The Last Great Wealth Transfer

Foreword

by John Avanzini

The tremendous importance of this book to God's end time harvest is beyond measure. True to Dr. Cerullo's observation, God's great wealth transfers all have started with a dream.

When Dr. Cerullo speaks of a dream, he is not speaking of a mere daydream. It is a vision of biblical proportions. Surely Joseph had such a vision, and Moses with the burning bush. In that same way, Solomon's night vision at Gibeon preceded the great wealth transfer of his day.

I know Dr. Cerullo has had such a vision. I can remember the tremendous change that came into his life and ministry when it came. With him it was a monumental vision—a billion souls being reached for our Lord. It was so big it staggered the imaginations of most who heard it. However, to those of us who look to him as a true end time prophet of God, we opened our spirits for God's instructions and enablings. I carefully chose the word "enablings" because when God starts speaking in terms of billions of souls, the financial implications are staggering.

Plainly put, it will cost billions of dollars to reach the billions of souls in Mission To All The World. Don't be dismayed at these astronomical numbers, for the cost of the end time harvest comes as no surprise to God.

When the Lord speaks of the fields being white to the harvest, he also alerts us to the financial implications:

"...Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers..."

(Luke 10:2)

Notice the prayer is not that the laborers merely be called, but that they be sent. One of the greatest tragedies I have witnessed in the worldwide harvest of souls is that there are so many people who are called and so few dollars to send them forth.

Now, at long last, a light comes on at the end of the tunnel of time as a divinely inspired dream once again is sent to God's end time prophet. It is a dream of world evangelism on a scale never before imagined. A dream of outreach that without God's supernatural enablings would financially collapse the Church.

However, with the vision also comes a faithful promise of God's long-awaited answer to the shortage the Church has been caught up in. It is God's great end time wealth transfer.

As Dr. Cerullo so accurately stated, the greatest gathering of wealth ever known to man is, at this very moment, in storage here on earth. The billions and trillions of dollars that the mega fat cats of this world have stacked up are ready for redistribution by God himself!

With more people alive on planet earth today than have lived and died since the world began, this store of mega wealth awaits a can-do, can-believe-it people. And thank God that army of people is on the earth today!

To my knowledge, only one man of God has dared to lead God's people into boldly becoming proof producers and world harvesters. Only one man has relentlessly gone into the nations of the world and forged a great victorious end-time army. It's an army that is ready, rilling and able to do the work of God in these last days. I thank God He has allowed me, and tens of thousands of others, to be a part of his army that doesn't stagger at God's promises. I also thank God He has given us a proven leader like Dr. Morris Cerullo.

Ever since my first days with Dr. Cerullo, I have seen him take the little people of God and turn them into spiritual giants. Pastors of small churches who, under the influence of the new anointing Dr. Cerullo so powerfully delivers, have become pastors of some of the world's largest churches.

Evangelists who have struggled simply to exist, now hold great national crusades. People just like you who now live victorious lives with Satan firmly placed under their feet.

After seeing all this over the last 20 years, it came as no surprise to me that the revelation of God's great end time wealth transfer would be given to Morris Cerullo.

As I read the manuscript of this book, the following verse came to mind:

...How shall we know the word which the LORD hath not spoken? When a prophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD hath not spoken...thou shalt not be afraid of [respect] him.

(Deuteronomy 18:21-22)

You simply have to hear the facts to know that Morris Cerullo is a true prophet of God.

Prior to the great shaking of the Church and the scandals that beset Jim Bakker, Marvin Gorman and Jimmy Swaggart, Dr. Morris Cerullo spoke that the great end time shaking was coming. I personally know he went to some of these leaders and tried to persuade them to change their course. After that, he openly prophesied of the proof producers who would emerge from the shaken Church. This also came to pass and can be seen as some of the greatest men ever to stand in pulpits are now preaching the Gospel across the world.

I know during the past twenty-five years, as most religious leaders were writing off the Soviet Union as a lost cause, the prophet, Morris Cerullo, boldly prophesied for fourteen years in a row, in the world-famous Royal Albert Hall, in London, England, before 7,000 people year after year, that the communist curtain would come down and all the Slovak countries of Europe would hear the Gospel of Christ.

On this past record, and the overwhelming proof of the infallibility of the Word of God, I, along with many other men of God, rejoice and lift up my eyes looking for this great end time wealth transfer to begin.

It's real, it's here and it's now.

Thank you, Brother Cerullo, for being a faithful witness in these last days.

The Last Great Wealth Transfer

Introduction

by Morris Cerullo

During history, there have been three great wealth transfers that were so massive, so important, they were recorded in the Bible.

God recorded these for several purposes:

- To let us know that the medium of exchange to ensure the blessings from God to our lives are important to him—whether it is cattle, livestock, grain, oil, wine...Or money! As Solomon said:

"...money answereth all things."

(Ecclesiastes 10:19)

- To encourage us that His will is to bless us. (III John 2)
- To teach us about the things He has done so we will erect spiritual memorials to His glory.
- To TEACH us principles from the lives of great men of God of the past that translate to power to receive in our present lives.

God not only transferred wealth in the past, but He has promised that in the future He would take the wealth of the wicked (the world) and transfer it to the righteous.

A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

(Proverbs 13:22)

Partner, this precious promise reveals the heart of God—and

His will for His people.

God wants to bless us with the wealth of the world for two reasons. First, it does not belong to them. The Bible says, "For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills." (Psalm 50:10) Second, that we might use mammon for the glory of God, to preach the Gospel to the far reaches of the earth.

In this powerful little book, you'll read of the great wealth transfers of the past—how God blessed men of old with great riches—and how and why these men were selected for blessing.

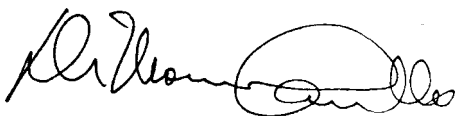

You'll learn of their character, their commitment to God and to His will.

Then you'll learn why God wants to bless you in ways even greater than he blessed these men of old.

You'll read how this end time blessing has already begun, and how you can be a part of receiving God's outpouring.

As you turn the pages of this book, prepare yourself.. .get ready...to enter into God's end time financial plan for your life—and never look back.

Chapter 1

THE FIRST GREAT WEALTH TRANSFER

Joseph Controls the Wealth of the Greatest Nation

Over the generations from Genesis until the present, God has been actively participating in the human drama of the financial arena. Oftentimes, God has used finances to show favor, to bless obedience, to prove His sovereignty and even to equip a nation for war.

Three great wealth transfers in history were so tremendous they were recorded in detail in the Bible. There have been countless other wealth transfers, but these three stand out among the rest because of the extreme nature of the blessing poured out on God's people.

These great wealth transfers include:

- The transfer of the control of Egypt's wealth into the hands of Joseph.
- The transfer of the wealth of Egypt into the hands of the Israelites, led by Moses.
- The transfer of the wealth of the heathen world into the hands of Solomon.

THE GREAT WEALTH TRANSFER ALWAYS STARTS WITH A DREAM FROM GOD

Joseph was content to be the favorite in his father's house, wearing better clothing and being preferred above his brethren, but God had greater plans for Joseph.

We, too, can become content with our present circumstances when we are doing well. Many of us settle for a lesser role than God intends for our lives. Sometimes He has to bring us into conflict to cause us to rise up to our full potential in God, even in the area of wealth!

Joseph stood to inherit a great deal from his father, and it was very likely that Jacob would have broken with tradition and given Joseph more of an inheritance than his brothers because he was his favorite... but God had more in mind for Joseph.

Why?

Because Joseph was a key to the survival of Israel, and key people in strategic places who will obey the voice of God must be given the tools they need to accomplish His will.

God has more in mind for you.

Why?

Because you are His key to Mission To All The World.

WE ARE A KEY GENERATION WITH A KEY PURPOSE

We are a strategic end time people with a specific destiny in the plan of God.

God is calling a people to step into their end time destiny,—a financial destiny.

God is a God of purpose. He is a God of plan and He has created a plan for this generation to fulfill.

What is that plan?

To reach the entire world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ!

To fulfill God's plan for us, there must be one last great wealth transfer, and for us to receive that transfer, God must get us out of our comfort zone just as God got Joseph out of his comfort zone.

Now Israel (Jacob) loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age: and he made him a coat of many colours. And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him. And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren: and they hated him yet the more. And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed: For, behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf. And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words. And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me. And he told it to his father, and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth? And his brethren envied him; but his father observed the saying.

(Genesis 37:3-11)

THE RELIGIOUS WILL NOT ACCEPT OUR DREAM!

Notice how Joseph's dreams, which actually began to show him his destiny, angered his brothers. Nowhere in the Bible is it recorded that those outside Joseph's family were angered by his dream.

Discouragement does not always come from the most likely sources. As the Church is awakened by God because of a dream of divine destiny He is placing in our hearts, the world may not even react to what we proclaim in the Name of Jesus. The Church, however, may despise the dreams of the righteous.

Martin Luther King said, "I have a dream," and stood by that dream against all opposition. It cost him his life.

Any time you have a dream, any time you know your destiny, any time your calling is sure in your heart, those with no dream, no destiny and no confirmation of their calling will grow angry with you.

They will preach on contentment while you are looking for that great wealth transfer that will be instrumental in bringing you into your end time destiny.

Don't be discouraged!

Don't be afraid!

Walk in the light of the dream God has given you!

THE ENEMIES OF GOD WILL TRY TO KILL YOUR DREAM!

Your family may not...

Your friends may not...

Even your pastor or Bible teacher may not.

As you speak the dream God gives you, Satan will try to destroy the dream. His purpose is to cause you to believe that the fulfillment of God's plan will not be done. If you fall for his tactics, he successfully has blocked the wealth transfer from coming to pass.

Too many saints and ministers today are walking in debt and poverty because they are not believing what God is saying about their end time destiny! As soon as you lay hold of your destiny, God immediately begins to work in your life to turn around every situation that blocks His plan.

Poverty must go!

Debt must go!

Bad spending and bad saving habits must go!

But you have to keep your dream alive!

Joseph was challenged to hang onto his dreams when his brothers conspired to kill Him. The Book of Genesis describes how they threw him in a pit and later sold him into slavery with the Ishmaelites, who in turn sold him to Potiphar in Egypt.

Then the brothers lied to their father and told him Joseph was dead.

But the dream was still alive...

Has Satan ever told you your ministry was dead?

Has the devil ever told you your life was over and there was no point in going on?

Has Satan ever told you God will not deliver on His promises?

The devil's a liar! Jump up in times of doubt and let the devil know that God has a plan for your life. Not only are you going to fulfill God's calling for your life, but God is bringing to you a powerful manifestation of His end time outpouring of financial blessings.

Say it, "I am part of the last great wealth transfer!" (Proverbs 13:22)

I'm not talking about receiving an increase! I'm talking about a wealth transfer miracle that comes only through the supernatural reproductive power of God activating our seed!

Look at what happened to Joseph.

First, he was the favorite in his household.

Next, he was sold into slavery and worked for Potiphar.

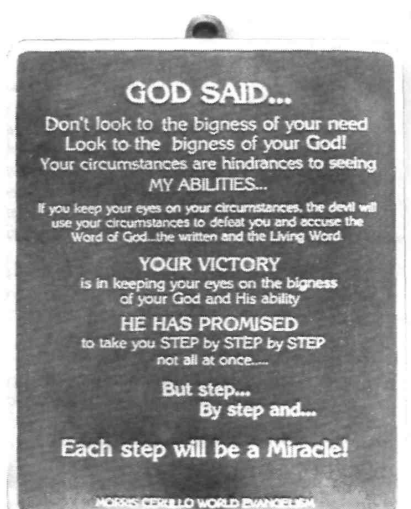

Next, he was thrown into prison for a crime that he did not commit!

YOUR PRESENT CIRCUMSTANCES HAVE NO BEARING ON YOUR FUTURE WITH GOD!

Don't look at what you can see with your natural eyes. If Joseph had, he would have given up long before he received the first great wealth transfer!

He worked for Potiphar, and was so well trusted by him that Potiphar stopped bothering to check his accounts! Nothing was withheld from Joseph's care, and Potiphar prospered.

But later, Potiphar's wife made sexual advances toward Joseph, who refused them because of his integrity and great love for God. Potiphar's wife falsely accused Joseph of attempting rape, and Joseph ended up in prison.

Write to me at one of the addresses in the back of this book to request a personal copy of this beautiful plaque with this promise God gave.

What had happened to Joseph's dreams?

What has happened to your dreams. Are they alive in the midst of trying circumstances you do not understand?

Joseph kept his dream alive!

The wealth transfer was kept intact in Joseph's future because Joseph did not look on his present circumstances as a pathway to prosperity. He looked toward God for a great wealth transfer!

Don't allow your present situation to dictate what your future holds. Get ready! God is preparing a great wealth transfer that will catapult His people into the end time harvest regardless of their current circumstances!

THE GREAT WEALTH TRANSFER IS NOT FOR THE SLOTHFUL. IT IS FOR THOSE WHO KEEP THEIR DREAMS ALIVE

In the misery of prison, Joseph did not forget the dreams God had given him when he was a young man. He refused to listen to the voices of his brothers that condemned him for what he believed. In the face of certain defeat, he continued to hope upon hope that God's end time destiny would be his.

But the LORD was with Joseph, and shewed him mercy, and gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison. And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners that were in the prison; and whatsoever they did there, he was the doer of it. The keeper of the prison looked not to any thing that was under his hand; because the LORD was with him, and that which he did, the LORD made it to prosper.

(Genesis 39:21-23)

Joseph was no slacker! He was fully prepared with complete character from God which tempered him to receive the first great wealth transfer!

When he was a slave, he had a heart to be the best slave he could be, regardless of what he received in return. His payoff from God was in character, not instant cash. He brought his master great gain and rose to be the head of the household.

When he was a prisoner, he had a heart to be the best prisoner he could be. He organized the prisoners and became the chief prisoner, taking stewardship over his environment and circumstances.

CHARACTER IS A REQUIREMENT TO RECEIVE THE GREAT WEALTH TRANSFER

Without the kind of character that God had placed in the life of Joseph, God will not make us a partaker of the great wealth transfer.

Why not?

Because without character, great wealth will destroy us. The Book of Proverbs says very clearly the way God wants to bless us: It says

...the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.
(Proverbs 1:32)

The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it.
(Proverbs 10:22)

God knows that many in the Church have so little character when it comes to finances that a great wealth transfer into their lives would cause them to destroy themselves.

God is not interested in giving us something that would destroy us, but He is interested in tempering us and building character in us to get us to the place where we could handle anything he would grant us.

The trials that Joseph went through were for the same purposes as the trials many of us face on a daily basis. The purpose is very simple: Trials build character which enables us to be blessed without destroying us.

If you want to be blessed beyond your wildest imagination, you must go through a character-building process that tempers you to the point that you will be able to properly handle the resources God will put into your hands.

PREPARE YOURSELF FOR THE LAST GREAT WEALTH TRANSFER

After you have developed the proper character in your life, there will be a natural flow of the power of God that will bring the wealth transfer. This may come through some secular source, or, at times, God can show His power to the heathen through you, who will then place you in a position of financial power as Joseph was positioned.

And it came to pass after these things, that the butler of the king of Egypt and his baker had offended their lord the king of Egypt. And Pharaoh was wroth against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers. And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Joseph was bound. And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them: and they continued a season in ward. And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison. And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, and, behold, they were sad. And he asked Pharaoh's officers that were with him in the ward of his lord's house, saying, Wherefore look ye so sadly today? And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, Do not interpretations belong to God? tell me them, I pray you.

(Genesis 40:1-8)

BEGIN TO MINISTER WHERE YOU ARE BEFORE THE WEALTH TRANSFER COMES

Joseph was not shy when it came to ministry. He knew he was in a foreign land where the people served false gods. He also knew that his destiny was far greater than his current condition, but he ministered anyway.

In our lives, we sometimes do not do our best for God because we are waiting for our final destiny to arrive. Other times, we do not give our best because we are waiting for the great wealth transfer before we begin to obey God.

Joseph's life gives us a very clear indication that it is obedience to God and submission to our calling that brings our destiny and the great wealth transfer. If we are waiting on God, we'll be waiting a long time, but if we begin to do all we can in our present situation, the wealth transfer will be on its way.

And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me; And in the vine were three branches: and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth; and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes: And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand: and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand. And Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three days: Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thy place: and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler. But think on me when it shall be well with thee, and shew kindness, I pray thee, unto me, and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house: For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews: and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.
(Genesis 40:9-15)

Notice how Joseph was very quick to speak the truth to the butler. God wants ministers who can produce ministry that is clear and accurate. He was also not afraid to speak the truth to the man even though it may have seemed an impossibility at the time.

The secret to developing character in Christianity powerful enough to prepare you for a great wealth transfer is to heed the voice of God no matter how impossible, or even foolish, it may seem.

Also, a Christian who develops character will be able to speak the Word of God whether or not it is popular with the people.

When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also was in my dream, and, behold, I had three white baskets on my head: And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of bakemeats for Pharaoh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head. And Joseph answered and said, This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets are three days: Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee. And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast unto all his servants: and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants. And he restored the chief butler unto his butlership again; and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand: But he hanged the chief baker: as Joseph had interpreted to them. Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but forgot him.

(Genesis 40:16-23)

There are two important things to remember from this particular passage of Scripture. The first thing we touched on briefly above, was that we must develop the kind of character that causes us to speak the truth even when it is negative.

I don't like to be negative, but God showed me many years ago that in order to produce a spark of power, you must have both a positive and a negative. I will speak the positive truth God puts in my heart, and I will speak the negative truth God puts in my heart.

Joseph told the baker that he would die in three days. That, of course, was extremely negative.

This kind of attitude helps us to get to the point where we are not manipulated by others, whether by political power, emotional pressure or money. When we get to this point, we have achieved a high level of character with God that will enable us to receive the great wealth transfer in store for us. However, it may not be in our timing. Joseph had to wait two full years before the butler remembered his promise to him.

When Pharaoh had a dream and the door was opened for Joseph's spiritual gifts to manifest to the glory of God, God opened the door for the great wealth transfer.

And it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof and Pharaoh told them his dream; but there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh. Then spake the chief butler unto Pharaoh, saying, I do remember my faults this day: Pharaoh was wroth with his servants, and put me in ward in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief baker: And we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream. And there was there with us a young man, an Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret. And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was; me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged. Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon: and he shaved himself and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and I have heard say of thee, that thou canst understand a dream to interpret it. And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, It is not in me: God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river: And, behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fatfleshed and well favoured; and they fed in a meadow: And, behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor and very ill favoured and leanfleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness: And the lean and the ill favoured kine did eat up the first seven fat kine: And when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were still ill favoured, as at the beginning. So I awoke. And I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good: And, behold, seven ears, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them: And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears: and I told this unto the magicians; but there was none that could declare it to me. And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: God hath shewed Pharaoh what he is about to do.

(Genesis 41:8-25)

DOORS OF MINISTRY USUALLY OPEN BEFORE THE WEALTH TRANSFER BEGINS

Joseph had lived in prison and slavery for many years now, but things were changing. He rose from the place of prison to the place of staring Pharaoh in the face while performing the greatest ministry of his entire life!

And yet...the wealth transfer had not yet happened.

Timing is a great key to the end time plan of God. We must understand that we are usually presented with incredible ministry opportunities before God actually opens the door for the wealth transfer necessary to meet those opportunities. Many times we must seek God for a season or, even step out in faith, being led by the Holy Ghost before the finances are even in our hands.

But this last great wealth transfer is going to happen in an incredible timing that God is bringing to this end time hour. Those who are prepared, and have built their lives up in character, will receive it. Those who do not, or those who doubt, will miss out.

Believe the words of the prophet!

Believe in the Lord, your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.:

(II Chronicles 20:20)

God will not transfer great amounts of wealth for ministry into the hands of those who doubt, lack character, or will not support the kingdom of God with their finances! God has a purpose for your wealth just as he had a purpose for Joseph's control of all the wealth of the greatest nation on the earth!

Now therefore let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt. Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years. And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities. And that food shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land perish not through the famine. And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants. And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom the Spirit of God is? And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art: Thou shalt be over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people be ruled.

(Genesis 41:33-40)

Joseph rose from being a slave, and a prisoner, to being the ruler of all Egypt, second only to Pharaoh. He had authority over all of the wealth of what was then the world's greatest kingdom and eventually gave him the ability to spare God's people from death during the terrible famine God brought upon the earth.

God transferred the control of all Egypt's wealth into the hands of Pharaoh for a powerful purpose: To preserve God's people in the midst of the famine.

God will once again make a powerful great wealth transfer, the last great wealth transfer. The wealth of the wicked will be transferred into the hands of the righteous, but it will be done for a purpose. That purpose is to support the greatest evangelistic thrust the world has ever known.

The Bible makes it clear what God intends to do in the end time:

And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

(Matthew 24:14)

The world will be evangelized!

But for this to take place, God will transfer the wealth of the wicked into the hands of saints of God who will finance the end time harvest!

Are you ready to sow for this in your life?

Chapter 2

THE SECOND GREAT WEALTH TRANSFER

The Hebrew People take the Spoils of Egypt

GOD SET A TIME FOR THE TRANSFER OF EGYPT'S WEALTH INTO THE HANDS OF HIS PEOPLE!

God never intended the wealth of the world to belong in the hands of the ungodly. Never! The wealth of the world belongs to God, and He desires to release it into the hands of His people.

Biblical history leads us through an historic tapestry of wealth transfers leading up to the second great wealth transfer.

From the very beginning of God's dealings with Abraham, when He entered into a covenant with him, God poured His blessings upon him and prospered him.

The transfer of the wealth of the wicked began when Abraham obeyed God, and left his own country and entered Canaan. God appeared to Abraham and told him that He was going to give him the land of Canaan (Genesis 13:7). Canaan, with all its wealth, did not belong to the Canaanites...the wealth of the wicked was being stored up for the just!

Later, when there was a great famine in Canaan, and Abraham went down into Egypt, there was a transfer of wealth. You know the familiar story of how Abraham told the Egyptians Sarah was his sister, because she was very beautiful and he was afraid they would kill him and take her for themselves.

Pharaoh lavished gifts upon Abraham because of Sarah. He gave him sheep, oxen, donkeys, camels and servants (Genesis 12:16). When the Lord sent plagues upon Pharaoh because of Sarah, Pharaoh sent Abraham, Sarah, and their household out of Egypt.

While Abraham was in Egypt, a transference of wealth took place! God took the wealth of Pharaoh and gave it to Abraham. When Abraham left Egypt, he took with him great herds of cattle and other livestock, servants, gold and silver.

And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.

(Genesis 13:2)

God so blessed Abraham and Lot while they were in Egypt, their possessions were so great, that the land where they settled, in Bethel, was not big enough for them.

And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

(Genesis 13:6)

Later, when Lot was taken captive along with all his possessions, Abraham pursued the four kings who had taken Lot captive, along with the spoils of Sodom and Gomorrah. God gave Abraham victory over the four kings, and he rescued Lot and took back all the spoils of Sodom and Gomorrah. The wealth of the wicked was transferred into Abraham's hands!

Following this great battle, Melchizedek the High priest met Abraham, who gave God tithes from the spoils that God had given him during the battle.

Generation after generation, we see this transfer of wealth into the hands of the children of Israel. God transferred the wealth of Ahimelech, king of the Philistines, to Isaac. While Isaac was living in the land of the Philistines, God poured His blessings upon him. Even during a time of famine, Isaac sowed seed and reaped one hundredfold in one year!

Isaac planted crops in that land and the same year reaped a hundredfold, because the Lord blessed him. The man became rich, and his wealth continued to grow until he became very wealthy. He had so many flocks and herds and servants that the Philistines envied him.
(Genesis 26:12-14, NIV)

God continued to prosper Isaac until he had great possessions. The Philistines envied Isaac because he was a servant of a living God, Who prospers His people by giving them the wealth of the wicked! King Ahimelech told Isaac,

.. Move away from us; you have become too powerful for us.
(Genesis 26:16, NIV)

God transferred the wealth of Laban to Jacob (Genesis 31:6-9). Jacob served Laban fourteen years for Laban's daughters, Rachel and Leah. He served an additional six years for his cattle. Laban changed his wages ten times, but God poured out His blessings and prospered Jacob.

When God started transferring Laban's wealth to Jacob, there was nothing Laban could do to stop it! When Laban told Jacob that he could pay him only in the speckled cattle that came forth from the herd, God made all the cattle have speckled calves. When Laban said that he would only pay in striped cattle, God made all the calves striped.

Thus the man increased and became exceedingly rich, and had many sheep and goats, and maidservants, menservants, camels, and donkeys.

(Genesis 30:43, TAB)

When God told Jacob to return to the land of His fathers, Jacob obeyed. A transference of wealth took place, and he left with great riches.

After these wealth transfers were made, God prepared Israel to receive the second great wealth transfer!

As we know from the story of Genesis, the Hebrew people were enslaved by the Egyptians after Joseph's administration and became impoverished under the strict rule of the Pharaoh.

In time, God heard the cry of the Hebrews who were under heavy oppression and revealed a plan to Moses that would not only set the Hebrews free, but would also allow them to receive the second great wealth transfer recorded in the Bible.

God is a God of plan. He alone knows the future. He knew what He would need from the Egyptians. The hands of His set-free people to fulfill that which He alone knew.

Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the backside of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb. And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

(Exodus 3:1-2)

A GREAT WEALTH TRANSFER IS ALWAYS PRECEDED BY A REVELATION FROM GOD

Some people believe that Moses was backslidden out in the wilderness.

I don't believe that for a minute!

I believe that for 40 long years, Moses communed with God and knew Who he was serving. When it came time for God to Speak to Moses, he had a hearing ear.

TO RECEIVE THE TRANSFER, YOU MUST SPEAK GOD'S PROPHETIC WORD

And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt. And when the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I. And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon God. And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows; And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me: and I have also seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them. Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

(Exodus 3:3-10)

God's incredible plan would cause Moses to go into the land of Egypt and speak God's prophetic word to Pharaoh. Without the obedience of Moses, the plan would not happen as God intended.

God desires to bring today's Church into the place where all financial bondage is destroyed!

God wants to destroy your debt!

God wants to destroy poverty from His children's lives!

God wants financial lack to be abolished in the Church!

And God has a plan to bring His will to pass, but we must be willing to follow His plan.

Sometimes, we feel we are not qualified to fulfill the plan of God. Our feeling must have nothing to do with our willingness to be obedient—simply trust:

And Moses said unto God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?, And he said, Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain. And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them? And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.

(Exodus 3:11-14)

REMEMBER WHO IT IS BRINGING THE GREAT WEALTH TRANSFER

You might be saying within yourself that either you or the Church today are not ready for a great wealth transfer much in the way that Moses felt he was not ready to lead the Israelites out of Egypt. You must stop thinking that God is depending on you or your abilities to bring His will to pass. All God wants from us is obedience. He never intended to depend on anything we possess to use us.

Remember, it is not you who is bringing the last great wealth transfer into the Church, it is Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God!

It's not your abilities God needs!

It's not the income level of the company you work for or your retirement program that God is depending on. He is depending on His ability to use His supernatural power of reproduction to breathe upon our seeds sown to give it one hundredfold life.

God is about to unleash the most powerful supernatural transfer of wealth this world has ever known, and He is going to empower the Church with a supernatural financial endowment that will give the Church the ability to reach this entire world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

It won't be done by your church!

It won't be done by your own personal finances today!

It will be done by the same power of God that delivered the Israelites out of Egypt!

And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not by a mighty hand. And I will stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof: and after that he will let you go. And I will give this people favour in the sight of the Egyptians: and it shall come to pass, that, when ye go, ye shall not go empty: But every woman shall borrow of her neighbour, and of her that sojourneth in her house, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and ye shall spoil the Egyptians.

(Exodus 3:19-22)

God had an incredible plan for this tremendous wealth transfer. When Moses spoke to Pharaoh and demanded that he let the Israelites go into the wilderness, God hardened Pharaoh's heart so he would not agree.

Why would God do this?

Because it was part of His plan. From the very beginning of His plan, God fully intended to bring ten horrible plagues upon the Egyptians. This way, the Egyptians would be so glad to see the Israelites go into the wilderness to sacrifice unto their God, they gave the Israelites all the gold, silver and treasure of Egypt.

The wealth transfer took place!

DON'T ALLOW THE ENEMY TO TAKE THE WEALTH BACK!

There was only one thing the Egyptians did not know; the Israelites had no intention of bringing this treasure back to Egypt.

What happened?

When Pharaoh's heart was again hardened against the Israelites and he took his army out to destroy them, the Israelites escaped by passing through the Red Sea, which God parted for them, using Moses as the miracle worker.

The Egyptians tried to pass, but were drowned when God allowed the sea to return to its normal position.

When God causes the great wealth transfer to come into the Church and into your life, the enemy will certainly try to take it away but the power of God will cause the enemy's plans to be utterly destroyed as the armies of Egypt were destroyed in the Red Sea!

This tremendous wealth was eventually used to greatly glorify God in the building of the tabernacle and the ark of the covenant. When God transfers the wealth of the wicked to you, are you prepared to use it for His glory?

Chapter 3

THE THIRD GREAT WEALTH TRANSFER

Solomon Amasses More Wealth than Any Kingdom in the History of the World

Of all the wealth amassed by any kingdom in the history of mankind, none is more awe-inspiring than the incredible wealth of King Solomon of Israel. The wealth of the heathen into the hands of King Solomon was the most tremendous wealth transfer in the history of the world.

And it started with a visitation from God...

In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee. And Solomon said, Thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great mercy, according as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day. And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I am but a little child: I know not how to go out or come in. And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude. Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?

(1 Kings 3:5-9)

SEEK YE FIRST THE KINGDOM OF GOD

Solomon is a tremendous example to us today. In his visitation from God, he was asked what he wanted. His mind was not on riches, fortune or fame. His mind and heart were on God's people. Because he had his heart in the right place, he illustrated an eternal principle of God that Jesus would reiterate hundreds of years later:

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

(Matthew 6:33)

Solomon did this without even being told. When God asked him what he wanted, he didn't treat the opportunity as if he had just rubbed a magic lamp and was staring a genie in the eye. He didn't try to use God to satisfy his wandering desires.

Solomon realized that he was speaking to the God of all heaven and earth. He knew that whatever he asked would be given him, so he asked for that which he needed most. He asked for an understanding heart that would give him the ability to lead Israel. He asked for character.

We learned in the earlier chapter on the first great wealth transfer that Joseph built character that gave him the ability to handle wealth. In the same way, Solomon asked God for supernatural character in the form of an understanding heart. This made Solomon a tremendous candidate for a great wealth transfer.

You might be sitting amid a mountain of bills right now wondering how you are ever going to finance the end time harvest of God when you can't even pay your own bills.

You may pray daily that God give you riches untold so you can pay your bills.

You may be wondering why God has not done anything for you.

The answer is this:

We shouldn't expect to receive a great wealth transfer as long as our hearts are only on dealing with our own personal needs. We must change the focus of our hearts and set our affection on God. As we do this, we build the kind of character in our lives that enables us to receive wealth by God's sovereign decision.

When you can't see light at the end of your financial tunnel, seek first the Kingdom of God!

When you can't give to God the way you desire, seek first His Kingdom!

When you seek first God's kingdom, you will become a candidate for the last great wealth transfer!

GOD BLESSES THOSE WHOSE PRIORITIES ARE SET ON HIM

Solomon received the wisdom for which he asked God. His full desire was to use what he had and what he would receive from God to rule justly.

But God had even more in mind for Solomon:

And the speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing. And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding to discern judgment; Behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee. And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches, and honour: so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days.

(1 Kings 3:10-13)

God was so pleased that Solomon had put the kingdom before any personal desires, that he gave him the things that most men would have asked for instead of knowledge, wisdom and understanding. In fact, God gave Solomon so much in wealth and fame that no king before or since has ever been able to match the splendor of Solomon's kingdom.

SOLOMON PUT GOD FIRST AND BEGAN TO PROSPER BEYOND HIS WILDEST EXPECTATIONS

God granted him peace on every side and he began to build the house of the Lord which David, his father had intended to build.

The temple was a magnificent structure which would cost billions today. It took seven years to build...not because of any lack of materials, but because of the magnificence and handicraft that went into it. God had prospered Solomon so much that the house of the Lord became the greatest and most beautiful structure ever.

God did not stop there. He continued blessing Solomon. Wealth came into his hands from every direction. The wealth and splendor of Solomon's kingdom was so great after the temple was built that Solomon had a house that took 13 years to build with all of the resources of Israel at her golden age at his disposal.

His wealth was simply incredible. So much was transferred into the hands of Solomon that no man before or since has ever been able to match it.

YOU MUST ABIDE IN YOUR CALLING

And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to prove him with hard questions. And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. And Solomon told her all her questions: there was not any thing hid from the king, which he told her not.

(Kings 10.1-3)

The gift of wisdom that Solomon received from God continued to operate in his life, and the wealth continued to pour in. When the queen of Sheba came to hear Solomon's wisdom, she did not come empty handed, she came with great riches to give to Solomon. The understanding that God gave him to rule Israel also caused great financial gain to come into his life.

Using the gift that God gave him caused wealth to continue to flow into his life!

Many times people in the Church have no finances because they do not abide in their calling.

This applies to people called into the ministry who are not ministering as well as people who are doing something they are not even called to do.

If a minister is anointed by God to do a work, that minister should be about his Father's business and do the work of the Lord. If he does not, he will not prosper.

Likewise, if someone tries to pastor a church or do some other work for God that is not God's will, that person will not prosper.

To prosper, you must abide in your calling!

Now, look how the magnificent wealth which was transferred into Solomon's hand affected the queen of Sheba:

And when the queen of Sheba had seen all Solomon's wisdom, and the house that he had built, And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and his ascent by which he went up unto the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her. And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy acts and of thy wisdom. Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard. Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom. Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel: because the LORD loved Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgment and justice.

(I Kings 10:4-9)

Remember, this was a queen talking to Solomon. She wasn't someone who was dazzled by a royal palace. Solomon's wealth was so powerful that it could have such a tremendous impact, even on royalty, that it would cause a queen to faint!

Imagine this great wealth transfer that God placed into the hands of Solomon!

God is sending another great wealth transfer. For two reasons I believe it will be even greater for the saints of God than the transfer that Solomon received.

1. It will have to be large enough to finance the end time harvest.
2. It will not be to only one man or one kingdom, but to all in the Body of Christ who are prepared for it.

Are you ready or in God's place to receive it?

WEALTH WILL BEGIN TO MULTIPLY IN YOUR LIFE

As God's blessings are poured out into your life, God will not only transfer wealth into your hands, but He will cause a multiplication of the blessings He gives to you!

When the queen of Sheba visited Solomon and was absolutely dumbfounded with the riches he had accumulated, she gave him even more!

This kind of behavior will once again become common in the earth as God's people are prospered for a purpose. When the last great wealth transfer begins and God's people begin to prosper, those who are amazed at the prosperity of the Church will begin to contribute to this prosperity!

Look at what the queen of Sheba did after she saw the riches of Solomon's kingdom:

And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. And the navy also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of almug trees, and precious stones. And the king made of the almug trees pillars for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, harps also and psalteries for singers: there came no such almug trees, nor were seen unto this day. And king Solomon gave unto the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

(I Kings 10:10-13)

Solomon prospered so much that he gave the queen anything she asked for and still did not miss what she took to her kingdom.

Solomon's kingdom was fueled by the gold, spices and trading of the entire Middle East. Even Arabians paid him tribute. He had so much gold that he had gold shields made for his armory. He built a throne of ivory and overlaid it in pure gold. All of his eating utensils were of solid gold, and every year, he had ships that would leave Israel, travel throughout that part of the world and return filled with gold, and silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

THE GREAT WEALTH TRANSFER WILL CAUSE THE WORLD TO LISTEN TO THE GOSPEL

So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom. And all the earth sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

(I Kings 10:23-24)

Because of the great wealth transfer that God made to Solomon, the entire world heard about his riches as well as his wisdom. This opened up opportunities for Jehovah to be known throughout the world as Solomon spoke about the wisdom God gave him.

As the rulers of the world came to Solomon to hear his great wisdom, they brought gifts to him that added even more to his vast wealth.

Also, because of his great wealth, Solomon enjoyed a great peace. His military might could be increased indefinitely through the riches he owned and kings of many kingdoms paid him tribute:

And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year. And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the cities for chariots, and with the king at Jerusalem. And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the vale, for abundance. And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price. And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out by their means.

(I Kings 10:25-29)

The wealth of Solomon's kingdom was unimaginable, even by King David's standards. The kind of wealth that would make royalty swoon is unheard of in today's society, but it happened in Solomon's day and will happen again very soon.

Chapter 4

THE LAST GREAT WEALTH TRANSFER

Now the exciting part. We have talked about the transfer of wealth from Pharaoh to Joseph. We have talked about the riches of Egypt being transferred to the children of Israel. We have talked about the wealth of kings and kingdoms being transferred to Solomon.

Now we must talk about the transfer of the wealth of the wicked to YOU!

*...the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.
(Proverbs 13:22)*

Remember how in an earlier chapter of this book I told you that a dream always precedes a great wealth transfer?

We have a tremendous dream—a plan, an objective, a vision of the future—from God.

Our vision of the future is that the entire world will be evangelized and will hear the Gospel.

Now the religious, much like Joseph's brothers, will tell us we're being pretentious. They'll say there's no way our dream will come to pass.

But we are standing by what God has told us. He has told us that you and I will take this Gospel to the far reaches of the earth.

It doesn't matter what our present circumstances are. It doesn't matter what happens to us that may seem to hinder us.

God has given us a dream!

And like Joseph, we will hold that dream dear and close in our hearts. We will press toward it even in the face of adversity and persecution.

Remember how I said before a great wealth transfer must come a revelation?

God has given us a revelation of how He will bless the entire world with the Gospel.

We have shared this revelation together, you and I. God will use you and me to reach out to this entire world, together!

Just as God gave Moses a revelation of His power to free the Israelites, He has given us a Revelation of His power to free the entire world from sin!

Remember how earlier I said the only way to receive from God was to keep your eyes on His kingdom?

Our eyes are focused intently upon Him and His kingdom!

Truly, the words of Jesus are emblazoned in our hearts:

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

(Matthew 6:10)

Now is the time for the final great wealth transfer. I believe God is preparing even now to unleash the greatest flow of wealth from one place to another in the history of mankind!

Now is the time for the wealth of the wicked to be transferred to the righteous!

Don't get confused. God is not just going to drop a bag of money in your lap, He is much more creative than that.

God's plans for you have to do with your character and the way you think.

God is preparing to unleash a flow of creative power into His saints to begin to release the last great transfer of wealth.

Here's what the Bible says:

But thou shalt remember the LORD thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he sware unto thy fathers, as it is this day.

(Deuteronomy 8:18)

God is giving His people the POWER to get wealth.

He is remolding your very way of thinking—the very way they conduct business—God is infusing His people with POWER!

Why?

Not just so they could live in some opulent mansion, or not so they could drive the latest car.

THE FLOW OF WEALTH IS FOR HARVEST

God is DRAINING the world of wealth and FLOODING the Church with wealth so the Church can rise up in power for the final end time harvest!

Now is the time to prepare yourself, by concentrating on the kingdom of God.

Do you have the kind of character God is looking for?

Can God trust you with the wealth of the wicked?

Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself. But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

(I Timothy 6:5-12)

Many have not been blessed financially because God knows that they would trust money, not God, to meet their needs.

God is not looking for people whose goal is to be wealthy. There are enough people like that in the world.

God is looking for some people who are willing to follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

God is looking for people with CHARACTER!

God so desires to bless His people, but to some people, great financial blessing would be a snare, because they have not developed the character of God in their lives.

Let that sink deep into your spirit.

Examine your own motives.

Is your heart for God? Do you earnestly desire to see the Word of God preached all over the world?

For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

(Hebrews 4:12)

God knows your intentions. He knows your motivation.

We must be as Joseph—Secure in our dream, knowing with a pure heart that we only want to serve God and see His will fulfilled, and yet unafraid to pursue the goal God has set before us.

Chapter 5

GOD'S END TIME BLESSINGS ARE FOR YOU!

John Bell was down and out. He had served in the Vietnam war and had begun taking drugs way back then.

John started off small with marijuana, but soon he was driven to harder drugs like heroin and cocaine.

Many times, John tried to quit drugs in his own strength, but situations and circumstances always seemed to arise in his life and drive him back into the arms of drug abuse.

John had accepted Jesus in 1978, but he did not live in the power of the Gospel.

Then one day, he found himself walking down a lonely street in San Jose, California, depressed and discouraged.

He was going through a traumatic divorce and he was having trouble at his job.

As he walked, head down and shoulders stooped under the pressures of his life, his eye fixed upon a colorful piece of paper on the pavement beneath him. Intrigued, he picked up the piece of paper and found it was a flyer for a Morris Cerullo crusade.

John figured he had nothing to lose, and he attended that crusade. He was homeless. He received $86 every month from his pension and $30 from Social Security, a total of $ 116.

At a Morris Cerullo Miracle Explosion, during offering time, John found himself without a penny in his pockets.

As I was on the platform, God led me to tell the crowd that if they would dig down and plant a seed, God would give it back to them.

In the crowd, John wanted to plant a seed, but he didn't have any money. He didn't even have money for food, much less for an offering.

But John didn't just sit there feeling sorry for himself. He took action!

He went around the room asking for money to put in the offering. Through the generosity of the partners gathered there, John collected around $40.

Even though he didn't have a place to sleep or any food to eat, John did not put that money in his pocket. Instead, he prayed to God, "Heavenly Father, I am going to give this to you."

And he put the $40 in the offering with no thought for how he was going to eat or where he would sleep.

Immediately after the Miracle Explosion, John's pension miraculously jumped from $86 a month to $550 a month. He also began to receive full benefits from Social Security and $9,000 in back benefits. He also received a check from the Veterans Administration for $15,000.

From barely $100 a month, his income had jumped to more than $1,000 a month.

"Every time I would get a jump in income," John says, "I would plant a seed into the Kingdom of God. God has made me a cheerful giver."

At World Conference in 1994, John pledged $1,000 to Operation Israel. Just six months later, he received a 100 percent increase in his pension and a check for $52,000 in back pay from the Federal Government. His monthly income went up to $2,822 a month for life!

At the Los Angeles School of Ministry in 1994, God had healed John's finances so much that he was able to give $10,000!

Just think. In four years, God took this man from being homeless and broke to being able to give $10,000 in an offering!

CHURCH INCOME DOUBLES!

The Rev. Paul Sherril and his wife, Mona, have been pastors for three and a half years. All the members of their congregation also are members of God's Victorious Army.

Pastor Sherril had always given to Morris Cerullo World Evangelism. Every year he would give a one-time gift of $3,000 or $4,000. But he realized his tithe should be much more for his income. He realized he should be giving $25,000 a year.

God spoke to Rev. Sherril and said, "I want you to tithe the tithe for upward giving toward the downward blessing."

Since then, every Sunday morning after taking the offering, counting it, blessing it and praising God, the Sherrils write out a check and send the tithe of what they have received to Morris Cerullo World Evangelism. They don't just mail it, though, they Federal Express their gifts.

Since beginning to pay their tithe, their weekly offerings have DOUBLED IN SIZE! And 40 more people have begun attending their church!

Pastor Sherril said, "I know this is hot soil. Since we have been faithful to the ministry of Morris Cerullo World Evangelism, our ministry has turned around. We have been tremendously blessed. We are the talk of the town. I am on television every Sunday evening—reaching half a million people. There is not one feeble person among our congregation. A spirit of revival has come to our church."

GOD MIRACULOUSLY PROVIDES $1,000,000!

Don Kremer has been one of my partners since 1983. He formerly was a police officer, but he since has retired and is the senior pastor of Valley Christian Fellowship in Sun Valley, Idaho.

At last year's World Conference, Don targeted his giving at several things. Each time he would give, he targeted a need.

His church is located in one of the most expensive places to live in the United States. Hollywood actors and actresses, millionaires and billionaires live in the small community of 5,000. Land prices are outrageous—far beyond affordable.

Don's church had a building fund of $12,000—far short of the $ 1,000,000 they needed to buy ten acres of land for a church or the $4,000,000 they needed for the church building.

God spoke to Don that he was sitting on his seed—the $12,000. Don specifically planted his seed in the Jewish World Outreach, targeting land and a new church building.

In October of the same year, the bank called him and asked him to come to their office. When he arrived, the bank officer turned a computer screen toward him. Someone had deposited $1,000,050 into the church's account.

Later, he received a phone call saying the money was only a down payment—that God had spoken and the church would be built debt-free!

GOD TURNS $360 INTO $3,600!

Blanca Martinez had a money order for $360 to pay part of her mortgage—on which she already was behind.

In the July, 1996 School of Ministry in Chicago, Illinois, God moved upon me to ask everyone in attendance to give a gift of $350 for the Jewish World Outreach. Sister Martinez knew then that God wanted her to give the $360 money order.

Several weeks later, after Blanca had arrived at her home in Arlington, Texas, she received a check for $3,600. She didn't immediately make the connection until she heard the Lord speak to her, "Remember the seed you sowed to Morris Cerullo's Outreach to Israel? This is your return..."

GOD MEETS EVERY FINANCIAL NEED

Marilyn Connor had need of a total of $1,934.36 every month. But in counting this total, she had forgotten that her son's medical bills were $3,000 more.

Marilyn received a letter from me in which God had led me to tell her to tithe on her total need for Mission To All The World.

The extra $3,000 made her total tithe a whopping $493—and she didn't know where this money would come from.

She tithed the money, and TWO DAYS LATER her boss called her into his office. Marilyn thought she was about to be laid off, but instead, her boss handed her a check for $5,000 from an anonymous donor.

At the 1996 World Conference, Marilyn had absolutely no money to give. She had spent every dime just getting to the World Conference.

She couldn't understand when the Holy Spirit told her to give $500 in one offering and $500 in another.

She had no idea where the money would come from, but she was faithful to obey the voice of God.

The wealth of the wicked began to be transferred to her five days after she left the conference. The IRS, insurance companies and even her former employer were sending her checks!

Seven months later, she received a $700 per month raise in pay!

GOD IS STANDING READY TO BLESS YOU!

These people are not exceptions...they are examples of what God is willing and able to pour upon you any time you are ready to receive it.

Faith is fact—do you believe in the God Who, will supply ALL your needs? HE is waiting to do it His way for you, not according to the formula of men, your job, your business, but according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. (Philippians 4:19) This is the secret to receiving the wealth transfer.

Supernaturalism

God touching you supernaturally...

Providing for you supernaturally...

Releasing His end time financial destiny to you.

Do you want it?

If your resounding answer is, Yes, then act.

I have enclosed in this book, a special envelope for you to take in your hands right now—hold it—bow your head in prayer—listen to Paul:

(Remember) this: He who sows sparingly and grudgingly will also reap sparingly and grudgingly, and he who sows generously and that blessings may come to someone, will also reap generously and with blessings.

(II Corinthians 9:6, TAB)

Your money is seed—you plant it—God gives it supernatural power to reproduce whatever he calls a seed.

Sow now—abundantly to reap supernaturally—God's abundance.

Chapter 6

THE TRANSFER HAS STARTED

The past few decades have seen a boom in the numbers of Christian men and women who have been given supernatural power from God to get wealth.

More and more, Christians are receiving incredible ideas to generate wealth and supernatural wisdom to manage that wealth.

This is no accident.

God has revealed to me that He is blessing His people for a purpose: To prepare them for the last days, when all other means of supply will fall away.

And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand. And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

(Revelation 6:5-6)

The oil and the wine are the Church—that's you and me.

We must be prepared to live in the provision of God for these end times, for when the black horseman rider comes, it will be too late to prepare!

As Christians receive this entrepreneurial characteristic from God, the wicked will begin to pour wealth into the pocketbooks of the righteous.

They will not be doing this on purpose. God will be using the Holy spirit to plant into them this desire.

All over the world, the wicked are storing up treasures for themselves, boasting huge bank accounts and stock options, but the Bible says they have stored up these things so the righteous can possess them:

Though he (the wicked man) heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay; He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

(Job 27:16-17)

Can you imagine? Bill Gates, the richest man in America, the second richest man in the world, has only stored up that money so he just and the innocent can inherit it!

Oh, the provision of God!

Imagine how the world would react if the great television networks were owned by Christians!

No longer would the devil's filth pour out of every television set in the world.

The owners of CBS, NBC, ABC, FOX, the BBC—all could be Christians one day!

All the wealth of these media conglomerates has been stored up or the righteous to plunder!

What about General Motors, Chrysler, Toyota, Honda, Mercedes Benz, Audi, Ferrari, Jaguar, Ford—what if Christians owned the major car manufacturers?

What if Christians became owners of the great media outlets of our time—Time/Warner, Gannett, Scripps/Howard and the others? Could you imagine the change in the daily coverage we read in our newspapers?

I BELIEVE THIS CAN HAPPEN!

Can you imagine the difference in movies if 20th Century Fox suddenly was run by Christians? Or Universal Studios, or MGM?

In these end times, we will begin to see Christians control the wealth that the world has stored up for themselves!

As stewards of God's money, the Church must learn to depend on God for the power to bring the increase.

Robert J. Hastings, a famous money manager, once said: "Money management is not so much a technique as it is an attitude. Unless one achieves self-control, he is no more likely to control his money than he is to discipline his habits or his time."

As God prospers us according to His promise, we must be prepared to deal wisely with the wealth He gives us.

And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more. His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

(Matthew 25:20-21)

God is a God of increase, not decrease or stagnation.

In every thing He gives us—whether it be money or spiritual gifts—He expects us to make every effort to bring about an increase.

Even now, the end time explosion of financial blessing for the saints has begun, but in the end times, I prophesy that God will begin to bless His saints with the POWER to get wealth—ideas to generate wealth by which they can finance the end time harvest of souls!

God does not bless us so we can consume it upon our own lusts. His blessings are given to us so we can diligently work for His kingdom!

The wicked have spent literally BILLIONS of dollars to win entire generations to Satan through television, movies, secular music and wicked literature and pornography!

But, MARK MY WORDS, God is preparing to pour out an end time prosperity upon his people like never before seen so the Church can begin to turn the tide of the devil's massive media onslaught! This end time prospering will finance the final harvest of souls before the return of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

It excites and pleases the Lord to bless His servants financially.

Just as the devil hates to see Christians prosper, the Lord loves to see us prosper:

Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favour my righteous cause: yea, let them say continually, Let the LORD be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.

(Psalm 35:27)

Because God takes pleasure in prospering His servants, He is unleashing a dramatic outpouring of supernatural inspiration for His people.

Remember, the end times are upon us. The coming of Jesus will take the world as a thief in the night BUT NOT THE CHURCH!!!

We will be prepared for Jesus to come, and part of that preparation is becoming good stewards of His finances! God never calls that He doesn't provide.

He has called us to be good stewards, and in these last days,

He is going to pour out a flood of His financial provision for His children!

Begin to prepare yourself now.

Remember,

His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things...

(Matthew 25:21)

We must show ourselves faithful in those things God already has entrusted to us before we will be made ruler over many things.

God has entrusted you with your finances—no matter how small or large—for one purpose: to give you the chance to be faithful and receive more.

Be faithful with the finances you now have. Be faithful to give tithes and offerings unto the Lord with what you have, and God's Word said He will be faithful to increase you.

Your blessing is coming!—The moment you release your gift in the envelope enclosed expect a supernatural harvest.

I have shared with you a dream... A revelation... And a visitation from God.

Now, I ask you, are you ready to step into your end time destiny?

Faith is a fact... But faith is an act.

God did not have me release this dream, this revelation, this visitation to you by accident.

IT IS FOR A DIVINE PURPOSE!

Take the Mission To All The World Seed Power envelope I have enclosed with this book in your hand right now and sow the biggest financial gift you can for Mission To All The World to fulfill the Great Commission of Christ:

...Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

(Mark 16:15)

I have never done this before with any book I have written, but God has shown me you must take a step of faith—right now—while the message is FRESH. Put your faith to work and activate the promise of God:

But thou shalt remember the LORD thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he sware unto thy fathers, as it is this day.

(Deuteronomy 8:18)

God wants to use your act of faith to establish His covenant with you right now!

RECEIVE GOD'S HUNDREDFOLD BLESSING

As we come to the end of this financial breakthrough teaching, How me to briefly share with you an incredible financial revelation from the Scriptures that will spiritually position you to step into your end time financial destiny and take part in this last great wealth transfer that even now God is pouring out upon His Church.

This new revelation which God gave me as I was in the midst of preparing this book, comes from the parable Jesus taught to his disciples concerning the sower and the seed. Let's go to Matthew 3:3-9 now:

And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow;

1. And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:

2. Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth: And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

3. And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them: But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

First notice that Jesus deals with three failures here:

1. When the birds came and ate up the seed, that was failure number one.
2. When the plant withered away, that was failure number two.
3. When the thistles choked the seed, that was failure number three.

In this illustration, and in this parable up until this moment, Jesus is talking about farming natural seed. He's talking about agriculture. Three failures, and then, finally, the farmer gets it right and he sows the seed again and it falls now into good ground. This is the beginning of the key to your financial breakthrough.

Now, notice what Jesus said in verse nine, "who hath an ear, let him hear!"

Later in this same chapter, when He and the disciples were alone, Jesus repeats the parable, only this time, it no longer deals with natural agriculture, it now is the supernatural Word of God!

A supernatural event takes place. The farm seed becomes the Word of God seed.

Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

1. When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

2. But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it; Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

3. He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth he word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful...

But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth he word, and understandeth it; which also heareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

(Matthew 13:18-23)

Again, we have three spiritual failures:

1. When the seed falls by the wayside and Satan takes it, it's lost. Failure number one.
2. Some falls on stony ground and it is lost, choked, parched because there's no depth. Failure number two.
3. The seed is sown among thorns. Failure number three.

Each time, failure is preceded by the hearing of the Word of God.

But after these three failures, the sower gets it right and sows the seed into good ground! Something supernatural begins to happen and all of a sudden reaps a thityfold, sixtyfold and hundredfold harvest!

Did you know that harvests are not natural? No farmer would ant a bushel of corn only to reap a bushel of corn.

NO! He plants a bushel of corn to reap acres of corn! Harvests are supernatural!

Our spiritual destiny is to inherit, to reap, to harvest, the wealth of the wicked! (Proverbs 13:22)

God gives power to our seed to reap mega-superabundant harvest time levels. The seed you sow doesn't just yield according to what you have planted. It yields according to the power God gives the seed you have planted, thirtyfold, sixtyfold, a hundredfold!

God's blessing is not just a number, it's a super, mega-abundant blessing the likes of which you don't even have the power to contain!

Up until a few months ago, I thought, like most people, that hundredfold blessing was 100 times what was sown.

But God clearly showed me—just in time to put this revelation in this book for you—that in the parable, Jesus went from thirtyfold to sixtyfold.

But then Jesus didn't do what would be the numerically-correct thing to do. Ninetyfold would have been the next logical number for Jesus to have cited.

But instead, he went to the hundredfold blessing—which God showed me is his VERY BEST!

The word used in this text for 100-fold does not actually mean 100 times what is sown, but "the greatest return possible." When God gives you a hundredfold return, he is literally giving you the very best He has available!

God showed me you cannot put a numerical formula to figure out God's best for you!

If you sow your best, God is not going to just put that number in a calculator and give you one hundred-times whatever you gave—instead, He will give his VERY BEST, super, mega-abundant blessing when you give your best!

This is the mystery of the one hundredfold blessing: Sow your best and reap the best God has!

In Romans 12:1, Paul says that presenting our bodies to God, which is our best, is just "reasonable service." But when we fulfill our "reasonable service" to God, He, in turn, gives us His very best. And God's best far surpasses our "reasonable." Get ready to experience God's best!

When God begins pouring out His end time blessing upon you through the end time wealth transfer, He will give you His best if you have given Him your best.

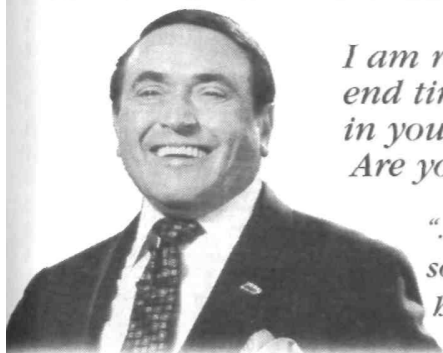

If His best is 1,000-times what you gave, that's what He will give. If His best is 100,000-times what you gave, that's what He will give you.

If God's best is 1,000,000-times what you gave or more, THAT'S WHAT GOD WILL POUR OUT TO YOU!

When you give your best, expect the hundredfold blessing—GOD'S BEST!

Are you ready for the Hundredfold Blessings!

SOW A SEED FOR YOUR BLESSING!

I am ready for the release of God's end time financial breakthrough in your life.

Are you ready to receive it?

"...Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper."
