammitte Bride)

5“I am deeply tanned but lovely, O daughters of Jerusalem, [I am dark] like the tents of [the Bedouins of] Kedar, Like the [beautiful] curtains of Solomon.

6“Do not gaze at me because I am deeply tanned, [I have worked in] the sun; it has left its mark on me.

My mother’s sons were angry with me;

They made me keeper of the vineyards,

But my own vineyard (my complexion) I have not kept.”

7“Tell me, O you whom my soul loves, Where do you pasture your flock,

Where do you make it lie down at noon?

For why should I be like one who is veiled

Beside the flocks of your companions?” [Ps 23:1, 2]

(The Bridegroom)

8“If you do not know [where your lover is], O you fairest among women,

Run along, follow the tracks of the flock,

And pasture your young goats

By the tents of the shepherds.

9“To me, my love, you are like My [favorite] mare among the chariots of Pharaoh.

10“Your cheeks are lovely with ornaments, Your neck with strings of jewels.”

(The Chorus)

11“We will make for you chains and ornaments of gold, [Studded] with beads of silver.”

(The Shulammite Bride)

12“While the king was at his table, My perfume (Solomon) sent forth [his] fragrance [surrounding me].

13“My beloved is to me like a pouch of myrrh Which lies all night between my breasts.

14“My beloved is to me a cluster of henna flowers In the [fragrant] vineyards of Engedi.”

(The Bridegroom)

15“Behold, how beautiful you are, my darling, Behold, how beautiful you are!

Your eyes are dove’s eyes.”

(The Shulammite Bride)

16“Behold, how fair and handsome you are, my beloved; And so delightful!

Our arbor is green and luxuriant.

17“The beams of our houses are cedars, Our rafters and panels are cypresses.

2 “I AM the rose [of the plain] of Sharon, The lily of the valleys [that grows in deep places].”

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Spring Follows Winter Positive thinking is much easier when life is going smoothly, but we can and should learn to also think positively when we go through difficult times. Knowing we can have joy in adversity is a powerful principle that helps us to live above the clouds. The sun is always shining somewhere above the storm clouds of life, and if we can see it by faith, we won't cave in to discouragement and depressed thinking.

It is more difficult to think and speak positively during the “winters” of our lives. Winter is merely a time when things are not going well—perhaps a financial difficulty, relationship problems, illness, or some other difficulty. No one goes through life without experiencing a winter season from time to time. The good news is that difficult times don’t last forever (see Ps. 30:5). When we find ourselves in the middle of a challenging season, we can start hoping and expecting things to change because spring always follows winter.

Song of Solomon 2:11–12 encourages us to look for springtime during winter, saying, “For behold, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone. The flowers appear on the earth once again; the time for singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.”

Have you ever noticed that being upset or downtrodden about problems never changes them? A bad attitude is like a flat tire. If you don’t change it, you won’t go anywhere. Being worried and upset is like sitting in a rocking chair all day and rocking back and forth. It keeps you busy and eventually wears you out, but it gets you nowhere.

It is very important that we each learn how to have the victory in the midst of our problems. God’s Word teaches us that we are more than conquerors in the midst of our trials and tribulations (see Rom. 8:37). When I am in the midst of difficulty, I often turn to Romans 8:35–39, and I remind myself that no matter how difficult life is, God loves me. We can always be assured of victory. We may go through very difficult times, but God is always with us, and following the principles He has given us in His Word will bring us through to happier days every time.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord God, You have made the seasons of my life just as surely as You have made the seasons of the earth. Help me to remember that spring follows winter, and that the challenges I am facing today will pass. Thank You that victory is always on the way. In Jesus' name. Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Little Things Can Become Big Things

Little disappointments can create frustration, which in turn may lead to bigger problems that can produce a great deal of damage.

Besides the huge disappointment that occurs when we fail to get the job or promotion or house we wanted, we can become just as upset and frustrated by a minor annoyance. For example, suppose someone is scheduled to meet you for lunch and fails to show up, or suppose you dash to the mall to buy a certain sale item, but it is all sold out.

These kinds of frustration are actually minor, but they can add up to cause a lot of frustration and anxiety, which is why we need to learn how to handle them and keep them in perspective. Otherwise, they can get out of hand and be blown out of proportion.

We are to be on our guard against the little foxes that destroy the vineyard, because all together they can do just as much damage as the serious disappointments we face in life (see Song 2:15).

We must learn to do as Paul did in the book of Acts when the serpent attached itself to his hand—he simply shook it off (see Acts 28:1–5)! If we practice dealing quickly with disappointments as they come, they will not pile up to become a mountain of devastation.

Victory is not the absence of problems; it is the presence of God's power enabling us to choose a good and right response.

(The Bridegroom)

2“Like the lily among the thorns, So are you, my darling, among the maidens.”

(The Shulammite Bride)

3“Like an apple tree [rare and welcome] among the trees of the forest, So is my beloved among the young men!
In his shade I took great delight and sat down,
And his fruit was sweet and delicious to my palate.

4“He has brought me to his banqueting place, And his banner over me is love [waving overhead to protect and comfort me].

5“Sustain me with raisin cakes,
Refresh me with apples,
Because I am sick with love.

6“Let his left hand be under my head And his right hand embrace me.” [Deut 33:27; Matt 28:20]

(The Bridegroom)

7“I command that you take an oath, O daughters of Jerusalem, By the gazelles or by the does of the field [which run free], That you do not rouse nor awaken my love
Until she pleases.”

(The Shulammite Bride)

- 8“Listen! My beloved!
Behold, he comes,
Climbing on the mountains,
Leaping and running on the hills! [John 10:27]
- 9“My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag.
Behold, he is standing behind our wall,
He is looking through the windows,
He is gazing through the lattice.
- 10“My beloved speaks and says to me, ‘Arise, my love, my fair one,
And come away.
- 11‘For behold, the winter is past,
The rain is over and gone.
- 12‘The flowers appear on the earth once again; The time for singing has come,
And the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.
- 13‘The fig tree has budded and ripens her figs, And the vines are in blossom and give forth their fragrance.
Arise, my love, my fair one,
And come away [to climb the rocky steps of the hillside].”

(The Bridegroom)

- 14“O my dove, [here] in the clefts in the rock, In the sheltered and secret place of the steep pathway, Let me see your face,
Let me hear your voice;
For your voice is sweet,
And your face is lovely.”

(The Chorus)

- 15“Catch the foxes for us, The little foxes that spoil and ruin the vineyards [of love], While our vineyards are in blossom.”

(The Shulammite Bride)

- 16“My beloved is mine and I am his; He pastures his flock among the lilies. [Matt 10:32; Acts 4:12]
- 17“Until the cool of the day when the shadows flee away, Return quickly, my beloved, and be like a gazelle Or a young stag on the mountains of Bether [which separate us].”

(The Shulammite Bride)

- 3 “ON MY bed night after night [I dreamed that] I sought the one Whom my soul loves;
I sought him but did not find him. [Is 26:9]
- 2“I said ‘So I must arise now and go out into the city; Into the streets and into the squares [places I do not know] I must seek him whom my soul loves.’
I sought him but I did not find him.
- 3“The watchmen who go around the city found me, And I said, ‘Have you seen him whom my soul loves?’
- 4“Scarcely had I passed them
When I found him whom my soul loves.
I held on to him and would not let him go
Until I had brought him to my mother’s house,

And into the chamber of her who conceived me.” [Rom 8:35;
1 Pet 2:25]

(The Bridegroom)

5“ I command that you take an oath, O daughters of
Jerusalem, By the gazelles or by the does of the field,
That you do not rouse nor awaken my love
Until she pleases.”

(The Shulammitte Bride)

6“ What is this coming up from the wilderness Like [stately] pillars of smoke
Perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
With all the fragrant powders of the merchant?”

(The Chorus)

7“ Behold, it is the couch (palanquin) of Solomon; Sixty mighty men around it,
Of the mighty men of Israel.

8“ All of them handle the sword,
All expert in war;
Each man has his sword at his thigh,
Guarding against the terrors of the night.

9“ King Solomon has made for himself a palanquin From the [cedar] wood of Lebanon.

10“ He made its posts of silver,
Its back of gold,
Its seat of purple cloth,
The interior lovingly and intricately wrought By the daughters of Jerusalem.

11“Go forth, O daughters of Zion, And gaze on King Solomon wearing the crown
With which his mother [Bathsheba] has crowned him On the day of his wedding,
On the day of his gladness of heart.”

(The Bridegroom)

4 “HOW FAIR and beautiful you are, my darling, How very beautiful!

Your eyes behind your veil are like those of a dove; Your hair is like [the shimmering black fleece of] a flock of [Arabian] goats That have descended from Mount Gilead
[beyond the Jordan].

2“Your teeth are like a flock of newly shorn ewes Which have come up from washing,
All of which bear twins,
And not one among them has lost her young.

3“Your lips are like a ribbon of scarlet, And your mouth is lovely.
Your temples are like a slice of the pomegranate Behind your veil.

4“Your neck is like the tower of David, Built with rows of [glistening] stones,
Whereon hang a thousand shields,
All of them shields of warriors.

5“Your two breasts are like two fawns, Twins of a gazelle
Which feed among the lilies.

6“Until the day breaks
And the shadows flee away,
[In my thoughts] I will go my way to the mountain of myrrh
And to the hill of frankincense.

7“O my love, you are altogether beautiful and fair.
There is no flaw nor blemish in you! [John 14:18; Eph 5:27]

8“Come away with me from Lebanon, my [promised] bride,
May you come with me from Lebanon.
Journey down from the top of Amana,
From the summit of Senir and Hermon,
From the dens of lions,
From the mountains of leopards. [2 Cor 11:2, 3]

9“You have ravished my heart and given me courage, my sister, my [promised] bride;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Sees No Flaw in You

The man in Song of Solomon 4:7 is so in love with his bride that he sees “no flaw” in her. We know that no one is perfect, but love does enable us to overlook people’s faults.

Song of Solomon is an allegory of the love story between God and His people. The love the man has for his bride reflects the kind of love God has for us. God loves you and sees the good in you. He sees what you are becoming and what you will be. He is not overly concerned about your faults; He knew them all when He invited you to be in an intimate relationship with Him. All He wants is your love and your willingness to grow in Him.

Your presence is a present to the world. You are unique and one of a kind. Do not ever forget, even for a day, how very special you are and how much God loves you.

You have ravished my heart and given me courage with a single glance of your eyes, With one jewel of your necklace.

¹⁰“How beautiful is your love, my sister, my [promised] bride!
How much better is your love than wine,
And the fragrance of your oils
Than all kinds of balsam and spices. [John 15:9; Rom 8:35]

¹¹“Your lips, my [promised] bride, drip honey [as the honeycomb]; Honey and milk are under your tongue,

And the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon.

12“ A garden enclosed is my sister, my [promised] bride— A rock garden locked, a spring sealed up.

13“Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates, [A paradise] with precious fruits, henna with fragrant plants, [John 15:5; Eph 5:9]

14Fragrant plants and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, With all trees of frankincense, Myrrh and aloes, along with all the finest spices.

15“You are a fountain in a garden, A well of fresh and living water,

And streams flowing from Lebanon.” [John 4:10; 7:37, 38]

(The Shulammite Bride)

16“Awake, O north wind,

And come, south wind [blow softly upon my garden]; Make my garden breathe out fragrance, [for the one in whom my soul delights], Let its spices flow forth.

Let my beloved come into his garden

And eat its choicest fruits.”

(The Bridegroom)

5 “I HAVE come into my garden, my sister, my [promised] bride; I have gathered my myrrh along with my balsam and spice [from your sweet words].

I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;

I have drunk my wine with my milk.

Eat, friends;
Drink and drink deeply, O lovers.” [John 16:33]

(The Shulammite Bride)

- ²“I was asleep, but my heart was awake.
A voice [in my dream]! My beloved was knocking:
‘Open to me, my sister, my darling,
My dove, my perfect one!
For my head is drenched with the [heavy night] dew; My hair [is covered] with the dampness of the night.’ [Job 11:13–15]
- ³“I had taken off my dress,
How can I put it on again?
I had washed my feet,
How could I get them dirty again? [Is 32:9; Heb 3:15]
- ⁴“My beloved extended his hand through the opening [of the door], And my feelings were aroused for him.
- ⁵“I arose to open for my beloved;
And my hands dripped with myrrh,
And my fingers with liquid [sweet-scented] myrrh, On the handles of the bolt.
- ⁶“I opened for my beloved,
But my beloved had turned away and was gone.
My heart went out to him when he spoke.
I searched for him, but I could not find him;
I called him, but he did not answer me.
- ⁷“The watchmen who make the rounds in the city found me.
They struck me, they wounded me;

The guardsmen of the walls took my shawl from me.
8“I command that you take an oath, O daughters of Jerusalem, If you find my beloved,
As to what you tell him—
[Say that] I am sick from love [sick from being without him].” [Ps 63:1]

(The Chorus)

9“What is your beloved more than another beloved, O most beautiful among women?
What is your beloved more than another beloved,
That you should so command us to take an oath?” [John 10:26]

(The Shulammite Bride)

- 10“My beloved is exquisitely handsome and ruddy,
Outstanding among ten thousand. [Ps 45:2; John 1:14]
- 11“His head is like [precious] gold, pure gold; His hair is [curly] like clusters of dates And black as a raven.
- 12“His eyes are like doves
Beside streams of water,
Bathed in milk
And reposed in their setting.
- 13“His cheeks are like a bed of balsam, Banks of sweet, fragrant herbs.
His lips are lilies
Dripping sweet-scented myrrh.
- 14“His hands are rods of gold
Set with beryl;

His abdomen is a figure of carved ivory
Inlaid with sapphires.

¹⁵“His legs are [strong and steady] pillars of alabaster Set upon pedestals of fine gold.

His appearance is like Lebanon,
Stately and choice as the cedars.

¹⁶“His mouth is full of sweetness; Yes, he is altogether lovely and desirable.

This is my beloved and this is my friend,
O daughters of Jerusalem.” [Ps 92:15; Col 1:15]

(The Chorus)

6 “WHERE HAS your beloved gone, O most beautiful among women?

Where is your beloved hiding himself,
That we may seek him with you?”

(The Shulammitte Bride)

²“My beloved has gone down to his garden, To the beds of balsam,

To feed his flock in the gardens
And gather lilies.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I know, Lord, that I am Your beloved. Thank You that I am Yours and You are mine.

*• adapted from Song of Solomon
6:3*

3“I am my beloved’s and my beloved is mine, He who feeds his flock among the lilies.”

(The Bridegroom)

4“You are as beautiful as Tirzah, my darling, As lovely as Jerusalem,

As majestic as an army with banners!

5“Turn your [flashing] eyes away from me, For they have confused and overcome me; Your hair is like [the shimmering black fleece of] a flock of [Arabian] goats That have descended from Mount Gilead.

6“Your teeth are like a flock of ewes Which have come up from their washing,

All of which bear twins,

And not one among them has lost her young.

7“Your temples are like a slice of the pomegranate Behind your veil.

8“There are sixty queens and eighty concubines, And maidens without number;

⁹But my dove, my perfect one, stands alone [above them all];

She is her mother's only daughter;

She is the pure child of the one who bore her.

The maidens saw her and called her blessed and happy, The queens and the concubines also, and they praised her, saying, [Col 2:8, 9]

¹⁰“Who is this that looks down like the dawn, Fair and beautiful as the full moon,

Clear and pure as the sun,

As majestic as an army with banners?”

¹¹“I went down to the orchard of nut trees To see the flowers of the valley,

To see whether the grapevine had budded

And the pomegranates were in flower.

¹²“Before I was aware [of what was happening], my desire had brought me Into the area of the princes of my people [the king's retinue].”

(The Chorus)

¹³“Return, return, O Shulammite; Return, return, that we may gaze at you.”

(The Bridegroom)

“Why should you gaze at the Shulammite, As at the dance of the two armies?

1 “HOW BEAUTIFUL are your feet in sandals, O prince's daughter!

The curves of your hips are like jewels,
The work of the hands of an artist.

2“Your navel is a round goblet
Which never lacks mixed wine.
Your belly is like a heap of wheat
Surrounded with lilies.

3“Your two breasts are like two fawns, The twins of a gazelle.

4“Your neck is like a tower of ivory, Your eyes the [sparkling] pools of Heshbon
By the gate of Bath-rabbim.
Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon
Which looks toward Damascus.

5“Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel, And the flowing hair of your head like purple threads; I, the king, am held captive by your tresses.

6“How beautiful and how delightful you are, My love, with all your delights!

7“Your stature is like that of a palm tree And your breasts like its clusters [of dates].

8“I said, ‘I will climb the palm tree; I will grasp its branches.
Let your breasts be like clusters of the grapevine, And the fragrance of your breath like apples,

9‘And your kisses like the best wine!’”

(The Shulammite Bride)

“It goes down smoothly and sweetly for my beloved,
Gliding gently over his lips while he sleeps.

POWERPOINT

In Song of Solomon 7:13 and throughout the Song of Solomon, the couple shares a oneness—spiritual, emotional, and physical—that can be found in no other relationship. Marriage is such an intimate joining together of two separate entities that they become one. The sexual relationship is to be holy, fun, and wholesome. Being single-hearted toward a person's spouse brings great fulfillment for both partners.

- 10“I am my beloved's, And his desire is for me. [John 10:28]
- 11“Come, my beloved, let us go out into the country, Let us spend the night in the villages. [Luke 14:33]
- 12“Let us go out early to the vineyards; Let us see whether the vine has budded

*And its blossoms have opened,
And whether the pomegranates have flowered.
There I will give you my love.*

¹³“The mandrakes give forth fragrance, And over our doors are all [kinds of] choice fruits,
Both new and old,
Which I have saved up for you, my beloved.

8 “OH, THAT you were like a brother to me, Who nursed at the breasts of my mother.

If I found you out of doors, I would kiss you;
No one would blame me or despise me, either. [Ps 143:6]

²“I would lead you and bring you
Into the house of my mother, who used to instruct me; I would give you spiced wine to drink from the juice of my pomegranates.

embrace me.” [Ex 19:4; Deut 33:27]

(The Bridegroom)

⁴“I command you to take an oath, O daughters of Jerusalem,
That you do not rouse nor awaken my love
Until she pleases.”

(The Chorus)

⁵“Who is this coming up from the wilderness Leaning upon her beloved?”

(The Shulammitte Bride)

“Under the apple tree I awakened you [to my love]; There your mother was in labor with you,
There she was in labor and gave you birth.

6“Put me like a seal on your heart,
Like a seal on your arm;
For love is as strong as death, Jealousy is as severe and cruel as Sheol (the place of the dead).
Its flashes are flashes of fire,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

A Key to Happiness

Song of Solomon 8:6 says “jealousy is as severe and cruel as Sheol (the place of the dead).” It is a very powerful negative emotion. Envy and jealousy make us want what other people have and cause us to strive after things that God will give us in His timing, if it is His will for us have them. A jealous and envious heart in no way blesses God. When we are jealous of others, that negativity poisons our attitude toward them, affects our relationship with them, puts negative thoughts in our minds, and can make us miserable.

We need to be happy with what God has given us and trust Him that if we are supposed to enjoy more, He will give it to us when He knows we are able to handle it. Contentment honors God and proves that we trust Him.

At times you may feel that the devil is somehow preventing you from being blessed. Look at it this way. If you are doing what God wants you to do, and your heart is right before Him, no person on earth or devil in hell can keep you from having what God wants you to have. Keep trusting God and in due season you will reap a harvest (see Gal. 6:9).

Sometimes, blaming everything on the devil is just an excuse to not grow up and develop godly character. If we think the enemy is keeping things from us instead of recognizing that God may be withholding things from us for a season and for a reason, we will not be in the right frame of mind to allow God to do the work He wants to do on the inside of us. Instead of focusing on the works of the enemy, we need to keep our eyes focused on God and let Him take the lead in our lives.

God has a tailor-made, personalized plan for each of us. The key to happiness and fulfillment is trusting God to perform His good plan in our lives until we see results, to be content with who we are, what we have, and what God is doing at the present time.

Speak God's Word

Nothing can stop God's love for me. Many waters cannot quench it, nor can many rivers drown it. His love for me never fails!

| adapted from SONG OF
SOLOMON 8:7 |

[A most vehement flame] the very flame of the LORD! [Deut 4:24; Is 49:16; 1 Cor 10:22]

⁷“Many waters cannot quench love,
Nor can rivers drown it.
If a man would offer all the riches of his house for love, It would be utterly scorned and despised.”

(The Chorus)

⁸“We have a little sister And she has no breasts.
What shall we do for our sister
On the day when she is spoken for [in marriage]?

⁹“If she is a wall (discreet, womanly), We will build on her a turret (dowry) of silver; But if she is a door (bold, flirtatious),
We will enclose her with planks of cedar.”

(The Shulammite Bride)

- 10“I was a wall, and my breasts were like the towers.
Then I became in the king’s eyes
As one [to be respected and allowed] to find peace.
- 11“Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; He entrusted the vineyard to caretakers;
Each one was to bring him a thousand shekels of silver for its fruit.
- 12“My very own vineyard is at my disposal; The thousand [shekels of silver] are for you, O Solomon, And two hundred are for those who tend the fruit.”

(The Bridegroom)

- 13“O you who sit in the gardens, My companions are listening for your voice— Let me hear it.”

(The Shulammite Bride)

- 14“Hurry, my beloved and come quickly, Like a gazelle or a young stag [taking me home]
On the mountains of spices.”

The book of Isaiah is full of verses that will help you renew your mind according to God's Word. If you need to know that God loves and cares for you and that He will forgive, redeem, heal, and restore you, you will find those promises in Isaiah. If you need to remember how much hope, peace, comfort, justice, and freedom from fear God offers you, it's in Isaiah. If you want to read prophetic scriptures about Jesus, Isaiah has written them. If you need confidence that God is guiding you, it's also in Isaiah.

The best way to a victorious life is to fill your mind with the Word of God. I encourage you to study and meditate on the many scriptures in Isaiah that show you how God thinks and feels about you.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM ISAIAH:

God is always willing to completely forgive sin and wash us clean. If we are willing and obedient to Him, good things will come to us (see Isaiah 1:18–19).

Always remember that Jesus is your Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, and Prince of Peace (see Isaiah 9:6).

God is longing to be gracious and compassionate to you (see Isaiah 30:18).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM ISAIAH:

You will keep in perfect and constant peace the one whose mind is steadfast [that is, committed and focused on You—in both inclination and character], because he trusts and takes refuge in You [with hope and confident expectation]. | Isaiah 26:3

But those who wait for the LORD [who expect, look for, and hope in Him] will gain new strength and renew their power; they will lift up their wings [and rise up close to God] like eagles [rising toward the sun]; they will run and not become weary, they will walk and not grow tired. | Isaiah 40:31

Do not fear [anything], for I am with you; do not be afraid, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, be assured I will help you; I will certainly take hold of you with My righteous right hand [a hand of justice, of power, of victory, of salvation]. | Isaiah 41:10

ISAIAH

1 THE VISION of [the prophet] Isaiah the son of Amoz concerning [the kingdom of] Judah and [its capital] Jerusalem, which he saw [as revealed by God] during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

²Hear, O heavens, and listen, O earth;
For the LORD has spoken:
“I have reared and brought up sons,
But they have rebelled against Me and have broken away.

³“The ox [instinctively] knows its owner,
And the donkey its master’s feeding trough,
But Israel does not know [Me as LORD],
My people do not understand.”

⁴Ah, sinful nation,
A people loaded down with wickedness [with sin, with injustice, with wrongdoing],
Offspring of evildoers,
Sons who behave corruptly!
They have abandoned (rejected) the LORD,
They have despised the Holy One of Israel [provoking Him to anger],

They have turned away from Him.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Obedience from the Heart

It is possible to be obedient in behavior and not be obedient with the heart, which is what Isaiah 1:11 is talking about. Obedience is not just a matter of putting on a show or trying to do the right things, but a matter of having the right attitude of heart.

I want to encourage you to come up higher in your obedience to God, and to make sure your heart is right. Check your motives and do what you do to glorify God and because you love Him. Be quick to obey with all meekness. Don't be the type of person God has to deal with for weeks and weeks to get you to do even the simplest little thing. Just do it. Ask God for an open heart to hear and understand His Word and then obey Him wholeheartedly!

We should be obedient to God whether we feel like it or not, and we're better off when we do it with a good and steadfast attitude. Our lifestyle of obedience to God will ultimately always be rewarded. Higher levels of obedience always produce higher levels of blessing. God is the Rewarder of those who diligently seek Him (see Heb. 11:6). We cannot out give God; it is impossible.

No matter how he persists, the enemy will not succeed when he encounters the obedient heart of a believer in God's Word.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

No Need To Feel Guilty

One of the tactics of the enemy is to try to make us feel guilty about something when we really should not feel guilty about it at all. This is called “false guilt.” One thing that stirs up false guilt is thinking too much about the past. That kind of thinking can eventually become a stronghold in our mind—an area where the enemy digs in and establishes himself. Tearing down a stronghold is much more difficult than forming the habit of saying no to wrong thoughts each time they present themselves.

We need to stop thinking about our past failures if we want to defeat guilt and shame. We must stop focusing on sins that have been forgiven and dealt with, and begin to praise God, thanking Him for His grace. When Satan attacks you with false guilt over something in your past that God has already forgiven, Isaiah 1:18 is a great scripture to remember and speak aloud. Focus on and confess that even though your sins were once as scarlet, they are now white as snow. Because of what Jesus has done for you, you are fully forgiven and there is no longer any need to feel guilty.

⁵Why should you be stricken and punished again [since no change results from it]?

You [only] continue to rebel.

The whole head is sick
And the whole heart is faint and sick.

⁶From the sole of the foot even to the head
There is nothing healthy in the nation's body,
Only bruises, welts, and raw wounds,
Not pressed out or bandaged,
Nor softened with oil [as a remedy].

⁷Your land lies desolate [because of your disobedience],
Your cities are burned with fire,
Your fields—strangers are devouring them in your very
presence;
It is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

⁸The Daughter of Zion (Jerusalem) is left like a [deserted] shelter in a vineyard,
Like a watchman's hut in a cucumber field, like a besieged city [isolated, surrounded by devastation].

⁹If the LORD of hosts
Had not left us a few survivors,
We would be like Sodom,
We would be like Gomorrah. [Gen 19:24, 25; Rom 9:29]

¹⁰Hear the word of the LORD [rulers of Jerusalem], You rulers of [another] Sodom,
Listen to the law and instruction of our God,
You people of [another] Gomorrah.

¹¹“What are your multiplied sacrifices to Me [without your repentance]?”
Says the LORD.

“I have had enough of [your] burnt offerings of rams
And the fat of well-fed cattle [without your obedience];
And I take no pleasure in the blood of bulls or lambs or goats [offered without repentance].

12“When you come to appear before Me,
Who requires this of you, this trampling of My [temple] courts [by your sinful feet]?

13“Do not bring worthless offerings again,
[Your] incense is repulsive to Me;
[Your] New Moon and Sabbath [observances], the calling of assemblies—

I cannot endure wickedness [your sin, your injustice, your wrongdoing] and [the squalor of] the festive assembly.

14“I hate [the hypocrisy of] your New Moon festivals and your appointed feasts.

They have become a burden to Me;
I am weary of bearing them.

15“So when you spread out your hands [in prayer, pleading for My help],

I will hide My eyes from you;
Yes, even though you offer many prayers,
I will not be listening.
Your hands are full of blood!

16“Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean;
Get your evil deeds out of My sight.
Stop doing evil,

17Learn to do good.

Seek justice,
Rebuke the ruthless,
Defend the fatherless,
Plead for the [rights of the] widow [in court].

18“Come now, and let us reason together,”

Says the LORD.

“Though your sins are like scarlet,
They shall be as white as snow;
Though they are red like crimson,
They shall be like wool.

19“If you are willing and obedient,
You shall eat the best of the land;

20But if you refuse and rebel,
You shall be devoured by the sword.”
For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

21How the faithful city has become a prostitute [idolatrous, despicable],

She who was full of justice!
Right standing with God once lodged in her,
But now murderers.

22Your silver has turned to lead,
Your wine is diluted with water.

23Your rulers are rebels
And companions of thieves;
Everyone loves bribes
And chases after gifts.
They do not defend the fatherless,

Nor does the widow's cause come before them [instead they delay or turn a deaf ear].

²⁴Therefore the Lord GOD of hosts,
The Mighty One of Israel, declares:

“Ah, I will be freed of My adversaries
And avenge Myself on My enemies.

²⁵“And I will turn My hand against you,
And will [thoroughly] purge away your dross as with lye
And remove all your tin (impurity).

²⁶“Then I will restore your judges as at the first,
And your counselors as at the beginning;
Afterward you will be called the city of righteousness,
The faithful city.”

²⁷Zion will be redeemed with justice
And her repentant ones with righteousness.

²⁸But rebels and sinners will be crushed and destroyed
together,
And those who abandon (turn away from) the LORD will be consumed (perish).

²⁹For you will be ashamed [of the degradation] of the oaks in which you took [idolatrous] pleasure, And you will be ashamed of the gardens [of passion] which you have chosen [for pagan worship].

³⁰For you will be like an oak whose leaf withers and dies
And like a garden that has no water.

³¹The strong man will become tinder,

And his work a spark.
So both will burn together
And there will be none to quench them.

2 THE WORD [from God] which Isaiah son of Amoz saw [in a vision] concerning [the nation of] Judah and [its capital city] Jerusalem.

²Now it will come to pass that
In the last days
The mountain of the house of the LORD
Will be [firmly] established as the highest of the mountains,
And will be exalted above the hills;
And all the nations will stream to it.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, help me to continually look to You. Teach me Your ways, that I may walk in Your paths.

- ³ And many peoples shall come and say,
“Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
To the house (temple) of the God of Jacob;
That He may teach us His ways
And that we may walk in His paths.”
For the law will go out from Zion
And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
- ⁴ And He will judge between the nations,
And will mediate [disputes] for many peoples;
And they will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation will not lift up the sword against nation,
And never again will they learn war. [Mic 4:1–3]
- ⁵ O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the LORD.
- ⁶ Most certainly [LORD] You have abandoned your people, the house of Jacob, Because they are filled with influences from the east,
And they are soothsayers [who foretell] like the Philistines;
Also they strike bargains with the children of foreigners
(pagans). [Deut 18:9–12]
- ⁷ Their land has also been filled with silver and gold
And there is no end to their treasures;
Their land has also been filled with horses
And there is no end to their chariots. [Deut 17:14–17]
- ⁸ Their land has also been filled with idols;

They worship the work of their hands,
That which their own fingers have made.

⁹So the common man has been humbled [before idols]
And the man of importance has been degraded,
Therefore do not forgive them [O LORD].

¹⁰Go among the rocks and hide in the dust
From the terror of the LORD and from the splendor of His majesty.

¹¹The proud look of man will be degraded
And the arrogance of men will be humbled,
And the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.

¹²For the LORD of hosts will have a day of reckoning
Against all who are proud and arrogant
And against all who are lifted up,
That they may be degraded. [Zeph 2:3; Mal 4:1]

¹³And the wrath of God will be against all the cedars of Lebanon [west of the Jordan] that are high and lifted up, Against all the oaks of Bashan [east of the Jordan],

¹⁴Against all the high mountains,
Against all the hills that are lifted up,

¹⁵Against every high tower,
Against every fortified wall,

¹⁶Against all the ships of Tarshish
And against all the beautiful craft.

¹⁷Then the pride of man will be humbled
And the arrogance of men will be degraded;
The LORD alone shall be exalted in that day,

- ¹⁸And the idols will completely vanish (be abolished).
- ¹⁹They [the stricken, deprived of all in which they had trusted] will go into the caves of the rocks And into the holes of the ground [fleeing]
From the terror and dread of the LORD
And from the splendor of His majesty,
When He arises to terrify the earth. [Luke 23:30]
- ²⁰In that day men will throw away to the moles and to the bats
Their idols of silver and their idols of gold,
Which they made for themselves [as objects] to worship,
- ²¹To go into the caverns of the rocks and into the clefts of the [ragged] cliffs [as they flee]
From the terror and dread of the LORD and the splendor of His majesty, When He arises to terrify the earth.
- ²²Stop regarding man, whose breath [of life] is in his nostrils [for so little time];
For why should he be esteemed?

3 LISTEN CAREFULLY, the Lord GOD of hosts is removing from Jerusalem and from Judah Both supply and support, the whole supply of bread

And the whole supply of water;

- ²The brave man and the warrior [He is also removing],
The judge and the prophet,
The diviner and the elder,

- ³The captain of fifty and the man of honor,

The counselor and the expert artisan,
And the skillful enchanter.

⁴And I will make mere boys their princes,
And capricious (impulsive, unpredictable) children will rule over them.

⁵And the people will be oppressed,
Each one by another, and each one by his neighbor;
The boy will be arrogant and insolent toward the elder
And the vulgar (common) toward the honorable [person of rank].

⁶When a man takes hold of his brother in the house of his father, saying,

“You have a robe, you shall be our judge and ruler,
And this pile of ruins will be under your control,”

⁷He will protest on that day, saying,

“I will not be a governor;
For in my house there is neither bread nor clothing;
You should not make me a judge and ruler of the people.”

⁸For Jerusalem has stumbled and Judah has fallen,
Because their words and their actions are against the LORD,
To rebel against His glorious presence and defiantly provoke Him.

⁹Their partiality testifies against them,

They display their sin like Sodom;
They do not even hide it.

Woe (judgment is coming) to them!

For they have brought evil on themselves [as a reward].

¹⁰Say to the righteous that it will go well with them,

For they will eat the fruit of their [righteous] actions.

¹¹Woe (judgment is coming) to the wicked! It shall go badly
with him,

For what his hand has done shall be done to him.

¹²O My people! Children are their oppressors,
And women rule over them.

O My people! Your leaders lead you astray
And confuse (destroy, swallow up) the direction of your paths.

¹³The LORD rises to contend,
And stands to judge the people.

¹⁴The LORD enters into judgment with the elders of His people and their princes, “For it is you who have devoured the vineyard [with your oppression, you have robbed the people and ruined the country]; The plunder of the poor is in your houses.

¹⁵“What do you mean by crushing My people
And grinding the face of the poor?”
Declares the Lord GOD of hosts.

¹⁶Moreover, the LORD said, “Because the daughters of Zion are proud And walk with outstretched necks and seductive (flirtatious, alluring) eyes,
And trip along with mincing steps and an affected gait
And walk with jingling anklets on their feet,

¹⁷Therefore the Lord will afflict the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion with scabs [making them bald], And the LORD will expose their foreheads (send them into captivity).”

¹⁸In that day the Lord will take away the beauty of their anklets, [braided] caps, crescent [head] ornaments, ¹⁹dangling earrings, bracelets, and the hanging veils and scarves,

²⁰head wraps (turbans), [short, jingling] ankle chains, sashes, perfume boxes, amulets (charms),

²¹signet [finger] rings, nose rings,

²²festival robes, outer tunics, shawls, handbags,

²³hand mirrors, [fine linen] undergarments, headbands, and veils [covering the entire body].

²⁴Now it will come to pass that instead of the sweet fragrance of spices there will be [the stench of] rottenness; Instead of a belt, a rope;

Instead of well-set hair, baldness;

Instead of fine clothes, a robe of sackcloth;

And branding [of captives by the scorching heat] instead of beauty.

²⁵Your men will fall by the sword

And your mighty men in battle.

²⁶And Jerusalem's gates will lament (cry out in grief) and mourn [as those who wail for the dead]; And she, being ruined and desolate, will sit upon the ground.

4 AND IN that day seven women will take hold of one man, saying, “We will eat our own food and wear [and provide] our own clothes; only let us be called by your name; take away our shame [of being unmarried].”

²In that day the Branch of the LORD will be splendid and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be excellent and lovely to those of Israel who have survived. [Jer 23:5; 33:15; Zech 3:8; 6:12]

³It will come to pass that he who is left in Zion and remains in Jerusalem will be called holy (set apart for God)—everyone who is recorded for [eternal] life in Jerusalem. [Joel 3:17; Phil 4:3]

⁴When the Lord has washed away the [moral] filth of the daughters of Zion and has cleansed the bloodstains of Jerusalem from her midst, by the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of burning, ⁵then the LORD will create over the entire site of Mount Zion and over her assemblies, a cloud by day, smoke, and the brightness of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory and brilliance will be a canopy [a defense, a covering of His divine love and protection].

⁶And there will be a pavilion for shade from the heat by day, and a refuge and a shelter from the storm and the rain.

5 NOW LET me sing for my greatly Beloved [LORD]

A song of my Beloved about His vineyard (His chosen people).

My greatly Beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile slope (the promised land, Canaan). [Song 6:3; Matt 21:33–40]

²He dug it all around and cleared away its stones,
And planted it with the choicest vine (the people of Judah).
And He built a tower in the center of it;
And also hewed out a wine vat in it.

Then He expected it to produce [the choicest] grapes,
But it produced only worthless ones.

³“And now, says the LORD, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, Judge between Me and My vineyard (My people).

⁴“What more could have been done for My vineyard that I have not done in it?
When I expected it to produce good grapes, why did it yield worthless ones?

⁵“So now let me tell you what I am going to do to My vineyard:
I will take away its thorn-hedge, and it will be burned up;
I will break down its stone wall and it will be trampled down [by enemies].

⁶“I will turn it into a wasteland;
It will not be pruned or cultivated,
But briars and thorns will come up.
I will also command the clouds not to rain on it.”

⁷For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house (nation) of Israel And the men of Judah are His delightful planting [which He loves].
So He looked for justice, but in fact, [He saw] bloodshed and lawlessness;
[He looked] for righteousness, but in fact, [He heard] a cry of distress and oppression.

⁸Woe (judgment is coming) to those who join house to house and join field to field [to increase their holdings by depriving others], Until there is no more room [for others],

So that you have to live alone in the midst of the land!

⁹In my ears the LORD of hosts said, “Be assured that many houses will become desolate, Even great and beautiful ones will be unoccupied.

¹⁰“For ten acres of vineyard will yield [only] one bath of wine,
And a homer (six bushels) of seed will produce [only] one ephah of grain.”

¹¹Woe (judgment is coming) to those who rise early in the morning to pursue intoxicating drink,
Who stay up late in the night till wine inflames them!

¹²They have lyre and harp, tambourine and flute, and wine at their feasts;
But they do not regard nor even pay attention to the deeds of the LORD, Nor do they consider the work of His hands.

¹³Therefore My people go into exile because they lack knowledge [of God];
And their honorable men are famished,
And their common people are parched with thirst.

¹⁴Therefore Sheol (the realm of the dead) has increased its appetite and opened its mouth beyond measure; And Jerusalem’s splendor, her multitude, her [boisterous] uproar and her [drunken] revelers descend into it.

¹⁵So the common man will be bowed down and the man of importance degraded,
And the eyes of the proud (arrogant) will be degraded.

- ¹⁶But the LORD of hosts will be exalted in justice,
And God, the Holy One, will show Himself holy in righteousness [through His righteous judgments].
- ¹⁷Then the lambs will graze [among the ruins] as in their own
pasture,
And strangers will eat in the desolate places of the [exiled] wealthy.
- ¹⁸Woe (judgment is coming) to those who drag along wickedness with cords of falsehood, And sin as if with cart ropes [towing their own punishment];
- ¹⁹Who say, “Let Him move speedily, let Him expedite His work [His promised vengeance], so that we may see it; And let the purpose of the Holy One of Israel approach
And come to pass, so that we may know it!”
- ²⁰Woe (judgment is coming) to those who call evil good, and good evil;
Who substitute darkness for light and light for darkness;
Who substitute bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter!
- ²¹Woe (judgment is coming) to those who are wise in their own eyes
And clever and shrewd in their own sight!
- ²²Woe (judgment is coming) to those who are heroes at drinking wine
And men of strength in mixing intoxicating drinks,
- ²³Who justify the wicked and acquit the guilty for a bribe,
And take away the rights of those who are in the right!

²⁴Therefore, as the tongue of fire consumes the stubble [from straw]

And the dry grass collapses into the flame,
So their root will become like rot and their blossom blow away like fine dust;
Because they have rejected the law of the LORD of hosts
And despised and discarded the word of the Holy One of Israel.

²⁵Therefore the anger of the LORD has burned against His people,

And He has stretched out His hand against them and has struck them down.
And the mountains trembled, and their dead bodies lay like rubbish in the middle of the streets.

In spite of all this God's anger is not turned away,
But His hand is still stretched out [in judgment].

²⁶He will lift up a flag to [call] the distant nations [to bring His judgment on Judah], And will whistle for them from the ends of the earth;

And indeed, they will come with great speed swiftly.

²⁷No one among them is weary or stumbles,
No one slumbers or sleeps;
Nor is the belt at their waist undone [as if unprepared for action],
Nor is the strap of their sandal broken.

²⁸Their arrows are sharp and all their bows are strung and bent;

Their horses' hoofs seem like flint and their chariot wheels like a whirlwind.

²⁹Their roaring is like a lioness, they roar like young lions;
They growl and seize their prey
And carry it off and there is no one to save it.

³⁰And in that day they will roar against them (Judah) like the roaring of the sea.
And if one looks to the land, in fact, there is darkness and distress;
Even the light will be darkened by its clouds.

6 IN THE year that King Uzziah died, I saw [in a vision] the Lord sitting on a throne, high and exalted, with the train of His royal robe filling the [most holy part of the] temple. [John 12:41]

²Above Him seraphim (heavenly beings) stood; each one had six wings: with two wings he covered his face, with two wings he covered his feet, and with two wings he flew.

³And one called out to another, saying,

“Holy, Holy, Holy is the LORD of hosts;
The whole earth is filled with His glory.”

⁴And the foundations of the thresholds trembled at the voice of him who called out, and the temple was filling with smoke.

⁵Then I said,

“Woe is me! For I am ruined,
Because I am a man of [ceremonially] unclean lips,
And I live among a people of unclean lips;

For my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.”

⁶Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a burning coal in his hand, which he had taken from the altar with tongs.

⁷He touched my mouth with it and said, “Listen carefully, this has touched your lips; your wickedness [your sin, your injustice, your wrongdoing] is taken away and your sin atoned for and forgiven.”

⁸Then I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us?” Then I said, “Here am I. Send me!”

⁹And He said, “Go, and tell this people:

‘Keep on listening, but do not understand;
Keep on looking, but do not comprehend.’

¹⁰“Make the heart of this people insensitive,
Their ears dull,
And their eyes dim,
Otherwise they might see with their eyes,
Hear with their ears,
Understand with their hearts,
And return and be healed.”

¹¹Then I said, “Lord, how long?” And He answered, “Until cities are devastated and without inhabitant,
And houses are without people
And the land is utterly desolate,

¹²The LORD has removed [His] people far away,
And there are many deserted places in the midst of the land.

¹³“And though a tenth [of the people] remain in the land,

It will again be subject to destruction [consumed and burned],

Like a massive terebinth tree or like an oak

Whose stump remains when it is chopped down.

The holy seed [the elect remnant] is its stump [the substance of Israel].”

1 NOW IT came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin king of Aram (Syria) and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to wage war against it, but they could not conquer it.

²When the house of David (Judah) was told, “Aram is allied with Ephraim (Israel),” the hearts of Ahaz and his people trembled as the trees of the forest tremble in the wind.

³Then the LORD said to Isaiah, “Go out to meet Ahaz [king of Judah], you and your son Shear-jashub, at the end of the aqueduct of the Upper Pool, on the highway to the Fuller’s Field;

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Your Lips Can Be Cleansed

The more we understand the power of our words, the more we will want to grow in speaking positively and using our words for good. We might say we need a cleansing process for our mouths.

We all make mistakes with our words. When we do, we can ask God to forgive us and then keep pressing forward. When Isaiah found himself in the presence of God, one of the first things he realized was that he was a man of unclean lips (see Isa. 6:5). God sent an angel with coals of fire to cleanse Isaiah's mouth, saying, "Listen carefully, this has touched your lips; your wickedness... is taken away and your sin atoned for and forgiven" (Isa. 6:7). We can see from the angel's words, "Listen carefully," that it was very important for Isaiah to know with certainty that he had been forgiven.

Praise God we can be forgiven and have a fresh start. God never runs out of new beginnings, and His mercies are new every morning.

When you first begin trying to speak more positive words, you may be overwhelmed by the mistakes you make. You've probably been making these same mistakes all along, but now you are becoming aware of them because you are learning to choose better words. This is actually good news, because the truth is setting you free. Never feel discouraged when the Holy Spirit convicts you of speaking words you should not say. In fact, you should never feel discouraged when He convicts you of sin in any area of your life, but instead rejoice that you can recognize His conviction, repent, and start again.

The enemy wants us to feel worthless. He often reminds us of things we have said that have been wrong or hurtful to others. He is an expert at recalling words we regret and bringing them to our mind. We need to recognize and resist these attempts to make us feel guilty. Satan is the accuser of the brethren, and when he accuses you, you can respond by saying, “All the words I regret have been forgiven. I am God’s child and He loves me. I may not be perfect, but I am making progress.”

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord God, thank You for providing forgiveness for every unclean, hurtful, negative word I have spoken. Please help me continue to grow in the ability to speak positive, encouraging, life-giving words. In Jesus’ name. Amen.

⁴and say to him, ‘Take care and be calm, do not fear and be weak-hearted because of these two stumps of smoldering logs, on account of the fierce anger of [King] Rezin and Aram and of the son of Remaliah (Pekah, usurper of the throne of Israel).

⁵‘Because Aram, along with Ephraim (Israel) and the son of Remaliah, have planned evil against you (Judah), saying, ⁶“Let us go up against Judah and terrorize it; and let us breach its wall and tear it apart [each of us taking a portion] and set up the son of Tabeel over it as its [puppet] king,” ⁷for this is what the Lord GOD says, “It shall not stand nor shall it happen.

⁸“For the head (capital) of Aram is Damascus and the head of Damascus is [King] Rezin (now within sixty-five years Ephraim will be broken to pieces and will no longer be a people).

⁹“And the head (capital) of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah’s son [King Pekah]. If you will not believe [and trust in God and His message], be assured that you will not be established.””

¹⁰Then the LORD spoke again to [King] Ahaz, saying,

¹¹“Ask a sign for yourself from the LORD your God [one that will convince you that God has spoken and will keep His word]; make your request as deep as Sheol or as high as heaven.”

¹²But Ahaz said, “I will not ask, nor will I test the LORD!”

¹³Then Isaiah said, “Hear then, O house of David! Is it too small a thing for you to try the patience of men, but will you try the patience of my God as well?

¹⁴“Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign: Listen carefully, the virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and she will call his name Immanuel (God with us). [Is 9:6; Jer 31:22; Mic 5:3–5; Matt 1:22, 23]

¹⁵“He will eat curds and honey when he knows enough to refuse evil and choose good.

¹⁶“For before the child will know enough to refuse evil and choose good, the land (Canaan) whose two kings you dread will be deserted [both Ephraim and Aram]. [Is 7:2]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, for sending Your Son, who is Immanuel, God with us. I know that He is always with me.

• adapted from Isaiah 7:14

¹⁷“The LORD will bring on you, on your people, and on your father’s house such days as have not come since the day that Ephraim (the ten northern tribes) separated from Judah— [He will call for] the king of Assyria.”

¹⁸In that day the LORD will whistle for the fly that is in the mouth of the rivers and canals of Egypt and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

¹⁹These [armies, like flies and bees] will all come and settle on the steep and rugged ravines and in the clefts of the rocks, and on all the thorn bushes and in all the watering places.

²⁰In that day [when foreign armies swarm the land] the Lord will shave with a razor, hired from the regions beyond the Euphrates (that is, with the king of Assyria), [that razor will shave] the head and the hair of the legs; and it will also remove the beard [leaving Judah stripped, shamed and scorned]. [2 Kin 16:7, 8; 18:13–16]

²¹Now in that day [because of the poverty caused by the invaders] a man will keep alive only a young milk cow and two sheep; ²²and because of the abundance of milk produced he will eat curds, for everyone that is left in the land will eat [only] curds and [wild] honey.

²³And it will come to pass in that day, in every place where there used to be a thousand vines, worth a thousand silver shekels, there will be briars and thorns.

²⁴People will come there [to hunt] with arrows and with bows because all the land will be briars and thorns.

²⁵As for all the hills which used to be cultivated with the pick and the hoe, you will no longer go there for fear of briars and thorns; but they will become a place where oxen are pastured and where sheep tread.

8 THEN THE LORD said to me, “Take for yourself a large tablet [for public display] and write on it in ordinary characters: *Belonging to Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Look at Life from God's Perspective

Much of the early part of the book of Isaiah is about devastation and troubles that came to various nations, such as the trials mentioned concerning the nation of Judah in Isaiah 7:17–25. Some of those situations were very bad, just as some situations on earth today are bad. I wonder how many times each day someone thinks, The world is a mess!

Each of us has a perspective on life. We see and think about things in specific ways. Some are quick to see problems and magnify them, which makes the problems harder to deal with. Others choose to minimize the impact of difficulty by looking for the beauty, the good in life and in people, which allow them to have joy in the midst of trouble.

When circumstances are bad in any society or anyone's personal life, focusing on them and saying negative things about already negative situations doesn't increase anyone's joy. Jesus taught by word and example to be positive about the problems of life. He said that in the world we will have tribulation but that we should cheer up because He has overcome the world (see John 16:33). Awesome! Keep that in mind when life seems bleak.

When the disciples were frightened in a severe storm as Jesus slept in the boat, they were focused only on the storm. Jesus rebuked them for their lack of faith and asked them why they were upset since He was with them (see Mark 4:36–40). Jesus wanted them to see Him as greater than the storm.

God sees things differently than we often do. We see problems; He sees possibilities. We see messes; He sees miracles. We see endings; He sees new beginnings. We see pain and pressure; He sees spiritual growth.

You might wonder, Doesn't God care about all the horrible problems in the world? Yes, He certainly does, and let me assure you that God does have a good plan, not only for society in general, but also for each of us individually. Hang on to that biblical truth and don't let anything that is going on in the world take it from you. We should think, speak, and behave as if we believe God's promises. Let's learn to see things as God does. Let's learn to have His perspective!

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Loving and caring Father, it is so much easier for me to see problems than it is to see possibilities and miracles. Help me to see more of my life through Your eyes and keep reminding me that You are greater than any trouble in the world and any trouble in my life. Amen.

²“And I will get faithful witnesses to attest [to this prophecy] for me, Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.”

³So I approached [my wife] the prophetess, and she conceived and gave birth to a son. Then the LORD said to me, “Name him Maher-shalal-hash-baz [to remind the people of the prophecy]; ⁴for before the boy knows how to say, ‘My father’ or ‘My mother,’ the riches of Damascus (Aram’s capital) and the spoil of Samaria (Israel’s capital) will be carried away by the king of Assyria.”

⁵Again the LORD spoke to me, saying,

⁶“Because these people (Judah) have refused the gently flowing waters of Shiloah
And rejoice in Rezin [the king of Aram] and Remaliah’s son [Pekah the king of Israel], ⁷Now therefore, listen carefully, the Lord is about to bring on them the waters of the [Euphrates] River, strong and abundant— The king of Assyria and all his glory;

And it will rise over all its channels and canals and go far beyond its banks. [Is 7:17]

⁸“Then it will sweep on into Judah; it will overflow and pass through [the hills],
Reaching even to the neck [of which Jerusalem is the head],
And its outstretched wings (the armies of Assyria) will fill the width of Your land, O Immanuel. [Num 14:9; Ps 46:7]

⁹“Be broken [in pieces], O peoples, and be shattered!

Listen, all you [our enemies from the] far countries.
Prepare yourselves [for war], and be shattered;

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that You are a sanctuary for me, a sacred, indestructible shelter for all those who fear and trust You.

• adapted from Isaiah 8:14

Prepare yourselves [for war], and be shattered.

¹⁰“Take counsel together [against Judah], but it will come to nothing;
Speak the word, but it will not stand,
For God is with us (Immanuel).”

¹¹For in this way the LORD spoke to me with His strong hand [upon me] and instructed me not to walk in the way of this people [behaving as they do], saying, ¹²“You are not to say, ‘It is a conspiracy!’”

In regard to all that this people call a conspiracy,
And you are not to fear what they fear nor be in dread of it.

¹³“It is the LORD of hosts whom you are to regard as holy and awesome.

He shall be your [source of] fear,
He shall be your [source of] dread [not man].

¹⁴“Then He shall be a sanctuary [a sacred, indestructible shelter for those who fear and trust Him]; But to both the houses of Israel [both the northern and southern kingdoms—Israel and Judah, He will be] a stone on which to stumble and a rock on which to trip, A trap and a snare for the inhabitants of Jerusalem. [Is 28:6; Rom 9:33; 1 Pet 2:6–8]

¹⁵“Many [among them] will stumble over them;
Then they will fall and be broken,
They will even be snared and trapped.”

¹⁶Bind up the testimony, seal the law and the teaching among my (Isaiah’s) disciples.

¹⁷And I will wait for the LORD who is hiding His face from the house of Jacob; and I will look eagerly for Him.

¹⁸Listen carefully, I and the children whom the LORD has given me are for signs and wonders [that will occur] in Israel from the LORD of hosts, who dwells on Mount Zion.

¹⁹When the people [instead of trusting God] say to you, “Consult the mediums [who try to talk to the dead] and the soothsayers who chirp and whisper and mutter,” should not a people consult their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living?

²⁰[Direct those people] to the law and to the testimony! If their teachings are not in accord with this word, it is because they have no dawn.

²¹They [who consult mediums and soothsayers] will pass through the land deeply distressed and hungry, and when they are hungry, they will become enraged and will curse their king and their God as they look upward.

²²Then they will look to the earth, they will see only distress and darkness, the gloom of anguish; and they will be driven away into darkness and overwhelming night.

9 BUT THERE will be no more gloom for her who was in anguish [for with judgment comes the promise of salvation]. In earlier times He treated the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali with contempt, but later on He will make them honored [by the presence of the Messiah], by the way of the sea, on the other side of Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles.

²The people who walk in [spiritual] darkness
Will see a great Light;
Those who live in the dark land,
The Light will shine on them. [Is 42:6; Matt 4:15, 16]

³You [O God] will increase the nation,
You will multiply their joy;
They will rejoice before You
Like the joy and jubilation of the harvest,
As men rejoice when they divide the spoil [of victory].

⁴For You will break the yoke of Israel's burden and the staff

(goad) on their shoulders,
The rod of their oppressor, as at the battle of Midian. [Judg
7:8–22]

⁵For every boot of the marching warrior in the battle tumult,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Gives Us Peace

Several years ago, I went to a doctor because I was constantly sick. He told me that my symptoms were the result of being under stress. I was eating improperly, not sleeping enough, and pushing myself harder and harder—all in the name of working for the Lord.

The word stress was originally an engineering term used to refer to the amount of force that a beam or other physical support could bear without collapsing under the strain. In our time, stress has been expanded to include mental and emotional tension.

Stress is a normal part of everyone's life. God has created us to withstand a certain amount of pressure and tension. The problem comes when we push beyond our limitations and head toward doing permanent damage to ourselves.

Peace is meant to be the normal condition for every believer in Jesus Christ. In fact, according to Isaiah 9:6, one of the names of Jesus is the "Prince of Peace," and in Him we find our own inheritance of peace. It is a gift from the Holy Spirit, which He gives as we live in obedience to His Word.

The peace Jesus gives operates in good or bad times, when we are abounding or when we are struggling. His peace operates in the middle of life's storms. Peace comes to every situation when we choose to listen to and obey the Lord.

And [every soldier's] garment rolled in blood, will be used for burning, fuel for the fire.

⁶For to us a Child shall be born, to us a Son shall be given;
And the government shall be upon His shoulder,
And His name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty
God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. [Is 25:1; 40:9–11; Matt
28:18; Luke 2:11]

⁷There shall be no end to the increase of His government and of peace,
[He shall rule] on the throne of David and over his kingdom,
To establish it and to uphold it with justice and
righteousness
From that time forward and forevermore.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will accomplish this. [Dan
2:44; 1 Cor 15:25–28; Heb 1:8]

⁸The Lord sends a word (message) against Jacob,
And it falls on Israel [the ten northern tribes, the kingdom of Ephraim].

⁹And all the people know it,
That is, Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria [its capital],
Who say in pride and arrogance of heart:

¹⁰“The bricks have fallen down,
But we will rebuild [all the better] with ashlar (hewed stones);
The sycamores have been cut down,

But we will replace them with [expensive] cedars.”

¹¹Therefore the LORD raises against Ephraim adversaries from Rezin [king of Aram]

And spurs their enemies on,

¹²The Arameans on the east and the Philistines on the west;
And they devour Israel with gaping jaws.

In spite of all this, God’s anger does not turn away
But His hand is still stretched out [in judgment].

¹³Yet the people do not turn back [in repentance] to Him who struck them,
Nor do they seek the LORD of hosts [as their most essential need].

¹⁴Therefore the LORD cuts off head and tail [the highest and the lowest] from Israel, Both [the high] palm branch and [the low] bulrush in one day.

¹⁵The elderly and honorable man, he is the head;
And the prophet who teaches lies, he is the tail.

¹⁶For those who lead this people are causing them to go astray;
And those who are led [astray] by them are swallowed up.

¹⁷Therefore the Lord does not rejoice over their young men, Nor does He have compassion on their fatherless or their widows;

For every one of them is godless and an evildoer,
And every mouth is speaking foolishness.
In spite of all this, God’s anger does not turn away
But His hand is still stretched out [in judgment].

18For wickedness burns like a fire;

POWERPOINT

Isaiah 9:8–21 clearly illustrates that God can become angry, but it is a righteous anger. When you and I become angry with other people, it usually happens because they did something we did not like or they did not do something we thought they should have done. We also become angry with people when they hurt or offend us. When God gets angry, it is not because of what we are doing to Him; it is because of what we are doing to ourselves by not following His ways. We could even say that His anger is for us and not against us. God's love is everlasting, and even His anger and displeasure are intended to drive us away from sin and back to Him. His anger is for a moment, but His favor (mercy) is for a lifetime (see Ps. 30:5).

It consumes briars and thorns,
It even sets the forest thickets ablaze;
And it swirls upward in a column of smoke.

¹⁹By the wrath of the LORD of hosts the land is burned up,
And the people are like fuel for the fire;
No man spares his brother.

²⁰They slice off [in discord] what is on the right hand but are still hungry,
And they eat what is on the left hand but they are not satisfied;
Each eats the flesh of his own arm.

²¹[The tribe of] Manasseh devours [the tribe of his brother] Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasseh, And together they are against Judah (the southern kingdom, the house of David).

In spite of all this, God's anger does not turn away
But His hand is still stretched out [in judgment].

10 WOE (JUDGMENT is coming) to those [judges] who issue evil statutes, And to those [magistrates] who constantly record unjust and oppressive decisions,

²So as to deprive the needy of justice

And rob the poor of My people of rightful claims,
So that widows may be their spoil
And that they may plunder the fatherless.

³Now what will you do in the day of [God's] punishment,
And in the storm of devastation which will come from far away?

To whom will you flee for help?
And where will you leave your wealth [for safekeeping]?

⁴Nothing remains but to crouch among the captives
Or fall [dead] among the slain [on the battlefield].
In spite of all this, God's anger does not turn away,
But His hand is still stretched out [in judgment].

⁵Woe to Assyria, the rod of My anger [against Israel],
The staff in whose hand is My indignation and fury [against Israel's disobedience]!

⁶I send Assyria against a godless nation
And commission it against the people of My wrath
To take the spoil and to seize the plunder,
And to trample them down like mud in the streets.

⁷Yet it is not Assyria's intention [to do My will],
Nor does it plan so in its heart,
But instead it is its purpose to destroy
And to cut off many nations.

⁸For Assyria says, "Are not my princes all kings?

⁹"Is not Calno [conquered] like Carchemish [on the Euphrates]?
Is not Hamath [subdued] like Arpad [her neighbor]?

Is not Samaria [in Israel] like Damascus [in Aram]?

¹⁰“As my hand has reached to the kingdoms of the idols, Whose carved images were greater and more feared than those of Jerusalem and Samaria,

¹¹Shall I not do to Jerusalem and her images
Just as I have done to Samaria and her idols?” [declares Assyria].

¹²So when the Lord has completed all His work [of judgment] on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, He will say, “I will punish the fruit [the thoughts, the declarations, and the actions] of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria and the haughtiness of his pride.”

¹³For the Assyrian king has said,

“I have done this by the power of my [own] hand and by my wisdom,

For I have understanding and skill.

I have removed the boundaries of the peoples

And have plundered their treasures;

Like a bull I have brought down those who sat on thrones.

¹⁴“My hand has found the wealth of the people like a nest,
And as one gathers eggs that are abandoned, so I have gathered all the earth;

And there was not one that flapped its wing, or that opened its beak and chirped.”

¹⁵Is the axe able to lift itself over the one who chops with it?
Is the saw able to magnify itself over the one who wields it?
That would be like a club moving those who lift it,

Or like a staff raising him who is not [made of] wood [like itself]!

¹⁶Therefore the Lord, the GOD of hosts, will send a wasting disease among the stout warriors of Assyria; And under his glory a fire will be kindled like a burning flame.

¹⁷And the Light of Israel will become a fire and His Holy One a flame,
And it will burn and devour Assyria's thorns and briars in a single day. [2 Kin 19:35–37; Is 31:8, 9; 37:36]

¹⁸The Lord will consume the glory of Assyria's forest and of its fruitful garden, both soul and body, And it will be as when a sick man wastes away.

¹⁹And the remaining trees of Assyria's forest will be so few in number
That a child could write them down.

²⁰Now in that day the remnant of Israel, and those of the house of Jacob who have escaped, will never again rely on the one who struck them, but will truly rely on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

²¹A remnant will return, a remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God.

²²For though your people, O Israel, may be as the sand of the sea,

Only a remnant within them will return;

The destruction is determined [it is decided and destined for completion], overflowing with justice (righteous punishment). [Rom 9:27, 28]

²³For the Lord, the GOD of hosts, will execute a complete destruction, one that is decreed, in the midst of all the land.

²⁴Therefore, the Lord GOD of hosts says this, “O My people who dwell in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrian who strikes you with a rod and lifts up his staff against you, as [the king of] Egypt did. [Ex 5]

²⁵“For yet a very little while and My indignation [against you] will be fulfilled and My anger will be directed toward the destruction of the Assyrian.”

²⁶The LORD of hosts will brandish a whip against them like the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb; and His staff will be over the [Red] Sea and He will lift it up the way He did in [the flight from] Egypt. [Ex 14:26–31; Judg 7:24, 25]

²⁷So it will be in that day, that the burden of the Assyrian will be removed from your shoulders and his yoke from your neck. The yoke will be broken because of the fat. [Deut 32:15]

²⁸The Assyrian has come against Aiath [in Judah],
He has passed through Migron [with his army];
At Michmash he stored his equipment.

²⁹They have gone through the pass, saying,
“Geba will be our lodging place for the night.”
Ramah trembles, and Gibeah [the city] of Saul has fled.

³⁰Cry aloud with your voice [in consternation], O Daughter of Gallim!

Pay attention, Laishah! Answer her, Anathoth!

³¹Madmenah has fled;
The inhabitants of Gebim have fled [with their belongings] to safety.

³²Yet today the Assyrian will halt at Nob [the city of priests];
He shakes his fist at the mountain of the Daughter of Zion,
at the hill of Jerusalem.

³³Listen carefully, the Lord, the GOD of hosts, will lop off the [beautiful] boughs with terrifying force; The tall in stature will be cut down

And the lofty will be abased and humiliated.

³⁴He will cut down the thickets of the forest with an iron axe,
And Lebanon (the Assyrian) will fall by the Mighty One.
[Gen 49:24; Is 9:6]

11 THEN A Shoot (the Messiah) will spring from the stock of Jesse [David's father],

POWERPOINT

God's Spirit Who was upon Jesus and is in us is the "Spirit of wisdom and understanding" (Isa. 11:2). Jesus did not make decisions "by what His eyes see" or "by what His ears hear" (Isa. 11:3). If we follow His example, not relying on our natural senses but listening for the Holy Spirit to lead us in our hearts, we will receive wisdom that we would otherwise not gain in a lifetime. We should not be led by our own mind or emotions, but by the Holy Spirit Who lives in us.

And a Branch from his roots will bear fruit. [Is 4:2; Matt 2:23; Rev 5:5; 22:16]

²And the Spirit of the LORD will rest on Him—

The Spirit of wisdom and understanding,

The Spirit of counsel and strength,

The Spirit of knowledge and of the [reverential and obedient] fear of the LORD—³And He will delight in the fear of the LORD,

And He will not judge by what His eyes see,

Nor make decisions by what His ears hear;

⁴But with righteousness and justice He will judge the poor,
And decide with fairness for the downtrodden of the earth;
And He shall strike the earth with the rod of His mouth,
And with the breath of His lips He shall slay the wicked.

- ⁵ And righteousness will be the belt around His loins,
And faithfulness the belt around His waist.
- ⁶ And the wolf will dwell with the lamb,
And the leopard will lie down with the young goat,
And the calf and the young lion and the fatted steer
together;
And a little child will lead them.
- ⁷ And the cow and the bear will graze [together],
Their young will lie down together,
And the lion shall eat straw like the ox.
- ⁸ And the nursing child will [safely] play over the hole of the cobra,
And the weaned child will put his hand on the viper's den
[and not be hurt].
- ⁹ They will not hurt or destroy in all My holy mountain,
For the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD
As the waters cover the sea.
- ¹⁰ Then in that day
The nations will make supplications to the Root of Jesse
Who will stand as a signal for the peoples;
And His resting place will be glorious. [John 12:32]
- ¹¹ Then it will happen on that day that the Lord
Will again acquire with His hand a second time
The remnant of His people, who will remain,
From Assyria, from [Lower] Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush (Ethiopia), from Elam [in Persia], from Shinar [Babylonia], from Hamath [in Aram], And from the coastlands bordering the [Mediterranean] Sea. [Jer 23:5–8]

¹² And He will lift up a signal for the nations
And assemble the outcasts of Israel,
And will gather the dispersed of Judah
From the four corners of the earth.

¹³ Then the jealousy of Ephraim will depart,
And those who harass Judah will be cut off;
Ephraim will not be jealous of Judah,
And Judah will not harass Ephraim.

¹⁴ Ephraim and Judah will [unite and] swoop down on the slopes of the Philistines toward the west;
Together they will plunder the sons (Arabs) of the east.
They will possess Edom and Moab,
And the sons of Ammon will be subject to them.

¹⁵ And the LORD will utterly destroy
The tongue of the Sea of Egypt;
And with His scorching wind
He will wave His hand over the River;
He will strike and divide it into seven channels
And make [it possible for] people [to] walk over in sandals.

¹⁶ And there will be a highway from Assyria
For the remnant of His people who will be left,
Just as there was for Israel
In the day when they came up out of the land of Egypt.

12 AND ON that day you will say, “I will give thanks to You,

O LORD;

For though You were angry with me,
Your anger has turned away,
And You comfort me.

²“Behold, God, my salvation!

I will trust and not be afraid,
For the LORD GOD is my strength and song;
Yes, He has become my salvation.”

³Therefore with joy you will draw water
From the springs of salvation.

⁴And in that day you will say,

“Give thanks to the LORD, call on His name [in prayer].
Make His deeds known among the peoples [of the earth];
Proclaim [to them] that His name is exalted!”

⁵Sing praises to the LORD, for He has done excellent and glorious things; Let this be known throughout the earth.

⁶Rejoice and shout for joy, O inhabitant of Zion,
For great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.

Speak God's Word

Behold, God, my salvation! I will trust and not be afraid, for the Lord God is my strength and song; yes, He has become my salvation.

| adapted from ISAIAH 12:2 |

13 THE [MOURNFUL, inspired] oracle (a burden to be carried) concerning Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw [in a prophetic vision]: ²Lift up a signal banner on the bare mountain,

Summon them [the Medes and Persians] with a loud voice, Wave the [beckoning] hand so that they may enter the doorways of the [Babylonian] nobles.

³I [the LORD] have commanded My consecrated ones,
I have even called My great warriors,
My proudly exulting ones [the Medes and the Persians who triumph for My honor]—
To execute My anger.

⁴A sound of tumult on the mountains,
Like that of many people!

A sound of the uproar of the kingdoms,
Of nations gathered together!
The LORD of hosts is mustering an army for battle.

⁵They are coming from a distant country,
From the end of heaven [the farthest horizon]—
The LORD and the weapons of His indignation—
To destroy the whole land. [Ps 19:4–6; Is 5:26]

⁶Wail, for the day of the LORD is at hand!
It will come as destruction from the Almighty (All Sufficient
One—Invincible God)! [Gen 17:1]

⁷Therefore all hands will fall limp,
And every man's heart will melt.

⁸They [of Babylon] will be shocked and terrified,
Pains and anguish will grip them;
They will be in pain like a woman in childbirth.
They will stare aghast and horrified at one another,
Their faces aflame [from the effects of the unprecedented warfare].

⁹Listen carefully, the day of the LORD is coming,
Cruel, with wrath and raging anger,
To make the land a horror [of devastation];

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

God Is Your Salvation

Some years ago I had to face the fact that although I said with my mouth, “Behold, God, my salvation! I will trust and not be afraid, for the LORD GOD is my strength and song” (Isa. 12:2), the truth was that I worried and felt fearful and anxious in many situations. Being truthful with myself helped me begin to deal with the negative mental habits that were hindering my faith. I have come a long way in my battle to be worry-free; and the less I worry, the less stress I have! There is no doubt that our thoughts and our stress levels are closely connected.

When we worry, we are searching for answers to our problems, hoping we will find a way to control situations in our life; but the truth is that we were never in control anyway, because God is. Instead of using our thoughts to worry about situations and people we cannot control, we should use them to trust God!

We will never lower our stress level unless we learn to believe the best while trusting God to take care of our problems. We can make any problem worse by worrying about it! To avoid worry, we must choose to think positively, on purpose. If we are passive in troubled times, our mind will be filled with worry, fear, and anxiety. We can choose to avoid the stress of those exhausting habits by deciding how to think. It is not God's will that we live under the pressure of stress, and He has provided a way for us to avoid much of it (see John 14:1, 27; Phil. 4:6–7).

It is very important to remember to always lean on God and ask for His grace (strength, ability) to help you to do whatever needs to be done (see Prov. 3:5). When it comes to renewing our minds and learning to think the way God thinks, mere “trying” in our own strength won't work. We need God's help every step of the way. He has equipped us with the “mind of Christ” (see 1 Cor. 2:16) to make right thinking possible for us, still with His help. He is waiting to help you—just ask!

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Gracious and forgiving Father, You know how often I talk about trusting You and yet at times I worry and am anxious over different situations. I lean on You now and ask You for grace to be renewed in my mind and thinking right thoughts that glorify Your name. Amen.

And He shall exterminate its sinners from it. [Is 2:10–22; Rev 19:11–21]

¹⁰For the stars of heaven and their constellations
Will not flash with their light;
The sun will be dark when it rises,
And the moon will not shed its light.

¹¹In this way I will punish the world for its evil
And the wicked for their wickedness [their sin, their injustice, their wrongdoing];
I will also put an end to the arrogance of the proud
And will abase the arrogance of the tyrant.

¹²I will make mortal man more rare than fine gold,
And mankind [scarcer] than the pure gold of Ophir.

¹³Therefore I will make the heavens tremble;
And the earth will be shaken from its place
At the wrath of the LORD of hosts
In the day of His burning anger.

¹⁴And like the hunted gazelle,
Or like sheep that no man gathers,
Each [foreign resident] will turn [and go back] to his own
people,
And each one flee to his own land.

¹⁵Anyone who is found will be pierced through,
And anyone who is captured will fall by the sword.

¹⁶Their children also will be smashed to pieces
Before their eyes;

Their houses will be looted
And their wives ravished.

¹⁷ Listen carefully, I will put the Medes [in motion] against them,
Who have no regard for silver and do not delight in gold
[and therefore cannot be bribed].

¹⁸ Their bows will cut down the young men [of Babylon];
They will take no pity on the fruit of the womb,
Their eyes will not look with compassion on the children.

¹⁹ And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldeans' pride,
Will be like Sodom and Gomorrah when God overthrew
them.

²⁰ Babylon will never be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation;
Nor will the Arab pitch his tent there,
Nor will the shepherds let their sheep lie down there.

²¹ But desert creatures will lie down there,
And their houses will be full of owls;
Ostriches also will live there, and wild goats will dance
there.

²² Hyenas will howl in their castles,
And jackals in their luxurious palaces.
Babylon's time has nearly come,
And her days will not be prolonged.

14 FOR THE LORD will have compassion on Jacob (the captives in Babylon) and will again choose Israel, and will settle them in their own land. Foreigners (Gentiles) will join them [as proselytes] and will attach themselves to the house of Jacob (Israel). [Esth 8:17]

²The peoples will take them along and bring them to their own place (Judea), and the house of Israel will possess them as an inheritance in the land of the LORD as male and female servants; and they will take captive those whose captives they have been, and they will rule over their [former] oppressors. [Ezra 1]

³And it will be in the day when the LORD gives you rest from your pain and turmoil and from the harsh service in which you have been enslaved, ⁴that you will take up this taunt against the king of Babylon, and say,

“How the oppressor has ceased [his insolence],
And how the fury has ceased!

⁵“The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked,
The scepter of the [tyrant] rulers

⁶Which used to strike the peoples in anger with incessant blows,
Which subdued and ruled the nations in wrath with unrelenting persecution.

⁷“The whole earth is at rest and is quiet;
They break into shouts of joy.

⁸“Even the cypress trees rejoice over you [kings of Babylon], even the cedars of Lebanon, saying,

‘Since you were laid low, no woodcutter comes up against us.’

9“‘Sheol below is excited about you to meet you when you come [you tyrant of Babylon];

It stirs up the spirits of the dead [to greet you], all the leaders of the earth;

It raises all the kings of the nations from their thrones [in astonishment at your fall].

10“‘All of them will respond [tauntingly] and say to you,

‘You have become as weak as we are.

You have become like us.

11‘Your pomp and magnificence have been brought down to Sheol,

Along with the music of your harps;

The maggots [which prey on the dead] are spread out under you [as a bed]

And worms are your covering [Babylonian rulers].’

12“‘How you have fallen from heaven,

O star of the morning [light-bringer], son of the dawn!

You have been cut down to the ground,

You who have weakened the nations [king of Babylon]!

13“‘But you said in your heart,

‘I will ascend to heaven;

I will raise my throne above the stars of God;

I will sit on the mount of assembly

In the remote parts of the north.

14‘I will ascend above the heights of the clouds;

I will make myself like the Most High.’

- 15“But [in fact] you will be brought down to Sheol,
To the remote recesses of the pit (the region of the dead).
- 16“Those who see you will gaze at you,
They will consider you, saying,
‘Is this the man who made the earth tremble,
Who shook kingdoms,
17Who made the world like a wilderness
And overthrew its cities,
Who did not permit his prisoners to return home?’
- 18“All the kings of the nations, all of them lie [dead] in glorious array,
Each one in his own sepulcher.
- 19“But you [king of Babylon] have been cast out of your tomb (denied burial)
Like a rejected branch,
Clothed with the slain who are pierced by the sword,
Who go down to the stones of the pit [into which carcasses are thrown],
Like a dead body trampled [underfoot].
- 20“‘You will not be united with them in burial,
Because you have destroyed your land,
You have slain your people.
May the descendants of evildoers never be named!
- 21“Prepare a slaughtering place for his sons
Because of the wickedness [the sin, the injustice, the wrongdoing] of their fathers.
They must not rise and take possession of the earth,
And fill the face of the world with cities.”

²²“I will rise up against them,” says the LORD of hosts, “and will cut off from Babylon name and survivors, and son and grandson,” declares the LORD.

²³“I will also make Babylon a possession of the hedgehog and of swamps of water, and I will sweep it away with the broom of destruction,” declares the LORD of hosts.

²⁴The LORD of hosts has sworn [an oath], saying, “Just as I have intended, so it has certainly happened, and just as I have planned, so it will stand—²⁵to break the Assyrian in My land, and on My mountains I will trample him underfoot. Then the Assyrian’s yoke will be removed from them (the people of Judah) and his burden removed from their shoulder.

²⁶“This is the plan [of God] decided for the whole earth [regarded as conquered and put under tribute by Assyria]; and this is the hand [of God] that is stretched out over all the nations.

²⁷“For the LORD of hosts has decided and planned, and who can annul it? His hand is stretched out, and who can turn it back?”

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that when You decide and plan to do something, You do it. No one can annul your decisions and plans.

• adapted from Isaiah 14:27

²⁸In the year that King Ahaz [of Judah] died this [mournful, inspired] oracle (a burden to be carried) came: ²⁹“Do not rejoice, O Philistia, any of you,

Because the rod [of Judah] that struck you is broken;
For out of the serpent’s root will come a viper [King
Hezekiah of Judah],

And its offspring will be a flying serpent. [2 Kin 18:1, 3, 8]

³⁰“The firstborn of the helpless [of Judah] will feed [on My meadows],

And the needy will lie down in safety;
But I will kill your root with famine,
And your survivors will be put to death.

³¹“Howl, O gate; cry, O city!

Melt away, O Philistia, all of you;
For smoke comes out of the north,
And there is no straggler in his ranks and no one stands detached [in Hezekiah’s battalions].

32“Then what answer will one give the messengers of the [Philistine] nation?
That the LORD has founded Zion,
And the afflicted of His people will seek and find refuge in
it.”

15 THE [MOURNFUL, inspired] oracle (a burden to be carried) concerning Moab: Because in a night Ar of Moab is devastated and ruined;

Because in a night Kir of Moab is devastated and ruined.

²They have gone up to the temple and to Dibon, to the high places to weep.

Moab wails over Nebo and over Medeba;

Everyone's head is shaved, and every beard is cut off [in mourning]. [Jer 48:37]

³In their streets they have wrapped themselves with sackcloth;

On their [flat] housetops and in their open squares

Everyone is wailing, dissolved in tears.

⁴Heshbon and Elealeh [cities claimed by Moab] cry out;

Their voice is heard as far as Jahaz.

Therefore the armed men of Moab cry out;

Moab's soul trembles within him.

⁵My heart cries out for Moab;

His fugitives are [fleeing] as far as Zoar and Eglathshelishiyah.

For they go up the ascent of Luhith weeping;

For on the road to Horonaim they raise a cry of distress over their destruction. [Jer 48:5]

⁶For the waters of Nimrim are desolate.

Indeed the grass is withered, the new growth dies;
There is no green thing.

⁷Therefore the abundance which they have acquired and stored away

They carry off over the Brook of the Willows.

⁸For the cry of distress has echoed around the territory of Moab;

The wailing goes as far as Eglaim and the mournful cry to Beer-elim.

⁹For the waters of Dimon are full of blood;

Yet I will bring even more woes on Dimon—

A lion upon those of Moab who escape and upon the remnant of the land.

16 SEND LAMBS to the ruler of the land [you Moabites], From Sela [that is, Petra in Edom] through the wilderness to the mountain of the Daughter of Zion (Jerusalem). [2 Kin 3:4, 5]

²For like wandering birds or scattered nestlings,

The daughters of Moab will be at the fords of the [river]
Arnon.

³[Say to the ruler] “Give us advice, make a decision [for Moab, king of Judah];

Cast your shadow [over us] like night in the midst of noon;
Hide the outcasts, do not betray the fugitive [to his pursuer].

- ⁴“Let our outcasts of Moab live among you;
Be a [sheltered] hiding place to them from the destroyer.”
For the extortioner has come to an end, destruction has ceased,
Oppressors [who trample men] have completely disappeared from the land,
- ⁵A throne will be established in lovingkindness,
And One will sit on it in faithfulness in the tent (dynasty, family) of David;
Judging and seeking justice
And being prompt to do righteousness. [Ps 96:13; Jer 48:47]
- ⁶We have heard of the pride of Moab, an excessive pride—
Even of his arrogance, his conceit, his rage,
His untruthful boasting.
- ⁷Therefore Moab will wail for Moab; everyone will wail.
You will mourn for the raisin cakes of Kir-hareseth,
As those who are utterly stricken and discouraged.
- ⁸For the fields of Heshbon have languished and withered,
and the vines of Sibmah as well;
The lords of the nations have trampled down [Moab’s]
choice vine branches,
Which reached as far as Jazer and wandered into the wilderness;
Its tendrils stretched out, they passed over [the shores of] the [Dead] Sea.
- ⁹Therefore I (Isaiah) will weep bitterly for Jazer, for the vines of Sibmah.

I will drench you with my tears, O Heshbon and Elealeh;
For the war-cry [of the enemy] has fallen on your summer fruits and your harvest.

¹⁰Gladness and joy are taken away from the fruitful field;
In the vineyards there will be no singing or joyful sound;
No treader treads out wine in the presses,
For I (God) put an end to the joyful shouting.

¹¹Therefore my heart sounds like a harp [in mournful compassion] for Moab,
And my inner being mourns for Kir-hareseth.

¹²So it will come to pass when Moab presents himself,
When he wearies himself [worshiping] on his high place [of idolatry]
And comes to his sanctuary [of Chemosh, god of Moab] to pray,
That he will not prevail. [Jer 48:13]

¹³This is the word which the LORD spoke earlier concerning Moab [when Moab's pride and resistance to God were first known].

¹⁴But now the LORD speaks, saying, "Within three years, as the years of a hired man [who will not serve longer than the agreed time], the glory of Moab will be degraded along with all the great population, and the remnant [that survives] will be very small and of no account."

17 THE [MOURNFUL, inspired] oracle (a burden to be carried) concerning Damascus [capital of Aram (Syria), and Israel's defense against Assyria].

“Listen carefully, Damascus will cease to be a city
And will become a fallen ruin.

2“‘The cities of Aroer [east of the Jordan] are deserted;
They will be [only a refuge] for flocks to lie down in,
And there will be no one to make them afraid.

3“‘The fortified city will disappear from Ephraim,
And the kingdom from Damascus
And the remnant of Aram (Syria);
They will be like the [departed] glory of [her ally] the children of Israel,”
Declares the LORD of hosts.

4“‘Now in that day the [former] glory of Jacob [Israel—his might, his population, his prosperity] will fade, And the fatness of his flesh will become lean.

5“‘And it will be like the reaper gathering the standing grain,
As his arm harvests the ears of grain;
Yes, it will be like one gleaning ears of grain
In the [fertile] Valley of Rephaim.

6“‘Yet gleanings will be left in the land [of Israel] like the shaking of the olive tree,
Two or three olives on the topmost branch,
Four or five on the [outermost] branches of the fruitful tree,”

Declares the LORD, the God of Israel.

7In that day man will have regard for his Maker,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Stand on the Rock

Why do you think Jesus is referred to as “the Rock” in Isaiah 17:10 (see 1 Cor. 10:4)? Because He is stable and never changing, like a huge rock. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever—and we can learn to be stable as He is.

Waiting to see how you feel each day before taking action is never a good idea. Has anyone ever invited you to do something and you responded, “Let me wait and see how I feel”? That attitude gives the devil room to make sure you don’t feel like doing what you need to do or what can benefit you. We will sometimes have unpleasant times, but we don’t have to live by our feelings; we can choose to stand firm and be stable when we find our strength in the “God of your salvation... the Rock of your Stronghold” (Isa. 17:10).

And his eyes will regard the Holy One of Israel [with awe-inspired reverence].

⁸And he will not have regard for the [idolatrous] altars, the work of his hands,
Nor will he look to that which his fingers have made,
Neither the Asherim (symbols of the goddess Asherah) nor the incense altars.

⁹In that day the strong cities of Aram and Israel will be like deserted places in the forest,

Or like branches which they abandoned before the children
of Israel;
And the land will be a desolation.

- ¹⁰Because you [Judah] have forgotten the God of your salvation
And have not remembered the Rock of your Stronghold—
Therefore you plant lovely plants
And set the grounds with vine slips of a strange god, ¹¹In the day that you plant it you carefully fence it in,
And in the morning you bring your seed to blossom;
Yet [promising as it is] the harvest will be a heap [of ruins that passes away]
In the day of sickness and incurable pain.

- ¹²Oh, the uproar of many peoples
Who roar like the roaring of the seas,
And the noise of nations
Who roar like the rumbling of mighty waters!

- ¹³The nations roar on like the roaring of many waters,
But God will rebuke them and they will flee far away,
And be chased like chaff on the mountains before the wind,
Or like whirling dust before the storm.

- ¹⁴At evening time, now look, sudden terror!
Before morning the Assyrians are no more.
This is the portion (fate) of those who plunder us,
And the lot of those who pillage us.

18 WOE (JUDGMENT is coming) to the land of whirling wings Which is beyond the rivers of Cush (Ethiopia),

²Which sends ambassadors by the sea,
Even in vessels of papyrus on the surface of the waters.
Go, swift messengers, to a nation [of people] tall and smooth (clean shaven),
To a people feared far and wide,
A powerful and oppressive nation
Whose land the rivers divide.

³All you inhabitants of the world, you who dwell on the earth,
When a banner is raised on the mountains, you will see it!
When a trumpet is blown, you will hear it!

⁴For this is what the LORD has said to me,
“I will be quiet and I will look on from My dwelling place,
Like shimmering heat above the sunshine,
Like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.”
⁵For before the harvest, when the blossom is over
And the flower becomes a ripening grape,
He will cut off the sprigs [without buds] with pruning knives,
And [He will] remove and cut away the spreading branches.

⁶They (warriors) will be left together for the mountain birds of prey,
And for the beasts of the earth;
And the birds of prey will [spend the] summer feeding on

them,
And all the beasts of the earth will spend harvest time on
them.

⁷At that time a gift of homage will be brought to the LORD of hosts From a people tall and smooth (clean shaven),
From a people feared far and wide,
A powerful and oppressive nation,
Whose land the rivers divide—
To the place [of worship] of the name of the LORD of hosts, to Mount Zion [in Jerusalem]. [Deut 12:5; 2 Chr 32:23; Is 16:1; 45:14; Zeph 3:10]

19 THE [MOURNFUL, inspired] oracle (a burden to be carried) concerning Egypt: Listen carefully, the LORD is riding on a swift cloud and is about to come to Egypt; The idols of Egypt will tremble at His presence,

And the heart of the Egyptians will melt within them.

²“So I will provoke Egyptians against Egyptians;
And they will fight, each one against his brother and each one against his neighbor,
City against city, kingdom against kingdom.

³“Then the spirit of the Egyptians will become exhausted within them and emptied out;
And I will confuse their strategy,
So that they will consult the idols and the spirits of the dead,
And mediums and soothsayers.

- ⁴“And I will hand over the Egyptians to a hard and cruel master,
And a mighty king will rule over them,” declares the Lord
GOD of hosts.
- ⁵The waters from the sea will dry up,
And the river will be parched and dry.
- ⁶The canals will become foul-smelling,
The streams of Egypt will thin out and dry up,
The reeds and the rushes will rot away.
- ⁷The meadows by the Nile, by the edge of the Nile,
And all the sown fields of the Nile
Will become dry, be blown away, and be no more.
- ⁸The fishermen will lament (cry out in grief),
And all those who cast a hook into the Nile will mourn,
And those who spread nets upon the waters will languish.
- ⁹Moreover, those who make linen from combed flax
And those who weave white cloth will be ashamed.
- ¹⁰[Those who are] the pillars and foundations of Egypt will be crushed;
And all those who work for wages will be grieved in soul.
- ¹¹The princes of Zoan are complete fools;
The counsel of the Pharaoh’s wisest advisors has become stupid.
How can you say to Pharaoh,
“I am a son of the wise, a son of ancient kings?”
- ¹²Where then are your wise men?
Please let them tell you,

And let them understand what the LORD of hosts
Has purposed against Egypt [if they can].

¹³The princes of Zoan have acted like fools,
The princes of Memphis are deluded [and entertain false
hope];
Those who are the cornerstone of her tribes
Have led Egypt astray.

¹⁴The LORD has mixed a spirit of distortion within her;
Her leaders have caused Egypt to stagger in all that she does,
As a drunken man staggers in his vomit.

¹⁵There will be no work for Egypt
Which head or tail, [high] palm branch or [low] bulrush, may do.

¹⁶In that day the Egyptians will become like [helpless] women, and they will tremble and be frightened because of the waving of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which He is going to wave over them.

¹⁷The land of Judah [Assyria's ally] will become a terror to the Egyptians; everyone to whom Judah is mentioned will be in dread of it, because of the purpose of the LORD of hosts which He is planning against Egypt.

¹⁸In that day five cities in the land of Egypt will speak the language of [the Hebrews of] Canaan and swear allegiance to the LORD of hosts. One [of them] will be called the City of Destruction.

¹⁹In that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a memorial stone to the LORD near its border.

²⁰It will become a sign and a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to the LORD because of oppressors, and He will send them a Savior, a [Great] Defender, and He will rescue them. [Judg 2:18; 3:9, 15]

²¹And so the LORD will make Himself known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know [heed, honor, and cherish] the LORD in that day. They will even worship with sacrifices [of animals] and offerings [of produce]; they will make a vow to the LORD and fulfill it.

²²The LORD will strike Egypt, striking but healing it; so they will return to the LORD, and He will respond to them and heal them.

²³In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrians will come into Egypt and the Egyptians into Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship and serve [the LORD] with the Assyrians.

²⁴In that day Israel will be the third party with Egypt and with Assyria [in a Messianic league], a blessing in the midst of the earth, ²⁵whom the LORD of hosts has blessed, saying, “Blessed is Egypt My people, and Assyria the work of My hands, and Israel My heritage.”

20 IN THE year that the Tartan [the Assyrian commander in chief] came to Ashdod [in Philistia], when Sargon king of Assyria sent him and he fought against Ashdod and captured it, ²at that time the LORD spoke through Isaiah the son of

Amoz, saying, “Go, untie the sackcloth from your hips and take your sandals off your feet.” And he did so, walking around stripped [to his loincloth] and barefoot. [Mic 1:8]

³And the LORD said, “Even as My servant Isaiah has walked stripped and barefoot for three years as a sign and forewarning concerning Egypt and Cush (Ethiopia), ⁴in the same way the king of Assyria will lead away the Egyptian captives and the Cushite exiles, young and old, stripped and barefoot, even with buttocks uncovered—to the shame of Egypt.

⁵“Then they will be dismayed and ashamed because of Cush their hope and Egypt their boast.

⁶“So the inhabitants of this coastland [the Israelites and their neighbors] will say in that day, ‘Look what has happened to those in whom we hoped and trusted and to whom we fled for help to be spared from the king of Assyria! But we, how will we escape [captivity and exile]?’”

21 THE [MOURNFUL, inspired] oracle (a burden to be carried) concerning the Desert of the Sea (the seasonally flooded plains just south of Babylon): As windstorms in the Negev (the South) sweep through,

So it (God’s judgment) comes from the desert, from [the hostile armies of] a terrifying land.

²A harsh vision has been shown to me;

The treacherous one deals treacherously, and the destroyer destroys.

Go up, Elam! Lay siege, Media!

All the groaning [caused by Babylon's ruthless oppressions] I [the LORD] have brought to an end. [Is 11:11; 13:17]

³Therefore [continues Isaiah] my loins are filled with anguish;
Pains have seized me like the pains of a woman in childbirth;
I am so bent and bewildered that I cannot hear, I am so terrified that I cannot see.

⁴My mind reels, horror overwhelms me;
The twilight I longed for has been turned into fear and trembling for me. [Dan 5:1–4]

⁵They set the table [for the doomed banquet], they spread out the cloth, they eat, they drink;
“Rise up, captains [of Belshazzar's court], oil your shields [for battle, for your enemy is at the gates]!”

⁶This is what the Lord says to me,
“Go, station the lookout, let him report what he sees.

⁷“When he sees a chariot, horsemen in pairs,
A train of donkeys and a train of camels,
Let him pay attention and listen closely, very closely.”

⁸And the lookout called like a lion,
“O Lord, I stand continually on the watchtower by day,
And I am stationed every night at my guard post.

⁹“Now look! Here comes a troop of riders, horsemen in pairs.”
And one said, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon;

And all the carved images of her gods are shattered on the ground.”

¹⁰O my threshed people [Judah, who must be judged and trampled down by Babylon], my afflicted of the threshing floor.

What I have heard from the LORD of hosts,
The God of Israel, I have [joyfully] announced to you [that Babylon is to fall].

¹¹The [mournful, inspired] oracle (a burden to be carried) concerning Dumah (Edom):

Someone keeps calling to me from Seir (Edom), “Watchman, what is left of the night [of Assyrian oppression]?

Watchman, what is left of the night? [How long until morning?]”

¹²The watchman says,

“The morning comes [only briefly], but also [comes] the night [of Babylonian oppression].

If you would ask [of me then], ask [again, if Edom really wishes to know];
Come back again.”

¹³The [mournful, inspired] oracle (a burden to be carried) concerning Arabia:

In the thickets of Arabia you must spend the night,
Caravans of Dedanites.

¹⁴Bring water for the thirsty [Dedanites],
O inhabitants of the land of Tema [in Arabia];

Meet the fugitive with bread.

¹⁵For they have fled from the swords,
From the drawn sword, from the bent bow
And from the press of battle and grief of war.

¹⁶For the Lord has said this to me, “Within a year, according to the years of a hired man [who will work no longer than was agreed], all the splendor of [the tribe of] Kedar will end; ¹⁷and the remainder of the number of archers, the mighty men of the sons of Kedar, will be few; for the LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken.”

22 THE [MOURNFUL, inspired] oracle (a burden to be carried) concerning the Valley of Vision: What is the matter with you now, that you have all gone up to the housetops,

²You [Jerusalem] who were full of noise,
A tumultuous city, a joyous and exuberant city;
Your slain were not slain [in a glorious death] with the sword,
Nor did they die in battle.

³All your leaders have fled together [with your king],
And have been captured without the bow [which they had thrown away];
All of you who were found were taken captive together,
Though they had fled far away.

⁴Therefore I say, “Look away from me;
Let me weep bitterly.
Do not try to comfort me over the destruction of the daughter of my people.”

⁵For the Lord GOD of hosts has a day of panic and of tumult, of trampling, of confusion In the Valley of Vision,
A [day of] breaking down walls
And a crying [for help] to the mountain.

⁶Elam took up the quiver
With the chariots, infantry and horsemen;
And Kir uncovered the shield.

⁷And it came to pass that your choicest valleys were full of chariots,
And the horsemen took their fixed positions [in an offensive array] at the gate [of Jerusalem]. [2 Chr 32; Is 36]

⁸Then God removed the [protective] covering of Judah;
And in that day you looked to the weapons of the House of the Forest (Solomon’s armory). [1 Kin 7:2; 10:17, 21]

⁹You saw that the breaches
In the wall of the City of David [the citadel of Zion] were many;
You collected [within the city’s walls] the waters of the Lower Pool (Siloam).

¹⁰Then you counted the houses of Jerusalem
And you tore down the houses [to get materials] to fortify the city wall [by extending it].

¹¹You also made a reservoir between the two walls
For the waters of the Old Pool,
But you did not look to its Maker,
Nor did you recognize Him who planned it long ago.

¹²Therefore in that day the Lord GOD of hosts called you to weeping, to mourning, To shaving the head and to wearing sackcloth [in humiliation].

¹³Instead, there is joy and jubilation,
Killing of oxen and slaughtering of sheep,
Eating meat and drinking wine, saying,
“Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we may die.”

¹⁴But the LORD of hosts revealed Himself in my ears,
“This sin absolutely will not be forgiven you Until you die,” says the Lord GOD of hosts.

¹⁵For the Lord GOD of hosts says this, “Go to this [contemptible] steward, To Shebna, who is in charge of the royal household [but is building himself a tomb worthy of a king, and say to him], ¹⁶“What business do you have here?

And whom do you have here,
That you have hewn out a tomb here for yourself,
You who hew a sepulcher on the height,
You who carve a resting place for yourself in the rock?

¹⁷“Listen carefully, the LORD is about to hurl you away violently, O man; And He is about to grasp you firmly

¹⁸And roll you up tightly like a ball
And toss you into a vast country;
There you will die
And there your splendid chariots will be,
You shame of your master’s house.’

¹⁹“I will depose you from your office,

And you will be pulled down from your position [of importance].

²⁰“Then it will come to pass in that day
That I will summon My servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah.

²¹“And I will clothe him with your tunic [of distinction]
And tie your sash securely around him.
I will entrust him with your authority;
He will become a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.

²²“Then I will set on his shoulder the key of the house of David;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Opens and Closes Doors

Of course you want to be able to know for certain what God wants you to do in every situation, but you don't. You only must step out in faith and eventually do one thing or the other. Along the way, God will open and close doors for you. As you follow Him, you find yourself in His will.

As you seek to know what God wants you to do, pray that if what you are doing is not what He has for you, God will graciously close the door before you make a mistake (see Isa. 22:22). If you don't have peace about something, don't do it. If after prayer and waiting you feel you still don't have a clear direction from God, it may mean He is simply giving you the freedom of making your own choice. If you make a decision that turns out to be wrong, God will meet you where you are and bring you back to the right path. God is merciful, and you don't have to be afraid to make decisions. The best way to learn is to start moving forward. Walk through the doors God opens, and back away from the ones He closes.

When he opens no one will shut,

When he shuts no one will open.

²³“I will drive him like a peg in a firm place,

And he will become a throne of honor and glory to his father's house.

²⁴“So they will hang on him all the honor and glory [the complete responsibility] of his father’s house, offspring and issue [of the family, high and low], all the least of the articles, from the bowls to all the jars.

²⁵“In that day,” declares the LORD of hosts, “the peg (Eliakim) that was driven into the firm place will give way; it will even break off and fall, and the burden hanging on it will be cut off, for the LORD has spoken.”

23 THE [MOURNFUL, inspired] oracle (a burden to be carried) concerning Tyre: Wail, O ships of Tarshish,
For Tyre is destroyed, without house, without harbor;
It is reported to them from the land of Cyprus (Kittim).

²Be silent, you inhabitants of the coastland,
You merchants of Sidon;
Your messengers crossed the sea

³And they were on great waters.
The grain of the Shihor, the harvest of the Nile River, was Tyre’s revenue;
And she was the market of nations.

⁴Be ashamed, O Sidon [mother-city of Tyre, now like a widow bereaved of her children];
For the sea speaks, the stronghold of the sea, saying,
“I have neither labored nor given birth [to children];
I have neither brought up young men nor reared virgins.”

⁵When the report reaches Egypt,
They will be in agony at the report about Tyre.

- ⁶Cross over to Tarshish [to seek safety as exiles];
Wail, O inhabitants of the coastland [of Tyre].
- ⁷Is this your jubilant city,
Whose origin dates back to antiquity,
Whose feet used to carry her [far away] to colonize distant places?
- ⁸Who has planned this against Tyre, the bestower of crowns,
Whose merchants were princes, whose traders were the honored of the earth?
- ⁹The LORD of hosts has planned it, to defile the pride of all beauty, To bring into contempt and humiliation all the honored of the earth.
- ¹⁰Overflow your land like [the overflow of] the Nile, O
Daughter of Tarshish;
There is no more restraint [on you to make you pay tribute to Tyre].
- ¹¹He has stretched out His hand over the sea,
He has shaken the kingdoms;
The LORD has given a command concerning Canaan to destroy her strongholds and her fortresses [like Tyre and Sidon].
- ¹²He has said, “You shall never again exult [in triumph], O crushed Virgin Daughter of Sidon.
Arise, cross over to Cyprus; even there you will find no
rest.”

¹³Now look at the land of the Chaldeans (Babylonia)—this is the people which was not; the Assyrians allocated Tyre for desert creatures—they set up their siege towers, they stripped its palaces, they made it a ruin.

¹⁴Wail, O ships of Tarshish,
For your stronghold [of Tyre] is destroyed.

¹⁵Now in that day Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, like the days of one king. At the end of seventy years it will happen to Tyre as in the prostitute's song: ¹⁶Take a harp, walk around the city,

O forgotten prostitute;
Play the strings skillfully, sing many songs,
That you may be remembered.

¹⁷It will come to pass at the end of seventy years that the LORD will remember Tyre. Then she will return to her prostitute's wages and will play the [role of a] prostitute [by trading] with all the kingdoms on the face of the earth.

¹⁸But her commercial gain and her prostitute's wages will be dedicated to the LORD; it will not be treasured or stored up, but her commercial gain will become sufficient food and stately clothing for those who dwell (minister) in the presence of the LORD.

24 BEHOLD, THE LORD lays waste to the earth, devastates it, twists and distorts its face and scatters its inhabitants.

²And the people will be like the priest, the servant like his master, the maid like her mistress, the buyer like the seller, the lender like the borrower, the creditor like the debtor [as God's impartial judgment of sin comes on all].

³The earth will be completely laid waste and utterly pillaged, for the LORD has spoken this word.

⁴The earth dries up and crumbles away, the world dries out and crumbles away, the exalted of the people of the earth fade away.

⁵The earth also is polluted by its inhabitants, because they have transgressed laws, violated statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant. [Gen 9:1–17; Deut 29:20]

⁶Therefore, a curse devours the earth, and those who live on it suffer the punishment of their guilt. Therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned [under the curse of God's wrath], and few people are left. [Rom 1:20]

⁷The new wine mourns,
The vine decays;
All the merry-hearted sigh and groan.

⁸The mirth of the timbrels (tambourines) ceases,
The noise of those who rejoice ends,
The joy of the harp ceases.

⁹They do not drink wine with a song;
Strong drink is bitter to those who drink it.

¹⁰The city of chaos is broken down;
Every house is shut up so that no one may enter.

¹¹There is an outcry in the streets concerning the wine;
All jubilation is darkened,
The joy of the earth is banished.

- ¹²Horrible desolation is left in the city,
And the gate is battered into ruins.
- ¹³For so it will be in the midst of the earth among the peoples,
As the shaking of an olive tree,
As the gleanings when the grape harvest is over [and only a little of the fruit remains].
- ¹⁴They [who have escaped and remain] raise their voices,
they shout for joy;
They rejoice from the [Mediterranean] Sea in the majesty of
the LORD.
- ¹⁵Therefore honor and glorify the LORD in the east [in the region of light], The name of the LORD, the God of Israel [honor His name],
In the coastlands and islands of the [Mediterranean] Sea.
- ¹⁶From the ends of the earth we hear songs, “Glory and honor to the Righteous One,”
But I say, “I waste away, I waste away. Woe to me!
The treacherous deal treacherously,
Indeed, the treacherous deal very treacherously.”
- ¹⁷Terror and pit [of destruction] and snare
Confront you, O inhabitant of the earth.
- ¹⁸Then it will be that he who flees at the sound of terror will fall into the pit,
And he who comes up out of the pit will be caught in the snare;
For the windows of heaven are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble.

- ¹⁹The earth is broken completely apart,
The earth is split apart,
The earth is shaken violently.
- ²⁰The earth reels back and forth like a drunkard
And sways like a shack;
Its transgression lies heavily upon it,
And it will fall and not rise again.
- ²¹So it will happen in that day
That the LORD will visit and punish the host (fallen angels) of heaven on high, And the kings of the earth on the earth. [1 Cor 15:25; Eph 3:10; 6:12]
- ²²They will be gathered together
As prisoners [are gathered] in a dungeon;
They will be shut up in prison,
And after many days they will be visited and punished.
[Zech 9:11, 12; 2 Pet 2:4; Jude 6]
- ²³Then the full moon will be embarrassed and the sun
ashamed,
For the LORD of hosts will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem,
And His glory and brilliance will shine before His elders.

25 O LORD, You are my God; I will exalt You, I will praise and give thanks to Your name;
For You have done miraculous things,
Plans formed long, long ago, [fulfilled] with perfect
faithfulness.

²For You have made a city into a heap [of trash],
A fortified city into a ruin;
A palace of foreigners is no longer a city,
It will never be rebuilt.

³Therefore a strong people will honor You;
Cities of terrible and violent nations will fear You.

⁴For You have been a stronghold for the helpless,
A stronghold for the poor in his distress,
A shelter from the storm, a shade from the heat;
For the breath of tyrants
Is like a rainstorm against a wall.

⁵Like heat in a dry land, You will subdue the noise of foreigners [rejoicing over their enemies]; Like heat in the shadow of a cloud, the song of the tyrants is silenced.

⁶On this mountain [Zion] the LORD of hosts will prepare a lavish banquet for all peoples [to welcome His reign on earth], A banquet of aged wines—choice pieces [flavored] with marrow,
Of refined, aged wines.

⁷And on this mountain He will destroy the covering that is [cast] over all peoples,
And the veil [of death] that is woven and spread over all the nations.

⁸He will swallow up death [and abolish it] for all time.
And the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces,
And He will take away the disgrace of His people from all
the earth;

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I am grateful, Lord, that You will swallow up death and abolish it for all time. I take comfort in the promise that You will wipe away tears from all faces.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Security in God

A sense of security is something everyone needs and desires. Security enables us to enjoy healthy thinking and living. It means we feel safe, accepted, and approved of. When we are secure, we approve of who we are in Christ, we have confidence, and we accept and love ourselves in a balanced way.

I believe God's will for each one of us is to have the security that Isaiah spoke about: "Indeed, this is our God for whom we have waited that He would save us" (Isa. 25:9). The foundation for this security is in knowing who we are in Christ, accepting God's unconditional love, and accepting ourselves even though we realize we have weaknesses and are not perfect. Remember, when God looks at you, He sees the righteousness of His Son, Jesus (see 2 Cor. 5:21).

For the LORD has spoken. [1 Cor 15:26, 54; 2 Tim 1:10]

⁹It will be said in that day,

"Indeed, this is our God for whom we have waited that He would save us.

This is the LORD for whom we have waited;

Let us shout for joy and rejoice in His salvation."

¹⁰For the hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain [Zion],
And Moab will be trampled down in his place

As straw is trampled down in the [filthy] water of a manure pile.

¹¹ And Moab will spread out his hands in the middle of the filth

As a swimmer spreads out his hands to swim,
But the Lord will humiliate his pride in spite of the [skillful] movements of his hands.

¹² The high fortifications of your walls He will bring down,
Lay low, and cast to the ground, to the dust.

26 IN THAT day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

“We have a strong city;
He sets up salvation as walls and ramparts.

² “Open the gates, that the righteous nation may enter,
The one that remains faithful and trustworthy.

³ “You will keep in perfect and constant peace the one whose mind is steadfast [that is, committed and focused on You—in both inclination and character], Because he trusts and takes refuge in You [with hope and confident expectation].

⁴ “Trust [confidently] in the LORD forever [He is your fortress, your shield, your banner], For the LORD GOD is an everlasting Rock [the Rock of Ages].

Speak God's Word

God keeps me in perfect and constant peace because my mind is steadfast, committed, and focused on Him—in both inclination and character—because I trust and take refuge in Him with hope and confident expectation.

| adapted from ISAIAH 26:3 |

⁵“For He has thrown down the [arrogant] ones who dwell on high, the lofty and inaccessible city; He lays it low, He lays it low to the ground, He hurls it to the dust.

⁶“The foot will trample it,
Even the feet of the suffering, and the steps of the helpless.”

⁷The way of the righteous [those in right-standing with God—living in moral and spiritual integrity] is smooth and level; O Upright One, make a level path for the just and righteous.

⁸Indeed, in the path of Your judgments, O LORD,
We have waited expectantly for You;

Your name, even Your memory, is the desire and deep longing of our souls.

⁹In the night my soul longs for You [O LORD],
Indeed, my spirit within me seeks You diligently;
For [only] when Your judgments are experienced on the earth

Will the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.

¹⁰*Though* the wicked is shown compassion and favor,
He does not learn righteousness;
In the land of uprightness he deals unjustly,
And refuses to see the majesty of the LORD.

¹¹*Though* Your hand is lifted up [to strike], O LORD, the wicked do not see it.

Let them see Your zeal for Your people and be put to shame;
Indeed, let the fire reserved for Your enemies consume them.

¹²LORD, You will establish peace for us,
Since You have also performed for us all that we have done.

¹³O LORD our God, other masters besides You have ruled over us;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Steadfast Mind

We function best when we have a steadfast mind that is committed and focused on God (see Isa. 26:3). When the mind is calm and steadfast, it is free from fear, worry, or torment. It is also clear and focused, so we can look at situations and decide what to do about them.

Many of us get into trouble when we get out of balance or become unsteady in our minds. Either we move into a state of total passivity in which we do nothing, expecting God to do everything for us, or we become hyperactive, operating most of the time in the flesh. God wants our minds to be steadfast so that we are able to face any situation in life, believing God will help us and give us victory.

Instead of getting distraught and full of fear and worry, we need to go before God and say, "Lord, I'm believing that You will help me in this situation, and if there is something You want me to do, show me what it is."

Whatever God shows us to do about our problem, we need to be diligent to do it. Once we have done all we know to do, we can trust God with the rest. That is what I call faith and steadfastness. I often say, "Do what you can do, and God will do what you cannot do."

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

A Focused, Disciplined Mind

When we worry, we let our minds wander from the past to the present to the future, we wonder or reason about what is going to happen to us, and we lose our peace. God intends for us to keep our minds on what we are doing. To learn from the past or to make plans for the future should be something we do purposefully, and not come as the result of an unfocused or undisciplined mind. All these types of thoughts will pressure us, because they are not God's will.

The prophet Isaiah said, "You will keep in perfect and constant peace the one whose mind is steadfast [that is, committed and focused on You—in both inclination and character], because he trusts and takes refuge in You [with hope and confident expectation]" (Isa. 26:3). The writer of Proverbs stated that the good man would be satisfied with "his ways [the godly thought and action which his heart pursues and in which he delights]" (Prov. 14:14).

Do you want to be peaceful, guarded by God, and satisfied? Then realize that it begins with the thoughts that you choose to think. Your mind is connected to every feeling you have and every action you take.

If you give yourself over to worry and reasoning, your thoughts may go like this: How am I going to do everything I have to do? This is more than I can handle. Instead of worrying about the future, you could think such thoughts as, God loves me, and He will take care of everything in my future. He will give me the strength and ability to do each thing I need to do as it comes up.

“Unthinking” thoughts (thoughts we think without thinking about what we are thinking about) never go in a direction that will help us. They are useless at best and tormenting at worst. When you begin making an effort to do your own thinking, you may feel that you are trying to tame a wild animal in your mind. It will take time, patience, and help from God. Learning to choose your own thoughts also requires the wisdom to not condemn yourself when you are not successful. Guilt and condemnation steal your energy and accomplish nothing. They keep you going around and around the same mountain, so to speak. However, the person whose mind is steadfast and focused will find peace. Be encouraged that although thinking right thoughts is challenging at first, it will become easier and more natural the more you practice.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

God of perfect and constant peace, I cannot begin to tame my thoughts on my own. I commit myself to steadfastly focusing on You, and I believe that You will guard and keep my heart and mind in Christ Jesus. Amen.

But through You alone we confess Your name.

¹⁴The [wicked] dead will not live [again], the spirits of the dead will not rise and return; Therefore You have punished and destroyed them,
And You have wiped out every memory of them [every trace of them].

¹⁵You have increased the nation, O LORD;
You have increased the nation, You are glorified;
You have extended all the borders of the land.

¹⁶O LORD, they sought You in distress;
They managed only a prayerful whisper
When Your discipline was upon them.

¹⁷As a woman with child approaches the time to give birth,
She is in pain and struggles and cries out in her labor,
So we were before You, O LORD.

¹⁸We have been with child, we have twisted and struggled in labor;
We gave birth, as it seems, only to wind.
We could not accomplish salvation for the earth,
Nor were inhabitants of the world born.

¹⁹Your dead will live;
Their dead bodies will rise.
You who lie in the dust, awake and shout for joy!
For your dew is a dew of [celestial] light [heavenly, supernatural],
And the earth will give birth to the spirits of the dead. [Ezek

37:11, 12]

²⁰Come, my people, enter your chambers
And shut your doors behind you;
Hide for a little while
Until the [LORD's] wrath is past.

²¹Listen carefully, the LORD is about to come out of His [heavenly] place To punish the inhabitants of the earth for their wickedness [their sin, their injustice, their wrongdoing];
The earth will reveal the [innocent] blood shed upon her
And will no longer cover her slain.

27 IN THAT day the Lord will punish Leviathan the fleeing serpent With His fierce and great and mighty sword [rescuing Israel from her enemy],
Even Leviathan the twisted serpent;
And He will kill the dragon who lives in the sea.

²In that day [it will be said of the redeemed nation of Israel],
“A vineyard of wine, sing in praise of it!

³“I, the LORD, am its Keeper;
I water it every moment.
So that no one will harm it,
I guard it night and day.

⁴“I have no wrath.
Should anyone give Me briars and thorns in battle,
I would step on them, I would set them all on fire.

- ⁵“Or let him (Israel) cling to My strength and rely on My protection [My stronghold],
Let him make peace with Me,
Let him make peace with Me.”
- ⁶In the generations to come Jacob will take root;
Israel will blossom and sprout,
And they will fill the surface of the world with fruit. [Hos 14:1–6; Rom 11:12]
- ⁷Like the striking by Him who has struck them, has He struck them?
Or like the slaughter of His slain, have they been slain?
- ⁸You contended with them by exile, by driving them away [from Canaan];
He has expelled them with His fierce wind on the day of the east wind.
- ⁹Therefore through this the wickedness [the sin, the injustice, the wrongdoing] of Jacob (Israel) will be atoned for and forgiven; And this will be the full price [that God requires] for taking away his sin:
When Israel makes all the stones of the [pagan] altars like crushed chalk stones;
When the Asherim and the incense altars will not stand.
- ¹⁰For the fortified city is isolated,
A settlement deserted and abandoned like the desert;
There the calf will graze,
And there it will lie down and feed on its branches.
- ¹¹When its branches are dry, they are broken off;

The women come and make a fire with them.
For they are not a people of understanding,
Therefore He who made them will not have compassion on
them,
And He who created them will not be gracious to them.

¹²In that day the LORD will thresh [out His grain] from the flowing stream of the River [Euphrates] to the Brook of Egypt, and you will be gathered up one by one, O sons of Israel.

¹³It will come to pass in that day that a great trumpet will be blown, and those who were lost and perishing in the land of Assyria and who were scattered in the land of Egypt will come and worship the LORD on the holy mountain at Jerusalem.
[Zech 14:16; Matt 24:31; Rev 11:15]

28 WOE (JUDGMENT is coming) to [Samaria] the splendid crown of the drunkards of Ephraim, And to the fading flower of its glorious beauty,

Which is at the head of the rich valley
Of those who are overcome with wine!

²Listen carefully, the Lord has a strong and mighty agent
[the Assyrian];
Like a tempest of hail, a disastrous storm,
Like a tempest of mighty overflowing waters,
He has cast it down to the earth with His hand.

³The splendid crown of the drunkards of Ephraim is trampled by [the foreigners'] feet.

⁴And the fading flower of its glorious beauty,

Which is at the head of the rich valley,
Will be like the early fig before the summer,
Which one sees,
And as soon as it is in his hand
He [greedily] swallows it [and so will the Assyrians rapidly devour Samaria, Israel's capital].

⁵In that day the LORD of hosts will become a magnificent crown
And a glorious diadem to the [converted] remnant of His people,

⁶A spirit of justice for him who sits in judgment
[administering the law],
A strength to those who drive back the battle at the gate.

⁷But even these reel with wine and stagger from strong drink:
The priest and the prophet reel with strong drink;
They are confused by wine, they stagger from strong drink;
They reel while seeing visions,
They stagger when pronouncing judgment.

⁸For all the tables are full of filthy vomit, so that there is no place [that is clean.]

⁹*They say* "To whom would He teach knowledge?
And to whom would He explain the message?
Those just weaned from milk?
Those just taken from the breast?

¹⁰"For He says,
'Precept upon precept, precept upon precept,
Rule upon rule, rule upon rule,

Here a little, there a little.”

¹¹Indeed, the LORD will teach this people [in a more humiliating way]

By [men with] stammering lips and a foreign tongue,

¹²He who said to them, “This is the place of quiet, give rest to the weary,”

And, “This is the resting place,” yet they would not listen.

¹³Therefore the word of the LORD to them will be [merely monotonous repetitions]: “Precept upon precept, precept upon precept,

Rule upon rule, rule upon rule,

Here a little, there a little.”

That they may go and stumble backward, and be broken, ensnared, and taken captive.

¹⁴Therefore, hear the word of the LORD, you arrogant men Who rule this people who are in Jerusalem!

¹⁵Because you have said, “We have made a covenant with death,

And with Sheol (the place of the dead) we have made an agreement,

When the overwhelming scourge passes by, it will not reach us,

For we have made lies our refuge and we have concealed ourselves in deception.”

¹⁶Therefore the Lord GOD says this,

“Listen carefully, I am laying in Zion a Stone, a tested Stone, A precious Cornerstone for the [secure] foundation, firmly placed.

He who believes [who trusts in, relies on, and adheres to that Stone] will not be disturbed or give way [in sudden panic]. [Ps 118:22; Matt 21:42; Acts 4:11; Rom 9:33; Eph 2:20; 1 Pet 2:4–6]

¹⁷“I will make justice the measuring line
And righteousness the mason’s level;
Then hail will sweep away the refuge of lies
And waters will flood over the secret [hiding] place.

¹⁸“Your covenant with death will be annulled,
And your agreement with Sheol (the place of the dead) will not stand;
When the overwhelming scourge passes through,
Then you will become its trampling ground.

¹⁹“As often as it passes through, it will seize you;
For morning after morning it will pass through, by day and by night,
And it will be sheer terror to understand what it means.”

²⁰For the bed is too short to stretch out on,
And the blanket is too narrow to wrap around oneself [and likewise all their preparations are inadequate].

²¹For the LORD will rise up as at Mount Perazim,
He will be stirred up as in the Valley of Gibeon,
To do His work, His unusual and incredible work,
And to accomplish His work, His extraordinary work. [2 Sam 5:20; 1 Chr 14:16]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I thank You, Lord, that You have made Your counsel wonderful and Your wisdom great toward me.

• adapted from Isaiah 28:29

- ²²Now do not carry on as scoffers,
Or the bands which bind you will be made stronger;
For I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts [a decree]
Of decisive destruction on all the earth.
- ²³Listen and hear my voice;
Listen carefully and hear my words.
- ²⁴Does the farmer plow all day to plant seed?
Does he continually dig furrows and harrow his ground [after it is prepared]?
- ²⁵When he has leveled its surface,
Does he not sow [the seed of] dill and scatter cumin,

- And plant wheat in rows,
And barley in its [intended] place and rye within its border?
²⁶For his God instructs [him correctly] and teaches him properly.
²⁷For dill is not threshed with a sharp threshing sledge,
Nor is a cartwheel rolled over cumin;
But dill is beaten out with a staff, and cumin with a rod.
²⁸Bread grain is crushed fine,
Indeed, the farmer does not continue to thresh it forever.
Because the wheel of his cart and his horses eventually damage it,
He does not thresh it longer.
²⁹This also comes from the LORD of hosts,
Who has made His counsel wonderful and His wisdom great.

29 WOE (JUDGMENT is coming) to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David [once] camped!

Add yet another year; let the feasts run their course [but only one year more].

²Then I will harass Ariel,
And she will be a city of mourning and lamenting (crying out in grief)

Yet she will be like an Ariel [an altar hearth] to Me.

³I will camp against you and encircle you,
And I will hem you in with siege works,
And I will raise fortifications against you.

⁴Then you [Jerusalem] will be brought low,
You will speak from the earth,
And from the dust where you lie face down
Your muffled words will come.
Your voice will also be like that of a spirit from the earth [like one produced by a medium],
And your speech will whisper and squeak from the dust.

⁵But the multitude of your enemies [that assault you] will become like fine dust, And the multitude of the tyrants like the chaff which blows away;
And it will happen in an instant, suddenly [that your enemy is destroyed].

⁶You will be punished by the LORD of hosts with thunder and earthquake and great noise, With whirlwind and tempest and the flame of a consuming fire.

⁷And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel
(Jerusalem),
Even all who fight against her and her stronghold, and who distress her,
Will be like a dream, a vision of the night.

⁸It will be as when a hungry man dreams
That he is eating,
But when he awakens, his hunger is not satisfied;
Or as when a thirsty man dreams
That he is drinking,
But when he awakens, in fact, he is faint
And his thirst is not quenched.

So will the multitude of all the nations be
Who fight against Mount Zion.

⁹Stop and take some time and wonder [at this prophecy], Blind yourselves and be blinded [at its fulfillment by your spiritual incompetence].

They are drunk, but not from wine;
They stagger, but not from strong drink.

¹⁰For the LORD has poured over you a spirit of deep sleep.
He has closed your eyes, [you who are] the prophets;
And He has covered your heads, [you who are] the seers.

¹¹The entire vision [of all these things] will be to you like the words of a scroll that is sealed, which they give to one who can read, saying, "Read this, please," he shall say, "I cannot,
for it is sealed."

¹²Then the book will be given to the one who cannot read, saying, "Read this, please." And he will say, "I cannot read."

¹³Then the Lord said,

"Because this nation approaches [Me only] with their words

And honors Me [only] with their lip service,
But they remove their hearts far from Me,

And their reverence for Me is a tradition that is learned by rote [without any regard for its meaning], ¹⁴Therefore, listen carefully, I will again do marvelous and amazing things with this people, wonderful and astonishing things; And the wisdom of their wise men will perish,

And the understanding of their discerning men will be hidden.”

¹⁵Woe (judgment is coming) to those who [try to] deeply hide their plans from the LORD, Whose deeds are done in a dark place,

And who say, “Who sees us?” or “Who knows us?”

¹⁶You turn things upside down [with your perversity]!
Shall the potter be considered equal with the clay,
That the thing that is made would say to its maker, “He did not make me”;

Or the thing that is formed say to him who formed it, “He has no understanding”?

¹⁷Is it not yet a very little while
Until Lebanon will be turned into a fertile field,
And the fertile field regarded as a forest?

¹⁸On that day the deaf will hear the words of a book,
And out of their gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind will see [the words of the book].

¹⁹The afflicted also will increase their joy in the LORD,
And the needy of mankind will rejoice and celebrate in the Holy One of Israel.

²⁰For the tyrant will come to an end and the scorner will be finished,

Indeed all who are intent on doing evil will be cut off—

²¹Those who cause a person to be condemned with a [false] word,

And lay a trap for him who upholds justice at the [city] gate,
And defraud the one in the right with meaningless arguments.

²²Therefore, the LORD, who redeemed Abraham [from paganism] says this, concerning the house of Jacob (Israel): “Jacob will not be ashamed, nor will his face turn pale [with disappointment because of his children’s degenerate behavior]; ²³For when he sees his children, the work of My hands, in his midst,
They will sanctify My Name;
They will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob
And will stand in awe and reverent fear of the God of Israel.
²⁴“Those who err in mind will know the truth,
And those who criticize and murmur discontentedly will accept instruction.

30 “WOE (JUDGMENT is coming) to the rebellious children,” declares the LORD, “Who carry out a plan, but not Mine,
And make an alliance [by pouring out a libation], but not of My Spirit,
In order to add sin to sin;
²Who proceed down to Egypt
Without consulting Me,
To take refuge in the stronghold of Pharaoh
And to take shelter in the shadow of Egypt!
³“Therefore the safety and protection of Pharaoh will be your shame
And the refuge in the shadow of Egypt, your humiliation and disgrace.

⁴“For his princes are at Zoan

And his ambassadors arrive at Hanes [in Egypt].

⁵“All will be ashamed because of a people (the Egyptians) who cannot benefit them,

Who are not a help or benefit, but a shame and also a disgrace.”

⁶A [mournful, inspired] oracle (a burden to be carried) concerning the beasts of the Negev (the South): Through a land of trouble and anguish,

From where come lioness and lion, viper and [fiery] flying serpent,

They carry their riches on the shoulders of young donkeys
And their treasures on the humps of camels,
To a people (Egyptians) who cannot benefit them.

⁷For Egypt’s help is worthless and good for nothing.

Therefore, I have called her

“Rahab Who Has Been Exterminated.”

⁸Now, go, write it on a tablet before them

And inscribe it on a scroll,

So that it may serve in the time to come

As a witness [against them] forevermore.

⁹For this is a rebellious people, lying sons,

Sons who refuse to listen to

The law and instruction of the LORD;

¹⁰Who say to the seers, “You must not see visions from God”;

And to the prophets, “You must not prophesy to us what is right!

Speak to us pleasant things and smooth words,
Prophesy [deceitful] illusions [that we will enjoy].

¹¹“Get out of the [true] way, turn aside from the path [of God], Stop bothering us with the Holy One of Israel.”

¹²Therefore, the Holy One of Israel says this,

“Because you have refused and rejected this word [of Mine]

And have put your trust in oppression and guile, and have relied on them,

¹³Therefore this wickedness [this sin, this injustice, this wrongdoing] will be to you Like a crack [in a wall] about to fall,

A bulge in a high wall,
Whose collapse comes suddenly in an instant,

¹⁴“Whose collapse is like the smashing of a potter’s jar, Crushed so savagely
that there cannot be found among its pieces a potsherd [large enough]

To take [coals of] fire from a fireplace,
Or to scoop water from a cistern.”

¹⁵For the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel has said this,

“In returning [to Me] and rest you shall be saved,
In quietness and confident trust is your strength.”
But you were not willing,

¹⁶And you said, “No! We will flee on horses!”

Therefore you will flee [from your enemies]!
And [you said], “We will ride on swift horses!”
Therefore those who pursue you shall be swift.

POWERPOINT

Isaiah 30:18 is one of my favorite scriptures. God is waiting expectantly and longing to show you His goodness. This is why you can happily and confidently expect good in your life. It isn't something God is begrudgingly agreeing to do; it is something He loves to do. Jesus died so you may "have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance [to the full, till it overflows]" (John 10:10). Don't go through life with negative thoughts or with a bad attitude. Decide to have a good attitude, expecting good things from the Lord, because He is good!

¹⁷ A thousand of you will flee at the threat of one man;
You will flee at the threat of five,

Until you are left like a flag on the top of a mountain,
And like a signal on a hill.

¹⁸Therefore the LORD waits [expectantly] and longs to be gracious to you, And therefore He waits on high to have compassion on you.

For the LORD is a God of justice;

Blessed (happy, fortunate) are all those who long for Him
[since He will never fail them]. [John 14:3, 27; 2 Cor 12:9;
Heb 12:2; 1 John 3:16; Rev 3:5]

¹⁹O people in Zion, inhabitant in Jerusalem, you will weep no longer. He will most certainly be gracious to you at the sound of your cry for help; when He hears it, He will answer
you.

²⁰Though the Lord gives you the bread of adversity and the water of oppression, yet your Teacher will no longer hide Himself, but your eyes will [constantly] see your Teacher.

²¹Your ears will hear a word behind you, “This is the way, walk in it,” whenever you turn to the right or to the left.

²²And you will defile your carved images overlaid with silver, and your cast images plated with gold. You will scatter them like a bloodstained cloth, and will say to them, “Be gone!”

²³Then He will give you rain for the seed with which you sow the ground, and bread [grain] from the produce of the ground, and it will be rich and plentiful. In that day your livestock will graze in large and roomy pastures.

²⁴Also the oxen and the young donkeys that work the ground will eat salted fodder, which has been winnowed with shovel and pitchfork.

²⁵On every lofty mountain and on every high hill there will be streams of water on the day of the great slaughter (the day of the LORD), when the towers fall [and all His enemies are destroyed].

²⁶The light of the full moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter; like the light of seven days [concentrated in one], in the day the LORD binds up the fracture of His people and heals the wound He has inflicted [because of their sins].

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

God Waits and Longs To Bless You

Isaiah says, “Therefore the LORD waits [expectantly] and longs to be gracious to you, and therefore He waits on high to have compassion on you. For the LORD is a God of justice; blessed (happy, fortunate) are all those who long for Him [since He will never fail them]” (Isa. 30:18).

God waits and longs for us. That promise staggers my mind. The Creator of the universe and the Giver of all life has chosen to wait for us—waits for us to respond to His love, waits for us to turn to Him for help. God wants to show us love.

Perhaps as much as anywhere else, Satan attempts to build a mental stronghold right there. When we try to contemplate God’s love for us, many of us can’t take it in. We can only think of our failures, our shortcomings, and all the other reasons God shouldn’t love and bless us. If we were to read, “God wants to punish you,” we wouldn’t have any trouble saying, “Yes, that’s what I deserve.”

How would we respond if someone said, “God wants to bless you”? We would probably answer, “I don’t deserve that,” and we would be right, we don’t “deserve” it, but God wants us to receive it and be thankful.

We want God to love us, encourage us, bless us, and give us victory, but He cannot unless we are willing to receive them by faith.

Our tendency is to think we have to do something to earn God's blessings... that we have to be good enough or faithful enough. We miss the point of God's powerful, gracious love. Our blessings from God are not the result of our goodness. They are the result of God's goodness.

We are entitled to God's blessings for only one reason: because we are His children. It's just that simple. Those of us who are parents grasp that concept with regard to our children. They don't always deserve our love, our protection, and all the good things we choose to give them, but we want them to have them simply because they are our children.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Gracious Father, help me to receive everything You want me to have, not because I deserve it, but because You are good! Amen.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

You Can Hear from God

God speaks in a still, small voice, or as “the sound of a gentle blowing” (see 1 Kin. 19:12). If you want to hear from Him, create a quiet, peaceful, strife-free atmosphere, and set apart regular time to fellowship with Him there. He may not always speak in the way you might think that He would, but don’t get discouraged—God will lead you. “Your ears will hear a word behind you, ‘This is the way, walk in it’” (Isa. 30:21).

God rarely lets us in on His entire plan at the beginning. Obey what you sense in your heart to do right now, and when He is ready, He will show you the next step. As you do, you will find your sensitivity to God’s voice increasing. He will speak to you, and you will hear from Him. God speaks in many different ways. Through prayer and the study of His Word we can learn to be sensitive to His voice.

²⁷Now look, the name of the LORD comes from far away,
Burning with His anger, and heavy with smoke;
His lips are full of indignation,
And His tongue is like a consuming fire.

²⁸His breath is like an overflowing river,
Which reaches to the neck,
To sift the nations back and forth in a sieve [of disaster],
And to put in the jaws of the peoples the bridle which leads to ruin.

- ²⁹You will have a song as in the night when a holy feast is kept,
And joy of heart as when one marches [in procession] with a flute,
To go to the [temple on the] mountain of the LORD, to the Rock of Israel.
- ³⁰And the LORD will make His majestic voice heard,
And show the descending of His arm [striking] in [His] fierce anger,
And in the flame of a devouring fire,
In the crashing sound of heavy rain, cloudburst, and hailstones.
- ³¹For at the voice of the LORD the Assyrians will be terrified,
When He strikes [them] with the rod.
- ³²And every blow of the rod of punishment,
Which the LORD will lay on them,
Will be to the music of Israel's tambourines and lyres;
And in battles, brandishing weapons, He will fight Assyria.
- ³³For Topheth [in Hinnom] has long been ready;
Indeed, it has been prepared for the [Assyrian] king.
He has made it deep and wide,
A pit of fire with plenty of wood;
The breath of the LORD, like a river of brimstone (blazing sulfur), kindles and fans it. [Jer 7:31, 32; Matt 5:22; 25:41]

31 WOE (JUDGMENT is coming) to those who go down to

Egypt for help, Who rely on horses
And trust in chariots because they are many,
And in horsemen because they are very strong,
But they do not look to the Holy One of Israel, nor seek and
consult the LORD!

POWERPOINT

I have never discovered precisely what “woe” is, but I know I don’t want any of it (see Isa. 31:1). Woe is obviously a sorrowful thing; it is trouble and misery. When we seek God, we have peace and joy, so why would we choose “woe” by seeking the things of this world?

- ²Yet He is also wise and will bring disaster,
And does not retract His words,
But will arise against the house of evildoers
And against the helpers of those who do evil.
- ³Now the Egyptians are men and not God,
And their horses are flesh and not spirit;
And the LORD will stretch out His hand,
And he (Egypt) who helps will stumble,
And he (Judah) who is helped will fall,
And all of them will perish together.

⁴For so the LORD says to me,

“As the lion or the young lion growls over his prey,
And though a large group of shepherds is called out against him

He will not be terrified at their voice nor cringe at their noise,

So the LORD of hosts will come down to wage war on Mount Zion and on its hill.”

⁵Like flying birds, so will the LORD of hosts protect
Jerusalem;

He will protect and save it,

He will pass over and rescue it.

⁶Return to Him from whom you have so deeply defected, O sons of Israel.

⁷For in that day every man will reject and throw away his idols of silver and his idols of gold [in disgust], which your own hands have sinfully made for you.

⁸Then the Assyrian will fall by a sword not of man,

And a sword not of man will devour him.

And he will flee from the sword [of God],

And his young men will become forced labor.

⁹“His rock [his stronghold] will pass away because of panic,
And his princes will be terrified at the [sight of the battle] standard,”

Declares the LORD, whose fire is in Zion and whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

32 BEHOLD, A King will reign in righteousness, And princes will rule with justice.

²Each [one of them] will be like a hiding place from the wind
And a shelter from the storm,
Like streams of water in a dry land,
Like the shade of a huge rock in a parched and weary land
[to those who turn to them].

³Then the eyes of those who see will not be blinded,
And the ears of those who hear will listen attentively.

⁴The heart (mind) of those who act impulsively will discern the truth,
And the tongue of the stammerers will hurry to speak clearly.

⁵The fool (the good-for-nothing) will no longer be called noble,
Nor the rogue said to be generous.

⁶For the fool speaks nonsense,
And his heart (mind) plans wickedness:
To practice ungodliness and to speak error concerning the LORD,
To keep the craving of the hungry unsatisfied
And to deprive the thirsty of drink.

⁷As for the rogue, his weapons are evil;
He conceives wicked plans

Speak God's Word

With God's help, my mind will conceive noble and magnificent things, and I will stand by what is noble and magnificent.

| adapted from ISAIAH 32:8 |

To ruin the poor with lies,
Even when the plea of the needy one is just and right.

⁸But the noble man conceives noble and magnificent things;
And he stands by what is noble and magnificent.

⁹Rise up, you women who are carefree,
And hear my voice,
You confident and unsuspecting daughters!
Listen to what I am saying.

¹⁰In little more than a year
You will tremble [with anxiety], you unsuspecting and complacent women;
For the vintage has ended,
And the harvest will not come.

¹¹Tremble, you women who are carefree;

Tremble with fear, you complacent ones!

Strip, undress and wear sackcloth on your waist [in grief],

¹²Beat your breasts [in mourning] for the beautiful fields, for the fruitful vine,

¹³For the land of my people growing over with thorns and briars—

Yes, [mourn] for all the houses of joy in the joyous city.

¹⁴For the palace has been abandoned, the populated city deserted;

POWERPOINT

As believers, we are spiritual and we are also natural. The natural does not always understand the spiritual; therefore, it is necessary for our mind to be enlightened concerning what is going on in our spirit. The Holy Spirit desires to bring us this enlightenment, but the mind often misses what the Spirit is trying to reveal because it is too busy. A mind that is too busy is not God's will. The mind is normal when it is at peace and rest, quiet and confident (see Isa. 32:17).

The hill [of the city] and the watchtower have become caves [for wild animals] forever,
A delight for wild donkeys, a pasture for flocks,

- ¹⁵Until the Spirit is poured out upon us from on high,
And the wilderness becomes a fertile field,
And the fertile field is valued as a forest. [Ps 104:30; Ezek 36:26, 27; 39:29; Zech 12:10]
- ¹⁶Then justice will dwell in the wilderness,
And righteousness will live in the fertile field.
- ¹⁷And the effect of righteousness will be peace,
And the result of righteousness will be quietness and confident trust forever.
- ¹⁸Then my people will live in a peaceful surrounding,
And in secure dwellings and in undisturbed resting places.
- ¹⁹But it will hail, when the forest comes down,
And the [capital] city will fall in utter humiliation.
- ²⁰Blessed (happy, fortunate) are you who cast your seed upon all waters [when the river overflows its banks and irrigates the land], You who allow the ox and the donkey to roam freely.

33 WOE (JUDGMENT is coming) to you, O destroyer, You who were not destroyed,
And he who is treacherous, while others did not deal treacherously with him.
As soon as you finish destroying, you will be destroyed;
As soon as you stop dealing treacherously, others will deal treacherously with you.

²O LORD, be gracious to us; we have waited [expectantly] for

You.

Be the arm of Your servants every morning [that is, their strength and their defense],

Our salvation also in the time of trouble.

³At the sound of the tumult, the peoples flee;

At the lifting up of Yourself nations scatter.

⁴Your spoil [of Israel's foe] is gathered [by the people of Jerusalem] as the caterpillar gathers;

As locusts swarming so people swarm on it.

⁵The LORD is exalted, for He dwells on high;

He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness.

⁶And He will be the security and stability of your times,

A treasure of salvation, wisdom and knowledge;

The fear of the LORD is your treasure.

⁷Now look, their brave men shout outside;

The ambassadors [seeking a treaty] of peace weep bitterly.

⁸The highways are deserted, the traveler has ceased [to appear].

The enemy has broken the covenant, he has rejected the cities,

He has no regard for [any] man.

⁹The land mourns and dries out,

Lebanon is shamed and [its lush foliage] withers;

Sharon is like a desert plain,

And Bashan and [Mount] Carmel shake off their leaves.

¹⁰"Now I will arise," says the LORD.

"Now I will be exalted; now I will be lifted up.

¹¹“You have conceived dried grass, you will give birth to stubble;

My breath is a fire that will consume you.

¹²“The peoples will be burned to lime,

Like thorns cut down which are burned in the fire.

¹³“You who are far away, hear what I have done;

And you who are near, acknowledge My might.”

¹⁴The sinners in Zion are terrified;

Trembling has seized the godless.

[They cry] “Who among us can live with the consuming fire?

Who among us can live with everlasting burning?”

¹⁵He who walks righteously and speaks with integrity,

Who rejects gain from fraud and from oppression,

Who shakes his hand free from the taking of bribes,

Who stops his ears from hearing about bloodshed

And shuts his eyes to avoid looking upon evil;

¹⁶He will dwell on the heights,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Living with Integrity

Integrity as personified in Isaiah 33:15 is vitally important to our walk with God. People with integrity take responsibility for their actions. They keep their commitments instead of making excuses for not keeping them. They do what they tell people they are going to do, and, if for some reason they absolutely cannot, they contact the person, give an explanation (not an excuse), and ask to be released from the commitment. We expect God to keep His promises, and He expects us to keep ours.

Since God has given us the “wide band of truth (personal integrity, moral courage)” (Eph. 6:14), let us put it on and do battle against the enemy of deceit. Let us all choose to do right and trust God to honor our decisions.

His place of defense will be the fortress of rocks,
His bread will be given him;
His water will be permanent.

¹⁷Your eyes will see the King in His beauty;
They will see a far-distant land.

¹⁸Your mind will meditate on the terror [asking]:
“Where is he who counts?
Where is he who weighs [the tribute]?”

Where is he who counts the towers?"

¹⁹You will no longer see the fierce and insolent people,
A people of unintelligible speech which no one comprehends,
Of a strange and stammering tongue which no one understands.

²⁰Look upon Zion, the city of our appointed feasts and observances;
Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a undisturbed settlement,
A tent which will not be taken down;
Not one of its stakes will ever be pulled up,
Nor any of its ropes be severed.

²¹But there the mighty and magnificent LORD will be for us
A place of broad rivers and streams,
Where no oar-driven boat will go,
And on which no mighty and stately ship will pass.

²²For the LORD is our Judge,
The LORD is our Ruler,
The LORD is our King;
He will save us. [Is 2:3, 4; 11:4; 32:1; James 4:12]

²³Your ship's ropes (tackle) hang loose;
They cannot hold the base of their mast firmly,
Nor spread out the sail.
Then an abundance of spoil and plunder will be divided;
Even the lame will take the plunder.

²⁴And no inhabitant [of Zion] will say, "I am sick";

Speak God's Word

The Lord is my Judge, my Ruler, and my King. He will save me.

| adapted from ISAIAH 33:22 |

The people who dwell there will be forgiven their wickedness [their sin, their injustice, their wrongdoing].

34 COME NEAR, you nations, to hear; and listen, O peoples!

Let the earth and all that is in it hear, and the world and all that comes forth from it.

²For the LORD is angry at all the nations,
And His wrath is against all their armies;
He has utterly doomed them,
He has given them over to slaughter.

³So their slain will be thrown out,
And the stench of their corpses will rise,
And the mountains will flow with their blood.

⁴All the host of heaven will be dissolved,
And the skies will be rolled up like a scroll;

All their hosts [the stars and the planets] will also wither
away

As a leaf withers from the vine,

And as a fig withers from the fig tree. [Rev 6:13, 14]

⁵For My sword is satiated [with blood] in heaven;

Indeed, it will come down for judgment on Edom

And on the people whom I have doomed for destruction.

[Obad 8–21]

⁶The sword of the LORD is filled with blood [from sacrifices],

It drips with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats,

With the fat of the kidneys of rams.

For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah (Edom's capital city)

And a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

⁷Wild oxen will also fall with them

And the young bulls with the strong bulls;

And their land will be soaked with blood,

And their dust made greasy with fat.

⁸For the LORD has a day of vengeance,

A year of retribution for the cause of Zion.

⁹The streams [of Edom] will be turned into pitch,

And its dust into brimstone,

And its land will become burning pitch.

¹⁰The burning will not be quenched night or day;

Its smoke will go up forever.

From generation to generation it will lie in ruins;

No one will ever again pass through it. [Rev 19:3]

¹¹But the pelican and the porcupine will take possession of it;

The owl and the raven will dwell in it.

And He will stretch over it (Edom) the measuring line of desolation

And the plumb line of emptiness.

¹²Its nobles—there is no one there
Whom they may proclaim king—
And all its princes will be nothing.

¹³Thorns will come up in its fortified palaces,
Nettles and brambles in its fortified cities;
It will be a haunt for jackals,
An abode for ostriches.

¹⁴The creatures of the desert will encounter jackals
And the hairy goat will call to its kind;
Indeed, Lilith (night demon) will settle there
And find herself a place of rest.

¹⁵There the arrow snake will make her nest and lay her eggs,
And hatch them and gather her young under her protection;
Indeed, the birds of prey will be gathered there [to breed],
Every one with its own kind.

¹⁶Seek from the book of the LORD, and read:

Not one of these [creatures] will be missing;
None will lack its mate.
For His mouth has commanded,
And His Spirit has gathered them.

¹⁷The LORD has cast the lot for them,
And His hand has divided and apportioned Edom to the wild beasts by measuring-line.
They will possess it forever;

From generation to generation they will dwell in it.

35 THE WILDERNESS and the dry land will be glad; The Arabah (desert) will shout in exultation and blossom
Like the autumn crocus.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Encourage Someone Today

There are people who are gifted by God with a special ability to encourage others (see Rom. 12:6–8). However, if encouraging others is not what you might consider your particular gift, you are still responsible to do it. God's Word teaches that we are to encourage one another daily!

We have been entrusted with a great power. When we encourage others, it builds them up and makes them strong (see 1 Thess. 5:11). However, without that encouragement they might become weary and give up on something they need to finish (see Isa. 35:3).

God is “the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort” (2 Cor. 1:3). Since God is an encourager, we should also be encouragers. Anytime you do what God does, be assured you are doing the things that are right, that will produce joy, peace, and power for your life.

²It will blossom abundantly
And rejoice with joy and singing.
The glory of Lebanon will be given to it,
The majesty of [Mount] Carmel and [the plain] of Sharon.
They will see the glory of the LORD,
The majesty and splendor of our God.

³Encourage the exhausted, and make staggering knees firm.
[Heb 12:12]

⁴Say to those with an anxious and panic-stricken heart,
“Be strong, fear not!
Indeed, your God will come with vengeance [for the
ungodly];
The retribution of God will come,
But He will save you.”

⁵Then the eyes of the blind will be opened
And the ears of the deaf will be unstopped.

⁶Then the lame will leap like a deer,
And the tongue of the mute will shout for joy.
For waters will break forth in the wilderness
And streams in the desert. [Matt 11:5]

⁷And the burning sand (mirage) will become a pool [of water]
And the thirsty ground springs of water;
In the haunt of jackals, where they lay resting,
Grass becomes reeds and rushes.

⁸A highway will be there, and a roadway;
And it will be called the Holy Way.
The unclean will not travel on it,
But it will be for those who walk on the way [the redeemed];
And fools will not wander on it.

⁹No lion will be there,
Nor will any predatory animal come up on it;
They will not be found there.
But the redeemed will walk there.

¹⁰ And the ransomed of the LORD will return
And come to Zion with shouts of jubilation,
And everlasting joy will be upon their heads;
They will find joy and gladness,
And sorrow and sighing will flee away.

36 NOW IN the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and conquered them. [2 Kin 18:13, 17–37; 2 Chr 32:9–19]

² And the king of Assyria sent the Rabshakeh [his military commander] from Lachish [the Judean fortress commanding the road from Egypt] to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem with a large army. And he stood by the canal of the Upper Pool on the highway to the Fuller's Field.

³ Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the [royal] household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recording historian, came out to [meet] him.

⁴ Then the Rabshakeh said to them, "Say to Hezekiah, 'This is what the great king, the king of Assyria says, "What is [the reason for] this confidence that you have?"

⁵ "I say, 'Your plan and strength for the war are only empty words.' Now in whom do you trust and on whom do you rely, that you have rebelled against me? [2 Kin 18:7]

⁶ "Listen carefully, you rely on the staff of this broken reed, Egypt, which will pierce the hand of any man who leans on it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who rely on him.

⁷ "But if you say to me, 'We trust in and rely on the LORD

our God,' is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, saying to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar'? [2 Kin 18:4, 5]

⁸"So now, exchange pledges with my master the king of Assyria and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to put riders on them.

⁹"How then can you repulse [the attack of] a single commander of the least of my master's servants, and rely on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

¹⁰"Moreover, is it without the LORD that I have now come up against this land to destroy it? The LORD said to me, 'Go up against this land and destroy it.'""

¹¹Then Eliakim and Shebna and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please, speak to your servants in Aramaic, because we understand it; and do not speak to us in Judean (Hebrew) in the hearing of the people who are [stationed] on the wall."

¹²But the Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me to speak these words only to your master and to you, and not to the men sitting on the wall, doomed to eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?"

¹³Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out with a loud voice in Judean (Hebrew): "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

¹⁴"This is what the king says, 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to rescue you;

¹⁵nor let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, 'The LORD will most certainly rescue us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'"

¹⁶‘Do not listen to Hezekiah,’ for this is what the king of Assyria says, ‘Make peace with me and come out to me, and each one of you will eat from his own vine and each from his own fig tree and each [one of you] drink from the water of his own cistern, ¹⁷until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

¹⁸‘Beware that Hezekiah does not mislead you by saying, “The LORD will rescue us.” Has any one of the gods of the nations [ever] rescued his land from the hand of the king of Assyria?

¹⁹‘Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad [in Aram]? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? And when have they rescued Samaria from my hand?

²⁰‘Who among all the gods of these lands have rescued their land from my hand, that [you should think that] the LORD would rescue Jerusalem from my hand?’”

²¹But they kept silent and did not say a word to him in reply, for King Hezekiah’s command was, “Do not answer him.”

²²Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the household, and Shebna the scribe and Joah the son of Asaph, the recording historian, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn [in grief], and told him the words of the Rabshakeh [the Assyrian commander].

37 AND WHEN King Hezekiah heard this, he tore his clothes and covered himself with sackcloth and went into the house of the LORD. [2 Kin 19:1–13]

²Then he sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the [royal] household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.

³They said to him, “This is what Hezekiah says, ‘This day is a day of distress, rebuke and disgrace; for children have come to birth, and there is no strength to deliver them.

⁴‘It may be that the LORD your God will hear the words of the Rabshakeh [the commander], whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to taunt and defy the living God, and will avenge the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore, offer a prayer for the remnant [of His people] that is left.’”

⁵So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

⁶Isaiah said to them, “You shall say the following to your master: ‘This is what the LORD says, “Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me.

⁷“Listen carefully, I will put a spirit in him so that he will hear a rumor and return to his own land. And I will make him fall by the sword in his own land.’”

⁸So the Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah [a fortified city of Judah], for he had heard that the king had left Lachish.

⁹And Sennacherib king of Assyria, heard them say concerning Tirhakah king of Cush (Ethiopia), “He has come out to fight against you.” And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰“You shall say to Hezekiah king of Judah, ‘Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, “Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.”

¹¹“Listen carefully, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, utterly destroying them. So will you be rescued?

¹²“Did the gods of the nations which my fathers destroyed rescue them—Gozan, Haran [of Mesopotamia], Rezech, and the sons of Eden who were in Telassar?

¹³“Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad [of northern Syria], the king of the city of Sepharvaim, [the king of] Hena, or [the king of] Ivvah?”

¹⁴Then Hezekiah took the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it, and he went up to the house of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD. [2 Kin 19:14–19]

¹⁵And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD saying,

¹⁶“O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, who is enthroned above the cherubim, You are the God, You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.

¹⁷“Incline Your ear, O LORD, and hear; open Your eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib that he has sent to taunt and defy the living God.

¹⁸“It is true, O LORD, that the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the countries and their lands, ¹⁹and have cast the gods [of those peoples] into the fire, for they were not gods but the work of men’s hands, wood and stone. Therefore they have destroyed them.

²⁰“Now, O LORD our God, save us from his hand so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know and fully realize that You alone, LORD, are God.”

²¹Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent word to Hezekiah, saying, “For the LORD, the God of Israel says this, ‘Because you have prayed to Me about Sennacherib king of Assyria, [2 Kin 19:20–
37; 2 Chr 32:20, 21]

²²this is the word that the LORD has spoken against him:

“She has shown contempt for you and mocked you,
The Virgin Daughter of Zion (Jerusalem);
She has shaken her head behind you,
The Daughter of Jerusalem!

²³“Whom have you taunted and blasphemed?
And against whom have you raised your voice
And haughtily lifted up your eyes?
Against the Holy One of Israel!

²⁴“Through your servants you have taunted and defied the
Lord,
And you have said, ‘With my many chariots I have gone up to the heights of the mountains,
To the remotest parts of Lebanon.
I cut down its tallest cedars and its choicest cypress trees;
And I will go to its remotest height, its most luxuriant and thickest forest.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

The Power of God's Word

When the Assyrian commander Rabshakeh defied “the Holy One of Israel,” it was not the army of Hezekiah that defeated this great army. It was the power of God's Word delivered through Isaiah (see Isa. 37:21–36).

Second Corinthians 10:4–5 teaches us that casting down imaginations, thoughts, reasoning, and theories not in agreement with God's Word requires us to use our spiritual weapons, not physical. When we speak the Word of God out of our mouth, it becomes a two-edged sword (see Heb. 4:12)—defeating the enemy with one edge and opening the blessings of heaven with the other. There are many other defensive weapons protecting us from attack, but the Word is offensive—it defeats the enemy.

Like any principle in God's Word, simply knowing this information doesn't change anything. Faith needs to be active. It must be released. We can release God's Word through prayer; confessing His Word out loud, and taking God-inspired action.

25‘I dug wells and drank [foreign] waters,
And with the sole of my feet I dried up
All the canals [of the Nile] of Egypt.’

26“Have you not heard [says the God of Israel]

That I did it long ago,
That I planned it in ancient times?
Now I have brought it to pass,
That you [king of Assyria] would [be My instrument to] turn fortified cities into ruinous heaps.

27“Therefore their inhabitants had little power,
They were terrorized and shamed;
They were like the grass of the field and the green vegetation,
Like grass on the housetops and like a field [of grain] scorched before it is grown.

28“But I know your sitting down
And your going out and your coming in [every detail of your life],
And your raging against Me.

29“Because your raging against Me
And your arrogance has come up to My ears,
I will put My hook in your nose
And My bridle in your mouth,
And I will turn you back by the way you came.

30“This shall be the sign [of these things] to you [Hezekiah]: you are to eat this year what grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs from the same, and in the third year you are to sow and harvest, and plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

31“The surviving remnant of the house of Judah will again take root downward and bear fruit upward.

32“For out of Jerusalem will come a remnant and from Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.” ’

³³“Therefore, the LORD says this concerning the king of Assyria, ‘He will not come into this city or shoot an arrow there, or come before it with shield, or raise an assault ramp against it.

³⁴‘By the way that he came, by the same way he will return, and he will not come into this city,’ declares the LORD.

³⁵‘For I will defend this city to save it, for My own sake and for the sake of My servant David.’”

³⁶And the angel of the LORD went out and struck 185,000 in the camp of the Assyrians; and when the [surviving] men got up early the next morning, they saw all the dead. [2 Kin 19:35]

³⁷So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and returned and lived at Nineveh.

³⁸It came to pass as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons killed him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat [in Armenia]. And Esarhaddon his son became king in his place.

38 IN THOSE days Hezekiah [king of Judah] became sick and was at the point of death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him and said, “For the LORD says this, ‘Set your house in order and prepare a will, for you shall die; you will not live.’” [2 Kin 20:1–11; 2 Chr 32:24–26]

²Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD,

³and said, “Please, O LORD, just remember how I have walked before You in faithfulness and truth, and with a whole heart [absolutely devoted to You], and have done what is good in Your sight.” And Hezekiah wept greatly.

⁴Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah, saying,

⁵“Go and say to Hezekiah, ‘For the LORD, the God of David your father says this, “I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; listen carefully, I will add fifteen years to your life.

⁶“I will rescue you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city [Jerusalem].” ’

⁷“This shall be the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that He has spoken: ⁸“Listen carefully, I will turn the shadow on the stairway [denoting the time of day] ten steps backward, the shadow on the stairway (sundial) of Ahaz.” And the sunlight went ten steps backward on the stairway where it had [previously] gone down.

⁹*This is the* writing of Hezekiah king of Judah after he had been sick and had recovered from his illness: ¹⁰I said, “In mid-life

I am to go through the gates of Sheol (the place of the dead),

I am to be summoned, deprived of the remainder of my years.”

¹¹I said, “I will not see the LORD

The LORD in the land of the living;

I will no longer see man among the inhabitants of the world.

¹²“My dwelling (body) is pulled up and removed from me like a shepherd’s tent;

I have rolled up my life as a weaver [rolls up the finished web].

He cuts me free from the warp [of the loom];

From day to night You bring me to an end.

¹³“I lay down until morning.

Like a lion, so He breaks all my bones;

From day until night You bring me to an end.

¹⁴“Like a swallow, like a crane, so I chirp;

I coo like a dove.

My eyes look wistfully upward;

O Lord, I am oppressed, take my side and be my security.

¹⁵“What shall I say?

For He has spoken to me, and He Himself has done it;

I will wander aimlessly all my years because of the bitterness of my soul.

¹⁶“O Lord, by these things men live,

And in all these is the life of my spirit;

Restore me to health and let me live!

¹⁷“Indeed, it was for my own well-being that I had such bitterness;

But You have loved back my life from the pit of nothingness (destruction),

For You have cast all my sins behind Your back.

¹⁸“For Sheol cannot praise or thank You,

Death cannot praise You and rejoice in You;

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*I am grateful, Lord, that You have loved back my life from the pit of destruction, and You have cast all my sins behind
Your back.*

• adapted from Isaiah 38:17

Those who go down to the pit cannot hope for Your faithfulness.

¹⁹“It is the living who give praise and thanks to You, as I do today;

A father tells his sons about Your faithfulness.

²⁰“The LORD is ready to save me;

Therefore we will play my songs on stringed instruments
All the days of our lives at the house of the LORD.”

²¹Now Isaiah had said, “Have them take a cake of figs and rub it [as an ointment] on the inflamed spot, that he may recover.”

²²Hezekiah also had said, “What is the sign that I will go up to the house of the LORD?”

39 AT THAT time Merodach-baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent [messengers with] letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he had heard that he had been sick and had recovered. [2 Kin 20:12–19]

²Hezekiah was pleased and showed them his treasure house—the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious oil, his entire armory and everything that was found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his house nor in all his area of dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.

³Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and asked, “What did these men say? From where have they come to you?” And Hezekiah said, “They came to me from a far country, from Babylon.”

⁴Then Isaiah said, “What have they seen in your house?” And Hezekiah answered, “They have seen everything that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them.”

⁵Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD of hosts,

⁶‘Listen carefully, the days are coming when everything that is in your house and everything that your predecessors have stored up until this day will be carried to Babylon; nothing will be left,’ says the LORD.

⁷‘And some of your own sons (descendants) who will come from you, whom you will father, will be taken away, and they will become officials in the palace of the king of Babylon.”

⁸Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, “The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good.” For he thought, “There will be peace and faithfulness [to God’s promises to us] in my days.”

40 “COMFORT, O comfort My people,” says your God.

²“Speak tenderly to Jerusalem,
And call out to her, that her time of compulsory service in warfare is finished,
That her wickedness has been taken away [since her punishment is sufficient],
That she has received from the LORD’s hand
Double [punishment] for all her sins.”

³A voice of one is calling out,
“Clear the way for the LORD in the wilderness [remove the obstacles];
Make straight and smooth in the desert a highway for our God. [Mark 1:3]

⁴“Every valley shall be raised,
And every mountain and hill be made low;
And let the rough ground become a plain,
And the rugged places a broad valley.

⁵“And the glory and majesty and splendor of the LORD will be revealed, And all humanity shall see it together;

For the mouth of the LORD has spoken it.” [Luke 3:5, 6]

⁶A voice says, “Call out [prophesy].”

Then he answered, “What shall I call out?”

[The voice answered:] All humanity is [as frail as] grass, and all that makes it attractive [its charm, its loveliness] is [momentary] like the flower of the field.

⁷The grass withers, the flower fades,
When the breath of the LORD blows upon it;
Most certainly [all] the people are [like] grass.

⁸The grass withers, the flower fades,
But the word of our God stands forever. [James 1:10, 11; 1
Pet 1:24, 25]

⁹O Zion, herald of good news,
Get up on a high mountain.
O Jerusalem, herald of good news,

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

witheres and the flower fades,*

*but the word of my God stands
forever.*

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Take Care of Yourself

The first key to overcoming stress or any kind of mental attack is to recognize or admit we are under it. There was a period of my life when I experienced constant headaches, backaches, stomachaches, neck aches, and all the other symptoms of stress. However, I found it very difficult to admit that I was pushing too hard physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually. I was doing the work I felt God wanted me to do, but quite often I was going beyond His grace, and the result was stress. I wasn't taking proper care of myself, and that always opens the door for the enemy. One of the best gifts you can give the world is a "healthy you."

Although the Lord gives power to the faint and weary, if you are worn-out from continually exceeding your physical limitations, you need physical rest (see Isa. 40:29). The Lord may mercifully give you supernatural energy in particular instances, but it is not wise to regularly push your body beyond what is healthy.

If you want God to flow and work through you, it's important to take care of your body. Your body is the vessel God uses, and if you wear it out, you don't have a spare. You only have one physical body, so take good care of it.

Nor are its wild beasts enough for a burnt offering [worthy of the LORD].

¹⁷ All the nations are as nothing before Him,
They are regarded by Him as less than nothing and meaningless.

¹⁸ To whom then will you liken God?
Or with what likeness will you compare Him? [Acts 17:29]

¹⁹ As for the cast image (idol), a metalworker casts it,
A goldsmith overlays it with gold
And a silversmith casts its silver chains.

²⁰ He who is too impoverished for such an offering [to give to his god]
Chooses a tree that will not rot;
He seeks out for himself a skillful craftsman
To [carve and] set up an idol that will not totter.

²¹ Do you [who worship idols] not know? Have you not heard?
Has it not been told to you from the beginning?
Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth
[the omnipotence of God and the stupidity of bowing to idols]? [Rom 1:20, 21]

²² It is He who sits above the circle of the earth,
And its inhabitants are like grasshoppers;
[It is He] who stretches out the heavens like a veil
And spreads them out like a tent to dwell in.

²³ It is He who reduces dignitaries to nothing,
Who makes the judges (rulers) of the earth meaningless (useless).

²⁴ Scarcely have they been planted,
Scarcely have they been sown,
Scarcely has their stock taken root in the earth,
But He merely blows on them, and they wither,
And a strong wind carries them away like stubble.

²⁵ “To whom then will you compare Me
That I would be his equal?” says the Holy One.

²⁶ Lift up your eyes on high
And see who has created these heavenly bodies,
The One who brings out their host by number,
He calls them all by name;
Because of the greatness of His might and the strength of
His power,
Not one is missing.

²⁷ Why, O Jacob, do you say, and declare, O Israel,
“My way is hidden from the LORD,
And the justice due me escapes the notice of my God”?

²⁸ Do you not know? Have you not heard?
The Everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of
the earth
Does not become tired or grow weary;
There is no searching of His understanding.

²⁹ He gives strength to the weary,
And to him who has no might He increases power. [2 Cor
12:9]

³⁰ Even youths grow weary and tired,
And vigorous young men stumble badly,

They will walk and not grow tired. [Heb 12:1–3]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Be an Eagle Christian

When you think of an eagle soaring, you probably envision a lone bird flying majestically against a bright blue sky. This is because eagles soar alone. Something about the character, the strength, and the nature of the eagle gives it the courage to soar by itself.

If you want to be an “eagle Christian,” you may have to make decisions that separate you from the pack, enabling you to reach altitudes higher than the people around you want to go. Being an eagle means you want to please God more than you want to please people, and you make your decisions accordingly.

Spending time with God and allowing Him to renew your strength will benefit many circumstances, even such things as not losing your temper or speaking words you will later regret. Make a decision today to rise above mediocrity and soar like the eagle (see Isa. 40:31).

Let us come together for judgment [and decide the issue between us concerning the enemy from the east].

2“Who has stirred up and put into action one from the east [the king of Persia, Cyrus the Great]

Whom He calls in righteousness to His service and whom victory meets at every step?

The LORD turns nations over to him
And subdues kings.

He makes them like dust with his sword,
Like wind-driven chaff with his bow. [Ezra 1:2]

³“He (Cyrus) pursues them and passes along safely,
By a way his feet had not traveled before.

⁴“Who has performed and done this,
Calling forth [and guiding the destinies of] the generations
[of the nations] from the beginning?

‘I, the LORD—the first, and with the last [existing before history began, the ever-present, unchanging God]—I am He.’”

⁵The islands and coastlands have seen and they fear;
The ends of the earth tremble;
They have drawn near and have come.

⁶They each help his neighbor
And say to his brother [as he fashions his idols], “Be of good courage!”

⁷So the craftsman encourages the goldsmith,
And he who smooths metal with the smith’s hammer encourages him who beats the anvil,
Saying of the soldering (welding), “That is good”;
And he fastens the idol with nails,
So that it will not totter nor be moved.

⁸“But you, Israel, My servant,
Jacob whom I have chosen,
The offspring of Abraham My friend, [Heb 2:16; James 2:23]

- ⁹You whom I [the LORD] have taken from the ends of the
earth,
And called from its remotest parts
And said to you, ‘You are My servant,
I have chosen you and have not rejected you [even though you are exiled].
- ¹⁰‘Do not fear [anything], for I am with you;

POWERPOINT

Isaiah 41:8 is one of several scriptures that mentions Abraham as God's friend (see Gen. 18:17; 2 Chr. 20:7; James 2:23). What an awesome way for God to describe him! You and I are God's friends, too, and we need to learn to think of ourselves in that way. Jesus said, "You are my friends if you keep on doing what I command you" (John 15:14). We're talking about a right heart attitude with which you are going to obey God no matter what it costs you. That's one of the criteria for being a friend of God. You also become His friend because you spend a lot of time with Him. As God's friend, you can expect to have firsthand knowledge about what God is doing, and as your friendship with Him develops and grows closer, your boldness in prayer will also strengthen and grow.

Do not be afraid, for I am your God.

I will strengthen you, be assured I will help you;

I will certainly take hold of you with My righteous right hand [a hand of justice, of power, of victory, of salvation].’
[Acts 18:10]

¹¹“Indeed, all those who are angry with you will be put to shame and humiliated;

Those who strive against you will be as nothing and will perish.

¹²“You shall search for those who quarrel with you, but will not find them;

They who war against you will be as nothing, as nothing at all.

¹³“For I the LORD your God keep hold of your right hand; [I am the Lord], Who says to you, ‘Do not fear, I will help you.’

¹⁴“Do not fear, you worm Jacob, you men of Israel;

Speak God's Word

I do not fear anything, for God is with me. I am not afraid, for He is my God. He will strengthen me, yes, God will help me; yes, He will take hold of me with His righteous right hand, a hand of justice, of power, of victory, of salvation.

implement with sharp edges;*

*You will thresh the mountains and crush them,
And make the hills like chaff.*

16“*You will winnow them, and the wind will carry them away,
And a high wind will scatter them;*

*But you will rejoice in the LORD,
You will glory in the Holy One of Israel.*

17“The poor and needy are seeking water, but there is none;

Their tongues are parched with thirst.
I, the LORD, will answer them Myself;
I, the God of Israel, will not neglect them.

¹⁸“I will open rivers on the barren heights
And springs in the midst of the valleys;
I will make the wilderness a reed-pool of water
And the dry land springs of water.

¹⁹“I will put the cedar in the wilderness,
The acacia, the myrtle and the olive tree;
I will place the juniper in the desert
Together with the box tree and the cypress,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Freedom from Fear

One of the many benefits of our spiritual inheritance as believers in Jesus Christ is freedom from fear. But even if we feel afraid, we know that we can go ahead and act on what God says, because God will be with us to protect us. He will help us, go before us to fight the battle for us or deliver us, bringing us through victoriously as we obey Him.

The message of “do not fear [anything], for I am with you; do not be afraid, for I am your God” (Isa. 41:10) is expressed in many different ways throughout the Bible. God does not want us to fear because fear prevents us from receiving and doing all He has planned for us. God loves us and wants to bless us, and He will help us stand strong and not let fear rule our decisions.

The only acceptable attitude (and confession) that a Christian should have toward fear is this: “It is not from God, and I will not let it control my life! I will confront fear, for it is not from God.”

God has a plan for you to experience an abundant life. Receive His plan by putting your faith in Him. Make a decision today that you will no longer let a spirit of fear intimidate you and dominate your life.

Jesus is your deliverer. As you diligently seek Him, He will deliver you from all fear (see Ps. 40).

Speak God's Word

The Lord my God keeps hold of my right hand. He is the Lord, Who says to me, "Do not fear; I will help you."

- ²⁰ So that they may see and know,
And consider and understand together,
That the hand of the LORD has done this,
That the Holy One of Israel has created it.
- ²¹ "Present your case [for idols made by men's hands]," says
the LORD.
"Produce your evidence [of divinity],"
Says the king of Jacob.
- ²² Let them bring forward [their evidence] and tell us what is going to happen.
Regarding the former events, tell what they were,
That we may consider them and know their outcome;
Or announce to us the things that are going to come.
- ²³ Tell us the things that are to come afterward,
That we may know that you are gods;

Indeed, you should do something good or do evil, that we may be afraid and fear [you] together [as we observe the miracle].

²⁴Hear this! You [idols] are less than nothing,
And your work is worthless;
The worshiper who chooses you [as a god] is repulsive. [1 Cor 8:4]

²⁵“I have stirred up and put into action one from the north
[the king of Persia, Cyrus the Great], and he has come;
From the rising of the sun he will call on My Name [in prayer].
And he will trample on [the Babylonian] officials as on mortar,
Even as a potter treads clay.” [2 Chr 36:23; Ezra 1:1–3]

²⁶Who [among the idols] has declared this from the beginning, so that we could know?
Or from earlier times, so that we could say, “He is [unquestionably] right!”?
In fact, there was no one who declared it,
Indeed, there was no one who proclaimed it;
There was no one at all who heard you speak [for you pagan gods are speechless].

²⁷“I was first to say to Zion, ‘Listen carefully, here they are [the Jews who will be restored to their own land].’
And to Jerusalem, ‘I will provide a messenger (Isaiah) to bring the good news [that Cyrus will be stirred up and put into action to save them].’ [Is 40:9; 52:7]

- ²⁸“But when I look [on the pagan prophets and priests], there is no one [who could predict these events], And there is no counselor among them,
Who, if I ask, can give an answer.
- ²⁹“In fact, all of these [pagan prophets and priests] are false;
Their works are worthless,
Their cast images are [merely] wind and emptiness.

42 “BEHOLD, MY Servant, whom I uphold; My Chosen One in whom My soul delights.

I have put My Spirit upon Him;
He will bring forth justice to the nations. [Matt 3:16, 17]

²“He will not call out or shout aloud,
Nor make His voice heard in the street.

³“A broken reed He will not break [off]
And a dimly burning wick He will not extinguish [He will not harm those who are weak and suffering];
He will faithfully bring forth justice. [Matt 12:17–21]

⁴“He will not be disheartened or crushed [in spirit];

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*Thank You, Lord, that a broken reed You will not break and a dimly burning wick You will not extinguish.
You will not harm those who are weak and suffering.*

• adapted from Isaiah 42:3

[He will persevere] until He has established justice on the earth;

And the coastlands will wait expectantly for His law.” [Rom 8:22–25]

⁵This is what God the LORD says,

He who created the heavens and stretched them out,
Who spread out the earth and its produce,
Who gives breath to the people on it
And spirit to those who walk on it,

⁶“I am the LORD, I have called You (the Messiah) in righteousness [for a righteous purpose], I will also take
You by the hand and keep watch over You,
And I will appoint You as a covenant to the people [Israel],
As a light to the nations (Gentiles),

⁷To open the eyes of the blind,

To bring out prisoners from the dungeon
And those who sit in darkness from the prison. [Matt 12:18–21]

⁸“I am the LORD, that is My Name;
My glory I will not give to another,
Nor My praise to carved idols.

⁹“Indeed, the former things have come to pass,
Now I declare new things;
Before they spring forth I proclaim them to you.”

¹⁰Sing to the LORD a new song,
Sing His praise from the end of the earth!
You who go down to the sea, and all that is in it,
You islands and coastlands, and those who inhabit them
[sing His praise]!

¹¹Let the wilderness and its cities lift up their voices,
The villages where Kedar lives.
Let the inhabitants of Sela shout for joy,
Let them shout joyfully from the tops of the mountains.

¹²Let them give glory to the LORD
And declare His praise in the islands and coastlands.

¹³The LORD will go forth like a warrior,
He will stir up His zeal like a man of war;
He will shout out, yes, He will raise a war cry.
He will prevail [mightily] against His enemies.

A Prayer To

Renew Your Mind

I trust You, Lord, to lead me in confusing times because You lead the blind by a way they do not know and guide them in paths they do not know. You make darkness into light before them and the rugged places into plains. These things you will do for them; You will not leave them undone.

• adapted from Isaiah 42:16

- 14“I [the LORD] have been silent for a long time,
I have been still and restrained Myself.
Now I will moan like a woman in labor,
I will both gasp and pant.
- 15“I will lay waste the mountains and hills
And wither all their vegetation;
I will turn the rivers into coastlands

And dry up the ponds.

¹⁶“I will lead the blind by a way they do not know;
I will guide them in paths that they do not know.
I will make darkness into light before them
And rugged places into plains.
These things I will do [for them],
And I will not leave them abandoned or undone.”

¹⁷Those who trust in carved idols will be turned back,
And utterly put to shame,
Who say to cast images,
“You are our gods.”

¹⁸Hear, you deaf!
And look, you blind, that you may see.

¹⁹Who is blind but My servant [Israel],
Or deaf like My messenger whom I send?
Who is blind like the one who is at peace with Me [in a covenant relationship],
Or so blind as the servant of the LORD?

²⁰You have seen many things, but you do not observe them;
Your ears are open, but no one hears.

²¹The LORD was pleased for His righteousness' sake
To make the law great and prove to be glorious.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

You Won't Be Overwhelmed

I wasted many years of my life worrying about things that I could do nothing about. What I didn't realize was that Jesus' peace is always there, ready and waiting for us in the midst of trouble (see John 14:27; 16:33). Real enduring peace comes from going through the storms and winning the battles of life.

There once was an elderly widow at the funeral of her husband who died in a fire that totally destroyed their home. Just a week earlier, her son died of cancer, and her daughter was killed in a car accident. She had lost all her loved ones within a period of two weeks!

"How are you handling all this?" someone asked her.

The woman's eyes were moist but her voice was firm as she replied, "I felt as if I was walking across a river that kept getting deeper. I was sure I would drown. I kept crying out for God's help, and do you know what? My feet touched the riverbed, and my head was still above the water. I made it across. God was with me. His peace enabled me to keep going."

This is how God's peace works. He has promised: "When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they will not overwhelm you" (Isa. 43:2). No matter how deep the water or how difficult your circumstances are, He is always there. He will not allow you to be overwhelmed, and He will give you peace.

²²But this is a people despoiled and plundered;
All of them are trapped in holes,
Or are hidden away in prisons.
They have become a prey with no one to rescue them,
And a spoil, with no one to say, “Give them back!” [Luke 19:41–44]

²³Who among you will listen to this?
Who will listen and pay attention in the time to come?

²⁴Who gave up Jacob [the kingdom of Judah] for spoil, and
[the kingdom of] Israel to the plunderers?
Was it not the LORD, He against whom we [of Judah] have
sinned,
And in whose ways they [of Israel] were unwilling to walk,
And whose law and teaching they did not obey?

²⁵Therefore He poured out on Israel the heat of His anger
And the fierceness of battle;
And engulfed him in fire,
Yet he did not recognize [the lesson of repentance which the Assyrian conquest was intended to teach];
It burned him, but he did not take it to heart.

43 BUT NOW, this is what the LORD, your Creator says, O
Jacob, And He who formed you, O Israel,
“Do not fear, for I have redeemed you [from captivity];

- I have called you by name; you are Mine!
- ²“When you pass through the waters, I will be with you;
And through the rivers, they will not overwhelm you.
When you walk through fire, you will not be scorched,
Nor will the flame burn you.
- ³“For I am the LORD your God,
The Holy One of Israel, your Savior;
I have given Egypt [to the Babylonians] as your ransom, Cush (ancient Ethiopia) and Seba [its province] in exchange for you.
- ⁴“Because you are precious in My sight,
You are honored and I love you,
I will give other men in return for you and other peoples in exchange for your life.
- ⁵“Do not fear, for I am with you;
I will bring your offspring from the east [where they are scattered],
And gather you from the west. [Acts 18:10]
- ⁶“I will say to the north, ‘Give them up!’
And to the south, ‘Do not hold them back.’
Bring My sons from far way
And My daughters from the ends of the earth,
- ⁷Everyone who is called by My Name,
Whom I have created for My glory, Whom I have formed, even whom I have made.”
- ⁸Bring out the people who are blind, even though they have eyes,

And the deaf, even though they have ears.

⁹All the nations have gathered together

So that the peoples may be assembled.

Who among them (the idolaters) can predict this [that Judah would return from captivity]

And proclaim to us the former events?

Let them provide their witnesses so that they may be justified,

Or let them hear and say [in acknowledgement], “It is the truth.” [Ps 123:3, 4]

¹⁰“You are My witnesses,” declares the LORD,

“And My servant whom I have chosen,

That you may know and believe Me

And understand that I am He.

Before Me there was no God formed,

And there will be none after Me.

¹¹“I, [only] I, am the LORD,

And there is no Savior besides Me.

¹²“I have declared [the future] and saved [the nation] and proclaimed [that I am God],

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Enjoy Yourself

Each of us is immensely valuable in God's sight (see Isa. 43:4). Yet a root cause of much of our unhappiness is simply that we are not happy with ourselves—with the way we look, our talents, our imperfections. We may be comparing ourselves with others instead of happily being the people God intends us to be.

We all make mistakes, and although we want to be serious about the changes that need to be made in our lives, it is also good to not be so intense about every little mistake we make. The best thing you can do is lighten up and not take yourself so seriously!

You are with yourself more than you are with anyone else, so if you can learn to enjoy your own company, it will greatly improve the quality of your life. Remember that you are precious in the Lord's sight. He enjoys you and wants you to enjoy yourself!

POWERPOINT

The reality of Isaiah 43:19 can be yours by simply releasing your faith and believing by faith that no matter what has happened in your past, God is greater than your past. He will forgive your sins, turn your mistakes into miracles, and leave you amazed at the good things He will do in your life.

And there was no strange (alien) god among you;
Therefore you are My witnesses [among the pagans],”
declares the LORD,
“That I am God.

¹³“Even from eternity I am He,
And there is no one who can rescue from My hand;
I act, and who can revoke or reverse it?”

¹⁴This is what the LORD your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel says,

“For your sake I have sent [one] to Babylon,
And I will bring down all of them as fugitives,
Even the Chaldeans [who reign in Babylon], into the ships over which they rejoiced.

¹⁵“I am the LORD, your Holy One,
The Creator of Israel, your King.”

¹⁶This is what the LORD says,
He who makes a way through the sea
And a path through the mighty waters,

¹⁷He who brings out the chariot and the horse,
The army and the mighty warrior;
(They will lie down together, they will not rise again;
They have been extinguished, they have been put out like a lamp's wick):

¹⁸“Do not remember the former things,
Or ponder the things of the past.

¹⁹“Listen carefully, I am about to do a new thing,
Now it will spring forth;
Will you not be aware of it?
I will even put a road in the wilderness,
Rivers in the desert.

²⁰“The beasts of the field will honor Me,
Jackals and ostriches,
Because I have given waters in the wilderness
And rivers in the desert,
To give drink to My people, My chosen. [Is 41:17, 18; 48:21]

²¹“The people whom I formed for Myself

Will make known My praise.

22“Yet you have not called on Me [in prayer and worship], O Jacob;

But you have grown weary of Me, O Israel.

23“You have not brought Me your sheep or goats for your burnt offerings,

Nor honored Me with your sacrifices.

I have not burdened you with offerings,

Nor wearied you with [demands for offerings of] incense.

24“You have not bought Me sweet cane with money,

Nor have you filled Me with the fat of your sacrifices;

But you have burdened Me with your sins,

You have wearied Me with your wickedness.

25“I, only I, am He who wipes out your transgressions for My own sake,

And I will not remember your sins.

26“Remind Me [of your merits with a thorough report], let us plead and argue our case together; State your position, that you may be proved right.

27“Your first father [Jacob] sinned,

And your spokesmen [the priests and the prophets—your mediators] have transgressed against Me.

A Prayer To Renew Your

Mind

I know, Lord, that You pour water on those who are thirsty and send streams to dry ground. I believe You will pour out Your Spirit on my offspring and Your blessing on my descendants.

• adapted from Isaiah 44:3

²⁸“So I will profane the officials of the sanctuary,
And I will consign Jacob to destruction and [I will subject]
Israel to defamation and abuse.

44 “BUT NOW listen, O Jacob, My servant, And Israel, whom I have chosen:

²This is what the LORD who made you
And formed you from the womb, who will help you says, ‘Fear not, O Jacob My servant;
And Jeshurun (Israel, the upright one) whom I have chosen.
[Deut 32:15; 33:5, 26]

³‘For I will pour out water on him who is thirsty,

And streams on the dry ground;
I will pour out My Spirit on your offspring
And My blessing on your descendants; [Is 32:15; 35:6, 7;
Joel 2:28; John 7:37–39]

⁴And they will spring up among the grass
Like willows by the streams of water.’

⁵“One will say, ‘I am the LORD’s’;
And another will name himself after Jacob;
And another will write on his hand, ‘I am the LORD’s,’
And be called by the [honorable] name of Israel.

⁶“For the LORD, the King of Israel and his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts says this, ‘I am the First and I am the Last;
And there is no God besides Me. [Rev 1:17; 2:8; 22:13]

⁷‘Who is like Me? Let him proclaim it and declare it;
Yes, let him confront Me,
Since I established the people of antiquity.
And let them [those supposed gods] tell those people [who foolishly follow them] the things to come
And the events that are going to take place.

⁸‘Do not tremble nor be afraid [of the violent upheavals to come];
Have I not long ago proclaimed it to you and declared it?
And you are My witnesses.
Is there a God besides Me?
There is no other Rock;
I know of none.’”

⁹All who make carved idols are nothing. Their precious objects are worthless [to them], and their own witnesses (worshippers) fail to see or know, so that they will be put to shame.

¹⁰Who has made a god or cast an idol which is profitable for nothing?

¹¹In fact, all his companions will be put to shame, for the craftsmen themselves are mere men. Let them all assemble, let them stand up, let them be terrified, let them together be put to shame.

¹²The ironsmith shapes iron and uses a chisel and works it over the coals. He forms the [idol's] core with hammers and works it with his strong arm. He also becomes hungry and his strength fails; he drinks no water and grows tired.

¹³The carpenter stretches out a measuring line, he marks out the shape [of the idol] with red chalk; he works it with planes and outlines it with the compass; and he makes it like the form of a man, like the beauty of man, that it may sit in a house.

¹⁴He cuts cedars for himself, and takes a cypress or an oak and lets it grow strong for himself among the trees of the forest. He plants a fir, and the rain nourishes it.

¹⁵Then it becomes fuel for a man to burn, so he takes one of them and warms himself; he also kindles a fire to bake bread. He also makes a god [from the same wood] and worships it. He makes it into a carved idol [with his own hands] and falls down and worships it!

¹⁶He burns half of the wood in the fire; over this half he [cooks and] eats meat, he roasts meat and is satisfied. Also he warms himself and says, "Aha! I am warm, I have seen the fire."

¹⁷But from what is left of the wood he makes a god, his carved idol. He falls down before it, he worships it and prays to it and says, “Save me, for you are my god.”

¹⁸They do not know, nor do they understand, for God has muddied their eyes so that they cannot see, and their hearts (minds) as well so that they cannot understand.

¹⁹No one remembers, nor has knowledge and understanding [enough] to say [to himself], “I have burned half of this log in the fire, and also baked bread on its coals and have roasted meat and eaten it. Then I make the rest of it into an repulsive thing [to God]; I bow down [to worship] before a block of wood!”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Confess Your Redemption

The Bible says that those who belong to God are redeemed from sin, and that they should shout for joy and in triumph and break forth into jubilant rejoicing (see Isa. 44:22–23). You are redeemed! Jesus has paid the price for your redemption. It is yours, so it's important for you to learn to agree with it.

Start declaring out loud by faith, “I am redeemed from sin, guilt, and condemnation. I am redeemed from anger, bitterness, jealousy, and fear; and I am free to love God, myself, and other people.” Once you get these truths into your spirit, you will begin to experience them. Faith comes first and then manifestation. Faith is the evidence of things hoped for, the proof of things we do not see (see Heb. 11:1). Choose to believe what God says, and say what God says by faith.

²⁰That kind of man (the idolater) feeds on ashes [and is satisfied with ashes]! A deceived mind has led him astray, so that he cannot save himself, or ask, “Is this thing [that I am holding] in my right hand not a lie?”

²¹“Remember [the foolishness of] these things, O Jacob
And Israel, for you are My servant!
I formed you, you are My servant;
O Israel, you will not be forgotten by Me.

22“*I have wiped out your transgressions like a thick cloud
And your sins like a heavy mist.
Return to Me, for I have redeemed you.*”

23*Shout for joy, O heavens, for the LORD has done it!
Shout in triumph, you depths of the earth;
Break forth into jubilant rejoicing, you mountains,
O forest, and every tree in it!
For the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
And He shows His glory in Israel.*

24*For the LORD, your Redeemer, and He who formed you from the womb says this, “I am the LORD, Maker of all things,
Who alone stretches out the heavens,
Who spreads out the earth by Myself,*

25*Frustrating the signs and confounding the omens of boasters (false prophets),
Making fools out of fortune-tellers,
Counteracting the wise
And making their knowledge ridiculous, [1 Cor 1:20]*

26*Confirming the word of His servant
And carrying out the plan of His messengers.
It is I who says of Jerusalem, ‘She shall [again] be inhabited!’
And of the cities of Judah, ‘They shall [again] be built.’
And I will raise up and restore her ruins.*

27“*It is I who says to the deep, ‘Be dried up!’
And I will make your rivers dry.*

28“It is I who says of Cyrus, ‘He is My shepherd (ruler),

And he will carry out all that I desire—
Saying of Jerusalem, ‘She shall [again] be built,’
And of the temple, ‘Your foundation shall [again] be laid.’”

- 45 THIS IS what the LORD says to His anointed, to Cyrus [king of Persia], Whose right hand I have held
To subdue nations before him,
And I will ungird the loins of kings [disarming them];
To open doors before him so that gates will not be shut:
- ²“I will go before you and level the mountains;
I will shatter the doors of bronze and cut through the bars of iron.
- ³“I will give you the treasures of darkness [the hoarded treasures]
And the hidden riches of secret places,
So that you may know that it is I,
The LORD, the God of Israel, who calls you (Cyrus the Great)
by your name.
- ⁴“For the sake of Jacob My servant,
And of Israel My chosen,
I have also called you by your name;
I have given you an honorable name
Though you have not known Me.
- ⁵“I am the LORD, and there is no one else;
There is no God except Me.
I will embrace and arm you, though you have not known
Me,

⁶That people may know from the rising to the setting of the sun [the world over]

That there is no one except Me.

I am the LORD, and there is no other,

⁷The One forming light and creating darkness,

Causing peace and creating disaster;

I am the LORD who does all these things.

⁸“Rain down, O heavens, from above,

Let the clouds pour down righteousness [all the blessings of God];

Let the earth open up, let salvation bear fruit,

And righteousness spring up with it;

I, the LORD, have created it.

⁹“Woe (judgment is coming) to him who quarrels with his Maker—

A [worthless] piece of broken pottery among other broken pieces [equally worthless]!

Shall the clay say to the potter, ‘What are you doing?’

Or does the thing say, ‘He has no hands’? [Rom 9:20]

¹⁰“Woe (judgment is coming) to him who says to a father,
‘What are you fathering?’

Or to a woman, ‘With what are you in labor?’”

¹¹For the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and its Maker says this, “Ask Me about the things to come concerning My sons,
And give Me orders concerning the work of My hands.

¹²“I made the earth and created man upon it.

My hands, stretched out the heavens,
And I commanded all their host.

¹³“I have stirred up Cyrus and put him into action in righteousness [to accomplish My purpose]
And I will make all his ways smooth;
He will build My city and let My exiles go,
Without any payment or reward,” says the LORD of hosts.

¹⁴For this is what the LORD says,

“The products of Egypt and the merchandise of Cush (ancient Ethiopia)

And the Sabeans, men of stature,
Will come over to you and they will be yours;
They will walk behind you, in chains [of subjection to you] they will come over,
And they will bow down before you;
They will make supplication to you, [humbly and earnestly] saying,

‘Most certainly God is with you, and there is no other,
No other God [besides Him].’” [1 Cor 14:25]

¹⁵Truly, You are a God who hides Himself,
O God of Israel, Savior!

¹⁶They will be put to shame and also humiliated, all of them;
They who make idols will go away together in humiliation.

¹⁷Israel has been saved by the LORD
With an everlasting salvation;
You will not be put to shame or humiliated for all eternity. [Heb 5:9]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I will seek You, Lord, because You have not said “Seek Me in vain.” In seeking You, there is benefit. You speak righteousness and truth, declaring things that are upright.

• adapted from Isaiah 45:19

18For the LORD, who created the heavens (He is God, who formed the earth and made it; He established it and did not create it to be a wasteland, but formed it to be inhabited) says this, “I am the LORD, and there is no one else.

19“I have not spoken in secret,
In a corner of a land of darkness;
I did not say to the descendants of Jacob,
‘Seek Me in vain [with no benefit for yourselves].’

I, the LORD, speak righteousness [the truth—trustworthy, a straightforward correlation between deeds and words],

Declaring things that are upright. [John 18:20]

20“Assemble yourselves and come;

Come together, you survivors of the nations!

POWERPOINT

I want to encourage you to follow the advice of Isaiah 45:22 whenever you feel discouraged, confused, frustrated, frightened, or any other negative emotion. When you're going through a difficult situation that you're not sure how to handle, or even where to turn, simply turn to the Lord. He is the One who can help you. He is the One who will rescue you. He is the one who refuses to let you fall. Whatever you need, turn to Him.

They are ignorant,
Who carry around their wooden idols [in religious processions or into battle]
And keep on praying to a god that cannot save them.

- 21“Declare and present your defense of idols;
Indeed, let them consult together.
Who announced this [rise of Cyrus and his conquests] long before it happened?
Who declared it long ago?
Was it not I, the LORD?
And there is no other God besides Me,
A [consistently and uncompromisingly] just and righteous
God and a Savior;
There is none except Me.
- 22“Turn to Me and be saved, all the ends of the earth;
For I am God, and there is no other.
- 23“I have sworn [an oath] by Myself,
The word is gone out of My mouth in righteousness
And shall not return,
That to Me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear [allegiance]. [Rom 14:11; Phil 2:10, 11; Heb 6:13]
- 24“‘It shall be said of Me, ‘Only in the LORD are righteousness and strength.’
To Him people will come,
And all who were angry at Him will be put to shame. [1 Cor
1:30, 31]
- 25“‘In the LORD all the offspring of Israel
Will be justified (declared free of guilt) and will glory [in God].”

on the beasts [of burden] and on the cattle.

Your burdens [of idols] are loaded [on them],

Burdens on the weary animals.

²They stooped over, they have bowed down together;
They could not rescue the burden [of their own idols],
But have themselves gone into captivity.

³“Listen to Me,” [says the LORD], “O house of Jacob, And all the remnant of the house of Israel,
You who have been carried by Me from your birth
And have been carried [in My arms] from the womb, ⁴Even to your old age I am He,

And even to your advanced old age I will carry you!
I have made you, and I will carry you;
Be assured I will carry you and I will save you.

⁵“To whom would you liken Me
And make Me equal and compare Me,
That we may be alike? [Is 40:18–20]

⁶“Those who lavish gold from the bag
And weigh out silver on the scales
Hire a goldsmith, and he makes it into a god;
They bow down, indeed they worship it.

⁷“They lift it on their shoulders [in religious processions or into battle] and carry it;
They set it in its place and there it remains standing.
It cannot move from its place.
Even if one cries to it [for help], the idol cannot answer;
It cannot save him from his distress.

- 8“Remember this, and take courage;
Take it to heart, you rebellious and disloyal people.
- 9“Remember [carefully] the former things [which I did] from ages past;
For I am God, and there is no one else;
I am God, and there is no one like Me,
- 10Declaring the end and the result from the beginning,
And from ancient times the things which have not [yet] been done,
Saying, ‘My purpose will be established,
And I will do all that pleases Me and fulfills My purpose,’
- 11Calling a bird of prey from the east,
From a far country, the man (Cyrus) of My purpose.
Truly I have spoken; truly I will bring it to pass.
I have planned it, be assured I will do it.
- 12“Listen to Me, you stiff-necked people,
You who are far from righteousness (right standing with God).

POWERPOINT

Since God knows the end from the beginning (see Isa. 46:10), why do we sometimes act as though He is in heaven, wringing His hands, saying, “When I chose you, I had no idea you would make mistakes and sin!” Rather, God has a big eraser, full forgiveness through His Son, and He uses it to keep our records clear and clean. So relax. He knew you long ago and chose you from the beginning.

- ¹³“I bring near My righteousness [in the salvation of Israel], it is not far away;
And My salvation will not delay.
And I will grant salvation in Zion,
And My glory for Israel.

47 “COME DOWN and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon;

Sit on the ground [in abject humiliation]; there is no throne
for you,

O daughter of the Chaldeans,
For you will no longer be called tender and delicate.

2“Take millstones [as a female slave does] and grind meal;
Remove your veil, strip off the skirt,
Uncover the leg, cross the rivers [at the command of your captors].

3“Your nakedness will be uncovered,
Your shame will also be exposed;
I will take vengeance and will spare no man.”

4Our Redeemer [will do all this], the LORD of hosts is His name,
The Holy One of Israel.

5“Sit in silence, and go into darkness,
O daughter of the Chaldeans;
For you will no longer be called
The queen of kingdoms.

6“I was angry with My people,
I profaned [Judah] My inheritance
And gave them into your hand [Babylon].
You showed them no mercy;
You made your yoke very heavy on the aged.

7“‘And you said, ‘I shall be a queen forevermore.’
You did not consider these things,

Nor did you [seriously] remember the [ultimate] outcome of such conduct.

8“Now, then, hear this, you who live a luxuriant life,
You who dwell safely and securely,
Who say in your heart (mind),
‘I am [the queen], and there is no one besides me.
I shall not sit as a widow,
Nor know the loss of children.’

9“But these two things shall come to you abruptly, in one day:
Loss of children and widowhood.
They will come on you in full measure
In spite of your many [claims of power through your] sorceries,
In spite of the great power of your enchantments. [Rev 18:7, 8]

10“For you [Babylon] have trusted and felt confident in your wickedness; you have said,
‘No one sees me.’
Your wisdom and your knowledge have led you astray,
And you have said in your heart (mind),
‘I am, and there is no one besides me.’

11“Therefore disaster will come on you;
You will not know how to make it disappear [with your magic].
And disaster will fall on you
For which you cannot atone [with all your offerings to your gods];

And destruction about which you do not know
Will come on you suddenly.

12“Persist, then, [Babylon] in your enchantments
And your many sorceries
With which you have labored from your youth;
Perhaps you will be able to profit [from them],
Perhaps you may prevail and cause trembling.

13“You are wearied by your many counsels.
Just let the astrologers,
The stargazers,
Those who predict by the new moons [each month]
Stand up and save you from the things that will come upon you [Babylon].

14“In fact, they are like stubble;
Fire burns them.
They cannot save themselves from the power of the flame [much less save the nation],
There is no blazing coal for warming
Nor fire before which to sit!

15“This is how they have become to you, those [astrologers and sorcerers] with whom you have labored, Those who have done business with you from your youth;
Each has wandered in his own way.
There is no one to save you.

48 “HEAR THIS, O house of Jacob, you who are called by the name of Israel And who come from the seed of Judah,

You who swear [allegiance] by the name of the LORD
And invoke the God of Israel,
But not in truth (sincerity) nor in righteousness [with moral and spiritual integrity].

²“For they call themselves [citizens of Jerusalem] after the holy city
And depend on the God of Israel;
The LORD of hosts is His name.

³“I have declared the former things [which happened to Israel] in times past;
They went forth from My mouth and I proclaimed them;
Suddenly I acted, and they came to pass.

⁴“Because I know that you are obstinate,
And your neck is an iron tendon
And your brow is bronze [both unyielding],

⁵I have declared them to you long ago;
Before they came to pass I announced them to you,
So that you could not say, ‘My idol has done them,
And my carved image and my cast image have commanded
them.’

⁶“You have heard [these things foretold]; look at all this [that has been fulfilled].
And you, will you not declare it?
I proclaim to you [specific] new things from this time,
Even hidden things which you have not known.

⁷“They are created now [called into being by the prophetic word] and not long ago;
And before today you have not heard of them,

So that you will not say, ‘Oh yes! I knew them.’

8“‘You have not heard, you have not known;
Even from long ago your ear has not been open.
For I [the LORD] knew that you [Israel] would act very treacherously;

You have been called a transgressor and a rebel from birth.

9“‘For the sake of My Name I refrain from My wrath,
And for My praise I restrain Myself from you,
So that I do not cut you off.

10“‘Indeed, I have refined you, but not as silver;
I have tested and chosen you in the furnace of affliction.

11“‘For My own sake, for My own sake, I will do it [I refrain and do not completely destroy you];
For how can My Name be defiled and profaned [as it would if My chosen people were completely destroyed]?
And I will not give My glory to another [by permitting the worshippers of idols to triumph over you].

12“‘Listen to Me, O Jacob, and Israel, whom I called;
I am He, I am the First, I am the Last. [Is 41:4]

13“‘My hand founded and established the earth,
And My right hand spread out the heavens;
When I call to them, they stand together [in obedience to carry out My decrees].

14“‘Assemble, all of you, and listen!
Who among them [the idols and Chaldean astrologers] has declared these things?
The LORD loves him (Cyrus of Persia); he will do His pleasure and purpose against Babylon, And his arm will be against the Chaldeans [who reign in Babylon].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Wants To Lead Us

God says, "I am the LORD your God, who... leads you in the way that you should go" (Isa. 48:17). He wants to give us direction, but we need to learn to listen so we can receive it and walk in it. God leads us in many different ways. Some of the most frequent ways are through His Word, with peace, and with wisdom. God cannot lead us at all unless we are willing to do whatever He shows us to do, even if that is not what we would prefer.

Are you ready and willing to say, "Lord, if You lead me, I will follow"? If you make that commitment sincerely, you can expect God's guidance in your life. It may not always come immediately when you ask for it, but it will come. While you are waiting, just continue to thank Him that He has a plan and will reveal it to you at the right time.

¹⁵"I, even I, have spoken; indeed, I have called Cyrus;
I have brought him, and will make his way successful.

¹⁶"Come near to Me, listen to this:
From the beginning I have not spoken in secret,
From the time that it happened, I was there.
And now the Lord GOD has sent Me, and His [Holy] Spirit."

¹⁷This is what the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel says, “I am the LORD your God, who teaches you to profit (benefit),

Who leads you in the way that you should go.

¹⁸“Oh, that you had paid attention to My commandments!

Then your peace and prosperity would have been like a [flowing] river,

And your righteousness [the holiness and purity of the nation] like the [abundant] waves of the sea.

¹⁹“Your offspring would have been like the sand,

And your descendants [in number] like the grains of sand;

Their name would never be cut off or destroyed from My presence.” [Gen 13:16; Jer 33:22; Luke 19:42]

²⁰Get out of Babylon! Flee from the Chaldeans [who reign there]!

Declare with a voice of jubilation, proclaim this,

Send it out to the end of the earth;

Say, “The LORD has redeemed His servant Jacob.”

²¹They did not thirst when He led them through the deserts.

He made the waters flow out of the rock for them;

He split the rock and the waters flowed.

²²“There is no peace for the wicked,” says the LORD.

49 LISTEN TO Me, O islands and coastlands, And pay attention, you peoples from far away.

The LORD has called Me from the womb;

From the body of My mother He has named Me.

²He has made My mouth like a sharp sword,
In the shadow of His hand He has kept Me hidden;
And He has made Me a sharpened arrow,
In His quiver He has hidden Me.

³And [the LORD] said to Me, “You are My Servant, Israel,
In Whom I will show My glory.” [Gen 32:28; Deut 7:6; 26:18,
19; Eph 1:4–6]

⁴Then I said, “I have labored in vain,
I have spent My strength for nothing and vanity (pride, uselessness);
However My justice is with the LORD,
And My reward is with My God.”

⁵And now says the LORD, who formed Me from the womb to be His Servant, To bring Jacob back to Him and that Israel might be gathered to Him,
—For I am honored in the eyes of the LORD,
And My God is My strength—

⁶He says, “It is too trivial a thing that You should be My Servant
To raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors
of Israel;
I will also make You a light to the nations
That My salvation may reach to the end of the earth.”

⁷This is what the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, Israel’s Holy
One says, To the thoroughly despised One,
To the One hated by the nation
To the Servant of rulers,

“Kings will see and arise,
Princes shall also bow down,
Because of the LORD who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel who has chosen You.”

⁸This is what the LORD says,
“In a favorable time I have answered You,
And in a day of salvation I have helped You;
And I will keep watch over You and give You for a covenant of the people,
To restore the land [from its present state of ruin] and to apportion and give as inheritances the deserted hereditary lands, [2 Cor 6:2]

⁹Saying to those who are bound and captured, ‘Go forth,’
And to those who are in [spiritual] darkness, ‘Show yourselves [come into the light of the Savior].’
They will feed along the roads [on which they travel],
And their pastures will be on all the bare heights.

¹⁰“They will not hunger or thirst,
Nor will the scorching heat or sun strike them down;
For He who has compassion on them will lead them,
And He will guide them to springs of water. [Rev 7:16, 17]

¹¹“And I will make all My mountains a roadway,
And My highways will be raised.

¹²“In fact, these will come from far away;
And, lo, these shall come from the north and from the west,
And these from the land of Aswan (southern Egypt).”

¹³Shout for joy, O heavens, and rejoice, O earth,

And break forth into singing, O mountains!
For the LORD has comforted His people
And will have compassion on His afflicted.

¹⁴But Zion (Jerusalem in captivity) said, “The LORD has abandoned me, And my Lord has forgotten me.”

¹⁵[The LORD answered] “Can a woman forget her nursing child

And have no compassion on the son of her womb?
Even these may forget, but I will not forget you.

¹⁶“Indeed, I have inscribed [a picture of] you on the palms of My hands;

Your city walls [Zion] are continually before Me.

¹⁷“Your builders hurry;
Your destroyers and devastators
Will go away from you.

¹⁸“Lift up your eyes and look around [at the returning exiles];
All these gather together and they come to you [to rebuild you].

As I live,” declares the LORD,

“You [Zion] will indeed clothe yourself with all of them as jewels and tie them on as a bride.

¹⁹“For your ruins and desolate places and your land [once the scene] of destruction—

Certainly now [in the coming years] will be too cramped for the inhabitants,

And those who once engulfed you will be far away.

²⁰“The children of your bereavement [those born in captivity] will yet say in your ears,

“The place is too cramped for me”;
Make room for me that I may live here.

²¹“Then [Zion], you will say in your heart,
“Who has borne me these children,
Since I have been bereaved of my children
And am barren, an exile and a wanderer?
And who has reared these?
Indeed, I was left alone;
From where then did these children come?””

²²This is what the Lord GOD says, “Listen carefully, I will lift up My hand to the [Gentile]
nations
And set up My banner to the peoples;
And they will bring your sons in the fold of their garments,
And your daughters will be carried on their shoulders.

²³“Kings will be your attendants,
And their princesses your nurses.
They will bow down to you with their faces to the earth
And lick the dust of your feet;
And you shall know [with an understanding based on personal experience] that I am the LORD; For they shall not be put to shame who wait and hope expectantly for Me.

²⁴“Can the spoils of war be taken from the mighty man,
Or the captives of a tyrant be rescued?”

²⁵Indeed, this is what the LORD says,

“Even the captives of the mighty man will be taken away,
And the tyrant’s spoils of war will be rescued;
For I will contend with your opponent,
And I will save your children.

26“I will make those who oppress you consume their own flesh [in mutually destructive wars]
And they will become drunk with their own blood as with sweet wine;
And all mankind will know [with a knowledge grounded in personal experience] that I, the LORD, am your Savior And your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.”

50 THE LORD declares this; “Where is the certificate of divorce

By which I have sent your mother away, [O Israel]?
Or to which one of My creditors did I sell you [as slaves]?
In fact, You were sold for your wickedness [your sin, your injustice, your wrongdoing],
And for your transgressions your mother was sent away.

2“Why, when I came, was there no man [to greet Me]?
When I called, why was there no one to answer?
Is My hand really so short that it cannot redeem [My servants]?
Or have I no power to rescue?
Listen carefully, with My rebuke I dry up the sea,
I make the rivers into a desert;
Their fish stink because there is no water

And die of thirst.

³“I clothe the heavens with the blackness [of storm clouds]
And make sackcloth [of mourning] their clothing.”

⁴The Lord GOD has given Me [His Servant] the tongue of disciples [as One who is taught], That I may know how to sustain the weary with a word.

He awakens Me morning by morning,

He awakens My ear to listen as a disciple [as One who is taught].

⁵The Lord GOD has opened My ear,
And I have not been rebellious

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Use Your Mouth for Good

God desires that we use our mouths to bring joy, love, and good to others and to “sustain the weary with a word” (Isa. 50:4). It is not acceptable to God when we use our mouth to bring hurt and destruction. We are still acceptable to Him, but our behavior isn’t, because it will not produce the good results He desires in our lives.

Ephesians 4:29 teaches us not to grieve the Holy Spirit and gives clear instructions about using our words accordingly: “Do not let unwholesome [foul, profane, worthless, vulgar] words ever come out of your mouth, but only such speech as is good for building up others, according to the need and the occasion, so that it will be a blessing to those who hear [you speak].”

Properly chosen words can actually change lives for the better. What you say can tear down or build up, so choose words that are agreeable with God’s will.

Nor have I turned back.

⁶I turned My back to those who strike Me,
And My cheeks to those who pluck out the beard;
I did not hide My face from insults and spitting. [Matt
26:67; 27:30; John 19:1]

⁷For the Lord GOD helps Me,

Therefore, I have not been ashamed or humiliated.
Therefore, I have made My face like flint,
And I know that I shall not be put to shame. [Luke 9:51; Is 52:13; 53:10–12]

⁸He who declares Me in the right is near;
Who will [dare to] contend with Me?
Let us stand up to each other;
Who is My adversary?
Let him approach Me. [Rom 8:33–35; 1 Tim 3:16]

⁹In fact, the Lord GOD helps Me;
Who is he who condemns Me [as guilty]?
Indeed, they will all wear out like a garment;
The moth will eat them. [Heb 1:11, 12]

¹⁰Who is among you who fears the LORD,
Who obeys the voice of His Servant,
Yet who walks in darkness and has no light?
Let him trust and be confident in the name of the LORD and let him rely on his God.

¹¹Listen carefully, all you who kindle your own fire [devising your own man-made plan of salvation],
Who surround yourselves with torches,
Walk by the light of your [self-made] fire
And among the torches that you have set ablaze.
But this you will have from My hand:
You will lie down in [a place of] torment. [Is 66:24]

51 “LISTEN TO Me, you who pursue righteousness (right standing with God), Who seek and inquire of the LORD:

Look to the rock from which you were cut

And to the excavation of the quarry from which you were dug.

²“Look to Abraham your father

And to Sarah who gave birth to you in pain;

For I called him when he was but one,

Then I blessed him and made him many.”

³For the LORD will comfort Zion [in her captivity];

He will comfort all her ruins.

And He will make her wilderness like Eden,

And her desert like the garden of the LORD;

Joy and gladness will be found in her,

Thanksgiving and the voice of a melody.

⁴“Listen carefully to Me [says the LORD], O My people, And hear Me, O My nation;

For a [divine] law will go forth from Me,

And I will quickly establish My justice as a light to the peoples.

⁵“My righteousness (justice) is near, My salvation has gone forth,

And My arms will judge the peoples;

The islands and coastlands will wait for Me,

And they will wait with hope and confident expectation for My arm.

⁶“Lift up your eyes to the heavens,

Then look to the earth beneath;

For the heavens will be torn to pieces and vanish like smoke,

And the earth will wear out like a garment

And its inhabitants will die in like manner.

But My salvation will be forever,

And My righteousness (justice) [and faithfully fulfilled promise] will not be broken. [Matt 24:35; Heb 1:11; 2 Pet 3:10]

⁷“Listen to Me, you who know righteousness (right standing with God),

The people in whose heart is My law and instruction;

Do not fear the reproach and taunting of man,

Nor be distressed at their reviling.

⁸“For the moth will eat them like a garment,

And the worm will eat them like wool.

But My righteousness and justice [faithfully promised] will exist forever,

And My salvation to all generations.”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Affirms You

God sees us as valuable and worthy—we know this because He sent His Son, Jesus, to die for us. Part of our inheritance as believers is to be secure—to know who we are in Christ, to have a feeling of righteousness or rightness with God.

The devil likes to remind us of what we are not, but God delights in affirming us and reminding us of who we are and what we can do through Jesus. The Lord says to us, “Listen to Me, you who know righteousness (right standing with God), ... do not fear the reproach and taunting of man, nor be distressed at their reviling” (Isa. 51:7). Even when you’re being attacked by adverse circumstances, remember that God is for you and that you are right with Him, through your faith in Jesus.

⁹Awake, awake, put on strength and might, O arm of the LORD; Awake as in the ancient days, as in the generations of long ago.

Was it not You who cut Rahab (Egypt) in pieces,
Who pierced the dragon [of Egypt]? [Is 30:7]

¹⁰Was it not You who dried up the [Red] Sea,
The waters of the great deep,
Who made the depths of the sea a pathway
For the redeemed to cross over?

¹¹So the redeemed of the LORD will return
And come with joyful shouting to Zion;
Everlasting joy will be on their heads.
They will obtain gladness and joy,
And sorrow and sighing will flee away. [Rev 7:17; 21:1, 4]

¹²“I, even I, am He who comforts you.
Who are you that you are afraid of man who dies
And of a son of man who is made [as destructible] as grass,

¹³That you have forgotten the LORD your Maker,
Who stretched out the heavens
And laid the foundations of the earth,
That you continually tremble with fear all day long because of the rage of the oppressor,
As he takes aim to destroy?
And where is the rage of the oppressor?

¹⁴The [captive] exile will soon be set free, and will not die in the dungeon, nor will his food be lacking.

¹⁵“For I am the LORD your God, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar—the LORD of hosts is His name.

¹⁶“I have put My words in your mouth and have covered you with the shadow of My hand, to establish the [renewed] heavens and lay the foundations of the [renewed] earth, and to say to Zion (Jerusalem), ‘You are My people.’” [Is 65:17; 66:22;
Rev 21:1]

¹⁷Wake yourself up! Wake yourself up! Stand up, O
Jerusalem,
You who have drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of His wrath,

You who have drunk the cup of staggering and intoxication to the dregs [leaving only sediment].

¹⁸There is no one to guide her among all the sons she has borne,

Nor is there anyone to take her by the hand among all the sons she has reared.

¹⁹These two tragedies have befallen you;

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

You're Responsible for Your Own Joy

Would you be willing to make some changes in your approach to life and develop some new habits in order to have the kind of joy we read about in Isaiah 51:11?

One lesson I have learned is that I cannot give someone else the responsibility for my joy. First and foremost, God wants us to find our joy in Him. He won't allow us to constantly get it from any other source. Certainly, people can do things that make us happy, but people are human and may disappoint us. The next time you become upset with someone because they didn't make you happy, take responsibility for your own joy and adjust your attitude.

Another thing I have learned is that complications and stress can devastate my joy, and the only way to lessen their effect is to simplify my life. If we do only those things God has truly assigned to us, He will always give us the grace to do them peacefully and joyfully. However, if we complicate our life by adding all the things that people expect us to do, the story changes. The simple approach reduces stress and increases joy. For example,

- ◆ If someone hurts your feelings or disappoints you, choose to forgive instead of getting angry.
- ◆ If things don't work out your way, trust that God is in control and that what He does will be better than what you had planned.
- ◆ When a problem arises, believe the best instead of the worst.
- ◆ Don't waste your energy worrying because it doesn't do any good.
- ◆ Don't buy more than you can comfortably pay for.
- ◆ Be your unique self and never compare yourself with anyone else.
- ◆ When you sin, repent, receive your forgiveness, and don't waste time feeling guilty.
- ◆ When someone doesn't like you, pray for that person.
- ◆ If your schedule is overcrowded, change it.
- ◆ If you're tired all the time, get more rest.

The simple approach to pressing problems leaves room for joy in the midst of them and enables you to solve them much more quickly.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Dear Father, forgive me for looking to others for my joy rather than to You alone. Help me to take the right steps to making sure that I am doing only what You want me to do and not all the things other people expect from me. Amen.

Who will show sympathy for you and mourn with you?
The desolation and destruction [on the land and city], famine and sword [on the inhabitants];
How shall I comfort you?

²⁰Your sons have fainted;
They lie helpless at the head of every street,
Like an antelope in a net,
Full [from drinking] of the wrath of the LORD,
The rebuke of your God.

²¹Therefore, now hear this, you who are afflicted,
Who are drunk, but not with wine [but overwhelmed by the wrath of God].

²²So says your Lord, the LORD, who is also your God
Who pleads the cause of His people, “Listen carefully, I have taken from your hand the cup of staggering and intoxication,
The cup of My wrath;
You shall never drink it again.

²³“I will put it into the hands of your tormentors,
Who have said to you, ‘Lie down so that we may walk over
you.’
You have even made your back like the ground
And like the street for those who walk over it.”

Put on your strength, O Zion;
Put on your beautiful garments,
O Jerusalem, the holy city;
For the uncircumcised and the unclean
Will no longer come into you. [Rev 21:27]

²Shake yourself from the dust, arise,
O captive Jerusalem;
Rid yourself of the chains around your neck,
O captive Daughter of Zion.

³For the LORD says this, “You were sold for nothing and you will be redeemed, but not with money.”

⁴For the Lord GOD says this, “My people went down at the first into Egypt to live there; and [many years later Sennacherib] the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

⁵“But now, what do I have here,” declares the LORD, “seeing that My people have been taken away without reason? Those who rule over them howl [with taunting and mockery of salvation],” declares the LORD, “and My name is continually blasphemed all day long. [Rom 2:24]

⁶“Therefore My people shall know My Name and what it means. Therefore in that day I am the One who is speaking, ‘Here I am.’” [Ex 3:13, 14]

⁷How beautiful and delightful on the mountains
Are the feet of him who brings good news,
Who announces peace,
Who brings good news of good [things],
Who announces salvation,

Who says to Zion, “Your God reigns!” [Acts 10:36; Rom 10:15; Eph 6:14–16]

⁸Listen! Your watchmen lift up their voices,
Together they shout for joy;
For they will see face to face
The return of the LORD to Zion.

⁹Break forth, shout joyfully together,
You ruins of Jerusalem;
For the LORD has comforted His people,
He has redeemed Jerusalem.

¹⁰The LORD has bared His holy arm (His infinite power)
Before the eyes of all the nations [revealing Himself as the One by Whom Israel is redeemed from captivity],
That all the ends of the earth may see
The salvation of our God. [Luke 2:29–32; 3:6]

¹¹Depart, depart, go out from there (the lands of exile),
Touch no unclean thing;
Go out of the midst of her (Babylon), purify yourselves,
You who carry the articles of the LORD [on your journey from there]. [2 Cor 6:16, 17]

¹²For you will not go out in a hurry [as when you left Egypt],
Nor will you go in flight [fleeing, as you did from the Egyptians];
For the LORD will go before you,
And the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

How To Handle Rejection

Jesus gave His disciples instructions on how to handle rejection. He told them to shake it off (see Matt. 10:14). Basically He was saying, "Don't let it bother you. Don't let it keep you from doing what I have called you to do."

Jesus was despised and rejected (see Isa. 53:3), yet He never seemed to let it bother Him. I am sure He felt pain just as you and I do when we experience rejection, but He did not let it prevent Him from fulfilling His purpose.

Jesus told His disciples not to be concerned about rejection because, in reality, people who rejected them were actually rejecting Jesus (see Luke 10:16). Why should you concern yourself with the opinions of people? You cannot control what they think, so leave them and their opinions in God's hands and focus on doing God's will.

13 Indeed, My Servant (the Messiah) will act wisely and prosper;

He will be raised and lifted up and greatly exalted.

14 Just as many were astonished and appalled at you, My people,

So His appearance was marred more than any man

And His form [marred] more than the sons of men.

¹⁵ So He will sprinkle many nations [with His blood, providing salvation],
Kings will shut their mouths because of Him;
For what they had not been told they will see,
And what they had not heard they will understand. [Rom 15:21]

53 WHO HAS believed [confidently trusted in, relied on, and adhered to] our message [of salvation]? [Is 52:7, 10]
And to whom [if not us] has the arm and infinite power of the LORD been revealed? [John 12:38–41; Rom 10:16]

² For He [the Servant of God] grew up before Him like a tender shoot (plant),
And like a root out of dry ground;
He has no stately form or majestic splendor
That we would look at Him,
Nor [handsome] appearance that we would be attracted to Him.

³ He was despised and rejected by men,
A Man of sorrows and pain and acquainted with grief;
And like One from whom men hide their faces
He was despised, and we did not appreciate His worth or esteem Him.

⁴ But [in fact] He has borne our griefs,
And He has carried our sorrows and pains;
Yet we [ignorantly] assumed that He was stricken,
Struck down by God and degraded and humiliated [by Him].

[Matt 8:17]

- ⁵But He was wounded for our transgressions,
He was crushed for our wickedness [our sin, our injustice,
our wrongdoing];
The punishment [required] for our well-being fell on Him,
And by His stripes (wounds) we are healed.
- ⁶All of us like sheep have gone astray,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

A Time To Keep Quiet

What do you think Isaiah 53:7 means when it says that Jesus did not open His mouth? I think it means Jesus had the wisdom to know that when He was under pressure, He could be tempted to say things He should not say. So when He came into the final agonizing days of His life on earth, He said very little.

At the end of Jesus' earthly life, He said to His disciples, "I will not speak with you much longer, for the ruler of the world (Satan) is coming. And he has no claim on Me [no power over Me nor anything that he can use against Me]" (John 14:30). I believe Jesus was saying, "Satan is really coming on strong right now, but he hasn't got anything on Me, and I am not going to open My mouth and say anything that might give him an open door. If I seem a little quiet right now, don't think too much about it. It's just that things are going to be tough for a while, and I don't want to say anything based on my emotions."

I don't think any of us who belong to God want to express the work of the enemy, but some do allow him to speak through them when they verbally express their thoughts or feelings instead of speaking God's Word. When you are under emotional pressure, sometimes the best thing to do is to keep quiet and refuse to say anything. That way, you deny the enemy the opportunity to work through you and make a bad

We have turned, each one, to his own way;
But the LORD has caused the wickedness of us all [our sin,
our injustice, our wrongdoing]
To fall on Him [instead of us]. [1 Pet 2:24, 25]

⁷He was oppressed and He was afflicted,
Yet He did not open His mouth [to complain or defend Himself];
Like a lamb that is led to the slaughter,
And like a sheep that is silent before her shearers,
So He did not open His mouth.

⁸After oppression and judgment He was taken away;
And as for His generation [His contemporaries], who [among them] concerned himself with the fact That He was cut off from the land of the living [by His death]
For the transgression of my people, to whom the stroke [of death] was due?

⁹His grave was assigned with the wicked,
But He was with a rich man in His death,
Because He had done no violence,
Nor was there any deceit in His mouth. [Matt 27:57–60; 1
Pet 2:22, 23]

¹⁰Yet the LORD was willing
To crush Him, causing Him to suffer;
If He would give Himself as a guilt offering [an atonement

- for sin],
He shall see His [spiritual] offspring,
He shall prolong His days,
And the will (good pleasure) of the LORD shall succeed and prosper in His hand.
- ¹¹ As a result of the anguish of His soul,
He shall see it and be satisfied;
By His knowledge [of what He has accomplished] the Righteous One,
My Servant, shall justify the many [making them righteous —upright before God, in right standing with Him], For He shall bear [the responsibility for] their sins.
- ¹² Therefore, I will divide and give Him a portion with the great [kings and rulers],
And He shall divide the spoils with the mighty,
Because He [willingly] poured out His life to death,
And was counted among the transgressors;
Yet He Himself bore and took away the sin of many,
And interceded [with the Father] for the transgressors.
[Luke 22:37]

54 “SHOUT FOR joy, O barren one, she who has not given birth; Break forth into joyful shouting and rejoice, she who has not gone into labor [with child]!

For the [spiritual] sons of the desolate one will be more numerous

Than the sons of the married woman,” says the LORD. [Gal

4:27]

²“Enlarge the site of your tent [to make room for more children];

Stretch out the curtains of your dwellings, do not spare them;

Lengthen your tent ropes

And make your pegs (stakes) firm [in the ground].

³“For you will spread out to the right and to the left;

And your descendants will take possession of nations

And will inhabit deserted cities.

⁴“Do not fear, for you will not be put to shame,

And do not feel humiliated or ashamed, for you will not be disgraced.

For you will forget the shame of your youth,

And you will no longer remember the disgrace of your widowhood.

⁵“For your husband is your Maker,

The LORD of hosts is His name;

POWERPOINT

If our lives are rooted and grounded in shame, the Lord has promised to remove from us the curse and power of shame and dishonor so that we remember it no more (see Isa. 54:4). You can boldly declare by faith that you are healed from the pains and wounds of your past; you have been set free to live a new life of freedom and wholeness.

And your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel,
Who is called the God of the whole earth.

⁶“For the LORD has called you,
Like a wife who has been abandoned, grieved in spirit,
And like a wife [married] in her youth when she is [later] rejected and scorned,”
Says your God.

⁷“For a brief moment I abandoned you,

But with great compassion and mercy I will gather you [to Myself again].

8“In an outburst of wrath
I hid My face from you for a moment,
But with everlasting kindness I will have compassion on
you,”
Says the LORD your Redeemer.

9“For this is like the waters of Noah to Me,
As I swore [an oath] that the waters of Noah
Would not flood the earth again;
In the same way I have sworn that I will not be angry with
you
Nor will I rebuke you.

10“For the mountains may be removed and the hills may shake,
But My lovingkindness will not be removed from you,
Nor will My covenant of peace be shaken,”
Says the LORD who has compassion on you.

Speak God's Word

No weapon that is formed against me will succeed; and every tongue that rises against me in judgment God will condemn. This peace, righteousness, security, and triumph over opposition are my heritage because I am a servant of the Lord.

- ¹¹“O you afflicted [city], storm-tossed, and not comforted,
Listen carefully, I will set your [precious] stones in mortar,
And lay your foundations with sapphires.
- ¹²“And I will make your battlements of rubies,
And your gates of [shining] beryl stones,
And all your [barrier] walls of precious stones. [Rev 21:19–21]
- ¹³“And all your [spiritual] sons will be disciples [of the LORD],
And great will be the well-being of your sons. [John 6:45]
- ¹⁴“You will be firmly established in righteousness:
You will be far from [even the thought of] oppression, for you will not fear,

And from terror, for it will not come near you.
¹⁵“If anyone fiercely attacks you it will not be from Me.

POWERPOINT

Isaiah 54:17 is part of your inheritance as a believer. If you spend time with God, you are protected by His presence. When we spend time in God's presence, He becomes our protection, our stability, our place of refuge. He becomes the source of our help, not only when we feel the enemy has forged weapons against us, but in every situation and circumstance.

Whoever attacks you will fall because of you.

¹⁶“Listen carefully, I have created the smith who blows on the fire of coals

And who produces a weapon for its purpose;

And I have created the destroyer to inflict ruin.

¹⁷“No weapon that is formed against you will succeed;

And every tongue that rises against you in judgment you will condemn.

This [peace, righteousness, security, and triumph over opposition] is the heritage of the servants of the LORD,
And this is their vindication from Me,” says the LORD.

55 “EVERYONE WHO thirsts, come to the waters; And you who have no money come, buy grain and eat.

Come, buy wine and milk

Without money and without cost [simply accept it as a gift from God]. [Rev 21:6, 7; 22:17]

2“Why do you spend money for that which is not bread,
And your earnings for what does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to Me, and eat what is good,
And let your soul delight in abundance. [Jer 31:12–14]

3“Incline your ear [to listen] and come to Me;
Hear, so that your soul may live;
And I will make an everlasting covenant with you,
According to the faithful mercies [promised and] shown to David. [2 Sam 7:8–16; Acts 13:34; Heb 13:20]

4“Listen carefully, I have appointed him [David, representing the Messiah] to be a witness to the nations [regarding salvation], A leader and commander to the peoples.

5“In fact, you [Israel] will call a nation that you do not know,
And a nation that does not know you will run to you,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Victory over Financial Worries

Isaiah 55:1 says that those who have no money can still buy and eat. That doesn't usually happen in the world in which we live. When we are low on money, we tend to worry. The enemy takes advantage of financial concerns and wreaks havoc in our minds with thoughts such as, How will I pay the rent or the mortgage? What if the car breaks down? How will I pay my bills? What if I get sick and have medical expenses?

I have had times in my life when I have worried, not only about our financial needs, but about many other things as well. Finally, I learned to simply do what I could and then trust God to do what I could not do.

God met our financial needs—sometimes through amazing miracles—and all my worry was for nothing. As I look back, instead of enjoying the wonderful, abundant life Jesus offered to me, I wasted my energies trying to fix things I couldn't fix. I am enjoying my life now, but I could have enjoyed it back then too. God wants us to trust His faithfulness, and doing so honors Him.

Because of the LORD your God, even the Holy One of Israel;
For He has glorified you.”

⁶Seek the LORD while He may be found;

Call on Him [for salvation] while He is near.

⁷Let the wicked leave (behind) his way
And the unrighteous man his thoughts;
And let him return to the LORD,
And He will have compassion (mercy) on him,
And to our God,
For He will abundantly pardon.

⁸“For My thoughts are not your thoughts,
Nor are your ways My ways,” declares the LORD.

⁹“For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
So are My ways higher than your ways
And My thoughts higher than your thoughts.

¹⁰“For as the rain and snow come down from heaven,
And do not return there without watering the earth,
Making it bear and sprout,

POWERPOINT

Isaiah 55:10 uses a natural principle to teach a spiritual lesson. Just as natural seeds produce a harvest in the earth, God's Word produces a harvest in our lives. When He speaks it, or when we speak the Word as His children, the results will be based on the type of seeds we have sown. Simply put, if I talk most of the time about lack, the people who have hurt me, disappointments, and problems, those "word seeds" will produce more of the same in my life. On the other hand, if I choose to talk about provision, the goodness of God, hope, and faith, I am sowing seeds that will produce more good, positive results. If we understand and act on this principle, we can change our words and therefore change our lives.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God's Ways Are Higher

Are you always trying to figure everything out? Many of us have fallen into that trap. Instead of casting our care upon the Lord, we go through life carrying heavy burdens we are not meant to carry.

When we try to figure everything out, we are exalting our reasoning above God's thoughts. We are placing our ways higher than His ways. When God revealed that I had to give up excessive reasoning that was contrary to the truth, it was a real challenge. I couldn't stand to not have everything figured out!

For example, several years ago God put it in our hearts to do some things in our ministry that I didn't have the slightest idea how to go about doing. But God never called me to figure out exactly how to accomplish everything He asked me to do. He called me to seek Him rather than the answer to my problems, and then to obey what He told me to do.

When we worry, we lose our peace, and when we try to figure everything out, we become confused. Confusion is the result of our mentally trying to understand things about which God has not yet given us understanding. We should be trusting in the Lord with all our heart to make a way for us according to His plan. When we trust that His thoughts are higher than our thoughts, we stop confusion before it starts (see Isa. 55:9).

God's peace is always available, and we can enjoy it if we choose to do so, but it does require total trust in the Lord.

And providing seed to the sower and bread to the eater, [2
Cor 9:10]

¹¹So will My word be which goes out of My mouth;
“It will not return to Me void (useless, without result),
Without accomplishing what I desire,
And without succeeding in the matter for which I sent it.

¹²“For you will go out [from exile] with joy
And be led forth [by the LORD Himself] with peace;
The mountains and the hills will break forth into shouts of joy before you,
And all the trees of the field will clap their hands.

¹³“Instead of the thorn bush the cypress tree will grow,
And instead of the nettle the myrtle tree will grow;
And it will be a memorial to the LORD,
For an everlasting sign [of His mercy] which will not be cut off.”

56 THIS IS what the LORD says, “Maintain justice and do
righteousness,

For My salvation is soon to come,
And My righteousness and justice is soon to be revealed.
[Is 62:1, 11; Matt 3:2; Luke 21:31; Rom 13:11, 12]

²“Blessed (happy, fortunate) is the man who does this,
And the son of man who takes hold of it,

Who keeps the Sabbath without profaning it,
And keeps his hand from doing any evil.”

³Do not let the foreigner who has joined himself to the LORD say,
“The LORD will most certainly separate me from His people.”
And do not let the eunuch say, “Look, I am a dry tree.”

⁴This is what the LORD says,
“To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths
And choose what pleases Me,
And hold firmly to My covenant,

⁵To them I will give in My house and within My walls a memorial,
And a name better than that of sons and daughters;
I will give them an everlasting name which will not be cut off.

⁶“Also the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, To minister to Him, and to love the name of the LORD,
To be His servants, everyone who keeps the Sabbath without profaning it
And holds fast to My covenant [by conscientious
obedience];

⁷All these I will bring to My holy mountain
And make them joyful in My house of prayer.
Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on My altar;
For My house will be called a house of prayer for all the peoples.”

⁸The Lord GOD, who gathers the dispersed of Israel, declares:
“I will gather yet others to them (Israel), to those [already] gathered.”

⁹All you beasts of the field,
All you beasts (hostile nations) in the forest,
Come to eat.

¹⁰Israel’s watchmen are blind,
They are all without knowledge.
They are all mute dogs, they cannot bark;
Panting, lying down, they love to slumber.

¹¹And the dogs are greedy; they never have enough.
They are shepherds who have no understanding;
They have all turned to their own way,
Each one to his unlawful gain, without exception.

¹²“Come,” [they say,] “let us get wine, and let us fill ourselves with strong drink;
And tomorrow will be like today, very great indeed.”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God's Word Does Not Return Void

We fail to receive answers to our prayers when they are based on something other than the Word of God. The prophet Isaiah says, "My word... will not return to Me void (useless, without result)" (Isa. 55:11). God says His Word will always accomplish the purpose for which He has sent it. Learn the Word. Speak the Word. Pray the Word. We need to let God know that our intent is always to be standing on the foundation of the Word in prayer, and He will guide us into all truth.

When the enemy tries to lie to us, we can quote the Scriptures to him just as Jesus did in the wilderness (see Matt. 4). The Bible says the Word is "sharper than any two-edged sword" (Heb. 4:12). It divides soul and spirit and judges the very thoughts and purposes of our hearts.

As we grow in God, we will learn to pray spirit-led prayers—prayers that are filled with God's Word and are in accordance with His will.

57 THE RIGHTEOUS man perishes [at the hand of evil], and no one takes it to heart; Faithful and devout men are taken away, while no one understands

That the righteous person is taken away [to be spared] from disaster and evil.

²He enters into peace [through death];
They rest in their beds (graves),
Each one who walked uprightly [following God's will, living with integrity].

³“But come here, you sons of a sorceress [raised in deception and superstition],
Offspring of an adulterer and a prostitute.

⁴“Of whom do you make fun?
Against whom do you open wide your mouth
And stick out your tongue?
Are you not children of rebellion (sin),
Offspring of deceit,

⁵Who inflame yourselves [with lust in pagan rites] among the oaks (terebinth trees),
Under every green and leafy tree,
Who slaughter the children [in sacrifice] in the ravines
Under the clefts of the rocks?

⁶“Among the smooth stones of the ravine
Is your portion, they (the idols) are your lot;
Even to them you have poured out a drink offering,
You have offered a grain offering.
Should I be quiet concerning these things [leaving them unpunished—bearing them with patience]?

⁷“Upon a high and lofty mountain
You have [openly and shamelessly] made your [idolatrous and adulterous] bed;
Even there you went up to offer sacrifice [to idols, in spiritual unfaithfulness to Me].

8“Behind the door and the doorpost
You have set up your [pagan] symbol;
Indeed, far removed from Me, you have uncovered yourself,
And have gone up and made your bed wide.
And you have made a [new] agreement for yourself with the adulterers,
You have loved their bed,
You have looked [with passion] on their manhood. [Deut
6:5, 6, 9; 11:18, 20]

9“You have gone to the king [of a pagan land] with oil
And increased your perfumes;
You have sent your messengers a great distance
And made them go down to Sheol (the realm of the dead).

10“You were wearied by the length of your road,
Yet you did not say, ‘It is no use.’
You found renewed strength,
Therefore you did not grow weak.

11“About whom were you worried and fearful
That you lied and did not remember Me,
Nor give Me a thought?
Was I not silent even for a long time
And [as a result] you do not fear Me?

12“I will declare your [hypocritical] righteousness and your deeds,
But they will not benefit you.

13“When you cry out [for help], let your [ridiculous] collection of idols save you.

But the wind will carry them all away,
A [mere] breath will take them.
But he who takes refuge in Me will possess the land [Judea]
And will inherit My holy mountain.” [Ps 37:9, 11; 69:35, 36;
Is 49:8; Matt 5:5; Heb 12:22]

14 And it will be said,

POWERPOINT

God is the exalted One Who dwells on the high and holy place. I find it amazing that He also dwells with those who have a contrite and humble spirit (see Isa. 57:15). Let us seek to always humble ourselves under God's mighty hand and maintain a heart attitude that is quick to repent of any sin.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Fasting Your Words

Isaiah 58 has had a profound effect on my life. When we speak of fasting, we are usually talking about abstaining from food for a certain period of time. But there are other things we may be able to deny ourselves. For example, I have a lot more trouble with what comes out of my mouth than with what goes into it because I am very disciplined in my eating. That's why in addition to fasting food at certain times, I have also been trying to learn to "fast" my words.

To me, fasting my words means that when God's Word instructs me not to speak in certain ways, I will do my best to refrain from doing so. If I fail, I will immediately repent, ask God for forgiveness, and seek to do better in the future. It also means that when I am about to say something and the Holy Spirit whispers, "Don't say that," I stop immediately and rethink what I should say, if anything at all.

Sometimes I am so busy talking that I simply do not hear the Holy Spirit's promptings. At other times, I do hear them, but I so much want to say what I intend to say that I keep on talking. God's chastisement for me in this area is becoming stronger, and I am glad of it, because it is obvious to me that I need Him to keep showing me how serious the power of my words is.

I know that none of us can tame the tongue in our human strength (see James 3:8). When we commit to fast our words, we need to lean heavily on the Lord's help and never give up. Are you willing to make the effort to obey what God's Word says about your words and to stop talking or to reconsider your words when the Holy Spirit prompts you to do so? Saying you will fast your words is much easier than actually doing it, but if it is your desire, God will see your heart and help you.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord, I sincerely want to speak words that are pleasing to you and to say only what You would have me say, and I can only do that by Your grace. I ask You to help me to be sensitive to the promptings of the Holy Spirit concerning my speech. In Jesus' name. Amen.

“Build up, build up, clear the way.

Remove the stumbling block out of the way [of the spiritual return] of My people.”

¹⁵For the high and exalted One

He who inhabits eternity, Whose name is Holy says this,

“I dwell on the high and holy place,

But also with the contrite and humble in spirit

In order to revive the spirit of the humble

And to revive the heart of the contrite [overcome with sorrow for sin]. [Matt 5:3]

¹⁶“For I will not contend forever,

Nor will I always be angry;

For [if I did stay angry] the spirit [of man] would grow weak before Me,

And the breath of those whom I have created.

¹⁷“Because of the wickedness of his unjust gain I was angry and struck him;

I hid My face and was angry,

And he went on turning away and backsliding, in the way of his [own willful] heart.

¹⁸“I have seen his [willful] ways, but I will heal him;

I will lead him [also] and will restore comfort to him and to those who mourn for him, [Is 61:1, 2; 66:10]

¹⁹As I create the praise of his lips,

Peace, peace, to him who is far away [both Jew and Gentile] and to him who is near!”

Says the LORD;

“And I will heal him [making his lips blossom anew with thankful praise].” [Acts 2:39; Eph 2:13–17, 18; Heb 13:15]

²⁰But the wicked are like the tossing sea,
For it cannot be quiet,
And its waters toss up mire and mud.

²¹“There is no peace,” says my God, “for the wicked.”

58 “CRY ALOUD, do not hold back; Lift up your voice like a trumpet,
And declare to My people their transgression
And to the house of Jacob their sins.

POWERPOINT

Isaiah 58:9 does not require a deep theological discussion to understand its meaning. It says what it means, and it means what it says. If I want my prayers to be answered quickly, I need to treat people well, never judge them critically, and learn how to speak properly by eliminating every form of sinful or unjust speech. I have had to pray often asking God to help me to obey this scripture, and I encourage you to do the same.

2“Yet they seek Me day by day and delight [superficially] to know My ways,
As [if they were in reality] a nation that has done righteousness
And has not abandoned (turned away from) the ordinance of their God.

They ask of Me righteous judgments,
They delight in the nearness of God.

³‘Why have we fasted,’ they say, ‘and You do not see it?
Why have we humbled ourselves and You do not notice?’
Hear this [O Israel], on the day of your fast [when you should be grieving for your sins] you find something you desire [to do], And you force your hired servants to work [instead of stopping all work, as the law teaches]. [Lev
16:29]

⁴“The facts are that you fast only for strife and brawling and to strike with the fist of wickedness.
You do not fast as you do today to make your voice heard on high.

⁵“Is a fast such as this what I have chosen, a day for a man to humble himself [with sorrow in his soul]?
Is it only to bow down his head like a reed
And to make sackcloth and ashes as a bed [pretending to have a repentant heart]?

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Interrupt Yourself If Necessary

More than once the Bible warns about speaking “idle” or careless words (see Isa. 58:13; Matt. 12:36). An idle word is a useless word that does nothing. If it does anything at all, it usually hurts somebody. To a large degree, the life we are living now is the result of thoughts we’ve meditated on and words we’ve spoken in the past.

If you realize you’re thinking about something that is not fruitful, the best way to interrupt a thought pattern is to speak what you want to think about. For example, if I find myself thinking, People don’t treat me right, and I am not happy about it, I can interrupt that thought pattern by saying or thinking, The people in my life are not perfect, but I am not either, and I am blessed in many ways. Choose wise, positive thoughts and words!

Do you call this a fast and a day pleasing to the LORD?

⁶“[Rather] is this not the fast which I choose,
To undo the bonds of wickedness,
To tear to pieces the ropes of the yoke,
To let the oppressed go free
And break apart every [enslaving] yoke? [Acts 8:23]

⁷“Is it not to divide your bread with the hungry
And bring the homeless poor into the house;

When you see the naked, that you cover him,
And not to hide yourself from [the needs of] your own flesh and blood?

8“Then your light will break out like the dawn,
And your healing (restoration, new life) will quickly spring forth;
Your righteousness will go before you [leading you to peace and prosperity],
The glory of the LORD will be your rear guard. [Ex 14:19, 20;
Is 52:12]

9“Then you will call, and the LORD will answer;
You will cry for help, and He will say, ‘Here I am.’
If you take away from your midst the yoke [of oppression],
The finger pointed in scorn [toward the oppressed or the godly], and [every form of] wicked (sinful, unjust) speech,
[Ex 3:14]

10 And if you offer yourself to [assist] the hungry
And satisfy the need of the afflicted,
Then your light will rise in darkness
And your gloom will become like midday.

11“And the LORD will continually guide you,
And satisfy your soul in scorched and dry places,
And give strength to your bones;
And you will be like a watered garden,
And like a spring of water whose waters do not fail.

12“And your people will rebuild the ancient ruins;
You will raise up and restore the age-old foundations [of buildings that have been laid waste];

You will be called Repairer of the Breach,
Restorer of Streets with Dwellings.

- ¹³“If you turn back your foot from [unnecessary travel on] the Sabbath,
From doing your own pleasure on My holy day,
And call the Sabbath a [spiritual] delight, and the holy day of the LORD honorable, And honor it, not going your own way
Or engaging in your own pleasure
Or speaking your own [idle] words,
¹⁴Then you will take pleasure in the LORD,
And I will make you ride on the high places of the earth,
And I will feed you with the [promised] heritage of Jacob your father;
For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.” [Gen 27:28, 29; 28:13–15]

59 BEHOLD, THE LORD’S hand is not so short That it cannot save,

Nor His ear so impaired
That it cannot hear.

²But your wickedness has separated you from your God,
And your sins have hidden His face from you so that He does not hear.

³For your hands are defiled with blood
And your fingers with wickedness [with sin, with injustice, with wrongdoing];

Your lips have spoken lies,
Your tongue mutters wickedness.

⁴No one sues righteously [but for the sake of doing injury to others—to take some undue advantage], and no one pleads [his case] in truth; [but rather] They trust in empty arguments and speak lies;
They conceive trouble and bring forth injustice.

⁵They hatch vipers' eggs and weave the spider's webs;
He who eats of their eggs dies,
And from an egg which is crushed a viper breaks out.

⁶Their webs will not serve as clothing,
Nor will they cover themselves with what they make;
Their works are works of wickedness [of sin, of injustice, of wrongdoing],
And the act of violence is in their hands.

⁷Their feet run to evil,
And they rush to shed innocent blood.
Their thoughts are thoughts of wickedness [of sin, of injustice, of wrongdoing];
Devastation and destruction are in their highways.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Is Anything Hidden?

If you have been praying for a miracle or for God to bring something into your life that you have not yet received, ask yourself if there is something in your life that has “hidden His face from you so that He does not hear” (Isa. 59:2). Is there someone you need to forgive (see Mark 11:25)? Don’t try to justify your anger and unforgiveness. Don’t complain about your circumstances or what people have done to you; instead, trust God to be your Vindicator.

When you pray, say to God: “God, I don’t want to have any unforgiveness or anger in my heart toward anyone. If I do, please reveal it to me so I can pray for them instead of being angry.” Let’s have the goal of being able to say daily, “I’m not mad at anyone. I’m not angry; I’m not bitter; I’m not offended; I am going to believe the best.” Don’t waste your life being angry; instead, be difficult to offend and quick to forgive.

⁸They do not know the way of peace,
And there is no justice in their tracks.
They have made them into crooked paths;
Whoever walks on them does not know peace. [Rom 3:15–
18]

⁹Therefore justice is far from us,
And righteousness does not overtake us.

We [expectantly] hope for light, but only see darkness;
We hope for gleam of light, but we walk in darkness and gloom.

¹⁰We grope for a wall like the blind,
We grope like those who have no eyes.
We stumble at midday as in the twilight;
Among those who are healthy we are like dead men.

¹¹We all groan and growl like bears,
And coo sadly like doves;
We hope for justice, but there is none,
For salvation, but it is far from us.

¹²For our transgressions are multiplied before You [O LORD],
And our sins testify against us;
For our transgressions are with us,
And we know and recognize our wickedness [our sin, our injustice, our wrongdoing]:

¹³Rebelling against and denying the LORD,
Turning away from [following] our God,
Speaking oppression and revolt,
Conceiving and muttering from the heart lying words.

¹⁴Justice is pushed back,
And righteous behavior stands far away;
For truth has fallen in the city square,
And integrity cannot enter.

¹⁵Yes, truth is missing;
And he who turns away from evil makes himself a prey.
Now the LORD saw it,

And it displeased Him that there was no justice.

¹⁶He saw that there was no man,
And was amazed that there was no one to intercede [on behalf of truth and right];
Therefore His own arm brought salvation to Him,
And His own righteousness sustained Him. [Is 53:11; Col
2:9; 1 John 2:1, 2]

¹⁷For He [the LORD] put on righteousness like a coat of armor,
And salvation like a helmet on His head;
He put on garments of vengeance for clothing
And covered Himself with zeal [and great love for His people] as a cloak. [Eph 6:14, 17; 1 Thess 5:8]

¹⁸As their deeds deserve, so He will repay:
Wrath to His adversaries, retribution to His enemies;
To the islands and coastlands He will repay.

¹⁹So they will fear the name of the LORD from the west
And His glory from the rising of the sun.
For He will come in like a narrow, rushing stream Which the breath of the LORD drives [overwhelming the enemy]. [Matt 8:11; Luke 13:29]

²⁰“A Redeemer (Messiah) will come to Zion,
And to those in Jacob (Israel) who turn from transgression (sin),” declares the LORD.

²¹“As for Me, this is My covenant with them,” says the LORD: “My Spirit which is upon you [writing the law of God on the heart], and My words which I have put in your mouth shall not depart from your mouth, nor from the mouths of your [true, spiritual] children, nor from the mouth of your children’s children,” says the LORD, “from now and forever.” [Jer 31:33; Rom 11:26, 27; Gal 3:29; Heb 12:22–24]

60 “ARISE [from spiritual depression to a new life], shine [be radiant with the glory and brilliance of the LORD]; for your light has come, And the glory and brilliance of the LORD has risen upon you. [Zech 8:23]

²“For in fact, darkness will cover the earth
And deep darkness will cover the peoples;
But the LORD will rise upon you [Jerusalem]
And His glory and brilliance will be seen on you. [Is 60:19–22; Mal 4:2; Rev 21:2, 3]

³“Nations will come to your light,
And kings to the brightness of your rising. [Is 2:2, 3; Jer 3:17]

Speak God's Word

I arise from spiritual depression to a new life and shine. I am radiant with the glory and brilliance of the Lord; for my light has come, and the glory and brilliance of the Lord has risen upon me.

- 4“Lift up your eyes around you and see;
They all gather together, they come to you.
Your sons will come from far away,
And your daughters will be looked after at their side.
- 5“Then you will see and be radiant,
And your heart will tremble [with joy] and rejoice
Because the abundant wealth of the seas will be brought to
you,
The wealth of the nations will come to you. [Ps 119:32]
- 6“A multitude of camels [from the eastern trading tribes] will cover you [Jerusalem],
The young camels of Midian and Ephah;

All those from Sheba [who once came to trade] will come
Bringing gold and frankincense
And proclaiming the praises of the LORD. [Matt 2:11]

7“All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered to you [as the eastern pastoral tribes join the trading tribes], The rams of Nebaioth will serve you;
They will go up with acceptance [as sacrifices] on My altar,
And I will glorify the house of My honor and splendor.

8“Who are these who fly like a cloud
And like doves to their windows?

9“The islands and coastlands will confidently wait for Me;
And the ships of Tarshish will come first,
To bring your sons from far away,
Their silver and gold with them,
For the name of the LORD your God,
For the Holy One of Israel because He has glorified you.

10“Foreigners will build up your walls,
And their kings will serve you;
For in My [righteous] wrath I struck you,
But in My favor and grace I have had compassion on you.

11“Your gates will be open continually;
They shall not be shut day or night,
So that people may bring to you the wealth of the nations—
With their kings led in procession. [Rev 21:24–27]

12“For the nation or the kingdom which will not serve you
[Jerusalem] shall perish,
And the nations [that refuse to serve] shall be utterly ruined.

- 13“The glory of Lebanon will come to you,
The cypress, the juniper, and the cedar together,
To beautify the place of My sanctuary;
And I will honor and make the place of My feet glorious.
- 14“The sons of those who oppressed you will come bowing down to you [in submission],
And all those who despised you and treated you disrespectfully will bow down at the soles of your feet,
And they will call you the City of the LORD,
The Zion of the Holy One of Israel. [Rev 3:9]
- 15“Whereas you [Jerusalem] have been abandoned and hated
With no one passing through,
I will make you an object of pride forever,
A joy from generation to generation.
- 16“*You will suck the milk of the [Gentile] nations
And suck the breast (abundance) of kings;
Then you will recognize and know that I, the LORD, am your Savior
And your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.*
- 17“Instead of bronze I will bring gold,
And instead of iron I will bring silver,
And instead of wood, bronze,
And instead of stones, iron.
And [instead of the tyranny of the present] I will appoint peace as your officers,
And righteousness your rulers.

- 18“Violence will not be heard again in your land,
Nor devastation or destruction within your borders;
But you will call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise [to God].
- 19““The sun will no longer be your light by day,
Nor shall the bright glow of the moon give light to you,
But the LORD will be an everlasting light for you;
And your God will be your glory and splendor. [Jer 9:23, 24;
Rev 21:23]
- 20“Your sun will no longer set,
Nor will your moon wane;
For the LORD will be your everlasting light,
And the days of your mourning will be over.
- 21“Then all your people will be [uncompromisingly and
consistently] righteous;
They will possess the land forever,
The branch of My planting,
The work of My hands,
That I may be glorified.
- 22““The smallest one will become a thousand (a clan),
And the least one a mighty nation.
I, the LORD, will quicken it in its [appointed] time.”

61 THE SPIRIT of the Lord GOD is upon me, Because the LORD has anointed and commissioned me
To bring good news to the humble and afflicted;
He has sent me to bind up [the wounds of] the

- brokenhearted,
To proclaim release [from confinement and condemnation] to the [physical and spiritual] captives
And freedom to prisoners, [Rom 10:15]
- ²To proclaim the favorable year of the LORD,
And the day of vengeance and retribution of our God,
To comfort all who mourn, [Matt 11:2–6; Luke 4:18, 19; 7:22]
- ³To grant to those who mourn in Zion the following:

Speak God's Word

The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed and commissioned me to bring the good news to the humble and afflicted; He has sent me to bind up the wounds of the brokenhearted, to proclaim release to the physical and spiritual captives and freedom to prisoners.

| adapted from ISAIAH 61:1 |

To give them a turban instead of dust [on their heads, a sign of mourning],

The oil of joy instead of mourning,

The garment [expressive] of praise instead of a disheartened spirit.

So they will be called the trees of righteousness [strong and magnificent, distinguished for integrity, justice, and right standing with God], The planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified.

⁴Then they will rebuild the ancient ruins,
They will raise up and restore the former desolations;
And they will renew the ruined cities,
The desolations (deserted settlements) of many generations.

⁵Strangers will stand and feed your flocks,
And foreigners will be your farmers and your vinedressers.

⁶But you shall be called the priests of the LORD;
People will speak of you as the ministers of our God.
You will eat the wealth of nations,
And you will boast of their riches. [Ex 19:6; 1 Pet 2:5; Rev
1:6; 5:10; 20:6]

⁷Instead of your [former] shame you will have a double portion;
And instead of humiliation your people will shout for joy over their portion.
Therefore in their land they will possess double [what they had forfeited];
Everlasting joy will be theirs.

⁸For I, the LORD, love justice;
I hate robbery with a burnt offering.
And I will faithfully reward them,

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Exchange Joy for Mourning

When you face unexpected challenges, disappointments, or frustrations, you can set your mind in advance to not let those situations steal your joy. Being unhappy does nothing except make you miserable, so don't waste your time with it. You can choose not to allow the situations of each day determine the kind of life you're going to live. You can choose to smile even in the midst of challenging circumstances and refuse to let frustrations—big or small—keep you from enjoying your life. Jesus said that we would have tribulation in this world, but that we should cheer up because He has overcome the world (see John 16:33).

Finding the best in any situation and keeping a positive outlook is only possible because of the promises found in God's Word. Romans 8:28 reads, "And we know [with great confidence] that God [who is deeply concerned about us] causes all things to work together [as a plan] for good for those who love God, to those who are called according to His plan and purpose." Notice that the verse does not say God works some things together for your good; it says all things. Every situation, every trial, every frustration—God is going to work it all out for your good, as you love and trust Him.

God can even take the most difficult things you've been through and use them for your good. Isaiah 61:3 says He will give us “the oil of joy instead of mourning, the garment [expressive] of praise instead of a disheartened spirit.” Some translations of the Bible, such as the King James Version, also say He will give us “beauty for ashes.” God did not cause the pain you have suffered or the trials you have endured. But He can heal your wounds and use what you've been through to accomplish something beautiful in your life and through you into the lives of others.

Personally, I have found that believing God will work good out of any dilemma I experience really helps me get through it with a positive, hopeful attitude. The fact that He exchanges joy for mourning and beauty for ashes is a wonderful truth that I have seen proven time after time. Whatever you may be going through right now, begin to think and say, “God will work this out for my good. I may have mourning and ashes right now, but God will soon turn them into joy and beauty!”

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

God of joy, no matter what I go through or how difficult it may be, help me to always remember that you exchange the oil of joy for mourning and beauty for ashes. In You, I always have the confident expectation of better days. In Jesus' name. Amen.

And make an everlasting covenant with them.

- ⁹Then their offspring will be known among the nations,
And their descendants among the peoples.
All who see them [in their prosperity] will recognize and acknowledge them
That they are the people whom the LORD has blessed.

- ¹⁰I will rejoice greatly in the LORD,
My soul will exult in my God;
For He has clothed me with garments of salvation,
He has covered me with a robe of righteousness,
As a bridegroom puts on a turban,
And as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.
- ¹¹For as the earth brings forth its sprouts,
And as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up,
So the Lord GOD will [most certainly] cause righteousness and justice and praise To spring up before all the nations [through the power of His word].

62 FOR ZION'S sake I (Isaiah) will not be silent, And for Jerusalem's sake I will not keep quiet, Until her righteousness and vindication go forth as brightness,
And her salvation goes forth like a burning torch.

- ²The nations will see your righteousness and vindication
[by God],

And all kings [will see] your glory;
And you will be called by a new name
Which the mouth of the LORD will designate. [Rev 2:17]

³You will also be [considered] a crown of glory and splendor in the hand of the LORD, And a royal diadem [exceedingly beautiful] in the hand of your God.

⁴It will no longer be said of you [Judah], “Azubah (Abandoned),”

Nor will it any longer be said of your land, “Shemamah (Desolate)”;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Remind God of His Promises

Reminding God of His promises requires confidence in our relationship with Him. Imagine a child coming to his father and saying, "Dad, you promised you would play ball with me tonight." That is a beautiful example of a child who is confident in his father's love. But it can be a bit more difficult to believe we can go to Father God in the same way, reminding Him of His promises to us.

You could pray something like this, "Father, You have promised to give me favor, so I am expecting favor today. You have promised that I can do all things through Your strength, so I am expecting that You will strengthen me for my tasks today. You are my wisdom, so I expect to make wise decisions today."

According to the Word, you have the right, through Christ, to go boldly to the throne of grace in Jesus' name with your requests. You see, God actually wants you to remind Him "day or night" in your prayers of His promises as you wait for Him to fulfill His plan for your life (see Isa. 62:6).

But you will be called, "Hephzibah (My Delight is in Her),"
And your land, "Married";
For the LORD delights in you,
And to Him your land will be married [owned and protected by the LORD].

⁵For as a young man marries a virgin [O Jerusalem],
So your sons will marry you;
And as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
So your God will rejoice over you.

⁶On your walls, O Jerusalem, I have appointed and stationed watchmen (prophets), Who will never keep silent day or night;

You who profess the LORD, take no rest for yourselves,

⁷And give Him no rest [from your prayers] until He establishes Jerusalem

And makes her a praise on the earth.

⁸The LORD has sworn [an oath] by His right hand and by His mighty arm, “I will never again give your grain as food for your enemies,

Nor will [the invading] foreigners drink your new wine for which you have labored.”

⁹But they who have harvested it will eat it and praise the
LORD,

And they who have gathered it will drink it [at the feasts celebrated] in the courtyards of My sanctuary.

¹⁰Go through, go through the gates,
Clear the way for the people;

Build up, build up the highway,

Remove the stones, lift up a banner over the peoples.

¹¹Listen carefully, the LORD has proclaimed to the end of the
earth,

Say to the Daughter of Zion, “Look now, your salvation is coming [in the LORD]; Indeed, His reward is with Him, and His restitution accompanies Him.” [Is 40:10]

¹²And they will call them “The Holy People,
The Redeemed of the LORD”;
And you will be called “Sought Out, A City Not Deserted.”

63 WHO IS this who comes from Edom, With crimson-stained garments from Bozrah [in Edom],

This One (the Messiah) who is majestic in His apparel, Marching in the greatness of His might?

“It is I, [the One] who speaks in righteousness [proclaiming vindication], mighty to save.”

²Why is Your apparel red,
And Your garments like the one who treads in the wine press?

³“I have trodden the wine trough alone,
And of the peoples there was no one with Me.
I also trod them in My anger
And trampled them in My wrath;
And their lifeblood is sprinkled on My garments,
And I stained all My clothes.

⁴“For the day of vengeance [against ungodliness] was in My heart,
And My year of redemption [of those who put their trust in Me—the year of My redeemed] has come.

⁵“I looked, but there was no one to help,

And I was amazed and appalled that there was no one to uphold [truth and right].

So My own arm brought salvation to Me,

And My wrath sustained Me.

⁶“I trampled the peoples in My anger

And made them drunk with [the cup of] My wrath,

And I spilled their lifeblood on the earth.”

⁷I will tell of the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD,

Speak God's Word

I will tell of the lovingkindnesses of the Lord and the praiseworthy deeds of the Lord, according to all the Lord has done for me. I will speak of His great goodness, compassion, and abundance.

| adapted from ISAIAH 63:7 |

According to all that the LORD has done for us,
And His great goodness toward the house of Israel,
Which He has shown them according to His compassion
And according to the abundance of His lovingkindnesses.

⁸For He said, “Be assured, they are My people, Sons who will not be faithless.”
So He became their Savior [in all their distresses].

⁹In all their distress He was distressed,
And the angel of His presence saved them,
In His love and in His compassion He redeemed them;
And He lifted them up and carried them all the days of old.
[Ex 23:20–23; 33:14, 15; Deut 1:31; 32:10–12]

¹⁰But they rebelled
And grieved His Holy Spirit;
Therefore He changed into their enemy,
And He fought against them.

¹¹Then His people remembered the days of old, of Moses [and they said],
Where is He who brought our fathers up out of the [Red] Sea, with the shepherds of His flock [Moses and Aaron]?

- Where is He who put His Holy Spirit in their midst, ¹²Who caused His glorious arm and infinite power to go at the right hand of Moses,
Dividing the waters before them to make for Himself an everlasting name,
- ¹³Who led them through the depths [of the Red Sea],
Like a horse in the wilderness, [so that] they did not stumble?
- ¹⁴Like the cattle that go down into the valley [to find better pasture and rest],
The Spirit of the LORD gave them rest.
So You led Your people [O LORD]
To make for Yourself a beautiful and glorious name [preparing the way for the acknowledgment of Your name by all nations].
- ¹⁵Look down from heaven and see from Your lofty dwelling place, holy and glorious.
Where are Your zeal and Your mighty acts [Your miracles which you did for Your people]?
The stirring of Your heart and Your compassion are restrained and withheld from me.
- ¹⁶For [most certainly] You are our Father, even though
Abraham [our ancestor] does not know us
And Israel does not acknowledge us.
You, O LORD, are [still] our Father,
Our Redeemer from everlasting is Your name.
- ¹⁷O LORD, why do You cause us to stray from Your ways

And harden our heart from fearing You [with reverence and awe]?

Return for Your servants' sake, the tribes of Your heritage.

¹⁸Your holy people possessed Your sanctuary for [only] a little while;

Our adversaries have trampled it down.

¹⁹We have become like those over whom You have never ruled,

Like those who were not called by Your name.

64 OH, THAT You would tear open the heavens and come down, That the mountains might quake at Your presence—

²As [sure as] fire kindles the brushwood, as fire causes water to boil—

To make Your name known to Your adversaries,
That the nations may tremble at Your presence!

³When You did awesome and amazing things which we did not expect,

You came down [at Sinai]; the mountains quaked at Your presence.

⁴For from days of old no one has heard, nor has ear perceived,

Nor has the eye seen a God besides You,

Who works and acts in behalf of the one who [gladly] waits for Him.

⁵You meet him who rejoices in doing that which is morally right,

Who remembers You in Your ways.
Indeed, You were angry, for we sinned;
We have long continued in our sins [prolonging Your anger].

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Learn To Bless Yourself

“He who blesses himself on the earth will bless himself by the God of truth and faithfulness” (Isa. 65:16). This verse contains a life principle you can carry into every area in which you desire victory: Nobody’s words have as much authority in your life as your own. Learn to bless yourself by speaking only words that contain God’s power and will for your life.

Words are containers for power. Proverbs 18:21 says, “Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it and indulge it will eat its fruit and bear the consequences of their words.” And with power comes responsibility. God has given you words, and He expects you to be accountable for the power carried in them.

What you say does matter to you and to your well-being. When you speak about your situation, say what you believe Jesus would say, and you will open the door for the miracle-working power of God.

And shall we be saved [under such circumstances]?

⁶For we all have become like one who is [ceremonially]
unclean [like a leper],

And all our deeds of righteousness are like filthy rags;
We all wither and decay like a leaf,

And our wickedness [our sin, our injustice, our wrongdoing], like the wind, takes us away [carrying us far from God's favor, toward destruction]. [Lev 13:45, 46]

⁷There is no one who calls on Your name,
Who awakens and causes himself to take hold of You;
For You have hidden Your face from us
And have handed us over to the [consuming and destructive] power of our wickedness [our sin, our injustice, our wrongdoing]. [Rom 1:21–24]

⁸Yet, O LORD, You are our Father;
We are the clay, and You our Potter,
And we all are the work of Your hand.

⁹Do not be angry beyond measure, O LORD,
Do not remember our wickedness [our sin, our injustice, our wrongdoing] forever.
Now look, consider, for we are all Your people.

¹⁰Your holy cities have become a wilderness,
Zion has become a wilderness,
Jerusalem a desolation.

¹¹Our holy and beautiful house [the temple built by Solomon],
Where our fathers praised You,
Has been burned by fire;
And all our precious objects are in ruins.

¹²Considering these [tragedies], will You restrain Yourself, O LORD [and not help us]?
Will You keep silent and humiliate and oppress us beyond measure?

65 “I LET Myself be sought by those who did not ask for Me;

I let Myself be found by those who did not seek Me.

I said, ‘Here am I, here am I,’

To the nation [Israel] which did not call on My Name. [Ex 3:14; Is 58:9]

²“I have spread out My hands all the day long to a rebellious and stubborn people,

Who walk in the way that is not good, [following] after their own thoughts and intentions, ³The people who continually provoke Me to My face,

Sacrificing [to idols] in gardens and making offerings with incense on bricks [instead of at the designated altar];

⁴Who sit among the graves [trying to conjure up evil spirits] and spend the night in the secret places [where spirits are thought to dwell]; Who eat swine’s flesh, And their pots hold the broth of unclean meat;

⁵Who say, ‘Keep to yourself, do not come near me, For I am too holy for you [and you might defile me]!’ These [people] are smoke in My nostrils, A fire that burns all the day.

⁶“Indeed, it is written before Me, I will not keep silent, but I will repay; I will even repay it [directly] into their arms, ⁷Both your own wickedness and the wickedness of your fathers,” says the LORD.

“Since they too have made offerings with incense on the mountains

And scorned and taunted Me on the hills,
I therefore will measure [punishment for] their former work [directly] into their arms.”

⁸This is what the LORD says,

“As the new wine is found in the cluster,
And one says, ‘Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing and benefit in it,’

So I will do for the sake of My servants
In order not to destroy all of them.

⁹“I will bring forth descendants from Jacob,
And an heir of My mountains from Judah;
Even My chosen ones shall inherit it,
And My servants will live there.

¹⁰“And [the plain of] Sharon will be a place for flocks to graze,
And the Valley of Achor a resting place for herds,
For My people who seek Me [who long for Me and require
My presence in their lives].

¹¹“But you who abandon (turn away from) the LORD,
Who forget and ignore My holy mountain (Zion),
Who set a table for Gad [the Babylonian god of fortune],
And who fill a jug of mixed wine for Meni [the god of fate],

¹²I will destine you for the sword, [says the LORD],
And all of you will bow down to the slaughter,
Because when I called, you did not answer;
When I spoke, you did not listen or obey.
But you did [what was] evil in My sight

And chose that in which I did not delight.”

¹³Therefore, the Lord GOD says this,

“Listen carefully, My servants will eat, but you will be hungry;

Indeed, My servants will drink, but you will be thirsty;

Indeed, My servants will rejoice, but you will be put to shame.

¹⁴“Indeed, My servants will shout for joy from a happy heart,
But you will cry out with a heavy heart,
And you shall wail and howl from a broken spirit.

¹⁵“And you will leave your name behind to My chosen ones
[who will use it] as a curse,
And the Lord GOD will put you to death,
But He will call His servants by another name [a much greater name, just as the name Israel was greater than the name Jacob]. [Gen 32:28; Jer 29:22]

¹⁶“Because he who blesses himself on the earth
Will bless himself by the God of truth and faithfulness;
And he who swears [an oath] on the earth
Will swear by the God of truth and faithfulness;
Because the former troubles are forgotten,
And because they are hidden from My sight. [2 Cor 1:20;
Rev 3:14]

¹⁷“Behold, I am creating new heavens and a new earth;
And the former things [of life] will not be remembered or come to mind. [Is 66:22; 2 Pet 3:13; Rev 21:1]

- 18“But be glad and rejoice forever over what I create;
Behold, I am creating Jerusalem to be a source of rejoicing
And her people a joy.
- 19“I will also rejoice in Jerusalem and be glad in My people;
And there will no longer be heard in her
The voice of weeping and the sound of crying.
- 20“No longer shall there be in it an infant who lives only a few
days,
Or an old man who does not finish his days;
For the youth who dies at the age of a hundred,
And the one who does not reach the age of a hundred
Will be thought of as accursed.
- 21“They will build houses and live in them;
They will plant vineyards and eat the fruit.
- 22“They will not build and another occupy;
They will not plant and another eat [the fruit].
For as the lifetime of a tree, so will be the days of My
people,
And My chosen [people] will fully enjoy [and long make use of] the work of their hands.
- 23“They will not labor in vain,
Or bear children for disaster;
For they are the descendants of those blessed by the LORD,
And their offspring with them.
- 24““It shall also come to pass that before they call, I will answer; and while they are still speaking, I will hear. [Is 30:19; 58:9; Matt 6:8]

²⁵“The wolf and the lamb will graze together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox [there will no longer be predator and prey]; and dust will be the serpent’s food. They will do no evil or harm in all My holy mountain (Zion),” says the LORD.

66 THIS IS what the LORD says, “Heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool.

Where, then, is a house that you could build for Me?
And where will My resting place be? [Acts 17:24]

²“For all these things My hand has made,
So all these things came into being [by and for Me],”
declares the LORD.

“But to this one I will look [graciously],
To him who is humble and contrite in spirit, and who [reverently] trembles at My word and honors My commands. [John 4:24]

³“He who kills an ox [for pagan sacrifice] is [as guilty] as one who kills a man; He who sacrifices a lamb, as one who breaks a dog’s neck;
He who offers a grain offering, as one who offers swine’s blood;
He who offers incense, as one who blesses an idol.
Such people have chosen their own ways,
And their soul delights in their repulsive acts;

⁴So I will choose their punishments,
And will bring the things they dread upon them
Because I called, but no one answered;

I spoke, but they did not listen or obey.
But they did evil in My sight
And chose that in which I did not delight.”

⁵Hear the word of the LORD, you who tremble [with awe-filled reverence] at His word: “Your brothers who hate you, who exclude you for My Name’s sake, Have said, ‘Let the LORD be glorified, that we may see your joy.’
But they will be put to shame.

⁶“The sound of an uproar from the city! A voice from the temple!
The voice of the LORD, providing retribution to His enemies.

⁷“Before she (Zion) was in labor, she gave birth;
Before her labor pain came, she gave birth to a boy.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Regards the Humble

Humility is one of the most difficult virtues to maintain in our lives. It seems that our flesh is packed full of pride in every area. We want to do things our own way and then take the credit for any success we attain. Thankfully, once we are born again and receive a new nature (see 2 Cor: 5:17), with God's help, we can learn to tremble at His Word and have a reverential fear of Him, which helps us to remember that we are nothing without Him (see John 15:5). Jesus was humble, and we are told to imitate Him and have the same attitude that He had (see Phil. 2:5).

A good way to start each day is by saying, "Father; I need Your help today in everything I do because I can do nothing without You. I give You the praise for all the good that happens to me and through me. Amen."

8“Who has heard of such a thing? Who has seen such things?

Can a land be born in one day?

Or can a nation be brought forth in a moment?

As soon as Zion was in labor, she also brought forth her sons.

9“Shall I bring to the moment of birth and not give delivery?” says the LORD.

“Or shall I who gives delivery shut the womb?” says your God.

¹⁰“Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her, all you who love her;

Rejoice greatly with her, all you who mourn over her,

¹¹That you may nurse and be satisfied with her comforting breasts,

That you may drink deeply and be delighted with her bountiful bosom.”

¹²For the LORD says this, “Behold, I extend peace to her (Jerusalem) like a river, And the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream;

And you will be nursed, you will be carried on her hip and [playfully] rocked on her knees.

¹³“As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you; And you will be comforted in Jerusalem.”

¹⁴When you see this, your heart will rejoice; Your bones will flourish like new grass.

And the [powerful] hand of the LORD will be revealed to His servants,

But His indignation will be toward His enemies.

¹⁵For indeed, the LORD will come in fire And His chariots will be like the stormy wind, To render His anger with rage, And His rebuke with flames of fire.

¹⁶For the LORD will execute judgment by fire And by His sword on all mankind, And those slain by the LORD will be many.

17“Those who [vainly attempt to] sanctify and cleanse themselves to go to the gardens [to sacrifice to idols],
Following after one in the center,
Who eat swine’s flesh, detestable things and mice,
Will come to an end together,” says the LORD.

18“For I know their works and their thoughts. The time is coming to gather all nations and languages, and they will come and see My glory.

19“I will set up a [miraculous] sign among them, and from them I will send survivors to the nations: Tarshish, Pul (Put), Lud, Meshech, Tubal and Javan, to the distant islands and coastlands that have not heard of My fame nor seen My glory. And they will declare and proclaim My glory among the nations.

20“Then they shall bring all your countrymen (children of Israel) from all the nations as a grain offering to the LORD—on horses, in chariots, in litters, on mules and on camels—to My holy mountain Jerusalem,” says the LORD, “just as the sons of Israel bring their grain offering in a clean vessel to the house of the LORD.

21“I will also take some of them as priests and Levites,” says the LORD.

22“For just as the new heavens and the new earth
Which I make will remain and endure before Me,” declares the LORD,

“So your offspring and your name will remain and endure.

23“And it shall be that from New Moon to New Moon
And from Sabbath to Sabbath,

All mankind will come to bow down and worship before
Me,” says the LORD.

²⁴“Then they will go forth and look
Upon the dead bodies of the [rebellious] men
Who have transgressed against Me;
For their worm (maggot) will not die,
And their fire will not go out;
And they will be an abhorrence to all mankind.”

Jeremiah

Author: | Jeremiah
Date: | 626 BC–586
BC

Jeremiah is a wonderful example of someone who knew what God wanted him to do and who stayed faithful to it for his entire life. God called him as a prophet before he was born (see Jeremiah 1:6–7). At first, he allowed negative thoughts to cause him to doubt his ability to serve God in this way, but eventually he did accept God's call on his life. During his ministry, Jeremiah experienced times of success and favor under the reign of the good king Josiah, and he endured seasons of persecution when dealing with ungodly kings. Regardless of how the leaders treated him, Jeremiah always stood firm in God's purpose for his life.

As you pursue God's plan for your life, you may encounter some people who encourage you and others who discourage you. Either way, keep your mind set on what God has given you to do and be faithful to that.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM JEREMIAH:

Trusting in the flesh makes people like dry shrubs in the desert, while trusting in the Lord makes them like healthy trees planted by the waters (see Jeremiah 17:5–8).

God has plans for you—plans for peace in your life and not for disaster, plans to give you a future and a hope (see Jeremiah 29:11).

There is nothing too difficult or too wonderful for God (see Jeremiah 32:17).

When you call to the Lord, He will answer you. He will show you things you did not know (see Jeremiah 33:3).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM JEREMIAH:

Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, I do not know how to speak, for I am [only] a young man.” But the LORD said to me, “Do not say, ‘I am [only] a young man,’ because everywhere I send you, you shall go, and whatever I command you, you shall speak.” | Jeremiah 1:6–7

Then you will call on Me and you will come and pray to Me, and I will hear [your voice] and I will listen to you. | Jeremiah 29:12

The LORD appeared to me (Israel) from ages past, saying, “I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore with lovingkindness I have drawn you and continued My faithfulness to you.” | Jeremiah 31:3

THE BOOK OF JEREMIAH

1 THE WORDS of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, [one] of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, ²to whom the word of the LORD came during the thirteenth year (627 B.C.) of the reign of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

³It came [to Jeremiah] also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, [continuing] until the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah, king of Judah, [and continuing] until the exile of [the people of] Jerusalem in the fifth month (July-August, 586 B.C.). [2 Kin 25:8–11]

⁴Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

⁵“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you [and approved of you as My chosen instrument], And before you were born I consecrated you [to Myself as My own]; I have appointed you as a prophet to the nations.” [Ex 33:12; Is 49:1, 5; Rom 8:29]

⁶Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD!

Behold, I do not know how to speak,

For I am [only] a young man.” [Ex 4:10; 6:12, 30; 1 Kin 3:7]

⁷But the LORD said to me,
“Do not say, ‘I am [only] a young man,’
Because everywhere I send you, you shall go,
And whatever I command you, you shall speak.

⁸“Do not be afraid of them [or their hostile faces],

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I am thankful, Lord, that before You formed me in the womb You knew me and approved of me as Your chosen instrument. And before I was born, You consecrated me to Yourself, as Your own.

• adapted from Jeremiah 1:5

For I am with you [always] to protect you and deliver you,”
says the LORD.

⁹Then the LORD stretched out His hand and touched my mouth, and the LORD said to me, “Behold (hear Me), I have put My words in your mouth.

¹⁰“See, I have appointed you this day over the nations and over the kingdoms,
To uproot and break down,
To destroy and to overthrow,
To build and to plant.”

¹¹The word of the LORD came to me, saying, “Jeremiah, what do you see?” And I said, “I see the branch of an almond tree.”

¹²Then the LORD said to me, “You have seen well, for I am [actively] watching over My word to fulfill it.”

¹³The word of the LORD came to me a second time, saying, “What do you see?” And I said, “I see a boiling pot, tilting away from the north [its mouth about to pour out on the south, on Judea].”

¹⁴Then the LORD said to me, “Out of the north the evil [which the prophets foretold as the result of national sin] will reveal itself and spill out on all the people of the land.

¹⁵“For, behold, I will call all the tribes of the kingdoms of the north,” says the LORD; “and they will come and each one will set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all its surrounding walls, and against all the cities of Judah [as My judicial act, the consequence of Judah’s deliberate disobedience].

¹⁶“I will speak My judgments against them for all the wickedness of those who have abandoned (rejected) Me, offered sacrifices or burned incense to other gods, and worshiped the [idolatrous] works of their own hands.

¹⁷“But you [Jeremiah], gird up your loins [in preparation]! Get up and tell them all which I command you. Do not be distraught and break down at the sight of their [hostile] faces, or I will bewilder you before them and allow you to be overcome.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Some Things Should Not Be Said

When Jeremiah told the Lord he was too young to be a prophet, the Lord told him not to speak those words (see Jer. 1:7). This specific example teaches us the general lesson that we need to discipline our mouths when it comes to speaking negativity, especially negativity concerning ourselves. God wants us to believe we can do anything He leads us to do.

We can do nothing without the Lord (see John 15:5), but we can do all things through Him (see Phil. 4:13). It is amazing what God can accomplish through ordinary people who will put their trust in Him instead of in themselves.

Is God leading you to step out into something that seems too big for you? If so, keep your eyes on Him and His abilities, not on yourself and your inabilities. God will teach you as you step out in faith. His guidance is often only one step at a time. When we take one step after another and don't give up, we will eventually arrive where God wants us to be.

¹⁸“Now behold, I have made you today like a fortified city and like an iron pillar and like bronze walls against the whole land—against the [successive] kings of Judah, against its leaders, against its priests, and against the people of the land [giving you divine strength which no hostile power can overcome]. [Is 50:7; 54:17; Jer 6:27; 15:20; Luke 21:15; Acts

¹⁹“They will fight against you, but they will not [ultimately] prevail over you, for I am with you [always] to protect you and deliver you,” says the LORD.

2 NOW THE word of the LORD came to me saying, ²“Go and proclaim in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD,

“I remember [earnestly] the lovingkindness and devotion of your youth,

Your time of betrothal [like that of a bride during the early years in Egypt and again at Sinai],

When you followed Me in the wilderness,

Through a land not sown.

³“Israel was holy [something set apart from ordinary purposes, consecrated] to the LORD, The first fruits of His harvest [in which no outsider was allowed to share].

All who ate of it [injuring Israel] became guilty;

Evil came on them,” says the LORD.”

⁴Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel.

⁵Thus says the LORD,

“What injustice or unrighteousness did your fathers find in Me,

That they have wandered far from Me

And [habitually] walked after emptiness and futility and became empty?

6“They did not say, ‘Where is the LORD
Who brought us up from the land of Egypt,
Who led us through the wilderness,
Through a land of deserts and of pits,
Through a land of drought and of the deep darkness [of the shadow of death],
Through a land that no man passed through
And where no man lived?’

7“I brought you into a plentiful land
To eat its fruit and [enjoy] its good things.
But you came and defiled My land
And you made My inheritance repulsive.

8“[Even] the priests did not say, ‘Where is the LORD?’
And those who deal with the law [given to Moses] did not know Me.
The rulers and shepherds also transgressed against Me,
And the prophets prophesied by [the authority and in the name of] Baal
And walked after [idolatrous] things that did not benefit
[them].

9“Therefore I will still contend (struggle) with you [by bringing judgment on you],” says the LORD, “And I will contend with your children’s children.”

10“For cross over to the coasts of Kittim (Cyprus) [to the west] and see,
Send also to Kedar (Arabia) [to the east] and carefully observe and consider

And see whether there has been such [a thing] as this!

¹¹“Has a nation [ever] changed gods

Even though they were not gods [but merely man-made objects]?

But My people have exchanged their Glory (the true God)

For that [man-made idol] which does not benefit [them].

¹²“Be appalled, O heavens, at this;

Be shocked and shudder with horror [at the behavior of the people],” says the LORD.

¹³“For My people have committed two evils:

They have abandoned (rejected) Me,

The fountain of living water,

And they have carved out their own cisterns,

Broken cisterns

That cannot hold water.

¹⁴“Is Israel a servant? Is he a slave by birth?

Why has he become a captive and a prey?

¹⁵“The young lions have roared at him,

POWERPOINT

Don't be deceived into thinking that anything other than God can satisfy you fully and completely. Chasing after the wrong thing will always leave you disappointed, and disappointment opens the door to depression. Far too often when people become depressed, they are in need of something positive—encouragement, hope, affirmation, love, acceptance, confidence, or something else uplifting. Seeking it in the wrong place only adds to their problems. It's like carving their own cistern when they have access to "the fountain of living water" (Jer. 2:13). God alone can water a dry and thirsty soul, and He is always willing to do so.

They have made their voices heard and roared loudly.
And they have made his land a waste;
His cities have been destroyed and are burned ruins,
without inhabitant.

16“Moreover, the men of Memphis and Tahpanhes [as powerful enemies]
Have shaved the crown of your head [to degrade you].

17“Have you not brought this on yourself
By abandoning (rejecting) the LORD your God
When He led you in the way?

18“Now what are you doing by going to Egypt [in search of an ally],
To drink the [muddy] waters of the Nile?
Or what are you doing by going to Assyria [in search of an ally],
To drink the [muddy] waters of the Euphrates?

19“Your own wickedness will discipline you,
And your desertion of the faith will punish you.
Know therefore that it is an evil and bitter thing
For you to abandon (reject) the LORD your God,
And for you to be indifferent to Me and dismiss the [reverent] fear of Me,” says the Lord GOD of hosts.

20“For long ago you broke your yoke [in deliberate disobedience]
And tore off your bonds [of the law that I gave you];
You said, ‘I will not serve and obey You!’

For on every high hill
And under every green tree
You have lain down [in idolatrous worship] like a [compliant] prostitute.

21“Yet I had planted you [O house of Israel as] a choice vine,
A completely faithful seed.
How then have you turned against Me
Into degenerate shoots of a foreign and wild vine [alien to
Me]?

22“For though you wash yourself with lye
And use much soap,
The stain of your guilt is [still] before Me [and you are soiled and dirty],” says the Lord GOD.

23“How can you say, ‘I am not defiled,
I have not gone after [man-made gods like] the Baals’?
Look at your way in the valley;
Know [without any doubt] what you have done!
You are a swift and restless young [female] camel [in the heat of her passion] running here and there, 24Or [you have the untamed and reckless nature of] a wild donkey accustomed to the wilderness, That sniffs the wind in her passion [for the scent of a mate].

In her mating season who can restrain her?
No males seeking her need to weary themselves;
In her month they will find her [looking for them].

25“[Cease your mad running after idols to]
Keep your feet from becoming bare
And your throat from becoming dry;

But you said, 'It is hopeless!
For I have loved strangers and foreign gods,
And I will walk after them.'

26"As the thief is shamed when he is caught,
So the house of Israel is shamed—
They, their kings, their leaders,
Their priests, and their prophets—

27Who say to a tree, 'You are my father,'
And to a stone, 'You gave me birth.'
For they have turned their backs to Me,
And not their faces;
But in the time of their trouble they will say,
'Arise [O LORD] and save us.'

28"But where are your gods
Which you made for yourself?
Let them get up, if they can save you
In the time of your trouble!
For [as many as] the number of your cities
Are your gods, O Judah. [Why do not your many man-made idols run to help you?]

29"Why do you complain and contend with Me?
You have all rebelled (transgressed) against Me," says the
LORD.

30"In vain I have punished your people [with the consequences of their disobedience];
They received no insight from correction [and refused to change].

Your [own] sword has devoured your prophets
Like a destroying lion.

³¹“O generation [that you are], consider and regard carefully the word of the LORD.

Have I been a wilderness to Israel [like a land without food],
A land of thick and deep darkness [like a path without light]?

Why do My people say, ‘We [have broken loose and we] are free to roam [at will];

We will no longer come to You’?

³²“Can a virgin forget [to wear] her ornaments,
Or a bride her attire [that identifies her as a married woman]?
Yet My people have forgotten Me
Days without number.

³³“How well you prepare your path
To seek and obtain [adulterous] love!
Even the most wicked of women
Have learned [indecent] ways from you.

³⁴“Also on your skirts is found
The lifeblood of the innocent poor;
You did not find them breaking in [a house].
But in spite of all these things [your disobedience, your love of idolatry, your lack of compassion]—

³⁵Yet you keep saying, ‘I am innocent;
Surely His anger has turned away from me.’
Behold (listen very carefully), I will bring you to judgment and will plead my case against you Because you say, ‘I have not sinned.’

³⁶“Why do you go around and wander so much
Changing your way?

Also, you will be shamed by Egypt
As you were shamed by Assyria.

³⁷“From Egypt also you will come away [as captives]
With your hands on your head;
For the LORD has rejected those in whom you trust (confide),
And you will not be successful with them.”

3 THAT IS to say, “If a man divorces his wife And she goes [away] from him

And becomes another man’s [wife],
Will he return to her again? [Of course not!]
Will not that land [where such a thing happened] be completely desecrated?
But you [rebelled against Me and you] are a prostitute with many lovers;
Yet you turn to Me.” says the LORD.

²“Lift up your eyes to the barren heights and see;
Where have you not been violated?
You sat by the road waiting [eagerly] for them [those man-made gods]
Like an Arab [tribesman who waits to attack] in the desert,
And you have desecrated the land
With your [vile] prostitution and your wickedness (disobedience to God).

³“Therefore the showers have been withheld,
And there has been no spring rain.
Yet you have the forehead (appearance) of a prostitute;
You refuse to be ashamed.

⁴“Will you not just now call out to Me,
‘My Father, you were the guide and companion of my youth?

⁵‘Will He be angry forever?
Will He be indignant to the end?’
Behold, you have spoken,
And you have done all the evil things [you could],
And you have had your way and have carried out your wickedness.’”

⁶Moreover, the LORD said to me in the days of Josiah the king [of Judah], “Have you seen what that faithless Israel has done—how she went up on every high hill and under every green tree, and there she was a prostitute?

⁷“I thought, ‘After she has done all these things she will return to Me’; but she did not return, and her treacherous (faithless) sister Judah saw it.

⁸“And I saw [that even though Judah knew] that for all the acts of adultery (idolatry) of faithless Israel, I [the LORD] had sent her away and given her a certificate of divorce, yet her treacherous sister Judah was not afraid; but she went and was a prostitute also [following after idols].

⁹“Because of the thoughtlessness of Israel’s prostitution [her immorality mattered little to her], she desecrated the land and committed adultery with [idols of] stones and trees.

¹⁰“Yet in spite of all this her treacherous sister Judah did not return to Me with her whole heart, but rather in [blatant] deception [she merely pretended obedience to King Josiah’s reforms],” declares the LORD. [2 Chr 34:33; Hos 7:13, 14]

¹¹And the LORD said to me, “Faithless Israel has proved herself less guilty than treacherous Judah [a land of renegades].

¹²“Go and proclaim these words toward the north [where the ten tribes have been taken as captives] and say,

‘Return, faithless Israel,’ says the LORD;

‘I will not look on you in anger.

For I am gracious and merciful,’ says the LORD;

‘I will not be angry forever.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Thank God for His Mercy

God is gracious and merciful (see Jer. 3:12)! His mercy is great, and it is new every day. His mercy is so much greater than the anger of God that we sometimes read about in Scripture. I have said, God can and does get angry, but He is not an angry God. His wrath is against sin, but He extends mercy to sinners.

Our finite minds cannot grasp God's mercy; we can only receive it with our hearts. In our minds, we often want everything to be fair and just, but mercy is not fair. It goes beyond anything we can understand. There is no way to explain why a just and sinless God would decide not to punish those who deserve it, but instead give grace, favor, blessing, forgiveness, and love—which all come from His mercy.

God will give us the faith to believe in mercy even though we cannot grasp it with our minds. We may not understand why God shows mercy, but we can be thankful that He does and we can receive it daily.

- ¹³Only understand fully and acknowledge your wickedness
and guilt,
That you have rebelled (transgressed) against the LORD your God

And have scattered your favors among strangers under every green tree,

And you have not obeyed My voice,’ says the LORD.

¹⁴“Return, O faithless children [of the twelve tribes],’ says the LORD, ‘For I am a master and husband to you, And I will take you [not as a nation, but individually]—one from a city and two from a [tribal] family— And I will bring you to Zion.’ [Luke 15:20–22]

¹⁵“Then [in the final time] I will give you [spiritual] shepherds after My own heart, who will feed you with knowledge and [true] understanding.

¹⁶“It will be in those days when you have [repented and] multiplied and increased in the land,” says the LORD, “they will no longer say, ‘The ark of the covenant of the LORD.’ It will not come to mind, nor will they [seriously] remember it, nor will they miss it, nor will it be made again [for instead of the ark, which symbolized My presence, I will be present]. [Is 65:17; Rev 21:3, 22, 23]

¹⁷“At that time they will call Jerusalem ‘The Throne of the LORD,’ and all the nations will be gathered to it, to Jerusalem, for the name (renown) of the LORD; and they will not walk anymore after the stubbornness of their [own] evil heart.

¹⁸“In those days the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel, and they will come together from the land of the north to the land that I gave your fathers as an inheritance.

¹⁹“Then I said,

‘How [gloriously and honorably] I would set you among My children

And give you a pleasant land—a wonderful heritage,
The most beautiful inheritance of the nations!’

And I said, ‘You shall call Me, My Father

And not turn away from following Me.’

²⁰“Surely, as a wife treacherously (unfaithfully) leaves her husband,

So you have dealt treacherously with Me,

O house of Israel,” says the LORD.

²¹A voice is heard on the barren heights,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Breaking Free from Shame

Anyone who has ever felt a deep sense of shame can relate to the people in Jeremiah 3:25, who said, “Let us lie down in our shame, and let our dishonor and humiliation cover us.” These people were ashamed because of their sin against the Lord, but there are many other reasons people feel ashamed. Some reasons have nothing to do with what people have done personally, but with something someone else has done to them.

Because my father sexually abused me, I felt shame, which I internalized. At some point I made an unhealthy transition in my thinking. I was no longer ashamed of what he had done to me; instead, I took the blame on myself and felt there must be something wrong with me if my own father wanted to do things I knew were very wrong and unnatural to me. For years my life was literally poisoned with shame.

Thousands of people struggle mightily in relationships and in many other areas simply because they feel an excessive sense of shame or guilt. They often have no peace unless they feel everyone’s approval of them at all times. They look to others to give them what only God can give, which is a sense of self-worth. They need a constant “fix” of compliments and nods of approval. They place impossible demands and blame on others because nobody can make them feel good about themselves.

The shame of the past is painful and hard to look at. But hiding from the truth does not change the fact that it exists and will continue to cause problems until it is dealt with. To do so, it is necessary to press past the pain of guilt and shame you may feel.

Jesus took your place and paid the debt you owed. He has opened the door of the prison of guilt and shame; you can walk out and be free from bondage.

The weeping and pleading of the children of Israel,
Because they have lost their way,
They have [deliberately] forgotten the LORD their God.

²²“Return, O faithless sons,” [says the LORD],

“I will heal your unfaithfulness.”

[They answer] “Behold, we come to You,

For You are the LORD our God.

²³“Truly, [the hope of salvation from] the hill [where idols are worshiped] is a deception,

A tumult and noisy multitude on the mountains;

Truly in the LORD our God

Is the salvation of Israel.

²⁴“But the shameful act [of idolatry] has consumed the labor of our fathers since our youth—their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

²⁵“Let us lie down in our shame, and let our dishonor and humiliation cover us; for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers; from our youth even to this day we have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.”

4 “IF YOU will return, O Israel,” says the LORD, “If you will return to Me,

And if you will put away your detestable things and remove your man-made gods from My sight,

And not stray or waver,

²And if you swear [your oaths], ‘As the LORD lives,’

In truth, in justice, and in righteousness,

Then the nations will bless themselves in Him,

And in Him they will glory.”

³For this is what the LORD says to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem, “Plow your uncultivated ground [for a season],

And do not sow among thorns.

⁴“Circumcise (dedicate, sanctify) yourselves to the LORD

And remove the foreskin [sins] of your heart,

Men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem,

Or else My wrath will go forth like fire [consuming all that gets in its way]

And burn and there will be no one to quench it,

Because of the evil of your acts.”

⁵Declare in Judah and proclaim in Jerusalem, and say, “Blow the trumpet in the land;

Cry aloud and say,

‘Assemble yourselves, and let us go

Into the fortified cities.’

⁶“Raise a banner toward Zion [to mark the way for those seeking safety inside Jerusalem’s walls]!

Seek refuge, do not stand [immobile],
For I am bringing evil from the north (the army of Babylon),
And great destruction.

And a destroyer of nations is on his way.
He has gone out from his place
To desolate your land;
Your cities will be in ruins
Without an inhabitant.

⁸“For this reason, put on sackcloth [for mourning], Lament (mourn with expressions of grief for the dead) and wail,
For the fierce anger of the LORD
Has not turned back from us.”

⁹“It shall come about in that day,” says the LORD, “that the heart and courage of the king will fail (be paralyzed), and also the heart of the princes; the priests will be appalled and the prophets will be astounded and horrified.”

¹⁰Then I said, “Alas, Lord GOD! Surely You have completely deceived and misled this people and Jerusalem, [for the prophets represented You as] saying [to Your people], ‘You will have peace,’ but [in fact] a sword reaches to their throat.”

¹¹In that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, “A scorching wind from the barren heights in the wilderness [comes at My command] against the daughter of My people—not [a wind] to winnow and not to cleanse [from chaff, as when threshing, but]

¹²a wind too strong and full for this comes at My word.

Now I will also speak judgment against My people.”

13“Behold, the enemy comes up like clouds,
His chariots like the whirlwind;
His horses are swifter than eagles.
Woe (judgment is coming) to us, for we are ruined!”

14O Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness,
That you may be saved.
How long will your wicked and immoral thoughts
Lodge within you?

15For a voice declares from Dan [far in the north],
And proclaims evil from Mount Ephraim.

16“Warn the [neighboring] nations now [that our enemy is coming]!
Announce to Jerusalem,
‘Besiegers are coming from a far country,
And they lift their voices and shout against the cities of Judah.

17‘Like watchmen of a field they are against her on all sides,
Because she has rebelled against Me,’ says the LORD.

18“Your ways and your deeds
Have brought these things on you.
This is your tragedy and doom; how bitter,
How it has touched your heart!”

19My soul, my soul! I writhe in anguish and pain! Oh, the walls of my heart!
My heart is pounding and throbbing within me;

I cannot be silent,
For you have heard, O my soul,
The sound of the trumpet,
The alarm of war.

²⁰News of one [terrible] disaster comes close after another,
For the whole land is devastated;
Suddenly my tents are spoiled and destroyed,
My [tent] curtains [ruined] in a moment.

²¹How long [O LORD] must I see the banner [marking the way for flight]
And hear the sound of the trumpet [urging the people to run for safety]?

²²“For My people are stupid and foolish,” [says the LORD to Jeremiah]; “They do not know Me;
They are foolish children
And have no understanding.
They are shrewd [enough] to do evil,
But they do not know [how] to do good.”

²³I looked at the earth [in my vision], and behold, it was [as at the time of creation] formless and void; And to the heavens, and they had no light.

²⁴I looked at the mountains, and behold, they were trembling,
And all the hills moved back and forth.

²⁵I looked, and behold, there was no man,
And all the birds of the air had fled.

²⁶I looked, and behold, the fertile land was a wilderness,
And all its cities were pulled down

Before the [presence of the] LORD, before His fierce anger.

²⁷Therefore says the LORD,

“The whole land shall be a desolation,

Yet I will not cause total destruction. [Jer 5:10, 18; 30:11; 46:28]

²⁸“For this reason the earth shall mourn

And the heavens above shall become dark,

Because I have spoken, I have decided,

And I will not change my mind (relent), nor will I turn back from it.”

²⁹Every city runs away at the sound of the horsemen and archers.

They go into the thickets and climb among the rocks;

Every city is deserted,

And no man lives in them.

³⁰And you, O desolate one, what will you do?

Though you clothe yourself in scarlet,

Though you adorn yourself with ornaments of gold,

Though you enlarge your eyes with paint,

You make yourself beautiful in vain.

Your lovers (allies) despise you;

They seek your life.

³¹For I heard a cry like a woman in labor,

The anguish as of one giving birth to her first child,

The cry of the Daughter of Zion (Jerusalem), who gasps for breath,

Who stretches out her hands, saying,

“Woe is me [my judgment comes]! I faint [in fear] before the murderers.”

5 “ROAM BACK and forth through the streets of Jerusalem,

And look now and take note.

And look in her open squares

To see if you can find a man [as Abraham sought in Sodom],

One who is just, who [has integrity and moral courage and] seeks truth (faithfulness);

Then I will pardon Jerusalem—[for the sake of one uncompromisingly righteous person]. [Gen 18:22–32]

²“And though they say, ‘As the LORD lives,’ Surely they swear [their oaths] falsely.”

³O LORD, do not Your eyes look for truth?

You [have seen their faithless heart and] have stricken them,

But they did not weaken;

You have consumed them,

But they refused to take correction or instruction.

They have made their faces harder than rock;

They have refused to repent and return to You.

⁴Then I said, “[Surely] these are only the poor (uneducated);

They are [sinfully] foolish and have no [spiritual]
understanding,

For they do not know the way of the LORD

Or the ordinance of their God [and the requirements of His just and righteous law].

⁵“I will go to the great [men]

And speak to them,
For they [must] know the way of the LORD,
The ordinance of their God.”

But [I found the reverse to be true, that] they too had all alike broken the yoke [of God’s law]
And had burst the bonds [of obedience to Him].

⁶Therefore a lion from the forest will kill them,
A wolf of the deserts will destroy them,
A leopard is watching their cities.
Everyone who goes out of them shall be torn in pieces,
Because their transgressions are many,
Their desertions of faith are countless.

⁷“Why should I [overlook these offenses and] forgive you?
Your children have abandoned (rejected) Me
And sworn [their oaths] by those who are not gods.
When I had fed them until they were full [and bound them to Me by a promise],
They committed [spiritual] adultery,
Assembling in troops at the houses of prostitutes (idols).

⁸“They were like well-fed, lusty stallions,
Each one neighing after his neighbor’s wife.

⁹“Shall I not punish them [for these things]?” says the LORD;
“Shall I not avenge Myself
On a nation such as this?”

¹⁰“Go up through the rows of Jerusalem’s vineyards and destroy [them],
But do not completely destroy everything.

POWERPOINT

God was calling Jeremiah to a higher level where his words would be powerful, like fire (see Jer. 5:14). He is also calling you and me to experience a higher level of His power and blessing, to be more aggressive against the kingdom of darkness. Anytime we have an opportunity to enter a level of greater power, it always requires a greater accountability on our part. I like to say, "When we come up higher, our fleshly ways have to go down lower." Ask God to help you follow His guidance at all times, even if doing so means you will need to sacrifice something.

Strip away her branches and the tendrils [of her vines],

For they are not the LORD's.

¹¹“For the house of Israel and the house of Judah Have dealt very treacherously (faithlessly) with Me,”
declares the LORD.

¹²They have lied about and denied the LORD
By saying, “It is not He [who speaks through His prophets];
Misfortune and evil shall not come on us,
Nor will we see war or famine.

¹³“The prophets are like the wind [their prophecy will not come to pass],
And the word [of God] is not in them.
In this manner it will be done to them [as they prophesied, not to us].”

¹⁴Therefore, thus says the LORD God of hosts, “Because you [people] have spoken this word,
Behold, I am making My words a fire in your mouth
[Jeremiah]
And this people wood, and My words will consume them.

¹⁵“Behold, I am bringing a nation against you from far away, O house of Israel,” says the LORD.
“It is a mighty and enduring nation,
It is an ancient nation,
A nation whose language you do not know,
Whose words you do not comprehend.

¹⁶“Their quiver is [filled with the dead] like an open grave;
They are all mighty men [heroes of their nation].

17“They will consume your harvest and [eat up] your bread;
They will consume your sons and your daughters;
They will consume your flocks and your herds;
They will consume your vines and your fig trees.
With the sword they will break down and demolish your fortified cities in which you trust.

18“But even in those days,” says the LORD, “I will not totally destroy you.

19“‘It will come about when your people say, ‘Why has the LORD our God done all these things to us?’ then you shall answer them, ‘As you have abandoned (rejected) Me,’ [says the LORD,] ‘and have served strange and foreign gods in your land, so you will serve strangers in a land that is not yours.’

20“Declare this in the house of Jacob
And proclaim it in Judah, saying:

21“Now hear this, O foolish people without heart,
Who have eyes but do not see,
Who have ears but do not hear. [Is 6:9, 10; Matt 13:10–15;
Mark 8:17, 18]

22“Do you not fear Me?” says the LORD.
“Do you not tremble [in awe] in My presence?
For I have placed the sand as a boundary for the sea,
An eternal decree and a perpetual barrier beyond which it cannot pass.
Though the waves [of the sea] toss and break, yet they cannot prevail [against the sand ordained to hold them back];

Speak God's Word

I will fear and worship the Lord my God with profound awe and reverence.

| adapted from JEREMIAH 5:24 |

Though the waves and the billows roar, yet they cannot cross over [the barrier].

[Is not such a God to be feared?]

23^cBut this people has a stubborn heart and a rebellious will [that draws them away from Me]; They have turned away and have gone [into idolatry].

24^cThey do not say in their heart, “Let us now fear and worship the LORD our God [with profound awe and reverence], Who gives rain in its season,

Both the autumn and the spring rain,
Who keeps for us
The appointed weeks of the harvest.”

25^cYour wickedness has turned these [blessings] away,
And your sins have withheld good [harvests] from you.

26^cFor wicked men are found among My people,
They watch like fowlers who lie in wait;
They set a trap,
They catch men.

27^cAs a cage is full of birds,
So are their houses full of deceit and treachery;
Therefore they have become influential and rich.

- 28“They are fat and they are sleek (prosperous),
They ^{*}excel in acts of wickedness;
They do not plead the cause,
The cause of the orphan, so that they [the wicked] may prosper,
And they do not defend the rights of the poor.
- 29“Shall I not punish them [for these things]?” says the LORD.
“Shall I not avenge Myself
On such a nation as this?”
- 30“An appalling and horrible thing [bringing desolation and
destruction]
Has come to pass in the land:
- 31The prophets prophesy falsely,
And the priests rule on their own authority;
And My people love [to have] it so!
But what will you do when the end comes?

6 “RUN FOR safety, you children of Benjamin, Out of the midst of Jerusalem!
And blow a trumpet in Tekoa [in Judah]
And raise a signal-fire in Beth-haccherem [near Jerusalem];
For evil is looking down [with eager anticipation] from the north,
And great destruction.

2““I will destroy the Daughter of Zion (Jerusalem), the lovely and delicate one [so like a luxurious pasture].

³“Shepherds with their flocks will come against her;
They will pitch their tents all around her;
They will pasture, each one in his place [eating up all her rich grasses].

⁴“[They shout], ‘Prepare for war against her;
Arise, let us [take her by surprise and] attack her at noon.
But alas, the daylight pales,
The evening shadows grow long.

⁵‘Arise, let us [awaken to] attack her at night
And destroy her [fortified] palaces!’”

⁶For the LORD of hosts has said,

“Cut down her trees
And build a siege [mound] against Jerusalem.
This is the city which must be punished;
There is nothing but oppression inside her [walls].

⁷“As a fountain springs up and pours out its fresh waters,
So she [continually] pours out her fresh wickedness.
Violence and destruction are heard inside her [walls];
Sickness and wounds are always before Me.

⁸“Be wise and be warned, O Jerusalem,
Or I will be alienated from you,
And make you a desolation,
An uninhabited land.”

⁹Thus says the LORD of hosts,
“They will thoroughly gather like [fruit on] a vine what is left of Israel;
Pass your hand [over the vine] again and again [Babylon, tool of destruction] like a grape gatherer, Over the branches [stripping the tendrils off the vine].”

- ¹⁰To whom shall I (Jeremiah) speak and give warning
That they may hear?
Behold, their ears are closed [absolutely deaf to God]
And they cannot listen.
Behold, the word of the LORD has become a reprimand and an object of scorn to them; They have no delight in it.
[Acts 7:1]
- ¹¹But I am full of the wrath (judgment) of the LORD;
I am tired of restraining it.
“[I will] pour it out on the children in the street
And on the young men gathered together;
For both the husband and wife shall be taken,
The aged and the very old [though full of days they are not exempt from judgment].
- ¹²“Their houses shall be turned over to others,
Their fields and their wives together;
For I will stretch out My hand
Against the inhabitants of the land,” says the LORD.
- ¹³“For from the least of them even to the greatest of them,
Everyone is greedy for [unfair] gain;
And from the prophet even to the priest
Everyone deals deceitfully.
- ¹⁴“They have treated superficially the [bloody] broken wound of My people,
Saying, ‘Peace, peace,’
When there is no peace.

15.“Were they ashamed because they had committed disgusting and vile things?
No, they were not at all ashamed;
They did not even know how to blush [at their idolatry].

Speak God's Word

I will stand and look and ask for the ancient paths, where the good way is—and walk in it. And I will find rest for my soul.

| adapted from JEREMIAH 6:16 |

Therefore they will fall among those who fall;
At the time that I punish them
They will be overthrown,” says the LORD.

- ¹⁶Thus says the LORD,
“Stand by the roads and look; ask for the ancient paths,
Where the good way is; then walk in it,
And you will find rest for your souls.
But they said, ‘We will not walk in it!’ [Matt 11:29]
- ¹⁷“I have set watchmen (prophets) over you, Saying, ‘Listen and pay attention to the [warning] sound of the trumpet!’
But they said, ‘We will not listen.’
- ¹⁸“Therefore hear, O [Gentile] nations,
And see, O congregation, what [vengeful act] is to be done to them.

19“Hear, O earth: behold, I am bringing disaster on this people,
The fruit of their schemes,
Because they have not listened and paid attention to My words,
And as for My law, they have rejected it also.

20“For what purpose does frankincense come to Me from Sheba
And the sweet cane from a distant land?
Your burnt offerings are not acceptable
And your sacrifices are not sweet and pleasing to Me.”

21Therefore, thus says the LORD,
“Behold, I am laying stumbling blocks before this people.
The fathers and the sons together
Will stumble against them;
The neighbor and his friend will perish.”

22Thus says the LORD,
“Behold, a people is coming from the north country,
And a great nation shall be stirred up and put into action from the remote parts of the earth.

23“They seize bow and spear;
They are cruel and inhuman and have no mercy.
Their voice sounds like the roaring sea;
They ride [in formation] on horses,
Arrayed as a man for battle Against you, O Daughter of Zion (Jerusalem)!”

24We have heard the report of it;
Our hands become limp and helpless.

Anguish has gripped us,
Pain like that of a woman in childbirth.

²⁵Do not go out into the field
Nor walk on the road,
For the enemy is armed with the sword;
Terror is on every side.

²⁶O daughter of my people [says Jeremiah],
Clothe yourself in sackcloth and wallow in ashes;
Mourn [aloud] as for an only son,
A most bitter cry [of sorrow and regret],
For suddenly the destroyer will come upon us [on both prophet and people].

²⁷“I [the LORD] have set you as an assayer [O Jeremiah] and as a tester [of the ore] of My people, That you may know and analyze their acts.”

²⁸They are all the worst [kind] of [stiff-necked, godless] rebels,
Going around spreading slander.
They are [not gold and silver ore, but] bronze and iron;
They are all corrupt.

²⁹The bellows blow fiercely,
The lead is consumed by the fire;
In vain they continue refining,
But the wicked are not separated and removed.

³⁰They call them rejected silver [only dross, without value],
Because the LORD has rejected them.

1 THE WORD that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
2“Stand in the gate of the LORD’s house and proclaim there this word and say, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah who enter by these gates to worship the LORD.’”

3Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “Change your ways and your behavior, and I will let you live in this place.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Maintaining Your Integrity

There was a time not too long ago when a person's word was his honor; to not keep one's word was unthinkable. When people made a business deal, a twenty-page contract covering every minute detail imaginable was not necessary. They simply came to an agreement and shook hands.

In Jeremiah's time, personal integrity and integrity at every level had been swept aside (see Jer. 7). In Jeremiah 7:4, even the prophets were lying and speaking deception.

Having integrity requires you to be honest and to do the right thing in every situation. You cannot always make others do what is right, but you are responsible to God and to yourself to do right. A person of integrity never says, "Everyone else does it (lies, cheats, steals, etc.), so what's the problem?" Even if nobody in the whole world kept their word, you should still keep yours, simply because it is the right thing to do.

⁴"Do not trust in the deceptive and lying words [of the false prophets who claim that Jerusalem will be protected by God because of the temple], saying, 'This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD.'

⁵"For if you thoroughly change your ways and your behavior, if you thoroughly and honestly practice justice between a man and his neighbor, ⁶if you do not oppress the transient and the foreigner, the orphan, or the widow, and do not shed innocent blood [by oppression and by unjust judicial murders] in Jerusalem, nor follow after other gods to your own ruin, ⁷then I will let you live in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers [to live in] forever and ever.

⁸“Behold, you are trusting in deceptive and useless words that bring no benefit.

⁹“Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear [oaths] falsely, offer sacrifices or burn incense to Baal, and follow after other gods that you have not known, ¹⁰and [then dare to] come and stand before Me in this house, which is called by My Name, and say, ‘We are protected and set free [by this act of religious ritual]!’—only to go on with this wickedness and these disgusting and loathsome things?

¹¹“Has this house, which is called by My Name, become a den of robbers in your eyes [a place of retreat for you between acts of violence]? Behold, I Myself have seen it,” says the LORD.

¹²“But go now to My place which was in Shiloh [in Ephraim], where I first set My Name, and see what I did to it because of the wickedness of My people Israel. [1 Sam 4:10–18]

¹³“And now, because you have done all these things,” says the LORD, “and I spoke [persistently] to you, even rising up early and speaking, but you did not listen, and I called you but you did not answer, ¹⁴therefore, I will do to this house (the temple) which is called by My Name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave you and your fathers, just as I did to Shiloh.

¹⁵“I will cast you out of My sight, as I have cast out all your brothers (relatives through Jacob), all the descendants of Ephraim.

¹⁶“Therefore, do not pray for this people [of Judah] or lift up a cry or entreaty for them or make intercession to Me, for I do not hear you.

¹⁷“Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

¹⁸“The children gather wood, the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead the dough to make cakes for the queen of heaven; and they pour out drink offerings to other gods that they may offend and provoke Me to anger.

¹⁹“Do they offend and provoke Me to anger?” says the LORD. “Is it not themselves [they offend], to their own shame?”

²⁰Therefore thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, My anger and My wrath will be poured out on this place, on man and beast, on the trees of the field and the fruit of the ground; and it will burn and [the fire will] not be quenched.”

²¹Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices and eat the meat.

²²“For in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, I did not speak to your fathers or command them concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices.

²³“But this thing I did command them: ‘Listen to and obey My voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be My people; and you will walk in all the way which I command you, so that it may be well with you.’

²⁴“But they did not obey Me or bend their ear [to hear Me], but followed the counsels and the stubbornness of their [own] evil heart (mind), and [they turned and] went backward instead of forward.

25“Since the day that your fathers came out of the land of Egypt until this day, I have [persistently] sent you all My servants the prophets, sending them daily, early [and late].

26“Yet they did not listen to Me and obey Me or bend their ear [to hear Me], but stiffened their neck; they did more evil and behaved worse than their fathers.

27“You shall speak all these words to them, but they will not listen to you; and you shall [also] call to them, but they will not answer you.

28“*You shall say to them, ‘This is the nation that did not obey the voice of the LORD their God or accept correction and warning; truth and faithfulness have perished and have completely vanished from their mouths.*

29“Cut off your hair [your crown, O Jerusalem] and throw it away,

And take up a mournful cry on the barren heights,
For the LORD has rejected and abandoned
The generation of His wrath.’

30“*For the children of Judah have done evil in My sight,” says the LORD; “they have set their disgusting and shamefully vile things in the house which is called by My Name, to defile it.*

31“They have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the Valley of Ben-hinnom (son of Hinnom), to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire [to honor Molech, the fire god]—which I did not command, nor did it come into My heart

(mind). [Lev 18:21; Josh 15:8; 2 Kin 16:2, 3; 21:1, 6; Is 30:33]

³²“Therefore, behold, the days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when it will no longer be called Topheth or the Valley of Ben-hinnom, but the Valley of the Slaughter, for [in bloody warfare] they will bury [the dead] in Topheth until there is no more room. [Jer 19:6]

³³“And the dead bodies of this people will be food for the birds of the air and for the beasts of the earth and no one will frighten them away.

³⁴“Then I will cause the voices of joy and gladness, and the voices of the bridegroom and the bride to vanish from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem; for the land will become a ruin—a wasteland.

8 “AT THAT time,” says the LORD, “they [the Babylonian army] will bring out from their graves the bones of the kings of Judah, the bones of its princes, the bones of the priests, the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

²“They will [carelessly scatter and] spread them out before the sun and the moon and all the host of heaven, which the dead have loved and which they have served, and which they have walked after and which they have sought, and which they have worshiped. They will not be gathered or be buried; they will be like dung on the face of the earth.

³“And death will be chosen rather than life by all the remnant of those who remain of this evil family (nation), who remain in all the places to which I have driven them,” says the LORD of hosts.

4“Moreover [Jeremiah], you shall say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD,

“Do men fall and not rise up again?

Does one turn away [from God] and not repent and return [to Him]?

5“Why then has this people of Jerusalem
Turned away with a perpetual turning away [from Me]?
They hold tightly to deceit (idolatry);
They refuse to repent and return [to God].

6“I have listened and heard,
But they have spoken what is not right;
No man repented of his wickedness,
Saying, ‘What have I done?’
Everyone turns to his [individual] course,
As the horse rushes like a torrent into battle.

7“Even the stork in the sky
Knows her seasons [of migration],
And the turtledove, the swallow and the crane
Observe the time of their return.
But My people do not know
The law of the LORD.

8“How can you say, ‘We are wise,
And the law of the LORD is with us [and we are learned in its language and teachings]’?
Behold, [the truth is that] the lying pen of the scribes
Has made the law into a lie [a mere code of ceremonial observances]. [Mark 7:13]

9“‘The wise men are shamed,
They are dismayed and caught.
Behold, they have [manipulated and] rejected the [truth in the] word of the LORD, And what kind of wisdom and insight do they have?

10“‘Therefore I will give their wives to others
And their fields to new owners;
Because from the least even to the greatest
Everyone is greedy for [unjust] gain;
From the prophet even to the priest
Everyone practices deceit and deals in corruption.

11“‘For they have treated the brokenness of the daughter of
My people superficially,
Saying, ‘Peace, peace,’
When there is no peace.

12“‘Were they ashamed because of the extremely disgusting and shamefully vile things they had done?
They were not at all ashamed,
And they did not know how to blush.
Therefore, they shall fall among those who fall;
At the time of their punishment they shall be overthrown,”
Says the LORD. [Jer 6:12–15]

13“‘I will gather and snatch them away [utterly consuming them],” says the LORD.
“There will be no grapes on the vine,
Nor figs on the fig tree,

And even the leaf will wither;
And the things that I have given them will pass away [by the hand of those whom I have appointed].”” [Matt
21:18, 19]

¹⁴Why are we sitting still [the people wonder]?
Assemble yourselves, and let us enter the fortified cities
And let us die there,
For the LORD our God has decreed our ruin
And given us bitter and poisonous water to drink,
Because we have sinned against the LORD.

¹⁵We waited for peace and salvation, but no good came,
And for a time of healing, but behold, terror!

¹⁶The snorting of [Nebuchadnezzar's] horses is heard from Dan [on Palestine's northern border].
At the sound of the neighing of his strong stallions

POWERPOINT

The people of Judah were no longer enjoying the presence of God in their lives because their actions were not pleasing to Him. Jeremiah's heart was broken over the condition of the people's lives. They had provoked the Lord to anger with their idols and carved images, yet they could not understand why God wasn't rushing to their rescue in their times of need. They were blinded to their sin! We must not allow our own thoughts to deceive us, but we should ask God to show us truth at all times.

The whole land quakes;
For they come and devour the land and all that is in it,
The city and those who live in it.

17“For behold, I am sending serpents among you,
Vipers which cannot be charmed,
And they will bite you,” says the LORD.

18Oh, that I (Jeremiah) could find comfort from my sorrow [for my grief is beyond healing], My heart is sick and faint within me!

19Behold, [hear the sound of] the cry of the daughter of my people from the distant land [of Babylon]: “Is not the LORD in Zion? Is not her King within her?”
[But the LORD answers] “Why have they provoked Me to anger with their carved images and with foreign idols?”

20“‘The harvest is past, the summer has ended and the gathering of fruit is over,
But we are not saved,” [comes the voice of the people
again].

21For the brokenness of the daughter of my people I
(Jeremiah) am broken;
I mourn, anxiety has gripped me.

22Is there no balm in Gilead?
Is there no physician there?
Why then has not the [spiritual] health of the daughter of my people been restored?

9 OH THAT my head were waters And my eyes a fountain of tears,
That I might weep day and night

For the slain of the daughter of my people!

²Oh that I had in the wilderness

A lodging place (a mere shelter) for wayfaring men,

That I might leave my people

And go away from them!

For they are all adulterers [worshiping idols instead of the
LORD],

[They are] an assembly of treacherous men [of weak character, men without integrity].

³“They bend their tongue like their bow;

[Their] lies and not truth prevail and grow strong in the land;

For they proceed from evil to evil,

And they do not know and understand and acknowledge
Me,” says the LORD.

⁴“Let everyone beware of his neighbor

And do not trust any brother.

For every brother is a supplanter [like Jacob, a deceiver, ready to grab his brother’s heel],

And every neighbor goes around as a slanderer. [Gen 25:26]

⁵“Everyone deceives and mocks his neighbor

And does not speak the truth.

They have taught their tongue to speak lies;

They exhaust themselves with sin and cruelty.

⁶“Your dwelling is in the midst of deceit [oppression upon oppression and deceit upon deceit]; Through deceit they refuse to know (understand) Me,” says the LORD.

⁷Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts,

“Behold, I will refine them [through suffering] and test
them;

For how else should I deal with the daughter of My people?

⁸“Their tongue is a murderous arrow;

It speaks deceit;

Godly Hearts Produce Godly Words

Jeremiah warned about one who “with his mouth... speaks peace to his neighbor, but in his heart he lays traps and waits in ambush for him” (Jer. 9:8). Along the same lines, Jesus warned the Pharisees: “How can you speak good things when you are evil? For the mouth speaks out of that which fills the heart” (Matt. 12:34). Proverbs 16:23 says, “The heart of the wise instructs his mouth [in wisdom],” also showing us that our words come from and are true expressions of our hearts.

To speak godly words, our hearts need to be right with God. When our hearts are right, we will choose right thoughts, and that will produce right words. When a thought comes into your mind that you know will not bear good fruit or is not pleasing to God, cast it out as though you are hurling it far from your mind. Refuse to take it in and meditate on it, but rather replace it with something that will produce joy and peace in your life.

With his mouth one speaks peace to his neighbor,
But in his heart he lays traps and waits in ambush for him.

⁹“Shall I not punish them for these things?” says the LORD.

“Shall I not avenge Myself

On such a nation as this?

¹⁰“I will take up a weeping and wailing for the mountains,

And a [funeral] dirge for the pastures of the wilderness,
Because they are burned up and desolated so that no one passes through [them];
Nor can anyone hear the lowing of cattle.
Both the birds of the air and the beasts have fled; they are gone.

¹¹“I will make Jerusalem a heap of ruins,
A haunt and dwelling place of jackals;
And I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.”

¹²Who is the wise man who may understand this [without any doubt]? To whom has the mouth of the LORD spoken, so that he may declare it? Why is the land ruined, laid waste like a wilderness, so that no one passes through?

¹³The LORD said, “Because they have turned away from My law which I set before them, and have not listened to and obeyed My voice nor walked in accordance with it, ¹⁴but have walked stubbornly after their [own] heart and after the Baals, as their fathers taught them,”

¹⁵therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “behold, I will feed them, this people, with wormwood and give them bitter and poisonous water to drink.

¹⁶“I will [also] scatter them among nations that neither they nor their fathers have known, and I will send the sword after them until I have annihilated them.”

¹⁷Thus says the LORD of hosts,
“Consider and call for the mourning women to come;
Send for the wailing women to come.

¹⁸“Let them hurry and take up a wailing for us,
That our eyes may shed tears
And our eyelids flow with water.

¹⁹“For a sound of wailing is heard [coming] from Zion:
‘How we are ruined!
We are greatly perplexed and utterly shamed,
Because we have left the land,
Because they have torn down our dwellings.’”

²⁰Now hear the word of the LORD, O you women,
And let your ear hear the word of His mouth;
Teach your daughters a song of mourning,
And each one [teach] her neighbor a dirge.

²¹For death has come up through our windows;
It has entered our palaces,
Cutting off the children from the streets
And the young men from the town squares.

²²Speak, “Thus says the LORD,
‘The dead bodies of men will fall like dung on the open field,
And like sheaves [of grain] behind the reaper,
And no one will gather them.’” [Jer 8:2] ²³Thus says the LORD, “Let not the one who is wise and skillful boast in his insight; let not the one who is mighty and powerful boast in his strength; let not the one who is rich boast in his [temporal satisfactions and earthly] abundance;

²⁴but let the one who boasts boast in this, that he understands and knows Me [and acknowledges Me and honors Me as God and recognizes without any doubt], that I am the LORD who practices lovingkindness, justice and righteousness on the earth, for in these things I delight,” says the LORD. [1 Cor 1:31; 2 Cor 10:17]

²⁵“Behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD, “when I will punish all who are circumcised [physically] and yet uncircumcised [spiritually]—[Rom 2:25–29]

²⁶Egypt and Judah, and Edom and the sons of Ammon, and Moab and all those who live in the desert who clip off the hair on their temples; for all these nations are uncircumcised (sinful, impure), and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart.”

10 HEAR THE word which the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel.

²Thus says the LORD,

“Do not learn the way of the [pagan] nations,

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

There is none like You, O Lord; You are great, and great is Your mighty and powerful name.

• adapted from Jeremiah 10:6

And do not be terrified and distressed by the signs of the heavens

Although the pagans are terrified by them;

³For the customs and decrees of the peoples are [mere] delusion [exercises in futility]; It is only wood which one cuts from the forest [to make a god],

The work of the hands of the craftsman with the axe or cutting tool.

⁴“They adorn the idol with silver and with gold;
They fasten it with hammers and nails
So that it will not fall apart.

⁵“They are like scarecrows in a cucumber field;
They cannot speak;
They have to be carried,
Because they cannot walk!
Do not be afraid of them,
For they can do no harm or evil,
Nor can they do any good.”

⁶There is none like You, O LORD;
You are great, and great is Your mighty and powerful name.

⁷Who would not fear You, O King of the nations?
For it is appropriate and it is Your due!
For among all the wise men of the nations

And in all their kingdoms,
There is none like You.

⁸But they are altogether irrational and stupid and foolish
In their discipline of delusion—their idol is [only] wood [it is ridiculous, empty and worthless]!

⁹Silver that has been beaten [into plates] is brought from Tarshish,
And gold from Uphaz,
The work of the craftsman and of the hand of the goldsmith;
Violet and purple are their clothing;
They are all the work of skilled men.

¹⁰But the LORD is the true God and the God who is Truth; He is the living God and the everlasting King.
The earth quakes and shudders at His wrath,
And the nations are not able to endure His indignation.

¹¹In this manner you shall say to them, “The gods that did not make the heavens and the earth will perish from the earth and from under the heavens.”

¹²God made the earth by His power;
He established the world by His wisdom
And by His understanding and skill He has stretched out the heavens.

¹³When He utters His voice, there is a tumult of waters in the
heavens,
And He causes the clouds and the mist to ascend from the end of the earth;
He makes lightning for the rain,

And brings out the wind from His treasures and from His storehouses.

¹⁴Every man has become [like a brute] irrational and stupid, without knowledge [of God]; Every goldsmith is shamed by his carved idols;

For his molten images are frauds and lies,
And there is no breath in them.

¹⁵They are worthless and devoid of promise, a work of delusion and mockery; In their time of [trial and] punishment they will perish [without hope].

¹⁶The Portion of Jacob [the true God on whom Israel has a claim] is not like these;
For He is the Designer and Maker of all things,
And Israel is the tribe of His inheritance [and He will not fail them]—

The LORD of hosts is His name.

¹⁷Gather up your bundle [of goods] from the ground,
You who live under siege.

¹⁸For thus says the LORD;

“Behold, I am slinging out at this time the people of this land,

And will cause them [great] distress,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Live for God's Will

As God's prophet, Jeremiah suffered greatly for faithfully speaking God's words to His people. Speaking for the nation's brokenness, he said, "Surely this sickness and suffering and grief are mine, and I must bear it" (Jer. 10:19).

The apostle Peter said, "Therefore, since Christ suffered in the flesh [and died for us], arm yourselves [like warriors] with the same purpose [being willing to suffer for doing what is right and pleasing God], because whoever has suffered in the flesh [being like-minded with Christ] is done with [intentional] sin [having stopped pleasing the world]" (1 Pet. 4:1). Suffering in the flesh means your flesh is not going to like everything you have to deal with, but if you set your mind and stand firm, you will no longer walk in the flesh or easily give in to temptation. Instead you will live for what God wills, as Jeremiah did. When we live for God's will, all our circumstances may not be great, but our peace will be—and that is one of the most important things in our lives.

That they may find it [to be as I have said].”

19“Woe to me because of my [spiritual] brokenness!” [says Jeremiah, speaking for the nation.]

“My wound is incurable.”

But I said, “Surely this sickness and suffering and grief are

- mine,
And I must bear it.”
- ²⁰My tent is destroyed,
And all my [tent] cords are broken;
My children have been taken from me [as captives] and are no more.
There is no one to stretch out my tent again
And to set up my [tent] curtains.
- ²¹For the shepherds [of the people] have become [like brutes,] irrational and stupid, And have not searched for the LORD or asked about Him or realized their need for Him; Therefore they have not been wise and have not prospered,
And all their flocks are scattered.
- ²²The sound of a report! Behold, [the invader] comes—
A great commotion from the country of the north (Babylonia)—
To make the cities of Judah
A desolation, a haunt and dwelling place of jackals.
- ²³O LORD, I know that the path of [life of] a man is not in himself;

POWERPOINT

According to Jeremiah 10:23, people even at their very best do not have the ability to run their own lives. God alone knows what is best for us, and we should always submit to His will. We need God's wisdom, guidance, strength, and power to lead us in the right path of life. Acknowledge God in all your ways each day and He will direct your path (see Prov. 3:6).

It is not within [the limited ability of] man [even one at his best] to choose and direct his steps [in life]. [Ps 37:23; Prov 20:24]

²⁴O LORD, correct me [along with Your people], but with mercy and in just measure— Not in Your anger, or You will crush me and bring me to nothing.

²⁵Pour out Your wrath on the nations that do not know nor recognize You

And on the families that do not call Your name.

For they have devoured Jacob;

They have devoured him and consumed him

And made his land a desolate waste.

11 THE WORD that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, ²“Hear the words of this [solemn] covenant, and speak to the men of Judah and to the people of Jerusalem.

³“Say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, “Cursed is the man who does not heed the words of this covenant ⁴which I commanded your fathers at the time that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, ‘Listen to My voice and do according to all that I command you. So you shall be My people, and I will be your God,’

⁵that I may complete the oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land [of plenty] flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day.’”” Then I answered, “Amen (so be it), O LORD.”

⁶And the LORD said to me, “Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: ‘Hear the words of this [solemn] covenant and do them.

⁷‘For I solemnly warned your fathers at the time that I brought them up from the land of Egypt, even to this day, warning them persistently, saying, “Obey My voice.”

⁸‘Yet they did not obey or incline their ear [to listen to Me], but everyone walked in the stubborn way of his [own] evil heart. Therefore I brought on them all [the suffering threatened in] the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they did not.’”

⁹Then the LORD said to me, “A conspiracy has been found among the men of Judah and among the people of Jerusalem.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Tests and Examinations

Jeremiah 11:20 says that the Lord, “who judges righteously,... tests the feelings and the heart (mind).” In chapter 12, Jeremiah specifically asks God to examine the attitude of his heart toward Him (see v. 3). These two verses remind me of Deuteronomy 8:2, when God told the Israelites He was testing their hearts “to know what was in your heart (mind)” and whether or not they would keep His commandments. In Psalm 139:23, David says, “Search me [thoroughly], O God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts.”

The fact that God tests, examines, and searches hearts and minds is mentioned several times in the Bible. He still tests His people today. In fact, when God wants to use people in a special way, they often go through difficulties and trials before they are released into the fullness of their callings. God does this not only so He can see they are ready for the next thing He has for them, but so they also will know they are prepared to move on. A victory in our lives always strengthens us for the next challenge.

The next time you encounter a test or trial, instead of focusing on how difficult it, focus on keeping your mind and heart right; and simply be determined, with God's help, to pass your test, so your reward may come.

¹⁰“They have returned to the wickedness of their ancestors who refused to hear My words; they have followed other gods [in order] to serve them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken My [solemn] covenant which I made with their fathers.”

¹¹Therefore thus says the LORD, “Behold I am bringing disaster and suffering on them which they will not be able to escape; though they cry to Me, I will not listen to them.

¹²“Then the cities of Judah and the people of Jerusalem will go and cry to the [man-made] gods to whom they burn incense, but they cannot save them in the time of their disaster.

¹³“For [as many as] the number of your cities are your gods, O Judah; and [as many as] the number of the streets of Jerusalem are the altars you have set up to the shameful thing, altars to burn incense to Baal.

¹⁴“Therefore do not pray for this people, nor lift up a cry or prayer for them, for I shall not listen when they cry to Me in the time of their disaster.

¹⁵“What right has My beloved [to be] in My house
When she has done many vile things and acted treacherously [over and over again]?

Can vows and the meat of your sacrifices remove your wickedness from you and cancel the consequences of your sin, So that you can [escape your judgment and] rejoice?”

¹⁶The LORD [acknowledged you once as worthy and] called your name, “A green olive tree, fair and beautiful in fruit and form”;

But with the roar of a great tempest
He has set fire to it,
And its branches are worthless. [Ps 52:8; Jer 21:14]

¹⁷For the LORD of hosts, who planted you, has pronounced evil and horror against you because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done to provoke Me [to anger] by offering sacrifices and burning incense to Baal.

¹⁸Then the LORD gave me knowledge [of their plot], and I knew it; So You [O LORD] revealed their deeds to me.

¹⁹But I was like a gentle and tame lamb brought to the slaughter;

And I did not know that they had devised plots and schemes against me, saying,

“Let us destroy the tree with its fruit;

Let us cut him off from the land of the living,

That his name be remembered no longer.”

²⁰But, O LORD of hosts, who judges righteously,

Who tests the feelings and the heart (mind),

Let me see Your vengeance on them,

For to You I have committed my cause.

²¹Therefore thus says the LORD regarding the men of Anathoth, who seek your life, saying, “Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD, so that you will not die by our hand.”

²²Therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts, “Behold, I am about to punish them. Their young men will die by the sword, their sons and their daughters will die by famine; ²³and there will be no remnant [of the conspirators] left, for I will bring disaster and horror on the men of Anathoth in the year of their punishment.”

12 YOU, O LORD are [uncompromisingly] righteous and consistently just when I plead my case with You; Yet let me discuss issues of justice with You:

Why has the way of the wicked prospered?

Why are those who deal in treachery (deceit) at ease and thriving?

²You have planted them, they have also taken root;

They grow, they have even produced fruit.

You are honored by their [hypocritical] lips

POWERPOINT

Knowing that God is righteous and just (see Jer. 12:1), Jeremiah asked God to examine his heart attitude and thoughts (see Jer. 12:3). Thinking about what you're thinking about is very valuable because Satan can usually deceive people into thinking that the source of their misery or trouble is something other than what it really is. He wants them to think they are unhappy due to what is going on around them (their circumstances), when the misery is actually due to what is going on in their own thoughts and attitudes.

But [You are] far from their heart and mind.

³But You, O LORD, know me [and understand my devotion to

You]; You see me;
And You examine the attitude of my heart toward You.
Drag out the faithless like sheep for the slaughter [O LORD]
And set them apart for the day of slaughter.

⁴How long must the land mourn
And the grass of the countryside wither?
Because of the wickedness and hypocrisy of those who live in it,
The beasts and the birds are consumed and are swept away
[by the drought],
Because men [mocking me] have said, “He will not [live long enough to] see [what happens at] our final end.”

⁵[The LORD rebukes Jeremiah for his impatience, saying] “If you have raced with men on foot and they have tired you out, Then how can you compete with horses?
If you fall down in a land of peace [where you feel secure],
Then how will you do [among the lions] in the [flooded]
thicket beside the Jordan?

⁶“For even your [tribal] brothers and the household of your father,
Even they have dealt treacherously (unfaithfully) with you;
Indeed they are [like a pack of hounds] howling after you.
Do not believe them, although they may say kind words and promise you good things.”

⁷“I have abandoned My house,
I have given up My [precious] inheritance (Judah);
I have given the [dearly] beloved of My life

Into the hands of her enemies.

8“My inheritance has become to Me

Like a lion in the forest;

She has raised her voice and roared against Me;

So I have come to [treat her as if I] hate her.

9“Is My inheritance like a speckled bird of prey to Me [unlike the others]?

Are the birds of prey (enemies) surrounding her on every side?

Go, gather all the [wild] beasts of the field;

Bring them to devour [her]!

10“Many shepherds (invaders) have destroyed My vineyard (Judah),

They have trampled My field underfoot;

They have made My pleasant field

A desolate wilderness.

11“They have made it a wasteland,

Desolate, it mourns before Me;

The whole land has been made a wasteland,

Because no man takes it to heart.

12“Destroyers have come

On all the caravan roads in the desert,

For the sword of the LORD (Babylon) is devouring

From one end of the land even to the other;

No one has peace or a way of escape.

13“They have planted wheat but have reaped thorns;

They have exhausted themselves but without profit.

So be ashamed of your harvest

Because of the fierce and raging anger of the LORD.”

¹⁴Thus says the LORD regarding all My evil neighbors (Gentile nations) who strike at the inheritance which I have granted to My people Israel, “Behold, I will uproot them from their land and I will uproot the house of Judah from among them.

¹⁵“And it shall come about that after I have uprooted them, I will return and have compassion on them; and I will bring them back again, each one to his inheritance and each one to his land.

¹⁶“And if these [neighboring nations] will diligently learn the ways of My people, to swear by My Name, saying, ‘As the LORD lives’—even as they taught My people to swear by Baal, then they will be built up among My people.

¹⁷“But if [any nation] will not listen and obey, I will [completely] uproot and destroy that nation, says the LORD.”

13 THUS THE LORD said to me, “Go and buy yourself a linen waistband and put it on your loins, but do not put it in water.”

²So I bought the waistband according to the word of the LORD and put it on my loins.

³Then the word of the LORD came to me a second time, saying,

⁴“Get up and take the waistband that you have bought, which is [wrapped] around your loins, and go to the [river] Euphrates and hide it there in a crevice of the rock.”

⁵So I went and hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD had commanded me.

⁶And after many days the LORD said to me, “Get up, go to the Euphrates and get the waistband which I commanded you to hide there.”

⁷Then I went to the Euphrates and dug, and I took the waistband from the place where I had hidden it. And behold, the waistband was decayed and ruined; it was completely worthless.

⁸Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

⁹“Thus says the LORD, ‘In this same way I shall destroy the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem.

¹⁰‘These wicked and malevolent people, who refuse to listen to My words, who walk in the stubborn way of their heart and have followed other gods [which are nothing—just man-made carvings] to serve them and to worship them, let them be just like this waistband which is completely worthless.

¹¹‘For as the waistband clings to the body of a man, so I caused the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to cling to Me,’ says the LORD, ‘that they might be for Me a people, a name, a praise, and a glory; but they did not listen and obey.’

¹²“Therefore you are to speak this word to them, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, “Every jar should be filled with wine.” ’ The people will say to you, ‘Do we not already know that every jar should be filled with wine?’

¹³“Then say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Behold, I am about to fill with drunkenness all the people of this land, even the kings who sit on David’s throne, the priests, the prophets and all the people of Jerusalem.

¹⁴“I will smash them one against another, both the fathers and the sons together,” says the LORD. “I shall destroy them [nothing will restrain Me]; I will not show pity nor be sorry nor have compassion.””

¹⁵Listen and pay close attention, do not be haughty and overconfident, For the LORD has spoken [says Jeremiah].

¹⁶Give glory to the LORD your God,
Before He brings darkness
And before your feet stumble
On the dark and shadowy mountains,
And while you are longing for light
He turns it into the shadow of death,
And makes it into thick darkness.

¹⁷But if you will not listen and obey,
My soul will weep in secret for your pride;
My eyes will weep bitterly
And flow with tears,
Because the LORD's flock has been taken captive.

¹⁸Say to the king and the queen mother,
“Humble yourselves and take a lowly seat,
For your beautiful crown [the crown of your glory]
Has come down from your head.”

¹⁹The cities of the South (the Negev) have been closed up,
And there is no one to open them;
All Judah has been carried into exile,
Completely carried away into exile.

²⁰“Lift up your eyes and see

Those coming from the north.
Where is the flock that was given to you [to shepherd],
Your beautiful flock?

21“What will you say [O Jerusalem] when the LORD appoints [foreign nations to rule] over you— Those former friends and allies whom you have encouraged [to be your companions]—

Will not pain seize you
Like [that of] a woman in childbirth?

22“And if you [wonder and] say in your heart,
‘Why have these things happened to me?’
It is because of the greatness and nature of your sin
That your skirts have been pulled away [subjecting you to public disgrace]
And [like a barefoot slave] your heels have been wounded.

23“Can the Ethiopian change his skin
Or the leopard his spots?
Then you also can do good
Who are accustomed to evil and even trained to do it.

24“Therefore I will scatter you like drifting straw
[Driven away] by the desert wind.

25“This is your destiny, the portion [of judgment] measured to
you
From Me,” says the LORD,
“Because you have forgotten Me
And trusted in [pagan] lies [the counterfeit gods, and the pretense of alliance].”

26“So I Myself will throw your skirts up over your face,

That your shame may be exposed [publicly].
27“*I have seen your vile and detestable acts, Even your adulteries and your lustful neighings [after idols],
And the lewdness of your prostitution
On the hills in the fields.
Woe (judgment is coming) to you, O Jerusalem!
How long will you remain unclean [by ignoring My precepts]?”*

14 THE WORD of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought: 2“*Judah mourns

And her gates languish;
Her people sit on the ground in mourning clothes
And the cry of Jerusalem has gone up.*
3“*Their nobles have sent their servants for water;
They have come to the cisterns and found no water.
They have returned with empty vessels;
They have been shamed and humiliated,
And they cover their heads.*
4“*The ground is cracked
Because there has been no rain on the land;
The farmers are distressed,
And they have covered their heads [in shame].*
5“*The doe in the field has given birth only to abandon her young
Because there is no grass.*

⁶“And the wild donkeys stand on the barren heights;
They pant for air like jackals,
Their eyesight fails
Because there is no grass.

⁷“O LORD, though our many sins testify against us” [prays Jeremiah], “Act now [for us and] for Your name’s sake [so that the faithless may witness Your faithfulness]!
For our backslidings are countless;
We have sinned against You.

⁸“O Hope of Israel,
Her Savior in time of distress and trouble,
Why should You be like a sojourner (temporary resident) in the land

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

O Lord, though my sins may testify against me, act now for Your name’s sake so that the faithless may witness Your faithfulness!

Or like a traveler who turns aside and spreads his tent to linger [only] for a night?

⁹“Why should You be [hesitant and inactive] like a man astounded and perplexed,
Like a mighty man unable to save?
Yet You, O LORD, are among us,
And we are called by Your name;
Do not leave us!”

¹⁰Thus says the LORD to this people [Judah], “In the manner and to the degree [already pointed out] they have loved to wander; they have not restrained their feet. Therefore the LORD does not accept them; He will now remember [in detail] their wickedness and punish them for their sins.”

¹¹So the LORD said to me, “Do not pray for good things for this people.

¹²“Though they fast, I will not hear their cry; and though they offer burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them [because they are done as obligations, and not as acts of loving obedience]. Instead I will consume them by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence.”

¹³But I said, “Alas, Lord GOD! Behold, the [false] prophets are telling them, ‘You will not see the sword nor will you have famine, but I [the LORD] will give you lasting peace in this place.’”

¹⁴Then the LORD said to me, “The [counterfeit] prophets are prophesying lies in My Name. I have neither sent them nor authorized them nor spoken to them. They are prophesying to you made-up visions [pretending to call forth responses from handmade gods], a worthless divination and the deceit of their own mind.

¹⁵“Therefore, thus says the LORD concerning the [false] prophets who are prophesying in My Name, although I did not send them—yet they keep saying, ‘Sword and famine shall not be in this land’: by sword and famine those prophets shall meet their end and be consumed.

¹⁶“And the people to whom they are prophesying will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem, victims of famine and sword; and they will have no one to bury them—neither them, nor their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters. For I will pour out their [own] wickedness on them [and not only on the imposters posing as prophets, for the people could not have been deceived without their own consent].

¹⁷“Therefore [Jeremiah] you will say this word to them,
‘Let my eyes flow with tears night and day,
And let them never cease;
For the virgin daughter of my people has been crushed with a great blow,
With a very serious and severely infected wound.

¹⁸‘If I go out into the field,
Then I gaze on those slaughtered with the sword!
And if I enter the city,
Then I gaze on [those tormented with] the diseases of famine!
For both prophet and priest [who should have guided the

people]

Go about [bewildered and exiled] in a land (Babylon) that they do not know or understand.’”

¹⁹ Have You [O LORD] completely rejected Judah?

Do You loathe Zion?

Why have You stricken us so that there is no healing for us?

We looked for peace and completeness, but nothing good came;

And [we hoped] for a time of healing, but behold, terror!

²⁰ We know and acknowledge, O LORD,

Our wickedness and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against You.

²¹ Do not treat us with contempt and condemn us, for Your own name’s sake;

Do not disgrace Your glorious throne;

Remember [with consideration] and do not break Your [solemn] covenant with us.

²² Are there any among the idols of the nations who can send rain?

Or can the heavens [of their own will] give showers?

Is it not You, O LORD our God?

Therefore we will wait and hope [confidently] in You,

For You are the one who has made all these things [the heavens and the rain].

15 THEN THE LORD said to me, “Even though Moses and

Samuel were to stand before Me [interceding for them], My heart would still not be [turned with favor] toward this people [Judah]. Send them away from My presence and out of My sight and let them go!

²“And it shall be that when they say to you, ‘Where should we go?’ then tell them, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Those [destined] for death, to death;

Those for the sword, to the sword;

Those for famine, to famine;

Those for captivity, to captivity.” ’

³“I will appoint four kinds of destroyers over them,” says the LORD, “the sword to slay, the dogs to tear and drag away, and the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth to devour and to destroy.

⁴“I will make them an object of horror to all nations of the earth because of Manasseh [the despicable] son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for the [evil and detestable] things which he did in Jerusalem. [2 Kin 21:1–18]

⁵“For who will have pity on you, O Jerusalem,
Or who will mourn for you,
Or who will turn aside to ask about your welfare?

⁶“You have abandoned (rejected) Me,” says the LORD.

“You keep going backward.

Therefore I shall stretch out My hand against you and destroy you;

I am tired of delaying [your punishment]!

⁷“I will winnow (sort, separate) them with a winnowing fork
At the gates of the land;

I will deprive them of children, I will destroy My people;
They did not repent and turn from their [evil] ways.

8“ I will make their widows more numerous before Me
Than the sand of the seas;
I will bring against them, against the mother of the young men,
A destroyer at noonday;
I will suddenly cause anguish and terror
To fall on her.

9“ She who has borne seven [sons] languishes;
She has breathed out her soul.
Her sun has set while it was still day;
She has been shamed and humiliated.
So I will hand over [the rest of] the survivors to the sword
Before their enemies,” says the LORD.

10 Woe to me, my mother, that you have given birth to me
To be a man of strife and a man of contention to all the earth!

I have not loaned, nor have men lent money to me,
Yet everyone curses me. [Jer 1:18, 19]

11 The LORD said, “Surely [it will go well for Judah’s obedient remnant for] I will set you free for good purposes;
Surely [Jeremiah] I will [intercede for you with the enemy and I will] cause the enemy to plead with you [for help]
In a time of disaster and a time of distress. [Jer 21:1, 2; 37:3;
42:2; Rom 8:28]

12“ Can anyone crush iron,

The iron from the north, or bronze?

¹³“Your [nation’s] riches and your treasures

I will give as plunder without price [to the Babylonians],

Because of all your sins

And within all your territories.

¹⁴“Then I will make your enemies bring [you along with] your possessions

Into a land which you do not know [for there you will serve your conquerors];

For a fire has been kindled in My anger,

Which will burn upon you.”

¹⁵O LORD, You know and understand; Remember me

[thoughtfully], take notice of me, take vengeance for me on my persecutors.

Do not, in view of Your patience, take me away;

Know that for Your sake I endure [continual] rebuke and dishonor.

¹⁶Your words were found and I ate them,

And Your words became a joy to me and the delight of my heart;

For I have been called by Your name,

O LORD God of hosts.

¹⁷I did not sit with the group of those who celebrate,

Nor did I rejoice;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God's Word in Your Heart

Most Christians recognize the importance of reading the Bible, but some do not understand the importance of abiding or remaining in Jesus and in His words, being vitally united to Him and having His message living in their hearts (John 15:7). They miss out on what the prophet Jeremiah said, "Your words were found and I ate them, and Your words became a joy to me and the delight of my heart" (Jer. 15:16).

When we diligently study the Word and keep Scripture verses in our hearts, we have instant access to them whenever we need them, and Jesus has promised that in prayer we can ask in His name for whatever we need and receive it (see John 14:13). Abiding in the Word and allowing the Word to abide in us makes us true disciples of Jesus (see John 8:31). Abiding gives us more power in our prayer lives, which releases God's blessings in our lives and gives us power over the enemy.

POWERPOINT

Jeremiah 15:19 tells us that Jeremiah had an attitude of despair and self-pity, and God called it to his attention. I can relate because I wasted many years of my life feeling sorry for myself. My automatic response to any disappointment was self-pity. Whenever certain things happened that I did not like, Satan would immediately fill my mind with wrong thoughts, and I would simply think about whatever came into my head. There are still times when I don't get my way, but if I start to feel bad about it, I can always pray, "Oh God, help me to resist this attitude of self-pity and realize how blessed I am." Let us take time several times each day to express our thankfulness to God for all His goodness in our lives.

I sat alone because Your [powerful] hand was upon me,
For You had filled me with indignation [at their sin].

¹⁸Why has my pain been perpetual
And my wound incurable, refusing to be healed?
Will you indeed be to me like a deceptive brook
With water that is unreliable?

¹⁹Therefore, thus says the LORD [to Jeremiah], “If you repent [and give up this mistaken attitude of despair and self-pity], then I will restore you [to a state of inner peace]
So that you may stand before Me [as My obedient representative];
And if you separate the precious from the worthless [examining yourself and cleansing your heart from unwarranted doubt concerning My faithfulness], You will become My spokesman.
Let the people turn to you [and learn to value My values]—
But you, you must not turn to them [with regard for their idolatry and wickedness].

²⁰“And I will make you to this people
A fortified wall of bronze;
They will fight against you,
But they will not prevail over you,
For I am with you [always] to save you

And protect you,” says the LORD.

²¹“So I will rescue you out of the hand of the wicked,
And I will redeem you from the [grasping] palm of the terrible and ruthless [tyrant].”

16 THE WORD of the LORD also came to me, saying, ²“You shall not take a wife or have sons and daughters in this place (Jerusalem).”

³For thus says the LORD concerning the sons and daughters who are born in this place, and concerning the mothers who give birth to them, and the fathers who father them in this land: ⁴“They will die of deadly diseases. They will not be mourned or buried; they will be like dung on the surface of the ground and come to an end by sword and famine, and their dead bodies will be food for the birds of the air and for the beasts of the earth.”

⁵For thus says the LORD, “Do not enter a house of mourning, nor go to lament (express grief) or bemoan [the dead], for I have taken My peace away from this people,” says the LORD, “even My lovingkindness and compassion.

⁶“Both great men and small will die in this land; they will not be buried, nor will they be lamented (mourned over with expressions of grief in death), nor will anyone cut himself or shave his head for them [in mourning].

⁷“People will not offer food to the mourners, to comfort anyone [as they grieve] for the dead, nor give them a cup of consolation to drink for anyone’s father or mother.

⁸“And you [Jeremiah] shall not go into a house of feasting to sit with them to eat and drink.”

⁹For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “Behold, I will remove from this place, before your very eyes and in your time, the sound of joy and the shout of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Step Out and Find Out

Jeremiah preached for decades to the people of Israel, and not once did he see any real change in the minds of his stubborn, idolatrous people. Jeremiah 15 is a reflection of a man who is alone, rejected, depressed, and believes that his efforts are useless. Yet even as his faith wavers, God speaks to Jeremiah to change his attitude and be restored to stand as His spokesman (see Jer. 15:19).

When people have a dream or goal for their lives, and it becomes obvious that they need to change directions, it can either be depressing or exciting. Many years ago, I tried to be my pastor's secretary. When I was told the position just wasn't right for me, I was devastated, but had I kept the job, I wouldn't be doing what I am doing today. When things don't work out the way you planned, you don't have to become discouraged and depressed; rather, believe that God has something better for you and get excited to see what it is. Don't be married to your own plan. People plan their own way in their minds, but God directs their steps (see Prov. 16:9).

Though I used to get discouraged when my plans didn't work, I eventually realized all that matters is that what I am doing is God's plan for me. Sometimes our personal expectations disappoint us, so we should always pray, "Your will be done, oh God, and not mine."

One way we find God's perfect will for us is to step out and find what works and what does not work. If something doesn't work out, don't waste months in depression; just scratch it off your list of possibilities and go on to the next thing. The choice is yours!

Sometimes I think about finding God's perfect will as I would think about trying to find the perfect new outfit. I go shopping and try on different things. I see how they fit and how they look on me. I don't get depressed if the first few don't work. I enjoy the shopping trip, and eventually I find the outfit that is just right for me. You can look at the dreams you have for your life in a similar way. Keep dreaming and setting goals until you find the perfect fit for you!

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord God, when my plans don't work out, I often become discouraged and my faith wavers. Help me to let go of my own plans and let You direct my steps, and help me to remember that all that matters in life is that I am doing Your will. In Jesus' name. Amen.

10“Now when you tell these people all these words and they ask you, ‘Why has the LORD decreed all this great tragedy against us? And what is our iniquity, what is the sin which we have committed against the LORD our God?’

11“Then you are to say to them, ‘It is because your fathers have abandoned (rejected) Me,’ says the LORD, ‘and have walked after other gods and have served them and bowed down to the handmade idols and have abandoned (rejected) Me and have not kept My law, ¹²and because you have done worse [things] than your fathers. Just look, every one of you walks in the stubbornness of his own evil heart, so that you do not listen [obediently] to Me.

13“Therefore I will hurl you out of this land [of Judah] into the land [of the Babylonians] which neither you nor your fathers have known, and there you will serve other gods day and night, for I will show you no compassion.’

14“Therefore behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD, “when it will no longer be said, ‘As the LORD lives, who brought up the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt,’

15but, ‘As the LORD lives, who brought up the sons of Israel from the land of the north and from all the countries to which He had driven them.’ And I will bring them back to their land which I gave to their fathers.

16“Behold (listen carefully), I will send for many fishermen,” says the LORD, “and they will fish for them; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them from every mountain and from every hill and out of the clefts of the rocks.

¹⁷“For My eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from My face, nor is their wickedness concealed from My eyes.

¹⁸“I will first doubly repay and punish them for their wickedness and their sin [before I return them to their land], because they have profaned My land; they have filled My inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable idols and with their abominations.”

¹⁹[Then said Jeremiah] “O LORD, my Strength and my Stronghold, And my Refuge in the day of distress and need,

The nations will come to You

From the ends of the earth and say,

‘Our fathers have inherited nothing but lies and illusion, [Worthless] things in which there is no benefit!’

²⁰“Can a man make gods for himself?

Such [things] are not gods!

²¹“Therefore,” [says the LORD] “behold, I will make them know— This time I will make them know

My power and My might;

And they will know and recognize [without any doubt] that My Name is the LORD.”

17 THE SIN of Judah is written down with an iron stylus;
With a diamond point it is engraved upon the tablet of their heart

And on the horns of their altars.

²As they remember their children,
So they remember [in detail] their [pagan] altars and their Asherim

Beside green trees on the high hills.

³O [Jerusalem] My mountain in the countryside,
I will give [to the Babylonians, as the cost of your sin] your wealth and all your treasures as plunder, And throughout your territory, your high places of sin.

⁴And you will, through your own fault, let go of your [grip on your] inheritance

That I gave you;

And I will make you serve your enemies

In a land which you do not know;

For you have kindled a fire in My anger

Which will burn forever.

⁵Thus says the LORD,

“Cursed is the man who trusts in and relies on mankind,

Making [weak, faulty human] flesh his strength,

And whose mind and heart turn away from the LORD.

⁶“For he will be like a shrub in the [parched] desert;

And shall not see prosperity when it comes,

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Lean on the Lord

Anytime we face difficulties or obstacles in our lives, we have a choice. We can decide whether we want to draw our strength from ourselves or from the Lord. The Bible refers to two sources of strength that we can rely on—“[weak, faulty human] flesh” (Jer. 17:5), which represents human effort, and the Lord and His strength and power (see Ps. 89:13, 21). Leaning on the flesh is rooted in our earthly nature and based on human ideas and efforts; leaning on the Lord is rooted in the Spirit of the Lord and based on God’s plan and power. These two sources of strength are in direct contrast to each other and will lead to vastly different results in our lives. Jeremiah 17:5–6 describes a person who leans on the flesh, while Jeremiah 17:7–8 characterizes someone who leans on the Lord.

Many people lean on the flesh, straining and striving through every day, unhappy for reasons they cannot seem to identify or understand. Often, the cause is simply that they are trying to operate according to their own strength instead of trusting in the strength of the Lord. When we depend on the flesh and try to accomplish things through our own efforts—coming up with our own ideas and using our natural energy to make them work—we end up frustrated and confused. When we lean on the Lord—seeking what He would have us to do, depending on His grace to help us see it all the way through, and putting all our faith and trust in Him—we end up satisfied and filled with joy over what He has done for us.

In Philippians 3:3, Paul writes strong words about not putting our confidence in the flesh: “For we... worship in the Spirit of God and glory and take pride and exult in Jesus Christ and put no confidence [in what we have or what we are] in the flesh.”

Everyone looks for a source of strength in something. You and I are either going to lean on the flesh or lean on the Lord. The flesh will always fail us, but the Lord will always be with us and see us through any situation to victory.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord, I know I have a choice between the arm of the flesh and the arm of the Lord. Help me to put my faith and trust in You, leaning on Your strong arm in every situation. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Speak God's Word

I am blessed with spiritual security because I believe and trust in the Lord and my confident expectation is in Him. I will be nourished like a tree planted by the waters, that spreads out its roots by the river; and will not fear the heat when it comes; but my leaves will be green and moist. And I will not be anxious and concerned in a year of drought nor stop bearing fruit.

| adapted from JEREMIAH 17:7–

8 |

But shall live in the rocky places of the wilderness,
In an uninhabited salt land.

⁷“Blessed [with spiritual security] is the man who believes and trusts in and relies on the LORD

And whose hope and confident expectation is the LORD.

⁸“For he will be [nourished] like a tree planted by the waters,

That spreads out its roots by the river;
And will not fear the heat when it comes;
But its leaves will be green and moist.
And it will not be anxious and concerned in a year of drought
Nor stop bearing fruit.

⁹“The heart is deceitful above all things
And it is extremely sick;
Who can understand it fully and know its secret motives?
[Matt 13:15–17; Mark 7:21–23; Eph 4:20–24]

¹⁰“I, the LORD, search and examine the mind,
I test the heart,
To give to each man according to his ways,
According to the results of his deeds.

¹¹“Like the partridge that hatches eggs which she has not laid,
So is he who makes a fortune in ways that are unjust.
It will be lost to him before his days are over,
And in the end he will be [nothing but] a fool.”

¹²A glorious throne, set on high from the beginning,
Is the place of our sanctuary (the temple).

¹³O LORD, the hope of Israel,
All who abandon You will be shamed.
Those who turn away on earth will be written down, Because they have abandoned the LORD, the fountain of living waters.

¹⁴Heal me, O LORD, and I will be healed;
Save me and I will be saved,

For You are my praise.

¹⁵Behold, they keep saying to me,
“Where is the word of the LORD [that is, the disaster that you prophesied]?
Let it come now!”

¹⁶But as for me, I have not tried to escape from being a shepherd [walking] after You,
Nor have I longed for the woeful day [of judgment];
You know that, whatever I said
Was [spoken] in Your presence and was from You.

¹⁷Do not be a terror to me;
You are my refuge and my hope in the day of disaster.

¹⁸Let those who persecute me be shamed, but as for me,
protect me from shame;
Let them lose courage, but let me be undaunted.
Bring on them a day of tragedy,
And destroy them with double destruction!

¹⁹Thus the LORD said to me, “Go and stand in the public gate, through which the kings of Judah come in and go out, and [stand] also in all the gates of Jerusalem; ²⁰and say to them, ‘Listen to the word of the LORD, kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the people of Jerusalem who enter through these gates.

²¹Thus says the LORD, “Pay attention for your own good,
[and for the sake of your future] do not carry any load on the Sabbath day or bring anything in through the gates of Jerusalem.

22“You shall not carry a load out of your houses on the Sabbath day nor do any work, but keep the Sabbath day holy [by setting it apart as a day of worship], as I commanded your fathers.

23“Yet they would not listen and obey and control their behavior; but they were stiff-necked in order not to hear and take instruction.

24“But it will come about, if you listen diligently to Me,” says the LORD, “to bring no load in through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but keep the Sabbath day holy by doing no work on it, 25*then kings and princes who will sit on the throne of David will enter through the gates of this city, riding in chariots and on horses—the kings and their princes, the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city will be inhabited and endure throughout the ages.*

26“People will come from the cities of Judah and the places all around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin, from the lowland, from the hill country and from the South (the Negev), bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings and incense, and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving to the house of the LORD.

27“But if you will not listen to Me and keep the Sabbath day holy by not carrying a load as you come in the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle a fire in her gates that cannot be extinguished, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem.””

18 THE WORD which came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

²“Arise and go down to the potter’s house, and there I will make you hear My words.”

³Then I went down to the potter’s house, and saw that he was working at the wheel.

⁴But the vessel that he was making from clay was spoiled by the potter’s hand; so he made it over, reworking it and making it into another pot that seemed good to him.

⁵Then the word of the LORD came to me:

⁶“O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter does?” says the LORD. “Look carefully, as the clay is in the potter’s hand, so are you in My hand, O house of Israel.

⁷“At one moment I might [suddenly] speak concerning a nation or kingdom, that I will uproot and break down and destroy;

⁸if that nation against which I have spoken turns from its evil, I will ^{*}relent and reverse My decision concerning the devastation that I intended to do.

⁹“Or at another time I might [suddenly] speak about a nation or kingdom that I will build up or establish;

¹⁰and if they do evil in My sight by not obeying My voice, then I will reverse My decision concerning the good with which I had promised to bless them.

¹¹“Now then, say to the men of Judah and to the citizens of Jerusalem, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Behold, I am shaping a disaster and working out a plan against you. Turn back, each of you from his evil way; correct your habits and change your actions for the better.”’

¹²“But they will say, ‘That is hopeless! For we are going to follow our own plans, and each of us will act in accordance with the stubbornness of his evil heart.’

13“Therefore thus says the LORD,

‘Ask now among the nations,
Who has heard of such things?

The virgin Israel

Has done a very vile and horrible thing.

14‘Will the snow of [Mount] Lebanon melt and vanish from its rocks [which tower above Israel]?

Will the cold, rushing waters of foreign lands [that flow down from the distant land] be dried up?

15‘Yet My people have forgotten Me;

They burn incense to worthless gods,

They have stumbled from their ways

From the ancient roads,

To walk in pathways,

Not on a highway,

16Making their land a desolation and a horror,

A thing to be hissed at perpetually;

Everyone who passes by will be astounded

And shake his head [in scorn].

17‘I will scatter them like an east wind

Before the enemy;

I will show them My back and not My face

In the day of their disaster [says the LORD].”

18Then [my enemies] said, “Come and let us work out schemes against Jeremiah. Surely the law is not going to be lost to the priest [as Jeremiah predicts], nor the counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come and let us strike him with our tongue [by making charges against him before the king], and let us ignore anything he says.”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Good Habits Lead to a Good Life

Habits are things we learn to do through such frequent repetition that we eventually do them unconsciously or with very little effort. Don't be deceived, however, into thinking you can't help what you do, because the truth is you can do or not do anything if you really want to. The Bible says, "Correct your habits and change your actions for the better" (Jer. 18:11).

One of the ingredients of forming good habits and breaking bad ones is focusing on what you want to do and not on what you want to stop doing. For example, if you want to form a good habit of thinking right thoughts, don't sink into condemnation each time you catch yourself thinking something that you should not think. Simply thank God for the revelation He is giving you, fill your mind with good thoughts, and keep focusing on what your goal is rather than on the times you fail.

- ¹⁹Pay attention to me, O LORD [and intercede];
Listen to what my adversaries are saying [and are plotting
against me]—
- ²⁰Should good be repaid with evil?
Yet they have dug a pit for me.
Remember [with compassion] that I stood before You

To speak good on their behalf,
To turn Your anger away from them.

²¹ Therefore, give their children over to the famine;
Give them over to the power of the sword.
And let their wives become childless and widowed;
Let their men meet death [by virulent disease],
Their young men be struck down by the sword in battle.

²² Let an outcry be heard from their houses
When You suddenly bring [a troop of] raiders upon them,
For they have dug a pit to capture me
And have hidden snares for my feet.

²³ Yet You, O LORD, know
All their deadly plotting against me;
Do not forgive their wickedness
Or blot out their sin from Your sight.
But let them be overthrown before You;
Deal with them in the time of Your anger.

19 THUS SAYS the LORD, “Go and buy a potter’s earthenware jar, and take some of the elders of the people and some of the senior priests ²and go out to the Valley of Ben-hinnom (son of Hinnom), which is near the entrance of the Potsherd Gate; and proclaim there the words that I tell you,

³and say, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, “Behold (listen carefully), I am going to bring such disaster on this place that the ears of everyone who hears about it will tingle [in shock].

⁴“Because the people [of Jerusalem] have abandoned (rejected) Me and have made this an alien and profaned place by burning sacrifices and incense in it to other gods, that neither they nor their fathers nor the kings of Judah ever knew, and because they have filled this place with the blood of the innocent ⁵and have built the high places of Baal to burn their sons in the fire as burnt offerings to Baal, which I never commanded or spoke of, nor did it ever enter My mind (heart); ⁶therefore, listen very closely, the days are coming,” says the LORD, “when this place shall no longer be called Topheth or the Valley of Ben-hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. [Jer 7:31–32]

⁷“I will pour out and nullify the counsel (plans) of [the men of] Judah and Jerusalem in this place, and I will make their people fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hand of those who seek their lives; and I will give their dead bodies as food for the birds of the air and for the beasts of the earth.

⁸“I will make this city a desolation and an object of hissing; everyone who passes by it will be amazed and will hiss [in scorn] because of all its plagues and disasters.

⁹“And I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and their daughters, and each one will eat one another’s flesh during the siege and distress brought by their enemies and those who seek their lives.” ’

¹⁰“Then you are to break the jar in the sight of the men who accompany you, ¹¹and say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, “This is the way I will break this people and this city as one breaks a potter’s vessel, so that it cannot be mended. They will bury [corpses] in Topheth until there is no more room left [in that place] to bury [the dead].

¹²“This I will do to this place,” says the LORD, “and to its inhabitants; and I will even make this city like Topheth.

¹⁴Then Jeremiah came from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of the LORD’s house and said to all the people: ¹⁵“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ‘Behold, I am going to bring on this city and on all its towns, all the devastation that I have declared against it, because they have become stiff-necked and refused to hear and obey My words.’”

20 NOW PASHHUR the son of Immer, the priest, who was [also] chief officer in the house of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things.

²Then Pashhur beat Jeremiah the prophet and put him in the stocks that were at the upper Benjamin Gate by the house of the LORD. [Jer 1:19; 15:15]

³And the next day Pashhur brought Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, “The LORD does not call your name Pashhur, but Magor-missabib (terror on every side).

⁴“For thus says the LORD, ‘Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends; they will fall by the sword of their enemies while you look on. And I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon; he will carry them away to Babylon as captives and will slaughter them with the sword.

⁵Moreover, I will hand over all the riches of this city, all the result of its labor, all its precious things; even all the treasures of the kings of Judah I will hand over to their enemies, and they will plunder them, and take them away and carry them to Babylon.

⁶And you, Pashhur, and all who live in your house will go into captivity; you will go to Babylon, and there you will die and be buried, you and all your friends to whom you have falsely prophesied.”

⁷[Jeremiah said,] O LORD, You have persuaded me and I was deceived;

You are stronger than I and You have prevailed.

I am a laughingstock all day long;

Everyone mocks me.

⁸For whenever I speak, I must shout out;

I shout violence and destruction,

Because the word of the LORD has become to me

A reprimand and a mockery and has brought me insult all day long.

⁹If I say, “I will not remember Him

Or speak His name anymore,”

Speak God's Word

The Lord is with me as a dread champion; therefore my persecutors will stumble and not overcome me.

| adapted from JEREMIAH 20:11 |

Then my heart becomes a burning fire

Shut up in my bones.

And I am weary of enduring and holding it in;

I cannot endure it [nor contain it any longer].

¹⁰For I have heard the whispering and defaming words of many,

“Terror on every side!

Denounce him! Let us denounce him!”

All my familiar and trusted friends,

[Those who are] watching for my fall, say,

“Perhaps he will be persuaded and deceived; then we will overcome him,

And take our revenge on him.”

¹¹But the LORD is with me as a dread champion [one to be greatly feared];

Therefore my persecutors will stumble and not overcome

[me].

They will be completely shamed, for they have not acted wisely and have failed [in their schemes];

Their eternal dishonor will never be forgotten.

¹²But, O LORD of hosts, You who examine the righteous,

Who see the heart and the mind,

Let me see Your vengeance on them;

For to You I have committed my cause.

¹³Sing to the LORD! Praise the LORD!

For He has rescued the life of the needy one

From the hand of evildoers.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord of hosts, You examine the righteous. You see the heart and the mind. Let me see Your vengeance on my persecutors, for I have committed my cause to You.

• adapted from Jeremiah 20:12

- ¹⁴Cursed be the day on which I was born;
Do not bless the day on which my mother gave birth to me!
- ¹⁵Cursed be the man who brought the news
To my father, saying,
“A son has been born to you!”
Making him very glad.
- ¹⁶And let that man be like the cities
Which the LORD overthrew without regret.
Let him hear an outcry in the morning
And a shout of alarm at noon;
- ¹⁷Because he did not kill me before my birth,
So that my mother might have been my grave,
And her womb always pregnant.
- ¹⁸Why did I come out of the womb
To see trouble and sorrow,
So that my days have been filled with shame?

21 THE WORD which came to Jeremiah from the LORD when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur the son of Malchijah, and Zephaniah the priest the son of Maaseiah, saying, ²“Please inquire of the LORD for us, because Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon is making war against us. Perhaps the LORD will deal [favorably] with us according to all His wonderful works and force him to withdraw from us.”

³Then Jeremiah said to them, “Say this to Zedekiah:

⁴“Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, “Behold, I will turn back and dull the edge of the weapons of war that are in your hands, [those] with which you fight against the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans who are besieging you outside the walls; and I will bring them into the center of this city (Jerusalem).

⁵“I Myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm in anger, in fury, and in great indignation and wrath.

⁶“I will also strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast; they will die of a great virulent disease.

⁷“Then afterward,” says the LORD, “I will hand over Zedekiah king of Judah and his servants and the people in this city who survive the virulent disease, the sword, and the famine, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemy, into the hand of those who seek their lives. And he will strike them with the edge of the sword; he will not spare them nor have mercy and compassion on them.” ’

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, You set before me the way of life and the way of death. Help me to always choose the way of life.

• adapted from Jeremiah 21:8

8“And to this people you (Jeremiah) shall also say, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death.

9“He who remains in this city [of Jerusalem] will die by the sword and by famine and by virulent disease. But he who goes outside and surrenders to the Chaldeans who are besieging you will live, and his life will be like a prize of war to him.

10“For I have set My face against this city to do harm and not good,” says the LORD. “It shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon and he will burn it with fire.” ’

11“And concerning the royal house of the king of Judah [you shall say], ‘Hear the word of the LORD,

12O house of David, thus says the LORD:

“Administer justice in the morning,
And rescue the one who has been robbed from the hand of his oppressor,
That My wrath will not roar up like fire
And burn so [hotly] that none can extinguish it,
Because of the evil of their deeds.

13“Understand this, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, O rock of the plain,” says the LORD—

“You who say, ‘Who will come down against us?
Or who will enter into our dwelling places?’

14“But I will punish you in accordance with the [appropriate] consequences of your decisions and your actions,” says the LORD.

“I will kindle a fire in your forest,
And it will devour all that is around you.””

22 THUS SAYS the LORD, “Go down to the house of the king of Judah and speak this word there: ²‘Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, you who sit on the throne of David—you and your servants and your people who enter by these gates.

³‘Thus says the LORD, “Execute justice and righteousness, and rescue the one who has been robbed from the hand of his oppressor. And do no wrong; do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, or the widow, nor shed innocent blood in this place.

⁴“For if you will indeed obey this word, then kings will enter through the gates of this palace, sitting in David’s place on his throne, riding in chariots and on horses, even the king himself and his servants and his people.

⁵“But if you will not hear and obey these words, I swear [an oath] by Myself,” says the LORD, “that this house will become a desolation.””

⁶For thus says the LORD in regard to the house of the king of Judah:

“You are [as valuable] to Me as [the green pastures of] Gilead [east of the Jordan]

Or as the [plentiful] summit of Lebanon [west of the Jordan], Yet most certainly [if you will not listen to Me] I will make you a wilderness,
And uninhabited cities.

⁷“For I will prepare and appoint destroyers [to execute My judgments] against you,
Each with his weapons;
And they will cut down your [palaces built of] choicest cedars
And throw them in the fire.

⁸“Many nations will pass by this city; and each man will say to another, ‘Why has the LORD done this to this great city?’

⁹“Then they will answer, ‘Because the people ignored and abandoned the [solemn] covenant with the LORD their God and worshiped other gods and served them.’”

¹⁰Do not weep for the dead or mourn for him;
But weep bitterly for the one who goes away [into exile],
For he will never return
And see his native country [again].

¹¹For thus says the LORD in regard to Shallum (Jehoahaz) the [third] son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father and who went from this place, “Shallum will not return here anymore; ¹²he will die in the place where they led him captive and not see this land again.

13“Woe (judgment is coming) to him who builds his house by [acts of] unrighteousness

And his upper chambers by injustice,
Who uses his neighbor’s service without pay
And does not give him wages [for his work],

14Who says, ‘I will build myself a spacious house
With large upper rooms,
And cut out its [wide] windows,
And panel it with cedar and paint it vermilion.’”

15“Do you think that you become a king because you have much more cedar [in your palace than Solomon]?
Did not your father [Josiah], as he ate and drank,
Do just and righteous acts [being upright and in right standing with God]?
Then all was well with him.

16“He defended the cause of the afflicted and needy;
Then all was well.
Is that not what it means to know Me?”
Says the LORD.

17“But your eyes and your heart
Are only intent on your own dishonest gain,
On shedding innocent blood,
On oppression and extortion and violence.”

18Therefore thus says the LORD in regard to Jehoiakim the [second] son of Josiah, king of Judah,

“The relatives will not lament (mourn over with expressions of grief) for him:

‘Alas, my brother!’ or, ‘Alas, sister,’ [how great our loss]!
The subjects will not lament for him:

‘Alas, master!’ or ‘Alas, majesty [how great was his glory]!’

19“He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey—

Dragged off and thrown out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

20“Go up [north] to Lebanon and cry out,

And raise your voice in [the hills of] Bashan [across the Jordan];

Cry out also from Abarim,

For all your lovers (allies) have been destroyed. [Jer 27:6, 7]

21“I spoke to you in your [times of] prosperity,

But you said, ‘I will not listen!’

This has been your attitude and practice from your youth;

You have not obeyed My voice.

22“‘The wind [of adversity] will carry away all your shepherds (rulers, statesmen),

And your lovers (allies) will go into exile.

Surely then you will be ashamed and humiliated and disgraced

Because of all your wickedness.

23“O inhabitant of [Jerusalem, whose palaces are made from the cedars of] Lebanon,

You who nest in the cedars,

How you will groan and how miserable you will be when pains come on you,

Pain like a woman in childbirth! [1 Kin 7:2]

24“‘As I live,” says the LORD, “though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet [ring] on My right hand, yet would I pull you (Coniah) off.

25“And I will place you in the hand of those who seek your life and in the hand of those whom you fear, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26“I will hurl you and the mother who gave you birth into another country where you were not born, and there you will die.

27“But as for the land to which they long to return, they will not return to it.

28“Is this man [King] Coniah a despised, broken jar?

Is he a vessel in which no one takes pleasure?

Why are he and his [royal] descendants hurled out

And cast into a land which they do not know or understand?

29“O land, land, land,

Hear the word of the LORD!

30“Thus says the LORD,

‘Write this man [Coniah] down as childless,

A man who will not prosper (succeed) in his lifetime;

For not one of his descendants will succeed

In sitting on the throne of David

Or ruling again in Judah.’”

23 “WOE TO the shepherds (civil leaders, rulers) who are destroying and scattering the sheep of My pasture!” says the

LORD.

²Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, in regard to the shepherds who care for and feed My people: “You have scattered My flock and driven them away, and have not attended to them; hear this, I am about to visit and attend to you for the evil of your deeds,” says the LORD.

³“Then I will gather the remnant of My flock out of all the countries to which I have driven them and bring them back to their folds and pastures; and they will be fruitful and multiply.

⁴“I will set up shepherds over them who will feed them. And they will not be afraid any longer, nor be terrified, nor will any be missing,” says the LORD.

⁵“Behold (listen closely), the days are coming,” says the LORD,

“When I will raise up for David a righteous Branch;
And He will reign as King and act wisely

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, God, that You are the Lord my Righteousness.

And will do [those things that accomplish] justice and righteousness in the land.

⁶“In His days Judah will be saved,
And Israel will dwell safely;
Now this is His name by which He will be called;
‘The LORD Our Righteousness.’ [Matt 1:21–23; Rom 3:22]

⁷“Therefore behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD,
“when they will no longer say, ‘As the LORD lives, who brought up the children of Israel from the land of Egypt,’ ⁸but [they will say], ‘As the LORD lives, who brought up and led back the descendants of the house of Israel from the north country and from all the countries to which I had driven them.’ Then they will live in their own land.” [Jer 16:14, 15]

⁹Concerning the prophets:

My heart [says Jeremiah] is broken within me,
All my bones shake;
I have become like a drunken man,
A man whom wine has overcome,
Because of the LORD
And because of His holy words [declared against unfaithful leaders].

¹⁰For the land is full of adulterers (unfaithful to God);
The land mourns because of the curse [of God upon it].
The pastures of the wilderness have dried up.
The course of action [of the false prophets] is evil and they rush into wickedness;

And their power is not right.

¹¹“For both [false] prophet and priest are ungodly (profane, polluted);
Even in My house I have found their wickedness,” says the LORD.

¹²“Therefore their way will be to them like slippery paths
In the dark; they will be pushed and fall into them;
For I will bring disaster on them,
In the year of their punishment,” says the LORD.

¹³“And I have seen a foolish and an offensive thing in the prophets of Samaria:

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Say the Right Thing Consistently

God is faithful. We can always expect Him to do what He says He will do. He doesn't do it part of the time, but all the time and every time. There is never a moment when God doesn't keep His promises.

We should also be faithful all the time to do what we know to do. God says that those who have His word should speak His word faithfully (see Jer. 23:28), which means speaking it at all times, not merely part of the time. Don't speak positively when you are with your friends from church but at home revert to words of fear, worry, and doubt. It's important to get rid of a mixture of words—positive and negative, faith and fear—and to be committed to speaking the right thing all the time. Saying the right thing occasionally does not lead to victory. But when you are relentless and speak God's Word faithfully, you will be in agreement with Him and see amazing results in due time.

They prophesied by Baal and caused My people Israel to go astray.

¹⁴“Also I have seen a horrible thing in the prophets of Jerusalem:

They commit adultery and walk in lies;

They encourage and strengthen the hands of evildoers,

So that no one has turned back from his wickedness.
All of them have become like Sodom to Me,
And her inhabitants like Gomorrah.

15“Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts in regard to the prophets, ‘Behold, I am going to feed them [the bitterness of] wormwood

And make them drink the poisonous water [of gall],
For from the [counterfeit] prophets of Jerusalem Profaneness and ungodliness have spread into all the land.’”

16Thus says the LORD of hosts,

“Do not listen to the words of the [false] prophets who prophecy to you.
They are teaching you worthless things and are leading you into futility;
They speak a vision of their own mind and imagination
And not [truth] from the mouth of the LORD.

17“They are continually saying to those who despise Me [and My word],

‘The Lord has said, “You will have peace” ’;
And they say to everyone who walks after the stubbornness of his own heart,
‘No evil will come on you.’

18“But who [among them] has stood in the council of the
LORD,

That he would perceive and hear His word?

Who has marked His word [noticing and observing and paying attention to it] and has [actually] heard it?

19“Behold, the tempest of the LORD has gone forth in wrath,
A whirling tempest;
It will whirl and burst on the heads of the wicked.

20“The anger of the LORD will not turn back Until He has set in motion and accomplished the thoughts and intentions of His heart;
In the last days you will clearly understand it.

21“I did not send [these counterfeit] prophets,
Yet they ran;
I did not speak to them,
Yet they prophesied.

22“But if they had stood in My council,
Then they would have caused My people to hear My
words,
Then they would have turned My people from their evil way
And from the evil of their decisions and deeds.

23“Am I a God who is at hand,” says the LORD,
“And not a God far away?”

24“Can anyone hide himself in secret places
So that I cannot see him?” says the LORD.
“Do I not fill heaven and earth?” says the LORD.

25“I have heard what the prophets have said who prophesy lies in My Name, saying, ‘I have dreamed, I have dreamed [visions when on my bed at night].’

26“How long [shall this state of affairs continue]? Is there anything in the hearts of the prophets who prophesy falsehood, even these prophets of the deception of their own heart,²⁷ who think that they can make My people forget My Name by their [contrived] dreams which each one tells another, just as their fathers forgot My Name because of Baal?

²⁸“The prophet who has a dream may tell his dream; but he who has My word, let him speak My word faithfully. What has straw in common with wheat [for nourishment]?” says the LORD.

²⁹“Is not My word like fire [that consumes all that cannot endure the test]?” says the LORD, “and like a hammer that breaks the [most stubborn] rock [in pieces]?”

³⁰“Therefore behold (hear this), I am against the [counterfeit] prophets,” says the LORD, “[I am descending on them with punishment, these prophets] who steal My words from one another [imitating the words of the true prophets].

³¹“Hear this, I am against the prophets,” says the LORD, “who use their [own deceitful] tongues and say, ‘Thus says the Lord.’

³²“Hear this, I am against those who have prophesied false and made-up dreams,” says the LORD, “and have told them and have made My people err and go astray by their lies and by their reckless boasting; yet I did not send them or command them nor do they benefit and enhance [the life of] these people in the slightest way,” says the LORD.

³³“Now when this people or a prophet or a priest asks you [in jest], ‘What is the oracle of the LORD [the burden to be lifted up and carried]?’ Then you shall say to them, ‘What oracle [besides the one that declares you people to be the burden]!’

The LORD says, ‘I will unburden Myself and I will abandon you.’

³⁴“And as for the prophet, the priest, or [any of] the people, whoever says, ‘The oracle of the LORD,’ [as if he knows God’s will], I will punish that man and his household.

³⁵“[For the future, in speaking of the words of the LORD] thus each of you shall say to his neighbor and to his brother, ‘What has the LORD answered?’ or, ‘What has the LORD spoken?’

³⁶“For you will no longer remember the oracle of the LORD, because every man’s own word will become the oracle, [for as they mockingly call all prophecies oracles, whether good or bad, so will it prove to be to them; God will take them at their own word]; and you have perverted the words [not of a lifeless idol, but] of the living God, the LORD of hosts, our God.

³⁷“Thus you will [reverently] say to the prophet, ‘What has the LORD answered you?’ and, ‘What has the LORD spoken?’

³⁸“For if you say, ‘The oracle of the LORD!’ surely thus says the LORD, ‘Because you said this word, “The oracle of the LORD!” when I have also sent to you, saying, “You shall not say, ‘The oracle of the LORD!’” ’

³⁹“Therefore behold, I, even I, will assuredly forget you and send you away from My presence, you and the city (Jerusalem) which I gave to you and to your fathers.

⁴⁰“And I will bring an everlasting disgrace on you and a perpetual humiliation (shame) which will not be forgotten.”

24 AFTER NEBUCHADNEZZAR king of Babylon had taken Jeconiah [who was also called Coniah and Jehoiachin] the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes of Judah [along] with the craftsmen and smiths into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, the LORD showed me [in a vision] two baskets of figs set before the temple of the LORD.

²One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are the first to ripen; but the other basket had very bad figs, so rotten that they could not be eaten.

³Then the LORD said to me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?” And I said, “Figs, the good figs, very good; and the bad figs, very bad, so rotten that they cannot be eaten.”

⁴Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

⁵“Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Like these good figs, so I will regard as good the captives of Judah, whom I have sent from this place into the land of the Chaldeans.

⁶‘For I will set My eyes on them for good, and I will bring them again to this land; and I will build them up and not overwhelm them, and I will plant them and not uproot them.

⁷‘I will give them a heart to know Me, [understanding fully] that I am the LORD; and they will be My people, and I will be their God, for they will return to Me with their whole heart.

⁸‘And as for the bad figs, which are so rotten that they cannot be eaten,’ surely thus says the LORD, ‘so I will abandon Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes, and the remnant of Jerusalem who remain in this land and those who live in the land of Egypt.

⁹‘I will make them a focus of ridicule and disappointment

[tossed back and forth] among all the kingdoms of the earth, a [notorious] disgrace, a byword, a taunt and a curse in all places where I will scatter them.

¹⁰“I will send the sword, famine and virulent disease among them until they are consumed from the land which I gave to them and to their fathers.”

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, I pray that You would give me a heart to know You and the ability to understand fully that I am one of Your people and You are my God.

• adapted from Jeremiah 24:7

25 THE WORD that came to Jeremiah in regard to all the people of Judah in the fourth year of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (that was the first year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), ²which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

³“For these twenty-three years—from the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day—the word of the LORD has come to me and I have spoken to you over and over again, but you have not listened.

⁴“Although the LORD has persistently sent to you all His servants the prophets, you have not listened nor [even] inclined your ear to hear [His message], ⁵saying, ‘Turn now everyone from his evil way and the evil of your actions [that you may not forfeit the right to] live in the land that the LORD has given to you and your forefathers forever and ever; ⁶and do not go after other gods to serve them and to worship them, and do not provoke Me to anger with the work of your hands, and I will do you no harm.’

⁷“Yet you have not listened to Me,” says the LORD, “so that you have provoked Me to anger with the work (idols) of your hands to your own harm.

⁸“Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘Because you have not obeyed My words, ⁹behold (hear this), I will send for all the families of the north,’ says the LORD, ‘and I will send for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, My servant [to enact My plan], and I will bring them against this land and against its inhabitants and against all these surrounding nations; and I will utterly destroy them and make them a horror and a hissing [that is, an object of warning and ridicule] and an everlasting desolation.

¹⁰Moreover, I will take from them the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones [grinding meal] and the light of the lamp [to light the night]. [Jer 7:34]

¹¹‘This whole land will be a waste and a horror, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon seventy years. [2 Chr 36:20–23; Jer 4:27; 12:11, 12; Dan 9:2]

¹²‘Then when seventy years are completed, I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, the land of the Chaldeans (Babylonia),’ says the LORD, ‘for their wickedness, and will make the land [of the Chaldeans] a perpetual waste. [Jer 29:10]

¹³‘I will bring on that land all My words which I have pronounced against it, all that is written in this book which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations.

¹⁴‘(For many nations and great kings will make slaves of them, even the Chaldeans [who enslaved other nations]; and I will repay [all of] them according to their deeds and according to the work of their [own] hands.)’”

¹⁵For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to me, “Take this cup of the wine of wrath from My hand and cause all the nations to whom I send you to drink it.

¹⁶“They will drink and stagger and go mad because of the sword that I will send among them.”

¹⁷Then I (Jeremiah) took the cup from the LORD’s hand and made all the nations to whom the LORD had sent me drink it:

¹⁸Jerusalem and the cities of Judah [being most guilty because their privileges were greatest], its kings and princes, to make them a horror, a ruin, a hissing and a curse, as it is to this day; [1 Pet 4:17]

¹⁹Pharaoh king of Egypt, his servants, his princes, all his people,

²⁰and all the foreign (mixed) population, all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines (and [their cities of] Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod); ²¹Edom, Moab, and the children of Ammon;

²²all the kings of Tyre, all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the islands and the coastlands across the [Mediterranean] Sea;

²³Dedan, Tema, Buz [the neighboring tribes north of Arabia], and all who clip off the side-growth of their hair; [Lev 19:27; Jer 9:26]

²⁴all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the foreign population who live in the desert;

²⁵all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam (Persia), and all the kings of Media;

²⁶all the kings of the north, far and near, one after another—and all the kingdoms of the world which are on the face of the earth. And the king of Sheshach (Babylon) shall drink after them.

²⁷“Then you shall say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “Drink, be drunk, vomit, and fall to rise no more because of the sword which I will send among you.” ’

²⁸“And if they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, then you will say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, “You shall surely drink!

²⁹“For behold, I am beginning to work disaster in the city which is called by My Name, and shall you go unpunished? You will not be exempt from punishment, for I am calling for a sword against all the inhabitants of the earth,” says the LORD of hosts.’ [Jer 7:10]

³⁰“Therefore prophesy all these words against them and say to them:

‘The LORD will roar from on high
And utter His voice from His holy dwelling;
He will roar mightily against His fold and pasture.
He will jubilantly shout like those who tread the grapes [in the wine press],
Against all the inhabitants of the earth.

³¹‘A noise has come to the end of the earth,
For the LORD has a controversy with and an indictment against the nations.
He is entering into judgment with all mankind;
As for the wicked, He has given them to the sword,’ says
the LORD.”

³²Thus says the LORD of hosts,
“Behold, evil is going forth
From nation to nation,
And a great whirling tempest is rising
From the remotest part of the earth.

³³“And those slain by the LORD on that day will be from one end of the earth to the other end of the earth. They will not be lamented (mourned over with expressions of grief) or gathered or buried; they will be like dung on the ground. [Jer
8:2; 16:4]

³⁴“Wail, you shepherds, and cry;
And roll in ashes, you masters of the flock.
For the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions have come in full,

And you will fall and be broken into pieces like a choice vessel.

35“‘The shepherds will have no way to flee,
Nor the masters of the flock any [way of] escape.

36“‘A voice! The cry of the shepherds
And the wailing of the masters of the flock!
For the LORD is destroying their pasture,

37“‘And the peaceful folds are devastated and made silent
Because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

38“‘He has left His lair like the lion;
For their land has become a horror
Because of the fierceness of the oppressor
And because of the LORD’s fierce anger.”

26 IN THE beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from the LORD, saying,

2“‘Thus says the LORD, ‘Stand in the court of the LORD’s house [Jeremiah], and speak to all [the people of] the cities of Judah who have come to worship in the LORD’s house all the words that I have commanded you to speak to them. Do not omit a word!

3“‘It may be that they will listen and everyone will turn from his wickedness, so that I may relent and reverse [My decision concerning] the disaster which I am planning to do to them because of their malevolent deeds.’

4“‘And you will say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD, “If you will not listen to Me and obey My law which I have set before you,

⁵and listen and follow [carefully] the words of My servants the prophets, whom I have been sending to you repeatedly—though you have not listened—

⁶then I will make this house [the temple] like Shiloh, and I will make this city [subject to] the curse of all nations of the earth [because it will be so vile in their sight].”” [1 Sam 4; Jer 7:12]

⁷The priests and the [false] prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

⁸Now when Jeremiah finished proclaiming everything that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, the priests and the [false] prophets and all the people seized him, saying, “You must die!

⁹“Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD saying, ‘This house will be like Shiloh [after the ark of the LORD had been taken by our enemies] and this city [Jerusalem] will be desolate, without inhabitant’?” And all the people were gathered around Jeremiah in the [outer area of the] house of the LORD.

¹⁰When the princes (court officials) of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king’s house to the house of the LORD and sat in the entrance of the New Gate of the house of the LORD.

¹¹Then the priests and the [false] prophets said to the princes and to all the people, “This man is deserving of death, for he has prophesied against this city as you have heard with your own ears.”

¹²Then Jeremiah spoke to all the princes and to all the people, saying, “The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard.

¹³“Therefore, now change your ways and your deeds and obey the voice of the LORD your God; then the LORD will relent and reverse His decision concerning the misfortune which He has pronounced against you.

¹⁴“As for me, behold, I am in your hands; do with me as seems good and suitable to you.

¹⁵“But know for certain that if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves and on this city and on its inhabitants, for in truth the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your hearing.”

¹⁶Then the princes and all the people said to the priests and to the [false] prophets, “This man is not deserving of death, for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.”

¹⁷Then some of the elders of the land stood up and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying,

¹⁸“Micah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, “Zion will be plowed like a field, And Jerusalem will become [heaps of] ruins,

And the mountain of the house [of the LORD—Mount Moriah, on which stands the temple, shall become covered not with buildings, but] like a densely wooded height.” ’ [Mic 3:12]

¹⁹“Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put Micah to death? Did he not [reverently] fear the LORD and entreat the favor of the LORD? And did not the LORD relent and reverse His decision concerning the misfortune which He had pronounced against them? But [here] we are [thinking of] committing a great evil against ourselves.”

²⁰And there was also a man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Uriah the son of Shemaiah of Kiriath-jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land in words similar to all those of Jeremiah.

²¹And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put Uriah to death; but when Uriah heard of it, he was afraid and fled and escaped to Egypt.

²²Then Jehoiakim the king sent men to Egypt: Elnathan the son of Achbor and certain [other] men with him [went] to Egypt.

²³And they brought Uriah [God’s spokesman] from Egypt and led him to King Jehoiakim, who executed him with a sword and threw his dead body among the graves of the common people.

²⁴But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so that he was not given into the hands of the people to put him to death.

27 IN THE beginning of the reign of Zedekiah the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²Thus says the LORD to me, “Make for yourself bonds and yokes and put them on your neck, ³and send word to the king of Edom, to the king of Moab, to the king of the sons of Ammon, to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon by the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah.

⁴“Command them to go to their masters, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, you shall say this to your masters: ⁵“I have made the earth, the men and the animals that are on the face of the earth by My great power and by My outstretched arm, and I will give it to whomever pleases Me.

⁶“Now I have given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, My servant and instrument, and I have also given the wild animals of the field to serve him.

⁸“But any nation or kingdom that will not serve this same Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation I will punish,” says the LORD, “with the sword, with famine and with pestilence (virulent disease), until I have destroyed it by Nebuchadnezzar’s hand.

⁹“And as for you, do not listen to your [counterfeit] prophets, your diviners, your dreams and dreamers, your soothsayers or your sorcerers, who say to you, ‘You will not serve the king of Babylon.’

¹⁰“For they prophesy a lie to you which will cause you to be removed far from your land; and I will drive you out and you will perish.

¹¹“But the nation which will bow its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, that nation I will let remain on its own land,” says the LORD, “to cultivate it and live in it.””

¹²I spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah in the same way, saying, “Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him and his people, and live!

¹³“Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by famine and by virulent disease, as the LORD has spoken to any nation which will not serve the king of Babylon?

¹⁴“Do not listen to and believe the words of the [false] prophets who are saying to you, ‘You will not serve the king of Babylon,’ for they prophesy a lie to you; ¹⁵for I have not sent them,” says the LORD, “but they are prophesying falsely in My Name, in order that I may drive you out and that you may perish, you [together] with the [false] prophets who prophesy to you.”

¹⁶Then I said to the priests and to all these people, saying, “Thus says the LORD: Do not listen to the words of your [false] prophets who are prophesying to you, saying, ‘Behold, the articles of the LORD’s house will now shortly be brought back from Babylon’; for they are prophesying a lie to you.

¹⁷“Do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon, and live! Why should this city become a ruin?

¹⁸“But if they are [true] prophets, and if the word of the LORD is [really spoken] by them, let them now entreat the LORD of hosts that the articles which are [still] left in the house of the LORD, in the house of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem may not go to Babylon.

¹⁹“For thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the [bronze] pillars, the [bronze] Sea, the [bronze] bases [of the ten basins in Solomon’s temple used for washing sacrificial animals], and the rest of the articles that are left in this city (Jerusalem), [1 Kin 7:23–37; 2 Chr 4:6; Jer 52:17]

²⁰which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he carried Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem.

²¹“Yes, thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the articles which remain in the house of the LORD, in the house of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem, ²²‘They will be carried to Babylon and they will be there until the day that I visit them [with My favor],’ says the LORD. ‘Then I will bring them back and restore them to this place.’”

28 IN THE same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year and the fifth month, the [false] prophet Hananiah the son of Azzur, who was from Gibeon [one of the priests’ cities], spoke [without godly authority] to me in the house of the LORD in the presence of the priests and all the people, saying: ²“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ‘I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

³‘Within two years I am going to bring back to this place all the articles of the LORD’s house, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place and carried to Babylon.

⁴‘And I will also bring back to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, along with all the exiles from Judah who went to Babylon,' says the LORD, 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'" [Jer 22:10, 24–27; 52:34]

⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who stood in the house of the LORD, ⁶and the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May the LORD do so; may the LORD confirm and fulfill your words which you have prophesied to bring back the articles of the LORD's house and all the captives, from Babylon to this place.

⁷"Nevertheless, listen now to this word which I am about to speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people!

⁸"The prophets who were before me and before you from ancient times prophesied against many lands and against great kingdoms, of war and of disaster and of virulent disease.

⁹"But as for the prophet who [on the contrary] prophesies of peace, when that prophet's word comes to pass, [only] then will it be known that the LORD has truly sent him."

¹⁰Then Hananiah the [false] prophet took the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah and smashed it.

¹¹Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "Thus says the LORD, 'Even so within two full years I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all the nations.'" Then the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

¹²The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah [some time] after Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, ¹³"Go and tell Hananiah, 'The LORD says this, "You have broken yokes of wood, but you have made in their place bars of iron.”

¹⁴“For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “I have put the iron yoke [of servitude] on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they will serve him. And I have even given him the beasts of the field.”” [Jer 27:6, 7]

¹⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, “Listen now, Hananiah, the LORD has not sent you, and you have made this people trust in a lie.

¹⁶“Therefore thus says the LORD, ‘Behold, I am about to send you away from the face of the earth. This year you will die, because you have spoken and counseled rebellion against the LORD.”

¹⁷So Hananiah the [false] prophet died [two months later], the same year, in the seventh month.

29 NOW THESE are the words of the letter which Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the rest of the elders in exile and to the priests, the prophets and all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

²(This was after King Jeconiah and the queen mother, the eunuchs, the princes (court officials) of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen and the smiths had departed from Jerusalem.)

³*The letter was hand-carried by Elasah the son of Shaphan and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, saying,* ⁴“So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the captives whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon,

⁵‘Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat their fruit.

⁶‘Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there and do not decrease [in number].

⁷‘Seek peace and well-being for the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the LORD on its behalf; for in its peace (well-being) you will have peace.’

⁸“For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ‘Do not let your [false] prophets who are among you and your diviners deceive you; pay no attention and attach no significance to the dreams which they dream or to yours, ⁹for they prophesy falsely to you in My Name. I have not sent them,’ says the LORD.

¹⁰“For thus says the LORD, ‘When seventy years [of exile] have been completed for Babylon, I will visit (inspect) you and keep My good promise to you, to bring you back to this place.

Speak God's Word

God has plans and thoughts for me, plans for peace and well-being and not for disaster, to give me a future and a hope.

| adapted from JEREMIAH 29:11 |

¹¹‘For I know the plans and thoughts that I have for you,’ says the LORD, ‘plans for peace and well-being and not for disaster to give you a future and a hope.

¹²‘Then you will call on Me and you will come and pray to Me, and I will hear [your voice] and I will listen to you.

¹³‘Then [with a deep longing] you will seek Me and require Me [as a vital necessity] and [you will] find Me when you search for Me with all your heart. [Deut 4:29, 30]

¹⁴‘I will be found by you,’ says the LORD, ‘and I will restore your fortunes and I will [free you and] gather you from all the nations and from all the places where I have driven you,’ says the LORD, ‘and I will bring you back to the place from where I sent you into exile.’

¹⁵‘Because you [who have remained in Jerusalem] have said, ‘The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon,’

¹⁶thus says the LORD concerning the king who sits on the throne of David, and concerning all the people who live in this city, your brothers (fellow people of Judah) who did not go with you into captivity—

POWERPOINT

We need God, and we are no good without Him. In Jeremiah 29:13, He promises that we will find Him if we seek Him. He is waiting for us to call on Him and talk to Him about every aspect of our lives. He wants to hear us say that we need Him and love Him, and that He is a vital necessity in our lives.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Who Do You Agree With?

In Jeremiah 29:11, God says, “For I know the plans and thoughts that I have for you.” God has thoughts specifically for you. They are “plans for peace and well-being and not for disaster to give you a future and a hope.”

Do you ever think about you and your life the way God is thinking about you? Whose thoughts are you thinking? If you’re thinking the way God is thinking, you will end up with God’s plan for you, and you will have what God wants you to have. The Bible says in Proverbs 23:7, “For as he thinks in his heart, so is he.” You can hinder God’s plan by thinking your own fleshly thoughts, or agreeing with others’ or the devil’s thoughts. Or you can think God’s thoughts and believe and receive the good plan He has for your life. Who are you in agreement with? God says He has a good life planned for you. Do you believe and speak the same thing God does?

¹⁷thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘Behold (listen very carefully), I am sending the sword, famine, and virulent disease (pestilence) on them, and I will make them like rotten figs that are so bad they cannot be eaten.

¹⁸‘I will pursue them with the sword, with famine and with virulent disease; and I will make them a terror (warning) to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, a horror, a hissing, and a disgrace among all the nations to which I have driven them, ¹⁹because they have not listened to and honored My words,’ says the LORD, ‘which I sent to them again and again by My servants the prophets. Moreover, you [exiles] did not listen [either],’ says the LORD. [Ezek 2:5, 7]

²⁰“Hear, therefore, the word of the LORD, all you exiles whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon.

²¹“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying lies to you in My Name, ‘Behold, I will hand them over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will slaughter them before your eyes [yes, all the false prophets in Babylon whom you follow shall die]!’ [Jer 29:15]

²²“Because of them, this curse shall be taken up and used by all the exiles from Judah who are in Babylon, saying, “May the LORD make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire,²³ because they have acted foolishly in Israel and have committed adultery with their neighbors’ wives and in My Name have spoken false and concocted words, which I did not command them. I am He who knows and I am a witness,’ says the LORD.”

²⁴Also you shall speak to Shemaiah of Nehelam [among the exiles in Babylon], saying,

²⁵“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ‘Because you have sent letters in your own name to all the people who are in Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, and to all the priests, saying,²⁶“The LORD has made you [Zephaniah] priest instead of Jehoiada the [deputy] priest, to be the overseer in the house of the LORD over every madman who prophesies, to put him in the stocks and in the iron collar,²⁷ now therefore [continued the letter from Shemaiah in Babylon to Zephaniah in Jerusalem], why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who prophesies to you?

²⁸“For he has sent word to us in Babylon, saying, ‘This captivity [of yours] will be long; build houses and live in them and plant gardens and eat their fruit.’””

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Have a Positive Vision for Your Life

God called the children of Israel out of bondage in Egypt to the land He had promised to give them as a perpetual inheritance, a land of prosperity in every realm of their existence. The Lord said to them, “For I know the plans and thoughts that I have for you... plans for peace and well-being and not for disaster to give you a future and a hope” (Jer. 29:11).

But the Israelites had no positive vision for their lives—no dreams. They wandered around in the wilderness for forty years on their way to the Promised Land, a journey that actually should have taken only eleven days. They knew where they came from, but they did not know what life in the Promised Land would be like. Everything was based on what they had seen in the past or what they could see in the present.

Unfortunately, many of us follow their example and keep dealing with the same problems over and over again. It often takes us years to experience victory over something that could have been dealt with quickly.

I came from a background of abuse. My childhood was filled with shame, fear, and torment. I built up walls of protection to keep people from hurting me, not realizing that I was also locking myself away from those who might truly love me. I believed that the only way I could face life was to be in control so no one could hurt me.

As a young adult trying to live for Christ, I knew where I had come from, but I did not know where I was going. I felt that my past had permanently marred my future. But God had a different plan. He came to open the prison doors and set the captives—including me—free (see Luke 4:18). However, I first had to believe that neither my past nor my present could determine my future. Only then could I receive the freedom Jesus offered me—freedom from the bondage of my past.

You may be facing situations so bad that it seems you have no real reason to hope. But I say to you boldly: Your future is not determined by your past or by your present!

Mark 9:23 assures you that with God all things are possible. All you need is to have faith in Him, believe His Word, and follow His instructions—He will do the rest!

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Dear Father, I thank You for loving me and having a vision—a good plan—for my life. I pray that You will help me to overcome any negative thoughts regarding my future. Help me to come into agreement with You so I can experience all the good things You have planned for me. Amen.

²⁹Zephaniah the priest read this letter to Jeremiah the prophet.

³⁰Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying,

³¹“Send [this message] to all the exiles, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD concerning Shemaiah of Nehelam, “Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, although I did not send him, and he has made you trust in a lie,” ³²therefore thus says the LORD, “Behold, I am about to punish Shemaiah of Nehelam and his descendants. He will not have anyone [born] to live among this people, nor will he see the good that I am about to do to My people,” says the LORD, “because he has spoken and preached rebellion against the LORD.””

30 THE WORD which came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

²“Thus says the LORD God of Israel, ‘Write in a book all the words which I have spoken to you.

³‘For behold (hear this), the days are coming,’ says the LORD, ‘when I will restore the fortunes of My people Israel and Judah,’ says the LORD, ‘and I will return them to the land that I gave to their forefathers and they will take possession of it.’”

⁴Now these are the words the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah:

⁵“Thus says the LORD,

‘We have heard a terrified voice

Of panic and dread, and there is no peace.

6‘Ask now, and see

Whether a man can give birth [to a child].

Why then do I see every man

With his hands on his loins, as a woman in labor?

Why have all faces turned pale?

7‘Alas! for that day is great,

There is none like it;

It is the time of Jacob’s [unequaled] trouble,

But he will be saved from it. [Matt 24:29, 30; Rev 7:14]

8‘It shall come about on that day,’ says the LORD of hosts, ‘that I will break the yoke off your neck and I will tear off your bonds and force apart your shackles; and strangers will no longer make slaves of the people [of Israel].

9‘But they shall serve the LORD their God and [the descendant of] David their King, whom I will raise up for them.
[Jer 23:5]

10‘Fear not, O Jacob My servant,’ says the LORD,

‘Nor be dismayed or downcast, O Israel;

For behold, I will save you from a distant land [of exile]

And your descendants from the land of their captivity.

Jacob will return and will be quiet and at ease,

And no one will make him afraid.

11‘For I am with you,’ says the LORD, ‘to save you;

For I will destroy completely all the nations where I have scattered you,

But I will not destroy you completely.

But I will judge and discipline you fairly
And will by no means regard you as guiltless and leave you unpunished.'

12'For thus says the LORD,

'Your wound is incurable
And your injury is beyond healing.

13'There is no one to plead your cause;
No [device to close and allow the] healing of your wound,
No recovery for you.

14'All your lovers (allies) have forgotten you;
They do not seek and long for you.
For I have injured you with the wound of an enemy,
With the punishment of a cruel and merciless foe,
Because your guilt is great
And your sins are glaring and innumerable.

15'Why do you cry out over your injury [since it is the natural result of your sin]?
Your pain is incurable (deadly).
Because your guilt is great
And your sins are glaring and innumerable,
I have done these things to you.

16'Therefore all who devour you will be devoured;
And all your adversaries, every one of them, will go into captivity.
And they who plunder you will become plunder,
And all who prey upon you I will give for prey.

17'For I will restore health to you

And I will heal your wounds,’ says the LORD,
‘Because they have called you an outcast, saying:
“This is Zion; no one seeks her and no one cares for her.” ’

18‘Thus says the LORD,
‘Behold (hear this), I will restore the fortunes of the tents of Jacob

And have mercy on his dwelling places;
The city will be rebuilt on its [old, mound-like] ruin,
And the palace will stand on its rightful place.

19‘From them (city, palace) will come [songs of] thanksgiving
And the voices of those who dance and celebrate.
And I will multiply them and they will not be diminished [in number];

I will also honor them and they will not be insignificant.

20‘Their children too will be as in former times,
And their congregation will be established before Me;
And I will punish all their oppressors.

21‘Their prince will be one of them,
And their ruler will come forward from among them.
I will bring him near and he shall approach Me,
For who is he who would have the boldness and would dare [on his own initiative] to risk his life to approach
Me?’ says the LORD.

22‘Then you shall be My people,
And I will be your God.’” [Jer 7:23]

23Behold, the tempest of the LORD!
Wrath has gone forth,

A sweeping and gathering tempest;
It will burst on the head of the wicked.

²⁴The fierce (righteous) anger of the LORD will not turn back
Until He has fulfilled and until He has accomplished
The intent of His heart (mind);
In the latter days you will understand this.

31 “AT THAT time,” says the LORD, “I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be My people.”

²Thus says the LORD,
“The people who survived the sword
Found grace in the wilderness [of exile]—
Israel (the Northern Kingdom), when it went to find its rest.”

³The LORD appeared to me (Israel) from ages past, saying,
“I have loved you with an everlasting love;
Therefore with lovingkindness I have drawn you and continued My faithfulness to you. [Deut 7:8]

⁴“Again I will build you and you will be rebuilt,
O Virgin Israel!
You will again be adorned with your tambourines and timbrels
And go out to the dances of those who celebrate. [Is 37:22;
Jer 18:13]

⁵“Again you will plant vineyards
On the mountains of Samaria;
The planters will plant
And enjoy the [abundant] fruit [in peace].

⁶“For there will be a day when the watchmen
On the hills of Ephraim cry out,
‘Arise, and let us go up to Zion,
To the LORD our God.’”

⁷For thus says the LORD,
“Sing aloud with gladness for Jacob,
And shout for the first and foremost of the nations [the chosen people, Israel];
Proclaim, give praise and say,
‘O LORD save Your people,
The remnant of Israel!’

⁸“Behold, I am bringing them from the north country,
And I will gather them from the remote parts of the earth,
Among them [will be] the blind and the lame,
The woman with child and she who labors in childbirth,
together;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Know Who You Are as God's Child

Many people have deep feelings of insecurity about themselves because they can't accept themselves for who they are. If that describes you, are you tired of playing games, wearing masks, trying to be someone other than who you are? Wouldn't you like the freedom just to be accepted as you are, without pressure to be someone you really don't know how to be?

God loves us with an everlasting love and He accepts us unconditionally (see Jer. 31:3). I like to say that "God meets us where we are and helps us get to where we need to be." God will make the changes in our character that need to be made as we study His Word and walk in fellowship with Him, but He totally loves and accepts us every step of our journey with Him.

The enemy's plan is to deceive us into continuing to base our worth on our performance, and then keep us focused on all our faults and shortcomings. Satan wants us to have low opinions of ourselves so that we live ineffectively for God, miserable and unreceptive to His blessings because we don't think we deserve them.

It is so important to have a positive sense of self-esteem, self-value, and self-worth, to be secure in who we are in Christ, and to truly like ourselves. We learn to like ourselves by learning how much God loves us. Once we become rooted and grounded in God's love, we can come to terms of peace with ourselves and stop feeling insecure (see Eph. 3:17–19).

In spite of struggles and imperfections, which everyone has, God loves us with an everlasting love just the way we are.

A great company, they will return here [to Jerusalem].

⁹“They will come with weeping [in repentance and for joy],
And by [their] prayer [for the future] I will lead them;
I will make them walk by streams of waters,
On a straight path in which they will not stumble,
For I am a Father to Israel,
And Ephraim (Israel) is My firstborn.”

¹⁰Hear the word of the LORD, O you nations,
And declare it in the isles and coastlands far away,
And say, “He who scattered Israel will gather him
And will keep him as a shepherd keeps his flock.”

¹¹For the LORD has ransomed Jacob
And has redeemed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he.

¹²“They will come and sing aloud and shout for joy on the height of Zion,
And will be radiant [with joy] over the goodness of the
LORD—

For the grain, for the new wine, for the oil,
And for the young of the flock and the herd.
And their life will be like a watered garden,

And they shall never sorrow or languish again.

13“Then the virgin will rejoice in the dance,
And the young men and old, together,
For I will turn their mourning into joy
And will comfort them and make them rejoice after their sorrow.

14“I will fully satisfy the soul of the priests with abundance,
And My people will be satisfied with My goodness,” says
the LORD.

15Thus says the LORD,
“A voice is heard in Ramah,
Lamentation (songs of mourning) and bitter weeping.
Rachel (Israel) is weeping for her children;
She refuses to be comforted for her children,
Because they are gone.” [Matt 2:18]

16Thus says the LORD,
“Restrain your voice from weeping
And your eyes from tears,
For your work will be rewarded,” says the LORD;
“And your children will return from the enemy’s land.

17“There is [confident] hope for your future,” says the LORD;
“Your children will come back to their own country.

18“I have surely heard Ephraim (Israel) moaning and grieving,
‘You have chastised me, and I was chastised,
Like a bull unaccustomed to the yoke or an untrained calf;

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Comforts Those Who Mourn

The Bible makes many references to those who are mourning. Both Jesus' words in Matthew 5:4 and Jeremiah's words in Jeremiah 31:13 make clear that it is God's will to comfort those who mourn; therefore, we can determine that comfort should come after mourning. If comfort never comes, we are missing something God intends for us to receive.

If you are grieving or struggling right now, God has promised to turn your mourning into joy (see Isa. 61:1–3). God wants complete restoration of your joy. I encourage you to hold on to this promise while you are working through the grieving process of any loss or painful experience you have had. Doing so will give you hope for the future.

No matter what happens on earth, there is always hope in God. As a ship's anchor keeps it from floating away in a storm, hope does the same thing for our souls. Hope is like an anchor securely holding us in place when we are being tossed to and fro, this way and that, by the storms of life (see Heb. 6:17–19).

You may not understand much about what is happening to you when you are hurting and the pain of loss is ripping through your soul, but know and hold on to this one truth: God loves you, and He has a future for you. Hope in Him and trust Him to turn your mourning into joy and to give you beauty for ashes, even as you go through the various stages of grief and recovery.

How To Be Truly Happy

The realization that God wants each of us to be thoroughly happy and to fully enjoy life was life-changing for me. I grew up not enjoying much of anything, but God has given me the opportunity to experience true happiness as an adult. He fulfills His promise: “For I will turn their mourning into joy and will comfort them and make them rejoice after their sorrow” (Jer. 31:13).

This is a process that begins with replacing our old thoughts with God’s thoughts, which are found in His Word. It is a process that goes on throughout our lifetime. Each toxic thought replaced with a healthy one releases more joy into our lives. Here are three key points: 1. Put God first. Jesus came that we might have and enjoy our lives in full measure (John 10:10). Believe that God loves you, He is for you, He is with you, and He delights in helping you. He is interested in everything about you, and He wants to see you enjoying your life.

2. Know who you are. As God’s child, it is important to understand that no matter what you may have done wrong in your past, you are now a new creation in Christ (see 2 Cor. 5:17). Old things have passed away and all things are made new. Jesus took all our sin upon Himself and gave us His righteousness (see 2 Cor. 5:21). Through Him, we are made right with God, approved by and acceptable to Him. We no longer need to feel “wrong” about ourselves.

3. Know the power that is yours as a believer: Feeling incapable, unable, and overwhelmed hinders our happiness, but God has solved that problem for us, and we simply need to believe it and to know the power available to us as believers (see Eph. 1:19). We are strong in Christ, not in ourselves. When you need to do something, don’t look to yourself and ask if you are able—look to Jesus and know that in Him you are able.

Anyone can be happy by believing right and thinking right. Let us make a commitment to think like God thinks so we can be the people He wants us to be and live the joy-filled lives He purchased for us through His Son, Jesus Christ.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Heavenly Father, I believe with all my heart that You love me, You are for me, You are with me, and You actually delight in helping me. I thank You for making me Your child, and I look to You for all that I need. In Jesus’ name. Amen.

Bring me back that I may be restored,
For You are the LORD my God.

¹⁹‘After I turned away [from You], I repented;
After I was instructed, I struck my thigh [in remorse];
I was ashamed and even humiliated
Because I carried the disgrace of my youth [as a nation].’

²⁰“Is Ephraim My dear son?
Is he a darling and beloved child?
For as often as I have spoken against him,
I certainly still remember him.
Therefore My affection is renewed and My heart longs for
him;
I will surely have mercy on him,” says the LORD.

²¹“Place for yourself road signs [toward Canaan],
Make for yourself guideposts;
Turn your thought and attention to the highway,
To the way by which you went [into exile].
Retrace your steps, O virgin of Israel,
Return to these your cities.

²²“How long will you hesitate [to return],
O you faithless and renegade daughter?
For the LORD has created a new thing in the land [of Israel]:
A woman will encompass (tenderly love) a man.”

²³Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “Once more they will speak these words in the land of Judah (the Southern Kingdom) and in her cities when I restore their fortunes and release them from exile, ‘The LORD bless you, O habitation of justice and righteousness,

O holy mountain!’

²⁴“And [the people of] Judah and all its cities will live there together—the farmer and they who wander about with flocks.

²⁵“For I [fully] satisfy the weary soul, and I replenish every languishing and sorrowful person.”

²⁶At this I (Jeremiah) awoke and looked, and my [trancelike] sleep was sweet [in the assurance it gave] to me.

²⁷“Behold (listen carefully), the days are coming,” says the LORD, “when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and with the seed of beast.

²⁸“It will be that as I have watched over them to uproot and to break down, to overthrow, destroy, and afflict with disaster, so I will watch over them to build and to plant [with good],” says the LORD.

²⁹“In those days they will not say again,

‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes,

And the children’s teeth are set on edge.’ [Ezek 18:2]

³⁰“But everyone will die [only] for his own wickedness; every man who eats sour grapes—his [own] teeth shall be set on edge.

³¹“Behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD, “when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel (the Northern Kingdom) and with the house of Judah (the Southern Kingdom), [Luke 22:20; 1 Cor 11:25]

³²not like the covenant which I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, My covenant which they broke, although I was a husband to them,” says the LORD.

³³“But this is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days,” says the LORD, “I will put My law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they will be My people.

³⁴“And each man will no longer teach his neighbor and his brother, saying, ‘Know the LORD,’ for they will all know Me [through personal experience], from the least of them to the greatest,” says the LORD. “For I will forgive their wickedness, and I will no longer remember their sin.” [Heb 8:8–12; 10:16, 17]

³⁵Thus says the LORD,
Who gives the sun for light by day
And the fixed order of the moon and of the stars for light by night,
Who stirs up the sea’s roaring billows or stills the waves when they roar;
The LORD of hosts is His name:

³⁶“If this fixed order departs
From before Me,” says the LORD,
“Then the descendants of Israel also will cease
From being a nation before Me forever.”

³⁷Thus says the LORD,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

You're Free from Condemnation

One of the biggest tools Satan uses to try to make us feel bad about ourselves is condemnation. According to Romans 8:1, we who are in Christ Jesus are no longer condemned, no longer judged guilty or wrong. Yet so often we judge and condemn ourselves.

I lived a large part of my life feeling guilty. Had someone asked me what I felt guilty about, there were times when I could connect my guilt to a specific thing I had done wrong, but more often I could not have answered the question. All I knew was that a vague feeling of guilt followed me around all the time.

As I learned more and more about God, He gave me a revelation about walking free from guilt and condemnation. He showed me that we not only need to receive forgiveness from Him, we also need to forgive ourselves. God wants us to believe His mercy is new every day and receive it as His gift to us. We should stop remembering and recounting our sins that God's Word says He has forgiven and forgotten (see Jer. 31:34).

We are told in Isaiah 26:3 that God will guard and keep us in perfect and constant peace—if we will keep our mind stayed on Him. Guilt and condemnation will find no entrance into our life if we allow the Holy Spirit to guide our thoughts.

God has new things on the horizon of your life, but you will struggle to experience them if you live in the past. Start enjoying the freedom from condemnation that Jesus died to give you, and look toward a great future. Receive God's love, forgiveness, and mercy today!

“If the heavens above can be measured
And the foundations of the earth searched out below,
Then I will also cast off and abandon all the descendants of Israel

For all that they have done,” says the LORD.

³⁸“Behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD, “when the city [of Jerusalem] will be rebuilt for the LORD from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate.

³⁹“The measuring line will go out farther straight ahead to the hill Gareb; then it will turn to Goah.

⁴⁰“And the whole valley (Hinnom) of the dead bodies and [the hill] of the ashes [long dumped there from the temple sacrifices], and all the fields as far as the brook Kidron, to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east, shall be holy to the LORD. It (the city) will not be uprooted or overthrown anymore to the end of the age.” [Zech 14:10, 11]

32 THE WORD that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.

²Now at that time the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard, which was in the house of the king of Judah.

³For Zedekiah [the last] king of Judah had locked him up, saying, “Why do you prophesy [disaster] and say, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Behold, I am giving this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; ⁴and Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape from the hand of the Chaldeans, but he will surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will speak with him face to face and see him eye to eye; ⁵and he will lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and he will be there until I visit him [for evaluation and judgment],” says the LORD. “If you fight against the Chaldeans, you will not succeed” ’?” [Jer 21:3–7; 34:2–5; 37:17; 52:7–14]

⁶And Jeremiah [answered King Zedekiah and] said, “The word of the LORD came to me, saying,

⁷‘Behold (listen carefully), Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle is coming to you, saying, “Buy my field that is in Anathoth, for you have the right of redemption to buy it [in accordance with the law].” ’

⁸“Then Hanamel my uncle’s son came to me in the court of the guard in accordance with the word of the LORD, and he said to me, ‘Please buy my field that is at Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin, for you have the right of inheritance and the redemption is yours; buy it for yourself.’ Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

⁹“I bought the field that was at Anathoth from Hanamel my uncle’s son, and weighed out the money for him, seventeen shekels of silver.

¹⁰“I signed the deed and sealed it, and called in witnesses, and weighed out the money on the scales.

¹¹“So I took the deeds of the purchase, both the sealed copy containing the terms and conditions, and the unsealed copy;

¹²and I gave the purchase deed to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the sight of Hanamel my uncle’s son and in sight of the witnesses who signed the purchase deed, in the presence of all the Jews who were sitting in the court of the guard.

¹³“And I commanded Baruch in their presence, saying,

¹⁴“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “Take these deeds, both this purchase deed which is sealed and this unsealed deed, and put them in an earthen jar, that they may last a long time.”

¹⁵“For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “Houses and fields and vineyards will again be purchased in this land.” ’

¹⁶“Now when I had delivered the purchase deed to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

We Can Press Through to Victory

“This is too hard” is one of the excuses we hear most frequently when people do not do what they find to be difficult. We need to remember that God’s Spirit equips us to handle difficult things. We are anointed to press through and see victory. The next time you are tempted to say that something is too hard, consider Deuteronomy 30:11, which says, “For this commandment which I am commanding you today is not too difficult for you, nor is it out of reach.”

Anything God leads you to do, you can do. God never leads you to do something unless He also gives you the power and the ability to do it, and there is nothing too difficult or too wonderful for Him (see Jer. 32:17). Prepare yourself for right action with power thoughts. Think, I believe that I can do whatever I need to do in life through Christ Who enables me and is my strength.

¹⁷‘Ah Lord GOD! Behold, You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and by Your outstretched arm! There is nothing too difficult or too wonderful for You— ¹⁸You who show lovingkindness to thousands, but repay the wickedness (sin, guilt) of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them [that is, calling the children to account for the sins of their fathers], O great and mighty God; the LORD of hosts is His name; ¹⁹great [are You] in counsel and mighty in deed, whose eyes are open to all the ways of the sons of men, to reward or repay each one according to his ways and according to the fruit of his deeds; ²⁰who set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, and even to this day [continues to do so] both in Israel and among mankind; and You have made a name for Yourself, as at this day.

²¹‘You brought Your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and with an outstretched arm and with great terror;

²²and gave them this land, which You swore to their forefathers to give them, a land [of plenty] flowing with milk and honey.

²³‘They entered and took possession of it, but they did not obey Your voice or walk in Your law; they have done nothing of all that You commanded them to do. Therefore You have caused all this disaster and suffering to come upon them.

²⁴‘See the siege ramps [of mounded earth that the enemy has built against the walls]; they have come up to the city to capture it. And the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans [of Babylon] who fight against it, because of the sword, the famine and the virulent disease [that have overcome the people]. What You have spoken has come to pass, and behold, You see it.

²⁵‘Yet, O Lord GOD, You said to me, “Buy the field with money and get witnesses,” even though the city is given into the hands of the Chaldeans.”’

²⁶Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying,

²⁷“Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh; is there anything too difficult for Me?”

²⁸Therefore thus says the LORD, “Behold, I am about to give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will take it.

²⁹“The Chaldeans who are fighting against this city will come in and set this city on fire and burn it, along with the houses on whose roofs incense has been offered to Baal and drink offerings have been poured out to other gods to provoke Me to anger. [Jer 19:13]

³⁰“For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done only evil in My sight from their youth; for the children of Israel have been provoking Me to anger by the [idols that are the] work of their hands,” says the LORD.

³¹“From the day that they built it [during the reign of Solomon], even to this day, this city has been such a provocation of My anger and My wrath, that I must remove it from My sight, [1 Kin 11:1–13]

³²because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah which they have done to provoke Me to anger—they, their kings, their princes, their priests, their prophets, the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

³³“They have turned their back to Me and not their face; though I taught them repeatedly, yet they would not listen and receive instruction.

³⁴“But they put their detestable things (idols) in the house which is called by My Name, to defile it.

³⁵“They built the high places [for worship] of Baal in the Valley of Ben-hinnom (son of Hinnom) to make their sons and their daughters pass through the fire to [worship and honor]

Molech—which I had not commanded them nor had it entered My mind that they should do this repulsive thing, to cause Judah to sin. [Jer 7:30, 31]

³⁶“Now therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel concerning this city of which you say, ‘It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by sword and by famine and by virulent disease.’

³⁷“Behold, I will gather them out of all countries to which I have driven them in My anger, in My wrath and in great indignation; and I will bring them back to this place and make them live in safety.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Believe Anyone Can Change

The best way to end a relationship is to think this about someone: You will never change. Thankfully, God always believes we can change, so He continues to work with us. We would be more patient and long-suffering with people if we purposefully thought, God is patient with me, and I will be patient with you. We can always choose to pray for people instead of giving up on them.

The first few years of my marriage to Dave, my behavior at times was very bad. I had never been in a healthy relationship and had no idea how to behave in one. My experience to that point in life was that nobody cared about me or would take care of me, so it was my job to look out for myself. My thoughts about what to expect from Dave were warped and unrealistic: Dave needs to make me feel good about myself and do more things to make me happy. I don't "feel" like Dave loves me! Dave is too involved in sports and doesn't talk enough to me. All my thoughts were focused on me and on why Dave wasn't making me feel happy. I was expecting Dave to give me what I could only find in God—a feeling of confidence and self-worth.

When I asked Dave why he stuck with me, he said, “I knew that God could change you!” His belief that God could change me was a key factor in my healing. God used Dave’s faith to open a door for God to work in my life. Those years were not easy on Dave, but no matter how difficult things were, he always believed that God was changing me and would continue to change me.

God says, “Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh; is there anything too difficult for Me?” (Jer. 32:27). Nobody is beyond change! It may take a long time for change to come, but it can happen. My father was in his eighties when he finally apologized to me for his abusive behavior and asked for forgiveness from me and from God. He received Christ, and I saw a genuine change in him. I am glad I didn’t give up, but that doesn’t mean that I wasn’t tempted to, or that there were not times when I did for a season.

Even if you see no change at all yet, you can continue believing that God is working to change people. I changed. My father changed. You can change, and so can the people you love. Nothing is impossible with God.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord God, forgive me for the many times I’ve not believed You could change me or change another person. Nothing is too difficult for You! Amen.

³⁸“They will be My people, and I will be their God;

³⁹and I will give them one heart and one way, that they may [reverently] fear Me forever, for their own good and for the good of their children after them.

⁴⁰“I will make an everlasting covenant with them that I will do them good and not turn away from them; and I will put in their heart a fear and reverential awe of Me, so that they will not turn away from Me. [Jer 31:31–34]

⁴¹“I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will faithfully plant them in this land with all My heart and with all My soul.

⁴²“For thus says the LORD, ‘Just as I have brought all this great disaster on this people, so I am going to bring on them all the good that I am promising them.

⁴³‘Fields will be bought in this land of which you say, “It is desolate, without man or animal; it is given into the hands of the Chaldeans.”

⁴⁴‘People will buy fields for money, sign deeds, seal them, and call in witnesses in the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem, in the cities of Judah, in the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South (the Negev); for I will restore their fortunes and release them from exile,’ says the LORD.”

33 THEN THE word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was still confined in the court of the guard, saying, ²“Thus says the LORD who made the earth, the LORD who formed it to establish it—the LORD is His name, ³‘Call to Me and I will answer you, and tell you [and even show you] great and mighty things, [things which have been confined and hidden], which you do not know and understand and cannot distinguish.’

Speak God's Word

God will bring health and healing, and He will heal me; and He will reveal to me an abundance of peace, prosperity, security, stability, and truth.

| adapted from JEREMIAH 33:6 |

⁴“For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city and the houses of the kings of Judah which are torn down to make a defense against the siege ramps and against the sword, [Is 22:10; Jer 6:6]

⁵“While they (the besieged Jews) are coming to fight against the Chaldeans and to fill the houses with the dead bodies of men whom I have slain in My anger and in My wrath, for I have hidden My face [in disgust] from this city because of all their wickedness.

⁶“Behold, [in the restored Jerusalem] I will bring to it health and healing, and I will heal them; and I will reveal to them an abundance of peace (prosperity, security, stability) and truth.

⁷“I will restore the fortunes of Judah and the fortunes of Israel and will rebuild them as they were at first.

⁸“I will cleanse them from all their wickedness (guilt) by which they have sinned against Me, and I will pardon (forgive) all their sins by which they rebelled against Me.

⁹‘Jerusalem will be to Me a name of joy, praise and glory before all the nations of the earth which will hear of all the good that I do for it, and they shall fear and tremble because of all the good and all the peace (prosperity, security, stability) that I provide for it.’

¹⁰“Thus says the LORD, ‘Yet again there will be heard in this place of which you say, “It is a [desolate] waste, without man and without animal”—even in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without animal— ¹¹the [sound of the] voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the [song-filled] voice of those who say, “Give praise and thanks to the LORD of hosts,

For the LORD is good;
For His [steadfast] lovingkindness (mercy) endures
forever”;

and of those who bring a thank offering into the house of the LORD. For I will restore the fortunes of the land as they were at first,’ says the LORD.

Speak God's Word

I will praise and give thanks to the Lord of hosts, for the Lord is good; for His steadfast lovingkindness and mercy endure forever.

| adapted from JEREMIAH 33:11 |

¹²“Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘There will again be in this desolate place—[a place] without man or animal—and in all its cities, pastures for shepherds who rest their flocks.

¹³‘In the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, in the cities of the South (the Negev), in the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem and in the cities of Judah, the flocks will again pass under the hand of the one who counts them,’ says the LORD.

¹⁴‘Behold, the days are coming,’ says the LORD, ‘when I will fulfill the good word and promise which I have made regarding the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

¹⁵‘In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch of David to spring forth; and He (the Messiah) shall execute justice and righteousness on the earth. [Is 4:2; Jer 23:5; Zech 3:8; 6:12]

¹⁶‘In those days Judah will be saved and [the people of] Jerusalem will live in safety; and this is the name by which she will be called: the LORD Our Righteousness (Justice).’

¹⁷“For thus says the LORD, ‘David shall never lack a man (descendant) to sit on the throne of the house of Israel;

¹⁸and the Levitical priests shall never lack a man (descendant) to offer burnt offerings before Me and to burn grain offerings and to prepare sacrifices all day long.’”

¹⁹The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

²⁰“Thus says the LORD, ‘If you can break My covenant for the day and My covenant for the night, so that day and night do not take place at their appointed times,’ ²¹then My covenant may also be broken with David My servant so that he will not have a son to reign on his throne, and [My covenant may also be broken] with the Levitical priests, My ministers.

²²‘As the host of [the stars of] heaven cannot be counted and the sand of the sea cannot be measured, so I will multiply the descendants of David My servant and the Levites who minister to Me.’”

²³And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

²⁴“Have you not noticed what this people have spoken, saying, ‘The two families [Israel the northern kingdom, and Judah the southern kingdom] which the LORD chose, He has rejected’? Thus they despise My [chosen] people, no longer are they [considered] as a nation in their sight.

²⁵“Thus says the LORD, ‘If My covenant with day and night does not stand, and if I have not established the fixed patterns of heaven and earth, [the whole order of nature,]

²⁶then I would [also] reject the descendants of Jacob and David My servant, not taking from his descendants rulers over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. But I will restore their fortunes, and will have mercy on them.” [Gen 49:10]

34 THE WORD that came to Jeremiah from the LORD when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army, with all the kingdoms of the earth that were under his sovereignty and all the peoples, were fighting against Jerusalem and against all of its cities: ²“Thus says the LORD God of Israel, ‘Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him: “Thus says the LORD, ‘Behold, I am giving this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will set it on fire and burn it down.

³‘You will not escape from his hand, for you will definitely be captured and handed over to him; you will see the king of Babylon eye to eye, and he will speak with you face to face; and you will go to Babylon.’” ’

⁴“Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah! Thus says the LORD concerning you, ‘You will not die by the sword.

⁵‘You will die in peace; and as spices were burned for [the memory and honor of] your fathers, the former kings who reigned before you, so shall a [ceremonial] burning be made for you; and people will lament (grieve) for you, saying, “Alas, lord (master)!” ’ For I have spoken the word,” says the LORD.

⁶Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem

⁷when the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and against all the remaining cities of Judah, against Lachish and Azekah, for these were the [only] fortified cities among the cities of Judah.

⁸The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD after King Zedekiah had made a covenant (solemn pledge) with all the [Hebrew] people who were [slaves] in Jerusalem to proclaim liberty to them: ⁹that every man should let his Hebrew slaves, male and female, go free, so that no one should make a slave of a Jew, his brother.

¹⁰So all the princes and all the people who had entered into the covenant agreed that everyone would let his male servant and his female servant go free, and that no one would keep them in bondage any longer; they obeyed, and set them free.

¹¹But afterward they backed out [of the covenant] and made the male servants and the female servants whom they had set free return [to them], and brought the male servants and the female servants again into servitude.

¹²Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

¹³“Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘I made a covenant (solemn pledge) with your forefathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying, ¹⁴“At the end of seven years each of you shall set free his Hebrew brother who has sold himself [into servitude] or who has been sold to you and has served you six years, you shall release him from [serving] you; but your forefathers did not listen [submissively] to Me or obey Me. [Deut 15:12]

¹⁵“So then you recently turned and repented, doing what was right in My sight, each man proclaiming release [from servitude] to his countryman [who was his bond servant]; and you had made a covenant before Me in the house which is called by My Name.

¹⁶“Yet you backed out [of the covenant] and profaned My Name, and each man took back his servants, male and female, whom had been set free in accordance with their desire, and you brought them into servitude [again] to be your male servants and your female servants.”’

¹⁷“Therefore says the LORD, ‘You have not obeyed Me; you have not proclaimed liberty to your brother and your countryman. Behold (listen very carefully), I am proclaiming liberty to you—[liberty to be put] to the sword, [liberty] to [be ravaged by] the virulent disease, and [liberty] to [be decimated by] famine,’ says the LORD; ‘and I will make you a horror and a warning to all the kingdoms of the earth.

¹⁸“The men who have violated My covenant, who have not kept the terms of the solemn pledge which they made before Me when they split the [sacrificial] calf in half, and then afterwards walked between its separated pieces [sealing their pledge to Me by placing a curse on themselves should they violate the covenant—those men I will make like the calf]! [Gen 15:9, 10, 17]

¹⁹“The princes of Judah, the princes of Jerusalem, the high officials, the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf,

²⁰I will give into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who seek their lives. And [like the body of the calf] their dead bodies will be food for the birds of the sky and the beasts of the earth.

²¹“Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes I will place into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon which has withdrawn from you.

²²“Behold, I am going to command [the Chaldeans who rule Babylon],” says the LORD, “and I will bring them back to this city; and they will fight against it and take it and set it on fire. I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without inhabitant.””

35 THE WORD that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah: ²“Go to the house of the Rechabites and speak to them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the [side] chambers; then give them [who are pledged not to drink wine] some wine to drink.”

³So I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers and all his sons and the whole house of the Rechabites, ⁴and I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaiah, the man of God, which was near the chamber of the princes, above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum the doorkeeper.

⁵Then I set before the men of the house of the Rechabites pitchers full of wine, and cups, and I said to them, “Drink wine.”

⁶But they said, “We will not drink wine, for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us: ‘You shall not drink wine, neither you nor your sons, forever.

⁷‘Nor shall you build a house or sow seed or plant a vineyard or own one; but you shall live in tents all your days, that you may live many days in the land where you are sojourners (temporary residents).’

⁸“We have obeyed the words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he commanded us, in all our days we have never drunk wine, nor have our wives, our sons, or our daughters, ⁹nor have we built ourselves houses to live in; nor do we have vineyards or fields or seed.

¹⁰“We have lived only in tents, and have obeyed and done [everything] according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

¹¹“But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against the land, we said, ‘Come and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans [who rule Babylon] and for fear of the army of the Arameans.’ So we have lived in Jerusalem.”

¹²Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying,

¹³“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ‘Go and say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, “Will you not receive instruction by listening to My words and honoring them?”’ says the LORD.

¹⁴“The command which Jonadab the son of Rechab gave to his sons not to drink wine has been observed [as a custom for more than two hundred years]. To this day they do not drink wine, for they have obeyed their father’s command. But I have repeatedly spoken to you, yet you have not listened to

¹⁵“I have also sent to you all My servants the prophets, sending them repeatedly, saying, ‘Let every one of you turn now from his evil way and alter your behavior, and do not follow other gods to worship and serve them; and then you will live in the land which I have given to you and to your forefathers. But you have not submitted or listened to Me.

¹⁶“Indeed, the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have observed the command of their father which he gave them, but this people has not listened to Me.”’

¹⁷“Therefore thus says the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, ‘Behold (hear this), I am bringing on Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the disaster that I have pronounced against them, because I have spoken to them, but they have not listened, and I have called to them, but they have not answered.’”

¹⁸Then Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, “Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ‘Because you have obeyed the command of Jonadab your father and have kept all his commands and have done according to all that he commanded you, ¹⁹therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “Jonadab the son of Rechab shall never fail to have a man (descendant) to stand before Me always.”’”

36 IN THE fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

²“Take a scroll [of parchment] and write on it all the words which I have spoken to you concerning Israel and Judah, and all the nations, from the day I [first] spoke to you in the days of [King] Josiah until this day.

³“It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the disaster which I plan to bring on them, so that each one will turn from his evil way, that I may forgive their wickedness and their sin.” [Jer 18:7–10; 26:3]

⁴Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote on the scroll of the book all the words which Jeremiah dictated, [words] which the LORD had spoken to him.

⁵Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, “I am [in hiding, virtually] restrained; I cannot go into the house of the LORD.

⁶“So you go to the LORD’s house on a day of fasting and read from the scroll the words of the LORD to the people which you have written as I dictated. And also you shall read them to all the people of Judah who come from their cities.

⁷“It may be that their supplication [for mercy] will come before the LORD, and everyone will turn from his evil way, for great is the anger and the wrath that the LORD has pronounced against this people.”

⁸Baruch the son of Neriah did everything that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading from [Jeremiah’s scroll] the words of the LORD in the LORD’s house.

⁹Now in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, a fast was proclaimed before the LORD for all the people in Jerusalem and all the people who came to Jerusalem from the cities of Judah.

¹⁰Then Baruch read to all the people the words of Jeremiah from the scroll of the book in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper court, at the entry of the New Gate of the LORD's house.

¹¹When Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll, ¹²he went down to the king's house, into the scribe's chamber; and behold, all the princes were sitting there: Elishama the scribe, Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, Elnathan the son of Achbor, Gemariah the son of Shaphan, Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the [other] princes.

¹³Then Micaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard when Baruch read from the scroll to all the people.

¹⁴Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, "Take in your hand the scroll from which you have read to the people and come [to us]." So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand and went to them.

¹⁵And they said to him, "Sit down now and read it to us." So Baruch read it to them.

¹⁶Now when they had heard all the words, they turned one to another in fear and said to Baruch, "We must surely report all these words to the king."

¹⁷And they asked Baruch, "Tell us now, how did you write all these words? At his (Jeremiah's) dictation?"

¹⁸Then Baruch answered them, "He dictated all these words to me, and I wrote them with ink on the scroll."

¹⁹Then the princes said to Baruch, "Go and hide, you and Jeremiah, and do not let anyone know where you are."

²⁰Then they went into the court to the king, but they [first] put the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe; then they reported all the words to the king.

²¹So the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and he took it out of the chamber of Elishama the scribe. And Jehudi read it to the king and all the princes who stood beside the king.

²²Now it was the ninth month, and the king was sitting in the winter house, with a fire burning there in the brazier before him.

²³And after Jehudi had read three or four columns [of the scroll], King Jehoiakim would cut off that portion with a scribe's knife and throw it into the fire that was in the brazier, until the [entire] scroll was consumed by the fire.

²⁴Yet the king and all his servants who heard all these words were not afraid, nor did they tear their clothes.

²⁵Even though Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah pleaded with the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them.

²⁶And the king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son, Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel to seize Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet, but the LORD hid them.

POWERPOINT

Can you imagine how discouraged the imprisoned Jeremiah must have felt when he learned that all their hard work of writing the prophecy with quill and ink had been burned up (see Jer. 36:28)? And now he was being told to do it again! If we want to be strong and victorious in the kingdom of God, we need to be willing to do whatever God asks us to do—again and again, if necessary—until we experience our breakthrough.

²⁷Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah after the king had burned the scroll containing the words which Baruch had written at the dictation of Jeremiah: ²⁸“Take another scroll and write on it all the former words that were on the first scroll which Jehoiakim the king of Judah burned.

²⁹“And concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah you shall say, ‘Thus says the LORD, “You have burned this scroll, saying, ‘Why have you written on it that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, and will cut off man and beast from it?’”’”

³⁰‘Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah, “He shall have no heir to sit on the throne of David, and his dead body shall be thrown out to the heat of the day and to the frost of the night.

³¹“I will also punish him and his descendants and his servants for their wickedness, and I will bring on them and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and the men of Judah all the destruction that I have declared against them—but they would not listen.”’”

³²Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote on it at the dictation of Jeremiah all the words of the scroll which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire; and many similar words were added to them.

37 NOW NEBUCHADNEZZAR king of Babylon made Zedekiah the son of Josiah king in the land of Judah so he reigned as king instead of Coniah (also called Jeconiah and Jehoiachin) the son of Jehoiakim.

²But neither he nor his servants nor the people of the land listened to the words of the LORD which He spoke through the prophet Jeremiah.

³Yet King Zedekiah sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah

[along] with Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, “Please pray [now] to the LORD our God for us.”

⁴Now Jeremiah was coming and going among the people, for they had not [yet] put him in prison.

⁵Meanwhile, Pharaoh’s army had set out from Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard the news about them, they withdrew from Jerusalem.

⁶Then the word of the LORD came to the prophet Jeremiah:

⁷“Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘This is what you are to say to the king of Judah, who sent you to Me to inquire of Me: “Behold, Pharaoh’s army, which has come out to help you, will return to Egypt, to their own land.

⁸“And the Chaldeans [of Babylon] will come again and fight against this city, and they will capture it and set it on fire.”

⁹“Thus says the LORD, ‘Do not deceive yourselves, saying, “The Chaldeans will certainly stay away from us,” for they will not stay away.

¹⁰“For even if you had defeated the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you, and there remained only the wounded men among them, yet they would rise up, every man confined in his tent, and burn down this city with fire.”

¹¹Now it happened when the army of the Chaldeans departed from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh’s [approaching] army,

¹²that Jeremiah left Jerusalem [during the withdrawal of the Chaldean invaders] to go to [Anathoth, his hometown, in] the land of Benjamin to take possession of [the title to] the land

[which he had purchased] there among the people. [Jer 32:6–12]

¹³When he was at the Gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah the son of Hananiah was there; and he seized and arrested Jeremiah the prophet, saying, “You are deserting to join the Chaldeans [of Babylon]!”

¹⁴But Jeremiah said, “That is a lie! I am not deserting to join the Chaldeans.” But the guard would not listen to him. So Irijah took Jeremiah and brought him to the princes (court officials).

¹⁵The princes were enraged with Jeremiah and beat him and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe—for they had made that the prison.

¹⁶When Jeremiah had come into the vaulted cell in the dungeon and had remained there many days,

¹⁷Zedekiah the king sent and brought him out; and in his palace the king secretly asked him, “Is there any word from the LORD?” And Jeremiah said, “There is!” Then he said, “You will be handed over to the king of Babylon.”

¹⁸Moreover, Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, “In what way have I sinned against you, or against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison?

¹⁹“Where then are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, ‘The king of Babylon will not come against you or against this land?’

²⁰“Therefore now, please listen, O my lord the king; please let my petition come before you and be acceptable and do not make me return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, that I may not die there.”

²¹Then King Zedekiah commanded, and they committed Jeremiah to the court of the guardhouse, and a [round] loaf of bread from the bakers' street was given to him daily, until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained [imprisoned] in the court of the guardhouse.

38 NOW SHEPHATIAH the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, and Jucal (also called Jehucal) the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchijah heard the words that Jeremiah was speaking to all the people, saying, ²“So says the LORD, ‘He who remains in this city will die by the sword, by famine, and by virulent disease (pestilence), but he who goes out to the Chaldeans [of Babylon] will live and have his [own] life as a reward and stay alive.’ [Jer 21:9]

³“Thus says the LORD, ‘This city will certainly be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon and he will take it.’”

⁴Therefore the princes (court officials) said to the king, “Please [we implore you] let this man [Jeremiah] be put to death; for [speaking] in this way he discourages and weakens [the will of] the soldiers who remain in this city and he discourages and weakens [the will of] all the people by speaking such words to them; for this man is not seeking the well-being of these people, but rather their harm.”

⁵Then King Zedekiah [fearing the princes] said, “Listen, he is in your hand; for the king is in no position to do anything against you.”

⁶So they took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern of Malchijah the king's son, which was in the court of the guardhouse; and they let Jeremiah down [into the cistern] with ropes. Now there was no water in the cistern but only mud, and Jeremiah sank in the mud.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Suffering Has Its Rewards

Because Jeremiah spoke God's word to the people, wicked men threw him into a cistern, intending for him to starve to death, and he sank into the mud (see Jer. 38:6). According to 1 Peter 3:14, you are blessed and can be happy even if you are suffering for the sake of righteousness. Why? Because God is just, and even though you are being persecuted for doing the right thing, in the end you will win, because when you sow right seeds, you will reap a good harvest.

The Bible says you are to "be admired and favored by God" when you are persecuted, and that means God will reward your suffering. Justice means everything wrong is made right. God will give you double blessings for your former trouble (see Isa. 61:7), because God always blesses those who do the right thing.

⁷Now Ebed-melech the Ethiopian (Cushite), one of the eunuchs who was in the king's palace, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the cistern, and while the king was sitting in the Gate of Benjamin, ⁸Ebed-melech went out of the king's palace and spoke to the king, saying,

⁹"My lord the king, these men have acted wickedly in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet whom they have thrown into the cistern; and he will die [of hunger] where he is because of the famine, for there is no more bread in the city.”

¹⁰Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, “Take thirty men from here with you and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the cistern before he dies.”

¹¹So Ebed-melech took the men with him and went into the palace of the king to a place under the storeroom and took from there old rags and worn-out clothes and let them down by ropes into the cistern to Jeremiah.

¹²Then Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, “Now put these old rags and worn-out clothes under your armpits, then place the ropes under the padding”; and Jeremiah did so.

¹³So they pulled Jeremiah up with the ropes and took him up out of the cistern; and Jeremiah remained in the court of the guardhouse.

¹⁴Then King Zedekiah sent and had Jeremiah the prophet brought to him at the third entrance that is in the house of the LORD. And the king said to Jeremiah, “I am going to ask you something; hide nothing from me.”

¹⁵Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “If I tell you, will you not certainly put me to death? Even if I do give you advice, you will not listen to me.”

¹⁶But King Zedekiah swore secretly to Jeremiah, “As the LORD lives, who made our lives, be assured that I will not put you to death or put you into the hand of these men who are seeking your life.”

¹⁷Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “Thus says the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, ‘If you will go out and surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, then you will live and this city will not be burned with fire; and you and your household will live.

¹⁸“But if you will not go out to the officers of the king of Babylon, then this city will be given into the hand of the Chaldeans [of Babylon] and they will set it on fire; and you yourself will not escape from their hand.”

¹⁹Then King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “I am afraid of the Jews [my former subjects] who have deserted to join the Chaldeans, for the enemy may put me into their hand and they will mock me and abuse me.”

²⁰But Jeremiah said, “They will not hand you over [to them]. Please obey [the voice of] the LORD [who speaks to you through me] in what I am saying to you. Then it will go well with you and you will live.

²¹“But if you keep refusing to go out and surrender to them, this is the word [and the vision] which the LORD has shown me: ²²“Then behold, all the women who are left in the palace of the king of Judah will be brought out to the officers of the king of Babylon and those women will say [to you, King Zedekiah], “Your close friends

Have prevailed against your better judgment and have overpowered and deceived you;

While your feet were sunk in the mire [of trouble],

They turned back.”

²³“Also, all your wives and your children will be brought out to the Chaldeans; and you yourself will not escape from their hand, but you will be seized by the king of Babylon, and this city [Jerusalem] will be burned down with fire.”

²⁴Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “Let no man know about this conversation and you will not die.

²⁵“But if the princes (court officials) hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you and say, ‘Tell us now what you said to the king and what he said to you; do not hide it from us and we will not execute you,’

²⁶then you are to say to them, ‘I was presenting my [humble] petition and plea to the king so that he would not send me back to Jonathan’s house to die there.’”

²⁷Then all the princes (court officials) came to Jeremiah and asked him [just what King Zedekiah had anticipated they would ask], and he reported to them in accordance with all that the king had commanded. So they stopped questioning him, since the conversation [with the king] had not been overheard.

²⁸So Jeremiah remained in the court of the guardhouse until the day that Jerusalem was captured [by the Chaldeans of Babylon].

39 NOW REGARDING the capture of Jerusalem: In the ninth year of [the reign of] Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and besieged it; [Jer 52:4–27]

²and in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, they breached the wall and broke into the city.

³Then all the officials of the king of Babylon came in and sat in the Middle Gate [establishing both military control of the city and their authority to judge the captives]: Nergal-sar-ezer, Samgar-nebu, Sar-sekim the Rab-saris (chief of the eunuchs), and Nergal-sar-ezer the Rab-mag (chief of the magicians), with all the rest of the officials of the king of Babylon.

⁴When Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, they fled and escaped from the city at night by way of the king's garden, through the gate between the two walls; and the king went out toward the Arabah (Jordan Valley).

⁵But the Chaldean (Babylonian) army pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. When they had seized him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon at Riblah in the [Aramean] land of Hamath, where he passed sentence on him.

⁶Then at Riblah the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes; the king of Babylon also killed all the nobles of Judah.

⁷Moreover, he blinded Zedekiah and bound him with bronze shackles to take him to Babylon. [Ezek 12:13]

⁸The Chaldeans also burned down the king's palace and the houses of the people, and they broke down the walls of Jerusalem.

¹⁰But Nebuzaradan the [Babylonian] captain of the bodyguard left behind in the land of Judah some of the poor people who had nothing, and gave them vineyards and fields at that time.

¹¹Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave orders concerning Jeremiah through Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard, saying,

¹²“Take him and look after him; do nothing to harm him, but rather deal with him just as he asks of you.”

¹³So Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard sent word, along with Nebushazban the Rab-saris (chief of the high officials), and Nergal-sar-ezer the Rab-mag (chief of the magicians), and all the leading officers of the king of Babylon;

¹⁴they even sent and took Jeremiah out of the court of the guardhouse and entrusted him to Gedaliah [a prominent citizen], the son of Ahikam [who had once saved Jeremiah’s life], the son of Shaphan, to take him home [with him to Mizpah]. So Jeremiah [was released and] lived among the people. [Jer 26:24]

¹⁵Now the word of the LORD had come to Jeremiah while he was [still] confined in the court of the guardhouse, saying,

¹⁶“Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “Behold, I am about to bring My words [of judgment] against this city through disaster and not for good; and they will take place before you on that day.

¹⁷“But I will protect you [Ebed-melech] on that day,” says the LORD, “and you will not be handed over to the men of whom you are afraid. [Jer 38:7–13]

¹⁸“For I will certainly rescue you; and you will not fall by the sword, but you will have your [own] life as a reward of battle, because you have placed your trust in Me,” says the LORD.””

40 THE WORD which came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard had released him from Ramah, when he had taken him bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah who were being taken as exiles to Babylon.

²And the captain of the bodyguard had taken Jeremiah and said to him, “The LORD your God promised this disaster on this place.

³“Now the LORD has brought it about and has done just as He promised. Because you [people of Judah] have sinned against the LORD and did not listen to and honor His voice, therefore this thing has happened to you.

⁴“But now, listen carefully, [because of your innocence] I am freeing you today from the chains which are on your hands. If you would prefer to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will look after you [carefully]; but if you would prefer not to come with me to Babylon, then do not do so. Look, all the land is before you; go wherever it seems good and right (convenient) for you to go.”

⁵While Jeremiah was still hesitating, the captain of the bodyguard said, “Go on back then to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed [governor] over the cities of Judah, and stay with him among the people; or else go wherever it seems right for you to go.” So the captain of the bodyguard gave him an allowance of food and a gift and let him go.

⁶Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam at Mizpah and stayed with him among the people who were left in the land.

⁷Now when all the commanders of the forces that were [scattered] in the open country [of Judah] and their men heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land [of Judah] and had put him in charge of the men, women, and children, those of the poorest of the land who had not been exiled to Babylon, ⁸they went to Gedaliah at Mizpah—Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men.

⁹Then Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, swore to them and their men, saying, “Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans; stay in this land and serve the king of Babylon, that it may go well with you.

¹⁰“As for me, I am going to stay at Mizpah to stand [for you] before the Chaldeans who come to us [ministering to them and looking after the king’s interests]; but as for you, gather in wine, summer fruit and oil and store them in your utensils [designed for such purposes], and live in your cities that you have taken over.”

¹¹Likewise, when all the Jews who were in Moab and among the people of Ammon and in Edom and who were in all the [other] countries heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant [of the people] in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan over them [as governor], ¹²then all the Jews returned from all the places to which they had been driven and came back to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and gathered a great abundance of wine and summer fruits.

¹³Moreover, Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces that were [scattered] in the open country came to Gedaliah at Mizpah ¹⁴and said to him, “Do you know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take your life?” But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them.

¹⁵Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke secretly to Gedaliah in Mizpah, saying, “Let me go and kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and not a man will know [who is responsible]. Why should he kill you and cause all the Jews who are gathered near you to be scattered and the remnant of Judah to perish?”

¹⁶But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, “Do not do this thing, for you are lying about Ishmael.”

41 NOW IN the seventh month Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family [of David] and one of the princes of the king, came [at the instigation of the Ammonites] with ten men to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam in Mizpah. As they were eating a meal together there in Mizpah, ²Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and the ten men who were with him got up and struck down Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword and killed the one whom the king of Babylon had appointed [governor] over the land. [2 Kin 25:25]

³Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were [at the banquet] with Gedaliah at Mizpah, in addition to the Chaldean soldiers who were there.

⁴Now it happened on the second day after the killing of Gedaliah, before anyone knew about it,

⁵that eighty men came from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria with their beards shaved off and their clothes torn and their bodies cut, carrying in their hands grain offerings and incense to present at the [site of the] house of the LORD [in Jerusalem].

⁶Then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping [false tears] as he went. As he met them, he said to them, “Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam!”

⁷Yet when they came into the city, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and the men who were with him slaughtered them and threw them into the cistern (underground water reservoir).

⁸But ten men who were among them said to Ishmael, “Do not kill us! We have stores of wheat and barley and oil and honey hidden in the field.” So he stopped and did not kill them along with their companions.

⁹Now the cistern into which Ishmael had thrown all the corpses of the men whom he had killed along with Gedaliah was the one which King Asa [of Judah] had made [about three hundred years earlier] on account of King Baasha of Israel [believing that Baasha would lay siege to Mizpah]. Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with [the bodies of] those who were killed.

¹⁰Then Ishmael took captive all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah—even the king’s daughters (ladies of the court) and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard had put under the charge of Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. Ishmael the son of Nethaniah took them captive and crossed over [the Jordan] to [meet his allies] the Ammonites.

¹¹But when Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces that were with him heard of the murderous behavior of Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, ¹²they took all their men and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and found him by the great pool in Gibeon.

¹³Now when all the [captive] people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces that were with him, they were glad.

¹⁴So all the people whom Ishmael had taken captive from Mizpah turned around and came back, and joined Johanan the son of Kareah.

¹⁵But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men and went to join the Ammonites.

¹⁶Then Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces that were with him took from Mizpah all the people whom he had rescued from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, after Ishmael had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: the soldiers, the women, the children, and the high officials whom Johanan had brought back from Gibeon.

¹⁷And they went and stayed in Geruth [the lodging place of] Chimham, which is near Bethlehem, intending to go to Egypt

¹⁸because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed [governor] over the land [and whose death the king might avenge].

42 THEN ALL the commanders of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah and Jezaniah (Azariah) the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest approached² and said to Jeremiah the prophet, “Please let our petition be presented before you, and pray to the LORD your God for us, that is, for all this remnant [of the people of Judah]; for we were once many, but now [only] a few of us are left, as you see with your own eyes, [so please pray]

³that the LORD your God may show us the way in which we should walk and the thing that we should do.”

⁴Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, “I have heard you. Now hear me, I will pray to the LORD your God in accordance with your words; and I will declare to you whatever message the LORD answers; I will keep nothing back from you.”

⁵Then they said to Jeremiah, “May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we fail to act in accordance with all the things that the LORD your God sends you to tell us.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Sins of Commission and Omission

According to Jeremiah 42:3, 6, when the Israelites asked Jeremiah to speak to God on their behalf, they had already decided they were going to learn what to do, and, no matter what it was, they were going to do it. Set your mind and keep it set on obeying God (see Col. 3:2)!

I wonder what would happen if people today had this same attitude every single time they read or heard the Word of God. What would your life be like if every time you went to church or listened to a teaching or read the Bible you had the mind-set, Whatever I learn today, I'm going to do it!

James 4:17 says if we know what to do and don't do it, that is sin. The wrong things we commit are sin, but the right things we omit are also sin. Make a decision to be a "doer" of God's Word, and not merely a "hearer."

⁶“Whether it is pleasant or unpleasant, we will listen to and honor the voice of the LORD our God to whom we are sending you, so that it may go well with us when we listen to the voice of the LORD our God.”

⁷Now after ten days [of prayer] had passed the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah.

⁸Then he called for Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces that were with him and all the people from the least to the greatest,

⁹and said to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your petition before Him:

¹⁰“If you will indeed remain in this land, then I will build you up and not tear you down, and I will plant you and not uproot you; for I will relent and be satisfied concerning the disaster that I have inflicted on you [as discipline, and I will replace judgment with compassion]. [Jer 31:4, 28]

¹¹“Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, whom you now fear [as if he were deity]; do not be afraid of him,’ says the LORD, ‘for [he is a mere man, but I am the living, omniscient God and] I am with you [always] to protect you and to deliver you from his hand.

¹²“And I will show you compassion, so that he will have compassion on you and restore you to your own land.

¹³“But if you are going to say, “We will not stay in this land,” and [in so doing] do not listen to the voice of the LORD your God, ¹⁴saying, “No, but we will go to the land of Egypt, where we will not see war or hear the sound of the [warrior’s] trumpet or hunger for bread, and we will stay there,” ¹⁵then in that case listen to the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “If you are really determined to go to Egypt and to reside there [temporarily], ¹⁶then the sword, of which you are afraid, will overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine of which you are afraid will follow closely after you in Egypt, and you will die there.

¹⁷“So all the men who set their mind to go to Egypt to reside there [temporarily] will die by the sword, by famine and by virulent disease; none of them will remain or survive the disaster that I am going to bring on them.”””

¹⁸For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “As My anger and My wrath have been poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so My wrath will be poured out on you when you enter Egypt. You will become detested, an object of horror, a curse and a people scorned; and you will no longer see this place.”

¹⁹The LORD has spoken to you, O remnant of Judah, “Do not go into Egypt!” Know with certainty that I [Jeremiah] have warned you and testified to you this day ²⁰that you have deceived yourselves; for you sent me to the LORD your God, saying, “Pray for us to the LORD our God; and whatever the LORD our God says, declare it to us and we will do it.”

²¹And so I have told you today, but you have not listened to the voice of the LORD your God, in anything that He has sent me to tell you.

²²Now therefore know for certain that you will die by the sword, by famine, and by virulent disease in the land [of Egypt] where you wish to reside [temporarily].

43 NOW IT happened when Jeremiah, whom the LORD their God had sent, had finished telling all the people all the words of the LORD their God—that is, all these words—²Azariah the son of Hoshaiah and Johanan the son of Kareah and all the proud and insolent men said to Jeremiah, “You are not telling the truth! The LORD our God has not sent you to say, ‘Do not go into Egypt to live there.’

³“But Baruch the son of Neriah is inciting you against us to hand us over to the Chaldeans, so they may [either] put us to death or exile us to Babylon.”

⁴So Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces and all the people disobeyed the voice of the LORD [which told them] to stay in the land of Judah.

⁵But Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces took all the remnant of Judah who had returned to live in the land of Judah from all the nations to which they had been driven— ⁶the men, women, and children, the king’s daughters (ladies of the court), and every person whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; he also took Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch the son of Neriah.

⁷So they entered the land of Egypt (for they did not obey the voice of the LORD) and they went in as far as Tahpanhes.

⁸Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

⁹“Take some large stones in your hands and hide them in the mortar in the brickwork [of the terrace] which is at the entrance of Pharaoh’s house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of some of the men of Judah; ¹⁰and say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “Behold, I am going to send and get Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant, and I am going to set his throne over these stones that I have hidden; and his [majestic, royal] canopy will be spread over them. [Ezek 29:19, 20]

¹¹“He will also come and strike the land of Egypt, giving those who are [destined] for death, to death, and those who are [destined] for captivity, to captivity, and those who are [destined] for the sword, to the sword.

¹²“And [through him] I will set fire to the temples of the gods of Egypt, and he will burn them and take them (Egyptian idols) captive. He will wrap himself with the land of Egypt as a shepherd wraps himself with his garment, and he will go away from there safely.

¹³“Nebuchadnezzar will also break the images and shatter the obelisks of Heliopolis in the land of Egypt; and he will burn down the temples of the gods of Egypt.””

44 THE WORD that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who were living in the land of Egypt—at Migdol, at Tahpanhes, at Memphis, and in the land of Pathros, saying, ²“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ‘You have seen all the disaster that I have brought on Jerusalem and on all the cities of Judah; and see, this day they are desolated and no one lives in them ³because of the wickedness which they committed, provoking Me to anger by continuing to burn sacrifices and incense to serve other gods that they had not known, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers.

⁴‘Yet I sent to you all My servants the prophets, again and again, saying, “Oh, do not do this shamefully vile thing which I hate.”

⁵‘But they did not listen or turn [obediently] from their wickedness, and stop burning sacrifices and incense to other gods.

⁶“Therefore My wrath and My anger were poured out and burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; so they have become a ruin and a desolation, as it is this day.

⁷“Therefore now thus says the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, “Why did you commit this great evil against yourselves [bringing disaster] that will cut off from you man and woman, child and infant, out of Judah, leaving yourselves without a remnant?

⁸“Why do you [deliberately] provoke Me to anger with the works (idols) of your hands, burning sacrifices and incense to [make-believe] gods in the land of Egypt, where you [of your own accord] have come to live [as temporary residents], that you might be cut off and become a curse and a disgrace [an object of taunts] among all the nations of the earth?

⁹“Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, the wickedness of the kings of Judah, the wickedness of their wives [who served their foreign gods], your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives [who imitated the sin of the queens], which they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

¹⁰“They have not become apologetic [for their guilt and sin] even to this day; they have not feared [Me with reverence] nor walked in My law or My statutes, which I have set before you and before your fathers.” ’ [Jer 6:15; 26:4–6; 44:23]

¹¹“Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ‘Behold, I am going to set My face against you for woe—even to cut off (destroy) all Judah [from the land].

¹²‘And I will take the remnant of Judah who have decided to go into the land of Egypt to live there [instead of surrendering to the Chaldeans as directed], and they will all fall and die in the land of Egypt; they will fall by the sword or perish by famine. From the least to the greatest, they will die by the sword or by famine; and they will become detestable, an object of horror, a curse, and a disgrace.

¹³“For I will punish all the inhabitants of the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, with the sword, with famine, and with virulent disease;

¹⁴so none of the survivors from the remnant of Judah who have entered the land of Egypt to live there will survive, even though they lift up their souls in longing to return to the land of Judah, [the place] to which they long to return to live; none will return except a few refugees.”

¹⁵Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning sacrifices to other gods, and all the women who were standing by, a large group, including all the people who were living in Pathros in the land of Egypt, answered Jeremiah, saying, ¹⁶“As for the word (message) that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we are not going to listen to you.

¹⁷“But rather we will certainly perform every word of the vows we have made: to burn sacrifices to the queen of heaven (Ishtar) and to pour out drink offerings to her, just as we ourselves and our forefathers, our kings and our princes did in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; for [then] we had plenty of food and were prosperous and saw no misfortune.

¹⁸“But since we stopped burning sacrifices to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked everything and have been consumed by the sword and by famine.”

¹⁹*And said the wives*, “When we were burning sacrifices to the queen of heaven and were pouring out drink offerings to her, was it without [the knowledge and approval of] our husbands that we made cakes [in the shape of a star] to represent her and pour out drink offerings to her?”

²⁰Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men and to the women and to all the people who had given him that answer,

²¹“The smoking sacrifices (incense) that you burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem—you and your forefathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land—did not the LORD remember [in detail your idolatry] and did it not all come into His mind?

²²“The LORD could no longer endure it, because of the evil of your acts and the repulsive acts which you have committed; because of them your land has become a ruin, an object of horror and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is this day.

²³“Because you have burned sacrifices [to idols] and because you have sinned against the LORD and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD or walked in His law and in His statutes and in His testimonies, therefore this tragedy has fallen on you, as it has this day.”

²⁴Then Jeremiah said to all the people, including all the women, “Hear the word of the LORD, all [you of] Judah who are in the land of Egypt, ²⁵thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, as follows: ‘You and your wives have both declared with your mouth and fulfilled it with your hand, saying, “We will certainly perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn sacrifices to the queen of heaven (Ishtar) and to pour out drink offerings to her.” Surely then confirm your vows and go ahead and perform your vows! [If you intend to defy all My warnings, proceed!]

²⁶“Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all [you people of] Judah who are living in the land of Egypt, ‘Behold, I have sworn [an oath] by My great Name,’ says the LORD, ‘that My Name shall never again be invoked by the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, “As the Lord GOD lives.”’

²⁷‘Behold, I am watching over them for harm and not for good; and all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by famine until they are all destroyed.

²⁸‘Yet a small number [of My choosing] who escape the sword will return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah who have gone to the land of Egypt to reside there will know whose words will stand, Mine or theirs.

²⁹‘And this will be the sign to you,’ says the LORD, ‘that I am going to punish you in this place, so that you may know that My words will surely stand against you for harm.’

³⁰“Thus says the LORD, ‘Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies and into the hand of those who seek his life, just as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy and was seeking his life.’”

45 THE WORD that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the dictation of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, ²“Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch:

³“You said, “Woe is me! For the LORD has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning and sighing and I find no rest.” ’

⁴“Say this to him, ‘The LORD speaks in this way, “Behold, what I have built I will break down, and that which I have planted I will uproot, that is, the whole land.”

⁵‘And do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for behold, I will bring disaster on all flesh,’ says the LORD, ‘but I will give your life to you [as your only reward and] as a prize of war wherever you go.’”

46 THE WORD of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the [Gentile] nations.

²Concerning Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates at Carchemish, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated [decisively] in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah: [Is 19–20; Ezek 29–32; Zech 14:18, 19]

³“Line up the buckler (small shield) and [large] shield,
And advance for battle!

⁴“Harness the horses,
And mount, you riders!
Take your stand with your helmets!
Polish the spears,

Put on the coats of mail!

⁵“Why have I seen it?

They are terrified

And have turned back,

And their warriors are beaten down.

They take flight in haste

Without looking back;

Terror is on every side!”

Says the LORD. [Ps 31:13; Jer 6:25; 20:3, 10; 49:29]

⁶Do not let the swift man run,

Nor the mighty man escape;

In the north by the river Euphrates

They have stumbled and fallen.

⁷Who is this that rises up like the Nile [River],

Like the rivers [in the delta of Egypt] whose waters surge about?

⁸Egypt rises like the Nile,

Even like the rivers whose waters surge about.

And He has said, “I will rise, I will cover that land;

I will certainly destroy the city and its inhabitants.”

⁹Charge, you horses,

And drive like madmen, you chariots!

Let the warriors go forward:

Ethiopia and Put (Libya) who handle the shield,

And the Lydians who handle and bend the bow.

¹⁰For that day belongs to the Lord GOD of hosts,

A day of vengeance, that He may avenge Himself on His adversaries.

And the sword will devour and be satiated
And drink its fill of their blood;
For the Lord GOD of hosts has a sacrifice [like that of a great sin offering]
In the north country by the river Euphrates.

¹¹Go up to Gilead and obtain [healing] balm,
O Virgin Daughter of Egypt!
In vain you use many medicines;
For you there is no healing or remedy.

¹²The nations have heard of your disgrace and shame,
And your cry [of distress] has filled the earth.
For warrior has stumbled against warrior,
And both of them have fallen together.

¹³The word that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the coming of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to strike the land of Egypt: ¹⁴“Declare in Egypt and proclaim in Migdol,

And proclaim in Memphis and in Tahpanhes;
Say, ‘Take your stand and get yourself ready,
For the sword has devoured those around you.’

¹⁵“Why have your strong ones been cut down?
They do not stand because the LORD drove them away.

¹⁶“He will make many stumble and fall;
Yes, they have fallen one on another.
Then they said, ‘Arise, and let us go back
To our own people and to the land of our birth,
Away from the sword of the oppressor.’

17“They cried there, ‘Pharaoh king of Egypt is destroyed and is merely a loud noise;

He has let the appointed time [of opportunity] pass by!’

18“As I live,” says the King,

Whose name is the LORD of hosts,

“Surely like Tabor among the mountains

Or like Carmel by the sea,

So shall he [the great king of Babylon] come.

19“O you daughter who dwells in Egypt and you who dwell with her,

Prepare yourselves [with all you will need] to go into exile,

For Memphis will become desolate;

It will even be burned down and without inhabitant.

20“Egypt is a very pretty heifer,

But a horsefly (Babylonia) is coming [against her] out of the north!

21“Also her mercenaries in her army

Are like fattened calves,

For they too have turned back and have fled together;

They did not stand [their ground],

Because the day of their disaster has come upon them,

The time of their punishment.

22“The sound [of Egypt fleeing from the enemy] is like [the rustling of] an escaping serpent,

For her foes advance with a mighty army

And come against her like woodcutters with axes.

23“They have cut down her forest,” says the LORD;

“Certainly it will no longer be found,

Because they (the invaders) are more numerous than locusts

And cannot be counted.

²⁴“The Daughter of Egypt has been shamed,
Given over to the power of the people of the north [the Chaldeans of Babylonia].”

²⁵The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says, “Behold, I am going to punish Amon [chief god of the sacred city] of Thebes
[the capital of Upper Egypt], and Pharaoh, and Egypt along with her gods and her kings—even Pharaoh and those who put their trust in him [as a shield against Babylon].

Speak God's Word

I will not fear nor be dismayed, for behold, the Lord will save me. I will be quiet and at ease, and no one will make me afraid.

| adapted from JEREMIAH 46:27 |

²⁶“I will put them into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and into the hand of his servants. Afterward Egypt will be inhabited as in the days of old,” says the LORD.

²⁷“But as for you, do not fear, O My servant Jacob,
Nor be dismayed, O Israel!
For behold, I will save you from [your captivity in] a distant
land,
And your descendants from the land of their exile;
And Jacob will return and be quiet and secure,
And no one will make him afraid.

²⁸“Do not fear, O Jacob My servant,” says the LORD,
“For I am with you.
For I will make a full and complete end of all the nations

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Hope Is Active

Many of God's words through Jeremiah speak of destruction, words that could cause fear or grief in the heart of those for whom they were intended. But Jeremiah 46:27–28 gives words of hope. God is telling them, "Things are going to get better."

When I talk to people about hope, I've discovered that many have a misconception about what hope really is. If we don't understand hope, it's hard to live in the reality of hope. There are people who think that hope is a passive, lazy emotion that doesn't require anything of us. They incorrectly assume that if they sit around passively, just hoping their situations will improve, maybe they will. But hope is not a sit-back-and-do-nothing feeling. It's more than a daydream or a wishful thought.

Hope energizes us and motivates us to believe that God is working on our behalf. It's the happy, confident expectation of good; and that happy, confident expectation of good causes us to step out in faith and to act on any direction God gives us. Hope is too exciting to be passive. Hope believes boldly, decides daringly, speaks firmly, and perseveres passionately.

There is no passivity with hope, because there is no passivity with God. He is always moving and working in your life, and He wants you to believe passionately and move in obedience to Him. A lazy, passive person is not a happy person. When you understand the power of hope, you're expecting something amazing to happen at any moment.

To which I have driven you;
Yet I will not make a full end of you.
But I will discipline and correct you appropriately
And by no means will I declare you guiltless or leave you unpunished.”

47 THE WORD of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines before Pharaoh attacked and conquered [the Philistine city of] Gaza. [Is 14:29–31; Ezek 25:15–17; Amos 1:6–8; Zeph 2:4–7; Zech 9:5–7]

²Thus says the LORD:

“Behold, waters are going to rise out of the north
(Babylonia)
And become an overflowing stream
And overflow the land and all that is in it,
The city and those who live in it.
Then the people will cry out,
And all the inhabitants of the land [of Philistia] will wail.

³“Because of the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of the war-horses [of the Babylonian king],
The rattling of his chariots, and the rumbling of his wheels,
The fathers have not looked and turned back for their children,
So weak are their hands [with terror]

⁴Because of the day that is coming
To destroy all the Philistines
And to cut off from Tyre and Sidon
Every ally who remains.
For the LORD is going to destroy the Philistines,
The remnant [still surviving] of the coastland of Caphtor.
[Amos 9:7]

⁵“Baldness [as a sign of mourning] will come on Gaza;
Ashkelon will be cut off and ruined.
O remnant of their valley,
How long will you gash yourselves [as a sign of mourning]?

⁶“O you sword of the LORD,
How long will it be before you are quiet?
Put yourself into your sheath;
Rest and be still.

⁷“How can His sword be quiet
When the LORD has given it an order?
Against Ashkelon and against the [whole Philistine] seashore
There He has assigned it.”

48 CONCERNING MOAB.

Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “Woe (judgment is coming) to [the city of] Nebo, for it has been destroyed!
Kiriathaim has been shamed, it has been captured;
Misgab [the high fortress] has been shamed, broken down and crushed. [Is 15–16; 25:10–12; Ezek 25:8–11; Amos 2:1–3; Zeph 2:8–11]

2“The glory of Moab is no more;

In Heshbon they planned evil against her,

Saying, ‘Come, let us cut her off from being a nation!’

You also, O [city of] Madmen, shall be silenced;

The sword will pursue you.

3“The sound of an outcry from Horonaim,

‘Desolation and great destruction!’

4“Moab is destroyed;

Her little ones have called out a cry of distress [to be heard as far as Zoar].

5“For the Ascent of Luhith

Will be climbed by [successive groups of] fugitives with continual weeping;

For on the descent of Horonaim

They have heard the distress of the cry of destruction.

6“Run! Save your lives,

That you may be like a juniper in the wilderness.

7“For because you have trusted in your works [your handmade idols] and in your treasures [instead of in God],

Even you yourself will be captured;

And Chemosh [your disgusting god cannot rescue you, but] will go away into exile [along with the fugitives]

Together with his priests and his princes.

8“And the destroyer will come upon every city;

No city will escape.

The [Jordan] valley also will be ruined

And the plain will be devastated,
As the LORD has said.

9“Give a gravestone to Moab,
For she will fall into ruins;
Her cities (pastures, farms) will be desolate,
Without anyone to live in them.

10“Cursed is the one who does the work of the LORD
negligently,
And cursed is the one who restrains his sword from blood
[in executing the judgment of the LORD].

11“Moab has been at ease from his youth;
He has also been undisturbed, and settled like wine on his dregs,
And he has not been emptied from one vessel to another,
Nor has he gone into exile.
Therefore his flavor remains in him,
And his scent has not changed.

12“Therefore behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD,
“when I will send to Moab those who will tip him over and who will empty his vessels and break his [earthenware] jars in pieces.

13“And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh [his worthless, disgusting god], as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their [misplaced] confidence. [1 Kin 12:28, 29]

14“How can you say, ‘We are great warriors
And valiant men in war?’

15“Moab has been made desolate and his cities have gone up

- [in smoke and flame];
And his chosen young men have gone down to the slaughter,”
Says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.
- 16“‘The destruction of Moab will come soon,
And his disaster hurries quickly.
- 17“‘Show sympathy for him, all you [nations] who are around
him,
And all you [distant nations] who know his name;
Say, ‘How has the mighty scepter [of national power] been broken,
And the splendid staff [of glory]!’
- 18“‘Come down from your glory,
O Daughter living in Dibon,
And sit on the parched ground [among the thirsty]!
For the destroyer of Moab has advanced against you;
He has destroyed your strongholds.
- 19“‘O inhabitant of Aroer,
Stand by the road and keep watch!
Ask [of] him who flees and [ask of] her who escapes,
Saying, ‘What has happened?’
- 20“‘Moab is shamed, for she has been broken down and shattered.
Wail and cry out!
Tell by [the banks of] the Arnon
That Moab has been destroyed.
- 21“‘Judgment has come on [the land of] the plain—upon

Holon, Jahzah, and against Mephaath,

²²against Dibon, Nebo, and Beth-diblathaim,

²³against Kiriathaim, Beth-gamul, and Beth-meon,

²⁴against Kerioth, Bozrah and all the cities of the land of Moab, far and near.

²⁵“The horn (strength) of Moab has been cut off and his arm [of authority] is shattered,” says the LORD.

²⁶“Make him drunk, for he has become arrogant and magnified himself against the LORD [by denying Reuben’s occupation of the land the LORD had assigned him]. Moab also will wallow in his vomit, and he too shall become a laughingstock. [Num 22:1–7] ²⁷“For was not Israel a laughingstock to you? Was he caught among thieves? For whenever you speak of him you shake your head in scorn.

²⁸“You inhabitants of Moab,

Leave the cities and live among the rocks,

And be like the dove that makes her nest

In the walls of the yawning ravine.

²⁹“We have heard of the [giddy] pride of Moab, the extremely proud one—

His haughtiness, his arrogance, his conceit, and his self-exaltation.

³⁰“I know his [insolent] wrath,” says the LORD,

“But it is futile;

His idle boasts [in his deeds] have accomplished nothing.

³¹“Therefore I will wail over Moab,

And I will cry out for all Moab.

I will sigh and mourn over the men of Kir-heres (Kir-hareseth). [Is 15:1; 16:7, 11]

³²“O vines of Sibmah, I will weep for you
More than the weeping of Jazer [over its ruins and wasted vineyards].

Your tendrils [of influence] stretched across the sea,
Reaching [even] to the sea of Jazer.

The destroyer has fallen

On your summer fruits and your [season's] crop of grapes.

³³“So joy and gladness are taken away
From the fruitful field and from the land of Moab.
And I have made the wine cease from the wine presses;
No one treads the grapes with shouting.
Their shouting is not joyful shouting [but is instead, a battle cry].

³⁴“From the outcry at Heshbon even to Elealeh, even to Jahaz they have raised their voice, from Zoar even to Horonaim and Eglath-shelishiyah; for even the waters of Nimrim will become desolations.

³⁵“Moreover, I will cause to cease in Moab,” says the LORD, “the one who ascends and offers sacrifice in the high place and the one who burns incense to his gods.

³⁶“Therefore My heart moans and sighs for Moab like flutes, and My heart moans and sighs like flutes for the men of Kir-heres (Kir-hareseth); therefore [the remnant of] the abundant riches they gained has perished.

³⁷“For every head is [shaven] bald and every beard cut off;

there are cuts (slashes) on all the hands and sackcloth on the loins [all expressions of mourning]. [Is 15:2, 3]

³⁸“On all the housetops of Moab and in its streets there is lamentation (expressions of grief for the dead) everywhere, for I have broken Moab like a vessel in which there is no pleasure,” says the LORD.

³⁹“How it is broken down! How they have wailed! How Moab has turned his back in shame! So Moab will become a laughingstock and a [horrifying] terror to all who are around him.”

⁴⁰For thus says the LORD:

“Behold, one (Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon) will fly swiftly like an eagle

And spread out his wings against Moab. [Ezek 17:3]

⁴¹“Kerioth [and the cities] has been taken

And the strongholds seized;

And the hearts of the warriors of Moab in that day

Shall be like the heart of a woman in childbirth.

⁴²“Moab will be destroyed from being a nation (people)

Because he has become arrogant and magnified himself against the LORD.

⁴³“Terror and pit and snare are before you,

O inhabitant of Moab,” says the LORD. [Is 24:7]

⁴⁴“The one who flees from the terror

Will fall into the pit,

And the one who gets up out of the pit

Will be taken and caught in the trap;

For I shall bring upon it, even upon Moab,

The year of their punishment,” says the LORD.

45“In the shadow of Heshbon

The fugitives stand powerless [helpless and without strength],

For a fire has gone out from Heshbon,

A flame from the midst of Sihon;

It has destroyed the forehead of Moab

And the crowns of the heads of [the arrogant Moabites] the ones in tumult.

46“Woe (judgment is coming) to you, O Moab!

The people of [the pagan god called] Chemosh have perished;

For your sons have been taken away captive

And your daughters into captivity.

47“Yet I will return the captives and restore the fortunes of Moab

In the latter days,” says the LORD.

Thus far is the judgment on Moab.

49 CONCERNING THE sons (descendants) of Ammon.

Thus says the LORD:

“Does Israel have no sons [to reclaim Gad from the Ammonites]?

Has he no heir?

Why then has Malcam taken possession of Gad

And [why do] his people live in the cities [of Gad]?

- 2“Therefore behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD,
“When I will cause an alarm of war to be heard Against Rabbah of the Ammonites;
And it [along with the high ground on which it stands] will become a desolate heap,
And its villages will be set on fire.
Then will Israel take possession of his possessors,”
Says the LORD. [Ezek 21:28–32; 25:1–7, 11; Amos 1:13–15;
Zeph 2:8–11]
- 3“Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai [in Ammon] has been destroyed!
Cry out, O daughters of Rabbah!
Wrap yourselves with sackcloth and lament (cry out in grief),
And rush back and forth inside the enclosures;
For Malcam [your powerless god] will go into exile
Together with his priests and his princes.
- 4“Why do you boast of your valleys?
Your valley is flowing away,
[O Ammon] rebellious and faithless daughter
Who trusts in her treasures, saying,
‘Who will come against me?’
- 5“Behold, I am going to bring terror on you,”
Says the Lord GOD of hosts,
“From all who are around you;
And each of you will be driven out headlong,
And there will be no one to gather the fugitives together.
- 6“But afterward I will reverse
The captivity of the children of Ammon and restore their fortunes,”

Says the LORD.

⁷Concerning Edom.

Thus says the LORD of hosts,

“Is there no longer any wisdom in Teman?

Has good counsel vanished from the intelligent and prudent?

Has their wisdom decayed? [Is 34; 63:1–6; Ezek 25:12–14;
35; Amos 1:11, 12; Obad 1–16; Mal 1:2–5]

⁸“Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths [of the desert to escape the judgment of Edom],

O inhabitants of Dedan,

For I will bring the destruction of Esau (Edom) upon him

When I inspect and punish him.

⁹“If grape gatherers came to you,

Would they not leave some ungleaned grapes [on the vines]?

If thieves came by night,

Would they not destroy [only] what is enough [for them]?

¹⁰“But I have stripped Esau (Edom) bare;

I have uncovered his hiding places

And he cannot hide himself.

His descendants have been destroyed along with his brothers (relatives) and his neighbors;

And he is no more.

¹¹“Leave your orphans behind; I will [do what is needed to] keep them alive.

And let [those who are] your widows trust and confide in Me.”

¹²For thus says the LORD, “Behold, those (Israel) who were not sentenced to drink the cup [of wrath] shall certainly drink it, and are you to remain unpunished? You will not be acquitted and go unpunished, but you will certainly drink [from the cup of wrath and judgment]. [Jer 25:28, 29]

¹³“For I have sworn [an oath] by Myself,” says the LORD, “that Bozrah will become an object of horror, a reproach, a ruin, and a curse; and all its cities will become perpetual ruins.”

¹⁴I have heard a report from the LORD,
And a messenger has been sent to the nations, saying,
“Gather together and come against her,
And rise up for the battle.”

¹⁵“For behold, [Edom] I have made you small among the nations
And despised among men. [Ezek 35:9]

¹⁶“As for Your terror,
The pride and arrogance of your heart have deceived you,
O you who live in the clefts of the rock (Sela also called Petra),
Who hold and occupy the height of the hill.
Though you make your nest as high as the eagle’s,
I will bring you down from there,” says the LORD.

¹⁷“Edom will become an object of horror; everyone who goes by it will be astonished and shall hiss [scornfully] at all its plagues and disasters.

¹⁸“As [it was] in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah with their neighboring cities,” says the LORD, “no man will live there, nor will a son of man dwell in it.

¹⁹“See, one will come like a lion from the thicket of the Jordan against the enduring habitation [of Edom] and its watered pastures; for in an instant I will make him (Edom) run from his land. I will appoint over him the one whom I choose. For who is like Me, and who will summon Me [into court] and prosecute Me [for this]? Who is the [earthly] shepherd who can stand [defiantly] before Me?”

²⁰Therefore hear the plan of the LORD which He has devised against Edom, and [hear] what He has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: surely they will be dragged away, even the little ones of the flock; surely He will make their dwelling place desolate because of them.

²¹The earth has quaked at the noise of their downfall. There is an outcry! The sound of its noise has been heard at the Red Sea.

²²Behold, He will mount up and fly swiftly like an eagle and spread His wings against [the city of] Bozrah; and in that day the heart of the mighty warriors of Edom will be like the heart of a woman in childbirth. [Jer 48:41]

²³Concerning Damascus [in Syria].

“Hamath and Arpad are perplexed and shamed,
For they have heard bad news;
They are disheartened;
Troubled and anxious like a [storm-tossed] sea
Which cannot be calmed.

24“Damascus has become helpless;
She has turned away to flee,
Terror (panic) has seized her;
Anguish and distress have gripped her
Like a woman in childbirth.

25“Why has the renowned city not been deserted,
The city of My joy!

26“Therefore, her young men will fall in her streets,
And all her men of war will be destroyed in that day,” says
the LORD of hosts. [Is 17:1–3; Amos 1:3–5; Zech 9:1]

27“I will set fire to the wall of Damascus,
And it will consume the palaces of Ben-hadad.”

28Concerning Kedar and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated. Thus says the LORD, “Arise, go up against Kedar
And destroy the men of the east.

29“They (the Babylonians) will take away their tents and their flocks;
They will carry off for themselves
Their tent curtains, all their goods and their camels,
And they will call out to one another, ‘Terror on every side!’
[Ps 31:13; Jer 6:25; 20:3, 10; 46:5]

30“Flee, run far away! Dwell in the depths [of the desert], O inhabitants of Hazor,” says the LORD,
“For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has planned a course of action against you
And devised a scheme against you.

31“Arise [Nebuchadnezzar], go up against a nation which is at ease,
Which lives securely,” says the LORD,
“A nation which has neither gates nor bars;
They dwell apart and alone.

32“Their camels will become plunder,
And their herds of cattle a spoil;
And I will scatter to all the [four] winds those who cut the corners of their hair [as evidence of their idolatry],
And I will bring their disaster from every side,” says the LORD. [Lev 19:27]

33“Hazor will become a haunt and dwelling place of jackals,
A desolation forever;
No one will live there,
Nor will a son of man reside in it.”

34The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying: 35“Thus says the LORD of hosts,

‘Behold (listen carefully), I am going to break the bow of Elam,

The finest [weapon] of their strength.

36“And I will bring upon Elam the four winds
From the four corners of heaven;
And I will scatter them toward all those winds,
And there will be no nation
To which the outcasts of Elam will not go.

37“So I will cause Elam to be shattered (dismayed) before their

enemies

And before those who seek their lives;

And I will bring disaster on them,

Even My fierce anger,' says the LORD.

'And I will send the sword after them

Until I have consumed them.

³⁸'Then I will set My throne [of judgment] in Elam

And I will destroy from there the king and princes,'

Says the LORD. [Neh 1:1; Esth 1:2; Dan 8:1, 2]

³⁹'But it will be in the last days (the end of days)

That I will reverse the captivity and restore the fortunes of Elam,'"

Says the LORD.

50 THE WORD that the LORD spoke concerning Babylon and concerning the land of the Chaldeans through Jeremiah the prophet: [Is 13:1–14:23; 47; Hab 1:1, 2]

²'Declare among the nations.

Lift up a signal [to spread the news]—publish and proclaim
it,

Do not conceal it; say,

'Babylon has been taken,

Bel [the patron god] has been shamed, Marduk (Bel) has been shattered.

Babylon's images have been shamed, her [worthless] idols have been thrown down.'

³“For out of the north a nation (Media) has come against her which will make her land desolate, and no one will live there. They have fled, they have gone away—both man and animal.

⁴“In those days and at that time,” says the LORD, “the children of Israel will come, they and the children of Judah together; they will come up weeping [in repentance] as they come and seek the LORD their God [inquiring for and of Him].

⁵“They will ask the way to Zion, with their faces in that direction, saying, ‘Come, let us join ourselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten.’

⁶“My people have become lost sheep;
Their shepherds have led them astray.
They have made them turn aside [to the seductive places of idolatry] on the mountains.
They have gone along [from one sin to another] from mountain to hill;
They have forgotten their [own] resting place. [Is 53:6; 1 Pet 2:25]

⁷“All who found them have devoured them;
And their adversaries have said, ‘We are not guilty,
Because they have sinned against the LORD [and are no longer holy to Him], their [true] habitation of righteousness and justice, Even the LORD, the [confident] hope of their fathers.’

⁸“Wander away from the midst of Babylon
And go out of the land of the Chaldeans;
Be like the male goats [who serve as leaders] at the head of the flocks. [Jer 51:6, 9, 45; 2 Cor 6:17; Rev 18:4]

9“For behold, I will stir up and bring up against Babylon
An assembly of great nations from the north country.
They will equip themselves and set up the battle lines against her;

From there she will be taken captive.
Their arrows will be like an expert warrior
Who will not return empty-handed.

10“Chaldea will become plunder;
All who plunder her will be satisfied,” says the LORD.

11“Though you are glad, though you rejoice,
O you who plunder My heritage,
Though you are wanton and skip about like a heifer in the grass
And neigh like stallions,

12Your mother [Babylon] shall be greatly shamed;
She who gave you birth will be ashamed.
Behold, she will be the least of the nations,
A wilderness, a parched land and a desert.

13“Because of the wrath of the LORD she will not be inhabited
But she will be completely desolate;
Everyone who goes by Babylon will be appalled
And will hiss (mock) at all her wounds and plagues.

14“Set yourselves in battle formation against Babylon on every side,
All you archers.
Shoot at her! Do not spare the arrows,

For she has sinned against the LORD.

¹⁵“Raise the battle cry against her on every side!

She has given her hand [in agreement] and has surrendered; her pillars have fallen,

Her walls have been torn down.

For this is the vengeance of the LORD:

Take vengeance on her;

As she has done [to others], do to her.

¹⁶“Cut off the sower from Babylon

And the one who handles the sickle at the time of harvest.

For fear of the sword of the oppressor

Everyone will return to his own people

And everyone will flee to his own land.

¹⁷“Israel is a hunted and scattered flock [driven here and there as prey]; the lions have chased them away. First the king of Assyria devoured him, and now at last Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken (gnawed) his bones.

¹⁸“Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ‘Behold, I will visit (inspect, examine) and punish the king of Babylon and his land, just as I visited and punished the king of Assyria.

¹⁹“And I will bring Israel [home] again to his pasture and he will graze on [the most fertile lands of] Carmel [in the west] and Bashan [in the east], and his soul will be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and Gilead.

²⁰“In those days and at that time,’ says the LORD, ‘a search will be made for the wickedness of Israel, but there will be none and for the sins of Judah, but none will be found, for I will pardon those whom I leave as a remnant.’ [Is 1:9; 43:25; Jer 31:34; 33:8; Rom 9:27]

21“Go against [Babylon] the land of Merathaim (Double Rebellion),

Go up against it and against the people of Pekod (Punishment).

Kill and utterly destroy them,” says the LORD,

“And do everything that I have commanded you.”

22“The noise of battle is in the land,

And [the noise of] great destruction.

23“How the hammer of the whole earth

Is crushed and broken!

How Babylon has become

A horror [of desolation] among the nations!

24“I set a trap for you and you also were caught, O Babylon,

And you did not know it;

You have been found and also seized

Because you have struggled against the LORD.”

25The LORD has opened His armory

And has brought out [the nations who unknowingly are] the weapons of His indignation (wrath),

For it is a work of the Lord GOD of hosts

In the land of the Chaldeans.

26Come against her from the farthest border.

Open her storehouses;

Pile it up like heaps of rubbish.

Burn and destroy her completely;

Let nothing be left of her.

- ²⁷ Kill all her young bulls [her strength—her young men];
Let them go down to the slaughter!
Woe (judgment is coming) to the Chaldeans, for their day has come,
The time of their punishment.

- ²⁸ Listen to the voice of the refugees who flee and escape from the land of Babylon,
Proclaiming in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God,
The vengeance [of the LORD against the Chaldeans] for [plundering and destroying] His temple.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God Redeems the Past

Many people are stuck in their past. If they have done something bad or if something negative has happened to them, they may believe (think) they can never get beyond it. This is exactly what the devil wants them to believe (think). According to God's Word, it is not true. We can recover from bad things in our past, and God will even work good out of those things (see Rom. 8:28).

God is our Redeemer, which means He takes what is bad in us or in our lives and turns it into something beautiful. Even when God's people were held in captivity, Jeremiah could say, "Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD of hosts is His name. He will most certainly... defend their cause" (Jer. 50:34). No matter what you did or what was done to you in the past, start saying, "I am forgiven, God has a good plan for my life, and I will never look back."

29 "Call together many [archers] against Babylon,
All those who bend the bow.
Encamp against her on every side;
Let no one from there escape.
Repay her according to her actions;
Just as she has done, do to her.
For she has been proudly defiant and presumptuous against the LORD,

Against the Holy One of Israel.

³⁰“Therefore her young men will fall in her streets,
And all her soldiers will be destroyed on that day,” says the
LORD.

³¹“Behold, I am against you, [O Babylon, you] arrogant one,
[you who are pride and presumption personified],”
Says the Lord GOD of hosts,
“For your day has come,
The time when I will punish you.

Speak God's Word

My Redeemer is strong. The Lord of hosts is His name. He will most certainly plead my case and defend my cause.

| adapted from JEREMIAH 50:34 |

32“The arrogant (proud) one will stumble and fall
With no one to raise him up;
And I will set fire to his cities
And it will devour all who are around him.”

33Thus says the LORD of hosts,
“The children of Israel are oppressed,
And the children of Judah as well;
And all who took them captive have held them tightly,
They have refused to let them go.

34“Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD of hosts is His name.
He will most certainly plead their case and defend their cause
So that He may bring rest to their land,
But turmoil to the inhabitants of Babylon.

35“A sword against the Chaldeans,” says the LORD,

- “And against the inhabitants of Babylon
And against her princes (officials, civic rulers) and against her wise men (astrologers, religious rulers)!
- 36“ A sword against the oracle priests (the babbling liars), and they will become fools!
A sword against her mighty warriors, and they will be shattered and destroyed!
- 37“ A sword against their horses and against their chariots
And against all the foreign troops that are in her midst,
And they will become [as weak and defenseless as] women!
A sword against her treasures, and they will be plundered!
- 38“ A drought on her waters, and they will dry up!
For it is a land of [worthless] idols,
And they are mad over fearsome idols [those objects of terror in which they foolishly trust].
- 39“ Therefore wild beasts of the desert will live there [in Babylon] with the jackals;
The ostriches also will live there,
And it will never again be inhabited [with people]
Or lived in from generation to generation. [Is 13:20–22]
- 40“ As when God overthrew Sodom
And Gomorrah and their neighboring cities,” says the LORD,
“So no man will live there;
Nor shall any son of man live there.” [Jer 49:18]
- 41“ Behold, a people is coming from the north,
And a great nation and many kings
Will be stirring from the remote parts of the earth.

- ⁴²“They seize their bow and spear;
They are cruel and have no compassion.
They sound like the roaring of the sea;
They ride on horses,
Every man equipped like a man [ready] for the battle Against you, O Daughter of Babylon.
- ⁴³“The king of Babylon has heard the report about them,
And his hands fall limp and helpless;
Anguish has seized him,
And agony like that of a woman in childbirth.

⁴⁴“See, one will come up like a lion from the thicket of the Jordan against the enduring habitation [of Babylon] and its watered pastures; for in an instant I will make Babylon run from his land. I will appoint over Babylon the one whom I choose. For who is like Me, and who will summon Me [into court] and prosecute Me [for this]? Who is the [earthly] shepherd who can stand [defiantly] before Me?” [Jer 49:19]

⁴⁵Therefore hear the plan of the LORD which He has devised against Babylon, and hear what He has purposed against [the inhabitants of the land of] the Chaldeans: surely they will be dragged away, [even] the little ones of the flock; surely He will make their habitation desolate because of them.

⁴⁶At the shout, “Babylon has been seized!” the earth quakes, and an outcry is heard among the nations.

51 THUS SAYS the LORD:

“Behold, I am going to stir up and put into action [a fury]

against Babylon

And against the [rebellious] people of Leb-kamai (Chaldea)
A destroying wind and hostile spirit;

²“And I will send foreigners to Babylon that they may winnow her

And may devastate and empty her land;

For in the day of destruction

They will be against her on every side.

³“Do not let him (the Chaldean defender) who bends his bow bend it,

Nor let him rise up in his coat of armor.

So do not spare her young men;

Devote her entire army to destruction.

⁴“They shall fall down dead in the land of the Chaldeans,
And wounded in her streets.”

⁵For neither Israel nor Judah has been abandoned

By his God, the LORD of hosts,

Though their land is full of sin and guilt

Before the Holy One of Israel.

⁶Flee out of Babylon,

Let every one of you save his life!

Do not be destroyed in her punishment,

For this is the time of the LORD’s vengeance;

He is going to pay her what she has earned. [Jer 50:28; 2 Cor
6:17; Rev 18:4]

⁷Babylon has been a golden cup in the LORD’s hand,
Intoxicating all the earth.

The nations drank her wine;
Therefore the nations have gone mad. [Rev 14:8; 17:4]

⁸Babylon has suddenly fallen and is shattered!

Wail for her [if you care to]!

Get balm for her [incurable] pain;

Perhaps she may be healed. [Jer 25:15; Rev 14:8–10; 16:19;
18:2, 3]

⁹We would have healed Babylon, but she was not to be healed.

Abandon her and let each [captive] return to his own country,

For her guilt and judgment have reached to heaven

And are lifted up to the very skies. [Gen 18:20, 21]

¹⁰The LORD has brought about our vindication and has revealed the righteousness of our cause;

Come and let us proclaim in Zion

The work of the LORD our God!

¹¹Sharpen the arrows, take up the shields [and cover yourselves]!

The LORD has stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes,

Because His purpose concerning Babylon is to destroy it;

For that is the vengeance of the LORD, vengeance [on Babylon] for [plundering and destroying] His temple.

¹²Set up a signal on the walls of Babylon [to spread the news];

Post a strong blockade,

Station the guards,
Prepare the men for ambush!
For the LORD has both purposed and done
That which He spoke against the people of Babylon.

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*I worship You, Lord, because
You have made the earth by Your power. You have established the world by Your wisdom and stretched out the heavens by Your
understanding.*

• adapted from Jeremiah 51:15

¹³[O Babylon] you who live by many waters,
Rich in treasures,
Your end has come,
And the line measuring your life is cut. [Rev 17:1–6]

¹⁴The LORD of hosts has sworn [an oath] by Himself, saying,
“Surely I will fill you with men, as with [a swarm of] locusts
[who strip the land clean],
And they will lift up a song and shout of victory over you.”

¹⁵He made the earth by His power;
He established the world by His wisdom
And stretched out the heavens by His understanding.

¹⁶When He utters His voice, there is a tumult of waters in the
heavens,
And He causes the clouds to ascend from the ends of the earth.
He makes lightnings for the rain
And brings out the wind from His storehouses.

¹⁷Every man has become stupid and brutelike, without knowledge [of God];
Every goldsmith is shamed by the cast images he has made;
For his molten idols are a lie,
And there is no breath [of life] or spirit in them.

¹⁸They are worthless (empty, false, futile), a work of delusion and worthy of derision;
In the time of their inspection and punishment they will perish.

¹⁹The Portion of Jacob [the true God of Israel] is not like these [handmade gods];
For He is the Maker of all and the One who formed and fashioned all things,
And Israel is the tribe of His inheritance—

The LORD of hosts is His name. [Jer 10:12–16]

20“You [Cyrus of Persia, soon to conquer Babylon] are My battle-axe and weapon of war—

For with you I shatter nations,

With you I destroy kingdoms.

21“With you I shatter the horse and his rider,

With you I shatter the chariot and its driver,

22With you I shatter man and woman,

With you I shatter old man and youth,

With you I shatter young man and virgin,

23With you I shatter the shepherd and his flock,

With you I shatter the farmer and his yoke of oxen,

And with you I shatter governors and commanders.

24“And I will [completely] repay Babylon and all the people of Chaldea for all the evil that they have done in Zion—before your very eyes [I will do it],” says the LORD.

25“Behold, I am against you,

O destroying mountain [conqueror of nations],

Who destroys the whole earth,” declares the LORD,

“I will stretch out My hand against you,

And roll you down from the [rugged] cliffs,

And will make you a burnt mountain (extinct volcano).

26“They will not take from you [even] a stone for a cornerstone

Nor any rock for a foundation,

But you will be desolate forever,” says the LORD.

27Lift up a signal in the land [to spread the news]!

Blow the trumpet among the nations!
Dedicate the nations [for war] against her;
Call against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.

Appoint a marshal against her;
Cause the horses to come up like bristly locusts [with their wings not yet released from their cases].

²⁸Prepare and dedicate the nations for war against her—
The kings of Media,
With their governors and commanders,
And every land of their dominion.

²⁹The land trembles and writhes [in pain and sorrow],
For the purposes of the LORD against Babylon stand,
To make the land of Babylon
A desolation without inhabitants.

³⁰The mighty warriors of Babylon have ceased to fight;
They remain in their strongholds.
Their strength and power have failed;
They are becoming [weak and helpless] like women.
Their dwelling places are set on fire;
The bars on her gates are broken.

³¹One courier runs to meet another,
And one messenger to meet another,
To tell the king of Babylon
That his city has been captured from end to end;

³²And that the fords [across the Euphrates] have been blocked and [the ferries] seized,
And they have set the [great] marshes on fire,

And the men of war are terrified.

³³For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

“The Daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor
At the time it is being trampled and prepared;
Yet in a little while the time of harvest will come for her.”

³⁴“Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has devoured me, he has crushed me,
He has set me down like an empty vessel.
Like a monster he has swallowed me up,
He has filled his belly with my delicacies;
He has spit me out and washed me away.

³⁵“May the violence done to me and to my flesh and blood be upon Babylon,”
The inhabitant of Zion will say;
And, “May my blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea,”
Jerusalem will say.

³⁶Therefore thus says the LORD,
“Behold, I will plead your case
And take full vengeance for you;
I will dry up her sea and great reservoir
And make her fountain dry.

³⁷“Babylon will become a heap [of ruins], a haunt and dwelling place of jackals,
An object of horror (an astonishing desolation) and a hissing [of scorn and amazement], without inhabitants.

³⁸“They (the Chaldean lords) will be roaring together [before their sudden capture] like young lions [roaring over their prey],

They (the princes) will be growling like lions' cubs.

39“When they are inflamed [with wine and lust during their drinking bouts], I will prepare them a feast [of My wrath] And make them drunk, that they may rejoice And may sleep a perpetual sleep And not wake up,” declares the LORD.

40“I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, Like rams together with male goats.

41“How Sheshak (Babylon) has been captured, And the praise of the whole earth been seized! How Babylon has become an astonishing desolation and an object of horror among the nations!

42“The sea has come up over Babylon; She has been engulfed with its tumultuous waves.

43“Her cities have become an astonishing desolation and an object of horror, A parched land and a desert, A land in which no one lives, And through which no son of man passes.

44“I will punish and judge Bel [the handmade god] in Babylon And take out of his mouth what he has swallowed up [the stolen sacred articles and the captives of Judah and elsewhere].

The nations will no longer flow to him.

Yes, the wall of Babylon has fallen down!

- 45“Come out of her midst, My people,
And each of you [escape and] save yourself
From the fierce anger of the LORD. [Jer 50:8; 2 Cor 6:17; Rev
18:4]
- 46“Now beware so that you do not lose heart,
And so that you are not afraid at the rumor that will be heard in the land—
For the rumor shall come one year,
And after that another rumor in another year,
And violence shall be in the land,
Ruler against ruler—
- 47“Therefore behold (listen carefully), the days are coming
When I will judge and punish the idols of Babylon;
Her whole land will be perplexed and shamed,
And all her slain will fall in her midst.
- 48“Then heaven and earth and all that is in them
Will shout and sing for joy over Babylon,
For the destroyers will come against her from the north,”
Says the LORD. [Is 44:23; Jer 51:11; Rev 12:12; 18:20]
- 49Indeed Babylon is to fall for the slain of Israel,
As also for Babylon the slain of all the earth have fallen.
- 50You who have escaped the sword,
Go away! Do not stay!
Remember the LORD from far away,
And let [desolate] Jerusalem come into your mind.
- 51We are perplexed and ashamed, for we have heard reproach;
Disgrace has covered our faces,

For foreigners [from Babylon] have come Into the [most] sacred parts of the sanctuary of the LORD [even those places forbidden to all but the appointed priest].

52“Therefore behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD,
“When I will judge and punish the idols [of Babylon],
And throughout her land the mortally wounded will groan.”

53“Though Babylon should ascend to the heavens,
And though she should fortify her lofty stronghold,
Yet destroyers will come on her from Me,” says the LORD.

54The sound of an outcry [comes] from Babylon,
And [the sound] of great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans!

55For the LORD is going to destroy Babylon and make her a ruin,
And He will still her great voice [that hums with city life].
And the waves [of her conquerors] roar like great waters,
The noise of their voices is raised up [like the marching of an army].

56For the destroyer is coming against her, against Babylon;
And her mighty warriors will be captured,
Their bows are shattered;
For the LORD is a God of [just] restitution;
He will fully repay.

57“I will make her princes and her wise men drunk,
Her governors and her commanders and her mighty warriors;

They will sleep a perpetual sleep and not wake up,”
Says the King—the LORD of hosts is His name.

⁵⁸Thus says the LORD of hosts,

“The broad wall of Babylon will be completely overthrown and the foundations razed
And her high gates will be set on fire;
The peoples will labor in vain,
And the nations become exhausted [only] for fire [that will destroy their work].” [Hab 2:13]

⁵⁹The message which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the grandson of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now this Seraiah was chief chamberlain or quartermaster [and brother of Baruch].

⁶⁰So Jeremiah wrote in a single scroll all the disaster which would come on Babylon, [that is] all these words which have been written concerning Babylon.

⁶¹Then Jeremiah said to Seraiah, “When you come to Babylon, see to it that you read all these words aloud,

⁶²and say, ‘You, O LORD, have promised concerning this place to cut it off and destroy it, so that there shall be nothing living in it, neither man nor animal, but it will be perpetually desolate.’

⁶³“And as soon as you finish reading this scroll, you shall tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates.

⁶⁴“Then say, ‘In the same way Babylon will sink down and not rise because of the disaster that I will bring on her; and the Babylonians will become [hopelessly] exhausted.’” Thus the words of Jeremiah are completed. [Rev 18:21]

52 ZEDEKIAH WAS twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. [2 Kin 24:18–25:21]

²He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD like all that Jehoiakim had done.

³For all this came about in Jerusalem and Judah because of the anger of the LORD, and [in the end] He cast them from His presence. And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

⁴Now it came about in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem; and they camped against it and built moveable towers and siege mounds all around it. [Jer 39:1–10]

⁵So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. [2 Chr 36:11–13]

⁶In the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the famine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

⁷Then the city was broken into, and all the soldiers fled. They left the city at night [as Ezekiel prophesied] passing through the gate between the two walls by the king's garden, though the Chaldeans were all around the city. They fled by way of the Arabah (the Jordan Valley). [Ezek 12:12]

⁸But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and his entire army was scattered from him.

⁹Then they seized the king and brought him to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the [Syrian] land of Hamath [on the northern border of Israel], where he pronounced sentence on him.

¹⁰The king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes; he also killed all the princes of Judah at Riblah.

¹¹Then the king of Babylon blinded Zedekiah, bound him with bronze shackles and took him to Babylon and there he put him in prison [in a mill] until the day of his death. [Ezek 12:13]

¹²Now in the fifth month, on the tenth day, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan captain of the guard, who served the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

¹³He burned down the house of the LORD and the king's palace and all the houses of Jerusalem; every great house or important structure he set on fire.

¹⁴So all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down all the walls around Jerusalem.

¹⁵Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took away into exile some of the poorest of the people, those who were left in the city [at the time it was captured], along with those who deserted to join the king of Babylon [during the siege] and the rest of the artisans.

¹⁶But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and farmers.

¹⁷Now the Chaldeans broke into pieces the pillars of bronze which belonged to the house of the LORD, and the bronze pedestals [which supported the ten basins] and the [enormous] bronze Sea, which were in the house of the LORD, and carried all the bronze to Babylon.

¹⁸They also took away the pots [for carrying away ashes] and the shovels and the snuffers and the bowls and the spoons and all the bronze articles used in the temple service.

¹⁹The captain of the guard also took away the [small] bowls and the firepans and the basins and the pots and the lampstands and the incense cups and the bowls for the drink offerings—whatever was made of fine gold and whatever was made of fine silver.

²⁰The two pillars, the one [enormous] Sea (basin), and the twelve bronze bulls under the Sea, and the stands, which King Solomon had made for the house of the LORD—the bronze of all these things was beyond weighing.

²¹Concerning the pillars, the height of each pillar was eighteen cubits (twenty-seven feet), and a line [an ornamental molding] of twelve cubits (eighteen feet) went around its circumference; it was four fingers thick, and [the pillar was] hollow.

²²A capital of bronze was on [top of] it. The height of each capital was five cubits (seven and one-half feet), with a lattice-work and pomegranates around it, all of bronze. The second pillar also, with its pomegranates, was similar to these.

²³There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; and a hundred pomegranates were on the lattice-work all around.

²⁴Then the captain of the guard took [as prisoners] Seraiah the chief priest and Zephaniah the second priest and the three doorkeepers.

²⁵He also took out of the city one official who was overseer of the soldiers, and seven of the king's advisers who were found in the city, and the scribe of the commander of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men who were still in the city.

²⁶Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

²⁷Then the king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was led away into exile from its own land.

²⁸This is the number of people whom Nebuchadnezzar took captive and exiled: in the seventh year, 3,023 Jews;

²⁹in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar, [he took captive] 832 persons from Jerusalem;

³⁰in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan the captain of the [Babylonian] guard took captive 745 Jewish people; there were 4,600 persons in all.

³¹Now it came about in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin [also called Coniah and Jeconiah] king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth of the month, Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, showed favor to Jehoiachin king of Judah and brought him out of prison. [2 Kin 25:27–30]

³²He spoke kindly to him and gave him a throne above the thrones of the kings who were [captives] with him in Babylon.

³³Jehoiachin changed his prison clothes, and he dined regularly at the king's table all the days of his life.

³⁴And his allowance, a regular allowance was given to him by the king of Babylon, a daily portion [according to his needs] until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

Speak God's Word

*Thank you, Lord God, that
You have made the earth by
Your power and established the world by Your wisdom.
You have stretched out the heavens by Your
understanding.*

Lamentations

Author: |
Traditionally, Jeremiah
Date: | 587 BC

The book of Lamentations was written during a time of great suffering in Judah, during and following the period when the Babylonians destroyed much of Jerusalem, razed the temple, and took the people of Judah captive. These lamentations are poems expressing the sadness and grief of that season.

Until Lamentations 3:17, the writer of Lamentations has his mind set on the devastation of Jerusalem. Then, in verse 21, he chooses to change his mind and begin thinking of God's lovingkindnesses.

No matter what you may go through or how difficult it may be, if you will follow the writer's example and shift your focus from the bad things that are happening onto the love and kindness of the Lord, you'll be on your way to victory.

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM LAMENTATIONS:

When you pray or talk to God, feel free to express yourself fully to the Him (see Lamentations 2:19).

Seek God and wait confidently for Him, and you will experience His goodness in a powerful way (see Lamentations 3:25).

When you are afraid and you call out to God, He draws near and says, “Do not fear” (see Lamentations 3:57).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM LAMENTATIONS:

His [tender] compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great and beyond measure is Your faithfulness. |
Lamentations 3:22–23

I have hope in Him and wait expectantly for Him. |
Lamentations 3:24

Let us test and examine our ways, and let us return to the LORD. Let us lift up our hearts and our hands [in prayer] toward God in heaven. | Lamentations 3:40–41

LAMENTATIONS
OF JEREMIAH

- 1 HOW SOLITARY and lonely sits the city [Jerusalem]
That was [once] full of people!
How like a widow she has become.
She who was great among the nations!
The princess among the provinces,
Has become a forced laborer!
- ² She weeps bitterly in the night
And her tears are [constantly] on her cheeks;
Among all her lovers (political allies)
She has no one to comfort her.
All her friends have dealt treacherously with her;
They have become her enemies. [Jer 3:1; 4:30]
- ³ Judah has gone into exile under affliction And under harsh servitude;
She dwells among the [pagan] nations,
But she has found no rest;
All her pursuers have overtaken her
In the midst of [her] distress.
- ⁴ The roads to Zion are in mourning
Because no one comes to the appointed feasts.

All her gates are desolate;
Her priests are groaning,
Her virgins are grieved and suffering,
And she suffers bitterly.

⁵Her adversaries have become her masters, Her enemies prosper;
For the LORD has caused her grief Because of the multitude of her transgressions;
Her young children have gone
Into captivity before the enemy. [Jer 30:14, 15; 52:28; Dan 9:7–14]

⁶All her beauty and majesty
Have departed from the Daughter of Zion (Jerusalem).
Her princes have become like deer
That have found no pasture;
They have fled without strength
Before the pursuer.

⁷In the days of her affliction and homelessness Jerusalem remembers all her precious things
That she had from the days of old,
When her people fell into the hand of the adversary, And no one helped her,
The enemy saw her,
They mocked at her downfall.

⁸Jerusalem sinned greatly;
Therefore she has become an unclean thing [and has been removed].
All who honored her [now] despise her

Because they have seen her nakedness;
Even she herself groans and turns [her face] away.

⁹Her (ceremonial) uncleanness was on her skirts; She did not [seriously] consider her future.

Therefore she has come down [from throne to slavery] in an astonishing manner; She has no comforter.

“O LORD” [cries Jerusalem], “look at my affliction, For the enemy has magnified himself [in triumph]!”

¹⁰The adversary has spread out his hand
Over all her precious and desirable things; For she has seen the [Gentile] nations enter her sanctuary (the Jerusalem temple)—

Speak God's Word

I will stand against the adversary when he stretches out his hand against the people and things that are precious and desirable to me.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Trusting Without Understanding

With Jerusalem in utter ruins, Jeremiah paints a desolate picture of the city's "hopelessly miserable" state (see Lam. 1:13). When we feel hopeless, everything else about us seems miserable. And the longer we are hopeless, the more negative we become.

I find it amazing that we have the power to change the negatives we feel, negatives we may pass along to others unintentionally, simply by choosing to see things the way God does. We should not deny our circumstances, but neither should we give them permission to control our attitudes and behavior. God has given us power, and we can live above our circumstances if we choose to have a hopeful, positive perspective. You don't have to wait to feel hopeful; you can think hopeful thoughts and your feelings will follow.

If you decide to view "problems" in a positive way, someone may say that you aren't being realistic. Someone may even say, "Don't be so childish," but we need childlike faith if we intend to enjoy the life God offers us. The good thing about faith is that it keeps you joyful and energized while you are trusting God to change your current reality.

We experience two types of faith in life, and we need both of them. One type of faith asks for and receives an immediate pleasurable answer, and we get very excited. The second type of faith doesn't receive the answer it had hoped for, but continues to believe that God is good and that He is working in ways that cannot yet be seen. I believe that this is the greater faith. We don't get to choose which way God will work. At times He delivers us from something difficult, and at other times He gives us grace to go through it with a good attitude. What God allows us to go through is His decision and His alone, because He knows and understands things that we don't.

When we are in the midst of difficulty, the situation may make no sense at all; yet later on, we may look back and understand that God's choice was better for us than what we would have chosen. There is also the possibility that we will never have a full understanding about a painful situation, but we do have the privilege of trusting God—and that gives us peace and joy.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord God, there are circumstances in my life that I can't control or change, but I put my faith in You to deal with them in Your time and according to Your will. I will continue to hope in You, knowing that You will do what is best. Thank You! Amen.

The ones whom You commanded
That they should not enter into Your congregation [not even in the outer courts]. [Deut 23:3; Jer 51:51; Ezek 44:7, 9]

¹¹ All her people groan, seeking bread;
They have exchanged their desirable and precious things for food To restore their lives.
“See, O LORD, and consider How despised and repulsive I have become!”

¹² “Is it nothing to you, all you who pass this way?
Look and see if there is any pain like my pain
Which was severely dealt out to me,
Which the LORD has inflicted [on me] on the day of His fierce anger.

¹³ “From on high He sent fire into my bones, And it prevailed over them.
He has spread a net for my feet;
He has turned me back.
He has made me desolate and hopelessly miserable, Faint all the day long.

¹⁴ “The yoke of my transgressions is bound; By His hand they are knit and woven together.
They have come upon my neck.
He has made my strength fail;
The Lord has put me into the hand
Of those against whom I cannot stand. [Deut 28:48]

¹⁵ “The Lord has rejected all the strong men In my midst;

He has proclaimed an established time against me
To crush my young men.
The Lord has trampled down as in a wine press
The Virgin Daughter of Judah.

16“ I weep for these things;
My eyes overflow with tears,
Because a comforter,
One who could restore my soul, is far away from me.
My children are desolate and perishing,
For the enemy has prevailed.” [Lam 1:21]

17 Zion stretches out her hands,
But there is no comforter for her.
The LORD has commanded concerning Jacob That his neighbors should be his enemies;
Jerusalem has become a filthy thing [an object of contempt] among them.

18“ The LORD is righteous and just; For I have rebelled against His commandment (His word).
Hear now, all you peoples,
And look at my pain;
My virgins and my young men
Have gone into captivity.

19“ I [Jerusalem] called to my lovers (political allies), but they deceived me.
My priests and my elders perished in the city
While they looked for food to restore their strength.

20“ See, O LORD, how distressed I am!
My spirit is deeply disturbed;

My heart is overturned within me and cannot rest, For I have been very rebellious.

In the street the sword kills and bereaves; In the house there is [famine, disease and] death!

²¹“People have heard that I groan,
That I have no comforter [in You].
All my enemies have heard of my desperation;
They are delighted [O LORD] that You have done it.
Oh, that You would bring the day [of judgment] which You have proclaimed So that they will become like me. [Is 14:5, 6; Jer 30:16]

²²“Let all their wickedness come before You; And deal with them as You have dealt with me
Because of all my transgressions;
For my groans are many and my heart is faint.”

2 HOW THE Lord has covered the Daughter of Zion

(Jerusalem) With a cloud in His anger!

He has cast down from heaven to the earth

The glory and splendor of Israel

And has not remembered His footstool In the day of His anger.

²The Lord has swallowed up; He has not spared All the country places of Jacob.

In His wrath He has thrown down

The strongholds of the Daughter of Judah (Jerusalem).

He has brought them down to the ground [in disgrace]; He has debased the kingdom and its princes.

³In fierce anger He has cut off and destroyed Every horn of Israel.

He has withdrawn His right hand

From the presence of the enemy.

And He has burned in Jacob like a flaming fire

Consuming all around.

⁴He has bent His bow like an enemy;

He has set His right hand like an adversary

And slain all that were delightful and pleasing to the eye; In the tent of the Daughter of Zion

He has poured out His wrath like fire.

⁵The Lord has become like an enemy;

He has swallowed up Israel.

He has swallowed up all its palaces;

He has destroyed its strongholds

And multiplied in the Daughter of Judah

Mourning and lamentation (expressions of grief).

⁶And He has violently broken down His temple like a [fragile] garden hedge;

He has destroyed His appointed meeting place.

The LORD has caused the appointed feast and Sabbath To be forgotten in Zion

And has despised and rejected the king and the priest In the indignation of His anger.

⁷The Lord has rejected His altar;

He has abandoned His sanctuary.

He has given into the hand of the enemy

The walls of her palaces;
They have made a noise in the house of the LORD
As on a day of an appointed feast.

⁸The LORD determined to lay in ruins The [city] wall of the Daughter of Zion.

He has stretched out a line,
He has not stopped His hand from destroying.
He has caused the rampart and the wall to lament (mourn in grief); They have languished together.

⁹Her gates have sunk into the ground;
He has destroyed and broken her bars.
Her king and her princes are [exiled] among the nations; The law is no more.

Also, her prophets no longer find
Vision from the LORD.

¹⁰The elders of the Daughter of Zion
Sit on the ground keeping silent;
They have thrown dust on their heads,
They have covered themselves with sackcloth.
The virgins of Jerusalem
Have bowed their heads to the ground.

¹¹My eyes fail because of tears [mourns Jeremiah], My spirit is deeply disturbed;
My heart is poured out on the earth [in grief]
Because of the destruction of the daughter of my people
[Jerusalem],

POWERPOINT

In Lamentations 2:13, Jeremiah wants to comfort Jerusalem. God promises to comfort us in our pain and difficulty as we go through life, and we should ask Him to do so. James 4:3 says we do not have certain things because we do not ask for them.

We cannot assume the promises of God are ours; we should ask for and receive them by faith. Ask God to comfort you when you are hurting, and then trust Him to do it. He may give you comfort through sending someone to encourage you, or through a message you hear, or a book you read. The Holy Spirit is “the Comforter,” and He is with us all the time!

When little ones and infants faint In the streets of the city.

¹²They cry to their mothers,

“Where is grain and wine?”

As they faint like a wounded man

In the streets of the city,

As their life [slips away and] is poured out

In their mothers’ arms.

¹³How shall I console you?

To what shall I compare you,

O Daughter of Jerusalem?

With what shall I compare you, so that I may comfort you, O

Virgin Daughter of Zion?

For your ruin is as vast as the sea;
Who can heal you? [Lam 1:12; Dan 9:12]

¹⁴Your prophets have seen (imagined) for you False and foolish visions;
And they have not exposed your wickedness
To restore you from captivity [by teaching you to repent],
But they have seen (imagined) and declared to you false and misleading oracles.

¹⁵All who pass along the way
Clap their hands in derision at you;
They scoff and shake their heads
At the Daughter of Jerusalem, saying,
“Is this the city that was called
‘The perfection of beauty,
The joy of all the earth’?”

¹⁶All your enemies
Have opened their mouths wide against you;
They [scornfully] hiss and gnash their teeth.
They say, “We have swallowed her up!
Certainly this is the day for which we waited;
We have reached it, we have seen it!”

¹⁷The LORD has done what He planned; He has accomplished
His word
Which He commanded from days of old.
He has demolished without sparing,
And He has caused the enemy to rejoice over you;
He has exalted the power of your enemies. [Lev 26:14–39;
Deut 28:15–68]

¹⁸Their hearts cried out to the Lord.

“O wall of the Daughter of Zion,
Let your tears run down like a river day and night; Give yourself no relief,
Let your eyes have no rest.

¹⁹“Arise, cry aloud in the night,
At the beginning of the night watches;
Pour out your heart like water
Before the presence of the Lord;
Lift up your hands to Him
For the life of your little ones
Who are faint from hunger
At the head of every street.” [Ps 62:8]

²⁰See, O LORD, and look!
With whom have You dealt this way?
Should women eat their offspring,
The little ones who were born healthy and beautiful?
Should priest and prophet be killed
In the sanctuary of the Lord?

²¹The young and the old
Lie on the ground in the streets;
My virgins and my young men
Have fallen by the sword.
You have killed them in the day of Your anger,
You have slaughtered, not sparing.

²²You [LORD] called as in the day of an appointed feast My terrors (dangers) on every side;
And there was no one who escaped or survived

In the day of the LORD's anger.
Those I have cared for and brought up with tenderness, My enemy annihilated them.

3 I AM [Jeremiah] the man who has seen affliction Because of the rod of His wrath.

²He has led me and made me walk
In darkness and not in light.

³Surely He has turned His hand against me Repeatedly all the day.

⁴He has caused my flesh and my skin to waste away; He has shattered my bones.

⁵He has besieged and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.

⁶He has made me live in dark places
Like those who have long been dead.

⁷He walled me in so that I cannot get out;

Speak God's Word

No matter what happens, this I call to mind, therefore I have hope. It is because of the Lord's lovingkindnesses that I am not consumed, because His tender compassions never fail.

| adapted from LAMENTATIONS 3:21–22 |

He has weighted down my chain.

⁸Even when I cry out and shout for help, He shuts out my prayer.

⁹He has blocked my ways with cut stone; He has made my paths crooked.

¹⁰He is to me like a bear lying in wait,
And like a lion [hiding] in secret places.

¹¹He has turned aside my ways and torn me in pieces; He has made me desolate.

¹²He has bent His bow
And set me as a target for the arrow.

¹³He has caused the arrows of His quiver
To enter my inner parts.

¹⁴I have become the [object of] ridicule to all my people, And
[the subject of] their mocking song all the day.

¹⁵He has filled me with bitterness;
He has made me drunk with wormwood (bitterness).

¹⁶He has broken my teeth with gravel;
He has [covered me with ashes and] made me cower in the dust.

¹⁷My soul has been cast far away from peace; I have forgotten happiness.

¹⁸So I say, “My strength has perished
And so has my hope and expectation from the LORD.”

¹⁹Remember [O LORD] my affliction and my wandering, the wormwood and the gall (bitterness).

²⁰My soul continually remembers them And is bowed down within me.

²¹But this I call to mind,
Therefore I have hope.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

God's Tender Compassions Never Fail

God is good, and He is faithful. At one time in my life I felt God guiding me to make a change in my life that would separate me from many people and things very dear to me. I wanted to obey God, but I was fearful. When I would not move, God changed some things in my life that put me in a position where I had no choice. I realize now that this was one of the best things that ever happened to me, but at the time I thought my world was falling apart.

Losing longtime relationships that have been important to you can be traumatic. So can the death of a loved one, a divorce, the loss of a career, a personal injury that prevents you from pursuing a hobby or sport or something that has been a major part of your life. Actually, losing anyone or anything that is important to us can lead to loneliness and grief.

I found, as Jeremiah did in one of the most difficult points in his life, that the steadfast love of the Lord never ceases and His tender compassions never fail. In fact, they are new every morning; great and beyond measure is His faithfulness (see Lam. 3:23). In difficult times, you can always count on His love for you.

²²It is because of the LORD's lovingkindnesses that we are not consumed, Because His [tender] compassions never fail.

[Mal 3:6]

²³They are new every morning;

Great and beyond measure is Your faithfulness. [Is 33:2]

²⁴“The LORD is my portion and my inheritance,” says my soul; “Therefore I have hope in Him and wait expectantly for Him.” [Num 18:20]

²⁵The LORD is good to those who wait [confidently] for Him,
To those who seek Him [on the authority of God’s word].

²⁶It is good that one waits quietly
For the salvation of the LORD.

²⁷It is good for a man that he should bear The yoke [of godly discipline] in his youth.

²⁸Let him sit alone [in hope] and keep quiet, Because God has laid it on him [for his benefit]. [Rom 8:28]

²⁹Let him put his mouth in the dust [in recognition of his unworthiness]; There may yet be hope. [Mic 7:17]

³⁰Let him give his cheek to the one who strikes him; Let him be filled with reproach.

³¹For the Lord will not reject forever, [Ps 94:14]

³²For if He causes grief,
Then He will have compassion
According to His abundant lovingkindness and tender mercy.

³³For He does not afflict willingly and from His heart Or grieve the children of men. [Ezek 18:23, 32; Hos 11:8; Heb 12:5–
10; 2 Pet 3:9]

³⁴To trample and crush under His feet All the prisoners of the land,

³⁵To deprive a man of justice
In the presence of the Most High,

³⁶To defraud a man in his lawsuit—
The Lord does not approve of these things.

³⁷Who is there who speaks and it comes to pass, Unless the Lord has authorized and commanded it?

POWERPOINT

One way to make sure that we continue to live in strength and freedom is to periodically stop and “test and examine our ways” (Lam. 3:40) and return to the Lord. When you examine your ways, ask God to show you if you have strayed from Him in any area of your life. If you have, simply turn back to Him in repentance and receive His great mercy.

³⁸Is it not from the mouth of the Most High That both adversity (misfortune) and good (prosperity, happiness) proceed?

³⁹Why should any living mortal, or any man, Complain [of punishment] in view of his sins?

⁴⁰Let us test and examine our ways,
And let us return to the LORD.

- ⁴¹Let us lift up our hearts and our hands [in prayer]
Toward God in heaven;
- ⁴²We have transgressed and rebelled,
You have not pardoned.
- ⁴³You have covered Yourself with anger And pursued us;
You have slain [without pity] and have not spared.
- ⁴⁴You have covered Yourself with a cloud
So that no prayer can pass through.
- ⁴⁵You have made us scum and refuse
Among the peoples (Gentile nations).
- ⁴⁶All our enemies have gaped at us.
- ⁴⁷Panic and pitfall (traps, danger) have come on us,
Devastation and destruction.
- ⁴⁸My eyes overflow with streams of tears
Because of the destruction of the daughter of my people
(Jerusalem).
- ⁴⁹My eyes overflow unceasingly,
Without stopping,
- ⁵⁰Until the LORD looks down And sees from heaven.
- ⁵¹My eyes [see things that] bring pain to my soul Because of all the daughters of my city.
- ⁵²Without cause my enemies
Hunted me down like a bird;
- ⁵³They silenced me in the pit
And placed a stone over me. [Jer 38]
- ⁵⁴The waters ran down on my head;

I said, “I am cut off (destroyed)!”

⁵⁵I called on Your name, O LORD, Out of the lowest pit. [Jer 38:6]

⁵⁶You have heard my voice,

“Do not hide Your ear from my prayer for relief, From my cry for help.”

⁵⁷You drew near on the day I called to You; You said, “Do not fear.” [James 4:8]

⁵⁸O Lord, You have pleaded my soul’s cause [You have guided my way and protected me]; You have rescued and redeemed my life.

⁵⁹O LORD, You have seen the wrong [done to me]; Judge my case.

⁶⁰You have seen all their vengeance,
All their schemes against me.

⁶¹You have heard their reproach, O LORD, And all their schemes against me.

⁶²The lips and whispering of my assailants Are against me all day long.

⁶³Look at their sitting and their rising [their actions and secret counsels]; I am their mocking song [the subject of their ridicule]. [Ps 139:2; Is 37:28]

⁶⁴You will repay them, O LORD, According to the work of their hands.

⁶⁵You will harden their hearts;
Your curse will be upon them.

⁶⁶You will pursue them in anger and destroy them From under the heavens of the LORD.

4 HOW DARK and dim the gold has become, How the pure gold has changed!

The sacred stones [of the temple] are poured out and scattered At the head of every street.

²The [noble and] precious sons of Zion, [Once] worth their weight in fine gold,
How they are regarded [merely] as earthen jars,
The work of a potter's hands! [Is 30:14; Jer 19:11; 2 Cor 4:7]

³Even the jackals offer the breast,
They nurse their young;
But the daughter of my people has become cruel
Like ostriches in the wilderness [that desert their young].

⁴The tongue of the infant clings
To the roof of its mouth because of thirst;
The little ones ask for food,
But no one gives it to them.

⁵Those who feasted on delicacies
Are perishing in the streets;
Those reared in purple [as nobles]
Embrace ash heaps.

⁶For the [punishment of the] wickedness of the daughter of my people [Jerusalem]
Is greater than the [punishment for the] sin of Sodom,
Which was overthrown in a moment,
And no hands were turned toward her [to offer help]. [Gen

19:25]

- ⁷Her princes were purer than snow,
They were whiter than milk [in appearance];
They were more ruddy in body than rubies,
Their polishing was like lapis lazuli (sapphire).
- ⁸Their appearance is [now] blacker than soot [because of the prolonged famine]; They are not recognized in the streets;
Their skin clings to their bones;
It is withered, and it has become [dry] like wood.
- ⁹Those killed with the sword
Are more fortunate than those killed with hunger;
For the hungry pine and ebb away,
For the lack of the fruits of the field.
- ¹⁰The hands of compassionate women
Boiled their own children;
They became food for them
Because of the destruction of the daughter of my people
[Judah].
- ¹¹The LORD has fulfilled His wrath; He has poured out His
fierce anger
And has kindled a fire in Zion
That has consumed her foundations.
- ¹²The kings of the earth did not believe, Nor did any of the inhabitants of the earth,
That the adversary (oppressor) and enemy
Could enter the gates of Jerusalem.
- ¹³Because of the sins of her [counterfeit] prophets And the wickedness of her [unfaithful] priests,

- Who have shed in her midst
The blood of the just and righteous;
- ¹⁴They wandered, blind, in the streets;
They were defiled with blood
So that no one could touch their garments.
- ¹⁵People cried to them, “Go away! Unclean!
Depart! Depart! Do not touch!”
So they fled, then they wandered [as fugitives];
People among the nations said,
“They shall not stay here any longer with us.”
- ¹⁶The presence of the LORD scattered them [among the nations]; He will not continue to look after them.
They did not honor the priests;
They did not favor the elders.
- ¹⁷[And as for us,] yet our eyes failed,
Looking in vain for help.
Watching [from the towers] we watched
For a nation that could not save. [Ezek 29:16]
- ¹⁸The enemy hunted our steps,
So that we could not walk in our streets;
Our end drew near,
Our days were finished
For our end had come.
- ¹⁹Our pursuers were swifter
Than the eagles of the sky;
They pursued us on the mountains,
They waited in ambush for us in the wilderness.
- ²⁰The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD [our king], Was captured in their snares,

He of whom we had said, “Under his shadow
We shall live among the nations.”

²¹Rejoice and be glad, O Daughter of Edom, Who lives in the land of Uz.

But the cup [of the wine of God’s wrath] will pass to you as well; You will become drunk and make yourself naked. [Jer 25:17]

²²*The punishment* of your sin has been completed, O Daughter of Zion; The LORD will no longer send you into exile.

But He will punish your sin, O Daughter of Edom;
He will expose your sins. [Ps 137:7]

5 O LORD, remember what has come upon us; Look, and see our reproach (national disgrace)!

²Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers, Our houses to foreigners.

³We have become orphans without a father; Our mothers are like widows.

⁴We have to pay for our drinking water; Our wood comes to us at a price.

⁵Our pursuers are at our necks;
We are worn out, there is no rest for us.

⁶We have given the hand [as a pledge of fidelity and submission] to Egypt and Assyria to get enough bread.

- ⁷Our fathers sinned, and are no more;
It is we who have carried their sin. [Is 65:7; Jer 16:11, 12;
31:29; Ezek 18:2–4]
- ⁸Servants rule over us;
There is no one to rescue us out of their hand. [Neh 5:15]
- ⁹We get our bread at the risk of our lives Because of the sword [of the Arabs] in the wilderness [who may attack if we go out to harvest the crop].
- ¹⁰Our skin is as hot as [the heat of] an oven Because of the burning heat of [the fever of] famine.
- ¹¹They ravished the women in Zion,
The virgins in the cities of Judah.
- ¹²Princes were hung by their hands;
Elders were not respected.
- ¹³Young men worked at the grinding mill,
And boys fell [staggering] under loads of wood.
- ¹⁴Elders are gone from the gate;

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

*I worship You, O Lord, because You reign forever;
Your throne endures from generation to all generations.*

• adapted from Lamentations 5:19

Young men from their music.

- ¹⁵The joy of our hearts has ended;
Our dancing has been turned into mourning.
- ¹⁶The crown has fallen from our head [our honor is covered with dust]!
Woe to us, for we have sinned!
- ¹⁷Because of this our heart is faint,
Because of these things our eyes are dim.
- ¹⁸As for Mount Zion, which lies desolate, Foxes and the jackals prowl over it.
- ¹⁹But You, O LORD, reign forever; Your throne endures from generation to [all] generations.
- ²⁰Why do You forget us forever?
Why do You forsake us so long?
- ²¹Return us to You, O LORD, so that we may be restored;
Renew our days as of old,
- ²²Unless You have utterly rejected us
And are exceedingly angry with us.

POWERPOINT

Clearly there are times in Scripture when God displays His anger. In the books of Jeremiah and Lamentations, Jeremiah wrote a lot about God's righteous anger (see Lam. 5:22). But we are seriously mistaken if we think God is constantly angry and wrathful, just waiting to punish us for our misdeeds. If we spend our time believing God is angry with us, we are focusing on what we have done wrong rather than on what God has done right by sending His Son to pay for our sins. Let's always focus on Jesus and His forgiveness.

One of the powerful principles of our faith that is important to keep in mind at all times is that we are in covenant with God. This means He always loves us and is always faithful to us, no matter what. The book of Ezekiel emphasizes that unbreakable covenant. In fact, Ezekiel's name means, "God is strong," reminding us not only of God's unlimited strength, but also of the strength and power of our covenant with Him. If you are a Christian, you are in a never-ending relationship with God because of His covenant. Let this truth encourage and strengthen you in every situation!

WINNING THOUGHTS FROM EZEKIEL:

Listen closely to God's words and receive them into your heart (see Ezekiel 3:10).

God is against those who speak lies and empty words in His name (see Ezekiel 13:8).

To have victory over sin, repent before God and change any ways of thinking that are making you stumble (see Ezekiel 18:30).

God has given us His Spirit and a new heart (mind) so that we can obey Him. A new heart gives us the right desires, and the Spirit empowers us to accomplish them (see Ezekiel 36:26–27).

VERSES FOR VICTORY FROM EZEKIEL:

And I will give them one heart [a new heart], and put a new spirit within them. I will take from them the heart of stone, and will give them a heart of flesh [that is responsive to My touch]. | Ezekiel 11:19

You will be My people, and I will be your God. | Ezekiel 36:28

I will put My Spirit in you and you will come to life. | Ezekiel 37:14

THE BOOK OF EZEKIEL

1 NOW IT came about [when I was] in my thirtieth year [of life], on the fifth day of the fourth month, while I was among the exiles beside the River Chebar [in Babylonia], the heavens were opened and I saw visions of God.

²(On the fifth of the month, which was in the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity, [2 Kin 24:12–14]

³the word of the LORD came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the River Chebar; and the hand of the LORD came upon him there.) [1 Kin 18:46; 2 Kin 3:15]

⁴As I looked, I saw a stormy wind coming out of the north, a great cloud with fire flashing continually from it; and a brightness was around it, and in its core [there was] something like glowing [amber-colored] metal in the midst of the fire.

⁵Within it there were figures resembling four living beings. And this was their appearance: they had human form.

⁶Each one had four faces and four wings.

⁷Their legs were straight and the soles of their feet were like a calf's hoof, and they sparkled and gleamed like shiny bronze.

⁸Under their wings on their four sides they had human hands. As for the faces and wings of the four of them, ⁹their wings touched one another; their faces did not turn when they moved, each went straight forward.

¹⁰Regarding the form and appearance of their faces: they [each] had the face of a man [in front], and each had the face of a lion on the right side, and the face of an ox on the left side; all four also had the face of an eagle [at the back of their heads]. [Rev 4:7]

¹¹Such were their faces. Their wings were stretched out upward; two [wings] of each one were touching another [the wings of the beings on either side of it], and [the remaining] two [wings of each being] were covering their bodies.

¹²And each went straight forward; wherever the spirit was about to go, they would go, without turning as they went.

¹³Among the living beings there was something that looked like burning coals of fire, like torches moving back and forth among the living beings. The fire was bright, and lightning was flashing from the fire.

¹⁴And the living beings moved rapidly back and forth like flashes of lightning.

¹⁵Now as I looked at the living beings, I saw one wheel on the ground beside the living beings, for each of the four of them.

¹⁶Regarding the appearance of the wheels and their construction: they gleamed like chrysolite (beryl, olivine); and the four were made alike. Their appearance and construction were a wheel [set at a right angle] within a wheel.

¹⁷Whenever they moved, they went in any [one] of their four directions without turning as they moved.

¹⁸Regarding their rims: they were so high that they were awesome and dreadful, and the rims of all four of them were full of eyes all around.

¹⁹Whenever the living beings moved, the wheels moved with them; and when the living beings rose from the earth, the wheels rose also.

²⁰Wherever the spirit went, the beings went in that direction. And the wheels rose along with them; for the spirit or life of the living beings was in the wheels.

²¹Whenever those went, these went; and whenever those came to a stop, these came to a stop; and whenever those rose from the earth, the wheels rose close beside them, for the spirit of the living beings was in the wheels.

²²Now stretched over the heads of the living beings there was something like an expanse, looking like the terrible and awesome shimmer of icy crystal.

²³Under the expanse their wings were stretched out straight, one toward another. Every living being had two wings which covered its body on one side and on the other side.

²⁴As they moved, I also heard the sound of their wings like the sound of great [rushing] waters, like the voice of the Almighty, the sound of tumult like the noise of an army camp. Whenever they came to a stop, they lowered their wings.

²⁵And there was a voice above the expanse that was over their heads; whenever they stopped, they lowered their wings.

²⁶Now above the expanse that was over their heads there was something resembling a throne, it appeared like [it was made of] sapphire or lapis lazuli; and [seated] on that which looked like a throne, high up, was a figure with the appearance of a man. [Phil 2:5–8]

²⁷Now upward, from that which appeared to be His waist, I saw something like glowing metal that looked like it was filled with fire all around it; and downward, from that which appeared to be His waist, I saw something like fire; and there was a brightness and a remarkable radiance [like a halo] around Him.

²⁸As the appearance of the rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day, so was the appearance of the surrounding radiance. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory and brilliance of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell face downward and I heard a voice of One speaking. [Rev 4:3]

2 THEN HE said to me, “Son of man, stand on your feet and I will speak to you.”

²Then as He spoke to me the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet; and I heard Him speaking to me.

³And He said to me, “I am sending you, son of man, to the children of Israel, to a rebellious people [in both the north and the south] that have rebelled against Me; they and their fathers have sinned and revolted against Me to this very day.

⁴“I am sending you to them who are stubborn and obstinate children, and you shall say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD.’

⁵“As for them, whether they listen or refuse [to listen]—for they are a rebellious house—yet they will know and be fully aware of the fact that there has been a prophet among them.

⁶“And you, son of man, neither fear them nor fear their words; though briars and thorns are all around you and you sit among scorpions, neither fear their words nor be dismayed at their presence, for they are a rebellious house.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Dealing with Uninvited Change

Ezekiel was taken among the exiles into a foreign land, where God called him to be a prophet to his fellow exiles who would not listen to him—a very tough assignment (see Ezek. 2:2–5). Everything about that new land was different. The people were faced with changes everywhere they turned. Of course they did not want to be in exile, and I'm sure most of the changes were very difficult for them.

Although we don't invite all the changes that come our way in life, we can still learn to embrace them. If we don't learn to adapt and adjust to people and things, we will break under the strain of life. This requires humility, trust in God, and a strong commitment to being a maker and maintainer of peace. When you face a circumstance that you didn't invite into your life, ask yourself if you can change it. If you can't, then embrace it, let God help you deal with it, learn from it, and move on.

Speak God's Word

*When God asks me to speak
His words, I will speak them whether people will listen or whether they refuse to hear
them.*

| adapted from EZEKIEL 2:7 |

⁷“But you shall speak My words to them whether they will listen or refuse [to listen], for they are [most] rebellious.

⁸“As for you, son of man, listen to what I say to you; do not be rebellious like that rebellious house; open your mouth and eat what I am giving you.”

⁹Then I looked, and I saw a hand stretched out toward me; and behold, a scroll of a book was in it.

¹⁰And He spread it before me, and it was written on the front and on the back, and written on it were [words of] lamentation (funeral songs) and mourning and woe.

3 HE SAID to me, “Son of man, eat what you find [in this book]; eat this scroll, then go, speak to the house of Israel.”

²So I opened my mouth, and He fed me the scroll.

³He said to me, “Son of man, eat this scroll that I am giving you and fill your stomach with it.” So I ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

⁴Then He said to me, “Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak My words to them.

⁵“For you are not being sent to a people of unintelligible speech or difficult language, but to the house of Israel,

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Eat Your Words

When the Lord told Ezekiel to eat the scroll (see Ezek. 3:1), I'm reminded of the times I've heard people say, "You are going to eat those words." That phrase may sound like nothing more than an old saying, but in the same way, the foods we eat affect us physically, the words we speak affect us spiritually, mentally, and emotionally. I believe they also affect us physically, because the more our conversations are filled with hope and happiness, the more energetic we feel. A positive, hopeful attitude expressed through our words relieves stress, which is the root cause of a lot of sickness and disease.

Several years ago, I got really serious about taking care of my health. One of the first things I learned as I studied diet and exercise routines is that everything we eat affects our body's performance. What we eat on any given day can determine how we feel, how much we accomplish, how mentally alert we are, and what our attitude will be. Good or bad—salad or doughnuts—the food that goes into our mouth affects our bodies, our emotions, and our thought processes.

In the same way, the words you speak—whether they are hopeful declarations or negative confessions—affect your life in many ways. Words have power, and what you say does make a difference. As soon as you say something, those words will go into your ears and directly into your soul. If your words are *filled with life, you will feel happier and more energetic.

Watch your words today, because you'll eat them!*

POWERPOINT

In Ezekiel 3:7, the Israelites are “stubborn and obstinate.”

Being stubborn means being difficult to handle or refusing to follow guidelines. These definitions once described me.

The abuse I suffered in my early life caused a lot of my out-of-balance attitudes toward authority. However, I could not allow my past to become an excuse to stay trapped in rebellion. Victorious living requires a consistent heart of obedience to the Lord as we grow in our ability and willingness to lay aside our will and do His.

⁶not to many peoples of unintelligible speech or difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. But I have sent you to them who should listen to you and pay attention to My message;

⁷yet the house of Israel will not be willing to listen to you and obey you, since they are not willing to listen to Me and obey Me, for the entire house of Israel is stubborn and obstinate.

⁸“Behold, I have made your face as hard as their faces and your forehead as hard as their foreheads.

⁹“I have made your forehead like emery (diamond), harder than flint. Do not be afraid of them or be dismayed before them, though they are a rebellious house.” [Is 50:7; Jer 1:18; 15:20; Mic 3:8]

¹⁰Moreover, He said to me, “Son of man, receive into your heart all My words which I will speak to you and hear with your ears (listen closely).

Speak God's Word

*I will not only hear the words
God speaks to me with my ears; I will also receive them in my heart.*

| adapted from EZEKIEL 3:10 |

¹¹“Go to the [Jewish] exiles [in Babylon], to the children of your people, and speak to them, whether they listen or not, and tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD.’”

¹²Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard a great rushing sound behind me, “Blessed be the glory of the LORD in His place [above the expanse].”

¹³And then I heard the sound of the wings of the living beings as they touched one another and [I heard] the sound of the wheels beside them, a great rushing sound.

¹⁴So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went embittered [by the sins of Israel] in the rage of my spirit; and the hand of the LORD was strong on me.

¹⁵Then I came to the exiles who lived beside the River Chebar at Tel Abib. I sat there for seven days [in the place] where they were living, overwhelmed with astonishment [by my vision and the work before me].

¹⁶At the end of seven days the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

¹⁷“Son of man, I have appointed you as a watchman to the house of Israel; whenever you hear a word from My mouth, warn them from Me. [Is 52:8; 56:10; 62:6; Jer 6:17]

¹⁸“When I say to the wicked, ‘You will certainly die,’ and you do not warn him or speak out to tell him to turn from his wicked way to save his life, that same evil man will die in his sin, but you will be responsible for his blood.

¹⁹“However, if you have warned the wicked and he does not turn from his wickedness or from his wicked way, he will die in his sin; but you have freed yourself [from responsibility].

²⁰“Again, when a righteous man turns from his righteousness (right standing with God) and sins, and I place an obstacle before him, he will die; since you have not warned him, he will die in his sin, and the righteous deeds which he has done will not be remembered; but you will be responsible for his blood.

²¹“However, if you have warned the righteous man not to sin and he does not sin, he will surely live because he took warning; also you have freed yourself [from responsibility].”

²²The hand of the LORD was on me there, and He said to me, “Arise, go out to the plain, and I will speak to you.”

²³So I got up and went out to the plain; and behold, the glory and brilliance of the LORD was standing there, like the glory I had seen by the River Chebar, and I fell face downward.

²⁴Then the Spirit entered me and made me stand on my feet; He spoke and said to me, “Go, shut yourself up in your house.

²⁵“As for you, son of man, they will put ropes on you and bind you with them so that you cannot go out among them.

²⁶“And I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth so that you cannot talk and you cannot be a man who rebukes the people, for they are a rebellious house.

²⁷“But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth and you will say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD.’ He who hears, let him hear; and he who refuses [to hear], let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house.

4 “NOW YOU, son of man, take a brick, place it before you and inscribe on it [a diagram of] the city of Jerusalem.

²“Then lay siege against it, build a siege wall, raise a ramp against it; set up [enemy] camps and place battering rams all around it.

³“Further, take an iron plate and place it as an iron wall between you and the city, and set your face toward it so that it is under siege, and besiege it. This is a sign to the house of Israel.

⁵“For I have assigned you the years of their wickedness and punishment, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days [representing three hundred and ninety years]; in this way you shall bear [symbolically] the wickedness and punishment of the house of Israel.

⁶“When you have completed these [days for Israel], lie down again, but on your right side (toward the south), and you shall bear the wickedness and punishment of the house of Judah forty days. I have assigned you one day for each year.

⁷“Then you shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem with your arm bared and prophesy against it.

⁸“Now behold, I will put ropes on you so that you cannot turn from one side to the other until you have completed the days of your siege.

⁹“But as for you, take wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt, and put them into one vessel and make them into bread for yourself. You shall eat it according to the number of the days that you lie on your side, three hundred and ninety days.

¹⁰“The food you eat each day shall be [measured] by weight, twenty shekels, to be eaten daily at a set time.

¹¹“You shall drink water by measure also, the sixth part of a hin; you shall drink daily at a set time.

¹²“You shall eat your food as barley cakes, having baked it in their sight over human dung.”

¹³Then the LORD said, “Thus the children of Israel will eat their bread unclean and defiled among the nations where I will banish them.” [Hos 9:3]

¹⁴But I said, “Ah, Lord GOD! Behold (hear me), I have never been defiled; for from my youth until now I have never eaten what died on its own or was torn by beasts, nor has any unclean meat ever entered my mouth.” [Acts 10:14]

¹⁵Then He said to me, “See, I will let you use cow’s dung instead of human dung over which you shall prepare your food.”

¹⁶Moreover, He said to me, “Son of man, behold (listen carefully), I am going to break the staff of bread [that supports life] in Jerusalem; and they shall eat bread [rationed] by weight and [eat it] with anxiety and fear, and drink water by measure and [drink it] in horror [of the impending starvation], [Lev 26:26; Ps 105:16; Is 3:1]

¹⁷because bread and water will be scarce; and they will look at one another in dismay and waste away [in punishment] for their wickedness.

5 “AND YOU [Ezekiel], son of man, take a sharp sword and use it as a barber’s razor and shave your head and your beard. Then take scales for weighing and divide the hair [into three parts].

²“You shall burn one third with fire in the center of the city, when the days of the siege are completed. Then you shall take one third and strike it with the sword all around the city, and one third you shall scatter to the wind; and I will unsheathe a sword behind them.

³“Also take some of them and bind them in the edges of your robes.

⁴“Again take some hair and throw them into the fire and burn them in the fire; from it a fire will spread to all the house of Israel.

⁵“Thus says the Lord GOD, ‘This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the center of the nations, and countries are around her.

⁶“And she has rebelled against My ordinances more wickedly than the [pagan] nations and against My statutes more than the countries that are around her; for Israel has rejected My ordinances and has not walked in My statutes.’ [Rom 2:14, 15]

⁷“Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Because you have more turmoil than the nations which surround you and have not walked in My statutes, nor kept My ordinances, nor observed the ordinances of the nations which surround you,’ [Deut 7:2–6; Josh 23:7; Judg 2:2]

⁸therefore, thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Behold, I, I Myself, am against you, and I will execute judgments among you in the sight of the nations.

⁹‘And because of all your abominations, I will do among you that which I have not done, and the like of which I will not do again. [Lam 4:6; Dan 9:12; Amos 3:2]

¹⁰‘Therefore, fathers will eat their sons among you, and sons will eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments on you and I will scatter to all the winds the remnant of you. [Lev 26:33; Deut 28:64; Ezek 12:14; Zech 2:6]

¹¹‘So, as I live,’ says the Lord GOD, ‘surely, because you have defiled My sanctuary with all your detestable idols and with all your abominations, therefore I will also diminish you and withdraw, and My eye will have no pity and I will not spare [you].

¹²‘One third of you will die of virulent disease or be consumed by famine among you; one third will fall by the sword around you; and one third I will scatter to all the winds, and I will unsheathe a sword behind them.

¹³‘Thus My anger will come to an end and I will satisfy My wrath on them, and I will be appeased; then they will know [without any doubt] that I the LORD have spoken in My zeal when I have spent My wrath on them. [Ezek 36:6; 38:19]

¹⁴Moreover, I will make you a desolation and a disgrace among the nations which surround you and in the sight of all who pass by. [Lev 26:31, 32; Neh 2:17]

¹⁵So it will be a disgrace, a taunt, a warning and an object of horror to the [pagan] nations who surround you when I execute judgments against you in anger and in wrath and in raging reprimands—I, the LORD, have spoken. [Deut 28:37; Ps 79:4; Jer 24:9]

¹⁶When I send against them the deadly arrows of hunger which were for the destruction of those whom I will send to destroy you, then I will increase the famine upon you and break your staff of bread.

¹⁷Further, I will send against you hunger and wild beasts, and they will bereave you of children; virulent disease and bloodshed also will pass through you, and I will bring the sword on you. I, the LORD, have spoken.”

6 AND THE word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²“Son of man, set your face against the mountains of Israel and prophesy against them, ³and say, ‘You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and the hills, to the ravines and the valleys: “Behold, I Myself am going to bring a sword on you, and I will destroy your high places [of idolatrous worship],

⁴and your altars will become deserted and your pillars for sun-worship will be smashed in pieces; and I will throw down your slain in front of your idols [that cannot bring them back to life]. [Lev 26:30]

⁵“I will also lay the dead bodies of the children of Israel in front of their [Canaanite] idols; and I will scatter your bones all around your altars.

⁶“Everywhere you live, the cities will become waste and the high places will become deserted, so that your altars may bear their guilt and become deserted, your idols may be broken and destroyed, your incense altars [for sun-worship] may be cut down, and your works may be blotted out.

⁷“The slain will fall among you, then you shall know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.

⁸“Yet I will leave some of you alive [a remnant], for you will have some who escaped the sword among the nations when you are scattered throughout the countries.

⁹“Then those of you who escape will remember Me among the nations to which they will be exiled, how I have been broken by their lewdness and their adulterous hearts which have turned away from Me, and by their eyes which lust after their idols; and they will loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed, for all their repulsive acts.

¹⁰“Then they will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD; I have not said in vain that I would bring this disaster [as punishment] on them.” ’

¹¹“Thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Strike with your fist, stamp with your foot and say, “Alas, because of all the evil atrocities of the house of Israel, which will fall by sword, by famine, and by virulent disease!

¹²“He who is far away will die of the virulent disease, and he who is near will fall by the sword, and he who remains and is besieged will die by the famine. Thus I will spend My wrath on them.

¹³“Then you will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD, when their slain are among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, under every leafy tree and under every oak with thick branches, the places where they offered sweet incense and a soothing aroma to all their idols.

¹⁴“And I will stretch out My hand against them and make the land a more desolate waste than the wilderness toward Diblah [the Moabite city], throughout all the places where they live; and they will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.””

7 MOREOVER, THE word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²“Also, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD to the land of Israel, ‘An end! The end is coming on the four corners of the land. [Ezek 11:13; Amos 8:2]

POWERPOINT

Ezekiel 7:3–4 makes clear that God certainly hates all sin, but we should also remember that He loves all sinners. God will never love you any more than He does right now, because His love is perfect at all times and is not based on anything we do or do not do. No amount of improvement on our part can earn us any more of God's love. He has determined to give us mercy for our failures so we might continue to have fellowship with Him and receive from Him the help we so desperately need. When we fail, we should never pull away from God, but we should run to Him and receive His mercy, grace, and forgiveness.

³‘Now the end is upon you, and I will send My anger against you and will judge you in accordance with your ways and I will bring [retribution for] all your abominations upon you.

⁴‘For My eye will have no pity on you, nor will I spare you, but I will repay you for your evil ways, while your abominations are among you; and you will know (recognize, understand) [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.’

⁵“Thus says the Lord GOD, ‘A disaster is coming, [one so destructive and injurious, so sudden and violent, that it stands alone,] a unique disaster, look it is coming!

⁶‘An end is coming; the end has come! It has awakened against you. Look, it has come!

⁷‘Your doom has come to you, O inhabitant of the land; the time has come, the day is near—tumult rather than joyful shouting on the mountains.

⁸‘Now I will soon pour out My wrath on you and spend My anger against you, and I will judge you in accordance with your ways and will repay you [with punishment] for all your outrageous acts.

⁹‘My eye will show no pity nor will I spare [you]. I will repay you in accordance with your ways, while your abominations are in your midst; then you will know and understand that it is I, the LORD, who strikes you.

¹⁰‘Behold, the day! Behold, it is coming! Your doom has gone forth, the rod has blossomed, arrogance has sprouted.

¹¹‘Violence has grown into a rod of wickedness; none of them (Israel) will remain, none of their people, none of their wealth, nor anything eminent among them.

¹²‘The time has come, the day has arrived. Let not the buyer rejoice nor the seller mourn, for wrath is against all their multitude [of people].

¹³‘For the seller will not regain and return to what he sold, even were they yet alive; for the vision [of punishment] regarding all the multitude [of people] will not be turned back, nor will any one of them sustain his life because of his sin.

¹⁴‘They have blown the trumpet and have made everything ready, but no one is going to the battle, for My wrath is against all their multitude [of people].

¹⁵‘The sword is outside and virulent disease and famine are within. He who is in the field will die by the sword, and famine and disease will devour those in the city.

¹⁶‘Even when their survivors escape, they will be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, each over his [punishment for] sin.

¹⁷‘All hands will hang limp and all knees will be as weak as water. [Is 13:7; Jer 6:24; Ezek 21:7]

¹⁸‘They will also cover themselves with sackcloth; horror will overwhelm them, and shame will be on all faces and baldness on all their heads [as evidence of grief].

¹⁹‘They will fling their silver into the streets and their gold will be [discarded] like something unclean; their silver and their gold shall not be able to save them in the day of the wrath of the LORD. These [things] cannot satisfy their soul nor fill their stomachs, for they have become their stumbling block and source of sin. [Prov 11:4; Zeph 1:18]

²⁰‘As for the beauty of [gold for] ornaments, they turned it to pride and from it made the images of their repulsive things

(idols) and of their vile things. Therefore I will make it an unclean thing to them.

²¹“I will give it into the hands of strangers (Babylonians) as plunder and to the wicked of the earth as spoil, and they shall profane it.

²²“I will also turn My face away from them, and they will desecrate My secret treasure (the Jerusalem temple); and robbers will enter [irreverently] into it (the Holy of Holies) and violate it.

²³“Prepare the chain [for imprisonment], for the land is full of bloody crimes [murders committed under the pretense of civil justice] and the city is full of violence.

²⁴“Therefore, I will bring the worst of the [Gentile] nations, and they will take possession of their houses [those of the people of Judah]; I will also silence their pride, and their holy places will be profaned.

²⁵“When anguish comes, they [of Judah] shall seek peace, but there will be none.

²⁶“Disaster will come upon disaster and rumor will be heaped on rumor; they will seek a vision from a prophet, but the law and guidance will be lost from the priest and [wise] counsel [will cease] from the elders. [Ps 74:9; Lam 2:9]

²⁷“The king [of Judah] will mourn and the prince (Zedekiah) will be clothed with [garments of] despair and anguish, and the hands of the people of the land shall tremble [in terror]. I will deal with them in accordance with their conduct, and by their judgments I will judge them. And they will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.”

8 IT CAME about in the sixth year [of the captivity of King Jehoiachin], on the fifth day of the sixth month, as I sat in my house [near Babylon] with the elders of Judah sitting before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell on me there.

²Then I looked, and behold, a likeness [of a man] with the appearance of fire; from His loins downward He was like fire, and from His loins upward He had the appearance of brightness, like gleaming metal (bronze).

³He stretched out the form of a hand and took me by a lock of hair on my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the north gate of the inner courtyard, where the seat of the idol (image) of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy, was located. [2 Kin 16:10–16; 21:4, 5]

⁴And behold, the glory and brilliance of the God of Israel [who had loved and chosen them] was there, like the vision which I saw in the plain. [Ezek 1:28; 3:22, 23]

⁵Then He said to me, “Son of man, now raise your eyes toward the north.” So I looked toward the north, and behold, to the north of the altar gate was this idol (image) of jealousy at the entrance.

⁶Furthermore, He said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great repulsive acts which the house of Israel is committing here, to drive Me far away from My sanctuary? But you will again see greater repulsive acts.”

⁷Then He brought me to the entrance of the courtyard; and when I looked, behold, [there was] a hole in the wall.

⁸He said to me, “Son of man, now dig into the wall.” And when I had dug into the wall, behold, there was an entrance.

⁹And He said to me, “Go in and see the wicked, repulsive acts that they are committing here.”

¹⁰So I entered and looked, and saw every kind of creeping things and beasts and loathsome things, and all the idols of the house of Israel, carved all around on the wall.

¹¹Standing before these [images] were seventy elders of the house of Israel, and among them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan [the scribe], each man with his censer in his hand and a thick and fragrant cloud of incense was rising [as they prayed to these gods].

¹²Then He said to me, “Son of man, do you see what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, each man in his [secret] room of carved images? For they say, ‘The LORD does not see us; the LORD has abandoned the land.’”

¹³He also said to me, “Yet again you will see even greater repulsive acts which they are committing.”

¹⁴Then He brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the LORD’s house; and behold, women were sitting there weeping for Tammuz.

¹⁵He said to me, “Do you see this, son of man? Yet you will see still greater repulsive acts than these [that they are committing].”

¹⁶So He brought me to the inner court of the LORD’s house. And behold, at the entrance to the temple of the LORD, between the porch (vestibule, portico) and the [bronze] altar, were about twenty-five men with their backs to the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east; and they were bowing down toward the east and worshiping the sun.

¹⁷He said to me, “Do you see this, son of man? Is it too slight a thing for the house of Judah to commit the repulsive acts which they have committed here, that they have filled the land with violence and repeatedly provoked Me to anger? And behold, they are putting the branch to their nose.

¹⁸“Therefore, I indeed will deal in wrath. My eye will have no pity nor will I spare [them]; and though they cry loudly in My ears, yet I will not listen to them.” [Prov 1:28; Is 1:15; Jer 11:11; 14:12; Mic 3:4; Zech 7:13]

9 THEN [in my vision] I heard Him cry out with a thunderous voice, saying, “Approach now, executioners of the city, each with his weapon of destruction in his hand.”

²Behold, six men [angelic beings] came from the direction of the Upper Gate, which faces north, each with his battle-axe in his hand; and among them was a certain man clothed in linen, with a scribe’s writing case at his side. They entered and stood beside the bronze altar.

³Then the [Shekinah] glory and brilliance of the God of Israel (the cloud) went up from the cherubim on which it had rested, to [stand above] the threshold of the [LORD’s] temple. And the LORD called to the man clothed with linen, who had the scribe’s writing case at his side.

⁴The LORD said to him, “Go through the midst of the city, throughout all of Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh [in distress] and grieve over all the repulsive acts which are being committed in it.”

⁵But to the others I heard Him say, “Follow him [the man with the scribe's writing case] throughout the city and strike; do not let your eyes have pity and do not spare [anyone].

⁶“Utterly slay old men, young men, maidens, little children, and women; but do not touch or go near anyone on whom is the mark. Begin at My sanctuary.” So they began with the old men who were in front of the temple [who did not have the LORD's mark on their foreheads]. [1 Pet 4:17]

⁷And He said to the executioners, “Defile the temple and fill its courtyards with the dead. Go out!” So they went out and struck down the people in the city.

⁸As they were executing them and I alone was left, I fell face downward and cried out, “Alas, Lord GOD! Will You destroy all that is left of Israel [the whole remnant] by pouring out Your wrath and indignation on Jerusalem?”

⁹Then He said to me, “The wickedness (guilt) of the house of Israel and Judah is extremely great; the land is full of blood and the city is full of perversion and injustice; for they say, ‘The LORD has abandoned the land; the LORD does not see [what we are doing].’

¹⁰“But as for Me, My eye will have no pity, nor will I spare, but I will bring their [wicked] conduct upon their [own] heads.”

¹¹Then behold, the man clothed in linen, who had the scribe's writing case at his side, reported, “I have done just as You have commanded me.”

10 THEN I looked, and behold, in the expanse (firmament) that was over the heads of the cherubim there appeared something [glorious and brilliant] above them looking like a [huge] sapphire stone, formed to resemble a throne.

²And the LORD spoke to the man (seventh angel) clothed in linen and said, “Go between the whirling wheels under the cherubim; fill your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim and scatter them over the city.” And he entered as I watched. [Rev 8:5]

³Now the cherubim were standing on the right side of the temple when the man entered; and a cloud [the Shekinah glory of God] filled the inner courtyard.

⁴Then the glory and brilliance of the LORD moved upward from the cherubim to [rest over] the threshold of the temple; and the temple was filled with the cloud and the courtyard was filled with the brightness of the LORD’s glory. [1 Kin 8:10, 11; Ezek 43:5]

⁵And the sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard [even] as far as the outer courtyard, like the voice of God Almighty when He speaks. [Ps 29:3, 4]

⁶It came about when He commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, “Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim,” the man entered and stood beside a wheel.

⁷Then a cherub stretched out his hand from between the cherubim to the fire that was between [the four of] them, and took some [of it] and put it into the hands of the man clothed in linen, who took it and departed.

⁸Beneath their wings the cherubim seemed to have [something in] the form of a man’s hand.

⁹Then I looked and behold, [there were] four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside one cherub and another wheel beside each other cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like a sparkling Tarshish stone (beryl).

¹⁰As for their appearance, all four looked alike, as if one wheel were within another wheel.

¹¹When they moved, they went in any of their four directions without turning as they went; but they followed in the direction which they faced, without turning as they went.

¹²Their whole body, their backs, their hands, their wings, and the wheels were full of eyes all around, even the wheels belonging to all four of them.

¹³Regarding the wheels [attached to them], I heard them called, “the whirling (rolling, revolving) wheels.”

¹⁴And each one had four faces: the first face was the face of the cherub, the second the face of a man, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

¹⁵Then the cherubim rose upward. They are the [same four] living beings [regarded as one] that I saw by the River Chebar [in Babylonia]. [Ezek 1:5]

¹⁶Now when the cherubim moved, the wheels would go beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to rise from the earth, the wheels would remain beside them.

¹⁷When the cherubim stood still, the wheels would stand still; and when they rose upward, the wheels would rise with them, for the spirit of the living beings was in these [wheels]. [Ezek 1:21]

¹⁸Then the [Shekinah] glory of the LORD departed from the threshold of the temple and rested over the cherubim.

¹⁹As I looked at them, the cherubim lifted up their wings and rose up from the earth, they departed with the wheels beside them; and they stood still at the entrance of the east gate of the house of the LORD, and the glory and brilliance of the God of Israel hovered over them.

²⁰These are the living beings that I saw beneath the God of Israel by the River Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim.

²¹Each one had four faces and each one had four wings, and beneath their wings was the form of human hands.

²²As for the likeness of their faces, they were the same faces whose appearance I had seen by the River Chebar. Each one went straight forward.

11 MOREOVER, THE Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the gate of the LORD's house, which faced eastward. And behold, at the entrance of the gate there were twenty-five men; and I saw among them Jaazaniah the son of Azzur and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people.

²Then the Spirit said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who devise evil and give wicked advice in this city,

³who say, 'Is not the time near to build houses? This city is [secure just like] the pot and we are the meat [in it].'

⁴"Therefore, prophesy against them; prophesy, son of man!"

⁵Then the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and He said to me, "Say, 'Thus says the LORD, "This is what you think, house of Israel, for I know your thoughts.

⁶"You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled its streets with the corpses [of righteous men]."

⁷Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD, “Your dead whom you have laid in the midst of your city are the meat and this city is the pot; but I shall force you out of [the security of] it.

⁸“You have feared the sword; so I will bring a sword upon you,” says the Lord GOD.

⁹“And I will bring you out of the midst of the city and hand you over to strangers and execute judgment against you.

¹⁰“You will fall by the sword; I will judge and punish you [in front of your neighbors] at the border of [the land of] Israel; and you will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.

¹¹“This city will not be a pot for you, nor will you be meat [safe] in it, but I will judge you at the border of Israel.

¹²“And you will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD; for you have not walked in My statutes nor have you executed My ordinances, but you have acted in accordance with the ordinances of the nations around you.””

¹³Now it came about while I was prophesying, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then I fell face downward and cried out loudly, “Alas, Lord GOD! Will You bring the remnant of Israel to a complete end?”

¹⁴Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

¹⁵“Son of man, your brothers, your relatives, your fellow exiles and the whole house of Israel, all of them, are those to whom the [present] inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, ‘Go far away from the LORD; this land has been given to us as a possession.’

¹⁶“Therefore say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Though I had removed Israel far away among the nations and though I had scattered them among the countries, yet I have been a sanctuary for them for a little while in the countries to which they had gone.” ’

POWERPOINT

Though I don't believe we can ever do everything perfectly, I do think we can have a perfect heart toward God. That means we can love Him wholeheartedly and want to please Him and do what is right. When we receive Jesus as the perfect sacrifice for our sins, He gives us a new heart and places His Spirit within us. I like to say He gives us a new "want to," a fresh desire to please Him. A new heart gives us right desires, and the Spirit within us empowers us to accomplish them.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

A New Heart

In Ezekiel 11:19, God promises to give His people a new heart to replace the stony, hardened heart that is in them. This new heart will be sensitive and responsive to Him. This promise is repeated in Ezekiel 36:26, when the Lord says, “I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you, and I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh.”

Through the new birth, or spiritual birth, we receive Jesus into our heart. This places us “into Christ,” and therefore into a new way of thinking, speaking, and acting. But even after the new birth experience, Ephesians 4:23 says that we are to be continually renewed in the spirit of our mind, having a fresh mental and spiritual attitude. This new mental and spiritual attitude is part of a new, softened heart that is sensitive to God.

¹⁷“Therefore say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “I will gather you from the peoples and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give [back] to you the land of Israel.” ’

¹⁸“When they return there, they will remove from it all [traces of] its detestable things and all its repulsive things (remnants of paganism).

¹⁹“And I will give them one heart [a new heart], and put a new spirit within them. I will take from them the heart of stone, and will give them a heart of flesh [that is responsive to My touch], [Ezek 18:31; 36:26; 2 Cor 3:3]

²⁰that they may walk in My statutes and keep My ordinances and do them. Then they shall be My people, and I will be their God.

²¹“But as for those whose heart longs for and follows after their detestable things and their repulsive things [associated with idolatry], on their own head I will repay [them in full for] their [vile] conduct,” says the Lord GOD.

Speak God's Word

Lord, I will walk in obedience to Your statutes and ordinances because I belong to You and You belong to me.

| adapted from EZEKIEL 11:20 |

²²Then the cherubim lifted up their wings with the wheels beside them, and the [Shekinah] glory of the God of Israel hovered over them.

²³Then the glory and brilliance of the LORD went up from the midst of the city and paused over the mountain, [the Mount of Olives] which is east of the city.

²⁴And the Spirit lifted me up and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God to the exiles in Chaldea (Babylonia). Then the vision that I had seen left me.

²⁵Then I told the exiles everything that the LORD had shown me.

12 THE WORD of the LORD also came to me, saying,

²“Son of man, you live among a rebellious house, who have eyes to see but do not see, who have ears to hear but do not hear; for they are a rebellious people. [Mark 8:18]

³“Therefore, son of man, prepare your belongings for exile, and move into exile during the day when they will see you; even go into exile from your place to another place as they watch. Perhaps they will understand even though they are a rebellious people.

⁴“Bring your provisions and supplies out during the day as they watch, as provisions and supplies for [going into] exile. Then you shall go out at evening as they watch, as those going into exile.

⁵“Dig through the wall as they watch and go out through the hole.

⁶“As they look on, load the provisions and supplies on your shoulder and carry it out in the dark. You shall cover your face so that you cannot see the land, for I have set you as a sign to the house of Israel.”

⁷I did as I had been commanded. I brought out my provisions and supplies during the day, like the provisions and supplies of an exile, and in the evening I dug through the wall with my hands. I brought out my provisions and supplies in the dark, carrying it on my shoulder as they watched.

⁸In the morning the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

⁹“Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, asked you, ‘What you are doing?’

¹⁰“Say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “This oracle (a burden to be carried) concerns the prince (Zedekiah) in Jerusalem as well as all the house of Israel who are there.” ’

¹¹“Say, ‘I am a sign to you. As I have done, so it will be done to them; they will go into exile, into captivity.’

¹²“The prince who is among them will load his provisions and supplies on his shoulder in the dark and go out. They will dig a hole through the wall to go out. He will cover his face so that he cannot see the land with his eyes.

¹³“I will also spread My net over him, and he will be caught in My snare. And I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans; yet he will not see it, though he will die there. [2 Kin 25:1–7; Jer 39:5; 52:7–11]

¹⁴“I will scatter to every wind all who are around him, his helpers and all his troops; and I will draw out a sword after them.

¹⁵“So they will know and understand fully that I am the LORD when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them among the [pagan] countries.

¹⁶“But I will leave a few [survivors] who will escape the sword, the famine, and the virulent disease, that they may confess all their repulsive (idolatrous) acts among the nations where they go, and may know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.”

¹⁷Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

¹⁸“Son of man, eat your bread with anxiety, and drink your water with trembling and with fear.

¹⁹“Then say to the people of the land, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem in the land of Israel, “They will eat their bread with anxiety and drink their water with horror, because their land will be stripped and looted of its fullness because of the violence of all those who live in it.

20“‘The cities that are inhabited will be in ruins and the land will be deserted; and you will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.’”

21Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

22“Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel, saying, ‘The days are long and every vision fails’?

23“‘Therefore tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “I will put an end to this proverb, and they will no longer use it as a proverb in Israel.” But say to them, “The days draw near as well as the fulfillment of every vision.

24“‘For there will no longer be any false and empty vision or flattering divination within the house of Israel.

25“‘For I the LORD will speak, and whatever word I speak will be accomplished. It will no longer be delayed, for in your days, O rebellious house, I will speak the word and I will fulfill it,” says the Lord GOD.’”

26Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

27“Son of man, behold, the house of Israel is saying, ‘The vision that Ezekiel sees is for many years from now, and he prophesies of the times that are far off.’

28“‘Therefore say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “None of My words will be delayed any longer. Whatever word I speak will be fulfilled completely,’” says the Lord God.

13 AND THE word of the LORD came to me saying,

2“Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophecy, and say to those who prophesy from their own inspiration, 'Hear the word of the LORD!

³"Thus says the Lord GOD, "Woe (judgment is coming) to the foolish prophets who are following their own spirit [claiming to have seen things] but have [in fact] seen nothing.

⁴"O Israel, your prophets have been like foxes among the ruins.

⁵"You have not gone up into the gaps or breaches, nor built the wall around the house of Israel that it might stand in the battle on the day of the LORD.

⁶"They have seen falsehood and lying divination, saying, 'The LORD says,' but the LORD has not sent them. Yet they hope and make men to hope for the confirmation of their word.

⁷"Did you not see (make up) a false vision and speak a lying divination when you said, 'The LORD declares,' but it is not I who have spoken?""

⁸Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD, "Because you have spoken empty and delusive words and have seen lies, therefore behold, I am against you," says the Lord God.

⁹"So My hand will be against the [counterfeit] prophets who see (make up) empty and delusive visions and who give lying prophecies. They will have no place in the [secret] council of My people, nor will they be recorded in the register of the house of Israel, nor will they enter into the land of Israel, that you may know [without any doubt] that I am the Lord GOD.

¹⁰"It is definitely because they have seduced My people, saying, 'Peace,' when there is no peace, and because when one builds a [flimsy] wall, behold, these [lying] prophets plaster it over with whitewash;

¹¹so tell those who plaster it with whitewash, that it will fall!
A flooding rain [of judgment] will come, and you, O [great] hailstones, will fall; and a violent wind will tear the wall apart.

¹²“Behold, when the wall has fallen, will you not be asked,
‘Where is the coating with which you [prophets] plastered it?’”

Speak God's Word

I will not speak empty and delusive words, because the Lord God is with me.

| adapted from EZEKIEL 13:8 |

¹³Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD, “I will make a violent wind break out in My wrath, and there will be in My anger an overwhelming rain and great hailstones to destroy [that wall] in wrath.

¹⁴“So I will tear down the wall which you have plastered with whitewash and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundations will be exposed; when it falls, you will perish in its midst. And you shall know and understand fully that I am the LORD.

¹⁵“Thus I will expend My wrath on the wall and on those who have plastered it with whitewash and I will say to you, ‘The wall is gone and its plasterers are gone,

¹⁶*along with* the [false] prophets of Israel who prophesy [deceitfully] to Jerusalem, and who see [false] visions of peace for her when there is no peace,’ says the Lord GOD.

¹⁷“Now you, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who are prophesying out of [the wishful thinking of] their own mind (inspiration). Prophecy against them

¹⁸and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Woe to the women who fasten magic (protective) charms on all wrists and make veils for the heads of those of every stature to capture [human] lives! Will you capture the lives of My people but keep your own?”

¹⁹“You have profaned Me among My people [in payment] for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, killing people who should not die and giving [a guarantee of] life to those who should not live, because of your lies to My people who pay attention to lies.””

²⁰Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, I am against your magic bands [and veils] by which you hunt [human] lives as birds and I will tear them from your arms; and I will let the lives you hunt go free, even those lives whom you hunt as birds.

²¹“I will also tear off your [pagan] veils and rescue My people from your hands, and they will no longer be in your grip to be hunted and trapped. Then you will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.

²²“Because you disheartened the righteous with falsehood when I did not cause him grief, but have encouraged the wicked not to turn from his wicked way and preserve his life, ²³therefore, you women will no longer see false visions or practice divinations, and I will rescue My people from your hand. Then you will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.”

14 THEN CERTAIN of the elders of Israel came to me [seeking an oracle from God] and sat down before me.

²And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

³“Son of man, these men have set up [and honored] their idols in their hearts and have put right before their faces the [vile] stumbling block of their wickedness and guilt; should I [permit Myself to] be consulted by them at all?

⁴“Therefore speak to them and say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Any man of the house of Israel who takes his idols [of rebellion] into his heart, and puts the [vile] stumbling block of his wickedness and guilt [images of silver and gold] before his face, and yet comes to the prophet [to ask of him], I the LORD will answer him, [but I will answer him] in accordance with the number of his idols, ⁵in order that I may take hold of the heart (mind) of the house of Israel who are all estranged from Me because of their idols.” ’

⁶“Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Repent and turn away from your idols and turn your faces away from all your disgusting and vile acts.

⁷“For anyone of the house of Israel or among the strangers who immigrate to Israel who separates himself from Me, taking his idols into his heart, and puts right before his face the [vile] stumbling block of his wickedness and guilt, and [then] comes to the prophet to ask of Me for himself, I the LORD will answer him Myself.

⁸“I will set My face against that man [that hypocrite] and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from among My people; and you will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.

⁹“But if the prophet [who speaks without My authority] is enticed to speak a word [of his own], it is I the LORD who have caused that prophet [to speak falsely to please the inquirer, thus allowing himself to be a party to the inquirer’s sin], and I will stretch out My hand against him and destroy him from among My people Israel.

POWERPOINT

When we read that God called Israel to turn away from their idols and vile acts (see Ezek. 14:6), we need to keep in mind that an idol is anything we worship by giving it too much attention or anything that is more important to us than God. An idol can be social status, money, a job, a house, or a family. Ask God to help you put Him in first place in your life. He will gladly do it!

¹⁰“They [both] will bear the punishment of their wickedness; the sin of the [counterfeit] prophet will be the same as the sin of the [hypocritical] inquirer,

¹¹so that the house of Israel may no longer drift away from Me and no longer defile themselves with all their transgressions, but they will be My people, and I will be their God,” ’ says the Lord GOD.”

¹²The word of the LORD came [again] to me, saying,

¹³“Son of man, if a land sins against Me by committing unfaithfulness, and I stretch out My hand against it and destroy its source of bread and send famine on it and cut off from it both man and animal, ¹⁴even if these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job were in that land, by their own righteousness (right standing with God) they could only save (deliver) themselves,” says the Lord GOD.

¹⁵“If I were to cause predatory beasts to pass through the land and they ravaged it and depopulated it of children, and it became desolate so that no one would pass through because of the predators, ¹⁶*though* these three men were in the land, as I live,” says the Lord GOD, “they could not save either their sons or their daughters. They alone would be saved, but the land would be desolate (ruined, deserted).

¹⁷“Or if I were to bring a sword on that land and say, ‘Let a sword go through the land and cut off man and animal from it,’

¹⁸even though these three men were in the land, as I live,” says the Lord GOD, “they could not save either their sons or their daughters, but they alone would be saved.

¹⁹“Or if I should send a virulent disease into that land and pour out My wrath in blood on it to cut off man and animal from it,

²⁰even though Noah, Daniel, and Job were in the land, as I live,” says the Lord GOD, “they could not save either their son or their daughter; they would save only themselves by their righteousness [that is, their right-standing with God—their moral and spiritual integrity].”

²¹For thus says the Lord GOD, “How much more when I send My four severe judgments against Jerusalem—sword, famine, predatory beasts, and virulent disease—to cut off man and animal from it! [Lev 26:21–33]

²²“Yet, behold, survivors will be left in it [escaping the judgments], both sons and daughters. Listen carefully, they are going to come out to you [in Babylon] and you will see their [wicked] conduct and [despicable] actions; then you will be at peace in regard to the disaster which I have brought against Jerusalem for everything which I have brought on it [has been deserved].

²³“Then they will reassure you [in regard to the appropriateness of the judgments] when you see their [heinous] conduct and actions, for you will know that I have not done without cause whatever I did to it,” declares the Lord GOD.

15 AND THE word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²“Son of man, how is the wood of the grapevine (Israel) better than any wood of a branch which is among the trees of the forest? [Ps 80:8–13; Jer 2:21]

³“Can wood be taken from it to make any object? Or can men take a peg from it on which to hang any vessel?

⁴“If it has been thrown into the fire for fuel, and the fire has consumed both of its ends and the middle section has been charred, is it suitable or useful for anything?

⁵“Notice this, even when it was complete, it was not useful and was not made into anything. How much less, after the fire has burned [part of] it and [the remainder of] it is charred, can it still be made into anything?

⁶“Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Like the wood of the grapevine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so have I given up the people of Jerusalem;

⁷and I set My face against them. Though they have come out of the fire, yet the fire will consume them. Then you will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD, when I set My face against them.

⁸‘I will make the land desolate (ruined, deserted), because they have acted unfaithfully [through their idolatry],’ says the Lord GOD.”

16 AGAIN THE word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²“Son of man, make Jerusalem understand [the heinous and vile nature of] her repulsive (idolatrous) acts

³and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD to Jerusalem (all of Israel), “Your [spiritual] origin and your birth are from the land of the Canaanite; your [spiritual] father was an Amorite and your [spiritual] mother a Hittite. [Ezek 16:45; John 8:44]

⁴“And as for your birth, on the day you were born your navel cord was not cut, nor were you washed with water for cleansing, nor were you rubbed with salt or even wrapped in cloths.

⁵“No eye looked with pity on you to do any of these things for you, to have compassion on you; but you were thrown out in the open field, for you were loathed on the day that you were born.

⁶“When I passed by you and saw you squirming in your [newborn] blood, I said to you while you were there in your blood, ‘Live!’ Yes, I said to you while you were there in your blood, ‘Live!’

⁷“I made you (Israel) multiply like plants [which grow] in the field, and you grew up and became tall and you reached the age for [wearing] fine jewelry; your breasts were formed and your hair had grown, yet you were naked and bare.

⁸“Then I passed by you [again] and looked on you; behold, you were maturing and at the time for love, and I spread My skirt over you and covered your nakedness. Yes, I swore [an oath] to you and entered into a covenant with you,” says the Lord GOD, “and you became Mine.”

⁹“Then I washed you with water; yes, I [thoroughly] washed away from you the [clinging] blood and anointed you with oil.

¹⁰“I also clothed you with embroidered cloth and put sandals of porpoise skin on your feet; and I wrapped you with fine linen and covered you with silk.

¹¹“I adorned you with ornaments and I put bracelets on your wrists and a necklace around your neck.

¹²“I also put a ring in your nostril and earrings in your ears and a beautiful crown on your head.

¹³“Thus you were adorned with gold and silver, and your dress was [made] of fine linen and silk and embroidered cloth. You ate fine flour and honey and oil; so you were extremely beautiful and you advanced and prospered into royalty.

¹⁴“Then your fame went out among the nations on account of your beauty, for it was perfect because of My majesty and splendor which I bestowed on you,” says the Lord GOD.

¹⁵“But you trusted in and relied on your beauty and prostituted yourself [in idolatry and its debauched rituals] because of your fame, and you poured out your immoralities on every [willing] passer-by and your beauty was his [as you worshiped the idols of the Gentile nations].

¹⁶“You took some of your clothes and made for yourself [decorated] high places and shrines of various colors and prostituted yourself on them—things which should never have come about and taken place.

¹⁷“You also took your beautiful jewels and beautiful vessels made of My gold and My silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself images of men so that you could prostitute yourself with them;

¹⁸and you took your embroidered clothing and covered them, and offered My oil and My incense before them.

¹⁹“Also My bread which I gave you, [made from the] fine flour and oil and honey with which I fed you, you even offered it before idols [no better than cow dung] as a sweet and soothing aroma; so it happened,” says the Lord GOD.

²⁰“Moreover, you took your sons and your daughters whom you had borne to Me, and you destroyed them as sacrifices [to your man-made gods]. Were your gross immoralities so small a matter?

²¹“You slaughtered My children and offered them up to [worthless] idols, forcing them to pass through the [hideousness of the] fire.

²²“And in all your repulsive acts and prostitutions (idolatrous immoralities) you did not [pause to] remember the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, squirming in your [newborn] blood.

²³“Then it came about after all your wickedness (‘Woe, woe to you!’ says the Lord GOD), ²⁴that you built yourself an altar for prostitution and made yourself a high place [for ritual prostitution] in every square [of Jerusalem].

²⁵“At the beginning of every street you built your high place and made your beauty repulsive; and you offered your body to every passer-by and multiplied your obscene immorality.

²⁶“You also prostituted yourself with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbors [by embracing their pagan rituals], and you multiplied your obscene immorality to provoke Me to anger.

²⁷“Behold now [listen very carefully], I have stretched out My hand against you, reduced your portion, and handed you over to the desire of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your infamous behavior.

²⁸“You prostituted yourself with the Assyrians because you were not satisfied; you prostituted yourself with them and still were not satisfied.

²⁹“Moreover, you increased your obscene immorality with the land of tradesmen, Chaldea (Babylonia), and yet even with this you were not satisfied.””

³⁰“How weakened by longing and lust is your heart (mind),” says the Lord GOD, “while you do all these things, the actions of a bold and brazen prostitute.

³¹“When you built your shrine altar for prostitution at the beginning of every street and made your high place in every public square, you were not like a prostitute because you refused payment.

³²“You adulterous wife, who welcomes and receives strangers instead of her husband!

³³“Men give gifts to all prostitutes, but you give your gifts to all your lovers, bribing the pagan nations to come to you [as allies] from every direction for your obscene immoralities.

³⁴“And you are different from other [unfaithful] women in your promiscuity, in that no one follows you to lure you into prostitution, and because you give money and no money is given you; in this way you are different.”

³⁵Therefore, O prostitute [Israel], hear the word of the LORD.

³⁶Thus says the Lord GOD, “Because your lewdness was poured out and your nakedness uncovered through your obscene immoralities with your lovers (pagan allies), and with all your [repulsive] idols, and because of the blood of your sons that you gave to them, ³⁷therefore, listen, I will gather all your lovers (pagan allies) with whom you took pleasure, and all those whom you loved with all those whom you hated; I will even gather them against you from every direction and will expose your nakedness to them that they may see all your nakedness [making you, Israel, an object of loathing and of mockery, a spectacle among the nations].

³⁸“And I [the Lord GOD] will judge you like women who commit adultery or shed blood are judged; and I will bring on you the blood of wrath and jealousy. [Num 5:18]

³⁹“I will also hand you over to your lovers, and they will tear down your shrines, demolish your high places, strip you of your clothing, take away your jewels, and they will leave you naked and bare.

40“They will also incite a crowd against you and they will stone you and slaughter you with their swords.

41“They will burn down your houses with fire and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women (Gentile nations). Then I will make you cease your prostitution, and you will no longer hire your lovers.

42“So I will calm My wrath toward you and My jealousy [resulting from being denied what is rightfully and uniquely mine] will turn away from you; I will be pacified and no longer angry.

43“Because you have not remembered the days of your youth but have enraged Me with all these things, therefore, I in turn will bring your conduct down on your own head,” says the Lord GOD, “so that you will not commit this lewdness on top of all your other repulsive acts.

44“Behold, everyone who uses proverbs will use this proverb against you: ‘Like mother, like daughter.’

45“You are the daughter of your mother, who loathed her husband and her children. You are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children. Your [spiritual] mother was a Hittite and your [spiritual] father an Amorite.

46“Now your older sister is Samaria, she with her daughters (outlying cities) who live north of you; and your younger sister is Sodom, she with her daughters who live south of you.

47“Yet you have not merely walked in their ways or behaved in accordance with their pagan practices; but, as if that were too little, you [soon] acted more corruptly in all your ways than they. [Matt 11:20–24]

⁴⁸“As I live,” says the Lord GOD, “Sodom, your sister and her daughters have not done as you and your daughters have done.

⁴⁹“Behold, this was the sin of your sister Sodom: she and her daughters (outlying cities) had arrogance, abundant food, and careless ease, but she did not help the poor and needy.

⁵⁰“They were haughty and committed repulsive acts before Me; therefore I removed them when I saw it. [Gen 13:13; 18:20; 19:5]

⁵¹“Furthermore, Samaria did not commit half of your sins, but you have greatly increased your repulsive acts more than they. So you have made your [wicked] sisters [Samaria and Sodom] appear righteous and justified by [comparison to] all the disgusting things which you have done.

⁵²“Also bear your disgrace [as punishment], having made judgment favorable for your sisters, for [you virtually absolved them] because of your sins in which you behaved more repulsively than they; they are more in the right than you. Yes, be ashamed and bear your disgrace, for you made your [pagan] sisters seem righteous.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

Overcoming a Shame-Based Nature

Ezekiel 16:61–63 mentions shame. One battle many people fight in their minds is the battle against shame. Shame is more than a feeling that they've done something wrong; it's a feeling that there is something basically wrong about them. A common characteristic of people with a shame-based nature is that they do not like themselves.

If you can learn to like yourself, you'll position yourself for victory in the way you think about yourself. When you start to like yourself, other people begin to like you too. Liking yourself doesn't mean you're full of pride; it simply means you accept yourself as the person God created you to be. We all need changes in our behavior, but accepting ourselves as God's creation is vital to becoming emotionally healthy. If we can master this one thing—liking ourselves—it will work wonders in helping us to overcome a shame-based nature. Let me explain what I mean by sharing a personal story.

For a long time I didn't like my personality, and since my personality is who I am, I didn't like me. I didn't want to be as bold, straightforward, and blunt as I am. I wanted to be like my friend who was sweet, kind, and gentle. What I didn't realize is that she was born that way—and I wasn't. Because I didn't like who I was, I tried to change myself to be like someone else. It didn't work.

I had to learn to accept myself the way I was and let go of the idea of being like someone else. I began to realize that, although I did need to change in some areas of my life, who I am will never change.

A shame-based nature becomes the source of many complex inner problems, such as depression, loneliness, isolation and alienation, workaholism, and perfectionism. All kinds of compulsive disorders are rooted in shame: drug, alcohol, and other chemical addictions; eating disorders, such as bulimia, anorexia, and obesity; financial addictions, such as stinginess and gambling; sexual perversions—the list is endless.

To overcome a shame-based nature, it's necessary to separate your “do” (what you do) from your “who” (who you really are). You're a unique and special individual, with God-given talents and skills. Though you may have made mistakes in the past, it's time to move on and learn to like yourself!

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord God, I believe that You have created me to be special and unique. Help me to overcome a shame-based nature and learn to like myself. In Jesus' name. Amen.

⁵³“Nevertheless, I will restore them [again] from their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters (outlying cities), the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and along with them [I will restore you from] your own captivity [in the day of the Lord GOD], [Is 1:9]

⁵⁴so that you [Judah] will bear your humiliation and disgrace, and be [thoroughly] ashamed for all [the wickedness] that you have done to console and comfort them.

⁵⁵“Your sisters, Sodom and her daughters and Samaria and her daughters will return to their former state; and you and your daughters will return to your former state.

⁵⁶“For [the name of] your sister Sodom was not mentioned by you [except as a byword] in the day of your pride [when David ruled], ⁵⁷before your [own] wickedness was uncovered. Now you have become an object of reproach and a byword for the daughters of Aram and of Edom and all who are around her, and for the daughters of the Philistines—those surrounding you who despise you.

⁵⁸“You have borne [the penalty of] your lewdness and your repulsive acts,” says the LORD.

⁵⁹Yes, thus says the Lord GOD, “I will also deal with you as you have done, you who have despised the oath by breaking the covenant.

⁶⁰“Nevertheless, I will remember [with compassion] My covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you. [Ps 106:45]

⁶¹“Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed when you receive your sisters, both your older and your younger; I will give them to you as daughters, but not because of your covenant [with Me]. [John 10:16]

⁶²“And I will establish My covenant with you, and you will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD, [Hos 2:19, 20]

⁶³so that you may remember [in detail] and be ashamed and never open your mouth again because of your humiliation, when I have forgiven you for all that you have done,” says the Lord GOD.

17 NOW THE word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²“Son of man, ask a riddle and tell a parable to the house of Israel, ³saying, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “A great eagle (Nebuchadnezzar) with great wings, long pinions and a rich plumage of many colors came to Lebanon (Jerusalem) and took away the top of the cedar (Judah).

⁴“He broke off the topmost of its young twigs (young King Jehoiachin) and carried it to a land of traders (Babylonia); he set it in a city of merchants (Babylon).

⁵“He also took some of the seed of the land (Zedekiah, of the royal family) and planted it in fertile soil and a fruitful field; he placed it beside abundant waters and set it like a willow tree.

⁶“Then it sprouted and grew and became a low, spreading vine whose branches turned [in submission] toward him, but its roots remained under it. So it became a vine and yielded shoots and sent out branches.

⁷“There was [also] another great eagle with great wings and many feathers; and behold, this vine (Zedekiah) bent its roots toward him and sent out its branches toward him, away from the beds where it was planted, for him to water.

⁸“It was planted in good soil where water was plentiful for it to produce leaves and branches and to bear fruit, so that it might become a splendid vine.” ’

⁹“Thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Ask, “Will it thrive? Will he (Nebuchadnezzar) not uproot it and strip off its fruit so that all its sprouting leaves will wither? It will not take a strong arm or many people to uproot it [ending Israel’s national existence]. [2 Kin 25:1–7]

¹⁰“Though it is planted, will it thrive and grow? Will it not completely wither when the east wind touches it? It will wither in the beds where it grew.”” [Hos 13:9–12, 15]

¹¹Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

¹²“Say now to the rebellious house, ‘Do you not know (realize) what these things mean?’ Tell them, ‘Hear this, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and took its king [Jehoiachin] and its princes and brought them with him to Babylon. [2 Kin 24:11–16]

¹³‘And he took a member of the royal family [the king’s uncle, Zedekiah] and made a covenant with him, putting him under oath. He also took the important leaders of the land, [2 Kin 24:17]

¹⁴so that the kingdom would be in subjection, unable to restore itself and rise again, but that by keeping his covenant it might continue.

¹⁵‘But Zedekiah rebelled against Nebuchadnezzar by sending his ambassadors to Egypt so that they might give him horses and many troops. Will he succeed? Will he who does such things escape? Can he indeed break the covenant [with Babylon] and [still] escape?

¹⁶“As I live,” says the Lord GOD, “surely in the country of the king (Nebuchadnezzar) who made Zedekiah [the vassal] king, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke, in Babylon Zedekiah shall die.

¹⁷“Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company will not help him in the war, when they (the Babylonians) put up ramps and build siege walls to destroy many lives.

¹⁸“Now Zedekiah dishonored the oath by breaking the covenant, and behold, he gave his hand and pledged his allegiance, yet did all these things; he shall not escape.”

¹⁹Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD, “As I live, I will bring down on his own head My oath [made on My behalf by Nebuchadnezzar] which Zedekiah dishonored and My covenant which he broke.

²⁰“I will spread My net over him, and he will be caught in My snare; and I will bring him to Babylon and will enter into judgment with him there for his treason which he has committed against Me.

²¹“All the choice men [from Judah] in all his troops will fall by the sword, and those that survive will be scattered to every wind; and you will know [without any doubt] that I the LORD have spoken.”

²²Thus says the Lord GOD, “I Myself will take a twig from the lofty top of the cedar and will set it out; I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain. [Is 11:1, 10; 53:2; Jer 23:5; Zech 3:8]

²³“I will plant it on the mountain heights of Israel, that it may grow boughs and bear fruit and be a noble and stately cedar. And birds of every kind will live under it; they will nest [securely] in the shade of its branches.

²⁴“All the trees of the field will know that I the LORD bring down the tall tree, exalt the low tree, dry up the green tree, and make the dry tree flourish. I am the LORD; I have spoken, and I will fulfill it.”

18 THE WORD of the LORD came to me again, saying,

²“What do you mean by using this proverb concerning the land of Israel,

‘The fathers eat sour grapes [they sin],
But the children’s teeth are set on edge’?”

³“As I live,” says the Lord GOD, “you are certainly not going to use this proverb [as an excuse] in Israel anymore.

⁴“Behold (pay close attention), all souls are Mine; the soul of the father as well as the soul of the son is Mine. The soul who sins will die. [Rom 6:23]

⁵“But if a man is righteous (keeps the law) and practices justice and righteousness,

⁶and does not eat [at the pagan shrines] on the mountains or raise his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, or defile his neighbor’s wife or approach a woman during her [monthly] time of impurity—

⁷if a man does not oppress anyone, but restores to the debtor his pledge, does not commit robbery, but gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with clothing,

⁸if he does not charge interest or take a percentage of increase [on what he lends in compassion], if he keeps his hand from sin and executes true justice between man and man,

⁹if he walks in My statutes and [keeps] My ordinances so as to act with integrity; [then] he is [truly] righteous and shall certainly live,” says the Lord GOD. [Ezek 20:11; Amos 5:4]

¹⁰“If he is the father of a violent son who sheds blood, and who does any of these things to a brother

¹¹(though the father did not do any of these things), that is, the son even eats [the food set before idols] at the mountain shrines, and defiles his neighbor’s wife,

¹²oppresses the poor and needy, commits robbery, does not restore [to the debtor] his pledge, but raises his eyes to the idols, and commits repulsive acts,

¹³and charges interest and takes [a percentage of] increase on what he has loaned; will he then live? He will not live! He has done all these disgusting things, he shall surely be put to death; his blood will be on his own head.

¹⁴“Now behold, if this [wicked] man has a son who has observed all the sins which his father committed, and considers [thoughtfully what he has observed] and does not do like his father:

KEYS to a Victorious Life

You Can Do Something About Your Thoughts

In Ezekiel 18:2–3, the Lord told His people to stop using the excuse that because the fathers sinned and had problems, the children would do the same. As you begin to change the things in your life that are unfruitful and causing you trouble, the enemy will offer you many excuses to stay the way you are. One of the lies you can expect to hear in your mind is, I can't help what I think—the thoughts just come whether I want them to or not. I can't help it!

While it is true that thoughts come without being invited, it is not true that you cannot do anything about them. God's Word teaches us to cast down, or refute, wrong thoughts (see 2 Cor. 10:5). That simply means you shouldn't allow them to stay in your mind. You can get rid of any thought you don't want simply by deciding to think on something else.

¹⁵“He does not eat [food set before idols] at the mountain shrines or raise his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, or defile his neighbor's wife,

¹⁶or oppress anyone, or take anything in pledge, or commit robbery, but he gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with clothing,

¹⁷he keeps his hand from [oppressing] the poor, does not receive interest or increase [from the needy], but executes My ordinances and walks in My statutes; he shall not die for the sin (guilt) of his father; he shall certainly live.

¹⁸“As for his father, because he practiced extortion, robbed his brother, and did that which is not good among his people, behold, he shall die for his sin.

¹⁹“Yet do you say, ‘Why should the son not bear the punishment for the father’s sin?’ When the son has practiced justice and righteousness and has kept all My statutes and has done them, he shall certainly live.

²⁰“The person who sins [is the one that] will die. The son will not bear the punishment for the sin of the father, nor will the father bear the punishment for the sin of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be on himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be on himself.

²¹“But if the wicked man turns [away] from all his sins which he has committed and keeps all My statutes and practices justice and righteousness, he shall certainly live; he shall not die.

²²“All of his transgressions which he has committed will not be remembered against him; because of his righteousness which he has practiced [for his moral and spiritual integrity in every area and relationship], he will live.

²³“Do I take any pleasure in the death of the wicked,” says the Lord GOD, “rather than that he should turn [away] from his [malevolent] acts and live?

²⁴“But when the righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits sin and acts in accordance with all the repulsive things that the wicked man does, will he live? All of his righteous deeds which he has done will not be remembered because of the treachery that he has committed and for his sin which he has committed; for them he shall die.

²⁵“Yet you say, ‘The way of the Lord is not right.’ Hear now, O house of Israel! Is My way not right? Is it not your ways that are not right?

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

I praise You, Lord, because Your ways are right.

• adapted from Ezekiel 18:29

²⁶“When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits sin and dies because of it, it is for his sin which he has committed that he dies.

²⁷“Again, when a wicked man turns away from his wickedness which he has committed and practices justice and righteousness, he will save his life.

²⁸“Because he considered and turned away from all the transgressions which he had committed, he shall certainly live; he shall not die.

³⁰“Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, each one in accordance with his conduct,” says the Lord GOD. “Repent (change your way of thinking) and turn away from all your transgressions, so that sin may not become a stumbling block to you. [Matt 3:2; Rev 2:5]

³¹“Cast away from you all your transgressions which you have committed [against Me], and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! For why should you die, O house of Israel? [Eph 4:22, 23]

³²“For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone who dies,” says the Lord GOD. “Therefore, repent and live!”

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Repent Sincerely and Move On

The Amplified Bible describes repentance as changing your way of thinking (see Ezek. 18:30). True repentance is not saying, “I’m sorry I got caught in sin”; true repentance says, “I’m going to change my mind. I’m going to turn away from that kind of behavior, and I’m going to seek a new life in Christ.” Repentance means “to turn and go in another direction.” It means to turn away from sin and turn toward God.

When you need to repent of something, don’t put it off. Go ahead and do it. Then receive God’s forgiveness and refuse to waste your time in guilt and condemnation. God understands our nature and He is patient with us, but we also have to be patient with ourselves. Spiritually immature people beat themselves up every time they make a mistake. Spiritually mature people know they aren’t going to be perfect, and they know what to do when they do make mistakes—repent, commit to thinking differently, receive God’s forgiveness, and move forward.

Right Action Follows Right Thinking

There is a dynamic principle shown throughout God's Word, and understanding it and putting it into practice will help us to walk in victory: Right action follows right thinking. We won't change our behavior until we change our way of thinking.

Too many people want to change their actions but not their thoughts. They want to be free from anger, gossip, lust, dishonesty, or lying, but they don't want to change their bad thinking.

A woman once told me that she was a gossip. She felt compelled to be the first person to know anything and then to pass it on as quickly as possible. She tried to but couldn't hold back. She asked me to pray for her deliverance.

I replied, "It doesn't work that way. Until you change your way of thinking, you won't be free. You need deliverance in your mind; then your words and actions will change."

She resisted my words, but she did ask me to pray for her, which I did. When I finished, she began to cry. "As you prayed, I understood. God showed me how insignificant and unimportant I feel. When I'm the first to pass on information, it makes me feel good and important—at least for a while." She had to shift her thinking and learn to accept that she was worthwhile and loved by God just for being who she is. Once she learned to change her way of thinking, she no longer had a problem with her tongue.

It's impossible to change wrong behavior to right behavior without an attitude adjustment, which requires us to change the way we think. That is really what repentance is all about. God says, "Repent (change your way of thinking) and turn away from all your transgressions, so that sin may not become a stumbling block to you" (Ezek. 18:30).

The apostle Paul said that we need to put off our old self and be "continually renewed in the spirit of your mind [having a fresh, untarnished mental and spiritual attitude], and put on the new self [the regenerated and renewed nature], created in God's image, [godlike] in the righteousness and holiness of the truth" (Eph. 4:23–24).

Let the Holy Spirit change your way of thinking. That's the key to making permanent changes in your life.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Holy Spirit, thank You for Your ability to help me change my thinking. Help me learn to think in new ways so that You can work in me to make me more like Jesus Christ. In His name, I pray. Amen.

¹⁰“Your mother [Jerusalem] was like a vine in your vineyard,
Planted by the waters;
It was fruitful and full of branches
Because of abundant water. [2 Kin 24:17; Ezek 17:7]

¹¹“And it had strong branches for the scepters of rulers,
And its height was raised above the thick branches and into the clouds
So that it was seen [easily] in its height with the mass of its branches.

¹²“But the vine was uprooted in [godly] wrath [by His representative]
And it was thrown down to the ground;
The east wind dried up its fruit.
Its strong branch was broken off
So that it withered;
The fire [of God’s judgment] consumed it.

¹³“And now it is transplanted in the wilderness,
In a dry and thirsty land [of Babylon].

¹⁴“And the fire [of Zedekiah’s rebellion] has gone out from its branch;
It has consumed the vine’s shoots and fruit,
So that it has in it no [longer a] strong branch
As a scepter to rule.”

This is a dirge (funeral poem to be sung), and has become a dirge.

20 IN THE seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth of the month [after the beginning of the exile in Babylon], certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD and sat down before me. [Jer 25:11; 29:10]

²Then came the word of the LORD to me, saying,

³“Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Have you come to inquire of Me? As I live,” says the Lord GOD, “I will not be inquired of by you.”’

⁴“Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Then make them know [accurately] and understand fully the repulsive acts of their fathers; [Matt 23:29–33; Acts 7:51, 52]

⁵and say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “On the day when I chose Israel and lifted up My hand and swore to the descendants of the house of Jacob and made Myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I swore to them, saying, I am the LORD your God, ⁶on that day I swore to them to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had selected for them, [plentiful and] flowing with milk and honey, [a land] which is an ornament and a glory to all lands.

⁷“Then I said to them, ‘Let every man throw away the detestable things on which he feasts his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am the LORD your God.’

⁸“But they rebelled against Me and were not willing to listen to Me; they did not throw away the detestable things on which they feasted their eyes, nor did they give up the idols of

Egypt.

“Then I decided to pour out My wrath on them and finish My anger against them in the land of Egypt.

⁹“But I acted for My Name’s sake, that it would not be profaned in the sight of the [pagan] nations among whom they lived, in whose sight I made Myself known to them by bringing them out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁰“So I made them leave the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness.

¹¹“I gave them My statutes and explained My ordinances to them, which, if a man keeps, he will live.

¹²“Also I gave them My Sabbaths to be a sign between Me and them, that they might know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD who sanctifies them (separates and sets them apart).

¹³“But the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness. They did not walk in My statutes and they despised and rejected My ordinances, which, if a man keeps, he will live; and they greatly profaned My Sabbaths. Then I decided to pour out My wrath on them in the wilderness, to annihilate them.

¹⁴“But I acted for My Name’s sake, that it would not be profaned in the sight of the [pagan] nations in whose sight I had brought them out [of slavery].

¹⁵“I also swore to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, [a land of plenty] flowing with milk and honey, which is the ornament and glory of all lands,

¹⁶because they rejected My ordinances, and as for My statutes, they did not walk in them; they even profaned My Sabbaths, for their heart continually went after their [worthless] idols.

¹⁷“Yet My eye [looked on them with compassion and] spared them instead of destroying them, and I did not annihilate them in the wilderness.

¹⁸“But I said to their children in the wilderness, ‘Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers nor observe their ordinances nor defile yourselves with their idols.

¹⁹“I am the LORD your God; walk in My statutes and keep My ordinances and observe them.

²⁰“Sanctify My Sabbaths and keep them holy; and they shall be a sign between Me and you, that you may know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD your God.’

²¹“Yet the children rebelled against Me; they did not walk in My statutes, nor were they careful to observe My ordinances, which, if a man keeps, he will live; they profaned My Sabbaths. Then I decided to pour out My wrath on them and finish My anger against them in the wilderness.

²²“Yet I withdrew My hand and acted for My Name’s sake, that it would not be profaned in the sight of the [pagan] nations in whose sight I had brought them out [of slavery].

²³“Moreover, I swore to them in the wilderness that I would scatter them among the [Gentile] nations and disperse them among the countries, ²⁴because they had not observed My ordinances, but had [dishonored and] rejected My statutes and had profaned My Sabbaths, and set their eyes on the [man-made] idols of their fathers.

²⁵“[Therefore] I also gave them statutes that were not good and ordinances by which they could not live; [Ps 81:12; Is 66:4; Rom 1:21–25, 28]

²⁶and I pronounced them unclean because of their offerings [to their idols], in that they made all their firstborn pass through the fire [as pagan sacrifices], so that I might make them desolate, in order that they might know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.” ’ [Lev 20:2–5]

²⁷“Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel and say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Again in this your fathers have blasphemed Me, in that they acted faithlessly and treacherously against Me.

²⁸“For when I had brought them into the land which I swore to give to them, they saw every high hill and every dark and leafy tree [as a place for idol worship], and there they offered their sacrifices and there they presented their offering that provoked My anger; there also they made their sweet-smelling aroma and there poured out their drink offerings.

²⁹“Then I said to them, ‘What is the high place to which you go?’ So the name of it is called Bamah (High Place) to this day.” ’

³⁰“Therefore, say to the house of Israel, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Will you [exiles] defile yourselves in the same manner as your fathers? And will you prostitute yourselves before their loathsome and heinous things?

³¹“When you offer your gifts, when you make your sons pass through the fire, you are defiling yourselves with all your idols to this day. And shall I be asked by you [for an oracle], O house of Israel? As I live,” says the Lord GOD, “I will not be inquired of by you.

³²“What comes into your mind will never happen, when you say, ‘We will be like the [pagan] nations, like the tribes of the [Gentile] countries, serving [idols made of] wood and stone.’

³³“As I live,” says the Lord GOD, “most certainly with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with wrath poured out, I shall be King over you.

³⁴“I will bring you out from the peoples and will gather you from the countries in which you are scattered, with a mighty hand and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out;

³⁵and I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will enter into judgment with you and contend with you face to face.

³⁶“As I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment and contend with you,” says the Lord GOD. [Num 11; Ps 106:15; 1 Cor 10:5–10]

³⁷“I will make you pass under the rod [as the shepherd does with his sheep when he counts them, and I will count you as Mine and constrain you] and bring you into the bond of the covenant [to which you are permanently bound]. [Lev 27:32]

³⁸“And I will separate from you the rebels and those who transgress against Me; I will bring them out of the land where they temporarily live, but they will not enter the land of Israel. Thus you will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD. [Heb 4:2, 3]

³⁹“As for you, O house of Israel,” thus says the Lord GOD, “Go, let everyone serve his idols; but later you shall most certainly listen to Me, and you shall no longer profane My holy name with your gifts and with your idols.

⁴⁰“For on My holy mountain, on the high mountain of Israel (Zion),” says the Lord GOD, “there the whole house of Israel, all of them in the land, shall serve Me. There I will [graciously] accept them, and there I will seek (require) your offerings and the choicest of your gifts, with all your holy and sacred things.

POWERPOINT

God says to bring Him “the choicest of your gifts” (Ezek. 20:40), which I take to mean the best of our time and our possessions. It’s important to be honest with ourselves about what our priorities are and begin making changes that will enable us to keep God in first place. We don’t need to give God our leftovers. We need to make Him our top priority in everything we do.

⁴¹“I will accept you [graciously] as a pleasant and soothing aroma when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you from the lands in which you have been scattered; and I will prove Myself holy and manifest My holiness among you in the sight of the nations. [Eph 5:2; Phil 4:18]

⁴²“And you will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD, when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the land which I swore to give to your fathers.

⁴³“There you will remember your ways and all your deeds with which you have defiled yourselves; and you will loathe yourselves in your own sight because of all your evil deeds which you have done.

⁴⁴“And you will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD when I have dealt with you for My Name’s sake, not in accordance with your evil ways nor with your corrupt conduct, O house of Israel,” says the Lord GOD.”

⁴⁵Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

⁴⁶“Son of man, set your face toward Teman, and speak out against the south and prophesy against the forest land of the Negev (the South), ⁴⁷and say to the forest of the Negev, ‘Hear the word of the LORD: thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, I am about to kindle a fire in you, and it will devour every one of your green trees, as well as every one of your dry trees. The blazing flame will not be quenched and the whole surface from the south to the north will be burned by it.

⁴⁸“All flesh will see that I the LORD have kindled it; it will not be quenched.””

⁴⁹Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD! They are saying of me, ‘Is he not [just] speaking in parables and making allegories?’”

21 AND THE word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²“Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and direct your [prophetic] word against the sanctuaries; prophesy against the land of Israel

³and say to the land of Israel, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Behold, I am against you and will draw My sword out of its sheath and I will cut off from you both the righteous and the wicked.

⁴“Because I will cut off from you both the righteous and the wicked, therefore My sword will go from its sheath against all flesh from south to north,

⁵and all living will know [without any doubt] that I the LORD have drawn My sword out of its sheath; it will not be sheathed again.” ’

⁶“As for you, son of man, groan with breaking heart and bitter grief, groan in their sight.

⁷“And when they say to you, ‘Why do you sigh and groan?’ you shall answer, ‘Because of the news that is coming; and every heart will melt and all hands will be frail, and every spirit will faint and all knees will be weak as water. Behold, it comes and it will happen,’ says the Lord GOD.”

⁸Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

⁹“Son of man, prophesy and say, ‘Thus says the LORD.’ Say,

‘A sword, a sword [from Babylon] is sharpened
And also polished!

¹⁰‘It is sharpened to make a slaughter,
Polished to flash and glimmer like lightning!’

Shall we then rejoice [when such a disaster approaches]? But it rejects and views with contempt the scepter of My son [Judah]. [Gen 49:9, 10; 2 Sam 7:23]

¹¹“The sword [of Babylon] is ready to be polished so that it may be handled and put to use; the sword is sharpened and polished to be put in the hand of the slayer (Nebuchadnezzar).

¹²“Cry out and wail, son of man, for it is against My people; it is against all the princes of Israel. They are thrown to the sword along with My [terrified] people. Therefore strike your thigh and strike your chest [in grief].

¹³“For this sword has been tested [on others]; and what if it views with contempt the scepter [of Judah]? The scepter shall be no more [but shall be swept away],” says the Lord GOD.

¹⁴“Therefore, son of man, prophesy and strike your hands together; and let the sword be doubled the third time [in intensity], the sword for the slain. It is the sword for the great slaughter which surrounds them [so that no one can escape, even by hiding in their inner rooms], ¹⁵so that hearts may melt, and many will fall at their gates. I have given the glittering sword. Ah! It is made [to flash] like lightning; it is pointed and sharpened for slaughter.

¹⁶“Turn O sword and cut right or cut left, whichever way you thirst for blood and your edge direct you.

¹⁷“I will also strike My hands together, and I will cause My wrath to rest. I the LORD have spoken.”

¹⁸The word of the LORD came to me, saying,

¹⁹“As for you, son of man, mark out two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to come, both starting from the same land. And make a signpost; place it at the head of the way to the city.

²⁰“You shall point out a way for the [Babylonian] sword to come to Rabbah [the capital] of the sons of Ammon, and to Judah into fortified Jerusalem.

²¹“For the king of Babylon stands at the parting of the way, at the fork of the two ways, to use divination. He shakes the arrows, he consults the teraphim (household idols), he looks at the liver [of an animal for an omen].

²²“In his right hand is the lot marked for Jerusalem: to set battering rams, to open the mouth calling for destruction, to lift up the voice with a war cry, to set battering rams against the gates, to put up assault ramps, and to build siege walls.

²³“It will seem like a false divination in their eyes, those who have sworn solemn oaths [of allegiance to Nebuchadnezzar]. But he will remind them of their guilt [by rebelling and violating their oath], that they may be caught. [2 Chr 36:10, 13; Ezek 17:15, 18–21]

²⁴“Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Because you have caused your guilt to be remembered, in that your rebellion is uncovered, so that your sins appear in everything that you do—because you have come to mind, you will be seized with the hand [of the enemy].

²⁵‘And you, O dishonored and wicked one [Zedekiah], the prince of Israel, whose day has come, whose time of final punishment is here,’ ²⁶thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Remove the turban and take off the crown; things shall not remain as they have been. Exalt that which is low and abase the high.

²⁷‘A ruin, a ruin, I will make it a ruin! It shall no longer exist until He comes whose right it is [to reign], and I will give it to

Him. ' [Gen 49:10; Is 9:6, 7; 11:1–4; Dan 7:14; Luke 1:31–33]

²⁸“And you, son of man, prophesy and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the sons of Ammon and concerning their reproach (disgrace),’ and say: ‘A sword, a sword is drawn for the slaughter; it is sharpened and polished to put an end [to everything], and to flash like lightning, ²⁹while they (Ammonite prophets) see false visions [of peace] for you, while they divine lies [of escape] for you—to place you [of Ammon] on the headless bodies of the wicked who are slain, whose day has come, whose time of the final punishment is here.

³⁰‘Return the sword to its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your origin (birth), I will judge you.

³¹‘I will pour out My indignation on you [sons of Ammon]; I will blow on you with the fire of My wrath, and I will place you in the hand of brutal men, skilled in destruction.

³²‘You will be fuel for the fire; your blood will be in the midst of the land. You will not be remembered, for I the LORD have spoken.’” [Jer 49:1–6; Ezek 25:1–7; Amos 1:13–15; Zeph 2:8–11]

22 THEN THE word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²“And you, son of man [Ezekiel], will you judge, will you judge the city of bloodshed? Then make her recognize all her repulsive acts.

³“You shall say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “A city that sheds blood in her midst, so that her time [of doom] will come, and makes idols to defile her, contrary to her interest!

4“You have become guilty by the blood which you have shed, and you are defiled by the idols which you have made. Thus you have caused your day [of judgment and punishment] to approach and have arrived at [the completion of] your years; therefore, I have made you an object of scorn to the [pagan] nations and a thing to be mocked by all countries.

5“Those who are near and those who are far from you will mock you, you [infamous one] of ill repute, full of turmoil.

6“Behold, the princes of Israel, every one according to his power, have been intending to shed blood in you.

7“In you they have treated father and mother lightly. They have oppressed the stranger among you; and in your presence they have wronged the fatherless and the widow.

8“You have despised and scorned My sacred things and have profaned My Sabbaths.

9“In you are men who slander for the purpose of shedding blood, and in your presence they have eaten [food offered to idols] at the mountain shrines; in your midst they have committed acts of lewdness.

10“In you men have uncovered their fathers’ nakedness [the nakedness of mother or stepmother]; in you they have violated women who are [set apart as ceremonially] unclean during their menstrual impurity [or after childbirth].

11“In you one has committed a shameful act with his neighbor’s wife, another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law, and another has violated his sister, his father’s daughter.

12“In you they have accepted bribes to shed blood; you have taken [forbidden] interest and [a percentage of] profits, and you have injured your neighbors for gain by oppression and extortion, and you have forgotten Me,” says the Lord GOD.

¹³“Behold, therefore, I strike My hands [together] at your dishonest gain which you have acquired and at the bloodshed which is among you.

¹⁴“Can your heart (courage) endure, or can your hands be strong in the days that I will deal with you? I the LORD have spoken, and will act.

¹⁵“I will scatter you among the nations and disperse you through the countries, and I will destroy your filthiness.

¹⁶“You will defile yourself in the sight of the [Gentile] nations, and you will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.””

¹⁷And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

¹⁸“Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross (metallic waste) to Me. All of them are (useless) bronze, tin, iron, and lead in the furnace; they are the dross of silver.

¹⁹“Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Because you have all become dross, therefore, behold, I will gather you [O Israel] into the midst of Jerusalem.

²⁰‘As they gather silver and bronze and iron and lead and tin into the furnace to blow fire on it in order to melt it, so I will gather you in My anger and in My wrath, and I will put you there and melt you.

²¹‘I will gather you and blow on you with the fire of My wrath, and you will be melted in the midst of it.

²²‘As silver is melted in the furnace, so will you be melted in the midst of it; and you will know [without any doubt] that I the LORD have poured out My wrath on you [O Israel].”

23 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

24“Son of man, say to her, ‘You [Israel] are a land that is not pronounced clean or rained on in the day of indignation.’

25“There is a conspiracy of her [false] prophets in her midst, like a roaring lion tearing the prey. They have devoured [human] life; they have taken [in their greed] treasure and precious things; they have made many widows among her.

26“Her priests have done violence to My law and have profaned My holy things. They have made no distinction between the holy (sacred) and the profane (secular), they have not taught [people] the difference between the unclean and the clean; and they hide their eyes from My Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

POWERPOINT

Just as God was doing in Ezekiel's day, today He is also looking for people who will "stand in the gap" for others through intercessory prayer (see Ezek. 22:30). We are often tempted to judge others, which only holds us in bondage and keeps us from interceding for them. Give people prayer instead of judgment, and stand in the gap for them as often and as fervently as you possibly can.

²⁷“Her princes within her are like wolves tearing and devouring the prey, shedding blood and destroying lives in order to get dishonest gain.

²⁹“The people of the land have practiced oppression and extortion and have committed robbery; they have wronged the poor and needy and they have oppressed the stranger without justice.

³⁰“I searched for a man among them who would build up the wall and stand in the gap before Me for [the sake of] the land, that I would not destroy it, but I found no one [not even one].

³¹“Therefore I have poured out My indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of My wrath; I have repaid their way [by bringing it] upon their own heads,” says the Lord GOD.

23 THE WORD of the LORD came to me again, saying,

²“Son of man, there were two women (Israel and Judah), the daughters of one mother (the united kingdom);

³and they prostituted themselves in Egypt. From their youth they were grossly immoral; in that place their breasts were embraced and their virgin bosom was grasped.

⁴“Their names were Oholah the elder and Oholibah her sister, and they became Mine and they gave birth to sons and daughters. And as for [the identity of] their names, Oholah is Samaria (capital city of Israel) and Oholibah is Jerusalem (capital city of Judah).

⁵“Oholah played the prostitute while she was Mine; and she adored and lusted after her lovers (allies), the Assyrians, her neighbors,

⁶who were clothed in purple, governors and officials, all of them attractive young men, horsemen riding on horses.

⁷“She bestowed [freely] her immoralities on them, the choicest men of Assyria, all of them; and with all whom she adored and lusted after, she defiled herself with their idols.

⁸“She did not give up the acts of prostitution that originated during her time in Egypt; for in her youth men had lain with her, and they handled her virgin bosom and poured out their depravity on her.

⁹“Therefore, I placed her in the hand of her lovers (allies), into the hand of the Assyrians whom she adored.

¹⁰“They uncovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters and they killed her with the sword. So she became notorious among women, and they executed judgments on her.

¹¹“Now her sister Oholibah saw this, yet she was more corrupt in her lust than she, and her acts of prostitution were more [wanton] than the immoralities of her sister.

¹³“I saw that she had defiled herself; they both behaved the same way.

¹⁴“But Oholibah carried her depravity further, for she saw men pictured on the wall, the images of the Chaldeans (Babylonians) sketched and portrayed in vermilion (bright red pigment), ¹⁵girded with belts on their loins, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them looking like officers, like the Babylonian men whose native land was Chaldea.

¹⁶“When she saw [the sketches of] them, she lusted after them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea.

¹⁸“So she flaunted her acts of prostitution and exposed her nakedness; then I became disgusted with her [and turned away], as I had become disgusted with her sister [and turned away].

¹⁹“Yet she multiplied her depravities, remembering the days of her youth, when she was actively immoral in the land of Egypt.

²⁰“For she lusted after her lovers [there], whose flesh is like the flesh of donkeys and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

²¹“Thus you longed for the lewdness and vulgarity of your youth, when the Egyptians handled your bosom on account of the breasts of your youth.

²²“Therefore, O Oholibah, thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Behold, I will stir up your lovers (allies) against you, from whom you turned away in disgust, and I will bring them against you from every side:

²³the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them, desirable young men, governors and officials all of them, princes, officers and men of renown, all of them riding on horses.

²⁴“They will come against you with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with a company of people (infantry) who will array themselves against you on every side with large shield and small, and helmet; and I will commit the judgment and the punishment to them, and they will judge and punish you in accordance with their [pagan] customs.

²⁵‘I will set My jealous indignation against you [demanding what is rightfully and uniquely mine], and they will deal with you in fury. They will remove your nose and your ears, and your survivors will fall by the sword. They will take your sons and your daughters; and the survivors will be devoured by the fire.

²⁶‘They will also strip you (Judah) of your clothes and take away your beautiful jewels.

²⁷‘Thus I will put an end to your lewdness and your prostitution brought from the land of Egypt, so that you will not lift up your eyes to them or remember Egypt [with longing] anymore.’

²⁸‘For thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Behold, I will place you into the hands of those whom you hate, into the hands of those from whom you turned away in disgust.

²⁹‘They will deal with you in hatred, take all your property, and leave you naked and bare. And the nakedness of your depravity will be uncovered, both your lewdness and your obscene practices.

³⁰‘These things will be done to you because you have prostituted yourself with the [Gentile] nations, because you have defiled yourself with their idols.

³¹‘You have walked in the way of your sister (Samaria); therefore I will give her cup [of judgment] into your hand.’

³²‘Thus says the Lord GOD,

‘You will drink your sister’s cup,
Which is deep and wide [and filled to the brim].
You shall be laughed at and derided;
It contains much [too much to endure].

³³‘You shall be filled with drunkenness and sorrow,
With the cup of horror and desolation,
With the cup of your sister Samaria.

³⁴‘You will drink it and drain it,
Then you will gnaw its fragments
And tear your breasts;

for I have spoken,’ says the Lord GOD.

³⁵“Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Because you have forgotten Me and cast Me behind your back, therefore bear now [the consequences of] your lewdness and prostitution.’”

³⁶Moreover, the LORD said to me, “Son of man, will you judge Oholah (Samaria, capital of Israel) and Oholibah (Jerusalem, capital of Judah)? Then inform them of their atrocities [the detestable and vile things they do].

³⁷“For they have committed adultery, and blood is on their hands. They have committed adultery [against Me] with their idols and have even forced their sons, whom they bore to Me, to pass through the fire as [an offering of] food to them (idols).

³⁸“Moreover, they have done this to Me: they have defiled My sanctuary on the same day [of their idolatries] and have profaned My Sabbaths.

³⁹“For when they had killed their children [as offerings] to their idols, then they came the same day to My sanctuary to profane it [by daring to offer a sacrifice there also]. And behold, this they did within My house.

⁴⁰“Furthermore, you have even sent a messenger for men to come from far away; and behold, they came—those for whom you bathed, painted your eyes, and decorated yourself with ornaments;

⁴¹and you sat on a splendid couch with a table arranged before it on which you had set My incense and My oil.

⁴²“The sound of a carefree crowd was with her; and drunkards were brought from the wilderness with men of a common sort, who put bracelets on the hands of the women (both sisters) and beautiful crowns on their heads.

⁴³“Then I said concerning the one (Oholah) worn out by adulteries, ‘Will they now commit adultery with her when she is like this?’

⁴⁴“But they committed adultery with her as they would with a prostitute. So they went in to Oholah (Israel) and to Oholibah (Judah), the lewd women.

⁴⁵“And they, righteous men, will judge and condemn them with the judgment (punishment) of adulteresses and with the judgment of women who shed blood, because they are adulteresses and blood is on their hands.

⁴⁶“For thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Bring up a horde (mob) against them and hand them over to terror and plunder.

⁴⁸“Thus I will make lewdness cease from the land, that all women may be admonished and taught not to commit immoral acts as you have done.

⁴⁹“Thus your lewdness will be repaid to you, and you will suffer the penalty for your [sinful] idolatry; and you will know [without any doubt] that I am the Lord GOD.”

24 AGAIN IN the ninth year [of King Jehoiachin’s captivity by Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon], in the tenth month, on the tenth [day] of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²“Son of man, record the name of the day, this very day. The king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day.

³“Speak a parable against the rebellious house [of Judah] and say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Put on a pot; put it on and also pour water into it;

⁴“Put in it the pieces [of meat],

Every good piece (the people of Jerusalem), the thigh and the shoulder;

Fill it with choice bones.

⁵“Take the choicest of the flock,

And also pile wood under the pot.

Make it boil vigorously

And boil its bones in the pot.”

⁶“Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD,

“Woe (judgment is coming) to the bloody city,

To the pot in which there is rust

And whose rust has not gone out of it!

Take out of it piece by piece,

Without making any choice.

7“For her blood [that she has shed] remains in her midst;
She put it on the bare rock;
She did not pour it on the ground
To cover it with dust.

8“That it may cause wrath to come up to take vengeance,
I have put her blood [guilt for her children sacrificed to Molech] on the bare rock,
That it may not be covered.”

9“Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD,
“Woe to the bloody city!
I will also make the pile [of wood] high.

10“Heap on wood, kindle the fire,
Boil the meat well [done]
And mix in the spices,
And let the bones be burned.

11“Then set the empty pot (Jerusalem) back on the coals
So that it may be hot
And its bronze may glow
And its filthiness may be melted
And its rust (scum) may be consumed.

12“She has wearied Me with toil,
Yet her great rust has not left her;
Her thick rust and filth will not be burned away by fire [no matter how hot the flame].

13“In your filthiness are lewdness and outrage.
Therefore I would have cleansed you,

Yet you were not [willing to be] cleansed,
You will not be cleansed from your filthiness again
Until I have satisfied My wrath against you.

¹⁴“I the LORD have spoken; it is coming and I will act. I will not relent, and I will not have compassion and I will not be sorry; in accordance with your ways and in accordance with your deeds I will judge and punish you,” says the Lord GOD.”

¹⁵Also the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

¹⁶“Son of man, listen carefully, I am about to take away from you the desire of your eyes [your wife] with a single stroke. Yet you shall not mourn and you shall not weep, and your tears shall not flow.

¹⁷“Sigh and groan in silence; do not mourn for the dead. Bind on your turban and put your sandals on your feet, and do not cover your mustache or eat the bread of [mourners furnished by other] men.”

¹⁸So I spoke to the people in the morning, and in the evening my wife died. And the next morning I did as I was commanded.

¹⁹The people said to me, “These things that you are doing—tell us, what do they mean for us?”

²⁰Then I answered them, “The word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²¹“Speak to the house of Israel, “Thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Behold, I will profane My sanctuary, the pride of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and the delight of your soul; and your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind

[in Jerusalem] will fall by the sword.

²²“You will do as I [Ezekiel] have done; you shall not cover your mustache nor eat the bread of [mourning brought to you by other] men.

²³“Your turbans will be on your heads and your sandals on your feet. You will not mourn or weep, but you will rot away in your sins and you will groan to one another. [Lev 26:39]

²⁴“So Ezekiel will be a sign to you; in accordance with all that he has done you will do. And when this [destruction of the temple] comes, then you will know [without any doubt] that I am the Lord GOD.”

²⁵“As for you, son of man, on the day when I take their strength and their stronghold from them, their joy and their glory, the desire of their eyes and their heart’s [chief] delight (the temple), and I also take their sons and their daughters, ²⁶that on that day a survivor will come to you to let you hear [of the destruction of Jerusalem] with your [own] ears.

²⁷“On that day your mouth will be opened to him who escaped, and you will speak and no longer be mute. In this way you shall be a sign to them, and they will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.”

25 THE WORD of the LORD came to me again, saying,

²“Son of man, set your face toward the Ammonites and prophesy against them.

³“And say to the Ammonites, ‘Hear the word of the Lord GOD, for thus says the Lord GOD, “Because you said, ‘Aha!’ against My sanctuary when it was profaned and against the land of Israel when it was made desolate and against the house of Judah when they went into exile, ⁴therefore, behold, I am going to give you to the people of the East as a possession, and they will set their encampments among you and make their dwellings among you; they will eat your fruit and drink your milk.

⁵“I will make Rabbah [your chief city] a pasture for camels and [the cities of] the Ammonites a resting place for flocks [of sheep]. And you will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.”

⁶For thus says the Lord GOD, “Because you have clapped your hands and stamped your feet and rejoiced with all the contempt, and malice, and spite of your soul against the land of Israel, ⁷therefore, behold, I have stretched out My hand against you and will hand you over as prey and spoil to the nations. And I will cut you off from the peoples and will cause you to perish from the countries; I will destroy you. Then you shall know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.” [Jer 49:1–6; Ezek 21:28–32; Amos 1:13–15; Zeph 2:8–11]

⁸Thus says the Lord GOD, “Because Moab and Seir (Edom) say, ‘Behold, the house of Judah is like all the [pagan] nations,’ ⁹therefore, behold, I will deprive the flank of Moab of its cities which are on its frontiers, the glory of the land, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon and Kiriathaim.

¹⁰“I will give it, along with the children of Ammon, to the people of the East as a possession, so that the children of Ammon will not be remembered among the nations [any longer].

¹¹“Thus I will execute judgment and punishment on Moab, and they will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.” [Is 15, 16; Jer 48; Amos 2:1–3; Zeph 2:8–11]

¹²“Thus says the Lord GOD, “Because Edom has acted against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended and has incurred grievous guilt by taking revenge on them,” ¹³therefore thus says the Lord GOD, “I will also stretch out My hand against Edom and I will cut off and destroy man and beast. I will make it desolate; from Teman even to Dedan they will fall by the sword.

¹⁴“I will take My vengeance on Edom by the hand of My people Israel. Therefore, they will act in Edom in accordance with My anger and My wrath, and they will know and experience My vengeance,” says the Lord GOD. [Is 34; Ezek 35; Amos 1:11, 12; Obad]

¹⁵“Thus says the Lord GOD, “Because the Philistines have acted revengefully and have taken vengeance [contemptuously] with malice in their hearts to destroy with everlasting hostility and hatred,” ¹⁶therefore thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, I will stretch out My hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites and destroy the remnant of the seacoast.

¹⁷“I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful rebukes and chastisements and they will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD when I lay My vengeance on them.”” [Is 14:29–31; Jer 47; Amos 1:6–8; Zeph 2:4–7; Zech 9:5–7]

26 NOW IN the eleventh year, on the first [day] of the month [after the capture of King Jehoiachin], the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²“Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, ‘Aha! The gateway of the people is broken; she is open to me. I will be filled, now that she is a desolate waste,’

³therefore, thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Behold, I am against you, O Tyre, and I will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea makes its waves crest.

⁴‘They will destroy the walls of Tyre and break down her towers; and I will scrape her dust and debris from her and make her as bare as [the top of] a rock.

⁵‘Her island in the midst of the sea will become a dry place to spread nets, for I have spoken,’ says the Lord GOD, ‘and she will become a prey and a spoil for the nations.

⁶‘Also Tyre’s daughters (towns, villages) on the mainland will be killed by the sword, and they will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.’”

⁷For thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, I will bring upon Tyre from the north Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, king of kings, with horses and chariots and with horsemen and a great army.

⁸“He will kill your daughters on the mainland with the sword, and he shall make siege walls against you and build a siege ramp against you and raise [a roof of] large shields [as a defense] against you.

⁹“He will direct the [shocking] blow of his battering rams against your walls, and he will tear down your towers with his crowbars.

¹⁰“Because of the great number of his horses, their dust will cover you; your walls [O Tyre] will shake from the noise of the horsemen and the wagons and the chariots when he enters your gates as men enter a city that is breached.

¹¹“With the hoofs of his horses Nebuchadnezzar will trample all your streets; with the sword he will kill your people, and your strong pillars (obelisks) will fall to the ground.

¹²“Also they will take your riches as spoil and plunder your merchandise, and tear down your walls and your pleasant houses, and throw your stones and your timber and the debris [from your city] out in the water.

¹³“So I will silence your songs, and the sound of your lyres will no longer be heard.

¹⁴“I will make you [Tyre] a bare rock; you will be a dry place on which to spread nets. You will never be rebuilt, for I the LORD have spoken,” says the Lord GOD.

¹⁵Thus says the Lord GOD to Tyre, “Shall not the coastlands shake at the sound of your fall when the wounded groan, when the slaughter occurs in your midst?

¹⁶“Then all the princes of the sea will go down from their thrones and remove their robes and take off their embroidered garments. They will clothe themselves with trembling; they will sit on the ground, tremble again and again, and be appalled at you.

¹⁷“They will take up a dirge (funeral poem to be sung) for you and say to you,

‘How you have perished and vanished, O renowned city,
From the seas, O renowned city,

Which was mighty on the sea,
She and her inhabitants,
Who imposed her terror
On all who lived there!

¹⁸“Now the coastlands will tremble
On the day of your fall;
Yes, the coastlands which are by the sea
Will be terrified at your departure.”

¹⁹For thus says the Lord GOD, “When I make you a desolate city, like the cities which are not inhabited, when I bring up the deep over you and great waters cover you, ²⁰then I will bring you down with those who descend into the pit (the place of the dead), to the people of old, and I will make you [Tyre] live in the depths of the earth, like the ancient ruins, with those who go down to the pit, so that you will not be inhabited; but I will set glory and splendor in the land of the living.

²¹“I will bring terrors on you and you will be no more. Though you will be sought, yet you will never be found again,” says the Lord GOD.

27 THE WORD of the LORD came to me again, saying,

²“Now you, son of man, take up a dirge (funeral poem to be sung) for Tyre,

³and say to Tyre, who lives at the entrance to the sea, merchant of the peoples to many coastlands, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD,

“O Tyre, you have said, ‘I am perfect in beauty.’

4“Your borders are in the heart of the seas;
Your builders have perfected your beauty.

5“They have made all your planks of fir trees from Senir;
They have taken a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for
you.

6“Of the oaks of Bashan they have made your oars;
They have made your deck of boxwood from the coastlands of Cyprus, inlaid with ivory.

7“Your sail was of fine embroidered linen from Egypt
So that it became your distinguishing mark (insignia);
Your [ship’s] awning [which covered you] was blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah [of Asia Minor].

8“The inhabitants of Sidon and [the island] of Arvad were your oarsmen;
Your skilled and wise men, O Tyre, were with you; they were your pilots.

9“The elders of Gebal and its skilled and wise men were with you, repairing your leaks;
All the ships of the sea with their mariners were with you to deal in your merchandise.

10“Persia and Lud and Put (Libya) were in your army as your men of war. They hung the shield and the helmet on you;
they gave you splendor.

11“The men of Arvad with your army were upon your walls, all around, and the Gammadim (men of valor) were in your towers. They hung their shields on your walls, all around; they perfected your beauty.

¹²“Tarshish [in Spain] was your customer and traded with you because of the abundance of your riches of all kinds; with silver, iron, tin, and lead they paid for your wares.

¹³“Javan (Greece), Tubal and Meshech (Asia Minor) traded with you; with the lives of men [taken as slaves] and vessels of bronze they paid for your merchandise.

¹⁴“Those from Beth-togarmah (Armenia) traded for your wares with [chariot] horses, war horses, and mules.

¹⁵“The men of Dedan were your traders. Many coastlands were your markets; ivory tusks and ebony they brought to you in payment or as gifts.

¹⁶“Aram traded with you because of the abundance of the goods you made. They paid for your merchandise with emeralds, purple, embroidered work, fine linen, coral, and rubies.

¹⁷“Judah and the land of Israel, they were your traders; with the wheat of Minnith [in Ammon], cakes, honey, oil, and balm they paid for your goods.

¹⁸“Damascus traded with you because of the abundance of your handiworks and the immense wealth of every kind, with the wine of Helbon [Aleppo] and the white wool [of Sachar in Syria].

¹⁹“Dedan and Javan traded with yarn from Uzal [in Arabia] for your wares; wrought iron, cassia, and sweet cane were among your merchandise.

²⁰“Dedan traded with you in saddle blankets for riding.

²¹“Arabia and all the princes of Kedar, they were your customers for lambs, rams, and goats [favored by you]; for these they were your customers.

22“The merchants of Sheba and Raamah [in Arabia], they traded with you; they paid for your wares with the choicest of all kinds of spices and all kinds of precious stones and gold.

23“Haran and Canneh and Eden [in Mesopotamia], the merchants of Sheba [on the Euphrates], Asshur and Chilmad traded with you.

24“They traded with you in choice fabrics and garments, in clothes of blue or violet and embroidered work, and in [treasures of] multi-colored damask and knotted carpets bound with tightly wound cords, which were among your merchandise.

25“The ships of Tarshish were the caravans for your merchandise,

And you [Tyre] were replenished and very glorious [heavily laden with an imposing fleet]

In the heart of the seas.

26“Your rowers have brought you
Into great and deep waters;
The east wind has broken and shipwrecked you
In the heart of the seas.

27“Your riches, your wares, your merchandise
Your oarsmen and your pilots,
Your caulkers, your dealers in merchandise,
And all your men of war who are with you,
With all your company that is in your midst,
Will sink in the heart of the seas
On the day of your ruin.

- 28“The pasture lands and the countryside will shake
At the [piercing] sound of the [hopeless, wailing] cry of your pilots.
- 29“All who handle the oar,
The mariners and all the pilots of the sea
Will come down from their ships;
They will stand on the shore,
- 30And they will make their voice heard [as they wail loudly]
over you
And they will cry bitterly.
They will throw dust on their heads;
They will wallow in ashes.
- 31“And they will make themselves [completely] bald for you
And wrap themselves in sackcloth;
And in bitterness of soul they will weep for you
With bitter mourning and wailing.
- 32“In their wailing they will take up a dirge (funeral poem to be sung) for you
And sing a dirge for you:
‘Who is like Tyre,
Like her who is silent [destroyed] in the midst of the sea?’
- 33“When your wares went out to the sea,
You met the desire, and the demand, and the necessities of many people;
You enriched the kings of the earth
With your abundant wealth and merchandise.
- 34“Now you are shattered by the seas
In the depths of the waters;

Your merchandise and all your crew
Have gone down with you.

³⁵‘All the inhabitants of the coastlands
Are aghast and appalled at you,
And their kings are horribly frightened and shudder;
Their faces twitch and pale.

³⁶‘The merchants among the people hiss at you [with malicious joy];
You have become a horror and a source of terrors.
You will cease to be forever.’”””

28 THE WORD of the LORD came again to me, saying,

²“Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD,

“Because your heart is lifted up
And you have said and thought, ‘I am a god,
I sit in the seat of the gods
In the heart of the seas’;
Yet you are [only] a man [weak, feeble, made of earth] and not God,
Though you [imagine yourself to be more than mortal and] think your mind is as [wise as] the mind of God—

³Behold, you are [imagining yourself] wiser than Daniel;
There is no secret [you think] that is hidden from you;

⁴With your [own] wisdom and with your [own]
understanding
You have acquired your riches and power

And have brought gold and silver into your treasuries;

⁵By your great wisdom and by your trade

You have increased your riches and power,

And your heart is proud and arrogant because of your wealth;

⁶Therefore thus says the Lord GOD,

‘Because you have imagined your mind [to be]

Like the mind of God [having thoughts and plans like God Himself], [Obad 3]

⁷Therefore, behold, I will bring strangers (Babylonians) upon you,

The most ruthless and violent of the nations.

And they will draw their swords

Against the beauty of your wisdom [O Tyre]

And defile your splendor.

⁸‘They will bring you down to the pit [of destruction],

And you will die the death of all those who die

In the heart of the seas.

⁹‘Will you still say, “I am a god,”

In the presence of him who kills you?

But you are [only] a man [made of earth] and not God,

In the hands of those who wound and profane you.

¹⁰‘You will die the death of the uncircumcised [barbarian]

By the hand of strangers,

For I have spoken!’ says the Lord GOD.””

¹¹Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

¹²“Son of man, take up a dirge (funeral poem to be sung)

for the king of Tyre and say to him, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD,

“You had the full measure of perfection and the finishing touch [of completeness],

Full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

¹³“You were in Eden, the garden of God;

Every precious stone was your covering:

The ruby, the topaz, and the diamond;

The beryl, the onyx, and the jasper;

The lapis lazuli, the turquoise, and the emerald;

And the gold, the workmanship of your settings and your sockets,

Was in you.

They were prepared

On the day that you were created. [Gen 3:14, 15; Is 14:12–15; Matt 16:23]

¹⁴“You were the anointed cherub who covers and protects, And I placed you there.

You were on the holy mountain of God;

You walked in the midst of the stones of fire [sparkling jewels]. [Ex 24:10]

¹⁵“You were blameless in your ways

From the day you were created

Until unrighteousness and evil were found in you.

¹⁶“Through the abundance of your commerce

You were internally filled with lawlessness and violence,

And you sinned;

Therefore I have cast you out as a profane and unholy thing

From the mountain of God.
And I have destroyed you, O covering cherub,
From the midst of the stones of fire.

¹⁷“Your heart was proud and arrogant because of your beauty;

You destroyed your wisdom for the sake of your splendor.
I cast you to the ground;
I lay you before kings,
That they might look at you.

¹⁸“You profaned your sanctuaries
By the great quantity of your sins and the enormity of your guilt,
By the unrighteousness of your trade.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Pride Leads to Problems

We often have problems in our relationships because our minds are full of pride. We may think more highly of ourselves than we do of other people when the Bible tells us we should always think more highly of other people than we do of ourselves (see Phil. 2:3). That doesn't mean we should have a bad attitude about ourselves; it means we shouldn't think we are better than other people.

Satan's "heart was proud and arrogant" (Ezek. 28:17): All he said was "I, I, I, I." But the Bible says we are to have the "selfless humility" of Christ (see Phil. 2:5), who even though He was the Son of God did not think Himself too good to serve others. God exalts the humble, but the proud He brings down (see 1 Pet. 5:5). Take authority over prideful thoughts, and let God help you maintain a humble attitude.

Therefore I have brought forth a fire from your midst;
It has consumed you,
And I have reduced you to ashes on the earth
In the sight of all who look at you.

¹⁹“All the peoples (nations) who knew you
Are appalled at you;
You have come to a horrible and terrifying end
And will forever cease to be.”” [Is 23; Joel 3:4–8; Amos 1:9,

10; Zech 9:3, 4]

²⁰Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²¹“Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against her

²²and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD,

“Behold, I am against you, O Sidon,

And I will show My glory and be glorified in your midst.

Then they will know [by personal experience] that I am the LORD when I bring judgment and punishment on her,

And I will manifest My holiness in her.

²³“For I will send virulent disease to her

And blood into her streets,

And the wounded will fall in her midst

By the sword upon her from every side,

And they shall know [without any doubt] that I am the

LORD.

²⁴“And there will no longer be a briar or a painful thorn to prick the house of Israel from all those around them who treated them with contempt; then they will know [with clarity] that I am the Lord GOD.”

²⁵‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “When I gather the house of Israel from the nations among whom they are scattered, and I manifest my Holiness in them in the sight of the nations, then they will live in their own land which I gave to My servant Jacob.

²⁶“They shall live in it securely; and they will build houses, plant vineyards and live securely when I execute judgment on all those around them who despise them. Then they will know [with clarity and confidence] that I am the LORD their God.””

29 IN THE tenth year [of the captivity of King Jehoiachin by the king of Babylon], in the tenth month, on the twelfth of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²“Son of man, set your face toward Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt.

³“Speak and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD,

‘Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt,
The great monster that lies in the midst of his rivers,
[Boastfully] declaring, ‘My Nile is my own, and I have made it for myself.’

⁴“I will put hooks in your jaws
And [I will] make the fish of your rivers stick to your scales.
And I will pull you up from the midst of your rivers,
And all the fish of your rivers will stick to your scales.

⁵“I will abandon you to the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers;
You will fall on the open field; and you will not be gathered up or buried.
I have given you as food to the [wild] animals of the earth and the birds of the sky.

⁶“And all the inhabitants of Egypt will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD,
Because they have been [only] a staff made of [fragile] reeds to the house of Israel.

⁷“When they (Israel) grasped you (Egypt) by the hand,
You broke and tore apart their hands;
When they leaned on you,
You broke and strained their backs.”

⁸“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, I am going to bring a sword on you and cut off (destroy) both man and animal, ⁹and the land of Egypt will be a desolation and a wasteland. And they will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.

“Because you said, ‘The Nile is mine and I have made it,’

¹⁰behold (hear this), therefore, I am against you and against your rivers (the Nile, its tributaries), and I will make the land of Egypt a complete waste and a desolation, from [northern] Migdol to [southern] Syene, even as far as the border of Ethiopia (Cush).

¹¹“No man’s foot will pass through it, no animal’s foot will pass through it, and it will not be inhabited for forty years.

¹²“So I will make the land of Egypt a desolation [plundered and ruined] among desolated lands; and her cities, among cities that are laid waste, will be desolate forty years. I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and [I will] disperse them through the lands.”

¹³“For thus says the Lord GOD, “At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the nations among whom they were scattered. [Jer 46:25, 26]

¹⁴“I will reverse the fortunes of Egypt [as I will that of Israel] and cause them to return to the land of Pathros, the land of their origin, and there they will be a lowly kingdom.

¹⁵“It will be the lowliest of the kingdoms, and it will never again exalt itself above the nations; I will diminish the Egyptians so they will never again rule over the nations.

¹⁶“And Egypt will never again have the confidence of the house of Israel; their wickedness will be remembered whenever Israel looks toward them [for help]. Then they will know [without any doubt] that I am the Lord GOD.””

¹⁷In the twenty-seventh year [after King Jehoiachin was taken to Babylon], in the first month, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

¹⁸“Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made his army work hard [at My command] against Tyre; every [soldier’s] head became bald and every shoulder was worn and peeled [from carrying loads of dirt and stones for siege works]. Yet he had no wages from Tyre [in proportion to the time and labor expended during the siege], either for himself or his army, for the work that he had done against it [for Me].”

¹⁹Therefore thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. And he will carry off her wealth and capture her spoil and seize her plunder; and it shall be the wages for his army.

²⁰“I have given him the land of Egypt for the hard work which he did [against Tyre], because they did it for Me,” says the Lord GOD.

²¹“In that day I will make a horn sprout for the house of Israel, and I will open your mouth among them, and they will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD [when I renew their strength].”

30 THE WORD of the LORD came again to me, saying,

2“Son of man, prophesy and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Wail, ‘Alas for the day!’

3“For the day is near,
Even the day of the LORD is near,
It will be a cloudy day;
A time of doom for the nations.

4“A sword will come upon Egypt,
And anguish and trembling will be in Ethiopia (Cush),
When the slain fall in Egypt
And they [of Babylon] carry away her great mass of people and her riches
And her foundations are torn down.

5“Ethiopia (Cush), Put, Lud, all Arabia, Libya (Cub) and the people of the land of the covenant [the Jews who had taken refuge in Egypt] will fall with the Egyptians by the sword.”

6“Thus says the LORD,
“Those who uphold and support Egypt will fall
And the pride of her power will come down;
From Migdol [in the north] to Syene [in the south]
They will fall within her by the sword,”
Says the Lord GOD.

7“And they will be desolate
In the midst of countries that are desolated;
And her cities will be
Among cities that are devastated [by plunder and slavery].

8“And they will know [without any doubt] that I am the
LORD,
When I have set a fire in Egypt
And all her helpers are shattered and destroyed.

9“On that day [swift] messengers will go from Me in ships to frighten the careless and unsuspecting Ethiopians, and there will be anguish and trembling in them as in the day of [judgment for] Egypt; for behold, it is coming!”

10“Thus says the Lord GOD,

“I will also make the great people of Egypt cease
By the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

11“He and his people with him,
The most violent and ruthless of the nations,
Will be brought in to destroy the land,
And they will draw their swords against Egypt
And fill the land with the slain.

12“And I will make the rivers [of the Nile delta] dry
And sell the land into the hands of evil men;
I will make the land desolate
And all that is in it,
By the hand of strangers. I the LORD have spoken.”

13“Thus says the Lord GOD,
“I will also destroy the idols
And I will put an end to the images in Memphis;
There will no longer be a prince of the land of Egypt.
And I will put fear in the land of Egypt.

14“I will make Pathros desolate,
Set fire to Zoan
And execute judgments and punishments on Thebes.

15“I will pour out My wrath on Pelusium,
The stronghold of Egypt,
And I will cut off (destroy) the population of Thebes.

16“I will set fire to Egypt;
Pelusium will writhe in [great] anguish,
Thebes shall be torn open
And Memphis shall be in daily distress.

17“The young men of On (Aven) and of Pi-beseth
Will fall by the sword,
And the women [and children] will go into captivity.

18“In Tehaphnehes the day will be dark
When I break the yoke bars and dominion of Egypt there.
Then the pride of her power will come to an end;
A cloud [of disasters] will cover her,
And her daughters will go into captivity.

19“In this way I will bring judgment and punishment on Egypt.
Then they shall know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.”””

20In the eleventh year [after King Jehoiachin was taken to Babylon], in the first month, on the seventh of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

21“Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and behold, it has not been bound up to heal or wrapped with a bandage, so that it may be strong to hold and wield the sword.

²²“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt and will break his arms, both the strong one and the broken, and I will make the sword fall from his hand.

²³‘I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and will disperse them throughout the lands.

²⁴‘I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put My sword in his hand; but I will break Pharaoh’s arms and he will groan before him (Nebuchadnezzar) with the groanings of a [mortally] wounded man.

²⁵‘But I will strengthen and hold up the arms of the king of Babylon and the arms of Pharaoh will fall down. Then the people [of Egypt] will know that I am the LORD, when I put My sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he stretches it out against the land of Egypt.

²⁶‘When I scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them through the lands, then they will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.’”

31 IN THE eleventh year [after King Jehoiachin was taken captive to Babylon], in the third month, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²“Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his hordes,

‘Whom are you like in your greatness?’

- ³Behold (listen carefully), Assyria was a cedar in Lebanon
With beautiful branches and with forest shade,
And of high stature,
With its top among the clouds.
- ⁴The waters nourished it, the deep [underground waters]
made it grow tall.
Its rivers ran all around the place where it was planted, Sending out its streams to all the trees (other nations) of the field.
- ⁵Therefore it towered higher than all the trees of the forest
And its boughs multiplied and its branches grew long;
Because there was so much water they spread outward.
- ⁶All the birds of the sky made their nests in its twigs,
And under its branches all the animals of the field gave birth [to their young],
And all of the great nations lived under its shadow.
- ⁷So it was beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its
branches;
For its roots extended [downward] to great waters.
- ⁸The cedars in the garden of God could not hide or rival it;
The cypress trees did not have boughs like it,
And the plane trees did not have branches like it.
No tree in the garden of God was like it in its beauty.
- ⁹I made it beautiful with the great mass of its branches,
So that all the trees of Eden which were in the garden of God were jealous of it (Assyria).
- ¹⁰Therefore thus says the Lord GOD, "Because it is high in stature and has set its top among the thick boughs and the clouds, and its heart is proud of its height, [2 Kin 18:31–35]

¹¹I will hand it over to a mighty one and a mighty one of the nations; he will most certainly deal with it. I have driven it away in accordance with its wickedness.

¹³“All the birds of the sky will nest in its ruins, and all the animals of the field will rest on its fallen branches ¹⁴so that none of the trees by the waters may exalt themselves because of their height, nor set their top among the clouds, nor their well-watered mighty ones stand [arrogantly] in their height. For they have all been handed over to death, to the earth beneath, among the sons of men, with those who go down to the pit (the grave).”

¹⁵Thus says the Lord GOD, “On the day when Assyria went down to Sheol (the place of the dead) I caused mourning; I closed the deep [subterranean waters] over it and restrained its rivers. And the many waters [that contributed to its prosperity] were held back; and I made [the heart of] Lebanon mourn for it, and all the trees of the field wilted away because of it.

¹⁶“I made the nations quake at the sound of its fall when I cast it down to Sheol with those who descend into the pit; and all the well-watered trees of Eden, the choicest and the best of Lebanon, will be comforted in the earth beneath [at Assyria’s downfall].

¹⁷“They also went down to Sheol with it to those who were slain by the sword; those who were its strength lived under its shade among the nations.

¹⁸“Which among the trees of Eden do you equal in glory and in greatness [O Egypt]? Yet you [also] will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the earth beneath (nether world). You will lie among the uncircumcised (the barbaric, the boorish, the crude) with those who were slain by the sword. This is how it shall be with Pharaoh and all his hordes!” ’ says the Lord GOD.” [Ezek 28:10; 32:19]

32 IN THE twelfth year [after King Jehoiachin of Judah was taken into exile by the king of Babylon], in the twelfth month, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²“Son of man, take up a dirge (funeral poem to be sung) over Pharaoh king of Egypt and say to him,

‘You have compared yourself to a young lion among the nations,

But you are like a monster in the seas;

You burst into your rivers

And disturbed and muddied the waters with your feet

And fouled their rivers [the source of their prosperity].”

³Thus says the Lord GOD,

“I will spread out My net over you

With a company of many nations,

And they will bring you up in My net.

4“Then I will leave you (Egypt) on the land;
I will hurl you on the open field.
And I will make all the birds of the sky dwell on you,
And I will satisfy the animals of all the earth with you.

5“And I will scatter your flesh on the mountains And fill the valleys with your debris [your corpses and their worms].

6“I will also water the land with your flowing blood
As far as the mountains,
And the ravines will be full of you.

7“And when I extinguish you,
I will cover the heavens [of Egypt] and darken their stars;
I will cover the sun with a cloud
And the moon will not give its light.

8“All the bright lights in the heavens
I will darken over you
And I will place darkness on your land,”
Says the Lord GOD.

9“I will also put fear into the hearts of many peoples when I bring your destruction [and captivity] among the nations, into countries which you have not known.

10“I will make many peoples appalled at you [at your judgment and your defeat], and their kings will be horribly afraid of you when I brandish My sword [of judgment] before them; they will tremble and shudder every moment, every man for his own life, on the day of your downfall.”

11For thus says the Lord GOD, “The sword of the king of Babylon will come on you.

¹²“I will make your horde [of people] fall by the swords of the mighty—all of them are tyrants among the nations,

And they will devastate the pride and presumption of Egypt,

And all its hordes will be destroyed.

¹³“I will also destroy all its cattle from beside its great waters;

And the foot of man will not muddy them anymore

Nor will the hoofs of the animals muddy them.

¹⁴“Then I will make their waters quiet and clear;

I will make their rivers run [slowly and smoothly] like oil,”

Says the Lord GOD.

¹⁵“When I make the land of Egypt desolate,

And the country is stripped and deprived of all that which filled it,

When I strike all those who live in it,

Then they will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.

¹⁶“This is the dirge (funeral poem to be sung) and they shall sing it [for her]. The daughters of the nations shall sing it; for Egypt and for all her hordes they shall sing it,” says the Lord GOD.

¹⁷In the twelfth year [after King Jehoiachin of Judah was taken into exile], on the fifteenth of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

¹⁸“Son of man, wail over the hordes of Egypt and cast them down, both her and the daughters of the powerful and majestic nations, to the nether world (the place of the dead), with those who go down to the pit;

19“Whom [among them] do you surpass in beauty?

Go down and make your bed with the uncircumcised (the barbaric, the boorish, the crude).’

20“They will fall among those who are slain by the sword. She (Egypt) is handed over to the sword; they have drawn her and all her hordes away [to judgment].

21“‘The strong among the mighty rulers will say of him (Pharaoh) and his allies from the midst of Sheol, ‘They have gone down [defeated]; they lie still, the uncircumcised, slain by the sword.’

22“Assyria is there with all her warriors; their graves are all around her. All of them are slain, fallen by the sword, 23whose graves are set in the remotest parts of the pit and her army is all around her grave. All of them are slain, fallen by the sword, who spread terror in the land of the living.

24“Elam [a conquest of Assyria] is there and all her hordes around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who have gone down uncircumcised to the lower parts of the earth, who made their terror spread in the land of the living and bore their shame and defeat with those who went down to the pit.

25“‘They have made a bed for her among the slain with all her hordes. Her graves are around it; they are all uncircumcised (barbaric, boorish, crude), slain by the sword (for their terror had been spread in the land of the living), and they bore their disgrace with those who go down to the pit; they were laid among the slain.

²⁶“Meshech, Tubal, and all their hordes are there; their graves surround them. All of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, for they spread their terror in the land of the living.

²⁸“But you will be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised and you will lie [without honors] with those who are slain by the sword.

²⁹“Edom is there also, her kings and all her princes, who for all their power and strength are laid with those who were slain by the sword; they will lie [in shame and defeat] with the uncircumcised and with those who go down to the pit.

³⁰“The princes of the north are there also, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who in spite of the terror resulting from their power, have gone down in shame with the slain. So they lay down uncircumcised with those slain by the sword and bore their disgrace with those who go down to the pit.

³¹“Pharaoh will see them, and he will be comforted for all his hordes slain by the sword—Pharaoh and all his army,” says the Lord GOD.

³²“Though I instilled a terror of him in the land of the living, yet he will be made to lie down among the uncircumcised along with those slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his hordes,” says the Lord GOD. [Is 19; Jer 46; Zech 14:18, 19]

33 AND THE word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²“Son of man, speak to the sons of your people [who are exiled in Babylon] and say to them, ‘If I bring a sword on a land, and the people of the land take one man from among them and make him their watchman,

³and he sees the sword coming on the land, and he blows the trumpet and warns the people,

⁴then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet and does not take warning, and a sword comes and takes him away, his blood will be on his [own] head.

⁵‘He heard the sound of the trumpet but did not take warning; his blood shall be on himself. But if he had taken warning, he would have saved his life.

⁶‘But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet and the people are not warned, and the sword comes and takes any one of them, he is taken away because of his corruption and sin; but I will require his blood from the watchman’s hand.’

⁷“Now as for you, son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; so you shall hear a message from My mouth and give them a warning from Me.

⁸“When I say to the wicked, ‘O wicked man, you will certainly die,’ and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man will die because of his sin; but I will require his blood from your hand.

⁹“But if you on your part warn the wicked man to turn from his [evil] way and he does not turn from his [evil] way, he will die in his sin; but you have saved your life.

¹⁰“Now as for you, son of man, say to the house of Israel, ‘Thus you have said, “Truly our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we are rotting away because of them; how then can we live?”’

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Lord, You take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but Your desire is for the wicked to turn from their ways and live.

• adapted from Ezekiel 33:11

¹¹“Say to them, ‘As I live,’ says the Lord GOD, ‘I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn back (change your way of thinking), turn back [in repentance] from your evil ways! For why should you die, O house of Israel?’

¹²“And you, son of man, say to the sons of your people, ‘The righteousness of the righteous man will not save him in the day of his transgression; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he will not stagger because of it in the day that he turns from his wickedness, whereas a righteous man will not be able to live because of his [previous acts of] righteousness on the day when he commits sin.’

¹³“When I say to the righteous that he will most certainly live, and he trusts in his [previous acts of] righteousness [to save him] and commits injustice, none of his righteous deeds will be remembered; but he will die for his injustice that he committed.

¹⁴“But when I say to the wicked, ‘You will certainly die,’ and he turns from his sin and practices that which is just (fair) and right—

¹⁵if a wicked man returns [what he took as] a pledge, pays back what he had taken by robbery, walks in the statutes which ensure life, without committing injustice, he will certainly live; he will not die.

¹⁶“None of his sins that he has committed will be remembered against him. He has practiced that which is just (fair) and right; he will most certainly live.

¹⁷“Yet your people [who are in exile in Babylon] say, ‘The way of the Lord is not right;’ but as for them, it is their own way that is not right.

¹⁸“When the righteous turns back from his righteousness and commits injustice, he will also die because of it.

¹⁹“But when a wicked man turns back from his wickedness and practices what is just (fair) and right, he will live because of it.

²⁰“Yet you say, ‘The way of the Lord is not right.’ O house of Israel, I will judge you, every one [of you] in accordance with his own ways!”

²¹In the twelfth year of our exile [in Babylon], on the fifth of the tenth month, a survivor from Jerusalem came to me, saying, “The city has been captured.”

²²Now the hand of the LORD had been upon me in the evening, before the survivor came. And He opened my mouth at the time he came to me in the morning; so my mouth was opened [in readiness] and I was no longer mute.

²³Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²⁴“Son of man, those [back in Palestine] who inhabit these ruins in the land of Israel are saying, ‘Abraham was [only] one man and he took possession of the land, but we are many; the land has [most certainly] been given to us [to possess] as property.’

²⁵“Therefore say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “You eat meat with the blood in it and raise your eyes to your idols and shed blood. Should you take possession of the land? [Gen 9:4; Lev 3:17; 7:27; Acts 15:28, 29]

²⁶“You rely on your sword [as your security]; you commit outrageous and disgraceful acts and each of you defiles his neighbor’s wife. Should you then take possession of the land?” ’

²⁷“You shall say this to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “As I live, those who are in the ruins certainly will fall by the sword, and I will give whoever is in the open field to the [predatory] animals to be devoured, and those who are in strongholds and in caves will die of virulent diseases.

²⁸“And I will make the land [of Israel] a desolation and a ruin, and her pride in her power will be brought to an end; and the mountains of Israel will be so deserted that no one will pass through.

²⁹“Then they will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD, when I make the land a desolation and a ruin because of all the atrocities which they have committed.” ’

³⁰“But as for you, son of man, your people who talk about you by the walls and in the doorways of the houses say one to another, every one to his brother, ‘Come now and hear what the message is that comes from the LORD.’

³¹“They come to you as people come, and they sit before you as My people, and they hear your words, but they do not practice them; for with their mouth they express loving devotion, but their heart goes after their (unlawful) gain.

³²“Behold, you are to them like a love song by one who has a pleasant voice and plays well on a stringed instrument [merely to entertain them]; for they hear your words but do not practice them.

³³“So when it comes to pass—as it most certainly will—then they will know [without any doubt] that a prophet has been among them.”

34 AND THE word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²“Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy and say to them, the [spiritual] shepherds, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Woe (judgment is coming) to the [spiritual] shepherds of Israel who have been feeding themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flock?’

³“You eat the fat [the choicest of meat], and clothe yourselves with the wool, you slaughter the best of the livestock, but you do not feed the flock.

⁴“You have not strengthened those who are weak, you have not healed the sick, you have not bandaged the crippled, you have not brought back those gone astray, you have not looked for the lost; but you have ruled them with force and violence.

⁵“They were scattered because there was no shepherd, and when they were scattered they became food for all the predators of the field.

⁶“My flock wandered through all the mountains and on every high hill; My flock was scattered over all the face of the earth and no one searched or sought them.”” [Matt 9:36]

⁷Therefore, you [spiritual] shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:

⁸“As I live,” says the Lord GOD, “certainly because My flock has become prey, My flock has even become food for every predator of the field for lack of a shepherd, and My shepherds did not search for My flock, but rather the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My flock;

⁹therefore, you [spiritual] shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:

¹⁰“Thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will demand My flock from them and make them stop tending the flock, so that the shepherds cannot feed themselves anymore. I will rescue My flock from their mouth, so that they will not be food for them.””

¹¹For thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, I Myself will search for My flock and seek them out.

¹²“As a shepherd cares for his sheep on the day that he is among his scattered flock, so I will care for My sheep; and I will rescue them from all the places to which they were scattered on a cloudy and gloomy day.

¹³“I will bring them out from the nations and gather them from the countries and bring them to their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the streams, and in all the inhabited places of the land.

¹⁴“I will feed them in a good pasture, and their grazing ground will be on the mountain heights of Israel. There they will lie down on good grazing ground and feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel.

¹⁵“I will feed My flock and I will let them lie down [to rest],” says the Lord GOD.

¹⁶“I will seek the lost, bring back the scattered, bandage the crippled, and strengthen the weak and the sick; but I will destroy the fat and the strong [who have become hard-hearted and perverse]. I will feed them with judgment and punishment. [Luke 19:10]

¹⁷“And as for you, My flock, thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Behold, I judge between one sheep and another, between the rams and the male goats [between the righteous and the unrighteous].

¹⁸‘Is it too little a thing for you that you [unrighteous ones who are well-fed] feed in the best pasture, yet you must trample down with your feet [of wickedness] the rest of your pastures? Or that you drink clear [still] water, yet you must muddy with your feet [of wickedness] the rest [of the water]?’

¹⁹“As for My flock (the righteous), they must feed on what you trample with your feet and drink what you muddy with your feet!”

²⁰Therefore thus says the Lord GOD to them, “Behold, I Myself will judge between the [well-fed] fat sheep and the lean sheep.

²¹“Because you push with side and shoulder, and gore with your horns all those that have become weak and sick until you have scattered them away, ²²therefore, I will rescue My flock, and they shall no longer be prey; and I will judge between one sheep [ungodly] and another [godly].

²³“Then I will appoint over them one shepherd and he will feed them, [a ruler like] My servant David; he will feed them and be their shepherd. [Ezek 37:24; John 10:14–18]

²⁴“And I the LORD will be their God, and My servant David will be a prince among them; I the LORD have spoken.

²⁵“I will make a covenant of peace with them and will eliminate the predatory animals from the land so that they may live securely in the wilderness and sleep [safely] in the woods. [Ps 127:2; Is 11:6–9; John 14:27; 16:33]

²⁶“I will make them and the places around My hill (Jerusalem, Zion) a blessing. And I will make showers come down in their season; there will be [abundant] showers of blessing (divine favor).

²⁷“Also the tree of the field will yield its fruit and the earth will yield its produce; and My people will be secure on their land. Then they will know [with confidence] that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bars of their yoke and have rescued them from the hand of those who made them slaves.

²⁸“They will no longer be prey to the nations, and the predators of the earth will not devour them; but they will live safely, and no one will make them afraid [in the day of the Messiah’s reign]. [Is 60:21; 61:3]

²⁹“I will prepare for them a place renowned for planting [crops], and they will not again be victims of famine in the land, and they will not endure the insults of the nations any longer.

³⁰“Then they will know [with assurance] that I the LORD their God, am with them and that they, the house of Israel, are My people,” says the Lord GOD.

³¹“As for you, My flock, the flock of My pasture, you are men, and I am your God,” says the Lord GOD.

35 MOREOVER, THE word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²“Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir (Edom), and prophesy against it

³and say to it, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD,

“Behold, Mount Seir, I am against you,
And I will stretch out My hand against you
And make you completely desolate.

⁴“I will destroy your cities

And you will become a wasteland.

Then you shall know [without any doubt] that I am the
LORD.

⁵“Because you [descendants of Esau] have had an everlasting hatred [for Jacob (Israel)] and you handed over the sons of Israel to the power of the sword at the time of their tragedy, at the time of their final punishment [the Babylonian conquest], [Ezek 25:12–14; 36:5]

⁶“therefore, as I live,” says the Lord GOD, “I will hand you over to bloodshed, and bloodshed will pursue you since you have not hated bloodshed, bloodshed will pursue you.

⁷“I will make Mount Seir (Edom) a ruin and a desolate wasteland and I will cut off from it the one who passes through it and the one who returns.

⁸“I will fill its mountains with its slain; those killed by the sword will fall on your hills, and in your valleys, and in all your ravines.

⁹“I will make you an everlasting desolation and your cities will not be inhabited. Then you will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.

¹⁰“Because you [descendants of Esau] have said, ‘These two nations [Israel and Judah] and these two lands shall be mine, and we will take possession of them,’ although the LORD was there, ¹¹“therefore, as I live,” says the Lord GOD, “I will deal with you in accordance with the anger and envy you showed because of your hatred for them; and I will make Myself known among them [as Judge] when I judge and punish you.

¹²“Then you will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD, and that I have heard all your scornful speeches which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, ‘They have been made a wasteland; they have been given to us as food.’

¹³“So you have boasted and spoken arrogantly against Me, and have multiplied your words against Me; I have heard it.”

¹⁴“Thus says the Lord GOD, “While the whole earth rejoices, I will make you a wasteland.

¹⁵“As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel because it was desolate, so I will do to you; you will be a desolate waste, O Mount Seir, and all Edom, all of it. Then they will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.” ’

36 “AND YOU, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say, ‘You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD.

²‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Because the enemy has said of you, ‘Aha!’ and, ‘The ancient heights have become our property,’ ³therefore prophesy and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “For good reason they have made you a desolation, and they crushed you from every side so that you would become a possession of the rest of the nations and you have become the talk and the whispering of the people.”’”

⁴‘Therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD. Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and to the hills, to the ravines and to the valleys, to the desolate ruins and to the deserted cities which have become prey and a mockery to the rest of the nations which surround you,

⁵therefore thus says the Lord GOD, “Most certainly in the fire of My jealousy (love for that which is Mine) I have spoken against the rest of the nations and against all Edom, who appropriated My land for themselves as a possession with wholehearted joy and with uttermost contempt, so that they might empty it out [and possess it] as prey.”

⁶“Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel and say to the mountains and to the hills, to the ravines and to the valleys, “Thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Behold, I have spoken in My jealousy (love for that which is Mine) and in My wrath because you have endured the [shameful] insults of the nations.’

⁷“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD, ‘I have lifted up My hand and sworn [an oath] that the nations that are around you will themselves endure their [shameful] insults.

⁸‘But you, O mountains of Israel, will put out your branches and bear your fruit to My people Israel; for they will soon come [home].

⁹‘For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn to you [in favor], and you shall be cultivated and sown.

¹⁰‘I will multiply people on you, all the house of Israel, [indeed] all of it; the cities shall be inhabited and the ruins will be rebuilt.

¹¹‘I will multiply on you man and animal; and they will increase and be fruitful. And I will cause you to be inhabited as you were formerly, and I will do better [things] for you than at your beginning. Then you will know [with great confidence] that I am the LORD.

¹²‘Yes, [O mountains of Israel] I will cause men—My people Israel—to walk on you and take possession of you, so that you will become their inheritance and never again bereave them of children.’

¹³“Thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Because they say to you, “You [O land] are a devourer of people and have bereaved your nation of children,” ¹⁴therefore you will no longer devour people, and no longer bereave your nation of children,’ says the Lord GOD.

¹⁵“I will not let you hear insults from the nations anymore, nor will you bear disgrace from the peoples any longer, nor will you cause your nation to stumble [through idolatry] any longer,” says the Lord GOD.”

¹⁶Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

¹⁷“Son of man, when the house of Israel was living in their own land, they defiled it by their [own] behavior and by their [idolatrous] actions. Their conduct before Me was like the uncleanness of a woman during her [physical] impurity.

¹⁸“So I poured out My wrath on them for the blood which they had shed on the land and because they had defiled it with their idols.

¹⁹“Also I scattered them among the nations and they were dispersed throughout the countries. I judged and punished them in accordance with their conduct and their [idolatrous] behavior.

²⁰“When they came to the nations wherever they went, they profaned My holy name, because it was said of them, ‘These are the people of the LORD; yet they have come out of His land.’

²¹“But I had concern for My holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations where they went.

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Good Times with God

God has made us sensitive to His touch by giving us a heart of flesh (see Ezek. 36:26). He wants to lead us into doing things that are good for us, such as spending time with Him. But He doesn't want us to turn our devotional time into a law by thinking we have to pray for fifteen minutes, read the Word for twenty minutes, confess the Word for ten minutes each day, or make other legalistic commitments in order to please Him.

As soon as we view as laws and rules those activities that are to help us grow spiritually, the joy drains out of them and they become works of the flesh. Let God lead you in your time spent with Him, and you will always enjoy it. The Holy Spirit is creative, and He will help you keep your time with God fresh and exciting.

²²“Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am about to act, but for My holy name, which you have profaned among the nations where you went.

²³“I will vindicate the holiness of My great name which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned among them. Then the nations will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD,” says the Lord GOD, “when I prove Myself holy among you in their sight.

24“For I will take you from the nations and gather you from all the countries and bring you into your own land.

25“Then I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse you from all your uncleanness and from all your idols.

26“Moreover, I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you, and I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh.

27“I will put my Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My ordinances and do them.

28“ You will live in the land that I gave to your fathers; and you will be My people, and I will be your God.

29“ I will also save you from all your uncleanness, and I will call for the grain and make it abundant, and I will not bring famine on you.

30“ I will multiply the fruit of the tree and the produce of the field, so that you will not suffer again the disgrace of famine among the nations.

31“ Then you will remember [clearly] your [own] evil ways and your deeds that were not good, and you will loathe yourselves in your own sight for your sins and for your outrageous atrocities.

32“ I am not doing this for your sake,” says the Lord GOD. “Let that be known to you. Be ashamed and humiliated for your [wicked] ways, O house of Israel!”

33“ Thus says the Lord GOD, “On the day that I cleanse you from all your sins I will also cause the cities [of Israel] to be inhabited, and the ruins will be rebuilt.

³⁴“The desolate land will be cultivated instead of being a desolation in the sight of everyone who passes by.

³⁵“Then they will say, ‘This land that was deserted and desolate has become like the garden of Eden; and the waste, desolate, and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited.’

³⁶“Then the nations that are left around you will know that I the LORD have rebuilt the ruined places and planted that which was desolate. I the LORD have spoken, and will do it.”

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

A New Heart, a New Spirit

Paul writes that “we have the mind of Christ [to be guided by His thoughts and purposes]” (1 Cor. 2:16). He is not saying we’re perfect or that we will never fail; he is telling us that, as believers in Jesus, we have been given the mind of Christ. This means we can think spiritual thoughts because Christ is alive within us. We no longer have to think the way we did before we entered into a personal relationship with the Lord. We can learn to think as Jesus thinks.

Another way to look at this is to point to the promise God spoke to the Jewish exiles in Babylon: “Moreover, I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you... I will put my Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes... and you will be My people, and I will be your God” (Ezek. 36:26–28). Although the people had failed God in every conceivable way, He promised He would change them. He would give them a new spirit—His Holy Spirit.

When we have the Holy Spirit living and active within us, the mind of Christ is in action. The mind of Christ is given to us to direct us in the right way. If we are operating in His mind, which is also called the mind of the Spirit (see Rom. 8:6), we will be thinking positive thoughts, because He is always positive. When we become negative about something, we should instantly discern that we are not operating in the mind of Christ. God wants us to be lifted up. It's the enemy of our soul who wants us pressed down or depressed. We don't have to accept those negative thoughts. They may be offered to us, but they don't need to become ours.

Each situation offers us the opportunity to make a choice, and we should think about what the result of our choice will be. Choose to think as Jesus would, and you will always be happy with the outcome. As God promised the Jews through Ezekiel's prophecy, He will give us a new heart and a new spirit, but we still have the power to choose which mind we want to follow.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord, I truly want to think with the mind of Christ in my life all the time. Help me to open myself only to Your will and to push away old thinking that will lead me down the wrong path. Amen.

³⁷“Thus says the Lord GOD, “This too I will let the house of Israel ask Me to do for them: I will increase their people like a flock.

³⁸“Like the flock for sacrifices, like the flock at Jerusalem during her appointed feasts, so will the desolate cities be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know [with confident assurance] that I am the LORD.””

37 THE HAND of the LORD was upon me, and He brought me out in the Spirit of the LORD and set me down in the middle of the valley; and it was full of bones.

²He caused me to pass all around them, and behold, there were very many [human bones] in the open valley; and lo, they were very dry.

³And He said to me, “Son of man, can these bones live?” And I answered, “O Lord GOD, You know.” [1 Cor 15:35]

⁴Again He said to me, “Prophecy to these bones and say to them, ‘O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.’ [John 5:28]

⁵“Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones, ‘Behold, I will make ^{*}breath enter you so that you may come to life.

⁶‘I will put sinews on you, make flesh grow back on you, cover you with skin, and I will put breath in you so that you may come alive; and you will know that I am the LORD.’”

⁷So I prophesied as I was commanded; and as I prophesied, there was a [thundering] noise, and behold, a rattling; and the bones came together, bone to its bone.

⁸And I looked, and behold, there were sinews on the bones, and flesh grew and skin covered them; but there was no breath in them.

⁹Then He said to me, “Prophesy to the breath, son of man, and say to the breath, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live.’””

¹⁰So I prophesied as He commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they came to life and stood up on their feet, an exceedingly great army. [Rev 11:11]

¹¹Then He said to me, “Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Behold, they say, ‘Our bones are dried up and our hope is lost. We are completely cut off.’

¹²“Therefore prophesy and say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, I will open your graves and make you come up out of your graves, My people; and I will bring you [back home] to the land of Israel. [Hos 13:14]

KEYS to a Victorious Life

Speak with Boldness and Authority

Ezekiel was told, “Prophecy to these bones and say to them, ‘O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD,’” and when he spoke the Word, the bones miraculously came to life (Ezek. 37:4). The prophet Isaiah also said that the Word coming out of God’s mouth (which I believe can also be our mouth if we are dedicated to Him and continue speaking His Word) will not return void, without accomplishing what it was sent to do. The Word of God is seed, and when we release it in the earth, we will see good results (see Isa. 55:10–11).

We are God’s representatives on the earth, His mouthpieces, and the apostle Paul instructs us to imitate Him (see Eph. 5:1). As His representative, you can speak His Word just the same as He would. Speak it boldly, with authority, believing it has power to change your life and your circumstances.

WINNING THE BATTLES of the MIND

The Seemingly Impossible Is Possible

When we feel discouraged or hopeless, the enemy often whispers to us: You might as well give up. This will never change. If we believe these lies, we may stop praying about the situation or even come to believe our confession of God's Word does not matter anymore.

Are there things in your life that you think are hopeless, things you have given up on? If so, I am asking you to stir up your faith again and begin to speak life to those dead dreams and circumstances that need a resurrection.

Ezekiel 37 provides a perfect example of how speaking God's Word over seemingly impossible situations works miracles. The Lord showed Ezekiel a valley full of dead, dry bones (see vv. 1–2). No matter where Ezekiel looked, he saw hopelessness—no sign of life at all.

When God asked Ezekiel if the bones could live again, he left the door open for God to work by saying that only God knew the answer (see v. 3). God showed Ezekiel the answer by telling him to prophesy to the bones, saying, “O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD’ (v. 4).

Ezekiel had previously seen marvelous things happen as a result of obeying God, but surely obeying Him in this situation must have required radical faith. Just imagine prophesying to a valley of dry bones! Yet as he spoke the Word of the Lord to the bones, they began to come together and take on sinew and flesh (see v. 8). That was amazing, of course, but the bone structures still had no life or spirit in them.

At God’s instruction, Ezekiel prophesied breath and spirit into the bones, “and they came to life and stood on their feet, an exceedingly great army” (v. 10). When Ezekiel saw that sight, I am sure he was thrilled that he had obeyed God.

Any situation that seems dead—a lifeless marriage, longtime illness, ongoing financial problems and debt—can be revived to become an area of strength, not weakness. Merely speaking the Word of the Lord to circumstances is not all you’ll need to do. Obedience to everything God instructs along the way to your breakthrough is also needed. And keeping your mouth filled with life-giving words about what God has promised you instead of what you currently have is a vital component of your ultimate victory.

APRAYER FOR VICTORY

Lord of Life, when everything around me looks dead, dry, and hopeless, help me to not give up, but to speak Your word and obey You as You lead me to victory. In Jesus’ name. Amen.

¹³“Then you will know [with confidence] that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves and made you come up out of your graves, My people.

¹⁴“I will put My ^{*}Spirit in you and you will come to life, and I will place you in your own land. Then you will know that I the LORD have spoken, and fulfilled it,” says the LORD.”

¹⁵The word of the LORD came again to me, saying,

¹⁶“And you, son of man, take a stick and write on it, ‘For Judah and for the children of Israel, his companions’; then take another stick and write on it, ‘For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim and all the house of Israel, his companions.’

¹⁷Then join them together into one stick, so that they may become one in your hand.

¹⁸“When your people say to you, ‘Will you not tell us what you mean by these?’

¹⁹say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, I am going to take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel, his companions; and I will join the stick of Judah with it and make them one stick, and they will be one in My hand.” ’

²⁰“The sticks on which you write shall be in your hand before their eyes.

²¹“Say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, I am going to take the children of Israel from among the nations where they have gone, and I will gather them from every side and bring them into their own land;

²²and I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and one king will be king over all of them; and they will no longer be two nations, and will no longer be divided into two kingdoms. [Jer 50:4]

²³“They will no longer defile themselves with their idols, or with their detestable things, or with any of their transgressions; but I will save them from all their transgressions in which they have sinned, and I will cleanse them. So they will be My people, and I will be their God.

²⁴“My servant David will be king over them, and they all will have one shepherd. They will also walk in My ordinances and keep My statutes and observe them.

²⁵“They will live in the land where your fathers lived, [the land] that I gave to My servant Jacob, and they will live there, they and their children and their children’s children, forever; and My servant David will be their leader forever. [Is 60:21; Joel 3:20; Amos 9:15]

A Prayer To Renew Your Mind

Thank You, Lord, that I can live in peace because You have made an everlasting covenant of peace with me.

• adapted from Ezekiel 37:26

²⁶“I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant with them. And I will place them and multiply them, and will put My sanctuary in their midst forever.

²⁷“My dwelling place also will be with them; and I will be their God, and they will be My people.

²⁸“Then the nations will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD who sets apart and sanctifies Israel [for holy use], when My sanctuary is in their midst forever.””

38 AND THE word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²“Son of man, set your face against Gog of the land of Magog, the chief ruler of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him, ³and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, I am against you, O Gog, chief ruler of Meshech and Tubal.

⁴“I will turn you around and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you out, and all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them magnificently clothed in full armor, a great horde with buckler (small shield) and [large] shield, all of them wielding swords;

⁵Persia (Iran), Cush (Ethiopia), and Put (Libya, N. Africa) with them, all of them with shield and helmet;

⁶Gomer and all its troops; Beth-togarmah from the remote parts of the north and all its troops—many peoples with you.

⁷“You [Gog] be prepared; prepare yourself, you and all your hordes that are assembled around you, and be a guard and a lookout for them.

⁸“After many days you will be summoned [for service]; in the latter years you shall come into the land that is restored from [the ravages of] the sword, where people have been gathered out of many nations to the mountains of Israel, which had been a continual wasteland; but its people were brought out of the nations, and they are living securely, all of them. [Is 24:22]

Five Ways To Practice Peace

Ezekiel 37:26 talks about the peace that God gives His people. One key to maintaining peace in your life is to take small steps toward peace every day. Here are a few tips for having a more peaceful lifestyle.

1. Be selective about how you spend your time. You may be trying to do too many things and end up doing none of them well. Hurrying is trying to do more than the Holy Spirit is leading you to do. Be led by the Spirit and ask God to show you new ways to save time and trouble.

2. Be prepared to say no nicely. Sometimes we take on things we know we shouldn't because we're uncomfortable saying no. If you feel this pressure, ask God to give you loving words to speak that will take away the unnecessary awkwardness of saying no.

3. Resist procrastination. Procrastination is the attitude that says I'm going to sit here and wait until I feel like doing what I need to do. But God's Word tells us to exercise self-discipline. Do what you need to do now so you can fully enjoy your times of rest.

4. Eliminate key distractions. If you know you are easily distracted, set some guidelines for yourself. Perhaps, in order to finish a project, you should turn off your phone for a few hours and don't check your email or social media account. Don't let things that can wait distract you from the things that need to be done now.

5. Listen for the Holy Spirit. If you can see that your plan is not producing peace, go back to God; be willing to change your plan and pray for peace and for wisdom to make changes that will benefit your life.

Learning to trust God each day and receive His grace as you need it will enable you to become a truly peaceful person.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Father God, thank You that I can take small steps toward peace every day. I ask You to give me wisdom to do only what You want me to do and to enable me to become a truly peaceful person. In Jesus' name. Amen.

⁹“You will go up [against them], you will come like a storm; you shall be like a cloud covering the land, you and all your troops, and many peoples with you.”

¹⁰“Thus says the Lord GOD, “It will come about on that day that thoughts will come into your mind, and you will devise an evil plan,

¹¹and you will say, ‘I will go up against an open country; I will come against those who are at rest and peaceful, who live securely, all of them living without walls and having neither bars nor gates,

¹²to take spoil and seize plunder, to turn your hand against the ruins which are now inhabited, and against the people who are gathered from the nations, who have acquired cattle and goods, who live at the center of the world [Israel].’

¹³“Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish (southern Spain), with all its young lions (villages) will say to you, ‘Have you come to take spoil? Have you assembled your hordes [of fighting men] to seize plunder, to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take great spoil?’”

¹⁴“Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “On that day when My people Israel live securely, will you not become aware of it [and become active]?’

¹⁵“You will come from your place in the remote parts of the north, you and many nations with you, all of them riding horses, a great horde, and a mighty army;

¹⁶and you will go up against My people Israel like a cloud to cover the land. In the last days it will come about that I will bring you against My land, so that the nations may know Me when I show Myself holy through you before their eyes, O Gog.”

¹⁷“Thus says the Lord GOD, “Are you the one of whom I spoke in former days through My servants, the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days for many years that I would bring you (Gog) against them?”

¹⁸“It will come about on that day, when Gog comes against the land of Israel,” says the Lord GOD, “that My wrath will rise and show on My face.

¹⁹“In My zeal and in My blazing rage I declare that on that day there will most certainly be a great earthquake in the land of Israel, ²⁰so that the fishes of the sea, the birds of the sky, the animals of the field, all the creatures that crawl on the earth, and all the men that are on the face of the earth will tremble and shake at My presence; the mountains will crumble, the steep places will fall, and every wall will fall to the ground.

²¹“I will call for a sword against Gog throughout all My mountains,” says the Lord GOD. “Every man’s (invading soldier’s) sword will be against his brother (ally) [in panic and confusion].

²²“With pestilence and with bloodshed I will enter into judgment with Gog; and I will rain on him torrents of rain with [great] hailstones, fire and brimstone on his hordes and on the many nations that are with him. [Ps 11:6]

²³“Thus I shall magnify Myself and demonstrate My greatness and sanctify Myself, and I will be recognized and will make Myself known in the sight of many nations; they will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.” ’

39 “AND YOU, son of man, prophesy against Gog, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, I am against you, O Gog, chief prince (ruler) of Meshech and Tubal;

²and I will turn you around and lead you along, and bring you up from the remotest parts of the north, and I will bring you against the mountains of Israel.

³“I will strike your bow from your left hand and make your arrows to fall out of your right hand.

⁴“You will fall [dead] on the mountains of Israel, you and all your troops and the nations who are with you. I will give you to every kind of predatory bird and animal of the field as food.

⁵“You will fall in the open field, for I have spoken,” says the Lord GOD.

⁶“I will also send fire on Magog and on those who live securely in the coastlands; and they will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.

⁷“I will make My holy name known in the midst of My people Israel, and I will not let them profane My holy name anymore; and the nations will know that I am the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

⁸“Behold, it is coming and it will be done,” says the Lord GOD. “That is the day of which I have spoken.

⁹“And [when you, Gog, no longer exist] those who live in the cities of Israel will go out and make fires with the weapons and burn them, both the [large] shields and the bucklers (small shields), the bows and the arrows, the war clubs and the spears; and for seven years they will burn them.

¹⁰“They will not take any wood from the field or cut down and gather [any] firewood from the forests, because they will make their fires using the weapons. And they will take the spoil from those who despoiled them and seize the plunder of those who plundered them,” says the Lord GOD.

¹¹“And on that day I will give Gog a place for burial there in Israel, the valley of those who pass through east of the sea, and it will block the way of those who would pass through. So they will bury Gog there with all his hordes, and they will call it the Valley of Hamon-gog (the multitude of Gog).

¹²“For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them in order to cleanse the land.

¹³“Yes, all the people of the land will bury them; and it will be to their renown on the day that I appear in My glory and brilliance,” says the Lord GOD.

¹⁴“They will elect men who will constantly go through the land, [men commissioned] to bury those who were passing through, those bodies that lie unburied on the surface of the ground, in order to cleanse it. At the end of seven months they will do a search.

¹⁵“As those who pass through the land pass through and anyone sees a human bone, he will set up a marker beside it, until the buriers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon-gog.

¹⁶“And even the name of the city will be Hamonah. In this manner they shall cleanse the land.” ’

¹⁷“As for you, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Say to every kind of bird and to every animal of the field, “Assemble and come, gather from every side to My sacrifice that I am slaughtering for you, as a great sacrificial feast on the mountains of Israel, and you will eat flesh and drink blood.

¹⁸“You will eat the flesh of mighty men and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, as though they were rams, lambs, goats, and bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan [east of the Jordan].

¹⁹“So you will eat fat until you are filled and drink blood till you are drunk, at the sacrificial feast which I have prepared for you.

²⁰“You will eat your fill at My table with horses and riders, with mighty men, and with all the men of war,” says the Lord GOD.

²¹“And I will bring [and manifest] My glory among the nations; and all the nations will see My judgment and justice [in the punishment] which I have executed and My hand which I have laid on them.

²²“So the house of Israel will know [with absolute confidence] that I am the LORD their God from that day forward.

²³“And the nations will know [without any doubt] that the house of Israel went into exile for their great sin, because they acted treacherously against Me; and I hid My face (favor, blessing) from them. So I gave them into the hand of their enemies, and they all fell [into captivity or were killed] by [the power of] the sword. [Deut 31:17]

²⁴“I dealt with them in accordance with their uncleanness and their transgressions, and I hid My face from them.””

²⁵Therefore thus says the Lord GOD, “Now I will restore the fortunes of Jacob (Israel) and have mercy on the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for My holy name [demanding what is rightfully and uniquely mine].

²⁶“They will forget their disgrace and all their treachery

(unfaithfulness) which they perpetuated against Me, when they live securely in their own land and there is no one who makes them afraid.

²⁷“When I bring them back from the nations and gather them out of their enemies’ lands, then I shall show Myself holy [and My justice and holiness will be vindicated] through them in the sight of many nations.

²⁸“Then they will know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD their God because I made them go into exile among the nations, and then gathered them to their own land. I will leave none of them there [among the nations] any longer.

²⁹“I will not hide My face from them any longer, because I will have poured out My Spirit on the house of Israel,” says the Lord GOD.

40 IN THE twenty-fifth year of our exile [in Babylon], in the beginning of the year, on the tenth [day] of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city [of Jerusalem] was taken, on that [very] same day the hand of the LORD was upon me and He brought me there.

²In the visions of God He brought me to the land of Israel and set me down on a very high mountain, on the south side of which there was what seemed to be a structure of a city.

³So He brought me there; and behold, there was a man [an angel] whose appearance was like bronze, with a line of flax and a measuring rod in his hand; and he was standing in the gateway.

⁴The man said to me, “Son of man, look with your eyes and hear with your ears and set your heart on all that I am going to show you; for you have been brought here that I may show it to you. Declare to the house of Israel all that you see.”

⁵And behold, there was a wall all around the outside [area] of the temple (house) [of the LORD], and in the man’s hand a measuring rod six cubits long (10.2 ft.), each cubit being longer than the standard one by a hand width. So he measured the thickness of the wall, one rod; and the height, one rod.

⁶Then he went to the gate which faced the east and went up its [seven] steps and measured the threshold of the gate, one rod in width; and the other threshold [of the gate inside the thick wall] was one rod in width.

⁷The guardroom was one rod long and one rod wide, and [the space] between the guardrooms was five cubits. And the threshold of the gate by the porch (portico) of the gate facing inward was one rod.

⁸He also measured the porch of the gate facing inward [toward the temple of the LORD], one rod.

⁹Then he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits, and its side pillars, two cubits. The porch of the gate faced inward [toward the temple of the LORD].

¹⁰There were three guardrooms on each side of the gate toward the east; the three were the same size, and the side pillars on each side measured the same.

¹¹And he measured the width of the gateway, ten cubits, and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

¹²On each side a border (barrier wall) one cubit wide stood in front of the guardrooms on each side; and the guardrooms were six cubits square on each side.

¹³He measured the gate from the roof of one guardroom to the roof of the other, a width of twenty-five cubits from one door to the opposite door.

¹⁴He made [the measurement of] the side pillars sixty cubits high; the gate extended all around to the side pillar of the courtyard.

¹⁵From the front of the entrance gate [on the outside] to the front of the inner porch (portico) of the gate [the distance] was fifty cubits.

¹⁶*There were* shuttered windows looking toward the guardrooms, and toward their side pillars within the gate all around, and likewise for the porches. And windows were all around inside; and palm tree decorations were on each side pillar.

¹⁷Then he brought me into the outer courtyard, and behold, there were chambers and a pavement made for the courtyard all around; thirty chambers faced the pavement.

¹⁸The pavement (that is, the lower pavement) was by the side of the gates, corresponding to the length of the gates.

¹⁹Then he measured the width from the front of the lower gate to the front of the exterior of the inner court, a hundred cubits [both] on the east and on the north.

²⁰And as for the gate of the outer courtyard which faced the north he measured [both] its length and its width.

²¹Its guardrooms, three on each side, and its side pillars and its porches had the same measurement as the first gate. Its length was fifty cubits and the width was twenty-five cubits.

²²Its windows and its porches and its palm tree decorations had the same measurements as the gate that faced toward the east. It was reached by going up seven steps, and its porch was in front of them.

²³The inner courtyard had a gate opposite the gate on the north as well as the gate on the east; and he measured a hundred cubits from gate to gate.

²⁴Then he led me toward the south, and behold, there was a gate toward the south; and he measured its side pillars and its porches, and they measured the same as the others.

²⁵The gate and its porches had windows all around like those windows [in the other gateways]; the length was fifty cubits and the width was twenty-five cubits.

²⁶*There were* seven steps going up to the gate, and its porches were in front of them; and it had palm tree decorations [carved] on its side pillars, one on each side.
